MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

START

DULUTH HERALD

MAR 1 1916 THRU MAR 31 1916

Title: Duluth HERALD

33:281 - 33:307

Inclusive Dates: Mar 1 1916 — Mar 31 1916

Damaged Issue: Mar 1

211--1-1982

Originals held by: MHS x Other ___

Prepared by:	Date:	Format:
Aykens 10	Jan 20 1982	1A x 2B ___
Filmed by:	Date:	Camera No.
Aykens	Feb 1 1982	Yellow 7
Reduction Ratio:	Voltmeter	No. Expos.
14	.24 | 86
Prelim. Inspection by:	Date:	Density:
Target Resolution: ___/mm	O.K. ___ Reject ___	Length:

The Minnesota Historical Society has reproduced the material in this microfilm without any purpose of direct or indirect commercial advantage in order to preserve & to secure it for private study, scholarship, and research.

The material reproduced may be protected by copyright law. Any person engaging in further reproduction of this material may be liable for infringement.

MICROCOPY RESOLUTION TEST CHART
NATIONAL BUREAU OF STANDARDS 1963-A

LAST EDITION

THE DULUTH HERALD

20 PAGES

VOLUME XXXIII—NO. 281. WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 1, 1916. TWO CENTS.

80667

Minn Historical Society D H

MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

PRESIDENT TO TAKE NO FURTHER STEPS WITH GERMANY UNTIL CERTAIN CONGRESS WILL SUPPORT HIS ACTION

LULL IN FIGHTING AT VERDUN

FRENCH HALT ADVANCE OF THE GERMANS

Suspension of Battle Extends Virtually Along the Entire Front.

Opinion at Entente Capitals Divided as to Significance of Stop.

Official Statement From Berlin Does Not Mention Verdun.

London, March 1.—The German offensive against Verdun, which had brought the crown prince's armies up to the inner line of French defenses, has halted there, according to today's official statement from Paris.

The lull which yesterday gave signs of setting in now extends along virtually the entire front, where the desperate struggles of the past week and more have been going on. There are no important developments at any point during the night, the French war office reports.

Unofficial commentators in Entente capitals admit themselves at a loss to determine as yet whether the German drive has spent its force or whether the pause is simply the prelude to its renewal before the hard-won positions of Verdun or elsewhere on the front.

Significant Movement.

Possibly significant in this connection is the French official statement that there are signs of German preparation behind the front west of Pont-a-mousson, eighteen miles southwest of Metz and in the Moselle river region. The French guns have been pounding the second and third line German positions here, while an intermittent bombardment has been going on at various points between Regnieville and

(Continued on page 10, second column.)

...VE CLAIM TITLE TO ...ONTENEGRIN THRONE

...ince, General and Three Ministers Make Declaration.

...ondon, March 1.—Reuter's correspondent at Amsterdam sends the following:

'A Vienna dispatch states that Prince ...ko of Montenegro, second son of ...g Nicholas; Gen. Vukotitch and ...isters Redulovitch, Popovitch and ...sovitch have published through the ...stro-Hungarian government a declaration claiming the title of a royal ...vernment.

'This declaration is in reply to that ...ued by King Nicholas of Montenegro Feb. 11 ordering Montenegrins to ...ntinue the struggle. The prince and ...s adherents reiterate their assertions regarding an armistice for peace ...erseas and declare that the sudden ...parture of the king to Italy induced ...em to continue and conclude negotiations by which Montenegro was ...ved from final destruction.'

...URY CLEARS FOUR MINERS

...erdict of Not Guilty Returned in Walsenburg Case.

...en Charged With Killing Major Lester in 1914.

...Castle Rock, Colo., March 1.—A verdict of not guilty was returned by a jury last night in the case of four former striking coal miners charged with murder in connection with the killing April 29, 1914, of Major P. P. Lester, during a coal strike disorders near Walsenburg, Colo. The jury deliberated two and one-half hours.

The defendants, Enoch Miller, Mickle Salvage, Arthur Quinn and Fred Garcia, received the verdict without emotion.

Judge J. H. Denison, before the verdict was returned, cautioned the spectators to refrain from any demonstration. The court attendants and spectators immediately left the room, and outside a demonstration took place in which the defendants were cheered.

Disorders Reviewed.

Strike disorders from the burning of the strikers' tent colony at Ludlow,

(Continued on page 10, first column.)

J. L. BILLARD PAYS BACK $1,250,000 TO NEW HAVEN AND SUIT IS DROPPED

Profits Alleged to Have Been Made in Boston & Maine Deal.

Declared Billard Acted for the New Haven and Deal Was Fictitious.

Mellen and Robbins Share in Payment of Settlement Money.

New York, March 1.—The suit brought by the present administration of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad to recover from John L. Billard of Meriden, Conn., profits alleged to have been due the New Haven in the deal in which the New Haven purchased shares of Boston & Maine stock seven years ago has been settled, it was announced at the New Haven offices today. Billard has paid the New Haven $1,250,000, it was stated.

Among other defendants in the Billard suit who share in the payment of the settlement money were Charles S. Mellen, former president, and Edward D. Robbins, former general counsel of the New Haven.

Billard, a coal dealer, purchased from the New Haven in 1908, during the administration of Mr. Mellen, 119,000 shares of Boston & Maine stock at $125 and sold it back a year later at $150. It was alleged that Billard was acting in the interests of the New Haven and that the deal was a fictitious transaction. The New Haven at that time was forbidden by the Massachusetts laws to own the Boston & Maine and it was charged that Billard assumed title to the stock to enable the New Haven to inform the Massa-

(Continued on page 10, second column.)

SALARY SCANDAL TO GO BEFORE COUNCIL

Whole Matter to Be Discussed at Length By Chicago Solons.

Chicago, March 1.—The split salary scandal precipitated by Mrs. Page Waller Eaton's charges against Mrs. Louise Osborne Rowe will be given a hearing by the city council tonight and it is expected the whole subject of the charges will be gone over.

There will be majority and minority reports offered by the council committee which heard the charges. The minority report will demand that Mrs. Rowe be dismissed from her position as head of the department of public welfare. Both reports contain recommendations for grand jury action.

The hearing before the civil service commission will not be resumed until Friday, when a number of witnesses, charged by Mrs. Rowe's attorney with being parties to a conspiracy to discredit Mrs. Rowe, will be examined.

Mrs. Eaton's attorney has declared absurd the charge that there was a conspiracy.

PERFECTING BIG GUN TO BOMBARD ENGLAND

Krupp Works Making One to Throw Shells From the Continent.

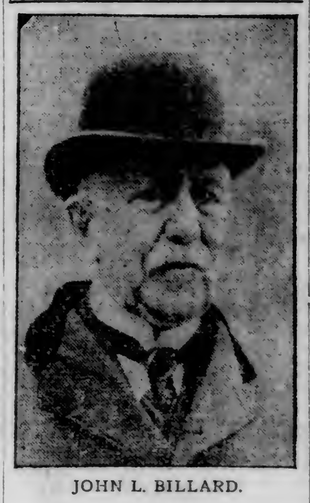
Berlin, via London, March 1.—Artillery so large and powerful that it will be possible to bombard England from the continent, is the certain product of the near future, according to Prof. Fritz Rausenberger, codirector of the Krupp works and inventor of the famous 42-centimeter guns, in an interview with the correspondent of the Tageblatt. Prof. Rausenberger declares that the day of the flat trajectory pieces is past, and that mortars and vertical shooting artillery will be increasingly demanded.

This is because the nature of modern warfare has almost done away with the necessity for shooting horizontally, it being possible to reach horizontal trench lines only by shots from cannon shooting vertically.

MONTREAL STATION DESTROYED BY FIRE

Montreal, March 1.—The Bonaventure station of the Grand Trunk railroad was destroyed by fire today at a loss estimated at $300,000. The police declared that a preliminary investigation indicated that the fire was caused by crossed electric wires, but fire department officials said they have reason to believe the building was destroyed as a result of an enemy plot. The structure was an old one and largely constructed of wood.

FORMER DIRECTOR OF NEW HAVEN PAYS BACK $1,250,000 TO ROAD



JOHN L. BILLARD.

TWELVE BIG LINERS IN OR NEAR WAR ZONE

None of Ocean Liners Believed to Be Armed With Guns.

New York, March 1.—The scheduled opening of the new submarine campaign of the Teutonic powers, which was set for today, finds twelve big liners in or near the war zone, in which the Austrian and German undersea boats are operating.

The liners are: Cretic, White Star line; Italia, Italian line; Taormina, Italian line; Lafayette, French line; Philadelphia, American line; Finland, In American line service; Bergensfjord, Norweglan-American line; America, Italian line; Patria, Fabre line; Pannonia, Cunard line, and the Ioannina and Vasilefs Constantinos of the Greek line.

None of these vessels is believed to be armed unless they have mounted guns at sea.

"GUILTY" IS VERDICT OF RICHESON JURY; COURT URGED TO BE LENIENT

Verdict Is Returned After Deliberation of Twenty-One Hours.

New Trial Will Be Sought and Appeal Taken If Denied.

"Sorry You Couldn't See It My Way," Prisoner Tells Jury.

"Guilty" was the verdict returned at noon today by the district court jury which tried Walter J. Richeson on a charge of having misappropriated funds entrusted to his keeping while officiating as deputy clerk of the Duluth municipal court.

Accompanying the verdict was the jury's plea for clemency. Each of the twelve jurors signed his name to recommendations for mercy and leniency.

Richeson showed no emotion when the verdict was read. His attorney, Walter F. Dacey, called for a formal roll call on the vote for conviction and each of the jurymen was called upon to announce his decision that the defendant was guilty.

After the verdict had been received, Richeson walked over to one of the jurors and shook hands with him. "I'm sorry boys, that you couldn't see it my

(Continued on page 10, fifth column.)

BREAD LINE FOR WILD ANIMALS IN BIG PARK

Thousands Feed at Spots Where Food Is Placed By Government.

San Francisco, Cal., March 1.—Thousands of wild animals in the government reserve of Yellowstone National park are being kept alive this winter by a government bread line, because heavy snows have cut off their natural food sources, according to a statement of T. J. Stateler, a local railroad official. It is a common sight, Stateler says, to see great numbers of elk, antelope, deer, mountain sheep and many kinds of birds feeding together at spots where forage is distributed by federal agents.

CAN LIVE BUT FEW DAYS LONGER IS VERDICT OF HIS PHYSICIANS

JAMES B. ANGELL.

Ann Arbor, Mich., March 1.—The condition of Dr. James B. Angell, aged president emeritus of the University of Michigan, who has been ill for several weeks, became critical today. His physicians announced he may live several days longer but they practically have abandoned hope of his recovery.

Dr. Angell has been in frail health for the past year but recently suffered a general breakdown. He is said to be almost blind.

FORD DELEGATE IS DRIVEN FROM BERLIN

Lochner Ordered to Quit Germany and Never Return.

London, March 1.—A dispatch to the Morning Post from Stockholm says that Luis P. Lochner, general secretary of the Ford peace mission, who has arrived in Stockholm from Switzerland with the Swiss delegates, declares that he was virtually expelled from Germany. After having spent three days in Berlin, Mr. Lochner is quoted as saying he was ordered to leave the country and never return.

POLITICAL SNOW-SHOEING.

80667

ASKS DEMONSTRATION OF UNITY TO CONVINCE GERMAN GOVERNMENT

Armed Ship Agitation to Be Brought to a Vote at Once; Leaders Confident of Defeating All Opposition.

President Desires Quick Action Although Situation Is No More Serious Than for Several Weeks.

Washington, March 1.—Germany's latest assurances on the conduct of submarine warfare, presented Monday by Count Bernstorff to Secretary Lansing, are not so broad as the United States desires, but it is indicated no further steps will be taken by this government until the administration is certain its action will not be embarrassed in congress.

The assurances reiterated in the latest communication are regarded as not so complete as those originally given as the result of the Lusitania negotiations and it was indicated today that the pending Lusitania agreement would not be finally accepted as satisfactory at this time.

House leaders today drafted for consideration of the house a measure proposing that congress express its confidence in the president's handling the armed merchantmen controversy and recognize that it is not a matter of legislative but of executive concern.

Officials were represented as feeling that if the German government's the position that it could modify or change the first assurances at all, as there was nothing to prevent any attempt to change the latest assurances and they do not intend to agree to such procedure.

Officials expect the administration will find itself in a position to continue negotiations within a few days.

Asks Demonstration of Unity.

At an early conference at the White House today President Wilson and administration leaders made plans for bringing the armed ship agitation in congress to an end at once by a demonstration of unity, to convince Germany that the American people stands behind the foreign policy of the government.

President Wilson reiterated to administration leaders that while dissensions in the American congress over the question of warning Americans not to travel on the armed ships of the European belligerents were being made "Industrial use of in foreign capitals" and were pictured as evidence that the country does not support the president, that stand for the observance of the laws of nations and humanity, his negotiations with Germany are embarrassed and the fact cannot be continued.

Confident of Victory.

Confident that they can beat all anti-administration resolutions by a heavy vote, the president and the leaders have framed plans to bring them out first on the floor of the house, where they plan to defeat them and put through a vote of confidence in the president.

Chairmen Stone and Flood of the senate and house committees, dealing with foreign affairs, and Senator Kern, the Democratic floor leader, were present at the opening of this morning's conference.

After the conference had been in progress for an hour, Speaker Clark and Majority Leader Kitchin of the house were summoned to join the conference. An effort was being made to decide on the form of action congress should take.

Made Clear by President.

President Wilson made it clear that he did not want a vote on a resolu-

(Continued on page 10, third column.)

BRITISH SHIP SENT DOWN

Thornaby Reported Sunk With All on Board Lost.

Censorship Prevents Transmission of Time or Details of Loss.

London, March 1.—The British steamship Thornaby is reported to have been sunk, all the members of the crew having been killed or drowned.

The Thornaby was owned in West Hartlepool, Eng. Her gross tonnage was 1,782. She was built in 1889 and was 258 feet long. The Thornaby sailed on Jan. 19 from Sunderland, Eng., for Palermo.

Although the British censorship prevents transmission of details concerning the reported sinking of the Thornaby, the reference to the members of the crew having been killed or drowned indicates she was sunk by a mine or a torpedo.

The German and Austrian decrees regarding the sinking of armed merchantmen without warning went into effect at midnight. The Thornaby is the first vessel whose sinking has been reported since the orders became operative, but the London dispatch does not indicate whether she was armed or whether she was sunk before or after the opening of the month.

REINSTATE MEN WHO INSPECTED EASTLAND

Action Taken After Men Are Exonerated By Federal Court.

Washington, March 1.—Secretary Redfield today reinstated Robert Reid and Charles C. Eckliff, suspended as steamboat inspectors after their indictment in Chicago for negligence in connection with the Eastland disaster. His action was based on the inspectors' exoneration of culpability by the Federal court at Grand Rapids, which dismissed indictments against six men accused in connection with the tragedy.

Indictments still are pending in the Illinois state courts against the four others indicted with Reid and Eckliff, but the two inspectors never were indicted by the state. The other four men are officers of the company that operated the Eastland and officers of the vessel itself.

Mr. Redfield transmitted to Speaker Clark today a transcript of the court's opinion to complete the record of the department's action in the Eastland case.

RETURNED SOLDIERS TO BE SETTLED ON LAND

Sydney, N. S. W., March 1, via London.—The New South Wales government has approved a comprehensive scheme for settling returned soldiers on the land. Steps already have been taken to survey suitable crown lands and proposals have been made to make advances to each settler up to £500 sterling, for improvements and the purchase of stock and farming implements.

BOTH SIDES SEE VICTORY

Chicago Mayor's Followers and Opponents Claim Success.

Sullivan Faction of Democrats Wins Over Harrison Men.

Chicago, March 1.—Both administration and anti-administration men claimed victory today after analyzing the vote at the aldermanic primaries yesterday. Mayor Thompson pointed to a total of twenty-seven Republican aldermanic nominations supported by him as evidence of victory and the anti-administration forces based their claim of success on the fact that seven of the "rebel nine" aldermen [illegible] Thompson's principal antagonists were defeated, had been renominated. Mayor Thompson lost his home ward, the Twenty-third, by 2,500. Fred Lundin, the mayor's chief political adviser, carried his ward, the Thirty-third, by 3,200.

In the Seventh ward, Springfield, and the home of Charles E. Merriam, anti-administration [illegible] John N. Kimball was [illegible] the face of the returns.

(Continued on page 10.)

DEFECTIVE PAGE

DESIRE ANDRIST TO MAKE TRIP TO RUSSIA

St. Paul, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—C. M. Andrist, private secretary to Governor Burnquist, has been requested by the American Red Cross society to arrange to go to Russia as a representative of the society to investigate the German prison camps in that country. Mr. Andrist has taken the proposition under consideration.

Edward Devine of the New York Associated Charities is now en route to Berlin, where he hopes to obtain the approval of the Russian government to make the investigation. Mr. Devine will require a number of aids and the name of Mr. Andrist was suggested to the society.

Thirteen Killed By Avalanche.

Berlin, March 1, wireless to Sayville.—Dispatches from Innsbruck say that thirteen persons were killed by an avalanche in Stelvio pass, on the borders of Tyrol and Italy.

Weather—Unsettled and Thursday cold.

TALE OF TWO JOBS!

You've your own job to attend to. So why try to be a hat expert?

Why worry about the important qualities of felt, band, binding, leather, correct blocking, top-notch style?

That's our job—and that of the famous Fifth Ave. experts who make our

KNOX HATS

The best your money can buy.

Oak Hall Clothing Co.
Oak Hall Building

Columbia Grafonola
Note the Name

COLUMBIA GRAFONOLA!

The Choice of Musicians

...ew No. 6 Reproducer and Violin Tone Chamber. The only instrument that will reproduce a true tone.

EDMONT

...8 THIRD AVENUE WEST

Good Shoes

For Boys and Girls!

Our children's shoes are made for comfort, style and wear.

Girls' and misses' patent leather, vici kid or gun metal calf at $1.00 to $3.00.

Boys' and young men's gun metal calf, $1.00 to $3.00.

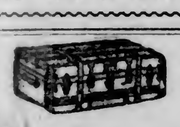
Sorensen Shoe Stores

$2.50 $3.00 $3.50 $4.00
MAIL ORDERS—SEND FOR STYLE BOOK
ST. PAUL—MINNEAPOLIS—DULUTH.
123 West Superior Street



Trunks and Traveling Bags
...RY DESCRIPTION.
...h Trunk Co.
...r Street, 220 West

FEBRUARY WAS BANNER MONTH

Pupils' Savings Accounts Make Gain of 50 Per Cent.

Thirty-Five Schools Are Represented With 10,196 Depositors.

A 50 per cent increase in school savings during February, as compared with February, 1915, was shown by the monthly report, made public today. It is the largest increase for any corresponding month since the system of having school children save their pennies was begun.

During the month deposits from thirty-five schools, including four Catholic institutions, amounted to $3,625.58, compared with $2,578.61 during February, 1915. In all, the report shows there were 10,196 deposits received by bank officials when they visited the different buildings.

The Jackson and Irving schools are leading the list, the former having $394.65 to its credit and the latter $381.18. The Irving has made an excellent record, having more than tripled the amount which was on deposit to its credit in February, 1915. The Stowe school in West Duluth has $184.87 to its credit, although pupils there did not start saving until November, 1915. At the Morgan Park school, started the same month, bank officials have collected $80.12.

The record, showing the sum saved at each school, follows:

	Feb. 1915.	Feb. 1916.	Number of Deposits.
Adams	$ 136.19	$ 76.52	441
Brothers	8.29	0.15	3
Cathedral	27.99	54.73	138
Cobb	28.11	29.13	97
Ely	90.53	157.03	349
Emerson	140.70	75.84	417
Endion	197.39	209.28	388
Ensign	108.99	91.39	281
Fairmount	61.95	85.10	517
Fond du Lac, (started Jan. 1916)	..	54.83	91
Franklin	139.33	181.78	890
Irving	31.41	381.18	772
Jackson	251.49	394.65	765
Jefferson	146.17	136.10	283
Lakeside	159.80	105.06	331
Lester Park	66.56	83.53	276
Lincoln	87.58	164.10	419
Longfellow	93.38	142.98	321
Lowell	67.13	65.46	194
Madison	27.78	41.88	71
Merritt	67.37	81.97	240
Monroe	92.15	90.72	210
Morgan Park (started Nov. 1915)		90.12	174
Munger	93.97	102.75	477
Nettleton	46.47	69.74	289
Oneota	19.01	9.88	50
Raddison	13.81	14.63	42
Salter	37.10	87.98	218
Stowe (started Nov. 1915)		184.87	253
St. Clements	13.69	6.38	29
St. Jean de Baptiste	6.84	18.44	123
Washburn	35.75	35.83	105
Washington	154.18	196.00	514
Webster	16.43	47.10	151
Whittier	61.41	66.45	131
	$2,578.61	$3,625.58	10,196

LITTLE CRIME IN FEBRUARY

But Police Were Kept Busy With Numerous Petty Offenses.

Despite the fact that February is usually a quiet month of the year in police circles, 471 persons were arrested during the month ending at midnight last night, according to reports at headquarters today.

This total shows that the month was one of the busiest Februarys in the history of the department. In February, 1914, but 399 arrests were recorded, while in February, 1913, there were 435. In 1912 there were 385.

One of the features of the month's activity in police circles was the paucity of serious offenses. Gross misdemeanors and felonies were few, as police records show that it was necessary for judges of municipal court to hold comparatively few prisoners for grand jury action.

"It was a prosperous month," said Chief R. D. McKercher. "Jobs are plentiful and nearly everybody has money. That's why there was so much drunkenness. The 'arrest' column is a good indication of business conditions."

Better conditions in the rooming house and cheap hotel district prevail now, the report indicates. Twenty-two women were arrested, and half of them were for drunkenness. Disorderly conduct was scarce among female offenders.

At headquarters the blotter showed 419 men and 20 women, while West end officers contributed 35 men and one woman. West Duluth arrests numbered twenty-two, including one woman, and at New Duluth there were only nine arrests.

The New Duluth "blotter" was about half as long as that for January, showing that the percentage of unemployed men is small, and that officers are having less trouble in consequence.

WISCONSIN TO HAVE BABY WEEK CAMPAIGN

Organized Effort to Emphasize the Child Welfare Problem.

Madison, Wis., March 1.—The baby week campaign, to open next Friday, has aroused a far greater response throughout Wisconsin than club women and health authorities had predicted. From every county in the state reports have come of organized campaigns to emphasize child welfare problems and publicly point out avenues of improvement. In a statement by the state health department this week the permanency of the movement is upheld as most desirable.

"The nation-wide campaign emphasizing the need of more intelligent care of our baby population before birth, as well as after birth, is no passing fad to be talked about for a few days and then forgotten," says the department. "Our statistics of births and deaths, which have been available for study in this state for only a few years, prove conclusively the magnitude of our infant mortality problem.

"In Wisconsin for the population as a whole, which includes children under 1 year of age, the general death rate is less than 12 per 1,000, while the lowest rate for children under 1 year during the last seven years is 80.5 per 1,000 infant population. The average infant death rate, therefore, is more than seven times that of the entire population, including infants."

Best Ever for Coughs Sore Throat, Hoarseness

Just the minute you start to cough, or your throat tickles or is sore, get a 25 cent bottle of

Dr. Bull's COUGH SYRUP

Its soothing action is felt at once and relief comes promptly. Many mothers recommend it for childrens' croup and whooping cough. 20,624,246 bottles sold.

FREE TEST Write to A. C. Meyer & Co. Mention paper. Balto., Md.

STATEMENT OF THE CIRCULATION OF THE DULUTH HERALD FOR THE MONTH OF FEBRUARY

MEMBER OF THE AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS.

Date	Copies	Date	Copies
1	30,513	16	30,970
2	30,653	17	30,931
3	30,668	18	30,911
4	30,846	19	32,275
5	32,183	20	Sunday
6	Sunday	21	30,925
7	30,702	22	30,789
8	30,835	23	31,031
9	30,701	24	30,918
10	30,677	25	30,935
11	30,699	26	32,468
12	32,125	27	Sunday
13	Sunday	28	30,980
14	30,851	29	30,930
15	30,829

Total for Month.....776,345
Less Returns and Allowances.....2,148
Total Copies Sold.....774,197
Daily Average Sold.....30,968
Saturday Average Sold.....32,177

All "exchanges," copies used by employes, unsold and returned papers are deducted in determining the net paid circulation.

The above is a true and correct record of the actual paid circulation of The Duluth Herald for the month of February, 1916.

WM. F. HENRY,
Business and Advertising Manager.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 1st day of March, 1916.

T. N. ALLEN,
(Seal.) Notary Public, St. Louis County, Minnesota.
My commission expires April 1st, 1922.

UP! UP! UP!

The circulation of The Herald continues to show a steady, healthy gain year after year without the false stimulation of voting or guessing contests or premium schemes of any nature.

HERE ARE THE FIGURES:

February, 1910--25,890	February, 1913--27,587
February, 1911--26,902	February, 1914--29,320
February, 1912--27,293	February, 1915--30,237

FEBRUARY, 1916.....30,968

MADE CAPTAIN FOR THIRD TIME

John W. Walsh, veteran fire-fighter, who has seen twenty-six years of service in Duluth's fire department, began his duties as captain of No. 3 engine company, Third street and First avenue east, at 7 o'clock this morning.

Chief Joseph Randall announced yesterday that Lieut. Walsh had been promoted to captaincy. It is the third time in Capt. Walsh's career as a fireman that he has held the title of captain.

On Aug. 1, 1891, he was promoted to the captaincy of No. 1 engine company, but three years later political changes brought a shift in positions. On Oct. 1, 1899, he was again promoted to captaincy, this time being in charge of engine company No. 2. He held that position until May 1, 1910, when he resigned. Returning to the department a year after resigning, he worked up again from pipeman.

CAPT. JOHN W. WALSH.

Lieut. Henry S. Nelson of engine company No. 2 was transfered to engine company No. 3 this morning, and Pipeman Otto Seevers of engine company No. 2 became lieutenant at that house.

PROTECTIVE TARIFF TO HEAL AMERICA

Thomas Dixon Tells Kentucky Republicans It Is a Necessity.

Louisville, Ky., March 1.—"Even as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness so shall the protective tariff be lifted up in America if this nation would be healer," declared Thomas B. Dixon of Scottsville, in his address as temporary chairman of the Republican state convention here today. Republican administrations were continuous marches of progress and periods of prosperity, he asserted, from 1896 to 1902, when "the people clamored for a change—and got it. They clamored for some way to reduce the cost of living; now they are clamoring for some way to produce the cost of living." Their slogan, he said, should be "protection" until a protective tariff is restored.

"We will be the richest country in the world," he said, "but the least respected. All other nations will be the best armed, the best drilled, the most desperate and the most needy. The American nation should prepare for this awful hour, and I warn you that to meet it properly and to settle it safely will require the highest order of intelligence, statesmanship and courage that this nation has ever been called upon to display.

"What we all want," said Mr. Dixon in conclusion, "is a return to the principles of 'safety first' and old-time Republican prosperity."

LODGE PLANS DANCE AND BANQUET FOR GRAND OFFICERS

Plans for a dancing party to be given on March 14 and the entertainment of grand officers of the lodge to be held on March 28 were made last night at the annual banquet of officers of Duluth council, No. 1483, Royal Arcanum, at the St. Louis hotel. Special arrangements will be made to furnish a good program on the latter night in compliment to the grand officers.

Among the speakers at the banquet were H. C. Gravatt, Paul Thompson, Benjamin Schauer, William Petty, Clinton Brooke and George R. Reed. Others present were W. R. Peer, Douglas C. Moore, E. E. Burns, Archie Hayes, W. R. Cameron, C. M. Ten Brook and M. M. Thoren.

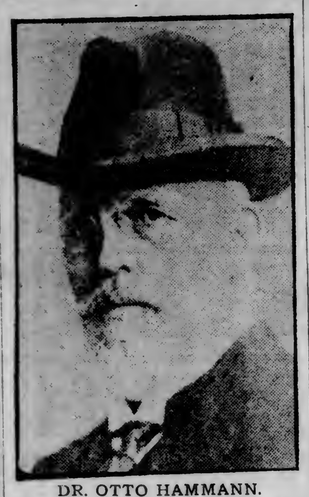
Alimony For Mrs. Wright.

Chicago, March 1.—An alimony settlement of $1,500 was allowed to Mrs. Edith M. Wright in the circuit court today when the court granted her a decree of divorce from Alfred H. Wright, a wealthy Wisconsin lumberman. The money is paid to Mrs. Wright in consideration of her releasing his property in Morrill, Wis., and Seattle by a quit claim deed. The Wrights were married in Tacoma, Dec. 31, 1910.

La Follette to Continue Later.

Madison, Wis., March 1.—Preparing to return to Washington today, Senator La Follette said that he hoped to be back in the state within two weeks and would then continue his speaking campaign in Wisconsin. He declared that practically all of the important matters would be out of the way in Washington for some time, and that the debates would then be continued on the "preparedness" program.

SAID TO BE ONE OF MOST POWERFUL MEN IN GERMANY



DR. OTTO HAMMANN.

One of the men with whom Col. House consulted while in Berlin was Dr. Otto Hammann of the foreign office—a man credited with possessing more power than Bethmann-Hollweg and von Jagow put together. He was editor of an anti-Jewish paper in Berlin for some years. In 1892 he entered the foreign office, where he has supervision of everything relating to press matters. He was Von Buelow's right-hand man and when Bethmann-Hollweg came into office, he found Hammann so closely in the confidence of the kaiser that he was regarded as his personal representative in the Wilhelmstrasse. He occupies somewhat the relation to the kaiser that Col. House does to President Wilson, though unlike the latter he holds public office. It is believed that any understanding concerning the relations of Germany to the United States reached during the visit of Col. House to Berlin was due to the interview between the colonel and Dr. Hammann.

SUSPICIOUS OF PICTURES

Canadian Secret Service Men Trace Kodac Films to Duluth.

Owner Also Took Pictures Here—Just Tourist, Photographer Thinks.

The Canadian government secret service is very suspicious of all photographs that are sent from Canada to the United States or from the United States to Canada. W R. Hallam of the Eclipse Photo Supply company of Duluth can testify to this fact.

Recently Canadian secret service men walked into the Eclipse office and demanded some pictures that had been left for development. The pictures were taken in Canada and brought to this country by a man who spent part of last summer here. Mr. Hallam declares the pictures were of factories, both interior and exterior views, and looked as if they might be pictures of munition factories.

"The same man that took the pictures in Canada took a number of pictures here," said Mr. Hallam today. "I am of the belief that he was simply a tourist. Here he took some views of the harbor, railroad terminals and other views that any ordinary tourist would take. But the pictures he took in Canada we were compelled to turn over to the Canadian secret service men. Whether they were tracing this man, I am unable to say. Whether they ever discovered him is another question that I cannot understand.

"We have sent a number of pictures to Canada. Practically all of these packages have been opened by the Canadian government. It is the same with pictures being sent out of Canada. All this leads one to believe that the Canadian secret service men are on the lookout for spies and are diligently trying to prevent secrets leaking out."

WORK ON BUILDING CODE IS BEGUN

Committees to Draft Electrical and General Features Hold Meetings.

Two sub-committees started work yesterday on drafting the proposed combined building, electrical and plumbing code.

Committee No. 8, which will draft the electrical section of the code, met yesterday afternoon at the general committee headquarters, 314 Palladio building, the members deciding to follow the national electrical code used as a basis by the National Board of Fire Underwriters. It was also decided to include the provisions of the examining rules as set down by the Minnesota statutes.

A. W. Lindgren, chairman of the sub-committee, presided at the meeting. The members present were: W. B. Getchell, William Burgess, A. Holstead, T. W. Hoopes, C. F. Colman and John Mork. Edward Semple, clerk for the general committee, acted as secretary.

Last evening Committee No. 3, which will draft the general provisions of the building code, met in the offices of its chairman, C. A. Graves, 318 Glencoe building. The general plan was outlined and the members decided to follow the provisions of the Chicago and Detroit building codes. The committee will draft that section of the code relating to walls, loadings, foundations, strength of materials, concrete, sand, steel and cement.

There are nine sub-committees and these will meet regularly from now, Mr. Simple announced this morning. The general committee will hold its regular weekly meeting this evening.

NUXATED IRON

$100.00 FORFEIT

increases strength of delicate, nervous, run-down people 200 per cent in ten days in many instances. $100 forfeit if it fails as per full explanation in large article soon to appear in this paper. Ask your doctor or druggist about it. Boyce Drug store always carries it in stock.

J. M. Gidding & Co.
Correct Dress for Women and Girls
Superior Street at First Avenue West
564, 566 and 568 Fifth Avenue, New York

INTRODUCING

NEW FASHIONS
Sounding the keynote of Russian-Spanish and Directoire Influences

Directing particular attention to models in MILLINERY and OUTER-WEAR, received daily through our New York Establishment.

J. M. Gidding & Co.
Correct Dress for Women and Girls
Superior Street at First Avenue West

Closing Prices on Winter Apparel

Winter Suits formerly $25 to $45 at $7.50
12 Suits for Women and Misses.

$19 to $35 Winter Coats at $5
30 Coats for final clearance.

$12 to $18 Sweater Coats at $5
14 Fine Angora Sweater Coats; all sizes.

$6 to $15 Girls' Winter Coats at $
20 Smart Coats for final clearance.

$6.75 to $7.50 Silk Waists at $3.
Smart styles in light and dark shades.

GRAND JURY IN SESSION

Judge Cant Presides at Call of the March Calendar.

Judge W. A. Cant presided this morning at the peremptory call of the calendar of civil actions at the opening of the March term of the district court. Of the 216 cases called, 184 were listed for trial, twelve were continued and ten were stricken.

The grand jury convened shortly before noon and after being sworn and charged as to its duty retired to begin its work. County Attorney Greene has about twenty cases to present to the inquisitorial body for its consideration.

John H. Darling was appointed by Judge Cant as foreman. The other grand jurors for the March term are:

L. K. Astell, 222 West Third street, civil engineer; George Backer, 309 East Third street, bookkeeper; James H. Cahill, 518 Twenty-fourth avenue west, clerk; John W. Day, 1426 East Th... street, president Duluth Electri... company; George J. Drolet, 1328 N... ty-ninth avenue west, contrac... Frank C. Deery, 313 Second ave... east, department manager, Glass B... store; Fred J. Edberg, 5509 Grand ...nue, contractor; George H. Ebert, Greysolon road, real estate agen... J. Edwards, 129 Devonshire ... state grain inspector; A. C. Gate... East Fifth street, department m...ger, George A. Gray & Co.; Joh... Gelin, 2220 West Sixth street, c... Harold Harris, 4140 Minnesota av... salesman; Andrew Hager, 814 ... avenue east, bricklayer; H. G. In... 29 Fifty-seventh avenue east, cas... Lewis A. Paddock, 711 East ... street, grocer.

Marquette Woman Dies.

Marquette, Mich., March 1.—Amable Vertifuille, aged 44, of city, died at St. Mary's hospital 28 after a short illness. Mrs. V... fuille leaves a husband, eight sons four daughters and one brother, ... Lavine, of Ashland, Wis. She had a resident of this city for two... seven years and was a member of St. Cecelia court, C. O. F.

Men Are Buying Better Shoes!

The Greatest Dollar for Dollar Values Is to Be Found in Stacy Adams Co.

"None But the Best."
$6.00, $6.50, $7.00

Also Wieland Handcraft or the Gitchee Gamee Northern Made at—

$4.00 and $5.00

Wieland Shoe Company
222 WEST FIRST STREET.

We Invite Your Inspection of the New Arrivals in Hart Schaffner & Marx

Spring Suits and Topcoats

John B. Stetson
Hats

Featuring the "Pace Maker" the most popular spring model.

Copeland & Ryder and O'Donnell Shoes.

Advance Showing New Spring Shirts.

Kenney-Anker Co.
409 and 411 West Superior Street

DEFECTIVE PAGE

Lessons in heating economy

Have you a home that will give you daily and nightly recuperation, so you can return vigorously to your business duties or rise to new ones? Associations of bankers are agreed that the business man or farmer should set aside part of the money he annually borrows and invest it in practical improvements for the home. A sanitary, cozily warmed house is the best insurance that the man is a good risk—that he will succeed.

"The surest loans we make are on radiator heated buildings. They are always so easily rentable and salable."

AMERICAN RADIATORS & IDEAL BOILERS

Bankers, builders, and real estate men all know the increase in property value and stability of investment where AMERICAN Radiators and IDEAL Boilers are installed and therefore gladly loan money to those who wish to make this improvement.

These outfits make property sell or rent quicker and at a profit. Every room in the house is heated with less care-taking than required to run one stove for one room, and millions of dollars have been saved in reduced fuel bills by the users of IDEAL-AMERICAN heating.

A No. 2-22-W IDEAL Boiler and 461 ft. of 38-in. AMERICAN Radiators, costing the owner $225, were used to heat this cottage. At this price the goods can be bought of any reputable, competent Fitter. This did not include cost of labor, pipe, valves, freight, etc., which are extra and vary according to climatic and other conditions.

The lasting heat that costs the least

The most important question to settle about an old or new building is the heating. IDEAL heating has answered this question for hundreds of thousands of house-owners for over twenty-five years, and as an investment it is permanent and will command a good price even after the owner has enjoyed its comfort and savings for many years.

A little larger first investment over cost of a cheap heating equipment can be quickly overcome by omitting extra inner doors, chimneys, mantels, storm sash, weather strips, etc. You might better increase your borrowing at the bank, for the fuel and other savings that IDEAL heating will give you will make money for you far beyond the bank interest you have to pay.

Send at once for our (free) book "Ideal Heating," which gives most valuable information. Puts you under no obligation to buy.

IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators change any house into a home.

ARCO WAND Vacuum Cleaner—a stationary, practical Cleaner. $150

We also make the ARCO WAND Vacuum Cleaner, connected by iron suction pipe to various floors of houses, flats, schools, churches, hotels, etc. Through a light-weight hose ALL the dirt, cobwebs, lint, threads, moths, etc., are drawn with lightning rapidity down the iron piping into big, sealed dust-bucket in cellar. No dragging around a clumsy, inefficient portable cleaner—instead you have a practical outfit that is a part of the building—like radiator heating. Ask for catalog (free).

No exclusive agents.
Sold by all dealers.

AMERICAN RADIATOR COMPANY

Write Department D-12
815-822 S. Michigan Ave.
Chicago

Public Showrooms at Chicago, New York, Boston, Worcester, Providence, Philadelphia, Washington, Baltimore, Buffalo, Rochester, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Detroit, Atlanta, Birmingham, New Orleans, Indianapolis, Milwaukee, Des Moines, Omaha, Minneapolis, St. Paul, St. Louis, Kansas City, Denver, Seattle, Portland, Spokane, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Toronto, Brantford, (Ont.), London, Paris, Brussels, Berlin, Cologne, Milan, Vienna.

Ideal Arco Boilers, American Radiators and Crane Plumbing Fixtures can be seen at our showroom, 8 and 10 East Michigan Street

CRANE & ORDWAY CO., DULUTH

ULTIMATUM BY AUDITOR

City Employes Must Qualify or Pay Will Be Stopped.

Stenographers in the employ of the city, who have not already qualified under civil service rules and who fail to take the civil service examination at the Central high school next Saturday morning and receive passing marks, will be refused their salaries in the future.

This warning has been issued by E. J. Campbell, city auditor, who declares that the charter provisions are specific in that regard and that he must refuse salary checks to those employes, who have not complied with the civil service regulations. He has notified all department heads and, as a result, several of the stenographers will take the examination Saturday.

Ruben Johnson, secretary of the civil service commission, said this morning that fourteen young women have made application for the examination for stenographers, while twenty men have applied for the police and eight for the firemen's examinations.

The examination Saturday morning at the high school is the first of the year and has been called in order to fill several vacancies in the city departments.

On Friday morning Health Director Fahey and Assistant Director Manley will conduct the physical tests for those who have applied for positions in the police and fire departments. Those who fail to pass this test will be prohibited from taking the mental examination the following day. An applicant must receive 75 per cent out of a possible 100 to pass the physical test. The 100 per cent is divided as follows:

Knowledge of birth and age	10
Habits	5
General appearance	15
Height	10
Weight	10
Chest	5
Abdomen	5
Chest expansion	5
Vision	5
Hearing	5
Heart	10
Lungs	5
Urine	10
	100

HOT CLOQUET GAME.

Bears Claim Moose Got Better of Decision of the Umpire.

Cloquet, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The most exciting indoor baseball game yet staged was played yesterday noon between the Moose and the Bears and was witnessed by a large crowd. The Moose kept a few runs in the lead all through the game until near the finish and the score stood 8 to 6 when the Bears came in for their last bat in the last inning. The Bears put one run across the plate and with only one out had men on second and third. The pitcher for the Moose delivered a ball to the batter, which the catcher fumbled, enabling the man on third to score what looked like the tying run. However, the umpire, in his effort to decide the scoring play at the plate, completely overlooked or failed to make a decision on the pitched ball. The batter claimed it was a strike, while another of his teammates called it a foul tip, in which case the runner could not score. The umpire thereupon ruled that the play should be made over again and sent the runner back to third, where he died, the next two batters going out in order, ending the game for the day 8 to 7 in favor of the Moose.

The Bears feel that but for the decision or indecision they would have won the game, or at least tied the score, while the Moose claim they do not want the game handed to them and have called it a tie game and arrangements have been made to finish or replay the game Saturday noon.

These two teams have been fighting for top place ever since the season began and much rivalry exists between them and an even more exciting contest than that of yesterday is promised for the play-off Saturday.

Club Presents Playlet.

The One More Effort club, an auxiliary of St. Mark's African M. E. church, gave a playlet, "A Cup of Coffee," and a musical entertainment at the church auditorium last evening. The church was filled to its capacity. Mrs. Joe Glenn took the part of Mrs. Ryan and was cleverly supported by Mrs. S. Coles, who had the part of an inquisitive domestic. "Italia" by Donezetti, was rendered by the club and assisted by the girls' choir. The soloists were Mrs. McCoy, Mrs. Helen Scott Bruce, and Mrs. Minnie Richey Adams. Rev. George Holt was the director. Supper was served in the dining room after the concert.

Silberstein & Bondy Company.

Sale Opportunities--Suits and Coats!

Suits--$5.00, $10.00, $15.00
Choice of Remaining Winter Suits.

Coats--$5.00, $7.50, $10.00
Choice of Remaining Winter Coats.

Waists--Main Floor Table

79c —On sale Thursday only—White Voile and Lingerie Waists—last of our regular lines, formerly up to $3.75.

$2.49 Crepe de Chine, Lace and Satin Waists formerly up to $6.75.

One Table of Furs
$1.95, $2.50, $5, $6, $10
Black Wolf, Blue Goat, Marmot, Fox, Persian and other desirable Muffs and Scarfs.

$15 and $17.50 Spring Dresses $9.75

Starting To-Morrow

A SALE of splendid new spring frocks—suitable for parties, dancing, afternoons and street wear—made of fine taffetas, velveteens—also new spring woolens—through a special purchase we can place these pretty spring dresses—real $15 and $17.50 values—on sale to-morrow at only..... $9.75

$3.50 New Charming Silk Blouses, in a sale at $1.98

Brand new Tub Silks with high or low collars; new Crepe de Chines, in pretty colors, as well as black and navy.

The Leiser Company
24 & 26 West Superior St.

LAST DAY FOR FILING RETURNS

Income Tax Payers Will Have Until Midnight to File.

Excellent progress in the filing of income tax returns was made today at the office of the deputy collector of internal revenue at the Duluth Federal building. Today is the last day returns can be filed without a penalty, and for the benefit of a few belated ones, the office will be kept open until midnight.

All persons who have had an income of $3,000 or more for the calendar year 1915, are required by the Federal law to file returns. In case of persons not married there is an exemption of $3,000 and in the case of married persons there is an exemption of $4,000, but the statements must be filed and the exemption claimed.

This year there is little confusion regarding the filing of returns, and it is expected that there will be few cases of delinquencies. Last year there were a large number who failed to file within the specified time and a penalty was exacted. Very few are expected to file after 6 o'clock today.

Duluthian Promoted.

Charles Skog, formerly employed as chief clerk in the local office of the Canadian Northern railway, yesterday received an appointment as contracting freight agent of the same road, with headquarters in Minneapolis. Mr. Skog left Duluth last night.

A. W. Johnson, formerly in the employ of the Northern Pacific and Omaha roads, has been appointed to the position left vacant by the promotion of Mr. Skog.

Left $5,000 for School Fund.

Eau Claire, Wis., Feb. 28.—Announcement was made here today of the bequest by the late Mrs. Thomas McDermott of this city of $5,000 to St. Patrick's congregation to start a school endowment fund. Mrs. McDermott was the widow of the late Thomas McDermott who was for many years a logger and lumberman in Wisconsin and Minnesota. They were married at Stillwater, Minn. in 1865.

TAXES DATES TO REGISTER VOTERS

hange in Days Made Necessary By Shifting of Primaries.

Registration days for voters in Duth, St. Paul and Minneapolis this ar will be June 5 and 12. This will for the primaries of June 19.

In line with the general movement ward preparedness, an opinion has en obtained from Attorney General aith this far ahead, so that there will no mistake.

No registration is required for the esidential primaries, which will take ace on March 14, it is announced; t the law as to registration for the mary election of June 19 was not ur; hence the request for an interpretation.

he general election law requires at registration days in cities of the rst class shall be nine weeks and ght days before general election day. his provision was made when the primary election was seven weeks before the general election day.

The 1913 legislature changed the primary day to the third Tuesday in June, without altering the registration day. The attorney general then held that the registration days automatically moved back to one and two weeks before the primary.

The 1915 legislature changed the primary day to the third Monday in June; and the attorney general now holds that the registration days are moved back again and will fall on Monday instead of Tuesday.

Throw Off Colds and Prevent Grip.
When you feel a cold coming on, take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE. It removes cause of Colds and Grip. Only One "BROMO QUININE." E. W. GROVE'S signature on box. 25c.

CLUB TO DEVELOP SPEAKING AT "Y"

Active Work Is Expected to Begin Tuesday, March 7.

A new club is being formed at the Y. M. C. A. Its purpose is to enlist young men who are interested in public speaking or debate, and to give them an adequate opportunity to learn and to practice.

The plan is to meet every Tuesday night for ten weeks. The first half hour will be devoted to the exposition of the principles of effective expression under the direction of Harvey Hoshour. Then will follow an hour of actual speaking or debating, as the club members prefer.

The club is open to every one interested in developing himself efficiently along this line, and work will be started as soon as a sufficient number have signed up for it. It is hoped that this will be done in time to begin Tuesday, March 7.

A. L. Turner or E. S. Wade at the Y. M. C. A. will give information regarding the club to anybody interested.

ESTABROOK OPENS HIS MINNESOTA CAMPAIGN

Minneapolis, Minn., March 1.—Henry D. Estabrook of New York, Republican presidential candidate, opening a series of campaign speeches in Minnesota, told the Civic and Commercial association here yesterday that he strongly approves of military preparedness for the United States and declared this country "should have the world's greatest navy."

Referring to President Wilson's "sudden change of attitude" on preparedness, Mr. Estabrook said he was "glad to see the president distinguished between a band wagon and a hearse."

LIBRARY CIRCULATION 20,000 IN JANUARY

About one person out of every five in Duluth was loaned a book by the public library in January according to the report issued by Miss Alice Gayford, assistant librarian. To be exact there were 19,279 books loaned during the month. The circulation was good despite the fact that some of the library branches were closed part of the time during that period.

The following table shows the distribution for the branches:

West Duluth, 2,800; West End, 2,924; Cobb school, 243; Emerson school, 80; Duluth Heights, 48; Fairmont school, 295; Kenwood, 54; Lakeside (one day) 12; Lester Park, 95; Morgan school, 122; Stowe school, 160; Lowell school, 26; Madison school, 33; Salter school, 225; Smithville, 25.

There were 390 cards issued to new subscribers, and $87.44 was collected for fines. Fiction comprised a large part of the books loaned, the number being 10,620.

As this is a time of year when the students write a large number of essays there was a good call for reference books.

FEW DRUGGISTS NOW SELL CASTOR OIL

While war may bring many hardships, it also is bringing joy—indirectly—to the youngsters. Few children these days are being forced to swallow a dose of castor oil—that most dreaded yet efficacious family cure-all having almost entirely disappeared from the shelves of the druggists. War—yes, war, is the cause.

According to a Duluth druggist, castor oil makes an excellent lubricant for motors, and the bulk of the production is now being used by the warring nations on the battlefields. Prices have been almost prohibitive for druggists for a long time, and some wholesalers have stopped making any quotations on the product. Cod liver oil also has advanced about 25 per cent in price. This is said to be caused by interference with Norwegian shipping.

BRYAN FOR WILSON, NEBRASKAN SAYS

Democratic State Chairman Returns From Visit to Florida.

Washington, March 1.—Former Secretary of State W. J. Bryan is for President Wilson's nomination. Bryan probably will be one of a solid Wilson delegation from Nebraska to the St. Louis convention. Bryan will not attempt to insert planks either on preparedness or the administration's diplomatic policy which would repudiate President Wilson's position. These statements were made here yesterday by Judge W. H. Thompson, Democratic state chairman of Nebraska. He has just had an extended visit with Bryan in Florida.

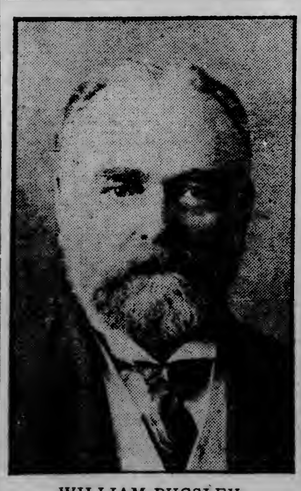
Captures Large Fox.

Lisbon, N. D., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Sportsmen in this section are interested in a large red fox which was captured about twenty miles south of here by Loyal McQuay. The animal weighs forty pounds, and is quite a curiosity in this section, as few foxes have been seen around the eastern half of the state, in recent years at least. McQuay had quite an exciting time with the animal.

WHY HAIR FALLS OUT

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub well into the scalp. After a few applications all dandruff disappears and the hair stops coming out.—Advertisement.

CREATES SENSATION BY CHARGES AGAINST CANADIAN COMMITTEE



WILLIAM PUGSLEY.

William Pugsley, a prominent member of the Canadian parliament, has created a sensation in the dominion by charging the recent shell committee with sundry misdeeds. This committee was organized six weeks after the war began to speed up the manufacture of munitions. It was composed of some of the biggest business men in Canada. The committee organized the munitions industry in rapid time and was commended highly for its excellent work. But now comes Mr. Pugsley, former member of the dominion cabinet, and charges that the members of the committee by favoritism and corruption have "brought shame to Canada." Among other things he charges that the committee made large awards at extravagant prices to firms to which committee members belonged.

Miller-Albenberg Co.

105-107 WEST SUPERIOR ST.

Just Fresh From Their Wrappings are These—

New Silk Dresses

The styles will delight you. Materials are Pussy Willow, Chiffon Taffeta, Crepe de Chine, Crepe Meteor, Georgette and many combinations of Taffeta and Serge, Georgette and Taffeta, Net, Lace, etc., reasonably priced—

$15 up to $39.50

GRANDMOTHER SAYS:

Horehound or thoroughwort tea for the fever—goose oil and turpentine to rub on for colds and soreness of lungs or throat were the remedies used fifty years ago.

Now newer remedies have taken the place of the old—a tablet of aspirin or a capsule of quinine for the fever without the old bitter tea—and Goosolene to rub on the chest or throat, instead of the old goose oil and turpentine, gives quick relief, for the congestion, soreness or pain.

For the little ones Baby Goos-olene is the best to use when they have a chest cold—just rub on Baby Goos-lene, cover with a soft warm cloth and see how quickly they get relief. You can get either Baby Goose-olene or Goos-olene at any drug store in 25c tubes.—Advertisement.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

PIANO PRICES
ARE GOING UP

Because of scarcity of materials due to war conditions.

BUT PIANO PRICES ARE GOING DOWN AT SMITH & ALLEN CO.

to make room for new stock purchased at old prices and already shipped.

Rosewood

Walnut

Mahogany

Walnut

READ THESE PRICES

Beautiful Walnut Case Piano, completely overhauled, in good condition, only..... $85

Practically new, mahogany case Grand, only $450

Used Piano, rosewood case; exceptional bargain, only $35

Auto Piano Player, 65 note; beautiful mahogany case, in fine condition, only..... $185

Primatone Player, just like new; mahogany case; 88 note, only..... $225

Fine condition Walnut Case Piano, only $55

EASY TERMS OPEN EVENINGS
Free Scarf—Free Stool—Free Delivery.

COUPON

Fill in Coupon for Special "Out of Town" Piano Sale Proposition.

*Name*_____

*Address*_____

*City*_____

—and mail to—
SMITH & ALLEN & CO., DULUTH, MINN.

SMITH & ALLEN CO.
309 and 311 WEST FIRST STREET

ENTHUSIASM FOR CIRCUS

Lambs' Club at Central Prepares for Big Event Saturday.

Enthusiasm among the students of Central high school over the circus which is being planned by the members of Lambs club, is at high tide, and it is expected that nearly every student in the school will attend. The circus will be held in the main building next Saturday afternoon and night.

A meeting of the club was held yesterday afternoon and at this time final arrangements were made. Two new features were added to the already long list of attractions. The "La Belle Fatima Sisters" and the "Fishing Pool" have finally been secured by the management.

MINERS' RHEUMATISM

is caused by impoverished blood and is aggravated by working in dampness and from lack of fresh air. It will not correct itself until the blood is purified, and the greatest physicians prescribe Scott's Emulsion, because its medicinal nourishment quickly improves the quality of the blood to relieve the painful muscles and stiffened joints, while its wonderful oil-food strengthens the organs to expel the very acids which cause the trouble.

Scott's Emulsion is exactly what miners need to create rich, red, active blood, strengthen the throat and fortify the lungs against colds, pneumonia, bronchitis and consumption.

Scott's is always free from alcohol or drugs—but be careful to avoid substitutes.

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N.J. 15-40

—Advertisement.

ST. PAUL HAS LAKE STEAMSHIP LINE

Reiss Company, Purchaser of Peavey Boats, Incorporates in Minnesota.

St. Paul, Minn., March 1.—A steamship company with a capital stock of $600,000, with headquarters in St. Paul, was formed yesterday and articles of incorporation were filed with the secretary of state. It will be known as the Reiss Steamship company. The company was incorporated to operate steamship lines on the Great Lakes and connecting navigable waters.

Announcement was made recently of the closing of a $1,000,000 deal, by which the steamers George W. Peavey, H. Peavey, F. S. Peavey, F. B. Wells and W. T. Heffelfinger of the Peavey Steamship company were purchased by the parties interested in the Reiss company.

The Peavey steamers are at Buffalo, and will be turned over to the new owners after they have unloaded their cargoes. The new company was formed to operate the boats.

Richard J. Reiss, a director of the Hartin Coal company, St. Paul, is one of the directors of this company, and will be the St. Paul representative of the Reiss Steamship company. The incorporators are: Peter, John P., Richard and William Reiss, all of Sheboygan.

STEEL FAMINE DELAYS DOCK

Northwestern Fuel Company Is Expected to Begin Construction Soon.

Corporation Lacks Room and Is at Mercy of Railways.

Were it not for the difficulty of obtaining steel for construction work, it is understood here that the proposed new coal dock of the Northwestern Fuel company, to be constructed at as early a date as possible on the east side of Rice's point, would be under way this spring. That the company has determined upon constructing a large dock on its property south of the docks of the Clarkson Coal & Dock company on Rice's point there is said to be no doubt, although the company's local officials refuse to be quoted on the matter.

The company is forced to make such an improvement, in the opinion of coal dock men, for, because of its lack of coal dock room on this side of the bay, it is at the mercy of the railroads, which have recently advanced the rate on transportation of coal from Superior to Duluth by 75 per cent. This pretty nearly cuts the Northwestern out of Duluth business, for, it is claimed, the rate for transportation from its docks in Superior to this side of the bay is so high that it will be selling soft coal at a loss.

Big Jump in Railroad Rate.

Until Feb. 19 the carload rate on coal from Superior to Duluth was 40 cents a ton. On that date it was advanced to 70 cents a ton on the Northern Pacific and Great Northern roads, and on the Chicago, St. Paul & Minneapolis road to 60 cents a ton. On the latter road, it is claimed, the switching charges bring the total cost of such transportation up to practically the same as the rate charged by the other roads. The coal rate from Superior to St. Paul is 91 cents.

As the Northwestern has only one dock in Duluth, that at the foot of Fourth avenue west, in the center of the city, and used chiefly to supply the uptown and harbor trade, it is helpless under the new rate charged for coal, usually brought to the West end and West Duluth by road from the Superior docks.

The Northwestern is the only company so affected at the Head of the Lakes, the other companies having ample dock room on both sides of the bay. Because of this, the determination to build a new dock on Rice's point has been reached, and this will be done as soon as the steel market permits the procuring of material.

The understanding is that the new dock will be about the same size and type as Pittsburgh No. 7 on this side of the bay. The latter has a capacity of 660,000 tons of soft coal and 97,000 of hard, 37,000 being in shed.

WEST END

MANY EXPECTED AT CHURCH DINNER

St. Peter's Men's Club Will Be Hosts Next Friday Night.

Arrangements are being made to entertain 100 guests at the annual banquet of the Men's club of the St. Peter's Episcopal church, Twenty-eighth avenue west and First street, to be held Friday evening. The program is nearly complete.

Word was received yesterday afternoon that Gov. J. A. A. Burnquist, who had been invited to be one of the principal speakers, would be unable to attend. Several other speakers will be present.

REV. W. E. HARMANN.

Addresses will be given by Mayor W. I. Prince, Assistant County Attorney Mason M. Forbes, Dr. A. W. Ryan, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church; Rev. H. J. Wolner of Virginia, and W. A. Pittinger. Rev. W. E. Harmann, pastor of St. Peter's church, will be toastmaster. A musical program is also being arranged. Among the selections will be a vocal solo given by A. R. Burquist of the Scottish Rite quartet.

The supper will be served at 7 o'clock sharp by the Rebekah guild of the church.

FAILS AT SUICIDE.

Nels Johnson Tries Razor Route But Is Stopped By Others.

Nels Johnson, 25, made an unsuccessful attempt at suicide last night in his room at 2832 Huron street. He tried to sever his windpipe and jugular vein with a razor, but was stopped by other members of the household after he had injured himself slightly.

Sergt. John Hunter of the West end station arrived on the scene a few minutes later and Johnson was taken to St. Luke's hospital. His injuries are not serious, according to hospital attendants today.

Johnson told police his home is at Ashland, Wis. He gave no reason for his attempt at self-destruction.

CLUB TO SEEK INJUNCTION.

Building of Outside Stairway Will Be Opposed.

Steps will be taken tomorrow evening at the meeting of the West End Commercial club to prevent if possible the building of an outside stairway on Twenty-first avenue west, leading to the second story of the building under construction on the northwest corner of Superior street. It is said that the owner of the building has intimated he will be granted permission by the city commissioners, and proposes to build the stairway, despite the protests of West end business men.

According to leading members of the club, an injunction against the proposed building of the stairway will be sought. The members maintain such stairways are prohibited by the building ordinance.

Such a stairway, say business men, would interfere with traffic on Twenty-first avenue west. The sidewalk at this point is ten feet wide, and the proposed stairway would take up four feet of it from a point about four feet from the corner of Superior street.

Reports of the public market committee will also be given. Arrangements have been made to rent property on Twenty-second avenue west and First street for this purpose.

Entertain Argonauts.

The Argonauts Club of the Central Baptist church was entertained last evening at a Leap Year party held at the home of Myrl Churchill, 3815 West Third street. The affair was attended by twenty-seven guests. Games and music followed by refreshments featured the entertainment. Cupids and hearts were used in the decoration of the rooms. The club is one of the most active organizations of young people in the church.

Give Leap Year Party.

The Young Ladies' Society of the Zion Norweglan Lutheran church, Twenty-fifth avenue west and Third street, entertained last evening at a Leap Year party held in the club rooms of the church. A program of music, speaking and games was given, following which the young women served refreshments. Among those taking part in the program were Harold Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Grysberg, Mrs. Agnes Mae Johnson Speck, Herbert Miska, Mrs. W. Emmett Porter and Rev. H. C. Rex.

Will Initiate Class.

Duluth Camp No. 2341, Modern Woodmen of America, will initiate a class of new members at its meeting Friday evening at the Woodman hall, Twenty-first avenue west and First street. Following the ceremony a social hour is planned at which refreshments will be served. It is expected that a large number of members will be present.

West End Briefs.

The St. Luke's Guild of St. Peter's Episcopal church will meet tomorrow afternoon in the guild rooms of the church.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Second Presbyterian church, 1515 West Superior street, will hold its annual meeting this afternoon at the church. Reports of the various departments of the society will also be given.

A card party will feature an entertainment to be given tomorrow evening by the ladies' auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers at the Woodman hall.

The Rosary Society of St. Clement's Catholic church will entertain at a card party this evening at the Foresters' hall, Twenty-first avenue and Third street. Mrs. J. J. Schults, Mrs. J. Cahill, Mrs. H. N. Wilson, Mrs. M. Carroll and Mrs. A. Farrington are in charge.

Rev. Swaney Nelson, pastor of the First Swedish Baptist church, will speak this evening at the midweek services to be held at the First Norwegian-Danish M. E. church, Twenty-fourth avenue and Third street.

The Adams Alumni association will hold its monthly meeting Friday evening at the Adams school, Seventeenth avenue west and Superior street. A musical and literary program is being arranged, following which an hour will be spent in dancing.

Olson & Hoppenyan, undertakers, 2014 West Superior street. Both phones.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen will entertain at a card party tomorrow evening at Woodman hall, Twenty-first avenue west and First street.

MERCHANTS NOW WORK FOR BRIDGE

Urge Span Over Chester Creek to Aid in Deliveries.

Duluth retail merchants have joined the campaign for a bridge over Chester creek.

Out of the 160 signers on the four petitions filed with City Clerk Borgen yesterday afternoon, 75 are retail merchants of the city, who declare that a bridge will greatly facilitate deliveries in the district east of Chester creek and at Woodland.

At the council meeting Monday, the city commissioners promised a delegation from the Munger Improvement club that the bridge will be included in the 1917 improvement program. The bridge, according to estimates, will cost $40,000.

THINKS DULUTH WILL BE "INDESCRIBABLY BIG"

Duluth will grow into an "indescribable bigness" within a few years, according to E. T. Anderson, assistant general manager of the Ford factory branch at Minneapolis, who is making his first visit to this territory. He was in Duluth yesterday.

Said Mr. Anderson in complimenting Duluth:

"There is something about Duluth that gives one the impression of an active, constantly growing city. Your new industries, the steel plant, the grain shipping, and the railroads, as well as your wholesale houses, all contribute to what I am sure will be 'indescribable bigness' one of these days."

MILWAUKEE TYPHOID CASES INCREASING

Milwaukee, Wis., March 1.—Health department records show the number of typhoid fever cases in the city close to 200. Eight deaths from the disease have been reported since the situation became acute. Joseph Stevens, Shannon, Ill., a student in the engineering department of Marquette university, succumbed from the disease yesterday. The use of the swimming pools at natatoriums is prohibited.

WHEN TONGUE IS COATED

your liver is torpid and is affecting your stomach and bowels. To rouse your liver, take the little, purely vegetable and in-all-ways satisfactory Hood's Pills. They relieve biliousness, constipation, all liver ills. Do not irritate nor gripe. Price 25c, of druggists or C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

West End Undertaking Company
2118 WEST FIRST STREET.
Nyberg & Crawford, Managers.

Rummage Sale

Ask For Security Vouchers — Freimuth's — Ask For Security Vouchers

Women's and Children's Ready-to-Wear and Furs

Final clean-up of small lots, broken lines and odds and ends—a great variety, but only one or two of a kind. This is a time when early choosing pays.

Thursday—Friday—Saturday
No Exchanges—No Approvals—Every Sale Final

Sensational Rummage of Waists — TABLE NO. 5

39c Fine White and Colored Waists—slightly soiled—sizes 34 to 44; all styles—values to $2.50, rummage at 39c

TABLE NO. 1
Ladies' Jackets
Skirts and Children's Coats, odds and ends of high priced garments—Rummage Sale price $1.00

TABLE NO. 2
Party Dresses
Ten only, but all evening shades—regular price was $19.50, this Rummage Sale price is only $5.00

TABLE NO. 3
Ladies' Kimonos
Fine White Swiss Lingerie Kimonos and Dressing Sacques, worth to $19.50, Rummage price $3.45

TABLE NO. 4
Ladies' Wrappers
100 Percale and Fleeced Wrappers; sizes 34 to 38; light and dark colors—regularly $1.25 to $1.50, at..... 75c

HALF PRICE — Rummage Sale of Furs — Women's Scarfs, Muffs and Fur Coats as well as Children's and Misses' Furs.—Fox, ermine, skunk, seal raccoon, mink, beaver, opossum, etc., etc. — HALF PRICE

Women's Skirts
Fine Wool Skirts and Silk Skirts in narrow models—also tunic skirts—values to $15.00, Rummage price.... $1.75

Plush Coats
One Plush Coat, raccoon collar; reg. price $35—Rummage price.. $15.00

Cloth Coats
26 Mixture Coats, colored broadcloths and a few heavy winter coats, regularly to $35.00—Rummage price.... $5.00

Fine Dresses
Wool and Net Dresses, all fine materials; values to $15.00—your choice at the Rummage sale..... $2.50

Ladies' Suits
23 Suits, all staple colors, including a few large sizes; formerly $25.00 to $50.00—Rummage price $5.00

TABLE NO 6
Girls' Dresses
Attractive Dresses of fine challis and light colored silks and serges; worth to $12.50, Rummage price..... $5.00

Women's and Children's Shoes
89c Broken lines and single pairs of high quality Shoes and fancy Slippers in many styles, in sizes from 5½ in children's to 4½ in women's—regular prices, $1.25, $2.00, $3.00 and $4.00 89c

DEFECTIVE PAGE

AVORABLE TO BRANDEIS

Member of His Law Firm Gives Testimony Before Committee.

Others Say Nominee Had Reputation of Not Being Straightforward.

Washington, March 1.—Edward F. fcClennen of Boston, member of Louis . Brandeis' law firm, testified again oday before the senate committee investigating the fitness of Mr. Brandeis be a member of the supreme court. Mr. McClennen is giving his explanaon of the various charges against Mr. randeis which the committee is inuiring into. Today the witness conued his statement regarding the ited Shoe Machinery company matrs which he began late yesterday.

Stephen S. Gregory of Chicago, forr president of the American Bar asiation, testified that Mr. Brandeis' utation as far as he knew was "exlent."

fr. McClennen then resumed the nd to explain the various charges ought against Mr. Brandeis.

Yesterday Albert E. Pillsbury, forerly attorney general of Masschusetts and Edward W. Hutchson, vice president of the Boston Bar sociation, testified that Mr. Brandeis d a reputation for not being raightforward in his dealings.

Counsel For Equitable.

Austen G. Fox, counsel for the opsition, put in evidence a photoraphic copy of a check for $10 from E. McSweeney of Boston to Mr. randeis, to support a charge that randeis was paid by policy holders of ie Equitable Life Assurance society for representing them in their protective association.

The first thing Mr. McClennen was asked to tell about yesterday was the life insurance incident. He said the Brandeis firm was first employed by the Equitable in 1901, and had handled thirty or forty cases for it since that time.

"So you were counsel for the Equitable at the time in 1905 when Mr. Brandeis attacked it in public speech?" inquired Senator Works.

"We were not general counsel at any time; we only acted in specific suits," responded Mr. McClennen.

"Did the company ever complain of the speech?"

"Not that I ever heard about."

Acted Without Pay.

The witness stated that Brandeis acted without pay as counsel for the policy holders, who had their organization headquarters in his office, and that many of the reforms urged by them were adopted by the company.

"How about this McSweeney check?" inquired Federal Attorney Anderson, representing the committee.

"Oh that had nothing to do with the protective association," was the response. "Mr. McSweeney consulted Mr. Brandeis about taking the surrender cash value of his policy and Mr. Brandeis charged him $10 for his advice."

Mr. Fox told the committee that he accepted the word of Mr. McClennen that Mr. Brandeis received nothing for advising the protective association and said he had presented the copy of the check merely because he did not know whether Mr. Brandeis was paid by the policy holders or not.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

ne Cent a Word Each Insertion. Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

T LOSE YOUR HAIR, MISS HORgan can save it.

S. HORRIGAN WILL MAKE UP our combings into braids, transforations, etc., at little cost.

OMPT SERVICE IN HAIR DRESSg, shampooing, children's hair cutng, manicuring, scalp treatment, ir tinting, bleaching and waving Miss Horrigan's Hair Shop.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

il Johnson and Clarice Swenson. nes L. Sullivan and Esther L. eair.

edding Announcements—Engraved or printed. Consolidated Stamp and rinting Co., 14 Fourth avenue west.

8 AND 22K SOLID GOLD WEDg and engagement rings made and unted to order at Henricksen's, 332 st Superior street.

rved and printed birth announcee. Consolidated Stamp & Print. Co.

BIRTHS.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fortunato Maio, West Third street, are the parn of a son born Feb. 22.

MAN—The birth of a daughter on . 28 has been reported by Mr. Mrs. Oscar Newman, 214 South st avenue east.

—A son was born Feb. 11 at St. y's hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Edd B. Bryan, Jr.

DORI F—The birth of a son on . 4 has been reported by Mr. and . Herman Burgdorff, 21 North enty-ninth avenue west.

SON—A son was born to Mr. and . Ernest Johnson at St. Mary's pital on Feb. 4.

E.—Mr. and Mrs. Guy R. Roble, 713 st Seventh street, are the parents a son and daughter born Feb. 22.

'HELL—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur chell are the parents of a daughborn Feb. 28 at St. Luke's hosal.

MAN—The birth of a daughter at Luke's hospital on Feb. 17 has n reported to Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Carman.

VEY—A son was born Feb. 12 to and Mrs. Clarence C. Harvey of 6 Elinor street.

MAS—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thom- 43 East Third street, Morgan rk, are the parents of a son born b. 14.

Deaths and Funerals

NALD—Angus McDonald of 732 st Fifth street, aged 66 years, died s morning at 11 o'clock after an ess of several months. Mr. Mcald had been a resident of Duluth the last seven years, coming here n Alpena, Mich., where he was aged in the hotel business for re than twenty years. He is surved by his wife and four children, rence, Flora, Winnifred and Don, all of Duluth. Funeral arrangents have not been completed as yet.

MONUMENTS.

EST STOCK OF HIGH-GRADE uments in the Northwest; call inspect before buying elsewhere. Peterson Granite Co., 230 E. Sup.

RAL FLOWERS A SPECIALTY. uth Floral Co., 121 W. Superior St.

CARD OF THANKS.

HEREBY WISH TO EXPRESS r sincere gratitude to those who kindly contributed floral offergs during the sickness and death our beloved wife and mother; so to those who assisted in other ys to help cheer us in our great row.

MRS. T. J. LINNE,
SWAN ANDERSON,
MISS ELMA ANDERSON.

WISH TO THANK OUR FRIENDS d neighbors for their kind servs and flowers during the sickness d death of our husband and father.

MRS. MARY GRIEVE,
ALLEN GRIEVE,
WILLIAM GRIEVE.

BUILDING PERMITS.

P. Craig & Co., alteras to tenement on the th side of Superior street, tween Twenty-second and enty-third avenues west..$ 2,500

Miss E. Hudson, dwelling on the south side of Wyoming street, between Fifty-first and Fifty-second aveues east 500

G. G. Hartley, repairs to fire-damaged store on the orth side of Superior street, tween Second and Third venues east 200

CITY BRIEFS

Loose Leaf and Filing Supplies.
M. I. Stewart company. Phones 114.

Will Decide on Ice Race.

Members of the Duluth Automobile Dealers' association will hold a meeting at the St. Louis hotel tomorrow evening to decide whether or not the ice races will be staged next Sunday afternoon. The question was taken up by the racing committee yesterday afternoon, and referred to the general organization for action.

Irish Banquet March 16.

Plans for the annual Irish banquet on March 16, at the Spalding hotel, will be completed at a meeting of the Irish Fellowship club tomorrow evening. The members will assemble in the Owls' hall, West Superior street, shortly after 8 o'clock. The meeting is the regular monthly one and considerable business of a routine nature will come up.

Sues For Fire Loss.

When fire swept across the farm of James Larson in section 34, 64-12, St. Louis county, during the dry summer of 1910, it destroyed his farm buildings and improvements. Larson claims that the Oliver Iron Mining company is responsible for the blaze which passed over his land and in district court today filed suit to recover $3,250 damages.

Grand Lodge Officers Coming.

Grand lodge officers of the Royal Arcanum will visit Duluth on March 28, according to an announcement made by the officers of Duluth council, No. 1483, at the annual dinner held at the St. Louis hotel last evening. Committees were appointed to make preparations for their visit.

PERSONALS

G. A. Tomlinson will leave this evening for Buffalo, N. Y., where he has been called on business.

W. G. Earl of Minneapolis is registered at the Spalding.

W. J. Lockwood of New York is stopping at the Spalding for the day.

H. E. McGee of St. Paul is at the Spalding.

F. E. Fleischmann has returned from the East.

STICKING TO THEIR STORY

Watchmen Insist That "Aeroplane" Was Not Toy Balloon.

Despite the fact that a toy balloon was found by two ore dock watchmen last night, those who first reported sighting an aeroplane over local elevators and docks last Saturday and yesterday, are sticking to their story.

These men declare that they actually saw and heard an aeroplane.

"I know an aeroplane from a toy balloon," said one of them this morning, "and what I saw was distinctly a flying machine. I could even see its passengers. There is no doubt of it at all in my mind. I don't care if there were fifty balloons found. Toy balloons haven't motors."

Weather bureau records show that at 5 o'clock last Saturday morning there was clear weather, with a wind velocity of thirty miles and hour from the west, while at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday morning the wind was from the northwest with a velocity of from twelve to fourteen miles an hour. The aeroplane was reported as moving west and it would be impossible for a toy balloon to make any headway against the wind, but it is pointed out that air currents vary at different levels and the air currents higher up might be moving in an opposite direction to those lower down.

An investigation into the sale of toy balloons discloses the fact that balloons were sold yesterday by a Superior merchant, it being the first sale since July 4, with the exception of three sold a week ago to a resident of Iron River, Wis. No other dealer is reported as having sold any balloons, so that the one found last night is believed to have been sold yesterday by the Superior merchant.

The lights reported to have been seen on the night of Feb. 17, it was learned today, were attached to balloons sent up by R. A. Mannheim, proprietor of a grocery store on the Howard-Gnesen road. He said this morning that he had these two left over from last Fourth of July and had sent them up to amuse some boys.

RAPID PROGRESS IN DEFENSE LEGISLATION

Washington, March 1.—National defense legislation has made such rapid progress in committee that it was predicted today the army part of the preparedness program would be before the house and senate next week.

The house military committee began today its final review of the measure tentatively agreed upon. The final committee vote will be taken tomorrow, but it will require several days for Chairman Hay to prepare a report to accompany the bill.

By agreeing to insert only a general provision for Federalizing the National Guard in its regular army reorganization bill, leaving the task of putting this legislation in final shape to a joint conference committee, the senate military committee has made it possible to bring the measure out next week.

Are You "Stocked Up" on Stationery?

Because the price of paper—every kind of paper—is going up, by the minute! Eaton Crane & Pike have just withdrawn their entire list of prices! You'll achieve real economy if you lay in a little supply of good stationery, right now! (Stationery Dept.—Main Floor.)

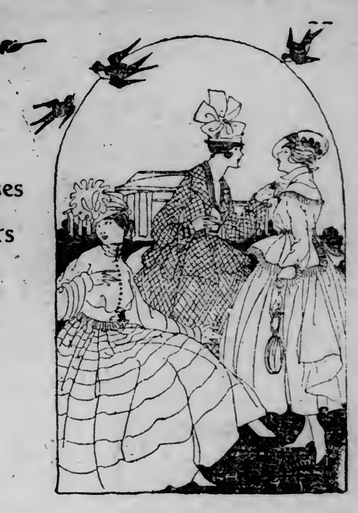
The Glass Block

"It's So Pleasant—and Inexpensive!"

Just 20c for delicious tea and cakes (or sandwiches, or toast-and-marmalade) in the Tea Rooms, afternoons, from 2 to 5. Every day more women are taking advantage of this attractive, convenient device for "entertaining," after a busy hour's shopping through the store! (Tea Rooms—4th Floor.)

Coats
Suits

Dresses
Skirts



Now Comes the Spring "Silhouette" for 1916

EVERY quaint coquetry of other days is to be glimpsed in the audacious little frocks and suits which peep from the new boxes, and shimmer from the glass cases, on our famous Second Floor! Above the varied and spreading ways of the new skirts, the bodices are growing tighter every day; period styles rule; and just for a reminder that the season calls for color, tiny knots of flowers, smile from shoulder or waist! The new suits? Fashion has been generous. Trim simplicity is as smart as voluminous extravagance. You can have either!

Fascinating New Frocks You'll Wish to See!

New ones are coming in every day; inimitable pointed bodices posed upon taffeta skirts of puffy fullness; charming combinations of Taffeta and Serge; gowns of a sober elegance, which makes them appropriate for any and every occasion. And all so new! Well worth seeing, and all at typically moderate Glass Block prices!

Some New Effects in Suits for Spring

"Just adorable"! That's what our salesgirls cried when the boxes were opened yesterday! And you'll enthuse, too; they're so very, very "different"! Little short coats, with a great flare that carries them out under the arms, behind and at the sides; smocked skirts, that sweep out in the broadest lines you can imagine, and stop—oh, so short! Plain tailored models, too, if you prefer them. All the way from $24.75 up to $45.00.

A Wonderful Variety in Taffeta Skirts!

Not only the plain blacks, always popular and in demand, but the most enchanting new effects in dark plaid Taffetas—skirts caught up and tucked around the hips, so that they bellow out in all the enchanting fullness of the "1830" styles. Yes, and there are plainer models, too; skirts with Serge belts and trimmings; smocked and tucked effects, and others with pannieres. They're here from $7.95 to $10.75—the biggest, finest assortment of skirts we've ever shown!

All-Wool Skirts, Black and Navy (White and Plaids)

From $5 to $10, we're showing plain black (or blue) Gabardines, Poplins, Men's Wear Serges, Chuddah, etc.—skirts made in the plain, smart styles which are invaluable for every day wear. A little higher priced, come the plain white Serges, white bar-plaid effects, shepherd checks, and fancy "novelties." If you are thinking of having a new skirt just now, don't fail to see this big assemblage—it's well worth a special visit to the Second Floor!

See These Magnificent Silks for Spring Gowns

Gros de Londre, Satin Taffetas, Silk Faille Taffetas, Crepe de Chine, Silk Meteor, Silk Poplins—all in a marvelous assortment of new and popular colors! No time to buy like the present! Epecially when we can't hope to duplicate any silks, this or next season at the present low prices!

A Big Display of Rich Stripe Silk Suitings

The newest thing for the separate skirt, or with cloth for combination dresses! Smart contrasting light and dark color striped combinations, hairline and pencil stripes, solid-color and two-tone stripes, appropriate for street suits, afternoon wear, etc., $1.25 yard.

Exquisite New Striped Skirting Crepes and Tub Silks

New blazier stripes, awning stripes and candy stripes, in several color combinations, as well as black and white, wonderfully attractive for waists and full frocks. (These washable, sunfast colors are particularly in demand at present.) 32 inches and 36 inches wide, at $1.00 yard. —Main Floor.

Premier Taffeta Silks in Black and 25 Dress Shades

Beautiful light evening tints,—white, light blue, pink, maize, navy blue, Belgian blue, green, brown, gray, plum, etc., besides a splendid array of glace and changeable two-tone color effects, in every light or dark color. (These unmatchable qualities, $1.25 a yard.

Ask to see them in the Silk Department, Main Floor.

Larger Than Ever Are the New Cape Collars

One of the newest is sketched above. We have them at $1.89, $2.25 and $2.50. (Bolting cloth, organdy, crepe, etc.) Many of them show the season's tendency toward color,—a border of rose, delft, of wistaria. Ruffllings are coming in, too,—increasing in popularity every day. We're showing them in the new rose leaf scallop; plain white, or with dainty lavender, sky blue or rose edging, 25c to $2.00.

And there's a very alluring collection of the new circular veils at from $1.69 to $2.50. (The little "chin chin" veils, 65c to $1.89). —Main Floor.

Have You Seen These Smart White Washable Shoes at $8

They're going fast, so come soon, if you wish to see them. Genuine white calf; washable (soap and water cleans them) 8½ inch tops—and so smart! (While you're in the shoe store ask to see our George W. Baker models for spring.)

Shoe Repair Department —Work called for and delivered free.

Final Clearacce Every Winter Hat In the Store

50c

And while you're in the store tomorrow be sure to see our display of

New Spring Hats

Beautiful new styles—Sailors as well as smart Small Hats!

For the Movies

"Movie" Glasses

are fast becoming a necessity for those who frequent the picture shows. Provide yourself with protection that allows one to enjoy moving pictures with absolute comfort. The price is reasonable, the satisfaction great. Consult our optometrist about the newest and most serviceable ideas in eye glasses. Open Saturday evening until 9 p. m.

FOR YOUR HOME

"Friction Tangle" Mops—A Copper Cord Device to Clean Pots, Pans, Etc.

The newest kitchen help! Made of copper-wound cotton cord; a wonderful scouring device; removing all grease, dirt, rust, etc., from pots and pans, and cleaning the finest china without injury! All you have to do to clean this mop is to hold it under hot water. It comes in three sizes:

No. 1 mop, 9-inch handle, 10c.
No. 2 mop, 12-inch handle, 23c.
No. 3 lavatory, 18-inch handle, 48c.

Ask to see it, tomorrow, in the Basement!

Let Miss Dean Plan Your Party for You!

You'll find her in our "Favor Department," and she makes a specialty of planning dinners, formal and informal parties, (making individual favors, arranging the color scheme, even planning the menu if desired). And such a choice as you may have just now, in favors, place cards, bon bon holders, tallies, snaps, paper caps, etc. Not only in emerald green, for St. Patrick's day, but in pink, blue, yellow, red, lavender, etc. (Inquire at the Favor department—Main Floor.)

"Fear God and Take Your Own Part"

By Theodore Roosevelt

"Let this nation fear God and take its own part.... Let it exercise patience and charity toward all other peoples and yet at whatever cost unflinchingly stand for the right when the right is menaced by the might which backs wrong. Let it furthermore remember that the only way in which successfully to oppose wrong which is backed by might is to put over against it right which is backed by might." (In the Book Shop)—$1.50.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

Society • Women's Clubs • Music • Drama

The following is the schedule that will be followed at the meeting of the Woman's council which will be held at 10 o'clock Friday morning in the library clubroom:

10:00—Secretary's report and roll call.
10:15—Unfinished business.
10:25—Report of King's Daughters, Miss Helen Potter.
10:35—Extracts from a paper by Edward J. Ward on "Internal Organization for National Defense," Mrs. H. J. Grannis.
10:50—Report of the educational committee, Mrs. J. U. Sebenius.
11:05—"Associated Charities: Principles and Method of Operation," E. A. Silberstein.
11:30—New business.
12:00—Adjournment.

EVENTS OF TONIGHT AND TOMORROW.

Under the auspices of the Philathea class, a program will be given at 8 o'clock at the Woodland M. E. church.

The Blue Bell club will give a dancing party tonight at Coffin's academy.

The literature department and the department of education and home of the Twentieth Century club will give a luncheon for the entire club membership at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Spalding hotel.

Miss Josephine Carey will be the hostess for the meeting of the Cecilian society at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Julius H. Barnes, 25 South Twenty-sixth avenue east.

The West Duluth W. C. T. U. will meet at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. T. Strand, 921 North Central avenue.

Events of Interest.

The Blue Bell club has arranged the following program for its dancing party which will be given tonight at Coffin's academy:

Waltz, "Number Please"; two-step, "I Will Ring Again"; one-step, "They Don't Answer"; waltz, "Give Me the Chief Operator"; two-step, "The Time Please"; three-step, "Excuse It Please"; waltz, "Line Is Out of Order"; two-step, "Repair Department, Please"; schottische, "Melrose 4000"; waltz, "Manager's Office"; three-step, "What Number Please"; waltz, "I Will Give You Super"; two-step, "Line Is Busy"; one-step, "Give Me Information"; three-step, "This Is Long Distance"; waltz, "Good-by Central"; two extras.

* * *

Mrs. William Carlson will entertain at a silver tea for the Woman's Relief corps at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at her home, 6005 London road. There will be a musical program. Members of the corps and their friends are invited.

* * *

The hour for the luncheon which the literature department and the department of education and home of the Twentieth Century club will give at the Spalding hotel tomorrow for all the members of the club, has been changed from 1 to 1:30 o'clock.

* * *

Mrs. Harold Fegraeus, president of the Linnaea club, gave an outline of the work that has been done by the club and told of its plans for the future at the prosperity social that was given last night at Foresters' hall. Following the musical and literary program the 200 guests had a grand march to the booth that was presided over by Mrs. Uno Lindstrom as "Charity," Miss Lillian Jentoft as "Hope" and Audrey Swenson as "Faith." The collection amounted to $35.

* * *

Following the plan of studying the lives of prominent women, which the Woman's Rotary club undertook as part of its work for this year, Dr. Stella Wilkinson reviewed the life of Mrs. Hetty Green at the meeting which was held last night at the home of Dr. Sarah McClaran, 601 Woodland avenue. Current events since the last meeting were reviewed. The club will hold its next meeting the first Tuesday in March.

* * *

At the meeting of the board of the Woman's Guild of Endion M. E. church, which was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Arthur N. Collins, 1931 East Third street, it was decided to have a towel shower for the church Wednesday afternoon, March 15.

The guild meets once in two weeks to make surgical pads for the Red Cross. Mrs. J. H. Hearding is in charge of the circle.

* * *

Rev. J. A. McGaughey, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, will be the speaker at the women's meeting which will be held at the Bethel at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. A social half hour will follow the service. All women are invited to attend.

* * *

Miss Jessie Broadbridge of 113 Park avenue, entertained last evening at a Leap year party. There were games and music, and a luncheon was served for the ten guests.

* * *

The Kitchi Gammi club will entertain at a dance and buffet supper next Tuesday night, marking the close of the official social season and the approach of Lent.

* * *

Mrs. David Duncan, East Fifth street, will entertain informally Saturday at two tables of bridge.

* * *

Mrs. Charles Adams, Oxford street, entertained the members of her Sunday school class yesterday afternoon.

* * *

Clarence Kremer and Gordon Brindos entertained the employes of the Duluth-Edison company at a sleigh ride to the Lakewood chateau last night.

* * *

At the meeting of the piano teachers' round table held this morning at the Y. W. C. A., a discussion on "Auxiliary Studies For Pianists" was led by Mrs. K. A. Ostegren. Harmony, languages and the history of music entered into the general discussion which followed.

* * *

An old-fashioned party, which will include a spelling bee and dancing, will be given Friday night by the Neighborhood club at the Washburn school.

Big Card Party for Relief Association

The card party which was given yesterday afternoon at the Camels' hall for the benefit of the German-Austro-Hungarian Relief association was attended by 400 women. Bridge favors were won by Mrs. George Carsons, Mrs. Fleissior of Superior, Mrs. Frank Phelps, Mrs. Charles Baxter, Mrs. August Milek and Mrs. J. Gonska. The five hundred favors were won by Mrs. Percy Christoffer, Mrs. J. W. Walsh and Mrs. F. L. Clark. Mrs. Morris Kastriner won the lotto favor.

With the exception of two corsage bouquets, given by the Duluth Floral company, the favors were given by members of the committee in charge of the party who were Mrs. Frank Frerker, Mrs. Edward P. Kreimer, Mrs. J. J. Cullen, Mrs. John Beerhalter, Mrs. P. Kraft, Mrs. Julius Boetcher, Mrs. G. Collatz, Mrs. F. Hansen, Mrs. F. Pape, Mrs. J. K. Dye, Mrs. G. Taufman and Mrs. J. Cross.

Court Eastern Star, No. 86, U. O. F. gave the use of the hall.

The committees of the German-Austro-Hungarian Relief association met last night to make arrangements for the war relief bazar which will be given at the Auditorium March 23 to 25.

The finance committee reported that the cash contributions alone have amounted to enough to defray all expenses. The entertainment committee has arranged for musical programs for the afternoons and nights. The booths will include women's department, men's department, children's wear, apron booth, flower booth and greenhouse, postoffice, pillows and small articles, war souvenir booth, fancy booth, fish pond, doll booth, 5 and 10-cent counter, a German country grocery store, jewelry and towel booth.

All children who take part in the chorus and the athletic exhibitions will have free admission during the three days of the bazar and will be guests at dinner the first night.

The next meeting of the committee will be held at 8 o'clock Tuesday night, March 14, at 12 East Superior street.

Symphony Is Studied.

At the meeting of the study class of the Matinee Musicale yesterday afternoon, Miss Ruth Rogers gave a synopsis of Tschaikowsky's Sixth symphony, the first movement of which was played on two pianos by Miss Catherine Thwing, Miss Olson, Miss Sadie Gingold and Miss Ebert.

Miss Mary Bradshaw gave a resume of the songs Reginald Werrenrath will give in his recital at the First Methodist church March 10.

New York Woman Is "War Bride"

VICOMTESSE GEORGES DE MAUDUIT DE KERVERN.

The most interesting American "war bride" is the wife of Vicomte Georges de Maudult de Kervern. She was Priscilla Alden Griffin, daughter of the late Col. Eugene Griffin of the U. S. army, living in New York with her mother. Her engagement with the vicomte was announced only recently and the marriage was not expected to take place for some time. But a call came to the vicomte to return to his country on account of the war and he promptly took his fiancee to the license bureau in city hall, got a license and was married to her in the presence of a few friends. She returns with him to France.

Efficient Housekeeping

By Henrietta D Grauel

Our Debt to the Primitive

AFTER MODERN theories are discussed and practiced, and up-to-date methods in home-making advanced and accepted, present-day women suddenly realize they owe a great debt to primitive women.

For instance, basket-weaving is popular now—willow-weaving would be a better description of the pretty handicraft. Clever, artistic women twist the pliable withes in and out and between dowel sticks and fashion desks, chairs, stands, bird cages and work baskets. The results are useful, handsome objects really copied from work done by primitive people who wove from necessity.

Peruvian pottery is used for models in our art and technical schools where modeling is taught. Artists turn to the wonderfully blended colors of Navajo blankets when they want an intensely bright, striking decoration or brilliant hanging.

Our ear rings, bracelets and newer headbands of filigree silver that we enjoy so much at present are often replicas of those worn by savage princesses in by-gone ages.

The primitive woman had to search through three kingdoms, animal, vegetable and mineral, to satisfy the needs of her family. She it was who first tasted oysters, experimented with helpful herbs or rejected poisonous ones and "canned" meat in cases of hide against future need.

The casserole was the discovery of the earliest women cooks. Their handmodeled clay pots would not bear intense heat, so they covered them closely with lids and with embers and buried them in ashes. We are just getting back to these gentle methods of cooking and think casseroles of this and that are new.

Sweden and German both claim that the fireless cooker is their invention. The Swedes claim to have packed cooked dinners in hay until ready to eat them, that they might retain their heat. Finally they made hay boxes very like the modern fireless. The German haus frau cooked the dinner and put it beneath the feather bed to keep warm while she worked in the field. Perhaps our Indians were the originators of fireless cooking, for they knew about burying food-containers in hot embers since the beginning of history and taught it to early settlers.

One has to have but the most superficial knowledge of history to learn that had it not been for the teaching of Indian women early colonists would have famished. Flavors are retained in many dried meats and cereals today by the same methods primitive women used, and more than one recipe for vegetable cookery that we call by a modern name had its beginning in wigwam or camp.

Parched grain has become malted food, the juices of plants used for flavoring we name extracts. Roots and seeds are our vegetables and grasses and plants are our "greens."

All this knowledge primitive woman worked out for herself without government bulletin or cookery book to help her. Apply definite scientific principles to her preparations and foods and you will see she was as wise as we and served her family as sensibly.

(Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.)

Tomorrow—The Indian Mixture.

Y. W. C. A. Notes.

The first in a course of eight lessons on "The Life of Christ" will be given at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the Y. W. C. A. The class will be led by Miss Louise Shepard, and is particularly for young women who are non-church members and young Christians. Membership in the association is not required for attendance in this class.

A membership party will be enjoyed by the young women of the association Friday night.

The Philathea Union of Duluth and the Y. W. C. A. have arranged for a series of special Sunday afternoon meetings to continue until Easter. Next Sunday Rev. R. E. Sayles will speak and there will be special music.

Would Honor Original Daughter of Revolution

Fort Worth, Tex., March 1.—Mrs. Mary Jane Skidmore of Fort Worth, who, according to all information available, is one of three living daughters of the American Revolution, will celebrate her eighty-seventh birthday on June 27 of this year. To commemorate the event, the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution is seeking to have the national chapter decree appropriate exercises for that day.

Mrs. Skidmore was born near Cincinnati, Ohio, the daughter of Jonas Frazee, who served three years under Washington, and who heard the Liberty bell ring in Philadelphia. She retains a vivid recollection of her father, who was frequently sought to recount before public meetings stories of the Continental army, its battles, and the Liberty bell.

Mrs. Skidmore possesses a Bible presented to her father by Mrs. William Henry Harrison, while her husband was president of the United States.

When the Liberty bell stopped in Fort Worth on its return from San Francisco last November, Mrs. Skidmore occupied a seat of honor beside the relic.

LeClaire-Lature.

Miss Addie Le Clair of Grand Lake, Minn., and Robert M. Lature of this city were quietly married this afternoon at the home of the bridegroom's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Cribben, 825 West Third street. Mrs. Cribben and Roy Lature, were the attendants.

Mr. Lature and his bride will be at home at 910 West Fourth street.

Will Sing at Woodland Church

MISS ETHEL GORDON.

Miss Ethel Gordon will give vocal numbers at the program which will be given at the Woodland M. E. church tonight under the auspices of the Philathea class.

Bed Time Tales

By Clara Ingram Judson

Mary Jane Finds the Chicks

NOW while Tommy and his little mate were helping Mrs. Hen name her new chicks, Mary Jane had put on her cap and sweater and gone for a run in the yard. It was Saturday morning and Mary Jane just could not settle down and practice as she should! So her mother said: "Do put on your things and go out of doors awhile, Mary Jane! Maybe after you have had a little fresh air you will feel like working!"

And Mary Jane said maybe she would. So she put on her wraps and wandered out into the back yard.

At first she hardly knew what to do. You know back yards do not look inviting in the late winter. She idly leaned up against the aple tree and wished the chickadees would come for some dinner — and then — she heard a new sound. "What's that!" she exclaimed to herself. "It sounds like baby chicks!" And she ran pellmell for the barn across the alley!

She opened the door and walked right in, as the kind neighbors who owned the barn had often told her she might; and then, just inside the door, she stopped and listened. Yes! She was right! Surely that was the "cheep" of baby chicks!

"Where are you? Where are you?" called Mary Jane, and then she listened carefully.

"Right here!" clucked Mrs. Hen. "Right here! Right here!"

And Mary Jane, following Mrs. Hen's voice, went straight to the nest. (So quickly did she go that Tommy and Mrs. Tommy Tittlemouse, who had been visiting, barely had time to drop down the side of the box, where the nest was, and run for home before she might spy them! But, of course, Mary Jane knew nothing about that!)

"Oh, you dear, dear chicks!" exclaimed Mary Jane, with enthusiasm enough to suit even Mrs. Hen, "how lovely you are! Aren't you proud of them, Mrs. Hen?"

Mary Jane hung admiringly over the box while Mrs. Hen clucked, "Of course I am! Of course I am!" very proudly.

"And I'm going to name one," continued Mary Jane. "I'm going to

"Oh, you dear, dear chicks!" exclaimed Mary Jane.

name that tiny little one in the middle, Chick o' Mine—I know nobody ever named a chick that before, so it's all mine! And Mary Jane softly stroked the tip, tip of the tiny chick's head with her finger.

Just the tip, tip, though, for it was plain to see that Mrs. Hen did not approve of strangers—even kindly disposed strangers—handling her babies.

Mary Jane stayed and watched the chicks and tried to decide which was the prettiest until her mother called her to come in and do her work. "Never mind, chickies," she said as she waved them good-by, "I'll practice real fast and come back to you soon!"

(Copyright—Clara Ingram Judson.)

Tomorrow—Flitter's New Playmate.

Peggy Peabody's Observations

The Adopted Child

While the changes have been rung on the stepmother story until much of the vulgar nonsense is dying out and kindler views obtain of many of these maligned beings a little might be said of the adopting mother. I mean the woman who takes to her bosom to cherish some little boy or girl, often to ease, if may be, the heartache of the loss of her own.

There has been quite a deal of feeling of late years that these kindly-meant experiments are very critical operations, sometimes successful, sometimes wretched failures. I think I do not overstate that while the stepmother has been bullied and browbeaten with little reference to the slights and slurs she may have received from ungrateful little and big second-hand children, in this adoption matter the larger part has seemed to work out the other way. The child nearly always seems to get the blame if the experiment turns out badly. "Bad blood," "latent vices," etc., are the terms of explanation which cover everything, whereas the crucial test to me seems to be the fitness or the unfitness of the mother or the father and mother.

Take for example the case of a woman who has selfishly allowed herself to be childless. In her later life, when her habits and thoughts have become crystallized, sometimes into kindness and severity, she often longs for the companionship she sees other women enjoy who have earned it by years of sympathetic upbuilding. This one fact, I think may be the rift within the lute that makes for unhappiness from the start, in spite of the little child's wholehearted effort to grow up in love and grace in that frigid atmosphere. Hence deceit, tantrums and sometimes even flight, desolation and ruin.

It would be well for all concerned if people wishing to adopt a child should conduct a course of rigid self-examination. They should count the cost, not in figures financial alone, but in sacrifice and forbearance. They should inspect their infirmities in temper, their lack of the appreciation of the natures of the children they meet in less exacting relations—their neighbor's children or perhaps still better their nephews or nieces. Fitness in adopting is an important essential.

ASK FOR and GET
HORLICK'S
THE ORIGINAL
MALTED MILK
Cheap substitutes cost YOU same price.

French & Bassett Co.

STYLE, as it is expressed in Living Room pieces is a most important element in the furnishings of that room. Into the Living Room are admitted the casual guest, the nearly-intimate and the most-intimate friends of the family. It is the "Big Hall" of the American home. In consequence, its furnishings indicate to a greater number than those of other rooms, the tastes and personalities of the occupants of the home.

The piece we show here is one of the best in correct expression of style. And in intrinsic worth it is just as good. It is from the Berkey & Gay Furniture Company, Grand Rapids, Michigan, with whose name you are probably acquainted. Five thousand other pieces, comprising a wide range of absolutely correct furnishing possibilities at prices no greater than would be asked for ordinary merchandise are shown, partly on our floors and partly in their portfolio of photogravures which we have. You will be interested in looking them over, we know.

French & Bassett Co.
GOOD FURNITURE
Established 1884 First St. and Third Ave. West

Many Babies Being Entered for Scoring During Baby Week

TWO SPECIMENS OF DULUTH'S BABIES.

MYRON MAHER, Aged 5 Months. EDMUND MAHER. Aged 2 Years.

The telephones in the office of Miss Elizabeth Heikkila, in the Masonic temple, keep up a continual ringing these days, as many mothers are calling up to give their names in order that hours may be assigned to them for the scoring of their children which will be an important phase of Baby week, which will be observed at the temple March 6 to 10. Mrs. A. T. Banning, chairman of the Woman's council committee that is co-operating with the Scottish Rite Masons, is also receiving applications. Indications are that between the hours of 2 and 4 Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons the temple will be lively with coos, goos and gurgles, the meanings of which are perfectly understandable to the mothers, but to the uninitiated are as hidden as the secrets the temple has heard.

Children from 6 months to 5 years are eligible for the scoring, but those with contagious diseases, such as colds, sore throats or rash, will not be admitted.

SIDE TALKS

By RUTH [illegible] CAMERON

An Inspiring Life Document

SOME weeks ago a correspondent asked me if I could tell him how a man with a family of six could live on a wage of less than $10 a week.

I didn't see how it could be done, and passed the problem on to my reader friends. In answer I had the following letter. I publish it not because I am thereby persuaded that less than $10 a week is a living wage for a family, but because the splendid courage of its writer is so inspiring.

"You ask if it is possible for a family of six to live on less than $10 a week. No doubt there are many families living this winter on this amount or less, who would neither ask for nor accept charity.

How One Woman Lived on Less Than $10 a Week.

"Since coming here, eighteen months ago, I have found it necessary to reduce living to the lowest possible notch and yet try to give my family of five a nourishing, well-balanced ration. If one has been forehanded during the summer months when fruits are cheap and other expenses are less, the storeroom should be well stocked with fruits and jellies and canned tomatoes. I had about 100 quarts to begin the winter. So for the months of September, October and November my grocery bill, including meat and milk, never exceeded $22.

Rent, including water, was $8; light, 80 cents, and gas, which I used only to cook with, $1.80. This gives you a total of $32.60. Thus you have a balance of $6.40 for carfare and other expenses.

Her Household Budget.

"It cannot be done without careful planning. I buy in quantities of most things. My bill is something like this: Potatoes, $2.25; flour, $1.90; butter (three pounds a week), 4.20; meat, $3; ham or bacon, $2; canned milk (one and one-half dozen), $1.35; coffee (three-pound can), $1; sugar, $1; cereals, $1; ten pounds lard substitute, $1.35; head rice, 25 cents; white beans, 25 cents; pink beans, 25 cents; spaghetti, 25 cents; fresh vegetables and eggs, $2.

"I have made no entry for clothes, but that is a story alone. However I have managed; the family are all warmly and neatly dressed at all times.

They Find Plenty of Pleasures That Cost Nothing.

"Do we have any pleasures? Yes, many. The outdoors is all free. We can take long walks and enjoy the sunshine, flowers and scenery. We can visit the 'shut-in' and try to carry some of the outdoors to them. We can always help those less fortunate than ourselves, if it be only a kindly word or a day helping with the children. The public library gives us plenty of good reading and the daily newspaper is our only luxury. There are a few public meetings and lectures that we can enjoy, though most of the 'free things' have the 'silver offering' clause, and as we still retain our original pride and independence, we cannot attend when not able to donate something.

"We can be thankful that God has given us health and strength to bear these times and keep our heads above water. With faith in a Heavenly Father, faith in ourselves and faith that the future has something bright behind the present dark clouds, we shall struggle along with the great army about us, and not ask or accept charity from anyone. Just give us a chance to work at a living wage and life will be 'one glad, sweet song.'"

(Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.)

"Japan and the War" Topic of Club Meeti

"Japan and the War," by E. Kenny, was the principal topic at meeting of the Bishop's club that was held last night in the Bishop's room. Mr. Kenny pointed out Japan is trying to get a foothold China and gave a short history Japan in relation to China and oth countries.

The musical part of the progra consisted of a flute solo, "Carniv Russe (Ciardi), by N. M. Di Mat and a vocal selection, "Snake Cha er's Song," from Liza Lehman's " Golden Threshhold," by Mrs. We Adams, who gave as an encore Old-Fashioned House in an Old-F ioned Town" (Squire). Miss Le C. Eliason and Miss Luella Gleason v the accompanists.

Mrs. George A. Reifsteck read " Unfinished Story" (Richard Har Davis), and as an encore an Ita dialect reading, "My Carlotta," F. L. Tamborrino gave the Bible r ing, which was explained by Rt. James McGolrick.

As the doll festival will be celeb ed in Japan Friday, there were sp decorations last night. Japanese t ures owned by Mrs. E. Frank Bai Frank Spurbeck, A. K. McDonald P. H. Martin were displayed. Ye tulips were used about the room.

Miss Mary Shesgreen was in ch of the program and Miss May Han was the hostess. Mrs. Fred Sermon Mrs. C. B. Nunan, who presided at tea table, were assisted by Mrs. A Lyons, Miss A. Buckley, Miss C. B Miss Chloe Thibert, Miss Muriel H lips and Miss Crowley.

Personal Mention

Henry Seitz of this city and Ge Lindsey of St. Paul, formerly of luth, will leave tomorrow for York, where they will join a part friends sailing the first of next w for the West Indies. They expec be away until April.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Charles d'Autrem and Miss Marie d'Autremont, 1401 First street, will leave this evening Helena, Mont., where they will v Maurice d'Autremont before proceed to California.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Granger Lawrence Gordon left today for C fornia.

* * *

Mrs. Scott, who has been the gues her sister, Mrs. Charles d'Autrem for some time, left today for falo, N. Y.

* * *

Mrs. O. H. Griggs of Virginia down to St. Paul last night for a days.

* * *

Mrs. Luther C. Harris has retu from a six weeks' Southern trip w included a visit in Havana, Cuba.

* * *

A. W. Cleveland has returned f Long Beach, Cal., and is at the K Gammi club.

* * *

Charles Marcus Fay returned

"The Perfect Day" is day when you work in h mony with law. Hea comes from Harmony. in harmony with Nature laws by eating Shredd Wheat, a simple, natura elemental food which suppl the greatest nutriment w the least tax upon the dige ion. Try it for breakfast w hot milk or cream. Delicio with sliced bananas or othe fruit. Made at Niagara Fall N. Y.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

night to the Shattuck school at Faribault, Minn.

* * *

Mrs. F. R. Smalley, 1725 Jefferson street, returned last night from a two weeks' trip to Des Moines and Waterloo, Iowa, and Minneapolis, Minn., where she visited relatives.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hickox, 1508 East Superior street, have gone to Hot Springs, Ark., for a month.

* * *

Mrs. B. Blumenthal, 422 Seventeenth avenue east, has returned from a four weeks' Eastern trip.

Church Meetings.

The protracted revival services at the Bethel Baptist church are meeting with success. Rev. N. Grandahl of Ashland, Wis., who is conducting the meetings, spoke last night on "The Heavenly Record." Tonight his subject will be "Why" and he will give a special musical number.

* * *

An old-time social will be held at St. Luke's mission, Fifth avenue west and Fourth street, at 8 o'clock tomorrow night. Preceding the social hour, the following program will be given:

Address .....
Rev. L. H. Burns.
Contralto solo .....
Miss Ellen Schlender.
Reading .....
Miss Mabel Fulton.
Soprano solo .....
Miss Clemmy McGuire.
Piano solo .....
Miss Jessie Lyse.
Reading .....
Miss Nora Kennedy.
Solo .....
Miss Cemelia Watts.
Selection—"Topsy Turvy" .....
Miss Ruth Watts.

Miss Fulton will be the accompanist.

* * *

The Philathea class of Glen Avon Presbyterian church will meet tonight at the home of Mrs. C. M. Wilson, 624 Woodland avenue.

* * *

The meeting of the male quartet, which will be held at 7 o'clock Friday night at the church, will be followed at 8 o'clock by the monthly business meeting of the Christian Endeavor society, at which plans will be made for the quarterly rally and the Bethel and poor farm meetings.

The regular service will be held at 7 o'clock Sunday night. Mrs. Cecil J. Hockin will be the leader and the subject will be "The Consecration of Influence." Mrs. A. E. Manthey and C. J. Hockin will give a vocal duet.

Drama League Plays.

Much interest is being shown in regard to the outcome of the Drama league production of the two plays by local playwrights, which will be given Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights of this week at the Little theater.

Rumor is rife concerning the two successful authors and the final decision between the two plays, "Her Sacred Duty" and "What It Gets Down To," is awaited with much interest.

The members of the league will vote on these plays after each performance. The votes will be placed in a ballot box and counted after the final performance. Then—$50 to the deserving playwright!

Membership tickets entitle the holders to one ticket for any one of the three performances.

Miss Elliot Will Marry.

Boston, March 1.—Miss Edith January Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Elliott, Marlboro street, formerly of St. Paul, will marry Edmund P. Rogers of New York April 29 at Emmanuel church.

Miss Elliott came out two years ago. Mr. Rogers is a Yale graduate of the class of 1905.

Lodge Notes.

Ruth council, Royal League, will give a card party at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Temple building. The committee in charge consists of: Mrs. Bert Rickard, Mrs. C. S. Palmer, Mrs. A. E. Paul and Mrs. Ernest Rowe.

* * *

A. O. U. W., No. 101, will entertain at a dance at Maccabee hall, 21 Lake avenue north, tomorrow night.

New York Fashion Hints.

New York Telegram: Little soft felt hats for children, in white and pastel shades, have, by way of trimming, birds painted around the crown. On the white hats bluebirds fly; on the tan hats robin redbreasts are painted; other hats have carrier pigeons, orioles and a number of other brilliantly colored birds. There are sugar loaf crowns and rolling brims.

Soft straw will be draped like cloth or silk; one finds rough straw and crin—otherwise crinoline straw—cleverly twisted together on the same hat.

Trimmed with loops of shot taffetas ribbon, blue and silver or black and gold, with a picot edge, 1880 hats, slightly raised at the back, will show coils of hair—coils, not curls.

In spite of the attempt of other colors to oust black and white from favor, this combination continues to be one of the most popular of fashion's fancies.

Moss Rosebuds are favored this season for corsage bouquets and the dainty, old fashioned moss roses are peculiarly suited to quaint little frocks in pale gray tints such as pretty women are wearing now. Pretty women, one stipulates, for no plain sister should ever venture to wear gray—whose tints are only for flawless complexions.

One of the very new ideas in hat trimmings is the large conventional flower made of colored beads surrounded by black velvet leaves.

Sailor hats are trimmed with dull blue or red ribbons bordered with cut steel beads. A startling novelty is the sailor hat made of black and white chessboard straw.

The modern girl's great-grandfather wore a coat very much like the smart models she affects just now. He called it a "great coat," and if he lived out in the country very likely he wore also a coonskin cap something like the beaver turban his great-granddaughter has taken a fancy to. One of these modern coats is built of blue and green wool plaid and has a military sash of fringe trimmed silk. The exaggerated but very smart collar is revived from the Girondist period. The little cap of beaver felt to be worn with the coat is trimmed only with a buckle and narrow grosgrain ribbon.

DULUTH PASTOR GIVEN HIGH HONOR

Rev. C. O. Swan Is Made Member of State Charities Board.

Rev. C. O. Swan, pastor of the First Swedish Lutheran church of this city, has been honored by being appointed a member of the board of charities of the Minnesota conference of the Augustana Swedish Lutheran Church of America. Three members of the conference are appointed each year for a term of three years.

REV. C. O. SWAN.

The board of charities has control of the Bethesda hospital of St. Paul, the Deaconess home, located at Chisago City, and the Invalids' home at North St. Paul. The board is one of the most important of the conference.

EXCEPTION MADE BECAUSE OF WAR

Administrator Is Released From Liability Without Receipts From Heirs.

Administrators of estates are required by law to produce receipts from heirs for money handled by them before they can be discharged from liability, but because of the war in Europe an exception to this rule has been made.

Judge Cant of the district court today discharged Ljubo Dogecivich from further liability as administrator of the estate of John Dragnich upon filing receipts from the Russian consul, legal representative of the heirs.

Dragnich died Jan. 13, 1913, from injuries received at the Malta mine near Gilbert, where he was employed by the Republic Iron & Steel company. His heirs are a father and mother residing in Morakova Selo, Niksich, Montenegro.

The administrator had in his hands $379.08 belonging to the heirs, but by reason of the war was unable to secure receipts from the heirs. He was permitted by the court to turn the money over to the consul instead.

GOVERNOR BURNQUIST TO VISIT LUMBER CAMPS

St. Paul, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Governor Burnquist together with State Forester Fox will leave tonight for the northern part of the state, where they will be the guests of several big lumber camps. The governor will see first hand modern methods of tree felling and hauling. He will visit the camps west of West Kelliher, which with their equipment are regarded as the most modern in the country. Steam is used as motive power for both felling and hauling trees.

AMUSEMENTS

WAR PUTS NEW LIFE INTO FRANCE, SAYS FRENCH BARON AT ORPHEUM

BARON H. S. DE LA MALAUSSENE.

"Despite the horror of the war, that baffles all description, the European conflict has breathed the breath of life into France."

This was the rather startling statement today of Baron H. S. de la Malaussene, adjutant of the First Regiment Etranger, who will appear tonight, tomorrow, Friday and Saturday to lecture with the authentic war pictures, "Fighting for France," at the Orpheum-Strand theater.

The baron carries with him credentials which vouch for his genuineness. He saw fourteen months of terrific fighting in France, was decorated with the Croix de la Guerre for bravery in action, and is now recuperating from the effects of wounds he received during a desperate bayonet charge on the German entrenchments in the Champagne region. Just before the foe had been finally put to rout, the baron, whose uniform had been pierced three times by bullets that fortunately missed wounding him, was bayoneted in the thigh and clubbed across the face with the butt of a rifle, which knocked out his front teeth, fractured his jaw and flattened his nose. He was unconscious for two weeks and was not expected to recover, but now he has practically regained his strength and expects to return to the front within three months.

"We had been lying in our trenches for many days without any great excitement," said the baron, "when suddenly the cannonade from the rear, which had been desultory for a long period, became terrific. The crash of shells, which broke only a short distance beyond us, sounded like all of the thunderclaps you have ever heard rolled into one. This continued for some time, when the order to 'charge' was sounded, and we bounded from our pits and hacked our way through the barbed wire entanglements, which had been badly wrecked by the fusillade.

"As we leaped into the 'Bosches'' entrenchment, bayoneting every one within reach, numerous Germans threw up their hands in token of surrender. I was just about to disarm one German who had begged for mercy when another thrust me in the thigh with his bayonet and a second one swung upon me with his rifle-butt. Of course, I remember nothing more, but I learned afterward that one of my comrades, who, by the way, was formerly a barber in Paris and who had shaved me many times, shot the German that knocked me out, through the head with his pistol, a second after I was struck."

TONIGHT'S ATTRACTIONS.

LYCEUM—"The Bird of Paradise."
ORPHEUM—Baron H. S. de la Malaussene with "Fighting for France," motion pictures.
REX—Bessie Barriscale in "Honor's Altar," photoplay.
LYRIC—Fannie Ward in "Tennessee's Pardner," photoplay.
ZELDA—Antonio Moreno in "Kennedy Square," photoplay.
SUNBEAM—Edna Mayo and Henry Walthall in "The Strange Case of Mary Page," photoplay.

Theater Gossip.

Today's performances will close one of the best bills of the season at the popular New Grand.

POPULAR SHOW CLOSES AT GRAND

The Electrical Venus is headlining in the person of Mable Burnell and she is rightly named "Venus." Her electrical experiments are scientific and with the "committee from the audience" the act takes on a lot of good wholesome comedy that is refreshing and enjoyable.

Delmore and Moore in a comedy skit, "Behind the Scenes;" the Three Lorettas, offering a melange of music, mirth and dance, and Wilfred Du Bois, the "juggling genius," are among the other interesting vaudeville offerings.

"Bill Peter's Kid," three-reel subject, toplines the photoplays while the regular weekly installment of the Stingaree stories together with two good comedies, make up the remainder of the program.

Tomorrow the new bill will be headed by Kelly and Glavin, who characterize an actor and an Italian playing on the eccentricities of the two characters in a manner that brings laughs by the score. Roy and Arthur in a juggling oddity, "Fun in a Dining Car;" Willing and Jordan, offering a melange of songs of the day, and Alvarez and Martell in a comedy singing, talking and dancing diversion balance up the vaudeville part of the entertainment. The usual list of excellent photoplays make up the rest of the program.

* * *

Moving picture fans have learned that when a Griffith play is made, all is sacrificed for realism, and the announcement of the program of the Rex for three days beginning tomorrow, Thursday, carries with it a hint of a bit of new realism—a genuine prize fight, in which Douglas Fairbanks, star in "His Picture in the Papers," puts on the gloves. The contest, which is part of the story of winning the love of a woman, is witnessed by many moving picture stars, seen in the audience, and some prize fighters of note. Terry McGovern is easily recognizable at the ringside.

REALISM AT THE REX.

The play, which is followed by one of those enjoyable Keystone comedies, is a strong story of active scenes in which the prize fight is but one of many realistic groupings devised by playwright and scenic artists. Miss Bessie Barriscale holds the boards at the Rex today and tonight for the last appearance in "Honor's Altar."

* * *

How the present generation has enjoyed reading and hearing about the exciting days of '49, when pioneers braved the dangers of the overland trail to reach the gold diggings of California! Bringing these scenes and days back with all the realism that modern filmdom has at its command, and with an actress who is mistress of her art, the Lyric offers today and tomorrow "Tennessee's Pardner," with Miss Fannie Ward in the leading role. Her strong support leaves nothing to be wished for in a picture that was made amid the very scenes of California with which the story deals.

DAY OF '94 IN PHOTOPLAY.

It is a Lasky production, a Paramount photoplay that required weeks in the making. Miss Ward, much enjoyed in "The Cheat" and "The Marriage of Kitty," is in this rich play, "Tennessee," a waif of the plains who grows up among the men and women of that period, with all the excitement of the times portrayed most realistically.

* * *

"Kennedy Square," F. Hopkinson Smith's well known novel of aristocratic life in the old South, has been picturized in five pleasing acts and will be shown at the Zelda theater for three days, commencing this afternoon.

"KENNEDY SQUARE" AT THE ZELDA

The characterization, placed in the hands of such skilful screen players as Antonio Moreno, the dramatic star, who was last seen at the Zelda in "The Price for Folly;" Muriel Ostriche, one of the popular actresses in the movies; Charles Kent and other other well known players, is well defined. Mr. Kent gives an impersonation of St. George Temple, the old aristocrat, who befriends Harry Rutter, his hot-headed young friend, after the latter gets into the bad graces of his lady love through looking too long upon the wine.

Antonio Moreno gives a good portrayal of the young Southerner, as does Miss Ostriche of the girl.

The plot runs smoothly throughout the entire picture, which is replete with thrilling and exciting scenes.

* * *

Undoubtedly thousands of persons in Duluth have read "The Strange Case of Mary Page," the fascinating story by Frederick Lewis, the author of "What Happened to Mary," which was declared to be the greatest photoplay serial ever published. Mr. Lewis again seems to have "struck twelve" in "The Strange Case of Mary Page," which has been run in fifteen thrilling episodes in The Ladies World and later by scores of other magazines and newspapers. Beginning today this serial will be shown every Wednesday and Thursday at the Sunbeam.

"MARY PAGE" SERIES BEGINS AT SUNBEAM.

Mary Page has now stepped from the magazine to the screen. Mary Page, when played by Edna Mayo, declared to be the most beautiful actress of the screen, takes on increasing popularity. With Miss Mayo is Henry B. Walthall, who starred in "The Birth of a Nation," and who is said to be the most masterful interpreter of the silent drama.

Following is a summary of the first episode:

"Mary Page, a beautiful actress, at last is to appear as a Broadway star. On the evening of the dress rehearsal of her new play, James Pollock, who covets her, attacks her in her dressing room. Philip Langdon, her sweetheart, rushes to her defense. Philip gives Mary a revolver, telling her to use it if Pollock continues his attentions. After the dress rehearsal the company attends a banquet. Pollock lures Mary into a private dining room. There the murder is committed. Mary, herself, does not know whether she shot Pollock. She almost believes she did, for throughout her life a powerful evil influence has affected her mind."

Imported Prints.

Just received a collection of fine imported English prints direct from London. This collection will be placed on sale beginning Thursday morning at a reduction of 25 per cent. This is your opportunity. Engels' Art Store, fine art dealers.

HEAVY CASH CREDIT IN FUNDS OF STATE

St. Paul, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—When the state treasurer's office opened for business today there was a cash credit to the various state funds amounting to $4,338,178.65. This is $1,000,000 better than the same period a year ago.

Today State Treasurer Gooding began the distribution among the banks of the state of approximately $400,000, this representing receipts from gross earnings taxes and other sources. Most of it will go to the county banks.

The Virtue of the Natural Leaf is perfectly preserved in the sealed "SALADA" B104 packet. Young tender leaves only, grown with utmost care and with flavour as the prime object, are used to produce the famous Salada blends.

Abram's New Store
17 and 19 East Superior Street
One-Half Block East of Lake Ave.

Final Clearance Sale of All Fall and Winter
Coats and Suits

Just 30 suits in all—Gabardines, Poplin and Serge; all nicely tailored, silk lined; formerly sold at $22.50, $26.50, $28.50 and $35.00—all go at..... $5.00

Cloth Coats
In fancy mixtures, Zibelines, Broadcloth and Furtex Cloth. These garments have formerly sold up to $28.50, all to go at... $5.00

50 Sample Spring Dresses, in Silk, Poplin and Serge. These dresses would sell elsewhere from $8.50 to $10.00—a big bargain for..... $4.85

New Spring Garments arriving daily

National Store
29 and 31 West Superior St.
G. A. ORECK & SONS CO., Sole Props.

SALE OF HOSIERY

50 Dozen Artificial SILK HOSE
Regular 35c Value for 19c
All sizes and good range of colors. These are not seconds, nor are they imperfect in any way. In order to make this lot last throughout the day, we will limit sales to—
2 PAIRS TO EACH CUSTOMER.....
19c

The foundation of good health for your children is laid when they learn the thrice daily use of
Dr. Lyon's PERFECT Tooth Powder
Prepared by a Doctor of Dental Surgery
Send 2c stamp today for a generous trial package of either Dr. Lyon's Perfect Tooth Powder or Dental Cream.
L. W. LYON & SONS, Inc.
583 W. 27th St., N. Y. City

"WHERE VALUES REIGN SUPREME"
STACK & CO.
21 and 23 WEST SUPERIOR STREET.

Bed Spreads $2.50
$3.50 Bed Spreads, fringed, scalloped and cut corners.. $2.50

Bed Sheets 69c
$5c Bed Sheets, double bed size; extra heavy, at only..... 69c

New Spring Suits
A beautiful range of Dressy and Tailored models. We are now featuring two exceptional values in these charming new suits at—
$17.50 and $22.50

New Spring Waists
New Spring Waists—A wonderful variety of styles in Jap Silks, new stripes, also Voiles, Lawns and Organdies. Brand new; all sizes, on sale Thursday, choice.
$1.00
We do not hesitate to state that these waists are absolutely great for the price.

Skirts
New Spring Skirts—Dressy new models made up in Poplin, Serge, Gabardine, Taffeta and new checks, featuring two great values for Thursday at $5.95 and
$2.95

Left Overs
Small lots of Winter Left Overs in Suits, Coats, Furs, etc., to be closed out on Thursday; a few very choice Plush Coats included. The prices on these garments will be only a fraction of their real value.

Extraordinary Shirt Values
Men's Dress Shirts—Coat styles, with cuffs attached, in neat black and white and fancy stripes..... 50c
Men's $1.50 Chesterfield Dress Shirts—Hand embroidered; cut extra full, in neat stripes, plain and fancy... 98c

Armour's
The Armour Oval never appears except upon the best that Armour makes.
Besides Glendale Oleomargarine, the Oval Label also identifies:
Star Stockinet Ham, Star Bacon
"Simon Pure" Leaf Lard
Devonshire Farm Sausage
Armour's Grape Juice
Verlbest Butter
And over 100 Known Foods.

There's an Armour Oval Label Store near you

Glendale
OLEOMARGARINE is a scientifically correct combination of highest grade butter fat and pure nutritive oils.
It comes to you packed in cartons, with Uncle Sam's endorsement of purity.
The Oval Label is Armour's guarantee of quality.
Glendale is the delicious, economical spread for bread. Phone us your dealer's name if he can't supply you.
ARMOUR & COMPANY
DULUTH, MINN.
J. C. Fisher, Manager.
Phones—Mel. 2206; Grand 251.

Armour's QUALITY PRODUCTS

DEFECTIVE PAGE

THE DULUTH HERALD

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

Published every evening except Sunday by The Herald Company at Duluth, Minn.

Both Telephones—Business Office, 324; Editorial Rooms, 1126.

Entered as second-class matter at the Duluth postoffice under the act of congress of March 3, 1870.

OFFICIAL PAPER, CITY OF DULUTH

SUBSCRIPTION RATES—By mail, payable in advance, one month, 35 cents; three months, $1; six months, $2; one year, $4; Saturday Herald, $1 per year; Weekly Herald, $1 per year.

Daily by carrier, city and suburbs, 10 cents a week, 45 cents a month

Subscribers will confer a favor by making known any complaint in order.

When changing the address of your paper, it is important to give both old and new addresses.

The Duluth Herald accepts advertising contracts with the distinct guarantee that it has the largest circulation in Minnesota outside the Twin Cities.

The Herald will be glad to have its attention called to any misleading or untrue statement which may appear in its news, editorial or advertising columns.

TODAY IN HISTORY.

Augustus Saint Gaudens born, 1848.

Born in Dublin of French and Irish parentage, he was brought to New York when six months old. Apprenticed to a cameo-cutter at 13, where he gained much of the delicacy of his later work as sculptor. After several years in Paris and Rome he returned to this country in 1873, the first American sculptor with complete French training, and attention was attracted to his work immediately. Many beautiful monuments, including the splendid Farragut monument in Madison Square, New York, remain to testify to the scope of his genius. Died in 1907.

READING (available in Duluth public library)—Royal Cortissoz, Augustus Saint Gaudens; Kenyon Kox, 900 Masters and New (good, brief treatment of early work of Saint Gaudens).

EXPERT TESTIMONY.

"We must have the largest navy afloat."—Rear Admiral Knight.

"We must have compulsory universal military service and make every man a soldier."—General Wood.

"The trouble with this country is that it eats too little meat. To be strong and wise and patriotic, every American citizen should eat a pound of steak three times a day."—The Butcher.

"The people of this country eat too much meat. They don't eat enough bread. Bread is the ideal food, and a people fed wholly or largely upon bread will wax great and strong and rich."—The Baker.

"What is wrong with this country, and the only serious thing wrong with it, is the decline of candle-using. Kerosene, gas, electric light, are all bad for the eyes and weakening to the mental and moral fiber of the nation. Every family should buy plenty of candlesticks, and get the mild, mellow, sweet and invigorating light of candles."—The Candlestick-maker.

Just the same, the old maps of Europe are holding their own a lot longer than most people expected they would when the war began.

SAFEGUARDING THE MILK SUPPLY.

The health department proposes a new milk control ordinance about which there is—and should be—a good deal of discussion.

It is important to have pure milk. Milk, while a good food, is a great absorber of dirt and very hospitable to germs. One of the chief duties of the health department is to safeguard the milk supply, and in the proposed ordinance Dr. Fahey, health officer, offers what he believes to be a better and stronger system of controlling and safeguarding the milk supply than it has now.

With that effort, everybody ought to be in sympathy.

It is so easy, though, to slip over the line of necessity and do injustice to the small dealers that the ordinance should be studied carefully. The first concern should be the public health, and everything must be subordinate to that. Yet care should be taken, and we have no doubt Dr. Fahey has it in mind to take that care, that needless burdens are not placed on small milk dealers when the city is so vitally interested in encouraging the development of near-by acres, many of which will be devoted to dairying.

Care should be taken, too, it seems to us, neither to give a misleading importance to the term or process of pasteurization nor to under-rate its value. The proposed grades are as follows: Grade A, Raw Milk; Grade A, Pasteurized; Grade B, Raw Milk; and Grade B, Pasteurized. To label unpasteurized milk "Raw" might lead many to think it an inferior product, when it may be a superior product.

Wherever there is the slightest doubt about milk, it should be pasteurized. Pasteurization is heating it to a temperature of 140 degrees for a certain time, to kill whatever germs may be in it; and that's all it is. Pasteurization is an absolute necessity where the milk supply is dubious; but it is not better milk for being pasteurized—merely safer milk.

If the grading could be done without creating any misleading impression, it would be better. For instance, suppose grades something like these were adopted, and the bottle labeled only with the grade:

First Grade—Milk from regularly inspected dairies, meeting all the requirements of sanitation, having more than the required percentage of butter fat, and showing less than a certain low bacterial count.

Second Grade—Pasteurized milk produced under approved conditions and showing less than a certain bacterial count.

Third Grade—Pasteurized milk showing more than the fixed basis of bacterial count.

Fourth Grade—Raw milk showing more than the fixed basis of bacterial count.

The plan of grading milk is sound. When milk is ungraded, the public has no guide, and poor milk and good milk, safe milk and dangerous milk, are all on the same level. But the grading system adopted should be fair to milk which is so clean and good that it does not require pasteurization.

The ordinance gives unquestioned power to the health department to inspect milk supplies received from outside points beyond the reach of local inspection, and to do it in the cans before it is pasteurized. This power the department certainly should have. It would be absurd to regulate rigidly every local dairy, and still have half the city's milk supply come in uninspected from outside points, trusting to pasteurization to make it safe. There is some milk that the city never should allow to be sold, pasteurized or unpasteurized. If milk is to be inspected and regulated, all of it should be included. This work the health department is doing now, but with uncertain powers. The proposed ordinance would make these powers certain.

The matter is of the highest importance, and the city should enact the best milk ordinance that can be devised. It should be strong, it should be effective, and it should be just to all interests. The health department ought to have the fullest possible co-operation in getting up such an ordinance.

Maybe Duluth had better mount a battery on the aerial bridge as a means of protection against the mysterious aeroplanes.

THE NATIONAL REGATTA.

Duluth wants the national rowing regatta.

Moreover, it ought to have it. It is the place for it—the greatest spot for rowing or any other summer sport or pleasure on the continent—and the prowess of its oarsmen in far-off regattas surely has earned it the honor it seeks.

Moreover again, if the national association chooses Duluth, it will never regret it. Those who come, as oarsmen or spectators, will discover why it is that Duluth sweeps the boards at regattas and elsewhere—because it has a climate that makes for hundred-per-cent efficiency the year around, and a people eager to make the most of it.

They are circulating petitions for the regatta. If petitions will get it, consider it landed. There is not usually the greatest difficulty about getting signers to petitions; and in this case everybody to whom the paper comes will sign with good will and an extra heavy stroke of the pen.

Duluth wants that regatta, and if there is anything the boat club folks can think of that Duluth can do to help them get it, they have only to mention it.

Duluth would rather have that regatta than sixteen million widely advertised ice carnivals.

An excellent example of what may happen even to a fellow who thinks himself prepared is furnished by the sad condition of international law these days.

WASHINGTON'S ADVICE.

George Washington, speaking in a time when even the possibility of world peace had hardly been dreamed of, said "in time of peace prepare for war;" so American militarists today are fond of quoting him to support their arguments.

But some things he said they do not quote.

Those of them who are advocating an active, armed participation in world politics do not quote his earnest warning against interfering in the complex and dangerous politics of Europe.

And one thing he said in his Farewell Address we particularly commend to the earnest consideration of Col. Roosevelt and other fire-eaters who are straining at the leash and hardly able to contain themselves, so disgusted are they with the ignoble peacefulness of our relations with a world at war:

> Avoid those overgrown military establishments which under any form of government are inauspicious to liberty, and which are to be regarded as particularly hostile to republican liberty.

Odd as it may seem, in war time some places "get on the map" by being wiped off the earth.

TEACH SPANISH.

"One of the big banks," says F. W. Fitzpatrick of Washington, formerly of Duluth, "recently sent a commission on a trip south to look into the commercial condition and possibilities of the South American countries, and it took two weeks to find a clerk or two who knew enough about Spanish to accompany that commission as interpreter. The bank, a progressive institution, realizing that things were not as they should be, organized a Spanish class and now compels its clerks to study that language."

The moral of that is, as we have said a number of times before, that the public schools of the United States should teach Spanish. And if it is necessary to discard either Latin, French or German to do that, let them be discarded.

Incidentally, higher institutions of learning should amend their requirements so as to make Spanish an alternative where they require one or more languages as a qualification for entrance.

If Billy Sunday is laying up treasures in heaven any faster than he is the treasures of earth, he should worry about a couple of eternities.

There recurs the thought: "What if we should prepare in order to avoid war, and then some other country shouldn't care two whoops in a biplane whether we were prepared or not?"

Talks on Thrift

Issued by the American Bankers' Association.

Mary's Kitchen Sink.

Mary is the wife of a country storekeeper. She keeps the house, takes care of the children and helps wait on the store. She works hard—harder than her husband, and he works harder than he should.

Up to the present they have had few of the conveniences of life. Water came from a near-by spring, and the housework was done under distressing conditions, owing to the greed of the landlord. He finally agreed to put in the improvements so necessary to human comfort, and Mary's life promised to become easier. The problem was where to put the kitchen sink.

Now Mary had a favorite rocking chair that had a mortgage on the corner. Next came the stove, then her kitchen cabinet. To put the sink in the corner would disturb the rocking chair, and that would never do. The stove and the cabinet could not be moved; therefore it was resolved, after much deliberation, to put the sink in an adjoining room, in a dark corner thirty feet from the stove. This, of course, meant miles of walking every day for Mary, but she could find no other way. But a kindly inclined friend, who could study a job, suggested moving the sink between the stove and the cabinet, where it belonged. It was done, and behold, Mary is a happy, rested woman.

Now, what is the moral of it all? Just this: Too many women walk too much on their jobs, which job consists in getting the housework done in the shortest time and with the least expenditure of energy. Why should Mary—why should any woman—walk half a mile in getting dinner? A pan in one place, a pot in another, flour, sugar and salt in another. Back and forth, to and fro, and for what? Wearing out shoes, carpets and nerves, just because the kitchen sink has not been put in its place. It's a fine art to have things handy. The thrifty workman studies his work to see how he can cut it down, keeping tools in good condition, but near by.

A certain business man in New York cannot dictate a letter. He writes it out long hand, and has his stenographer copy it. His telephone is on the wall twenty feet from his desk, which is piled high with old letters and papers. He has to hunt to find things. He is wasting time, nerve force and patience, just because he can't get his kitchen sink adjusted right.

The problem of all business—from running a home to running a railroad—is to cut out waste of time and material, to get kitchen sinks where they belong. Lost motion is costly, it racks the machine, human as well, as inanimate Mary would have carried her kettle from the stove to the sink in the dark corner a dozen times in washing the dishes. Now she doesn't carry it at all. She has solved her problem.

Your problem is the same in essence. Learn how to use the telephone, the typewriter, the carbon sheet. Learn where to keep your tools as well as how to keep them. Study short cuts. Eliminate false steps. Do things the easiest (but the best) way. Save your strength for useful purposes. Study your job, whatever it be, for, whether it be big or little, it has the problem of Mary's kitchen sink, and lucky for you if you get it in the right place.

Universal Service Will Fail

Universal military service will fail to integrate America, says the New Republic.

"It is a wholesale and mechanical solution for a real problem, a case of good vision frustrated by bad technique. For it is clear that if years of compulsory education have not disciplined us, six months of military drill will not do it. Our conscriptionists are novices in education. At the very moment when teachers are discovering that discipline and responsibility cannot be produced by blind obedience to superiors, military enthusiasts are in haste to embrace the discarded theory and to educate a people through the drillmaster.

"There is a deeper failure in this approach to the problem. Assume that the Swiss military system would really produce the utopia promised. The fact remains that short of the gravest national danger the system cannot be adopted in the United States. England in the midst of a terrible war has hardly dared to adopt conscription. In peaceful America, with the exceptional isolation of our people, the scheme is fantastic. The propagandists are impressed because the idea of conscription has made headway. Let them not deceive themselves. It has made headway among an insignificant minority. The opposition has not been felt because the American people do not regard the idea as a serious possibility. The propagandists, of course, meet many people who agree with them, and this gives them the illusion of success. But the trouble is that they meet mainly the people who agree with them. All propagandists do."

The Germans See the Eiffel Tower.

From Arthur Sweetzir's "Roadside Glimpses of the Great War." (Macmillan): "Monsieur, what is that in the distance?" I asked.

"That Monsieur, is the Eiffel tower."

The Eiffel tower! Great heavens, think of it—that superhuman dash, through Belgium, through France, fifteen to thirty miles a day, constant fighting, little sleeping, scant provisions, and finally the crest of this last hill. Imagine the joy, the officers with swords on high pointing to where Paris could actually be seen; calling for one last superhuman effort; and then, instead—the recoil. Think of the agony of that turning back! I can imagine the last glance at the fairy-like structure, the glance of the nation's soul, baffled, defeated, emotions powerful enough almost to lift the vanquished up and dash them against the tower's iron ribs; the sob of anger and anguish as faces were finally turned in retreat. Truly it is one of the great tragedies of history, this retreat. Glorious though it was for the French, it was by just the same measure anguishing to the Germans.

Rippling Rhymes

By Walt Mason

Think Twice.

Think twice before you mail the note in which you give your anger vent, in which you recklessly devote yourself to skinning some poor gent. For doubtless when your anger cools, you'll kick your spine up through your hat, and say, "I was the prince of fools to send a man such rot as that!" Think twice before you pass along the scandal that you heard last night; you may do some good man a wrong that years of effort can't set right. And though the story true may seem, why rob a neighbor of his goat? From your own eye remove the beam, before you reach for t'other's mote. Think twice before you jaw your wife; there was a time, some years ago, when you declared you'd make her life as cheerful as a picture show. Alas, she took you at your word, as damsels do, and always did; and all her married years she's heard her husband yawping through his lid. Think twice before you do a thing your soul refuses to indorse; for every wicked act will bring the certain penalty, remorse!

(Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.)

Taft Versus Root

Editorial in the Pittsburgh Post.

With Theodore Roosevelt and Elihu Root denouncing the Wilson administration for refusal to embroil the United States in the European war by a protest against the invasion of Belgium, it is interesting to recall the expression of Former President Taft on this subject in an address at Morristown, N. J., just a year ago, lacking one day, on the occasion of the anniversary of the birth of George Washington. Mr. Taft praised the stand taken by Wilson for neutrality and referred to it as only in line with that of Washington against entangling our peace in the affairs of Europe. Among other things, Mr. Taft said:

> They (referring to the critics of President Wilson) complain of the administration because it did not protest against every violation of international law committed by one set of belligerents against the others. This view was made to depend at first upon what was thought to be a treaty obligation on the part of the United States to protest, growing out of the provision of The Hague treaties to which most of the belligerents, together with the United States, have been signatory.
>
> Further examination, I think, showed that most of these treaties were by their own terms inoperative, because they had not been signed by all the belligerents. While the people of the United States might well maintain the wisdom and righteousness of such provisions, or deplore their violation, their government was not under any treaty obligation to take part in the controversy, to express an opinion, or to register a protest.
>
> We must realize that, in a controversy like this, where the whole life blood of each contestant is being poured out, and in which its very existence as a nation is at stake, protests like those proposed in respect of issues in which a neutral is not directly interested, may well seem to the highly sensitive peoples engaged a formal declaration of sympathy in the war, with one side or the other. This must inevitably injure our attitude of neutrality without accomplishing any good.
>
> Therefore, while I sympathize with the Belgians in this war, whose country, without any fault of theirs, has been made its bloody center, I approve and commend to the full the attitude of President Wilson in declining to consider the evidence brought before him in respect to atrocities in Belgium, and to express an opinion on the issues presented. A similar decision with respect to the application of the German government to have him investigate the evidence of the use of dum-dum bullets was equally sound.
>
> We are not sitting as judges of issues between countries in Europe in this great war. We are seeking to maintain strict neutrality, and until our decision is invoked with an agreement to abide by our judgment and recommendation for settlement, we need not embroil ourselves by official expressions of criticism or approval of the acts of the participants in the war. This is not only the wisest course for us to pursue in maintaining an attitude that may give us influence in promoting mediation when mediation is possible, but it will help us to avoid being drawn into the war.

We believe that Mr. Taft here expresses the views of the great majority of Republicans on this subject. It is the only reasonable position to take. President Wilson is maintaining the traditional policies of the American government.

An Unexpected Spokesman

New York World: "Civilization cannot be made an engine of war and perfected to foresee every contingency. It is inherent in liberty that it acts slowly, clumsily perhaps, but this very slowness and clumsiness constitute the strength of free people."—King Peter of Serbia.

This is the most sincere and succinct declaration of faith in the spiritual strength of liberty as against the material efficiency of absolutism that we recall having read since the war began.

Democrats all over the world have been mutely feeling this conviction. It took a king to express it!

The Pauper's Drive

There's a grim one-horse hearse in a jolly round trot,
To the churchyard a pauper is going, I wot;
The road it is rough, and the hearse has no springs;
And hark to the dirge which the mad driver sings;
Rattle his bones over the stones!
He's only a pauper whom nobody owns!

O, where are the mourners? Alas! there are none;
He has left not a gap in the world, now he's gone—
Not a tear in the eye of child, woman or man;
To the grave with his carcass as fast as you can;
Rattle his bones over the stones!
He's only a pauper whom nobody owns!

What a jolting and creaking and splashing and din!
The whip, how it cracks! and the wheels how they spin!
How the dirt, right and left, o'er the hedges is hurled!
The pauper at length makes a noise in the world.
Rattle his bones over the stones!
He's only a pauper whom nobody owns!

Poor pauper defunct! he has made some approach
To gentility, now that he's stretched in a coach!
He's taking a drive in his carriage at last,
But it will not be long, if he goes on so fast;
Rattle his bones over the stones!
He's only a pauper whom nobody owns!

You bumpkins, who stare at your brother conveyed,
Behold what respect to a cloddy is paid!
And be joyful to think, when by death you're laid low,
You've a chance to the grave like a gemman to go!
Rattle his bones over the stones!
He's only a pauper whom nobody owns!

But a truce to this strain; for my soul it is sad,
To think that a heart in humanity clad
Should make, like the brute, such a desolate end,
And depart from the light without leaving a friend!
Bear soft his bones over the stones!
Though a pauper, he's one whom his Maker yet owns.

—Thomas Noel.

Stands for a Large Body.

Life: "I can no longer follow Col. Roosevelt," says Jane Addams. "It is my sober judgment that he does not speak for any large body of people."

How many is a large body?

The Colonel speaks for "the Colonel," for "T. R," for "Teddy," for ex-President Roosevelt, for Roosevelt the Faunal Expert, Roosevelt the Explorer, Roosevelt the Historian, Dr. Roosevelt of Oxford and the Hon. Theodore Roosevelt of Oyster Bay.

We call that quite a crowd, and when you consider that not a man in it weighs less than 250 pounds it has a fair claim to be considered a large body of people.

The Two Men He Fears.

New York Evening Post: Wilson is getting on. A little while ago he was an abject academic, frightened at every shadow. Now "the only men in the world he is afraid of are the kaiser and myself." Pretty soon the kaiser may be the only object of terror left.

Duluth and The Herald

Bonquets and Brickbats From the Press.

Which One?

Chisholm Tribune-Herald: At the end of the year, when the Duluth papers prepare the list of names for the roll of honor of those who "Do it for Duluth," they should not forget the distinguished representative of the Zenith City who took the plunge in the fountain of Chicago's fashionable hostelry.

It Takes Duluth to Do What Others Say Can't Be Done.

Mankato Free Press: Wolves are chasing the messenger boys in Duluth. Glad to learn there is something that will speed up the messenger boys.

Another Short Ballot Convert.

Perham Enterprise: The Duluth Herald is in favor of revising the state Constitution. So are we, but we are afraid that our plans would not jibe. The Constitution ought to be revised to a point where the legal fraternity would come out of the small end of the horn in any attempt to trip up the legislature. Then the legislature should be expurgated of all the damn fools, which would give us a small, mobile working body, fewer laws and more results from taxation. After that it might be well to remove from the elective list all the administrative officers and make them appointive with the proviso that the governor should go along to jail with anyone of them that defaulted. With a few radical changes of the same nature the state Constitution might be brought up to date.

It was a Case of Winning With Only Reasonable Preparedness.

Stillwater Gazette: Duluth has a resident who thinks he has become famous as a hunter, because he killed a bobcat with a club. He sure did have nerve, but maybe his only weapon was a club and it became a question of a survival of the fittest of the fightest.

It Is Noted.

Mankato Review: "There are those who may wonder how the world can be so wicked as to have a war when it has a Billy Sunday in it."—Duluth Herald.

The Herald might do well to note that the particular corner of the world that Billy has been working in is still at peace, in spite of the efforts of the devil and the Terrible Teddy.

It Jangled Out of Tune That Time, All Right.

Fergus Falls Wheelock's Weekly: The Bellman asks scornfully who would ever ask Mr. Brandeis to arbitrate in a contest between capital and labor. The Duluth Herald replies that the women's garment cutters and their employers did that very thing, making him chairman of the board of arbitration which successfully ended their long dispute. The Bellman better change its bell for one that rings true.

Come and Count 'Em if You Don't Believe It.

Wabasha Herald: "Duluth now claims a population of 100,000 souls, and the claim doesn't sound as if it emanated from some official population liar imported for the purpose either."—Princeton Union.

Right you are. Bonner's figures will prove your assertion.

The Lady Is Most Kind.

Little Falls Transcript: Some of the best state editorial matter extant emanates from the pen of the editor of The Duluth Herald. One article worthy of widespread reproduction appears in the Transcript's news columns today, the subject being "Wanted—More Unpartisan Thinking." It places the proper value on the partisanship idea—too frequently overworked and overstrained. The article should be read by Republicans and Democrats alike. Humanity is first of all—just plain humanity.

Michigan Musings

Brief Paragraphs From the Wolverine State Press.

Why Not Put Up "Fresh Paint" Signs?

Marquette Chronicle: Warnings are issued against kissing, in view of the danger of getting influenza. There would seem more danger in some cases of catching the diseases that affect painters.

The Philosopher Philosophizes.

Hancock Copper Journal: Money acquired by unlawful methods may serve the immediate purpose for which it was secured, but generally speaking, the man who gets it must pay in the end and pay dearly, at the cost of more money and at the cost of reputation that money cannot buy.

Do You Want Us to Tell-again?

Saginaw News: Lemme see—who did Geraldine Farrar marry?

"Use the School Buildings" Is the Word These Days.

Crystal Falls Diamond Drill: Crystal Falls isn't large enough for two libraries, and besides there is absolutely no necessity for a duplication of plants. The community has put money enough into school buildings to have one room set apart for public library purposes. Alpha has the privilege of a public reading room at its Porter school and there is no reason why Crystal Falls shouldn't have similar privilege.

This Was Bound to Come.

Marquette Chronicle: Not merely is President Wilson famed for his own career, but he might also be able to prove himself a relative of Catcher Wilson now sold to the Pittsburgh Nationals.

Where Are "Kelly and Burke and Shea?"

Marquette Mining Journal: Diekema, Leland, Musselman, Martindale, Carton, Dickinson, Gardner. Next!

They May Turn the Tires Into Boarding House Steaks.

Detroit Free Press: Horse meat is being sold in New York. Thank heavens, worn-out autos can't land in the butcher shop, anyhow!

It's Life Lines They Need Then.

Grand Rapids Press: Our friends in the Sunny South always feel themselves peculiarly helpless during a flood because it is the one emergency that cannot be met by lynching somebody.

The Circulation of Money.

New York Mail: A man made $25 of loose, surplus, unearned increment by putting poor quality in a case of soldiers' shoes he shipped abroad. As he had lots more money, made the same way, he gave the $25 to a head waiter to reserve a table for New Year's eve.

The head waiter gave the $25 to his wife, who handled his finances, and she used $24.95 of it to pay the head waiter's income tax.

The income tax will be devoted to supplying a navy to stand off some country that doesn't like us any more because we made poor shoes for its soldiers.

As for the odd nickel, that is still in escrow, as it were, and will be thus for another generation or two, when the son of the head waiter will throw it to the grandson of the shoe manufacturer as a start toward a night's lodging.

Money always goes somewhere.

Don't Mention Kaiser's Birthday.

London Observer: It is noted that the Vorwaerts, a Socialist organ, was the only paper in Germany which made no mention of the kaiser's birthday recently. But that is a matter of principle and not of emergency. Even when the first grandson of the kaiser was born in 1906 the Vorwaerts appeared without the slightest reference to the event.

Thank God For Wilson

Editorial in the Dayton News.

These are tremendous times. Never before in the history of the world have events crowded into one week with such significance as to stir the emotions of man and make him turn his eyes toward heaven and wonder what is coming next. Not since the dawn of Eden has there been such destruction of humanity as is taking place now on the western battle front. An eye witness gives in few words the awful story of a brigade of soldiers being swept away under the deadly fire of machine guns; thousands of homes wiped out in an instant, and tens of thousands of lives made desolate for widows and orphans. It can only be hoped that this awful spectacle of slaughter will so shock the sensibilities of Europe as to bring the thing to an end, and with it the lessons of war will be so strongly implanted in the impressions of generations to come that hope almost gives way to the conviction that the arbitrament of force will be abandoned.

In America we are having an entirely different experience. The country is prosperous—men and women can go to and from their homes without the awful suspense and anxiety of war. But the nation's heart is sore. We cannot but feel the humiliation brought upon us by the wave of apparent lunacy that seems to have swept into congress. If ever a man seems to have been called by Divine hand for the emergencies of the hour, it is Woodrow Wilson. He meets the rantings of cowards and the blow and bluster of men seemingly dispossessed of national pride, with the ringing declaration that, "We covet peace and shall preserve it at any cost but the loss of honor."

It is unfortunate that we haven't the power to recall congressmen and senators. If the country were able to speak today, it would send many a misguided statesman into the shades of everlasting retirement. The proposition of having Americans surrender their rights, retire from the seas, go into the shells of careless abandon and safety, and admit before the world that we have become a people too craven to stand for the privilege given to us by international declaration, is sufficient to chill the blood in every man who has a tinge of patriotism in him. Thank God, congress does not reflect the attitude of our people, and thanks again that we have a president who means to maintain a policy that will enable us to hold high our heads in pride now and forever.

Just a Moment

Daily Strength and Cheer.

Compiled by John G. Quinlan, the Sunshine Man.

Prudence (in its ordinary but most inadequate sense) has done very little for the world except to tease and hinder many of its masters and sovereigns. It would have kept back every mariner from the deep, and deterred every traveler from the desert—it would have put out the fires of science, and clipped the wings of poetry—it would have kept Abram at home, and found Moses a comfortable settlement in Egypt. Beware of imprudent prudence; it will lull you to sleep, and bring you to a nameless and worthless end.

It must not always be too rigidly observed.

We sacrifice too much to prudence and in fear of incurring the danger or reproach of enthusiasm, too often stifle the holiest impulses of the understanding and of the heart.—Southey.

It may, upon occasion, be wholly disregarded.

The highest wisdom lies sometimes in yielding to the moment's burning inspiration, and in disregarding the dictates of mere prudence.

Religion in most countries, more or less in every country, is no longer what is was, and should be—a thousand-voiced psalm from the heart of man to his invisible Father, the fountain of all goodness, beauty, truth and revealed in every revelation of these; but for the most part a wise, prudential feeling, grounded on mere calculation; a matter, as all others now are, of expediency and utility; whereby some smaller quantum of earthly enjoyment may be exchanged for a far larger quantum of celestial enjoyment. Thus religion, too, is profit, a working for wages; not reverence, but vulgar hope or fear.—Carlyle.

Dayton, Ohio.

A Counter-Attack.

Judge: "What is a counter-attack, Pa?"

"When your mother goes shopping, Johnny."

Twenty Years Ago

From The Herald of this date, 1896.

Total destruction of the east half of the O'Brien & Knowlton block at 126 West Michigan street, with all its contents, the death of Mrs. Paul J. Boolwein, and a number of injuries by bruises or burns, are the results of a fire early yesterday morning. The commission houses of Smith, Koors & Co. and J. J. Hartley & Co. and the effects of roomers on the upper three floors were completely destroyed. There were about forty-eight tenants in the building. The burned building was owned by the American Exchange bank and was insured for $20,000. The Knowlton side of the building is insured for $20,250, and the loss on it is about 10 per cent. J. J. Hartley's loss is about $5,000, and he had $4,500 insurance. Smith, Koors & Co. lost about $3,000, and had $2,300 insurance. M. M. Gasser had a stock of groceries in the basement valued at $4,000, and it is a total loss. He had $3,000 insurance. The Duluth Coffee & Spice mill suffered water damage.

Mayor Henry Truelsen will send the name of T. B. Hawkes to the new council as his choice for city assessor. He will also present the name of C. W. Wilson for member of the board of public works, and will appoint Ivan Hansen as chief of police.

The firm of Howard & Patterson has been dissolved, J. D. Howard continuing the business. Peter Patterson has associated himself with O. C. and A. W. Hartman, and the firm will be known as Hartman & Patterson.

C. M. Vance and wife will leave tomorrow for the Pacific coast for a five weeks' tour.

The Adelphic society of the high school has chosen the following members for the joint contest with the Olympics: Recitation, Ora Gridley; essay, Bessie Drummond; oration, Sumner Prescott; debate, Olive Todd.

Frank Fitch, who has played shortstop for the Duluth club for several seasons, has received a trial call from Manager Watkins of the Indianapolis Western league team and will leave in a few days to join that team.

C. P. Maginnis and John Ryan have just closed a six months' option to Eastern parties on lots 3 and 4, section 19, 58-19, on the Mesaba range, for $100,000.

W. J. Johnson of Suffel & Co. has returned from a visit to the Eastern markets.

A fire at Nos. 12 and 14 Second avenue west, the building occupied by J. H. Edwards & Co., dealers in paints, oils and wall paper, early this morning, caused a loss of $500.

Mrs. E. Archibald has left on a visit to Pasadena, Cal.

Mrs. John C. Eden, who has just recovered from typhoid fever, has gone to Osage, Iowa, to visit her mother.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

THE OPEN COURT

Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the topics of general interest, but discussion of sectarian religious differences are barred. Letters must not exceed 300 words in length—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer though the name need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

CRUISER SAYS WOLVES ARE SLAUGHTERING DEER

To the Editor of The Herald:

Here are a few facts that should be of interest to all sportsmen:

We are four cruisers doing some extensive work near the border. Now there is hardly a day that we do not find from one to seven deer killed by wolves. Thomas Hasel of our party, an expert woodsman and good authority on animal life, figures that this killing is more extensive in a winter like this than hunters would do in three falls, for seven out of every deer killed by wolves are does, which are easy victims at this time of year.

This is a fact, and proof was shown by Mr. Hasel, that every doe killed means three deer less.

Moose are doing well but are very thin.

A bounty that would induce experts to kill wolves would be the proper remedy. Wolves are very plentiful and hungry, and will kill the easy doe just for killing.

I hope some steps will be taken to run in out these night prowlers. Yours respectfully, JOHN A. GORMAN, Cruiser.

Tower, Minn., Feb. 28.

HOW MANY NAMES MUST A VOTERS' PETITION HAVE?

To the Editor of The Herald:

I wish to take exception to the city attorney's remarks before the city council yesterday afternoon, which he based upon Judge Dancer's memorandum.

He is reported as saying: "If ten days more were allowed, it would be possible for an ordinance to be held ten days by a petition signed by 20 individuals."

First, I will call your attention to what the charter says regarding a petition. It says:

Sec. 52. "If during said thirty (30) days a petition, signed by qualified electors of the city equal in number at least ten (10) per centum of the total ballot cast at the last preceding general municipal election, protesting against the passage of such ordinance, shall be presented to the council, the same shall thereupon be suspended from going into operation," etc.

Next, I wish to point out, what to me seems clear, that unless a petition containing names of qualified electors equal to at least 10 per cent of the total ballot cast at the last preceding general municipal election is presented, though not necessarily registered, there is no petition that will cause the suspension of the operation of an ordinance passed by the council. Therefore there would be no two individuals who could sign a petition that can be recognized by the clerk, unless two constituted 10 per cent of the total ballot cast at the last general municipal election.

These seem to be the provisions of the Duluth charter as to what constitutes a petition that can operate in the recall, initiative or referendum questions. Petitions with less than per cent are not required to be considered.

Duluth, Feb. 29. A. G. CATLIN.

"DIRTY WATER."

To the Editor of The Herald:

The muddle into which the common has fallen, directed by their chief adviser, has muddled the water to such a great an extent as to be raised a question.

The rapidity of the changes from one thing to another, then changed again and again, has caused some of us to prick up our ears, and wonder what was happening. The commission said this, the city attorney said that, and Mr. Jenswold said "I will tell you all about it," and so he did. But who thought so?

My understanding of the referendum is that it is a joke as outlined in the charter. I have thought that I did understand the common English used in the charter, but I must admit that I did not, and furthermore I do not believe that it is possible for me to be able to understand the meaning of such common words as those used in it.

Well, the joke was well played and Mr. Jenswold should be given credit for turning the trick, even though we realize that the city has lost and the Shriners have gained a piece of property of great value. The commissioners said that the $50,000 offered was more than it was worth. There were many people who believed that to be true at the time the statement was made, but many reversed their decision when they learned the trouble, time and expense that the Shriners were going to in order to force the sale. They began to think that if the property was of no more value than was being offered for it, why should the Shriners use the machinery of the courts to bust wide open our new charter, and show that the printer's ink was placed upon it by mistake, and that it amounts to no more than any other piece of common paper.

There were many of us in Duluth who thought that we were smart, but we do not think so any more. And when we are asked the question, "What do you know?" our answer will be "NOTHING." Correct. Sit down. This is the first joke of 1916.

P. G. PHILLIPS.

West Duluth, Feb. 28.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

This department does not pretend to be infallible. It will endeavor, however, to answer questions sent to it by readers of The Herald to the best of its ability, reserving the right to ignore all that are trifling or of concern only to the questioner, or that ask for advice on legal or medical questions.

To receive attention, every inquiry must bear the name and address of the person sending it. This is not wanted for publication, but as an evidence of good faith.

Cyril Kleber, Duluth: If I own a house and lot in the country some place on which I have a dwelling, and a city is laid out in that locality, the result being my house stands in the street, can the city compel me to move my house out of the street without giving me some money for my property?

Ans.—On this statement of the circumstances, no.

Marcus H. Rabinowitz, Eveleth, Minn.: I would like to have the following questions answered in the Open Court: (1) Is it true that the United States navy is short about 20,000 men at the present time? If so, is it because they do not want them, or is it because they cannot get them? (2) Please explain to me how a "war game" is carried on in the United States navy. (3) Is this a test for the actual strength of the navy? (4) Please give me the results of the latest "war game" that was carried on. (5) Please publish the present composition of the United States navy—ships built, ships being built and those not in use. (6) Please give me the present composition and distribution of the United States army. (7) Please give me the number of men in the New York city police force. (8) How many in the Chicago police force?

Ans.: (1) No. The navy at present is a trifle above the ordinary quota of men allowed. (2) Strictly speaking, the "war game" is played in the United States war college, behind closed doors. It is played on a chart, on which blocks representing men or ships are moved to represent different maneuvers and tactics. The results of the game there played are never made public. In a more general sense the term "war game" is used to refer to the annual maneuvers of the navy. It is much like that played on the charts, except that it is on a natural scale instead of a reduced scale, and actual ships and men and forts, etc., are used instead of blocks. Such part of the naval force as is to take part in the maneuvers is divided into "friendly" and "hostile" fleets for the maneuvers, and strategic moves are practiced, both offensive and defensive. (3) No. It is a test of the tactical skill of the individual commanders engaged. (4) As a result of the last naval maneuvers the capture of New York city by an enemy was declared by the umpires. (5) The latest Navy year book shows: Number of ships in the navy, 343; not in use, 19; number being built, 68. (6) Cavalry, 15 regiments; field artillery, 6 regiments; coast artillery, a corps (170 companies); infantry, 30 regiments; engineers, 3 battalions, and special corps, scouts, recruits, etc. Total enlisted strength, staff and line, 87,248 besides provisional force and hospital and quartermaster corps. The law provides that the total enlisted strength shall not at any one time exceed 100,000. The army is divided among 83 garrisoned posts in the United States and the islands under its protection or government. These forces are constantly shifting and there is no means at hand of telling the exact distribution at present. In addition to the regular army there is the organized militia of 132,208 and the "unorganized militia" (including, under the law, all able-bodied males between 18 and 45 years old) of 20,538,347 men. (7) 10,674. (8) 3,000.

POEMS ASKED FOR.

The Herald acknowledges with thanks the receipt of the following:

"We'll Build a Little Home in the U. S. A.," from Mrs. John McInnis of Duluth.

"The Last Hymn" (The Drowning Singer), from Mrs. P. A. McClernan of Stephen, Minn.

"Peg-o'-My-Heart," from Elva Henderson of Bena, Minn.

Requests have been received for the following:

"The Dying Cowboy," "Jimmy Whalen" and "When a Boy From Old New Hampshire Weds a Girl From Tennessee," from Elva Henderson of Bena, Minn. ("The Dying Cowboy" appeared in these columns on Jan. 13 last.

"We'll Build a Little Home in the U. S. A."

A hundred thousand refugees have fled from the war,
Weary and worn, tired and torn;
Houses burning, no returning, hearts
overflow;
They're grieving, at leaving, with no place to go.
As they toil on their way,
Now I seem to hear them say:

Chorus:

"We will build a little home in the U. S. A.,
In the land of the Stripes and Stars;
We'll leave behind us the sorrows and cares of war,
And the kaisers, the kings and czars.
Uncle Sam spreads his arms across the ocean,
And I know he'll never turn us away,
So we'll sail across the foam,
And we'll build a little home
In the U. S. A."

We'll go where we will never hear the guns' awful roar,
Where there's no more war—peace
evermore.
Father, mother, sister, brother, happy
they'll be,
All cheering while nearing our sweet
Liberty,
As we speed on our way
To the good old U. S. A.

The Letter Edged in Black.

I was standing by my window yesterday morning,
Without a thought of worry or of care,
When I saw the postman coming down
the pathway,
With such a happy smile and jaunty
air.
Oh, he rang the bell and whistled
while he waited,
And then he said: "Good morning to you, Jack,"
But he little knew the sorrow that he brought me
When he handed me a letter edged in black.

Chorus.

As I heard the postman whistling
yester morning
Coming down the pathway with his pack,
Oh, he little knew the sorrow that he brought me
When he handed me a letter edged
in black.

Then, with trembling hands I took the letter from him;
I broke the seal, and this is what it said:
"Come home, my boy, your poor old
father wants you;
Come home, my boy; your mother
dear is dead.
Oh, your mother's words, the last she ever uttered,
Were: 'Tell my boy I want him to come back'"
My eyes are blurred, my poor old heart is breaking,
While I'm writing you this letter
edged in black."

Oh, I bow my head in sadness and in sorrow,
The sunlight of my life it now has fled,
Since the postman brought that letter
yester morning,
Saying: "Come my boy, your mother,
dear, is dead."
Oh, it said: "Forgive the angry words
't were spoken;
You know I never meant them, don't you Jack?
Oh, the angels bear me witness, I am asking
Your forgiveness in this letter
edged in black."

Towser Shall Be Tied Tonight.

Slow the Kansas sun was setting
O'er the wheat fields far away;
Streaking all the air with cobwebs
At the close of one hot day.
And its last rays kissed the foreheads,
Of a man and maiden fair,
He with whiskers short and frowsy,
She with red and glist'ning hair;
He with shut jaws stern and silent,
She with lips all cold and white
Struggled to keep back the murmur;
"Towser must be tied tonight."

"Papa," slowly spoke the maiden,
"I am almost seventeen,
And I've got a real lover,
Though he's rather young and green.
But he has a horse and buggy,
And a cow and thirty hens.
Boys that start out poor, dear papa,
Make the best of honest men.
But if Towser sees and bites him,
Fills his heart with sudden fright,
He will never come again, pa;
Towser must be tied tonight."

"Daughter," firmly spoke the farmer, (Every word pierced her young heart
Like a carving knife through chicken
As it hunts a tender part)
"I've a patch of early melons,
Two of them are ripe today;
Towser must be loose to watch them,
Or they'll all be stole away.
I have hoed them late and early,
In dim morn and evening light.
Now they are grown I must not lose them.
Towser'll not be tied tonight."

Then the old man ambled forward,
Opened wide the kennel door.
Towser bounded forth to meet him,
As he oft had done before.
And the farmer stooped and loosed him
From the dog chain short and stout;
To himself he softly chuckled:
"Bessie's feller must look out."
But the maiden at the window
Saw the cruel teeth show white;
In an undertone she murmured:
"Towser must be tied tonight."

Then the maiden's brow grew thoughtful,
And her breath came short and thick,
Till she spied the family clothesline,
And she whispered: "That's the trick."
From the kitchen door she glided
With a plate of meat and bread;
Towser wagged his tail in greeting,
Knowing well he would be fed.
In his well-worn leather collar
Tied she then the clothesline tight;
All the time her thin lips saying:
"Towser must be tied tonight."

"There, old doggie," spoke the maiden,
"You can watch the melon patch;
But the front gate's free and open
When John Henry lifts the latch.
For the clothesline tight is fastened
To the harvest apple tree,
You can run and watch the melons,
But the front gate you can't see."
Then her glad ears heard a buggy,
And her eyes grew big and bright,
While her young heart says in gladness;
"Towser, dog, is tied tonight."

Up the path the young man saunters,
With his eye and cheek aglow;
For he loves the red-haired maiden,
And he aims to tell her so.
Bessie's roguish little brothers,
In a fit of boyish glee,
Had untied the slender clothesline
From the harvest apple tree.
Then old Towser heard the footsteps,
Raised his bristles, fixed for fight,
"Bark away," the maiden whispers;
"Towser, you are tied tonight."

Then old Towser bounded forward,
Passed the open kitchen door,
Bessie screamed and quickly followed,
But John Henry's gone before.
Down the path he speeds most quickly,
For old Towser sets the pace;
And the maiden close behind them
Shows them she is in the race.
Then the clothesline—can she get it?
And her eyes grow big and bright;
And she springs and grasps it firmly,
"Towser shall be tied tonight."

Oftentimes a little minute
Forms the destiny of men.
You can change the fate of nations
By the stroke of one small pen.
Towser made one last long effort,
Caught John Henry by his pants,
But John Henry kept on running,
For he thought that his last chance.
But the maiden held on firmly,
And the rope was drawn up tight;
But old Towser kept the garments,
For he was not tied tonight.

Then the father hears the racket,
With long stride he soon is there,
When John Henry and the maiden
Crouching for the worst, prepare.
At his feet John tells his story,
Shows his clothing, spoiled and torn;
And his face so sad and pleading,
Yet so white and scared and worn,
Touched the old man's heart with pity,
Filled his eyes with misty light:
"Take her, boy, and make her happy,
Towser shall be tied tonight."

Mister Barkeeper.

"Please, Mister Barkeeper, has father
been here?
He's not been at home for the day.
'Tis now almost midnight, and mother's in fear
Some accident keeps him away."
"Oh, no, little stranger; or, yes, he's been here;
Some officers took him away.
He's gone to the lockup. I am sorry,
my dear,
He's done something wicked, they say."

Chorus:

"Oh, it was not my father that did the bad deed.
'Twas drinking that maddened his brain.
Oh, can he go home to dear mother?
I plead.
I am sure he'll not touch it again.
I am sure, I am sure, I am sure he'll not touch it again."

"Please, Mister Policeman, my father is lost;
A man said you took him away.
Oh, can he go home, sir? and what will it cost
If mother would send you the pay?"
"Oh, no, little stranger, your father can't go.
We put him in prison today.
Go home to your mother and quick
let her know
What's keeping your father away."

All day that young pleader stood close
by the door,
In vain with his father to speak.
It creaked great hinges twice and ten times and more,
As prison doors only can creak.
Then, speeding through the darkness to home sad as death,
This promise he solemnly bore:
"Dear mother, I'll shun it as long as
I've breath,
I'll taste it and touch it no more."

Where the Sunset Turns the Ocean's Blue to Gold.

When the busy day is o'er,
And the sun is sinking lower,
Then I seem to see a dear old Southern home—
And the long years roll away,
Just a child again I play,
With my playmates in the woods we used to roam—
And at eve my mother there
Listens to me say my pray'r,
And I feel her kiss as in the days of old—
But now mother's old and gray,
Waiting for me far away,
Where the sunset turns the ocean's blue to gold.

Chorus.

Oh the old church bells are ringing,
And the mocking birds are singing,
As they sang around the place in days of old—
And tho' I am far away
All my heart has been today,
Where the sunset turns the ocean's
blue to gold.

When a lad to manhood grown,
With my sweetheart I did roam,
Just a country lass, with heart as pure as snow—
And again I see the dell
And the nook we loved so well,
When I told life's old sweet story long ago—
And beyond's a grassy knoll,
And I hear the church bell toll,
As it sends a message far along the surf—
For they gathered far and near,
And their hearts were sad and drear
When today they laid my sweetheart
'neath the turf.

All cigarettes are pure, but—purity alone doesn't make a cigarette SENSIBLE.

We don't know of a single one of our competitors who doesn't make his cigarettes of pure tobacco.

But a pure cigarette that didn't taste just right wouldn't do for you, would it?

And to be really sensible a cigarette must give you more than purity and a good taste.

It must be cool and friendly to your throat and tongue. And it must leave you feeling fine after smoking all day.

Fatimas are not the only cigarette that measure up to all these requirements. There are other sensible ones.

But Fatimas seem to have a big margin in their favor on their good taste. Otherwise they could not outsell all other cigarettes costing over 5c.

You can't tell whether they will just suit your taste until you try them.

At the same time, you can easily prove how sensible they are by these two teste.

Most men who try Fatimas say "Good Bye!" to all other cigarettes right away. That's why Fatimas sell so fast.

Why don't you try Fatimas today?

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

FATIMA was the Only Cigarette Awarded the Grand Prize, the highest award given to any cigarette at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

no foundation for the story that within | pass unchallenged and unhampered.

TWO TESTS FOR ANY CIGARETTE

The taste of the cigarette—according to a leading tobacco journal—is up to the smoker. But there are other qualities that you should look for in the cigarette that you are going to stick to for your steady smoke. Here are a couple of tests that may help the average smoker to choose more wisely between different kinds of cigarettes.

The first test is for coolness, which means more comfort to the throat and tongue. Light any cigarette. Draw in a cloud of smoke—a small, ordinary puff is not sufficient to make this test. Hold it in your mouth for a few seconds. Let it "float" around against your tongue and throat. Now blow out the smoke.

If the cigarette contains a high grade of mild tobacco leaves, combined in just the right proportion, it will always feel COOL and smooth both to your throat and to your tongue.

On the other hand, if the proportions are not right and if the cigarette contains inferior grades of tobacco or hidden strands of rank, oily leaf, you will feel a nipping, sting at the tip of your tongue or that "sandpaper" tickle in your throat.

Test number two—How do you feel after smoking all day?

If the tobaccos in the cigarette include a correct proportion of mild grades—and if all of the various grades have been properly mellowed by age—and if they have been so blended as to bring out the best qualities and to neutralize any unpleasant qualities in each of the different types of tobaccos, you will be able to smoke practically whenever you feel like it through the day without feeling any effect from it.

But with another cigarette in which the blend is less skillful, even though the tobaccos are of the highest grade, you will find along towards the end of the day that you are likely to have that feeling of having "smoked too much."

Clip out these tests and try them on Fatima

"Distinctively Individual"

20 for 15¢

FATIMA THE TURKISH BLEND

A Sensible Cigarette

SCHOOL HEADS ORGANIZED

City School Principals Form Association for Betterment of Work.

Principals of all high, junior high and grade schools, after a dinner in the Glass Block tea rooms last night, completed an organization which has been planned for some time, with the object of helping members to advance their interests, professionally and socially. It has not yet been named but will probably be called the Principals' association.

James W. Harter, principal of the Lowell school, was elected president of the new organization; Miss Eva Porter, principal of the Emerson school, is vice president and Miss Clara A. Helwig, principal of the Munger school, is secretary-treasurer. The constitution and by-laws will be adopted later.

"This is going to be one of the best organizations in the city," said President Harter, in commenting on the association. "as it will tend toward cooperation of all the schools, which is the dominant note of the association. It will tend toward the drafting of new ideas from one school by another, thereby instituting a uniform system."

The association will meet once a month, and will hold its next session Tuesday, March 21. Definite programs pertaining to the welfare of the schools will be the main topics for discussion at the meeting.

GERMANS SOW MINES IN ENGLISH CHANNEL

London, March 1.—That German submarines have been sowing mines off Dover, was the belief expressed by Ralph Foster of Kansas and other survivors of the Maloja disaster, including some of the officers of the ship. The fact that a number of disasters have occurred in the neighborhood of Dover during the last two Sundays is considered in some quarters in London as possible evidence that German submarines, knowing that a number of boats clear for foreign ports Saturdays, have taken advantage of that fact to creep in as near the coast as possible in the night time, and discharge cargoes of explosives.

In the opinion of Mr. Foster, lifeboats are virtually useless where vessels strike mines, as the ships almost invariably sink quickly and because the crews are insufficiently drilled for quick action and the boats cannot be lowered when a ship heels over on her side as the Maloja did. Mr. Foster had a thrilling experience. He was afloat in the icy water and on upturned boats an hour before he was rescued.

RECEIVES DAMAGES FROM TITANIC OWNERS

Racine, Wis., March 1.—Mrs. Jennie L. Hanson, widow of Peter Hanson, who lost his life on the Titanic, received notice yesterday that she had been awarded $11,000 by New York courts in her suit for damages against the owning steamship company. Mrs. Hanson, in company with her husband, was a passenger on the Titanic at the time of the disaster. She suffered severely from exposure.

Fifteen Killed in Mine.

Kempton, W. Va., March 1.—Fifteen men were killed and five seriously injured by an explosion of dust in mine No. 42 of the Davis Coal and Coke company here yesterday. All the victims were foreigners. Fifty-one miners, who were also at work were rescued. The exploration of the workings was completed late yesterday, and all the bodies recovered.

THE "COME-BACK"

The "Come-back" man was really never down-and-out. His weakened condition, because of overwork, lack of exercise, improper eating and living, demands stimulation to satisfy the cry for a health-giving appetite and the refreshing sleep essential to strength. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules, the National Remedy of Holland, will do the work. They are wonderful! Three of these capsules each day will put a man on his feet before he knows it; whether his trouble comes from uric acid poisoning, the kidneys, gravel or stone in the bladder, stomach derangement or other ailments that befall the over-zealous American. Don't wait until you are entirely down-and-out, but take them today. Your druggist will gladly refund your money if they do not help you. 25c, 50c and $1.00 per box. Accept no substitutes. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on every box. They are the pure, original, imported Haarlem Oil Capsules.—Advertisement.

NEW RECORD FOR PERSONAL TAX

Cash Receipts at County Treasurer's Office $171,218 on Tuesday.

Cash receipts at the office of County Treasurer George H. Vivian yesterday were $171,218.44, which establishes a new record for personal property tax collections for any one day. The number of tax statements handled yesterday was 1,127, as compared with 1,200 for the previous day, when the collection netted something more than $64,000. Yesterday was the last day allowed for paying the tax without penalty. Beginning today, it costs 10 per cent in addition to the tax for failure to comply with the statute which prescribes that the personal property taxes shall be paid before the first day of March. The percentage of delinquents this year is believed to be small.

PLAY, LAUGHTER AND PROFANITY

Forms of Relaxation From Tension of Modern Civilization.

Iowa City, Iowa, March 1.—Man's play, his laughter, his profanity, his use of alcohol and his going to war are all forms of relaxation from the tension of modern civilization, according to an article written by Dr. G. T. W. Patrick, professor of psychology at the University of Iowa, and just published by the university.

"All appear as forms of relaxation, some helpful, others abnormal and brutalizing," says the article.

"Modern life is a kind of social skyscraper. The minds of the individuals who constitute society are the material. This material is put under too much tension. A collapse necessarily follows. In our social life these collapses appear as reactions or reverses, sometimes cataclysmic, as in the case of the war in Europe. Some times sporadic, as in the dancing and amusement crazes in America.

"When this everlasting urge of progress is excessive, there is a constant, subconscious rebellion against it and a constant disposition to escape from it—a return to nature as to speak.

"Sudden momentary and unexpected release from this tension, with instinctive reinstatement of primitive forms of expression, is laughter. Daily or periodic systematic return to primitive forms of activity is sport or play. War is a violent social reversion to elemental and natural inter-tribal relations. Profanity is a resort to primitive forms of vocal expression to relieve a situation which threatens well-being. Alcohol is an artificial means of relieving mental tension by the narcotizing of the higher brain centers."

Dr. Patrick concludes that America needs relaxation of the better kind and conservation of vitality, saying:

"What we have to expect, and what is now going on, is the silent displacement of the highly civilized races by the more sturdy and less civilized ones, a change which will be no less certain although it may be less spectacular, that the one which destroyed Imperial Rome."

FROM SECTION HAND TO VICE PRESIDENT

Denver, Colo., March 1.—A. D. Parker, retired vice president of the Colorado & Southern railroad today, ending an active railroad career that began thirty-three years ago as a section hand. He also relinquished duties as president of the system's subsidiary lines in Texas. Mr. Parker was succeeded by E. S. Koller, who came to Denver from Omaha, March 1, 1915, to become general manager of the Colorado & Southern. Mr. Parker will make his future home in Philadelphia.

MUST HOLD ELECTION IN KEWAUNEE COUNTY

Madison, Wis., March 1.—In an opinion to O. H. Bruemmer, district attorney of Kewaunee county, Attorney General Owen held that an election must be held to fill the vacancy in the county court in Kewaunee county.

A vacancy occurred in the county court July 2, 1915, and an appointment was made by Governor Philipp. The original term of office was until 1920 but the attorney general holds that the law requires that the vacancy be filled by an election on the following April.

"Assault With Intent to Kiss."

Waterloo, Iowa, March 1.—J. V. Rhodes, an insurance agent, who is accused by Mrs. William Bunce of La Porte City of "assault with intent to hug and kiss," will be given a hearing before Justice Peter Knipp of Cedar township Saturday. Mrs. Bunce alleges Rhodes attempted to kiss her while on a visit to her home at La Porte City last week.

OUCH! PAIN, PAIN. RUB RHEUMATIC, ACHING JOINTS

Rub Pain Right Out With Small Trial Bottle of Old "St. Jacob's Oil."

Rheumatism is "pain only." Not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Stop drugging. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil" right into your sore, stiff, aching joints and muscles, and relief comes instantly. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless rheumatism which never disappoints and cannot burn the skin.

Limber up! Quit complaining! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, and in just a moment you'll be free from rheumatic pain, soreness, stiffness and swelling. Don't suffer! Relief awaits you. "St. Jacobs Oil" has cured millions of rheumatism sufferers in the last half century, and is just as good for sciatica, neuralgia, lumbago, backache, sprains.—Advertisement.

TONIGHT
MORROW — FRIDAY — SATURDAY
Baron H. S. De Malaussene
Adjutant 1-Er Regiment tranger, Possessor Military Cross for Valour, ill tell you personal experiences and incidents about he great war such as you ave never read or heard efore.

Sensation at Washington, C., Newark, Minneapolis d St. Paul.

SEE
FIGHTING FOR FRANCE"
irst Authentic Pictures of the Allies

Afternoons 1 to 5—15c
Nights, 7 to 11—25c

Part of Proceeds to Blind German and French Soldiers

ORPHEUM STRAND THEATRE

AMUSEMENTS.

Three Days, Beginning TONIGHT
KENNEDY SQUARE
F. Hopkinson Smith's Famous Novel,
—Starring—
ANTONIO MORENO and MURIEL OSTRICHE in the Title Roles.
ANY SEAT, 10c.
ZELDA

LYCEUM THEATER ALL WEEK
Return of Duluth's Most Popular Play.
OLIVER MOROSCO PROFFERS THE MOST TALKED OF PLAY OF THE CENTURY; SUCCESS OF SUCCESSES
THE BIRD OF PARADISE
BY RICHARD WALTON TULLY.
PRICES:
Nights and Saturday Matinee.....25c to $1.50

NEW ALWAYS A GOOD SHOW
GRAND
11 A. M. UNTIL 11 P. M.
Double Headline Bill Tonight.
An Artistic and Laughing Sensation
ELECTRICAL VENUS
Delmore & Moore. Wilfred Du Bois.
THREE LORETTAS
Singers, Dancers and Musicians.
Concert Orchestra—Photo Plays De Luxe.
MATS 10c ANY SEAT NITES 10-20
Don't miss the STINGAREE STORY TONIGHT.

PARAMOUNT THEATER
LYRIC TODAY & THURSDAY
"TENNESSEE'S PARDNER"
(Lasky Production).
MISS FANNIE WARD
Cradled in the Far West, this favorite star is picturized in a play of the days of '49. It takes you to the Pacific Coast and holds your interest, throughout the splendid scenes of realism.
Friday—Charlotte Walker: "Trail of the Lonesome Pine."

THEATER BEAUTIFUL
REX THURSDAY—THREE DAYS
Far from the conventional is
"HIS PICTURE IN THE PAPERS"
Mr. Douglas Fairbanks, Star.
Realistic prize fight, witnessed by actors and actresses in the movie world. This Triangle-Fine Arts play is different. Not a moment without its genuine thrills. A rich ne'er-do-well puts on the gloves to win a sweetheart's love.
Today and tonight: "Honor's Altar." Bessie Barriscale.

CARTER'S Little Liver Pills
Is life worth living? That depends upon the Liver. Right living makes a Happy Liver

SMALL PILL SMALL DOSE
THE GENUINE MUST BEAR SIGNATURE OF Brentwood

DEFECTIVE PAGE

The Big Duluth Is Selling Winter Suits and Overcoats At Half Price

$15.00 buys the $30.00 Suits and Overcoats.

$12.50 buys the $25.00 Suits and Overcoats.

$10.00 buys the $20.00 Suits and Overcoats.

$7.50 buys the $15.00 Suits and Overcoats.

The BIG DULUTH
WILLIAMSON & MENDENHALL

JURY CLEARS FOUR MINERS

(Continued from page 1.)

April 20, 1914, to the conclusion of "the battle of the hogback," near Walsenburg, were reviewed during the trial. Arthur Quinn, Enoch Muir, Fred Garcia and Mickie Salvage were the first of seventy-two persons indicted in connection with Lester's death to be brought to trial. Charles O'Neill, a fifth defendant, was granted a continuance because of illness.

The change of venue to Douglas county was taken after Judge Granby Lillyer had been barred from sitting in strike trials by a supreme court ruling. The case was called Jan. 3. Judge J. H. Denison of Denver presiding. A jury of farmers and stockmen was obtained on Jan. 10 and the taking of testimony began two days later.

Attorneys for the prosecution presented witnesses who testified that Maj. Lester was a non-combatant; that he was shot while attending a wounded lieutenant and that shots which killed him came from the direction of the hogback, near Walsenburg, where the strikers were entrenched. The prosecution also sought to prove that the strikers were armed and had organized to destroy property of the mine operators.

Witnesses for the defense testified that the strikers were in fear of the militiamen and mine guards following the burning of the strikers' tent colony at Ludlow; that the families of the strikers had moved into fields beyond the "hogback" and were under the protection of armed strikers. Testimony also was introduced to show that Maj. Lester was armed during the battle between strikers and militiamen and that Adjt.-Gen. John Chase had given orders to "clear the hills of strikers."

BOTH SIDES SEE VICTORY

(Continued from page 1.)

and will probably face a recount. Kimball was one of the "rebel nine."

In the Democratic primaries friends of Roger C. Sullivan, who battled with supporters of Former Mayor Carter H. Harrison, declared that they won in thirty-one of the thirty-five wards.

Vote Lighter Than Expected.

The vote cast was lighter than expected. Leaders yesterday expressed the opinion that the fight in a number of wards would result in a vote of nearly 400,000 but returns show that not more than 275,000 persons voted.

The female vote was considerably lighter than was looked for and amounted to but 32.3 per cent of the total female registration. The male vote was 38 per cent of registration. Yesterday's primary female vote as compared with that cast in the 1915 primary was, 1915, 152,636; 1916, 81,121.

Recounts of the vote in two wards are said to be certain. Thompson adherents assert that in the Seventh ward in which the University of Chicago is located, 500 students voted illegally, defeating the administration candidate.

The Socialist party nominated candidates in all but three wards. This was done merely to comply with the law, as the party nominations had already been made by the regular party referendum.

The Progressive party nominated candidates in only two wards out of the thirty-five.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children
In Use For Over 30 Years
Always bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

TWENTY MILES OF NEW MAINS

Water and Light Department Plans Extensive Work This Year.

Several Outlying Districts of City Will Be Benefited.

Twenty miles of gas and water mains will be laid by the city during this year, according to an announcement made today by D. A. Reed, manager of the water and light department.

Most of the extensions have been petitioned for by property owners, and work will begin as soon as the frost is out of the ground, Manager Reed said. Approximately $150,000 will be spent on the extensions, according to his estimates. Last year the department laid a total of sixteen miles of water and gas mains.

A majority of the extensions will be laid in the outlying districts, especially Woodland, Hunter's Park, the hillside district, and, in all probability, to Morgan Park. Provision for the last named was made in 1915, but a definite agreement has not been reached with the steel plant officials and construction work will begin as soon as all arrangements are settled. The Morgan Park extension will be from West Duluth, the present western terminus, extending out Grand avenue to the plant and subsequently to New Duluth and Gary.

In addition to these extensions, the water and light department will build a bridge over Tischer's creek, costing approximately $8,000. Plans for the structure have been completed and the contract will be awarded sometime this month, Mr. Reed announced today.

J. L. BILLARD PAYS BACK $1,250,000 TO NEW HAVEN AND SUIT IS DROPPED

(Continued from page 1.)

chusetts authorities that they did not own control of the Boston & Maine.

Sold Back to Road.

Later the New Haven was authorized by the Massachusetts legislature to acquire the Boston & Maine and Billard's holdings were sold back to the road.

Billard's ostensible profit was about $2,750,000, but this was reduced by other transactions. According to testimony in the recent criminal action, brought by the government under the Sherman anti-trust law against former directors of the New Haven, Billard personally did not get but $50,000. During the trial it was contended by the defendants that the Billard transaction was bonafide. It was brought out by the government that Billard was, however, financed in the deal by the New Haven and never put up a cent of his own money.

Samuel Hemingway, president of the Second National bank of New Haven, at one time an officer of the Billard company, was also a defendant. The suit was originally for $2,700,000, brought in Connecticut courts. The settlement represents a compromise.

LULL IN FIGHTING AT VERDUN

(Continued from page 1.)

Remenauville some half dozen miles west of Pont-a-Mousson.

Apparently the recent German attack in the Champagne was nothing more than one of the numerous local operations such as the Germans carried out in several sectors of the front from time to time in the three weeks preceding the Verdun offensive as it has not so far been followed up. Dispatches indicate opinions of military observers that the German offensive, if it broadened appreciably, would be more likely to spread to the south than the north, the many signs of activity along the lines in upper Alsace and down to the Swiss border being pointed to in this connection.

German Statement.

Berlin, March 1 via London, 3:15 p. m.—No mention of the fighting at Verdun is made in the official statement of today. The report follows:

"Western front: Activity of the artillery yesterday was very great on various parts of the front and particularly on the enemy's side. At various points the enemy fired for the purpose of assuaging his disappointment. On the other hand in the Yser region in the Champagne and between the Meuse and the Moselle he seemed to be endeavoring to do damage, but did not achieve his object.

"In an aerial combat a British biplane was forced down near Menin. The occupants were made prisoner. Two French biplanes were brought down by our anti-craft guns, one near Vezaponin, northwest of Soissons, the occupants of which were captured, the other due west of Soissons, the occupants of which apparently were dead.

"An aeroplane piloted by Lieut. Kuept, carrying an observation officer, Lieut. Faber of the reserve, brought a military transport to a standstill on the Besanson-Jussey road by dropping bombs, and then successfully fought the men of the transport with machine guns.

"Eastern and Balkan fronts: There is nothing to report."

French Statement.

Paris, March 1, 2:30 p. m.—There is nothing of importance to report in the region to the north of Verdun or in the Woevre district, according to the announcement of the progress of hostilities made by the French war office this afternoon.

There was an intermittent bombardment last night along the French front between Regnieville and Remenauville.

The text of the communication issued by the war office follows:

"In the region to the north of Verdun, as well as in the Woevre, there has been nothing of importance to report.

"During last night there was an intermittent bombardment at various points of our front between Regnieville and Remenauville.

"To the west of Pont-a-Mousson, our artillery fire was directed against the second and third of the enemy lines, where the Germans apparently were putting through certain preparatory evolutions.

"In Alsace the fire of our batteries had been directed against the roads of communication of the enemy.

"In the region of Cernay, valley of the Thur, a French aeroplane equipped with double motors was successful in an encounter with an aeroplane of the enemy. The German machine fell at La Bassee into the German trenches and at once caught on fire."

Germans Gain Much Ground.

Berlin, March 1, wireless to Sayville.—German correspondents at the Verdun front state that on Feb. 22 the German troops gained an amount of ground only ten square kilometers less than the total captured by the French in their whole offensive movement in the Champagne last fall.

The German attack was carefully prepared by heavy shelling of the French defensive works in the forests where barbed wire had been tied from tree to tree. The wire, intermingled with branches of the trees, formed a yielding barrier particularly well designed to resist artillery fire.

When the German troops charged they not only swept through these positions but advanced beyond more distant defense works before the French were able to rally their scattered troops. The correspondents repeat the earlier reports that the German losses were surprisingly small while the French, on account of the well-timed collaboration of the German infantry and artillery, suffered very heavy casualties. It is said that hundreds of French dead, crowded closely together were found in some small sections. The French line was broken on both sides of the roads leading northward from Verdun.

Situation Well in Hand.

Paris, March 1.—That the situation around Verdun is now well in hand and considered quite satisfactory from the French point of view is freely stated by the military experts. To the northeastern part of the stronghold the chief effort of the Germans seems to be directed to the rescue of the Brandenburgers who remain cooped up in the ruined casemates of Fort Douaumont. The development of the French operations southeast of Verdun is interpreted by the observers as preliminary to an attempt to assail the French positions on the Meuse heights through two principal gaps through the woods which are protected by Fort Tavannes, east by northwest of Verdun and southeast of Fort Douaumont, and by Fort Rozelier to the southeast of the fortress.

Both sides are profiting by the period of comparative calm to bring up fresh forces and supplies of ammunition. While it is realized that the Germans have not yet reached the limit of their offensive resources, it is stated that any fresh onslaught on their part is awaited by the French with supreme confidence in their ability to hurl it back.

Sapper Explodes Mine.

"We were in a front line trench on the slope of Cote du Poivre," said a wounded sapper who has returned to a hospital. "The captain sent me forward to a small shelter in the open, where the electric contact had been placed which led to a mine in a field. I crawled to it along a narrow tunnel without mishap.

"Through a slit I looked out on the battlefield, as through the opening in a theater curtain. I saw the Germans after long waiting march forward in good order. They thought from their observation that the bombardment had sufficiently devastated our trenches, but they were unable to see that our men had held firm and were making fresh trenches and using shell craters.

"The Germans were 200 yards from my post when our rifles and machine guns opened. They were taken by surprise and crouched down. When the order was passed along their line our advance they began to sing 'The Watch on the Rhine,' and dashed forward.

"My heart beat madly. They were over the mine at last. I touched the button. An infernal fountain seemed to shoot up, in the midst of the mass of men in gray, with a majestic whirl of smoke. I saw men go up bodily as if from the crater of a volcano.

"The attack was stopped. I crawled back to my trench. I had barely emerged from the tunnel when I felt a burning sensation in my shoulder and fainted. When I recovered consciousness I found myself in an ambulance."

PRESIDENT TO TAKE NO FURTHER STEPS

(Continued from page 1.)

tion expressing support of his conduct of the diplomatic controversy, and as a result of his position the conference agreed the vote will be taken on a resolution warning Americans off armed ships. Administration forces are sure they can beat it.

The president also discussed the question with Acting Chairman Pou of the rules committee. The president asked that as soon as the house foreign affairs committee had prepared its resolution the rules committee bring in a rule for discussion and a vote on the floor.

The president explained to the leaders that he had written to the rules committee not because he was dissatisfied with any action of the foreign affairs committee, but because he thought it expedient as he realized that a special rule would be necessary to provide for immediate consideration.

Speaker Clark and Majority Leader Kitchin said no action could be taken today in the house and that the conference had been devoted chiefly to discussing procedure.

"The habit of obedience has been developed to a high degree in congress," was Mr. Kitchin's answer to a question about prospects of a vote. He is one of those who have favored the resolutions.

One plan discussed was for the house foreign affairs committee to report adversely one of the pending resolutions and at the same time have the rules committee bring in a rule limiting debate. By that plan a vote could be reached in the house tomorrow or Friday, and the question would be taken up in the senate immediately afterward.

No More Serious.

The president told the leaders the foreign situation was no more serious today than it has been for several weeks but he believed action should be taken quickly to show the world that the American government was not divided.

Some of the conferees thought the best procedure was for the senate and house to adopt a resolution supporting the president's position but Mr. Wilson vetoed that plan and expressed a desire to have the vote on a resolution warning Americans off armed ships because he was confident that it would be defeated.

Leader Kitchin said he did not think the McLemmore resolution would be the one offered by the foreign affairs committee, and Chairman Flood said it was his opinion that none of the resolutions now in his committee would be chosen for the test.

It was understood that some of the leaders who conferred at the White House today still differed with the president's position. Speaker Clark, who predicted last week that a warning resolution would pass two to one at that time, said he did not know the sentiment of the house now and refused to say how he himself would vote.

Causes Surprise.

The president's determination thus to throw down the gauntlet to congress on the subject caused distinct surprise at the capital. It was reached following yesterday's cabinet meeting. The president decided that he could not go ahead with the German submarine negotiations while dissension in congress weakens his position before the world.

The president's wishes were made known in a letter to Representative Pou, acting chairman of the house rules committee, asking that the matter be brought to a vote in the house. He intends to ask for similar action in the senate. The president's action was taken in order that "all doubts and conjectures may be swept away and our foreign relations once more cleared of damaging misunderstandings."

Made Use of Abroad.

In his communication the president called attention to the fact that the report that congress was divided over the question of the government's foreign policies was being made "industrious use of foreign capitals." He added that while he believed the report to be false, yet "so long as it is anywhere credited it cannot fail to do the greatest harm and expose the country to the most serious risks."

Administration leaders plan to bring the agitation in congress to an end by the adoption of a resolution indorsing the president's course. After a canvass they apparently were sure of their position.

Defeat of the pending resolutions, administration supporters point out, would enable the president to contend for the principles of international law and humanity with the solid backing of the government.

It was generally believed today that no action would be taken by either house before tomorrow. This being "calendar Wednesday" in the house, it would require a two-thirds vote to take up a resolution.

Participating in today's conference with President Wilson were Senator Stone and Representative Flood, chairmen of the foreign affairs committees, and Senator Kern, majority leader in the senate.

President's Letter.

"My Dear Mr. Prou: Inasmuch as I learn that Mr. Henry, the chairman of the committee on rules, is absent in Texas, I take the liberty of calling your attention as ranking member of the committee to a matter of grave concern to the country which can, I believe, be handled under the rules of the house only by that committee.

"The report that there are divided counsels in congress in regard to the foreign policy of the government is being made industrious use of in foreign capitals. I believe that report to be false, but so long as it is anywhere credited, it cannot fail to do the greatest harm and expose the country to the most serious risks. I therefore feel justified in asking that your committee will permit me to urge an early vote on the resolutions with regard to travel on armed merchantmen, which have recently been so much talked about, in order that there may be afforded an immediate opportunity for full public decision and action upon them, and that all doubts and conjectures may be swept away and our foreign relations once more cleared of damaging misunderstandings.

"The matter is of so great importance and lies so clearly within the field of executive initiative, that I venture to hope your committee will not think that I am taking unwarranted liberty in making this suggestion as to the business of the house, and I very earnestly commend it to their immediate consideration. Cordially and sincerely yours,

"WOODROW WILSON."

TO STOP BAD COUGH

SOOTHE DRY, IRRITATED THROAT WITH PARMINT SYRUP. SAYS THIS OLD-FASHIONED COUGH REMEDY IS BEST.

We are told that the old time remedies are best and invariably contain less harmful yet better medicine than those which are in use today. This being so, undoubtedly the following old-fashioned recipe, which is quick acting, will be welcomed by many as there seems to be a regular epidemic of coughs at the present time. Secure from your druggist 1 ounce Parmint (double strength), take this home and add to it a quarter pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar, stir until dissolved. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day. No more racking your whole body with a cough. Clogged nostrils should open, air passages of your head should clear and your breathing become easy. Parmint syrup is pleasant to take, easy to prepare and costs little. Every person who has a stubborn cough, hard cold or catarrh in any form should give this prescription a trial. There is nothing better.
—Advertisement.

Abe Martin

Who remembers when th' only calamities that ever overtook us wuz th' ague an' th' town pump freezin' up? Dan Cupid is still in Washin'ton.

(Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.)

WILL SELL OUT FURNITURE STOCK REGARDLESS OF COST OR VALUE!

THE CAMERON-JOHNSON-HORGAN FURNITURE COMPANY'S LEASE

Expires April 30th on building at 2110 and 2112 West Superior Street, and the undersigned firm, who has been operating under said lease, will not renew same. Therefore, Cameron has less than 60 days to empty the three large salesfloors of High Grade Furniture, Rugs, etc.

TO MAKE A CLEAN SWEEP

Manufacturers' cost will not be considered in this sale, everything goes. It's the opportunity you are all looking for—viz: To furnish the home at practically your own price.

TERMS OF SALE:

Absolutely no credit extended beyond May 1st. It will pay you to borrow the money. Deliveries Everywhere.

SALE STARTS IMMEDIATELY

OPEN EVENINGS TILL 9 O'CLOCK. If you can't shop during regular hours come tonight.

—OUR—UPHOLSTERING DEPARTMENT

offers all upholstering materials, including tapestries of latest patterns and colors at mill prices and your work done reasonably. Ask for Mr. Hasforth, he will give you estimates.

CAMERON FURNITURE COMPANY

2110 and 2112 WEST SUPERIOR STREET

"GUILTY" IS VERDICT OF RICHESON JURY; COURT URGED TO BE LENIENT

(Continued from page 1.)

way," he said. "I know you tried to do the right thing."

Will Seek New Trial.

Richeson's attorneys will seek a new trial and if the motion is denied by Judge Bert Fesler an appeal to the supreme court will be taken, it was announced today.

Richeson was remanded to the custody of the sheriff this noon after the verdict had been received until additional bonds were secured. This will be adjusted this afternoon. The court fixed the bond at $1,500 and according to his counsel, Mr. Dacey, the bond will be furnished this afternoon.

The jury's recommendations, which accompanied the verdict, were as follows:

"We, the undersigned, jurors in the case of the State of Minnesota against Walter J. Richeson, having returned a duly signed verdict, do respectfully recommend the defendant to the mercy and leniency of the court."

The recommendation was signed by every member of the jury.

Locked Up for Night.

The verdict was returned after twenty-one hours' deliberation. The jury retired at 8:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon and debated on the case until 11 o'clock last evening, when it announced to the court officer its intention to retire for the night. The jurors were then locked up for the night. This morning after securing breakfast, the deliberations were resumed.

It is rumored that the defendant had four of the jury's votes from the start and that when the panel was locked up last evening, only two men were hanging out. They surrendered for conviction shortly before noon today.

Richeson was indicted on two counts. One charged him with the misappropriation of $65, and the other with the taking of $691. He was tried on the first count at the November term of court, but the jury disagreed, standing 7 to 5 in the defendant's favor. At the present term of court, he was brought to trial under the second indictment, which also included the charge brought at the former trial. He was convicted of the charge contained in this indictment.

PASHA OPTIMISTIC REGARDING ALBANIA

Says Attempt of Austria to Control It Will Result in Disaster.

Rome, March 1, via Paris.—Essad Pasha, who has come to Rome on a brief visit to discuss plans for the campaign to be undertaken against the Austrian and Bulgarian forces in Southern Albania, said in an interview today that he is decidedly optimistic regarding the final outcome of the struggle in Albania.

"The partial occupation of Albania by Austria should she attempt to continue it, is bound to result in military and moral disaster to her," he said. "She will have an army operating in a region which offers no resources and where that army will be constantly threatened by the Italian and Albanian forces which from the formidable base of Avlona, will undertake to envelop the Austrians and to cut off the retreat of Gen. Koevess' troops."

Essad Pasha concluded the interview by saying that the Adriatic must become an Italo-Albanian sea.

SIEGEL REARRESTED AS HE IS RELEASED

Wants to Be Free to Earn Money to Pay Back Creditors.

Rochester, N. Y., March 1.—Henry Siegel, New York banker and department store merchant, whose ten-month sentence in Monroe county penitentiary expired today, was rearrested this morning by Sheriff George H. Root of Livingston county, on a warrant issued yesterday by District Attorney Wheeler of Livingston county. With his attorney, Dallas C. Newton, Siegel was taken before Justice George A. Benton to arrange for bail.

Bond Furnished.

The bond was fixed at $25,000 by Justice Benton and this was furnished by a surety company. Accompanied by his attorney, Siegel then departed for Geneseo, where he said he would remain for some time.

While waiting at the courthouse here to be arraigned, Siegel talked freely to reporters.

"Why don't they let me go and give me an opportunity to earn money to pay back my creditors?" he asked. "There is no doubt about my being able to get money to start over again. Already I have had several offers, one of them is to take over the management of the Siegel-Cooper store in Chicago. Other offers have come from New York. I intend to spend a few days looking over the ground."

CHICAGO SOCIALISTS VOTE BY REFERENDUM

Chicago, March 1.—Voting on the first presidential nomination by referendum was started today and by next week the vote will have been cast by the Socialist party. It is expected that the complete vote will be recorded at the party's headquarters in Chicago by March 10.

The following are the candidates for the presidency: Allan L. Benson, Waukegan, N. Y.; Arthur Le Sueur, Minneapolis, Minn.; James H. Maurer, Reading, Pa.

For vice president: George H. Goodspatrick, Newark, N. J.; Kate Richards O'Hare, St. Louis.

Fire at Pewaukee, Wis.

Pewaukee, Wis., March 1.—Fire which threatened the village of Pewaukee today was confined to the garage of Walker Rhoades and a barber shop next door. The loss is estimated at $6,000.

Oil Steamer Burning.

Manchester, March 1.—The British steamer Spiraea from Philadelphia while discharging oil in barrels here caught fire last night. The fire is still burning along the full length of the ship. The Spiraea of 2,307 tons net left Philadelphia Feb. 5 for Manchester, arriving there on Feb. 21.

To Be Ambassador to Chile.

Washington, March 1.—Judge Joseph H. Shea of Seymour, Ind. has been selected by President Wilson ambassador to Chile and will be nominated in the near future. He will succeed Henry P. Fletcher, who has been appointed ambassador to Mexico.

Wants to Be Delegate.

Sheboygan, Wis., March 1.—Former State Senator Henry Krumrey, who stood to be slated as the La Follette candidate for state treasurer, declares that he is not a candidate for office, but is seeking election as a La Follette delegate to the National Republican convention.

Five Facts You Should Know

(1) That disease is the result of a disordered condition.

(2) That when we correct the disordered condition, we eliminate the disease.

(3) That the blood is the carrier of poisons throughout the body.

(4) That to successfully treat any disease originating in the blood, we have to treat the blood, as the cause.

(5) That S. S. S. is the most reliable remedy for removing impurities from the blood.

USED FOR 50 YEARS SUCCESSFULLY

S. S. S. is no experiment of today, but is a successful remedy for the blood that has been a blessing to thousands of sufferers for the last fifty years. There is nothing mysterious about S. S. S. It is an extract from native herbs, roots and bark, each known for its peculiar medicinal value. These ingredients combine and act in a beneficial and helpful way with nature. It doesn't matter whether your case of blood trouble is one of the many forms of Rheumatism, or Catarrh, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison, chronic skin trouble, or any other form of blood trouble, S. S. S. will go directly to the seat of the trouble; giving the blood a thorough cleansing, driving out the impurities in a natural way, and leaving the blood pure and refreshed, ready to do its full duty in building the tissues up to a normal and healthy state. Begin today on a bottle of S. S. S. and note how soon you will begin to feel relief. We will gladly give special advice and free consultation. If you are in doubt about the nature of your case, write Medical Department, Room 71,

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC COMPANY, ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

Spring Suits—
Of Beauty and Style

Beautiful spring suits in checks and plaid materials are shown in a wide variety—Serges, Poplins, Gaberdine and Whipcords are favored by the more conservative women who prefer the tailored lines.

See our display—

$16.75 to $39.75

Open an Account, Your Credit Is Good.

GATELY'S

DULUTH—SUPERIOR—VIRGINIA—MISSING

FEBRUARY BUILDING EQUALS THAT OF FIRST QUARTER OF 1915

The cost of the construction work authorized by the building department during February was almost as large as during the first three months of 1915, according to the monthly report of Building Inspector Kielley submitted to Mayor Prince this morning.

During February a total of seventy-two permits were issued for construction work estimated at $172,172. In February, 1915, there was a total of sixty-nine permit issued for buildings to cost $69,647, while during the first three months of last year, the estimated cost of construction work, for which permits were issued, was $179,802.

With such a record for February, Building Inspector Kielley is of the opinion that building activity this year will exceed that of several years past.

WEST DULUTH

HERALD BRANCH OFFICES:

Spencer Pharmacy, 402 Central Avenue, Advertising and Subscriptions.
A. Jensen, Fifty-seventh Avenue West and Grand Avenue, Distribution.

Herald's West Duluth reporter may be reached after hour of going to press at Calumet 173-M and Cole 247.

WANT LINE TO SUBURBS

Commercial Club Members Will Continue Fight for Extension.

Members of the New Duluth Commercial club will try three courses to compel the Duluth Street Railway company to extend its lines to New Duluth, according to plans submitted at the meeting last night. If the first two fail, the members will put a proposition before the voters of Duluth to have the municipality purchase the entire system.

First it is proposed to appeal to President Robertson, whose home is in Minneapolis. He will be asked to come to Duluth to look over the proposed extension and pass on the merits of the request of the citizens of New Duluth. If this fails the committee of the club will ask the city commissioners to order the extension made at once, and if that does not compel the company to extend its lines then the committee proposes to secure a referendum election on the question of taking over the company's property.

The committee which was given entire charge of the matter consists of A. W. Loffelmacher, chairman; Ranson Metcalf, Matt Prettner, Noble Sampson, Melvin Becklinger and L. R. Taylor. Mr. Taylor is secretary of the club and his name was added to the committee last night.

The consolidated New Duluth Commercial club and Gary Improvement club in the future will be known under the former name, according to resolutions adopted last night. The club will hold its meetings in the future at the Harriet Beecher Stowe school.

WILL DISCUSS MILK ORDINANCE

Oneota and Hazelwood Residents Expected to Oppose Measure.

The proposed milk ordinance will be one of the principal subjects of discussion at the meeting of the Oneota and Hazelwood Improvement club to be held at the Merritt school this evening. A committee, headed by Joseph B. Gibson, has been investigating the ordinance and will report.

It is said that many members of the club will oppose the ordinance on the ground that it would give the larger dairy concerns of the city a monopoly of the milk business. The ordinance, say members of the club, will force many small milkmen out of business and cause an uncalled for increase in the cost of milk. The present system of inspection of dairies, say club members, is sufficient to guarantee good wholesome milk for the city.

DANCE

Moose Hall, West Duluth,
THURSDAY EVENING, FEB. 24,
Given by
MOOSE GYMNASIUM CLUB.
Blewett's orchestra. Tickets 50c.

HAS LIVED 84 YEARS

TWENTY BIRTHDAYS

Mrs. Noble C. Sampson, 801 Commonwealth avenue, entertained yesterday afternoon in honor of the twentieth birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. Clark, who is 84 years old. Mrs. Clark was born on Feb. 29, 1832. There were eighteen guests.

BOY VANDALS ARE PUNISHED

Two Youths Smash All of Windows of Rink Waiting Room.

Boys who deliberately smash windows and destroy public or private property will be severely dealt with hereafter, according to police officials of West Duluth. Recently all of the windows of the waiting room provided for children at the free skating rink, near the Irving school, were smashed.

The police arrested Edward Goneau, aged 12 years, 20 North Fifty-fourth avenue, and Thomas de Chabmeau, aged 15, 131 South Fifty-third avenue, on the charge of destroying the property. The boys pleaded guilty and were fined $3 and also required to pay the price of the windows, amounting to $1.20. They were brought before the juvenile court.

The boys had been skating on the rink and playing hockey. According to the story told by the younger boy, when they got through playing they took their hockey sticks and broke in about half the windows. They were on the point of leaving when the older boy said, "Let's finish the job," and they went back and broke all of the other windows.

WILL BE SLOW IN LEAVING DULUTH

Dr. Krantz Will Take Week to Consider Call to St. Paul.

Dr. John A. Krantz, pastor of the Elim Swedish Lutheran church, Fifty-sixth avenue west and Elinor street, will take at least a week to consider his call to the position of superintendent of the Bethesda hospital at St. Paul. This position was offered him at the annual Minnesota conference of the Swedish Lutheran church, which just closed its session in Minneapolis.

The position is one of the best in the gift of the conference, say leading pastors of the Swedish Lutheran church. Dr. Krantz was given the position despite strong opposition in favor of other pastors from the southern part of the state.

Northern Minnesota fared well at the conference, according to Dr. Krantz. Two additional pastors will be supplied for the Lake Superior district, one of whom will work in the Grand Rapids district and another in the Grand Marais district.

The new Bethany Children's home also found favor in the eyes of the conference members. Members of the Children's home board were given authority to solicit aid in any church or congregation in the conference for the new home.

The Bethany home will be established in the newly purchased property formerly owned and built by Alfred Merritt at Thirty-ninth avenue and Ninth street. This property also includes four and one-tenth acres of land. It is to be opened on May 1.

A meeting of the Bethany Children's home board will be held early next week at which a superintendent for the home will be selected. The members of the board are Rev. A. Theodore Ekblad of Superior, chairman; Dr. Krantz, Rev. C. O. Swan, B. F. Wellberg and John A. Forsman.

Lindor-Sullivan Marriage.

Miss Esther Lindor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lindor, 209 North Fifty-second avenue west, became the bride of James Sullivan yesterday afternoon, the ceremony taking place at the courthouse. Following the wedding, a supper was served in their honor at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sullivan, 501 North Fifty-eighth avenue west. The young people will make their home in this end of the city.

Ask More Phone Facilities.

Petitions are being circulated among the business men of West Duluth asking the Northern Pacific railroad to install a Zenith telephone at its passenger station in West Duluth. The station has only one 'phone at present. The petition has been signed by almost every business man in this end of the city. It will be forwarded, when completed, to the superintendent of the local division.

Sleighride Party.

Members of the Young People's Society of the Bethel Swedish Lutheran church, Fifty-third avenue and Wadena street, enjoyed a sleighride party last evening to New Duluth. On the return the young people were entertained at the home of the pastor, Rev. Gustaf Oberg.

Samaritans to Meet.

West Duluth council No. 4, Modern Samaritans, will meet tomorrow evening at the West Duluth Commercial club rooms. Following an initiation of a class of new members a social program has been planned at which dancing will be one of the principal features.

West Duluth Briefs.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Merritt Memorial M. E. church, Forty-sixth avenue and Halifax street, will present "Tom Thumb's Wedding" at the church Friday evening.

Fancy fresh soaked lutefisk, 8 cents per pound at Johnson & Jermsted.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Hazelwood Presbyterian church, Thirty-ninth avenue and Fourth street, has planned to hold an aluminum demonstration at the church tomorrow afternoon.

West Duluth lodge, No. 1473, L. O. O. M., will nominate new officers and plan for work in its new gymnasium at its meeting at the Moose hall this evening.

Patrolman L. D. Root, who formerly was connected with the West Duluth station, but who for several months has been on an uptown beat, has been transferred back to West Duluth. Patrolman Victor Isaacson will go uptown.

Fancy fresh soaked lutefisk, 8 cents per pound at Johnson & Jermsted.

West Duluth lodge, No. 145, A. O. U. W., will hold a business meeting this evening at Gilley's hall, 322 North Central avenue.

Initiation of a class of ten members will feature the meeting of Old Hickory camp, No. 1555, M. W. A., this evening at the Great Eastern hall.

Watch repairing. Hurst. West Duluth.

THREE GAMES SCHEDULED.

Curlers Reach Finals in the Patrick Event.

Three games are scheduled for tonight at the Western Curling club. The games are R. F. Wade vs. M. Olson, Siewert event; Mallory vs. Zauft, De Fensia event; and J. McDonald vs. Quinn, Siewert event.

Last evening Joe McDonald went into the finals of the Patrick event by winning from T. F. Olsen, 12 to 10. He will play Quinn in the finals of this event later in the week.

Donald lost to R. F. Wade, 12 to 7; Mallory won from Evered, 11 to 4, and Zauft was given a forfeit by Kenneth McDonald last night.

TWENTY-FOUR WERE HELD IN FEBRUARY

The police of West Duluth arrested twenty-four offenders during the month of February, according to the report submitted today. Of this number half were charged with being "plain drunks." The other offenders were three vagrants, two boys for smoking cigarettes, two suspects of being insane, two for disorderly conduct, one for contempt of court, one for issuing checks on a bank without funds, and one for selling liquor to minors.

MAKES VESSEL APPOINTMENTS

. A. Tomlinson Names Officers of Fleet for This Year.

ome Shifts Made Because of Reduction of Number of Boats.

A. Tomlinson, Duluth vessel owner, announced his appointments of ers and engineers of the Tomlinfleet for the coming season. Apments for only twenty vessels are the fleet having been reduced by ince last season. Of the twentythe Livingstone and the Goulder, aging to the Tomlinson fleet er, were sold, and the four Peavey which were under charter by Tomlinson company, have just been sed of to the Reiss Steamship comme changes in the officers have necessitated by the difference in size of the fleet. Capt. C. C. Tousy, who had the Livingstone last year, the F. C. Ball for the coming sea- Capt. Ernest Warwick, formerly e F. C. Ball, has been shifted to Ball Brothers, and Capt. D. T. Sulof Duluth, in the Ball Brothers season, has been transferred to the ona.

mong the engineers, Thomas Welsh, he Goulder last season, is in the twell this year; A. Ward, chief of Livingstone last year, is shifted the Congdon; John Dalziel, in the gdon last year, has been changed he Barnum; William McCarron, in Hartwell last year, is shifted to the ver & Mason, and J. A. Johnston, in Hartwell last season, is transferred he Saxona this year.

Personnel of Appointments.

he appointments of masters and enners follow:

H. Hartwell—W. G. Maltby, Tom lish.

erwind—William Landon, A. L. Mcon.

C. Ball—C. C. Tousley, N. P. Slater. ayler Adams—William Stevenson, George Lennox.

Ball Bros.—Ernest Warwick, Thomas Birch.

C. A. Congdon—Charles J. Autterson, A. Ward.

D. M. Philbin—A. R. Morse, L. Vanderberg.

Sonoma—J. A. MacDonald, J. H. Campbell.

Sultana—F. R. Slater, J. A. Baird. G. G. Barnum—Peter Greene, John Dalziel.

Sinaloa—Hugh Stevenson, H. J. Lester.

Sonora—J. E. Drury, G. L. Campbell. Hoover & Mason—W. C. Brown, William McCarron.

Saxona—D. T. Sullivan, J. A. Johnston.

Yosemite—R. J. Reid, George Revneu.

J. E. Davidson—W. C. Jones, Lloyd Lockhart.

Sierra—George Warwick, J. H. Majo. F. W. Hart—W. S. Ritchie.

C. W. Watson—Charles Plotter.

R. P. Ranney—C. R. Baker, S. K. Kissack.

WANT PRISONERS TAKEN TO ST. PAUL

Hearing Begins at Chicago in Case of Alleged Stamp Thieves.

Chicago, March 1.—A hearing was begun here today on the government's motion to have persons held on charges of aiding in the theft of more than half a million dollars' worth of internal revenue stamps from a vault in the Federal building at St. Paul, Minn., last January removed to St. Paul for trial.

The case against Edward Leonard and George Bisett, both of Chicago, who are charged with the actual looting, was taken up first. Charles R. Nash, cashier of the internal revenue office at St. Paul, identified several of the packages of stamps recovered from the possession of the defendants here as part of the stolen stamps.

Michael L. Igoe, assistant United States district attorney, said the government would dismiss the case against Mrs. Catharine T. Flanigan, who, with her husband, Michael J. Flanigan, a saloon keeper, was charged with concealing a felony. Besides Flanigan other defendants are Mrs. Julia Leonard, John Zeck and Mrs. Florence Zeck.

No Evidence of Incendiarism.

Bismarck, N. D., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—A. H. Runge, state fire marshal, who returned from Milton, where he investigated the fire that threatened for a time the business section of the city, found no evidence of incendiarism.

SPELTER DEMAND MAKES PRICES SOAR

Sales Reported at 21⅞ Cents, the Highest Quotation Reached.

Demand for spelter has reached enormous proportions during the last few days with sales of Western brands reported at 21⅞ cents a pound, equaling the highest figure at which that material has ever sold.

The United States Steel corporation is said to have bought 4,000 tons from the Butte & Superior Copper company, and 6,000 tons of Australian product for use in its smelter at Donora, Pa.

Activity in copper mining circles is on the increase, according to reports, it having largely become a question of the ability of the mines to turn out sufficient metal to fill orders that have been already booked.

An interesting development in the trade lately is the demand for standard copper that is coming from England. This copper is intended to be used for conversion into sulphate of copper to be utilized for killing insects in the vineyards of Southern Europe. As a special concession, permission has been given to English manufacturers to meet the necessities of the Entente allies in that respect in France, Italy and Algiers. This new business will take a large tonnage of copper right out of the market.

IRON AND STEEL SET NEW RECORDS

Prices of 1899 Passed; Heavy Orders for Shipbuilding.

Prices of iron and steel products are now passing the records established in 1899, which were the highest in the history of the trade up till that time. Quotations in the leading products figure out at $16.17 per ton above the average of 1915 and $18 higher than the 1914 average.

Trade in the Chicago district is said to be especially active at present with consumers placing contracts for semi-finished steel for the second half of the year delivery. A large number of contracts for structural materials are reported as having been booked by the American Bridge company during the last few days. In the list is included 132 tons of material for use in the addition to the Capitol Elevator company's plant here now under construction and 160 tons for the Butte & Superior Copper company at Butte, Mont. Steel plates are said to be still the most difficult material to obtain and their quotation has been marked up $5 a ton. Advances of $3 a ton have been made in shapes, bars, spikes, track bolts and tie plates.

Activity in Shipping.

As showing the present activity in shipbuilding circles, it is estimated that inquiries for approximately 100,000 tons of plates for ship construction are in the market. The nominal quotation being made on them is $2.75 per 100 pounds, compared with $1.10 per 100 pounds a year ago, an advance of $33 a ton. Orders for two more lake boats have been placed by the Pittsburgh Steamship company, making five in all to go on the stocks. There are now 250 merchant vessels under construction in this country. The Bethlehem Steel corporation leads in the amount of vessel tonnage on its books. Charles M. Schwab, president of that corporation, is said to be planning to spend between $10,000,000 and $20,000,000 in new construction at the plants of the Maryland Steel company at Tidewater and in increasing its shipbuilding facilities.

European inquiries for steel are reported to be enormous just now, the aggregate being placed at as high as 1,000,000 tons. Manufacturers are finding themselves unable to supply more than one-half that demand except for delivery during the last half of the year.

MORE DELAY IN THE TRIAL OF LORIMER

Chicago, March 1.—The trial of William Lorimer on a charge of wrecking the La Salle Street Trust & Savings bank was resumed before Judge Dever today.

More than two weeks have been consumed in the selection of the jury. The twelve men in the jury box have been tentatively accepted by both sides, but are subject to peremptory challenge.

Hope of the taking of evidence beginning today was abandoned when two of the twelve veniremen tentatively accepted by both sides were excused by agreement.

YOUNG GERMANS HAVE PLANS OF U. S. FORTS

New York, March 1.—Plans of the United States fortifications have been found in the possession of Richard von Arend and Rudolph von Kracht, two young Germans arrested here on a charge of operating the mails to swindle, according to E. W. McDonald, assistant United States district attorney today.

Von Arend and Von Kracht were held in $5,000 bail each for a hearing Saturday. They denied ever having any plans of American forts, and said the only things answering such a description that they owned were pictures sent them from Germany by relatives.

To Broaden Workmen's Law.

Madison, Wis., March 1.—The next legislature will be asked to strengthen and broaden the scope of the workmen's compensation law, M. J. Tappins, secretary of the state board of control, which has the general supervision of the law, declares that the law should be revised to include widowers also.

In a ton of water from the Atlantic there are thirty-one pounds of salt, as against 187 pounds in the same quantity from the Dead sea.

D. H., 3-1-16.

Suits at $13.75

Yesterday was "Prosperity Day."

* * *

There will not be another 29th of February for four years, but if you want a little prosperity of the kind that you can hear jingle in your pants pocket, go to this week's $13.75 suit sale at The Columbia.

* * *

To proclaim prosperity is all right, but the real thing is that which means that you earn more than it costs you to live.

* * *

If you can be fitted from the lot of 150 $20 and $25 suits put on sale today at $13.75, you save a big percentage.

* * *

The saving is comparatively greater if you will realize that next fall a good winter weight suit will cost you $3 to $6 more at the regular price.

* * *

On the newly arrived Spring Suits there is no marked advance in price and no dye trouble, as they were contracted for long ago.

* * *

New suits, new hats, new shirts, new ties, new socks and new shoes are now ready to be shown.

* * *

Try a pair of Dr. Reed's Cushion Shoes.

Duluth, Minn. The Columbia Clothing Co. At Third Ave. W.

Have You Seen the Kiddie Kar?
Lots of joy rides for the little tots.

George A. Gray Co
THE STORE FOR SERVICE.
113-115-117-119 WEST SUPERIOR ST., DULUTH, MINN.

New Ideas in Lenten Needle Work
At the Art Dept., Third Floor.

Tape Stripes and Shawl Plaids for the New Spring Skirts and Suits

We are showing these very popular fabrics in black ground, navy blue, green, Copenhagen blue and brown. The present styles are accountable for these particular designs. They are very effective, are distinctly new and are an entire change from what we have been showing. Your fashion book undoubtedly is featuring these at the present time.

Exceptional qualities at $1.50, $2.00 and $2.50 the yard.

FINAL REDUCTIONS
Two Lots Winter Coats

$1.98 —and— $5

For Women and Girls — For Women's Coats

Take your choice—

The $5.00 Coats are women's coats we purchased for this winter's selling—except sport coats.

The $1.98 Coats were carried over from last winter—mostly mixtures, and mostly sizes 16, 18, 34, 36 and a few 38—also coats for girls of 6 to 14 years.

As one man put it this morning—"Wife, better buy four or five—the price can hardly pay for the buttons on the coats—then when we take guests out in our car—we won't need to worry about keeping them warm."

Buy what you want—no laybys—no exchanges—no refunds—no approvals.

PIANO PRICES

Which Will Interest You While These Instruments Last.

$800	Baby Grand Piano (Good standard make.)	$475.00
$750	Player Piano (All but human.)	$450.00
$750	Auto Player Piano (Mahogany case—big bargain.)	$285.00
$600	Player Piano now (Well-known make.)	$375.00
$550	Bush & Gerts Piano (Only pianos on the market with union label on.)	$375.00
$500	Bush & Gerts Piano (Beautiful Circassian walnut.)	$350.00
$400	Schaeffer Piano (Popular instrument—big bargain.)	$265.00
$450	Kimball Piano (Handsome case.)	$235.00
$400	Wick Piano (Big bargain—easy terms.)	$188.00
$350	Steinman & Son (Everybody knows this is a bargain.)	$185.00
$275	Engles Oak Piano (Good make.)	$165.00
$265	Sample Piano (Plain case.)	$145.00
$125	Kimball Piano-organ (Mahogany case.)	$63.00

Our house-cleaning sale is on and every instrument now on our two floors, new or used, will be sold at big bargains for cash or on payments. Such well-known good standard makes of pianos and player pianos as the famous Baldwin line, Chase, Hackley, Crown, Hamilton, Howard, Monarch, Kruff, Holland, and others to choose from. Call or write today. We have no agents. Store open evenings this week.

KORBY PIANO COMPANY,
Duluth's Oldest Piano House.
26 Lake Avenue North.

"IF EVERY husband could be made to do the family washing just once, his wife would have an EDEN Washer the following Monday."

$10.00 WILL PUT AN EDEN IN YOUR HOME

During the month of March (only) we will deliver this wonderful Electric Washing and Wringing Machine to YOUR home on FREE trial and PROVE to YOU conclusively that an "EDEN" will save you money and time and pay for itself out of the savings in wear and tear of clothes over the old-fashioned "rub-your-knuckles" way. YOU be the judge—if satisfactory after a trial, pay $10.00 and then only $5.00 per month until paid for. Remember, this offer is ONLY good for the month of March. Telephone us and we will send a representative to your home to explain more fully this exceptional offer.

NORTHERN ELECTRICAL CO.
"Everything Electrical"
Both Phones 2325.
210-212 WEST FIRST ST.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

Curling Hockey

News and Views of the Sport World

BILLIARDS ~ WRESTLING ~ BOWLING

Basketball Boxing

EXCITING HOCKEY GAME IS LOOKED FOR FRIDAY NIGHT

Big Duluths and Universals to Hook Up in Crucial Game—Alexander Aberg, the Huge Finn, Has Great Record—Acquiring Title Gave Jess Willard Confidence.

BY BRUCE.

A GREAT hockey game is expected when the Big Duluths clash with the Universals in the Duluth Curling club Friday evening. If the clothiers win, the race for the league pennant will be tied up, and if the flour men win their chance of winning the pennant will be clinched almost. During the present week both teams are indulging in hard practice so as to be right for the most crucial game of the present season.

During the present season amateur league hockey has enjoyed a very popular vogue. There have been some who have longed for a return for big league hockey, and yet it is a peculiar fact that last year there were those who were yelling to give the home boys an opportunity. In the light of the returns it is difficult to know just what all the followers of the puck game desire. But, at that, the simon pure brand of game has been appreciated by a fairly large number of fans.

The season in the league is almost at an end. The game of next Friday night is the climax of the season. Natural conditions of play have brought about this climax. The two leading teams are bunched so closely that the game this week is expected to virtually decide the winner. As the members of both teams have a host of followers, and feeling is rather high because of certain unpleasant incidents of the past, it is expected that the largest crowd that has ever witnessed an amateur hockey game in Duluth, will be on hand to root for the contending teams.

Cline of Superior, who has established a reputation in the few games he has worked in here, will be one of the officials in the contest of Friday evening. Cy Clark will be the judge of play. With these two men in charge of the play, with explicit instructions given regarding what will happen to offending players, the officials of the league believe that the contest will prove a great one and one free from the features that marred a contest between the same teams some weeks back.

* * *

The Great Aberg Coming.

IN Alexander Aberg Promoter Frank La Joy has booked one of the greatest wrestling figures of the present age. The huge Finn has never lost a fall and his record includes defeats of Stanislaus Zbyszko from whom the giant Aberg won in Helsingfors, Finland, Aberg's native land. The triumph the big Finn achieved over the squat Pole showed the wonderful strength of the big man, Nouralah, the huge Turk, fell at Aberg's hands, as did Jess Pedersen, Lurich, and a host of the other stars of Europe.

Unlike most of the foreign wrestlers who have come to the United States in search of American gold, Aberg has proved just as wonderful on this side of the water as he did on the European side of the Atlantic. The big fellow won the Madison Square wrestling tournament of last year and then came back and won every contest he wrestled in this season, proving the sensation of the tourney and lugging off the prize of $10,000 for proving the winner.

The original Youssif, the huge Turk who was drowned when the French steamer carrying him home, was sunk, was perhaps the most fierce and gruelling wrestler who ever hit these shores. This giant, weighing more than 400 pounds, nearly permanently injured tough old Tom Jenkins by the way he manhandled him. Aberg is no angel of sweet and gentle temperament. The Finn is a surly brute when aroused, as he proved in the recent New York tournament. "Strangler" Lewis, who held Joe Stecher two hours before being pitched head foremost out of the ring, riled the gigantic Aberg to such an extent that the big Finn crushed him to the mat with incredible strength and slammed all of the wrestling knowledge out of the young Kentuckian.

* * *

Willard Is Confident.

PRESS dispatches from New York indicate that Jess Willard is confident of his ability to defeat Frank Moran. Confidence is rather a new acquisition with Willard, which only goes to show that winning a title generally carries along in its wake the confidence that generally comes to a man after the performance of a big deed. If old tales be taken as being literally true, there was a time when the huge Jess cared not over much for the hard going. Such a well known hunter of ring facts as Robert Ripley is authority for the statement that the plainsman quit cold in the fight with Joe Cox.

Willard should not be censored for showing an early ring timidness. Other champions before his time have developed from men of questioned gameness to fighters who would never quit. Almost every human being has a certain amount of yellow in him. There is not so much difference between a hero and a coward. Some of the greatest heroes of history have been molded out of emotional insanity. Contrawise, some of the cowards and poltroons of the world stage have been victims of circumstances that might have operated to an opposite end, had the breaks been right.

Stanley Ketchel was fearless. There have been but few Ketchels in the history of the ring. Willard, perhaps, is just the average man, possessing, perhaps, greater pugilistic confidence right now than the average fighter.

an "GOTHIC" © ARROW COLLAR

FRONT FITS CRAVAT KNOT PERFECTLY. 2 for 25c

CLUETT, PEABODY & CO., INC., MAKERS

BRESNAHAN GETS OFFER.

Weeghman Offers to Compromise His Contract for Lump Sum.

Chicago, March 1.—Roger Bresnahan and Charles Weeghman discussed yesterday terms under which the former's contract with the Chicago Nationals could be abrogated and Weeghman made the former manager an offer to which Bresnahan said he would return an answer today. Neither would say what the offer was.

It is believed here that Bresnahan has practically arranged to take over the Cleveland Association club and transfer it to Toledo and that an agreement between him and Mr. Weeghman will be reached today.

Bresnahan's contract with the Cubs calls for an annual salary of $10,000 and has two seasons to run. It was said that Mr. Weeghman offered him today $10,000 in a lump and his unconditional release with the understanding that Bresnahan would surrender his claim to any further amount.

BRESNAHAN WILL PASS FROM NATIONAL

ROGER BRESNAHAN.

It seems decidedly certain that Roger Bresnahan will pass from the National league baseball arena, where he has scintillated for more than a decade, both as a great player and a manager. It seems definitely settled that the once famous catcher will become president, part owner and manager of the Toledo team of the American association. Cleveland will lose its American association franchise, Toledo returning to the association fold, with the former Cardinal and Cub leader at the head of the club.

ROLLER SKATING RACES!

Thursday Evening, This Week.

Roller Skating 7:30 to 10:15; races after 10:15 p. m.

AUDITORIUM RINK,

Third Avenue East and First Street. Admission, as usual, 10c; ladies free. Skating every Tues., Thurs. & Sun. nights and Sat. and Sun. afternoons.

SAINTS BEAT SAULT TWICE

Have Good Lead for Hockey Championship; Next Games at Sault.

St. Paul, Minn., March 1.—The St. Paul A. C. hockey team made it two straight over the Sault Ste. Marie aggregation in the series to decide the McNaughton cup championship, by winning here last night, 4 to 3, in a contest that went two extra periods. The next two games will be played at Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., March 2 and 3. If a fifth game is necessary for one of the teams to win three contests, it will be played on neutral ice.

HONIGMAN WINS IN "Y" CHESS TOURNEY

Captures All But One Game in Twenty-Two Contests.

The round robin chess tournament, which has been in progress for several weeks at the Y. M. C. A., has closed, and William Honigman is declared champion, having won the largest percentage of games. Of the twenty-two games played, he lost only one. That was lost to Frank Russell.

The tournament has resulted in arousing interest in that ancient game—chess. It has given the chess players of the city a chance to get acquainted and pass many an enjoyable evening. But the persons watching the game, enjoyed it as much as the players if one were to judge from the way the players were surrounded with amateurs who were eager to learn more about the game.

Two hundred and ninety-two games in all were played. Following is the result of the contests:

Name—	—Games— Won.	Lost.	Total.	Per Cent. Won.
William Honigman	21	1	22	.954
A. B. Hostetter	18	4	22	.818
Frank Russell	21	5	26	.807
F. C. Baluss	18	8	26	.692
J. A. Syvertson	4	2	6	.666
J. S. Rich	15	9	24	.625
Peter Peterson	10	8	18	.555
W. C. Johnson	6	7	13	.461
William H. Cruikshank	11	13	24	.458
William H. Boyer	4	6	10	.400
O. S. Christinsen	9	17	26	.346
W. O. Pealer	4	10	14	.285
P. A. Belson	3	17	20	.150
H. C. Tomes	2	20	22	.090
A. G. Catlin	0	2	..	.000
W. J. Dutcher	0	2	..	.000
J. M. Erickson	0	6	..	.000
H. A. Ingham	0	2	..	.000
Jacob Palki	0	2	..	.000
H. I. Shaw	0	3	..	.000
J. F. Thompson	0	2	..	.000

CALUMET LEADS IN SPECIAL HOCKEY TOURNEY

Calumet, Mich., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Calumet won from Portage Lake, 8 and 5, last night, taking the third straight game in the special Copper country championship series of four.

Calumet has a lead of nine goals for the championship cup. The last game will be played March 3.

HIBBING MAN SIGNED BY CHICAGO WHITE SOX

Chicago, March 1.—The Chicago Americans have signed Joe Fautsch of Hibbing, Minn., an infielder. Fautsch was on the payroll of the Dubuque club last year, but refused to report, and in 1914 played with Winona.

DULUTH BEGINS CAMPAIGN TO LAND NATIONAL REGATTA

Enthusiasm Displayed at Rowing Rally Held in Assembly Room of Commercial Club—Ten Eyck Says Duluth Will Show East How to Stage Regatta—Citizens Are Asked to Get Behind and Help to Land Big Rowing Event.

Upon a famous occasion Lord Nelson declared that England expected every man to do his duty. Last evening, Jimmy Ten Eyck, J. D. Mahoney and other officers of the Duluth Boat club declared that Duluth expected every citizen to do his duty in assisting in landing the 1916 regatta of the Amateur Rowing Association of America. The rally was held in the assembly room of the Commercial club and was attended by an enthusiastic gathering of some 400 boat club followers.

On March 18 the directors will decide on the place of holding the 1916 regatta. Between now and that not very distant date it is expected that a vast amount of activity will be shown by Duluth. The meeting of last evening seemed to start the ball rolling. Petitions were distributed to be circulated throughout the city. It is desired to have thousands of names to show to the national regatta committeemen, to convince them that Duluth as a city is solidly aligned in the desire to stage the national here—and stage one of the greatest in the forty years of national boat racing.

Jim Ten Eyck was greeted with a heavy hand of welcome as he was asked to address the audience by President Mahoney, who presided at the meeting.

"We want this regatta," began Jim, "and if we land it, we are going to show the East how to stage a real series of boat races. I might tell you at this time that if Duluth does succeed in getting the national, that the boat club will be placed in a position to handle it in an able manner. The grandstand will be enlarged to a seating capacity of 4,000, and a new shell-house will be constructed. There will be a larger dining room built for the oarsmen and new sleeping quarters will be added. With these completions the Duluth Boat club will the biggest and best equipped rowing club in the United States.

To Run National Special.

"One of the plans we have in view is the running of a through oarsmen's special from New York to Duluth. This would prove a great advertisement for Duluth. This train would carry a number of oarsmen direct from New York and would pick up others at Pittsburgh and other points. At Chicago more oarsmen would be taken on, from St. Louis, New Orleans and possibly Pacific coast points.

"As Duluth has progressed and become more enterprising, its manufacturers and jobbers have advertised along national lines. Duluth has become known in the national commercial field. Our oarsmen have given this city wide prestige and renown. One of the greatest advertising benefits ever received by the city was that derived from the winning of ten races at Springfield last August. The holding of a national regatta here would, without a doubt, prove a remarkable national advertising feature and would place Duluth prominently in the national notice."

The Barnes Trophy.

During the course of his remarks, Ten Eyck stated that Julius H. Barnes is considering the proposition of donating a number of trophies to be raced for during the national. One of the trophies will be something like the famous Lipton trophy and will be competed for annually. There will also likely be a cup to be contended for by the senior eights and also a cup for the senior fours.

"What we want most of all right now is material," said Jim. "Ned Ten Eyck, my brother, will be here Monday. He will take charge of the work that will start then. I am going East on a business trip and will be gone possibly three weeks. When I return we will work together. Last year we had something like 150 rowing men registered, the largest number in the history of the club. This year we should have 250 men out. We want to sweep the national field this year and to accomplish such a feat it is essential that we have a large number of rowing candidates."

J. D. Mahoney declared that it was his belief that the citizens of Duluth would be very willing to contribute toward a fund to help defray the expenses of bringing the regatta to Duluth. The cost of staging the national here is estimated at $5,000. Julius H. Barnes has borne a heavy rowing expense in the past, it was pointed out, and President Mahoney declared it his opinion that many of Duluth's citizens would be glad to share in the expense of bringing the big regatta west. It was definitely decided last evening that contributions would be received.

"Whether the citizens here contribute or not, Mr. Barnes has assured me that the regatta will be staged, if we succeed in getting it," said Mr. Mahoney, "but I believe that it is hardly fair to ask Mr. Barnes to contribute so much. I believe that the city is willing to stand behind us and contribute toward the regatta fund."

G. Roy Hall, J. E. MacGregor, Wallace Quimby, Walker Jamar and others addressed the meeting. Moving pictures of the Springfield races were shown on the screen. At the conclusion of the meeting the signature petitions were distributed and today are being circulated around the city. It is desired to secure the largest number of signatures possible, as the names of those signing will be sent to the national regatta committee members.

Boat Club Men to Meet.

There will be a meeting today of boat club workers. An effort will be made to line things up for the start of the season. New machines have been secured for the Y. M. C. A. rowing room and the older men will start in immediately to secure a large number of candidates for the preliminary training.

ONLY GREEN MEN IN C. H. S. MEET

Interclass Indoor Track Event Promises to Be Interesting.

Athletes of Central high school will hold their annual interclass indoor track meet this afternoon in the gymnasium of the Washington building. All of the class teams have been practicing hard for the past several weeks and it is expected that the meet will be an exceptionally close one.

The new athletes of the school will be given their opportunity to show what they can do, for none of the "D" men will be allowed to participate. Any man who has won his letter as a member of the school track team is barred from participation. This will make the several events decidedly more interesting and will bring out more enthusiasm on the part of the contestants. There will be the usual dashes, hurdles, long distance runs, jumps and weight work. All of the men have been working hard for some time and it is expected that the "green" men will near some of the best records.

The classes are all evenly matched, the seniors having a little advantage in the dope. The team captains are: George Lindsay, seniors; Robert Berkelman, juniors; Sigrud Hendrickson, sophomores, and Monroe Whitmore, freshmen.

NORTHWESTERN SECOND; CHANCE TO LEAD YET

Chicago, March 1.—Northwestern university clinched second place in the Big Nine conference basket ball series by defeating the University of Illinois 25 to 16 last night.

Northwest still has a chance of overcoming the lead of Wisconsin for first place.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 1.—Minnesota defeated Indiana 27 to 20 in a Western conference basket ball game here last night.

FENTON-DUBYS CLINCH FLAG

Victory Over Northerns Gives Them Championship of Basket Ball League.

Big Duluths and Kelleys Are Tied for Second Place.

STANDING OF THE TEAMS.

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Fenton-Dubys	6	2	.750
Kelleys	4	4	.500
Big Duluths	4	4	.500
Northerns	2	5	.250

The Fenton-Duby quint of the Commercial Basket Ball league, by its victory over the Northern Hardware aggregation last evening, clinched the league pennant. The season closes next week. The Big Duluths caused a tie for second place when they defeated the Kelleys.

In the first contest the Fentons got the jump at the start and maintained it all the way through. The game was somewhat one-sided but some classy playing was brought out nevertheless. The Fentons were leading at the conclusion of the first half by the score of 10 to 3, and in the final period they added 22 points to their total while their opponents could get but 11, making the final score 32 to 14. The whole Fenton-Duby team shared in the score making and they played together very well. As a result of the game the sporting goods men clinch the league pennant, for even if they do lose the next game they will still be in the lead.

Second Game Fast One.

The Kelley-Big Duluth scrap was a fast one all the way through and the winner was not decided until the final whistle blew. The Kelleys showed a big improvement and fought the fast clothiers to a draw at times. The hardware men lead at the conclusion of the first half by the score of 12 to 3, but the clothiers came back strong in the final period and with their forwards running wild they swept the Kelleys off their feet. The Kelleys made a dying attempt to tie the score near the end but they fell short by a small margin and the game closed with the score standing 24 to 20 with the Big Duluths on the long end.

The league season will be closed next week. The scores of the games last night:

Northerns (17)		Fenton-Duby (32)
Boerner	f	Fenton
McKay	f	Nerski
Eye	c	Becker
Matzke	g	Wisted
Friedman	g	Burnett

Field baskets—McKay, 4; Boerner, 2;

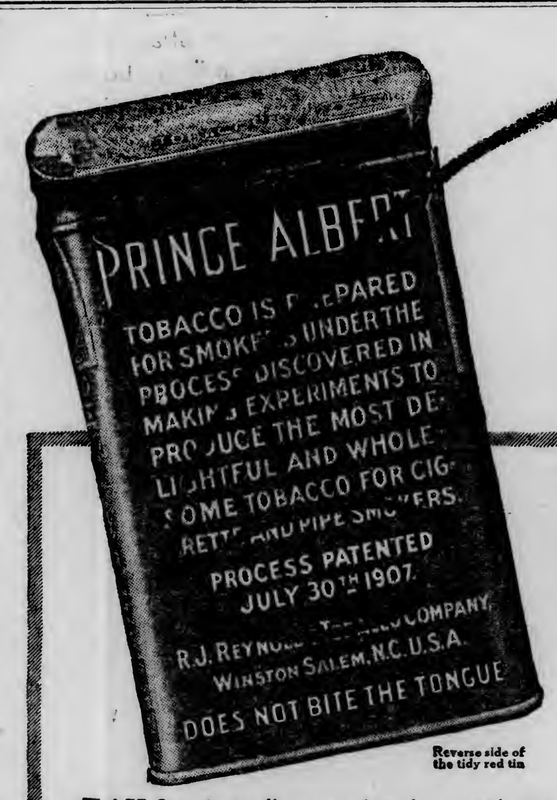
Why those Pains?

Here is a testimonial unsolicited

"If I had my will it would be advertised on every street corner. The man or woman that has rheumatism and fails to keep and use Sloan's Liniment is like a drowning man refusing a rope."—A. J. Van Dyke, Lakewood, N. J.

Sloan's Liniment

Copyright 1916 by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.



PRINCE ALBERT
TOBACCO IS PREPARED FOR SMOKE UNDER THE PROCESS DISCOVERED IN MAKING EXPERIMENTS TO PRODUCE THE MOST DELIGHTFUL AND WHOLESOME TOBACCO FOR CIGARETTE AND PIPE SMOKERS.
PROCESS PATENTED JULY 30TH 1907.
R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY, WINSTON SALEM, N.C. U.S.A.
DOES NOT BITE THE TONGUE

Reverse side of the tidy red tin

Prince Albert tobacco has made three men smoke pipes where one smoked before!

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

LAY fire to a jimmy pipe jammed-chock-full of Prince Albert tobacco, or roll up a makin's cigarette—if you're digging after reasons why P. A. has revolutionized the pipe and "rolling" game; why P. A. has trebled the number of pipe smokers in six years; why Prince Albert is today smoked in every civilized nation on the globe!

Give P. A. the third-degree-test-out! Drill like sixty into that enticing flavor, that fragrance, that long-burning coolness. Your confidence never will be abused! The patented process makes all that possible—and frees the tobacco from bite and parch!

Men who have stowed away gentle old pipes for years have brought them back to the tune of Prince Albert! It will set free any-pipe-shy-tongue!

P. A. will prove out 100 per cent. any hour of the twenty-four! It will give any man all the pipe-happiness he ever did yearn for!

Rolled in a makin's cigarette, Prince Albert is so refreshing and so delightful, it gives you a brand-new idea of how mighty fine a real makin's cigarette can be! It's as satisfying to your taste as the prettiest thoughts of smoke-happiness you ever uncorked!

Prince Albert can be purchased everywhere tobacco is sold in toppy red bags, 5c; tidy red tins, 10c; handsome pound and half-pound tin humidors, and in that classy pound crystal-glass humidor with sponge-moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such bang-up condition!

For Prince Albert has won its way on its merits. Won-over men of all tastes—it's so universal in its popularity; so good, and friendly, and satisfying! It will win you quick as a flash!

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY, Winston-Salem, N. C.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

Bye and Matzke. Fenton, 3; Norski, 4; Becker, 3; Wisted and Burnett, 4.

Kelleys (20) Big Duluth (24)
Kerns.....f..... Hallenbeck
F. Biegle.....f..... Pedrizziddi
Spomick.....c..... Budnick
R. Biegle.....g..... Oliver
Solheim.....g..... Nelson

Field baskets—Kerns, 3; F. Biegle, 2; Spomick, 4; Solheim, Hallenbeck, 5; Pedrizziddi, 3; Oliver, 2, and Nelson.
Free throws—Nelson, 2.

CURLING PLAY IN ALL EVENTS

Manley Event.

Third Round.	Semi-Finals.
Coson McMillan	Coson
Brewer Cleveland	———
Macgregor Dinham	Dinham
fall MacGregor	MacGregor

Pinzon Event.

Second Round.	Third Round.
G. E. Warren William Dinham	———
D. McLennan Walter Hall	McLennan
C. F. Naughton F. G. German	Naughton
S. L. Reichert A. C. Hoene	———
Sam Cleveland Charles Brewer	Brewer
H. E. Ditzel D. C. Duncan	———
George Milligan E. D. Field	Milligan
H. S. Macgregor O. E. Martin	Macgregor

Herald Event.

Semi-Finals.	Finals.
Duncan Cleveland	Cleveland
Dinham Harris	———

Universal Event.

Third Round.	Semi-Finals.
Sam Cleveland Dr. Catterson	Cleveland
C. F. Naughton James Elder	Naughton
J. E. MacGregor G. P. Stillman	Stillman
Dinham W. B. Dunlop	Dunlop

Bagley Event.

Semi-Finals.	Finals.
Schiller Harris	Schiller
Coson Brewer	Brewer

TO PLAY FOR TITLE.

Duluth and Eau Claire Volley Ball Teams Will Meet Here.

Another volley ball tournament is to be staged in the Y. M. C. A. So successful has the local volley ball season been that it has been decided to lengthen the season a month. The new tourney will begin on Saturday.

It was announced today that a volley ball contest for the championship of the United States would be played on the Duluth association floor some time during the next month. Eau Claire, Wis., has a volley ball team that has beaten the strongest teams in the country. The Badgers will be brought here for a series of games that will determine the supremacy of the country.

Duluth has some of the strongest teams in the West. Its all-star team has established an enviable record during the past few seasons, its followers being confident that Duluth will take the measure of the Eau Claire aggregation.

PENFOLD TO PLAY HERE

Duluth Secures Fort William Hurler; Superior's Case Is Up.

Penfold, the crack pitcher of the Fort William team, is coming to Duluth. This youngster is the twirler who has always won so many home games for the Bills. He never could be persuaded to go on the road. However, he has decided to make an all-summer tour with the Dooks, and is coming here along with big Fusner, the catcher, in exchange for Henry Clay Blancke.

H. A. Blume left for the fastnesses of Superior at an early hour today. Charles Moll will share part of the misery with the local magnate, as the former St. Boniface magnate arrived in Superior early today to take up the baseball revival work.

Mr. Blume stated before leaving that he expected that a definite understanding would be arrived at sometime today. Moll and Blume will go to the mat with the Superior "business men," and endeavor to wring order and progress out of chaos. Before departing, Blume bought a pulmotor and some smelling salts.

A Rumor From Fargo.

On the heels of the welcome announcement that Fort William is in the fold, comes a disturbing rumor that finances are in a balky state at Fargo. A special from the Flickertail metropolis declares that efforts to raise money have met with little success and that there is some doubt as to whether Fargo will be in the league.

When this racy rumor was told to H. A. Blume, he declared that there was no doubt whatever but that Fargo would come in.

AMATEURS WILL STAGE CUE TOURNEY

Play Will Begin for Hatley 14.2 Balk Line Billiard Trophy.

T. L. Chapman, C. S. Chapman, B. E. Ursin, W. Hawkins, L. J. Kuyk, F. R. Mann, E. C. Bachand and Max Harland are some of the amateur billiard players of Duluth entered in the amateur 14.2 balk line billiard tournament that is scheduled to begin this evening in Hatley's parlors.

The tournament will be played for the Hatley silver balk line trophy, 150 points a game, and the Head of the Lakes championship.

Last year's tourney was the most successful ever staged in Duluth. The quality of play is expected to be even better this year. The players entered are the best at the Head of the Lakes. Most of the amateurs have been practicing for some time in anticipation of the tourney. Many of the entrants have been playing with Bill Hatley and have absorbed some of the old master's cue wizardry.

PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN FOR INDIGESTION OR AN UPSET STOMACH

Instant Relief from Pain, Sourness, Gases, Acidity, Heartburn and Dyspepsia--No Waiting!

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in a few moments you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps the stomach regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Try it!—Advertisement.

HAVE YOUR CLOCK REPAIRED
Called for and Delivered
WORK GUARANTEED

ERD'S JEWELRY STORE
Both Phones.
29 EAST SUPERIOR STREET, DULUTH MINN.

ENVELOPES
The kind you want. Every grade and size. We have the stock.
"Rush Orders a Pleasure"
MERRITT & HECTOR
Printers and Binders
112 WEST FIRST ST.

REX ISN'T LIKE ORDINARY BEERS—
KINGLY IN WHOLESOMENESS, SPARKLE AND FLAVOR.
REX BEER
ALWAYS SATISFIES MEN WHO KNOW GOOD BEER.
Have a Case Sent Home
BREWED AND BOTTLED BY BREWERS OF A BETTER BEER.
DULUTH BREWING & MALTING CO.
DULUTH, MINN.

HEALTH TALKS
BY WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

The Goose Step

WILLIAM BRADY M.D.

Our favorite prescription for autointoxication, biliousness, simple anemia, that tired feeling, lack of ambition, incipient obesity and cold hands and feet—all in one person—is two miles of oxygen every day, or in other words, walking to and from work.

Individuals engaged in sedentary occupations indoors are particularly subject to the group of symptoms mentioned, and nine times out of ten these semi-invalids don't like to walk and don't know how to walk. They really imagine a mile is a long, long way to walk, especially when the weather is a little too cold, too warm, too wet or too dry.

If your work is just around the corner it is somewhat difficult to cover the miles going and coming. But here is one way to do it without wasting time running around in circles. Try the goose step.

Everybody knows what the goose step is from the pictures. It is a manner of walking with exaggerated extension of the legs. Instead of allowing the leg to swing forward passively and flexed, as in ordinary walking, you throw it forward with the knee stiffened, so that you really step much higher in the air than necessary. About ten goose steps will set your heart a-thumping and make you puff a trifle, it is so hard. Twenty goose steps will make you pretty tired. Thirty will just about be enough for the first offense. Try it some evening when nobody is watching just to see how it goes.

The goose step is an antidote for "high stomachs." It calls upon the rectus muscles of the abdomen—in fact it calls upon a lot of muscles you have hardly known were yours, as you will find the day after your first experience.

Ladies' skirts, just now, fortunately, are no bar to this exercise. They may join the parade at any time after dark in the more thickly populated sections.

Men's nethere garments, however, have a tendency to impede the free and untrammeled activity of the limbs these days. Therefore we advise any of the more snugly dressed men—if any of that sort ever reads this column—to go gently with the exercise until he is quite sure of himself.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Fattening the Cheeks.

Is there any skin food or preparation which one can rub in for the purpose of fattening hollow cheeks or filling out the neck and busts?

Answer—There is no such agent known. Certain fats may be absorbed when rubbed into the skin, but if so they are not deposited locally any more than elsewhere throughout the body. The only way to fatten cheeks, necks or busts is to fatten the whole body.

Tonsils and Glands in Neck.

I have large and infected tonsils and haven't the necessary funds to have them removed. But lately I notice sore and swollen glands under and behind the ear. What causes them?

Answer—The infected tonsils—infected tonsils are the most common cause of enlarged glands in the neck, and decayed teeth come next.

Cancer Not Heritable.

My father died at an advanced age of cancer of the pylorus of the stomach. Two daughters are approaching middle life. What are the chances that they will inherit the disease?

Answer—Practically none. There is no good reason to believe cancer is heritable.

Scabies Alias the Itch.

What is scabies? How is it contracted? Is it the same as Dakota itch or Prairie itch?

Answer—Scabies is the itch. It is contracted through personal contact with any one who has it, as by using the same towel, brush, strap hanger in street car, etc. It is an alias for the other varieties you mention. Sometimes it is called "uric acid in the blood," "eczema," "Cuban itch," etc.; but the itch mite is there with claws in every case. Grandma will tell you how to cure it with sulphur ointment—not with sulphur internally.

Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. If your question is of general interest it will be answered through these columns; if not it will be answered personally if stamped, addressed envelope is enclosed. Dr. Brady will not prescribe for individual cases or make diagnoses. Address, Dr. William Brady, care of this newspaper. Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.

BREWER WINS THE BAGLEY

Schiller Defeated in Finals 11 to 6—Final in Universal.

Charles Brewer's rink last night won the first curling trophy of the local season, defeating Mike Schiller's rink in the finals of the Bagley event by the score of 11 to 6. A big gallery followed the play. The game was well curled all the way through. Sam Cleveland's rink takes on C. P. Stillman in the finals of the Universal this evening.

Following is the result of games played last evening and the draw for tonight:

O. K. Mather vs. W. B. Dunlop.
H. Matzke vs. L. Coson.
William Mackay vs. F. W. Hargreaves.
F. Crasweller vs. Charles West.
J. H. McGhie vs. F. Newcomb.
Ray Bishoff vs. Will Dinham.
E. Dietz vs. W. G. Hall.
W. R. Patton vs. Stephen H. Jones.
H. S. Macgregor vs. "Buster" Sahlsburgh.

Results Last Night.
HERALD EVENT.
Sam Cleveland, 15; D. C. Duncan, 6.
BAGLEY EVENT.
Charles Brewer, 11; R. C. Schiller, 6.
BOARD OF TRADE EVENT.
George Milligan, 12; A. B. Kappelan, 0.
H. Matzke, 12; Stephen H. Jones, 0.
John Beerhalter, 12; O. Martin, 0.
Ron Smith, 13; Coley Naughton, 6.

FARGO MAY GIVE UP ITS FRANCHISE

Difficulty in Raising Funds Discourages Flickertail Baseball Backers.

Fargo, N. D., March 1.—With some little trouble being experienced locally in the matter of obtaining funds for the maintenance of the Northern league baseball team during the coming season, it is not at all settled that Fargo-Moorhead will be represented in the circuit.

Several appeals have been made to the local baseball fans for financial support, but the money has not been coming as rapidly as the committee had hoped for.

The canvass, however, will be continued more aggressively the coming week. About $8,000 is needed to open the season.

TO DEVELOP TENNIS.

Dwight F. Davis Will Give Cup for Intercity Contests.

New York, March 1.—An association is to be formed for the development of intercity tennis contests between the public parks clubs of the various cities, as the result of a conference here yesterday at which Dwight F. Davis of St. Louis, donor of the international tennis cup, presented his plan of organization.

Mr. Davis said he would offer for intercity contests a trophy similar to the international cup.

Competition in the proposed contests will be restricted exclusively to places in the public parks.

Billiard Contest Results.

Chicago, March 1.—In yesterday's games of the national billiard contest now in progress here, John Layton of Sedalia, Mo., beat Edward R. Ralphs of Highstown, N. Y., 100 to 67; Morris Fink of Philadelphia defeated Joseph Chapman of Chicago, 100 to 65; M. Petrie, Chicago, defeated James Matura, Denver, 100 to 90, and George Clarke, Chicago, defeated Charles Weston, Chicago, 100 to 84.

ELCORAS WIN THREE GAMES

Cigarmakers Chalk Up Clean Sweep in Major League Series.

In the Major Bowling league's games of last evening the Elcoras won three straight games from the Empress five. The Big Duluths won two of their three games from the Winchester and Fitzgeralds, and the Oak Halls won two out of three from the Sharkcrafts.

Murphy of the Big Duluths was high three-game man with a score of 625. The Elcoras hung up the high team score of 2,839.

The score in detail:

Empress.
Hilber	192	172	191	555
Dougherty	179	183	183	545
Weston	147	170	161	478
Jenswold	137	147	173	457
Ptacek	143	144	179	466
Totals	798	816	887	2,501
Elcoras.
Michalek	177	185	172	534
Stauss	233	190	171	594
Kampmann	179	201	209	570
Schultz	199	182	178	559
Deller	209	174	189	572
Totals	988	932	919	2,839
4 Big Duluth.				4
Whitney	150	173	179	511
Berkely	178	200	176	554
Newman	145	200	141	486
Murphy	220	225	180	625
Stiegler	156	192	206	554
Totals	853	989	882	2,729
Fitzgerald-Winchester.
Spear	121	181	166	538
Wade	150	179	179	517
Summers	181	182	173	549
McKenna	180	143	150	473
Meyers	138	164	183	533
Totals	910	849	851	2,610
Oak Hall.
Berini	213	168	189	571
Johnson	169	188	163	531
Brown	174	212	158	544
Root	177	186	129	491
Olsen	194	213	192	599
Totals	928	979	831	2,738
Sharkcrafts.
Foster	180	181	194	555
Toraldson	181	168	204	553
Randall	141	187	176	504
Wendell	174	166	127	467
Otterson	164	206	181	571
Totals	840	898	892	2,630

Track Men Working Hard.

South Bend, Ind., March 1.—Notre Dame track men are working hard for the meet with the University of Wisconsin team to be held here next Saturday night. Coach Rockne informed his men that he looked for as close a contest with Wisconsin as with Michigan. John Miller, broad jumper, and Welsh, quarter-miler, are expected to be released from the hospital today and will rejoin the squad.

BOXFORD
THE NEW STYLE IN
Lion Collars
OLDEST BRAND IN AMERICA
WRITE FOR BOOKLET OF 16 STYLES
UNITED SHIRT & COLLAR CO., TROY, N. Y.

"AEROPLANE" IS DESTROYED

Ore Dock Employes See Toy Balloon Catch Fire and Fall.

Those Who "Heard Motor" Still Stick to Their Belief.

Appropriations for anti-air craft guns, to be used in protecting Duluth and Duluthians from midnight attacks by "hostile" aeroplanes need not be made, for the "mysterious aeroplane" story has been exploded, in part at least.

Watchmen at the Duluth, Missabe & Northern ore docks, at the foot of Thirty-third avenue west, have in their possession charred pieces of a big toy balloon, which caught fire in midair and fell onto the end of the dock last night.

"There's your aeroplane," said Peter Butchart, 2531 West Second street, who is night chief at the dock. "It's some practical joker who is at it again."

Chief Butchart, with Frank Dormedy and Albert Dalduc, also watchmen, have been searching the heavens carefully for signs of aeroplanes since recent reports were spread to the effect that a mysterious biplane was circling over elevators and docks where grain for the allies is stored.

Stories Gain in Retelling.

All Duluth, as well as Superior, was watching for the air prowler last night, for stories of the biplane had gained in repetition until Lakeside citizens had seen three aeroplanes, as well as a toy balloon. Many citizens of both Duluth and Superior claim to have heard the hum of the motors and some insist they were able to make out three persons sitting in the machine.

Mr. Dormedy, in telling of the balloon which was destroyed near the docks, said, according to reports:

"Dalduc and myself have been watching for several nights, ever since the first rumors were spread. Night after night, for more than a week, we have seen the mysterious yellow lights, leaving the earth somewhere on the Wisconsin side, rising gradually and disappearing.

Strange Lights Seen.

"About 10:30 o'clock we saw the lights, and watched them closely. They disappeared to the westward. Soon a second light left the ground at the same point where we noticed the first one rise.

"Instead of bearing to the westward, it seemed to be coming straight across the bay towards us. Something was going wrong. Then a sheet of flame enveloped the machine and it came down. Circling and swooping wildly, it landed not 100 yards from where we stood, right on the end of the dock.

"Scared badly, we rushed out to pick up the maimed and mangled victims, no matter what their nationality might be, and send them to the hospital.

"It was just a large frame, a few fragments of paper and some charred excelsior—a big toy balloon."

Still Others Seen.

West Duluthians say they saw two "aeroplanes" during the evening. One appeared over the power house of the Proctor incline about 8:30 o'clock, and the other was seen near Central avenue an hour later, they said. Each carried a red, green and white light.

Police were besieged with telephone calls from excited citizens, each claiming to have seen the vari-colored lights, or to have heard the motor of an aeroplane.

The toy balloon expose has satisfied many of the frightened or curious ones, but those who claim to have heard the motor still think there is an aeroplane, and that the practical jokers started their work after the first reports of the aeroplane were circulated.

BILLY MISKE GETS DECISION IN DENVER

Denver, Colo., March 1.—Billy Miske of St. Paul was awarded the referee's decision over Dick Gilbert of Denver at the end of fifteen rounds here last night. The men are light-heavyweights.

Columbus, Ohio, March 1.—In the twelve-round bout between Matt Wells, lightweight champion of England, and Johnny Griffiths of Akron, Ohio, here last night, newspaper men gave Griffiths a shade.

St. Joseph, Mo., March 1.—Jack Torres of Albuquerque, N. M., won a decision over Johnny Alberts of New Jersey in their fifteen-round bout here last night. The fight was even until the fifteenth round when Alberts was knocked down. The men are welterweights.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 1.—Milburn Saylor, the lightweight boxer, who has been critically ill with pneumonia at his home here, passed through the crisis of the attack yesterday, and last night was slowly improving. Physicians said the boxer probably will recover.

AUSTRIAN BEATEN.

Falls Before American in International Amateur Billiards.

New York, March 1.—The first international match of the national amateur billiards championship tournament here yesterday resulted last night in the defeat of Jacob Klinger of Austria, who holds the Class B championship of Europe, by Edward Gardner of the Arlon society of New York. The score was 400 to 356.

In the afternoon game Charles Heddon of Dowagiac, Mich., defeated Morris B. Brown of the Hamilton club, Brooklyn, after a tedious contest which lasted thirty-nine innings. The winner's score was 400 to 202 for Brown.

Quits School for Giants.

Hanover, N. H., March 1.—Henry W. Wacker of New York, a member of the sophomore class of Dartmouth college, gave up his studies to join the New York Nationals on their spring training trip. He pitched for the Dartmouth freshmen last season, but was ineligible for the varsity team this year, because of semi-professional baseball, which he played last summer.

VOTERS OF ST. LOUIS APPROVE SEGREGATION

St. Louis, Mo., March 1.—Unofficial returns show that both the proposed segregation ordinances have carried by a majority of 34,344, the vote being 52,220 for segregation and 17,876 against.

The two propositions voted upon were similar in character. One of the ordinances provides that a negro or a white may not become a resident in a block occupied entirely by those of opposite color. The other imposes the same restrictions in blocks containing 75 per cent white, or the like percentage of negro residents.

Every ward in the city except three which are largely populated by negroes voted for the ordinances.

LOOKING BACKWARD 60 YEARS

An Interesting Bit of History Everybody Should Know

One of the interesting places in Lowell, Mass., is the old apothecary shop on Merrimack street, established in 1827. This location is still a drug store, although of course modernized in many departments. The old prescription books, however, have been preserved and form an interesting record covering nearly a century.

The Old Prescription Book

Perhaps one of the most interesting books is that of the year 1855. On one of the pages of this book, that dated June 9th, 1855, is written the original prescription for Father John's Medicine. This prescription was compounded for the Reverend Father John O'Brien at the old drug store on that date, and was so successful in treating Father John's ailment, which was a severe cold and throat trouble, that he recommended the medicine to his friends and parishioners. In going to the drug store and calling for the medicine, they always asked for Father John's Medicine, and in this way the medicine got its name and was advertised.

The Old Apothecary Shop
Established in 1827.

Father John's Medicine is a safe family remedy for colds, coughs, throat troubles, and as a tonic and body builder, because it does not contain opium, morphine, chloroform, and any other poisonous drugs, or alcohol, but is all pure, wholesome nourishing.

D. H., 3-1-16.

BAD TEETH!
We make a specialty of fixing bad teeth. We stop the pain instantly. A good night's rest is worth the moderate charge we make. No matter how bad your teeth are, we can fix them. Come in today for free examination.
THESE PRICES PREVAIL EVERY DAY

Gold Crowns	$3.00	Aluminum Plates	$12.00
Full Set Teeth as low as	$4.00	Gold Fillings	75c up
Bridgework, per tooth	$3.00	Silver Fillings	50c
White Crowns	$3.00	Teeth Cleaned	50c

NEW YORK AND BOSTON DENTAL CO.
Telephone, Melrose 7259. 216 West Superior St., (Opposite Grand Theater.)
Open Daily, 7 to 8 Evenings; Sundays, 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. Lady Attendant.

ASK TO SEE OUR
Special $40 Single Stone Diamond Rings
They are absolutely perfect in quality, color and form, and are mounted in finely wrought Gold and Platinum settings.
Our stock of single stone diamond rings ranges from $25 to $1,000.
The HALLMARK Store
Bagley & Company
Jewelers and Silversmiths
315 WEST SUPERIOR STREET
Established 1885

DESERTER IS REARRESTED

Attorney for Canadian Secures Order Citing Officers for Contempt.

Declares Officials Would Turn Connor Over to Canadian Army.

Mike Connor, deserter from the Canadian army, who was released from the custody of immigration officials on Feb. 14 last under habeas corpus proceedings, has been rearrested by the Federal authorities.

W. W. Barron, Grand Rapids, Connor's attorney, who has appeared for his client in no less than three habeas corpus proceedings, is hot on the trail of the officers.

Last evening Attorney Barron located Judge Fesler, and the latter signed an order requiring the Minneapolis immigration inspectors who arrester Connor yesterday noon at Grand Rapids to appear and produce Mike Connor in his court next Saturday morning and show cause why they should not be punished for contempt of court.

Attorney Barron takes the position that they were in contempt when they rearrested Connor in defiance of the court's order, and that the old warrant was no good.

The immigration authorities are endeavoring to deport Connor to Canada. He is charged with being unlawfully in the United States, having gained admission to the country without first having passed inspection.

Attorney Barron, however, contends that the real aim is to turn Connor over to the Canadian army, from which he deserted.

"SAFETY FIRST" PAYS.

Omaha Railway Handles 5,067,587 Passengers; None Severely Hurt.

Safety first methods on the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railway brought some remarkable results during the year 1915. In handling 5,067,587 passengers there was not a single severe injury, according to the report of the road. The officials highly commend the employes of the system for their co-operation in carrying out the safety first instructions.

During that same period there were twenty-three trespassers killed on the system, which "shows that the Omaha railway lines are safer for riding than walking upon," the report says.

BRITISH VIEW ON ARMED MERCHANTMEN

London, March 1.—On the evo of the date set by Germany for the beginning of her new submarine campaign against armed merchant vessels, Lord Robert Cecil, minister of war and trade, has issued a statement giving the British view of the status of such merchantmen. This statement, in answer to queries whether merchantmen have been instructed to take the offensive against submarines, says:

"The British view has always been that defensively armed merchantmen must not fire on submarines or any other warships, except in self-defense. The Germans have twisted a passage in a document taken from a transport which they sank, into meaning that merchant vessels have instructions to take the offensive. This is not so.

"The passage in question which lays down a maximum distance beyond which merchant ships are advised not to fire, must be read in conjunction with another passage which makes it perfectly clear that merchant vessels must not attack unless a submarine shows unmistakably hostile intentions."

WHY LET YOUR HAIR FALL

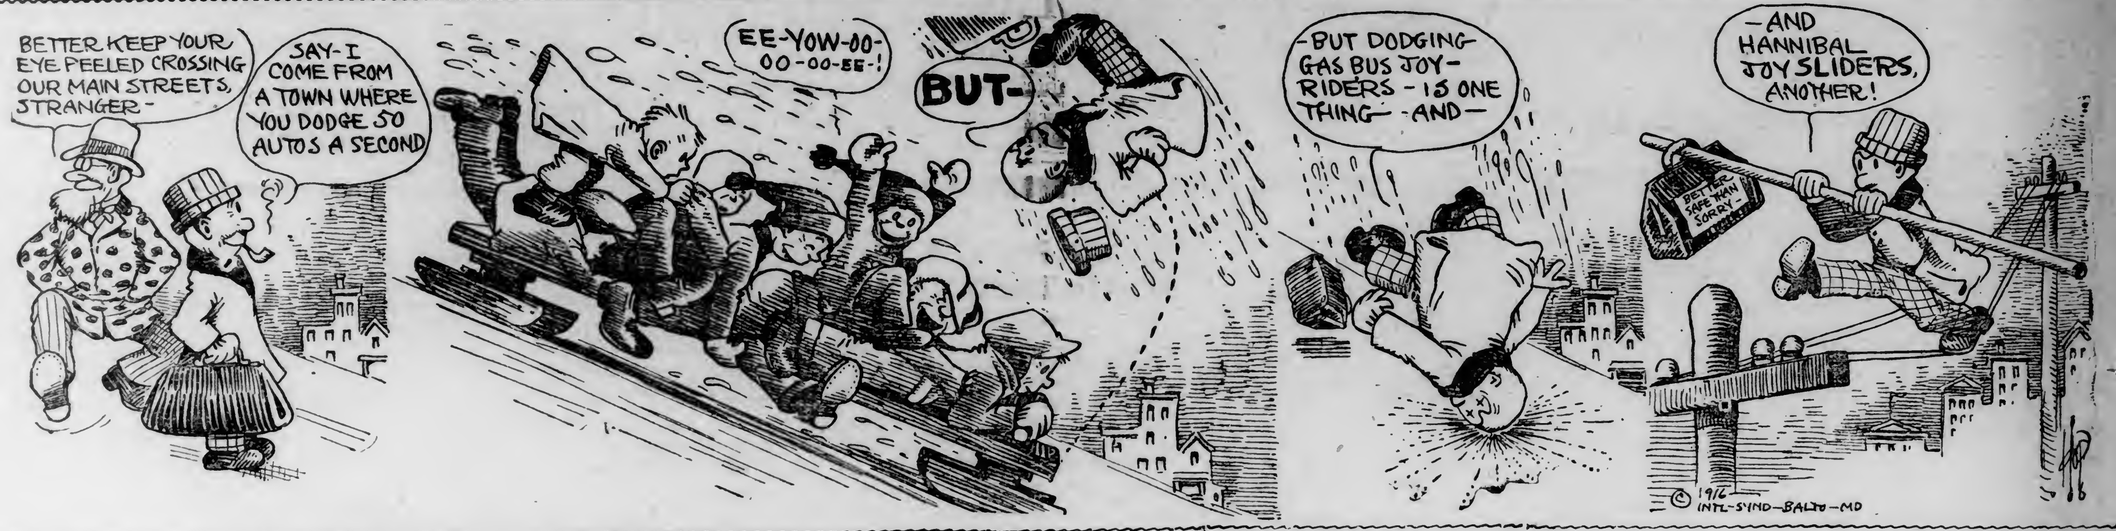
CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT
Will prevent it in most cases by removing dandruff, itching and irritation, the usual cause of dry, thin and falling hair. Nothing better.
Samples Free by Mail
Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free with 32-p. book. Address post-card "Cuticura," Dept. 11G, Boston.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

SCOOP THE CUB REPORTER

Better Safe Than Sorry

By "HOP"



BETTER KEEP YOUR EYE PEELED CROSSING OUR MAIN STREETS, STRANGER -
SAY-I COME FROM A TOWN WHERE YOU DODGE 50 AUTOS A SECOND EE-YOW-OO-OO-OO-EE-!
BUT-
-BUT DODGING GAS BUS JOY-RIDERS - IS ONE THING - - AND -
-AND HANNIBAL JOY SLIDERS, ANOTHER!
BETTER SAFE THAN SORRY
© 1916 INT'L SYND - BALTO - MD

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

MAY LOCATE IT AT FARGO

Reported That City May Be Great Northern Freight Distributing Point.

Plan Would Mean Putting Very Extensive System of Sidings.

Fargo, N. D., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Although it is not possible to secure definite information from Great Northern railroad officials here, the matter being entirely out of their hands, it is reported on good authority that the company will begin the construction of its great freight terminal here in the spring as soon as the weather permits.

The plans of the company are to put in a terminal here which will make Fargo the freight-distributing point for the entire state and which will be the greatest establishment of its kind between the Twin Cities and the Pacific coast.

A large number of long storage and transfer tracks will have to be constructed in the yards and in addition will be built to the present freight house that will double its capacity. There will also be extensive unloading and loading platforms and a number of driveways. These plans are on file here and at the offices of the company in St. Paul.

Had Some Streets Closed.

Some months ago the railroad, through its attorney here, applied for the closing of the stubs of two streets —Eight and one-half and Ninth streets north. The matter was brought before the city commission and after the required length of time the streets have been closed and are now subject to the use of the railroad company any time.

The closing of the streets did not interfere with street traffic in the city at all as the railroad owned all abutting property and the portions of these streets open run for only one block and did not cross the tracks.

COULD NOT PLAY HORN. SO YOUTH RUNS AWAY.

Grand Forks, N. D., March 1.—Harley Anderson, aged 19, son of Charles Anderson, a member of the Fargo police force, was located here after a 24-hour search.

The young man is a member of the Salvation Army and insisted on practicing with his horn at the family residence at 1 o'clock in the morning. When his mother objected he became angry, left home and came to Grand Forks.

Alarmed over his absence, Mrs. Anderson caused a search to be instituted. Mrs. Anderson came here and returned home with the youth.

CIRCULATE PETITIONS.

North Dakota Candidates Are Circulating Their Papers.

Fargo, N. D., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Over all North Dakota candidates for public office are circulating petitions among their friends. This was the first day that petitions could be circulated legally and a number of the county and state officers took advantage and got busy.

The state law provides that petitions must be filed thirty days before the primary election and that no petition can be circulated until ninety days prior to the time of filing. Taking into consideration the Sundays between now and the date of the primary election, it has been held the circulation of petitions could start today, 128 days before the primaries.

MEETING AT HOUGHTON.

Keeewnaw Historical Society to Indulge in Reminiscences.

Houghton, Mich., March 1.—The fourth annual meeting of the Keweenaw Historical society will be held at the Houghton public library the evening of March 8. The following program has been arranged:

"The Story of a Pioneer"—J. W. V. Rawlings, Calumet; reading, "Some Cornish Yarns," Mrs. John Rawden, Lake Linden, from writings of her father, J. W. V. Rawlings; "Early Reminiscences of the Copper Country," Edwin Henwood, Hancock; 'Some of the Developments of Mining in the Copper Country," W. J. Uren, Houghton; Chippewa Indian folk songs, illustrated on the piano, Prof. L. A. Chase. In addition the secretary hopes to have S. L. Smith of Detroit prepare a paper on "An Appreciation of the Calumet & Hecla" Mr. Smith has promised to prepare the paper, but his uncertain health may delay it.

FARMERS' ELEVATOR OWNERS IN SESSION

Grand Forks, N. D., March 1.—Several hundred farmers and elevator men from North and South Dakota and Minnesota arrived here for the annual convention of the North Dakota Farmers Grain Dealers' association, which will continue until Thursday evening.

The first business session was held yesterday afternoon. Co-operative marketing was discussed. The speakers were Charles Eckerle of Chicago, general secretary of the Farmers' Co-operative association, and A. A. Lane of Sherwood, N. D., secretary of the state association.

J. R. Humphrey, expert from the department of agriculture at Washington, D. C., was the chief speaker last evening.

PLANS CREAMERY AT INTERNATIONAL FALLS

International Falls, Minn., March 1.—Local business men are investigating the creamery business with a view to establishing one here as a private enterprise should conditions warrant it. Co-operative creameries seem to be the better things for the farmers, as a rule, but here conditions seem different and a private enterprise may be the solution of how to put the farmers on a monthly payroll, and get our cutover lands making an income.

FAVOR TRADE MARK FOR NORTH DAKOTA

Fargo, N. D., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The manufacturers and produce raisers of the state seem to take very kindly to the proposition of President E. F. Ladd of the agricultural college to have North Dakota adopt a state trade mark that will be placed on all products manufactured or raised within the state that shall have reached a certain standard of purity and quality.

Dr. Ladd has received a number of letters from manufacturers over the state indorsing his plan and expressing a desire to have certain of their products placed under the trade mark, should the bill which is now being compiled by Dr. Ladd pass at the next session of the legislature to which it will be presented.

UNDERSHERIFF ACTS ON DEATH OF CHIEF

Madison, Wis., Feb. 29.—That upon the death of a sheriff the undersheriff becomes sheriff subject to all the liabilities and penalties imposed on the sheriff is the opinion of Attorney General Owen to Charles A. Taylor of Barron county.

The opinion is the aftermath of the killing of Sheriff Matt Olsen, it is alleged, by Wenzel Beranek, a farmer. After his death the deputy sheriff performed the sheriff's duties and the question arose as to whether he is entitled to the sheriff's salary and the attorney general holds that he is.

NORTH DAKOTA BOYS ARE VICTIMS OF WAR

Bottineau, N. D., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Two sons have been given by Donald G. McIntosh, formerly of Bottineau, to the English cause in the great war, according to reports which have been received here from the family.

The boys, both born in Bottineau, and who lived here several years, were killed during the great Champagne offensive of the allies last fall, but the parents were just advised of their death a few days ago.

JUSTICE OF PEACE IS CAUGHT IN DRAGNET

Eau Claire, Wis., March 1.—William P. Elliott, state conservation warden, and C. F. Asmuth, Federal conservation warden, in running down violators of the game laws, are getting close to justice. In fact, in a raid on the village of Ruby, according to a message received here, the officers took in tow no lesser personages than Justice of the Peace W. M. Crawfoot and Constable W. Duke for violating the game laws. The village officials pleaded guilty to transporting partridges and venison, and each paid fines of $60.

SOUTH DAKOTA BID IS LOWEST ON SCHOOL JOB

Enderlin, N. D., March 1.—Bids for the construction of a new high school here were opened by the board of education, the Brokend Construction company of Watertown, S. D., being the low bidder, $19,162.

Other bidders: Harrison Bros., Minneapolis, $27,860; Madison Bros., Elbow Lake, Minn., $21,500; S. W. Johnson, Watertown, S. D., $19,625; Brokend Construction company, Watertown, S. D., $17,998; Wernke Construction company, Fargo, N. D., $28,390.

KOOCHICHING MEN GIVEN SENTENCES

International Falls, Minn., March 1.—Seven men were indicted by the grand jury on charges of selling liquor without a license. Three pleaded guilty, two were found guilty and two were found not guilty. Those who plead guilty were: John Larson and Roy Wilson, who were accused of selling liquor at Puposky, and Frank Gagnon. Lars Lind and Robert McCall were found not guilty.

Two Federal officers secured the evidence against the men for County Attorney Torrance who presented the matter to the grand jury.

Judge Stanton after sentencing the men stated that the sale of liquor must be curbed and that he believed that men convicted of the charge should be severely dealt with.

MRS. MAY'S LETTER to WOMEN

More Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Relieves Suffering.

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered from a bad case of female ills. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and I took about six bottles. It fixed me up all right. The common symptoms of such a condition—pain when walking, irritation, bearing down pains and backache, nervousness and disordered digestion—soon passed away. I look much better now than I did before, and I recommend the Compound every time for female troubles, as it did for me all it is claimed to do. You have my permission to publish this letter." Mrs. J. MAY, 3548 S. Lincoln St., Chicago, Ill.

If you have any of the symptoms mentioned in Mrs. May's letter, remember what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for her, and try it yourself. It is a good old-fashioned medicine, made from roots and herbs, and it has helped countless numbers of women.

If you need special advice, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

IT DROVE GOLDEN SPIKE.

Hammer Used in Historic Event Given to State Historical Society.

St. Paul, Minn., March 1.—The historic hammer used in driving the last a golden spike connecting the eastern and western sections of the Northern Pacific railway at Gold Creek, two and one-half miles west of Garrison, Mont., Sept. 8, 1883, was presented Monday night to the Minnesota State Historical society by William E. Mowrey, a St. Paul assayer and refiner.

A distinguished group of prominent men including Gen. U. S. Grant, Secretary Henry Teller, the British and German ambassadors and William M. Evarts, orator of the day, witnessed the ceremony. An excursion train of four sections, known as the Villard special, was run from St. Paul to Garrison.

The hammer, which is made of steel and decorated with gold monograms, has an ebony handle with gold trimmings. It was used by Henry Villard, former president of the Northern Pacific, and Henry C. Davis, who drove the first spike at Northern Pacific junction now Carlton, Minn.

ELECTRICALLY WIRED.

Ashland Public Building to Be Fixed for Electricity.

Ashland, Wis., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Piepkorn-Hening company of Milwaukee has been awarded the contract to install in the government building here electric light fixtures. The building, built of native brownstone in 1891, is a beautiful structure, but is only equipped with what inspectors have heretofore recommended against electrifying the building on account of the expense, which will be about $3,000, but the work was recently ordered and the Milwaukee contractors will have eighty days from March 8 in which to finish the job.

ONLY TWO CANDIDATES.

Bismarck, N. D., March 1.—The time for filing presidential primary petitions expired yesterday with only two Republican candidates in the field—Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin, and Henry D. Estabrook of New York.

President Wilson has a clear field for the Democratic delegation from this state. Presidential primaries will be held March 31.

Tame Fargo Election.

Fargo, N. D., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The city elections here this year will be rather tame as there will be only one official to elect, a member of the park board whose term of office expired. The election will be held on March 21. The member of the park board whose term of office expires this year is C. B. Waldron, dean of the agricultural department of the agricultural college, and it is believed that he will be the only candidate for the office.

Clay County Dry Meeting.

Moorhead, Minn., March 1.—The No License and Law Enforcement league will hold a big session here next Tuesday. A banquet will be served and about 100 members are expected to attend. The gathering is being held for a review of the work done in Clay county since the adoption of county option.

Buy Lucca, N. D., Bank.

Enderlin, N. D., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Citizens' State bank here has purchased a controlling interest in the First State Bank of Lucca, and will conduct the institution with the following: President, Harold Thorson; vice president, J. M. Thorson; cashier, T. D. Thomas.

Max Grain Shipments.

Max, N. D., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The grain blockade here continues, with the grain being marketed so rapidly that the elevators have not been able to ship it out fast enough to keep their bins clear for the reception of grain. Early estimates placed the amount of grain that would be marketed in Max at about 1,000,000 bushels, but present indications are that the total will be about 1,500,000 bushels.

Dickinson's Population.

Dickinson, N. D., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Dickinson continues to show a very satisfactory growth, the report of the Keiter Directory company, which has just completed the publication of the city directory, showing a total of 5,766 people in Dickinson.

Oil Inspection Law Upheld.

St. Paul, Minn., March 1.—Minnesota's oil inspection law was upheld Tuesday by District Judge J. C. Michael of St. Paul, in the suit of the state against the Pure Oil company to force payment of fees to $9,191.20 for gasoline inspection. Judge Michael held that the inspection is an exercise of police power by the state and not taxation.

Plan Insurance Federation.

Fargo, N. D., Feb. 29.—(Special to The Herald.)—At a meeting which is to be held here on March 13, and which will be attended by insurance men representing all departments of the underwriting business, an insurance federation will be formed which will be known as the Insurance Federation of North Dakota.

To Arrange for Fargo Fair.

Fargo, N. D., Feb. 29.—(Special to The Herald.)—The directors of the North Dakota state fair association will hold a meeting here on Thursday for the purpose of making arrangements for the state fair, which will be held in Fargo this year on July 17 to 22, inclusive. This meeting will be for the express purpose of arranging for the racing and attraction features of the fair.

Gets Long Sentence.

Bozeman, Mont., March 1.—Not less than forty years nor more than fifty years in the state penitentiary was the sentence pronounced by Judge B. R. Law against Joe Reiser, convicted of killing his friend, Joe Fink, in an isolated cabin near here and was captured at Dickinson, N. D.

Special Jury Called.

Fargo, N. D., Feb. 29.—(Special to The Herald.)—Judge Charles A. Pollock has issued an order calling a special jury for the district court for March 14. There are a number of cases on the calendar, both criminal and civil, that must be disposed of and it was decided by the court to call a special term to take up this accumulation of business.

Farmer's Slayer Sentenced.

New Rockford, N. D., March 1.—Nicholas Chernos was sentenced to twenty-five years in prison for the murder of George Rittle, a farmer residing near here. Chernos was convicted of second degree murder. Rittle was shot down without warning. The prosecution attempted to establish family troubles as the motive. The defense pleaded insanity.

PENINSULA BRIEFS

Marquette—For the second time within three months the lumber department of the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company has announced an increase in wages. The increase effective March 1, provides for a schedule of $1.30 per cord for cutting cordwood and wages as follows: Teamsters, $2; car loaders, $1.80; swampers and common labor, $1.70.

Ishpeming — The interior of the home of Ole Brecken, Dawson street, was destroyed by fire Sunday evening. The fire started in the basement about 9 o'clock, but the origin is not known.

Marquette—More than $2,500 in bounties for the killing of wolves, wildcats and lynx was paid to hunters and trappers in Marquette county during the last nine months, according to a report of the county treasurer.

Houghton—Judge O'Brien sentenced Henry J. Weis, convicted by a jury in circuit court of conspiracy to loot a car of whisky, to serve from six months to two years. Louis Kannianen, the 70-year-old farmer, who was convicted of criminal rape, was sentenced to from seven to fourteen years in a Marquette prison.

Gladstone—The Wisconsin Land & Lumber company has presented to the Gladstone fire company a check for $150 to be divided among members of the company as a reward for efficient work in checking the lumber blaze at the company's plant at Hermansville, Feb. 14.

Hancock—Emil Reiniki, trammer boss at the Quincy mine, was killed in No. 8 shaft when he was struck by a descending skip. Reiniki was at the forty-third level when the accident occurred. It is said that the man failed to notify the men under him to watch the skip.

Houghton—According to the weather bureau office Sunday night was the coldest for the present winter, with one exception, the night of Feb. 2, which was exactly equal to Sunday night. Both evenings had a temperature of 10 degs. below zero.

Calumet—Mrs. William Sincock, a native of Cornwall, Eng., died Feb. 28 at the family residence, 528 Third street, at the age of 59 years. Besides her husband these children survive: Mrs. Thomas Richards of Houghton, Mrs. Charles E. Rowe of Hubbell, Mrs. Martin Hailer of Lake Linden, Mrs. John McDonald of Hancock, Miss Ruth and William R. of Calumet, also two brothers and three sisters.

Baraga—The village caucus nominated the following candidates: President, Charles Kelsey; clerk, Peter Sands; treasurer, T. Bellanger; assessor, Euclid Le Duc; for trustees, two year term, H. Johnson, Charles Jacobson, and Dr. Howard Sharpp.

Eat Like a Boy

Let Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Assist Your Stomach Whenever It Needs Help. They Are Safe and Sure.

A TRIAL PACKAGE FREE TO ALL.

If you really want your old-time boy appetite to return to you once more, form the practice of eating a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet after each meal. Results will astound you.

"Good Old Mince Pie Like Mother Made."

The reason a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet is powerful enough to digest your next meal is because it is composed of those things which a weakened digestive system lacks.

If all the stomach sufferers who have been relieved of their misery by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets could be gathered together into one column, they would make a tremendous and happy army. Join this army now by getting a 50c box from any druggist or by sending below coupon.

Free Trial Coupon

F. A. Stuart Co., 204 Stuart Building., Marshall, Mich., send me at once a free trial package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Name .....

Street .....

City..... State.....

DAKOTA BRIEFS

Dickinson, N. D.—Dickinson will promote its campaign for the establishment of a new state normal school in this city most actively, the organization of the Dickinson Normal club being perfected for the purpose of conducting the campaign.

Fessenden, N. D.—T. O. Roble, a member of the last legislature, is a candidate for the state senatorship from this district, having made formal announcement of his entrance to the race. Mr. Roble would succeed Aloy Wartner of Harvey, present state senator from this district.

Milnor, N. D.—Plans for the organization of an independent stock shipping association, backed by the farmers of this section, will be completed at a meeting held here next Saturday. The movement is in line with the plan advocated by the American Society of Equity for co-operation in the shipment of the state's stock.

Fargo, N. D.—The estate of Mrs. Elizabeth Burns, who died recently, was placed in probate when the widowed husband, W. A. Burns, was appointed administrator. The estate, comprising about $8,000 worth of city property in Grand Forks, is divided between the two minor children, Doris, Earl and Lilah Pearl. F. W. Thomas is guardian of the minor children.

Jamestown, N. D.—The most spectacular fire that has occurred in Jamestown for many years destroyed the Midland hotel. The building was reduced to ashes, not a wall remaining standing from the fierce conflagration. Loss is estimated at over $5,000, partly covered by insurance. The cause of the fire is not known.

Bisarck, N. D.—There has been a rumor about the capital city for several days to the effect that C. S. Young of the law firm of Newton, Dullam & Young of this city would become a candidate for the supreme bench, but Mr. Young denied it.

Valley City, N. D.—The Equity society committee seeking a location for the packing plant will be here Thursday. A committee composed of some fourteen or fifteen of Valley City's leading farmers and business men will await their arrival and point out what this place affords.

WISCONSIN BRIEFS

Fond du Lac—A bucket brigade saved the village of Eden from destruction on Monday when fire laid the Salter hotel in ruins. The loss is estimated at $11,000.

Neenah—Direct charges, signed by every member of the police and fire commission, have been filed against Chief of Police James Brown of this city.

Green Bay—Margaret O'Brien, 26 years old, died as a result of burns she received in a Christmas tree accident at St. Mary's hospital on Dec. 24 last. Miss O'Brien, who was a graduate nurse, was playing Santa Claus for children at St. Mary's hospital when her clothing caught fire.

Madison—Former Governor F. E. McGovern of Milwaukee has filed a statement in the office of the secretary of state declaring that he had spent $6.21 for campaign purposes since he became a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor at the primary election next September.

Oconomowoc—The body of William May, 50 years old, single, a laborer, was found hanging in a shed on Silver Lake street Monday morning. No cause for suicide is known.

Madison—City Clerk W. L. Kerr of Green Bay has filed an application in the office of the secretary of state for a patent for the city of Green Bay to enable it to operate under the commission form of government. The city clerk said it was desired that the patent be sent to Green Bay as early as possible.

New Richmond—The residence of the Rev. O. F. Davis was broken into and silver and furs amounting to $800 were stolen. Only solid silver and the most valuable goods were taken. It is thought to be the work of professionals who headed straight for the Twin Cities.

Milwaukee—Headquarters have been opened in the Hotel Pfister for the campaign that will be started on March 13 to raise $50,000 for Marquette university.

Chippewa Falls—Hyacinth Garceau, one of Chippewa's pioneers, died at his home here Sunday evening. Mr. Garceau had been an invalid for several years. He was born at Three Rivers, Quebec, sixty-six years ago, and came to this city forty years ago. Surviving are his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Peter Pevan of Cadott and Miss Eva Garceau of this city.

MINNESOTA BRIEFS

Grand Marais—The Cooperage company has opened their camp at the 7 mile post on the Gunflint road, and is cutting pine bolts for staves and headings and will start up the stave saw March 10.

Crookston—Members of Crookston council No. 88, United Commercial Travelers, will hold their annual meeting and election of officers next Saturday night, March 4. A banquet will be served at the close of the evening.

Little Falls—Luka Majkece of Deerwood was brought here by Deputy A. J. Carson of the Indian service and was arraigned before Court Commissioner D. M. Cameron charged with introducing liquor into the Indian lid country. He waived examination and was bound over to the Federal grand jury at Duluth.

Baudette—A poultry association has been formed by the farmers near Baudette and Spooner. Dr. Osborne of Baudette has been chosen president. It is planned to give a show this summer.

Crookston—The Scandinavian M. E. church, South Ash street, was filled to capacity Monday with members of the congregation and friends who attended the funeral services over the remains of Rev. O. H. Wilson, pastor of that church, who passed away suddenly Saturday morning. The remains were shipped to St. Paul, where burial services were held Tuesday conducted from the First Scandinavian M. E. church of that city, of which Rev. L. J. Trelstad is pastor. Interment was made in a St. Paul cemetery.

Brainerd—Mrs. Ray Hall, aged 25, formerly Miss Myrtle Barker, died Saturday night after a short illness at a local hospital and was buried Tuesday. She was born in Le Sueur, Minn. She leaves a mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Barker; four sisters, Mrs. William Rogers and Mrs. Nellie Kane of Virginia, Mrs. Herman Hovelson of Cyphers and Miss Ruby Barker of Brainerd; three brothers, William Barker of Federal Dam; K. A. Barker of Walker, and J. G. Barker of Brainerd.

Bemidji—The first hearing on the establishment of Judicial Ditch No. 40 will be held at the courthouse Wednesday. Ditch No. 40 is proposed in township 156, range 37.

Stillwater—Sylvester Burrows, aged 81 years, died Feb. 27 at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. James Lynch in Oak Park. He is survived by three sons, Albert of White Bear, Andrew of St. Paul and Michael of Potlach, Idaho, and two daughters, Mrs. Jerry Donalds of Turtle Lake, Wis., and Mrs. James Lynch of Oak Park. The wife died about twenty-three years ago. Mr. Burrows also leaves a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

St. Cloud—Judge Hubert Hansen of this city has received a letter from the department of law of Creighton university written by the dean of the university, paying a fitting tribute to John Hansen, the young man of this city, whose untimely death was recorded.

Moorhead—Harry A. Leek, owner of the Lyceum theater, closed a deal for the sale of his theater. E. G. Brown and J. J. Isaacs of Grand Forks were the purchasers.

Mankato—The funeral of Mrs. James P. Hayes was held at St. Peter and St. Paul's church Feb. 28. Rev. Father Hartman, the pastor, conducting the services. The remains were laid at rest in Calvary cemetery. Relatives from out of the city in attendance at the funeral were D. P. Hayes, Butte, Mont.; Mr. and Mrs. James Pacha, Cloquet, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. James Hayes, Ottawa, Minn., and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hayes, Worthington, Minn.

St. Cloud—Mrs. F. H. Whitney and Mrs. H. Z. Mitchell will entertain Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Whitney for Mrs. Frederick Herbert of Monte Clair, N. J., Mrs. O. A. Poirier of Virginia, and Mrs. Arthur B. Anderson of St. Paul.

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

Hurry, Mother! Remove Poisons From Little Stomach, Liver, Bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" If Cross, Bilious or Feverish.

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs;" then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Advertisement.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

BANK CLEARINGS FOR FEBRUARY ONE-THIRD GREATER THAN IN 1915

That trade is exceptionally active for the season in Duluth and district is shown in an increase of $4,315,280.29 in clearings of the four local national banks for the month of February. The total was reported by L. S. Moore, manager of the clearing house association, at $18,204,-168.05, as compared with $13,888,887.76 in the corresponding month last year.

The year's record has thus far been gratifying, clearings for January amounting to $24,184,325.38, an increase of $7,497,771.67, or 45 per cent.

Bank officials aver that the high clearings records of the last two months were attributable to betterment in general business lines, as the volume of grain handled has been comparatively moderate on account of the congestion at the Atlantic seaports.

REMEMBERING NAMES MEANS MONEY

SAYS SPEAKER—

ASSOCIATION DECLARED TO BE HELPFUL

Do you want to possess the faculty of remembering names?

It is easy and simple, if you follow the rules set down by Dr. Paul von de Schoeppe in a talk on "How to Remember Names" at the Y. M. C. A. last evening.

A good memory, according to the speaker, is the most important requisite and that can be greatly improved by constantly analyzing names and connecting relations already existing between them.

Are you one of those who "remembers faces, but it is just impossible for me to remember a name?" Suppose you heard the names of Mayor Prince and Commissioner Silberstein, how would you remember them? Here is how Dr. von de Schoeppe does it:

"Prince means a ruler or the head of a people. Our mayor is a 'prince' of all the people of Duluth.

"Take 'Silber' from the name Silberstein, and you will find that it means 'a silver stone, a precious metal.' If you have met the commissioner, you will note that his hair is also 'silver.' So there you have 'silver stone,' 'silver headed,' 'precious metal,' all to associate in remembering the name of Commissioner Silberstein."

Dr. von de Schoeppe then gave the names of the governors of the forty-eight states and four American possessions, showing how he remembers them.

"Take for example Gov. Roland H. Spalding of New Hampshire and Gov. James S. Fielder of New Jersey. We all know of A. G. Spalding & Co., the sporting goods house, and the fact that a 'fielder' is a member of a baseball team. It is then easy to associate the two by remembering that 'Spalding' sells baseball goods to the 'Fielder.'

"Another interesting comparison is that of the names of Gov. George W. P. Hunt of Arizona and Gov. G. W. Hayes of Arkansas. Both men have the very same initials, 'G. W. H.,' easy to remember by merely associating the two names."

CENTRAL HONOR ROLL FALLS OFF

Better Showing in Scholarship Is Expected Next Month.

The honor roll for the first month of the second semester at Central high school was announced yesterday by Principal Young. Contrary to expectations it was found that a slight falling off in the total numbers had taken place, there being but 113 students on both the "A" and "B" lists. The average as a general rule is somewhat higher than this, and the results show that the students have not been doing as good work as usual. They have become well settled following changes incidental to the beginning of the new semester, however, and it is expected that there will be a decided increase next month.

The "A" list constitutes students who have gained marks of 90 or above in at least four studies, while the "B" division is made up of pupils who received marks of 90 or above in at least three studies. The seniors have the largest number of the "A" list, while the freshmen have the largest representation on the "B" roll. The honor rolls follow:

The "A" list: Seniors—Edna Appleby, Ruth Freimuth, Esther Fugelso, Inez Haugsrud, Violetta Heitch, Vernon Hutchinson, Ruth Lindstrom, Ruth Maney, Helen Lofroth, Florence Ross, Grace Russell, Lester Steurwald and Agnes Wold. Juniors—Evelyn Ahlen, Marie Gleason, Roswell King, Lena Lelbovitz, Bessie Levine, Sadie Levine, Cecil Rigstad and Sara Weinberg. Sophomores—Ruby Britts, Myrna Ebert, Dorothy Larsen, Dahlia Nelson, Harvey Owen, Frederica Schafer, Elsie Schramm, Helena Silberstein and Elsa Zachow. Freshmen—Verna Appleby, Hastings Barber, Lucy Hostettler, John Hoxie, Dorothy Kearns, Milton Mead, Hickman Powell, Richard Sellwood, Marion Thompson and Lena Winer.

The "B" list: Seniors—Irving Auld, Gladys Annand, Milton Anderson, Marjorie De Forest, Edward Emerson, Marguerite Gibson, Edna Jenks, Muriel Nelson, John Pedrizetti, Pauline Ramgeyer, Frederica Tuteur and Willard Thorp. Juniors—Monick Altman, Clara Arlo, Elsie Arlo, Einer Brander, Helmie Christopher, Geneva Chubbuck, Emanuel Cook, Edna Johnson, Marjorie Hill, Vivien Hambley, Gustave Molsan, Florence Olsen, La Verne Peterson, Jack Rideout, Lawrence Shearsmith, Mildred Ahl, Ethel Ackeman and Norah Anderson. Sophomores—Helen Budzynski, William Burns, Edward Evans, Charles Hathaway, Hildun Johnson, Eleanor Keyes, Raymond Larson, Catherine Matter, Sylvester Meyers, Mildred Norman, Mabel Olson, Nona Rich, Violet Smith, Maxine Spengler, Benton Stearns, Ruby Stearns, Veva Wahl, Lucile Wannebo and Faith Weiss. Freshmen—Nora Anderson, Clara Baldwin, Edith Berry, Gladys Britzius, Fred Champion, Dorothy Collins, Mildred Dahl, George Hittler, Martha Nislus, Grace O'Brien, Victor Patshkowski, Otto Person, Doris Pennel, Fred Randall, Ruth Smith, Alice Soady, Stephens Grant, Gilbert Stevenson, Sylvia Talbnen, Alice Thompson, Estella Thompson and Esther Votruba.

ARE APPREHENSIVE AT DYNAMITE PLANT

Some Men Reported to Have Quit for Fear of Being Killed.

Ashland, Wis., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—All is quiet today at the dynamite plant near here. It is reported that twenty-five men refused to go to work today and will not go back for a week or during the period covered by anonymous letters which say the plant will be blown up during the first week of March. The officials of the plant are alert but say nothing. There is no disguising the fact that there is considerable anxiety and apprehension.

GOOD DIVIDENDS FOR DULUTHIANS

About $100,000 Distributed By U. S. Steel Corporation Here.

It is estimated that more than $100,000 was distributed by the United States Steel corporation yesterday to approximately 500 investors in its preferred stock in Duluth and vicinity.

The receipt of these dividend checks at this time was gratifying to the many local investors in the corporation's stocks. The average dividend check issued in Duluth and district is placed at $200, but in some cases the amounts ran up into large figures. The largest check in the list is said to have been received by A. D. Thomson of the Duluth board of trade. He is a heavy holder of both the common and preferred stocks.

The dividend paid yesterday on the preferred stock was 1¾ per cent, or at the rate of 7 per cent per annum. The quarterly dividend at the rate of 5 per cent on the Steel corporation's common stock will be paid on March 30. It will be especially acceptable to stockholders in view of the fact that dividends on that issue were suspended after the outbreak of the war in August, 1914.

Large numbers of employes hold large blocks of the Steel corporation's stocks accumulated under its profit-sharing plan. With a view to encouraging saving they are enabled to pay for it on the installment plan.

SACRIFICED $27,000 FOR $50 IN CASH

There are four young men in "The Bird of Paradise" company who "made a record" four years ago and lost $27,000 by doing it.

When the first "Bird of Paradise" company went out on the road, the five Hawaiian singers received an offer from one of the phonograph companies to make a record of the popular Hawaiian melodies they sing in the production. The offer included a royalty of 2½ cents on every record sold by the company. The manager of the company conducted the negotiations for the singers and felt he had made a good bargain for them.

Later one of the quintet, who has since left the company, balked and insisted on a cash payment, instead of the royalty plan. It was then agreed that the five men would receive $50, which was duly paid. Each of the five received $10 for his work.

The record was made and proved so popular that the royalties under the original plan would have amounted to $27,000 by this time. The four singers who are still with the company don't like to talk about it.

MARCH ENTERS LIKE RATHER TAME LION

The entry of March could not be called lamblike, nor yet is the lion very much in evidence.

Weather Forecaster Richardson says that perhaps the weather today is neutral, with a tendency toward the leonine.

Mr. Richardson expects only a fresh wind from the northeast with snow flurries all day. There is a good deal of stormy weather west and south of here, but he does not expect Duluth to get much, if any, of it.

"The feature of the weather here," said Mr. Richardson this morning, "is likely to be the temperatures which are to be very low for this time of year. This morning at 7 o'clock the temperature was 2 deg. below zero, but other parts got it worse, and the zero weather extended as far south as North Central Nebraska. In South Dakota it ranged from 5 to 10 deg. below and in North Dakota from 15 to 25 deg. below. It was 30 or more deg. below zero in Saskatchewan and Manitoba."

Optimists who believe in the old superstition may therefore hope to see March "go out like a lamb."

SALOON FIXTURES MAY FURNISH HEAT

If Sheriff Gets No Bid, Is Ordered to Burn Them.

Bemidji, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The bar fixtures of the John Larson place at Puposky, which were recently seized by two Beltrami county sheriffs, and brought here when Larson was charged with selling liquor without a license, have been ordered sold by Judge C. W. Stanton. Larson was convicted at the term of court that has just been completed and is now serving a sentence in the Beltrami county jail. Should Sheriff Andrew Johnson receive no bids for the fixtures the judge has ordered that the fixtures be used for fuel to heat the courthouse and jail. The liquor confiscated by the sheriffs has also been ordered destroyed.

SCOTTISH RITERS TO GATHER AT FARGO

Fargo, N. D., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—A reunion of the Scottish Rite bodies will be held here at the Masonic temple on March 7 to 10, inclusive, and extensive arrangements are being made. There are usually four reunions each year and this will be the first of 1916 and it is expected that there will be a large attendance by Scottish Rite Masons from all over the state.

One of the features of the reunion will be that members who joined from July 1, 1905, to June 30, 1907, will be special guests of honor at the celebration. As usual a big banquet and excellent music will be features of the reunion.

WHOLESALERS AND MANUFACTURERS of DULUTH

MADE IN DULUTH S&J
SMITH & JOHNSON
28 and 30 East Superior St.
MANUFACTURERS AND JOBBERS
MEN'S, BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S HEADWEAR

DULUTH PAPER AND STATIONERY CO.
(WHOLESALE)
Paper, Stationery, Office and School Supplies, Notions, Building Paper, Roofing and Wall-board.
Catalog Sent on Request
18 and 20 WEST MICHIGAN ST.
Both phones 74. DULUTH, MINN.

EAT Luxury Bread Famous for Its Flavor
BAKED BY CRESCENT BAKERY
118 and 120 East First St.
Mail Orders Given Prompt Attention.

THE ZENITH LINE
Marshall-Wells are carrying the name of the Zenith City and the fame of Zenith Top-of-the-world from the Iowa Line to the Arctic Circle,—from Southern California to Alaska and the Hawaiian Islands.
HARDWARE

Send Your Orders for Paper Towels & Toilet Paper
—to—
Martin F. Falk Paper Co.
Duluth, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Superior

Zenith phone Grand 1723-D.
23 Years' Business in Duluth.
ZENITH Artificial Limb Co
Inventor and manufacturer of the Factis Cushion Socket Limbs With Ball Bearing Knee Joints, Trusses and Shoulder Braces, Elastic Hosiery.
30 Lake Avenue North, Duluth, Minn.

BJORLIN'S BAKERY
THE HOME OF Mama Bread
The Bread that is always the same, the standard of excellence, crisp and tender, enclosed in a waxed sanitary wrapper, made under my personal supervision. Delivered everywhere. 2205 WEST FIRST STREET.

DULUTH UNIVERSAL MILLING CO.
GUARANTEED PURE SPRING WHEAT FLOUR
DULUTH UNIVERSAL
The Great Bread Maker

MARIUS HENRICKSEN MANUFACTURING CO.
WHOLESALE
Manufacturing Jewelers
MAKERS OF GOLD RINGS
Distributers of Quality Goods.
103 Sherman Building, Duluth.

KELLEY-HOW-THOMSON Co
HARDWARE TOOLS PAINT CUTLERY.
KELLEY-HOW-THOMSON
HOME OF THE HICKORY BRAND HARDWARE.

PAINE & NIXON CO.
—JOBBERS—
PAINTS, VARNISHES, BRUSHES —GLASS—
PLATE, WINDOW, MIRRORS
310 and 312 WEST MICHIGAN ST.
LONG DISTANCE PHONES
Grand 802. Melrose 2166, 2167.

Northwestern Oil Company
NOCO
"Where Rail and Water Meet"

Northwestern Iron & Metal Co.
We handle a full line of
BURLAP BAGS
For all purposes; also in the market for Scrap Iron and Metals
Office and Warehouse
376 South First Avenue East.

HOME OF THE
Cornplanter Lubricating & Oil Co

USE UNION MATCH CO.'S MATCHES.
A DULUTH PRODUCT.

BRIDGEMAN-RUSSELL COMPANY
B. Primus INSURES QUALITY
Wholesale Dairy Products
DULUTH, MINN.

WENDLANDT BROS. & CO.,
—Blank Book Mfgs., Paper, Rulers.

TWOHY-EIMON MERCANTILE CO.

F. A. PATRICK & CO.
Wholesale Dry Goods and Manufacturers.
Makers of the famous Patrick-Duluth Northern Wool Products.

LUMBER
LATH, SHINGLES and COAL
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL
Long Fir and Oak Timber
Interior Finish of All Kinds—Send your plans to us for figures.
DULUTH LUMBER CO.
Both Phones 112 364 Garfield Ave.

Home of the
DULUTH PLUMBING SUPPLIES.

DULUTH BOILER WORKS
BOILER MAKERS and MACHINISTS
BEST EQUIPPED OXY-ACTY WELDING AND CUTTING PLANT IN DULUTH
PORTABLE PLANT FOR OUTSIDE WORK
NIGHT AND SUNDAY WORK A SPECIALTY

NEW HOME
JOHN WAHL CANDY CO.
2606 to 2612 WEST MICHIGAN STREET

Diamond Calk Horseshoe Co.
4630 Grand Ave. West, Duluth, Minn

GLOBE IRON WORKS
MACHINISTS, FOUNDRYMEN, BLACKSMITHS
Brass, Steel, Gray Iron Castings and all kinds of Forgings. Automobile parts made on short notice, thus avoiding trouble of sending to factory. Special attention given job and repair work of all kinds.
All Workmanship Guaranteed.
435 LAKE AVENUE SOUTH, DULUTH, MINN.

Home of the
DULUTH IMPERIAL FLOUR
DULUTH-SUPERIOR MILLING CO.

MARINE IRON & SHIPBUILDING WORKS
Marine Supplies of All Kinds.

Home of the
NATIONAL IRON CO.

DE WITT-SEITZ CO.
MANUFACTURERS OF THE SANOMADE MATTRESS AND WHOLESALE FURNITURE.

NORTHERN SHOE COMPANY
Home of the Gitche Gamee Shoes

HOME OF THE Zenith Furnace Co.
Duluth, Minn.

ZENITH BROOM FACTORY
MANUFACTURER OF ALL KINDS OF BROOMS and WHISKS
CURLING BROOMS A SPECIALTY
WM. F. SCHNUCKLE, Prop.
212 GILBERT STREET.
Phones: Zenith 455-X; Mel., 3213.

CUTLER-MAGNER CO.
Wholesale
Salt, Lime, Plaster and Cement

Home of the Elcora Cigar

Hardware Storekeepers,
PURCHASERS OF MINE AND MILL SUPPLIES.
It will be to our mutual advantage if you will communicate with us.
NATIONAL HARDWARE & SUPPLY COMPANY
Wholesale Heavy Hardware, Mine and Mill Supplies.
DULUTH, MINN.

HOME OF FITGER'S BEER

HOME OF
REX BOTTLED BEER
DULUTH BREWING & MALTING CO.

SNO WHITE BAKING POWDER
Made in Duluth.
ASK YOUR GROCER FOR IT.
One trial and you will want no other kind.
SNO WHITE BAKING POWDER CO.
18th Ave. W. and Superior St.

KlearflaX LINEN RUGS
Made From American Grown Flax by WESTERN RUG COMPANY
DULUTH, MINN.

MERCHANTS MERCANTILE CO.
Manufacturers and Jobbers of
PEARL BAKING POWDER
Sutton's Flavoring Extracts
Commercial Club Maple Syrup
106 West First Street, Duluth.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

JANITOR ON HONOR ROLL

Gives $100 to Fund Being Raised for St. Mary's Hospital.

Total Has Passed $20,000 Mark; Only Three Days More.

Patrick Kehoe, janitor of St. Mary's hospital, is a hero today among the campaign workers raising the $50,000 fund for the hospital.

When the $109 contributions were announced by the team captains at the Spalding this noon, Patrick Kehoe's name was announced with enthusiasm, and the 300 campaign workers cheered lustily for the janitor at St. Mary's. Many other $100 contributions were received today, but none brought the satisfaction that this one did.

The total amount of money contributed today was $3,145.67, which brings the total up to $20,023.97. It is expected that more than half of the $50,000 will be reached by tomorrow noon. The team led by Mrs. J. Murphy led the women's teams today with $203.15, while G. W. Atmore's team led the men's teams with $250. Following are the persons who contributed $100 or more today:

John G. Williams	$250
Pittsburgh Coal company	100
Ely-Salyards company	100
Cuyuna Central Iron company	100
Mac Warde	100
F. S. Kelly	100
G. A. Tomlinson	100
Dr. John H. Winter	100
Patrick Kehoe	100
Patrick McDonnell	100
Francis W. Sullivan	100

OPTION BREWING IN THIS COUNTY

W. E. Johnson of Westerville, Ohio, who is more widely known to many in this section of the country as "Pussyfoot" Johnson, declared today at the Spadding that prohibition forces are lining up for a county option campaign in St. Louis county.

"Just when this campaign is to start, I can't say," said Mr. Johnson. "They are working on a dry campaign at the present time, but whether it is to come in the very near future, I do not know. I am not here in connection with this, though, as I am carrying on a dry campaign in South Dakota. I expected to leave last evening, but was delayed. I am going to Mitchell, and from there may go to Michigan. One of my men is working at Lansing at the present time."

Mr. Johnson stated that Dan Morgan Smith, a close personal friend of his and a very well known worker in the prohibition cause, was working in Superior.

"I have been closely associated with Mr. Smith," said Mr. Johnson, "and know that he is a very able worker."

PLAN INDORSEMENT OF THE PRESIDENT

Syracuse, N. Y., March 1.—The informal Democratic state convention, with plans matured for a generous indorsement of President Wilson before final adjournment tonight, was called to order at 12:30 p. m. today by Chairman William Church Osborn of the Democratic state committee. Mr. Osborn subsequently was made temporary chairman.

It was decided to have Former Governor Martin H. Glynn named from the floor as permanent chairman when the convention met for its second session later in the day. Mr. Glynn will then deliver his keynote speech replying to Former Senator Root's criticisms of the Democratic administration in the recent Republican convention.

As soon as the preliminary work had been cleared up an adjournment was taken at 1:35 until 4:30 p. m.

DAY IN CONGRESS

SENATE.

Attempt to reach an agreement to fix a time for a vote on Shields water power bill failed.

Public lands committee voted not to offer Myers water power bill as an amendment to the Shields bill.

Brandeis inquiry continued.

Sisal investigation continued by agricultural committee.

HOUSE.

Considered claims on house calendar.

Foreign affairs committee considered action on resolutions warning Americans against travel on armed merchantmen of belligerents.

National defense program considered by naval and military committees.

Philippine independence bill, as passed by senate, ordered reported by insular affairs committee.

MOTHER ALEXIA IS CRITICALLY ILL

Rev. Mother Alexia, head of the community of the Sisters of St. Benedict and sister of the Rev. Mother Scholastica, who founded the Duluth community of the order, is seriously ill at St. Mary's hospital after a difficult operation, which was performed last night.

Although physicians declared after the operation that there was a good chance for the patient's recovery, her progress since that time has not been satisfactory, according to reports from the hospital today.

Mother Alexia is widely known in Northern Minnesota, having lived in Duluth twenty-eight years. She was the first sister superior of the old St. Mary's hospital.

As head of the community of the Sisters of St. Benedict, she has supervision of all members of the order in the Duluth diocese, and some of those in the Crookston diocese.

OFFICIALS ADDRESS BARBERS.

President Hall and Secretary Lawson Speak at Labor Meeting.

President E. G. Hall of the Minnesota Federation of Labor gave instructions on the Labor Forward Movement at the meeting of the boss and journeymen barbers at 10 East Superior street last night. Secretary G. W. Lawson also spoke and told of the excellent progress of the work in other parts of the state.

President Hall has been discussing this subject before Duluth unions for some time, and he expects to instruct all of the remaining unions as to the purposes of the work.

WAITING TO CHALLENGE THE WINNER.

—From the Des Moines Register.

DIVORCE MILL BEGINS GRIND

Fewer on Calendar Than Usual in District Court.

Only Ten Contested Cases; Alimony Order Is Entered.

With plenty of grist to feed the hopper, the divorce mill will start grinding this afternoon. When a new term of court opens, the first litigation given attention is that affecting domestic relations and as the March, 1916, term officially began today, the district court judges will be kept busy for the next two or three days listening to tales of woe from unhappy wives and unfortunate husbands.

The calendar of divorce cases is smaller this term than usual, there being only thirty-four cases to be disposed of. Of this number, ten are contested actions and will not be given preference on the calendar. The contested divorce cases are usually tried during the latter part of the term.

One New Case Filed.

One new case was filed with the clerk of the district court this morning, but it does not appear on the calendar. Hazel Dufficy, 18-year-old wife of Harry Dufficy, sometimes known as Henry Dufficy, 24, wants a legal separation on the grounds of cruelty. They were married in Grand Forks, N. D., on May 27, 1914, but she claims that ever since July of that year he has treated her in a cruel and inhumane manner. She had to work to support herself, she says.

Judge Cant this morning also ordered Milton S. Jackson, Ely, defendant in a divorce case brought by his wife, Mary Jackson, to pay her $50 for attorney's fees and $10 a month temporary alimony.

Cases For Trial.

The list of divorce cases for trial at the present term of court follows:

Maude M. Sherwood vs. Raymond Sherwood.
Elizabeth Pyykko vs. Hugo Pyykko.
Jorgen J. Fuhr vs. Julia Fuhr.
Caroline Jacobs and Albert W. Jacobs (contested).
Laura Carlson vs. Victor Carlson.
Florence Guass vs. Charles Gauss (contested).
Agatha M. Johnson vs. Charles Johnson (contested).
Georgiana Switzer vs. Daniel Switzer.
Wanda Joblinski vs. Joseph Joblinski (contested).
John Bernhard Olson vs. Vendla Victoria Olson.
Susan T. Hooper vs. Charles F. Hooper.
Carl S. Carlson vs. Selina Carlson.
Pearl Larson vs. William Larson.
Jean Patterson vs. Victor Allen Patterson.
Matt Palo vs. Maybelle Palo.
Vivian Elizabeth Nyman vs. Paul A. Nyman.
Dorothy Mabel Henriksen vs. Christ Henriksen.
Henry Warner vs. June S. Warner.
Emil G. Miller vs. Mary Jane Miller (contested).
Jennie Francis Ascher vs. L. R. Ascher.
Georgian Rivord vs. George Rivord.
Mona C. MacKenzie vs. Donald MacKenzie.
Mary Bicknell vs. Byron Bicknell.
Arthur H. Stockman vs. Susanna Stockman.
Blanch Newman Shea vs. John Francis Shea.
Marie Joleoud vs. Oliver Joleoud.
Sophia Jacobson vs. Andrew Jacobson.
Jacob Newman vs. Gertrude Newman (contested).
Mildred Valentine vs. Richard R. Valentine (contested).
Frances N. Chandler vs. John P. Chandler.
Sarah Jane Poirer vs. Joseph Poirer.
Leo Laukki vs. Esther Laukki (contested).
Susanna Oplund vs. Julius E. Oplund (contested).
Sofia Cejovich vs. Peter Cejovich (contested).

OBITUARY

Dr. Lorenzo Sears, author of many books on American literature, died at Providence, R. I., Feb. 29. He had held professorships in Vermont and Brown universities.

John W. Geiger, prominent in Iowa Masonic circles for the past quarter of a century and identified with the Woodmen of the World as state manager, is dead at Sioux City, Iowa. Until late in 1915 Mr. Geiger acted as Minnesota manager of the Woodmen of the World. He had served in that capacity ten years.

SEARCHLIGHT OVER BIG POWDER PLANT

Ashland, Wis., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—A searchlight installed at the big powder plant of the Dupont Powder company, across the bay, at Barksdale, where 2,000 men are working on war munitions, can be seen from Ashland nightly, searching the woods, and it is practically impossible to get within half a mile of the place, without being "picked up" by the light. The entire plant, covering 1,600 acres, is now brilliantly lighted at night. Guards have been doubled and Pinkerton detectives at Ashland and other nearby places, keep close watch. The continued reports of the maneuvering of aeroplanes at Superior and in the forests about half way between Superior, and the story of the Ashland firemen that they saw an aeroplane over the powder plant a few nights ago, have all added to the alarm.

DULUTHIAN GIVEN POLK COUNTY CONTRACT

Crookston, Minn., March 1.—John McDonnell of Duluth received the contract to construct ditch No. 99 from the state experimental station on the Red Lake river, east of Crookston for $4,570. One other bid which was $40 higher, was received.

The job is a small one being but three and one-half miles in length.

No Alcohol for Drinking.

Berlin, March 1.—Owing to the great demand for alcohol for technical purposes, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German imperial chancellor, today issued an order prohibiting temporarily the excising of raw alcohol for drinking purposes.

Train Hits Wagon; Three Killed.

Muskogee, Okla., March 1. — The driver and two school children were killed when an iron Mountain passenger train struck a country school service wagon near Inola, Okla., early today. Five other children were injured, one fatally.

Charged With Forgery.

Grand Rapids, Wis., March 1.—C. Parish, said to be the son of a retired prominent merchant of Wapaca, is under arrest here on a charge of forgery on complaint of a Stevens Point hotel proprietor. Parish is said to be wanted by the authorities at Green Bay, Appleton and Oshkosh on similar complaints.

Horses Trot to Death.

Joliet, Ill., March 1.—As James Laird, a wealthy farmer, was loading freight into a wagon at the Rock Island railroad station here yesterday, his team attempted to cross the railroad tracks. He caught hold of the wagon just as the St. Paul limited train crashed into it, instantly killing Laird and the horses.

Close to Agreement.

New York, March 1.—Soft coal miners and operators from the Middle States were close to an agreement today on the principal points in dispute in arranging a new wage scale to go into effect the end of this month. Only a cent or less per ton stands in the way of arriving at a settlement of the mine run and tonnage increase demands.

For Welter Championship.

New Orleans, March 1.—Harry Stone of New York and Ted Lewis of England declared their fitness today for their 20-round bout tonight, which was postponed Monday. The winner will claim the world's welterweight championship.

Oklahoma Bank Robbed.

Hugo, Okla., March 1.—The State Bank of Millerton, at Millerton, Okla., it learned here today, was robbed of $1,000 yesterday by two armed bandits who escaped on horseback.

ULTIMATUM TO PORTUGAL

Germany Demands Restoration of All Ships Recently Seized.

Given Forty-Eight Hours By Berlin in Which to Comply.

London, March 1, 4:45 p. m.—Germany has sent an ultimatum to Portugal demanding the restoration within forty-eight hours of the German ships recently seized by that country, according to a dispatch from Madrid to Reuter's Telegram company.

The first seizure of German merchant vessels by Portugal occurred Feb. 23 at Lisbon when the naval authorities took possession of thirty-six German and Austrian ships in the Tagus. On Feb. 25 the seizure of eight German steamships by the Portuguese authorities at St. Vincent, Cape Verde islands, was announced and it was unofficially declared that the requisitioning of German and Austrian vessels had been extended to all those lying in the ports of Portugal and her colonies.

A Lisbon dispatch, Feb. 26, quoted Premier Costa of Portugal as declaring in the chamber of deputies that the government action in requisitioning vessels had been prompted by the necessities of the nation's economic situation. The premier further declared that he considered it to the best interest of Portugal that the existing treaty with Germany be allowed to lapse and that the Portuguese government was prepared for all eventualities.

There have been frequent rumors since the outbreak of hostilities that Portugal was about to declare a state of war with the Central powers because of her treaty relations with Great Britain.

MUST COMPLY WITH LAW OR CLOSE SHOP

Unless the eleven meat markets graded under 70 per cent by Meat Inspector Peterson improve in their condition when the next quarterly score is made, arrests of the owners will follow and their stores will be closed, according to the report filed with Commissioner Silberstein this morning.

"These markets must improve, or their places will be closed up as being insanitary," states Inspector Peterson.

PNEUMONIA PROVES FATAL

Mrs. Isabel Thomson, well-known Duluth resident, died at her home, 216½ West Third street, yesterday after an illness of about three weeks. Pneumonia was given as the cause of death. Mrs. Thomson was 68 years old.

She was born in Canada. The family came to Duluth several years ago. Mrs. Thomson having made her home here for about six years.

Five daughters and three sons survive. They are Mrs. C. F. Wright, Mrs. Walter Baldwin and Mrs. William Holbein, all of Duluth; Mrs. W. G. Miller of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.; Blake, James and William, all of Duluth.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

ICE RINKS ARE CLOSED.

Warming Houses and Equipment No Longer Available for Skaters.

All the public ice skating rinks were closed at 10 o'clock last evening.

The warming houses and equipment were locked up for the year, but the ice will be left open to the skaters until warm weather stops this sport. Recreational Director Batchelor said this morning. Appropriations for the operation of the public skating rinks provide for their maintenance from Dec. 1 to March 1.

There were nine skating rinks in operation during the winter, with a supervisor in charge of each from Dec. 1 until last night.

Director Batchelor is now making arrangements for the opening of ten public playgrounds on May 1. They will be located at the following points: Lester Park school, Washburn school, Chester park, Munger school, Webster school, Franklin school, Washington school, Ninth avenue west and Third street, Harrison park and Irving school

OFFICIALS TALK CHARTER CHANGES

Charter provisions, appropriations, expenditures and general city business were discussed by the commissioners at an informal conference in Mayor Prince's office this morning.

Present at the meeting were Mayor Prince and the commissioners, City Auditor Campbell, Secretary Culver and Chief Accountant Thayer of the works division. At noon the conference was adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon, when the commissioners will discuss the material for the proposed West First street pavement. Property owners are divided over brick and creosote blocks and it is probable that the matter will be settled this afternoon.

One of the points discussed this morning was the advisability of including the appropriation of $50,000 each year for hydrant rental in the fire department fund, instead of in the general fund, as is done at the present time. The question of changing the appropriations for the engineering division and providing for transfer of engineering costs to the works fund, instead of the improvement fund, also came up during the conference.

Accountant Thayer suggested the plan of creating a uniform accounting system for all municipalities in the state and urged the local council to take the first step. It was pointed out, that although such a plan would be best for accounting purposes, it could hardly be carried out, in view of the conflicting charter provisions in the larger cities of Minnesota.

These subjects were discussed informally by the officials present, no action being taken by the council on any of the matters.

SUPERIOR

WILL GUARD AGAINST ILLEGAL VOTING

New methods for making certain that only legal voters take part in the election on "wet and dry" issues in Superior were outlined by Maj. D. M. Smith at the mass meeting held last night at the Hammond Avenue Presbyterian church. Foreign-born illegal voters can, he said, be deported and foreign-born citizens who are caught in aiding the colonization of voters may also have their citizenship revoked. He recommended the posting of rewards for information leading to prosecutions of illegal voters.

Fire in Hotel.

An early morning fire gutted the Acme hotel, Thirteenth street and Banks avenue, this morning. The fire started at 4:30 o'clock and by the time the fire department arrived all of the guests had left the building. The loss is placed at between $5,000 and $10,000. The loss is covered by insurance. Sam Tilley was operating the place as a lodging house.

YOU WANT TO KNOW WHAT YOUR FOOD IS!

You Can't Afford to Take Chances in Buying it By Guess—Health and Strength Depend on What You Eat, and Taking Chances is Dangerous!

YOU KNOW all about the different articles of food that are named below.

YOU KNOW that they are just what they are represented to be—that you can depend on them.

YOU KNOW that because they are extensively advertised, manufacturers and dealers would not dare to let them get below standard either in quality or measure.

You can't be deceived in buying the articles because you know all about them—what they are like, what they should cost and all the rest. They are all advertised in The Herald.

INSIST ON GETTING THEM

And if your grocer doesn't carry them now, he will get them for you

ARMOUR'S QUALITY PRODUCTS
AUNT JEMIMA'S PANCAKE FLOUR
CALUMET BAKING POWDER
CREAMETTES (MACARONI)
DULUTH UNIVERSAL FLOUR
GRAPE NUTS
HORLICK'S MALTED MILK
K C BAKING POWDER
NU-JELL
LEA & PERRIN'S SAUCE
POSTUM
PRIMUS BUTTER
QUALITY BRAND MACARONI
ROYAL BAKING POWDER
RUMFORD BAKING POWDER
SALADA TEA
SIMS' BREAKFAST FOOD
STEERO CUBES
SUNKIST ORANGES
SHREDDED WHEAT
SWIFT'S PREMIUM OLEOMARGARINE
UZAR COFEEE
UNCLE JERRY PANCAKE FLOUR

LIGHTS AND SHADOWS OF POLICE COURT

TOO WISE TO BE "STUNG"

Lumberjack Goes to Superior and Has Roommate Arrested.

Alfred Sallen, lumberjack, is a newspaper reader, and when he woke up this morning and found his roommate missing, and his watch gone, he started for Superior.

Not long afterwards he came back to Duluth, leading Martin Trommes, 33, the roommate. The watch could not be found.

"Here he is," said Sallen as he walked into the police station, leading his captive, "I'll teach these fellows to go back on me."

Trommes denied the theft, but was held as a petit larceny suspect, while police are trying to find the watch.

THREES ARE HOODOO.

Charles Michael in Police Court Because of Combination of Trios.

Three is an unlucky number, according to Charles Michael, 33, who says he is a waiter in a West Superior street hotel. William Anderson agrees with him.

Three years ago, Anderson says, he borrowed $3 from Michael. That was in St. Louis, or some other distant city.

Michael tried to collect the debt last night, Anderson says, and in some way the two began an altercation.

Michael hit Anderson three times (at least) and excused himself by saying that Anderson had three (or more) drinks.

In municipal court today he pleaded not guilty to third degree assault, despite the fact that Anderson displayed a badly battered countenance. He will be tried at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

EMULATE DIME NOVEL HEROES.

Three "Newsies" Rob Edmund Stone of $1 in Dimes.

Emulating dime novel heroes, three "newsies" attacked Edmund Stone, 11, living at 120 Second avenue west, yesterday, and robbed him of $1 in dimes.

The encounter took place near the corner of Lake avenue and Superior street, shortly after 6 p. m., scores of homeward bound pedestrians were within calling distance, at the time, but took it for a boyish scuffle.

The Stone boy, who is colored, told Police Sergeant Weber that he had been doing errands for Ed Miller, 11½ East Superior street, and that he stopped to count his dimes, which he was taking to a store to have changed into nickles.

A search for the daring "hold-up" artists so far has been fruitless, according to police.

"I'M NOT MISSING."

Friends Too Anxious About Resident of Beaver Bay.

While Siever Aakvick of Beaver Bay, violinist and fisherman, was enjoying himself on a visit in Duluth, friends and relatives grew worried about him and decided that he was "missing."

Several long distance telephone calls to police headquarters from Beaver Bay started bluecoats on a search for a man carrying a "fiddle" under his arm and early in the evening Sergeant John Hunter of the West end station located him at a boarding house at 1510 West First street.

"I'm not missing," said Aakvick, indignantly, when the officer appeared. He had just finished reading a Herald article which said that his friends were searching for him.

He went back to Beaver Bay today, according to police.

Coat Torn in "Confab."

Alfred Helenius, 23, had an argument last night with Victor Maki, 216½ South First avenue east.

At first it was merely a friendly "confab," but one word led to another, and soon Maki's overcoat was badly torn in the scuffle.

Patrolman J. W. Johnson happened along, and Helenius was fined $5 and costs in municipal court today. He will serve seven days at the work farm in default of the fine.

AGE LIMIT FOR SEAMEN REDUCED

Candidates for Examination Need Not Be More Than 19 Years Old.

A Federal ruling that reduces the age limit for seamen on the Great Lakes from 21 to 19 years, is expected to have an important effect in the service during the coming season. It probably will save vessel owners from a labor famine in the near future as men are expected to be scarce this year.

The new ruling provides that any candidate having had the required service, who has reached the age of 19 years, is eligible for an examination for license as master, mate, pilot and engineer of steam vessels.

The new regulations were received today by the Federal inspector of hulls at the Federal building.

GRAND OPENING TONIGHT

Billiard and Pool Parlor THE BIG 3 L. E. STRUM & E. C. REGLI

Twelve of the latest and best equipped tables in the city. Music from 8 to 10:30 p. m. 24 First Avenue West—Look for the Big 3 sign.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

ON THE IRON RANGES

PROPOSE READING ROOM FOR WOODSMEN

Virginia Police Commission Asks City Council to Provide One.

Virginia, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The city council last night deferred action on the appointment of a secretary to the mayor who would also act as secretary of the Commercial club and it is expected the matter will be disposed of at the next meeting.

A communication from the police and fire commission asking the council to provide a reading and restroom for woodsmen was referred to the public buildings committee. The commission suggested that a reading room might be furnished with reading matter from the public library and kept open under the supervision of the police officers. The need for such a place was emphasized by the statement that on Sunday, when public places are closed, the woodsmen have no place to go.

Architect C. K. Shand submitted plans for the municipal abattoir, estimated to cost $15,000, fully equipped with machinery, a refrigerating and ice-making plant and other apparatus. The matter of the adoption of the plans will be taken up at a special meeting of the council to be held Friday night at 8 o'clock.

TWENTY-THREE ARE AFTER VILLAGE JOBS

Two New Chisholm Candidates for Trustee Develop at Last Minute.

Chisholm, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—With the close of filing time at 5 o'clock Tuesday night the list of candidates entered and who will contest for office at the village election March 14 totaled twenty-three.

Several surprising changes were made at the last moment. A. H. Kleffman, who had previously filed for recorder and who had been waging an active campaign during the last few days, withdrew and filed as a candidate for trustee. W. E. Fay and E. A. Gillespie withdrew as candidates for trustee.

New Trustee Candidates.

C. A. Munro and Raymond Maturi are the new candiates to file for trustee. Both men are said to have entered the contest in response to considerable urging on the part of their friends and they are expected to have considerable support.

Following is a list of the candidates for the various offices whose names will appear on the ballots: President, Dr. E. E. Webber, Dr. E. H. Nelson; recorder, B. H. Graham, B. E. Culver; trustee, Morris Peck, A. H. Kleffman, Raymond Maturi, C. A. Munro, Louis Roth, C. Menty Tramontin, Matt Jaasko, Carl J. Nordmark, Gust Peterson, Anton Mahne, J. E. Cummings, Mike Auda, John Arko; treasurer, C. E. French, J. J. Stukel, Carl J. Peterson; constable, Jacob Nystrom, A. H. McDougall, John Arko Paire.

AURORA CREAMERY TO BE DISCUSSED

Meeting to Be Held Saturday to Further Consider Plans.

Aurora, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Aurora business people and farmers from north and south of the village will meet here Saturday forenoon under the auspices of the Aurora Commercial club for the purpose of completing the organization of a creamery association to establish a creamery here. Both north and south of the village there are some of the finest dairy lands in the state and the farmers are active and progressive. Most of them are interested in a central creamery and Aurora people have made them many inducements.

BAND MATTER IN AIR.

No Settlement Yet Affected of Hibbing Controversy.

Hibbing, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Turning down a proposition submitted by a special committee representing the Commercial club, appointed to arrange a satisfactory compromise between the Hibbing concert band and the park board, which suggested that the band would be willing to accept the park board's offer of $3,800 for thirty-two concerts and that the village furnish the funds which would purchase music, new uniforms and pay for advertising, the park board came back with a counter proposition yesterday afternoon which will delay an agreement for at least a month.

There is some question in the minds of the members of the Hibbing park board if the park board has the proper legal rights to pay out money for a band.

The park board members stated to the special committee that the proposition has been put up to the village attorney and the attorney general with a letter addressed to each one asking if the park board can furnish funds to provide amusement for the citizens of Hibbing as regards band music.

HOT WATER THE BEST LIVER AND BOWEL MEDICINE

Says Glass of Hot Water Before Breakfast Washes Poisons From System.

Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath, claiming this is of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing ill health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do.

Men and women are urged to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Just as soap and hot water cleanse and freshen the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the eliminative organs.

Those who wake up with bad breath, coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull, aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach; others who are subject to bilious attacks or constipation, should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to demonstrate the value of inside bathing. Those who continue it each morning are assured of pronounced results, both in regard to health and appearance.—Advertisement.

BOOK AUDIT USELESS.

Hibbing's Mayor Considers Examination of Hibbing's Books Fruitless.

Hibbing, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The investigation of the town of Stuntz books and the books of Hibbing is an unnecessary expense brought about by disappointed office seekers and uninterested parties, according to Mayor Victor L. Power, candidate for re-election.

"Our village books have been audited every year and the added expense that the village and state is bearing is unreasonable and unfair to the taxpayers of this great state," he declared.

Mr. Power is firm in his belief that the investigator's check will show no irregularities in the accounts of the village.

The mayor read with interest the St. Paul story in The Herald last evening that it would cost the village and state over $10,000 to complete the investigation, with the examination not anywhere near completed as yet.

"I am glad that The Duluth Herald gave us a fair deal in printing that story," he added; "it is what I have been contending about for some time."

CITY JAIL IS HOSPITAL.

Cases of Delirium Tremens, Broken Ribs and Epilepsy.

Virginia, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The city jail was a city hospital in effect for several hours yesterday. City Physician Crowe had two cases of delirium tremens under observation, when a railroad man was brought in with several fractured ribs and lacerations about the head, received in a saloon fight. He was later taken to the McIntyre hospital, but before first aid treatment had been concluded, the patrol brought in a stalwart woodsman suffering from epileptic fits.

GIRL WILL DEBATE.

Miss Jennie Wall of Chisholm to Be in State Discussion.

Chisholm, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Jennie Wall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wall, accompanied by Miss A. Bess Clark, principal of the high school, will go to St. Paul on Thursday to take part in the state discussion contest, which will be held at Macalester college on Friday. The Chisholm girl was given first place in the district contest, which was held in Hibbing last month and which was participated in by two representatives of the Hibbing, Grand Rapids and local high schools.

BELIEVE ARKO TOOK LIFE WITH DYNAMITE

Chisholm, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—It now seems to be generally credited that Vinko Arko, aged 33, the Glen miner, who was blown to pieces by dynamite in that mine yesterday morning, as stated in Tuesday's Herald, died a suicide's death, as the indications are he placed a stick of the explosive on his abdoman, lighted the fuse and was literally blown to pieces while suffering from an attack of melancholia. It is claimed he had no other reason for using dynamite at that time of the day as the blasting is done just before the men go off shift.

A widow and two brothers, John Arko of Chisholm, and Frank Arko of Bull, survive. The funeral will be held Thursday at the home at 212 Poplar street.

HAS MUCH FAITH IN FARMING LANDS

Virginia, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—R. A. McLean, former proprietor of the Grand and Royal theaters here, which he sold some time ago, has opened up a real estate business in the Karon block, and will interest himself particularly in St. Louis county farm lands as he believes the country about Virginia is on the verge of a considerable era of development.

CLASS IN PRINTING IN CHISHOLM SCHOOL

Chisholm, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The night school class in printing at the high school has been organized and consists of the following: Oscar Dahl, Evert Olson, Eldred Phillips, Victor Palmquist, Hartti Heskanen, Steven Fick, James Basalek, Magnus Magnusson, Blair Hainer, Leo Hopola, Aino Pikkarainen and Melville Winslow.

SEIZE PROPERTY OF THE LID TILTERS

Hibbing, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Deputy United States Marshal Mallory of Duluth this morning took into his possession the three teams of horses which were used in transporting liquor into Hibbing from dry territory.

The three teams and the liquor seized by the special officers are valued at about $1,000.

Aurora to Play Gilbert.

Aurora, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Aurora will play the Gilbert high school basket ball team on the local floor Friday night. The Aurora boys were beaten at Gilbert last Friday night and they have been practicing diligently since in hopes of turning the tables when the two teams play here.

LAKE FROZEN OVER NEAR TWO HARBORS

Ice Thin and Expected to Break Up With Heavy Wind.

Two Harbors, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—For the first time this winter the lake is completely frozen over opposite this port and for several miles north of here the same condition exists. The ice is very thin, however, and would undoubtedly be broken up with the slightest wind. The lake remained open longer this year than it has for a number of years which is due more to the fact that it has not remained calm long enough to freeze, rather than to mild weather.

Harbor Ice Broken.

The ice which forms in and about the harbor is being broken daily by the tugs so as not to hamper the scows and rafts used in connection with the construction of the new steel and concrete ore dock No. 2, which is being built by Barnett & Record for the Duluth & Iron Range Railroad company, the work on which is progressing very rapidly. The old structure is completely torn down and the work on the construction of the concrete base is being pushed as rapidly as possible.

EVELETH CLUB BANQUET.

Commercial Club Will Hear Toasts on Various Subjects.

Eveleth, Minn., March 1.—Toasts on various subjects redounding to the good of Eveleth, this section and the state will be responded to by speakers at the annual banquet of the Commercial club to be held at the Park hotel tonight. A. G. Kingston will be toastmaster and among the speakers will be Judge Martin Hughes of Hibbing, Mayor J. S. Saari, Rev. William Jobush, the new Presbyterian minister, and President J. C. McGilvray of the club.

AURORAN BREAKS HIS LEG SHOVELING COAL

Aurora, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Julius Lehto received a broken leg yesterday when a lump of coal struck him while shoveling coal at the Aurora livery coal yards. The injured man has been suffering severely and has been unable to tell just how the accident happened. He is about 40 years old and has a family here.

HIBBING FATHERS ARE NOT FORGOTTEN

Hibbing, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Father will have his innings in Hibbing during baby welfare week if the committee in charge of that feature succeeds.

Trustee John Curran will have charge of the sports for fathers and will stage an indoor baseball game at the Lincoln high school building gymnasium.

C. M. Atkinson will have charge of the swimming races for fathers at the high school natorium. Speeches will follow from 8 to 9. The sports will follow and talks will be made by prominent Hibbing citizens and members of the Commercial club. The members of the Junior Commercial club will also be on the program for short addresses.

NINETY-SEVEN CASES NOW BEING ASSISTED

Virginia, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—At the regular meeting of the Associated Charities Friday new methods of raising funds for the support of the organization will be considered and the report of Miss Helene Eunice Brotherton heard. The Associated Charities is giving aid to ninety-seven cases in the city, the largest number to command attention during the present season. Its work is on a systematic basis and is generally complimented.

HIBBINGITE BREAKS LEG BY FALLING

Hibbing, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Nels Oleander, for years a local saloon keeper, yesterday afternoon broke his right leg below the ankle when he slipped and fell on an icy sidewalk in front of the public library while on his way home to Alice.

He was assisted to a waiting bus and hurried to his home.

LID TILTER HELD.

Virginia, Minn., March 1.—Gust Johnson, arrested at Hibbing by Indian agents for bringing liquor into a dry territory, was held by U. S. Commissioner Otto Poirier to the United States grand jury late yesterday in $500 bonds. Unable to give bail, Johnson will have to remain in the Duluth jail till the grand jury meets next summer.

Bury Two Harbors Boy.

Two Harbors, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The funeral of Donald, the 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Seitz, who died Monday morning after a brief illness, was held this afternoon from the First Methodist church, Rev. A. H. McKee, officiating and interment was made in the Two Harbors cemetery.

Last Ely Card Party.

Ely, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. W. D. Gallagher gave the last of a series of parties at her home yesterday afternoon. Cards were played at four tables. The hostess was assisted by Miss Carey. The guests were: Mesdames Charles Trezona, Fenske, Berg, Ray Tonkin, James Tonkin, Lambert, Conan, H. E. White, R. J. Trezona, Graves, Harry Chinn, Jones, Walbank, Miss Trezona and Mesdames Kearney, Good and Miss Doyle of Winton. Mesdames Ray Tonkin and Tenske carried off the honors. Mrs. B. E. Williams was hostess to the Tuesday Reading club yesterday afternoon.

Takes Duluth Position.

Virginia, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Grover McCarthy, for the past year connected with the local offices of the Lake Superior Tax association as auditor, has resigned and gone to Duluth to take a position in the offices of Clement K. Quinn of the Mahoning Mining company. Mr. McCarthy was formerly connected with the offices of the Interstate Iron Mining company at the Lincoln mine. He will remove his family to Duluth and make his home there.

No Meetings Held.

Hibbing, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—No meetings of the village council, of water and light board were held this evening. The village council is expected to meet later this week.

Aurora Police Chief Sick.

Aurora, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Charles Blanchette, chief of police, is laid up at his home with grip. John Paavala, one of the night force, is taking his place.

Hibbing Seniors' Play.

Hibbing, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—"The Elopement of Ellen" will be played by the Hibbing high school seniors tomorrow evening at the Lincoln high school.

Tries Divorce Case.

Hibbing, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The district court cases are practically completed. A divorce case was taken up by Judge Hughes today.

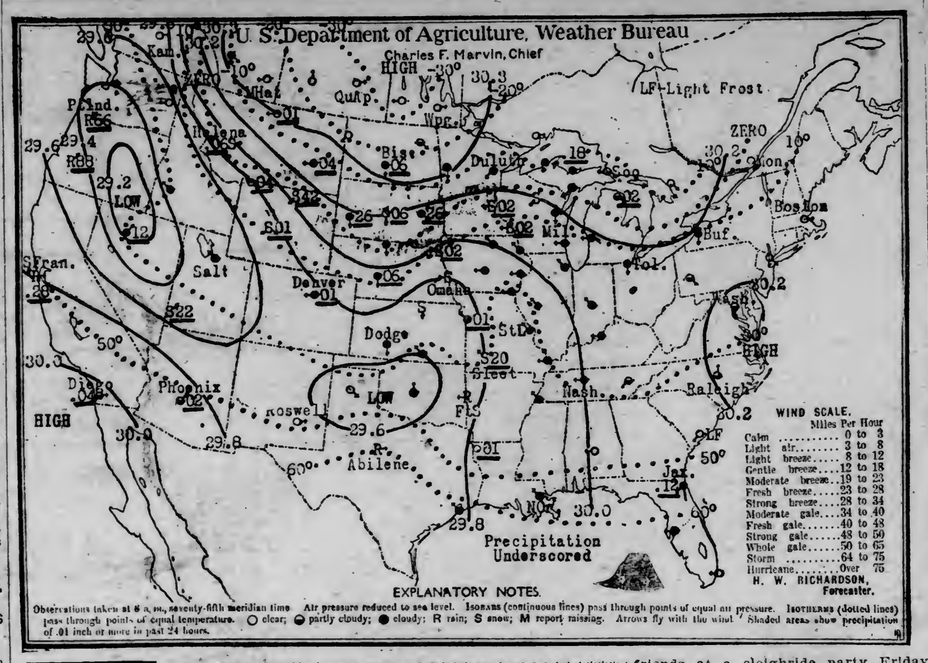
AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. —Advertisement.

OFFICIAL MAP OF THE WEATHER



Observations taken at 8 a. m., seventy-fifth meridian time. Air pressure reduced to sea level. Isobars (continuous lines) pass through points of equal air pressure. Isotherms (dotted lines) pass through points of equal temperature. ○ clear; ◒ partly cloudy; ● cloudy; R rain; S snow; M report missing. Arrows fly with the wind. Shaded areas show precipitation of .01 inch or more in past 24 hours.

COLD

It got pretty chilly last night and this morning did not remind one of the tropics. The cloudy weather produced a continuous fall of fine snow and there is a little wind. However, the lion of March has not yet made his appearance. Nor is it looked for. In fact, the weather man says there is no such animal; so there goes another of childhood's cherished fancies. He'll be telling that there's no Santa Claus next.

A year ago today was mild. The sun rose this morning at 6:46 and will set this evening at 5:54, giving eleven hours and eight minutes of sunlight.

Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"Severe cold weather prevails over most of Canada, Northern Michigan, extreme Northern Wisconsin, Northern and Western Minnesota, the Dakotas, North Central Nebraska and Montana, the lowest reported temperature being —36 deg. at Minnedosa, Man. The temperature has risen somewhat over the Upper Mississippi and Lower Missouri valley states and the Southwest. During the last twenty-four hours light snow or rain fell over the Middle West, Northwestern states, Rocky mountains, Oregon, Nevada, California, Utah and Arizona, in connection with barometric depressions centered over the Southwest and Far West."

General Forecasts.

Chicago, March 1.—Forecasts for the twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m. Thursday:

Minnesota—Unsettled weather tonight; colder in southeast portion; Thursday probably fair, continued cold.

Wisconsin—Snow tonight; Thursday unsettled, probably snow in east portion; colder in south portion.

Iowa—Snow and much colder in west, snow or sleet and colder in east portion tonight; Thursday probably snow; colder in east and central portions.

North Dakota—Fair and continued cold tonight; Thursday probably fair, with slowly rising temperature.

South Dakota—Partly cloudy tonight; probably snow in southwest portion; colder in extreme southeast portion; Thursday probably fair; continued cold.

Montana—Generally fair and continued cold tonight; Thursday fair, with slowly rising temperature.

Lower Michigan—Snow tonight and Thursday; warmer tonight.

Upper Michigan—Cloudy tonight and Thursday, probably snow.

Temperatures.

Following were the highest temperatures in the last twenty-four hours and the lowest in the last twelve, ending at 7 a. m.:

	High	Low
Abilene	70	50
Alpena	18	—4
Amarillo	38	38
Battleford	2	28
Battleford	2	—16
Boise	38	28
Boston	32	18
Buffalo	24	14
Cairo		28
Calgary	4	—14
Charles City		16
Charleston	54	38
Chicago	32	24
Concordia		28
Davenport		24
Denver	50	14
Des Moines	39	24
Devils Lake	—8	—28
Dodge	44	26
Dubuque	28	20
DULUTH	10	—2
Edmonton	4	—18
Escanaba	16	—4
Fort Smith		30
Galveston	60	58
Grand Haven	24	10
Green Bay	22	2
Havre	6	—16
Helena	14	—2
Houghton		—14
Huron	10	—4
Indianapolis		28
Jacksonville	76	50
Kamloops	38	22
Kansas City	36	28
Keokuk	28	26
Knoxville	36	26
La Crosse		14
Lander		8
Louisville	36	26
Madison	34	14
Marquette	12	—6
Medicine Hat	4	—18
Memphis	36	30
Moose City	10	—4
Milwaukee	24	16
Minnedosa	—8	—36
Modena	38	28
Montgomery	44	34
Montreal	6	2
Moorhead	—2	—16
Nashville		32
New Orleans	62	46
New York	34	26
North Platte	42	6
Oklahoma	42	34
Omaha	36	28
Parry Sound	14	—18
Phoenix	54	48
Pierre	12	—8
Pittsburgh	30	22
Port Arthur	—4	—18
Portland, Or.	40	36
Prince Albert	0	—32
Qu'Appelle	—10	—28
Raleigh	38	30
Rapid City	22	—4
Roseburg	42	34
Roswell		44
St. Louis	38	30
St. Paul	12	8
Salt Lake City	36	28
San Diego	60	54
San Francisco	56	46
Sault Ste. Marie	12	—6
Seattle	42	40
Sheridan	24	2
Shreveport	48	36
Sioux City	30	24
Spokane	40	26
Springfield, Ill.		28
Springfield, Mo.		28
Swift Current	—6	—26
Tampa	78	64
Toledo	36	16
Valentine	—6	—26
Washington	66	32
Wichita		28
Williston	—8	—24
Winnemucca	32	26
Winnipeg	—10	—26
Yellowstone	22	2

LOCAL FORECAST

Duluth, Superior and vicinity, including the Mesaba and Vermilion Iron ranges: Unsettled weather tonight with lowest temperature zero to about 10 deg. below at and near Duluth-Superior and 10 to 25 deg. below zero on the Iron ranges. Thursday partly cloudy and continued cold. Moderate northeast to north winds.

TO ADD ROOMS FOR THE KINDERGARTEN

Cloquet, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Supt. Peter Olesen of the city schools announces that, beginning next Monday, he will add two more rooms to the city schools. Those will be at the Washington and Garfield buildings, and will be for the kindergaten classes. The object of starting the rooms at this time is to give the girls who are attending the normal training department an opportunity to have actual training in teaching, while they are learning themselves, and also to give children who will become 6 years of age before next January a chance to get started on their next year's work. Mr. Olesen says he does not expect to be able to accept all of the children who wish to attend on account of his limited amount of room, and that about fifty is all he will be able to accommodate.

CLOQUET NOTES.

Cloquet, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Stanford Coathup, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Coathup, returned yesterday to Virginia, Minn., being called home by the illness of his son.

Simon Loisel left today for the West to accept a position with the Potlatch Lumber company at Potlatch, Idaho.

The boys of the Senior Club of the Y. M. C. A. will entertain their lady friends at a sleighride party Friday evening.

The marriage of Miss Ellen Chartier to Joseph Golen, was solemnized Monday morning at the home of Guy Chartier. Following the services a wedding breakfast was served and the young couple left on the morning train for a wedding trip to the Twin Cities.

R. R. Macartney spent yesterday in Duluth.

Max Markowitz returned last evening from a visit of several days with relatives in Minneapolis.

E. S. Davis was a Duluth visitor yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Parks are the parents of a son born yesterday.

W. L. Case attended court at the county seat yesterday.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy — If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle.

Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective.

They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The Olive Tablet Co., Columbus, O.

MISSION AT CLOQUET.

Services to Be Held in Episcopal Church Six Days.

Cloquet, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Rev. James G. Ward, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal church, announces the services for the mission which is to be held at his church six days, commencing next Sunday, as follows: Sunday, holy communion and meditation, 10:45 a. m.; Sunday school service and address, 4 p. m.; mission service, 7:30 p. m.

On week days communion and meditation will be held twice each morning, at 7:30 and 10 o'clock, and Sunday school service with address will be held each day at 4 in the afternoon. On Friday afternoon, the closing day of the mission, baptismal services will be held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The mission services will be held every evening at 7:30 and will be conducted by Rev. H. J. Wolner, B. D., who will speak on the following subjects: Sunday, "The Purpose of Creation. Do I Believe in God?" Monday, "The Relation of God to Man and Man to God;" Tuesday, "Relationship Between God and Man Broken Through Sin;" Wednesday, "The Relationship Between God and Man Re-established; the Way of Redemption;" Thursday, "The Part the Church Has to Play in the Scheme of Redemption;" Friday, "The Final Triumph and the Glory of the Redeemed."

NON-PARTISANS FOR LA FOLLETTE

North Dakotans Also Indorse Other Democratic and G. O. P. Candidates.

Fargo, N. D., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Equity Society Non-partisan league has indorsed on the Democratic ballot William Olson for national committeeman and following delegates to the national convention: L. L. Stair, P. A. Suhumskie, J. S. Leum, Tim O'Conner, F. O. Hellstrom, James E. Brady, John S. Gogin, John Hagelberger, Jacob Barandvig and Karl Bichler. These are all farmers with the exception of F. O. Hellstrom, were indorsed at the Tri-State Grain Growers' convention here in January and later at the Equity meeting at Minot. These candidates names were filed today by J. G. Crites, secretary of the Democratic state central committee.

Indorse Republicans.

The Equity Non-Partisan league also indorsed on the Republican ticket: Robert M. La Follette for president and William Lemke, Fargo, for national committeeman, and the following delegates to the Republican national convention: James A. Buchanan, Buchanan; E. A. Bowman, Kulm; O. B. Burtness, Grand Forks; C. C. Converse Schafer; H. P. Halverson, Sheyenne; H. C. Harty, Omem; M. P. Johnson, Tolley; Robert Kee, Sanborn; R. M. Pollock, Fargo, and H. Tschida, Glen Ullen. For presidential electors and the organization indorsed A. B. Cox, Valley City; F. M. Jackson, Hettinger; E. C. Johnson, Langdon; S. H. Nelson, Finley; John H. Wedner, Burlington.

BABY'S CRIES GIVE WARNING OF FIRE

New England, N. D., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Nearly $10,000 loss was sustained by fire in John Dulvich's confectionary store and adjoining structures.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dulvich, occupying apartments at the rear of their store, were awakened by the cries of their baby, to find their rooms filled with smoke. The store was already in flames.

BEMIDJI MAN NOW DEPUTY BANK EXAMINER

Bemidji, Minn., March 1.—D. B. Fuller of Bemidji, first assistant bank examiner in the office of the state superintendent of banks, yesterday was promoted to deputy state bank examiner by Supt. Turrittin.

Changing Bemidji Lights.

Bemidji, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The electric light arches throughout the business district will be removed Thursday on account of the action of the Bemidji city council. New gas filled globes have been placed throughout the business district and the light is so much greater than the light of the ordinary arc that the arches will not be needed.

Fargo School Election.

Fargo, N. D., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Five members of the school board instead of three will be chosen at the election April 19, as the terms of three regularly elected members end, while there are two other members on the board who were named by the board to fill vacancies. The three elected members whose offices expire are Dr. Paul Sorkness, K. M. Hagen and E. S. Elliott. Those members who were appointed to fill vacancies are Maj. M. F. Steele and Mrs. Thomas J. Graham.

PALE WIVES AND MOTHERS

Many women who had a good color in their girlhood grow pale and colorless when they become wives and mothers.

When the fading color in cheeks and lips is accompanied by a loss of brightness in the eyes and an increasing heaviness in the step, the cause is to be sought in the state of the blood.

A hundred causes may contribute to the condition of thin blood that is known as anemia. Overwork, lack of out-door exercise, insufficient rest and sleep, improper diet, these are a few of them. The important thing is to restore the blood to normal, to build it up so that the color will return to cheeks and lips, the brightness to the eyes and lightness to the step.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the great blood builder and invigorator. They begin at once to increase the red corpuscles in the blood and the new blood carries strength and health to every part of the body. Appetite increases, digestion becomes more perfect, energy and ambition return.

A pamphlet, "Building Up the Blood," will be sent free on request by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. if you mention this paper. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes, $2.50.

—Advertisement.

NATIONAL MAZDA LAMPS

10, 15, 25 and 40 Watts, each—

27c

UNIVERSAL ELECTRIC CO.

112 EAST SUPERIOR ST.

Melrose 7657. Grand 165-X.

ODD FELLOWS TO OPEN CAMPAIGN

Cloquet and Carleton Members to Advance Lodge Work in County.

Cloquet, Minn., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Cloquet and Carlton Odd Fellows held one of the largest get together meetings ever held between the two lodges here last night in the Odd Fellows temple. Plans were discussed for the furtherance of Odd Fellowship in Carlton county, of bringing the members in the county in closer touch with each other, and with this in view, committees were temporaryly appointed to lay plans for the forming of an Odd Fellows picnic association to be composed of lodges confined within the boundary of Carlton county.

Carlton Men Present.

Among those who were present from Carlton lodge are: H. W. McKinnon, J. P. Thompson, J. E. Yarlan, Carlton Wall, Mr. Gillispie, Fred Connors, A. M. Brower, Mr. Bugbee, Spencer J. Searls, J. E. Green, A. G. Thompson, August N. Norman and several others. After the business meeting a Dutch lunch was served, after which toasts were responded to by members of the order.

NORTHERN TELEPHONE COMPANY IS BOUGHT

Northwestern or Bell Company Acquires North Dakota System.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 1.—The Northwestern Telephone exchange or Bell company of Minneapolis in a deal involving $1,000,000 has purchased the lines of the Northern Telephone company in North Dakota and is negotiating for another line that extends from North Dakota into Montana, according to President C. B. Yost of Omaha, who made the announcement here.

F. H. Stoltze, Minneapolis lumberman, and Victor Noble, Minot, N. D., were principal stockholders of the Northern Telephone company and are said to have received $650,000 for their holdings.

TO SIGN DITCH ORDER.

Judge Fesler Is Expected to Authorize County Project.

Judge Bert Fesler is today expected to sign an order officially establishing Judicial Ditch, No. 4, a drainage project in the district east and northeast of Floodwood, a hearing on which was conducted yesterday afternoon. The judicial ditch when established will drain approximately 29,000 acres of land and will cost in the neighborhood of $145,000. The benefits to the land, however, greatly exceed this figure.

"AEROPLANES" SEEN SOUTH OF ODANAH

Ashland, Wis., March 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The crew of a Northwestern train reaching Ashland Tuesday claims to have seen two aeroplanes passing over Cedar, just south of Odanah. It was about daylight, and the planes were going south. The crew say they are ready to swear to it.

Is Inspecting Ashland Jail.

Ashland, Wis., March 1.—To ascertain whether the Ashland county jail meets with the required regulations insofar as sanitary conditions are concerned, Mr. Budlong, government representative is in Ashland today. Mr. Budlong was at Bayfield and Washburn yesterday inspecting the jails and schools.

DRESS WARM AND KEEP FEET DRY

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Take Salts and Get Rid of Uric Acid.

Rheumatism is no respecter of age, sex, color or rank. If not the most dangerous of human afflictions it is one of the most painful. Those subject to rheumatism should eat less meat, dress as warmly as possible, avoid any undue exposure and, above all, drink lots of pure water.

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid, which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventualy settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

—Advertisement.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

WHEAT TRADE IS NERVOUS

After Recording Good Bulges Prices Close Lower on Realizing.

Flaxseed Strong on Active Crushers' Support; Offers Are Light.

Duluth Board of Trade, March 1.—The market was weak at the close on fresh selling and lack of support from exporters.

May wheat closed ⅝c off and July ½c off.

May durum closed 1⅜c off and July 1⅜c off.

Oats closed ¾c off at 39⅜@39⅝c for on the track; rye unchanged to 1c off at 87c and barley unchanged at from 59c to 65c for on the track.

At Winnipeg, May oats closed ⅝c off at 41c.

Puts on Minneapolis May wheat closed at $1.06¼ and calls at $1.14⅞.

Extreme nervousness was shown in the wheat market today, quotations bobbing up and down like a shuttlecock according to the influence controlling at the moment.

To begin with an advance of 1½c over yesterday's closing basis was recorded on a wave of buying and short-covering in which higher Liverpool cables were given some attention. Then a drop of a full 3c came about, with realizing on Snow's report showing that farm stocks are still large and that the great bulk of them are merchantable grain. On the break, liberal buying by millers came about at Minneapolis, with that trade reported the heaviest in some time. It was all, however, on domestic account. Advices from the seaboard were to the effect that there was practically nothing doing in export trade as buyers are said to be showing an inclination to go slow in that at present in order to get a line upon the effect of Germany's new submarine policy.

Ocean freights are still advancing. The chartering of a steamer today from New York to Swansea on a basis of 54c per bu was reported. The rate from the Gulf to French Atlantic ports is equal to 72c per bu.

Reports of crop damage in the winter wheat territory had an influence in today bracing up the market. Traders predict that greater attention will be paid to advices of that nature from now on in view of the smaller acreage under crop.

Wheat receipts in the Northwest showed improvement today, but marketings at interior points were reported to be falling off. At Duluth there were 115 cars of wheat against 86 last year. Minneapolis had 360 cars against 178 a year ago, and Winnipeg reported 358 cars.

Just as had been predicted the movement of bonded wheat this way is heavier this week. Arrivals here today amounted to 207 cars. It is said that 5,000,000 bu of wheat are lying out exposed on the prairies in the three Western provinces for the want of housing accommodation. Special efforts are being made to move this grain as a sudden thaw would lead to serious deterioration in its quality.

May wheat opened ¼c up at $1.11⅝, advanced to $1.13, broke 3c and then recovered to $1.12½ at the noon-hour. July opened ⅛c up at $1.12, moved up 1½c, weakened to $1.10⅞, and then bulged to $1.13.

Durum was weak and the range in it narrowed. May durum opened ¼c up at $1.09½, gained ½c and then eased off to $1.09¾. July opened ¼c up at $1.10½, declined 2c and then moved up to $1.10⅜.

Flax Turns Stronger.

Crushers were in the market again for flaxseed supplies, and prices appeared to be easily advanced. In the opinion of operators, conditions in the trade are increasingly bullish, in view of the light receipts and heavy demand coming from Canada for both oil and seed. That is taken to indicate the paucity of supplies there.

May flax opened ⅜c up at $2.28½, and closed 1¼c up at $2.29 asked. July opened ½c up at $2.28½, and closed 1c up at $2.29 asked.

At Winnipeg, May flax closed 1⅝c up at $2.07⅞ asked.

At Buenos Aires, flax closed ½c up at $1.39½, and London 4⅝c off at $2.80.

Cash Sales Thursday.

No. 1 northern wheat, 1 car.....$1.11⅝
No. 1 northern wheat, 2 cars..... 1.12
No. 1 northern wheat, 2 cars..... 1.11
No. 2 northern wheat, 2 cars..... 1.08⅝
No. 2 northern wheat, 2 cars..... 1.07
No. 2 northern wheat, 2 cars..... 1.09
No. 2 northern wheat, part car..... 1.08¼
No. 2 northern wheat, 2 cars..... 1.08
No. 2 northern wheat, 1 car..... 1.07¾
No. 3 northern wheat, 1 car..... 1.02⅝
No. 3 northern wheat, part car..... 1.05
No. 3 northern wheat, 1 car..... 1.03½
No. 3 northern wheat, 1 car..... 1.03¼
No. 3 northern wheat, 1 car..... 1.02¾
Most, wheat, 1 car, No. 3 hard winter..... 1.05¾
No. 2 northern wheat, 1 car, bonded..... 1.06
No. 2 northern wheat, 1 car, bonded..... 1.07⅜
No. 1 durum, 1 car..... 1.08
No. 2 durum, 2 cars..... 1.05
No. 3 durum, 2 cars..... 1.00
No. 3 durum, 1 car, smutty..... 1.00
No. 3 durum, 2 cars..... .98
No. 1 mixed durum, 1 car..... 1.08¼
No. 1 mixed durum, 1 car..... 1.08¾
No. 2 mixed durum, 1 car..... 1.00
Barley, 3 cars..... .62
Oats, 1 car, sample grade..... .39
No. 2 rye, 1 car..... .88
No. 1 flax, 1 car..... 2.28½
No. 1 flax, 1 car..... 2.27⅝
No. 1 flax, 1 car..... 2.30

MARKET GOSSIP.

Duluth car inspection: Wheat—No. 1 hard, 1; No. 1 northern, 27; No. 2 northern, 15; No. 3, 12; No. 4, 6; no grade, 4; durum, 28; winter, 3; mixed, 19; total wheat, 115; last year, 86; flax 2; last year, 11; corn, 1; last year, none; oats, 9; last year, 15; rye, 5; last year, 1; barley, 2; last year, 2; total of all grains, 134; last year, 115; on track, 81.

* * *

Demand for cash wheat was easy on the Duluth market today. The great bulk of the No. 1 northern wheat offered sold at the May price. The mills paid 1c over with an occasional car of choice grain going at 2c over. Discounts on the off-grades widened. Cash No. 1 durum sold at the May price with up to 1c over paid in some cases.

* * *

Snow's report on farm stocks placed corn at 1,190,000,000 bu, against 951,000,000 bu last year. Of this 938,000,000 bu is reported merchantable and 252,000,000 unmerchantable, but with a feeding value that makes possible its use on the farm. Wheat is estimated at 223,000,000 bu, against 169,000,000 bu last year. Of the stock, 210,000,000 bu is reported of merchantable quality. Oats stocks are 625,000,000 bu, against 361,000,000 bu last year. Of these stocks 575,000,000 bu is reported of merchantable quality.

* * *

A New York wire said: "Charters were reported last night in grain for one vessel 28,000 quarters previously, Portland to Avonmouth, 16s 6d; another vessel 20,000 quarters, Philadelphia to Mediterranean ports, at private terms.

"Notwithstanding the heavy break in the futures market yesterday in the early trading, the amount of export business reported was very small. Prominent exporters stated late that very little had been done during the day. Sales were placed at about 500,000 bu of wheat for the day, although the late cables brought some inquiry. There were reports of 200,000 bu corn from Philadelphia, and of some oats at the outports. The bullish report on the Argentine corn crop was a very important influence in the corn market, indicating possibility of very limited shipments from the new crop."

* * *

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool: "Wheat was steadier, influenced by American advices, but trading was dull, as expectations are for larger export clearances. Spot was dull 1d higher with the cargo market steadier. Manitobas held 6d to 9d dearer, winters 6d higher and Plates unchanged. Much attention is given to American and Canadian receipts and a belief in large reserves. Australia and Argentina continue to offer freely.

* * *

C. E. Lewis & Co. wired from Minneapolis: "It is claimed the mills have bought a million bu of wheat in the Minneapolis market so far this morning. Their purchases caused a higher opening than last night's close, but there has been good selling by holders of long wheat, and on the bearish report issued by Snow."

* * *

Broomhall's linseed cable from Liverpool said: "London market is weak with liberal arrivals of Plates. Argentine weather is fine and offers are large at lowered prices. Indian merchants are offering freely due to the nearness of the new crops."

* * *

Price Current says: "Private advices on farm reserves of wheat are not so large as anticipated. A lot of wheat in the Central states is bad condition and there is considerable feeding wheat. Reserves are likely to be turned to feeding, as shipments of soft corn are liable to spoil with warm weather. When grain merchants begin to pay attention to impairment of the new crop, it will be a decided factor in price making, for the acreage in the country is so much below a year ago as to preclude any substantial surplus for European wants the next season."

* * *

Bradstreet's world's visible supply report showed that wheat increased 4,129,000 bu, corn increased 2,216,000 bu and oats decreased 412,000 bu.

* * *

Duluth grain stocks, giving changes in three days:

Wheat—Western and winter, 749,000 bu., increase, 2,000 bu; spring, 7,274,000 bu., increase, 88,000 bu; durum, 5,310,000 bu, increase, 97,000 bu; bonded, 2,157,000 bu, increase, 201,000 bu; total wheat, 16,248,000 bu, net increase, 388,000 bu; afloat, 758,000 bu.

Coarse grains—Oats, 1,596,000 bu, increase, 134,000 bu; rye, 25,000 bu, decrease, 1,000 bu; barley, 948,000 bu, increase, 17,000 bu; flax, domestic, 1,633,000 bu, bonded, 24,000 bu; total flax, 1,657,000 bu, increase, net, 11,000 bu.

Total of all grains, 20,474,000 bu; net, increase, 549,000 bu.

* * *

Clearance reported: Wheat, 750,000 bu; flour, 19,000 bbls., together equal to 836,000 bu; corn, 209,000 bu; oats, 897,000 bu.

* * *

Duluth bonded grain receipts: Wheat, 207 cars; oats, 19 cars; barley, 4 cars; flax, 1 car; rye, 2 cars; total, 233 cars.

* * *

Cars of wheat received:	Yesterday.	Year Ago.
Duluth	115	86
Minneapolis	360	178
Winnipeg	348	...
Chicago	196	95
Kansas City, bu	106,000	26,000
St. Louis, bu	53,000	53,000

* * *

Cars of linseed received:	Yesterday.	Year Ago.
Duluth	2	11
Minneapolis	20	10
Winnipeg	10	..

* * *

At Liverpool spot wheat closed 1d higher; corn, ½@1d lower.

* * *

Primary markets report the following receipts and shipments today:

Wheat—Receipts, 1,396,000 bu, last year, 653,000 bu; shipments, 1,059,000 bu, last year, 560,000 bu.

Corn—Receipts, 1,129,000 bu, last year, 690,000 bu; shipments, 634,000 bu, last year, 789,000 bu.

Oats—Receipt, 933,000 bu, last year, 843,000 bu; shipments, 618,000 bu, last year, 1,147,000 bu.

* * *

World's visible supply: Wheat, 230,080,000 bu, year ago, 155,147,000 bu; corn, 24,863,000 bu, year ago, 45,646,000 bu; oats, 39,560,000 bu, year ago, 43,204,000 bu. Oats and corn include Canada and the United States.

* * *

Charles E. Lewis & Co. had the following closing letter from Chicago: "On a report by a local crop expert on farm reserves which was construed as bearish early May wheat dropped about 2c under yesterday only to rally sharply on heavy buying credited to strong interests. Toward the last Washington news led to free selling by locals and made the final reaction. Crop reports indicating considerable winter killing in the soft winter states were bullish. Mills were heavy buyers at Minneapolis early against flour sales. Little was heard of export demand, but seaboard bids were advanced somewhat and sales of 100,000 bu were made to go to the seaboard. Hard winters via the Gulf have stiffened. Statistics generally are ignored. We feel friendly to wheat on the recessions."

MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 1.—Wheat—Lower; receipts, 360 cars, compared with 178 a year ago. May opened $1.12 to $1.13⅛; high, $1.13⅛; low, 1.09½; closed $1.10¾. July opened $1.12 to $1.12¾; high, $1.12⅞; low, $1.09¼; closed $1.09¾. September opened $1.12 to $1.12½; high, $1.12½; low, $1.09¾; closed $1.10⅛.

Cash—No. 1 hard, $1.14⅞; No. 1 northern, $1.11⅝@1.13⅜; to arrive, $1.11⅝@1.13⅜; No. 2 northern, $1.07⅞@1.10⅞; No. 3 wheat, $1.01⅞@1.07⅝.

Corn—No. 3 yellow, 75@76c. Oats—No. 3 white, 39¾@40c. Flax, $2.29@2.33.

Flour—Fancy patents, 15c higher, quoted at $6.40; first clears, 15c higher, $4.80; other grades unchanged. Shipments, 68,895 bbl.

Barley, 59@66c. Rye, 86½@88c. Bran, $18.00@19.00.

CHICAGO MARKET.

Germany's New Submarine Policy Has Bearish Effect on Wheat.

Chicago, March 1.—Reports which seemed to indicate an energetic beginning of Germany's new submarine campaign had a bearish effect today on wheat. Assertions that several British steamers had already been torpedoed gave rise to talk that shipments from this country might be made a virtual impossibility. The bulls were also handicapped by estimates that the amount of wheat still being held in the United States was larger than had been generally supposed. Opening prices, which varied from ¼@⅝c lower to ⅝c advance, was followed by a substantial decline all around.

Initial quotations were $1.12@1.12½ May, and $1.09⅞@1.10¼ July.

Active buying on the part of millers at Minneapolis led afterward to a reaction and so, too, did reports that serious winter killing had taken place in nearly all of the soft wheat states. Washington dispatches, however, that the submarine issue would be forced to a vote in congress caused later a sharp downturn in prices. The close was nervous at ½@⅝c to ¾c net decline with May at $1.11¾ and July at $1.08⅞.

Corn suffered with wheat. A bearish construction was placed on estimates of farm reserves of corn as well as of wheat. After opening ¼@1c off, the market continued to sag.

The transient rally in wheat was not fully paralleled by corn. Prices closed unsettled at 1@1⅛c to 1⅛@1¼c net decline.

Oats merely reflected the action of other cereals. Trade was active and better divided than usual.

Higher prices on hogs gave strength to provisions. Weakness of the grain markets acted only as an offset in part.

Wheat—No. 2 red, $1.14; No. 3 red, $1.12; No. 2 hard, $1.09½@1.13½; No. 3 hard, $1.05¾@1.08¾.

Corn—No. 2 yellow, 75¾@76c; No. 4 yellow, 66@69½c; No. 4 white, 66@69c.

Oats—No. 3 white, 40½@41½c; standard, 42@43c.

Rye—No. 2, 90c. Barley, 60@70c. Timothy, $4.50@7.75. Clover, $10.00@20.00.

Pork, $19.25@20.75. Lard, $10.27. Ribs, $10.87@11.37.

Wheat—	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.
May	$1.12	$1.13⅜	$1.10½	$1.11¾
July	1.09⅞	1.11¼	1.07⅞	1.08⅞
Corn—
May	.74½	.75¼	.73⅝	.74⅛
July	.74⅛	.75	.73⅜	.73⅝
Oats—
May	.43⅝	.43⅞	.42¼	.42⅞
July	.41⅝	.41⅞	.40⅝	.41
Pork—
May	20.80	20.97	20.60	20.95
July	20.85	20.92	20.67	20.90
Lard—
May	10.57	10.62	10.52	10.52
July	10.77	10.80	10.72	10.70
Ribs—
May	11.60	11.60	11.50	11.57
July	11.70	11.72	11.60	11.67

* * *

Liverpool Grain.

Liverpool, March 1.—Wheat: Spot No. 1 Manitoba 14s 6d; No. 2 hard winter, gulf, 12s 8d; No. 2 red western winter, 13s. Corn—Spot American mixed new, 11s 1d.

New York Wheat.

New York, March 1.—Wheat—May, $1.19¾; July, $1.12¾.

ZINC STOCKS SHOW STRENGTH

While the zinc stocks were strong, showing good advances, the general market in mining stocks was easier at Boston today.

Butte & Superior attracted heavy trading, and it closed $2.38 up at $91.63. American Zinc closed $1.50 up at $78.00.

Old Dominion showed strength, closing $1.50 up at $70. Calumet & Arizona closed 50 cents up at $74; Copper Range 37 cents off at $62.38; Greene-Cananea 50 cents off at $44.50; Granby 50 cents off at $88; Lake unchanged at $16.50; Mohawk unchanged at $91; North Butte 25 cents off at $29.25, and Shattuck 75 cents off at $36.25.

* * *

At London the visible supply of copper increased 1,284 tons, but copper on hand decreased 1,934 tons in the past fortnight.

* * *

At St. Louis, speller closed at 21½ cents.

* * *

Closing quotations of Boston curb stocks, as reported by Paine, Webber & Co.:

	Bid.	Asked.
Butte & London	$ .65	$ .68
Big Ledge	1.38	1.50
Bohemia	2.00	2.25
Cactus Mines	.90	....
Coppermines	1.87	2.00
Chief	1.44	1.50
Calumet & Montana	.45	.50
Calumet & Corbin	.04½	.05
Denn	15.50	....
Davis Daly	1.63	1.87
Hotan Copper	2.12	2.50
First National	5.25	5.50
Interstate-Callahan	....	26.00
Jerome Extension	.43	.45
Jumbo Extension	1.12	1.38
Keating	....	1.06
Marsh	.38	.40
New Baltic	3.00	3.25
New Cornelia	11.50	11.75
Onondaga	1.50	1.63
Stewart	.40	.45
Success	.89	.91
Sierra	.70	....
Tonopah	6.50	6.75
Tonopah Belmont	4.25	4.50
Tonopah Extension	4.38	4.63
Utah Met	9.12	9.25
Verde Extension	13.00	13.25
Warren Dev.	5.00	....

London Market.

London, March 1.—Money was in increased supply and discount rates were quiet today. American securities were fairly steady on a limited amount of business.

AMERICAN WHEAT MARKETS, MARCH 1, 1916.

May—	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Feb. 29.	Yr ago.
Duluth	1.11¾	1.13¼	1.10	1.10⅞	1.11½b	1.42
Minneapolis	1.12-1.13⅛	1.13⅛	1.09½	1.10⅞a	1.11¼-⅜	1.38¼-⅜
Chicago	1.12½-1.12	1.13¾	1.10½	1.11¾a	1.12¼-⅜	1.44½
Winnipeg	1.10½-1.11¼	1.12¼-⅜	1.09	1.09⅜a	1.11¼a	1.45⅞-46
July—
Duluth	1.12b	1.13⅜b	1.10⅞	1.11⅜	1.11⅞a	1.38
Minneapolis	1.12-⅜	1.12⅞	1.09¼	1.10⅝a	1.11b	1.34¼
Chicago	1.12¼-1.09⅞	1.11¼	1.07⅞	1.08⅝b	1.09⅝b	1.17½
Winnipeg	1.10½	1.12⅛	1.08⅞a	1.09½a	1.11¼a	1.44⅞

DULUTH DURUM MARKET.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Feb. 29.	Yr ago.
May	1.09½	1.10	1.07¾	1.07⅞	1.09¼b	1.46¾
July	1.10½b	1.10½b	1.08½	1.08¾a	1.10¼b	1.44

DULUTH LINSEED MARKET.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Feb. 29.	Yr ago.
May	2.28½	2.30¼b	2.28½	2.29	2.27¾a	1.85¾
July	2.28½	2.30	2.28¼	2.29a	2.28a	1.87

Duluth close: Wheat—On track: No. 1 hard, $1.12⅞; No. 1 northern, $1.10⅞@1.12⅞; No. 2 northern, $1.07⅞@1.09⅞; No. 1 northern to arrive, $1.10⅞; No. 3 on track, $1.00⅞@1.04⅞; Montana No. 2 hard to arrive, $1.10⅞; Montana No. 2 on track, $1.10⅞; May, $1.10⅞; July, $1.11⅜ asked. Durum—On track: No. 1, $1.07⅞; No. 2, $1.03⅞@1.04⅞; to arrive, No. 1, $1.07⅞; May, $1.07⅞ asked; July, $1.08⅞ asked. Linseed—On track, $2.29; to arrive, $2.29; May, $2.29 asked; July, $2.29 asked. Oats—On track, 39⅜@39⅞c; to arrive, 39⅜c. Rye—On track, 87c; to arrive, 87c. Barley—On track, 59@65c.

Elevator receipts of domestic grain—Wheat, 120,176 bu; last year, 52,857 bu; oats, 13,887 bu; last year, 3,933 bu; barley, 19,664 bu; last year, none; rye, 1,143 bu; last year, 676 bu; flax, 3,580 bu; last year, 5,535 bu.

Shipments of domestic grain—Wheat, 1,017 bu; last year, 45,080 bu; barley, 8,667 bu; last year, none; rye, 2,750 bu; last year, none.

Elevator receipts of bonded grain—Wheat, 139,900 bu; last year, 5,149 bu; oats, 55,719 bu; last year, 259 bu; barley, 5,069 bu; last year, none; flax, 1,254 bu; last year, 5,443 bu.

Shipments of bonded grain—Wheat, 6,561 bu; last year, none.

WHEAT SLUMP AIDS MILLERS

Big Business Is Done Following Break of Last Week.

With declines during the last week extending all the way to 16¾c as recorded at the low point of $1.07 in the May wheat future, set yesterday, the milling interests were afforded the opportunity they had been looking for. As a result, substantial business was put through by millers during the last couple of days, and, taken on the whole, the trade is regarded as having been replaced in much healthier position through the break.

The extent of the slump in the wheat market is to be appreciated when it is taken into consideration that the quotation in the May future stood at $1.32⅝ on Feb. 1 and at $1.26⅜ on Feb. 14, as compared with $1.08¼ last Monday and $1.11⅞ yesterday. May wheat sold down this week to the lowest point touched since Dec. 10, when it stood at $1.09½. A year ago it was quoted at $1.44½.

Bearish Factors Develop.

A combination of bearish factors helped along the break. Fears that the Germans might score more heavily in their submarine warfare in reaching some of the steamers engaged in the Atlantic grain-carrying trade was one of the depressing influences. Then there were heavier Argentine and Australian shipments last week, accompanied by the statement that additional steamers have been released by the British government for the transport of grain from the Southern hemisphere to Europe. As last year Australia was compelled to import wheat, while this season it is estimated that country has a surplus of around 66,000,000 bu for export, while Argentina has several millions more wheat available for shipment, it is conceded that those sources of supplies have to be reckoned with in figuring upon the extent of the demand to be made by Liverpool and French importers upon this country. It is estimated, furthermore, that the United States has 196,000,000 bu of wheat still available to go abroad, while Canada is thought to have around 140,000,000 bu yet to be marketed.

On the other hand many of the most experienced traders regard it as extremely unwise to grow unduly bearish at this stage, especially after the market has had such an extended break. Attention is drawn to the fact that damage news regarding winter wheat is to be reckoned upon. The area sown was substantially reduced from last year's acreage, and on account of severe weather conditions, winter-kill is feared over wide sections of country. On top of that, they say that only about 50 per cent of the average extent of fall plowing was accomplished in Minnesota and North and South Dakota, so that unless conditions are exceptionally favorable this spring, the area sown to spring wheat is likely to be cut down materially. Following the rule in other years under similar conditions, farmers will be forced to sow a proportion of their grain on the stubble, thus reducing the probabilities of garnering a good average crop. It is also contended that in the event of the war dragging over another winter, Europe's requirements will be heavier. Even should the struggle be brought to an end by next fall, it is thought that remunerative grain prices to growers will be assured on account of the forecasted lighter production in the various countries over there.

Good Durum Demand.

While the slump in durum wheat was in about the same proportions of late as in spring wheat, dealers say that there are indications of good support in it at the lower price basis. The May future rallied 5¼c yesterday from the lowest level recorded at $1.04, and good buying by exporters was reported. Dealers contend that durum has established a market for itself in Italy and Greece, and that the call from those countries, in conjunction with the requirements for special purposes in this country, should be sufficient to take care of the available supplies. Last year at this time durum sold at $1.50, being at a premium of 5½c over spring wheat.

Crushers Bid for Flax.

While lower figures were set in the flaxseed market during the past week, the cash and May future closing yesterday at $2.27¾, compared with $2.32¼ a week ago, it was noted that crushers stood ready to buy seed on the breaks, and it was intimated that a substantial tonnage was sold yesterday. An indication that the seed is wanted by the linseed oil manufacturing interests was afforded yesterday in the fact that cash flax sold yesterday at the May price, whereas a week ago its basis was 2c under.

Chicago Livestock.

Chicago, March 1.—Canadian demand and local speculative buying sent the hog market today up to a price which had long been coveted—$9 a hundredweight. Cattle arrivals were much less numerous than expected. There was no special call for sheep or lambs.

Hogs—Receipts, 37,000; active at 10c above yesterday's average. Bulk, $8.75@8.90; light, $8.50@8.95; mixed, $8.60@9.00; heavy, $8.50@9.00; rough, $8.50@8.65; pigs, $7.25@8.15.

Cattle—Receipts, 13,000; strong; native beef steers, $7.25@9.65; western steers, $7.10@8.25; stockers and feeders, $5.75@7.85; cows and heifers, $3.35@8.25; calves, $8.25@11.00.

Sheep—Receipts, 16,000; weak; wethers, $7.90@8.60; lambs, $9.25@11.30.

New York Banks.

New York, March 1.—Mercantile paper, 3@3¼. Sterling, 60-day bills, $4.71½; demand, $4.76½; cables, $4.77. Francs, demand, $5.87⅝; cables, $5.87. Marks, demand, 73⅜; cables, 73 7-16. Kronen, demand, 13¼; cables, 13½. Guilders, demand, 42½; cables, 42¾. Lire, demand, 6.70; cables, $6.69. Roubles, demand, 32; cables, 32¼.

Bar silver, 56⅝c; Mexican dollars, 43½c.

Government bonds, firm; railroad bonds, heavy.

Time loans, firm; 60 days, 2¾@3; 90 days, 3; six months, 3¼.

Call money, steady; high, 2; low, 1¾; ruling rate, 2; last loan, 2; closing bid, 1¾—offered at 2.

DECLINES IN STOCKS

Unmistakable Signs of Liquidation Is Shown By the Selling.

Rallies of One to Three Points In the Last Hour.

New York, March 1.—Latest aspects of the international situation were reflected in the moderately heavy tone of today's opening prices of numerous stocks showing irregular declines. Coppers and specialties were most susceptible, standard issues showing more firmness. Gains of fractions to a point were made by Reading, Baldwin Locomotive, Studebaker, United Fruit and Industrial Alcohol. United States Steel, selling "ex-dividend" of 1¼ per cent, opened a mere fraction lower, but soon recovered. Secondary prices were lower, especially in the war group, where further recessions were made.

United States Steel, Reading, Anaconda and American Can led the gradual but steady declines in today's stock market in which various speculative issues made lowest prices of the year. The selling bore unmistakable signs of fresh liquidation, rather than bearish activity and was heightened by advices of further marine disasters in the foreign war zone. Even Reading fell under the impact of the movement which affected some of the high priced specialties like Bethlehem Steel and Cuban-American Sugar from 10 to 18 points. Anglo-French 5s repeated their recent minimum of 93⅝. Bonds in general were heavy.

Stocks were weaker at midday when Steel fell under 80, other leaders declining in sympathy. Later on diminished dealings, rallies of 1 to 2 points occurred in Reading and some specialties.

Rallies of 1 to 3 points were made in the last hour, short covering contributing to the readjustment. The closing was heavy.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Reported by Charles E. Lewis & Co.

STOCKS—	High.	Low.	Close.
Am. Tel. & Tel.	127⅛	127¼	127¼
Am. Can., com.	58¼	56¾	57⅜
Am. Beet Sugar	67	64½	67
Am. Hide & Leather,	9½	9⅜	9⅜
Am. Car Foundry	65½	64¼	65½
Am. Cotton Oil Co.	52	52	52
Am. Locomotive	68½	66¼	68½
Am. Lin., pfd.	20	20	20
Am. Steel Foundries	50½	49½	49½
Am. Smelting	97¾	96½	97¼
Alaska Gold Mines Co.	21	20⅝	20⅞
Allis Chalmers, com.	28	26⅛	27½
Am. Sugar ex-div 1¾	109½	109½	109½
Am. Tobacco Co.	191½	191	191
Anaconda Copper	85⅞	83⅞	85⅛
Atchison	102⅛	102	102
Bald. Loc.	101½	99½	102¼
B. & O., com.	86	85	85⅝
B. R. T.	86	85½	86
Bethlehem Steel, com.	450	450	450
Butte & Superior	92	88⅝	92
Cal. Petroleum, com.	28	26¼	26¼
Can. Pacific ex-div 2½	164¾	162½	164
Central Leather	52½	51⅝	52¼
Ches. & Ohio	61⅝	60⅝	61⅜
Chino Copper Co.	57	55⅝	57
Chi., Mil. & St. P.	93½	92¼	92⅜
Col. Fuel & Iron	41	39⅝	40½
Con. Gas	131½	130½	130½
Corn Prod. Co.	21	20½	20½
Crucible Steel, com.	73½	70¼	73
Cuban Am. Sugar	180½	180½	180½
Distillers Sec.	45	43⅝	44
Erie	36⅛	35⅜	35⅞
do. 1st pfd	52	50⅞	51⅓
B. F. Good. Co., com.	69½	68¼	68⅜
General Electric	166⅞	165	165⅛
General Motors, com.	460⅛	460	460
Great Northern, pfd	120¼	120	120
Great Northern Ore	41½	39⅝	41
Gug. Explor. Co.	21⅛	20⅞	20⅞
Inspir. Cop. Co.	44⅝	43½	44¼
Kenn. Copper	25⅜	25	25
K. C. Southern, pfd.	53¼	52	53
Lackawanna Steel	73½	72½	73½
Mont. Power & L. Co.	70	68¼	68¼
Maxwell Motor	61⅜	59⅝	61⅛
do, 2d pfd.	44½	42⅜	43⅛
Mex. Petroleum Co.	96⅜	93¼	95½
Missouri Pacific	4⅜	4⅛	4⅛
Miami Copper	35¼	34⅜	34⅜
M. & St. L. Ry.	4⅜	4⅛	4⅜
Nor. Pacific	112	111½	112
National Lead	65⅞	65¼	65¼
Norfolk & Western	114⅜	114	114¼
N. Y. Air Brake	140	137½	140
N. Y. Central	103⅞	102¼	103¼
Pennsylvania R. R.	57	56½	57
Pits. Coal, com.	29⅞	28½	29¾
Pressed S. C. Co.	51⅛	50½	50½
Ray Copper	24½	24⅛	24⅜
Reading	83¾	81¼	82
Republic Steel	49⅝	48⅝	49⅝
Rock Island	17⅞	17⅛	17⅜
Ry. Steel Springs	38⅝	38⅝	38⅝
Sears-Roebuck Co.	171	170	171
Southern Pacific	97¼	96⅛	96⅞
Southern Railway	19⅝	19¼	19⅜
Studebaker, com.	137¼	133	135
Shattuck	37⅛	35⅝	36⅜
Tenn. Copper Co.	54⅜	53	54⅜
Texas Oil Co.	200	193	200
Union Pacific, ex-div 2	131½	130¼	131¼
U. S. Rubber	49¾	47¾	49
U. S. Inds. Alcohol Co.	151	142⅝	151
U. S. Steel, ex-div 1¼	81½	79⅜	80⅝
U. S. Steel, pfd.	116¼	116⅛	116⅛
Utah Copper	84	82	84
West. H'se. Elc. Mfg.	62⅞	60⅝	62⅛

BOSTON COPPER STOCKS.

Reported by Paine, Webber & Co.

STOCKS—	Bid.	Asked.
Alaska	20¾	21
Adventure	2¼	2¾
Ahmeek	98	101
Allouez	68½	70
American Zinc	78½	78⅞
Arcadian	9½	10
Arizona Commercial	8⅝	8½
Butte-Alex Scott	10	10½
Butte & Ballaklava	4⅛	4⅜
Butte & Superior	92	92½
Calumet & Arizona	73½	73¾
Calumet & Hecla	560	565
Centennial	15½	16
Cambria Steel	81	....
Chino	56¾	57
Copper Range	62¼	62½
Daly West	2¾	3
East Butte	12½	12¾
Franklin	9	9½
Goldfield Consolidated	90c	95c
Granby	88	89
Greene-Cananea	44	46
Hancock Consolidated	16	17
Inspiration	44	44⅜
Indiana	4	5
Isle Royale	28	29
Keweenaw	3	3¼
Lake Copper	16¼	17
Mass. Consolidated	13½	14
Mayflower	3¼	4¼
Miami Copper	34½	34⅝
Michigan	1⅝	2
Moliawk	91	92
Nevada Consolidated	15⅞	16
North Lake	1¼	1¾
Nipissing	6¼	6½
North Butte	29¼	29¾
Ojibway	1⅝	2½
Old Colony	2¾	3
Old Dominion	70½	71
Osceola	92½	94
Quincy	91¼	93
Ray Consolidated	24¼	24⅝
Santa Fe	3⅛	3¼
Shannon	10½	10⅝
South Lake	6½	7
Shattuck	36	36¾
Shoe Machinery	54	54½
Superior Boston	3 1-16	3⅛
Superior Copper	18½	19
Tamarack	49½	50
Trinity	8⅞	9
Tuolumne	19c	20c
United Fruit	141	141½
U. S. Mining	60⅝	61
U. S. Mining, pfd.	50⅜	50½
Utah Consolidated	13½	14
Victoria	3 13-16	4
Winona	4	4⅜
Wolverine	65	65½

New York Cotton.

New York, March 1.—Cotton: Futures closed steady; March, 11.25; May, 11.43; July, 11.63; October, 11.82; December, 11.97.

Midway Horse Market.

Minnesota Transfer, St. Paul, Minn., March 1.—Barrett & Zimmerman report: Shipments of farm mares and general purpose horses to Minnesota and Wisconsin dealers and deliveries of heavy drafters to local breweries and transfer companies make up the day's clearance. Increasing inquiry for mules. Charles Stanley, G. M. Hughes and R. H. Farwell are on the market with carload consignments of farm mares. Values remain as follows:

Drafters, extra	$165@215
Drafters, choice	140@165
Drafters, common to good	125@140
Farm mares and horses, extra	155@210
Farm mares and horses, choice	135@155
Farm horses, common to good	120@135
Drivers and saddlers	130@185
Delivery horses	135@190
Mules, according to size	150@

ABSENT-MINDED ABNER—The Pot Was Watched All Right

By Walt McDougall

AS IF THERE WAS THE LEAST DIFFICULTY OR MENTAL EFFORT ABOUT BOILING AN EGG!
AS SOON AS THE WATER BOILS, IN WITH THE EGG AND GIVE IT THREE AND A HALF MINUTES
LET'S SEE, WHAT WAS IT BEN FRANKLIN DISCOVERED ABOUT BOILING WATER?
AH, I HAVE IT: A WATCHED POT NEVER BOILS!
IT IS EVIDENT THAT IN SOME INSCRUTABLE MANNER I HAVE REVERSED THE FORMULA!
3-1
Copyright, 1916, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

YOUR PIPE

Some Worth While Information About the Close Companion of the Habitual Smoker.

From Tobacco: A new pipe should have the inside bowl moistened with water for a few minutes before smoking. The moistening of the inside of the bowl will prevent the burning of the pipe and cause the tobacco to form a crust inside of the bowl.

In filling a pipe press the tobacco tightly, especially on the side next to the stem, as by so doing you will cause the tobacco to burn more evenly and thus prevent burning the bowl.

No pipe less than four inches long ought to be smoked, because it is too short to allow the smoke to cool before it reaches the mouth.

Tobacco used in the pipe should be somewhat damp to avoid biting the tongue.

Many pipes are burned because of quick smoking against the wind. By drawing slowly the smoker will avoid burning the bowl.

Many pipes are burned at the bottom of the bowl. This is generally caused partly by the smoker trying to consume all the tobacco in the bottom of the pipe and partly by lighting tobacco when the pipe is less than half full and drawing the flame to the bottom of the bowl.

Lighting Over Gas.

If a pipe is lighted over a gas light the edge of the bowl is frequently burned. The best pipes may be burned that way and the smoker is the one to blame, not the pipe or the pipe dealer.

When a pipe burns it is usually the fault of the smoker by not adhering to the above directions.

To make a new pipe taste as sweet as an old one put a pinch of salt in the bottom of the first filling of tobacco.

In genuine meerschaum pipes the tobacco should be pressed tight, as by doing so the heat is evenly distributed and the pipe will color accordingly.

A meerschaum pipe ought always to have a meerschaum button inside of the bowl, as this will insure better coloring of the pipe.

By drawing slowly, especially on a new meerschaum pipe, the smoker will prevent overheating the meerschaum, and the pipe will color much quicker than by fast smoking.

Pipes made of soft wood burn readily with the tobacco, and it is the burning wood and not the tobacco which bites the tongue.

To Sweeten Strong Pipes.

The best pipe may get strong, but if it is packed tight with grass or hay and laid aside for a few days it will be as sweet as ever.

Amber burns slowly with a yellow flame, emitting a pungent, aromatic smoke. It costs more in the raw state than pure silver. Imitation amber burns fiercely, being quickly consumed.

Imitation meerschaum pipes will not color, and if submerged in water for thirty-six hours they will dissolve to a powder.

The genuine meerschaum is carved out of the natural block. Meerschaum pipes are boiled in wax, even after having been used for some time, to make them color faster.

The covering of meerschaum pipes with chamois will prevent them from getting scratched, but will help to heat them, and therefore retard the coloring process.

The smoke drawn through the meerschaum, which is porus, settles on the surface, which is a fatty substance—wax. If a pipe is overheated it evaporates the wax and the chemical process is lost.

What Meerschaum Is.

Meerschaum is not a "foam of the sea," as it has often been characterized, and as many suppose, but a silicate of magnesia.

The raw material comes from Asia Minor, wherefrom the Turkish government derives a great deal of revenue.

Meerschaum is extracted much the same way as coal. Near Eski-Shehir, an important station on the Anatolian railway, where the rich deposits of meerschaum are found, pits from twenty-five to 120 feet deep are dug. As soon as the vein is struck, horizontal galleries, sometimes of considerable length, are made.

The meerschaum, as extracted, is called hamtash, which means rough block, and is soft enough to be easily cut with a knife like a piece of cheese. It is white and is covered with red clayey soil. The manipulation required before the meerschaum is ready for export is long and costly.

The best quality is called "Spiegel" looking glass meerschaum on account of its beautiful luster when colored.

BOSTON'S USE OF "LONG WORDS."

Harrison Rhodes in Harper's Magazine: It is somewhat difficult to find in ordinary Bostonian speech the ten and twelve-syllabled words of which it is popularly supposed to be exclusively composed. But the joke is so old that there must be something in it. As far back as Brook Farm it was alleged that they said, "Cut the pie from the center of the periphery," and asked, "Is the butter within your sphere of influence?"

But this was humor, as New England as a wintergreen lozenge. It was a by-product of an unashamed passion for education which distinguished American antebellum days. Even in the Middle West, when James Garfield, later to be president, with his friends in the little fresh-water college of Hiram, indulged in "stilting," as they termed this humorous riding on the highhorses of the language, they were in the Bostonian tradition.

"Stilting" has perhaps disappeared. But there are here and there indications of the survival of the English of a robuster period. The old lady who said that she didn't, after all, know that Bostonians were so "thundering pious," produced with the phrase all the effect of an Elizabethan oath. She made you feel that Bostonian culture was no more thin affair of yesterday.

Juniper from the Indian reservations of New Mexico and Arizona may prove an excellent source of material for lead pencils.

MAKE OFFER!

Residence lot, 100x140 Feet.

FINEST POSSIBLE LOCATION

Second Street, near Twenty-fifth Avenue East.

CHAS. P. CRAIG & CO.

Fifth Floor, Sellwood Bldg.

Newly Completed Home For Sale

You will be interested in this newly completed strictly modern home located in the East end; 7 rooms, hardwood floors throughout; oak finish on main floor; second floor finished in natural yellow pine. For price and terms see

HOOPES-KOHAGEN CO.,

209 First National Bank Bldg.

LEGAL NOTICES.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION —OF— THE BRITON STEAMSHIP COMPANY.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That the undersigned hereby associate themselves together for the purpose of forming a corporation, pursuant to the provisions of Chapter Fifty-eight (58) of the General Statutes of Minnesota, 1913, and the Acts amendatory thereof, and to this end hereby sign and adopt the following certificate:

ARTICLE I.

The name of this corporation shall be THE BRITON STEAMSHIP COMPANY, and its principal place of business shall be at Duluth, Minnesota, although said corporation may have an office and transact business at any other place or places in the United States, or elsewhere; the general nature of its business shall be to engage in transportation on the navigable waters of the Great Lakes, their connecting and adjacent waters, as well as on the high seas; to buy, own, lease, mortgage, sell and operate all species of steamships and vessel property; and to engage in all species of water-borne commerce, and to do all things incident, necessary and convenient thereto; and to buy, own, lease and operate docks and warehouses.

ARTICLE II.

The time of commencement of this corporation shall be the 6th day of March, 1916, and the period of its continuance shall be thirty years.

ARTICLE III.

The names and places of residence of the persons forming this corporation are: Chester A. Massey of Superior, Wisconsin; E. P. Preston of Duluth, Minnesota, and H. R. Spencer of Duluth, Minnesota.

ARTICLE IV.

The government of this corporation and the management of its affairs shall be vested in a Board of three Directors, who shall be elected annually on the first Tuesday of February, unless otherwise provided by the by-laws; from which Board of Directors shall be selected, in the manner prescribed by the by-laws, a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer. The offices of vice president and treasurer, or secretary and treasurer, may be held by the same person.

The names and addresses of those forming the first Board of Directors until the first election are: Chester A. Massey of Superior, Wisconsin; E. P. Preston of Duluth, Minnesota, and H. R. Spencer of Duluth, Minnesota.

The first meeting of the directors of this corporation may be held March 6th, 1916, at 1103 Alworth Building, Duluth, Minnesota.

ARTICLE V.

The amount of the Capital stock of this corporation shall be one hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($150,000), to be paid in cash or property, or both, as may be determined by the Board of Directors; said capital stock shall be divided into fifteen hundred (1500) shares, of the par value of one hundred dollars ($100.00) each.

ARTICLE VI.

The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which this corporation shall at any time be subject is five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have hereunto set our hands and seals this 25th day of February, A. D. 1916.

CHESTER A. MASSEY. (Seal)
E. P. PRESTON. (Seal)
H. R. SPENCER. (Seal)

Signed and Sealed
in Presence of:
V. M. JARRETT.
H. B. HAROLDSON.

State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis —ss.

On this 25th day of February, A. D. 1916, before me, a Notary Public within and for said County, personally appeared Chester A. Massey, H. R. Spencer and E. P. Preston, to me personally known to be the persons described in and who executed the foregoing instrument, and who acknowledged the same as their free act and deed.

H. B. HAROLDSON,
Notary Public,
St. Louis County, Minnesota.
My commission expires March 7, 1919.
(Notarial Seal, St. Louis Co., Minn.)

State of Minnesota, Department of State.

I hereby certify that the within instrument was filed for record in this office on the 28th day of February, A. D. 1916, at 9 o'clock A. M., and was duly recorded in Book B-4 of Incorporations, on page 363.

JULIUS A. SCHMAHL,
Secretary of State.

244048.

OFFICE OF REGISTER OF DEEDS.
State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis —ss.

I hereby certify that the within instrument was filed in this office for record February 29, 1916, at 8:30 A. M., and was duly recorded in Book 16 of Misc., page 462.

CHAS. CALLIGAN,
Register of Deeds.
By C. L. LOFGREN,
Deputy.

D. H., Feb. 29, March 1, 1916.

ORDER TO EXAMINE FINAL ACCOUNT—

State of Minnesota,
County of St. Louis—ss.
In Probate Court. In the Matter of the Estate of J. Henry Miller, Decedent.

The petition of K. P. Miller, as representative of the above named decedent, together with his final account of administration of said estate, having been filed in this court, representing, among other things, that he has fully administered said estate, and praying that said final account of said administration be examined, adjusted and allowed by the Court, and that the Court make and enter its final decree of distribution of the residue of the estate of said decedent to the persons entitled thereto, and for the discharge of the representative and the sureties on his bond, it is ordered, that said petition be heard, and said final account examined, adjusted and, if correct, allowed by the Court, at the Probate Court Rooms in the Court House, in the City of Duluth, in said County, on Monday, the 27th day of March, 1916, at ten o'clock A. M., and all persons interested in said hearing and in said matter are hereby cited and required, at said time and place, to show cause, if any there be, why said petition should not be granted. Ordered further, that this order be served by publication in The Duluth Herald according to law.

Dated at Duluth, Minn., February 29th, 1916.

By the Court,
S. W. GILPIN, Judge of Probate.
Attest: A. R. MORTON,
Clerk of Probate.
Seal, Probate Court, St. Louis Co., Minn.
W. G. BONHAM,
Attorney for Estate.
D. H., March 1, 8, 15, 1916.

PRIVATE HOSPITALS.

PRIVATE HOME BEFORE AND DURING confinements; good care by experienced nurse; infants cared for. Mrs. Finkle, 213 W. 3rd St. Mel. 2464.

PRIVATE HOME FOR WOMEN BEfore and during confinement; expert care; infants cared for. Ida Pearson, M. D., 284 Harrison avenue, St. Paul.

PRIVATE HOME BEFORE AND DURing confinement. K. Thorstenson, 1602 28th St., Superior Wis. Ogden 851-X.

Mrs. H. Olson, graduate midwife; private hospital and home. 329 N. 58th Ave. W. Phones, Cole 173; Cal. 270.

MRS HANSON, GRADUATE MIDwife; female complaints, 413 Seventh avenue east. Zenith 1225.

Mrs. A. Ferguson, graduate midwife, 917 East Tenth street. Grand 1976-Y.

FOR SALE COWS.

FOR SALE—S. GOLDFINE HAS JUST arrived with a carload of the finest assortment of fresh milch cows. 1016 North Fifth avenue west.

FOR SALE—A CARLOAD OF FRESH milch cows has just arrived for S. M. Kaner, 1217 East Seventh street. Both phones.

FOR SALE—FRESH MILCH COWS, 217 North Fifty-fourth avenue west.

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—LAST NIGHT, GOLD LOCKET and chain between Thirty-eighth and Twenty-fourth avenue west. Call Lincoln 261-L. Reward.

LOST—FOX TERRIER, BLACK FACE and round black spot on back. Return to 316 South Nineteenth avenue east. Reward.

LOST—PURSE CONTAINING ROWling medal and chain. Call Melrose 2095.

POULTRY AND EGGS.

Park & Pollard's poultry feeds are the best. Scratch feed, egg mash, growing feed, etc.; wheat, corn, etc. Get price list. Tessman Bros. Co., 26-40 E. Mich. St.

WANTED TO BORROW.

WANTED TO BORROW—$2,500 ON first mortgage, centrally located, well improved, rented property; interest 6 per cent per annum. Write Y 685, Herald.

TIMBER LANDS.

TIMBER AND CUT-OVER LANDS bought; mortgage loans made. John Q. A. Crosby, 305 Palladio building.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.

Fine farm land to exchange for improved property anywhere. Arnold Co., Superior, Wis.

UPHOLSTERING.

Furniture, Automobiles — Reasonable price. E. Ott, 112 1st Ave. W. Phones.

WATCHES REPAIRED.

Bring your watch to Garon Bros., to have it repaired right. 217 W. 1st. St.

FOR SALE HOUSES.

—EAST END HOMES.—

$15.00 per month will purchase a 4-room house on East Ninth street car line; modern except heat. Paved street. $200 cash required. Price $2,100.

$15.00 per month will purchase a 7-room house on Nineteenth avenue east with all conveniences except heat. Large lot. $500 cash required. Price reduced from $2,700 to $2,100 for quick sale.

—CENTRAL WEST END HOMES.—

$15.00 per month will purchase a new 4-room cottage with all conveniences except heat on 33-foot lot. $300 cash required. Price $2,100.

$25.00 per month will purchase a two-family dwelling of ten rooms with all conveniences except heat. Nice lot and large barn. $300 cash required. Price only $2,800.

BENJAMIN F. SCHWEIGER CO.,
1932 West Superior St.

—FOR SALE—

A new six-room house on Thirteenth avenue east; modern in every respect; price $4,000; $20 per month and interest will handle; no cash payment required.

Five-room cottage on Twelfth avenue east and Sixth street; oak finish and hardwood floors; price $2,800 on terms to suit.

Five-room cottage on fifty-foot lot on Ninth street; price $1,350; $100 cash and balance like rent will buy it.

A. F. KREAGER,
406-7 Torrey Bldg.

FOR SALE—VERY FINE HOME; SEVen beautiful rooms; oak finish; very large living room with Colonial fireplace; nice dining room, beamed ceiling, oak coving, built-in china closets; nice sewing room downstairs suitable for bedroom; large, complete bathroom on first floor. On the second floor are three fine, large bedrooms and another bathroom; large glass-inclosed sun parlor; full basement; Spence hot water heating plant; lot, 50 by 140 feet; cement walks in yard. Here's an excellent bargain; price, $4,500. Little & Nolte company, Exchange building; night phone Melrose 3430. (27-38)

FOR SALE—VERY FINE NEW MODern brick flat for two families; hot water heat; two plants; laundry; full basement; stone foundation; hardwood floors; plenty of light; place always rented; nice location; walking distance; price $5,650; must have $1,500 cash. Don't inquire unless you have that amount. Little & Nolte Co., Exchange building. (4-1)

FOR SALE—GO YOURSELF AND SEE house No. 1527 South street; it has nice six rooms and bath, gas, electric light, fine electric fixtures, nicely decorated, practically same as new; pay $250 cash, balance $16 per month. Ask us the price, which is very low, or make your own offer. Harris Realty company, Exchange building.

FOR SALE—SACRIFICE FOR QUICK sale, good double house and lot with light and sewer connections in West end, at present rented to two families; also 40-acre farm, five miles from steel plant, with good house; half cleared; five acres tilled, all for $3,000; small cash payment and terms to suit. V 442, care Herald.

FOR SALE — NICE FOUR-ROOM warm house, hardwood floors, electric light; kitchen can be added, making five rooms; full size lot; large woodshed, chicken house and shade trees. 1616 Lake avenue south; $1,200; small payment, balance like rent. Edmont, 18 Third avenue west.

FOR SALE OR TRADE FOR WEST end property, six-room house; lot 50 by 140; bath, sewer, gas, water and electric light; stove heat; Crosley Park; $2,500, $150 down, $20 per month. Call Joseph W. Cumming, Park 110-Y.

FOR SALE—BY OWNER, NEW SIXroom house with lot, house now being under construction, everything modern. Good reasons for selling. 329 North Twenty-eighth avenue west.

FOR SALE—5-ROOM HOUSE, MODern except heat; large lot, near Ninth street car line; owner leaving city; below value if taken this week. Melrose 3530.

FOR SALE—BY OWNER, SIX-ROOM new house, all modern except heat. 713 East Eleventh street.

FOR SALE — A BARGAIN, NICE, six-room house; hot water furnace. 823 Tenth avenue east.

RENT—STORES, OFFICES.

FOR RENT — THREE STORES ON Eighteenth avenue west and Superior street. Rents $15.00, $20.00 and $25.00 per month.

BENJAMIN F. SCHWEIGER CO.,
1932 West Superior St.

FOR RENT—MARCH 1, A SMALL store located at 723 West Superior street; very desirable for light grocery, confectionery or second-hand clothing store; $20.00 per month. F. I. Salter Co., 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT—WORKSHOP, 18 BY 20, two blocks from Y. M. C. A., with electricity, gas, water; $7 per month. Melrose 3788.

FOR RENT—TWO FRONT OFFICES. Christie building. Fireproof.

STOVE REPAIRS.

WE CARRY IN STOCK REPAIRS FOR 10,000 different stoves and ranges. C. F. Wiggerts & Sons, 410 East Sup. St.

JEWELRY REPAIRED.

Have Lange do your repairing right. Cash for old gold. 12 Lake Ave. N.

ADDITIONAL WANTS ON PAGE 20

REAL ESTATE LOANS.

FIRST MORTGAGE LOANS.

We advance funds as needed on first mortgage building loans. Favorable terms.

W. M. PRINDLE & CO.,
Lonsdale Bldg.

MONEY TO LOAN — ANY AMOUNT — Any time. Quick service. Building loans a specialty, 5½ and 6 per cent. Cooley & Underhill, 209-210-211 Exchange building.

CASH ON HAND TO LOAN ON CITY and farm property; any amount, lowest rates, no delay. Northern Title Co., 612 First National Bank building.

MONEY ON HAND TO LOAN. $1,000 to $6,000 "on or before" at 6 per cent. See us first. Wheeler agency, 619 Providence building.

BUILDING LOANS—MONEY ON HAND —no delay. Any amount for business or residence property. L. U. Young, 615 Providence building.

IF YOU OWN A LOT, SEE US ABOUT financing the building of your home. Duluth Lumber Co., Mel. 112, Lin. 112.

Money at Lowest Rates.
Any Amount; No Delay.
Little & Nolte Co., Exchange Bldg.

MONEY TO LOAN—LOANS MADE ON timber and farm lands. John Q. A. Crosby, 305 Palladio building.

MONEY TO LOAN on city property. Stewart G. Collins, 710 Torrey bldg.

For Farm Loans and Farm Lands, see Ebert-Walker Co., 315-16 Torrey bldg.

MONEY TO LOAN—Any amount. Benjamin F. Schweiger, 1932 W. Sup. St.

CITY AND FARM LOANS. WILLIAM C. Sargent, Providence building.

SITUATION WANTED. FEMALE.

SITUATION WANTED — WOMAN wants work by day washing, ironing and general work. Catering. 621 South Sixtieth avenue, West Duluth. Phone Cole 314-Y.

SITUATION WANTED — YOUNG woman speaking Finnish language wants position as clerk in drygoods store; three years' experience. Write S 657, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — PRACTICAL nurse wishes engagement in confinement cases at once; willing to help with light housework. Melrose 4963.

SITUATION WANTED — WOMAN wants work by the day or rooms to take care of; needs work at once. New phone Grand 1263-D.

SITUATION WANTED — BY STENOGrapher; experienced, competent; must have work at once. Write K 679, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — EXPERIenced dressmaker at 213 Third avenue west. Call Melrose 5044.

SITUATION WANTED — AS HOUSEkeeper, by woman with little girl. Write U 687, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—AS HOUSEkeeper, or work in small family. T 670, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—AS HOUSEkeeper, or work in small family. B 694, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — WORK BY day, washing, ironing, cleaning. Melrose 7292.

SITUATION WANTED—ANY KIND OF work by the day. Write G 667, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—WORK BY the day. Melrose 7235.

SITUATION WANTED. MALE.

SITUATION WANTED—BY ELECTRIcian, twenty years' experience in electrical construction and installation, as superintendent or chief electrician, with reliable firm or corporation. Address G 692, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—AS GENERAL mechanic; experienced in mining machinery; ten years in charge; married, sober, industrious; at present employed, but desire change; references. Address C 684, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — HIGH school graduate, 22, bank and other clerical experience, now employed, desires change; lumbering or mining company preferred; best references. Write S 678, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — EXPERIenced machine blacksmith wishes work of any kind; as a blacksmith or machine helper preferred; will go out of town. For interview write H 677, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—BY YOUNG man, any kind of clerical work, after 5 o'clock or Saturday afternoons and Sundays. Address C 669, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—BY YOUNG man clerking in store; experienced; can furnish good references. Write W 651, Herald.

SUMMER RESORTS.

FOR SALE—LARGE CAMP SITES ON beautiful Lake Vermilion; sand bathing beaches, parks, docks, wells, etc.; monthly payments as low as $2, without interest; all sites sold on our "money back" guarantee. Gray-Wertin company, Alworth building.

PROFESSIONAL AND BUSINESS GUIDE

Ready reference of the professional men and leading business firms. Herald readers who do not find the line of business they are seeking will confer a favor by requesting of us the information desired.

CALL 324 FOR REPRESENTATION IN THIS COLUMN

ACCOUNTANTS.

JAMES S. MATTESON,
Certified Public Accountant
(Minnesota and Wisconsin).
700-701 Alworth Building.
Special or periodical audits and investigations. Commercial, mining and municipal accounting systems installed or revised.
Organized permanent staff contains four men licensed by the state of Minnesota as certified public accountants, insuring the highest grade SERVICE to all clients.
Bank references. Charges reasonable. Telephones: Melrose 4700; Grand 71.

—JOHN E. MACGREGOR—
Public Accountant and Auditor,
601 Sellwood Building. Melrose 570.

DAVID QUAIL & COMPANY,
Chartered Accountants,
Certified Public Accountants,
401 Torrey Building, Duluth.
Highest references. Inquiries invited.

AWNINGS, TENTS, PACKSACKS.

Poirier Tent & Awning Co., 413 E. Sup. Both phones. Horse and wagon covers.

Auto Curtains—Duluth Tent & Awning Co., 1608 W. Superior St. Lin. 36.

ASHES, CINDERS, ETC., REMOVED

Ashes, cinders and manure removed. Merrill. Mel. 1360; Grand 1488-X.

BUSINESS CARDS.

Business Cards, 300, $1; Calling Cards, 100, 89c. Kask Printing, 114 E. Sup. St.

CAMERAS AND KODAKS.

—ARCADE CAMERA SHOP—
110 West Superior street. Amateur finishing, kodaks and camera supplies.

CARPET CLEANING WORKS.

INTERSTATE CARPET CLEANING CO. 1908 West Michigan St. Both phones.

CHIMNEY SWEEP.

ED McCARTY, CHIMNEY SWEEP AND furnace cleaning. Call Lakeside 46-L.

KNUDSEN, chimney sweep and furnace cleaner. Mel. 46. Fire headquarters.

DANCING ACADEMY.

Ryan's—The school that makes good dancers. Classes: Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays. Call Mel. 4618.

COFFIN'S ACADEMY—Classes Monday, Tuesday and Thursday. Either phone.

FURS REMODELED, REPAIRED.

HAVE YOUR FUR WORK DONE AT Wm. F. Bordasch, 417 Second Ave. E. Phones: Melrose 2236; Grand 199.

FRENCH DRY CLEANERS.

PHONE 1245 AND OUR AUTO WILL call. Prompt attention to out-of-town orders. East End Dry Cleaners.

FURNITURE RE-COVERED.

Let Forsell do your UPHOLSTERING. 334 E. Superior street. Both phones.

FLORIST AND NURSERYMAN.

Duluth Floral Co., wholesale, retail; cut flowers, funeral designs. 121 W. Sup.

FUNERAL DIRECTOR.

OLSEN & HOPPENYAN, 2014 W. Sup. St.; Lincoln 10; Melrose 7620.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

A. Haakonsen, dealer and expert repairing, at J. W. Nelson's, 5 East Superior street.

Pianos, violins, victorias, sheet music, etc. Boston Music company.

OPTOMETRIST AND OPTICIAN.

CONSULT A. L. NORBERG, OPTOMETrist and optician, 201½ West First street, for economical buying and correct fitting of glasses; satisfaction guaranteed. We grind our own lenses. Established in business 1891. Registered by examination 1901.

PIANOS REPAIRED AND TUNED.

—THE PIANO SHOP—
Tuning, finishing and repairing. Gregory & Kristensen, 1805 W. Superior St. Melrose 5621; Lincoln 295-X.

DULUTH PIANO REPAIR FACTORY, alley entrance, 312½ W. 1st. Mel. 464.

PATENTS.

All about Patents; consultation free. S. Geo. Stevens, 716 Fidelity. Mel. 3124.

PLUMBING.

THE SANITARY PLUMBING CO., 34 W. First St., plumbing and heating.

WINDOW CLEANING.

National Window Cleaning Co., expert in cleaning woodwork, wall paper, marble, etc. Our work must prove satisfactory, prices reasonable. Mel. 680.

TYPEWRITERS.

Slightly used Underwoods, Olivers, Smiths, Remingtons and Royals, $18 up. Rented $2 a month. Three months' rental applied on purchase. Send for list. Duluth Typwriter company, 319 West First street, Duluth, Minn.

MONEY TO LOAN.

—$10 OR MORE—
LOANED TO ANYONE
On furniture, pianos, etc., or holding a steady position, at rates honest people are willing to pay. See us first and get a square deal. Money in your hands in few hours' time. Low rates. Easy payments. DULUTH LOAN COMPANY, 307 Columbia Bldg., 303 W. Sup. St. Hours: 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.; Wednesday and Saturday to 8 p. m. Melrose 2355; Grand 1224.

MONEY TO LOAN.

From One to Ten Monthly Payments. On Furniture, etc., at Lowest Rates. Example of Cost Per Month:

$15, if paid in	1 month	$0.90
" " "	3 months	0.70
" " "	5 months	0.44
$25, if paid in	1 month	1.10
" " "	3 months	0.95
" " "	5 months	0.80
$50, if paid in	1 month	2.25
" " "	3 months	1.60
" " "	5 months	1.25

Charges on other amounts in proportion. Even lower rates on jewelry, etc. DULUTH REMEDIAL LOAN ASS'N, 401 First National Bank Bldg.

—MONEY TO LOAN—
ON SALARIES, ON CHATTELS.
OUR RATES ARE LOWEST.
Borrow $10.00, you pay back $11.00.
Borrow $20.00, you pay back $21.75.
Borrow $30.00, you pay back $32.50.
Borrow $40.00, you pay back $43.25.
Other amounts in proportion.
DULUTH FINANCE CO.,
301 Palladio Bldg.
Open Wednesday and Saturday evening until 9 o'clock. Both phones.

WE LOAN ON ALL KINDS OF PERsonal security at lowest rates. Call on us. Duluth Mortgage Loan Co., W. Horkan. New 1598-D; Melrose 3733.

Loans on watches, diamonds, guns, etc. Keystone Loan Co., 22 W. Superior St.

BOATS & MOTORBOATS.

FOR SALE—CHEAP; SIXTEEN-FOOT launch. Call Cole 400 or 400-D.

FARM & MINERAL LANDS.

FOR SALE—EIGHTY ACRES GOOD land one mile from railroad, twenty-two miles from city; would make a good farm; must sell; make offer. W. H. Locker, 505 Lonsdale Bldg.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—COUPLE good farms, North Dakota, for income property; deal with owner; no commissions. Write Z 661, Herald.

WANTED TO RENT—FARM, EITHER grain or gardening; prefer to buy later. R. Hebbe, 655 Madison street NE., Minneapolis, Minn.

I BUY AND SELL LANDS AND TIMber. George Rupley, 612 Lyceum Bldg.

RAILROAD TIME TABLES.

Duluth & Iron Range Rail Road.

"Vermilion Route."

DULUTH—	Leave.	Arrive.
Knife River, Two Harbors, Tower, Ely, Winton, Aurora, Biwabik, McKinley Sparta, Eveleth, Gilbert, Virginia.	* 7:30a.m. † 3:15p.m. ‡11:30p.m.	†11:30a.m. * 5:30p.m. ‡10:15p.m. x10:45p.m.

*—Daily. †—Daily except Sunday. ‡—Mixed train leaves daily from Fifteenth Avenue East Station. §—Mixed train arrives daily except Sunday at Fifteenth Avenue East Station. x—Arrives Union Depot Sunday only.

DULUTH, MISSABE & NORTHERN RAILWAY.

Office: 426 West Superior St., Phones, 969.

Leave.		Arrive.
*7:40am	Hibbing, Chisholm, Virginia, Eveleth, Coleraine, Sharon, Mountain Iron, Sparta, Biwabik.	* 3:21pm
*9:50pm	Hibbing, Chisholm, Sharon, Virginia, Eveleth, Coleraine.	*10:31am
*7:50pm	Virginia, Chisholm Hibbing.	*10:40pm

*—Daily. †—Daily except Sunday. ‡—Except Biwabik.

Cafe Observation Car, Missabe Range Points. Solid Vestibuled Train.

DULUTH & NORTHERN MINNESOTA RAILWAY.

Office, 510 Lonsdale Bldg., Duluth.

Trains connect at Knife River daily (except Sunday) with D. & I. R. trains leaving Duluth at 7:30 a. m., arriving at Duluth (Endion) at 10:15 p. m. Connect at Cramer with Grand Marais stage when running.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

WANT AD RATES AND INFORMATION

1c a word per day; $1 per line per month. Display classified, 72c per inch per day.

No ad taken for less than 15c.

CHARGE WANT ADS will not be run longer than seven days without renewal order.

ALL CHARGE WANT ADS are due and payable the same day first insertion of ad appears. All out-of-town want ads are cash in advance. Mail orders given prompt attention. Address all letters to Want Ad Department.

CLOSING HOURS—Want ads to be classified properly must be in The Herald office by 11:30 a. m. on the day ad is to be run. Want ads received after closing hour will be inserted under the heading, "Too Late to Classify."

TELEPHONE WANT ADS are charged at the same rate as cash ads and collection will be made at your home or office as soon as possible thereafter. This is an accommodation service and payment should be made promptly when the bill is presented so as to avoid further annoyance and to aid the efficiency of our service. Always ask that your telephone ad be repeated back to you by the telephone ad taker to make sure that it has been correctly taken.

BLIND ADS—No answers to blind ads will be given unless ticket is presented at time of request. Always save ticket showing key number when placing blind ads. Herald employes are not permitted to tell who any advertiser is. Answers to out-of-town blind ads will be forwarded without extra cost.

THE HERALD desires to give the best service to its readers and advertisers. If you desire any suggestion as to the wording of your ad, call the Want Ad Department.

HERALD TELEPHONE NUMBERS

BUSINESS OFFICE
324 EITHER LINE.
Ask for the Want Ad Department.
NEWS DEPARTMENT
1126 EITHER LINE.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—AN EXPERIENCED MINing superintendent, preferably a technical graduate with considerable experience handling Minnesota labor and mining hard ore, to take charge of pioneer quarry operations. Write, giving full particulars to B 673, Herald.

WANTED—YOUNG MAN, BE A BARber. We teach you cheaply and thoroughly and furnish tools free. Write or call for free catalogue R. Modern Barber college, 20½ East Superior street, Duluth, or 333 East Seventh street, St. Paul, Minn.

LEARN TELEGRAPHY, RAILROAD, commercial, wireless; also touch typewriting; earn board while learning. Write for free catalog. American Telegraph college, Minneapolis, Minn.

WANTED — WOODSMEN FOR ALL kinds of woods work; also cordwood choppers and piece makers; there is very little snow down here. I. Stephenson Co., trustees, Wells, Mich.

WANTED — YOUNG MAN 17 OR 18 years old for work in office; must be high school graduate; salary $7.50 per week; good chances for advancement. Write P 668, Herald.

WANTED — 500 HUNTERS TO KNOW we loan money on rifles, shotguns, revolvers; will hold till next season before sold. Keystone Loan company, 22 West Superior street.

WANTED—RAGTIME PLAYING POSItively taught in twenty lessons. Send for free booklet. Leffingwell schools, Manager J. L. Denver, 32 West Second street. 7720 Melrose.

WANTED—GOVERNMENT POSITIONS are easy to get. My free booklet B. Y. 362 tells how. Write today—Now. Earl Hopkins, Washington, D. C.

U. S. government wants clerks; $100 month; Duluth examinations April 12; sample questions free. Franklin Institute, Dept. 186 M. Rochester, N. Y.

WANTED—YOUR DULL RAZOR TO grind, 25c; no cut, no pay. Monahan, barber, Twenty-second avenue west and Superior street.

WANTED—MACHINIST, FIRST-CLASS lathe hand, steady work and good wages to right man, local shop. Write Z 682, Herald.

WANTED—A DRAFTSMAN FOR short time with possibility of longer engagement. Write L 675, Herald.

WANTED—CHEMIST WITH EXPErience in iron ore analyses. Write state experience to U 674, Herald.

WANTED — EXPERIENCED SALESman, Finnish preferred. Inquire Fifth Avenue Clothing company.

WANTED — SHORT ORDER COOK, Tourist hotel and cafe. 305 North Central avenue, West Duluth.

WANTED — BARBER; WAGES $16 and half over $26. William Hasselblad, Ely, Minn., Box 587.

WANTED—CASH PAID FOR diamonds. Watches repaired, $1. 5 S. 5th Av. W.

WANTED — BOY AT MERCHANTS Mercantile Co. 106 West First street.

Wanted—Appearance counts; your suit pressed while U wait. 2 Lyceum Bldg.

BILL WRITE, EVERYTHING ALL right. We are going West. Toxie.

WANTED TO BUY.

WANTED TO BUY—HEATERS AND ranges; we will pay good prices or exchange for new furniture. East End Furniture company, 120 East Superior street. Phone Grand 2013-X.

WANTED TO BUY—WILL PAY CASH for cheap cut-over lands; St. Louis, Lake or Cook county. Address, Y 558, Herald office.

WANTED TO BUY—SLIGHTLY USED 5-passenger car or runabout; state price, name and year of car. Write R 693, Herald.

WANTED TO BUY—SECOND-HAND butcher's fixtures. Call at Herald branch, 1823 West Superior street.

WANTED TO BUY—100 YOUNG PIGS and ten calves on or before April 1. James Leary, 342 Lake avenue south.

WE PURCHASE REAL ESTATE CONtracts, mortgages and notes. Northern Equities Co., 612 1st Nat. Bank Bldg.

IS YOUR FARM FOR SALE? IF SO, see us. We have buyers. Cant & McLean, First National Bank Bldg.

WILL BUY PARTIALLY IMPROVED farm. State price, location, etc., in first letter. Address A 927, Herald.

WANTED TO BUY — LARGE OR small tract of land for investment. Address I 69, Herald.

H. Popkin buys stoves and furniture. Grand 2337-A. Melrose 1482.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED.

Experienced saleslady for wash goods department. Apply at

FREIMUTH'S.

LEARN TO CUT AND MAKE YOUR own waists and dresses. You can easily do it after taking the course in practical instruction. Make clothes while learning. Miss Gray's school, 3d floor, Geo. A. Gray Co. Also all sizes and styles of patterns cut to measure.

WANTED—AT NOPEMING SANATOrium, young woman, preferably a high school graduate to take a year of hospital training in nursing; wages $20 per month with board and laundry. Address Superintendent of Nurses, Nopeming, Minn.

WANTED—LADIES TO SEW INSOLES; good pay weekly; no canvassing; goods cut ready for machine; transportation paid. Address with stamped envelope. No-ak Insoles, Danville, 14.

WANTED — BY MARCH 12, GOOD all round cook who can take charge of kitchen, $60 per month; also second cook, $25 per month. Adelphi hotel, 2801 West Superior street.

WANTED—A COMPETENT HOUSEkeeper to take care of small home on the range; must also take care of a 14-month-old baby; state wages expected. Write S 689, Herald.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework, family of three; must be willing; good home to right party. 630 Fifty-ninth avenue, West Duluth. Cole 14-D.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework; Scandinavian preferred; will consider newcomer. Call Melrose 497. 411 Eighteenth avenue east.

WANTED—YOUNG GIRL TO ASSIST in housework; small family; work not hard, and good comfortable room. Call 2123 Sussex avenue, Kenilworth park.

WANTED—EXPERIENCED STENOGrapher for law office in Superior. Address 16 Columbia building, Superior, Wis., or phone Broad 661.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Inquire 605 North Fifty-sixth avenue west. Call Cole 36-X. Must live in West Duluth.

WANTED — FOR PRIVATE HOME, young woman as managing housekeeper; widower, out-of-town. Apply Room 34, Elgin hotel.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework; small family. Lakeside 94-L. Mrs. W. K. McLennan, 5815 East Superior street.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework, one who can cook. Mrs. John Wertin, 1510 East Third street.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Apply Mrs. J. R. Zweifel, 4231 McCulloch street. Lakeside 273-K.

WANTED—GOVERNMENT POSITIONS open to women; $75 month. Franklin Institute, dept. 645 M., Rochester, N.Y.

WANTED—GIRL TO HELP WITH light housework for room and board, small wages. 215 Ninth avenue east.

WANTED—EXPERIENCED GIRL FOR general housework; best wages. 1130 Seventh avenue east. Grand 2134-D.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework; good cook; two in family. 1510 East Second street.

WANTED — THOROUGHLY COMPEtent maid; two in family. Mrs. R. N. Chaffee, 2122 East Fourth street.

WANTED — COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework. Apply 1614 East Third street. References required.

WANTED — NURSEMAID; YOUNG girl who will go home nights preferred. 1123 East First street.

WANTED—GIRL TO ASSIST WITH housework and take care of children. Apply 725 East Second street.

WANTED AT ONCE—GOOD GIRL FOR general housework. Apply mornings, 1508 East Third street.

WANTED AT ONCE—COMPETENT maid for general housework. 1124 East Superior street.

WANTED — EXPERIENCED GIRL for general housework. 1914 East First street.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework. 414 East Third street.

WANTED—KITCHEN GIRL. SMITH'S Lunch, Room 321 East Superior street.

WANTED—COMPETENT COOK; REFerences required. 2324 East Fifth street.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Apply 1412 East Third street.

WANED — HOUSEKEEPER. CALL Calumet 92-L, Cole 299 or Cole 224-Y.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. 1822 East Third street.

WANTED — KITCHEN GIRL. PALmer house. 108 West First street.

WANTED—GOOD GIRL AT 131 WEST Third street. Mrs. O. J. Hunt.

WANTED — GIRLS AT ACME LAUNdry. 219 West First street.

WANTED—WOMAN COOK. CALL 607 West Superior street.

HORSES, VEHICLES. ETC.

HORSES—GUARANTEED—HORSES.

We have everything in the horse line. Country bought, free from the diseases of the city markets. Always glad to show stock; always give a written guarantee; always give square deal. Part time if desired.

TWIN PORTS HORSE MARKET,
W. E. BARKER, Prop.,
18 First Avenue W.

DRAFT AND DELIVERY HORSES, FARM MARES, GENERAL PURPOSE HORSES.

All our horses are Minnesota raised. Sales made on time if desired. Buy from an established dealer. Also, we guarantee every horse to be as represented.

ZENITH SALE STABLE.
MOSES GOLDBERG, Prop.,
524 West First Street,
Two blocks from union depot.

HORSES HORSES HORSES

If in the market for horses be sure and see our offerings. We have from 200 to 300 head constantly on hand. Part time given if desired. Barrett & Zimmerman, Duluth Horse Market, Twenty-third avenue west and Superior street. H. J. Walt, manager.

FOR SALE—TEAM OF NICE BLOCKY mares; weight about 3,200 lbs., 5 years old, well matched; can be bought at a bargain; part time given if necessary. 608 North Fifty-sixth avenue west; right beside fire hall, West Duluth; Cole 301, Calumet 280-L.

FOR SALE—FOURTEEN-FOOT BOBsled, large gong, two sets brakes, steering wheel, $25. Write F 681, Herald.

FOR SALE—CHEAP, TEAM BAY horses; weight 2,600; first class condition. Call Lincoln 355-A.

WARM HOUSES, FURNISHED AND UNFURNISHED, ARE OFFERED FOR RENT IN THE HERALD "WANT" AD COLUMNS.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

PERSONAL.

—A MASTER SERVICE—

The Yale method of dry cleaning is recommended to you by the National Association of Dyers and Cleaners. To become a member of this association it was required of us to have a fully equipped, up-to-date standard dry cleaning establishment; consider these facts when you need the service of dry cleaners; insist on having your work done by master cleaners. Our wagon will call when you phone 2442. Yale laundry and French dry cleaners.

PERSONAL—R. D. HARDY COMPANY, scalp specialists, second floor, Fergusson block, Fourth avenue west and Superior street. Successful in baldness and all greasy and scaly conditions which cause premature grayness and the fall of the hair. Telephone Melrose 2523 for appointment.

PERSONAL—NEWLY WEDS! BUY your furniture now even though you can pay only a little down, pay the balance monthly. Big discounts on hundreds of pieces of furniture. Anderson Furniture company, Twenty-first avenue west and Superior St.

PERSONAL—A WIDOW, 50, LIVING in city, would like to meet honest Protestant gentleman; no objections to farmer or small hotel owner, either in or out of city; object, matrimony; no triflers need answer. Write P 691, Herald.

PERSONAL—Ladies! Ask your druggist for Chichester Pills, the Diamond Brand, for 25 years known as best, safest, always reliable. Take no other. Chichester Diamond Brand Pills are sold by druggists everywhere.

PERSONAL—HARRY HAGADORN, IF you pay your own bills you will have plenty to do, as for me, I always have paid, and expect to pay my own bills. Mrs. Hagadorn, 817 East Second street.

PERSONAL—Get away from washday troubles by sending your family wash to us, 5½c per pound. Lutes' laundry, 808 East Second street. Phone us, Grand 447; Melrose 447.

PERSONAL—IF YOU LIKE TO DRAW we will show you how to make money in your spare time; state age and where employed; confidential. Write X 680, Herald.

PERSONAL—WIL MISS M. GUNN, who had crystal put into bracelet watch, Saturday, Feb. 19, at Erd's jewelry store, please call at store at once.

Unexcelled hairdressing, facial massage and beauty treatments. Also corns and bunions treated. Mrs. Dr. Bahr, Comfort Beauty Parlors, 109 Oak hall.

Madam Moisan, toupee specialist; long established; work guaranteed; toupees protect from colds and neuralgia; switches made up. 215½ W. 1st.

MADE-TO-MEASURE Shirts, Underwear, Raincoats, Neckties, Suit or O'Coat, $18. Ladies' Suits, spring selections. C. N. Hamilton, 315 E. Sup St.

Personal—Boyce's soda fountain under new management; light lunches; all home-cooking; sanitation and service the best in city. E. H. McAllister, prop.

PERSONAL—WILL MISS M. GUNN, who had crystal put on brace watch Feb. 19, 1916, at Erd's Jewelry store, please call at store.

PERSONAL LOANS ON DIAMONDS, $100 and up, at 1 per cent a month. Keystone Loan Co., 22 W. Superior St.

Personal—Lena E. Pierce, successor to Mrs. E. H. Lower; corns, bunions, ingrown nails treated, also chilblains. 22-23 Mesaba blk. Mel. 1470; Gr. 242.

Personal—Medicated salt baths, shampoo and massage. Anna Manthey, 27 E. Sup. st., flat 4. Mel. 5498. Resident appointments solicited.

2x3 photos in attractive folders; three for 25c; special value. Brown's Photo studio. 221 West Superior St.

PERSONAL—FOR CLEAN WORK AND good service come to McKay hotel barber shop, under new management.

MASSAGE—MARGARET NELSON, 218 W. Superior St., room 8, third floor. Also appointments at your home.

PERSONAL—WIDOW WOULD LIKE small child to board. Call Melrose 2629.

PERSONAL—Ladies, have your suits made at Miller Bros., 405 E. Sup. St.

PERSONAL — FOR SICK PEOPLE—flowers. Duluth Floral company.

Hair, moles, warts removed by electricity; manicuring. Miss Kelly hair shop

Personal—Effective scalp treatment. Mrs. Vogt's Hair Shop, 105 W. Sup. St.

Personal—Combings and cut hair made into beautiful switches. Knauf Sisters.

WALL PAPER.

Experienced and reliable paper-hanger will furnish new and up-to-date patterns and paper an ordinary-sized room for $4.50. Painting and tinting neatly done; prompt and satisfactory work guaranteed. Decorator, 31 W. Second St. Mel. 4303; Grand 596-X.

FLORIST.

Duluth Floral Co., wholesale, retail, cut flowers, funeral designs, 121 W. Sup.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

ADDITIONAL WANTS ON PAGE 19

FOR RENT—ROOMS.

—HALEY'S NEW HOTEL—
417 and 419 West Superior Street,

Will make special rates for the winter. All outside rooms, with hot and cold running water in each room. Everything new; free baths. Haley's restaurant in connection.

—THE NEW ALEXANDRIA—

A few desirable rooms now vacant at special winter rates; well-heated and comfortable apartments. Private telephone in every room. Dining room in connection. 322 W. Second St.

—METROPOLE HOTEL—

101-5 Lake avenue south; hot and cold running water in every room; steam heat and other modern conveniences; rates $2 per week and up.

—ELGIN HOTEL—

Nicely furnished, steam-heated rooms; best beds in the city; running water; very reasonable winter rates. 321 West First street.

MELROSE HOTEL,

318 West Second street, well-heated, pleasant rooms and board at special winter rates. Mel. 4301; Grand 2166-X.

The New Mitchell hotel—Rooms newly furnished and decorated; also suite of rooms; all conveniences; rates reasonable. 28 East Second St. Mel. 3357.

THE MARYLAND HOTEL, 310 EAST Superior street; steam-heated, modern rooms, $1.75 per week and up.

LA SALLE HOTEL—12-14 Lake Ave. north Cozy, warm rooms with hot and cold water. Special low rates.

—ZENITH HOTEL—

12 First Ave., east. Furnished rooms, steam-heated; $1.50 per week and up.

FOR RENT — TWO COSY FRONT rooms; housekeeping privileges; two closets; bath and phone; also room with large pantry and kitchen. 313 Second avenue west.

SINCE 1912 WE HAVE SAVED MONEY for hotels and rooming houses on their linens. We sell at wholesale. J. G. Valentine & Co., 8 E. First St.

FOR RENT—TWO NICE HOME-LIKE rooms, neatly furnished; all conveniences. Call Melrose 1914 or Flat I, San Marco apartments.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOM FOR light housekeeping, nice and warm, one-half block from courthouse. 528 West Second street.

FOR RENT — TWO NICE, LARGE, heated rooms; furnished for light housekeeping; all conveniences. 310 West Third street.

FOR RENT — NICELY FURNISHED rooms for housekeeping in modern private home. 328 Third avenue west.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOMS FOR light housekeeping; $2.50 per week and up. 16 East Superior street.

FOR RENT—TWO FRONT FURNISHed rooms for housekeeping, private family. 326 East First street.

FOR RENT—UNFURNISHED, STEAM heated living room; reasonable. 313 West Superior street.

FOR RENT — TWO LIGHT HOUSEkeeping rooms; steam heat. 16 West Second street, Flat A.

FOR RENT — TWO FURNISHED rooms for light housekeeping. 229 Fourth avenue west.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOM, suitable for two gentlemen. 1615 Piedmont avenue.

FOR RENT—NICELY FURNISHED front room, 502½ East Fourth street, Flat B.

FOR RENT—THREE ROOMS. 118 West Fourth street.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOMS. 118 Third avenue west.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE

WANTED — RELIABLE PARTIES with the ability to sell steel plant lots can secure a very favorable contract for the exclusive sale of a new steel plant addition, well located; low prices on lots and liberal commissions. Call or write J. P. Rossman, Torrey building, Duluth, Minn.

FOR SALE—FINE LOT AT LAKEside, 50x140, all improvements in, one block from street car; $560.00. W. A. Hicken, lands, loans and insurance, 401 Palladio building.

FOR SALE — CITY PROPERTY, houses and lots; farms and timber land. O. G. Olson, 314 Columbia Bldg.

FOR SALE—FIFTY-FOOT LOT IN Kenilworth Park; make an offer. Write, E 683, Herald.

DRESSMAKING.

WANTED—PLAIN AND FANCY SEWing; also children's clothes, by the day. Call after 5:30 evenings. Melrose 4112.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

FOR RENT—FLATS.

FOR RENT—MARCH 10, A FIVEroom and alcove flat in brick building located on Fifth avenue west just above Fourth street; thoroughly modern; hot water heating plant; very desirable; $29.00 per month. For further information call F. I. Salter Co., 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT—$15, A 3-ROOM FLAT IN brick building, No. 15½ West First street; water, sewer, gas, electric lights and toilet; stove heat; a bargain. F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT—THREE-ROOM FLAT, $8; 4-room flat, $12.50; hardwood floors throughout, sewer, gas, water and electric lights; centrally located. Chas. P. Meyers, 611 Alworth Bldg.

FOR RENT—HEATED SEVEN-ROOM flat in Dacey apartments with water, heat and janitor service. Call Melrose or Grand 423.

FOR RENT—FINE SIX-ROOM FLAT with all conveniences and furnace; rent $20 per month. Apply 326½ East Sixth street.

FOR RENT—FOUR-ROOM FLAT, NICE large rooms; 1028 East Tenth street; modern except heat; $15 per month. Key downstairs.

FOR RENT—FOUR-ROOM FLAT, 219 East Fifth street, bath; $15 per month. William C. Sargent, Providence building.

FOR RENT — SUNNY FIVE-ROOM flat; modern except heat; nice location. 1111 East Second street.

FOR RENT—FIRST FLOOR, FOURroom flat at 26 East Second street. Apply 5 East Superior street.

FOR RENT — MODERN SIX-ROOM flat; $30 per month; water paid. Apply 517 Fourth avenue east.

FOR RENT—FIVE-ROOM HEATED flat. 314 Second avenue east. Melrose 4448, Grand 1936-D.

FOR RENT—SIX ROOM FLAT, HOT water furnace and all conveniences. 829 West Third street

FOR RENT—LIGHT, SUNNY, FIVEroom flat; modern except heat. 219 West Sixth street.

FOR RENT—FOUR-ROOM FLAT, ALL conveniences; rent reasonable. Call Melrose 4617.

FOR RENT—SIX-ROOM FLAT; ALL modern; heat furnished. 27½ West Fourth street.

FOR RENT—CHEAP; MODERN FIVEroom basement. 706 East Fifth street.

FOR RENT—HOUSES.

—FOR RENT—
By Massachusetts Real Estate Co.,
18 Phoenix Building.

Fine six-room brick house; every convenience; only $32.50 per month.

A seven-room brick house, entirely modern, at 631 East Fourth street; $37.50 per month.

401½ East Fourth street, four-room flat with bath, on corner; plenty of light; only $16.50 per month.

FOR RENT—THREE-ROOM FLAT, $8; 4-room flat, $12.50; hardwood floors throughout, sewer, gas, water and electric lights; centrally located. Chas. P. Meyers, 611 Alworth Bldg.

FOR RENT—A SIX-ROOM MODERN house centrally located, which has hot water heating plant; $35.00 per month. F. I. Salter Co., 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT—SIX-ROOM HOUSE. 310 West Fifth street; modern except heat. Inquire rental department Bridgeman & Russell company.

FOR RENT — FIVE-ROOM HOUSE; modern except heat; Park Point. Inquire Edmont, 18 Third avenue west.

FOR RENT—MODERN SEVEN-ROOM house, 2711 West Third street. Inquire at 2819 West Superior street.

FOR RENT—NOS. 1718 AND 1720 EAST Superior street. E. P. Alexander.

FOR RENT — MODERN SIX-ROOM house. 834 East Second street.

AUTOS & MOTORCYCLES.

98 PER CENT OF AUTO BUYERS READ THE DULUTH HERALD.

The names in which automobile licenses are issued have been checked with The Duluth's Herald subscription lists, and it was found that 98 out of every 100 people who buy cars read The Duluth Herald.

If you have a car for sale or trade, offer it in this automobile column and you will reach practically every one who will buy.

OXY-ACETYLENE WELDING, CUTting and carbon burning; all work guaranteed satisfactory or no charge, 99½ per cent pure oxygen for sale. Duluth Gas & Welding Co., 2110-2112 West Michigan St. Mel. 7064; Lin. 643.

BRING US YOUR OLD CASINGS. Tires lockstitched and double-treaded. We can get 1,000 to 5,000 miles more wear out of them for you at small cost. Herlan & Merling, 105 West First street, Duluth. Melrose 4658.

AUTO CYLINDERS REBORED, NEW pistons and rings made; accurate workmanship; prices right. Zollner Machine works, 314-16 West First street, alley entrance. Melrose 80.

Equip your car with V radiator and hood; allowance for old radiator. Johnson Auto Supply, 338 E. Superior

Eastern Auto Radiator works—Also all auto metal work done. 336 East Superior street. Phone Grand 2323.

YOUR CAR REPAIRED AT YOUR garage; A-1 mechanics. Harrison & Son, Mel. 6542; 2721 Huron street.

BUSINESS CHANCES.

BUSINESS CHANCE—A SMALL, NEW hotel, newly furnished, for sale, reasonable; account ill health; steam heat; all modern; rooms all full. Main Hotel, Crosby, Minn.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—GOOD-PAYing business for cash or income property; bank reference; deal with owner; no commissions. Write B 588, Herald.

BUSINESS CHANCES — ROOMING house for rent; all rooms rented; will sell furniture in lot or in pieces; party leaving town. Write V 676, Herald.

BUSINESS CHANCES—WANTED TO hear from owner of good business for sale; state cash price and particulars. D. F. Bush, Minneapolis, Minn.

BUSINESS CHANCES — FOR SALE bakery and confectionery, small amount of money will handle deal, low rent. Write, F 596, Herald.

WANTED TO RENT.

WANTED TO RENT—FOUR OR FIVEroom house or cottage with large lot, walking distance from high school or on Ninth street car line. Write W 672, Herald.

WANTED TO RENT—SMALL, FURnished room; central; no objection to having it used when away; will pay $5 month. Write K 690, Herald.

WANTED TO RENT—TWO OR THREE neatly furnished, heated rooms with board. Melrose 772.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

SALE—MISCELLANEOUS

—SPECIAL LOW PRICES—
ON DINING ROOM TABLES.

All styles and finishes. $7.85 and upward.
Big selection to choose from.
ENGER & OLSON,
Nineteenth Ave. W. and Sup. St.

—NOTICE—

Will sell either to dealers on thirty days' time, or direct to retail trade on installment plan, or exchange for other useful merchandise, a number of used coal ranges, gas ranges and bench wringers; all these have been carefully rebuilt with new parts where necessary and are almost as good as new; we find that we are overstocked on same and are willing to sacrifice on price.
BELLNET INSTALLMENT CO.,
202 East Superior St.

——BREAK AWAY——

From the extravagant habit of paying rent on furniture. Furnish your own rooms now at our annual clearance sale. If you are married and living in a light housekeeping suite, you should investigate the big value we are offering in 3-room outfits at $69; terms $1.50 per week. F. S. Kelly Furniture Co., 17 and 19 West Superior street.

TALKING MACHINES — LARGEST stock in the city. Complete outfits at special prices. Be sure you get the New Columbia Grafonola; awarded three grand prizes and two gold medals at the world's fair; double-faced records 65 cents; ask for catalogues free; only exclusive talking machine store in Duluth, largest stock. Edmont, 18 Third avenue west.

WONDERFULLY BIG BARGAINS IN pianos. We are closing out entire stock to remodel the showrooms. $275 piano $125; $350 now $165; $750 player piano now $325; cash or on payments. Korby Piano Co., 26 Lake Av. N.

FOR SALE—CLOSING OUT ESTATE—Full set office furniture, Royal typewriter, desk and chair, roll-top desk and chair, sectional and revolving bookcases, filing cabinets, tables, couch and chairs; will sell all or any part. Call Grand 509.

FOR SALE—AT BIG BARGAIN, THE new $375 piano I won in News Tribune contest. You can select player-piano or baby grand. Cash or terms. Call or write N. S. Mitchell, 102 Manhattan building, Duluth.

AT WHOLESALE TO HOTELS AND rooming houses, table linens, bedding, towels, crashes, curtains, etc. No extra charge for marking. Zenith Dry Goods Co., 126 East First street.

SAFES AND SAFE-CABINETS.
All sizes, new and second-hand, at reasonable prices. Get our list before buying. Safe-Cabinet company, 316 West First street. Melrose 1364.

FOR SALE—12-HORSE POWER GASoline engine, in good condition, cheap. Inquire at Bartlett, Minn., on Canadian Northern railroad. Henry Nesgoda.

FOR SALE — CAMERON FURNITURE Company will save you 50 per cent on quality furniture for the home. Salesrooms 2110-2112 West Superior street.

FOR SALE—Second-hand woodworking machinery, portable sawmill, transmission appliances, pipes for steam, water and furnaces. Duluth Mach. Co.

FOR SALE—LEAVING TOWN, WILL sell cheap, square piano, sewing machine, tables, chairs, beds, chiffonier, book case, etc. 1115 East First street.

FOR SALE — DRY HARDWOOD, sawed or split and delivered. Grand 1576-D. James Leary, care of Gospel mission, Lake avenue south.

FOR SALE—PLATE GLASS FLOOR showcase, practically new, will be sold cheap. Call or write Miss Horrigan, Oak Hall building.

FOR SALE—BOOM CHAINS, ½ INCH or ⅝ inch toggle chains, ⅝ and ¾ inch double chains. T. J. Welsh & Co., Leech Lake, Minn.

FOR SALE—FOR $25—NEW SET OF John L. Stoddard Lectures, 14 vols., leather bound. Melrose 5386. 2726 West Fourth street.

FOR SALE — LEATHER UPHOLstered bed davenport, practically new; cheap for quick sale. Phone Melrose 1540.

FOR SALE—HOUSEHOLD GOODS and furniture including range and two gas plates. 226 Second avenue east.

FOR SALE—16-INCH MAPLE AND birch wood, $7 per cord. Gus Carlson, 2205 West First street; Lincoln 463.

FOR SALE—OAK DINING ROOM SET, good condition, very reasonable. 131 West Fourth street; Melrose 4924.

FOR SALE—PLAYER PIANO, WITH music, at a bargain; easy payments. Edmont, 18 Third avenue west.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE OF TWOroom flat; leaving city. 23 Phoenix block annex; Melrose 6176.

FOR SALE—TWO IRON BEDS AND springs, very cheap. 1901 East Fifth street. Evenings.

FOR SALE—ONE SMALL LUMBER planer. Call Melrose 4099, two rings, or Park 280-A.

FOR SALE—THOROUGHBRED English bulldog, female. Write M 688, Herald.

FOR SALE — FUMED OAK PARLOR and dining room set, 5718 Olney street.

FOR SALE—BUCK RADIANT HEATer. 114 West Fourth street. Call at store.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE, ODDS AND ends at half price. Boston Music Co.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE. 108 SOUTH Twenty-seventh avenue west.

FOR SALE—GOOD COAL HEATER, $8. 608 West Fourth street.

FOR SALE—BABY CARRIAGE. CALL Melrose 4991.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

WANTED.

Preferred or common American Manganese Manufacturing company stock. See me before selling.

W. H. LOCKER,
505 Lonsdale Building.

WANTED TO TRADE GOOD HIGH class dividend paying commercial stock for a good high class make, second hand or new runabout car; must be in first class condition and light weight; will deal with owners only. Write D 686, Herald.

BOARD & ROOM OFFERED.

Room and board in modern home, gentlemen preferred. 114 East Third St.

BOARD AND ROOM, $26 AND $28 PER month. Melrose 7895. Grand 1988-Y.

MODERN FURNISHED ROOMS, WITH board. 218 E. Third St. Mel. 4184.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

DULUTH LODGE NO. 505, LOYAL ORDER of Moose, meets every Tuesday at 8 o'clock, Moose hall, 224 West First street. Carl Schau, secretary, 14 Third avenue east.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

PALESTINE LODGE NO. 73, A. F. & A. M.—Regular meetings first and third Monday evenings of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting, March 6, 1916. Work—Second degree. Clement G. Townsend, W. M.; James S. Matteson, Sec.

IONIC LODGE, NO. 186, A. F. & A. M.—Regular meeting second and fourth Monday evenings of each month at 7:30. Next meeting, Special, Wednesday, March 1, 1916. Work—Second degree. William J. Works, W. M.; Burr Porter, Secretary.

KEYSTONE CHAPTER NO. 20, R. A. M.—Stated convocations, second and fourth Wednesday evenings of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting March 8, 1916. Work—Royal Arch degree conferred by Past High Priests, Stanley L. Mack, H. P.; Alfred Le Richeux, secretary.

DULUTH COUNCIL NO. 6, R. & S. M.—Stated convocations, third Friday of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting, March 17, 1916. Work—Superexcellent degree. Maynard W. Turner, T. I. M.; Alfred Le Richeux, Secretary.

DULUTH COMMANDERY NO. 18, K. T.—Stated convocations, first Tuesday of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next conclave, March 7, 1916. Work—Annual meeting, election of officers. Arch. D. MacIntyre, Com.; Alfred Le Richeux, recorder.

SCOTTISH RITE — REGULAR MEETING every Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Next meeting, March 2, 1916. Work—Twenty-first degree. Burr Porter, secretary.

ZENITH CHAPTER NO. 25, ORDER OF Eastern Star—Regular meetings second and fourth Friday evenings each month. Next meeting, Friday, March 10, 1916, at 7:30 o'clock. Work—Regular business, balloting and initiation. Eva M. Dunbar, W. M.; Ella F. Gearhart, Sec.

MIZPAH SHRINE NO. 1, ORDER OF THE White Shrine of Jerusalem—Regular meetings first Saturday evening of each month at 8 o'clock. Next meeting, March 4, 1916. Business and balloting. Gertrude Bates, W. H. P.; Etta Trerinanus, W. S.

EUCLID CHAPTER NO. 56, ORDER OF the Eastern Star—Meets at West Duluth Masonic temple the first and third Tuesdays of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting, March 7, 1916. Initiation. Flora Clark, W. M.; Mildred M. Ross, Sec.

EUCLID LODGE, NO. 198, A. F. & A. M.—Meets at West Duluth, second and fourth Wednesdays of each month at 7:30 p. m. Next meeting, March 8, 1916. Work—Third degree. H. W. Lanners, W. M.; A. Dunleavy, secretary.

DULUTH CHAPTER NO. 59, R. A. M.—Meets at West Duluth first and third Wednesdays of each month at 7:30 p. m. Next meeting, March 1, 1916. Work—P. M. and M. E. M. degrees. W. A. Fitzpatrick, H. P.; A. Dunleavy, secretary.

LAKESIDE LODGE NO. 281, A. F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Mondays of each month at 8 o'clock at Masonic hall, Forty-fifth avenue east and Robinson street. Next meeting, Feb. 29, 1916. Entertainment. William A. Hicken, W. M.; George E. Nelson, secretary, 4530 Cooke street east.

TRINITY LODGE NO. 282, A. F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Mondays at 8 o'clock, in Woodman hall, Twenty-first avenue west. Next meeting, regular, March 6, 1916. Work—Third degree. E. H. Pfeifer, W. M., 1918 West Third street; R. E. Wheeler, secretary, 2032 West Superior street.

A. O. U. W.
FIDELITY LODGE NO 105—MEETS AT Maccabee hall, 21 Lake avenue north, every Thursday at 8 p. m. Visiting members welcome. E. A. Vogt, M. W.; J. A. Lubansky, recorder; O. J. Murveld, financier, 217 East Fifth street. Social dance, March 2.

A. O. U. W.—DULUTH LODGE NO. 10—Meets every second and fourth Tuesday nights at Axa hall, 221 West Superior street. Next meeting, March 14, 1916, at 8 p. m., initiation. Marvin E. Bellew, M. W.; R. G. Foote, recorder; E. F. Heller, financier, 509 Second avenue east.

ZENITH COUNCIL NO. 161, ROYAL League, meets the first and third Thursdays in the month, at 8 o'clock, in the old Masonic temple, Superior street and Second avenue east. O. S. Kempton, archon, Wolvin building; H. A. Hall, collector, 18 East First street.

DULUTH LODGE NO. 28, I. O. O. F.—Next meeting, Friday evening, March 3, 1916, at 7:30 o'clock, 221 West Superior street, third floor. Work—Initiatory degree will be conferred. Odd Fellows welcome. Charles F. Ottinger, N. G.; W. J. McDonald, Rec. Sec.

K. OF P.
NORTH STAR LODGE NO. 35, K. OF P.—Meets every Tuesday, 7:30 p. m., sixth floor, Temple building, Superior street and Second avenue east. Next meeting, March 22, 1916. Work—First rank. James A. Wharton, C. C., 802 Alworth building; B. A. Rowe, M. of F., 205 First National bank; H. A. Bishop, K. of R. and S., 505 Palladio building.

ZENITH CAMP NO. 5, WOODMEN OF the World, meets on first and third Friday nights of month, at Foresters' hall, Fourth avenue west and First street, J. H. Larkin, clerk, 312 Sixtieth avenue east, Lakeside 23-K.

MAJESTIC REBEKAH LODGE NO. 60, I. O. O. F.—Regular meetings first and third Thursdays of each month, 8 p. m., 221 West Superior street, third floor. Next meeting, March 2, 1916. Feb. 28, drill practice. Mrs. Henrietta Shaw, N. G.; Lillian Johnson, secretary, Grand 2113-Y.

DULUTH HOMESTEAD NO. 3131, BROTHERhood of American Yeomen, meets every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock sharp, in Maccabee hall, 21 Lake avenue north. Herbert F. Hanks, foreman; J. J. Palmer, correspondent, office in his drug store, 2132 West Third street. Melrose 3769; Lincoln 511-Y.

M. W. A.
IMPERIAL CAMP

LAST EDITION

THE DULUTH HERALD

20 PAGES

VOLUME XXXIII—NO. 282. THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 2, 1916. TWO CENTS.

MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

GERMANS BEGIN NEW DRIVE SOUTH OF VERDUN

PRESIDENT TURNS TO THE SENATE FOR FIRST ACTION ON ARMED SHIP QUESTION

Minn Historical Society D H

EXPECT TO DEFEAT GORE RESOLUTION

Possibility of Delay in House Owing to Complex Situation.

President Will Consent to No Compromise on the Issue.

Wants Armed Ship Agitation Disposed of Once and for All.

Washington, March 2.—Administration forces, faced with delay in the house, turned today to the senate to carry out President Wilson's demand for the defeat of resolutions warning Americans off armed ships of European belligerents.

Chairman Stone of the foreign relations committee, announcing openly from the floor that he was not in accord with the president on the issue, proposed, however, that the senate take an adjournment instead of another recess, thereby getting into a new legislative day and relieving the parliamentary situation which thus far has held Senator Gore's resolution from coming to a vote. His action was taken after a conference of administration leaders who were satisfied they had the votes to defeat the Gore resolution and demonstrate to Germany that the dissensions against the president's foreign policy do not have the support of congress.

Votes Enough to Smash It.

Senator James, one of the administration supporters, said:

"It has been decided to bring the

(Continued on page 4, third column.)

MAY FORBID GERMAN IMPORTS AFTER WAR

Britain to Take Measures to Encourage Exports From Colonies.

London, March 2.—The Daily News learns that the inner circle of the cabinet will recommend the incorporation in the budget of an announcement that Germa imports will be prohibited after the war and also that measures will be taken, probably in the nature of preferential duties, for the purpose of encouraging exports from the British colonies to the countries of the allies.

No decision is likely to be reached in the matter, adds the News, until it has been considered by the entire cabinet as well as by the economic conference of the allies, the forthcoming meeting of which Reginald McKenna, chancellor of the exchequer, announced in his speech at the Guild hall yesterday.

CENSORSHIP IS REMOVED

Wireless Messages Regarding Vessel Movements to Be Unrestricted.

Applies to Radiograms Sent From Germany to United States.

Washington, March 2.—Changes in the naval wireless censorship regulations were announced today by Secretary Daniels. Former regulations prohibited Sayville and Tuckerton censors from passing for publication in the United States the German official statements if they made reference "to movements or locations of war or other vessels of belligerents."

This prevented Germany's statement of the result of naval operations being received direct from Germany, although they were received by cable via London after having passed through the British censorship. Ambassador Von Bernstorff, at the direction of his government, made a formal inquiry after American censors had suppressed the German wireless account of the sinking of the British cruiser Arabis.

Secretary Daniels' new regulations provide: "The restriction as to movements of war or other vessels of belligerents shall not apply to messages received from belligerent shore radio stations."

It applies only to Germany, as Great Britain is using the cable.

QUEEN MOTHER OF ROUMANIA, CARMEN SYLVA, NEARS END

QUEEN MOTHER ELIZABETH.

Berlin, wireless to Sayville, March 2.—Dispatches from Bucharest state that the Queen Mother Elizabeth of Roumania, who is ill with pneumonia, is sinking rapidly. Six physicians were summoned today and declared that her condition was hopeless. Queen Elizabeth, widely known under her pen name of Carmen Sylva, is 73 years old.

SAILED UNDER FALSE COLORS

Testimony of Milton Man Concerning Nominee for Supreme Bench.

Former Mayor of Cleveland Says Brandeis' Reputation Is Excellent.

Washington, March 2.—Advocates of the confirmation of the nomination of Louis D. Brandeis as a justice of the supreme court had an inning today before the senate committee investigating charges against Mr. Brandeis.

Edward F. McClennan, law partner of Mr. Brandeis, was ready to continue his explanation of the various incidents for which Mr. Brandeis has been criticized. Newton D. Baker, former mayor of Cleveland and president of the National Consumers' league, had a petition for confirmation from a group of New York manufacturers, labor leaders, publicists and social workers.

Sailed Under False Colors.

Francis Peabody of Milton, Mass., testified that Mr. Brandeis' reputation was that he was not trustworthy, and sailed under false colors. Mr. Peabody said he had talked with more than fifty members of the Suffolk bar and only one gave him the impression that Mr. Brandeis was trustworthy and honorable.

"How far is the esteem in which Mr. Brandeis is held due to his being a Jew?" asked Senator Fletcher.

Didn't Know He Was a Jew.

"I didn't know until the last few years that he was a Jew," the witness replied.

When Mr. Baker appeared to present his petition, he was asked as to Mr. Brandeis' reputation as a lawyer.

"I do not know his reputation in Boston," he said, "but among public service workers he is known not only as the best lawyer, but a detached, spiritual, high-minded man."

Henry Moskowitz, president of the municipal civil service commission in New York, and secretary of the arbitration board in the needle trades, of which Mr. Brandeis is president, said: "If Mr. Brandeis has one characteristic it is his capacity to see both sides, not only in judicial statement, but in judicial thought."

FIGHT AGAINST FLOOD PRACTICALLY ENDED

Conditions in Southern States Said to Be Greatly Improved.

New Orleans, La., March 2.—The fight against flood waters in the district which includes Vicksburg, Miss., was today regarded as practically ended. Maj. J. R. Slattery, government engineer in charge of that district, declared conditions were now in good shape and that the rising waters had been fought at a cost of $85,000 this year as against $172,709 in 1912 and $576,000 in 1913.

Relief workers today expected additional reports of distress from the inundated sections of Northern Louisiana. Communication with the inhabitants of the flooded sections along the Black river had not been established last night, but efforts were being made today to reach some of the districts where relief measures are thought to be seriously needed.

GERMAN SEA RAIDER IS CAPTURED OFF BRAZIL

EITHER MOEWE OR THE ROON

Taken By British Cruisers and Convoyed to Trinidad.

Crew From Moewe Brought British Ship Appam to Port.

London, March 2.—Reports of the capture of a German sea raider, either the auxiliary cruiser Moewe or the cruiser Roon, came to hand today from South American sources. The capture is said to have been effected by British cruisers, which took their prize to Trinidad off the Venezuelan coast. It was a crew from the Moewe that brought the British steamer Appam a prize into Newport News.

Wireless Intercepted.

Buenos Aires, March 2.—Press dispatches from Montevideo say that a steamer arriving from Europe intercepted near the coast of Brazil a wireless message stating that British cruisers had captured the German auxiliary cruiser Moewe.

The Moewe, it is said, was taken by the British cruisers to the island of Trinidad.

The American steamer Santa Barbara has arrived at Montevideo, her captain making the announcement that a French cruiser which put out from Dakar, on the west coast of Africa, encountered a German raider, name not given, and opened fire on

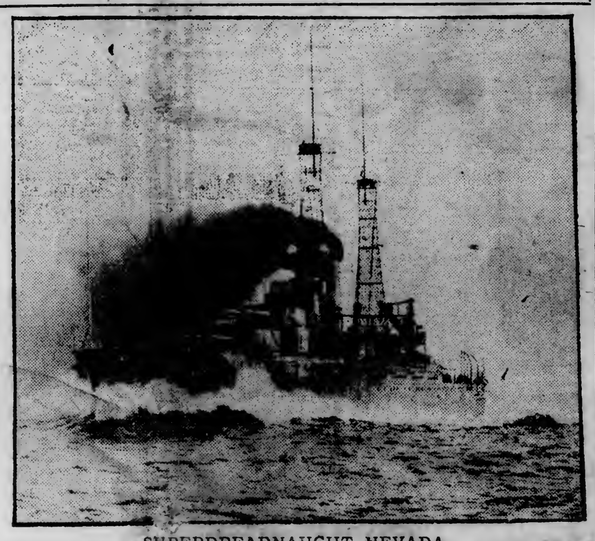
(Continued on page 4, second column.)

WESSEL NAMED AS U. S. MARSHAL

President Wilson Nominates Crookston Man to Succeed W. H. Grimshaw.

Washington, March 2. — President Wilson today nominated Joseph A. Wessel of Crookston, Minn., for United States marshal for Minnesota. He will succeed W. H. Grimshaw of Minneapolis.

ANOTHER GREAT FIGHTING MACHINE DELIVERED TO THE UNITED STATES



SUPERDREADNAUGHT NEVADA.

Quincy, Mass., March 2.—The new superdreadnaught Nevada was formally delivered to the government at the Charleston navy yard today by her builders, the Fore River Ship Building corporation.

DISGUISED RAIDERS TO CARRY OUT POLICY

Germany May Not Use Submarines as Much as Expected.

Amsterdam, via London, March 2.—Capt. Persius, naval expert of the Berliner Tageblatt, discussing in that newspaper the new German campaign against merchant ships, makes the assertion that it will be carried out, not so much through the medium of submarines, whose activities are hampered by diplomatic difficulties, as through disguised commerce raiders like the Moewe, which has already sunk a number of vessels of the allies and which sent the Appam to Newport News with a prize crew.

FOUR MORE VESSELS ARE REPORTED SUNK

London, March 2.—The sinking of four more vessels was reported today.

The crews of three British smacks landed at Lowestoft. Their vessels are said to have been sunk in the North sea.

The Italian ship Elisa also is reported to have been sunk.

Rehearing Granted.

Washington, March 2.—Rehearing of the proposal of Eastern railroads to establish slightly increased rates on grain and grain products from points in the Middle West and Wisconsin, Iowa, Missouri and Kentucky to Atlantic coats ports for export, was granted today by the interstate commerce commission. The proposed increases were disapproved last December.

A HARD NUT TO CRACK.

OFFENSIVE RESUMED IN WOEVRE REGION

Violent Bombardment and Attack on French at Fresnes Follows Lull in Great Battle.

New Assault Gives Color to Prevailing Opinion That Attack on Verdun Has Merely Temporarily Halted.

London, March 2.—After a lull in infantry operations in the vicinity of Verdun since the early part of the week there has been a resumption of the German offensive in the Woevre region. A violent bombardment was followed by a spirited attack on the French at Fresnes, ten miles southeast of Verdun. Paris reports the driving out of the Germans from the few positions which they succeeded in penetrating in their assault.

The new attack gives color to what seems to be the prevailing military opinion in Paris that the German offensive at Verdun had merely halted. It also calls particular attention to the Woevre region where the Teutons have advanced along a line south of Fort Douaumont well to the base of the Meuse heights as far as Combres, twelve miles southeast of Verdun.

Dispatches from both Berlin and Paris point to the difficulties of a further advance in this region. The French positions, Paris points out, stretch along the heights, from which the ground drops abruptly to the Woevre plain with its moist clay soil, across which the transport of the heaviest of the German artillery on ground away from the high roads, is held to be almost impossible, while attacking troops would have to deploy in the open under the fire of the French guns on the heights.

Berlin commentators, however, advance the view that the Teutons have previously shown that similar disadvantageous conditions could be successfully met, the storming of the heights just to the south by the Germans in 1914 when St. Mihiel was captured, being pointed to in this connection.

From Dutch sources come reports that the German drive is to be resumed from the northeast, 90,000 men having been concentrated near Buzy, behind Fort Vaux, which is said to have been destroyed by the German heavy mortars.

Estimates of the German losses in the offensive are running high in Entente quarters, one from Paris placing them at between 125,000 and 130,000. All accounts from German sources, however, have declared that the casualties of the attacking armies were surprisingly small.

French Statement.

Paris, March 2, 2:41 p. m.—The war office announcement of this afternoon says that there was intermittent bombardment on the Verdun and Woevre front during the night, but that there were no developments of importance.

The text of the war office's announcement reads:

"In the Artois district to the east of the road running from Neuville to La Folie, we caused the explosion of a mine located under an old crater which was occupied by the enemy. We took possession of the new crater.

"In the region of Verdun the enemy bombarded violently last night Le Mort Homme (the dead man) at the Cote de L'Oie, between Malancourt and Forges, as well as the principal crossing of the river Meuse. There was little activity on the part of the artillery to the east of the Meuse.

"In the Woevre district, after an intense retaliatory fire from the artillery, the enemy yesterday evening delivered a spirited attack on our positions at Fresnes. They were at once driven back by our counter-attack from the few positions which they had succeeded in penetrating.

"In the Lorraine district a bombardment of several hours' duration against the Sainte Marie farm to the west of Bezange, was followed by an attack on the part of the enemy which resulted in complete failure.

"In Alsace certain tentative movements undertaken by strong German patrols against our outposts in the valley of the Lauch were repulsed by the use of hand grenades."

German Statement.

Berlin, March 2, via London, 3:15 p. m.—The official German statement of today says the French sacrificed men unsuccessfully in a counter-attack on Fort Douaumont, one of the outlying defenses of Verdun, which was captured by the Germans.

The situation on the Franco-Belgian

(Continued on page 4, third column.)

GERMANS DESTROY VERDUN FORT BUT CANNOT TAKE IT

Fort Vaux Pounded to Pieces By Big Mortars But French Artillery Prevents Any Approach to the Fortification.

London, March 2.—An Amsterdam dispatch to the Central News says that Fort Vaux, five miles to the northwest of Verdun, has been destroyed by heavy mortars, according to unconfirmed German reports, but that the Germans cannot approach the fort as the French have brought heavy artillery to bear on the approaches. It is added that a German battery has been destroyed by French shells and that the Germans have concentrated 90,000 men near Buzy, who are to resume the offensive with reinforcements from the Argonne. Buzy is about sixteen miles to the east of Verdun.

RUSSIAN STEAMSHIP SENT TO BOTTOM

Eighteen of Crew of Alexander Wentzel Lost and Eleven Saved.

London, March 2.—The Russian steamship Alexander Wentzel has been sunk. Eighteen of the crew were drowned and eleven rescued.

The Alexander Wentzel was reported in latest available shipping records as having arrived at Cardiff on Jan. 23. The steamer was of 2,838 gross tons, was 320 feet long and 45 feet beam. She was built at West Hartlepool in 1899 and was owned by the Northern Steamship company of Petrograd.

Thornaby Sunk By Mine.

London, March 2, 11:37 a. m.—Lloyd's agency at Blyth reports that the British steamship Thornaby was sunk by a mine on Monday last.

A dispatch of yesterday's date announced that the Thornaby had been sunk in the North Sea and that nearly all of the crew were killed or drowned. Later it was reported that the steamer Devereux had arrived in the Tyne, bringing the steward of the Thornaby, who had been rescued from the wreckage and reporting that two other persons had been saved by the steamer Highgate.

PERISCOPES ON MINES TO LURE ENEMY SHIPS

Latest Device of Germans Reported By Captain Reaching Baltimore.

Baltimore, Md., March 2.—Floating mines, equipped with periscopes, is said to be the latest device now being used by the Germans in bringing about the destruction of enemy ships, according to Capt. B. J. Keelty of the British steamship Hartfield. The Hartfield arrived here Sunday from London.

Capt. Keelty tells of having sighted one of the new destructive agents in the English channel. The periscope gave it the appearance of a submarine. He did not attempt to win the admiralty's reward of $2,500 for ramming a submarine, but reported it to a patrol boat.

According to masters of British vessels, the placing of a periscope on a mine was devised for the express purpose of inducing some of the ships of the allied nations to ram which would have resulted in the blowing up of the ship and possibly loss of life. It is understood that a number of the periscoped mines have been cast adrift around Britain and the fleet of patrol boats is engaged in removing them from the track of navigation.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

"BEYOND THE POINT OF ROCKS"

BRANCH MANAGER: HERMAN OLSON, 1823 West Superior Street.
Advertising Subscription Distribution

SPECIAL SERVICE AT MISSION CHURCH

Elaborate Musical Program and Sermon Will Be Given Sunday.

A special song program will feature the services at the Swedish Mission church, Twenty-first avenue west and Second street, Sunday evening. "The Serving of Two Masters" will be the subject of a sermon by Rev. J. J. Daniels, pastor of the church. The following musical program will be rendered:

Pipe organ prelude—Pastorale in F minor ..... Faulkes
Miss Ruth Larson.
Congregational hymn .....
"All Hail Emanuel" ..... Miles
Mission Church Choir.
Scripture reading and invocation ....
"The Wayside Cross" ..... Palmer
Male Chorus.
"Vid Babylons Elvar" .... Wennerberg
Mrs. J. J. Daniels and Chior.
"Ingen Tid for Herren Jesus" .....
..... Miller
Women's Octet.
"Den Sanna Gudstjansten" ..... Skoog
Miss Anna Norain, Quartet and Choir.
Sermon—"The Serving of Two Masters" ..... Rev. J. J. Daniels
"Insamlingsmarseljasen" .....
..... Rouget de Lisle
Mission Church Choir.
Offertory—"Autumn" ..... Johnston
Miss Ruth Larson.
Vocal solo—"The Good Shepherd" ..
..... Van de Water
Mrs. J. J. Daniels.
"Jesus, Mitt Allt" ..... Skoog
The Choir.
"The Father's Wounded Heart" .....
..... Radcliffe
Mixed Quartet.
"Herren Ar Mitt Ljus" ..... Riddarhof
Miss Hilda Erickson and Choir.
Benediction .....
Postlude—Festal march ..... Kroeger
Miss Ruth Larson.

WEATHER—Fair weather tonight and Friday.

Some clothes are styled ahead of the times. Their designer tries to gauge coming style tendencies. Other clothes are almost too conservative.

Styleplus Clothes $17
TRADE MARK REGISTERED
"The same price the world over."

represent present-day style. They include all of the accepted style tendencies that do not lead one astray nor keep him behind. They are right in the front rank, abreast with approved fashion. In addition you get good fabrics, good workmanship and a guarantee of good wear.

STYLEPLUS is made in a wide range of fabrics and styles. We can suit you no matter what may be your taste.

Headquarters also for hats and furnishings.

Oak Hall Clothing Co.
Superior Street at Second Avenue West.

WILL DISCUSS MILK ORDINANCE

Discrimination Against the Small Dairymen Charged in West End.

A discussion of the proposed milk ordinance will be one of the features of the meeting of the West end Commercial club this evening at Simonson's hall, Twenty-third avenue and Superior street.

The club will also bring up the matter of preventing an outside stairway being built over the sidewalk for a building on Twenty-first avenue and Superior street and the problem of the public market location.

A number of the business men in the West end are said to be opposed to some of the provisions of the proposed milk ordinance on the ground that it will work a hardship on the small dairymen and probably lead to a higher price for dairy products. It is expected that several of the business men will be present to discuss the proposed ordinance.

Mothers Plan Program.

The Bryant School Mothers' club will hold an open entertainment next Tuesday afternoon at the school, at 3 o'clock. A musical and literary program will be arranged. The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Matteson, Mrs. Fred Mooney and Mrs. Martin Ness.

West End Undertaking Company
2118 WEST FIRST STREET.
Nyberg & Crawford, Managers.

LEAGUE TO ENTERTAIN.

Epworth Societies of Duluth District Plan Program.

The Duluth district of the Epworth League of the Norwegian-Danish M. E. church will entertain tomorrow evening at the First church, Twenty-fourth avenue west and Third street. A musical and literary program is planned.

The district league comprises the societies affiliated with the churches of Duluth and Superior. A union gospel meeting will be held by the society Saturday evening at the Norwegian-Danish M. E. church of Superior. Rev. C. A. Joransen of McVille, N. D., and Rev. Gustaf Kvisgaard of Virginia will be the speakers.

MRS. McINNIS WILL LEAD AID SOCIETY

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Second Presbyterian church, 1515 West Superior street, held its annual election of officers at the meeting of the society in the church yesterday afternoon. Mrs. James McInnis was elected president.

The other officers of the society chosen are: Mrs. John Page, vice president; Mrs. C. L. Stephens, secretary, and Mrs. J. Ledingham, treasurer. The following committees were selected: Ways and means, Mrs. Martin Timmerman, Mrs. James Maghan, Mrs. Logan and Mrs. Bekhering; industrial, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. G. M. Larson, Mrs. Sears, J. E. Tarum and Mrs. Hinchliff; flower, Mrs. Robert Gillon, Mrs. John Stewart and Mrs. J. A. Ledingham.

Plans for an entertainment, to be given on St. Patrick's day, March 17, were made. The members of the ways and means committee will have charge of the arrangements.

WILL DISCUSS AFTERMATH OF WAR

"The Aftermath of the War" will be the subject to be discussed at the meeting of the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Second Presbyterian church next Wednesday afternoon. The meeting will be held in the church. Mrs. J. A. Ledingham will have charge of the subject. The foreign subject will be "Japan," with Mrs. A. F. Swanstrom leader. The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. C. C. McManus, Mrs. C. L. Stephens, Mrs. Stebner and Mrs. Sloan.

Plan "Penny" Social.

The Epworth League of the First Swedish Methodist church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street, will be entertained tomorrow evening at a "penny" social in the church club-rooms. A program for the affair is being arranged by a committee consisting of Misses Agnes and Thyra Olson and Misses Ellen and Ida Gunderson.

Will Give Card Party.

W. A. McGonagle circle, No. 299, G. I. A., of the Brotherhod of Locomotive Engineers, will entertain tomorrow afternoon at cards at the Woodman hall, Twenty-first avenue west and First street. The women in charge are Mrs. J. H. Evans and Mrs. Frank O'Donnell.

West End Briefs.

A card party featured an entertainment given last evening by the Rosary Society of St. Clement's church. Mrs. J. J. Schultz, Mrs. J. Cahill, Mrs. H. N. Wilson, Mrs. M. Carroll and Mrs. A. Farrington were in charge.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen will entertain this evening at cards and dancing at the Woodmen hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Soderstrom of Minneapolis, who have been visiting relatives in the West end, left for their home yesterday.

George E. Bowen of Wabasha, Minn., left for his home last night after spending a week visiting relatives in this end of the city.

Mrs. W. C. Ives, 2415 West Ninth street, entertained yesterday afternoon for the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary society of the Grace Methodist church.

Imported Prints.

Just received a collection of fine imported English prints direct from London. This collection will be placed on sale beginning Thursday morning at a reduction of 25 per cent. This is your opportunity. Engels' Art Store, fine art dealers.

RESIGNS UNDER FIRE.

Town Board of Cable, Wis., All Resign.

Ashland, Wis., March 2.—All of the members of the town board Cable resigned a few days ago when sued by citizens to recover town funds and their successors have been chosen. The case against them still is hanging fire and will be tried at Washburn.

Last December a number of the taxpayers at Cable brought action against Martin Rogan, town chairman; Holly Simmons, George Clark, supervisors; George Henderson, clerk and Thomas McDonald to recover town funds alleged to have been improperly spent by them. Andrew Rogan, brother of the town chairman, with the chairman, was also made a party in the action. After the action was well under way another action returnable with a petition and with a hearing fixed for next Saturday before Judge Risjord to remove all these officers was commenced.

To Wrestle at Moose Smoker.

Brainerd, Minn., March 2.—Larry Clark and George Funk, local men, will wrestle at the smoker to be given by the Moose lodge Friday evening.

WALK-OVER SHOES

The Spring styles are being shown in our windows and at the prices which we ask for this new footwear they are wonderful values. Compare the prices and quality of our shoes with other makes of shoes, then decide for yourself.

SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY ONLY

Gray Kid Boots at $7.00
White Kid Boots at $9.00
Sepia Kid Boots at $8.00

The above boots are $10 and $12 values.

WALK-OVER BOOT SHOP,
106 West Superior Street.

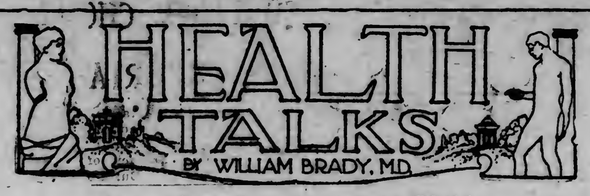
Money Shows Character

The way a man uses money—makes it, saves it, spends it—is perhaps one of the best tests of character.

Money should not be regarded as the principal end of life, nor should it be regarded with contempt, for it represents to a great extent the means of mental and physical comfort.

The finest qualities of human nature are related to the right use of money—generosity, honesty, justice and self-sacrifice.

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK
DULUTH MINNESOTA



Acute Acid Intoxication in Children

The combination of "stomach-ache," vomiting and feverishness in a child is generally termed acute indigestion, biliousness, "worms," or mayhap appendicitis.

WILLIAM BRADY M.D.

And while it might be any of these, excepting "biliousness," there is an explanation not commonly offered but very frequently found right in such cases, and that is acid intoxication.

Symptoms indicating acid intoxication are a peculiar heavy or sweetish breath and repeated vomiting, first of partly digested food, later of bile-tinged, fluid or pure bile. Vomiting recurs every few minutes, after an interval of restlessness and burning in the stomach. Following the vomiting the child seems temporarily relieved, but the distress returns presently and seems to increase until vomiting recurs. At the same time the child becomes more or less feverish, usually more, and sometimes a trifle delirious.

These symptoms are alarming to the parents. There is the dread suspicion of appendicitis or other serious cause. But if the abdomen is sensitive to touch the tenderness is not localized, but general, and now here, now there.

The remedy is an alkali to neutralize the acids which cause the symptoms. A tablespoonful of soda (saleratus) dissolved in two-thirds of a glass of water may be given in one drink or in several drinks. The child craves alkalies and will take such a dose readily, and with marked relief soon afterward.

Milk of magnesia is another alkali useful in the treatment if administered in teaspoonful doses every hour until relieved or until thorough catharsis is produced.

Of course no food of any sort should be given for a period of twelve to twenty-four hours. Then rice or other cereal is best.

Lots of water should be given, and if not magnesia then some other cathartic.

Remember the peculiar sweetish breath, which is not noticed in appendicitis. Remember the brief relief following each vomiting act, which is not noticed in appendicitis. Remember the immediate improvement which follows a large dose of alkali, which is characteristic of acid intoxication and of nothing else. True, appendicitis and acid intoxication might occur at the same time, but then, so might inflammatory rheumatism and the jumping toothache.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.
Sisters and Friends.

Now and then we receive a letter describing a "friend's" or a "sister's" case and asking for suggestions. If the letter is properly signed we gladly answer. But if it is anonymous it promptly reaches the waste basket; and we have a tremendously big basket yawning beside the desk. Thus far we have never printed or divulged the identity of a correspondent. But we cannot take seriously a communication that is not seriously written.

A Tic.

What causes excessive and irregular winking of the eyelids?

Answer—It is a habit spasm, called a tic. It may be cured by a course of exercise and inhibition.

A Tubercular Gland.

Would you advise complete removal or mere drawing off of the pus from a suppurated tubercular gland in the neck?

Answer—Mere aspiration, if anything, plus an outdoor regimen, as for tuberculosis of the lungs.

Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. If your question is of general interest it will be answered through these columns; if not it will be answered personally if stamped, addressed envelope is enclosed. Dr. Brady will not prescribe for individual cases or make diagnoses. Address, Dr. William Brady, care of this newspaper. Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.

LAWLER TO SPEAK HERE

Will Address Irish Fellowship Club on "American Citizenship" March 16.

Candidate for Delegate-at-Large to Democratic National Convention.

The committee that has in charge arrangements for the annual banquet of the Irish Fellowship club, to be held at the Spalding hotel on the evening of March 16, has just procured the consent of Daniel W. Lawler of St. Paul to lead the list of speakers. Mr. Lawler is candidate for delegate-at-large to the Democratic national convention next June from Minnesota.

It is believed that this announcement is enough to increase the already heavy demand for tickets, for "Dan" Lawler is known as one of the very best orators that Minnesota has ever produced. He has a magnetic platform presence, and while he is best known as a speaker on political subjects, he has attained eminence as a lecturer on other matters that extends beyond the boundaries of the state.

D. W. LAWLER.

His subject at the banquet will be "American Citizenship," and it is expected that, in dealing with this subject, Mr. Lawler will be at his best.

His appearance at the banquet of the Irish Fellowship club will probably be the only one before the campaign for the general election will bring him here, as it is certain to take him to all parts of the state, and perhaps to many parts of the nation, for his services on the stump are always in demand.

Ashland Fireman Hurt.

Ashland, Wis., March 2.—John Riordan, member of the fire department, was injured yesterday afternoon when he was thrown from the sleigh which he was driving when it tipped. John McDonald, fireman, who was also riding on the sleigh, was likewise thrown to the ground, but was uninjured. The accident occurred on Seventh avenue west, between Second and Third street.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.
Sold by all Druggists, 75c.
Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

ASBURY DAY WILL BE OBSERVED HERE

Methodist Pastors Will Preach Special Sermons on March 26.

While there will be no general observance of "Bishop Francis Asbury Memorial day" among Methodists of Duluth, several of the Methodist pastors will preach special sermons on that day, which falls on Sunday, March 26, and there may be incidental exercises in connection. Bishop Asbury, after whom the Methodist church in West Duluth is named, lived before the day of the West, and, therefore, general observance has not become a rite in the West as it is in some sections of the East.

Francis Asbury came to America in 1771, and for more than forty years was the foremost leader in the Wesley cause. It is considered by many that he is to American Methodism what John Wesley was to English Wesleyanism. It is claimed that in the first thirty years of Methodism in both countries as much was accomplished in the way of membership growth by Asbury in a population of 5,000,000 as by Wesley in one of 30,000,000. The Methodist, while not the largest in denomination in England, has come to be the largest Protestant body in America, with about 8,000,000 members, in round numbers.

Asbury died on March 31, 1816. During the latter part of this month Methodist Sunday schools and congregations in the East usually hold meetings at which Methodist growth and achievement will be told.

A monument of Asbury, costing $50,000, is being erected in a conspicuous spot in the city of Washington.

TUGMEN OBTAIN GOOD CONCESSIONS

Win Out in Matter That Means Much to Them.

Tugmen, who had a conference recently with the officials of the Great Lakes Towing company at Cleveland, obtained various concessions which are looked upon as important to the members of the unions, according to Capt. William E. Hoy, who has just returned from the East, where he was a delegate of the tugmen.

The matter of a raise of $5 a month to the masters and engineers has already been reported on, but the firemen were included as well. It was also agreed that the pay season shall start from April 1 instead of April 15, as in former years, and will go on until Dec. 31, a concession that means more money to the men, with which to tide over the winter months.

Not the least important of the conference's agreements, in the belief of Capt. Hoy, is the fact that the agreement made is perpetual, going on without change from year to year instead of the conferees being compelled to repeat the wrangle season after season, unless one or the other of the parties involved asks for another conference.

TO BOOST TRADE WITH NORWAY

Dinner Given at Chicago By American-Norwegian Society.

Chicago, March 2.—Promotion of increased trade relations between the United States and Norway was the object of a dinner given here last night by the American-Norwegian chamber of commerce, with H. Bryn, Norwegian minister to the United States, as guest of honor. The speakers generally stressed the fact that war conditions in Europe had turned Norway's importers from German and English markets to the American sources of supply, and that an opportunity for cementing these relations was at hand.

The dinner was a sequel to a similar affair given in St. Paul last Saturday night. The American-Norwegian chamber of commerce was organized in the northern city last August, but its headquarters have since been moved to Chicago.

Among the speakers last night were: W. S. Kies, vice president of the National City Bank of New York; Governor Dunne, Dr. E. E. Pratt, chief of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce; John W. O'Leary, president of the Chicago Association of Commerce; Judge Oscar M. Torrison and Consul E. H. Hobe of St. Paul, president of the American-Norwegian chamber of commerce.

Invitations were extended to a large number of business men of the Central West and an attendance of 200 resulted.

J. M. Gidding & Co.
Correct Dress for Women and Girls
Superior Street at First Ave. West
564, 566 and 568 Fifth Ave., New York

Introducing the New Styles for Early Spring

Evening Gowns
Street Dresses
Costumes Tailleur of cloth or silk
Costume & Sport Blouses
Motor Coats Tourist Coats
Street, Travel & Sports Suits
Coats & Skirts for golf & tennis

Smart Sweaters
French Millinery

REAL ESTATE LOANS

Plenty of money always on hand for loans on improved Duluth real estate.
LOWEST PREVAILING RATES.
Your choice of three or five years; no extra charge.
LITTLE & NOLTE CO.
EXCHANGE BLDG.

DON'T WORRY
IF YOU DROP YOUR WATCH!
Bring it to us. We repair all makes. Satisfaction guaranteed.
ERD'S JEWELRY STORE
29 East Superior St., Duluth

LESS MOISTURE AND MORE COLD

February Was Unusual in Two Ways—Lighter Ice Conditions.

February was an unusual month in two ways: The precipitation was only one-third the normal amount and the weather was much colder than usual. In his monthly report and summary, Weather Forecaster Richardson says: "Rather severe cold was the rule the first half of the month. Minimum temperatures of zero or below occurred daily from Jan. 27 to Feb. 14. There were no storms of marked violence. The northwesterly gale on the 24th was the most severe and lasted not quite three hours. At the beginning of the month harbor ice averaged twenty-eight inches thick and at the close thirty-three inches, six inches greater than usual and two inches less than at the end of February, 1915. In the lake the field extends fifteen to twenty miles. At this time last year there was a solid field of lake ice extending fully 100 miles."

The highest temperature during February was 45 deg., on the 17th, and the lowest was 24 deg. below on the 2nd. The greatest daily range of temperature was 27 deg. on the 16th, and the least was 6 deg. on the 19th. The highest temperature for February on record was 58 deg. on the 26th, in 1895; and the lowest was 36 deg. below on the 9th, in 1899. The average temperature during the last month was 7 deg. The normal is 18.8 deg. The highest average for the month on record was in 1877 and 1878, when it was 31 deg., and the lowest average was in 1875, when it was 2 deg. below.

The precipitation for the month was .86 inch; the normal is 1.03. The highest precipitation recorded during any February since 1870 was 2.71 inches, in 1884; the least was .10, in 1877. Eleven inches of snow was on the ground at the end of the month.

The prevailing direction of wind was west, the highest velocity was forty-eight miles on the 24th, and on six days the wind blew at the rate of thirty-five miles an hour or more.

Twelve days were clear, eleven were partly cloudy and six were cloudy.

Indian's Peculiar Death.

Depere, Wis., March 2.—Austin Doxstader, an Oneida Indian, was found dead yesterday under peculiar circumstances. With a party of other Indians he went to Freedom Tuesday night and on the return all piled into a sleigh. On returning he could not be aroused and was left in the sleigh. It is believed he was smothered by Indians sleeping on him.

BREAK UP BRONCHIAL COUGHS, CROUP AND COLDS PROMPTLY

Make the Best Remedy at Home—128 Teaspoonsful for 50 Cents.

Don't neglect your cold, cough or any Bronchial affection, but commence treatment immediately, and through using the proper medicine, it can be checked from the very start and promptly cured, but if neglected probably will hang on all spring; if it does not develop into something more serious, such as Pneumonia or Consumption. True, there are hundreds, yes thousands of cough remedies on the market. While some are good, there are many which are not, but are positively harmful, due to the narcotic which they contain. But why experiment with these different remedies purely on the strength perhaps of some testimonials or on the exaggerated claims of manufacturers, when Schiffmann's New Concentrated Expectorant is sold by the Lyceum Pharmacy on such a positive guarantee to give perfect satisfaction, yes even more—money will be refunded by them if it is not found the best remedy ever used in Severe Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough or Croup, and it will also be found excellent for Bronchial Asthma and Bronchitis. Besides these druggists guaranteeing "that it will be the best remedy ever used," it will likewise be found the most economical, because one bottle (50 cents' worth) makes a full pint (128 teaspoonsful) of the most excellent medicine for any of the above affections, when mixed at home with one pint of granulated sugar and one-half pint of water. It makes as much, or more, than would cost you $2.00 to $3.00 of almost any of the ordinary ready-made kinds, sold in bottles holding only 24 to 32 teaspoonsful. You will be the sole judge yourself and under the same positively "Money Back" guarantee which the druggists make for the famous Asthmador. Absolutely no risk is run in buying this remedy.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

The Doctor's Advice
by Dr. Lewis Baker

The questions answered below are general in character, the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers will apply in any case of similar nature.

Those wishing further advice, free, may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College Bldg., College-Ellwood Sts., Dayton, O., enclosing self-addressed stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given, but only initials or fictitious name will be used in my answers. The prescriptions can be filled at any well-stocked drug store. Any druggist can order of wholesaler.

"Clerk" writes: "I feel tired and worn out all the time. I have no inclination to do anything, and I suffer with headache, trembling and dizziness. I am only 28, but I feel more like 60. What may I do to overcome this condition? I feel restless and discontented."

Answer: I would suggest regular habits of living; avoid excesses and dissipation and start at once using three-grain cadomene tablets. These tablets act as a bracing, stimulating tonic for the nerves and blood, and have benefited thousands. Regular use of them should build you up and revitalize your system.

* * *

"Cured" writes: "A couple of years ago your prescription permanently relieved me of a terrible case of rheumatism. My joints were all swollen and I had lumps and bumps on my hands and feet and suffered terribly. Now I want the same formula for my sister, who suffers from rheumatism."

Answer: I have always prescribed the following in the treatment of rheumatism, and my records show it is the one you used with so much success; have your sister get 2 drams of iodide of potassium, 4 drams of sodium salicylate, ½ oz. wine of colchicum, 1 oz. comp. essence cardiol, 1 oz. comp. fluid hahnwort and 5 ozs. of syrup sarsaparilla comp. Mix and take a teaspoonful at meal time and again before going to bed.

* * *

"Atlas" writes: "I am losing flesh constantly. I am all rundown and weak, and exercise tires me. I want a good builder and tonic."

Answer: Three-grain hypo-nuclane tablets taken regularly with your meals should increase your weight, your strength, and overcome the tired feeling. They are the greatest flesh-builders I could suggest.

* * *

"L. E." writes: "I want something to relieve me of a cold, tonsilitis, bronchitis and a severe cough."

Answer: To relieve you of cough and cold affecting the tonsils, bronchials or the air passages, I suggest that you secure from your druggist 2½ ozs. concentrated essence menthol-laxene and mix with a pint of syrup made of pure sugar and water. It should break up your cold in a very little while. I have known cases of chronic bronchitis and severe coughs to be permanently relieved with this simple and inexpensive remedy.

* * *

"Madame" writes: "I have pains in my back, headache, and chills and fever all the time. My ankles swell and I have dark, sallow skin and puffs under my eyes. A friend of mine suggests I might have some kind of kidney trouble."

* * *

Answer: Your symptoms clearly point to a diseased, inactive condition of your kidneys. What you need is a kidney stimulant and tonic. The best thing you can take is balmwort tablets. Start using at once.

* * *

"Run Down" writes: "I'm all run down, have fever, and my complexion is a sight. I have a boil coming on my face and I have had one on my hand. I don't sleep well at night I am so nervous and headachy. I am always constipated—have coated tongue and bad breath."

Answer: Your blood is impure, as indicated by the boils and bad complexion. Three-grain sulpherb tablets (not sulphur) will clean your system and tone your blood. Start using them at once. They are sold in sealed tubes.

* * *

"Ella" asks: "What do you suppose is the matter with my hair? It is all coming out and my scalp is covered with a kind of rash. It itches terribly. I am afraid I will lose all my hair."

Answer: Wash the hair, and while still wet apply by rubbing thoroughly into the scalp some plain yellow minyol. Rinse out and continue this treatment after washing for about two weeks, at which time your scalp should be healthy and your hair bright and glossy.

* * *

"Plump" writes: "I weigh 175 pounds and I am much too plump for my height. May I safely reduce to about 135 pounds?"

Answer: You may safely reduce your weight several pounds by using five-grain arbolone tablets. They are a harmless and successful flesh-reducer. Sold in sealed tubes, with full directions. —Advertisement.

FOR PRINTING, LITHOGRAPHING, ENGRAVING, BINDING!
QUICK SERVICE AND EXPERT WORKMANSHIP, CALL
J. J. LeTOURNEAU PRINTING CO.
221 WEST FIRST STREET.

WOULD CENTRALIZE CITY ACCOUNTING

Thayer Would Avoid Having Double and Triple Entries.

O. B. Thayer, chief accountant for the public works division, urged the establishment of a centralized city accounting system at a conference of city officials yesterday afternoon.

This system of accounting was first suggested by Mr. Thayer early last fall, but no action was taken by the city officials at the time. The conference yesterday was called for the purpose of discussing various city matters and during the afternoon Mr. Thayer proposed his plan. Present at the conference were Mayor Prince, the commissioners, City Auditor Campbell, Secretary of Works Culver and Accountant Thayer.

"The city is in great need of a centralized system," said Mr. Thayer, "if we want to avoid double and triple entries of accounts. Our new city purchasing system is a step toward that direction.

"At the present time all accounts are entered on the books of each department; these are then sent to the auditor, who makes similar entries, and so on, doubling the work of every division. As a result a property owner receives two or three bills for street improvements, all made by the city, but by different departments. This system creates an enormous amount of work, delay and possible mistakes that are bound to occur."

No action was taken by the commissioners on the suggestion, but it was taken under advisement for several weeks.

ST. PETER BOY DISAPPEARS; MOTHER NEAR COLLAPSE

Duluth police have started a search for Harold Brinkman, 17-year-old St. Peter, Minn., boy, who disappeared early last fall after writing home and saying that he "would be there for Thanksgiving."

According to clews that have been unearthed since the boy's disappearance, he left Sharon, N. D., with a draft for $50. This draft was cashed in Duluth some time later.

The Brinkman boy's mother is near a collapse at her home, worrying over her missing son, and a friend of the family, in the letter received by police, has asked them to make every possible effort to find him, in order to help save the life of the bedridden mother.

"CASCARETS" WHEN BILIOUS; CONSTIPATED

Cascarets Gently Cleanse the Liver and Bowels, Stopping Headache, Nasty Breath, Sour Stomach or Bad Colds.

Better Than Salts, Oil, Calomel or Pills for Men, Women, Children—Never Gripe—20 Million Boxes Sold Last Year.

Take one or two Cascarets tonight and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. Wake up feeling grand, your head will be clear, your tongue clean, breath sweet, stomach regulated and your liver and thirty feet of bowels active. Get a box at any drug store now and get straightened up by morning. Stop the headache, biliousness, bad colds and bad days. Feel fit and ready for work or play. Cascarets do not gripe, sicken or inconvenience you the next day like salts, pills or calomel. They're fine!

Mothers should give a whole Cascaret any time to cross, sick, bilious or feverish children because it will act thoroughly and can not injure.—Advertisement.

ELKS ELECT NEW RULER

A. J. McCulloch Chosen to Head Lodge During Convention Year.

Plans for State Gathering Here in June; Record Crowd Expected.

A. J. McCulloch was elected exalted ruler of Duluth lodge, No. 133, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, at the annual election of the order in the clubrooms last evening. He succeeds John E. Samuelson, who held the office during the past year.

The other officers named for the ensuing year follow: Walter F. Dacey, leading knight; E. W. Stevens, loyal knight; W. W. Crawford, lecturing knight; George V. Heathcote, secretary; P. B. McTague, treasurer; J. N. Seaman, tiler; J. E. Samuelson, representative to the grand lodge; George S. Munsey, alternate; H. J. Huber, trustee for three years, and Frank E. Randall, representative to the state association meeting.

About 500 Elks attended the meeting

A. J. McCULLOCH, Exalted Ruler.

last night, which was followed by a musical entertainment and smoker. Ben Giroux, manager of "The Bird of Paradise" company, and the quintet of Hawaiian singers were guests of honor during the evening.

Will Observe Flag Day.

The convention committee met before the regular business session of the lodge and voted to change the dates of the twelfth annual convention of the Minnesota State Association of Elks' Lodges from June 15 and 16 to June 14 and 15, in order that Flag day, which falls on June 14, might be observed during the gathering. It was also decided to hold a parade for children, each child marching to receive a small American flag.

Reports from the Elks' lodges throughout the state, it was announced last night, indicate that there will be from 3,500 to 4,000 visitors in Duluth during the convention.

Plans were made last night to organize a marching club of Elks, the members of which will participate in the parade.

HUMANE OFFICER HAS BUSY MONTH

Thirty-One Cases Involve 107 Humans; Animal Welfare Work.

Thirty-one cases involving the welfare of 107 human beings were investigated by John G. Ross, humane agent, during February, according to his monthly report, submitted to the society at its regular meeting yesterday afternoon at the courthouse. The general summary of Agent Ross' report follows:

Cases dealing with human beings, 31; cases not substantiated, 10; human beings involved, 107; children involved, 57; adults involved, 50; cases due to drink, 3; desertion of family, 2; destitution, 10; neglect of family, 6; non-support, 5; abuse of family, 3; requiring medical aid, 6; children in improper surroundings, 3; relief extended to, 10; brought into municipal court, 4; tried in district court, 1; young girls involved, 5; young girls being abused by parents, 2; young girls unfortunate, 3.

Committed to—Work farm, 1; insane asylum, Fergus Falls, 1; home school for girls (through probate court, Carlton county), 1.

Placed in—Children's home, 5; municipal lodging house, 3; St. Luke's hospital, 2; state hospital for crippled and deformed, 1; various offenses, 5; number of cases referred to other organizations for disposition, 7.

Animal Welfare Work—Reported at office, 5; examined, 41; requiring care of veterinary, 2; ordered laid off, 2; ordered shod, 15; ordered blanketed, 54; blanketed by agent, 40; warning given for overdriving, 4; warning given for overloading, 12; cows examined, 1; cows humanely destroyed, 1; barns inspected, 8; crates of poultry inspected, 35.

Trips during month, one to Minneapolis, one to St. Paul, one to Orr, three to Carlton, one to Cloquet.

RICHESON GIVEN FREEDOM ON BOND

Bonds for Walter J. Richeson, convicted of the crime of misappropriating money as a public officer, were furnished yesterday afternoon in the sum of $1,500 by John H. Brigham, local attorney, and Thomas H. Sexton, assistant secretary of the Duluth Elks' club.

Richeson was granted a sixty days' stay before sentence will be passed. This will afford his attorneys, Walter F. Dacey and Warner E. Whipple, an opportunity to prepare motions for a new trial.

EXPERTS IN MINES NEEDED BY U. S.

Chemical and mining experts seem to be in great demand in the Federal service, and examinations are announced by the civil service department for March and April. E. M. Barker, superintendent of the registry division of the Duluth postoffice will give full details to applicants. The examinations follow:

March 22—Laboratory aid, $600 to $960.

April 4—Assistant biologist, $2,000; assistant technologist, oil and gas production, $1,800 to $2,100; natural gas examiner, $1,800 to $2,500.

April 12-13—Laboratory assistant, $900 to $1,200.

CUSTANCE CHOSEN TO DIRECT THE MUSIC AT BUFFALO, N. Y.,

FOR IMPERIAL COUNCIL, MYSTIC SHRINE

Prof. A. F. M. Custance of this city has been signally honored by appointment to the chief musical directorship for the imperial council of the Shriners, to be held at Buffalo, N. Y., on July 11, 12 and 13.

Notice of the selection of Prof. Custance came from Charles D. Symms, past potentate of El Riad temple, Sioux Falls, S. D., who is chairman of the ceremonial committee for the conclave.

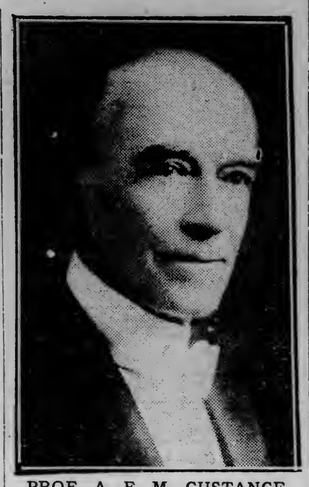
According to the plans outlined to Prof. Custance, it is the aim of those in charge of the convention for Ishmailia temple of Buffalo to stage a grand ceremonial for the benefit of the imperial potentate, the divan and the imperial council representatives on July 11, the opening night of the gathering. The ceremonial will be in three parts, similar to those staged by Aad temple of Duluth, but will include the Shrine celebrities of the nation and is to show just what a Shrine ceremonial can really be.

Ceremonial Will Be Large.

A class of twenty-five novitiates will "walk the sands" of Ishmailia temple on the night of the imperial ceremonial. The entire musical program for the entertainment and for the degree work and the program to follow will be arranged by Prof. Custance. He will leave for Buffalo about a week before the convention to make the necessary preparations, he said this morning.

Prof. Custance has taken a prominent part in local Masonic circles for many years and last fall was honored by being selected as chief musical director for the dedication of the Scottish Rite temple at Washington. He organized the Shrine girls' organization, the members of which take part in all the Aad temple ceremonials and who last year were given the official title of "the imperial Shrine girls of America" by Frederick B. Smith, then imperial potentate of the fraternity.

Prof. Custance is the chief musical director for Aad temple and is in charge of all the musical entertainments staged by the Shriners during the spring and fall ceremonials.



PROF. A. F. M. CUSTANCE.

HUMBLE BUTTON HAS COME INTO ITS OWN AT LAST

NO LONGER MERE SAFETY PIN SUBSTITUTE

For the Tall Man Many Buttons, but—

The humble button has been emancipated.

Time was when the button's only duty was to keep a man's coat from flapping in the breeze, or from sliding around until it was all out of shape.

This spring (fashion czars have ruled) the tall, gaunt, bean-polish sort of a man must wear four, five or even six buttons on his coat.

The rotund, roly-poly runt may content himself with one lone button and the ordinary man, or ordinary height, should wear two or three buttons.

If he is a short medium, two will suffice; if he is a long medium, perhaps four will be necessary, but if he is merely a happy medium, three will be all right, and the most fastidious of Beau Brummels will be unable to find a sign of a fault.

In this way has the button come into its own. It now has more than a mere utilitarian (whatever that is) value; its province has been broadened and its occupation ennobled.

It has become a means of expression—something more than a mere evolution of the safety pin. In the words of one fashion molder: "It comes to stand in symbolic relation to the culture of the age."

So now, if your eyesight is poor, and if you are unable to tell whether a man is tall or short, merely count the buttons on his coat. It is very simple.

The idea is a good one, is it not? Now fashion experts are going to carry it even further. Just what they will evolve goodness only knows, but wait and see.

Perhaps, by the time another season has rolled around, one can tell how many times a man has been married by the shape of his hat; or how many children there are in his family by the shape of his shoes; or his age by the cut of his vest; or his nationality by the twirl of his cravat.

And for this new field of endeavor which thus has been opened—this ultra-futuristic art of expression which has been exploited—we must thank the button.

For the Runt One Is Enough.

An Easy Way to Get Fat and Be Strong

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on drugging their stomach or stuffing it with greasy foods; rubbing on useless "flesh creams," or following some foolish physical culture stunt, while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat.

There is a preparation known to reliable druggists almost everywhere which seemingly embodies the missing elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This modern treatment is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh-builders. Sargol aims through regenerative, reconstructive powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to the starved, broken-down cells and tissues of your body. You can readily picture what result this amazing transformation should produce as with increased weight the cheeks fill out, hollows about neck, shoulders and bust disappear and from 10 to 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh is added to the body. Sargol is absolutely harmless, inexpensive, efficient. Boyce Drug store and other leading druggists of this vicinity have it and will refund your money if you are not satisfied, as per the guarantee found in every package.

NOTE—Sargol is recommended only as a flesh builder and while excellent results in cases of nervous indigestion, etc., have been reported care should be taken about using it unless a gain of weight is desired.

WANT ADS PROVE THE TRUTH OF PROVERB

Woman still has the last word.

Sages and philosophers, from Solomon to Rudyard Kipling, agree that the eternal feminine wins when there is an argument, providing that mere man upholds one side of the discussion.

The old, old proverb has been proven once more, however, and this time it is by the want ad, something of which Solomon never heard.

Several days ago a Duluth citizen submitted to The Herald the following want ad:

PERSONAL—I, HARRY HAGADORN, wish to say that I will not be responsible for any bills contracted by my wife, as she has left my board and bed.

The next day another citizen—not a man—submitted her answer. Here it is, as published last evening:

PERSONAL—HARRY HAGADORN, if you pay your own bills you will have plenty to do. As for me, I always have paid, and expect to pay, my own bills. Mrs. Hagadorn, 817 East Second street.

The Herald want ads tell many an interesting story.

DULUTHIAN'S FATHER DIES AT MUNISING

George Gollinger, senior member of a well-known Munising, Mich., family and father of Hugh Gollinger, 720 Twelfth avenue east, Duluth, died at his home Feb. 22. Funeral services were held in Munising Feb. 26, according to the son, who has returned to Duluth. The elder Mr. Gollinger was 73 years old.

He was born at Buckingham, Que., Can., in 1839, and went to Munising, where he took up his residence in 1899. He was one of eleven children and the father of ten. All but one of the children are surviving, six sons being the pallbearers during the funeral services.

The daughters are Mrs. Margaret Wise of Munising, Mrs. Flora Pelnault of Noelville, Ont., and Mrs. Lena Malone of Limestone, Mich. Another daughter, Mrs. Thomas Flynn of Duluth, died last fall. The sons are Henry, Samuel, John, Frank and Edward, all of Munising, and Hugh of Duluth.

SELL BAD "GOODIES."

Two Confectionery Dealers Fined for Dealing in Coal Tar Dyes.

Two confectionery store proprietors were arrested on complaint of Dairy and Food Inspector Robert A. North, and fined $15 apiece in municipal court for violating the pure food law, yesterday.

M. L. Zein, of 101 West First street, paid his fine rather than serve ten days at the work farm, after he was found guilty of selling "pop" colored with coal-tar dyes.

M. M. Smith, of 2732 West Second street, was accused of handling wintergreen lozenges colored with coal-tar dye, and he paid a similar amount, rather than accept a ten-day work farm sentence.

Several other arrests of confectionery or grocery store proprietors are predicted within the next few days, as Inspector North has just completed a check of stores coming in that classification.

TELLS OF ARDUOUS TRIP.

Dr. F. H. Connors Entertains Clan Stewart With Tale of Experience.

A four-day canoe trip through the wilds of Northern Saskatchewan in the service of the Hudson Bay company, was described to about seventy-five members of Clan Stewart by Dr. Frank Connor last night.

Dr. Connor gave a word picture of his trip with an Esquimaux guide, and of their experiences during the first three days. On the fourth day, their canoe was upset in a heavy storm and they lost all their belongings. The rest of the journey was completed on foot.

Before the talk, clan members witnessed the initiation of several new members. An invitation was received to attend the installation of officers of Clan Forbes, No. 237, in West Duluth Monday night.

Silberstein & Bondy Company.

—Extra Special—

Black Voiles

Tomorrow and Saturday we offer you about 500 yards of Imported French All-wool Black Voile, plain and fancy weaves. This being a separate skirt season, you will make no mistake supplying yourself at this time. These are guaranteed fast black and worth from $1.25 to $2.00 the yard; these will not crush or wrinkle and are sure to give you excellent service. Special for Friday and Saturday at, the yard..... 95c

Sale of Madeira Embroideries

Many beautiful patterns in fine Madeira Embroideries will be put on sale Friday morning at 14c and 19c yard.

Remnants of Laces and Embroideries

Remnants of Laces, Embroideries and Dress Trimmings at less than half of actual cost.

Special lot of Pearl Buttons, 10c per card.

WOULD YOU LEAVE MONEY

In a barn or basement, then why store your good furniture, which cost money, in such a place. You will be surprised how low our rates are for storing in our dry, clean, modern warehouses. Telephone for rates, either phone 492.

DULUTH VAN & STORAGE CO.
18 FOURTH AVENUE WEST

Allcock PLASTERS Est. 1867

The World's Greatest External Remedy

Backache, Rheumatism, Lumbago, —Any Local Pain.

ALWAYS INSIST ON HAVING ALLCOCK'S

EXPECT BIG BUSINESS.

General Passenger Men Visit Duluth and Express Optimistic Views.

Duluth a railroad stronghold this year is the prediction of traffic men representing the different lines entering this terminal, judging from expressions made by five representatives yesterday. The yarn: W. R. Callaway of Minneapolis, general passenger agent of the Soo Line; Harry M. Lewis of St. Paul, assistant general passenger agent of the Soo; H. J. Bills of Minneapolis, district passenger agent of the Lehigh Valley road; G. J. Lovell of Minneapolis, Northwestern passenger agent of the Wabash, and M. L. Whittaker of St. Paul, traveling passenger agent for the Illinois Central.

"Business is promising—more promising than it has ever been before," said Mr. Callaway. "We are looking forward to a great season in Duluth."

LUCORE SELLS OUT.

New Manager Takes Charge of Duluth Candy Company.

George D. Lucore, founder of the Duluth Candy company in 1898, has disposed of his holdings.

Mr. Lucore was the majority stockholder in the candy company and his interest has been purchased by the George Ziegler Candy company of Milwaukee. The Duluth Candy company is capitalized at $50,000. E. J. Hutchinson, the new manager of the plant, took charge yesterday.

Young Bride Suicide.

Winona, Minn., March 2.—Mrs. F. J. Jezewski, who last week took bichloride of mercury to end her life, is dead. Prior to her death she issued a statement exonerating her husband from any blame. She was 20 years of age and had been married only a month.

Railroad Traffic Resumed.

Spokane, Wash., March 2.—Traffic on the Northern Pacific branch line between Missoula, Mont., and Wallace, Idaho, was resumed yesterday for the first time in a month. Interruption to traffic was due to snowslides.

Cold Sores and Fever Blisters

Thoroughly Tested and APPROVED by the Council of the American Home 24 Years of Endorsement are only outward manifestations of the inflammation of the mucous surface that lines the lungs, the stomach and all the digestive tract, but they give you evidence of how sore a membrane may become as a result of inflammation, which is stagnation of the blood, rightfully called acute catarrh.

If you suffer from such conditions don't let them become chronic, don't run the risk of systemic catarrh.

Clear it Up With PERUNA

When your system is cleared of all its poisons, the membranes soothed and healed, the cold gone and your digestion restored, you will enjoy life, feel equal to all its tasks, and be at peace with the world. Let Peruna do for you what it did for this sufferer:

Mrs. L. A. Patterson, 238 Utah Avenue, Memphis, Tenn. says:

"I have been a friend of Peruna for many years. I have used it off and on for catarrhal complaints and found it a very excellent remedy. I have a small family of children. Times are hard with us, but I can scarcely afford to do without Peruna, especially during the season of the year when coughs and colds are prevalent. We always reccommend Peruna to our neighbors, for the benefit it has been to us."

You needn't suffer longer with such a remedy at hand.

Peruna TABLETS FOR GRIP, COUGHS, COLDS, CATARRHAL DISEASES AND WHERE A TONIC IS REQUIRED. DIRECTIONS. Manufactured by THE PERUNA COMPANY Columbus Ohio. Price 50 Cts. (6 boxes for $2.50)

Peruna can be obtained in tablet form. You can carry it with you and take it systematically and regularly for a remedy, or as needed for a preventive. Get a box today.

The Peruna Company, Columbus, Ohio

CLEARANCE SALE —OF— STANDARD PIANOS

Grands, Player Pianos and Uprights all go at cut prices to make room for the new stock.

READ THESE PRICES:

Beautiful Walnut Case Piano, completely overhauled, in good condition, at only..... $85

Practically new, mahogany case Grand, only..... $450

Used Piano, rosewood case; exceptional bargain, only..... $35

Auto Piano Player, 65 note; beautiful mahogany case, in fine condition, only..... $185

Primatone Player, just like new; mahogany case, 88 note..... $225

Fine condition Walnut Case Piano..... $55

Free Scarf—Free Stool
Free Delivery.

COUPON

Fill in Coupon for Special "Out of Town" Piano Sale Proposition

Name .....

Address .....

City .....

And Mail to—
SMITH & ALLEN CO.,
Duluth, Minn.

Easy Terms. Open Evenings.

SMITH & ALLEN CO
311 WEST FIRST STREET.

You Can Change Your Left Heel to your Right When it Wears Down if it's

Heimbach's DOUBLE-WEAR Rubber Heel

Safety Deposit Vault

¶Absolute safety is insured your papers and other valuables in our Safety Deposit Vault. ¶These Safety Deposit boxes cost but a small sum per year, are readily accessible, can be opened by you alone, and being fire and burglar proof, offer you absolute safety. For ordinary purposes, you will find the box which rents for $3.00 per year gives you ample space.

American Exchange National Bank

OUR skill and long experience enable us to test your eyes in the very best manner.

C. D. TROTT, Optometrist
6 East Superior Street.

Subscribe for The Herald

DULUTH IS RECOGNIZED

Pennsylvania Road Will Have Representative in This Territory.

First of Eastern Lines to Send Passenger Agent Here.

Another recognition of the growing importance of Duluth as a passenger center was reported today from the Pennsylvania railroad system in the appointment of D. H. Rubsam as traveling passenger agent here.

This is the first time that any Eastern road has had an exclusive passenger representative in this city, and means, according to C. L. Kimball, assistant general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh, that Duluth has become of enough importance so that the Pennsylvania could no longer afford to trust its growing business at this point to outside agents.

Mr. Rubsam was formerly passenger agent of the Pennsylvania lines in Kansas City and comes to Duluth with the recommendation of being an energetic passenger man. The local office of the company is located at 607 Palladio building, where the Pennsylvania has maintained a local freight representative for some time.

"Duluth, both as a growing city and a very rapidly expanding passenger gateway, is deserving of a local agent of our lines," said Mr. Kimball, in discussing the decision to place a representative in the local field. "We have contemplated the move for some time and recently arrived at the conclusion that we could not serve our best interests by postponing the move any longer.

"Our decision is a recognition of what business Duluth has given us and the belief we have in Duluth's future. A railroad can best be served by a man on the ground. We want to serve Duluth in the best possible manner, and believe that in the future this city will become one of the greatest passenger points of the West."

W. E. Blachley of Winnipeg, district passenger agent of the Pennsylvania lines at that point, is also here today. Mr. Blachley formerly covered this territory in Western Canada. The appointment of Mr. Rubsam as local passenger agent, will result in the confinement of Mr. Blachley's activities to the Western Canadian territory.

The appointment of a local Pennsylvania line passenger agent, it is believed in local railway circles, is the beginning of a wider recognition of Duluth's importance in the passenger world. It is believed that the move of the Pennsylvania will be followed by other Eastern lines.

GERMAN SEA RAIDER IS CAPTURED OFF BRAZIL

(Continued from page 1.)

her. Under cover of darkness the German ship got away. She was, however, damaged on her upper works by the French fire.

There is some doubt, however, as to the identity of the German vessel reported to have been captured. Another version of the account is that the vessel in question is the German cruiser Roon.

The Moewe first came into prominence with the arrival at Hampton roads several weeks ago of the British steamship Appam, in charge of a German prize crew. She brought word of a mysterious German commerce raider, the Moewe, which was roaming the seas and had captured and sunk seven British merchantmen and admiralty transports in addition to capturing the Appam.

Dispatches from the Canary Islands late last month reported the arrival of the British steamer Westburn with a German prize crew on board, said to be from the Moewe. According to these reports the Moewe, continuing her activities after capture of the Appam and the seven other British vessels, between Jan. 16 and Feb. 9 sank five British steamers off the coast of Brazil.

A vigorous search for the Moewe was begun by the British admiralty. The Moewe was reported to be a tramp steamship fitted with guns for preying on commerce of the Entente allies.

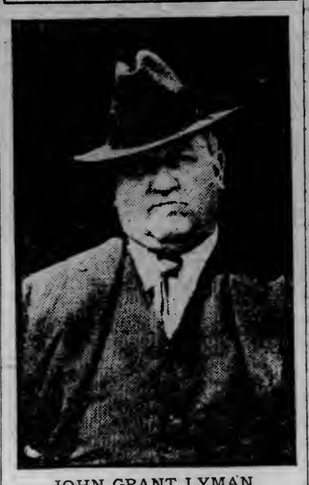
The German cruiser Roon was said to have escorted the Moewe when the latter captured the Appam. A report that the Roon had been captured by the British cruiser Drake off Bermuda was published last month, but subsequently was denied.

The island of Trinidad is one of the British West Indies, lying off the coast of Venezuela.

Calumet Firm Bankrupt.

Calumet, Mich., March 2.—Arne & Ruttenberg, local clothiers, have filed a petition in bankruptcy in the Federal court at Marquette, listing their liabilities as $38,704.38 and assets at about the same figures, claiming $2,500 as exemption.

CLEVER SWINDLER BROUGHT FROM FLORIDA TO NEW YORK



JOHN GRANT LYMAN.

New York, March 2.—John Grant Lyman, who was arrested several days ago at St. Petersburg, Fla., where he fled from this city Feb. 8, after the discovery of an alleged oil stock swindle said to have netted him more than $300,000, was returned here last night in the custody of government agents.

GERMANS BEGIN NEW DRIVE SOUTH OF VERDUN

(Continued from page 1.)

front, the communication says is unchanged.

The text of the statement follows:

"Western front: The situation is unchanged. In the Yser district the enemy's artillery was very active.

"On the eastern bank of the Meuse the French once more sacrificed troops in useless counter-attacks against the fortress of Douaumont.

"Eastern front: On the northern part of this front there were very spirited artillery engagements at several places. German field guns made successful attacks on detachments of enemy troops.

"Northwest of Mitau a Russian aircraft was shot down in an aerial fight. The occupants of the aircraft were captured.

"German airmen successfully attacked the Molodechno railroad."

Pause Mystifies French.

Paris, March 2.—The press and public of France are mystified at the continued pause in the German attacks around Verdun. Caution born of experience leads generally to the rejection of the view that the Germans have given up all hope of trying to capture the Lorraine fortress. It is thought more likely they are merely resting before starting afresh with greater energy. It is believed in many quarters that the attack on Verdun was only a preliminary to operations on a much larger scale for the purpose of trying to crush the French once and for all. However that may be, it is affirmed that Gen. Joffre is fully prepared for all eventualities. So far only the local French reserves have been called upon at Verdun, the great general reserve forces remaining intact for use in repelling other heavy onslaughts or for carrying out a great counter-attack when the opportune moment comes.

Question as to Next Move.

The question is raised as to whether the next German attack will again be at Verdun or along the front from the Somme to the Aisne, as it is known that the Germans have been making preparations along the latter lines, the southern limit of which is many miles nearer to Paris than is Verdun. These preparations, however, are not so elaborate as those which had been made for Verdun and should the Germans attempt the latter plan the military observers say they would be liable to a flank attack by the British in Artois and Flanders.

No news has been received of Lieut. Col. Driant, a son-in-law of the late Gen. Boulanger and deputy for Nancy, since the beginning of the battle in which he commanded two battalions of light infantry.

PRESIDENT TURNS TO THE SENATE FOR FIRST ACTION ON ARMED SHIP QUESTION

(Continued from page 1.)

resolution up for action as soon as possible, but probably not today. We have got the votes in the senate to smash it."

Senator Stone from the floor announced that he and President Wilson were not in accord on the issue.

"I desire to state the international situation as I understand it," said the senator.

"A sharp issue has been defined between Germany and Great Britain as to the status of armed merchantmen. Germany contends that armed merchant vessels are the equivalent of auxiliary war vessels, and has announced her policy to be that after March 1 armed merchantmen would be regarded as warships and subject to the rules of war.

"On the other hand, Great Britain contends that under international law merchantmen have the right to be armed for defensive purposes and that armed merchantmen are entitled under the law to the same immunity as unarmed ships without regard to cargo. She has announced her intention to carry out that policy.

"That is the issue between the two governments.

Position of United States.

"Now where does the United States come in? In this way: If both persist in these courses, neither yielding to each other, nor to the importunities of neutrals, and if Germany attacks an armed merchantman and any American citizen is injured, the question is presented to this government what our attitude would be. If no American citizen were on board we would have no cause to interfere, unless we proceeded on the altruistic theory of obligations of humanity.

"To my mind this emergency is of high importance. The president, senators and representatives should speak with each other and with the country, free from political bias. We should wear our hearts on our sleeves so we may know our positions exactly.

"The president's attitude is: He supports the contention that belligerent merchantmen have the right to bear arms for defensive purposes but he does not say, nor do I and I doubt if anyone does, what constitutes defensive purposes.

"Furthermore, if a German warship without warning should attack and sink a merchantman the president proposes to consider the attack a lawless act. He will be disposed to hold the German government to strict accountability and if the German government persisted he would be tempted to sever diplomatic relations and submit the matter to congress, which under the constitution is the war making body.

Duty Is Clear

"If it must come to this and I must disagree with the president and if I must disagree with my colleagues I must not face this as a political question. My duty is clear. I cannot but believe that if a belligerent merchantman is armed, whether for defensive or offensive purposes, if it is transporting war material, it is the equivalent of a war vessel.

"I cannot discuss the question now but will merely state that in duty to myself, to my constituents, and to my country I will discuss it here at length in the near future. The president is opposed to the Gore resolution. He is not only opposed to laws on the subject but to any form of official warning keeping people off belligerent vessels.

"If I could have my way, I would take some step to save this country from becoming embroiled in the European war through the recklessness of some thoughtless citizen.

Source of Embarrassment.

"The president has written Representative Pou that the resolution has been a source of embarrassment to him in the diplomatic negotiations with the belligerents. I am sure that is so. I have diligently sought to prevent resolutions on this subject being adopted and sought to allay agitation on this subject. Now we are informed that the resolution must be defeated."

Senator Lodge replied that the president had a right to ask for a vote on the precise proposition of warning Americans inasmuch as the issue had hampered his negotiations, so that he could know whether he could proceed with diplomatic negotiations with congress behind him.

Senator John Sharp Williams, Democrat, stanchly defended the president.

Wants No Compromise.

Washington, March 2.—President Wilson told Chairman Flood of the house foreign affairs committee early today that he would consent to no compromise on the armed ship issue and desired a direct vote on a resolution warning Americans off armed ships of belligerent nations. Mr. Flood took the president's decision to the committee.

Reports to the administration today were that yesterday ten members of the foreign affairs committee were in favor of reporting out the McLemore resolution to warn Americans off armed ships and nine members were against it.

Ready to See Members.

A meeting of the committee, which was to have been held this morning, was postponed until 3 o'clock this afternoon, when Chairman Flood will deliver the president's message. The president kept in touch with the situation and was prepared to see any members if necessary.

Mr. Wilson had not been asked to see any committee of either house, to send any facts to congress, or to appear before congress in person as has been informally suggested. Administration officials characterized the proposed vote of confidence as "a soft soap" resolution to indorse the president and at the same time warn Americans off armed ships. They reiterated that no such resolution would be satisfactory.

There were some indications, according to these officials, that the president's stand was having the desired effect on the house. They felt that the only obstacle now was in the foreign affairs committee.

In his talk with Representative Flood today the president said flatly that what was wanted was a vote on the McLemore resolution or a similar one. He made it plain that he wants the armed ship agitation disposed of once and for all.

After Republican Support.

President Wilson and Republican Leader Mann of the house will discuss the attitude of Republicans on the armed ship issue at 5 o'clock this afternoon at the president's request. The president intends to place the issue squarely before the Republicans in an effort to gain their support.

Brakeman Leaves Hospital.

Thief River Falls, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—L. McAdams, brakeman on the Wheat Line division of the Soo, was discharged from the physicians' hospital this week after receiving attention for the loss of two fingers. McAdams slipped under a moving freight train near Viking last week.

WHO CAN DOUBT SWORN TESTIMONY OF HONEST CITIZENS?

SEVERE KIDNEY TROUBLES YIELD TO POPULAR REMEDY

For nearly nine years I was a great sufferer from what my doctor said was Kidney trouble and my blood was out of order; enduring all that time excruciating pain in my back and across my bowels. I was drawn down so that I could only walk with my hands on my knees. My doctor said he could do nothing for me. I tried many kinds of medicine but all to no avail. A friend told me about Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and as I had tried everything else that I heard of, I bought a bottle of Swamp-Root and it did wonders for me. I prize it higher than any other medicine and I shall recommend it to my friends. I wish to add right here that after using Swamp-Root for two months I began to straighten up and am now sound and well, and feel like I might live a long time yet to tell what your medicine has done for me.

Yours very truly,
T. C. CLAY,
750 Sugar St. Marion, Ohio.

State of Ohio
Marion County

Personally appeared before me this 19th day of December, A. D. 1914, T. C. Clay, who subscribed to the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

CHARLES W. HABERMAN,
Notary Public.
Marion Co., Ohio.

Some time ago I was taken with Kidney trouble which caused me to give up my work as blacksmith. I lost my appetite and could not sleep, from the dreadful pains that would come over me, from my kidneys. I was treated by a physician for about three months. He could not help me so finally he prescribed Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. I started taking same and before I had finished taking the first bottle I began to eat and sleep better than I had in a long time. I continued to take same until I was entirely cured and took on considerable weight.

I am now back working at my trade again and never felt better in my life. I appreciate what Swamp-Root has done for me and will recommend it to anyone who suffers with their kidneys. When physicians fail to give relief and then prescribe Swamp-Root, they sure know of its merits. I am,

Very truly yours,
S. A. HALE,
Henrietta, N. Y.

State of New York
County of Monroe
ss
S. A. Hale, of Henrietta, N. Y., being duly sworn deposes and says that he is the person who wrote the foregoing testimonial letter to Dr. Kilmer & Co., and knows the facts stated therein to be true.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 20th day of July, 1909.

MORRIS T. GRIFFIN,
Notary Public.

Prove What Swamp-Root Will Do For You

Send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample size bottle. It will convince anyone. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling about the kidneys and bladder. When writing, be sure and mention the Duluth Herald. Regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

Mrs. Tilford Moots has sent a card t' her niece in Floridy sayin', "You hain't got nothin' on us. We're enthr oranges an' snowballs both. Wish you wux here."

(Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.)

'MR. COCKEREL' MADE LONG TRIP IN SAFETY

Mr. Cockerel No. 757 arrived in Duluth this morning via the Great Northern and Adams express route. From notations on the box evidently he had been well fed and watered along the route. The cockerel was consigned to J. P. Grout of the Jean du Luth farm.

As a warning to the expressmen the following letter was posted in a prominent place on the crate:

"Chambersburg, Pa.

"Mr. Expressman:

"I am off on a long journey and if you don't comply with the instructions given you by your ancient and honorable company you will be reported by my boss when I tell him of the neglects and abuses and you will surely get fits and may be discharged. So please see that my water can is half filled at once each day. If you do not give me any feed I can manage to get along unless tied up in some snow drift or other delay.

"Thanking you in advance for favors received, I am very truly your friend,
"COCKEREL NO. 757."

Notations on the slip indicated that the rooster had been fed at several points along the line.

CLOQUET INDUSTRIES NOW STARTING UP

Another Mill in Sawmill Town Has Begun to Saw Lumber.

Cloquet, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Johnson-Wentworth Lumber company resumed sawing in their large plant here this morning and will continue with a night and day shift throughout the season. This is the second sawmill to start since the first of the year, the Northern Lumber company having started its upper mill about Jan. 15. The Rathborn, Hair & Ridgway company also started its box factory with a night shift since the first of the year, which gives employment to about 500 to 600 men additional by those plants starting.

The lumber business has been rather brisk this season and shipping has continued good throughout the winter, some of the planing mills running full ten hours even in the short days, which is unusual.

CLOQUET NOTES.

Cloquet, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—F. W. Wilhelmi left yesterday on an extended business trip to Spokane, Wash., and other Western points.

Charles McDermott, superintendent of logging for the Cloquet Lumber company, has been in the city on business.

Simon Loisel and William Delyea left yesterday for Couer d'Alene, Idaho, to remain for some time. About twenty young people tendered Mr. Loisel a surprise farewell party at the home of his father, Joseph Loisel, north of town.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Rahja and family left this morning for Superior to make their future home.

Mrs. Peter Hubert left Tuesday morning for Lake Linden, Mich.

The following Cloquet people went to Duluth yesterday to see "The Bird of Paradise" at the Lyceum: Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Shean, Mrs. F. G. Freeman, Miss Frances and Grace McGugin, Miss Jessie McLeod, Dr. and Mrs. M. K. Whittemore, Mrs. John Stapleton, Walter Nelson and Mrs. Laura Maynard.

Mrs. A. Coathup and Mrs. F. V. Shampine entertained the Episcopal Guild of St. Andrews Episcopal church at the home of Mrs. Coathup Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. H. I. Lewis of Washburn, Wis., who used to teach in the local schools, is visiting friends in the city for a few days.

The Zeteleathea Bible class of the First M. E. church met at the home of G. W. Cross last evening and held their regular monthly meeting. After the business meeting a short program was given and refreshments were served.

WANTED
OFFICE BOY AT ONCE
DULUTH LOG CO.
PALLADIO BLDG.

DULUTH MAN TYPHUS VICTIM

Charles Obermeyer Stricken By Disease Now Ravaging Milwaukee.

Charles Obermeyer, formerly of Duluth, was one of the first victims of typhus in Milwaukee, according to information received by Mrs. Marie Obermeyer, 123 First avenue west, mother of the young man. Mr. Obermeyer was 23 years old and had worked in an automobile establishment in Milwaukee for two years.

Mrs. Obermeyer, who is president of the Zenith Auto company here, received word of her son's death yesterday afternoon. She also received information that the epidemic was widespread in the Wisconsin city, and that a fund of $10,000 wes being raised by citizens there to employ nurses and medical treatment for the many patients suffering from typhus.

Mrs. Obermeyer said her son lived in Duluth only one year, which was just before his leaving for Milwaukee. The funeral will be held in Milwaukee.

BANISH SCROFULA

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cleanses the Blood, Skin Troubles Vanish.

Scrofula eruptions on the face and body are both annoying and disfiguring. Many a complexion would be perfect if they were not present.

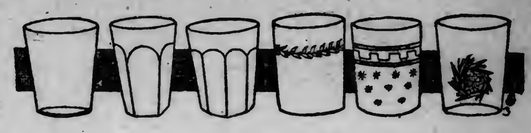
This disease shows itself in other ways, as bunches in the neck, inflamed eyelids, sore ears, wasting of the muscles, a form of dyspepsia, and general debility.

Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla. This great medicine completely eradicates scrofula. It purifies and enriches the blood, removes humors, and builds up the whole system. It embodies the careful training, experience, and skill of Mr. Hood, a pharmacist for fifty years, in its quality and power to cure.

Scrofula is either inherited or acquired. Better be sure you are quite free from it. Get Hood's Sarsaparilla and begin taking it today.

Freimuth's
ASK FOR SECURITY VOUCHERS

Friday Basement Bargains



Tumblers
Straight shape Colonial Water Tumblers, regularly $1.20 a dozen—Friday, each— 6c

Tumblers
Clear blown Glass Water Tumblers, regularly 60c a dozen, Friday, set of six— 18c

Tumblers
Engraved blown Glass Water Tumblers, $1.20 a dozen, on Friday, each— 6c

Sugar and Creams
Fine Pressed Glass Sugar and Creams, engraved and cut. All new styles. Ordinarily $1.00 a set, on Friday—50 sets only at..... 59c

Matting Cases
Well made Matting Suit Cases, reinforced with steel frames; regular price is $1.50 each—special for Friday..... 98c

Aluminum Stew Pans
Genuine "Wear-Ever" Aluminum Shallow Stew Pans; 1 quart size; regularly 50c—100 pans only, Friday at..... 21c

Enamel Sauce Pans
White or white and blue triple enamel Sauce Pans, all sizes; regularly 35c to 75c each, on Friday at 35c, 25c, 19c and.... 15c

Wonder Cedar Mop
Well oiled and complete with long handle, special at— 25c

Gas Lamps
Handsome Gas Lamps, complete with shade, burner, etc. Brass or verdigris finishes. Only 15 in the lot, ranging from $4.98 to $14.50—on Friday at— 1/2 PRICE

White Flyer Soap
No better laundry soap made—special Friday— 8 Bars for 25c
No telephone orders

MACHINISTS GO ON STRIKE AT BUFFALO

Automobile Company's Employes Demand Eight-Hour Day.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 2.—Five hundred machinists out of 1,500 at the Pierce Arrow Automobile company went on strike today in response to a strike vote by the machinists' union. The plant has large war orders for motor trucks.

Two hundred men at the Curtis Aeroplane company joined the strikers. Several other small concerns were forced to close. Union officials predicted that 10,000 would be affected by Saturday. The men demand an eight-hour day, time and a half for overwork, no Sunday work and a wage scale with a minimum of 40 cents an hour.

The state industrial commission and the state board of mediation and arbitration are endeavoring to adjust the difficulty.

RED RIVER VALLEY OLD TIMERS MEETING

Annual Gathering Just Held at Crookston Largely Attended.

Crookston, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The meeting of the Red River Valley Old Settlers' association, held in the Commercial club rooms Tuesday evening, was the largest winter meeting ever held by the association, over 300 pioneers and their families sitting down to the banquet. Those eligible to membership must have settled in the Red River valley prior to Dec. 31, 1881. There were no representatives of the "Catfish" class, 1871 or prior, but four members of the "Dog Train" class, 1872-76, were present, Mr. and Mrs. E. Walsh and Mr. and Mrs. John Carter.

Old Settlers Respond.

The valley pioneers were welcomed by Mayor Harvey Misner and President John Carter of the old settlers' association responded. When the "Catfish" class was called, a letter was read from W. C. Nash of East Grand Forks, 83 years of age, the original Polk county homesteader, who filed at Oak Point(now Detroit), where the United States land office was then located. E. M. Walsh responded for the "Dog Train" class ('72-'76), W. A. Marin for the "Ox-Cart" class ('77-'79), James Cumming of Mallory for the "Stage Coach" class ('80-'81), Elias Steenerson for the territorial pioneers, A. A. Miller for the near-old settlers, while early-day reminiscenses were given by Judge William Watts and N. P. Stone and two readings given by John Crawford. N. S. Davies was toastmaster.

The old settlers plan a camp meeting gathering next summer, to which prominent territorial pioneers from the Twin Cities and Duluth will be invited. United States Senators Nelson and Clapp will be present and James J. Hill and Archbishop Ireland are expected to be among the speakers.

POLICE INVESTIGATE RIOTING IN CHICAGO

Chicago, March 2.—Chicago police are attempting today to learn the causes and persons responsible for the riot which occurred in a South Side hall last night when Dr. Joseph Slattery, a former Roman Catholic priest of Boston, and his wife, a former nun, attempted to speak on "Civic and Religious Liberty" at a meeting held under the auspices of the Guardians of Liberty. An investigation also is being made of the attack by a number of rioters upon the home of the Rev. R. Keene Ryan, who conducts Sunday services in the hall in which the trouble started, but who was said to be out of the city last night.

It was reported today that neither Dr. Slattery nor his wife, who escaped from the hall under police escorts, was suffering ill effects from their experience. None of the persons injured was reported in a serious condition.

THIEF RIVER CLUB WILL ENTERTAIN

Thief River Falls, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The next "stand-up feed" of the Commercial club will be held next Tuesday night, March 7, at 6:15 p. m. The members of the Junior Commercial club will have charge of the entertainment, the catering being by the Brumond hotel. Several papers will be read by the juniors on civic affairs, and they have their own quartet which will appear for the first time.

Teeth Troubles

are not necessary while we do high-class work for so little. Toothache is more your neglect than any one else's. We fill them, crown them and thereby save you teeth troubles. The cost is little, the work is guaranteed and only graduate and registered dentists render service here.

FILLINGS
Gold Enamel and Alloy.....$1 up
Silver and Cement Fillings..50c up

CROWNS
Gold or Porcelain....$3, $4 and $5

SETS OF TEETH
Guaranteed at $5, $8 and $10.

BRIDGEWORK
Gold or Porcelain.....$3 to $4

—Office Hours—
Daily from 8:30 a. m. to 7 p. m.
Sundays, 10 a. m. to 1 p. m.
Lady Attendant at All Times.

NEW METHOD DENTISTS
25 WEST SUPERIOR STREET.
Over Bon Ton Bakery.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

WHOLESALE

FRUIT and PRODUCE FIRMS OF DULUTH

FITZSIMMONS-PALMER CO.

OLDEST COMMISSION FIRM IN DULUTH

STACY-MERRILL FRUIT CO.

WHOLESALE

FRUIT and PRODUCE

210 and 212 West Michigan Street

CULBERTSON BROS. CO.

WHOLESALE

FRUITS

"The House With a Shipping Organization."

126 and 128 West Michigan St.

PIANO PRICES

and quality which will interest you, and many American leading standard makes of Grand, Upright and Player Pianos to choose from. We have no agents, no canvassers, no high priced managers. You can always save their big commissions if you come to our manufacturers' headquarters to buy an instrument for cash or on payments. Call or write.

KORBY PIANO CO.,
Duluth's Oldest Piano House,
26 Lake Avenue North.

CURED OF BAD VEINS

Confined to His Home for Many Weeks

"Heavy work, severe straining and evil habits brought on Varicose veins. When I worked hard the aching would become severe and I was often laid up. My family physician told me an operation was the only hope—but I dreaded it. I tried several doctors, but soon found out that all they wanted was my money. I commenced to look upon all doctors as little better than rogues. One day my boss asked me why I was off work so much and I told him my condition. He told me to go to the Progressive Medical Doctors at No. 1 West Superior street. He had been cured himself by them and he knew they were square, and knew men's diseases better than other doctors. They applied their Nature Method and at first my progress was somewhat discouraging. However, I continued treatment for three months longer and was rewarded with a complete cure. I could only earn $12 a week in a machine shop before treatment, now I am earning $21 and never lose a day. I wish all sufferers knew of your valuable treatment."—H. H.

Average Time of Cure Two Months

No detention from business. We cure every case of Varicocele and Varicose Ulcers, no matter how bad it may be. We must apply the first treatment ourselves. Our secret injection Method that is applied directly into the tissue of the diseased Veins, is our own invention. It absolutely removes cramps, big knotted veins of the leg and elsewhere. Our cures astonish people everywhere. It is the most wonderful discovery for these troubles. Our treatments put an end to all suffering. Tiredness and worry disappear almost at once, the disease stays cured forever.

'606' Is the Curative Treatment of SPECIFIC BLOOD POISON. '914'

It's the most wonderful discovery of our century; it absolutely cures. Man, are you a victim? Let us help you; we have helped hundreds like you. Has your blood been diseased? Do you intend to marry? Have you any weakness? LET US CURE YOU. What we have done for thousands, we can do for you. If other doctors have failed to cure you, we will prove to you what power there is in Natural Methods to cure. CONSULTATION FREE. Write for symptom blank, if you can't call. Hours, 9 to 6; Wednesdays and Saturdays, open till 8 o'clock; Sundays, 10 to 1.

PROGRESSIVE MEDICAL DOCTORS

1 WEST SUPERIOR STREET, CORNER LAKE AVENUE, DULUTH.

CHICHESTER S PILLS

THE DIAMOND BRAND.

Ladies! Ask your Druggist for Chi-ches-ter's Diamond Brand Pills in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with Blue Ribbon. Take no other. Buy of your Druggist. Ask for CHI-CHES-TER'S DIAMOND BRAND PILLS, for 25 years known as Best, Safest, Always Reliable

SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

ROMANCE OF FOOTLIGHTS

Last Chapter of Strange Story Written in Divorce Court.

District Judges Are Busy Correcting the Errors of Cupid.

Eleven years have come and gone since Miss Mary Capron, a dainty little English actress, fell in love with Byron Bicknell, an American actor touring England. They were married in Birmingham, England, on Feb. 6, 1905, and for three weeks were as happy as turtle doves, but——

Bicknell had forgotten to tell his newly-acquired bride that he had another wife. One day a theatrical agent "tipped her off." Mrs. Bicknell No. 1 was also a professional woman and was touring England at the time. The second wife sought her out and confirmed the report. From wife No. 1 she learned that her American actor husband had betrayed her and he had been previously married in the United States.

Bicknell evidently learned that his second wife knew of the prior marriage for he immediately bade England goodby and left for the United States. He canceled all of his engagements and fled for his native land.

The story of the strange romance of Bicknell's second marriage and the still stranger story of a second meeting of Mrs. Bicknell No. 2 and her faithless husband were unfolded today in Judge Cant's division of the district court, where Mrs. Mary Bicknell applied for a decree annulling her purported marriage with Bicknell.

Chance Meeting.

The chance meeting of the pair took place in this city last June. Mrs. Bicknell happened to drop into the Grand theater one Saturday afternoon and in one of the entertainers who performed that week she recognized her husband. It was the first time she had seen him in ten years. She immediately sought out Walter Genska, a local attorney, and had divorce proceedings started against him. Bicknell was served with papers before he left the city.

When the divorce case came on for trial, it appeared that there had been a former marriage of the parties and Judge Fesler advised that the proper relief was a suit asking for annullment of the marriage. This was the nature of the action brought on before Judge Cant this morning. Mrs. Bicknell produced a certified copy of a record of Bicknell's marriage with one Florence Thorne at Missoula on Feb. 12, 1896.

Bicknell was doing a turn as a novelty and comedy clay modeler when he appeared here last summer. He is the son of a prominent and wealthy Chicago business man and has been in the theatrical business for a number of years. Mrs. Bicknell has appeared in several vaudeville engagements in this city and has made her headquarters in Duluth for the last three years.

Neither drink nor trouble over money matters brought about a breach of domestic relations in the household of Chris and Dorothy Mabel Hendrickson. "He had such an ugly temper that we just couldn't get along," Mrs. Hendrickson told Judge Cant this morning, when she applied for a decree.

Three weeks after their marriage, Hendrickson slapped her, she testified. He also used to call her bad names and another favorite diversion was throwing things at her. Once it was a flatiron. Another time he hurled an ash tray, she declared.

Henrickson, who is 33, was formerly a city fireman, but is now working at his trade as a painter and decorator. They were married in this city on Sept. 17, 1914, and resided at 317½ Third avenue east. Mrs. Hendrickson is 20 years old.

Judge Cant granted the divorce on the grounds of cruelty. Mrs. Hendrickson was permitted to resume her maiden name, that of Dorothy Mabel Behrens.

* * *

It did not require John Francis Shea, 31, long to squander the $10,000 which his folks gave him for a wedding present when he married Blanch Newman Shea, 28, according to the story which Mrs. Shea related yesterday afternoon in Judge Cant's division of the court.

They were married in St. Paul on Sept. 2, 1909, and are parents of one daughter, Patricia, aged 1, who is now with her mother. Mrs. Shea testified that her husband left her while they were residing in Duluth, the date of the alleged desertion being Oct. 4, 1914. The decree was granted.

* * *

Because Raymond J. West, 23, is now serving a term in the Minnesota state reformatory in St. Cloud for stealing from his mother-in-law, Mabel West, 19, mother of two children, was yesterday afternoon granted a divorce from him. The case was heard before Judge Cant. The Wests were married five years ago. West, she claims, deserted her on four or five different occasions.

* * *

Judge Cant yesterday afternoon granted Carl S. Carlson, 25, a decree of divorce from his wife, Selma Carlson, 25, and gave him the custody of their child, Carl, aged 2. Carlson testified that on Jan. 3, 1916, his wife committed adultery with one Andrew Dahl. She was arrested and indicted for the crime, and at the last term of the distict court pleaded guilty and was paroled. Dahl disappeared from the city. The Carlsons were married on Dec. 23, 1911.

* * *

Matt Palo, 35, told Judge Ensign that he did not like the habit of drinking which his wife acquired soon after she married him, and yesterday afternoon the court granted him a decree of legal separation on the grounds of drunkenness and desertion. He testified that Maybelle Palo, 27, married him in August of 1912, and that they lived together until November of 1914, when she deserted.

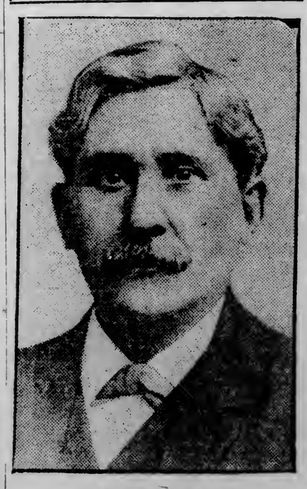
* * *

On the grounds of desertion, Henry Warner was granted a decree of divorce from June S. Warner by Judge Cant yesterday afternoon. They were married on Nov. 25, 1913, and he declared that she left him during the following May. He is 27 and she 24.

* * *

In Judge Cant's division yesterday afternoon, Laura Carlson was granted a divorce from Victor Carlson on the grounds of desertion.

ONE OF PRINCIPAL LEADERS OF ENGLISH TRADE UNIONISTS



HARRY GOSLING.

Harry Gosling is one of the principal leaders of the trades unionists in England. He presided at the recent meeting which protested against conscription.

RICHARD STRAUSS TO WRITE NEW HYMN FOR GERMANY

RICHARD STRAUSS.

According to a report from Berlin, Richard Strauss is to write a new national hymn for Germany to replace "Heil dir in Siegerkranz." That is, he is to compose the music and the kaiser is to write the words. The trouble with the music of "Heil," etc., is that it is the same as "God Save the King."

TRUSTEE'S SALE

The stock of jewelry, inventorying about $4,700.00, belonging to the bankrupt estate of Emilio Chiarappa, alias

I. FUDA

will be sold for cash to the highest bidder on Monday, March 6th, 1916, at 10:00 a. m. at 631 Manhattan Bldg., Duluth, Minn.

Sale subject to confirmation by the court. Inventory may be inspected at 631 Manhattan Bldg.

W. O. DERBY, Trustee.

DULUTH WOMEN NOT EAGER TO BE BRIDES

This is leap year, too!

Melvin G. Harmer of Springville, Utah, is 36 years old, 6 feet tall, without a single bad habit and with a life income, and he wants a wife. He wrote Mayor Prince the other day for assistance in helping him find a young woman in Duluth "between 25 and 35 years of age, who is worthy of and wants a husband."

The letter to the mayor came last Monday and was published in The Herald, but up to the present not a woman has replied. This situation is puzzling city officials. They ask:

Don't the young women of Duluth care for a young man living in Utah?

Are they opposed to a man, who hasn't a bad habit?

And lastly, don't they care to marry?

This is leap year, too, and here is a man "handed out on a gold platter," with nary an answer.

PROHIBITIONISTS WILL HAVE PLACE IN PRIMARY

Madison, Wis., March 2.—A sufficient number of nomination papers will be filed by the Prohibition party in Wisconsin to entitle it to a place on the presidential primary. Almost enough signatures have already been obtained and sent to the secretary of state. Other papers are expected before Saturday. The papers declare in favor of William Sulzer of New York as a presidential candidate and for W. G. Calderwood of Minneapolis for a vice presidential candidate.

The papers for Wilson on the Democratic ticket and Senator La Follette and the conservative delegates are expected to be filed either Friday or Saturday.

General Strike in Madrid.

Madrid, March 2, via Paris.—Disturbances over the food situation, which began with a strike of the Madrid bakers, have developed into a general strike, in consequence of which all retail business has been suspended while rioting of a serious nature has developed.

Diaz Rumors Denied.

El Paso, Tex., March 2.—Official denial of operations by adherents of Felix Diaz in the Douglas district of Sonora was made today by Mexican Consul Lelevier of Douglas, Ariz., in a dispatch to the Mexican consulate here.

THE VALUE OF TRUTH

Truth in business is just as important as truth in every-day life; truth creates confidence, establishes good-will and builds a reliability that will not be wrecked by the storms of competition.

Through three generations people have learned to place reliance on the advertised words of Scott's Emulsion, because they are untarnished, unexaggerated truisms about a household remedy of real and actual worth

The popularity of Scott's Emulsion is increasing as intelligence advances, because in these days of adulterations it continues to guarantee pure cod liver oil medicinally perfected with glycerine and hypophosphites to build strength, improve the blood and strengthen the lungs. It is free from alcohol or opiates—a wholesome food-tonic, truthfully advertised.

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 15-21

—Advertisement.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

DON'T LOSE YOUR HAIR, MISS HORrigan can save it.

MISS HORRIGAN WILL MAKE UP your combings into braids, transformations, etc., at little cost.

PROMPT SERVICE IN HAIR DRESSing, shampooing, children's hair cutting, manicuring, scalp treatment, hair tinting, bleaching and waving at Miss Horrigan's Hair Shop.

LOST—SMALL BLACK SPANIEL DOG wearing collar with owner's name, Dr. W. H. Magie. Reward if returned to 1401 East Superior street.

FOUND — WATCH ON KENWOOD road. Call J. P. Daly, 3902 West Third street.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Otto Sulomaa of Carlton county and Olga E. Heiskari.

John Roberts and Myrtle Bishop.

Samuel W. Polans and Sally M. Oreck.

Robert M. Latture and Addie Le Claire.

John Koman and Regina Kakowska.

Timothy J. Dunn and Claire Beerhalter.

Howard B. Snyder and Verna M. Gates.

Wedding Announcements—Engraved or printed. Consolidated Stamp and Printing Co., 14 Fourth avenue west.

14, 18 AND 22K SOLID GOLD WEDding and engagement rings made and mounted to order at Henricksen's, 332 West Superior street.

Engraved and printed birth announcements. Consolidated Stamp & Print. Co.

BIRTHS.

FOLEY—The birth of a son on Feb. 23 has been reported by Mr. and Mrs. G. Lyman Foley of 138 Second street, Morgan Park.

SMITH—A daughter was born Jan. 31 to Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Smith, 35 Third street.

DORVALL—Mr. and Mrs. Louis G. Dorvall, 329 Eighth avenue west, are the parents of a son, born Feb. 18.

YORK—The birth of a daughter on Feb. 18 has been reported by Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. York, 2125 East Fifth street.

BURROUGHS—A son was born Feb. 21 at St. Mary's hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Martin J. Burroughs.

RHEINBERGER—The birth of a son on Feb. 24 has been reported by Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Rheinberger of 328 Leicester avenue.

CLAYPOOL—Mr. and Mrs. J. Verner Claypool of Coleraine are the parents of a daughter, born Feb. 25 at 1301 East Superior street.

WARD—Supt. and Mrs. Fred Ward of the county work farm are the parents of a daughter, born Feb. 28.

HOOEY—A son was born March 1 to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hooey of 114 Myrtle street, Duluth Heights.

HENDRICKSON—The birth of a daughter on Feb. 29 has been reported by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hendrickson, 2226½ West Sixth street.

MOREN—Mr. and Mrs. Erick Moren, 2212 West Eighth street, are the parents of a daughter, born Feb. 15.

Deaths and Funerals

PERSGARD—Mrs. Minnie Persgard, wife of Oscar Persgard of 618 East Eighth street, died at St. Mary's hospital yesterday after a short illness. She was 23 years old. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2:30 p. m. from the residents of the parents, 616 East Fifth street. Rev. J. H. Stenberg will officiate and interment will be at Park Hill cemetery. Mrs. Persgard leaves her husband, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Berg, and two brothers, Arthur and Herbert Berg, both of Duluth.

ROBINSON—Funeral services for Mrs. Arthur Robinson, who died Monday night at 1506 Belmont road, will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Bethesda church, Sixth avenue east and Sixth street. Services were delayed to await the arrival of the decedent's father, Peter Lee, a North Dakota resident.

PETERSON—The funeral for Obert H. Peterson, aged 28, 2303 West Seventh street, who died Saturday at St. Mary's hospital, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Olson & Hoppenyan undertaking rooms. Interment will be in Park Hill cemetery. His brother was found in a Cloquet hospital just recovering from pneumonia. He arrived in the city this morning.

MONUMENTS.

LARGEST STOCK OF HIGH-GRADE monuments in the Northwest; call and inspect before buying elsewhere. P. N. Peterson Granite Co., 230 E. Sup.

FUNERAL FLOWERS A SPECIALTY. Duluth Floral Co., 121 W. Superior St.

CARD OF THANKS.

WE WISH TO EXPRESS OUR heartfelt thanks to friends of William Broeker for the kindness and sympathy shown us during the illness and subsequent death of our beloved son and brother, also for the many beautiful floral tributes, especially to the Northwestern Shoe company.

JULIUS BROEKER AND FAMILY.

BUILDING PERMITS.

To B. E. Burdick, garage on the north side of Second street between Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth avenues east...	$ 1,000
To Joe Kaseya, barn on the south side of One Hundred and Fifth avenue west between Dickson and Reis streets	300
To Alex Maitland, alterations in Palladio building	200
To Elizabeth Vuckovick, installing gas tank on the east side of Commonwealth avenue between Ninety-ninth and One Hundredth avenues west	100
To John Bernie, remodeling store on the south side of First street between Seventh and Eighth avenues west	50

OBITUARY

Col. Everett O. Foss, formerly a newspaper publisher of Dover, N. H., who claimed the distinction of being the only man to witness the assassination of two presidents, died March 1. He was at Ford's theater when Lincoln was shot, and also was present at the shooting of Garfield. He received his title of colonel by appointment to the staff of the governor of Minnesota while engaged in newspaper work in St. Paul. He was 85 years old.

Col. Walter H. Taylor, well known throughout the South, died at Norfolk, Va., March 1, aged 74 years. He was adjutant to Gen. Lee in the Civil war and served in every campaign with Lee. The severe wounding of Gen. Joseph E. Johnson when McClellan's army was closing in around Richmond, put Col. Taylor, then adjutant, in command of the field of Confederate forces. He won great renown in that fight. He was author of "Four Years With Gen. Lee," and was an authority on Southern problems and the Confederacy.

Mrs. Mary Schwind, one of the most expert horseshoers in Southern Illinois, despite her 95 years, died at Belleville, Ill., March 1. Her husband, John Schwind, who will be 95 in May, is a smith and often during rush periods his wife went to the shop and helped him.

Just for Friday!

For a Delicious, Savory Luncheon, The Tea Rooms.

The Glass Block

The New Beauty Shop for Marcel, Manicure, etc.

Saucer Champagne

Saucer Champagne Glass in Colonial style. These glasses sell regularly at $1.75 the dozen. A set of six, just for Friday..... 79c

Candles

Just received a shipment of the latest in candles. See the new black and white, blue bird, etc. All colors in twisted candles, just for Friday, dozen..... 23c

Tungsten Lamps

25-watt size Tungsten lamps —Just for Friday..... 21c

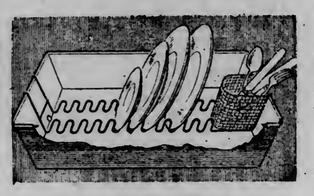
Limited 5 to a customer.

Brillo

Sanitary aluminum cleanser and polisher; cleans, scours and polishes; removes all dirt and discolorations—just for Friday at only..... 23c

Clothes Baskets

Medium size Willow Clothes Baskets that sell regularly at $1.00—just for Friday..... 89c



A Real Dish Drainer and Dryer

Note the special designed rack for holding silver. The dish and silver rack is removable. The pan is of heavy galvanized iron—for Friday..... 69c

Toilet Paper

Glass Block Special — just for Friday, 7 for..... 25c

Dinnerware

White Pennora! A 42-piece set for every day use—just for Friday, set.... $3.69

Zenith Ruby. Imported English ware in green and white—39-piece set, just for Friday, set..... $5.89

White and Gold. Imported white and gold pattern; 35 pieces in this set—just for Friday..... $11.98

Waffle Irons

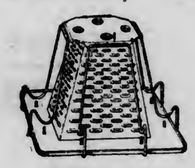
Aluminum Waffle Iron, the low stand. This iron sells regularly at $2.25 —just for Friday. $1.89

Ironing Boards

Something new in an ironing board on stand. Stands solid on the floor; easily folded up; sells regularly at $1.69—Just for Friday..... $1.48

Sad Irons

Three different sizes in set, with stand and handle. This is a nickel plated iron and sell regularly at $1.19 set—Friday. 89c



Toasters

The Ever Ready Toaster that toasts four slices of bread a minute— just for Friday..... 9c

Tea Kettles

An all copper Nickel Plated Tea Kettle, in large size. This kettle is worth today $1.98—just for Friday..... $1.47

100 Sewing Tables Free

An adjustable sewing table (exactly like cut) retails at $9.00. One of these tables will be given away with each

FLORENCE ROTARY SEWING MACHINE

(as long as the supply lasts) at about one-half price asked by others. Now is the time to get that new machine and take advantage of this generous offer. This table is a wonderful convenience in your home. It is adjustable for sewing, games, reading, cutting, the sick room and in many other ways. The 'Florence' Rotary is the machine we guarantee for life. That's what we think of it. It permits you to sew with lockstitch, chainstitch, and do beautiful hemstitching.

Really three machines for the price of one. Come and get yours now before they're all gone.

Pay $2.00 Down Then $1.00 Weekly—It's Soon Paid For!

Sewing Machine Dept., Fourth Floor.

Half Price Sale of All Remnants and Short Lengths

Friday morning our Semi-Annual Remnant Sale of Muslin, Sheetings, Mulls, Lawns, Fancy White Goods, Dimities, Longcloths, Nainsooks, Flannels, Percales, Ginghams, Prints and Fancy Wash Goods! Half price and less (according to the length of pieces.)

Brigham Young's Widow Dead.

Salt Lake City, March 2.—Mrs. Emmeline B. Wells, widow of Brigham Young, died here today, aged 90 years.

Penalty for Roads.

St. Paul, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—A penalty of 10 per cent for the non-payment of gross earnings taxes was entered against three Minnesota roads by the state tax commission today. The Dan Patch lins owes $8,609.54 and the Wabash and Hill City roads owe small amounts. In addition to the 10 per cent penalty interest of 1 per cent per month stands against the amount until paid.

Hearing on Freight Congestion.

Washington, March 2.—Freight congestion in Eastern terminals will be taken up by the interstate commerce commission with representatives of all interests concerned at a public hearing here March 6 and 7.

WISCONSIN PLANTS ARE BEING SCRUBBED

Madison, Wis., March 2.—State Dairy and Food Commissioner George J. Weigle says that more scrubbing and painting has been done in the Wisconsin cheese factories and creameries in the past three monhts than in ten years previous. He attributes this fact to the passage of a law by the last legislature requiring the licensing of those places.

"Character, ability and cleanliness are the three virtues required to obtain a license," declared Mr. Weigle. He says that this law and the campaign for cleanliness are putting Wisconsin dairy products on a higher plane than ever before.

BROWN'S Bronchial TROCHES

For Sore Throat

Relieve irritation and hoarseness, ease coughing, strengthen the voice.

10c TRIAL SIZE BOX

fits purse or pocket—convenient to carry. These Troches may be taken as required. Contain nothing harmful. Other sizes 25c, 50c & $1. At all druggists.

If your dealer cannot supply you, we will mail any size upon receipt of price.

JOHN I. BROWN & SON, Boston, Mass.

EXPOSITION PUT UP TO MERCHANTS

Committees Named to Call on Them to Learn Sentiment.

The general committee appointed a year ago to have charge of the industrial exposition which was to have taken place last fall but which was postponed until next fall, held a meeting at luncheon at the Commercial club this noon and appointed committees to see the wholesale and retail merchants of the city and find out the sentiment among them toward the holding of such an exposition next fall.

The committees are to report at a meeting of the general committee next Wednesday, and on their report the future of the movement will be determined. The committees appointed by Chairman C. F. Colman are as follows:

Wholesalers—Walker Jamar, G. H. Bate and E. A. Silberstein.

Retailers—A. L. Ahlen, A. C. Pearsons and A. B. Siewert.

MEXICAN GENERAL IS PUT TO DEATH

El Paso, Tex., March 2.—Gen. Benjamin Argumedo, leader of the opposition to the de facto government in Durango and the Laguna districts, was executed after court-martial at Durango City yesterday at noon, according to a dispatch received today from Gen. Murguya, military commander of Durango state, by the Mexican consulate here.

NO TRUTH IN STORIES OF SLEEPING SICKNESS

Oconto, Wis., March 2.—Dr. C. W. Stoelting, health officer, says there is no truth in a story of an epidemic of "sleeping sickness," and that there have been no deaths to his knowledge in the vicinity from such a cause. One girl, Dora Henderson, suffered from a form of hysteria which caused a comatose state for some days, but appears to have recovered.

Gray Hair? by druggists everywhere

sample FREE H. E. Nichols Clark av. St. Louis "Walnutta"

Society - Women's Clubs - Music - Drama

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Clark, 2423 East Second street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marie Ellsworth, to Edward Dean Coventry of Brainerd, Minn.

MARIE ELLSWORTH CLARK.

EVENTS OF TONIGHT AND TOMORROW.

The first presentation of "Her Sacred Duty" and "What It Gets Down To" will be given by the Drama league at 8:15 o'clock tonight at the Little theater.

The Acaelan assembly will give a dancing party tonight at Coffin's academy.

The Woman's council will meet at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning in the library clubroom.

The department of education and home of the Twentieth Century club will meet at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the library clubroom.

Events of Interest.

Mrs. F. H. De Groat, 1619 East First street, will entertain at a buffet luncheon and four tables of bridge Saturday at her home.

* * *

The Kitchi Gammi club will hold its pre-Lenten dance Saturday night instead of Tuesday night as originally announced. Dancing will be from 8 to 12, after which a buffet supper will be served.

* * *

The St. Louis County Medical association will entertain at a dancing party at the Kitchi Gammi club Tuesday evening. Cards will be provided for those not caring to dance. The committee consists of Drs. C. L. Haney, E. L. Cheney and E. L. Tuohy.

* * *

Mrs. William H. Crawford entertained at four tables of bridge this afternoon. This is the third of a series of parties Mrs. Crawford has been giving.

* * *

Mrs. Morris Freimuth, 1508 East Third street, will entertain at three tables of bridge Saturday afternoon in compliment to her sister, Miss Edna Krojanker, of Rockford, Ill., who is her guest.

* * *

Mrs. Walter T. Wright, North Sixteenth avenue east, will entertain at ten tables of bridge Tuesday afternoon at her home.

* * *

Mrs. H. W. Rowley of Woodland entertained Wednesday afternoon at bridge at her home, 235 Anoka street. Red carnations were used in decorating.

* * *

At a meeting of the dance committee of the Elks yesterday, it was announced that the next party to be given, March 17, would be an old-time costume dance. The committee in charge will be named in a few days.

* * *

The Acacian assembly will give the last of a series of winter dancing parties tonight at Coffin's academy. The committee in charge consists of J. Harris Trux, Bert W. Maxeiner, W. A. Putnam and Stanley L. Mack.

* * *

Tonight the Twin Ports lodge, No. 12, Shipmasters' association, will give a dancing party to members and friends at Foresters' hall, Fourth avenue west and First street. A large number of invitations have been sent out. It will begin at 8:30. Cards will be available for those who do not dance. The committee in charge consists of Capt. Jesse Pinney, Capt. Wilson McGregor, Capt. W. S. Lloyd, James E. Boll and Robert McFarlane.

* * *

The regular meeting of the Mothers' club of Munger school has been postponed until Friday, March 10.

Mrs. Nettie Cornell of Hotel St. Louis gave a luncheon yesterday at the Glass Block for her sisters and a few friends. The centerpiece was cut flowers and asparagus ferns. The guests were:

Mesdames—
Gibson, Superior, Bjorkman,
Magnuson, Rosen,
Flohr, Falstad.

* * *

The following officers were elected at the annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church, which was held yesterday afternoon: President, Mrs. J. W. Bayly; vice president, Mrs. Charles Shannon; secretary, Mrs. J. A. Wilhelmsen; treasurer, Miss Ella McPhail.

Members of Westminster auxiliary were hostesses at a social half hour which followed.

Program at Woodland.

The first program given by the Philathea class at the new Woodland M. E. church last night was attended by a big audience who thoroughly enjoyed the musical and literary program arranged by John Koneczny.

Purify the Complexion

Do not be troubled with complexion ills. Keep them concealed while you are treating them. You can do this instantly with

Gouraud's Oriental Cream

It will also assist you to overcome "those ills" at the same time if they do not originate internally. Renders to the skin a soft, pearly-white appearance.

Send 10c. for trial size

FERD. T. HOPKINS & SON
37 Great Jones St., New York City

Mother and Children Work Hard to Help Men at Front

MRS. W. ASTOR CHANLER AND CHILDREN.

Mrs. William Astor Chanler and her two children have been doing hard work for the French soldiers. Mrs. Astor Chanler has supervised many entertainments and the two little boys have taken part in tableaux for the benefit of the men at the front. Mrs. Chanler was Minnie Ashley, once a favorite of the light opera stage.

"Surprise" Symphony Will Be Given at Next Twilight Concert

Haydn's "Surprise" symphony will be given by the Duluth orchestra at the next twilight concert at the new armory next Sunday.

The symphony, which is written in the customary four movements, will be given complete. Haydn is generally looked upon as the father of the symphony, which later was developed to such a degree of perfection by Beethoven. Haydn was the first to adopt the symphony form, consisting of four movements, an allegro, a largo, or an adagio, or an andante, a scherzo or a minuet and the finale.

The work is in this composer's usual happy vein, and will be the orchestra's first effort in rendering a symphony in its entirety.

The entire program has been carefully arranged, every number of which is familiar to all concert goers. Director Bradbury had in mind the selection of a program of old-time favorites, and he has chosen those which he knew would appeal to all, both from their past and present popularity.

The soloists at Sunday's concert will be Faith Helen Rogers, who will play Liszt's Concerto in E flat for piano with the orchestra, and Charles Helmer, who will play as a trumpet solo, the beautiful aria, "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" from "Samson and Delilah" by Saint-Saens. Following is the program and a short description of its most important features:

1. Selections from "Tannhauser" ..... Wagner
2. Symphony No. 3 ("Surprise") ..... Haydn
   1. Adagio, vivace assai.....
   2. Andante .....
   3. Minuet .....
   4. Finale, allegro molto .....

Haydn's symphony No. 3 is known as the "Surprise" symphony because of the sudden fortissimo crash at the end of the second movement. Haydn wrote this work in 1791 while he was at the court of Prince Esterhazy. The prince one day complained that his music was dull, and Haydn determined to play a joke on his lord. When this symphony was being played, the dreamy, beautiful andante which served as the second subject had quite put the court to sleep, when suddenly the full orchestra in an unexpected crash aroused them to the fact that genial "Papa" Haydn had played a joke on them. Henceforth this symphony was known as "The Surprise."

3. Concerto for pianoforte No. 1 in E flat major .....Liszt
   Faith Helen Rogers.
4. Waltz—"On the Beautiful Blue Danube" ..... Strauss
5. Trumpet solo—"My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" ..... Saint-Saens
6. Quartet from "Rigoletto"—"Fairest Daughter of the Graces"..Verdi
7. Fackeltanz (Torch Dance)..... Meyerbeer

Entire Audience of "First Night" Critics at Little Theater

A first night critic has been described as a person who wears black ribbons on his glasses, has a bored air and turns around to survey the audience before settling down in his seat. Tonight every person who attends "Her Sacred Duty" and "What It Gets Down To" at the Little theater will be a first night critic, regardless of the presence or absence of black ribbons or any glasses at all. If you can see perfectly well you may leave your glasses at home; you don't even need to look bored and you need not give the others in the audience a paleolithic stare to safeguard your dignity, for you will be a critic for the night and no one can take your right away from you.

Will the playwrights, whose names will be announced after the audience has voted on the play to receive the $50 prize, be poised on the edge of the chairs or will they slump down with a bored air, as if they came because they couldn't get out of coming? As the theater is small those in the audience who think they have "hunches" may study the faces of the persons they have suspected of dramatic genius, but the chances are that after the curtains part, sleuthing will be forgotten and it will be a case of "the play's the thing." Finished amateur productions are always of more than ordinary interest because acquaintance with the actors and actresses links the spectators to the stage, but the element of suspense will give added zest to the enjoyment of "Her Sacred Duty," which presents the recruiting problem in England, and "What It Gets Down To," which deals with a phase of modern feminism, the plays which the contest committee of the Drama league regarded as the best of the ten that were submitted. Francis J. Webb is the coach and the casts are:

"Her Sacred Duty."

James Townley, an English business man .....Harvey Hoshour
Gwen Townley, his wife..Lucile Bradley
Gerald, his son .....Gladson Fowler
Warren, returned recruit..Leo Schmied
William, a servant..William J. Buckley
Louisa, a maid .....Amy Walker
Emma Dix, the cook...Esther Coffin

"What It Gets Down To."

Ann Cuthbert..Mrs. Frederic A. Prince
Josephine Crane .....Lucille Boyer
Edward Harris .....Laird Goodman
Mr. Brand, principal of the East End high school .....Frank G. Dunn

Peggy Peabody's Observations

When to Laugh

What is it that calls forth the silly titter and the high-sounding laugh from women in a theater when the climax of pathos or dramatic action is reached by a player either on the stage or upon the screen? Is it due to some nervous tension which finds relief in some hysterical outburst? It is reasonable to believe that a part of it is due to a derangement of the nerves, which cannot be controlled. What woman in her right senses is disposed to laugh at sorrow and suffering as endured by others even though the emotions are being played at? It does not seem as though she would make this unwomanly spectacle of herself, no matter how little the motive of the piece impressed her.

One evening last week I sat beside two refined looking women at the theater. During a very touching little scene between two lovers—a scene calculated to make the tears flow, the woman at my side laughed in an explosive manner, subsiding quickly and shamefully. I looked at her startled. I do not know but what I whispered "sh." Her face as I saw it was flushed and agitated and I more than half relented for I became convinced that she laughed not from amusement but from partial hysteria.

You can't account for the gruff laughs of men on the subterfuge of hysteria, for men are not subject to that weakness in any numbers. Yet you do hear men laugh out of all rhyme and reason at the theater though not as often as you hear women. It must be that there are both men and women who attend the theater who are absolutely blind and deaf to softening and refining influences.

Such people if sentiment is really lacking in them should cultivate it without delay. If they are actually lacking in the tenderer emotion which in the average man and woman are touched at the sight of suffering, though it be only clever make believes, they should endeavor to bring some to life, and if they cannot, then they should studiously cover their deficiency and take their cue for a laugh at the doings behind the footlights from the audience.

Those who laugh at the wrong time give an exhibition of ignorance that is alarming and sad to witness. It makes those sitting near wish they could send the offender flying into the street by the power of thought transmission.

Efficient Housekeeping

BY Henrietta D Graeul

The Indian Mixture

"Ye may laud well the messes, salads and sech,
O' the French chef who gets a lot o' hard cash;
But they're no more nourishin' an rich,
Than the Indian mixture called succotash."
—Uncle Jonathan.

CORN, like many cereals, is frequently treated and served as a vegetable and whether canned or fresh from the waving stalk is ever a welcome addition to a meal. Many recipes have been published in this column for canning and drying corn in the past five years, so that if you follow this advice, before this you have doubtless discovered long ago a way to preserve corn that just suits you.

For making winter succotash use two-thirds of a can of corn or a pint of dried corn soaked over night in water, one pint of lima beans, soaked, or use the canned ones; one-fourth pound of salt pork diced. Cover all this with boiling water and simmer gently until beans and corn are tender, but the beans must not be broken. Drain off the liquid and add two tablespoons of butter, salt if needed and pepper to suit taste. Two tablespoons of sweet cream may be used, if you prefer, in place of the butter.

Indian pudding is made from cold corn-bread and is excellent. Cut the bread in cubes about an inch square and place in a pudding dish in layers. Between each layer sprinkle bits of butter and chopped raisins or dates. When the baking dish is half or two-thirds full, mix half a cup of table syrup or sugar with a pint of rich milk and pour over; the milk should cover the bread. Bake in a moderate oven for an hour or until firm in center. Serve with sauce or with cream.

Broiled Meats, Indian Style: All small cuts of meat, pigeons, young rabbits and such small fry, as well as fish, are best broiled. If you have no broiler you surely have what is better, a bed of embers to take its place. They should be glowing but not smoking. Butter the bars of a wire broiler or toaster, or rub them with suet and place the meat between them. Hold near the coals until first one side is seared and then the other. After this count six slowly between the turning of the broiler, and hold the meat a bit farther from the heat. Have melted butter and a hot platter waiting; broiled meat is spoiled meat if not served as soon as cooked.

Indian Dinner.

Oysters on the deep shell.
Celery.
Tobasco sauce. Shredded cabbage.
Planked fish, mashed potatoes.
Hot corn bread. Fried dried corn.
Broiled porterhouse steaks.
Steamed mushrooms in butter.
Sweet potatoes. June peas.
Indian pudding, hot sauce.
Grapes. Cider cup.
Maple sugar sweets.

(Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.)

Tomorrow—Introducing the Chameleon Fish.

Bed Time Tales

By Clara Ingram Judson

Flitter's New Playmate

ON THE evening after Flitter Flying-squirrel met Slippy White-mouse at the mink trap, he set out early for the swamp. You see he hoped to find Slippy again and perhaps get better acquainted with him.

"My mother says he is the very best member of the whole mouse family," said Flitter to himself as he scrambled up a tree; "and I like him, too!" he added as he spread his tiny wings and floated gracefully down to the ground.

"My mother says I may play with him all I please," he thought as he climber another tree trunk; "so I hope I can find him tonight," and down he sailed again.

So, journeying up the tree trunks and down in wide, outward-turning curves, Flitter made his way toward the swamp.

"I think I'll wait right here where the trap was last night," said Flitter, after a careful look around. "He's just as likely to come here as anywhere." So he sat down by the broken trap and waited.

He had not had time to grow impatient, when he heard a soft little sound in the moonlight. "That's Slippy!" he whispered to himself, and sure enough, it was! And Slippy was just as glad to see Flitter as Flitter was to see him, which is a pleasant way to have things.

"May you always find plenty of traps to rob," said Flitter pleasantly.

"And may you always have so much to eat that you never need to rob traps," replied Slippy.

Flitter laughed. "Whatever made you think of such a funny wish as that?" he asked. "Of course I like it and I thank you for making it for me," he added hastily, for he realized that it is very unkind to criticize a wish that is made with good intent, "but I never heard of such a wish before and I wonder how you happened to think of it."

"That's easily explained," said Slippy kindly. "I thought of it because I have had plenty to eat myself tonight. My mother allowed us to eat our fill of beechnuts in the storeroom. Um-m, um-m, but they were good, too!" and Slippy licked his lips in pleased recollection.

Flitter laughed. "Whatever made you think of such a funny wish as that?"

"So you are not hungry now?" asked Flitter, and he was really disappointed, because he had hoped to play with Slippy as they robbed traps.

"Couldn't eat a morsel!" cried Slippy, "and that makes it fine for us!"

"Fine for us?" asked Flitter. "I don't see how!"

"Have you had enough to eat today?" asked Slippy, for he wanted to make sure Flitter was satisfied.

"Yes, I really have," Flitter had to admit. "You see, we had nuts, too!"

"Then we've all night for play," cried Slippy, gaily. "Catch me if you can!" And away he darted, starting a jolly game of tag that lasted far into the night.

(Copyright—Clara Ingram Judson.)

Tomorrow—Slippy Shows Flitter His Old Home.

Saturday Club.

Mrs. W. A. McGonagle will be the leader for the meeting of the Saturday club, which will be held at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the library clubroom. Miss Emma Hicks will speak on "American Journalism" and Mrs. F. J. O'Donnell on "The Place in Our Literature of the Magazine Short Story." "Aviation" will be the topic for current events, with Mrs. Hugh Steele as leader.

Elks Will Give Series of Afternoon Affairs

The first of a series of afternoon affairs for women that has been arranged by the Elks will be given from 3 to 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the Elks' clubrooms. The Hawaiian quintet of the "Bird of Paradise" company will sing and there will be other musical numbers. Those who will serve as hostesses during the series of afternoons are:

Mesdames—
J. E. Samuelson, A. H. Davis,
A. J. McCulloch, J. W. Day,
N. B. Morrison, A. W. Deetz,
F. E. Pierce, W. H. Denning,
R. C. Bruen, D. A. Cone,
C. F. Naughton, Louis Dworshak,
R. D. Handy, W. M. Evered,
G. V. Heathcote, E. J. Farrell,
T. H. Sexton, E. S. Farrell,
Dennis, J. A. Farrell,
J. H. Ahlen, M. J. Filiatrault,
J. L. Crawford, J. C. Fischer,
W. H. Alexander, W. O. Flodin,
H. J. Huber, J. M. Ford,
A. V. Kreager, I. Freimuth,
J. H. Doran, Al Abraham,
H. B. Knudsen, R. K. Abraham,
W. J. Wallace, M. Goldberg,
J. U. Sebenius, Alexander Anderson,
Otto Wennerlund, Alex Gow,
Charles Baxter, Robert Graham,
John Lingelbach, Henry Gujer,
N. B. Barsness, F. P. Hallock,
R. J. Crawford, W. F. Henry,
George Peterson, C. W. Higgens,
E. C. Peterson, E. W. Kaltenbach,
L. T. Peterson, J. M. McNaughton,
W. W. Crawford, O. E. Helmark, P. B. McTague,
C. L. Haney, F. L. Magie,
J. L. Fuller, James Meakin,
J. T. Arnstead, A. A. Michaud,
F. E. Randall, G. H. Bate,
H. MacGregor, H. Bennett,
E. F. Baker, Charles Beuglet,
H. J. Gibbs, W. L. Bloedel,
L. H. Burnet, H. A. Blume,
E. J. Filiatrault, W. W. Rowe,
R. D. McKercher, N. F. Russell,
T. J. McKeon, H. W. Cheadle,
F. K. Randall, A. Saure,
B. J. Campbell, Simon Clark,
William Yale, Sam Kerness,
Heubsch, H. G. Lavick,
Charles Helmer, C. D. Oreckosky.
P. E. McCormick,
F. H. Cutting,
Miss Kerney.

Lodge Notes.

Aerial lodge, No. 280, L. S. to L. F. and E., will give a card party tonight at Woodman hall.

GUISEPPE FABBRINI

The Distinguished Italian Pianist
—at—
FIRST METHODIST CHURCH
Tomorrow, 8:15 P. M. Sharp

Tickets, $1.00. On sale at Miles Music Company or at door.

SIDE TALKS

By RUTH CAMERON

The Bruised Flower

IN THE hearing of her little son a mother told me this story:

"What do you think—Roger has the greatest faith in his prayers. He wanted to lick the cake-dish and I wouldn't let him. I told him I was afraid it would make him sick. And what do you think he said? 'Oh, no, it can't, mother, because I'm praying God every night to keep me well.'"

The mother laughed heartily at this naive expression of a simple faith and the child looked at us with an expression in which the bewildered, the suspicious and the embarrassed were oddly and pathetically mixed.

"We Laugh at the Child Who Digs Up His Seeds But—"

When a child plants a seed and then digs it up again in a few days to see if it is growing, we laugh at him with grown-up superiority.

Wasn't the mother of that little boy doing something just as childish, just as self-defeating?

She implanted a faith in her child's heart by teaching him to pray to God and telling him that his prayers meant something. And then, by laughing at his trusting acceptance of her teachings, she dug up the seed she herself had planted.

Of course that child's faith in prayer was shaken by what he heard. He is an intelligent child and neither deaf nor blind.

They Seem to Think Their Children Can't Understand English.

The number of otherwise intelligent, conscientious people who fall into the habit of talking in the presence of the children about the latter just as if they were incapable of understanding the English language is a thing which is perennially astonishing to me.

They tell about the child's love affairs and then they wonder that he learns to be shy about matters of sentiment and to form the habit of never taking his parents into his confidence on such matters—a habit which may cause much unhappiness some day.

Not the Children, But Themselves Who Are to Blame.

They chronicle the child's bright sayings and then are displeased and censorious when he becomes smart and self-conscious.

They exploit the child's thoughts about death and God and all the mysteries about which, after all, we know little more than they, and then wonder that the child learns to lock up the secret places of his heart against them.

It is as if we roughly pulled open a delicate flower and then complained when we found the petals were bruised and marred.

To see a child's mind unfold is like watching the development of a beautiful flower, only infinitely more fascinating. Let us be careful how we lay the rude touch of our laughter and our exploitation upon these wonderful blossoms.

(Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.)

SERVICE FIRST
D. H., 3-2-16.

There Are No Heavy Overhead and Maintenance Bills to Pay When You Use

ELECTRIC POWER

The manufacturer who uses electric drive has only one bill to pay—the electric bill. He knows just what his power is costing him and where he is using it most.

There is no leakage or wastage, no guesswork. The bill is in exact proportion to the amount used.

It will pay you to investigate.
Call us.

Duluth-Edison Electric Company
216 West First Street.

DULUTH-EDISON ELECTRIC COMPANY
SERVICE FIRST

Talks on Literature Feature of Twentieth Century Club Luncheon

The Twentieth Century club luncheon at the Spalding hotel today, which was arranged by the literature department and the department of education and the home, was attended by fifty members of the club. Jonquils were used on the tables which were placed in the oak room. The members of the committee who arranged the luncheon were Mrs. L. K. Daugherty, Mrs. T. A. Armstrong, Mrs. J. E. Samuelson, Mrs. F. Mondshine and Miss Grace Colby.

The programs that were planned for the winter and spring symposia of the literature department were combined for this occasion. Mrs. J. C. H. Engel spoke on "Contemporary Poetry," the subject for the winter symposia; Mrs. M. Cook on "The Bible as Literature," the subject for the spring one, and Mrs. R. Spiegel, representing the department of education and home, spoke on "Psychology in Relation to Everyday Life." The talks were given in the oak room, following the luncheon.

Mrs. Engel's Talk.

Mrs. Engel said in part:

"Modern critics are unanimous in saying that we are on the threshold of a golden age of poetry. It is interesting to know that the publishers testify to the same fact. One prominent publisher recently said that there is a falling off of interest in fiction, but that volumes of poems are getting into the class of best-sellers. The great Hindu poet, Tagore, and the English poet, John Masefield, are both now in this class.

"It has become a habit to decry the materialism and commercialism of the present age and to emphasize these as the most prominent characteristics of our time. From this assumption follows the corollary that imaginative literature cannot be produced.

"But our poets are proving themselves able to surmount the difficulty and by taking the modern skyscraper, the marts of commerce and the city slums as their themes have shown how sordid subjects may be turned to spiritual account. For if we accept the beautiful definition, poetry as "The voice of the infinite in man," we know that its very essence is the high things of the spirit.

Feeling for Humanity.

"The feeling for humanity is a dominant note in the poetry of today and the evils of the present social state are as passionately denounced as were those of slavery by Whittier and Lowell.

"One critic has pertinently said: 'Poetry deals not in problems and theories, not with classes or society. It deals with the individual and his relation to other individuals as individuals, not as types.'

"We know that the progress of society depends upon the realization of high personal character and the part of each individual unit of it. Our contemporary poets are doing their share to advance the race to higher planes of life.

"Optimism is another marked characteristic of the poetry of today. There is a healthy atmosphere of cheer in the verse of our time.

"I have time this afternoon to speak only of two of many of the fine poets who are now writing, Alfred Noyes and John Mansfield.

In conclusion, Mrs. Engel read a few short poems of each.

The Bible as Literature.

Mrs. Cook, in her talk on "The Bible as Literature," pointed out that the Greeks taught the world an appreciation of beauty, the Romans were the great exponents of government and the Jews were a great race because of their genius for religion.

"The Bible was written at a time when it ante-dated any possible knowledge of literary structure," she said. "We know that two-thirds of it is poetry, we know that the Book of Job is a drama, we know that the Book of Deuteronomy contains orations and song. In fact, we know that the Bible is a great body of literature which contains every possible variety of literary form. It gives the lives and characters of some of the greatest personalities that ever lived.

"I shall speak of the Old Testament only. I feel justified, however, as Ambrose Vernon White says, 'It is necessary to know the Old Testament in order to understand the life and character of Christ, as it is to know the Constitution, in order to understand the amendments.'

"The study of the Bible as literature gives us a new appreciation of it. Each part shines out with its own glory. For instance, if you study the prophets only, you get a crystalized insight into the really vital forces of the history of the Jews, you get an understanding of the development of the religion of Israel and you see how the messages from Jehovah were delivered in poetry, such as has never been surpassed in the world's literature. The writings of the prophets make a very strong literary appeal, therefore they are epoch making in religion. The prophets, more commonly called 'the prophets of Israel,' were a class of inspired men who were the unique product of the Jewish religious genius.

"When the Israelites crossed over the Red sea safely in their exodus from Egypt, Moses and his people sang a song to Jehovah. This sing is the oldest poem extant in the world.

"I will conclude by quoting Matthew

ACTRESS TELLS SECRET

A Well Known Actress Tells How She Darkened Her Gray Hair and Promoted Its Growth With a Simple Home Made Mixture.

Miss Blanche Rose, a well-known actress, who darkened her gray hair with a simple preparation which she mixed at home, in a recent interview at Chicago, Ill., made the following statement: "Any lady or gentleman can darken their gray hair and make it soft and glossy with this simple recipe, which they can mix at home. To a half pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and ¼ oz. of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the required shade. This will make a gray haired person look 20 years younger. It is also fine to promote the growth of hair, relieves itching and scalp humors and is excellent for dandruff and falling hair."—Advertisement.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

Arnold. He says, 'The world today is verily but one continuous establishing of the Old Testament.'

Program for Recital By Guiseppe Fabbrini

Guiseppe Fabbrini will give his third Duluth recital at 8:15 o'clock tomorrow night at the First Methodist church, under the local management of Miss Mabel Fulton. He has been prominent in Minneapolis musical circles since coming to this country from Italy, having been associated with Cornelius Van Vliet, Karl Scheurer and Dr. Edmond Kraus. He returned recently from a concert trip in the South. Mr. Fabbrini's program tomorrow night will be as follows:

Sonata E major Op. 109..van Beethoven
I. Vivace ma non troppo.....
II. Prestissimo .....
III. Andante Molto Cantabile ed Espressivo .....
Tema con Varizioni.
Ballade B minor, Op. 10.....
Scherzo E flat minor, Op. 4....Brahms
Three Etudes ..... Chopin
"Erocia" ..... Liszt
Arabesque ..... Fabbrini
"La fille aux cheveaux de lin".....
"Le Serenade interrompue"...Debussy
Ronde from "La Boite a joujoux"...
Rhapsodie C major.....Dohanji

Leap Year Dance at Wisconsin Capitol

Madison, Wis., March 2.—The sixty female employes around the state capitol have planned their leap year dance for Friday evening. A neat little invitation has been issued, which reads:

"The Mutual club invites you
To a dance on March the third;
And we hope we may see you
With a leap year beau preferred.

"So choose some man that's handsome
Then nail him good and right;
And make him pay his ransom
At the dance next Friday night."

The Mutual club of the capitol is composed of all the employes of the capitol, commissioners, clerks, janitors, judges, stenographers and the governor.

Knights of Columbus Dance.

The following are the patrons and patronesses for the Knights of Columbus dance, which will be given tomorrow night at the Spalding hotel: Mr. and Mrs. George W. Atmore, Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Ball, Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Fahey, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Killorin, Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Lepak, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Madden, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sheridan, Dr. and Mrs. T. F. Sheridan, Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Tuohy.

The members of the committee in charge are: Charles F. Kelly, Charles McDonell, Leonard J. McHugh, William C. Toben and John F. McKanna.

Archeology Program.

The program on archeology, which will be given at the meeting of the department of literature and home of the Twentieth Century club at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the library clubroom, will be open to all persons who are interested.

"Babylonia" will be the topic of Mrs. H. L. Gage, and the others on the program will be Mrs. J. H. Crowley and Mrs. J. T. Culbertson.

Mrs. Gage is an authority on archeology and has written extensively on the subject.

At a meeting of the department of education and home last year she told of ruins in Central America and the western section of the United States, as illustrative of the close relation between these parts and Asia.

Canadian Relief Fund.

The Canadian relief fund amounted to nearly $100 yesterday as a result of the bridge party given at the residence of Mrs. Mille Bunnell and the silver tea at the residence of Mrs. A. L. Wright, 1207 East Ninth street. A meeting will be held a week from today at the residence of Mrs. Bunnell, when further plans for relief work will be outlined.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hubbell, 1105 East First street, left today for Pasadena, Cal., where they will visit their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cotton, who have taken a house there for the winter.

* * *

J. D. Ireland left last night for Saginaw, Mich., to spend the week-end with Mrs. Ireland, who is visiting her father, Mr. Ring.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hurd of "Hurdcroft" Monticello, Minn., will arrive tonight to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Alastair Guthrie, 1925 East First street.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jordon, recently of Houghton, Mich., have come here to live. Mr. Jordon is associated in business with Dwight E. Woodbridge and W. G. Swart. Mr. and Mrs. Jordon are residing at 1517 East Fourth street.

* * *

Mrs. Walter Hodge of Ducktown, Tenn., and Miss Valerie Croze of Houghton, Mich., have returned to their homes after having been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Croze, 714 East First street, for several days.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney A. McPhail, Jefferson street, have returned from a southern and eastern trip.

* * *

E. A. Forsyth, East Third street, left last night for Buffalo and New York

Saves Cost of Trip to Hot Springs

6088 (Sixty-Eighty-Eight) acts almost identically the same as the waters of Hot Springs. It eliminates the causes of Rheumatism.

6088 (Sixty-Eighty-Eight) is guaranteed. 6088 must relieve your Rheumatism—must prove beneficial in cases of Chronic Skin Eruptions, biliousness or indigestion—or your money will be returned to you by your own druggist.

Now—you've no reason to continue to suffer from

RHEUMATISM

You have no reason for longer taking a chance on the permanent deformities that Rheumatism frequently causes. You've no longer any reason to endure the agony of Chronic Skin Eruptions, biliousness or indigestion. 6088 also cleanses the entire system, revives normal strength of organs, and aids Nature to restore your old-time health and vitality.

FREE This valuable book "Medical Advice on Rheumatism," Practical—authoritative. Enables you to detect symptoms of Inflammatory, Chronic Articular or Muscular Rheumatism. How to diet. How to take care of yourself. Send your name and address for it TODAY.

Matt. J. Johnson Company
Dept. F
St. Paul, Minn.

SIXTY EIGHTY EIGHT

6088

Some of the Future School Teachers Who Will Be Graduated This Year From Duluth Normal School

MISS BESS KNOWLES.

MISS LILY NEIMI.

MISS MERLE LIEN.

MISS CECIL GILBOE.

MISS VERNA LADE.

MISS HELEN HERRICK.

city, where he will join his daughter, Miss Helen Forsyth, who is visiting her sister, Miss Beatrice Forsyth, who is studying art in New York, to return with her.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Nichols of Saskatchewan, Can., are visiting in the city for a few days.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Milligan, 637 Woodland avenue, left last night for an eastern trip.

* * *

Mrs. G. H. Smith of Northland Country club will leave the latter part of the week for a two weeks' visit in Chicago.

* * *

Mrs. Waldemar H. F. N. de Bille will leave Saturday for New York to join her husband.

* * *

Mrs. J. C. Rosser of Great Falls, Mont., will leave Saturday for her home after visiting her daughter, Mrs. George L. Chesebrough, East Superior street.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Wahl, East First street, have gone to New York city for a short trip.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Deetz of 303 North Thirty-sixth avenue east are the parents of a daughter, Catherine Augusta, born Tuesday night at St. Mary's hospital.

* * *

Miss Margaret Moran of Hibbing is the guest for a week of Miss Katherine Petz of 715 Ninth avenue east.

* * *

Miss Flora Bush of Hunter's Park is at Battle Creek, Mich.

* * *

John S. Weiss has returned from the Northwestern Military and Naval academy at Lake Geneva, Wis., for a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Weiss of 1615 East Superior street. The academy was closed for a week on account of a case of scarlet fever, but the students will return Sunday.

* * *

Miss Louise Emerson, 322 North Twenty-fifth avenue west, who has been the guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. England of Missoula, Mont., during the winter months, is expected to return to Duluth today.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Turrish and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Connor are in Honolulu.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Dinham, 112 Sixth avenue east, returned today from a six weeks' trip to Southern California.

AMUSEMENTS

TONIGHT'S ATTRACTIONS.

LYCEUM—"The Bird of Paradise."
ORPHEUM-STRAND—Baron H. S. de la Malaussene with "Fighting for France" motion pictures.
NEW GRAND—Vaudeville and photoplay.
REX—Douglas Fairbanks in "His Picture in the Papers," photoplay.
LYRIC—Fannie Ward in "Tennessee's Pardner," photoplay.
ZELDA—Antonio Moreno in "Kennedy Square," photoplay.

RECALLS THRILLING FIGHTS AT FRONT

French Baron Tells His War Experiences to Orpheum Patrons.

Thrilling tales of charges by the French army during the early days of the European war are told by Baron H. S. de la Malaussene at the Orpheum-Strand theater, where the motion picture feature, "Fighting in France", opened an engagement yesterday for the remainder of the week.

As scenes of terrific trench fighting, hand-to-hand battles and cavalry charges up steep mountain sides are flashed on the screen, Baron de la Malaussene recounts his experiences at the front, often telling of incidents shown in the picture.

Among the notable scenes shown is the drive of the Allies along the west front, which resulted in the capture of 25,000 Germans and miles of trenches and the charge over the snow-clad Vosges. Soldiers can be seen toppling over under the hailstorm of bullets, all shown vividly within close range of the camera.

In the course of his lecture, Baron de la Malaussene told of having been in the trenches during the first fifty-nine days of the year 1915, without a single opportunity to get out of the ditch or change his clothing.

The baron, who was adjutant of the First regiment Etranger, was granted a leave of absence to recover from bullet wounds. Despite his French accent he speaks good English, being easily understood by his auditors. He will be at the Orpheum-Strand until Saturday evening.

SOUTHERN FILM AT ZELDA.

Antonio Moreno Appears in "Kennedy Square."

F. Hopkinson Smith's famous story, "Kennedy Square," which has been picturized into five beautiful acts, will be shown at the Zelda theater today and tomorrow for the last time.

The well-known story of the life of the aristocrat of the old South is ably depicted by an all-star Vitagraph cast, which includes such players as Antonio Moreno, Charles Kent, Muriel Ostriche and others of note.

The story in brief tells of the friendship of Sir George Temple, an old English gentleman who is called the "friend of Kennedy Square," for a boy who was turned out of home by his father, and scorned by his sweetheart.

Lillian Walker, one of filmdom's most beautiful stars, will head the program at the Zelda theater for one day, Saturday.

Miss Walker in her new play, "Green Stockings," is said to be a "scream" from the beginning to the end, and throughout the play to keep the audience in continual laughter. A bit of drama is interjected into the story, which helps the picture considerably.

Theater Gossip.

Manager Furniss of the Lyric has given his patrons a week of excellent entertainment at this FANNIE WARD AT THE LYRIC. home of Paramount pictures. Yesterday and today Miss Fannie Ward held forth, following upon "A Fool's Revenge," a play that had many admirers. Tomorrow and running until Sunday will be Charlotte Walker in "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," a faithful portrayal of the moonshiners and feudists of the Virginia mountains.

With the announcement that William Farnum is booked for Sunday in a play just suited to him, "Fighting Blood," Lyric friends will feel that they have no complaint for any of the seven days' offerings.

Tonight will be the last opportunity of seeing Miss Ward in her greatest of Western pictures—the days of '49. Contrasted sharply with this is the mountain play with all the hazards of illicit distilling as brought out by Charlotte Walker, heroine in "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine."

* * *

James Nelson, who is playing the part of Hewahewa, a priest of Pele, in "The Bird of Para-
"MADE A HULA OF A SWEDE." dise" this week at the Lyceum, was a member of the Baldwin Stock company at the Lyceum last year, and while in Duluth made many friends. Yesterday he received the following poem from his old friend, Charles Line, which has caused a lot of fun among his fellow players:

"Oh, Nelson, dear, Nelson, dear,
We're glad once more to have you here;
Just like a Phoenix did you rise
In some far Eastern paradise;
It's said that in your blooming youth
You hid from Mother Eve the truth;
But then the story of the snake
May only be an actor's fake.

"And now you pose as good and wise,
And as a bird of Paradise;
If you had wings no doubt you'd fly
Back to your cage in old Hawaii;
And though we pray your wings may grow,
As breezes through your whiskers blow,
We grieve to learn that in their need
They made a Hula of a Swede."

"The Bird" is "playing to capacity" at the Lyceum this week.

* * *

Billie Burke is coming to the Rex for four days beginning next Sunday in the $200,000 film
BILLIE BURKE COMING TO REX. "Peggy," which captured New York critics—it is Miss Burke's first film play.

That the thousands of friends and patrons of the Theater Beautiful may see Miss Burke in this sensational picture of the season at the popular prices of this theater is a stroke that speaks eloquently of the enterprise of the management.

In New York seats sold as high as $2 for this beautiful Triangle picture—a Thomas H. Ince production.

Costing what it did to produce—the furniture alone being an elaborate outlay, to say nothing of the costumes and street scenes—it seems fitting that the picture should be seen here in the environment of the Rex, with its luxurious appointments, pipe organ programs and soft lights.

Until Sunday—Thursday to Saturday inclusive—the patrons of the Rex will enjoy themselves with Douglas Fairbanks in that laughable serio-comic play, "His Picture in the Papers."

* * *

A bill that has many good things in the way of vaudeville and photoplays is on hand at the popu-
NEW SHOW AT THE GRAND. lar New Grand this week-end. Every act moves swiftly, while the photoplays are said to be excellent. Kelly and Galvin offer a novelty in songs and talk. The characters of the

NO DOUBT THAT RESINOL DOES HEAL SICK SKIN

When you know physicians have prescribed Resinol for over 20 years in the treatment of eczema and other itching, burning, unsightly skin eruptions, and have written thousands of reports saying: "It is my regular prescription for itching," Resinol has produced brilliant results," "The result it gave was marvelous in one of the worst cases of eczema," etc., etc., doesn't it make you feel that this is the treatment to rely on for your skin trouble?

The moment Resinol Ointment touches itching skins, the itching usually stops and healing begins. With the aid of Resinol Soap, it almost always clears away every trace of eczema, ringworm, pimples, or other distressing eruption quickly, leaving the skin clear and healthy. Sold by all druggists. For trial free, write to Dept. 2-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

Young Actor Marries Famous Prima Donna

—Copyright by Bain News Service.

LOU TELLEGEN.

Geraldine Farrar, the favorite opera singer and movie star, and Lou Tellegen, the Dutch actor, also known to the film, have just been married. Miss Farrar is the daughter of Sidney Farrar, the former ball player. She made her first success in Berlin, where one of her great admirers was the crown prince. Her name has been linked by rumor with that of Antonio Scotti, the baritone, for some years, and she has had many other admirers. Lou Tellegen came to this country as leading man for Sarah Bernhardt and later acted in English in New York theaters and elsewhere. He is about to bring out a new play and Farrar after a concert tour will reappear at the Metropolitan Opera house.

AMUSEMENTS. AMUSEMENTS. AMUSEMENTS.

LAST TIMES TONIGHT AND TOMORROW

"KENNEDY SQUARE"

With ANTONIO MORENO, CHARLES KENT and MURIEL OSTRICHE

This is F. Hopkinson Smith's Great Novel, Picturized in 5 Beautiful Acts

SATURDAY ONLY

Beautiful LILLIAN WALKER in Her Best Play

"GREEN STOCKINGS"

A Five-Act Comedy That Chases the Blues Away. Special Ladies and Children's Matinee.

BRING THE KIDDIES

ZELDA!

SUNDAY, MONDAY AND TUESDAY

Featuring the brilliant and magnetic star

MARGUERITE SNOW AND GEORGE LeGUERRE, The Foremost Juvenile Actor

IN A FEATURE FIVE-ACT COMEDY DRAMA—

"THE UPSTART"

FINEST MUSIC IN THE CITY — MOST PERFECT VENTILATION SYSTEM. PROGRAM SCHEDULE: 10:30, 12:05, 1:35, 3:05, 4:45, 6:15, 7:45 and 9:20.

ZELDA THEATER — ANY SEAT 10c

Dulothian to Open Store.

Thief River Falls, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—H. H. Spink of Duluth is making arrangements to install a hardware store in a room in the Grundy building on Third street. He arrived this week and will superintend the installation of fixtures and the unpacking of his stock.

CUT OUT MEATS IF KIDNEYS ARE TROUBLING YOU

Uric Acid in Meat Excites Kidneys and Irritates the Bladder.

Noted Authority Says We Must Flush Kidneys With Salts If Back Hurts.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.—Advertisement.

MINISTER MAY EFFECT RELEASE

Prisoners Held By Federal Authorities Willing to Join Hands.

The minister may be called in to complete the task begun by the court and immigration officials in the case of Thomas Goosens, a native of Belgium, and Marie Reln, a native born German, both of whom are held in jail at Duluth for crossing the Canadian border illegally. The two admit that they have been living together for some time, but say that they were expecting to get married soon. Immigration Officer Brown McDonald has decided to place the case before the authorities at Washington and expects that the two will be given permission to settle the case by marriage.

The fact that they had been living together illegally developed yesterday when they appeared at Two Harbors as witnesses against John Guitare of Kramer, who, they alleged, killed a deer out of season. Officer McDonald was notified and arrests followed. It will probably be two weeks before the case is disposed of. Guitare was found not guilty.

ILLNESS DELAYS TRIAL OF LORIMER

Judge Dever, Trying the Case, Is Sick at His Home.

Chicago, March 2.—Illness of the trial judge today was expected to delay the trial of William Lorimer, former United States senator, on a charge of conspiracy in connection with the failure of the La Salle Trust and Savings bank. It was announced from Judge Dever's home that the judge's physician probably will not allow him to preside in court before Monday.

Twelve men have been tentatively accepted by the opposing counsel in the examination of veniremen, which had been in progress for more than two weeks.

GOVERNOR VIEWS LOGGING WORK

Visits Heart of the Big North Woods at Kelliher.

Kelliher, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The temperature was 30 deg. below zero and the snow was hip deep in places when Gov. J. A. A. Burnquist viewed modern Minnesota logging methods at first hand today for the first time since he became the state's chief executive.

When the Northern Pacific train left the governor's car at Kelliher it was switched to the logging road of the Crookston Lumber company and pulled by one of the little, puffy logging engines up into the woods to the company's camps eight miles northeast of Kelliher.

The governor stepped directly from his car into the midst of lumbering operations. He was in the big North woods at their busiest and most interesting season.

Despite the cold and the snow the governor took an intense interest in the work as it was explained to him.

Governor Burnquist will speak at Bemidji tonight and tomorrow, with State Forester W. T. Cox, he will visit the state forest at Cass Lake.

CLOQUET CHILD BURNED.

Tot of 2 Years Barely Escapes Losing Her Life.

Cloquet, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Dorothy, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Jessie, was nearly fatally burned to death at their home at North end late Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Jessie left the house for a few moments to call on a neighbor and when she returned she found the child enveloped in flames which were extinguished with difficulty. The child was badly burned about the body and face. City Physician Dr. Franklin Raiter dressed the little one's burns and she will probably recover. It is thought an older sister was playing with matches and set Dorothy's clothing on fire.

This is the second misfortune which has befallen the family in the past six months. Early in the fall a son, John Jr., was out hunting with a boy companion and while playing with their guns, which they did not think were loaded, the companion's gun which was a high powered rifle, was discharged and the ball struck young Jessie in the knee shattering the bone and the leg had to be amputated later.

High Price for Hogs.

Peoria, Ill., March 2.—Mixed hogs sold at $9 here today, the highest figure in six years, according to stockyards offices.

Neuralgia Neuritis Sciatica, Etc.

CURED

Free Trial of A New Method that Cures by Removing the Cause. Send No Money.

We've a new method that cures Neuralgia, Neuritis, Sciatica, Neurasthenia, Tic Douloureux, etc., and we want you to try it at our expense. No matter how great your pain, or how terrible the torture you endure from diseased nerves, our method will bring prompt and blessed relief. No matter whether your case is occasional or chronic, nor what your age or occupation, this method should cure you right in your home.

The Mulhall Method does not contain a drop of morphine, opium, chloral, cocaine, acetanilid, or any narcotic whatsoever. It provides a nerve food that cures by removing the cause.

We especially want to send it to those so-called "incurable" cases that have tried all the various doctors, dopes, sanitariums, "opathys," etc., without relief. We want to show everyone at our own expense that this method will end at once and for all time, all those tortures and twinges of almost unbearable pain that are present in Neuralgia, Neuritis, Sciatica, Migraine, Tic Douloureux, Neurasthenia and other nerve diseases.

This free offer is too important to neglect a single day. Write now and begin the cure at once. Address Mulhall Co., Room 136 A, Cor. Allen and North Pearl St., Buffalo, N. Y.

THE DULUTH HERALD

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

Published every evening except Sunday by The Herald Company at Duluth, Minn.

Both Telephones—Business Office, 324; Editorial Rooms, 1126.

Entered as second-class matter at the Duluth postoffice under the act of congress of March 3, 1870.

OFFICIAL PAPER, CITY OF DULUTH

SUBSCRIPTION RATES—By mail, payable in advance, one month, 35 cents; three months, $1; six months, $2; one year, $4; Saturday Herald, $1 per year; Weekly Herald, $1 per year.

Daily by carrier, city and suburbs, 10 cents a week, 45 cents a month

Subscribers will confer a favor by making known any complaint of service.

When changing the address of your paper, it is important to give both old and new addresses.

The Duluth Herald accepts advertising contracts with the distinct guarantee that it has the largest circulation in Minnesota outside the Twin Cities.

The Herald will be glad to have its attention called to any misleading or untrue statement which may appear in its news, editorial or advertising columns.

TODAY IN HISTORY.

Texan Independence Day, 1836.

Americans settled in Texas under Mexican permits, first granted in 1821. In 1826 discontent with the Mexican government led to a short-lived revolt, the "Fredonian war." Attempts by the United States to buy Texas led only to oppressions of the Texans, and trouble was more or less continuous till 1835, when resistance to an attempt to collect duties at Mexican ports precipitated the conflict during which occurred the heroic defense of the Alamo by Col. David Crockett, Col. James Bowie, and others. March 2, 1836, the Texans issued a declaration of independence made good April 21 at the battle of San Jacinto by Sam Houston's army, which captured Santa Anna and dictated terms to him. Texan independence was recognized by the United States and other countries, and the republic continued till its annexation by the United States in 1845.

READING (available in Duluth public library)—A. M. Williams, Sam Houston and the War of Independence in Texas (author was well fitted for his work by personal acquaintance with Texans who knew Houston, and his information is based on a study of Texan archives. Style clear and forcible); G. P. Garrison, Texas, a Contest of Civilizations (readable; not so much emphasis on early history.)

WHO'S WHO IN CONGRESS.

The president's sudden demand for a test vote on the proposal to warn Americans off armed merchantmen disclosed an unpleasant spectacle. Congress, though it doubtless in the end will vote for the United States, was discovered to be playing peanut politics to the peril of American rights and American self-respect.

Some of the house members were caught playing for political position, catering to racial prejudices for political purposes, putting personal political welfare higher than party welfare and national welfare. It isn't a pretty sight.

The president is standing for American rights. What certain congressmen proposed is a base and humiliating betrayal of American rights. It gave new boldness to those with whom the president is contending. It created the impression abroad that the president, however firm, lacks the backing of congress. The only possible answer is a prompt repudiation by congress of the proposal to forbid Americans to travel on defensively armed passenger vessels, and there ought not to be a single vote in either body against that repudiation.

If you had a congressman who refused to back up the president in the present situation, what would you do with it?

AN EARNEST MAN WHO IS IN ERROR.

Our pious, scholarly and earnest friend Frank A. Day of the Fairmont Sentinel, while agreeing with us heartily about the need of a constitutional convention, takes issue on the question of a smaller legislature.

While it is a painful experience to find so eminent a patriot disagreeing with us, still the shock, great as it was, has not dislodged us from our profound conviction that a smaller legislature will cost less, will do more work with greater efficiency, and will be more certainly responsive to the public will, than the present unwieldy body of sixty-seven senators and a hundred and thirty representatives.

Mr. Day's theory, of course, is that a smaller body would be more easily controlled by "the interests," and that "there is safety in numbers."

There is CONFUSION in numbers; and in confusion there is no safety.

While it is true, as the Hon. Mr. Day observes, that sometimes "progressive" measures have passed the house a-flying to meet defeat in the senate, he has failed to reckon on the psychology of that observation frequently heard in the lower and larger body—"Oh, let's vote for it. The senate will kill the cussed thing, anyway!"

A large legislative body congests and confuses legislative processes, gets in its own way. Individual responsibility loses force, scattered with many to share it. It is not the relative smallness of the senate that has made it often a stumbling block to progress, but the fact that while the house members are elected for one session only and must soon face the people, the senate is elected for four years and there is time for the people to forget. There is a wide difference between the attitude of the senate in its first term after election and the attitude of the senate in the term just before election. Mr. Day surely knows that.

A smaller legislature would mean fewer to pay salaries to; fewer to introduce bills to clog the machinery; fewer to make speeches and dilatory motions; fewer to create a confusion in which a designing few can carry on their nefarious devices under cover. A smaller legislature would mean fewer lawmakers to pick, and therefore better lawmakers; it would mean larger districts for each lawmaker, and therefore less of the influence of purely local interests concerned in treasury-raiding against the interests of the whole state; it would mean fewer lawmakers to divide responsibility for neglect and malfeasance, and therefore a more definitely fixed responsibility and a greater responsiveness to the public will.

While a smaller legislature not watched by the public would be cheaper to buy, if that is what Mr. Day means, still a smaller legislature watched by the public would be easier for the public to control in the public interest. It would also be cheaper and more efficient.

Economy, efficiency and loyalty—that's what a smaller legislature comes to. Could even the exacting patriotism of Mr. Day ask for more?

Did you ever try to imagine yourself doing that Billard stunt of writing a perfectly good check for $1,250,000?

CIVIL SERVICE—FARCE OR REALITY?

E. J. Campbell, auditor of the city of Duluth, declares that the civil service laws of the city are being systematically violated by the city government, and proposes to refuse to allow the pay of employes retained in defiance of civil service regulations.

The city auditor's stand is right. Civil service is not a mere formality, to be set aside at the whim of any public official. It is a real and vital institution, necessary to sound government. Public officials who make a plaything of this law are in a poor position to criticize citizens who make playthings of other laws.

Duluth should have a real civil service system, and its officials should be compelled—if they do not do it willingly—to abide by its provisions.

English women are reported to be showing an interest in astronomy; but many women in this country have always shown a decided interest in stars.

ROOSEVELT AS THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEE.

Quite a lot of people wanted Roosevelt to be elected president for a third term in 1912.

In the campaign he got the most noise and red fire, and next to Wilson the most votes—4,119,507 to 6,293,019 for Wilson.

That's the reason many Republicans, however discontented with the beating he helped to give them then, are becoming reconciled to having him for a candidate—that and the fact that probably they can't help themselves.

But a good many people who voted for Roosevelt in 1912 did it because they thought he was what he is now turning out not to be—because they took him seriously when he talked of "social justice" and other similarly high sounding things which he now completely ignores—and by so ignoring them helps to reconcile those who opposed him because he talked things so disturbing to vested interests.

How many of these there were nobody knows, of course, but a good many enough, with the splendid results of the Wilson administration, to keep the Democrats pretty cheerful over the prospect of having Roosevelt to fight.

And when it comes to posing as an article of diet, Brer Rabbit has Brer Fox completely outclassed.

GRANT'S ADVICE.

A leading newspaper advocate of extravagant ideas of militarism triumphantly quotes this paragraph from General Grant's "Personal Memoirs:"

> We should have a good navy and our seacoast defenses should be in the finest possible condition. Neither of these costs much when it is considered where the money goes, and what we get in return. Money expended in a fine navy not only adds to our security and tends to prevent wars in the future, but is very material aid to our commerce with foreign nations in the meantime. Money spent upon our seacoast defenses is spent among our own people, and all goes back again among the people. The work accomplished, too, like that of the navy, gives us a feeling of security.

There will be few to quarrel with that statement. And certainly it does not support the fantastic ideas now afloat about a gigantic standing army, conscription in time of peace, compulsory universal military service and the like. Quite the contrary, indeed. It shows the folly of such talk.

"A good navy" and "seacoast defenses in the finest possible condition"—everybody, nearly, will subscribe to that.

When we see people shivering in mortal terror about what poor old Europe is going to do with us as soon as its present struggle ceases because everybody is too completely exhausted to fight an inch further, we feel quite liberal with the public money and willing to spend quite a good deal of it on naval and coast defenses, just to see if these terror-stricken neighbors can't be calmed and reassured.

But when these absurd terrors lead the fearful to demand the substitution of a militarism for the Republic, with everybody a soldier and a spirit of peaceful enterprise subtly degraded to a spirit of arrogant militarism, then pity for the terror-stricken changes to contempt and aversion, and we refuse to follow further.

But even the worst sufferers from banquet speeches would hardly be justified in adopting the Crones system.

Five claim title to the Montenegrin throne—which would indicate besides the ordinary four kings, that particular deck contains something wild.

Australia plans to give parcels of land to her returned soldiers. It will seem pretty pokey driving a plow after being used to seeing a whole acre of land ripped up by a couple of big shells.

War and Democracy

Editorial in the New York Sun.

Rumors have reached this country recently by way of Switzerland that a republican party is in process of formation in Germany and that it is rapidly increasing in numerical strength. That the prolongation of the war will add to the power of this organization is not improbable. The enthusiasm of a naturally peace-loving, domestic, commercial people, ambitious to excel in the arts, sciences and other fields of praiseworthy endeavor, for military adventure was destined to wane under the stress of a long and costly war, a war demanding the unceasing sacrifice of life and wealth and the minor comforts that make existence endurable. When food in a country ruled by a hereditary autocrat grows scarce and high-priced, there are always those among the people who advocate a change in the form of government as a panacea for existing ills. The French revolution was a hunger strike.

It may be said, with certain reservations, that the present war in Europe is a struggle between autocracy and democracy; between reaction, as represented by despotic rulers, and progress, as represented by people devoted to individualism. It is a combat to the death between man and a machine. Out of the chaotic, colossal strife that this clash between antagonistic ideals of government has engendered must emerge eventually either an increase in the power of hereditary autocracy or a mighty impetus to the forces that make for democracy.

If a peace between the warring nations should be patched up tomorrow the prospect of an immediate European return to the calm ways of civilization would not be especially bright. Internal disorders in many countries are sure to follow the cessation of the general strife. The realization that the most gigantic of all wars was precipitated not by the will of the peoples involved, but through the decisions of men claiming divine right to rule the destinies of nations has come gradually to the minds of millions of Europeans of all nationalities, and there are growing indications that when the war ends men who have been out for a year or more, killing their neighbors across the border may have something protesting to say to the governmental powers that forced them into this savage occupation.

History illustrates the fact that war and democracy are inherently antagonistic. The antidote to militarism must be increasing and ever-increasing doses of democracy to the body politic. The reaction against German slaughter as a method of settling international quarrels will be an overwhelming force in Europe presently, and its effects bid fair to be sweepingly iconoclastic. It will in all probability destroy a part if not all of those pernicious survivals from an unenlightened past that block the way in many European countries to the registering of the people's will. That a republican party has sprung to life in Germany is not strange. It was inevitable, and perhaps there are other nations across the water destined to witness a like movement within their borders.

Justice Hughes's Candidacy

Christian Science Monitor: The letter from Justice Charles E. Hughes to the chairman of the Virginia Republican committee, in which the former says that he is totally opposed to the use of his name in connection with the presidential nomination, and to the selection or instruction of any delegates in his interest, directly or remotely, is variously interpreted, according, in not a few cases, with the wishes of the interpreter. Politicians in Washington, and in other centers of political strategy, point to the omission from the letter of any out-and-out statement as to what the jurist would do were he to be nominated against his will. They say that inasmuch as he does not cover this point and, once and for all, put himself out of the running by saying that even if nominated he would not accept, therefore he really has left his admirers free to push his candidacy, even though nominally he forbids it. Civilians less versed in political finesse, and hitherto drawn to Justice Hughes in part because of full confidence in his candor and integrity, will hesitate to take the "politician" point of view. They will likely assume that Mr. Hughes means just what he says and has repeatedly said. They will hesitate to fall in with the theory that he is posing as unwilling while secretly willing; and they will no doubt do this out of respect for him and for his high office.

The Virginia Republican leader, who, with Justice Hughes' consent, has taken the public into his confidence, by giving publicity to correspondence preceding and leading up to the jurist's letter, has done a social service, for he has made clear the sort of maneuvering which some Republican politicians are carrying on, and the motives that some of them apparently have in making so free with the name and individuality of the supreme court judge, as if he were a puppet to be manipulated to serve their interests. That most of the demand for Justice Hughes which is discernible in both Republican and Progressive party ranks is actuated by selfish desires, we do not believe; but that some of it is, seems beyond doubt. Nor can he be ignorant of this fact, for, in rising to the altitude of the bench, he has not forgotten what he learned at Albany about politics viewed as a game.

We Always Did Like This Story.

Everybody's Magazine: The jury had been out for two days, and still one persistent fellow held out against the other eleven. "Well, gentlemen," asked the court officer, looking in at the door, "shall I order twelve dinners?"

"No," replied the foreman. "Make it eleven dinners and a bale of hay."

Rippling Rhymes

By Walt Mason

Moods.

"I cannot write a pome today, I am not in the mood," I heard a long-haired poet say, a poet short of food. "Unless the inspiration comes, I can produce no spiel; I sit here twiddling of my thumbs, and longing for a meal. And oft I feel privation's lash upon my person fall; O, for a plate of corn-beef hash, O, for a codfish ball!" "I can't afford such things as moods," the short-haired poet said; "and I must write the platitudes that fester in my head. Perhaps my song is not inspired, perhaps it's lacking Art, perchance it makes the highbrow tired, and breaks the purist's heart; but all the merchants in the grad are pleased to get my trade; they know that when I owe a scad, that scad is promptly paid. Each day I buckle down to work, regardless of my mood, just like a tinsmith or a clerk, with earnest zeal imbued; and then, until my muscles tire, throughout my eight-hour day, I punch the stuffing from my lyre, and make that punching pay. Should I for inspiration wait, I could not turn the trick; I could not keep my credit straight, or get my meals on tick."

(Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.)

The Recalcitrants

By Savoyard.

Washington, March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The seventh day of February Speaker Champ Clark came down from the chair and participated in the debate of an important measure before congress, presumably because the "leader" of the majority in the house of representatives is not in sympathy with his party in congress or the Democratic president on the issue involved. The Democratic party is the only political concern our country ever saw that would tolerate such a thing for a moment. Politics is much like war. What would we say of a general in the field who opposed the policy of the administration of his government and had the obedience of only a small portion of his army?

In Henry Clay's time it was a common occurrence for the speaker to participate in the debates, but the practice fell into desuetude even before the Civil war, and when Schuyler Colfax descended from his chair to support a resolution providing for the expulsion of a member the incident provoked heated discussion, and the speaker got no credit for his exploit. Mr. James G. Blaine, while speaker, on one occasion came down from the chair and had a heated discussion with old Ben Butler, off whom it is needless to say he made nothing.

* * *

Speaker Randall in the Forty-sixth congress was very prominent in the debate on the reform of the rules of the house, but that was very natural, as he was a most accomplished parliamentarian. Mr. Carlisle, in the Fiftieth congress, of which he was speaker, replied to a tariff speech by Tom Reed. Though he was speaker six years, Reed never came down on the floor to debate any matter. Crisp, while speaker, made a speech on the Wilson tariff of 1894. Uncle Cannon several times engaged in debate during the eight years he was speaker.

So it is rather an extraordinary occasion for the speaker to engage in the discussions. And here was the extraordinary spectacle of a "leader" who does not "lead"; and to cure that the speaker led. Somebody had to do it.

* * *

Here is the situation. At St. Louis next June the Democratic party, in national grand inquest convened, is going to appraise the policies of Woodrow Wilson as president of the United States and nominate him for re-election to that great station. That is certain. What will that amount to? Why, the plain meaning of it is a rebuke of those Democrats in official station who oppose Wilson's policies. Then how can one of those gentlemen, without violence to good taste and to good policy, offer for re-election? Are they going to run on a platform that reproves their conduct? And if nominated, how are they going to ask their constituents to vote for the re-election of a president whose policies they condemn?

There is precedent for this situation and it is a leading case, an established principle, laid down in the action of the noblest man I ever met, a giant in intellect, a Christian in loftiness of character, a sage in counsel.

* * *

When in 1896 the Democratic party nominated William J. Bryan for president on a platform denouncing the Cleveland administration, Henry G. Turner was serving his eighth term in congress, a member from Georgia. He was a very great man and the purest man I ever saw. He and Oliver Cromwell were the only two men Thomas B. Reed ever complimented, and Reed did it after a bout with the Georgia giant from which the Maine giant emerged second best.

In 1896 the Democratic convention in his district was unanimous for the renomination of Judge Turner, but he declined, saying that he was opposed to the policies of the nominee for president and that it was due to Mr. Bryan as the leader of his party that every Democratic constituency send a man to congress who would be in accord with the president if Mr. Bryan was elected.

That was a part of Henry G. Turner's legacy to his country—that example—and let us hope this good seed will fall on fertile soil this auspicious year of 1916.

* * *

Judge Turner was what Tom Reed said he was—"the jewel of the Democratic party." As chief justice he would have ornamented, to an absolute exactitude, the supreme court of the United States. I never think of him that the Chevalier Bayard and Robert E. Lee do not recur to my memory. He, too, was a soldier in our big war; but he adorned civil life as the knightly Frenchman and the lofty Virginian dignified arms and glorified battle.

I am glad to give my testimony, be its value what it may, to the worth of this admirable character, and I do it the more cheerfully because the first time we met I was the victim of his gentle reprimand. According to my idea something had gone wrong that day in congress, and at night I was expressing my opinion of it in more or less volcanic speech. I did not know that Turner, a considerably older man, was present, until I felt his hand gently on my shoulder as the mild admonition fell from his lips. He had never seen or heard of me, didn't know me at all, though I knew him. I am glad I had the grace to apologize and thank him for his censure.

* * *

Turner was the simplest man you ever saw. When he gave his seat in the street car to a negro woman, one of the laboring class, he acted precisely as Robert E. Lee would have demeaned himself in like circumstances. It was a natural thing for him to do, and I felt that I had been clumsy in like performance when I did it. As a gentleman his refinement had for basis kindness. He was less plagued with selfishness than any man I ever saw, and in social conversation he was simply delightful. It was a pity that he was not more self-assertive. In debate he was a giant, in a class with the greatest, but he seemed to have aversion to the limelight and rarely engaged in the proceedings on the floor.

Henry G. Turner affords a mighty good model, and especially was his conduct admirable when he put aside that nomination for congress because he was not in accord with the chosen chief of his party in 1896.

Obeisance.

David Starr Jordan in Life: In the year 1870, in his old age, Thomas Carlyle wrote a letter, in tenor not unlike certain recent utterances of Mr. Roosevelt. In this letter he praised highly the make-up of Prussia, the efficiency and intensity of its military and industrial organization, especially hoping that this system would force Alsace and Lorraine, the refractory German provinces that preferred to be French, into their places in the efficient machinery of the empire.

In the same year, as a student at Cornell, I heard George William Curtis compare Carlyle, the apologist for force, to the old Roman warrior, Belisarius, reputed in his old age to have become a blind beggar at the gates of his own city.

As with Belisarius, so with Carlyle, said Curtis: "Let us remember that he once was king and faithfully give him that reverence his mournful figure implores."

As we read the militaristic and anti-democratic utterances of Mr. Roosevelt, the advocacy of Prussian ideals with which to fight Prussia, we turn back to his brave service for national morality, for the square deal, for science and for conservation. As we do this we are forced, as with Belisarius and with Carlyle, to "remember that he once was king and faithfully give him that reverence his mournful figure implores."

A Typical American.

Life: "Is he a typical American?"

"Yes, he likes baseball, has a motor car, owes a mortgage, pays alimony, and thinks the moving pictures have grand opera beaten a mile."

Diagnosed.

Boston Transcript: He—But doesn't my devotion arouse in you some feeling for me? She—Oh, yes; the sort of feeling one takes a tonic for in the spring.

Keeping Up With Minnesota Editors

Scattered Comments Taken From Minnesota Papers.

Absolutely no Chance for an Argument Here.

Warroad Pioneer: The man who clears an acre of land confers more benefit on humanity than the fellow who marches right up to the cannon's mouth—and gets shot. And the clearing job is also much healthier.

He Has Stood It Well.

Luverne Journal: We do not recall that any other man who was ever nominated for justice of the United States supreme court was subjected to the investigation now being conducted over the life record of Louis D. Brandeis. There have been a lot of them who could not have stood it as well as Brandeis.

Children and Battleships.

Mankato Review: The person who devised the plan of raising money for a government battleship by soliciting dimes from the school children of the United States, ought to be sent to an imbecile asylum for treatment. There may be some question as to the number of battleships the nation needs, but there is no question as to its ability to pay for all that it needs by such taxation as may be required.

(Whistle) Wh-wh-wh-wh-wh-wh-wh!

Virginia Virginian: Don't ridicule the short skirts of today. They are sanitary and are the nearest germ proof of any garment yet made. And besides—

The Primary Idea Is Right.

Melrose Beacon: Says the Princeton Union: "Fad legislation comes high. The presidential preference primary law will cost the taxpayers a tidy sum. The expenses of the election, including the preparation and printing of the ballots, will amount to probably $150,000. And even then the voters cannot express their preference for presidential candidates!"

The Minnesota presidential primary law undoubtedly has many defects, but the idea back of it is absolutely sound. A primary election properly held will result in a much better expression of the popular will than did the old convention system. It takes time to arrive at any desirable end and the fact that the present law has defects does not prove the superiority of the old system. The good old days of machine-managed conventions are over and we hope they'll never return.

State Government.

Hutchinson Leader: There are some things about the state government that need reformation, no doubt. Should a private business be run in the same antiquated manner that some parts of the state machinery are conducted it would go bump in short order. Business-like methods should be employed in managing the state's affairs, and not the red-tape processes of bureaucracy.

Preparedness and Its Friends.

Montgomery Messenger: Wonder if those fellows who are hollering preparedness are game enough to shoulder a musket. Ninety-nine per cent of those blood-curdling maniacs, who today are clamoring for a bigger army and navy, will never muster up enough courage to get a smell of the smoke should this country go to war. Preparedness may be what this country needs, but the wrong class of plutocrats are behind the movement for the common people to get very enthusiastic over the project. It isn't worrying the farmers of this section very much, whatever the bullet-makers and steel corporations think about the proposition.

Mexico—A Retrospect

Brooklyn Eagle: Secretary Lansing's retrospect of the killings of Americans in Mexico during the years 1913, 1914 and 1915 shows that six disappearances must be regarded as murders by unknown persons; that ten men were slain by bandits, twelve by Indians, and thirty were victims of miscellaneous crime. Just eighteen owed their deaths to some direct effect of the revolutionary movements. In the preceding three years there were twenty killings. On the territory of the United States, under the present administration, twenty civilians and sixteen soldiers have been victims of Mexican shots.

Readers who have kept track of the Texan border news for the past few years may well wonder how many Mexicans have been killed in the United States. We are not a lawless country, we have not had government upset, but the bitterness between Gringo and Greaser is just as strong in Texas as in Chihuahua, and tabulated details would be very interesting.

Rough and often lawless are the men who work mines. Many mines owned by Americans were worked in Mexico. Many cattle ranches also owned by Americans were made lively by our non-conservative cowboys. Personal hatreds came into the reckoning. The figures are not wonderful at all. They are deplorable, but astound no person of poised and balanced habits of thinking.

Now that the Republican party is seeking to make capital out of exaggeration of these figures and misrepresentation of President Wilson's consistent effort to treat Mexico in a way to win the respect and confidence of all Latin-American countries, such a calm retrospect is particularly enlightening. The issue is a bogus issue. It will not be taken seriously by the American people.

Unjust Confiscation.

Life: Mr. J. Pillowphoot Grabber, the well-known philanthropist and president of the National Second-Story association, appeared yesterday before the Federal commission of burglarious relations. He said in substance:

"I cannot too strongly express my disapproval of certain incendiary utterances which have recently come to my notice. I refer to the suggestion that where burglars or others are found to have embezzled land or property from the public or from private persons, they should be required to give this property back to its original owners. Do you know what this means? It means an unwarranted interference with private property and individual initiative. It is, in fact, nothing short of confiscation. I have no objection to a reasonable amount of regulation. On the contrary, I believe that regulation of the proper kind is a good thing. But, of course, I do not believe in confiscation. Much of this property has found its way into the hands of pawnbrokers and other innocent purchasers. To disturb it now would be wholly unjust and unrighteous and a dangerous subversal of our best national traditions.

Fairyland.

Whither lies the white road, the right road to Fairyland?
We find no sign nor trace of it, and old we're grown and gray.
Our eyes are dim with peering, and our questing feet are weary.
And there's ne'er a soul to guide us with the Wee Folk all away.

Who can tell the dear way, the near way to Fairyland,
Where none, they say, wax old or sad? It's there that we would be.
How shall we believe that the sun and stars will show it us.
Child and bird and field-flower and butterfly and tree?

Who keeps the gold key, the old key of Fairyland?
Always and all ways we seek it near and far.
Whisht! foolish wanderers—turn, and ye shall find it
In each heart where wonder, and love, and worship are.

—Pall Mall Gazette.

A Malicious Libel

Editorial in the Philadelphia Press.

(From the Public Ledger Feb. 20.)

To Woodrow Wilson: Feb. 22, 1916.

Not even if I posessed your twist in speech,
Could I make any (fit for use) fit you;
You've wormed yourself beyond description's reach;
Truth if she touched you would become untrue.
Satire has seared a host of evil fames,
Has withered Emperors by her fierce lampoons;
History has lashes that have flayed the names
Of public cowards, hypocrites, poltroons;
You go immune. Cased in your self-esteem,
The next world cannot scathe you, nor can this;
No fact can stab through your complacent dream,
Nor present laughter, nor the future's hiss.
But if its fathers did this land control,
Dead Washington would wake and blast your soul.

—Owen Wister.

We republish the above with apologies to our readers, as it is impossible otherwise to give them a full understanding of the infamous verbal assault on the president of the United States to which the Public Ledger has given currency and apparent approval.

We consider them about the meanest lines that have ever appeared in print.

They are mean because they are false in statement and most malignant in spirit. They will be counted a permanent blot on the record of their distinguished author. Their willing and prominent publication by the Ledger shows it as a journal that is lacking in patriotism, common decency and regard for the truth.

The Press has often had occasion to differ with President Wilson and oppose his policies. It has never, however, seen any justification for an attack upon his character or for the impeachment of his integrity and patriotism. The European war has raised questions and issues which would have taxed the wisdom of any administration. How far President Wilson's handling of the difficult situation has been successful or unsuccessful it is too early to decide, but no reasonable man can doubt that he has labored for the best interests of his country as he conceived them, and that his motives throughout have been pure and patriotic and entitle him to the favorable consideration and loyal support of his countrymen.

Certainly it should protect him from such vicious, blatant blasts as this, which Mr. Wister has framed into verse and to which the Public Ledger has given its indorsement by publishing it conspicuously without a single syllable of dissent. It is a disgraceful exhibition of spleen and a false and malicious libel of a president who, we are confident, is laboring to perform his duty under difficult circumstances to the best of his ability and should have his arms held up by all patriots and be exempt from the vitriolic assaults of jaundiced poets and unscrupulous papers.

Just a Moment

Daily Strength and Cheer.

Compiled by John G. Quinlin, the Sunshine Man.

The Prayers of the Bible.

O satisfy us early with Thy mercy, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. Make us glad according to the days wherein Thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil. Let Thy work appear unto Thy servants, and Thy glory upon their children. And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us; and establish Thou the work of our hands, yea, the work of our hands establish Thou it.—Ps. xc, 14-17.

Examine me, O Lord, and prove me; try my heart and my mind. For Thy loving kindness is before mine eyes, and I have walked in Thy truth. I will wash my hands in innocency; so will I compass Thine altar, O Lord. Lord, I love the habitation of Thy house, and the place where Thy glory dwelleth. Gather not my soul with sinners, nor my life with men of blood. As for me I will walk in mine integrity. Redeem me and be merciful unto me.—Ps. xxvi, 2, 3, 6, 8, 9, 11.

Give ear to my words, O Lord, consider my meditation. Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King and my God; for unto Thee do I pray. My voice shalt Thou hear in the morning, O Lord, in the morning will I direct my prayer unto Thee, and keep watch. As for me, I will come into Thy house in the multitude of Thy mercy; in Thy fear will I worship toward Thy holy temple. Lead me, O Lord, in Thy righteousness; make Thy way straight before my face.—Ps. v, 1-3, 7, 8.

Twenty Years Ago

From The Herald of this date, 1896.

At Washington today the house of representatives, by a vote of 263 to 16, adopted a concurrent resolution recognizing the belligerency of the Cuban revolutionists and their provisional government.

S. A. Thompson of Duluth is in Washington on his way to Venezuela for the Review of Reviews.

It was 45 deg. below zero at Butte, Mont., yesterday.

Duluth temperature at 7 a. m. today, 4 above zero; maximum yesterday, 18; minimum yesterday, 11.

The annual meeting of St. James Catholic church at West Duluth was held yesterday. Father Mackey, the pastor, presided. James Connolly was elected treasurer and J. J. Lauermann secretary. An advisory board, consisting of J. T. Gunniss, P. R. McDonnell, Frank Tims, P. Healy, J. J. Bejold, Victor Method and William Chesser, was named. The ushers selected were Peter McCormick, James Brotherton, William Haley, J. Bejold, A. Filiatrault and James Enright.

The fight between Jimmy Murphy and Billy Patterson took place yesterday at a point on the St. Paul & Duluth road, about thirty miles from Duluth. It took place in the open with the mercury hovering about the zero mark, and was witnessed by about 200 shivering sports. Murphy won in the sixth round. A section foreman on the St. Paul & Duluth, who had lived to the age of 50 without seeing a prize fight, helped clear the ring and got in a good position to see the fight. When blood came in the second round he fainted away and fell over in the snow. He then left, having decided that he did not care about prize fights.

The house of Victor Dash at Smithville came close to destruction by fire on Feb. 29. One of the children upset a lamp, and had not Mrs. Dash, by prompt and plucky action, put out the blaze, the result would have been serious.

E. W. Kaltenbach, W. W. Oddie and George W. Dowack have returned from New York, where they have been buying for Panton & White's store.

Dr. Stuart Bates of Virginia was in the city today, on his return from New York, where he has been for about two months.

Madame Coakley, who has been with Howard & Haynie, leaves this evening for Omaha, Neb., where she has accepted the management of the millinery department of the Boston store.

Gid Ferguson, formerly of Duluth and now with the Capital City View company of Washington, D. C., is here on a visit to his brother.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Esherman of Proctorknott have returned from a visit to the Twin Cities.

THE OPEN COURT

(Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the topics of general interest, but discussion of sectarian religious differences are barred. Letters must not exceed 300 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

WHO ARE "QUALIFIED ELECTORS" IN DULUTH?

To the Editor of The Herald:

In the article I submitted yesterday a question as to what constitutes "qualified electors" might arise, therefore I wish to refer again to the Duluth charter.

Section 38 says: "No person shall be allowed to vote at any municipal election unless his name be registered as herein provided, except that any qualified voter of the city, whose name does not appear among the registered voters, may, at the time he offers his ballot on election day, deliver to the judges of election his affidavit, * * * the judges of election shall receive his vote although his name does not appear upon the registration rolls."

This section is clear as to the fact that there can be qualified electors who have not registered, and it would naturally seem that any method of checking by a clerk that can disqualify such electors from enjoying their right to protest against any proposition, or express their desire for any proposition, would be unconstitutional.

Therefore it would naturally follow that any qualified elector who has been rejected by the clerk should have the right to make an affidavit, as is provided in the charter for him on election day, when he desires to sign a petition; but in the absence of any such provision in the charter, he does have the right to sign the petition without such affidavit, being a qualified elector.

A petition signed by a number of qualified electors equal to at least 10 per cent of the total ballot cast at the last preceding general municipal election filed within thirty days will hold up an ordinance in a referendum proposition; the clerk then has ten days in which to check up, by the register, and make his certificate; the petitioners have the right to amend within ten days, and the clerk another ten days to check up, it would seem, according to the charter.

Therefore, it appears that not "before thirty days" would be the earliest possible date an ordinance of this nature could go into effect, and could in an extreme case be held up sixty days by a petition of qualified electors equal to at least 10 per cent, etc. But they do not necessarily have to be registered qualified electors in order for their petition to act as a stay by keeping the ordinance from taking effect at once.

A. G. CATLIN.

Duluth, March 1.

ADVICE TO VOTERS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

The 1916 political campaign has already commenced and, judging by the amount of waste paper already in circulation, I think it is going to be a hot campaign and some hustling done, even for some of our county offices.

I have noticed that there are many candidates already in the field for county commissioners' offices. Districts that have had only three or four candidates other election years, will probably have a dozen this year. Of course that is an office with very good pay, and money is the object nowadays. (Who will do anything for the public welfare for nothing?)

We have read in the newspapers this last year that no less than six men in public service have been unable to live on their salary and therefore had to resort to dishonesty.

It was really too bad that this should come out among the people, especially as these six are all good fellows.

But I hope the news did the public good. Maybe there won't be so many voters bought for a smile and a handshake or a drink this coming election.

Yours truly, TONY.

Independence, Minn., Feb. 29.

THE USE OF MILK BOTTLES.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Who is this man Mathews, with the distinguished addition to his name, and what makes him repudiate statements made by an honorable citizen and housekeeper, with years of experience and various tryouts with milkmen having different methods and ways of distributing their milk?

I did not give it much thought until I read his article in The Duluth Herald a short time ago. I, for one, have bought milk in small quantities for the last twenty years in the city of Duluth; that is, from different milk dealers who had different ways and methods of delivering their milk, and, to my knowledge, the best results obtained up to date were with the man with one cow, delivering his milk in the ordinary milk can. Milk in bottles purchased at different stores, and also those delivered by milkmen, I found to be very unsatisfactory.

To speak of bottles, I have seen, for a long period that most of the smaller stores or retailers who handled milk on a small scale receive their milk in the regular milk can from milk dealers, then bottle the milk themselves without the proper cleaning facilities.

The word pasteurized sounds to me like a process of extracting a certain amount of cream without minimizing the legal standing of the milk. Some of the milkmen, probably those who work on a small scale, perhaps separate their milk, but not as a rule.

Some time ago I noticed in The Herald a report by the health department on dairy inspection in the city of Duluth, and it stated that the dairies were the best or equal to any in the country, also including the state of Michigan, I take it. Now if Duluth has as good or equal to any city, why should it be changed only for greed and fanaticism, probably adding to the cost of living for the poor class?

As for the man from Michigan, I wish he would look after that part of the land and Duluth might get along without him and his very unpolished remarks about the grandfathers, who got along so well that a number of them are furnishing the means and support this day, perhaps without the bottle. Thanking for space,

A. DAHL.

Duluth, March 1.

WEST DULUTH WANTS BETTER MAIL SERVICE

To the Editor of The Herald:

A petition will be signed by West Duluth citizens in the near future to have our mail service improved, as we desire to have two deliveries of mail a day, same as in any other first class postoffice in the United States.

It is just a shame for a first class postoffice like Duluth to get mail only once a day, as though we lived in an old lumber camp. Not only during the holiday rush, or when the water, gas and light bills come in can the carrier make only one delivery a day, as Postmaster McEwen stated lately, but any time during the year we never get two deliveries of mail a day, on account of the large territory the carriers have to cover in West Duluth.

For instance, the mail coming into Duluth from Chicago at 9:15 a. m.: This mail we do not receive until the next day about 1 p. m. The mail is lying in the postoffice for over twenty-seven hours, and sometimes very important mail. Certainly some efficiency is needed in the Duluth postoffice.

Respectfully, G. S. DICKLOW.

West Duluth, March 1.

WARNING TRAVELERS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

I learned in your editorial last night that "action will be immediately necessary" if some belligerent powers declare different ways of warring against one another, and further, "that action does not necessarily mean war" but "it probably does mean a total cessation of relations with Germany."

Why can't this nation do like all other neutral countries: warn its subjects to keep off the war vessels because they are liable to be sunk? That is the right way to warn the men, women and children. We all know what the Du Pont Powder company wants. To cease relations with a country means we are going on the other side. To go to war is the worst thing to suggest, and we are no longer going to stand for it. It's going to be stopped.

Yours truly,

E. PETERSON.

Chisholm, Minn., Feb. 29.

(Such action as is suggested, of warning citizens, has not been taken by all neutral countries. But for the United States to take such action would be to surrender rights and principles so deeply rooted that their surrender would be intolerable.—The Editor.)

A MAID COMPLAINS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Will you kindly answer me a question through the Open Court? I am employed by a young married couple, and I have noticed that the madam was in my room at different times without asking my permission. It seems to me her chief delight is in going all through the house looking for things to unearth (or trouble, so to say), whenever we girls are out or at work, so we can't hear her in our rooms.

Is it their privilege to go into my room whenever they feel like it, and, in fact, unlock the door with a master key, also my clothes closet? For that is what has been done more than once.

Wherever I have been before, the madam always asked if she could go into my room, if there was any reason for her wanting to do so.

The last time it happened, I asked if my room and closet had been unlocked and entered (as I looked at it purposely). I was told that she (the madam) thought she had the right to go into my room whenever she pleased, to see if it was kept clean. Now, I have been here for a few months, and I should think she would know by now how my room is kept. Can you tell me whether that is what they can do? Or are there no laws in Minnesota to protect the poor as well as the rich? Or do you suppose they just wish to show their authority? If that is the case, I think they are starting at the wrong end.

I know if they think me dishonest and are missing something, they can go and swear out a search warrant, and an officer of the law will do the rest.

No wonder girls don't want to live out if they can help it. The way some people treat their help is scandalous.

Thanking you for the space allowed in your worthy paper, I am,

ONE WHO IS LIVING OUT AT THE PRESENT TIME.

Duluth, Feb. 29.

The mistress of the house has no right to disturb the clothing, trunks, boxes or other belongings of her employes. She probably has a legal right to enter any room of her own house at any time, whether it is locked or not; but to abuse that right is extremely discourteous, and certainly shows unusual disregard for the feelings of others.—The Editor.

POEMS ASKED FOR.

Requests have been received for the following: "The Newhall House Is Burning to the Ground" and "The Lady Elgin" from J. M. Ronan of Palmer, Mich.

"The Hat My Father Wore," from J. J. Heffern of Ardoch, N. D.

"The Baby's Name" (Irish), from "A Reader" at Big Fork, Minn.

Peg-o'-My-Heart.

Oh, my heart's in a whirl over one little girl,
I love her, I love her, yes I do.
Although her heart is far away,
I hope to make her mine some day,
Every beautiful rose, every violet knows
I love her fond and true.
And her heart fondly sighs as I sing to her eyes,
Her eyes of blue, my darling.

Chorus.

Peg-o'-My-Heart, I love you!
We'll never part—I love you!
Dear little girl, sweet little girl!
Sweeter than the rose of Erin
Are your winning eyes, endearing.
Peg-o'-My-Heart, your glances,
With Irish art entrances,
Come, make your home in my heart.

When your heart's full of fears and your eyes full of tears,
I'll kiss them, I kiss them all away;
For like the gold that is in your hair
Is all the love for you I bear,
Oh, believe in me, do; I am as lonesome as you,
I miss you, I miss you all the day.
Let the light of love shine from your eyes into mine
And shine for aye, Sweetheart, for aye, my darling.

The Charming Young Widow I Met in the Train.

I live in Vermont and one morning last summer,
A letter informed me my uncle was dead;
And also requested I'd come down to Boston,
As he'd left me a large sum of money, it said,
Of course, I determined on making the journey,
And to book myself by the "first-class" I was fain,
Though had I gone "second" I had never encountered
The charming young widow I met in the train.

Yet scarce was I seated within the compartment,
Before a fresh passenger entered the door;
'Twas a female, a young one, and dressed in deep mourning,
An infant in long clothes she gracefully bore;
A white cap surrounded a face, oh, so lovely,
I never shall look on one like it again,
I fell deep in love, overhead in a moment,
With the charming young widow I met in the train.

The widow and I side by side sat together,
The carriage containing ourselves and no more,
When silence was broken by my fair companion,
Who inquired the time by the watch that I wore;
I, of course, satisfied her, and then conversation
Was freely indulged in by both till my brain
Fairly reeled with excitement, I grew so enchanted
With the charming young widow I met in the train.

We became so familiar I ventured to ask her,
How old was the child that she held at her breast;
"Ah, sir," she responded, and into tears bursting,
Her infant still closer convulsively pressed;
"When I think of my child I am well-nigh distracted;
Its father—my husband—oh, my heart breaks with pain."
She choking with sobs laid her head on my waistcoat—
Did the charming young widow I met in the train.

By this time the train had arrived at the station
Within a few miles of the great one in town,
When my charmer exclaimed, as she looked through the window,
"Why, gracious alive, there goes Mr. Brown.
He's my late husband's brother—dear, sir, would you kindly
My best beloved child for a moment sustain?"
Of course, I complied—then off on the platform
Tripped the charming young widow I met in the train.

Three minutes elapsed when the whistle it sounded;
The train began moving—no widow appeared;
I bawled out "stop, stop," but they paid no attention,
With a snort and a jerk, starting off as I feared;
In this horrid dilemma I sought for the hour—
But my watch, ha, where was it? Where was my chain?
My purse, too, my ticket, gold pencil case—all gone.
Oh, that artful young widow I met in the train!

While I was my loss thus so deeply bewailing,
The train again stopped, and I "tickets, please," heard;
So I told the conductor while dandling the infant,
The loss I sustained, but he doubted my word;
Indignant, I held up the baby as proof.
He uncovered the child—oh, how shall I explain?
For behold, 'twas no baby—'twas only a dummy,
Oh, that crafty young widow I met in the train!

Satisfied I'd been robbed, they allowed my departure,
Though, of course, I'd to settle my fare the next day;
And I now wish to counsel young men from the country,
Lest they should get served in a similar way.
Beware of young widows you meet on the railway,
Who lean on your shoulder—whose tears fall like rain;
Look out for your pockets in case they resemble
The charming young widow I met in the train.

Recovers Both Money and Health.

Chicago, March 2.—Morris Ginsberg, held at the local police station on a charge of attempting to kill his wife with an ax, attempted to take his own life yesterday by swallowing 35 cents in change. Ginsberg has recovered both his money and his health.

This Week's Sunday School Lesson

Written for The Herald By Rev. J. S. Kirtley, D. D.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON: MARCH 5.

Acts vii, 54; viii, 3: Death of Stephen.

CONNECTION.

Things are moving fast—the rarest sort of brotherhood with all its perils, the completer organization of the church with its "seven helpers," whom we call deacons, the greater success of the gospel, due to concentration of the apostles on their work and better attention to its benevolent work by the deacons. But the new preaching of that gifted and profound man, Stephen, as he went about his work, hastened the progress in several ways—in a stronger grip of the gospel on the people as he preached it in various synagogues of the foreign Jews, in a new viciousness against the truth as taught and embodied by him and in the new persecution that proved a great blessing in disguise.

THE LESSON.

I.

The Mad Murder. 54-58.

"Now when they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth. But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up steadfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, and said, 'Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God.' But they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed upon him with one accord; and they cast him out of the city, and stoned Him; and the witnesses laid down their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul."

1. WHIPPED.—They were overwhelmed by the testimony of Stephen in his private, personal work from house to house and from synagogue to synagogue; "not able to withstand the wisdom and the spirit with which he spoke." What then? He was too aggressive and they were too enraged to let him alone. They want to get rid of him. But how? What's their pretext? They hire men to swear he is guilty of blasphemy "against Moses and against God," then stir up members of the Jewish council and enough people to have him arrested under that charge. But they are still more completely whipped by the wonderful address he made, in which he identified their spirit of resistance with that of their fathers who gave God and their earthly leaders so much trouble, and then turned in a direct attack on them for having that same spirit in killing their own Messiah. It was tragical, the way he exposed them to the bystanders and to themselves. Again they had to retreat or advance, to yield to him or carry out their original purpose in another way.

2. CRAZED.—Crazed by anger at him for telling the truth, by resentment for his exposure of their spirit, by wounded pride that the people saw their exposure, by zeal for false religious traditions now being overthrown. It was a "brain storm," and "heartstorm" combined, moral and emotional madness. The insanity of it was shown in the abandonment of all restraint such as the Roman law imposed against taking life without its formal approval and such restraint as civilized life imposes in the way we fight, for they bit him with their teeth like mad dogs. The extraordinary look on Stephen's face and his words that he saw the heavens opened and Jesus standing at the right hand of God maddened them all the more, for, to them, it was blasphemy consummate. It was an insanity that they worked up more or less purposely by shutting their ears and shouting so as to hear no more from him and to concentrate more furiously on their purpose.

3. LAW.—Though it was against the Roman law and the law of human kindness and the spirit of their own law, they had enough lucidity to try to make the murder conform, in the letter, to the old Jewish law against blasphemy by "stoning" him and make it conform to the laws governing "the camp" and "the city" by taking him outside the city of Jerusalem. They still had some regard for ceremonial defilement to want to avoid it, and they didn't want to become formally breakers of their own law. They were relieved on that point by having the approval of the most gifted young rabbi of his day, a man named Saul, who had come down from Tarsus to take a special course with the famous teacher, Gamaliel. They took off their loose outer garments, in order that they might throw better, and laid them at Saul's feet for safe keeping.

II.

The Marvelous Martyr. 59-60.

"And they stoned Stephen, calling upon the Lord, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep, unto his death."

1. CHRISTLIKE.—The whole story brings up Christ. It was because he was a follower of Christ, a preacher of Christ, a witness for Christ in behalf of sinners and against the horrible sins of those who were opposing Christ, that they killed him. It was the spirit of Christ that was shown in his ministry to the needy, in his interpretation of their history and his reproval of their sins, in his hope, in the vision that was granted him into the heavens, where Christ is usually represented as sitting but where He seems to have risen as if to greet and approve His servant. Most of all did he show the Christ within him by asking God to forgive their sin of murdering him.

2. COMPOSURE.—It came from knowing that God was within him, that Christ was within him, that he had done right, and that his very death would be an instrument for achieving something. Any one may be composed on those conditions anywhere.

III.

The Great Results. 1-3.

"And Saul was consenting unto his death. And there arose on that day a great persecution against the church which was in Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judaea and Samaria, except the apostles. And devout men buried Stephen, and made great lamentation over him. But Saul laid waste the church, entering into every house, and dragging men and women, committed them to prison."

1. PERSECUTION.—It grew more furious and spread. The brilliant young man who "consented" to his death, either because he was a rabbi or was simply one who molded sentiment, went a step further, first consenting, then co-operating. The leader had a taste of blood and went wild. That's human nature. The forms of persecution were varied, but mainly by imprisonment. Women as well as men suffered.

2. MULTIPLICATION.—More people became Christian because the disciples sought places of safety and there preached Christ. God allowed the storm to burst, so that they would cease to stay around Jerusalem. Jesus told them to go into all the world and now a persecution will compel them to go. Why the apostles didn't go we don't know, but probably they had not caught up with the advanced teachings of Stephen and the conservative wing was not so much disturbed.

WHAT THE MASTERS SAY.

When we can welcome each new trial and hardship of whatever kind as a new chance to get people to thinking about Christ, when we can really wish that they may be pardoned and saved from the sins by which they afflict us, then we have the spirit of Christ and can advance the cause of Christ.—James.

A young lawyer went home one night and told his wife he had accepted Christ. He proposed that after supper the servants should be invited into the drawing room, and he would read the Bible and pray with them. She said: "But, my dear, you forget you have invited some of your lawyer friends to dinner, and they are skeptics. Don't you think you would better go into the kitchen and pray with them?" He thought it over and replied: "It's the first time I have tried to serve my Lord, and He must be trying me, to see if I am sincere. I will have him in the best room in the house." And so he did. That man was afterward Judge McLean of the United States supreme court for forty years. He started right.—Cowan.

PERTINENT QUESTIONS.

1. What is religious hatred?
2. What race prejudice have you?
3. When your comfort has been interfered with, how has it benefited you?
4. Why is our discipleship the more valuable the more costly it is?
5. Do you know any modern instance in which seeming defeat has led to larger victory?

GIRLS! BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR WITH "DANDERINE"

Get a 25 Cent Bottle! Freshen Your Scalp! Stop Falling Hair! Remove Dandruff! Grow Lots of Wavy, Glossy, Beautiful Hair—You Can!

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you can not have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its luster, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?—Advertisement.

RAW MATERIAL IS GROWING SCARCE

Great Consumption By Manufacturers May Soon Cause Shortage.

Washington, March 2.—Generally good business conditions throughout the country are reflected in reports of Federal reserve agents made public last night by the Federal reserve board. Growing scarcity of raw materials used in many American industries, is noted, however, and the southern agents predict an increase in cotton acreage this year unless steps are taken to prevent it.

The Boston district reports trade generally in continued activity. Unrest of labor and increasing cost of raw materials, however, are said to be disturbing factors.

From New York comes the report that there are more products and workers in that district and that the industrial activity here is of record character. Manufacturers of automobiles, tools and firearms and the rolling mills show the greatest increases in production.

On account of a scarcity of raw materials, however, some houses anticipate a shortage of merchandise stocks.

Steady and substantial gains throughout the Philadelphia district in all lines of business is announced.

Scarcity of basic raw materials, the Chicago district says is receiving the attention of manufacturing industries dependent on them. Reports from the farming section of the district indicate a reduced wheat acreage this year, but the farmers are said to have an increased purchasing power. The automobile industry is going at a record pace while there is a heavy demand and a feeling of optimism.

Cold weather has retarded grain shipments in the Minneapolis district, and to a considerable extent the lumber and wholesale business.

Car shortage, the report says, is causing difficulties and the coal situation threatened at one time to become serious.

Prospects for the spring are called excellent.

San Francisco reports there has been little change in conditions there. Imports through that port for January exceeded all previous records by $13,000,000.

FORD SAYS FILING OF HIS NAME IS A JOKE

Detroit, Mich., March 2.—Henry Ford said yesterday that he was not to be seriously considered as a Republican candidate for the presidency.

"I do not want anything to do with politics or political offices," said Mr. Ford. "The filing of my name at Lansing was a joke."

One of Mr. Ford's close friends said the primary petitions were filed by admirers of the manufacturer, although the latter had never been considered an avowed candidate.

PRESIDENT ADDS $1,000 TO FUND

Atlanta, Ga., March 2.—A donation of $1,000 from President Wilson to the Ellen Wilson memorial, a fund being raised here for awarding scholarships to children in mountain sections of the South, was received yesterday by officers of the memorial. The president's personal check for that amount was enclosed in a letter from Mrs. Edith Bolling Wilson, requesting that it be added to the fund.

HEARING OF STAMP ROBBERS CONTINUED

Chicago, March 2.—After hearing the testimony of several witnesses in the case of Edward Leonard and George Bissett charged with the theft of half a million dollars worth of internal revenue stamps from the Federal building at St. Paul, Minn., United States Commissioner Foote yesterday continued the hearing until March 11, and indicated he would grant the motion of the government's attorneys to remove the defendants to St. Paul for trial.

Mrs. Hazel McDonald of Minneapolis, Minn., testified that Leonard and Bissett bought her flat on Jan. 8, saying they were in "an awful hurry to get in" and that they brought two trunks to the flat the same night. Later two trunks partly filled with income tax stamps were found in Chicago, and government attorneys said Mrs. McDonald's description of the trunks brought to her flat tallied with those found here.

King Haakon Fractures Wrist.

Christiania, Norway, via London, March 2.—King Haakon injured his left hand while skiing yesterday. An X-ray photograph showed the fracture of a bone in the wrist. It is expected that the fracture will be healed in three weeks.

Edward H. Harris, Man Killed.

El Paso, Tex., March 2.—Officials ascertained that the Harris, whose death at the hands of bandits in Sombrerete was reported from Torreon, was Edward H. Harris, assistant superintendent of the Sombrerete Mining company, an American owned corporation.

Scores Fish and Game Law.

Oshkosh, Wis., March 2.—James Navin, Madison, chairman of the state conservation commission, was here yesterday inspecting the work of removing the fish hatchery to a more advantageous location in this city. Asked about the law governing angling of perch, which seems to be in a tangled condition, he said: "I will attempt to give no ruling as there are no laws so tangled up as fish and game statutes."

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW

What a Heap of Happiness It Would Bring to Duluth Homes.

Hard to do housework with an aching back.
Brings you hours of misery at leisure or at work.
If women only knew the cause—that
Backache pains often come from weak kidneys.
'Twould save much needless woe.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

Read what a Duluth woman says:

Mrs. Nellie Kingsbury, 412 North Fifty-second avenue west, Duluth, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me by a friend about a year ago, when I was complaining of an attack of kidney trouble. It was mostly in my back and through my kidneys. It hurt throughout the day and at night I could not rest well. I got two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills at Spencer's Drug Store and they made my back strong and well. For a year now I have had no further trouble."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Kingsbury had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, and has been made under his personal supervision for over 30 years. Allow no one to deceive you in this. Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments, and endanger the health of Children—Experience against Experiment.

The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of
Chas. H. Fletcher

AMUSEMENTS.

TONIGHT, TOMORROW AND SATURDAY
THE WAR AS YOU NEVER READ OR HEARD OF!
FIGHT THE BATTLES OF THE
MARNE AND MONS
Of the Arras and Champagne Regions With
BARON De MALAUSSENE
Adjutant 1-Er Reg. Etranger.
See the First Authentic Pictures of the Allies
"FIGHTING FOR FRANCE"
AFTERNOON AND NIGHT.
ORPHEUM STRAND TIVOLI

ALWAYS A GOOD SHOW NEW GRAND 11 A. M. UNTIL 11 P. M.
ENTIRE NEW SHOW TONIGHT.
ROY & ARTHUR Fun in a Dining Car.
Alvarez & Martell, Willing & Jordan
KELLY & CALVIN
Selig Tribune News.
Concert Orchestra. Photoplays de Luxe.
MATS 10c ANY SEAT NITES 10-20

KENNEDY SQUARE Today & Friday
F. Hopkinson Smith's famous novel
—Starring—
ANTONIO MORENO and MURIEL OSTRICHE in the Title Roles.
ANY SEAT, 10c.
ZELDA

LYCEUM THEATER ALL WEEK
Return of Duluth's Most Popular Play.
OLIVER MOROSCO PROFFERS THE MOST TALKED OF PLAY OF THE CENTURY; SUCCESS OF SUCCESSES
THE BIRD OF PARADISE
BY RICHARD WALTON TULLY.
Nights and Saturday Matinee—25c to $1.50.
Four Days Com. Sunday Matinee.
Mat. Daily, "Girls from the Follies."

REX THEATER BEAUTIFUL Today, Friday and Saturday
"HIS PICTURE IN THE PAPERS"
Douglas Fairbanks—Loretta Blake.
A picture out of the ordinary. Richly set, with accomplished actors and a love story. To do something to make a name for himself, the son of a rich man has a genuine prize fight. New York went wild over this picture.
Billie Burke is coming Sunday.

LYRIC PARAMOUNT THEATER Today & Friday
FANNIE WARD—Today
CHARLOTTE WALKER—Friday
Tonight marks the close of Miss Ward's appearance in "Tennessee's Pardner," the play of the days of '49. True life of the plains, well staged and strongly acted.
FOR THREE DAYS beginning tomorrow, Miss Walker is seen in "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine." A Fox picture based on Eugene Walker's novel. It is a play of the moonshiners of Virginia. Don't miss it.

If Your Health Is Poor Your Work Suffers

CONSTIPATION threatens your health every day, every hour that you permit it to persist. To disregard it is to invite disaster, for constipation is the underlying cause of many more serious disorders.

Nujol

REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.

A PURE WHITE MINERAL OIL

is odorless and tasteless, absolutely neutral, and is not digested or absorbed into the system. It acts merely as a mechanical lubricant.

Nujol is not a drug. Its use will not give quick, temporary relief. But Nujol is a genuine remedy in that it relieves constipation in the most natural way by lubricating the lining of the intestines, softening the intestinal contents, and thus promoting healthy and normal bowel activity.

Write for "The Rational Treatment of Constipation," an informative treatise on constipation. If you cannot get Nujol from your druggist, we will send you a pint bottle prepaid to any point in the United States on receipt of 75c—money order or stamps.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY
(New Jersey)
Bayonne New Jersey

On Sale at All Duluth Drug Stores

GLYNN TAKES ROOT TO TASK

Former Governor of New York Replies to Speech of Republican Leader.

Charges of Former Secretary Answered; Convention Indorses Wilson.

Syracuse, N. Y., March 2. — Former Governor Martin H. Glynn, at the Democratic state conference here last night, gave his party's answer to the speech of Former United States Senator Elihu Root before the Republican state conference in New York several weeks ago. Taking up Mr. Root's charges against the present national administration, he answered each point. He also took Mr. Root to task for his speeches in the United States senate and for his acts as secretary of state of the United States.

The Federal reserve act, the Underwood tariff, foreign affairs and preparedness were all dwelt upon by the former governor.

"Four years ago," he said, "this nation committed its care and welfare to the Democratic party and the Democratic party has been true to its trust. It has preserved peace, observed international laws and followed the traditions of the fathers of the country."

Federal Reserve Act.

After reviewing the legislation enacted during the Democratic control of congress, Mr. Glynn replied to Mr. Root's reference to the Federal reserve act. He charged that Mr. Root as senator opposed the passage of the measure. "This law," continued Mr. Glynn, "is one of the greatest achievements of the administration in the last fifty years. Why, there never has been a finer exhibition of foresight and statesmanship than that exhibited by the president in insisting upon the passage of the Federal reserve act. Subsequent events showed the president was prompted by wondrous economic insight. The Republican party has had possession of the government since 1861, with the exception of Mr. Cleveland's two terms. During all that time the necessity for financial legislation was never so great nor so imperative. The Republican party stands convicted of absolute impotence and incompetence because it failed utterly to meet the situation."

This legislative act, Former Governor Glynn said, saved the country from a panic when the European war broke out. It enabled the financial officers, he said, to meet the demands made upon American business and financial interests and saved them from a repetition of the panic of 1907, which the speaker characterized as a "painful experience" that would always be an "indictment of the Republican party."

Responsible for Panic.

"Mr. Root," he declared, "was a part of Mr. Roosevelt's administration in 1907 and shares with Mr. Roosevelt and the leaders of the Republican party the responsibility for the wholly unnecessary and calamitous happenings of that panic."

Mr. Root, the Democratic chairman asserted, voted and worked against the reserve act and "Mr. Root lost his 'peacock feather' as a prophet when he made his fatuous speech against the Federal reserve act."

The Underwood tariff law "has stimulated American industry," the former governor declared, and he blamed the foreign war for the decline in imports.

Denying that Mr. Root was "the keeper of national honor," Mr. Glynn added, "for years Mr. Root has been the star performer at peace conferences, and yet he condemns President Wilson for maintaining peace."

"For years," continued the speaker, "Mr. Root has been acclaimed an Apostle of Peace and in 1912 was awarded the Nobel prize for the promotion of peace, but now he sallies forth as a drum and trumpet statesman.

"From a cooing dove of peace, Mr. Root suddenly transforms himself into a swooping hawk of war.

"Years ago enthusiasts in Bohemia took the skin of John Zizka, the patriot, and stretched it on a drumhead to rouse their followers to war. So today Elihu Root would stretch the skin of the victims of the Lusitania, the skin of the victims of the Belgium invasion, into a drumhead to rouse the kindly sentiment of sympathy into the cruel frenzy of war."

President's Foreign Policy.

In his foreign policy the president, Mr. Glynn said, was following the example of Washington, John Adams, Jefferson, Lincoln and Grant.

"The president," he declared, "has only shaken his finger; when he has to shake his fist the world will find it mailed.

"The president stands where George Washington stood in 1793, when England in the war with France seized and held hundreds of vessels floating the Stars and Stripes. He prepared for war—he built warships, he erected forts—but he did not shoot. He settled our differences with England by negotiation just as Woodrow Wilson is trying to do today.

"If Mr. Root will turn to the Declaration of Independence he will find a reminder that this is a country which resorts to war only after every other form of redress has failed.

"He will find that before the American colonies drew the pistol 'they warned, reminded, appealed and conjured' the British government 'to disavow' the usurpation of which they complained. Then as now a race of free men claimed the right to be patient, and now as then a race of free men will not falter in a final appeal to arms should their patience be exhausted and all other means of asserting their rights be in vain. As a nation we deprecated the waste, the horror, the unreason of war, because we are masters of our own destiny.

Will Be Rebuked.

"The efforts of politicians like Mr. Root to make political capital out of the course which President Wilson deems it wise for this nation to follow in respect to Belgium during the early stages of the present war, deserve, and will receive, unqualified condemnation and rebuke at the hands of the most right thinking and patriotic American.

"No fair-minded man can question the wisdom and integrity of our Belgian policy."

Former Governor Glynn declared that Mr. Root himself, as secretary of state, adopted the same policy in handling the Japanese-Korean situation despite the protests of Korea against the domination of Japan, and despite a treaty between Korea and the United States.

"The insincerity of the Republican party," the speaker asserted, "in its Belgian attitude is shown by the words of Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt, and by its record between 1901 and 1909.

Charging that the Taft administration "nagged and persecuted" the Madero administration in Mexico, Mr. Glynn declared that the Mexican situation was an "unfortunate inheritance" of the Democratic administration.

Turning to the Lusitania case, the chairman said that Mr. Root ignores what has been accomplished and the assurances for the future.

Mr. Root forgets, the former governor asserted, that the belligerent countries are wrought into a state of excitement by the nervous tension of the conflict in which they are engaged.

Would Make President Incendiary.

"Mr. Root," the speaker declared, "would make the president of the United States an incendiary in a world of fire. He would make the chief executive a swashbuckler instead of a statesman. He would have the president forget that while we debate, men are dying by thousands across the ocean; that while we are inconvenienced, the rest of the world is enduring the agonies of the damned; that while we are sitting quietly by our fireside, the rest of the human race is writhing in the torments of the firing line.

"Is it Mr. Root's conception of American honor that we should assert that honor by adding to universal misery?

"Excitable people, whose European sympathies one way or the other have for the moment blinded them to the welfare of this land—and whose spokesman Mr. Root seems willing to become—may just as well realize, once and for all that Woodrow Wilson will not swerve from the course he had laid out for himself in this crisis.

"No reward, no punishment will make him swerve from what he knows to be his highest duty. He has preserved, strengthened, dignified and uplifted our noblest national traditions and he will continue to do so no matter what the cost or what the penalty."

Wilson Indorsed.

In keynote speech and platform, Democrats of New York state assembled in convention last night, ratified the administration of President Wilson and took steps to bring about his re-election. Harmony marked the convention's deliberations, every proposal being adopted unanimously.

The following delegates at large to the national Democratic convention at St. Louis were recommended for the support of the party voters at the spring primary:

United States Senator James A. O'Gorman, William Church Osborn, chairman of the Democratic state committee; George J. Meyer of Buffalo, a German-American supporter of the president, and Samuel Untermeyer, a New York attorney.

The convention also adopted a resolution recommending the re-election of Norman E. Mack of Buffalo as national committeeman.

The delegates to the national convention who comprise New York's "big four," were unpledged, but were nominated with the understanding that they are to work for a second term for Mr. Wilson.

Former Governor Glynn's Speech.

At the conclusion of speech, the convention adopted a resolution providing for the distribution by the Democratic state committee of 1,000,000 copies throughout the country. The platform expressed the faith of New York's Democracy in the president, and urged his re-nomination and re-election. It was adopted enthusiastically. It dealt solely with national and international issues. Futile attempt was made by advocates of woman suffrage to insert in the platform a plank pledging the party to support the movement.

Fairbanks Indorsed.

Louisville, Ky., March 2.—The candidacy of Charles W. Fairbanks of Indiana, former vice president, was indorsed by the Republicans at a convention in session here last night, and eight delegates at large with one-half vote each, were instructed to vote in the national convention for Mr. Fairbanks for president as long as his name is before the convention."

Columbia Grafonola Records — Note the Notes

Hearing is believing!

THAT is the one proof—the final test of the qualities of a musical instrument. And measured by that test, the Columbia Grafonola superbly proves its right to the title of "The One Incomparable Instrument of Music."

TO HEAR it is to feel the thrill of absolute reality. Its tone is so pure, crystal-clear, and flawlessly true to life that it well-nigh makes the hearer forget the presence of an instrument.

TO HEAR it play a delicate, airy bit of chamber-music, then a tremendous orchestral symphony, is to gain a new conception of its marvelous range and power. No detail or shading of a theme is lost, and the peculiar tones of all instruments are returned with the musical values unaltered.

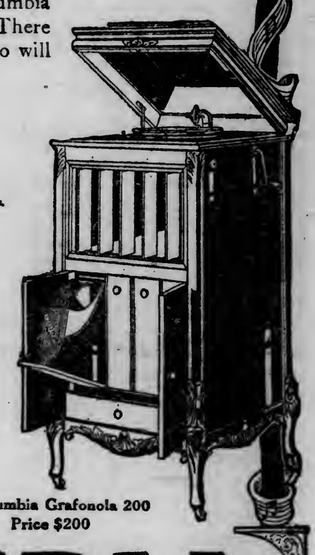
TO HEAR it with critical appreciation of its musical possibilities is truly to feel convinced that art and science could hardly go further in the reproduction of musical sound.

"Hearing is Believing." Put the Columbia Grafonola to the final test today. There is a Columbia dealer near you who will gladly arrange a demonstration.

New Columbia Records on sale the 20th of every month.

Columbia Records in all foreign languages.

This advertisement dictated to the Dictaphone.



The Columbia Grafonola 200
Price $200

COLUMBIA
DOUBLE-DISC RECORDS and the COLUMBIA
GRAFONOLA

For Sale by W. M. EDMONT, 18 Third Ave. West

BEST TRADE IN HISTORY

Wholesalers and Manufacturers Hardly Able to Supply Demand.

Prices Advance in All Lines; Lack of Dyes No Check.

Business is booming with Duluth wholesalers and manufacturers. "We are doing the best business in our histories." Such was the broad statement heard in making the round of the wholesale establishments today.

It was furthermore intimated that price advances are the usual order these days in the various trades, and in most quarters it was said that difficulty is being experienced in obtaining goods from the manufacturers in sufficient quantities to fill orders. Moreover, so impressed have retailers throughout the territory become with the current conditions in all the markets, that they are showing increasing anxiety to place orders in sufficient volume to cover their requirements for some time ahead, and they are not doing any heckling over prices either.

Dry Goods Trade Active.

F. A. Patrick & Co. reported that the volume of orders being booked in dry goods lines is showing a substantial increase over last year. Orders for next fall delivery are coming in freely.

"Our corps of about twenty-five specialty salesmen covering the entire tier of Northern states right through from the Far East to the Far West are doing a nice trade in mackinaws, garments, etc.," said Mitchell F. Jamar, manager of the firm's mills and factories. "The greatly increased cost brought about through the strong wool and dyestuffs situation does not appear to have deterred dealers from placing orders in the least," he went on. "We are gratified over the trade we are picking up in knitted hosiery and sweaters, a comparatively new line for us. A thing we have to complain of now is trouble in getting deliveries of worsted yarns from the factories."

Mr. Jamar averred that the Patrick woolen mill and garment factory are operating full time, with every prospect of a busy season ahead.

Hardware Prices Advance.

The managements of the two local hardware establishments, the Kelley-How-Thomson company and the Marshall-Wells Hardware company, say that they are nearly swamped with business placed for spring delivery. On account of the strong markets in all iron and steel products, dealers have been showing anxiety to get their orders placed, and deliveries are being urged at as early dates as possible.

Quotations have been climbing steadily since December. As an evidence of conditions in that respect, the following price advance announcements are mentioned as having been received yesterday alone: $2 a ton on nails and wire; 10 per cent on wrought iron pipe; $5 a ton on toe calks; 5 per cent on hand saws; 10 per cent on woven wire fencing; 10 per cent on varnishes; 10 cents a gallon on all paints; 10 per cent on wire rope; 10 per cent on wrenches, and 5 per cent on hoes and rakes.

Paper Situation Serious.

The paper situation is growing serious, according to C. U. Reitan, manager of the Duluth Paper & Stationery company. The demand is far exceeding the supply, he said. Some materials are becoming so difficult to obtain that the mills are not accepting any future orders, and prices are subject to change without notice. Quotations in wrapping papers are climbing, and colored papers have become scarce. Felts and roofing material prices have been advanced from 10 to 20 per cent recently, tarred felts being up $7 in a week. Raw felts, now selling at $85 and $90 a ton, sold at $50 a ton a year ago.

"Jutes and hemp twines are going out of sight and some of them may be off the market in a few days," said Mr. Reitan. "Mexican sisals are hard to get, and the same condition exists in Indian hemps. Imported notions have gone up as much as 1,000 per cent in some items, and aniline dyes show advances extending from 100 to 1,000 per cent. Inks have been advanced 20 per cent since last December, and advances in cottons are expected shortly." He reported that his company's bookings in papers and building materials, and in fact in all lines, are exceeding all previous records.

Record Shoe Trade.

"Trade booked for the year up to date shows a big increase over any similar period in our history," said F. E. Church, manager of the Northern Shoe company. His company's factory is operating with a larger force now than at any time in the past, and it is well supplied with orders, he averred.

Owing to the sharp advances in leathers and other materials entering into their manufacture, Mr. Church said that the prices on samples of shoes for next fall's delivery, to be taken out by salesmen within the next two weeks, will be revised upward.

He expressed gratification over the business that had been obtained by the company in its new hockey and skating shoes during the past season. As an instance of the wide territory over which the goods have been sold, he mentioned the case of a woman who had bought her skates in New York and endeavored to obtain the Northern skating shoe, the same as she had seen in Gotham to fit them at a certain Superior shoe store. The store in question did not carry the Duluth-made shoe at the time, but after that evidence of its popularity, its proprietor is said to have placed an order for the full line.

Large Furniture Sales.

"Our furniture bookings during February were more than double the figures of a year ago," said C. E. De Witt, president of the De Witt-Seitz company. While trade was well distributed over the West, he averred that North Dakota and Montana made perhaps the best relative showings. Several mixed cars of furniture were shipped to points in those states. Furniture prices are going up. In addition to a general increase of about 10 per cent reported a month ago, quotations in iron and steel beds were advanced by the factories yesterday.

Strike in Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 2.—About 250 employes of the Charles Abresch company, wagon and automobile parts makers, struck Wednesday. Contract agreement with the firm expired yesterday and the refusal of the company to meet the demands of the union caused the friction.

"Well, I Should Say 'Gets-It' DOES Work"

"Look a'There, If You Don't Think It's Just Wonderful for Corns.

"Bless my stars, look at it! Land of the livin'! Why, just look at it! That corn came right off—just like peeling bananas. Put your finger on my toe,

"Did You Ever See the Like? No Wonder 'Gets-It' is the Biggest Selling Corn Cure in the World!"

right there—don't be afraid—that's it—feel how smooth the skin is? Well, that's where the corn was. Well, that beats all!" That's the way "Gets-It" works on all corns, every corn, every time. It's the new, simple way of curing corns. You'll say goodbye to all foolish contraptions like bundling bandages, sticky tape, plasters, toe-eating salves, and grave-diggers such as knives, razors and scissors. "Gets-It" stops pain. Applied in 2 seconds. Never fails. Nothing to stick to, hurt or press on the corn.

"Gets-It" is sold everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Makes Stubborn Coughs Vanish in a Hurry

Surprisingly Good Cough Syrup Easily and Cheaply Made at Home

If some one in your family has an obstinate cough or a bad throat or chest cold that has been hanging on and refuses to yield to treatment, get from any drug store 2½ ounces of Pinex and make it into a pint of cough syrup, and watch that cough vanish.

Pour the 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. The total cost is about 54 cents, and gives you a full pint—a family supply—of a most effective remedy, at a saving of $2. A day's use will usually overcome a hard cough. Easily prepared in 5 minutes—full directions with Pinex. Keeps perfectly and has a pleasant taste. Children like it.

It's really remarkable how promptly and easily it loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals the inflamed membranes in a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough. A splendid remedy for bronchitis, winter coughs, bronchial asthma and whooping cough.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in guaiacol, which is so healing to the membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex," and do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction goes with this preparation or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

For Goodness Sake use KC BAKING POWDER

Purity First

It will never disappoint you—try it if you like good things to eat.

25 Ounces for 25¢ (More than a pound and a half for a quarter)

George A. Gray Co

THE STORE FOR SERVICE.
113-115-117-119 WEST SUPERIOR ST., DULUTH, MINN.

Special Prices on Dinner Sets
Open Stock or Complete Sets

These goods are sure to advance in price very soon. French and English wares have already advanced.

Friday and Saturday a Special Discount of 10% on all Dinner Wares

This is a good opportunity to buy as many pieces as you wish now and complete the set later.

Get this $1.55 Kettle for only 98c

Without Grease and Without Water

A Delicious Pot Roast from the

"Wear-Ever"

Aluminum

Windsor Kettle

(Note Adjustable Bail)

WEAR-EVER ALUMINUM TRADE MARK

Place the kettle empty over a low flame. In the heated kettle, sear the roast on all sides; then turn the fire down to a mere flicker. When half done turn the meat over. Thus cheaper cuts of meat may be made as palatable as more expensive cuts.

The "Wear-Ever" Windsor Kettle may be used for many purposes every day in the year.

Clip the Coupon—get your Kettle today for only 98c

The four-quart Windsor Kettle—which regularly sells for $1.55 is offered for a limited time at the special price so you can see for yourself, if you do not already know, the difference between "Wear-Ever" and flimsy aluminum ware.

You will get the kettle at the special price, on or before Jan. 25th.

Get the kettle and you will understand why so many women pray for "Wear-Ever" to other cooking utensils. Fill out the coupon—bring it to us this week. Mail orders filled for delivery within 500 miles in U. S. at $1.07. If sent to Canada price will be $1.46.

"Wear-Ever" Coupon

We will accept this coupon and [illegible] in payment for one "Wear-Ever" four-quart Windsor Kettle, which sells regularly at $1.55, provided you present this coupon in person at store on or before January 25th, and write on this coupon your name, address and date of purchase. Only one kettle to be sold to a customer.

Name.....

Address.....

City..... Date.....

George A. Gray Co

SALTER TEAM WINS THE GRADE SCHOOL HOCKEY CHAMPIONSHIP OF THE CITY IN EXCITING CONTEST

—Photo by Gallagher.

AN EXCITING MOMENT IN THE CHAMPIONSHIP CONTEST.

The Salter school yesterday won the grade school hockey championship of the city.

The leaders of the Senior Eastern league defeated the Lincolns, champions of the Senior Western league, by the score of 4 to 2 on Monday and 2 to 0 yesterday afternoon. The first game was played at Chester park and the second in Lincoln park. Both contests were hard fought and brought out several hundred school children from all sections of the city.

Yesterday afternoon the Merritts defeated the Lakeside septet in the first of the series to establish the junior championship of the city. The score was 3 to 2 in favor of the Junior Western team, and the second game will be played this afternoon at the Forty-seventh avenue east rink.

Robert Kerr, assistant to Recreational Director Batchelor, is in charge of the interleague contests.

DULUTHIAN IN FORD ROLE

Successful in Peace Mission to Business Men of Ashland.

Delegation From Duluth Will Go There Monday for Conference.

George D. McCarthy, assistant secretary of the Duluth Commercial club, is the local Henry Ford in matters of peace, but was more successful than the Detroit capitalist was in Europe, for he went to Ashland yesterday to soothe the angered feelings of the business men in a recent visit, and succeeded in placating them to the extent that they are at least willing to listen. The emissary of Detroit, who was going to get the soldiers out of the trenches before Christmas, could not even get a hearing. Hence the supremacy of Mr. McCarthy.

A delegation of Duluth business men will go to Ashland on Monday night to meet business men there and talk it over.

The Ashland estrangement, which for a time threatened to become a controversy, was caused through the efforts of Minneapolis, when a train load of the Mill City business men went to Ashland a few weeks ago and at a banquet there told the Ashland men, in effect, that if they would provide certain facilities at Ashland, Minneapolis would divert a large part of her lake shipping now going through Duluth, to Ashland, and a boat would be assured, which would make Ashland a port of call. According to the expressed plan the Minneapolis men mapped out, the Soo line would give Ashland and Minneapolis a direct line, and thus cut Duluth out.

Wold Misunderstanding.

Much was made of this matter, and it was said that Governor Wold of the Federal reserve bank, was with the party and boosting for Minneapolis. This turns out to have been erroneous, according to the information obtained in Ashland by Mr. McCarthy yesterday; and it is said that Governor Wold, in his address at the banquet on that occasion, expressly specified that he was there in the interest of no community and desired that his position should not be misunderstood. This, however, did not appear in the press reports, and the fact that it did not came near causing a lot of ill-feeling.

Duluth business men felt that if Governor Wold was with the Minneapolis party to boost Minneapolis or any other part of the state over any other part, he was going outside his rights and privileges, and they were about ready to start a vigorous protest. However, with Governor Wold's position made clear, a different feeling is aroused in Duluth business circles today.

The Ashland people, learning that such a protest on Governor Wold was likely, and not understanding the conditions under which Duluth men were feeling hostile toward the Federal Reserve bank head, grew somewhat angry with Duluth, and comment that was anything but complimentary was indulged in by Ashland papers.

McCarthy in Role of Dove.

It was to find out the facts and to straighten out matters that Mr. McCarthy went to Ashland. He spent yesterday there, and arranged for a meeting of the business men of Ashland with a delegation from Duluth for next Monday night.

"I am glad I went over there," said Mr. McCarthy, on his return today. "Ashland did not understand us, and we have not understood Ashland. I believe that when our situation is made clear and our people learn what Ashland asks, it will be a very easy matter to reach most friendly terms. Minneapolis told its side of the rate cases, in which Duluth was victorious, and carefully did not give Duluth the best of it, of course. When the Ashland business men hear our side of it, backed up by the proofs which won the cases before the interstate commerce commission, instead of by mere generalities and claims, I think they will have a different opinion.

"Ashland is asking things, most of which it seems to me are reasonable, and I think her business men will find that Duluth is disposed to aid rather than to retard her. These things will be threshed over on Monday night, and I feel sure that the result will be a much better feeling than before."

Concerning Mr. McCarthy's visit there yesterday, the Ashland Press said in its issue of last evening:

"G. D. McCarthy, assistant secretary of the Duluth Commercial club, is in Ashland today, arranging for a delegation of Duluth business men who will visit Ashland next Monday.

"Mr. McCarthy says he is here for the purpose of pouring oil on the troubled waters. The people of both Ashland and Duluth, he thinks are laboring under some misapprehensions in regard to the feelings of each city, with special reference to the recent visit here of a delegation of Minneapolis business men.

"The Duluth Commercial club feels that a meeting such as is contemplated, will give an opportunity to smooth out a number of matters which are now, more or less, misunderstood. Arrangements will be made by the Ashland Commercial club, whereby the Duluth men can meet the Ashland business men and they will be given ample opportunity to state their side of the case, which Mr. McCarthy says, is what they desire."

HERE'S YOUR CHANCE!

All Furs at Less Than Half Price

NEW ADDRESS

BECKMAN'S FUR FACTORY,

129 West Superior Street.

BUILDERS SHOULD KNOW BUILDING CODE

Madison, Wis., March 2.—"Builders who are making plans for the coming season will do well to get acquainted with the state building code if they have not already done so," said Chairman J. D. Beck of the Wisconsin industrial commission, which administers the law today.

The Wisconsin building code has been in force for more than a year and is pretty well known to architects and builders in the larger cities. In many of the smaller towns, however, costly mistakes have been made through ignorance of the code's requirements. In two recent cases the commission found that living rooms had been built without outside windows, as demanded by the code, and the owners were put to considerable extra expense which they might have avoided by consulting the law in the first instance.

Contractors are warned against accepting inferior materials and are requested to confer with the industrial commission to avoid difficulties in this line.

LIGHTS AND SHADOWS OF POLICE COURT

IS "SOME SLEUTH."

Woodsman Does Not Wait for Police to Find Watch Thief.

As an amateur detective, Alfred Seline, lumberjack, is hard to beat. Through his efforts police captured and convicted Martin Tromes, 33, a petit larceny suspect.

Once upon a time Tromes and Seline were good friends. They worked in the woods together, and came to Duluth together several days ago.

They were rooming in the Grace hotel, West Michigan street, and when Seline awoke Wednesday morning he discovered that Tromes had departed without as much as saying "Au revoir."

Hurt by his friend's neglect, Seline made a hurry-up trip to Superior and brought back the fugitive.

"This fellow went back on me and stole my watch," Seline told Patrolmen Olson and Gleason.

Lieut. N. U. G. Terry found the watch in a pawnshop and Tromes then confessed to the theft.

He was sentenced to sixty days at the work farm by Judge W. H. Smallwood today.

TWO YEARS' SAVINGS GONE.

Oscar Johnson Robbed of $100 Cash and $200 Deposit Slip.

Like the inebriated clubman in a comic "movie," who stumbles into the wrong apartment, Oscar Johnson, lumberjack, stumbled into the wrong hotel last night and woke up minus $100 in cash, three certificates of deposit for $200 and $100 in time checks.

Sobered by losses, but far from despondent, he found his way to a room in the Saratoga hotel, where he was staying with his partner, and walked in smiling broadly.

"Well," he said, "I've made a good night of it. I'm cleaned out to the last nickel. Look," he went on with a chuckle, as he turned his pockets inside out to verify his statement.

The roommate led him to police headquarters and detectives began a search for the missing property.

A patrolman, to whom Johnson applied for help, succeeded in finding the time checks, but the money and the certificates of deposit have disappeared completely.

"Well," said the optimistic victim as he was taken to a cell, so that he could take a much-needed nap, "I've had a good time, anyway."

The money and certificates represent the savings of two years, while the time checks are the result of Johnson's winter work in the woods. He came to Duluth Tuesday, with his partner, after working in one of the Cloquet Lumber company's camps, he said.

ONE THING AFTER ANOTHER.

McKusick Just Wanted to Visit Jail Not Live in It.

A few days ago Roy McKusick consented to a fifteen-day jail sentence, which, he agreed, would be good for him, and give him a chance to "straighten up."

Before he finishes the sentence two or three other complaints, charging forgery, petit larceny, or passing worthless checks, will be waiting for him.

Duluth police have one warrant, Superior police say they have material for three or four, and on top of it all the grand jury, now in session, may return an indictment against him.

On the day McKusick began his jail sentence, Chief of Police R. D. McKercher learned that a check for $11.72, bearing the name C. A. Baldwin and alleged to have been cashed by McKusick, was worthless. He believes that the paper is a forgery.

Coincident with this discovery, Superior police learned of McKusick's arrest and telephoned a request to hold him, as they believe him guilty of passing several worthless checks in that city.

So from present indications McKusick's fifteen-day reformatory sentence is due to be stretched considerably.

LODGERS SCARCE.

City Jail Has Few Guests—Plenty of Work, Says Chief.

A year ago at this time the lodgers' room at police headquarters was housing from 175 to 225 men every night, and now no more than a corporal's guard applies for a free bed.

"Business conditions," says Chief R. D. McKercher in explanation. "There's lots of work for 'em."

"The chief's new ruling is responsible," say the jailors.

A few weeks ago, when the vagrancy question grew serious, Chief McKercher issued an edict in which he said that any lodger or unemployed man who applied for a free night's lodging three times in succession was subject to arrest for vagrancy.

Policemen have adhered to this rule, and the result has been an almost complete shutting off of the steady influx of lodgers.

"Clean up" rules still are being enforced on West Michigan street and West Superior street, judging from police records today, which showed five arrests for vagancy. All five are said to be old offenders.

Dan McFadden, 62; Ralph Pullman, 33, a railroad man; Victor Maki, 29, and Louis E. Paulson, 42, was the grist. Maki pleaded not guilty and will be tried this afternoon. The rest were given work farm sentences.

DOOK AFTER SLAB STAR

White Sox Manager Endeavoring to Sign Cleveland Pitching Wonder.

Recruits Will Do Spring Training at Mason City.

It was definitely announced today that the candidates for the Duluth baseball team will do their preliminary training in Mason City, Iowa. A decision as to the place of training was reached during a conference between Manager Darby O'Brien and Magnate Harry Blume.

O'Brien announced today that he is seeking Tommy Atkins, the star amateur pitcher of the famous Cleveland Stinchcomb club. This youngster, earlier in his career, received a tryout by Connie Mack. Darby believes he will prove one of the greatest hurlers in the Northern, if he will consent to make a try for the White Sox.

Lausche, third baseman for the same crack amateur Cleveland ball club, is being sought by the Dook. This youngster is said to be a wonder. Down in Cleveland the amateur ball clubs play the fastest brand of simon pure baseball in the world. Atkins and Lausche were stars among a cluster of stars and the Orator is of the belief that both of these youngsters will scintillate with exceeding brightness in the Northern league.

Many Players Lined Up.

O'Brien has Webb of the Indianapolis American association team, a fielder who is said to be very fast and a clever hickory handler. The Dook is after a hard hitting outfielder and a change catcher.

Ten pitchers are on the roster of the club. As most of the heavers are players of experience, it is believed that the club will get off to a good start.

Last year the Dook was off to a bad start, mainly due to the fact that the cold northerly spring weather did not permit of any of his twirlers getting in shape. Darby expects the warmer weather of Iowa to thaw the soup bones of his slab men and set them right for the opening of the season.

Yesterday O'Brien severed his connection with the steel plant and from now on will devote all of his time to completing the baseball plans.

TWO VACANCIES IN OFFICE UNFILLED

St. Paul, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Two vacancies in the office of Attorney General Lyndon A. Smith still remain unfilled and the attorney general said today that he was uncertain as to when he would make the new appointments. So far he has been unable to find men suited for the two positions.

The principal difficulty seems to be in the reluctance of good attorneys to take the positions because the future status of the attorney general is unknown. Mr. Smith has not yet signified whether or not he again will make the race for attorney general. His term expires next January.

OPTIMISM IS RAMPANT IN BUSINESS REPORT

Minneapolis, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Optimism is rampant in the monthly crop and business report issued by John Rich, Federal agent of the Minneapolis reserve bank, today.

Throughout the district which comprises Montana, North and South Dakota, Minnesota, Minnesota, Northern Wisconsin and the Michigan peninsula, there is evidence of great activity in nearly all lines of trade.

Mining activities among other things, promise to be greater than ever.

DULUTH TWIN PORTS ELECTRIC LINES SUPERIOR

STREET CAR DELAYS

The Following Are the Causes of Interruptions in Street Car Service on Wednesday, March 1, 1916.

An East End car was disabled at Twelfth avenue east and Superior street, causing a delay of 12 minutes from 5:49 p. m.

A west bound East Ninth street car was delayed 9 minutes from 5:43 p. m. on account of the safety gates being out of order. No time could be made up on account of the delayed car getting its follower's passengers in addition to its own and it was late 10 minutes from 6:23 p. m. at Third avenue west and was still 10 minutes late from 6:30 on its next east bound trip at Third avenue west.

TUESDAY DELAYS

A Lakeside car was delayed 11 minutes from 10:18 at Sixtieth Avenue East on account of the safety gate mechanism being disabled by striking ice on the street. The crew changed cars and were twelve minutes late at Third Avenue West on their east bound trip.

A disabled Duluth and Superior car delayed all east bound cars at Eighth Avenue West from 4 to 30 minutes from 2:00 p. m.

Complaints and suggestions given prompt and courteous attention.

Telephones: Melrose 260; Lincoln 55.

DRAFT NEW FRANCHISE

Original Western Terminal Ordinance Is Dead, Says Mayor Prince.

Company Will Prepare New Measure Giving City Better Protection.

Officials of the Western Terminal Railway company are drafting a new franchise.

This announcement was made today by city commissioners, who said that representatives of the company have agreed to prepare a measure that will meet the requirements of the charter and the city commission. The original ordinance, granting the company a franchise to operate a belt line in Duluth, was tabled by the council after its first reading.

"We have made it plain to the terminal officers," said Mayor Prince, "that the city of Duluth must be protected in every instance, before the franchise will be granted. The first franchise was out of the question and is now dead, as far as we are concerned.

"The commissioners have agreed that a terminal line will be of great benefit to Duluth, but the franchise will not be granted until the city is safeguarded. The city attorney recently gave an opinion on the ordinance and his suggestions will all be embodied in the new measure, according to officials of the company."

Edward Liedel, one of the promoters of the company, and E. W. MacPherran, attorney, conferred with City Attorney Samuelson this morning on various questions relating to the proposed franchise.

The Western Terminal Railway company, a $10,000,000 corporation of Delaware, but backed by local men, wants a franchise to build a line from South First avenue east through the business and wholesale district to West Duluth, where it will go up the hill and then circle around the city to Lakewood, forming a complete belt line terminal. The company has agreed to purchase 1,000 acres of property within the city limits, for the purpose of selling it for factory sites.

SEEK BETTER RETURNS.

Thief River Falls Shippers' Organization Is Formed.

Thief River Falls, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Thief River Falls Shippers' association has been formed here by prominent farmers and stock raisers to systematize the shipment of livestock in such a way as to insure the farmers better returns. A sinking fund is created by taxing each shipper a nominal sum per hundredweight, out of which the expense of a manager is paid, also any losses which may result in shipments.

The organization was started with over twenty prominent stockmen and farmers signing the agreement. Rules and by-laws were adopted and a governing board of five directors named. Officers will be elected in the near future. The annual meeting date is set for the fourth Saturday in January of each year.

CAMERON FURNITURE CO.

Have Finally Decided NOT TO RENEW THE LEASE

held by Cameron-Johnson-Horgan Co. on building, 2110-2112 West Superior Street. Said lease expires April 30, therefore we must close out our entire stock quickly, regardless of factory cost. You'll find quality furniture for living room, dining room and bedroom awaiting you here.

PURCHASERS CAN SAVE 30%, 40% and 50%

Karpen Guaranteed Upholstered Furniture CHICAGO-NEW YORK

Large Spring shipments have just been unpacked, which means you get only the newest styles in Period and other good designs.

TERMS OF SALE:

Absolutely no credit beyond May 1st. It will pay you to borrow the money. Deliveries everywhere.

OPEN EVENINGS

If you cannot shop during regular hours

COME TONIGHT.

CAMERON FURNITURE COMPANY

2110-2112 WEST SUPERIOR STREET.

EMIL HASFORTH,
THE UPHOLSTERER,

is on the job any hour, day or evening and will gladly give you estimates on your repair work.

UPHOLSTERY FABRICS

selling at mill prices. Choice assortment of Tapestries to select from.

Either phone.

BRAINERD'S PROUD BOAST

Only City in Northwest That Is Not Seeing Aeroplanes.

Ely Gets Into Game; All Quiet on Local Front.

Brainerd, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Brainerd, now dry, in Indian treaty country, claims proud distinction of being the only place in the Northwest which is not seeing aeroplanes, flying machines, Zeppelins, turkeys wearing bonnets, snakes, bugs and other things.

Now it is Ely's turn.

After Duluth has talked about aeroplanes, anti-air craft guns and preparedness for several days, only to have it spoiled by a watchful watchman on the Duluth, Missabe & Northern ore dock, who captured a burning toy balloon, citizens of Ely make a contribution.

Clinton O. Rapsen, Ely resident and Herald reader, paints a word picture of an aeroplane and asks what it is, in a letter received today.

Here is the letter:

"On the night of Feb. 29 about 9:15 p. m. I was surprised to see what first seemed to be a red star appear about 5,000 feet from earth and at a distance of four or five miles from Ely.

"At first it was red, then it began to change—red, white and greenish blue. Then it seemed to drop about 400 feet and turn red. The flashing of the lights at first made me think of some telegraphic code, as they came in at different times. Suddenly it disappeared and re-appeared for a few seconds. It rose steadily and then disappeared for good.

"A friend of mine was with me at the time and saw it too."

Meanwhile the Duluth-Superior front is quiet. The air guns are silent and the exhaust of aeroplane motors no longer disturbs the slumbers of peace-at-any-price citizens.

Many Duluthians still insist that there is an aeroplane hovering mysteriously near.

ESTABROOK OR T. R. IS PREDICTION

Chicago Business Man Declares One or Other Will Be Nominated.

It will be Roosevelt or Estabrook when all is over at the Republican national convention in Chicago next June, in the opinion of A. B. Conover, treasurer-manager of the John A. Roebling's Sons company of Chicago, who is here today. Mr. Conover wishes it distinctly understood that he is not in politics, but is not opposed to the statement that he boosts Henry D. Estabrook of New York for the presidency anywhere he happens to be and the opportunity offers itself.

Mr. Conover is here on business with the Marshall-Wells Hardware company, agent for his company in this territory. The John A. Roebling's Sons company was founded by the great Roebling who built the suspension bridge between New York and Brooklyn, despite the sneers of those who believed him a dreamer; and this company has built every great suspension bridge since then. It furnished much of the material for Duluth's aerial bridge.

Mr. Conover, who is from Chicago, knows Mr. Estabrook intimately and says he has enjoyed an acquaintance of many years.

"No finer man lives," said he today. "Mr. Estabrook combines, as few men do, the qualities that would make him a great candidate for the Republican party and a great president after election. He is a splendid lawyer and business man, has a great grasp of affairs, is a pre-eminent orator, and believes in the principles which the great body of the people believe in. He is progressive enough for the Progressives and conservative enough so that the other element in the Republican party need not fear him. Wherever he is heard, instantly a large following for him is created and I expect the same thing to happen after next Tuesday night in Duluth for he will be here then.

"There is a great deal of talk of him as a compromise candidate, and I firmly believe that the Chicago convention will nominate either Estabrook or Roosevelt."

FIND CLOTHING IN CAR OF GRAIN

Fifty-Five Suits, Stolen in Duluth, Recovered at Philadelphia.

Fifty-five suits of clothes, said to have been stolen from a Duluth dealer and shipped east buried in a carload of grain, have been recovered by police of Philadelphia, Pa., according to reports from there today.

A meager report from the Pennsylvania city merely stated that police had found the goods hidden in the grain, and that they were being held there.

Chief R. D. McKercher was unable to identify the goods from the information received but at once wired Philadelphia authorities and asked for details of the affair, so that it could be checked up.

"It is very probable," he said, "that the goods were stolen from a consignment handled by a lake line, and shipped through this port in that way. It would be very hard to identify the theft until I learn the name of the 'Duluth dealer' mentioned in the dispatch."

"The goods might have been stolen from one of our merchandise docks," said E. J. Williams, special agent for the Northern Pacific railway, "but it would be hard to tell anything about this particular case until the goods are described more in detail."

NUXATED IRON

$100.00 FORFEIT

increases strength of delicate, nervous, run-down people 200 per cent in ten days in many instances. $100 forfeit if it fails as per full explanation in large article soon to appear in this paper. Ask your doctor or druggist about it. Boyce Drug store always carries it in stock.

NEARLY HALF OF ST. MARY'S FUND HAS BEEN RAISED; PATIENT IN HOSPITAL FOR EIGHT YEARS GIVES $100

ST. MARY'S HOSPITAL CAMPAIGN WORKERS. —Photo by Gallagher.

Michael Quigley, a cripple, who has been a patient at St. Mary's hospital for the last eight years, showed his appreciation of the good service of that institution today by contributing $100 toward the $50,000 fund being raised to meet indebtedness of the hospital. The Duluth Brewers' association led in the contributions today, giving $500 toward the cause.

The campaign workers reported contributions amounting to $3,173.50 for today and a grand total of $23,193.97. This leaves more than half of the $50,000 yet to raise with only three more days to work.

Mrs. John Murphy's team led the women again today with $190.10 and Rev. Father Boland led the men's teams with $610. The following gave contributions of $100 or more:

Globe Elevator company	$100
Duluth Brewers' association	500
B. F. Forrestal	100
Michael Quigley	100
Capt. R. A. Torrey	100
Julius H. Barnes	100

PERSONALS

M. H. Kelley is in Mobile, Ala., on a business trip.

A. M. Chisholm is in Indianapolis.

E. A. Silberstein of Silberstein & Bondy returned yesterday from New York and points in the East, where he spent a month on his annual spring buying trip for the company. L. Traubman left last evening on a similar trip and will be gone two weeks.

Edward Crane, formerly a well-known business man of Duluth, but now residing in Chicago, is at the Spalding.

Hector Baxter, a prominent railroad attorney of Minneapolis, is registered at the Spalding today.

Oakley B. Smith, well known in Winnipeg business circles, is a guest of the Spalding for the day.

George Welling, a contractor of Sioux Falls, S. D., is at the Holland.

John Healy of Hibbing is stopping at the St. Louis.

CITY BRIEFS

Loose Leaf and Filing Supplies.
M. I. Stewart company. Phonea 114.

Address By Blind Optimist.

In addition to the address which will be delivered by Prof. J. C. Gleason, the blind optimist, at the Foresters' hall, corner First street and Fourth avenue west, on Tuesday, March 7, at 8 p. m., a musical program has been arranged, consisting of a violin duet, a vocal solo and a reading number, under the direction of the Flaaten Conservatory of Music.

Is Found to Be Sane.

Judge S. W. Gilpin of the probate court yesterday afternoon dismissed the charge of insanity which had been brought against Emma Starr, familiar police character, by the authorities. The examination was requested by the county jail authorities.

"The Man Without a Hyphen."

Dr. Maurice Lefkovits will preach on "The Man Without a Hyphen" at the regular services at Temple Emanuel, Seventh avenue east and Second street, tomorrow evening. The services will begin at 8 o'clock and are open to the public.

Rummage Sale for Charity.

The Sisters of Israel society is conducting its annual spring rummage sale this week at 16 East Superior street. The proceeds of the sale will go into the organization's charity fund.

Grand Jury in Session.

The grand jury for the March term of the district court, which convened yesterday, will probably make a report to Judge Cant either late this afternoon or tomorrow morning. It is expected that the investigating body will not conclude its work before the first of next week. About twenty cases are to be presented by the county attorney's office.

J. A. Keyes Improving.

J. A. Keyes, attorney, who has been ill at his home, 2029 East Third street, for several weeks, was reported to be improving today. Mr. Keyes was taken with an attack of grip, which later developed into inflammatory rheumatism.

Sub-Committee Will Meet.

Sub-committee No. 1 of the general building code committee will meet at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon in the organization's headquarters, 314 Palladio building. Whitney Wall, chairman of the committee, said that the members will organize and outline their work at today's session.

ONE MORE CHANCE TO CHOOSE MATERIAL

West First Street Owners Will Be Asked for Final Decision.

West First street property owners will be given one more opportunity to select the material for the proposed pavement.

This plan was decided upon by city commissioners at a conference yesterday afternoon, and the works division will mail a post-card to each owner along the street, with a request that he choose between brick or creosote blocks. The result of this vote will be final and the material favored by the majority of the owners will be selected by the city commissioners.

The original petition for the improvement called for a brick pavement, while two weeks ago the owners met and selected creosote blocks. Last week another petition was filed, this time for brick. The street will be paved from Twentieth to Thirtieth avenue west, to a width of thirty-eight feet.

AKELEYITE LOSES LIFE IN BEMIDJI

Raymond Todd Caught in Shaft of Bemidji Box Company Plant.

Bemidji, Minn., March 2.—(Special to he Herald.)—Raymond Todd, 23 years old, of Akeley, was caught in a shaft in the sawmill of the Bemidji Box company here and killed today. No one saw the accident and his body was found by fellow employes. Two brothers, Ray and Beryl, took charge of the body and his parents at Akeley were notified.

WISCONSIN REGENTS TO MERGE TWO FUNDS

Madison, Wis., March 2.—Because the fund donated by the late Frank Allis of Milwaukee for the support of needy short-course agricultural students has not been in constant use in recent years, the board of regents today decided to merge it with another fund given by a Chicago man, the fund to be known as the "Geneva loan fund." This fund will be open to all agricultural students, including students taking courses in home economics.

The board of regents also fixed the schedule to be charged for inspecting fields of potatoes in the state under the certified plan. For two inspections of plots of from one to four acres, the charge is $6; from five to eight acres, $9, and all over nine acres, $1 an acre. On this plan the certification work will be self-sustaining. The reports show that there are 67,000 bushels of certified seed potatoes in the state today. This is more than any other state had.

SUPERIOR

Will Be Buried Together.

The Soo passenger train yesterday afternoon carried in the express car the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Earl to be taken to Medford for burial. Mrs. Earl died on Feb. 8 following the birth of a child, and the father met death in an accident at Aurora, Minn., last Friday. The caskets containing the bodies were taken to the cemetery yesterday and will be buried side by side. Two children, the oldest but 13 months, survive, and they will be taken care of by relatives.

Made Aide-de-Camp.

A. N. Lent, secretary of the Superior board of trade, yesterday received an appointment to become an aide-de-camp to W. J. McKay, department commander of the Wisconsin Grand Army. He recently received an appointment as aide-de-camp to the national commander of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Four-Cornered Race.

Fred C. Tomlinson, commissioner of public works in Superior, will have at least three men in the field against him in the race for re-election this spring. Fred O. Anderson, formally announced that he would be a candidate last night, and John P. Jensen and John Schaler have also announced their intention of getting into the field.

TO WORK IN PRISON CAMPS OF SIBERIA

Middletown, Conn., March 2.—Robert F. Leonard, St. Paul, Minn., a senior at Wesleyan university, will sail Saturday for Europe to work throughout the remainder of the war in the prison camps of Siberia under direction of the international committee of the Young Men's Christian association. Leonard volunteered for the service.

Refuses to Answer.

New York, March 2. — Raymond A. Sarfaty, assistant United States district attorney, a witness today before the congressional committee investigating impeachment charges brought against United States district Attorney Marshall by Congressman Frank Buchanan of Illinois refused to answer questions concerning proceedings before the grand jury which indicted Congressman Buchanan.

Sioux City Strike Settled.

Sioux City, Iowa, March 2.—The packing house strike here was settled today on a basis of 21 cents an hour for laborers.

Forged Wife's Name.

Green Bay, Wis., March 2.—John Shepeck, a former leader in Democratic politics in Brown county, and oldest insurance agent in Gren Bay, pleaded guilty to a charge of forging his wife's name to a mortgage for $1,200 against her property, in municipal court today. He was sentenced to three years in state's prison.

LOSE GRAIN AND FLOUR RATE CASE

Roads Turned Down on Export Suit; Commission Divided.

Washington, March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The interstate commerce commission announced today that the export grain rate cases have been decided adversely to the railroads that proposed to increase the rates to the seaboard last December. The commission stated that its members were divided in their opinion upon the question determined, a fact which may be fairly regarded as pointing to the expediency of a reconsideration of the question upon the evidence gathered.

The case involves grain and flour rates from all Western points to the Atlantic seaboard and the proposed advance has been opposed by the grain exchanges and shippers in all important centers, including Minneapolis and Duluth.

G. Roy Hall, traffic commissioner of the Duluth Commercial club, said, concerning the dispatch from Washington, that the fight did not affect Duluth as much as it did other Western points for the reason that shippers through or from here have the lake transportation, which gives much lower rates. The rates involved were those cast of Buffalo and also the all-rail rates from Western points. So far as this point was interested, it was only in the at-and-east of Buffalo rates.

The exporters had tried to get lower rates on the plea that their competition with other countries should be fostered, but the roads tried to equalize export and domestic rates.

CONDITIONS GOOD ALL OVER COUNTRY

Demand for Goods Exceeds Supply; Money Easy, But Growing Firmer.

Business and financial conditions throughout the country are regarded by bankers as satisfactory in every respect. The movement of all kinds of merchandise is reported to be heavy with the demand exceeding the ability of manufacturers to supply it in the quantities desired. The financial situation continues easy, but the demand for funds is reported heavier and rates are showing indications of becoming firmer.

Commenting upon the general business and financial situation, the National Bank of the Republic, Chicago, says in its March review:

"One of the principal developments of the present situation is the almost uniform increase in prices of commodities.

"As a general rule the securing of the goods seems to be a more important consideration than the price. Although there is some complaint on the part of manufacturers that increased material costs are narrowing the margin of profit, it is evident that the point of saturation has not yet been reached.

"Resumption of dividends and initial declarations are steadily becoming more numerous and the coming months are expected to witness an unprecedented number of dividend disbursements by industrial and mining companies. The restoration of dividends in the case of many securities is acting as a check to foreign liquidation, which, although attracting no great attention, is being steadily carried on. While many of these securities are being returned to us as the basis for loans, and thus take the place of gold, of which we already have a too ample supply, a not inconsiderable portion of them is sold outright, thereby gradually restoring to us the sole and undisputed possession of our own industries and the enjoyment of their profits."

Beautiful New Spring Dresses

We Solicit Your Account

You will find our charge account the most convenient of modern store service, and the courtesy always extended you by our employes will more than please you.

Pay as you are paid. It is the modern method.

Your Credit Is Good

Combinations of Taffeta and Georgette Crepe, Taffeta and Serge, Serges and Silks in the prevailing styles and colors.

You will be pleasantly surprised to see how beautiful and distinctly uncommon they are.

Our prices—

$12.75 $14.75 and up.

Chic and Attractive Spring Hats on Display.

GATELY'S

DULUTH—SUPERIOR—VIRGINIA—HIBBING

Perfect Fitting. No Charge for Alteration.

1916 MARCH 1916

SUN.	MON.	TUE.	WED.	THU.	FRI.	SAT.
			1	2	3	4
5	6	7	8	9	10	11
12	13	14	15	16	17	18
19	20	21	22	23	24	25
26	27	28	29	30	31

Mark Your Calendar First Ten Days March

All Accounts Opened, and All Deposits Made

First Ten Days of March Draw Interest From March 1st

NORTHERN NATIONAL BANK,

ALWORTH BUILDING

No Stairs to Climb. Ground Floor Entrance.

STUDY YOUR INDIVIDUALITIES

By DR. SAMUEL G. DIXON.
Commissioner of Health for Pennsylvania.

Engineers will tell you that no two locomotives are ever exactly alike. They may be turned out to an exactness that defies the most modern instrument for measurement or weight to show any differences. Put into service, each machine will develop individual characteristics, one often being superior for its purpose. This same unknown quantity is experienced in sea-going vessels. The trial trip is the only test of their efficiency.

The medical man never finds two human beings with the same dispositions, mental or physical strength, yet we are created after the same model, but owing to dissimilar nerve forces or the life of our tissues, each individual has certain differences and some have real idiosyncrasies.

There are broad rules of nature relating to our physical welfare which we cannot transgress without evil results. Likewise there are certain things which the majority of us can do without putting any unusual strain on our physique, but here begins the question of the adjustment of the individual piece of machinery. We must study our physical limitations and find out just what scope we have. Because one man can live or almost exist on an exclusive meat diet, it is no reason why the next fellow can. Men and women often ruin their health by trying to do things simply because others do them. Each should get his own measure.

The question of age must enter into consideration. It is well to bear in mind that exertion which does not seem a strain at one period in life may be dangerous in later years.

These same principles apply in matters of diet. There are foodstuffs wholesome enough to the average individual, which seem to have a deleterious effect on the few.

We must measure our individual characteristics and avoid those things that do not agree with us.

All of these things should be observed and taken into consideration. They are the results of weaknesses or peculiarities in our living machinery and to reach and maintain efficiency, they must be recognized and respected.

FEW CLAIMED THE BACON.

Kansas City Star: Dunmow, a town of Essex, England, is famous for an offer made by Robert Fitzwalter in 1244, "that whatever married couple will go to the priory, and, kneeling on two sharp-pointed stones, will swear that they have not quarreled nor repented of their marriage within a year and a day after its celebration, shall receive a flitch of bacon."

It was more than 200 years before any one took home the bacon, and up to 1855 it is said to have been claimed only five times. Mr. and Mrs. John Shakeshanks on June 20, 1751, took advantage of the 5,000 persons who gathered to see the ceremony by selling them slices of the bacon.

In 1885 two couples got one-half a hog and the Lord of the Manor decided it was getting too expensive a practice.

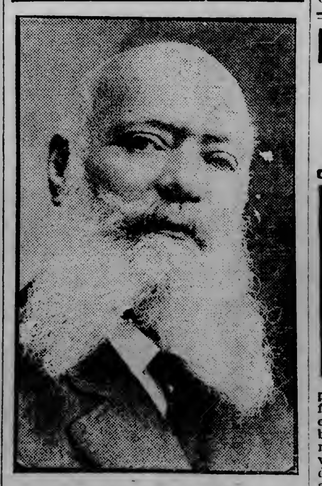
When another couple in 1860 let it be known they would strive for the bacon he objected strenuously; but W. Harrison Ainsworth, the novelist, and some friends, defrayed the expenses and superintended the ceremonies. The prize was awarded in 1860, 1876 and 1877. Since then no couple has been bold enough to try for it. And there is a certain man in one neighborhood who thinks those who won the bacon cheated.

BOYS' CABINET OF THE Y. M. C. A. PREPARES FOR MANY ACTIVITIES DURING THE COMING SEASON

CABINET OF BOYS' DEPARTMENT, Y. M. C. A.

Top Row, Left to Right—Stanley Lamb, Irving Auld, John Hearding, Ralph Wyly, George Nelson, Robert Currie, Charles Le Richeaux, Victor Eva, Percy Bevis, Oliver Maggard, Norman D. McLeod. Bottom Row—Stewart Thompson, Raymond Brenton, John Ahlen, Hubert Raiskey, Russell Duncan, Willard Thorp, Norman Tufty, Erling Sodahl, Charles Diers

RECEIVES GOLDEN CROSS OF THE GREEK LEGION OF HONOR



SOLON S. I. VLASTO.

The king of Greece has conferred on Solon Stylien I. Vlasto of New York the golden cross of the Officer of the Savior, Greek Legion of Honor. This was in recognition of his work as editor of "Atlantis" in raising a million dollars here for Greek relief.

Home Celebration of Wonder Interest

The arrival of a baby in the household completely changes the entire aspect of the future. But in the meantime, during the anxious period of expectancy, there is a splendid remedy known as "Mother's Friend" that does wonders. It is for external use, relieves the pains of muscle expansion, soothes and quiets the nerves, extends its influence to the internal organs and removes to a great extent the tendency to worry and apprehension. It is a natural treatment, safe for the mother, has no drug effect whatsoever and for this reason must exert a most beneficial influence upon those functions directly connected with motherhood. In a very interesting book the subject is freely discussed and a copy will be mailed free to all expectant mothers by Bradfield Regulator Co., 406 Lamar Bdg., Atlanta, Ga. Get a bottle of "Mother's Friend" today of any druggist. Use as directed and you will then know why mothers for nearly half a century have used and recommended this splendid aid to motherhood. Their letters are messages of cheer, that breathe comfort in every word.

Curling Hockey

News and Views of the Sport World

BILLIARDS ~ WRESTLING ~ BOWLING

Basketball Boxing

PARAGRAPHIC COMMENT OF THE WORLD OF SPORTS

BY BRUCE.

Famous Prophets.

Hank O'Day, who prophesied that the Cincinnati baseball team would win the National league pennant.

* * *

Back to the Farm.

The man who bought the Cleveland baseball team was born and raised on a farm. Possibly this accounts for his actions.

* * *

Well, Bat, That's Pretty Bad.

Members of the Wisconsin boxing commission will not permit Bat Nelson to fight Ad Wolgast on the grounds that Nelson is too far gone to meet a man of Wolgast's caliber. This has led some of the Battler's friends to send flowers and scan the papers for the funeral notice.

* * *

Hope Rules Eternal.

A race horse running at Juarez is named Meal Ticket. It is believed the owner is an incurable optimist.

* * *

Langford Out of Form.

Sam Langford administered a severe licking to Cleve Hawkins. Sam is not fighting in his last year's form.

* * *

More Work for Bill Sunday.

Members of the Chicago Printers' baseball league are to play on Sundays. The devils.

* * *

An Age of Giving.

New York, March 2.—"You ask why we have demanded so great an amount of money for Willard's end to fight Moran," said Tom Jones here yesterday. "Listen, a tale I will tell. We are going to give it all to the Belgian fund. We are in the game for the love of it. Willard is a big easy going chap, who cares not for money, and the same goes for Jack Curley and myself. However, we hope the house is a large one."

* * *

Unchristian Science.

There is reason to believe Ralph Bradley is a Christian Scientist. In the case of those cigars he's giving The Herald an absent treatment.

* * *

His Conscience Hurts Him.

It is said that Freddy Welsh desires to retire from the ring, but his manager lures him on. This goes to prove that Freddy wants to do the right thing.

* * *

Dollars and Scents.

A Carlton county farmer received $68 for a load of onions.

* * *

He Would Prove a Headliner.

Harry Sinclair swears he got out of baseball without losing a cent. He has been offered a lucrative vaudeville engagement.

* * *

Definition and Example.

Superfluous, as Webster sees it—"In excess of what is wanted or is needed * * *" Example: The Cleveland baseball team.

* * *

It Looks as if He's Correct.

Jim Gilmore declares there will be a greater amount of interest in baseball this season. Financial students of the game will agree with him, no doubt.

* * *

It's a Regular Habit.

The St. Louis National league team is generally one of the first to go South each spring. Also, it might be remarked, that the St. Louis team is one of the first to go South in the pennant race.

* * *

He Should Go Great.

Johnny Walker is the name of an Indianapolis indoor baseball player. Johnny Walker is a great favorite in the local indoor league.

* * *

The Analogy Unmistakable.

Chicago politics and Duluth amateur hockey are kindred souls. Two Windy City aldermen received cracked beans in the recent primary election.

* * *

Times Are Changing.

Truly there is a reform wave sweeping over the country. South Dakota and Michigan threaten to go dry, and Ad Wolgast is really training.

* * *

Maybe Conditions are Different.

Roger Bresnahan has been offered $15,000 to surrender his contract. Here's where the legal profession can leer at mob violence.

* * *

The Ideal Place for Him.

A one-legged baseball player has made a hit on a Southern college team. He should sign with the Cincinnati bunch. The fans never expect any of the Cincy players to get to first base.

* * *

It Is Fortunate He Has.

Frank Hinkey has offered to come out and assist in coaching the Yale football team next season. It is believed that Frank possesses a rare sense of humor.

* * *

His Place, Undoubtedly.

Mike Sweeney is to assist in Yale's football coaching next year. He should do well with the green material.

* * *

It Must Be a Mistake.

Jim Gilmore declares that he met the late Robert B. Ward quite by chance. The followers of baseball have always believed that it was by connivance.

FANS MAY GET THE CHANCE TO COMPARE COBB AND KAUFF IN SERIES AT DALLAS

Detroit, Mich., March 2.—Official announcement recently that the Detroit American league baseball club will meet the New York Nationals in exhibition games, at Dallas, Texas, March 25 and 26, is causing much interest among local fans. A diamond duel between two famous ball players—one whom fandom generally has crowned king and the other who was the champion batsman of the Federal league—will probably take place when the Tigers and Giants clash.

Ty Cobb, Detroit's centerfielder, who has grown to regard the premier batting honors of the American league as personal property, will have his first opportunity to match his skill and wits with those of Benny Kauff. The latter's great record at bat and in the outfield for Brooklyn, caused numerous baseball writers to refer to him as the "Cobb of the Federal league."

When the independent organization went out of existence, Kauff was purchased by the New York Nationals. Although he has had differences over salary with Manager McGraw, it is generally believed that Kauff will be in the New York lineup, not only during the training season, but as a regular during the 1916 campaign. Manager Jennings of the Tigers granted Cobb permission to report at the Waxahachie, Tex., training camp this spring whenever he felt like it. It seems certain that Cobb will not do much spring training as he has said that such conditioning weakens him during the crucial autumn games but some of Cobb's closest friends, who live in Detroit, assert that he will be in that Dallas series, if he has to walk from Georgia.

Kauff has never played in Detroit but numerous stories have come to the Tiger camp concerning his ability. Former Detroit stars, who were with Federal league clubs last season, have generally declared that Kauff is one of the greatest batters they have ever seen. They have not been inclined to class Kauff with Cobb as a base runner; they have said that Cobb "probably" is a bit more dangerous at bat, because of his versatility, but they all, seemingly, have been ready to take issue with any declaration that Kauff is not the greatest natural batsman in the game.

Some of Cobb's Feats.

Local writers and followers of the Detroit club, who have regularly watched Cobb in action, have pointed out that his greatest feats have been achieved against clubs or individual players of championship caliber. A few of these, which have helped make baseball history, follow:

Scoring from first base on a single at the expense of Hal Chase, playing first base for New York. Chase thought Cobb would attempt his usual trick of turning third and then returning to third base. Chase, after putting out the runner coming to first, threw to third. Cobb out-guessed him and sprinted home.

In a close game against Boston, Cobb took a long lead off third base. Cobb deliberately stood on the baseline until the catcher started his throw. Then he turned and sprinted for third base but, being "accidentally" hit by the ball, scored—and the catcher was charged with an error.

Walter Johnson is quite generally referred to as the most effective pitcher in the American league, when the game depends upon a single play. An American league umpire delights in telling a story of a close game, when Cobb faced Johnson in one of the last innings. Detroit had the bases filled; two men were out. Cobb, it is claimed, walked toward Johnson, and said:

"Well, Walter, here's the chance both of us have been looking for. Now we can decide who has the most nerve."

Johnson pitched. The lithe body of the Georgian hurled itself forward. The ball flashed to the outfield. Three men scored.

Cobb pulled up at third and noticing that Johnson seemed rather downcast, used his hands as a megaphone, and, according to the umpire, said:

"Never mind, Walter, old boy. You pitched that ball so fast I never saw it. I just shut my eyes and slammed."

The new welt edge

15c Each — Ide — 2 for 25c

COLLAR

GEO. P. IDE & CO., Makers, TROY, N. Y.

FANS WILL HONOR OLD-TIME STARS

Special Days Will Mark Opening of Baseball Season in Chicago.

Chicago, March 2.—Several days in honor of baseball favorites are to be a feature of the new Chicago National league club at the North side grounds, according to an announcement made today.

Preparations already are under way for a reception at the American league park to Fielder Jones, old-time White Sox player, when he comes to town with his St. Louis Browns.

Following "Fielder Jones" day will come Joe Tinker, Mordecai Brown, Billy Sullivan and others who played in Chicago with either the old National or the American team, and who still are popular with the baseball enthusiasts.

Sign Up With Saints.

St. Paul, Minn., March 2.—Manager Mike Kelly of the St. Paul Americans last night gave out the following list of players already signed for 1916, most of their contracts being just received: Pitchers Benton and Grouch, Catchers Marshall and Berger, Infielders Berghammer and Smith, and Outfielders Gilmore, Booe, Riggert, Paddock and Niles.

Waivers on Joe Wood and Others.

Boston, Mass., March 2.—The Boston American league club announces that all American and National league clubs had waived claim to Forest Cady and Chester Thomas, catchers, and to Ray Collins and Joe Wood, pitchers.

Kaiserling to Tigers.

Steubenville, Ohio, March 2.—Pitcher George Kaiserling was notified at his home here yesterday that he has been sold by the Newark Federals to the Detroit Americans.

TROPHY EVENTS AT THE DULUTH CURLING CLUB

Manley Event.

Third Round.	Semi-Finals.
Coson McMillan	Coson
Brewer Cleveland	———
Macgregor Dinham	Dinham
Hall MacGregor	Hall

Pinzon Event.

Second Round.	Third Round.
G. E. Warren William Dinham	———
D. McLennan Walter Hall	McLennan
C. F. Naughton F. G. German	Naughton
S. L. Reichert A. C. Hoene	———
Sam Cleveland Charles Brewer	Brewer
H. E. Ditzel D. C. Duncan	———
George Milligan E. D. Field	Milligan
H. S. Macgregor O. E. Martin	Macgregor

Herald Event.

Semi-Finals.	Finals.
Duncan Cleveland	Cleveland
Dinham Harris	———

Universal Event.

Semi-Finals.	Finals.
Cleveland Naughton	Cleveland
Stillman Dunlop	Stillman

Macgregor

Cleveland

CLEVELAND WINS FINALS

Stillman Defeated in Universal; Blaze Creating Interest.

Sam Cleveland's rink won the Universal trophy last night by defeating G. P. Stillman in the finals, 15 to 4. Cleveland's rink got away to a good lead in the early heads and held the game safe all the way.

Almost every sheet of ice was used last evening. One of the largest curling draws of the year was on. From now until the final game is played in the last remaining event, games will be rushed through by the games committee.

A large number of games remain in the Blaze. The play down in this event is creating a lot of interest. All of the strongest rinks of the club are entered and the play to date has proved exceedingly interesting.

Enthusiasm in curling is right now at its greatest height. Some great contests are promised in the semi-finals and finals of several events.

Following is the result of the play of last evening and the draw for tonight:

Last Night's Results.

UNIVERSAL FINALS.

Ed Harris, lead; R. McDougal, 2; Ralph Bradley, 3; Sam Cleveland, skip—15.

G. German, lead; R. Ritchie, 2; Bert Gravatt, 3; G. P. Stillman, skip—4.

BLAZE OF GLORY EVENT.

F. W. Hargreaves, 18; W. W. McKay, 11.

T. Newcomb, 13; J. D. McGhie, 7.

"Buster" Sahlsberg, 13; H. S. Macgregor, 10.

O. Mather, 13; W. B. Dunlop, 12.

F. H. Fitzgerald, 16; F. Craswheller, 12.

W. G. Hall, 10; Ed Dietz, 9.

L. Coson, 13; H. Matzke, 5.

R. Bishoff, 11; W. Dinham, 6.

Draw for Tonight.

MANLEY EVENT.

Will Dinham vs. W. D. Hall.

C. Brewer vs. Sam Crawford.

BOARD OF TRADE EVENT.

F. Hoene vs. Guy E. Warren.

David Steckling vs. Stephen H. Jones.

S. L. Reichert vs. T. F. Naufts.

E. D. Field vs. J. Bierhalter.

BLAZE OF GLORY EVENT.

T. F. McGilvray vs. D. Cameron.

P. T. McDonald vs. A. J. Butchart.

M. H. Frees vs. C. Naughton.

W. E. McLellan vs. Vic Sahlsberg.

C. Parsons vs. F. G. German.

CHAPMAN AND BACHAND WILL PLAY BILLIARDS

C. Chapman will meet E. C. Bachand tonight in the Hatley Amateur billiard tournament. The tourney was to have been started last evening, but owing to the inability of the two players drawn to be present, was held over until this evening. As Chapman and Bachand are believed to be evenly match, the contest is expected to prove very close and interesting.

Five Players Set Adrift.

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 2.—Five former members of the Pittsburgh Federal league club have been released and told to find berths for the coming season, according to an announcement by Business Manager William T. McCullough. The players are Pitchers Cy Baerger, Ralph Comstock and Bunny Hearne, Catcher Patrick O'Connor and Infielder James Savage.

HAL CHASE OUT OF MAJOR BASEBALL

HAL CHASE.

One of the most brilliant baseball players in the game, Hal Chase at an age when he is still great, finds no demand for his services. It is said that Chase has been relegated to the sidelines by concerted action upon the part of major league club owners. There are many big league teams that would be strengthened by the presence of the peerless Hal, but Chase is known as a trouble maker and it looks as if he will be passed up.

SUPERIOR IS COMING IN

Expects to Raise the Northern League Guarantee at Once.

Time Limit Expires By Evening; Grand Forks Wants Franchise.

An all-day baseball conference was held in Superior yesterday. Charles Moll came to the Head of the Lakes early and went over the situation with the Superior "business men." Harry Blume journeyed over from this side of the bay and joined in with the efforts to line up the Superiorites who are expected to klick in with some dough.

Mayor Konkel and Charles Armstead will make a canvass of the town today. Blume declared upon his return to Duluth last night that the business interests across the bay had been given until this evening to raise the league guarantee. From Superior today comes the statement that the business interests have definitely decided to back the team and little doubt remains as to Superior being in the league.

Community of Interest.

If Superior does come into the league it is stated that several of the Northern league teams will seek to assist in the marshaling of a real baseball team across the way, by turning over players. Charles Moll will give up some of the players that kept the St. Boniface club in the race last season, while one or two players may be procured from Fort William.

Should there be a lofty tumble in the efforts to raise money across the bay, Grand Forks is ready to come into the league. There is no secret of the fact that the league officials prefer Superior to the Flickertail state ball town. Superior's presence in the league assists Duluth and at the same time saves in the way of railroad fares. For that reason, perhaps, the league officials have gone further with the procrastinating business men across the bay than the case warranted.

To Complete Schedule.

If the Superior case is completed today, the schedule will be completed and officially passed upon. There may be another magnate meeting called before action is taken.

Rumors that Fargo was suffering from financial ailment are not taken seriously here. Local authority has it that Fargo will be in the league and will be represented by a very strong baseball club.

Speculation as to who will pilot the Superior club, should that city come into the league, is rife. Fred Curtis, who has served his martyrdom by running a poolroom in Superior; George Brautigan, who is recommended by Moll; Jimmy Williams, who was a mere lad when the first gun was fired at Sumter, and young and sprightly "Lefty" Davis are some of the eligibles.

All Have Boosters.

Curtis has a local following, while Brautigan has the recommendation of Moll. The Cantillons would like to see Jimmy Williams placed, while "Lefty" Davis has a splendid Northern league managerial record to boost his stock.

It is expected that the last necessary dollar will be subscribed today and absolute assurance given that Superior will be in the Northern league during the 1916 season. The settlement of the protracted Superior case will remove a load from the shoulders of President Burmeister. A league of financial leeway has been granted the Superior business men in all the negotiations, and if they do come in, they will be taking advantage of a very generous offer upon the part of Burmeister and the Northern league club owners.

Notre Dame Loses Runner.

South Bend, Ind., March 2.—Notre Dame's hope for victory in the dual track meet with the University of Wisconsin were lowered today by the announcement that Welsh, quarter miler, will not be able to participate. Welsh is in the hospital with tonsilitis.

GREEN MEN SHOW WELL

Interclass Indoor Meet at Central High School Encouraging.

Seniors Win After Being Distanced Early By Sophomores.

By amassing a total of 50 5-6 points the senior athletes of Central high school yesterday captured the annual interclass indoor track meet, the affair proving one of the most exciting ever held at the local institution. The other three classes scored as follows: juniors, 24 1-3; sophomores, 23 1-3; freshmen, 9½.

The meet was especially exciting during the early part. The classes were all sharing in the scoring and it looked as if any one might win. The sophomores got an early lead by placing in the 20-yard dash and winning first and second in the mile. The seniors, however, soon found their stride and after the meet had been in progress for some time the winner was not in doubt. The "D" men—that is, athletes who have won their letters on the school track team—were barred from participation and this gave the green men a better chance as well as making the meet closer and more exciting. One of the features of the affair was the excellent showing of the freshmen athletes. Heretofore it has been customary for the lower classmen to get but one or two point, but the "freshies" yesterday, under the leadership of young Karon, were able to give the older athletes a good run in many of the events.

"Soph" Captain Is Star.

Hendrickson, the sophomore captain and star, was the individual point winner of the meet, collecting a total of 14 points. He was closely pushed by Burns of the senior class, who got 13 1-3 points.

Considering the fact that practically all of the men were beginners, the meet was very successful and the time and distances made in some of the events are especially commendable. The indoor meet is expected to develop some good athletes for the outdoor work which comes in the spring. Central should be able to develop a great school track team this year and a big representation is hoped for at the state meet. Coach Blake appeared especially pleased over the showing of the green men yesterday, and with the aid of School Captain Skull Hrutfiord, the state champion dash man, he will start to develop some of the more promising men for their several events. It is quite probable that a dual indoor track meet will be arranged in the near future between Central and some other school or institution at the Head of the Lakes.

The events held yesterday, the winners and the time or distances made by each are as follows:

Half Mile.

Arnold, junior, first; Lindsay, senior, second; Buchman, freshman, third. Time, 5 minutes, 26 seconds.

Quarter Mile.

Burns, senior, first; Jones, senior, second; Boyer, sophomore, third. Time, 1 minute, 28 seconds.

20-Yard Dash.

Thomas, senior, first; Hendrickson, sophomore, second; Berkleman, junior, third. Time, 3 seconds.

High Hurdles.

Hendrickson, sophomore, first; Jones, senior, second; Berkleman, junior, third. Time, 3 4-5 seconds.

Running High Hurdles.

Olander, senior, first; Burns, senior, Haug, junior; Hein, freshman, second. Distance, 4 feet, 8 inches.

Pole Vault.

Olander, senior, first; Haug, junior, second; Clow, Benda, freshmen, third. Distance, 7 feet.

Running Broad Jump.

Hein, freshman, first; Burns, senior, second; Haug, junior, third. Distance, 15 feet, 10 inches.

Shot Put.

Denfeld, senior, first; Olander, senior, second; Hendrickson, sophomore, third. Distance, 32 feet.

220-Yard Dash.

Lindsay, senior, first; Schneider, junior, second; Thomas, senior; Boyer, sophomore, third. Time, 39.3 seconds.

Standing Broad Jump.

Schneider, junior, first; Jones, senior, second; Cohen, freshman, third. Distance, 8 feet, 5½ inches.

Low Hurdles.

Hendrickson, sophomore, first; Berkleman, junior, second; Jones, senior, third. Time, 3.2 seconds.

Mile Run.

Gow, sophomore, first; Boyer, sophomore, second; Anderson, junior, third. Time, 7.44 minutes.

The individual points of each contestant are as follows:

Hendrickson, 14; Burns, 13 1-3; Jones, 10; Olander, 13; Lindsay, 8; Schneider, 8; Thomas, 5½; Haug, 5 1-3; Hein, 6 1-3; Berkleman, 5; Denfeld, 5; Gow, 5; Arnold, 5; Boyer, 4½; Cohen, 1; Anderson, 1; Buchman, 1; Benda, ½; Clow, ½.

TILLMAN WINS IN SLUGGING MATCH

Azine Has Better of Mantell; Fast Preliminary at Minneapolis.

St. Paul, Minn., March 2.—Johnny Tillman, Minneapolis welterweight, was awarded the newspaper decision in a 10-round slugging match with Len Rowlands, Milwaukee, here last night. Ray Moore, Minneapolis, leading all the way, had the better of Jimmy Pappas of St. Louis in a 10-round bout. Tillman had the advantage in six rounds, three were even and Rowlands led in one.

In the first preliminary, Chick Williams of Minneapolis, after going to his knees twice in the first round, came back and got a draw in his four-round fight with Steve Hopkins, the St. Paul high school athlete. Both fighters went fast throughout.

Abe Mantell of Winnipeg and Jimmy Azine, Minneapolis, fought eight rounds to a draw. If there was any advantage it was in favor of Azine, who was more aggressive and his blows more effective.

Lewis Claims Championship.

New Orleans, La., March 1.—Ted Lewis of England was awarded a referee's decision over Harry Stone of New York at the end of their 20-round bout here last night. By his victory, Lewis claimed the welterweight championship of the world.

OLD OARSMEN TO ASSIST DULUTH IN BIG REGATTA

Practically All of the Veterans Have Promised to Come Out This Season—Strenuous Campaign for New Material Has Been Inaugurated—Active Work to Begin Monday.

It seems certain that virtually all of the veteran oarsmen of the Duluth Boat club will be out this season for places in the boat. The fact that Duluth is to make its greatest stand in a national regatta, and, furthermore, that it appears rather certain that for the first time in the history of Duluth a national regatta will be staged on local waters, is the incentive that has brought about a change of sentiment.

An oarsmen's luncheon was held yesterday in the St. Louis hotel. All of the old men were out. A roll call brought out the fact that some of the old boys who had about decided to quit the game, have changed their minds and will be out this season to assist Duluth in making the greatest showing in the long and illustrious history of the club. That is some task, all admit, and the help of every veteran will be needed.

Campaign for Material.

A strenuous campaign for new material is being waged. This campaign will be carried on during the next few weeks. It is particularly desired to have a large list of green rowing men report at the Y. M. C. A. Monday afternoon. Ned Ten Eyck will be on hand, all the men will register, and the season will be formally ushered in.

Every old oarsman, Capt. Wallace Quimby stated today, is expected to voluntarily act as a committee of the club in an industrious search for new members. The success of the club in the national this season will depend upon new material, believes Jimmy Ten Eyck, and for this specific reason the work of getting out new men for crew candidates, is a vastly important one.

The new rowing machines are being installed in the rowing room of the Y. M. C. A. this week. The machines are of the very latest pattern and the best manufactured. It is expected that a large list of crew candidates will be well along in the rudimentary stages of rudimentary rowing before the men get on the water.

"This is to be our greatest year," said Ten Eyck today, before departing for New York. "There is a vast amount of work cut out for all interested in the success of the club. We need an unusually large number of candidates. Now material is absolutely essential to success during the present season. The old men can be expected to do their part, but in the junior and intermediate races, Duluth's dependence will be placed on new men."

It is expected that Jimmy Ten Eyck will return in the course of three weeks. Business calls him East. Ned Ten Eyck and the old men will be on the job during the absence of the man who has placed Duluth rowing on a basis of national prestige.

ALEX ABERG IS COMING

Huge Finn, Who May Meet Joe Stecher, to Wrestle the "Marvel."

A Chicago dispatch of yesterday announced that efforts were under way to match Alexander Aberg, the gigantic Finn, and Joe Stecher, the Nebraska scissors grinder.

It is practically certain that Gotch and Stecher will wrestle this coming fall, either in Omaha or Chicago, both cities being in the field for the contest. In the meantime the sensational Nebraska boy, rated as one of the greatest wrestlers the world has yet produced, is in search of new opponents, and the huge Aberg, who has thrown them all on their heads since coming to the United States, is generally ranked as the greatest heavyweight in the United States outside of Gotch.

Aberg has defeated most of the men Stecher has laid low with that deadly scissors hold. Cutler was beaten by Stecher and then Aberg came along and did the same thing. Roller and "Strangler" Lewis, who gave Stecher a strenuous two hours of battle, fell before the strength of the mighty Aberg.

Stecher began in the West and defeated every man he met. Aberg started in the East and tumbled them all on their heads. Stecher and Aberg are the only two undefeated heavyweights in the game, so it is but natural that promoters should be seeking to match the two big mat stars.

Aberg to Meet the "Marvel."

Frank La Joy, the Duluth promoter, yesterday received the forfeit of Edward Delivuk, manager for Aberg. The big Finn is expected in Duluth several days before the contest with the original "Masked Marvel," the man who set all New York and the East talking by his startling performances on the mat.

"I want to give the sport lovers here the greatest match possible," said La Joy, "and I finally succeeded in getting the original 'Masked Marvel.' The average heavyweight would stand no show against Aberg. The big Finn has beaten nearly every man in the world. Followers of wrestling declare the original 'Masked Marvel' one of the greatest of them all. He is the man picked to meet Aberg in Duluth."

Amateur Billiard Tournament.

New York, March 2. — J. Ferdinand Poggenburg of the New York Liederkranz, played his first game in the national amateur billiard championship tournament last night, and defeated Jacob Klinger of Austria, 400 to 275. Poggenburg, former holder of the national and international championship titles, was in fine form. In the afternoon game, Morris D. Brown of the Hamilton club, Brooklyn, defeated Edgar T. Appleby of this city by a score of 400 to 269 in forty-seven innings, the longest contest of the week.

Buys Raw Yearling Trotter.

New York, March 2.—The world's record price for an undeveloped yearling trotter was established at the midwinter sale here last night when St. Frusquin, sired by San Francisco, was sold to W. R. Cox, veteran trainer of Dover, N. H., for $5,600 after spirited bidding. The previous owner was the Walnut Hall farm, Lexington, Ky., which consigned sixty-four horses to the sale.

Pocket Billiard Title Play.

Chicago, March 2.—In the first game yesterday of the national pocket billiard championship tournament here, Charles Weston of Chicago, an added entrant, defeated J. L. Chapman, also of Chicago, by 100 to 40. The second game was won by Joseph Concannon of Jersey City from F. T. Abserski of Connecticut, 100 to 61.

Racine Baby Encampment.

Racine, Wis., March 2.—With a view to reducing infant mortality here during the summer, the local board of health has made arrangements for the establishment of a baby encampment, where parents will be urged to leave their infants during the months of July and August and have them cared for free of charge, under the direction of competent physicians and nurses.

Students Must Be Vaccinated.

Oshkosh, Wis., March 2.—As a result of a case of smallpox in which the patient is a student at the high school, the city health department ordered every student at the high school to be vaccinated immediately or stay out of school for a period of twenty-five days.

D. H., 3-2-16.

TEETH

For satisfactory dental work you can't do better than at the

Union Dentists

Gold Crowns $3.00
Full Set of Teeth .. $5.00
Fillings 50c

Union Dentists

315 West Superior St.
(Opposite St. Louis Hotel)

Quit the Treadmill!

If you don't "take toll" of the passing years by saving something from your earnings as you go along, what will you have, in a material way, to show for all your hard work?

Absolutely nothing beyond the mere fact that you have kept body and soul together. You will be working in a treadmill—simply that and nothing more. The Savings Department of the First National Bank beckons you to a better way.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
Duluth, Minn.

SCOOP THE CUB REPORTER — Some Feat—Quite Some Feat! — By "HOP"

SCOOP-A BLACKSMITH TRIED TO WHIP HIS DAUGHTER AND SHE SENT HIM TO THE HOSPITAL-GO HAVE A TALK WITH HER-GET A STORY ABOUT HER INHERITED STRENGTH-
GOOD MORNING-SO YOU ARE TH' LITTLE BLACKSMITH'S DAUGHTER WHO RESENTED HER CHASTISEMENT AND HANDED HER FOND PARENT TH' TRIMMING OF HIS LIFE-QUITE AN UNUSUAL FEAT-IN FACT A MOST REMARKABLE FEAT-HUH?
HERE WE PAUSE WHILE THE GENTLE BLACKSMITH'S DAUGHTER DELIBERATELY SURVEYS HER FEET!
EYE FEET-
YES-YES-GO ON—
THEY MAY BE UNUSUAL-BUT WHOSE FEET ARE THEY
500 LBS
HOP ©1916-INT.-SYND.-BALTO-MD.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

FARGOANS NOT LOSING SLEEP

Bismarck Report of Moving Agricultural School Laid to Politics.

Much Money Invested in Buildings and Government Might Also Object.

Fargo, N. D., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Fargo people seem to take as a joke the report sent out from Bismarck that an effort is to be made to remove the agricultural college near here to some other place in the state and many believe this is an effort on the part of the capital city to keep Fargo out of the capital removal fight.

The report from Bismarck states that the move to move the institution is the result of the recent troubles that the college has been having, but which seems to have come to an end with the retirement of Dr. John H. Worst as president and the election by the board of regents, of Dr. E. F. Ladd to the presidency.

In Fargo the report is taken lightly, and while it is conceded that there might be some possibility for such a move succeeding, the large number of good buildings that are now on the campus, it is believed, would be sufficient in itself to block any such movement. The people here feel that even should the matter come to a vote the voters of North Dakota would not sanction the enormous loss that would result.

See Politics in Report.

There is a well defined sentiment here that Bismarck has started the rumor in the belief that should the capital removal proposition come to a vote of the people of the state, the residents of Fargo and vicinity would remain neutral even if they did not support Bismarck at the polls. The Cass county vote will be a big one, one way or the other.

As the college is a land grant college, the general opinion here is that the Federal government would have something to say regarding its removal to another location, inasmuch as the institution is partially supported by government money set aside by the original land grant law and the Smith-Lever bill.

Spring Colonist Excursions to California and Arizona
Tickets on sale daily March 25 to April 14 from
Minneapolis $39.68
St. Paul - 39.68
Sioux City - 34.71
Santa Fe
Modern tourist sleepers and chair cars on fast Santa Fe trains.
Personally conducted Tourist sleepers three times a week.
Fred Harvey meal service.
Also write to C. L. Seagraves, Gen. Colonization Agt. 2301 Railway Exchange, Chicago for Arizona and San Joaquin Valley land folders
Write or call for details.
C. C. Carpenter, P. A., Metropolitan Life Bldg., Minneapolis, Minn.

REDSKINS ARE GETTING RICH

Some of Those Living on Standing Rock Reserve Prosper.

Fort Yates, N. D., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Supt. C. C. Covey of the Standing Rock Indian reservation makes an interesting report on farming conditions, showing that the red men are adopting the methods of their white brothers.

There are 3,424 Indians, wards of the government, on Standing Rock reservation, farming 6,507 acres on which they produced 123,820 bushels of grain and 18,281 tons of hay, to a total value of $152,346.45. These figures apply only to the Indian wards of the government.

Well Fixed Mixed Bloods.

In addition there are four Indians in the Cannon Ball district who are mixed bloods and have patents in fee, who farmed 1,270 acres and produced $16,194 worth of crops. There are about twenty other mixed bloods and Indians married to whites on other parts of the reservation who produced from $1,000 to $5,000 worth of farm products each. A conservative estimate of the value of crops produced in 1915 by Indians on the reservation not under government supervision is $50,000.

The average yields of different crops were: potatoes, 71 bushels; oats, 21 bushels; corn, 17 bushels; wheat, 14 bushels; barley, 10½ bushels; rye, 15 bushels; speltz, 23 bushels.

FORMER GOPHER IN CANADIAN REGIMENT

William Kilby, Once State Forest Ranger, to Fight in France.

Baudette, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—William Kilby, formerly a forest ranger at this place, has received a commission as lieutenant in a Winnipeg battalion for overseas duties. It is expected that he will leave soon for France as the company has been in training all winter. Mr. Kilby was employed by the state of Minnesota as forest ranger and was well known in this section as well as in the Twin Cities where he spent some time in forestry work.

PREPAREDNESS DEBATE.

Final Contest in State High School Discussion League at St. Paul.

St. Paul, Minn., March 2.—Representatives of the high schools of Willmar, St. Peter, Bemidji, Litchfield, Chisholm, Akeley and Mankato will discuss preparedness tonight at Macalester college in the final contest of the Minnesota High School Discussion league, organized by the college. Gold, silver and bronze medals will be awarded the winners.

A feature of the contest will be the reading of a short message sent by President Wilson for the occasion, advocating preparedness, and a telegram promised by William J. Bryan, voicing his views.

A vote on the issue will also be taken in the audience.

The six speakers have been selected from the young orators of twenty-seven high schools by elimination contests in the schools, then by intersectional contests.

The contestants follow: Joseph Chase, Willmar; Miss Linnea Linner, Litchfield; Miss Jennie Wall, Chisholm; Wallace Hallberg, St. Peter; Miss Olive Kelly, Mankato; Aaron Sacks, Akeley, and Daniel Gainey, Bemidji.

The judges will be C. G. Schulz, state superintendent of schools; State Auditor J. A. O. Preus and Prof. C. W. Boardman of Minneapolis Central high.

WASHBURN, N. D., IS AFTER FARM SCHOOL

Washburn, N. D., March 2.—As a sequel of the dismissal of Dr. J. H. Worst as president of the agricultural college by the board of regents, an agricultural college removal association has been organized at Washburn. A mass meeting was held with a large attendance at which various committees, with a membership aggregating more than 100, were appointed. John Satterlund presided.

Karl Klein was elected president and August Johnson, treasurer.

Initiative petitions to move the agricultural college will be circulated over the state at once. Contributions to the campaign were made by the Washburn estate, the Benton Packet company and business men and farmers.

Checking Up State Scalers.

International Falls, Minn., March 2.—C. B. Lang, state cruiser, has returned from St. Paul where he spent a few days on official business. Before Mr. Lang was appointed the state scalers were getting their reports from the lumber companies cutting state timber. Mr. Lang has appointed several deputies and is now checking up the winter's work in an effort to see that the state suffers no loss.

VICE IN MILL CITY.

Women's Organizations Claim Conditions Are Worse Than Reported.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 2.—A cooperative committee representing seven of the largest women's organizations in Minneapolis, yesterday in a statement to the public announced that after months of investigation they can say that recent startling revelations of vice conditions in this city "only skim the surface of actual conditions."

That young girls are unsafe alone on the streets at night, that a chain of hotels is being operated wholly on the profits gained from vice and that taxi-cab drivers are co-operating with keepers of resorts in luring young girls from their homes, were among the findings of the committee.

Another vice investigation was begun by county authorities this week after the 15-year-old daughter of a minister, who had been missing from her home for several weeks, told of being forced into a life of shame.

CO-EDS LIKE DOCTORS.

Physicians Most in Favor at University as Prospective Husbands.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 2.—Physicians are most in demand as husbands among girls at the University of Minnesota; mustaches are in disfavor; drinking is prohibited and a prospective bridegroom should have an annual income of $1,642, according to a summary compiled from answers to questions asked by the Minnesota Daily, the students' paper, as to what requirements girl students would make of future husbands.

Farmers received second place as desirable husbands, and business men were third in line. Actors and newspaper men received two votes each, while barbers, scientists and undertakers were given one each.

SPOONER MAYOR'S SON IS CALLED

Spooner, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Jack A. Meloney, son of Mayor James Meloney, died at 6:15 a. m. Tuesday of a complication of diseases, following a siege of typhoid. He was 24 years of age and was one of the promising young men of this community. He formerly lived at Bloomer, Wis. He was a member of the Spooner fire department and also secretary of the Masonic lodge.

FARGO NURSES' HOME.

New Building to Be Dedicated About April 1.

Fargo, N. D., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Sisters of St. Joseph are making arrangements for the dedication of the new nurses' home which is being built in connection with St. John's hospital, and which it is expected will be completed by April 1.

The carpenter work on the interior is about finished, and the indications are that the contractor will have the building ready to turn over to the sisters on or soon after the first of the month.

The dedication will probably be held about the middle of April.

The building will cost $65,000, and will be used as a home for the nurses and quarters for the nurses' training school that is conducted in connection with St. John's hospital. Owing to the crowded condition of the present hospital building, some of the rooms in the new structure will be used by minor cases and convalescents.

DETROIT BUTCHER HELD.

Is Alleged to Have Trapped Game Birds Out of Season.

Moorhead, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—George Tischhauser, a well-known butcher of Detroit, Minn., was bound over to the district court here by Judge E. U. Wade, on a charge of trapping prairie chickens out of season. Tischhauser gave bond for his appearance before the district court to answer to the charge.

It is alleged Tischhauser, who was arrested on Feb. 21, killed twenty-four prairie chickens in violation of the game laws. The birds were produced in court and were turned over to the clerk of the district court as evidence.

As the next session of the district court will be in May, the clerk of the court is wondering how he can preserve the "evidence" so that it will be presentable in court when the time for the hearing comes.

MURDERS HIS NEIGHBOR.

South Dakota Ranchman Then Walks to Deadwood and Surrenders.

Deadwood, S. D., March 2.—William N. Berry, ranchman living near here, sat in his ranch house yesterday and fired a bullet through the door, killing Watt Anderson, a neighbor, who was approaching the Berry home. The killing was the result of a quarrel some weeks ago, it is said. Berry walked to Deadwood and gave himself up. Anderson's body was found in the snow.

CROSBY SPECIAL ELECTION.

Will Be Held March 30 to Vote on Armory Bonds.

Crosby, Minn., March 2.—A special election will be held here March 30 to vote on the question of issuing $29,000 bonds to take up outstanding indebtedness and appropriate $8,000 towards building an armory.

The petition in behalf of the armory asked for an appropriation of $10,000, but it was decided that by letting the armory have the present park site it would have at least $2,000 in filling in the site given by George H. Crosby. The latter site will, it is stated, then be added to the park. If the $8,000 is voted the state will begin at an early date to erect the building. The state will expend $15,000, making the total cost $23,000.

The question of buying Outlot A for $16,000 will not be voted on at this election.

IRON RIVER MAN IS ROBBED AT PENCE

Iron River, Wis., March 2.—T. F. Mackmiller, a local business man, was beaten and robbed at Pence, Wis., a small station on the Soo between Hurley and Mellen, last Saturday night, being relieved of $40, according to the story he told here on returning home. He said, on returning here yesterday, he was walking along the street when attacked, knocked senseless and robbed.

"The doctor I consulted is under the impression that I was struck with a 'billy,'" Mr. Mackmiller said, and he bears the evidence of the attack. A severe bruise over the head clearly indicates the intensity of the blow.

"The thieves," he said, "apparently labored under the impression that I carried a goodly sum of money on my person as the result of my collection, but the money I collected in Hurley and other places in that vicinity I deposited and so the only sum I really had was what I secured at Pence."

CROW WING REPUBLICANS HAVE ORGANIZED CLUB

Brainerd, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—A Crow Wing County Republican club has been organized. N. H. Ingersoll was chairman and Walter F. Wieland secretary at the first meeting. Officers will be elected at the next meeting. Resolutions were adopted indorsing the candidacy of Clifton A. Allbright of Brainerd for delegate from the Sixth congressional district to the Republican national convention.

GET RID OF PILES AT HOME
Simple Home Treatment Easily Applied, Gives Quick Relief and Prevents Danger From Operation.
Send for Free Trial Package and Prove It in Your Case.
Don't even think of an operation for piles. Remember what the old family doctor said: Any part of the body cut away is gone forever. One or two applications of Pyramid Pile Treatment and the pain, fire and torture ceases. In a remarkably short time the congested veins are reduced to normal and you will soon be all right again. Try this remarkable Treatment. Sold everywhere at drug stores. Send for a free trial package and prove beyond question it is the right treatment for your case, even though you may be wearing a pile truss.
Just send in the coupon below at once for the free trial treatment. Then you can get the regular package for 50 cents at any drug store. Don't suffer another needless minute. Write now.
FREE PACKAGE COUPON
Pyramid Drug Company, 539 Pyramid Bldg., Marshall, Mich. Kindly send me a trial of Pyramid Pile Treatment at once, by mail, FREE, in plain wrapper, so I can prove its splendid results.
Name .....
Street .....
City ..... State.....

STEPS THROUGH ICE THEN SCALDS FOOT

Stevens Point, Wis., March 2.—Leo Walosek is in a hospital recovering from a badly scalded foot received when he stepped through the ice on a sawmill pond. His foot came in contact with one of the steam pipes under the water.

COPPER RANGE WILL PAY MINERS BONUS

Calumet, Mich., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Copper Range Mining company announces that owing to the advanced price at which copper metal is selling, a bonus of 20 per cent will be paid its 2,000 employes on their wages for March and April. A continuation of the bonus payments beyond April is probable if the metal prices keep up.

Home-Made Flour Popular.

New Salem, N. D., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Home-made flour has proved so popular with local farmers that David Dietz, who a year ago established a twenty-five-barrel daily capacity mill, has erected an addition to the building to double the supply. The new plant will be in operation this week.

New Bismarck School Head.

Bismarck, N. D., March 2.—J. Maurice Martin, superintendent of the Huron, S. D., schools, was elected school superintendent to succeed C. C. Root by the board of education, at a salary of $2,400, a slight increase over what was paid Mr. Root.

It is said that Mr. Root will make the race for county superintendent of schools to succeed C. L. Vigness, who has decided to enter other educational work.

AGED WOMAN'S ADVICE.

Almost 100 She Gives Younger People a Few Pointers.

Madison, Wis., March 2.—"Keep good hours; do not forget your spiritual life in the pursuit of worldly things; be regular in every thing you do, and, above all, be truthful to your conscience."

This is the message of Mrs. Louis Brayton Sawin of this city, who will be 100 years old on May 23, next. This decalogue Mrs. Sawin does not guarantee to produce longevity, but whether life is lasting or fleeting, she is positive it will aid to a fuller appreciation of it. Mrs. Sawin has never seen a moving picture show and knows little of the frivolities of the present day. Despite her age she is in full possession of her faculties.

"Much of the marchches of the world would never have endured if the parents of children had enjoyed mutual understanding and companionship," she declared. "I have no advice to give the girl of today. I want to live until God takes me away. One hundred years is a long, long time."

Marquette Physician Fined.

Marquette, Mich., March 2.—Because he failed to make return of a contagious disease case, one of typhoid fever, until the patient died, and then made return by telephone, instead of by blank, as required by law, Dr. J. O. von Zellen was fined $10 in municipal court. The doctor refused to plead to the charge, and was found guilty by the court.

Woman Accidentally Killed.

Missoula, Mont., March 2.—Mrs. Ray E. Hall, wife of a well known railroad man of this city, was instantly killed at Haugan, a Milwaukee station west of here, by the accidental discharge of a rifle in the hands of her brother-in-law, J. A. Cody.

Knutson Visits Brainerd.

Brainerd, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Harold Knutson of St. Cloud, candidate for the Republican nomination for congressman of the Sixth district, was here yesterday sounding sentiment. He went north on the Minnesota & International railway in the afternoon.

Investigate Mysterious Shooting.

Merrill, Wis., March 2.—Sheriff Neumann has begun an investigation of the mysterious shooting of August Hahn at the home of his stepfather near Chat, Wis. Hahn told the sheriff he had received a letter warning him that unless he effected a reconciliation with his wife, he would be shot. He was wounded as he stepped out of the farm home last night. The wound is not serious.

PENINSULA BRIEFS

Marquette—At a meeting of the Scottish Rite, held here Jan. 21, it was decided to purchase a pipe organ for the Francis M. Moore consistory and, according to George Tucker, commander-in-chief of the consistory, the organ has already been ordered and will probably be installed on or about May 1.

Ispeming—Richard H. Olds, city recorder, is a candidate for re-election. It is expected that Mr. Olds will be nominated without contest. Although Mayor Wahlman has not announced that he will be a candidate for re-election, it is generally assumed that he will be the unanimous choice of the convention.

Hancock—Edward Nelson and Rose Rosebush of L'Anse were wedded Monday afternoon at the parsonage of the Norwegian Lutheran church by Rev. C. N. Vogt. Both are well known in L'Anse, where they will make their home.

Negaunee — Joseph Lowenstein awarded the contract to Joseph Erickson & Son of Ishpeming to erect a large business block on East Iron street.

Houghton—Only forty-seven marriage licenses were issued by County Clerk Kaiser for February. The highest number for any February month was fifty-five, which was the number issued in 1909. The lowest was in 1910, when only twenty-six were issued.

Calumet—At the meeting of Calumet troop, No. 1, Boy Scouts of America, Roland Taylor was elected troop scribe, one of the most important offices in the troop outside of scout master.

Houghton—Herbert McCaffery, one of the men held in the Houghton county jail for the last several months, charged with having been a member of the Acme Suit and Cloak club and who was released Monday, was rearrested on advices from Atlantic City, N. J., where he is wanted for getting goods under false pretenses.

Ishpeming—Henry Hannala died suddenly in the family home Feb. 29 of heart disease. Mr. Hannala was 38 years old and for the last several years had been employed by Mike Kuttala. He is survived by his widow and one child.

WISCONSIN BRIEFS

Madison—The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company Tuesday paid the state tax on the company's gross income of $484,005.30, under protest.

Sheboygan—The 16-month-old son of David Graebenstein died on Tuesday after suffering three days after he was scalded in a pan of boiling water.

Oconomowoc—Mrs. Nancy Stone, widow of Capt. E. S. Stone, one of the earliest residents of the town of Summit, died at her home in Oconomowoc Feb. 29, aged 83 years.

Neenah—Several cases of diphtheria reported to the health authorities the past several days have been placed under quarantine here. They are the only cases of the disease in the city at present and the first that have been placed under quarantine this winter.

Janesville—The east side head gates and wing wall of the Fulton Power plant, owned by the Janesville Electric company, have been washed out as the result of the undermining of the cement walls during the high water three weeks ago. The plant will be out of commission for two months.

New Richmond—The residence of the Rev. I. F. Davis was broken into and silver and furs amounting to $800 were stolen. Only solid silver and the most valuable goods were taken. It is believed to be the work of professionals.

Green Bay—The third conference of the winter held by the continuation school teachers of the Fox river valley will be held in Green Bay March 18.

Eau Claire—Charles M. Campbell, a resident of Eau Claire for about fifteen years, and with the Lange Canning company all that time until Jan. 1 last, when he sold his interest, announces himself as a candidate for mayor.

DAKOTA BRIEFS

Bismarck, N. D.—The election to determine whether the city would accept a $25,000 Carnegie library was carried, 374 to 70.

Lisbon, N. D.—It is reported this place is to get a new Northern Pacific depot. The rumor is that the building will be located at a more advantageous place than at present.

Mohall, N. D.—Fire at the Crystal cafe here from an overheated oil stove nearly created a bad blaze during the early part of the evening recently. The fire was extinguished by smothering it with blankets.

Fargo, N. D.—Eleven jurymen instead of twelve will decide the case of John A. Karlstrom against Andrew Nyquist, a case involving a dispute over an eighty-acre tract of land which has been on trial before Judge Roeser in local district court for over a week.

Sherwood, N. D.—Mrs. J. H. Brackelsburg, the wife of the proprietor of the rural skating rink, recently opened, fell on the ice and fractured her leg.

Towner, N. D.—The jury in the case of the state against William Bokovoy, charged with murder in the first degree, brought in a verdict of not guilty. Bokovoy was charged with killing James Black, the village marshal, at Kelf last October. Over forty witnesses were summoned in the case and both sides fought with desperation.

Fargo, N. D.—James H. Vidal, sales manager and investigator for the Ford automobile branch of Fargo, has resigned, to become effective March 3, to become associated with an advertising firm in Chicago.

Huff, N. D.—A grange was organized in Bonanza school district southwest of Huff, to be known as Bonanza grange, by State Organizer W. L. Caddell. Twenty charter members were secured. John Markham was elected master, N. O. Watson, overseer, and Bella Markham, secretary.

MINNESOTA BRIEFS

International Falls—The remains of Angus McDonald, the Lindford homesteader who died at the county hospital last week, were buried Tuesday afternoon from the Green undertaking establishment at 2 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Blake officiating.

Sauk Rapids—A meeting of the Sauk Rapids Auto club resulted in the following officers being elected: President, Dr. J. P. McDowell; vice president, W. F. Dewey; secretary, R. R. Dragoo, and treasurer, Peter Jansen. Other directors elected are A. Krieg, J. C. Schlough, Nick Misho and William Sartell of Sartell.

International Falls—C. M. Starks, until recently inspector in charge of the local immigration office, and who left last week to join his wife at Denver, secured a lucrative position there with a mining company.

St. Peter—Oscar Youngdahl of Gustavus Adolphus college here won the intercollegiate oratorical contest at Hamline university Monday night. He spoke on "The Big Brother." Wayne McDaniels, confined to his bed until 6 p. m. Monday with tonsilitis, arose to represent Hamline and won second place. Ray Quinlevan of Carleton college took third place.

Bemidji—William Laliberte and Oscar Erickson have purchased the City drug store from E. N. French & Co. Both young men are well known here, the former having been employed in the E. F. Netzer drug store in this city for four years, and the latter having been employed in the City drug store for two years.

Crookston—Notices were sent out by County Auditor Henry J. Welte Tuesday to the assessors of the county asking their presence at a meeting of assessors to be held in the courthouse in Crookston March 7, at 10 o'clock, for the purpose of receiving instructions from the tax commission as to the proper method of listing and assessing the different kinds and classes of property in accordance with the laws of the state.

Bemidji—Mayor William McCuaig has appointed Mrs. E. H. Smith to the library board to fill the position left vacant by Mrs. L. H. Bailey, who is in the West.

Ada—The Hussey Construction company of Crookston landed the contract here for the construction of a concrete sluiceway on the Wild Rice river at the outskirts of Ada to take care of the overflow of that river. Work will begin in June. The contract price is $4,000 and the sluiceway is being constructed for the Security Drainage company.

Crookston—The government thermometer took another drop Monday night and Tuesday morning registered 24 degs. below zero. The previous night had been the coldest of February, going to 10 degs. below zero.

Moorhead—The body of Mrs. Robert Champagne, aged 23, of Glasgow, Mont., was brought here Feb. 29. The funeral was held from the St. Joseph's Catholic church and the body was buried in the Champagne plot in Prairie Home cemetery. Mrs. Champagne died Sunday morning at Glasgow of acute peritonitis.

Brainerd—Mrs. Peter Lillestrom of Pine River was operated on for tumor at St. Joseph's hospital, and is gaining nicely.

Bemidji—H. L. Wilcox has resigned his position with the Crookston Lumber company to be sales manager of the Minneapolis Artificial Ice company. L. R. Daigle has accepted the position vacated by Mr. Wilcox at the Crookston Lumber company.

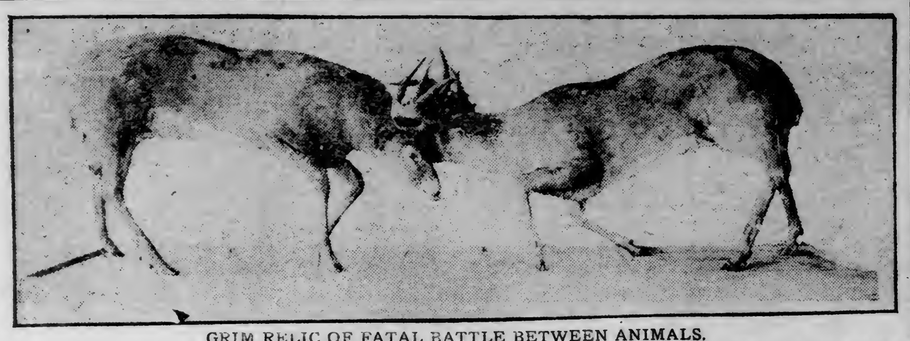
Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men
Glass of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.
Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place.
Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.
An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.
Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store, which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.—Advertisement.

Stay Vigorous at Seventy
Kellogg's Sanitone Wafers Revive Vitality in Men and Women When Life's Sun Begins to Set.
50c BOX FREE.
What you ARE, not what you WERE, is what counts in the game of life. It's up to men and women to be "live ones" and not slow down too soon. Kellogg's Sanitone Wafers keep your vital energy aglow—drive away all gloominess and peevishness, and strengthen your petered-out nerves.
When ambition deserts you and vitality sags down near zero; when you're fagged out in brain and body and your nerves lack vim—the Kellogg's Sanitone Wafers "ginger" you up to concert pitch, put "the punch" in your muscles, and make you tingle all over with health.
Send coupon below today for a free 50c trial box of Kellogg's Sanitone Wafers.
The regular $1.00 size of Kellogg's Sanitone Wafers is for sale in Duluth at Max Wirth's, 13 West Superior St.

I'm the Equal in Nerve—Force and Power, of Any of the Rising Generation.
FREE 50c BOX COUPON
F. J. KELLOGG CO., 2941 Hoffmaster Block, Battle Creek, Mich.
Send me by return mail, a 50-cent trial box of the wonderful discovery for nerves, Kellogg's Sanitone Wafers. I enclose 6 cents in stamps to help pay postage and packing.
Name .....
Street .....
R.F.D. .....
City ..... State.....

ON THE IRON RANGES

DEER KILLED AND MOUNTED WITH LOCKED HORNS



GRIM RELIC OF FATAL BATTLE BETWEEN ANIMALS.

Ely, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Taxidermist John Schaefer has just mounted a pair of deer with their horns locked just as they were found by Assistant State Road Engineer W. H. Fisher during the late hunting season, near Tower. When Mr. Fisher came across them one was dead. He killed the live one and brought both carcasses here, where they were mounted, as shown in the picture, without ever being pried apart.

POIRIER NOT AFTER CITY ATTORNEYSHIP

Prefers to Remain Member of Virginia Fire and Police Board.

Virgina, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Otto A. Poirier, chairman of the city police and fire commission, is not a candidate for city attorney. Neither would he resign his present position as chairman of the police and fire commission without salary to accept the city attorneyship with a fat salary emolument.

"I am not a candidate for the city attorneyship, neither would I accept it under the circumstances," said Mr. Poirier to The Herald yesterday.

As a member of the police and fire commission, to which he was appointed by Former Mayor M. A. Murphy, Poirier has stood consistently for a clean city and the rigid enforcement of the state laws and village ordinances covering the liquor traffic. It was upon his order that the recent edict covering the closing of the front doors of cigar stores leading to saloons was issued by the chief of police. He has also stood for efficiency in both the police and fire departments.

Rumors that Poirier would accept the city attorneyship and resign from the police and fire commission were hailed with satisfaction by a large element who believe a more liberal policy toward the general conduct of the city than at present obtains would be desirable. Mr. Poirier's statement sets all speculation as to his attitude at rest.

Contest Is Keen.

Competition for the city attorneyship is keen. Judge Montague, the present incumbent of the place and one of Mayor Boylan's chief political advisers, is a candidate for reappointment. George F. Shea is also a candidate. He has held the position and is one of the most popular of Virginia attorneys. He is known to have strong support on the council. Daniel Morgan is another former city attorney with an excellent record who aspires to the place, while S. S. Dahl is also a candidate and declares he has considerable strength. L. F. Burns is also mentioned for the place, while other candidates may be in the field before the council makes its appointments in April.

HIBBING COUNCIL WILL HELP BAND

Village Lawmakers Also Raise Salaries of Electrical Workers.

Hibbing, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Members of the International Electrical union employed by the village were granted a raise of $10 a month yesterday afternoon by the village council.

Dr. Morseman, at the head of the baby welfare health committee, presented a resolution asking the members of that body to appropriate $75 for the carrying on of welfare work for the babies during the national baby week. The appropriation was allowed.

The council favored the compromise proposition of the committee appointed by the Commercial club to affect a compromise between the bandmen and park board members, which would provide that the village furnish the music, buy uniforms and provide the expenses of advertising for the band, and recommended that the park board should accept the terms of this compromise at an early a date as possible.

The council resolution states that $4,700 would be appropriated for the band.

The report of the municipal clerk showed receipts of $12.

A bill from the public library for books, amounting to $1,309.51, was allowed. The bill of Martin Laxal for a snowplow, amounting to $150, was allowed.

Lavina Wants Annexation.

A petition from the taxpayers of the location known as Lavinia asking that the location be annexed to Hibbing was referred to Trustees Burrows and Swinnerton.

One liquor license refund was granted. A letter from the Mesaba Transportation company asking that the village council reduce the license fee of $25 for buses carrying passengers on a regular schedule was turned over to Attorney Samuel Scott, with a recommendation that he draw up a resolution which would reduce the rates of buses carrying passengers on a regularly scheduled basis.

The judgment against the village of $336 for damages sustained by ohn Perrault and which was decided in his favor in this term of district court was ordered held up by Mayor Power until the W. J. Coons company, the corporation which had the building of the ditch into which Perrault contended he fell, would state whether they would make good the damages.

OLD WOODSMAN IS EXPOSURE VICTIM

"Andy" Stowell Dies at Biwabik Following Being Badly Frozen.

Biwabik, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—"Andy" Stowell, for many years a well known woodsman in this section, died yesterday at the local hospital of pneumonia. While making a drive from Skibo several weeks ago Stowell's team ran away and he was left in the woods during the extreme cold weather. Although an experienced woodsman he became lost and was not found until the next day by a searching party. His hands and feet were frozen.

Brought to Hospital.

He was brought to the local hospital and given prompt attention. When he was fit for operation portions of his feet and hands were amputated and it was thought he was on his way to recovery when pneumonia developed. He made a bold struggle but it proved unavailing. Stowell was about 55 years old and single. Stowell has been employed as timber cruiser by different lumber companies operating in this section.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Asa Stowell, who resides in Michigan. Funeral arrangements have not been made, waiting a reply to several messages sent his mother.

LENIENCY FOR JOHNSON.

Claim Woodsman Did Not Know Hibbing Was in Dry Territory.

Hibbing, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—That ignorance of the law does excuse some men is the contention of some local lawyers in the case of Gust Johnson, arrested by the Indian agents on a charge of transporting liquor from a wet into a dry territory.

Johnson had been in the woods all winter and part of the fall he had spent in a shack. He came here Tuesday and knew nothing of the saloons being closed. He went over to Buhl and brought a little "on the hip" back with him to Hibbing.

A stool pigeon got on his track and gave the information to the Indian agents and now Johnson faces a term in a Federal prison.

Twe prominent Hibbing lawyers expect to ask the agents for clemency for Johnson on the ground that he did not know at the time that he carried the liquor on his person that he was committing a crime.

EVELETH FIREMAN WEDS BIWABIK GIRL

Eveleth, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Capt. Hugh Costley of the fire department and Miss Ella Archdeacon, of Biwabik were married here Wednesday morning at St. Patrick's church, the Rev. Father O'Gorman of Biwabik officiating. Miss Cora Devine of Two Harbors attended the bride and Matt Archdeacon, a brother of the bride, was best man.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Timothy Shea, on Chandler avenue, and the couple left for Marquette, Mich., where they will visit at the old home of Mr. Costley for a short time, and later leave for points in Northern Michigan. They expect to be at home in this city in about two weeks.

DRINK SIX GLASSES OF WATER DAILY

An Interesting Statement by One of the Big Men In the Drug Business

A. E. KIESLING

of Houston, Texas, says:

"If you have a muddy complexion and dull eyes, you are constipated. Six glasses of water daily and one or two Rexall Orderlies at night will correct this condition and make you 'fit as a fiddle.' Rexall Orderlies, in my opinion, are the best laxative to be had, and can be taken by men, women or children."

We have the exclusive selling rights for this great laxative.

E. M. TREDWAY
The Rexall Store

"GOOD CITIZENSHIP" EXTOLLED BY JUDGE

Judge Hughes Tells Eveleth Diners of Its Many Benefits.

Eveleth, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—"Good mothers are of more importance to cities than the building of industries," declared Judge Martin Hughes of Hibbing, speaking here last night at the annual banquet of the Commercial club at the Park hotel to the theme "Good Citizenship," and his words elicited rounds of applause from 125 men and women present. Continuing the jurist declared:

"Men should hold themselves out as models of good citizenship and so conduct themselves that their example may be followed by the boys, who will be the men of the next generation. There is more to be gained from having a clean town morally than in the building of great cities."

E. G. Kingston was toastmaster. J. C. McGilvery, president of the club, delivered the address of welcome and Rev. O. D. Cannon the invocation. A seven-course menu was discussed.

D. C. Coombe, director of the agricultural department of the Chisholm schools, spoke on the agricultural re sources of the range country.

Judge McGilvery pointed to what had been accomplished by the organization during the last year. He said the building of the creamery and the opening of the farmers' market were worthy of the best efforts of the club.

Other speakers were V. E. Essling, John Manthey, Rev. Father Culligan and Rev. William Jobush. This was the first time women were invited to a club banquet.

AURORA CAMPAIGN IS LIVENING UP

Candidates for Village and Township Offices Getting Busy.

Aurora, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Candidates for office in the village and township are out after the votes and more interest is being shown now than at any time in the campaign.

The following have filed to date for village office: President, E. T. Sandberg and A. F. Tillmans; trustees, A. M. Westerlund, Andrew Maki, Gust Mattson, Matt Turk and John Rozanz; recorder, Alfred E. Hill, Tom Filonowich and John J. Hudson; treasurer, J. Carl Broslich, Charles E. Roache and Art F. Rye; justice of the peace, E. H. Yarick and C. C. Block.

Town of White Candidates.

In the town of White the following have filed: Supervisor, Louis Hochevar, Ell Gvozdanovich, August Knuti, Roger Wood and Edward Darrow; clerk, O. F. Halstrom and John W. Lang; treasurer, John Luoma, Joe Sekula, Oscar Mattonen and Ell Smolich; assessor, William A. Highland and Ludwig Hill; constable, Steve Paulisich. There is until March 7 to file and there are several more candidates who will be in the field in both village and township by that time.

VIRGINIA ELKS ELECT.

Tyler Braa Is Made Exalted Ruler of the Lodge.

Virginia, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Adolph H. Braa was elevated from the position of tyler to that of exalted ruler of Virginia Lodge No. 1093, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, at the annual election of officers of the Elks last night.

Braa has been one of the most enthusiastic members of the local antlered tribe and has been particularly prominent in its social and amusement activities. The other officers elected were as follows: Esteemed leading knight, Fred Walker; loyal knight, J. Carver Richards; lecturing knight, Walter Martin; tyler, Thomas Coombe; secretary, H. S. Gillespie, re-elected; treasurer, V. L. Peterson, re-elected; trustee, O. N. Berg; delegate to the national convention, Charles Grabowski; alternate, Senator O. H. Griggs; representative to the state association of Elks, V. L. Peterson.

Virginia lodge, B. P. O. E., has appointed a committee to take up the Big Brother movement.

DANGERS OF SKIN INFECTION

Lurk in All Eruptions and Abrasions Apply Poslam Promptly.

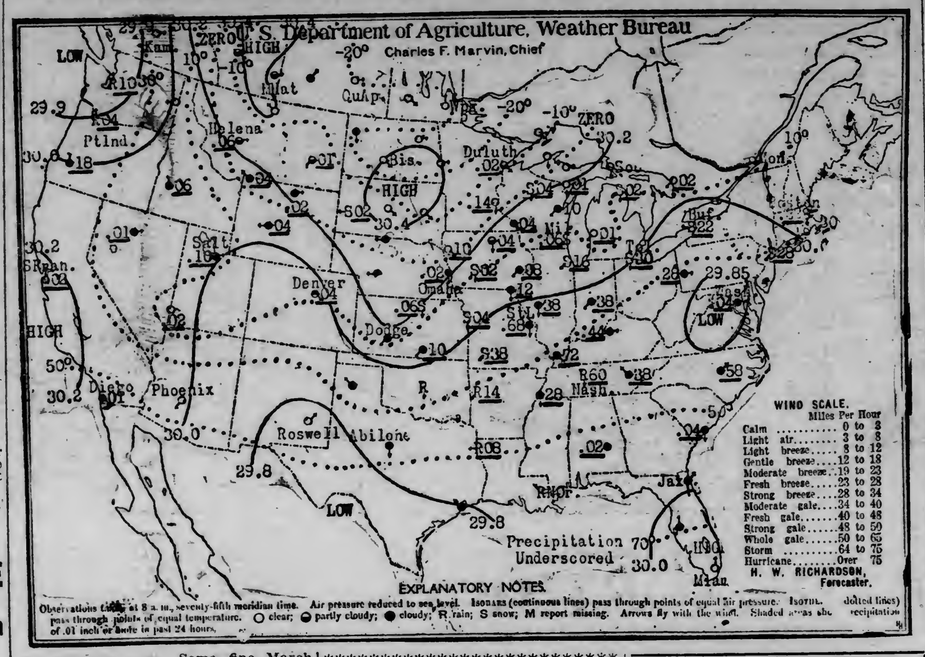
Any abrasion of the skin, cut, boil, blister, rash, or open sore spot is dangerous as a possible source of infection, leading to serious skin disease, and should be treated promptly with Poslam, the antiseptic, healing remedy.

Poslam readily shows its power to kill germ life by stopping all itching and soothing fiery skin. Eradicates all eczemas, acne, salt rheum, skin scale, psoriasis, seven-year itch, barber's itch and similar diseases.

The daily use of Poslam Soap, medicated with Poslam, is an additional safeguard against infectional dangers.

For samples, send 4c stamps to Emergency Laboratories, 32 West 25th St., New York City. Sold by all druggists.

OFFICIAL MAP OF THE WEATHER



U. S. Department of Agriculture, Weather Bureau
Charles F. Marvin, Chief
WIND SCALE.
Miles Per Hour
Calm ..... 0 to 3
Light air ..... 3 to 8
Light breeze ..... 8 to 12
Gentle breeze ..... 12 to 18
Moderate breeze ..... 19 to 23
Fresh breeze ..... 23 to 28
Strong breeze ..... 28 to 34
Moderate gale ..... 34 to 40
Fresh gale ..... 40 to 48
Strong gale ..... 48 to 59
Whole gale ..... 50 to 63
Storm ..... 64 to 75
Hurricane ..... Over 75
H. W. RICHARDSON, Forecaster.
Precipitation 70° Underscored
30.0
EXPLANATORY NOTES.
Observations taken at 8 a. m., seventy-fifth meridian time. Air pressure reduced to sea level. Isobars (continuous lines) pass through points of equal air pressure. Isotherms (dotted lines) pass through points of equal temperature. ○ clear; ◒ partly cloudy; ● cloudy; R rain; S snow; M report missing. Arrows fly with the wind. Shaded areas show precipitation of .01 inch or more in past 24 hours.

FAIR

Some fine March day, isn't it? The absence of the usual March storms is appreciated. It may be that the unusual weather of January wore out the special weather department that furnishes storms, and that March will be comparatively mild.

A year ago today was also beautiful. The sun rose this morning at 6:44 and will set this evening at 5:56, giving eleven hours and twelve minutes of sunlight.

Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"The temperature has risen somewhat over Eastern states and nearly all of Canada, and has fallen over the Southwest. Rather severe cold continues in the Northwest, the lowest reported temperature being 24 degs. below at Bismarck and Moorhead. During the last twenty-four hours snow or rain fell over all districts except Central and Western Canada, the eastern slopes of the Rockies, the extreme Southwest and Florida, in connection with barometric depressions centered respectively over Virginia, Mexico and the Puget Sound region."

General Forecasts.

Chicago, March 2.—Forecasts for the twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m. Friday:

Minnesota—Fair and continued cold tonight; Friday fair with slowly rising temperature.

Wisconsin—Partly cloudy and somewhat colder tonight; Friday generally fair; not so cold in west portion.

Iowa—Partly cloudy tonight; colder in east and central portions; Friday generally fair; not so cold in northwest portion.

North Dakota—Fair and not quite so cold tonight and Friday.

South Dakota—Generally fair tonight and Friday; rising temperature Friday.

Montana—Fair in east, snow in west portion tonight and Friday; slowly rising temperature Friday and in north and west portions tonight.

Lower Michigan—Fair tonight and Friday; slightly colder in east and south portions tonight.

Upper Michigan—Fair tonight and Friday; colder in east and south portions tonight.

LOCAL FORECAST

Duluth, Superior and vicinity, including the Mesaba and Vermilion iron ranges: Fair weather tonight with lowest temperature 10 to about 15 deg. below zero at and near Duluth-Superior and along the north shore and 10 to about 20 deg. below zero on the iron ranges. Friday fair with slowly moderating temperature. Moderate northwest to west winds.

Temperatures.

Following were the highest temperatures in the last twenty-four hours and the lowest in the last twelve, ending at 7 a. m.:

	High	Low
Abilene	74	32
Alpena	16	8
Amarillo		20
Battleford	6	20
Bismarck	6	24
Boise	36	24
Boston	32	20
Buffalo	24	16
Cairo		32
Calgary	6	12
Charles City		2
Charleston	50	48
Chicago	28	24
Concordia		16
Davenport		16
Denver	18	8
Des Moines	30	14
Devils Lake	4	22
Dodge	30	8
Dubuque	26	10
DULUTH	4	18
Edmonton	4	16
Escanaba	14
Fort Smith		36
Galveston	76	62
Grand Haven	20	6
Green Bay	18	4
Havre	0	12
Helena	2	4
Houghton		10
Huron	6	14
Indianapolis		24
Jacksonville	60	56
Kamloops	38	22
Kansas City	34	22
Keokuk		20
Knoxville	44	38
La Crosse		12
Lander		2
Louisville	40	32
Madison	22	8
Marquette	10	2
Medicine Hat	2	18
Memphis	40	36
Miles City	6	8
Milwaukee	24	20
Minnedosa	2	20
Modena	36	4
Montgomery	58	54
Montreal	8	4
Moorhead	0	24
Nashville		34
New Orleans	78	62
New York	36	28
North Platte	16	0
Oklahoma	54	26
Omaha	28	2
Parry Sound	14	6
Phoenix	66	46
Pierre	4	10
Pittsburgh	38	32
Port Arthur	14	16
Portland, Or	48	36
Prince Albert	4	20
Qu'Appelle	4	20
Raleigh	46	34
Rapid City	4	6
Roseburg	44	36
Roswell		48
St. Louis	34	26
St. Paul	12	6
Salt Lake City	38	28
San Diego	58	52
San Francisco	54	44
Sault Ste. Marie	12	4
Seattle	46	34
Sheridan	6	4
Shreveport	64	50
Sioux City	24	8
Spokane	32	20
Springfield, Ill.		24
Springfield, Mo.		26
Swift Current	6	18
Tampa	80	66
Toledo	24	18
Valentine		8
Washington	44	32
Wichita		14
Williston	8	20
Winnemucca	36	20
Winnipeg	2	20
Yellowstone	6	8

WOODSMAN INJURED.

Hit By Tree and Taken Unconscious to St. Mary's Hospital.

Knife River, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—John Vesotoki, employed at an Alger-Smith camp, was hit by a falling tree and his skull fractured. He was taken to St. Mary's hospital, Duluth, where at last reports he was still unconscious. He is about 30, single, and so far as known, has no relatives in this section.

Range Mail Meeting.

Mountain Iron, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—It is expected there will be many representatives of commercial bodies of various range communities here tonight to consider the proposition of having mail carried on the Mesaba Electric line and to discuss range road work. The Herald recently quoted Manager Reynolds of the trolley line as stating that he had taken the matter up with the postmaster general, but the government would not allow sufficient money for the service to warrant the railroad carrying the mail.

ELY COMMERCIAL CLUB IS GROWING

New Organization Now Boasts of 396 Members.

Ely, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The regular meeting of the Commercial club was held at the opera house Tuesday evening. There was a large attendance. Several important reports of committees were read.

The committee on membership reported that 396 had enrolled.

The game and fish committee was instructed to procure and provide for the distribution of fish fry.

President Brozich congratulated the club upon its large and enthusiastic membership.

The Ely orchestra rendered several selections.

WOLVES NOT KILLING DEER.

Game Warden Beatty Denies Story Widely Printed.

Virginia, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Stories widely printed that deer are being killed in large numbers in the north woods by wolves are discounted by Game Warden James Beatty, who was in Virginia yesterday from the state forest reserve, where he is stationed most of the time.

"The wolves are not killing deer in numbers, as I have seen stated in some newspaper reports," said Beatty. "All the game is wintering nicely. Pheasants will not be exterminated as has been reported. These birds browse off the brush and swamp growths and will not starve to death because the deep snow covers their ordinary food supplies. Beatty reports that game is still plentiful in the country about the forest reserve, although moose signs are not frequently encountered this year.

Reopens Aurora Theater.

Aurora, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—E. T. Sandberg has reopened the Elco theater in the Lund building. During the winter Sandberg sold his entire outfit to parties in Gilbert. Since that time he has purchased a new picture machine and other equipment and entirely remodeled his theater. He has installed a steel fireproof booth for the picture machine.

Hibbing Baby Contest.

Hibbing, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Registration day for all babies 6 months or over, will be at the City drug store, March 10. The babies entered in the scoring contest must have their names, their addresses and ages entered. Doctors Lee, Reynolds, Reed, Carson, Welrick, Butchart and Morseman will do the scoring and they will be assisted by the following graduate nurses: Mrs. David Williams, Miss Howe, Miss Beatty of Chisholm, Miss Gunderson, Miss Wang, Mrs. W. J. West and Mrs. J. M. Riggs. The scoring of the babies will take place on Saturday, March 11, at 9 a. m. and 1 p. m. at the Lincoln high school building.

CHISHOLM PHYSICIAN WHO IS CANDIDATE

DR. E. H. NELSON.

Chisholm, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The next village president of Chisholm will be a physician; this is a certainty as two doctors are the candidates—Dr. E. H. Nelson and Dr. E. E. Webber.

LOGGER KLINK PAYS BIG FINE AT COOK

Admits Illegal Use of Game Meat and Puts Up $100.

Cook, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Frank Klink, Jr., logger at the head of Pelican lake, arrested a few days ago by Game Wardens Wood and Beatty on the charge of serving moose meat and venison to his employes out of season, as told in The Herald, came before Judge E. F. Casey here yesterday afternoon, pleaded guilty and was fined $100, which he paid.

It develops that the wardens got a tip on Klink's illegal action through a confession Tony Perhag, a hunter, made to the wardens. Perhag alleges he contracted to furnish game meat to Klink for $28 a month, but that Klink paid him only $15, and he gave the snap away.

WANT LINDSEY MADE SUPERVISOR OF ROADS

Virginia, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Commercial club at its meeting tonight is expected to pass a resolution asking the county board to appoint Robert Lindsey of Virginia road supervisor for this district. President Greeley of the club is also expected to name the standing committees, and other matters will be considered.

DARKENS YOUR GRAY HAIR

Employs Sunlight—No Dyes or Sticky Mess—Harmless. Turns All Your Gray Hair and Entire Head of Hair, Dark and Lustrous.

If your hair is gray, streaked with gray, faded, dry, premature or just turning gray; or if your hair is falling; if you have dandruff and your head itches. Do this: Get from your druggist a 7-oz. bottle of Q-Ban Hair Color Restorer. Apply like a shampoo to hair and scalp and Dry Hair in Sunlight. This treatment makes hair and scalp healthy, so that all your gray hair and entire head of hair naturally turns evenly dark, soft, lustrous, clean, wavy, thick, charming—just as your hair appeared when you were 16 or 18 years old, without a trace of gray hair appearing. No more gray hairs, but healthy, radiantly beautiful dark hair. Q-Ban is harmless; no dyes, and sold on a money-back guarantee. By mail or at our store, 50c for a big 7-oz. bottle with complete directions for private home use. Orpheum Pharmacy, Duluth, Minn.

ELY SCHOOL BAND IS GIVEN BANQUET

Ely, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The school band members were entertained at a banquet Wednesday evening at Charles Hendrickson's confectionery by the Ely Mothers' club. The band is composed of twenty boys ranging in age from 11 to 18 years, under the direction of Richard Pierce. The band boys have rendered selections on several occasions for the mothers' club, and the club took this way of showing its appreciation.

ELY NOTES.

Ely, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Sewing Circle of the Finnish Lutheran church met at the home of Mrs. J. Hirvi this afternoon.

Mrs. Ralph Bartol of Hibbing is a guest of Mrs. Margaret Brown. Mrs. Bartol was formerly Miss Hattie Dennis, Ely being her girlhood home.

Prepare for Convention.

Hibbing, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—G. W. Lawson, secretary of the state federation of labor, met last evening at the Oliver hotel with all the local labor heads in a conference which will go to make up the preliminary plans for the big convention to be held in Hibbing next June.

Chisholm Couple Wed.

Chisholm, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Florence Porter and George Novell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Novell, were married Monday afternoon, Rev. Father Schiffrer officiating, at his residence. The couple were attended by Miss Lylas Poret and Lawrence Porter. The couple will make their home here, the groom being in the employ of the Shenango Furnace company.

SMALL PIMPLES ON BABY'S HANDS

And Feet, Grew Larger and Spread Rapidly to Limbs. Itched and Burned. Caused Disfigurement.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"When my baby was about one year old, small pimples appeared on her hands and feet. They grew larger and spread rapidly to her limbs until it seemed that her whole body would be covered. The pimples were hard and red, and seemed to have clear watery heads which oozed out water that hardened, and formed scales. They itched and burned and were very much aggravated by her clothing. Wherever the eruptions appeared, it caused great disfigurement.

"We began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In a week she was entirely healed." (Signed) Mrs. W. G. Carpenter, Amelia, Neb., July 14, 1915.

Sample Each Free by Mail

With 32-p. Skin Book on request. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston." Sold throughout the world.

EVELETH DEBATE.

Eveleth, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—At 1 o'clock Friday afternoon two debating teams of the freshman class will clash on the question of granting independence to the Philippine islands. Each class chooses two teams, from which one is chosen to represent the class in the interclass debates. The winners of the one which is to be held Friday will meet the junior team later on. The sophomores will debate with the seniors, and the two teams that win in these contests will meet for the high school championship.

Hibbing Engineer Dies.

Hibbing, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—William Silver, son of Abner Silver of the Penobscot location, died yesterday after a ten days' illness of pneumonia. The funeral will be held on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the home, and at 3 o'clock from the Methodist church. Mr. Silver was a locomotive engineer employed by the Oliver Iron Mining company. A wife and four children survive.

Eveleth Operetta.

Eveleth, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—"Boy Blue," an operetta, will be given by the children of the grade schools on April 7 and 8, under the supervision of Miss Emma E. Vogel, supervisor of music. The children of the fifth grades will sing all of the two-part music, and those of the third and fourth grades will sing the other parts.

Eveleth Buys Auto Truck.

Eveleth, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The city council, at an adjourned session Tuesday, took up several matters that could not wait until the regular meeting next Tuesday. Bids for an auto truck were opened and a contract let for the purchase of a Ford truck, the machine represented in Eveleth by Boyle & Mather. Election judges for the presidential primary March 14 were appointed.

Eveleth Market Popular.

Eveleth, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The February report of John Bakka, caretaker at the city market, to the council next Tuesday, will show that sales amounting to $1,446.93 were made through the market, and that 581 teams were stabled at the market barns during the month.

Ely Woman Passes.

Ely, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. J. Kangas, who has been ill for some time, died at her home on Monday morning of rheumatism and complications. She was 44 years of age. The funeral will be held on Sunday at 2 o'clock from the Finnish Lutheran church, Rev. Hirvi officiating. The Kaleva society will accompany the remains to the cemetery.

Explosion Victim Buried.

Chisholm, Minn., March 2.—The funeral of Vinco Arko, who was killed at the Glenn mine, was held at the St. Joseph Catholic church this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment was in the local cemetery. The St. Joseph's society, to which Arko belonged, met at 2 o'clock and accompanied the body to the cemetery.

Country School Entertainment.

Chisholm, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Erickson and Miss Gils, teachers at the country school on the farm of Andrew Roine in School District No. 25, will give a social and entertainment Saturday in the form of a program by the pupils, followed by lunch and a dance.

New Health Officer.

Eveleth, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Dr. Louis F. Huisman, new school and city health commissioner took up his work this week. Dr. Huisman comes from Vincennes, Ind., and his wife and child will remain there until spring when they will join him here.

Eveleth Coasting Party.

Eveleth, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Wazcemenahwee Camp Fire girls were hostesses at a coasting party last Monday evening. After two hours of coasting on the Sparta and Fayal hills, the party adjourned to the club rooms of the city auditorium where lunch was served.

Eveleth Band Dance.

Eveleth, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Eveleth Star band has engaged the city auditorium for Saturday night for a ball. Tobin's orchestra will furnish the music.

Oshkosh Strike Costly.

Oshkosh, Wis., March 2.—As a result of the mass meeting of strikers and others held at Armory E., a committee of eight representatives held a conference this afternoon in an effort to arbitrate the strike at the Paine Lumber plant.

It is stated that the strike means a loss of about $6,000 a week to the merchants of Oshkosh in trade and they are anxious to have the matter ended.

No Trouble to Remove Superfluous Hair

(Toilet Tips)

It is an easy matter to rid the skin of objectionable hair or fuzz, if you proceed as follows: Mix a paste with some water and a little powdered delatone, apply to hairy surface and in 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This method of banishing hairy growths is painless and does not mar the skin, but to avoid disappointment, be certain to get real delatone.—Advertisement.

OFFICIAL PROCEEDINGS.

Council Chamber,
Duluth, Minn., Feb. 28, 1916, 3 p. m.
Regular meeting.
Roll call:
Present — Commissioners Farrell, Merritt, Silberstein, Voss, Mayor Prince—5.
Absent—None.

On motion of Mayor Prince the minutes of the meeting of Feb. 21, 1916, were approved as published in pamphlet form, upon a vote by acclamation.

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS AND OTHER COMMUNICATIONS.

Mrs. Henry F. Greene, expressing appreciation for resolution of sympathy, passed by the city council in memory of Mr. Henry F. Greene.—Received.

Grand View Realty company, application for roadway through Congdon Park.—Commissioner of public affairs.

Louis M. Goldberg, claim for personal injury.

Olaf Johnson, claim for personal injury.—City attorney.

William Craig, application for reduction in assessment for cement sidewalk.

Albert W. Jacobs et al., for paving with brick of West First street from Twentieth to Thirtieth avenue west.—Commissioner of public works.

Applications for extended assessments Nos. 57 to 103, inclusive.—City treasurer.

Applications for license to sell cigarettes as follows:

B. Ossanna and Son, at No. 1428 Commonwealth avenue; M. L. Olander, at No. 5503 Grand avenue.

Applications and bonds for license to sell intoxicating liquors, as follows:

Joseph K. Elk, at No. 244 South First avenue east, being a transfer from Karl Lehto, at the same location; Peter Delovia, at No. 2504½ North Central avenue; Frank Kolnek, at No. 601 Garfield avenue; R. Sheasby, at No. 220 East Superior street.—Commissioner of public safety.

REPORTS OF OFFICERS.

City assessor, certifying assessment roll covering in full the cost of constructing plank sidewalks on East Eighth, East Tenth, West Fourth, West Fifth, West Sixth, Waseca, Quince, Cooke, Gladstone, Luverne, Jay, Anoka, Tioga, Faribault and Wicklow streets, Eleventh, Twelfth and Forty-sixth avenues east, Woodland avenue and Second street, Pond du Lac.—Commissioner of finance.

Judge of municipal court, recommending increase in salary for janitor of municipal court.

Commissioner of public utilities, submitting petition for extension of water and gas mains.

Recommending installation of incandescent light.—Received.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The resolution by Commissioner Merritt calling special election on the matter of the old armory re-ferendum, was upon motion of Commissioner Merritt, laid upon the table.

The resolution by Commissioner Farrell for the improvement of Forty-fourth avenue east from Superior street to McCulloch street, was upon motion of Commissioner Farrell laid over for one week for further consideration.

By Commissioner Merritt:

Resolved, That the contract for furnishing the water and light department with water and gas gates for the season of 1916, be and hereby is awarded to J. B. Clow & Sons, on their bid of $2,641.90.

Commissioner Merritt moved the adoption of the resolution and it was declared adopted upon the following vote:

Yeas—Commissioners Farrell, Merritt, Silberstein, Voss, Mayor Prince—5.
Nays—None.
Adopted Feb. 28, 1916.
Approved March 1, 1916.

INTRODUCTION AND CONSIDERATION OF ORDINANCES.

The ordinance by Commissioner Merritt entitled "An ordinance to repeal an ordinance entitled 'An ordinance to dispose of certain real property belonging to the City of Duluth' passed Jan. 3, 1916, approved Jan. 5, 1916," was read for the second time, and upon motion of Commissioner Merritt was laid upon the table.

The ordinance by Commissioner Farrell entitled "An ordinance to appropriate from the Public Works Fund the sum of $2,750.00 for the purchase of one seven-passenger automobile for the Division of Public Works," was read the third time.

Commissioner Farrell moved the passage of the ordinance and it was declared passed upon the following vote:

Yeas—Commissioners Farrell, Merritt, Silberstein, Voss, Mayor Prince—5.
Nays—None.

The ordinance by Commissioner Silberstein entitled "An ordinance to license and regulate hotels in the City of Duluth," was read the third time.

Commissioner Silberstein moved the passage of the ordinance and it was declared passed upon the following vote:

Yeas—Commissioners Farrell, Merritt, Silberstein, Voss, Mayor Prince—5.
Nays—None.

The ordinance by Commissioner Merritt entitled "An ordinance to appropriate the sum of $900.00 from the Public Utility Fund for the purchase of a chlorinator for the treatment of water at the Lakewood Pumping Station," was read the third time.

Commissioner Merritt moved the passage of the ordinance and it was declared passed upon the following vote:

Yeas—Commissioners Farrell, Merritt, Silberstein, Voss, Mayor Prince—5.
Nays—None.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS.

By Mayor Prince:

Resolved, That the Commissioner of Public Affairs is hereby authorized to advertise for bids for printing the annual reports of city officers for the year 1915.

Mayor Prince moved the adoption of the resolution and it was declared adopted upon the following vote:

Yeas—Commissioners Farrell, Merritt, Silberstein, Voss, Mayor Prince—5.
Nays—None.
Adopted Feb. 28, 1316.
Approved March 1, 1916.

By Mayor Prince:

Resolved, That commencing March 1, 1916, the salary of the janitor of the Municipal Court shall be at the rate of $50.00 per month.

Mayor Prince moved the adoption of the resolution and it was declared adopted upon the following vote:

Yeas—Commissioners Farrell, Merritt, Silberstein, Voss, Mayor Prince—5.
Nays—None.
Adopted Feb. 28, 1916.
Approved March 1, 1916.

By Commissioner Voss:

Resolved, That assessments be and hereby are confirmed, as follows:

Assessment levied to defray in full the balance of the cost of paving and otherwise improving Commonwealth avenue from Crestline Court to the south line of Gary, First Division.

Assessment levied to defray in full the cost of constructing a sanitary sewer in Dunedin alley from St. Andrews street to Lewis street, and in Lewis street to Melrose avenue.

Assessment levied to defray in full the cost of constructing a sanitary sewer in Forty-third avenue West from Fifth street to Fourth alley.

Assessment levied to defray in full the cost of constructing a sanitary sewer in Wabasha alley from Kolstad avenue to Elysian avenue, and in Kolstad avenue northerly and southerly 85 feet.

Commissioner Voss moved the adoption of the resolution.

An opportunity was offered for anyone to be heard relative to said assessments, but no one appeared who objected to the same.

The question being upon the adoption of the resolution, it was declared adopted upon the following vote:

Yeas—Commissioners Farrell, Merritt, Silberstein, Voss, Mayor Prince—5.
Nays—None.
Adopted Feb. 28, 1916.
Approved March 1, 1916.

By Commissioner Voss:

Resolved, That bills are hereby allowed and it is hereby directed that orders be drawn on the city treasurer to pay the same as follows:

PUBLIC SAFETY FUND.

Police Department.

Acme laundry, $5.91; Burgess Electric company, $10.50; Cornplanter Lubricating & Oil company, $23.50; city of Duluth water and light department, $25.92; Colvin-Robb Lumber company, $21.75; Diebold Safe & Lock company, $26.00; Duluth-Edison Electric company, $38.42; Duluth Telephone company, $124.81; East End Tire shop, $86.10; Frey company, $23.50; W. H. Healy company, $11.00; John Hogan & Co., $18.00; Kelley Hardware company, $9.75; Leack Printing company, $14.25; R. D. McKercher (Cont. fund), $24.83; Northern Electrical company, $71.41; North American Telegraph company, $76; Northwest Hupmobile company, $57.48; Northwestern Oil company, $80.13; Orpheum pharmacy, $2.90; L. A. Paddock company, $15.38; Pioneer Auto Radiator company, $9.35; Andrew Ruden, $12.00; R. & R. garage, $4.00; Western Union Telegraph company, $19.05; Vale laundry, $2.00; Zenith Telephone company, $59.50.

PUBLIC SAFETY FUND.

Health Department.

Duluth Edison Electric company, $5.05; Greer Printing company, $6.20; Leack Printing company, $5.55; Lamb & Tilden, $1.95; Charles Older, $8.80; Outlook Envelope company, $6.19.

LIBRARY FUND.

City of Duluth water and light department, $19.40; Duluth Glass Block store, $22.09; Home Laundry company, $26.74; Henry Lyce, $4550; Waldorf Bindery company, $46.25.

PUBLIC WELFARE FUND.

Park Department.

Duluth Builders' Supply company, $51.24; North Land Coal company, $15.75.

PUBLIC WELFARE FUND.

Welfare Department.

J. R. Batchelor (Cont. fund), $14.45; city of Duluth water and light department, $11.25; Duluth Marine Supply company, $98.16; Duluth-Edison Electric company, $3.40; John Wagner, clerk, $44.22.

PUBLIC WORKS FUND.

Architects' & Engineers' Supply company, $32.65; Bertram-Wright Lumber company, $9.85; W. H. Baker Printing company, $11.35; Colvin-Robb Lumber company, $4.94; Duluth Paper & Stationery company, $11.94; Deetz & Co., $3.17; Duluth Printing company, $29.30; The Fisk Rubber company, $20.15; Kelley-How-Thomson company, $12.02; Marshall-Wells Hardware company, $2.27; Northern Electrical company, $2.44; Olson & Johnson, $628.35; Proctor Water and Light company, $5.25; Pittsburgh Coal company, $159.48; Standard Oil company, $22.50.

PERMANENT IMPROVEMENT FUND.

Fred De Boer, $1,000.00; Hugh Fawcett, $8.66.00.

PUBLIC UTILITY FUND.

Simon Johnson, $1,170.35; Zenith Furnace company, $2,190.84.

GENERAL FUND.

Architects' & Engineers' Supply company, $40.57; W. H. Baker Printing company, $14.60; Burroughs Adding Machine company, $486.48; city of Duluth water and light department, $121.65; Carnegie Fuel company, $16.70; Duluth Printing company, $13.25; The Linen exchange, $11.25; G. E. McLean, treasurer, $28.05; B. McDonald, $200.00; Northern Electrical company, $3.04; Richardson Electric company, $8.83; J. A. Scott, city assessor (Cont. fund), $50.00; A. N. Weismiller, $71.53; Zenith Telephone company, $9.00.

GENERAL FUND (INFECTIOUS DISEASES).

Carnegie Fuel company, $41.30; city of Duluth water and light department, $21.67; Duluth-Edison Electric company, $28.56; Duluth Ice company, $75.60; Anton Moe, $91.60; Roach Bros., $6.00.

PERMANENT IMPROVEMENT REVOLVING FUND.

Crane & Ordway company, $25.25; Duluth Builders' Supply company, $5.50; to Pastoret Construction company on their Cont. No. 1661, $2,098.71.

Commissioner Voss moved the adoption of the resolution and it was declared adopted upon the following vote:

Yeas—Commissioners Farrell, Merritt, Silberstein, Voss, Mayor Prince—5.
Nays—None.
Adopted Feb. 28, 1916.
Approved March 1, 1916.

By Commissioner Voss:

Resolved, That the county auditor of St. Louis county is hereby authorized to receive the sum of $47.22 in full settlement of the assessment for sewer in Fifty-ninth avenue west and Polk street, in the city of Duluth, on the following described property: the westerly 100 feet of lots 15 and 16, block 130, West Duluth, Fifth division, provided the same is paid within ten days of the passage and publication of this resolution.

Commissioner Voss moved the adoption of the resolution and it was declared adopted upon the following vote:

Yeas—Commissioners Farrell, Merritt, Silberstein, Voss, Mayor Prince—5.
Nays—None.
Adopted Feb. 28, 1916.
Approved March 1, 1916.

By Commissioner Voss:

Resolved, That the city treasurer is hereby authorized to accept the amount of the original assessment levied against lot 6, block 28, Portland division, for the paving of Third avenue east, together with $1.50, the cost of publishing this resolution.

Commissioner Voss moved the adoption of the resolution and it was declared adopted upon the following vote:

Yeas—Commissioners Farrell, Merritt, Silberstein, Voss, Mayor Prince—5.
Nays—None.
Adopted Feb. 28, 1916.
Approved March 1, 1916.

By Commissioner Voss:

Resolved, That applications Numbers 57 to 103, inclusive, of owners of property for extension of time in which to make payment of the remaining portion of assessments, are hereby approved, and the extensions of time requested in said applications be and the same are hereby granted, such payments to be made in not to exceed three installments, payable in one, two or three years, the first installment to be due and payable Oct. 1, 1917.

Commissioner Voss moved the adoption of the resolution and it was declared adopted upon the following vote:

Yeas—Commissioners Farrell, Merritt, Silberstein, Voss, Mayor Prince—5.
Nays—None.
Adopted Feb. 28, 1916.
Approved March 1, 1916.

By Commissioner Farrell:

Whereas, a resolution was passed Sept. 27, 1915, and approved Sept. 29, 1915, ordering the improvement of Ninth street between Sixth and Seventh avenues east, by the department of public works by day labor, the cost thereof to be paid from the permanent improvement revolving fund, and ordering that an assessment be made upon the property specially benefited to defray the cost thereof; and

Whereas, the said public works department did not have sufficient equipment or material to complete said work, and for this reason, and the fast approaching cold weather, it was not possible to advertise for bids for same, and an emergency existed, which emergency is hereby defined and declared to exist, necessitating the rental of equipment and purchase of material from D. H. Clough & Co.; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the bill of D. H. Clough & Co. for equipment rented to and material furnished the city in improving Ninth street between Sixth and Seventh avenues east, in the sum of $234.00, is hereby approved; and the proper city authorities are hereby authorized and directed to draw an order on the permanent improvement revolving fund in said amount, in payment thereof; and the proper officers are directed to include said sum in the total cost of the improvements to be assessed against the property specially benefited by said improvement.

Commissioner Farrell moved the adoption of the resolution and it was declared adopted upon the following vote:

Yeas—Commissioners Farrell, Merritt, Silberstein, Voss, Mayor Prince—5.
Nays—None.
Adopted Feb. 28, 1916.
Approved March 1, 1916.

By Commissioner Farrell:

Resolved, That the resolution passed by this council Jan. 3, 1916, and approved Jan. 5, 1916, ordering the improvement of West First street, from Twentieth avenue west to Thirtieth avenue west, be and hereby is amended to read as follows:

"Whereas, a proper and sufficient petition has been presented to this council, petitioning for the improvement of West First street, from Twentieth avenue west to Thirtieth avenue west, in the city of Duluth, St. Louis county, Minnesota, as provided by section 62, chapter 9, of the charter of the city of Duluth.

"Resolved, That it is hereby ordered that West First street, in said city, from Twentieth avenue west to Thirtieth avenue west, be regraded where necessary; that the roadway be designed thirty-eight (38) feet wide and paved; that sewer, water and gas connections be laid to the curb where not already done; that provision be made for the drainage of surface water; and that all work be done which is necessary or incident to said improvement.

Resolved further, That in pursuance of section 8 of ordinance 407 of the city of Duluth, the city engineer is hereby directed to make an estimate of the cost of the above mentioned improvement; and that the city assessor is hereby directed, upon the making of said estimate, to proceed at once to assess so much of 80 per cent of said estimated cost of such improvement as is assessable, in pursuance or the terms of said ordinance.

Resolved further, That the resolution passed Jan. 11, 1915, and approved Jan. 13, 1915, providing for the improvement of Third street and Grand avenue, from Twenty-eighth avenue west to Fifty-fourth avenue west, is repealed, so far as it conflicts with this resolution."

Commissioner Farrell moved the adoption of the resolution and it was declared adopted upon the following vote:

Yeas—Commissioners Farrell, Merritt, Silberstein, Voss, Mayor Prince—5.
Nays—None.
Adopted Feb. 28, 1916.
Approved March 1, 1916.

By Commissioner Farrell:

Resolved, That the resolution passed by this council Oct. 15, 1915, and approved Oct. 16, 1915, ordering the improvement of West Third street and Grand avenue, from the easterly line of Twenty-eighth avenue west to the westerly line of Fifty-fourth avenue west, inclusive, be regraded where necessary; that the roadway be built forty-two feet wide and paved; that all necessary underground work be done before said pavement is laid; that provision be made for the drainage of surface water; that the grass spaces be covered with loam and seeded; and that all work be done which is necessary or incident to said improvement.

"Resolved further, That in pursuance of section 8 of ordinance 407 of the city of Duluth, the city engineer is hereby directed to make an estimate of the cost of the above mentioned improvement; and that the city assessor is hereby directed, upon the making of said estimate, to proceed at once to assess so much of 80 per cent of said estimated cost of such improvement as is assessable, in pursuance or the terms of said ordinance.

Resolved further, That the resolution passed Jan. 11, 1915, and approved Jan. 13, 1915, providing for the improvement of Third street and Grand avenue, from Twenty-eighth avenue west to Fifty-fourth avenue west, is repealed, so far as it conflicts with this resolution."

Commissioner Farrell moved the adoption of the resolution and it was declared adopted upon the following vote:

Yeas—Commissioners Farrell, Merritt, Silberstein, Voss, Mayor Prince—5.
Nays—None.
Adopted Feb. 28, 1916.
Approved March 1, 1916.

By Commissioner Farrell:

Resolved, That the following streets, avenues and alleys in Murray Hill addition to Duluth be and the same hereby are vacated:

Moody street from Oxford avenue to the corporate limits of the city; Wesleyan street from Oxford avenue to the corporate limits of the city; Calvin street from Oxford avenue to the corporate limits of the city; Ryan street from Oxford avenue to the corporate limits of the city; the alley between Moody street and Wesleyan street, from Oxford avenue to the corporate limits of the city; the alley between Calvin street and Wesleyan street from Oxford avenue to the corporate limits of the city; the alley between Calvin street and Ryan street from Oxford avenue to the corporate limits of the city; the alley south of Ryan street from Oxford avenue to the corporate limits of the city; all that part of Oxford street lying within the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of Section 18, Township 50, Range 14, west; all that part of Richmond avenue; all that part of Fargo avenue and all that part of Audubon avenue (formerly Franklin avenue) lying within the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of Section 18, Township 50, Range 14 west.

Commissioner Farrell moved the adoption of the resolution and it was declared adopted upon the following vote:

Yeas—Commissioners Farrell, Merritt, Silberstein, Voss, Mayor Prince—5.
Nays—None.
Adopted Feb. 28, 1916.
Approved March 1, 1916.

By Commissioner Farrell

Resolved, That public convenience and safety requires the construction of sidewalks as follows, and it is hereby ordered that the same be constructed:

A 6-foot plank walk on the east side of Third avenue west, from Fifth street to Sixth alley.

A 4-foot plank walk on the east side of Coates street, from Jenswold street northerly 300 feet.

A 6-foot plank walk on the easterly side of Twenty-fifth avenue west, from Superior street southerly 150 feet.

An 8-foot plank walk on the west side of Central avenue, from a point 300 feet north of Raleigh street northerly 50 feet.

A 4-foot plank walk on the southerly side of Tenth street, from Twelfth avenue east to Parkland avenue.

A 4-foot plank walk on the southerly side of Eleventh street, from Fifth avenue east to Sixth avenue east.

A 4-foot plank walk on the westerly side of Sixth avenue east, from Eleventh street to Eleventh alley.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Tenth street, from Sixth avenue east to Seventh avenue east.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Tenth street, from Eighth avenue east to Ninth avenue east.

A 4-foot plank walk on the easterly side of Seventh avenue east, from Eleventh street to Twelfth street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the easterly side of Fifth avenue east, from Seventh street to Eighth street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the easterly side of Seventh avenue east, from Eleventh street to Twelfth street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the easterly side of Fifth avenue east, from Seventh street to Eighth street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the southerly side of Seventh street, from Twenty-fourth avenue west to Twenty-fifth avenue west.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Restormel street, from Pacific avenue to west line of Bryant's addition.

A 4-foot plank walk on the west side of Sixty-ninth avenue west, from Grand avenue to Redruth street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the west side of Sixty-seventh avenue west, from Redruth street to Raleigh street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the east side of Sixty-sixth avenue west, from Polk street northerly 150 feet.

A 4-foot plank walk on the west side of Sixty-sixth avenue west, from Polk street to Nicollet street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the east side of Sixty-fifth avenue west, from Nicollet street to Roosevelt street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the west side of Sixty-fourth avenue west, from Polk street to Roosevelt street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the south side of Roosevelt street, from Sixty-second avenue west to Sixty-third avenue west.

A 4-foot plank walk on the west side of Sixty-second avenue west, from West Greene street to Bristol street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the east side of Sixty-first avenue west, from Raleigh street to a point 300 feet northerly of Polk street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the north side of Redruth street, from Fifty-eighth avenue west to Fifty-ninth avenue west.

A 4-foot plank walk on the north side of Redruth street, from a point 150 feet west of Fifty-ninth avenue west to Sixtieth avenue west.

A 4-foot plank walk on the easterly side of Twenty-second avenue west, from Fourth street to Fifth street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Richardson avenue, from Twenty-second avenue west to Twenty-third avenue west.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Ninth street, from Twenty-third avenue west to Twenty-fourth avenue west.

A 4-foot plank walk on the southerly side of Eighth street, from Twenty-second avenue west to Twenty-third avenue west.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Lemon street, from Highland avenue to Hugo street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the southerly side of Lemon street, from Highland avenue to Hugo street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the westerly side of Highland avenue, from Orange street to Lemon street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Tioga street, from Fiftieth avenue east to Fifty-first avenue east.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Dodge street, from Forty-sixth avenue east to Forty-seventh avenue east.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of St. Marie street, from Woodland avenue to a point 200 feet westerly of Montrose avenue.

A 4-foot plank walk on the southerly side of Seventh street, from Eighteenth avenue east to Nineteenth avenue east.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Luverne street, from Forty-second avenue east to Forty-third avenue east.

A 4-foot plank walk on the west side of Fifty-first avenue east, from Oneida street to Glenwood street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the southerly side of Glenwood street, from Fiftieth avenue east to Fifty-first avenue east.

A 4-foot plank walk on the westerly side of Fifty-eighth avenue east, from Avondale street northerly 140 feet.

A 4-foot plank walk on the westerly side of Fourteenth avenue east, from Sixth street to Seventh street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Myrtle street, from Hugo street to Ebony street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the easterly side of Twenty-second avenue west, from Piedmont avenue to Richardson avenue.

A 4-foot plank walk on the east side of Sixty-second avenue west, from Greene street to Bristol street.

A 6-foot plank walk on the north side of Redruth street, from Sixty-seventh avenue west to Sixty-eighth avenue west.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Oneida street, from Forty-sixth avenue east to Forty-seventh avenue east.

A 4-foot plank walk on the easterly side of Parkland avenue, from Belmont road to Belmont alley.

A 4-foot plank walk on the westerly side of Parkland avenue, from Tenth street to Belmont road.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Tenth street, from Parkland avenue westerly 50 feet.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Eden Lane avenue, from Belmont road to Parkland avenue.

A 4-foot plank walk on the southerly side of Eden Lane avenue, from Belmont road to Parkland avenue.

A 4-foot plank walk on the center line of Hawthorne road, from Vermilion road to Wallace avenue.

Resolved further, That it is hereby ordered that said work be done by contract, unless otherwise ordered by the city council, the cost thereof to be paid out of the permanent improvement revolving fund; and it is further ordered that an assessment be levied upon the property benefited by the construction of said walks, to defray the cost thereof, with such other expenses as under the provisions of the city charter may be assessed.

Commissioner Farrell moved the adoption of the resolution, and it was declared adopted upon the following vote:

Yeas—Commissioners Farrell, Merritt, Silberstein, Voss, Mayor Prince—5.
Nays—None.
Adopted Feb. 28, 1916.
Approved March 1, 1916.

By Commissioner Farrell:

Resolved, That public convenience and safety requires the construction of sidewalks as follows, and it is hereby ordered that the same be constructed:

A 6-foot plank walk on the east side of Fifth avenue west, from Fifth street to Sixth alley.

A 4-foot plank walk on the east side of Coates street, from Jenswold street northerly 300 feet.

A 6-foot plank walk on the easterly side of Twenty-fifth avenue west, from Superior street southerly 150 feet.

An 8-foot plank walk on the west side of Central avenue, from a point 300 feet north of Raleigh street northerly 50 feet.

A 4-foot plank walk on the southerly side of Tenth street, from Twelfth avenue east to Parkland avenue.

A 4-foot plank walk on the southerly side of Eleventh street, from Fifth avenue east to Sixth avenue east.

A 4-foot plank walk on the westerly side of Sixth avenue east, from Eleventh street to Eleventh alley.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Tenth street, from Sixth avenue east to Seventh avenue east.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Tenth street, from Eighth avenue east to Ninth avenue east.

A 4-foot plank walk on the easterly side of Seventh avenue east, from Eleventh street to Twelfth street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the easterly side of Fifth avenue east, from Seventh street to Eighth street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the easterly side of Seventh avenue east, from Eleventh street to Twelfth street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the easterly side of Fifth avenue east, from Seventh street to Eighth street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the southerly side of Seventh street, from Twenty-fourth avenue west to Twenty-fifth avenue west.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Restormel street, from Pacific avenue to west line of Bryant's addition.

A 4-foot plank walk on the west side of Sixty-ninth avenue west, from Grand avenue to Redruth street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the west side of Sixty-seventh avenue west, from Redruth street to Raleigh street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the east side of Sixty-sixth avenue west, from Polk street northerly 150 feet.

A 4-foot plank walk on the west side of Sixty-sixth avenue west, from Polk street to Nicollet street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the east side of Sixty-fifth avenue west, from Nicollet street to Roosevelt street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the west side of Sixty-fourth avenue west, from Polk street to Roosevelt street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the south side of Roosevelt street, from Sixty-second avenue west to Sixty-third avenue west.

A 4-foot plank walk on the west side of Sixty-second avenue west, from West Greene street to Bristol street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the east side of Sixty-first avenue west, from Raleigh street to a point 300 feet northerly of Polk street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the north side of Redruth street, from Fifty-eighth avenue west to Fifty-ninth avenue west.

A 4-foot plank walk on the north side of Redruth street, from a point 150 feet west of Fifty-ninth avenue west to Sixtieth avenue west.

A 4-foot plank walk on the easterly side of Twenty-second avenue west, from Fourth street to Fifth street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Richardson avenue, from Twenty-second avenue west to Twenty-third avenue west.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Ninth street, from Twenty-third avenue west to Twenty-fourth avenue west.

A 4-foot plank walk on the southerly side of Eighth street, from Twenty-second avenue west to Twenty-third avenue west.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Lemon street, from Highland avenue to Hugo street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the southerly side of Lemon street, from Highland avenue to Hugo street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the westerly side of Highland avenue, from Orange street to Lemon street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Tioga street, from Fiftieth avenue east to Fifty-first avenue east.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Dodge street, from Forty-sixth avenue east to Forty-seventh avenue east.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of St. Marie street, from Woodland avenue to a point 200 feet westerly of Montrose avenue.

A 4-foot plank walk on the southerly side of Seventh street, from Eighteenth avenue east to Nineteenth avenue east.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Luverne street, from Forty-second avenue east to Forty-third avenue east.

A 4-foot plank walk on the west side of Fifty-first avenue east, from Oneida street to Glenwood street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the southerly side of Glenwood street, from Fiftieth avenue east to Fifty-first avenue east.

A 4-foot plank walk on the westerly side of Fifty-eighth avenue east, from Avondale street northerly 140 feet.

A 4-foot plank walk on the westerly side of Fourteenth avenue east, from Sixth street to Seventh street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Myrtle street, from Hugo street to Ebony street.

A 4-foot plank walk on the easterly side of Twenty-second avenue west, from Piedmont avenue to Richardson avenue.

A 4-foot plank walk on the east side of Sixty-second avenue west, from Greene street to Bristol street.

A 6-foot plank walk on the north side of Redruth street, from Sixty-seventh avenue west to Sixty-eighth avenue west.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Oneida street, from Forty-sixth avenue east to Forty-seventh avenue east.

A 4-foot plank walk on the easterly side of Parkland avenue, from Belmont road to Belmont alley.

A 4-foot plank walk on the westerly side of Parkland avenue, from Tenth street to Belmont road.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Tenth street, from Parkland avenue westerly 50 feet.

A 4-foot plank walk on the northerly side of Eden Lane avenue, from Belmont road to Parkland avenue.

A 4-foot plank walk on the southerly side of Eden Lane avenue, from Belmont road to Parkland avenue.

A 4-foot plank walk on the center line of Hawthorne road, from Vermilion road to Wallace avenue.

Resolved further, That it is hereby ordered that said work be done by contract, unless otherwise ordered by the city council, the cost thereof to be paid out of the permanent improvement revolving fund; and it is further ordered that an assessment be levied upon the property benefited by the construction of said walks, to defray the cost thereof, with such other expenses as under the provisions of the city charter may be assessed.

Commissioner Farrell moved the adoption of the resolution, and it was declared adopted upon the following vote:

Yeas—Commissioners Farrell, Merritt, Silberstein, Voss, Mayor Prince—5.
Nays—None.
Adopted Feb. 28, 1916.
Approved March 1, 1916.

By Commissioner Farrell:

Resolved, That public convenience and safety requires the construction of sidewalks as follows, and it is hereby ordered that the same be constructed:

A 5-foot cement walk on the north side of Fifth street, from Twelfth to Thirteenth avenue east.

A 6-foot cement walk on the south side of Fifth street, from Eleventh to Twelfth avenue east.

A 5-foot cement walk on the west side of Thirteenth avenue east, from Second to Third street.

A 5-foot cement walk on the west side of Thirteenth avenue east, from Third street to Fourth alley.

A 6-foot cement walk on the west side of Twelfth avenue east, from Third street to Fourth alley.

A 5-foot cement walk on the east side of Eleventh avenue east, from Fourth street to a point 30 feet north of Fifth alley.

Repair walk on east side of Eleventh avenue east, from 30 feet north of Fifth alley to Fifth street.

A concrete crossing on the west side of Ninth avenue east, across Fifth street.

A 5-foot cement walk on the west side of Twelfth avenue east, from Sixth street to Sixth alley.

A 5-foot cement walk on the west side of Eighth avenue east, from Sixth street to Sixth alley.

A 5-foot cement walk on the east side of Seventh avenue east, from Fifth street to Sixth alley.

A 5-foot cement walk on the north side of Fifth street, from Seventh avenue east easterly 100 feet.

A 5-foot cement walk on the east side of Seventh avenue east, from Sixth street to Seventh alley.

A 6-foot cement walk on the east side of Ninth avenue east, from Third street southerly 65 feet.

A 6-foot cement walk on the south side of Third street, from Eighth avenue east easterly 125 feet.

A 6-foot cement walk on the east side of Eighth avenue east, from Third street to Third alley.

A 5-foot cement walk on the south side of Cascade street, from First avenue west easterly 250 feet.

A 5-foot cement walk on the west side of First avenue east, from a point 42 feet south of Seventh street to Seventh alley.

A 6-foot cement walk on the south side of Fifth street, from a point 25 feet easterly of Third avenue east easterly 50 feet.

A 6-foot cement walk on the southerly side of Fifth street, from Fourth avenue east westerly 100 feet.

A 5-foot cement walk on the westerly side of Fourth avenue east, from Seventh street to Eighth alley.

A 6-foot cement walk on the east-erly side of Sixth avenue east, from Sixth street to Seventh street.

A 5-foot cement walk on the northerly side of Sixth street, from Sixth avenue east easterly 50 feet.

A 5-foot cement walk on the southerly side of Seventh street, from Sixth avenue east easterly 100 feet.

A 6-foot cement walk on the southerly side of Fifth street, from Second avenue east easterly 100 feet.

A 6-foot cement walk on the southerly side of Fifth street, from Second avenue east easterly 150 feet.

A 6-foot cement walk on the easterly side of Lake avenue, from a point 28 feet southerly of Sixth street southerly 84 feet.

A 6-foot cement walk on the easterly side of First avenue east, from Fourth street to Fourth alley.

A 6-foot cement walk on the southerly side of Fourth street, from Second avenue east easterly 100 feet.

A 6-foot cement walk on the southerly side of Second street, from First avenue east easterly 150 feet.

An 8-foot cement walk on the easterly side of First avenue east, from Second street southerly 84 feet.

An 8-foot cement walk on the easterly side of First avenue east, from a point 28 feet southerly of Second alley southerly 22 feet.

An 8-foot cement walk on the westerly side of First avenue east, from a point 90 feet southerly of Second street southerly 25 feet.

A 6-foot cement walk on the southerly side of Second street, from a point 125 feet westerly of First avenue east westerly 25 feet.

A 6-foot cement walk on the easterly side of Second avenue east, from Fifth street to Sixth alley.

A 5-foot cement walk on the east side of Fifth street, from Seventh avenue east easterly 100 feet.

A 5-foot cement walk on the east side of Seventh avenue east, from Sixth street to Seventh alley.

A 6-foot cement walk on the east side of Ninth avenue east, from Third street southerly 65 feet.

A 6-foot cement walk on the south side of Third street, from Eighth avenue east easterly 125 feet.

A 6-foot cement walk on the east side of Eighth avenue east, from Third street to Third alley.

A 5-foot cement walk on the south side of Cascade street, from First avenue west easterly 250 feet.

A 5-foot cement walk on the west side of First avenue east, from a point 42 feet south of Seventh street to Seventh alley.

A 6-foot cement walk on the south side of Fifth street, from a point 25 feet easterly of Third avenue east easterly 50 feet.

A 6-foot cement walk on the southerly side of Fifth street, from Fourth avenue east westerly 100 feet.

A 5-foot cement walk on the westerly side of Fourth avenue east, from Seventh street to Eighth alley.

A 6-foot cement walk on the east-erly side of Sixth avenue east, from Sixth street to Seventh street.

A 5-foot cement walk on the northerly side of Sixth street, from Sixth avenue east easterly 50 feet.

A 5-foot cement walk on the southerly side of Seventh street, from Sixth avenue east easterly 100 feet.

A 6-foot cement walk on the northerly side of First street, from Eleventh avenue west easterly 50 feet.

A 6-foot cement walk on the easterly side of Twenty-first avenue west, from a point 25 feet southerly of First street to First alley.

A 5-foot cement walk on the northerly side of St. Andrew's street, from Woodland avenue to Abbottsford avenue.

A 5-foot cement walk on the southerly side of St. Andrews street, from Woodland avenue to Abbottsford avenue.

A 6-foot cement walk on the southerly side of Fourth street, from Twenty-fourth avenue west, westerly 50 feet.

A 6-foot cement walk on the southerly side of Fourth street, from a point 100 feet westerly of Twenty-fourth avenue west westerly 50 feet.

A 12-foot cement walk on the west side of Central avenue, from Nicollet street northerly 150 feet.

A 5-foot cement walk on the west side of Central avenue, from Nicollet street to Main street.

A 6-foot cement walk on the west side of Fifty-first avenue west, from Roosevelt street to Main street.

A 5-foot cement walk on the west side of Fifty-fourth avenue west, from Nicollet street to Main street.

A 6-foot cement walk on the west side of Fifty-fifth avenue west, from Ramsey street southerly 100 feet.

A 6-foot cement walk on the northerly side of Superior street, from Thirtieth to Thirty-first avenues west.

A 6-foot cement walk on the easterly side of Twenty-fifth avenue west, from Fourth to Fifth streets.

A 6-foot cement walk on the easterly side of Twenty-fifth avenue west, from Sixth street to a point 35 feet southerly of Sixth alley.

A 6-foot cement walk on the easterly side of Twenty-fifth avenue west, from Sixth to Seventh streets.

A 12-foot cement walk on the southerly side of Superior street, from Fifteenth avenue west, westerly 150 feet.

A 12-foot cement walk on the southerly side of Superior street, from a point 175 feet westerly of Fifteenth avenue west westerly 25 feet.

A 12-foot cement walk on the southerly side of Superior street, from a point 250 feet westerly of Fifteenth avenue west to Garfield avenue.

A 6-foot cement walk on the easterly side of Twenty-first avenue west, from Second street to Third alley.

A 5-foot cement walk on the westerly side of Sixty-first avenue west, from Greene street to Bristol street.

A 5-foot cement walk on the east side of Fifty-third avenue west, from Roosevelt street to Main street.

A 5-foot cement walk on the northerly side of Highland street, from Fifty-sixth avenue west to Fifty-seventh avenue west.

A 5-foot cement walk on the east side of Fifty-seventh avenue west, from Raleigh street northerly 250 feet.

A 5-foot cement walk on the west side of Fifty-seventh avenue west, from Roosevelt street to Bristol street.

A 6-foot cement walk on the easterly side of Fifty-second avenue west, from Superior street to Third alley.

A 6-

if any, in each proposed sleeping room; the number of water closets on each floor; the number and size of wash basins on each floor; the number and description of all bathing accommodations; the number and kinds of receptacles for refuse; and the number of beds or lodgers allowed in each sleeping room. Immediately after such inspection and within two weeks of the receipt of the notice from the City Clerk hereinbefore provided for, said Commissioner of Public Safety shall make report to the city council of the result of his inspection hereinbefore provided for, together with his recommendations as to the issuance or refusal of a license to conduct such hotel.

Sec. 4. Immediately after the receipt of such notice from the City Clerk and not later than two weeks from the receipt of such notice, the Commissioner of Public Safety, through the Chief of Police of said city, shall make a report to the City Council of the City of Duluth upon such application, together with his recommendations as to granting or refusal of such license and as to the truth or falsity of any statement contained in such application. Such report shall also give what information the Commissioner of Public Safety of said city or the Chief of Police have as to the character of the applicant or the general reputation of the building within which such hotel or lodging house is to be conducted and shall state as to whether or not in the knowledge of the Commissioner of Public Safety of said city or the Chief of Police such applicant, proprietor or owner has ever been arrested and charged with conducting a disorderly house or with having sold intoxicating liquors illegally.

Sec. 5. Upon the receipt of such reports from the Commissioner of Public Safety of said city, the City Council may, in their discretion, grant or refuse such license, but no such license shall be issued until all the regulations relating to hotels have been complied with. The annual license fee for such license is hereby fixed and established at the sum of five dollars ($5), which sum shall be paid to the City Treasurer before the issuance of such license. Upon the passage of a resolution by the City Council of the City of Duluth authorizing and directing the issuance of a license to any such applicant, and the presentation of a receipt of the City Treasurer for said license fee, the City Clerk of the City of Duluth shall issue to such applicant the license authorized and directed to be issued by such resolution. All licenses issued under this ordinance shall expire on the thirtieth day of April next following the issuance of the same.

Sec. 6. Any such license to conduct a hotel may be revoked by the City Council of the City of Duluth in its discretion, either upon its own motion or in its discretion upon the receipt of a report from the Commissioner of Public Safety or the Chief of Police of said city that such hotel is being conducted in a disorderly manner or that any immoral conduct or practices are being permitted therein, or that such hotel is being conducted, operated or maintained in violation of any of the laws of the State of Minnesota or ordinances of the City of Duluth.

Provided, however, that pending the action of the City Council or between sessions of the same, whenever it shall appear that any hotel within the meaning of this ordinance shall be conducted in a disorderly manner as herein set forth, the Commissioner of Public Safety may, after due investigation, suspend the license of any such hotel and cause the same to be temporarily closed pending the action of the City Council, as provided by the ordinance.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Public Safety and the Chief of Police of said city, immediately upon the receipt of any information or knowledge that any such hotel is being conducted in a disorderly manner or that any immoral conduct or practices are being permitted in any such hotel or lodging house, or that any law of the State of Minnesota or ordinance of the City of Duluth is being violated by the conduct of such hotel, to report such fact to the City Council of the City of Duluth. The City Council, immediately upon receipt of such report, shall consider the same and may in its discretion revoke such license.

Sec. 8. The Chief of Police of the City of Duluth shall, on the first Monday of the months of January April, July and October in each year, report in writing to the City Council upon the condition and conduct of all hotels within the City of Duluth, giving the names of any person or persons who, as proprietors or owners of any such hotels, have been convicted of selling liquor illegally or who have in the opinion of the Chief of Police been permitting any illegal or immoral practices within any such hotel. Such report shall also give the name and location of any hotel which in the opinion of the Commissioner of Public Safety or Chief of Police of the City of Duluth is being conducted in a disorderly manner or in which any immoral or unlawful conduct or practice is being permitted. The City Council may in its discretion, after consideration of such report and the facts therein reported, revoke the license of any hotel proprietor therein named.

Sec. 9. It shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Public Safety of the City of Duluth to order the Director of Public Health or his authorized deputies to at least twice in each year inspect all hotels in the City of Duluth for the conduct of which licenses have been issued, and after such inspection to report to the City Council the name and location of any hotel that is being conducted in an unclean or unsanitary manner or in violation of any of the laws of the State of Minnesota or ordinances of the City of Duluth as to public health or safety.

Sec. 10. Every person operating a hotel in the City of Duluth shall at all times keep a suitable book, to be known as the "Hotel Register," in which it shall be required that every person to whom a room is let or assigned shall have his, her or their names registered therein in ink, and shall set forth a proper statement of the date and the hour of the day at which the room was let or assigned. And it shall be unlawful for any person operating a hotel under the provisions of this ordinance to let or assign any room for sleeping accommodations or otherwise oftener than once in any period of ten hours following the time of its original assignment.

Sec. 11. Any person, firm or corporation now conducting or operating a hotel or who may hereafter conduct or operate such hotel without a license therefor or whose license is revoked by the City Council or to whom a renewal of license shall be denied or to whom an original license is denied; shall immediately cease to operate such hotel and shall immediately cease to employ the word "hotel" or any other word or sign in any place or upon any such building in designating or advertising the premises.

Sec. 12. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance or who shall conduct, operate, keep or maintain a hotel as herein defined, without first having obtained a license therefor as herein provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100) nor less than ten dollars ($10), or by imprisonment for not more than eighty-five (85) days for each offense, and each day that such violation continues shall constitute a separate offense.

Sec. 13. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force thirty days from and after its passage and publication.

Passed—Feb. 28, 1916.
Approved—March 1, 1916.
W. I. PRINCE, Mayor.

Attest:
W. H. BORGEN,
City Clerk.

Ordinance No. 730.

By Commissioner Merritt:

AN ORDINANCE TO APPROPRIATE THE SUM OF $900.00 FROM THE PUBLIC UTILITY FUND FOR THE PURCHASE OF A CHLORINATOR FOR THE TREATMENT OF WATER AT THE LAKEWOOD PUMPING STATION.

The City of Duluth does ordain:

Section 1. That there be and hereby is appropriated the sum of $900.00 from the Public Utility Fund for the purchase of a chlorinator for the treatment of water at the Lakewood Pumping Station;

Section 2. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force thirty days after its passage and publication.

Passed Feb. 28, 1916.
Approved March 1, 1916.
W. I. PRINCE, Mayor.

Attest:
W. H. BORGEN,
City Clerk.

D. H., March 2, 1916. D 1846.

CITY NOTICES.

NOTICE OF HEARING ON ASSESSMENTS FOR LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS—

City Clerk's Office,
Duluth, Minn., March 2, 1916.

Notice is hereby given that the assessments levied to defray in full the cost of constructing plank sidewalks on East Eighth, East Tenth, West Fourth, West Fifth, West Sixth, Wasesca, Quince, Cooke, Gladstone, Luverne, Jay, Anoka, Tioga, Faribault and Wicklow streets, Eleventh, Twelfth and Forty-sixth avenues east, Woodland avenue, and Second street, Fond du Lac, have been completed, and the roll is now on file in my office, and that on Monday, March 13, 1916, in the council chamber, city hall, Duluth, Minn., at 3 o'clock, p. m., the council will hear the appeals of parties aggrieved by said assessments, and that unless sufficient cause is shown to the contrary, the assessment as made will be confirmed at the meeting above mentioned.

W. H. BORGEN,
City Clerk.

D. H., March 2, 1916. D 1847.

NOTICE OF CONFIRMATION OF ASSESSMENTS FOR LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS—

City Clerk's Office,
Duluth, Minn., March 2, 1916.

Notice is hereby given that the assessments hereinbelow mentioned were duly confirmed by the city council of the city of Duluth at a meeting thereof, held Feb. 28, 1916, and that the same are now payable at the city treasurer's office at any time within forty days from the date of the publication of this notice, and that unless the same are paid on or before April 11, 1916, or an application is made to the city council, signed by the owner of property assessed, for the extension of time of payment of same, as provided by section 68 of the city charter, on or before April 1, 1916, a penalty of 10 per cent will be added to such assessments. The assessments referred to are as follows:

Assessment levied to defray in full the balance of the cost of paving and otherwise improving Commonwealth avenue from Crestline Court to the South line of Gary, First division.

Assessment levied to defray in full the cost of constructing a sanitary sewer in Dunedin alley from St. Andrews street to Lewis street, and in Lewis street to Melrose avenue.

Assessment levied to defray in full the cost of constructing a sanitary sewer in Forty-third avenue west from Fifth street to Fourth alley.

Assessment levied to defray in full the cost of constructing a sanitary sewer in Wabasha alley from Kolstad avenue to Elysian avenue, and in Kolstad avenue northerly and southerly eighty-five feet.

W. H. BORGEN,
City Clerk.

D. H., March 2, 1916. D 1848.

LEGAL NOTICES.

ORDER FOR HEARING ON PETITION FOR ADMINISTRATION—

State of Minnesota.
County of St. Louis—ss.

In Probate Court. In the Matter of the Estate of Pauline Dolan, Decedent.

The petition of Watson S. Moore having been filed in this court, representing, among other things, that Pauline Dolan, then being a resident of the county of Cook, state of Illinois, died intestate, in the county of Cook, state of Illinois, on the 9th day of June, 1914, leaving estate in the county of St. Louis, state of Minnesota, and that said petitioner is the creditor of said decedent and praying that letters of administration of the estate of said decedent be granted to said Watson S. Moore.

It is ordered, That said petition be heard before this court, at the probate court rooms in the courthouse in Duluth, in said county, on the 17th day of March, 1916, at 10 o'clock a. m., and all persons interested in said hearing and in said matter are hereby cited and required at said time and place to show cause, if any there be, why said petition should not be granted.

Ordered further, That this order be served by publication in The Duluth Herald according to law, and that a copy of this order be served on the county treasurer of St. Louis county not less than ten days prior to said day of hearing, and that a copy of this order be mailed to each heir of decedent at least fourteen days before the said date of hearing.

Dated at Duluth, Minn., Feb. 23, 1916.
By the Court, S. W. GILPIN, Judge of Probate.
Attest:
A. R. MORTON, Clerk of Probate.
Seal Probate Court, St. Louis Co., Minn.
D. H., Feb. 24, March 2, 9, 1916.

CERTIFICATE OF AMENDMENT
—OF—
ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
—OF—
THE SWANSTROM INVESTMENT COMPANY.

We, the undersigned, being respectively the President and Secretary of The Swanstrom Investment Company, do hereby certify that at a special meeting of the stockholders of the said The Swanstrom Investment Company, duly convened, and at which there was present, in person or by proxy, the owners of all of the capital stock of the said The Swanstrom Investment Company, and which said meeting was held on the 25th day of February, A. D., 1916, at the general office of the company at No. 19, Twenty-first avenue west, in the City of Duluth, St. Louis County, Minnesota, at 7:30 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, for the purpose of considering the matter of amending the Articles of Incorporation of said company so as to increase the amount of indebtedness or liability to which the corporation can at any time be subjected, the following resolution was duly adopted by the affirmative vote of all of the stockholders and of all of the shares of The Swanstrom Investment Company, viz.,

"Resolved, by the stockholders of The Swanstrom Investment Company, That the articles of incorporation of said The Swanstrom Investment Company be and the same hereby are amended so that Article VIII thereof shall read as follows:

VIII.

The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which this corporation shall at any time be subjected shall be Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00)."

And we further certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of said resolution and amendment of the articles of incorporation of the said The Swanstrom Investment Company.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We, Charles W. Swanstrom, President, and Joseph C. Helm, Secretary, of said The Swanstrom Investment Company, have hereunto set our hands and caused the corporate seal of said corporation to be affixed hereto at Duluth, Minnesota, this 25th day of February, A. D. 1916.

CHARLES W. SWANSTROM, President.

JOSEPH C. HELM, Secretary.

(Corporate Seal, The Swanstrom Investment Company, Duluth, Minnesota.)

Signed, Sealed and Delivered in Presence of:
W. A. SWANSTROM.
A. F. SWANSTROM, JR.
E. A. SWANSTROM.

State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis—ss.

Personally came before me, on this 25th day of February, A. D. 1916, Charles W. Swanstrom and Joseph C. Helm, to me personally known, who, being by me each duly sworn, did say that they are respectively the President and Secretary of The Swanstrom Investment Company, the corporation named in the above and foregoing certificate; that the seal affixed to the foregoing certificate is the corporate seal of said corporation; that the above and foregoing certificate was made, signed and sealed by them at the request and by the direction and authority of all of the stockholders of the said corporation, and the said Charles W. Swanstrom and Joseph C. Helm acknowledged the foregoing instrument to be the free act and deed of said corporation.

THOMAS A. MERRITT,
Notary Public,
St. Louis County, Minnesota.
My commission expires July 6, 1917.
(Notarial Seal, St. Louis Co., Minn.)

State of Minnesota, Department of State.

I hereby certify that the within instrument was filed for record in this office on the 29th day of February, A. D. 1916, at 9 o'clock A. M., and was duly recorded in Book B-4 of Incorporations, on page 370.

JULIUS A. SCHMAHL, E.
Secretary of State.

244084.

OFFICE OF REGISTER OF DEEDS.
State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis—ss.

I hereby certify that the within instrument was filed in this office for record March 1, 1916, at 8:30 A. M., and was duly recorded in Book 17 of Misc., page 312.

CHAS. CALLIGAN,
Register of Deeds.
By C. L. LOFGREN, Deputy.

D. H., March 2, 3, 1916.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE—

Notice is hereby given, That default has been made in the conditions of that certain mortgage, bearing date the 4th day of August, 1913, made and executed by Percilia Kreiwitz and Fred M. Kreiwitz, her husband, mortgagors, to Berthold Heimann, mortgagee, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for St. Louis County, Minnesota, on August 15th, 1913, at 12 o'clock M., in Book 309 of Mortgages, on Page 310. Said default consists in the non-payment by said mortgagors of the semi-annual installment of interest on said mortgage due February 4th, 1916, amounting to Thirty-two Dollars ($32.00), and in the failure of said mortgagors to pay, when due, the taxes on the premises described in said mortgage for the years 1913 and 1914, whereby said taxes have become and are delinquent, contrary to the provisions of said mortgage. By reason of such default, and pursuant to the terms of said mortgage, said Berthold Heimann, mortgagee, elects to declare, and does declare, all sums secured by said mortgage to be due and payable. And by reason of said default and said election, the power of sale in said mortgage has become operative, and no suit at law or otherwise has been instituted to recover the amount secured by said mortgage. There is claimed to be due, and is due, upon said mortgage at the date hereof, the sum of eight hundred and thirty-two dollars and eighty-eight cents ($832.88). The property described in said mortgage and thereby mortgaged is situated in St. Louis County, Minnesota, and is described as follows:

The east one-half (E½) of Lot Five (5), Block Twenty (20), Highland Park Addition to Duluth, according to the recorded plat thereof.

Now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, said mortgage will be foreclosed by the sale of said premises, at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, by the Sheriff of St. Louis County, Minnesota, at the Sheriff's office in the County Court House in the City of Duluth, St. Louis County, Minnesota, on Monday, March 27th, 1916, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, to satisfy the amount due on said mortgage, taxes and assessments paid by said mortgagee hereafter and prior to said date of sale, taxes, if any, then due on said premises, and the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) attorneys' fees, and the costs and disbursements allowed by law.

BERTHOLD HEIMANN,
Mortgagee.

Dated February 10th, 1916.
BALDWIN, BALDWIN & HOLMES,
Attorneys for Mortgagee,
Suite 900 Alworth Building,
Duluth, Minn.,
D. H., Feb. 10, 17, 24, March 2, 9, 16, 1916.

WEST DULUTH

HERALD BRANCH OFFICES:

Spencer Pharmacy, 402 Central Avenue, Advertising and Subscriptions. A. Jensen, Fifty-seventh Avenue West and Grand Avenue, Distribution.

Herald's West Duluth reporter may be reached after hour of going to press at Calumet 173-M and Cole 247.

ALL WORKING AT CAPACITY

West Duluth Factories Never So Busy as at Present Time.

More Men Employed Than at Any Time in City's History.

Idleness in West Duluth is a thing of the past. In comparison with a year ago when the streets were crowded with men out of work, this end of the city is now a scene of activity such as never before has been experienced in the history of West Duluth.

Virtually every factory and industry in this end of the city is working at capacity basis. Only one large plant is idle, the West Duluth Alger-Smith sawmill, and that will be running as soon as the ice breaks up in the local harbor and gives the company an opportunity of placing its logs in the water.

The National Iron Works is employing nearly 200 men, many of whom are getting in a lot of overtime in the rush of getting out the big orders. Officials of the plant are bending every effort to turn out the orders that have been pouring into the place.

Day and night crews are working steadily at the Diamond Calk & Horse Shoe works. Orders which will keep the plant working at capacity for several months are now said to be on hand.

Enlarging Plant.

The Radford company, which recently took over the Nelson Sash & Door factory on Forty-sixth avenue, is making large improvements and will employ a force of men considerable larger than formerly. Another story is being added to the factory at a cost of about $5,000.

The force of men employed at the Universal Portland Cement company has been gradually increased during the last two months until now it numbers about 300 men. About half of them are employed in the manufacture of cement while the others are working on construction. The plant will ultimately employ about 350 men.

Nearly 2,000 men are now on the payrolls of the Duluth Steel plant. Construction work is the greatest employer of labor at this industry and will be for some time to come, according to officials. Only about one-third of the men are employed in the actual manufacture of steel. These men are employed about the open hearth, blast furnaces, coke ovens and yards.

Among the other plants in this end of the city which are working on a capacity basis are the Zenith Furnace plant, Union Match factory, Imperial Iron works, American Carbolite plant, Western Rug factory, Wallinder Sash & Door factory, Minnesota Radiator company and the Duluth Brass works.

COULD BE USED IN CLEANING ALLEYS

West Duluthian Would Have Petty Offenders Work in City.

Habitual offenders picked up by the police could be used to assist in the spring clean-up campaign, according to a suggestion made by a West Duluth business man this morning. Many of the offenders who are sent to the work farm, some of whom, say the police, never work except when on the farm, can be put at this work when the thaw comes.

"Some of these men, under the guard of a policeman, can clean up the alleys and save the city departments considerable money," said the merchant this morning. "Each property owner who is so benefited would gladly pay the sum of say 50 cents for having his alley cleaned. This sum will more than pay for the keep of the men in jail.

"If some of the old offenders who are continually breaking into jail were given this kind of employment and compelled to sleep on the hard benches in the local jail, they would not enjoy being 'pinched' so much. But the fact is that when they are taken to the work farm they experience better food, warmer lodging and cleaner clothes than they probably have had in years. It is no punishment to some of these fellows to be sent to the work farm."

FACTORIES IN EAST SOLD OUT

Manager of Boston Store Tells of Great Prosperity.

M. R. Mann, manager of the Boston store, has returned from a business trip to Eastern markets. Mr. Mann said yesterday that the markets of the East were swamped with orders, and that many big factories had already sold their complete output for the year.

"At one Eastern factory the entire output for the year was sold in two days," said Mr. Mann. "The salesmen have been called in from the road and customers line the salesrooms. In another factory, in order to be able to buy 100 bolts of dark prints it would be necessary to order at least 300 light prints."

Mr. Mann said that every indication points to the most prosperous year in the history of the nation.

PLAN BENEFIT FOR NEEDY FAMILY

The Mothers' club of the Merritt school, Fortieth avenue west and Sixth street, will entertain this evening at the school for members and their friends. A small admission will be charged, and proceeds from admission and from the booths will be given to a needy family.

Following is the program:

Piano solo .....
Miss Clara Goodland.
Reading—"When Hulda Specs Her Beau" .....
Little Miss Carol Wahl.
Folk dance .....
Small Girls in Costume.
Reading—"Sermon Time" .....
Gerard Merritt.
Vocal solo—"Cradle Song" .....
Mrs. Russell G. Briggs.
Reading—"The Highwayman" .....
Alfred Noyes.
Violin and piano duet—"Adoration" .....
Miss Bertha Schaller and Miss Marian Schaller.
Address .....
G. M. Paulus, Principal of the School.
Flute solo—From "La Traviata".Verdi
J. A. Belanger.

LUTHER LEAGUE WILL ENTERTAIN

The Luther League of the Bethel Swedish Lutheran church, Fifty-third avenue west and Wadena street, will entertain this evening at the church in honor of the dedication of a newly purchased piano. A program of musical numbers and short addresses has been arranged. The program follows:

Piano solo .....
Prof. A. F. Lundholm.
Address .....
Rev. Gustaf Oberg.
Violin solo .....
Gustaf Jackson.
Vocal solo .....
Miss Nora Otterson.
Reading .....
Miss Anna Marie Extrom.
Piano solo .....
Miss Maude Gilbert.
Vocal solo .....
Miss Annette Johnson.
Piano solo .....
Miss Marie Krantz.

ANNIVERSARY OF FOUNDING OF LODGE

The tenth anniversary of the organizing of Edda lodge, No. 15, Daughters of Norway, will be observed with a special program and ceremony on Thursday evening, March 16, at the Great Eastern hall, 210 North Central avenue. Invitations will be extended to members of other Daughters of Norway lodges of the city, as well as the Sons of Norway.

A musical and literary program will be arranged for the occasion, and an elaborate banquet will be served. The program will be arranged by a committee consisting of Mrs. P. A. Lund, Miss Mabel Holterud and Miss Freda Holterud. Those in charge of the supper will be Mrs. A. Wang, Mrs. A. Larson, Mrs. A. Dahl, Mrs. M. Thornes, Mrs. Mr. Nelson, Mrs. A. Anderson, Mrs. M. Shellerud, Miss Mary Alveson, Miss Anna Erickson and Miss Alta Olson.

A meeting of the two committees to arrange the details will be held at the West Duluth Commercial clubrooms tomorrow afternoon.

PLAY AS SCHEDULED.

Curlers Will Begin Two New Events This Week.

Games are now being played as scheduled at the Western curling rink. Two new events will be begun this week, the Universal Flour and Henricksen Jewelry.

The result of games last night follows: Mallory 10, Zauft 9, Melvin Olson 12, R. F. Wade 11, Albert Jewelry event; J. McDonald 10, Quinn 7, Siewert event.

The games tonight will be R. F. Wade vs. A. Donald, T. F. Olsen vs. Mel Olson, Siewert event; Joe McDonald vs. F. H. Wade, Universal event.

PROCTOR WILL ELECT OFFICERS

The Citizens' party of Proctor will hold its annual village caucus this evening for the purpose of nominating candidates for village offices. The present officials will be renominated, it is expected, and only one position remains to be filled—that of trustee, which was made vacant by the recent death of Alderman-Noble Downey.

The present officials of the village are: Charles Ramfrey, village president; R. G. Wombacker, recorder; C. A. Clement and W. J. Greene, trustees. The Taxpayers' party will hold a caucus within the next two weeks. The election will be held in April.

WILL INVESTIGATE MILK ORDINANCE

In order to investigate further the merits of the proposed milk ordinance, a committee consisting of J. B. Gibson, O. M. Olson and O. A. Wicklund, was appointed last night at the meeting of the Oneota and Hazlewood Improvement club. Discussions of the ordinance showed that many of the members present were opposed to some of its chief provisions. Extension of sewer and gas mains were also discussed.

Basket Social.

A basket social followed by dancing will feature a social entertainment provided for members of Josta lodge No. 243, Order of Vasa, at Victor's hall, 6528 Grand avenue, tomorrow evening. The committee in charge consists of Fred Anderson, chairman; Alfred Walstrom, Anton Stone, Miss Christina Anderson, Miss Henney Isaacson and Miss Mildred Holt.

Sleighride Party.

A number of West Duluth young people enjoyed a sleighride last Friday evening. After the ride luncheon was served at the home of Miss Jennie Freeberg, 7009 Raleigh street. Those present were: Misses Anna Anderson, Olga Anderson, Jennie Freebergs, Emily Magnusson, Jennie Johnson, Hulda Lavene; Messrs. Harry Hanson, Henry rosell, Oscar Johnson, Fred Magnuson, Herbert Johnson, Hjalmer Johnson.

Return From Chicago.

Arthur O. Baer, superintendent of the blast furnaces at the Duluth steel plant, and Mrs. Baer returned this morning from a short visit to Chicago. Mr. Baer was in Chicago to purchase repairs for machinery at the plant. Mr. and Mrs. Baer reside at Morgan Park.

West Duluth Briefs.

The Epworth League of the Bethany Norwegian-Danish M. E. church, Sixty-fifth avenue and Polk street, will entertain at a social at the church this evening.

Louis Dallare, 5514 Grand avenue, fell on the sidewalk in front of his residence last night, cutting his face and wrenching his back.

Mrs. E. W. F. Boerner, 911 North Central avenue, entertained this afternoon for the West Duluth W. C. T. U. Mrs. Alfred Jaques was leader, presenting the subject, "Liquor Revenue." The hostess was assisted by Mrs. O. T. Strand and Mrs. Fred De Boer.

Victrolas and records at Spencer's. Easy payments if desired.

Mrs. Henry Hill, 4715 Cody street, left last evening for Alpena, Mich., where she was called owing to the serious illness of a relative.

West Duluth lodge, No. 85, Degree of Honor, will hold a business meeting at Gilley's hall tomorrow evening.

For rent—Furnished room, suitable for one or two gentlemen. Cole 288-Y.

419 North Fifty-fourth avenue west

Watch repairing. Hurst. West Duluth.

HEAVY SALES OF FISH TO EASTERN MARKETS

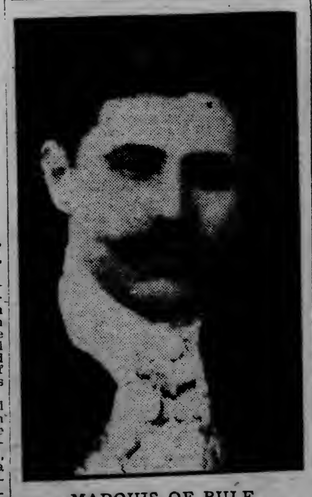
St. Paul, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Carp and buffalo taken from a half dozen Minnesota lakes realized local fishermen nearly $40,000 during the month of February. Although scorned by Minnesota lovers of lake fish the carp and buffalo offered for sale was eagerly snapped up by the Eastern markets, where it brought a fancy price. Since the first of October, when the taking of rough fish from Minnesota lakes began, nearly $100,000 worth of fish have been shipped east.

When complaint is made or an application filed, contracts are let for the removal of what is known as rough fish from the lakes. As reimbursement the state exacts 20 per cent of all sales made and so far this year $17,000 has been paid into the state treasury by the holders of such contracts. Last month the state's share was nearly $8,000.

The season closes April 1, and Carlos Avery, state game and fish commissioner, estimated today that the state will realize nearly $25,000 from the contracts in force.

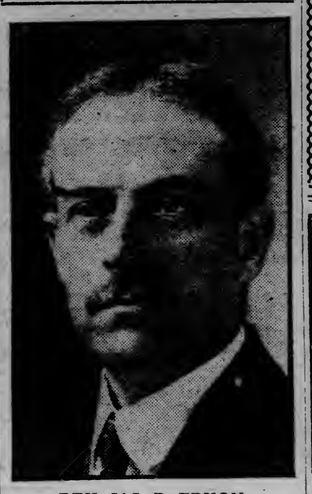
Although about thirty permits are in existence only about six lakes are being fished.

MARQUIS GOES TO FRONT TO REVENGE DEATH OF BROTHER



MARQUIS OF BULE.

NEW ENGLAND DIRECTOR OF AMERICAN PEACE SOCIETY



REV. JAS. R. TRYON.

James R. Tryon, the director of the New England branch of the American Peace society, who has been active in the propaganda for peace recently, has had a remarkable many-sided training. He had six years of military training in his youth, was an officer of the Maine militia and a writer on military topics. After a study of Civil war campaigns on Southern battlefields he joined the peace movement. Dr. Tryon has been a news-editor in Portland, Bangor and other cities. He has addressed audiences abroad in the interest of peace.

CHANCE FOR DISCUSSION

Proposed Milk Ordinance Will Be Given Thorough Airing.

No Hasty Action Will Be Taken, Says Silberstein.

No action will be taken on the proposed milk ordinance until its provisions are satisfactory to the public, according to an announcement made today by Commissioner Silberstein, head of the safety division.

"As soon as the public is fully acquainted with the measure and its fairness," he said. "I am sure that opinions will change. There is a misunderstanding at present and, as a result, many are attacking the measure.

"The milk ordinance is only in its first draft and is now being gone over by a committee of Duluth physicians. The city attorney is also studying the measure and a final draft will not be completed for two or three weeks.

"When the ordinance is ready for action, copies will be given to all those interested and the public given an opportunity to fully understand its provisions. There are many technical terms used and, being unfamiliar with these, many persons are making unfair attacks at this time. I am sure that after the people of Duluth become thoroughly acquainted with the ordinance it will be favored generally and the council commended for making it a law."

The safety head declared that the ordinance was not drawn to drive the small dairyman out of business, nor to favor the big interests. He pointed out that the provisions compelling the larger corporations to buy milk from outside sources, only after the animals have been given the tuberculin test and the product passes a fair bacterial count, is very much opposed by them and has been for some time. It means that only pure milk can be shipped into Duluth, whether it is sold in its raw state or used for pasteurization purposes.

ITALY TO CONTINUE TO ARM HER LINERS

Decision of Government Is Presented to the State Department.

Rome, March 2, via Paris.—The Italian ambassador at Washington, Count Macchi, has been instructed to notify the American government that, notwithstanding the German and Austrian decrees regarding the sinking of armed merchantmen, Italian merchantmen will continue to carry armament.

The ambassador also has been instructed to say that Italian merchantmen will use their artillery only for defensive purposes.

Presents Views.

Washington, March 2.—Count Macchi di Cellere, the Italian ambassador, conferred today with Secretary Lansing, presenting the views of his government on armament of merchant ships. It was said that the Italian government's reply to the American memorandum is not final and that its formal answer will be a joint one with its allies. The information being presented now, it was said, was a statement of the reasons which had actuated Italy to arm Italian merchant ships, which hitherto had carried no guns.

LINDBERGH WILL NOT LEAVE UNDER FIRE

Washington, March 1.—Representative Lindbergh of Minnesota, in a letter addressed to J. J. Opsahl of Bemidji, Minn., yesterday, discussed a report that he may run for the United States senate. He declared certain newspapers that fear he will run for congress again are circulating the report.

"I did not expect to worry them with my candidacy," he said, "but when I do voluntarily retire from the field it will not be at a time when I am under fire."

CITY COUNCIL WILL NOT RAISE CIRCUS LICENSE

Duluth children might well be happy. City commissioners are still "kids" enough to enjoy circuses and, as a result, the big "white tops" may come to Duluth as often as they please.

A suggestion at a conference of the city commissioners yesterday that the circus license should be raised from $250 to $500 a day was immediately turned down, each of the officials declaring himself emphatically for the "three rings."

"We don't want to bar the circus by a high license," was the unanimous opinion of the councilmen.

GOOD RENTALS

In an excellent location at the West end, a two-flat building, five rooms and bath down, four rooms up; rental $30 per month. Price $3,150—on favorable terms. (5875)

Near Portland Square, two flats, five rooms and bath in each; rental $37 per month; easy terms; price $3,750. (8057)

MONEY ON HAND FOR LOANS.

STRYKER, MANLEY & BUCK

Employes of the Steel and Cement Plants Should Visit

OLIVER

THE STEEL CITY

And look at the 5-room houses that can be bought on very easy terms.

Call us by telephone or come to our office and we will show you our newly-built houses with no obligation to you.

OLIVER TOWNSITE CO.
300-1 Alworth Bldg., Duluth, Minn.

GRASP THIS WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITY

to buy now and sell at a profit before you have your lot all paid for.

HOMEWOOD

$1 to $5 cash, $1 to $5 per week, including interest. Lots 30x140, some 40x140, all to 16-foot alley. Prices, $100 to $700.

WHITNEY WALL CO.
Real Estate—Loans—Insurance
301 TORREY BUILDING.

Don't Pay Rent

BUY A HOME ON EASY TERMS.

No. 1315 East Ninth St., 5 rooms, hardwood floors and finish; city water, sewer, bath, gas.

No. 426 Thirteenth Ave. East, and No. 1308 East Fifth St. have 6 rooms each and bathroom, and are strictly modern.

No. 815 East Eighth St. has 6 rooms; hardwood finish and modern conveniences.

SMALL FIRST PAYMENT; BALANCE SAME AS RENT.

EBY & GRIDLEY
508 PALLADIO BLDG.

A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY

For a limited time we offer for sale a brick business block in the West End Business Section on Superior street, three stores, all rented. A good paying investment that will increase in value.

F. I. SALTER CO.
302-303 LONSDALE BLDG.

EAST END

We have the following homes that we can offer on easy terms:

2120 EAST FIFTH STREET

Almost new, seven rooms, hot water heat, fireplace, laundry, hardwood finish and floors, beamed ceiling in dining room; lot 50x140; alley paved.

426 SEVENTEENTH AVE. EAST

Six rooms, hot water heat, laundry, hardwood finish and floors first floor, white enamel second floor; lot 35x80.

PULFORD, HOW & COMPANY
609 Alworth Bldg.

GERMANS HAVE LOST 125,000 AT VERDUN

Estimate Made By Paris Paper; Says French Losses Not High.

Paris, March 2.—The exact figures of the French losses at Verdun have been given to the committee of artillery affairs of the chamber of deputies by Col. Boucabeille, chief secretary to Gen. Gallieni, minister of war. It is stated that they were not high.

The Petit Parisien says that the German losses to date in the Verdun fighting amount to between 125,000 and 130,000 and constitute about one-third of the German effectives actively employed.

MINISTER ARRESTED FOR MISREPRESENTING

Minneapolis, Minn., March 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Rev. James W. Cool, formerly president of the State bank of Trout Lake, Mich., is under arrest here today on a complaint sworn out by the cashier of the Central Savings bank of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., charging misrepresentation of financial resources in gaining an extension of credit on a note for $400.

When pastor of Lynnhurst Congregational church here a few years ago, Rev. Mr. Cool attracted attention by throwing the church open at night to homeless men and women.

SNOWSLIDE DERAILS TRAIN; TWO MISSING

Denver, Colo., March 2.—Two persons missing, a number of passengers slightly hurt and three cars derailed were the known results early today of the snowslide that late yesterday struck westbound Denver & Rio Grande Narrow Gauge Train No. 315, five miles west of Sapluero, Colo. The accident occurred in the Black canyon, where at places the waters of the Gunnison river washed the roadbed.

The missing: C. H. Mathews, express messenger; Earl Levy of Pueblo, captain of Centennial high school basket ball team.

WHEAT CLOSE SLIGHTLY UP

Trading Turns Quiet and Market Weakens After Opening Splurge.

Flaxseed Holds Firm But Offerings Are in Larger Volume.

Duluth Board of Trade, March 2.—The market was firm around the close, but trading was quiet, with operators apparently holding back.

May wheat closed ⅛c up and July ¼c up.

May durum closed ⅛c up and July ⅜c up.

Oats closed unchanged at 39⅜@39¾c for on the track; rye unchanged at 87c, and barley unchanged at from 59@65c for on the track.

At Winnipeg, May oats closed ⅝@⅞c off at 40½@40⅝c asked.

At St. Louis, May wheat closed at $1.07⅝ bid, and July at $1.04.

At Kansas City, May wheat closed at $1.02¾, and July at $1.02 bid.

Puts on Minneapolis wheat closed at $1.08⅛, and calls at $1.13½.

Traders assumed a waiting attitude in the wheat market today. At the start quotations were advanced 1c with the appearance of fair buying and short covering. Later the market weakened to around yesterday's closing basis in consequence of increased Argentine shipments with prospects of grain from there going out in larger volume from now on. Shipments from Argentina this week are estimated at 3,500,000 bu, as compared with 2,960,000 bu last week and 1,242,000 bu a year ago. It was also reported that Australian offers at Liverpool are more liberal and a substantial volume of grain is expected to be routed from that quarter before long.

In the meantime American shipments are being held up owing to the lack of ocean-carrying capacity, and the amount of wheat tied up at the seaboard is said to be showing little diminution in volume notwithstanding that embargoes have been in force for some time against routings to all the ports. The extent of the congestion is illustrated in the fact that yesterday not a bushel of any kind of domestic grain was reported as having been shipped out of the elevators here. The bonded movement of Canadian grain this way continues heavy, 154 cars of wheat being on the tracks here this morning. Yesterday's shipments of bonded grain East consisted of only 1,000 bu of wheat and 10,000 bu of oats.

Due to the fact that millers had largely covered their requirements on the recent break, the cash market in wheat was weak here today. The elevators paid ½c under May for No. 1 northern, while the mills paid ½@1c over for a few cars.

The splurge appeared to be over in durum for the time being. Both Italian and Greek buyers were out of the market today.

May wheat opened ⅛c off at $1.10¾, advanced 1⅜c, and then receded to $1.10⅞ at the noon-hour. July opened unchanged at $1.11⅜, gained ⅛c dropped 1c and later recovered to $1.11½.

May durum opened ⅛c up at $1.08, gained ⅞c, and broke to $1.07¾. July opened ⅜c up at $1.09 and eased off fractionally.

Flax About Steady.

After advancing 1½c at the start on fresh crushers' bidding, the market in flaxseed turned weak and broke 2c. The oil interests showed disinclination to follow up the advance and some seed was pressed for sale. Expected importations from Argentina was a bearish factor.

May flax opened unchanged at $2.29 and closed ¼c off at $2.28¾ bid. July opened unchanged at $2.29 and closed ½c off at $2.28½.

At Winnipeg, May flax closed ½c off at $2.07⅛.

At Buenos Aires flax closed ½c up at $1.39⅝ and London ¼c off at $2.87¼.

Cash Sales Thursday.

No. 1 northern wheat, 2 cars	$1.12¼
No. 1 northern wheat, 1 car	1.13¼
No. 1 northern wheat, 2 cars	1.11
No. 1 northern wheat, 1 car	1.10⅝
No. 2 northern wheat, 1 car	1.09⅛
No. 2 northern wheat, 1 car	1.07
No. 2 northern wheat, 1 car	1.08⅞
No. 2 northern wheat, 1 car	1.07½
No. 2 northern wheat, 1 car	1.08¼
No. 2 northern wheat, 1 car	1.08
No. 2 northern wheat, 1 car	1.08½
No. 3 northern wheat, 1 car	1.02⅞
No. 3 northern wheat, 2 cars	1.03
No. 4 northern wheat, 1 car	.99
No. 4 northern wheat, 2 cars	1.01
Mont. wheat, 1 car, No. 3 hard winter, smutty	1.04⅛
No. 1 durum, 1 car	1.07½
No. 2 durum, 2 cars	1.04
No. 2 durum, 1 car	1.04⅛
No. 2 durum, 3 cars	1.05
No. 2 durum, 1 car	1.04½
No. 2 durum, 1 car	1.03½
No. 3 durum, 1 car	.97
No. 3 durum, 1 car	.97
No. 3 durum, 2 cars	1.00⅛
No. 3 durum, 2 cars	1.01½
No. 3 durum, 1 car	1.00
No. 3 durum, 1 car	1.00½
No. 4 durum, 1 car	.95⅝
No grade durum, 1 car	.85
No. 2 mixed durum, 2 cars	1.04
No. 2 mixed durum, 3 cars	1.04⅛
No. 2 mixed durum, 1 car	1.04⅝
No. 3 mixed durum, 1 car	.97½
No. 3 mixed durum, 1 car	1.00⅝
No. 3 mixed durum, 2 cars	1.03
No. 2 mixed durum, 2 cars	1.02
No. 1 mixed durum, 1 car	1.05½
Sample grade durum, 1 car	1.00⅞
Sample grade durum, 1 car	.87
Barley, 1 car	.60
Barley, 1 car	.62
Barley, 1 car	.64
Oats, 1 car, standard	.40¾
Oats, 1 car, No. 3 white	.40
Oats, 1 car, No. 3 white	.39½
Oats, 1 car, No. 4 white	.39
No. 2 rye, 1,000 bu, to arrive	.87

MARKET GOSSIP.

Duluth car inspection: Wheat—No. 1 northern, 6; No. 2 northern, 17; No. 3, 11; No. 4, 2; no grade, 1; durum, 17; winter, 2; mixed, 8; total wheat, 64, last year, 104 flax, 4, last year, 5; oats, 3, last year, 4; rye, 2, last year, none; barley, 8, last year 10; total of all grains, 81, last year, 123; on track, 140.

* * *

Duluth grain stocks, giving changes in four days:

Wheat—Western and winter, 750,000 bu, increase, 3,000 bu; spring, 7,338,000 bu, increase, 152,000 bu; durum, 5,375,000 bu, increase, 162,000 bu; bonded, 2,259,000 bu, increase, 321,000 bu; total wheat, 16,480,000 bu, net increase, 638,000 bu; afloat, 758,000 bu.

Coarse grains—Oats, 1,634,000 bu, increase, 172,000 bu; rye, 26,000 bu; barley, 963,000 bu increase, 32,000 bu; flax, domestic, 1,634,000 bu, bonded 27000 bu; total flax 1,661,000 bu, increase, net 15,000 bu.

Total of all grains 20,764,000 bu; net increase, 857,000 bu.

* * *

Clearance reported: Wheat, 629,000 bu; flour, 31,000 bbls., together equal to 269,000 bu; corn, 57,000 bu; oats, 60,000 bu.

* * *

Primary markets report the following receipts and shipments today:

Wheat—Receipts, 1,240,000 bu, last year, 653,000 bu; shipments, 732,000 bu, last year, 534,000 bu.

Corn—Receipts, 863,000 bu, last year, 492,000 bu; shipments, 682,000 bu, last year, 787,000 bu.

Oats—Receipts, 632,000 bu, last year, 669,000 bu; shipments, 744,000 bu, last year, 884,000 bu.

* * *

Duluth bonded grain receipts: Wheat, 154 cars; oats, 6 cars; barley, 1 car; flax, 1 car; rye 1 car; total, 163 cars.

* * *

Cars of wheat received:	Yesterday.	Year Ago.
Duluth	64	104
Minneapolis	394	218
Winnipeg	565	375
Chicago	217	42
St. Louis, bu	60,000	38,000

* * *

Cars of linseed received:	Yesterday.	Year Ago.
Duluth	4	5
Minneapolis	26	27
Winnipeg	16	20

* * *

Foreign closing cables Liverpool—Wheat, unchanged; corn, unchanged to ½d lower. Buenos Aires—Wheat, unchanged to 1⅛c up; corn, unchanged.

* * *

The Duluth market in cash wheat was weak today with the off goods very slow of sale. Cash No. 1 northern sold at ½c under the May price to ½@1c over. Cash No. 1 durum sold at ½c under May. Millers appeared to have covered their requirements for the time being, as they were indifferent.

* * *

It is denied that the British government has perfected arrangements in Australia for shipments of 12,000,000 bu wheat monthly. Exports will be made as the tonnage becomes available and this so far points to but moderate weekly clearances. Merchants are firm.

Foreign market news:

Roumania—Crop prospects are highly favorable.

Great Britain and France are negotiating for the purchase of a large portion of the new crop of wheat.

French imports are now assured during March of 5,600,000 and during April and May of 6,000,000 bu. Further liberal purchases will be made with prices favoring to complete reserves. New crop prospects are not favorable there.

A bill has been introduced in Norway for the abolition of the duty on wheat and flour. Importers needs are large.

* * *

At Minneapolis cash wheat was in good demand. Buyers were not as active as yesterday. Blue stem No. 1 northern sold at 1c to 4c over May and velvet chaff at ½c to 1½c over. Flour sales were lighter and moderate.

* * *

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool: "Market was dull, with a small inquiry. Expectations are for larger exports and liberal American receipts. Spot market was dull, unchanged. Cargo market was quiet, Manitobas 1½d lower, winters and Plates 3d lower. Argentina is offering freely and Australian offers are increasing.

* * *

Estimated Argentine shipments—Wheat, 3,500,000 bu; last week, 2,960,000 bu; last year, 1,242,000 bu; corn, 850,000 bu; last week, 1,054,000 bu; last year, 5,193,000 bu.

* * *

Logan Bryan have issued the following: "We estimate farm reserves, based on replies from 400 correspondents in the grain belt as follows: Wheat, amount in farmers' hands March 1, 170,000,000 bu; on March 1 last year, 152,903,000 bu; five-year average, 150,650,000 bu; percentage of crop in farmers' hands on March 1 this year was 17 per cent; last year, 17.2 per cent; ten-year average, 22.6 per cent. Corn, in farmers' hands March 1, 1,205,000,000 bu; last year, 910,894,000 bu; five-year average, 1,636,611,000 bu; percentage of crop in farmers' hands March 1, 1916, 40 per cent; last year, 34.1 per cent; ten-year average, 39.1 per cent. Oats in farmers' hands March 1, 560,000,000 bu; last year, 379,369,000 bu; five-year average, 424,347,000 bu; percentage of crop on farms March 1, 1916, 36 per cent; ten-year average, 37.4 per cent. Ice and freezing damage was reported in winter wheat as considerable, but the effects are not yet sufficiently apparent to warrant percentage estimates of damage."

A Good Firm to Ship Your Grain to

ATWOOD-LARSON COMPANY, Inc.

Special attention given to cash grains. We give all shipments our personal attention.

Duluth—Minneapolis

CHAS. E. LEWIS & CO.

GRAIN, STOCKS, COTTON, PROVISIONS

204 Board of Trade, Duluth

Members New York Stock Exchange
Members New York Cotton Exchange
And All Grain Exchanges.

Offices in Minneapolis, St. Paul and Winnipeg.

—SHIP TO—

H. POEHLER CO.

(Established 1855)

GRAIN COMMISSION

MINNEAPOLIS DULUTH

"EXPERIENCE IS THE BEST TEACHER"

GRAIN COMMISSION SINCE 1883

C. C. WYMAN & CO.

DULUTH - - - MINNEAPOLIS

RANDALL, GEE & MITCHELL CO.

RELIABLE GRAIN MERCHANTS

MINNEAPOLIS . DULUTH - WINNIPEG

AMERICAN WHEAT MARKETS, MARCH 2, 1916.

May—	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Mar. 1.	Yr ago.
Duluth	1.10⅜a	1.11⅞b	1.10¼	1.11b	1.10⅞	1.37½
Minneapolis	1.11	1.11¾	1.10	1.11⅜-¾	1.10⅞a	1.38¾
Chicago	1.11¼-1.11	1.12⅝	1.10¾	1.11¼a	1.11⅝a	1.39⅝
Winnipeg	1.09¾	1.10½	1.08⅞	1.09⅝a	1.09¾a	1.42½
July—
Duluth	1.11¾b	1.11⅞b	1.10⅞a	1.11⅝	1.11⅜	1.32¾
Minneapolis	1.10¾-⅝	1.11⅝	1.10	1.10½-⅝a	1.10⅝a	1.29⅝
Chicago	1.08⅞-⅝	1.09⅝	1.07⅞	1.08¾	1.08⅞b	1.12⅞
Winnipeg	1.09½	1.10⅜b	1.08¾	1.09⅜b	1.09½a	1.40½

DULUTH DURUM MARKET.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Mar. 1.	Yr ago.
May	1.08	1.08⅝b	1.07¼	1.08b	1.07⅞	1.43
July	1.09	1.09¼b	1.08¼a	1.09b	1.08⅝a	1.42a

DULUTH LINSEED MARKET.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Mar. 1.	Yr ago.
May	2.29b	2.30½	2.28	2.28⅝b	2.29	1.85½
July	2.29b	2.30b	2.28½a	2.28½b	2.29a	1.87½

Duluth close: Wheat—On track: No. 1 hard, $1.13; No. 1 northern, $1.10½@1.13; No. northern, $1.06½@1.09½; No. 1 northern to arrive, $1.10½; No. 3 on track, $1.00½@1.04½; Montana No. 2 hard to arrive, $1.11; Montana No. 2 on track, $1.11; May, $1.11 bid; July, $1.11⅝. Durum—On track: No. 1, $1.07½; No. 2, $1.03½@1.04½; to arrive, No. 1, $1.07½; May, $1.08 bid; July, $1.09. Linseed—On track, 2.28¾; to arrive, $2.28¾; May, $2.28¾ bid; July, $2.28½ bid. Oats—On track, 39¾@39¾c; to arrive, 39⅜c. Rye—On track, 87c; to arrive, 87c. Barley—On track, 55@65c.

Elevator receipts of domestic grain—Wheat, 138,242 bu; last year, 63,009 bu; oats, 15,061 bu; last year, 19,176 bu; barley, 11,218 bu; last year, 1,670 bu; rye, 753 bu; last year, 1,063 bu; flax, 1,091 bu; last year, 12,106 bu.

Shipments of domestic grain—None.

Elevator receipts of bonded grain.—Wheat, 103,225 bu; last year, 2,446 bu; oats, 32,916 bu; last year, none; barley, 4,066 bu; last year, none; flax, 3,227 bu; last year, none.

Shipments of bonded grain—Wheat, 1,105 bu; last year, none; oats, 10,000 bu; last year, none.

CHICAGO MARKET.

Unsettled International Outlook Weakens Prices of Wheat.

Chicago, March 2.—Wheat showed increased weakness today, largely as a result of the unsettled outlook as to American relations with Germany and because of the difficulties of shipping. A general snow fall in the winter crop states tended also to handicap the bulls. Lower quotations from Liverpool counted further to weight down prices here. The opening, which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to ¾c down, with May at $1.11 to $1.11¼ and July at $1.08⅝ to $1.08⅞, was followed by a sag all around with a subsequent sharp rally, but then another decline all around.

Reports of the capture of the German sea ralder Moewe helped afterward to secure another upturn, but the effect failed to last. The close was nervous at ⅛@½c net decline, with May $1.11¼ and July $1.08¾.

Corn swayed with wheat. There was persistent selling in small lots. After opening a shade to ⅛@⅝c lower, the market fluctuated within a range of about ¾c and chiefly below yesterday's latest figures.

The fact that receipts were light and the prospect of a better domestic demand gave a slight transient advantage to the bulls. The close was unsettled at a shade to ¼c net decline.

Oats had no independent action. Floor traders, who did the bulk of the trading, seemed to incline to the bear side.

Higher prices on hogs gave only transient strength to provisions. Subsequent downturns resulted from the weakness of grain.

Wheat—No. 2 red, $1.11⅝; No. 3 red, $1.08⅛@1.10⅜; No. 2 hard, $1.11@1.12½; No. 3 hard, $1.05@1.08½.

Corn—No. 2 yellow, 75c; No. 4 yellow, 66@69c; No. 4 white, 67½@68c.

Oats—No. 3 white, 40¾@41½c; standard, 42@43¼c.

Rye, nominal; barley, 60@70c; timothy, $4.50@7.00; clover, $10@20.

Pork, $19.50@21.00; lard, $10.32; ribs, $11.00@11.50.

Wheat—	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.
May	$1.11	$1.12⅜	$1.10⅜	$1.11¼
July	1.08⅝	1.09⅜	1.07⅞	1.08⅜
Corn—
May	.73⅝	.74⅝	.73½	.73⅞
July	.73¾	.74⅜	.73½	.73⅞
Oats—
May	.42⅝	.43⅜	.42⅜	.42⅞
July	.40⅜	.41½	.40¾	.41⅛
Pork—
May	20.95	21.20	20.80	21.20
July	20.80	21.15	20.80	21.15
Lard—
May	10.57	10.65	10.42	10.57
July	10.75	10.80	10.65	10.77
Ribs—
May	11.52	11.65	11.52	11.62
July	11.67	11.80	11.65	11.75

MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 2.—Wheat—Unchanged; receipts, 394 cars, compared with 218 a year ago. May opened $1.11; high, 1.11¾; low, $1.10; closed $1.10⅞ to $1.10¾. July opened $1.10¾ to $1.10⅝; high, $1.11⅝; low, $1.10; closed $1.10½ to $1.10⅝.

Cash—No. 1 hard, $1.15⅛; No. 1 northern, $1.11¼@1.14¼; to arrive, $1.11¼@1.13¼; No. 2 northern, $1.07¾@1.11¼; No. 3 wheat, $1.01¾@1.08¼.

Corn—No. 3 yellow, 75@76c; oats, No. 3 white, 38¼@39¼c; flax, $2.28¾@2.32¾.

Flour—Unchanged; shipments, 68,775 bbls.; barley, 59@66c; rye, 86@87c; bran, $18.00@19.00.

Liverpool Grain.

Liverpool, March 2.—Wheat—Spot, No. 1 Manitoba, 14s 6d; No. 2 hard, winter gulf, 12s 9d; No. 2 red western winter, 13s 1d. Corn—Spot American mixed, new, 11s 1d.

New York Wheat.

New York, March 2.—Wheat—May, $1.19¼; July, $1.12¼.

THE PRODUCE MARKETS.

Duluth.

GRAPE FRUIT—
Fancy Grape	46	54	64	80	$6-126
Fruit	$3.75	$4.00	$4.00	$4.00	$3.50
MISCELLANEOUS FRUIT—
Emperor Grapes, drum					4.75
Strawberries, qt					.30
CRANBERRIES—
Cranberries, Jerseys, per box					3.75
Cranberries, Jersey, Arbutus or Heather Brand, bu					3.75
Cranberries, Jersey, Arbutus or Heather Brand, bbl					11.50
Cranberries, Evaporated, 36 pkgs., carton					2.75
ORANGES—
Ex. Fcy. 80s	96-100	126	150	176	200-288
Navel	$3.25	$3.50	$3.50	$3.75	$4.00
Ex. Ch.
Navels	$2.50	3.00	3.00	3.25	3.50 3.75
Floridas	2.75	3.25	3.25	3.50
Ex. Fcy. Tangerines, box					2.75
LEMONS—		270s	300s	360s
Ex. Fcy. California, box		$5.25	$5.50	$5.50
Ex. Ch. California, box		5.00	5.25	5.25
Limes, Fancy, box					1.25
BANANAS—
Bananas, Fancy Limon, lb					.04¼

	Grade—
BOX APPLES—	Ex. Fancy.	Fancy.	Choice.
Jonathan	$2.25	$2.00	....
Roman Beauty	2.00	1.85	....
Delicious	2.65	2.00	....
Spitzenburg	2.60	....	1.90
Stayman Wine Saps	2.00	1.80	....
Winesaps	2.25	2.00	1.90
BARREL APPLES—	Circle F Brand.	Fancy Grade.	Choice Grade.
N. Y. Baldwin	$4.00	$3.50	$2.75
Mo. Jonathan	4.75	4.25	3.75
Mo. Wine Sap	4.75	....	....
Mo. Black Twig	....	3.75	....
Mo. Ben Davis	4.00	3.50	3.00
Mo. Ben Davis Lot 1-t, bbl			2.25

GREEN VEGETABLES—
Beans, Chi. Wax, lb., 20c; hamper	5.25
Beets, hamper, $2.75; doz	1.00
Brussels Sprouts, box	.25
Carrots, doz	.30
Cauliflower, California, Pony, crate, crate	2.50
Cauliflower, large crates	3.75
Cucumbers, Hothouse, Extra Fancy, dozen, $1.75; Fancy, dozen	1.50
Celery Cabbage, lb., 15c per crate	4.00
Celery, Root, doz	.70
Chives, box	.75
Endive, hamper, $1.50; bbl	5.50
Egg Plant, crate	4.00
Lettuce Leaf, bu	1.10
Head Lettuce, Calif., Iceberg, doz., $1.25; crate	4.25
Head Lettuce, Texas, large hamper, $3.75; small	2.50
Mint, dozen	.50
Kumquats, qt	.25
Oyster Plant, doz	.80
Parsley, Hothouse, doz., Southern, doz	.90
Peppers, Fla., bskt., 45c; crate	2.25
Radishes, Hothouse, doz	.75
Rhubarb, lb	.10
Shallots, doz	.75
Spinach, bskt	1.25
Tomatoes, Cuban, 6 bskt., crate	4.50
Tomatoes, Cuban, bskt	.85
Water Cress, doz	.45
Turnips, doz	.75
Leekes, hamper	1.75
Mushrooms, lb	.60
CELERY—
Mammouth, Red White and Blue Ribbon, doz	1.25
Jumbo, Blue Ribbon, doz	1.15
Large, Red Ribbon, doz	1.00
Fancy, White Ribbon, doz	.90
Untrimmed Celery, California, crate	6.50
WASHED VEGETABLES—
Washed Parsnips, per bskt	1.20
Washed Beets, per bskt	1.20
Washed Carrots, per bskt	1.10
VEGETABLES—
Carrots, Minn., cwt	1.25
Beets, Minn., cwt	1.75
Bagas, Minn., cwt	1.00
Lima Beans, Calif., lb	.07¼
Horseradish, lb., 10c; bbl	7.00
Horseradish, 8 oz. bottle, per doz	.90
Navy Beans, Fancy, H. P., Michigan, bu	4.50
Parsnips, cwt	1.75
Squash, lb., 4c; bbl	4.00
ONIONS—
Onions, Minn., Red, cwt	3.25
Spanish Onions, small crate, $2.25; bu	2.75
Spanish Onions, large crates, crate	6.50
Onions, White, Cummer crate	3.75
CABBAGE—
Minn. Cabbage, bulk, per crate, $1.75; cwt	1.00
Red Cabbage, lb	.05
POTATOES—
Sweet Potatoes, hamper	1.85
Fancy Potatoes, Minn., Burbank, bu	1.00
KRAUT—
Fancy New Kraut, 15 gal. keg	2.50
Fancy New Kraut, 10 gal. keg	1.90
CHEESE—
Block Swiss, lb	.24 .25
Brick, half case, lb	.20
Twins, Wisconsin, lb	.20
Twins, New York State, lb	.21
Young Americas, lb	.21
BUTTER—
Jars, lb	.35
Prints, lb	.34
Tubs, lb	.33
First creamery, lb	.32
Dairy, lb	.21 .23
MEATS—
Beef, native steers, lb	.12
Beef, western steers, lb	.11
Cows, butchers, lb	.10 10½
Camp cows, per lb	.08½
Mutton, per lb	.13
Pork loins, per lb	.12 .13½
Veal, per lb	.14
Pork shoulder, lb	.11
Lamb, per lb	.17 .18
LIVE POULTRY—
Springs, lb	.19
Fowls, heavy, lb	.20
Fowls, light, lb	.15
Geese, lb	.16
Ducks, lb	.16
DRESSED POULTRY—
Springs	.20
Fowls, light	.17
Fowls, heavy	.21
Turkeys, lb	.25
Ducks, lb	.18
Geese, lb	.18
FROZEN POULTRY—
Broilers	.25
Friers	.20
Roasters	.20
Fowls, light	.17
Fowls, heavy	.18
Fowls, medium	.18
Fowls, heavy	.18
Ducks	.18
Geese	.16
Turkeys	.24
EGGS—
Fresh eggs, doz	.26 .28
Storage eggs, doz	.20 .21
HAY—
Choice timothy, per ton	$14.40
No. 1 timothy, per ton	$13.50@14.00
No. 2 timothy, per ton	11.00@12.00
No. 3 timothy, per ton	9.00@10.00
No. 1 mixed timothy, per ton	11.00@11.50
No. 2 mixed timothy, per ton	10.00@10.50
No. 3 mixed timothy, per ton	9.00@10.00
No. 1 prairie, per ton	11.50@12.50
No. 2 prairie, per ton	10.50@11.50
No. 3 prairie, per ton	8.00@ 9.00
No. 1 midland, per ton	8.00@ 9.00
No. 2 midland, per ton	7.00@ 8.00
Packing straw, per ton	5.50@ 6.00
Rye straw, per ton	6.00@ 6.50
Oat straw, per ton	5.50@ 6.00

New York.

New York, March 2.—Butter—Steady; receipts, 5,830; creamery extras, 92 score, 36c; creamery higher scoring, 37@37½c; firsts, 34@35½c; seconds, 32@33½c. Eggs—Unsettled; receipts, 17,816; fresh gathered extras, 28½@29c; extra firsts, 27½@28c; firsts, 27c; seconds, 26@26½c; nearby hennery, white, fine to fancy, 33@34c; nearby hennery browns, 29@30c.

Cheese—Steady; receipts, 1,581; state, whole milk, flats held colored specials, 18@18½c; do white, 18c; do white and colored average fancy, 17½@17¾c; flats, currant make specials, 17@17¼c; do average run, 16¾c.

Chicago.

Chicago, March 2.—Butter—Firm; receipts, 5,776 tubs; creamery extras, 34c; extra firsts, 32½@33c; firsts, 28@31½c; seconds, 25@27c.

Cheese — Steady; daisies, 17¾@18c; twins, 17¼@17¾c; Americas, 18½@18¾c; long horns, 18¾@18½c.

Eggs—Higher; receipts, 11,153 cases; firsts, 21¾@22c; ordinary firsts, 20¾@21c; at mark, cases included, 20 @21c.

Potatoes—Receipts, 22 cars; unchanged.

Poultry—Alive, unchanged.

RAW FURS.

	Large.	Medium.	Small.
Bear	$10.00	$12.00	$10.00
Bear, cub	7.50	6.00	5.00
Beaver	10.00	6.50	3.50
Badger	2.50	1.75	1.25
Civet cat	.40	.20	.25
Fisher	20.00	12.00	9.00
Fox, silver	500.00	350.00	200.00
Fox, cross	25.00	26.00	12.00
Fox, gray	2.25	1.75	1.25
Fox, red	9.00	7.50	6.00
Lynx	12.50	9.00	6.50
Mink, dark	3.25	2.00	1.50
Mink, brown	2.75	2.00	1.50
Mink, pale	2.25	2.00	1.75
Otter, dark	12.00	9.00	7.00
Otter, brown	10.00	7.50	6.00
Raccoon	3.50	2.25	1.50
Skunk, black	4.00	....	3.00
Skunk, short striped	3.25	....	2.25
Skunk, striped	2.50	....	1.75
Weasel	.60	.35	.10

Muskrat—Wisconsin and similar, large winter, 35c; winter, 18c; large fall, 25c; small fall, 12c. Minnesota and similar, large, winter, 30c; small winter, 15c; large fall, 20c; small fall, 11c; kits and damaged at value.

HIDES, PELTS, WOOL, ETC.

No. 1 green salted cows and steers, all weights	.16
No. 1 green salted bulls	.13½
Green salted and branded hides flat	.14
No. 1 green salted veal calf	.17
No. 1 green salted long haired kips, 8 to 25 lbs	.16
Dry Hides—
Territory butchers, over 15 lbs	.24 .26
Murrain and fallen, over 15 lbs	.16 .19
Calf over 6 lbs	.24 .26
Dry salted hides, all weights	.17 .20
Wool market lower. Demand fair.
Unwashed, ¼ blood	.26 .29
Unwashed, medium, ⅜ blood	.25 .27
Unwashed, coarse, ¼ blood	.22 .25
Unwashed, low, ⅛ blood	.20 .23

Chicago Livestock.

Chicago, March 2.—Brisk shipping and speculative demand gave fresh strength today to the hog market. Cattle were somewhat scarce. Improved call from feeders helped the sale of sheep and lambs, but did not hoist quotations.

Hogs—Receipts, 29,000; fairly active at 5c to 10c above yesterday's average. Bulk, $8.85@9.00; light, $8.60@9.00; mixed, $8.70@9.07½; heavy, $8.60@9.10; rough, $8.60@8.75; pigs, $7.25@8.25.

Cattle—Receipts, 4,000; strong; native beef steers, $7.25@9.70; western steers, $7.10@8.25; stockers and feeders, $5.75@7.85; cows and heifers, $3.35@8.45; calves, $8.50@11.25.

Sheep—Receipts, 8,000; strong; wethers, $7.90@8.60; lambs, $9.25@11.35.

EARLY RISE WIPED OUT

Stocks Open With Advances But Gains Are Soon Canceled.

Some Active Shares at Lowest Prices in the Final Hour.

New York, March 2.—The rally that attended yesterday's late dealings was fully maintained at the opening of today's market, numerous active issues advancing 1 to 2 points. Industrials, including the war group, coppers and such specialties as Industrial Alcohol and Distillers' Securities figured prominently in the rise. Alcohol soon gaining 4 points to 155 on its remarkable statement of earnings for the last year. Ralls and United States Steel were distinctly strong, Reading gaining a point over yesterday. Trading was moderate, with an absence of recent feverish conditions.

Gains were largely canceled before the end of the first hour in the stock market today. Washington advices regarding international conditions induced fresh selling. Alcohol yielded much of its advance and Petroleum, Marine preferred, Erie and Northern Pacific were lower. Metals were affected by cables stating that drastic steps had been taken to prevent speculation on those products abroad. There were various items of favorable import, including the review of domestic business conditions by the Federal reserve board but these were ignored. Trading was wholly professional and diminished materially, but prices hardened again at midday. Bonds were firm.

Coppers became more animated during the mid-session, increased dividends on Utah, Butte & Superior and Chino infusing strength in that quarter. Specialties and standard shares also improved.

Some active stocks fell to lowest prices in the final hour, the balance of the list showing a similar tendency. The closing was irregular.

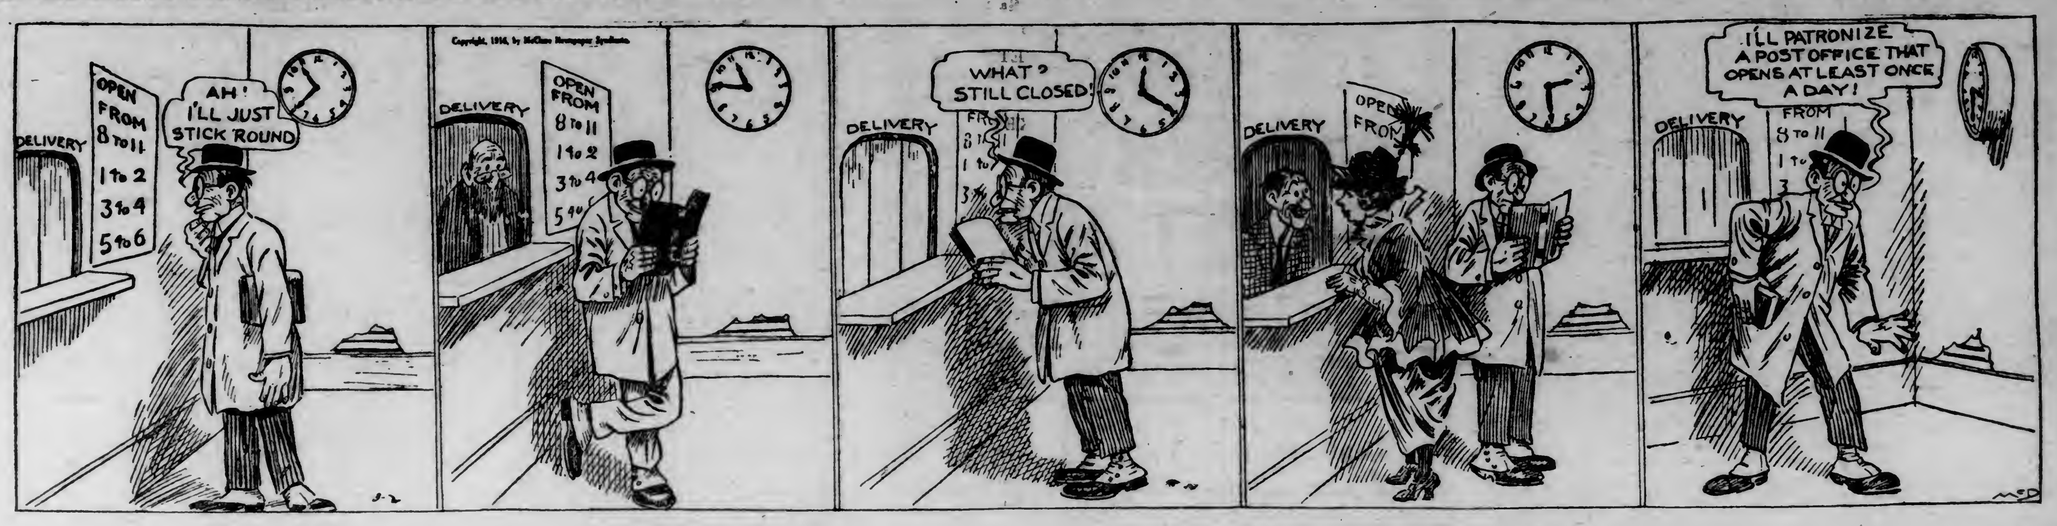
NEW YORK STOCKS.

Reported by Charles E. Lewis & Co.

STOCKS—	High.	Low.	Close.
Am. Tel. & Tel.	127¾	127½	127½
Am. Can. com	58⅛	57¼	57½
Am. Beet Sugar	68⅛	67¼	67¼
Am. Car Foundry	65⅞	65	65
Am. Locomotive	69½	68	68
Am. Finc. & Lead	79¾	77¾	77⅞
Am. Lin. com	21⅝	21	21
Am. Steel Foundries	50	49¼	50
Am. Smelting	97¾	96½	96½
Alaska Gold Mines Co.	21	20⅝	20⅝
Allis Chalmers com	28	27	27
Am. Sugar	110	109⅛	109⅛
Am. Tobacco Co.	194⅞	194	194
Anaconda Copper	85⅞	84¾	84⅞
Atchison	102½	102	102
Bald. Loc.	103	101	101¼
B. & O., com	86	85¾	85¾
B. R. T.	86¼	86	86¼
Butte & Superior	93⅞	91¾	92¼
Cal. Petroleum, com	27⅛	27	27
Canadian Pacific	165	164	164¾
Central Leather	52⅝	52½	52½
Ches. & Ohio	62⅜	61½	61½
Chino Copper Co.	57⅝	56¼	56⅞
Chi., Mil. & St. P.	93¾	92⅝	93½
Col. Fuel & Iron	41½	40	40¼
Con. Gas	132	132	132
Corn Pro. Co.	21⅜	21	21
Crucible Steel, com	74¼	72¼	72¼
Distillers Sec.	46⅞	45⅛	45⅛
Erie	36⅜	35¾	36
Erie, 1st pfd	52¼	52	52¼
B. F. Goodrich Co., com	69¼	68⅝	69
Great Northern, pfd	120½	120¼	120½
Great Northern Ore	41½	40⅞	40⅞
Gen. Explor. Co.	21	21	21
Inspir. Cop. Co.	44⅞	44½	44¾
K. C. Southern	25⅝	25	25⅝
Kenn. Copper	54⅝	53¼	54⅛
Lackawanna Steel	76½	73¾	76
Maxwell Motor	60¾	57¾	58
Maxwell Motor, 1st pfd	83	82¾	82¾
Maxwell Motor, 2d pfd	44¾	43¾	43¾
M., K. & T., com.	35¼	34⅞	35
M. & St. L. Ry.	5	5	5
Nor. Pacific	112½	111⅞	112¼
National Lead	66	65⅝	65⅝
Nevada Copper Co.	16⅝	16	16⅜
Norfolk & Western	114⅞	114¼	114¼
N. Y. Central	104¼	103½	104
N. Y., N. H. & H.	67½	67	67
Ontario & Western	28

ABSENT-MINDED ABNER—Life Is Only An Open and Shut Arrangement Anyhow!

By Walt McDougall



DELIVERY
OPEN FROM 8 to 11 1 to 2 3 to 4 5 to 6
AH! I'LL JUST STICK 'ROUND
DELIVERY
OPEN FROM 8 to 11 1 to 2 3 to 4 5 to
DELIVERY
WHAT? STILL CLOSED!
DELIVERY
OPEN FROM DELIVERY
I'LL PATRONIZE A POST OFFICE THAT OPENS AT LEAST ONCE A DAY!
FROM 8 to 11 1 to

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE—

Notice is hereby given, That default has been made in the conditions of that certain mortgage, bearing date the 25th day of August, 1913, made and executed by John Seaberg and Mathilda Seaberg, his wife, mortgagors, to Louis Rosenbluth, mortgagee, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for St. Louis County, Minnesota, on September 15th, 1913, at 10:30 A. M. in Book 116 of Mortgages, on page 32; at the time of such recording, the date of expiration of the Notary's commission was not attached to the certificate of acknowledgement, and said mortgage was re-recorded in the office of said Register of Deeds with said date of expiration affixed to said certificate of acknowledgement on October 11th, 1915, at 1:30 P. M. in Book 337 of Mortgages on page 96. Said mortgage was assigned by said Louis Rosenbluth to Max Mickel by written assignment dated October 30th, 1915, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for St. Louis County, Minnesota, on November 8th, 1915, at 4:15 P. M. in Book 306 of Mortgages on page 322.

Said default consists in the failure of said mortgagors to pay the sum of Twenty-three Hundred Twenty-two Dollars and Seventy-six Cents ($2,322.76), principal and interest, now past due, on the notes secured by said mortgage. The amount claimed to be due on said mortgage at the date hereof is the sum of Twenty-three Hundred Twenty-two Dollars and Seventy-six Cents ($2,322.76), principal and interest as aforesaid; and prior to the date hereof said assignee has paid the sum of Seventy-three Dollars and Ninety-three Cents ($73.93) for taxes due on the mortgaged premises.

The property described in said mortgage and thereby mortgaged is the North half of the Northeast one-fourth (N½ of NE¼); Southeast one-fourth of the Northeast one-fourth (SE¼ of NE¼); Northwest one-fourth of the Northwest one-fourth (NW¼ of NW¼); and the South one-half of Northwest one-fourth (S½ of NW¼), of Section One (1), Township Fifty-three (53) North, Range Thirteen (13) West; and the West one-half of the Northwest one-fourth (W½ of NW¼) of Section Thirty-three (33), Township Fifty-eight (58) North, Range Thirteen (13) West, according to the government survey, all of said land being in the County of St. Louis and State of Minnesota.

By reason of such default, the power of sale contained in said mortgage has become operative, and no action or proceeding at law or otherwise has been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof.

Now, therefore, By virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, said mortgage will be foreclosed by the sale of said premises at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, by the Sheriff of said St. Louis County, at the Sheriff's office in the County Court House in the City of Duluth, St. Louis County, Minnesota, on Friday the 31st day of March, 1916, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day to satisfy the amount then due on said mortgage, together with the sum of Seventy-three Dollars and Ninety-three Cents ($73.93) paid for taxes by said assignee as above stated, taxes, if any, due on said premises, and Fifty Dollars ($50.00) attorneys' fees, and the costs and disbursements allowed by law.

Dated this 15th day of February, 1916.

MAX MICKEL,
Assignee of Mortgagee.
BALDWIN, BALDWIN & HOLMES and R. L. MAYALL,
Suite 900 Alworth Building, Duluth, Minnesota, Attorneys for Assignee.
D. H., Feb. 17, 24, March 2, 9, 16, 23, 1916.

COLONIAL INSURANCE COMPANY.

Principal office: New York, N. Y. Organized in 1896. Leo H. Wise, president; E. S. Powell, Jr., secretary. Attorney to accept service in Minnesota: Commissioner of Insurance.

CASH CAPITAL, $200,000.00.

INCOME IN 1915.

Premiums other than perpetuals	$ 228,916.99
Rents and interests	21,399.17
Gross profit on sale, maturity or adjustment of ledger assets	187.50
Total income	$ 250,503.66
Ledger assets December 31st of previous year	521,307.97
Sum	$ 771,811.63

DISBURSEMENTS IN 1915.

Net amount paid for losses	$ 81,312.07
Expenses of adjustment of losses	1,906.44
Commissions and brokerage	83,345.40
Salaries, fees and allowances of officers, agents and employes	3,115.00
Taxes, fees, rents, real estate expense, fire patrol, etc	5,624.68
Dividends and interest	8,000.00
All other disbursements	2,126.27
Total disbursements	$ 185,629.86
Balance	586,181.77

LEDGER ASSETS DEC. 31, 1915.

Book value of bonds and stocks	$ 482,035.00
Cash in office, trust companies and banks	70,684.28
Agents' balances, unpaid premiums and bills receivable, taken for premiums	33,462.49
Total ledger assets (as per balance)	$ 586,181.77

NON-LEDGER ASSETS.

Market value of real estate, bonds and stocks over book value	$ 8,290.00
All other non-ledger assets	6,918.33
Gross assets	$ 601,390.10

DEDUCT ASSETS NOT ADMITTED.

Agent's balances and bills receivable	$ 980.82
Total admitted assets	$ 600,409.28

LIABILITIES DEC. 31, 1915.

Unpaid losses and claims	$ 30,643.17
Unearned premiums	143,373.05
Salaries, expenses, taxes, dividends and interest due	5,500.00
Contingent commissions	3,500.00
Capital stock paid up	200,000.00
Total liabilities, including capital	$ 383,016.22
Net surplus	217,393.06

RISKS AND PREMIUMS, 1915 BUSINESS.

(a) Fire risks written during the year	$ 41,722,019.00
Premiums received thereon	360,761.00
Net amount in force at end of the year (Fire and marine)	32,949,067.7

a.—Including business other than marine and inland.

BUSINESS IN MINNESOTA IN 1915.
(Including reinsurance received and deducting reinsurance placed.)

	Fire Risks.
Risks written	$317,250.00
Premiums received	1,469.00
Net losses paid	593.00
Net losses incurred	525.00
Amount at risk	302,250.00

State of Minnesota, Department of Insurance.
I Hereby Certify, That the Annual Statement of the Colonial Insurance company for the year ending December 31st, 1915, of which the above is an abstract, has been received and filed in this department and duly approved by me.
S. D. WORKS,
Commissioner of Insurance.

SITUATION WANTED. FEMALE.

SITUATION WANTED — YOUNG woman speaking Finnish language wants position as clerk in drygoods store; three years' experience. Write S 667, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — PRACTICAL nurse wishes engagement in confinement cases at once; willing to help with light housework. Melrose 4963.

SITUATION WANTED — WOMAN wants work by the day or rooms to take care of; needs work at once. New phone Grand 1263-D.

SITUATION WANTED — BY STENOGrapher; experienced, competent; must have work at once. Write K 679, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—BY PRACTICal nurse, engagement. Call or write 2705½ West Second street.

SITUATION WANTED—AS HOUSEkeeper, by woman with little girl. Write U 687, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—AS HOUSEkeeper, or work in small family. B 694, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—BY DRESSmaker by the day or at home. Call Melrose 6333.

SITUATION WANTED — WORK BY day, washing, ironing, cleaning. Melrose 7292.

SITUATION WANTED—WORK BY the day. Melrose 7235.

SITUATION WANTED. MALE.

SITUATION WANTED—BY ELECTRIcian, twenty years' experience in electrical construction and installation, as superintendent or chief electrician, with reliable firm or corporation. Address G 692, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—AS GENERAL mechanic; experienced in mining machinery; ten years in charge; married, sober, industrious; at present employed, but desire change; references. Address C 684, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — HIGH school graduate, 22, bank and other clerical experience, now employed, desires change; lumbering or mining company preferred; best references. Write S 678, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — EXPERIenced machine blacksmith wishes work of any kind; as a blacksmith or machine helper preferred; will go out of town. For interview write H 677, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—YOUNG MAN and wife in camp or farm; willing to leave city; wages no object. Address M 709, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — GOOD ALL round harness maker wants job in repair shop; strictly sober. T. Pascoe, Chassell, Mich.

SITUATION WANTED—BY YOUNG man clerking in store; experienced; can furnish good references. Write W 651, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — TO RUN small planer mill; can file saws; have good references. Write E 697, Herald.

RENT—STORES, OFFICES.

FOR RENT—STORE ON CORNER

Of Fourth avenue west and Superior street. 1,800 people pass this store in an hour, even in this cold weather. Don't delay a moment if you want this ideal location.

WHITNEY WALL CO.,
Third Floor, Torrey Building.

FOR RENT STORES.

At 318 West First street, most central and best business location on West First street; fine storeroom, 25 by 140, in strictly fireproof building, with lowest insurance rate in city; will decorate to suit; possession May 1. Call Grand or Melrose 225.
W. C. SHERWOOD & CO.,
118 Manhattan Building.

FOR RENT — THREE STORES ON Eighteenth avenue west and Superior street. Rents $15.00, $20.00 and $25.00 per month.

BENJAMIN F. SCHWEIGER CO.,
1932 West Superior St.

FOR RENT—MARCH 1, A SMALL store located at 723 West Superior street; very desirable for light grocery, confectionery or second-hand clothing store; $20.00 per month. F. I. Salter Co., 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT—TWO FRONT OFFICES. Christie building. Fireproof.

WANTED TO BORROW.

WANTED TO BORROW—$2,500 ON first mortgage, centrally located, well improved, rented property; interest 6 per cent per annum. Write Y 685, Herald.

BOARD & ROOM OFFERED.

Room and board in modern home, gentlemen preferred. 114 East Third St.

BOARD AND ROOM, $26 AND $28 PER month. Melrose 7895. Grand 1988-Y.

JEWELRY REPAIRED.

Have Lange do your repairing right. Cash for old gold. 12 Lake Ave. N.

FARM & MINERAL LANDS.

IMPROVED CARLTON COUNTY FARM GOING CHEAP.

160 acres, 4½ miles from good town on fine road, fairly level, good soil, 20 acres under cultivation, 10 acres more cleared and seeded to timothy and clover, balance easily cleared; six-room house, fair sized barn; property well worth $5,400, going for $3,800; will trade for city property.

Thirty acres ¼ mile from station at Wright, good soil, four-room house, barn, three acres under cultivation, balance easily cleared, good stream flows through land; going for $1,400, $300 cash. Will take heavy team as part payment.

CANT & McLEAN,
First National Bank Bldg.
Duluth, Minn.

FOR SALE—EIGHTY ACRES GOOD land one mile from railroad, twenty-two miles from city; would make a good farm; must sell; make offer. W. H. Locker, 505 Lonsdale Bldg.

FOR RENT OR SALE — EIGHTY acres improved; good terms; machinery and stock can be bought reasonable. Address MacKenzie, Willow River, Minn., Route Box 18.

FOR SALE—FORTY ACRES, NEAR station, Blackhoof; $25 per acre; terms to suit; no agents. E. F. Rasey, Suite 54, Steel block, Winnipeg, Man.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—COUPLE good farms, North Dakota, for income property; deal with owner; no commissions. Write Z 661, Herald.

WANTED TO RENT—FARM, EITHER grain or gardening; prefer to buy later. R. Hebbe, 655 Madison street NE., Minneapolis, Minn.

FOR SALE — FORTY ACRES OR more of good land close to town. Write H 699, Herald.

I BUY AND SELL LANDS AND TIMber. George Rupley, 612 Lyceum Bldg

WANTED TO BUY.

WANTED TO BUY—HEATERS AND ranges; we will pay good prices or exchange for new furniture. East End Furniture company, 120 East Superior street. Phone Grand 2013-X.

WANTED TO BUY—5,000 STANDARD tamarack ties, f. o. b. cars Superior; railroad inspection; for coal dock. Address P. R., care of Superior Telegram.

WANTED TO BUY—WILL PAY CASH for cheap cut-over lands; St. Louis, Lake or Cook county. Address, Y 558, Herald office.

WANTED TO BUY—SECOND-HAND butcher's fixtures. Call at Herald Branch, 1823 West Superior street.

WANTED TO BUY—100 YOUNG PIGS and ten calves on or before April 1. James Leary, 342 Lake avenue south.

IS YOUR FARM FOR SALE? IF SO, see us. We have buyers. Cant & McLean, First National Bank Bldg.

WE PURCHASE REAL ESTATE CONtracts, mortgages and notes. Northern Equities Co., 612 1st Nat. Bank Bldg.

WILL BUY PARTIALLY IMPROVED farm. State price, location, etc., in first letter. Address A 927, Herald.

WANTED TO BUY — LARGE OR small tract of land for investment. Address I 69, Herald.

WANTED TO BUY — INVALID'S wheel chair, for indoor use. Call Melrose 639 or Grand 629.

WANTED TO BUY—SECOND-HAND sewing machine. Call Melrose 4956.

H. Popkin buys stoves and furniture. Grand 2337-A. Melrose 1482.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE

TWO LOT BARGAINS.

100 by 150 ft. lot on the central hillside, at a great bargain, let us show you this property; very easy terms; price $900; this is at least $300 below market price.

Another fine lot, 30 by 80 ft., on Fourteenth avenue east, just above Ninth street; rapidly growing residence district; price only $450; $50.00 cash will handle, balance on monthly payments.

WHITNEY WALL CO.,
301 Torrey Building.

WANTED — RELIABLE PARTIES with the ability to sell steel plant lots can secure a very favorable contract for the exclusive sale of a new steel plant addition, well located; low prices on lots and liberal commissions. Call or write J. P. Rossman, Torrey building, Duluth, Minn.

FOR SALE—FINE LOT AT LAKEside, 50x140, all improvements in, one block from street car; $550.00. W. A. Hicken, lands, loans and insurance, 401 Palladio building.

FOR SALE—LAKESIDE 50-FOOT LOT, block from car line; street graded, water, sewer, cement walk; bargain, $575; easy terms; worth $775. Write U 610, Herald.

FOR SALE — CITY PROPERTY, houses and lots; farms and timber land. O. G. Olson, 314 Columbia Bldg.

FOR SALE—FIFTY-FOOT LOT IN Kenilworth Park; make an offer. Write, E 683, Herald.

POULTRY AND EGGS.

Park & Pollard's poultry feeds are the best. Scratch feed, egg mash, growing feed, etc.; wheat, corn, etc. Get price list. Tessman Bros. Co., 26-40 E. Mich. St.

FOR SALE — BARRED ROCK AND White Orpington pullets, $1.50 each; eggs, $1.50 per fifteen; catalogue. Carl Eastwood, Heron Lake, Minn.

FOR SALE—A FEW WHITE ROCK and R. C. Rhode Island Red cockerels, Neubert stock; for quick sale $2 apiece. H. Box 66, Kelsey, Minn.

FOR SALE HOUSES.

BARGAIN IN AN
EAST END HOME.
—$7,500—

EAST END—
Nine-room house, with two additional rooms in the attic; lot 50 by 150 feet; house has stone foundation, hot water heat, pipes asbestos covered, laundry and toilet in basement, fireplace, oak finish and floors down, maple floors up; walls and finish in first-class condition. Large barn in the rear, will easily accommodate two cars. Exterior painted last summer. Price $7,500. Choice location, upper side of street. House alone could not be built for this money. Reasonable terms.

Call or telephone and make appointment to see this home.

STRYKER, MANLEY & BUCK,
Main Floor, Torrey Bldg.

—EAST END HOMES.—

$15.00 per month will purchase a 4-room house on East Ninth street car line; modern except heat. Paved street. $200 cash required. Price $2,100.

$15.00 per month will purchase a 7-room house on Nineteenth avenue east with all conveniences except heat. Large lot. $500 cash required. Price reduced from $2,700 to $2,100 for quick sale.

—CENTRAL WEST END HOMES.—

$15.00 per month will purchase a new 4-room cottage with all conveniences except heat on 33-foot lot. $300 cash required. Price $2,100.

$25.00 per month will purchase a two-family dwelling of ten rooms with all conveniences except heat. Nice lot and large barn. $300 cash required. Price only $2,800.

BENJAMIN F. SCHWEIGER CO.,
1932 West Superior St.

FOR SALE.

1509 Jefferson street—Living room, dining room, reception hall and kitchen on first floor, and the rooms are exceptionally large, all elegantly finished; four bedrooms on second floor with very large closets; also a large maids' room on third floor; the basement is very spacious; stone foundation; lot 58x140. Owner leaving city and will make a very close price on easy terms.

W. M. PRINDLE & CO.,
Lonsdale Bldg.

—FOR SALE—

A new six-room house on Thirteenth avenue east; modern in every respect; price $4,000; $20 per month and interest will handle; no cash payment required.

Five-room cottage on Twelfth avenue east and Sixth street; oak finish and hardwood floors; price $2,800 on terms to suit.

Five-room cottage on fifty-foot lot on Ninth street; price $1,350; $100 cash and balance like rent will buy it.

A. F. KREAGER,
406-7 Torrey Bldg.

OWN YOUR OWN HOME.

We build to suit your convenience and purse. Small cash payment and balance monthly. We have a number of good plans to choose from.

DULUTH REALTY CO.,
608 First National Bank Bldg.

FOR SALE—VERY FINE NEW MODern brick flat for two families; hot water heat; two plants; laundry; full basement; stone foundation; hardwood floors; plenty of light; place always rented; nice location; walking distance; price $5,650; must have $1,500 cash. Don't inquire unless you have that amount. Little & Nolte Co., Exchange building. (4-1)

FOR SALE—GO YOURSELF AND SEE house No. 1527 South street; it has nice six rooms and bath, gas, electric light, fine electric fixtures, nicely decorated, practically same as new; pay $250 cash, balance $16 per month. Ask us the price, which is very low, or make your own offer. Harris Realty company, Exchange building.

FOR SALE OR TRADE FOR WEST end property, six-room house; lot 50 by 140; bath, sewer, gas, water and electric light, stove heat; Crosley Park; $2,500, $150 down, $20 per month. Call Joseph W. Cumming, Park 110-Y.

$2,000 WILL BUY COMFORTALBE six-room house with bath, electric light, with small lot; centrally located; about $500 cash; owner leaving city; act promptly. Field-Frey company. (E 50).

FOR SALE—BY OWNER, NEW SIX-room house with lot, house now being under construction, everything modern. Good reasons for selling. 329 North Twenty-eighth avenue west.

FOR SALE—BY OWNER, SIX-ROOM new house, all modern except heat. 713 East Eleventh street.

FOR SALE — A BARGAIN, NICE, six-room house; hot water furnace. 823 Tenth avenue east.

ADDITIONAL WANTS ON PAGE 20

FOR SALE HOUSES. (Continued.)

FOR SALE—

NEW SIX-ROOM HOUSE—

$300 cash and—
$25.00 per month buys it—
Hot water heat—
Double sheeting—
Best plumbing—
Hardwood finish and floors—
Good view—nice residence section—
Storm windows and screens—
Near car line—
PRICE $3,800.00—
Call on us tomorrow—

A. W. TAUSSIG & CO.,
407 Providence Bldg.

GOOD HOME BARGAINS.

Seven-room house on Seventh street between Ninth and Tenth avenues east; hardwood floors and very cheap if sold at once; good barn on rear of lot. (929)

Modern home of six rooms with bath and attic, hot water heat; concrete foundation and full basement; located on Thirteenth avenue east; price $3,600; small cash payment will handle; balance on terms. (910)

Fine ten-room house stone foundation, cement floor and basement, hot water heat; centrally located; hardwood floors, oak finish; former price $6,000; offered for quick sale at $4,500—this is an exceptionally good buy at this price. (857)

WHITNEY WALL CO.,
301 Torrey Building.

A RESPONSIBLE PARTY

Can buy a strictly modern home of six rooms at Fifty-eighth avenue east and Superior street on terms the same as rent, no cash required, or will take a good building lot as first payment. What have you to offer?

DE CAIGNY & PAEPE,
509 Providence building.

$4,000 WILL BUY FINE SEVEN-ROOM house with bath, oak finish; nearly new; Lakeside; $500 cash, balance time. Field-Frey company, Exchange building. (M 22).

FOR SALE—BY OWNER, MODERN eight-room house and garage; East end; nice lawn, including garden space; very reasonable. Melrose 3317.

REAL ESTATE LOANS.

FIRST MORTGAGE LOANS.

We advance funds as needed on first mortgage building loans. Favorable terms.

W. M. PRINDLE & CO.,
Lonsdale Bldg.

MONEY TO LOAN — ANY AMOUNT — Any time. Quick service. Building loans a specialty, 5, 5½ and 6 per cent. Cooley & Underhill, 209-210-211 Exchange building.

CASH ON HAND TO LOAN ON CITY and farm property; any amount, lowest rates, no delay. Northern Title Co., 612 First National Bank building.

MONEY ON HAND TO LOAN.
$1,000 to $5,000 "on or before" at 6 per cent. See us first. Wheeler agency, 619 Providence building.

BUILDING LOANS—MONEY ON HAND —no delay. Any amount for business or residence property. L. U. Young, 615 Providence building.

IF YOU OWN A LOT, SEE US ABOUT financing the building of your home. Duluth Lumber Co., Mel. 112, Lin. 112.

Money at Lowest Rates.
Any Amount; No Delay.
Little & Nolte Co., Exchange Bldg.

MONEY TO LOAN—LOANS MADE ON timber and farm lands. John Q. A. Crosby, 305 Palladio building.

MONEY TO LOAN on city property. Stewart G. Collins, 710 Torrey bldg.

For Farm Loans and Farm Lands, see Ebert-Walker Co., 315-16 Torrey bldg.

MONEY TO LOAN—Any amount. Benjamin F. Schweiger, 1932 W. Sup. St.

CITY AND FARM LOANS. WILLIAM C. Sargent, Providence building.

FOR SALE COWS.

FOR SALE—S. GOLDFINE HAS JUST arrived with a carload of the finest assortment of fresh milch cows. 1016 North Fifth avenue west.

FOR SALE—A CARLOAD OF FRESH milch cows has just arrived for S. M. Kaner, 1217 East Seventh street. Both phones.

FOR SALE—RED COW WITH HORNS, 5 years old. Inquire 824 Garfield avenue.

FOR SALE—FRESH MILCH COWS. 217 North Fifty-fourth avenue west.

STOVE REPAIRS.

WE CARRY IN STOCK REPAIRS FOR 10,000 different stoves and ranges. C. F. Wiggerts & Sons, 410 East Sup. St.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.

Fine farm land to exchange for improved property anywhere. Arnold Co., Superior, Wis.

PROFESSIONAL AND BUSINESS GUIDE

Ready reference of the professional men and leading business firms. Herald readers who do not find the line of business they are seeking will confer a favor by requesting of us the information desired.

CALL 324 FOR REPRESENTATION IN THIS COLUMN

ACCOUNTANTS.

JAMES S. MATTESON,
Certified Public Accountant
(Minnesota and Wisconsin).
700-701 Alworth Building.
Special or periodical audits and investigations. Commercial, mining and municipal accounting systems installed or revised.
Organized permanent staff contains four men licensed by the state of Minnesota as certified public accountants, insuring the highest grade SERVICE to all clients.
Bank references. Charges reasonable. Telephones: Melrose 4700; Grand 71.

—JOHN E. MACGREGOR—
Public Accountant and Auditor,
601 Sellwood Building, Melrose 570.

DAVID QUAIL & COMPANY,
Chartered Accountants,
Certified Public Accountants,
401 Torrey Building, Duluth.
Highest references. Inquiries invited.

AWNINGS, TENTS, PACKSACKS.

Poirier Tent & Awning Co., 413 E. Sup. Both phones. Horse and wagon covers.

Auto Curtains—Duluth Tent & Awning Co., 1608 W. Superior St. Lin. 36.

ASHES, CINDERS, ETC., REMOVED

Ashes, cinders and manure removed. Merrill. Mel. 1390; Grand 1488-X.

BUSINESS CARDS.

Business Cards, 300, $1; Calling Cards, 100, 39c. Kask Printing, 114 E. Sup. St.

CAMERAS AND KODAKS.

—ARCADE CAMERA SHOP—
110 West Superior street. Amateur finishing, kodaks and camera supplies.

CARPET CLEANING WORKS.

INTERSTATE CARPET CLEANING CO. 1908 West Michigan St. Both phones.

CHIMNEY SWEEP.

ED McCARTY, CHIMNEY SWEEP AND furnace cleaning. Call Lakeside 46-L.

KNUDSEN, chimney sweep and furnace cleaner. Mel. 46. Fire headquarters.

DANCING ACADEMY.

Ryan's—The school that makes good dancers. Classes: Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays. Call Mel. 4618.

COFFIN'S ACADEMY—Classes Monday, Tuesday and Thursday. Either phone.

FURS REMODELED, REPAIRED.

HAVE YOUR FUR WORK DONE AT Wm. F. Bordasch, 417 Second Ave. E. Phones: Melrose 2236; Grand 199.

FRENCH DRY CLEANERS.

PHONE 1245 AND OUR AUTO WILL call. Prompt attention to out-of-town orders. East End Dry Cleaners.

FURNITURE RE-COVERED.

Let Forsell do your UPHOLSTERING. 334 E. Superior street. Both phones.

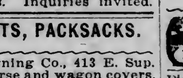
FLORIST AND NURSERYMAN.

Duluth Floral Co., wholesale, retail; cut flowers, funeral designs. 121 W. Sup.

FUNERAL DIRECTOR.

OLSEN & HOPPENYAN, 2014 W. Sup. St.; Lincoln 10; Melrose 7620.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.



A. Haakonsen, dealer and expert repairing, at J. W. Nelson's, 5 East Superior street.

Pianos, violins, victorias, sheet music, etc. Boston Music company.

OPTOMETRIST AND OPTICIAN.

CONSULT A. L. NORBERG, OPTOMETrist and optician, 201½ West First street, for economical buying and correct fitting of glasses; satisfaction guaranteed. We grind our own lenses. Established in business 1891. Registered by examination 1901.

PIANOS REPAIRED AND TUNED.

—THE PIANO SHOP—
Tuning, finishing and repairing. Gregory & Kristensen, 1806 W. Superior St. Melrose 5621; Lincoln 296-X.

DULUTH PIANO REPAIR FACTORY, alley entrance, 312½ W. 1st. Mel. 464.

PATENTS.

All about Patents; consultation free. S. Geo. Stevens, 716 Fidelity. Mel. 3124.

PLUMBING.

THE SANITARY PLUMBING CO., 34 W. First St., plumbing and heating.

WINDOW CLEANING.

National Window Cleaning Co., expert in cleaning woodwork, wall paper, marble, etc. Our work must prove satisfactory, prices reasonable. Mel. 680.

TYPEWRITERS.

Slightly used Underwoods, Oliyers, Smiths, Remingtons and Royals, $15 up. Rented $2 a month. Three months rental applied on purchase. Send for list. Duluth Typwriter company, 319 West First street, Duluth, Minn.

MONEY TO LOAN.

—$10 OR MORE—
LOANED TO ANYONE
On furniture, pianos, etc., or holding a steady position, at rates honest people are willing to pay. See us first and get a square deal. Money in your hands in few hours' time. Low rates. Easy payments.
DULUTH LOAN COMPANY,
307 Columbia Bldg., 303 W. Sup. St.
Hours: 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.; Wednesday and Saturday to 8 p. m.
Melrose 2365; Grand 1224.

MONEY TO LOAN.

From One to Ten Monthly Payments. On Furniture, etc., at Lowest Rates. Example of Cost Per Month:

$15, if paid in 1 month	$0.90
" " " 3 months	0.70
" " " 5 months	0.44
$25, if paid in 1 month	1.10
" " " 3 months	0.95
" " " 5 months	0.80
$50, if paid in 1 month	2.25
" " " 3 months	1.60
" " " 5 months	1.25

Charges on other amounts in proportion. Even lower rates on jewelry, etc.
DULUTH REMEDIAL LOAN ASS'N,
401 First National Bank Bldg.

—MONEY TO LOAN—
ON SALARIES, ON CHATTELS.
OUR RATES ARE LOWEST.
Borrow $10.00, you pay back $11.00.
Borrow $20.00, you pay back $21.75.
Borrow $30.00, you pay back $32.50.
Borrow $40.00, you pay back $43.25.
Other amounts in proportion.
DULUTH FINANCE CO.,
301 Palladio Bldg.
Open Wednesday and Saturday evening until 9 o'clock. Both phones.

WE LOAN ON ALL KINDS OF PERsonal security at lowest rates. Call on us. Duluth Mortgage Loan Co., W. Horkan. New 1598-D; Melrose 3733.

Loans on watches, diamonds, guns, etc. Keystone Loan Co., 22 W. Superior St.

DRESSMAKING.

WANTED—PLAIN AND FANCY SEWing; also children's clothes, by the day. Call after 5:30 evenings. Melrose 4113.

WANTED TO RENT.

WANTED TO RENT — BY YOUNG couple with child, four or five-room house or bungalow on or before April 1; will lease for year or more; must be walking distance from high school, or on Ninth street car line to receive consideration; references furnished; state particulars in reply. Write W 695, Herald.

WANTED TO RENT — ON OR BEfore May 1, six or seven-room apartment with porch and janitor service. Call Melrose 1648.

WANTED TO RENT—A BARN WITH some cows, in or near city. Write or call H. Sorenson, Hall hotel.

RAILROAD TIME TABLES.

Duluth & Iron Range Rail Road.

"Vermilion Route."

DULUTH—	Leave.	Arrive.
Knife River, Two Harbors, Tower, Ely, Winton, Aurora, Biwabik, McKinley Sparta, Eveleth, Gilbert, Virginia.	* 7:30a.m. † 3:15p.m. ‡11:30p.m.	‡11:30a.m. * 5:30p.m. $10:15p.m. x10:45p.m.

*—Daily. †—Daily except Sunday. ‡—Mixed train leaves daily from Fifteenth Avenue East Station. $—Mixed train arrives daily except Sunday at Fifteenth Avenue East Station. x—Arrives Union Depot Sunday only.

DULUTH, MISSABE & NORTHERN RAILWAY.

Office: 426 West Superior St., Phones, 960.

Leave.		Arrive.
*7:40am	Hibbing, Chisholm, Virginia, Eveleth, Coleraine, Sharon, Mountain Iron, Sparta, Biwabik.	* 3:21pm
*3:50pm	Hibbing, Chisholm, Sharon, Virginia, Eveleth, Coleraine.	*10:31am
*7:30pm	Virginia, Chisholm Hibbing.	*6:46pm

*—Daily. †—Daily except Sunday. ‡—Except Biwabik.

Cafe Observation Car, Missabe Range Points, Solid Vestibuled Train.

DULUTH & NORTHERN MINNESOTA RAILWAY.
Office, 510 Lonsdale Bldg., Duluth.
Trains connect at Knife River daily (except Sunday) with D. & I. R. trains leaving Duluth at 7:30 a. m., arriving at Duluth (Endion) at 10:15 p. m. (Connect at Cramer with Grand Marais stage when running.

WANT AD RATES AND INFORMATION

1c a word per day; $1 per line per month. Display classified, 72c per inch per day.

No ad taken for less than 15c.

CHARGE WANT ADS will not be run longer than seven days without renewal order.

ALL CHARGE WANT ADS are due and payable the same day first insertion of ad appears. All out-of-town want ads are cash in advance. Mail orders given prompt attention. Address all letters to Want Ad Department.

CLOSING HOURS—Want ads to be classified properly must be in The Herald office by 11:30 a. m. on the day ad is to be run. Want ads received after closing hour will be inserted under the heading, "Too Late to Classify."

TELEPHONE WANT ADS are charged at the same rate as cash ads and collection will be made at your home or office as soon as possible thereafter. This is an accommodation service and payment should be made promptly when the bill is presented so as to avoid further annoyance and to aid the efficiency of our service. Always ask that your telephone ad be repeated back to you by the telephone ad taker to make sure that it has been correctly taken.

BLIND ADS—No answers to blind ads will be given unless ticket is presented at time of request. Always save ticket showing key number when placing blind ads. Herald employes are not permitted to tell who any advertiser is. Answers to out-of-town blind ads will be forwarded without extra cost.

THE HERALD desires to give the best service to its readers and advertisers. If you desire any suggestion as to the wording of your ad, call the Want Ad Department.

HERALD TELEPHONE NUMBERS

BUSINESS OFFICE
324 EITHER LINE.
Ask for the Want Ad Department.
NEWS DEPARTMENT
1126 EITHER LINE.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED — SOAP SALESMAN FOR the city of Duluth, on commission; must be energetic party with good record. Apply with references to the soap department, Monarch Oil company, limited, Port Arthur, Ont.

LEARN TELEGRAPHY, RAILROAD, commercial, wireless; also touch typewriting; earn board while learning. Write for free catalog. American Telegraph college, Minneapolis, Minn.

WANTED — WOODSMEN FOR ALL kinds of woods work; also cordwood choppers and piece makers; there is very little snow down here. I. Stephenson Co., trustees, Wells, Mich.

WANTED — 500 HUNTERS TO KNOW we loan money on rifles, shotguns, revolvers; will hold till next season before sold. Keystone Loan company, 22 West Superior street.

WANTED—RAGTIME PLAYING POSITively taught in twenty lessons. Send for free booklet. Leffingwell schools, Manager J. L. Denyer, 32 West Second street. 7720 Melrose.

WANTED—GOVERNMENT POSITIONS are easy to get. My free booklet R. Y. 302 tells how. Write today—Now. Earl Hopkins, Washington, D. C.

U. S. government wants clerks; $100 month; Duluth examinations April 12; sample questions free. Franklin Institute, Dept. 186 M, Rochester, N. Y.

WANTED—MACHINIST, FIRST-CLASS lathe hand, steady work and good wages to right man, local shop. Write Z 682, Herald.

WANTED — EXPERIENCED WASHman at once. Apply Excelsior Laundry company, 17 North Twentieth avenue west.

WANTED — EXPERIENCED SALESman, Finnish preferred. Inquire Fifth Avenue Clothing company.

WANTED—PARTNER; GOOD BUSIness proposition; $250 required. Inquire 503 Providence building.

WANTED — BARBER; WAGES $16 and half over $26. William Hasselblad, Ely, Minn., Box 587.

WANTED—BOYS OVER 16 AT CENtral bowling alley, 216 West Superior street.

WANTED—YOUNG MAN TO MILK IN dairy; Grand 2225-Y. Homecroft dairy.

WANTED—CASH PAID FOR diamonds. Watches repaired, $1. 5 S. 5th Av. W.

Wanted—Appearance counts; your suit pressed while U wait. 2 Lyceum Bldg.

BUSINESS CHANCES.

FOR SALE.

Pool hall	Price $2,000
Cigar stand	Price $1,200
Confectionery and cigars	Price $1,500
Confectionery, 4 living rooms	$350
Light grocery	Price $600
Lunch counter	Price $750
Rooming house, 17 rooms	Price $900
Hotel, 25 rooms	Price $900
Hotel, 22 rooms	Price $1,500

DULUTH BUSINESS EXCHANGE, 509 Torrey Building.

FOR SALE—SMALL GROCERY AND confectionery store in center of city; basement can be used for living rooms; good business, reasonable rent; sickness of proprietor reason for selling. Write Z 700, care Herald.

BUSINESS CHANCE—A SMALL, NEW hotel, newly furnished, for sale, reasonable; account ill health; steam heat; all modern; rooms all full. Main Hotel, Crosby, Minn.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—GOOD-PAYing business for cash or income property; bank reference; deal with owner; no commissions. Write B 588, Herald.

BUSINESS CHANCES — ROOMING house for rent; all rooms rented; will sell furniture in lot or in pieces; party leaving town. Write V 676, Herald.

BUSINESS CHANCES—WANTED TO hear from owner of good business for sale; state cash price and particulars. D. F. Bush, Minneapolis, Minn.

BUSINESS CHANCES — FOR SALE—Shoemaker shop near steel plant. John Komletinski, 313 Commonwealth avenue, New Duluth, Minn.

BUSINESS CHANCES — FOR SALE bakery and confectionery, small amount of money will handle deal, low rent. Write, F 596, Herald.

BUSINESS CHANCES — WANTED, partner; good business proposition; $250 required. Inquire 503 Providence building.

FLORIST.

Duluth Floral Co., wholesale, retail, cut flowers, funeral designs. 121 W. Sup.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

LEARN TO CUT AND MAKE YOUR own waists and dresses. You can easily do it after taking the course in practical instruction. Make clothes while learning. Miss Gray's school, 3d floor, Geo. A. Gray Co. Also all sizes and styles of patterns cut to measure.

WANTED—AT NOPEMING SANATOrium, a young woman, preferably a high school graduate, to take a year of hospital training in nursing; wages $20 a month with board and laundry. Address Superintendent of Nurses, Nopeming, Minn.

WANTED—LADIES TO SEW INSOLES; good pay weekly; no canvassing; goods cut ready for machine; transportation paid. Address with stamped envelope. No-ak Insoles, Danville, Pa.

WANTED—A COMPETENT HOUSEkeeper to take care of small home on the range; must also take care of a 14-month-old baby; state wages expected. Write S 689, Herald.

WANTED — EXPERIENCED GARment saleslady; apply giving name of last employer and state salary expected. Itasca Bazaar company, Hibbing, Minn.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework; three in family; good wages; must be good cook. Mrs. A. M. Washburn, 2419 East Fifth street.

WANTED—YOUNG GIRL TO ASSIST in housework; small family; work not hard, and good comfortable room. Call 2123 Sussex avenue, Kenilworth park.

WANTED—LADY AGENTS TO SELL meritorious article; salary and commission; excellent proposition for industrious lady. L 717, Herald.

WANTED — FOR PRIVATE HOME, young woman as managing housekeeper; widower, out-of-town. Apply Room 34, Elgin hotel.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework; no washing. Inquire Boston store. Call Cole 36-X. Must live in West Duluth.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Call Duluth Meat Supply company, Second avenue west and First street.

WANTED—EXPERIENCED GIRL FOR housework, family of two; must be good plain cook; all modern home. L 696, Herald.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework; small family; good wages. East End Dry Cleaners, 926 East Superior street.

WANTED AT ONCE — COMPETENT girl for general housework; small family; good wages. Apply 1422 East Fifth street.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework, one who can cook. Mrs. John Wertin, 1510 East Third street.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Apply Mrs. J. R. Zweifel, 4231 McCulloch street. Lakeside 273-K.

WANTED—GOVERNMENT POSITIONS open to women; $75 month. Franklin Institute, dept. 646 M., Rochester, N. Y.

WANTED—GIRL TO HELP WITH light housework for room and board, small wages. 216 Ninth avenue east.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework; good cook; two in family. 1510 East Second street.

WANTED — COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework. Apply 1614 East Third street. References required.

WANTED — NURSEMAID; YOUNG girl who will go home nights preferred. 1123 East First street.

WANTED—GIRL TO ASSIST WITH housework and take care of children. Apply 726 East Second street.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Apply 1020 East Fifth street or Melrose 6473.

WANTED AT ONCE—COMPETENT maid for general housework. 1124 East Superior street.

WANTED AT ONCE — WAITRESS. Delicatessen restaurant. 25 East Superior street.

WANTED — EXPERIENCED GIRL for general housework. 1914 East First street.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework. 414 East Third street.

WANTED—COMPETENT COOK; REFerences required. 2324 East Fifth street.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Apply 1412 East Third street.

WANED — HOUSEKEEPER. CALL Calumet 92-L, Cole 299 or Cole 224-Y.

WANTED—GOOD GIRL AT 131 WEST Third street. Mrs. O. J. Hunt.

WANTED — EXPERIENCED HOUSEkeeper. 314 East Second street.

WANTED — GIRLS AT ACME LAUNdry. 219 West First street.

AUTOS & MOTORCYCLES.

98 PER CENT OF AUTO BUYERS READ THE DULUTH HERALD.

The names in which automobile licenses are issued have been checked with The Duluth's Herald subscription lists, and it was found that 98 out of every 100 people who buy cars read The Duluth Herald.

If you have a car for sale or trade, offer it in this automobile column and you will reach practically every one who will buy.

OXY-ACETYLENE WELDING, CUTting and carbon burning; all work guaranteed satisfactory or no charge, 99½ per cent pure oxygen for sale. Duluth Gas & Welding Co., 2110-2112 West Michigan St. Mel. 7064; Lin. 643.

BRING US YOUR OLD CASINGS. Tires lockstitched and double-treaded. We can get 1,000 to 5,000 miles more wear out of them for you at small cost. Herian & Merling, 105 West First street, Duluth. Melrose 4668.

AUTO CYLINDERS REBORED, NEW pistons and rings made; accurate workmanship; prices right. Zollner Machine works, 314-16 West First street, alley entrance. Melrose 80.

FOR SALE CHEAP—1915 Saxon roadster; good running order, electric lights, self starter. Inquire Harry Merritt, 619 Providence building.

Equip your car with V radiator and hood; allowance for old radiator. Johnson Auto Supply, 338 E. Superior

Eastern Auto Radiator works—Also all auto metal work done. 336 East Superior street. Phone Grand 2323.

YOUR CAR REPAIRED AT YOUR garage; A-1 mechanics. Harrison & Son, Mel. 6542; 2721 Huron street.

WALL PAPER.

Experienced and reliable paper-hanger will furnish new and up-to-date patterns and paper an ordinary-sized room for $4.50. Painting and tinting neatly done; prompt and satisfactory work guaranteed. Decorator, 31 W. Second St. Mel. 4303; Grand 596-X.

BOATS & MOTORBOATS.

FOR SALE—CHEAP; SIXTEEN-FOOT launch. Call Cole 400 or 400-D.

THE GROCERY AND MEAT MARKET ADS

WILL INTEREST YOU TOMORROW NIGHT

Read them—Take advantage of the savings the advertising Grocer and Meat Market man offer you. High price stores never advertise, as they figure on a small business with big profits.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

PERSONAL.

—A MASTER SERVICE—
The Yale method of dry cleaning is recommended to you by the National Association of Dyers and Cleaners. To become a member of this association it was required of us to have a fully equipped, up-to-date standard dry cleaning establishment; consider these facts when you need the service of dry cleaners; insist on having your work done by master cleaners. Our wagon will call when you phone 2442. Yale laundry and French dry cleaners.

PERSONAL — IF YOU WANT QUALity furniture for the home at practically your own prices then come to Cameron Furniture company's salesrooms, 2110-2112 West Superior street. Lease expires; entire stock must be sold regardless of manufacturers' cost; terms cash; open evenings.

PERSONAL—R. D. HARDY COMPANY, scalp specialists, second floor, Ferguson block, Fourth avenue west and Superior street. Successful in baldness and all greasy and scaly conditions which cause premature grayness and the fall of the hair. Telephone Melrose 2523 for appointment.

PERSONAL—NEWLY WEDS! BUY your furniture now even though you can pay only a little down, pay the balance monthly. Big discounts on hundreds of pieces of furniture. Anderson Furniture company, Twenty-first avenue west and Superior St.

PERSONAL—Ladies! Ask your druggist for Chichester Pills, the Diamond Brand, for 25 years known as best, safest, always reliable. Take no other. Chichester Diamond Brand Pills are sold by druggists everywhere.

PERSONAL—Get away from washday troubles by sending your family wash to us, 5½c per pound. Lutes' laundry, 808 East Second street. Phone us, Grand 447; Melrose 447.

Unexcelled hairdressing, facial massage and beauty treatments. Also corns and bunions treated. Mrs. Dr. Bahr, Comfort Beauty Parlors, 109 Oak hall.

Madam Moisan, toupee specialist; long established; work guaranteed; toupees protect from colds and neuralgia; switches made up. 215½ W. 1st.

MADE-TO-MEASURE Shirts, Underwear, Raincoats, Neckties, Suit or O'Coat, $18. Ladies' Suits, spring selections. C. N. Hamilton, 315 E. Sup St.

Personal—Boyce's soda fountain under new management; light lunches; all home cooking; sanitation and service the best in city. E. H. McAllister, prop.

PERSONAL LOANS ON DIAMONDS, $100 and up, at 1 per cent a month. Keystone Loan Co., 22 W. Superior St.

Personal—Lena E. Pierce, successor to Mrs. E. H. Lower; corns, bunions, ingrown nails treated, also chilblains. 22-23 Mesaba blk. Mel. 1470; Gr. 242.

Personal—Medicated salt baths, shampoo and massage. Anna Manthey, 27 E. Sup. st., flat 4. Mel. 5498. Resident appointments solicited.

2x3 photos in attractive folders; three for 25c; special value. Brown's Photo studio. 221 West Superior St.

PERSONAL—FOR CLEAN WORK AND good service come to McKay hotel barber shop, under new management.

MASSAGE—MARGARET NELSON, 218 W. Superior St., room 8, third floor. Also appointments at your home.

PERSONAL—WANTED SMALL CHILdren to board and care for. Call 2705½ West Second street.

PERSONAL—WIDOW WOULD LIKE small child to board. Call Melrose 2629.

PERSONAL—Ladies, have your suits made at Miller Bros., 405 E. Sup. St.

PERSONAL — FOR SICK PEOPLE—flowers. Duluth Floral company.

Hair, moles, warts removed by electricity; manicuring. Miss Kelly hair shop

Personal—Effective scalp treatment. Mrs. Vogt's Hair Shop, 105 W. Sup. St.

Personal—Combings and cut hair made into beautiful switches. Knauf Sisters.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

WANTED.

Preferred or common American Manganese Manufacturing company stock. See me before selling.

W. H. LOCKER,
505 Lonsdale Building.

WANTED TO TRADE GOOD HIGH class dividend paying commercial stock for a good high class make, second hand or new runabout car, must be in first class condition and light weight; will deal with owners only. Write D 686, Herald.

SUMMER RESORTS.

FOR SALE—LARGE CAMP SITES ON beautiful Lake Vermilion; sand bathing beaches, parks, docks, wells, etc.; monthly payments as low as $2, without interest; all sites sold on our "money back" guarantee. Gray-Wertin company, Alworth building.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

ADDITIONAL WANTS ON PAGE 19

FOR RENT—ROOMS.

—THE NEW ALEXANDRIA—
A few desirable rooms now vacant at special winter rates; well-heated and comfortable apartments. Private telephone in every room. Dining room in connection. 322 W. Second St.

—METROPOLE HOTEL—
101-5 Lake avenue south; hot and cold running water in every room; steam heat and other modern conveniences; rates $2 per week and up.

—ELGIN HOTEL—
Nicely furnished, steam-heated rooms; best beds in the city; running water; very reasonable winter rates. 321 West First street.

MELROSE HOTEL,
318 West Second street; well-heated, pleasant rooms and board at special winter rates. Mel. 4301; Grand 2166-X.

The New Mitchell hotel—Rooms newly furnished and decorated; also suite of rooms; all conveniences; rates reasonable. 28 East Second St. Mel. 3357.

THE MARYLAND HOTEL, 310 EAST Superior street; steam-heated, modern rooms, $1.75 per week and up.

LA SALLE HOTEL—12-14 Lake Ave. north Cozy, warm rooms with hot and cold water. Special low rates.

FOR RENT — TWO LADIES OR MAN and wife can have elegant room with privileges in central East end home; company more essential than remuneration. Write V 698, Herald.

FOR RENT — STEAM-HEATED rooms; reasonable; suitable for small manufacturing, offices, work shop or storage. 313 West Superior street, second floor.

SINCE 1912 WE HAVE SAVED MONEY for hotels and rooming houses on their linens. We sell at wholesale. J. G. Valentine & Co., 8 E. First St.

FOR RENT—SUITE OF ROOMS FOR light housekeeping; also one furnished room with hot and cold water. 412 West Third street.

FOR RENT — TWO NICE, LARGE, heated rooms; furnished for light housekeeping; all conveniences. 310 West Third street.

FOR RENT — FURNISHED ROOM with or without board in private family. 626 North Fifty-sixth avenue west.

FOR RENT — ONE OR TWO BEDrooms with kitchen, furnished for light housekeeping. 2609 West Huron street.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOMS ALso for light housekeeping; use of bath and phone. 1 West Superior street.

FOR RENT—NEATLY FURNISHED room, first floor; use of phone and piano; $2 per week. 440 Mesaba avenue.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED BASEMENT room for light housekeeping; all conveniences. 322 West Third street.

FOR RENT—TWO FRONT FURNISHed rooms for housekeeping, private family. 325 East First street.

FOR RENT — TWO LIGHT HOUSEkeeping rooms; steam heat. 16 West Second street, Flat A.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOM, suitable for two gentlemen. 1615 Piedmont avenue.

FOR RENT—NICELY FURNISHED front room, 502½ East Fourth street, Flat B.

FOR RENT — TWO FURNISHED housekeeping rooms. 112 East First street.

FOR RENT—THREE ROOMS. 118 West Fourth street.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOMS. 118 Third avenue west.

LOST AND FOUND.

FOUND—THE REAL FURNITURE bargains you'll find at Cameron's salesrooms, 2110-2112 West Superior street; lease expires April 30; entire stock will be sold regardless of value or factory cost; open evenings.

LOST—GOLD BRACELET, BETWEEN Proctor and Lake avenue, Duluth. Initials "B. B." from "L. B." Return to Leiser company or John Brophy, Proctor. Reward.

LOST—LAST NIGHT, GOLD LOCKET and chain between Thirty-eighth and Twenty-fourth avenue west. Call Lincoln 261-L. Reward.

LOST—ON EAST FOURTH STREET car, gold necklace; diamond setting; valued as keepsake. Liberal reward. Call Lakeside 295-A.

LOST — ENGLISH SETTER, BLACK and white. Return to Edward Whalen, 212 West Superior street. Reward.

TIMBER LANDS.

TIMBER AND CUT-OVER LANDS bought; mortgage loans made. John Q. A. Crosby, 305 Palladio building.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

FOR RENT—FLATS.

FOR RENT—MARCH 10, A FIVEroom and alcove flat in brick building located on Fifth avenue west just above Fourth street; thoroughly modern; hot water heating plant; very desirable; $29.00 per month. For further information call F. I. Salter Co., 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT—$15, A 3-ROOM FLAT IN brick building, No. 15½ West First street; water, sewer, gas, electric lights and toilet; stove heat; a bargain. F. I Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT — 18 EAST FOURTH street, $5; basement flat, four rooms, water, sewer, electric light. Inquire of Morris Solberg, 226½ South First avenue east. New phone, Grand 1231-Y.

FOR RENT—THREE-ROOM FLAT, $8; 4-room flat, $12.50; hardwood floors throughout, sewer, gas, water and electric lights; centrally located. Chas P. Meyers, 611 Alworth Bldg.

FOR RENT—HEATED SEVEN-ROOM flat in Dacey apartments with water, heat and janitor service. Call Melrose or Grand 423.

FOR RENT—FOUR-ROOM FLAT, NICE large rooms; 1028 East Tenth street; modern except heat; $15 per month. Key downstairs.

FOR RENT—FOUR-ROOM FLAT, 219 East Fifth street, bath; $15 per month. William C. Sargent, Providence building.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED FIVE-ROOM flat, heated; janitor service, $30. 123 Tenth avenue east. Melrose 7551.

FOR RENT — SUNNY FIVE-ROOM flat; modern except heat; nice location. 1111 East Second street.

FOR RENT—FIRST FLOOR, FOURroom flat at 26 East Second street. Apply 5 East Superior street.

FOR RENT—FIVE-ROOM HEATED flat. 314 Second avenue east. Melrose 4448, Grand 1936-D.

FOR RENT—SIX ROOM FLAT, HOT water furnace and all conveniences. 829 West Third street

FOR RENT—FOUR-ROOM FLAT, ALL conveniences; rent reasonable. Call Melrose 4617.

FOR RENT—SIX-ROOM FLAT; ALL modern; heat furnished. 27½ West Fourth street.

FOR RENT—CHEAP; MODERN FIVEroom basement. 706 East Fifth street.

FOR RENT—HOUSES.

—FOR RENT—

1214 E. Third st., 6 rooms, all conveniences, rent	$35.00
1509 E. Third st., 8 rooms, all conveniences, rent	35.00
112 S. Sixteenth ave. E., 8 room, all conveniences	35.00
21 S. Seventeenth ave. E., 8 rooms, all conveniences	32.50
214 Ninth ave. E., 8 rooms, all conveniences, rent	32.00
903 E. Second st., 8 rooms, all conveniences, rent	30.00
23 Mesaba ave., 8 rooms, all conveniences, rent	33.00
5812 E. Superior st., 7 rooms, water, sewer, electric light, rent	21.00
629 W. First st., 5 rooms, water, sewer and electric light, rent	20.00
110 W. Second st., 10 rooms, bath, gas and electric light, rent	35.00

STRYKER, MANLEY & BUCK, Main floor, Torrey Bldg.

FOR RENT.
Centrally located, strictly modern, brick house; 8 rooms and bath-room, hot water heat, laundry and toilet in basement, hardwood finish and floors; very desirable; $50 per month.
STRYKER, MANLEY & BUCK.

FOR RENT—THREE-ROOM FLAT, $8; 4-room flat, $12.50; hardwood floors throughout, sewer, gas, water and electric lights; centrally located. Chas. P. Meyers, 611 Alworth Bldg.

FOR RENT—A SIX-ROOM MODERN house centrally located, which has hot water heating plant; $35.00 per month. F. I. Salter Co., 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT—SIX-ROOM HOUSE. 310 West Fifth street; modern except heat. Inquire rental department Bridgeman & Russell company.

FOR RENT — FIVE-ROOM HOUSE; modern except heat; Park Point. Inquire Edmont, 18 Third avenue west.

FOR RENT—MODERN SEVEN-ROOM house, 2711 West Third street. Inquire at 2819 West Superior street.

FOR RENT — MODERN, SIX-ROOM house; new. Inquire 320 West Third street.

FOR RENT—NOS. 1718 AND 1720 EAST Superior street. E. P. Alexander.

HORSES, VEHICLES, ETC.

HORSES—GUARANTEED—HORSES.
We have everything in the horse line. Country bought, free from the diseases of the city markets. Always glad to show stock; always give a written guarantee; always give square deal. Part time if desired.
TWIN PORTS HORSE MARKET,
W. E. BARKER, Prop.,
18 First Avenue W.

DRAFT AND DELIVERY HORSES, FARM MARES, GENERAL PURPOSE HORSES.
All our horses are Minnesota raised. Sales made on time if desired. Buy from an established dealer. Also, we guarantee every horse to be as represented.
ZENITH SALE STABLE.
MOSES GOLDBERG, Prop.,
524 West First Street,
Two blocks from union depot.

HORSES HORSES HORSES
If in the market for horses be sure and see our offerings. We have from 200 to 300 head constantly on hand. Part time given if desired. Barrett & Zimmerman, Duluth Horse Market, Twenty-third avenue west and Superior street. H. J. Walt, manager.

FOR SALE—TEAM OF NICE BLOCKY mares; weight about 3,200 lbs., 5 years old, well matched; can be bought at a bargain; part time given if necessary. 608 North Fifty-sixth avenue west; right beside fire hall, West Duluth; Cole 301, Calumet 280-L.

FOR SALE—CHEAP, HORSE, CUTTER and harness, light outfit. Call morning or evenings, between 6 and 7. 18 North Nineteenth avenue west.

FOR SALE—FOURTEEN-FOOT BOBsled, large gong, two sets brakes, steering wheel, $25. Write F 681, Herald.

FOR SALE—HORSE, HARNESS, WAgon and sleigh; very cheap. Inquire 1721 East South street. Grand 1488-D.

FOR SALE — CHEAP, TEAM BAY horses; weight 2,600; first class condition. Call Lincoln 355-A.

WATCHES REPAIRED.

Bring your watch to Garon Bros., to have it repaired right. 217 W. 1st. St.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

SALE—MISCELLANEOUS

—SPECIAL LOW PRICES—
ON DINING ROOM TABLES.
All styles and finishes. $7.85 and upward.
Big selection to choose from.
ENGER & OLSON,
Nineteenth Ave. W. and Sup. St.

—NOTICE—
Will sell either to dealers on thirty days' time, or direct to retail trade on installment plan, or exchange for other useful merchandise, a number of used coal ranges, gas ranges and bench wringers; all these have been carefully rebuilt with new parts where necessary and are almost as good as new; we find that we are overstocked on same and are willing to sacrifice on price.
BELLNET INSTALLMENT CO.,
202 East Superior St.

—BREAK AWAY—
From the extravagant habit of paying rent on furniture. Furnish your own rooms now at our annual clearance sale. If you are married and living in a light housekeeping suite, you should investigate the big value we are offering in 3-room outfits at $69; terms $1.50 per week. F. S. Kelly Furniture Co., 17 and 19 West Superior street.

TALKING MACHINES — LARGEST stock in the city. Complete outfits at special prices. Be sure you get the New Columbia Grafonola; awarded three grand prizes and two gold medals at the world's fair; double-faced records 65 cents; ask for catalogues free; only exclusive talking machine store in Duluth, largest stock. Edmont, 18 Third avenue west.

WONDERFULLY BIG BARGAINS IN pianos. We are closing out entire stock to remodel the showrooms. $275 piano $126; $350 now $165; $750 player piano now $325; cash or on payments. Korby Piano Co., 26 Lake Av. N.

FOR SALE—CLOSING OUT ESTATE—Full set office furniture, Royal typewriter, desk and chair, roll-top desk and chair, sectional and revolving bookcases, filing cabinets, tables, couch and chairs; will sell all or any part. Call Grand 509.

FOR SALE—AT BIG BARGAIN, THE new $375 piano I won in News Tribune contest. You can select player-piano or baby grand. Cash or terms. Call or write N. S. Mitchell, 102 Manhattan building, Duluth.

FOR SALE — COLUMBIA CYLINDER phonograph; cost $35 and practically good as new; a fine and loud speaker, only $9.50 with five selected records. Write W. Borchsenius, Nye, Wis.

AT WHOLESALE TO HOTELS AND rooming houses, table linens, bedding, towels, crashes, curtains, etc. No extra charge for marking. Zenith Dry Goods Co., 126 East First street.

SAFES AND SAFE-CABINETS.
All sizes, new and second-hand, at reasonable prices. Get our list before buying. Safe-Cabinet company, 315 West First street. Melrose 1364.

FOR SALE—12-HORSE POWER GASoline engine, in good condition, cheap. Inquire at Bartlett, Minn., on Canadian Northern railroad. Henry Nesgoda.

FOR SALE — CAMERON FURNITURE Company will save you 50 per cent on quality furniture for the home. Salesrooms 2110-2112 West Superior street.

FOR SALE—Second-hand woodworking machinery, portable sawmill, transmission appliances, pipes for steam, water and furnaces. Duluth Mach. Co.

FOR SALE—LEAVING TOWN, WILL sell cheap, square piano, sewing machine, tables, chairs, beds, chiffonier, book case, etc. 1115 East First street.

FOR SALE — DRY HARDWOOD, sawed or split and delivered. Grand 1576-D. James Leary, care of Gospel mission, Lake avenue south.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE OF FIVEroom flat, including fine player piano; parties leaving town. 1418 Jefferson street; Melrose 5107.

FOR SALE—PLATE GLASS FLOOR showcase, practically new, will be sold cheap. Call or write Miss Horrigan, Oak Hall building.

FOR SALE — LEATHER UPHOLstered bed davenport, practically new; cheap for quick sale. Phone Melrose 1540.

FOR SALE—16-INCH MAPLE AND birch wood, $7 per cord. Gus Carlson, 2205 West First street; Lincoln 463.

FOR SALE — CHEAP, HOUSEHOLD goods and furniture, including two gas plates. 226 Second avenue west.

FOR SALE—PLAYER PIANO, WITH music, at a bargain; easy payments. Edmont, 18 Third avenue west.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE OF TWOroom flat; leaving city. 23 Phoenix block annex. Melrose 6176.

FOR SALE—TWO IRON BEDS AND springs, very cheap. 1901 East Fifth street. Evenings.

FOR SALE—THOROUGHBRED English bulldog, female. Write M 688, Herald.

FOR SALE — FUMED OAK PARLOR and dining room set. 5718 Olney street.

FOR SALE—BUCK RADIANT HEATer. 114 West Fourth street. Call at store.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE, ODDS AND ends at half price. Boston Music Co.

FOR SALE CHEAP—FINE WILTON velvet rug. 524 Fourth avenue east.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE. 108 SOUTH Twenty-seventh avenue west.

FOR SALE—CASH REGISTER. 503 Providence building.

PRIVATE HOSPITALS.

PRIVATE HOME BEFORE AND DURing confinements; good care by experienced nurse; infants cared for. Mrs. Finkle, 213 W. 3rd St. Mel. 2454.

PRIVATE HOME FOR WOMEN BEfore and during confinement; expert care; infants cared for. Ida Pearson, M. D., 284 Harrison avenue, St. Paul.

PRIVATE HOME BEFORE AND DURing confinement. K. Thorstenson, 1602 28th St., Superior Wis. Ogden 851-X.

Mrs. H. Olson, graduate midwife; private hospital and home. 329 N. 58th Ave. W. Phones, Cole 173; Cal. 270.

MRS HANSON, GRADUATE MIDwife; female complaints, 413 Seventh avenue east. Zenith 1225.

Mrs. A. Ferguson, graduate midwife, 917 East Tenth street. Grand 1976-Y.

UPHOLSTERING.

Furniture, Automobiles — Reasonable price. E. Ott, 112 1st Ave. W. Phones.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

DULUTH LODGE NO. 505, LOYAL ORDER of Moose, meets every Tuesday at 8 o'clock, Moose hall, 224 West First street. Carl Schau, secretary, 14 Third avenue east.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

PALESTINE LODGE NO. 79, A. F. & A. M.—Regular meetings first and third Monday evenings of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting, March 6, 1916. Work—Second degree. Clement O. Townsend, W. M.; James S. Matteson, Sec.

IONIC LODGE, NO. 186, A. F. & A. M.—Regular meeting second and fourth Monday evenings of each month at 7:30. Next meeting, Special, Wednesday, March 1, 1916. Work—Second degree. William J. Works, W. M.; Burr Porter, Secretary.

KEYSTONE CHAPTER NO. 20, R. A. M.—Stated convocations, second and fourth Wednesday evenings of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting March 8, 1916. Work—Royal Arch degree conferred by Past High Priests. Stanley L. Mack, H. P.; Alfred Le Richeux, secretary.

DULUTH COUNCIL NO. 6, R. & S. M.—Stated convocations, third Friday of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting, March 17, 1916. Work—Superexcellent degree. Maynard W. Turner, T. I. M.; Alfred Le Richeux, Secretary.

DULUTH COMMANDERY NO. 18, K. T.—Stated convocations, first Tuesday of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next conclave, March 7, 1916. Work—Annual meeting election of officers. Arch. D. MacIntyre, Com.; Alfred Le Richeux, recorder.

SCOTTISH RITE — REGULAR MEETINGS every Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Next meeting, March 2, 1916. Work—Twenty-first degree. Burr Porter, secretary.

ZENITH CHAPTER NO. 25, ORDER OF Eastern Star—Regular meetings second and fourth Friday evenings each month. Next meeting, Friday, March 10, 1916, at 7:30 o'clock. Work—Regular business, balloting and initiation. Eva M. Dunbar, W. M.; Ella F. Gearhart, Sec.

MIZPAH SHRINE NO. 1, ORDER OF THE White Shrine of Jerusalem—Regular meetings first Saturday evening of each month at 8 o'clock. Next meeting, March 4, 1916. Business and balloting. Gertrude Bates, W. H. P.; Etta Trevranus, W. S.

EUCLID CHAPTER NO. 56, ORDER OF the Eastern Star—Meets at West Duluth Masonic temple the first and third Tuesdays of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting, March 7, 1916. Initiation. Flora Clark, W. M.; Mildred M. Ross, Sec.

EUCLID LODGE, NO. 198, A. F. & A. M.—Meets at West Duluth, second and fourth Wednesdays of each month at 7:30 p. m. Next meeting, March 8, 1916. Work—Third degree. H. W. Lanners, W. M.; A. Dunleavy, secretary.

DULUTH CHAPTER NO. 59, R. A. M.—Meets at West Duluth first and third Wednesdays of each month at 7:30 p. m. Next meeting, March 1, 1916. Work—P. M. and M. E. M. degrees. W. A. Pittenger, H. P.; A. Dunleavy, secretary.

LAKESIDE LODGE NO. 281, A. F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Mondays of each month at 8 o'clock at Masonic hall, Forty-fifth avenue east and Robinson street. Next meeting, March 6, 1916. Regular work, First degree. William A. Hieken, W. M.; George E. Nelson, secretary, 4530 Cooke street east.

TRINITY LODGE NO. 282, A. F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Mondays at 8 o'clock, in Woodman hall, Twenty-first avenue west. Next meeting, regular, March 6, 1916. Work—Third degree. E. H. Pfeifer, W. M., 1918 West Third street; R. E. Wheeler, secretary, 2032 West Superior street.

A. O. U. W.
FIDELITY LODGE NO 105—MEETS AT Maccabee hall, 21 Lake avenue north, every Thursday at 8 p. m. Visiting members welcome. E. A. Vogt, M. W.; J. A. Lukasky, recorder; O. J. Murvold, financier, 217 East Fifth street. Social dance, March 2.

A. O. U. W.—DULUTH LODGE NO. 10—Meets every second and fourth Tuesday nights at Axa hall, 221 West Superior street. Next meeting, March 14, 1916, at 8 p. m., Initiation. Marvin E. Heller, M. W.; R. O. Foote, recorder; E. F. Heller, financier, 509 Second avenue east.

ZENITH COUNCIL NO. 161, ROYAL League, meets the first and third Thursdays in the month, at 8 o'clock, in the old Masonic temple, Superior street and Second avenue east. O. S. Kempton, archon, Wolvin building; H. A. Hall, collector, 18 East First street.

DULUTH LODGE NO. 28, I. O. O. F.—Next meeting, Friday evening, March 3, 1916, at 7:30 o'clock, 221 West Superior street, third floor. Work—Initiatory degree will be conferred. Odd Fellows welcome. Charles F. Ottinger, N. G.; W. J. McDonald, Rec. Sec.

K. OF P.
NORTH STAR LODGE NO. 35, K. OF P.—Meets every Tuesday, 7:30 p. m., sixth floor, Temple building, Superior street and Second avenue east. Next meeting, Feb. 22, 1916. Work—First rank. James A. Wharton, C. C., 802 Alworth building; B. A. Rowe, M. of F., 205 First National bank; R. A. Bishop, K. of R. and S., 505 Palladio building.

ZENITH CAMP NO. 5, WOODMEN OF the World, meets on first and third Friday nights of month, at Foresters' hall, Fourth avenue west and First street. J. H. Larkin, clerk, 312 Sixtieth avenue east. Lakeside 23-K.

MAJESTIC REBEKAH LODGE NO. 60, I. O. O. F.—Regular meetings first and third Thursdays of each month, 8 p. m., 221 West Superior street, third floor. Next meeting, March 2, 1916. Feb. 26, drill practice. Mrs. Henrietta Shaw, N. G.; Lillian Johnson, secretary, Grand 2113-Y.

DULUTH HOMESTEAD NO. 3131, BROTHerhood of American Yeomen, meets every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock sharp, in Maccabee hall, 21 Lake avenue north.

LAST EDITION

THE DULUTH HERALD

24 PAGES

VOLUME XXXIII—NO. 283. FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 3, 1916. TWO CENTS.

Minn Historical Society D H

MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

SENATE STANDS FIRM BEHIND THE PRESIDENT

GERMANS BRING UP HEAVIER GUNS AND RENEW ASSAULT ON VERDUN WITH GREATER VIOLENCE

FRENCH CLAIM REPULSE OF TEUTONS EXCEPT AT POINT WEST OF FORT DOUAUMONT

Berlin Reports German Lines Pushed Beyond Village and More Than 1,000 Prisoners Taken.

Drives From Both Sides Indicate the Familiar Plan of Teutons of Rolling Up Their Flanks.

London, March 3.—The violent German offensive on Verdun has been resumed, the fighting taking on an extremely desperate character north of the French stronghold.

The Paris war office claims that the French repulsed all the German attacks, except that west of Fort Douaumont the Germans succeeded in reaching the village of Douaumont, where the struggle is being continued.

Apparently the Germans now have been able to bring up some, at least, of their larger pieces, for the French war office has reported a considerable increase in the intensity of the fire along the whole front at Verdun, both to the north and northwest and in the Woevre region to the east and southeast.

Familiar German Plan.

The drives from those two sides, now renewed, are held to indicate the familiar German plan of rolling up the flanks of a position, or using the claw-hammer jaws of the military machine to get at the kernel of the nut. Significance may be attached in this connection to the development of a heavy bombardment of the French positions on La Morthomme ("The Dead Man"). This hill lies a mile and a half west of the bend in the Meuse to the northwest of Verdun, from which it is eight miles distant. No infantry attack on this flank position has yet been reported.

Movement in the Argonne.

Possible development of some German movement in the Argonne still further to the northwest of the fortress is indicated by the Paris report that the French have directed a concentrated fire on hostile positions there. Observers' eyes also are still on the Champagne region, beyond the Argonne, where the Germans recently made gains toward the south and where a serious break in the French lines would have a material influence

(Continued on page 10, first column.)

GERMAN SEA RAIDER LURKS OFF CAPES

Steamer Captain Reports Seeing Mysterious Lights at Sea at Night.

New York, March 3.—A report that a German commerce raider or prize was lurking off Cape Henry, Va., awaiting a favorable chance to make a dash for Newport News or Norfolk, was brought here today by Capt. Munkewitz of the Bull-Insular liner Grayson here from Porto Rico.

Capt. Munkewitz said that early yesterday the second officer reported a mysterious light to the east which he could not make out. The light was moving eastward and Capt. Munkewitz altered the course of his ship when a second light appeared close to the port side and apparently moving westward. Both lights disappeared as suddenly as they had appeared.

On Jan. 23, Capt. Munkewitz said, when he was practically in the same position several white lights were observed to the east. It was a few days after this that the Appam took refuge in Hampton roads.

Capt. Munkewitz said heavy weather and clouds prevailed off the Virginia coast and that he was satisfied the vessels whose lights he had seen were trying to keep their movements secret. He felt sure that the lights did not belong to British cruisers as these patrol ships make no secret of their movements.

AFRAID OF HIMSELF; LOCKED UP BY POLICE

Man Says Only Work He Ever Did Was to Teach for Three Months.

Chicago, March 3.—Leo Nelson, 22 years old, who declared that his home is in Washington, D. C., and that the only work he ever did was to teach school at Gackle, N. D., for three months, begged the police today to lock him in a cell for the reason that he was afraid of himself. He was booked on a disorderly charge. Nelson said he was a graduate of a Washington university and received money regularly from a relative in that city.

He said he had been traveling about the country ever since he left college three years ago.

APPEALS TO IRISHMEN

John Redmond Conducts Campaign in Ireland for Army Recruits.

Urges Farmers to Defend the "Old Sod" They Love.

London, March 3.—John Redmond, the veteran leader of the Irish Home Rulers, has been conducting a notable and strenuous campaign in Ireland for army recruits. He has held meetings in scores of centers, directing his attention particularly to the agricultural classes and appealing to them to defend the "old sod" which they love.

It is not easy yet to judge the success of his trip. In large measure he hopes that he has sowed a seed which will later bring forth fruit. Even Mr. Redmond is a little uncertain as to how much his campaign has done.

"I often wonder," he remarked in reply to a question, "whether the Irish farmers realize what is at stake in this war. I have tried to show them that if it goes on indefinitely Ireland will be crushed by taxation and her farmers will lose absolutely and completely the whole value of all that they have won in the past. If Germany is victorious, I believe that the country will be beggared."

"Is it easy to convince them?" Mr. Redmond was asked.

"No! It is not," he replied. "I am afraid they have not been approached properly in the matter of recruiting. They have been unwisely attacked and abused, and in some districts provocative speeches have been made."

Turning to his belief in Ireland's vi-

(Continued on page 10, second column.)

TWO ARE KILLED IN COLLISION AT ALBANY

Heavy Freight Strikes Express Train, Smashing Steel Coach.

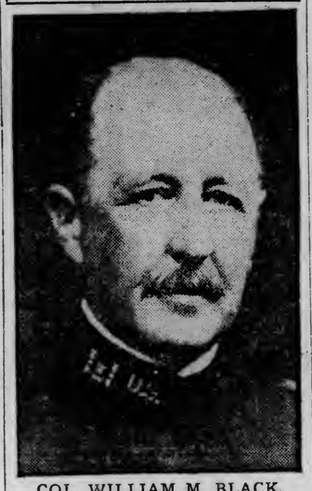
Albany, N. Y., March 3.—Two men are known to be dead, a third was probably fatally injured and two others are believed to have been killed in a rear-end collision in the North Albany yards of the New York Central railroad here this morning. The dead and injured men were express messengers, as was one of the missing men. The fifth is believed to have been a tramp.

A heavy eastbound freight struck a train loaded with express which was waiting to enter the Albany station, smashing a steel coach in which the express messengers were riding, a refrigerator car and a load of heavy automobile parts.

A third train also loaded with express and westbound crashed into the wreckage, throwing debris in all directions.

None of the trainmen was seriously hurt.

BECOMES CHIEF OF ENGINEERS OF THE UNITED STATES ARMY



COL. WILLIAM M. BLACK.

Washington, March 3.—Col. William M. Black, chief engineer of the department of the East, with headquarters at New York, has been appointed chief of engineers of the army to succeed Brig.-Gen. Daniel C. Kinman, who retires March 6 because of age.

BENEDICT CABLES TO HURRY WIFE'S DIVORCE

Offers No Objection to Decree Desired By Female Pacifist.

Chicago, March 3.—Wallace Benedict, an electrical engineer and husband of Mrs. Crystal Eastman Benedict, suffragist, pacifist and business woman, will interpose no objection to the divorce sought by his wife, it became known here today. Benedict has cabled from Madrid, Spain, to his brother-in-law, Burr J. Scott, a Milwaukee attorney, directing him to hasten the divorce.

Mrs. Benedict is a sister of Max Eastman, editor of The Masses, and prefers to be known as Miss Eastman. She has degrees from several Eastern institutions and was a member of the Ford peace expedition. In her petition she asked no alimony, asserting that a real feminist does not feel the need of the support of a man. Mrs. Benedict cites Benedict's relations with another woman as cause for her action.

Alleged Murderer Arrested.

Christiania, March 3, via London.—On the arrival of the steamship Oscar II from New York, the police, upon request of the American legation, arrested a Russian passenger, Jofir Holubowski, accused of murder in Pennsylvania. Holubowski, who was bound for his home in Russia, maintains his innocence, but says he will not resist extradition.

SAPPERS ARE BURIED ALIVE

Trapped By Fall of Earth After Filling Mine With Powder.

Manage to Dig Themselves Out After Hours of Effort.

Paris, March 3.—The story of the three French sappers who were buried alive for hours during the battle of Verdun, and who finally dug their way out to safety, is told in detail by one of them who arrived in Paris on a hospital train yesterday morning. He said:

"With my friends, Bernard and Jean, I was posted in a trench at the edge of the Vauche woods. The enemy showed a disposition to attack, and according to orders, the three of us, with a charge of powder, fuses and tools, started down a mine gallery to fill it. We did this without difficulty and were on our way back, when a heavy explosion shook us. Had our mine gone off already? I hear stones falling,' said one of my comrades. We rushed forward; the gallery was full of gravel. We realized the horrible truth; we were walled up. An enemy shell had exploded above the gallery, causing the roof to fall in.

Not Afraid of Death.

"We examined the walls in feverish haste. 'We are done for,' said Jean. We were not afraid of death—it was

(Continued on page 10, second column.)

ALIEN WOMAN HAS RIGHT TO TEACH

Ruling Made in Case of Female Instructor in Chicago Suburb.

Chicago, March 3.—The fact that a woman is an alien does not interfere with her right to teach school in Illinois, according to a ruling of James Blair, state superintendent of schools, made in the case of Mrs. Agnes Ryan Page of Morton Grove, a suburb.

Mrs. Page, the wife of John W. Page, a florist and an Englishman, who had taken out his first citizenship years, has been principal of the public school of Morton Grove for eight years. Recently Milton Jonas, a saloon keeper, through counsel, served warning on the Morton Grove school board that because of her nationality despite the fact that she was born an American, Mrs. Page must not be paid her salary. Friends of Mrs. Page appealed to the state superintendent, that February salary, which was being held up pending a ruling, might be released.

BLIND SENATOR FROM OKLAHOMA WHOSE RESOLUTION WAS TABLED

SENATOR T. P. GORE.

DEFENSE BILL IS ABOUT COMPLETED

Congress Will Soon Have First Measure Before It.

Washington, March 3.—Congress will have before it within the next few days, possibly tomorrow, the first of the national defense measures.

The house committee reached a final agreement late yesterday on its bill for an increase in the army and the senate committee planned to take a final vote on its bill today.

The house bill as finally approved calls for an increase of the army to a total peace strength of approximately 700,000 men. This would include 170,000 regulars, 425,000 national guardsmen and about 100,000 federal volunteers.

PORTUGUESE HOIST FLAG ON GERMAN SHIPS

London, March 3.—Lloyd's agent at Bombay reports that the Portuguese flag has been hoisted on all the German steamers lying at Mormugao and that the Germans who were aboard have been interned at Panjim.

Panjim, or New Goa, is the capital of the Portuguese colony of Goa, in India. It was recently reported that the Portuguese government, after requisitioning all the German and Austrian ships lying in Portuguese harbors, had given orders that all Teuton vessels in the Portuguese colonies would likewise be taken over and be put under the Portuguese flag.

BY VOTE OF 68 TO 14 SUSTAINS THE STAND TAKEN BY EXECUTIVE

Senator Gore's Resolution to Warn Americans From Armed Ships of Belligerent Nations Tabled.

Fight Transferred to the House Where Efforts Are Being Made to Secure Prompt Action.

HOW THE SENATORS VOTED

Washington, March 3.—The roll call on tabling the resolution was as follows:

SUPPORTING PRESIDENT.

Ayes—Ashurst, Bankhead, Beckham, Brandegee, Broussard, Burleigh, Chilton, Clarke, Clark of Wyoming, Colt, Culberson, Curtis, Dillingham, Dupont, Fletcher, Gore, Harding, Hardwick, Hitchcock, Hollis, Hughes, Husting, James, Johnson, Maine; Johnson, South Dakota; Kern, Lane, Lee, Maryland; Lewis, Lodge, McLean, Martin, Martine, Myers, Nelson, Newlands, Oliver, Overman, Owen, Page, Phelan, Pittman, Poindexter, Pomerene, Ransdell, Reed, Shafroth, Sheppard, Shields, Simmons, Smith, Arizona; Smith, Georgia; Smith, Maryland; Smith, Michigan; Smith, South Carolina; Sterling, Stone, Swanson, Thomas, Thompson, Tillman, Underwood, Vardaman, Wadsworth, Walsh, Warren, Weeks, Williams—total, 68.

OPPOSED TO PRESIDENT.

Nays—Borah, Chamberlain, Clapp, Cummins, Fall, Gallinger, Gronna, Jones, La Follette, McCumber, Norris, O'Gorman, Sherman, Works—total, 14.

Washington, March 3.—By a vote of 68 to 14, a greater majority than they expected, administration forces in the senate today tabled the Gore resolution to warn Americans off the armed ships of the European belligerents, and thereby finally quelled in the senate an agitation which has embarrassed President Wilson in the subamarine negotiations with Germany.

Senator Gore's resolution, a substitute by Senator McCumber, a Republican, and an attempt by Senator Gore to strengthen his original proposal, all were defeated at one time on a roll call on a motion by Senator James, one of the administration whips, to table them. The administration victory in the senate transferred the fight to the house.

Gore Votes to Table Resolution.

Senator Gore himself voted to table his resolution. Senators Chamberlain and O'Gorman were the only Democrats to vote against the administration. The other twelve anti-administration votes were all Republicans. Forty-seven Democrats and twenty-one Republicans voted to table the resolution.

It was said at the White House that the result in the senate was satisfactory and met the wishes of President Wilson. It was added that attention would now be concentrated on the situation in the house.

Senator McCumber later introduced substantially the same resolution he had offered as a substitute to the Gore resolution. The McCumber resolution would go to the calendar.

During the roll call Senator Smoot, Republican, asked to be excused from voting because he was not able to vote direct on the proposition. Senator Borah, Republican, objected, but the senate voted to excuse him.

Saulsbury Would Have Voted Aye.

When Senator Stone's name was called he said "that if present Senator Saulsbury would have voted aye on the original proposition.

Senator Borah misunderstood that Senator Stone was explaining the vote of a colleague, and objected.

"If this senate is going to be gagged, the senator from Missouri will be gagged with the rest of us," Senator Borah shouted.

When order was restored Senator Stone explained that "on this resolution I vote aye."

There was some uncertainty among senators as to the status of the various resolutions when the call had begun.

It was explained then that Senator James had moved to lay not only the Gore warning resolution, but also the so-called corrected resolution, on the table. It was necessary then for senators to express themselves as to warning and on the question of killing an American on an unwarned merchantman as a cause for war, in one vote.

For that reason Senator Gore voted to table because he did not favor his own substitute and had introduced it merely to get an expression of the senate on that issue.

Gore's Addition.

The text of Senator Gore's addition to his original resolution and which was tabled with the warning resolution was as follows:

"Resolved, By the senate, the house concurring, that the sinking by a German submarine without notice or warning of an armed merchant vessel of her public enemy resulting in the

(Continued on page 10, third column.)

How to Make Hasenpfeffer: First Catch Rabbit.

HARD COAL MINERS TAKE NO ACTION

Will Await Result of Conference With Bituminous Operators.

New York, March 3.—The sub-committee of anthracite miners and operators met here today to consider the ten demands presented by the United Mine Workers for incorporation in a new wage agreement to take the place of the one which expires today. Beyond a general discussion, the conferees took no action. They adjourned after a brief session until next Monday, to permit the officials of the miners' organization to continue their negotiations with bituminous operators for a soft coal contract in the Middle West.

The meeting of the hard coal miners and operators was as friendly as that of last week, when the demands of the coal diggers were formally presented to the companies. No intimation of any concession, however, came from either side.

It was said today the operators may offer to renew the present agreement, which was made four years ago, with a sliding scale on wages and a five-year contract. The mine workers are demanding, among other things, a 20 per cent increase on all wage rates, an eight-hour day, full and complete recognition of the union, a more amplified and speedy method of adjusting grievances, and a two-year agreement.

WILL NEVER ENTER PARIS

So Says Returned Wisconsin Soldier Concerning German Drive.

Declares Fort Is Only a Trap of Modern Warfare.

Appleton, Wis., March 3.—"The Germans will never get into Paris. What if they do take Verdun? That is no more than though they took Appleton. Anything you can see you can destroy. A fort is only a trap in modern warfare. The European war is an underground one," said Elwood Smith, the Lawrence college freshman who arrived here yesterday after having been with the allied army in France since last spring. Last Monday Smith was mourned as dead, it

(Continued on page 10, third column.)

DEFECTIVE PAGE

STATE SUPREME COURT DECISIONS

St. Paul, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The state supreme court today handed down decisions in the following cases:

ST. LOUIS COUNTY.
Loan Held Usurious.

Victor Rantala, alias Witkar Rantala, appellant, vs. F. A. Haish, et al., respondents—

1. Whether a transaction is usurious is generally a question of fact. But where the facts are undisputed and only one conclusion can reasonably be drawn from them, usury becomes a question of law.

2. It clearly appears from the facts presented in the record that the loan to plaintiff was made by defendants Haish from their own funds, although they expected later to sell one note and mortgage to defendant More. The amount actually received by plaintiff with interest computed at the highest legal rate is less than the amount which he agreed to pay for the loan. Held, that the transaction was usurious.

3. Defendant More is a bona fide purchaser for value without notice and before maturity of the $300 note which, by the terms of the statute (G. S. 1913, Section 5807), is valid in his hands. But the mortgage securing such note cannot be enforced.

Judgment reversed with instructions. SCHALLER, J.

ST. LOUIS COUNTY.
Compensation Act Applies.

Aaron Lindstrom, appellant, vs. Mutual Steamship company, respondent—

1. Territorial sovereignty of a state extends to a vessel of the state though it is upon navigable waters.

2. The Minnesota workmen's compensation act is general in its terms, and it applies to all cases within the territorial jurisdiction of the state save those expressly excepted. The act excepts cases arising from interstate commerce by railroad. Those arising from interstate commerce by water are not excepted.

3. The act in its application to such employment is not invalid as an interference with interstate commerce. Congress has not legislated upon that subject as to interstate commerce by water, and until it does so such legislation is within the province of the several states.

4. The injury sustained in this case was sustained upon the navigable waters of the United States. This brings the case within the jurisdiction of the Federal courts of admiralty.

5. By virtue of the clause in the judicial act of 1789 saving to suitors the right of a common law remedy where the common law is competent to give it, a party so aggrieved may (1) proceed in rem in admiralty, (2) bring suit in personam in admiralty, (3) resort to his remedy at law in personam in a state court or (4) in the United States circuit court if there are parties proper to give such jurisdiction.

6. In its application to this case the important effect of the saving clause is that it saves the right to proceed in the state courts by a suit in personam to redress wrongs committed at sea, although the person injured had the concurrent right to proceed in rem in a Federal court of admiralty.

7. When the action is brought in a state court it must be determined according to state laws and not according to the laws of admiralty.

8. It is competent for the state to modify by statute its common law rules of liability in their application to such cases, so long as the modification does not amount to a regulation of commerce or an interference with some paramount Federal law.

9. Since the adoption of the Minnesota compensation act, the question of liability in such cases, and the amount thereof, are to be determined by the compensation act.

Order affirmed. HALLAM, J.

HENNEPIN COUNTY.
Jurisdiction for Divorce.

Maurice Rose, respondent, vs. Bertha Rose, appellant—

1. The evidence supports the finding of the trial court that the plaintiff suffered cruel and inhuman treatment at the hands of defendant.

2. The trial court committed no prejudicial error in its rulings on the admission of testimony.

3. The courts of this state have jurisdiction to decree a divorce for any cause allowed by its laws; notwithstanding the fact that the defendant was at no time a resident of this state, and without regard to the fact that the offense was committed outside of this state, and without regard to the fact that the parties were not living together as husband and wife at the time the offense was committed.

Order affirmed. SCHALLER, J.

RAMSEY COUNTY.
Judgment Affirmed.

Ernest Mahr, respondent, vs. James Forrestal et al, defendants; Maryland Casualty company, appellant—

1. Defendants were insured by appellant against liability for personal injuries. In an action for such injuries, brought against the defendants, appellant assumed the defense and carried the litigation to final judgment, other counsel employed by defendants participating in the defense. Judgment was entered for plaintiff, and appellant surety company was garnished. Held, following and applying Patterson vs. Adan, 119 Minn. 308, that appellant is subject to proceedings in garnishment based upon the judgment, which as between plaintiff, defendants and appellant is a debt or liability of the appellant.

2. A judgment is sufficient upon which to base garnishment proceedings though upon an appeal from an order denying a new trial without a supersedeas the order is affirmed on condition that the plaintiff consent to a reduction of the verdict within a stated time after the going down of the remittitur, and that otherwise there be a new trial, neither party having caused the remittitur to be filed.

3. In such proceedings the casualty company cannot offset against its liability arising subsequent to the bankruptcy of the defendant's provable claims in its favor arising prior to bankruptcy and provable therein, either for premiums earned on the policy from which its liability arose, or on other policies, or for sums paid in discharge of its liability on bonds issued for the defendants on construction contracts, the bankrupts having been discharged in bankruptcy.

Judgment affirmed. SCHALLER, J.

The Don Duluth, made in Duluth cigar, is clear Havana filled. You will like it.

The Rexall Store

ON SATURDAY, MARCH 4th, WE WILL HOLD A SALE ON REXALL PREPARATIONS!

These splendid household articles need no introduction. Their value has been established. There is nothing just as good. This sale is for one day only. The following are the prices:

TOILET ARTICLES

25c Camphorated Cold Cream..17c
25c Rexall Cold Cream.....17c
25c Disappearing Cold Cream..17c
25c Hadley's Cold Cream....17c
50c Arbutus Complexion Cream at 35c
50c Violet Dulce Cold Cream..35c
50c Violet Dulce Van Cream..35c
50c Violet Dulce Face Powder .....35c (3 colors)
25c Nice, for perspiration....17c
25c Antiseptic Tooth Powder..17c
25c Pearl Tooth Powder.....15c
25c Tooth Paste 15c
25c Tooth Wash 17c
25c Violet Talcum Powder....15c
25c Trailing Arbutus Talc....15c
25c Shaving Lotion.....17c
50c Shaving Lotion.....35c
25c Shaving Stick 15c
25c Shaving Powder 15c
25c Shaving Cream 15c

SOAPS.

25c Box Rexall Toilet.....17c (3 cakes)
25c Rexall Blemish 17c
25c Violet Dulce Soap.....17c
25c D'Artagnan 23c
25c D'Artagnan 23c
10c Harmony Rose Glyc.....7c
10c Harmony Violet Glyc.....7c

REXALL REMEDIES

25c Cherry Bark Cough.....17c
25c Cough Remedy 17c
$2.00 Bamboo and Brier Blood Builder $1.19
$1.00 Celery and Iron Tonic..67c
$1.00 Beef Iron and Wine....67c
$2.00 Beef Iron and Wine...$1.19
$1.00 Kidney Remedy 67c
$1.00 Emulsion Cod Liver Oil.67c
$1.00 Sarsaparilla Tonic.....67c
$1.00 Every-day Tonic 67c
$1.00 Syr Hypophosphites 67c
$1.00 Tonic Sol. Hypophosphites 67c
$1.00 Obesity Treatment 67c
35c 1 lb. Sugar Milk 25c
25c Straw Hat Dye 17c
50c White Pine and Tar Syr..34c
25c Lark Spur Lotion 17c
$1.00 Rheumatic Remedy 67c

DOG REMEDIES.

50c Elkay's Worm Syrup 34c
50c Elkay's Mange Lotion ...34c
50c Elkay's Distemper Rem..34c
25c Elkay's Eye Water 17c
25c Elkay's Canine Laxative..17c
25c Elkay's Flea Destroyer..17c
25c Tooth Brushes 10c
25c Safety Corn Razor 17c

10c Padova Cigars, 4 for.....25¢
1 lb. Box Triola Chocolates.....25¢

We serve lunches at the Soda Fountain.
MAIL ORDERS ARE GIVEN PROMPT ATTENTION.

E. M. TREDWAY, Druggist
108 WEST SUPERIOR STREET.

Rexall Remedies

Some More of Those Smooth Fitting—

High Lace Boots, $5.00

Also Kid Lace and Button Kid or Cloth Tops, $3.50 and $4.00.

Children's Shoes—
For the Miss—smooth calf skin, button.
Sizes 11½ to 2—$1.65 Sizes 8½ to 11—$1.35
Boys' Shoes—$1.50 to $3.50

Stacy Adams Men's Shoes

NORTHERN MADE SHOES

Wieland Shoe Company
222 WEST FIRST STREET.

ALL READY FOR SUNDAY CANVASS

Duluth Churches Prepare for One of Their Biggest Efforts.

Every department of a large number of Duluth churches is ready for the "Every Member Canvass" of next Sunday. During the last four weeks the churches have been preparing for this effort and plans are almost complete. About twenty-five churches will take part and it will be one of the largest efforts that have ever been undertaken by Duluth churches. The committees have been selected for some time and have been holding meetings for training so that they will have the matter fully in mind.

Sunday morning every pastor will preach on the effort and the committees will start out by twos on Sunday afternoon for the canvass. Part of the churches will hold a financial canvass and others the fellowship canvass. Where the fellowship canvass is held it will be to interest the membership in a more active part in the work of the church. Every member will be approached not for money but for service and the effort is expected to result in largely increased work in the churches of the city.

Killed in Italian Army

Kenosha, Wis., March 3.—Frank Ruffalo, 22 years old, who was called to the colors by the Italian government, has been killed in the fighting with the Austrians, according to word received here yesterday. He had made his home in Kenosha fourteen years and had acted as recruiting agent for Italian reservists before he was summoned by the government.

WEATHER—Fair weather tonight and Saturday; fresh southwesterly winds.

KNOX HATS, SOFT OR STIFF.

"TOPPY" TOP COATS

There isn't a garment in the wardrobe of such general utility as the Top Coat. You've real need of its comfort more months in the year than any other coat. In late summer and early fall, in late winter and early spring—off and on, all the time—NOW.

That requires it to be a coat exceptionally well made—and a model all its own.

Our High Art, Kuppenheimer and Style Plus Top Coats are ideal in weight, in fabric, in patterns, in style, and in price.

$15—$17—$20 to $30

Oak Hall Clothing Co.
Superior Street at Second Avenue West

GOVERNOR IS HONOR GUEST

Is Entertained at Bemidji Banquet After Trip to Lumber Camps.

Executive Discusses Matters of Vital Interest to Northern Minnesota.

Bemidji, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The guest of honor at a banquet given here last night at the Markham hotel by the business men of Bemidji, Governor J. A. A. Burnquist, upon his return from Kelliher, where, during the day, he had witnessed up-to-date logging operations in the big north woods, delivered one of three set speeches heard at the banquet and dwelt largely upon things needed for the advancement of Northern Minnesota.

Judge C. W. Stanton was toastmaster and there were about 150 present.

Besides Governor Burnquist, who spoke on "Minnesota," Mrs. E. E. Fetzer talked on "Co-operation Among Business Men;" W. J. Pilkington of Des Moines, Iowa, originator of "Pay-up Week," discussed "The Science of Merchandizing" and A. A. Rahn of Minneapolis, head of the publicity committee of Amendment No. 1, spoke on the "Revolving Fund Amendment."

The affair was, of course, non-partisan in every way and none of the speakers wandered from the idea ever present—to work to do something for the Gopher state.

Governor's Remarks.

The governor, after referring to the famous visit of the state lawmakers through Northern Minnesota last June, followed by the calling by Governor Hammond of the Minnesota development convention held last December, which discussed many matters of state importance and mapped out beneficial legislation, turned his attention to another matter he thought should be considered. This was the advisability and practicability of having an engineer's survey of the northern porton of the state to determine what can be accomplished along the lines of draining all of the swamp lands and at the same time secure co-operation with the Federal government to investigate the feasibility of constructing reservoirs to retain the water, to be used for navigation purposes in the Mississippi river when the water in that river is too low for navigation. The practicability of a future canal system for Minnesota, when the population has increased so as to warrant the expenditure of moneys for that purpose, as is now done in other states, such as in the state of New York, and in foreign countries, as in Germany, will eventually have to be considered by the government of this state.

Citizenship Education.

The governor then spoke of that which he said was more important, the progress, learning and education necessary for the advancement of the citizenship within the state, referring to the diversity in that citizenship, and the necessity by reason thereof of education along citizenship lines and of instruction to secure the proper use of the rights of franchise, which have continually grown in this country and in this state, until today the voters have more power than they have ever had. He also spoke of the desirability of the elimination of any national antipathies or prejudices which may exist by reason of the diversity in our citizenship, and in this connection called attention to the impression gained by those visiting Northern Minnesota during the legislative trip when it was found that a score of different nationalities were represented in the schools, and all of these, through the education received, were developing into good, true and patriotic American citizens.

In connection with education, he said we should also put into practice the spirit shown by that greatest product of the Middle West, who is today considered the ideal American citizen, Abraham Lincoln, and that when it can be shown in this country that people of so many different nationalities can live together in peace and harmony and prosperity, this fact may be of some assistance in making it possible at some future time for all peoples to agree upon an international court for the settlement of their international differences and upon a police power to enforce the decrees of such a court.

Woman Urges Co-operation.

Mrs. Edward F. Netzer, talking on "Co-operation Among Business Men," called upon the merchants, first, to co-operate between one another and, second, with his sales force.

"Mail order competition is just a habit," said Mrs. Netzer, "and you merchants can break that habit by the intelligent use of advertising, window displays, indoor show cards and by showing how this habit helps to depreciate the property of your home town.

"There are five reasons why I trade at home:

"Because my interests are here, because I believe in transacting business with friends, because the community that is good enough for me to live in is good enough for me to buy in, because the man I purchase from pays his part of the city and county taxes, and because I believe in my town and its future."

Mrs. Netzer urged the merchants to treat their employes as individuals and not as a unit and to discuss stock and sales problems with them.

"Your business duty always is to find out what your customers need and supply that need to the limit of your power."

Mrs. Netzer's remarks brought vigorous applause, in which all joined.

Lack of Good Roads.

A. A. Rahn of Minneapolis, speaking on "Amendment No. 1" to the Constitution to set apart not over $250,000 from the school and swamp land funds to be used in constructing roads and ditches through and around unsold school and swamp lands and in clearing such land, said:

"If you are not already familiar with this amendment, you should look into it very thoroughly, as I believe it will be a great benefit to this portion of the state. North of us here on the M. & I. railroad the state owns great tracts of cut-over lands that are far better for agricultural purposes than for reforestation.

"However, the one great drawback in the development of this land is the lack of roads to get to and from it. This fund will enable the state, through its commission, to build such roads, and to clear a certain amount upon every section of land.

"If this amendment is adopted by the people of Minnesota, these lands can then be put upon the market with a nice little cleared area ready for the settler to go upon and till.

"He will not have to face the many hardships and overcome the innumerable obstacles which confront the sturdy pioneer of today and of yesterday. It will enable the man with a small amount of money to settle on this land, and in the first year raise a little crop on that portion of his land which the state has made ready for the plow. This will leave him free to devote his spare time to clearing additional land.

"The cost of this splendid work will be prorated among all the land benefited and added to the selling price. With the low rate of interest and the number of years allowed to repay this money, the farmer will be enabled to pay for his lands and improvements from products raised as he goes along.

Loaning to Settlers.

"Now, I wish to say a very few words on one other amendment, the one which I said would probably be known as No. 2. The last legislature submitted an amendment to the people to be voted on which provides for the loaning of the state school funds to settlers on their land.

"This should be supported by the people of Northern Minnesota, who want, who need, and who must have cheap money. It is a state rural credit system, and because we have the largest school fund of any state in the Union, it will in all probability enable the state to have sufficient funds to help many of your settlers out."

J. M. Gidding & Co.

Correct Dress for Women and Girls.

Superior Street at First Avenue West
564, 566 and 568 Fifth Avenue, New York

INTRODUCING

Fashionable Spring Apparel
For Women, Misses and Girls

The fashions received from Paris are shown at our DULUTH Establishment simultaneously with their presentation by our Establishment at Fifth Avenue and Forty-sixth Street, New York.

Women's and Misses' Suits

Stunning models for Street, Outing, Afternoon and Costume Wear—of fine Imported Wool Velour, Taffeta, Taffeta and Serge, Georgette Satin, Silk or Wool Jersey, Tussah, Silk Faille, White Serge—including a wonderful collection of novelty materials in plaids and checks in light and dark shades—sounding the keynote of Russian, Spanish and Directoire influences.

At $35, $39, $45 and upward.

Smart Coats

Swagger Models by Georgette, Jenny, Cheruit and others—made of Callot checks, stripes, Wool Velours, Gabardines, Serges and Novelty materials—

At $19.50, $22, $25, $35 upwards

Gowns and Dresses

Introducing a wonderful collection of smart styles for Street, Afternoon and Evening wear—of Tulle, Taffeta, Georgette combinations, Crepe de Chine, Serge and Taffeta and other fashionable materials—

At $19, $25, $35, $45 upwards

French Millinery

Embodying every new idea from such mode masters as Reboux, Maria Guy, Lewis, Louison, Talbot, Georgette, Lanvin and others — introducing the Mushroom, Poke Bonnet, Smart Sailors, Afternoon and Dinner Hats, and smart Street, Travel and Sports Hats—

At $8, $10, $12, $15, $18 and upwards.

Charming Blouses

Of Fine Voile in plain and striped effects—Batiste Blouses with lace and embroidery—Plain and Striped Madras—Handkerchief Linen, Figured Voiles, Georgette Crepe, Pussy Willow Taffeta, Radium Silk and Chiffon—introducing the new "bon-bon" shades and other novelties—

$2.50, $3, $3.85, $5, $6.75 Up

Middy Blouses

Large and varied selections in plain and combination colors—of Linen, Khaki Cloth, New Cloth, Linen Twill, Pongee, Plain or Striped Silk, Corduroy and Flannel—in plain, Norfolk and side lace effects.

At $1.50 to $5

Smart Fashions for Juniors and Girls
(THIRD FLOOR)

Tub Frocks

Featuring a large and exclusive variety of styles and materials—of Ramie Linen, French Linen, Devonshire Cloth, Repp, New Cloth, Corduroy, Bedford Cord, Pique, Anderson Gingham and French Voiles, in plain colors, plaids, checks and stripes—in Russian, Empire, Bolero, Norfolk, Middy and Jumper effects—also Regulation Dresses—and two-piece coat effects. Sizes 6 to 16.

Smart Suits

Of French Serge, Wool Velour, Gabardine, Men's Wear Serge and Shepherd Checks—in Norfolk and Peplum styles—Pique Collars and Cuffs—or in leather trim effects. Sizes 6 to 16.

Tailored Coats

In Norfolk, half-belt and Raglan effects—of Serge, Gabardine, Shepherd Checks and novelty materials.

FATHER REUNITES HIS FAMILY OF TEN

Four of the ten children of Ignatz Kozar, Virginia miner, who have been kept at the St. James orphanage since Dec. 15, were sent back to their father yesterday.

The story of the Kozars is familiar to Herald readers. The mother is in an asylum and the ten children are being cared for by the father.

Last December the struggle against poverty became too much for the father and he was forced to part with four of the children for a time. They were placed in the local institution by the Humane society.

Humane Agent Ross declares that Kozar is making a valiant fight to keep the family together.

Governor Philipp Reappoints

Madison, Wis., March 3.—Governor E. L. Philipp last night reappointed James F. Trottmann to the board of regents of the University of Wisconsin and Dr. C. A. Harper, Madison, to the state board of health. Dr. Harper has served for twelve years.

TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

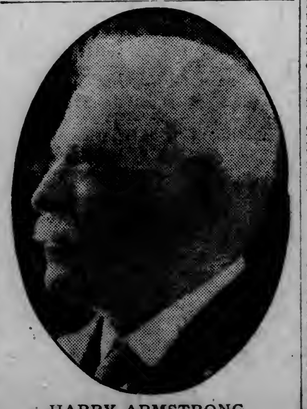
Get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store, pour a little into your hand and rub well into the scalp with the finger tips. By morning most, if not all, of this awful scurf will have disappeared. Two or three applications will destroy every bit of dandruff; stop scalp itching and falling hair.—Advertisement.

ROTARIANS IN PLAY SESSION

Elect New Officers and Throw Care Away for Time.

Harry R. Armstrong Is New President; Whyte and Gravatt "Horsed."

Burlesque and business were intermingled at the monthly meeting of the Rotary club at the Spalding hotel last night, when seventy-five members helped "usher out of service" the retiring officers, and elected new ones.



HARRY ARMSTRONG.

Harry R. Armstrong, secretary of the National Iron works, was elected president, succeeding Elmer N. Whyte. Harry Zinsmaster is the new vice president; Charles Oppel, secretary; William Abbott, treasurer; Elmer Whyte, director for three years; Charles H. Mackintosh and William Yale, directors for one year; Lawrence Duby, statistician, and George V. Burgess, sergeant-at-arms.

"This man comes before you as the victim of his own popularity," said Frank Randall, introducing the club's new president. "We would accuse him of many things he has done; but it is unfair to make a man try to live down his past at the same time that he is asked to face a tremulous future. We entrust the club to his care for one year."

Horseplay Starts Early.

"Horseplay" started early in the evening, when Dr. James G. Harris was called into consultation on the case of Retiring President Whyte. After a thorough examination, watched with interest by the diners, the veterinarian gravely stated that Mr. Whyte was "in need of a rest."

Facing charges of gross incompetency and lack of respect for his office, Retiring Secretary William Gravatt was blindfolded, bound, placed in an invalid's chair and wheeled out into the hotel lobby by the entertainment committee. Hotel guests perceived the opportunity for a practical joke, and almost had the helpless individual in the street before the club members rescued him.

Included in the evening's business was the hearing of reports from retiring committee chairmen. Those who made statements on the work done during the year were: Civic, Edward Burg; entertainment, G. Harry Bate (in the absence of Chairman Zinsmaster); membership, Charles Oppel, and good roads, E. J. Fillatrault.

Bronchitis of Special Interest in March.

March is the time when acute bronchitis flourishes, and in some localities it constitutes one-tenth to one-seventh of all illnesses. Bronchial coughs are distressing and persistent, and if not cured are apt to become chronic. R. F. Hall, Verdi, Va., in treating his case of bronchitis, writes: "I was afflicted with a troublesome bronchial cough and irritation of the throat. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound relieved me immediately, as after taking one bottle the cough ceased and has never returned." Sold everywhere.

You Will Be Impressed By the Charm of These New Spring Suits!

Here are styles in all preferred colors and fabrics, and though you may be familiar with the newest style features shown in fashion plates and magazines, you cannot realize the attractiveness, the good taste, the beauty displayed in our new Spring models featuring the short flare effects in jackets and the straight and modified circular skirts. Our suits are priced at $17.75, $19.75, $22.75 and up.

A visit to our Suit Department will be profitable and interesting from the point of style information alone.

New Arrivals of Spring Coats

Daily new models are added to our assortments, providing a wide variety of practical and interesting interpretations of the newest spring styles in fabrics of medium weight and lined throughout, suitable for immediate wear. We show a large assortment of white Chinchilla Coats, which promise unprecedented popularity. Priced at $12.75, $14.75, $17.75 and up.

OPEN AN ACCOUNT—YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD

No charge for alterations. We guarantee perfect fit.

GATELY'S
H. A. Nilson Gen. Mgr.
DULUTH-SUPERIOR-VIRGINIA-HIBBING

Every garment guaranteed to satisfy.

MINNESOTA "U" IS FAVORED BY CENTRAL HIGH SENIORS; TWELVE FUTURE FARMERS

Fifty-nine of the Central high school students who will graduate in June have elected to continue their educational work at the state university.

A report compiled recently by Leonard Young, principal of the school, indicates that the University of Minnesota still is the favorite college among graduates of the high school.

Nine will enter Duluth normal, three will enroll at Wisconsin "U," three will enroll at Smith; two at Cornell and Iowa state and one at each of the following: Hamline, Dartmouth, the Handicraft Guild of Minneapolis, Superior Normal, Sargent, Ames, Stout, Carnegie Tech, Pennsylvania, Amherst, St. Paul law school, Macalester, Pratt, Kansas, Nebraska, Rochester Mechanics' institute, Iowa state, Colorado Mines, Bryn Mawr and Beloit.

Of the entire class, twenty have elected to take a plain bachelor of arts course; twelve will study agriculture, and engineering's various branches will claim fifteen. Eight will specialize in architecture, seven in law, and the same number in teaching. Four will take up commercial studies, and three selected fine arts. Three will study domestic science.

Medicine, music, journalism, mining and economics will be pursued by two students each. One future dentist, one accountant, one horticulturist, one mathematician, one nurse and one business student complete the list.

Missionary Resigns.

Wilton, N. D., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Rev. John R. Hughes, Sunday school missionary for the Presbytery of Bismarck, has resigned and will leave next week for Aberdeen, S. D., where he has accepted a similar position.

Miller-Albenberg Co

105 and 107 West Superior Street

The Few Odd Garments Remaining Unsold Are Priced for a

Quick Riddance

Saturday Morning at 9 o'Clock

15 WINTER COATS—Choice $2
Former Prices Up to $19 50

8 FALL & WINTER SUITS—Choice $2
Former Prices Up to $25

7 SILK and SERGE DRESSES—Choice $2
Former Prices Up to $15

WEST END

PROTEST MADE BY MILKMEN

Fifteen Dairymen Act With West End Commercial Club.

Requirements Too Drastic They Say—Stairway Also Opposed.

The West End Commercial club at its meeting last night at the Simonson hall, Twenty-first avenue west and Superior street, went on record as being opposed to the passage of the proposed milk ordinance and also took steps to prevent a stairway being built in the sidewalk on Twenty-first avenue west for the Stack building. The meeting was attended by many of the business men of this end of the city as well as a delegation of fifteen dairymen who live in the district near the West end.

Members of the delegation of milkmen declared that the proposed milk ordinance would create a great hardship on them, and that it would put many of them out of business and give a monopoly to the concerns which had a large amount of capital behind them. The necessity of purchasing machinery and equipment to comply with the proposed ordinance, they said, would compel many to quit the business.

The dairymen said that even the bottling of the milk would not necessarily guarantee cleaner or better quality of milk than is now being supplied to the consumers. They asserted that under the present system of sanitation and regular inspections, pure, wholesome milk was being supplied.

Following discussions in which many members of the club took part, a vote of the membership showed that all were opposed to its passage. A committee consisting of George M. Jensen, Helmer Jentoft and H. E. Hedin was appointed to draw up resolutions to be presented to the city commissioners giving the sentiment of the club in the matter.

Statements to the effect that Stack Bros., who have under construction the building on Twenty-first avenue and Superior street, propose to build an outside stairway in the sidewalk on Twenty-first avenue if they can get a permit from the commissioners, met with a storm of protest. The club favored drastic action to prevent the building of this stairway on the grounds that it would interfere with traffic. The committee headed by Charles Mork, which was appointed two weeks ago, was instructed to employ an attorney to petition for an injunction against the owners, providing a permit was granted. The injunction is to be taken on the grounds that such a stairway is against the provisions of the building code.

CONCERT WILL PRECEDE RALLY

Program Will Be Given at First Norwegian-Danish M. E. Church.

A sacred concert to be given this evening at the First Norwegian Danish M. E. church, Twenty-fourth avenue and Third street, will mark the opening of a rally for the Epworth league of the Duluth district, which will be held Saturday evening and Sunday at Superior. The program tonight has been arranged under the auspices of the Epworth League of the West end church. Sunday afternoon a musical program will be given at the Superior church. The principal rally meeting will be held there tomorrow evening. The program for tonight follows:

Song—"Fremad Kristen Stridsmand" Congregation.
Invocation .....
Johan Oswold, second vice president.
Scripture reading .....
L. Poulsen, third vice president.
"Wild and Fierce the Storm Is Raging" .....
Union choir.
Instrumental trio .....
Miss Lillian Berg, piano; Miss Anna Erickson, violin; Oscar Erickson, cello.
Oration—"Heroes" .....
Rev. Edward Evenson, Superior.
Vocal solo, selection .....
Harold Larsen.
Instrumental trio .....
Misses Lillian Berg, Anna Erickson and Oscar Erickson.
Reading .....
Miss Gunborgh Dahl.
"Leaning" .....
Bethany orchestra.
Announcements .....
Rev. H. A. Ofstie.
"I Love to Share the Sorrows" .....
Union choir.
"Den Himmelske Lovsang" .....
Congregation.
Benediction .....
Rev. C. A. Joransen.

ASK CO-OPERATION ON PIEDMONT GRADE

Conference Held at West End to Obtain Needed Improvement.

Plans to obtain the lowering of the grade on Piedmont avenue above Tenth street, were discussed last evening at a meeting of representatives of the hillside district and a committee of the West End Commercial club, held at the offices of Swanstrom Bros., 21 North Twenty-first avenue west. The conferees decided to request the city public works department and the Duluth Street Railway company to work together in making the improvement.

The residents above Tenth street want the extension of the street railway lines made to the junction of the Hermantown and Hutchinson county roads. These join at a point about six blocks above the present terminal of the Piedmont avenue line at Tenth street and Twenty-first avenue west.

The committee of the West End club comprises County Commissioner Walter Swanstrom, Capt. K. A. Franklin and August Wirth. Among the representatives of the hillside who are actively working for the improvement are Alex Kennedy, former alderman of the Sixth ward, and Frank Nordquist.

West End Undertaking Company
2118 WEST FIRST STREET.
Nyberg & Crawford, Managers.

Men's Club Banquet.

The Men's club of the St. Peter's Episcopal church, Twenty-eighth avenue west and First street will entertain this evening at its annual banquet in the club rooms of the church. The women of the Rebekah guild will serve the supper at 7 o'clock.

Rev. W. E. Harmann, pastor of the church will be toastmaster. Among the speakers will be Mayor W. I. Prince, M. M. Forbes, assistant county attorney; Dr. A. W. Ryan, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church; Rev. H. J. Wilner of Virginia and W. A. Pittenger. A musical program will also be given.

West End Briefs.

John P. Geistman, 2113 West Third street, returned yesterday from a short business trip to Chicago.

The Adams Alumni association will hold its monthly meeting this evening at the Adams school, Seventeenth avenue and Superior street. An informal musical program is planned.

The Epworth League of the First Swedish M. E. church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street, will entertain this evening at a "penny" social.

Miss Louise Emerson, 322 North Twenty-fifth avenue west, returned home today from Missoula, Mont., where she has been spending several weeks visiting relatives.

McGonagle circle, Ladies' Auxiliary of the B. of L. E., entertained at cards this afternoon following a business session held at the Woodman hall.

ARMED ONLY FOR DEFENSIVE

British Admiralty's Orders to Merchantmen Are Made Public.

Says Armament Must Be Used Solely to Resist Attack.

London, March 3.—The British admiralty yesterday officially made public the admiralty's orders to armed merchantmen, given Oct. 20, 1915.

The orders say the armament of such vessels must be used solely for resisting an attack by an armed vessel and for no other purpose. As British submarines and air craft are ordered not to approach merchantmen, the orders say, the approach to a British merchantman of a submarine is to be regarded as done with a hostile intention.

The official statement, which says that "In view of the recent issue by the German government of a memorandum on the treatment of armed merchant ships, the admiralty has decided to make public the instructions actually governing the actions of British merchant vessels armed for self-defense, dated Oct. 20, 1915," includes the following:

Rights of International Law.

"The right of the crew of a merchant vessel to forcibly resist visit and search and fight in self-defense, is well recognized in international law, and expressly admitted by the German prize regulation in an addendum issued June 1, 1914, at a time when it was known that numerous merchant vessels were being armed for self-defense.

"Armament is supplied solely for the purpose of resisting attack by armed enemy vessels and must not be used for any other purpose whatsoever.

"An armed merchant vessel, therefore, must not in any circumstances interfere with or obstruct the free passage of other merchant vessels or fishing craft, whether these are friendly, neutral or hostile."

In reference to the "circumstances under which armament should be employed," the statement says in part:

For Defense Only.

"The armament is supplied for the purpose of defense only. The object of the master has been to avoid action whenever possible.

"Experience has shown that hostile submarines and air craft have frequently attacked merchant vessels without warning. It is important, therefore, that craft of this description should not be allowed to approach to short range at which a torpedo or bomb launched without notice would almost certainly be effective. British and allied submarines and air craft have orders not to approach merchant vessels. Consequently, it may be presumed that any submarine or air craft which approaches or pursues a merchant vessel does so with hostile intention. In such cases fire may be opened in self-defense in order to prevent the hostile craft from closing to a range at which resistance to a sudden attack with bomb or torpedo would be futile.

"It should be remembered that the flag is no guide to nationality. German submarines and armed merchant vessels have frequently employed the British, allied or neutral colors to approach undetected. Though, however, the use of disguise and false colors to escape capture is a legitimate ruse de guerre, its adoption by defensively armed merchant ships may easily lead to misconception. Such vessels, therefore, are forbidden to adopt any form of disguise which might cause them to be mistaken for neutral ships."

BOATS NOT EXCEPTED

Come Within Bounds of Compensation Act, Rules Supreme Court.

Although the Minnesota workmen's compensation act expressly excepts railroad companies engaged in interstate commerce, the statute makes no exception in the case of steam vessels, according to a decision handed down by the state supreme court today in a St. Louis county case.

On June 9, 1914, Aaron Lindstrom was in the employ of the Berwind Fuel company and was engaged in unloading a cargo of coal from the steamer William Livingstone to the Berwind dock. While working in the hold of the vessel he was injured through no fault of his own. He brought a common law action against the Mutual Steamship company, owner of the steamer William Livingstone, to recover damages. The steamship company demurred and the district court sustained the demurrer. On appeal the position taken by the lower court is affirmed.

The demurrer raised the question of whether the compensation act applied in such cases. The supreme court held that the act did apply. The court held that the territorial sovereignty of a state extended to a vessel of the state, though it was upon navigable waters. Duluth is the home port of the steamer William Livingstone.

You help Duluth when you smoke a Don Duluth cigar. It's made in Duluth by Duluth labor.

Silberstein & Bondy Company.

The New Suits

Are Coming Fast!

Every express brings us new styles in Spring Suits and all of the new and fashionable colors are represented. We are already showing hundreds of the new suits and it will behoove you to make your selection now as to make a choice while the ideas conveyed are fresh and new.

The materials are fine Gabardines, Serges, Poplins, Poiret Twills and black and white checks. The tendency of the coats is to flare a bit and have somewhat higher waist lines than in past seasons. The skirts are full and short and the suit presents a very chic appearance.

Prices begin at $22.50 and run by easy degrees up to $65.00, but our strongest values range from $25.00 to $35.00.

Still Some Winter Suits At $5, $10, $15

Saturday may be your last chance to secure one of these great values. Many of them are suitable to wear late into the Spring and at the prices can well be bought with the view to throwing aside in a few weeks' time.

A Very Good Selection of ... Winter Coats
Yet to Be Had at
$5, $7.50, $10

All sizes are represented among these coats and the values run up to $35.00.

Another Opportunity to Buy a Silk Waist at $2.49

On tables on the main floor we have assembled several dozen much higher priced Crepe de Chine and Georgette Waists for your selection Saturday at $2.49.

At 79c, one lot of waists that have sold up to $3.75, in white Voiles and Lingeries.

Smart New Hats To Sell at ..... $8 and $10

We have made a special selection of Trimmed Hats in the prevailing styles for spring, representing a galaxy of beauty that cannot afford to be overlooked.

We do not think that the same hats can be duplicated elsewhere at the prices.

Corset Clearance

Disposal of incomplete lines, price of which in no instance is more than half the original price.

Corsets worth to $10.00 at only $3.95
Lace front and lace back model $1.89
Sizes 18, 19 and 20—values to $10.00, at $1.00

AUTO BUSINESS WILL CONTINUE

Motor Truck Man Sees Continuation of Big American Manufacture.

"The demand for automobiles and motor trucks is abnormal at the present time," said James L. Geddes of the Kelley-Springfield Motor Truck company of Springfield, Ohio, who was in the city yesterday for a few hours. Said he:

"The industry in the United States is now at its high-water mark but this business will continue to flourish for years to come, regardless of the outcome of the war or how soon it ceases.

"The excess of business is due mostly to the tremendous war demand, and when the conflict is over this will be curtailed to a great extent. However, Belgium and France, which have been among the world's greatest factors in this industry, have been seriously crippled by the war, and will not be in a position to resume their activities for many years. All their factories have been divested of machinery in order to provide for war equipment and for a long period both these countries will be going through a period of rehabilitation. The demand for automobiles and motor trucks for social and commercial purposes in Europe will commence to increase to normal when the war ends and these must necessarily be supplied by American manufacturers. On the other hand, the unusual era of prosperity in this country in every branch of industry is resulting in a steady and substantial growth of demand here for motor vehicles, and this will not be affected by the termination of the war."

HUBBY AMAZED..

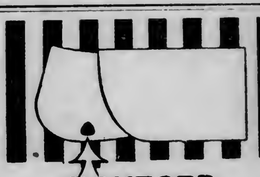
Puzzled That Wife Continued to Live With Guns So Cheap.

Florence Gauss had been through the divorce courts once when she married Charles Gauss twelve years ago last July, but her second venture proved no happier than her first, she told Judge Cant yesterday afternoon when she made application for a second divorce. The decree was granted on the grounds of cruelty.

She testified that her husband delighted in abusing her.

"I don't see why you're alive when revolvers are so cheap," Gauss is credited with having told his wife on one occasion.

They were married in Springfield, Ind., on July 22, 1903, but have lived in Duluth for a number of years. Gauss is a janitor.



BOXFORD
WITH THIS OVAL BUTTON HOLE
Lion Collars
OLDEST BRAND IN AMERICA
UNITED SHIRT & COLLAR CO., TROY, N. Y.

See the New Silk Hosiery Loveliest Colors at 35c, 50c and $1.00

The Leiser Company
24 and 26 West Superior St.—Near First Ave. West

These Silk Blouses $1.98 Are Exceptional Values at

When you stop to consider the scarcity of silks and the constantly increasing price you'll realize how important—to you—this sale of blouses really is. Then, too, we want you to note particularly the superior workmanship and attractive styles. Choice Saturday, at.. $1.98

A beautiful array of crepe de chine and satin striped tub silk blouses; simply irresistible. Blouses that will add a charming touch to your spring suit.

Another Big Variety of Silk Blouses at $3.50 and $2.98

Charming crepe de chines, georgettes, laces and tub silks; all fresh, direct from New York; in a big variety of styles to suit your fancy.

25 New Styles in Cotton Waists at 98c
See the new silk camisoles at $1.50 and $1.25

Saturday, Skirt Day

Choose your spring skirt here tomorrow. A great showing of new taffeta silk poplins, serges and corduroys worth $6.50, at $5.00
200 nobby serge skirts; black and navy; special, all sizes, at $2.00

Another Big Shipment of New Silk Dresses $15 Special Saturday

(Should be $17.50 to $22.50.)

You'll find the newest designs in taffeta silk with georgette sleeves; some in crepe de chine, others in fancy striped silk and in finest French serges; a big range of colors and sizes for women and misses.

Just 40 new silk poplin dresses, in five lovely new styles and new spring colors, at $6.50

And extremely smart dresses for little money.

BARGAIN PRICES

ON STANDARD MAKES OF

PIANOS

The first time in the piano history of Duluth that this has been possible, due to war conditions and changes in price of goods.

STEINWAY, SQUARE Beautiful Walnut $30.00
STEGER, ROSEWOOD CASE $35.00
DECKER, WALNUT CASE $85.00
LUDWIG, WALNUT CASE In Good Condition .. $98.00
KINGSBURY, CABLE CO. Make Oak Case .. $135

COUPON

Fill in Coupon for Special "Out of Town" Piano Sale Proposition.

*Name*_____

*Address*_____

*City*_____

—and mail to—
SMITH & ALLEN & CO., DULUTH, MINN.

EASY TERMS. OPEN EVENINGS.

SMITH & ALLEN CO.

309 and 311 WEST FIRST STREET

RUB OUT RHEUMATISM WITH "ST. JACOBS OIL"

Get a Small Trial Bottle---Rub Pain, Soreness, Stiffness Right Out of Joints and Muscles---Instant Relief! Best Liniment, Doesn't Blister

Rheumatism is "pain only." Not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Stop drugging. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil" right into your sore, stiff, aching joints and muscles, and relief comes instantly. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless rheumatism and backache liniment which never disappoints.

Limber up! Quit complaining! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, and in just a moment you'll be free from rheumatic pain, soreness, stiffness and swelling. Don't suffer! Relief awaits you. "St. Jacobs Oil" has cured millions of rheumatism sufferers in the last half century, and is just as good for sciatica, neuralgia, lumbago, backache, sprains.—Advertisement.

FATHER WOULD KILL DEFECTIVE CHILD

Des Moines Man Asks Legal Way to Remove Offspring.

Des Moines, Iowa, March 3.—The action of Dr. Harry J. Haiselden of Chicago in permitting the death of the defective Bollinger baby several weeks ago, was recalled here yesterday by Charles Cleveland, a laborer, who asked the chief of police for assistance in killing his 2-months'-old daughter.

Cleveland spoke with discouraged earnestness.

"Chief," he said, "won't you tell me how I can kill my baby so it won't be against the law? Maybe you'll help me so it will be all right like that baby in Chicago."

"What's that?" "Say it again," the chief gasped.

"You see," Cleveland went on "this baby hasn't any regular mouth at all, and the doctors say she might not ever be able to eat regular food, and, chief, she has fits all the time, and my wife she does nothing but cry all the time—and she's sick. So I asked the doctors to kill the baby, but they wouldn't, because they said the police wouldn't let them. So I came to you to ask if you'd help me do it all regular."

At Cleveland's desolate home, the city physician found the baby in convulsions and the mother in hysterics. He instructed that both be taken to a hospital. He said it would be impossible to operate on the infant during the convulsions.

Haiselden Would Cause Death.

Chicago, March 3.—Dr. Harry J. Haiselden, who, for humanitarian reasons, permitted Baby Bollinger to die when an operation might have saved its life, said last night that he might go to Des Moines to look into the case of the Cleveland baby.

"Of course, no physician would kill the child, but in such a case, I would control the convulsions by the use of bromides and the result of such treatment is almost invariably death," said Dr. Haiselden. "It is however, a kinder death than that which now threatens the little one. There is a growing movement on now for sanity rather than mawkish sentimentality in dealing with such cases."

IRON IS GREATEST OF ALL STRENGTH BUILDERS, SAYS DOCTOR

A SECRET OF THE GREAT ENDURANCE AND POWER OF ATHLETES

Ordinary Nuxated Iron Will Make Delicate, Nervous, Rundown People 200 Per Cent Stronger in Two Weeks' Time in Many Cases.

New York, N. Y.—Most people foolishly seem to think they are going to get renewed health and strength from some stimulating medicine, secret nostrum or narcotic drug, said Dr. Sauer, a specialist of this city, when, as a matter of fact, real and true strength can only come from the food you eat. But people often fail to get the strength out of their food because they haven't enough iron in their blood to enable it to change food into living matter. From their weakened, nervous condition they know something is wrong but they can't tell what, so they generally commence doctoring for stomach, liver or kidney trouble or some other ailment caused by the lack of iron in the blood. This thing may go on for years, while the patient suffers untold agony. If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while, double their strength and endurance and entirely get rid of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days' time simply by taking iron in the proper form. And this after they had in some cases been doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old forms of reduced iron, iron acetate or tincture of iron simply to save a few cents. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like nuxated iron if you want it to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless Many an athlete or prize-fighter has won the day simply because he knew the secret of great strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron before he went into the affray, while many another has gone down to inglorious defeat simply for the lack of iron.

NOTE—Nuxated Iron recommended above by Dr. Sauer is not a patent medicine nor secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists and whose iron constituents is widely prescribed by eminent physicians everywhere. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach; on the contrary, it is a most potent remedy, in nearly all forms of indigestion, as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. The Manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron that they offer to forfeit $100.00 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under 60 who lacks iron and increase their strength 200 per cent or over in four weeks' time provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days' time. It is dispensed in this city by Boyce Drug Store and all other druggists.

HEAVY TRADE IN PRODUCE

Next Week Has Been Set Apart as "Apple Week."

Price of Fruit Will Be Cut; Vegetables in Large Quantities.

Trade in the produce market in this city and district was never better for the season than at the present, so Michigan street dealers say. Sales of all edibles are increasing and consumers are buying more articles that usually come strictly under the luxuries class than in years.

With general conditions as they are, commission men are looking forward to making large turnovers in their various lines during the spring and summer months. Arrivals of fruits and vegetables from California, Florida and Southern points are said to be increasing and the range to be extending materially.

Spring Apple Week Next.

The local trade has decided upon a new departure in inaugurating another apple sale upon an extended scale. Next week will be set apart as "Spring Apple Week." "Such success was attained in last fall's sale that we reached a decision to bring on one this spring," said a dealer today. "We desire to educate the public up to the value of the apple as a spring tonic, and to lead consumers to test the fruit out on that score."

It is announced by the Fitzsimmons-Palmer company, the Stacy-Merrill Fruit company and the Culbertson Bros. company that prices on barrel apples will be reduced materially for the week. The quality of the late keeping apple varieties, such as Baldwins, Jonathans and Ben Davises, to be offered is said to be exceptionally good, and it is believed that a large sale will therefore be recorded.

Orange shipments from California have been heavy of late, with the result that quotations are lower. Arrivals of grapefruit are also good, and quotations in it have been lowered. The supply and quality of Southern strawberries are said to be exceptionally good for this early in the season. They are being offered wholesale at 35 cents a quart.

Vegetables in Plenty.

A wide range of green vegetables is being received from Louisiana, Florida and California, and the movement in them is heavy. Quotations are regarded as low for this time of the year.

Potatoes are being offered at 95 cents a bushel. The future course of that market is thought to be problematical, depending altogether upon the extent of the marketings. Reports are being received to the effect that supplies in this district are comparatively large on account of growers having pursued to a great extent a policy of holding their stock over last fall in the expectation of receiving higher prices later on.

Eggs Drop Again.

Consumers are being favored in the egg market this spring. With another decline of 2 cents today to 24@26 cents a dozen for fresh eggs, quotations are much lower than a year ago. Receipts are reported heavy by the Bridgeman-Russell company and the Victor Produce company, but with increased consumption to counterbalance them, further price reductions are not looked for at the present. Supplies of storage eggs are practically cleaned up insofar as this market is concerned.

Butter is higher, the creamery product having been advanced 2 cents to 34@36 cents a pound. Production in this territory has increased, but with the good demand from down that way, larger shipments are being made to New York by dealers here.

RECRUITING RESULTS PROVE DISAPPOINTING

Earl of Derby Says Blame Is Due to Easy Exemptions.

London, March 3.—Keen disappointment as to the results of recruiting under the voluntary scheme proposed by him was expressed in the house of lords yesterday by the earl of Derby, former chief of the recruiting servlce.

The earl laid the chief blame for the failure to achieve the full results at which he had aimed, to the easy exemptions of single men, belonging especially to the starred trades, men required for work on necessities required by the government, and agriculturists.

He made an emphatic plea to the government to prevent bachelors of military age from evading military service by transferring themselves to specialized occupations, and declaring that a strong effort was necessary to obtain a requisite number of fighting men, without whom the empire might fall.

Farmers, the earl of Derby said, were the principal classes to avail themselves of exemption under the plea that they were indispensable for the production of foodstuffs, and that such exemptions should be watched.

Baron Harris, who has large farm interests, expressed the opinion that no single man was necessary on a farm. No figures on the result of the recruiting campaign were given, but it was said 140,000 married men had attested under the earl of Derby's scheme since the beginning of the year. The government promises to revise the list of reserved trades with a view to releasing more men for the army.

MYSTERIOUS FIRE IN NEWSPAPER OFFICE

Providence, R. I., March 3.—A fire of uncertain origin accompanied by a small explosion caused damage of $2,000 in the office of the Providence Journal last night. The blaze started in the office of the managing editor, among some newspaper files, and spread to another of the editorial rooms.

A statement given out by the Journal said the explosion, which occurred a few minutes after the fire started, filled the room with flames which shot through the editorial room adjoining.

The room in which the fire originated had been unoccupied for two hours, says the statement, "and there were no electric wires that could possibly have started the blaze.

"After investigation the police department arrived at the conclusion that the fire could not have been of accidental origin."

DANGEROUS MINE FIELD IS ADRIFT

London, March 3.—A stockholm dispatch to the Morning Post says that according to a message from Carlskrona, Sweden, a whole mine field of several hundred mines is drifting from the north, having presumably been set adrift by ice and wind.

The message adds that explosions are occurring hourly and that navigation in the neighborhood of the Swedish islands is perilous.

Security Trading Stamps are our discount to you for paying cash. If you have not commenced saving them it will pay you to start now.

Freimuth's

Our Delivery Service We are constantly striving to make this service better in every way. We welcome suggestions from our patrons that will help to improve it.

Last Day of the Rummage Sale!

TABLE NO. 5
Ladies' Waists Fine White and Colored Waists, slightly soiled; sizes 34 to 44, all styles—values to $2.50 Rummage price.. 39c

TABLE NO. 3
Ladies' Kimonos Fine White Swiss Lingerie Kimonos and Dressing Sacques—worth to $19.50, at... $3.45

Women's Skirts Fine Wool Skirts and Silk Skirts in narrow models—also tunic skirts; values to $15.. $1.75

Ladies' Suits 23 Suits, all staple colors, including a few large sizes—formerly $25.00 to $50.00.... $5.00

TABLE NO 1
Ladies' Jackets Skirts and Children's Coats, odds and ends of high priced garments—Rummage Sale price... $1.00

TABLE NO. 4
Ladies' Wrappers 100 Percale and Fleeced Wrappers; sizes 34 to 38; light and dark colors; regularly $1.25 to $1.50..... 75c

Cloth Coats 26 Mixture Coats, colored broadcloths and a few heavy winter coats—regularly to $35.00.... $5.00

Fine Dresses Wool and Net Dresses, all fine materials; values to $15.00—your choice.... $2.50

TABLE NO. 2
Party Dresses Ten only, but all evening shades—regular price was $19.50, this Rummage sale price... $5.00

Rummage Sale of Furs Women's Scarfs, Muffs and Fur Coats, as well as Children's and Misses' Furs—fox, ermine, skunk, seal, raccoon, mink, beaver, oppossum, etc.— Half Price

TABLE NO. 6
Girls' Dresses Attractive Dresses of fine challis and light colored silks and serges—reg. $12.50 $5.00

Fine Shoes—A Sale For the Little Tots, For Girls and Their Mothers Regular $1.25 to $4.00 shoes. The broken lines and single pairs of our big stock, including Fancy Slippers. Dozens of styles from sizes 5½ for children's up to 4½ for women—your choice Saturday at..... 89c

Fine Corsets for Women Who Want a Good Corset at a Moderate Price! P. N. Corsets of fine coutil, trimmed with lace or embroidery, and with six hose supporters. This new model has medium bust and is of medium length and has the "nip" at the waist the season demands..... $1.50

Delicious Chocolates Pineapple in cream, covered with finest chocolate. Other choice varieties of sweets in attractive pound boxes, regularly 50c, on Saturday, per box— 33c

The Book Clearance Good Reading at Less Than the Price of Paper Look over these volumes on Saturday. Table 1—Essays, Fiction, Toasts, Religious Books, Poetry, etc., formerly sold at 50c, on Saturday your choice for only..... 10c. Table 2—Standard Novels, Popular Fiction and novelty gift books formerly sold up to $1.00, choice..... 21c

Dainty Novelties For St. Patrick's Day Pretty table decorations, napkins, favors, flags, caps, pipes, tally cards, place cards, seals, etc., in great variety at from— 5c to 25c

Washable Kid Gloves In the Desirable Shades For Spring and Summer Street Gloves of fine imported kid in all shades of tan, as well as sand and white, with the backs attractively embroidered in black—a splendid quality, per pair.... $1.50

Fibre Silk Hosiery The Scarcity of Fibre Silk Makes Doubly Valuable An exceptionally fine quality of fiber and silk mixed thread hose with garter hem lisle flare top and double lisle heel and toes. Choice of black and all the season's wanted colors—while this purchase lasts, pair..... 50c

Leather Bags for Women Latest Shapes in These Shopping Conveniences Strap Handle Vanity Bags of black crepe calf, completely fitted and with the new handle..... $1.00

Metal Frame Hand Bags of black pearl seal or crepe calf leather, in crush shirred effects; lined with good quality silks and fitted; an unusually good quality at..... $1.00

For Men's Immediate Wear Qualities That Will Give Satisfaction and Wear! Medium weight Union Suits with closed crotch trouser seat; ecru color only; all sizes—an excellent value at only..... $1.00

Dollar Shirts, the well known "Argo" brand, in both laundered and soft cuff styles. Fast colorings in the latest stripe effects—a Saturday special at..... 79c

"SICKNESS" IS NOW LUXURY

Scarcity of Many Drugs Causes Prices to Soar Rapidly.

Druggists Filling Many Prescriptions at Cost—Novocaine Off Market.

A cold, a headache, a stomach ache or even a toothache will be more expensive in the future, and you can blame it all on the war in Europe.

Druggists say that if the present increase in prices of various drugs doesn't stop it soon will be a luxury to have a good "healthy" toothache, and that no one but a rich man can afford it.

Novocaine, a substitute for cocaine, which is widely used by dentists, is off the market and the next time you have a tooth pulled, or treated, you may have to take cocaine.

"Novocaine is more satisfactory than cocaine," said W. O. Flodin, druggist at Second avenue east and Superior street, "because it has none of the bad after effects of cocaine when used in dental treatment.

"Its price has increased considerably, but there is not much use in raising the price of a commodity when there is none of it to be sold. It has been off the market for a long time and dentists are carefully nursing their small supply, if they happen to have one."

Castor oil prices have doubled, recent reports said, and that is not all, if wholesale drug houses are correct in their predictions regarding the market. If it keeps up Johnny's mother will not dare to allow her son to acquire a good old-fashioned green apple stomach ache.

Asperin Scarce.

"Asperin is getting scarce and none of it is being shipped into the United States," said Mr. Flodin. "Prices of phenacetine and the bromides are also going up.

"As a matter of fact we are filling many prescriptions at cost, because if we allowed as much as we should for the higher wholesale market the price would be prohibitive."

German chemists now hold patent rights on asperin, druggists say, and Americans are forbidden to manufacture any of it, despite the fact that none is being shipped in from Germany because of the blockade imposed by the allied navy.

THAT LIVER IS NO GOOD

that is so lazy it lets the skin do part of its work. The skin turns yellow doing it. Such a liver upsets the whole system. Take Hood's Pills, they put the liver to work; best for biliousness, yellowness, constipation. Do not irritate nor gripe. Price 25c of druggists or C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

COMEDY GIVEN TO ADVERTISE CIRCUS

Lambs' Club Is Ready to Give "White Top" Event Saturday.

"The Sleeping Car," a comedy, was presented this morning in chapel at Central high school by a cast of seven members of the Lambs' club, the school dramatic society, to advertise the big circus which the members of the organization will hold at the school building tomorrow afternoon and evening.

The playlet, written by William Dean Howells, was a genuine fun-producer and kept the students in uproarious laughter. The sketch was a one-act play and described in an interesting as well as humorous manner, the numerous complications which arise when a young newlywed searches for his wife during a commotion in the car. The affair made a big hit with the students and proved a decided success in advertising and introducing the circus.

The cast was coached by Lee C. Rasey of the school English department. The arrangement of the scenery and stage settings was successfully cared for by Monick Altman. The members of the cast and the parts which they played, were as follows: Mrs. Roberts, Eleanor Currie; Mr. Roberts, Neil Upham; the Californian, John Ahlen; Willis Campbell, Donald Alexander; Aunt Mary, Frederica Tuteur; the porter, Charles Le Richeux; the conductor, Edwin Pearson.

You must like the Don Duluth cigar; it's so good.

FLOUR ALLOTMENTS IN AUSTRIA REDUCED

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Vienna, Feb. 11.—According to a ministerial order, the amount of flour allotted to each person in country districts has been reduced from 400 to 300 grams weekly. The same order provides that persons who do not possess a home—for instance, bachelors who live in hotels or pensions—and who therefore have no need of flour, are only entitled to bread and not to flour. No family may draw more than one kilogram (2.2047 pounds) of flour plus bread per person in the space of two weeks.

INSTANTLY OPENS NOSTRILS, COLDS AND CATARRH VANISH

In One Minute Your Stuffy Nose and Head Clears, Sneezing and Nose Running Cease, Dull Headache Goes.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm."

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning! the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake to-night struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.—Advertisement.

CLOQUET LODGE MEN HOLDING MEETINGS

Many Subjects Pertaining to Lodge Advancement Considered.

Cloquet, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Last Saturday and Sunday the Good Templars held their annual district meeting in the Sons of Norway hall and delegates from Hibbing, Duluth, Chisholm and Two Harbors were present. A banquet was served on Saturday evening and their regular business meeting on Sunday evening.

Tuesday evening Cloquet lodge No. 158, I. O. O. F., entertained the Carlton members when the advisability of forming an Odd Fellows' Picnic association was talked over and committees were appointed to carry the work through. Tonight Cloquet homestead No. 1861, Brotherhood of American Yoeman, will celebrate the nineteenth anniversary of the order by initiating a large class at Beaupre's hall, under the direction of State Organizer J. H. Murphy of St. Paul, who will be present. District Deputy P. F. Harouff of Duluth, will also be present for the occasion. After the business meeting, a banquet will be served. Tomorrow night Dallas lodge No. 181, A. F. & A. M., will confer the third degree on a class of candidates, after which a banquet will be served and speeches have been arranged for.

WOULD MARK ROADS.

Cloquet Better Roads Advocates Are Getting Busy.

Cloquet, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Automobile owners, the good roads committee of the Commercial club, and the Cloquet Automobile club are beginning to agitate on the question of good roads in this vicinity, and have issued invitations for a meeting to be held in the city hall for Wednesday, March 15.

The good roads committee of the Commercial club has had several meetings of late and outlined work which it would like to see carried through, and hopes to accomplish the coming season, and the purpose of the meeting is to get the co-operation of all the automobile owners and others who are interested in good roads. One of the things that will be taken up will be the proposition of placing signs at corners and out on the highways, of directions, warnings of bad curves, railroad crossings and all other places that will aid the traveler to find his way safely.

There are many thing that can be done at a very small expense that will greatly improve the roads, and will be done if brought to the attention of the proper authorities.

MARSHALL REFUSES TO PRODUCE RECORDS

New York, March 3.—The congressional committee investigating charges filed by Representative Frank Buchanan of Illinois against United States District Attorney Marshall may decide today whether to force to an issue the question whether it may inspect the minutes of the grand jury which indicted Mr. Buchanan, David Lamar and others connected with Labor's Peace council. The committee has requested Mr. Marshall to submit the minutes and Mr. Marshall has informed them that he will not honor their demands.

It is contended that if the evidence which the government has gathered concerning the labor plots of pro-German partisans were revealed at this time, serious impediment would be placed in the way of further progress. Mr. Marshall's desire to protect the grand jury minutes is understood to be due to the fact that the investigation of the plots is not concluded and that there may be other indictments.

It had developed today that Mr. Marshall in declining to surrender the minutes was acting upon the instructions of Attorney General Gregory in Washington.

Winter Carnival and Ice Palace.

Beautiful Lake Nebagamon.

The South Shore will run a special excursion train Sunday, March 5th, 1916, leaving Duluth Soo Line station 1 p. m. Low excursion fares.

New Jersey capitalists will establish a fox-breeding ranch.

We've Never Had a Year Start Out As Well As This Year!

TEA in the Tea Rooms every afternoon—Delicious Tea and Cakes, 20 cents.

The Glass Block

THE new Beauty Shop, for Marcel, Manicure, Oil Treatments for the Nails.

IN spite of the fact that 1915 was the most successful year in the history of the store, no year has ever begun so favorably as this—no year has ever held out such promises for a golden future! We, of the Glass Block, are not among those who see only dark and threatening clouds upon the horizon; and frankly, we like to believe that's the reason why people notice a different atmosphere about this big store. Crowds of busy shoppers? Yes! But first of all, crowds of happy, satisfied customers!

New Neckwear

Such wonderful things as we're showing in our Neckwear Department these days! Frills are the "rage," and frills are here galore! All sorts of them, and if you don't like frills, then big flat collars—so big and flat they'll surprise you! Vestees, too, in organdy, crepe, lace, etc., in white, ecru, lavender, pink, blue and rose. All white or edged with either of these colors, and priced from 50c to $3.00. (You'll love the cunning little Irish crochet buttons that are the feature of these vestees!) And you'll like, too,

$1.50 Hand Bags $1

These are new bags, too! A special purchase, recently "picked up" for us by our buyer in New York. Black crepe seal and Morocco bags with coin purse or mirror fittings, and linings in different colors.
(Leather Dept., Main Floor)

The New Veils

at 65c, $1.25, $1.89 and $2.25. The popular circular effects, in black, blue, brown and white, by the yard. We're showing these new veilings, both figured and plain, in black, white, blue, brown, purple, green, taupe, delft, etc., from 25c up to 95c.
And the plain little Crepe de Chine collars, cut square in back—if you like "simple" things, you'll just enthuse over these! Remember to stop at the Neckwear Department, at your right as you come in the Main Entrance!

Skirts!

Taffeta Skirts in Wonderful Variety.

Not only the plain blacks, always popular and in demand, but the most enchanting new effects in dark plaid Taffetas—skirts caught up and tucked around the hips, so that they bellow out in all the enchanting fullness of the "1830" styles. Plainer models, too; skirts with Serge belts and trimmings; smocked and tucked effects, and others with pannieres. They're here from $7.95 to $10.75—the biggest, finest assortment of skirts we've ever shown! (Second Floor)

In the Drug Department

Saturday Specials

$1.00 Herpicide, special, 79c.
$1.50 2-quart Hot Water Bottles, guaranteed for one year, special, 98c.
75c Cold Cream or Vanishing, 59c.
75c Toilet Water, several odors, 59c.

A Bargain in Jewelry

German silver vanity cases, plain and hand engraved, regular $2.75 values, $1.98.
(Main Floor)

$2.25 Pictures for 50c

Landscapes, figures, colored photogravures, etc., in gold frames to match, 50c.
Walnut and dull gold frames, size 5x7 up to 11x14 (values up to $1.25) only 50c.

New Dresses You'll Wish to See

At $24.75, a combination of hand-embroidered white Georgette, with black Taffeta bands (8 inches wide on the full skirt, and narrow black Taffeta ribbon at waist and cuffs.) The new shawl revers of black Taffeta make this frock especially smart!

Another, also at $24.75, combines straw-colored Georgette with straw Taffeta, (the Taffeta used in wide bands on the skirt, in contrast to the Joffre blue Faille girdle. A feature of this frock is the new sleeve, made with drop shoulder, heading and "blunderbuss" cuff of Taffeta.)

Still another, (and better suited to an older woman) is a rich black Taffeta, made with the shirred back and waist so becoming to small and slender women. ($29.75)
Still another, very new and quaint in design—has a tight waist of navy blue Serge, trimmed with Taffeta, a real chamois-skin collar, embroidered in navy blue silk, and Serge pointed frills, over a bell skirt of Taffeta in the 1830 style.

These, of course, are just a few of the many, many new models which are arriving every day from New York.
(Second Floor.)

Let Miss Dean Plan Your Party for You!

You'll find her in our "Favor Department," and she makes a specialty of planning dinners, formal and informal parties, (making individual favors, arranging the color scheme, even planning the menu if desired). And such a choice as you may have just now, in favors, place cards, bon bon holders, tallies, snaps, paper caps, etc. Not only in emerald green, for St. Patrick's day, but in pink, blue, yellow, red, lavender, etc. (Inquire at the Favor Department—Main Floor.)

Scrim Curtains at Half!

A group of scrim curtains purchased and intended for the big January White Sale, but delayed in shipment. The delay has won us an extra price concession—so here they are—(plain hemstitched Marquisette and Voiles, hemstitched scrims with lace edges and insertions. White and ecru. $2.00 values now 98c. $2.25 values now at $1.19. $3.50 values now at $1.69. (Fourth Floor.)

A Word About Glass Block Cutlery

As you step off the elevator in the Basement tomorrow morning, notice the stunning display of fine cutlery, just opposite the elevator! We're showing forty different patterns, in knives, all the way from 25c to $5.00. Knives with stag, pearl, wood or bone handles — to say nothing of butcher knives, broad knives, cake knives, grape-fruit knives, cook knives, carving knives, etc.
Scissors and shears are here, too, in all sizes (including button hole and "straight trimmers.") Just another Glass Block Department which will surprise you by its size and excellence!
(Basement)

FOR YOUR HOME

$1.50 Oatmeal Cookers for $1.19

Pure Aluminum Oatmeal Cookers, in the 2-quart size; an excellent quality, and a real bargain at this price! Special tomorrow at $1.19.
(The Basement.)

FOR YOUR BOY

Spring Apparel

We're showing a complete line of boys' spring coats — checks, tweeds, coverts, mixtures (sizes 2½ to 10) at $2.95 and up.

Boys' smart Norfolk suits, sizes 8 to 15 (2 pairs of pants) at $3.95 and up.

Boys' spring hats and caps—50c and up.

The Famous "Donegal" Rugs Only $15.00

The genuine imported Irish Donegal rugs, justly famous for their beautiful finish, soft wool quality and original designs. (Perhaps you've seen these in our windows lately.) We're showing them in the quaintest shades, colors and patterns we've ever had on display! (Rugs that have real decorative value in a room, besides being wonderfully warm and useful.)
(Fourth Floor.)

A "Kiddie-Car" Will Make Your Boy Happy

"Kiddie cars" go straight to a boy's heart! And straight to the parent's heart, too—because the "Kiddie car" will "stand up!" It's built to wear, and wear, and wear—and it does!
One of the best toys ever invented for small boys. We have them in four sizes—$1.50, $1.75, $2.25, $2.50.

35c Scotch Tissue Gingham Imported 25c

Here's an important Saturday bargain in our Wash Goods Department (Basement). These are genuine imported Scotch Tissue Ginghams, and they come in a handsome variety of plaids and stripes; fabrics of very fine quality, nothing short of remarkable at this low price per yard. ("Surprisingly fine and delicate," said one of our customers yesterday, examining them at their regular price.) You'll wish to see them!

A Big Display of Rich Stripe Silk Suitings

The newest thing for the separate skirt, or with cloth for combination dresses! Smart contrasting light and dark color striped combinations, hairline and pencil stripes, solid-color and two-tone stripes, appropriate for street suit, aftrnoon wear, etc., $1.25 yard.

Premier Taffeta Silks Black & Dress Shades

Beautiful light evening tints—white, light blue, pink, maize, navy blue, Belgian blue, green, brown, gray, plum, etc., besides a splendid array of glace and changeable two-tone color effects, in every light or dark color. (These unmatchable qualities, $1.25 a yard.)
Ask to see them in the Silk Department, Main Floor.

"Duchess" Undergarments for Women

We're showing the famous Duchess underwear (regular sizes 25c, extra sizes 29c a separate garment) in vests and pants; the vests low neck, sleeveless, low neck, wing sleeves, and Dutch neck, elbow sleeves. Union suits from 39c up. (Underwear Dept.—Main Floor.)

Something New! Fresh Home Made Candy!

In the Soda Buffet—a novelty we're just introducing! Absolutely fresh, pure homemade candy; (you'll find it just at the foot of the stairway in the Basement, by the Postoffice.) To introduce it, we offer

Special Tomorrow at 29c a Pound

"Satin Finish" Candies, special, 29c.
Assorted cocoanut buttercups.
Assorted pastelles
Assorted sunshine kisses
Assorted mint buttercups
Old fashioned peanut bars

All at 29c

Let Us Make Over Your Furs!

We're offering specially low prices in our new Fur Repair Department; furs, fur sets, fur coats, etc., done over promptly and at a surprisingly low cost. All work guaranteed; estimates given without charge.
(Second Floor)

Shoes

Smart Footwear for Women!

You'll wish to see these new 8-½inch top champagne lace shoes, made with the French heel as well as our smart high top lace and button shoes, in midnight blue, "Alice" blue, bronze, tan (with champagne tops), chocolate (with green piping), ivory, kid plum, etc.

Also our new white (washable) calf shoes—at $8.00. Genuine white calf, exactly like those very, very expensive white buckskin shoes you've seen at the fashionable summer resorts! Only these are the new washable calf—(soap and water cleans them)—8½-inch tops, white heel and white ivory sole!

Use Our Shoe Repair Department.

Work called for and delivered free.

Some New Books

Here are four new titles; books just off the press, and well worth reading, every one of them!
"The Curved Blades," by Caroline Wells; a detective story by this clever writer, so well known by her humorous poems, nonsense verses, etc.
"The Unpretenders," by Anne Warwick. A story of the "plain" people; but not a plain story! (The quiet, healthy sort of book so rarely met with these days!)
"Mrs. Belfane," by Gertrude Atherton. (Fancy Mrs. Atherton writing a mystery story centering about the murdered husband of a woman of cold, flawless beauty—the leader of her small town social set!)
"The Hunted Woman," by James Oliver Curwood. A story of the frontier—thrilling, red blooded—a tale to make you sit up late!

Are You Using Our Circulating Library?

The newest novels are here; and lots of women are finding it convenient to pick up the new books while they're in the store shopping! You'll find it so, too. (Main Floor)

You're Safe in Buying Corsets Here!

One corset often looks as good as another, but often the value isn't there. A good reason why it will pay you to buy your corset here, where you can depend on standard makes, guaranteed "to stand the test"! We carry practically all the best makes, among them—

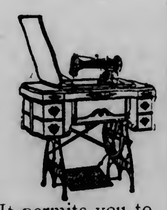
American Lady Corsets

priced from $1 to $5, and faultless in fashion, fabric, workmanship. American Lady corsets are made in both back and front lace models, with a style for every individual figure. We're showing them in very latest designs; corsets which will give you the new "silhouette," so all-important in this season of 'period' styles! Why not let our corsetiere fit you?
(Corset Dept.—Third Floor)

100 Sewing Tables Free!

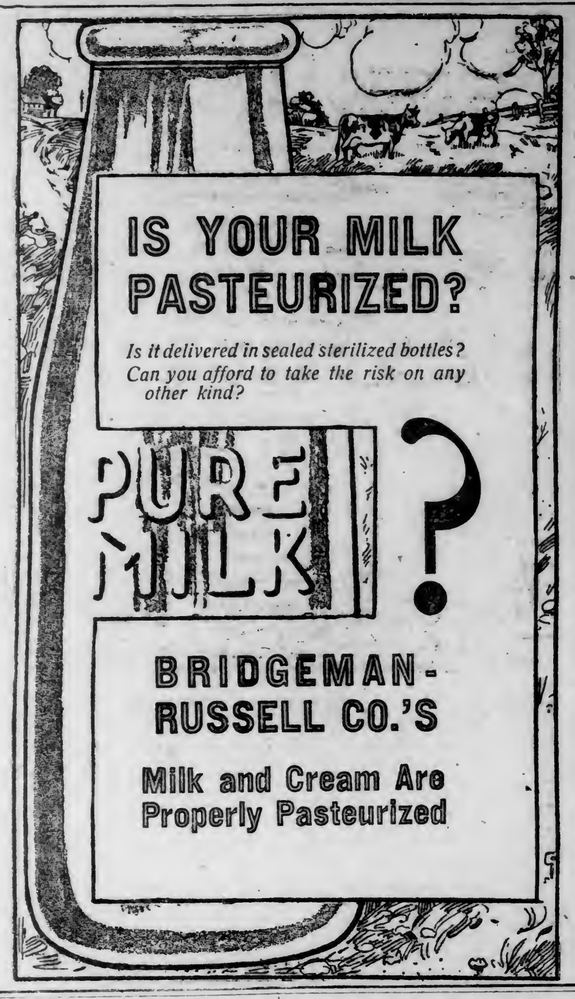
An adjustable sewing table (exactly like cut) retails at $9.00. One of these tables will be given away with each

Florence Rotary Sewing Machine



(as long as the supply lasts) at about one-half price asked by others. Now is the time to get that new machine and take advantage of this generous offer. This table is a wonderful convenience in your home. It is adjustable for sewing, games, reading, cutting, the sick room and in many other ways. The "Florence" Rotary is the machine we guarantee for life. That's what we think of it. It permits you to sew with lockstitch, chainstitch and do beautiful hemstitching. Really three machines for the price of one. Come and get yours now before they're all gone.

Pay $2.00 Down and Then $1.00 Weekly—
It's Soon Paid For!
Sewing Machine Dept.—Fourth Floor.



IS YOUR MILK PASTEURIZED?

Is it delivered in sealed sterilized bottles? Can you afford to take the risk on any other kind?

PURE MILK ?

BRIDGEMAN-RUSSELL CO.'S

Milk and Cream Are Properly Pasteurized

IT'S ANNIVERSARY OF HISTORIC EVENT

Minnesota Territory Created Sixty-Seven Years Ago.

St. Paul, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Today is the sixty-seventh anniversary of the act of congress creating the territory of Minnesota, and the day is being observed by several organizations in various parts of the state. In Minneapolis the Native Sons of Minnesota have arranged an informal dinner and program of entertainment which is not restricted to the membership of the society. Invitations were sent to a number of representative Minnesotans and a gathering of the native clansmen in numbers was expected tonight, when several addresses will be made outlining the difficulties encountered in having the territory of Minnesota created.

Ended Three-Year Struggle.

Passage of the bill creating the territory of Minnesota on March 3, 1849, marked the end of a three-year struggle on the part of leaders in the territory to obtain recognition in Washington.

It was more than a month after the passage of the act by congress that the weekly steam-packet, the first to make the trip up Lake Pepin, arrived at St. Paul bearing the news of the creation of the territory with St. Paul as the seat of government. The first governor, Alexander Ramsey, did not arrive in St. Paul until May 27.

LEATHERLESS SHOE IS SOLD IN GERMANY

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Berlin, Feb. 11.—A new type of "leatherless shoe" is being widely advertised in the German newspapers. The uppers are made of gray or black waterproof linen sailcloth, while the soles are built of thin layers of wood glued together with waterproof glue.

DOMESTIC HOGS HAVE BECOME VERY SAVAGE

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Paris, Feb. 15.—Domestic hogs let loose at Gerbevillers at the time of the German invasion of Lorraine wandered into the forests after living for a time on the refuse found around the soldiers' camps and they are now said to have become entirely savage as the result of their contact with the wild boars of the region. The peasant of the neighborhood say they are even more ferocious than the wild boars and hunting parties have been organized to rid the forests of them.

MOTHER! LOOK AT YOUR CHILD'S TONGUE

Give "California Syrup of Figs" If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious, Constipated--They love it

Watch Children Now! Guard Against Colds, Grippe, Sore Throat and Sickness by Keeping Liver and Bowels Free from Poisons

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggist; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has the grippe or a sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. See that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't merely ask for Syrup of Figs," but ask for "California Syrup of Figs." Remember, "California."—Advertisement.

HEALTH TALKS

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

Streptococcicosis

WILLIAM BRADY M.D

The common garden variety of streptococcus is a hard germ to pronounce and a harder one to get rid of. Yet we must learn how to accomplish both feats, especially if we happen to have a case of rheumatism concealed somewhere about our person. For the still more stammerous term which we have used as the title of this conversation, at the grave risk of our reputation for simplicity, we are indebted to Dr. H. L. Ulrich of Minnesota, a middle western state whence issues much of the practical scientific thought which makes the profession of medicine as exact a science as any other profession today.

Dr. Ulrich has been conducting an exhaustive study of the blind dental abscess and its relation with such focal or secondary conditions as "rheumatism," gastric or duodenal ulcer, and certain valvular heart troubles, as well as secondary anemia.

A blind dental abscess is a minute collection of pus at the apex or root of a tooth, perhaps giving no pain, perhaps not even diagnosed by the dentist, but detected by X-ray photographs of the jaw. Ulrich found over 68 per cent of all artificially devitalized teeth had apical abscesses, and the total proportion of abscesses on 1,350 dead teeth, including those found on pulpless teeth due to decay (cavity) or accident or fillings was 83 per cent.

The busy little microbe in the majority of these cases—the microbe causing the abscess and the focal or secondary trouble, too—is the streptococcus viridans. Several other types join in the festivities, but S. V. appears to be the von Tirpitz accountable primarily. And so Dr. Ulrich inflicts upon humanity this new word, streptococcicosis, which is just as much entitled to a place in the medical lexicon as is tuberculosis or acidosis.

Some dentists declare that these root abscesses are caused by improper fillings, but in view of the very great frequency of abscesses about the teeth of persons who do not patronize the bargain dentists it would seem that this charge is a little too severe.

Whatever the primary cause of the abscess this much is established: A patient with any of the troubles above listed as focal or secondary, should bear in mind the possible influence of a blind dental abscess, and if necessary have X-ray photographs of the jaw taken to exclude such a factor.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Autolysin and Cancer.

Can you inform me whether the new treatment for cancer (called autolysin, I think) is proving efficacious?

Answer—It is not helping many cases; it is or has apparently aggravated some cases, and to date there is no proof that it has ever cured a single case of organic cancer.

Furnace Hygiene.

Is there any hygienic objection to a furnace plant in which the air intake is from the cellar?

Answer—Yes. The intake should be from outside air.

Agreeable Hand Lotion.

Mrs. F. S. F. asks: Please tell me how to make an agreeable salve with mutton tallow, for chapped hands, rough skin, and the like.

Answer—Here is a better one, without tallow:

Glycerin.....1 ounce
Bay Rum.....3 ounces
True Oil of Rose.....3 drops

Mix. Apply after washing, while the skin is still damp. It will keep the hands soft and white.

Basketball for Growing Girls.

Kindly give me your opinion of basket ball as a game for growing girls.

Answer—One of the best things in the world for them, and so is swimming.

Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. If your question is of general interest it will be answered through these columns; if not it will be answered personally if stamped, addressed envelope is enclosed. Dr. Brady will not prescribe for individual cases or make diagnoses. Address, Dr. William Brady, care of this newspaper. Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.

PROSPERITY WIDESPREAD

Masses Enjoy Reaction After the Long Period of Depression.

Railroads Are Prospering and Building Booms in All Sections.

New York, March 3.—In not one line of interior business in the United States is there the slightest recession from the activities of the past ten months, and in many of them the pressure for the greater expansion is very marked.

The magnificent earnings of the leading railways, the continuance of the demands for freight cars, notwithstanding the many thousands of new cars and the other thousands of old cars repaired and put into service during the last year, these are so encouraging that the railroads are ready to place large orders for all classes of materials and supplies, materials and supplies urgently required, but the difficulty now is to obtain these in any reasonable period of time.

These are red-letter weeks and months of earnings for the railway companies, and their new prosperity enables them to become a most powerful and influential factor in the extension of prosperity to other lines of business. Like many of the bankers, many of the railway managers have learned the lesson that "live and let live" is the true motto of dealing with their patrons, and that a despoiled population is inimical and dangerous, while a fairly treated and contented people make for the profit of the loaning and the transportation interest as well as for profit of industrial and commercial interests. There is a wave of good times in this country now.

Good Feeling to Prevail.

The people are enjoying a reaction from the depression which was more or le-- their condition from 1907 to 1915, and it seems now that with consideration given by those at the head of public interests, and those at the head of great private interests, dependent upon support of the public prosperity of the masses of the people, this good feeling will prevail for a long time.

Throughout every portion of the United States a building boom has set in and a real estate movement is in evidence. This is true in every state of the Union, and is very marked in the states of the East from Maine to Florida and in the states of the Central West, where prosperous agriculture is associated very closely with profitable manufacturing and prosperous mining interests.

Large sums of money are available here now for realty transactions and for construction operations, and there is not an architect, a building material interest nor a contracting construction firm but is recording the change from dullness to activity in their respective lines.

Larger and better houses in the country, in the villages, in the towns and cities; public buildings and private construction of all classes are being erected and plans prepared for others to be erected when the spring opens.

Many Buildings Projected.

Dwellings of every size and class, warehouses, factories, mills, shops, store and office buildings, hotels and skyscrapers all are now being designed by those having use for them, and hundreds of millions of dollars of building work will be completed before snow flies next winter.

In the borough of Kings the plans approved by the bureau of buildings since Jan. 1 have involved several millions of dollars more expenditure than those approved during the same period in 1915. So in Queens and in Manhattan, and one of the most gratifying features of the reformation of business in this city is the great transformation which has come to real estate in the district between Tenth street and Twenty-eighth street and Fourth and Eighth avenues, where one year ago ruin seemed before many realty owners in that district, now incomes are rapidly augmented as demand from hundreds come for the empty stores and office rooms and lofts of that section of the city.

Realty Values Going Up.

As a consequence of this realty values and prices are far above those of 1914 and early 1915, and are fast approaching those of the days when Twenty-third street was the great fashionable shopping center not only of the city of New York, but of the entire Eastern and Southern portion of the United States. Connecticut and New Jersey are booming in building construction, and never in the history of either of these two states has anything approaching the present activities in business been witnessed by their populations. From Philadelphia north throughout New Jersey and within the entire state of Connecticut there is scarcely a dwelling unoccupied and there certainly have been 100,000 persons added to the populations of each of these comparatively small states during the past twelve months. It seems that every industry that was established within the territories has had a great expansion and is showing immense vitality, while hundreds of new industries that have started there during the year 1915 have called into the states vast numbers of people and these are now busily employed.

The prosperity of New Jersey and Connecticut is adding hundreds of thousands of dollars weekly to the sales of the merchants of this city, as so many of those resident in those states do their purchasing here.

The Don Duluth, made in Duluth, made a hit with the smoker. It's a good cigar.

FIRST CHINESE "VAG" IN DULUTH SENT TO WORK FARM

John Hor Non, 23, is a Chinaman who is afraid of work.

Many Chinamen have been arrested since Duluth's police department came into existence, but John's case is the only one, the records show, in which a Celestial has been accused of vagrancy.

Long ago cast out by his friends, who scorned him because of his laziness, John has drifted hither and yon, getting his breakfast at one friend's restaurant, his dinner at another's and supper at a third's.

Hor Non loves to go out on the street any time between midnight and 3 a. m. and watch the traffic. If a snow storm is in progress, and there is practically no traffic to watch, so much the better.

"If there was a lot of traffic it would be too much work for John to watch it all at once," explained Patrolman A. A. Wanvick, who arrested him yesterday.

Twice before Hor Non has been in durance vile and each time friends have intervened so that he wouldn't have to go to the work farm.

This time, however, Judge W. H. Smallwood sentenced him to ten days at the work farm and it looks very much as if Hor Non would have to break a time-honored rule and do a little manual labor.

CASE CONTINUED AGAIN.

William Bogan, Hockey Player, Faces Assault Charge.

For the second time municipal court authorities have postponed the trial of William Bogan of Superior, hockey player and member of the Big Duluth seven, who faces an assault charge because of injuries received by a member of the Universal team in a game played at the curling club Feb. 4.

The complaint alleges that Bogan struck him with a hockey club, inflicting serious injuries. The player was arrested when he appeared at the rink about a week after the alleged assault was committed.

On motion of Walter Dacey, Bogan's attorney, a trial of the case was continued for one week.

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE Tablets. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVE'S signature is on each box. 25c.

TEN THOUSAND BOYS MAKING MUNITIONS

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Woolwich, Eng., Feb. 18.—Ten thousand boys too young to fight are doing what they consider the next best service for their country—turning out munitions in the government arsenal here. In ordinary times many would have become office boys, clerks or telegraph messengers, but today the majority come from points miles from the factory and help the older men make the shells and guns needed by the men at the front.

The pay is attractive. A smart boy can earn $7.50 a week, or even $10 if he has a good machine and can keep steadily at work for as long as twelve hours a day.

Spring Ties

in beautiful silks at 25c, 35c and 50c.

Gloves

in the new Spring shades in kid mocha of highest quality Wilson Bros., Diamond brand and other well known makes at $1.25, $1.50 and $2.00.

Shirts

New Spring patterns in Monarch, Arrow and Cluet, $1, $1.50, $2.00.

Spring Coats

The man who fails to see our new all-wool knitted Spring Coats is the man satisfied with inferior quality and style.

We Hear Daily Compliments on This Coat Wonder

It's the newest thing in Men's Top Coats, made up in a soft, pliable all-wool gray and green mixture, at—

$22.50

Dress Well—

Never Miss the Money

means that your credit is good, that you can come here and select anything you may need and have it charged to account. Our system is just, generous and economical. It is extended free of charge to our patrons. You can pay as you get paid.

GATELY'S

H.A. Nelson Gen. Mgr.

DULUTH-SUPERIOR-VIRGINIA-HIBBING

Spring Hats

The new hats for spring and summer wear are here—

And styles that reflect the highest hat ideals. It's better to be a little early than late.

Buy yours now. We show the Gordon and other standard makes at—

$3.00

Spring Suits

that men of good taste and judgment want. Superiority of quality and supremacy of style have earned for our suits their well deserved popularity.

We Guarantee

the colors, the fabrics, the workmanship in all our suits.

Hundreds of new Spring models are here—

$15, $20, $25

CHEAP LIVING AT PETROGRAD CLUB

At Least Twelve Applicants for Each Vacant Apartment.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Petrograd, Feb. 5.—The Officers' club of Petrograd is probably the most elaborately housed organization of its kind in the world. It occupies a large palace in one of the principal streets of the city, built around three sides of a spacious quadrangle. The enormous building is maintained largely at the expense of the state, and during the period of the war it is open, practically without charge, to Russian officers quartered elsewhere than in Petrograd, and to their wives and families.

The huge reception rooms are decorated with oil paintings and fine engravings presented by various regiments, and many of them by the emperor himself. On the floors above are 150 bedrooms, ranging in price from 30 cents to $2.50 a day. For the lowest price one is provided with a capital bedroom, electric light and hot and cold water. For the maximum figure an officer or his family can have a sitting room, double bedroom and bathroom.

A four-course table d'hote costs 40 cents, which is remarkably cheap considering the high prices which at present rule in Petrograd. The club has been so popular that there are at least twelve applicants for each vacant apartment.

The club also operates the immense "Army and Navy Stores," where Russian officers and men can buy all necessaries and luxuries at practically cost price.

ORDER HAS AROUSED STORM OF CRITICISM

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Munich, Germany, Feb. 11.—Germany is so devout a worshiper of officialdom in uniform that a recent order of the authorities has aroused a storm of criticism. It limits to a far-reaching extent the wearing of uniform during the war, particularly among railway officials and employes, who are required to substitute for their uniform simple woolen or cotton blouses of dark material and a simple badge of office. Says the Neueste Nachrichten:

"Far be it from us to criticize the government's action in this matter, but we cannot help expressing our fear lest, with the well-known respect of our people for the official uniform, and for all that it stands for, disagreeable incidents may result from the contact of the public with men clad in blouses or other garments which do not bring home to them sufficiently the authority they represent."

FOR PRINTING, LITHOGRAPHING, ENGRAVING, BINDING!

QUICK SERVICE AND EXPERT WORKMANSHIP, CALL

J. J. LeTOURNEAU PRINTING CO.

221 WEST FIRST STREET.

FREE IMPORTATION OF FRUIT IS ASKED

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

London, Feb. 18.—A plea for the free importation of fruit has been sent to the cabinet in a resolution by the executive committee of the Vegetarian Federal union. It is based on the ground of health, and says:

"Any restriction of the present importation of fresh and dried fruit is to be strongly deprecated as tending to cause the lack of essential necessaries of healthy life; as food, the very nectar and ambrosia of the people; as physic, better than all the pills and potions of the pharmacopeia, and in either case of supreme value for the well being of the community at large."

IT WILL COST YOU ONLY A FEW CENTS

every week to furnish your home with all the comforts that you feel you like to have. We spent many years in perfecting this credit system so that it is beneficial to the customer as well as profitable to us. Long experience in buying has taught us how to buy to advantage, and it is through this practical knowledge that we can serve you so well. Any old piece of furniture you may have will be taken by us and it will be credited to your account as cash—the balance can be paid for in surprisingly small sums.

If you are sick or out of employment, we will carry your account.

CHINA CLOSET

China Closet of fumed oak; stands 60 inches high and fits right into corner of room. Price, $16.00, payable 50c a week.

ELECTRIC LAMP

Electric Lamp No. 76 has 17-inch cottage roof art glass shade, fumed oak frame, pillar and base. A very attractvie lamp. Price, $6.00, payable 25c a week.

No Cash Needed—Your Old Furniture Will Do.

EXTENSION TABLE

No. 1000, a handsome Fumed Oak Table, with 45-inch round top, full six feet extension. Price, $17, payable 50c a week.

DINING ROOM CHAIRS

Very strong, durably built Dining Chairs, oak, in either fumed or golden finish. Slat back, bolt and box seat construction, with genuine leather upholstering, either Spanish or black. Our low price, each..... $2.50

(Set of six, $15.00)

Your old chairs down, 50c a week.

OAK BUFFET

Oak Buffet, top 20x42 inches, with bevel plate, mirror over top 12x36 inches. Price, $26.00, payable 75c a week.

ELECTRIC LAMP

No. 72 is a very handsome lamp with fumed oak frame, 22 inches high and 18-inch art glass shade. Wired and all ready to attach. Price, $4.50, payable 25c a week.

No Cash Needed—Your Old Furniture Will Do.

NO QUESTIONS ASKED — CREDIT TO ALL

BELLNET INSTALLMENT CO

202 EAST SUPERIOR ST.

D. H., 3-3-16.

Tomorrow!

Columbia $20 and $25 Suits at $13.75!

That's not all!

TOMORROW, SATURDAY, NIGHT all cut price sales in the Men's and Boys' Suit and Overcoat Sections WILL END.

It's your last chance!

Duluth, Minn. Columbia Clothing Co At Third Ave. West.

WILL SPEND ALL DAY HERE

H. D. Estabrook, Presidential Candidate, Will Be in Duluth Tuesday.

J. L. Washburn Will Introduce Him at Evening Meeting.

The first and perhaps the only presidential candidate to appear in Duluth this year, Henry D. Estabrook, will spend all of next Tuesday here, according to plans just completed today. E. L. Noyes, state manager for Mr. Estabrook, is in the city today, confering witl. N. B. Morrison, who has been looking after Mr. Estabrook's affairs in this district.

J. L. Washburn of Duluth has agreed to introduce Mr. Estabrook at the meeting that will be held in the large upstairs dining room of the Spalding hotel next Tuesday night; and other arrangements for the candidate's entertainment during the day are being made. Mr. Estabrook and his secretary, Mr. Riley, will arrive in Duluth over the Soo in the morning, and will go to the Spalding. At noon, according to arrangements being made today, the candidate will be entertained at the Commercial club, where a reception and luncheon will be held. At the luncheon the judges of the Federal, state and city courts, and a number of the leading lawyers of the city will be present, for Mr. Estabrook is one of the leading lawyers of New York.

That evening, Mr. Estabrook will he heard at the Spalding hotel. His subject will be "The Tariff."

Expects to Carry State.

Mr. Noyes, the Estabrook state manager, declared this morning that he sincerely believes that Mr. Estabrook will carry Minnesota.

"There will be a much larger vote in opposition to the Cummins interests, and also opposed to what the Cummins delegation would be likely to be forced to do at the convention, than is supposed," said Mr. Noyes. "The Cummins people are taking too much for granted. Where will this opposition vote go? Estabrook is the only available candidate. He is also the logical man to support, for Cummins is impossible to nominate, and after the first couple of ballots in the convention, he will be laid aside and the delegates will divide up and struggle for somebody else. Mr. Estabrook on the other hand, will pick up support as he goes along, and has a far better chance for the nomination than anybody mentioned yet."

Making Strong Fight.

That the Estabrook forces are not lying down in Minnesota is amply attested by the work that is being done, the literature being sent out, and chiefly by the fact that Mr. Estabrook is personally making a tour of the state. Practically unknown in Minnesota up to now, he is rapidly becoming the most intimately known Republican candidate to people of this state; and, if the Estabrook people's estimates are right, he is making rapid headway and gaining popularity.

Last Tuesday, the candidate spoke in Minneapolis, in Red Wing on Wednesday evening, and spoke in the state university theater yesterday afternoon on "Preparedness from the University Man's Standpoint." He will speak in Winona tonight, and tomorrow will make two speeches in Minneapolis, one being at a luncheon at the Dyckman hotel, and in the evening at the Pence auditorium. On Monday night he will speak in Stillwater, on Tuesday he will be in Duluth, on Wednesday he will speak at Albert Lea, and on Thursday will make his final Minnesota address at Mankato.

NEW BOOKS FOR CHILDREN

Public Library Receives 2,000 Volumes for Juvenile Department—Literature Available for Baby Week.

"Pilgrim's Progress," Shakespeare, and the Bible, the library of Abraham Lincoln during his boyhood, would not appear very favorably in bulk beside the library available to the poorest boy or girl in Duluth. The Duluth Public library has recently received more than 2,100 books for children, and these are being catalogued, ready for distribution at the main library, the West end, West Duluth, and other branches and stations and the new station at the Stowe school at New Duluth.

The volumes include many costly as well as inexpensive books and a large number of them are beautifully illustrated in colors. Many volumes are duplicated so that the same book may be placed on the sheif of all the various branches and stations.

Books for Baby Week.

One of the most interesting features connected with the installment of these new books is the placing of an exhibit of books at the Masonic temple for the benefit of mothers during Baby week. Books on the care and feeding of babies as well as the best books for the child under 6 years of age are being selected. In these times the child of 6 years is expected to know something about books, and the list of volumes just acquired shows that much work and thought is being put on the selection of books to be read to the child. The display will be divided into three sections as follows:

First—Books on the baby.

Second—Books on the home, including home economics, child psychology, etc.

Third—Books for children up to 6 years of age.

One of the new books that will appeal to mothers very strongly is a small volume written by Clara W. Hunt on "What Shall We Read to the Children?" It tells of the kinds of stories and other reading matter that appeal to children of various ages and is written in an interesting manner.

Among the more expensive books with beautiful illustrations is the "Children's Blue Bird" by Madame Maurice Maeterlinck, wife of the famous dramatist who wrote "The Blue Bird," from which the new volume is taken.

Social History Series.

The Industrial and Social History series prepared by Katherine Elizabeth Dopp, Ph. D., is a well illustrated series of small volumes containing remarkably interesting tales for children. There are four volumes, which include: "The Tree Dwellers," "The Early Cave Men," "The Later Cave Men," "The Early Sea People."

Even "Goops," the clever rhymes illustrated by Gellett Burgess, which had a wide vogue when they appeared some time ago in various newspapers, are reproduced in book form and make up two interesting volumes. They come under the title of "Goops" and "More Goops."

Hans Christian Andersen's "Fairy Tales," artistically illustrated, and "The Everyday Fairy Book" are two interesting volumes that will delight youngsters. And then there is Arthur Packham's "Book of Pictures," several volumes of "The House That Jack Built," "The Dutch Twins," and Celtic and English fairy stories.

"Uncle Sam's Modern Miracles" is a book discussing the operations of the Federal government in the Philippines, Porto Rico, and in Indian territory.

George A. Gray Co

THE STORE FOR SERVICE.

113-115-117-119 WEST SUPERIOR STREET, DULUTH, MINN.

Styling of Rare Charm Marks the New Gowns at Gray's

You will lose your heart to the lovable little dresses that are just waiting to be admired. You have read that "Paris flaunts her skirts" and sleeves also. Come to Gray's and you will see it. You will visualize the interesting fashion news you have been reading. You will see escallops, pipings and ruchings and cordings lending their quaintness to the pretty silken gowns that are here in such varied assortment.

There are chic little taffeta dresses at $15.00 and interesting models at various prices up to $40.00. The showing at $25.00 is mighty good.

All of them are more or less bouffant—usually more. Some of them show draped hips, some have cascades—others deep single pointed flouncings or double pointed flouncings which might almost be called "over skirts." Some have petal-like flouncings. One particular black taffeta has deep petal flouncings faced with brilliant American beauty satin.

Fascinating indeed are these new fashions with their frivolous frills and flouncings—their drawn-in waist lines, their much trimmed sleeves.

Trimmings vary from little to much. All are fascinating examples of the charm of the spring things such as you'd expect at Gray's.

Our Spring Showing of Kiddies' Clothes Is More Attractive THAN EVER BEFORE.

Here are dainty children's dresses and boys' suits, suited for every occasion. They are of as fine material as you could wish. They are as thoughtfully designed and as carefully stitched as if mother herself had made them. Girl's dresses of fine materials, most daintily trimmed, white or colors; sizes 2 to 6 years, $2.25 to $5.00.

Boys' suits, white or colors, of heavy pique or repp, some with a touch of hand embroidery, sizes 2 to 5 years, $2.25 to $5.00.

Rompers for boy or girl babies, neat pin-striped or checked percales, daintily trimmed with organdy collar and cuffs at $1.50 each. Baby boy rompers, mannish little garments with suspender effects or belt and pockets at 98c and $1.25. All white rompers, well made of repp, attractively finished and an extra good value at 50c and 65c each.

See the Window Display

Smart New Hats For Your Immediate Wear!

You are a bit tired of heavy winter millinery and will be glad to see the new hats here tomorrow! Try on one of the high trimmed models and see how becoming they are.

Then there are various models in the Charlotte Corday effects that are most modest—or chic turbans of Sipper braid that are models of simplicity and yet are smartly stylish.

The Trimmings and Laces You Have Been Asking For Are Here!

Wanted shades of malines, including pink and old rose, 27 inches wide, 25c the yard.

New colored silk nets, 40 inches wide, $1.50 the yd.

New gold and silver laces for dress trimmings and hats; 5 to 18 inches wide, $1.00 to $2.00 the yard.

New Vals, Venice and Oriental laces are ready.

You Know Phoenix Fiber Silk Stockings Are About the Best Possible, 75c

New Phoenix Hose, all wanted shades, including black and white. A splendid silk hose at a popular price, 75c the pair.

Phoenix black lisle hose, 35c the pair, all sizes.

You have read about them in the magazines — need we say more?

MERCURY DROPS BELOW ZERO AGAIN

Rise in Temperature Is Predicted With Fresh Winds.

The temperature this morning, shortly before 7 o'clock reached 8 degs. below zero. To many, the morning felt colder than yesterday, when it was 10 degs. below, but that, it is probable, was owing to the fact that a wind prevailed this morning.

The prediction is for a let-up in the cold conditions, the temperature being expected to be around zero tonight and tomorrow morning, but with fresh southwesterly winds, which will probably become strong by the morning, which will likely make the temperature seem colder than it really is.

Phone your want ad early for The Saturday Herald. Both phones 324.

DIES IN ST. PAUL.

Mother of Duluth Woman Succumbs to Sudden Illness.

Dr. A. L. McDonald and Mrs. McDonald of 1930 Jefferson street have returned from St. Paul, where they were called Monday night by the sudden death from heart failure of Mrs. McDonald's mother, Charlotte Millington Morehous, wife of James E. Morehous of Duluth, formerly of St. Paul. Mr. and Mrs. Morehous made their home with their daughter, Mrs. McDonald, and have many warm friends in Duluth. They were the guests in St. Paul of another daughter, Mrs. William Hemminghouse, of 811 Ashland avenue. A third daughter, Mrs. Brown Higman, resides in Los Angeles. The funeral service, conducted by Rev. Maurice D. Edwards and Rev. Charles N. Pace, was held Wednesday afternoon, March 1, at 2:30 o'clock from the residence of her son-in-law, William Hemmingnouse, in St. Paul. The pallbearers, friends of many years' standing, were James H. Weed, Hascal R. Brill, Robert B. Ware, William P. Westfall and the sons-in-law, Dr. Archibald L. McDonald of Duluth and William Hemminghouse. The private interment was in Oakland cemetery.

SAILORS THOUGHT HE WAS A JONAH

Threatened to Throw Him Overboard If He Joined Ship.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

London, Feb. 18.—Charles Dunn, a sailor, pleaded guilty to the charge of failing to report for duty on an admiralty transport which sailed without him. Although such an offense, in war times, is regarded as a most heinous one, the Liverpool magistrate who heard the case, inflicted no punishment upon him.

Dunn, as was brought out in the evidence, is a modern Jonah. Although he seems to bear a charmed life himself the ships on which he sails almost invariably go to the bottom. He was on the Titanic and the Empress of Ireland when they went down, and on the Lusitania and Florizian when they were torpedoed by German submarines. His portrait, as that of the man who couldn't be drowned, has been shown at many of the "movies."

Among the sailors of the transport his extraordinary career was well known and his reputation as a Jonah firmly established. He said they had threatened to throw him overboard if he joined the ship.

"So you see, your worship," he explained to the magistrate, "if I had sailed on the ship they wouldn't have let me stay on her long. And though my luck might have held good again if they had chucked me overboard, I didn't want to risk another wetting, especially in winter."

The Don Duluth cigar is strictly a home product and it's a splendid cigar. Ask for it.

Advance Showing

Hart Schaffner & Marx Spring Suits and Top Coats

John B. Stetson Hats for Spring 1916

Copeland & Ryder and Educator Shoes

Saturday Special

Your choice of any Hart Schaffner & Marx Overcoat in our store ---- $14.75

Kenney-Anker Co.

409 and 411 West Superior St.

GRAND PRE-LENTEN BALL

LETTER CARRIERS

Auditorium

MONDAY, MARCH 6

Tickets, 50c Extra Ladies, 25c

Helmer's Orchestra

LAST BALL BEFORE LENT

NORTH'S SUPPORT PLEASES RAHN

Cummins' Candidate for Delegate-at-Large in Duluth.

Andrew A. D. Rahn of Minneapolis, one of the candidates for delegate-at-large on the Cummins ticket, was in Duluth this morning after having been out with Governor Burnquist on his trip through the North woods and to Northern towns. Mr. Rahn was accompanied to Duluth and from here to Minneapolis by George Akerson of the Minneapolis Tribune.

Mr. Rahn refused to make predictions as to whether he will be elected, but he substituted for such comment an expression of deepest gratitude to the newspaper men of Northern Minnesota for the almost unanimous support they are giving him.

"It is one of the things that warms the cockles of a man's heart," said Mr. Rahn. "I have worked with the men of Northern Minnesota and I have property interests in Northern Minnesota, and to have the boys cut loose without a single request from me and support me with the enthusiasm they are showing is mighty pleasing. Even if I should not win, that support will more than cheer me."

Mr. Rahn would make no comment on the senatorial contest, but as to the governorship, he declared that there seems no doubt of Governor Burnquist's nomination.

"The governor grows in favor wherever he appears," said Mr. Rahn. "On this trip he made many friends and supporters."

BEMIDJI'S CHIEF TO BE RETAINED

Bemidji, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mayor-elect Charles Vandersluis will take the oath of office next Monday evening when the new city council holds its first meeting, and employes will be appointed for the coming year. Mr. Vandersluis has not made known the changes he intends to make in the police department, but has announced that he will retain Frank Ripple as chief of police. With the exception of the office of mayor the city officials will remain the same as last year, each of the other officials being re-elected.

Passed Million Mark.

New England, N. D., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—With the shipment today of a trainload of wheat, New England has again passed the million-bushel mark. From present indications this point will ship over 1,300,000 bushels of grain this year.

HOCKEY TONIGHT!

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME.

Big Duluths vs. Universals, and Bagleys vs. Northerns.

CURLING CLUB RINK.

Admission, 25 Cents.

IRON INDUSTRY IN GERMANY THRIVES

Production Two-Thirds of What It Was Preceding War.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Berlin, Feb. 8.—The German iron trade is probably in a more nearly normal position than any other industry. The figures of production of pig iron for 1915, just published, show that the monthly rate of production is now fully two-thirds of what it was in the months just preceding the outbreak of hostilities. But as Germany had been exporting about one-third of its iron production during the peace times, it is evident that home consumption has remained practically unchanged. The total output for 1915 reached 11,790,000 tons. This was 2,600,000 tons less than for 1914 and 7,500,000 less than for the record year, 1913, but it was only about 20 per cent less than for the average of the five years previous to that. The monthly manufacture of steel, too, is only about 23 per cent less than the average just before the war.

The iron trade would make an even better showing but for the fact that its supply of skilled workmen cannot be kept up to requirements; it has been found necessary to take on inferior labor, including prisoners of war, from whatever source it could be obtained. There also is a lack of freight cars for moving forward ores to the furnaces and for shipping away the finished goods; and this is aggravated by a scarcity of hands also for loading and unloading the cars. The German furnaces have otherwise not been embarrassed by the lack of ores since the war begun. Although somewhat more than one-third of their ores had been imported from abroad, the war has not materially diminished the arrivals from the two foreign countries which are the biggest ore-producers for German furnaces. These are Sweden, which supplied Germany with about 4,500,000 tons a year, and France, which sent nearly 4,000,000 tons in 1913. As the principal ore fields in France are in the territory occupied by the Germans, the supply of French ores has been for some months kept up to a satisfactory level. Extensive properties in the new and excellent ore field of Briey, just across the frontier from Metz, were already in possession of big German companies before the war began; and these have only had to continue working their own mines. Spain is the only important foreign country from which imports have been cut off. At home the high-grade mines around Siegen and those in the Lahn and Dill valleys are operating at their full capacity, and their product is smelted as fast as the railways can lay it down at the furnaces. The other big ore region of Germany, that of Lorraine, is operating at considerably less pressure for the reason that the low grade ores found there are feeling the sharp competition of the better French ores from just across the frontier.

The German industry has had a comparatively moderate advance in prices since the war began. Foundry iron has been marked up only 20 marks or about $4.76 a ton, and hematite, $6.70 or less than $9, but Cleveland iron in England has risen $7.50 and hematite even as much as $16.40. Correspondingly, heavy plates for ship construction have risen about $14 in Germany, but $24 in England. The German price for such plates is 155 marks (about $34.50) as compared with 11 pounds (about $53.50) in England. The German steel trust has just raised prices for half-finished steel for further manufacture by five to ten marks a ton. The new price for billets is $29.17, which is only $6.55 higher than in July, 1914. Slabs, from which plates are rolled, now cost $30.35 or a rise of $7.15. The ground assigned by the trust for raising prices was that the costs of production had increased.

TRUSTEE'S SALE

The stock of jewelry, inventorying about $4,700.00, belonging to the bankrupt estate of Emilio Chiarappa, alias

I. FUDA

will be sold for cash to the highest bidder on Monday, March 6th, 1916, at 10:00 a. m. at 631 Manhattan Bldg., Duluth, Minn.

Sale subject to confirmation by the court. Inventory may be inspected at 631 Manhattan Bldg.

W. O. DERBY, Trustee.

BABE CARRIAGE USED TO EVADE THE LAW

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

London, Feb. 18.—The baby carriage has been put to a new use in some of the East Coast towns. The lighting regulations make it a misdemeanor to use a flash lamp in the streets during these nights of precaution against Zeppelin attacks, but at the same time the law insists that a perambulator must carry a lamp. Some ingenious individuals have hit upon the idea of pushing baby carriages around at night to light their way, and still keep within the law.

New Bemidji Pastor.

Bemidji, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Rev. L. P. Warford, until recently in charge of Hope Chapel at Minneapolis, will assume charge of the Presbyterian church here Sunday as pastor, succeeding Rev. W. E. P. White, D. D., who left last fall to accept a call at Longmont, Colo. Mr. Warford will move his family here about April 1.

DRESSER SPECIAL. $6.85

Always sold at $11.00 or $12.00.

Fifty well built dressers, finished in oak or mahogany; nice size for medium rooms; on sale Saturday, while the lot lasts.

BLOOM & CO.

102 and 104 West First Street.

George A. Gray Co

THE STORE FOR SERVICE.

113-115-117-119 West Superior Street Duluth, Minn.

THERE ARE NEW WARNER CORSETS FOR THE SPRING SILHOUETTE.

Tomorrow we will have ready new models in Warner corsets to sell at $1.50 and $2.00. They are well calculated to develop the fashionable figure as called for in spring styles.

Women of medium figure will be especially pleased with the $2.00 model "nipping" in the waist—emphasizing the rounded hip and accenting the bust curves.

These new Warner models do this and do it most successfully and with comfort.

WANTS WORLD TO HEAR STORY

After Seven Years Finds Relief in New Preparation.

Tanlac Places Well-Known Man Back on Payroll.

"I would like to tell evey sufferer from stomach trouble in the world the benefit I have derived from Tanlac," is what J. Olson told the Tanlac man at Voegell's yesterday.

Mr. Olson is one of the pioneer residents of the city, having resided in Minneapolis for twenty-three years. He now is engaged in the manufacturing business and lives at 4121 Thirty-seventh avenue south.

"For nearly seven years," said Mr. Olson, "I have suffered from a severe case of stomach trouble, my digestion was very bad and I had that bloated gastric swelling after meals. My stomach was in a wretched condition, at times the pains were so severe I could hardly stand the suffering, and everything I eat would sour on my stomach.

"For the last nine months I have been unable to do any work on account of my condition. I saw Tanlac advertised in the papers and decided to give it a trial, and I want to say the relief I have had is worth a hundred times the amount I paid for the medicine. All of my stomach trouble has disappeared and I eat and sleep with the utmost degree of satisfaction. I am so much better that I am going back to work, for Tanlac has done me more good than all of the other medicines I have ever taken.

"I cheerfully recommend Tanlac to all my friends and acquaintances, and would like to let every person in the world know the benefit I have derived from its use."

Tanlac continues to be sold in Duluth at the drug store of W. A. Abbett, 219 West Superior St., and at the Abbett branch stores, 101 West Fourth and 932 East Second St.

Tanlac may also be procured in the neighboring cities and towns from the following exclusive dealers:

Virginia—Casey & Pasternacki.
Ely—A. S. James.
Two Harbors—F. E. James.
Chisholm—Hays Drug store.
Eveleth—City Drug store.
Zim—S. W. Levin.
Hibbing—City Drug store.
Cloquet—E. M. Johnson.
Kelsey—Max Neupert.
Grand Rapids—R. R. Bell.
Lake Park—John Nelson.
Crosby—Lovdahl Drug Co.
Aitkin—R. C. Trudgen.
Elmore—W. O. Dustin.
St. Cloud—J. A. Henry.
Barrett—Barrett Drug Co.
Minneapolis—Voegeli Bros.

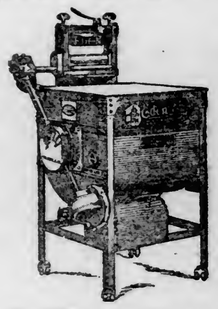
—Advertisement.

D. H., 3-3-16.

EFFICIENCY IN YOUR HOME!

Every good home manager is interested, and keen to adopt, any practical labor saving device that will help her to lessen work, worry and save money—establish real efficiency in her home.

The "EDEN" Electric Washing & Wringing Machine is the most wonderful and efficient machine that man has invented for use in the home. It does all the washing and wringing, quicker and better than can possibly be done by the old fashioned way—and the cost of operating only about one cent per hour; think of doing your washing and wringing for about five cents.



The "EDEN" is made entirely of metal, has a zinc revolving cylinder which insures ventilation; all moving parts are completely enclosed, all gears made from the best steel and packed in hard greece, a combination found only in high grade machinery, of which the "EDEN" stands paramount. YOU may prove to your entire satisfaction that the "EDEN" is all we claim for it, and a machine you really want, by having one sent to your home on FREE trial, wash with it, you to be the judge—if found as we represent it, we shall be glad to talk terms — but in keeping with your twentieth century idea of modern home efficiency —try an "EDEN."

One of our representatives will be glad to call upon you and explain our plan in detail upon request. Both phones, 2325.

WE RENT EDEN WASHERS BY THE MONTH.

NORTHERN ELECTRICAL CO.

"Everything Electrical"
Both Phones 2325.
210-212 WEST FIRST STREET.

COLUMBIA GRAFONOLA!

The Choice of Musicians

New No. 6 Reproducer and Violin Tone Chamber.

The only instrument that will reproduce a true tone.

EDMONT

18 THIRD AVENUE WEST

SEPARATED BY PRISON BARS

Mrs. Hugo Pyykko Granted Divorce From Imprisoned Husband.

Judges Still Busy With Tales of Broken Wedding Vows.

Less than six weeks after Anna Elizabeth Kauppi became the wife of Hugo Pyykko, Midway farmer, tragedy visited their home and nipped marital happiness in the bud. Pyykko, half-crazed with drink, stabbed and killed Matt Kemp, neighbor, and was sentenced to the state penitentiary for the crime.

Today Judge Cant granted Mrs. Pyykko an absolute divorce on the grounds that her husband was serving time in a penal institution. The Pyykkos were married on Sept. 12, 1912, and are parents of one child, Esther, 3. The killing of Kemp took place on the Thompson road, six miles out of West Duluth, on the evening of Oct. 30, 1912. Pyykko was sent to the penitentiary for manslaughter the following April.

Mrs. Pyykko was granted the custody of the child and was permitted to resume her maiden name.

* * *

Elizabeth Goldie Sell, 21, secured a divorce this morning in Judge Cant's division of the district court from Charles E. Sell, 26, on the grounds of cruelty and drunkenness. They were married at West Duluth on Oct. 3, 1910. Mrs. Sell testified that her husband mistreated her in many ways. She declared that he made good wages as a saw filer, but that he spent his money for liquor. She also stated that he falsely accused her of immoral relations with other men and that he was otherwise abusive in his conduct towards her.

* * *

Pearl Larson, 29, was this morning granted a divorce from William Larson, 26, on the grounds of desertion. The decree was awarded by Judge Cant. The Larsons were married at Grand Marais, Cook county, on Oct. 17, 1911, and Mrs. Larson testified that he abandoned her three years later. There are no children.

* * *

In Judge Cant's division of the district court yesterday afternoon a decree of divorce was granted to Charles Peterson, 35, from Buelah Peterson, 25, on the grounds of desertion. They were married Feb. 16, 1905, and lived together until June 1, 1914, when she left him, he said.

WOULD SEPARATE HIBBING PATIENTS

Hibbing, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The betterment of health conditions will be taken up at a meeting of the health committee of the Commercial club at a near date.

The committee, Dr. Reed, Dr. Weirick, Dr. Morsman, T. C. Congdon and Dr. Lee, will recommend that some provisions be made at the detention hospital to separate patients having diphtheria, smallpox and other contagious diseases.

At the present time all the patients are kept in the same ward and the local health committee wants the village to either build an addition to the detention hospital, or else make some provisions for various patients so that the health of any one of them will not be endangered.

HIBBING DISTRICT COURT IS ENDED

Hibbing, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—District court ended yesterday afternoon, with the completion of the court cases.

Two other trials were booked on the calendar and Judge Martin Hughes will be unable to hear them. An effort is being made to have some judge of the district court from Duluth act here.

Judge Martin Hughes is highly satisfied with the rapid manner in which the different cases were tried and also takes the opportunity to thank the juries for their faithful service to the court.

The next term of court will be in session at Virginia. A divorce case took up the attention of the court yesterday. Judge Hughes will render his decision in the case at a later date.

FRAZEE'S NEW BANK BUILDING

FIRST NATIONAL'S $25,000 HOME.

Frazee, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The new building of the First National bank of Frazee is 28½x80 feet, built of gray pressed brick, and white Bedford stone, and is of fireproof construction, no wood being used except for door and window frames. The floors, roof and vault are of concrete and steel, and all partitions of hollow tile. The interior of the banking room is finished in Cathedral oak, with tile floor and marble counters with bronze screen, which give the bank a modern banking office complete in every detail. The building was planned, built and equipped by A. Moorman & Co. of St. Paul at an approximate cost of $25,000, and was completed Jan. 1.

L. D. Newbry is president of the bank, L. W. Oberhauser, cashier, and William Espenson, assistant cashier.

Coleraine Banquet.

Coleraine, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Well-known speakers from outside points will be heard following the men's banquet to be held in Fraternity hall tonight: Senator C. C. McCarthy of Grand Rapids, Judge Martin Hughes of Hibbing and Dr. Hardy Ingham of Duluth. Music and other entertaining features will be interspered throughout the program.

Virginia Election March 11.

Virginia, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—To get the sanction of residents of the district to the proposition of buying the state "eighty" on the north side at about $150 an acre, for agricultural school purposes, a special election has been called for March 11.

Tower Bank Election.

Tower, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—As a result of an adjournment necessitated by lack of a quorum at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the First State bank last month, the selection of a board of directors and the election of the bank officers was held this week, resulting as follows: J. D. Murphy, O. C. Sovde, N. J. Benson, W. H. McQuade and G. A. Whitman; president, George A. Whitman of Eveleth; vice president, William H. McQuade; cashier, W. G. Pryor; assistant cashier, John O. Mike.

Chisholm Liquor Selling Case.

Chisholm, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The case of the state vs. Steve Zgonc, in which Zgonc is alleged to have furnished liquor to minors has been set for hearing in the municipal court at 11 o'clock next Wednesday morning. Edward L. Boyle, asistant county attorney, will appear for the state and Edward Freeman of this village, will conduct the defense.

Ely Card Party.

Ely, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Conan entertained at three tables of auction bridge at their home Wednesday evening. Messrs. and Mesdames Charles Trezona, E. C. Jones, W. D. Gallagher, H. E. White, W. A. Mcmurdy and Miss Edith Trezona. High honors were awarded to Miss Trezona and Mr. Gallagher.

Do you know Joe Shartel, the former alderman of Duluth? He makes the Don Duluth cigar for Rust-Parker company. Joe makes good cigars.

C. S. SYSTEM CLASSIFIED

Prince Will Introduce New Ordinance to Authorize Classification.

List of City Officers Who Are Exempt Is Made Up.

Duluth's entire civil service system was classified by the city commissioners at a special conference in Mayor Prince's office this morning.

An ordinance embodying the classification agreed upon this morning, will be introduced by Mayor Prince next Monday afternoon, it was announced after the conference. The measure will follow, in part, the one prepared by Henry F. Greene, former city attorney, shortly before his death early this winter.

According to the classification agreed upon this morning, the following positions are exempt from the civil service regulations:

Public Affairs Division.
Manager of park department.
City librarian.
Manager welfare department.
Recreational director.
Building inspector.

Public Works.
City engineer.
Manager of street maintenance department.
Manager of clerical department.

Public Safety.
Chief of police.
Manager of clerical department, police headquarters.
Police surgeons.
Fire chief.
Director of public health.
Assisting physicians in health department.

Public Utilities.
Manager of water and light department.
Manager of aerial bridge.
Manager in engineering division.
Manager of meters and inspection division.

Finance.
City treasurer.

In addition to this list, the city commissioners, those appointed by the council, including the city attorney, assessor, clerk and auditor, and all-day laborers are exempt from the civil service. All others must comply with the regulations and on the first and sixteenth of each month, according to the ordinance that Mayor Prince will introduce Monday, each division head must submit to the civil service commission a complete certified payroll, showing all the persons in the city's employ. These lists must then be returned to the auditor, and only the employes that come within the provisions of the civil service regulations can draw pay. If an employe of the city pays out a salary to anyone employed in violation of the ordinance he can be arrested and, if convicted, fined $100 or sentenced to the county jail for a term not to exceed three months.

Council to Meet Saturday.

Another meeting of the commissioners will be held tomorrow morning when the members of the civil service board will be asked to certify to the present payrolls, so that there will be no conflict with Auditor B. J. Campbell, at whose request the conference was called. The auditor and City Attorney Samuelson were both present at the conference this morning.

Mayor Prince's ordinance will be given its first reading Monday and after two subsequent readings will come up for passage.

In order to protect those employes of the city who have not taken the prescribed examination the ordinance provides that persons not included in the classification list will be considered legal employes, providing they are in the employ of the city for thirty days prior to the time when the ordinance goes into effect.

The council decided to call the private secretary of the police chief, the manager of the clerical department, so that he might be placed in the classified list of exempt employes. This is also done with the secretary of the works commissioner, it being pointed out that the head of the department would want to employ a man who is in absolute accord with his administration. They are called managers in order to comply with the regulations of the city charter in reference to employes exempt from the civil service rules.

To Be Ambassador to Chile.

Washington, March 3.—Joseph H. Shea of Seymour, Ind., was nominated today by President Wilson as ambassador to Chile, succeeding Henry P. Fletcher, appointed ambassador to Mexico.

Why not a Don Duluth cigar? What! Did you say it was made in Duluth? Yes, and it's a good cigar.

BANKRUPT SALE

We bought a large bankrupt stock of Ladies' Suits, Coats, Dresses, Skirts, Hosiery and Underwear and we are offering this entire bankrupt stock together with our complete stock of wearing apparel for men, women and children at prices that will stagger the most skeptical buyer.

LADIES' LINEN DRESSES Values to $3.50, special for Saturday.... 69c

LADIES' LONG GLOVES Black Silk Lisle, special for Saturday.. 10c

LADIES' DRESSES Embroidered Voile and Silk Stripes; values to $12.50, for $1.98 and $1.79

LADIES' SKIRTS Values to $4.00, Bankrupt sale price is only..... 48c

THE PEOPLE'S BARGAIN STORE

221 and 223 West First St. | 221 and 223 West First St.

To Wives of Drinking Men

ORRINE is the standard remedy and is everywhere recognized as the successful and reliable home treatment for the "Drink Habit." It is highly praised by thousands of women, because it has restored their loved ones to lives of sobriety and usefulness, and the weekly wages which at one time were spent for "Drink" and now used to purchase the necessaries and many comforts for home. Any wife or mother who wants to save her husband or son from "Drink" will be glad to know that she can purchase ORRINE at our store, and if no benefit is obtained after a trial the money will be refunded. Can be given secretly.

ORRINE is prepared in two forms: No. 1, a powder, tasteless and colorless, can be given secretly in food or drink; ORRINE No. 2, in pill form, is for those who wish to cure themselves. ORRINE costs only $1.00 a box. Ask us for free booklet.

W. A. Abbett, 219 W. Superior St., 932 E. Second St., 101 W. Fourth St.

National Store

29 and 31 West Superior St. — G. A. ORECK & SONS CO., Sole Proprietors. — 29 and 31 West Superior St.

Read carefully every advertisement in this paper—then the question naturally arises

In Which Store Shall You Trade? Are You a Cash Buyer?

If you are, the National Store is the place for you to trade. It is the store that serves you best. It is the store that gives you the fullest advantage of CASH purchasing power.

The National Store Cash System Saves You Money

because it avoids the expense of credit department collectors, bookkeepers, checking and filing clerks and the inevitable losses on charge accounts.

In our seventy-two departments you will find the newest and most carefully selected stocks that can be procured.

New Service In Our Corset Department

We have secured the services of Miss J. Breen, formerly corsetiere at the Dayton company of Minneapolis. She is desirous of meeting as many Duluth women as possible and as a special inducement we will place on sale tomorrow

Over 200 Corsets Ranging In Price From $2 to $5, At Choice

$1.00

This lot consists of broken lines, odds and ends and slightly soiled corsets. They're all reliable, well known makes and none worth less than $2.00.

National Store — National Store

PRODUCTION ONLY LIMIT TO BUSINESS

R. M. Sellwood Finds Unusually Brisk Conditions on Eastern Visit.

All industrial and commercial lines in the East are booming to a degree never before attained, according to R. M. Sellwood, president of the City National bank, who returned yesterday from a three weeks' visit to the New England states.

Labor is fully employed at top wages in the steel and other industries and even at that, manufacturers are experiencing difficulty in keeping up with the demands being made upon them. The greatest ore shipping season in the history of the Minnesota iron range is predicted by Mr. Sellwood.

"The Connecticut valley is a veritable hive of industry," Mr. Sellwood said. "Shortage of labor and, to a lesser degree, the inability of manufacturers to obtain raw materials in the quantities desired, is alone keeping the out-turn of manufactured products in the lines made down there from assuming unheard of proportions."

The draft on iron ore stocks so far this season has been so heavy and will continue in such volume as to practically clean up supplies on the lower lake docks, before the opening of navigation, Mr. Sellwood was informed.

"The Lake Superior district can be expected to ship 57,000,000 tons of ore during the coming season, and the movement may easily reach a total of 60,000,000 tons, thus exceeding the banner output of 1913 by more than 10,000,000 tons," he said. "The mines are in good shape to reach that tonnage, and present requirements, if maintained, are sufficient to demand the shipment of every pound of iron ore available."

"Prosperity to an unusual degree exists in the steel industry," Mr. Sellwood continued. "The big steel plants are crowding outputs to the limit of their capacities and a record-breaking output of iron and steel products during the year is foreshadowed. The domestic consumption of iron and steel is requiring 75 per cent of the productions of the plants, showing that activity in the trade is no longer dependent upon a continuance of war orders."

WILL BE ARMED AT GIBRALTAR

White Star Liners to Have Guns on Entering Mediterranean.

New York, March 3.—The White Star liner Canopic, which sailed today for Italian ports with three Americans in her first cabin, will take on armament when she arrives at Gibraltar, it was announced by the White Star line today. The armament will be removed when the ship again arrives at Gibraltar on her return trip, it was stated.

The notification that the Canopic would be thus armed was received by the White Star line early today from the British admiralty, it was announced, and the order also includes the Cretic, plying between Boston and Mediterranean ports and which was due at Gibraltar yesterday. The Cretic left Boston Feb. 21.

EARNINGS IMPROVE.

Duluth-Superior Traction Company Has Better Business Showing.

That the Duluth-Superior Traction company has "turned the corner" in point of traffic, is shown in its record of gross earnings during the last two months. Substantial gains over last year are being recorded, after many months which showed decreases.

For the third week of February, earnings were reported at $25,579, as compared with $22,627 a year ago, thus showing an increase of $2,951, or 13 per cent. For the first three weeks of February the increase was $8,967, or 13.4 per cent, and for the year to date, $14,680, or 8.9 per cent.

TEAMS TIED FOR GRADE HOCKEY TITLE

Lakeside and Merritt Septets in Contest at Chester Park.

As a result of yesterday's contest at the Forty-seventh avenue east rink, the Lakeside and Merritt hockey teams are now tied for the junior grade school championship of the city.

Yesterday afternoon the Lakeside septet, leaders in the Junior Eastern league, defeated the Merritts, champions of the Junior Western, by the score of 1 to 0, in one of the closest contests of the season. On Wednesday the Merritts won the opening contest of the series by 3 to 2.

The final contest of the series to determine the junior championship of the city is being played this afternoon at Chester park. Robert Kerr, assistant recreational director, is in charge.

The senior championship of the city was won by the Salter team, which defeated the Lincolns in the first two games of the series.

Read the grocery and meat market ads on Market Basket page tonight.

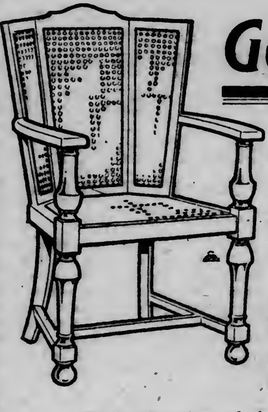
Want Bemidji Slogan.

Bemidji, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—A prize of $5 has been offered by the Bemidji Merchants' association for the most catchy slogan for Bemidji.

BENDING BRASS TUBES.

Popular Science Monthly: Brass tubes can be bent without kinking if they are previously filled with fine sand. Both ends of the tube should be closed with wooden plugs.

Have you tried a Don Duluth cigar? It's very good. Made in Duluth.



Good Taste in Furniture

There are standards of good taste in furniture—just as there are in everything else. Yet people often spend more time and more money in searching for and buying personal adornments than they do for furnishings for their home.

Highest Grade Furniture at the Lowest Possible Prices

It is the aim of this store to deliver such high values at such low prices and on such easy terms if you wish that you will never think of purchasing furniture anywhere else after your first experience.

This Month's Furniture Bargains

Every month we go over our stock and select some extra special values to offer our customers, a few pieces here, a few there, altogether a collection of general bargains that will always interest you if you have any additions to make to the furnishings of your home.

Easy Terms of Payment if You Wish

COMPLETE HOUSEFURNISHERS

BAYHA & CO

DULUTH, MINNESOTA

Victor and Edison Phonographs

NEW SPRING ARRIVALS
—IN—
SUITS, TOP-COATS, HATS, SHOES, UNDERWEAR
AND SHIRTS
BUT OUR OVERCOAT
SALE CONTINUES
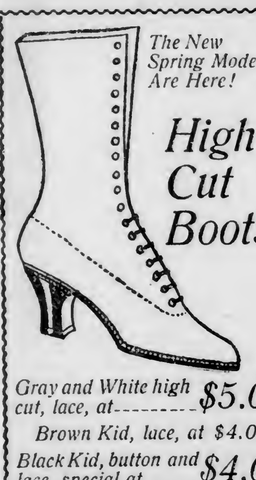
$15 Values—
$8.50
$20 and Even $25 Values—
$12.50
Twinports
CLOTHING CO
405 and 407 West Superior St.



The New Spring Models Are Here!
High Cut Boots
Gray and White high cut, lace, at---------$5.00
Brown Kid, lace, at $4.00
Black Kid, button and lace, special at------$4.00
—CAREFUL FITTING—
Sorensen Shoe Stores
$2.50 $3.00 $3.50 $4.00
MAIL ORDERS—SEND FOR STYLE BOOK
ST. PAUL—MINNEAPOLIS—DULUTH.
123-West Superior Street

Trunks and Traveling Bags
OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.
Duluth Trunk Co.
Superior Street, 220 West

RHEUMATISM
6088 (Sixty-Eighty-Eight) is guaranteed. If it fails to relieve your Rheumatism or to prove beneficial in cases of chronic skin eruptions, biliousness or indigestion, your money will be returned to you by your own druggist. 6088 eliminates Rheumatism causes. Take 6088 according to directions: it is harmless. Contains no habit forming drugs. Valuable book Free. Write Matt. J. Johnson Co., Dept. F St. Paul, Minn.
Medical Advice on Rheumatism FREE
6088

Subscribe for The Herald

WEST DULUTH

HERALD BRANCH OFFICES:
Spencer Pharmacy, 402 Central Avenue, Advertising and Subscriptions.
A. Jensen, Fifty-seventh Avenue West and Grand Avenue, Distribution.
Herald's West Duluth reporter may be reached after hour of going to press at Calumet 173-M and Cole 347.

DULUTHIAN DIES IN WEST

W. H. Kiltin Found Unconscious in Room in Bakersfield Hotel.

Death Shock to His Friends Here—Was Duluth Pioneer.

William H. Kiltin, pioneer resident of the Head of the Lakes and well known West Duluth business man, died at Bakersfield, Cal., yesterday morning. News of his death has been received by relatives and friends in this end of the city.

According to telegrams announcing his death, Mr. Kiltin was found unconscious in his room at a Bakersfield hotel. Physicians were unable to bring him to consciousness and he died shortly afterwards. Mr. Kiltin had recently recovered from an attack of the grip and it is believed that the trip over the mountains was too much for him.

Mr. Kiltin left home about a week ago to spend three weeks in Southern California. He probably had not been at Bakersfield more than a day or two when he was taken ill. The news of his death was a decided shock to many of his friends in this end of the city.

WILLIAM H. KILTIN.

Mr. Kiltin came to the Head of the Lakes about forty years ago. For a time he was located at Carlton and later lived in Superior. Early in 1890 he opened up a bakery on Central avenue in West Duluth and later operated a bakery and confectionery store on Fifty-seventh avenue. About ten years ago he took up contracting and organized the W. H. Kiltin Construction company and since that time has built most of the cement sidewalks in Duluth.

Mr. Kiltin is survived by two daughters, Mrs. R. B. Harrington of Superior and Miss Mary Kiltin of Toronto, Can., and one son, Russell Kiltin of West Duluth. He also leaves two sisters, Mrs. William L. Bowers residing at Melita, Man., Can., and Mrs. John Archer of Lucknow, Ont., Can.

The body left last night from Bakersfield and will arrive either Sunday evening or Monday morning. The funeral arrangements will not be completed until after the body arrives.

GIVE BUNDLE SHOWER.

Royal Neighbors Have Mrs. McIntyre as Guest of Honor.

Members of the Royal Neighbors lodge of West Duluth last evening gave a bundle shower in honor of Mrs. J. L. McIntyre at the home of her mother, Mrs. William Kilby, 307 North Sixtieth avenue west. The guests spent the evening playing progressive pedro. Honors were won by Miss Mabel Mayhew and Mrs. Ed Shanks. The guests were: Mrs. A. Armstrong, Mrs. G. Murray, Mrs. E. Symerage, Mrs. H. Ingvalson, Mrs. F. Hantz, Mrs. C. Kinville, Mrs. A. Fisher, Mrs. W. Mathews, Mrs. Blakney, Miss Marie Mayhew, Miss Nora Blakney, Miss Hazel Ingvalson, Miss Theresa Winstad, Miss Ruth Ingvalson, Miss Gladys Symerage and J. L. McIntyre and Frank Kilby.

Farewell Party.

Mrs. Joseph Rabideau was guest of honor at a farewell party given yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. Jackson, 210 North Sixty-third avenue west. Cards were played, honors being won by Miss Nellie McCarthy, Mrs. Warner Engdahl and Mrs. W. Fisher. Refreshments were served following the games. The guests were: Miss Esther Peterson, Mrs. H. Jackson, Mrs. D. McCarthy, Mrs. Joe Murray, Miss Florence Murray, Miss Nellie McCarthy, rs. Ed Collins, rs. W. Fisher, Mrs. S. Gibson, Mrs. Wahlen, Mrs. Cramer, Mrs. I. Davidson, Misses Sadie and Mamie Davidson, Mrs. C. Jackson and Mrs. Warner Engdahl of Superior, Mrs. Foulard and Miss Esther Lundmark of Virginia.

I Cordially Invite the People of West Duluth to Visit My New Store at 58th Ave. West and Eighth Street

We are carrying an excellent new stock of Groceries and a fine line of Meats at all times.

Our business principle is to give the very best service possible and our prices are as reasonable as the market affords.

We wish to announce that we also have a Bargain Counter, where special articles at bargain prices will prevail tomorrow—for cash only.

J. J. Thorp
Fifty-eighth Avenue West and Eighth Street.
Calumet 40-L; Cole 359-D.

ONE QUARTER OF DENFELD STUDENTS ON HONOR ROLL

More than 25 per cent of the students of the Robert E. Denfeld high school have attained places on the honor roll for February, according to the list made public yesterday afternoon by S. A. Foster, principal of the school. The total is 104 students out of 380 enrolled. Of this number thirty-five students attained a standing of 90 or better in every subject, the other sixty-nine having a standing of 90 or better in three or more subjects, but not all.

The honor pupils with the higher standing follow:

Seniors—Herman Berghult, Leah Bossuet, Islay Johnson, Nellie Swenson and Ruth Wilson.

Juniors—Anna A. Anderson, Margaret Armstrong, Anna Gallagher, Ida Gratton, Rose Harris, Carolyn Horman, Lillian Huth, Rudolph Krantz, Hildur Lundberg, Marion Marshall, Franklin Nelson, Clarence Toor, Margaret Towner.

Sophomores—Theodore Gagnon, Gertrude Greenwood, Margaret F. Johnson, Hazel Nelson, Henry Neubauer, Nellie Pierce, Mary Walski.

Freshmen—Ellen Bilsey, Alton Gander, Ruth Hanson, Lillian Holcomb, Antonia Korseness, Martha Lund, Alice Norman, Victoria Olin, Jennie Olson, Muriel Strand.

Those on the B honor roll are:

Seniors—Harriet Brown, Ruth Esson, Hilma Haglund, Clarence Jacobson, Myrtle Johnson, Alice McCabe, Alice O'Donnell, Chester Rosborough, Reginald Le Falvre.

Juniors—Lucille Armstrong, Louis Clement, Marguerite Doyle, Anna Marie Extrom, Gladys Gamache, Mary Gottwald, Florence Greenwood, Rudolph Janzig, Carl Johnson, Katherine Mahoney, Tony Martino, Maymie Rakowsky, Gladys Rickard, Amelia Swenson.

Sophomores—Clara Amundson, Walter J. Anderson, Amy Armstrong, William Berger, Borghild Berrisford, Herschel Brayden, Helen Brown, Harlan Burnside, Agnes Carlson, Louis Christensen, Charles J. Clement, John Girard, Mae Hanson, Ernest Hedlund, Douglas Hughes, Ingeborg Jackson, William Needham, Ralph Nichols, Ellen Olin, Andrew Saltwick, Werl Smith, Fred Stewart, Hannah Twet, Vera Viou.

Freshmen—Clarence Anderson, Dagmar Armstrong, Gladys Babin, Harold Bentson, Florence Berghult, Halfdan Eler, Margaret M. Johnson, Mary Johnson, Helene Lindberg, Walter Long, Edith MacInnis, Lloyd McDougall, Irene Mayhew, Anna Morneau, Henrietta Murphy, Dorothy Nelson, Clara Peterson, Esther Peterson, Alvin Skogg, Harold Spencer, Eva Strandmark and Lawrence Thorp.

PARTY TICKET SELECTED.

Only One New Name Put on Proctor Slate.

The citizens' party of Proctor named its ticket for the village election to be held next month at a primary held last evening. The ticket will include the following officers: Charles Remfrey, president of the village; W. J. Greene, Charles Clement and C. J. Buell for trustees; R. C. Wombacker, recorder; H. Gilderman, justice of the peace, and S. G. McTaggart, constable. The only new name on the ballot is that of Mr. Buell, who will seek the position formerly held by the late Noble Downey.

BOYS' FAVORITE RETURNS.

Patrolman Root Is Placed on West Duluth Beat Again.

Youngsters in West Duluth of the snow-balling and marble-playing age are happy today, for their "Uncle Dudley," known on police department records as L. D. Root, patrolman, is back on his old beat.

For a month Patrolman Root has paced a beat in the downtown section of the city, starting out from headquarters, and the mischievous boys in West Duluth were very, very careful, because there was a strange "cop" on the beat near their homes.

Capt. A. G. Fiskett announced today that Patrolman Victor Isackson had been transferred to the Central station, and that Patrolman Root would go back to West Duluth, at his request.

Patrolman Isackson was appointed to the force on June 1, 1914. He has assumed the duties of extra man at the city jail.

Surprised By Friends.

Mrs. Maria Johnson, 106 South Forty-fifth avenue west, was pleasantly surprised yesterday afternoon by a number of her friends. Music featured the entertainment. Mrs. Johnson was presented with a number of handsome gifts. The guests were:

Messrs.—
August Westlin, Nils Hanson.

Mesdames—
Lina Sjoquist, Brita Sodergren,
Erik Nilson, Charles Ddclaire,
M. Nyquist, AxelJohnson,
Charles Anderson, Albert Johnson,
Arvid Hanson, Oscar Anderson,
Otto Hjort, E. Walin,
Norman, Carl Sehuse,
W. Ohman, Frank Anderson,
J. Wickstrom, Oscar Johnson,
Carl Hoglund, Louis Merling,
Fred Johnson, Sundberg,
John Larson, Carlson.
Miss Dagny Anderson.

W. C. T. U. Banquet.

Eight women representing the West Duluth W. C. T. U. will be hostesses at the annual district banquet to be held by the W. C. T. U. on Monday evening at the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. Joseph Cochran appointed the following members: Mrs. Elliott J. Aman, Mrs. G. W. Smith, Mrs. H. H. Phelps, Mrs. T. F. Wieland, Mrs. H. W. Lanners, Mrs. Helen Stewart, Mrs. J. D. Meldahl and Mrs. R. J. Fisher. The appointments were made at the meeting of the West Duluth society held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. W. F. Boerner, 911 North Fifty-fifth avenue west.

Surprised By Friends.

Mrs. A. P. Lacey, 4509 Halifax street, was pleasantly surprised at her home last evening by a number of her friends of the neighborhood. Music and games featured the entertainment. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. J. Brassard and Mrs. F. Fortier. The guests were: Mesdames P. Quinn, C. Johnson, L. L. Gilpin, J. McDonald, A. Simpson, J. Early, R. J. Grundy, J. Brassard, J. A. Soderberg, A. Molinski, D. Gunderson, M. Gauthier, J. B. Thomas, J. S. Brassard, M. Hammer, L. Wentworth, F. Fortier, A. Byers, Joseph Feran, J. Feran, L. Harvey, L. Smalley, J. La Vergne, A. Simpson and A. Morgan.

With the Curlers.

Three close games featured the activities of members of the Western Curling club last night. F. H. Wade lost to Joe McDonald, 13 to 12; T. F. Olsen, won from Melvin Olson, 9 to 8; and Alex Donald won from R. F. Wade, 10 to 9.

This evening three games are scheduled: Donald will play Iltis in the Siewert event; K. A. McDonald will meet R. F. Wade, and W. M. Evered will play E. J. Zauft in the Stone-Ordean event.

The trophy events are rapidly nearing completion. Two of the events are now in the finals, the Bagley and Esterly. The former will be played between T. F. Olsen and Alex Donald, and the latter is between R. F. Wade and Donald.

George J. Mallory and Thomas Quinn are tied for squad winners in the Patrick event. The winner of the play off will oppose Joe McDonald in the finals of the event. Melvin Olson is the finals of the Albert Jewelry event, and will play the winner of the Iltis-F. H. Wade game for the trophy.

"Tom Thumb's Wedding."

Nearly forty children ranging in age from 3 to 10 years will take part in the production of "Tom Thumb's Wedding" to be presented this evening at the Merritt Memorial M. E. church, Forty-sixth avenue east and Halifax street. The bride will be little Miss Lucile Merritt and the groom will be Master Gordon Merritt.

The other children taking part will be: Richard Merritt, Fern Smalley, Charlotte Zauft, Mabel Holmas, Katheryn Merritt, Arthur Nyquist, Violet West, Robert McWatty, Mabel Toimstrom, Allan Richardson, Leona Lawler, Marion Merling, Glen Merritt, Edith Strohm, Laura Grundy, Joseph St. Amor, Franklin Pearson, Viola Holmas, Margaret Johnson, Hazel Nystrom, Marjorie Neismer, Ellen Anderson, Mae Neismer, Verone Swanstrom, Clara Gibson and Duane Merritt.

West Duluth Briefs.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Goff of St. Paul are guests at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. E. W. F. Boerner, 911 North Central avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Seglem, 1030 Twenty-fourth avenue, are parents of a son born yesterday.

The Luther League of the Bethany Swedish Lutheran church, Fifty-third avenue and Wadena street, entertained last evening at a musical in honor of the dedication of a new piano. A good program was given.

Watch repairing. Hurst. West Duluth.

Rev. P. G. Nelson of Stromsburg, Neb., will arrive this evening to spend two weeks conducting revival meetings at the Third Swedish Baptist church. The services will begin Sunday evening.

John Keough has returned from a short visit to Cook, Minn.

The Citizens' State bank is open for all banking business from 6 to 8 p. m. Saturdays.

WANTED TO RENT
Modern eight or nine-room house in East End. Write T 702, Herald.

APPLE SURPLUS CAUSES PRICE-CUT

Selling Campaign on at Low Prices for High Grades.

Duluthians are about to get an opportunity to buy apples of high quality at rates as cheap and even cheaper than they could get them last fall.

The reason is that there is a surplus of New York Baldwins and Jonathans, and it is desired to move them during the next month. For that reason the commission houses on Michigan street have started a campaign to sell as many apples as is possible, and are making the price far lower than is ordinarily charged at this time of year.

The quality of the apples, it is declared, is far better than those offered in the fall, for the apples now being offered are the kind that were picked out and reserved as fit for storing. They have been in cold storage ever since and are in prime condition.

FIRE AT WARROAD.

Family Routed Out in Early Hours, Having Close Call.

Warroad, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Fire broke out in the building occupied by Hugo Wintzel as a residence and barber shop Monday morning at 2 o'clock on the ground floor, and the origin is still unknown. The family had a narrow escape in their night clothes and were almost overcome by smoke. The fire department, after hard work, succeeded in saving the neighboring buildings. The structure was one of a row of frame buildings and was owned by Capt. Dawson of Oak Island. It was valued at $1,500, with $1,000 insurance. The entire building was gutted and barber fixtures and household goods destroyed. These contents were owned by Mr. Wintzel and were insured for $1,200.

USING FAST FREIGHT IN PLACE OF EXPRESS

One of the local fish companies, which has been furnishing fish to the Chicago market, has abandoned the use of express in favor of freight service, after years of using the former. The fish company manager consulted yesterday with the traffic commission at the Duluth Commercial club, and said that he is paying $2.25 a hundredweight to Chicago, and that the market is such that he could not stand it. He claimed that he was told at the office of the express company he patronized that the rates were increased from the $1.25 he formerly paid, by order of the interstate commerce commission. The traffic commissioner showed that the interstate commerce commission has placed a maximum and that companies could charge as much less as they chose.

SETTLERS FROM IOWA ARRIVE AT WARROAD

Warroad, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Andrew Nelson and F. M. Cook arrived Tuesday from Manson, Iowa, with two carloads of stock and settlers' effects. They both have homesteads south of Clear River postoffice, on which they will settle as soon as the land is in condition. Their families will arrive in a few days. Mr. Nelson has leased the Nye place for a couple of years.

Saturday Specials
Strictly Fresh Eggs, doz....25c
49 lbs. Pillsbury Flour.....$1.65
9 bars Lenox Soap.....25c
Soda Crackers, by box, lb...7c
Spring Chickens, lb.....21c
Small Pork Loins, lb.....14c
Small Pork Shoulders, lb...12c
Hams, whole or half, lb....18c
ARTHUR NELSON
5609 West Sixth Street.
Both Phones.

NEW TRIAL IN M'ALPINE CASE

Attorney Will Ask to Have the Verdict Set Aside.

Misconduct of Attorneys and Errors in Law Are Charged.

Judge Dancer of the district court will be asked to grant a new trial in the McAlpine insurance case, recently decided against Mrs. Sarah K. McAlpine, widow of the late John McAlpine, who sued the London Guaranty & Accident company on a $24,000 accident policy.

A. E. McManus, attorney for Mrs. McAlpine, today filed with the clerk of the district court papers giving notice that on Saturday, March 11, the plaintiff, Mrs. McAlpine, would move the court for an order setting aside the verdict and granting a new trial.

Misconduct of Howard T. Abbott of opposing council and errors of law in the court's rulings are assigned as grounds for granting a new trial. Mr. Abbott, it is alleged, stated to the jury that since the first trial of the insurance cases, he had been of the personal opinion that Mrs. McAlpine had no hand in the killing of her husband. Attorney McManus, in his affidavit, asserts, however, that Mr. Abbott signed the answer which was filed by the insurance company, which directly charged murder by the beneficiary as one of the defenses.

Mr. McManus in his affidavit states that the charge in the answer was not made in good faith, and its effect was to prejudice the rights of the plaintiff before the court and jury and deprive her of a fair trial.

Mr. McManus also assigns as error the court's refusal to require the defendant insurance company to elect between the two contradictory defenses set up in its answer, suicide and murder by the beneficiary. The court denied this motion, but before the case went to the jury, attorneys for the insurance company moved the court to amend their pleadings so as to stand only on the defense of suicide.

The jury in a special finding returned a verdict that Mr. McAlpine had committed suicide.

Associated with Mr. McManus as counsel for Mrs. McAlpine are W. M. Steele of Superior and C. O. Baldwin, of Baldwin, Baldwin & Holmes of this city. Attorneys for the insurance company are Theodore Hollister and Howard T. Abbott, of Abbott, McPherran, Lewis & Gilbert.

NEW PRESIDENT OF NORTH DAKOTA A. C.

President E. F. Ladd Considered Well Equipped for Position.

Fargo, N. D., March 3.—(Special to The Herald)—Dr. E. F. Ladd, newly elected president of the North Dakota agricultural college, will officially appear before the students of the institution as their "prexy" on next Monday morning at convocation.

President Edwin Fremont Ladd is one of the oldest members of the faculty of the agricultural college, having been one of the men to help organize the institution. He was born and reared on a New England farm and was educated in the public schools of Maine and at Somerset academy and was graduated from the University of Maine in 1884 with a B. S. degree. The university has kept in close touch with Prof. Ladd and in 1915, while he was visiting in the East, conferred the degree of LL. D. on him.

After graduating from the university Dr. Ladd taught in the schools of Maine and later was for four years assistant chemist at the New York state experiment station under Dr. Babcock, the inventor of the Babcock milk tester, and was his successor as chief chemist to the New York station for three years.

In 1890 Dr. Ladd came to North Dakota to help organize the North Dakota agricultural college and at the organization of the institution became head of the chemical department.

In Many Organizations.

President Ladd is a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, member of the PRESIDENT E. F. LADD.

Society for the Promotion of Agricultural Science, member of the American Chemistry society, vice president of the American Pure Food league, member of the committee of Sixty to Promote National Prohibition, past president of the Association of Official Agricultural chemistry, past president of the Association of Food and Drug Officials of America, member of the standing committee for establishing definitions and standards for foods, drugs, etc., which is composed of three members for the department of agriculture, three for the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists and three from the dairy and food commission.

He also founded the North Dakota Farmer and was its editor. This publication was originally the Sanitary Home. He is also state food commissioner, president of the Fargo board of education, and president of the board of trustees of the First Presbyterian church of this city.

President and Mrs. Ladd are the parents of eight children, all of whom are in school and college, five now being in the institution of which he is the head.

Phone your want ad early for The Saturday Herald. Both phones 324.

Right From the Fashion Centers of the World

Mr. Silvian of the New York Oriental company, who is still in the Eastern markets, wires that the stock he has purchased and which is arriving daily for Spring and Summer wear outclasses anything seen before in this market.

Beautiful Gowns, Blouses, Suits and Oriental Novelties that will be exclusive in Duluth and just what they are wearing on Fifth avenue in New York City. Even if you are not ready to buy now we cordially invite you to visit our store tomorrow and see these new creations.

For Saturday Only

We offer a special discount of 10 per cent on all Gowns, Suits and Dress Waists.

A beautiful line of Crepe de Chine Waists, special for Saturday at only $3.50

Wonderful specials in Georgette Crepe Waists trimmed with little beads, and other new styles, special..... $3.95

Wonderful specials of Tub Silks in the latest stripes and other dainty designs, for Saturday, only..... $2.00

Specials on new Taffeta Petticoats, Closefit make and the Kaisers—at $4.45 and..... $3.25

N.Y. Oriental Importing Co.
"DULUTH'S DAINTIEST SHOP"
27 WEST SUPERIOR ST.

ELGIN WATCH
$8.69
12 size open face, thin model; regular price up to $12.50, Henricksen's March Jewelry Sale. Other watches reduced in proportion.
A. L. and N. J. Henricksen
Successors to Henricksen Jewelry Co.
Makers of Fine Jewelry
332 WEST SUPERIOR STREET.

RETURNS TO HER MOTHER

St. Paul Girl Had Many Adventures in Two Months.

Elopement and Arrest Figure in Her Picturesque Career.

About two months ago Hazel Randall, a pretty little 18-year-old St. Paul girl, eloped with the man of her choice, who up to that time was said to have been a chauffeur employed by a prominent family of that city. Today Hazel was returned to her mother by the St. Paul police, and her romance was at an end.

From St. Paul the couple came to Duluth, and the girl obtained employment as a clerk in the five and ten-cent store of S. S. Kresge & Co. at 18 West Superior street.

"Yes, I'm experienced," she told the manager, "I used to work for Marshall Field in Chicago."

Shortly before noon on the first day she worked, a masculine voice telephoned to the girl, and she came back from the telephone highly excited.

"Oh, girls," she said, tears in her eyes, "something has happened. I must get away at once."

She left, and nothing was thought of it until 6 o'clock, when a check disclosed the fact that Hazel's cash register was $30 short.

"She was experienced, all right," said the manager, as he swore to a warrant charging grand larceny.

Hazel was arrested in Chicago several days ago, but by the time Chief of Police R. D McKercher learned of it, she had been placed on a St. Paul train, homeward bound.

St. Paul police arrested her at the depot, and she was held for Duluth until this morning, when County Attorney Warren F. Greene consented to have the charge against her dropped, after consulting officials of the Kresge company.

I. C. C. WILL HOLD TRAFFIC HEARING

Julius H. Barnes Will Represent Duluth at Washington Monday.

The traffic commission of the Duluth Commercial club has been notified by wire that the interstate commerce commission will hold a meeting in Washington next Monday to get the views of those interested on the congestion of grain and other commodities at Eastern terminals. Duluth will be represented there by Julius H. Barnes, who has been in New York for the last year and a half, and is the largest exporter of all.

This existing congestion, which is causing distress at all points where grain or other exportable commodities are handled, is the only thing that prevented the flour and grain case decided in Washington yesterday from affecting conditions in Duluth. As things are, Duluth was only mildly interested. This was the all-rail rate and concerned Duluth only east of Buffalo.

BRITISH TROOPS ACTIVE IN WEST

Recapture Trenches Lost to Germans in Battle of Feb. 14.

London, March 3.—The British official statement last night on the fighting in the western zone says:

"We recaptured the trenches at the bluff of the Ypres-Comines canal, which were lost Feb. 14 and also captured a small salient in the original German lines.

"A counter-attack by the enemy some hours later was repulsed. German mine galleries in the captured trenches were destroyed. We have taken 160 prisoners, including four officers.

"There has been much artillery activity on both sides today from Vierstraat to Boisesinghe."

The capture of 800 yards of British positions southeast of Ypres, after heavy artillery bombardments, was claimed in the German official statement of Feb. 15 which added that a majority of the defenders of the British trenches were killed.

BEST GRAIN FOR SEED PURPOSES HOME-GROWN

Madison, Wis., March 3.—The best grain for seed purposes are those that are home grown—preferably on the farmer's own farm, providing proper attention has been given to the selection of them.

This is the statement of G. B. Mortimer of the college of agriculture here in a bulletin just issued on how to secure seed grain. Good quality of seed selected from a farmer's own land he says, develops a liking to the peculiar soil conditions and will do better than those imported from long distances. He urges that grains be kept free from mixture.

INSURANCE COMPANIES DOING GOOD BUSINESS

St. Paul, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Stock insurance companies doing business in Minnesota collected total premiums of $7,648,902.52 last year and paid losses totaling $4,529,004.40. In 1914, according to S. D. Works, state insurance commissioner, these same companies collected premiums amounting to $7,620,121.72 and paid losses of $3,961,469.11.

Mutual fire insurance companies, not including farmers' mutual companies, collected premiums last year totaling $606,094.25 and paid out in losses $377,656.73. The year previous the premiums amounted to $640,713.47 and the losses $368,491.84.

The average premium rate per $100 of insurance collected by stock fire insurance companies in Minnesota was $1.25 as compared with $1.30 in 1914.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children
In Use For Over 30 Years
Always bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

WOODSMEN ARE "ROLLED"

Police Believe They Have Discovered "System" for Robbing Laborers.

Six Proprietors of "Hotels" Are Arrested for Blind Pigging.

Ingenious methods for robbing lumberjacks of their winter savings were uncovered by police shortly before midnight last night, when they raided six alleged "blind pigs" located between Sixth and Eighth avenues west on Superior street and First street.

In each case the "blind pig" was masquerading as a rooming house or cheap hotel, police said, when they booked six alleged proprietors on charges of running unlicensed drinking places. More serious charges of robbery may be placed against some of them later, it was intimated.

The men gave their names as Martin Costello, 611½ West Superior street; Mike Smolich, 701 West Superior street; Mike Rajkovich, 721½ West Superior street; Mike Luzaich, 609 West First street; Mike Krznich, 627 West First street, and Mike Davich, 608 West First street.

The chief was accompanied on the raid by Detectives Roberg and Barber. Six cases of beer and a number of empty bottles were seized as evidence.

The raid came after several complaints had been made by lumberjacks who said they had been "rolled" of their winter savings. Incoming trains have been met by "steerers" who directed the laborers to places where they could "get room and board for $20 a month."

Once the victim bites at the $20-a-month bait, the proprietors play their game skillfully, according to police, entertaining royally and refusing to take any money in advance. After being plied with drink until the closing hour, the laborer is usually intoxicated, and wishes to continue his "spree."

After 11 o'clock prices for beer and whisky advance in leaps and bounds, depending upon the victim's condition, and upon the size of his "roll." He usually wakes up the next morning minus his money, and a "holler" does him no good.

Ignorant of the law, and afraid that he will land in the police station as a "vag" if he is caught on the street without money or work, the victim finds his way back to the woods according to the claims of the police.

"This practice has been worked to death," said the chief.

Luzaich was released in $100 ball shortly after his arrest, but the rest were held over night, being unable to raise money for bail. Smolich is the only one who has been arrested before. He was convicted of selling liquor without a license on Sept. 12, 1915, and fined $106.12.

All of them will be arraigned in court this afternoon, with the possible exception of Luzaich, who may decide to forfeit bail.

GERMANS BRING UP HEAVIER GUNS

(Continued from page 1.)

upon the situation at Verdun by interfering with line of communication from the west.

German military writers are laying stress on the large amount of territory wrested from the French in the first week of the advance on Verdun, pointing to the advantage which the reduction of the defensive front of the fortress gives the Germans for their concentric artillery fire.

Activity of British.

The activity of the British along the front in Belgium has begun to attract increased attention with the delivery of the thrust which yesterday won back for them the 800 yards of trenches they lost last month along the Ypres-Comines canal.

From various sources have come accounts of heavy artillery play along the Yser front. Whether these reports arose merely from the preparatory fire for the local attack of yesterday or for a still greater effort by the British is in course of development is not yet apparent.

German Statement.

Berlin, March 3, via London, 3.40 p. m.—German troops cleared the village of Douaumont and pushed their lines to the west and to the south of the village and of the armored fort yesterday, according to the official announcement issued today by the German army headquarters staff.

The statement adds that more than 1,000 prisoners were taken and also that a number of heavy guns were captured.

The official statement relates that German airmen dropped bombs in the vicinity of the main Verdun fort and that to the east of Douaul, Lieut. Immelman shot down a British biplane, the ninth aeroplane accounted for by him.

French Statement.

Paris, March 3, 2:30 p. m.—Bombardments and attacks on the part of German troops continued all yesterday evening in the region to the north of Verdun, according to announcement made by the French war office this afternoon.

This fighting was conducted with redoubled violence.

Near Douaumont several fruitless endeavors on the part of the Germans were repulsed with cruel losses for them. Nevertheless the Germans succeeded in reaching the village of Douaumont where the fighting continues with ferocity.

The village of Vaux also was attacked by the Germans but these advances were checked by the French fire and the Germans were compelled to retire, leaving a great number of dead.

The bombardment continued with great intensity yesterday evening and last night in the Woevre district but French forces held the Germans in check by their curtain of fire.

The artillery of the Germans has been active in the vicinity of Malancourt and near Haucourt.

GREAT OLD REMEDY FOR SKIN DISEASES

S. S. S. Clears Skin of Eruptions; Drives Poison From the System.

Get it fixed in your mind that skin eruptions, Scrofula, Eczema, burning, itching skin and all skin diseases are due entirely to impure and infected blood. If the trouble was on the outside of the skin by simply washing and keeping it clean you could obtain relief—not even ointments, lotions and salves would be necessary. Agree with us in this belief, and your trouble can be relieved—you can be entirely restored to health. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable treatment that you can secure from your own druggist—it is a blood tonic that will purify your blood and cause a most decided abatement of your trouble, and finally make you entirely well. Fifty years ago S. S. S. was discovered and given to suffering mankind. During this period it has proven its remarkable curative properties as a blood purifier and tonic, and has relieved thousands of cases of disease caused by impure blood, and chronic or inherited blood diseases. You can be relieved, but you must take S. S. S. Take it if only pimples appear, for they denote bad blood, and may be followed by the sufferings from torturing skin, eruptions. Therefore, be sure. Don't take chances, don't use lotions. Get S. S. S. from your druggist. If yours is a special case, write for expert medical advice to Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Abe Martin

"I'm fer Wilson 'cause cool-headed folks are generally right," said Squire Marsh Swallow, t'day. If th' butcher would jest leave th' meat on th' scales long enough t' see what it weighed we wouldn't feel so stung.

(Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.)

SAPPERS ARE BURIED ALIVE

(Continued from page 1.)

all part of the game, but we did not like to die there in the darkness. 'How long can we stay here?' Jean asked again. 'There is plenty of air and the gallery is roomy, but there is nothing to eat,' I replied. 'Well, what's the good of a few hours, more or less?' he said. 'Why wait? I for one have already made up my mind.' He took out his revolver, but I stopped him and said, 'Don't be a fool. Let us wait a while; we may hit on some way out.'

"The first horror having passed over, we began to discuss ways and means. 'Let us wait patiently for our mine to explode. If it makes a big enough hole, we can dig through into it,' I said.

Could Hear Sound of Battle.

"We sat down in silence and could hear all the sounds of battle above us, for the earth is a good conductor of sound. We tried to distinguish the character of the various vibrations, so as not to miss the noise when our mine exploded. Finally we heard it, and we rushed forward through a wave of hot air. Hope strengthened our arms and we plied our picks furiously, but our packing had been so well done that it took us two hours before we got into the empty mine chamber. I listened, but the sound of firing seemed so far off that I judged there was a thick layer of earth between us and the outer world. Then drops fell on us. Were we going to be flooded? 'So much the better,' said Jean, 'we shall die more quickly.'

Blood Trickles Down.

"Something trickled down on my lips, and I recognized the taste. It was blood, and I realized that if blood was coming through, we could not be far from the surface. With renewed hope we set to work again, but rather clumsily, for we started a fall of earth which nearly buried us. We were all injured, Bernard's leg being broken, Jean's head cut and my left arm broken. Despite our pain, we continued our efforts, and after a while we came on a number of dead bodies of Germans, which had rolled to the bottom of the crater which the mine explosion had made. After an hour of digging and crawling among these bodies, we got out into the air. Both my comrades were so exhausted that they fainted. I watched over them, being sheltered from shells and bullets by the steep side of the crater. After eight hours waiting, ambulance attendants found us, and by that time we had but little life left in us."

APPEALS TO IRISHMEN

(Continued from page 1.)

tal interest in pushing the war, Mr. Redmond said:

"Every day that has passed since the war began has convinced me more and more profoundly that the highest interest of Ireland from every point of view is the speedy and victorious end of this war. I feel it so strongly that if I stood alone I would still raise my voice, even though it were in vain, and I would face any consequence, political or otherwise, which might ensue. And when this great contest is over, when Ireland has faced the test submitted so suddenly, when success has crowned the arms of the allies, then I am certain Ireland will have added a proud chapter to her history."

Mr. Redmond's method of dealing with his audiences was well illustrated by his speech at the Dublin Mansion house, perhaps the finest effort of his tour. He said, in part:

The Farmers' Interest.

"We come to speak to you about recruiting. The towns have done magnificently, and it is mainly with the agricultural districts that we now have to deal. First I want to say that the farmer who remains at home because he is necessary for working the land is as much a patriot as the man who is unnecessary on the land and who goes to the front.

"I deprecate anything in the nature of indiscriminate attacks on the farming classes. The great difference between England and Ireland is that Ireland is mostly an agricultural country, and England mainly an industrial one. If you compare the action of the agricultural counties in England with that of those in Ireland, you will find it is pretty much the same. We have had no figures with reference to recruiting in agricultural districts in England, and I venture to say that if they were produced you would find that recruiting in purely agricultural England has been no whit better than in agricultural districts here.

Should Do Their Duty.

"Farmers in Ireland, above all others, have an especial interest in a speedy end to and a speedy victory in the war. There is no class in any country who have had so magnificent a fight made for them by the whole nation. In the past generation they were serfs, but they are now free men. Then they had not the smallest property, even in the improvements carried out by their own thrift and industry, but today they are the owners of the soil they till.

Sacrifices of the Towns.

"Let the farmers remember that this great change was carried out by the sacrifices of the whole Irish nation, and especially by the courage and sacrifices of the laboring classes and of the towns. What have the towns gained by the last generation of sacrifices? Very little, compared with the agricultural classes. That, however, has not prevented the townsfolk from being in the forefront of the fight for the farmers. It would be base ingratitude to the laboring classes in Ireland if the farmers were to seek to throw on them today the whole burden of protecting their property.

"It would be a disgrace to the Irish farmers if they left to the townsfolk the duty of protecting the property which these men had won for them and their children.

"Some people say that Germany will not bother about Ireland. I venture to say that there is no single part of the British empire which Germany would seize more greedily than the fertile fields of Ireland. Remember the Prussian planters who were foisted on the confiscated lands of Poland. Do you think that you would fare any better?"

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids.

It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The Olive Tablet Co., Columbus, O.

SENATE STANDS FIRM BEHIND THE PRESIDENT

(Continued from page 1.)

death of a citizen of the United States, would constitute a just and sufficient cause of war between the United States and the German empire."

Several senators explained that the double form of the question was responsible for the character of the vote as few senators wanted to vote on the question regarding a cause for war.

"We denounce Germany for her militarism," said Senator Borah at one point of the discussion. "Yet the senate of the United States, the highest legislative body in the world, was Germanized today."

While the senate was voting, house leaders were working. There was no doubt that the administration victory in the senate was expected to solidify the sentiment in the house and the leaders looked for some favorable developments during the day.

President Wilson, after he had conferred with Acting Chairman Pou of the rules committee, determined to have a vote in the house, even if a special rule containing a resolution were required to get it.

No Resolution Agreed Upon.

Insistence that a vote be taken by rules committee action, if necessary, came after varying reports as to the stand of the foreign affairs committee. As yet no resolution has been agreed upon in the latter committee which would command a majority vote, and there was no positive assurance today that any resolution would be reported by it. Chairman Flood expressed the hope that a satisfactory resolution would be drawn today and reported when the committee meets this afternoon.

Administration leaders in the house were hopeful that it would be unnecessary to report a resolution in a rule. It is taken for granted that Republicans would fight such a rule, and with one exception, such action is unprecedented.

Mr. Pou told members of the rules committee that he regarded the present situation above partisan politics, and for that reason there would be secret sessions of the Democratic members to arrive at some plan of action. He wants a non-partisan vote.

Immediately after the vote in the senate, Senator Reed, Democrat, read a statement saying he felt it was highly important that the impression in Germany that the country and congress was not behind the president should be removed, and that therefore he was opposed to the Gore resolution.

"It is of the highest importance," said he, "that all the world understand that on any question of the rights of the American government or the American citizen, our great people stand as a unit, and it should be understood that they will uphold, sustain and defend those rights if necessary to the last breath."

Assails Discussion.

In connection with his statement Senator Reed assailed the sensational discussion in the senate yesterday. "I believe the effect of those utterances yesterday are to assert that in this nation are those considering the interests of Germany rather than of the United States," said he. "There has been much talk of traitors. I believe it would be difficult to find in the whole United States 1,000 men who would not assert the highest degree of loyalty to the country.

"I utterly abominate and repudiate the statesmen attributing to anyone the desire to act against the interests of the United States merely because of his conclusion that he will be in accord with the interests of the supporters of one of the belligerents."

Sentor Jones, Republican, declared the tabling of the resolution had further fogged rather than clarified any issue.

"Nothing has been decided today except that the senate of the United States can be gagged absolutely," he said.

"We have not passed on the issue. We have only done like the ostrich, and in the face of danger have covered our heads in the sand. I voted against the resolution on general principles. A motion to table is always made either to cut off debate or to avoid an issue."

To Call Up Resolution.

In reintroducing this resolution, Senator McCumber protested that debate could not be shut off, and that either later today or tomorrow he would call up his resolution.

Senator Clarke, Democrat, of Arkansas, also protested against the senate's action, although he voted with the majority.

"The senate has not disposed of the question today with the dignity the subject demands," said he.

"I believe that if we had been absolutely neutral from the beginning," added Senator Clarke, "the unfortunate struggle in Europe would now be well on its way to an adjustment. There is no overlooking the fact that all the declarations of this government have led in a certain decision; that official America, at least, was interested in the success of one of the contestants, and it does not require much ingenuity to determine which. I do not think that the view of official Washington is the view of the American people or of the American congress.

Did Not Favor Resolution.

"I did not favor the provisions of the Gore resolution as it was introduced. It sought to ask us to give up the privilege of traveling on armed ships. It was unnecessary to go that far. I am perfectly willing to let a citizen of the United States travel as he wants, but I am unwilling to let him make his travels the subject of international controversy. The resolution was designed with the purpose of getting the senators to vote down something they really favored. It is time enough for this nation to go to war when there is a real cause."

Senator Gallinger, Republican, said that as the only New England senator to vote not to table the Gore resolution he was entitled to explain his vote.

"I think we are entitled to debate this question in the open," he said. "By our action today we have reached no conclusions. I am in favor of doing all we can to prevent war and I think it wise to advise against Americans traveling on armed ships."

Senator Borah, on the other hand, said that he was in favor of, after full debate, of having congress go on record as supporting the rights of Americans to go on armed merchantmen, a right recognized for 500 years—and to tell the world that any nation which did not recognize that right would be held to a strict accountability."

Basis of Agitation.

Out of the senate debate yesterday came a turn which, for the moment threatened to overshadow the real features of the contest, and probably disclosed the basis for the agitation at the capital.

Senator Gore, while the senate sat rapt in amazement, related a story that President Wilson at his conference with congress leaders a week ago, had declared that Germany's insistence on her position on the submarine controversy probably would result in a breach of diplomatic relations; that a breach probably would be followed by war; and that "a state of war might not of itself and of necessity be an evil to this republic but that the United States by entering upon war now might be able to bring it to a conclusion by midsummer and thus render a great service to civilization."

Senator Gore claimed he did not say the story was true, but that it came to him with such a concurrence of testimony and such marks of truth that he did not feel he could discharge his duty as a senator and withhold it.

Chairman Stone of the foreign relations committee at once replied that the president never had stated to him or in his hearing that he believed, or in any way entertained the thought that war between the United States and Germany would be desirable or would result in good to the United States. When the White House heard what Senator Gore said, this statement was issued:

Unqualified Denial.

"When the attention of the White House was called to certain statements in Senator Gore's speech, the president authorized an unqualified denial of any utterance to which any such meaning could be attached."

It was explained on his behalf that the president had told the congressmen he could not predict what would follow a break in relations and had expressed his hopes that the United States would not be drawn into war, and his determination to continue to bend his every effort to prevent it. It was denied that the president had said anything to convey the impression that he desired the United States to enter the war to shorten it, or for any other reason, but he reiterated the necessity of upholding the national honor of the United States at all costs.

No attempt was made to minimize the realization of the effect Senator Gore's declaration might have on the foreign situation at this time, and on all sides, it was admitted to be probably the most serious turn that has yet been given to the situation.

Senate Aroused.

Senator Gore's startling statement, which aroused the senate as it has not been aroused in years, came toward the close of impassioned remarks in defense of a warning resolution.

"I introduced this resolution," Senator Gore declared, "because I was apprehensive that we were speeding headlong upon war. Perhaps I ought to go further and say—what I have hitherto avoided saying—that my action was based on a report which seemed to come from the highest and most responsible authority, that certain senators and certain members of the house in a conference with the president of the United States received from the president the information, if not the declaration, that if Germany insisted upon her position, the United States would insist upon her position, and that it would result probably in a breach of diplomatic relations, and that a breach of diplomatic relations probably would be followed by a state of war, and that a state of war might not be of itself and of necessity an evil to this republic, but that the United States by entering upon war now, might be able to bring it to a conclusion by midsummer, and thus render a great service to civilization.

Cannot Vouch for Turth.

"I cannot say what the truth may be. I tell the tale as it was told to me. This came to my ears in such a way, with such a concurrence of testimony, with such internal and external marks of truth, that I feared it might be the truth, and if such a thing be even conceivable, I did not feel that, discharging my duty as a senator, I could withhold whatever feeble service I might render to avert the catastrophe of war.

"Now, I do not know that this report is the truth. I simply suggest it is explaining my own conduct. I think the senator from Massachusetts and the senator from Mississippi are right in saying the president has a right to know whether congress will back him in the opinion, if he has such an opinion, that the sinking of an armed belligerent ship will be a sufficient cause for war, and I think, too, that members of the senate and that members of the other house have a right to know whether the opinions and sentiments imputed to the president were given expression in their interview with him.

Denial Would Be Conclusive.

"If the senator from Missouri (Mr. Stone) will deny that suggestions of that sort in substance were made, his denial will be conclusive with me. If the senator from Indiana (Mr. Kern) will say upon his responsibility as a senator that the president did not indicate that war might not be ungrateful and that this republic could render a great service to civilization, his denial will be binding upon me."

"Mr. President, I do not know why the senator from Oklahoma quotes me as saying—" interjected Senator Stone, rising from his seat.

"I did not quote the senator as saying it, not at all," Senator Gore interrupted.

"Then I say in all fairness to the president," Senator Stone continued, "and to the facts of the case, so far as they are within my knowledge, that the president never stated to me or in my hearing, that he believed in any way, or in any way entertained the thought that war between the United States and the Central powers would be desirable or would result in good to the United States."

"I say the president has a passion for peace," Senator Kern said at this point, but because of illness he did not rise, and few senators heard him.

"I will accept the remark of the senator from Indiana (Mr. Kern) that he has a passion for peace," Senator Gore responded.

All Have Passion for Peace.

"We all have a passion for peace. Yet I want to say at this stage that I am not for peace at any price."

Asked by Senator James why he did not ask the president about the reports, Senator Gore said:

"In the first place I have no evidence of any confidential relationship that might lead me to hope that I might receive his judgment in the matter, or his impressions in the matter. I acted, as I say, upon what seemed to be a reliable report. Of course, I may have been in error about it. I realized that at the time I acted in the full light of those impressions. Certainly I do not undertake to quote what the president said to senators, nor do I intimate that the senator had reported to me or repeated to me the conversation with the president, but I assume that other senators received the same report, and if it be untrue, of course, everybody must be gratified."

Consults With Mann.

Outside of the Democratic ranks the principal development was President Wilson's invitation to Republican Leader Mann to confer with him at the White House. Mr. Mann went to the White House at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and after a conference with the president was silent.

It was understood the president, following his course of treating the situation as a purely non-partisan question, had sent for Mr. Mann to acquaint him with all the details of the complex conditions of affairs, and probably will ask for the support of the Republicans in his determination to stand for the right of American citizens to travel the seas under the guarantees of international law. Later the Republican leader would not indicate what he had said to the president how he would vote, but it was understood generally that a majority of the Republicans would vote against the resolution. After Mr. Mann left the White House the president conferred for an hour with Secretary Lansing over the events in the senate and their effect on the situation. Conferences of administration leaders in the senate were held as soon as the last word in the long pent-up discussion had been uttered on the floor. Senator Stone closeted himself to work out a plan for a substitute resolution. Meanwhile other Democrats, among them Senators Kern, James, Martin, Swanson, Pomerene, Clark, Williams, Hughes, Simmons and Overman, retired to a committee room. Their first impulse was to discuss the declarations of Senator Gore regarding the reports of President Wilson's statement to congressional leaders. Deep regret over the utterances was evinced by nearly every senator present. But this was passed over quickly, and the conclusion was unanimous that decisive action be taken without further delay. Within less than an hour, the plan for disposing of the issue without debate had been agreed upon.

Gore Statement Without Foundation.

Washington, March 3.—Senator Owen, colleague of Senator Gore, who amazed the senate with a report that President Wilson had said the entrance of the United States into the European war might render a service to civilization, conferred with the president this morning and said later he had found Senator Gore's account entirely without foundation.

Senator Owen went to the White House at the request of several senators to learn the exact status of the international situation before the senate votes on the Gore resolution warning Americans off armed ships.

Senator Owen will support the president. He said after his conference that while the international situation was grave it was not nearly as bad as pictured by Senator Gore in the senate yesterday.

"WHERE VALUES REIGN SUPREME"

STACK & CO.

21 and 23 WEST SUPERIOR STREET.

New Spring Suits

Charmingly beautiful in their newness, tailored and dressy models, made up in a splendid range of materials, shown in the new spring shades and new checks, now featuring exceptional values at $27.50, $25.00, $22.50, $19.50, $17.50 and..... $15.00

New Spring Coats

A magnificent showing of new and appealing models, made up in a wide range of swell materials, including black and navy coats, lined throughout and suitable for early season wear—$30.00 down to..... $7.50

New Spring Skirts

Made up in Taffetas, Poplins, new checks, etc; brand new models specially featured..... $5.95

New Spring Dresses

Beautiful new models in Crepe de Chine and Chiffon combination, also Taffetas, Silk Poplins, Bengalines, new checks, etc. Four great values on sale Saturday—$19.50, $15.00, $11.50 and..... $7.50 in Winter Suits, Coats, Furs, Children's Coats, Waists, etc. Included are a few very desirable late styles Seal Plush Coats to be closed out at quick sale prices.

Odd Lot of Left Overs

Special Dress Goods Bulletin For Saturday

54-inch Black All-wool Storm Serge, per yard..... $1.00

42-inch Fram Cloth, all pure wool; they come in all the new spring colors, at, per yard..... $1.00

45-inch All-wool Storm Serge, sponged and shrunk; they come in all the staple colors at..... 95c

42-inch All-wool Poplin; colors black and navy blue; regularly $1.25 per yard, special at..... 89c

50-inch All-wool Gabardine; colors black, navy blue, Myrtle green, Belgian blue, African brown and the new putty colors, per yard..... $1.50

40-inch new Scotch Plaids for children's school wear; colors absolutely fast, per yard..... 65c

$2.50 quality 54-inch sponged and shrunk Broadcloth; colors black, navy blue, African brown, taupe, gray and the new Vatican shade, per yard..... $2.00

32-inch Graylock Zephyrs; a regular 18c quality Gingham..... 12½c

15c Seersucker Gingham; large assortment of pink, blue, tan and gray stripes at, per yard..... 12½c

Regular 15c "Strongcloth" for rompers and boys' wear, at..... 12½c

12½c Shirting Gingham, Anchor brand; it comes in plain and fancy patterns, sale price..... 8½c

10c Fancy Outing Flannel, in pink and blue stripes and checks; large assortment for Saturday's sale..... 8½c

Special Clean-Up Now—Sale in the Millinery Dept.

Choice of a big variety of Children's Winter Hats at..... 25c

One big lot of Women's Winter Hats, in a variety of choice styles..... 50c

New Spring Hats, in all the new wanted styles. You will find a goodly collection here at only..... $2.50

Last Day of the Shirt Sale

Men's 69c Dress Shirts only 50c. These come in neat stripes, plain and fancy; made coat style, cuffs attached..... 50c

$1.50 Dress Shirts at 98c. Made of the finest quality percale; cut extra full and a grand variety of neat stripes to select from —choice at only..... 98c

WANTED FLOWER PINNED ON BREAST

Last Request of Murderer Electrocuted for Killing His Wife.

Ossinging, N. Y., March 3.—Walter Watson of Brooklyn was electrocuted at Sing Sing this morning for the murder of his wife a year ago. Watson, who protested his innocence to the last, left a sealed envelope to be opened after his death. In it was found a faded flower and this note:

"This envelope contains a flower from my dear wife's grave. Please bury it with me and let it be on my breast. It is a token of remembrance of the wife I always loved, and may God rest our souls in peace."

Watson was separated from his wife at the time of the murder, which he was supposed to have committed while under the influence of drink. His son Thomas saw his father stab his mother with a table knife, and assisted in his capture.

AGE PLAYS LITTLE PART IN MARRIAGE

Wide Differences in Ages of Berliners Wedded Last Year.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Berlin, Feb. 11.—Age plays little part in the matrimonial plans of a good many Berliners, according to statistics of the last fiscal year just made public. Eleven of the bridegrooms had not completed their nineteenth year. The oldest bridegroom was 82. A widow who gave her age as "over 70" took as husband a man of 40; one of 61 found her fate in a man of 30, and another of 40 married a man of 21.

One bridegroom of 63 took a bride of 17; another of 72 found a 17-year-old wife, and a gray beard of 79 married a girl of 27 years. The youngest widow entering upon her second wifehood was just 18 years old.

Appended to the report regarding marriages are reports about divorce and birth. Sixteen marriages were dissolved in less than a year, 74 less than two years, and 134 in the third year. Fourteen couples who had already celebrated their silver weddings were parted, two couples were divorced after forty years of married life, and one couple after forty-one years.

The surprising feature of the birth record is the large proportion, almost 20 per cent, of illegitimate children. A total of 31,325 legitimate children were born during the year, and 9,512 illegitimate.

Everybody who smokes a Don Duluth cigar likes it. 'Nuff said.

Phone your want ad early for The Saturday Herald. Both phones 324.

They Let Him Sleep.

H. T. Strayngе, Gainesville, Ga., R. R. No. 3, was unable to sleep all night without getting up. "Sometimes only a few minutes after going to bed I would have to get up, and I tried everything I heard of for the trouble. Finally I tried Foley Kidney Pills, and after taking one bottle I believe I am entirely cured, and I sleep soundly all night." Foley Kidney Pills tone up weak, sluggish kidneys, rid the body of poisons, give appetite, energy and refreshing sleep. Sold everywhere.

CORRUPTION CHARGED TO FRENCH WRITERS

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Berlin, Feb. 11.—According to Sofia dispatches, the archives of the Serbian government captured by the Bulgarians at Nish contain evidence of corruption in the case of two French writers. It is alleged to be proven that Henri Barby, an editor of Le Journal, received 40,000 francs for his book, "Epopee Serbe," and that the book "Grande Serbie" of M. Denis was brought out at the expense of the Serbian government.

Various Forms Of Headache

"It is necessary in order to treat headaches properly to understand the causes which produce the affection" says Dr. J. W. Ray, of Blockton, Ala. Continuing, he says, "Physicians cannot even begin the treatment of a disease without knowing what causes give rise to it, and we must remember that headache is to be treated according to the same rule. We must not only be particular to give a remedy intended to counteract the cause which produces the headache, but we must also give a remedy to relieve the pain until the cause of the trouble has been removed. To answer this purpose, anti-kamnia tablets will be found a most convenient and satisfactory remedy. One tablet every one to three hours gives comfort and rest in the most severe cases of headache, neuralgia and particularly the headaches of women."

When we have a patient subject to regular attacks of sick headache, we should caution him to keep his bowels regular, for which nothing is better than "Actoids," and when he feels the least sign of an oncoming attack, he should take two A-K Tablets. Such patients should always be instructed to carry a few anti-kamnia tablets, so as to have them ready for instant use. These tablets are prompt in action and can be depended on to produce relief in a very few minutes. Ask for A-K Tablets.

Anti-kamnia tablets at all druggists.

SAMPLE CLOAK AND SUIT SHOP

118 and 120 West Superior Street, Duluth, Minn.

We invite you to come in and see the

ELEGANT DRESSES

we have in our stock. All the latest styles at our usual Low Upstairs Prices.

D. VAN BAALEN & CO.

Direct to Washington and New York

Solid all-steel trains; the very latest 1916 coaches and Pullman sleeping cars; famous dining service; unsurpassed track and roadbed—all of these back up the statement that

The Baltimore & Ohio has been made $100,000,000 better in the past five years

The "New York Limited" and "Inter-State Special" of the Baltimore & Ohio are the only trains carrying compartment and observation sleeping cars to Washington.

One to ten days stop-over at Pittsburgh, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and other important points—exceptionally advantageous for business men.

Four splendid all-steel through trains from Chicago daily

The Interstate Special—10:45 a. m.
The New York Limited—5:45 p. m.
The Washington-New York Express—8:25 a. m.
The New York Express—9:00 p. m.

All trains leave Grand Central Station, Chicago, and leave 63d Street Station 25 minutes later.

H. C. STROHM, Northwestern Passenger Agent, 121 Endicott Building, St. Paul, Minn.
Metropolitan Life Insurance Bldg., Minneapolis, Minn.

Baltimore & Ohio

"Our Passengers Are Our Guests"

BEAUTIFYING THE HOME GROUNDS

How Success Can Be Obtained in Northern Minnesota—Climatic Conditions and Exposure—Soil Conditions and Planting—Selection of Varieties—Native Trees and Shrubs.

By CONRAD B. WOLF,
Superintendent of Parks, Hibbing, Minn.

It is certainly gratifying to see that the people of this country are devoting more thought to beautifying their home grounds. They realize that the home after all is not complete when the house is built and the drives and walks put in place, without adding that beautiful living material of trees, shrubs and flowers which nature has provided to use as a connecting link between the barren structure of buildings and nature's beauty.

No matter how small the lot and home may be, there is always room for a tree and a few shrubs or at least some flowers.

No other work will give you greater returns in protection, pleasure and satisfaction than the little care you may give those plants about your home. While the trees, evergreens and shrubs protect you during the summer from the hot sun, they will be valuable during the winter as windbreaks, while the flowers, Nature's most beautiful gift, will give you a mass of color and fragrance.

The wholesome recreation, the educational and uplifting value and the good example set for our children and neighbors are beyond estimate. Not to speak of the actual increase in value of your property. It means better children, better citizens, mentally and physically. More individually beautified home grounds means more beautiful and more sanitary communities.

Now the question presents itself, how shall we proceed to get the results? I shall endeavor to treat the most important points which must be taken into consideration if success is to be obtained in Northern Minnesota, more particularly on the iron ranges.

General Plan.

It is always advisable to make a plan of the proposed planting. If possible make it to a scale perhaps one inch representing from four to fifty feet, whatever the most convenient measure may be. Such a plan would be especially desirable if the entire planting could not be carried out in one season, but had to be conducted over a number of years.

Lately the "style" in landscape gardening has changed, and I believe for the better. Eight years ago or less, the lawns were broken by flower beds, by isolated shrubs and trees, and even statuary and permanent garden furniture were placed most conspicuously on the lawns in front of dwellings.

Nowadays the planting is confined more to the base of buildings, to cover and hide enclosures and to get the effect of certain vistas.

The hardy perennials and other flowering plants are mostly used as a border and to finish the groups of deciduous trees and shrubs. A few specimen evergreens, shade trees or shrubs of special merit might be planted to good advantage a little off those groups, but as a whole the lawn itself is to be left open.

Home grounds treated in this way will look much better from every angle, but, most important, lawns if uninterrupted will appear much larger than they are in reality.

Climatic Conditions and Exposure.

Climatic conditions in Northern Minnesota are more severe for vegetation than in the Southern counties. But they are not so that we can not have beautiful trees, shrubs and flowers. I am convinced by my own experience of eight years in Northern Minnesota that we have as great possibilities as in Southern Minnesota, especially if you consider the many varieties of native trees and shrubs and others that have proven perfectly hardy, and that delight us with their flowers and foliage all through the spring and summer. You and I can have all these varieties on our home grounds for the small price of getting them.

This enables the home owner of moderate means, and even poor people, to beautify their home surroundings with very little money.

The exposure must be taken into consideration in selecting the varieties. Experience has shown that it is possible to grow successfully more tender varieties of trees and shrubs on an east, south and southwest exposure, where the sunshine has free access throughout the day, than would be possible on the northeast, north and northwest exposures.

Soil Conditions and Planting.

The soil must be given due consideration and study, as it is the foundation of any planting, and on it success depends largely.

Loam of a dark color is the ideal soil for the greatest majority of plants of all classes. It is a soil in which the sand, silt and clay are properly balanced, making it mellow and friable. It retains moisture to supply plant food in solution and at the same time is properly aerated. Air is an important factor in soil and is needed by the roots of plants quite as much as water.

Should the soil on which the planting is to be carried out prove too clayey, then a very liberal amount of soil as described above should be added.

It is a great advantage if ground intended for spring planting is heavily manured and plowed deep the fall before. The winter weathering will help greatly to make it more friable, for the action of the frost and sun has a decided physical effect that should be taken advantage of whenever possible.

Spring is commonly considered the best planting season for Northern Minnesota, and undoubtedly it is best for the amateur planter. Although good results have been obtained with fall planting on the Mesaba range, I would not recommend it to the beginner, as the chances of an early freezeup are too great, and if the trees and shrubs have to be shipped from out-of-town nurseries they may not come early enough to insure their safety.

The planting seasons in this section during the last five years ranged from May 2 to June 26. This depends on weather conditions during early spring.

After the soil has been properly prepared, individual holes should be dug for trees, shrubs and evergreens. These should be large enough to allow the roots to be spread out naturally without bending or twisting, and deep enough to set the tree or shrub from an inch and a half to two or at the most three inches deeper than before. This mark can easily be found by the lighter color of the trunk.

After the hole is ready to receive the plant, each tree and shrub should be taken individually and every root which is injured, bruised or broken trimmed with a sharp knife, to eliminate just the injured portion. The remaining part of these roots will develop a callous on the new wound, through which new fiber-roots, the only providers of a plant, will appear, insuring growth.

If these injured roots are left and none of the remaining sound ones cut smooth before planting the trees and shrubs grow poorly, if they live at all.

Next place the plant in the hole, make sure that it is not too deep nor too high; spread out the roots naturally and fill in with good, rich, mellow loam, free from lumps and coarse manure. Special attention must be given that the soil is worked carefully between the fine roots, and that no space is left, before you fill the hole. Then firm the plant by stepping gently upon the soil covering the roots. Finally make a little basin around the plant to hold the water until it has penetrated.

Fresh manure should not be used, as it does more harm than good, should the manure come too close to the roots, which is hardly avoidable. Manure is not necessary for a successful planting if the soil was properly prepared, but if it is used at all when planting, take only old, well-rotted manure.

Individual trees and shrubs, such as are planted on lawns and boulevards, may be benefited by leaving a circle of two or three feet, kept open by cultivation until they become well established.

On most of the newly planted trees and shrubs the top and branches should also be trimmed, to offset the loss of roots and to give them a more vigorous start.

Selection of Varieties.

I shall give here a list of the most useful, most ornamental and hardiest shade trees, decideous shrubs and evergreens, which have proven very satisfactory in this section.

Among the best shade trees I would mention the following: The American white elm, white and green ash, American mountain ash, oak-leaved mountain ash, all the species of birch except Weir's cut-leaved birch, which will not stand the climate; among the maples the soft, red or scarelet, Norway and Weir's cut-leaved. While the sugar or hard maple is a beautiful tree, it is too slow a grower; this also applies to the red and white oak, which are natives. Of willows I would list the golden or Russian, laurel-leaved, the Wisconsin weeping and the Nioble willow. In poplars I recommend the Norway, Carolina and silver-leaved as the best for shade purposes, while the Bolleana and the Lombard poplars are good only for ornamentation to get certain effects in a landscape. Our pin and choke cherry, wild plum and several varieties of crab apples may be used to good advantage on any ground.

The best shrubs, attractive by their ornamental fruit, are the following: The common barberry, Thunberg's barberry, thornapple, Ilex or spice berry, Tartarian and Morrow's honeysuckle, Japanese roses, black elder, snowberry, blackberried viburnum, the high-bush cranberry, Siberian dogwood, Juneberry, buckthorn and Sumach.

The hardiest shrubs attractive by their distinct colored leaves and also fern-like foliage are: The Tartarian and Ginnala maples, golden-leaved mock orange, golden elder, golden spirea or nine bark, Russian olive, Thunberg's barberry, cut-leaved elder, cut-leaved sumach and leaved spirea.

Shrubs most caluable and conspicuous by their flowers: Practically all the lilacs, spireas, honeysuckle, snowball, sweet mock orange, Caragana, flowering current, hydrangea paniculata, Juneberry, double-flowering plum and quite a number of hybrid perpetual roses.

Best for hedges are the following: Caregana, Tartarian honeysuckle (pink, red or white), buckthorn, red-twigged dogwood, ash-leaved spirea, bridal breath spirea, Thunberg's barberry and the Siberian hedgewood, the lowest of them all.

Among the best and hardiest climbers or vines: Virginia creeper, Ampelopsis Englemanni, Aristolochia or Dutchman's pipe, climbing honeysuckle and clematis.

Among evergreens the following can be recommended: The Colorado blue spruce (especially good for specimen planting), Norway, white and Black Hills spruce, white, Norway Jack, Austrian and Montana or dwarf mountain pine; also the balsam and tamarack are desirable for certain locations; finally the American white and red cedar and ground hemlock are good.

The planting of evergreens should be more extensively carried out in this Northern country than in the past. They are beautiful and fit in most any place; in fact, a planting is not complete without a few of them. They look beautiful winter and summer and seem to prolong the growing season considerably. If planted in masses, aside from the beautiful effect when snow-laden, they give the best protection as a wind-break or shelter.

Native Trees and Shrubs.

As I said before, our woods in Northern Minnesota are beautiful, and much more valuable material in trees, shrubs and other plants could be collected by everybody and used to as great advantage as those bought from nurseries. This surely should be done more extensively and encouraged wherever possible.

Only as an example I like to mention that in our Hibbing park system we have planted more than 3,000 native trees, shrubs and perennials, aside from those that were on the grounds originally.

The expense of getting those plants was about a third of the cost if bought from a nursery. Unfortunately many of our native plants are not grown in nurseries as yet, but I am convinced that before long every known species of our native flora can be had through almost any nursery. A few of the most desirable native plants to be found near any community of Northern Minnesota are as follows: Among trees we find the American elms, white ash, red and white oak, sugar, soft and scarlet or red maple, white and yellow birch, ironwood, basswood, pin cherry and choke cherry and wild plum.

Evergreens—White, Norway and jack pine; white spruce, balsam, tamarack, white cedar and the American yew or ground hemlock.

Deciduous shrubs—Winter or spice berry, herb bush, cranberry, blackberried viburnum, juneberry, wild roses (for their flowers and fruit), sumach, red-twigged dogwood, wild currant and gooseberry, black and red-berried elder, thornapple, hazelnut and several varieties of dwarf maples and spireas.

I would like to suggest however that you do not plant any of the common polars and willows so frequently found, for they are not desirable.

The list of native hardy perennials is a long one, but I will mention only a few: The native asters, flags, moccasin flower, cardinal flower, cone flower, blazing stars, columbine and water lilies.

And finally our native hardy ferns deserve a place in every home ground, for they will thrive in very shady and moist places where no other plant could exist.

In digging out and transferring those native plants, great care must be taken to get all the fiber-roots, which are generally at the ends of the large cones, uninjured out of the ground. Between the forest and the home grounds every precaution must be taken to avoid exposing the roots to the drying winds and air, which would cause great harm to the plants, and the success of transplanting would be very much endangered.

This is easily done by packing wet moss and canvas covers about the roots after the plants are loaded.

Much more could be said on this subject. In fact, many more details will have to be considered and studied by everyone who plants, as the local conditions of property everywhere present new difficulties and obstacles. However, I am satisfied that, if these general suggestions and pointers as given here are observed and carried out, success will crown your work.

WOMEN SHOULD GET THIS HABIT AS WELL AS MEN

Don't eat a bite of breakfast until you drink a glass of hot water, says authority.

Wash the poison and stagnant matter from system each morning, and feel fresh as a daisy.

Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latest application of its untiring research is the recommendation that it is as necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

While you are enjoying your breakfast the phosphated hot water is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatic stiffness; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

—Advertisement.

CONFERENCE ON PREPAREDNESS

Mayors and Delegates Appointed By Them Meet at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., March 3.—The National Defense Conference of Mayors, composed of mayors and delegates appointed by them, from many of the large cities of the country, assembled here today for a two days' session for the discussion of preparedness for national defense.

On the program for today were George M. Brown of the St. Louis branch of the National Security league, who was to speak on "General and Industrial Preparedness;" Mayor Curley of Boston; Richard L. Metcalfe of Lincoln, Neb.; Mrs. Philip N. Moore of St. Louis, president of the National Council for women and former president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs; Henry A. Wise Wood; Henry L. West of New York, executive secretary of the National Security league; Mayor George J. Karb of Columbus, Ohio; Prof. Roland G. Usher of Washington university, St. Louis, who was to speak on "The European View of the Monroe Doctrine;" Mayor C. E. Sebastien of Los Angeles; Mayor O. H. Bentley of Wishita, Kan.; Mayor Jonas Fisher of Williamsport, Pa., and Mayor Louis P. Fuhrman of Buffalo.

Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago has been asked to preside at the first session Saturday. Addresses are expected from Frederick L. Huidekoper of Washington, D. C., who will speak on "Military History and Policy;" Owen Miller of St. Louis, secretary of the American Federation of Musicians, who will speak on "Labor and Preparedness;" Mayor James H. Woodward of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Linden W. Bates of New York, chairman of the woman's section of the movement for national defense; Cornelius Vanderbilt, chairman of the New York Defense Committee of One Thousand; T. L. Kirkpatrick, mayor of Charlotte, N. C., and C. H. Kelly, mayor of Toledo, Ohio.

Mayor Mitchel of New York will preside at the session Saturday afternoon. Mayor Dahlman of Omaha will speak at that meeting, as will also George W. Wickersham, former attorney general of the United States, and Robert Bacon of Boston, former secretary of state.

A banquet Saturday night will close the conference.

Purely Vegetable
Nothing Mineral
in
CARTER'S
Little Liver Pills

THE GENUINE MUST BEAR SIGNATURE OF

Brent Good

BRIGHTER CHILDREN

Children are probably brighter to-day than a generation ago—but are they stronger? That's a grave question. So many pinched faces, dulled eyes and languid feelings make us wonder if they will ever grow into robust, healthy men and women.

If your children catch colds easily, are tired when rising, lack healthy color, or find studies difficult, give them Scott's Emulsion for one month to enrich their blood and restore the body-forces to healthy action.

Scott's Emulsion is used in private schools. It is not a "patent medicine", simply a highly concentrated oil-food, without alcohol or harmful drugs. It cannot harm; it improves blood; it benefits lungs and strengthens the system. Your druggist has it—refuse substitutes.

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 15-21

—Advertisement.

DULUTH BAKERS MUST NOT SMOKE OR CHEW

Smoking, chewing or snuffing of tobacco in bakeries or restaurants will not be tolerated, according to the February report of the bakery inspector filed yesterday with Health Director Fahey.

Several instances of smoking were found during the last month, he states, while one pipe, discovered in a restaurant kitchen, was confiscated.

During February the inspector reports the condemnation of the following articles:

Seventy-five pounds of fermented fish.
Twenty pounds of cheese.
Four jars of pimento cheese.
Eleven cans of Norwegian herring.
Colored French peas.

The inspector reports the inspection of ninety-three restaurants, 99 stores, 90 saloons, 14 wagons, 44 bakeries, 96 basements, 17 candy factories, 31 hotels 56 lunchrooms and 74 lodging houses.

STILL CONGESTED AT VLADIVOSTOK

Pier Facilities Are Lacking and Unloading of Steamers Delayed.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Vladivostok, Jan. 12.—Congestion of war supplies at Vladivostok continues to grow worse. At present there are twenty-eight steamers in the harbor or waiting in the bay to enter the harbor. Pier facilities are lacking to accommodate these steamers. The thermometer registers 20 deg. below zero, and the extreme temperature and ice are adding to the confusion. The cranes on the piers are not heavy enough to lift locomotives and other heavy weights, and consequently lighters must be utilized for this purpose. As there are only sufficient lighters to unload four steamers, the handling of locomotives is greatly delayed.

Four hundred and fifty American locomotives were sold to Russia for use in speeding up war supplies, and so far less than fifty of these have been unloaded at Vladivostok. American manufacturers are also sending 20,000 steel cars to Vladivostok. Heavy floating cranes were brought from Japan to handle the war supplies, but it is almost impossible to move these in the ice, and they are of an old type not well adapted to the present work.

Because of delay, demurrage charges are piling up against the freight. The shores of the harbor are blocked with cargo, and it seems impossible to get cars to move this out. The government says it has 3,000 cars at Lake Baikal, but these are not coming with any regularity to Vladivostok, and the situation seems to grow more confusing every day.

Barbed wire, cotton and rails make up a great part of the cargo which is now reaching here. Various departments which are handling the cargo insist on different sorts of supplies being taken to different piers. The result is that some ships unload less than 100 tons a day, and in many cases the demurrage charges against one ship reach $1,500 a day.

HOPE TO SUPPLANT THE GERMAN DYES

Mammoth Factories to Produce Aniline Colors Being Built.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Leeds, Eng., Feb. 18.—The directors of the British Dyes company, which hopes to supplant the German dyemakers in the production of aniline colors, are pushing the construction of their mammoth factory on the 260-acre site allotted them by the British government at Huddersfield. A considerable part of the new works will be in operation during the spring.

In the meantime the production of vegetable dyes in Great Britain has greatly increased and aniline dyes are being made at home in smaller factories and imported in unprecedented quantities from Switzerland. As England formerly sent the raw materials of the aniline dyes to Germany to be returned to her as the finished product, so now she is sending these raw materials to Switzerland, and many British dye users have signed contracts to continue the import of Swiss dyes even after the war is over.

A Hint to Mothers of Growing Children

A Mild Laxative at Regular Intervals Will Prevent Constipation.

A vital point upon which all schools of medicine seem to agree is that normal regularity of the bowels is an essential to good health. The importance of this is impressed particularly on mothers of growing children.

A very valuable remedy that should be kept in every home for use as occasion arises is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a compound of simple laxative herbs that has been prescribed by Dr. W. B. Caldwell of Monticello, Ill., for more than twenty-five years, and which can now be obtained in any well-stocked drug store for fifty cents a bottle.

In a recent letter to Dr. Caldwell, Mrs. H. C. Turner, 844 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y., says, "I bought a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for my baby, Roland Lee Turner, and find it works just like you said it would. It is fine for the stomach and bowels."

A bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin should be in every home. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

ROLAND LEE TURNER.

THE DULUTH HERALD

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

Published every evening except Sunday by The Herald Company at Duluth, Minn.

Both Telephones—Business Office, 324; Editorial Rooms, 1126.

Entered as second-class matter at the Duluth postoffice under the act of congress of March 3, 1870.

OFFICIAL PAPER, CITY OF DULUTH

SUBSCRIPTION RATES—By mail, payable in advance, one month, 35 cents; three months, $1; six months, $2; one year, $4; Saturday Herald, $1 per year; Weekly Herald, $1 per year.

Daily by carrier, city and suburbs, 10 cents a week, 45 cents a month

Subscribers will confer a favor by making known any complaint of service.

When changing the address of your paper, it is important to give both old and new addresses.

The Duluth Herald accepts advertising contracts with the distinct guarantee that it has the largest circulation in Minnesota outside the Twin Cities.

The Herald will be glad to have its attention called to any misleading or untrue statement which may appear in its news, editorial or advertising columns.

TODAY IN HISTORY.

Alexander Graham Bell born, 1847.

Born in Edinburgh, Scotland, and educated in Edinburgh and London. Moved to Canada in 1870, and became professor of vocal physiology, Boston university, 1872. Invented the telephone, patented Feb. 14, 1876.

READING (available in Duluth public library)—Herbert N. Casson, History of the Telephone (popular story of telephone development).

THE WAY OUT.

When Elihu Root, speaking before a New York Republican convention, set himself the task of sounding a Republican campaign keynote, he talked empty demagoguery.

But about the same time, addressing himself to a more permanent record and writing without thought of politics, he talked sense—as he can when he will.

In this more studied and more balanced permanent record he said: "Many states have grown so great that there is no power capable of imposing punishment upon them except THE POWER OF THE COLLECTIVE CIVILIZATION outside of the offending state. Any exercise of that power must be based on public opinion."

That's wisdom. That's what the president has been heading toward in his upholding of neutral rights and human rights without threat of war. That's what various organizations are after when they propose joint economic pressure to abate and defeat war. That's what peace advocates mean when they talk of international organization against war. That's what our friend "The Innocent Bystander" has been talking about in the Open Court in season and out—if there is any "out of season" for such sane talk.

"Any exercise of that power must be based on public opinion." Right! To be effective, that power must take the form of international law backed by international organization. Such law, like all laws, to count must be starched with the substance of public opinion. There is, finally, no law BUT public opinion. Laws lacking its support are no laws. Strong public opinion, even lacking the coherence and form of legal expression, is vastly more powerful than any law indifferently supported by the people.

The main business before humanity right now is to develop and encourage and strengthen such public opinion as will bring about, after the war, an international organization that will bring its combined power to bear upon ANY nation that, setting its brute selfishness and unrestrained ambition for power higher than any right of humanity, goes wantonly to war.

"Our flag is in the Orient to stay and will never bulge from the ramparts of Manila," is one of the statements of Republican Candidate Estabrook. Which is but another way of saying that Uncle Sam's promises are nothing at all but scraps of paper.

CLOUDS OF DOUBT ON POLAR EXPLOITS.

It is a reminder of an almost forgotten controversy that the government's latest map of the Arctic regions will not show some of the geographical features reported by Peary and hitherto regularly recorded by the cartographers.

Among the Peary discoveries were Peary channel, Peary island, East Greenland sea and Crocker land. Danish and American expeditions have lately been through the places where these features appear on recent maps—and did not find them. So naturally, the government is leaving them out of its maps.

Cook's friends—he has them yet, including Congressman Helgeson of North Dakota, who has recently spoken scathingly of Peary in congress—are jubilant.

Peary's friends—he seems to have quite a number—say that these are merely errors, which Peary now admits to be errors. They declare that they were not intentional deceptions, which is easy to believe because it would be incredibly stupid to attempt deceptions so certain to be detected.

So involved in dispute and doubt is the whole subject of polar exploration, and so languid is the public interest in it anyway, that doubtless there are many who, listening irritably to the echoes of the Cook-Peary controversy, say: "A plague on both your houses! I don't believe either of you—and, moreover, I don't give a hang if you're both right or both wrong. Who cares whether the pole is found or not found, and what good does it do humanity to find it anyway?"

The inception of Arctic exploration was the search for a passage by water from the Atlantic to the Pacific—a search that led to most of the discoveries along the Atlantic coast of America, and the by-products of which were therefore infinitely more important than the main object. There was some sense to that effort, which now has finally been answered by the Panama canal—or will be when the slides quit—but polar research is of little practical value. Its chief advantages would seem to be that it takes the searchers away from war, away from politics that some times grows flat, stale and unprofitable, away from hay fever, away from grip, away from gossips, away from tale-bearing and scandal-mongering and the human littlenesses that rise to the surface when great issues do not create occasion for human greatnesses.

Peary probably found the pole. Maybe Cook did too. Pleasant weather we're having, isn't it?

Put yourself in Europe's place, and imagine how much attention you would pay to the demands of the head of a nation who seemed to lack support in his own country.

THE MILK ORDINANCE.

Dr. Fahey, as health officer, in considering the proposed milk ordinance is interested in getting a set of regulations far-reaching enough and strong enough to enable him to safeguard the community against the dangers of bad milk.

The physicians to whom he has referred the measure are interested wholly in the question of health.

Has anybody been called into consultation who, though interested in public health, is also interested in protecting the small milk dealer and the growing dairying industry against requirements needlessly harsh?

If not, then some who are so interested should be called into consultation—men like Mr. Hostetter, Mr. Thompson of the state demonstration farm, Mr. Ward, who before he took charge of the county work farm was a county agricultural agent, and a good one. It is important that the ordinance be studied carefully from this angle, as well as from the angle of strict regulation, and these would be good men to do it. Doubtless there are others, too.

In view of the fact that the milk supply has been passing for very good indeed for some time past, there is plenty of time to have this ordinance examined from all angles, and that's the way it ought to be examined.

Probably Jess Willard realizes, when he compares his income and that of Charlie Chaplin, that he took up with the wrong line of rough stuff.

ALL IN A DAY'S NEWS.

The Associated Press yesterday carried two items that, read together, are very interesting.

One item reported the Kentucky Republican state convention, which adopted resolutions deploring the way the Democrats have wrecked American prosperity.

The other item, headed by a Republican newspaper "Business Good Everywhere," tells what the Federal reserve agents have to say about business conditions throughout the country. Business conditions, they say, are good; the only alarm is over a growing scarcity of raw materials, which can indicate nothing but the most active prosperity. Phrases from the various reports are: "Continued activity;" "industrial activity is of record character;" "steady and substantial gains;" "farmers are said to have an increased purchasing power;" "the automobile industry is going at a record pace;" "heavy demand;" "feeling of optimism," etc.

In short, business is so tremendously good that not even the waves of gloom that issue from such caves of pessimism as the Kentucky Republican convention are capable of disturbing it in the slightest degree.

It's a fearfully poor year for the campaign calamity-howler.

It won't hurt you to study the presidential primary ballot a little in advance. Remember you have to vote for delegates or your vote is no good.

PROPER BUSINESS FOR CONGRESS.

Discussing the immigration bill which proposes to bar illiterate immigrants, the New York Times says the labor unions are active in its behalf, and adds: "The labor unions are bound to protect the labor market. Their orders congress seldom dares to disobey."

Well, could labor unions be in better business?

Could congress, for that matter, be in better business?

For years prior to the incoming of President Wilson and a Democratic majority, congress has been busy "protecting the labor market" by tariff bills taxing labor for the profit of manufacturers, while leaving the immigration gates wide open for an influx of labor to compete with and to drive out American labor on its own ground.

The greatest hypocrisy in the world's history has been that by which a Republican government has taxed all the people to build up great fortunes for a few in the name of "protecting American labor," while at the same time it has exposed American labor to utterly unlimited competition by free and even fostered immigration.

Many think, and we think with them, that the time has come to strain the flood of immigration somewhat finer. We cannot rejoice over the literacy test, because it bars out people who have been kept ignorant by oppressors and who therefore need America more than others. But a smaller immigration, and one more carefully strained, will be a wise provision for the future.

And yet it is possible that a congressman who is a firm believer in pork would object to being called a porker.

Root vs. Root

Editorial in the Atlanta Constitution.

When, on April 20, 1911, Senator Stone of Missouri introduced a resolution in the senate to direct the president of the United States, then Mr. Taft, to consider and stop the offenses and atrocities which were then being committed in revolution-ridden Mexico, and intimating that the result might lead to the right of entrance into Mexico to establish order by force, Senator Elihu Root, then representing the state of New York in that body, speaking to the resolution, among other things, said:

> There is no reason whatever, sir, to assume, if injuries have been done of the kind described, that the government of Mexico is unwilling to make due redress upon having those injuries and claims for redress presented to her in the ordinary course of peaceful negotiation; and the passage of such a resolution as has been described, equivalent to a declaration of war, would be to preface the ordinary demand—the demand which it is the duty of every civilized power to make upon a friendly nation—with a threat that if the demand is not complied with force will be used.

When Mr. Root, no longer a member of the United States senate, but now a private citizen, presiding over the recent Republican convention held in the state of New York, delivered an address supposed to sound the national Republican keynote, and in which he criticized the present Democratic administration to the point of abuse about this same Mexican situation, he made use of these words:

> If our government had sent an armed force into Mexico to protect American life and honor we might have been opposed, but we should have been understood and respected by the people of Mexico, because they would have realized that we were acting within our international rights and performing a nation's duty for the protection of its own people; but when the president sent an armed force into Mexico to determine the Mexican presidential succession, he created resentment and distrust of motives among all classes and sections of the Mexican people.

Does Mr. Root appeal from Philip sober to Philip now laboring under the stress of political intoxication?

As for the charge that the Vera Cruz incident had to do with the Mexican presidential succession, Mr. Root knows, as does everyone else familiar with its details, that there is no foundation for it—none, certainly, beyond the effort to create campaign material in the effort to overcome the remarkable dearth of it.

Under conditions as bad, if not worse, than those of today, Mr. Root would not under any circumstances have gone to war with Mexico.

Today, under stress of political exigency, he must advocate war with Mexico to build the only possible party issue that remained to his organization in respect to this question.

Surely there need be no Democratic fear as to the popular answer in November!

Cut Price Booms Business

Des Moines Capital: Predictions made during franchise negotiations that the number of street car riders would increase when the price of a ride was cut from 5 cents straight to six for 25 cents apparently have come true.

The street car company a few weeks ago was running ninety-four to ninety-six cars.

Today it is running 114 cars. This is 20 per cent more than the usual quota. Every serviceable car is now in service.

A New Enemy Exposed.

La Porte, Ind., Herald: Don't try to be a strong man; the champion athlete often dies young.

Gymnasium work is good for those who like it and can afford it, but avoid heavy athletics.

Be a moderate, persistent, daily exponent of exercise.

You needn't burn the family carriage, as Benjamin Franklin suggested, but do as he advised, walk, walk, walk.

Walk to your business; to your dressmakers; to shop.

Keep chickens, wrestle with a garden, wheel the baby, play golf, or any other old outdoor game.

Get two hours' outdoor exercise every day.

Why all this advice, you ask.

Well, it's this way. The government of the United States maintains a public health service, and this institution after an investigation has found that in spite of more sanitary modes of living and greater protection against communicable diseases, the expectation of life after forty years is less than it was thirty years ago.

In other words, in spite of our boasted advances in medicine and preventive measures, more people die after forty than formerly.

This startling condition is due to increased prevalence of the diseases of degeneration.

The muscles, arteries and other organs of those who as a result of sedentary occupation or indolence, we are told by the bureau, take too little exercise, as a result degenerate, and heart disease, kidney disease and other ills follow.

Those Kings Must Be Looked After.

Life: It is yet too early for us to arrange for some place to shelter the kings who at the end of the war will undoubtedly have to go somewhere for rest and quiet?

Every king, we take it, is entitled to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. While no king can be expected to make a living for himself, we believe, nevertheless, that useful employment, with a little training, could be secured for some of the leading European kings who will come to us as soon as the revolutions start.

A suburban colony of kings would not be a bad idea. To be driven home from your station in a suburban taxi, by a king who has once held down a European throne, would be worth double the present price.

With a little coaching, any king ought to make a fairly good moving picture actor.

Rippling Rhymes

By Walt Mason

A Deadly Winter.

It has been a deadly season, which can't be denied; and there was no rhyme or reason in the way men died. I would hear a comrade coughing; "See the doc," I'd say, and he'd leave me, mildly scoffing, to cash in next day. I would say, to some one sneezing, "Dope, ere it gets worse!" He would laugh, and then go breezing graveward in the hearse. Nobly did the men of science exercise their skill, using up-to-date appliance, potion, drug and pill; daily, nightly were they waging war against the foe, but the demon Grip went raging, laying people low. All in vain their dark brown bitters, all in vein their pills; sneezing to the last, poor critters climbed the sunset hills. Epidemics are as senseless as is Europe's war; foolish, cruel and defenseless, say, what are they for? What's the use of people dying, croaking in platoons, while the doctors, nobly trying, cannot cure for prunes?

(Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.)

Don't Be Made a Fool of By War.

E. W. Howe in E. W. Howe's Monthly.

The cruelest, wickedest thing the newspapers, magazines and statesmen have ever done is the campaign they are now conducting to force the people to submit to preparedness; which, in our case, means a useless and expensive army and navy. The people who pay the taxes, and who must do the fighting in case we are forced into an unnecessary war, are naturally against the military program, but they may be scared into accepting it. One magazine printed a series of articles showing the United States in the hands of a powerful enemy; similar stories have appeared in many of the daily newspapers; moving pictures were prepared showing the same thing, and every day the most forceful newspaper writers play on the fear and patriotism of the people. Those who believe in peace, as every honest man should, are called cowards; statesmen travel about delivering their best speeches, all calculated to inflame the crowds.

Any man of fair intelligence should know there is no danger of war, except as we manufacture it, as the newspapers and politicians are now manufacturing it. The powerful nations of the world are naturally our friends; in addition, at the present time they are exhausted from fighting. If you have had a fight, and been battered up, and had your home and business place burned as a result of the disturbance, you do not care to fight even an enemy until you have recovered; certainly you do not think of fighting with a fresh and powerful man who has not offended you. Germany, France and England will be fifty years recovering from their present mistake; I do not believe there will be another great war in the lifetime of anyone now living. The war abroad has demonstrated that the career of the bully is ended; that a blow is met with a blow.

Had France, Germany, England, Austria, Italy and Turkey shot their own citizens, bankrupted their own treasuries, burned their own buildings, and ruined their own commerce, it would not have been more foolish and unnecessary than the present reign of destruction and murder. The Germans actually had no reason to engage in war with England; the row began because there had long been talk of war and of preparedness such as we are now indulging in; if we get into it, and millions of our young men are murdered and our commerce ruined, the newspapers, magazines and statesmen will be to blame. If we go to war, at its conclusion nothing will have been settled; there is nothing to settle.

Submit to being made fools of in some of the less significant things; but let me beg you not to submit to being made a fool of to the extent of buying the horrors now so common abroad. Don't be amiable fools when we are threatened with a plunge from the best times we have ever had to the worst times, with the accompaniment of recruiting, battles, death and pensions.

Forlorn Hopes

Life: The Sun seems to be warming up a little, preparatory to the presidential hoss-race that begins next June. It went around the ring on Jan. 11, to the extent of two columns, leaded, on "The Repudiated Pledge"—said pledge being what was put into the Democratic platform at Baltimore about a single presidential term.

Anything to help the good Sun's wind, and get the stiffness out of its venerable legs, but two columns seems a lot of space for such a subject, except in the Tribune.

The "Repudiated Pledge" isn't going to cut any ice. The "pledge," such as it was, was a mere butterfly net, foolishly devised to entangle a candidate who was not to be held by anything short of a bear-trap. It was a fake. No one has ever taken it seriously, and no one has attempted to use it in the business of politics, except entities like the San Francisco Argonaut, and now the Sun, who were deeply conscious of the advantage of beating Mr. Wilson, and desperately at loss to know how to go about it.

If Mr. Wilson is beaten, either for nomination or re-election, it will have to be on his record as president. To trot out this ghastly "pledge" is a compliment to the Wilson record, and argues that the hope to beat him on it is forlorn.

Books and Thinking.

New York Times: Book publishers and dealers have shared in the satisfaction left in the wake of the rising wave of prosperity. They have been doing a good business and they have noted as one of its features an increasing demand for works of serious import, books that broaden the mental outlook, stimulate thought, and enable the reader to bring to the problems of his daily living and thinking a better informed and more alert intelligence.

The optimistic will hope that this means the beginning of the end of that curious and puzzling sentiment which, for now some years, has swept up and down the country instilling everywhere a distrust of and contempt for anything that connoted serious thought. It has found its exact and terse expression in that slang term of contemptuous intention and malevolent influence, "highbrow," which has fastened itself like a leech upon both the language and the life of the country.

The startled recognition which American readers began to give to books of more serious consequence began, indeed, soon after the beginning of the war and was in evidence even during the lessened book demand that marked the business depression of last year. And it has been, the publishers say, growing steadily ever since the opening, early in the autumn, of the present book season. If we are indebted to the European war for this dawning realization of the importance of being able to think, we owe to that awful conflict something of far more consequence than any stimulus to trade.

New Every Morning.

Every day is a fresh beginning,
Every morn is the world made new;
You who are weary of sorrow and sinning,
Here is a beautiful hope for you—
A hope for me and a hope for you.

All the past things are gone and over,
The tasks are done and the tears are shed;
Yesterday's errors let yesterday cover;
Yesterday's wounds, which smarted and bled,
Are healed with the healing which night has shed.

Yesterday is a part of forever,
Bound up in the sheath which God holds tight,
With the glad days and sad days and bad days which never Shall visit us more with their bloom or their blight,
Their fulness of sunshine or sorrowful night.

Let them go since we cannot relieve them,
Cannot undo or cannot atone;
God in His mercy receive and forgive them,
Only the new days are our own—
Today is ours and today alone.

Here are the skies all burnished brightly,
Here is the spent earth all reborn;
Here are the tired limbs springing lightly
To greet the sun and share with the morn
In its chrism of dew and cool of the dawn.

Every day is a fresh beginning
Listen, my soul, to the glad refrain,
And in spite of old sorrow and older sinning,
And trouble forecasted or possible pain,
Take heart with the new day and begin again.

—Susan Coolidge.

Political Straws in the Minnesota Breezes

Campaign Subjects Discussed by Minnesota Editors.

Waiting for the Stage to Be Set.

Mankato Review: Roosevelt is visiting the West Indies, with a view to having a sensational reception on his return to this country which will be so timed as to make it most effective of results at Chicago, June 7.

Root Takes a Losing Case.

Grand Rapids Herald-Review: Hard to believe it is, but the evidence is too strong to admit of doubt. Elihu Root has become the hired attorney for the Republican party. In his opening plea he put up as strong a case as the situation would admit, but his effort fell flat. Elihu did his best to earn his fee in defending a hopeless case, and the jury feels sorry for him; but it has a duty to perform. The verdict will be recorded in favor of Woodrow Wilson.

But Who Wants to Escape?

Belle Plaine Herald: The newspaper reader who isn't interested in politics has a tiresome year before him. This is a national and state election year and is going to be chock full of politics. The only way of escaping it is to move out of the country.

But It Isn't so Sprinkled.

Luverne Journal: If you're looking for a man to eloquently condemn everything in sight don't neglect to give Root and Cummins the once over. If there has been a move made by the Wilson administration that these two distinguished gentlemen did not mention (and mentioning, denounce in unsparing terms), we are curious to know what it is. Root took his fling in his "keynote" speech before the New York Republican convention, while Cummins came up to St. Paul to help his presidential boom along by firing oratorical bullets at the man whom he hopes to succeed. This is understood to be perfectly "good form" for the "outs" in speaking of the "ins." The method would be a little more appealing if, along with all the criticism, there was sprinkled here and there a helpful suggestion as to just how some of the "mistakes" could be rectified.

For Anybody Who's "Out."

Cokato Enterprise: The St. Paul Dispatch is sponsor for a movement to replace all the present state officials, being of the idea that they have held office long enough—and some of them too long. The Enterprise is of the same opinion, and will heartily support any competent man who becomes a candidate against any of the present incumbents. It does a world of good to clean house once in a while.

Questions the Kellogg Move.

Pine City Pine Poker: It may be our mistake, but we can't help questioning the good political judgment of getting Hon. Frank B. Kellogg into the United States senatorial fight at this time. Of course the understanding is that he is being pulled in to head Governor Eberhart off, but our judgment is that he will pull two votes from Senator Clapp to every one that he will get from the Eberhart column—if the governor should desire to become a candidate.

"'Tis true 'Tis Pity, and Pity 'Tis True."

Redwood Falls Sun: The attack on the primary law by a faction of the state editorial association proves beyond a doubt that not all the political wire-pullers are outside of the ranks of journalism.

When Single Harness Is Best.

Mankato Review: "What chance will the poor little Democratic mule have in a race against the elephant-bull moose span?"—Republican exchange.

Perhaps if the span pulled together the race might be a trifle serious for the mule, but as it is pretty certain that the one of that span that happens to be hitched up on the "off side" is going to balk and kick over the traces, our bets are placed on the animal that will trot in single harness.

Wisconsin Clippings

Things the Badger State Editors Are Saying.

Why "Almost?"

Eau Claire Telegram: President Wilson is said to believe he could find experts for membership in a tariff commission to whom Republicans could raise no objection on partisan grounds. The president has done some remarkable things, but this might be called almost a miracle.

La Follette and an Embargo.

Green Bay Press-Gazette: Senator La Follette, among other things, is for an embargo on munitions of war. He is also a candidate for the Republican nomination for the presidency. Some other Republicans are for putting an embargo on American exports, including Governor Philipp. Both Mr. La Follette and Mr. Philipp may be sincere in their views on this question, but the fact remains that the movement for an embargo is of political origin and has been started principally as a base of assault upon the administration. There is no evidence of a popular sentiment favoring the use of the embargo.

Wilson Scores Even Here!

Wausau Record-Herald: In his letter to Senator Stone regarding the proposal to forbid Americans from traveling on armed merchant ships, the president has given the clearest and most unanswerable statement of the rights and duties of the government that he has yet offered. If he will stand on the position which he has defined his position will be unassailable from within or without.

Fate Loves a Gentle Jape.

Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin: It was the irony of fate that Chicago's official graft scandal should start in the department of public welfare.

The Seeming Seems Certain.

Fond du Lac Commonwealth: A Madison woman who is soon to celebrate her 100th birthday attributes her longevity to her abstemious habits. She has never seen a picture show, played cards or gone to a dance. She has no patience with present-day frivolities. Wonder if the venerable lady has really lived a hundred years or if it just "seems that long."

This Is From Oshkosh.

Oshkosh Northwestern: A New York man who was arrested for pinching the leg of a young woman while riding on a street car protested to the court that he thought it was a silk-covered umbrella and simply tried to pick it up. The judge allowed it was an ingenious excuse, but held that such bad eyesight evidently needed the rest cure, wherefore the man was sent to the bridewell. And now one wonders if the young woman will not sue him for slander when he gets out.

Did You Ever Hear of "a Brush With the Enemy?"

Ashland Press: We noticed yesterday, in the new equipment furnished to the Wisconsin National Guard to put them on an absolutely "preparedness" basis, the item of scrubbing brushes. Now we are wondering just what those scrubbing brushes are for in time of war. To be sure the armory probably needs scrubbing once in a while, but what in time are they "gona" scrub on the field of battle.

But He Deserves More.

Washington Star: "A man dat's workin' hard tryin' to reform hisself," said Uncle Eben, "don' seem to git nigh so much incouragement and applause as de man dat gits up on a platform an' scolds folks in general."

The Man Who Will Never Be President

Will Irwin in Collier's Weekly.

The interior department has been going ahead, doing one of the biggest jobs in its history, and in this time of stress and distress, of new national problems forced on us from the outside, the president and congress need waste no time with its troubles. They are too well handled. There sits Franklin K. Lane, ineligible for higher honors—even in this crisis for promotion to secretary of state (Lane was born in Canada)—and quietly performs a fine, large job. It is a pity that I cannot boom Lane for the presidency; he would make such a candidate.

It occurred to me years ago that this was the answer to his character; he is what the insincere politician pretends or aspires to be. The insincere politician, to begin with, assumes that he sweats merely for service; that he is only looking to do a job for the people. Now this, I think, is really true of Lane. In all his wind-blown career he has been passing by chances to make money and gain honors because his absorbing interest is government along the lines of his belief. Every time he has been offered a position he has had to face the question: "How can I manage to live on that salary?" He says that he would like to have money; but I have never heard him so scornful as when he mentions those who make money, or "what money will buy," the end and aim of their careers.

Again, the politician assumes at least to be the friend of the people, to love all mankind. Hence the "Well, well, my boy" and the clinging handshake, so fatuous when badly done, so convincing when the insincere politician has histrionic powers. Now Lane really does love this, his world. He has a genuine, friendly interest in every life which creeps and crawls on the planet, from that of his brindle bulldog to that of his exalted chief. The sympathetic heart is the mother of tact; because he has that kind of heart his tact is genuine, not forced.

Finally, the average politician is impressed with the fact that he can do the job—any job in the gift of the people. Now, what with his big understanding, his trick of controlling men, his talent for mastering details and running the thread of understanding through the tangled web, Lane seems big enough for any position—even that of the American presidency, unique in this world, I suppose, for scope and strain.

Just a Moment

Daily Strength and Cheer.

Compiled by John G. Quinlus, the Sunshine Man.

When the hawk is soaring above the court, scarcely discernable to human eye, the pigeons have already perceived him; and if no hiding place is to be found, the whole flock rise and career upwards in close circles in order to confuse the marauder. He swoops down and misses his prey, for look and blow have grown uncertain, and after repeated attempts he has to retreat discomfited. Tact is a mightier instrument than force. Generals do more by stratagems than by cannons, bayonets and swords. "Wisdom is better than weapons of war." It is so in every department of life. The man of tact, the man who sees at once what is to be done and promptly does it, in passing through life escapes perils and masters difficulties which involve men of larger capacities and attainments in ruin. Hence it turns out that to every influential post, in the market, the church, and the government, the little men of intellect and genius, occupy the most prominent and remunerative positions. Mental pigeons, and not eagles, occupy the highest posts of office amongst us.—The Homilist.

Help me, O Lord, daily to mortify all worldly and corrupt affections and desires, that out of my death unto sin there may arise life unto righteousness, by the grace of Thy quickening Spirit.—F. B. Heyer.

Dayton, Ohio.

Sweden Is Shaky.

Life: Sweden is said to be veering in the direction of Germany. Probably she will go over to the Teutonic alliance, but it is no wonder that she veers. She has sound reasons to fear Russia. Russia broke her word utterly and scandalously with Finland and used every effort to reduce that gallant little country to complete subservience. That is one of the black marks in Russia's record. Sweden has abundant reason to fear Russia unreformed. But is Germany unreformed any safer?

Assigning the Blame.

Toledo Blade: The hens lay. The egg dealer lies.

Twenty Years Ago

From The Herald of this date, 1896.

The Irving Press, a semi-monthly publication by the pupils of Irving school, made its first appearance yesterday. J. Albert Mallory is named as editor-in-chief, with Mabel De Vore, Maud Fisher, Walter Gunniss, James O'Brien and Ray Abbott as associate editors. It is printed at the Sun office at West Duluth.

Mrs. George Warnock of West Duluth received notice yesterday that the 6-year-old son of her sister, Mrs. F. C. Stewart, was accidentally drowned at Black Oak, about thirteen miles from Carlton.

George Mahan, captain of the West Duluth fire station, is very ill with typhoid fever.

A. D. Grant, formerly of West Duluth, is in the city for a few days.

Duluth temperature at 7 a. m. today, 14; maximum yesterday, 20; minimum yesterday, 2.

Maurice D. L. Fuller, late of Crystal Falls, Mich., brother of Manager John Fuller of the North American Telegraph company, was in the city today on his way to Eveleth, where he will practice law.

J. R. and Samuel Oreckovsky and families of this city attended the wedding of Louis Oreckovsky of West Superior and Miss Anna Scheekman of St. Paul in the latter city on March 1.

The Taxpayers' league has appealed from the action of the county commissioners in allowing the claim of Attorney O. W. Baldwin for $609 for services in behalf of claimants in the appeals from allowance of bills for road work, surveying and section monuments. The notice of appeal is signed by C. A. Congdon, J. H. La Vaque, G. W. Buck, W. B. Silvey, John Jenswold, Jr., E. C. Gridley and W. H. Phelps.

Articles of incorporation have been filed by the Superior-Cloquet Electric railway by George B. Hudnall, Michael S. Bright and John A. Bardon of Superior. The road is to run from a point near the mouth of the Nemadji river via South Superior to Cloquet, with a spur to the end of Connor's Point and another to the mouth of Amnicon river, a total distance of thirty miles. Places of amusement to be erected on Spirit island will be reached by the road.

Henry Truelsen entered upon his duties as mayor of Duluth today. Henry Truelsen, Jr., has been appointed secretary to the mayor.

At a caucus of the new city council this afternoon, the question of the city clerkship was settled, C. E. Richardson, the incumbent, receiving thirteen votes and Fred Russell three.

THE OPEN COURT

(Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the topics of general interest, but discussion of sectarian religious differences are barred. Letters must not exceed 300 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

THINKS PASTORS MIGHT TAKE UP FIREMEN'S CAUSE

To the Editor of The Herald:

A word to the pastors of our city.

Reverend Gentlemen: Do you not believe that the conditions and environment which surround the life of the firemen of the city should be improved? Do you not believe that their welfare is worthy of a little of your attention? Do you not believe that an attempt should be made to make their home life as enjoyable as your own? Do you not believe that their children should enjoy the companionship of the father the same as your own enjoy yours? Do you not believe that these men should expect that you would devote some time to their welfare and assist them in gaining a more humane set of conditions, so they may receive a little enjoyment in life?

Would it be asking too much of you to use your influence and to talk for the double platoon system, to ask the commissioners why they cannot grant it the same as other cities have done? You can say your prayers on Sunday and work for this cause during the week; you can do good in two ways, then, whereas you do good but one way now.

The conditions that confront these men are deplorable when viewed from a religious and moral standpoint, and shall it be that those who have in keeping the welfare of the soul and the purifying of the body, shall ignore these conditions and refrain from doing all in their power to remove them?

It appears that this would be the duty of all religious-minded people and that they would expend every effort in a cause so noble and grand. So hoping that you reverends will do your share in so noble a cause, I remain,

Yours truly,
P. G. PHILLIPS.

West Duluth, March 1.

OBJECTS TO CARDS PUT UP BY THE HEALTH OFFICIALS

To the Editor of The Herald:

I am in complete sympathy with any movement that is intended to guard the public health and instruct the public in sanitary measures. But I feel that I must protest against the new cards that have been put up in the street cars, signed by the city health officer, and intended to warn the public against the dangers of the "open-faced sneeze." If you haven't noticed these cards, Mr. Editor, please do so, and I think you will agree with me that they go a bit too far in their realism. They represent a man sneezing and holding a handkerchief before his face. But the thing I object to is that they picture the discharge from the nose and another from the mouth.

I think I am reasonably non-sensitive to unpleasant sights, sounds and odors, when those can't be helped; but here is something that is distinctly and riotously offensive. I think the health department should have had better taste than to put out such cards, and certainly should be compelled to take them down. Yours for sensitive people.

CAR RIDER.

Duluth, March 2.

SOME MORE OPPOSITION TO THE MILK ORDINANCE

To the Editor of The Herald:

I am greatly interested in the proposed new milk ordinance, as I cannot help thinking how many more babies will be deprived of their milk.

As it is now there are so few of our needy families who can have milk for their children, and if the proposed ordinance is passed it is sure to increase the price of milk, so that it will be a luxury only the more fortunate can afford.

Duluth is a splendid place to live. Everybody, and especially the "Good Fellows," have been so good to the needy and always respond so generously to every call and need. So why, "Hon. City Fathers," make it any harder for the ones who are struggling so hard to get enough for their little ones, that they may grow up healthy and desirable citizens? If they could visit a few of these homes and see how eager these little ones are to get a drink of "this" milk, they would hesitate before they passed an ordinance which would surely make this life-giving food as scarce in the homes of the poor and needy as in war-stricken Belgium.

With the present efficient inspections and tests, and having the same published quarterly, it does seem all that is needed to give us good, clean milk. Let those who can afford it pay for the highest tested milk. Yours respectfully,

MRS. I. P. SWANGIE.

Duluth, March 2.

BIBLE WINE.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Enclosed find a reply to T. M. Gilmore, president of National Model License league, Louisville, Ky., whose letter of Feb. 23rd appeared in the Open Court.

I'm satisfied that his interpretation of the word wine, as used in the Bible, is literal. Such advice as he offers would tend to mislead the searchers of the Scriptures, for the term "wine" as used in the Bible is symbolical in every instance.

T. M. Gilmore's suggestion of changing the word "wine" in the Bible to read "poison," or in short, changing the Word of God as written by the inspired prophets of God, would bring him under the condemnation spoken of in Rev. xxii, 19, and such pernicious advice might cause some one to falter, thereby bringing Mr. Gilmore under the Savior's condemnation: "He who causes one of these little ones to stumble, 'twere better that a millstone be hung about his neck and he were cast into the depths of the sea."

In the prophet Hosea, God speaks of the hills pouring forth new wine in the millennial day. The Savior tells us in Matthew that we cannot keep new wine in old bottles, and in Rev. xix, "He treadeth the wine press, for the harvest is ripe." In both Testaments, the old wine is symbolical of our present churches and creeds; the new wine is symbolical of the millennial day, which will supplant the old wine, the present beliefs and creeds which will be supplanted by the Messiah's kingdom or the millennial day. I beg Mr. Gilmore to bear in mind that the poisonous intoxicants that he defends are not to be classed with the term "wine" as used in the Bible. The vineyards of the Bible are not literal grape arbors, but symbolical of the source of understanding and everlasting life.

To use the Bible to defend a literal cause as Mr. Gilmore has done is bringing the Savior and the Law of God down to a commercial level. In Matt. xxiv, our Savior tells us that both this world as we see it today and man-made laws and creeds shall pass away, and in their stead will be ushered in Messiah's kingdom, and He will rule with a rod of iron.

Hoping this will be published in the Open Court,

W. H. FINAL.

Ladysmith, Wis., Feb. 29.

WHAT DID HE SEE?

To the Editor of The Herald:

On the night of Feb. 29, 1916, about 9:16 p. m., I was surprised to see what first seemed to be a red star appear, about 1,000 feet from earth, and what seemed to be from four to five miles distant from Ely.

At first it was red, then it began to change—red, white and greenish blue; then it seemed to drop what I would imagine to be about 400 feet and turn red. The flashing of the lights at first made me think of some telegraphy code as they came at different times and at longer intervals. Then all of a sudden it disappeared, reappeared for a few seconds, rose steadily for a few seconds, and then disappeared for good. A friend of mine was with me at the same time and saw it too.

Can you tell me what it was or make a suggestion as to what it might have been? It struck me as being on some kind of an aircraft. Yours truly,

CLINTON O. RAPSON.

Ely, Minn., March 1.

The editor declines to be drawn into the airship-toy balloon controversy. This particular phenomenon might have been either one, though reason would seem to point to the latter. However, take your choice, as this is suggested without prejudice.—The Editor.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

This department does not pretend to be infallible. It will endeavor, however, to answer questions sent to it by readers of The Herald to the best of its ability, reserving the right to ignore all that are trifling or of concern only to the questioner, or that ask for advice on legal or medical questions.

To receive attention, every inquiry must bear the name and address of the person sending it. This is not wanted for publication, but as an evidence of good faith.

Alfred B. Swanson, Ely, Minn.—(1) Where can a person get a list of government lands in St. Louis and Lake counties open to settlement? Is there a map of such land to be had? (2) What must a person do after he becomes of age—that is, 21—to vote? Where should he register and how long before election? (3) If foreign born, but parents have become American citizens?

Ans.—Write to the "United States Land Office, Duluth, Minn.," and you will get all information and literature available. (2) Before a regular election certain dates are specified as "registration days," and every voter, whether he has voted before or not, is expected to go to the polling place for the voting district in which he resides, on that date, and register as a qualified elector. To do this he will have to make oath to certain questions as to his age, length of residence in the country, state, city and district, etc. For the coming presidential primary on March 14 no registration day is provided. (3) A foreign born person who comes here with his parents and whose father becomes a citizen is thereby made a citizen and is entitled to register and vote the same as native born persons.

"F. H. S. M."—Could you please state in the Open Court the exact date when the Mataafa went down in the Duluth harbor?

Ans.—Nov. 28, 1905. She was outside the harbor and trying to make an entrance.

Crew of Virginia & Rainy Lake company's Camp No. 46, Cusson, Minn.—Wish you would advise which of these sentences is correct: "I will have the watchman call the tank man and I," or "I will have the watchman call the tank man and me."

Ans.—The second sentence is correct. Most questions of this kind can be solved by changing the sentence so as to refer to only one person instead of two. For instance, make it read, "I will have the watchman call I" and it is easy to see that the wording is wrong, but it is equally easy to see that "I will have the watchman call me" is correct. The insertion of the words "the tank man and" does not change the form of the pronoun.

POEMS ASKED FOR.

"It's a Long Way to Tipperary," and one about Bill Jones which begins: "Bill Jones fell asleep on the barroom floor; he had drunk so much he could drink no more," from "A Reader" at Two Harbors, Minn.

"It's a Long Way to Tipperary," "There's a Girl in the Heart of Maryland," "In the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia," and "When You Wore a Tulip and I Wore a Big Red Rose," from "A Subscriber" at Proctor, Minn. (The last-named song will be found in The Herald of Dec. 31 last).

"Nobody Knows, Nobody Cares," from Mrs. Henry W. Johnson of Duluth.

Mary Is a Grand Old Name.

My mother's name was Mary,
She was so good and true;
Because her name was Mary,
She called me Mary, too.
She wasn't gay or airy
But plain as she could be;
I hate to meet a fairy
Who calls herself Marie.

Chorus.

For it is Mary, Mary, plain as any name can be;
But with propriety, society will say Marie,
But it was Mary, Mary, long before the fashions came,
And there is something there
That sounds so square—
It's a grand old name.

Now, when her name is Mary,
There is no falseness there;
When to Marie she'll vary,
She'll surely bleach her hair.
Though Mary's ordinary,
And Marie is fair to see,
Don't ever fear Sweet Mary—
Beware of Sweet Marie.

The Church Across the Way.

One Easter Sunday morning, while the sun was shining clear,
And good folks to the old church came, the parson's pray'rs to hear,
They little knew while seated there, upon that blessed day,
A human life was ending, in a home just o'er the way.
A man in deepest poverty, without a single friend,
Would answer soon the call of death; his life was near an end,
With no one there to comfort him, no tender words to say,
He heard the morning service, in the church across the way.

Chorus.

The minister was preaching
His good and sacred teaching;
The congregation sat in ecstasy,
The bells had just ceased ringing,
The choir was sweetly singing,
"Nearer my God to Thee."

The preacher's words touched every heart within those sacred walls.
He told how honor always thrives, and how deception falls,
The outcast in that humble home, whose life had been a blank,
Sighed softly at those truthful words, as nearer death he sank.
He knew not that the preacher was his honored brother, Ned,
Whom he'd not seen for years—not since, to hide his crime, he fled.
If he could live life o'er again, his thoughts would never stray
From each word taught that morning in the church across the way.

The Three Wishes.

In a Pullman palace smoker sat a number of bright men.
You could tell that they were drummers—nothing seemed to trouble them.
When up spoke a handsome fellow: "Come, let's have a story, boys; Something that will help to pass the time away."
"I will tell you how we'll manage," said a bright knight of the grip, "Let us have three wishes—something good and true.
We will give friend Bob the first chance, he's the oldest gathered here."
Then they listened to a wish that's always new.

Chorus:

Just to be a child again on mother's knee,
Just to hear her sing that same old melody,
Just to hear her speak in loving sympathy,
Just to kiss her lips again,
Just to have her fondle me with tender care,
Just to feel her dear, soft fingers through my hair,
There is no wish in this world that can compare
Just to be a child on mother's knee.

There they sat, those jolly drummers, not a sound that moment heard.
While their tears were slowly falling there was no man spoke a word,
For the memories of their childhood days had touched their dear kind hearts,
When as children they had played at mother's knee.
Then at last the spell was broken by another traveling man.
Your attention for a moment I do crave.
I will tell you of one precious thing so dear to one and all—
'Tis a wish we long for to the very grave.

Chorus:

Just enough of gold to keep me all my days,
Just enough with which some starving soul to save,
Just enough, I wish, to help me on my way,
Just enough to happy be,
Just enough to know I'll ne'er be poor again,
Just enough to drive away all sorrow's pain.
You may wish for many things, but all in vain.
Give to me what precious gold can buy.

The conductor passing through the train stopped in the smoking car.
He had grown quite interested in the stories told so far.
Please excuse my interrupting, but I listened with delight,
To your wishes, both of them so good and true.
Yet there is a wish that's dearer, better far than glittering gold,
Though a simple one, perhaps you all will say.
'Tis a longing that is in my heart each moment of my life;
'Tis a gleam of sunshine strewn across my way.

Chorus:

Just to open wide my little cottage door,
Just to see my baby rolling on the floor,
Just to feel that I have something to adore,
Just to be at home again.
Just to hear a sweet voice calling, "Papa dear,"
Just to know my darling wife is standing near.
You may have your gold, your lonely hearts to cheer,
But I'll take my baby, wife and home.

LOAN USURIOUS, SAYS HIGH COURT

Reverses Decree and Decides in Favor of Victor Rantala.

Reversing the judgment of the St. Louis county district court, the state supreme court today handed down a decision in favor of Victor Rantala in a suit brought against F. A. Haish and others setting aside a mortgage covering certain land in this county.

Rantala on Oct. 2, 1911, applied to Haish for a loan of $300, offering as security a mortgage on certain land then owned by him. On the same day he executed and delivered to Haish his note for $300, due Oct. 2, 1916, with interest at 7 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and executed a mortgage on his land to secure the note. At the same time he executed and delivered to Haish a note for $30, due in ten equal semi-annual installments, securing the same by a second mortgage on the same land. The last note contained a recital that it was given for services rendered by Haish in procuring a loan for Rantala. Both mortgages were recorded, the first on Oct. 3, 1911, and the second on April 26, 1912.

The supreme court holds that it clearly appears from the facts that the loan was made by Haish from his own funds and that the transaction was usurious.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Advertisement.

CARMEN SYLVA PASSES AWAY

Queen Mother of Roumania Dies at Bucharest of Pneumonia.

Well Known Throughout the World as Able Writer.

London, March 3.—The queen mother, Elizabeth of Roumania, died yesterday morning according to a Bucharest dispatch received by Reuters agency by way of Amsterdam. She had been ill of pneumonia. Under the pen name of Carmen Sylva, she was widely known as a writer. She was 73 years old.

The Dowager Queen Elizabeth of Roumania died at 7:30 o'clock Thursday morning, according to Bucharest dispatches. The funeral will take place on Sunday.

The queen mother was under the treatment of three doctors, and about three weeks ago, returned to Bucharest from Curtea De Arges, in Wallachia, where King Charles is buried. A week ago, she became ill and inflammation of the lungs developed quickly. Early Wednesday morning there seemed to be a slight improvement but soon the queen became unconscious and died within a few hours. King Ferdinand and Queen Marie spent much time with the dowager queen.

The pen name "Carmen Sylva" by which the Queen Mother Elizabeth of Roumania was most widely known, was chosen by her in expression of her love for song and the woods. She was one of the most charming figures in the courts of Europe, and practically the only one of recent generations to gain fame as a poetess.

Robust Country Girl.

In her own words, she was born "far from a throne," for although she was a princess of Wied, one of the many tiny principalities with which Germany abounded, her youth was that of an ordinary robust country girl who learned to cook and sew and who romped in the open with her companions at the village school. She was born Dec. 29, 1843, and in her childhood she showed predilection for the poetical fancies that had such an influence on her later life. She absorbed innumerable fairy stories and, with some of her own imagination added, she delighted her playmates with her fancies. At home she received Spartan training, and with a father who was an invalid for life, and a brother who was incurably ill, she experienced many sorrows and hardships.

Upon the death of her brother, the princess was sent away to visit her aunt, the Grand Duchess Helena of Russia, who took her traveling to various parts of Europe. It was during this tour, however, that the princess herself was stricken with typhus fever, and when she recovered it was to learn that her father had passed away. She was deeply affected by the sorrow in her family, and music and poetry became her only consolation. "Must all I love on earth be borne to the grave?" is the burden of a mournful poem that she wrote at the time of her father's death.

Among her friends about her home on the Rhine, "the little wild rose-bud of Wied" had evinced an almost savage dislike to matrimony, and had often exclaimed: "I do not want to marry unless I can be queen of Roumania." The principality of Roumania had at that time just been founded and there was no sense in the young princess's remark except that she believed it a sufficiently safe way to say that she didn't want to marry at all.

Remarkable Romance.

There is a remarkable romance attached to the fact that some years later her suitor became Prince Charles of Hohenzollern, who was refused on the same fanciful pretext that the princess would not marry unless she could be queen of Roumania. In 1868, Prince Charles was chosen ruler of Roumania, and in the autumn of the next year he returned to Wied to remind the Princess Elizabeth of her desire to rule over that kingdom.

Married, and settled in the palace at Bucharest, the princess threw herself with great ardor into the life of the country. She learned to read and write Roumanian, made herself acquainted with the needs and requirements of the land, and became so beloved that the people called her "The Little Mother." Out of her own private purse she founded schools, hospitals and art galleries, and devoted practically her whole life to philanthropy. Although she had practiced her literary talents in a limited way for many years, it was not until the death of her first, and only child, at the age of 4, that much of her work was published. Though her poems lose much from the translation, one glimpse of a favorite theme is as follows:

"The fairest word on earth that's heard,
On human lips the fairest word,
Is mother.
To whom such name shall once belong,
High honor hers her whole life long,
A mother.
But all her earthly joys are o'er,
Who is and then who is no more
A mother."

Translated Folk Songs.

She translated into German the favorite Roumanian folk songs, and wrote some short novels and dramas. Some of her publications are: "Thoughts of a Queen," "Edleen Vaughan," "Shadows on Life's Dial" and "A Real Queen's Fairy Book."

She was an indefatigable worker. Interviewers who have been received at her palace have found her answering her innumerable letters herself on a typewriter—four of which machines she had in constant use, equipped for writing in English, Roumanian, French and German. Once a pupil of Rubinstein, she was skilled in the playing of the piano, and she was also gifted as an artist.

Having lost her own little girl, she pictured herself as mother to millions of Roumanian children, and among them she was held in great affection. As to woman's work, Carmen Sylva often expressed herself in interviews. "A woman," she said, "is made for the home. Her hands should be trained to do beautiful things, things which she can do by her own fireside, and there her husband should find her."

Her husband, King Charles I. of Roumania, died in October, 1914, past 75 years of age. Since then the queen mother herself has been in ill-health, suffering particularly from cataract in both eyes.

AUTO ICE RACES SUNDAY---MAYBE

Unless Weather Interferes Long Expected Contests Will Take Place.

Automobile ice races will be staked on the bay Sunday afternoon—maybe.

If weather conditions permit, and there is no snowfall between now and Sunday, the schedule outlined by the Duluth Automobile Dealers' association, at a special meeting in the St. Louis hotel last evening, will be carried out.

Ray Buchanan, chairman of the ice racing committee, announced this morning that the races will start at 1:30 o'clock Sunday, providing there is nothing to prevent them in the way of a big snowfall or a sudden thaw. Weather conditions at present are splendid for the staging of the races, he said, and indications are that the program will go through without a hitch.

There will be three events for all racing cars, including 30-mile, 20-mile and 10-mile races, Mr. Buchanan announced this morning. In addition, 10-mile and 5-mile races between motorsleds will be staged between the main events.

The course will be laid out this afternoon in front of the boat club and members of the Duluth Automobile Dealers' association will today ask for permission to use the club building during Sunday afternoon. Detailed plans about the complete program for Sunday, including the list of prizes, will be announced tomorrow, Mr. Buchanan said this morning.

The ice races were scheduled to take place during the automobile show week early in February, but they were postponed on account of ice conditions.

Ashland Baby Welfare Week.

Ashland, Wis., March 3.—In connection with the National Baby Welfare week to be observed in all parts of the country by the woman's clubs, the Monday club, assisted by the Catholic Ladies' Reading circle and the various mothers' clubs and neighborhood clubs, will hold an educational exhibit in the city hall next Tuesday and Wednesday.

TWO RUNAWAYS IN ONE EVENING

Two exciting runaways kept the police busy for a while last night, but they were caught before any serious damage resulted.

A horse owned by Joseph Borodsky of 524 West First street ran from East Fourth street down Second avenue east and through the scrap iron yards at the foot of the street. He was stopped by a railroad brakeman after he dashed through the Northern Pacific yard for five blocks, smashing the cutter to bits.

A few minutes later a team of horses dashed up to a store on Superior street between Second and Third avenues east, collapsing on the sidewalk within a few feet of the windows of the establishment.

Telephone messages to headquarters informed police that the second team had broken away from its driver near Thirty-second avenue east and London road, and had come all the way without guidance. They were uninjured.

Winter Suits and Overcoats

Are Selling at Half Price

—AT—

The Big Duluth

50% Reductions on The Big Duluth's Winter Suits and Overcoats in this era of high woolen prices is an historical event.

Nobody can escape the higher prices which are sure to come next fall, so we advise you to invest now in one or more of these handsome Suits or Overcoats that we are selling at exactly Half the former prices.

Just a Word—

These Half Price Days are drawing to a close and if you want to get the most out of this great opportunity, Saturday is the day for you to be on hand and choose

$30.00 Suits and Overcoats for only---$15.00

$25.00 Suits and Overcoats for only---$12.50

$20.00 Suits and Overcoats for only---$10.00

$15.00 Suits and Overcoats for only---$ 7.50

The BIG DULUTH
WILLIAMSON & MENDENHALL

Special—$1.00 Negligee Shirts, only 45c.

"TIZ" FOR FEET

Instant Relief for Sore, Tired, Tender Feet; for Aching, Swollen, Calloused Feet and Corns

"Pull, Johnny, Pull! My sore, tired, swollen feet just ache for 'Tiz.'"

You're footsick! Your feet feel tired, puffed up, chafed, aching, sweaty, and they need "Tiz."

"Tiz" makes feet remarkably fresh and sore-proof. "Tiz" takes the pain and burn right out of corns, callouses and bunions. "Tiz" is the grandest foot-gladdener the world has ever known.

Get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" at any drug store and end foot torture for a whole year. Never have tired, aching, sweaty, smelly feet; your shoes will fit fine and you'll only wish you had tried "Tiz" sooner. Accept no substitute.—Advertisement.

AMUSEMENTS.

TONIGHT
TOMORROW AFTERNOON & NIGHT ONLY—
Baron H. S. De Malaussene
Adjutant I-er Regiment Etranger
WILL GIVE HIS VIVID TALKS ON THE GREAT WAR, WITH THE FIRST AUTHENTIC PICTURES OF ALLIES' SIDE OF THE WAR.
"FIGHTING FOR FRANCE"
ORPHEUM STRAND THEATRUM

ORPHEUM STRAND THEATRUM
Com'encing Sunday Afternoon
4 Days Only—10c and 20c
GOOD MUSIC.
Celebrated Players Film Co. presents an elaborate film drama based on Israel Zangwill's famous stage success—
THE MELTING POT
With the Noted Star
WALKER WHITESIDE

NEW ALWAYS A GOOD SHOW GRAND 11 A. M. UNTIL 11 P. M.
The Actor and the Italian
KELLY & CALVIN
Alvarez & Martell, Willing & Jordan.
ROY & ARTHUR Fun in a Dining Car.
Selig Tribune News.
Concert Orchestra. Photoplays de Luxe
MATS 10c ANY SEAT NITES 10-20

KENNEDY SQUARE TONIGHT
F. Hopkinson Smith's famous novel
—Starring—
ANTONIO MORENO and MURIEL OSTRICHE in the Title Roles.
ANY SEAT, 10c.
ZELDA

LYCEUM THEATER ALL WEEK
Return of Duluth's Most Popular Play.
OLIVER MOROSCO PROFFERS THE MOST TALKED OF PLAY OF THE CENTURY; SUCCESS OF SUCCESSES
THE BIRD OF PARADISE
BY RICHARD WALTON TULLY.
PRICES
Nights and Saturday Matinee—25c to $1.50.
Four Days Com. Sunday Matinee.
Mat. Daily, "Girls from the Follies."

REX THEATER BEAUTIFUL Today & Saturday
Hundreds Have Already Seen
DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS
—in—
"HIS PICTURE IN THE PAPERS."
Two Days and Nights Remain.
BILLIE BURKE in "PEGGY"
Sunday up to and including Wednesday.
SPECIAL.—Mr. F. A. Miller, the Harry Lauder of Head of the Lakes, will sing Scotch songs in costume during engagement of "Peggy." Lauder's latest song, "Nannie," one of his numbers.

LYRIC HOME OF PARAMOUNT FRIDAY & SATURDAY
"TRAIL OF THE LONESOME PINE"
Miss Charlotte Walker
For two hours the audience sees Miss Walker as June Tolliver, daughter of Devil Judd Tolliver, head of a clan of feudists of the Virginia mountains. You are transported to the rugged, daring life of the moonshiners. It is a Jesse L. Lasky production that leaves but little to the imagination.
WILLIAM FARNUM, SUNDAY, IN "FIGHTING BLOOD"

Society • Women's Clubs • Music • Drama

THE WOMAN'S COUNCIL decided at its meeting held this morning in the library clubroom to join the Minnesota Federation of Woman's clubs and to adopt a set of rules for the government of the council. Mrs. H. J. Grannis proposed that the council join the federation as it is doing work along the lines of the state organization but by not being connected with it cannot be of service in a large way.

Miss Frances Earhart moved that the chair appoint a committee of five to present a set of rules of procedure at the next meeting of the council. Mrs. C. E. Spring, the president, appointed the following as members of the committee: Miss Earhart, Mrs. F. J. O'Donnell, Mrs. A. H. Brocklehurst, Mrs. H. J. Grannis and Mrs. C. Francis Colman. Heretofore the council has been conducted without rules, but the members were unanimous in their opinion that the time had come for more definite ways than those of custom.

Indorses Milk Ordinance.

The council indorsed the proposed milk ordinance that is now before the city council for discussion and which was explained by Mrs. M. R. Baldwin of the city health department; decided to invite Mr. Prosser of Minneapolis, who is an educational survey expert, to come to Duluth for a lecture to the general public; heard a report from Miss Helen Potter on the day nursery that is conducted by the King's Daughters; and heard a talk on "The Associated Charities; Principles and Method of Operation," by E. A. Silberstein.

The board of education is interested in the proposed talk on an educational survey. Mr. Prosser, formerly of Boston and New York, conducted the school survey made recently in Minneapolis, which was so satisfactory that he was engaged as secretary of the Dunwoody institute. The Woman's council will pay the traveling expenses of Mr. Prosser whose lecture will be free to the general public.

Closely allied with the proposed visit of the survey expert, was the report of the educational committee of the Woman's council, which was read by Miss Earhart for Mrs. John U. Sebenius, the chairman. The report told of the visits made by members of the committee to the city schools that have equipments for home economics and of the good results that are being obtained in the classes in cooking and sewing.

Mr. Silberstein's Talk.

Mr. Silberstein, president of the Associated Charities, gave an interesting account of the work of the organization by answering ten pertinent questions that are often asked. He told how scientific and business-like methods are applied to social needs, making the Associated Charities an administrative agency rather than a charitable organization, and gave examples to show how co-operation, records and the striking at the causes of poverty prevent fraud, the overlapping of help and put families and individuals in positions in which they can help themselves.

Letters from Moses Clapp and Clarence B. Miller expressed their willingness to give favorable consideration to the petitions from the Woman's council to help pass the Smith-Hughes motion picture bill.

Mrs. H. J. Grannis read an abstract from the address which E. J. Ward gave before the American Civic association at Washington, D. C., Dec. 29, 915. Mr. Ward in his talk on "Community Center Organization for National Defense and World Adjustment," appealed from a defense with social centers for the ground work, rather than a defense of steel. Since Jan. 1 Mr. Ward has been a member of the federal bureau of education. He is also adviser of community center development of the University of Wisconsin and was formerly secretary of the National Community Center association. He said in part:

"To use the common school system as the machinery of nation-wide, lifelong membership organization of all Americans is, obviously, the only practical way of realizing this essential meaning of citizenship, not as a matter of mere emotional appeal or pretense, but as the great central fact of our national being. For us systematically to respond to the call of the colors as they fly over every American public schoolhouse is at once the first and most important step in adequate preparedness for any emergency, and the one way of our equipment to meet the no less searching tests of peace.

"It is of the schoolhouse as the forum of the continent-wide deliberative organization that President Wilson said: and it seems to me that the schoolhouses dotted here, there and everywhere over the great expanse of this nation will some day prove to be the roots of that great tree of liberty that shall spread for the sustenance, the protection, the emancipation of all mankind."

Meeting Postponed.

The social for the Primary Light bearers of the First Presbyterian church, which was to have been held this evening, has been postponed on account of the death of Mrs. Robert Callan. The regular meeting of the Junior Light Bearers has also been postponed on account of Mrs. Callan's death.

You Can't Work with hand or brain when the body is poorly nourished. Get warmth and strength for the day's work by eating for breakfast Shredded Wheat with hot milk. Contains all the body-building material in the whole wheat grain prepared in a digestible form. Its crisp goodness is a delight to the palate and a life-giver to tired brain and jaded stomach. Made at Niagara Falls, N. Y.

ASK FOR and GET
HORLICK'S
THE ORIGINAL
MALTED MILK
Cheap substitutes cost YOU same price.

Drama League's Two Playlets By Unknown Duluthians Surprise and Delight Little Theater Audience

"What It Gets Down To" and "Her Sacred Duty," given by the Drama league players last night, were the equals, at least in the interest they aroused, of any of the plays that have been given at the Little theater in the two seasons since it was opened, with no apologies to George Bernard Shaw or the other playwrights who have been represented. The audience was not called upon to make any allowances for amateur playwrights or for amateur actors, either, and was permitted to simply enjoy the two little dramas.

The plays were in such marked contrast that justice in voting on which play was to receive the $50 prize, called up the question, "Which is the better representative of its type?"

When the curtains parted for "What It Gets Down To," Mrs. Frederic A. Prince, as Ann Cuthbert, wearing a dainty negligee pink and a becoming boudoir cap, is asleep on a davenport, tired out by her year's work with social centers. Ted (Laird Goodman) is bending over her when Josephine (Miss Lucille Boyer) enters, fresh from business triumphs in New York and wearing a plaid suit, a plain small hat and a manner that equals her costume in masculinity.

Uses Woman's Wiles.

Josephine's disappointment is keen when she learns, after Ted had been sent on his way, that Anne has made a success of her social center work by means of womanly wiles and mild flirtations, examples of which she sees when Mr. Brand (Frank G. Dunn), principal of the high school, who calls to complain of the social center work at his school, is sent away in the humor of a seraph by Ann's appealing and flattering way.

Josephine has no patience with men who will not accept women on the same footing but insist on playing the role of protectors. Ann says men like women because they are different. "Honestly, Jo, what would women do if men did not pick up their handkerchiefs?" she asks. "They would soon learn not to drop them," is the matter-of-fact reply. The principal, by the way, seems highly pleased to pick up Ann's handkerchief.

But all the arguments amount to nothing, as Ted's declaration of his love for Ann is not repulsed. And less than a year before Ted had told Josephine he had something to say to her but she would not give him encouragement enough to let him even tell it. The proposal scene with Josephine present, is a delicious bit of farce in an otherwise "straight comedy."

"Let me be your protector, Ann," he says.

"Remember, Ann, you won't always be tired," breaks in Josephine.

"We will build a palace, Ann," he says.

"Which means an East End apartment, Ann," is Josephine's aside——"And it will have a kitchen, and that means three meals a day."

"And It Sounds So Nice."

But the strong minded young woman after hearing all the roseate plans, closes the scene with the words, "And the worst of it is that it sounds quite nice."

"Her Sacred Duty."

"Her Sacred Duty" centers around an English woman's feeling that it is her duty to send to the front all the men she can persuade or bully into enlisting. Her husband is too old, her son too young and the butler has a weak chest. The mother (Miss Lucile Bradley) attends enlistment teas and can't resist stopping to see the khaki boys as they march to "Tipperary." The father (Harvey Hoshour) says "Patriotism means something more than singing 'Tipperary,' yes, and even than wearing khaki," and explains that he is serving his country by helping England and her allies to buy flour at a reasonable price.

In contrast to the enthusiasm of Gerald, the son (Gladson Fowler) is the terror of the returned recruit (Leo Schmied), who has seen men killed and heard their moans, both on the battle field and in the hospital. His shattered nerves and his horror of recruiting men to go through what he has gone through, or perhaps worse, is as powerful an argument for peace as could be presented.

The butler, even after hearing the returned recruit's account of the terrors of war, enlists, as it is a question of facing the enemy or the contempt of his fiance, Louisa, the maid (Miss Amy Walker), on whose side are Emma, the cook (Miss Esther Coffin), the mistress and all the women of England.

Just after the father has received a note telling him his son has evaded the age requirement and has enlisted, cries of an extra are heard from the street, but the mother, still undaunted, says of her sending her son to war: "It is my sacred duty."

The authors will not be known until after the third performance on Saturday night, when the ballot boxes will be unlocked, the votes counted and the envelopes containing the names of the writers will be opened. A prize of $50 will be given to the one having the greater number of votes. Each member of the drama league is entitled to one vote, which must be signed. The plays will be presented tonight and tomorrow night at 8:15 o'clock. George W. Morgan briefly outlined the contest last evening. The plays were coached by Francis J. Webb.

MISS LUCILLE BOYER,
Who Did Excellent Work as "Josephine" in "What It Gets Down To."

EVENTS OF TONIGHT AND TOMORROW.

The Woodland Neighborhood club will meet at the Cobb school at 8 o'clock tonight.

A concert will be given by Giuseppe Fabbrini at the First Methodist church at 8:15 o'clock tonight.

The Knights of Columbus will give a dance tonight at the Spalding hotel.

And temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, will give the annual ball in honor of the Shrine girls tonight at the Masonic temple.

The Saturday club will meet at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the library clubroom.

Drama league plays at the Little theater.

Entertainment at First Christian Church

An entertainment staged by Mrs. James Allen Davis will be put on tonight at First Christian church. The cast of characters is as follows: Professor Makeover, inventor of the Remodelscope, Le Grand Pace; Josephine Jane Green, the president, Mrs. James Allen Davis; Prisoilla Abigail Hobbs, the secretary, Mrs. Gordon Sangster; Cynthia Priscilla Jones, the treasurer, Mrs. R. G. Mace; Ophelia Arvilla Pitkins, vigilance committee, Mrs. F. H. Connors; Patience Desire Mann, Miss Pearl Krowitz; Rachel Rebecca Short, chairman committee on petitions, Mrs. Frank Swan; Calamity Jane Higgins, Mrs. Aubrey Tidball; Portia Olivia Bennett, affirmative in debate, Miss Dorothy Patton; Penelope Gertrude Doolittle, negative in debate, Miss Esther Tischer; Betsy Bobbins, recites original poem, Mrs. L. Hagler; Jennie Ball Bump, Miss Margaret Dowd; Francis Lucretia Goodhope, Miss Lucille Hagley; Jerusha Matilda Spriggins, Miss Ruth Douglas; Martha Elvira Blathers, Miss Belle Austin; Florence Rebecca Corey, Miss Julia Ehlenbach; Nerissa Ethel Bodkins, sings in duet, Mrs. Arthur; Eliza Jane Beeswax, Mrs. A. Douglas; Anastasia Melissa Huggins, speech on women's rights, Miss Hazel Cordner; Sophronia Ariminta Long, Miss Blanche Connors; Cleopatra Belle Brown, sings touching song, Mrs. V. B. Cing; Mercy Desire Adams, reads market report, Miss Margaret Monsen.

Others who will appear on the program are Mrs. G. K. Compton, Francis Arthur, Olive Arthur, Harry Davis, R. G. Mace, Miss Sodahl, and Erling Sodahl.

Meeting Postponed.

The regular meeting of the literary department of the Twentieth Century club will be postponed until further notice. Mrs. Barker, who will speak on the Japanese drama, wishes to give her talk in her Japanese tea house later in the spring when the weather permits.

Shower for Bride.

A bridal shower was held last evening at the home of Mrs. H. Osdahl in honor of Miss Lily Osdahl, whose wedding to William Allie will take place this month.

Events of Interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer N. Whyte will entertain some of the younger married people at bridge Monday and Tuesday evenings at their home, 2232 East First street.

* * *

Miss Jennie Winer, 2116 West Third street, entertained members of Fiddlesticks club last night at her home. An election of officers resulted in the following being chosen: President, Jennie Winer; vice president, Bertha Reed; secretary, Ella Currier; treasurer, Mary Shaughnessy. Other members of the club are: Olive Scott, Beatrice Miller, Rose Ceass, Anna Wassen and Alice McFadden.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Bertha Reed, 4403 McCullough street.

* * *

The entertainment committee of the Woodland Mothers' club met yesterday at the home of Mrs. E. E. Fuller, 204 West Winona street, and decided to hold a silver tea next Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. at the E. R. Cobb school. All women of Woodland are invited to come and bring friends. It is requested that all come dressed in a particular character or as a class of people.

* * *

Eleanor Colter, East Fifth street, will entertain at a children's party tomorrow afternoon in honor of her birthday anniversary.

* * *

Mrs. M. M. McCabe, Roslyn road, entertained a few friends informally at the tea hour this afternoon.

* * *

Zenith branch, No. 114, National Association of Letter Carriers, will give a pre-Lenten ball Monday night at the Auditorium.

* * *

The following members of the B. T. W. club formed a party that attended the Lyceum Wednesday evening to see "The Bird of Paradise":

Mrs. Jenkins.
Misses—
Sarah Hancock, Agnes Doyle,
Jean Brindamour, Thordys Norman,
Margaret Smith, Carolyn Brindamour,
Gertrude Stoddard,

Beerhalter-Dunn.

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. John H. Beerhalter, 22 Sixth avenue east, that the marriage of their daughter, Claire Amelia, to Timothy Jamison Dunn will take place Monday, March 6.

Efficient Housekeeping

BY Henrietta D Grauel

Introducing the Chameleon Fish

PERHAPS you have met this splendid thirty-pounder under the nickname of tile-fish; if not, make the acquaintance speedily, else your neighbor will be boasting she has enjoyed a delectable dish ahead of you. Since Uncle Sam and his staff of United States fish commissioners are bending their efforts to call the attention of everyone to the merits of this deepsea fish we can do no less than recognize the newcomers.

In a government bulletin recently issued there are a number of excellent recipes that may be used for tile-fish or other fish steaks.

One of these is tile-fish Marseillaise: Fry two onions chopped fine in two tablespoons of olive or salad oil, add four tomatoes and one clove of garlic, crushed, salt, pepper and a cup of water or fish stock. When this is boiling put in the slices of fish, cover and simmer twenty minutes. Remove the fish to a platter and garnish with points of toasted buttered bread. Boil the liquid remaining down a trifle, strain it and pour it over the fish. Another way to serve the fish after it is cooked as directed above is to dress it with a good cream sauce containing Parmesan cheese. Sprinkle Parmesan cheese over the top, brown in oven and serve hot in same dish.

Tile-fish salad may be made from any bits of cold fish remaining; flake and chill it and place in salad dish with garnish of cress and lettuce. Season with pepper, salt and vinegar: Brown two tablespoons of butter in a saucepan and add one tablespoon of vinegar; into this place chopped beets, but do not let them heat. Scatter over the salad, with capers and sliced pickles and hard-boiled eggs to suit taste.

Questions and Answers.

Please give me directions for making library paste that will keep.—E. K.

Reply—Beat a cup of flour to a smooth paste with cold water and pour on boiling water as in making starch; pour through a sieve to remove any lumps. Cook three minutes and cool; add a teaspoon of carbolic acid and place in wide-mouthed bottles with tight corks.

* * *

Why do crullers crack open in frying?—Mrs. Jacque.

Reply—The dough is mixed too stiff.

* * *

Kindly tell me a quick way to make cottage cheese from small amounts of thickened milk?—Flo.

Reply—Two quarts of milk will make about one and a half pints of cheese. Drain it over night through a cloth bag. Turn it into a bowl and mix with a teaspoon of salt and half a cup of thick, sweet cream. Chill before serving. Cottage cheese is liked with canned pears and is often served with stewed dried fruit.

(Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.)

Tomorrow—Prize Raisin Bread.

Former Duluthian Sings in Pasadena

MISS RUTH MARKELL.

Miss Ruth Markell, soprano, formerly of Duluth, was heard at the meeting of the Shakespeare club in Pasadena on Valentine's day when an unusually beautiful program was given. Miss Markell sang a number of the old ballads, especially appropriate to the valentine season, and as she sang living pictures, posed by groups of young people illustrated her songs.

Miss Markell recently went to Southern California from New York, where she was a pupil of Herbert Witherspoon. In Berlin she studied with Lilli Lehman.

Seventh Twilight Concert!
DULUTH ORCHESTRA.
NEW ARMORY,
Sunday, March 4th, at 5 p. m.
—Soloists—
Faith Helen Rogers, Pianist.
Charles Helmer, Trumpet.
Prices: Reserved seats, 50 cents.
General admission, 30 cents.

Bed Time Tales

By Clara Ingram Judson

Slippy Shows Flitter His Old Home

BEGINNING with that first all-night game of tag, Flitter and Slippy had many a jolly game together. Every evening when the safe darkness covered the forest and swamp, Flitter would slip out from his home and Slippy would come from his and they would meet for their play.

Why did they play only at night, do you ask?

Dear me, hadn't you guessed that? They had to play at night! Little woods creatures, such as they were, would not be safe in the broad daylight. Of course they sometimes went out in the daytime. Slippy Whitemouse was more apt to be out by day than Flitter Flying-squirrel. But those daytime trips were very little fun. For the owl and the hawk have keen, keen eyes, and a tiny mouse is never safe. But at night the dangers are much less and even a mouse may take some chances and play in the shadows of the trees.

After Flitter and Slippy had played till they were breathless one evening, they sat down under the curve of a log for a rest.

"I like to play with you," announced Slippy, when he could speak.

"Then why didn't you come up and find me before?" demanded Flitter. "You say you used to live near here."

"When I lived here, it wasn't running around hunting playmates," laughed Slippy. "I lived near here away last spring and neither you nor I were old enough to play then!"

"Where did you live?" asked Flitter, curiously.

"Come and I'll show you," replied Slippy, and away they ran, past trees and stumps, over leaves and sticks till they came to a big, spready grapevine —a wild grapevine that sprawled itself all over a dead tree.

"There's where I lived," said Slippy, and he proudly waved his hand towards the vine.

"But where?" demanded Flitter. "I know you didn't live right out on the vine—the hawks would catch you!"

"Of course we didn't," laughed Slippy. "Here! I'll show you!" He led

They sat down under the curve of a log for a rest.

the way up the twisted stems of the grapevine, till they had gone about five feet from the ground. Then he pointed proudly to an old bird's nest that nestled in the fork of the vine.

"That's the place where I was born," he said, "and a good home it was, too —till the owl tore off the top, as you see! It was an old catbird nest, but my mother made it over into a house for us. But when the owl spoiled it we had to move. Some other night I'll show you where we live now." And then they began their play again.

(Copyright—Clara Ingram Judson.)

Tomorrow—Freddy Graytop Finds a New Eating Place.

Peggy Peabody's Observations

Courtship Days

One would hardly credit that the days of the honeymoon were the ones in which other marital felicity was either established upon a firm foundation or doomed to shipwreck on the shoals which make their treacherous first appearance when least expected. But judging from the woman's standpoint it is during the honeymoon that brides learn for the first time of the disagreeable traits of their husbands.

And men, if you may believe your ears, never until they have been married a month or two awake to the consciousness that their wives have tempers or that any woman could know so little about the management of woman's proper sphere—the home, as their particular brides, who usually attempt a brave showing of housewifely abilities. In the early stages of one's married life is the time no doubt to meet the little twists and kinks in the nature and training of the other with harshness and sneers on the one side and tears and complaints on the other, or whether they as two persons whose interests are or should be one shall endeavor to adapt themselves as far as may be to their differences in bringing up.

It seems to me that there is much to be learned before marriage and that the courtship days are as crucial as the honeymoon ones. The difference is that during the honeymoon days you have opportunity to withdraw and in the other you must make the best of it or else be involved in a more or less unpleasant scandal.

There are many things that show in a lover or sweetheart that are as straws bending in the wind. We pass them by, excusing them and making light of them before marriage, and in less than a week after we are crying out against them as though they were something that never had form or being until the wedding ceremony gave them life.

It is all very well to give heed to the honeymooning days and to endeavor to adapt yourself to the new conditions and contingencies, but the time for observation and careful weighing of undisputed lacks and peculiarities in each other is during the courtship days. That is the time for a man and woman to learn each other's faults.

Only Fine, Flavoury Teas are used to produce the famous
"SALADA"
blends. Every leaf is fresh, fragrant full of its natural deliciousness. Sold in sealed packets only. B 107

Abram's New Store
17 and 19 E. Superior St.—Half Block East of Lake Ave.

SPECIAL FOR SATURDAY
Spring Suits
Such as you would pay $22.50 for, Saturday only—$12.50

New Spring Dresses
In a large assortment in silks. You would pay $22.50 elsewhere, for Saturday only..... $9.95

Millinery Special
100 Beautiful Spring Hats—just one of a kind. For hats like this you would pay $8.00 to $10.00 elsewhere, special Saturday. $3.48
Other Beautiful Hats from $5.00 to $15.00.

ASK TO SEE OUR
Special $40 Single Stone Diamond Rings
They are absolutely perfect in quality, color and form, and are mounted in finely wrought Gold and Platinum settings.
Our stock of single stone diamond rings ranges from $25 to $1,000.
The HALLMARK Store
Bagley & Company
Jewelers and Silversmiths
315 WEST SUPERIOR STREET
Established 1885

Acacian Assembly Dance.

The last of the winter series of dances given by the Acacian assembly was held last night at Coffin's academy. Miller's orchestra furnished the music. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kreitter, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Warrzer, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Pattinson, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. White, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. How, Jr., Miss Carrie Durley, Miss Marjorie Willard, Miss Winifred Warner, Miss Elizabeth Roberts, Miss Isabel Mendenhall, Miss Agnes Drannen, Miss Rena Hector, Miss Olive Kreitter, Miss Grace Vroman, Miss Lena Bobko, Miss Vera Bronson, Miss Ethel Gordon of Superior, Miss Glen Bartholomew of Superior, Miss Marion Macdonald, Miss Anne Sheehan, Miss Irma Levin, Miss Mildred Bondy, Miss Adelle Johnson, Miss Olive McTague, Miss Jane McLeod, Miss Mildred Sherwood, Miss Etta Newstrand, Miss Myrtle Pierce, Miss Louise Emerson, Miss Louise Sands, Miss Olga Sands, Miss Georgie Evans, Miss Margaret Byron, J. H. Trux, A. R. Kent, W. N. Totman, W. A. Putnam, Ray W. Fenton, Stanley L. Mack, H. A. Brown, H. K. Pratt, F. L. Koehler, W. R. Armstrong, Lee R. Ross of Superior, C. L. Erlanson of Superior, Harry W. Erlanson of Superior, Stanley Gilpin, A. B. Rosenkranz, A. B. Kapplin, Dr. M. R. Zack, B. W Maxeiner, L. L. Logan, C. Alger Anderson, Angus Grant, J. Glen Harris, Emil Nelsen, W. F. French, R. E. Wheeler, H. E. Bergstrom, L. W. Gochneur and Horace J. Krause.

The committee in charge was J. Harris Trux, B. W. Maxeiner, W. A. Putnam and Stanley L. Mack.

Seventh Twilight Concert Next Sunday

The seventh concert of the twilight series will be given by the Duluth orchestra, Fred G. Bradbury, conductor, at the new Armory, Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

An excellent program, comprising several popular favorites, has been prepared. It includes Haydn's "Surprise" symphony, which will be heard for the first time in Duluth. The symphony, which is in four movements, will be given complete.

The orchestra has acquitted itself most creditably in the performance of symphonic compositions, which has tended to a keener appreciation of this class of music.

But three more concerts will be given after Sunday, when the present season will close, and the orchestra will make a short tour, playing in several of the neighboring towns.

The soloists Sunday will be Faith Helen Rogers, pianist, and Charles Helmer, trumpet.

Fabbrini Recital.

Guiseppe Fabbrini, who will appear in piano recital tonight at the First M. E. church, is just beginning a southern tour of many engagements, which include an appearance before the Matinee Musicale at Lincoln, Neb., next week and a recital in Omaha on Tuesday next.

In April Mr. Fabbrini will appear before the Matinee Musicale in Toronto, Can.

Music lovers are looking forward with much interest to Mr. Fabbrini's recital tonight as he comes with many successful appearances to his credit, and his program is built to appeal to all discerning musicians.

Y. W. C. A. Notes.

Rev. R. E. Sayles of the First Baptist church will speak at the Y. W. C. A. vesper service Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. This service is under the auspices of the Philathea Union of Du-

SIDE TALKS

By RUTH CAMERON

Why Some Men Fail

ONE day last summer I happened to be sitting on the bank of a river in the company of an expert swimmer, while a group of boys were disporting themselves in the water.

I asked him who the best swimmers were and he pointed out two or three whom he considered promising performers.

"But what about Roger?" I asked, surprised that the one who had won the little contest, which they had just finished, should not have been included.

"I don't think he'll ever amount to anything as a swimmer."

"Why? He won the race."

He Likes to Do What He Knows How to Do Well.

"Because he's too fond of doing what he already knows how to do. Did you notice that he uses the breast stroke entirely? I've tried to teach him the speed strokes, but they are pretty hard to get at first, so after he made one or two tries he went back to the thing he could do well and did that. People like that never get anywhere. There were two or three chaps in that race that can do the breast stroke as well as he an dthey might have beaten him if they had kept to the breast stroke, but they were trying to get the speed strokes. They weren't satisfied to tamely do what they already knew how to do, they want to learn to do bigger things. They're the kind of chaps that will make good in swimming—and other things, too."

The other night in very different surroundings I was reminded of this scene. It was at a dancing class. The dancing master had been trying to teach some new steps to a group of men, and had turned them loose to practice with their partners.

He Wasn't Graceful But He Will Be.

Two of these I especially noticed, one, because he was so painstakingly working over the new steps. He didn't look particularly graceful and he kept getting out of time, because he hadn't quite gotten the hang of them yet, but it was plain that he wouldn't give in until he learned to do the new steps as smoothly and gracefully as he had always done the old.

The other man I noticed, because he looked so graceful and seemed to be getting along so nicely. I looked more closely and found out why—he was doing the old steps that he already knew.

It is easy to judge which will ultimately be the better dancer of the new steps.

She Knew She Needed It to Round Her Out.

A working woman I know has recently been moved from one department to another. The new work involves meeting and mixing with people. "Sorry?" I asked. I knew she was a very quiet person. "No," she said. "Very glad. I always hated to try to mix with people and this will round me out."

That is a woman who will go far, and for that matter already has.

The desire to keep on doing the things we already know how to do and do reasonably well is part of the normal human instinct to follow the line of least resistance. But alas! the line of least resistance is almost invariably the line of least accomplishment, too. It never leads to the heights. It is those who have the will power and the wisdom to turn their backs steadfastly on the line of least resistance who reach the heights of attainment.

"God keeps His second best for those will not have His best."

(Protected by Adams Newspaper Service.)

Don't Let Soap Spoil Your Hair

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulsified cocoanut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.—Advertisement.

luth and the Y. W. C. A., and open to all young women. A song service will precede the address of the afternoon.

Mr. Sayles' subject will be "My Need of Christ and Christ's Need of Me."

* * *

On Monday night, March 6, the L. U. B. A. club will give two plays in the assembly hall of the Y. W. C. A.

The first play is entitled "Letty's Return" and the cast is as follows:

Mrs. Ruggs.....Lennetto Hanbuer
Amanda Alton.....Mary Forseman
Phoebe Hicks.....Lillian Carlson
Ruth Carey.....Ollie Wanvick
Celeste .....Ida Forseman
Lauretta Montgomery.....Alma Olsen

The scene is laid in a simple country home at the time of the return of the daughter, Letty, who has been on the stage.

The second play is "Not a Man in the House."

Mrs. Maria Bings.....Vildie Glenn
Miss Lucy Rider.....Olga Hendricks
Aunt Belinda.....Olga Nelson
Jessie Ray .....Ollie Wanvick
Kate, the Irish maid...Emma Wanvick

Mrs. Bings has had an unhappy married life and after her husband's death she has built a new house and resolved that not a man shall enter her house. Her two sisters, Belinda and Lucy, live with her. Jessie Ray, a young niece, comes to visit her. The other character, Kate, furnishes a good deal of amusement. Many funny situations arise and at last it is found impracticable to run a house without allowing a man to enter.

* * *

Mrs. F. J. O'Donnell gave the etiquette talk for the club girls last night followed by the gym class.

* * *

Mrs. T. J. Davis gave the talk for the girls at Central Business college yesterday afternoon.

* * *

The Franklin club will have a party on Tuesday evening, March 7, to which a large number of their friends are invited.

Personal Mention

George D. Swift has left to join his family at Clearwater, Fla. He will return with his daughter, Mrs. William P. Harrison, the end of this month.

* * *

Mr. and Louis Levy of Minneapolis are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Levy, 501 East Second street.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Kelly of 414 East Third street will leave Sunday for a six weeks' visit in Pasadena, Cal.

* * *

Miss Lucy How of Washington, D. C., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Francis J. Pulford of East Superior street, for a week.

* * *

Mrs. James H. Harper of 2531 East Superior street returned yesterday from St. Paul after an absence of five weeks.

* * *

J. H. Gruesen has gone to Portland, Or., and other Pacific coast cities on a several weeks' trip.

Church Meetings.

The Sunshine Society of Trinity English Lutheran church will meet at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon with Mildred Nelson of 2007 West Eighth street.

* * *

A Tom Thumb wedding will be given tonight at the Merritt Memorial church.

* * *

A program will be given at the Highland Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock tonight under the auspices of the Missionary society. The principal number on the program will be the mountaineer play, "Cindy's Chance," which will be presented by girls of the Sunday school.

CLOQUET TALENT TO GIVE PLAY

Cloquet, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—"Among the Breakers," a two-act drama by S. M. Baker, presented by the young people of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart Catholic church, will be given at the Grand theater March 20 and 21, as a St. Patrick's day entertainment.

Following is the cast: David Murray, keeper of Fairpoint light, J. Fleming O'Brien; Larry Devine, his assistant, Ed McGough; Hon. Bruce Hunter, Felix Lessor; Clarence Hunter, his ward, Clarence Long; Peter Paragraph, a reporter, Sylvester Brissette; Scud, colored servant, James McDonald; Mother Carey, reputed witch, Frances McClay; Minnie Daze, Hunter's niece, Willa Brissette; Bess Starbright, cast up by the waves, Sadie Schiedermayer; Biddy Bean, Murray's domestic, Odiel Loisel.

Every cigar stand in Duluth sells the Don Duluth cigar, made in Duluth.

FIELD OF ASTRONOMY INVADED BY WOMEN

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

London, Feb. 18.—Astronomy is the latest field of human endeavor to be invaded by women. As a career for women it recently received impetus when the Royal Astronomical society obtained a supplementary charter from the crown in order to admit women members as fellows of the society. Five women were admitted to membership and that many more will presumably become fellows after the March meeting.

AMUSEMENTS

FAMOUS ZANGWILL STORY IN FILMS AT THE ORPHEUM

A powerful photo-drama is the film version of Israel Zangwill's "The Melting Pot," with Walker Whiteside in the hero role, the offering which will be presented for four days beginning Sunday at the Orpheum-Strand theater.

The crime of racial hatred and the glory of America as the haven of freedom and justice for all creeds and nationalities are a two-fold inspiration which should recommend the production to Duluthians whose city is one of the great crucibles in which the fusion of races is going on.

The story of "The Melting Pot" is presented in heroic form. The horror and treachery of the massacre of the Jews at Kishineff by the Russians that won for the date the title of "Black Easter," is shown in a series of tremendous scenes full of thrills and emotion.

The masterful working out of the plot and the story of love between the Jewish hero-victim of the bloody persecution and the Gentile daughter of the royal instigator of the massacre supplies all that is necessary to complete the ensemble.

But there is an added feature, a film tableau, giving an allegorical presentation of the conflicting elements pouring into the "melting pot."

WALKER WHITESIDE.

TONIGHT'S ATTRACTIONS.

LYCEUM—"The Bird of Paradise."
ORPHEUM-STRAND—Baron H. S. de la Malaussene with "Fighting for France," motion pictures of European war.
NEW GRAND—Vaudeville and photoplay.
REX—Douglas Fairbanks in "His Picture in the Papers," photoplay.
LYRIC—Charlotte Walker in "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," photoplay.

JOFFRE GREATER THAN NAPOLEON

Baron at Orpheum Has High Regard for French Commander.

"Joffre will go down in French history as a greater man than Napoleon."

This was the statement today of Baron H. S. de la Malaussene, adjutant of the Premier Regiment Etranger of France, who is lecturing on his fourteen months' experience at the front in France, at the Orpheum-Strand tonight and tomorrow afternoon and night with the authentic "Fighting For France" picture of the allies' side of the war.

The baron, who was decorated with the war cross for gallantry in action, is tall and spare and his eyes flash as he mentions the name of the idol of his native land. He is recuperating from the effects of a bayonet wound and a blow across the face with a rifle butt which knocked out his front teeth, fractured his lower jaw and flattened his nose, while he was charging the enemy's entrenchments in the Champagne district. He expects to return to the front within three months and the money that he is earning in lecturing will be donated to the French Red Cross.

"Gen. Joffre," said the baron, as he lighted a cigarette and strode back and forth at his room at his hotel, has had more obstacles to overcome in this great cataclysm than did the great Napoleon. He is a warrior in every sense of the word and yet the strange thing about it is that he hates war.

"You know that during days of peace he is a country squire. He hates bloodshed. He is a military genius but were it not for the fact that he knows his duty is to direct the destinies of France during her darkest hours, he would not engage in war for any money.

"It is because of his great sentimentalism, his abhorrence of slaughter, that France has not been more vigorous in prosecuting the war. Joffre is waging a war of attrition. He is saving every life that he can. His strategy is well understood by his countrymen. When the war is brought to an end, and it will be brought to a successful one, mark you, history will declare that Joffre is greater than Napoleon because of his humanity. He will have paid not a single life more than was necessary to win. Napoleon believed that the end always justified large expenditures of lives and he was prodigal in the sacrifices he demanded.

"Too, I do not believe that Napoleon could have done more in the way of leadership than has Joffre. Of course you know that Napoleon was a pioneer in modern warfare and that all present-day warriors have profited by the examples he set, but—were the 'little corporal' himself there today, I do not believe he could do more than is Joffre, and there would be many more French lives lost."

"What will be Joffre's reward," the baron was asked, "if he wins the war? Will he demand a crown like 'the man of destiny?'"

"Nonsense. Joffre could have almost anything he asked, when the war is over. Do you know what he will ask? To be allowed to retire from the army and settle down at his little country home and live a life of peace with his good wife and children. That will be all that he will ask."

CLASSY SHOW AT GRAND.

Four Vaudeville Teams Have Clever Line of Offerings.

There were four vaudeville teams on the bill at the New Grand in the show that opened a week-end engagement at that popular playhouse yesterday. All of the acts appeared in favor with the large audiences, and Manager Phelps expects big crowds for the remainder of the week. The photoplays are up to the usual standard, and "Broncho Billy," G. W. Anderson, who recently dropped the slouch hat and chaps for the frock coat and silk hat, appears in a strong dramatic play entitled "The Man in Him."

Willing and Jordan in song, dance and dialogue have a clever offering, and they put over stunts in an original manner. Putting on the same song numbers in English and Italian dialect made a big hit. Their program is of wide range and includes popular and operatic selections.

Alvarez and Martell present a number of popular songs and some good comedy and close their act with an excellent dance number. Roy and Arthur in "Fun in a Dining Car" do an original juggling turn.

Kelly and Galvin have a good comedy turn, the best feature of which is Italian impersonation.

G. W. Anderson in the photoplay, "The Man in Him," does some clever acting in a strong drama. "Broncho Billy" is gaining new laurels since he quit playing cow-boy roles. The animated cartoons of Greater New York show many of the leading skyscrapers and scenes in the metropolis of America. "The Guiding Hand," a film drama, and the Selig-Tribune news of events round out the program.

Theater Gossip.

From the crowded houses that have greeted Douglas Fairbanks and Lorretta Blake at the Rex since the engagement began, it would appear that hundreds more would see this play, "His Picture in the Papers," which will run until Saturday night, inclusive. The story is based upon the son of a very rich man who was told to leave home and "make good." Surrounded by a large group of capable actors, who aid him in "getting his picture in all the papers," while some try to foil his ambitions—Mr. Fairbanks succeeds in getting into some most laughable exploits in this serio-comic Triangle masterpiece.

FAIRBANKS POPULAR AT THE REX.

Duluth theater-goers are promised a double treat Sunday, when "Peggy" comes to town—"Peggy," with Miss Billie Burke in the title role. During each performance E. A. Miller, known as the "Harry Lauder of the Head of the Lakes," will sing some favorite Lauder melodies in Scottish costume, including Lauder's latest and biggest success, "Nannie."

The usual comedy will also be presented. New York gave the picture "Peggy" a warm reception and hearty indorsement recently at the Knickerbocker theater.

* * *

Paramount attractions are like old wine—they seem to get better as they grow older.

CHARLOTTE WALKER AT THE LYRIC.

When the Lyric names a particular star coming out in a play patrons know what to expect.

Hundreds of Duluthians have read the story, "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," appearing at the Lyric today and tomorrow, and other hundreds have seen the drama on the stage—but this is the first time it has been presented picturized. Under Miss Charlotte Walker's handling of the leading role, with her superb conception of the part and her strong support, the story and play gain, rather than lose, in power and beauty when filmed.

It will be good news to Lyric friends, also, that William Farnum returns on Sunday for three days in "Fighting Blood," undoubtedly one of his best.

* * *

BURLESQUE AT LYCEUM NEXT WEEK.

At the Lyceum Sunday "The Girls From the Follies" will appear. The company is headed by Harry Steppe, one of the most popular Jewish comedians before the burlesque public, who is adding many new friends to his already long list by his clever interpretation of the character of Misfit Cohen in "Cohen in Chinatown." It has a chorus of twenty-five, besides an elaborate scenic and electrical investiture. The engagement will begin Sunday and performances will be given for four days with matinees daily.

* * *

"KENNEDY SQUARE" AT THE ZELDA.

"Kennedy Square," the famous old play by F. Hopkinson Smith, which has been picturized into five beautiful acts will be shown at the Zelda theater tonight for the last time.

Antonio Moreno, the distinguished Spanish actor, has the title role and is supported by Charles Kent and pretty Muriel Ostriche.

The picture depicts the aristocrat of the Old South in all his splendor. The story is a pretty one and exciting at times. Tomorrow one of the greatest favorites of all screen stars, Lillian Walker, will head the Zelda program for one day, in a five-part comedy "Green Stockings." Miss Walker is not only noted for her beauty but as an actress of no little versatility. Advance notices proclaim this feature to be one of the funniest of all screen comedies. There will be a special matinee tomorrow for women and children.

TWO REJECTED OUT OF EIGHT

Candidates for Fire and Police Departments Are Given Tests.

Prospective fire fighters and prospective guardians of the peace lined up before Health Director E. W. Fahey and Assistant Director J. R. Manley at police headquarters this morning for civil service examinations.

After an hour of rib thumping and pulse recording, two men out of the eight applicants were rejected. One was counted out on the weight test and one because of kidney trouble, according to the examiners.

This morning's test was the first half of the physical examination. At the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon the men ran around the half-mile track, chinned themselves on the horizontal bars, and performed other gymnastic feats. Tomorrow morning they will be given a written examination on subjects with which firemen and policemen should be familiar.

"One prospective 'cop' was a perfect specimen physically," said Dr. Fahey. "I hope he ranks well during the rest of the examination, for the force can use that kind of a man."

One or two more policemen are to be appointed in the near future, it is expected, in accordance with Safety Commissioner Silberstein's 1916 program, which calls for an increase of four men in the police department.

Energy emitted by radium has been utilized by a German scientist to drive a tiny clock.

WALK-OVER SHOES

The Spring styles are being shown in our windows and at the prices which we ask for this new footwear they are wonderful values. Compare the prices and quality of our shoes with other makes of shoes, then decide for yourself.

SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY ONLY

Gray Kid Boots at.....$7.00
White Kid Boots at.....$9.00
Sepia Kid Boots at.....$8.00

The above boots are $10 and $12 values.

WALK-OVER BOOT SHOP,
106 West Superior Street.

Ripe Juicy, Sweet Delicious Tender Healthful Seedless

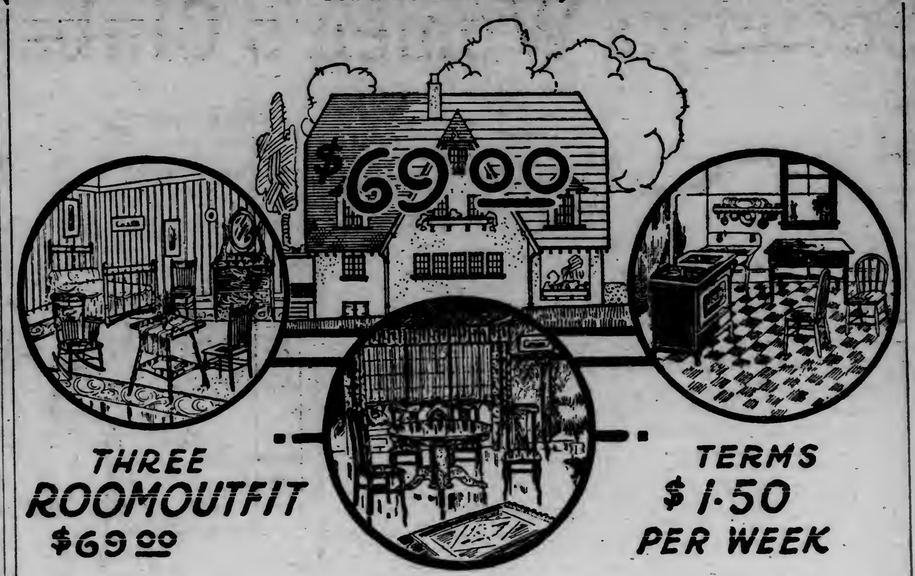
Sunkist Oranges from California

Order a dozen or a box today. Serve this healthful fruit at every meal.

All first-class dealers now have a plentiful supply. Save Sunkist tissue wrappers for beautiful silverware.

CALIFORNIA FRUIT GROWERS EXCHANGE
Co-operative—Non-profit
Eastern Headquarters: 139 N. Clark Street, Chicago

You'll Do Better at Kelly's



Why Live In Furnished Rooms?

Now isn't it a fact that the money you are paying for the use of furnished rooms is gone forever. If you paid this same money on our three-room outfit—the same as you pay for only the use of furniture in furnished rooms—you would soon own the furniture—you would have something to show for your money.

You Don't Need Cash

You can select one piece of furniture or an elaborate outfit here and terms will be arranged to suit your individual needs. Our Deferred Payment Plan is refined credit—no red tape.

Kelly's Three-Room Outfit $69

Kelly's three-room outfit consists of furniture for the kitchen (coal or gas range), Dining Room and Bedroom. Come and see it.

F. S. KELLY FURNITURE CO.
17 & 19 WEST SUPERIOR ST.

JAPAN VERY PROSPEROUS

Money Pouring Into the Country in Large Quantities.

Period of Good Times Entirely Due to the War.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Tokio, Feb. 5.—Never in her history has Japan met with such a period of material prosperity as today. This is entirely due to the war. The Entente allies have been buying great juantities of war supplies since the beginning of the conflict and more orders are being placed constantly. Money is literally pouring into the country in such quantities that there is actually a plethora of it. Money has become so cheap that bankers have begun to complain.

The first great call upon Japan has been made and will continue to be made by Russia. The exports to Russia have realized several hundred million yen. They include not alone military equipment and supplies such as guns, rifles and ammunition, but huge quantities of cloth, many hundred thousands of pairs of boots, leather pouches, caps, sashes, food products and medical supplies. Even rice is exported to Russia to be made into gruel for wounded soldiers and of the medical exportation a notable item is tincture of iodine.

Shipping Is Active.

Another great channel in which Japan is finding prosperity is through her shipping. Her big merchant marine is not only transporting supplies for the Entente powers, but so far as the Orient is concerned has practically taken over at an immense profit the sea transportation, which is held in time of peace by the vessels of Great Britain. Freight charges to all points, including the United States, have soared and Japanese shipping companies have recently petitioned the department of communications to sanction a further increase in tariffs.

France is at present seeking either to charter or purchase ten or a dozen steamships, but suitable vessels are scarce. The prices are almost limitless in their elevation. The extent to which steamers have risen in value may be instanced by a recent incident at Kobe. The owner of a steamship, the charter for which had just expired, who had been receiving about $3,200 a month for his vessel, received an offer of charter at the rate of $37,000 per month. The extraordinary demand for hulls is inducing Japanese shipyards to work day and night, but they cannot hope to approach the demand.

Big Increase Shown.

The year 1915 was exceptional in Japanese trade, but this year is expected to prove still more remarkable. Last year the total exports amounted to about $350,000,000 and the imports to about $266,000,000. The total trade was $616,000,000. Compared with the preceding year the figures show an increase of about $58,000,000 on exports and a decrease of $31,500,000 on imports. Whereas in 1914 imports exceeded exports by $2,317,000 the balance of trade last year was in favor of exports by about $84,000,000. Anything approaching such a large excess of exports is unprecedented in the annals of foreign trade in Japan. By glancing over the trade returns for the last ten years, it will be found that with the exception of 1906 and 1908, when exports, owing to greatly reduced imports, were in excess by $2,485,000 and by $9,456,000, respectively, the balance of trade for the remaining eight years shows an excess of imports ranging from $2,317,000 to $48,485,000. In 1914, the outbreak of the war diminished the volume of trade, especially that of imports. This explains the fact that in that year the excess of imports over exports amounted to only $2,317,000, as compared with $48,485,000, recorded for 1913, and with $46,000,000 for 1912.

Export Trade Grows.

With the continuation of the war last year importations still further diminished, while a remarkable increase was noted in the export trade. The markets in India, South America and other places previously taking German and Austrian goods demanded Japanese substitutes for goods which no longer came out from Europe. All this combined to create a new record in exports, while the difficulty of Europe in sending its goods abroad contributed to a decrease of imports into Japan.

Among the import goods showing a falling off are iron, dyestuffs and other important requisites for manufacturing industry. This had the effect of checking exportation to some extent, and has encouraged company promoters to form plans for placing Japan's industry and commerce on a self-supporting and permanent basis.

One result of all this is that Japan, which before the war had come to feel apprehension for the stability of its note conversion system, has now specie accumulating to its credit to the extent of 600,000,000 yen or $300,000,000, an amount never before known in its financial history. The bank vaults are full of money seeking investment.

Rush to Subscribe.

A striking proof of a change in the condition of mind in the capitalist circles was seen recently in the response to an offer of shares of a dyestuff company, now forming, which were over-subscribed 900 times. There has been a steady increase in the capitalization for manufacturing industries, money invested in them in 1915 amounting to $48,350,000 against $19,250,000 for 1914. Similarly electric business, shipping, spinning and railways attracted great increases of capital. New business undertakings started last year were larger in capital by $20,000,000 than the year before last, taking into count the business that showed a falling off.

"The situation," says the Japan Times, "affords strong evidence that the flotation of companies and starting of new enterprises are becoming the order of the day and the season of timid and retiring capital, of unpaid labor, and withering dullness in general is over. There is this, of course, to be prepared against, that after the war when huge numbers of workers will be released from fighting service, when munition factories will all at once be restored to their legitimate business, and when the market will be glutted with labor, there will be a far-reaching economic upheaval in Europe, the effect of which the United States and Japan will be the first to feel. But the upheaval is universal and unavoidable. In the meantime it is certainly to the best interests of the country and a duty to it to help on the present wave of business revival. We are glad that the country is getting active in the right direction."

Note of Warning.

The remarkable rise in the Japanese export trade and general prosperity has been followed by a note of warning by Tokio bankers. Dr. Kesaroku Mixumachi, vice governor of the Bank of Japan, and others point out that the present is a serious moment for bankers for the extraordinary inflation in money is more dangerous in a sense than extreme shortage in funds. The vice governor says he is glad that efforts are being made to make good the shortage in imports by inaugurating new industries. This meant much to the money situation, which was suffering from the abnormal increase in gold. He urgently recommended nourishing the rising industries of the country, thus avoiding the danger that "they collapse like so many bubbles." Above everything, he affirmed, caution should be the watchword—for the prosperity and finance today is the prosperity and finance of a time of war.

Lime and Tuberculosis

Dr. Roberts Bartholow, former professor in Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, says in his Materia Medica (1895), on pages 215 and 216: "Clinical experience has shown that it (referring to a calcium salt) possesses the ill-defined property known as alterative, removes certain toxic or morbific materials and secures their excretion by the organs of elimination. * * * The testimony which has lately been published in respect to its curative powers in consumption is certainly very striking."

He does not refer to testimony regarding Eckman's Alterative, since the medical profession never publicly recommends proprietary remedies. However, many cases of consumption seem to have yielded to this remedy.

This success may be due largely to the fact that in Eckman's Alterative a calcium (lime) salt is so combined with other valuable ingredients as to be easily assimilated by the average person. It contains neither opiates, narcotics nor habit-forming drugs, so is safe. At your druggist's or direct.

Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia.

WILL WORK FOR PENSIONS.

Congressmen Receive Resolutions of Council Indorsing Bill.

Communications were received this morning by City Clerk Borgen from United State Senator Pomerene of Ohio and Congressman Miller of this district, acknowledging receipt of the resolution adopted by the council two weeks ago in support of the proposed Penrose-Griffin bill pensioning superannuated government employes.

Senator Pomerene, who is chairman of the senate civil service committee, and Congressman Miller both state that they will give the question careful consideration.

The resolution was adopted by the council at the request of local mail carriers.

If Too Fat Get More Fresh Air

BE MODERATE IN YOUR DIET AND REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT. TAKE OIL OF KOREIN.

Lack of fresh air, it is said, weakens the oxygen-carrying power of the blood, the liver becomes sluggish, fat accumulates and the action of many of the vital organs is hindered thereby. The heart action becomes weak, work is an effort and the beauty of the figure is destroyed.

Fat put on by indoor life is unhealthy and if nature is not assisted in throwing it off a serious case of obesity may result.

When you feel that you are getting too stout, take the matter in hand at once. Don't wait until your figure has become a joke and your health ruined through carrying around a burden of unsightly and unhealthy fat.

Spend as much time as you possibly can in the open air; breathe deeply, and get from Boyce Drug store, 331 West Superior street, or any druggist a box of oil of korein capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself every few days and keep up the treatment until you are down to normal. Oil of korein is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, helps the digestion and even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight.

—Advertisement.

HOSPITAL WORKERS ARE STILL $24,000 SHORT OF THEIR MARK

Workers engaged in raising the $50,000 for St. Mary's hospital were greatly encouraged today by the receipt of two telegrams, one from Bishop McGolrick, contributing $500, and the other from A. L. Ordean, contributing $200. Three others contributed $100 each, and these large contributions added to the many smaller ones made up a total of $2,821.50 for the day.

Today the grand total of all contributions to date footed up to $26,027. It is the aim of the campaign committee to bring the total to $30,000 by tomorrow noon. The total amount raised by the women's teams today was $1,076.50 and that of the men's teams, $1,245.

As the goal of the campaign workers is $50,000 it is expected that strenuous efforts will have to be made tomorrow and Monday, the last days of the campaign, if the full amount is raised.

Those who contributed $100 or more today, follow:

Mullery-McDonald company	$100
Capitol Elevator company	100
A. L. Ordean	200
Bishop James McGolrick	500
Warren S. Pattison	100

CITY BRIEFS

Loose Leaf and Filing Supplies.
M. I. Stewart company. Phones 114.

Veteran Railroader Dies.

Local railroad men have been notified of the death of Manley Nicholson, for many years Western livestock agent for the Milwaukee railroad at Des Moines, Iowa. Mr. Nicholson solicited stock shipments for the Milwaukee road in the Western field for a quarter of a century.

Complete Banquet Plans.

Fifty members of the Irish Fellowship club met at the Owls' hall, West Superior street, last night, and completed plans for their annual banquet, to be held at the Spalding hotel, March 16. Daniel Lawler, former mayor of St. Paul, will be one of the principal speakers on the program to be given following the banquet. The next club meeting will be on March 14, two days before the banquet.

Code Committees Meet.

Two of the building code sub-committees met yesterday at the organization's headquarters, 314 Palladio building, while a third will meet Monday evening. The committees of which Whitney Wall and Charles Marshall are chairman met yesterday to plan for the general provisions of the code and for the section relating to billboards and signs. The plumbing ordinance will be prepared by Committee No. 9 on Monday.

Temple Emanuel Service.

"The Man Without a Country" will be the subject of the sermon to be delivered this evening by Dr. Maurice Lefkovits at Temple Emanuel, Seventh avenue east and Second street. The services will begin at 8 o'clock and are open to the public.

Will Urge Highway Aid.

H. J. Mullin, vice president of the Duluth Automobile club, left last night for St. Paul to attend the meeting of the state highway commission this morning. He will urge an appropriation for the Duluth-Twin City road.

Commissioners in Session.

County commissioners are in session today at the courthouse as a committee of the whole of the county board, which will hold its regular monthly meeting tomorrow. The usual grist of routine matters is being disposed of.

Find Bones of Dinosaur.

What appears to be part of the vertebra of a dinosaur or some other prehistoric animal of gigantic type has been received at the office of W. J.

NOTICE!

I have just opened a Meat Market at 1821 West Superior street and will be glad to receive the patronage of my many old friends and customers. Nothing but the best meats at the LOWEST PRICES.

B. N. HANSEN
1821 WEST SUPERIOR ST.
Phone—Melrose 2349

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

WANTED TO BORROW—$2,500 ON first mortgage, centrally located, well improved, rented property; interest 6 per cent per annum. Write Y 685, Herald.

WANTED TO BUY—SECOND HAND boiler in good condition; marine type preferred; about 125-horse power; should stand 150-pound pressure. Address 807 Sellwood building, Duluth.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Joseph J. Kizy and Agnes Zink.

Wedding Announcements—Engraved or printed. Consolidated Stamp and Printing Co., 14 Fourth avenue west.

14, 18 AND 22K SOLID GOLD WEDding and engagement rings made and mounted to order at Henricksen's, 332 West Superior street.

Engraved and printed birth announcements. Consolidated Stamp & Print. Co.

BIRTHS.

BRIGGS—A daughter was born Feb. 15 to Mr. and Mrs. Grant C. Briggs, 4004 Halifax street.

TALKE—The birth of a son on Feb. 24 has been reported by Mr. and Mrs. Jay Talke, 326 Restormel street.

THOMPSON—Mr. and Mrs. Michael Thompson of 2326½ West Sixth street, are the parents of a daughter born Feb. 27.

JOHNSON—A son was born Feb. 26 to Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Johnson, 4611 Magellan street.

Deaths and Funerals

JOHNSON—Alfred Johnson, aged 64, 319 Nineteenth avenue west, a pioneer resident of the West end, died this morning at his home following a short illness. He leaves a widow, three sons, Alfred, Iver J., of Duluth and M. J. Johnson of Los Angeles, Cal., and two daughters, Mrs. C. A. Anderson, and Miss Lillian Johnson, both of this city. The funeral will be held from the residence Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock with interment in the Union cemetery.

ERICKSON—Hazel Erickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Erickson, 2113 West Fourth street, died last evening following a short illness of pneumonia. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence with interment in the Union cemetery.

BERGER—Marie, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Berger, 6413 Warden street, died yesterday. The funeral was held today from the residence with interment in Calvary cemetery.

CALLAN—Mrs. Robert Callan, 55, died at the family home, Second street and Third avenue east, last night, after a short illness. She leaves her husband, three sons and two daughters. Funeral services will be held from the First Presbyterian church, Monday at 2 p. m.

PERSGARD—Funeral services for Mrs. Minnie Persgard, wife of Oscar Persgard of 618 East Eighth street, who died Wednesday, will be held Saturday at 2:30 p. m. from the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Berg, 616 East Fifth street. Interment will be at Park Hill cemetery.

MONUMENTS.

LARGEST STOCK OF HIGH-GRADE monuments in the Northwest; call and inspect before buying elsewhere. P. N. Peterson Granite Co., 230 E. Sup.

FUNERAL FLOWERS A SPECIALTY. Duluth Floral Co., 121 W. Superior St.

CARD OF THANKS.

WE WISH TO THANK OUR FRIENDS, neighbors, Zenith chapter, No. 56, O. E. S., Ladies Aid Society of the Central Baptist church and Zenith lodge, No. 274, I. A. of M., for their kindness, sympathy and floral offerings in our hour of bereavement and deepest sorrow.
MR. AND MRS. G. H. FRANKLIN.

BUILDING PERMITS.

To Charles Bariconi, store on the west side of Commonwealth avenue, between Dickson and Gary streets	$ 500
To J. F. Dennis, garage on the west side of Minnesota avenue, between Thirty-seventh and Thirty-eighth streets	300
To John A. Stephenson, tile floor in building on the south side of Superior street, between Nineteenth and Twentieth avenues west	275
To Anna Zell, porch for dwelling on the west side of Sixty-third avenue west, between Bristol and Green streets	40

LEGAL NOTICES.

ORDER TO EXAMINE FINAL ACCOUNT—

State of Minnesota,
County of St. Louis—ss.

In Probate Court. In the Matter of the Estate of Arthur Orr, Decedent. The Petition of Arthur H. Brown as representative of the above named decedent, together with his final account of the administration of said estate, having been filed in this court, representing, among other things that he has fully administered said estate, and praying that said final account of said administration be examined, adjusted and allowed by the Court, and that the Court make and enter its final decree of distribution of the residue of the estate of said decedent to the persons entitled thereto, and for the discharge of the representative and the sureties on his bond. It is Ordered, That said petition be heard, and said final account examined, adjusted, and if correct, allowed by the Court, at the Probate Court Rooms in the Court House, in the City of Duluth in said County, on Monday the 13th day of March, 1916, at ten o'clock a. m., and all persons interested in said hearing and in said matter are hereby cited and required at said time and place to show cause, if any there be, why said petition should not be granted. Ordered Further, That this order be served by publication in The Duluth Herald, according to law, and that a copy of this order be mailed to the residuary devisee of said estate at least fourteen days before the said date of hearing.

Dated at Duluth, Minn., Feb. 17, 1916.
By the Court,
S. W. GILPIN, Judge of Probate.
Attest: A. R. MORTON,
Clerk of Probate.
Seal, Probate Court, St. Louis Co., Minn.
D. H., Feb. 18, 25, March 3, 1916.

COLONIAL INSURANCE COMPANY.

Principal office: New York, N. Y. Organized in 1896. Leo H. Wise, president; E. S. Powell, Jr., secretary. Attorney to accept service in Minnesota: Commissioner of Insurance.

CASH CAPITAL, $200,000.00.
INCOME IN 1915.

Premiums other than perpetuals	$ 228,916.99
Rents and interests	21,399.17
Gross profit on sale, maturity or adjustment of ledger assets	187.50
Total income	$ 250,503.66
Ledger assets December 31st of previous year	521,307.97
Sum	$ 771,811.63

DISBURSEMENTS IN 1915.

Net amount paid for losses	$ 81,312.07
Expenses of adjustment of losses	1,906.44
Commissions and brokerage	83,545.40
Salaries, fees and allowances of officers, agents and employes	3,115.00
Taxes, fees, rents, real estate expense, fire patrol, etc	5,624.68
Dividends and interest	8,000.00
All other disbursements	2,126.27
Total disbursements	$ 185,629.86
Balance	586,181.77

LEDGER ASSETS DEC. 31, 1915.

Book value of bonds and stocks	$ 482,035.00
Cash in office, trust companies and banks	70,684.28
Agents' balances, unpaid premiums and bills receivable, taken for premiums	33,462.49
Total ledger assets (as per balance)	$ 586,181.77

NON-LEDGER ASSETS.

Market value of real estate, bonds and stocks over book value	$ 8,290.00
All other non-ledger assets	6,918.33
Gross assets	$ 601,390.10

DEDUCT ASSETS NOT ADMITTED.

Agent's balances and bills receivable	$ 980.82
Total admitted assets	$ 600,409.28

LIABILITIES DEC. 31, 1915.

Unpaid losses and claims	$ 30,643.17
Unearned premiums	143,573.05
Salaries, expenses, taxes, dividends and interest due	5,500.00
Contingent commissions	3,500.00
Capital stock paid up	200,000.00
Total liabilities, including capital	$ 383,616.22
Net surplus	216,793.06

RISKS AND PREMIUMS, 1915 BUSINESS.

(a) Fire risks written during the year	$ 41,722,019.00
Premiums received thereon	360,761.00
Net amount in force at end of the year (Fire and marine)	30,000

a.—Including business other than marine and inland.

BUSINESS IN MINNESOTA IN 1915.
(Including reinsurance received and deducting reinsurance placed.)

	Fire Risks.
Risks written	$317,250.00
Premiums received	1,469.00
Net losses paid	593.00
Net losses incurred	523.00
Amount at risk	302,250.00

State of Minnesota, Department of Insurance.
I Hereby Certify, That the Annual Statement of the Colonial Insurance company for the year ending December 31st, 1915, of which the above is an abstract, has been received and filed in this department and duly approved by me.
S. D. WORKS,
Commissioner of Insurance.

Uncle Sam: When They Play "America," Stand Up!

—From the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Olcott, president of the Oliver Iron Mining company from L. R. Salsich of Coleraine. Mr. Salsich is general superintendent of the company's operations in that district and found the fossil in the conglomerate between the shale and the ore, under twelve feet of shale in the Bovey lease of the Canisteo mine. The find may be submitted to scientists for determination as to its character.

Husband Gets Divorce.

Arthur H. Stockman, 31, was granted a divorce by Judge Cant yesterday afternoon from Susanna Stockman, 30, whom he married in this city in October of 1906 and whom he claims deserted him in July, 1914. Stockman is employed by the Northern Express company of this city.

Grand Jury Will Report.

The March grand jury which has been in session since Wednesday noon is expected to make a partial report of its work to Judge Cant at 5 o'clock this evening. Several indictments may be returned. The grand jury has investigated between ten and fifteen cases since it began its deliberations. The jury will not be in session tomorrow and will probably wind up its business Monday or Tuesday.

New Fur Company.

Incorporation articles were filed today with Charles Calligan, register of deeds, by the firm of H. S. Wenger, Incorporated, which is to engage in the furrier business. The capital stock of the concern is $25,000 and the incorporators are: H. S. Wenger, B. M. Goldberg, E. P. Kennedy and Mina MacVeigh, all of Duluth.

"Larger Navy" in Sight.

James Blakely, Kankakee, Ill., weighing more than 225 pounds, is an applicant for admission to Uncle Sam's navy. The huge woodsman was put on the scales yesterday afternoon, but the scales, which is limited to 225 pounds, was unable to register with the full avoidupois of the giant. Recruiting Officer Nippa will secure some new weights for the scale.

PERSONALS

Ralph Pinneo left this afternoon for a short business trip to Eau Claire.

Dr. W. A. McClaran returned today from a Western business trip.

H. D. Sickles of Chicago, very well known in Duluth, is a guest of the Spalding today.

A. J. Carson of Virginia is at the Spalding.

A. B. Coates of Virginia, one of the largest mineral lease holders of the Mesaba range, is at the Spalding.

D. V. Walker of Port Arthur is at the Spalding.

F. B. Johnston of Minneapolis, a well-known manufacturer of the Mill City, is among the guests at the Holland.

Frank Higgins of Ely Salyards company has gone to New Rockford, N. D., on a business trip.

SUPERIOR

Loses Big Suit.

A jury in the Federal court disagreed in a damage suit for $50,000, instituted by George Lowe against the Lake Superior Terminal & Traction company. The jury stood 11 to 1 in favor of the plaintiff, Mr. Lowe alleged that in an accident which took place in the plaintiff's yards he lost both of his lower limbs. The jury was out for twenty-four hours.

Elks Elect New Officers.

The Superior lodge of Elks held its annual election last night. D. S. Webb was elected exalted ruler; Edward McKinnon, esteemed leading knight; Randall Gordon, loyal knight; J. C. Crowley, lecturing knight; Walter Fowler, trustee; James Flinn, Jr., tyler, and Frank Miller, secretary.

Federal Court Adjourns.

The Federal court completed its session this morning at Superior. A large number of liquor cases in which the offenders had introduced liquor on Indian reservations, were handled. The final case was that of John Baker, who changed his plea of not guilty to that of guilty. Judge K. M. Landis fined him $200 and sentenced him to the house of correction for a term of six months. Judge Landis left this afternoon for Chicago.

BRITISH MARINE LOSS IN FEBRUARY

Sixty-Nine Ships Sunk and 420 Lives Were Lost.

London, March 3.—An official communication issued last night concerning marine losses says:

"British wrecks reported to the board of trade in February aggregated 69, involving a loss of 420 lives. Included in the wrecks were forty-two steamships of a total tonnage of 56,856.

"Ten of these steamers were sunk by enemy warships with a loss of thirty-six lives; five by mines with a loss of 176 lives; one by a mine or a submarine with a loss of eight lives, and one by bombs from a Zeppelin with the loss of thirteen lives.

"Of twenty-seven sailing ships lost, six were sunk by enemy warships."

DIES OF PNEUMONIA.

Mrs. Robert Callan Succumbs After Only Nine Days.

Mrs. Robert Callan, wife of the sexton of the First Presbyterian church, died at the family home, Second street and Third avenue east, last night, after an illness of only nine days. Pneumonia was the cause of death.

Mrs. Callan was born in Canada in 1861 and came to Duluth from Newbury, Ont. She leaves three sons and two daughters, in addition to her husband. The daughters are May of Duluth and Mrs. Robert Hayter of Alvinston, Ont. The sons are F. G. Callan, W. D. and Robert, all of this city.

Funeral services will be held from the church Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

MRS. ROBERT CALLAN.

APPREHENSION IS FELT IN BAYOU SARA REGION

New Orleans, La., March 3.—Apprehension was felt here today for inhabitants about Torras and Bayou Sara, where levees last night were reported to be weakened by high waters. Engineers have expressed concern over continued high water stages. Fear of weakening in the levees led to strengthening of numerous sections. Extra precautions have been taken at Torras. The situation at Bayou Sara is not so serious as at Torras. A private protection levee which guards the town was reported weakening, but many persons are taking temporary refuge in the high lands.

WINNEBAGO BANK TO PAY LAST DIVIDEND

St. Paul, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Next week A. H. Turrittin, state superintendent of banks, will authorize the receivers of the State Bank of Commerce of Winnebago to pay a dividend of 5 per cent. This will be the final dividend and will clean up the affairs of the bank, which failed in 1912.

The State Bank of Commerce has paid over to its depositors a total of 85 per cent of their claims. This, Mr. Turrittin regards as an excellent showing.

The bank was wrecked through irregularities on the part of its cashier, H. W. Parker, it was charged.

Winter Carnival and Ice Palace.

Beautiful Lake Nebagamon.

The South Shore will run a special excursion train Sunday, March 5th, 1916, leaving Duluth Soo Line station 1 p. m. Low excursion fares.

MAN TRAIN VICTIM NEAR FORT RIPLEY

Joe Gurnon Killed When N. P. Engine Strikes Rig.

Brainerd, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Joe Gurnon was killed and Mrs. Brome Doucette badly injured when their sleigh and horses were struck near Fort Ripley by a trial engine of the Northern Pacific railway run by Engineer Palmquist.

Mrs. Doucette of Belle Prairie had arrived at Fort Ripley at visit the Gurnons. Two and a half miles north of Fort Ripley they were struck by the engine. One horse was killed. Gurnon never regained consciousness. Both were loaded on the engine and between Fort Ripley and Little Falls the man died. The woman is now at St. Gabriel's hospital in Little Falls with head, elbow and shoulders injured. She is expected to recover. Gurnon leaves a wife, but no children.

Conferred at Brainerd.

Brainerd, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Hugh J. Hughes, Minneapolis, editor of Farm, Stock and Home, had a meeting with the agricultural committee of the Brainerd chamber of commerce and left for Bemidji to attend the banquet at which Governor Burnquist was the principal speaker.

Cass County Farm Sold.

Brainerd, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The W. B. Jones place, a stock farm owned by J. M. Henry and situated at Sylvan, Cass county, just west of Brainerd, was sold to L. H. Philhower of Browns Valley, 763 acres at $35 an acre, totaling $26,705. The Jones farm was one of the show places of the county, just across the border from Crow Wing county.

Noted Woman Golf Player Will Wed

LILLIAN B. HYDE.

Lillian B. Hyde, a famous golf player, is to be married. Her mother has just announced her engagement to Quentin F. Feitner, a young Wall Street broker and a graduate of Yale. Miss Hyde is a daughter of the late Richard Hyde, and she lives at Bay Shore, L. I. She has been Metropolitan champion for four seasons.

Henricksen's March Jewelry Sale

offers you many wonderful values in

Fine Jewelry, Diamond Rings, Clocks, Umbrellas, Watches and Silverware

A visit from you will be highly appreciated.

A. L. and N. J. Henricksen
Successors to Henricksen Jewelry Co.
Makers of Fine Jewelry
332 WEST SUPERIOR STREET.

DAY IN CONGRESS

SENATE.

Defeated legislation to warn Americans off armed ships by vote of 68 to 14.

Brandeis hearing continued.

HOUSE.

Foreign affairs committee considered armed ship warning resolution.

Naval affairs committee reported Haytien constabulary bill.

Y. M. C. A. ACTIVE IN THE WAR ZONE

Sells at Cost Price the Articles in Universal Demand.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Boulogne, Feb. 15.—The inverted triangle symbol of the Young Men's Christian association is one of the most familiar signs in Northern France.

The association is everywhere in the war zone. Its workers speed about in small cars and its wagons carry stores from one town to another. Its huts increase every month, and in some places its work is now being extended by small depots in remote villages placed under the charge of a non-commissioned British officer and opened for a few hours each day.

The regular "huts" of the association are great roomy one-story buildings that hold from 400 to 500 men, with kitchens and living rooms for the workers. The principal business carried on therein is a sort of simplified army canteen selling at cost price those articles which are in universal demand, such as trouser buttons, cigarettes, cakes and tea.

At one hut a few miles from Boulogne the daily turnover from this class of trade is $2,000 a day, mostly in amounts of 2 to 4 cents.

There are also books and papers, tables for writing letters, billiards and various kinds of instruction. Men often gather in large numbers to hear a lecture on the history and architecture of the town; French classes and Bible classes jostle with moving picture shows and concerts.

RUSSIANS ADVANCING FAST IN ASIA MINOR

Petrograd, March 3, via London—The Russian advance in Asia Minor, radiating along three main lines from Erzerum toward Trebizond, Sivas and Mamahatun, is meeting with equal success in all three directions. As there has been no serious Turkish resistance since the fall of Erzerum, however, there is little to record except the continued forward sweep of the Russian armies, retarded, according to reports from the front, only by the rugged country and the severity of the weather.

Strikers and Police Clash.

Shelton, Conn., March 3.—Rioting and clashes between strikers and the police occurred here today in connection with the strike of girls and women at the R. N. Bassett Corset Supply company. The strikers walked out a day or two ago, demanding an adjustment of wages. One girl was injured. Two others were arrested.

Denies He Is Crones.

Springfield, Ohio, March 3.—A man giving his name as Harry MacMaken and Chicago as his residence, arrived here late last night and, held on a charge of suspicion, denies that he is Jean Crones, wanted in Chicago on the charge of being the soup poisoner. The man is held in the county jail. No one is permitted to see him.

To Preach at Brainerd.

Brainerd, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Rev. Dr. Everett Lesher, Minneapolis, will preach next Sunday at the People's Congregational church in Northeast Brainerd. He is the state superintendent of Congregational work in Minnesota.

Brainerd Police Search.

Brainerd, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Chief of Police Henry Squires visited several places in Brainerd in search of liquor, but none was found. Near one soft drink parlor a suitcase with two bottles of liquor was found, but nobody put in a claim for the suitcase.

To Conclude Investigation.

Chicago, March 3.—When the civil service commission resumed its inquiry into the city hall split salary scandal today, President Coffin announced the investigation would be concluded if the commission had to remain in session all night.

"ON AGIN, GONE AGIN."

Harper's magazine: In Montana a railway bridge had been destroyed by fire, and it was necessary to replace it. The bridge engineer and his staff were ordered in haste to the place. Two days later came the superintendent of the division. Alighting from his private car he encountered the old master bridge builder.

"Bill," said the superintendent—and the words quivered with energy—"I want this job rushed. Every hour's delay costs the company money. Have you got the engineer's plans for the new bridge?"

"I don't know," said the bridge-builder, "whether the engineer has the picture drawed yet or not, but the bridge is up and the trains is passin' over it."

DULUTH TWIN PORTS ELECTRIC LINES SUPERIOR

STREET CAR DELAYS

The Following Are the Causes of Interruptions In Street Car Service on Thursday, March 2, 1916.

A disabled truck on the track at Lake avenue and Second street delayed an E. 4th & 39th avenue west car fifteen minutes from 2:43 p. m.

A car on the E. 4th & 57th avenue west line was delayed by this disabled truck at Lake avenue and Second street thirteen minutes from 2:48 p. m.

An east-bound W. 4th & Piedmont avenue car was delayed at 23rd avenue west and 10th street twenty-six minutes from 4.42 p. m., by disabled motors.

A team on the track at Coates street delayed a W. Duluth & Aerial Bridge car fourteen minutes from 10:19 p. m. No time could be made up by reason of the delayed car getting its follower's passengers in addition to its own and it was late fourteen minutes at 3rd avenue west going east.

A coal wagon stuck on the tracks at Garfield avenue and Superior St., caused a delay to 13 east-bound cars from 5 to 12 minutes between 5:30 and 5:45 p. m. No time could be made up by these cars and they were all late from 5 to 10 minutes on their west-bound trip between 5:49 and 6:24 p. m.

A disabled auto truck on the track at 54th avenue west and Ramsey street delayed a West Duluth & Aerial Bridge car seven minutes from 2:21 p. m.

A vehicle on the track near Coates street delayed a west-bound W. Duluth & Aerial Bridge car sixteen minutes from 9:52 p. m.

Complaints and suggestions given prompt and courteous attention.

Telephones: Melrose 260; Lincoln 55.

WE CAN CLEAN

YOUR

Draperies
Oriental Rugs
Lace Curtains
Piano Covers
Pillow Tops
Blankets, Etc.

PERFECTLY

with our system of Dry Cleaning

CALL US FOR PRICES

ORPHEUM DRY CLEANERS

131 EAST SUPERIOR ST.

Mel. 1168 Grand 926

Curling Hockey

News and Views of the Sport World

BILLIARDS ~ WRESTLING ~ BOWLING

Basketball Boxing

BEATING MORAN WILL ADD PRESTIGE TO WILLARD'S NAME

The Big Cowboy Is the Best Advertised Fighter of His Time—A Win Over Moran Will Add Greater Fame—Emil Klank Says Masked Marvel Will Spring Surprise—Ad Wolgast and Freddy Welsh.

BY BRUCE.

IF Jess Willard beats off the bean of Moran, Corbett, Jackson, Jeffries and others of the old guard will grow green with envy of the brand of printed matter that will find its way into double column leads, that will be cast into the boiler plates, and that will be plastered on the weather beaten sides of once red barns, which stand defying the elements at various alfalfa districts. This is the most thriving age of publicity of all ages. Did you ever see a full length poster of John L. Sullivan? Ever lamp that sterling old warrior in seven-column layouts, when he was knocking 'em dead? Jess has acquired the greatest pugilistic title in an age wherein the light of no man is smothered under the bushel of concealment, and a knockout victory registered over the blonde from smuggy Pittsburgh will add unmeasurable fame to the Pottawatomie plainsman.

Joe Thomas, who is wintering here, is authority for the statement that Willard has developed into a great fighter. Joe believes that the Kansan can stop Moran, if he is in grand condition for the ten-round meeting of March 25.

"I could hardly believe that this was the same big and lumbering boxing boob I had seen before the Havana fight," said Joe recently, "when I saw Willard in action in Chicago. When I took Pal Brown down to Windsor we stopped over in the big city and looked around a bit. I saw Jess work out. He is fast on his feet, hooks and jabs well with his left, and can, I believe, drop any living heavyweight with that right uppercut of his.

"Naturally I don't know how right Willard will be when he faces Moran. But if the big fellow is right, I look for him to beat Moran and surprise a great many followers of boxing who believe Willard is overrated and not as good as some of the great heavyweights of the past."

Speaking of Willard, it is stated that a regular sporting editor will be employed by the circus Willard is to travel with during the coming summer, and that the newspaper man will kindly assist in the editing of different sport pages of newspapers along the route taken by the circus.

* * *

Klank Speaks of "Marvel."

EMIL KLANK, former manager of Frank A. Gotch, wrote to Cub La Joy yesterday that the "Masked Marvel" would spring a sensational surprise when he meets Alexander Aberg in Duluth.

"If the fans knew who this man was there would be a great surprise spread among the fans," said Klank. "I have never handled anything but champions since I have been associated with the wrestling game. This fellow is a wonder. No one really knows who he is. Lots of persons thought they knew his name in the East, but they were all wrong. This fellow has wrestled in seven big Western cities and he has caused a sensation in every contest. He is one of the greatest wrestlers in the country and he will spring something when he steps out on the mat against Aberg."

The huge Aberg is one of the best known wrestlers in the Old and New worlds. The Finn's strength is prodigious. No wrestler since the retirement of Gotch and the advent of the sensational Joe Stecher, has made the record of this giant. Since winning the New York tournament in decisive manner Aberg has had a chance to rest and get in prime condition. His appearance in Duluth should see the gigantic Finn at his very best.

* * *

Welsh and Wolgast.

THERE are some followers of boxing who profess to believe a surprise will be sprung when Ad Wolgast meets Freddy Welsh in Milwaukee. Those holding to this pale pink line of thought, declare the clever boys were always rather easy for the little Dutchman, and that in any kind of shape Adolph is liable to crowd in and tear open the marvelous defense of the agile Briton.

Say, do you know that a Wolgast victory—one achieved by the red-blooded medium of the kayo—would prove immensely popular? With all the faults of little Wolgast, he is held in more mob favor than Welsh. Somehow or other Welsh has never won the niche held by former lightweights. The box office receipts are generally a reliable criterion from which to judge, and the total of ring earnings of Welsh and Wolgast will present a financial gap.

While the vast majority of followers of the glove sport will laugh uproariously at the faint suggestion that Wolgast has an outside chance with Welsh, those toting a hunch in this regard, point out that Welsh is somewhat shop worn and not as nimble of limb as in the days that have swept by back of the chariot of Father Time.

But, anyway, wouldn't it be the strangest happening the ring world has perhaps ever witnessed, were the stocky little Teuton to come back and win a title that he has always claimed was won unfairly?

Wolgast has always been a great card in Milwaukee. He drew a record-breaking house in the Foam City with Willie Ritchie and it would not be strange if the little Dutchman's quarrel with Welsh would pull the largest gathering Milwaukee has turned out this season.

AMATEUR HOCKEY STARS OF STRONG RIVAL TEAMS

BARTLETT, Universals.

SULLIVAN, Big Duluths.

ABERG WINS FROM ERNST

Finnish Giant Defeats Opponent in Two Straight Falls at Boston.

Boston, Mass., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Alex Aberg, the huge Finnish heavyweight, continued his sensational winning streak here last night, when he defeated Adolph Erest in two straight falls. The gigantic European won the first fall in 35 minutes and the second and deciding fall in 18 minutes and 29 seconds.

The winner of the New York tournament proved entirely too strong and clever for his opponent. Ernst secured several dangerous holds on the huge Finn but the prodigious strength of the giant kept him from getting into any great difficulty. The contest was staged in the big Boston Hippodrome and was witnessed by a big crowd.

TROPHY EVENTS AT THE DULUTH CURLING CLUB

Manley Event.

Third Round.	Semi-Finals.
Coson McMillan	Coson
Brewer Cleveland	Cleveland
Macgregor Dinham	Dinham
Hall MacGregor	Hall

Pinzon Event.

Second Round.	Third Round.
G. E. Warren William Dinham
D. McLennan Walter Hall	McLennan
C. F. Naughton F. G. German	Naughton
S. L. Reichert A. C. Hoone
Sam Cleveland Charles Brewer	Brewer
H. E. Ditzel D. C. Duncan
George Milligan E. D. Field	Milligan
H. S. Macgregor O. E. Martin	Macgregor

Herald Event.

Semi-Finals.	Finals.
Duncan Cleveland	Cleveland
Dinham Harris

Hall

Macgregor

QUINTS WILL FIGHT FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Centrals and Cathedrals Expected to Stage Close Battle.

All is set for the big battle this evening between Central and Cathedral high schools of this city to determine the basket ball championship of the Lake Superior region.

The quints are very evenly matched and the game should be a fast one. Central has a slight shade in the "dope," as the Red and White athletes won the first contest from the Fourth street men about a month ago. Cathedral, however, has made a big improvement since then, and as two of Central's stars are to be out of the game this evening, it looks as if the contest would be exceptionally close.

Central will be badly crippled by the loss of Shaw and Christoferson, two of the best players on the team. These men were declared ineligible because of scholastic difficulties. Christoferson is the man who saved the Hibbing game by caging five brilliant baskets in the last two minutes of play, and Shaw has been playing a great game all season. Coach Blake, however, has been working hard with the remaining men all week and declares that his team is going to win despite their handicap.

Coach Daugherty at Cathedral has been working hard with his men for the past two weeks, developing them for the big game this evening. The Cathedralites believe that the Central win over them a month ago was a freak and that it will not be repeated tonight. Cole, Lee and Fitzpatrick, three of the Cathedral stars who were ineligible in the Nelson Dewey game, have returned to the fold. The team as a result has been so greatly strengthened and the team work of the Purple and Gold men has improved so noticeably that the supporters of the Fourth street point believe that they will walk off with the game this evening.

It is believed that one of the largest crowds that ever watched a high school game at the Head of the Lakes will turn out for the big contest this evening. Cathedral has defeated Northland college of Ashland and Nelson Dewey high of Superior, while Duluth Central, among others, has defeated Superior Central. The game this evening, therefore, will decide the basket ball supremacy of this part of the country.

The lineups of the two teams will be as follows:

Centrals—		Cathedrals—
Mason	f	Quinn
Karon	f	Fitzpatrick
Goglus (Capt.)	c	Lee
Rosenberg	g	(Capt.) Cole
Hermanson	g	Farah

COMMISSION DIVIDED.

Central Association Barred From Rock Island By Narrow Vote.

Cincinnati, Ohio, March 3.—The Central association was ordered not to operate with the city of Rock Island in its circuit, by the national baseball commission in a finding promulgated here yesterday. In making this decision the ruling of the National association in this controversy, which was between the Central association and the Three-I league was over-ruled. The commission likewise was partly divided on the subject, President Tener of the National league dissenting from the majority ruling signed by Chairman Herrmann of the commission and President Johnson of the American league.

The majority finding was based on the fact that Rock Island was original Three-I league territory and that in surrendering its territory rights even though it did not operate a team in Rock Island the Three-I league is being injured.

TWO RECORDS MADE.

New Swimming Time Set at Chicago and Philadelphia Meets.

Chicago, March 3.—In the Central A. A. U. open events swimming event at the Illinois Athletic club last night, M. McDermott won the 100-yard breast stroke in 1:10 4-5, said to be a record. Perry McGillivray was first in the half mile, H. J. Hebner in the 150 yard back stroke and the I. A. C. team in the relay race.

Philadelphia, March 3.—Olga Dorfner of Philadelphia won the Middle Atlantic A. A. U. 100-yard swimming championship for women here last night in 1 minute, 9 2-5 seconds, a new American record for the distance. Her time was 7 1-5 seconds better than the former record made by Frances Cowells at the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco.

Jack Johnson on His Way.

London, March 3.—Jack Johnson, negro pugilist and his wife left London last night for Corunna, Spain. Johnson was ordered last week to leave England. It was stated at the time that he would sail for South America.

Joe Welling Is Beaten.

Kenosha, Wis., March 3.—Ever Hammer, and Joe Welling, both of Chicago boxed ten rounds here last night. The majority of newspaper men at the ringside gave the decision to Hammer.

Elected to State U. Board.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 3.—Albert P. Baston, captain of the University of Minnesota football team, was elected president of the board of athletic control of the university late yesterday. Clare (Shorty) Long, the Gopher quarterback, and Arthur Melin were elected as representatives on the board.

an "GOTHIC" ARROW COLLAR

FRONT FITS CRAVAT KNOT PERFECTLY. 2 for 25c

CLUETT, PEABODY & CO., INC., MAKERS

HIGH SCORES ARE HUNG UP

Joss Sets New Commercial League Bowling Record With 630 Mark.

In the Commercial Bowling league games of last evening the Duluth Photo Engravers won two out of three games from the American Meats, the Northern Shoes won two out of three games from the Boston Lunch five, and the National Meats won three straight games from the Ryan & Russell team.

Joss of the Duluth Photo team was high three-game score man with a count of 630. This mark establishes a new league record. He was also the high one-game counter with a mark of 256. Manilla of the American Meats got two 200 scores.

The scores:

AMERICAN MEATS.

Players—	1G.	2G.	3G.	Total
Johnson	152	182	125	469
Nelson	214	181	114	509
Retun	106	133	148	387
Munella	220	212	154	586
Kohnen	166	131	199	487
Totals	758	757	740	2,255

DULUTH PHOTO ENG. CO.

Players—	1G.	2G.	3G.	Total
Hefferan	153	120	169	142
Arnold	179	130	182	491
Busk	199	140	147	486
Olson	171	171	122	464
Joss	266	183	191	630
Totals	959	744	815	2,503

NORTHERN SHOE.

Players—	1G.	2G.	3G.	Total
Simmons	173	166	148	487
Peterson	...	112	158	158
Patient	171	112	...	283
Zielke	...	160	155	315
Peterson	145	...	...	145
Meisel	154	166	131	451
Rude	163	182	161	506
Totals	806	786	753	2,345

BOSTON LUNCH.

Players—	1G.	2G.	3G.	Total
Manilla	129	171	120	420
Nichols	166	139	185	490
Hansen	190	134	158	482
Almond	160	125	164	449
Dryer	166	169	158	493
Totals	811	738	785	2,334

NATIONAL MEATS.

Players—	1G.	2G.	3G.	Total
Cheple	157	155	147	459
Pearling	147	173	232	552
Goodhand	157	169	172	498
Hugo	181	192	149	522
Devcich	165	179	202	546
Totals	807	868	902	2,577

RYAN & RUSSELL.

Players—	1G.	2G.	3G.	Total
Cameron	136	175	161	472
Hayes	122	124	155	401
Ryan	121	149	126	396
Wold	191	177	170	538
Wagner	183	180	168	531
Totals	753	805	778	2,338

BREWER OUT OF MANLEY

Cleveland's Rink Winner; Hall Puts Dinham Out of Same Event.

Sam Cleveland and his strong rink put the Brewer-Whytes out of the Manley-McLennan event in the play of last evening. As a result of the win over the B & W's, Cleveland moves out in the semi-finals along with Leslie Coson. Walter Hall sprang a genuine surprise by putting Dinham out of the same event and by his win progressed into the finals. The winner of the Coson-Cleveland game will meet Hall in the Manley finals. It is expected this contest will be played tomorrow or Saturday night, or the first of the week.

With the completion of the Universal and Bagley events and the finals of the Manley in sight, play has narrowed to The Herald, the Blaze of Glory, Board of Trade, and Pinzon events.

The scores of last night's play and the draw for this evening follow:

Last Night's Results.

BOARD OF TRADE.

Guy E. Warren, 13; F. Hoene, 12.
S. L. Reichert, 18; J. F. Naufts, 6.

BLAZE OF GLORY.

D. Cameron, 13; T. F. McGilvray, 12.
W. E. McLeod, 15; Victor Sahlberg, 3.
C. F. Naughton, 10; N. H. Frees, 8.
A. J. Butchart, 12; P. McDonald, 3.
F. G. German, 9; C. S. Parsons, 5.

MANLEY-McLENNAN EVENT.

Sam Cleveland, 11; C. Brewer, 10.
Walter Hall, 12; Will Dinham, 10.

Draw For Tonight.

BOARD OF TRADE EVENT.

E. D. Field vs. J. Beerhalter.
H. S. Macgregor vs. D. C. Duncan.
H. George vs. G. P. Stillman.
David Stocking vs. S. H. Jones.
S. L. Reichert vs. Oscar Martin.
J. F. Naufts vs. A. A. Michaud.
Dr. Gillespie vs. Art Hoene.

BLAZE OF GLORY EVENT.

G. A. Andreeson vs. A. J. Gow.
Horace Hargreaves vs. S. A. Johnson.
W. E. McLeod vs. "Buster" Sahlberg.
A. J. Butchart vs. C. Dreisbach.
F. G. German vs. T. Newcomb.

BACHAND WINS TWICE.

Chapman and Kuyk Are Defeated in Amateur Billiard Tournament.

There were two games played in the Duluth Amateur 14.2 balk line billiard tournament last evening. Bachand won both contests, defeating Kuyk and Chapman, the former by the score of 150 to 98 and the latter, 150 to 139.

Both games were well contested and some first-class billiard playing shown.

The summary:

First game—	P.	H. R.	In.
Bachand	150	14	61
Kuyk	98	7	61
Second game—	P.	H. R.	In.
Bachand	150	18	63
Chapman	139	7	63

McVEY AFTER FIFTY OFFERED BY WILLARD

New York, March 3.—The state boxing commission reported last night that it had granted permission to the promoters of the Willard-Moran championship match to be held in Madison Square Garden, March 25, to provide an extra row of box seats in the arena. It was said all box seats provided in the original plans have been sold, and there is a demand for more.

The commission also announced that it had granted permission to Sam McVey, a negro pugilist, to try to win $50 offered by Willard to anyone who can floor him during a boxing session in his training for the championship bout. McVey said his reason for applying to the commission was that he did not wish to break any of its rules.

SUPERIOR CASE NEARLY SETTLED

All Details of Baseball Business Expected to Be Wound Up.

Superior business men are expected to settle all the details of the baseball business that has been hanging fire across the bay for several weeks, before the termination of the present week. Officers will be elected next week, it was announced last evening. The appointment of a team manager for the approaching season will be an early move. It is believed that Fred Curtis will be finally decided upon.

A. B. Coates of Virginia, Charles Moll and Harry Blume held an informal conference last evening. These moguls decided that several schedules that have already been submitted to the league officials are very satisfactory and that one of these playing sheets, with some modifications, will probably be adopted.

RESULTS OF TWO BILLIARD TOURNEYS

New York, March 3.—Edward W. Gardner defeated J. Ford Poggenburg here last night in the amateur billiard championship tournament by a score of 400 to 348.

By a score of 400 to 372, Francis S. Appleby, a Columbia university student, defeated Charles Heddon of Dowagiac, Mich., in the afternoon game.

Chicago, March 3.—George Clark of Brooklyn continued his winning streak in the national pocket billiard championship meet yesterday, defeating J. L. Chapman of Chicago 100 to 48. Two runs of 22 each helped Clark to the victory, which was his third.

Cubs Men Reporting.

Chicago, March 3.—Max Flack, outfielder, who has been one of the Chicago Nationals' holdouts, telegraphed that he would be here today to discuss terms. Heine Zimmerman, third baseman, and Mike Prendergast, pitcher, reported yesterday.

SPECIAL CARDS FOR ACCIDENT INFORMATION

Special cards for tabulating information on accidents have been provided by Commissioner Silberstein, head of the city's safety division, and these will be distributed shortly to employes of the city.

Use of the cards was suggested by the city attorney several weeks ago as a means of obtaining first-hand information on all accidents in which the city is involved.

Cards on which dangerous sidewalks are to be reported by police officers are also being printed and these will be distributed within a few days.

WAR PROFITABLE FOR RAIL SUPPLY MAKERS

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Vienna, Feb. 11.—War has been profitable for the Austrian and Hungarian railroad supply makers. Figures just [illegible] show that since August, 1914, 961 locomotives and tenders, 3,095 passenger coaches, and 26,383 freight cars have been ordered by the railroads of the dual monarchy. In addition orders have just been given for 4,000 additional freight cars deliverable by the end of 1916 and 438 locomotives and tenders, deliverable by the end of 1917. The value of the first orders is about $64,000,000, that of the second about $16,000,000.

"Leads Them All"

You take away the Crown, but it still remains the Peer of Bottled Beers.

No matter what you eat, if you top it off with a bottle of Hamm's, it adds a zest to every meal.

Hamm's BEER

THEO. HAMM BREWING CO. SAINT PAUL

Sprains and Bruises

are so common in every home that it pays to keep a good Liniment handy. Nothing better than Sloan's Liniment. It stops pain, relieves congestion, reduces swelling and does it quickly too. Just apply a few drops and the pain disappears.

Sloan's Liniment

KILLS PAIN

"Keep a bottle in your home."

Price 25c., 50c, $1.00

NATIONAL MAZDA LAMPS

10, 15, 25 and 40 Watts, each—

27c

UNIVERSAL ELECTRIC CO.

112 EAST SUPERIOR ST.

Melrose 7657. Grand 165-X.

Jay W. Anderson,

(AGENT)

616 WEST MICHIGAN STREET, DULUTH, MINN.

Phones—Zenith, Grand 1800 Duluth, Melrose 1800

Copyright 1916 Newark Shoe Stores Co.

205 Stores In 97 Cities—Worn by Over 3 Million Men

And every man of the vast number of wearers of The NEWARK Shoe HAD to be shown—the $3.50 value of The NEWARK Shoe had to PROVE itself—and it DID.

Enormous production, scientific distribution — that's what saves the dollar for you.

"SAVE-A-DOLLAR" Newark SHOE for MEN

$2.50 $3.50 VALUE

The NEWARK Shoe Maker says: "$2.50 is enough to pay for shoes—never pay more." 237 styles here — all one price—$2.50.

The Newark Shoe Stores Co.,

DULUTH STORE

326 WEST SUPERIOR STREET—St. Louis Hotel Building.

Other Newark Stores Nearby: St. Paul, Minneapolis.

Open Saturday Nights Until 10:30 o'Clock to Accommodate Our Customers.

When ordering by mail include 10c parcel post charges.

——205 Stores in 97 Cities.——

Quality is some word—— Attached to a vainglorious statement it means nothing. Coupled with forty-three years of hat selling it means

LANPHER

The price is $3.00

BITTER HOCKEY RIVALS TO STAGE CRUCIAL GAME

Universals and Big Duluths May Decide Pennant Contest in Coming Game—Bagleys and Northerns Scheduled to Play Their Final Contest of the Season.

TEAM STANDING.

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Universals	5	2	.714
Big Duluths	4	3	.571
Northerns	4	4	.500
Bagleys	2	6	.250

A great hockey contest is expected tonight when the Universals and Big Duluths hook up at the curling club in one of the season's crucial games.

There is a neck and neck race being waged for the league bunting. Tonight's contest is not unlikely to put the Big Duluths out of the pennant race. If the flour men win tonight they will have clinched the rag, as there is but one more game for each team after the contests of tonight, which would make it quite impossible for the clothiers to win.

Should the Big Duluths win, they will tie up the race. Then the final contest of the season will decide the winner.

Interest is running high in the outcome of the game between the two teams, which have been bitter rivals for the last three years. During the life of the amateur hockey association the chief contenders for the flag have been locked in a struggle for the highest amateur puck honors of the city. This season the rivalry and closeness of play have surpassed all previous years. So intense has the rivalry been, in fact, that it broke out in large red splotches one eventful evening, several of the players being smeared around the place before the rivalry was sufficiently worked out of the system of the contestants.

Both Teams Confident.

Members of both teams are confident of winning the contest. Manager Ed Harris of the Universals declares his team will be returned the winner, if the Big Duluths will play real hockey and keep within the rules of the game. Ed Norsted, on the other hand, believes the clothiers will come through this evening and administer a decisive beating to the Universals.

During the week the members of both septets have been practicing diligently in preparation for tonight's contest. With the exception of Goalkeeper Mahan, the Universals will have the strongest lineup of the season in the game. The same may be said regarding the Big Duluths. Neither manager has left a single stone unturned in the effort to win a contest that will either decide the pennant winner or prolong the race.

Bagleys and Northerns.

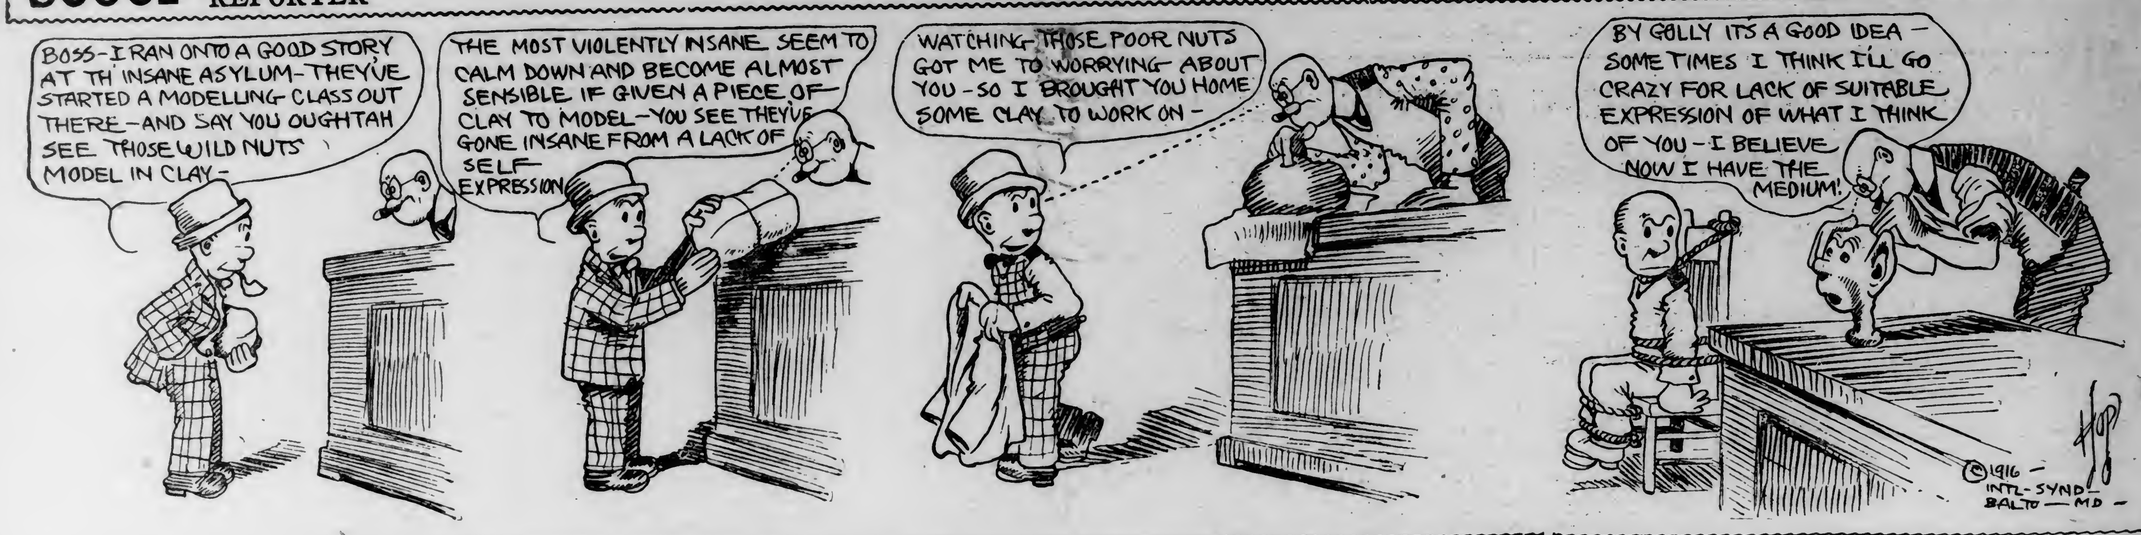
In addition to the contest between the Universals and Big Duluths, there is the final meeting between the Bagleys and Northerns. Al Swanstrom's jewelry aggregation will get its last hack at the hardware men, and the Bagleys are out to win the final meeting of the present season.

Cline of Superior and "Si" Clark of Duluth have been named as officials for tonight's contest. These men have been given specific instructions regarding the running of the game. It has been announced by league officials that no dirty playing will be tolerated. Both officials have been requested to maintain a sharp lookout for all infractions of the rules or any intentional roughness.

It is expected that the largest crowd that has ever witnessed an amateur hockey game in the history of the league, will be on hand to see what may prove the deciding contest of the pennant race. Followers of both the Universals and Big Duluths are exhibiting a large amount of interest and all indications point to a big gathering.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

SCOOP THE CUB REPORTER — The Boss Likes This Idea — By "HOP"



BOSS-I RAN ONTO A GOOD STORY AT TH' INSANE ASYLUM-THEY'VE STARTED A MODELLING CLASS OUT THERE-AND SAY YOU OUGHTAH SEE THOSE WILD NUTS MODEL IN CLAY-
THE MOST VIOLENTLY INSANE SEEM TO CALM DOWN AND BECOME ALMOST SENSIBLE IF GIVEN A PIECE OF CLAY TO MODEL-YOU SEE THEY'VE GONE INSANE FROM A LACK OF SELF EXPRESSION
WATCHING THOSE POOR NUTS GOT ME TO WORRYING ABOUT YOU-SO I BROUGHT YOU HOME SOME CLAY TO WORK ON-
BY GOLLY IT'S A GOOD IDEA - SOMETIMES I THINK I'LL GO CRAZY FOR LACK OF SUITABLE EXPRESSION OF WHAT I THINK OF YOU-I BELIEVE NOW I HAVE THE MEDIUM!
©1916 - INT'L-SYND - BALTO — MD -

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

MAYOR VETOES SALARY SHAVE

Crookston Executive Refuses to Sanction Police Chief's Salary Cut.

Captain of Force Resigns and There Is Difference Over Police Matron.

Crookston, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Crookston's police force is slightly ripped up the back. The city council started trouble when, after having confirmed the appointment of Aaron Eck as chief, at a later meeting fixed his salary at $50 per month, as an invitation to him to resign. Mayor Harvey Misner, who had conferred with the council before he appointed Eck, has vetoed the resolution setting his salary at $50, and in the meantime Chief Eck is holding the fort and drawing his old salary of $80 per month. What will happen next is problematical, but an attempt will be made to pass the $50 resolution over the mayor's veto.

To add to the mixup, Capt. Anton Rasmussen resigned from the force on receiving news that he had won out in a contest for a claim in Montana and must be on the ground March 17. His resignation takes effect March 8. Mayor Misner will not announce his successor for a few days.

Differ as to Police Matron.

Some of the councilmen do not take kindly to a police matron, and this figures in the balance of the mixup. Public opinion is strong for Police Matron Mary Berg, whose work at dances has filled a much felt need but which has put her "in bad" with those with whom she has naturally had to interfere.

The expose in Minneapolis is used as a special argument at this time in support of the work of a police matron and a police force that will refuse to wink at vice, especially since the saloons went out of existence and results in more drinking in private rooms.

The present scrap is apt to develop into something serious, though efforts are being made to get the city council lined up before the next meeting.

COLD WEATHER HAS AVERTED FLOOD DANGER

Mandan, N. D., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—With a turn to cold weather the Heart and Missouri rivers have frozen over again and all danger of a flood has passed. As a result of the Yellowstone, Little Missouri, Heart Milk, Powder and other tributary streams breaking and running out last week, no high water is expected when the Missouri ice eventually breaks up.

FOUR WEEKS IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Brown Finally Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"For years I suffered so sometimes it seemed as though I could not stand it any longer. It was all in my lower organs. At times I could hardly walk, for if I stepped on a little stone I would almost faint. One day I did faint and my husband was sent for and the doctor came. I was taken to the hospital and stayed four weeks but when I came home I would faint just the same and had the same pains.

A friend who is a nurse said for me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it that very day for I was suffering a great deal. It has already done me more good than the hospital. To anyone who is suffering as I was my advice is to stop in the first drug-store and get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before you go home."—Mrs. W. C. BROWN, 1109 Auburn Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio.

Why not take Mrs. Brown's advice?

Write for free and helpful advice to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

BADGER JUDGE MARRIED TO NEWARK, OHIO GIRL

JUDGE W. B. QUINLAN.

Marinette, Wis., March 3.—Circuit Judge William B. Quinlan of this city was married Wednesday morning at St. Francis' church, Newark, Ohio, to Miss Agnes Fitzsimmons, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Fitzsimmons, former well-known residents of Marinette, who removed to Newark about five years ago. The groom is judge of the Twentieth judicial district. He was district attorney and county judge before he was elevated to the circuit bench, and has been a resident of Marinette for over twenty years, coming here from Waukesha county.

The bride is a beautiful girl, tall and slender, of the blond type. Mr. and Mrs. Quinlan managed their plans without the slightest intimation reaching closest friends.

FREE EXAMINATION OF PUPILS' TEETH

Fargo and Moorhead Dentists Offer Their Services Gratis for Needy.

Fargo, N. D., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Through the efforts of the Fargo-Moorhead Dental club the board of education has authorized the president of the board to set aside a day which will be known as Oral Hygiene day during which all the children of the first eight grades of the school will undergo a thorough dental examination.

The examination will be made free by the dentists of the two cities and a triplicate report will be made of the condition of each child's teeth, one copy to be sent to the parent, one filed with the school authorities and one retained by the dental club.

This will be the first thorough dental examination that the children of the city will have undergone although several other towns in the state have had such examinations made, including Dickinson, Grafton and Grand Forks.

The Fargo-Moorhead dentists will care for the teeth of any child in the city free of charge in case of the parents being financially unable to have the wor kdone, with the exception of gold work.

ESTABROOK MAKES TARIFF BIG ISSUE

New York Presidential Candidate Passes Up Other Issues in St. Paul.

St. Paul, Minn., March 3.—Laughing at the Democratic party for its inability to make good when in charge of national affairs; ridiculing President Wilson and Secretary Redfield for their alleged conversion from free trade to protection, and their strange attempts to protect the American markets after the European war by a system of espionage instead of protective tariff, and declaring that, "Jones bill or no Jones bill, Wilson or no Wilson, our flag is in the orient to stay, and will never budge from the ramparts of Manila," Henry D. Estabrook of New York, candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, passed up preparedness and turned to the tariff as the paramount issue in his address at the auditorium last night.

Says Tariff Is Issue.

"There is no need of talking harmony in Minnesota, for it is here," Mr. Estabrook said. "Moreover, the most important issue before the people of America is the tariff. Although we are thinking and talking a good deal about preparedness, the establishment of a permanent prosperity in the United States far outweighs anything that has to do with our armament program. The question of preparation for national defense is no longer an issue, neither sectional nor partisan."

PLAN DEVELOPMENT OF MISSOURI POWER

Mandan, N. D., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Frank E. Ellickson of Regent, who operates a fine farm and edits the Regent Times as a sideline, proposes that farmers work towards the establishment of state mills at Mandan where the power of the Missouri river may be utilized. Mr. Ellickson quotes Minneapolis and St. Paul, and the falls of St. Anthony, as a precedent for Mandan and Bismarck. An average difference in the cost of shipping grain from various points in the state to Mandan, and to the Twin Cities is said to be 7 cents a bushel that can be saved. Concerted action is now being taken towards interesting the war department in a dam across the Missouri here.

TO SECURE INTEREST IN BIG FRENCH ESTATE

Milwaukee, Wis., March 3.—William A. De La Porte, proprietor of a local hotel, yesterday took action to trace and secure his share in the $12,000,000 estate of his grandfather, Christian Combe De La Porte, awaiting in France for the American heirs. He has one brother here. The story of the De La Porte estate concerns property confiscated fifty years ago by the French government in the course of war, and later transferred by the government to Cuba, for Christian Combe De La Porte, who appears to have been the sole heir.

WOMAN SAVED; VALUABLES LOST

Sheboygan, Wis., March 3.—Mrs. Ernst Wetzig, crippled with rheumatism, was rescued by her husband, a retired brewer of Chicago and Omaha, now residing here, when fire destroyed their home here Wednesday night. Bonds, mortgages and other papers valued at several thousand dollars were burned.

Mill City Elks Elect.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 3.—The local lodge of Elks elected the following officers: W. C. Robertson, exalted ruler; Henry Lawrence, esteemed leading knight; J. Warren Roberts, esteemed loyal knight; Frank Reid, esteemed lecturing knight; Robert Volbrecht, treasurer, re-elected; Loyal Bintliff, secretary, re-elected; George Wagner, elected trustee for three years to succeed Joseph Root. There was no opposition, there being only one candidate for each office.

FIVE MINUTES! NO GAS, INDIGESTION OR ACID STOMACH

Instant Relief From Sourness, Heartburn, Headache, Dyspepsia.

"Pape's Diapepsin" Is the Quickest, Surest Stomach Relief Known.

Why not get some now—this moment, and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion? A dieted stomach gets the blues and grumbles. Give it a good eat, then take Pape's Diapepsin to start the digestive juices working. There will be no dyspepsia or belching of gas or eructations of undigested food; no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach or heartburn, sick headache and dizziness, and your food will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin costs only 50 cents for a large case at any drug store here, and will relieve the most obstinate case of indigestion and upset stomach in five minutes.

There is nothing else better to take gas from the stomach and cleanse the stomach and intestines, and besides, one single dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all your food the same as a sound, healthy stomach would do it.

When Diapepsin works, your stomach rests—gets itself in order, cleans up—then you feel like eating when you come to the table, and what you eat will do you good.

Absolute relief from all stomach misery is waiting for you as soon as you decide to take a little Diapepsin. Tell your druggist that you want Pape's Diapepsin, because you want to become thoroughly cured this time.

Remember, if your stomach feels out-of-order and uncomfortable, now you can get relief in five minutes.—Advertisement.

LIQUOR TOTERS ARE UNDER ARREST

Three Caught at East Lake for Taking Liquor Into Dry Territory.

Aitkin, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Special Agent A. J. Carson arrived here Thursday over the Soo from Duluth, bringing Tom Papovich, Mike Papovich and Joseph Jurich, whom he had nabbed at East Lake for bringing liquor into the Indian country. The men boarded the train at Duluth with five suitcases filled with liquor, but Agent Carson did not disturb them until they reached East Lake.

The men were lodged in the Aitkin county jail, but will be taken to Little Falls. They were on their way to Ironton. The confiscated liquor is now in charge of Sheriff I. Boekenoogen.

ALLEGED SLAYER GIVEN FREEDOM

Menominee, Mich., March 3.—Leo Dargus, held at the county jail for three months charged with murder, has been given his liberty. He was accused of killing a man near Pembine on Christmas day, 1914. He was an employe in the Sawyer Goodman camp near there at the time. He was arrested on the testimony of two inmates of Green Bay reformatory, former Pembine youths, Swanson and Bezier. This testimony proved to be false.

CANDIDATES FILE IN GRAND FORKS

Grand Forks, N. D., March 3.—All candidates for city offices have filed their nominating petitions with City Auditor W. H. Alexander for the election to be held March 21.

The nominees are: Mayor, J. A. Dinnie, A. G. Sorlie; city treasurer, Jacob Welsh, Thomas Gray; city justice, R. Purcell, Phil McLoughlin; police magistrate, J. R. Church; park commissioner, Max Rabinovich, E. S. Leland.

NEW RURAL ROUTES FROM DUNN CENTER

Dunn Center, N. D., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—That this section of the state is settled up thickly enough for rural routes, and that through rural free delivery this town will grow rapidly, is the attitude of the Commercial club. Following up this idea, the local workers are responsible for the establishment of two new rural routes out of Dunn Center, the first in Dunn county, and were largely responsible for a postoffice order that extends the Emerson-Manning route to Killdeer. The latter improvement in mail service is considered the greatest boon the business men of Dunn county have ever received.

TAXING OF BACHELORS FAVORED IN DEBATE

Aitkin, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The debate at the M. E. church Wednesday evening on the question: "Resolved That Bachelors Should Be Taxed," was won by the affirmative. In the spelling contest which followed between the high school and citizens, Miss Helen Harper, a senior, was the champion of the high school and for thirty minutes spelled against Irvine Innes and Mrs. D. W. Wilcox, citizens, but finally lost on "Illinois."

AITKIN COUNTY POULTRYMEN ELECT

Aitkin, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The first annual meeting of the Aitkin County Poultry association was held this week and the following officers elected: President, R. C. Trudgen; vice president, C. G. Boeck; secretary, Mrs. F. M. Getting; treasurer, Mrs. E. C. Boeck. The board of directors is composed of E. C. Boeck, Irvine Innes, E. Colquhoun, Fred Osterhout, R. C. Trudgen, Miss Janet Gray and Mrs F. M. Getting. The association was organized in October with sixteen members and has been increased to 100.

FIX RACING DATES IN NORTH DAKOTA

Fargo, N. D., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—At a meeting of the Short Ship circuit here, the following racing dates were set: Cooperstown, N. D., June 27, 28 and 29; Valley City, July 4, 5, 6 and 7; Crookston, Minn., July 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15; Fargo, during the North Dakota state fair, July 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 and 22; Grand Forks, July 25, 26, 27, 28 and 29.

W. S. Lycan of Crookston was elected president of the circuit, D. V. Moore of Grand Forks, vice president, and Charles Nash of Fargo, secretary.

FARGO MAN FACES CHARGE OF ARSON

Fargo, N. D., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—A special jury for the district court has been drawn here and will report on March 14, the first day of a special term of the court, which has been called by Judge Charles A. Pollock for the purpose of taking up several cases, among which will be the case of the state against John Wyman.

Wyman, who is a prominent resident of the city, is charged with arson, the complaint filed against him by the fire marshal through State's Attorney Arthur Fowled alleging that last spring he attempted to destroy his residence here by fire.

The case has attracted much local attention and has been hanging fire, change of venue having once been taken to Barnes county and then back again.

NORTH DAKOTA FAIR SECRETARIES MEETING

Fargo, N. D., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Between thirty and forty secretaries of fair associations are in the city today attending the annual convention of fair managers of North Dakota, which opened this morning at 10 o'clock and which will close this evening with a big banquet at the Annex hotel.

The general object of the meeting today is to form a permanent organization with the object of securing more uniform classifications of premium lists, to promote a more diversified list of educational features and for the arrangements of dates of exhibits that will give exhibitors a better chance to make the circuit of the fairs of the state. These topics were dealt with in an address by R. F. Flint of Bismarck, commissioner of agriculture and labor, at the opening of the session this morning.

Thief River Falls Mission.

Thief River Falls, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—During the past weeks three-day sessions of the Northern Red River valley division of the Swedish Evangelical Mission church has been in session here with delegates attending from ten nearby towns. Mayor F. H. Gambell opened the session with a short address, and on the three days of the meeting morning, afternoon, and evening services were held.

Accused of Stealing Barn.

Stevens Point, Wis., March 3.—Charles Konopacki of Sharon is under bond on a charge of stealing a barn. He rented a farm and tore down a log barn, which he cut up 'nto wood and sold. A warrant charging theft was sworn out against him.

Soporific Girl Recovering.

Oconto, Wis., March 3.—Dora Peterson, the Oconto girl who slept 100 hours at a stretch, has recovered so she is able to be up and around. After her first sleep, with the exception of awakening for a few minutes at a time, in which nourishment was given her, she slept continually ten days.

Aitkin Road Appropriation.

Aitkin, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—At the meeting of the county commissioners an appropriation of $1,000 was made for the St. Louis-Itasca state highway crossing the northeastern part of the county; $250 was appropriated to finish the stock barn on the county fair grounds; $100 was appropriated for Round Lake road in the town of Haugan, and a steel and concrete bridge was ordered over Sissebagama creek in sections 25 and 26, in the town of Spencer.

Home Destroyed.

Aitkin, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The farmhouse of Dosite Cartle on the Rice River road was destroyed by fire recently with only a small insurance. With the assistance of neighbors, who saw the flames, Mrs. Cartle was able to save some of the household goods. Mr. Cartle was not at home at the time.

Red Wing Seminary Head.

Red Wing, Minn., March 3.—Dr. D. G. Ristad, president of Park Region Luther college at Fergus Falls and one of the recognized educators of the Northwest, has accepted the presidency of the Red Wing Lutheran Ladies' seminary. After the close of the present school year he will succeed the Rev. H. Allen, who has been at the head of the seminary for nearly twenty-two years, and who retires of his own volition to enter other fields of activity.

One-Armed Ball Player.

Marmarth, N. D., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The handicap of the the loss of his right arm does not stop "Bobby" Martin of Marmarth from playing basket ball and making the high school team as a guard. His active work in the gymnasium has been responsible for much of the success of the local team. Besides playing basket ball, he also plays on the football team and is a baseball player of ability.

Vote Down Compromise.

Oshkosh, Wis., March 3.—At an executive meeting of the strikers of the Paine Lumber company yesterday a compromise proposition for settlement of the strike prepared by a committee of eight persons, four of them delegates-at-large and four representing the Union, was voted down 3 to 1. The proposition will be simplified and another ballot will be taken today. The meeting was the outcomo of a recent mass meeting.

To Fight Milwaukee Typhoid.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 3.—The common council, in special session yesterday gave Health Commissioner Ruhland $10,000 as an emergency fund to use in halting the spread of typhoid fever.

RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

Pimples Are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin Pores.

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can elliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.—Advertisement.

DAKOTA BRIEFS

Bismarck, N. D.—The Bismarck Debating club met and the following officers were elected: Hugo Carlson, president; Rudolf Bork, vice president; Glen Peck, secretary-treasurer, and Ambrose Galliger, sergeant-at-arms.

Stanley, N. D.—Five cars loaded with coal and oil were wrecked and two of them were reduced to kindling, when an eastbound freight train dashed into the branch train at this place. The branch train was standing on the main line taking coal when the westbound freight crashed into it.

Devils Lake, N. D.—Mrs. Robert Cochran has returned from a visit in Leitchfield and Duluth, Minn. Mrs. Cochrane was entertained by friends during her visit.

Fargo, N. D.—Fargo Carpenters' union has moved its headquarters to Aaker's hall on Roberts street and Second avenue north, owing to the fact that the old assembly halls are now being remodeled into a hotel.

Golden Valley, N. D.—Authorities are searching for Harry Miller, cook in a local restaurant, who, it is alleged, forged several checks, cashed them and made good his escape.

Fargo, N. D.—The Sigdalslaget, Sognelaget and the Nordhordlandslaget are three Norwegian organizations that have so far accepted invitations of the Norse society to come to Fargo for their annual meetings this year.

Ellendale, N. D.—Local people are much interested in the water problem and there are indications that the people of the town will be called upon to vote on a $9,000 bonding proposition at the general election on March 21.

Minot, N. D.—The Minot Ski club will hold its first annual tournament in this city on March 10 and the indications are that it will be the largest out-of-doors snow event of the entire year in the state.

WISCONSIN BRIEFS

Madison—Walter Alexander of Wausau, candidate for delegate to the national Republican convention, wired his declaration of acceptance as delegate if elected to the office of the secretary of state.

Milwaukee—Edwin and Elizabeth Eisen, children of Dr. E. J. Eisen, who are in St. Mary's hospital, suffering from fractured skulls as the result of an automobile and street car crash at Downer avenue and Garden boulevard, Sunday afternoon, are recovering rapidly, according to Dr. C. H. Lemon.

Janesville — Wednesday night some 300 members of the Rock County Rod and Gun club sat down to a game dinner at the Y. M. C. A. with state officers as guests of honor.

Neenah—B. L. Smith, captain of Company I, W. N. G., has discharged several members of the company for failure to attend drills regularly. More discharges are threatened.

Madison — The attorney general advised District Attorney M. E. Dillon of Ashland that a mother with dependent children is entitled to a pension under the mother's pension law if she is a legal resident of the county in which the application is made.

Pewaukee—Fire starting from a stove destroyed the garage of Rhodes & Son Wednesday morning and for a time threatened adjoining buildings. The burned building was two stories high and the loss will be about $10,000.

Milwaukee—Mayor Bading on Wednesday received a telegram from Congressman W. J. Cary that the war department has refused to sanction the plan of Chicago interests to divert a large amount of water from the lake into the Chicago drainage canal.

MINNESOTA BRIEFS

Faribault—The annual meeting of the Cannon Valley Poultry association was held here. The association will hold another poultry show here next year. The following officers were elected: C. H. Smith, president; Charles F. Ebel, vice president; E. D. Roth, secretary; E. J. Vaux, treasurer.

Stillwater—Samuel Wit, proprietor of the Central house, pleaded guilty in the municipal court to stealing a masquerade suit from his wife. He was discharged on paying $3.95 costs. Judge Gillen advised the couple to resume living together and quit their quarrelling.

Brainerd—The annual men's supper, given by the men of the First Methodist church in the church dining room, was a success. Neatly garbed in white coats they waited on the tables. Others officiated in the kitchen.

St. Cloud—There are 115 St. Cloud residents who neglected to pay their personal property taxes, according to County Treasurer Chris Schmitt. This is not a large percentage of delinquents, as there were over 1,000 personal property taxpayers on the books.

International Falls—W. F. Marvin and family have gone to their former down-river farm to pack their household goods for shipment to Clarinda, Iowa, where they will make their future home. Mr. Marvin will take a course in optometry and will practice his new professice there.

Northome—A meeting of the directors of the Koochiching County Fair association will be held at Northome Saturday night.

Crookston—Secretary J. M. Cathcart of the Commercial club went to Fargo to attend a meeting of the North Dakota-Minnesota Short Ship Circuit Racing association, when plans were laid for races which will be held here July 14 and 15 next at the Northwestern Minnesota Fair association.

Albert Lea—At the inquest in the Gulbrandson case, Mrs. Fjelbroten still stuck to her first story that she had attempted to prevent her mother from taking the carbolic acid, which physicians state was the direct cause of her death. As the women were alone, attorneys stated that the daughter must be given the benefit of the doubt. The verdict was that Mrs. Gulbrandson committed suicide.

Blackduck—Blackduck will vote on the license question at the annual village election March 14. A petition has been placed before the village council of Blackduck signed by taxpayers asking for the election.

Bemidji—Vic Reynolds of Williams was given a sentence of sixty days in the county jail on a charge of passing worthless checks. He entered a plea of guilty. Reynolds was arrested in the northern part of the county several weeks ago. The checks were passed on local men.

Little Falls—John R. Ryan, who was acquitted of a forgery charge in district court here last month, is now serving time in the North Dakota state penitentiary at Bismarck, Sheriff Paul Ryan having turned a recent trip to Fargo, where Ryan was tried.

International Falls—The first state land sale for Koochiching county will be held here on Monday, March 13, for this year, and sales will be held every month during the summer. A lot of new lands have been added to the list.

Stillwater—The reported smallpox cases at Lake Elmo, sixteen in number, dwindled to two in the village and one in the country adjacent. These cases are light and no danger of a spread of the disease is anticipated.

St. Cloud—The funeral of Paul Herman, county commissioner, was held March 1 at 9 o'clock at the Catholic church at Holdingford.

Moorhead—The proposition of constructing a road between Kragnes and Georgetown, said road to run parallel with and on the west side of the railroad, was taken up by the county board Wednesday. After hearing the arguments the board decided to take the matter under advisement until the next meeting.

Pimples in an Evening Gown

Stop Embarrassment From Pimples Beautify Your Skin Quickly With Stuart's Calcium Wafers. Trial Package Mailed Free.

Skin-tissue is made from the blood, and as it is a tendency of nature to throw off a good share of impurities through the skin, naturally impurities gather on the surface in the form of pimples, blotches, blackheads and other eruptions. Naturally, if there are no impurities in the blood, none will appear in the skin. There'll be no skin eruptions. The skin will become wonderfully clear. The complexion will be perfect, angelic. Stuart's Calcium Wafers remove the impurities from the blood. They do it quickly, completely. They are the most powerful blood cleansers ever known. They are harmless. Don't expect face creams to do this big work.

Go to the drug store today and get a box of Stuart's Calcium Wafers, 50 cents, but are really worth many dollars to you if your face is marred by ugly pimples, blotches, blackheads, muddiness or spots, etc. Convince yourself by actual test that Stuart's Calcium Wafers are the most effective blood and skin purifiers in the world. If you wish to try them first, mail coupon below for free trial package.

Free Trial Coupon

F. A. Stuart Co., 303 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.: Send me at once, by return mail, a free trial package of Stuart's Calcium Wafers.

Name .....

Street .....

City ..... State .....

ON THE IRON RANGES

NEW OFFICER IS AT HELM

Douglas Greeley Sounds Keynote for Future of Virginia Club.

Plans Considered for Great Farmers' Day With Notables Present.

Virginia, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The fostering of a community spirit will be one of the great objects to be sought by President Douglas Greeley of the Commercial club this year, according to the sentiments he expressed at the club meeting last night in taking charge for the first time. He was applauded when he urged all to work for the advancement of Virginia in every way. He favored the employment of a paid secretary, an idea that met the approbation of club members and it is expected the apointment of a local man will be anounced in a few days.

President Greeley also announced the standing committees.

Finance—R. R. Bailey, C. H. Rogers, Carl Shapiro, Otto A. Poirer, B. F. Britts and W. H. Eaton.

Transportation—M. A. Murphy, A. D. Heritage, Stewart Murray, R. C. Pickering and P. J. Sevenich.

Agricultural—Otto A. Stangel, John Ketola, William Haenke, F. W. Torvinen, R. A. Peers and R. A. McLean.

New enterprises—Lawrence Barrett, Dave Smith, Alexander Reid, Edward P. Scanlon and Charles Grabowsky.

Entertainment—M. H. Godfrey, A. B. Coates, Al G. Flournoy, M. Boylan, Dr. P. P. Colgrove, R. W. Reynolds and S. J. Casson.

Roads—O. H. Griggs, D. C. Reed, F. L. Schoening, A. E. Anderson and William Kestila.

Market—E. C. A. Johnson, W. T. Biss, E. D. Philbrick, Matt Lofbacka and P. A. Coffey.

Membership—William Rooney, J. A. Krogdahl, C. L. Eaton, M. F. Marion and D. W. Stebbins.

Legislative—George F. Shea, W. J. Archer, L. F. Burns, John Gill and Julius Shanedling.

Public welfare—Al G. Flournoy, R. G. Sherwood, Dr. P. P. Colgrove, Thomas Moodie, Charles Grabowsky, B. D. Pearson, Alfred Hansen, John W. Sickle, B. F. Forsythe, Ralph Wilk, Jack Hammond, Boston Sherwood, Harold Casson, H. S. Gillespie, Otto A. Poirer, A. E. Bickford, H. V. Peterson, Michael Boylan, R. C. Pickering and W. E. Davis.

President Greeley Speaks.

President Greeley in assuming office said in part:

"I desire to thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me in electing me president of this club. I appreciate both the honor and the responsibility and with your help and co-operation I will endeavor to fill this position acceptably. This club will be just what its membership and officers make of it. It offers large opportunities for public service and I believe during the past year it has been an excellent medium toward the cultivation here of a new community spirit, a spirit of co-operation and get-together which every progressive city in the country is today cultivating. The Commercial club in Virginia should be a place for everybody to get together. It should be a place to forget all other differences in working to the common end of a bigger and better Virginia. To this end the officers of this club must have the co-operation of every member and the active co-operation and interest of the club's committees especially."

Plans were discussed for a great winter carnival for 1916-7 and from now until next winter club members will boost the idea.

For Farmers' Day.

If the plans discussed last night are carried out Virginia will have a great farmers' day next fall that also will bring here many of the prominent men of the state. It is planned to induce the farmers for miles around to come here and make exhibits of their products. It is proposed to invite James J. Hill, Governor Burnquist, some university agricultural experts and others to be here and address the farmers.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR ELY LAKE COUPLE

Gilbert, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—An old time surprise party was given Thursday night for Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Trenholm at their residence at Ely lake. A large sleigh load of people from Gilbert consisting of members of the Woodmen and Royal Neighbors and their friends drove out to the party. Following were present:

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Noble, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kilby, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Kohler, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Julen, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Sharpe, Mrs. James Noble, Miss Helen Downing, Mrs. John Carlson, Mrs. Karl Fredrickson, Mrs. Emma Fredrickson, Mrs. J. Bordeau, Mrs. A. G. MacInnis, Mrs. O. Risem, Mrs. Claus, Miss Ella Claus, Miss Esther Strand, Alex Sharpe, Herman Berg, Pat Hogan, Mrs. R. A. Trenholm, James Kennedy, Mr. Piyle, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Cronin, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Trenholm.

The evening was spent in dancing. Music was furnished by Kennedy's orchestra. A delicious luncheon was served.

The Power To Accomplish

is largely within one's own control—keeping fit by right living and eating.

The pure food—

Grape-Nuts

made of whole wheat and malted barley, supplies all the nutriment of the grains, including their vital mineral salts—phosphate of potash, etc. These mineral elements, lacking in the usual diet of many persons, are imperative for keeping body and brain healthy and vigorous.

Grape-Nuts comes fresh and crisp—ready to eat direct from the package with cream or good milk. As a daily ration along with other food, Grape-Nuts has worked wonders for thousands.

"There's a Reason"

WOULD IMPROVE MAIL SERVICE

Range Communities Well Represented at Mountain Iron Meeting.

Mountain Iron, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Letters will be sent to both Minnesota's senators, to Congressman Miller and to Assistant Postmaster General Stuart by the commercial clubs of the range, urging the postal department to have Mesaba range mail carried over the Mesaba Electric railway line as a result of the meeting of representatives of range commercial bodies held here at the new village hall last night.

Forty or more were present from range and other points, including Robert Stratton, F. A. Wildes, J. B. Connors and J. E. Lawler of Hibbing, Dr. Fred Barrett and W. H. Radermacher of Gilbert, Postmaster Charles Jesmore of Eveleth, D. C. Reid of Virginia, L. R. Simons and Dr. A. W. Shaw of Buhl, George D. McCarthy of Duluth and James Tuppa Kinney.

D. A. Mitchell of Mountain Iron presided and V. I. Frazer of Mountain Iron was secretary.

R. W. Reynolds, general manager of the electric line, explained what could be done in the way of improving the mail service provided the government would pay a sum sufficient to warrant the road in carrying the packages. He stated that the postal authorities had once named a figure, but the company could not undertake to furnish service at the price named.

BOY ACCIDENTALLY KILLS HIS SISTER

Ely Youth Points Weapon Given Him at Her and It Goes Off.

Ely, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Aiming a .22-caliber rifle, given to him by a friend, about 4:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his 4-year-old sister, Angela, John Lowsin, Jr., aged 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lowsin, pulled the trigger, firing a shot that instantly killed her, the bullet entering the child's head between the eyes. There was only one cartridge in the rifle. It was all an accident, of course, but one of the most deplorable tragedies happening here in years.

No Inquest Held.

Coroner Brown decided the case was purely accidental and no inquest will be held. The little girl will be buried tomorrow morning, following services at the home conducted by Rev. Father Buh. Interment will be made in Ely cemetery. Young Lowsin, following his mother's instructions to put the weapon away, entered his bedroom for the purpose of laying it under the bed.

John's little sister followed him into the bedroom and when he picked up the gun to put it away he told her to look at him. He aimed the weapon at her and pulled the trigger. The sole bullet entered the child's forehead between the eyes and she dropped over dead.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU IN EVELETH SCHOOL

Eveleth, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—An employment bureau is conducted at the high school and a boy or girl to do odd jobs to work for board and room while attending school or to take a regular position can always be supplied. Through this means many are able to attend school who would otherwise be unable to do so.

V. E. Boardman, principal of the high school, has charge of the employment bureau. A card system is used and the name of every boy or girl wanting work is filed together with date showing the kind of work wanted and a statement from his teacher giving something of his character and qualifications. When an inquiry comes for a boy or a girl reference to the cards usually show just who on the list is the best adapted for the work.

The county superintendent and the local schools co-operate to bring as many pupils as possible into the high school from the country schools. The county superintendent encourages all who can to enroll at a high school and the local schools though giving them work and assisting in other ways makes it as easy as possible for them to attend.

TEAMSTER FROZEN; MAY LOSE HANDS

Eveleth, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Edward Johnson, a teamster employed by Theo. Oakman at his farm on Half Moon lake, had his hands badly frozen Wednesday afternoon and may have to have both amputated as a result. Johnson was in the city in the afternoon and it is said became intoxicated. He was found late in the afternoon on the Fayal road by the janitor of the Fayal school. Both hands were frozen. He was taken to the More hospital and will probably be sent to Duluth today as a county charge. His hands are swollen and in terrible shape.

FORESTER ORDERS SLASHINGS BURNED

Hibbing, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—That loggers will experience one of the best seasons in many years, is the opinion of State Forester H. C. Wilson, in charge of the Hibbing district, who returned yesterday from the Toivola district.

Al. Dixon, Agnew brothers and Jacob Friedman are getting out an unusually large cut of timber.

The snow has made the roads fine for the getting out of the big trees, and as long as it keeps cold it will help the lumbermen.

Forester Nelson gave orders to the various companies to burn their slashings so there will be no danger of forest fires this spring and summer.

Asks About Eveleth School.

Eveleth, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—An inquiry was received this week by Superintendent B. O. Greening of the Eveleth schools from the superintendent of schools at Newman, Ga., for information regarding the Eveleth high school building. The superintendent, E. A. Armistead, stated that Newman is planning a new building and that pictures of the Eveleth high school building appealed to him more than any other that he had seen. Newman is a city of about 6,000.

ARE LINING UP IN CHISHOLM CAMPAIGN

Feared That Controversy Between Mines and Village Will Develop.

Chisholm, Minn., March 3.—Consternation that was thrown into the ranks of the politicians last Tuesday through the remarkable and sudden changes in the lineup of candidates filed for office still prevails. In spite of all that had been done by many to eliminate a mining company and village controversy at the election the suspicions and mistrust that lurked in the minds of those in the field burst at the close of the filing time.

No prediction that would be at all reliable can be made on the result of the election.

Prophets Are Chary.

Few persons are willing to openly state their views on the mayoralty contest, but this condition is not expected to prevail for very long as political skirmishes of both factions are gradually forcing the voters to express themselves.

It is rumored that one and perhaps two of the candidates now in the field for trustee will withdraw before the ballots go to print.

All political clubs of the village will hold meetings on next Sunday afternoon and it is expected that tickets will be selected from the candidates in the field and endorsements of support given.

The Chisholm Opera house has been engaged for the nights of March 11 and 13 and it is believed that monster mass meetings have been planned for those nights. Officials of the opera house refuse to divulge the names of the persons renting the building for the nights mentioned.

PLANNING TO STRIP HARTLEY OPEN PIT

Spring to Bring Much Activity Around Chisholm.

Chisholm, Minn., March 3.—About May 1, or as soon as the frost is out of the ground, so that track work can be done, the Oliver Iron Mining company will start stripping operations at the Hartley open pit. Some preparations in the manner of overhauling equipment, etc., are now under way at the Monroe shops.

Full confirmation of the report cannot be obtained from the Oliver officials at the Chisholm district office, though they admit they are expecting orders to start the work, but cannot tell at this time to just what capacity the property will be worked. It is expected that at least one steam shovel will start in the stripping, and possibly some ore will be shipped late in the season.

Operations at the Hartley pit were closed five years ago, and during the time that has passed since then the equipment has all been removed and the tracks taken up, which will necessitate considerable labor to replace. When orders are received to open this pit, it is believed that a force of 80 or 100 men will be placed at work.

At Leonard-Burt.

Great activity is noticeable around the Leonard-Burt open pit, and it is authentically stated by the mining officials that that property will be opened and a crew of 80 to 100 men employed in stripping work by the first of next week.

One shovel and three locomotives will start work about Monday, working day and night shifts, and with the opening of navigation an additional shovel will cut into the ore body.

It is the opinion of those in charge of the work on the Oliver properties that there is sufficient local labor to handle the work contemplated, and preference will be given to local men.

About March 20 some preliminary work will be started at the Shenango pit, but this mine will not be worked at capacity until navigation opens and boats can be secured.

TOTS TO ENTERTAIN.

Ely Busy Bee Club to Be Host to Mothers Saturday.

Ely, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The members of the Busy Bee club will entertain their mothers and one other guest each at a social afternoon at the home of Mrs. Samuel Rapson on Saturday at 3 p. m.

A program will be given under the direction of Miss Edith Trezona as follows: Piano duet, Elda Rapson and Dorothy White; vocal solo, "Little Stena Yonson," Jennie Peterson; "The Object of the Club," Mrs. Rapson; vocal duet, "Pretty Flowers," Mary Mack and Frances Schuster; "What Our Club Has Done," Marion Mitchell; vocal duet, "Sentinel Asleep," Elda and Clinton Rapson; piano duet, Myrl Coad, Elsie Trezona. Lunch will be prepared and served by the little girls.

HIBBING BASEBALL PLANS CONSIDERED

Hibbing, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—A new ball league, which will take in Hibbing, is suggested by a Superior, Wis., man, H. Russ Shortman, who, in a letter to Judge Thomas Brady, the authority on baseball on the Mesaba range, states that an eight-team league would be a success.

The towns he thinks that should make up the circuit are Superior, Duluth, Hibbing, Cloquet, Chisholm, Ashland, Spooner and Rice Lake.

He states that franchises have been placed in all these cities and wants Hibbing to come in line. Two games a week would be played, Saturday and Sunday, also all holidays.

A meeting of the magnates will be held soon.

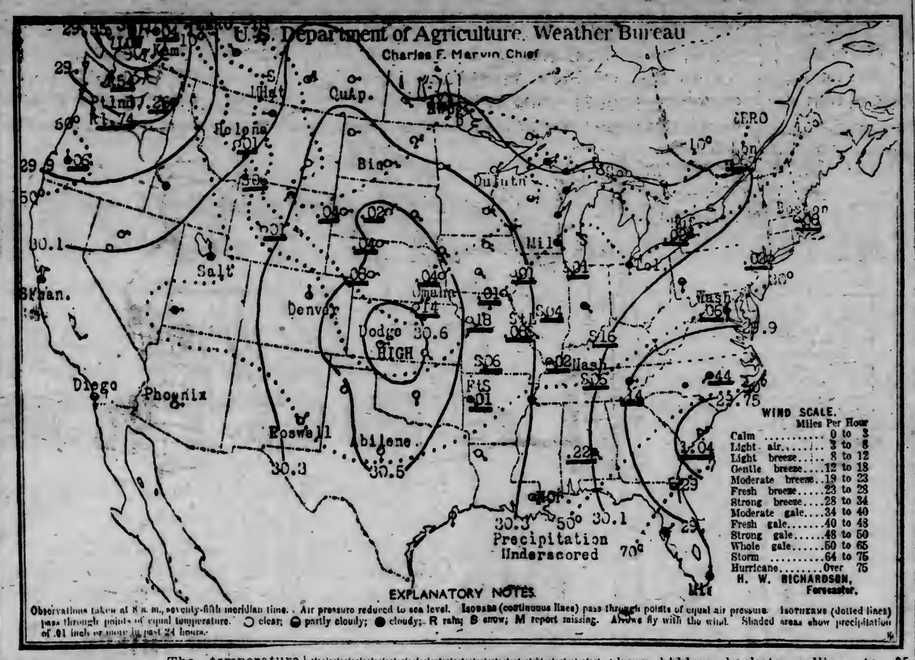
Judge Brady does not like the plan and suggests that Hibbing play independent ball. Unless all things go amiss, Hibbing will have another fast ball team next summer.

RHEUMATIC OR BILIOUS? GET TREX NOW

Twenty-Five Cents Worth Is Plenty; Try It! Take Harmless, Soothing Trex for Just a Few Days.

Then no more intense rheumatic pains; good-bye chronic, miserable constipation; no more sore, aching back. Trex is wonderful! Acts right off. Trex induces natural drainage of the entire system; promptly opens your clogged up liver and bowels; cleans the stomach of fermenting, gassy, foods and waste; eliminates irritating rheumatic poisons; relieves feverishness, headaches, dizziness and bilious misery. Don't stay "knocked out" any longer. Get this quick relief today. 25c at Mattix Drug Stores, or direct from H. B. Denton & Co., (Not Inc.), Beardstown, Illinois.

OFFICIAL MAP OF THE WEATHER



U. S. Department of Agriculture. Weather Bureau
Charles F. Marvin, Chief
Helena
Bismarck
Duluth
Miles City
Salt Lake
Denver
Dodge 30.6
HIGH
Omaha
Bismarck
Chicago
Minneapolis
Bryan
Diego
Phoenix
Roswell
Abilene
30.3
30.5
30.1
Precipitation
Underscored
WIND SCALE.
Miles Per Hour
Calm 0 to 3
Light air 3 to 8
Light breeze 8 to 12
Gentle breeze 12 to 18
Moderate breeze 19 to 23
Fresh breeze 23 to 28
Strong breeze 28 to 34
Moderate gale 34 to 40
Fresh gale 40 to 48
Strong gale 48 to 50
Whole gale 60 to 65
Storm 64 to 75
Hurricane Over 75
H. W. RICHARDSON, Forecaster.
EXPLANATORY NOTES.
Observations taken at 8 a. m., seventy-fifth meridian time. Air pressure reduced to sea level. Isobars (continuous lines) pass through points of equal air pressure. Isotherms (dotted lines) pass through points of equal temperature. clear; partly cloudy; cloudy; R rain; S snow; M report missing. Arrows fly with the wind. Shaded areas show precipitation of .01 inch or more in past 24 hours.

FAIR

The temperature this morning was 8 deg. below zero, and with the wind that accompanied it, conditions seemed much colder. The bright sunlight helps make things cheery anyway, and the day is not unpleasant. A continuation of fair weather is promised, but with stronger winds. A year ago today was beautiful. The sun rose this morning at 6:42 and will set this evening at 5:57, giving eleven hours and fifteen minutes of sunlight.

Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"Zero weather continues in Canada and the greater portion of the Northwest. In the latter district, the Rocky mountains and plateau region the temperature has risen somewhat, but in Central and Southern states and Eastern Canada the weather has turned colder. During the last twenty-four hours snow or rain fell over Atlantic states, the Middle West and the North Pacific region. Heavy rains occurred at Charleston, S. C., and Portland, Or."

General Forecasts.

Chicago, March 3.—Forecasts for the twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m. Saturday:

Minnesota—Fair tonight and Saturday with rising temperature.

Wisconsin—Fair tonight and Saturday; rising temperature Saturday and in west portion tonight.

Iowa—Fair tonight and Saturday; rising temperature Saturday and in west and central portions tonight.

North Dakota—Fair tonight and probably Saturday; warmer tonight and in east and central portions Saturday.

South Dakota—Fair tonight and Saturday with rising temperature.

Montana—Partly cloudy tonight and Saturday, probably snow or rain in west portion tonight; warmer tonight; colder Saturday in west and central portions.

Lower Michigan—Generally fair tonight and Saturday; slightly colder in southwest portion tonight.

Upper Michigan—Fair tonight and Saturday; not much change in temperature.

Temperatures.

Following were the highest temperatures in the last twenty-four hours and the lowest in the last twelve, ending at 7 a. m.:

	High	Low
Abilene	54	22
Alpena	18	—4
Amarillo		—16
Battleford	4	—16
Bismarck	4	—12
Boise	40	38
Boston	30	22
Buffalo	24	10
Cairo	24	24
Calgary	4	—8
Charles City		0
Charleston	68	58
Chicago	26	20
Concordia		—2
Davenport		10
Denver	34	22
Des Moines		6
Devils Lake	2	—10
Dodge	18	0
Dubuque	26	6
DULUTH	12	—8
Edmonton	2	—20
Escanaba	16	6
Fort Smith		28
Galveston	74	48
Grand Haven	24	8
Green Bay	18	4
Havre	6	—4
Helena	10	—2
Houghton		2
Huron	4	—6
Indianapolis		12
Jacksonville	80	68
Kamloops		24
Kansas City	30	8
Keokuk		10
Knoxville	58	38
La Crosse	8	2
Lander		2
Louisville	34	18
Madison	24	8
Marquette	14	—7
Medicine Hat	8	—8
Memphis	56	34
Miles City	8	—8
Milwaukee	26	12
Minnedosa	0	—12
Modena	42	26
Montgomery	72	44
Montreal	10	10
Moorhead	10	—2
Nashville		30
New Orleans	80	48
New York	30	20
North Platte	10	—4
Oklahoma	34	12
Omaha	14	2
Parry Sound	22	—16
Phoenix	66	44
Pierre	6	—6
Pittsburgh	34	14
Port Arthur	14	—4
Portland, Or.	46	34
Prince Albert	4	—10
Qu'Appelle	2	—14
Raleigh	64	38
Rapid City	8	—10
Roseburg	50	50
Roswell		28
St. Louis	34	22
St. Paul	10	—2
Salt Lake City	38	30
San Diego	60	48
San Francisco	58	48
Sault Ste. Marie	14	—10
Seattle	38	36
Sheridan	8	—14
Shreveport	56	34
Sioux City	8	—2
Spokane	28	24
Springfield, Ill.		20
Springfield, Mo.		16
Swift Current	2	—12
Tampa	82	68
Toledo	26	10
Valentine		—10
Washington	46	30
Wichita		2
Williston	2	—14
Winnemucca	40	26
Winnipeg	6	—10
Yellowstone	23	14

LOCAL FORECAST

Duluth, Superior and vicinity, including the Mesaba and Vermilion iron ranges: Fair weather tonight and Saturday. Rising temperature. Lowest tonight about zero or slightly below at and near Duluth-Superior and along the north shore, and zero to about 10 deg. below zero on the iron ranges. Fresh southwesterly winds, probably becoming strong Saturday.

LESS VIRGINIA SALOONS.

Council May Take Up Subject at an Early Date.

Virginia, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The limiting of the number of saloons in Virginia to twenty-five will be an issue before the city council within a short time, it became known today. An ordinance covering the situation will be presented to the council for adoption or rejection. That it will be briskly opposed is apparently certain, but that it will pass either the present or the new council, which goes into office next month is probable.

What the terms of the ordinance will be has not been made public. It is probable, however that it will fix a date when the unearned portions of license money will be refunded and all licenses will be canceled and when applications for twenty-five new licenses will be received by the council.

Local liquor dealers declare they are not responsible for the movement. Many of them, however, emphatically declare they favor it. It is anticipated the opposition will come from brewing concerns who control considerable business property on Chestnut street under term leases and from the owners of buildings, who see in the new movement a prospective cut in rentals which they do not relish. This is the rock on which similar plans have foundered elsewhere.

COHASSET HOTEL MAN FINED FOR PIGGING

Grand Rapids, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Charged with operating an unlicensed drinking place, G. A. Williams, proprietor of the Bass Brook hotel at Cohasset, was arraigned before Judge H. S. Huson in justice court Wednesday. He pleaded guilty and was fined $50 and costs. Williams was also charged with having sold liquor without a license and waived examination, being bound over to the grand jury.

RANGE CHINESE ARE CONTRIBUTING TO FUND

Hibbing, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Range Chinamen are contributing to a fund to those active in the revolution now going on in the Flowery Kingdom.

Charles L. Sing, proprietor of the restaurant here, has a list of contributions made by Hibbing and range Celestials.

"We are fighting for the cause of good government and our fund is being used by the men we send it to to promote more rights for our stricken countrymen, men who are even without the rights of free speech," he said.

"We want a government similar to your country." Sing is the only naturalized Chinaman in the Mesaba range country, having been born in San Francisco.

Sing has a letter from a brother who formerly lived in Hibbing, stating that he was a witness to the big uprising in Canton, when brigand bands attempted to burn the power plant.

The local Celestial expects to return to China soon and claim a bride and possibly make his home there.

CHISHOLM PLAY BEING REHEARSED

Chisholm, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Rehearsals are being held daily for the play "Erin Go Bragh" or "The Mountain Rebel," an Irish drama in three acts. The scene is laid in Garryowen a number of years ago and the costumes are typical of those worn in Ireland in the old days. There are nine characters, four women and five men.

The play will be given at the Rex theater and for the benefit of St. Joseph's church March 17.

Knife River Basket Social.

Knife River, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The basket social given by the Catholic ladies' aid at the town hall last evening was a success, $75 being realized. P. J. Rosso was auctioneer and contestants were keen bidders, baskets selling to $5 each. Several people from nearby towns were present.

Lovely Healthy Skin Hair Hands

Kept So By Daily Use of Cuticura

Soap and occasional light touches of Cuticura Ointment. Nothing better than these super-creamy emollients.

Sample Each Free by Mail

With 32-p. Skin Book on request. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. 19G, Boston." Sold throughout the world.

BABY WELFARE WEEK AIDED BY MERCHANTS

Hibbing Business Men Assist in Making Affair Success.

Hibbing, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The merchants who contributed prizes to Baby welfare week, which opens in Hibbing tomorrow morning, are announced by Mrs. Riggs as follows: City Drug store, two thermos bottles; W. H. Day, one pair children's shoes; Itasca Bazaar, one Japanese robe; W. J. Ryder, child's wicker nursery chair; Palace pharmacy, four-piece baby set; Thouin Hardware company, bath tub; Carl Thiel, half dozen photographs; Lippman's department store, child's wearing apparel; Congdon's drug store, combination bath box; Klass jewelry store, three-piece silver feeding set; Geary jewelry store, silver drinking cup; Island Farm Creamery company, milk coupon book.

Mrs. Riggs announces that all wishing to contribute prizes to the committee and who have been wanting to do so may call Congdon's, and if they wish to contribute their gifts will be accepted.

LABOR OFFICIAL SPEAKS.

Secretary Lawson of State Federation Has Praise for Hibbing.

Hibbing, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—G. W. Lawson, secretary of the state federation of labor, for over an hour addressed the members of local labor unions on the benefits to be derived from organized labor last night at Central hall.

"Organized labor is the highest perfected labor, the acme of a man's art and craft," stated Mr. Lawson.

"Hibbing is particularly fortunate. You have men here in your midst who believe in the working men obtaining the rights they so richly deserve and I want to say they are to be complimented. Those men were once laborers themselves and they in their hearts know what a workingman asks for. God's greatest nobleman is the man who has the conviction of his heart to fight labor's battles.

"I'm very much in favor in your choice in making Hibbing the labor center for your convention next summer. I know that the committees will do everything to make the state meeting a success."

CURLING DRAWS.

Eveleth and Virginia Clubs to Contest Saturday.

Eveleth, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Following is the draw made by the Eveleth Curling club for twelve games to be played Saturday with the Virginia club for the Donor trophy.

At Eveleth Afternoon

Van Slyke, skip, H. Peterson, Whitman, Magee; Smith, skip, Wilson, F. A. Malloy, Westaway; Hartness, skip, Carlson; recorder, E. M. Westurn; treasurer, A. A. Holl; assessor, Ed. Brady; constable, John Henry; justice of the peace, Albert Erlandson.

At Virginia, Afternoon.

Greening, skip, Tellefson, Schmidt, McMahon; Campbell, skip, T. H. Davey, Morrill, Wilcox; Loye, skip, McAdams, Murray, R. G. Austin.

At Eveleth, Evening.

William Murray, skip, Neilon, Morrison, Emery; Lyons, skip, Sundlie, Cornwell, Anderson; Robb, skip, Hellstrom, Cannon, Essling.

At Virginia, Afternoon.

G. H. Murray, skip, Farley, Barrett, Nelson; Hoel, skip, Johnson, Schultze, Niemi; Pratt, skip, W. J. Davey, Trevarrow, Levant.

HOUSE MOVER HAS FINISHED EVELETH JOB

Eveleth, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—A. J. Lindsey of Hibbing finished moving houses from Adams hill to Leonidas Monday, and left Tuesday morning for Biwabik, where he has a short contract to work.

Mr. Lindsey uses a steam tractor and the rapidity with which he moves buildings is remarkable, it having taken only ten days to move ten houses for a distance of three miles or more in this city.

The force of men working for him are divided into three crews: one of them doing the loading, one on the road, and the other spotting the buildings.

MESABA RANGE IS GRIPPED BY COLD

Hibbing, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—With the thermometer 24 degs. below zero at 12 o'clock last evening, Hibbing is experiencing some of the coldest weather of the winter.

The thermometer registered 18 below at 9 o'clock and by 10 was descending rapidly. Old timers state that this is the only time in their memories that the range ever had such a cold wave at this time of the year.

EVELETH CURLING ABOUT ENDED

Eveleth, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The events in the Eveleth curling club have been nearly played through and this week will see the close of nearly all events. The ice has been in good shape this week.

The scores for the week have been as follows: Monday, Sundlie, 10; Van Slyke, 9, in Home Electric event; Tellefson, 11; William Murray, 10, in Home Electric event; Robb, 10; Hartness, 8, in Home Electric event; Tuesday, Robb, 11; Sundlie, 6 in Miners National event; Morrill, 12; Lyons, 7, in Eveleth Laundry event; H. Peterson, 12; Loye, 5, in Miners National event; Wednesday, G. H. Murray, 9; Sundlie, 8, in Eveleth Laundry event (fourteen heads.)

A NON-ALCOHOLIC TONIC

Debility is a loss of vitality, not affecting any one part of the body particularly but the system generally. It is dangerous because it reduces the body's resistance to disease.

When debility follows acute diseases, convalescence is slow and the strength does not return as it should. An attack of the grip often results in debility that persists for months. Everybody recognizes that the remedy for debility is to build up the blood because the blood goes to every part of the body and an improvement in its condition is quickly felt throughout the system. The problem in every case is to find something that will enrich the blood.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills suit most people's need because they are non-alcoholic and they really build up the blood and strengthen the nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are useful for growing children and for men and women whose nervous energy has been overdrawn. They are certainly worthy of a trial in every case of weak nerves and thin blood.

Your druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50 by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Write today for free booklets on the blood and nerves.

—Advertisement.

PROTECTING GAME BIRDS

Grand Rapids Sportsmen to Join in State-Wide Movement.

Grand Rapids, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—In order that the game birds of this section of Minnesota may not be exterminated, Grand Rapids sportsmen are planning to take an active part in a campaign which is being waged to prevent violations of the state game laws and to provide opportunity for partridge, grouse and prairie chicken to multiply. Jesse D. Anthony, field captain of the Itasca club, said that the organization has become a member of the Minnesota Game and Fish Protective association, which is doing such splendid work over the entire state in saving game.

Jesse Harry, game warden, calls attention to the state laws concerning fishing during March and April. The game warden says that the laws will be enforced and asks that he receive the co-operation of sportsmen in preventing violations.

TOWER NEWS NOTES.

Tower, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. J. D. Murphy and daughter, Miss Mayme, left Thursday for Virginia to attend a card social given at the parochial school by the young ladies' sodality, of which Miss Murphy had been president for three years during her residence at Virginia. The Tower ladies left Virginia today for Duluth to attend "The Bird of Paradise" performance this evening at the Lyceum.

Mrs. S. E. McLaughlin entertained a number of friends Monday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. William Haley, who leaves in a couple of weeks for Cook, where the family home is now being completed. Those who attended the party were: Mesdames Duncan Graham, Lloyd Gates, J. A. Quinn, Victoria Wiseman, P. M. Atwood, J. H. Hickey, Jr., William Napier, W. G. Gallien and Mrs. Haley. Sewing was the order of entertainment and a delicious repast concluded the pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. L. C. Porteus entertained a number of lady friends Saturday evening at cards.

Mrs. Thomas Taylor entertained several lady friends Saturday evening at cards. Those present were: Mesdames Anna Colberg, S. J. Lackie, John Schmidt of this city and Mrs. Jake Schmidt of Mesaba and Miss Marie Schmidt.

Mrs. S. McWaters entertained a number of friends Tuesday afternoon at a farewell party for Mrs. William Haley and Mrs. Victoria Wiseman entertained Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. Haley.

Mrs. S. J. Lackie left Monday for a week's visit with her parents at West Duluth and will see "The Bird of Paradise."

WINTON CHILD'S FALL PROVES FATAL

Winton, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—While alone in a bedroom in her crib, the 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chosa fell from the crib yesterday and was killed. The funeral will be held Saturday.

Warba Ticket Nominated.

Warba, Minn., March 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—At the caucus held in this village Wednesday night the following ticket was nominated to be voted on at the spring election: Village president, W. P. Hicken; trustees, E. E. Clinite, Fred Martin, Henning Carlson; recorder, E. M. Westurn; treasurer, A. A. Holl; assessor, Ed. Brady; constable, John Henry; justice of the peace, Albert Erlandson.

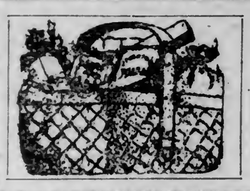
YOUR STOMACH BAD?

JUST TRY ONE DOSE of MAYR'S Wonderful Remedy and Be Convinced That You Can Be Restored to Health.

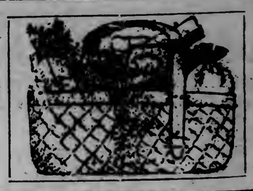
Mayr's Wonderful Remedy has been taken by many thousands of people throughout the land. It has brought health and happiness to sufferers who had despaired of ever being restored and who now are urging others who may be suffering with Stomach, Liver and Intestional Ailments to try it. One dose will convince the most skeptical sufferer. It acts on the source and foundation of these ailments, removing the poisonous catarrh and bile accretions, and allaying the underlying chronic inflammation. Try one dose of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy—put it to a test today—you will be overjoyed with your quick recovery. Send for booklet on Stomach Ailments. 154-156 Whiting St., Chicago, Ill. For sale by druggists everywhere.

—Advertisement.

DEFECTIVE PAGE



THE THRIFTY HOUSEWIFE'S MARKET BASKET



"Economy, the Poor Man's Mint."—TUPPER. "A Dime Saved Is a Dime Made."—BENJAMIN FRANKLIN.

DULUTH'S REAL MEATING PLACE—where they sell the good, tender, good tasting Corn-Fed Meat that lets you leave the table with a satisfied feeling.

THE PUBLIC MEAT MARKET

6 LAKE AVENUE SOUTH, Near Corner Superior Street.

THE BEST BUTTER The Taste Tells It—Try It! Is What We Sell.... 32c PER LB.

Extra Lean Pork Chops 15c

Pork Shoulders 12½c

Pot Roast 12½c

FRESH BOILING BEEF...8c

RICH CREAM CHEESE 20c

SATURDAY SPECIALS—8 to 10 A. M.

3 CANS SNIDERS' TOMATO SOUP....25c

STRICTLY FRESH EGGS—per doz....25c

SPARE RIBS—Per lb.....10c

Fancy Primost CHEESE 10c

BONELESS RIB ROAST 20c

These roasts are weighed to you free of bone and waste; all meat

SIRLOIN AND PORTER-HOUSE STEAK—20c

RIB ROAST 15c

CHOICE LEG OF FALL LAMB—20c

WATCH THE SMILES on the faces of the folks around your table when you serve them MANCHESTER Pure Pork Breakfast Sausage.

Marigold Is the Best Yet OLEOMARGERINE And Isn't It the Truth---per lb. 25c

HENS 23c | FRESH DUCKS 25c | Roasting Chickens.. 25c | SPARE RIBS---5c SHOULDER..

Armour's Veribest BUTTER

TRADE MARK

Made in the sweet, pure air of country meadows, it comes to you in air-tight cartons. Veribest is sold at stores where particular people trade because the Armour Oval Label guarantees quality.

If your dealer hasn't got it phone us his name. You'll be doing us both a favor.

ARMOUR & COMPANY

DULUTH, MINN., J. C. FISHER, Manager. Phones: Melrose 2206; Grand 251.

There's an Armour Oval Label Store near you 130

Veribest, like the best of each of the Armour products, is marked with the Oval Label

Armour's QUALITY PRODUCTS

Try These:
Star Stockinet Ham
Star Bacon
"Simon Pure" Leaf Lard
Devonshire Farm Sausage
Armour's Grape Juice
Glendale Oleomargarine (Natural Color)
Silver Churn Oleomargarine (White)
And over 100 Veribest Foods

STOP, READ AND INVESTIGATE!

Fancy Creamery Butter	30c
Strictly Fresh Eggs	25c
Roast Pork	10c, 12½c
Spare Ribs	11c
Link Sausage	10c
Bulk Sausage	10c
Salt Pork, dry or pickled	12½c
Picnic Hams	12½c
Sauer Kraut, qt	8c
Pot Roast	12½c
Beef Stew	9c, 10c
Beefsteak	15c
Rib Roast Beef	17c
Lamb Roast	15c
Lamb Stew	10c
Roast Veal	12½c, 15c
Veal Stew	10c

DULUTH MEAT SUPPLY CO. HEADQUARTERS FOR PRIME MEATS H. P. LEE, MGR.—203½ & 205 W. FIRST ST.

SATURDAY SPECIALS IN GOOD MEATS

Fresh Killed Chickens	22c
Veal Roast	18c, 15c
Veal Stew	10c
Rib Roast of Beef	15c
Pot Roast	15c, 12½c
Beef Boiling (can be used for pot roast)	10c
Leg of Mutton	12½c
Mutton Shoulder	10c
Mutton Stew	8c
Ox Tongues, each	45c
Beef Hearts, lb	8c
Pigs' Hearts	8c
Potato Sausage, 3 links	25c
Cream Sausage made from selected pork, lb	20c

MORK & NELSON
1902 WEST SUPERIOR ST.
Both Phones.

Duluth Provision Co.

17 FIRST AVE. WEST
W. J. Lenertz, Prop.

SATURDAY SPECIALS

Strictly Fresh Eggs, doz.	25¢
Creamery Butter, lb	28¢
Fresh Oysters, qt	35¢
Pork Shoulders, whole	12¢
Bologna	10¢
Liver Sausage	10¢
Polish Sausage	10¢
Plate Sausage	10¢
Potato Sausage, ring	5¢
No. 1 Hams	15¢
Smoked Shoulders	12½¢

Strictly Fresh Hens and Springs.

APPLES

This month will be the big apple month this year. Remember the apple is the cheapest food product offered you today, and the offerings — Baldwins and Jonathans—are the best you have ever known at this season of the year.

L. A. PADDOCK CO

117 East Superior St.
Phones—Melrose 234-254. Grand 234-48.

49-lb. sack Flour	$1.65
Fancy Creamery Butter, per lb.	35c
Asparagus (tall cans finest quality)	18c
Red Raspberries, per can	18c
Sliced Peaches (fine quality), per can	18c
Can Apricots (fine quality) per can	15c
Strictly Fresh Eggs	28c
Bacon (fine quality), per lb	20c
Little Pig Hams, per lb	18c
Our Special Coffee, per lb.	25c
Sweet Navel Oranges, doz.	15c
2 cans Salmon, large size	25c
2 lbs. Pure Peanut Butter	25c
Peaches (in Syrup)	15c
Sliced Pineapple (large can)	15c
2 cans Peeled Muscat Grapes	25c
4 cans Peas for	25c
3 cans Corn for	25c
3 cans Tomatoes for	25c
3 cans Milk for	25c
3 cans Soup for	25c
3 cans String Beans	25c
Strawberries per box	35c

FREE!

JUST WHILE THEY LAST

Friday and Saturday

FAMOUS EGG STRAINER

A SMALL LIST OF BARGAINS

EGGS, Fresh From the Hen.

FINE POTATOES—Just from the farm, Per Peck 25c

Worth while bargains on all goods

The Store of Quality
232 West Second St.
R. B. CLIFFORD, Proprietor.

Save the Price of a Quart of Milk with every package of Uncle Jerry Pancake Flour. It contains

The New Wonder—Powdered Skimmed Milk

which makes the cakes light and full of little pores

When you buy a package of Uncle Jerry Flour, just add cold water and your batter is ready for the griddle. The great number of delicious golden brown cakes you can get from a 10c package of Uncle Jerry Flour will surprise you.

UNITED PROFIT-SHARING COUPONS

Every package contains a United Profit Sharing Coupon

Knowlton Grocery Co.

331 East Superior Street.

Melrose 1202. Grand 888.

Strictly Fresh Eggs, per dozen	27c	8 bars Armour's White Flyer Soap for	25c
Springdale Farm Little Pig Sausage, per lb	20c	3 cans of Corn for	25c
Pickled Pigs' Feet, per lb	5c	3 cans Small Sweet Peas for	25c
Fancy Wrapped Bacon, per lb	22c	Hunt's Blackberries, 3-lb. can for	20c
2-lb. jar Peanut Butter for	25c	Hunt's Peaches, 3-lb. can for	18c
2 dozen Dill Pickles for	25c	2 lbs. Prunes (40-50s) for	25c
Reg. 15c Baked Beans, per can	11c	Lemons, per dozen	25c
3 cans of Milk for	25c	Fancy Florida Oranges, sweet and juicy, per doz	30c
2 cans Solid Packed Tomatoes for	25c	Small Sweet Navel Oranges, per doz	15c
3 bottles Parson's Household Ammonia for	25c	4 medium Grapefruit for	25c
10 bars Swift's Pride Soap for	25c	¾-quart bottle large Olives for	30c
7 bars Ben Hur Soap for	25c	Toasted Branflakes, a healthful breakfast food, 3 packages for	25c
7 bars Kirk's Flake White Soap for	25c	½-gallon can Louisiana Molasses for	22c

John Mann Grocery Co

SPRING CHICKENS—Per lb.	23c
SPARE RIBS—2 lbs. for	25c
PORK LOINS—Small, per lb	16c
STRAWBERRIES Fancy Florida, qt. basket	30c
HEAD LETTUCE—Iceberg, 3 for	25c
CUCUMBERS—Long, green	15c
SPINACH—Fancy, peck	35c
LEAF LETTUCE—Home grown, 3 for	10c
POTATOES—White stock, per bu	$1.00
FLOUR—First Patent, 49 lbs.	$1.65
EGGS—Fresh from country, doz.	26c
BUTTERINE—Best grade, per lb	25c
LARD—2 lbs. for	25c
COFFEE—Pickwick, our special, lb.	35c
JELLY—Home-made Grape, Raspberry, Currant and Apple, per glass 15c. Per dozen, $1.50
MARMALADE—Home-made Orange or Grapefruit, glass 15c. Per dozen, $1.60
PRESERVES—Pure Fruit, Raspberry, Strawberry or Pineapple, per glass 10c. Per dozen, $1.10
SOAP—Lenox, 10 bars for 32c. Per box, $3.00
SOAP—White Laundry, 7 bars	25c
AMMONIA—Qt. bottle White Foam	20c

SATURDAY SHOPPERS' SPECIALS IN CHOICE MEATS AT RIGHT PRICES!

Hearts, lb	10c	Pork Loin Roasts	15c
Pot Roast	10c, 12½c	Good Bacon, lb	15c
Rib Roast	15c, 18c	Choice Beef Stew	10c
Large Fresh Ox Tongues, each			50c
Small Hams (whole), lb			18c
Sugar Cured Corn Beef, lb			10c

Just received a fresh shipment of Milwaukee Sausage.

ZENITH CASH MARKET, 13 East Superior St.

If You Want Perfect Biscuits, Use "The Great Breadmaker"

DULUTH UNIVERSAL FLOUR

MADE BY

DULUTH UNIVERSAL MILLING CO.

More tender
More delicious

Creamettes

The new American Macaroni Product. COOKS IN ONE THIRD THE TIME.

Ask your grocer MOTHERS MACARONI COMPANY, Minneapolis

DURING THE LENTEN SEASON

Enjoy the Many Delicious Dishes You Can Prepare From

Quality CBRAND MACARONI

This particularly fine brand of Macaroni is good any time, but we wish to call it to the attention of Lenten Observers and urge those who are not familiar with its many delicious uses to try it. We are sure you will use it frequently in the future in place of a daily meat diet.

FULL OF NOURISHMENT. May Be Served as a Main Dinner Dish.

FREE Start saving the pink coupons found in cartons of our several Quality Brand Macaroni Products. They are redeemable on a $3.00 Casserole and $2.00 Kitchen Outfit, both premiums being high grade and very useful.

Our patented electric process and the use of ..... and wheat flour and pure running spring water produce an enticing cream tinted macaroni which is quickly cooked to a delicious tenderness. Ask your grocer for Quality Brand and be sure that you get it. Memorize this package.

F. A. Martoccio Macaroni Co.
Minneapolis, Minn.

THE THRIFTY HOUSEWIFE'S MARKET BASKET

"Economy, the Poor Man's Mint."—TUPPER. "A Dime Saved Is a Dime Made."—BENJAMIN FRANKLIN.

Duluth Marine Supply Co.,

Foot of Fifth Avenue West.

PURVEYORS OF PURE FOODS AT POPULAR PRICES

Fresh, crisp vegetables from the gardens of California and Florida. Twenty-two varieties. We quote only a few A full line at equally low prices.

Duluth Grown Lettuce, 3 for.....10¢
Iceberg Head Lettuce, 3 for.....25¢
Hothouse Radishes, per bunch.....5¢
Green Onions, 3 bunches for.....10¢
Wax or Green Beans, per lb.....18¢
Fancy Cucumbers 2 for.....25¢
Florida Strawberries full quarts.....30¢
Our daily bread is thoroughly wholesome when made with Gold Medal Flour, 98-lb. sacks, $3.30 49-lb. sacks.....$1.65

BIG FRUIT SALE

10 lbs. Jonathan Apples....40¢ 10 lbs New York Baldwins..40¢
Delicious Apples, per lb.....6¢
Large Navel Oranges, per peck.....40¢
Large Navel Oranges, per case, $2.75 Half case.....$1.40
India River Florida Oranges, per dozen, from.....25¢ to 40¢
India River Florida Oranges, case, $3.75 Half case....$1.90
Florida Grapefruit, 46 size, 3 for 25¢ Dozen.....95¢
Per half case.....$1.75
Strictly new-laid Eggs, direct from the hennery, doz.....25¢
Best quality Potatoes, per bushel of 60 lbs.....$1.00

CANNED GOODS SPECIALS

4 cans Standard Corn.....30¢ Per doz.....90¢
4 cans Sweet, Tender Peas.....30¢ Per doz.....90¢
3 cans Cut Wax Beans.....25¢ Per doz.....95¢
3 cans Red Kidney Beans.....25¢ Per doz.....95¢
Whole or Sliced Peaches, per can.....15¢ 6 cans for.....85¢
Hawaiian Sliced Pineapple, per can....15¢ 6 cans for.....85¢

EVERY DAY NECESSARIES

Quart bottles Grape Juice.....35¢ 3 for.....$1.00
Pint bottles Grape Juice.....20¢ 3 for.....50¢
Half pint bottles Grape Juice.....10¢ 3 for.....25¢
Fig Jam, the best brand, 3 cans.....25¢
Preserved Figs, 30c cans for.....20¢ Per doz.....$2.30
8 bars Lenox Soap.....25¢ Per box.....$2.75
10 bars Swift's Pride Soap.....25¢ Per box.....$2.50
4 lbs. best Rice.....25¢
3 lbs. Pearl Barley.....10¢

ORDER A SUPPLY OF THE FAMOUS ARMOUR MEAT PRODUCTS.

ALWAYS GOOD!

NET WEIGHT 4 OZ.
Nu-Jell
A SURPRISINGLY DELIGHTFUL DESSERT
STRAWBERRY
PURE FRUIT FLAVOR ARTIFICIALLY COLORED MANUFACTURED BY
GOWAN-LENNING-BROWN CO.
DULUTH, MINN.

It Is Simply Delicious—Try It!

Your Choice of Flavors
Strawberry, Mint, Orange, Peach, Raspberry, Lemon, Cherry, Chocolate

SOLD BY ALL GROCERS
"MADE IN DULUTH"

MIN-TEE

—PURE—
HONEY

As sweet and pure as the clover the bees feed on. Delivered everywhere in quart and pint jars.

MINNESOTA TEA COMPANY
1917 WEST SUPERIOR STREET.
Both phones—Mel. 3918; Linc. 452.

JOHN E. ROOS

GROCER
508 West Third Street.

Take my advice and buy flour for your summer needs now.
49-lb. sack Flour.....$1.00
(With your order.)
Sugar is going up every day. I sell it at almost wholesale price.
Fancy Creamery Butter, lb. .33c
3 cans Corn, Peas, Tomatoes..25c
Fancy Rutabagas, per bu....70c
Fancy White Potatoes, bu. .$1.10
Pork Loins, per lb.....15c
Fancy Chickens, per lb.....22c
Please phone your orders early!
Melrose 4709—Grand 187.

LAKESIDERS

These prices are for cash only and no deliveries. But remember this is a market of quality and low prices. It is safe to send the children here to trade—they receive the same as if you came yourself.

Montana Sirloin.....15c
Rib Roast.....12½c
Pot Roast.....12½c
Spare Ribs.....12½c
Sauer Kraut, qt.....8c
Rib Corn Beef.....8c
Pork Roast.....15c
Sausage Meat.....12½c
Fancy Creamery Butter, per lb.....30c and 35c
Strictly Fresh Eggs....27c

LAKESIDE CASH MARKET,
4702 East Superior Street.
Phones: Lakeside 254; Park 3.

ADVERTISE IN THE HERALD

GASSER'S

209 AND 211 WEST SUPERIOR STREET.

SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY

49-lb. sack Universal Flour.$1.60
Extra selected Shelled Pecans, 70c grade, per lb.....58c
Storage Creamery Butter, lb..33c
Calumet Baking Powder, lb..21c
Gaillard's Imported French Olive Oil, $1.00 size.....72c
Extra Fancy Telephone Peas, regular 15c can.....12½c
25c size Armour's Grape Juice 19c
10 bars Snap Soap and 2 pkgs. small Gold Dust.....25c
Extra Fancy Crisp Saratoga Chips, per lb.....27c
Extra Fancy Sliced Pineapple, one of the best brands on the American market, can..22c
Large Fresh Cocoanuts.....8c
White Clover Honey, comb...18c
Orio Fresh, Soft Cream Cheese, tinfoil, the finest on the American market, extra special, 3 for.....25c
Fancy Mild Rich Cream Cheese, per lb.....22c
Extra Fancy Large 60c size Navel Oranges, per doz....50c
Fancy Russet Apples, pk.....40c
Fancy Hothouse Rhubarb, lb.12c
Fancy Florida Strawberries, direct shipment, per box...35c
Peatnut Brittle Candy, regular price 25c, Saturday, lb.....18c
Fancy Head Lettuce, each.10-12c
Fresh Asparagus, bunch.....20c
Fancy large Cucumbers, each.15c
Fancy Radishes, Green Onions and Turnips, bunch.....7c
Fancy Water Cress, bunch....5c
Fancy Green and Wax Beans, per lb.....20c
Fancy Endive, 3 for.....25c
Fancy Sweet Potatoes, lb.....5c
Fancy Green Peppers, 3 for...10c

MEAT DEPARTMENT

Choice Beef Pot Roast, lb.....15c and 18c
Choice Rib Boiling, lb.....12½c
Choice Rib Roast, lb.....20c and 25c

BAKERY DEPARTMENT

Nut Loaf Cake, extra special for Saturday, each.....25c

OPEN AN ACCOUNT WITH US.

ANNOUNCEMENT!

P. J. Harrington, formerly in the employ of A. W. Anderson meat market, has taken over

THE PHOENIX MEAT MARKET

124 EAST FOURTH STREET.

I solicit your patronage on the merit of quality merchandise and first-class service. Careful attention to phone orders. Prompt delivery. Melrose 626. Grand 1063.

RYAN & RUSSELL

330 WEST FIRST ST.
Grand 1020; Melrose 1060.

Prompt Deliveries

A feature of the store. Every effort made to save disappointment.

Every housewife who wants to practice greater economy should give us a trial order.

Quality Groceries at the price of the ordinary.

Give Us a Trial Order

Do it now—our store is as near as your phone.

Park Point deliveries Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Lakeside deliveries Tuesdays and Fridays.

NO MORE HOME BAKING

Is what you'll say after trying our Delicious Home Baking, Bread, Pies and Cakes. Our quality Candies are made fresh every day.

When downtown shopping, drop in and let us serve you with a cup of home-made coffee and lunch.

WE DELIVER.

BON TON
25 WEST SUPERIOR STREET.
Phones—Melrose 1729; Grand 1166.

Lester Park Cars Stop at Lester Park Greenhouse

WE INVITE YOUR INSPECTION.

Potted Blooming Plants, Seasonable Flowers, Ferns, Palms.

—Telephone Your Orders—
Old, Lakeside 77; New, Park 183.

JOHN LOGAN CO.

Corner Tenth Avenue East and Fourth St.

EGGS Strictly Fresh, dz. 25c

Potatoes, bu.....$1.10
Oranges, doz.....20c
Strawberries, box.....30c

Melrose 78 Grand 78
PURE ARTIFICIAL ICE MADE OF CITY WATER!
DULUTH ICE COMPANY
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL
James Hart, President.
Office—4 EAST FIRST STREET

213 STORES
26 YEARS IN DULUTH
TEAS AND COFFEES

Of a Kind and Grade to Suit All Where 'Quality First' Means Something Bring Your Tea and Coffee Troubles to Us

GRAND UNION TEA CO.
214 West First Street
Next Door to Electric Light Office

LUNDMARK & FRANSON GROCERY CO.

316 AND 318 EAST SUPERIOR STREET.

Extra Fancy Oranges, pk.50c
Fancy Apples, box.....$1.75
Fancy Florida Grapefruit, per box.....$4.25
Fancy Strawberries, box..35c
Asparagus, bunch.....25c
Carrots, bunch.....5c
Wax Beans, qt.....20c
Green Beans, qt.....20c
25c Canned Peaches, doz.$2.00
15c Kidney Beans, doz..$1.25
Red Raspberries, per can.15c
Strawberries, per can.....15c
Peaches, per can.....15c

We wish to announce that we have just opened up a branch store at 802 East First street so the residents of that neighborhood may be able to buy the same high-grade goods as are sold in our downtown establishment. As is the case, very often you will have to wait some time for the delivery from town, where in this case the store can be reached very easily from your own home. In this way you will also save the delivery expense, thereby reducing the cost of the goods you buy.

—Lundmark & Franson Grocery Company.

Aids Digestion
Refreshes the Mind
Nourishes the Body
Makes a Hearty Lunch

ALWAYS SATISFIES

GET A STEIN OF—

"GOOD OLD REX"

—OR HAVE A CASE SENT HOME

DULUTH BREWING & MALTING CO.

George A. Gray Co

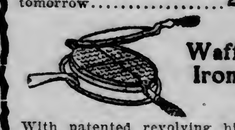
THE STORE FOR SERVICE.
113-115-117-119 West Superior St., Duluth, Minn.

Household Helps

for Busy Housekeepers
at Special Prices Tomorrow

Galvanized Pails
10-quart size, special at.....22c
12-quart size, special at.....25c

Enameled Sauce Pans
Holds four quarts; blue outside, white lined—special price tomorrow.....25c



Waffle Irons
With patented revolving hinge; special price tomorrow.....69c

Garbage and Ash Cans at Special Prices
20-gallon size, special at..$1.10
20-gallon size, heavy, at..$1.48
30-gallon size, heavy, at..$1.75

Special Prices on Step Ladders
Well made with iron brace under every other step; also with shelf.
4-ft. size, special price....69c
5-ft. size, special price....85c
6-ft. size, special price....98c

Aluminum Coffee Percolators
6-cup size, has black ebony wood handle—special price.....$1.25

Bread Raising Pans
14-quart size; has ventilated cover—special price Saturday.....69c

Extra Specials Tomorrow
White Semi-Porcelain Cups and Saucers, per pair.....9c
7 bars Ben Hur Soap for.....25c
4 rolls White Swan Toilet Paper for.....25c
Package Brillo for polishing aluminum.....10c

Directors; said capital stock shall be divided into two hundred fifty (250) shares at a par value of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars each.

ARTICLE VI.

The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which this corporation shall at any time be subject is Fifty Thousand ($50,000.00) Dollars.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have hereunto set our hands and seals this 1st day of March, A. D. 1916.

H. S. WENGER. (Seal)
BENJ. M. GOLDBERG. (Seal)
E. P. KENNEDY. (Seal)
MINA MACVEIGH. (Seal)

Signed and Sealed
In Presence of:
M. L. LARSON.
H. E. BOYLE.

State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis —ss.

On this 1st day of March, A. D. 1916, before me, a Notary Public within and for said County, personally appeared H. S. Wenger, Benj. M. Goldberg, E. P. Kennedy and Mina MacVeigh, to me personally known to be the persons described in and who executed the foregoing instrument, and who acknowledged the same as their free act and deed.

H. E. BOYLE,
Notary Public,
St. Louis Co., Minn.
My commission expires Oct. 14, 1922.
(Notarial Seal, St. Louis Co., Minn.)

State of Minnesota, Department of State.

I hereby certify that the within instrument was filed for record in this office on the 2nd day of March, A. D. 1916, at 9 o'clock A. M., and was duly recorded in Book B-4 of Incorporations, on page 393.

JULIUS A. SCHMAHL, E.
Secretary of State.

OFFICE OF REGISTER OF DEEDS.
State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis —ss.

I hereby certify that the within instrument was filed in this office for record March 3, 1916, at 8:30 A. M., and was duly recorded in Book 15 of Misc., page 600.

CHAS. CALLIGAN,
Register of Deeds.
By C. L. LOFGREN,
Deputy.

D. H., March 3, 4, 1916.

ORDER TO EXAMINE FINAL ACCOUNT—

State of Minnesota,
County of St. Louis—ss.

In Probate Court, In the Matter of the Estate of George R. Green, Decedent.

The Petition of Lena M. Cramer and Mary Ethel Green as representatives of the above named decedent, together with their final account of administration of said estate, having been filed in this court, representing, among other things that they have fully administered said estate, and praying that said final account of said administration be examined, adjusted and allowed by the Court and that the Court make and enter its final decree of distribution of the residue of the estate of said decedent to the persons entitled thereto, and for the discharge of the representative and the sureties on their bond. It is Ordered, that said petition be heard, and said final account examined, adjusted, and if correct, allowed by the Court, at the Probate Court Rooms in the Court House, in the City of Duluth in said County, on Monday the 20th day of March, 1916, at ten o'clock a. m., and all persons interested in said hearing and in said matter are hereby cited and required at said time and place to show cause, if any there be, why said petition should not be granted. Ordered Further, that this order be served by publication in The Duluth Herald according to law.

Dated at Duluth, Minn., Feb. 21, 1916.

By the Court,
S. W. GILPIN, Judge of Probate.
Attest: A. R. MORTON,
Clerk of Probate.
Seal, Probate Court, St. Louis Co., Minn.
D. H., Feb. 25, March 3, 10.

ORDER TO EXAMINE FINAL ACCOUNT—

State of Minnesota,
County of St. Louis—ss.

In Probate Court. In the Matter of the Estate of J. P. Langlois, Decedent.

The petition of Josephine Langlois, as representative of the above named decedent, together with her final account of administration of said estate, having been filed in this court, representing, among other things, that she has fully administered said estate, and praying that said final account of said administration be examined, adjusted and allowed by the Court, and that the Court make and enter its final decree of distribution of the residue of the estate of said decedent to the persons entitled thereto, and for the discharge of the representative and the sureties on her bond. It is ordered, That said petition be heard, and said final account examined, adjusted, and, if correct, allowed by the Court, at the Probate Court Rooms in the Court House, in the City of Duluth in said County, on Monday, the 13th day of March, 1916, at ten o'clock A. M., and all persons interested in said hearing and in said matter are hereby cited and required at said time and place to show cause, if any there be, why said petition should not be granted. Ordered further, That this order be served by publication in The Duluth Herald, according to law.

Dated at Duluth, Minn., February 10th, 1916

By the Court,
S. W. GILPIN, Judge of Probate.
Attest: A. R. MORTON,
Clerk of Probate.
Seal, Probate Court, St. Louis Co., Minn
M. E. LOUISELL,
Attorney for Petitioner,
604-606 Lonsdale Bldg.,
Duluth, Minn.
D. H., Feb. 18, 25, March 3, 1916.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE—

Notice is hereby given, That default has been made in the conditions of that certain mortgage bearing date the 15th day of August, 1910, which mortgage is acknowledged on the 2nd day of September, 1910, made, and executed by Julia McLean, an unmarried woman, as mortgagor, to T. H. Hawkes, Trustee, mortgagee, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for St. Louis County, Minnesota, on the 14th day of September, 1910, at ten o'clock A. M. in Book 225 of Mortgages on Page 176; which mortgage was thereafter assigned by said T. H. Hawkes, Trustee, to William G. Schauffler, Jr., which assignment was dated the 29th day of November, 1912, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for said County on the 2nd day of December, 1912, at nine o'clock A. M. in Book 303 of Mortgages on page 558; which mortgage was thereafter assigned by said William G. Schauffler, Jr., to T. H. Hawkes, which assignment was dated the 17th day of April, 1913, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of said County on the 29th day of April, 1913, at 8:30 o'clock A. M. in Book 305 of Mortgages, on page 57.

That thereafter said T. H. Hawkes died in said County, and the Probate Court of said County thereafter in the Matter of the Estate of T. H. Hawkes, duly assigned said mortgage to Florence Curtis Hawkes, by Final Decree, dated July 22nd, 1914, a certified copy of which final decree was thereafter, and on the first day of December, 1914, at 3:30 o'clock P. M., duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds and for said County, in Book 360 of Deeds, on page 222.

Said default consists in the non-payment by said mortgagor of the principal sum secured by said mortgage, which became due on the first day of September, 1915, together with interest thereon from said date. By reason of said default, the Power of Sale in said mortgage has become operative and no action or proceeding at law or otherwise has been instituted to recover the amount secured by said mortgage. There is claimed to be due, and is due, on said mortgage on the date hereof, the sum of Fifteen Hundred Forty-five and 50-100 Dollars ($1,545.50). The property described in said mortgage and thereby mortgaged, is situated in St. Louis County, Minnesota, and is described as follows:

Lot Fourteen (14), in Block Fifty-one (51), London Addition to Duluth, according to the recorded plat thereof on file and of record in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for said County.

Now, therefore, By virtue of the Power of Sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, said mortgage will be foreclosed by the sale of said premises at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, by the Sheriff of St. Louis County, Minnesota, at the Sheriff's office in the County Court House in the City of Duluth, St. Louis County, Minnesota, on Monday, the 17th day of April, 1916, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, to satisfy the amount due on said mortgage, and taxes, if any, on said premises, and the sum of Seventy-five Dollars ($75.00) attorneys' fees, and the costs and disbursements allowed by law.

Dated March 3rd, 1916.

FLORENCE CURTIS HAWKES,
Assignee of Mortgagee.
BALDWIN, BALDWIN & HOLMES.
Attorneys for Assignee of Mortgagee,
Suite 900 Alworth Building,
Duluth, Minnesota.
D. H., Mar. 3, 10, 17, 24, 31, April 7, 1916.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION —OF— H. S. WENGER, INCORPORATED.

We, the undersigned, for the purpose of forming a corporation under and pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 58 of the General Statutes of Minnesota, 1913, and the Acts amendatory thereof, and to this end hereby sign and adopt the following certificate of incorporation:

ARTICLE I.

The name of this corporation shall be H. S. WENGER, INCORPORATED, and its principal place of business shall be at Duluth, Minnesota, although said corporation may have an office and transact business at any other place or places in the United States or elsewhere; the general nature of its business shall be to conduct a store or stores for the purchase, manufacture and sale at retail and wholesale of raw and tan furs, fur and cloth garments of every kind and description, and everything pertaining to the fur business, including the storage of fur and cloth garments, generally to manufacture, buy, sell, exchange and deal in the above specified articles and commodities, and in all materials used in the manufacture of each, any and all of such articles.

ARTICLE II.

The time of the commencement of this corporation shall be the 6th day of March, 1916.

ARTICLE III.

The names and places of residence of the persons forming this corporation are:

H. S. Wenger of Duluth, Minnesota;
Benj. M. Goldberg of Duluth, Minnesota;
E. P. Kennedy of Duluth, Minnesota, and
Mina MacVeigh of Duluth, Minnesota.

ARTICLE IV.

The management of this corporation shall be vested in a Board of three Directors, who shall be elected annually on the first Monday of March, unless otherwise provided by the by-laws, from which Board of Directors shall be selected in the manner prescribed by the by-laws, a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer. The offices of Secretary and Treasurer may be held by the same person.

The names and places of residence of those forming the first Board of Directors until the first election are: H. S. Wenger of Duluth, Minnesota; Benj. M. Goldberg of Duluth, Minnesota, and E. P. Kennedy of Duluth, Minnesota.

The first meeting of the Directors of this corporation may be held March 6, 1916, at 404 Columbia Building, Duluth, Minnesota.

ARTICLE V.

The amount of the capital stock of this corporation shall be Twenty-five Thousand ($25,000.00) Dollars, to be paid in cash or property, or both, as may be determined by the Board of

WHEAT ADVANCES SHARPLY WITH GOOD EXPORT TRADE

Buying By Foreigners and Light Argentine Shipments Bull Markets.

Flaxseed Is Strong With Steady Bidding By Crushers' Interests.

Duluth Board of Trade, March 3.—The market was strong at the close, high points for the day being set on more reports of buying by exporters.

May wheat closed 3c up and July 2⅞c up.

May durum closed 2¼c up and July 2c up.

Oats closed ⅝c up at 40@40½c for on the track, rye unchanged at 87c, and barley unchanged at from 57c to 65c.

At Winnipeg, May oats closed ⅜@½c up at 41c bid.

At St. Louis, May wheat closed at $1.10, and July at $1.08¼.

At Kansas City, May wheat closed at $1.05½ and July at $1.04⅜.

Puts on Minneapolis May wheat closed at $1.11, and calls at $1.15⅜.

Wheat prices were advanced 2c on comparatively light trading in today's market. The uplift was brought about through lighter Argentine shipments for the week than had been estimated, higher Liverpool cables, and reported export sales of around 1,000,000 bushels at the seaboard.

The general impression among operators was that the market should be due for an upturn after its extended break, so that it did not take very much in the way of actual developments to induce short-covering and buying on the part of traders who had recently been working on the bear side. Further news of damage in some areas of the winter wheat territory helped to create bullish sentiment as fears are entertained that this may become an important factor later on. Winnipeg led the way in point of strength. A number of overnight export offers were reported to have been accepted this morning, and there was evidence of good buying of futures on that market. The large increase in receipts at Winnipeg was therefore ignored, cash offerings being readily absorbed. It was intimated that good premiums were paid. Inquiry from millers was reported liberal at Minneapolis, conveying the impression that fresh export trade had been worked by millers there. Hard winter was advised to have been sold at the Gulf at 2c over Chicago, the highest premium on the crop.

Receipts at Duluth continue in fair volume, but shipments all-rail to the seaboard were nil yesterday owing to the impossibility of getting grain through at this stage. On that account supplies in the elevators here are piling up, and will show an increase this week of nearly 2,000,000 bushels of all grains. Bonded grain receipts at this point today aggregated 190 cars, of which 160 were wheat and 27 cars oats.

May wheat opened ¾c up at $1.11¾, and moved up to $1.13 at the noon hour. July opened ⅝c up at $1.12½, and advanced ¾c more.

Durum was also strong. May durum opened ½c up at $1.08½ and gained ¼c more. July opened unchanged at $1.09, advanced 1c and then eased off to the same extent.

Flaxseed Firm.

Operations in flaxseed were comparatively featureless. After a splurge around the opening the market became dull, and quotations did not move either way. Substantial bids from crushers are reported to be under the market.

May flax opened ¾c up at $2.29¼, and closed 1¼c up at $2.30 asked. July opened 1c up at $2.29½, and closed 1½c up at $2.30.

At Winnipeg, May flax closed unchanged at $2.07¼ bid.

At Buenos Aires, flax closed unchanged at $1.39⅝, and London ⅞c up at $2.79¼.

Cash Sales Friday.

No. 1 northern wheat, 1 car.....$1.12
No. 1 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.11½
No. 1 northern wheat, 2 cars.....1.11⅞
No. 2 northern wheat, 3 cars.....1.08¼
No. 4 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.00¾
No. 4 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.01½
Mont. wheat, 1 car, No. 2 hard winter.....1.12
Mont. wheat, 1 car, No. 2 hard winter.....1.13
Mont. wheat, 1 car, No. 2 hard winter.....1.12⅜
No. 1 durum, 1 car.....1.08
No. 1 durum, 1 car.....1.07¾
No. 1 durum, 1 car.....1.05
No. 2 durum, 2 cars.....1.05¼
No. 2 durum, 1 car.....1.04
No. 2 durum, 1 car.....1.03¾
No. 2 durum, 1 car.....1.05⅞
No. 2 durum, 1 car.....1.03½
No. 2 durum, 1 car.....1.04½
No. 3 durum, 1 car.....1.00½
No. 3 durum, 1 car......98
No. 3 durum, 1 car.....1.01
No. 3 durum, 1 car.....1.00¾
No. 3 durum, 1 car......99½
No. 3 durum, 1 car......97¾
No. 3 durum, 1 car.....1.00
No. 2 mixed durum, 1 car.....1.04
No. 3 mixed durum, 1 car......99¼
No. 2 mixed durum, 1 car.....1.04¼
No. 3 mixed durum, 2 cars.....1.00⅝
No. 2 mixed durum, 1 car.....1.05
No. 1 mixed durum, 1 car.....1.06½
No. 2 mixed durum, 1 car.....1.04⅝
No. 2 mixed durum, 1 car.....1.03¾
Sample grade durum, 1 car......94⅞
Barley, 2 cars.....62
Barley, 1 car.....60
Oats, 1 car, standard.....40¾
Oats, 1 car, standard.....40½
No grade oats, 1 car.....39
No. 2 rye, 1 car......87

MARKET GOSSIP.

Duluth car inspection: Wheat—No. 1 northern, 8; No. 2 northern, 13; No. 3, 12; No. 4, 2; no grade, 3; sample grade, 1; durum, 27; western red, 1; winter, 4; mixed, 21; total wheat, 92c; last year, 104; flax, 1; last year, 5; oats, 8, last year, 4; rye, 1, last year, none; barley, 8, last year, 10; total of all grains, 110, last year, 123; on track, 160.

* * *

Bradstreet's world's exports estimate for week—Wheat and flour, 8,199,000 bu; last week, 8,787,000 bu; last year, 423,000 bu. Corn, 469,000 bu; last week, 836,000 bu; last year, 2,616,000 bu. Since July 1, wheat and flour, 296,116,000 bu. In 1915 for same period wheat exports were 279,839,000 bu; corn, 14,250,000 bu; last year, 18,729,000 bu.

* * *

The market for cash wheat was again quiet at Duluth this morning, and the off-grades showed a further tendency to widen out. Cash No. 1 northern sold at ½c under to 2c over the May price. Cash No. 1 durum sold at ½c under the May price. No. 3 durum has become a drug on the market owing to the large proportion of it coming in. It sold at 7@9c under the May price.

* * *

A. B. Traeder has been appointed Duluth representative of Lamb-McGregor & Co., taking the place of H. W. Hellier now with the Hagen-Berg company.

* * *

Argentine shipments: Wheat, 2,864,000 bu; last week, 2,960,000 bu; last year, 5,193,000 bu; corn, 604,000 bu; last week, 1,054,000 bu; last year, 1,242,000 bu; oats, 690,000 bu; last week, 1,530,000 bu; last year, 1,670,000 bu.

* * *

Argentine visible supply: Wheat, 8,096,000 bu, last week 9,360,000 bu, last year 6,992,000 bu. Corn 3,519,000 bu, last week 3,910,000 bu, last year 3,715,000 bu.

* * *

Modern Miller says: A light snow this week over practically the whole winter wheat belt except Texas, has favored the crop. Conditions revealed by the early thaws were not favorable. Serious reports of winter kill are coming from Indiana, Illinois, Missouri and Oklahoma. In Texas considerable wheat acreage is being plowed up and the minimum damage is 50 per cent. The state needs rain badly. Kansas and Nebraska have not revealed the actual conditions and the crop wintered well except for a period of ice covering. Considering the reduced acreage, the general prospect is far below the preceding two years.

* * *

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool: Liverpool: "Market was dull with a steady undertone on some fears of arrivals and dearer Manitoba offerings. Market was very dull, unchanged to 1d higher with cargo market steady, Manitobas and winters 4½d higher with slightly more inquiry. Plates and Australians were unchanged with free offers. English country markets were weak. Arrivals are liberal and stocks are increasing, predictions are for liberal shipments from Australia this week."

* * *

Russell's News, New York, said: "Moderate buying of wheat futures at Winnipeg and Chicago was credited to export houses. A private estimate was that the buying of futures against export business was about a half million bu. Chicago reported some inquiry for cash wheat this morning, but buyers were having difficulty again in getting the railroads to accept business. There was evidence of further inquiry for oats this morning."

* * *

Duluth bonded grain receipts: Wheat, 160 cars; oats, 27 cars; barley, 2 cars; flax, 1 car; total, 190 cars.

* * *

Cars of wheat received:	Yesterday.	Year Ago.
Duluth	92	104
Minneapolis	369	98
Winnipeg	851	258
Chicago	233	72
Kansas City	85	190
St. Louis, bu	78,000	53,000

Cars of linseed received:	Yesterday.	Year Ago.
Duluth	1	5
Minneapolis	22	9
Winnipeg	13	11

* * *

Foreign closing cables: Liverpool—Spot wheat, unchanged to 1d up; corn, unchanged to ¼d up. Buenos Aires—Wheat, ½@1¼c lower.

* * *

Duluth grain stocks, giving changes in five days:

Wheat—Western and winter, 756,000 bu, increase, 9,000 bu; spring, 7,408,000 bu, increase, 222,000 bu; durum, 5,422,000 bu, increase, 209,000 bu; bonded, 2,414,000 bu, increase, 476,000 bu; total wheat, 16,758,000 bu, net increase, 916,000 bu; afloat, 758,000 bu.

Coarse grains—Oats, 1,727,000 bu, increase, 265,000 mu; rye, 26,000 bu; barley, 981,000 bu, increase, 50,000 bu; flax, domestic, 1,634,000 bu, bonded, 28,000 bu; total flax, 1,662,000 bu, increase, net, 16,000 bu.

Total of all grains, 21,154,000 bu; net increase, 1,247,000 bu.

* * *

Clearances reported: Wheat, 347,000 bu; flour, 51,000 bbl; together equal to 577,000 bu; corn, 80,000 bu; oats, 401,000 bu.

* * *

Primary markets report the following receipts and shipments today:

Wheat—Receipts, 1,286,000 bu, last year, 480,000 bu; shipments, 947,000 bu, last year, 757,000 bu.

Corn—Receipts, 805,000 bu, last year, 522,000 bu; shipments, 642,000 bu, last year, 542,000 bu.

Oats—Receipts, 720,000 bu, last year, 665,000 bu; shipments, 598,000 bu, last year, 869,000 bu.

CHICAGO MARKET.

Higher Prices at Liverpool Give Strength to Wheat.

Chicago, March 3.—Higher prices at Liverpool gave strength today to the wheat market here. The bulls seemed to be encouraged also by the prospect that the submarine issue in congress would be sidetracked. There were signs, too, that exporters and millers were not overlooking advantageous opportunities to purchase. Opening quotations, which ranged from ¼@1⅛c higher, with May at $1.11½@1.12 and July at $1.09½@1.09⅞, were followed by a slight further gain and then a moderate setback.

Word from Washington that the Gore resolution had been tabled was succeeded by a notable hardening of prices here. The market was bullishly affected at about the same time by a comprehensive report of adverse domestic crop conditions. Closing quotations were firm, 2½@2⅝c net higher, with May at $1.13¾ and July at $1.11¼.

Crop damage reports from Argentina tended to lift the corn market. Advances, however, brought about increased selling and caused a reaction. After opening unchanged to ⅜c higher, prices underwent a material sag.

The market rallied later in sympathy with wheat. The close was firm at ½@⅝c net advance.

Oats paralleled the action of corn. Trading was only of a scattered character.

Higher prices on hogs put a little firmness into provisions. The market was fairly active.

Wheat—No. 2 red, nominal; No. 3 red, $1.09; No. 2 hard, $1.10½@1.12¾; No. 3 hard, $1.06@1.10¼.

Corn—No. 2 yellow, nominal; No. 4 yellow, 67½@69c; No. 4 white, 68¼@68½c.

Oats—No. 3 white, 40¼@41½c; standard, 43@43½c.

Rye, No. 2, nominal; No. 4, 86c; barley, 62@71c; timothy, $4.50@7.00; clover, $10@20.

Pork, $19.75@21.25; lard, $10.40; ribs, $11.12@11.62.

Wheat—	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.
May	$1.11½	$1.14	$1.11½	$1.13⅝
July	1.09½	1.11⅝	1.08⅞	1.11¼
Corn—
May	.74⅛	.74⅝	.73⅝	.74⅛
July	.73⅜	.74½	.73⅜	.74⅜
Oats—
May	.43⅛	.43⅝	.42½	.43¼
July	.41¼	.41¾	.40¾	.41⅝
Pork—
May	21.20	21.47	21.15	21.42
July	21.22	21.45	21.07	21.40
Lard—
May	10.57	10.65	10.57	10.65
July	10.80	10.85	10.77	10.85
Ribs—
May	11.62	11.72	11.60	11.72
July	11.77	11.85	11.72	11.82

MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 3.—Wheat higher; receipts, 369 cars compared with 98 a year ago. May opened $1.11⅞ to $1.11½; high, $1.13⅜@1.13⅝; low, $1.11¼; closed, $1.13⅝ to $1.13⅝. July opened $1.11½; high, $1.13½; low, $1.11; closed, $1.13⅜.

Cash No. 1 hard, $1.18⅝; No. 1 northern, $1.14¼@1.17⅝; to arrive, $1.14¼@1.16½; No. 2 northern, $1.10⅝@1.14⅝; No. 3 wheat, $1.04⅝@1.11¼.

Corn, No. 3 yellow, 75@76c; oats, No. 3 white, 38¾@39¾c; flax, $2.30@2.34.

Flour—Unchanged; shipments, 76,547 bbls. Barley, 60@67c; rye, 86½@88c; bran, $17.75@18.25.

Liverpool Grain.

Liverpool, March 3.—Wheat—Spot, No. 1 Manitoba, 14s 7d; No. 3, 14s 3d; No. 2 hard winter gulf, 12s 9d; No. 2 red western winter, 13s 1d.

Corn—Spot, American mixed, new, 11s.

New York Wheat.

New York, March 3.—Wheat May, $1.22; July, $1.15.

THE PRODUCE MARKETS.

Duluth.

GRAPE FRUIT—

Fcy. Grape	36	46	54	64	80	96-126
Fruit	$3.25	$3.50	$3.75	$4.00	$4.00	$5.50

MISCELLANEOUS FRUIT—

Strawberries, qt.	.35

CRANBERRIES—

Cranberries, Jerseys, per box	3.75
Cranberries, Jersey, Arbutus or Heather Brand, bu.	3.75
Cranberries, Jersey, Arbutus or Heather Brand, bbl.	11.50
Cranberries, Evaporated, 25 pkgs., carton	2.75

ORANGES—

Ex. Fcy.	80s	96-100	126	150	176	200-288
Navels	....	$3.25	$3.50	$3.50	$3.75	$4.00
Navels	$2.50	3.00	3.00	3.25	3.50	3.75
Floridas	....	2.75	3.25	3.25	3.50	....
Ex. Fcy. Tangerines, box						2.75

LEMONS—

	270s	300s
Ex. Fcy. California, box	$4.25	$4.75
Ex. Ch. California, box	4.25	4.50
Limes, Fancy, box		1.25

BANANAS—

Bananas, Fancy Limon, lb	.04¼

BOX APPLES—	Ex. Fancy.	Fancy.	Choice.
Jonathan	$1.85	$1.50	....
Roman Beauty	....	1.50	....
Delicious	2.50	1.85	....
Spitzenburg	2.35	....	1.75
Winesaps	2.25	2.00	1.90

BARREL APPLES—	Circle F Brand.	Fancy Grade.	Choice Grade.
N. Y. Baldwin	....	$3.50	$2.75
Mo. Jonathan	$4.75	4.25	3.75
Mo. Winc Sap	4.75	....	....
Mo. Black Twig	....	3.75	....
Mo. Ben Davis	3.50	3.25	2.75
Mo. Ben Davis Lot 1-t, bbl	....	....	2.25

GREEN VEGETABLES—

Beans, Green, lb	.20
Beans, Chi. Wax, lb., 20c; hamper	4.00
Beets, Barrel Stock, doz	1.00
Brussels Sprouts, box	.25
Cabbage, Red, lb	.05
Carrots Barrel Stock, doz	.75
Carrots, hamper	1.75
Cauliflower, California, Pony crate, crate	2.40
Cucumbers, Hothouse, Extra Fancy, doz., $1.50; Fancy, doz	1.25
Celery Cabbage, lb., 15c; per crate	4.00
Celery Root, doz	.70
Chives, box	.75
Endive, hamper, lb	6.50
Egg Plant, crate	4.00
Leeks, hamper	1.75
Lettuce Leaf, cases, 40c; bu	1.10
Head Lettuce, California, Iceberg, doz., $1.10; crate	3.25
Head Lettuce, Texas, large hamper	3.70
Mint, doz	.50
Mushrooms, lb	.65
Oyster Plant, doz	.80
Parsley, Southern, doz	.90
Peppers, Florida, bskt., 45c; crate	2.10
Radishes, Hothouse, doz	.75
Rhubarb, box, $2.50; lb	.12
Shallots, doz	.75
Spinach, bskt	1.45
Tomatoes, Florida, 6 bskt., crate	5.25
Tomatoes, Florida, bskt	.85
Watercress, doz	.45
Turnips, doz	.75

CELERY—

Mammoth, Red, White and Blue Ribbon, doz	1.25
Jumbo, Blue Ribbon, doz	1.10
Large, Red Ribbon, doz	1.00
Fancy, White Ribbon, doz	.90
Untrimmed Celery, California, crate	6.50

WASHED VEGETABLES—

Washed Parsnips, per bskt	1.20
Washed Beets, per bskt	1.20
Washed Carrots, per bskt	1.10

VEGETABLES—

Carrots, Minnesota, cwt	1.50
Beets, Minnesota, cwt	1.90
Bagas, Minnesota, cwt	1.00
Lima Beans, California, lb	.07½
Garlic, lb	.20
Horseradish, lb., 10c; bbl	7.00
Horseradish, 8 oz. bottle, per doz	4.20
Navy Beans, Fancy, H. P., Michigan, bu	4.50
Parsnips, cwt	1.75
Squash, lb., 04; bbl	4.00

ONIONS—

Onions, Minn., Red, cwt	3.00
Spanish Onions, small crate, $2.25; bu	2.75
Spanish Onions, large crates, crate	6.50
Onions, White, Cummer crate	3.40

CABBAGE—

Minnesota Cabbage, bulk, per crate, $1.75; cwt	1.60
Red Cabbage, lb	.05

POTATOES—

Fancy Potatoes, Minnesota, Burbank, bu	.95
Sweet Potatoes, hamper	1.85

CHEESE—

Block Swiss, lb	.25
Brick, half case, lb	.20
Twins, Wisconsin, lb	.20
Twins, New York State, lb	.21
Young Americas, lb	.21

BUTTER—

Jars, lb	.36
Prints, lb	.35
Tub, lb	.34
First creamery, lb	.32
Dairy, lb	.22 .24

MEATS—

Beef, native steers, lb	.12 .12½
Beef, western steers, lb	.11
Cows, butchers, lb	.10 .10½
Camp cows, per lb	.08½
Mutton, per lb	.13
Pork loins, per lb	.13 .15
Lamb, per lb	.17 .18

LIVE POULTRY—

Springs, lb	.19
Fowls, heavy, lb	.20
Fowls, light, lb	.15
Geese, lb	.16
Ducks, lb	.16

DRESSED POULTRY—

Springs	.20
Fowls, light	.17
Fowls, heavy	.21
Turkeys, lb	.25
Ducks, lb	.18
Geese, lb	.18

FROZEN POULTRY—

Broilers	.25
Friers	.20
Roasters	.20
Fowls, light	.18
Fowls, medium	.19
Fowls, heavy	.19
Ducks	.18
Geese	.18
Turkeys	.24

EGGS—

Fresh eggs, doz	.24 .26
Storage eggs, doz	.20 .21

HAY—

Choice timothy, per ton	$14.40
No. 1 timothy, per ton	$13.50@14.00
No. 2 timothy, per ton	11.00@12.00
No. 3 timothy, per ton	9.00@10.00
No. 1 mixed timothy, per ton	11.00@11.50
No. 2 mixed timothy, per ton	10.00@10.50
No. 3 mixed timothy, per ton	9.00@10.00
No. 1 prairie, per ton	11.50@12.50
No. 2 prairie, per ton	10.50@11.50
No. 3 prairie, per ton	8.00@ 9.00
No. 1 midland, per ton	8.00@ 9.00
No. 2 midland, per ton	7.00@ 8.00
Parking straw, per ton	5.50@ 6.00
Rye straw, per ton	6.00@ 6.50
Oat straw, per ton	5.50@ 6.00

Chicago.

Chicago, March 3.—Butter—Higher; receipts, 6,090 tubs; creamery extras, 34½c; extra firsts, 32½@33c; firsts, 28½@32c; seconds, 26@27½c.

Cheese—Steady; daisies, 17¾@18c; twins, 17¼@17½c; Americas, 18¾@18¾c; long horns, 18¾@18¾c.

Eggs—Lower; receipts, 11,901 cases; firsts, 20½c; ordinary firsts, 19½c; at mark, cases included, 19@20½c.

Potatoes—Receipts, 23 cars; unchanged.

Poultry—Alive, higher; fowls, 16½c; springs, 17¾c.

New York.

New York, March 3.—Butter—Firm; receipts, 8,154; creamery extra, 92 score, 36¼c; creamery, higher scoring, 37@37½c; firsts, 34@36c; seconds, 31@33½c.

Eggs—Unsettled; receipts, 11,712; fresh gathered, extras, 25@26c; extra firsts, 24½c; firsts, 23½@24c; seconds, 22¾@23c; nearby henmery, whites, fine to fancy, 31@32c; nearby henmery browns, 26@27c.

Cheese—Irregular; receipts, 1,194; state, whole milk, flats, held, colored special, 18c; do white, 17¾c; do colored, average fancy, 17½@17¾c; do white, 17½c.

RAW FURS.

	Large.	Medium.	Small.
Bear	$10.00	$12.00	$10.00
Bear, cub	7.50	6.00	5.00
Beaver	10.00	6.50	3.50
Badger	2.50	1.75	1.35
Civet cat	.40	.30	.25
Fisher	20.00	12.00	9.00
Fox, silver	500.00	350.00	200.00
Fox, cross	25.00	25.00	12.00
Fox, gray	2.25	1.75	1.25
Fox, red	9.00	7.50	6.00
Lynx	12.50	9.00	6.50
Mink, dark	3.25	2.00	1.50
Mink, brown	2.75	2.00	1.50
Mink, pale	2.25	2.00	1.75
Otter, dark	12.00	9.00	7.00
Otter, brown	10.00	7.50	6.00
Raccoon	3.50	2.25	1.50
Skunk, black	4.00	....	3.00
Skunk, short striped	3.25	....	2.25
Skunk, striped	2.50	....	1.75
Weasel	.60	.35	.10

Muskrat—Wisconsin and similar, large winter, 35c; winter, 18c; large fall, 25c; small fall, 12c. Minnesota and similar, large, winter, 20c; small winter, 15c; large fall, 20c; small fall, 11c; kits and damaged at value.

HIDES, PELTS, WOOL, ETC.

No. 1 green salted cows and steers, all weights	.16
No. 1 green salted bulls	.13½
Green salted and branded hides flat	.14
No. 1 green salted veal calf	.17
No. 1 green salted long haired kips, 8 to 25 lbs	.16
Dry Hides—
Territy butchers, over 15 lbs	.24 .26
Murrain and fallen, over 15 lbs	.16 .19
Calf over 6 lbs	.24 .26
Dry salted hides, all weights	.17 .20
Wool market lower. Demand fair.
Unwashed, ¼ blood	.26 .29
Unwashed, medium, ⅜ blood	.25 .27
Unwashed, coarse, ¼ blood	.22 .25
Unwashed, low, ¼ blood	.20 .23

Chicago Livestock.

Chicago, March 3.—Demand from shippers and speculators proved sufficiently active today to uphold prices in the hog market. Cattle offerings lacked quality. Sheep and lambs were somewhat scarce.

Hogs—Receipts, 24,000; slow at yesterday's average; bulk, $8.90@9.05; light, $8.60@9.05; mixed, $8.70@9.10; heavy, $8.60@9.05; rough, $8.60@8.75; pigs, $7.25@8.30.

Cattle—Receipts, 2,000; steady; native beef steers, $7.25@9.70; western steers, $7.10@8.25; stockers and feeders, $5.75 7.85; cows and heifers, $3.45@8.45; calves, $8.50@11.25.

Sheep—Receipts, 6,000; strong; wethers, $7.90@8.60; lambs, $9.25@11.35.

New York Money.

New York, March 3.—Mercantile paper, 3@3¼. Sterling exchange 60 day bills, 4.71½; demand, 4.76½; cables, 4.77. Francs, demand, 5.88½; cables, 5.87¾; marks, demand, 73⅝; cables, 73 7-16; kronen, 19¾; cables, 13½; guilders, demand, 42⅜; cables, 42¾. Lire, demand, 6.69; cables, 6.68; rubles, demand, 32¼; cables, 32⅜. Bar silver, 56¾; Mexican dollars, 43⅝. Government bonds, strong; railroad bonds, irregular. Time loans, firm; sixty days, 2½@2¾; 90 days, 2¾@3; six months, 3@3¼; call money, steady, high, 2; low, 1¾; ruling rate, 1¾; last loans, 2; closing bid, 1¾; offered at 2.

Real Estate Transfers.

Same to same, lot 6, blk. 20, same	1
Mary S. Lillihan to David Davis, lot 315, blk. 72, Duluth Proper, Second division	4,500
St. Louis County Realty company to Earl W. Stewart, e½ of sw¼, n½ of se¼, section 15; s½ of nw¼, nw¼ of sw¼, lot 4, section 14, 65-18	1
Margaret Sullivan to Catherine Lowney, northerly ½ lot 23, West Fifth street, Duluth Proper, First division	1
Henry Muhonen to Matt Halt, se¼ of sw¼, section 8; south ¼ of se¼ of se¼, section 8, 57-15	450
Frank Heino to Esa Salo, ne¼ of nw¼, section 22, 56-12	65
Dudley W. Freeman, trustee, to Orga Tamarzia, lot 3, blk. 13, Gilbert, lot 8, blk. 13, Second addition to Gilbert	200
Annie Klitz et al to Pasquale Rocchio, lot 2, blk. 2, Klizville	350
Nels Backstrom to John Hedberg, westerly 16 2-3 ft. lot 373, easterly 16 2-3 ft. lot 375, blk. 154, Duluth Proper, Second division	1
Robert S. Crogan et ux to Emma S. Anderson, lot 12, blk. 20, Lester Park, Second division	1
Same to same, lot 6, blk. 20, Lester Park, Second division	1
The Volk company to A. W. Kuchnow, lot 3, blk. 35, Gary, First division	1
A. W. Kuchnow et ux to Elizabeth F. Vukovich, lot 3, blk. 35, Gary, First division	1
Lake View Home company to F. B. Elliott, lots 1088 to 1091 inclusive, Crosley Park addition	1
Duluth Home company to John J. Hopkins, lot 6, blk. 3, Waverly park	697

ADVANCES IN STOCKS

Firmness in Final Hour Under Leadership of United States Steel.

Trading Dull During Morning But Bcomes More Animated Later.

New York, March 3.—Gains ranging from material fractions to a full point marked the opening of today's trading, with a few offsetting features, mainly in rails and war issues. Speculation was moderate and cautious, however, there being plainly a further disposition to await the outcome of developments in Washington. Commission houses reported a cessation of out-of-town liquidation, but public interest on the buying side continued negligible. Prices yielded before the end of the half hour, with special weakness in Baldwin Locomotive and allied issues.

A spirited rise in oils, American Locomotive and some other active industrials in today's stock market succeeded the decline in Baldwin and prices recovered to or above yesterday's finals. Mexican Petroleum and Texas company rose 3½ each, and American Locomotive gained almost 3 points. Some specialties displayed greater weakness, however, General Motors losing 10 and Consolidated Gas and Electric of Baltimore declining 5¾. Trading became very apathetic later, the first hour's turnover being the smallest of recent days and showing increased dullness with the approach of the mid-session. Bonds were steady.

The market was a trifle more animated in the afternoon with improvement in motors, the war group and some obscure specialties. Beet Sugar was temporarily heavy on reports of failure of an expected dividend disbursement.

Prices showed greater firmness in the final hour, under the lead of United States Steel. The closing was strong.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Reported by Charles E. Lewis & Co.

STOCKS—	High.	Low.	Close.
Am. Tel. & Tel.	127⅜	127¼	127¼
Am. Can., com.	59	57¾	59
Am. Beet Sugar	68	65½	67
Am. Car Foundry	66¼	65½	66¼
Am. Locomotive	70⅞	68¾	70½
Am. Zinc & Leather	78½	78	78½
Am. Steel Foundries	50¾	49⅞	50¾
Am. Smelting	98½	96⅝	98¼
Alaska Gold Mines Co	19¾	19¾	20⅜
Allis Chalmers, com.	27⅞	27½	27⅞
Am. Sugar	109¾	109½	109¾
Am. Tobacco Co.	194¼	194¼	194¼
Anaconda Copper	85¾	84⅞	85⅝
Atchison	102½	102⅛	102¾
Bald. Loc.	102⅞	100	102⅞
B. & O., com.	86¼	86	86
Bethlehem Steel, com.	468	460	468
Butte & Superior	93	92¼	92⅝
Cal. Petroleum, com.	27⅝	26⅞	27⅝
Canadian Pacific	166	164¾	166
Central Leather	53	52⅞	53
Ches. & Ohio	61½	61	61
Chino Copper Co.	56⅞	56⅜	56⅞
C., Mil. & St. Paul	93⅝	93⅜	93⅝
Colo. Fuel & Iron	41½	40¼	41½
Con. Gas	132	132	132
Corn Pro. Co.	23⅝	21¼	23¼
Crucible Steel, com.	73¾	72½	73⅝
Distillers Sec.	46¼	46	46
Erie	36⅝	36	36⅜
B. F. Goodrich Co., com	70¾	69	70¾
General Motors, com.	460	450	460
Great Northern, pfd.	120⅜	120¼	120¼
Great Northern Ore	41½	40¾	41½
Inspir. Copper Co.	45	44½	45
K. C. Southern	25⅛	25¼	25¼
Kenn Copper	54⅞	54⅜	54⅞
Lackawanna Steel	77½	75½	77
Lehigh Valley	77½	77½	77½
Maxwell Motor	60¾	57¾	60½
do, 1st pfd.	82½	82½	82½
do, 2nd pfd.	43¼	43	43¼
Mex. Petroleum Co.	98¾	95½	98¼
Miami Copper	35¾	35¼	35¾
Northern Pacific	112¼	111¾	112¼
National Lead	66¼	66¼	66¼
Nevada Copper Co.	16½	16⅜	16½
Norfolk & Western	115	114¾	115
N. Y. Central	104¾	104⅛	104¾
Pennsylvania R. R.	57⅛	57	57⅛
Pitts. Coal com.	30	29¾	30
Pressed S. C. Co.	50	49	50
Ray Copper	24⅝	24¼	24½
Reading	82½	81¾	82¼
Republic Steel	51⅛	50¼	51⅛
Rock Island	18⅛	17⅝	18⅛
Ry. Steel Springs	38⅝	38⅜	38⅝
Southern Pacific	97¼	96⅜	97¼
Southern Railway	20⅛	20	20⅛
Studebaker, com.	138	133½	138
Shattuck	36⅞	36	36⅜
Texas Oil Co.	201½	198	201
Union Pacific	132⅛	131½	132⅛
U. S. Rubber	49¾	49	49¾
U. S. Inds. Alcohol Co.	152¼	150¾	152
U. S. Steel	82	80⅝	81⅞
Utah Copper	84½	83¾	84⅜
Western Union	88¼	88⅛	88¼
West. Hs. Elc. Mg. Co.	63¾	62	63¾

BOSTON COPPER STOCKS.

Reported by Paine, Webber & Co.

STOCKS—	Bid.	Asked.
Alaska	20	20¼
Adventure	2¼	2⅝
Ahmeek	98	100½
Allouez	70	71
American Zinc	78½	79
Arcadian	8	8⅜
Arizona Commercial	8¾	8⅞
Butte-Alex Scott	10	10½
Butte & Ballaklava	4	4½
Butte & Superior	92¾	93
Calumet & Arizona	71¼	71½
Calumet & Hecla	550	552
Centennial	15	16
Cambria Steel	81	....
Chino	56⅝	57
Copper Range	63	63¼
Daly West	2¾	3
East Butte	13	13¼
Franklin	9¼	9½
Goldfield Consolidated	90c	95c
Granby	87¾	88¼
Greene-Cananea	44¾	45
Hancock Consolidated	15¾	16¼
Inspiration	44¾	45
Indiana	4	5
Isle Royale	27½	28
Keweenaw	3	3¼
Lake Copper	16½	17
Mass. Consolidated	13½	13¾
Mayflower	3⅝	3½
Miami Copper	35¼	35⅝
Michigan	1⅜	2
Mohawk	91¾	92
Nevada Consolidated	16¼	16⅜
North Lake	1½	1¾

ABSENT-MINDED ABNER—The Symptoms Were the Same as Scarlet Fever, at That!

By Walt McDougall

YOU LOOK LIKE A PANNED OYSTER!
WHO, ME?
FRESH ROASTED PEANUTS
I'LL BET YOU'VE GOT A FEVER!
IT'S A PRETTY WARM DAY FOR THIS TIME OF THE YEAR BUT I'M ALL RIGHT, IKE
I WISH PEOPLE WOULD MIND THEIR OWN BUSINESS HE'S GOT ME THINKING I'M SIMMERING WITH THE HEAT! IDIOT!
I BELIEVE I HAVE GOT A TEMPERATURE! I'LL GO OVER AND SEE OLD DOC RAMSEY! MAYBE I'M SICK!
NOW, WHAT PIN HEADED APE LEFT A LAMP BURNING OUT HERE IN THE DAYTIME? I'LL GO IN AND TELL THE PROPRIETOR!

BOATS & MOTORBOATS.

FOR SALE—CHEAP; SIXTEEN-FOOT launch. Call Cole 400 or 400-D.

LEGAL NOTICES.

CERTIFICATE OF AMENDMENT —OF— ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION —OF— THE SWANSTROM INVESTMENT COMPANY.

We, the undersigned, being respectively the President and Secretary of The Swanstrom Investment Company, do hereby certify that at a special meeting of the stockholders of the said The Swanstrom Investment Company, duly convened, and at which there was present, in person or by proxy, the owners of all of the capital stock of the said The Swanstrom Investment Company, and which said meeting was held on the 25th day of February, A. D., 1916, at the general office of the company at No. 19, Twenty-first avenue west, in the City of Duluth, St. Louis County, Minnesota, at 7:30 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, for the purpose of considering the matter of amending the Articles of Incorporation of said company so as to increase the amount of indebtedness or liability to which the corporation can at any time be subjected, the following resolution was duly adopted by the affirmative vote of all of the stockholders and of all of the shares of The Swanstrom Investment Company, viz,.

"Resolved, by the stockholders of The Swanstrom Investment Company, That the articles of incorporation of said The Swanstrom Investment Company be and the same hereby are amended so that Article VIII thereof shall read as follows:

VIII.

The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which this corporation shall at any time be subjected shall be Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00)."

And we further certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of said resolution and amendment of the articles of incorporation of the said The Swanstrom Investment Company.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We, Charles W. Swanstrom, President, and Joseph C. Helm, Secretary, of said The Swanstrom Investment Company, have hereunto set our hands and caused the corporate seal of said corporation to be affixed hereto at Duluth, Minnesota, this 25th day of February, A. D. 1916.

CHARLES W. SWANSTROM, President.

JOSEPH C. HELM, Secretary.

(Corporate Seal, The Swanstrom Investment Company, Duluth, Minnesota.)

Signed, Sealed and Delivered in Presence of:
W. A. SWANSTROM.
A. F. SWANSTROM, JR.
E. A. SWANSTROM.

State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis —ss.

Personally came before me, on this 25th day of February, A. D. 1916, Charles W. Swanstrom and Joseph C. Helm, to me personally known, who, being by me each duly sworn, did say that they are respectively the President and Secretary of The Swanstrom Investment Company, the corporation named in the above and foregoing certificate; that the seal affixed to the foregoing certificate is the corporate seal of said corporation; that the above and foregoing certificate was made, signed and sealed by them at the request and by the direction and authority of all of the stockholders of the said corporation, and the said Charles W. Swanstrom and Joseph C. Helm acknowledged the foregoing instrument to be the free act and deed of said corporation.

THOMAS A. MERRITT, Notary Public, St. Louis County, Minnesota. My commission expires July 6, 1917. (Notarial Seal, St. Louis Co., Minn.)

State of Minnesota, Department of State.

I hereby certify that the within instrument was filed for record in this office on the 29th day of February, A. D. 1916, at 9 o'clock A. M., and was duly recorded in Book B-4 of Incorporations, on page 379.

JULIUS A. SCHMAHL, E. Secretary of State.

244084.

OFFICE OF REGISTER OF DEEDS. State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis —ss.

I hereby certify that the within instrument was filed in this office for record March 1, 1916, at 8:30 A. M., and was duly recorded in Book 17 of Misc., page 312.

CHAS. CALLIGAN, Register of Deeds. By C. L. LOFGREN, Deputy.

D. H., March 2, 3, 1916.

STATE OF MINNESOTA—DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE—

A joint petition having been filed with the undersigned, as provided by law, by the Surety Fund Life Company, a corporation, of Minneapolis, Minnesota, and the Dakota Western Assurance Company, a corporation, of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, asking permission and authority to re-insure all of the outstanding life insurance business of said Dakota Western Assurance Company in said Surety Fund Life Company;

It is hereby ordered that a hearing be had upon said petition at ten o'clock in the forenoon on Tuesday, March 21st, 1916, at the Department of Insurance, at the State Capitol building, in St. Paul, Minnesota;

And, it is further ordered that said Surety Fund Life Company and said Dakota Western Assurance Company forthwith mail copies of this order to all of their respective policyholders.

Dated at St. Paul, Minnesota, this 23d day of February, 1916.

S. D. WORKS, Commissioner of Insurance. (Insurance Department Seal.)

D. H., Feb. 25, March 3, 1916.

SITUATION WANTED. FEMALE.

SITUATION WANTED — STENOGRAPHER with several years' experience wishes position; can assist with books and general office work. Address F 701, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — YOUNG woman speaking Finnish language wants position as clerk in drygoods store; three years' experience. Write S 657, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — WOMAN wants work by the day or rooms to take care of; needs work at once. New phone Grand 1263-D.

SITUATION WANTED—BY PRACTICAL nurse, engagement. Call or write 2705½ West Second street.

SITUATION WANTED—AS HOUSEkeeper, by woman with little girl. Write U 687, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—AS HOUSEkeeper, or work in small family. B 694, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — BY YOUNG girl to work for room and board. Melrose 3771.

SITUATION WANTED—BY DRESSmaker by the day or at home. Call Melrose 6533.

SITUATION WANTED — WASHING, ironing and cleaning. Melrose 2267.

SITUATION WANTED—WORK BY the day. Melrose 7235.

SITUATION WANTED. MALE.

SITUATION WANTED—YOUNG INtelligent colored man desires a position as chauffeur with private family; not afraid of work; can furnish reference of five years employed with one family. Write J 703 Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—BY YOUNG married man willing to do any kind of inside work, best of references from the military service; must have work at once; wholesale house preferred. Write Y 706, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—AS GENERAL mechanic; experienced in mining machinery; ten years in charge; married, sober, industrious; at present employed, but desire change; references. Address C 684, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—BY ELECTRIcian, twenty years' experience in electrical construction and installation,-as superintendent or chief electrician, with reliable firm or corporation. Address G 692, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — EXPERIenced machine blacksmith wishes work of any kind; as blacksmith or machine helper preferred; will go out of town. Write H 677, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—YOUNG MAN and wife in camp or farm; willing to leave city; wages no object. Address M 709, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — GOOD ALL round harness maker wants job in repair shop; strictly sober. T. Pascoe, Chassell, Mich.

SITUATION WANTED — TO RUN small planer mill; can file saws; have good references. Write E 697, Herald.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE

TWO LOT BARGAINS.

100 by 150 ft. lot on the central hillside, at a great bargain, let us show you this property; very easy terms; price $900; this is at least $300 below market price.

Another fine lot, 30 by 80 ft., on Fourteenth avene east, just above Ninth street; rapidly growing residence district; price only $450; $50.00 cash will handle, balance on monthly payments.

WHITNEY WALL CO., 301 Torrey Building.

WANTED — RELIABLE PARTIES with the ability to sell steel plant lots can secure a very favorable contract for the exclusive sale of a new steel plant addition, well located; low prices on lots and liberal commissions. Call or write J. P. Rossman, Torrey building, Duluth, Minn.

FOR SALE—FINE LOT AT LAKEside, 50x140, all improvements in, one block from street car; $550.00. W. A. Hicken, lands, loans and insurance, 401 Palladio building.

FOR SALE—LAKESIDE 50-FOOT LOT, block from car line; street graded, water, sewer, cement walk; bargain, $575; easy terms; worth $775. Write U 610, Herald.

FOR SALE — CITY PROPERTY, houses and lots; farms and timber land. O. G. Olson, 314 Columbia Bldg.

FOR SALE COWS.

FOR SALE—S. GOLDFINE HAS JUST arrived with a carload of the finest assortment of fresh milch cows. 1016 North Fifth avenue west.

FOR SALE—A CARLOAD OF FRESH milch cows has just arrived for S. M. Kaner, 1217 East Seventh street. Both phones.

FOR SALE—RED COW WITH HORNS, 5 years old. Inquire 824 Garfield avenue.

FOR SALE—FRESH MILCH COWS. 217 North Fifty-fourth avenue west.

JEWELRY REPAIRED.

Have Lange do your repairing right. Cash for old gold. 12 Lake Ave. N.

WATCHES REPAIRED.

Bring your watch to Garon Bros., to have it repaired right. 217 W. 1st. St.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE HERALD

FOR SALE HOUSES.

ATTRACTIVE OFFERINGS.

1509 Jefferson street—7 rooms and maids' room; very best finish.
1118 East Third street—7 rooms, very large; central.
610 East Seventh street—6 rooms, on car line; nearly new.
4026 East Superior street—6 rooms; very delightful location.
4114 East Gladstone street—5-room bungalow; attractive.
517 Seventeenth avenue east—8 rooms; very desirable location.
625 Sixteenth avenue east—6 rooms, bungalow style; nearly new.
2026 East Fifth street—6 rooms and bath; nearly new.

The above homes are well equipped with cabinets, large closets, heating plants, foundations, good large basements, and we consider these exceptionally good buys.

Exclusive Sale, W. M. PRINDLE & CO.

—EAST END HOMES.—

$15.00 per month will purchase a 4-room house on East Ninth street car line; modern except heat. Paved street. $200 cash required. Price $2,100.

$15.00 per month will purchase a 7-room house on Nineteenth avenue east with all conveniences except heat. Large lot. $500 cash required. Price reduced from $2,700 to $2,100 for quick sale.

—CENTRAL WEST END HOMES.—

$15.00 per month will purchase a new 4-room cottage with all conveniences except heat on 33-foot lot. $300 cash required. Price $2,100.

$25.00 per month will purchase a two-family dwelling of ten rooms with all conveniences except heat. Nice lot and large barn. $300 cash required. Price only $2,800.

BENJAMIN F. SCHWEIGER CO., 1932 West Superior St.

FOR SALE—

NEW SIX-ROOM HOUSE—

$300 cash and—
$25.00 per month buys it—
Hot water heat—
Double sheeting—
Best plumbing—
Hardwood finish and floors—
Good view—nice residence section—
Storm windows and screens—
Near car line—
PRICE $3,800.00—
Call on us tomorrow—

A. W. TAUSSIG & CO., 407 Providence Bldg.

GOOD HOME BARGAINS.

Seven-room house on Seventh street between Ninth and Tenth avenues east; hardwood floors and very cheap if sold at once; good barn on rear of lot. (929)

Modern home of six rooms with bath and attic, hot water heat; concrete foundation and full basement; located on Thirteenth avenue east; price $3,600; small cash payment will handle; balance on terms. (910)

Fine ten-room house stone foundation, cement floor and basement, hot water heat; centrally located; hardwood floors, oak finish; former price $6,000; offered for quick sale at $4,500—this is an exceptionally good buy at this price. (857)

WHITNEY WALL CO., 301 Torrey Building.

A RESPONSIBLE PARTY

Can buy a strictly modern home of six rooms at Fifty-eighth avenue east and Superior street on terms the same as rent, no cash required, or will take a good building lot as first payment. What have you to offer?

DE CAIGNY & PAEPE, 509 Providence Building.

FOR SALE—VERY FINE NEW MODern brick flat for two families; hot water heat; two plants; laundry; full basement; stone foundation; hardwood floors; plenty of light; place always rented; nice location; walking distance; price $5,650; must have $1,500, cash. Don't inquire unless you have that amount. Little & Nolte Co., Exchange building. (4-1)

FOR SALE—GO YOURSELF AND SEE house No. 1527 South street; it has nice six rooms and bath, gas, electric light, fine electric fixtures, nicely decorated, practically same as new; pay $250 cash, balance $16 per month. Ask us the price, which is very low, or make your own offer. Harris Realty company, Exchange building.

FOR SALE OR TRADE FOR WEST end property, six-room house; lot 50 by 140; bath, sewer, gas, water and electric light; stove heat; Crosley Park; $2,500, $150 down, $20 per month. Call Joseph W. Cumming, Park 110-Y.

FOR SALE—SACRIFICING A MODERN six-room home at Lakeside, built for owner three years ago; cost $4,500, will sell for $3,500 on terms; you must be quick. Greenfield Realty company, 416 Providence building.

FOR SALE—SIX-ROOM BRAND NEW modern home for $4,300, on easy terms; a positive bargain, at Lakeside. Greenfield Realty company, 416 Providence building.

FOR SALE — A BARGAIN, NICE, six-room house; hot water furnace. 823 Tenth avenue east.

ADDITIONAL WANTS ON PAGE 24

FOR SALE HOUSES.

(Continued.)

$2,000 WILL BUY COMFORTALBE six-room house with bath, electric light, with small lot; centrally located; about $500 cash; owner leaving city; act promptly. Field-Frey company. (E 50).

FOR SALE—NEW AND MODERN, never occupied five-room cottage; splendid lake view, Lakeside, $3,500 only $300 cash. Greenfield Realty company, 416 Providence building.

$4,000 WILL BUY FINE SEVEN-ROOM house with bath; oak finish; nearly new; Lakeside; $500 cash, balance time. Field-Frey company, Exchange building. (M 22).

FOR SALE—BY OWNER, MODERN eight-room house and garage; East end; nice lawn, including garden space; very reasonable. Melrose 3317.

WANTED TO BUY.

WANTED TO BUY.

We must have more suitable houses for sale. We cannot supply the demand. Prices range all the way from $4,000 for a comfortable 6-room house to $15,000 cash for a large home in the normal district.

If you have a good, fairly new home on a large lot in East end which you will sell at a fair price, see us quick.

LITTLE & NOLTE CO., Exchange Building.

WANTED TO BUY—HEATERS AND ranges; we will pay good prices or exchange for new furniture. East End Furniture company, 120 East Superior street. Phone Grand 2013-X.

WANTED TO BUY—5,000 STANDARD tamarack ties, f. o. b. cars Superior; railroad inspection; for coal dock. Address P. R., care of Superior Telegram.

WANTED TO BUY—WILL PAY CASH for cheap cut-over lands; St. Louis, Lake or Cook county. Address, Y 558, Herald office.

WANTED TO BUY—100 YOUNG PIGS and ten calves on or before April 1. James Leary, 342 Lake avenue south.

IS YOUR FARM FOR SALE? IF SO, see us. We have buyers. Cant & McLean, First National Bank Bldg.

WE PURCHASE REAL ESTATE CONtracts, mortgages and notes. Northern Equities Co., 612 1st Nat. Bank Bldg.

WILL BUY PARTIALLY IMPROVED farm. State price, location, etc., in first letter. Address A 927, Herald.

WANTED TO BUY — LARGE OR small tract of land for investment. Address I 69, Herald.

WANTED TO BUY — INVALID'S wheel chair, for indoor use. Call Melrose 639 or Grand 629.

WANTED TO BUY—SECOND-HAND sewing machine; Call Melrose 4956.

H. Popkin buys stoves and furniture. Grand 2337-A. Melrose 1482.

WANTED TO BUY—SMALL SODA fountain. D 707, Herald.

FARM & MINERAL LANDS.

IMPROVED CARLTON COUNTY FARM GOING CHEAP.

160 acres, 4½ miles from good town on fine road, fairly level, good soil, 20 acres under cultivation, 10 acres more cleared and seeded to timothy and clover, balance easily cleared; six-room house, fair sized barn; property well worth $5,400, going for $3,800; will trade for city property.

Thirty acres ¼ mile from station at Wright, good soil, four-room house, barn, three acres under cultivation, balance easily cleared, good stream flows through land; going for $1,400, $300 cash. Will take heavy team as part payment.

CANT & McLEAN, First National Bank Bldg. Duluth, Minn.

FOR SALE—EIGHTY ACRES GOOD land one mile from railroad, twenty-two miles from city; would make a good farm; must sell; make offer. W. H. Locker, 505 Lonsdale Bldg.

FOR SALE—FORTY ACRES, NEAR station, Blackhoof; $25 per acre; terms to suit; no agents. E. F. Rasey, Suite 54, Steel block, Winnipeg, Man.

WANTED TO RENT—FARM, EITHER grain or gardening; prefer to buy later. R. Hebbe, 655 Madison street NE., Minneapolis, Minn.

FOR SALE — FORTY ACRES OR more of good land close to town. Write H 699, Herald.

I BUY AND SELL LANDS AND TIMber. George Rupley, 612 Lyceum Bldg

STOCKS AND BONDS.

WANTED.

Preferred or common American Manganese Manufacturing company stock. See me before selling.

W. H. LOCKER, 505 Lonsdale Building.

UPHOLSTERING.

Furniture, Automobiles — Reasonable price. E. Ott, 112 1st Ave. W. Phones.

HORSES, VEHICLES, ETC.

GUARANTEED HORSES.

WE HAVE RECEIVED 30 HEAD OF HORSES RIGHT OFF THE FARM. In this lot are some of the best farm mares that money will buy—a number of them in foal. Also young, sound, good-boned wagon horses that can stand work. I have a team of bright bays that weigh 3,300; a team of strawberry roans that weigh 3,000 (Belgians); a team of dapple grays that weigh 3,000. I have Jessie O. H., by Hazelwood, a combination trotter and pacer. All of the above mentioned stock was bought right. I can save you some money. Always glad to show stock; always give a written guarantee; ALWAYS GIVE A SQUARE DEAL.

TWIN PORTS HORSE MARKET, W. E. BARKER, 18 First Avenue West.

HORSES —GUARANTEED— HORSES.

We have everything in the horse line. Country bought, free from the diseases of the city markets. Always glad to show stock; always give a written guarantee; always give square deal. Part time if desired.

TWIN PORTS HORSE MARKET, W. E. BARKER, Prop., 18 First Avenue W.

DRAFT AND DELIVERY HORSES, FARM MARES, GENERAL PURPOSE HORSES.

All our horses are Minnesota raised. Sales made on time if desired. Buy from an established dealer. Also, we guarantee every horse to be as represented.

ZENITH SALE STABLE. MOSES GOLDBERG, Prop., 524 West First Street. Two blocks from union depot.

HORSES HORSES HORSES

If in the market for horses be sure and see our offerings. We have from 200 to 300 head constantly on hand. Part time given if desired. Barrett & Zimmerman, Duluth Horse Market. Twenty-third avenue west and Superior street. H. J. Walt, manager.

FOR SALE—TEAM OF NICE BLOCKY mares; weight about 3,200 lbs., 5 years old, well matched; can be bought at a bargain; part time given if necessary. 608 North Fifty-sixth avenue west; right beside fire hall, West Duluth; Cole 301, Calumet 280-L.

FOR SALE—CHEAP, HORSE, CUTTER and harness, light outfit. Call morning or evenings, between 6 and 7. 18 North Nineteenth avenue west.

FOR SALE—HORSE, HARNESS, WAgon and sleigh; very cheap. Inquire 1721 East South street. Grand 1488-D.

FOR SALE — CHEAP, TEAM BAY horses; weight 2,600; first class condition. Call Lincoln 355-A.

REAL ESTATE LOANS.

FIRST MORTGAGE LOANS.

We advance funds as needed on first mortgage building loans. Favorable terms.

W. M. PRINDLE & CO., Lonsdale Bldg.

MONEY TO LOAN — ANY AMOUNT — Any time. Quick service. Building loans a specialty. 5, 5½ and 6 per cent. Cooley & Underhill, 209-210-211 Exchange building.

CASH ON HAND TO LOAN ON CITY and farm property; any amount, lowest rates, no delay. Northern Title Co., 612 First National Bank building.

MONEY ON HAND TO LOAN. $1,000 to $5,000 "on or before" at 6 per cent. See us first. Wheeler agency, 619 Providence building.

BUILDING LOANS—MONEY ON HAND on no delay. Any amount for business or residence property. L. U. Young, 615 Providence building.

IF YOU OWN A LOT, SEE US ABOUT financing the building of your home. Duluth Lumber Co., Mel. 112, Lin. 112.

Money at Lowest Rates. Any Amount; No Delay. Little & Nolte Co., Exchange Bldg.

MONEY TO LOAN—LOANS MADE ON timber and farm lands. John Q. A. Crosby. 305 Palladio building.

MONEY TO LOAN on city property. Stewart G. Collins, 710 Torrey bldg.

For Farm Loans and Farm Lands, see Ebert-Walker Co., 315-16 Torrey bldg.

MONEY TO LOAN—Any amount. Benjamin F. Schweiger, 1932 W. Sup. St.

CITY AND FARM LOANS. WILLIAM C. Sargent, Providence building.

WANTED TO RENT.

WANTED TO RENT — ON OR BEfore May 1, six or seven-room apartment with porch and janitor service. Call Melrose 1648.

WANTED TO RENT—YOUNG LADY wishes reasonable room for light housekeeping; east preferred. Write C 705, Herald.

WANTED TO RENT—A BARN WITH some cows, in or near city. Write or call H. Sorenson, Hall hotel.

PROFESSIONAL AND BUSINESS GUIDE

Ready reference of the professional men and leading business firms. Herald readers who do not find the line of business they are seeking will confer a favor by requesting of us the information desired.

CALL 324 FOR REPRESENTATION IN THIS COLUMN

ACCOUNTANTS.

JAMES S. MATTESON, Certified Public Accountant (Minnesota and Wisconsin). 700-701 Alworth Building. Special or periodical audits and investigations. Commercial, mining and municipal accounting systems installed or revised. Organized permanent staff contains four men licensed by the state of Minnesota as certified public accountants, insuring the highest grade SERVICE to all clients. Bank references. Charges reasonable. Telephones: Melrose 4700; Grand 71.

—JOHN E. MACGREGOR— Public Accountant and Auditor, 601 Sellwood Building. Melrose 570.

DAVID QUAIL & COMPANY, Chartered Accountants, Certified Public Accountants, 401 Torrey Building, Duluth. Highest references. Inquiries invited.

AWNINGS, TENTS, PACKSACKS.

Poirier Tent & Awning Co., 413 E. Sup. Both phones. Horse and wagon covers.

Auto Curtains—Duluth Tent & Awning Co., 1608 W. Superior St. Lin. 36.

ASHES, CINDERS, ETC., REMOVED

Ashes, cinders and manure removed. Merrill. Mel. 1390; Grand 1488-X.

BUSINESS CARDS.

Business Cards, 300, $1; Calling Cards, 100, 39c. Kask Printing, 114 E. Sup. St.

CAMERAS AND KODAKS.

—ARCADE CAMERA SHOP— 110 West Superior street. Amateur finishing, kodaks and camera supplies.

CARPET CLEANING WORKS.

INTERSTATE CARPET CLEANING CO. 1908 West Michigan St. Both phones.

CHIMNEY SWEEP.

ED McCARTY, CHIMNEY SWEEP AND furnace cleaning. Call Lakeside 46-L.

KNUDSEN, chimney sweep and furnace cleaner. Mel. 46. Fire headquarters.

DANCING ACADEMY.

Ryan's—The school that makes good dancers. Classes: Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays. Call Mel. 4618.

COFFIN'S ACADEMY—Classes Monday, Tuesday and Thursday. Either phone.

FURS REMODELED, REPAIRED.

HAVE YOUR FUR WORK DONE AT Wm. F. Bordasch, 417 Second Ave. E. Phones: Melrose 2236; Grand 199.

MONEY TO LOAN.

—$10 OR MORE— LOANED TO ANYONE On furniture, pianos, etc., or holding a steady position, at rates honest people are willing to pay. See us first and get a square deal. Money in your hands in few hours' time. Low rates. Easy payments. DULUTH LOAN COMPANY, 307 Columbia Bldg., 303 W. Sup. St. Hours: 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.; Wednesday and Saturday to 8 p. m. Melrose 3255; Grand 1224.

MONEY TO LOAN. From One to Ten Monthly Payments. On Furniture, etc., at Lowest Rates. Example of Cost Per Month:

$15, if paid in	1 month	$0.90
" " "	3 months	0.70
" " "	5 months	0.44
$25, if paid in	1 month	1.10
" " "	3 months	0.95
" " "	5 months	0.80
$50, if paid in	1 month	2.25
" " "	3 months	1.60
" " "	5 months	1.25

Charges on other amounts in proportion. Even lower rates on jewelry, etc. DULUTH REMEDIAL LOAN ASS'N, 401 First National Bank Bldg.

—MONEY TO LOAN— ON SALARIES, ON CHATTELS. OUR RATES ARE LOWEST. Borrow $10.00, you pay back $11.00. Borrow $20.00, you pay back $21.75. Borrow $30.00, you pay back $32.50. Borrow $40.00, you pay back $43.25. Other amounts in proportion. DULUTH FINANCE CO., 301 Palladio Bldg. Open Wednesday and Saturday evening until 9 o'clock. Both phones.

WE LOAN ON ALL KINDS OF PERsonal security at lowest rates. Call on us. Duluth Mortgage Loan Co., W. Horkan. New 1598-D; Melrose 3733.

Loans on watches, diamonds, guns, etc. Keystone Loan Co., 22 W. Superior St.

DRESSMAKING.

WANTED—PLAIN AND FANCY SEWing; also children's clothes, by the day. Call after 5:30 evenings. Melrose 4112.

FRENCH DRY CLEANERS.

PHONE 1245 AND OUR AUTO WILL call. Prompt attention to out-of-town orders. East End Dry Cleaners.

FURNITURE RE-COVERED.

Let Forsell do your UPHOLSTERING. 334 E. Superior street. Both phones.

FLORIST AND NURSERYMAN.

Duluth Floral Co., wholesale, retail; cut flowers, funeral designs. 121 W. Sup.

FUNERAL DIRECTOR.

OLSEN & HOPPENYAN, 2014 W. Sup. St.; Lincoln 10; Melrose 7620.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

A. Haakonsen, dealer and expert repairing, at J. W. Nelson's, 5 East Superior street.

Pianos, violins, victorias, sheet music, etc. Boston Music company.

OPTOMETRIST AND OPTICIAN.

CONSULT A. L. NORBERG, OPTOMETrist and optician, 201½ West First street, for economical buying and correct fitting of glasses; satisfaction guaranteed. We grind our own lenses. Established in business 1891. Registered by examination 1901.

PIANOS REPAIRED AND TUNED.

—THE PIANO SHOP— Tuning, finishing and repairing. Gregory & Kristensen, 1805 W. Superior St. Melrose 5621; Lincoln 295-X.

DULUTH PIANO REPAIR FACTORY, alley entrance, 312½ W. 1st. Mel. 464.

PATENTS.

All about Patents; consultation free. S. Geo. Stevens, 716 Fidelity. Mel. 3124.

PLUMBING.

THE SANITARY PLUMBING CO., 34 W. First St., plumbing and heating.

WINDOW CLEANING.

National Window Cleaning Co., expert in cleaning woodwork, wall paper, marble, etc. Our work must prove satisfactory, prices reasonable. Mel. 680.

TYPEWRITERS.

SLIGHTLY USED UNDERWOODS, Olivers, Smiths, Remingtons and Royals, $15 up. Rented $2 a month; three months' rental applied on the purchase. Send for list. Duluth Typewriter Co., 319 W. First street.

SUMMER RESORTS.

FOR SALE—LARGE CAMP SITES ON beautiful Lake Vermilion; sand bathing beaches, parks, docks, wells, etc.; monthly payments as low as $2, without interest; all sites sold on our "money back" guarantee. Gray-Wertin company, Alworth building.

TIMBER LANDS.

TIMBER AND CUT-OVER LANDS bought; mortgage loans made. John Q. A. Crosby, 305 Palladio building.

RAILROAD TIME TABLES.

Duluth & Iron Range Rail Road.

"Vermilion Route."

DULUTH—	Leave.	Arrive.
Knife River, Two Harbors, Tower, Ely, Winton, Aurora, Biwabik, McKinley Sparta, Eveleth, Gilbert, Virginia,	* 7:30a.m. † 3:15p.m. ‡11:30p.m.	‡11:30a.m. * 5:30p.m. $10:15p.m. x10:45p.m.

*—Daily. †—Daily except Sunday. ‡—Mixed train leaves daily from Fifteenth Avenue East Station. §—Mixed train arrives daily except Sunday at Fifteenth Avenue East Station. x—Arrives Union Depot Sunday only.

DULUTH, MISSABE & NORTHERN RAILWAY.

Office: 426 West Superior St., Phones, 969.

Leave.		Arrive.
*7:40am	Hibbing, Chisholm, Virginia, Eveleth, Coleraine, Sharon, †Mountain Iron, Sparta, Biwabik.	* 3:21pm
*3:50pm	Hibbing, Chisholm, Sharon, Virginia, Eveleth, Coleraine.	*10:31am
*7:58pm	Virginia, Chisholm Hibbing.	*§6:46pm

*—Daily. †—Daily except Sunday. ‡—Except Biwabik.

Cafe Observation Car, Missabe Range Points, Solid Vestibuled Train.

DULUTH & NORTHERN MINNESOTA RAILWAY. Office, 510 Lonsdale Bldg., Duluth. Trains connect at Knife River daily (except Sunday with D. & I. R. trains leaving Duluth at 7:30 a. m., arriving at Duluth (Endion) at 10:15 p. m. Connect at Cramer with Grand Marais stage when running.

WANT AD RATES AND INFORMATION

1c a word per day; $1 per line per month. Display classified, 2c per inch per day.

No ad taken for less than 15c.

CHARGE WANT ADS will not be run longer than seven days without renewal order.

ALL CHARGE WANT ADS are due and payable the same day first insertion of ad appears. All out-of-town want ads are cash in advance. Mail orders given prompt attention. Address all letters to Want Ad Department.

CLOSING HOURS—Want ads to be classified properly must be in The Herald office by 11:30 a. m. on the day ad is to be run. Want ads received after closing hour will be inserted under the heading, "Too Late to Classify."

TELEPHONE WANT ADS are charged at the same rate as cash ads and collection will be made at your home or office as soon as possible thereafter. This is an accommodation service and payment should be made promptly when the bill is presented so as to avoid further annoyance and to aid the efficiency of our service. Always ask that your telephone ad be repeated back to you by the telephone ad taker to make sure that it has been correctly taken.

BLIND ADS—No answers to blind ads will be given unless ticket is presented at time of request. Always save ticket showing key number when placing blind ads. Herald employes are not permitted to tell who any advertiser is. Answers to out-of-town blind ads will be forwarded without extra cost.

THE HERALD desires to give the best service to its readers and advertisers. If you desire any suggestion as to the wording of your ad, call the Want Ad Department.

HERALD TELEPHONE NUMBERS

BUSINESS OFFICE
324 EITHER LINE.

Ask for the Want Ad Department.

NEWS DEPARTMENT
1126 EITHER LINE.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—MAN TO SELL REAL ESTATE; selling experience preferred, but not necessary. We have large holdings of sub-division and city property and offer good position to an active man. McMahon agency, U. S. National Bank building, Superior.

WANTED — SOAP SALESMAN FOR the city of Duluth, on commission; must be energetic party with good record. Apply with references to the soap department, Monarch Oil company, limited, Port Arthur, Ont.

LEARN TELEGRAPHY, RAILROAD, commercial, wireless; also touch typewriting; earn board while learning. Write for free catalog. American Telegraph college, Minneapolis, Minn.

WANTED — WOODSMEN FOR ALL kinds of woods work; also cordwood choppers and piece makers; there is very little snow down here. L. Stephenson Co., trustees, Wells, Mich.

WANTED — 500 HUNTERS TO KNOW we loan money on rifles, shotguns, revolvers; will hold till next season before sold. Keystone Loan company, 22 West Superior street.

WANTED—GOVERNMENT POSITIONS are easy to get. My free booklet B. Y. 502 tells how. Write today—Now. Earl Hopkins, Washington, D. C.

U. S. government wants clerks; $100 month; Duluth examinations April 12; sample questions free. Franklin Institute, Dept. 186 M, Rochester, N. Y.

WANTED—YOUNG MAN 17 TO 20 years of age who desires to learn the banking business. Apply 214 Sellwood building.

WANTED — EXPERIENCED SALESman, Finnish preferred. Inquire Fifth Avenue Clothing company.

WANTED—PARTNER; GOOD BUSIness proposition; $250 required. Inquire 503 Providence building.

WANTED — EXPERIENCED WOODworkers. Schurmeier Wagon company, St. Paul, Minn.

WANTED—BOYS OVER 16 AT CENtral bowling alley, 216 West Superior street.

WANTED—BARBER AT 123 WEST First street, $5 guaranteed for Saturday.

WANTED—YOUNG MAN TO MILK IN dairy; Grand 2225-Y. Homecroft dairy.

WANTED—CASH PAID FOR diamonds. Watches repaired, $1. 5 S. 5th Av. W.

Wanted—Appearance counts; your suit pressed while U wait. 2 Lyceum Bldg.

BUSINESS CHANCES.

BUSINESS CHANCES—FOR SALE—Stock and fixtures of confectionery store located on good corner in Washburn, Wis., a booming town; will sell for cash only; rent reasonable. Address A. S., Box 397, Washburn, Wis.

FOR SALE—SMALL GROCERY AND confectionery store in center of city; basement can be used for living rooms; good business, reasonable rent; sickness of proprietor reason for selling. Write Z 700, care Herald.

BUSINESS CHANCE—A SMALL, NEW hotel, newly furnished, for sale, reasonable; account ill health; steam heat; all modern; rooms all full. Main Hotel, Crosby, Minn.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—GOOD-PAYing business for cash or income property; bank reference; deal with owner; no commissions. Write B 588, Herald.

BUSINESS CHANCES — ROOMING house for rent; all rooms rented; will sell furniture in lot or in pieces; party leaving town. Write V 676, Herald.

BUSINESS CHANCES—WANTED TO hear from owner of good business for sale; state cash price and particulars. D. F. Bush, Minneapolis, Minn.

BUSINESS CHANCES — FOR SALE—Shoemaker shop near steel plant. John Komletinski, 313 Commonwealth avenue, New Duluth, Minn.

BUSINESS CHANCES — FOR SALE bakery and confectionery, small amount of money will handle deal, low rent. Write, F 596, Herald.

BUSINESS CHANCES — WANTED, partner; good business proposition; $250 required. Inquire 503 Providence building.

WANTED TO BORROW.

FOR SALE—GOOD FIRST MORTgages in sums of $300, $500, $1,000 and other sums. Western Realty Co., 1922 West Superior street.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

LEARN TO CUT AND MAKE YOUR own waists and dresses. You can easily do it after taking the course in practical instruction. Make clothes while learning. Miss Gray's school, 2d floor, Geo. A. Gray Co. Also all sizes and styles of patterns cut to measure.

WANTED—LADIES TO SEW INSOLES; good pay weekly; no canvassing; goods cut ready for machine; transportation paid. Address with stamped envelope. No-ak Insoles, Danville, Pa.

WANTED—A COMPETENT HOUSEkeeper to take care of small home on the range; must also take care of a 14-month-old baby; state wages expected. Write S 689, Herald.

WANTED — EXPERIENCED GARment saleslady; apply giving name of last employer and state salary expected. Itasca Bazaar company, Hibbing, Minn.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework; three in family; good wages; must be good cook. Mrs. A. M. Washburn, 2419 East Fifth street.

WANTED—YOUNG GIRL TO ASSIST in housework; small family; work not hard, and good comfortable room. Call 2123 Sussex avenue, Kenilworth park.

WANTED—LADY AGENTS TO SELL meritorious article; salary and commission; excellent proposition for industrious lady. L 717, Herald.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework; no washing. Inquire Boston store. Call Cole 36-X. Must live in West Duluth.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Call Duluth Meat Supply company, Second avenue west and First street.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework; small family; good wages. East End Dry Cleaners, 926 East Superior street.

WANTED AT ONCE — COMPETENT girl for general housework; small family; good wages. Apply 1422 East Fifth street.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework, one who can cook. Mrs. John Wertin, 1510 East Third street.

WANTED—GOVERNMENT POSITIONS open to women; $75 month. Franklin Institute, dept. 645 M., Rochester, N.Y.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework; good cook; two in family. 1510 East Second street.

WANTED — COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework. Apply 1614 East Third street. References required.

WANTED—GIRL FOR GENERAL housework, small family, good wages. Apply 1517 East Superior street.

WANTED — NURSEMAID; YOUNG girl who will go home nights preferred. 1123 East First street.

WANTED — SCANDINAVIAN GIRL for boarding house work. 5 North Nineteenth avenue west.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Apply 1020 East Fifth street or Melrose 6473.

WANTED AT ONCE—COMPETENT maid for general housework. 1124 East Superior street.

WANTED—GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Call 329 North Fifty-eighth avenue west.

WANTED—GIRL FOR GENERAL housework, wages $25. Apply 1018 East Third street.

WANTED—AT ONCE, FLAT WORK washer. Acme Steam laundry, 219 West First street.

WANTED AT ONCE — WAITRESS. Delicatessen restaurant. 25 East Superior street.

WANTED — EXPERIENCED GIRL for general housework. 1914 East First street.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework. 414 East Third street.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework. 1016 East First street.

WANED — HOUSEKEEPER. CALL Calumet 92-L, Cole 299 or Cole 224-Y.

WANTED—MAID, MRS. R. N. CHAFfee, 2122 East Fourth street.

WANTED—EXPERIENCED HOTEL scrub girl. St. Louis hotel.

WANTED—HOUSEMAID. 418 EAST First street, flat A.

AUTOS & MOTORCYCLES.

98 PER CENT OF AUTO BUYERS READ THE DULUTH HERALD.

The names in which automobile licenses are issued have been checked with The Duluth's Herald subscription lists, and it was found that 98 out of every 100 people who buy cars read The Duluth Herald.

If you have a car for sale or trade, offer it in this automobile column and you will reach practically every one who will buy.

WANTED TO TRADE GOOD HIGH class dividend paying commercial stock for a good high class make, second hand or new runabout car, must be in first class condition and light weight; will deal with owners only. Write D 686, Herald.

OXY-ACETYLENE WELDING, CUTting and carbon burning; all work guaranteed satisfactory or no charge, 99½ per cent pure oxygen for sale. Duluth Gas & Welding Co., 2110-2112 West Michigan St. Mel. 7064; Lin. 643.

BRING US YOUR OLD CASINGS. Tires lockstitched and double-treaded. We can get 1,000 to 5,000 miles more wear out of them for you at small cost. Herian & Merling, 105 West First street, Duluth. Melrose 4658.

AUTO CYLINDERS REBORED, NEW pistons and rings made; accurate workmanship; prices right. Zollner Machine works, 314-16 West First street, alley entrance. Melrose 80.

FOR SALE CHEAP—1915 Saxon roadster; good running order, electric lights, self starter. Inquire Harry Merritt, 619 Providence building.

Equip your car with V radiator and hood; allowance for old radiator. Johnson Auto Supply, 338 E. Superior

Eastern Auto Radiator works—Also all auto metal work done. 336 East Superior street. Phone Grand 2323.

YOUR CAR REPAIRED AT YOUR garage; A-1 mechanics. Harrison & Son, Mel. 6542; 2721 Huron street.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.

FOR SALE OR TRADE — EIGHTY acres of land in Roseau county, three and one-half miles from town on good graded road; thirty acres open meadow, balance small timber; no improvements; will sell on small payments or trade for stock. Address H. J. Burman, Roosevelt, Minn.

Fine farm land to exchange for improved property anywhere. Arnold Co., Superior, Wis.

STOVE REPAIRS.

WE CARRY IN STOCK REPAIRS FOR 10,000 different stoves and ranges. C. F. Wiggerts & Sons, 410 East Sup. St.

IF YOU HAVE ANY POULTRY, EGGS OR CHICKS FOR SALE YOU CAN EASILY FIND BUYERS THROUGH THE HERALD WANT 'AD' POULTRY COLUMNS

The Duluth Herald is the recognized poultry medium. It is the official paper of the Poultry Raisers of Duluth and Northern Minnesota.

CIRCULATION GREATEST--RATES LOWEST

The Herald has the greatest circulation of any newspaper in Duluth. Its rates for classified advertising are less per thousand circulation than those of any other paper in Minnesota. Best results are gained from ads when definite information is given. When information is lacking the presumption is that desirable features are lacking. Information as to contract rates and the probable amount of space your ad would take gladly given.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

PERSONAL.

—A MASTER SERVICE—
The Yale method of dry cleaning is recommended to you by the National Association of Dyers and Cleaners. To become a member of this association it was required of us to have a fully equipped, up-to-date standard dry cleaning establishment; consider these facts when you need the service of dry cleaners; insist on having your work done by master cleaners. Our wagon will call when you phone 2442. Yale laundry and French dry cleaners.

PERSONAL—R. D. HARDY COMPANY, scalp specialists, second floor, Fergusson block, Fourth avenue west and Superior street. Successful in baldness and all greasy and scaly conditions which cause premature grayness and the fall of the hair. Telephone Melrose 2523 for appointment.

PERSONAL—NEWLY WEDS! BUY your furniture now even though you can pay only a little down, pay the balance monthly. Big discounts on hundreds of pieces of furniture. Anderson Furniture company, Twenty-first avenue west and Superior St.

PERSONAL—Ladies! Ask your druggist for Chichester Pills, the Diamond Brand, for 25 years known as best, safest, always reliable. Take no other. Chichester Diamond Brand Pills are sold by druggists everywhere.

PERSONAL—Get away from washday troubles by sending your family wash to us, 5½c per pound. Lutes' laundry, 808 East Second street. Phone us, Grand 447; Melrose 447.

WANTED—RAGTIME PLAYING POSItively taught in twenty lessons. Send for free booklet. Leffingwell schools. Manager J. L. Denver, 32 West Second street. 7720 Melrose.

Unexcelled hairdressing, facial massage and beauty treatments. Also corns and bunions treated. Mrs. Dr. Bahr, Comfort Beauty Parlors, 109 Oak hall.

Madam Moisan, toupee specialist; long established; work guaranteed; toupees protect from colds and neuralgia; switches made up. 215½ W. 1st.

MADE-TO-MEASURE Shirts, Underwear, Raincoats, Neckties, Suit or O'Coat, $18. Ladies' Suits, spring selections. C. N. Hamilton, 315 E. Sup St.

Personal—Boyce's soda fountain under new management; light lunches; all home cooking; sanitation and service the best in city. E. H. McAllister, prop.

PERSONAL LOANS ON DIAMONDS, $100 and up, at 1 per cent a month. Keystone Loan Co., 22 W. Superior St.

Personal—Lena E. Pierce, successor to Mrs. E. H. Lower; corns, bunions, ingrown nails treated, also chilblains. 22-23 Mesaba blk. Mel. 1470; Gr. 242.

Personal—Medicated salt baths, shampoo and massage. Anna Manthey, 27 E. Sup. st., flat 4. Mel. 5498. Resident appointments solicited.

2x3 photos in attractive folders; three for 25c; special value. Brown's Photo studio. 221 West Superior St.

PERSONAL—FOR CLEAN WORK AND good service come to McKay hotel barber shop, under new management.

MASSAGE—MARGARET NELSON, 218 W. Superior St., room 8, third floor. Also appointments at your home.

PERSONAL—WANTED SMALL CHILdren to board and care for. Call 2705½ West Second street.

PERSONAL—WIDOW WOULD LIKE small child to board. Call Melrose 2629.

PERSONAL—Ladies, have your suits made at Miller Bros., 405 E. Sup. St.

PERSONAL — FOR SICK PEOPLE— flowers. Duluth Floral company.

Hair, moles, warts removed by electricity; manicuring. Miss Kelly hair shop

Personal—Effective scalp treatment. Mrs. Vogt's Hair Shop, 105 W. Sup. St.

Personal—Combings and cut hair made into beautiful switches. Knauf Sisters.

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—THE PERSON WHO TOOK pocketbook containing money and key from coat pocket at Woodman hall, Saturday night, Feb. 5, return to ticket seller at Woodman hall next Saturday night, if you want to avoid trouble.

LOST—WEDNESDAY EVENING ON East Fourth street car; gold necklace, diamond setting; valued as keepsake. Liberal reward. Call Lincoln 295-A.

LOST—SMALL BLACK SPANIEL DOG wearing collar with owner's name, Dr. W. H. Magie. Reward if returned to 1401 East Superior street.

LOST—LAST NIGHT, GOLD LOCKET and chain between Thirty-eighth and Twenty-fourth avenue west. Call Lincoln 261-L. Reward.

FOUND—POCKET BOOK ON TWENty-first avenue west and Superior street. Owner call at 2029 West Fourth street.

FOUND — WATCH ON KENWOOD road. Call J. P. Daly, 3902 West Third street.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

ADDITIONAL WANTS ON PAGE 23

FOR RENT—ROOMS.

—HALEY'S NEW HOTEL—
417 and 419 West Superior Street,

Will make special rates for the winter. All outside rooms, with hot and cold running water in each room. Everything new; free baths. Haley's restaurant in connection.

—THE NEW ALEXANDRIA—
A few desirable rooms now vacant at special winter rates; well-heated and comfortable apartments. Private telephone in every room. Dining room in connection. 322 W. Second St.

—METROPOLE HOTEL—
101-5 Lake avenue south; hot and cold running water in every room; steam heat and other modern conveniences; rates $2 per week and up.

—ELGIN HOTEL—
Nicely furnished, steam-heated rooms; best beds in the city; running water; very reasonable winter rates. 321 West First street.

MELROSE HOTEL,
318 West Second street, well-heated, pleasant rooms and board at special winter rates. Mel. 4301; Grand 2166-X.

The New Mitchell hotel—Rooms newly furnished and decorated; also suite of rooms; all conveniences; rates reasonable. 28 East Second St. Mel. 3357.

THE MARYLAND HOTEL, 310 EAST Superior street; steam-heated, modern rooms, $1.75 per week and up.

LA SALLE HOTEL—12-14 Lake Ave. north Cozy, warm rooms with hot and cold water. Special low rates.

FOR RENT — TWO LADIES OR MAN and wife can have elegant room with privileges in central East end home; company more essential than remuneration. Write V 698, Herald.

FOR RENT — STEAM-HEATED rooms; reasonable; suitable for small manufacturing, offices, work shop or storage. 313 West Superior street, second floor.

SINCE 1912 WE HAVE SAVED MONEY for hotels and rooming houses on their linens. We sell at wholesale. J. G. Valentine & Co., 8 E. First St.

FOR RENT—SUITE OF ROOMS FOR light housekeeping; also one furnished room with hot and cold water, 412 West Third street.

FOR RENT — FURNISHED ROOM with or without board in private family. 626 North Fifty-sixth avenue west.

FOR RENT — ONE OR TWO BEDrooms with kitchen, furnished for light housekeeping. 2609 West Huron street.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOMS ALso for light housekeeping; use of bath and phone. 1 West Superior street.

FOR RENT—NEWLY FURNISHED heated room, use of bath and phone. 727 East Seventh street; Melrose 6466.

FOR RENT—NEATLY FURNISHED room, first floor; use of phone and piano; $2 per week. 440 Mesaba avenue.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED BASEMENT room for light housekeeping; all conveniences. 322 West Third street.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOM IN private family, East end. Meals if desired. Melrose 4307.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOM, suitable for two gentlemen. 1615 Piedmont avenue.

FOR RENT — TWO FURNISHED housekeeping rooms. 112 East First street.

FOR RENT—THREE ROOMS. 118 West Fourth street.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOMS. 118 Third avenue west.

BOARD & ROOM OFFERED.

BOARD AND ROOM WITH PRIVATE family; ladies or gentlemen. Lincoln 154-D. 27 North Twenty-ninth avenue west.

Room and board in modern home, gentlemen preferred. 114 East Third St.

BOARD AND ROOM, $26 AND $28 PER month. Melrose 7895. Grand 1988-Y.

BOARD AND ROOM OFFERED, $4 per week. Call Melrose 5142.

WALL PAPER.

Experienced and reliable paper-hanger will furnish new and up-to-date patterns and paper an ordinary-sized room for $4.50. Painting and tinting neatly done; prompt and satisfactory work guaranteed. Decorator, 31 W. Second St. Mel. 4303; Grand 596-X.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

FOR RENT—FLATS.

FOR RENT.
32 E. Fourth St., 5 rooms, water, gas, electric light.. $15.00
519 E. Superior St., 5 rooms, toilet and electric light... 15.00
925 E. Fifth St., 5 rooms, bath, gas and electric light 18.00
208½ W. Second St., 7 rooms, bath, gas and electric light 25.00
125 First Ave. W., 5 rooms, toilet and electric light .. 20.00
114 Park Ave., 5 rooms, water and electric light.... 14.00
2619 W. Third St., 6 rooms, bath, gas and electric light 20.00
3918 W. Third St., 6 rooms, bath, gas and electric light 18.00

STRYKER, MANLEY & BUCK,
Main floor, Torrey Building.

FOR RENT—MARCH 10, A FIVEroom and alcove flat in brick building located on Fifth avenue west just above Fourth street; thoroughly modern; hot water heating plant; very desirable; $29.00 per month. For further information call F. I. Salter Co., 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT—$15, A 3-ROOM FLAT IN brick building, No. 15½ West First street; water, sewer, gas, electric lights and toilet; stove heat; a bargain. F. I Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT — 18 EAST FOURTH street, $5; basement flat, four rooms, water, sewer, electric light. Inquire of Morris Solberg, 226½ South First avenue east. New phone, Grand 1231-Y.

FOR RENT—THREE-ROOM FLAT, $8; 4-room flat, $12.50; hardwood floors throughout, sewer, gas, water and electric lights; centrally located. Chas P. Meyers, 611 Alworth Bldg.

FOR RENT—HEATED SEVEN-ROOM flat in Dacey apartments with water, heat and janitor service. Call Melrose or Grand 423.

FOR RENT — FIVE-ROOM UPPER apartment; gas range, hardwood floors, furnace and laundry tubs; $26.50. Melrose 1801.

FOR RENT—FOUR-ROOM FLAT, NICE large rooms; 1028 East Tenth street; modern except heat; $15 per month. Key downstairs.

FOR RENT—FOUR-ROOM FLAT, 219 East Fifth street, bath; $15 per month. William C. Sargent, Providence building.

FOR RENT—FOUR ROOMS AND Alcove with bath, gas and electric light at 423 East Fifth street; $15 per month.

FOR RENT — TWO FOUR-ROOM front flats, $16.00 and $17.00. 329-331 East Superior street; Melrose 6643.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED FIVE-ROOM flat, heated; janitor service, $30. 123 Tenth avenue east. Melrose 7561.

FOR RENT—FIRST FLOOR, FOURroom flat at 26 East Second street. Apply 5 East Superior street.

FOR RENT—SIX-ROOM FLAT; HEAT furnished; all modern. 29 West Fourth street. Inquire rear.

FOR RENT—FIVE-ROOM HEATED flat. 314 Second avenue east. Melrose 4448, Grand 1936-D.

FOR RENT—FOUR-ROOM FLAT, ALL conveniences; rent reasonable. Call Melrose 4617.

FOR RENT—SIX-ROOM FLAT; ALL modern; heat furnished. 27½ West Fourth street.

FOR RENT—FIVE-ROOM HEATED flat. 1927 West Third street; Melrose 3858.

FOR RENT—CHEAP; MODERN FIVEroom basement. 706 East Fifth street.

FOR RENT—APRIL 1, MODERN FIVEroom flat. Call Melrose 3226.

FOR RENT—HOUSES.

—FOR RENT—
By Massachusetts Real Estate Co., 18 Phoenix Building.

Fine six-room brick house; every convenience; only $32.50 per month.

A seven-room brick house, entirely modern, at 631 East Fourth street; $37.50 per month.

401½ East Fourth street, four-room flat with bath, on corner; plenty of light; only $16.50 per month.

FOR RENT—THREE-ROOM FLAT, $8; 4-room flat, $12.50; hardwood floors throughout, sewer, gas, water and electric lights; centrally located. Chas. P. Meyers, 611 Alworth Bldg.

FOR RENT—A SIX-ROOM MODERN house centrally located, which has hot water heating plant; $35.00 per month. F. I. Salter Co., 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT—SIX-ROOM HOUSE. 310 West Fifth street; modern except heat. Inquire rental department Bridgeman & Russell company.

FOR RENT — FIVE-ROOM HOUSE; modern except heat; Park Point. Inquire Edmont, 18 Third avenue west.

FOR RENT—MODERN SEVEN-ROOM house, 2711 West Third street. Inquire at 2819 West Superior street.

FOR RENT — SIX-ROOM BRICK house, 1508 East Fourth street; all modern. Inquire Lincoln 78.

FOR RENT — NEWLY-FURNISHED six-room house, modern except heat. Write X 704, Herald.

FOR RENT—NOS. 1718 AND 1720 EAST Superior street. E. P. Alexander.

RENT—STORES, OFFICES.

FOR RENT—STORE ON CORNER

Of Fourth avenue west and Superior street. 1,800 people pass this store in an hour, even in this cold weather. Don't delay a moment if you want this ideal location.

WHITNEY WALL CO.,
Third Floor, Torrey Building.

FOR RENT STORES.
At 318 West First street, most central and best business location on West First street; fine storeroom, 25 by 140, in strictly fireproof building, with lowest insurance rate in city; will decorate to suit; possession May 1. Call Grand or Melrose 225.
W. C. SHERWOOD & CO.,
118 Manhattan Building.

FOR RENT — THREE STORES ON Eighteenth avenue west and Superior street. Rents $15.00, $20.00 and $25.00 per month.

BENJAMIN F. SCHWEIGER CO.,
1932 West Superior St.

FOR RENT—MARCH 1, A SMALL store located at 723 West Superior street; very desirable for light grocery, confectionery or second-hand clothing store; $20.00 per month. F. I. Salter Co., 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT — SPACE IN MODERN store. Inquire 319 East Superior street.

FOR RENT—TWO FRONT OFFICES. Christie building. Fireproof.

FLORIST.

Duluth Floral Co., wholesale, retail, cut flowers, funeral designs. 121 W. Sup.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

SALE—MISCELLANEOUS

—SPECIAL LOW PRICES—
ON DINING ROOM TABLES.

All styles and finishes. $7.85 and upward.
Big selection to choose from.
ENGER & OLSON,
Nineteenth Ave. W. and Sup. St.

—NOTICE—
Will sell either to dealers on thirty days' time, or direct to retail trade on installment plan, or exchange for other useful merchandise, a number of used coal ranges, gas ranges and bench wringers; all these have been carefully rebuilt with new parts where necessary and are almost as good as new; we find that we are overstocked on same and are willing to sacrifice on price.
BELLNET INSTALLMENT CO.,
202 East Superior St.

—BREAK AWAY—
From the extravagant habit of paying rent on furniture. Furnish your own rooms now at our annual clearance sale. If you are married and living in a light housekeeping suite, you should investigate the big value we are offering in 3-room outfits at $69; terms $1.50 per week. F. S. Kelly Furniture Co., 17 and 19 West Superior street.

TALKING MACHINES — LARGEST stock in the city. Complete outfits at special prices. Be sure you get the New Columbia Grafonola; awarded three grand prizes and two gold medals at the world's fair; double-faced records 65 cents; ask for catalogues free; only exclusive talking machine store in Duluth, largest stock. Edmont, 18 Third avenue west.

FOR SALE—STORE FIXTURES, INcluding 5-foot plate glass showcase, safe, clothing rack, tables, counters, large heating stove, Oliver typewriter, window fixtures, awning and two electric light fixtures, mirror, etc. Call Cole 258-D.

WONDERFULLY BIG BARGAINS IN pianos. We are closing out entire stock to remodel the showrooms. $275 piano $125; $350 now $165; $750 player piano now $325; cash or on payments. Korby Piano Co., 26 Lake Av. N.

FOR SALE—CLOSING OUT ESTATE—Full set office furniture, Royal typewriter, desk and chair, roll-top desk and chair, sectional and revolving bookcases, filing cabinets, tables, couch and chairs; will sell all or any part. Call Grand 509.

FOR SALE—AT BIG BARGAIN, THE new $375 piano I won in News Tribune contest. You can select player-piano or baby grand. Cash or terms. Call or write N. S. Mitchell, 102 Manhattan building, Duluth.

AT WHOLESALE TO HOTELS AND rooming houses, table linens, bedding, towels, crashes, curtains, etc. No extra charge for marking. Zenith Dry Goods Co., 126 East First street.

SAFES AND SAFE-CABINETS.
All sizes, new and second-hand, at reasonable prices. Get our list before buying. Safe-Cabinet company, 315 West First street. Melrose 1364.

FOR SALE—12-HORSE POWER GASoline engine, in good condition, cheap. Inquire at Bartlett, Minn., on Canadian Northern railroad. Henry Nesgoda.

FOR SALE — CAMERON FURNITURE Company will save you 50 per cent on quality furniture for the home. Salesrooms 2110-2112 West Superior street.

FOR SALE—Second-hand woodworking machinery, portable sawmill, transmission appliances, pipes for steam, water and furnaces. Duluth Mach. Co. street.

FOR SALE — DRY HARDWOOD, sawed or split and delivered. Grand 1576-D. James Leary, care of Gospel mission, Lake avenue south.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE OF FIVEroom flat, including fine player piano; parties leaving town. 1418 Jefferson street; Melrose 5107.

FOR SALE—SECOND-HAND LUMber, inquire for McKenzie, Kaiserhoff saloon, corner Lake avenue and Superior street.

FOR SALE — LEATHER UPHOLstered bed davenport, practically new; cheap for quick sale. Phone Melrose 1540.

FOR SALE—16-INCH MAPLE AND birch wood, $7 per cord. Gus Carlson, 2205 West First street; Lincoln 463.

FOR SALE — CHEAP, HOUSEHOLD goods and furniture, including two gas plates. 226 Second avenue west.

FOR SALE—OAK DINING ROOM SET with buffet, good condition, very reasonable. 131 West Fourth street.

FOR SALE—PLAYER PIANO, WITH music, at a bargain; easy payments. Edmont, 18 Third avenue west.

FOR SALE—GOLDEN OAK BUFFET. Inquire 631 North Fifty-sixth avenue west or call Calumet 115-L.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE OF TWOroom flat; leaving city. 23 Phoenix block annex. Melrose 6176.

FOR SALE CHEAP—$250 TAKES furniture for ten-room house; a bargain. Melrose 3115.

FOR SALE—GOOD BUILDING STONE. Apply First avenue east and First street. H. Fossett.

FOR SALE—TWO IRON BEDS AND springs, very cheap. 1901 East Fifth street. Evenings.

FOR SALE—THOROUGHBRED English bulldog, female. Write M 688, Herald.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE, ODDS AND ends at half price. Boston Music Co.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE. 108 SOUTH Twenty-seventh avenue west.

FOR SALE—CASH REGISTER. 503 Providence building.

PRIVATE HOSPITALS.

PRIVATE HOME BEFORE AND DURing confinements; good care by experienced nurse; infants cared for. Mrs. Finkle, 213 W. 3rd St. Mel. 2454.

PRIVATE HOME FOR WOMEN BEfore and during confinement; expert care; infants cared for. Ida Pearson, M. D., 284 Harrison avenue, St. Paul.

PRIVATE HOME BEFORE AND DURing confinement. K. Thorstenson, 1602 28th St., Superior Wis. Ogden 851-X.

Mrs. H. Olson, graduate midwife; private hospital and home. 329 N. 58th Ave. W. Phones, Cole 173; Cal. 270.

MRS HANSON, GRADUATE MIDwife; female complaints. 413 Seventh avenue east. Zenith 1225.

Mrs. A. Ferguson, graduate midwife, 917 East Tenth street. Grand 1976-Y.

POULTRY AND EGGS.

Park & Pollard's poultry feeds are the best. Scratch feed, egg mash, growing feed, etc.; wheat, corn, etc. Get price list. Tessman Bros. Co., 26-40 E. Mich. St.

FOR SALE — BARRED ROCK AND White Orpington pullets, $1.50 each; eggs, $1.50 per fifteen; catalogue. Carl Eastwood, Heron Lake, Minn.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

DULUTH LODGE NO. 505, LOYAL ORDER of Moose, meets every Tuesday at 8 o'clock, Moose hall, 224 West First street. Carl Schau, secretary, 14 Third avenue east.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

PALESTINE LODGE NO. 79, A. F. & A. M.—Regular meetings first and third Monday evenings of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting, March 6, 1916. Work—Second degree. Clement G. Townsend, W. M.; James S. Matteson, Sec.

IONIC LODGE, NO. 186, A. F. & A. M.—Regular meeting second and fourth Monday evenings of each month at 7:30. Next meeting, March 13, 1916. Work — First degree. Degree conferred by high school teachers. William J. Works, W. M.; Burr Porter, secretary.

KEYSTONE CHAPTER NO. 20, R. A. M.—Stated convocations, second and fourth Wednesday evenings of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting March 8, 1916. Work—Royal Arch degree conferred by Past High Priests. Stanley L. Mack, H. P.; Alfred Le Richeux, secretary.

DULUTH COUNCIL NO. 6, R. & S. M.—Stated convocations, third Friday of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting, March 17, 1916. Work—Superexcellent degree. Maynard W. Turner, T. I. M.; Alfred Le Richeux, Secretary.

DULUTH COMMANDERY NO. 18, K. T.—Stated convocations, first Tuesday of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next conclave, March 7, 1916. Work—Annual meeting; election of officers. Arch. D. MacIntyre, Com.; Alfred Le Richeux, recorder.

SCOTTISH RITE — REGULAR MEETINGS every Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Next meeting, March 2, 1916. Work—Twenty-first degree. Burr Porter, secretary.

ZENITH CHAPTER NO. 25, ORDER OF Eastern Star—Regular meetings second and fourth Friday evenings each month. Next meeting, Friday, March 10, 1916, at 7:30 o'clock. Work—Regular business, balloting and initiation. Eva M. Dunbar, W. M.; Ella F. Gearhart, Sec.

MIZPAH SHRINE NO. 1, ORDER OF THE White Shrine of Jerusalem—Regular meetings first Saturday evening of each month at 8 o'clock. Next meeting, March 4, 1916. Business and balloting. Gertrude Bates, W. H. P.; Etta Tredtramns, W. S.

EUCLID CHAPTER NO. 56, ORDER OF the Eastern Star—Meets at West Duluth Masonic temple the first and third Tuesdays of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting, March 7, 1916. Initiation. Flora Clark, W. M.; Mildred M. Ross, Sec.

EUCLID LODGE, NO. 198, A. F. & A. M.—Meets at West Duluth, second and fourth Wednesdays of each month at 7:30 p. m. Next meeting, March 8, 1916. Work—Third degree. H. W. Lanners, W. M.; A. Dunleavy, secretary.

DULUTH CHAPTER NO. 59, R. A. M.—Meets at West Duluth first and third Wednesdays of each month at 7:30 p. m. Next meeting, March 15, 1916. Work—R. A. M. degree, conferred by Keystone chapter. W. A. Pittenger, H. P.; A. Dunleavy, secretary.

LAKESIDE LODGE NO. 281, A. F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Mondays of each month at 8 o'clock at Masonic hall, Forty-fifth avenue east and Robinson street. Next meeting, March 6, 1916. Regular—Work, First degree. William A. Hicken, W. M.; George E. Nelson, secretary, 4530 Cooke street east.

TRINITY LODGE NO. 282, A. F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Mondays at 8 o'clock, in Woolman hall, Twenty-first avenue west. Next meeting, regular, March 6, 1916. Work—Third degree. E. H. Pfeifer, W. M., 1918 West Third street; R. E. Wheeler, secretary, 2032 West Superior street.

A. O. U. W.
FIDELITY LODGE NO 105—MEETS AT Maccabee hall, 21 Lake avenue north, every Thursday at 8 p. m. Visiting members welcome. J. A. Vogt, M. W.; J. A. Lubansky, recorder; O. J. Murvold, financier, 217 East Fifth street. Social dance, March 2.

A. O. U. W.—DULUTH LODGE NO. 10—Meets every second and fourth Tuesday nights at Axa hall, 221 West Superior street. Next meeting, March 14, 1916, at 8 p. m., initiation. Marvin E. Heller, M. W.; R. G. Foote, recorder; E. F. Heller, financier, 509 Second avenue east.

ZENITH COUNCIL NO. 161, ROYAL League, meets the first and third Thursdays in the month, at 8 o'clock, in the old Masonic temple, Superior street and Second avenue east. O. S. Kempton, archon, Wolvin building; H. A. Hall, collector, 18 East First street.

DULUTH LODGE NO. 28, I. O. O. F.—Next meeting, Friday evening, March 3, 1916, at 7:30 o'clock, 221 West Superior street, third floor. Work—Initiatory degree will be conferred. Odd Fellows welcome. Charles F. Ottinger, N. G.; W. J. McDonald, Rec. Sec.

K. OF P.
NORTH STAR LODGE NO. 35, K. OF P.—Meets every Tuesday, 7:30 p. m., sixth floor, Temple building, Superior street and Second avenue east. Next meeting, Feb. 22, 1916. Work—First rank. James A. Wharton, C. C., 802 Alworth building; B. A. Rowe, M. of F., 205 First National bank; B. A. Bishop, K. of R. and S., 505 Palladio building.

ZENITH CAMP NO. 5, WOODMEN OF the World, meets on first and third Friday nights of month, at Foresters' hall, Fourth avenue west and First street. J. H. Larkin, clerk, 312 Sixtieth avenue east. Lakeside 23-K.

MAJESTIC REBEKAH LODGE NO. 60, I. O. O. F.—Regular meetings first and third Thurs

LAST EDITION

THE DULUTH HERALD

32 PAGES

VOLUME XXXIII—NO. 284. SATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 4, 1916. TWO CENTS.

MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY
Minn Historical Society D H

GERMAN DRIVE ON FORTRESSES OF VERDUN COMES TO HALT FOR SECOND TIME; INFANTRY RESTS

BOMBARDING BY ARTILLERY CONTINUOUS

Speedy Renewal May Be Indicated By Heavy Gun Fire.

Douaumont Sector Considered Key to the Entire Section.

German Troops Show Great Activity in Other Sectors.

London, March 4.—After the desperate battling on the Douaumont plateau in the renewal of the German drive for Verdun there has come a second halt in the intense struggle. Paris today announced that there had been a cessation of infantry attacks by the crown prince's troops, although his artillery is still keeping up a heavy bombardment.

The continuation of artillery activity may indicate a speedy renewal on the important front northeast of the fortress where the French lines form a salient.

Douaumont Key Position.

The Douaumont sector is pointed out by French military critics as a key position essential to the German purpose of taking the fortress. Hence the desperate nature of the struggle which has been going on for its possession.

The importance of the German activities in other sectors is not overlooked, however. There have been advances on both the French flanks and indications are furnished of contemplated thrusts at vital points in the lines about the curving front, such as on the northwest line, where the dominating height of Le Mort Homme has been under the fire of German heavy guns for some days.

Confidence in the outcome of the Verdun struggle has been expressed by Gen. Galliени, the French mininster

(Continued on page 2, first column.)

LONDON PLEASED BY PRESIDENT'S VICTORY

Few Things Short of Military Success Have Given Greater Satisfaction.

London, March 4.—Few things short of an actual military victory could have given the press greater satisfaction than President Wilson's victory in the senate. The Manchester Guardian remarks editorially that Germany, having failed to convince the United States, apparently will ignore sentiment in that country. It continues:

"Germany has now defiantly assumed the line that she is within her rights and means to abide by the consequences. If American citizens lose their lives she will make no apology or promise of amendment."

The Guardian says it cannot imagine that Americans will accept "such a reversion to absolute barbarism" and therefore regards the decision of the senate as having the greatest significance.

FIVE DROWN WHEN BARGES ARE LOST

Two Break Away From Tug; Wrecked on Minot's Ledge.

Scituate, Mass., March 4.—Two light coal barges, the Ashland and Kohinoor, which broke adrift from the tug Swatara in tow for Philadelphia, were wrecked last night on Minot's light ledges. Five men, the crew of the Kohinoor, were lost, while five men aboard the Ashland were washed ashore on the deckhouse early today and hauled through the breakers to safety.

The North Scituate coast guard picked up an exhausted man from the Kohinoor who died before the surfboat landed. The bodies of Capt. Ira Montgomery of Philadelphia and other members of the Kohinoor's crew had not been recovered this forenoon.

The tug encountered a gale soon after leaving Boston harbor. The towing hawser parted and the barges fetched up on the ledges, the Kohinoor going to pieces almost immediately.

Capt. Estrand of the Ashland said the Swatara with her remaining barge, the Kimberton, probably kept on to Provincetown. The barges were owned by the Philadelphia & Reading Transportation company.

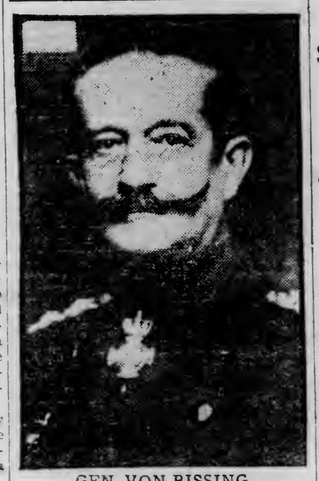
STEAMER STILL FAST OFF POINT COMFORT

Old Point Comfort, Va., March 4.—The Chesapeake line steamer City of Baltimore, which went aground on Hampton Bar last night during a blinding snowstorm, was still fast at daylight today. A tug was standing by and it was hoped the steamer could be floated at high tide. She was said to be in no danger.

The steamer was bound from Norfolk to Baltimore and had a large number of passengers aboard.

TERRIBLE GUNFIRE OF GERMANS TRANSFORMS WOODS INTO CLEARING

GERMAN GOVERNOR GENERAL OF BELGIUM IS SERIOUSLY ILL



GEN. VON BISSING.

Amsterdam, via London, March 4.—The Telegraaf says it learns from a German source that Gen. von Bissing, governor general of the occupied portion of Belgium, is seriously ill.

French Eye-Witness Gives Account of First Attack on Verdun.

Shells From Big Guns Fell Like Hail for Great Distance.

Assault Made on Herebois Three Miles From Fort Douaumont.

Paris, March 4.—The French official eye-witness gives the following description of the defense of Herebois, three miles to the north of Fort Douaumont where the defense of Verdun began twelve days ago.

"It was on Feb. 21 at 7 o'clock in the morning that the Germans began preparations for their attack. They unloosed a formidable artillery fire on the positions which they wished to capture, and shells of all calibers fell like hail from those of 150 millimeter to 305 millimeters. It was a veritable drumfire of an intensity unknown until now, and this drumfire was played on objective points. A place 500 meters broad for example was pounded in such fashion that the earth was plowed up on the entire superficial extent in mathematical fashion. Lachrymosal shells and suffocating gas shells were also employed by the enemy to accentuate the moral effect. However, despite this formidable rain of projectiles the Germans on the first day succeeded only in entering our first line of de-

(Continued on page 2, third column.)

SHOOTS AT EVERYONE WITHIN HIS RANGE

Philadelphian Kills One and Wounds Four Before Capture.

Philadelphia, March 4.—Antonio Pronogo, 29 years old, stood in the doorway of a house here today, with a repeating rifle in his hands, and before he was overpowered shot and killed one man and wounded two men and two women. Police saw he shot at everyone who came within range. One of his victims was a blind peddler who was shot through the body and dropped dead after running a short distance.

Pronogo gave battle to policemen before he was arrested.

CLAPP ACT WILL STAND

Government Will Not Attack Constitutionality of Indian Measure.

Suits Now Pending on Titles to Be Pressed to Decision.

From The Herald Washington Bureau.

Washington, March 4.—Announcement was made at the department of justice today that the government will not attack the constitutionality of the Clapp act and that suits now pending affecting the titles to lands transferred by some of the Indians would be pressed to early decision.

Francis J. Kearful, the special attorney for the government, who recently succeeded C. C. Daniels, has been in conference with the attorney general and other officials of the department for the past two weeks, considering the question whether the government should renew the suit brought while Mr. Daniels was in charge attacking the validity of the Clapp act. It was stated today that, after considering the matter, it had been concluded that there was not sufficient ground on which to base such suit. Mr. Kearful will leave for Minnesota tonight.

BITLIS IS CAPTURED BY RUSSIAN TROOPS

City in Turkish Armenia, South of Erzerum, Taken By Assault.

Petrograd, via London, March 4.—It is officially announced that the Russians have captured Bitlis, Turkish Armenia, about 110 miles southeast of Erzerum, near the southwestern extremity of Lake Van. The city was taken by assault.

The official communication says:

"Caucasian front: Our troops continue their pursuit of the Turks. The fighting in this district is proceeding under exceptional difficulties, owing to the complete disorganization of the roads, the severe frost, and deep snow.

"The news has just arrived that our troops last night carried Bitlis by assault, capturing six cannon. Among the Turkish prisoners are seventeen officers, including a colonel."

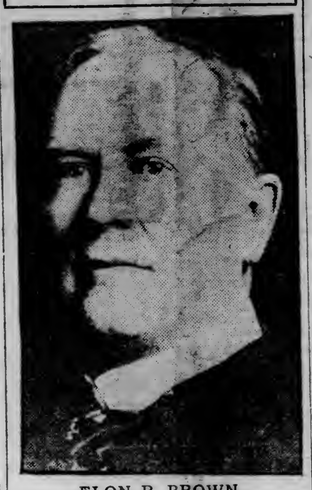
Bitlis is a city of about 35,000 inhabitants and the capital of the vilayet of the same name. It has numerous mosques and convents of dancing dervishes and is located 4,700 feet above sea level.

Bank Robbers Make Good Haul.

Tulsa, Okla., March 4.—Bank robbers blew open the safe and wrecked the bank at Mounds, Okla., early today and escaped with between $7,000 and $8,000 in currency. Twelve shots were used and the explosion which finally opened the money chamber burned the currency. Three men fled on a hand car toward Kiefer immediately after the robbery.

ADMINISTRATION LEADERS OF THE HOUSE AGREE TO POSTPONE SHIP QUESTION UNTIL TUESDAY

BEING GROOMED FOR GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK STATE BY BARNES



ELON R. BROWN.

Elon R. Brown, leader of the Republicans in the New York state legislature, is being groomed for governor of the state by Barnes, according to report. Mr. Brown is one of the four delegates-at-large to the Republican national convention.

ITALIAN LINER IS SUNK BY SUBMARINE

Leghorn, Italy, March 4, via Paris. — The steamship Giava, which left here Feb. 29, has been sunk by an Austrian submarine. There were no Americans on board.

The Italian steamship Giava, 2,631 tons gross and 333 feet long, was built at Newcastle in 1881. She was owned in Palermo.

BROTHERS FIGHT DUEL; ONE FATALLY INJURED

Scranton, Pa., March 4.—Gustave C. Brenneman of this city was mortally wounded by his brother, Charles D. Brenneman of Factoryville, Pa., near here, in the law office of Charles Soper today. The brothers had been estranged over the $80,000 estate of their father, Daniel Brenneman, who was an iron manufacturer here. They met at the attorney's office to sign an agreement, but an argument developed. Both were armed, and they pulled revolvers simultaneously.

Gustave fired twice, both shots going wild. Charles fired once, the ball penetrating Gustave's right lung.

SOUTH DAKOTA TRAIN GOES THROUGH BRIDGE; ONE MAN BURNED ALIVE

Two Persons Killed and Seven or Eight Seriously Injured.

Three Coaches Plunge Through Weakened Structure and Catch Fire.

Pinioned Man Begs to Be Shot as Flames Approach Him.

Watertown, S. D., March 4.—Two people were killed and seven or eight were injured, three seriously, when the Southbound passenger train on the South Dakota Central which left this city at 6:50 this morning for Sioux Falls, went through a bridge about ten miles south of here. Fire is believed to have weakened the bridge.

The dead:

DAVID LOVEJOY of Watertown, a passenger.

F. S. DOOLING, a traveling man, of Denver.

Seriously injured: Bob Maxwell, engineer; W. J. Bunn, fireman; ——— Burgess, express messenger.

The bridge is twenty-six feet high at the point where the train went off. The engine and a mixed mail and express car passed over safely, but the three coaches behind plunged through the weakened structure.

It is said that the fire on the bridge probably was started by a passenger train which passed over the evening before.

F. E. Dooling of Denver, Colo., a traveling man, was pinned in the wreck and burned alive. As the flames crept near him he begged other passengers who were trying to save him to shoot him.

The piled up coaches below the bridge were burned.

FRANCIS ACCEPTABLE, WILL BE NOMINATED

Washington, March 4.—The nomination of David R. Francis, former governor of Missouri, to be ambassador to Russia will be sent to the senate Monday by President Wilson. Word has been received from Petrograd that Mr. Francis will be acceptable to the Russian government. He will succeed George T. Marye, who resigned.

Sweden Issues Warning.

Stockholm, March 4, via London, 12:35 p. m.—The foreign office informs the Associated Press that a warning against embarking on armed merchant men has been issued to Swedish citizens.

FORMER FIRST SEA LORD TO RETURN TO PROMINENT POST

ADMIRAL LORD FISHER.

London, March 4.—Admiral Lord Fisher, who, since his retirement as first sea lord, has been serving as chairman of the war inventions board, will, according to the Daily Chronicle, shortly return to a prominent post in the government service, probably as a member of the war council.

SUBMARINES ARE ACTIVE

Berlin Reports Sinking of Two French Auxiliary Cruisers.

British Patrol Boat and French Merchantman Also Sunk.

Berlin, March 4, by wireless to Sayville.—The sinking of two French auxiliary cruisers and one British patrol boat by German submarines is announced by the admiralty.

The announcement also says that from Paris is reported the sinking of the transport Provence, "which carried 1,800 men, of whom only 696 were rescued."

La Provence was listed as an auxiliary cruiser but the wording of the Berlin dispatch does not make it clear whether she was one of the two said to have been destroyed. Official reports from Paris indicated that about 3,130 men went down with her. The French admiralty said no sign of a submarine was observed before or after the sinking.

French Steamship Sunk.

La Rochelle, France, March 4.—The French steamship Lakme of Dunkirk, 3,117 tons gross, which sailed from La Rochelle on Tuesday was sunk on the same day in the bay of Biscay at a point six miles northwest of Ile d'Yeu. She is believed to have struck a mine.

Six of the twenty-two men of the crew lost their lives.

Denied in Paris.

Paris, March 4.—The Temps says that the German admiralty's official announcement that submarines had sunk two armed auxiliary cruisers off Havre is false.

PART OF FORT AT PARIS BLOWN UP

Twenty Persons Killed and Many Injured; Cause Unknown.

Paris, March 4.—Twenty persons were killed and a large number injured in an explosion near St. Denis, in the suburbs of Paris this morning.

The explosion occurred near the fort called "Double Couronne" at Courneuve, near St. Denis. Part of the ramparts east of the fort were blown up. The cause of the disaster has not been ascertained.

A quantity of explosives, including hand grenades, was stored in this position.

Fire followed and there were further explosions, although of less severity on account of the flames.

ABSENCE OF MEMBERS IS THE REASON

Rules Committee Will Prepare Suitable Measure in the Meantime.

McLemore Resolution to Warn Americans Will Then Be Tabled.

Action Will Include Declaration That President Shall Handle Matter.

BRYAN TO LECTURE.

Washington, March 4.—William Jennings Bryan came to town today to fulfill a lecture engagement here tonight. Administration leaders speculated widely over whether Mr. Bryan's coming had anything to do with the delay on voting on the armed ship issue in the house and the decision of the leaders there to postpone action until Tuesday at least.

Washington, March 4.—The next step in President Wilson's fight to dispose of the armed ship agitation in congress was postponed until Tuesday as a result of a conference of administration leaders in the house. This afternoon the rules committee will meet to frame a rule to table the McLemore resolution to warn Americans off the armed ships of the European belligerents.

The rule will be brought, with the first business Tuesday when the administration forces plan to dispose of it by a substantial majority. The foreign affairs committee already has agreed on the resolution.

Administration forces plan that the action to table the McLemore resolution will include a declaration that the president shall handle diplomatic affairs, without congressional interference. The leaders are confident they have the votes to make their victory complete.

Leaders explained that the postponement was agreed upon because of the absence of so many members on week-end trips. Many left yesterday under the impression, it was said, that the house session today, which began at 10 o'clock was to end at noon and would consider only claim bills.

Claims of Mixed Victory.

Replying to claims of a mixed victory in the senate yesterday and to

(Continued on page 2, third column.)

VICIOUS RUMOR IS PROMPTLY DENIED

Papers Which Printed Rumors of President's Resignation Condemned.

Washington, March 4.—Aroused by the publication of reports yesterday that President Wilson because of the strain of the foreign situation was considering resigning from office, the White House today issued this formal statement:

"When Secretary Tumulty's attention was called to the story appearing in certain papers that the president had resigned or was considering resigning, he said:

"'An American newspaper that would publish a story of that kind in a situation like the one which now confronts America, dishonors itself.'"

SAYS HE WAS HIRED TO SHOOT BY STRIKERS

Man Who Shot Guard in New York Makes Confession.

New York, March 4.—William Sherwood, arrested for the shooting of Bennie Weinstein, a guard employed by L. Kaplan & Sons, shirtwaist manufacturers, confessed today, according to the police, that he was employed to do the shooting by a shirtwaist makers' union, the members of which are now on strike.

Inspector Cray, head of the detective bureau, says that Sherwood stated that he was offered a "contract" by the union under which he was to receive $100 and to be put on the payroll at $25 a week in return for his services in "shooting up" the Kaplan guards.

Weinstein and seven other guards were escorting 100 girls to the Kaplan factory yesterday when four men opened fire upon them. Weinstein was shot in the back and is in a serious condition.

According to Inspector Cray, Sherwood admitted that he had hired other men to aid him in his "contract."

SHOO, GO ON AWAY.

A LOWER price will not compensate a man for poor results in a tire.

Having invested hundreds, or thousands, in a motor car, he will not let trifling additional cost stand in the way of getting the highest measure of safety and service, and the greatest possible mileage.

The tire buyers of America gladly pay a very little more for Goodyear Tires because they feel that they cannot afford to dispense with Goodyear qualities; and because, for a little more, Goodyear gives a great deal more.

GOODYEAR AKRON TIRES

Easy to get from Goodyear Service Station Dealers Everywhere

Goodyear No-Hook Tires are fortified against:

Rim-cutting—By our No-Rim-Cut feature.

Blow-outs—By our On-Air Cure.

Loose Treads—By our Rubber Rivets.

Insecurity—By our Multiple Braided Piano Wire Base.

Punctures and Skidding—By our Double-Thick All-Weather Tread.

GERMAN DRIVE

(Continued from page 1.)

of war, according to a Paris dispatch. The French are declared in these advices to retain the advantage in the Douaumont sector, despite the fact that they were driven out of the village, as the Germans' position in the town is dominated by the French artillery. The probability is indicated that the village will frequently change hands during the course of the fighting as the two forces at this point appear so evenly matched.

Russ Occupy Bitlis.

The Russian occupation of Bitlis, in Turkish Armenia, is declared by petrograd correspondents to give the Russians command of all the Lake Van region and to have served to separate the Turkish force operating in the vicinity of Mush, to the west, from that in the Lake Urumiah district of Persia, eastward from Bitlis.

The German admiralty announces the sinking by German submarines of two French auxiliary cruisers and a Brital patrol boat. The admiralty also reports the sinking of the French transport Provence, already announced from Paris.

It is unofficially declared in Paris that the German claim to the sinking of two auxiliary cruisers "off Havre" is unfounded. The German statement as received by wireless did not specify when or where the cruisers were claimed to have been sent down. Although the French denial was issued under Thursday's date, being delayed in transmission, it probably refers to the claim made by the German admiralty, which is believed to have reached Paris before it was transmitted to this country.

French Statement.

Paris, March 4, 2:30 p. m.—The bombardment continued with considerable activity last night in the various sectors of the region of Verdun. It was not, however, followed by any actions of infantry, according to the announcement made by the French war office this afternoon.

At Eparges the French prevented German troops from occupying a crater made by the explosion of one of their mines.

The customary artillery fire has continued along the remainder of the front.

The statement follows:

"The bombardment which was maintained with considerable activity last night on the different sectors in the region of Verdun has not been followed by any action on the part of the infantry of the enemy.

"At Eparges we have prevented the enemy from occupying a crater produced by the explosion of one of their mines.

"There is nothing to report from the remainder of the front, excepting the customary cannonading."

German Statement.

Berlin, March 4, via London, 3:39 p. m.—"The enemy was repulsed in an effort to retake Douaumont," the war office announced today.

It was also announced that the booty taken by the Germans since Feb. 22 had increased to 115 guns and 161 machine guns.

When riding in a Reo you feel safe; 50 per-cent oversize in all vital parts.

Relieves itching almost instantly
Resinol Ointment, with Resinol Soap, usually stops itching at once. It quickly and easily heals most cases of eczema, rash or similar distressing skin or scalp eruption, not due to serious internal conditions. Physicians have prescribed Resinol Ointment regularly for over twenty years, so you need not hesitate to use it freely.
Every druggist sells Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap; trial free, Dept. 9-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.
Most men like Resinol Shaving Stick because it soothes and refreshes the face, while supplying a rich, creamy, non-drying lather.
Resinol

DULUTH IS "WEEK STAND"

Theater-Goers Show They Are Hungry for Good Attractions.

"The Bird" Does Phenomenal Business; Orpheum Circuit Plans.

As a "show town" which "turns 'em away," for a week's stand Duluth has this week demonstrated that it is in a class with most of the big cities of the country and immeasureably ahead of majority of cities of its size.

During the week "The Bird of Paradise" has played to capacity or turned prospective ticket buyers away at every one of its performances except the opening night. Thursday night people were turned away. Last night there was a sellout, while for today's matinee and the closing performance this evening every seat in the Lyceum has been sold. It is moreover, the third visit of the company to Duluth and there have been many who felt the present production was hardly the equal of former ones.

The business done by "The Bird of Paradise" demonstrates that Duluth theatrical goers are "hungry" for the best kind of offerings and that they will patronize the best theatrical offerings in a most liberal manner. With theatrical managers complaining that the week stands in the smaller cities of the country are an institution of the past, and many complaints regarding the falling off of road business, the capacity houses that have greeted the "Bird" in its passage speak well for Duluth's appreciation of good offerings in the theatrical line, and, perhaps, augur favorably for better treatment for Duluth at the hands of theatrical bookings agents in the future.

Many who take a passing interest in theatrical matters have in the past declared that any play that presumed to remain an entire week in Duluth would "starve" to death. "The Bird of Paradise" has waxed financially fat on its stand here, Manager Giroux declaring that the business done in Duluth was the best of the season by far, for a city of this size.

It is believed when the news goes out that Duluth is a profitable week's stand for any theatrical offering of real merit, that managers will be willing to book first-class productions here for a week. In the past, Duluth theatrical patrons have invariably demonstrated that they were ready to pay for the best. The business given "The Bird of Paradise" also shows conclusively that in this regard the theater goers of this city have not changed in the least.

The week's record should also interest the management of the Orpheum circuit, which is said to be watching conditions in Duluth closely with a view to reopening the Duluth Orpheum when the time is ripe.

ADMINISTRATION LEADERS OF HOUSE AGREE TO POSTPONE SHIP QUESTION UNTIL TUESDAY

(Continued from page 1.)

contentions of the anti-administration forces that the senate evaded voting on tabling the Gore resolution itself, through a complexed parliamentary situation, administration leaders today pointed to the official congressional record of the senate proceedings.

The vote was on the following by Senator James:

"I move that the resolution, and all substitutes for it, and amendments to it be laid upon the table and upon that motion I demand the yeas and nays."

Upon that motion the senate voted and it was carried, 68 to 14, and by that majority the senate decided there should be no legislation whatever on the question of warning Americans off armed ships.

The leaders pointed to the record today to bear evidence that their victory was clean cut and complete.

White House Opposed.

The decision of house leaders today to postpone a vote until Tuesday was reached without consultation with the president and confused the situation. It was said the White House was opposed to postponing action.

There also was some objection from some of the administration adherents. Chairman Flood of the foreign affairs committee, all the members of the rules committee and many of the leaders gathered in Speaker Clark's office to discuss the situation.

Acting Chairman Pou of the rules committee at the beginning of the conference said the situation was in doubt.

Majority Leader Kitchin, soon after noon, began notifying members that they would not be needed to vote until next Tuesday at the earliest.

The conference adjourned with no formal action except a decision to hold a rules committee meeting at 2 o'clock today. A so-called gentleman's agreement was made not to have a vote before Tuesday.

Back to House.

Washington, March 4.—President Wilson's fight to end the agitation in congress handicapping the administration in its submarine negotiations with Germany, was transferred back to the house today with every indication pointing to prompt and decisive action there. Yesterday's vote in the senate killing, 68 to 14, the Gore resolution, warning Americans off armed belligerent ships, is regarded as having practically settled the issue on that side of the capitol.

House leaders arranged early today for their test. The rules committee went to work on a special rule to provide immediate consideration for a report adopted last night by the foreign affairs committee, recommending that the McLemore warning resolution be tabled and setting forth that the president should be permitted to exercise his constitutional right to conduct the nation's diplomatic affairs without congressional interference.

Administration officials said today that practically all senators who voted yesterday to table the Gore resolution were voting for the president's policy, and that should the house fail to vote to uphold the president in decisive form the fight might be carried back to the senate for a direct vote to defeat the McCumber resolution warning Americans off armed ships of belligerent nations. They expressed confidence that complete victory would follow such a course.

TERRIBLE GUNFIRE OF GERMANS TRANSFORMS WOODS INTO CLEARING

(Continued from page 1.)

fense at Herebois and taking a small supporting work of the line. It was a miserable result compared with the mechanical effort and the effort which they had put forth against our advanced line of resistance. It was then that my regiment was called upon to counter-attack and to try to recapture the first line lost. When I say line, it must be understood that there were only some chaotic elements of trenches and furrows torn up with shell holes.

Glad to be Prisoners.

"At midnight accordingly on the 21st the men were on the positions and we were rather happy at having at the first moment of our appearance on the ground taken sixty-three prisoners who seemed to be very glad not to have to measure themselves against us any further. They rubbed their hands and seemed quite gay at the thought of having ended their share in the war. Among the prisoners was an officer who having tried to escape, was killed by the sentry who was charged with guarding them.

"Our counter attack took place on Feb. 22 at 4:30 o'clock in the morning. After a moment the Boches attacked again. No one had the advantage in this affair. Then during the day there was on both sides an unceasing struggle with hand grenades while some of our men strained every effort, under the protection of the grenade throwers, to consolidate our positions. At this moment, we no longer had any natural shelter. Herebois was covered with tree stumps among which some large trees stand up. Four hundred meters beyond there is undergrowth, but the Germans had opened on it a terrible outpouring of projectiles and the wood at certain places was transformed into a clearing. It was necessary, therefore, to maneuver through this confusion by climbing and crawling, and to work and raise barricades and to organize the shell holes. It was snowing and I leave you to imagine the endurance which our men showed in the circumstances.

Offensive Renewed.

"During the course of the night of Feb. 23 the Germans renewed their offensive. A bombardment of amazing violence and of deadly precision did not permit them, however, to advance an inch. When their infantry in turn attempted to strike, our men made them suffer great losses. It was still worse during the day of the 23rd. After having once more copiously rained shells on our lines, the Germans sent against us at least the equivalent of a batallion. Our men with methodic volleys tumbled the Germans back. It was a veritable massacre.

"Our 75 millimeters on their side raised a curtain of fire, preventing the enemy from reaching their objects. Almost all were left on the field of battle. That did not prevent the Germans from attacking us once more during the course of the day, but without better success.

Four of our grenadiers, posted at the entrance of a communication trench which united our old firing trench now occupied by the Germans with a supporting trench which we still held, killed groups of the enemy as fast as they presented themselves. They carried on this work for more than twenty hours. During these fights was revealed once more the warlike ardor of the French. Despite the losses incurred (almost all exclusively from artillery fire for we had constantly the upper hand), their morale did not waver for a moment. Our troopers maneuvered as during field practice. They saw without a murmur their comrades fall around them and they continued their work as quietly as at exercise. One has reason to be proud of commanding such men.

Orders Given to Withdraw.

"At 4:15 o'clock in the afternoon of Feb. 23 while we had not retired a single foot, order was given us to withdraw carefully, for the Wayville woods having been taken we ran the risk of being surrounded. We waited for the night to come. Some of our men, when they learned that we were to leave Herbebois, protested, asking to be allowed to fight and die on the spot. However, tactical reasons obliged us to evacuate Herbebois and we had to reckon with the general situation.

"The retirement order was executed and we went to take a position in front of the Lechaume wood in communication with the units on our right and left.

"The defense of Herbebois will certainly remain one of the most glorious pages in the annals of our regiment. More than 3,000 Germans came in successive waves, to smash themselves against our ranks, although we were in a fighting position of the most disadvantageous kind. We voluntarily abandoned the ground where hundreds and hundreds of German corpses show sufficiently how effective was our resistance. Neither the bombardment nor the snow nor the difficulties of securing provisions nor fatigue could overcome the stubborn bravery of our infantry. By thus holding firm at Herbebois they for their part contributed to win time for the arrival of the reserves, and they seriously interfered with the advance of the Germans. It was sacrifices of this kind repeated at numerous points on our front which held back the enemy flood."

FORCED SALE OF MINERAL LAND

Undivided ½ of E½ of NW¼ and SW¼ of NW¼ and NE¼ of SW¼ of Sec. 34, 63-14, St. Louis county.

ANY CASH OFFER WILL BE CONSIDERED

Also the following cut-over lands: In Itasca county, NE¼ of NW¼ and NW¼ of NE¼, Sec. 32, 150-29; Koochiching county, W½ of NW¼ and SE¼ of NW¼ and NW¼ of SW¼, Sec. 8, 151-26; W½ of SW¼, Sec. 11, E½ of SE¼ and E½ of SW¼ and NW¼ of SW¼, Sec. 10, NE¼ of SE¼, Sec. 9, all in 152-29.

EDGAR B. REHNKE,
Trustee in Bankruptcy,
624 Plymouth Bldg., Minneapolis.

MANY U. S. BUYERS ON WAY TO GERMANY

Great Fair Will Open at Leipsic With Much Greater Attendance.

Berlin, March 4, wireless to Sayville, N. Y.—The spring fair at Leipsic will open March 6. The number of buyers who have applied for the reduced railroad fares is 23,000 as compared with 15,700 last year.

Notwithstanding the difficulties of crossing the frontier, the number of buyers from neutral countries is larger than on the occasions of the former fairs at Leipsic during the war. The largest number comes from the United States. These buyers are interested principally in toys. Others come from Switzerland, Holland, Austria, Hungary and Scandinavia. The number of exhibitors is 2,500 compared with 2,200 last fall.

BRAZILIAN STEAMER IN COLLISION AT SEA

Sends Out S. O. S. Call But Later Reports Damage Slight.

New York, March 4.—The Sergipe, a Brazilian steamship which left this port yesterday afternoon for South American ports collided with another vessel early today about sixty miles south of New York. An hour after he had sent out an S. O. S. call the wireless operator on the Sergipe sent word that neither vessel was badly damaged and that his ship was safe and continuing her voyage.

Conditions for wireless transmission were bad this morning and the shore stations could not decipher the name of the ship with which the Sergipe collided.

The Sergipe is a steel vessel, 280 feet long, gross tonnage 1,859. She is owned by Lloyd Brazileiro.

D. H., 3-4-16.

DULUTH'S LARGEST DENTAL OFFICE

—315 WEST SUPERIOR STREET—

PAINLESS EXTRACTIONS 50c

WHEN YOUR TEETH ARE ALL GONE

OUR RESTORATION PLATE removes the wrinkles and restores the hollow, sunken cheeks to their natural symmetrical appearance; adding youth and a healthful, pleasing expression to your countenance.

This plate restores perfectly your lost POWER OF ARTICULATION, re-establishes PERFECT DIGESTION, repairs the BROKEN DOWN NERVOUS SYSTEM, renews your lagging mental efforts and revives your nervous energy to a degree that social and business life are a success.

Come and meet us. Have a consultation on your dental needs. We have helped thousands, why not you?

Gold Crowns Finest 22-carat. No better at any price, for $3.00
Bridge Work That for weight, beauty and quality has never been excelled.. $3.00
Silver Fillings None better at any price in city or elsewhere 50c
Whalebone Plates $15.00 and $25.00 values at $8.00 and $5.00

We Specialize in Gold Inlays—Gold and Aluminum Plates

UNION PAINLESS DENTISTS

—DR. FRANKLIN GREER & CO., OWNERS—

315 WEST SUPERIOR STREET, DULUTH, MINN.

Melrose 1887. Open from 8:30 a. m. to 6 p. m. Sundays, 10 to 1. Grand 459.

PASTOR WINS FIGHT AGAINST IRRELIGION

Objected to Teaching By Assistant Professor of Wisconsin University.

Chicago, March 4.—Rev. J. W. Morgan, Baptist university pastor, announced today that he had won his fight in opposing what he described as the teaching of irreligion in the University of Wisconsin by Assistant Prof. M. C. Otto.

Hereafter the religious viewpoint of "a universe which acknowledges God" will also be taught at the university, according to Dr. Morgan. The announcement was made at a conference of workers at state universities and caused considerable comment. Assistant Prof. Otto has been delivered a course of lectures on "The Relation of Man to Nature."

Dr. Morgan said that representatives of religious denominations have been protesting against Assistant Prof. Otto's course for five years.

"The supreme court of Wisconsin forbids the teaching of sectarianism in the state schools but declares that religion, the existence of God, and the duty of all men to love and obey Him may be taught," said Dr. Morgan. "Because of this decision I filed objections on legal grounds. Now President Van Hise of the University has promised us a square deal and will allow the teaching of philosophy from the religious as well as from the irreligious viewpoint and I have withdrawn my protest."

TO ENLARGE PLANT.

Du Pont Powder Company to Build in Spring at Barksdale.

Ashland, Wis., March 4.—The big plant of the Du Pont Powder company at Barksdale, near here, which is running full blast on war munitions, will be enlarged in the spring.

In addition to many other building operations which will be continued in the spring, announcement is now made and confirmed by Supt. F. T. Beers to the effect that an appropriation has been made for another O. V. line which will be built during the coming summer. This in itself will mean the expenditure of a large sum of money.

The O. V. plant is where acid is manufactured which goes into explosives and is an important unit in the plant.

The triton lines which were started last fall will be completed during the coming summer and time alone can tell to just what proportion the plant will grow to. It has been the history that dynamite and triton plants novor grow smaller.

Upwards of 1,600 men are now employed by the powder company at Barksdale, and about half of them are now employed on operations. Should the company employ as many men on construction as they did during the past summer it will mean that there will be over 2,500 men employed at the plant this year.

Reo cars are strong. Did you ever see one broken.

Merritt & Hector Printers

LETTERHEADS ENVELOPES
BILL HEADS CARDS
NOTE HEADS HANDBILLS
STATEMENTS PROGRAMS

112 WEST FIRST STREET
"Rush Orders a Pleasure"

LAST TIME TONIGHT

BARON H. S. DeMALAUSSENE

Adjutant 1er Reg. Etranger, in his War Talks That Have Stirred Duluth with the pictures—

"FIGHTING FOR FRANCE"

DON'T FAIL TO HEAR AND SEE THIS ATTRACTION

ORPHEUM STRAND

7 P. M. AND 9 P. M. TONIGHT ONLY

PHOTOGRAPHIC COPIES COMING

Great Britain's Instructions to Merchantmen Expected Sunday.

Washington, March 4.—Secretary Lansing announced today that the appendices to the German memorandum regarding armed merchant ships were on board the steamship Rotterdam, due tomorrow in New York.

Secretary Lansing's announcement was based on a cablegram from Ambassador Page at London. The appendices contain photographic copies of what the German government contends are confidential instructions to commanders of British merchant ships armed for defensive purposes to attack submarines. Upon these instructions Germany based the declaration of intentions to treat as warships armed merchant ships of her enemies.

NO BIRTHDAY FOR THEM UNTIL 1920

At least two children in Duluth will not be lucky enough to have a birthday party until 1920.

Health department records so far show that the unlucky infants were born on Feb. 29, and thus will have to wait until they are 4 years old before they can invite their little friends to their homes, and celebrate their birthdays.

Master Hanson, who has no first name as yet, officially speaking, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Hilmer O. Hanson of 921 Eighth avenue east on the morning on Feb. 29.

The other infant who is destined to have fewer birthdays than the ordinary person is Miss Nelson, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Nelson of 2005 West Sixth street.

These are the only two children to be born on Feb. 29, 1916, whose births have been recorded thus far.

Grand Prize, Panama-Pacific Exposition, San Francisco, 1915
Grand Prize, Panama-California Exposition, San Diego, 1915

DRINK
BAKER'S COCOA

For its Delicious Flavor, its Excellent Quality and its High Food Value.

GUARD AGAINST IMITATIONS; the genuine package has the trade-mark of the chocolate girl on the wrapper and is made only by

REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

WALTER BAKER & CO. LTD.

Established 1780 DORCHESTER, MASS.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

Teeth Troubles

are not necessary while we do high-class work for so little. Toothache is more your neglect than any one else's. We fill them, crown them and thereby save you teeth troubles. The cost is little, the work is guaranteed and only graduate and registered dentists render service here.

FILLINGS

Gold Enamel and Alloy.....$1 up
Silver and Cement Fillings..50c up

CROWNS

Gold or Porcelain....$3, $4 and $5

SETS OF TEETH

Guaranteed at $5, $8 and $10.

BRIDGEWORK

Gold or Porcelain.....$3 to $4

—Office Hours—

Daily from 8:30 a. m. to 7 p. m.
Sundays, 10 a. m. to 1 p. m.
Lady Attendant at All Times.

NEW METHOD DENTISTS

25 WEST SUPERIOR STREET.
Over Bon Ton Bakery.

THE OFFICERS

of this bank are glad of every opportunity to be of service to the business public, and in this sense are servants of the people.

Always during banking hours they are at their posts of duties to be made use of and to counsel with all persons having any financial matters to bring before them. This bank welcomes your business — and our officers always endeavor to make you feel at home.

American Exchange National Bank

DR. MITCHELL, Specialist

who has had many years' experience in treating by natural methods, without drugs or surgeon's knife.

The Electric Magnetic Treatment has restored health and strength to those who have given up hope of ever walking, seeing, hearing or enjoying health again. He asserts without fear of contradiction that the great majority of cripples will yield to his advanced method of treatment, and a large number heretofore pronounced incurable can be cured to stay cured and others greatly relieved. The percentage of hopelessly incurable cases is exceedingly small. This is also true of deformities. Of course there are some who are beyond help, but all over this country there are thousands who are lame, wearing braces, stays and other contrivances, walking with canes, crutches, or limping through life, who could be made as others are by Dr. Mitchell's Electric Magnetic Treatment.

Rheumatism, heart, stomach, liver, kidney, blood and skin disease, nervousness, asthma, catarrh, paralysis, appendicitis, piles, deafness successfully treated.

Office: 300 Columbia building.

PRINGLE
THE MAGAZINE MAN
Authorized Agent.
2217 South Street, Duluth.
Grand 2282-D. Melrose 5766.

Any magazine. Prices and catalogue furnished on request. New orders or renewals will be greatly appreciated and will help me.

OUR skill and long experience enable us to test your eyes in the very best manner.

C. D. TROTT, Optometrist
6 East Superior Street.

Subscribe for The Herald

WILL AWARD PAVING JOBS

Two Contracts, the First in 1916, Will Be Let Monday.

West First and Eighth Street Awards Will Be Made.

Awarding of two paving contracts, the first in 1916, will come up at the regular meeting of the city council Monday afternoon.

Commissioner Farrell, works head, announced this morning that he would recommend a creosote block pavement on West First street, and that the contract should be awarded to D. H. Clough on his bid of $66,303.55. He will also introduce a resolution awarding the contract for the paving of Eighth street, between Twenty-second and Twenty-fifth avenues west, and Twenty-second avenue west, from Eighth street to Piedmont avenue, to E. A. Dahl on his bid of $12,601.85 for a class A macadam pavement.

Property owners along West First street are divided over the selection of material for the improvement, brick and creosote blocks being favored.

In addition to the awarding of the paving contracts, the city attorney will be authorized to settle three small damage claims against the city. A sanitary sewer will be ordered in Woodland avenue, between Wabasha and Mankato streets.

Commissioner Merritt will introduce an ordinance appropriating $3,000 for hauling pipes during 1916 and a resolution awarding the contract to Wallace & Tiernen for furnishing the water and light department with a chlorinator on their bid of $550.

A request for permission to purchase a Ford car owned by Edward Mannheim of the water and light department for $350 has been submitted by Commissioner Merritt, and this will also come up at the meeting. A horse owned by the department is crippled and the car will take the place of the animal, disposition of which is necessary, the utility head states.

CITY BRIEFS

Loose Leaf and Filing Supplies.
M. I. Stewart company. Phones 114.

Things Booming in the East.
"If the gloomiest pessimist in the country should visit New York now, he would come back a glowing optimist," according to E. W. Kaltenbach, who has just returned from a trip East. Factories there, he says, are working day and night, and every phase of business shows an increase.

Mrs. Sibbitt Returns.
Mrs. Sibbitt has returned after a three weeks' absence in the Eastern markets.

Lady Owls Initiate.
Thirty-five candidates were initiated into the Order of Lady Owls at the Owl lodgerooms last evening. About 200 persons were present for the ceremonies, after which dancing was enjoyed for the remainder of the evening. La Brosse's orchestra furnished the music.

February Fire Losses.
Fires during February caused a loss of $6,047, according to the monthly report of Fire Chief Randall submitted to Commissioner Silberstein yesterday. The department responded to thirty-eight alarms during the month, while the total insurance on damaged property was $89,500.

Fahey's Father Ill.
Dr. E. W. Fahey, director of public health, will leave late this afternoon for Kingston, Ont., where his father, E. Fahey, is reported seriously ill. The latter is 77 years old and has been ill for several weeks, according to word received this morning.

PERSONALS

A. M. Fenton, assistant general freight agent for the Omaha railroad at Minneapolis, formerly district freight and passenger agent here, has been spending three weeks in Southern California, going as far as Catalina Island, according to cards received by Duluth friends.

SUING FOR INSURANCE

Orphaned children of Harry J. Coney, former prominent Duluth grain man, will continue a district court fight started by their mother to recover $30,000 on two accident insurance policies carried by Mr. Coney on July 4 last, when he was murdered.

Judge Dancer today signed an order permitting Hugh J. McClearn, attorney, to be substituted for Mrs. Coney as plaintiff in the action, and two suits will be started.

Mr. Coney was shot down by Caesar Bravo, a Peruvian naval officer, while he was on his way home from Argentina aboard the S. S. Tennyson. Bravo suddenly became insane, according to accounts of the shooting, and ran amuck with a revolver. The Duluth man happened to be in his path, and was killed almost instantly.

At the time of his death Mr. Coney was a representative of Spencer Kellogg & Sons, Buffalo grain merchants, who maintain an office in the Duluth board of trade.

Mrs. Coney was taken ill and died but a short time after her husband's funeral. Suit to recover on the policies was started, but never came to trial because of her illness.

One policy, for $15,000, was issued by the Fidelity & Deposit company of Maryland on June 1, 1914, and the other, for a similar amount, was issued by the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance company on Oct. 4, 1913. Both companies deny liability.

NUXATED IRON

$100.00 FORFEIT

increases strength of delicate, nervous, rundown people 200 per cent in ten days in many instances. $100 forfeit if it fails as per full explanation in large article soon to appear in this paper. Ask your doctor or druggist about it. Boyce Drug store always carries it in stock.

MILK BELOW GRADE.

Five Owners of Small Stores Arrested By City Inspector.

Five confectionery or small grocery store proprietors will be arrested today for selling adulterated milk, as a result of a tour of inspection Feb. 28 by Joseph Pratts, health department deputy.

They are C. Manilla, 517½ West Superior street; F. Yuen, 507 West Superior street; Harry Eastman, 312½ Fifty-fifth avenue west; F. Podoil, 204 Lake avenue south, and Sam Lee, 511 West Superior street.

In each case, the complainant alleges in warrants drawn by the city attorney's office, the defendant has been disposing of milk which contained less than 3½ per cent butterfat, which is the minimum prescribed by ordinance.

Further prosecutions will follow, health department authorities intimate, unless stricter observance is made of regulations concerning the quality of salable milk.

Warrants were turned over to police late this afternoon for service, and the alleged offenders probably will be brought into court Monday morning. The arrests are of particular interest because of agitation for and against a proposed new milk ordinance, containing stricter regulations than the one now in use.

"I'LL CALL YOU."

Then the Chief Appeared and It Was "All Off."

Ten men, including six Russians and four Finns, were grouped around a green-topped table in a boarding house at 619 West First street early last night.

One of them, throwing down his cards, said "I'll call you." Then he looked up: "'Lo chief," he added.

That spoiled the game and the players started to scatter until they found the table surrounded. On one hand were Police Chief R. D. McKercher and Capt. A. G. Eiskett. On the other were Patrolmen Jerry Gleason and Oscar Olson.

John Grohaslske, 29; Tom Goles, 30; Alex Wuolio, 26; Axel Lampi, 27; Sam Winski, 30; Mike Woiconas, 33; George Shian, 31, and Felix Apanasewicz, 26; had a ride in the police emergency, while two others were released.

In police court this morning the first named forfeited $15 bail. (He was winner in the game). The second was given until this afternoon to leave town. Wuolio and Lampi, Finnish, paid $17 fines, while the other four paid $7 fines.

The raid was a continuation of Thursday night's visits to alleged disorderly rooming houses in that district. Six proprietors are out under $100 bail for selling liquor illegally, as a result of the first raid, but no liquor was found last night.

WHAT IS AN "ESCAPE?"

Court Will Investigate How Nick Left the Work Farm.

Work farm authorities say Nick Oreskovich, 28, ran away from the institution.

Nick says they're "crazy," because he rode to Duluth on a wagon driven by a work farm employe, and nobody said a word to him.

Whether Nick hooked on behind the wagon, and rode to the city unobserved, or whether he merely took French leave, will be determined when he is tried before Municipal Judge W. H. Smallwood.

Supt. Fred Ward is sure Nick escaped, and his logic cannot be disputed: "Nick was sent up for ten days for vagrancy on Feb. 23, and he has been missing two or three days."

Oreskovich was one of the many saloon hangers-on who were picked up in a series of police raids which marked the last week in February, called "clean-up" week by the department.

"SASSED" THE OFFICER.

Sergeant Couldn't Do Anything With Youthful Celebrators.

"Who are you, the czar?" was the question which met Police Sergt. John Englert last night when he told a group of boys to stop blocking a sidewalk in the downtown district.

"They'd won a game, or passed an 'exam,' or licked their teacher, or something else that called for a big celebration," the sergeant explained, "and you couldn't do anything with them.

"I told them I wasn't exactly the czar," he said, "but they kept on being fresh, so I had to bring them in."

Frank McDonnell, 17, was released on $5 bail and appeared in court today to answer to a charge of obstructing the sidewalk. The case was dismissed. William Brown, 28, arrested at the same time for interfering with an officer, was released by Chief R. D. McKercher.

PAID POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT
Inserted in behalf of the following named candidates by James A. Farrell. Amount to be paid, $25.

FOR PRESIDENT
WOODROW WILSON

Wilson delegates recommended unanimously by the state Democratic conference held at St. Paul, February 3rd. To be voted for at the state-wide presidential primaries Tuesday, March 14.

For Delegates at Large, Vote for These Four

B. F. NELSON, of Minneapolis	X
ANTON C. WEISS, of Duluth	X
DANIEL W. LAWLER, of St. Paul	X
W. A. JUST, of Rapidan	X

For 8th District Delegates, Vote For These Two

JOHN JENSWOLD, Jr., of Duluth	X
DOUGLAS GREELEY, of Virginia	X

ASK FOR A DEMOCRATIC BALLOT.

EQUAL RIGHTS FOR 14-YEAR-OLD GIRL

When 14-year-old Halda Erickson of Cherry heard that L. B. Arnold, land commissioner for the Duluth & Iron Range Railroad company, was distributing several Holstein bull calves among schoolboys of the county for the purpose of encouraging the youngsters to grow up as dairy farmers, she wrote for one.

"I know that the calves are only for boys and I am only a girl," she said, "but I so much want one of these calves to make a pet of, and break to harness to pull a cart around." The letter was sent to A. B. Hostetter, district supervisor of agricultural agents, and turned over by him to Mr. Arnold. Miss Erickson will receive one of the animals.

The calves, which are being distributed, were bred on a farm near Meadowlands. The distribution is made according to recommendations of the county superintendent's office. Commissioner Arnold desires to encourage the boys in owning and caring for livestock.

PAVING ASSESSMENT APPEALED TO COURT

The Western Land association, owners of property along West First street, in district court this morning, filed an appeal from the assessment for the paving of that thoroughfare from Twentieth to Thirtieth avenue west.

The papers were filed by John B. Richards, attorney for the association, the claim being made that the assessment levied by the city for the proposed pavement is illegal as the council had no jurisdiction in taking that move.

The appellant alleges that the improvement was ordered under an original petition filed Feb. 24, 1913, since which time property titles have changed and the entire jurisdiction of the council lost.

MOTHER OF DULUTHIAN DIES AT WAUKEGAN, ILL.

Mrs. Elizabeth Perrin of Waukegan, Ill., mother of Andrew Perrin, 303 Forty-third avenue east, Duluth, died at her home on Wednesday last.

Funeral services were held from the church of the Immaculate Conception in Waukegan Friday morning and burial will be at the Rose Hill cemetery of that city.

Mrs. Perrin was born in 1846 at Lake Geneva, Wis. She leaves three children and five sisters. In addition to Andrew Perrin the children are Mrs. Anna Trevenen of Sioux City, Iowa, and Miss Laura Perrin of Waukegan.

FOR SALE

Seven-room modern home—Hunter's Park, 1823 Wallace avenue.

MAY REVOKE PARDON OF DAKOTA COUNTY MAN

St. Paul, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The state pardon board at a special meeting to be held Monday afternoon will attempt to revoke the conditional pardon granted Joseph Kruse of Dakota county at a previous meeting. Kruse, who was convicted of bootlegging, was pardoned on condition that he did not repeat the offense. The board has since been informed that Kruse has been selling liquor illegally. Kruse was pardoned because of the serious illness of his wife.

Sulfu Recaptured.

Pekin, China, March 4.—Official announcement was made here today that the city of Suifu, in the southern part of Szechuen province, has been recaptured by government troops. Sulfu was taken by rebel forces which advanced from Yunnan province and held by them until Thursday.

MEDICINES, LIKE MEN,

Have Character—Appearance, Quality, Merit, Results.

The first favorable impression made by Hood's Sarsaparilla is confirmed by continued use. It is a harmonious combination of compatible ingredients, perfect pharmaceutically— that is, it is the finest product of the most skillful pharmacy. And in therapeutic value—or power to cure—it is one of the best medicines America has ever produced.

On the practical side, which of course is the most important to you, Hood's Sarsaparilla for forty years has been demonstrating its curative power in relieving complaints arising from impure blood, low state of health, poor digestion, inactive kidneys and liver.

For your humors, or for rheumatism, weak stomach, loss of appetite, that tired feeling—take Hood's Sarsaparilla. It will do you good.

Always Keep Goos-olene Handy

GRANDMOTHER'S REMEDY
GOOS-OLENE

At this time of the year, with sunshine and frost, snow and rain, over-heated rooms, your vitality lowered, you are more susceptible to chest colds. At the first sign of this trouble you can be quickly relieved by one or two applications of Goos-olene, a strong and penetrating preparation of goose oil with mustard, eucalyptus, camphor, amber oil and other remedies. Will not blister. No other preparation like it.

For the Baby Baby Goos-olene is especially prepared for the congestions and colds of the little ones. Will not blister or cause any discomfort whatever. Use Goos-olene for the grown-ups—Baby Goos-olene for the little ones.

At All Drug Stores—In Sanitary Tubes 25c and 50c.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

WANTED — AT ONCE CHILDLESS Scandinavian couple for work on highly improved farm at Fairmont, Neb.; man must have some knowledge of stock; woman to do housework for man and wife in new modern home; lifting furnished in addition to salary. Write, J 724, Herald.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Wedding Announcements—Engraved or printed. Consolidated Stamp and Printing Co., 14 Fourth avenue west.

14, 18 AND 22K SOLID GOLD WEDding and engagement rings made and mounted to order at Henricksen's, 332 West Superior street.

Engraved and printed birth announcements. Consolidated Stamp & Print. Co.

BIRTHS.

SEGLEM—A son was born March 2 to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Seglem, 1030 Twenty-fourth avenue west.

CHARF—The birth of a daughter on March 1 has been reported by Mr. and Mrs. Magnus R. Charf, 2123 West Second street.

TABOR—Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Tabor, 1911 Piedmont avenue, are the parents of a son, born Jan. 29.

NELSON—Mr. and Mrs. Gust Nelson, 2005 West Sixth street, have reported the birth on Feb. 29, of a daughter.

HANSON—A son was born Feb. 29 to Mr. and Mrs. Himler O. Hanson, 921 Eighth avenue east.

HAMMERSTROM—The birth of a son on Feb. 23 has been reported by Mr. and Mrs. William Hammerstrom, 709 Twenty-fourth avenue west.

JOHNSON—Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, 2025 West First street, are the parents of a son born Feb. 28.

LUCAS—A son was born Feb. 24 to Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lucas, 212 South Twenty-ninth avenue west.

NELSON—The birth of a daughter on Feb. 23 has been reported by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nelson, 1108 Garfield avenue.

HANKS—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert F. Hanks, 808 East Third street, are the parents of a daughter born March 3.

CARLSON—A daughter was born March 1 to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Carlson, 3732 West Eighth street.

MONUMENTS.

LARGEST STOCK OF HIGH-GRADE monuments in the Northwest; call and inspect before buying elsewhere. P. N. Peterson Granite Co., 230 E. Sup.

FUNERAL FLOWERS A SPECIALTY. Duluth Floral Co., 121 W. Superior St.

BUILDING PERMITS.

To Carl Hellstrom, dwelling on east side of Tenth street, between Eighteenth and Nineteenth avenues east.....$3,000

To Deetz & Co., new roof on building on the south side of Superior street, between Lake and First avenues east..... 300

OBITUARY

Col. Wilbur M. Root, 72, one of the best known men in Eastern Wisconsin, died at Sheboygan, March 3, of general debility after six weeks' illness. Col. Root was born in Cleveland, Ohio, and came to Sheboygan county with his parents in 1849. He served with Company E, Fourth Wisconsin cavalry, from 1861 to 1864. He was sheriff two terms, alderman four times, in the state assembly four terms, was twice elected state insurance commissioner; was the first chief of police of Sheboygan and justice of the peace for more than twenty-five years. He was prominent in patriotic circles, being commander of the local post G. A. R. and president of the United military societies for many years and at one time was vice commander of the G. A. R. of Wisconsin.

Willis L. Cheney, 44, cashier of one of Milwaukee's largest banks, died March 3. He was well known throughout the state.

READING, 'RITING AND 'RITHMETIC ARE REQUIREMENTS OF CITY'S DEFENDERS

Spell twenty simple words.
Write a composition legibly.
Add, multiply, subtract and divide.
Locate various buildings and streets in Duluth.
Tell what officials are elected by the voters.
Explain various features of the police government or the fire department.

Then you can have a job on the Duluth police force or in the city fire department, provided you are fit physically.

The above include, in a general way, all the questions asked the prospective policemen and firemen at the civil service examinations conducted at the Central high school this morning. Ruben Johnson, secretary of the board, was in charge of the examinations.

Only those who passed the physical tests at police headquarters yesterday morning were permitted to take the mental examinations today. There were eight applicants for police jobs and eight for positions in the fire department.

The same questions asked applicants for positions in the police and fire departments are given those seeking jobs as stenographers, in addition to which, the nine applicants were this morning asked to copy stenographic work from rough drafts, write several letters in shorthand and operate a typewriter.

Those who pass the examinations this morning will be placed on the civil service eligibility list and will be employed by the city officials whenever vacancies occur. A grade of 75 per cent is considered a passing mark.

PRACTICAL SALESMANSHIP IS TAUGHT AT THE Y. M. C. A.

STUDENT TELLS HOW TO ATTAIN SUCCESS

The class in salesmanship at the Y. M. C. A. is doing work of a practical nature, and the students are being drilled in the essentials that go to make up successful salesmen. The nature of the work being done is well illustrated in the following article on "Salesmanship," written by Robert Patterson, one of the students, and turned in to A. L. Turner, the educational secretary. The article follows:

Character of Salesman.

"The essential characteristics a modern salesman must possess are self-control, power of initiative, ability to express himself clearly, good conduct and good manners.

"The successful jobbing salesman must first of all be thoroughly familiar with his line. This is absolutely essential, and he ought to have a pretty good knowledge of his competing lines and the organizations back of them. But he must know his own merchandise and he ought to know his trade well enough to be able to place the different grades where they will give the best service.

"Next in importance to selling is the ability to collect, for the successful salesman must not only be able to give his customer service, but must do the same for his house. Every jobbing salesman ought to have a good working knowledge of credits because his trade is not always able to discount bills and a great many are not able to pay at all. The salesman who cannot keep his accounts up is certainly not as valuable as the man who can because it will be necessary to send a collector into the former's territory, and the chances are the house will lose several good customers in the bargain. Therefore, in order to give the house the proper service, it is very necessary to know something about credit work.

"The salesman must be able to get the best service he can for his customers. The trade is quick to realize and appreciate good service by a house, the policy and character of which is reflected in its sales force. The salesman is the representative of his house in his particular territory and the rating the house gets in that territory will be determined to a very great extent by his conduct and appearance, and it is his duty to conduct himself as well as possible.

Knowledge of Business.

"He ought to have a clear understanding as to the relation he bears to his customers, to his house and the relation the house bears to its trade. A salesman cannot give good service unless he knows the conditions that surround him and that surround his trade, and to overcome the conditions he must be familiar with his organization, the different departments, their especial duties and methods. If he knows these he can certainly get the maximum efficiency from the organization.

"In other words, the real salesman is the man who is awake all the time, observing, who works every minute of the business day and then takes care of himself afterwards. They are the men who make the most of every opportunity, such as a big advertising campaign being carried on by some manufacturer whose product his house is jobbing. He co-operates with the specialty men this manufacturer sends out, and his firm realizes a nice business on the combined efforts of its salesman and the manufacturer. In order to get full benefit of a great advertising campaign, he should have some idea of advertising.

"To my mind the successful jobbing salesman is the man who is on the job all the time, studying and working, ambitious, and the man who not only brings home the 'bacon,' but the cash, too."

Recs are to be depended upon.

CLEARING HOUSE OF ARTICLES FOR FARM

To place before the rural population of St. Louis county lists of farm articles wanted or for sale, the schedule to be revised monthly possibly through the medium of the county agent's office or Northeast experiment station, is one of the ambitions of H. G. Larson, county agricultutral agent.

The matter has been placed before the St. Louis county club, and it is possible that some plan may be worked out. "Inquiries are continually pouring into our office," said Mr. Larson, "asking for help and advice regarding where and how to purchase a dozen and one different items. We are up against the problem of postage if we attempt to handle this on a scale that would bring anything like the results that we would like to see and feel that if we could if we had this question of postage solved. The matter of printing and copying, I think could be taken care of without cost to the club."

The Sauce of a Thousand Uses
At home and in the restaurant, in the kitchen and on the table most dishes are improved by the use of

Lea & Perrins SAUCE

The only original Worcestershire Sauce
Send postal for free kitchen hanger containing 100 new recipes
LEA & PERRINS, Hubert Street, New York City

HENRICKSEN'S MARCH JEWELRY SALE

NEXT WEEK'S SPECIALS

A lot of Sterling silver heavy flatware, Knives, Forks, Dessert and Table Spoons and fancy pieces at

1/2 PRICE

Price brings them down to nearly less than raw silver bullion.

It will pay you to investigate.

A. L. & N. J. HENRICKSEN

Makers of Fine old Jewelry
332 WEST SUPERIOR ST.

Successors to Henricksen Jewelry Co.

PIANO PRICES

and quality which will interest you, and many American leading standard makes of Grand, Upright and Player Pianos to choose from. We have no agents, no canvassers, no high priced managers. You can always save their big commissions if you come to our manufacturers' headquarters to buy an instrument for cash or on payments. Call or write

KORBY PIANO CO.,
Duluth's Oldest Piano House,
26 Lake Avenue North.

OAKLEY GETS STATE OFFICE

Will Succeed W. J. Stevenson as Assistant Attorney General.

Egbert S. Oakley, Duluth, former assistant United States district attorney, today was appointed assistant attorney general of Minnesota by Attorney General Lyndon A. Smith. He will succeed W. J. Stevenson, also of Duluth, who resigned to accept a position with a Minneapolis corporation.

Mr. Oakley was connected with the United States district attorney's office for several years, having charge of department affairs in Duluth. He was brought up in Wright county and for two terms acted as attorney for that district. From 1903 to 1908 he was registrar of the Cass Lake land office. Mr. Oakley is 43 years old.

There is still another vacancy to be filled by the attorney general. A place on the staff has been tendered to a St. Paul attorney, and Mr. Smith expects an early acceptance.

Ask the owner of a Reo and see what he says about his car.

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION

Duluth, Minn., March 3, 1916.
Mayor's Office, Duluth.

To the Citizens of Duluth:

The Children's Bureau of the United States Department of Labor, in co-operation with the Federated Women's Clubs of the United States, has set aside the week of March 4 to 10 as Baby Week, a time to make a special effort to interest all citizens in doing those things which tend to the improvement of conditions and influences surrounding little children.

I therefore ask all citizens to co-operate with the child welfare exhibit and baby scoring contest which are being carried on under the auspices of the Scottish Rite Masons, the St. Louis County Medical Association, the City Health Department, the clubs of the Woman's Council and all other affiliated organizations. The clergy are especially asked to bring the movement before their congregations. For this short period all citizens should concentrate on giving future citizens the most healthful start in life that is possible, for the greater welfare of Duluth in the years to come.

W. I. PRINCE,
Mayor of Duluth.

D. H., March 4, 1916. D 1849.

WEST DULUTH

HERALD BRANCH OFFICES:

Spencer Pharmacy, 402 Central Avenue, Advertising and Subscriptions.
A. Jensen, Fifty-seventh Avenue West and Grand Avenue, Distribution.

Herald's West Duluth reporter may be reached after hour of going to press at Calumet 173-M and Cole 247.

CLAN FORBES WILL HOLD ITS FIRST INSTALLATION MONDAY

Clan Forbes will hold its first installation of officers Monday evening at the Odd Fellows hall, 602 North Central avenue. The ceremony will be performed by A. G. Macaulay, imperial deputy, assisted by a degree team from Clan Stewart.

The ceremony will be open to friends of the members. Following the ceremony a musical program and dance will take place, after which refreshments will be served. The clan was organized about six weeks ago, and plans are already under way for the organizing of a women's auxiliary. The new officers to be installed are:

Chief, M. M. Forbes; past chief, G. C. Reed; tanist, J. E. Foubister; chaplain, Percy Young; recording secretary, A. R. Armstrong; financial secretary, H. J. Bell; treasurer, R. L. Hughes; clan physician, Dr. R. S. Forbes; senior henchman, James McGillvary; junior henchman, Earl Leader; seneschal, Murdoch McPhail; warder, Hugh Miles; sentinel, Archie Seymour; standard bearer, Alec Donald; trustee for three years, F. E. Watson; trustee for two years, Thomas Foubister; trustee for one year, William Ritchie; pipers, John and Norman McLean.

COUNTY WILL DO ITS SHARE

Will Co-operate With City in Completing Getchell Road.

County Commissioners Charles Kauppi and Walter Swanstrom informed members of the West Duluth Commercial club last night that the county commissioners will accept the offer made by Commissioner J. A. Farrell of the public works department, and provide a sum equal to that offered by the city to complete the Getchell road. The total sum for the improvement of this highway will be $6,000, half of which will come from the city and half from the county.

The completion of this highway will give West Duluth one of the best roads leading into the country districts and tap the richest part of Herman township. The road begins at its connection with Highland street just above the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railroad, circles around to the south and west of the Oneota cemetery and leads in a northerly direction to an intersection with the Morris-Thomas road. An extension of the highway for a half mile farther north so that it will intersect the Hermantown highway has been considered.

West Duluth may have a central park, according to statements made by Judge H. W. Lanners, who has been in charge of a committee considering the advisability of securing such a site. The plot of ground under consideration lies between Grand and Central avenues south of Elinor street.

Condemnation proceedings for the opening of Roosevelt street from Fifty-eighth to Grand avenue will be asked by the club. A committee announced last night that a survey of the proposed opening of the street had been made. The city commission will be asked to start the condemnation proceedings.

WILL CONDUCT TWO WEEKS OF REVIVAL

Rev. P. G. Nelson of Stromsberg, Neb., will be in charge of revival services to be held at the Third Swedish Baptist church, Fifty-ninth avenue west and Ramsey street, during the next two weeks. The first of the series of services will be held tomorrow evening.

Mr. Nelson will be assisted by Rev.

REV. P. G. NELSON.

K. A. Lundin, pastor of the local church. The visitor is said to be a fluent speaker and a successful evangelist. All Scandinavian people are invited to attend the services.

MEMBERS OF WOMEN'S SKI CLUB TAKE HIKE

Eight West Duluth matrons, members of a ski club "hiked" from the end of the Grand avenue car line to Morgan Park this noon. The roads were in splendid condition for the walk, according to the women. At Morgan Park the women were guests at luncheon at the home of Mrs. Charles C. Sampson. Those in the party were: Mrs. E. W. F. Boerner, Mrs. Elliott J. Ama, Mrs. T. F. Olsen, Mrs. W. A. Pond, Mrs. Robert Y. Dunn, Mrs. Frank E. Watson, Mrs. Emil J. Zauft and Mrs. R. J. Fisher.

The women walked the distance in an hour.

HONOR PUPILS AT IRVING JUNIOR HIGH

The names of pupils whose standing in their studies at the Irving Junior high school deserved honorable mention, were posted yesterday afternoon at the school building. The list is given of pupils of the seventh, eighth and ninth grades.

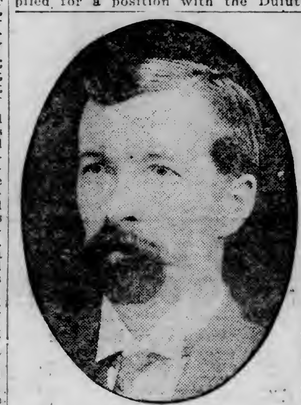
Those on the A honor roll are: B ninth, Lillian Anderson, Mable Anderson, Vera Burke, Alta Johnson; A eighth, Hilda Olson; B eighth, Margaret Kuchenbacker, Ellwood Lafortune; A seventh, Arthur Nelson, Edith Sholdeen, Karen Dahl.

The B honor roll follows: B ninth, Hildeborg Ek, Walborg Erickson, Agnes Henry, Edward Harris, Charles Kaskela, Walter Hiner; A eighth Jacob Tweet, Esther Chilstrand, Carl Ek, Myrtle Ness, Pearl Bourdeaux, Frank Johnson, Elsie Crager, Elmer Jacobson, Mable Urie, Lottie Farrell; B eighth, Tonie Lundquist, Marie Mattson, Homer Lemelin, Chris Larson, Gertrude Mehling, Inez Wahl, Esther Jackson, Martha Davidson, Martin Sorenson; A seventh, Anna May Schumann, Vendia Anderson, Joseph Schmauss, Adelaide Ege, Rose Plows, Donald Holcomb.

WEST DULUTH TAILOR MISSING

Relatives of Hans Holm, 10 North Fifty-ninth avenue west, former West Duluth tailor, are worried because of his prolonged absence from home. Mr. Holm disappeared a week ago today and was last seen that afternoon by friends on the street.

Mr. Holm closed his tailor shop shortly after the holidays. He then applied for a position with the Duluth



HANS HOLM.

Street Railway company and was in the company's employ for a short time, leaving there two weeks ago.

Mrs. Holm has appealed to the police of Duluth to locate her husband. She fears that he may have met with foul play.

Mr. Holm operated a tailor shop at 505 North Central avenue. He was well known among the Scandinavian people and a year ago was president of the Normanna Male chorus.

Pleasantly Surprised.

Miss Evelyn Pepin was pleasantly surprised Thursday evening by a number of her friends at her home in Proctor. Music and games featured the entertainment. The guests were: Misses Adalene Brayden, Ruth Stewart, Madeline Mahoney, Doris Quick, Elinor Brayden, Mildred Sathers, Lillian Lowney, Grace Bishop, Evelyn Pepin, Bessie Harrison.

Messrs. William Gilderman, George Bethune, Lawrence McDonald, Donald Birch, Giles Brayden, Joseph Lowney.

Surprised By Friends.

William Sundin, 25 South Fifty-eighth avenue west, was guest of honor at a surprise party given at his home last evening. Games and music featured the entertainment. The guests were: Misses Pauline Delborn, Agnes Larsen, Amanda Sundin, Marie Showers, Ethel Jasper, Edith Jackson, Lillian Bonneville, Anna Swanson, and Messrs. John Flaaten, Arthur Flaaten, Henry Wick, A. Wick, Edgar Swanson, Leland Erickson, Hugh Ballad, Will Sundin, George Larsen.

With the Curlers.

With the defeat of E. J. Zauft in the Patrick event last night by T. F. Wieland's rink, the squad leadership now rests with C. J. Mallory and Thomas Quinn. These will play off the tie this evening and the winner will go into the finals and play for the trophy against Joe McDonald. The Wieland-Zauft game resulted in a 13-to-12 score. Alex Donald also won from Iltis in the Universal last evening by a score of 11 to 9.

In addition to the Mallory-Quinn game tonight a game has been scheduled between Donald and K. A. McDonald.

West Duluth Briefs.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmre Schultz and family of Warba, Minn., are guests at the home of Mr. Shultz' sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Armstrong, 427 North Fifty-seventh avenue west.

Mrs. J. D. Ritchie, 626 North Fifty-seventh avenue west, left yesterday for Cheboygan, Mich., where she was called on account of illness of her father.

The United choirs of the Swedish Lutheran churches of Duluth will meet Monday evening for rehearsal at the Elim Swedish Lutheran church, Fifty-sixth avenue west and Elinor street. The united choirs will present an Easter cantata "Light Out of Darkness" the latter part of next month.

Thomas G. Bell, 425 North Central avenue, who has been taking a course at the Minnesota university, returned home this morning.

Watch repairing. Hurst, West Duluth.

The Men's Club of the Bethel Swedish Lutheran church will be entertained Monday evening at the home of G. Nyholm, 4712 Magellan street.

Gosta Lodge No. 243, Order of Vasa, entertained last evening at a basket social at Victor's hall, 5528 Grand avenue. Dancing also featured the entertainment.

Victrolas and records at Spencer's. Easy payments if desired.

M. J. O'Brien, 5714 Roosevelt street, is spending three weeks visiting relatives at Detroit, Mich.

FIRE AT LA CROSSE, WIS., DOES $25,000 DAMAGE

La Crosse, Wis., March 4.—Fire in the retail business district early today destroyed the large millinery store of Miss Mary Hanson and severely damaged the women's furnishing store of the L. D. Peet company. A three-story brick building was partly wrecked. The loss is estimated at $25,000. During the fire one fireman was overcome by smoke and taken to a hospital in a serious condition and another sustained a broken leg due to the fall of a ladder.

JEWS FREE FROM HYPHEN

Become Citizens in Fact as Well as in Name, Says Rabbi Lefkovits.

Denounces Hyphenated-American Talk as Unjust; Jews in History.

"The Man Without a Hyphen" is the designation given the Jew by Rabbi Lefkovits, in a sermon delivered last night at Temple Emanuel. During the course of his address Dr. Lefkovits denounced as "cheap twaddle" and unjust stigmatization the charge made of late against citizens of foreign birth that they are "hyphenated Americans," cherishing love for the home country that is greater than their love for the land of their adoption. During his address, Dr. Lefkovits said:

"We have been treated of late to a sickening amount of cheap twaddle, indulged in by both petty politicians and prattling pastors, about the alleged danger threatening this country on the part of the so-called 'hyphenated' American citizens. By this stigmatizing designation are meant such people as are of European birth or descent, and who, though professing American citizenship, presumably cherish a greater attachment for the country of their origin than for the country of their adoption. The charge, to my thinking, is in most respects grossly exaggerated and in many respects absolutely untrue.

"I fail to see why one may not be devoted to the country of his nativity and yet love equally and more these United States to which he has sworn allegiance; just as one may continue affectionate toward his mother, notwithstanding that he has taken a wife to his heart and is dearly fond of her.

Charge Dedicated in Religion.

"Equally false and malicious is the charge raised against a large number of American citizens professing a certain faith, that they entertain a larger loyalty to the head of that faith residing in Rome than to the head of our government at Washington. I can well understand that a man may love with equal intensity both his flag and his faith, and that his love of the one may be all the stronger because of his love of the other.

"Be this, however, as it may, neither of those charges can be raised against the Jew. Recognizing no higher religious authority than that of his congregation, he has no international ecclesiastical head to command his fealty over that he owes to the head of this nation. Also, the Jew coming, for the most part, from countries where he had been more or less discriminated against, and proscribed and restricted, comes here to stay, and soon thoroughly assimilates the American spirit.

"However, not all the Jews of this country are of recent immigration. At least three Jews accompanied Columbus in his voyage of discovery, one of whom, the interpreter, was the first European to set foot on the soil of this New World of ours. Jews were among the first to settle on the Eastern shores. A Jewish colony having been landed at New Amsterdam (now New York), only thirty-five years after the landing of the Pilgrim Fathers further north at Plymouth Rock.

Jewish Devotion Assured.

"Jewish citizenship in this country thus dates back to the very foundation of this republic. It is a citizenship that has often been tried and has never been found wanting. And it never, never will be found wanting. The Jews of this country are Jews in faith only; in every other respect they are thorough Americans. Should, America ever be forced to call upon the valor of her sons, she will find among her most heroic, most self-sacrificing, most consecrated defenders and champions, the Jew, the man without a hyphen."

FIFTY BLACK FACES
To make you laugh at the Boys' Department, Y. M. C. A.

MINSTREL SHOW

Friday, March 10. Orpheum Theater.
Admission, 25 and 50 cents.
Get your reserved seat at Y. M. C. A.

TO OPEN LANDS FOR SETTLERS

According to information received at the Duluth land office, several thousand acres of land will be opened for homestead entry by the United States government on April 26. The land to be opened consists of 56,175.62 acres of ceded Chippewa lands in the Red Lake, White Earth, Leech Lake, Chippewa of the Mississippi, Winnebigoshish, Deer Creek, Bois Fort and Pigeon River Indian reservations. Applications will be received at Cass Lake, Crookston and Duluth.

A part of the lands were opened to settlement on Jan. 11, 1915, and Sept. 27, 1915. No rights can be acquired by settling on the land before the time they are subject to settlement.

There will be a large tract of land under the jurisdiction of the Duluth land office in the Pigeon River reservation district in Cook county, and also lands in St. Louis and Koochiching counties. So far as the local land office knows, the 15,000 acres of land in the Fond du Lac reservation, near Duluth, will not be included in the lands for entry. Circulars for applicants are expected at the local office soon, and information is now available to applicants at the Federal building here.

Owing to the heavy snows now lying over most of the Northwest, it is expected that prospective settlers will be somewhat handicapped until late in the spring, possibly until May. According to reports, there is from three to four feet of snow on the level and drifts of a far greater depth. Much of the land is cut-over, swamp land, and no idea of its value or conditions as to drainage could be obtained while the deep drifts lie on the ground.

LAST LINK IN THE ST. VINCENT HIGHWAY

The final link in the Duluth-St. Vincent highway, which includes a stretch of about a mile of territory running through the northeastern corner of Aitkin county, will be built this summer. Assurances have been received that Aitkin county will furnish $1,000 of the total cost.

It will cost a total of $4,000 to build the road. The county of St. Louis has already promised $1,500 of this sum and Itasca county will furnish the other $1,500.

ARRESTED FOUR TIMES

Four times has Mike Connors, deserter from the Canadian army, been arrested by subordinate officials of the U. S. immigration bureau, and now Attorney W. W. Barron of Grand Rapids, representing Connors, wants the government men brought into court on contempt charges.

Armed with a writ of habeas corpus, Attorney Barron located his client for the third time on Feb. 14, at Grand Rapids, and demanded that he be released. Scarcely was Connors out of jail before he was taken in custody again, on the old warrant, it is alleged, and hurried to Minneapolis.

Hot on the trail of the immigration inspector, and armed with a new writ, the attorney has located Connors in Minneapolis, and today he appeared before District Judge Bert Fesler with a request that the government men be adjudged in contempt of court. Proceedings were started this morning, and the argument was taken up again at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Judge Fesler issued a statement shortly before noon, in which he criticized the methods of the subordinate officials of the immigration bureau.

The immigration officials, on the other hand, deny that they are doing wrong, and maintain that the Federal court has exclusive jurisdiction in matters of this kind.

Connors is of Irish descent, and has lived in the United States fourteen years. Soon ofter enlisting at St. Francis, along with other American boys, he saw his mistake, he says, crossed the bridge at International Falls attired in civilian clothes, and soon was back in Grand Rapids, where his mother and brother live.

So far the chase has been a hot one, with Attorney Brown applying for a habeas corpus writ as soon as Federal authorities place his client under arrest, and pursuing the officer by train or automobile until he obtained Connors' release.

CLOQUET TEAMS DRAW.

Cloquet, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—In the Business Men's Indoor Baseball league there was only one game scheduled and that was played yesterday noon between the Badgers and Wolves, which was won by the former, 7 to 5.

In the Color league the Greens broke the winning streak of the Reds by winning Monday's game, 10 to 4, after they had won eight successive games, but the Reds came back strong Thursday and won from the Blues, 9 to 8.

The Evening league is taking on renewed interest and exciting games are being staged, which are drawing large crowds. The league leaders, the N. W. Paper company's team, had their lead cut in Monday's game when they lost to the City team, 17 to 4, but came back strong in Thursday's game and trounced the high school team, 17 to 2, which drove them farther in the cellar.

Following are the standings of the teams to date:

Business Men's League.

Team—	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Moose	13	7	.650
Bears	11	9	.579
Badgers	10	12	.454
Wolves	8	14	.363

Color League.

Team—	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Reds	13	6	.684
Blues	9	9	.500
Greens	8	10	.444
Whites	8	11	.421

Evening League.

Team—	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
N. W. Paper company	6	2	.750
Johnson-Wentworth	4	2	.667
Cloquet Lumber Co.	3	2	.600
Box Co.	2	3	.400
City team	2	4	.333
High School	0	4	.000

CLOQUET NOTES.

Cloquet, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. James Cardiff returned to her home at Barnum Wednesday after a few days' visit at the T. H. White farm, south of town.

Sylvester Breselin was a week-end visitor here.

Ike Markovitz went to Duluth yesterday to attend the Shriners' banquet.

Miss Elin Lindberg entertained at bridge at the Hotel Cloquet Tuesday.

Mrs. H. I. Lewis of Washburn, Wis., visited with Miss Clara Plantz last Wednesday.

The Luther League of the Norwegian church, gave a leap year sleighride party and a supper in the church parlors Thursday evening. The girls paid for the sleighride and the boys furnished the lunch.

The Misses Marion Andrews, Sadie, Nesta and Helen Huseby attended the "Bird of Paradise" at the Lyceum at Duluth today.

Olaus Peterson was brought from the Northern Lumber company's camp with a broken leg Thursday, caused by a falling tree "kicking back" and striking his leg.

Mrs. C. L. Dixon left Thursday for Minneapolis for a few days' visit with her daughter, Ruth.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brown returned Monday from an extended visit with relatives at Stettler, Alta.

Miss Gladys McKenna came home for a few days' visit from Duluth, where she is training to be a nurse at St. Mary's hospital.

Mrs. A. J. Bonnier and children of Ely, Minn., are visiting with Mrs. Bonnier's mother for a few days.

M. O. Kelseth left Thursday for Milwaukee, Wis., for an extended visit with relatives.

Jack Prevost transacted business at hte Zenith City yesterday.

Mrs. William O'Mara and Mrs. Nels Beaulieu were tendered a surprise party Monday at the former's home in honor of their birthday.

Mrs. M. P. Booth, who has been visiting with Mrs. L. A. Fauley, returned to her home at Hibbing, Minn.

The Woman's Friday club met at the home of Mrs. A. J. Taylor yesterday and a musical program was rendered by the Misses Helen McNair, Rachael Harris, Ella Cox and Merle Redfield.

Mrs. Dick Robbins was the guest of Mrs. Louis Pofel at Scanlon last Wednesday.

Rev. H. H. Parish was called to North Branch yesterday to preach a funeral sermon.

Miss Lillian J. Hanson left yesterday for an over-Sunday visit with friends in Minneapolis.

Miss Frances Underhill, who is teaching at Brownell, Minn., spent last Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Underhill.

Mrs. Bert McCoubrey entertained a number of friends at cards Monday evening.

Margaret, the little 4-year-old daughter of Mrs. W. H. Gardner, fell down the stairway at her home yesterday and broke one of her legs.

Miss Sadie Selmser left this morning for Sebeka, Minn., where she will resume teaching.

Mrs. F. Edward Olson gave a reception to the Ladies' Aid of the Swedish Lutheran church Wednesday. Light refreshments were served.

Mrs. F. V. Shampine left this morning for the Twin Cities, where she will buy her spring millinery stock.

The Sons of Norway will give a basket social in their hall this evening for a member who is afflicted with rheumatism.

Cloquet Church Announcement.

Cloquet, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—"How I Am Being Used and How I Think I Should Be Used" will be the subject of Rev. H. H. Parish's sermon at the First Methodist Episcopal church tomorrow evening. Special efforts are being made since the church census to get people to attend church, which met with success. Last Sunday was the record attendance at the Sunday school for the thirty years of its existence.

TAKES ROLE OF "WATCH DOG"

Commissioner Little Asks Investigation of County Expenditures.

Kauppi Replies to His Charges Regarding Miller Trunk Road.

Careful and thorough investigation by the county board of county expenditures, particularly from road funds, was demanded by Commissioner T. H. Little of the Second district at the April meeting of the commissioners today.

Commissioner Little severely criticized the board for expenditures on the Miller Trunk and other roads. County Auditor Halden also came in for a share of the criticism.

"There are several items in the auditor's financial report, which has just been submitted to us for our approval, that appear to me to be very strong," Mr. Little said.

He then pointed out that the report showed an expenditure of $50,084.46 for the care and control of courthouses, $40,000 for clerk hire in the auditor's office, and about $70,000 on the Miller Trunk road.

Road Expenditures.

Mr. Little also called attention to the fact that an item of $640.58 appeared in the report as being charged against the Maxwell road in the First district last year.

"To begin with, the Maxwell road is in the Second district and so far as I know not one penny was spent on that road last year," he said.

He also declared that $3,429.10 had been charged during 1915 against the Howard-Gnesen road in the First district and challenged the commissioners to show where any more than $300 had been spent on this piece of highway during the year 1915. He also wanted to know what the item of $491 credited to "auditor's miscellaneous expense" consisted of.

When Mr. Little declared that the matter of the county's finance should not be left in the hands of one man, R. S. O'Neill of Chisholm, commissioner from the Sixth district, suggested that the board refer the matter to Mr. Little and Mr. Halden to settle.

Wants Special Examiner.

This, however, met with strenuous objection from Mr. Little and he declared that the board should appoint a special examiner to look into the matter.

Commissioner Kauppi from the Fifth district took exception to Mr. Little's statement that "enough money had been spent on the Miller Trunk road since it was built to pave it in concrete, from Duluth to the ranges." He declared that such a statement was absurd and arose to defend the expenditures as justifiable.

Mr. Little declared that upwards of $500,000 had been expended on the Miller Trunk highway and that the highway was in worse condition today than it was ten years ago. Commissioner Kauppi thereupon produced figures to show that since 1895, when the road was started, $347,443.01 had been spent on this road. Twenty-five miles of the Swan Lake road are now incorporated in the Miller Trunk. The cost of the Swan Lake road since 1895 has been $116,602.21, but a thirty-five-mile stretch of this highway has no connection with the Miller Trunk, he said.

Mr. Kauppi also declared that only about $85,000 of the original bond issue for the Miller Trunk road was spent on this highway twenty years ago, the balance going for other highways. For a considerable period of years, practically no money was spent at all. The highway, he said, is 130 mile long and the average cost of maintaing a road is about $300 per mile per year.

No Money Wasted.

Mr. Kauppi also stated that the road had been straightened out in several places and in many stretches had been rebuilt. He asserted that drainage ditches had been constructed across the stretch where there is a big swamp and defied Mr. Little to show where any money had been wasted.

"What's the matter with the Miller Trunk?" asked Mr. O'Neill of the Second district commissioner.

"We're not getting results for our money," Mr. Little replied. "I think it is about time we are abandoning this highway, if we can't make a road out of it."

Mr. O'Neill then suggested that perhaps the county board had been wrong and that the proper thing to have done would have been to put the matter in charge of Mr. Little and let him look after it himself.

"If Mr. Little has any grievance against any county official," said Mr. O'Neill, in addressing the board, "it seems to me that he could find some other way of disposing of the matter besides coming in here and wasting the time of this board."

Mr. Little was on his feet to take exception to the statement. He declared that he was discussing a matter of vital interest to the board, that of the county's finances, and that it was up to the board to inquire into such matters and that time spent doing so would not be wasted.

FILES NOTICE OF ARMORY APPEAL

City Attorney Samuelson this morning filed notice with the district court clerk and John Jenswold, Jr., attorney for the Aad Temple Building association, of an appeal from the decision of Judge Dancer on the armory referendum case, decided last week in favor of the Shriners.

Early next week the city attorney will prepare his arguments for filing with the supreme court, so that the case can be heard by the higher body as early as possible.

Judge Dancer last week ordered the city to sell the old armory to the fraternity, on the grounds that the referendum petitioners did not have ten additional days in which to prepare an amendment to their petition.

An appeal to the supreme court was ordered by the city commissioners last week, when Commissioners Farrell, Merritt and Voss voted to take the case to the higher court.

MOTHER GETS CHILD FOR SIX WEEKS EACH YEAR

Charging her mother with being a "kidnaper," Jennie S. Van Leuven Sullivan, divorced wife of Carl S. Van Leuven of this city, today filed an affidavit in district court asking that statements made in affidavits submitted by Mrs. L. F. Hight be disregarded.

Judge Dancer today granted the custody of the child, Harry, to Mrs. Sullivan, between June 20 and Aug. 1 of each year. The child will remain in the custody of its father, Carl S. Van Leuven, during the remainder of the time.

The Van Leuvens were divorced last year.

AMERICAN CONSUL IS FOUND DEAD AT ROME

Rome, March 4, via Paris.—William F. Kelley, the American consul here, was found dead in a chair shortly before the breakfast hour today. Death was probably due to heart disease.

DAY IN CONGRESS

SENATE.

Brandeis hearing continued.
Resumed debate on Shields water power bill.

HOUSE.

Considered war claim bills and legislative appropriation bill.
House leaders and rules committee members conferred over plans to table resolutions to warn Americans off armed ships.

FIRST DEFENSE BILL REACHES THE SENATE

Washington, March 4.—The senate army bill was introduced today by Chairman Chamberlain of the military committee. It proposes the most thorough measures of military preparedness ever presented to congress in peace times and is the first of the national defense bills urged by President Wilson to be completed and introduced.

LEGAL NOTICES.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION —OF— H. S. WENGER, INCORPORATED.

We, the undersigned, for the purpose of forming a corporation under and pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 58 of the General Statutes of Minnesota, 1913, and the Acts amendatory thereof, and to this end hereby sign and adopt the following certificate of incorporation:

ARTICLE I.

The name of this corporation shall be H. S. WENGER, INCORPORATED, and its principal place of business shall be at Duluth, Minnesota, although said corporation may have an office and transact business at any other place or places in the United States or elsewhere; the general nature of its business shall be to conduct a store or stores for the purchase, manufacture and sale at retail and wholesale of raw and tan furs, fur and cloth garments of every kind and description, and everything pertaining to the fur business, including the storage of fur and cloth garments, generally to manufacture, buy, sell, exchange and deal in the above specified articles and commodities, and in all materials used in the manufacture of each, any and all of such articles.

ARTICLE II.

The time of the commencement of this corporation shall be the 6th day of March, 1916.

ARTICLE III.

The names and places of residence of the persons forming this corporation are:

H. S. Wenger of Duluth, Minnesota;
Benj. M. Goldberg of Duluth, Minnesota;
E. P. Kennedy of Duluth, Minnesota, and
Mina MacVeigh of Duluth, Minnesota.

ARTICLE IV.

The management of this corporation shall be vested in a Board of three Directors, who shall be elected annually on the first Monday of March, unless otherwise provided by the by-laws, from which Board of Directors shall be selected, in the manner prescribed by the by-laws, a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer. The offices of Secretary and Treasurer may be held by the same person.

The names and places of residence of those forming the first Board of Directors until the first election are: H. S. Wenger of Duluth, Minnesota; Benj. M. Goldberg of Duluth, Minnesota, and E. P. Kennedy of Duluth, Minnesota.

The first meeting of the Directors of this corporation may be held March 6, 1916, at 404 Columbia Building, Duluth, Minnesota.

ARTICLE V.

The amout of the capital stock of this corporation shall be Twenty-five Thousand ($25,000.00) Dollars, to be paid in cash or property, or both, as may be determined by the Board of Directors; said capital stock shall be divided into two hundred fifty (250) shares at a par value of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars each.

ARTICLE VI.

The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which this corporation shall at any time be subject is Fifty Thousand ($50,000.00) Dollars.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have hereunto set our hands and seals this 1st day of March, A. D. 1916.

H. S. WENGER. (Seal)
BENJ. M. GOLDBERG. (Seal)
E. P. KENNEDY. (Seal)
MINA MACVEIGH. (Seal)

Signed and Sealed
In Presence of:
M. L. LARSON.
H. E. BOYLE.

State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis —ss.

On this 1st day of March, A. D. 1916, before me, a Notary Public within and for said County, personally appeared H. S. Wenger, Benj. M. Goldberg, E. P. Kennedy and Mina MacVeigh, to me personally known to be the persons described in and who executed the foregoing instrument, and who acknowledged the same as their free act and deed.

H. E. BOYLE,
Notary Public,
St. Louis Co., Minn.

My commission expires Oct. 14, 1923. (Notarial Seal, St. Louis Co., Minn.)

State of Minnesota, Department of State.

I hereby certify that the within instrument was filed for record in this office on the 2nd day of March, A. D. 1916, at 9 o'clock A. M., and was duly recorded in Book B-4 of Incorporations, on page 333.

JULIUS A. SCHMAHL, E.
Secretary of State.

OFFICE OF REGISTER OF DEEDS.
State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis —ss.

I hereby certify that the within instrument was filed in this office for record March 3, 1916, at 8:30 A. M., and was duly recorded in Book 15 of Misc., page 600.

CHAS. CALLIGAN,
Register of Deeds.
By C. L. LOFGREN,
Deputy.

D. H., March 3, 4, 1916.

ORDER LIMITING TIME TO FILE CLAIMS, AND FOR HEARING THEREON—

State of Minnesota,
County of St. Louis—ss.
In Probate Court. In the Matter of the Estate of Martin Boyle, Decedent.

Letters testamentary this day having been granted to W. J. Powers, it is ordered, That the time within which all creditors of the above named decedent may present claims against his estate in this court be, and the same hereby is, limited to three months from and after the date hereof; and that the 6th day of June, 1916, at ten o'clock A. M., in the Probate Court Rooms at the Court House at Duluth, in said County, be, and the same hereby is, fixed and appointed as the time and place for hearing upon the examination, adjustment and allowance of such claims as shall be presented within the time aforesaid. Let notice hereof be given by the publication of this order in The Duluth Herald, as provided by law.

Dated, Duluth, Minn., March 2, 1916.
S. W. GILPIN,
Judge of Probate.

Seal, Probate Ct., St. Louis Co., Minn.
LEO A. BALL,
Attorney for Administrator.
D. H., March 4, 11 and 18, 1916.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

Discard the Old Coat Wear a New Spring Style

Your old winter coat has served its purpose. Now it shows the ravages of time—its usefulness is over. SPRING DEMANDS A NEW ATTIRE. And listen—never have we shown such an assortment of

Real Classy

TOPCOATS

For Men and Young Men

They are the acme of perfection. Our assortment comprises all the latest features; priced at—

$18-$20-$22.50

YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD
And it's so convenient—you pay as you are paid.

GATELY'S
H. L. Nelson Gen. Mgr.
DULUTH - SUPERIOR - VIRGINIA - HIBBING

SERVICE FIRST
D. H., 3-4-16.

Economical Power

You Can Cut Costs in Your Factory and Increase Production by Installing Electric Drive

We save you the expense of boilers, engines, cumbersome shafting and other costly steam equipment. You pay only for the actual power used. Electric Power is ready day or night at the turn of a switch.

Let us show you the many economies of Electric Power.

Duluth-Edison Electric Company
216 West First Street.

DULUTH EDISON ELECTRIC COMPANY
SERVICE FIRST

GERMAN PAPERS ARE SUFFERING

Less Receipts From Advertising and Expenses Greatly Increased.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Berlin, Feb. 11.—Although the war has naturally caused a great increase in the reading of newspapers, this fact appears to have brought no pecuniary advantage to the newspapers themselves. This is evident from a statement just issued by the society of German newspaper publishers, given out at a convention held in Berlin. This statement says that the public holds quite erroneous views about the prosperity of the newspapers; that while they have, indeed, increased their sales receipts from advertising—the largest source of income from all newspapers—have been sharply reduced in some cases by more than one-half. On the other hand, the expenses in the editorial departments have greatly increased, and the cost of paper has become such a serious matter as to cause the suspension of a number of publications. The statement appeals to the government to fix maximum prices for paper, in order to insure the continued and regular publication of the newspapers. The government is also asked to adopt measures, after consultation with the Society of Publishers, for restricting the consumption of paper as long as the war lasts.

Reo cars give service.

Mandan to Pave.

Mandan, N. D., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—At a meeting of the board of city commissioners an advertisement for bids was authorized on the paving of thirty-five blocks on seven streets in the residence districts. Engineer Rundlett, formerly of St. Paul, addressed the commissioners and indorsed the plans as provided by City Engineers Black and Griffin.

St. Paul Boy to Siberia.

St. Paul, Minn., March 4.—Robert F. Leonard of St. Paul, son of the Rev. H. G. Leonard, pastor of Hamline Methodist Episcopal church, will sail today for Europe to work throughout the remainder of the war in the prison camps of Siberia under the direction of the international committee of the Young Men's Christian association. He is a senior at Wesleyan university.

Women's Clubs at Ashland.

Ashland, Wis., March 4.—The Eleventh district convention of the Wisconsin Federation of Women's Clubs will be held in this city April 12 and 13.

1916 MARCH 1916

SUN.	MON.	TUE.	WED.	THU.	FRI.	SAT.
			1	2	3	4
5	6	7	8	9	10	11
12	13	14	15	16	17	18
19	20	21	22	23	24	25
26	27	28	29	30	31

MARK YOUR CALENDAR FIRST 10 DAYS MARCH

All Accounts Opened and All Deposits Made

FIRST 10 DAYS OF MARCH DRAW INTEREST FROM MARCH 1

NORTHERN NATIONAL BANK,
ALWORTH BUILDING
No Stairs to Climb. Ground Floor Entrance.

"BEYOND THE POINT OF ROCKS"

BRANCH MANAGER: HERMAN OLSON, 1823 West Superior Street.
Advertising Subscription Distribution

MIDSUMMER DAY PROGRAM

Swedish-American League Will Make Preliminary Arrangements.

Election Will Also Be Held at Meeting Monday Night.

The Swedish - American National league comprising committees representing practically every Swedish lodge and society in the city, will hold its annual meeting Monday evening at Batchelors hall, Nineteenth avenue west and First street. Election of officers and the making of preliminary plans for the celebration of mid-summer's day on June 24 will be the principal business transacted.

O. W. Olson is the president of the organization. The other officers are Hjalmar Edlund, vice president; J. O. Larson, secretary; and Gust Hjerpe, treasurer. Most of these officers have been reappointed to the membership of the league from the organizations they represent.

The organizations represented in the league are as follows: Sons of Sweden Lodge No. 176, Gosta Lodge No. 248, and Gustaf Adolph Lodge No. 255, Order of Vasa, North Star Lodge No. 11, and Morning Star Lodge No. 17, I. O. G. T., Frimad Lodge No. 43, Order of Svithiod; S. H. and E. F., the Zenith City band, Svea Glee club, and the Orpheus Singing society.

Members of the society say that there will be no steps taken to change the name of the society eliminating the hyphen. The members are, they say, thoroughly American, and the name Swedish is used to designate the country from which its membership is descended and whose old time custom is being followed out in the celebration of mid-summer's day.

The celebration this year will fall on a Saturday. Elaborate preparations will be made to have this celebration the biggest affair ever held by the league in this city. The celebration will be held at Lincoln park as in former years, according to members of the league.

CHURCH INSTALLS ELECTRIC SIGN

Grace M. E. Shows Progressive Spirit; Starts Two-Weeks' Revival.

Beginning tomorrow evening, a series of revival meetings will be conducted at Grace Methodist church, Twenty-second avenue west and Third street. Rev. J. Emmett Porter, pastor of the church, will have charge. The revivals will continue for two weeks according to present plans.

A special feature of advertising for the church has just been installed in front of the edifice. A handsome electric sign eight feet long and two feet wide has been hung. This sign carries the name of the church, "Grace," in large letters. Sixty-four electric globes are in the sign.

So far this sign is the first of its kind to be used to call attention to a church in this city. It is similar to many of the business signs, advertising stores on principal streets of the city and is useful not only in calling attention to the church but for lighting up the neighborhood. The sign was installed this week.

DATE IS CHANGED.

Second Presbyterian Missionary Society Will Meet on Thursday.

The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Second Presbyterian church, 1515 West Superior street, will hold its meeting at the church next Thursday afternoon instead of Wednesday as formerly announced. Mrs. J. A. Ledingham will have charge of the home mission subject and read a paper on "The Aftermath of the War." The foreign topic will be "Japan," with Mrs. A. F. Swanstrom as leader.

At the close of the meeting a social hour will be conducted. Tea will be served between 5 and 7 o'clock. The hostesses will be Mrs. E. V. Campbell, Mrs. C. C. McManus, Mrs. C. S. Stevens, Mrs. Bekhering, Mrs. Charles Rickard, Mrs. Sloan, Mrs. Ramsey, Mrs. Rooney, Mrs. Joseph McManus and Mrs. Stebner.

MEN'S CLUB BANQUET.

Event at St. Peter's Episcopal Church Attended By Many Guests.

The Men's Club of St. Peter's Episcopal church, Twenty-eighth avenue west and First street, entertained 160 guests last evening at its annual banquet, held in the club rooms of the church. The supper was served at 7 o'clock by the members of Rebekah guild.

Following the supper a program of informal talks was given. Rev. W. E. Harmann, rector of the church, was toastmaster. The principal addresses were given by Mayor W. I. Prince, who spoke of the welfare work being carried out by the city; Dr. A. W. Ryan, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church; Mason M. Forbes, assistant county attorney, who touched on the correction work as instituted by the county authorities; Rev. H. J. Wolner of Virginia, and W. A. Pittinger.

The musical numbers included vocal selections by A. R. Burquist, who was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Burquist; Charles Holmstrom, accompanied by Miss May Bark, and a vocal solo by Rev. Mr. Wilner.

EPWORTH LEAGUE OF DISTRICT BEGINS SESSIONS

A sacred concert, given last night at the First Norwegian-Danish M. E. church, Twenty-fourth avenue west and Third street, featured the opening of the annual meeting of the cabinet of the Red River valley district, Epworth League. The business sessions of the cabinet will be held at the Superior church this afternoon and evening and tomorrow.

Among the principal speakers at the meeting of the district Epworth League will be Rev. C. A. Joransen of McVille, N. D., Rev. Gustav Kyvsgaard of Virginia; Rev. Paul Haugan of Grand Forks, N. D., superintendent of the Red River valley district for the Norwegian-Danish M. E. church; Rev. H. A. Ofstie, pastor of the First church, and Rev. Eugene Nelson, pastor of Bethany church of West Duluth. Rev. Mr. Nelson is president of the Duluth district.

Program at Swedish M. E.

A musical program will feature the services to be held tomorrow evening at the First Swedish Methodist church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street. The program will include choir and orchestra numbers, instrumental and vocal solos. Rev. C. W. R. Wermine will preach on the subject "What Shall We Do?"

West End Briefs.

Mrs. P. L. Whalen, 114 North Twenty-fifth avenue west, is reported ill at her home.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Emmett Porter, 310 North Twenty-second avenue west, will entertain this evening for the junior choir of the Grace Methodist church.

The funeral service for Earl, the 4-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Larson, 702 Garfield avenue, who died yesterday, was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the residence. Interment was in Park Hill cemetery. Rev. O. A. Eckstrom had charge of the service.

The Epworth League of the First Swedish Methodist church was entertained at a social at the church last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wang of Minneapolis left for their home last night after spending a week visiting West end relatives.

Olson & Hoppenyan, undertakers, 2014 West Superior street. Both phones.

GRAND PRE-LENTEN BALL
LETTER CARRIERS
Auditorium
MONDAY, MARCH 6
Tickets, 50c Extra Ladies, 25c
Helmer's Orchestra
LAST BALL BEFORE LENT

CHOSEN LEADER OF LOCAL AUTO DEALERS

ALEX DAVIS,
President.

Alex Davis, chairman of the executive committee of the Duluth Automobile Dealers' association during the recent automobile show, was elected president of the organization for the ensuing year at a meeting in the St. Louis hotel yesterday. He will succeed E. J. Filiatrault, who was chosen the first president of the association.

The other officers named follow: H. B. Knudsen, vice president; Joseph T. Peacha, Jr., secretary, and M. W. Turner, treasurer. The last two were re-elected.

WANTED TO RENT

Modern eight or nine-room house in East End. Write T 702, Herald.

ITASCA COUNTY GETTING RESULTS

Reaping Benefits From Its Energetic Advertising Campaign.

E. C. Kiley, owner and editor of the Grand Rapids Herald-Review, also postmaster of Grand Rapids, Minn., and the most inveterate of all Northern Minnesota boosters, declared here today that Itasca county is just beginning to reap the benefit of the immense amount of advertising Northern Minnesota and Itasca county in particular have received during the last two or three years.

"We are progressing and beginning to see real and material benefits from the advertisement our section of the state has been receiving," said Mr. Kiley, who is in Duluth today. "Logging lands are being settled, the railroads doing their part in securing settlers. The Itasca Lumber company has opened its cutover lands and is going after settlers energetically. We believe that many settlers will come to Itasca county during the present year, and in the matter of progress, we take some pride in believing that Itasca county is going to set a lurid pace for some of the other Northeastern Minnesota counties to follow."

Mandan School Election.

Mandan, N. D., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The city board of education has called a special board election for Saturday, March 18, when the taxpayers will vote on the proposition of bonding the district for $20,000. The money will be used in building an addition to the high school.

West End Undertaking Company
2118 WEST FIRST STREET.
Nyberg & Crawford, Managers.

BACTERIAL COUNT LOW

City's Milk Supply Averaged But 42,000 During February.

Milk sold by Duluth dairies during February averaged better than in other months in the bacterial tests, according to the report of Gust Hedman, milk inspector, filed this morning with Health Director Fahey.

The bacterial average per cubic centimeter of milk was 42,101 during February, according to the report, while the butter fat average is reported slightly lower. The reason for this, states Inspector Hedman, is that the dairymen are careless in stirring their milk.

Although the state allows 300,000 bacteria per cubic centimeter of milk, city officials are anxious to keep this maximum around the 100,000 mark, in order to insure a purer milk supply for the city.

The bacterial count for Duluth dairies during February follows:

C. A. Johnson	33,000
William Muckart	10,000
J. Pikkarainen	25,000
Ad. Hendrickson	47,000
Bridegman - Russell company (pasteurized)	5,000
P. Duty	87,000
J. U. Sebenius	12,000
T. H. Johnson	10,000
Emil Takala	26,000
S. J. Norman	45,000
Anton Moe	2,000
O. Wickman	59,000
La Tour Bros.	10,000
Huttel Bros.	10,000
Alb. Anderson	14,000
Lindgren Bros.	90,000
Aug. Anderson	21,000
Charles A. Huttel	218,000
Woodland Dairy	5,000
J. Bjorken	32,000
Northern Creamery company (pasteurized)	52,000
Modern Dairy Co. (pasteurized)	15,000
Thomas Stabenfeldt	169,000
O. M. Olson	100,000
Mrs. Agnes Hanson	5,000
Erick Holmrude	4,000
Walter Janow	29,000
Frank Schubesky	20,000
S. Rivenes	21,000
J. Missy	33,000
J. R. Grady	321,000
Bjerkan & Oss	5,000
Dinkel & Ingram	133,000
Sivert Anderson	22,000
Bjerkan & Oss	49,000
J. Gatzke	137,000
P. J. Hickey	14,000
Carl Claus	110,000
Abe Cohn	145,000
N. Emden	22,000
Caribou Farms	15,000
C. F. Colman	22,000
W. H. Sargent	26,000
Carl Carlson	43,000
John Rivenes	12,000
Axel Salin	18,000
E. C. McMinn	5,000

ELY LOCAL NOTES.

Ely, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rapson entertained at a snowshoe party on Thursday evening at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Rapson on Long lake, where all enjoyed several hours around a big fireplace of burning logs. The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Henry Chinn, T. C. Miller, H. E. White, W. E. England, Thomas McLoughlin, William Mitchell and J. Brown.

Mrs. Henry Berg was hostess to a number of her friends at a thimble bee Friday afternoon. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess assisted by her sister, Faye Doten and Miss Corey. Those present: Mesdames R. S. Miller, J. Brown, R. Hodge, Henry Chinn, C. L. Mergenhaler, William Olds, J. C. Mapon, W. E. England, H. E. White, T. E. Miller, S. Rapson, H. S. King, D. Brown and Miss Wallace.

Mrs. E. C. Moore left Friday morning for a few days' visit in Duluth.

Misses Mabel Smith and Lois Anderson left Friday for Duluth to spend the week-end.

Biwabik Man Buried.

Biwabik, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The funeral of Andy Stowell, who passed away at the Biwabik hospital on Tuesday from an attack of pneumonia, was held Friday at 2:30 p. m., at the Methodist church, the Rev. W. G. Fritz officiating. The Eagles had charge. Besides a mother, Mr. Stowell leaves several brothers and sisters who reside at Greenville, Mich.

The pallbearers were: James Scanlon, Henry Cox, P. Madden, J. J. Kelley, M. Cohan and Steve Patrick. Interment being at the Lakeside cemetery.

New Biwabik Restaurant.

Biwabik, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hayes of Virginia last Wednesday opened a restaurant at Malcolm Anderson's old stand, next to Frank Anderson's saloon. The place has been completely remodeled.

Tower's Police Chief.

Tower, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—H. D. Olson has been appointed chief of police by Mayor Andrew Bystrom. Following the policy of retrenchment decided upon, City Treasurer Jalmar Pearson will collect electric light bills formerly collected on a percentage basis.

Aurora Rebekahs Dance.

Aurora, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Rebekahs gave a basket social and dance at their hall last night. The affair was well attended.

Gilbert Beats Aurora.

Aurora, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Gilbert high school basket ball team won over Aurora here in a fast game last night, 17 to 13. The visitors showed much speed and accuracy while things broke bad for the locals at critical stages. The lineups: Aurora—Center, Martindale; guards, G. Rye and Mattonen; forwards, O. Rye and Kovach. Gilbert—Center, Freeman; guards, Hoskings and Khyri; forwards, Indinar brothers.

Mounted Deer to Duluth.

Ely, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Taxidermist Schaefer has just shipped a large group of mounted deer to Duluth to the Mutual Auto company, where they will be on exhibition.

Looks Like Foul Play.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 4.—The finding of his battered derby hat, together with a hammer and a burlap bag with blood stains near his home, leads the police here to believe that Adolph Sikofsky, aged 35, who is missing, met with foul play after withdrawing $5,100 from a local bank Thursday. Sikofsky was a peddler and recently came here from Appleton, Wis.

Ashland Jury Disagrees.

Ashland, Wis., March 4.—A circuit court jury that heard the cas eagainst F. Erickson, a local liquor dealer, appealed from municipal court, where he was convicted was unable to agree and the case will be tried again. Chris Nelson's $10,000 damage suit against the Omaha railroad for injuries sustained at Boles Cut, near Ashland Junction, is on trial.

Why take a chance when you can get a Reo at a fair price?

American Ship Released.

London, March 4.—The American steamship Camino, which was detained by the admiralty for examination has been released. Suspicions entertained against the vessel apparently have been explained satisfactorily.

PAID POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT
Inserted in behalf of the following named candidates by Neil B. Morrison. Amount to be paid, $13.44.

HON. HENRY D. ESTABROOK

—AT—

SPALDING HOTEL,

Tuesday Evening, March 7, at 8 o'Clock.

EVERYBODY INVITED.

Mr. Estabrook is a candidate for the Republican nomination for president.

He is recognized as one of the greatest orators in the United States.

Neil B. Morrison is a candidate as delegate-at-large.

A. D. MacIntyre and W. W. Crawford are delegates for this district.

J. L. WASHBURN WILL PRESIDE AT THE MEETING.

HIGH SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

Central Students Make Poorer Showing in Scholarship; Circus By Lambs' Club; School Orchestra Makes Hit With Its First Program; Girls' Quint Will Meet Moose Lake Team.

The first month of the second semester has closed at Central high school, and the students are well into the second month. The reports for the first month were issued last week. According to the honor roll, which was compiled by Principal Young, there was a slight decrease in the number of successful students, and the work of the first month of the semester was somewhat below the average.

There were 113 students on both the "A" and "B" lists, the totals being well divided between the four classes. A student who receives a mark of 90 or above in at least four studies is entitled to consideration in the "A" roll, while marks of 90 or above in at least three studies classes him in the "B" division. The seniors had the largest number on the "A" list, while the freshmen had the largest representation on the "B" roll.

Now that the students have become well settled following the changes incidental to the opening of the new semester, it is expected that their work will improve appreciably. The Easter vacation is not far away, this being the last important rest of the year. Following this the students will settle into the long grind that culminates with the closing of school in June.

• • •

The all-important event and topic of discussion at school this week has been the big circus which the members of the Lambs' club, the official school dramatic society, will stage in the main building this afternoon and evening.

The main ring was at the intersection of the two lower hall corridors. Here the visitors were delighted with the unbelieveable "stunts" of the mighty strong man, the performances of adept acrobats, and the comical antics of the numerous clowns. On every hand the visitors were hailed with greetings of the advertisers of the various side shows. Yielding to some of the more entreating of the noisy brigade, the visitors found themselves amidst the uncanny surroundings of the famous Den of Horrors, wandering through the quaint and interesting museum, listening to the songs of the minstrels and the jokes of the end men, being enjoyably surprised by the novelty of the much-talked-of Fish Pool; having their past, present and future life revealed by the low voice of the fortune-teller, or being pleasantly surprised by innumerable other original features.

All in all, the affair was a decided success. As a result of the big affair the school stage will receive many long-needed additions in the way of scenery, curtains, etc. The affair is being managed by Norman Tufty, ably assisted by the members of the organization, who are divided into groups to manage the several divisions.

• • •

As an introduction to the big circus, which the members of the Lambs' club are holding today, "The Sleeping Car," a one-act comedy written by W. D. Howells, was successfully presented by a selected cast of seven members of the club yesterday morning in chapel.

From beginning to end the little playlet was a "scream" and kept the students in uproarious laughter throughout. The sketch described in an interesting as well as humerous manner the numerous complications which arose when a young newly-wed attempted to find his wife during a commotion in the sleeping car of a train. The affair made a decided hit with the students and proved a big success toward introducing the circus.

The cast was ably coached by Lee C. Rasey of the school English department. The arrangement of the scenery and the stage settings were successfully cared for by Monich Altman. The members of the cast and the parts which they filled were as follows: Mrs. Roberts, Eleanor Currie; Mr. Roberts, Neil Upham; the Californian, John Ahlen; Willis Campbell, Donald Alexander; Aunt Mary, Frederica Tuteur; the porter, Charles Le Richeux; the conductor, Edwin Pearson.

• • •

The first public appearance of the new high school orchestra was made yesterday morning in chapel when several selections were played to accompany the Lambs' club actors in the presentation of "The Sleeping Car." Their work was excellent, considering the fact that it was their first appearance in public. The orchestra was organized only a short time ago, and it is considered that they made especially rapid strides in developing into an organization that could play together so well. The orchestra made a decided hit with the students and their numbers were well received.

The orchestra was led by Mrs. Anne Dixon, head of the school music department. The members of the organization and the instruments which they played are as follows: First violins, David Black, Roy Stromgren, Harry Segal, Victor Poteick; second violins, Anna Litman, Lauretta Capri, Margaret Peterson; cellos, Kenneth Jones, Winnifred Crawford; trombone, Norman Spearin; cornet, Hastings Barber; flute, Norman Tufty; drums and traps, Ward Luxon; piano, Esther McDonald.

• • •

The Central girls' basket ball team will meet the Moose Lake girls' quint this evening in the school gymnasium. This is the second meeting between the two teams, Central having won the first game on the Moose Lake floor by the score of 16 to 3.

The Duluth Central girls' team has not been defeated in two years. They have met the very best girls' teams in this part of the country, but they have not as yet been able to meet an equal opponent. The Moose Lake quint has been strengthened considerably since their first game with Central, and they are coming up confident of winning.

Next Thursday the Two Harbors girls' team will be met at the range town. The girls from the north have one of the strongest teams in this part of the country and the game is expected to be an interesting one.

The lineup of the Duluth team this evening will be as follows: Kugler (captain) and Whiteside, forwards; Lutes, center; Morterud, Henley and Morey, guards.

• • •

The interclass championship of the hockey league has not as yet been decided, and the title will probably be placed next week. Last week the juniors turned the tables by defeating the seniors by the score of 4 to 1, and the sophomores swamped the freshmen by the score of 20 to 2.

As a result there is a triple tie for first place, the seniors, juniors and sophomores all making equal bids for the championship. It is planned to hold the deciding games next Wednesday.

• • •

Clarence Thomas, Central's enthusiastic and popular yell leader, left Duluth today for St. Paul, where in the future he will be a student at the Mechanics Arts high school of that place. He was vice president of the Athletic association, president of the Industrial club and one of the most popular fellows in school. As a yell leader he was unequaled, always managing to get the greatest amount of enthusiasm out of the crowds. He will be sorely missed by the students of Central.

Fire in Abandoned Town.

Grand Harbor, N. D., March 4.—Fire got the lead in the contest with the housemovers to wipe out Grand Harbor, when the two-story school building here was destroyed while the few remaining residents of the once thriving town watched the flames. Grand Harbor once was the most thriving point west of Grand Forks.

Oshkosh Strike Settled.

Oshkosh, Wis., March 4.—By a vote of 488 to 50, the striking workmen of the Paine Lumber company Friday decided to accept the terms of settlement outlined in a written agreement prepared by the special committee named for that purpose. The exact terms of the proposition were not given out.

Winter Carnival and Ice Palace.

Beautiful Lake Nebagamon.

The South Shore will run a special excursion train Sunday, March 5th, 1916, leaving Duluth Soo Line station 1 p. m. Low excursion fares.

SPRING CLOTHES
—of—
artistic elegance; tailored to your personal requirements — select yours now!

WM. ROECHER
—Agent for—
THE PRICE TAILORING CO. OF CHICAGO,
The World's Largest Tailors.
501 Manhattan Bldg.

DRAMA VAUDEVILLE MOTION PICTURES

COMMENT ON PLAYS AND PLAYERS — WHAT THE PRESS AGENTS PROMISE

LEONORE ULRICH, who was the original Luana in "The Bird of Paradise," which has been at the Lyceum all week, is appearing this week in a new play on Broadway, "The Heart of Wetona."

Before Charles Frohman went to his death on the Lusitania he arranged with David Belasco to make a number of joint productions. One of these was a play by George Scarborough. "The Heart of Wetona," originally called "Oklahoma."

Wetona is the daughter of an Indian chief and the story told is the love of this Indian maid for a white man, a young government civil engineer. Unknown to Wetona, John Hardin, an Indian agent, is in love with her, and the dramatic conflict is heightened by the fact that the Indians trust Hardin and dislike heartily the engineer.

Mr. Belasco staged the play with a cast that includes John Miltern, William Courtleigh, Lowell Sherman, Edward L. Snader, Curtis Cooksey, H. G. Carleton, Langdon West, Leonore Ulrich, Ethel Benton and Isabel O'Madigan.

* * *

RUTH ST. DENIS has finally reaped the rich reward of a long engagement in vaudeville at a big salary after many years of pioneering in the field of esthetic dancing.

For two weeks Miss St. Denis packed the Palace theater in New York, a feat which the greatly entrepreneours of the varieties usually reward with a tour of their principal houses. A return engagement in the spring at this aristocrat of vaudeville theaters is also promised the dancer.

Miss St. Dens' road to the golden goal has been a tortuous one. She has danced around the world year after year, acquiring a small but loyal following, but never till now achieving real popularity. At last it has come, and she feels that she is no longer a prophet without honor in her own country. Miss St. Denis believes that America is at the threshold of a dance renaissance, and that this important but neglected form of expression will receive more and more its due in the future.

* * *

HEAR what William C. de Mille of the Lasky forces has to say in the New York Times about the medium to which he now devotes his talents:

"In the year 1915 there were roughly 2,900,000,000 paid admissions to the moving-picture theaters of the United States. This means an average attendance of twenty-nine times per year for every man, woman, and child in the country—or once a week for half the population of the country. Figures like these imply a great responsibility on the part of those who supply this tremendous demand, and men are now entering the field who are by training and artistry qualified to accept the responsibility.

"As the new art of the photodrama develops it will differentiate itself more and more from the 'speakies,' as certain zealous partisans call the older art. During the past year the photoplay has been getting closer to the spoken play in order to acquire certain elements of dramatic construction, but having acquired them it will, from now on, move along its own line of development, and the photoplay of the future will be even less like the drama than the photoplay of the past. The photoplay also is too big to be dominated by a small group of men as the theater has been. In its development it will reflect more truly than the drama the ideals of the mass, because the photodrama is not subject to local opinion; it needs no Broadway verdict, and is quite independent of the opinion of New York, the least American of any city in America."

SCENE FROM "THE YELLOW JACKET," At the Lyceum March 9, 10 and 11.

"YELLOW JACKET" UNUSUAL PLAY

Only Scenery Is That in Minds of the Spectators.

The principal charm of that delightful play, "The Yellow Jacket," which will be presented at the Lyceum three days, March 9, 10 and 11, with Saturday matinee, will be found to lie in the artlessness, the simplicity, the unstudied dignity with which the story is unfolded.

"It is so real—real in the sense that a child's solitary games of make-believe are real," says a recent criticism. "And there is poetry in almost every line of it, that highest poetry which springs straight from the imagination. Here is no scenery save that which is conjured up by the players to serve as background for their action; nor is anything tangible needed, because everything that is essential—just so much and no more—exists in the mind. To give one or two instances. The hero, sick of his first experiences of life, puts a noose round his neck, and declares he will hang himself from the willow tree yonder. There is no willow tree, but the property man—a most important person, as will be seen—produces a long bamboo pole, with a cord attached, from which the desperate youth suspends himself. With eyes closed and ear on shoulder the illusion is perfect.

"Or, again, in the opening act, when the first wife is beheaded. At the precise moment when the blow is suggested the property man screens the victim's face with a small red flag, and almost simultaneously hands to the slayer a bundle, which takes the place of the head—is the head, in fact, to all practical purposes. Or, once more comes illusion when a high personage announces that he is entering on his milk-white steed. Horse there is none, yet all that one needs in that respect is supplied, first, by the attitude of the 'rider' as he struts in, and next by the simulated sound of the animal's hoofs. And yet again, when we are supposed to be witnessing a scene inside a room, the characters, on entering, stride over an imaginary doorstep with admirable effect.

"And the 'property man' is silent, impersonal, and to all seeming, and properly so, quite indifferent to that which is happening. But he is always at hand, to supply the needful, whatever it may be—a cup of tea, a sword, a chair, a ladder, a mountain, a rushing stream, even a snowstorm—and all the time he smokes, or drinks, or eats with complete unconcern."

POPULAR VAUDEVILLE AT NEW GRAND

Four Rennee Girls Head Interesting Show for Next Week.

The New Grand this week-end presents a varied and diversified bill, each act as well as the excellent photoplays eliciting plenty of applause from the capacity audiences which are the rule at that popular playhouse. Comedy, dancing, music and novelty make up the offerings and balance the bill. Comedy, songs and witty talk are distributed in large packages by Kelly and Galvin. The characters are the actor and the Italian, and the fun is obtained through the eccentricities peculiar to both.

Roy and Arthur offer an eccentric juggling oddity entitled "Fun in a Dining Car." Tricks and pantomime all handled in a artistic manner give the act a classy standard that registers it one of the big hits of the program.

Alvarez and Martell offer a melange of artistic terpsichorean numbers, songs that are new and original and some witty chatter. Miss Martell's special gowns and her millinery creations, together with special scenery, add greatly to an artistic divertissement.

Willing and Jordon, in songs of the day, offer a repertoire of new and catchy selections, many of which are picked from the late musical comedies and popular operas.

Toplining among the photoplays is "The Man in Him," a two-reel subject telling the story of a man wrongly convicted of larceny, which cost him everything dear to him in life, and how his manhood asserted itself when he found his betrayer. Animated cartoons of greater New York; "The Guiding Hand," an excellent drama, and the Selig Tribune news of interesting events from the world over make up the rest of the program.

The new bill opening Monday matinee is headed by the Four Rennee Girls, who offer a European singing and dancing scenic revue, entitled "Through Five Countries." "Between Trains," a comedy of domestic strife; Paden and Reed, black and white funsters, and Frank Ward, impersonator, comedian, monologist and all-arounu entertainer, are prominent among the vaudeville offerings.

"Beyond the Laws," a tale of the North woods in three acts, featuring E. H. Calvert and Margaret Clayton, toplines the photoplays. The scenes for this drama were made in this vicinity and in a logging camp near Virginia, Minn., by the Essanay company. Two excellent comedies make up the remainder of the program. On Tuesday and Wednesday another of the popular Stingaree stories will be added to the bill.

NANCE O'NEIL, Who Will Be Seen in "Souls in Bondage" at the Zelda Next Week.

At the Lyric.

FAMOUS STARS COMING TO ZELDA

Marguerite Snow and Nance O'Neil Are Week's Attractions.

For the week commencing tomorrow, the Zelda will present one of the strongest programs ever shown at this popular photoplay house.

Opening the bill for three days, beginning Sunday, will be that magnetic screen star, Marguerite Snow, better known as "Pretty Peggy" to movie fans. Miss Snow is starred in Metro's latest, "The Upstart," which is a sparkling satirical comedy drama in five acts of exquisite photoplay, based upon the successful stage production of the same name.

It is founded upon a young man's opposition to divorce, as a social evil, although the play does not pretend to preach any moral.

Miss Snow is ably assisted by the popular juvenile actor, George Le Guerre, and an excellent cast of other screen favorites.

One of the greatest stars of them all, Nance O'Neil, in "Souls in Bondage," will be the feature attraction at the Zelda for three days beginning on Wednesday. This film is conceded to be one of the very best of Big Four feature productions and has made a sensation wherever shown. It tells the story of a girl who sacrifices her honor so that her sister may keep her good name and be respected by society.

She is driven from home by her father, and left to roam the streets. Here is what one critic of motion pictures had to say on this feature photodrama:

"To begin with we have here a story which is unusually human, with situations which register in a particularly powerful manner, because of the fact that they readily strike you as a page out of real life."

Miss O'Neil does the best work that she has shown on the screen, there being unusual opportunities for her in this offering.

While this is a tragedy, it is said to be a human, plausible, convincing story.

BILLIE BURKE IN A SCENE FROM THE TRIANGLE-FINE ARTS PLAY "PEGGY." At the Rex, Next Week.

"BILLIE" BURKE TO FEATURE REX SHOW

Winsome Little Actress Will Appear in "Peggy" for Four Days.

When the announcement was made in New York that "Billie" Burke had been engaged to appear in a film, the theatrical public, and that means both producers and patrons, sat up with a full realization that another stage favorite had gone over to the silent drama.

Upon her appearance there in the seven-reel picture, "Peggy," at the Knickerbocker theater, the first-nighters were present, the critics were in their places, and the picture was warmly received and highly praised by both theater-goers and critics. This picture is made of a play written especially for that lovable queen of the footlights, and in it she has lost nothing of her former delightfulness, and according to the New York press seems to have gained in power and winsomeness—the play suits her so well.

Manager Thomas Furniss is bringing the picture to the Rex for a four-day run, beginning Sunday. There will be no advance in prices, but increased features—for F. A. Miller, a singer known as the "Harry Lauder of the Head of the Lakes," will sing Lauder melodies at each performance.

In this Triangle masterpiece, "Peggy" (Miss Burke) as an American girl, is transported to Scotland to visit her uncle and guardian—a Scotsman personified. She horrifies her religious

MORE BURLESQUE AT THE LYCEUM

"The Girls From the Follies" Will Be Seen Here Sunday.

The lovers of burlesque are promised a rare treat when "The Girls From the Follies" will be seen at the Lyceum theater for four days commencing tomorrow matinee with matinee daily.

"Everything new but the title" is the way the press agent puts it and a show "distinctly different from all others," "Cohan in Chinatown," a two-act musical burlesque is the offering which embraces the services of the creative Jew comedian, Harry Steppe, surrounded by some of the very best players to be found in burlesque and vaudeville. Mr. Steppe needs no introduction to lovers of this style of entertainment for he is too well known for his fun making proclivities. In this he plays the part of Misfit Cohen, owner of a second-hand clothing store in Chinatown, New York, where he amasses a fortune and is induced by his wife and daughter to retire and move uptown in a fine residential part of the city. The second act finds him and his family enjoying an evening's entertainment atop the fashionable palace roof garden. He is admirably assisted by Lucille Arnold as Miss Catman Cat, Virginia Wilson as Octava Topnote, Daisy Mayfair as Mulberry, Sue-Maria Revere as Starvation Jane, Hedge Holmes as I. R. Green, Joe Phillips as U. B. Sharp, Harry Van as R. U. Dope and George Ward as Betty Lane. During the action of the farce, fashionable vaudeville is presented. The gowns and costumes of the twenty-five chorus girls will in themselves, it is claimed, establish this as an unusual burlesque show.

Al H. Wilson Coming.

Golden Voiced Singer, Al H. Wilson & Company will present his new periodic comedy song play entitled, "As Years Roll On" at the Lyceum theater, three days, March 30, 31 and April 1.

This comedian's new play is a distinct departure from his former offerings which have heretofore savored of the romantic, since it is strictly up-to-date and enables him to exploit his talents in a series of life's modern phases.

The theme is periodical and has to do firstly with the adventures of dashing, vigorous youth—secondly with the middle age of man, and thirdly with the father of a family just turned 50. It is in three acts each with an elapse of ten years, thus affording abundant opportunity for character acting of a high order.

Mr. Wilson sings six songs during the action. Four of them are: "Yesterday," "As Years Roll On," "Mother Mine" and "She Left Me For a Teddy Bear."

ZELDA ZELDA

TONIGHT ONLY—LILLIAN WALKER In "GREEN STOCKINGS" Special Ladies' & Children's Matinee

SUNDAY—MONDAY—TUESDAY
"THE UPSTART"
Starring MARGUERITE SNOW
Assisted By
GEORCE LeGUERE
A Divorce Problem Play in Five Acts

WEDNESDAY—THURSDAY—FRIDAY
The Sensation of the Year
"SOULS IN BONDAGE"
Starring the Wonderful Emotional Actress
NANCE O'NEIL
She sacrificed her soul, her honor—everything—for her sister. Driven from home, scorned by society, left to roam the street alone. Don't miss it. Big Four's Greatest Production. Any seat, 10c.
"WHERE EVERYBODY GOES." THE ZELDA

POPULAR PLAYS

ZELDA ZELDA

ALWAYS A GOOD SHOW NEW GRAND 11 a.m. UNTIL 11 p.m.
THE THEATER OF INCOMPARABLE AND REFINED ENTERTAINMENT
TODAY AND SUNDAY
The Laughing Sensation of the Season — KELLY & GALVIN — The Actor and the Italian
A Novelty Brimful of Frolic — ROY & ARTHUR — "Fun in a Dining Car"
WILLING & JORDON — Songs of the Day
ALVAREZ & MARTELL — Sunburst of Fashion & Frolic
Photo Plays de Luxe--Concert Orchestra--Selig-Tribune News
COMING MONDAY MATINEE
FOUR RENNEE GIRLS — A RIOT OF COLOR and MUSIC
FRANK WARD — "BETWEEN TRAINS" PADEN & REED
PHOTOPLAY FEATURE BEYOND THE LAWS — E. H. CALVERT & STAR CAST — THREE DRAMATIC ACTS
MATS 10c ANY SEAT NITES 10c-20c

LYCEUM THEATER
4 DAYS COMMENCING MATINEE TOMORROW DAILY MATINEES
20 Girls THE CLASSIEST SHOW IN BURLESQUE 20 Girls
THE ONE FAVORITE COMEDIAN
HARRY STEPPE
A CAST OF ARTISTS AND THE A CHORUS OF BEAUTIES
GIRLS FROM THE FOLLIES
VIRGINIA WILSON, the Melba of Burlesque. Hear HARRY VAN, the Caruso.
Nights and Sunday Matinee....25c to 75c
Daily Matinee.....25c and 50c

3 NIGHTS SATURDAY MATINEE MARCH 9, 10, 11
Mr. and Mrs. Coburn Present
"THE YELLOW JACKET"
By George C. Hazelton and Benrimo.
This romantic comedy has all the wizardy of the Orient. The settings and costumes are gorgeous. There is laughter and love—beauty and wonder. Visit this land of enchantment as did New York for five months.
ORIENTAL ORCHESTRA ON TOUR
Music By William Furst.
NIGHT PRICES.....25c to $1.50
POPULAR MATINEE...25c to $1.00

ORPHEUM STRAND
4 STARTING TOMORROW 4 DAYS ONLY
10c and 20c
WALKER WHITESIDE
In a Mammoth Film Adaptation of ISRAEL ZANGWILL'S Famous Drama
"THE MELTING POT"

DEFECTIVE PAGE

relative by arriving on Sunday in her automobile. She does further things to shock the straight-laced people in the village of Scotland—wears male attire, goes out in her pajamas and altogether, "Peggy" has a lovely time of it.

WILLIAM FARNUM AT LYRIC.

Rugged Screen Star Will Play in "Fighting Blood."

The parts William Farnum plays, of strong, rugged outdoor characters which he makes so real that he fairly lives upon the screen, are said to be well suited to the man in private life.

City life is said to be the bane of Farnum's existence, and his greatest regret in life is that his lot has not been cast in some small country town where he can raise chickens, sheep and pigs, grow his own vegetables and be a real country gentleman.

"Fighting Blood," one of the greatest of Fox pictures, appearing at the Lyric Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, in which Mr. Farnum takes the role of a sturdy Virginia mountaineer, was made in the country near Los Angeles, and it is said that during the weeks while the picture was being made, it was with difficulty that the director of the Fox studios could keep Farnum away from the farm houses where he enjoyed taking a hand at the farm work.

"Man was never made to wear spats and white collars," declares Farnum, and this may account in a way for the success he has in plays where he appears most often in a flannel shirt and boots. He is a red-blooded American, and the play he appears in at the Lyric tomorrow, Tuesday and Wednesday, is truly a Farnum picture in every sense.

FLORENCE STONE COMING.

Will Present "The Marriage Game" at Lyceum on St. Patrick's Day.

To the Lyceum theater, for an afternoon and evening performance, on Friday, March 17, will come Miss Florence Stone and a company of capable players, in one of New York's newest and best comedies, "The Marriage Game."

Miss Stone is by no means a stranger to Duluth theater patrons, having appeared here several years ago in "The Resurrection," "Cleopatra," "La Tosca" and one or two other Sardou plays, and she has also played a brief stock engagement in this city.

The play in which Manager A. G. Bainbridge will present Miss Stone is from the pen of Anne Crawford Flexner, whose clever mind also gave to the amusement-loving world the delightful "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," all of which insures a play of merit, with sprightly and entertaining dialogue.

"The Marriage Game" is a comedy with a long Broadway run to its record, and of it the reviewer of the Evening Telegram (New York city) said: "The Marriage Game" is a play for married folk, and those threatened with matrimony." It tells an interesting story of the experiences of three warring married couples, invited upon a yachting cruise by a bachelor friend of the various families.

Unannounced and likewise unexpected, at the last moment, a "friend" of the host visits the yacht, and is forced, under existing conditions, to become one of the party on the trip. The woman in question, a Mrs. Oliver, is one of whose past the least said the better, suffice to add, that the primrose path has been hers. While possessed of but a shred of reputation, Mrs. Oliver, however, is clothed with a knowledge of earthly affairs, garnered after much contact with the world itself.

As the action of the play, "The Marriage Game," unfolds itself, the three wives are taught many things by the shrewd Mrs. Oliver anent the best way to hold a husband after he has been gotten, a schooling all are exceedingly anxious and willing to profit by.

Manager Bainbridge will bring to Duluth a company of unusual worth, and has provided Miss Stone with an unusually ornate and lavish stage investiture, all of the scenes in "The Marriage Game" being laid on board the bachelor's yacht. The company will give two performances on St. Patrick's day, matinee and evening.

KELLY AND GALVIN.
"The Actor and the Italian" Now at the New Grand.

David Warfield Coming.

When David Belasco brings David Warfield to the Lyceum theater shortly in his latest play, "Van Der Decken," the famous artist, it is promised, will reveal an entirely new phase of his art. As the forlorn and weary sea captain who incurred the wrath of heaven by cursing the winds and waves, and Him who raised them, for delaying his voyage, Mr. Warfield is said to strike out along entirely new lines than those upon which his previous fame and reputation rest. His Van Der Decken is reported to be profoundly moving, and to add another characterization to his steadily increasing gallery of famous stage portraits. Mr. Warfield's engagement at the Lyceum theater precedes his New York appearance at the Belasco theater.

At the Sunbeam.

Manager Ralph Parker of the New Sunbeam theater is more than pleased with the reception given to the opening number of the serial, "The Strange Case of Mary Page," which was given at that popular photoplay house last Wednesday and Thursday. Edna Mayo, who appears in exquisite gowns, designed by "Lucile," Lady Duff Gordon, could not be cast in a part more ideally suited to her than that of Mary Page. She appears more charming than ever, and as an actress she is among the best of the screen favorites. Henry Walthall, who made a remarkable record in "The Birth of a Nation," is again cast in a star role and does his part with consummate skill. The remainder of the cast is excellent.

Next Wednesday and Thursday the second installment of "Mary Page" appears at the Sunbeam, and gives another thrilling episode of the famous story of Frederick Lewis, which was run in the Ladies' World. The Ladies' World has sent postcards to hundreds of Duluthians advertising this photoplay at the Sunbeam, and all persons bringing a card will be given free admission.

Next Monday and Tuesday will be shown another installment of "The Mishaps of Musty Suffer," featuring Harry Watson, the famous vaudeville and burlesque favorite in a corking good comedy entitled "Keep a Moving." With Watson will be seen the vaudeville team of Crimmings and Gore, popular as funmakers of high degree.

Sunday there will be a one-day show headed by the thrilling photoplay, "The Master Criminal." With ever-increasing interest, the hunt, the capture and the escape of the master criminal is depicted in a succession of thrilling scenes. There will be four reels of sensations and surprises. Along with this feature will be Bessie Eyton in "The Jungle Lovers."

For Friday and Saturday there will be another of the "Forbidden Fruit" series, which have been making a big hit at the Sunbeam.

HENRY STEPPE
With "The Girls From the Follies," at the Lyceum for Four Days Beginning Sunday.

SHORT TALKS WITH SCREEN-STRUCK GIRLS

By Beatriz Michelena.

Beatriz Michelena

One bit of advice that I would impress upon the girl who starts out to make her way in the motion picture world is to keep up her home ties. How much revived hope and buoyancy she will find, during dark hours, in encouraging words from home, only we who have already experienced their helpfulness can know.

There is something more than sentimentality in the saying, "A mother is one's best friend." There is genuine practical truth in it that becomes most poignant in times of trouble or discouragement.

And of discouragement any girl may expect to find an abundance in her first attempts to become a motion picture actress. How hard she will often find it to get an audience with the manager or director—long, dispiriting waits in cold, irresponsive outer rooms, until she feels the whole world in league against her! How dejectedly will she drag herself home at the end of many an unproductive day! There will be whole weeks of these days, perhaps, strung into one continuous blue line.

In times such as these, the home ties will count for much. They may, indeed, decide whether the final issue be success or failure. Even with the home cheer to bolster her up, the average girl will find it hard enough to keep a brave front during the early conflict.

Before starting on the struggle, she should confide with her home folks—most of all, I should say, with her mother. The entire situation should be talked over and her chances carefully weighed. The family, as one unit, should be interested in the undertaking and thoroughly conversant with it. Until she has had opportunity to test it out, a girl can never know what comfort and help there is in such organized support behind her.

Boston will be the next city to see the Klaw and Erlanger musical spectacle "Around the Map," which ran the greater part of the season at the New Amsterdam theater in New York.

"THE MELTING POT" WILL BE AT THE ORPHEUM NEXT WEEK

SCENE FROM "THE MELTING POT"
In Which Walker Whiteside Will Be Shown in Photoplay at the Orpheum-Strand Next Week.

Those who have seen the dramatic star, Walker Whiteside, on the speaking stage, will be interested to know that he has now become a screen star, and will appear in Duluth for four days at the Orpheum-Strand, beginning with tomorrow's matinee, in "The Melting Pot."

There are few writers living who wield a pen of greater power than Izrael Zangwill, and it may be doubted whether he ever wielded it with more enthusiasm and inspiration than in the story of "The Melting Pot."

A young Jew, David Quixano, a gifted musician and full of that spiritual power which is a heritage of his race, is living with his family in Kishineff when that ill-fated city becomes the theater of fierce and bloody religious persecution of which the Jews are the victims. Waves of bloody violence overwhelm David's home, and he is left desolate in the world. He has heard of a new country in the distant West where men are allowed to work out their destinies and where religious bigotry and persecution are unknown. Fate ordains that he should go to the new land. Conditions in the New World are at first strange to him, and to keep soul and body together he has to play in concert halls of the East side and contend with hardships and struggles. As he absorbs the American spirit, his vivid fancy conceives the idea of writing a symphony called "The Melting Pot." Into this symphony he crowds all his rare musical talent, seeking to symbolize in sound the genesis and the growth of this new world which now stands at the head of human civilization.

Walker Whiteside embodies Israel Zangwill's conception of the young Jewish dreamer with great success. There is all through the play a suggestion of latent power which well accords with the character of David Quixano. Not only is the idea of the play highly poetic, but the form of its expression is splendidly dramatic. David and his co-religionists while in Russia are befriended by Vera, the daughter of the cruel governor and persecutor of the Jews. The difficult part of Vera was impersonated by Miss Valentine Grant.

Following are press comments on this production:

"It breathes a spirit of the best Americanism in the traditions of our history."—W. Stephen Bush in the Moving Picture World.

"The vision evoked by the Jewish musician's 'American Symphony' * * * is a masterpiece of artistic visioning possible on the screen alone."—Hart in the New York Evening Sun.

" * * * a photodrama of unusual merit. The theme is mighty in conception."—W. R. Andrews in the Motion Picture News.

"Realism is the note struck early in the first reel and its vibration does not cease until after the flying of Old Glory in the concluding scene."—Mabel Condon in Motography.

"No mere stage production of 'The Melting Pot' could drive home the lesson of the evils of race prejudices as did the film."—Pardy in the Morning Telegraph.

"It is at once thrilling, gripping and horrifying in its terrorism."—Fred in Variety.

" * * * the mobs are large and well driven, and that is quite realistic."—Fuld in the Dramatic Mirror.

NEW YORK THEATER REVIEW

(By Dixie Hines.)

New York, March 4.—Except for such aid and comfort as could be received from a special performance of Strindberg's "Easter," done by and for the state society with the kind assistance of Madame Strindberg, one of the wives of the late Swedish dramatist, there was nothing scheduled on the bills of the past week, although "Pay Day" did slip in late in the week and begin its checked career at the Cort theater.

"Easter" was produced by a special cast, including Gareth Hughes, Walter Hampden, Kathlene Macdonald, Ivy Troutman, Gertrude Berkeley and others. Whatever success it achieved is credited thereto. The company acted intelligently and when this has been said it is to be implied that the play was acted in an understandable manner, and Strindberg has not always so been acted. Especially brilliant was the work of Gareth Hughes, who appeared by courtesy of Elsie Ferguson with whom he is appearing at the New Amsterdam theater. He gave a performance marked by a rare appreciation of the play, and imbued it with a juvenile spirit of freshness.

But after all, "Easter" is not a grown man's play, so back to "Pay Day," renamed from "Her Price," which Emma Dunn did for several weeks earlier in the season. Irene Fenwick, one of the most intelligent of the younger actresses of the stage, had the principal part, and she was ably assisted.

Though devoid of novelties and regular productions of the past week, the present atones for it so far as quantity is concerned, and the quality likewise promises to be up to the mark. We regretfully take leave to "Hobson's Choice" at the Comedy, where Whitford Kane and his associates have furnished unalloyed delight for four months past. "The Fear Market" moves in from the Booth, which in turn is taken over by William Elliott and his company presenting "The Greatest Nation," Ethel Barrymore likewise departs, her place at the Lyceum being taken by the new play by George Scarborough and staged by David Belasco, "The Heart of Wetona." Otis Skinner is another to depart from Cohan, where "Pom-Pom" comes with Mitzi Hajos. The Park is taken over by "The Road to Mandalay," a musical play.

* * *

Emanuel Reicher announces that he will not continue the season of "The Modern Stage" as planned for the present season, but at a later date will make certain special productions of noteworthy plays.

* * *

"Most of the thirst for knowledge of which we read so much," Rosamond Carpentier tells an interviewer, "is unfortunately quenched in a cafe."

* * *

"Justice," by John Galsworthy, had its premier in New Haven this week, and is en route to New York. This play will bring forth one of the best of the younger actors in Wallis Clark, who will appear as the judge. Mr. Clark has been singularly successful in character parts, which he plays with rare discrimination.

* * *

Kirah Markham, the emotional actress, who was seen in New York a few weeks since in a dramatic playlet, "Copy," has been rewarded for excellent work by being invited to appear with Otis Skinner next season in a new play he is to produce in New York in September. Miss Markham, who is resting in Savannah, accepted the invitation.

* * *

Hedwig Reicher will read from Oscar Wilde's "Salome" at the Punch and Judy theater next week. This in lieu of the performance of this play which was announced. Miss Reicher appeared in the title role of the Wilde tragedy in Germany, and was the second actress to play this part. Still more interesting, however, is the fact that her father played Herod to her Salome, as he had done on its original production.

GOSSIP OF THE RIALTO

Orrin Johnsen has been engaged to play Ford in James K. Hackett's forthcoming production of "The Merry Wives of Windsor." Hackett is to act Falstaff for the first time. Viola Allen will play Mistress Ford and Henrietta Crosman Mistress Page. Fuller Mellish has been given the role of Page. Rehearsals are now in progress at the Criterion theater, New York.

* * *

When "Stop, Look, Listen" leaves the Globe, New York, for a tour of the larger cities, Gaby Deslys may not be with the company. Viola Harty will fill Gaby's place should that comedienne drop out.

* * *

J. M. Barrie is preparing a new play for Maude Adams. The play will have an underlying theme of a more serious nature than any of his earlier plays, but will be written with enough Barrie comedy to satisfy all audiences, it is said. It is expected to be ready for production early next fall.

* * *

A. H. Woods will present the Dolly Sisters in "A Stolen Honeymoon," a farce in three acts by Lawrence Rising. Rehearsals will begin March 20.

* * *

It has been definitely decided to give the premier of Richard Lambert's production, "The Blue Envelope," at the Cort theater, New York, on March 13. The cast has been rearranged since the first announcement and Franklyn Ardell has been supplanted by George Probert.

* * *

A. H. Woods has secured Edward H. Robins, now playing in the company of Mrs. Fiske, "Erstwhile Susan," to appear in Willard Mack's new "King, Queen, Jack" company next season.

* * *

Hattie Loraine and Dan Colyer will begin a long tour of the Keith houses in A. R. De Beer's race track sketch, "Old New Orleans." The sketch will be produced by the author.

* * *

The new bills being put out by Henry W. Savage to advertise "Pom Pom," the new play for Mizzi Hajos, give the little comedienne the prominence being enjoyed by the greatest stars of today. The name "Mizzi" is printed in large, heavy type and the surname in more subdued size, Mr. Savage being of the opinion that the little Hungarian lady is more familiarly known by her first name, which is, perhaps, the most unusual on the list of musical actresses.

* * *

Leffler and Bratton have accepted a new farce, "Like Kings and Queens," which has for its theme the much discussed servant problem. The author creates what is supposed to be the most comic situations of any play by presenting the ludicrously extravagant demands of the servant of today.

* * *

Joseph Brooks has changed the title of "The Idler," the Haddon Chambers play, which he intends to revive this month with an all-star cast, and it will be known as "The Great Pursuit." Marie Tempest is the latest to sign up for a part in the play. Other notables are Phyllis Neilson-Terry, Jeanne Eagles, Cynthia Brooke, Charles Cherry, H. Graham Brown, Bruce McRae and Montagu Love.

* * *

Two companies of "Common Clay" will be sent on tour next season, it has been announced. One will be headed by Jane Cowl and the other by John Mason. These two stars have been appearing jointly in the play in New York and Chicago this season. At the conclusion of the Chicago run Miss Cowl will return to New York to begin rehearsals for a new play to be produced yet this season.

* * *

Klaw and Erlanger are going to produce a new play by Bayard Veiller, author of "Within the Law." The new play has not been named, although "Danger" was suggested as a good title. The piece is said to contain twenty-four scenes, and is said to be the most pretentious spectacle ever undertaken by the Klaw and Erlanger combination. Since a production of unusual magnitude is required it will not be presented until the opening of the 1916-1917 season early next fall. The play tells a thrilling story of New York life, and demands a very large cast. Work upon the scenery will begin early in March.

* * *

March 14 has been set as the opening date of Sir Herbert Tree's Shakespearean season. The first production will be "Henry VIII.," to be followed by "Merry Wives of Windsor" and "Merchant of Venice."

* * *

William Elliott's production, "The Greatest Nation," opened in New York recently at the Booth theater, following "The Fear Market," which moved to another house for an extended run.

* * *

"Pollyanna" has so captivated Philadelphia that the run of the play has been twice extended at the Broad Street theater and fifteen branch ticket offices have been opened throughout the city.

Is Your Watch a Guessing Machine?

Then bring it to us and have it repaired properly. Satisfaction guaranteed.

ERD'S JEWELRY STORE
29 East Superior Street, Duluth.

Everybody's Theater
LYRIC
TONIGHT AND SUNDAY
Last Opportunity to See
THE TRAIL OF THE LONESOME PINE
Starring Miss Charlotte Walker.
Tale of melodramatic incidents in the attempts of a U. S. revenue officer to stop the illegal manufacture of whisky among the "moonshiners" in the mountains of Virginia.
—IN—
FIGHTING BLOOD
SUNDAY, MONDAY, TUESDAY
FARNUM
The $100,000 Star at His Best.
Lem Hardy, Sturdy Mountaineer (Wm. Farnum) comes from a long list of fighters, and in this wonderful picture takes every scene and holds it, although in the story he is pitted against unscrupulous enemies.
Strong Caste in Support.
BILLIE BURKE TOMORROW AT REX BEAUTIFUL.

SUNBEAM
SUNDAY SPECIAL.
"THE MASTER CRIMINAL"
4 Reels of Surprises and Thrills.
BESSIE EYTON
In "THE JUNGLE LOVERS."
MONDAY AND TUESDAY.
HARRY WATSON
In "KEEP AMOVING."
(One of Series.)
"The Mishaps of Musty Suffer"
With Crimmings and Gore.
WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY.
Henry Walthall and Edna Mayo
—In—
"THE STRANGE CASE OF MARY PAGE"
(Second thrilling episode.)
Miss Mayo's gowns were designed by "Lucile," Lady Duff Gordon, and will be the dominant fashion note for spring and summer.
FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.
"FORBIDDEN FRUIT."

REX THEATER BEAUTIFUL
SUNDAY, MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY
ENGAGEMENT EXTRAORDINARY
BILLIE BURKE In "PEGGY"
Direct From Knickerbocker Theater, New York.
"The largest throng which the Knickerbocker has held this season applauded the screen debut of Miss Burke as "Peggy." She brings to motion pictures real distinction, and her first appearance before the camera was a complete success."—New York Sun.
THE TRIANGLE PICTURE THAT COST THOMAS H. INCE $200,000 TO PRODUCE
ANNOUNCEMENT—"Peggy," as shown in New York, 7½ reels, shall be seen by our patrons at the usual prices, four days, March 5 to 8.
THOMAS FURNISS, Manager, Rex.
"WHAT IS "PEGGY"? The play "Peggy" was written to give free play to the especial gifts of Billie Burke. It tells a consistent, logical story of an American girl, whose vivacious spirits are transferred to the dour Scottish highlands. Imagine the rest—with Billie Burke as the girl who gets into all sorts of pranks and scrapes. UNDOUBTEDLY THE PLAY OF THE YEAR.
Mr. Harry Miller, known as the Head of the Lakes Harry Lauder, will sing Scotch songs, in costume. Harry Lauder's newest and biggest sucess, "Nannie," will be one number. Special added attraction during the run of "Peggy."

BRANDRETH PILLS
100 Years Old
An Effective Laxative
Purely Vegetable
Constipation,
Indigestion, Biliousness, etc.
OR at Night
unfil relieved
Chocolate-Coated or Plain

ARE YOU SMOKING
—THE—
Jean Du Luth?
—The cigar with the fine aromatic flavour. Made from the finest Havana that grows.
—ALL DEALERS—
HEAD OF THE LAKES CIGAR CO.,
MANUFACTURERS AND DISTRIBUTERS

A "Nip and Tuck" Race between income and outgo is about the way it is with a great many people in these days.

But that is the pace that kills as far as hopes for permanent financial success are concerned. You'd be a good deal better off in the long run with an ever-widening margin of safety in your savings account at the First National Bank built up by not letting your "outgo" get too close to your income.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
Duluth, Minn.

LOOSE LEAF DEVICES
PRINTING
F. H. Lounsberry & Co.
PRINTERS · BINDERS
498 WEST FIRST STREET

REX ISN'T LIKE ORDINARY BEERS—
KINGLY IN WHOLESOMENESS, SPARKLE AND FLAVOR.
REX BEER
ALWAYS SATISFIES MEN WHO KNOW GOOD BEER.
Have a Case Sent Home
BREWED AND BOTTLED BY BREWERS OF A BETTER BEER.
DULUTH BREWING & MALTING CO.
DULUTH, MINN.

THE DULUTH HERALD

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

Published every evening except Sunday by The Herald Company at Duluth, Minn.

Both Telephones—Business Office, 324; Editorial Rooms, 1126.

Entered as second-class matter at the Duluth postoffice under the act of congress of March 3, 1870.

OFFICIAL PAPER, CITY OF DULUTH

SUBSCRIPTION RATES—By mail, payable in advance, one month, 35 cents; three months, $1; six months, $2; one year, $4; Saturday Herald, $1 per year; Weekly Herald, $1 per year.

Daily by carrier, city and suburbs, 10 cents a week, 45 cents a month

Subscribers will confer a favor by making known any complaint of service.

When changing the address of your paper, it is important to give both old and new addresses.

The Duluth Herald accepts advertising contracts with the distinct guarantee that it has the largest circulation in Minnesota outside the Twin Cities.

The Herald will be glad to have its attention called to any misleading or untrue statement which may appear in its news, editorial or advertising columns.

TODAY IN HISTORY.

Lincoln inaugurated, 1865.

Though when the election of 1864 was held the beginning of the end was in sight, it is a significant light upon the opposition Lincoln had to contend with at home that the popular vote against him was 1,808,725. His own vote was 2,216,067, and his electoral vote was 212 to 21. The war was near its close on inauguration day. Lee's surrender at Appomattox was only thirty-six days away—and Lincoln's assassination only forty-one days.

READING (available in Duluth public library—Nicolay and Hay, Abraham Lincoln: a History; James Ford Rhodes, History of the United States from the Compromise of 1850; Ida M. Tarbell and Carl Schurz, lives of Lincoln.

A VOTE FOR AMERICA.

The vote in the senate yesterday was 68 for America and 14 against.

The temptation is strong to say harsh things of the twelve Republicans and two Democrats who could not see their way clear to vote for America. Perhaps that is as well left to their constituents, with whom they will have to reckon. And in that reckoning Minnesota, Wisconsin and North Dakota have to deal with Senators Clapp, La Follette and McCumber.

Senator Gore, the blind leader of the blind, presents a pitiable figure; but no consideration of "senatorial courtesy" should stand in the way of compelling him to tell his authority for the preposterous story of the president being for war, which he presented as the excuse for his position.

The young man who votes for the first time this year will have the novel experience of voting for presidential convention delegates, and thus will slip one far, far over all his ancestors.

WILSON'S FIGHT FOR HUMANITY.

The United States, magnificently led by President Wilson, is struggling to preserve the laws of humanity from the ravages of war.

And there are few who realize what a tense and terrible struggle it has been, still is, and will be for a long time to come.

More and more the nations of Europe are striving to outdo each other in trampling these laws down. Victory at any cost or any price is the sole guiding motive of desperate nations as of desperate men.

It is not alone the rights of America and of American citizens that the president is striving to uphold. They are our rights now; in other times they are everybody's rights. The rights for which he contends against Great Britain, Great Britain may some time desperately need. The rights for which he contends against Germany, Germany may some time sorely need. The rights for which he has taken his stand are the rights of neutrals in war time; and if wars are to continue the time will certainly come when nations now belligerent and seeking to destroy these rights will be neutrals seeking to revive them if they are now suffered to lapse.

The nations bent on repealing the laws of humanity are fighting, they say, for self-preservation; and that is the first law. They are determined, they are ugly, they are bent on winning at whatever cost. And it is against an almost world-wide prevalence of this spirit that the president of the United States has to contend—as well as with the pitiful littleness of partisan politics and racial disloyalty at home.

The fight the president has been making will long be remembered the world around. Even the nations against which he must contend will, in time to come, thank him again and again for the fight he has made. It is a splendid fight, a fight for humanity and justice—no more and no less—and he deserves to have behind him every loyal citizen of the United States and every pan-humanitarian citizen of the world.

It is not inconceivable, however, though improbable, that the time might come when it would be no longer possible to continue the fight; when war passions will rise too high, and the attempt to uphold international law must be abandoned as hopeless. If that time came, the only course would be to register formal protests, and trust that restored sanity after the war will make it possible to rebuild the ruined fabric of international law, and to build it anew on a stronger and broader foundation of humanity.

To say that we ought to fight, if need be, to uphold our rights under international law, is to say the obvious. But what if fighting to uphold the rights of neutral humanity means fighting all Europe? It might mean that, because we are contending now with both sides of the conflict, and both sides still are stubborn. To talk of fighting Europe were mere idiocy.

All the embattled nations are violating international law. Shall we fight them all? Impossible, of course, and futile if it were possible.

America will cling to its high duty to the last moment possible. It may even have to fight to perform that duty. But America will have the good sense to drop it when to hold it longer is insanity. If all Europe breaks the law, then to talk of fighting all these war-maddened peoples is folly and stupidity.

That situation may not, probably will not, come about. In the meantime, every citizen should remember that the president is contending for humanity and justice, for the rights not only of every American citizen but of every neutral and, in the long run, of every human being on the globe. There should be no stinting of support in such a fight.

It doesn't seem as if it should be so hard to choose between supporting the president and supporting some foreign government.

THEORIES AND CONDITIONS.

I have been a college professor long enough to realize that there is nothing in either the theory of free trade or the theory of protection.—President Wilson.

Of course the president is not to be taken too literally. What he means is that there is nothing in a doctrinaire acceptance of either theory to the exclusion of the other and to the ignoring of concrete conditions.

Theories are often beautiful until they meet conditions, and then they emerge from the contact sadly bruised.

The trouble with these, as with most other theories, is that the conditions they are made for sometimes refuse to fit them or to be altered immediately to fit them. And when conditions don't fit, and won't be changed, so much the worse for the theory.

Universal free trade is one thing; and it is not at all unlikely that on some future level in humanity's climb to the heights it will come about. Free trade for England, for instance, that gets much of its revenue from abroad and must take it in goods to grow rich, is another thing. Free trade for a debtor country that must export more than it imports to pay the interest on its debts is still another thing.

Protection for the sake of helping infant industries on their feet, with a prospect that once established they will be profitable to the country and able to hold their own, is one thing. Protection that taxes the people heavily to maintain industries that can never operate without tax subsidies is another thing. Protection that keeps on taxing the people to subsidize rich industries along after they are not only strong enough to stand alone but to control the government in their own interests is still another thing.

There is free trade and free trade; and there is protection and protection. Theories that refuse to recognize facts are foolish things.

One year from today Woodrow Wilson will begin his second term as president of the United States.

THE EASILY YIELDING DOOR OF CRIME.

Some time ago a young man who was a city official in a small Georgia city on a salary of $125 a month found, like many another, that it was a bit difficult to make both ends meet.

Of course he could have done it by cutting down expenses so as to balance income and outgo. He was getting fifteen hundred a year and living on about seventeen or eighteen hundred—that was the trouble. His remedy was simple, after all; all he had to do was just trim sail and live on his income. But, again like many another, he did not think of that.

Finding himself considerably behind one month, he drew his salary ten days before it was due. He was able to do this because he had charge of the funds, and it enabled him to keep going a little longer.

But next month he ran short earlier in the month, so he drew his salary two weeks ahead of time. It was irregular, of course. He knew that; knew that it had therefore to be done secretly; but he did it, and nobody noticed.

That was this young man's fairly innocent "first step." The other day he absconded, leaving a shortage of eleven thousand dollars in accounts and a written confession in which he told the process that led him to that final break from all that he held dear and made him a fugitive from justice. When the first of the second month had come, he was again short of money, so he drew again the salary he had already taken, and having once stolen, he kept on until discovery was imminent and he had to run away.

Why, WHY do young men do these things? They happen almost every day. Starting with innocent intentions, doing a wrong that is slight in itself, before they know it they are through the easily yielding door of crime, and discovery, disgrace, humiliation, wreck and ruin overwhelm them.

There never was a deadlier, baser, more mischievous self-delusion than that of the man who thinks he is merely "borrowing" trust funds when he taps the till. He takes his employer's money—to keep up appearances, to gamble with, to speculate with—intending to make a lucky turn and pay it back.

He does not count himself a thief. He has not stolen, he thinks; he has only borrowed, and he will repay. Yet not once in ten thousand or ten million times does the sudden miraculous stroke of fortune come that will enable him to square up. So he gets in deeper and deeper, grows more and more reckless and desperate, and finally his world is blotted out in the night of disgrace and shame.

There is a sharp line between your money and the money you are handling for others. So long as you keep that line sharp and distinct, you are safe. Once you let it blur, once you cross it and mix your employer's money with yours, ON WHATEVER SELF-DECEIVING PRETEXT WHATEVER, your feet are set in a slippery path that leads to perdition.

The thought may occur to you: May it not be that some people have "borrowed" trust funds, made a lucky turn with them, and returned the stolen money? It may be so; but you can bet your bottom dollar on it that that was not the end of it. At the best, the edge of their honesty has been dulled, and their character has been permanently corrupted by the experience. And in a vast majority of such cases, the ease of this little theft disguised as "borrowing" has tempted them to try again until detection and disgrace descended to blight their lives and the lives of their dear ones.

It is trite enough to say that "honesty is the best policy," and nowadays some smart people often speak derisively of these old sayings.

But nobody yet has been smart enough to invent a policy that beats it.

One difficulty about practical politics is that it tempts so many men to put undue emphasis on the tickle feature.

THE MAN WHO HID HIS TALENT.

Henry James was a very able and profound man. He came of a very able and profound family—his father was a great theologian, his brother William was a great psychologist.

He wrote very able and profound books. He was a metaphysician rather than a mere novelist. He was more concerned in intricate dissections of minds and characters and mental motives and processes than in the human beings that people his books. The people themselves meant little more to him than a cadaver does to a surgeon conducting an autopsy.

So, in time, Henry James got so he was very hard to read. His sentences were abominably long, complex and puzzling. Those who were up to the labor of pursuing the thought through them were quite proud of themselves, even though sometimes the conclusion, when finally hunted out of the thicket of language and captured, proved hardly worth the chase.

Though reading a Henry James novel became an exciting and interesting and usually baffling mental pastime, not many people had patience to acquire the habit. He had the unique fate of getting, during his life-time, into the company of those five-foot shelves of books which everybody admires and nobody reads.

And, generally speaking, in that everybody was quite sane and sensible. A man who deliberately couches his thought in vagueness, in complexity, in intolerable intricacy of language, deliberately narrows the sphere of his influence, and if he has anything to say of value of mankind, he is foolish for concealing it.

By succumbing to the temptation to wrap his thought in obscurity, Henry James rose in the estimation of the few who are prone to make a cult of art and hold it as something beyond the reach of ordinary humanity; but he fell in the estimation of those sensible beings who value art in proportion to the width of its influence, and he betrayed and debased the talent that had been given him.

At his best, James typified a sort of chill, bloodless intellectualism so lacking in humanness as to repel, and thereby to defeat its own aim—unless, indeed, its aim were mere literary acrobatics and puzzledom. And that, of course, is vanity and folly. There isn't much excuse for such literary style as James employed during his later years. It is not necessary to any purpose. If unconscious, it was a vice; if deliberate, it was a pose, and that is hypocrisy, the bane of all art and of all understanding of art.

Now let the statistically-minded militarists figure out how many submarines could be built for the cost of those free garden seeds.

THE "STOCKING BANKS" AS A NATIONAL ASSET.

One of the most amazing revelations the war has brought is the astonishing financial resourcefulness of some of the peoples of Europe.

When France astounded the world and discomfitted Prussia by promptly paying the huge war indemnity exacted after the Franco-Prussian war, it was able to do it because the people put their "stocking banks" at the disposal of the government. The French people were and are thrifty, and they had been hoarding their money in stockings and cracked pots and other strange places. It was handy in the emergency of 1871, but the practice kept much money out of circulation and ordinarily handicapped the country.

France is still thrifty, but it no longer keeps its money in "stocking banks." Its money is in banks or invested in sound securities; and the way it got there is a lesson to America—and a lesson America needs very much.

Far-sighted financiers accomplished this purpose—which was the mobilizing of the national money for national purposes—by making it possible for the French peasant to invest his money. This was done by issuing sound securities in small denominations.

Until recently in this country virtually all stocks were in hundred-dollar denominations and virtually all bonds were in thousand-dollar denominations. Investment has been a rich man's game. The poor man either spent his money, or, if he was able to save, was tempted by get-rich-quick schemers of one kind or another into losing it.

If the broad-gauged financiers of this country would take a card from the shark, and facilitate popular investment in the nation's industries, vast good would be done. Money would be mobilized for national use; thrift would be promoted; the ownership of industry would be widened and the gap between industry and public narrowed; and the wider participation of the public in the profits of industry would lead to a greater community of interest which would profit industry, public and nation alike.

The sharks who work get-rich-quick schemes, who sell fraudulent mining and oil stocks and who market worthless lands in far-away swamps, always have cultivated the man of moderate means. The banker, the financier and the captain of industry have scorned him, or have been satisfied with what small proportion of his money came to them through the savings banks. They even fought the postal savings bank, which has mobilized millions more of the people's money for national use. And still, despite it all, we have been forced to borrow from Europe, and will probably borrow from Europe again when she is able to lend—unless we change our ways.

In France it is possible to invest in sound securities of a par value as low as ten and twenty dollars. The people do invest in them, so France is able to lend to us. Meanwhile, the poor man's money in this country is spent, or goes to get-rich-quick sharks, because investment has been largely restricted to rich men.

That the people would quickly respond to approaches of different kind cannot be doubted. The success of various sales of public bonds "over the counter" in small denominations has proved that. The wide development of the "odd lot" business on the New York stock market proves it again. The popularity of the partial payment plan, by which stock or bonds, from one share or bond up, can be bought on the instalment plan, thirty per cent down and five per cent a month, offers additional proof.

This country's financial resources have not been half plumbed. If attractive means of reaching small investors are adopted, the people will be saved from plunderers and thriftlessness, and America may become as soundly rich as France.

Let us not forget that the efficiency of war only helps to make other kinds of efficiency more and more worthless.

WELL, HE WON'T BE.

The Republicans are reconciling themselves to the acceptance of Theodore Roosevelt as their presidential candidate.

This despite their vivid recollections of what he did to the party four years ago.

They may have forgotten—though others haven't—that less than a year ago nine people out of ten were fervently thanking God that Roosevelt wasn't president.

Really, you know, if it hadn't been for his getting roped into partisan politics, Bathhouse John might have gone down into history as another Charles K. Harris.

Just a Moment

Daily Strength and Cheer.

Compiled by John G. Quintus, the Sunshine Man.

"Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory will come in."—Ps. xxiv, 9

"Ye are the temple of the living God."—2 Cor. vi, 16.

Fling wide the portals of your heart,
Make it a temple set apart
From earthly use for heaven's employ,
Adorned with prayer and love and joy.
So shall your Sovereign enter in,
And new and nobler life begin.
—G. Weissel.

Thou art to know that thy soul is the center, habitation and kingdom of God. That, therefore, to the end the sovereign King may rest on that throne of thy soul, thou oughtest to take pains to keep it clean, quiet and peaceable—clean from guilt and defects; quiet from fears; and peaceable in temptations and tribulations. Thou oughtest always, then, to keep thine heart in peace, that thou mayest keep pure that temple of God! And with a right and pure intention thou art to work, pray, obey and suffer (without being in the least moved), whatever it pleases the Lord to send unto thee.—M. de Molinos from "Daily Strength."

May I anoint my head and wash my face that I may not appear unto men to suffer, but only to Thee, who seest in secret, and wilt reward me openly.—F. B. Mayer.
Dayton, Ohio.

A Really Moving Story.

Baltimore American: "You looked very sympathetic when Mrs. Jaggers was talking to you. Was she telling you a moving story?"

"I should say so! She's been in six houses in as many months."

Rippling Rhymes

By Walt Mason

The Luckless Man.

I heard a fellow say, this morn, "I've had hard luck since I was born." Yet he was fixed with hands and feet, and health so good 'twas hard to beat. While he bemoaned his gloomy fate, and tried to keep his grouch on straight, and while some maudlin tears he shed, an ailing cripple forged ahead, ambition glowing in his eyes, and gathered in a handsome prize. A blind man, groping in the dark, in human annals made his mark. A sick man, toiling with his pen, produced a book that drew from men so loud a burst of honest praise, as cheered the balance of his days. A thousand brave, undaunted chaps, borne down by grievous handicaps, were struggling up life's rugged steep, too full of hopeful plans to weep. How pitiful the man who stands, with active lungs and idle hands, complaining of the luck he's had, since he was but a knee-high lad!

(Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.)

Ed Marshall

By Savoyard.

Washington, March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Here is all I can find in congressional literature touching the personality of one of the most picturesque characters who ever appeared in either council chamber on Capitol Hill:

"Marshall, Edward C., was born in Woodford county, Ky., in 1820; moved to Sonora, Cal.; was elected a representative from California in the Thirty-second congress."

Ed Marshall, as they designate him in Kentucky to this day, was a brother of Thomas F. Marshall, and though not so able a man, nor so eloquent an orator, he was possibly as effective at the bar or on the stump as was that brilliant and erratic genius. A captivating public speaker, he was also a wonderful actor and had he chosen the stage for a profession he would live in the annals of the theater in the class of Foote and Mathews, the great English comedians.

* * *

Upon the discovery of gold in California, Ed Marshall, then a young lawyer, left Kentucky and landed on the Pacific coast, a "forty-niner." He practiced his profession there with more or less success, and plunged into politics as a Democrat, in rivalry with such men as Gwin, Broderick, Fremont, Field, Terry, Weller, Latham, McDougall, and others, including E. D. Baker, the second of Broderick in the famous duel, who later fell in battle at Ball's Bluff, a brigadier general in the Federal army.

In 1850 Marshall was elected to congress. He was a stout champion of that wing of the Democratic party known as "Young America," that held to the idea of "Manifest Destiny" and had the "Little Giant" of Illinois for leader. George N. Sanders and William E. Corry were among his colleagues. During that congress Ed Marshall, a Douglas man, and John C. Breckinridge, who adhered to President Pierce, and Humphrey Marshall, a Whig and a follower of ex-President Fillmore, engaged in a political debate of the stump order, each advocating his favorite for the succession to the presidency in 1856, and we Democrats must confess that as a disputant "Old Humphrey" got away with "the boys," though he was only 40.

* * *

Later Ed Marshall again became a citizen of Kentucky and in 1866 or 1867 was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for commonwealth's attorney in the Lexington district. His competitors were "Cerro Gordo" Williams, who had been a general in the Confederate army; William C. P. Breckinridge, who had been a colonel in that service, and Lawrence Jones, who had been a captain on that side. Old "Cerro Gordo" was no slouch on the stump, Breckinridge found his only rival as an orator among the Kentuckians of that day in John Young Brown, and Jones, had he lived, would have made his personality as familiar to Americans as Paul Jones himself. The four of them met at Danville one county court day. Old "Cerro Gordo" spoke first, and recited what he had done on the field of Mars for the South; Breckinridge followed and told of his exploits in the war, and Jones fell in on the same line.

Marshall spoke last, and when he rose, having perfect command of facial expression, he put on a look of utter and hopeless bewilderment. He halted and hesitated and confessed his humiliation because of his utter ignorance of the recent history of his country.

"Until today, my fellow-citizens," he stammered, "in my misplaced and guileless confidence, I had supposed that a man * * * named—let me see—named * * * Lee—yes, that's the name—had had some little part in our big war in defense of our beloved South. I had been told that a man * * * named Jackson—Stonewall Jackson, wasn't it?—had done some fighting to uphold our holy cause. I had heard that a hero named * * * Johnston—Albert Sidney Johnston—had played a distinguished role in that bloody and glorious drama; but it was all a mistake, it seems. My competitors, all honorable men, like Brutus, have today testified to you that they did all the fighting that was done in behalf of the South in that awful struggle."

* * *

Men who were present told me that they had never laughed in a theater as convulsively as they did that day, that Marshall, a consummate actor, could express satire even more corroding by the play of his features and the gestures of his hands than he did by speech; and his was a scorpion tongue. After ridiculing his competitors till they writhed in torture, he apologized for his candidacy by saying that in his innocence he had supposed that some knowledge of the elementary principles of the law, some familiarity with the criminal statutes of the commonwealth, some skill in the conduct of a cause in a court of criminal jurisdiction, equipped a man to discharge the duties of the office of commonwealth's attorney in Kentucky, but he found that he was mistaken.

Jones got the nomination and was elected, but died before the term was half expired, to the poignant regret of all who knew him.

* * *

The first time I ever saw Ed Marshall the circumstances were in the nature of the ridiculous. In the Democratic state convention of 1871, Preston H. Leslie was the leading candidate for the nomination for governor. In the Ashland district were half a dozen aspirants for James B. Beck's seat in congress as soon as that giant got out of the way, among them Ed Marshall and Joe Blackburn. There was one man in the party who could get the nomination for governor by acclaim if he would take it, and that was Thomas C. McCreery. He had been senator, and his speech in opposition to the reconstruction of old Virginia, beyond compare, was the finest specimen of lofty eloquence congress had heard since Daniel Webster. It earned him the title "Silver-tongued Sluggard of the Senate," so careless and indifferent was he to all appearance. He was defeated for re-election because of a mendacious charge that he had indorsed for office the perennial monster, Burbridge, the Jefreys who held bloody assize in Kentucky during the war. And now, clear of that charge, McCreery was again a candidate for the senate for the term beginning in 1873 and had no opposition. Several ballots were taken for governor in the convention, Leslie leading, without result, and attempt was made to stampede the convention to McCreery so as to get him out of the way and bestow the senatorship on Beck.

Ed Marshall was to make the nominating speech. The convention was held in the state house grounds in the open air, the weather an ideal day in May. But the Leslie men, especially the Louisville contingent, were determined that Marshall should not speak. I was a delegate and standing in ten feet of him, but the din was so frenzied that I could not hear a word, though I saw his lips moving with great animation, his eyes blazing furiously, and his arms moving nervously and expressively. He was forced to desist, and then the opposition to Leslie brought out Proctor Knott, who was in congress, then sitting in Washington, and in no sense a candidate; but the final ballot was close. Leslie, however, was nominated.

Had Thomas C. McCreery, who was elected senator the following winter, had the insatiate thirst for distinction that consumes James B. McCreary, lately governor of Kentucky, he would have been as famous as any Clay, or Breckinridge, or Underwood, or Hardin, or Marshall, Kentucky ever produced.

* * *

Beck became senator soon afterward and Ed Marshall and Joe Blackburn had a race for his seat in the house. Of course there were joint discussions and for several weeks Joe took his punishment like a Spartan. One day Marshall delivered himself of this:

"My fellow-citizens, when Joe ventures into the broad and expansive field of feenance, as he calls it—and poignant is my grief to see an elegant and high-toned Kentuckian adopt that Yankee pronunciation—when Joe discusses the currency, I am reminded of a duck, drawing about two inches of water, sailing on a placid and shoreless lake, and utterly and defiantly ignorant of the fathomless depths beneath him."

But Joe had worn the gray, and got the votes, while Marshall ran away with the applause.

* * *

Soon thereafter Marshall returned to California and in the whirligig of politics became the Democratic attorney general of the state. During his term he appeared in the supreme court at Washington to argue an important case involving the status of the Pacific railroads, he being adverse to their contention. Opposed to him were William M. Evarts and George F. Edmunds. I attended every sitting of the court while that cause was pending. Edmunds I could understand. Evarts might as well have spoken in Greek so far as I was concerned, though he was at the head of the bar.

I expected Marshall to be eloquent. Not a bit of it. He was as plain as an old shoe and spoke in a conversational tone. I understood every word of it and he gained his case.

But for some fatal defects of character, what a man Edward C. Marshall would have been!

Saturday Night Talk

By the Parson.

Big-Mindedness.

Possibly our title is not a perfectly accurate synonym for the fine, mouth-filling word, magnanimity, that the Latin gave to English speech. But it is sufficiently accurate to serve. The magnanimous man is big of heart and mind. He is big enough to overlook personal slights and to forget selfish ambitions, in the interest of a good cause.

Magnanimity becomes one of the noblest words in the language to us, when we have really grasped its content. Its meaning is illustrated by Washington, maligned by stupid and jealous rivals, yet steadily continuing his almost superhuman efforts for the success of the continental cause; by Lincoln, in the hour before his second presidential campaign, when defeat at the polls seemed probable, yet using every energy to make the administrative path smooth for his successor; by Amundsen, allowing the hand of another to hold the flag when the photograph of his triumphant little party of explorers was taken at the South pole.

If we wish the supreme exhibition of magnanimity, beyond which, surely, greatness of spirit can never go, let us think of the words of Christ upon the cross. Surveying those who had driven the cruel nails, the Sufferer prayed: "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do."

In old Rome magnanimity meant, more especially, physical courage, the bravery of the man to whom bodily pain was contemptible, who met death itself without flinching. With us, more of the idea of moral courage has been imported into the word. It means courage of spirit, courage that makes one able to stand injustice without being stung into hatred and revenge, that enables one to exercise charitable judgment, even toward one's enemies.

The little-minded people are ever with us. They are generally carrying chips on both shoulders. They are ready for slights—and ready with knocks. They are responsible for much human misery.

Mrs. Grundy, for instance, is not magnanimous. She overlooks none of the faults of her neighbors, nor fails to report any. A distinguished visitor not long since gave some excellent advice to the girls of a fashionable city school. "Never be cats," he said. Proceeding to make his meaning clear, he deplored the way in which so many people spend their lives saying unkind things about their neighbors, tearing reputations to pieces and speaking sarcastically even about their friends. The catty spirit is as far as possible from magnanimity.

Big-minded people will cultivate charity in all their personal relations. Life is too short to be spent in nursing grievances or in meditating revenge. One is not under bonds to run down every malefactor who injures him. "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, saith the Lord." He who deliberately harms another is himself most harmed now—and the Almighty can take care of the hereafter.

Let us cease dealing in harsh judgments, in advertising every petty or great fault in others. There are, doubtless, traits in ourselves that are grievous to be borne. How often would our own blundering perversities cast us outside the pale but for the boundless magnanimity of God!

Twenty Years Ago

From The Herald of this date, 1896.

The new city council last night elected the following officers: President, James T. Hale; vice president, John Coventry; clerk, C. E. Richardson. Alderman Hale was chosen president over Alderman John W. Nelson by a vote of 10 to 6. Alderman Coventry was elected vice president on the third ballot, getting 10 votes to 3 for Crandall, 2 for Stevens and 1 for Sang. The vote on city clerk was: Richardson 13, Ole Olson 1, W. G. Joerns 1. Mayor Truelsen then delivered his inaugural address.

Mrs. H. S. Sawyer of West Duluth is the inventor of a new device for a dress stay which was lately patented at Washington. A company has been organized and the article will be manufactured in Duluth.

Archbishop Kenrick of St. Louis died today in the 88th year of his age. He was archbishop for nearly a half century and retired three years ago.

The senate has confirmed the appointment of G. D Muggah as postmaster at Cloquet.

Duluth temperature at 7 a. m. today, 16 above zero; maximum yesterday, 16; minimum yesterday, 14.

Harry Mee, the well-known land attorney, was found dead in his bed at his home, 2125 East Superior street, this morning. Death was due to apoplexy. He was 51 years of age and had resided in Duluth about nine years.

Frank A. Flower has written to a Superior paper from New York that Robert L. Belknap, former president of the Duluth Gas & Water company, is dying from Bright's disease.

T. A. Lyles of St. Paul, grand master of the Colored Masonic order of Minnesota, is in the city today.

Miss Anna Baker left today for a visit at Hudson, Wis.

The sheriff yesterday levied an attachment on the Commonwealth's type, presses, furniture and fixtures on a chattel mortgage for $1,000 in favor of H. M. Bradley.

Capt. Jacob F. Hector has been reappointed to the command of the Booth steamer Hiram R. Dixon for the coming season, with Martin Wheeler as mate and James E. Evans as chief engineer. Capt. Andrew Clausen will command the Hunter, and Capt. E. S. Smith will be in charge of the S. B. Barker, and Fred Hadlund will be captain of the tug F. R. Anderson.

Jimmy Murphy and Billy Patterson, the pugilists who were the principals in the prize fight in Carlton county a few days ago, were arrested yesterday afternoon by Sheriff McKinnon and were taken to Carlton.

If you fear to fail, you're sure to fall. You won't fare farther than you dare.

KAUFMAN'S DYNAMIC INSPIRATION

There's a bull on the target—when you begin to hit the mark, we'll hear it ring.

Gold Buckets and Tin Pails

By HERBERT KAUFMAN

You don't count, because you can't be counted on. You're intelligent but untrustworthy—well posted but not a hitching post—we don't tie to people who won't stay put.

No one denies your capacity, but it's dangerous to utilize it. The dimensions of a cistern are unimportant, if it won't hold water. We would rather use men of smaller measure but greater stability.

The world doesn't lack for ideas, so much as it needs competent executors for the ideas already in hand.

We can't trust you. You continually promise fitness for big undertakings and as constantly wreck our confidence and your chances by some piece of crass carelessness that offsets your valuable performances.

You're sharp but brittle—you break without warning and we can't afford to employ such tools for important work.

There's a weak streak in your nature. We can always build with short, sound timber but it's perilous to impose weight on faulty material, however excellent the grain and finish.

You're a long ladder with treacherous rungs: you may reach far but folks who hope to get anywhere with you are liable to tumble.

Inaccuracy is intolerable—an entire calculation is upset by one wrong figure.

You seem unable to realize the importance of dependability. An irregular watch is worthless. So is an unregulated man.

When you stick to your base you play a beautiful game, but your eye is so frequently off the ball that we fear to throw to you in a crisis.

You're an "almost" man—the bane of every organization—the biggest bother employers contend with. You experience no difficulty in finding work. You create a splendid initial impression. Few minds are more agile and resourceful, but you don't complete.

Your very competence offers the greatest discouragement to those most anxious to help you. You know better. There's nothing wrong with you, except don't-give-a-damness for detail.

If you hadn't been trained—if you weren't so advanced—if you were a slow but sure plugger—a painstaking plodder, we'd keep on with you. It would pay. Some wits ripen slowly but yours aren't of that type.

You keep reminding us of the big things, we also know, you could do but we can't help estimating the cost of the little things you haven't done.

A steel chain with one lead link has no strength. Who gives a rap how good the rest of a tire is, if it has a soft spot? You never travel far, because of your flaws.

You won't succeed until you change your trying habits for the habit of trying.

We agree that the men who give you orders aren't half so qualified for their positions. But you hares are always puzzled how the tortoises beat you to the tape: it's because they hold their stride, maintain a regular pace and keep on until they finish.

A certain caliph once discarded a gold bucket for a tin pail.

"Master," protested the bucket, "why do you employ such an ordinary vessel, while I am here?"

"Because," answered the caliph, "it does not leak."

"V" VERSES by Herbert Kaufman

Vim Vigor Victory

WHEN you fail, don't advertise it;
Grin—then no one will surmise it.
You don't know a hundred people,
Why proclaim it from the steeple?
While you're thinking of your mauling
And your face is caterwauling,
Opportunity is calling.
Set out in a new direction,
Go and make a new connection.
Everybody takes his stumbles,
Everybody makes some fumbles,
Every day though means another
Game. Forget the last one, brother.

The Bankrupt

WHAT'S that—you're broke? They've cleaned you out? The courts have taken all? Well, what does it matter? If your head isn't empty you'll soon fill your hands.

What did you lose except some time and money? You still own everything with which you started—all the capital required to achieve anything, anywhere and at any time.

To begin with you have five senses. Andrew Carnegie began life with precisely the same funds.

If your honor didn't go with it, your name is simply on deposit—they're holding it as security for your debts. It rests with you to decide whether it's worth anything. If you still consider it valuable, go to work and redeem it. But if you think it's trash, the law will accept your estimate and mark it N. G.

Next, there's time. You've thousands and thousands of days—enterprise and determination will change them into thousands and thousands of dollars. Every one of them is raw material of fortune.

Thought you said that you didn't have anything?

Give a Thoroughbred His Head

A RUNNER exhausts himself on the checkrein. You can't handle a stake-winner like an ass. Thinkers must have their heads. A thoroughbred is only efficient at full speed. Eager souls can't work under restraint.

It's only the heavy, hauling jobs that demand teams. There are certain forms of labor which cannot be executed without rules and prearranged schedules.

But originality runs alone and balks under a nagging jockey. Idea hunters are high strung, nervous and excitable. Repression breaks their spirit. It's in their blood to cover the ground in terrific bursts of speed. They won't work in harness and it can't be whipped into them.

Encouragement is the only spur they need to clear the hurdles and ditches in their course. A hard driver ruins them.

Every wise business man studies his stable—it doesn't pay to misapply men's abilities.

Copyright, 1916, by Herbert Kaufman. Great Britain and All Other Rights Reserved.

Thrilling Melodrama.

HELD TO ANSWER. By Peter Clark Macfarlane, author of "Those Who Have Come Back." Boston: Little, Brown & Co. $1.35 net.

John Hampstead, when we meet him, is a lovable failure—homely, awkward, self-conscious, pigeon-holed as a stenographer in a railroad office. His features, a retired actor told him when he called to see about training himself to overcome some of his handicaps, didn't fit. "They said: 'This man is a beast, a great roaring lion of a man,' and then they said: 'No, this lion is a lamb, a mild, dreamy, sucking dove sort of person.'" There is a hint of a romance with Bessie Mitchell, daughter of his boss, though manifestly John doesn't know about it. Also, in the background of his home is the family of his sister, married to an artist who is a failure as a provider—and otherwise—and dependent on John's generosity.

Bessie Mitchell is a joyous, boyish, frank and charming miss, and both she and John have landed in your heart before page 10 is reached.

Many things happened to John, beginning when his eyes went back on him and he had to quit stenography. Turned into the rate department, he travels fast, and pretty soon another railroad is after him with a big salary. But in the meantime John had become stage struck, and insisted on dropping railroading for the stage, starting in with a cheap stock company after a half-amateur trial as Ursus in "Quo Vadis." To this stock company comes Marion Dounay, a young, passionate and ambitious actress, and she and John are drawn together. In a moment of passion she finds that she loves him, but her ambition is too strong to let her submit to such weakness, and she breaks the affair by destroying John's respect for her and goes on to triumph in her career. The character of Marien is an extraordinarily vivid and startling study in feminine complexity.

The blow crushed John and lost him his place on the stage, so he turned successful book agent. Meanwhile, he had gone back to Bessie Mitchell on the rebound, and found that he loved her, and she him. But the story of Marien Dounay destroys Bessie's confidence, and she insists on a five-year trial. Then John's career takes a new turn. Dismayed by seeing an elder nailing up the door of a little church because of a church factional fight, he steps in and before he realizes it finds himself a preacher and a great one—great not for his pulpit oratory but for his humanity and his unselfish service to humanity. His motto earlier in life had been "Eternal hammering is the price of success," but now he changed it to "Eternal loyalty is the price of success." Full price he paid, as the story shows.

For Marien Dounay, famous but discontented, comes back to California, her old love for John still throbbing. She finds him gone from her, and in her wild and selfish passion she thinks to get him back by destroying him. The coil of circumstances that pillories him and destroys his reputation in a day is cunningly woven. He is arrested for stealing Marien's diamonds, his church formally votes to discharge him, and he descends to the depths, wholly out of loyalty to a soul in trouble. How disaster sweeps him to the lowest ebb of hopelessness, and how rescue comes dramatically; above all, how Bessie's stanch loyalty comes to sustain him through the crisis, makes a thrilling story of irresistible interest.

The story is told with dash and humor and reality. It is somewhat uneven; its continuity is broken at times; it has weak spots; and in one or two places it becomes rather overwrought melodrama; but its absorbing interest is inescapable, its humanity is profound, and on the whole it is strong and throbs with life and human interest.

* * *

A Self-Sufficient Woman.

LIFE AND GABRIELLA. By Ellen Glasgow, author of "Virginia," "The Battleground," etc. Garden City, N. Y.: Doubleday, Page & Co., $1.35 net.

"Virginia" was the story of a woman who was broken on the wheel of modern conditions. "Gabriella" is the story of a woman who, though afflicted sorely enough, grasped the circumstances that beset her and molded them to her will. There is a striking sharpness of outline in the people of the story. Gabriella, with her poise and honesty and cleancut common sense, is as vividly individual as her weeping, clinging, collapsing sister Jane. It was Gabriella who rose to the situation when Jane, who had been so oppressively faithful and loyal a wife that her husband went to another woman, came home in tears. Gabriella was a refreshing rock of dependability in a dreary waste of tearful family incapacity. Yet, though she had strength and independence enough to make a fine boy, she was not hard, but all womanliness.

And Gabriella had enough to contend with. Greatly to the horror of her Virginia kin, she "went to work in a store." Then she fell in love with George Fowler of New York, and broke her engagement to a prim young Virginian to marry him. It was a bad choice, for George was irresponsible, spoiled, dissipated and careless. The failure of the marriage left her alone with two children, and again she stood on her own feet. Using her talent for artistry in dress, she made good in business. The story of her struggle is a heartening tale. Nor was romance lost to her, either, for happiness, though belated, came at last.

Gabriella is an inspiring picture of courage and faith. Her story makes a fine novel, and it is admirably done.

* * *

Vigorous and Stirring Tales.

WITHIN THE TIDES. By Joseph Conrad, author of "Victory," "Chance," etc. Garden City, N. Y.: Doubleday, Page & Co. $1.35 net.

Those who may have been minded to reject Conrad because they did not fancy his occasional bent toward indirection should read this book—particularly the last three tales of the four that make it up. They will find in these stories tremendous straight-from-the-shoulder directness, and a powerfully moving force achieved by simplicity and limpid English.

In the first tale, "The Planter of Malata," a grim tragedy that occupied close to half the book, the story gets under way but slowly, and occasionally the slowness is irritating, with much waste motion. But when it does get under way it sweeps irresistibly to its gloomy end. It deals with a half-cracked recluse, a grower of silk worms on a lonely island, who falls in love with a girl seeking her lover, who had been accused of crime and had run away. The girl did not begin seeking him, it is clear, until proof of his innocence developed. The recluse, knowing that the lover is dead, having died on his island, conceals the fact to keep the girl there, and even lets her and her father come to his island before disclosing his secret. The story ends in tragedy.

"The Partner" is a character sketch, the story of how a clever scoundrel undermined the honesty of a decent man and the crimes and horrors that came of it.

"The Inn of the Two Witches" treats of a badly frightened British naval officer in a lonely Spanish inn during the Peninsular wars. It is just story, and a good one and eerily bloodcurdling; though the chief feature of the plot is not new.

"Because of the Dollars" is about a good man who commanded a ship, about a bad woman stranded in a noisome hole somewhere in the Orient, about a cargo of silver dollars, and about two incredibly bad men.

A notable fact about the book is that the people are starkly vivid, and that there isn't a women in it with a soul. The best one is a woman whose only boast was that she had been faithful to every one of the many men who had possessed her, just as long as they could stand her. In "The Planter of Malata," after the recluse has confessed his deception and immediately declared his passion, "the tale made her recoil slightly, for she was not fit to hear it—not even a little—not even one single time in her life."

It seems odd indeed that some should accuse of indirection this writer who can, at will, write with such limpid and powerful directness; yet the shilly-shallying that delays the movement in "The Planter of Malata" may account for it.

* * *

Feminism At Its Extreme.

THE REAL ADVENTURE. By Henry Kitchell Webster. Indianapolis: Bobbs Merrill Company. $1.50 net.

To the man or woman with old-fashioned or even modern conservative ideas on the status of woman in society, there is something shocking in the view of feminism disclosed by Mr. Webster in this very entertaining story. The principle around which the story revolves is not in itself repelling, but the means adopted by the heroine to establish that principle in her own life are so unusual, so very unlikely in everyday life as it is viewed by the ordinary man or woman, that the story gives food for much thought and the conclusions reached by different readers must be in wide conflict.

Rodney Aldrich, a successful and rather cynical young lawyer, is attracted to Rose Stanton, a Chicago university student, by the fact that she punches a street car conductor in the eye when he starts to put her off the car after she has refused to pay her fare a second time. She jumps off the car and he follows. The acquaintanceship ripens into love and they are married.

Marriage brings a measure of happiness to both, but as they are high-spirited individuals, with distinct personalities, they are unable to work out the merger upon which true happiness in marriage is based. Both feel the restraint of the marriage yoke. Both feel the need for individual expression. But the conventions shackle them. However much Rodney may admire feminine independence in the abstract, he cannot bring his views to bear upon his own life. Rose, however, is not content with love and riches and the twins which are hers only to see occasionally and paid nurses to love and nourish and bathe and cuddle. She wants not alone her husband's love, but his respect for her ability, her talent and her mind. She scorns feminine wiles and despises clinging vines. Her efforts to understand her husband's work and help him in it are repulsed.

She leaves husband, home, twins and friends and dares to merit the scorn of the world in striving for her ideal. How she develops her talents and commands the respect of her friends and her husband, to whom she is reunited on a new basis of married life, forms the story—a story which is told in a pleasing way that makes its unreality seem very, very real.

The unreality of the story does not apply to the characters. They are very real men and women. Undoubtedly women dream the dreams that Rose Aldrich did, but it is hard to imagine a woman taking the course she did. Perhaps there are women who would. But such knowledge as the ordinary man has of feminine respect for convention does not support the theory. Whether they would go to the extremes she did or not, there are very many Rose Aldriches in the world. And there are Rodney Aldriches and Portia Stantons and Fredericas and Harlets and James Randolphs and John Galbraiths and poor little chorus girls and big, bold chorus girls and real-life replicas of all the other characters to whom Mr. Webster introduces the reader.

Mr. Webster has written a bold story, but a brilliant one. It is long, but it holds the attention. The story certainly is not true to commonplace life, but it may be true of a circle of present-day society to which the ordinary man or woman has not access. The characters certainly are true to everyday life and their delineation is well-nigh perfect. Whether the reader be a feminist or a stanch member of the woman's-only-place-is-the-home cult, he can find a very real interest in the story and a very real sympathy with the characters in it. And perhaps in the end he will feel more kindly toward feminism, the sole expression of which is not a demand for the ballot.

* * *

A Novelist on the War.

THE WORLD DECISION. By Robert Herrick, author of "The Common Lot," "His Great Adventure," etc. Boston and New York: Houghton Mifflin company. $1.25.

Powerfully moved by the vast world tragedy, not only from the broad view, but from intimate contact with its actualities gained during a year's stay in Europe, Mr. Herrick has written a book into the making of which all the fire and force of his novels—and more—have gone. He watched, and describes vividly, the "swift unfolding of the drama" which ended in Italy's participation in the war. He gives a charming picture of poverty-stricken, cheerful Italy. Though he declares Germany incapable of belief in such sentimentalism, he believes that it was the moral shock of the murder of the Lusitania that gave Germany this new enemy. There is a wonderfully moving picture of France at war—France, the nation of all nations that stands, a clean, shining figure, above the trampling herd of nations at war. It is a beautiful picture, sweet to keep in the memory.

It is a pity, though, that Mr. Herrick's deeply stirred sympathies should have so unbalanced his mental poise as to lead him to say bitter and uncalled for things about the position of his own country. His complaint of our neutrality betrays a dominance of sentiment over intelligence that sadly mars the later pages of his book. The time will come when they will shame him. He finds America far more callously indifferent and more intent on mere profit-taking than she is. His picture is outrageously unjust, and can be condoned only on the theory that the sight of much suffering has turned his head. He could believe, as most of his countrymen devoutly do, that France is fighting for us no less than for herself, without believing in the caricature of cold greed which he presents as a photograph of the United States.

* * *

A Report From the Experiment Station.

THE OPERATION OF THE INITIATIVE, REFERENDUM AND RECALL IN OREGON. By James D. Barnett, Ph. D., professor of political science in the University of Oregon. New York: The Macmillan company. $2.

Oregon, as a sort of political experiment station for the American people—and a very fitting one because of its largely homogeneous Americanism little diluted by the problems of the melting pot—has been carrying on extensive experiments with these tools of real democracy. Dr. Barnett, being close to the scene of the experiments, has made a careful study of them, and tells us how they have worked out. It makes a book of peculiar value, especially in every state where the subject is still one for academic discussion. Its value is greatly increased by the fact that the author has not written it to support a belief, or to prove one side of the case or the other, but manifestly only to report candidly and fully on the facts.

His study covers thoroughly the history, machinery, operations and results of the initiative, the referendum and the recall in Oregon. It is not an attempt at forming a judgment, but an attempt to outline facts upon which judgment can be based. It develops flaws and failures; but somewhat more conspicuously it develops flaws and failures in the main arguments against the system. The ballot has been overloaded, the machinery overworked, but these evils are in a way of remedying themselves and actual good has been done.

The results are not "radical." The people are conservative.

It attests the fairness of this study that both opponents and defenders of the system will find material here for use in their arguments. The final effect is to abate some of the extravagant arguments against it. A careful study of the book may not convince the Tory that the initiative, referendum and recall are indispensable possessions that every state—and the nation—should acquire forthwith; but neither will it change the minds of those who held them to be desirable checks on representative government that it will be well to have in hand as soon as possible.

* * *

Talking Sense.

SMITH ON PREPAREDNESS. By Simeon Strunsky. Pamphlet, 48 pp. New York: E. W. Bluetsch Publishing company. 10 cents.

Simeon Strunsky is of the editorial staff of the New York Evening Post. He describes himself when he classifies Smith as neither militarist nor pacifist but an American citizen who wishes to preserve our ideals in democracy, our traditions, our reliance on peaceful means, but is willing to sacrifice everything if need be to preserve the national existence.

So the Smith of the pamphlet sits down and takes stock of his understanding of preparedness.

What he concludes is well worth spending ten cents to find out, for it is sane and pretty close to the average man's point of view, simply told and shrewdly expressed.

His most striking reflection is this—that the United States has been more upset by this war than England. England is still sticking to its old notions of democracy though they are sorely beset. The United States has half a mind to throw everything overboard right now for fear that there may be war after this war is over. Smith—and Strunsky—think that is not being level-headed. That is not the main conclusion—it is only the one that happens to stick out.

* * *

A Spy Tells His Story.

REVELATIONS OF AN INTERNATIONAL SPY. By I. I. T. Lincoln. New York: Robert M. McBride & Co. $1.50 net.

A queer case, this, and a queer story. The author was Ignatius Trilich, a Hungarian Jew, educated to be a rabbi. He became an apostate to his father's religion and a Presbyterian missionary. Then he became an apostate to the country of his birth, adopting the name of Lincoln, acquiring British citizenship, and even becoming a member of parliament. As secretary to Mr. Rowntree, cocoa magnate and reformer, he engaged in investigations of housing conditions, which he later used as an excuse for his spying operations.

He was not an official spy, but according to his own story he was engaged by an unnamed Englishman to spy on King Edward VII and Sir Edward Gray, and the chief purpose of his book is to prove that these two were responsible for the war because they conspired to hem Germany in with a ring of steel. In this respect the book is all that the most ardent pro-Teuton could ask; though how anybody could be expected to believe so weird a tale told by a man who confesses to so much double-dealing it is hard to see.

Lincoln's business was ruined by the war and the personal contumely which befell those of German or Austrian birth in England. This made him angry, and he planned in revenge to obtain information and codes from the German intelligence headquarters at Rotterdam and with this to gain the confidence of the British war office. What he proposed to do with this confidence is not clear; though the possibility that all along he was a German spy, and that he tells this story to account for certain things and to serve certain purposes, will readily occur to the reader, and the theory will be strengthened by the obvious animus of the story.

At any rate, Lincoln came into contact with the detectives of the admiralty, and felt it necessary to fly to America. Here he was arrested on an English complaint, charged with forgery. He says this was done by the British government to head off this book. On Jan. 15 he escaped from under the eyes of a United States deputy marshal, and he has since defied the entire secret service department.

The story is interesting, and is supported by enough pictures of documents to give it reality.

* * *

A Promising Failure.

MY COUNTRY. A poem. By Alice M. Fay. New York: Alice M. Fay, 782 West End avenue.

Miss Fay admittedly undertook a big task when she began this series of eighty-three stanzas besides introduction and l'envoi. Perhaps she found it biger than she had anticipated. She declares she wanted to bring home to the people of this country "not only the beauty and variety of American scenery, but the high place that America holds in literature and history, the stability of her ideals, and above all the possibilities of the coming American race."

It is not to criticize severely to say that "My Country" falls far short of its author's high ideals. Such a work as that is not to be produced by the pen of an author hardly more than a score of years of age—it would rather be the crowning effort of a lifetime of study and labor in far more than mere versification. It might be in the form of an epic or otherwise, though the world has come to consider either epic or dramatic form as the ideal vehicle for greatness in literary construction.

But Miss Fay's work is not wasted, by any means. There are some errors in the poem, as when she credits this country with being the home of the reindeer, and where she places the scenes of the Hiawatha legend beyond the Rockies instead of on the shores of Lake Superior. But in nearly every one of the more than four-score stanzas that compose the poem there is evidence of unmistakable poetical talent; not only that, but a talent so marked that it breaks through the travelogue method of handling her theme that the author has unfortunately adopted.

"My Country" is not a great poem. It lacks coherence and it is not in a proper form for the purpose sought. But its author is evidently possessed of a power of versification and a vivid sense of imagery that ought to enable her to produce poems of real power and value. Perhaps she may yet accomplish her dream of being the author of "The Great American Poem." When she does, "My Country" will look different to her.

* * *

Partisan Claptrap.

THE NATIONAL ISSUES OF 1916. By Charles N. Fowler. Elizabeth, N. J.: Published by the author. $1.50.

With the review copy of this book comes a letter from the author recommending it as "a right vision of our national needs," written in "a spirit of service," with a view to "the information and preparation of the voter for citizenship." A fine purpose, if it be served with the country's good in view, and not merely a party's prosperity, deserved or undeserved. If it is intended as a party campaign document, it should be otherwise dedicated. If it is a party document, that dedication is hypocrisy.

What is the nature of the patriotic advice he offers? In the first place, we gather that while child labor laws, workingmen's compensation acts and the like may be all very well, we should prepare for war, because war we have always with us, and "all government has always been and always will be founded upon force so long as this planet is inhabited by human beings." So far as that is concerned, this government is founded upon a right concept of the relations of men to government and government to men, not upon force; and no government founded wholly on force ever endured or ever will endure—and a glory to mankind it is that this is so and Fowler wrong.

Second, Mr. Fowler says we should beware corruption and decay and keep patriotism alive. Bully! Only soldiering isn't the only patriotism, nor by any means the highest patriotism.

Third, Mr. Fowler finds business and industry flat on their backs; and that is hardly up to date. Whatever it was when Fowler made the speech containing that statement, when his book was being published and while he still had a chance to correct the proofs, prosperity and industrial activity unparalleled were sweeping the country.

Furthermore, doubtless to attest his single-minded and unpartisan patriotism, Mr. Fowler remarks in passing that the Democratic party "in 1816 developed those policies which to this very hour have been the scourge and curse of the nation." This is the keynote to which a vicious, rabid and narrow attack upon the president of the United States is sung.

The book is, indeed, a shallow and intemperate rehash of cold remnants of old Republican campaign feasts which were warm in the '80s and '90s and grew cold when the century was young. It is made up chiefly of old tocsins that have had all the ring dinned out of them long ago.

But Mr. Fowler's pet black beast is the Federal banking and currency law, which he declares is a stupendous mistake that should be repealed at once. Never mind if bankers and business men of all classes and types have warmly approved the law. Never mind if qualified experts declare that no blessing so great flowed out of congress in half a century of Republicanism. This law crowded out a Fowler bill, and for that it can never be forgiven—by Fowler. Fowler wants it thrown out and Fowler's bill put in its place, and sees no security for the nation or the world if this is not done forthwith. Nobody is calling for this change except Fowler, but Fowler is calling for it with a loud outcry, and Fowler has written a "patriotic" book about it.

A third of the book is about the merchant marine, and another third about the tariff. Both, like the rest of it, are so poisoned by bigoted partisanship as to be unfit for the reading of reasoning men and as to defeat their own purpose.

* * *

Something Queer.

THE FOURTH DIMENSIONAL REACHES OF THE EXPOSITION. By Cora Lenore Williams. San Francisco: Paul Elder & Co.

Many and varied books and brochures have been written about the Panama-Pacific exposition, and nearly all seemed to have some definite aim, whether that aim was distinctly declared in the preface or not. If you are bound to read about the exposition and are tired of definite aim books, here is what you want. If it has an aim, the concealment of it is perfect. If it has a purpose other than that of confusion of mind, the latter effect completely overwhelms whatever the former may be. The most marked thought after reading this is that, compared with it, the solution of the fourth dimension would be child's play. Miss Williams is announced as a native of Minnesota, "having lived for a number of years at Rochester." She is at present principal of the A-to-Zed school in Berkeley, Cal.

* * *

Two Aids to the Playwright.

WRITING FOR VAUDEVILLE. By Brett Page; edited by J. Berg Eisenwein. Springfield, Mass.: The Home Correspondence School. $2.12 postpaid.

THE TECHNIQUE OF PLAY WRITING. By Charlton Andrews; edited by J. Berg Eisenwein. Springfield, Mass.: The Home Correspondence School. $1.62 postpaid.

Complaint has often been made among amateur writers of the difficulty in finding—if one could find at all—any source of information on the act of stagecraft that did not deal so largely in technicalities as to be almost useless to the uninformed. These two additions to The Writer's Library meet that difficulty with admirable completeness.

Though the handling of the themes in the two volumes is different, the identity of the subject matter, as well as of the aims sought—and accomplished, links them almost inseparably. Both take up the work of the stage from the viewpoint of the writer of plays rather than from the more commonly treated one of the producer or actor, and both carry the reader through a definite, carefully developed and thoroughly studied course of work, from the first birth of an idea that seems adapted to stage presentation through the preparation of the manuscript.

One thing that is made clear in both volumes is that there is no easy road to success in dramatic writing, whatever there may be in other lines. The necessity for hard, conscientious, even protracted, labor, both mental and manual, is emphasized. The sureness of failure that accompanies superficiality in this sort of work is demonstrated and the difficulties of the task are put forth in the baldest of commonplaceness. And yet there are many things that would serve to encourage the worker who sought honestly to succeed in this kind of work, though there is never the least suggestion that anything but honest toil will get one anywhere with it.

One unusual feature of these two volumes is the reproduction of actual pages of manuscrips of plays to show the correct forms of preparation. Another is the publication of a dozen well known and successful vaudeville acts that are invaluable as subjects for study. These include all sorts of matter, from the monologue, two-part and musical comedy stunts through the more serious drama and the burlesque. Not only are these examples of successful writing furnished, but they are made the basis of definite study from the standpoint of the object sought to be attained by each particular style of matter, thus directing the reader's attention to important points in construction or development that otherwise might have been overlooked.

Another exceedingly important feature of "Writing for Vaudeville" is the discussion of the market for such writings and of the best way to dispose of manuscripts as well as something about the prices to be asked. These two books should be in the library of every aspirant for recognition as a writer for the stage and a careful study of them would be exceedingly valuable to many who try to pass judgment on stage productions.

* * *

Ireland and Germany.

WHAT COULD GERMANY DO FOR IRELAND? By James K. McGuire. New York: Wolf Tone company. $1.

There is a type of professional Irishmen in whom the habit of hating England has become so deepseated that they want Germany to win merely to humiliate England, regardless of what it might mean for Scotland, Wales, Ireland, Belgium, Serbia, France and human liberties everywhere. Mr. McGuire is one of these, and he lets his reasoning carry him on to the extent of desiring an "alliance" between Germany and Ireland. That such views as his are rare is shown by the fact that he greatly deplores the indifference of the Irish people that makes such causes as his prosper so poorly.

* * *

Sense on Insanity.

WHO IS INSANE? By Stephen Smith, A. M., M. D., LL. D., former commissioner in lunacy of the state of New York. New York: The Macmillan company. $1.25.

This singularly lucid and interesting book is the result of many years' experience with the insane hospitals of New York. The author undertakes to make clear the illusive nature of insanity, to illuminate the faint line that divides the sane from the insane, to explain the origin of insanity in the derangement of the brain cells, and to illustrate the principles governing the prevention, cure and detection of insanity. All this is done with as much freedom from technical terms as possible. There are many exceptionally interesting stories illustrating the thinness of the division between lunacy and sanity. Describing a conversation in which an insane woman showed cunning logic, he adds: "On what a slender thread hangs our destiny, when we may be confined to an asylum for a lifetime because we differ in thought, word or action from another, whose mental integrity has never been gauged by an absolutely correct standard." Perhaps the most important feature of the book is its discussion of critical periods of life disposing to insanity, with warnings and advice about prevention and cure. The treatment is decidedly wholesome and cheerful.

* * *

A Useful Compendium.

THE AMERICAN WHITAKER ALMANAC, 1916. C. W. Whitaker, M. A., F. S. A., editor. New York: The Macmillan company. $1.

Here are 552 pages amazingly compact and crowded full of useful information, covering an astonishingly wide variety of subjects and with a good and copious index. There are many special features, including a special war section, full information about nations and states, with maps of each state. While it covers the world, it has special reference to this country.

* * *

Keeping Fit on Eight-Minute Exercises.

KEEPING PHYSICALLY FIT. Common Sense Exercises for the Whole Family. By William J. Cromie. Illustrated. New York: The Macmillan company. $1.

This seems a particularly practical manual on the subject. "Would you," Dr. Cromie asks, "believe that you can gain and maintain physical efficiency by devoting but eight of the 1,440 minutes of each day to simple, common sense physical exercise? Well, whether you believe it or not, I shall go on record for making such a claim. If you will meet me half way by following my instructions, I shall, by your own verdict at the end of the month, prove my assertion." Though a strong statement, it seems fair enough to give Dr. Cromie a chance to demonstrate his claim, especially as it calls for no great sacrifice of time or conveniences. The exercises proposed are not only for men, but for women and children, and there is other practical advice in the book.

Among the Magazines.

The March Scribner begins with an article by Col. Roosevelt giving an account of a visit he made last summer to the great "Bird Refugees of Louisiana." These government reserves, on the initiative of the Audubon societies, were started when Col. Roosevelt was president. He writes with a naturalist's knowledge plus the vein of sentiment that from Thoreau's day to the present has made nature study so wide in its appeal. There are many most interesting descriptions of the great colonies of sea-birds on these islands—terns, gulls, skimmers, pelican, and the wonderful frigate-bird. The new serial begins in this number. It is by Louis Dodge, the literary editor of the "St. Louis Republic," Bonnie May, the little child of the stage, is a unique character, and her observations on life are both amusing and wise. She becomes by accident a member of an old conservative family, and the contrast between the world she has known and theirs is the gist of the story. You will like Bonnie May—be glad to know her. There are eight pages of pictures in color from a remarkable series of paintings by Leon Gaspard, a young Russian painter now in this country after some thrilling experiences in France. They are impressions of the war, scenes in France and Russia. His work has won the instant admiration of the artists.

* * *

The leading feature of the March Century is an article entitled "Our Prison Problem," by Governor Charles S. Whitman of New York, who sums up, clearly and briefly, just what prison reform is, what it is driving toward, and what it is driving away from. Governor Whitman is known everywhere as a friend of prison reform, and certainly there are few who should know more about it than he. In reply to the optimistic article on "America and Japan," which Baron Shibusawa, the "Japanese Pierpont Morgan," contributed to the February Century, Thomas F. Millard, editor of the China Press, contributes to the March number a stirring paper entitled "The Japanese Menace." Mr. Millard believes that Japan is making deliberate preparations in anticipation of a collision with the United States, that Japanese public opinion is already bitterly hostile to us, and that a Japanese propaganda in America has lulled us into a false security. In Phyllis Bottome's story, "Mlle. l'Anglaise," two cleverly drawn individuals epitomize two great peoples and the transforming effect the war has had upon their relations. It is the tale of a young English woman artist who has gone to study in Paris, and a young French sculptor whose ways are impossible—and how the war makes it right between them, with humorous entertainment and considerable emotional thrill for the reader. The pen-and-ink illustrations are by W. D. Stevens.

* * *

A lively discussion of advice given by Eugene Parsons about "Omitting the Superfluous" in writing is a feature of the February number of The Writer, the Boston magazine for literary workers, which also has articles on "Idealism and Realism in Writing for the Young," by Ellen Douglas Deland, "Writing Plays for Amateurs," by Peter Vincent, and "When to Stop Offering a Manuscript," by May Belleville Brown.

* * *

The March Popular Science Monthly is the best issue of this remarkable magazine. From cover to cover the issue is filled with readings which holds the interest, even though the reader is not of a mechanical turn of mind. One feels that he can get a liberal knowledge of the trend of the scientific world by merely looking at the pictures, since there are more than 30 of them in the March issue alone. Among the more important articles in the current issue are, "The Giant Task of the Subway Diggers in New York," by Charles P. Cushing; "The cost of the Great War," by Herbert Francis; "Destroyers of the Air," by Eustace L. Adams; "Capturing Jamaica for a Film Play," by George F. Worts; "Can Battery Explosions on Submarines Be Prevented?" and "Forts on Rails to Move Where They Are Needed."

* * *

A striking innovation in the March Woman's Home Companion is the Alco Gravure section, with illustrations printed by a new and attractive process. This issue contains the opening chapters of a new serial by Sophie Kerr entitled "The Blue Envelope," a detective story by Willian J. Burns, an article by Andrew Carnegie, excellent fiction and a wide variety of special features. Among the stories and serials are "An Awfully Nice Girl," by Claire Wallace Flynn, "The Rising Tide," by Margaret Deland, "The Secret Sorrow of Araminta," by Elizabeth Jordan, and "Chloe Malone," by Fannie Heaslip Lea. The special articles include "The Principles of Giving," by Andrew Carnegie, "Women and Preparedness," by Agnes Repplier, "The Romance of Italy," by Laura Spencer Porter, and many others. One of the new regular departments is now conducted by a successful business man, who replies to the questions of parents as to the reason their sons do not get ahead in business.

* * *

In the March American Magazine are capital short stories and special articles. There is also an interesting picture section printed by the new Alco Gravure process. "The World Is Mine," by Albert W. Atwood describes the financial future opening before the United States and gives the opinions of our foremost financiers and business men concerning it. "Believing and Doing," by Emerson Hough tells the true story of what is perhaps the most remarkable college in the world. For the series entitled "The Glory of the States," George Ade has a characteristic article on Indiana—the state that has won eminence "without acquiring a double chin or wearing a wrist watch." "Getting and Holding a Job," by Hugh S. Fullerton, tells how many progressive business concerns are invoking the aid of science in hiring their employes. James Hay, Jr., has an interesting article on ex-Senator Burton of Ohio, the man with a miracle memory. One of the most striking stories in this issue is "The Conqueror," by Dorothy Canfield. There is also good and varied fiction by Alice Garland Steele, Sophie Kerr, Ellis Parker Butler, who gives us a new "Swatty" story and Olive Higgins Prouty, who continues her novel, "The Fifth Wheel."

* * *

Current History, a monthly magazine of the New York Times, for February has a greater variety of matter than any previous issue. It contains 220 pages of text and illustrations, with sixteen full-page rotogravure portraits, twenty-four of the best cartoons from different European publications, besides numerous maps, charts, diagrams, etc. Some of the distinguished features are: The text in full of the historical "Too Late" speech of David Lloyd George, George Bernard Shaw's admirable article on "Great Britain's Vitality;" Albert Ballin, head of the Hamburg-American line, writes interestingly on the "Freedom of the Seas." There are articles by David Starr Jordan, Dr. Bernard Dernburg, Count Apponyi, Theodore Roosevelt, the finance manager of Germany, Edmund Gosse, and others equally authoritative—in fact, the most distinguished publicists and personages in all the countries of the world are represented in the February number of Current History.

* * *

In the March Outing there is an article on "Making Better Motor Boats," which describes the particular improvements that have been made in boat and engine construction in recent years. "The Old-Time Cow-Puncher" is a series of photographs printed in sepia in special insert. The pictures show our little friend "cotton-tail" in his native environment, and also his infant family. "Putting Sails on a Canoe" describes how to construct and set up your own rig. It is illustrated with photographs and diagrams.

* * *

The stories in the March Woman's World are exceptionally good, full of action, with a strong purpose back of them. "The Wounds of a Friend" by Florence Morse Kingsley, shows vividly the effect of a few careless words of criticism. Isabel Ostrander tells one of the most exciting tales about Grangerville in "By Means of Fire," introducing some new characters. "Does Adoption Pay?" is an enlightening account of an unmarried woman's experience; read it and decide for yourself. The fourth installment of the "Heart of Orel," by Grace MacGowan Cooke, brings the story to a highly interesting crisis. Maude Radford Warren's romance of small town life is called "The Bird of Paradise," but Jenny Wrenn is the heroine.

* * *

A complete system of coast defense for the United States which includes strategically routed railways and especially designed railway cars for carrying big guns is the proposal of a New York inventor which is receiving the consideration of the war department and other military authorities, the president having asked that the system be investigated. The proposal as described and illustrated in Popular Mechanics magazine for March arouses special interest at this time because of the nation-wide discussion of preparedness. The general idea is not altogether original and is admitted to be open to discussion; the details of the plan, particularly as applied to equipment, are new and interesting. Concrete foundations connected with a railway system skirting the coast would serve as fixed mountings for big guns, each being so designed that a car with a big gun upon it could be locked to the foundation quickly and brought into action almost immediately.

* * *

The result of President Wilson's "swing around the circle" in the interests of preparedness, and his winning of the Middle West, kept the cartoonists fairly busy, and the best of their work, together with newspaper comment on the trip is given in the March Cartoons magazine. That the political pot has begun to boil in anticipation of the June feasts in Chicago and St. Louis is evident from a survey of the cartoon field. If these cartoonists are the prophets they are supposed to be, the wedding of the Bull Moose and the Elephant will be duly celebrated, with Col. Roosevelt as best man. A second term for President Wilson also is strongly hinted at in the cartoons.

* * *

In the Engineering Magazine for February prominent position is given to two articles on our foreign commerce. One of these by Secretary Redfield urges in vigorous language the necessity for establishing an adequate merchant marine in order to protect ourselves in time of war, whether we be in the position of neutral or belligerent. The second is a staff article describing the composition and the aims of the recently formed American International corporation, which promises to be an interesting departure in our commercial life. To the thoughtful reader the article in the number which will carry the widest appeal is one by D. M. Liddell in which he analyzed the position of the world in respect to its mineral resources, the rates of consumption which are taking place with the principal metals, and what we may expect in the future as to a supply of adequate structural and mechanical materials. Without being an alarmist, Mr. Liddell manages to stimulate some rather serious thinking on this fundamental problem of our existence.

HEALTH AND TAXES

By DR. SAMUEL G. DIXON, Commissioner of Health for Pennsylvania.

Individual illness places a tax upon the entire community. The prolonged sickness of wage-earners is apt to result in poverty for themselves and their families. Indigency and crime itself are often lurking in the trail of disease.

National efficiency must rest upon the sound foundation of health. The reduction of sickness and death from preventable disease should be the first step in our preparation for self defense. Lord Beaconsfield said, "The public health is the foundation on which reposes the happiness of the people and the power of a country. The care of the public health is the first duty of a statesman."

In some states in the Union there has been an increasing percentage of dependents as they have become more thickly populated. In addition to the enormous losses from death due to preventable diseases when health laws are not enforced, there is a tremendous annual expenditure necessitated by this growing number of those who are unable to bear their part in the world's work.

The insane, the feeble-minded, the consumptive and the pauper are a heavy burden upon the taxpayer.

Provisions and expenditures which will aid in the reduction of those things which sap the vitality of the nation, will aid in preventing the increased taxation for the support of the growing army of the unfit.

BOOKS & MAGAZINE
Reviewed on this page can be secured at
EDWARD M. STONE'S BOOK STORE,
221 West Superior St., Duluth.

D. H., 3-4-16.

GOLD CROWN, per tooth $3

GOLD BRIDGE, per tooth $3

WHALEBONE RUBBER SET OF TEETH..... $4

Science Is Making Dentistry Cheaper

It is keeping pace with medicine and surgery—new discoveries are being made constantly. The day for charging $10 for a gold bridge or crown and $15 for a set of teeth is past. If you pay it you are paying too much. Our large volume of business and private laboratory enables us to make the same crown or bridge per tooth for $3 to $5—the same applies to plate construction. We are specialists who keep constantly in touch with all that is new in dental development, investigate our professional standing first—then let us estimate your dental work.

FREE!

Our Everstick Suction!

WHALEBONE RUBBER PLATE

Get the Anatomical Teeth That Wear Forever.

We have decided to make our Whalebone Set of Teeth, with our everstick suction, which is by all comparison a $15 set, for $4. They will stick in any mouth, no matter how hard it is to fit. A set of teeth that will stick tight to your mouth; never falls when you laugh; bites corn off the cob; does not make a noise when you eat; you can cough, sneeze, sing, laugh or whistle and they never drop. And looks natural as your own.

TEETH EXTRACTED PAINLESSLY

WE SPECIALIZE IN ADMINSTERING GAS.

Gold Crowns	$3.00	Aluminum Plates	$12.00
Full Set of Teeth as low as	$4.00	Gold Fillings	75c up
Bridge Work, per tooth	$3.00	Silver Fillings	50c
White Crowns	$3.00	Teeth Cleaned	50c

Gold Inlay We are experts in making good Inlays. The old, painful method of pounding and malleting in filling teeth is past—our inlay operators are skilled to the minute. All our inlays are made to fit to a mathematical certainty.

NEW YORK AND BOSTON DENTAL CO.,

216 WEST SUPERIOR STREET (Opposite Grand Theater)

Telephone—Melrose 6410. Open Daily 8:30 a. m. to 7 p. m.; Sundays 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. Lady attendant.

CITY TO HAVE BIG SURPLUS

Water and Light Department Will Have $40,000 for Bonded Debt.

Persons Holding Bonds May Redeem Them Now, Says Reed.

Officials of the water and light department will have a surplus of at least $40,000 this year, the entire amount to be used in the reduction of the plant's outstanding bonded debt, according to an announcement made yesterday by D. A. Reed, manager of the department.

Since Jan. 1 the department has redeemed a total of $40,000 in bonds maturing in 1932 and 1934, while a similar amount will be redeemed during this year, providing holders of the bonds are willing to relinquish their holdings. In addition, the 1913 issue of $20,000 in public utility certificates will mature on Sept. 1, all of which will be redeemed out of the division's sinking fund.

"We expect to have a surplus of from $40,000 to $75,000," said Manager Reed yesterday, "and persons holding water and light bonds can redeem them at any time. In this way we will save the interest on the bonds and at the same time reduce our bonded debt."

Since Jan. 1, according to City Treasurer McLean, the water and light department has redeemed $25,000 of the $50,000 issue maturing March 1, 1933 and $15,000 of the $140,000 issue maturing Nov. 1, 1932. All of these bonds, excepting a block of $5,000 returned by the Minnesota Loan & Trust company, were held by the Modern Samaritans.

Manager Reed is now negotiating with the Modern Samaritans for the redemption of a block of $20,000 bonds held by the fraternity, which do not mature until Nov. 1, 1932. If successful, the department will still have a surplus of $20,000 with which to redeem other outstanding bonds during the year.

GOOD FISHERMEN ARE IN DEMAND

Are Worth Almost Their Weight in Gold in England.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Grimsby, England, Feb. 18.—Good fishermen are worth almost their weight in gold here, so scarce have they become since the war's outbreak. Notwithstanding the mining of so many parts of the North sea and other waters adjacent to the British Isles the industry has suffered no decline. There are just as many fish and the demand for them is greater than ever. The difficulty in catching them is due to the fact that so many fishermen and their boats have been pressed into the Royal Naval Reserve Trawler section to man the mine sweepers and other vessels on war service.

The original steam-fishing fleet here, which in peace times numbered more than 600 vessels, has been materially depleted. The type of fisherman has undergone a change, comprising largely the class of man who works only when necessity demands. Trawler owners are offering big wages to good fishermen, the highest in years along the English coast and the decrease in the number of trawlers available for fishing has had the effect of creating a financial boom among owners whose vessels have not been interfered with by the admiralty. Voyages are now profitable in the widest sense of the term. Prices for fish have more than quadrupled and, with the continuous shortage, due not only to the naval requirements in regard to vessels, but also to the restricted fishing area, there is always an overwhelming demand from all parts of the country.

Last Formal Reception.

Washington, March 4.—The formal White House social season was brought to an end last night with a reception given by the president and Mrs. Wilson in honor of army and navy officers. The White House was crowded with guests and the uniforms of the officers made the scene a brilliant one. The vice president and Mrs. Marshall and cabinet members and their wives assisted the president in receiving.

"Y" BOYS' MINSTREL PROMISES TO ECLIPSE ALL PREVIOUS SHOWS

One of the biggest crowds that ever attended the Orpheum theater will be present next Friday evening when the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A. will put on its tenth annual minstrel show. The proceeds are going toward buying a piano for the boys' new building. Edward Evans, who has held the honor for the last two entertainments for having sold the highest number of tickets, is again showing his salesmanship ability. Rehearsals have been going on for two months, and everything will be ready when the curtain rises at 8:10. The first part of the program will be along the line of a vaudeville show. Stanley Lamb and Lawrence Duby will put on a little sketch entitled "An Extra Guest." Many novelties will be introduced. Russell Duncan, Irving Grover and Robert Kerr will present a sketch entitled "Dane's Dress Suit Case." The sketch is not long, but is funny while it lasts. The Leaders' corps of the Y. M. C. A. will give a 10-minute gymnastic thrill. Mr. Olson and Mr. Bosley, physical directors of the Y. M. C. A., will give a stick exhibition with spotlight effect.

Erling Sodahl and Herbert Miska will give a violin duet, which will conclude the first part of the program. Lawrence Duby, who appeared in the first minstrel show that the club ever gave, will again this year occupy one of the end men's seats, and his partner will be Stanley Lamb, who is also an old boys' department minstrel star. Russell Duncan and Irving Grover are the other two end men. For one hour these end men with a chorus of fifty voices will make one forget his troubles.

LAWRENCE DUBY.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM
A toilet preparation of merit. Helps to eradicate dandruff. For Restoring Color and Beauty to Gray or Faded Hair. 50c. and $1.00 at Druggists.

This Bank

It is a mistake for the young business man to say, "I have no need of credit, I buy and sell for cash." It is right and proper to pay promptly, but the successful business man is the one who establishes a credit and protects it as he would his character.

Credit is a necessary factor in the building up of your business.

This bank desires as customers young business men with ability to successfully conduct their business. We know the business man's requirements and will lend our assistance willingly to honest efforts to build up a credit.

CITY NATIONAL BANK
CAPITAL $500,000.00
DULUTH, MINN.

In the Churches

LENT WILL BEGIN WEDNESDAY; FORTY DAYS OF SELF-DENIAL

Next Wednesday will be the beginning of Lent, that period of the year when for forty days, the religious world is supposed to go into seclusion and eschew the follies and frivolities of the other 325 days. All Catholics and Episcopalians are supposed to observe the period in prayer and self-denial.

Special services will be held daily in all churches of these two creeds, and those for Trinity Episcopal cathedral have just been announced by Rev. Canon MacLean. They will be conducted by Bishop Morrison and Canon MacLean as follows:

Ash Wednesday—Holy communion, 10 a. m., and evensong, 8 p. m.

Sundays—Holy communion, 8 a. m.; matins (holy communion, first Sunday), 11; evensong, 5 p. m.

Daily—Every afternoon at 4:30, except Friday, when the services are held at 8 p. m.; Thursday at 10 a. m.

Holy week, beginning April 16.—Daily at 10 a. m., and 4:30 p. m.; Good Friday, 10 a. m., noon and 3 p. m.

Easter Sunday, April 23—Holy communion, 7, 9:45 and 11 a. m.; choral evensong, 5 p. m.

Palm Sunday, April 16—Confirmation 11 a. m.

Classes—Women and girls, Wednesdays at 5 p. m.; and men and boys, 7:30 p. m.

At St. Paul's Episcopal church, Lenten services are announced as follows by the rector, Rev. A. W. Ryan:

Ash Wednesday—10:30 a. m., penitential office, holy communion and sermon; 4:15 p. m., evening service and address.

Thursdays—Holy communion at 10:30 a. m.

Fridays—Services at 8 p. m.

Saturdays—Services at 4:15 p. m.

Addresses at all services; special instructions on communion on Thursday.

* * *

Episcopal.

St. Paul's—Services on Sunday at St. Paul's Episcopal church, 1710 East Superior street, Rev. A. W. Ryan, rector, will be as follows: 8 a. m., holy communion; 10, Sunday school; 11 a. m., holy communion and sermon, "He Sent Them Two and Two"; 6 p. m., vespers and address: "Taking the Easy Road." Mr. Custance will play a half an hour before vespers.

The musical program follows:

MORNING.

Processional — "Crown Him With Many Crowns" ..... Elvey
Communion service (from service book.
Hymn—"O Jesus, Thou Art Standing" ..... Knect
Anthem—"Something For Thee"... Custance
Mary Syer Bradshaw and Choir.
Communion hymn—"Bread of the World" ..... Hodges
Agnus Del ..... C. Roma
Nunc Dimittis ..... Gregorian
Recessional — "Jesus, Meek and Gentle" ..... Anon

VESPER SERVICE.

Processional — "Crown Him With Many Crowns" ..... Elvey
Psalter—Chanted ..... .
Canticles—Chanted ..... .
Hymn—"O For a Heart to Praise My God" ..... Dykes
Anthem—"No Shadows Yonder"... A. R. Gaul
A. R. Burquist and Choir.
Orison—"Softly Now the Light of Day" ..... Weber
Recessional — "Jesus, Meek and Gentle" ..... Anon
A. F. M. Custance is organist and choirmaster.

* * *

St. Peter's—At St. Peter's Episcopal church, Twenty-eighth avenue west and First street, Rev. W. E. Harmann, rector, services as follows will be given tomorrow: English Sunday school at 10 a. m.; Swedish Sunday school at 12:15 p. m.; English service, holy communion and sermon, at 11 a. m. and Swedish service, evensong and sermon at 8 p. m., Sheldon Johnson and Amy Armstrong are organists.

* * *

Trinity Cathedral—At Trinity Episcopal cathedral, Twentieth avenue east and Superior street, Rt. Rev. J. D. Morrison, bishop; and Rev. T. W. MacLean, canon, services tomorrow will be held as follows: Children's eucharist, 9:15 a. m.; holy communion with a sermon on "Love Divine," 11; choral litany and an address on "The Greatest Thing in the World," 8 p. m.

On Ash Wednesday, there will be services at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m.; on Friday at 8 p. m., and on other days at 10 a. m.

* * *

St. John's—At St. John's Episcopal church, Fifty-first avenue east and Superior street, services will be as follows: Sunday school at 10 a. m., and holy communion and sermon at 11. Rev. C. E. Maltas is rector, Mrs. George O. Lockhart is organist, and Mrs. Stanley Butchart is choir directress.

Presbyterian.

First—At the First Presbyterian church, Second street and Third avenue east, Rev. George Brewer, pastor, services will be held tomorrow as follows: Morning subject at 10:30 o'clock, "A Test of Love," and his evening subject at 7:45 o'clock, "The Answer to the Greatest Question Ever Asked." The musical program follows:

MORNING.

Prelude—"Vision" ..... Rheinberger
Anthem—"Glorious Forever" ..... Rachmaninoff
Response—"Dresden Amen"..... Dethier
Offertory—"Wiegenlied" ..... Schubert
Anthem—"Savior, Like a Shepherd"... Chadwick
Postlude—"Andante Maestoso" ..... .

EVENING.

Prelude—"Adagio" ..... Gounod
Choir response—"Spirit Divine"..... Schulthes
Solo ..... .
Mrs. Duxbury.
Quartet—"In the Garden"..... Miles
Offertory—"Serenade" ..... Harker
Postlude—Chorus ..... Gounod

The choir: Mrs. Lucille Brown Duxbury, soprano; Mrs. E. S. Buckman, contralto; J. R. Batchelor, tenor; E. L. Hodson, bass; Mrs. Frank W. Spicer, organist; Ruth Alta Rogers, director, assisted in the evening by a chorus.

* * *

Westminster—At Westminster Presbyterian church, Fifty-eighth avenue west and Ramsey street, William L. Staub, the pastor, will speak at 10:30 a. m. on "The Future Church," and at 7:45 p. m. on "The Church at Ephesus." The Sunday school meets at noon, L. A. Barnes, superintendent. The Endeavor society meets at 6:45 p. m.; this is a consecration meeting. Mrs. John Rockwell is the leader. The chorus choir will sing at both services. Miss Clara Goodhand is organist.

* * *

Hazelwood—Services at Hazelwood Presbyterian church, Thirty-ninth avenue west and Fourth street, are at 10:30 a. m. and 8 p. m. The pastor, O. D. Slater, will have for a morning theme "The City-Wide Campaign," and for the evening, "The Lord's Patent." The Sunday school meets at 11:30 a. m., with N. M. Mclver superintendent. The Christian Endeavor hour is 7:15 p. m. The monthly business meeting of the Endeavor will be held at the church Monday evening.

* * *

Second—The Sunday services at the Second Presbyterian church, 1515 West Superior street, are: Preaching, 10:30 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. The pastor, Rev. John Allen McGaughey, will preach at both services. The subjects announced are "Sinews of War" and "Checking Up." The Sunday school meets at noon. The superintendent is Harry A. O'Brien. The Christian Endeavor society will study the second chapter in their missionary book, "The King's Highway." The music is furnished by a chorus choir. Miss Elsie Jones is the organist. Ralph E. Page is the director.

* * *

Lakeside—At Lakeside Presbyterian church, Forty-fifth avenue east and McCulloch street, Rev. Willis O. Garrett, pastor, regular services will be conducted by Rev. R. S. Stevenson at 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m. The theme for the morning sermon will be "The Shining Light," and the evening theme, "A Motive to Penitence." Bible school meets at noon, R. S. Manley is superintendent. The Christian Endeavor meeting will be held at 6 p. m. Francis Deaver is president.

* * *

Glen Avon—The Glen Avon Presbyterian church, 2100 Woodland avenue, meets at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Dr. Lawrence will conduct both services. The morning topic is "Doing But Half—Spoilt in the Doing," and that of the evening "Save the Pennies and the Pounds Will Take Care of Themselves." The Bible school convenes at noon for a session of one hour. In the afternoon the community will be waited upon by the members of the church in annual canvass. The Christian Endeavor meets at 6:45, and the evening service at 7:30 will close the day. Mid-week service is held on Thursday evening with some special features.

The musical program of the day follows:

MORNING.

Prelude—"Andantino"....John E. West
Offertory—"Am Springbrunner"..... Schumann
Voluntary—Finale from Symphony ("Landliche Hochzeit")....Goldmark

EVENING.

Prelude—"Andante"..W. Wolstenholme
Offertory—"Andante" in F..... Samuel Wesley
Postlude—Grand March Triumphale ..... C. S. Grey

The girls' choir will sing at the morning service.

Methodist.

First—Dr. John W. Hoffman will preach at the First Methodist Episcopal church tomorrow upon the following themes: Morning, 10:30, "The Only Hope of the World," and evening, 7:45, "Look First to Yourself." At noon the Sunday school meets. At 6:30 the Epworth league meets for a social half hour, followed by an inspiration meeting. The musical programs for the day are:

MORNING.

Prelude—"Adoration" ..... Gaul
Anthem—"Sanctus" ..... Gounod
Solo—"Consider and Hear Me" ..... Speaks
Mr. Applehagen.
Trio—"Father, Take My Hand" ..... Scott
Postlude—"Fantasia" ..... Polleri

EVENING.

Prelude—"Prelude" ..... Batiste
Anthem—"The Shadows of the Evening" ..... Matthews
Duet—"Far From Thy Heavenly Home" ..... Waring
Mrs. Frey and Miss Bartholomew.
Anthem—"Jesus, My Savior, Look On Me" ..... Nevin
Postlude—"Postlude" ..... Bellairs

In the prayer meeting on Thursday at 8 p. m. the following topic will be discussed, "The Man Who Cannot Be Won."

The choir is composed of Gladys Reynolds Frey, soprano; Glen Marie Bartholomew, contralto; John Koneczny, tenor; Charles Applehagen, bass, and Mrs. John Koneczny, organist and director.

* * *

Woodland — At Woodland M. E. church, Koistad avenue and Owatonna street, the regular Sunday morning service will be held at 10:15 with a sermon by the pastor, Rev. R. E. Miller. His topic will be "The Miracles of Christ." The Union Sunday school will meet at 9:30. A. D. Swan is superintendent.

* * *

Lester Park—At Lester Park Methodist Episcopal church, Fifty-fourth avenue east and Superior street, Rev. A. L. Richardson, the pastor, will preach at 10:30 a. m. on "Builders" and at 7:30 p. m. will give the fourth of the series on the Lord's prayer — "The Foundation of Righteousness." Sunday school meets at 12 m.; E. N. Thomas, superintendent. Epworth league meets at 6:30 p. m.

* * *

Asbury—At Asbury Methodist church, West Duluth, services will be held at the usual hours morning and evening. The pastor, Rev. William H. Farrell, will preach the sermons. At 10:30 a. m. the topic will be "Hope." The topic for the 7:30 p. m. service will be, "Why Did Christ Come?" The chorus choir will sing at the morning service. Sunday school will meet at 11:45; Ingwald G. Wallan is superintendent.

The Epworth league will meet at 6:45; the leader is Miss Leah Bossuet.

* * *

The musical program for the day follows:

MORNING.

Organ Prelude—"Communion"..... MacMaster
Processional—"Alleluia! Song of Gladness" ..... Haydn
Kyrie and Gloria Tibi..... Custance
Anthem—"Jesus, Lover of My Soul"... Schubert
Hymn—"Shepherd of Souls"..... Dykes
Anthem—"O How Lovely"..... Maker
Communion Service..... Custance
Communion Hymn — "Bread of the World" ..... Hodges
Gloria in Excelsis..... Old Chant
Sevenfold Amen..... Stainer
Nunc Dimittis ..... Rose
Recessional — "Love Divine All Love Excelling" ..... Roe
Organ Postlude—"Postlude in D"..... Tours

CHORAL EVENSONG.

Organ Prelude—"Lied"..... Dethier
Processional — "Alleluia! Song of Gladness" ..... Haydn
Hutchins' Cathedral Choral Service.
Canticles (chanted)..... .
Office Hymn—"Now the Day is Over" ..... Barnby
Soprano Solo—(Selected)..... .
Elizabeth Richardson.
Anthem — "Gracious Spirit, Holy Ghost" ..... .
Greek Amen..... .
Recessional — "Love Divine All Love Excelling" ..... Roe
Organ Postlude—"Grand Choeur in F" ..... Salome

Leona Grieser is organist and choir director.

* * *

First German—At the First German M. E. church, Fifth avenue east and Sixth street, Rev. W. A. Weiss, pastor, the regular Sunday services will be held at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school will meet at 11:30 a. m. and Epworth league at 7 p. m.

* * *

Grace—At Grace M. E. church, Twenty-second avenue west and Third street, Rev. J. E. Porter, pastor; morning service begins at 10:30, Sunday school meets at 11:50 with C. E. Dice, superintendent; Epworth league meets at 7, and the evening service at 7:45. Beginning with Sunday night a series of evangelistic services will be conducted in the church each evening at 7:45, and continuing for two weeks. The pastor's topic for tomorrow morning is: "The Arm of God," and that for the evening, "Trouble Hunters."

The music for the day follows:

MORNING.

Anthem—"O God the Rock of Ages" ..... Pinsuti-King
Soprano solo—"The Lord Is My Shepherd" ..... Little Mrs. J. Emmett Porter.

EVENING.

Prelude ..... .
Grace Orchestra.
Fifteen minutes of congregational singing of gospel songs.....
Duet — Tenor and soprano with chorus "Jesus Leads".....Swenkey

* * *

Bethany Norwegian-Danish — At Bethany Norwegian-Danish M. E. church, Sixty-fifth avenue west and Polk street, Eugene Nelson, pastor, services for Sunday will be as follows: 9:45 a. m., Sunday school with Miss Clara Thorsen, superintendent; 11 morning service with a sermon by Rev. Gustav Kvisgaard of Virginia, Minn., communion services conducted by Rev. Paul Haugan, district superintendent. Following is the order of service:

Hymn—"Laer Mig at Kjende Dine Veie" ..... .
Audience.
Invocation ..... .
N. Simonsen.
Offertory—"Aere Vaere Gud Fader" ..... .
Church Chorus.
Scripture lesson ..... .
Rev. Eugene Nelson.
Anthem—"Jeg Elsker Sorg at Dele" ..... .
Church Chorus.
Announcements and offerin.....
Hymn—"Jesus Han Er Syndres Ven" ..... .
Audience.
Sermon ..... .
Rev. Gustav Kvisgaard.
Communion services ..... .
Rev. Paul Haugan in charge.

No evening service will be held on account of the union services at the Superior Norwegian M. E. church at 3 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. Take Grand avenue car leaving Sixty-third avenue west 1:35. None need go home for supper who wish to stay of those going from Duluth as supper will be served in the church parlors at the Superior Norwegian M. E. church.

* * *

Endion—At Endion Methodist Episcopal church, Hardy A. Ingham, minister, the Sunday morning service begins at 10:30, subject, "The Man Next Door"; Sunday school meets at 12 m., J. A. Jeffery, superintendent; Epworth league meets at 7 p. m.; prayer service is held Wednesday evening at 7:15. The musical program follows:

Prelude in D flat..... Foerster
Response ..... Hanscom
Anthem—"O Pray For the Peace of Jerusalem" ..... Knox
Offertory ..... Chopin
Solo—"Bow Down Thine Ear"..Jenks
Miss Hyland.
Anthem—"God Is a Spirit"...Bennett
Postlude ..... Pattison

Lutheran.

St. John's English—At St. John's English Lutheran church, corner of Lake avenue and Third street, the pastor, Rev. H. C. Rex, will preach at 10:45 in the morning on the subject, "The Love of God." The subject of the evening service, which begins at 8, will be, "Features of the Way of Life." The Sunday school meets at noon, and the Luther league at 7. The regular monthly meeting of the church council will be held Monday evening at the pastor's home, 1210 East First street. The ladies' aid will meet Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors. Midweek Lenten services will begin Wednesday evening at 8. The teachers' training class will meet Thursday evening at the home of Miss Lena Block, 1109 East Seventh street.

* * *

Trinity Norwegian—The Trinity Norwegian Lutheran church will hold its evening services at the Hunger school, Twelfth avenue east and Eighth street. The Sunday school in the Norwegian language will meet at 9:30. The Sunday school in the English language will meet at noon. The class for confirmation meets Saturday morning at the home of the pastor, Rev. O. J. Flagstad, 512 Fourth avenue east.

* * *

Bethesda—At Bethesda Norwegian Lutheran church, Sixth avenue east and Fifth street, the pastor, Rev. Theodore J. Austad, will conduct services Sunday forenoon at 10:45. The Luther Young People's society has its meeting at 7:45 p. m. The program will be in English. The Norwegian Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m., and the English Sunday school at 12:15 p. m.

Union meetings will begin in the First Norwegian Lutheran church on Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

The young ladies' aid will meet with Miss Cora Olson on Wednesday evening next. The little girls' society will meet with Mrs. J. Benson on Saturday afternoon.

* * *

St. Stephen's German-English—At St. Stephen's German-English Lutheran church, Fifty-eighth avenue west and Nicollet street, there will be English services Sunday at 10:30 a. m. and German services at 8 p. m. Lenten services will be held Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the English language. Rev. W. Sievers is the pastor.

* * *

St. Matthew's German—At St. Matthew's German Evangelical Lutheran church, Fourth street and Sixth avenue east, Rev. J. George Appel, pastor, there will be Sunday school, German and English, at 9:30 a. m.; services at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The choir practice Friday evening. The Luther league and confirmation and school classes meet at the usual time.

* * *

St. Paul's English—At St. Paul's English Lutheran church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street, K. B. Vaaler, pastor, there will be services Sunday evening at 7:45. No morning services will be held. Sunday school meets at 10. The ladies' aid society meets Thursday next with Mrs. Wangsgaard, 2832 West Third street. Mrs. Strom and Mrs. Wangsgaard are the hostesses. The Luther guild meets Thursday evening at the church. Refreshments will be served and a short program rendered. The choir meets Friday evening at 8:15. The catechumens meet Saturday morning at 10.

* * *

First Swedish—At the First Swedish Lutheran church, Sixth avenue east and Third street, Rev. Carl O. Swan, pastor, services begin Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. The Sunday school will open at 11:30. Services will be held at Arnold in the afternoon beginning at 3 o'clock. The evening services begin at 8. The Luther league meets Tuesday evening at the church.

The Sorosis society will hold its regular meeting next Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnson, 714 East Seventh street. There will be mid-week services on Thursday evening. The confirmation children meet Saturday morning at 9.

* * *

Ebenezer—At Ebenezer Norwegian Lutheran church, West Third street and Thirtieth avenue, Rev. H. P. Hagebal, pastor, Sunday school will meet at 10 a. m., morning service at 11, and evening service at 7:45. There will be prayer meeting at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. A Lenten sermon will be given on Friday evening at 8.

On Tuesday, at 2 p. m., the Ladies' Aid society, "Lydia," for the China mission, will meet with Mrs. Otto Anderson, 1914 West Third street.

* * *

First Norwegian—At the First Norwegian Lutheran church, First avenue east and Third street, communion service will be held in connection with the morning service. The evening service will be conducted in English. A mass meeting will be held in the assembly room of the church at 3 p. m. to consider plans for the proposed mission society.

The Sunday school meets at noon. The Bible class will study the international Sunday school lesson.

The Bethany Ladies' aid society of Lakeside will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Bjorbak, 5303 Wyoming street. Daily services will be held each evening during the week except Saturday.

* * *

St. Lucas Danish—At St. Lucas Danish Lutheran church, Roosevelt street and Fifty-seventh avenue west, there will be Sunday school tomorrow afternoon at 2 and services in Danish at 3, conducted by Rev. A. O. Soholm.

* * *

St. Paul's Evangelical—At St. Paul's German Evangelical Lutheran church, Central avenue and Elinor street, Rev. William Schmidt, pastor, there will be services next Sunday morning at 10:30 and Sunday school at 9:30. The confirmation class will meet Tuesday afternoon and Saturday forenoon. The Young People's society will be entertained by Paul Harte, 2816 West Huron street, on Wednesday evening.

* * *

Elim—The Sunday services at the Elim church, Fifty-sixth avenue west and Elinor street, will be as follows: Sunday school at 10 a. m.; morning service at 11. Dr. J. A. Krantz will deliver the sermon and there will be special music. At 7:45 p. m. a special song service will be given and the program will be as follows:

Pipe organ voluntary ..... .
A. F. Lundholm.
Hemlandssang ..... .
Congregation.
Liturgy ..... .
Dr. J. A. Krantz.
Vocal duet—"Home to Our Mountains" ..... Verdi
Mr. Wilhelm Lindstrand and Miss Edith Nelson.
Piano solo ..... .
Miss Margaret Kuchenbecker.
Song selection ..... .
Elim Choir.
Tenor solo—"Den Store hvide flok" ..... Grieg
Mr. Wilhelm Lindstrand.
Hemlandssang ..... .
Congregation.
Sermon ..... .
Dr. J. A. Krantz.
Pipe organ offertory ..... .
A. F. Lundholm.
Hemlandssang ..... .
Congregation.
Liturgy ..... .
Dr. J. A. Krantz.

A. F. Lundholm, B. M., organist and choir director.

Baptist.

First—At the First Baptist church, East First street and Ninth avenue, R. Edward Sayles, minister, services begin at 10:30 a. m. and 8 p. m. The pastor's sermon themes will be: Morning, "Personal Religion," and evening, "Interviewing Jesus on Hell." At the morning service Mr. Sayles will preach the first sermon in a series on "Modern Expressions of Christianity." The Bible school, L. S. High, superintendent, will meet at noon and the Christian Endeavor society, Mrs. Hockin, leader, will meet at 7 p. m. The musical program for the day follows:

MORNING.

Organ—Prelude ..Sigismund Thalberg
Anthem—"Bread of Heaven"..... Edward German
Response—Sevenfold Amen....Stainer
Offertory—Offertory ..... Hauser
Postlude—Cantilene ..... Shelley

EVENING.

Organ—Prelude.....Giovanni Bolzoni
Anthem—"Consider and Hear Me"... Pflueger
Response—Sevenfold Amen.... Stainer
Anthem—"Holy Spirit Come" Roschat
Offertory ..... Renard
Postlude—"Ave Marie" ..... Franz

Clara B. Morton is organist and director of music.

* * *

Third Swedish—At the Third Swedish Baptist church, Ramsey street and Forty-ninth avenue west, the services will be held at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., the evangelist, Rev. P. G. Nelson, of Stromsburg, Neb., will preach both morning and evening. This will be the beginning of a series of revival meetings. The evangelist will stay for two weeks and have meetings every evening except Saturdays.

The Sunday school will meet at 9:45 a. m. Edward Peterson is the superintendent.

In the afternoon at 4 p. m. there will be a young people's union meeting at the Swedish Baptist church of Superior.

In the evening the choir will give a program.

* * *

West Duluth—At the West Duluth Baptist church, Grand avenue and Fifty-ninth avenue west, Herbert Ford, minister, the subject for 10:30 a. m. is "Innocent Blood." This is to be an infant welfare sermon, and special music will be rendered by the little folks. The subject at 7:45 is "A Christian Attitude Toward Preparedness." It is the belief of the minister that the church of Christ should not be silent on a question of such importance to the welfare of democratic institutions. An invitation is extended to all, but especially to those not accustomed to regular church attendance. Sunday school is at 11:45, with adult classes.

* * *

Swedish Bethel—At the Swedish Bethel Baptist church, Ninth avenue east and Third street, L. W. Linder, pastor, services begin at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The pastor will preach at both services. His morning subject will be "The Wisdom of Winning Souls", and the evening topic "And the Door Was Shut." Sunday school meets at noon. E. J. Anderson is the superintendent. The mission circle will meet at 4:30 p. m. The young people's society will join the B. Y. P. U. rally at Superior, Wis., at 4 p. m. Midweek service is held on Thursday at 8 p. m.

* * *

Swedish Temple—At the Swedish Baptist temple, Twenty-second avenue west and Third street, Rev. Swaney Nelson, pastor, services begin at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The morning subject will be "The Fruit of the Spirit" and that of the evening "Stephen, the Martyr." The pastor will speak at both services. Communion service and ordination of deacons will take place at the close of the evening service. Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m., conducted by William Hammarstrom, superintendent. The young people's meeting will be dispensed with on account of the Twin Ports Baptist Young People's meeting at the Swedish Baptist church at Superior.

* * *

Central—The Central Baptist church, which is located at Twentieth avenue west and First street, and whose pastor is Milton Fish, will have the following meetings. At 9:50 a. m., workers will meet for prayer and at 10:30 a. m., the combination service of Sunday school and preaching will have as a theme, "Honor Thy Father and Mother," followed at noon by communion. The juniors will meet at 3 p. m. and the B. Y. P. U. will meet at 6:45 p. m. The subject of the latter is "Consecration of Strength," Ps. xxix, 1-11. The evening service at 7:45 o'clock will consist of worship, baptisms and a sermon entitled "The New Life."

Adventist.

English—At the Seventh Day Adventist church, Tenth avenue east and Sixth street, Pastor Stemple White will speak Sunday evening on the subject, "Worldwide Preparedness and Its Meaning, as Long Foretold in Bible Prophecy." The Wednesday evening cottage prayer meeting and Bible study classes will be held as follows: Park Point, at the Case home, 1317 Lake avenue south, with Mrs. Brown McDonald as leader; Central, at the Langston home, 419 Lake avenue north, with Mrs. Walter Borgen as leader; West side, at the Edwards home, 725 West Second street, with Pastor Stemple White as leader; West end, at the Hartley home, 827 North Fifty-sixth avenue west, with May Jenson as leader, and East side, at the Mueller home, 926 East Second street, with Mabel Vasicek as leader. All should bring Bibles. The Sabbath school is held each Saturday afternoon at 1:30 with Mrs. T. R. Hancock as acting superintendent, and public preaching follows at 2:30. The young people's meetings are held at the church on Friday nights.

* * *

Swedish—There will be preaching in the Swedish Seventh Day Adventist church, Twenty-third avenue west and Fourth street, Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, by Pastor John Hoffman. His subject will be "What Are the Dead Doing in Hades, and For How Long?"

Bethel.

At the Bethel, Sunday school will meet at 3 p. m. Every member is urged to be present to assist in plans for "400 day," March 26. L. A. Marvin is superintendent of the school. Sunday evening at 7:30, Rev. H. E. Ramseyer will have charge of the gospel service; Monday evening at 8 o'clock, Rev. Swaney Nelson, pastor of the First Swedish Baptist church, and his young people's society will conduct the meeting; Wednesday evening at 7:45, H. A. Sedgwick will speak; Thursday afternoon at 2:30, Rev. C. B. Frank, pastor of the Hope Evangelical church, will speak at the women's meeting; Friday evening at 7:45, Leonard Ferguson will speak at the gospel service.

Swedish Mission.

A song and offer service will be held next Sunday night at 7:30 in the Swedish Mission church, Twenty-first avenue west and Second street. The following elaborate program will be rendered:

Pipe-organ prelude—"Pastorale in F Minor" ..... Faulkes
Miss Ruth Larson.
Congregational hymn—"All Hail Emmanuel" ..... Miles
Mission Church Choir.
Scripture reading and invocation—"The Wayside Cross"..... Palmer
Male Chorus.
"Vid Babylon's Elvar"....Wennerberg
Mrs. J. J. Daniels and Choir.
"Ingen Tid for Herren Jesus"...Miller
Ladies' Octet.
"Den Sanna Gudstjansten"..... Skoog
Miss Anna Norain, Quartet and Choir.
Sermon—"The Serving of Two Masters" ..... .
Rev. J. J. Daniels.
"Insamlingsmarseljasen" ..... .
..... Rouget de Lisle
Mission Church Choir.
Offertory—"Autumn" ..... Johnston
Miss Ruth Larson.
Vocal solo—"The Good Shepherd"... .....Van de Water
Mrs. J. J. Daniels.
"Jesus, Mitt Allt"..... Skoog
Choir.
"The Father's Wounded Heart"..... .....Radcliffe
Mixed Quartet.
"Herren Ar Mitt Ljus"..... Riddarhof
Miss Hilda Erickson and Choir.
Benediction ..... .
Postlude—"Festal March" ....Kroeger
Miss Ruth Larson.

Unitarian.

First—At the First Unitarian church, Eighteenth avenue east and First street, Rev. G. R. Gebauer, minister, Sunday school will meet at 9:45. The church service begins at 11 o'clock. The subject of sermon is "The World and the Child." The soloist is Robert Drummond and the organist is Mrs. Wayne E. Richardson.

Christian Science.

First—At the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Ninth avenue east and First street, services will begin at 11 a. m. The subject is, "Man." Free reading rooms, at 411 and 412 Alworth building, are open daily except Sundays, from 10 a. m. until 5 p. m.

Orthodox Christianity.

At the church of Orthodox Christianity, 107 Sherman block, Second avenue west and Superior street, services are held at 10:45 a. m., the subject being "Sin." The church room is open every week day afternoon, except Saturday, from 2 to 4 as a public rest room.

Evangelical.

St. Paul's German—St. Paul's German Evangelical church, Tenth avenue east and Third street, Rev. Paul T. Bratzel, pastor, Sunday school begins at 9:45 a. m. and services at 10:30 a. m. There will be services in the English language at 8 p. m. The subject of the sermon will be, "Why the Church Is Often Corrupt." The church council meets Tuesday evening. The young people's society has its meeting on Wednesday evening. Mrs. John Jensen will be hostess to the ladies' aid at the social rooms of the church Thursday at 2:30 p. m.

Spiritualist.

The Victoria Spiritualist church holds services every Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at 221 West Superior street, third floor, I. O. O. F. hall. Mrs. Alf. Magnusson is speaker.

Associated Bible Students.

The Associated Bible students meet in Foresters' hall, Fourth avenue west and First street, Sunday at 3 p. m. Preceding the continued Berean lesson on "The twenty-three hundred days (years) from a certain time before the sanctuary class would be cleansed," there will be given a discourse on the subject, "The School of Christ." All interested in Bible study are invited to attend.

TRUSTEE'S SALE

The stock of jewelry, inventorying about $4,700.00, belonging to the bankrupt estate of Emilio Chiarappa, alias

I. FUDA

will be sold for cash to the highest bidder on Monday, March 6th, 1916, at 10:00 a. m. at 631 Manhattan Bldg., Duluth, Minn.

Sale subject to confirmation by the court. Inventory may be inspected at 631 Manhattan Bldg.

W. O. DERBY, Trustee.

GERMANY NOT STARVING.

North Dakota's Governor, Back From Europe, Talks of War Situation.

Fargo, N. D., March 4.—"Neutral countries in Europe wish the United States would take the lead in peace negotiations," Governor Hanna of North Dakota said last night on his arrival here after three months' absence as a member of the Ford peace expedition.

"Each country seems to think it is not strong enough to lead the way, and that the impression might obtain it would favor one side or the other of the warring groups," he added.

Governor Hanna spent two weeks in Germany, and he said the country is not suffering for want of food. There exists a scarcity of some things, including silk, but on the whole, he considers conditions favorable, despite the British blockade.

OFFER $900,000 FOR REFUSE OF NEW YORK

New York, March 4.—A new source of revenue was opened for New York yesterday when Supreme Court Justice Donnelly vacated an injunction restraining Mayor Mitchel and other officials from awarding a five-year contract for the removal of the city's refuse.

When bids were asked, the New York Sanitary Utilization company, which has held the contract for many years, offered to pay $1 a year, but a newly organized company bid $900,000 for the city's fertilizing and chemical producing material.

In July, 1913, the city was asked to pay $130,000 a year for the removal of its refuse.

The Uzar Coffee Man left One Dollar in the following homes in Woodland Hunters Park Lakeside

MRS. E. T. DUNKLE.....5015 Peabody St.
MRS. O. ROGERS.....5427 Oneida St.
MRS. STACY H. HILL.....5829 London Road
MRS. MEIHOFF.....5414 Oneida St.
MRS. C. R. OLSON.....307 W. Faribault St.
MRS. C. M. HON.....112 E. Winona St.
MRS. A. J. FINSLAND.....312 W. Owatonna St.
MRS. W. C. PRUDHOMME.....219 Minneapolis Ave.
MRS. M. C. LONG.....320 Minneapolis Ave.
MRS. PETER DALCONS.....2011 Fairmont St.
MRS. A. B. SEITZ.....4319 Robinson St.
MRS. A. DREKEY.....5416 Superior St.
MRS. E. IVERS.....4514 Robinson St.
MRS. E. V. EBART.....5313 Colorado St.
MRS. I. C. ANDERSON.....5132 Colorado St.
MRS. O. H. PEARSON.....5023 Tioga St.
MRS. K. BAKKE.....4626 Jay St.
MRS. H. A. BAUER.....4710 Pitt St.
MRS. C. H. HALL.....4631 Gladstone St.
MRS. H. C. JOYCE.....2102 Woodland Ave.
MRS. C. W. PETERS.....Chisholm St.
MRS. E. BROWN.....12 Winona St.
MRS. R. C. BUSCH.....144 W. Faribault St.
MRS. H. H. BROWN.....136 Winona St.
MRS. J. A. MORTERUD.....3210 Kolstad Ave.

He will be in West End and West Duluth Monday March 6th Tuesday March 7th Wednesday March 8th Thursday March 9th If he finds in your home a can of Uzar Coffee he will leave One Dollar

THREE DAYS BEFORE LENT

Regulations for Fasting Period Issued By Bishop McGolrick.

Self-Denial Must Be Observed; Exceptions in a Few Cases.

Three days remain before Ash Wednesday, which marks the opening of the Lenten season of 1916, and church members are preparing to observe the forty days of fast in the usual manner.

Bishop James McGolrick of the Duluth diocese of the Catholic church has issued a list of Lenten regulations showing what observances are prescribed for church members.

For forty days, exclusive of Sundays, all days will be days of fast, beginning Ash Wednesday. The precept of fast restricts the use of food to one meal toward the middle of the day, and a collation in the evening not exceeding the fourth part of a full meal—custom, however, authorizing the taking in the morning of a cup of coffee, tea or chocolate with a small piece of bread, according to the bishop's announcement.

"For the collation," the regulations say, "theologians allow solid food to the amount of eight ounces. The solid food taken in the morning should not exceed two ounces.

"When the full meal or principal repast cannot be taken without serious inconvenience toward the middle of the day, the order of repasts may be reversed, the full meal or principal repast being taken in the evening and the collation at an earlier hour of the day.

"The use of flesh meat is allowed at all meals on Sundays and the principal meal on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, except the Saturday of Ember week, March 18, and the Saturday of holy week, April 21.

"The use of lard is permitted at all times in the preparation of food. Both fish and flesh meat cannot be taken at the same meal, even on Sundays. Persons legitimately excused or dispensed from the precept of fasting may use flesh meat at all meals on whatever days there is a general permission to use it at the principal meal."

Those excused from fast are: All persons under 21 years or over 60; those infirm or convalescent; women bearing or nursing children; persons engaged in hard labor or other duties exhaustive of physical strength; persons who from poverty are unable to procure for the principal meal a sufficiency of nutritive food.

Those excused from abstinence are those under the age of 7 years, the sick and persons who are so situated as not to be able to procure for themselves abstinence food.

Bishops of the United States, by a recent pontifical indult, have been granted authority to permit "working people" to use meat on all days of Lent, with the exception of Friday, Ash Wednesday, the Wednesday and Saturday of holy week. This indult also grants dispensation from abstinence extending to all three meals a day.

Where the wage earner, in virtue of the indult, uses meat, all the members of his household may likewise use it. The sovereign pontiff suggests that self-denial should include abstinence from intoxicating drink.

A Dainty Toilet Article.

Every lady who desires to keep up her attractive appearance, while at the theater, attending receptions, when shopping, while traveling, and on all occasions, should carry in her purse a booklet of Gouraud's Oriental Beauty Leaves. This is a dainty little booklet of exquisitely perfumed powdered leaves, which are easily removed and applied to the skin. It is invaluable when the face becomes moist and flushed, and is far superior to a powder puff, as it does not spill and soil the clothes.

It removes dirt, soot and grease from the face, imparting a cool, delicate bloom to the complexion. Sent anywhere on receipt of 5 cents in stamps or coin.

F. T. Hopkins, 37 Great Jones street, New York.—Advertisement.

CAUSED RUN ON GERMAN BANK AT DOUGLAS, MINN.

Chicago, March 4.—Charged with impersonating a government officer, M. A. Dittberner was arrested here yesterday by Federal agents in connection with the run on the German State bank of Douglas, Minn.

Dittberner said that by means of a card which read "National bureau of commercial and industrial statistics, M. A. Dittberner, special agent, Wash. D. C." he was enabled to gain information about the bank desired by stockholders by whom he was employed. This information led to the run, he says. He waived examination and was held in $2,000 bail by Commissioner Foote. He will be taken to St. Paul for trial.

Marked Bills Catch Suspect.

Breckenridge, Minn., March 4.—Earl Mowing, night clerk in the Soo depot at Tenny, near here, is in the local jail charged with robbing the Tenny postoffice of $102. Sums of money frequently had been missed at the postoffice. Marked bills were placed in the postoffice cash box and were stolen. These bills were turned in a few days later by Mewing. It is

Curling Hockey

News and Views of the Sport World

BILLIARDS ~ WRESTLING ~ BOWLING

Basketball Boxing

BICYCLE RACING IS COMING BACK; HOW ABOUT KITE FLYING SPORT?

Sport Popularity Seems to Rule in Cycles (Joke)?—Bike Racing Will Make Father Feel Young—Who Controls Jess Willard?—Who Gets His Coin?—Paragraph Comment of Sporting World.

BY BRUCE.

SPORT popularity, like the tide, it seems, ebbs and flows. Now there is a revival in bicycle racing; tomorrow, who knows, kite flying as a competitive sport of great gusto and much eclat, may return to favor. Middle-aged men of fat sides and soft bodies, who wear galoshes and read every presidential message through to the very end; who wear slippers and consider the fox trot and the animated Texas Tommy as a sort of modern inquisition, will perk up for a returning youthful moment at the mention of the bicycle racing craze, and wandering along the path of reverie, will recall the days when Willie Windle, Arthur Zimmerman, and later John S. Johnson, the Butlers, Cooper, Bald, Titus, Cabanne, Kiser, Sanger and other speed demons, as they were called in those days, rode in the glorious and careless days of class B competition.

Prophets may have gained a gleaming of impending changes in speed contests, paced by an engine, rode a mile on a narrow track laid along between several miles of railroad right of way. The demoniac speed and the nerve-splitting sensations caused by blood-spilling auto racing in the early days of that sport, chucked bicycle racing to the obscure country tracks.

Speed was the crying demand. Burman negotiated a mile in 27 seconds and the world demanded speed as the hall mark of all track competition. Even the followers of the horse were almost wooed away from their placid sport by the whirly spectacle of the new invader. Now comes a slinking away from the auto racing game, if fading gate receipts are to be notched in the ledger of indications.

Track competition, which has flourished only in the academies and colleges of the country, is gathering impetus and added interest among the athletic clubs of the country, and the galloping ponies, outlawed from most of the tracks of the country, are sneaking back into booming rehabilitation. If a person eats salt herring for a protracted period, he will crave excessively for a change of bill of fare or shift suddenly from his boarding house. Maybe the same general rule applies to the sport menu. Sports seem to wax popular and than fade to the drab state of disregard. The youngsters of the coming generation may demand something entirely different than their daddies and daddies' paters. The only thing that seemed to endure without hint of change in the slightest, is the plot and general business of burlesque shows.

* * *

Who Controls Willard?

NOT that it makes so great a difference to the public, but merely to satisfy a craving curiosity, it would be eminently comforting to discover just who controls the general movements and the destiny of Jess Willard, Tom Jones or Jack Curley? Seven guesses are permitted under the rules of the competition.

One knowing bird of passage, that flits in from the sordid world without, pipes up that Tom Jones is the strong-voiced ballyhoo, but that Curley is the guiding genius and that when Curley commands the luscious Jones lies down and plays dead.

Curley it was who engineered the fistic ensemble which estranged the title of Jack Johnson. It is known that the fight was a distinct and well defined flivver, from the standpoint of the golden guinea. But, say some, Curley, like the far-seeing gent he is often credited with being, retained percentage clauses that enable him to buy motor cars with the passage of time and open wine along Broadway, which is one of the most severe tests applied to a man's pocket book—or some other man's. The security administered by sleuthing agents of Bradstreet and Dun, is a mere formality compared to this acid test.

When others bid for the fistic services of Willard, Curley bids along and boosts the ante. While the Harvard football machine has generally been credited with possessing excellent team work, there are some who profess to believe that the team work of Curley and Jones in securing large purses for large Jess, in infinitely superior and developed to a much finer point.

Whether strutting Tom Jones or the fat and suave Curley is in supreme command of the Willard party, matters an excessive not. One throbbing curiosity that sticks in the public bean, is just how much of the golden harvest is being diverted to the bins of the champion.

* * *

How Times Has Fugited!

Once upon a gay and primrose time it was a question of where Hal Chase was willing to play. Now it appears that it is quite a question where they will let Chase play.

This only goes to prove that the man with a nasty temper should learn to play a cornet and thus exhaust his viciousness.

* * *

A History of the U. S. A.

Hans Wagner's baseball autobiography presents a remarkable history of the United States from the time of the American revolution.

* * *

This Should Be Stopped.

Johnny Maulbetsch, the star football player of the University of Michigan, has passed all his mid winter examinations. This is establishing dangerous precedents.

* * *

Perhaps That Is Why.

It is believed in some quarters that Jim Coffey took to the fighting game because he is Irish. No other reason can be adduced.

* * *

The Years Bring Changes.

"How the South has changed since the Civil war," remarked Napoleon Lajoie the other day as he passed the Mason and Dixon line.

* * *

A New Form of Wit.

George Ade, Irvin Cobb and Henry Ford are not the only great American humorists. Weston is going to walk across the United States for fun.

TONIGHT

TAKE DINNER AT THE FAMOUS

CANTON CAFE

The finest Chinese restaurant in the city. Best American or Chinese dishes to order. The newest and finest cafe in the Northwest. Make your reservation for booths by phone.

217 WEST SUPERIOR ST.

Chin D. Ong, Proprietor.

Melrose 7978. Grand 626.

ACTIVITY IN "Y" SPORTS

Hexathlon Contest Will Open—Volley Ball and Swimming Scheduled.

On March 14 the Hexathlon events will be begun in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. The finals in the national athletic contests will be held on March 15.

Last year the Duluth association Hexathlon team won eleventh place out of forty-two association class B teams that competed. This season the local association team is expected to make a very creditable showing, as Physical Instructor Albert Olson has rounded up some crack athletes for the various events.

Associations with 2,000 members or less are designated as class B; those with more than 2,000 members are in class A. Next year the local association will compete in class A, as it has more than 2,000 members at the present time.

Next Saturday the second round of volley ball play for the Dunning cup will begin. There is also a contest in sight between the champion Duluth volley ball team and the strong Eau Claire team.

The Duluth Y. M. C. A. will in all probability be represented at the A. A. U. swimming meet that is to be staged in St. Paul, March 18. Louis Ardouin, one of the greatest swimmers in the Northwest, is sure of going as a representative of the Y. M. C. A., and it is likely that several other swimmers will be sent down.

There will be 25, 50, 100, 200 and 400-yard contests. There will also be a 100-yard breast stroke contest, 100-yard back stroke, plunge for distance, under water contest of 50 yards, a fancy dive and a four-man relay contest.

WILL AWARD NEXT COLLEGIATE MEET

Intercollegiate Association Will Also Elect Leland Stanford Member.

New York, March 4.—The annual convention of the Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America will be held in this city today. Among the more important matters to come before the delegates from the twenty-nine colleges and universities composing the organization will be the awarding of the forty-first annual championship meet, the election of Leland Stanford, Jr., university to membership, and amendments to the constitution.

Harvard, Syracuse and Johns Hopkins universities have all extended invitations to the association to hold the intercollegiate championships at their respective athletic fields next May. Harvard is considered to have the best chance of obtaining the games. The proposed amendments to the constitution include a number of changes in the definition and status of an amateur athlete, made to conform with the recent suggestions of a number of sport governing bodies which met in this city to consider a general rearrangement of the various codes governing amateur sports, such as golf, tennis, athletics, skating and rowing.

After the conference of the I. C. A. A. A., the association will hold its second annual indoor track and field games at Madison Square Garden. Teams from Princeton, Michigan, Harvard, Yale, Brown, Columbia, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts Tech., Syracuse, Cornell and other colleges will compete. All events, including sprints, field and track contests, will be team competitions with total points scored to decide the winning colleges in the first three places in each event.

SAINTS BEAT SAULT FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Win Three Straight Games for Hockey Title and Cup.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., March 4.—By defeating the local hockey team here last night, 4 to 1, the St. Paul A. C. team won the McNaughton trophy and the championship of the Western league of the American Amateur Hockey association. The Sault and St. Paul teams were tied for premier honors at the end of the regular season, and last night's victory gave the St. Pauls three games out of a special four-game series.

Organizing Hockey Leagues.

New York, March 4.—Action toward the formation of major hockey leagues on lines similar to the major baseball leagues, probably will be taken at the annual meeting of the Skating Union of America, which will be held here today.

The international union is affiliated with the amateur athletic union.

New Haven, Conn., March 4. — Yale, by defeating University of Pennsylvania in a dual swimming meet here last night, 32 to 21, went into first place in the intercollegiate league.

Princeton, N. J., March 4. — The Princeton Basket Ball team defeated Yale 24 to 19 in an intercollegiate contest here last night.

Syracuse, March 4.—The Syracuse Basket Ball team defeated University of Pennsylvania 19 to 15 here last night.

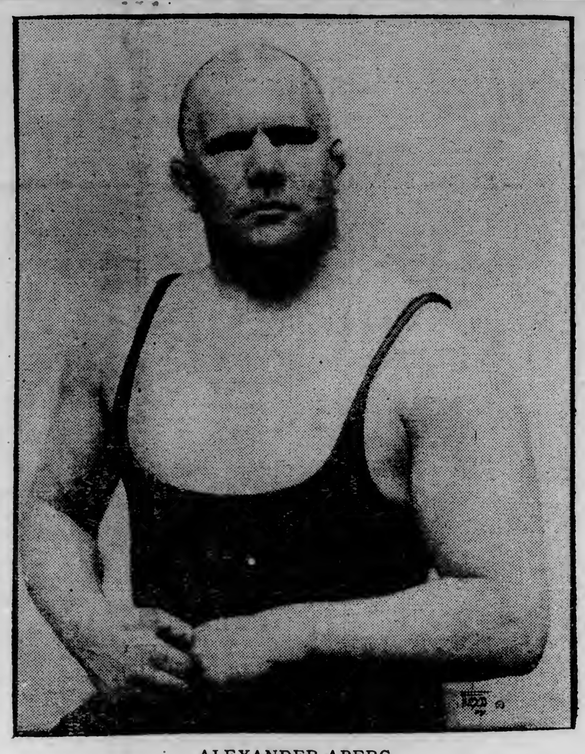
Madison, Wis., March 4.—Northwestern defeated the University of Wisconsin swimming team here last night 42 to 25. Vitack, Northwestern, won the 100-yard swim in 1:04 4-5. Northwestern was victor in the water basket ball game.

Urbana, Ill., March 4.—Taking all firsts and all points in five of ten events, Illinois easily defeated Northwestern in a meet here last night 71¾ to 14¼.

Chicago, March 4.—University of Chicago defeated Ohio State at basket ball 27 to 12 here last night.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 4.—Basket ball result last night: Coe, 29; Simpson, 20.

ALEXANDER ABERG TO MEET THE "MASKED MARVEL" HERE



ALEXANDER ABERG.

This is the huge Finnish giant who is going to wrestle the "Masked Marvel" here. Aberg is one of the biggest athletes in the world and has won nearly 3,000 contests since he started wrestling. He is 32 years of age and has defeated the great grapplers of Europe, and Cutler, Roller, Lewis, Hussane and others of the Americans. In addition, Aberg has won both of the big wrestling tournaments staged in the United States.

KING GIVES FAMOUS HORSE TO CANADA

Ottawa, Ont., March 4.—The famous stallion, Anmer, under whose feet Miss Davison, the suffragette, lost her life at the Derby of 1913, has been presented to Canada by the king of England for the breeding of remounts. When the racing horses were at top speed Miss Davison rushed out and clutched the bridle rein of the king's horse, bringing it down upon her and losing her life as a result. Anmer was put out of the race.

The new Canadian sire has a distinguished pedigree.

CURLING GAMES TO BE SHOWN ON THE SCREEN

Moving pictures taken at the Northwestern Curling bonspiel will be shown at the Orpheum-Strand, starting tomorrow night, in connection with the Walker Whiteside film drama of "The Melting Pot." The pictures are expected to prove of unusual interest as many of the Duluth curlers are shown in close games.

Pocket Billiard Play.

New York, March 4.—Harris D. Brown of Brooklyn defeated J. Ferdinan Poggenburg of the New York Liederkranz, former national and international champion, 400 to 314, in last night's game of the national amateur billiard championship tournament here. In the afternoon contest E. T. Appleby scored his first victory at the expense of J. Klinger, who now has lost three straight. The score was 400 to 305.

UNIVERSALS WIN FROM BIG DULUTH'S AT HOCKEY

Amateur Pennant Won By Flour Makers in Eighteen Minutes Over Time Contest By the Score of 2 to 1; Big Duluth Manager Protests Game; Northerns Defeat Bagleys.

HOW THEY FINISHED.

	Won.	Lost	Aver.
Universals	6	2	.750
Northerns	5	4	.556
Big Duluths	4	4	.500
Bagleys	2	7	.222

Last night in the presence of the largest crowd of the present season, the Universal hockey team won the championship of the Duluth Amateur league by defeating the Big Duluth aggregation in an overtime contest by the close score of 2 to 1.

Neither team was able to score during the first period of play, so evenly matched were the pennant contenders, and so strong was the defense maintained by both sides. Early in the second period Jimmy Owens made a brilliant sortie from far down in the Universal territory, carrying the puck almost directly in front of the Big Duluth goal. He made a neat pass to "Beany" Brown and the diminutive wing flashed the rubber in.

You would have thought some hardy fireman had carried a beautiful maiden down a burning ladder, from the enthusiastic cheering that greeted the play. But when Arnie Olson tied up the count, the noise and enthusiasm plainly showed that the sympathies of the big crowd were quite evenly divided.

The Old Head Work.

Olson's score showed the head work of the little veteran. The goal was scored from a play that brought the rubber out from behind the goal and right around the corner of the cage, Arnie sneaking over and dribbling the puck through the extended feet of Johnny Richards. The play was so wholly unexpected as to leave the Universal players rather stunned.

Neither team could score after the count was knotted. The Big Duluths were peppering shots at the Universal goal, but in Johnny Richards the flour makers were in supreme possession of a wicket guard that knew right where he was at every minute of the play. Richards saved the day for the Universals by some of the greatest puck-stopping feats witnessed on a local rink in many months. The kid stopped them with legs, hands, body and almost with his eye brows.

While it is possibly true that the Big Duluths executed more shots at goal, this fact only served to emphasize the wonderful defensive playing of Richards.

In the first half the puck was in the Universal territory the greater part of the time. In the second period the flourmakers came back and rushed their opponents into a defensive mood for the greater part of the half.

When overtime play was started, the Big Duluths for the first ten minutes of the play seemed animated by a desperate desire to win, and played the Universals off their feet for the first few minutes.

Five minutes of overtime passed without any scoring. Ten minutes were tolled off. The teams changed goals once more, as they did at the close of the second half, and again the battle was resumed. Five more minutes were rung off, and spectators began to see visions of a tie game and a prolonging of the uncertainty as to the pennant winner.

With but two minutes left of the 20-minute overtime period, the tie was broken and victory assured for the Universals, when Parsons slammed the puck past the guard of Oulette during a spirited scrimmage in front of the cage.

Right here the bell rang out and both teams left the ice. Right here, also, occurred an incident that has furnished the basis of a protest upon the part of Ed Norsted, manager of the Big Duluths.

Norsted claims that there was a minute and a half of time left in which to play. Claiming that the game was called too soon, he has lodged a protest with the officials of the league.

On the other hand, it is claimed that it was specifically agreed at the meeting held during the present week that the game should automatically end with the first goal at any time after the first extra time period of ten minutes had been played. Under this ruling the game came to an end when the Universals scored their second goal.

Contest Was a Darb.

There is no need to apply the qualifying words, "it was a great game for an amateur game." It was a great game for any hockey contest; one of the very best that has ever been played on home ice.

From the start to the finish it was played in a veritable frenzy of enthusiastic desire to win. There was not one solitary dull minute. Not one player loafed one minute of the play. It was back and forth every second of the long-drawn-out game, with no advantage apparent, and with play so close and goals so narrowly averted that the spectators were kept on their toes throughout the hour and eight minutes of the contest.

Some Scintillating Stars.

Nelson and Arnie Olson featured the Big Duluth play. Nelson was a bear on offensive, carrying the rubber into the Universal territory times innumerable and making some great shots for goal. Only the ubiquitous work of Richards prevented some of the shots of Nelson from counting.

Olson played a whale of a game, both on defensive and offensive. He scored the only goal for his side and was always on the puck. It was the great defensive playing of Olson that broke up many of the combination rushes of the Universals.

Richards stood out as the star of the Universals. His playing was the decidedly bright feature of the Universal side of the argument. Outside of Richards it is difficult to pick stars on the Universal side. "Beany" Brown played the greatest hockey he has flashed this season. Bartlett played a great game and so did Parsons and Harris. It is hardly fair to stop and select stars from the Universals after dropping some flowers on the roof of Johnny Richards' abode. It was the collective work of the Universals that won the victory, and this is the greatest praise that can be bestowed on a hockey team.

Northerns Defeat Bagleys.

Dave Larson's Northerns defeated the Bagleys by the score of 5 to 0. The hardware men excelled in individual playing and had the better of the game from start to finish.

The lineup and summary:

Universals—		Big Duluth—
Richards	g	Oulette
Barlett	cp	Dahlstrom
Roberts	p	Ullberg
Parsons	r	Sullivan
Harris	c	Olson
Brown	lw	Alder
Owens	rw	Nelson

Goals: First half—No score. Second half—Brown, Universals, rebound, pass from Owens, 5:30; Olson, Big Duluth, scrimmage, 8:03.

Overtime—Parsons, Universals, scrimmage, 18:15.

Referee—Clark. Judge of play—Kline. Penalties—Harris, Olson and Bartlett, 2 minutes each.

Bagleys—		Northerns—
Sponberg	g	Hedberg
La Fleur	p	Stahl
Warner	cp	Clark
Landgren	r	Olson
Gow	c	Bastien
Kerr	lw	Peterson
Wahl	rw	Irving, Borgeson

Goals: First half—Peterson, Northern, scrimmage, 24:30. Second half—Stahl, Northern, scrimmage, 7:30; Peterson, Northern, scrimmage, 13:00; Borgeson, Northern, scrimmage, 22:02; Bastien, Northern, unassisted, 24:26.

Penalties—Wahl, Clark, Stahl and Borgeson, 2 minutes.

MAY STRING OUT CURLING SEASON

If Wintery Weather Continues, Additional Games Will Be Arranged.

It is expected that the curling program for the present season will be wound up on March 15. The Universal and Bagley events are out of the way and The Herald and Manley will be completed the coming week. The Blaze of Glory event is being rushed through and rapid progress is being made in the Board of Trade trophy event.

According to the games committee, if the present brand of zero weather keeps up, there will be several informal contests arranged after the regular curling program is played out.

Several sheets of ice at the curling rink have been reserved today for high school instructors who are to be introduced to the great old Scotch game.

Last night's results and the draw for tonight follow:

Games Last Night.

BOARD OF TRADE EVENT.

Stephen H. Jones, 17; D. Stocking, 12.
S. L. Reichert, 12; O. Martin, 0 (forfeit).
J. Bierhalter, 14; E. D. Field, 11.
D. C. Duncan, 12; H. S. Macgregor, 0.
A. A. Michaud, 13; C. F. Naufts, 8.
A. C. Hoene, 12; Dr. Gillespie, 0.

BLAZE OF GLORY.

F. G. German, 10; T. Newcomb, 2.
A. J. Gow, 14; G. Anderson, 5.
A. J. Butchart, 12; C. Dreisbach, 9.
S. A. Johnson, 14; H. Hargreaves, 12.

Draw for Afternoon.

PINZON EVENT.

A. C. Hoene vs. Coley Naughton.
W. Dinham vs. Walter Hall.
C. Brewer vs. D. C. Duncan.

BLAZE EVENT.

J. C. Currie vs. F. Hoene.
E. D. Field vs. F. H. Fitzgerald.
Sam Cleveland vs. Ron Smith.

Draw for Tonight.

MANLEY EVENT.

L. Coson vs. Sam Cleveland.

BOARD OF TRADE.

S. L. Reichert vs. A. A. Michaud.
W. W. McMillan vs. J. E. MacGregor.
H. George vs. Stephen H. Jones.
David Stocking vs. G. P. Stillman.
H. A. Butchart vs. Jack Foreman.

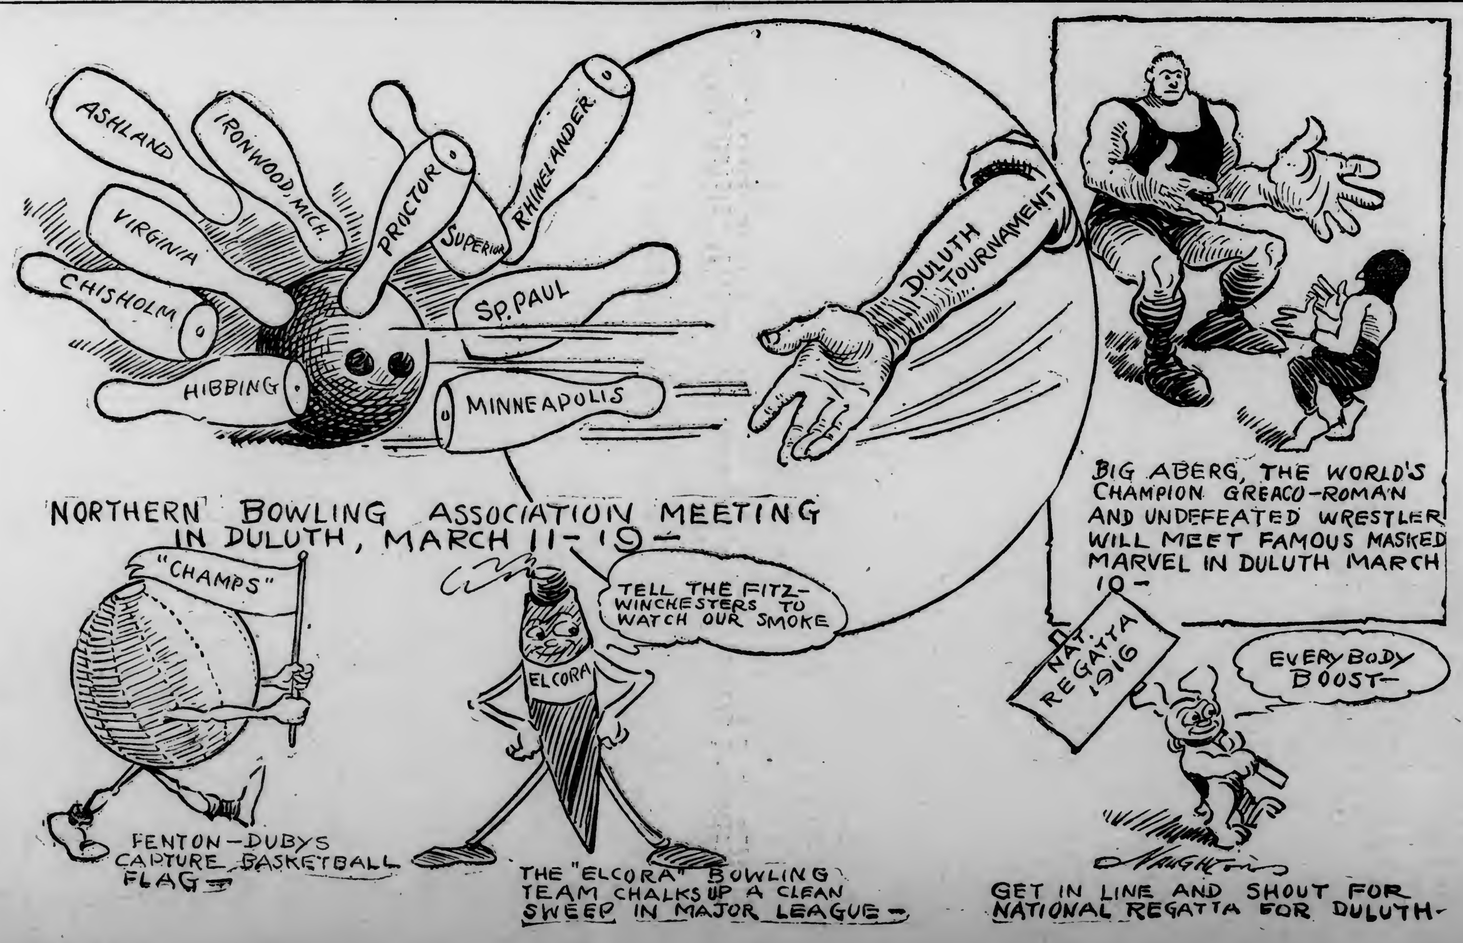
BLAZE OF GLORY.

F. W. Hargreaves vs. A. B. Kapplin.
Ray Bishoff vs. W. G. Hall.

Double Wrestling Bill.

Louisville, Ky., March 4.—Wladek Zbyszko and Yusiff Hussane were victors in a double wrestling bill here last night. They both won in straight falls. Zbyszko threw Karl Lemlein in thirty minutes with a half nelson and bar arm and gained the second fall in fifteen minutes with a body hold. Hussane used a half nelson and crotch hold to win from Anton Irsa in twenty and fifteen minutes.

SPORTING EVENTS OF THE WEEK AS SEEN BY THE HERALD CARTOONIST



Curling Hockey

News and Views of the Sport World

BILLIARDS ~ WRESTLING ~ BOWLING

Basketball Boxing

OAK HALLS RETAIN LEAD IN MAJOR BOWLING RACE

Seem Firmly Entrenched in Leading Position; Elcoras Lead in Team Averages and Berini Leads in Individual Standing, With Steigler Second.

Another week of major league bowling finds the Oak Halls lodged safely in first place in the pennant race. The Oaks lead the Elcoras by a margin of five games, while the Sharkcrafts are in third place.

In the matter of pin averages the Elcoras lead the teams of the league, having a team average of 930 for fifty-seven games. The same team marked up the high score of the present week with a count of 988 and also the three-game team score with a total of 2,839.

Murphy of the Big Duluths is high individual three-game man of this week, his marking being the high register of 625. Stauss of the Elcora team knocked off the single game score with a mark of 233.

There seems no dislodging Berini from the individual average leadership. This wood hitter has an average of 197 and a fraction points for a total of fifty-one games. Steigler of the Big Duluths is second with 194 and a fraction points.

A bowlers' dance is on the program for next Tuesday, and therefore the games of the Major league will be postponed.

Following are the scores:

Pin Average.

	Games.	H. S.	Ave.
Elcora	57	1,058	930
Oak Hall	57	1,025	926
Big Duluth	57	1,025	921
Sharkcraft	57	1,033	908
Fitzgerald & Winchester	57	1,029	904
Empress Coffee	57	977	865

Team Standing.

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Oak Hall	38	19	.667
Elcora	33	24	.578
Sharkcraft	33	24	.578
Big Duluth	29	28	.508
Fitzgerald & Winchester	24	33	.421
Empress Coffee	14	43	.245

1915-16 League Records to Date.

High team score, three games, Oak Hall 2,952
High team score, one game, Elcora 1,058
High individual score, three games Stiegler, Big Duluth 692
High individual score, one game, Stiegler, Big Duluth 276

1914-15 League Records.

High team score, three games, Park Hotel 2,970
High team score, one game, Big Duluth and Sharkcraft tied 1,056
High individual score, three games, Firestone, Columbia 670
High individual score, one game Weston, Sharkcraft 268

Individual Average.

	Games.	Tot. Pins	Ave.
Berini	51	10,097	197-50
Stiegler	54	10,519	194-43
Deller	56	10,717	191-21
Meyers	57	10,823	189-50
Stauss	57	10,794	189-21
Otterson	57	10,779	189-6
Olsen	56	10,569	188-41
Whitney	54	10,191	188-39
Schultz	54	10,154	188-3
Sturm	3	559	186-1
Summers	54	9,990	185
Foster	49	9,021	184-8
Wade	49	9,024	184-8
Root	57	10,440	183-9
Johnson	54	9,884	183-2
Newmann	57	10,432	183-1
Murphy	57	10,356	181-38
Ptacek	44	7,980	181-16
Kampmann	54	9,832	180-12
Taraldson	52	9,368	180-8
McFarlane	19	3,423	180-3
Jenswold	42	7,653	179-35
Trevillion	17	3,312	178-46
Randall	50	8,941	178-41
McKenna	49	8,740	178-18
Michalek	27	4,860	178
Weston	42	7,460	177-26
Brown	30	5,334	177-24
Spear	24	4,268	177-20
Hilber	54	9,540	176-36
Wendell	9	1,583	175-8
Barkley	18	3,147	174-16
Michael	40	6,968	174-8
Bethune	30	5,210	173-20
Dougherty	9	1,565	173-8

"KID TEAMS" FIGHT IT OUT FOR JUNIOR HOCKEY CHAMPIONSHIP AND MERRITT SCHOOL WINS

THE MERRITT SCHOOL HOCKEY TEAM, JUNIOR CHAMPIONS OF THE CITY.
Left to Right—Walter Olson, Earl Melin, George Martinson, Clifford Samson, Carl Johnson, Albert Nord, Wilfred Shosie, Walter Johnson, Stanley Davis, Stanley Hedberg (Captain), Otto Bodin and Harry Johnson.

—Photos by Gallagher.

THE LAKESIDE SCHOOL SEPTET, CONTENDERS FOR THE TITLE.
Left to Right—Chester Bridgeman, George Gorton, Valentine How, William Alexander, Frank Grannis, John Henderson, Avery Ward, Clifford Ryter and Leslie Foster (Captain).

The Merritt school yesterday after noon won undisputed title to the junior hockey championship of the city.

In a contest that was hard fought from start to finish, the Merritts defeated the Lakeside septet by the score of 1 to 0, making two out of three victories against the East end team in the series played to establish the junior grade school championship of Duluth. The Merritts won the first game on Wednesday, 3 to 2, and on Thursday the Lakeside team scored a victory, 1 to 0.

The Merritts made their goal shortly after the opening of the game and from then on neither team scored. A large gallery of boys and girls from the contending schools, including several of the teachers, were at the game cheering for their respective teams. Robert Kerr, assistant recreational director, was in charge of the contest.

The Merritt and Lakeside teams won the championship honors in the Junior Western and Junior Eastern leagues, respectively, and the series this week were arranged to decide the city leadership. Yesterday's contest brings to a close the grade school hockey leagues conducted during this winter under the supervision of J. R. Batchelor, recreational director.

Earlier in the week the Salter team won the senior championship by defeating the Lincoln septet in the first two games of the series.

CRITICS SAY STECHER IS GREATER THAN GOTCH

Followers of Wrestling Believe the Lanky Scissors Grinder Is the Greatest Grappling Marvel of All Time—Gotch Fully Aware of Stecher's Prowess.

New York, March 4.—Frank Gotch, one of the very few survivors of the old guard of American champions of the past decade, is at last confronted by a very formidable pretender to the wrestling throne. Out of the Middle West that produced the Iowa Avalanche has come Stecher, the Scissors Grinder, who today is all that Gotch was just a few short years ago—young, powerful, ambitious and apparently invincible.

It is almost inevitable that the youthful furrow follower from the corn husker country will eventually grapple with Gotch for the American mat title, and men who follow the wrestling game closely believe that when they meet, the star of the catch-as-catch can empire, which has so long shone down on the town of Humboldt, Iowa, will shift its illuminating beams to the little burg of Dodge, Neb.

In other words, they believe that Stecher will beat Gotch—not as easily as Joe scissored the "Masked Marvel" into submission at Madison Square Garden the other evening, but just as surely. They believe that a new champion is in the making, if he is not already made, and just awaiting the formal transfer of the title.

Great was Gotch, but greater still is this long, lithe, snaky youth from old Nebraska, say the wrestling sharks, and they do not believe that the man from the Hawkeye state will ever be able to get far enough along the road of Comebackville to give Stecher much of a tussle. A few years ago Gotch might have—but then a few years ago is a lot of years ago in the world of sport. Ball players, boxers, wrestlers—they are all about the same. The professional life of a wrestler is longer, as a rule, than other athletes, but old boy Time eventually gathers them in with the rest.

Gotch Fully Aware.

Gotch is not deceiving himself about this new wonder, as old champions are apt to do when some young chap begins casting a shadow across the championship trail. Months ago, when Stecher was first attracting a little attention out West by his feats, Gotch was in Chicago, and during a conversation with a party of friends the Nebraskan's name came up. Gotch had never seen Stecher at that time, and asked a number of questions about him.

"Aw, he's a big stiff, Frank," said a member of the group, by way of getting himself in right with the champion. "He's just a big, awkward stiff. You can beat him easy."

"Yes," replied Gotch, dryly, "that's what they said about me when I started out, too. They said I was just a big, awkward stiff. Any one who can beat the men this fellow has, in the way he has, is no stiff. You can go broke on that proposition."

Gotch will meet all comers on the tour, offering $100 to any man who lasts fifteen minutes with him, and this should give him some of the real mat-mauling that, after all, is the only preparatory work worth two whoops.

Stecher the Favorite.

A fighter should fight to keep in condition. Boxing bouts do him little good. A ball player can keep in physical form in just one way, and that is by playing ball constantly. By the same token, a wrestler must keep wrestling to attain and maintain the old pink.

Along in May, if he thinks he is just right, it is said that Gotch will announce himself ready to sign with Stecher. It is a cinch he will think he is just right, too, for the old boys never realize when they have gone away for good until it is too late. The wrestling title ought to be in Dodge, Neb., by the end of the year, at least.

It's a curious thing about that little town of Dodge that it has produced two other notable figures in the wrestling world besides Stecher. One was Clarence Whistler, who had renown long and long ago, and the other was the original "Strangler" Lewis—not the "Strangler" who has been wrestling in the tournament at the Manhattan opera house, but Evan Lewis. Evan was regarded as quite a tussler in his time.

Not Really Retired.

Gotch has really never been in complete retirement, as many people seem to think. He wrestled no longer ago than July 4 last, when he took on Henry Ordemann in his home town of Humboldt, and won in two falls. This partook of the nature of an exhibition, however, as Gotch appeared just to help the county fair association of Humboldt out of debt.

A couple of years ago Gotch wrestled George Lurich in Kansas City, so he has not been entirely out of touch with the mat game. He has been regarded as the title holder since about 1907.

Another popular supposition is that his notorious match with Hackenschmidt in Chicago killed the wrestling game in that town, but a year afterward Gotch met Jim Esson of Scotland there.

Gotch is now almost 38 years old. He was born in Humboldt April 27, 1878. Stecher is only about 23, and while he may not weigh quite as much as Gotch, he is taller and is believed to be fully as strong now as Gotch was when at his best. He may lack Frank's experience, but he has met men fully as experienced, even though they may not have been as good as the Humboldt Hurricane.

Some wrestling experts profess the belief that the man who would cause Stecher more trouble than any other mat worker in the world is Stanislaus Zbyszko. They declare that the Pole is so big Stecher would be unable to get his legs around him, thus losing the advantage of the scissors hold.

When this idea was suggested to one of the Nebraskan's close followers, he laughed.

"Joe has been able to get his legs around bigger men than Zbyszko," he said, "and if they ever meet the Pole will not bother him in the least because of his size."

NO BASEBALL STRIKE BUT FRATERNITY MAY GO TO COURT

New York, March 4.—According to members of the Baseball Players' fraternity, the attention of the national commission shortly will be called to the involved status of the contract held by James H. Johnston, formerly of the Oakland club of the Pacific Coast league. Johnston, who is an outfielder, jumped to the Federal league club of Newark last fall. Later in the season Charles H. Ebbets, president of the Brooklyn Nationals, announced that he had signed the player for the Superbas, upon which ensued a series of contractual tangles, that, it is said, gave rise to the statement by James A. Gilmore, president of the defunct Federal league that the players were contemplating another strike.

Johnston was signed by George Stovall for the Newark Federals at a salary of $4,000 a year for two years, with the ten-day release clause eliminated from the contract, and $1,000 advance money paid to him. Ebbets later offered the player a contract with the Brooklyn club at a similar salary and containing the ten-day clause. Johnston claims that he did not agree to these terms, but that the Brooklyn club mailed contracts to his home at Chattanooga, Tenn.

After the peace agreement between the Federal league and organized baseball, Ebbets purchased the Johnson contract from Harry Sinclair, who represented the Newark Federals, paying $1,244 to Sinclair as a return for the $1,000 advanced Johnson and Stovall's expenses in signing the Oakland player. Johnston now contends that Ebbets, by purchasing his Federal league contract is obligated by its terms, whereas the Brooklyn club holds that the alleged verbal agreement made with Johnston warrants it in insisting that the player sign a contract calling for a salary of $3,400 a year with the ten-day clause included.

The officers of the players' fraternity, who are investigating the baseball contract tangle, claim that even if this contention is correct, certain private financial propositions made in the correspondence with Johnston are violations of the Cincinnati agreement between the fraternity and organized baseball. Under the interpretation the club would be subjected to a fine and Johnston declared a free agent.

Johnston is determined to hold either the Federal league or the Brooklyn club to his $4,000 contract, which covers 1916 and 1917. The players' fraternity will lay the entire correspondence and contracts before the national commission within a few days. Members of the organization state that there will be no strike over the matter, but that it is likely to be carried to the courts unless Johnston's rights are acknowledged by the contracting parties involved.

Kelly Not Free Agent.

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 4.—President Barney Dreyfuss of the Pittsburgh Nationals, was officially notified yesterday that the national commission had refused to declare Outfielder James Kelly a free agent. Kelly based his claim upon what he said was unfair treatment on the part of President Dreyfuss in not honoring his transfer to the Indianapolis American association club by the Pittsburgh Federals. The commission ruled he had no case and dismissed his claim.

Jack Ferry Released.

Columbus, Ohio, March 4.—Jack Ferry, for several seasons a pitcher with the Columbus American association club, has been given his unconditional release, officials of the Senators have announced. Ferry came to Columbus in the deal that gave Pittsburgh George McQuillen.

STECHER WINS AGAIN.

Defeats Irish Champion in Butte; First Bout a Tussle.

Butte, Mont., March 4.—Joe Stecher of Nebraska, heavyweight wrestler, defeated Pat Connolly, the Irish champion, here last night in two straight falls, the first in 15 minutes, and the second in 6 minutes and 35 seconds. Stecher won both falls with the body scissors and arm lock.

It was announced that the Copper City Athletic club has offered Gotch and Stecher a purse of $40,000 to settle the world's championship in Butte in July.

DARCY GOES TO WAR, BUT NOT WITH GIBBONS

Sydney, Australia, via London, March 4.—Les Darcy, champion middleweight pugilist of Australia, has joined the aviation corps.

Lewis and Britton Matched.

New Orleans, La., March 4.—Ted Lewis of England, who claims the world's welterweight championship because of his decision over Harry Stone Wednesday, has been matched to meet Jack Britton for the title. The bout will be for twenty rounds and probably will be staged April 17 or 24.

THE GOOD JUDGE BEATS CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS.

I DISCOVERED AMERICA AND TOBACCO IN 1492.
GREAT! NOW AMERICA IS THE HOME OF FREEDOM.
YES, BUT THE JUDGE DISCOVERED THE LITTLE CHEW OF W-B CUT TOBACCO THAT LASTS AND SATISFIES.
W-B

IF some of your friends haven't been lucky enough to discover W-B CUT Chewing—the long shred Real Tobacco Chew—give them the good news today.

Tell them to get a pouch and give it a quality test—to take a small chew—and that they don't need to take a wad as with the ordinary kind. Tell them also, to notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste—how it satisfies.

Made by WEYMAN-BRUTON COMPANY, 50 Union Square, New York City

CATHEDRALS TURN TABLES

Defeat Central High Quint After Former Severe Defeat.

C. H. S. Seconds Win, Coming Up After Bad Start.

Before a capacity crowd last evening, at the Washington gymnasium, the Cathedral high school basket ball quint turned the tables on the Central high five in a close and hard-fought battle by a score of 23 to 15.

The Catholic quint had the edge on its opponents throughout, and by slipping in Lee in the second half, ran up a good lead, which its opponents could not overcome.

Central had won the first game in the Cathedral gym by a score of 16 to 6, and despite the fact that two of Central's star players were out of the game last night, it was generally conceded that Central would stand the better chance. But Coach Daugherty had been pounding his men hard for the last two weeks and they presented a brilliant offense and an impregnable defense.

Stars Out of Game.

Shaw and Christoferson were out of the Central lineup. The team work of these men, working with the rest of the team, downed such crack aggregations as Superior Central and Hibbing, and was thus badly broken up and the Red and White athletes were unable to find themselves.

All credit, however, is due the crack Cathedralites for their wonderful playing of last night. The men were in fine trim. The first half was exceptionally close, Central leading at its conclusion by the score of 9 to 7. Both teams came back with a rush at the start of the final period, and for a time it was anybody's game. About the middle of the final period, Lee, crack center, was sent in by Coach Daugherty of Cathedral, and by caging four great shots he sent the Cathedral quint into a big lead.

Cathedrals Are Fast.

The Cathedral team played a fast game and they put up a better game of team work than they have exhibited this season. Capt. Cole at guard was the star of the game, breaking up many of the offensive plays of the Centrals. He was ably assisted by Farah, who played a much better game than at any time during the season. The Cathedral offensive department was also "there" in a thousand ways.

Karon played a great game for Central, making eight of the fifteen points scored by his team. The rest of the team played hard but they were badly handicapped by the loss of their mates.

The second team game was a corker all the way through and was finally won by the Centrals after five minutes of overtime playing. The score at the end of the first half stood 10 to 7 in favor of Cathedral, but Central came back strong in the final period and with Fee in the game they soon forged ahead.

Big Crowd Sees Games.

The games were attended by a very large crowd which packed every inch of space in the gym. The Cathedral supporters gave vent to their enthusiastic feelings after the game by parading the downtown district.

As a result of the game, there is a tie for the championship honors of the Lake Superior region. Central, despite her defeat last night, still holds a slight advantage, for the Red and White men have defeated Superior Central, which team in turn has won from Cathedral. Should Duluth Central win from Superior Central again it is quite probable that Central and Cathedral will meet again to determine the championship.

The scores of the games last night:

Central high.		Cathedral high.
Karon	f	Fitzpatrick
Mason	f	Tierney
Gogins	c	Quinn, Lee
Rosenberg	g	Cole
Heimanson	g	Farah

Field goals—Karon, 4; Rosenberg, 1; Mason, 1; Lee, 4; Fitzpatrick, 3; Cole, 1; Tierney, 3. Free throws—Cole, 1 out of 3; Mason, 3 out of 5.

Central 2nds. | Cathedral 2nds.

Karon	f	McDonald
Boyer	f	Curry
Hendrickson	c	Aldrich
Randall	g	Gallagher
Ekberg, Fee	g	Toben

Field baskets—Karon, 2; Boyer, 3; Randall, 1; McDonald, 3; Curry, 1. Free throws—Karon, 1 out of 5; Fee, 1 out of 2; McDonald, 3 out of 3; Curry, 2 out of 3.

TEAMS ENTERED IN BIG BOWLING MEET

Northern Pin Tourney Which Will Open Here Next Saturday Will Have the Best Teams in Northwest as Contestants.

Some of the best bowling teams in the Northwest will roll in the Northern Bowling tournament, which will open on the Grand alleys next Saturday. The tourney this season will be by far the largest in the history of the association. Practically the best of the Twin City teams have been entered, while the surrounding towns will also send in some strong contenders for prize money.

There will be more than twenty teams entered from Duluth and it is expected that local bowlers will make the strongest showing in the history of the Head of the Lakes alley sport.

Following are some of the entries:

Teams from St. Paul.

Nick Herges, Montana Meats, Matchingers, St. Paul Pick Ups, Schmidts, St. Paul Boosters, Diedrick Kennedy Co., N. P. Railway, Glacier National Park, Sherman Hotel, Aquila No. 1, Aquila No. 2, West Side Club, Hamm's New Brew, Johnsons, E. J. Fuchs, Fransons, Northwest News, Capitols.

Teams from Minneapolis.

Centrals No. 1, Centrals No. 2, Hans Lienes, W. C. Smith, Orphans, Et Rol Tan, Marquette, Snyders, Bersinges, Powers Mercantile Co., City of Minneapolis, Cedar Lakes, Zumalweiss.

Other Outside Teams.

Hodags, Rhinelander, Wis.; Rice Lake Boosters, Rice Lake, Wis.; Hotel Beebe, New Richmond, Wis.; Elks Club, Ashland, Wis.; Wisconsin Naval Militia, Ashland, Wis.; Outcasts, Ironwood, Mich.; Mission Stars, Ironwood, Mich.; Moose, Ironwood, Mich.; Ironwood Boosters, Ironwood, Mich.; White Bear Athletic, White Bear, Minn.; Rivers & Nurmi, Virginia, Minn.

CLOSING PEACE PACT.

National Baseball Commission Taking Final Action on Settlement.

Cincinnati, Ohio, March 4.—Final action on questions not settled when the Federal league peace agreement was signed were expected to be taken up and disposed of at a meeting of the national baseball commission here today.

The commission also has considerable routine business to transact.

NOTRE DAME FEELS DUBIOUS OVER MEET

Madison, Wis., March 4.—Some of the keenest competition of the year is expected in several events of the Wisconsin-Notre Dame dual meet here tonight though Notre Dame fans have faint hope for a victory in view of the Badgers' defeat of Illinois after the Illini had beaten the local squad. The dash especially should furnish a close race when Smith of Wisconsin, who beat Hohman of Illinois in the 60-yard event last week, meets Bergman and Hardy, who downed the Illini in the 40-yard dash a week before. Another good match should be that of the mile, where Wage of Notre Dame and Schardt of Wisconsin are to meet.

Arlie Mucks is conceded the shot-put and the local rooters are inclined also to award Wisconsin the pole valut.

FRANK MAHER WINS FAST ROLLER RACE

Frank Maher won the three-cornered roller skating race held in the Auditorium. Clement Holland was second and Scott, third. Maher skated twenty-one laps and caught and passed both of his competitors. The time for the mile was 3:04.

Wilbert Croteau won the half mile junior dash from Abe Faggell. On Much 14 Holland will meet Earl Scott.

Wins Motor-Boat Race.

Key West, Fla., March 4.—The motorboat Boomerang, owned by Commodore Wyeth of St. Joseph, Mo., yesterday won the "express cruiser" race from Miami to Key West, by making the 165 miles in six hours and 45 minutes.

American Bowling Begins.

Toledo, Ohio, March 4.—The sixteenth annual tournament of the American Bowling congress opens here tonight with sixteen local teams comprising the initial squad. The tourney will continue twenty-four days and during that time 756 five man teams will compete for world's bowling honors.

Ehler Hasn't Quit.

Madison, Wis., March 4.—George W. Ehler has issued a statement denying a report that he had resigned as director of athletics of the University of Wisconsin.

CONSUL'S DEMURRER SUSTAINED BY COURT

Indictments Against Bopp and Others Contain No Issue, Says Judge.

San Francisco, Cal., March 4.—The Federal indictment charging Franz Bopp, German consul general here, and five others with conspiracy to set on foot a military expedition to encompass destruction of British property, was virtually dismissed yesterday when Judge Maurice T. Dooling in the United States district court sustained the demurrer to the indictment filed by the consul's lawyers.

There is still another indictment against the accused men on which the court did not rule.

In addition to Bopp, those under indictment were: Baron E. H. von Schack, German vice consul; George Wilhelm von Brincken, attached to the consulate; Charles C. Crowley, detective employed by the consulate; Mrs. Margaret W. Cornell, employed by Crowley, and J. H. Vankoolbergen, said to have been hired to carry out certain alleged bomb plots in Canada.

The court sustained the demurrer on the ground that the indictment contained no matter upon which the issue could be presented to a jury.

The Federal grand jury was not dismissed by Judge Dooling as was expected, and, according to the district attorney's office, new indictments may be brought in which the charges will be made to conform with the court's rullings.

DENY RIGHT OF COURT TO SEIZE THE APPAM

Norfolk, Va., March 4.—The German government's reply to the libel suit instituted in Federal court here by British owners of the liner to recover possession of the ship, was filed in the court yesterday by Lieut. Hans Berg, commander of the German prize crew which brought the Appam into Hampton Roads, and L. M. von Schilling, German vice consul here. It denied the court's jurisdiction on the ground that the liner is lawful property of the German government as a prize of war.

WOULD YOU LEAVE MONEY

In a barn or basement, then why store your good furniture, which cost money, in such a place. You will be surprised how low our rates are for storing in our dry, clean, modern warehouses. Telephone for rates, either phone 492.

DULUTH VAN & STORAGE CO.

18 FOURTH AVENUE WEST

RACE NEWS
GOOD ROADS
MOTOR GOSSIP
LEGISLATION

IN THE MOTOR WORLD

PLEASURE CARS
ELECTRICS
TRUCKS
MOTORCYCLES

HERALD'S WEEKLY ROADS BUREAU AND BULLETIN

Senator John H. Bankhead, chairman of the committee on postoffices and post roads, is of the belief that the present congress will agree upon a good roads measure that will accelerate highways progress throughout the entire country.

"I cannot avoid the quite positive conclusion, in view of the development of the European war," says the senator, "that any complete plan of military preparedness shall contain provision for road construction. It would appear quite logical that any state would consent that its apportionment of any Federal appropriation, to be used with at least a like amount from the state, would be expended on highways, which would not only serve the needs of the commonwealth in the business and social intercourse of the people, but would also be available in time of war necessity.

"I think the time has come when this country should expect its states to reckon, not only with post roads, but also to take heed of highways, which would fit into a military plan and also serve to some extent the needs of interstate commerce. Many people live near the borders of other states and there is a constant interchange of farm and manufactured products, to such an extent that roads transportation has gone far beyond its former local character. Inevitably the national government must take an enlarging part in the building of the arteries of communication, for a healthy commercial circulation is a necessity to the several states and with a view to facilitating speedy and easy movement of troops by motor trucks and otherwise, where other means of transportation are unavailable."

* * *

"The awakening of the public's interest to the importance of good roads was given its greatest impetus by the automobile," says John N. Willys, president of the Willys-Overland company. "Last year $250,000,000 was spent on good roads. This year Illinois alone will spend $7,250,000. The automobile awakened the whole country to the wisdom of this.

"Such big trunk lines as the Lincoln highway and the Dixie highway never would have been started but for the motor car. And these are only the forerunners of a great national system of roadways. There is one motor car to every fifty persons in America, remember. With 2,000,000 in use and another 1,250,000 planned for 1916, the demand for better roads is going to keep on growing.

"Only 10 per cent of our roads are improved, and farmers lose $250,000,000 annually because of the low percentage. Towns and spots advertised as those whose roads are to be avoided never will get out of a rut. It is a city's best investment—the money spent on good roads leading to its gateways."

* * *

Kansas City, Mo.—Three hundred boosters attended the last meeting of the Jefferson Highway association here and decided on parts of the route of the national highway between New Orleans and Winnipeg. Between Joplin and Kansas City two routes are tentatively on the map, one running northwest from Joplin and through Pittsburg and Fort Scott and the other cities along the eastern border of Kansas clear to Kansas City. The other comes north from Joplin through Webb City, Carterville, Carthage and on north through the county seats of the west tier of Missouri counties to Kansas City. It was agreed that whichever of these routes had the most miles of rock road completed by Sept. 1 next, would be made part of the official route of the Jefferson highway. The chosen route south passes into Oklahoma not far below the south line of this state, and runs thence to Muskogee, Okla., and then south into Texas, where it swerves to the southeast to New Orleans. The route passes northeast from Kansas City, missing St. Joseph, the route chosen being shorter than the one through St. Joseph. The directors contemplate selecting a route supervisor, who shall receive a salary and successively visit the points along the proposed route of this highway, keeping up interest in the undertaking and seeing that the work of road building does not slacken anywhere along the line.

* * *

The state of California now boasts one of the most progressive and up-to-the-minute highway departments and system of highways of any state in the Union, and public sanction to further improvements of the roads will be asked of the voters when a new $15,000,000 bond issue will be submitted to their opinions at the polls during the coming year.

The present good roads of the state were made possible by issuing $18,000,000 worth of bonds for their construction, and the opinion is general that the money was well spent. On this account no doubt exists that the new measure will be carried by a comfortable majority.

California has gained an enviable reputation through the rapid improvement of her roads which have been advertised far and wide by the thousands of tourists who motor into the state every year. This traffic was greatly increased during 1915 by the enormous number who came into the state over the Lincoln highway, and it is anticipated that the number will constantly grow from this time on.

* * *

In 1914, the last year reported, China imported motor cars of a total value of $382,000, a slight gain over the preceding year. These small amounts are accounted for by the absence of roads in China, says a consular report. There is not even a military road, which most ancient countries considered necessary; there are certain roads and courier routes throughout the country; but these are merely coolie tracks and mule paths, and are impassable to anything on wheels except a wheelbarrow. Except in Shanghai, Hankow, Tientsin and Peking and parts of Shantung, no roads are to be found in any part of China. Shanghai is the only port where motoring is indulged in to any extent.

* * *

Trenton, N. J.—Unequivocal opposition to a special state tax or a bond issue for public road purposes, until a system guaranteeing adequate return for expenditures has been established, is one of the striking features in the report of the joint highways committee of the legislature authorized last year to codify and revise the laws relating to the improvement of public roads. Defects in the present system, as viewed by the committee, are due to the system itself rather than to the highway officials of the state, who are credited with being "quite as capable and proficient in their field of operation as like officials in other states."

* * *

Road markers along the entire Dixie highway, in addition to similar marks discernible night or day for the main line roads leading into Chicago, are being made for the Chicago Motor club at the instance of President Charles M. Hayes.

* * *

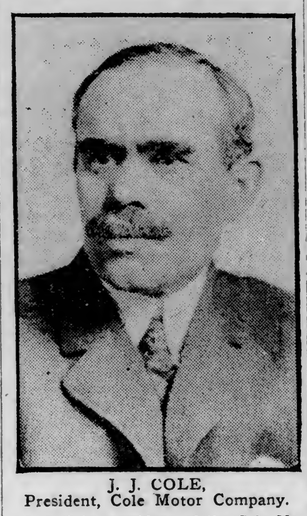
One thousand miles of roadway have been constructed by Colorado convicts in the past seven years. Colorado began to employ convicts on the roads in 1908. At first armed guards were used, but during the second summer the honor system was introduced, and it is still in vogue.

* * *

The voters of Kentucky in the recent election carried by a tremendous majority the constitutional amendment permitting state prisoners to work outside the prison walls.

Under this heading The Duluth Herald is conducting a weekly column of information for automobile owners and drivers. If you are planning on taking a trip, write to the automobile department. All the information at our disposal is yours for the asking. Motorists outside of Minnesota are especially invited to make use of this department.

ASKS UNIFORM CODE OF TRAFFIC LAWS



J. J. COLE,
President, Cole Motor Company.

J. J. Cole, president of the Cole Motor Car company, a few years ago, startled the motor car industry with his system of standardizing the manufacture of motor cars. He has now applied similar principles to the present traffic situation and suggests that the establishment of a uniform code of standardized traffic laws, to be used in all of the larger cities, will solve the difficulties now experienced.

FADS FOR MOTORISTS

Black and white Shetland wool sweaters for men, while not new, are found in a new model which clings tightly to the body. The ribbed border holds it close at the neck and around the wrists. It fastens with crochet buttons down the front and launders perfectly.

* * *

Quite an innovation for men are the velvet smocks to be worn under fur-lined coats for motoring. They are worn without coat or vest, with a soft shirt underneath. They are made the same as the artist's linen blouse. The yoke is smocked, the collar turns over and the cuffs roll back.

* * *

Timepieces for traveling use have the radium figures. They may be had in wrist watches, alarm clocks or in pieces to be set in the leather limousine case. In gunmetal frames they are perhaps the most attractive.

* * *

A charming hat of white beaver, trimmed with ermine tails and white stephanotis flowers, was seen recently on a woman who drives her own runabout. A full-skirted seal coat, edged with a narrow band of ermine, was worn with the hat, while white doeskin gauntlets covered the hands at the wheel.

GASOLINE PRICES STILL GOING UP

Farm Tractors and Motors Are Making Heavy Demands.

Gasoline continues to rise in price.

In Duluth the automobile dealers are selling gasoline for 22 cents a gallon, a rise of 1 cent over the price six weeks ago.

This price is for the higher grade of gasoline, while a lower grade is selling for 19½ cents a gallon.

A year ago gasoline was selling in Duluth for 10.5 cents a gallon, exactly half the present cost. This advance is not only local, but is reported from every section of the United States.

The reasons to which the price rise is attributed are more or less obvious with one or two exceptions. The large increase of farm tractors is responsible for a considerable increase in the demand for fuel. In Central Illinois, for instance, the farmers keep their tractors going all the year round. The huge increase in the number of cars used is a vital factor. There were about 1,500,000 cars in use a year ago, and now there are about 2,000,000. It is anticipated that next summer there will be close to 2,750,000, all using gasoline at the rate of about 500 gallons a year. That makes approximately 1,375,000,000 gallons.

The refiners' plaint is that the cost of crude has increased enormously and that the crudes yielding the greatest percentage of gasoline are the scarcest. Moreover, the percentage of gasoline yielded is decreasing, taking the country as a whole. Roughly averaging the country's crude product, it will yield about 12.5 per cent of gasoline. Seventeen per cent is considered a very good proportion indeed, and some oils are not worth working for the gasoline they will give.

The war is mixed up in it, for the supplies from Russia which came through the Dardanelles are cut off and the strain of the home industry increased just so much.

Methods for increasing the yield of gasoline from crude oil have not, as yet, done everything that has been hoped for—in fact, it would seem that they have been something of a disappointment, though a good deal remains to be done and there is reason to hope for better things in the future.

ANNOUNCE DETAILS OF NEW COMPANY

Columbia Corporation Will Put Out Six-Cylinder Model.

The details regarding the new Columbia Motors company at Detroit have just been revealed. The new car will be of the six-cylinder type with an all-year body and several other distinguishing features.

The line-up of executives includes J. G. Bayerline, who has until recently been president of the King Motor Car company; A. T. O'Connor, formerly connected with the Olds and Packard companies, and W. L. Daly, formerly sales manager of the King Motor Car company. The factory manager will be Truman A. Bollinger who gained his experience by long association with the Olds and Hudson companies, and as factory superintendent of the King Motor Car company, and the factory superintendent is John A. Moirhardt who has been in the manufacturing end for the past ten years and who has done everything that a man can do, building motor cars from the ground up and even racing them in big events.

The new car will be out on June 1, it is announced.

HINTS IN TAKING CARE OF MOTOR

Don't be in a hurry about leaving the motor without care these days. Winter isn't over yet. J. S. Patterson, assistant advertising manager of the Hupp corporation, suggests these wise hints for the remainder of the cold weather season:

Keep entire gasoline feeding system clean. Drain it out every two or three weeks.

Dont try to start a cold motor without choking the air feed of the carburetor. Use a rich mixture of starting.

Alcohol and glycerin make the best anti-freezing solutions for the radiator. Don't use an alkaline solution or potassium chloride mixture. Unless weather goes below 5 degs. below zero mix 15 per cent alcohol, 15 per cent glycerin and 70 per cent water and use that.

Then keep in touch with your dealer and be happy.

PICKED UP ON "HIGH"

Being a Compilation of Happenings the Last Week Among Local Automobile Dealers and Motorists.

Six hundred thousand Fords will be manufactured in 1916 and 1,000,000 in 1917, according to E. P. Anderson, assistant sales manager of the Ford factory branch at Minneapolis, who was in Duluth this week.

"Mr. Ford," he said, "has foreseen business conditions and there is now a total of $27,000,000 worth of material at the factory. This means that there will be no shortage whatever and that the factory will be able to turn out the cars in regular shape.

"Our orders in this territory are increasing rapidly and the Minneapolis branch is now 2,500 orders behind, all because of trackage conditions.

"The demand for the Ford is the greatest in the history of the factory."

* * *

H. A. Fritze of the Zenith Auto company, the distributers for the Dort in Duluth, reports that the first solid train load of Dorts shipped this year moved on Thursday of this week to the Dort distributer in Minneapolis. This was a solid train load of over thirty-five car loads and contained some 200 odd Dort touring cars. The freight charge alone on this shipment was over $4,000.

"I have contracted for about sixty cars," said Mr. Fritze. "I wish I could get the factory to allot me twice that number for I know I could move them with very little trouble."

* * *

John M. Ford reports the arrival of the Winton limousine, which was purchased recently by Dr. W. H. Magie.

* * *

Leonard McNamara shipped three Studebakers to Tower early this week.

* * *

Four Oaklands and five Dodge cars arrived this week, according to J. W. Arnold of the Whitney Motor company.

* * *

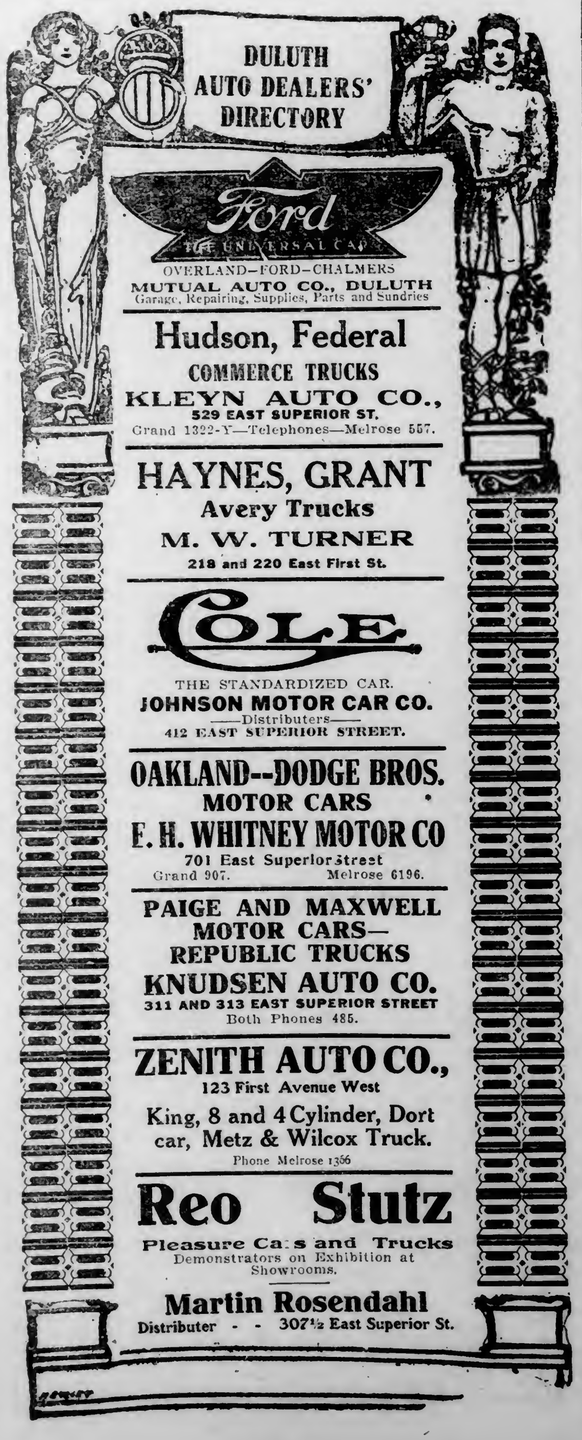
H. B. Knudsen reports the sale of a Republic truck to J. Datka of this city.

* * *

Next Monday the Knudsen company

SERVICE TO HERALD READERS.

Anyone interested in the purchase of a 1916 automobile can get information about the various machines and the local dealers by writing to the automobile department of The Herald. If you are interested in any machine The Herald will tell you where to buy. The Herald is the recognized medium between buyer and dealer in the Northwest.



Overland

SIX

$1145

Model 86 f. o. b. Toledo

No Advance In Price

The price of the big, powerful Overland Six (Model 86) will not be advanced.

Prices of other Sixes are advancing. Prices of Sixes recently announced on new models, are higher. In fact, comparatively figuring, prices of practically all Sixes are now far in excess of the Overland.

On the basis of present prices of raw materials a Six of the Overland quality would have to sell at a much higher price.

But due to a little foresight in purchasing we escaped having to pay premiums for raw materials—hence the price of the Overland Six is not increased.

This in spite of the fact that prices of all steels are up from 100% to 150%; that the price of aluminum has gone from about 20 cents a pound to over 50 cents a pound; that the price of copper has more than doubled; that tires and other accessories have had a sharp advance.

We cannot guarantee that this present price of $1145 will hold indefinitely.

The serious condition of the material market makes that impossible.

But the quality is not lowered; and for the present price is not advanced.

Just compare the size, power, flexibility and quality of the Overland Six motor; the length of the wheelbase—the seating capacity, the finish, the equipment, the comforts, the conveniences and improvements of the Overland Six with all others and you'll find no valid reason for paying more than $1145 for a six cylinder automobile.

Deliveries now.

MUTUAL AUTO COMPANY, Distributers
302-4-6 East Superior St., Duluth.

WILLYS-OVERLAND, Inc.
(Minneapolis Branch) 1203 Hennepin Ave.

MERRITT J. OSBORN, Inc.
(St. Paul Branch) West Third and College Ave.

The Willys-Overland Company, Toledo, Ohio

"Made in U. S. A."

will ship six Maxwells to Chisholm and six to Virginia, where they will be distributed by the sub-agents.

* * *

The four-passenger convertible Cole coupe, recently purchased by Dr. D. E. Seashore, arrived this week.

* * *

The arrival of four Studebakers this week is reported by Leonard McNamara.

TENDENCY TOWARD FEWER CYLINDERS

Simple Mechanism Insures Small Outlay, Says Franklin.

The question of the number of cylinders for an automobile engine will be finally settled by the people who buy automobiles, and their decision will be properly influenced by the cost of operation plus depreciation, in the opinion of H. H. Franklin, president of the Franklin Automobile company.

"The simpler any mechanism, the cheaper it is to operate and care for," Mr. Franklin points out, in discussing the number-of-cylinders problem. "Therefore it would seem that any tendency toward a large number of cylinders in automobile engines is likely to be followed by a return to a policy of fewer cylinders, because of this greater simplicity and the resulting economical advantage.

"John Timbs, the historian of American invention, says that the history of every mechanical development has been from crude directness at the start to extreme and burdensome complexity; then to a finished simplicity which made the complex designs seem absurd.

"It is logical that the automobile should go through stages of development in that respect, following the general rule of mechanical history and working back to a permanent condition of simplicity."

MOTOR AMBULANCE FOR WAR SERVICE.

The American Red Cross society is in receipt of a motor ambulance, the gift of Mrs. W. L. Velie, wife of the president of the Velie Motor company, at Moline, Ill., with instructions to place it in the European war service. The ambulance itself marks the most modern development in field equipment. The unusual size of the car permits of carrying four patients with ample additional room for their attendants. Two large medicine chests completely equipped, four portable stretchers, full electric lighting system and running water, furnished from two tanks, supply a much needed detail heretofore absent in motor-driven equipment.

FINE OUTLOOK FOR MOTOR TRUCKS

Big Increase in Business Expected During the Coming Year.

H. S. Daniels is very enthusiastic regarding the condition of the motor truck business and predicts the greatest increase for 1916 of any year in the history of the trade.

"Not only is there great activity and confidence in the factory truck department," he says, "but the most superficial knowledge of what the country is thinking and doing, will convince anyone that there is no misconception involved in the preparations to provide a multiplied output.

"The truck situation is a hopeful sign for things generally—in fact there could scarcely be imagined a better barometer of business conditions. Manufacturer, middleman, merchant, all preparing for greater deliveries; contractors and public service corporations for extensive operations; the whole commercial and industrial world getting ready for prosperity."

AUTO RACES FOR 1916

May 6—Speedway, Sioux City, Sioux City Speedway association.
May 13—Speedway, New York, Sheepshead Bay Speedway company.
May ..—Speedway, Chicago (amateurs), Speedway Park association.
May 30—Speedway, Indianapolis, Indianapolis Motor speedway.
June 10—Speedway, Chicago, Speedway Park association.
June 28—Speedway, Des Moines, Prince Speedway association.
July 4 — Speedway, Minneapolis, Twin City Motor Speedway company.
July 4—Track, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, Hiller-Riegel.
July 4—Speedway, Sioux City, Sioux City Speedway association.
July 15—Speedway, Omaha, Omaha Auto speedway.
Aug. 5—Speedway, Tacoma, Tacoma Speedway association.
Aug. 18-19—Elgin road races, Chicago Auto club.
Sept. 4 — Speedway, Indianapolis, Indianapolis Motor speedway.
Sept. 4—Speedway, Des Moines, Prince Speedway company.
Sept. 16 — Speedway, Providence, Narragansett Park speedway.
Sept. 29—Track, Trento, N. J., Interstate fair (H. P. Murphy, racing secretary.)
Sept. 30—Speedway, New York, Sheepshead Bay Speedway company.
Oct. 7—Speedway, Omaha, Omaha Auto speedway.
Oct. 14—Speedway, Chicago, Speedway Park association.
Oct. 19—Speedway, Indianapolis, Indianapolis Motor speedway.

GALLON IN U. S. AND CANADA DIFFER.

When is a gallon not a gallon?
That all depends on the point of view.
It is not a gallon when mentioned by a Canadian in the United States. It is not a gallon when alluded to by a citizen of the U. S. A., temporarily in the dominion.
The English gallon, on sale in Canada, is almost 20 per cent larger than the gallon measure provided in the United States. Incidentally, it costs correspondingly more.

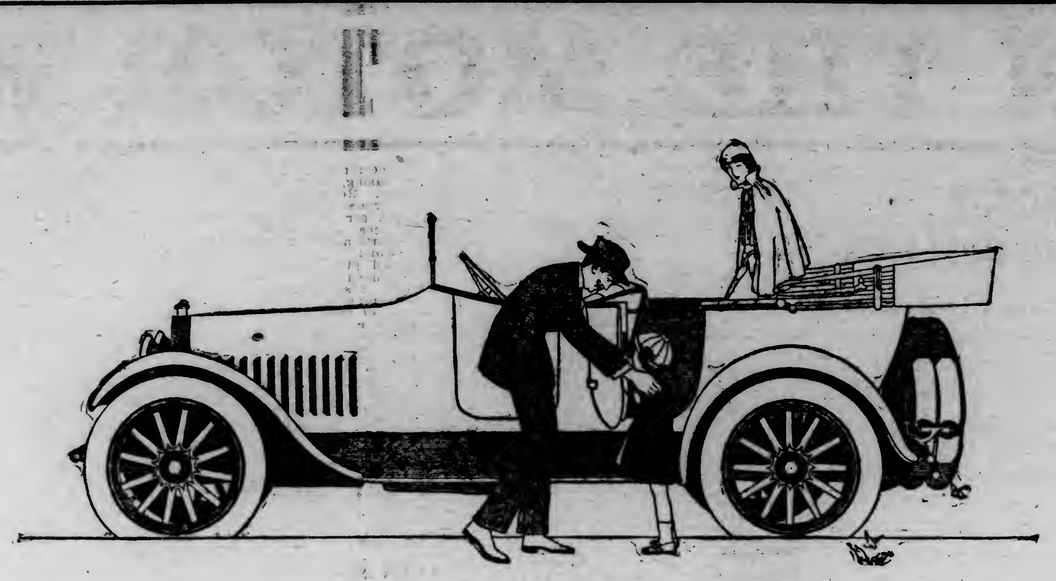
OLDER CHILDREN IN MOST DANGER

Many Auto Accidents Occur With Youngsters of School Age.

Children of school age are more to be watched by motorists for reckless dodging in front of the car than those under school age. Accidents to the older children from automobiles greatly outnumber those to children under school age. This fact is brought out by the analysis of street accidents made by the New York police department, and the result is stated in the first complete twelve months' report of street accident statistics ever issued by the department, as follows:

"In this report the children killed or injured are grouped into two classes: Those under 6 years of age, and those between 6 and 16. There is a remarkable difference in the way the different kinds of accidents befall children under school age, as here distinguished from those of school age. To children under 6 the most dangerous form of accident is being struck by a horse-drawn truck or wagon. This form of accident killed 42 and injured 629 such children. The second greatest danger is the automobile, which killed 27 and injured 537 young children.

"For children of school age the ranks of these dangers are reversed. Automobiles killed 72 and injured 1,742 while the horse-drawn truck or wagon killed 37 and injured 766. In point of fatalities alone the motor truck ranked second for children of school age, with 43 deaths, though only 398 such children were injured. For children under school age the motor truck ranked third in fatalities but fifth in injuries."



Uncanny Performance With Canny Thrift: The New 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers

Three years ago automobile manufacturers began cutting their eye teeth on high-speed motors.

The value of high speed in electric motors or steam turbines had long been recognized.

But the application of high-speed principles to gas engines was difficult to achieve with safety.

Now comes the remarkable 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers which develops an engine speed of 3400 revolutions per minute with absolute safety.

Chalmers engineers solved the problem of safe, high engine speed by means of strength of materials, small, compact bearing surfaces, and ample lubrication.

They did not translate the speed of this 3400 r. p. m. engine into mere car speed. It is built for the road, not the race-track.

Its high-speed engine, used in connection with a low rear axle gear ratio, achieves a vast range of flexibility that is worth more to the motorist than all the two-mile-a-minute speed on earth.

An engine of might can give you one of two things; great speed, or a wealth of great ease and smoothness—never both.

It did not take Hugh Chalmers long to decide. He knew what American drivers prize beyond all things else.

So he built the principles of supreme acceleration combined with all the necessary might into the absolutely minimum and most compact amount of engine possible.

The result is the 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers at $1050, a blend of ability and strength, fusing uncanny performance with canny thrift—delivering speed up to 60 miles an hour, 18 miles for every gallon of gas, and longevity that will amaze and delight you.

The car is here now, ready to perform for you.

$1050 Detroit

Both Phones
694

MUTUAL AUTO COMPANY
E. J. FILIATRAULT, President.
DULUTH, MINN.

Distributers for Northern Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Come in and see this car at our salesroom—302-4-6 East Superior Street. Get a demonstration and be convinced.

BIG INCREASE IN PRODUCTION OF AUTOS IN FIVE YEARS

Between 1909 and 1914 the increase in the number of automobiles produced annually in the United States was 350.3 per cent. The increase in total value was 181.7 per cent. The United States bureau of the census, which prepared the figures relating to his industry, refers to the fact that the increase in value of the output was much smaller, relatively, than the increase in number of machines, and says that it may be accounted for not only by a general reduction of prices, but also by the production of a larger proportion of machines of low-priced makes. Nevertheless touring cars formed the principal type manufactured during both census years. In 1914 the output of this class of machines was 454,876, valued at $351,585,518, compared with 76,189, valued at $113,510,575, in 1909.

An interesting fact brought out in the report is that returns were received from only two establishments making steam automobiles in 1914, and in order to avoid disclosing the operations of these two companies it was considered advisable to consolidate their statistics with those of the companies making gasoline automobiles.

During 1914 there were in the United States 338 establishments manufacturing complete automobiles, their output being 573,114 machines, valued at $465,042,474. In addition there were twelve establishments which manufactured twenty cars, either for experimental purposes or for their own use, upon which no market value could be placed. At the 1909 census, 315 establishments were reported as engaged in the manufacture of automobiles, and their output was 127,287 machines, valued at $165,099,404.

Of the automobiles manufactured in 1914, those operated by gasoline or steam power numbered 568,399 and those operated by electric power 4,715, as compared with 123,452 operated by gasoline or steam and 3,835 by electric power manufactured in 1909. The increase during the five years in the number of gasoline and steam machines manufactured was thus 360.4 per cent and in the number of electrics 22.9 per cent.

For business purposes and for use as public cabs, omnibuses, ambulances, patrol wagons, fire-fighting machines, and for other business purposes, 24,144 machines were manufactured in 1914, compared with 4,262 in 1909. The output of delivery wagons and trucks was 22,753 in 1914, compared with 2,771 in 1909.

MAKES MILE A MINUTE.

Anthony Bryson drove a motor car forty miles in forty minutes over frozen country roads in Minnesota to save his dog and cat from fire. His home on Elk river took fire while he was away. He was notified by telephone and the race began. He arrived too late to save his home, but rescued his pets.

BIG EXPORT INCREASE.

Shipments for 1915 Show Gain of $66,372,280.

Automobile exports for 1915 were $66,372,280 greater in value than in the preceding year. This does not include parts which, exclusive of tires and engines, amounted to $16,300,401, as compared with $5,664,104 for the same time in 1914. These figures are from the report of the department of commerce and have just been issued.

The number of passenger cars exported in 1915 was 42,369, valued at $25,045,422; trucks, 22,982, valued at $59,834,246. For the preceding year these totals were: Passenger cars, 22,335, valued at $19,621,708; trucks, 3,420, valued at $8,955,750.

Great Britain was the largest customer of the United States in the purchase of cars. The total of sales to that country amounted to $35,065,097; to France, $15,922,813; to other European countries, $22,380,357.

Why Not Have Your Car Up-to-Date?

We put Demountable Rims on any make of car.

JOHNSON AUTO SUPPLY,
338 East Superior Street.

REBUILT CADILLACS

1912—1913—1914—1915

LOOK AND RUN LIKE NEW!

A rebuilt Cadillac is a much better investment than a cheap new car. All rebuilt Cadillacs are thoroughly overhauled in our shops, new parts installed where necessary, repainted, equipped with first-class tires, and guaranteed.

NORTHWESTERN CADILLAC CO.

709 East Superior Street. Duluth, Minn.

ON THE IRON RANGES

VOTE AID TO COUNTY FAIR

County Board Appropriates $9,500 for Maintenance and Buildings.

Total Investment in Buildings and Site More Than $50,000.

St. Louis county's annual fair, which will be held at Hibbing on Sept. 1, 2 and 3 this year, will be the best ever, according to R. L. Giffin, secretary of the St. Louis County Agricultural society, who was in the city today to appear before the county board with a request for an appropriation.

County commissioners voted $9,500 to the county fair association. Of this amount $2,000 will be spent for maintenance and $7,500 for new buildings. Secretary Giffin stated that the association was planning to erect a model residence, which would be occupied by the caretaker of the grounds and during the fair time would be used for demonstration purposes.

It is also planned to construct an up-to-date dairy barn, 38 by 100, fully equipped with tubular stanchions and with a concrete foundation.

The buildings and 160-acre site at the fair grounds, all owned by St. Louis county, now represent an investment of $50,000 and upwards, Mr. Giffin said. He declared that during the last ten years the fair association has paid out more than $10,000 in premiums to exhibitors and that the figure did not include money paid out in purses in races.

The premium list this year calls for an expenditure of about $1,800 to be paid out in cash to exhibitors.

PUMPING STATION IS NOW CONCRETED

Improvement at Monroe "A" Shaft Benefits Chisholm Water System.

Chisholm, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Concreting of the pump station on the main tram level of the Monroe "A" mine has been completed. A vast amount of cement, crushed rock and structural steel was used in this work, which was under way for the past two months. Importance attaches to the completion of this task as the entire supply of water for the village is obtained from mine drifts leading into the Monroe "A" shaft and all main discharge lines to the municipal pumping plant have their source of supply at this station.

Timbering of the culvert built under the Great Northern main line of tracks to open up a south outlet to Longyear lake that would circle the Chester mine was completed on Thursday.

Next Monday the laying of the creosote block floor in the Monroe machine shop will be started under the supervision of the manufacturers of the creosoted block.

Shenango Pushes Work.

With 600 men employed at the present time in this district, the Shenango Furnace company is pushing work at their various mines to capacity. The Shenango mine is carrying 350 men on the payroll, the Webb mine, 210, and the Tioga mine, forty men. The force at the last named mine is being increased as fast as development work will permit.

Two Marion and one Bucyrus steam shovels are being overhauled at the Monroe shops preparatory to shipping them to the Adams mine at Eveleth.

HIBBING'S DEBT $39 PER CAPITA

Disbursements Exceeded Receipts Last Year $276,811.

Hibbing, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The liabilities of Hibbing were $555,289.95 on Feb. 1 last, the beginning of the new fiscal year, or $39 per capita, according to the financial statement issued by Treasurer Robert R. L. Geiselman for the fiscal year, Feb. 1, 1915 to Jan. 31, 1916.

The total cash receipts during the last fiscal year were: Taxes, $755,-230.48; W. L. P. & B. Com. Col., $77,-406.45; sundries, $24,889.66; total, $857,-526.59. Disbursements: Improvements or capit, $551,695.16; maintenance and expenses, $353,747.79; firemen's relief association, $2,505.68; W. L. P. B. obligations, $167,913.20; interest on warrants, $58,476.46. Total, $1,134,338.29.

This leaves an excess of disbursements over receipts, $276,811.70. Receipts show that the 1914 taxes, paid 1915-16, was $752,083.11. Liquor licenses totaled $16,560; automobile licenses, $707; peddlers' licenses, $128.

Village Maintenance.

It cost the village for the maintenance of the health department, $20,-635.54; police, $45,529.45; fire department, $35,712.20.

The statement, which is based upon the cash report by Robert Geiselman, treasurer, and D. D. Healy, recorder, shows Hibbing's net liabilities to be $555,289.95 as on Feb. 1 last, a per capita debt of $39, and takes into consideration all contracted obligations. It also includes the estimated amount of interest payable on outstanding warrants subject to future cancellation.

Hibbing has no bonded debt, having adopted the policy of securing, installing and paying for its improvements by direct taxation rather than by the issuance of future redemption bonds and heavy interest charges incident thereto.

Why March Is the Most Dangerous Month.

March is the most dangerous month of the year because the change of season is more than a good many systems can stand. Too often it is true that the sick "last only till spring." But if the system is fortified, if the impurities are driven from the blood, and the nerve tissues fed with wholesome and strength-giving food medicine, there is no danger in the change of seasons. Father John's Medicine is invaluable as a tonic in the spring. It strengthens the system and drives out the poisonous waste matter—builds up the body. It is this power that has made it so successful for colds and throat troubles. No weakening stimulants, morphine or other dangerous drugs or alcohol.

EARLY SHIPPING OF ORE IS PREDICTED

First Break Up of Spring Expected to Start Ore to Docks.

Virginia, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Iron ore will be moving from the Mesaba Range to the Head of the Lakes docks within thirty days if the hopes of iron ore operators in the iron country, who are facing the busiest season in the history of the iron mining business are realized. With the first sign of a break-up in the Great Lakes, ore will start leaving the range and when the first carriers are ready to take on cargoes there will be full docks at Duluth.

The present month will witness the assembling of new organizations, the addition of many men to the working forces at the mines and active preparations for an early start in the ore movement which without question will break all records during the season of 1916.

Labor Situation Normal

The labor situation is at present normal. With the coming of spring and the beginning of more active operations at the start of the shipping season, many men now working on the surface will go underground, while new labor will be hired for surface operations. There are no indications of labor trouble at this time and the recent increase in wages made by both the Steel corporation and the independents seems to have had the effect of contenting mine laborers. Conservative estimates at this time place the number of men engaged in the iron mining industry on the Mesaba and Vermilion ranges at 15,000, and upon the same authority it is predicted that by May 1 there will be employed in the mines of the ranges, 25,-000 men, receiving the best wages in the history of the iron business. More mines will be working than ever before in the history of the Mesaba range and properties long active will be wrought.

OPTIMISM RAMPANT AMONG HIBBINGITES

Business Man and Others Hopeful of Having Prosperous Year.

Hibbing, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—C. R. Brackett will occupy the building formerly occupied by the Burrows Packing company on Railroad street with a modern garage the first of next week.

Dr. Morseman yesterday disposed of his residence at 307 Washington to Hogan Hoganson, a steam shovel man with the Winston Deer company.

All Hibbing merchants are claiming that the past month has been one of the busiest in years and that indications are that the spring business will be a record breaker.

All local mines are preparing to open full blast as soon as the shipping season opens and more men are expected to be employed in Hibbing this coming spring and summer than in many seasons.

In general there is an optimistic feeling everywhere in Hibbing that good times are ahead.

KILLED AT GOODLAND.

George White Loses Life When Logging Rigging Breaks.

Deer River, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—It has just become known here that George White, an old woodsman of this section, was killed several days ago at one of C. T. Kennedy's logging camps near Goodland. It is stated that the hoisting rigging broke and the pole or boom struck White on the head, fracturing his skull. He was taken to a hospital but died the following day.

George White was about 40 years of age and for the past fifteen years he had worked in the woods and on the rivers near Deer River. He had worked for the Klement & Kennedy company at Hetherington's camp all winter and the camp broke three weeks ago, having finished its cut. White came to Deer River and after a few days went to Goodland. He had worked there but three days when he met with the fatal accident.

He was an unmarried man. He had relatives in Wisconsin and a brother came and took the remains home for burial.

VIRGINIANS WINNERS.

Basket Ball Tossers Too Strong for Hibbing Aggregation.

Hibbing, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Virginia's high school basket ball team easily beat Hibbing here last night, 36 to 15. Over 1,000 people witnessed the contest, which was very one-sided. Hibbing tried desperately to overcome the early lead but was unsuccessful.

Big William Rooney threw eight field baskets and outclassed any other man on the floor. His brother, Joseph Rooney, at left forward played a fine game. The game was remarkably clean, although the contest was fast. Virginia's team work was perfect, while Rooney's shots were score getters.

Virginia was represented by a large delegation of fans who came in special cars. The Hibbing high school band played between the halves. Bozenhard a sreferee was fair and his work satisfied.

Zim Man Sentenced.

Eveleth, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—J. T. Johnson of Zim was sentenced to sixty days at the work farm by Judge W. E. Moylan in the Eveleth municipal court on a charge of non-support. During his term at the work farm his earnings will be sent to his family.

Hibbing Firemen's Dance.

Hibbing, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—One of the social events of the season will be the firemen's ball next Monday evening at the armory. Di Marco's full orchestra will furnish the dance program, which will consist of twenty-five numbers.

AITON NOMINATED AS VILLAGE HEAD

Grand Rapids, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Abut 250 voters attended the village caucus held at the village hall last night and nominated for village offices the following: For president, George B. Aiton; trustees, George Arscott, George F. Kremer and A. J. Le Febvre; recorder, F. A. McVicar; treasurer, Lester Lofberg; justice of the peace, T. E. Clysdale; constable, Edward Wilson. Mr. Aiton was the unanimous choice of the caucus for president. For trustees there were six names presented, George F. Kremer, George Arscott, A. J. Le Febvre, Dr. F. R. Harrison, L. Jorgenson and Charles Forest. The vote, which was by ballot, stood as follows: Kremer, 141; Arscott, 159; Le Febvre, 137; Jorgenson, 98; Forest, 95; Harrison, 92.

For recorder F. A. McVicar won by a vote of 153 to 92 over Jerome H. Meyers. The contest for treasurer was close, Lester Lofberg winning by a vote of 121 to 114 over T. H. Shoaff. There were no contests for the other village positions. The same caucus committee, consisting of H. Hughes, Ralph A. Stone and A. L. La Freniere, was continued in case there arose the necessity of calling another caucus. E. C. Kiley presided as chairman and L. W. Huntley was secretary.

Village Caucus.

At the township of Grand Rapids caucus, which followed immediately, Otto Gildemeister was nominated trustee over A. Zeihinger by a vote of 81 to 47. The other officers were nominated without contests, as follows: Hugh Shannon, clerk; James Connell, treasurer. There were no vacancies in the justice offices, and only one vacancy for constable, for which no nomination was made.

COMMITTEE WILL SELECT ARCHITECT

Steps to secure the services of an architect for the new county courthouse to be constructed this year in Hibbing will be taken by a special committee of the county board within the next few days.

Charles Kauppi, commissioner from the Fifth district, announced at the board meeting today that the committee, of which he is chairman, would consult on the matter and offer recommendations at the April meeting.

The board last fall provided a tax levy of $104,000 for the purpose of constructing the Hibbing courthouse. The site was purchased and the committee authorized to recommend to the board whatever was necessary in the matter of securing plans for the construction of the building.

The Hibbing courthouse will be St. Louis county's third. There are now courthouses in Duluth and Virginia.

The Hibbing courthouse committee consists of Commissioners Kauppi, Little, Pentilla and O'Neill.

FORMER WISCONSIN CONVICT SENTENCED

Hibbing, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Robbing his benefactor got John Brost, aged 30, of Milwaukee, into a peck of trouble that landed him in Stillwater prison for not to exceed seven years. Judge Hughes sentenced him yesterday following his conviction of stealing some clothes and lineman's tools at Chisholm from an employe of the telephone company, who took pity on him and gave him work. Before passing sentence the judge had Assistant County Attorney Ed Boyle look up Brost's records. This disclosed he had served a term in Waupun, Wis., penitentiary for larceny and the court could not be lenient in passing sentence.

Arthur Uren of Eveleth, who pleaded guilty to a statutory charge, got an indeterminate term in St. Cloud reformatory.

BIWABIK FIRE CHIEF GETS SALARY RAISE

Biwabik, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The village council, in regular session Thursday evening, received application for pool hall licenses from Erick Mack, E. A. Sandberg and Emil Koorhonen. The licenses were granted. The renewal of the liquor license of John Lido was granted.

The salary of the chief of the fire department was raised from $50 per year to $10 per month.

A communication was received from W. A. Clark, chief engineer of the Iron Range railroad, relative to connecting the city water mains up with the Iron Range mains, thereby assisting either party in case of water shortage or breakdowns. The communication was laid over.

The village purchased 400 trees, 200 from J. H. Zimmerly of this place and 200 from a Winona nursery, ash and willows being the kind the village will set out this spring. It was decided to beautify the detention hospital grounds with both trees and flowers.

TO FURNISH MARKET FOR ITASCA FARMERS

Grand Rapids, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—With a view to providing a cash market where farmers of this section can sell surplus crops and realize cash easily, W. C. Tyndall will, as soon as there is a sufficient quantity of the grains raised here to make carload shipments, commence handling wheat, oats and other grains which the farmers may have to sell. Until there is promise of enough grain to require elevator facilities, Mr. Tyndall proposes to buy in lots sufficient to load one or more cars at one time to be shipped to the Duluth market or to the range as market conditions warrant.

The uncertainty of the potato market has decided Mr. Tyndall in making this move.

It is Mr. Tyndall's intention, in time, to establish an elevator where a load or a few bushels of grain may be taken and sold. With the establishment of an elevator, Mr. Tyndall will also probably put in a feed mill, so that farmers can bring in wheat and exchange it for flour, and oats and other feed grains and have them ground for feed.

QUARANTINE RAISED AT LUMBER CAMPS

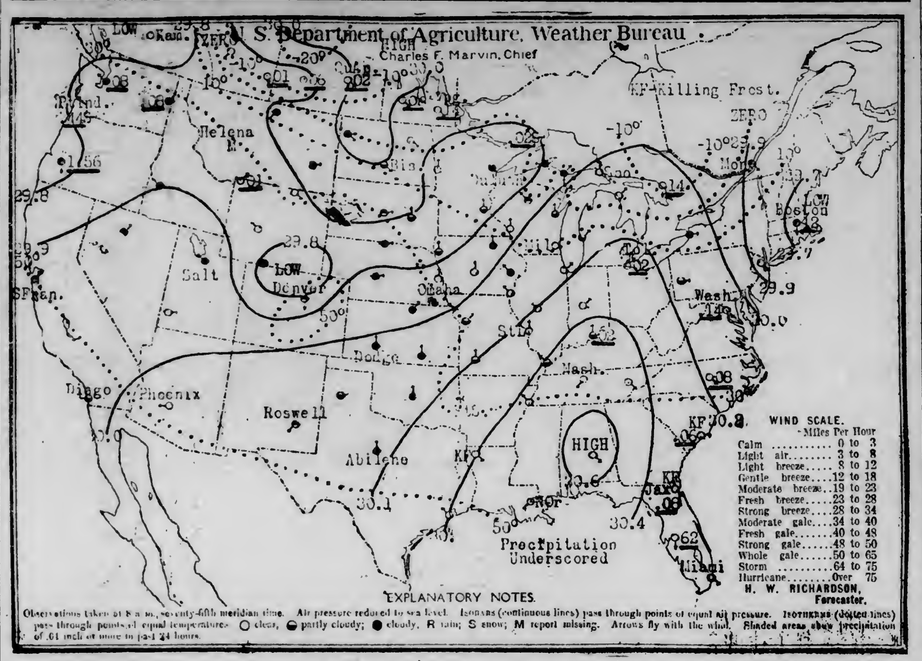
Bigfork, Minn., March 4.—The lumber camps near Bigfork which have been under quarantine for smallpox have been released by Dr. A. C. McGee, county health officer. The men have been let go and the buildings will be burned.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.
Sold by all Druggists, 75c.
Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

OFFICIAL MAP OF THE WEATHER



COLDER

The weather during yesterday and last night was not so cold as that which prevailed on several previous nights, and today opened up with a brief but rather heavy fall of snow. The day is dull and looks like a snowy one; but one can never tell what a day or an hour will bring forth. A year ago today was cloudy. The sun rose this morning at 6:40 and will set this evening at 5:59, giving eleven hours and nineteen minutes of sunlight.

Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"The temperature has risen decidedly over the Rocky mountains, Eastern slopes, the Southwest and the Missouri and Upper Mississippi valleys, and has fallen over East Gulf and South Atlantic states, Tennessee and portions of Western Canada. Killing frost occurred at Shreveport, La., Charleston, S. C., and Jacksonville, Fla., the temperature at the latter place having dropped nearly 40 deg. in the last twenty-four hours. Snow or rain fell over Atlantic and North Pacific states, and light snow over Western Canada and scattered portions of the lake region. Heavy rain fell at Roseburg, Or."

General Forecasts.

Chicago, March 4.—Forecasts for the twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m. Sunday:

Minnesota—Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday; colder tonight in north portion.

Wisconsin—Parly cloudy and probably unsettled tonight and Sunday. Warmer tonight in south and east portion; colder Sunday in north portion.

Iowa—Partly cloudy and probably unsettled tonight and Sunday; warmer tonight in southeast portion; colder Sunday in north portion.

North Dakota and South Dakota—Partly cloudy and probably unsettled tonight and Sunday; colder tonight.

Montana—Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday, probably snow west of the divide; colder tonight in east and central portion.

Lower Michigan—Overcast tonight and Sunday; warmer tonight.

Upper Michigan—Overcast tonight and Sunday; probably snow flurries near Lake Superior.

LOCAL FORECAST

Duluth, Superior and vicinity, including the Mesaba and Vermilion iron ranges: Partly cloudy weather tonight and Sunday. Colder tonight with lowest temperature 5 to about 10 deg. below zero at and near Duluth-Superior and 10 to about 20 deg. below zero on the iron ranges. Moderate to fresh northwesterly winds.

Temperatures.

Following were the highest temperatures in the last twenty-four hours and the lowest in the last twelve, ending at 7 a. m.:

	High	Low
Abilene	56	40
Alpena	22	0
Amarillo	58	30
Battleford	2	—24
Bismarck	14	10
Boise	52	38
Boston	28	22
Buffalo	20	8
Calro		22
Calgary	4	—12
Charles City		6
Charleston	70	32
Chicago	22	12
Concordia		24
Davenport		12
Denver	60	40
Des Moines	24	16
Devils Lake	8	—4
Dodge	64	34
Dubuque	18	10
DULUTH	12	0
Edmonton	4	—14
Escanaba	18	0
Fort Smith		26
Galveston	62	50
Grand Haven	22	16
Green Bay	14	0
Havre	22	10
Helena	46	..
Houghton		0
Huron	14	10
Indianapolis		6
Jacksonville	72	34
Kamloops	44	20
Kansas City	24	18
Keokuk		12
Knoxville	38	20
La Crosse		6
Lander		34
Louisville	30	14
Madison	16	4
Marquette	18	0
Medicine Hat	16	—12
Memphis	38	30
Miles City	38	22
Milwaukee	18	8
Minnedosa	8	—6
Modena	50	24
Montgomery	48	30
Montreal	18	4
Moorhead	18	2
Nashville		30
New Orleans	68	42
New York	34	18
North Platte	42	30
Oklahoma	40	32
Omaha	24	20
Parry Sound	18	—10
Phoenix	74	48
Pierre	22	14
Pittsburgh	24	10
Port Arthur	10	—4
Portland, Or	38	32
Prince Albert	4	—20
Qu'Appelle	4	—18
Raleigh	40	24
Rapid City	30	22
Roseburg	52	32
Roswell		38
St. Louis	26	14
St. Paul	10	2
Salt Lake City	48	44
San Diego	64	52
San Francisco	56	50
Sault Ste. Marie	16	—2
Seattle	42	32
Sheridan	52	26
Shreveport		34
Sioux City	22	16
Spokane	40	34
Springfield, Ill.		8
Springfield, Mo.		22
Swift Current	10	—14
Tampa	76	40
Toledo	26	10
Valentine		34
Washington	30	18
Wichita		30
Williston	16	—12
Winnemucca	50	32
Winnipeg	8	—8
Yellowstone	34	30

CHISHOLM GIRL AMONG WINNERS

St. Paul, Minn., March 4.—Preparedness lost out in debates at Macalester college Thursday night. Three winners in the final contest of the Minnesota High School Discussion league opposed preparedness. They were Linea Linner, Litchfield; Jennie Wall, Chisholm, and Joseph Chase, Willmar. A telegraph from William Jennings Bryan praising the league was read. Judges were C. G. Schulz, state superintendent of schools; J. A. O. Preus, state auditor, and Prof. C. W. Boardman of Central high school, Minneapolis.

LEAP YEAR BALL IS BIG SUCCESS

Grand Rapids, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The ladies of Grand Rapids last night gave a leap year ball at the high school auditorium. It was the largest in point of attendance of any like affair ever held in Grand Rapids. The appointments were very pretty, the decorations showing the large auditorium to the best advantage. Twenty four numbers were on the program and at the close of dancing supper was served in St. Joseph's hall at the Catholic church by the altar boys of the church and their mothers.

DEER RIVER NOTES.

Deer River, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—M. W. Lind has men distributing large iron culverts along the routes of county ditches Nos. 4 and 5 and is also hauling out the dredges and supplies for the contractors, the Minnesota Dredging company of Baudette.

The basket social held at the Hill school last Saturday evening netted the sum of $15.10, which will be put into a Victrola to be purchased for school use.

The scholars of the Fifth grade of the local school didn't go home when they were dismissed Thursday evening. Instead of passing out of the room they halted and gave their teacher a surprise.

At the Methodist church tomorrow morning, service calling at 10:30, Pastor Blackhurst will preach on "The Transfiguration of Jesus." The subject for the evening service, 7:30, will be "The Troubled Ruler and Jesus." There will be special selections by the choir, and a cornet solo by Dr. A. L. Blix.

Mrs. L. F. Spice and daughter arrived Tuesday from New Duluth to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Carter.

Len Scott was here from Foupore Monday selling beef hides from cattle which he killed and sold here last fall.

Roll Christie returned Tuesday from a week's visit to Duluth and range points and left Wednesday morning for his home at Bowstring.

Mrs. J. M. Rasmussen left Monday for Minneapolis to enter a hospital for treatment.

Mrs. Ira Collins of Bigfork, accompanied by Mr. Collins, left Monday for Minneapolis where Mrs. Collins will enter a hospital for medical treatment.

One of the children of Mrs. Nyberg was made seriously sick last week by milk.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ward of the Kennedy school district left Tuesday for a visit of a month with old friends at Long Prairie and will also spend some time in Minneapolis.

Miss Mabel Reigelsperger departed Tuesday morning for Bigfork where she has accepted a position as telephone operator for a few days for the Bigfork Farmers' exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Brooks were in Duluth Monday and Tuesday attending the play "A Bird of Paradise."

The ladies of the Catholic church will meet at the home of Mrs. J. O'Connell on Thursday afternoon.

GRAND RAPIDS BRIEFS.

Grand Rapids, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—E. Keable of Swan River was here Tuesday.

Mrs. John Billodeau visited at Swan River Sunday.

Chris Egdahl, formerly an employe of the state farm, visited friends this week here while on his way from his home at Bagley to Duluth where he expects to be employed.

Attorney Philip M. Stone of Keewatin visited his brother, County Attorney Ralph A. Stone.

Mrs. Wm. McAlpine left Wednesday noon for Grand Forks, being called there by the illness of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Barker of Belvidere, Ill., are guests of Mrs. Barker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Alton. Mr. Barker, a farmer of the Belvidere vicinity, has rented his farm and may locate here.

The I. O. O. F. have installed a colored light emblematic of the order in front of their hall.

About forty-five guests were present at a party given by Mrs. E. J. Farrell at her home Tuesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent playing five hundred. Mrs. Chas. Chalberg winning high honors. Violin selections were rendered by Mrs. Wm. Hoolihan, accompanied by Miss May Benton. Assisting Mrs. Farrell were Misses Rosalie Huderlle, Lillian Coyne and Edna Graif.

Mrs. Neis Lexon of Bovey was a guest of friends here Thursday, leaving for Thief River Falls where she will visit relatives.

Rowe McCamus, postmaster of Brookston, this week bought of A. M. Sisler two high grade Guernsey heifers for his farm near Brookston. Mr. McCamus also recently bought a registered bull of the Island farm.

AUTO RACES ON SUNDAY

Automobile races will be staged on the lake tomorrow afternoon.

This announcement was made shortly after noon today by Ray Buchanan, chairman of the ice racing committee.

The races will start at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow, a two-mile course having been laid out from Fifth to Fourteenth avenue east. Cash prizes totaling $500 will be awarded the winners in the three main events.

The ice is sixteen inches thick and perfectly safe, said Chairman Buchanan: It was impossible, he said, to stage the races in the harbor, because the ice is too rough and there is considerable snow.

Entries for the main events follow: Clifford Opel, Napier; Harry Peterson, Case; Henry Sharp, Locomobile; Norman Smith, National; Andrew Bayless, Mathewson; Carl Festo, O. A. R. Special; William Wilson, Palmer-Singer and Ray Buchanan, Mercedes.

PASSES THE $30,000 MARK

At noon today the total sum raised for St. Mary's hospital had passed the $30,000 mark.

The workers reported $3,978.70 for the day, making the grand total to date, $30,006.17.

The campaign will close at noon on Monday, and a great effort will be made to raise the remaining $20,000 before that time.

The donations of $100 or over reported today were as follows:

R. M. Sellwood	$250
Rt. Rev. Father Buh	200
Duluth Brewing company	150
Rev. Father Gamath	100
Crane-Ordway company	100
Gleason Plumbing company	100
Order of Owls	100
Benjamin Wetherton	100
Duluth Lumber company	100
D. R. Ellerby, St. Paul	200

Asks for State Troops.

Springfield, Ill., March 4.—State troops may be sent to Nokomis, Ill., in Montgomery county to give police protection denied the town because of a barrel between the mayor and the board of aldermen. Governor Dunne received a petition today, signed by 180 residents of the town, asking him to take action. The governor immediately sent for Adjt.-Gen. Dickson.

Methodist Endowment $50,000.

Washington, March 4.—An endowment of $50,000 to support graduate fellowships for Canadians was announced today by the American university, the Methodist national institution here. The endowment was made by the estate of the late Hart A. Massey of Toronto, who desired to establish, if possible, some link between Methodism in Canada and the United States.

Refuses to Continue Edwards Case.

Chicago, March 4.—Federal Judge Albert B. Anderson today refused to grant a continuance from March 7 to March 14 in the trial of William Rufus Edwards of St. Paul, Minn., wealthy lumberman charged by Miss Ada M. Cox with violation of the Mann act.

WISCONSIN INSANE DYING ONE A DAY

Madison, Wis., March 4.—The death rate among the insane population of Wisconsin confined to state and county institutions is one a day. This was the statement of M. J. Tappins, secretary of the state board of control, in examining the statistics from the various institutions today. Mr. Tappins said that while the population at the prison increased by leaps and bounds about a year ago, it was practically stationary now.

The insane population of the state confined to state and county institutions was 7,697 for the past month compared with 7,671 for the month previous. Of this number 1,268 are in the state hospitals for the insane; ninety-five are in the hospital for the criminal insane; 434 are in the Milwaukee hospital for the insane, and 5,900 are in county institutions. Of the total insane under public care in the state 4,358 are males and 3,339 are females.

SUPERIOR

PLANE LANDS FOR REPAIRS

F. A. Porter, a farmer residing near Hines, a small village near Superior, today reported to the sheriff that last evening a large aeroplane landed in a field adjoining his farm home. When he went out to investigate one of the three men in the machine met him and asked him to keep away, he says.

According to Porter the aeroplane rested in his field for a half hour while the aviators apparently made some repairs. It then sailed away in the direction of Superior. The police here had no reports today of the machine having been seen here.

DR. RENE WILL BE SHOT MARCH 15

Dr. J. A. Rene, formerly a prominent Superior physician, who has been at Mazatlan, on the west coast of Mexico for the last three years, will be shot at sunrise on March 15 by the Carranza authorities according to word received here today by Dr. J. A. Adams, formerly a partner of Dr. Rene.

Dr. Rene went to San Diego from Superior and there became connected with one of the Mexican factions. Dr. Adams has retained Attorney J. A. Murphy to appeal to the United States authorities in an effort to save Rene's life.

COMMERCIAL CLUB HEAD ARRESTED FOR THEFT

Harry Speakes, president of the Superior Commercial club, was arrested today on a warrant sworn out by C. J. Hartley, formerly president of the Superior Rotary club and a prominent local lawyer.

Mr. Hartley charges Mr. Speakes with the theft of a hat. Mr. Speakes was taken to the police station but was not arraigned.

Park Improvements.

A large number of improvements will be made by the Superior Park board at Billings park this summer, according to action taken last night at a meeting of the city park board. Among the improvements will be the building of a concrete retaining wall to protect automobiles, installation of toboggan slides, enlargement of the bathing beach, and the dancing pavilion.

Raise Sum for Baseball.

Business men of Snuperior are endeavoring to collect $2,500 for the purpose of raising the necessary guarantee to have Northern league baseball played in the city. Much of this sum has already been raised, say promoters of the sport.

Ready for Exposition.

Preparations for the opening of the industrial exposition and auto show, to be held next week at the Truax building under the auspices of the Superior Rotary club, are almost completed. The work of arranging the booths will be finished tonight. All of the exhibitors will have their displays in by Monday noon, it was announced this morning.

"Drys" Plan Union Meeting.

A monster union meeting to be held tomorrow afternoon at the Union Labor hall has been planned by the advocates of prohibition. Several good speakers will be present. The fight for voting the saloons out of the city promises to be warmer this spring than itwas last spring, and the "drys" believe that the vote will be reversed.

GERMANS MYSTIFIED BY GREY'S STATEMENT

London, March 4.—Berlin advices, says Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent, state that Sir Edward Grey's announcement that the German conclusions from the instructions given the British merchantmen to use the guns for offensive purposes were incorrect is mystifying. In government circles in Berlin it is recalled that the German government appended to its memorandum announcing the new submarine policy a photograph fac simile of instructions found on British vessels so that every unprejudiced person could form his own judgment.

TWENTY-FIVE GIRLS TO BE RELEASED ON PAROLE

St. Paul, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The state board of control in session at the Sauk Center school for girls yesterday ordered the release of twenty-five girls confined in the institution. They will be released on parole. At the present time 180 girls who had been registered at the school are out on parole. The population of the institution now is 198.

While at the school, the board discussed the needs of the institution in the way of improvements and additions. It is likely the next legislature will be asked for sufficient money to install a central power plant and to build two cottages.

THREE KILLED IN WRECK NEAR MOUNTAIN LAKE

Sioux Falls, S. D., March 4.—Three persons are reported killed and several injured in a rear-end collision between freight train No. 29 and an extra freight on the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railroad near Mountain Lake, Minn., this morning. The killed and injured were caught in a caboose at the end of the extra train which carried a shipment of immigrants.

STREET CAR DELAYS

The Following Are the Causes of Interruptions In Street Car Service on Friday, March 3, 1916.

A train at the railroad crossing at 400 Garfield avenue delayed a southbound Interstate car 6 minutes from 1:28 p. m.

A vehicle on the track at Fifteenth avenue west and Superior street delayed an eastbound East Fourth and Fifty-seventh avenue west car 6 minutes from 2:49 p. m.

Snow on the track at Anoka street delayed cars on the Woodland line 11 minutes from 6:10 p. m.

Theater patrons boarding cars at Fifth avenue west and Superior street delayed four eastbound cars 10 minutes from 10:55 p. m.

Complaints and suggestions given prompt and courteous attention.

Telephones: Melrose 260; Lincoln 55.

DULUTH TWIN PORTS ELECTRIC LINES SUPERIOR

CHICHESTER S PILLS

THE DIAMOND BRAND.
Ladies! Ask your Druggist for Chi-ches-ter's Diamond Brand Pills in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with Blue Ribbon. Take no other. Buy of your Druggist. Ask for CHI-CHES-TER'S DIAMOND BRAND PILLS, for 25 years known as Best, Safest, Always Reliable.
SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY (2)

Society

Social Calendar for Coming Week

SUNDAY.

Y. W. C. A. vespers, 4:30 p. m.

Program of Duluth Symphony orchestra at the Armory, 5 p. m.

Presentation of plays for the benefit of the Italian Red Cross, by the Italia Nova club in the Cathedral auditorium, 8:15 p. m.

MONDAY.

Meeting of the officers of the industrial committee of the Duluth branch of the American Red Cross association and the heads of circles, in the library clubroom, 11 a. m.

Monthly social meeting of the Twentieth Century club in the library clubroom, 3 p. m.

Meeting of the business and professional women's club at the Y. W. C. A., 7 p. m.

Meeting of the Shakespeare class of the Twentieth Century club in the library clubroom, 7:45 p. m.

Concert given by Mr. and Mrs. R. Buchanan Morton at Glen Avon Presbyterian church, 8:15 p. m.

TUESDAY.

Lester Park Literary club will meet with Mrs. Clinton Brooke of 2407 London road, 2:30 p. m.

Meeting of the Linnaea club at Foresters' hall, 2:30 p. m.

Matinee Musicale program at the First Methodist church, 3 p. m.

Meeting of the Duluth Woman's Suffrage association in the library clubroom, 3:30 p. m.

Meeting of the Bishop's club in the Bishop's clubroom, 8 p. m.

Dancing party given by the St. Louis County Medical association at the Kitchi Gammi club.

Baby week program at the Masonic temple, 8:30 p. m.

WEDNESDAY.

Baby week program at the Masonic temple, 8:30 p. m.

THURSDAY.

Talk given by Charles D. Coburn of "The Yellow Jacket" company to the women of the Twentieth Century club and their guests, in the parlors of the Spalding hotel, 3 p. m.

Baby week program at the Masonic temple, 8:30 p. m.

FRIDAY.

Meeting of the Friday club with Mrs. M. F. Jamar, Sr., of 4631 London road, 2:30 p. m.

Recital given by Reinald Werrenrath, under the auspices of the Matinee Musicale, at the First Methodist church, 8:15 p. m.

SATURDAY.

Meeting of the Saturday club in the library clubroom, 2:30 p. m.

FEW Duluthians won't have more sewing clubs to go to than there are days in the week, beginning with Lent next week. During the week that is closing, every one has tried to get in the last flings before the general quietus becomes apparent. Bridge, luncheons and dancing have held the boards. Next week mending and the Red Cross work will profit largely from the social lull.

Events of Interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Graff, 1661 East First street, will entertain at bridge Wednesday evening.

* * *

The members of the casts of the two Drama League plays will be entertained informally at the home of R. S. Walker, after the performance tonight.

* * *

Miss Esther Anderson of Lester Park entertained last night at a shower in honor of Miss Flora MacDonald, whose engagement to Glynn Ballou was recently announced. Red and green were the colors used in decorating—the gifts being hung on a pine tree. Twenty-five guests were present.

* * *

Miss Eleanor Kmiecik was surprised Saturday night by a number of her friends. The evening was spent in music and dancing. The following were present:

Messrs. and Mesdames—
Ignatius Burak, Adam Sluchocki,
Joseph Telega, Frank Kuresky,
Steve Novack, Laurence Wisniewski,
George Szymaazak, Anthony Mendyka,
George Czapinski, Leon Franckiewicz,
Michael Czapinski, J. F. Kmiecik.

Misses—
Helen Sluchocki, Dorothy Sluchocki,
Anna Majchzak, Anna Kasper,
Francis Sluchocki, Helen Manetsky,
Nellie Kasper, Catherine Novack,
Elizabeth Adamlak, Josephine Kmiecik,
Martha Walczak, Stella Sluchocki,
Mary Majchizak, Eleanor Kmiecik,
Rose Manelsky,
Victoria Norack,
Julia Majchrzak,

Messrs.—
Joseph Switala, Jack Czapinski,
John Marlenga, John Delay,
Frank Rembecki, Leo Kocinski,
John Stawny, Alexander Shea,
Anthony Malesky, Michael Wahl,
Stance Marlenga, Ray Wojciechowicz,
Theodore Kurek, Walter Orban,
Joseph Manikowski, Joseph Podjesky,
John Meirs, Max Nesgoda,
F. E. Paulson, Joseph Mucha,
Adam Kurek, Harry Lagesky,
Joseph Hrzastkiewicz, Victor Novack,
Theodore Kurek, William Voyda,
Joseph Manikowski, Frank Czerniak,
John Meirs, George Kmiecik,
F. E. Paulson, Ray Sluchocki,
Adam Kurek, John Telega,
Stephen Franckiewicz.

* * *

Miss Katherine Petz, 715 Ninth avenue east, entertained at luncheon Tuesday for Miss Margaret Moran of Hibbing, who is her guest.

Those present were:

Misses—
Ruth Lunt, Ruth Wagner
Georgina Fischer of Superior,
of Shakopee, Bessie Smart,
Kathleen Corrigan of Superior, Louise Bolat.

* * *

Mrs. Wayne Gatlin, 212 East Seventh street, was hostess at a leap year birthday party, Feb. 29. The following guests were present:

Messrs. and Mesdames—
Ross Gatlin, Frank Baker,
Byron Henson, Charles Gatlin.

Mesdames—
Mattie Gatlin, Rock.

Misses—
Esther Holt, Esther Gass,
E. Palmer, Esther Rudd,
Catherine Hensen Valborg Rudd,
Cecelia Chesney, Anna Toback,
Frances Chesney, Ethel Stevens.

Messrs.—
Harry Gass, Wayne Gatlin.
Arthur Johnson,

* * *

The third and last performance of the Drama league plays, "What It Gets Down To," and "Her Sacred Duty," will be presented at 8:15 o'clock tonight at the Little theater.

* * *

There will be a dance and buffet supper tonight at the Kitchi Gammi club.

* * *

Mrs. Frank Ptacek of 201 East Sixth street entertained at a children's party Monday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Marion's, 5th birthday. The rooms were decorated in red and green, little candlesticks marked each guest's place. Assisting were Mrs. L. Maher and Miss Laura Baker. The prizes were won by Florence Hein and Emily Feaks. The other guests were:

Misses—
Dorothy Jordan, Eileen Maher,
Cathryn Maher, Elizabeth Ptacek,
Elsa Maher, Marguerite Maher,
Adeline Roman, Eunice Baker,
Grace Feaks, Myrtle Nelson,
Evelyn Herstead, Ellen Feaks.

Masters—
Ralph White, Richard Michelson,
Raymond Hughinson, William Maher.
Lloyd Jordan,

* * *

The following young people enjoyed a sleighride to Exeter Farms last Saturday evening:

Misses—
Olga Egelund, Hildur Salin,
Clara Egelund, Anna Ericson,
Clara Larson, Hilda Ericson,
Helen Larson, Sophie Anderson,
Helga Bolander, Olive Egelund.
Elsie Bolander,
Amie Salin,

Messrs.—
Frank Halberg, Ottar Smuland,
Walter Olson, John Johnson,
Alfred Halvorson, Ivar Dahl,
Oscar Anderson,
Albert Halvorson, Sniborn Berkson,
John Rikhus, Alfred Anderson,
Clarence Hallberg, O. Bundley.
Verner Johnson,

* * *

Miss Bernice Thompson of 2129 West Tenth street entertained the members of the A. R. T. club Wednesday night. The guests were:

Mrs. Henry Thompson.

Misses—
Clara Andersen, Hulda Bergquist,
Isabelle Andersen, Selma Lindbloom,
Daisy Ferguson, Elizabeth Anderson.
Margaret Roske, Agnes Anderson,
Jennie Anderson,

* * *

Members of the Y. W. C. A. gymnasium classes and the young women who live in the residence hall represented months at the party given at the association building last night. A Virginia reel, with the dancers in Colonial costumes, paid tribute to February; a mock wedding was symbolical of June, the month of brides; a May pole represented May; a chautauqua, July and August, and a country school scene, September.

* * *

The Young Bachelors' club will give a sleighride tonight to the Lakewood chateau. At the meeting of the club held Monday night at the home of William Butchart, 2529 West Second street, plans were made for an Easter Monday ball.

* * *

Miss Helen Littleworth, whose marriage to Frank H. Winklesky will take place next month, was the guest of honor at many affairs this week. Monday night Miss Dorothy Schulte entertained at bridge. Tuesday Miss Clara Smith of Seventeenth avenue east gave a luncheon. Wednesday Mrs. G. M. Perry of 923 West Third street gave a luncheon and shower. The guests were:

Mesdames—
J. Olsen, Peterson,
K. F. Endres of Huntley.
Virginia,

Misses—
Blseau, Estelle Phillips.

Mrs. P. Miley of 1801 West Third street entertained last night at cards.

Mrs. F. Palmer of 6001 East Superior street entertained yesterday afternoon and last night at a linen shower in honor of Miss Littleworth. The married women were entertained in the afternoon and the young women in the evening. Those present were:

Mesdames—
J. E. Endres, G. Perry,
P. Miley, M. C. Littleworth,
Anderson, Bush,
W. Huntley, Melmo,
D. M. Brian, Messler,
M. F. Orchard, Stewart,
J. Olsen, Hockins.

Misses—
Medora Jeffrey, Mayme McSwain,
Vernie Furrie, Estelle Phillips,
Clara Smith, Bada Berggren.
Margaret Bush, Dorothy Schulte,
Jennie Poissant, Lena Kruse.
Arna Savant,

* * *

The party given Thursday night by Twin Ports lodge, No. 12, Ship Masters' association, at Foresters' hall, was attended by more than 200 persons. Cards were played by those who did not dance, but the greater number of the guests of the ship masters indulged in the latter pastime. Supper was served. The ship masters may give one more social affair before the time comes for them to open the navigation season. Their parties this winter have been enjoyable and the attendance has been large.

* * *

Mrs. R. C. Busch of 144 West Faribault street entertained at five hundred and pedro Thursday night for the benefit of the Catholic Ladies' Guild of Woodland. The women's prizes were won by Miss Ruby Anderson, Miss Birdie Walsh and Mrs. John Hennessey. The men's prizes were won by P. J. Hammill, M. Tierney and B. T. Martin.

* * *

The choir of the Bethany Lutheran church entertained last night at a banquet in honor of their new organist, Prof. A. F. Palmer. Covers were laid for forty-five. The table decorations were in pink and green, with bouquets of pink carnations.

Rev. C. A. Eckstrom acted as toastmaster. Those who responded to toasts were Miss Vindla Ericson, Herman Olson and Prof. Palmer.

* * *

The affair given yesterday afternoon at the Elks' clubrooms opened the series which the Elks have arranged for the late winter and spring. It was attended by 400 women. The following program was given:

Selection ..... Helmer's Orchestra.
"Aloha" ..... Hawaiian Quintet.
Song—"Asleep in the Deep" ..... Ben Jones.
Cornet solo ..... Charles Helmer.
"Old Plantation Song" ..... Quintet.
Vocal solo ..... Miss Hallock.
"Silver Threads Among the Gold" ...
"Somewhere a Voice Is Calling" ....
"I Hear You Calling Me" .....
T. McKenzie, "Caruso of Honolulu."
Several Scotch selections .....
W. Kolomoki.
Hula-Hula ..... Quintet.
Cornet solo—"Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" .....
Charles Helmer.
"One, Two, Three" ..... Hawaiian Quintet.

* * *

Mrs. Louise Bailey James and Fred W. Young were married this afternoon at the home of the bride. After April 1 they will be home at 1614 Jefferson street.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Clark of 2423 East Second street have announced the engagement of their daughter, Marie Ellsworth, to Edward Dean Coventry of Brainerd, Minn.

* * *

M. Zalk of New York city has announced the engagement of his daughter, Sarah, of Duluth, to Rymal Oleisky of Minneapolis. Miss Zalk makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Meyers of 216 East Third street. Mr. Oleisky has visited in Duluth.

Mrs. H. Davidson of 1210 One Hundred and First avenue west announces the engagement of her daughter, Helen A. Davidson, to Frederic J. La Londe of Reno, Minn. The wedding will take place in the early autumn.

* * *

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. F. Grohman of 516½ East Fifth street of the engagement of their daughter, Josephine, to Nicholas A. Encobacci of New York city.

* * *

Miss Addie Le Clair of Grand Lake, Minn., and Robert M. Lature of this city were married Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bridegroom's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Cribben, 825 West Third street. Mrs. Cribben and Roy Lature were the attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Lature will make their home at 910 West Fourth street.

* * *

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. John B. Beerhalter, 22 Sixth avenue east, that the marriage of their daughter, Claire Amelia, to Timothy Jamison Dunn will take place Monday.

East End.

Mrs. Walter Turle, 2216 East Superior street, returned yesterday morning from New York, where she has spent the last two months.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Z. D. Scott, 2125 East First street, returned yesterday from a month's Southern trip.

* * *

Mrs. John H. Upham, 721 East First street, returned this morning from New York, where she and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Pagg of Milwaukee, have been spending the last six weeks.

* * *

Mrs. C. M. Hammond of Detroit, Mich., who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. J. Olcott, for several weeks, will leave Monday for Vancouver, where she will make a short visit before proceeding to California.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Comstock and Mrs. C. W. Andrews of Duluth arrived at The Greenbrier, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., on Wednesday.

* * *

Mrs. Margaret Copeland, 1028 East First street, was called to Pembroke, Ont., yesterday by the illness of her sister.

* * *

Miss Maude Cooper, 1017 East Sixth street, returned Friday morning from a ten days' visit in Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul.

* * *

Mrs. Albert Heller of Minneapolis is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leon J. Selig, 1810 Jefferson street, for a week. Mr. Heller arrived this morning to pass the week end.

* * *

Mrs. H. B. Kohagen and son, Charles, and Mrs. Kohagen's mother, Mrs. Lathrop, returned last evening from a visit at Hollywood, Cal.

* * *

George D. Swift has left to join his

Beauty of To-day Can Be the Beauty of To-morrow

The complexion is the foundation of Beauty. A velvety skin and soft, pearly white appearance is recognized as the perfect complexion. It can be readily obtained and made permanent by the consistent use of which renders to every skin this much desired appearance. For over 65 years the supremeliquid face powder has given eminent satisfaction to the society women of two continents. Greaseless—soothing and healing. Try it to-day and see how refreshing it is to the skin.

Gouraud's
Oriental Cream

FREE Let us send you a trial size bottle. Enclose 10c to cover cost of mailing and wrapping.

Gouraud's Medicated Soap will thoroughly cleanse the skin of all dust, dirt and poisonous matter. Ideal in the treatment of all skin troubles. Price 25c per cake prepaid.

Ferd T. Hopkins & Son, Props. New York City

Efficient Housekeeping

BY Henrietta D Grauel

Prize Raisin Bread

IN ALL that is good Nature seems to have placed an abundance of beauty and sentiment. The grape is no exception, Biblical, gastronomic and traditional interest surround it; no rank or station can monopolize the delicacy. Some varieties are luxuries to the rich but the poor can always find some grapes within their reach.

Even in winter we have them in the form of raisins with their food value as high as ever. Wherever raisins are used extensively indigestion is scarcely known. Hidden in this dried fruit are repairing and lubricating materials that are more wholesome and helpful than all the pills ever invented.

The use of raisins in cookery is becoming more universal each day, but not everyone has the habit of using them whenever possible; the sooner it is acquired the better. The following comparison of food values is correct and shows exactly how valuable raisins are. One pound of seeded or seedless raisins is equal to one and one-third pounds of beef, or six pounds of apples, or five pounds of bananas. It is the equivalent of four and a half pounds of potatoes, one pound of bread, four pounds of milk, four and three-quarter pounds of fish, or two pounds of eggs.

The following recipe for raisin bread was used in baking a loaf that was awarded the first prize at one of the largest pure food expositions held in this country this season.

Make a sponge with one cake compressed yeast, one tablespoon sugar, dissolved in half a cup of warm water. Add one pint of cooled scalded milk and two cups of sifted flour. Beat and let rise until very light. Add three tablespoons of sugar and the same amount of shortening creamed together, one teaspoon of salt, and two cups of raisins washed, cleaned and cut in halves. Stir in flour until stiff, then knead until dough is smooth and elastic. You will need about seven cups of flour. Cover and let rise until it doubles its bulk. Mold into loaves and when light again bake forty minutes.

Raisins and lemons used together in cooking give delicious results in flavor. A few days ago I published a recipe for custard-raisin pie. Lemon-raisin pie is made like lemon-custard but chopped raisins are added. Chocolate or orange and raisin pie are pleasing combinations.

Then there is Sally Lunn, rice pudding, gingerbread, mush and brown Betty to be improved with them, and any youngster will tell you no cookie is perfect unless generally dotted with the wholesome fruit.

If you flour your fingers or rub them lightly with butter when seeding raisins they will not stick to your hands.

(Protected by Adams Newspaper Service.)

INTERVIEWING JESUS ON HELL

Sermon by R. Edward Sayles.
FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH,
Corner of East First St. & Ninth Av.
SUNDAY NIGHT AT 8—COME!

Dancing at Leo's Studio

AT THE SPALDING.

Spring term registration this week. Classes will meet: Adults, Tuesday, 7:30; Special High School Pupils' class, Friday, 7:30; Children's classes, Friday, 4, and Saturday, 10 a. m.; all private classes as usual; all branches taught; private lessons by appointment; pupils may enter any time. Communications, Spalding—personal calls preferred. Office hours daily, 3 to 5 p. m.

Bed Time Tales

By Clara Ingram Judson

Freddy Graytop Finds a New Eating Place

YOU must not think, because Freddy Graytop was hungry during the hard, three-day storm, that he always fared so badly—for he did not. Usually he found plenty to eat in the garbage can and in the back yards, and he was very glad that he had moved from the park.

But one thing that he missed was nuts.

"I really wish these nice people who live around here," said Freddy to himself one morning, "would throw out more nut meats. Once in a while I find a few shells, and always I can get a few goodies from them, for people do not know how to clean nuts—of that I am sure! But the little I do find only makes me hungrier for more."

He squinted his eyes up at the nearest house and wondered what he had better do about it. "I have a notion," he thought, "to go up closer than I have ever gone. I don't believe anything will hurt me, and I may find something good to eat."

So, keeping his sharp eyes on the lookout for danger, he slipped closer and closer towards that nearest house.

Now, just at that very same minute, the little girl who lived in that nearest house ran out of the back door. And as she ran, she slipped on her mittens ready for a play with her big brother. So, of course she didn't pull the door quite shut.

After she was out of sight, Freddy slipped up to the door and sniffed.

"I believe it's nice and warm in there," he said to himself. "I really do wonder what sort of a country there is behind that crack—I guess I'll look!"

So he slipped closer to the door, and closer, till his head was in the crack—till his body was in the crack—till—till—he was clear in the house!

"My, but this is a nice, warm country," he said happily. "I wonder why I never thought of coming here before?"

Then he looked around, and what do you suppose he saw? On the dining

"My, but this is a nice, warm country," he said happily.

table, for it was the dining room door he had entered, he saw a big bowl of nuts! Without a thought for possible danger, he scrambled up the table legs and sat down to that feast! "Nibble, nibble, nibble, gnaw! Nibble, nibble, nibble, gnaw!" How fast his little teeth did work! Till he had eaten all he could. Then he filled his cheek pouches and climbed down the table and ran back to his alley home.

For three days after that he did exactly the same thing. And all the while the people in that house were wondering where their nuts were going! Then one day they saw Freddy, but they were careful not to frighten him, so he came regularly all the winter long.

(Copyright—Clara Ingram Judson.)

Peggy Peabody's Observations

The Miser and the Saver

Listening to the endless diatribes on the follies of extravagance, I am minded to raise a protesting voice against its opposite vice—the hoarding of truck and rubbish—by some observations of flagrant instances of this trait.

Do you treasure old letters, programs and magazines until the closets and attic overflow? Do you have a museum of old hats, good, useful, but hopelessly passe clothing, cumbering every nook and hook? If so I adjure you, take a rainy day, it may require two or three, and hoe it all out. I can recall certain pitiful cases of good grandmas and maiden aunts, to say nothing of mothers and older sisters, spending hours in cold closets and wardrobes airing and refolding cloaks and dresses of a former day, inspecting uncut lengths of dress fabrics and bending over and caring for huge chests of bed and under-linens. It makes me sigh to think of the hours spent in gentle gloating over these possessions—hours that helped to narrow their souls down to the comprehension of petty, trivial things—while the glories of God's spring world were calling to them.

The traditions of an old New England dame, ever saving and hoarding, whose rich chests when opened at her death, yielded only a sickening mass of moths and millers—a veritable Pandora's box of disappointment, and of another elderly maiden, suave but miserly, whose twelve trunks filled with India shawls and rare stuffs and silks went up in flames in a night, are instances in point.

There is an urgent need of wresting ourselves free from superfluities that we may have room for the truly good and worthwhile things. Many a man and woman whose lives have been enriched with the best things in Nature, art, literature and music leaves after death a shockingly meager, almost unrespectable amount of personal property.

The saving of money is a big subject. I have only essayed to point out a weakness that annoys more than one mortal to overcome. The virtuous lessons of thrift, "see a pin and let it lie, you'll come to want before you die," etc., are so ingrained in many natures that they suffer from dread less they break the rules set up in childhood against waste. Hence piles of useless articles cumbering the earth.

Reinald Werrenrath Will Give Fourth of Artists' Recitals

Reinald Werrenrath, Baritone; Geraldine Farrar, Soprano; Ada Sassoli, Harpist, Listening to Themselves.

The Matinee Musicale members consider themselves extremely fortunate in getting Reinald Werrenrath for their fourth and last artists' recital on March 10, as he has been meeting with great and marked success in his tour with Geraldine Farrar and Ada Sassole, the harpist. Musical America gives the following interesting interview with him:

"Where is the musical center of the United States?

"According to an interview with Arthur Bodanzky, in the Craftsman, that noted conductor seems to think it lies within the four walls of the Metropolitan Opera house, at Thirty-ninth street and Broadway.

"It was this interview which aroused the righteous indignation of Reinald Werrenrath, the American baritone who, having returned from a concert tour with Geraldine Farrar, and having adjusted with much difficulty his generous frame to the dimensions of an ordinary man-sized chair, proceeded to elucidate.

"'I have no patience with the doctrine that grand opera is all there is to music and that New York is all there is to musical America,' he protested.

"'The musical center of the United States, according to my belief, which is based upon very recent and first-hand investigation, lies somewhere within a circle that extends as far east as Pittsburgh and as far west as Denver.

"'The East, including New England and the Atlantic seaboard, so far as music is concerned, is in a semi-comatose condition. It asks one of two things to hold its interest in music, either the purely conventional or the sensational. Otherwise it falls far short of representing the best that we have in knowledge, appreciation and culture.

"'Furthermore, I have no patience with those who arrive in New York for the first time, take a taxicab to a hotel and as they remove their overcoats express opinions on musical conditions in this country. They know no more about the subject than does a camel on the desert of Sahara.

"'The Middle West is where you will find today the greatest and healthiest interest in good music of all kinds. This interest manifests itself in a desire to hear everything that is good, in the active participation in all movements that make for musical progress and in the fostering of every phase of educational work along musical lines.'"

REINALD WERRENRATH

FOURTH ARTIST RECITAL.

Matinee Musicale. First Methodist Church, Friday, March 10th, 8:15. Gentlemen and non-residents, $1.00.

7TH TWILIGHT CONCERT

DULUTH ORCHESTRA

Fred G. Bradbury, Conductor

TOMORROW AFTERNOON at 5:00

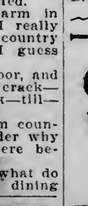
NEW ARMORY.

SOLOISTS { FAITH HELEN ROGERS, Pianist / CHARLES HELMER, Trumpet

PRICES—Reserved Seats, 50c; General Admission, 30c

SIDE TALKS

By RUTH CAMERON



Packing

THE lady-who-always knows-somehow was packing. On the floor beside her little trunk was a heap of clothing and miscellaneous articles, so large that it seemed incredible they should ever be crowded into it.

Molly, the little stenographer lady, said so. "But I know it will," she added. "You're such a wonderful packer. Tell me how you do it."

"Mercy, I'm not wonderful at all," laughed the lady. "You ought to have seen my mother pack."

"You inherited it, then," said Molly. "I wish you'd tell me some of your secrets."

"I haven't any," said the lady. Just at that moment she took up a shoe and began to pack some stockings into it.

"There, I knew it," said Molly. "I never thought to pack things inside of shoes."

The lady smiled at that. "I thought everybody packed the inside of things like hats or shoes."

"Well, they don't," said Molly, "unless I'm nobody."

She sat thoughtful for a moment. Then: "There's another kind of packing things inside of things that everybody doesn't do."

"What do you mean?" we inquired.

"Well, she went on, "I always wondered how Mrs. L—— managed to do the work of that big house and always have time to help everybody. Why, she's knitted forty-seven swabs for the war-hospitals already."

She paused to let this sink in and we ventured to inquire its relationship to packing things in shoes.

Making More Room in Your Day By Skillful Packing.

"I was coming to that," said Molly. "Yesterday I happened to go over there just before dinner and there was Mrs. L—— sitting in front of the stove watching the dinner cook and knitting away. She says she does it every night. Now isn't that making more room in your day by packing one thing inside another?"

The lady paused in the act of stuffing a hat full of miscellaneous soft articles long enough to nod at Molly, "Very good, my dear."

"I guess that's the difference between Mrs. Martin and the new lady across the street," Molly went on. "Mrs. Martin says her little girl takes almost every minute of her time and the new lady across the street has two, and she keeps her home like wax and makes their clothes and hers. I often see her sitting in the window sewing while the children play around her, and sometimes she sews and tells them stories. I suppose that's the way she packs her days. Mrs. Martin says she can't do but one thing at a time. Perhaps some people are made that way and can't help it. Do you think so?"

You Can Carry It Too Far.

"No," said the lady, thoughtfully, while she demonstrated her own ability by deftly filling in some empty corners. "I think some people are naturally cleverer that way than others, but any one can learn to do two things by putting his mind to it. But this I do think, Molly, that it can be carried too far and take more out of you in nervous force than you gain in time. For instance, I know a girl who is so anxious to pack her days chock full that she always tries to leave some little part of her dressing (like putting on her wristwatch) to do on the way down-stairs. It may save a little time, but I think the mental effort of carrying it so far costs more than it is worth. In other words——" the lady paused to struggle with the lock of the trunk.

"There's a golden mean in packing as well as other things," finished Molly.

"Exactly," smiled the lady-who-always-knows-somehow.

(Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.)

Weddings and Engagements

Mrs. Louise Bailey James and Fred W. Young were married this afternoon at the home of the bride. After April 1 they will be home at 1614 Jefferson street.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Clark of 2423 East Second street have announced the engagement of their daughter, Marie Ellsworth, to Edward Dean Coventry of Brainerd, Minn.

* * *

M. Zalk of New York city has announced the engagement of his daughter, Sarah, of Duluth, to Rymal Oleisky of Minneapolis. Miss Zalk makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Meyers of 216 East Third street. Mr. Oleisky has visited in Duluth.

Mrs. H. Davidson of 1210 One Hundred and First avenue west announces the engagement of her daughter, Helen A. Davidson, to Frederic J. La Londe of Reno, Minn. The wedding will take place in the early autumn.

* * *

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. F. Grohman of 516½ East Fifth street of the engagement of their daughter, Josephine, to Nicholas A. Encobacci of New York city.

* * *

Miss Addie Le Clair of Grand Lake, Minn., and Robert M. Lature of this city were married Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bridegroom's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Cribben, 825 West Third street. Mrs. Cribben and Roy Lature were the attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Lature will make their home at 910 West Fourth street.

* * *

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. John B. Beerhalter, 22 Sixth avenue east, that the marriage of their daughter, Claire Amelia, to Timothy Jamison Dunn will take place Monday.

East End.

Mrs. Walter Turle, 2216 East Superior street, returned yesterday morning from New York, where she has spent the last two months.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Z. D. Scott, 2125 East First street, returned yesterday from a month's Southern trip.

* * *

Mrs. John H. Upham, 721 East First street, returned this morning from New York, where she and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Pagg of Milwaukee, have been spending the last six weeks.

* * *

Mrs. C. M. Hammond of Detroit, Mich., who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. J. Olcott, for several weeks, will leave Monday for Vancouver, where she will make a short visit before proceeding to California.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Comstock and Mrs. C. W. Andrews of Duluth arrived at The Greenbrier, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., on Wednesday.

* * *

Mrs. Margaret Copeland, 1028 East First street, was called to Pembroke, Ont., yesterday by the illness of her sister.

* * *

Miss Maude Cooper, 1017 East Sixth street, returned Friday morning from a ten days' visit in Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul.

* * *

Mrs. Albert Heller of Minneapolis is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leon J. Selig, 1810 Jefferson street, for a week. Mr. Heller arrived this morning to pass the week end.

* * *

Mrs. H. B. Kohagen and son, Charles, and Mrs. Kohagen's mother, Mrs. Lathrop, returned last evening from a visit at Hollywood, Cal.

* * *

George D. Swift has left to join his

Mr. Seekins

IS NOW WITH

The Duluth Floral Co.

121 West Superior Street. Be sure you are at the right Flower Store.

Heads the Woodland Neighborhood Club

C. R. MAGNEY.

The election of officers was the chief business done at last night's meeting of the Woodland Neighborhood club at the E. R. Cobb school. Those chosen were: President, C. R. Magney; vice president, B. W. Forbes; secretary, Mrs. E. E. Fuller; treasurer, Mrs. George E. Worcester.

Reports of the work done during the year were read, showing that the club has been the means of securing several improvements for the district, as well as furnishing a social center.

Among the plans disseused for the coming season was a program for active participation in the city agricultural exhibit to be held next fall.

The membership of the Woodland Neighborhood club has more than doubled since its organization two years ago, and special efforts are to be made during the coming year to interest every resident of that section of the city in the club and its work. The next meeting will be at the E. R. Cobb school on the evening of Friday, April 7.

Society

family at Clearwater, Fla. He will return with his daughter, Mrs. William P. Harrison, the end of this month.

* * *

Miss Lucy How of Washington, D. C., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Francis J. Pulford of East Superior street, for a week.

* * *

Mrs. James H. Harper of 2521 East Superior street returned Thursday from St. Paul after an absence of five weeks.

* * *

J. H. Gruesen has gone to Portland, Or., and other Pacific coast cities on a several weeks' trip.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hubbell, 1105 East First street, left Thursday for Pasadena, Cal., where they will visit their daughters and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cotton, who have taken a house there for the winter.

* * *

J. D. Ireland left Wednesday night for Saginaw, Mich., to spend the week-end with Mrs. Ireland, who is visiting her father, Mr. Ring.

* * *

John S. Weiss returned early in the week from the Northwestern Military and Naval academy at Lake Geneva, Wis., for a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Weiss of 1515 East Superior street. The academy was closed for a week on account of a case of scarlet fever, but the students will return Sunday.

* * *

Mrs. J. C. Rosser of Great Falls, Mont., will leave Saturday for her home after visiting her daughter, Mrs. George L. Chesebrough, East Superior street.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Wahl, East First street, have gone to New York city for a short trip.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Deetz of 303 North Thirty-sixth avenue east are the parents of a daughter, Catherine Augusta, born Tuesday night at St. Mary's hospital.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hurd of "Hurdcroft" Monticello, Minn., arrived Thursday night to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Alastair Guthrie, 1925 East First street.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jordon, recently of Houghton, Mich., have come here to live. Mr. Jordon is associated in business with Dwight E. Woodbridge and W. G. Swart. Mr. and Mrs. Jordon are residing at 1517 East Fourth street.

* * *

Mrs. Walter Hodge of Ducktown, Tenn., and Miss Valecle Croze of Houghton, Mich., have returned to their homes after having been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Croze, 714 East First street, for several days.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney A. McPhail, Jefferson street, have returned from a southern and eastern trip.

* * *

E. A. Forsyth, East Third street, left Wednesday night for Buffalo and New York.

* * *

Mrs. G. H. Smith of Northland Country club expects to leave today for a two weeks' visit in Chicago.

* * *

Mrs. L. W. Leithhead, 16 South Eighteenth avenue east, underwent an operation at St. Mary's hospital Saturday afternoon for appendicitis. She is reported to be progressing favorably.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Chapin, Jr., returned Monday morning from Chicago.

* * *

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Schwartz, 1603 East Superior street, returned Sunday from a trip which included Cuba and different Southern points.

* * *

E. A. Shores of Vancouver spent the week-end with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Walker of 2103 East First street, on his way to his old home at Ashland, Wis. He will be joined in June by Mrs. Shores, who is now in Vancouver, and they will spend the summer in Ashland.

* * *

Mrs. A. D. Davidson and grandson, Andrew D. Darling, who have been in Eastern Canada for two weeks, have returned.

* * *

Mrs. Frederick G. Appleton of Chicago is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Thomas W. MacLean of the Adams apartments, for the rest of the winter. Melville Hart of Chicago, son-in-law of Dr. and Mrs. MacLean, is their guest for several days.

* * *

William Kleinschmidt will arrive April 1 to assume his duties as assistant to Rev. W. A. Ryan of St. Paul's church. Mr. Kleinschmidt comes from Thompkins Cove, N. Y., and is a former assistant rector at the Church of the Intercession, New York city.

* * *

G. A. Tomlinson has returned from a trip to California, during which he visited the principal points in the state. He has been absent for more than a month. Mrs. Tomlinson remained in California visiting friends for a few weeks.

* * *

Mrs. J. W. Nolan of Minneapolis is the guest for two weeks of her daughter, Mrs. C. R. Boerner of 1322 Jefferson street, on her way to Winnipeg.

* * *

Henry Seitz of this city and George Lindsey of St. Paul, formerly of Duluth, left Thursday for New York, where they will join a party of friends sailing the first of next week for the West Indies. They expect to be away until April.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Charles d'Autremont and Miss Marie d'Autremont, 1401 East First steet, left Wednesday evening for Helena, Mont., where they will visit Maurice d'Autremont before proceeding to California.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Granger and Lawrence Gordon left Wednesday for California.

* * *

Mrs. Scott, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles d'Autremont, for some time, left Wednesday for Buffalo, N. Y.

* * *

Mrs. O. H. Griggs of Virginia went down to St. Paul Tuesday night for a few days.

* * *

Mrs. Luther C. Harris has returned from a six weeks' Southern trip which included a visit in Havana, Cuba.

* * *

A. W. Cleveland has returned from Long Beach, Cal., and is at the Kitchi Gammi club.

* * *

George H. Crosby left Monday night for the East.

* * *

Mrs. F. R. Smalley, 1725 Jefferson street, returned Tuesday night from a two weeks' trip to Des Moines and Waterloo, Iowa, and Minneapolis, Minn., where she visited relatives.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Baxter of Lake Nebagamon are occupying the H. M. Peyton residence during their absence.

* * *

J. E. Gardner, Jr., left Wednesday night for the East.

* * *

Miss Elizabeth Congdon, who has been spending a few days in Chicago, returned Wednesday morning.

* * *

Miss Majorie Morrow retuned Tuesday morning from a six weeks' visit in Pasadena.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Roberts of 1326 Eleventh avenue east have returned from a week's trip to the Twin Cities.

* * *

Charles Marcus Fay returned Tuesday night to the Shattuck school at Faribault, Minn.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hickox, 1508 East Superior street, have gone to Hot Springs, Ark., for a month.

* * *

Mrs. B. Blumenthal, 422 Seventeenth avenue east, has returned from a four weeks' Eastern trip.

* * *

Mrs. Allan Sisson of Minneapolis is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Stewart Collins of 624 Woodland avenue.

* * *

Mrs. E. A. Klumb of Milwaukee is visiting in Duluth with her sister, Mrs. H. A. Haehnke of 1117 East Second street.

* * *

Mrs. George H. Kohrt of Coleraine is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. J. McGovern, 1117 East Fourth street, for two weeks.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pogue of Grand Rapids, Minn., are visiting Mrs. M. J. McGovern, 1117 East Fourth street, for a few days this week.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bridgeman (Anna Geronimus) of Plymouth, Ind., are guests of Mr. Bridgeman's father, Henry Bridgeman, 4640 London road.

* * *

Mrs. Waldemar H. F. N. de Bille will leave Saturday for New York to join her husband.

* * *

Miss Jessie Smith and W. I. Smith of Pawpaw, Ill., have returned to their home after visiting their brother, H. F. Smith, 5215 East Superior street.

* * *

Mrs. H. J. Grandis, 4729 McCullough street, who has been visiting Mrs. H. B. Humason of Merriam Park, has returned home.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, 4710 Cooke street, have as their guest Mr. Hall's brother, M. Hall of Seattle, Wash.

* * *

R. F. Barrows, 21 Fifty-eighth avenue east, has returned from a two months' visit in Seattle, Wash.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jones, 4610 Jay street, have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Downing of Walla Walla, Wash. Mrs. Downing, before her marriage, was Miss Irene Loranger of Lakeside.

* * *

Miss Hildegard Pearson of Lakeside has returned to Minneapolis after visiting at the home of her parents for a week.

Haydn Symphony and Trumpet and Piano Solos on Orchestra Program

CHARLES HELMER.

The term "symphony," as applied to musical compositions, has rather a vague meaning to the majority of concert-goers and to the uninitiated it may be said that a symphony is a composition in the sonata form for orchestra with all the elaboration and extension permitted by the larger resources. Historically, the symphony was founded on the overture, Haydn, the father of the sonata, having established the form which has survived with minor substitutions until the present time. Beethoven and followers of him even added a chorus, hence a choral symphony.

The very human Haydn added a lyric interest as contrast in the form, both of counter-themes to the principal theme and of separate movements of melodious character. Mozart made no formal change but added more human interest and warmth. The symphony consists of usually four movements; first, an allegro, meaning fast, though this is sometimes modified by additional phrases, as allegro ma non troppo, allegro con moto and allegro moderato, indicating various degrees of time in the allegro movement; second, an andante, meaning moderately slow or reposeful and also modified by other phrases as to the composer's intention; third, a minuet, or dance movement, and fourth, a rondo or finale on the same form as the first movement. This general group of varied movements is applied to many forms, notably the symphony, the classic overture, the concerto, the string quartet and chamber music generally, which is spoken of as being in the "sonata form."

Example of Symphony.

An excellent example of the four movements of the symphony, as described, is Haydn's "Surprise" symphony, which will be played by the Duluth orchestra at the seventh twilight concert to be given at the new armory tomorrow afternoon. The work follows the customary pattern of Haydn's symphonies, the first movement opening with an andante introduction which changes to vivace or faster time and returning to the original subject followed by a short coda or additional termination which brings the movement to a close.

The second movement is a beautiful andante which is in the song form, having a contrasting second theme, after which the first is again heard. The entire movement breathes of peace and beauty until the arrival of the "surprise" chords heard at the end.

The third movement shows the genial "father of the symphony" at his best. The minuet follows the customary form of the dance which, with Haydn, is always a dance of the folk and rarely shows the influence of the court, where the minuet at his time ruled supreme.

The last movement, Finale, is in the pattern of the first movement and follows the "sonata-form," having the two alternating subjects, their working out and recapitulation. In the movement Haydn shows his rare gift for counterpoint, which he always combines so cleverly with spontaneity that the method is lost in the beauty of the work as a whole.

Two Soloists.

The soloists tomorrow will be Faith Helen Rogers, pianist, and, Charles Helmer, trumpet. Miss Rogers will play Liszt's concerto for piano No. 1 in E flat major. This is one of Liszt's most famous compositions for piano and is constructed along the general line of the symphonic poem, embracing four sections like the movements of a symphony. The composition is a very popular one with pianists and Miss Rogers will no doubt do it full justice.

Following is the complete program:
Selections from "Tanhauser"...Wagner
Symphony No. 3 ("Surprise")...Haydn
1. Adagio. Vivace assai.
2. Andante.
3. Minuet.
4. Finale. Allegro molto.

Concerto for planforte, No. 1, in E flat major .....Liszt
Waltz—"On the Beautiful Blue Danube" .....Strauss
Trumpet solo—"The Lost Chord" .....Sullivan
Charles Helmer.
Rigoletto quartet .....Verdi
Fackeltanz (Torch Dance)...Meyerbeer

MR. & MRS. MORTON'S 3rd CONCERT
GLEN AVON CHURCH,
Monday, March 6th, 8:15.
Take 7:35 Hunter's Park car. Tickets, 50 cents. Smith & Allen Company, or at church door.

Activities of the Week at Duluth Normal School

SIX OF THIS YEAR'S GRADUATES.

MISS MARGUERITE RYAN.

MISS MABEL PAULSON.

MISS VIOLA SINCLAIR.

MISS ESTHER M. DYE.

MISS ELMA SALMINEN.

MISS CEIL McRAE.

The Story-telling League of the Duluth Normal school met at the clubroom of Washburn hall, Friday evening. Helen Herrick acted as hostess and was assisted by Lillian Riedesel and Teresa Schults. Theresa Idjorck was chairman of the program committee. The program for the evening consisted of stories told by Helen Herrick, Ruth Vogan, Marian Fitger and Mabel Poehler.

* * *

A luncheon was given for Miss Ghering in the kindergarten room on Friday by the girls in the senior kindergarten class.

* * *

Supt. Atkins of Aurora and Supt. Comstock of Two Harbors visited school on Wednesday.

* * *

Beatrice Williams, who has been living at her home in West Duluth, is now a resident of Torrance hall.

* * *

Miss Gertrude Brown, primary critic teacher, entertained the student teachers of her department, together with Miss Patterson, Miss Perry, Miss Jacobi and Miss Van Wick, at a skating party on the Twenty-fifth avenue east rink, Monday evening, followed by a lunch.

* * *

Thursday afternoon the Home Economics club held its first meeting in the clubroom of Washburn hall. A short business meeting was held, at which Rowna Hansen resigned the office of president to which she was elected last week. Cecil McRae is now the president of the club. The business meeting was followed by a program consisting of a duet by Virginia Harrison and Blanche Frederickson and a talk on "Sanitation in the Home," by Mr. Frazee.

* * *

At a meeting of Mr. Van Cleef's division of seniors, Millicent Sckeideker told an Indian legend.

* * *

Tickets at reduced rates for the New York Symphony concert were obtained for the Normal school students through the efforts of Miss Danielson.

Lakeside and Lester Park

Mrs. Robert Dryer, 1927 Sixtieth avenue east, returned yesterday from a several weeks' visit in Michigan.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bridgeman (Anna Geronimus) of Plymouth, Ind., are guests of Mr. Bridgeman's father, Henry Bridgeman, 4640 London road.

* * *

Mrs. Waldemar H. F. N. de Bille will leave Saturday for New York to join her husband.

* * *

Miss Jessie Smith and W. I. Smith of Pawpaw, Ill., have returned to their home after visiting their brother, H. F. Smith, 5215 East Superior street.

* * *

Mrs. H. J. Grandis, 4729 McCullough street, who has been visiting Mrs. H. B. Humason of Merriam Park, has returned home.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, 4710 Cooke street, have as their guest Mr. Hall's brother, M. Hall of Seattle, Wash.

* * *

R. F. Barrows, 21 Fifty-eighth avenue east, has returned from a two months' visit in Seattle, Wash.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jones, 4610 Jay street, have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Downing of Walla Walla, Wash. Mrs. Downing, before her marriage, was Miss Irene Loranger of Lakeside.

* * *

Miss Hildegard Pearson of Lakeside has returned to Minneapolis after visiting at the home of her parents for a week.

Woodland and Hunter's Park

Miss Flora Bush of Hunter's Park is at Battle Creek, Mich.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Milligan, 637 Woodland avenue, left last night for an eastern trip.

* * *

Mrs. T. W. Hoopes left last Saturday night for Florida. Mr. Hoopes will join her later.

* * *

Mrs. E. G. Bush, Princeton avenue, left Sunday night for Battle Creek, Mich.

* * *

Mrs. Sargent McGonagle and son, who have been visiting here the last few weeks, left Wednesday for their home in Hamilton, Mont.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Claude C. Washburn and Miss Hope Washburn left Monday for Tryon, N. C. Mr. and Mrs. Washburn will make a short visit in St. Louis first.

* * *

Mrs. Hammond of Guthrie Center, Iowa, is visiting Mrs. W. A. Pryor, 2239 Vermilion road.

* * *

A. N. O'Brien has returned to his home, 227 Victoria street, after a two weeks' visit in Alexandria, Minn.

Central Hillside.

Martin T. Spellman, who has been the guest of his mother, Mrs. R. Spellman of 10 West Second street, left Wednesday for La Crosse, Wis., where he will be house physician at St. Francis' hospital.

Mr. Spellman has just been graduated from the school of medicine of the University of Chicago. He is a member of the Phi Beta Bi medical fraternity.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Staples, who have been at the Lenox hotel for the winter, have gone for a six weeks' trip to Oklahoma and other Southern points. Their son, King Staples, who has been at Omera, Minn., has gone to Gary, Minn.

* * *

Miss Mabel Smith of Ely is the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Banning, Theresa apartments.

* * *

Mr. and Louis Levy of Minneapolis are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Levy, 501 East Second street.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Kelly of 414 East Third street will leave Sunday for a six weeks' visit in Pasadena, Cal.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Dinham, 112 Sixth avenue east, returned Thursday from a six weeks' trip to Southern California.

* * *

Miss Margaret Moran of Hibbing is the guest for a week of Miss Katherine Petz of 715 Ninth avenue east.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Rheinberger, 323 Leicester avenue, are the parents of a son, Vincent Paul, who was born Thursday. Mrs. Rheinberger was Miss Cora Davis before her marriage.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Kelley of 526 East Fifth street are the parents of a daughter, who was born Sunday at St. Mary's hospital.

West End.

Miss Lillian Magnusson, 2617 West Fifth street, has left for a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. M. F. Wilson of Bemidji, Minn.

* * *

Mrs. F. W. Pine, North Eighteenth avenue west, will leave tomorrow morning to visit her sister at Brainerd for a week. She will also visit in Minneapolis, St. Paul and Rush City before returning.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Soderstrom of Minneapolis, who have been visiting relatives in the West end, left for their home Wednesday.

* * *

George E. Bowen of Wabasha, Minn., left for his home last night after spending a week visiting relatives in this end of the city.

* * *

Mrs. W. C. Ives, 2415 West Ninth street, entertained yesterday afternoon for the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary society of the Grace Methodist church.

* * *

Miss Louise Emerson, 322 North Twenty-fifth avenue west, who has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. England of Missoula, Mont., during the winter months, has returned.

* * *

W. Studeman has returned after a short visit in Northfield and St. Paul.

* * *

John Keough has returned to West Duluth after a short visit in Cook, Minn., and is now visiting at the home of Joseph Doyle, 15 North Fifty-fourth avenue west.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Erickson of Cloquet, Minn., have returned home after a short visit at the home of Mrs. Bert Wiggen, 4714 West Sixth street.

* * *

Rev. C. W. R. Wermine, pastor of the Swedish M. E. church, left Monday morning for a short trip to Thief River Falls, Minn.

* * *

A son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Falk. Mr. Falk is president of the Falk Paper company of the West end.

* * *

J. P. Geistman, 2113 West Third street, returned Thursday from Chicago.

West Duluth.

Mrs. C. J. Anderson and daughter, Victoria, of Cloquet spent a few days this week with relatives in Duluth.

* * *

Miss Marie Hansen of West Duluth left Friday to spend the week-end with her mother in Two Harbors.

* * *

Mrs. Henry Hill, 5715 Cody street, left Wednesday evening for Alpena, Mich., where she was called owing to the serious illness of a relative.

* * *

Louis Dallare, 5514 Grand avenue, fell on the sidewalk in front of his residence Wednesday night, cutting his face and wrenching his back.

* * *

Mrs. E. W. F. Boerner, 911 North Central avenue, entertained this afternoon for the West Duluth W. C. T. U. Mrs. Alfred Jaques was leader, presenting the subject, "Liquor Revenue." The hostess was assisted by Mrs. O. T. Strand and Mrs. Fred De Boer.

* * *

Mrs. Walter M. Evered, 5620 West Sixth street, left Monday afternoon for Springfield, Mo., where she will spend two weeks visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. G. Davis.

* * *

Miss Katherine Leidinger, 120 South Fifty-sixth avenue west, who has been ill at a Duluth hospital, has returned home.

* * *

Mrs. Elliott J. Aman, 634 North Fifty-eighth avenue west, returned Monday morning from Chicago, where she was called on account of the death of her father.

* * *

Miss Julia Graetz, 222 North Central avenue, returned Monday from a short business trip to the Twin Cities.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Athur O. Baer of Morgan Park have returned from Chicago.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Seglem, 1030 Twenty-fourth avenue, are parents of a son born yesterday.

* * *

John Keough has returned from a short visit to Cook, Minn.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Goff of St. Paul are guests at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. E. W. F. Boerner, 911 North Central avenue.

Morgan Park.

Mrs. James Aird, First street, entertained the members of the Ideal club on Thursday afternoon. Bridge was played after which a luncheon was served by the hostess. The prizes were won by Mrs. E. K. Tyler and Mrs. Kler. The club will meet at the home of Mrs. Milson next Thursday afternoon. The following were present: Mesdames A. Solomon, E. K. Tyler, Macdonnell, J. Amoe, E. Patch, Milson, McGowan, Kler, William Mahan.

* * *

Dr. W. W. Lawrence of Glen Avon Presbyterian church, Duluth, held services at the home of Mrs. Albert Solomon, Second street, on Wednesday evening.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hammer, East Boulevard, left Friday for California, where they will reside in the future.

* * *

A number of residents of the park enjoyed a dance at House No. 55 on Friday evening.

* * *

The Young Girls' club met last Thursday evening at the schoolhouse. The following were in attendance: Misses Alice McLimans, Edna McLimans, Louise Hartz, Margaret Baker, Michelson, Sophia Soderberg, Clara Anderson, Grace Thompson.

* * *

C. C. Hannigan of Minneapolis and D. F. Hannigan of Kipling, Mich., are visiting at the Hugh F. Hannigan home on Second street.

Suffragists Will Meet.

The Duluth Woman's Suffrage asaociation will be hostesses to the St.

Italian Club Will Present War Play for the Benefit of the Red Cross Fund

ITALIA NOVA CLUB.

Bottom Row, Left to Right—Mrs. M. Toffoli, Miss M. Borzaga, Miss A. Sueck, Miss L. Perrin. Second Row—H. Casola, F. Fida, R. Grassi, F. Binda, R. Pagani. Top Row—A. Debernardi, E. Ferretti and E. Casola.

Two one-act playlets with settings in the present war will be presented by the Italia Nova club, an organization of younger members of Duluth's Italian colony, at a Red-Cross benefit, in the Cathedral auditorium tomorrow night.

"The German Spy, an Episode of 1914" is the principal playlet. It is said to be very popular in Italy at the present time, and has been translated into English for presentation at Red Cross benefits given in this country. The other playlet is a farce comedy.

The amateur thespians have been working on the program for some time under the direction of Prof. Ralph Vacco of Hurley, Wis., and have prepared an able performance, critics say.

The orchestra, also composed of members of the club, will present a number of musical selections. Mrs. Mary Rosso, soprano, will give two solos, and several other vocal selections are included on the program.

This benefit is the first of a series to be given this spring, all of the proceeds to go to the Italian Red Cross society.

Duluth's Concert Orchestra Photographed for The Herald, During One of Its Daily Rehearsals

—Photo by Gallagher.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

Will Appear in Beethoven Program at First M. E. Church

MISS RUTH ALTA ROGERS.

A Beethoven program has been arranged by Mrs. A. B. Siewert for the Matinee Musicale Tuesday afternoon at First Methodist church. R. Buchanan Morton, who has specialized in the works of Beethoven, will present the sonata in A flat, opus, 110. The translation of the original Italian text of Miss Glenn Bartholomew's songs has been made by Mrs. W. C. Sargent. The program is:

"Adelaide" ..... Beethoven
Bruce Brown.
Sonata in A flat, opus 110..... Beethoven
Cantabile molto .....
Allegro molto .....
Adagio, ma non troppo.....
Fuga .....
R. Buchanan Morton.
"In Questa Tomba" .....Beethoven
"The Awakening of the Flowers"..
..... Beethoven
"A Song of Rest".....Beethoven
Miss Glenn Bartholomew.
Trio opus 70, No. 1.....Beethoven
Allegro vivace con brio.....
Presto .....
Minuet in G—Moderato.....
Trio .....
D. J. Michaud, violin; Bernard Siegert, cello; Miss Teresa Lynn, piano.

Miss Ruth Alta Rogers will be the accompanist.

His Majesty the Baby Will Hold the Center of the Stage in Duluth During Next Week

The babies will be the most important persons in Duluth next week. Age, weight, feeding, teeth and other topics that furnish limitless material for discussion when mothers gather, will crowd out such unimportant subjects as the war, city ordinances, dress, sports, bridge, music and drama.

"All the children are sick. Harold has the measles, Jeannette has the mumps, Alfred's throat is sore—I'm afraid he has scarlet fever—and the baby is cutting two teeth. Now, Mrs. Smith, what were the symptome of your children when they took the fever?" and so on, and so on, will not be heard, at least not where the scoring takes place, as only healthy specimens of the future men and women of Duluth will be allowed to enter.

System of Scoring.

Very few babies have a scoring of 99, regardless of how perfect their mothers consider them, and 98 and 97 are high averages. The scoring is not intended merely as a means of awarding prizes, but as a practical way of finding out the conditions of the contestants in order that defects may receive the proper attention.

The exercises which will mark the carrying out of the features prepared for the celebration of Baby week, as a part of the infant welfare work assumed by the Scottish Rite Masons of Duluth are, in this case, in conjunction with the Women's council and other organizations of the city that will have charge of special booths fitted up by them in the banquet hall of the Masonic temple, Lake avenue and Second street.

The organizations co-operating are: Twentieth Century club, Association of Collegiate Alumnae, Lester Park club, Saturday club, Eastern Star lodge, the Past Matrons Literary Association of the Eastern Star, White Shrine, Daughters of Liberty Chapter, D. A. R., city kindergarten, Childrens' Home, public library, health department, Nopeming, dentists and the St. Louis County Medical association.

The doctors will begin scoring at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, March 6, with Dr. F. A. Grawn and Dr. C. E. Prudden in attendance, with nurses to assist. The scoring cards are those furnished through the American Medical association. They will be sent back to the headquarters of the Medical association to be filed as a part of their general data. The scoring will be continued each afternoon at the same hours until the list is completed. Based on the results, a first prize will be awarded, which will be indicated by a certificate to that effect accompanied by a $10 gold piece; a second prize with a $5 gold piece, and a third prize carrying $2.50 in gold. These prizes will be awarded without any regard to age, sex, color or nationality, and solely on the number of points earned. All babies from 5 months up to 5 years are eligible for entry.

Must Be Registered.

On entering the temple the babies will be registered, examined by a nurse to prevent the admission of any afflicted with disease, and the parent will be furnished with a separate paper bag in which the infant's clothing will be kept until wanted, and the infant will wait its turn. This course of examination and scoring will be continued throughout the afternoons of the week, but it is expected that all will be completed on Thursday, if not, however, Friday will be kept open.

Booths have been fitted up in the banquet room and the exhibition which will begin Tuesday afternoon, will be open each afternoon during the scoring hours and at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights. The exhibits will include articles of interest and educational possibilities to all mothers and those engaged in the care of infants. The following organizations will have booths:

Twentieth Century club—Layette and bassinet.
Association of Collegiate Alumnae—Good and bad room for pre-natal care (city pre-natal nurse in charge.)
White Shrine—Breast feeding.
Daughters of Liberty chapter, D. A. R.—Model kitchen.
Past Matrons of the Eastern Star—Bathing and weighing.
St. Louis County Medical association—Artificial feeding.
Dentists—Teeth.
Eastern Star—Clothing for children from 1 to 5 years.
Nopeming—Children's pavilion.
Saturday club—Good and bad toys for children.
Lester Park Literary club—Food for mothers and children.

There will also be exhibits by the health department, city kindergarten, Children's home and the public library.

Physicians on Duty.

The physicians on duty will be: Tuesday, Drs. C. L. Haney and R. S. Forbes; Wednesday, Drs. J. R. Manley and F. W. Spicer; Thursday, Drs. A. E. Walker and E. L. Cheney, and Friday, Drs. M. A. Nicholson and C. H. Schroder.

At 8:30 o'clock there will be lectures and musical numbers in the Scottish Rite auditorium, to which all are invited. The Tuesday night program will be, as far as the musical portion is concerned, under the charge of the Matinee Musicale, and the lectures will be delivered by expert physicians. The meeting will be opened by Mrs. F. W. Spicer with two organ numbers, "Allegro" (Mendelssohn) and "Cradle Song" (Parker), after which the general director, T. W. Hugo, will make a few remarks and will introduce Dr. W. A. Coventry, whose subject is "Pre-Natal Care." Opportunity will be given for questions or discussion following which Mrs. Jay Finkelson will give a violin number, "Liebesfreund" (Kreisler). Dr. McFadden will follow with a lecture on "Care of the Teeth" and Mrs. Walter Adams will conclude the program with two soprano numbers, "Yesterday and Today" and "Will o' the Wisp." (Spross).

All the lectures will be plain and practical and will not exceed fifteen minutes in length.

Wednesday's Program.

The program for Wednesday night will be opened by the Svea Glee club, under the leadership of Charles Helmer, with a glee called Norrland (Stenhammar), followed by Dr. O. W. Rowe, who has taken for his subject "Breast Feeding." The glee club will sing "Kommer Du ej Snart" (Korling), and Dr. N. H. Gillespie will lecture on the "Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Conditions," the last number being the famous "Sextet" from "Lucia" (Donizetti).

The Thursday program will be opened by A. F. M. Custance, with the organ solo, "Queen of the Earth," which will be followed by Dr. C. H. Schroeder on "Artificial Feeding." The Scottish Rite quartet will sing "Gypsy John" (Clay), after which Dr. J. H. Andreas will speak on the "Inspection of the School Child." The grand finale will be a musical sketch, composed and arranged by Mr. Custance, entitled "Four Kings and Two Queens."

Everything connected with the scoring, the exhibits and the program will, be free.

Is National Movement.

Duluth Baby week is part of the country-wide movement that was begun by the General Federation of Women's clubs. In addition to the Woman's council and the other organizations that have co-operated with the Scottish Rite Masons, assistance has been received from C. A. Marshall of the Lyceum theater and from Thomas Furness of the Lyric theater. Miss Elizabeth Heikkila, the nurse in charge of the Scottish Rite infant welfare work, and Mrs. A. T. Banning, chairman of the Woman's council committee for baby week, have received the applications for the scoring.

SOME OF THE BABIES WHO WILL BE ENTERED IN NEXT WEEK'S COMPETITION.

Teddy Is Wide Awake.

Tony, St. Luke's Protege.

Irene and Russell.

A Typical Northern Baby.

Elizabeth Must Have Been Looking for the Bird.

Will Appear on Program of Bishop's Club Tuesday

BERNARD SIEGERT.

Miss Louise D. Lyons has arranged the program which will be given at the meeting of the Bishop's club, to be held at 8 o'clock Tuesday night in the Bishop's club room. Mrs. Albert Poirier will be the hostess. Mrs. L. H. Corcoran, Mrs. J. H. Murray and Mrs. R. F. Belleperche will preside at the tea table and will be assisted by Miss Anna Fiebiger, Miss Marion Worley, Miss Mary Scanlon and Miss Winnifred Corcoran.

The program will be as follows:

Bible reading—Acts of the Apostles, chapter XVI .....
Miss Mae Geary.
Voice—Aria from "Tosca"—"E Lucevan Stella" .....Puccini
A. Lundstrand.
Talk—"Japanese Textiles and Weaving" .....
Miss Louise D. Lyons.
Voice—"Roberto, I Tu Che Adoro"...
..... Meyerbeer
Miss Grace Enockson.
Cello—"Kal Nidrei" .....Max Bruch
Bernard Siegert.
Current events .....
Miss Adeline Buckley.
Reading—"Sally Ann's Experience"..
.....Eliza Guiver Hall
Miss Lucille Shook.
Voice—"Moonlight Song".....Cadman
Mr. Lindstrom.
Piano—Fantasie Impromptu in F minor .....Chopin
Miss Ruby Krause.

Miss Krause and Miss Leona Grieser will be the accompanists.

With the Musicians

Mme. Melba seems serious about her plans for a California residence. A guest at the Kohl residence, near Burlingame, she told an Examiner reporter that she intended to establish a conservatory somewhere in the San Francisco peninsula.

"It is the dream of my life," she said, "to have a home here in this beautiful region and a class of young women in San Francisco. There are so many voices ruined each year by the wrong kind of training that I feel I simply must put out a restraining hand. I should regard the girls as wards, my precious charges. I should consider it a privilege to teach them personally and my sacred duty to advise them according to my ability.

"Saving voices shall be my mission. I have a Melba conservatory in Melbourne, where the class is always kept at fifty in number, but, of course, I cannot give these girls as much time as I hope to give my California class. I shall come to California again next year, and then, if the war is over and I am not needed elsewhere, I shall look about for my home."

* * *

Coenraad v. Bos, the noted accompanist, who played for Julia Culp when she sang here this winter, has declined an offer of $300 per week to appear in vaudeville in an "act" uniting his well known ability as a pianist and his little-known ability as a comedian.

* * *

It was left to the "Mail Chute" man of the New York Evening Mail to emblalm the now historical incident of Farrar's fistic encounter with Caruso at the performance of "Carmen" given at the Metropolitan opera house not long ago, in verse:

"I am the lady you tackled and threw so,"
Said Mrs. L.-T. to Signor Caruso.
"You started that stuff, I don't think I'll get well again."
Said Signor Carus' to Mrs. Lou-Tellegren.

* * *

The second of the series of artist recitals, arranged by the Chromatic club of Buffalo, N. Y., was given by the Australian pianist, Percy Grainger, at the Twentieth Century Club hall, Tuesday evening.

"His first number, Busoni's arrangement of Bach's organ prelude and Fugue in D minor, was played with superb technical skill, and with warmth and color," says a Buffalo review. "H's interpretation of this number confirmed the report that he had something new to give and he was acclaimed with applause and bravos. His other numbers gave him an excellent opportunity to display his control of tone color, sense of balance and beautifully blended crescendi and decrescendi. It was vital musical playing and it aroused his audience to tremendous bursts of enthusiasm, which compelled him to play eight encores."

* * *

Speaking of the rather ridiculous indignation which has been worked up in Ottawa against the New York Symphony orchestra, it may be interesting to know that, while Walter Damrosch is a naturalized American, his assistant conductor is a Bohemian, his first concertmaster a Russian, his first cellist Dutch, his first flute player French, while Italians and native born Americans are included in the orchestra as well, says Musical America. Unnaturalized Germans are, as a matter of fact, almost nil and could not under any circumstances have obtained a passport that would allow the orchestra to take them along into Canada.

In the New York Philharmonic orchestra all sorts of nationalities—friendly and unfriendly across the water, but brothers in art if not in sentiment here—play alongside of each other. The string band contains Germans, Italians, Russians, Bohemians, Hungarians and Americans. The eight double basses are divided among Italians, Russians and Germans; Italians and Germans perform on the flutes; a Frenchman and a German play the oboes, while an Italian joins them when the English horn is called for. The clarinets are fingered by an Italian and a German. Josef Stransky, clever man, conducts his rehearsals in strictly neutral American language.

* * *

Eddy Brown, the 20-year-old remarkable young violinist, who has recently returned to the country of his birth after twelve years of study in Europe, had some interesting things to say to Musical America's interviewer about his career and present conditions in music abroad.

It is interesting to note that, despite Eddy Brown's long residence in Europe, he has lost none of his American patriotism nor has he subscribed to false European standards. In speaking of study here and abroad he said, "If it had not been for my studies with Hubay and Auer, whom I consider the two greatest living masters of the violin, there would have been little point to my going abroad. It is really a crime for American students to spend their time and money with second-rate European teachers, when we consider that there are so many first-rate instructors right here in our midst. A foreign name seems to cast a magic spell over the American and he is caught in the trap. It is really inexplicable.

"I have noticed that many American students are studying with American teachers in Europe. The American is certainly gaining in prominence and respect in musical communities abroad and very often he is appreciated more in Europe than he could be in America. If Americans would give up the silly idea of demanding of an artist that he have a foreign-sounding name and that he complete his musical education abroad, fewer Americans would be compelled to adopt the unpatriotic device of changing their names for professional purposes and still worse of even denying that they were born in this country. When all this hypocrisy has been done away with, there is no doubt that the musical atmosphere will become very much clearer." Eddy Brown has not changed his own name and is proud that he is an American. So much for putting his own theories into practice!

"There is really one important institution lacking in this country," he went on to say. "That is a national conservatory where the services of the finest teachers in America should be enlisted. A person completing the course at a school such as this would have a recognized standing in the musical world. Everyone would soon know the personnel of such a conservatory and it would not be necessary to say that you had studied with such and such a person. If you could say that you had completed such and such a course, your standing would be assured. In Europe almost every well known master teaches at a particular conservatory. It is highly essential that music be put upon a national basis in America as well."

California Is Now "Millionaires' Row."

Los Angeles, Cal., March 4.—Southern California is the mecca of millionaires during the late winter and early spring. A check of one of the hostelries de luxe today revealed that 150 interesting to know that, while Walter Damrosch is a naturalized American, his assistant conductor is a Bohemian, his first concertmaster a Russian, his first cellist Dutch, his first flute player French, while Italians and native born Americans are included in the orchestra as well, says Musical America. Unnaturalized Germans are, as a matter of fact, almost nil and could not under any circumstances have obtained a passport that would allow the orchestra to take them along into Canada.

In the New York Philharmonic orchestra all sorts of nationalities—friendly and unfriendly across the water, but brothers in art if not in sentiment here—play alongside of each other. The string band contains Germans, Italians, Russians, Bohemians, Hungarians and Americans. The eight double basses are divided among Italians, Russians and Germans; Italians and Germans perform on the flutes; a Frenchman and a German play the oboes, while an Italian joins them when the English horn is called for. The clarinets are fingered by an Italian and a German. Josef Stransky, clever man, conducts

Park Point Notes

Rev. L. H. Burn will conduct services at the Mission chapel tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

* * *

Mrs. C. T. Campbell, 2524 Minnesota avenue, was hostess to the women of the Park Point Presbyterian auxiliary Thursday afternoon. Light refreshments were served at 4:30 to the following members and their friends:

Mesdames—
W. L. Jackson, H. J. Gude, S. O. Vrooman, Harry Older, F. Marschall, R. J. Holmes, David J. Gray, J. P. Burg, Charles Gillie,
J. W. Marvin, J. E. Osborne, W. O. Smith, Carl Schau, Pangborn, A. G. Kelly, G. Sheehan, J. Meisner, E. M. Hoff.
Misses—
Hettie Marie Holmes, Katherine Osborne,
Francis Campbell. Millard Campbell, Harvey Page.

* * *

Mrs. W. R. Hoffstatter, 2721 Minnesota avenue, will be hostess to the women of the Park Point Mission guild next Wednesday afternoon.

* * *

Mrs. B. M. Buckminster, 2718 Minnesota avenue, has returned from a six weeks' visit to Maryville, N. D., where she was called by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Louise Larin, who is now very much improved in health.

* * *

E. H. Richardson, 4008 Minnesota avenue, has returned from a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Richardson of Fairmont, Minn.

* * *

Miss Sadie Semser and Miss Bertha Guerin, both of Cloquet, Minn., were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. K. McRae, 2908 Minnesota avenue, Wednesday.

* * *

Mrs. A. L. Nutting, 3510 Minnesota avenue, was hostess to the card club of which she is a member Friday afternoon. Progressive five hundred was played at three tables. A dainty luncheon was served at 5 o'clock to twelve guests.

* * *

The annual business meeting of the Park Point Improvement club will take place next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Mission hall at Twenty-eighth street, at which officers will be elected for the coming year.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McLaughlin and family have taken a cottage at 3620 Minnesota avenue for the remainder of the winter.

* * *

A number of Park Point women have issued a general invitation to all women of Park Point and their friends, to attend a social afternoon at cards next Monday, beginning at 2 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. George H. Durbrow, 3410 Minnesota avenue, for the benefit of a flower fund. Mrs. Eugene McGary suggested the plan and the chairman of the entertaining committee has appointed the following hostesses to assist for the afternoon: Mrs. R. B. Odell, Mrs. W. R. Hoffstetter; Mrs. John Webb, Mrs. J. E. Osborne, Mrs. J. W. Marvin, Mrs. J. F. Dennis, Mrs. Herbert Page, Mrs. Max Friederici, Mrs. Fred Hoene, Mrs. A. Hauslaib, Mrs. Charles Norman, Mrs. A. G. Kelly and Mrs. D. K. McRae.

* * *

Mrs. C. T. Campbell and daughter, Frances, 2524 Minnesota avenue, have returned from a few days' visit with the former's mother and brother at Biwabik, Minn. While there they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Christensenson.

* * *

The Park Point Sunday school will meet at 9:45 tomorrow morning at the Mission chapel class room at Twenty-eighth street, J. W. Harter is the superintendent. The Christian Endeavor society will meet at 7 o'clock. The topic will be "The Consecration of Strength."

* * *

Mrs. S. O. Vrooman, 2721 Minnesota avenue, was hostess Friday to a number of her club friends. A dainty luncheon was served to twelve. St. Patrick decorations were used and a color note of green was carried out in the table appointments, miniature shamrocks were presented to each guest.

* * *

Miss Grace McGuffin of Arnold, a former resident of Park Point, was a dinner guest Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. W. O. Smith, 2721½ Minnesota avenue.

* * *

C. F. Almy, 2832 Minnesota avenue, who underwent an operation at St. Mary's hospital Wednesday, is reported out of danger.

* * *

Mrs. Henry Curtis, Jr., 3102 Minnesota avenue, was hostess Friday to the young matrons' sewing club. The afternoon was spent socially. Refreshments were served at 4:30 to the following young women: Mrs. Leon Cooley, Mrs. Herbert Page, Mrs. Ira Lester Griffin, Mrs. R. J. Holmes, Mrs. J. R. Morton.

* * *

Miss Gladys Smith, 2721½ Minnesota avenue, is slowly recovering from a very severe attack of measles.

* * *

Mrs. N. A Pearson, 717 East Seventh street, will be hostess to the Park Point Study class next Thursday afternoon.

* * *

The home of Christ Anderson, 3407 Minnesota avenue, was slightly damaged by fire Tuesday. The prompt assistance of a bucket brigade saved the fire department a run, and also put out the fire. Very little damage was done.

* * *

Miss Mildred Winters, 740 Lake avenue south, was hostess Monday evening to the sewing club. Luncheon was served by the hostess to twelve members.

Friday Club.

Henry James' "Portrait of a Lady" will be studied at the meeting of the Friday club which will be held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. F. Jamar, Sr., 4631 London road. Mrs. F. J. Ober will be the leader.

New York Orchestra Will Play Beethoven's Second Symphony

The music fabric of America is ever changing. Conductors come and conductors go but for the most part orchestras remain. There are two names, however, which seem to be as solid as the rock of Gibraltar—the New York Symphony and Damrosch. For thirty-eight years these two names have been before the American music-loving public symbolizing all that is best in symphonic music. When Dr. Leopold Damrosch, father of Walter Damrosch, came to this country forty years ago, he keenly realized the narrow opportunities America offered to the musically inclined. On the advice of his intimate friend, Anton Rubinstein, the elder Damrosch founded the now famous Oratorio society and the New York Symphony orchestra. The first great musical festival given in New York and under his direction was held in the Seventh Regiment armory and constitutes one of the most interesting chapters in the history of music in America.

When Dr. Leopold Damrosch died, his son Walter, then a youth of 22, had so completely won the confidence of the music world that he was elected his successor, not only as conductor of the New York Symphony orchestra and as conductor Oratorio society, but also as conductor of the Metropolitan opera house.

It was Walter Damrosch who persuaded Andrew Carnegie to build a temple of music in New York to be known as Carnegie hall and at the opening of this great concert structure Peter Tschaikowsky, the Russian composer, was present as the guest of Walter Damrosch and conducted the New York Symphony in three of his own compositions. For thirty-two years Damrosch has been guiding the destinies of this great orchestra over all obstacles to undisputed pre-eminence, and the conductor has become so much a part of this band of musicians that the public most frequently speak of this organization as "The Damrosch orchestra."

The following program will be given by the New York Symphony orchestra March 28 at the new armory:

Symphony No. 2, in D.....Beethoven
Adagio Molto—Allegro con brio.
Larghetto.
Scherzo—trio—allegro.
Allegro Molto.
"Lapres Midi d'un Faune".....Debussy
Excerpts from "Iphigenia in Aulis"..
.....Walter Damrosch
"Entrance of Maidens of Chalcis."
"Achilles Racing the Chariot."
"Melodrama."
"Iphigenia's Farewell."
Violoncello solo by Jacques Renard.
Symphonic poem—"Death and Transfiguration".....Richard Strauss
British folk songs and dances.....
.....Percy Grainger
"Molly on the Shore."
"Irish Tune."
"Shepherd Hey."

CLUBS AND MUSICAL

Club Activities of the Last Week and the One to Come

Drama League Plays Arouse Much Interest---Red Cross Work Occupies Many Duluth Women---Club Season Drawing to Close.

THE DRAMA LEAGUE led all other organizations this week with its presentation of two highly enjoyable plays which are such marked contrasts that comparison is impossible. The season of three nights will close tonight.

The climaxes of the presentation of "What It Gets Down To" and "Her Sacred Duty" will be the decision regarding the winner of the Drama league prize. After the last curtain the votes that have been cast by the members of the Drama league will be counted and the names of the playwrights will be announced.

Red Cross Work.

Red Cross work has occupied an important place in the week's activities The officers of the industrial circle of the Duluth branch of the American Red Cross association and the heads of circles met Monday to consider plans for raising money with which to carry on their work. They will hold another meeting Monday morning. Members of the German-Austro-Hungarian Relief association gave a large card party Tuesday afternoon. Wednesday afternoon a card party was held at the home of Mrs. Milie Bunnell for the Canadian Red Cross and a silver tea was given at the home of Mrs. A. L. Wright for the same cause. Tomorrow night the Italia Nova club will present two plays at the Cathedral auditorium for the Italian Red Cross. At the social meeting Monday afternoon the members of the Twentieth Century club will fill comfort bags; the work of the Twentieth Century members is neutral.

Club Work.

Interest in clubs does not lessen with the approach of the end of the season. Monday afternoon the Association of Collegiate Alumnae had a program on college traditions and customs at the home of Mrs. T. J. Davis, the art history class of the Twentieth Century club studied "Egyptian Sculpture," the Shakespeare class of that club completed the "Merry Wives of Windsor" and the evening drama class completed the study of "The Grandfather."

Tuesday the study class of the Matinee Musicale studied the program which Reinald Werenrath will give next week. Dr. George R. Gebauer lectured on "The Flying Dutchman" and the life of Wagner to the members of the ladies' literature class at the home of Mrs. Chauncey C. Coulton, the Linnaea club gave a prosperity social and the Bishop's club had a musical and literary program.

The only meeting Wednesday, always a quiet day in club circles, was the one held by the Afenro society.

Thursday a Twentieth Century club luncheon, arranged by the literary department and the department of education, was held at the Spalding hotel. Miss Josephine Carey was the hostess for the monthly meeting of the Cecilian society that was in the nature of a Brahms afternoon.

Yesterday Mrs. H. L. Gage spoke on "Babylonia" at the meeting of the department of education and home of the Twentieth Century club, the woman's council held its monthly meeting and last night Guiseppe Fabbrini gave a piano recital at the First Methodist church.

Club women will take active parts in the baby week exhibit that will be held next week at the Masonic temple. Booths showing good and bad things for babies will be in charge of clubs that are co-operating with the Scottish Rite Masons to promote the welfare of the youngest Duluth residents.

Twentieth Century Club.

Charles D. Coburn of the "Yellow Jacket" company, that will be in the city next week, will address the members of the Twentieth Century club at 3 o'clock Thursday afternon in the parlors of the Spalding hotel. Mr. Coburn was formerly a member of the Coburn players that presented Shakespeare's plays as they were given in their early days. The Coburn players appeared in all parts of the country but especially at colleges.

The Twentieth Century club will have as their guests Thursday afternoon the Drama league and the Saturday club.

Social Meeting.

The Twentieth Century club will continue its Red Cross work at the last social meeting of the club year, which will be held at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon in the library clubroom. Members will make comfort bags, made of strong washable material (8 inches by 12 inches when finished) and provided with long draw strings, which will be filled with articles that were bought by the committee. Miss Grace Wright will speak on "Causes of Some of the Great Wars of History in Relation to the Ideas of Peace."

A tea hour will conclude the afternoon. Mrs. Harold Fegraeus is chairman of the committee in charge, the other members of which are Mrs. Gust Carlson, Mrs. John J. Moe, Mrs. H. P. Bjorge and Mrs. William Carlson.

Shakespeare Class.

An important meeting of the Shakespeare class will be held at 7:45 o'clock Monday night in the library clubroom. The reading of "Henry V." will be begun.

Literature Department.

The program on Japanese drama of the literature department, which was scheduled for Friday morning, has been deferred until the meeting can be held in Mrs. E. Frank Barker's tea house.

Business Women's Club.

The Business and Professional Women's club will meet at 7 o'clock Monday night at the Y. W. C. A. There will be a business meeting and a review of current events. Miss Ruby Anderson will be the leader.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

Weyerhauser, widow of the late multi-millionaire lumber king.

Among other prominent Easterners are H. H. Westinghouse of the great New York company that bears his name, and W. H. Porter of the J. P. Morgan company.

It is said that never before has there been so much wealth represented among the guests at a single hotel in the United States.

Third Concert in Series By Mr. and Mrs. Morton

The third of the subscription concerts given by Mr. and Mrs. R. Buchanan Morton will take place at the Glen Avon church, Monday evening, March 6. These concerts are proving of much interest to local musicians. The following program will be given Monday:

Organ—Fantasia in F minor .....W. A. Mozart

Vocal—
(a) "When the Kye Comes Hame,. .....Words by James Hogg
(b) Skye Boat Song—Old Highland rowing melody .....

Organ—
(a) "In the Twilight" .....F. Flaxington Harker
(b) "Le Petit Berger" .....Claude Debussy
(c) Prelude and Fugue in D major .....S. Bach

Vocal—Three Hebridean songs—
(a) Hebridean Mother's Song ("Gur mills Morag") .....
(b) Milking Croon ("Cronan Bleoghain") .....
(c) A Hebridean Sea Rover's Song ("Na Reubairean") .....

Organ—
(a) "Noel Ecossais" .....Guilmant
(b) Fantasia pastorale .....Lefebure-Wely

Vocal—
(a) "The Flowers o' the Forest" (after Flodden) .....Old Scottish harp air
(b) "The Hundred Pipers" .....Words by Lady Nairne

Church Meetings.

Westminster auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church will not meet Monday, as was arranged, on account of the death of Mrs. Robert Callan.

* * *

The Catholic Ladies' guild of Woodland will meet at 8 o'clock Thursday night at the home of Miss Catherine Fitzpatrick, 116 West Winona street.

* * *

The Philathea class of the First Presbyterian church will hold its monthly business meeting at 8 o'clock Monday night. They will be entertained by Miss Eleanor Thompson at her home, 116 Eighteenth avenue east.

* * *

The Queen's Daughters association will meet at 8 o'clock Thursday night in the Bishop's clubroom. Bishop James Mcgolrick will interpret the third chapter of St. Matthew's gospel and the lecture on Catholic sociology will be continued. This will be open to all Catholic young men and women of the city. Following the program there will be games appropriate to the Lenten season.

* * *

Circle No. 1 of Endion M. E. church will meet in church parlors at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon. Tea will be served.

Knights of Columbus Entertain at Dance

The annual formal dance of the Knights of Columbus, which was held last night at the Spalding hotel, was attended by 150 persons. A large American flag and palms were the decorations. Helmer's orchestra played. The committee in charge of arrangements was composed of Charles F. Kelly, Charles McDonnell, Leonard J. McHugh, William C. Toben and John F. McKanna.

The patrons and patronesses were: Mr. and Mrs. George W. Atmore, Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Ball, Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Fahey, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Killorin, Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Lepak, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Madden, M. J. and Mrs. J. H. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sheridan, Dr. and Mrs. T. F. Sheridan and Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Tuohy.

W. C. T. U. Banquet.

The annual banquet of the Woman's Christian Temperance union will be held Monday night at the First Presbyterian church. Miss Rozette Hendrix, the state president, is expected to be a guest of honor. Some of the most prominent musicians of the city will give a program of vocal and piano numbers. The full program will be in the Monday paper.

Fabbrini Greeted By Enthusiastic Audience.

Giuseppe Fabbrini was greeted by a big audience last evening at the First Methodist church and both the program and playing proved of much interest to local musicians. It was his third visit here and the size and enthusiasm of the audience showed his growing popularity.

Fabbrini has an exceptionally brilliant technique, and showed some clever sustained tone work in the Chopin numbers, especially Chopin Etude op. 25. The Andante to Beethoven's Sonata was remarkably well done too, and throughout his playing showing consistent interpretation and good coloring.

Brahms, Liszt and Debussy numbers and an "Arabesque" of his own, completed a truly delightful program.

Lodge Notes.

The Loyal Mystic Legion of America, Council No. 60, will have a social hour after all important business meeting that will be held Monday night at U. C. T. hall.

* * *

Aerial hive, No. 975, will hold a regular meeting Friday night. Moving pictures will be one of the amusements of the evening. Mrs. Jessie Burnett will have charge of the social half hour. All Modern Maccabees are invited.

Lester Park Literary Club.

Mrs. Clinton Brooke of 5407 London road will be the hostess for the meeting of the Lester Park Literary club, which will be held at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. "The Tourist's Tour" will be the subject. Mrs. A. L. Richardson, the leader, will speak on "Impressions En Route From Sydney to Paris," and Mrs. Theodore Hollister on "Rural Life in France."

Costume Party By Elks.

The dance committee of the local lodge of Elks has made arrangements for an elaborate costume party to be given at the lodgerooms Friday, March 17. The St. Patrick's idea in decorations will be followed throughout. There will be special music, and supper will be served.

The hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. J. E. Samuelson, Mrs. H. J. Huber, Mrs. J. T. Armstead, Mrs. William Yale and Mrs. R. J. Crawford. A special committee to look after the luncheon and musical program will consist of Mrs. A. J. McCullugh, Mrs. C. F. Naughton and Mrs. John Dennis.

Lodge Notes.

Wa-wa-tay-see Council No. 4, Degree of Pocahontas, I. O. R. M., will hold its regular meetings hereafter on the second and fourth Thursday nights, at the Moose hall, 224 West First street. Next Thursday night a class of candidates will be given the first degree.

* * *

Court Eastern Star No. 86, U. O. F., will hold a regular meeting at 7:30 o'clock Monday night. The weekly card party will be given at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon in the Camels' temple.

* * *

Marie Antoinette Court No. 205, Women's Catholic Order of Foresters, entertained in honor of a class of seventeen members being initiated into the order, Monday evening at the St. Jean Baptist hall. A musical program and several recitations were given, after which a banquet was served to 300. The St. Louis court, Men's Catholic Order of Foresters, were guests.

* * *

Ladies' Majestic Rebekah lodge, No. 60, I. O. O. F., will entertain at their hall, 221 West Superior street.

Theosophical Society.

The Duluth Lodge of the Theosophical society will hold its regular lodge meeting for members only at 8 o'clock Thursday night, in the lodgeroom, 203 Temple building. The beginners' study class in "Theosophy Simplified" will meet at 8 o'clock Monday night. The Wednesday afternoon study class in "Ancient Wisdom," open to those interested in theosophy, will meet at 3 o'clock. The Sunday morning advanced study class in "Ancient Wisdom" will meet at 10:45 o'clock.

CARE OF THE BABY

Teething

Prepared By the Children's Bureau, U. S. Department of Labor.

The baby usually cuts his first tooth when he is 6 to 8 months old, and by the end of the first year has, ordinarily, six teeth. He should have 12 teeth at 18 months of age; 16 when he is 2 years old, and before the end of the third year the entire set of 20 "milk" teeth.

The process of teething in a healthy baby cannot properly be held responsible for the illness commonly attributed to it. The first half-dozen teeth rarely give the baby any pain, but as the double teeth appear there is occasionally at the same time a little disturbance, such as loss of appetite, and possibly evidences of slight indigestion, which may last for a few days. But if the disturbance is more serious than this, some other reason for it should be sought.

Teething takes place through the weaning period and during the second year, when mistakes in feeding are so often made which upset the baby's digestion, even if they do not make him seriously ill. On this account it is often unjustly blamed for making the baby sick, when the real reason lies in the fact that he was overfed or improperly fed, or perhaps that the weather was very hot.

It must be remembered that excessive heat aggravates any ill the baby may have, and is quite sufficient in itself to make the baby sick. It is necessary in summer, therefore, both on account of the heat and because of the disturbances connected with weaning and teething, to take great care of the baby in all respects, and especially to feed him with great caution. Directions for feeding the baby are given in a pamphlet called "Infant Care," which will be sent free to any one who asks for it, applying to the chief of the children's bureau, U. S. Department of Labor, Washington, D. C.

The baby may not gain in weight during the cutting of his various double teeth, but it is not a serious matter to have the weight remain stationary for a short time. The baby will quickly regain the lost ground when he is well again, and eating his full rations.

The mother should never allow anyone to persuade her to give the baby patent medicines, such as soothing syrups to relieve the pain of teething. If they do relieve it they probably contain opium in some form, which is much worse for the baby than the suffering. It is a safe rule never to give medicine of any sort to a baby, save that which is ordered by a doctor.

Care of the First Teeth.

From the time when the double teeth make their appearance throughout life the teeth should have daily care. For the baby a very soft brush is necessary and the utmost care should be taken not to injure in any way the delicate tissues of the mouth when brushing the tiny teeth. After the baby has several teeth, the mother should see to it that no particles of solid food are left between them after the baby has eaten. If the first set of teeth is well taken care of, the second set will be healthier, and in addition the child will have been taught a good habit that will last all his life.

There is considerable variation in the time that the teeth first appear, but if the baby has no teeth by the time he is 1 year old, he should have medical attention to see if any disease is causing this unusual delay in the development of the teeth, or whether it is due to improper diet.

Duchess Devotes Time to Philanthropic Work

DUCHESS OF MARLBOROUGH.

The duchess of Marlborough since her separation from the duke has devoted most of her time to philanthropic work. She has been engaged recently in war relief work.

Find Grand Piano in the Trenches; Soldiers Enthralled By Debussy

The following account of the strange adventures of a piano in wartime is taken from an issue of The London Times of recent date:

"The whole line was digging itself in. The Germans were shelling the position heavily, and life itself depended upon digging in. The men worked feverishly, racing death.

"Suddenly the trench tools of one party struck on wood. They had found a box—a large box—a very large box. On this site had stood, in the happy days now so long ago, a large chateau. What was this relic of the old world upon which the trench tools of the new had struck? Buried treasure? Yes. The wooden box grew larger and larger till it revealed itself as a grand piano.

"And immediately, German shells or no, some one must needs try it. It was sorely battered, but it sounded. A grand piano which sounded was a prize which the British soldier—brutal mercenary of an unmusical people—was not going to sacrifice for all the shells in Europe. That piano must not be moved. The trench formation must be altered to make room for it, and altered it was. And, tenderly propped upon two legs of its own and a third built of mud the piano held the field.

"A pianist was called for, and, under the whistling and screaming and crashing of the German shells, the piano showed what it could do. The trenches all about were packed with soldiers. In vain the company officers warned them of snipers, insisted on their taking shelter beneath the parapet. Stand up and listen they would. And the company officers themselves were just as bad. In its palmy days the piano may have had its triumphs, its rapt audiences, in the calm of the chateau; but this was its apogee. And when the time came for the battalion to be relieved nothing would satisfy the men but the piano must go with them. Now, with a new third leg of wood, it dwells in honor in a safer, drier place somewhere behind the lines.

"And what music was it with which the pianist had held the men spellbound, oblivious of danger? 'Tipperary'? 'Let's All Go Down the Strand'? 'The Little Gray Home in the West'? Not a bit of it. It was music of a kind to which the piano was probably accustomed. It was Debussy. For the moral of this true story is that, whatever music that odd creature, the British soldier, may choose to sing or whistle or mouth organ on his own account, when it comes to listening he wants the best. Nothing cheaply sentimental or 'music hall' for him. In good music only does he find the qualities that he needs."

COLLEGE IDOL IS DETHRONED

For more than forty years a grotesque stone image of a beast and its young, heroic in size, has stood on the campus of Union college at Schenectady, N. Y., and every alumnus of that celebrated seat of learning cherishes memories of the "idol" as it was commonly called.

College tradition relates that the huge sculptured image from far Cathay was promptly made a part of the undergraduate life for it received a surreptitious coat of paint on the night it was first set up and "painting the idol" has been a regular college custom from that time.

For many years it was assumed that the graven image was in fact an idol. With the development of the science of electricity and the establishment at Schenectady of the mammoth plant of the General Electric company and at Union college of a great school in electrical engineering, educated Chinamen came. When they saw the "idol" they smiled the enigmatic smile of the inscrutable Celestial. It was learned that the image had no religious significance and had never been worshiped. The figures, to the Chinese mind, represent a lion and its young and have a sort of family resemblance to the lions that guard the guildhall at Ningpo and the north altar at the Temple of Heaven in Pekin.

THE "IDOL."

The history of the Union college "idol" is not without interest.

About the time of the beginning of the Civil war there was in progress in China what is generally known as the Tai-ping rebellion. Loyal troops in digging earthworks for the defense of Shanghai dug up the stone image. The officer in charge gave it to Rev. J. M. W. Farnham, D. D., secretary of the Chinese Bible society, who was graduated from Union college in the class of 1856. Dr. Farnham had coolies load it on a boat in a nearby canal and eventually shipped it on a tea clipper needing ballast, as a gift to his alma mater. The age of the image can only be guessed at, but the carving is probably not of a later date than the Fifteenth century.

Winter Carnival and Ice Palace.

Beautiful Lake Nebagamon.

The South Shore will run a special excursion train Sunday, March 5th, 1916, leaving Duluth Soo Line station 1 p. m. Low excursion fares.

Urge Railroad Arbitration.

St. Paul, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The St. Paul Association of Commerce last night adopted resolutions asking all commercial bodies of the Northwest to urge the ninety-six railway companies and their trainmen to arbitrate their pending wage dispute. The matter was discussed before 100 members of the local organization and a delegation of Minneapolis business men.

Bemidji Beats Brainerd.

Bemidji, Minn., March 4.—Forty-five to 13 was the score in favor of the locals when the Bemidji-Brainerd game ended here last night before a large crowd. There was fast team work and good all-round playing. The lineup: Bemidji—Tanner, forward; Johnson, forward; Cameron, center; Graham, guard; Brady, guard. Brainerd—Reese, forward; Falkner, forward; Warner, center; Hagberg, guard; O'Brien, guard. Field goals—Tanner, 8; Johnson, 9. Referee—Deering of Crosby. Bemidji will meet Carlton next week.

Milwaukee Footpads Sentenced.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 4.—William Sandmeyer, aged 27, and his brother, Otto, aged 29, were sentenced yesterday to twelve and three years, respectively, by Judge Baekus in municipal court for complicity in an armed holdup and robbery.

FIFTEEN DULUTHIANS HAVE ANSWERED THE CALL OF THE MISSION FIELD TO "COME OVER AND HELP US"

Tomorrow, "every member canvass" Sunday, a special effort will be made by a large number of the churches of Duluth to recreate interest in church work, and all that it means, among members who are still active and those who have let their activity lag, and to arouse in those who have been simply passive members of the various denominations interest enough to get on the active list and do something.

Much interest was aroused by the recent convention in connection with the laymen's missionary movement, and the continuation work that has been carried on is considered to have been remarkably successful.

Not the least of the interest aroused, and which is still being stirred, was in mission work. A large share of the money raised during the convention among Duluth and Superior churches, was turned over to the mission fund, and in the case of churches that conduct their every member canvass tomorrow along financial lines, much of the money raised will be devoted to the same purpose.

During the convention Duluth churches gave to this fund $41,301.35, and Superior churches gave $2,564.61.

Liberal With Missions.

That Duluth and Superior have given liberally to missions is known, but what has really been given cannot well be shown in figures. At least fifteen former residents of these two cities have offered themselves for mission work during the last quarter century, and it is likely that others, whose names could not be obtained, should be added to the list. Those who are known to have so devoted a part of their lives are the following: B. A. Shuman, Rev. Walter B. Williams, Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Giffin, Mrs. B. L. St. Johns, Rev. Swan Erickson, Miss Sophia Holt, Rev. W. L. Whipple, Rev. J. L. McBride, Rev. E. G. Sunderson, Mrs. M. M. Hursh, Miss Blanche Wilson, Miss Madorah E. Smith, Rev. Gunerius Torvik and Rev. A. T. Mack.

One of the best known of those who have gone from this part of the earth to the mission field is Rev. Walter B. Williams, who was a resident of Duluth for a number of years, and went from here to a Kroo mission in Liberia, West Central Africa, eight years ago. He is stationed at Cape Palmas. The First Methodist church of Duluth contributes to his support. His letters to the church officials are most interesting, but show that he and his wife have some very severe hardships to overcome to carry on their work. In one recent letter, Mr Williams told of a piece of news he had just received, to the effect that a Bolo man had just killed "another" Cabo woman, the two tribes being at war. She was up a tree gathering palm nuts and refused to come down when told to do so. Then the Bolo man shot her, and when her body fell, cut off her head and hands and carried them into town.

"This is shocking," wrote Mr. Williams, "but almost a weekly occurrence."

Pioneer in Argentina.

Another well known former Duluthian in the foreign mission field is B. A. Shuman, for years general secretary of the Duluth Y. M. C. A., and now holding a similar position in Buenos Aires, Argentina. When Mr. Shuman went to South America fourteen years ago, there was no Y. M. C. A. in Buenos Aires and he has built up one of the most effective associations in the world, it is claimed. Buenos Aires is the largest city south of the equator in this hemisphere, and the Y. M. C. A. now has a building there that cost over $200,000, in gold, of which one-half was raised in Duluth. Mr. Shuman has established two departments of work, one for native South Americans and one for students, and has been very successful. He has just completed a campaign to pay off the debt on the building and due on the work done. Mr. Shuman spent a part of last summer in Duluth visiting his mother, Mrs. B. A. Shuman, and residents of this city.

Miss Sophia Holt, daughter of C. E. Holt of Duluth, has recently returned from Armenia because work had been practically discontinued because of the war. All of the members of a large class of girls in the school where she taught have been carried away to captivity and almost one-half of the city of Adabazar, where she lived, were forced to leave over night, without taking anything with them other than the few things that they could get together on short notice. They could not sell anything that they had and were not allowed to take much with them. She was the only English missionary in Adabazar. When she left she had considerable difficulty in getting away, because she had four Armenian girls with her. They were not allowed to land in Naples but had to transfer on the bay from one steamship to the other.

Develops New Field.

Rev. J. Harry Giffin, formerly of Superior, is working in Ka Ying, China, in general missionary work. When he went there twelve years ago, the field was just developing. Now there are five outside stations which he visits regularly besides holding services in the city every Sunday. A large class of boys has been developed. The work with the women is the result of first aid carried on by Mrs. Giffin, who was Miss Anna Milne of Duluth.

The people are among the better educated class, called Haka. The main work that they attempt is to help develop native workers instead of attempting the work themselves. The five outlying stations are in charge of native workers. The people of this section favor the republic, one of the brightest young men of the mission having been made captain during the recent revolution. They have adopted the English dress and customs, cutting off their pigtails. Mr. Giffin taught in the government schools of Kaking last year.

Another young woman who has devoted her life to mission work is Miss Madorah E. Smith, formerly of this city, and whose work is being largely contributed to by Duluthians. She is connected with the Methodist Girls' school at Chengtu, West China, and writes interestingly of the work there. She is connected with a mission that is decidedly isolated and to which access is only by native boats or by chair carriers.

Missionary in Alaska.

Rev. J. L. McBride, formerly of the Second Presbyterian church of Duluth, is now a missionary in Alaska, at Cordova. He is district superintendent, covering a territory several hundred miles in length.

Mrs. B. L. St. John, formerly Miss Barnes of Duluth, a sister of Julius H. Barnes, was for some time in school work at Tien Tsien, China, but left because of poor health. She is now living in New Jersey.

Mrs. M. M. Hursh, formerly Miss Gooch of Duluth, was in Henzade, Burmah, for five years, teaching and doing general missionary work for boys and girls. She is now living in Grand Rapids, Mich., having left the Orient because of failing health. A sister, Mrs. Ernest Refuss, and a brother, Herbert Gooch, still reside in Duluth.

Rev. E. G. Saunderson, formerly a pastor of a Duluth church, went from here to India, where he was engaged in missionary work and also in running a mission paper for a number of years. He is now a resident of Sun Prairie, Wis.

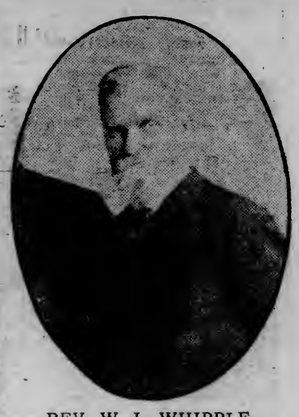
Is Native of Duluth.

Swan Erickson, who is a missionary at Takamatsu, Province of Sanuki, Japan, was born in Duluth. In early manhood, he was engaged for four years in Y. M. C. A. work at Mobile, Ala., and for two years in Clarksville, Tenn. He went to the foreign field eleven years ago, where he has built up a large work, and is spreading out his territory. His wife has charge of the work for girls and is assistant editor of a magazine entitled "From Far Japan," which is devoted to work of the Southern Presbyterian mission of Japan.

Rev. W. L. Whipple, while not exactly a Duluthian, was a resident of this city for three years while on furlough from his work in Persia. He had already served twenty-five years in that field, going from Rockville, Ind., and came here to visit his brother, the late L. H. Whipple. He returned to Persia alone, leaving his wife here to educate their children, and died there after being back in the mission field for one year. He worked in the city of Urumiah, and was one of the pioneer missionaries. His remains were interred under the floor of the church in which he had labored. His widow and four children remain in the United States, Mrs. Whipple being in New York, one of the children being in Los Angeles, two in Oberlin and the fourth in Rochester, N. Y.

Located in Fort Dauphin, Madagascar, Rev. Gunerius Torvik, is representative of the United Norwegian Lutheran denomination. He came to Duluth from Norway and went from here to the mission field. He spent fourteen years in Madagascar, and is now on leave of absence for two years and is visiting in Minneapolis at the present time. His work is among the natives and there are 2,500 members of the church in his district at present. War has made no difference in the work in Madagascar yet although it is a French colony. Mr. Torvik travels most of the time, being in charge of the work in that section. A brother, Charles Torvik, lives in Superior.

Rev. A. T. Mack, formerly with Trinity pro-cathedral in Duluth, is doing general missionary work on the frontier of Kansas, and is said to be very successful.



REV. W. L. WHIPPLE, Persia.

REV. J. HARRY GIFFIN, China.

REV. SWAN ERICKSON, Japan.

MRS. BURTON ST. JOHN, Retired.

REV. GENERIUS TORVIK, Madagascar.

MISS MADORAH E. SMITH, China.

MISS SOPHIA HOLT, Armenia.

REV. J. L. McBRIDE, Alaska.

MRS. J. HARRY GIFFIN, China.

B. A. SHUMAN, Argentina.

REFUSE TO TESTIFY.

Nine Algoma, Wis., Teachers Will Not Give Evidence When Called.

Algoma, Wis., March 4.—The nine teachers in the Algoma schools who had placed informal charges against Principal George Bassford of making improper advances toward them, refused to testify at the hearing last night when they were refused counsel and the meeting adjourned far after midnight without the board announcing any findings. Mr. Bassford was called to testify and denied the charges.

Four teachers have been employed to take the places of the nine striking teachers and the tenth who was dismissed for insubordination. Mr. Bassford denied on the stand that the insubordination charge was preferred against her because she would not submit to his caresses.

Scottish Rite Banquet.

Fargo, N. D., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The following speakers have been announced for the Scottish Rite reunion banquet that will be held at the Masonic temple here next Friday evening at the close of the session which begins on Tuesday: Frank H. Sprague of Grafton, "What Masonry Means to the Nation;" Treadwell Twichell of Mapleton, "Impressions Made By the Scottish Rite;" remarks on the records of the reunion classes, Prof. O. O. Churchill of the agricultural college: "The Dead," Attorney B. G. Tenneson of this city.

Rapids Beat Cloquet.

Grand Rapids, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Grand Rapids basket ball team won Friday evening in a game with the Cloquet five at the high school gymnasium, 22 to 21. All agree that the game was one of the closest and most exciting played on the local floor this season.

Verdict for False Arrest.

Oshkosh, Wis., March 4.—After being out eighteen hours a jury Friday awarded Mrs. Ruby Abrams $125 in her suit against J. C. Pierce for false arrest. Mrs. Abrams asked $5,000.

Grain Dealers Elect.

Grand Forks, N. D., March 4.—The North Dakota Farmers' Grain Dealers' association in session here elected officers as follows: President, F. F. Lane of Sherwood; first vice president, William Holmquist of Reeder; second vice president, J. M. Still of Beach; secretary, M. C. Gaulke of Grand Forks; treasurer, L. P. Ornsby of Edgeley; directors, S. A. Garber of Fortuna and L. J. Fraser of Hoople.

Farmer's Curiosity Painful.

Dogden, N. D., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mike Strehar, a Russian farmer near here, is out of the hospital today. He recently found some dynamite caps and didn't know what they were. Prying them open caused an explosion that tore to shreds all his fingers.

BEST FOR LIVER, BOWELS, STOMACH HEADACHE, COLDS

They Liven the Liver and Bowels and Straighten You Right Up.

Don't Be Bilious, Constipated, Sick, With Breath Bad and Stomach Sour.

Tonight sure! Take Cascarets and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. Wake up with your head clear, stomach sweet, breath right and feeling fine. Get rid of sick headache, biliousness, constipation, furred tongue, sour stomach, bad colds. Clear your skin, brighten your eyes, quicken your step and feel like doing a full day's work. Cascarets are better than salts, pills or calomel because they don't shock the liver or gripe the bowels and cause inconvenience all the next day.

Mothers should give cross, sick, bilious, feverish children a whole Cascaret anytime as they can not injure the thirty feet of tender bowels.—Advertisement.

Wear
Heimbach's
Double-Wear Rubber Heel
and Interchange Them
as They Run Over.
Means Double Wear

SICK MEN!

We Will Cure You

Longest Established, Most Successful and Reliable Specialist in Diseases of Men.

Are you getting pale? Losing flesh? Easily irritated, and is your skin looking sallow?

You may have no pain, but you are sick just the same. There are people who bear the mark of suffering right on their faces. If you permit disease to stay with you it will make you weak, despondent and drain your system of that vitality which makes you strong, healthy and vigorous. If any bad habit has got the best of you and you find it hard, yes, impossible, to shake it off, let us help you. Disease weakens the body and will power. We will heal your disease and help you to a clean and healthy manhood.

We make no misleading statements nor false promises when you consult us and allow us to examine your condition; we will tell the true condition of your state of health. WE ARE NO NEWCOMERS, BUT HAVE BEEN HERE FOR MANY YEARS. WE DON'T TREAT EVERYBODY, BUT MEN ALONE. We have devoted our lives and labor to the specialty of men's diseases alone. Why experiment with others who are not specialists? Why not get the best of help when you are sick, weak, nervous and broken down in health?

The methods of the Progressive Medical Doctors have been straight, honest, scientific, and that is why they have prospered. Our offices are open every day from 9 in the morning till 6 in the evening, and Sundays from 10 to 1. Wednesdays and Saturdays open till 8 evenings. Any sick man who seriously desires to find his way back to health is always welcomed to a free consultation.

STOMACH TROUBLES

Are the causes of many diseases. It often is the cause of poisons, which will cause RHEUMATISM and many other diseases.

To relieve this men are forming drug habits and become slaves to it, and relief is only temporary. If you feel tired in the morning and you detect your skin to be sallow, your tongue coated and you have a feeling of fullness in your abdomen, you may know that your intestines are diseased and they can not perform the work of digestion. Come and let us cure you.

BAD BLOOD

Will cause Varicose Veins, will weaken the system and predispose it to Piles. We cure all acute as well as chronic diseases of men. Nervous Debility, Contagious Blood Poison, Swollen and Varicose Veins, as well as diseases peculiar to men. We cure your disease. We are well professioned in the science of healing chronic diseases of men. Offices at corner Superior street and Lake avenue, Duluth.

Progressive Medical Doctors,
(Incorporated)

SANTAL MIDY CAPSULES
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER
Relieved in 24 Hours
Each Capsule bears the name MIDY
Beware of counterfeits
No Increase in Price.

Subscribe for The Herald

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

FIVE YEARS FOR KNIGHT

Fargoan, Who Embezzled Funds From Redmen, Sent to Penitentiary.

Was Brought Back From Kentucky Where He Was Popular in Church.

Fargo, N. D., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—"I sentence you to five years at hard labor in the penitentiary at Bismarck and I am sorry that the law does not permit me to make it more," said Judge Charles A. Pollock in the district court last evening at 5 o'clock in passing sentence on John H. McCormick, or Arthur M. Knight, as he was known for years here, and Fred G. Thomas, as he was later and for a couple of years known in Louisville, Ky.

Knight, or McCormick, was charged with embezzling $526.72 from Dacota tribe, Red Men, of this city, covering a period from June 1, 1911, to May 26, 1912, during which time he was chief of records and keeper of wampum of the order. It is also alleged that he had defrauded several local people out of various sums of money and by his own confession in court last evening had married another woman in North Carolina and lived with her in Louisville after deserting his wife and two small children here.

McCormick told the court, before sentence was passed, how he had suffered great anguish during the years that has elapsed since he left Fargo in 1912 because he could not see his wife and children here and how, after he had gone to Louisville, he had joined the church in order that he might do some good to make amends for the sins that he had committed.

McCormick was a very active worker in the Presbyterian church here before he disappeared, and after going to Louisville was one of the active workers in the Methodist church of that city. His work there was so efficient in the Sunday school of that church that he built up the membership from a mere handful to over 300.

Recognized in Louisville.

After leaving Fargo in May, of 1912, nothing was heard of McCormick until about the middle of January, 1914, when it was learned that he was living in Louisville. State's Attorney A. W. Fowler and Sheriff John Ross went to the Kentucky city and made application for his extradition. When arrested on the charge, McCormick, who was known there as Thomas, denied that he was the man wanted and the members of his church came to his aid and put up a bond of $1,000 for his appearance in court. On Jan. 20 he jumped his bond and nothing was heard of him until just a year after he was arrested at Louisville. He was apprehended and arrested in Providence, R. I., where he had become state agent for one of the largest insurance companies of the East.

From Providence he was taken to Louisville as a fugitive from justice and, although he put up a great fight against extradition, he was turned over to the North Dakota authorities and brought to this city on Feb. 12. Since then he has been in the county jail.

Knight, as he was known here, has a very winning personality, is a good speaker and when addressing the court, before sentence was passed, he told of his anguish and suffering because of his sins. "I have sinned and repented and am ready to lead a new life," said he. "I could not look at a child upon the streets without thinking of my two little children in Fargo, whom I love dearly."

"Did you not marry another woman after you left Fargo?" asked Judge Pollock.

Knight acknowledged that he had.

"For several years you were clever enough to keep out of the clutches of the law, and I cannot see that if you were so fond of your children that you could not have been clever enough to have sent a little money once in a while for their support," said Judge Pollock.

BABY'S BODY IN BOX MARKED "DYNAMITE."

Ashland, Wis., March 4.—The authorities here are confronted with a rather peculiar case as the result of finding the body of a new-born child buried in a hog pen. The discovery was made by the owner of a farm near the city after parties who were tenants had moved away. Upon opening a small box labeled "Dynamite," he found the body.

WILLIAMS NEWS NOTES.

Funeral of Son of Mayor of Spooner Is Held There.

Williams, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The funeral of John Meloney, Jr., who died in the hospital at Spooner Feb. 29, took place here Thursday afternoon. A large number of friends and relatives came on a special train from Spooner. The services were held under the direction of the Masonic order, of which deceased was a member at Baudette. He was the oldest son of Mayor Joseph Meloney of Spooner and was nearly 24 years of age. His death was caused by typhoid fever, with complications of peritonitis, a surgical operation having failed to save his life. He was born at Bloomer, Wis., and resided here for several years before his parents removed from here to Spooner.

The Wilson-Ferguson case which was tried before Judge Norris here last Tuesday resulted in a disagreement of the jury, and will be retried soon.

E. Fibigars, four miles south of Williams, proved up here before Commissioner Steffes. Norman Botineau filed on a quarter section in township 159-34. Mr. Steffes will be here again on March 10 to take dispositions in final declarations of naturalization cases to come before the spring term of district court.

Edward Jones, who preceded Agent W. H. Ronstadt a couple of years ago, was sent back here the first of this week to relieve Mr. Ronstadt, who was called to Winnipeg by the officials of the road.

George Morlander, teacher of the intermediate grade in the local schools, was treated to a surprise party and dinner at the schoolhouse by his pupils last Friday.

Elmer West has closed the bakery and will go back to his homestead in a short time.

W. J. McGlynn and family left this week for Stephen to visit for a couple of months and then will return to their homestead.

Frank Flint has disposed of the barber business to Clarence Nordin.

Mrs. Halvor Sandberg went to Warroad last Saturday to have her eyes treated.

Mrs. Jacob Eckel received this week a cocoanut from a friend in Florida, which had the original husk intact on it, and it much resembled a dried pumpkin.

Many wolf scalps are being brought in. Mrs. Will Mason was cheated out of a bounty by one wolf eating its mate, which had got in the trap.

J. D. Simcox, a homesteader south of here, has gone to his former home at Akeley, Minn., for a couple of months' visit.

Stephen E. Gregg, missionary for the American Sunday School union, with headquarters at Littlefork, was a caller in this vicinity Saturday and Sunday.

Frank Albert recently left here after first obtaining possession of and selling a quantity of personal property of his fellow-worker, Lujey La Mere, and his whereabouts are unknown.

Sid Mason was here from Duluth for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mason.

Miss Neva Oakes of Roosevelt was a visitor here several days the last of the week.

WAS AMONG SPEAKERS AT BEMIDJI BANQUET

MRS. EDWARD F. NETZER.

Bemidji, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—"Co-operation Among Business Men" was a subject handled by Mrs. Edward F. Netzer at the banquet given here Thursday night in honor of Governor Burnquist.

CLEARWATER COUNTY GOING TO BUILD

Commissioners to Go Ahead With Proposed Courthouse Plans.

Bagley, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—At the last meeting of the Clearwater county commissioners the petition presented by a delegation from the northern part of the county asking that the proposition of building the proposed $14,000 courthouse be submitted to a vote of the people of the county, was denied by a vote of two to three, and it is expected that the commissioners will go ahead with their previous plans for the building E. F. Broomhall of Duluth is the architect for the proposed building, and it is expected that work will begin in the spring.

A registered Holstein sire from the famous Irwin farm in Minneapolis arrived here Wednesday for Oscar Halland, a farmer of this vicinity. The animal is one of the finest yet brought into the county, and was selected by M. J. Kolb of Bagley, while in Minneapolis recently.

Select Duluth Architect.

At a recent meeting of the board of education, E. F. Broomhall of Duluth was selected as the architect for the new $25,000 high school building, to be erected here as soon as plans can be completed. It is hoped that ground can be broken for the building some time in April.

County Auditor Rude of this county reports that the slaughter of wolves in this county is the largest that has occurred for many years past. During January and February close to 100 hides were brought into his office to receive the state bounty of $7.50.

Tonight the Bagley high school girls will play the Bemidji high school team for the championship of this part of the state.

The county fair board at a recent meeting decided to offer prizes of $100, $75, $50 and $25 for the best four farmers' clubs exhibits for the coming fair next fall.

IF BACK HURTS TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Says Backache Is Sure Sign You Have Been Eating Too Much Meat.

Uric Acid in Meat Clogs Kidneys and Irritates the Bladder.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Advertisement.

NORTHWESTERN ROADS ARE UNUSUALLY BUSY

St. Paul, Minn., March 4.—Railroads in the Northwest are doing the largest business in their history as the result of a revival in earnings following the January lull, local officials assert.

The earnings are greater than last fall which were the greatest ever known. Railroad men characterized the business as remarkable and predict even greater results when the snow has melted.

W. P. Kenney, vice president of the Great Northern railroad in charge of traffic, said the railroads are doing more business than last fall.

IRONTON CANDIDATES.

Two Are Seeking Nomination for Mayor in Cuyuna Town.

Cuyuna, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—This village has the Australian system of voting. Those who have filed for office include: Mayor, Edward Krueger and P. J. Long; clerk, Kirk Himrod and E. R. Burns; councilmen, Phil Ellingson, Eric Olson and C. Mayheu; treasurer, Harry P. Armstrong.

Ironton will send a large number of candidates' applications to the Elks lodge in Brainerd.

Capt. Wm. Pascoe gave a house warming at his new cottage at Mahnomen lake, assisted by Mesdames McCoy and Armstrong.

Ironton beat the Inland Steel company bowling team 2,691 to 2,677.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Ellingson entertained at cards. Head prizes were won by Miss Himrod and Capt. William Pascoe, the consolation prizes going to Miss Rodeck and Mr. Erickson.

John H. Hill left last Thursday for San Antonio, Tex.

Carl Zapffe of Brainerd was on the range Wednesday.

P. D. Kreitter went to Duluth Tuesday evening.

Mrs. John H. Hill and Mrs. Primus D. Kreitter are visiting in Florida.

SPANISH OFFICIALS VISIT POWDER PLANT

Ashland, Wis., March 4.—The Du Pont company's plant at Barksdale was visited this week by four representatives of the Spanish government. They stopped off at Ashland and made the trip to the powder works. In the party were F. L. Carranza, Madrid; W. Garzia, New York; A. Garrido, New York; L. Baclou, New York.

Inquiry at the office of the Du Pont company revealed nothing of special interest regarding their visit outside of the fact that they came to inspect the plant.

ACCUSED BY SPOUSE; WOMAN KILLS SELF

Spooner, Wis., March 4.—Mrs. Dell O'Neil of Spooner committed suicide at Ashland shortly after her husband had expressed his intention of leaving her. He is alleged to have received letters from friends who claimed his wife was unfaithful. The wife, it is said, denounced the letters as a falsehood when her attention was called to them. In letters to him she is reported to have left behind she admitted, it is said, her unfaithfulness. They were married two years ago.

NORMAN COUNTY DITCH CONTRACT AWARDED

Ada, Minn., March 4.—County Auditor Fulton let the contract for Judicial Ditch No. 51. The contract for the excavation work was let to the Security Dredge company of Minneapolis for $70,762.35, an average of 9 cents a cubic yard. The next lowest bidders were the Northern Minnesota Dredge company of Litchfield, $73,003.87, and H. B. Whitney of Emmetsberg, Iowa, $74,877.39. The total estimated number of cubic yards to be moved is placed in the engineers' estimate 798,222 at 10 cents per yard.

STATE SANATORIUM LAND BEING CLEARED

Walker, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—One and one-half tons of dynamite will be used to blow up stumps on state lands at the sanatorium this spring, and over fifty more acres cleared, according to Charles Stout, the state farmer at this institution. Mr. Stout has twelve men under him and all are kept busy. Mr. Stout will put in about twelve acres to alfalfa this spring. Aside from the institution requirements from the soil, experimental farming is also taken up at the sanatorium for the benefit of farmers in this portion of the state. Many farmers are getting the habit of visiting this institution during the summer months to get pointers on stock raising, crop rotation, etc., and in this manner the state farm is serving a double purpose to the state.

Andrist Declines Offer.

St. Paul, Minn., March 4.—Charles M. Andrist, governor's private secretary, announces that he will not consider the proposition from officers of the American Red Cross, who wanted him to go to Russia for the summer to assist Dr. Edward Devine in an examination of Russian war prison camps. Owing to Mr. Andrist's knowledge of languages he was picked out for the work. He said that he has decided to remain at home.

WISCONSIN BRIEFS

Somerset — While Edward Campo was sawing wood with a sawing machine here Wednesday, he had his right hand caught in the saw, losing three of his fingers and cutting his wrist and arm severely.

Ashland—The entire equipment and quarters of the Machine Gun company were thoroughly inspected Thursday by Capt. Lorrain T. Richardson, U. S. A., who arrived in Ashland for this purpose. Mr. Richardson is inspector instructor of the Wisconsin National Guard.

Madison—Col. P. H. Swift, former legislator and war veteran, died suddenly on Thursday while visiting a relative here. His home was in Watertown, Wis. He was 72 years old. For many years he was a newspaper editor and publisher.

Milwaukee—Fifteen new cases of typhoid fever were reported to the health department Friday, making the total 228.

Madison—George W. West, Milwaukee, was here Friday to file papers for the proposed twenty-six delegates on the conservative ticket to the Republican national convention at Chicago Saturday.

Milwaukee—Ralph A. Uihlein, a member of the class of 1915 at the German English academy of Milwaukee, is among the students who have won honors for the first semester's work in the freshman class of the Yale scientific school.

Baraboo—Dr. George Theurer, who has been mayor of Baraboo for four years, has accepted the nomination to succeed himself.

Madison—The attorney general advised State Treasury Agent Michael Laffey of Milwaukee that a man who leaves medicine, salves and ointments at different homes in the city of Milwaukee and later collects money for such articles is under the law a peddler and is required to take out a state license.

Ashland—Announcements have been received from Crookston, Minn., of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Prudhomme. Mrs. Prudhomme, formerly Miss Ada Moeckle, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Moeckle, who were pioneer residents of Ashland and who moved to Crookston several years ago.

DAKOTA BRIEFS

Bismarck, N. D.—Under the hammer, 21,834 acres of fine Red river valley lands will be sold by Frank S. Henry, state land commissioner, next week, the sales beginning Monday at Fargo.

Mobridge, S. D.—At a meeting held here this week the Northwestern South Dakota Fair circuit was organized and the following officers elected: President, E. H. Noteboom, Selby; vice president, Ray J. Murphy, Lemmon; secretary-treasurer, F. B. Zimmer, Bowdle.

Aberdeen, S. D.—One year in the state penitentiary was the sentence imposed by Judge Thomas L. Bouck in circuit court here against Frankie Fry, who was charged with stealing three diamond rings valued at $575 from a jewelry company.

Killdeer, N. D.—V. A. Tillotson, manager of the Tillotson Traveling orchestra, has been engaged by the local Commercial club to manage the baseball team the coming summer.

Bismarck, N. D.—A. C. Hinckley leased the Grand theater to Harry Byeradt of Winona, Minn., and Frank Wolf of Los Angeles, Cal.

Center, N. D.—Hearing sounds from beneath a strawstack, Henry Lesch, farmer near Rosebud investigated and found three hogs which had been missing for seventy days. The animals had no water, and nothing to eat but straw, but were still able to walk.

Beach, N. D.—At the annual meeting of the Golden Valley State bank, J. Englehardt was elected assistant cashier. The surplus of the bank was increased by $3,000.

Shyenne, N. D.—Announcement has been made of the engagement of Edmund Boland, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Boland of Sheyenne, and Miss Anna Rafdis of Ontario, Can. The marriage will take place on Monday at the home of the groom's parents at Sheyenne.

Jamestown, N. D.—Thomas Sinnott has returned from Brainerd, Minn., hospital where he has been since his recent serious accident in which the scalp on the top of his head was nearly torn off. The doctors laid the scalp back in place, fastened it with some stitches and he is nearly recovered.

Fargo, N. D.—David Wilson, brick mason, aged 60, ill of heart trouble for the last two years, died Thursday at the Norgaard hospital, and funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Prior to his residence in Fargo, Mr. Wilson lived at Grand Forks and at Superior, Wis. He was a member of Fargo local, No. 1, of the Bricklayers' union.

PENINSULA BRIEFS

Calumet—Eleanor Maria Talbukka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Talhukka of Tamarack No. 5 location, died Wednesday of spinal trouble. The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon from the residence, Rev. Rautinen officiating.

Lake Linden — The 7-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Baril of the Trap Rock valley died Thursday. The funeral was held Friday afternoon from the St. Joseph's church at Lake Linden, Rev. Father Raymond officiating.

Houghton—George T. Greenleaf of Houghton has announced his candidacy for the office of Portage township clerk at the caucus on March 10.

Hancock—August Gauthier of Hancock has secured the contract to erect the new Gekas block on Shelden street, Houghton. The building will be 25 by 85 feet, with two stories, a basement and sub-basement.

Calumet—Funeral services will be held Sunday for John J. Hoskins, aged 50, a resident of New Allouez, who died at the family residence Thursday after a lengthy illness. He is survived by the widow, one daughter, Mrs. William Searle of Allouez, and sons, John of Ahmeek and Howard, Roland and Wilbur, all of Allouez.

Ishpeming—The funeral of Patrick Coughlin, who died suddenly Wednesday morning, will be held Sunday under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. He was 38 years old and the son of Mrs. Thomas Coughlin, who with several brothers and sisters survive.

Marquette — Four prisoners were brought to the penitentiary from Detroit this week as follows: Nathan Gorman, life, murder in the first degree; John Rutherford, 10 to 20 years, murder in second degree; Rufus W. Cantrell, two to five years, larceny, and Edward Gowdy, two to five years, larceny.

MINNESOTA BRIEFS

Barnum—Ed Erickson, who is engaged in the cement and concrete business at Duluth, has closed a deal with Joseph Miner for his forty-acre farm in section 11, 46-19, together with its livestock and farm implements. The consideration, it is reported, was about $2,000.

Stillwater—James J. White died last Wednesday evening at Bethesda hospital, St. Paul, after a two weeks' illness with pneumonia. The funeral was held Saturday morning in St. Paul. Mr. White was a former resident of this city and has many friends in Stillwater.

Blackduck—Rev. J. H. Frarey conducted a funeral service Tuesday at Spur for Rev. Samuel Smith, who had lived in that vicinity for the last twelve years. He was 81 years of age.

Wadena—George Johnson of Sebeka and "Young" Lawrence of Crookston are scheduled for a wrestling bout at the Germania hall next Wednesday evening, March 8.

Detroit—What was the best farmers' institute ever held in the city was that of Tuesday and Wednesday, when the seating capacity of the courthouse was fully utilized in order to care for the visitors. The institute corps consisted of J. J. Sprenger of Zumbrota Falls, as conductor; C. E. Brown, poultry expert from the Crookston station; Mrs. Bertha Dahl Lewis of Appleton, L. D. Staples of St. Cloud and A. J. Roush of Minneapolis.

Bemidji—Bemidji will be the center of several experiments in connection with fish hatching, according to plans made known to S. C. Bailey, local game warden, by Carlos Avery, state game and fish commissioner, and E. W. Cobb, superintendent of fish hatcheries.

Crookston—Harold A. Arpin of Grand Rapids, Wis., who was the successful bidder recently in the letting of four large ditch contracts in Polk county, is here preparing for his work, which will begin soon, and he plans on being here during the entire summer and season.

Wahkon—Miss Emily Wilkins, who has been telephone operator for some time, has resigned and will leave shortly for North Dakota. She will be succeeded by Mrs. Peterson and her daughter, Darlene, who have returned from Onamia.

Bemidji—Judge C. W. Stanton of the district court has denied the petition for the establishment and the construction of Judicial Ditch No. 41, on account of the fact that the proposed ditch will not be of such public benefit as will be commensurate with the estimated and probable cost and because there is no public necessity for the ditch.

Perham—A county unit of the Jefferson Highway association will be organized in Perham for the purpose of securing the routing of the highway, which extends from the Gulf of Mexico to Winnipeg, through Perham, Frazee, Detroit and Fargo.

Moorhead—The No-License and Law Enforcement League of Clay County has sent out letters to those who signed the county option petition asking them to attend the annual meeting of the league to be held at the Trinity Lutheran church in Moorhead March 7.

Minneapolis—The Rev. John Treacy, pastor of St. Mark's and later of St. Michael's Catholic churches in St. Paul, died Thursday night in St. Mary's hospital in this city. He was 36 years old. He left St. Paul in 1912 to become pastor of the Catholic church at Lamberton, Minn., but resigned six months ago because of illness. The funeral will be held Saturday.

Dividends in the Telephone Smile

There are dividends for you in the telephone smile—dividends in the good feeling, friendliness and co-operation it creates.

There are dividends for you in the knowledge that by your telephone courtesy and cordiality you win the higher regard of friends and associates.

There are dividends in the telephone smile in the fact that it makes the day run smoother for you and for others.

When you telephone, put the smile in your voice and collect the dividends.

DULUTH TELEPHONE COMPANY

Cuticura Stops Itching Instantly

Trial Free. Just Bathe with the Cuticura Soap, dry and apply the Cuticura Ointment

For Eczemas, Rashes, Itchings, irritations, pimples, dandruff, sore hands and baby humors, Cuticura Soap and Ointment are supremely effective. Relief is immediate and healment, in most cases, is complete, speedy and permanent.

Sample Each Free by Mail

With 32-p. Skin Book on request. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. 16, Boston." Sold throughout the world.

SOCIAL AND OTHER NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

McIntosh

McIntosh, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—A. J. Heath, publisher of the McIntosh Times has taken charge of the Grand theater.

L. O. Manger transacted business at Fargo Monday.

Simeon Solberg has begun work on the erection of a new building to be used as a meat market.

W. H. Moll returned Saturday from a three months' visit at Sleepy Eye and other points in the southern part of the state.

Mrs. Morris Norveson and daughter, Avis, returned Saturday evening from Grand Rapids, where she has been visiting with her husband for the past two weeks.

J. H. Holton was a visitor to Minneapolis the fore part of the week.

Arthur Jensen returned Tuesday from a business trip to Grand Rapids and other Iron Range towns.

John Sole of Winger was here on business Monday.

Rev. Kvaas of Mahnomen held morning and evening services at the Congregational church Sunday.

Mrs. H. F. King returned Thursday morning from a few days' visit with her sister, Mrs. Joseph Jorgenson, at Beltrami.

Mrs. Thomas Kelly and children left Saturday for an extended visit with relatives at Virginia, Minn.

Denis Jengal is confined to his home with an attack of rheumatism.

Mrs. Gotfred Stovern, who has been ill of typhoid fever and other complications for the past two weeks, died at her home Thursday morning at 2:15. Funeral services were held Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Gustafson returned from Fargo, N. D., Tuesday, where she went to attend the funeral of her niece.

Nick Pfeffer of Brooks was here Saturday.

The Commercial club, at its meeting Tuesday evening, elected officers for the ensuing year.

Theadore Rich has rented the Sole garage in North McIntosh and took possession this week.

Marcus Jorgenson returned from Beltrami Wednesday, where he has been visiting his son.

Julius Bagstad returned to his home at Winger Saturday after a week's visit with his parents in this city.

Austin Svein returned home from Climax Saturday.

Thief River Falls

Thief River Falls, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—George Dupont, county auditor for Red Lake county, spent Saturday here.

Miss Laura Carney, formerly with the Thief River Falls Grocery company, came from her Grand Forks home for a visit Saturday and Sunday.

C. O. Hubbell, formerly of the Minnesota division, served as relief agent at Overly last week during the illness of W. J. Smith, and is now at Adams as night operator in place of E. P. Lennon, transferred to Warren as operator.

On account of snow trouble on the Wheatline it has been necessary to place additional men at Overly. M. T. Ulier has been acting as clerk there and N. Pavek as night operator.

A. A. Stromberg has resumed work at Cardena vice C. A. Aittama transferred to Ogonah as agent.

M. P. Geeslin has resumed work at Green, N. D., in place of W. B. Davis, who is ill.

Mrs. Adolph Ebbinghausen and daughter, Cora, of Crookston, visited friends here last week.

Among St. Hilaire visitors were Sam Benson, Mrs. R. Wallin, Gust Erickson, Ben Johnson and Ed Hauske.

Mrs. Forsell of this city visited her sister, Mrs. Ina Johnson of St. Hilaire, last week.

Miss Ann Patterson and Miss Turner of the faculty of the local schools took advantage of the late holidays for a visit to the Patterson home at St. Hilaire, where were the Misses Mable and Inez Patterson, teachers in Fargo.

Rev. O. P. Staavas visited Goodridge last week on affairs connected with his church.

L. M. Stanton, the attorney, was a Goodridge visitor, as was Guy Halvorson.

Phillip Hawkins of Carmel visited this city on business.

The Continental Land company of St. Paul opened offices in the Union block in charge of O. C. McCormick.

T. A. Risberg of Holt visited the city Thursday.

Elmer Ohm has returned from Minneapolis, where he has been visiting relatives.

John Bratrud is back from his three weeks' business trip to Iowa.

Mrs. Adolph Ebbinghausen is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barbender of 206 Conely avenue south.

Miss Mussette Chryst has returned from a visit with her parents at Hudson, Wis.

Mrs. Knute Hillman left for her home at Fosston. She has been the guest of Mrs. Christ Storholm for the past two months.

New Duluth

New Duluth, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. Fred Bystrom went to Duluth Wednesday to meet her mother, Mrs. William Napier of Tower, who will visit her here for a few days.

Miss Winnifred Tower entertained Miss Florence Claassen and George Dewey.

L. S. Zalk, manager of the Model Clothing company, returned Thursday from a business trip to St. Paul.

Mrs. Earl Wannamaker, who has been here visiting her mother, Mrs. Charles Wills, for two months past, departed Monday for her home in Youngstown, Ohio. Mrs. George Moses gave an luncheon Sunday in honor of Mrs. Wannamaker, at which covers were laid for ten.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lockhart, Jr., of Duluth left this week for Saskatchewan, Can., where they will make their home in future.

Miss Esther Bystrom of Tower arrived last Saturday to spend a couple of weeks visiting her sister and brother, Mrs. A. C. Anderson and Frey Bystrom.

Miss Ethel Mason of West Duluth, who was one of the soloists at the meeting of the Community club Friday evening, was a guest of Miss Genevieve Metcalfe.

Misses Albena and Louise Barry were guests of friends in Duluth Wednesday.

Miss Hulda Erickson had as her guest Sunday evening Miss Florence Claassen, who left this week for Buffalo, where she will make her future home.

The committee in charge of the dance to be given by the Degree of Honor this evening met at the home of Mrs. Frances Fischer Monday afternoon to make sleeve bands to be worn at the dance. The committee consists of Mesdames Charles Christopherson, S. Mills, Miller, A. Kiedrick, Robert Le Wright and Misses Rose and Emma Fischer. Lunch was served by Mrs. Fischer.

Miss Hulda Carlson of Cloquet is a guest for the week at the home of her cousin, Mrs. John F. Graff, this week.

Mrs. Mary Clark was given a pleasant surprise Tuesday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Noble Sampson, the occasion being her 84th birthday. Those who attended were Mesdames Robert McDermott, Frank Puttman, Jerry Lockhart, Sr., Charles Christopherson, O. Sorenson, S. Mills, Charles Pearson, George Reindl, Charles Cannon and Robert Crager and Charles S. Palmer of Duluth. A delicious luncheon was served.

Mrs. Samuel S. Roborough was a Duluth visitor Thursday.

Mrs. David Engbloom arrived here Wednesday from Kansas City to join Mrs. Engbloom, who has been employed at the plant for the last two weeks.

The Degree of Honor lodge, No. 240, will give a dancing party in the Maccabee hall this evening.

Mrs. E. G. Banker entertained the Ladies' club at her home Wednesday afternoon. Those present were Mesdames Robert Bloyer of Duluth, S. Mills, Harry G. Olson, John Tennant, A. Kiedrick, Charles Pearson, Peter Knudsen and Miss Hulda Carlson of Cloquet.

Miss Ruth Partillo, former operator at the telephone exchange here, is taking treatment at St. Joseph's hospital, in St. Paul.

Mrs. Robert Crager of Duluth visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Wedell entertained Mesdames Charles Gustafson, Gust Jacobson, Larson, Theodore Ekstrand, Frank Brand, Luther Johnson and C. H. Helm at her home Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. F. M. Hicks returned home Wednesday after visiting her sister in Chicago and relatives in Remer for several weeks.

Mrs. Andrew Olson spent the weekend in Munger looking after her summer home.

Mrs. Theodore E. Ridgway left Tuesday for Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., where she will visit her parents. Mr. Ridgway will visit Youngstown, Ohio, and Cleveland before deciding where he will settle.

Cambridge

Cambridge, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—After a lingering illness extending over a period of two years, Louis Morlin, one of Cambridge's leading and respected citizens, died Tuesday, aged 68. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Reigh of Bigford and Mrs. Ross Dodson of Nashwauk, also one brother, Ismael Morlin, of San Diego, Cal. A brother and sister preceded him to the grave in Sweden. Rev. C. P. Edblom will officiate at the funeral on Sunday. There will be services both at the home and at the Lutheran church in the afternoon. Interment will be in the Lutheran cemetery.

Monday evening Miss Vivian Smith entertained a few of her friends. Progressive 500 was played at three tables. Miss Cynthia Babb and A. B. Hanson were the lucky ones and carried off the first prizes.

Miss Bertha Nyberg of Minneapolis is passing a few days at her home in East Cambridge. Her sister, Miss Bell Nyberg, is also home from Superior.

Mrs. E. Jonason of Fish Lake and daughter, Mrs. C. E. Johnson, from Wisconsin went to Minneapolis Wednesday to visit the former's sister and friends.

August Peterson of Deerwood was in town on business the first of the week. Mr. Peterson went from here to Minneapolis.

Rev. Armstrong and family, who had resided in Cambridge for several months, left on Thursday to take up their new residence at Henriette.

Wrenshall

Wrenshall, Minn., March 4.—Mrs. Charles Slickman visited Mrs. S. S. Johnson in Carlton Wednesday.

G. F. Sheetz of Pleasant Valley was here Monday.

George Bressler of Barker was in town Thursday.

Mrs. A. Abrahamson of Duluth visited in town Tuesday.

Edgar Dayton of Superior spent Monday in town.

The ladies' aid society met with Mrs. Tom Tiegen Wednesday.

David H. Lehman died at his home Monday after a lingering illness.

Dan Duffy of Carlton spent Sunday with his family.

Robert Steinberg is working near Cloquet.

Mrs. Charles Grover and son Hugh of Pleasant Valley spent Saturday in town.

The Misses Johnson were shopping in Duluth Saturday.

Hooken Anderson of Hayward, Wis., spent Saturday in town. Mr. Anderson is going to Port Arthur, Ont., soon on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Marble

Marble, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. George Wahl of Crosby is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cowhill.

Veron Allee of Taconite spent the fore part of this week with her sister, Mrs. Al Powers.

Miss Palmer of Coleraine was at the Olcott school this week.

Dwight Booth of Hibbing made his usual call here this week.

A. Norrgard returned home from Duluth Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dockeray and daughter, Rena were recent visitors to Duluth.

Miss Green went to Duluth Saturday morning to take in the "Bird of Paradise."

Will Van Horn was home Saturday from Goodland to visit with his parents.

Peter McGowan has an injured foot. He was hurt Wednesday at the mine.

International Falls

International Falls, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Bernie Pravitz departed last night for St. Louis after a short visit here.

Mrs. Marie Wallace, our librarian, left Wednesday evening for Wisconsin for a few weeks visit.

Lester M. Young, the new immigration inspector, in charge of this place, will be joined soon by this family.

Mrs. Arthur Adams, who has been visiting here for the last few months with Mr. Adams' mother, Mrs. John Berg, returned to her home in Minneapolis Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman departed Wednesday evening for their home at Millbank, N. D., after an extended visit with their daughter, Dr. Mary Ghostly.

B. M. Hamre of Wood Lake is here looking after his property interests.

Dr. R. H. Monahan went to the Twin Cities Wednesday evening.

Thomas Godin the Loman mail carrier, is having his boat put in shape for the coming season.

William Messersmith has returned from Duluth after a two months' stay.

Jake Greengaard has returned from Winnipeg, where he spent a few days on business.

Mr. Feldman of Northome and daughter, Mrs. Happy Plummer, of Manitoba, spent Wednesday here, the guests of Miss Lillian Feldman.

Sheriff White was at Loman on official business this week.

C. P. Kinney, townsite manager, made a business trip to Bemidji this week.

Ross Slack of Big Falls was in town Tuesday on business.

W. F. Marvin and family are preparing to remove to Grinnell, Iowa, their old home.

Street Commissioner Hall is smiling over the arrival of a son at his home.

Mrs. John Ross entertained at luncheon on Tuesday in honor of Mrs. R. J. Young. Mr. Young has resigned his position with the M. & O. Power company, and the family will remove to Minneapolis at an early date, where Mr. Young is to be connected with the speedway.

Frank Green has returned from Baudette, where he was called to embalm the body of Jack Maloney, a popular young man there, who died of typhoid fever.

Mrs. M. A. Shea of Anoka is visiting at the home of her son, Russell A. Harmon.

Supt. McIntyre of the public schools has returned from Detroit, where he attended the National Educational association convention.

Miss Annie Shelland of the office of the state superintendent of schools, and former superintendent of this county, has resumed her duties after a week-end visit here.

Ole Schele of Loman was in town the first of the week.

Mrs. Hattie Chamberlin has returned from Ray after selling her laundry at that place.

Angus McDonald, a homesteader from the Lindford section, died here at the county hospital and was buried on Wednesday.

Mayor and Mrs. Keyes have returned from the Twin Cities.

Emil Johnson of Margie died at the county hospital this week.

John Norton, assistant county attorney, attended the ski tournament at Virginia last Sunday.

George E. Church, Jr., formerly superintendent of the International Lumber company mills, has accepted a position in Mississippi.

Dr. R. H. Monahan is in the Twin Cities.

Iron River, Mich.

Iron River, Mich., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Ladies' Aid of the Swedish Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Charles Hane Wednesday afternoon.

Verner, the 10-year-old son of Samuel Peterson, died after a lingering illness Feb. 22.

Miss Lydia Trewartha was surprised by being given a linen shower at her home last week.

The delegates from the Presbyterian church to the Marquette conference gave a program Sunday evening.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lettle last week.

The card party given for the benefit of the St. Agnes church at the Odd Fellows' hall last Tuesday was largely attended.

Riverton

Riverton, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Little Hanley Lord is ill with pneumonia.

Orpha Johnson is among those who are sick.

The thermometer registered 25 deg. below zero March 1.

Clifford Westcott of Hillcrest was in town recently.

Georgia Frazer of Ironton attended the dance Saturday evening.

Mrs. William McGillery and daughter Phyllis called on Riverton friends Monday.

Vivian McFern of Brainerd spent Sunday at home.

The Misses Oleson spent the weekend at the Win Stearns home and also attended the dance at Williams' restaurant.

Mrs. Hasskamp of Iron Hub called on her son, John, and daughter, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lindstrom visited Sunday at Erlok Peterson's, out of town.

Mrs. Reber has returned to Aitkin after a short visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Sparks announce the birth of a daughter.

A new bus arrived Tuesday to carry the school children in District No. 45 to and from school.

Mrs. William McGillery came from Crosby Thursday to care for Mrs. S. S. Sparks.

Mrs. Andrew Lindstrom and children left Sunday for a visit at Loerch and other places.

Dorothy Betts of Brainerd spent Saturday and Sunday at William McFern's home.

Mrs. Ted Boober of Crosby visited Riverton friends recently.

Iron workers have commenced building an addition to the washing plant for the P. S. O. company. It is thought work will be completed by May 1 and everything be running full speed.

The dance at Williams' restaurant Saturday evening was well attended.

PAID POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

Inserted in behalf of the following named candidates by James A. Farrell. Amount to be paid, $25.

FOR PRESIDENT

WOODROW WILSON

Wilson delegates recommended unanimously by the state Democratic conference held at St. Paul, February 3rd. To be voted for at the state-wide presidential primaries Tuesday, March 14.

For Delegates at Large, Vote for These Four

B. F. NELSON, of Minneapolis	X
ANTON C. WEISS, of Duluth	X
DANIEL W. LAWLER, of St. Paul	X
W. A. JUST, of Rapidan	X

For 8th District Delegates, Vote For These Two

JOHN JENSWOLD, Jr., of Duluth	X
DOUGLAS GREELEY, of Virginia	X

ASK FOR A DEMOCRATIC BALLOT.

Iron River, Wis.

Iron River, Wis., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—T. N. Okerstrom of Port Wing is at the head of a company which has acquired the falls at the quarry on the Iron river, two miles south of Orienta, together with the flowage rights on the stream above, and there is a prospect that a power plant will be installed there before another season passes.

An instructive lecture on "Old Mexico" was given at the town hall last Saturday evening by Dr. Payne, a noted traveler and lecturer under direction of the extension division of the university of Wisconsin.

Bustian Lund, who joined a Canadian regiment and was injured during one of the battles, has been recently discharged from the hospital, though he will not be physically fit for service for some time.

The young people of the town of Tripp will put on a home talent play entitled "Courting Under Difficulties," at the schoolhouse in District No. 1 next Saturday evening. A basket social will be given following the play.

William Thompson, who is employed in Duluth, was home over Sunday to visit his family.

J. P. Jacobson spent Sunday in town visiting friends.

John Weden of Park Falls was an over-Sunday visitor at his home here.

Harry Schachte, who is employed at the Head of the Lakes, came here Thursday evening to visit relatives.

Mrs. Thomas Mitchell returned to her home in Duluth Tuesday after spending a few days with relatives here.

Chris Olson and Harry Dahl are visiting here.

James E. Andre of Washburn is spending a few days here.

Sam Vander Weide of the Alliance Realty company, Superior, was a business visitor in town last Thursday.

The Women's Monday Study club will meet with Mrs. F. Herbert next Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Morris were here from Washburn Thursday afternoon.

Miss Julia O'Brien left Tuesday for Superior where she will enter a business college.

Joseph Schachte transacted business at Washburn last Saturday.

Leone Lund and brother, King Hakon, visited Duluth last Friday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Herman Feb. 29, a daughter.

Harry Kennedy was down from Moqua Saturday.

Robert Athey, formerly of this city, a setter on the carriage at the Park Falls Lumber company mill, was seriously injured last week. He was hurried to the Riley hospital.

"Andy" Murray was here from Washburn and announced that he was a candidate for the Republican nomination for sheriff at the September primaries.

Mrs. Clara Miles and Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Johnson entertained about thirty of their friends at the home of Mrs. Miles last Friday evening. Progressive five hundred was played. The favors were won by Byron Ripley and Mrs. James Tomlinson and the consolation prizes were carried off by F. S. Herbert and Mrs. J. M. Casperline.

Mrs. Wm. Hauna of Idaho, was in town for a few days last week.

Chairman Albert G. Johnson, Cashier Ripley of the Wisconsin State bank and Judge Savage spent a few hours at the county seat on business last Saturday.

Mrs. Gidmark, mother of John A. Gidmark of Port Wing, Mich., died on Wednesday of last week after a long illness.

Brookston

Brookston, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald)—Village Recorder De Shaw has posted notices calling the annual election, which will be held on Tuesday, March 14. The following officers are to be elected. President, three trustees, recorder, treasurer, assessor, justice of the peace and constable.

Miss Gertrude Siegel of Virginia and Miss Sarah Sher of Hibbing are the cadets from the range high schools who will spend two weeks here receiving instructions in teaching at the local school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. De Shaw and daughter returned Monday morning from an over-Sunday stay at the E. Keable home in Swan River.

George Waugh, the Great Northern signal maintainer, who is stationed at this point, is enjoying a vacation of two weeks' duration. During his absence George Volz of St. Paul is filling the vacancy.

H. A. Martin departed Wednesday evening for Big Fork, where he will spend a few days at the home of his parents.

Mrs. A. Christensen was called to Superior Sunday to attend the funeral of her uncle, who died suddenly Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Fleming and daughter departed Wednesday for the state of West Virginia after spending a few days with relatives in Brookston and Hill City.

J. C. De Shaw and Peter Marshall were in Cloquet Saturday taking the civil service examination, which was held to select a successor to Rowe McCamus as postmaster at the local office.

J. H. Hicken, former Great Northern train dispatcher, with headquarters at Superior, was in the village Monday in the interest of the Bankers' Life Insurance company, which he now represents.

Aaron Erickson, who has made his home in this vicinity for some time past, will sail from New York city on March 9 for his old home in Sweden. Ill health is the cause of his return to his native country.

Rowe McCamus was at Grand Rapids Sunday.

The local friends of Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Carlson tendered them a surprise at the Duff hall Thursday evening and presented them with a handsome library table. The evening was spent in dancing and light lunch was served.

Baudette

Baudette, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. C. H. Dodds entertained fourteen children on Tuesday in honor of Jackie's birthday. The tots went to the Grand theater to a matinee after which they enjoyed a dinner at 6 p. m.

C. R. Middleton returned Sunday from a business trip to Bemidji.

Herman Miller returned Wednesday from a business trip to Duluth to buy equipment for a picture show at Spooner.

Henry Asmus resigned his position with the Standard Oil company to accept a similar one with the Home Oil company.

Mrs. Henry Asmus went to Warroad and Crookston on Sunday for a visit. Her sister, Mrs. Fred Hoyez, of Warroad, who visited here, went with her.

About thirty surprised Miss Julia Pederson on Sunday evening. The evening was spent at music and Rev. Aanestad gave a short talk. The occasion was in the nature of a shower for the bride-to-be.

Otto Diercks spent several days in Duluth on business.

Rev. Aanestad left Monday for Crookston, where he will attend a convention and from there goes to Minneapolis.

George Leahy left Monday for Maple Lake, where he will visit his mother.

J. L. Williams left Wednesday for a short business trip to Minneapolis.

Clifford Westcott of Hillcrest was in town recently.

Georgia Frazer of Ironton attended the dance Saturday evening.

Mrs. William McGillery and daughter Phyllis called on Riverton friends Monday.

Vivian McFern of Brainerd spent Sunday at home.

The Misses Oleson spent the weekend at the Win Stearns home and also attended the dance at Williams' restaurant.

Mrs. Hasskamp of Iron Hub called on her son, John, and daughter, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lindstrom visited Sunday at Erlok Peterson's, out of town.

Mrs. Reber has returned to Aitkin after a short visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Sparks announce the birth of a daughter.

A new bus arrived Tuesday to carry the school children in District No. 45 to and from school.

Mrs. William McGillery came from Crosby Thursday to care for Mrs. S. S. Sparks.

Mrs. Andrew Lindstrom and children left Sunday for a visit at Loerch and other places.

Dorothy Betts of Brainerd spent Saturday and Sunday at William McFern's home.

Mrs. Ted Boober of Crosby visited Riverton friends recently.

Iron workers have commenced building an addition to the washing plant for the P. S. O. company. It is thought work will be completed by May 1 and everything be running full speed.

The dance at Williams' restaurant Saturday evening was well attended.

Aitkin

Aitkin, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. S. H. Hodgeden and daughter, Miss Irene Hodgeden, departed Wednesday for Minneapolis and expect to leave Saturday night for a three weeks' visit with the John De Laittre family in Los Angeles and then proceed to Honolulu, H. I. In May they will return to the Pacific coast and be joined by Mr. Hodgeden and take a trip to Alaska. They expect to return home about July 1.

Miss Adelaide Snyder has returned from a visit with friends in the Twin Cities.

Elmer Tibbitts is seriously ill with heart trouble, following an attack of grip.

Mrs. M. Krech is ill at her home here and is under the care of a nurse from Duluth.

Mrs. L. G. Seavey and Mrs. George Snetsinger left Monday for Walker to visit relatives.

Judge and Mrs. Frank Hense went to Minneapolis Thursday.

E. A. Browning and family have moved to the Cuyuna-Mille Lacs location near Ironton.

Mrs. Peter Comrie of Winona, who has been a guest of her daughter, Mrs. F. E. Murphy, departed for her home Tuesday.

Mrs. S. H. Helm and Mrs. E. H. Krelwitz have issued seventy-five invitations for Tuesday afternoon and evening, when they will entertain at five hundred.

Miss Flora Miller, sister of Mrs. R. C. Trudgen, and Miss Gertrude Utz of St. Paul were week-end guests at the Trudgen home.

Miss Calla Williams arrived home Tuesday from Minneapolis.

Miss Elizabeth Casey returned Wednesday to St. Catherine's college, St. Paul, after passing a short vacation at home.

Mrs. W. O. Eddy gave a theater party Wednesday evening followed by supper and cards at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Edelbrock entertained five tables at five hundred at their home Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sawyer. Honors were won by E. E. Seavey and Mrs. A. J. Elmquist.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Murphy entertained at five hundred at their home Monday evening. Prizes were awarded to A. L. Sawyer and F. G. Turner.

Alfred Gabrielson has returned to Aitkin after spending the winter at Isle.

The third in the series of dancing parties given by the married people was held at the Foley hotel Tuesday evening, after which Dr. and Mrs. B. W. Kelly entertained several friends at supper at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood and children departed Monday for their home at Yellow Grass, Sask., Can., after a visit of several weeks at the homes of E. Jepson and Mrs. Ida Baillies. Elof Jepson accompanied them home.

Martin Wittrup has gone to Turtle Lake, N. D., where he has a position in the county auditor's office.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Falconer arrived home Sunday from Minneapolis where Mrs. Falconer spent four weeks in a hospital. She is making a good recovery after her illness.

Louis Johnson has been awarded the contract for building the new school house in district 105 near Kimberly.

Mrs. Irvine Walker of Grayling is visiting her mother, Mrs. Baumgarten.

Miss Hulda Siodin is spending a week in Minneapolis.

Miss Maurel Hanson has returned from St. Paul.

C. H. Mills of Brainerd was in Aitkin on business Monday.

Miss Mayme Weibler was hostess to the Young Ladies' Card club Wednesday evening.

Warroad

Warroad, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—W. C. Sorenson, an employe on the Great Northern railway freight, broke his left leg last Sunday morning. Mr. Sorenson was loading coal on his engine at the coal chute here when he slipped and fell from the platform to the ground. He was taken to the Warroad hotel, where he is cared for by Dr. Davis. He expects to be moved to Crookston today.

Next Monday evening, March 6, a minstrel show will be given at the Lyceum theater by local talent. The proceeds will go to the benefit of the Episcopal church.

Mrs. Asmus of Baudette arrived Monday. She will spend a week with her mother, Mrs. Sutliff, in America.

E. Miller of Swift was here Monday.

Gotfred Nelson and Ray Merdink were in from the Northwest Angle last Saturday and took out a load of supplies on their return.

Mrs. F. J. Hoyez visited in Baudette the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Sutton, who have been visiting their son and family, L. R. Sutton, left last week for their home in Youngstown, Sask.

Peter Orness and Frank Brown transacted business at the county seat Monday.

Phillip Murray and Alfred Stoskopf left with teams for Williams, last Sunday, where they will haul material for E. C. Wetherby.

Mrs. R. Kohler arrived last week from Frazee to spend a month with her husband. Mr. Kohler has charge of a portion of the ditching of Judicial Ditch No. 61.

Louis Mertz and William Fosmark came in from the Northwest Angle the first of the week.

County Attorney Hegland was in the city Monday, en route to Roosevelt.

Harry Clark came in from the Northwest Angle for supplies, Friday.

W. A. Holm was in the county seat on business Monday.

Michael Stoskopf and son, Lawrence, visited at Roseau Monday.

Eugene Gravelle has rented his farm to Ed Sanders, who came here from North Dakota last fall. Mr. Gravelle has been in poor health for the past year and will seek medical aid. He will also visit his daughters in Western Canada.

C. S. Blevins and T. F. Sprelter returned Wednesday from Crookston, Fergus Falls and other points in the state.

Joe Sardiff of Argyle, formerly of this place, is spending the week, the guest of his brother, Ed Sardiff.

Albert Porath of Piney, Man., and Miss Esther Thorson of Thief River Falls were married here at the Swedish Lutheran church, Wednesday morning, and left Thursday for Piney, where they will make their future home.

A fire broke out in the residence of Andrew Lofgren Friday of last week at 7 a. m. The fire had gained considerable headway before the fire department arrived, and it was only through efficient work that the structure was saved. The damages are estimated at $400, covered by insurance. The fire started in one of the rooms on the second floor and was caused by a defective stovepipe.

Warroad Lodge No. 160, I. O. O. F., will hold a special meeting Monday evening, March 6, to entertain the grand master and grand secretary of Minnesota.

W. A. Wright, who has been section foreman for the Canadian Northern railroad at this place for some time, has been transferred to Vancouver Island, where he will continue in their employ. Mr. Wright expects to leave about the middle of the month. Harry May of Vassar will fill his position here.

Dr. Herbert lectured to a large audience at the Grand last Friday evening. This was the last number of the Lyceum course.

Frank Hawley was in from Clear River the first of the week for supplies for his store. He reports that work has commenced to extend the America telephone line to Clear River postoffice.

Aitkin

Aitkin, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. S. H. Hodgeden and daughter, Miss Irene Hodgeden, departed Wednesday for Minneapolis and expect to leave Saturday night for a three weeks' visit with the John De Laittre family in Los Angeles and then proceed to Honolulu, H. I. In May they will return to the Pacific coast and be joined by Mr. Hodgeden and take a trip to Alaska. They expect to return home about July 1.

Miss Adelaide Snyder has returned from a visit with friends in the Twin Cities.

Elmer Tibbitts is seriously ill with heart trouble, following an attack of grip.

Mrs. M. Krech is ill at her home here and is under the care of a nurse from Duluth.

Mrs. L. G. Seavey and Mrs. George Snetsinger left Monday for Walker to visit relatives.

Judge and Mrs. Frank Hense went to Minneapolis Thursday.

E. A. Browning and family have moved to the Cuyuna-Mille Lacs location near Ironton.

Mrs. Peter Comrie of Winona, who has been a guest of her daughter, Mrs. F. E. Murphy, departed for her home Tuesday.

Mrs. S. H. Helm and Mrs. E. H. Krelwitz have issued seventy-five invitations for Tuesday afternoon and evening, when they will entertain at five hundred.

Miss Flora Miller, sister of Mrs. R. C. Trudgen, and Miss Gertrude Utz of St. Paul were week-end guests at the Trudgen home.

Miss Calla Williams arrived home Tuesday from Minneapolis.

Miss Elizabeth Casey returned Wednesday to St. Catherine's college, St. Paul, after passing a short vacation at home.

Mrs. W. O. Eddy gave a theater party Wednesday evening followed by supper and cards at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Edelbrock entertained five tables at five hundred at their home Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sawyer. Honors were won by E. E. Seavey and Mrs. A. J. Elmquist.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Murphy entertained at five hundred at their home Monday evening. Prizes were awarded to A. L. Sawyer and F. G. Turner.

Alfred Gabrielson has returned to Aitkin after spending the winter at Isle.

The third in the series of dancing parties given by the married people was held at the Foley hotel Tuesday evening, after which Dr. and Mrs. B. W. Kelly entertained several friends at supper at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood and children departed Monday for their home at Yellow Grass, Sask., Can., after a visit of several weeks at the homes of E. Jepson and Mrs. Ida Baillies. Elof Jepson accompanied them home.

Martin Wittrup has gone to Turtle Lake, N. D., where he has a position in the county auditor's office.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Falconer arrived home Sunday from Minneapolis where Mrs. Falconer spent four weeks in a hospital. She is making a good recovery after her illness.

Louis Johnson has been awarded the contract for building the new school house in district 105 near Kimberly.

Mrs. Irvine Walker of Grayling is visiting her mother, Mrs. Baumgarten.

Miss Hulda Siodin is spending a week in Minneapolis.

Miss Maurel Hanson has returned from St. Paul.

C. H. Mills of Brainerd was in Aitkin on business Monday.

Miss Mayme Weibler was hostess to the Young Ladies' Card club Wednesday evening.

Warroad

Warroad, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—W. C. Sorenson, an employe on the Great Northern railway freight, broke his left leg last Sunday morning. Mr. Sorenson was loading coal on his engine at the coal chute here when he slipped and fell from the platform to the ground. He was taken to the Warroad hotel, where he is cared for by Dr. Davis. He expects to be moved to Crookston today.

Next Monday evening, March 6, a minstrel show will be given at the Lyceum theater by local talent. The proceeds will go to the benefit of the Episcopal church.

Mrs. Asmus of Baudette arrived Monday. She will spend a week with her mother, Mrs. Sutliff, in America.

E. Miller of Swift was here Monday.

Gotfred Nelson and Ray Merdink were in from the Northwest Angle last Saturday and took out a load of supplies on their return.

Mrs. F. J. Hoyez visited in Baudette the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Sutton, who have been visiting their son and family, L. R. Sutton, left last week for their home in Youngstown, Sask.

Peter Orness and Frank Brown transacted business at the county seat Monday.

Phillip Murray and Alfred Stoskopf left with teams for Williams, last Sunday, where they will haul material for E. C. Wetherby.

Mrs. R. Kohler arrived last week from Frazee to spend a month with her husband. Mr. Kohler has charge of a portion of the ditching of Judicial Ditch No. 61.

Louis Mertz and William Fosmark came in from the Northwest Angle the first of the week.

County Attorney Hegland was in the city Monday, en route to Roosevelt.

Harry Clark came in from the Northwest Angle for supplies, Friday.

W. A. Holm was in the county seat on business Monday.

Michael Stoskopf and son, Lawrence, visited at Roseau Monday.

Eugene Gravelle has rented his farm to Ed Sanders, who came here from North Dakota last fall. Mr. Gravelle has been in poor health for the past year and will seek medical aid. He will also visit his daughters in Western Canada.

C. S. Blevins and T. F. Sprelter returned Wednesday from Crookston, Fergus Falls and other points in the state.

Joe Sardiff of Argyle, formerly of this place, is spending the week, the guest of his brother, Ed Sardiff.

Albert Porath of Piney, Man., and Miss Esther Thorson of Thief River Falls were married here at the Swedish Lutheran church, Wednesday morning, and left Thursday for Piney, where they will make their future home.

A fire broke out in the residence of Andrew Lofgren Friday of last week at 7 a. m. The fire had gained considerable headway before the fire department arrived, and it was only through efficient work that the structure was saved. The damages are estimated at $400, covered by insurance. The fire started in one of the rooms on the second floor and was caused by a defective stovepipe.

Warroad Lodge No. 160, I. O. O. F., will hold a special meeting Monday evening, March 6, to entertain the grand master and grand secretary of Minnesota.

W. A. Wright, who has been section foreman for the Canadian Northern railroad at this place for some time, has been transferred to Vancouver Island, where he will continue in their employ. Mr. Wright expects to leave about the middle of the month. Harry May of Vassar will fill his position here.

Dr. Herbert lectured to a large audience at the Grand last Friday evening. This was the last number of the Lyceum course.

Frank Hawley was in from Clear River the first of the week for supplies for his store. He reports that work has commenced to extend the America telephone line to Clear River postoffice.

Big Falls

Big Falls, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hutton spent Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Miller.

The teachers of the local school attended the teachers convention held at International Falls.

George Booth left for Tenstrike to start a bowling alley.

Mrs. Frank Siroux entertained the card club Saturday.

Mrs. C. L. Hillstead entertained a few of her lady friends at a card party Monday afternoon.

Louis Caldwell was a business caller Monday.

R. S. Tillson was in town Thursday.

Mrs. A. M. Jensen and Mrs. John Haluptzok visited Mrs. Charles Anderson Tuesday.

County Agriculturist Cochran visited the school Wednesday.

G. H. Gunkein was a business caller at the county seat the fore part of the week.

Dr. Sample was a caller in town Wednesday.

Knife River

Knife River, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Frank A. Starry of Ogilvie, Minn., has purchased the general merchandise stock of J. W. McCormick, the transfer taking place Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lackie of Two Harbors visited here Monday.

Chester Anderson was in Duluth Thursday.

H. Bauer made an inspection of the Iron Range records Monday.

Joe Hastings returned to his home in Two Harbors Thursday after working several weeks as a brakeman on the D. & N. M. railroad.

Fred Raubert of Two Harbors renewed acquaintances here Wednesday.

William Larson of Duluth is visiting N. Sinclair and family, arriving Wednesday.

Mrs. George Aimesbury was in Duluth Thursday.

Mrs. F. G. Buell returned Wednesday from a trip to Braham, Minn.

Mrs. W. T. Kendall made a business trip to Two Harbors Thursday.

Mrs. C. Barr visited in Duluth Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Reynolds returned Monday from an over Sunday visit to their daughter, Mrs. Dr. Adams Pfeiler, at Hibbing.

Gillis McDonald was a business visitor to Duluth Friday.

Chisholm

Chisholm, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—About twenty-five members of the Chisholm Homestead of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen attended the annual Hibbing-Chisholm banquet at the Oliver cafe in Hibbing Thursday evening to celebrate the ninetieth anniversary of the foundation of the order.

Miss Mary Marjorie Nelson, daughter of Dr. E. H. Nelson

Social and Other News of Our Neighbors

ber of friends at a bridge party Friday afternoon.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the German Reformed church held its monthly meeting in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon.

C. H. Matthews of Duluth, representing the General Electric company, was a business visitor in Calumet on Monday.

Capt. Thomas Hoatson, Gordon R. Campbell and Peter R. Ruppe are in Chicago attending a meeting of the directors of the Calumet & Arizona Mining company.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Simpson of Wardsville, Ont., who have been visiting with Rev. Daniel Stalker of Laurium, have returned home.

F. S. Carlton, president of the Calumet Business Men's association, has returned from an Eastern business trip.

James Orenstein is in Rochester, Minn., receiving treatment at the Mayo hospital.

Edward Ulseth has returned from Chicago.

Capt. C. H. Tolbetts and Sergeant W. S. Smith, officers of the regular army, spent a few days in Calumet the early part of the week.

J. W. Nelson of Duluth visited with Calumet relatives this week.

Dr. and Mrs. S. R. Edwards left Monday evening for New York city. Dr. Edwards will attend a New York eye clinic for a month.

George Des Rochers of Vivian's store is in the East on a purchasing trip.

M. Adams left Tuesday evening for Fond du Lac, where he intends to locate.

C. J. Smith of Duluth was a business visitor in Calumet Tuesday.

Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Strike of Osceola have as their guest, John Pryor of Vulcan, Mich.

Carlton

Carlton, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Misses Alma Ecklund and Sallie Albertson walked to Forebay Sunday, where they were the guests of Mrs. H. H. Waterson.

Mrs. J. A. Gillespie was a Duluth visitor Monday.

The Swedish Lutheran Aid society was entertained at Fred Olson's home at Thomson Thursday.

Mrs. Thomas Scammel was hostess to the members of the Catholic Aid society Thursday.

Mrs. W. M. Cain visited in Duluth Tuesday.

Miss Laura Lane was in Duluth Monday.

Mrs. A. R. Norman entertained the Christmas club Tuesday.

Mrs. R. Needham and daughter, Mrs. C. A. Smith, visited relatives in Duluth Wednesday and attended the "Bird of Paradise."

Mrs. E. J. Quinn and daughter, Miss Irene, of Brainerd arrived Friday afternoon to attend the dedication exercises at the high school. They departed the following day for St. Paul.

Fred Johnson returned Tuesday from a few days' visit at the home of his parents at Woodville, Wis.

An entertainment will be given at the high school Thursday evening for the benefit of the piano fund.

The Woman's Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. J. E. Yarlarn Wednesday.

The members of the Ald Society of the Methodist church were entertained at the home of Mrs. Charles Johnson Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Prosser returned to her home at Seymour, Wis., Tuesday after a week's visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. Oldenburg.

Rev. E. J. Peterson returned Tuesday from Minneapolis, where he had been in attendance at the church conference.

Mrs. J. B. Baumann was hostess to the members of the Embroidery club Saturday.

Revs. S. H. Swanson of Deerwood, Olaf Carlson of Brainerd and J. E. Gustafson of Aitkin were guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Peterson Tuesday, while en route from the Minneapolis conference to their respective homes. Rev. Mr. Gustafson was formerly pastor of the Carlton church and met many old friends while here.

Misses Charlotte Magnuson and Marion Flynn went to Duluth Wednesday to attend the play, "Bird of Paradise."

Ernest Ecklund and Miss Florence Armstrong saw "The Bird of Paradise" at Duluth Wednesday.

Mrs. O. Thoristenson of Wingate transacted business in Carlton Monday.

Miss Agnes Peacha entertained at a dancing party at her home Wednesday evening. Lunch was served.

Eveleth

Eveleth, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. W. M. Mahon returned Saturday from a six weeks' visit through points in the eastern part of the United States.

John E. Manthey spent Sunday in Duluth, returning Sunday night.

Max Newport of Wallace, known as Sax, visited here Saturday.

C. R. McCann, C. M. Dorway, J. M. Trevarrow, L. C. Magee, Henry Griswold and Dick Zeidler of Eveleth, and Ben Hayer of Virginia enjoyed the hospitality of W. F. Lawrence Sunday at his camp at Mile Post 39, on the D. & I. R. railroad near Two Harbors. Billie Lawrence has a logging camp there and also a fine bungalow.

Ben Hoyer of Virginia attended the Commercial club banquet here Wednesday evening.

Miss Florence Shapiro returned to Milwaukee Sunday morning, where she is attending Downer's college, her father, Max Shapiro, accompanying her as far as Duluth and returning Sunday evening.

H. S. Sherman, superintendent of the Genoa mines, went to Duluth on business Monday of this week.

Miss Steffie Rodgers of Chicago is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Isadore Shanedling.

Mr. and Mrs. James Branovick are visiting in Minneapolis. They are expected to return the latter part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesberg were in Duluth Sunday to attend the wedding of Miss Lillian Shenowski, a cousin of Mr. Mesberg, to Peter Gallop. Mr. Mesberg returned Monday morning, Mrs. Mesberg remaining with friends in Duluth until Tuesday.

O. E. Dahley of the Eveleth pharmacy was a business visitor in Duluth Sunday, returning in the afternoon by way of Hibbing.

A. E. Anderson of the Eveleth manual training school spent Sunday at his home at Winton.

Joseph Intihar, who underwent an operation at the More hospital Feb. 3, was taken to his home last Saturday, and it is reported that he is fast recovering his health.

Mrs. Margaret Smith returned to her home at Monroe, Wis., Monday of this week, after spending a month with her son, Adam Smith of Jackson street.

Mrs. George McCormick has been ill the past week with pleurisy. Her sister, Miss Jane Donnelly of Duluth, has been with her. Mrs. McCormick is reported as improving.

B. O. Greening, superintendent of the Eveleth schools, has been invited to act as toastmaster at the annual banquet of his Greek Letter fraternity in Duluth, March 25.

N. Toppari was confined to his home last week with a severe attack of the grip.

Mrs. E. K. Naftalin is confined to her room at the Park hotel with an attack of the grip.

N. Toppari was in Hibbing on business Wednesday.

Mrs. N. Toppari and daughter returned Tuesday from a visit in Hibbing.

Peter Cosgrove of Gilbert was a visitor in this city on business Tuesday.

Miss Nannie Nelson spent Sunday at Mrs. John Benson and son Herbert visited at Hibbing last week, returning with Mr. Benson Saturday. Mr. Benson her home in Two Harbors.

had been doing jury duty at Hibbing during the sessions of the district court.

Mrs. M. Magnuson of the Auburn location, Virginia, visited friends at Leonidas Saturday.

Mrs. C. O. McGowan of Duluth has returned to her home after a visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. Peterson at the Leonidas.

Miss Coral Divine of Two Harbors has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Tim Shea, this week.

Fond du Lac

Fond du Lac, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Armstrong of the power plant had their 4-year-old son christened Monday. The day also was their wedding anniversary. Rev. Farrell of West Duluth Asbury church officiated. Mrs. D. C. Hewitt, grandmother of the little son, and Mrs. Farrell and Miss Hammond of Chicago were present at the christening.

J. W. Russell, station agent, gave a talk at the Bethel in Duluth last Sunday evening.

Adolph Wick, who spent several months at the McCuen cottage, left the first of the week for Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Weber of Duluth made a short visit between trains Sunday.

A bundle shower was given to Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Hohn Saturday evening at the bride's home.

Miss Hilma Peterson had as her guest the week-end Mrs. Thomas Jackson of Carlton.

Mrs. Chambers, Mrs. C. A. Krause, Mrs. M. H. Day, Miss Hilma Peterson were the guests of Mrs. Clara Miller in Duluth Saturday.

Rev. E. F. Brown conducted services at the schoolhouse Sunday evening.

C. L. Rakowsky of Duluth made a short visit in Fond du Lac Sunday.

Mr. MacGovern and Mr. Durkin of the power plant gave a dancing party at the town hall Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Gust Nelson was a guest of honor at a party given Tuesday by a few of her lady friends. A dainty lunch was served and a social afternoon was passed.

A sleighing party from Gary drove to Fond du Lac Monday.

Rev. E. F. Brown left for Federal Dam to conduct services there Sunday.

Mrs. Cameron Hewitt attended a card party Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Bunnel in Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. William Miller of West Duluth were guests Wednesday of Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Engbloom.

Mrs. I. Westgaard entertained the Ladies' Aid of the Hope Congregational church at her home Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. C. A. Krause and Mrs. M. H. Day went to see "The Bird of Paradise" at the Lyceum Wednesday.

Rev. Charles Thorp, pastor of Pilgrim church, Duluth, will conduct services Sunday evening at the schoolhouse.

Rev. Andrew Anderson of Junction City, Wis., conducted services Thursday evening at the Swedish Mission church.

Miss Nellie Beckman left Thursday for Marble to be employed in a hotel run by Mr. Williams, who formerly ran the hotel at the power plant.

George Nelson has been ill for a few days and left for Duluth to consult a physician.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Windom of Duluth have shipped their household furniture and will permanently locate here. Mr. Windom will devote his whole attention to his farm.

McKinley

McKinley, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—A dance will be given at the village hall Saturday by the Gilbert high school orchestra.

Charles Goodman was an Aurora visitor Sunday.

Mrs. Erickson of Virginia visited at the Berg home on Sunday last.

The Republic Iron & Steel company houses at the Monica mine are being moved to the Schley location by Dan McKinzey of Virginia.

Bemidji

Bemidji, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Clarence J. Ihrig, a lumberjack, was brought to Bemidji with a two and one-half inch cut in his scalp, received while working in a logging camp at Blackduck.

Miss Marie Klein was the guest of Mrs. Beryl Neumann at Kelliher Sunday, returning home Monday morning.

Miss Gladys Armstrong entertained several friends at her home on Irving avenue last evening in honor of Miss Kate McDonald of Fisher, who is visiting friends in the city.

Guy McCormick received a bad cut on the thumb of his right hand at the Bemidji Box factory.

Mrs. Charles Thompson of Mill Park entertained the ladies of the Swedish Lutheran church in the church parlors Thursday afternoon.

Attorney Henry Funkley spent Wednesday at Ada on business.

H. L. Wilcox, who for the past three years has been general office logging clerk for the Crookston Lumber company in this city has resigned to accept a position as general sales manager for the Minneapolis Artificial Ice company.

D. B. Fuller, who last fall moved to Bemidji from St. Paul, and who until recently has been first assistant bank examiner in the office of the state superintendent of banks, has been promoted to deputy state bank examiner.

Mrs. C. G. Johnson was named secretary of the Woman's Study club to succeed Mrs. W. Z. Robinson, resigned, at a meeting held Monday afternoon at the library. She will fill Mrs. Robinson's unexpired term.

A. L. Gordon, the Shevlin merchant, was in Bemidji the first part of the week and left Tuesday night for Minneapolis to be the guest of friends for some time.

Smithville

Smithville, Minn., March 4. — (Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. Claus Johnson and daughter, Mable, visited in West Duluth Saturday with Mrs. W. A. Harboun.

Miss Annie Runkka of Thomson is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. John Priley.

Mrs. Mat Amundson entertained the ladies' guild at her home on Lenroot avenue Thursday evening.

Melvin Larsen spent Monday in Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Quackenbush visited with friends in West Duluth Sunday.

Mrs. Carl Carlson who has been ill at her home is convalescent.

Miss Ruth Renstrom was on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Amborg of the West end were the guests Sunday of Mrs. Almborg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Renstrom.

A. Nystrom of Duluth was the guest of Aug. Johnson this week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gravello of Morgan Park were the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Eisenech.

Miss Edith Swensen of Duluth was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Swensen.

Harold Stevenson of Duluth spent the last of the week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Folkerts.

Miss Ethel Overton spent the week in Duluth, the guest of friends.

The Harvey-Webb Christian Endeavor society will meet in the Methodist church Sunday evening. The leader this week will be Miss Lillian Lundquist.

Douglass Fell of Morgan Park was the guest of Aug. Lundquist Monday evening.

Misses Daisy Wahlen, Norah Wahlen, and Lillian Lundquist attended the surprise party given Miss Nettie Erickson at Morgan Park.

The members of Harvey Webb Christian Endeavor society had a sleighing party Saturday to New Duluth. Returning the party was entertained at the home of Mrs. M. Amundson. Refreshments were served, music and games were enjoyed.

Miss Lillian Lundquist visited in Duluth Tuesday.

William Kennedy of Duluth was a guest of A. Overton Sunday.

Mrs. J. G. Brink entertained informally Thursday at her home on Grand avenue. Five hundred was played at two tables.

Mr. and Mrs. John Priley who passed a month at Thomson with relatives returned to their home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harkins visited in Morgan Park Sunday, the guest of relatives.

Mrs. Andrew Odegaar visited in Duluth the first of the week.

Mrs. R. A. Folkerts passed Monday in West Duluth.

Mrs. E. M. Harkins spent the first of the week in Duluth.

Miss Agnes Neubauer of Morgan Park was the guest of her mother, Mrs. K. Neubauer, Monday.

F. W. Damkreager of New Duluth was a business caller this week.

Mrs. V. A. Dash and Mrs. H. H. Graff spent the first of the week in Duluth.

Gilbert

Gilbert, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—A. J. Trudeau and Dr. H. A. Radermacher entertained twenty friends Saturday night at a stag party.

Miss Elsie Fleming was an Eveleth visitor Tuesday evening.

Frank Bowman returned Monday from a week's visit in the Twin Cities.

L. O'Brien, James Teller, Ernest Coombe and Orris Rowe were Eveleth visitors Tuesday evening.

A. C. Hoel of Biwabik was a Gilbert visitor Tuesday.

Alex Sharpe, who has been away on an extended visit, has returned to Gilbert.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Edmonds and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schoch attended the Strand in Eveleth Saturday evening.

The following Gilbert women attended the bridge party given in Eveleth Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. T. Shea and Mrs. S. E. Helps: Mrs. N. J. Colvin, Mrs. H. A. Radermacher, Mrs. M. B. Elson, Mrs. C. L. Newberry and Miss Josephine Flannigan.

Joseph Lopp has returned from a three weeks' visit in St. Paul.

P. J. Boyle of Eveleth was a Gilbert visitor Wednesday evening.

T. A. Gahan was a Virginia visitor Wednesday.

Richard Lakso was an Eveleth visitor Wednesday.

Supt. H. S. Sherman of the Genoa mine was an Eveleth visitor Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Celia Freeman attended the Lyric theater in Virginia Wednesday evening.

Mrs. W. Rutherford of Mesaba is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trengove of the Elba location.

H. T. Lindahl and Frank Indihar were Virginia visitors Wednesday evening.

Mrs. R. E. Brown was a Virginia visitor Wednesday.

George W. Everitt, Mayor Fred Barrett and W. H. Radermacher attended the meeting at Mountain Iron Thursday evening to promote the proposition of having an inter-range mail service instituted on the Mesaba electric railway.

Mrs. C. B. Nimmo entertained the Thursday Night Bridge club. The prizes were won by Mrs. George Everitt and William MacMahon. A delicious luncheon was served with a color scheme of pink and green. The centerpiece was a large bowl of red carnations set in green ferns.

Mrs. Frank Bowman and son Costin left Thursday for Minneapolis, where they were called by the illness of her brother.

Barrows

Barrows, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—On Wednesday evening of last week some Brainerd people came out in two sleighloads and spent the evening in Peck's hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bailey of Brainerd spent a few days with Mr. Bailey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bailey, south of town.

Sam Clay of the Crow Wing country was in town on business the last of the week.

H. R. Parry was in town Monday with of wood for the town hall.

M. Grande and F. Revier came from Manganese Saturday evening to spend Sunday with their families.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Peck and son, John, went to Fort Ripley Monday afternoon, where they attended the hard-time social given by the school.

John Wahl of Duluth was in town Tuesday looking after business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Nichols of Wiseton, Sask., visited their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Peterson, Monday and Tuesday. They left Tuesday afternoon for Duluth, where they will visit relatives and friends before returning to Saskatchewan.

Mrs. E. S. Klasey was a Brainerd business caller Saturday.

Miss Mae Staples went to Lincoln Friday evening to spend Saturday and Sunday at her home there. She returned Sunday night.

Cuyuna

Cuyuna, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss May Buchanan visited in Aitkin Sunday.

Edward Olson and daughter have been in Duluth.

Mrs. G. A. Anderson is taking the mud baths at Jordan, Minn., which are proving beneficial.

The Presbyterian church was wired for electric lights by Pete Christianson of Deerwood.

Mrs. Oscar Carlson has returned from Duluth.

Cuyuna sportsmen are interested in the shoot of the Riverside Gun club to be held in Brainerd.

A masquerade ball was given at the Electric theater on Saturday evening. Music was furnished by Bjorklund's orchestra.

Two Harbors

Two Harbors, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Robert F. McKee, son of Rev. and Mrs. A. H. McKee, left Wednesday for Minneapolis, where he has accepted a position. Edwin Strand has taken the job formerly occupied by McKee in the timekeeper's office of the Duluth & Iron Range.

Archie Boyd of West Duluth is here visiting his daughter, Mrs. Carl P. Magnuson.

Miss Emma Paulson of Hibbing is spending the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Paulson.

William J. Davis has returned from an extended visit in Portland and Seattle, and has resumed his duties as locomotive engineer on the Iron Range railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. William N. Moulton have returned from a month's vacation at Hot Springs, Ark., where they went for Mr. Moulton's health.

H. J. Laner, night chief train dispatcher for the Iron Range, left Tuesday on his annual vacation, which he will spend in Arizona.

Mrs. David W. Owens has returend to her home in Biwabik after a short vilst with Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Owens.

Mrs. W. J. Burns of Tower is here visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Burns.

Sheriff Emil Nelson made a business trip to Winton on Tuesday.

William Feller and family of Luverne, Iowa, have arrived here. Mr. Feller has purchased the Soderberg farm and will make his home in Lake county.

The Lake county board of commissioners will meet in monthly session next Tuesday.

Mrs. James Cunningham arrived here this week from Minneapolis to join her husband.

Miss Martha Mattson of Aurora is visiting with relatives here.

Miss Cora Devine is spending the week visiting with her sister in Virginia.

Miss Flora Noel of Eveleth is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Lawrence this week.

The Two Harbors Cadet band is now making arrangements to give a concert at Knife River. The date has not been definitely fixed.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Williams have moved to Duluth to make their future home.

Mrs. Fred Raubert and daughter, Catherine, are spending the week-end with relatives at Lakewood.

Miss Bernette Hayes has returned from a week's visit with her sister, Mrs Lambert at Ely.

Mrs. M. O'Connor has returned from a week's visit to relatives and friends in Eau Claire, Wis.

Mrs. Andrew Conley of Knife River is ill at the Two Harbors hospital.

J. W. Pickering, Duluth & Iron Range agent at Hornby, has resumed his duties after a week's illness at the Burns-Christensen hospital.

Miss Nettie Zurbrick of Duluth has returned to her home after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller.

Mrs. William Congdon of Tower was the guest of Mrs. R. L. Burns on Wednesday.

Mrs. Fred Hiller entertained the Thimble club at her home Thursday afternoon. Those present were: Mesdames L. V. Scott, Nels Walstrom, John Eckhom, Harry Swalm, Frank Falk, Frank Strand, William Sweiger and Miss Zurbrick of Duluth.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur La Force at the Burns-Christensen hospital on Monday.

George Van Valkenburgh, William Platt and Fred Rankin left Thursday for Florida, where they will spend the

(Continued on page 24, first column.)

DULUTH STORES

Are now in direct touch every day with the farm and outside towns by Uncle Sam

WHY THIS PARCEL POST DEPARTMENT PAYS THE ADVERTISER

Because it reaches the kind of people the merchant wants to sell.

Because it appeals to its readers in a way that will support his advertising.

Because a maximum proportion of its circulation is among people who buy.

Because its adveritsing value is so recognized that the fact that an article is advertised in its columns influences their orders on that article.

MR. MERCHANT, haven't you something to sell to the thousands of readers who look to this department for buying suggestions?

CALL OR WRITE THE PARCEL POST DEPARTMENT, DULUTH HERALD, FOR DETAIL INFORMATION.

PARCEL POST NEWS

Published Every Saturday.

COMMUNICATIONS.

All communications should be addressed to the Duluth Herald Parcel Post Editor.

PARCEL POST RATES.

The weight limit is now 50 pounds in the local, first and second zones, or 150 miles from the starting point, and 20 pounds in all other zones.

The rates for the Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth zones are as follows:

1 pound, Third zone 6c, and 2c for each additional pound to 20 pounds.

1 pound, Fourth zone 7c, and 4c for each additional pound to 20 pounds.

1 pound, Fifth zone 8c, and 6c for each additional pound to 20 pounds.

1 pound, Sixth zone 9c, and 8c for each additional pound to 20 pounds.

The pound rates in the First and Second zones, a distance from Duluth of 150 miles, will be:

1 pound	5c	26 pounds	30c
2 pounds	6c	27 pounds	31c
3 pounds	7c	28 pounds	32c
4 pounds	8c	29 pounds	33c
5 pounds	9c	30 pounds	34c
6 pounds	10c	31 pounds	35c
7 pounds	11c	32 pounds	36c
8 pounds	12c	33 pounds	37c
9 pounds	13c	34 pounds	38c
10 pounds	14c	35 pounds	39c
11 pounds	15c	36 pounds	40c
12 pounds	16c	37 pounds	41c
13 pounds	17c	38 pounds	42c
14 pounds	18c	39 pounds	43c
15 pounds	19c	40 pounds	44c
16 pounds	20c	41 pounds	45c
17 pounds	21c	42 pounds	46c
18 pounds	22c	43 pounds	47c
19 pounds	23c	44 pounds	48c
20 pounds	24c	45 pounds	49c
21 pounds	25c	46 pounds	50c
22 pounds	26c	47 pounds	51c
23 pounds	27c	48 pounds	52c
24 pounds	28c	49 pounds	53c
25 pounds	29c	50 pounds	54c

Ordinary Postage Stamps can be used on all packages now.

INSURANCE ON PARCELS.

A mailable parcel may be insured for 5 cents on a valuation up to $25 and 10 cents on a valuation over $25 and up to $50.

C. O. D. SERVICE.

The sender of a parcel on which the postage is fully prepaid may have the price of the article and the charges thereon collected from the addressee on payment of a fee of 10 cents in postage stamps affixed, provided the amount to be collected does not exceed $100. Such a parcel will be insured against loss, without additional charge, in an amount equivalent to its actual value, but not to exceed $50.

The person to whom the package is addressed will not be permitted to examine the contents of a C. O. D. parcel until it has been receipted for and all charges paid. C. O. D. parcels will not be accepted when addressed to the Philippine Islands.

SPECIAL DELIVERY.

The postoffice department has arranged that upon payment of 10 cents additional any parcel post package will secure immediate delivery.

LIQUORS

Wanigas Whiskey

Rye or Bourbon (7 years old), per gallon....$4.00
Panama Whisky, per gallon....$3.00
Chetwoode Whisky, gallon....$2.50

Write or telephone us for prices on assorted case lots wines, whiskies and brandies.

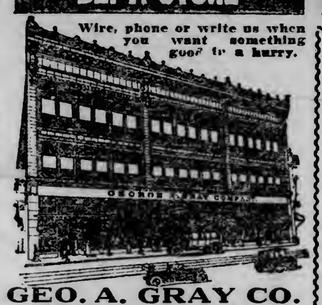
Send for price list. All goods guaranteed.

J. J. WALL

Wholesale Wine Merchant.
Grand 287. Melrose 1435
310 WEST SUPERIOR STREET,
Duluth, Minnesota.

Shipped by express.

DEPT. STORE



Wire, phone or write us when you want something good in a hurry.

GEO. A. GRAY CO.
113-115-117-119 West Superior St., Duluth.

DRY GOODS

"Where Values Reign Supreme."

STACK & CO.

Dry Goods, Cloaks, Suits, Millinery and Shoes,

21 and 23 West Superior St., Duluth

SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO MAIL ORDERS.

PHOTO SUPPLIES

ECLIPSE PHOTO SUPPLY CO.

"THE KAMERA SHOP."

17 FOURTH AVENUE WEST. Commercial Club Bldg.

Developing and printing done right. Prices are right and fifteen years' experience to back our guarantee.

ANSCO CAMERAS, CYKO PAPER, and Supplies for All Cameras and Kodaks.

SHEET MUSIC

PIANO BARGAINS

$350 Piano now.....$175
$250 Piano now.....$85
$350 Piano now.....$100

These Are Real Bargains.
CALL AND SEE THEM.

BOSTON MUSIC CO
18 and 20 Lake Ave. North

PRINTING

J. J. LeTOURNEAU PRINTING CO.,

321-223 WEST FIRST STREET. Duluth. Minn.

Printers, Lithographers

Engravers and Binders

The largest and most complete printing establishment at the Head of the Lakes.

Special Attention to All Mail Orders.

PRINTING

PRINTING

of Quality and Prompt Service at the

LANE-GOLCZ PRINTING CO.

130 and 132 WEST MICHIGAN ST. Melrose 1604—Grand 2269-D.

FURNITURE

What We Advertise

You Can Order by Mail

The same special prices will be given our mail-order patrons.

WATCH OUR ADS FOR

Furniture Bargains

F. S. KELLY FURNITURE CO.
DULUTH, MINN.

FURNITURE

ASK

Complete Housefurnishers.

BAYHA & CO.
DULUTH, MINN.

If It's About Housefurnishing!

Prompt Attention Given

JEWELRY

SPALDING E. E. ESTERLY JEWELER DULUTH, MINN.

428 West Superior Street.

Established 23 Years.

Watches and Jewelry at Right Prices

SEND US YOUR ORDER.

FLORIST

FUNERAL DESIGNS

Low Prices.
We Specialize.
PROMPT SERVICE.
Orders sent out same day received.

ALPHA, Florist
131 West Superior St.
PHONES:
Melrose 1356.
Grand 1026.

PRINTING

Quality Printing

If you desire something novel and unique for your advertising, call us up and we will execute the work to your entire satisfaction.

Greer Printing Co.
124 West Second Street
Both Phones 288.

OPTICIAN

OPTICIAN

Make an appointment by letter to have your

EYES TESTED FREE

I use all the latest appliances. I do all kinds of repairing. Work returned same day, post paid. Lenses accurately duplicated from broken pieces.

S. B. MILLARD, Optician
Over Miller-Albenberg Co.
Opposite 10c store.

FROZEN FISH

Fresh From the Lake

Fresh Frozen Fish

Lake Superior Herring just received—per hundred pounds, $3.25 in sacks; $3.50 in boxes. Pike, $9.25 per 100 lbs. Pickerel, $6.25. Tullibees, $6.25. Salted Lake Superior Herring, late catch, $3.25 per 100-lb. keg. Salted Lake Superior Trout, $7.50 per 100-lb. keg. Order today. We guarantee satisfaction.

LAKE SUPERIOR FISH CO.
Established 1889.
Dock No. 1. 208 East First Street, Duluth, Minn.
References: American Exchange National Bank.

CLOTHING

"The One Price Store."

Orders for Male

Attire will be properly and promptly filled by the

Columbia Clothing Co.,
Formerly "The Great Eastern."
Third Ave. W. & Superior St., Duluth.

SHOES

SHOES for EVERYBODY

All kinds that are new and good, up to $6.00 and $7.00. Special values at $3.50 and $4.00.

THE SUFFEL CO.,
103 West Superior St.
DULUTH.

PRINTING

Rankin Printing Co

Robt. Rankin, Manager.

PRINTING

OF ALL KINDS

OUT-OF TOWN TRADE SOLICITED.

We make a specialty of Union Label Water Mark Paper.

221 West Superior St. Axa Bldg.

CARD ENGRAVING

Engraved and Embossed

Calling Cards

—by our own artists.

Card and Wedding Engraving, Monogramed Stationery, Rubber Stamps, Seals, Stencils, Badges, Etc.

Consolidated Stamp & Printing Co.
14 Fourth Avenue West

SOCIAL AND OTHER NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

TWO HARBORS

(Continued from page 23.)

ernainder of the winter. All are engineers on the iron range and will return as soon as the ore season opens.

Miss Clara Markham was operated on for appendicitis at the Burns-Christensen hospital on Monday.

The first annual Moose dance was given at the Glen hall Thursday evening. A large crowd attended.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William J. Trainah on Tuesday. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Nels Hess on Tuesday.

Mrs. C. S. Embody of Maple, Wis., is visiting her husband at the Burns-Christensen hospital.

Mrs. Adolph Schroeder of Ely is here visiting Mrs. R. L. Burns.

Mrs. Roy Hillman and children have returned home after a visit with her parents in Ely.

Edward Busby left Tuesday for St. Paul, where he has accepted a position with a drug company.

Dr. Mackedon of Knife River was the guest of Rev. Fr. Patt the first of the week.

Harvey G. Scott left Tuesday for England, Mich., for a month's visit with relatives.

Mrs. Frank Hughes and daughter of Proctor are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Seltz.

Mrs. B. C. Kain of Mankato, Minn., arrived here Tuesday to attend the funeral of Donald, the 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Seltz.

Thomas Owens has returned from Brooklyn, Wis., where he was called by the death of a relative.

Mesdames W. L. Fowler, Thomas Silkinghorn and Edward Conliff were hostesses at a card party at the home of the former on Thursday and Wednesday afternoons. Honors were won Wednesday by Mrs. W. N. Moulton and Thursday afternoon by Mrs. J. R. Dan.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl P. Paulson entertained a number of friends at their home on Friday evening.

George Munford of this city has been appointed on the membership committee of the State Automobile association.

Ontonagon

Ontonagon, Mich., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The ladies' guild gave a supper in the basement of the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening.

John Kaafsic of Portland, Or., is a visitor in the village.

Mrs. William Ross, Sr., is suffering from an attack of the grip.

Floyd Wagner went to Calumet Thursday.

Emmett Cole is ill with bronchitis.

Frank Grath is convalescing.

Mrs. Louis Verrier of Mass, Mich., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Mary Woodbury.

Miss Ursula Stanard of Rockland, Mich., is the guest of Mrs. R. J. Kneeone.

Richard Barbeau of Greenland, Mich., was a business trip here this week.

Marion Houle of Rockland, Mich., is the guest of Miss Eleanor Spellman.

James R. Corgan returned from the upper country Tuesday.

W. J. Labine spent Sunday at Calumet.

Ward Rodsen and Russel Chappel of White Pine spent Sunday here.

James Buyers of Houghton made a business trip here Tuesday.

Miss Anita Huddleton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. O'Rourke.

William Davison left for Detroit Thursday.

Roy Ferguson left for Detroit Thursday evening.

Littlefork

Littlefork, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—"Mr. Bob," given by the high school pupils Feb. 24, was a success. About $40 was realized. The money will go toward paying for a stereola.

The teachers from this section attended the county institute at International Falls last Friday and Saturday.

Postmaster Jameson went to the hospital at International Falls last week. He is much improved.

Principal Magladry and his assistant, Jayne Crossdale of Margie, visited the school Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrier spent Sunday afternoon at the Vandervalk home.

Mrs. Fred Pelland returned from a visit in the central part of the state Sunday morning. Mr. Pelland and family went to the homestead south of town on Sunday.

O. M. Paulson was at the county seat Saturday.

Harleigh Parker took his wife to the school at Lindford Monday morning.

Mr. Nangle, representative for the Jangle Tie & Pole company, called on Mr. Miller, local representative, recently.

Vernon Jameson won first place in the written local spelling contest. Byron Manery won the oral contest. Both are of the Central school. Keiver, Lapoyland and Forsyth sent representatives.

Mrs. William Deteker left for a short visit with her daughter, Mrs. Polling of Moose.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemmer spent Sunday at home. They are organizing a Sanitarium lodge at International Falls.

Miss Kilgor of the Net River school and Miss Kendall of the Johnson school visited the local school.

Sandstone

Sandstone, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—D. L. Rankin of St. Paul was the guest of friends here the first part of the week.

Miss Esther Nelson of Grantsburg arrived Monday to visit relatives here.

W. A. Erwin left Thursday to transact business in Pine City and Altkin.

Miss Frances Pegg returned to St. Paul yesterday after a short visit at her home here.

Mrs. N. Vale arrived from Virginia Wednesday to visit her father, George Toney.

The W. C. T. U. will hold their next meeting March 8 at the home of Mrs. I. Bullis.

On Thursday, March 9, the Catholic ladies' aid will meet with Mrs. A. Beranger. The ladies' aid of the I. O. G. T. will meet at the hall of the lodge, and the Baptist ladies' aid will meet with Mrs. Louis Nelson.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Anselm Sironen on Wednesday, Feb. 24, and a baby boy to Mr. and Mrs. Chris Rudisuhle on Tuesday, Feb. 29.

Mrs. W. G. Allen and baby returned Thursday from Staples, where they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Donaldson.

Joe Halam, who has been visiting friends here since Christmas, returned to Alexander Bay, N. Y., Wednesday.

Oscar Larson was a Hinckley visitor Monday.

Bert Stout went to Duluth Monday.

Mrs. Emily Campbell left Monday for a short visit in Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Colby were Duluth visitors Saturday.

Mrs. H. Kruse and son left Friday to visit relatives in Superior.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wenner spent Sunday in Duluth.

James Bissett left Tuesday for Red Granite, Wis., where he will be employed.

R. W. Wedgerwood and J. F. Hawley were Pine City visitors Friday.

Fred McArdle left Friday for Lithonia, Ga., where he will be employed in the Alex Kelly quarries.

The I. O. O. F. were hosts at a reception given in the I. O. G. T. hall Thursday evening, to which the families of the members of the Rebekah lodge of Sandstone and the Rebekah and Odd Fellow lodges of Hinckley were invited. A program was given consisting of readings, recitations, instrumental duets, vocal music and addresses by Senator William Campbell of Minneapolis, George Empey and P. A. Christianson of Hinckley. After the program a banquet was held.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rourke spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Stark at Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Kruse and daughter, Mrs. Sievert, left Tuesday to visit relatives in St. Paul.

Albert Larson and Sigfred Johnson went to Cloquet Saturday to attend the district convention of the I. O. G. T. lodge.

The "Princess of Poe" presented under the auspices of the school Tuesday evening drew a packed house.

Fred Dahlberg returned Monday from Duluth, where he attended a Socialist meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Swan Isaacson returned to Grasston Monday after a visit here with relatives and friends.

H. C. Hansen returned Tuesday from a business trip to Duluth.

Keewatin

Keewatin, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—T. T. Riley of Grand Rapids was in town Thursday.

Dr. C. F. Carstens of Hibbing was in town Friday.

C. A. Darling of Duluth was here Friday.

Robert Downing was at Hibbing Saturday.

Dr. Lufburrow was in Duluth Friday.

Philip Stone spent Sunday with his brother, County Attorney Stone of Grand Rapids.

Joe Canta spent Sunday in Duluth.

Ed Mahan went to Hibbing Monday.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Mackl Tuesday.

Mrs. M. Virginia of Hibbing called here Wednesday.

Albert Newman and John Webb were in Hibbing Wednesday.

"Andy" Olsen of the Wahl Candy company called on trade here Tuesday.

Mrs. Jake Jaffy was a Hibbing shopper Tuesday.

Frank King of Grand Rapids was here Tuesday.

Tom Dandreu was at Hibbing Saturday.

Mrs. Nels Lindahl visited her son, Sigrid, at Buhl Tuesday.

Aleck Ekstrom of Hibbing was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Al Newman returned from Hibbing Thursday.

Emily With was a Duluth passenger Sunday.

J. Beecroft and mother left for Michigan Monday.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Nick Spadaccini Wednesday.

Mrs. M. Doty went to Hibbing Wednesday.

The Catholic aid met at the home of Mrs. Charles Sevoy Wednesday.

John Milan and Victor Wakkinen were at Nashwauk Thursday.

Patrick McGuire returned to Keewatin Monday after an absence of six weeks.

Charles Adams of Aurora is spending the week here with his family.

Deerwood

Deerwood, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Deerwood's new depot being erected by the Northern Pacific railway is rapidly nearing completion. It is of brick with a slate roof.

The concert band played Friday evening at Hilyar's hall.

Deerwood is making big preparations for its market day to be held March 11. The use of good seed corn will be boosted and provisions will be made to supply seed.

The first village ticket in the field is: For mayor, L. J. Alberts; clerk, Julius O. Hage; trustees, William Trupukka, Anton Torgerson and Frank Moore; treasurer, Gust Oberg; assessor, Charles Oberg; judges, Robert Archibald and William Maley; constables, Charles O. Olson and Peter Moe.

The sawmill of T. T. Haaland will soon be in operation at Hamlet Lake.

Mrs. T. F. Cole visited in Brainerd Wednesday.

Sheriff Claus A. Theorin was here on official business Tuesday.

Sidney Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Cole, is attending Pillsbury academy at Owatonna.

Mrs. Ray Sellers has returned from Minneapolis, where she visited her sick mother.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid society was entertained by Mrs. Donald Quinlivan.

Mrs. H. W. Macomber has returned from Duluth, where she was operated on at a hospital.

Erick Westerberg of Brainerd visited in Deerwood this week.

The Augsberg Society of the Norwegian Lutheran church met at the church on Thursday evening.

The card party of the Altar Society of the Catholic church was well attended.

Bagley

Bagley, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Hazel Wagner returned to her home at Clearbrook Tuesday after spending the fore part of the week here visiting friends.

Mrs. Bertha Nelson of Manfred, N. D., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edward Engebretson of the town of Copley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hanson and son, Mervin returned Sunday from Minneapolis, where they attended the state convention.

David Elliason of the town of Rice died at his home on Feb. 28. The funeral was held on Friday from the Free church here.

The card party given by the Royal Neighbors at the I. O. O. F. hall Friday night was one of the social successes of the season. Dancing rounded out the evening's entertainment after the awards were made.

One of the best basket ball games of the local season will be played on Saturday evening, when the Bagley girls' team will meet the Bemidji team.

Frazee

Frazee, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Nona L. Regean, who spent the past two months here, left Wednesday for her home in Hornnell, N. Y.

Mrs. Ralph Parks of Park Rapids is a guest of her mother, Mrs. John Neuner.

Miss Anna Schmitz left Thursday to visit her sister in Fargo, N. D.

Miss Skogen, who has been nursing a case of diphtheria, left Monday for her home in Hillsboro, N. D.

Dick Schmitz returned Monday from a few days' visit in Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. Strunck of Minneapolis were guests Sunday of Mrs. H. Backus.

Mrs. Mike Daly of Perham was a guest Monday of Mrs. James Daly.

Mrs. Durwood Lyman of headquarters camp came here this week to visit relatives.

Miss Emily Strengens left Monday to visit her brother at Staples.

Miss Ethel Sperry spent Monday in New York Mills.

Arthur Meyers returned Friday from Minneapolis.

Mrs. A. Koschnick returned Monday from the Perham hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Schmitz spent Saturday in Perham.

Mr. and Mrs. James O'Neal of Claresholm, Can., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Chilton.

E. A. Shew, Senator J. H. Baldwin and William Hoffman attended a good road meeting in Perham Monday.

Frank Bucholz returned Monday from a business trip to Bend, Or.

Mrs. Halvorsen of St. Cloud was a guest this week of Mrs. George Baer.

Morris Rubenstein this week attended to business in Minneapolis.

Oliver Field of the Park Region college at Fergus Falls came home Monday on account of illness.

Mrs. Lloyd English of Minneapolis is a guest of Mrs. Alfred Johnson.

Wallace Jancke has purchased the old First National Bank building and will move his grocery business in this spring after the building has been remodeled.

The members of the Epworth league were entertained Tuesday evening at a leap year party at the home of Margaret and William Briggs.

Alborn

Alborn, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Those who went to Canyon for the basket social and dance last Saturday evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Tolof Myklebye, Carl Swanson, Fred Carlson, George Landahl, Arthur Johnson, Oscar Mell and Sidney Shipley.

Miss Grace Dinwiddie spent Saturday and Sunday at her home at Grand Rapids.

Merritt Andrus, G. W. Mell and Charles Wickstrom attended the school board convention at Virginia.

Elmer Truman, who has spent the winter in Illinois, visited a few days with his parents and brother here while on his way to his home at Mydale, Can.

Gust Johnson of Meadowlands visited friends here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marklund entertained at dinner last Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Hans Skarr and Mr. and Mrs. Nordeen.

Miss Torah Wohlin, who underwent an operation at St. Luke's hospital at Duluth, returned to her home last Saturday.

Mrs. Jackson, who has been very sick at her home, had to be taken to a hospital at Duluth Wednesday for treatment. Mrs. Ingelbretson of Duluth has taken Mrs. Jackson's baby to her homo until its mother recovers.

Mr. Whitley, traveling salesman for the Mendenhall, Christensen & Graham company of Duluth, called here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Shipley entertained Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mell last Saturday evening and Mr. and Mrs. Gust Truman on Sunday.

Mrs. Ryan of Burnett was a recent visitor with her daughter, Mrs. Andy Maloney.

A new hardwood floor has been laid in the schoolhouse basement and next Saturday evening, March 11, the Alborn boosters will give a dance there.

A large number of new books were received this week for the school library.

George Landahl of Proctor visited at his home here Sunday.

Spooner

Spooner, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—A farewell party was given in honor of Louis Arnold at the home of Edward Daoust on Monday evening. She was presented with a souvenir spoon of Spooner. Lunch was served, covers being laid for six.

Mrs. Marian of Wabasha, sister of Miss Cordelia Koelmel, arrived Monday evening to visit her sister.

Neil Keyo was arrested Monday evening on a petit larceny charge. His trial was on Tuesday and he was found guilty by Judge Kyler, who sentenced him to pay a fine of $15 and costs or stand committed to the county jail at Bemidji for fifteen days. He went to jail.

Alfred Moe of Rainy River, Ont., and Ernie Fuller and John Heglund of this place left Wednesday morning for Bend, Or., to accept positions at the Shevlin sawmill plant at that place. All are former Shevlin employes.

Mrs. Bert Lohnes returned Sunday from the range towns, where she visited her husband, who is scaling timber for the state.

Anton Levandosky, the Williams postmaster, was in town Thursday to attend Jack Meloney's funeral.

S. S. Carlton was another of the Williams residents in town yesterday, attending the John Meloney funeral.

J. E. McGrath, an attorney of St. Paul and member of the state legislature, transacted business in town Wednesday.

S. V. Topping, the ditch contractor, has returned from the Twin Cities, where he spent nearly a week. He purchased a large tractor and grader, which he intends to use on the ditch roads for which he has contracts.

One of the largest barns in the north country has just been completed on the Mrs. William Munroe farm along the route of Judicial Ditch No. 13 in Rapid River township.

A valuable horse belonging to Lewis Ogren of Carp died this week at the Rydberg place in East Spooner.

M. D. Weeks is visiting relatives at Crookston, Wadena and other points for a few days.

Miss Ethel Topping returned home Sunday after visiting friends along the route of Judicial Ditch No. 13.

Herman Miller was a pasenger for Duluth Monday evening on business. He expected to be gone several days.

Miss Esther Flyberg left Monday morning for Warren after several weeks visit with friends in this section.

J. H. Meloney and wife of Williams came here on Sunday evening to visit their nephew, Jack Meloney, who is seriously ill at the Spooner hospital.

Jutian M. Peterson left Monday for International Falls, whence he will leave for the Twin Cities.

Pine City

Pine City, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—R. W. Hitchcock of Sandstone has been here in the interests of the General Inspection company of Minneapolis, rerating the town for fire insurance risks.

Miss Ida Merrimann and Albert Hayny were married at the Catholic church Monday forenoon at 10 o'clock, Rev. Father Leo performing the ceremony in the presence of about one hundred and twenty-five friends of the contracting parties.

Mrs. C. E. Sjostrand and daughter left Wednesday for their home at Warren after a two weeks' visit at the home of her brother, A. W. Asplund.

The Degree of Honor and Workmen lodges and their families enjoyed a social evening at Stekl's hall Tuesday evening.

F. W. Irons and family, living east of town, were called to Hinckley Tuesday to attend the funeral of his father, Thomas Irons, which was held Wednesday.

Rev. Herbert Parish, formerly pastor of the Methodist church here, but now located at Cloquet, greeted old friends in town Monday evening and Tuesday morning.

Ishpeming

Ishpeming, Mich., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Several changes went into effect Thursday among the officials of the Cleveland Cliffs Iron company in this district. S. B. Elliott of Negaunee is now assistant to M. M. Duncan. A. J. Yungbluth, auditor, has been made purchasing agent and will be succeeded by Charles J. Shaddick as auditor. He will be succeeded as paymaster by H. L. Ramsdell and it is expected that several other changes in the main office will be made. A successor to S. R. Elliott as superintendent of the Mass, Negaunee, Athens and Jackson mines has not been named as yet.

The funeral of John Mahaney was held in Champion Thursday morning, the body having been taken there for interment. Mr. Mahaney was 77 years old and had lived with his son-in-law, John Beaupred, West Johnston street, for some time.

Two candidates have already announced themselves for the city treasurer job: Frank Sundberg and Andrew Erickson.

The Ishpeming high school basketball team will play the Normal school team Saturday evening at the Normal gym in Marquette.

John S. Olson will leave Sunday for Milwaukee and Chicago, where he will spend several days on business.

Mrs. A. Hendrickson and son, Carl, have returned from a several months' visit with relatives in Weiser, Idaho.

Mrs. F. J. Baker entertained the members of the Whist club Wednesday afternoon at her home on Canada street.

The members of the Rebekah lodge will give a 10-cent social in the Odd Fellows hall Monday evening, March 6.

The senior reception given Friday evening at the Northern State Normal in Marquette was largely attended by Ishpeming young men.

The funeral of August Mercier, who died Tuesday night, was held Friday morning with services in St. Joseph's church at 9 o'clock.

Negaunee

Negaunee, Mich., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Alice Swanson, daughter of the late Alfred Swanson, died Tuesday night in St. Luke's hospital, Marquette, where she was taken ill with convulsions. Miss Swanson was born in this city eighteen years ago and since the death of her parents had made her home with relatives at Skandia. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 from the residence of Gust Anderson, Rock street, Rev. C. E. Lindquist, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church, conducted the services.

Paul Honkavara, who runs an automobile line between here and Palmer, is still able to run his cars. This is the latest Honkavara has run his car since he has been in business the past seven years.

The Negaunee City basketball team and a Marquette basketball team will play next Monday at the Adelphi roller rink.

E. J. Guay of Marquette, who was in the city Wednesday, sold the moldings and the interior finish to J. Erickson, the contractor of Ishpening, to be used on the new block to be erected by Joseph Lowenstien.

Ted Weidenhofer left Wednesday evening for Hibbing, Minn., where he will reside permanently.

Mrs. Laverne Seass left Wednesday evening for Marquette to visit with her mother at St. Mary's hospital.

W. S. Wright of Marquette, spent Wednesday here adjusting the losses of the fire which occured last week.

Five dogs were poisoned on the streets Wednesday. As the dogs were valuable, the owners will arrest the guilty party if caught.

The work on Peter Brandlund's new residence has been completed by J. Erickson & Son of Ishpening.

Zim

Zim, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—L. M. Osborn of Virginia was a recent caller at the home of his cousin, Miss Lucy Osborn.

Clair Kenworthy returned from Eveleth Monday, having visited there over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cook returned Tuesday morning to Cotton, having been the guests at W. S. Johnson's home several days.

Mrs. C. O. Stenlund was an Eveleth caller Tuesday.

William Byrnes, Jr., transacted business in Virginia Tuesday.

Emil Johnson was a business caller in Eveleth Tuesday.

L. Nelson returned to Canyon Tuesday, having spent Monday here the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Alfred Olson.

Mr. and Mrs. Knute Peterson are the parents of a daughter born Wednesday.

Mrs. Nels Peterson entertained the ladies' aid society Thursday afternoon. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Alfred Olson, April 6.

Theodore Rask and Mr. Johnson are home from Superior, where they have been employed by the Great Northern Railway company.

A. J. Bawden of Duluth was a guest of S. W. Levin Sunday evening and Monday.

Cohasset

Cohasset, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—A surprise was given Mrs. James Crawford at the home of Mrs. Charles Brown, Tuesday afternoon. After enjoying a couple of hours at cards, lunch was served.

L. F. Steward and M. Dean spent a few days in Minneapolis this week on business pertaining to the woodenware company. It is rumored that the Manasha Woodenware company has bought a controlling interest in the plant here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Stokes entertained the five hundred club at their home Wednesday evening. Six tables were played and a delicious lunch enjoyed.

The M. E. Ladies' aid formed a sleighride party and gave Mrs. M. M. Hursh of Grand Rapids a surprise Thursday evening. From there they went to the home of Mrs. H. Ranfranz, where they spent an enjoyable evening and had refreshments.

The dance given in the village hall Thursday evening was well attended.

Evelyn Land is spending the week in Deer River.

Rev. H. J. Snyder preached at the Christian church Sunday evening to a large congregation.

The school classes of the M. E. Sunday school taught by Annie Dunn and Gertrude Palmer enjoyed a sleighride Friday afternoon.

Hyram Tracy left Monday for Swan River.

Mrs. J. W. Land will entertain the Christian Ladies' aid Wednesday.

Mrs. Joe Prouix will entertain the Atlas society Thursday.

The township caucus of the town of Bass Lake was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. Kerr.

Brainerd

Brainerd, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Elsie Foster has gone to Dubuque, Iowa, to visit her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wohlfahrd.

Floyd Brown of Aitkin, manager of a hardware store, has been here visiting relatives.

William C. Deering of Crosby was a Brainerd visitor Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hense of Aitkin were in the city Thursday.

E. F. Gross of Deerwood was in the city on business.

Mrs. H. J. Holchkiss has been very sick.

Steven Cloutier of Superior, Wis., was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Frazer. Mr. Cloutier is a brother of Mrs. Frazer.

W. G. Miller is sick at the Northern Pacific hospital.

D. E. Whitney has returned from a business trip to the Twin Cities.

Senator George H. Gardner is recovering from an attack of tonsilitis and the grip.

The annual election of Ascalon commandery of Knights Templars will occur on Tuesday evening.

John Haraldson, who has been in Alaska for the past eighteen years, is visiting his father and other relatives in Garrison township.

Brainerd chapter, Royal Arch Masons, held a special convocation on Tuesday for work in the past master degree.

Brainerd lodge of Elks Thursday evening elected these officers: Exalted ruler, J. J. Cummins; esteemed leading knight, R. R. Gould; esteemed lecturing knight, A. F. Victor; esteemed loyal knight, George Coutu; secretary, J. C. Higbee; treasurer, B. L. Lagerquist; tyler, F. S. Parker; representative to the grand lodge meeting at Baltimore, J. J. Cummins; representative to the state convention at Duluth, S. F. Alderman.

Mrs. H. A. Olson is visiting in Crow Wing.

J. C. Higbee attended to business matters in Fort Ripley.

G. D. Clevenger went to Little Falls Friday afternoon.

W. B. Lutz, ticket agent of the Northern Pacific in Brainerd four years ago, was in the city Friday. He was accompanied by H. J. Bills, district passenger agent of the Lehigh Valley Railroad company on his first trip to Brainerd, who was favorably impressed by the country.

Hibbing

Hibbing, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Josephine de Boer arrived Sunday from Chicago and accepted a position as teacher of the fourth grade in the Washington school.

The Leap Year dancing party given by the members of the Oliver club in their clubrooms on Cedar street Friday evening was a success.

Harry Burnham, who has been confined to his home for several days with a severe cold, is able to be up.

Mrs. F. O. Rockwell arrived here Monday evening from Fargo, N. D., for a week's visit at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Redfern of 422 Mahoning street. Mrs. Redfern accompanied her sister from Duluth.

Mrs. Ralph Barker left Monday afternoon for Ely to visit Mrs. Margaret Brown.

Hibbing people who attended the performance of the "Bird of Paradise" at the Lyceum theater in Duluth Monday evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Anton Seibel, Mrs. John Messner, Mrs. Florence Lilliedale, Harry Margulis, Louis Helstein, Frank Jones, Paul Berautto, Albert Johnsen, Miss Norma Cohen, D. T. Collins, Thomas Sachs, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams and Con Keppel.

Mrs. Thomas Sachs entertained the Wednesday Bridge club yesterday afternoon at her home on Fourth avenue. Cards were played at three tables. The hostess captured the first prize. Luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Godfrey returned Monday evening from a few weeks' visit at West Baden, Ind.

Mrs. E. J. Phelps was hostess to the members of the "N. T. M." club Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. T. R. Webster was the most successful player and received a silk sewing bag.

Those who attended the dancing party given by the "Onitcheon" club at Chisholm Wednesday evening were: Messrs. Clinton Barrett, Ray Moore, Carrol Booth, Percy Webster, Harold Brose, Tom Ryan, J. Cooper, William Hooker, Percy and Bert Carmichael. All reported a jolly good time.

Mrs. Augusta Schirmer entertained Wednesday evening at her home in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Waltz of Sioux City, Iowa, who is here for a several weeks' visit.

W. P. Chinn and F. E. Nichols of Elba were business visitors here Friday.

F. E. Lister, manager for the Mesaba Telephone company at Duluth, was a in the village Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hostettler are entertaining Mrs. Messau of Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hutchinson of Alice announce the birth of a son Monday.

Mrs. C. C. Colton, who has been the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Halladay, for several days, left Thursday noon for her home in Duluth.

Taconite

Taconite, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The dance given by the Taconite ball team Wednesday evening was a success. A lunch was served Coleraine, Marble and Bovey were represented.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Stiles have returned to Duluth after visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Anderson and family of Michigan are at the Cartier home. Mrs. Anderson is a sister of Mr. Cartier.

Miss Stella Larsen of Bovey was the guest Wednesday of the Misses Eva and Pearl Trombly.

Serona McComber entertained young friends at his home Friday evening.

Miss Margaret Tresedder of Marble was the guest Wednesday of friends in town.

Mrs. Heller and granddaughter, Miss Helen Metcalf, of St. Paul are guests of Mrs. Robert Loux.

Mr. and Mrs. Cedarstrom have returned home from Bessemer, Mich.

Mrs. T. Emery left Wednesday for Deer River to be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Olson.

Miss Mary Reilly of Coleraine was a recent guest of the Misses Nora and Lucille Byrne.

A. D. Connors of Proctor was a Taconite visitor Wednesday.

Miss Anna Brown is spending the week in Coleraine.

H. Quigley of Duluth was a business caller in town Saturday.

Hermantown

Hermantown, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. G. Martin is seriously ill at her home here.

Mrs. C. Klosowsky of Duluth is staying with her mother, Mrs. G. Martin, who is ill at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Erick Lundberg of Adolph are the proud parents of a little daughter, born Saturday, Feb. 26.

Mrs. Gust Johnson will entertain the Ladies' Aid of the Five Corners church Tuesday, March 14, at 2 at her home, instead of on the regular day, Wednesday, March 8. Everyone interested is cordially invited.

Miss Margaret Brown entertained twelve friends at a party given in her cabin Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Fred Johnson returned Saturday from Duluth, where she has been staying with her daughter, who has been ill with the grip for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Klemik will entertain at a dancing party this evening at their home.

Miss Nannie Erickson of 1928 West Second street entertained a few of her friends at her cabin here Wednesday.

Mrs. Peter Fichan, who was operated on for cancer last summer, is still ill and confined to her home.

Dan Donaghey of Duluth Heights is busy hauling wood this week from Fred Schilling of Five Corners.

The Modern Woodmen of America of Hermantown gave a dance in the town hall Saturday evening for the benefit of Frank Kolz, who has been confined to his home all winter with blood poisoning in his hand.

Barnum

Barnum, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The boys in the Barnum high school, assisted by several of the young men of the village, entertained their fathers at the high school Friday evening.

A boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Duesler last Friday at the home of its grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Duesler, in the town of Skelton.

When Peter Hard was here from Mahtowa last week he purchased a registered Holstein yearling bull from W. S. Ramer at Nemadji. The dam of this animal is one of Mr. Ramer's best cows and has a record of fifty pounds of milk daily.

Tuesday afternoon the neighbors of L. Aldren gathered at his home near Big Lake and gave him a birthday surprise party. They presented him with a handsome upholstered rocking chair as a souvenir of his 56th birthday.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will give a supper at the home of Dr. Shannon next Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hill and children from Superior arrived Thursday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Neelund, Mrs. Hill's parents.

The Ladies' Aid of the Swedish Lutheran church will meet Wednesday afternoon, March 8, at Mrs. S. J. Bloomquist's home.

Miss Catherine Little, who is attending the Central Business college at Duluth, spent Saturday and Sunday with her mother here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Kivo gave a surprise party at their home Saturday afternoon for their little daughter Lempi in honor of her birthday.

Dave Beck was at Duluth Sunday atteading the Socialist convention as the delegate of the Barnum local.

There will be a meeting of the Equity society Monday morning in Ostlund's billiard room, W. J. Gilbert, presiding.

Ed Berquist and Ed Losenski, the Moose Lake electricians, are putting in the electrical fixtures at the new creamery.

Bessemer

Bessemer, Mich., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Alma Anderson, daughter of Mrs. Alfred Anderson, and Edgar V. Running of this city were married at the A. Ekman home, Rev. Ekeberg officiating. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ekman wer the only attendants. Only a few of the most intimate friends and relatives were present.

John Hendrickson of this city purchased the Frank Mertig cigar factory at Wakefield and took possession this week.

At the present term of circuit court sixteen applicants were granted citizenship papers.

The C. & N. W. railway has men grading and making preparations to build a new side track from the Anvil switch west that will hold about 112 cars.

Mrs. O. R. Hamilton left yesterday for Marquette for a short visit before returning to her home at Lansing. Mrs. Hamilton has been visiting her mother, Mrs. W. W. Gray, since the first of the year.

Mrs. J. F. Finnegan of Ironwood was a Bessemer visitor on Wednesday.

Miss Bessie Hallan of Marinette is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. S. J. Williams.

Miss May Kenney has returned to Chicago after spending several weeks here visiting friends.

Ironwood

Ironwood, Mich., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mr. and Mrs. George N. Sleight are spending a few days at their cottage on Mercer lake.

Messrs. Yosh and Orms spent Sunday at Iron Belt.

C. I. Anderson has sold his hardware and furniture business to Harry Weinberg, who has been employed as a clerk at Loule Ladin's store for several years. Mr. Weinberg will continue the business at the present place.

Mr. and Mrs. George Larson have returned to Duluth after visiting friends here for a few days.

Mrs. Oscar Anderson, who came here to attend the funeral of her cousin, Lloyd Larson, left Wednesday for Rhinelander, Wis., to visit relatives for a few days before returning to her home at Minneapolis.

Supt. E. T. Duffield has returned home from Detroit, where he attended the National Educational association's annual convention.

Frank Blackwell and daughter Jean arrived home Thursday morning from Chicago and Racine.

Mrs. C. M. McDonald, who spent several days here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cannon, has returned to her home in Chicago.

J. F. Kadowsky, agricultural expert for Gogebic county, is at Lansing, Mich., this week attending the roundup of the farmers' institute at the agricultural college. While away he will investigate the various types of milking machines with a view of installing one at the Maple Hilly dairy farm of C. E. Johnson.

Capt. and Mrs. William Bond have returned from Battle Creek, Mich., where Mr. Bond received treatments for several weeks. His health is much improved.

Mrs. Weaver and daughter Rachael of Iron Belt were here Thursday.

Gogebic commandery, Knights Templar, has accepted an invitation from Rev. C. M. Frazer of the First Presbyterian church at Bessemer, to attend church there on Easter Sunday.

Miss Edna Perkins of Diorite, Mich., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Joseph Perkins, Curry street.

The local fire department was called out Thursday afternoon to extinguish a fire which did $300 or $400 damage to the roof of a cottage on Curry street, owned by A. D. Goodwin. It is thought that the fire started from a spark from the chimney.

Fire broke out at the home of Felix Chouinard, Aurora location, about 8:30 Thursday night which for a time threatened to completely destroy the home. The prompt work of the fire department kept the blaze confined to the roof and wall around the chimney. The loss is estimated at $400, which is covered by insurance.

Dr. Ira Prout of Wakefield visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Prout, this week.

Mrs. Getchell, mother of Howard Getchell, who has been visiting here for several months, left Wednesday for her home at Marinette, Wis. Mrs. H. Getchell and daughter Helen accompanied her and will visit there for a short time.

Crosby

Crosby, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Claus Theorin, sheriff of Crow Wing county, was here from Brainerd Tuesday to conduct a couple of sheriff's sales.

Peder Larson transacted business at Brainerd Wednesday.

The M. W. A. lodge initiated six new members last week. The membership of the order is increasing rapidly.

William Johanson this week purchased of the Murphy garage at Ironton a Studebaker delivery truck.

Frank Bloomfield and Miss Florence Fuller, who accompanied the Lovdahl family to Fargo last Saturday, returned with them Sunday afternoon.

The Friday Study club met at the home of Mrs. H. L. Nicholson. Papers were read by Mesdames Gaylord, Young and Garceau.

Mrs. I. C. Iverson of Duluth is here this week as the guest of her mother and her brothers, Edward and Fred Romain.

Nels and John Le Deaux of Brainerd visited Wednesday with the Le Deaux family of this city.

The Presbyterian ladies' aid met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. H. Elftman.

Mrs. M. F. Crosby and son, Hazen, left Wednesday for a month's visit with friends and relatives in Duluth and Eau Claire, Wis.

Ed Congdon left Tuesday for Minneapolis on business.

Oscar McCormick, a former resident of Crosby, arrived Thursday to spend a few days attending to business matters. He is now employed as foreman by the Shulin contracting firm of Alexandria, Minn.

Gust Olander of Brainerd has accepted a position with J. L. Fobert, the tailor.

Mesdames Gulgren and Humble entertained Tuesday afternoon in the Humble apartments. Five hundred was played at ten tables after which luncheon was served. The head prize was won by Mrs. Louis McKenna and the second by Mrs. B. B. Gaylord.

The Altar society of the Catholic church will give a card party in the I. O. O. F. hall Monday. Refreshments will be served.

Superintendent Houghtelin returned Tuesday from the national convention of superintendents at Detroit, Mich. On his return he visited the schools of Gary, Ind.

Mrs. E. G. Ingalls and son left for a two weeks' visit with relatives in Aitkin.

The Crosby high school girls basket ball team played their first out-of-town game of the season with the Aitkin high school team Friday night.

Fred Young has received from Congressman Lindbergh the appointment to enter West Point and will take the entrance examination March 21.

Adam Saari and Walter Jacobson were Duluth visitors the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Striegel have returned from a week's visit in Minneapolis.

night. The meeting will be held at the new Trout Lake school.

The C. I. C. Adult Bible class at the Methodist church will conduct a platform meeting at the church next Thursday evening in the interest of Bible study in the Sunday schools of Itasca county.

Judge Martin Hughes of Hibbing, C. C. McCarthy of Grand Rapids and Dr. Hardy Ingham of Duluth spoke at the Methodist men's banquet at Fraternity hall here last Friday evening. One hundred men were seated at the tables.

Rev. W. R. Harshaw of Minneapolis will speak at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening. He is an unusually good speaker and he will have a good message for the people.

The following Coleraine ski riders attended the tournament at Virginia last Sunday: Alton Jones, Bernt Hanson, Jennings Reilly, Howard Stevens, Richard Goodridge, Arthur Blair, Kermit TriGillis and Ole Mangseth. Richard Goodridge met with a painful accident at his first jump.

Cass Lake

Cass Lake, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.) — Governor Burnquist and State Forester Co. arrived in Cass Lake Friday morning to inspect the national park. A 5 o'clock business men luncheon was served at the Endion hotel in honor of the distinguished guest.

Miss Zimmerman was a week end guest of her friend, Miss Colby, at Onigum, returning to Cass Lake Monday evening.

Mrs. McGinnis left Monday for Livingstone, Mont., where she will be the guest of her mother, Mrs. Read for two weeks.

W. C. Foster, who has been visiting his brother, "Dad" Foster the past three months, returned Tuesday to his home in Iowa.

Mrs. I. C. Curtis entertained over Sunday her uncles, J. F. Chisholm of Donnybrook, N. D., and A. D. Chisholm of Paynesville, Minn.

The Miss Bertha Harding and Myrtle Johnson accompanied by Messrs. Neujahr and Roderick Johnson attended the Elks dance at Bemidji Tuesday evening.

"King" Christensen, son of Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Christensen of the village received a telegram Thursday announcing that he has successfully passed the examinations at Annapolis Naval academy, and is now in line for assignment.

I. C. Curtis spent a few days in the Twin Cities last week.

Mrs. C. L. Burns returned Monday from a business trip to the Twin Cities.

S. A. Severson of Deer River was a week end visitor here with relatives and friends.

N. E. Jondahl left Tuesday for points in Iowa, where he has several land deals to close.

Henry Blattman made a business trip to Duluth and Superior last week, returning Friday.

Miss Selma Simonson arrived Friday from Lakefield, Minn., for an indfinite visit here with relatives and friends.

The 7-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Nelson died Monday and the funeral was held Wednesday afternoon from the residence.

Miss Mildred Smith and Miss Margaret Parish attended the Elks dance at Bemidji Tuesday. They were the guests of Mr. Glen and Miss Ruth Harding.

Nick Chase left Monday for Omaha, Neb., to take a full course in auto work and electric and traction engineering.

Guy N. Harding, cashier of the First National bank, and Mrs. Harding left yesterday for a trip through the South with New Orleans, Mobile and other points of interest in view. They will make a short visit with the Kenfield family at Orange Beach, Ala.

Mrs. A. Swindelhurst and Mrs. J. E. Lundrigan leaves this evening for Minneapolis to spend several days there the guest of friends and relatives.

Hurley

Hurley, Wis., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Charles Heiden, an old resident of Hurley, died after a lingering illness of cancer of the stomach, aged 56 years. He is survived by his wife and four children, two sons, Otto and Oswald, and two daughters, Mrs. L. Ledin of Hurley and Mrs. J. Rowse of Ironwood. Funeral services were conducted from the German Lutheran church and interment was made in the Hurley cemetery.

Mrs. Joseph Summers and Thomas Morris returned Wednesday from Manawa, where they were called a week ago by the death of their mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Delor Charbonneau and young son, who have been visiting at the Charbonneau home here for the past several months, have returned to their home in Stanley, N. D.

Miss Dorothy Sanford of Kaukauna is visiting at the Roy Williams home this week.

Mrs. John Faull was called to Superior the first of the week by the sudden death of her father.

William Landraint, assessor of incomes, announces that all persons who have received income tax blanks and who do not return them by March 10 will be prosecuted.

The meeting held at the courthouse to consider plans for the incorporation of Hurley was quite largely attended. It is now intended to incorporate as a village instead of a city, this plan being the most feasible at the present time. Attorneys say Hurley can be incorporated as a village without much difficulty so far as the law is concerned. The committee composed of Bonino, Flanagan and Hutchinson, first appointed to consider the matter of incorporation, was increased to seven members. B. A. Morgan and W. H. Lucia being appointed as two of the additional four members, the others to be later appointed by the chairman of the meeting, Mr. Lucia. This committee was instructed to have an accurate survey made of the proposed territory to be incorporated and also a census taken.

Edward Thorton and daughter of Ashland were guests at the Neil Brennan home the first of the week.

Don Reid of Hurley transacted business at Manitowish on Wednesday.

Ashland

Ashland, Wis., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Nearly 300 people attended the Masonic social Tuesday evening, coming from Hurley, Bayfield and Washburn. Following the five-reel picture story put on by the new Masonic moving picture machine, which has been installed at a cost of $400, a cafeteria lunch was served, followed by cards and dancing.

A German festival was put on in the way of entertainment for the members of the Ashland Elks and their families Thursday evening.

A largely attended reception to the new members of the Methodist church was held Thursday evening. During the past month special meetings have been held, resulting in an acquisition of fifty new members who joined last Sunday. Among those who appeared on the program Thursday night were Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Ernest Scott, Mrs. Herbert Stremm, Ruth and Edna Everts, Miss Kerr, Mrs. Burnham and Master Guy Burnham.

The Sons of Norway of Ashland are preparing for the district meeting which will be held here next June. The Daughters of Norway will assist in the entertainment of the guests, who will be present from all parts of the Lake Superior region.

The Luther League of the Swedish Lutheran church gave a program Thursday night. Among those who appeared on the program were Mrs. Esping, the Misses Eckmann, Alderman, Teckla Johnson, Helen Nystrom, Mrs. Fred Anderson, and Messrs. Esping, Hertzman, Lawrence Schrader, Elliott Nystrom and Nystrom.

The machine gun company was inspected Thursday night by Capt. Lorain T. Richardson, U. S. A., inspector of the Wisconsin Guard.

Assistant Secretary G. D. McCarthy of the Duluth Commercial club was in the city this week making arrangements for a meeting of a number of Duluth business men with the Ashland Commercial club, under the leadership of Secretary Eva.

Rev. Myron Taylor of the Ashland M. E. church will leave next Monday for three weeks to hold evangelistic meetings in the southern part of the state. Mr. Taylor recently resigned to take effect March 1, but the official board has given him a lay-off without acting on the resignation.

Bigfork

Bigfork, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Ed Hamilton, who spent the past two months in Lewis Pinnette's camp near Craigville, returned to his home here last week when the camp broke up.

Harry De Forrest is hauling ties for Joe Palmer of Effie.

The township caucus was held in Gilbert's pool hall. Nearly fifty voters of the village and township were out. The following candidates were named: Supervisor, Gust Gustafson; clerk, Peder Evenson; treasurer, W. A. Brown; justice of the peace, H. D. Horton and J. O. Larson; constable, Lander Larson; town supervisor of schools, Mrs. E. F. Bjorge.

Dr. Dumas of Deer River Monday raised the quarantine placed upon International Camp No. 36 for smallpox, the disease having been stamped out.

As a result of the quarantine being removed from Camp 36 Monday, a large number of lumberjacks were seen about town before the train left Tuesday.

Trains are running daily now to take care of the logs, ties, poles and posts landed on the track.

Mrs. Z. A. Cochrane entertained the Girls' Sewing club at her home on Saturday.

A few neighbors and friends of John Peterson held an informal reception at his home Saturday evening in honor of his birthday. Mr. Peterson has been ill for a time, but is very much improved.

Mabel Reigelsperger of Deer River came here Tuesday to fill the vacancy at the telephone, caused by Ethel Collin's resignation.

H. W. Robson of Minneapolis, representative of an insurance company, left for home on Tuesday's train after spending two weeks in Bigfork.

Mrs. Ira Collins of Marcell, who has been sick for some weeks, became suddenly so much worse on Wednesday that Dr. Craven of Deer River was called. On Thursday she was taken to Deer River, from which place she went to Minneapolis later.

Mrs. Ed Babcock, who has been at the Babcock home in Wirt for some weeks, returned to Cohasset Thursday for the purpose of packing her household goods. Mr. and Mrs. Babcock are planning on building a house near the home of the former's father, to remain permanently.

Rosa Slack of Big Falls was in Bigfork last week.

Irene Moors and Agnes Pederson spent a few days at the Moors homestead in Effie last week.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tagtgren on Monday.

Peter Welgant and Roy Bunker were here from Rust Town Saturday.

Hayward

Hayward, Wis., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—According to a bulletin issued by the Northwestern railway, land in Sawyer county has trebled in value in the last ten years, jumping from $6.25 to $15.50 per acre.

The annual high school declamatory contest will be held March 10, when someone will be selected to represent this city at the league contest to be held at Shell Lake in April.

"A Matrimonial Bureau" will be staged by local talent at the opera house Tuesday evening for the benefit of St. Joseph's church.

The district convention of Christian Endeavorers was held here Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The Young Men's Civic club basket ball team defeated the Ladysmith team on the Stone Lake floor Saturday evening, 26 to 22.

Miss Ovida Knudson and Francis Burnett were married here Wednesday morning. They left on a short wedding tour to Minneapolis, after which they will go to Marquette, Mich., to reside, the groom being in the employ of the South Shore railroad.

The young ladies of the high school gave a leap year party and dance to a number of young men Friday evening.

Ed Rideout, foreman of the big mill here, has resigned and will leave here.

Fay Ocker and Mary Wagner, both of Draper, were married here Monday by Rev. R. J. Barnes.

About eighty farmers attended the meeting of patrons of the Stone Lake cheese factory, the session being in charge of County Agricultural Agent C. P. West.

Judge J. F. Riordan returned from Hot Springs, Ark., where he had been for the benefit of his health.

Hill City

Hill City, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—On March 14 the annual village election will be held. But few candidates have announced themselves.

David Noble returned Monday from Duluth, where he had been in St. Luke's hospital for several weeks. He underwent two operations and while still weak is gaining rapidly.

Joe Bela sustained a lacerated hand while sawing staves at the factory Saturday afternoon. His hand struck against the stave saw and the back of it was laid open.

The Commercial hotel is being remodeled. New floors have been laid in the upper stories, the walls have been replastered and are now being tinted, while the floors are being varnished. An addition, 32 by 32 feet, is to be built on the east end of the present building and this will make a thirty-five room house.

Walter Willet was struck over the eye by a block thrown from the "hog" at the factory Monday, receiving a painful injury.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Jones entertained at five hundred Tuesday evening. There were three tables.

Hinckley

Hinckley, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Harriet Gemmel came from Duluth to attend the class play Friday evening.

Miss Mabel Burnquist, principal of the North Branch high school, is the week-end guest of the Misses Gemmell.

Mrs. J. H. Guerin is entertaining Mrs. John McAlpine of Duluth this week.

Miss Carolyn Seebeck of Redwood Falls is the guest of Miss Rosalie Zelen.

Mrs. R. H. Keyes is enjoying a visit from Miss Louise Beard of Bridgeport, Conn.

Mrs. Mahnke, Sr., of Duluth, and Mrs. C. F. Mahnke of Moose Lake were visiting Miss Edna Mahnke Wednesday.

Mr. Eustace of Breckenridge has been visiting his sons in this locality the past few days.

Elmer Johnson has been at home the past week in attendance on his mother, who is ill.

J. H. Coleman and family departed Thursday for Cedar Springs, Mich., their future home.

Misses Eva Pringle and Charlotte O'Malley have been in Minneapolis the past week attending the C. E. convention and visiting with friends and relatives.

Howard Folsom of Pine City and his brother from Little Falls were visiting their mother and brother, J. J. Folsom, Tuesday.

A large delegation of Hinckley Odd Fellows went to Sandstone Friday evening and were guests of the Sandstone lodge. A social time, followed by a banquet, proved the Sandstone people royal entertainers.

A large and happy delegation of Finlayson people made the first stopping of the northbound N. P. Limited at that point the occasion of a jollification visit to Hinckley Tuesday. About seventy-five, accompanied by a brass band, spent the afternoon in Hinckley. Our people acted as hosts and entertained them with music, dinner, movies and dancing.

Thomas Irons, an old and highly respected citizen of Hinckley for the past ten years, died at his home Sunday evening. Mr. Irons was a native of Bedfordshire, Eng., born Feb. 14, 1843. He married Miss Ann Wooding, who died three years ago. Ten children were born to them, six of whom survive. In the early '70s Mr. Irons moved with his family to Winona county, later coming to Hinckley. The funeral services were held in the M. E. church Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Callendar officiating. The interment was at Memorial cemetery.

About seventy delegates attended the butter makers' convention here Thursday. The afternoon was devoted to routine business and addresses. In the evening a social was held at Odd Fellow hall. Toasts were given by W. H. Lamson, Mr. Lindbergh of North Branch and L. H. Pryor, interspersed by music by Messrs. Pearson, Koksma and Payne, followed by a banquet and smoker. Lee Webster presided as toastmaster.

Park Rapids

Park Rapids, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—George Johnson will wrestle Charles Suter at the Gem March 9 for $100. Suter and Johnson have wrestled before, and Suter broke Johnson's ankle.

Crescent Temple, Pythian Sisters, gave an entertainment at their hall Wednesday evening. Male relatives were invited. The program was as follows: Instrumental music and the male quartet of Parke lodge, K. P.; address, Rev. Harriss; talks by members. After the program refreshments were served by the sisters.

Carl Fuller returned from St. Paul Tuesday after attending the retail hardware dealers convention.

Irl Johnson, who attended the retail hardware convention at St. Paul, returned Friday.

J. A. Kruse's shoe store warehouse was burglarized and several pairs of cruisers' shoes were taken. Wayne and Ward Vestal were arrested. They confessed and were bound over and probably will go before Judge Wright and receive sentence instead of waiting for the regular term of court.

Mrs. Walter Campbell, who sued the Consolidated school district of Nevis for salary, was awarded a verdict of $60.

The Episcopal guild met at the home of Mrs. W. R. B. Smythe Thursday. There was a very large attendance.

Ralph Everhart, who was formerly in business here and moved last fall to Grand Rapids, closed out his business there and has moved to Akeley.

Miss Edith Crawford, who had her hands badly frozen when a team ran away with her several weeks ago, has recovered sufficiently to resume her duties as teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rodgers left Wednesday for Barnsville, where their children are located, for an indefinite stay.

Mrs. J. H. Halverson, who has been staying with her parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Slater, while Mr. Halverson was in Florida, returned home Saturday accompanied by her husband, who had just returned from his Southern trip.

William Fox had his ankle badly crushed by the tipping of a load of logs Monday. Mr. Fox lost both arms several years ago and was not able to handle his team so as to avert the accident.

Attorney P. V. Coppernoll is in Ada on business connected with Frank Colman's case relating to probate matters in which Mrs. Coleman is interested.

J. E. Flynn, cashier of the State bank, received news of the death of his mother, who resided at Good Thunder, and left Monday to attend the burial.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith packed their household goods and left for their new home in South Dakota Saturday.

J. A. Gutzler returned home from Minneapolis Thursday. He was attending the dairymen's convention.

W. R. B. Smythe was confined to his home the fore part of the week suffering from grippe.

Cook

Cook, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—L. F. Luthey was in Orr Monday.

Roy Knutson, Aubrey, Daniel and Glenn Hill were Virginia visitors last Saturday.

Lars Leding has been sick this week.

Miss Hazel Winchell was at Leander Tuesday.

A new class was initiated by the Moose last Sunday.

A dance will be given at the Cook hall tonight by the Catholic ladies.

H. Holt of Winnipeg was a Virginia visitor Thursday.

George Rowbottom is handling the second "trick" job of telegraphing during the absence of M. Trumer, who has been called to Milwaukee, Wis., by his mother's sickness.

J. L. Kimball, pump foreman of the D. W. & P. railway, was a Cook visitor Thursday.

A wreck occurred near Kinmount Wednesday morning causing delay in the traffic. No one was hurt.

Mr. Kinny, representing a Moose magazine of St. Paul, visited the lodge Sunday and made a speech. The town band greeted him.

Every one is harvesting ice here. The creamery is putting up a large amount and will operate in the near future.

Nick Henry, while adjusting a set screw on a saw in the Ellsworth sawmill Thursday, received bad injuries on the right hand when his mitt caught in the saw. He lost a thumb and tore the forefinger.

Assistant County School Superintendent Ink of Duluth is visiting schools in this territory.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Watt died Thursday.

Lawrence Durand made his first appearance on the street Thursday, since being confined to bed some time ago with pneumonia.

Biwabik

Biwabik, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Fourteen lumberjacks from the Wentworth and Johnson logging camps have come to Biwabik within the last two or three days on their way to Duluth.

Alfred Hall, former vice president of the First National bank at Biwabik transacted business in Gilbert Thursday.

J. C. McGivern and Ed. Kinney were McKinley visitors yesterday.

E. W. Cann, Superintendent of Schools E. L. Foreman, J. F. Hildebrand and L. R. Christensen, members of the school board, returned Saturday from Detroit, Mich., where they attended an educational meeting.

The volunteer fire department is planning for a banquet and smoker to be held the latter part of the month.

W. H. Crocker, agent for the Iron Range road, has moved from the Watts residence at the Iron Range location to one of the railroad company's houses, which was formerly occupied by Conductor George E. Mills and family.

John Q. MacIntosh, a Stillwater banker, was here on business the first of the week.

George E. Wolfe of Skibo called on friends here the first of the week.

John Shea of Two Harbors, road-master for the Iron Range road, was a business caller Friday.

The Loyal Order of Moose held a meeting Thursday evening, a smoker being the feature of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Coffron were Duluth visitors the first of the week.

The old school building is torn down except for the first floor, which will be left for a dancing pavilion.

Phillip Bray, who is confined in the detention hospital with scarlet fever, is getting along remarkably well.

The fire department was called out Thursday afternoon by a small fire in the old postoffice building, owned by the Myers company. The loss was very small. The building is occupied by M. Cohen & Son as a storehouse. The fire was caused by an over-heated stove.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Grover Hilsee on Friday of last week.

Miss Agnes Carmichael of Mesaba called on friends here Thursday.

Fred Seeley was in Duluth Friday attending a band practice of the Shrine band.

F. A. Howerton was in Duluth Thursday attending to business matters.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Strom on Monday.

Mrs. D. W. Owens was a Duluth caller on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar F. Strom left Saturday for St. Hillaire, Minn., where they will visit for a month with Mrs. Strom's parents.

Frank Burke, traveling engineer for the Duluth, Mesabe & Northern, was here Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Donnellan returned Saturday from an extended visit with Mr. Donnellan's relatives at New Castle, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kinney and children were Virginia visitors Sunday.

Peter Wannebo, who has been the guest of his son Theodore for the last two weeks, returned to his home in Two Harbors on Tuesday.

M. B. Cundy was a Duluth visitor Monday.

Martha Washington lodge of Rebekahs celebrated its ninth anniversary Saturday evening. A large number attended.

Mrs. John Halden and son of Two Harbors visited Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Pettibone the first of the week.

Mrs. William Mudge of Mesaba and Mrs. Emil Smith of Two Harbors visited Mrs. Axel Johnson on Monday.

The Congregational ladies' aid society met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. C. Ames.

George V. Holcomb of Virginia, local manager for the Mesaba Telephone company, was here Tuesday.

Miss Ruth Watts of Duluth called on her many friends here on Sunday, returning home the same evening.

Mrs. Kirk S. Johnson is in Two Harbors visiting her sister, Mrs. W. J. Trannah, and her father, E. W. Glass.

Miss Lennie Winstrom returned to her home at Winton on Thursday after visiting friends here for the last week.

J. P. Johnson has been quite ill at the Biwabik hospital for the last ten days, but is now able to be out again.

C. E. Moore, general manager for the Pitt Iron Mining company, was here on Monday, returning to Virginia the same evening.

Mrs. H. E. Green has been ill for the last week with a severe case of grip.

H. G. Seeley returned Saturday from a business trip to the Twin Cities.

North Branch

North Branch, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. Chas. Pemble entertained thirty lady friends Wednesday at her home near here. Messrs. Pemble and Sullivan brought the ladies out comfortably tucked away in large bob sleds.

Mrs. Ed Almos was surprised by a large number of her lady friends Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Reynolds who has been spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Albert Mold, returned Tuesday to her home at Taylors Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Swenson and daughter, Evelyn, went over to Lindstrom yesterday to attend the funeral of their brother-in-law, Chas. Andrews.

Emil Johnson and children of Brimson visited with relatives east of town a few days this week.

A. J. Krueger attended the jeweler and optometrist convention in the Twin Cities Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Alfred Anderson, sister Alice and Miss Ellen Benson of Washington Prairie, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. William Larson.

Staples

Staples, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The local union of the American Society of Equity gave an entertainment and banquet Tuesday night at Sovereign hall which proved to be the biggest and most successful thing of the kind which that organization has yet given. There was an attendance of 225.

Misses Marie Mathews and Fay Chapin returned Monday from Brainerd where they visited Will Mathews, who recently underwent a mastoid operation. He is getting along fine.

G. W. Graham and Sandy Johnson left Thursday for an extended trip to New Orleans, where they will take in the Mardi Gras. From there they will go to Hot Springs, Ark., for a month's visit.

Glen Houser left today for Ulen where he expects to remain an indefinite length of time. His sister Edna accompanied him for a few days' visit.

The Embroidery club met with Mrs. Fred Zimmer Tuesday. Mrs. E. D. Tull of Minneapolis, mother of Mrs. J. D. Marlin, was here to attend it. She returned home last evening.

Desmarais Bros. have taken the contract for the erection of a large barn for Rasmus Rasmussen four miles north of Motley. The building will be 34x70 with a 14x28 foot silo in connection. The first story will be built of cement blocks; the upper story will be frame. The cost will be $2,600.

Walker

Walker, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Minneapolis Brewing company, which foreclosed on the opera house over a year ago, took active charge last week, a representative of the company being here and appointing Charles Kinkele as its agent for the building. Manager Hine of the Grand says the new owners have promised to tint the walls and make other improvements.

Frank Lembke of Atwater has been visiting at the Lembke home at Leech Lake this week and was here Wednesday.

Mrs. F. L. Wilcox entertained the auction bridge club Tuesday. High honors were won by Mrs. Kulander and Mrs. McKeown.

J. S. Scribner received word this week that his father was quite low in Canada, and he and Mrs. Scribner left for Moose Jaw yesterday.

Scribner & Rogers have received a deed from T. B. Walker for all their holdings west of town.

The ladies of the Catholic church will give a hard times dance at the opera house on Monday, March 6.

Tower

Tower, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Edward Murphy of Two Harbors arrived Wednesday to work the keyboard at Tower Junction in the absence of Operator Bert Soper.

A new tractor has been purchased for county road work in this section, and Alden Fuller will operate it. Several trailers have also been added to the equipment and the hauling of road material will be greatly facilitated, as the use of horses will be almost done away with.

L. R. Shively, proprietor of Hunters Lodge at Vermilion Falls, was in town early in the week for the first time in several weeks, the heavy snows having made lake travel almost impossible. He reports the trail in good condition now.

Miss Lilian Pfeifer of Virginia, who is taking the normal course at the Virginia school, gained experience by teaching at the Peyla school this week.

The young lady members of the junior-senior classes of the local high school entertained last evening at the Lofgren & Olson hall at a leap year dance.

Merritt Helm has returned from Minneapolis, where he had been for the past few weeks taking a course in embalming.

Miss Mayme Mahady left Friday for Duluth to attend the "Bird of Paradise" performance at the Lyceum.

Guy McLaughlin has returned to his home here from Chisholm, where he has been employed for the past few months.

Miss Mamie Skala returned early in the week from a few days' visit in Duluth.

Dr. O. O. Benson, recently reappointed superintendent of the Vermilion Lake Indian school, has returned and resumed his duties. Dr. Richards, who has had charge, will leave shortly to take up his new duties in Nebraska.

The five hundred club met Thursday evening at the L. & O. hall. The hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Albert Weinzerl, Misses Marie Lundeen, Delcia Peltier, Marion Johnston, Augusta Dallelen and Nellie Pederson.

Mrs. Mat Mehllich has been a Duluth visitor all week and is expected home this evening.

It is at last possible to readp the ice harvest, the latest for several years. The ice had not formed its usual thickness when the heavy snow came, and in places it was necessary to clear the snow to permit the heavier formation of ice.

Considerable county road work is being planned for this spring, and a change welcomed by autoists is to be made near the Tobacco farm if present plans materialize.

The new moving picture theater building is about complete. Some finishing work still remains on the entrance and with the placing of the remaining seats not already in place, the show house will be ready. The present plan is to open on Thursday night, March 9.

Alfred and Ed Bystrom have returned from Ely, where they have been employed on an ice contract for the past several weeks. They report their crew having cut five acres of ice.

Matt Cundy was in town Wednesday from the Armstrong Bay Mining company's camp, where he is employed this winter.

Mrs. Charles Peterson has gone to Long Prairie, Minn., for a visit with a sister whom she has not seen for several years.

Walter Naslund returned Monday from Duluth, where he had been over Sunday as a guest at the home of his mother.

John McMullen, who has been principal of the Vermilion Lake Indian school for the past two years, has resigned and left early in the week for Duluth, where he will remain for a time. Miss Celia Angus, who was also an employe of the school, left for Superior, where she has joined other members of her family and will remain.

Worms

Grandma is as sure the sun rises as she is that babies and older children have worms. And once in a long while she just happens to be right—about the worms. But this is a coincidence, not a diagnosis.

There are no symptoms which can, with even a fair degree of probability, be attributed to worms. In fact, what grandma insists is worms—fever, nausea, vomiting, heavy, sweet breath, flushed cheeks, white lines about the mouth, etc.—are usually symptoms of acute intestinal indigestion or acid intoxication, from dietetic errors. But occasionally the trouble really is due to round worms in the bowel.

The only way in which a correct diagnosis of worms may be made is by finding worms or their eggs in the stools. Makes no difference whether it be round worms, thread worms (pin worms, seat worms), tapeworms or hookworms, the diagnosis cannot be made unless the worms are found in the stool or their eggs discovered by microscopical examination.

But supposing a child really has been convicted on something better than circumstantial evidence, to-wit, the passing of one or more round worms or pin worms, what should be done in the way of treatment? Give the poor, helpless child somebody's alleged "worm-expeller" for a few weeks? Feed him worm powders until he rebels? No.

Be it hookworms, tapeworms, round worms or pin worms, this is the ideal treatment:

Send the patient to bed with a supper of only bread and milk. In the morning administer to a child one capsule of five drops of oil of chenopodium (American wormseed), or give the five drops on a little sugar. Two hours later give a dose of castor oil or aromatic syrup of rhubarb. That ends the treatment. If no worms come away your diagnosis is wrong, or else your family doctor will have to help you out of the predicament. For an adult the same treatment may be applied, except that ten drops of the oil may be given, and repeated two or three mornings if necessary. But for a child once is sufficient. Any alleged "worm medicine" that is given at intervals over a period of days is worse than useless.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Pock Marks.

How can pock marks be removed from the face? If olive oil or an ointment had been applied to the sores, would it have prevented pitting?

Answer—They cannot be removed. Maybe the anti-vaccinators could tell you how to remove them. Neither olive oil nor ointment would prevent pitting in smallpox. Be vaccinated—that is the only preventive.

"Purely Vegetable" Nonsense.

Is there any hygienic objection to taking a purely vegetable laxative tablet every night?

Answer—The same objection that applies to any drug habit. "Purely vegetable" would, of course, not exclude strychnin, opium, belladonna, hyoscine and various other drugs one should not take lightly.

Hemorrhoids.

What would you advise a person of 38 to do for an obstinate and troublesome case of piles?

Answer—Send us a stamped, addressed envelope for monograph upon the subject.

Needless Worry About Leprosy.

If a certain publication receives letters from a leper, and publishes the letters, is there any danger to readers in handling copies of that publication?

Answer—Leprosy is no more contagious than tuberculosis.

Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. If your question is of general interest it will be answered through these columns; if not it will be answered personally if stamped, addressed envelope is enclosed. Dr. Brady will not prescribe for individual cases or make diagnoses. Address, Dr. William Brady, care of this newspaper. Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

Faculty Strong in Favor of Preparedness — "Dad" Elliot, Western Student Secretary of Y. M. C. A., Delivers Talk on Faults and Vices of College Life.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The faculty of the University of Minnesota is strongly in favor of preparedness if the statements of the first twelve interviewed are any criterion. William R. Vance, dean of the law school, E. B. Pierce, registrar, J. B. Johnston, dean of the academic college, A. E. Jenks, head of the sociology and anthropology department, and a number of others urged preparedness in a thorough manner in interviews given to the Minnesota Daily during the week. Prof. Jenks said that America is prepared for nothing but good luck. "Nothing short of a crisis can make a fat democracy think—and then not for long," he said. "Nothing fat thinks, it feels. Until America realizes that democracies do not think and that only trained and practiced experts think she will not be prepared to meet an international crisis." Others expressed themselves as emphatically, a fact which is quite significant in view of the fact that the university faculty has taken every advantage of its command of history, international law, political and economics to arrive at a clear understanding of the developments of the present war; in fact, it is not an uncommon occurrence for a professor to neglect entirely the subject of his course and devote recitation after recitation to discourses upon the war, so intense is the academic interest.

• • •

"Dad" Elliot, Western student secretary for the Y. M. C. A., has been spending the past few days at Minnesota. He is the most popular speaker among Western universities and always turns crowds away from the largest halls procurable. While speaking to the Minnesota students in chapel, he took occasion to unearth many faults and vices of college life which the students thought were forever concealed. He was especially vehement on the subject of college politics, and characterized it as manipulation, which would make Tammany Hall, Tom Taggart and Barnes blush and hide their faces. Just as emphatically he hit the win-at-any-price spirit in athletics which has led to professionalism and hard feeling between colleges. When it was all over one student said, "I wish he hadn't said it so hard or said so much because every word of it was true and it hurt."

• • •

The pre-Lenten season was closed by the junior ball, the biggest social event of the year at the university. Over 125 couples attended the party which occupied the ball room, all the parlors and the second floor of the Radisson hotel. The university regents and heads of colleges and schools with their wives were the patrons. The Radisson orchestra played the program of twenty-four dances.

• • •

The Forensic league, a union of all of the campus debating societies, has adopted an ambitious plan to give the campus a taste of national politics during the spring. With slight variations, an assembly will be conducted in imitation of the national convention of one of the political parties. Every state in the union will be represented by some campus organization which will have its spokesman who will speak on the floor in behalf of its candidate, the only difference from the regular convention will be that every party will be represented, or at least four, the Democratic, Republican, Socialist and Progressive. The political science department will aid in staging the convention, the executive committee will act as the national committee and the university armory will be the scene of the big convention.

• • •

The first indication of the coming spring was the sale of commencement invitations which took place in the university postoffice during the week. The seniors are already looking forward to the graduation exercises and are selecting their programs, arranging for their caps and gowns and removing all doubts as to their scholastic eligibility.

• • •

In an interview given to the Minnesota Daily, Prof. William Stearns Davis, of the history department, spoke of the significance to land-grant colleges of the military legislation now pending in congress. He stated that military drill in such colleges will probably become a much more serious thing, involving an extension of the time of service and the number of men required. There are now over 1,200 men engaged in military drill at the university, 150 of whom belong to the National Guard. If the present legislation becomes effective it is expected that four years instead of two of drill will be required with the most modern equipment and the most detailed instruction. There is no place more suitable than a university for such military training for the students are able, by the nature of their programs, to devote several hours out of the day to receiving instructions without causing the confusion which would follow the same procedure by employed men. Furthermore, the university has the power to enforce drill and can be sure of having every registered student out if it so requires. The present military equipment and training of the students, in the National Guard division, has year after year been pronounced the highest in efficiency of any company at the annual encampment, where the students are forced to compete with the other companies of the state.

• • •

The list of names announced as having survived the first step of elimination in the freshman-sophomore oratorical contest, includes that of Fredo Ossanna of Duluth. From a list of over twenty orations, ten were selected to be delivered in the final contest to be held Wednesday, March 8. Mr. Ossanna's subject is "United States and a Constructive Peace Plan." This contest was won last year by Vincent Fitzgerald of Duluth.

• • •

The Common Peepul's ball was given on Friday evening in competition with the junior ball. The more democratic affair was held at the university armory and adhered strictly to all the rules of informality. The price was $1 as against $7.50 for the junior ball. The costumes were entirely informal, music was supplied by a student orchestra, and dancing was ended at a time which made it possible for the students to attend their classes the next day.

• • •

Three university professors, all of the Romance language department have fallen into line in the child relief plan and have each adopted a baby who has been deprived of its parents by the war. Although the benefactors never see their adopted children they are kept well informed as to their welfare. The necessary expense is $36 a year to provide for the child's education and care, the actual work of which is conducted in France by the French and Americans in France.

• • •

Many university students have decided to spend their vacation in Europe in the Red Cross service. A large delegation of university students from all the schools of the country is being organized to spend the three summer months in Paris caring for the wounded and doing the men's work which is dragging for lack of men. Any student who can run an automobile, set a bone, wash dishes, and hold his nerve under extreme strain is eligible to make the trip. The medical students are especially numerous in the list of volunteers which is being managed by George E. Vincent. The delegation is made up of the university's most popular leaders.

• • •

H. D. Estabrook, of New York, candidate for the Republican nomination for president, spoke to the students Thursday afternoon on the subject of the student's relation to the national defense. Mr. Estabrook is a great orator and made a profound impression upon his audience. He spoke for an increased army and an immense increase in the navy, urged the cause of patriotism upon the students especially, and expressed views somewhat equivocally upon the present political situation.

• • •

With the series of lectures on "Books Often Talked About But Seldom Read," completed by Dr. Burton's lecture on the Bible, a new series of lectures to be delivered by members of the university faculty has been instituted. The new series will deal with modern literature and modern writers, Echegaray, Thomas Mann, Giovanni Pascoli, Anatole France, Knut Hamsun and Joseph Conrad.

• • •

"St. Patrick was an engineer," says the engineering students of the university and consequently they plan to celebrate "Engineer's Day" on March 17. It is an annual affair replete with parades, bonfires, dances, pink teas and interclass "scraps." The engineer's parade is an event on the campus upon which time and energy is spent. Every engineering device known to fame is exploited at that time, on floats or in actual motion. The festivities last for the entire day and usually end in a good old free-for-all between the freshmen and the sophomores with the upper classes seeking to lose their identity in the fray.

• • •

University students feel extremely humiliated by two epidemics that have been sweeping the campus, one an epidemic of chickenpox, and the other of mumps. The chickenpox seems to have confined its ravages to the men, while the mumps has deformed the coeds. The medical authorities are unanimous in saying that only especially good care has prevented the chickenpox epidemic from developing into something much more serious, for several cases of smallpox were reported earlier in the season, but were taken care of immediately and were followed by every precaution on the part of the state board of health whose headquarters are located on the campus.

Crookston Elks Elect.

Crookston, Minn., March 4.—The local Elks have elected the following officers: Exalted ruler, E. W. Vance; esteemed leading knight, H. F. Schmidt; esteemed loyal knight, George Ramstad; esteemed lecturing knight, Lee R. Boyd; secretary, H. P. Funk; treasurer, C. E. Dampier; tiler, A. R. Robert; trustee for three years, F. B. Harris; H. O. Anderson, delegate to grand lodge, Baltimore, Md., with F. B. Harris, alternate; John J. Kelly, delegate to the state association meeting at Duluth, with H. P. Funk as alternate.

Don't Worry

about your digestive troubles, sick headache, tired feeling or constipation. The depression that induces worry is probably due to a disordered liver, anyway. Correct stomach ailments at once by promptly taking

BEECHAM'S PILLS

They aid digestion, regulate the bile, gently stimulate the liver, purify the blood and clear the bowels of all waste matter. Safe, sure, speedy. Acting both as a gentle laxative and a tonic, Beecham's Pills help to

Right The Wrong

Largest Sale of Any Medicine in the World. Sold everywhere. In boxes,

WHEAT AGAIN TURNS WEAK

Market Closes Moderately Off on Light Inquiry From Exporters.

Flaxseed Bulges With Active Bidding By Crushers' Interests.

Duluth Board of Trade, March 4.—While the wheat market was easier today, the break that had been expected in some quarters after the rapid advance of yesterday failed to materialize.

Trading ruled dull with operators showing a disposition to even up rather than augment their trades in view of possible developments over the holiday. A sustaining factor at the start came in reports of liberal buying of options on account of British importers at Winnipeg, but that was denied later, as were also rumors that any great volume of foreign business had been worked at the seaboard. Export trade in yesterday's splurge was placed at 2,000,000 bu, of which 1,300,000 bu was American wheat. At Winnipeg, wheat was offered in better volume and at reduced prices as compared with May. That the car and transportation situation is better up there was shown in receipts of 604 cars of wheat at Winnipeg today as against 198 cars last year.

Arrivals of Canadian grain at Duluth were also in good proportions, there being 130 cars of wheat on the tracks here today. Advices received by houses handling the business, however, indicate a falling off in volume next week.

Australian shipments for the week are estimated at 1,250,000 bu. Vessels to move grain are arriving slowly there and the shipping prospects are regarded as discouraging. Combined shipments from Argentina and Australia this week were 4,000,000 bu, as compared with 4,600,000 bu a week ago.

May wheat opened unchanged at $1.14 and closed ½c off at $1.13¾ bid. July opened unchanged at $1.14½, and closed ¾c down at $1.13¾ asked. May durum opened unchanged at $1.10¼, and closed ½c off at $1.09¾ asked. July opened unchanged at $1.11 and closed ½c off at $1.10½ bid.

Bulge in Flaxseed.

Crushers again showed anxiety to pick up flaxseed, and with strong cables its quotations were easily advanced. A sharp call for linseed oil is expected this spring, and the trade is preparing for it.

May flax opened unchanged at $2.30, and closed 1½c up at $2.31½ asked. July opened unchanged at $2.30, and closed 1½c up at $2.31½ nominally.

At Winnipeg, May flax closed 1¼c up at $2.08⅜.

At Buenos Aires, flax closed 2¼c up at $1.41⅝, and London 4¾c up at $2.83½.

Oats closed locally ⅛c off at 39⅝@40⅛c for on the track; rye unchanged at 87c, and barley unchanged at from 55c to 65c for on the track. At Winnipeg, May oats closed unchanged at 42¾c bid.

At St. Louis, May wheat closed at $1.09⅜, and July at $1.07⅞.

At Kansas City, May wheat closed at $1.01⅞, and July at $1.03⅝.

Puts and Calls.

Puts on Minneapolis May wheat closed at $1.14¼, and calls at $1.15⅜.

Cash Sales Saturday.

No. 1 northern wheat, 1 car.....$1.13⅞
No. 1 north'n wheat, 3 cars.....1.13¼
No. 1 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.14⅛
No. 1 northern wheat, 2 cars.....1.15
No. 2 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.10½
No. 2 northern wheat, 2 cars.....1.10⅝
No. 2 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.11⅛
No. 3 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.03½
No. 3 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.06
No. 2 northern wheat, 1 car, binded.....1.08¾
No. 4 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.00
No grade wheat, 1 car.....1.03¾
Mont. wheat, 1 car, No. 3 hard winter.....1.11
Mont. wheat, 1 car, No. 2 hard winter.....1.14
Mont. wheat, 1 car, No. 3 hard winter.....1.09
No. 1 durum, 1 car.....1.08½
No. 1 durum, part car.....1.09¾
No. 1 durum, 3 cars, to arrive.....1.09
No. 2 durum, 1 car.....1.05¼
No. 2 durum, 1 car.....1.06⅝
No. 2 durum, 1 car.....1.05½
No. 2 durum, 1 car.....1.06
No. 2 durum, 1 car.....1.05⅝
No. 2 durum, 1 car.....1.06½
No. 2 durum, 1 car.....1.01
No. 3 durum, 1 car.....1.05⅜
No. 3 durum, 1 car.....1.00¾
No. 3 durum, 2 cars.....1.00½
No. 3 durum, 1 car......99
No. 3 durum, 1 car.....1.01¼
No. 3 durum, 1 car.....1.02¾
No. 2 mixed durum, 1 car.....1.05
No. 2 mixed durum, part car.....1.05¼
No. 3 mixed durum, 1 car......99¾
No. 2 mixed durum, 1 car.....1.05⅝
Barley, 1 car......69
Oats, 1 car, No. 4 white.....37½
Oats, 1 car, No. 3 white.....40½
Oats, 1 car, No. 3 white.....40
Oats, 1 car, standard.....40⅜
No. 2 rye, part car......87
No. 1 flax, 1 car.....2.31¾

MARKET GOSSIP.

Primary markets report the following receipts and shipments today:

Wheat—Receipts, 1,223,000 bu, last year, 455,000 bu; shipments, 800,000 bu, last year, 439,000 bu.

Corn—Receipts, 822,000 bu, last year, 562,000 bu; shipments, 547,000 bu, last year, 613,000 bu.

Oats—Receipts, 500,000 bu, last year, 66,000 bu; shipments, 710,000 bu, last year, 1,174,000 bu.

* * *

Duluth grain stocks, giving changes in six days:

Wheat—Western and winter, 762,000 bu, increase, 15,000 bu; spring, 7,510,000 bu, increase, 324,000 bu; durum, 5,478,000 bu, increase, 265,000 bu; bonded, 2,554,000 bu, increase, 616,000 bu; total wheat, 17,062,000 bu, net increase, 1,226,000 bu.

Coarse grains—Oats, 1,784,000 bu, increase, 322,000 bu; rye, 21,000 bu, decrease, 5,000 bu; barley, 970,000 bu, increase, 39,000 bu; flax, domestic, 1,637,000 bu, bonded, 29,000 bu; total flax, 1,666,000 bu, increase, net, 20,000 bu.

Total of all grains, 21,503,000 bu; net increase, 1,596,000 bu.

* * *

Clearances reported: Wheat, 897,000 bu; flour, 52,000 bbl; together equal to 1,265,000 bu; corn, 108,000 bu; oats, 373,000 bu.

* * *

Duluth bonded grain receipts: Wheat, 130 cars; oats, 12 cars; barley, 2 cars; total, 144 cars.

* * *

Cars of wheat received:	Yesterday.	Year Ago.
Duluth	75	102
Minneapolis	339	140
Winnipeg	604	198
Chicago	245	37
Kansas City, bu	126,000	27,000
St. Louis, bu	85,000	38,000

* * *

Cars of linseed received:	Yesterday.	Year Ago.
Duluth	3	5
Minneapolis	19	7
Winnipeg	8	11

* * *

At Liverpool, spot wheat closed unchanged to ½d up; corn, ½d up.

* * *

Duluth car inspection: Wheat—No. 1 northern, 8; No. 2 northern, 7; No. 3, 4; No. 4, 2; no grade, 1; durum, 22; winter, 6; mixed, 25; total wheat, 75; last year, 102; flax, 3; last year, 5; oats, 2; last year, 1; rye, 3; last year, 1; barley, 3; last year, none; total of all grains, 86; last year, 109; on track, 93.

* * *

Winnipeg, Man., March 4.—In six months of the movement of the 1915 grain crop of Western Canada there has been taken out of the West 272,116,000 bu of the total crop of 721,000,000 bu, according to reliable estimates here today. There remains in the country elevators 55,019,000 bu, the balance being in granaries, on the farms, and in the country districts generally.

"To be moved from the West there is still between 100,000,000 and 115,000,000 bu of all grains, though these figures chiefly represent wheat.

The present daily movement averages 500 cars, which pass through Winnipeg. At this rate it would require nearly 200 days to complete the movement of the present crop. Various conditions, such as better weather, more cars, ocean and lake tonnage, will modify the situation, however, railway authorities believe.

* * *

Demand for cash wheat was still limited on the Duluth market today. An increasing tendency was shown to discriminate against the off-grades. Cash No. 1 northern sold at ½c under to 2c over the May price, and cash No. 1 durum at ½c under May.

* * *

C. E. Lewis & Co. wired from Minneapolis: "There was a very good demand for cash wheat at firm to stronger premiums. Country movement was exceedingly light and small receipts are elndicated for late next week. Blue stem No. 1 northern sold at 1c to 5c over May, and velvet chaff at ½c to 1½c over. Moderate flour sales were reported."

* * *

Russell's News, New York: "Regarding reports from Chicago claiming that representatives of the British commission have been buying 10,000,000 to 15,000,000 bu futures in the Winnipeg market recently, Paul Robinson & Co., representing R. T. Smythe & Co., said: 'You can deny emphatically this report. We have bought no futures or options of any kind. We are here to buy cash wheat and have bought cash wheat only.'"

* * *

The Russian winter wheat acreage shows a material decrease. Spring wheat seedings are also much smaller. Reserves are not so large as expected.

* * *

Australian and Argentine shipments this week were 4,000,000 bu against 4,600,000 bu last week. The total for the present week looks fairly liberal.

* * *

London linseed market opened strong with light Indian offers and the seed is strongly held. Better demand for Plates was reported.

* * *

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool: "Market was steady, but dull. Strength was imparted by firmness in Winnipeg and Buenos Aires, but buyers are not following the advance. Spot market was steady, but dull, unchanged to 1½d higher, with the advance in Manitobas. Cargo market was steady with near Manitobas 6½d higher and distant 1½d higher; winters and Plates were 3d higher. Trade is limited as expectations are for continued free arrivals. Expect American government's report will fully confirm the large reserves."

* * *

C. E. Lewis & Co. had the following closing letter from Chicago:

"Wheat was nervous and fluctuated rapidly on small orders either way. Volume of trade was light. Seaboard bought early while foreigners sold. Commission houses were free sellers on the advance. Little was heard of export demand at seaboard and reports of large purchases of futures at Winnipeg for British account recently were denied. Expectations of bearish statistics Monday were the depressing influences. Indications are for world's shipments of over 12,000,000 bu or slightly in excess of the average weekly requirements of importing countries. Supplies on ocean passage are also expected to increase and some anticipated an increase in the visible. Crop reports are about same as of late with some complaints of damage from soft wheat sections. Buy wheat on all good depressions."

AMERICAN WHEAT MARKETS, MARCH 4, 1916.

May—	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Mar. 3.	Yr ago.
Duluth	1.14b	1.14⅜b	1.12⅞	1.13½b	1.14	1.39½
Minneapolis	1.14-1.13⅝	1.14⅛	1.12⅝	1.13⅛	1.13¾-⅞	1.34¼
Chicago	1.14-1.13¾	1.14⅜	1.12⅞	1.13¼-⅜	1.13⅞	1.41⅛
Winnipeg	1.12⅜	1.12⅝	1.11½	1.11¾a	1.12⅝	1.42⅝
July—
Duluth	1.14¼a	1.14⅝b	1.13⅜a	1.13¾a	1.14½a	1.34⅝a
Minneapolis	1.13¾-½	1.13¾	1.12	1.12⅝	1.13¾	1.30⅛
Chicago	1.11¼-1.11	1.11⅜-½	1.10	1.10½b	1.11¼b	1.15
Winnipeg	1.12-½	1.12½	1.11½a	1.11½b	1.12⅝	1.41¼

DULUTH DURUM MARKET.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Mar. 3.	Yr ago.
May	1.10¼	1.10¼	1.09⅛a	1.09¾a	1.10¼	1.41½
July	1.11	1.11¼	1.09⅞a	1.10½b	1.11b	1.39½n

DULUTH LINSEED MARKET.

	Oper.	High.	Low.	Close.	Mar. 3.	Yr ago.
May	2.30	2.31½	2.29¾	2.31½a	2.30	1.85¼
July	2.30a	2.31½	2.30	2.31½n	2.30	1.86¾

Duluth close: Wheat—On track: No 1 hard, $1.15½; No. 1 northern, $1.13@1.15½; No. 2 northern, $1.09½@1.13½; No. 1 northern to arrive, $1.13; No. 3 on track, $1.03½@1.07½; Montana No. 2 hard to arrive, $1.13½; Montana No. 2 on track, $1.13½; May, $1.13½ bid; July, $1.13¾ asked. Durum—On track: No. 1, $1.09¼; No. 2, $1.05¼@1.06¼; to arrive, No. 1, $1.09¼; May, $1.09¾ asked; July, $1.10½ bid. Linseed—On track, $2.31½; to arrive, $2.31½; May, $2.31½ asked; July, 2.31½ nominal. Oats—On track, 39¾@40¼c; to arrive, 39¾c. Rye—On track, 87c; to arrive, 87c. Barley—On track, 57@66c.

Elevator receipts of domestic grain—Wheat, 192,969 bu; last year, 36,854 bu; oats, 11,825 bu; last year, 10,698 bu; barley, 5,829 bu; last year, none; rye, 1,139 bu; last year, none; flax, 2,812 bu; last year, 6,415 bu.

Shipments of domestic grain—Barley, 21,792 bu; last year, none; rye, 5,679 bu; last year, none.

Elevator receipts of bonded grain—Wheat, 155,769 bu; last year, 997 bu; oats, 47,162 bu; last year, none; barley, 4,927 bu; last year, none; flax, 1,037 bu; last year, 922 bu.

Shipments of bonded grain—Wheat, 16,499 bu; last year, none; oats, 1,797 bu; last year, none.

CHICAGO MARKET.

Predictions of Large Reserves in Producers' Hands Weaken Wheat.

Chicago, March 4.—Predictions that the forthcoming government crop report would show large reserves of wheat to be still in the hands of producers tended today to weaken the market for that cereal. In this connection, it was said, English buyers were not disposed to follow advances in price, and that reliance was being placed on continued liberal arrivals at Liverpool. A reason given for this confidence was the statement that the British admiralty was operating 1,800 requisitioned vessels. After opening ¼c off to ⅛c up, with May at $1.13¾ to $1.14 and July at $1.11 to $1.11¼, the market here underwent a material sag all around.

Rallies that ensued failed to hold. Temporarily, expert demand seemed to have dried up. The close was steady but ½@⅝c to ¾c net lower with May at $1.13¼@1.13⅜ and July at $1.10½.

Corn eased off on account of favorable weather for the movement of the crop. There were also reports of needed rains having fallen in Argentina. Opening prices, which varied from ¼@⅜c decline to a shade advance, were followed by a moderate general setback.

Improved eastern demand operated later in favor of the bulls. The close was firm at ⅛ off to a sixteenth up as compared with yesterday's finish.

Oats appeared to lack support. The majority of floor traders showed a leaning to the bear side of the market.

Higher prices on hogs gave a little firmness to provisions. Advances, however, brought into play standing orders to sell.

Wheat—No. 2 red, nominal; No. 3 red, nominal; No. 2 hard, $1.14½; No. 3 hard, $1.09¼@1.11.

Corn—No. 2 yellow, nominal; No. 4 yellow, 69c. No. 4 white, 68¼@68½c.

Oats—No. 3 white, 40¾@41¾c; standard, nominal.

Rye, nominal; barley, 61@69c; timothy, $4.50@7; clover, $10@20.

Pork, $19.50@20.30; lard, $10.45; ribs, $11.37@11.75.

Wheat—	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.
May	$1.13¾	$1.14⅜	$1.12⅝	$1.13¼
July	1.11	1.11⅜	1.10	1.10½
Corn—
May	.74¼	.74¾	.74	.74⅝
July	.74¼	.74⅝	.74	.74½
Oats—
May	.43½	.43⅝	.43½	.43¼
July	.41¾	.41⅞	.41¼	.41⅝
Pork—
May	21.50	21.62	21.40	21.57
July	21.45	21.55	21.32	21.50
Lard—
May	10.65	10.75	10.65	10.70
July	10.87	10.95	10.87	10.90
Ribs—
May	11.72	11.87	11.72	11.80
July	11.85	12.00	11.85	11.95

MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

mw e S etaoin shrdlu cmfwyp vbgkqj xfffffff¼ teaoinar

Minneapolis, March 4.—Wheat—Lower; receipts, 339 cars compared with 140 a year ago. May opened $1.14 @1.13⅝; high, $1.14⅛; low, $1.12⅝; clos @1.13¾. July opened $1.13¾@1.13⅞; high, $1.13¾; low, $1.12; closed, $1.12⅝.

Cash: No. 1 hard, $1.13¼; No. 1 northern, $1.13¾ @1.17⅛; to arrive, $1.13¾@1.16½; No. 2 northern, $1.11¾@1.14⅜; No. 3 wheat, $1.04½@1.11¾.

Corn—No. 3 yellow, 75@76c; oats, No. 3 white, 39¾ @40¼c flax, $2.31½@2.34½.

Flour—Unchanged; shipments, 70,004 bbls.

Barley, 60@67c; rye, 87@88½c; bran, $17.50@18.25.

New York Banks.

New York, March 4.—Wheat—May, $1.21; July, $1.14.

Liverpool Grain.

Liverpool, March 4.—Wheat—Spot No. 1 Manitoba, 14s 8½d; No. 3, 14s 3d; No. 2 hard winter, gulf, 12s 9d; No. 2 red western winter, 13s.

Corn—Spot American mixed, new, 11s.

BOSTON COPPER STOCKS.

Reported by Paine, Webber & Co.

STOCKS—	Bid.	Asked.
Alaska	19¼	19½
Adventure	2¼	2½
Ahmeek	99	100
Allouez	70½	71
American Zinc	78¾	79
Arcadian	8½	9
Arizona Commercial	8¾	9
Butte Alex-Scott	10	10½
Butte & Ballaklava	4	4½
Butte & Superior	94¼	94½
Calumet & Arizona	71½	72
Calumet & Hecla	550	552
Centennial	15	16
Cambria Steel	81	.....
Chino	56⅝	57
Copper Range	63	63½
Daly West	2¾	3
East Butte	13¼	13½
Franklin	9	9½
Goldfield Consolidated	90c	92c
Granby	90	90½
Greene-Cananea	44	45
Hancock Consolidated	15½	15¾
Inspiration	45	45⅝
Indiana	4	5
Isle Royale	27½	28
Keweenaw	3	3¼
Lake Copper	16½	17
Mass Consolidated	13½	13¾
Mayflower	3⅛	3¼
Miami Copper	35⅛	35⅝
Michigan	1¾	2
Mohawk	93	93½
Nevada Consolidated	16¼	16⅝
North Lake	1½	2
Nipissing	6¼	6½
North Butte	29¼	29½
Ojibway	1⅞	2½
Old Colony	2¾	3
Old Dominion	71	71½
Osceola	94½	95
Quincy	91	92
Ray Cons.	24¼	24⅝
Santa Fe	3⅛	3¼
Shannon	10⅝	10¾
South Lake	6⅞	7
Shattuck	36¼	36¾
Shoe Machinery	54	54½
Superior Boston	3⅜	3½
Superior Copper	18	19
Tamarack	53	53½
Trinity	9	9¼
Tuolumne	17c	20c
United Fruit	142	142¾
U. S. Mining	62⅜	62½
do, pfd.	50⅛	50½
Utah Cons.	13¾	14
Victoria	3⅞	4
Winona	4	4½
Wolverine	65	65½

New York Cotton.

New York, March 4.—Cotton: Futures closed very steady; March, 11.47; May, 11.63; July, 11.82; October, 11.98; December, 12.14.

South St. Paul Livestock.

South St. Paul, March 4. — Hogs — Receipts, 1,600; steady to strong; range, $8.75@8.85; bulk, $8.75@8.85. Cattle—Receipts, 250; killers, steady; steers, $4.50@8.75; cows and heifers, $4.25@7.00; calves, steady, $4.50@10.25; stockers and feeders, steady, $4.00@7.35.

Sheep—Receipts, 8,500; steady; lambs, $8.50@10.50; wethers, $8.50@8.00; ewes, $3.00@7.50.

GOOD ADVANCES IN THE COPPERS

Stocks Are Strong With Still Higher Prices in Copper Metal.

With an increasingly strong situation in copper metal, mining stocks were generally strong and active at Boston today.

Butte & Superior was again a feature, closing $1.50 up at $94.25. Granby scored a heavy advance after its break of a week ago, closing $2.25 up at $90.

Calumet & Arizona closed 25 cents up at $71.50; Copper Range, unchanged at $63; Mohawk, $1.25 up at $93; North Butte, unchanged at $29.25; Osceola, $1.50 up at $94.50, and Shattuck, 25 cents off at $36.25.

* * *

Cactus Consolidated was strong in the Boston curb list on the report that another vein twenty inches wide of antimony had been opened up at the mine. It is said that never before in the history of mining in this country has such a wide lense of antimony been found.

* * *

New York metal markets—Copper, 28¼@29c near by and spot, and 27½ to 27¼c for June and July and forward; lead, 6.60c on sales by independents; tin, 46.10c, and quicksilver, $260.

* * *

Commenting upon the investment situation in copper stocks, Skillings' Mining and Market Letter of today says: "War or peace, copper will be assured of a large demand. Mining stock investments should appeal to the public on every recession. The outlook should be regarded with optimism, governed with reasonable caution. It is no time to get into a blue funk, and borrow trouble as to the future. Some industrials have been pretty well discounted, apparently, and some of the railroads, too, but the mining stocks have not."

* * *

Smelter returns from one car of silver-lead ore, from the Sonora mine of the Carnegie Lead & Zinc company, amounted to $5,000, according to a wire received at the Duluth office of the company.

* * *

Closing quotations of Boston curb stocks, as reported by Paine, Webber & Co.:

	Bid.	Asked.
Butte & London	$ .69	$ .71
Big Ledge	1.38	1.50
Bohemia	1.87	2.00
Cactus Cons.	1.38	....
Coppermines	1.87	2.00
Chief	1.38	1.44
Calumet & Montana	58	.60
Calumet & Corbin	.03½	.04
Denn	15.75	....
Davis Daly	1.63	1.87
Hotan Copper	2.25	2.75
First National	5.50	5.75
Interstate-Callahan	....	26.00
Jerome Extension	.43	.45
Jumbo Extension	1.12	1.38
Keating	....	1.06
Marsh	.38	.40
New Baltic	3.00	3.25
New Cornelia	11.38	11.50
Onondaga	1.50	1.63
Stewart	.35	.40
Success	.89	.91
Sierra	.70	....
Tonopah	6.50	6.75
Tonopah Belmont	4.25	4.50
Tonopah Extension	4.38	4.63
Utah Met.	9.25	9.38
Verde Extension	14.50	14.63
Warren Dev.	5.00	....

Midway Horse Market.

Minnesota Transfer, St. Paul, Minn., March 4.—Barrett & Zimmerman report: Little change in market, farm and general purpose classes having the preference. Clearance made up of shipments to Cokato, Minn., and Rice Lake, Wis. Numerous consignments for Italian inspection Tuesday are being received. Values hold as follows:

Drafters, extra	$165@215
Drafters, choice	145@165
Drafters, common to good	125@145
Farm mares and horses, extra	156@210
Farm mares and horses, choice	140@156
Farm horses, common to good	125@140
Drivers and saddlers	130@185
Delivery horses	135@190
Mules, according to size	150@215

London Stocks.

London, March 4.—The stock market concluded a dull week today in steady fashion. President Wilson's victory, in congress, made American securities a shade better. United States Steel shares were in good request. Money was in fair demand and discount rates were quiet. Consols declined in anticipation of a new loan.

Notice of Dividend.

Calumet & Arizona Mining company has declared a dividend of two dollars ($2.00) a share, payable March 20th, 1916, to stockholders of record at the close of the books March 3rd, 1916.

Transfer books close at the close of business March 3rd, 1916, and open at the opening of business March 20th, 1916.

GORDON R. CAMPBELL,
Secretary.

DULLNESS IN STOCKS

Market Affected By the Complicated Situation at Washington.

Moderate Gains at Outset and the Closing Is Irregular.

New York, March 9.—Dullness and indecision were the chief characteristics of today's short session of the stock market as the result of the complicated situation at Washington. Dealings were so professional as to deprive them of actual significance. There were gains of moderate proportions at the outset, and these were added to in the speculative group later. Petroleums, a few coppers, American Car, Industrial Alcohol, United Fruit and some of the tobaccos rose 1 to 4 points, while Cuban-American Sugar advanced almost 9 points. The closing was irregular. Bonds were steady.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Reported by Charles E. Lewis & Co.

STOCKS—	High.	Low.	Close.
Am. Tel. & Tel.	127½	127⅜	127½
Am. Can, com.	59⅜	58	58⅝
Am. Beet Sugar	67½	66½	67½
Am. Car Foundry	67⅛	66½	66½
Am. Locomotive	70½	69⅜	69⅜
Am. Smelting	98⅛	97¼	97⅝
Alaska Gold Mines Co.	20¼	19⅝	19¾
Allis Chalmers, com.	29	28	28⅞
Am. Sugar	111	110	111
Am. Tobacco Co.	199	194½	199
Anaconda Copper	85⅞	85⅜	85⅜
Atchison	102⅜	102⅜	102⅜
Bald. Loc.	103	101	101¼
B. & O., com.	86¼	86⅛	86⅛
Butte & Superior	95	92¾	94¼
Cal. Petroleum, com.	28¾	28	28¾
Canadian Pacific	166½	165½	165½
Central Leather	52⅞	52⅜	52⅜
Ches. & Ohio	61¼	60⅛	60⅛
Chino Copper Co.	57	56¾	56¾
Chi., Mil. & St. P.	93⅝	93	93
Colo. Fuel & Iron	41⅝	41⅜	41½
Corn Prod. Co.	23⅛	22⅝	22½
Crucible Steel, com.	74	73	73⅛
Del. & Hudson	218	218	218
Distillers Sec.	46½	45¾	45¾
Erie	36¼	35⅞	35⅞
Erie, 1st pfd.	51½	51½	51½
B. F. Goodrich, com.	70⅜	70¼	70⅜
General Electric	167	166⅞	167
Great Northern pfd.	120¾	120⅜	120⅜
Great Northern Ore	41⅝	41½	41⅝
Gug. Explor. Co.	21	21	21
Illinois Central	102	102	102
Inspir. Cop. Co.	45⅛	44⅞	45
K. C. Southern	25½	25½	25½
Kenn. Copper	54⅞	54⅜	54⅝
Lackawanna Steel	75	74½	75
Lehigh Valley	77⅝	77⅜	77⅝
Mont. Power & Light	72	72	72
Maxwell Motor	60⅜	59¼	59⅜
Maxwell Mot., 1st pfd	83	83	83
Mex. Petroleum Co.	100⅝	97⅜	99½
Miami Copper	35¾	35⅜	35⅝
Northern Pacific	112⅜	112⅜	112⅜
National Lead	66⅜	66¾	66¾
New Copper Co.	16⅞	16⅞	16⅞
Norfolk & Western	115	115	115
N. Y. Central	104	104	104
N. Y., N. H. & N. H.	67	67	67
Pennsylvania R. R.	57	56⅞	56⅞
Pressed S. C. Co.	50¾	50⅛	50⅛
Ray Copper	24⅝	24½	24⅝
Reading	82¾	81½	81⅝
Republic Steel	53¾	50½	50⅝
Rock Island	17¾	17⅝	17¾
Ry. Steel Springs	38⅞	38½	38⅞
Southern Pacific	97⅛	96¾	96¾
Southern Railway	20⅛	20⅛	20⅛
Soo, com	119	119	119
Studebaker, com	138	136¼	137
Shattuck	36¾	36½	36½
Tenn Copper Co.	54⅞	54½	54½
Texas Oil Co.	200½	199¾	200
Union Pacific	132	131½	131½
U. S. Rubber	49¾	49¾	49¾
U. S. Inds. Alcohol Co	152¾	149⅞	149⅞
U. S. Steel	82	81½	81⅝
U. S. Steel, pfd.	116	115⅞	115⅞
Utah Copper	84½	84⅛	84½
Western Union	88⅛	88	88¼
W. H. Elec. Mfg. Co.	63⅝	62¾	62¾

Real Estate Transfers.

Fred La Bree to Philippe Boutin, w½ of e½ se¼ of sw¼, section 4, 51-13.....500

Mary E. Parmelee et mar to Henry Shandling, west 23 ft. lot 7, east 4 ft. lot 6, blk. 88, Second addition to Virginia.....1

J. C. Campbell et ux to Moses Zimmerman, undivided ½ interest in lot 4, section 4; ne¼ of se¼, section 19; se¼ of se¼, section 21; e½ of ne¼, section 22; ne¼ of ne¼, section 17; ne¼ of sw¼, section 29, 55-13...1

James Geary et ux to John Warwas et al, lots 21, 22, blk. 4, Geary & Sicard's addition to Chisholm.....300

Gilbert Dale to Walter E. Danforth, n½ of ne¼, section 12, 65-17.....1

Boston & Duluth Farm Land company to Hans Hill, nw¼ of se¼, section 28, 52-13.....1

Frank Vertin et ux to Joe Gravorac, lot 21, blk. 5, Kinney.....885

Daniel D. Morgan et ux to Henry M. Aitken, lots 22, 23, blk. 3, Northern addition to Chisholm.....1

John A. Bergeson et ux to John Sontra, se¼ 13, 53-19.....5,750

James Caskie et ux to John G. Williams, lot 1, blk. 9, Harrison's division.....600

L. Hammel company to Burton A. Martin, lots 3, 4, section 18, 51-18.....300

A. L. Shipley et al to Charles Grigol et al, lots 31, 32, blk. 5, Northside addition, Virginia.....400

Joe Lopp et ux to Matt Pagorelc, lots 22, 23, blk. 16, First addition to Gilbert.....1

Matt Pogorelc to Frances Lopp, same.....1

New York Banks.

New York, March 4.—The statement of the actual condition of clearing house banks and trust companies for the week shows that they hold $137,520,444 reserve in excess of legal requirements. This is an increase of $2,521,650 over last week.

Chicago Livestock.

Chicago, March 4.—Hog prices averaged the highest today since Sept. 10, 1914. The immediate cause of the strength today was an active demand from shippers. Cattle quotations were next to nominal. Sheep and lambs met with ready sale.

Hogs—Receipts, 13,000; strong, 5c to 10c above yesterday's average; bulk, $8.95@9.10; light, $8.70@9.15; mixed, $8.75@9.20 heavy, $8.70@9.15; rough, $8.70@8.85; pigs, $7.55@8.40.

Cattle—Receipts, 200; steady; native, beef steers, $7.25@9.70; western steers, $7.10@8.25; stockers and feeders, $5.75@7.85; cows and heifers, $3.45@8.45; calves, $8.50@11.25.

Sheep—Receipts, 1,000; steady; wethers, $8.20@8.80; lambs, $9.60@11.40.

THE PRODUCE MARKETS.

Chicago.

Chicago, March 4.—Butter—Higher; receipts, 5,428 tubs; creamery extras, 35c; extra firsts, 33½@34c; firsts, 29@33c; seconds, 26½@28c.

Cheese—Lower; daisies, 17¾@18c; twins, 17¼@17½c; Americas, 18¼@18¾c; long horns, 18¾@18¼c.

Eggs—Lower; receipts, 9,403 cases; firsts, 19¾@20c; ordinary firsts, 19c; at mark, cases included, 19@20c.

Poultry—Alive, unchanged.

New York.

New York, March 4.—Butter—Firm; receipts, 7,746; creamery extras, 92 score, 36½@37c; creamery higher scoring, 37½@38c; firsts, 35½@36c; seconds, 31½@34c.

Eggs—Unsettled; receipts, 14,901; fresh gathered extras, 24@25c; extra firsts, 23½c; firsts, 22@23c; seconds, 21@21½c; nearby hennery whites, fine to fancy, 29@30c; nearby hennery browns, 25@26c.

Cheese — Firm; receipts, 1,030; state, whole milk, flats, held, colored special, 18c; do white, 17¾c; do colored average fancy, 17½@17¾c; do white, 17½c; flats, current make, specials, 17¼c; do average, run, 16¾@17c.

TRADE REVIEW

New York, March 4.—Dun's Review says:

"All speculative markets have undergone reaction, but commercial enterprise moves steadily forward, adding

BARNES-AMES COMPANY
GRAIN COMMISSION AND SHIPPING MERCHANTS
Room 201, Board of Trade, Duluth, Minn.
Correspondents of—
THE AMES-BARNES CO., NEW YORK
THE ZENITH GRAIN CO., LTD., WINNIPEG

STEPHEN H. JONES
RECEIVER, SHIPPER AND COMMISSION MERCHANT
BOARD OF TRADE BUILDING, DULUTH.

Liberal Advances on Consignments
Remittances Promptly Made
Send Us Samples of Your Grain
Correspondence Solicited
KENKEL-TODD CO.
GRAIN COMMISSION
301 BOARD OF TRADE, DULUTH.
66 CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, MINNEAPOLIS.

ELY, SALYARDS & CO., Inc.
GRAIN COMMISSION MERCHANTS
Receivers and Shippers of Montana Varieties Red and White Wheat and Chevalier Barley. Hulless Barley and Oats.
Bonds Filled With North Dakota and Minnesota.
Advances Made on Consignments.

ALWAYS AT YOUR SERVICE
WHITE GRAIN COMPANY
COMMISSION MERCHANTS AND DISTRIBUTERS
GRAIN AND HAY
208 BOARD OF TRADE BUILDING DULUTH, MINN.

W. S. MOORE GRAIN CO
GRAIN SHIPPERS
305 BOARD OF TRADE, DULUTH

A. D. THOMSON & CO.
GRAIN RECEIVERS, SHIPPERS AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS.
406-412 Board of Trade, Duluth.

R. B. HARRINGTON & CO.
INVESTMENT SECURITIES
506 LONSDALE BUILDING. Grand 629; Melrose 639.

Butte & Zenith City Mining Co
Home Office—
30 E. Broadway
Butte, Mont.
CAPITAL STOCK
300,000 SHARES, PAR
VALUE $3.00 EACH
Executive Office
Sellwood Bldg.,
Duluth,

to the notable gains previously recorded. Influences that affect stocks, grain and cotton fail to alter the even course of money and exchange, nor is the solid foundation of business confidence shaken. Rapidly rising prices of materials and products, however, cause increasing uncertainty, though in most cases stimulating rather than curtailing consumption. Many buyers, anticipating continued advances, are prompted to provide for future requirements at current levels, yet experience greater difficulty in further extending commitments. Manufacturers already are covered for months to come, and instances as far as 1917 and are in an independent condition, and instead of seeking new contracts, endeavor to work orders off their books and thus relieve the pressure upon productive forces. Notwithstanding claims of improved conditions, transporting facilities continue inadequate, and the freight congestion adds to the burdens of producers and consumers alike, besides accelerating the rise in commodities. Difficulties in oversea shipping are still a drawback, yet, in spite of this, merchandise exports in January were exceeded only by the colossal outgo in December, while imports surpassed all previous records. Weekly bank clearings, $4,276,649,687."

New York Money.

New York, March 4.—Mercantile paper, 2@3½. Sterling 60-day bills, $4.71½; demand, $4.75 7-16; cables, $4.77. Francs, demand, 5.88½; cables, 5.87½. Marks, demand, 73⅝; cables, 73 7-16. Kronen, 13⅝; cables, 13⅝. Guilders, demand, 42½; cables, 42⅝. Lire, demand, 669; cables, 6.63. Rubles, demand, 31⅝; cables, 31¾.

Bar silver, 56⅝c; Mexican dollars, 45¾c.

Government bonds, steady; railroad bonds, steady.

ASK CITY TO PAY THIRD

Wallace and Woodland Avenue Pavement Classed as "Arterial Road."

Claiming that the proposed Wallace and Woodland avenue pavement will connect with country roads leading into the city, constituting it an arterial highway, property owners along the thoroughfare, in a communication filed with City Clerk Borgen late yesterday, ask the city to pay for at least one-third of the improvement, or to spread the assessments as provided for in the proposed charter amendment governing the improvement of arterial roads.

The communication is signed by forty-eight owners.

The petitioners state that the pavement will connect with several main roads leading into the country. It will also serve the entire city as a popular automobile thoroughfare, they state, and should be paved with a first-class material, but the costs should not be assessed solely against the property directly benefited.

"This highway," states the communication, "lies in a class with London road and Garfield avenue."

The communication, which will be read at the council meeting Monday, is signed by the following property owners: J. L. Washburn, W. A. McGonagle, F. P. Warner, George A. Gray, A. B. Siewert, D. E. Woodbridge, Colin Thomson, Arthur Hanford, J. E. Lundmark, Charles F. Macdonald, Henry Nolte, E. E. Esterly, Warren E. Greene, J. D. Stryker, W. P. Abbott, Henry Turrish, G. W. Morgan, S. Morferud, H. W. Cheadle, W. J. McCabe, J. P. Hollihan and Whitney Wall.

SAFETY HEAD CELEBRATES SIXTY-EIGHTH BIRTHDAY.

Commissioner Silberstein, safety head, is today celebrating his 68th birthday anniversary. During the morning he was the recipient of congratulations from the other commissioners, members of the civil service board and many city employes.

That as he sat down to breakfast at his home this morning he was surprised by the arrival of his five grandchildren, Helena and Bernard Silberstein and Ernestine, Carl and Edward Trambman, who presented him with flowers and remained as his guests for the morning meal. He will entertain members of his immediate family at a birthday dinner tomorrow.

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT WILL BE HELD AUG. 29

Kansas City, Mo., March 4.—The national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will be held in Kansas City from Aug. 29 to Sept. 1, next, it was announced here today. The dates were decided upon at a meeting of the G. A. R. national officers and the local entertainment committee. About 25,000 veterans are expected to attend the encampment.

Buy Zenith Now — Buy Zenith Now

BIG NEWS EXPECTED FROM CARNEGIE, PA., REGARDING A GREAT MANY CARS SHIPPED TO SMELTER FROM CARNEGIE LEAD & ZINC CO.'S MINE.

One of these days the stockholders will be astounded, for they should learn in a big way that this mine is now one of the real rich producers. Mr. Burgan wired that the last car ran $5,000 net and that on the 600 they have opened up 26 feet of high-grade shipping ore. There is only one way for this stock to go and that is up. It's in the book and you cannot get away from it. Such a property, consisting of 644 acres, alongside of the Green and with only about 64,700 shares to pay dividends on should be looked upon in a most serious way by the owners of stock. You have one of the greatest properties in America. It is on properties such as this that people sometimes make millions upon millions of dollars. It looks like that on this one.

We have been steadily buying this stock for big people and have for days and days paid $5.37½ and more. Today there is not a share offered that I know of. It certainly looks as if you can expect big advance.

Buy Carnegie — Buy Carnegie

BUTTE & ZENITH CITY

Remember the books close on this stock March 7th. Get your order in before that time or you may have to pay much more for these shares.

MARTIN ROSENDAHL

Rooms 14 and 15, PHOENIX BLK.

Melrose 1310; Grand 702-X.

COPPER COUNTRY METAL WILL NOT BE HELD FOR LAKE BOATS

Metal in Such Demand Shipments Will Go By Rail.

President Cole Optimistic Regarding the Future of Keweenaw.

Houghton, Mich., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Copper metal is in such demand that it will be almost impossible to hold it back for the arrival of the boats in about six to eight weeks so as to take advantage of the lower rates as has been the custom. The greatest railroad tonnage of the refined metal known in the history of the Copper country is now leaving daily. This statement applies equally to all of the producing mines.

White Pine Extension.

White Pine Extension comprises 1,500 acres, viz: Section 7 except the northwestern quarter and the extreme northwest "40" of Section 18, both in township 50 north, range 44 west, the southern half of the southeast quarter of section 12, section 13 entire, the southwest quarter of section 14, and the northwest quarter of section 23, all in 50-48. This tract is a stretch of about two and one-half miles in length with a very irregular outline, as it follows the course of the mineralized formations on a curve to the southwest. The shaft has passed through the overburden of about twenty feet in thickness, and is now down in the ledge about two and one-half feet. The sandstones and the shale thus opened are remarkably rich and the rock is really all show specimens. The diamond drill which has been running on the southwestern portion in the very rich ground is about through its work and completes the diamond drillings on this property as far as can be foreseen. Director Angus Smith of Detroit has just returned from a trip to the mine for a consultation with Acting Superintendent F. B. Close as to the construction of the preliminary mill for determining just what will be the equipment of the working mill, which will be started at just as early a date as possible.

At the property which intervenes between the Nonesuch and the White Pine Extension owned by T. F. Cole, S. L. Smith and J. R. Stanton, three drills are in operation with good results, but the turn of the dip from the south to the north has not yet been reached.

The Schlesinger interests, which own the Newport iron mine at Ironton, are about to begin diamond drilling still farther west than the Leopold tract.

South Lake.

South Lake will have its new shaft-rock house ready for hoisting any time from April 15 to May 1. The structural steel is not yet wholly bolted together, then will follow about two weeks of riveting, afterward the laying of the concrete floors which have to stand for some time before the machinery can be placed on them, and finally the installation of the crushers, engine, motors and some minor equipment. There will have to be a month or two of preliminary work before stoping can be begun, which will when it is fairly under way, afford about 200 tons a day, but of course some rock will be hoisted as soon as the rockhouse is ready. A more careful selection will be made than hitherto underground of the rock to be hoisted. The long crosscut to the south lodes is being extended beyond No. 4 lode, the farthest from the shaft, to seek the Butler lode, that should be entered about 400 to 500 feet beyond, as it will be recalled from the geological sketch that accompanied the last annual report that the Evergreen series is folded or bent down southeast of the shaft, so that all of these south lodes are members of it, occurring in the reverse order from their position in the shaft, and with a reverse dip which is somewhat steeper. The Butler, 800 feet north of the shaft, where drifts are being driven in the southwestern drifts, is maintaining its high grade, but to the northeast the lode has narrowed so that the drift, which was started from the crosscut on the hanging-wall, is now in trap. The current monthly expenses outside of those of the rockhouse, are about $6000; and there are in operation eight drills which number will not become larger until the stoping has been started.

New Baltic.

New Baltic ran into the No. 8 conglomerate in the vertical diamond drill hole, the second, at a shallower distance than was expected and is now going to start a third 800 feet north at angle of 80 degrees. If another core bearing copper, even if it should be considerably less in values than encountered in the hole last drilled, should be disclosed, it will confirm the belief in great extent of mineralization possessed by the New Arcadian lode, as that will have been demonstrated for over 4,800 feet on its strike. With results of the three holes, the depth of the conglomerate can be ascertained and the location of the New Arcadian lode determined.

Calumet & Hecla.

Calumet & Hecla has moved the fire engine, formerly at Calumet No. 5 shaft, which, though called a shaft, is really a skipway, as is No. 6, the two lying close together, only each had its own engine, to No. 14 on the Osceola amygdaloid. Since there is but little ground left at these shafts, which have been mainly used for timber, supplies and men for the newer workings that are all below the fifty-sixth level of the vertical Red Jacket shaft, where the latter intersects the conglomerate, and since the last named shaft hoists all the rock on Nos. 5 and 6 below that point, No. 5 has been closed down and its hoisting will be done by No. 6. No. 14 on the Osceola amygdaloid serves a large territory, as it is 3,200 feet from No. 13 to the south and 2,600 feet from No. 15 on the north and has been somewhat overtaxing the capacity of its Lidgewood hoist, which brings up the rock on one skipway in a five-ton skip. The engine room here will serve two skipways with seven-ton skips, one skipway having been used by it for about two weeks and the other now being made ready in about the same length of time. This change has been made on account of the old engine having been outgrown by the needs of the shaft rather than any desire to increase now the tonnage, which would at any rate be impossible now, as the milling capacity of the Calumet & Hecla is very nearly reached. The additional hoisting capacity will be needed in the future, because more rock is being forwarded constantly from the amygdaloid to make up the diminishing mineral contents of the conglomerate. Nos. 13, 14, 15 and 16, the older shafts, where more ground has been developed, all are equipped with fine hoists, having two skipways, and Nos. 17 and 18 will be undoubtedly similarly equipped when their tonnage demands it.

New Arcadian.

New Arcadian is getting good grades in the lode met with sixteen feet in from the shaft on the lowest level, the 1,250 foot, as the drifts are being opened most of the work being done on the southern drifts owing to the greater convenience with the crosscutting in progress at the same time. The abundance of small copper still predominates. The New Arcadian lode will be entered by the crosscut on this same level in about two weeks, as all the formations passed through seem to be of the same thickness as on the levels above.

Houghton.

Houghton Copper will arrive at the twelfth level, the end of the journey for a time at least, with its winze from the tenth level; and is now in a very good disclosure. Of the 200 feet and more that has been covered, copper has appeared in all but about 50 feet and the most of this due to the fact that the lode for some distance had rolled above the pathway of the winze. In other words there are only a very few feet of the lode that do not show copper and it is certainly fair to assume the greater part of the lode that was above the shaft bore the metal. These facts are most satisfactory and as soon as possible, after the twelfth level is cut, a cross-cut will be started towards the lode, and both lodes, the Superior and the West vein, will be given a must thorough exploration. On the sixth level in the western drift, the work had been carried as near the boundary of the Superior as the law permits, about ten days ago, and now about 200 feet back from the line, stoping has been begun with good results. On the eastern drift, good ground is now being stoped.

Wyandot.

Wyandot is getting a good average from its three stopes that are now being opened, two on the eighth and one on the ninth levels. That on the eastern drift on the eighth level, which has been averaging good rock up to about two weeks ago, since that time has been in leaner ground, and that on the western drift which opened rather poorly is now sending out good rock, and that on the ninth level is just being started with considerable amount of paying grades. Progress is necessarily quite slow as the rock has to be hauled up 200 feet in the winze inclined to the lode and then trammed 1,100 feet to the shaft and then hoisted 1,400 feet. A mining captain, of great experience, who is familiar with all the mines in the district, recently visited the mine's underground workings and stated the lode appeared good and showed great promise. The stock pile is already of pretty good size, but on account of the great quantity of snow a mill test cannot be made until late in the spring.

Hancock.

Hancock, which began stoping some few months back, is carrying on the work at the fifty-third level on No. 8 lode, twelfth level on No. 3 lode, thirteenth, fourteenth and sixteenth levels, the thirty-ninth and forty-fourth levels on the No. 4 lode and is obtaining grades of a good average. Sub-levels will be driven so as to mine the ground above each loading station, or main level, where will terminate the chutes running down from the level next below the loading station above; loading stations will be made of the forty-fourth, forty-ninth, fifty-third, the rock of the levels from the thirty-ninth going to the forty-fourth. This chute system for several levels is used at some of the mines here very successfully. The stretch of ground between the fifty-third level at the Hancock and the sixty-third at the Quincy, which are the same, at No. 7 shaft at the Quincy, about 400 feet in length, is being cut away at the rate of 200 to 210 feet a month, and when finished will aid greatly in promoting good ventilation. There is no change in the character of the lode as it is being opened in this shaft at the Hancock on the sixty-eighth, sixty-ninth, seventieth and seventy-first levels, the richness compensating for the narrowness. The tonnage of this mine, as for some time is 400 tons daily, but as the stopes are enlarged and more opened it will gradually increase.

Keweenaw.

Keweenaw, states President T. F. Cole, who has been spending a few days in the Copper country, will, when the mill test is made of the rock that has been opened up during the past two years, make a good showing. The Phoenix mill has been repaired and its machinery it being overhauled for this purpose. Mr. Cole is strong in the belief that it will surprise the district by its copper values, and invited the writer, when the weather was more favorable, to inspect the workings.

Calumet & Hecla has recovered through its electrolytic plant at Hubbell and sent about $50,000 worth of silver to the United States mints. This has been a constantly increasing source of earnings since the electrolysis was begun several years ago.

"HETTY GREEN'S PET KITTEN" SOLD

W. E. Corey, J. D. Ryan and T. F. Cole Buy Old Gold Mine.

San Francisco, March 4.—The purchase from Mrs. Hetty Green, the New York capitalist, of the "Old Eureka" gold mine at Sutter creek, Amador county, California, by a syndicate of Eastern millionaires, was announced here last night. The price was said to have been more than $1,000,000.

Among the purchasers, according to the announcement, were William E. Corey, steel magnate, John D. Ryan and T. F. Cole of the Anaconda group and Ambrose Monell of the International Nickel company.

The mine, long known as "Hetty Green's pet kitten," was operated for a brief period in the early seventies, and was reputed to have produced $20,000,000. In 1877 Mrs. Green closed the mine down, and caused it to be flooded with 80,000,000 gallons of water. The explanation for her action given at the time was that she thought rivals were attempting to force her to sell it.

Walter Beam, a Denver mining engineer, arrived here to purchase machinery to be used in pumping out the old shafts and tunnels and prepare the mine for new operations.

SIGNS OF ORE AT BOSTON & MONTANA

Stringers Encountered and Expect to Reach Veins Soon.

Butte, Mont., March 4.—News of a most encouraging nature has been received at the Butte office of the Boston & Montana Development company, and the management is now expecting some definite results within the next few weeks that will give an idea of the value of this new mining project.

The west crosscut that has been run from the tunnel to the Idanaha vein is now in 800 feet. The country rock through which it is running is showing a high grade of mineralization and several small stringers have been cut that indicate the close approach to the big vein.

The vein it is expected to strike lies at an estimated distance of between 900 and 1,000 feet, and at the present rate of progress, which carries the crosscut about four to five feet a day, the vein should be reached within three or four weeks.

The east crosscut, running to the Park vein, is in about 760 feet, and the distance to go yet is about 140 feet, acording to the estimates of the engineers. The showing on that side is also regarded as good.

BARNES-KING DOING WELL

Actual Profits on Two Operating Mines $200,000 in 1915.

Work of Unwatering the Lexington Mine Progressing Steadily.

Butte, Mont., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The report of the Barnes-King Development company for the year ending Dec. 31, 1915, shows that a profit of $147,968 was made during the twelve months above all expenses. Included in the latter was a large amount paid out for development work at the new Shannon property. The actual profits on the two operating properties, the North Moccasin and Piegan-Gloster, amounted to over $200,000.

At the North Moccasin, bullion that netted $434,068 was taken out from a tonnage of 47,038 tons of ore. The costs of stoping, milling, development work, maintenance and general expenses were $218,898. During a part of the year the operations at the North Moccasin were greatly curtailed by the litigation with the Kendall company, which was finally settled in October by an agreement of purchase.

At the Piegan-Gloster, which began operations in July, bullion was secured amounting to $87,798 from 14,956 tons of ore. There was expended at the Piegan-Gloster during the year $103,791, of which amount $30,230 was for development work and $37,412 for stoping.

Cash Resources.

There was on hand Dec. 31 in the treasury of the company $117,046 in cash. Bullion in transit was valued at $54,801, and New York city bonds that cost $54,764 were owned by the company. These, with accounts receivable amounting to $7,995, made available cash resources of $234,068.

In the five years that the present management has had control of the Barnes-King company it has taken from the North Moccasin and Piegan-Gloster properties gold valued at $1,335,110, which with cash on hand at the beginning of the period and receipts from interest, brought the total receipts up to $1,632,704.

With this mining and milling costs to the amount of $684,360 were paid. From the profits the company paid $151,191 for the North Moccasin property, $49,000 for mine and mill improvements at the North Moccasin, $189,449 for the Piegan-Gloster property, $148,613 for mine and mill improvements there, $153,656 for development work at the Piegan, $20,276 for development work at the Shannon and $13,000 for first payment on the Shannon.

This makes approximately $650,000 paid out for new properties and improvements.

Better Ore Expected.

President Goodale in his report says that the production of the Piegan-Gloster has been disappointing, but when the old workings of the Gloster are completely unwatered, it is believed that ore of a better grade will be found. The required machinery for the treatment of the Shannon ore at the Gloster mill will be ordered immediately, also the serial tramway, and as soon as climatic conditions will permit, the new equipment will be installed.

In January of this year the company took an option and lease on two claims in the Rimini district, twenty-two miles from Helena, which were favorable and operations were begun at once. No predictions can be made regarding this venture, but the showing in the shallow workings are sufficiently encouraging to warrant development.

When the purchase of the Kendall mine is completed, the company will have the following mining ground in Fergus county: Barnes-King, 23 claims, 285.9 acres; North Moccasin, 6 claims, 67.35 acres; Kendall, 21 claims, 265.87 acres; total, 50 claims, 619.10 acres.

New Plant Proposed.

At the Gloster mill for the treatment of the Shannon ore an all-slime treatment plant, utilizing all the present machinery, will be installed. A capacity of 150 tons per day is planned and the cost is estimated at $35,000.

At the Shannon, 1,690 tons of ore, worth $46,919, it is estimated, has been taken from the shaft. The average assay value is $27.76.

Stoping in the Piegan ground and at the west end of the Gloster shoot produced more waste rock from soft walls than anticipated and the latter stope narrowed quickly so that the average assay of all ore mined for the period was but $7.34, of which $1.14 was silver value. A total of 14,956 tons of ore were mined and milled during the last half of the year, and 5,110 tons of broken ore were still in the stopes at the end of the year.

Gold and Silver.

Of the gold and silver values, 82.2 per cent was saved by combined cyanide, amalgamation and concentration treatment, and the gross value of the bullion and concentrates sold was $86,171. Of the values recovered 78.2 per cent was by cyanide, 19.9 per cent by amalgamation and 1.9 per cent by concentration.

The surplus of the company was increased during the past year from $140,518 to $288,486, an increase of $147,968 for the year.

The annual meeting of the company for the election of directors was held Wednesday, March 1, at the offices in Hilger, Mont. It is estimated that during the present year the company will be able to pay for the Kendall property, pay all operating expenses, pay dividends of $120,000 and increase its surplus materially.

Lexington Being Unwatered.

At the Lexington mine the work of unwatering the lower levels is still being carried on by the Anaconda Copper Mining company. The water is down to about the 1,000-foot level, and everything above that point has been put into splendid condition. The shaft has been retimbered and repaired and by the time the unwatering has been finished, the mine will be one of the best equipped in the district.

New machinery has been installed and other improvements planned. Some mining is going ahead on the upper levels. The ores taken out have been for the conserving of the zinc values largely. The Lexington will be one of the large zinc producing mines of the Butte district and the plans call for it to be ready for operation at full blast by the time the new concentrator, which is now under construction at Anaconda, is ready to receive the ores. A large new pump is now operating.

Alice Mine.

At the Alice mine, which is located some hundreds of feet north of the Lexington and in the Walkerville district, the principal work now going on is the repairing of the shaft above the water level.

The work of unwatering the Alice has not been started and probably will not be until both the Lexington and Emma are in shape for operation.

The appeal taken by the minority stockholders in the Alice case will probably have no effect on the plans for putting the mine into shape for operating. The Anaconda company owns a large majority of the stock and when it gets ready to go ahead the unwatering will be a matter of but a short time.

The appeal case may not be settled for several months. No intimation has been given by the higher court as to when the decision will be given in it. Should the Anaconda company decide to go on with the mining of the ores, it is probable that a bond would be required and furnished that would protect the interests of the minority stockholders in case the final decision should be in their favor.

The improvements now being made at the Alice are not of sufficient importance and cost, however, to require any court action. Naturally the minority stockholders do not object to the expenditure of these amounts by the majority stockholder. The Anaconda company, as the owner of the majority of the stock, wants the mine in shape for operating when the final decision is handed down and is prepared to avoid any material delay.

WILL HAVE THREE KINDS OF MINING

Milling, Open Pit and Underground Work at Cuyuna Mine.

Brainerd, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—At the Thompson mine of the Inland Steel company on the North Cuyuna iron range there will soon be three kinds of mining carried on, milling, open pit and underground. There is some talk of stripping the Haley forty, taking also the end of the Keating forty.

The Pennington pit mine is shifting its tracks to the foot wall. Ten to fifteen drills will soon be put to work in the pit and preparations made for heavy shipments this season. Capt. G. A. Anderson is directing work at the Meacham mine where a new pumping station is being cut.

The Cuyuna-Sultana is shipping seven cars a week, some going to the Zenith Furnace company at Duluth. Ore pockets are being put in. At the Mangan shaft Capt. Wm. Pascoe is in charge. The shaft is down over ninety feet. It is planned to start a cross cut and cut a pump station at 135 feet depth. The Soo is building a spur into the Mangan mine.

The Cuyuna-Mille Lacs mine has 100 men at work and has been shipping steadily. The Armour No. 1 is engaged in pumping. The Cuyuna-Duluth is working 100 men on three eight-hour shifts. Levels at 150 and 300 feet are being opened up, Supt. L. T. Gavin being in charge.

The Cuyuna Iron & Manganese Ore company, said John Wahl, of Duluth, is expected to ship from 300,000 to 400,000 tons this season and stockholders are jubilant. The Manomen pit being opened up by the Guthrie has made a record in the removal of overburden. Two shovels are working and are down to ore now in a strip forty feet wide. Something like 800,000 yards of overburden has been removed. The Cuyuna Iron & Manganese Ore company has already declared two dividends.

Drilling is being regularly carried on by the Minnesota Iron Development company in section 25, township 47, range 29. The Erickson property near Deerwood is being drilled by the Klondyke Iron company.

The Soo is preparing to build a line to the Cuyuna-Sultana and Breitung properties. The Tabert shaft on the south range near Loerch is being sunk by the Adbar Development company. A depth of fifty feet has been attained. A little "boil" was struck and they are waiting for pumps. Two No. 9's will be installed. Capt. Treloar is in charge. Near by west of Woodrow the Biwango Mining company and the Adbar Development company have drills at work. The Adams mine at Oreland is not working. It is in shape, however, to supply ore immediately should contracts be closed.

MORE PROPERTIES FOR THE ANACONDA

Likely to Purchase Half Interest in Robert Emmet Claims.

Butte, Mont., March. 4.—That the Anaconda Copper Mining company will purchase the half interest in the Robert Emmet claims Nos. 1 and 2, that belong to the Butte Copper Mining company, when the partition sale is held on March 14, is generally believed by those who have watched the gradual additions made recently to the Anaconda holdings in the Butte district.

The Anaconda company already owns a two-thirds interest in the Robert Emmet claim No. 1, and a one-third in the Robert Emmet No. 2 and the Butte Copper Mining company owns the rest of these claims. The Butte Copper Mining company also owns between a fourth and a third of the Trifle and of the Anselmo No. 1 and No. 2 claims. The rest of these claims are owned by the Hauswirths. Nothing has been done in a mining line on these properties since 1907. At that time a shaft had been sunk on the Trifle claim to a depth of 700 feet and plans had been made to carry it down to the 1,000-foot level. At a depth of 375 feet a 40-foot vein was cut carrying 4 per cent copper from selected ores. A 300-foot shaft was sunk on the Emmet claims with a showing at the bottom of 7 per cent copper ore. There are five patented claims all told in which the Butte Copper Mining company is interested and comprising about thirty-five acres.

The North Anselmo vein is supposed to be an extension of the Gagnon vein.

The majority of the stock of the Butte Copper Mining company is held by the Butte Copper Mining company, under the laws of Maine in 1900, with a capital stock of $1,750,000, with shares $1 par each.

OPHIR MINE IS TO BE WORKED AGAIN

Revived By Butte-Detroit Copper and Zinc Mining Company.

Butte, Mont., March 4.—The Ophir, one of the earliest patented mining properties in the Butte district, situated in the southwestern part of the city, a few hundred feet east of the Travona, one of the properties recently taken over by the Anaconda Copper Mining company, is about to be revived by a new corporation known as the Butte-Detroit Copper & Zinc Mining company, incorporated under the laws of Delaware and capitalized with 2,500,000 shares at $1 par. The Butte-Detroit has the backing of some eminent capitalists of Detroit, Philadelphia, Boston and Canada. George F. Barclay of New York and Philadelphia, Austin M. Pinkham, a prominent corporation attorney of Boston, and Freeman I. Davidson of Boston, representing the new interests, have been in Butte for several days engaged in closing local plans for a resumption of work on the Ophir.

Among the prominent men interested in the new company are Sir Henry M. Pellatt of Toronto and Sir Frederick Borden of Ottawa.

It is officially stated that work will be started within sixty days and that the new owners of the Ophir are prepared to spend at least $300,000 in the development of the property.

The Ophir was a good silver producer from the upper levels years ago, and later was developed for copper, and while some good copper deposits have been opened there were also developed some very good zinc indications and recent examinations of the mine disclosed prospects of making of the Ophir a producer of zinc as well as copper and silver.

Of course, the copper possibilities in the Ophir have already, to a very large extent, been proved and it has always been the opinion of former mining men and engineers connected with the property that with sufficient depth big bodies of copper ore will be found. The increasing zinc indications merely add to the assets and possibilities of the Ophir.

MINING TO BEGIN SOON

Denn Mine Will Be Unwatered and Work Resumed.

Development work and mining at the Denn-Arizona mine is to be resumed in the near future. Such was decided upon at the annual meeting of the company, held recently in Chicago.

Two methods of development work are under consideration, and it is expected that a decision as to the one to be adopted will be reached in about a week.

The Denn property, consisting of 200 acres, lies immediately east of the Junction shaft of the Calumet & Arizona Copper company. The shaft has been sunk to a depth of 1,600 feet, disclosing large bodies of rich ores at the 1,350 and 1,850 levels, and also some native copper and other ore deposits ranging from 12 to 16 per cent copper.

Operations at the mine were discontinued in 1912 on account of the heavy flow of water encountered, but with the changed conditions in the copper metal market, it is believed that mining should now pay handsomely. In 1909 Denn produced about 100,000 pounds of fine copper.

Directors and officers were re-elected as follows: Martin Pattison, H. L. Mundy, John G. Williams, L. C. Shattuck, Thomas Bardon, Maurice Denn and Byron M. Pattison. Martin Pattison was re-elected president, Mr. Mundy vice president, Mr. Shattuck treasurer, Mr. Williams secretary. Arthur Howell is assistant secretary.

DRILLING TO BEGIN NORTH OF AITKIN

Aitkin, Minn., March 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Iron exploration work is to begin at once on the George S. Carson place in section 23, 48-27, nine miles north of Aitkin. Ten thousand feet of lumber has been ordered from a local firm with which to build camps, and two of the Crosby Exploration company's drills arrived Wednesday to be put on the work. Four drills are said to have been ordered here.

Mr. Carson, owner of the property, is from Iowa City, Iowa, and has large tracts of land in this county. Preliminary drilling was done on this property some time ago, and the fact that drilling is to be done on a large scale is said to indicate that the grade of ore found was satisfactory. It is reported that manganese ore was shown up in considerable quantity.

CITY NOTICES.

CITY CLERK'S OFFICE—
Duluth, Minn., March 4, 1916.

Notice is hereby given that applications have been filed in my office by the following named persons for license to sell intoxicating liquors in the following named locations, viz:

Henry C. Mason, at No. 1535 Commonwealth avenue, being a transfer from No. 1831 West Superior street.

Erick Nelson, at No. 611 West Superior street.

Said applications will be considered by the Council at a regular meeting thereof, to be held on Monday, March 20, 1916, at 3 o'clock P. M., in the Council Chamber, City Hall, Duluth, Minnesota.

W. H. BORGEN,
City Clerk.

D. H., March 4, 1916. D 1850.

LEGAL NOTICES.

NOTICE.

Bids will be received by mail by the Township Board of Bergland Townsnip, Ontonagon County, until noon, March 31st, 1916, for the construction of 6.664 miles of rock and gravel road, Class C, as per State reward specifications.

NOTE.—All tile or pipe culverts must have headwalls constructed according to Standard Plan B. L. 405.

DESCRIPTION.

Beginning at the second corner common to sections 3 and 4, T. 48 N., R. 42 W., and sections 33 and 34, T. 49 N., R. 42 W., and proceeding S. 88 deg. 45 min. W. (compass bearing) to Sta. 26+28.0, which is the ¼ corner between section 33, T. 49 N., R. 42 W., and section 4, T. 48 N., R. 42 W.; thence S. 88 deg. 40 min. W. to Sta. 52+56.6, which is the section corner common to sections 4 and 5, T. 48 N., R. 42 W., and sections 32 and 33, T. 49 N., R. 42 W.; thence on the same course to Sta. 63+00; thence S. 88 deg. 10 min. W. to Sta. 68+21.4; thence S. 83 deg. 40 min. W. to Sta. 72+28.1; thence on an 5 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 75+04.1; thence S. 69 deg. 50 min. W. to Sta. 77+16.5; thence on an 12 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 78+79.0; thence S. 89 deg. 40 min. W. to Sta. 80+57.1; thence on an 20 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 83+14.6; thence S. 37 deg. 50 min. W. to Sta. 86+93.2; thence on an 81 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 88+46.4; thence S. 88 deg. 30 min. W. to Sta. 90+81.0; thence S. 78 deg. 50 min. W. to Sta. 91+77.5; thence on an 7 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 94+44.5; thence S. 60 deg. 10 min. W. to Sta. 95+25.2; thence on an 16 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 96+85.7; thence S. 34 deg. 30 min. W. to Sta. 97+46.3; thence on an 9 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 99+51.8; thence S. 53 deg. 00 min. W. to Sta. 102+07.5; thence on an 4 deg. 36 min. curve to the right to Sta. 105+14.9; thence S. 66 deg. 50 min. W. to Sta. 107+94.8; thence on an 7 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 110+47.2; thence S. 40 deg. 10 min. W. to Sta. 111+82.7; thence on an 8 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 114+82.7; thence S. 73 deg. 10 min. W. to Sta. 116+00; thence S. 78 deg. 10 min. W. to Sta. 119+14.5; thence on an 4 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 120+86.5; thence S. 71 deg. 20 min. W. to Sta. 121+64.5; thence on an 4 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 123+69.9; thence S. 79 deg. 40 min. W. to Sta. 127+00; thence S. 84 deg. 30 min. W. to Sta. 131+11.8; thence on an 30 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 133+42.3; thence S. 15 deg. 20 min. W. to Sta. 135+00; thence on an 42 deg. 12 min. curve to the right to Sta. 135+51.7; thence S. 37 deg. 10 min. W. to Sta. 136+70.6; thence on an 17 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 138+50.0; thence S. 67 deg. 40 min. W. to Sta. 141+00; thence on an 50 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 142+09.0; thence S. 13 deg. 10 min. W. to Sta. 144+31.0; thence on an 20 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 146+61.5; thence S. 58 deg. 40 min. W. to Sta. 148+43.0; thence on an 11 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 151+38.5; thence S. 26 deg. 10 min. W. to Sta. 155+35.3; thence on an 16 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 156+33.2; thence S. 49 deg. 40 min. W. to Sta. 157+30.5; thence on an 5 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 158+98.7; thence S. 41 deg. 16 min. W. to Sta. 163+24.2; thence on an 17 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 165+05.6; thence S. 10 deg. 15 min. W. to Sta. 171+70.8; thence on an 7 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 174+42.8; thence S. 29 deg. 15 min. W. to Sta. 178+51.1; thence on an 50 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 179+59.8; thence S. 83 deg. 35 min. W. to Sta. 183+23.8; thence on an 20 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 184+24.6; thence S. 63 deg. 25 min. W. to Sta. 186+00; thence S. 60 deg. 25 min. W. to Sta. 193+32.1; thence on an 10 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 194+67.1; thence S. 46 deg. 55 min. W. to Sta. 197+00; thence S. 52 deg. 55 min. W. to Sta. 200+60.5; thence S. 56 deg. 55 min. W. to Sta. 211+00; thence S. 54 deg. 40 min. W. to Sta. 214+65.0; thence S. 49 deg. 10 min. W. to Sta. 219+90; thence S. 47 deg. 55 min. to Sta. 233+62.5; thence on an 25 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 234+72.5; thence S. 75 deg. 25 min. W. to Sta. 243+00; thence S. 74 deg. 45 min. W. to Sta. 251+00; thence S. 75 deg. 31 min. W. to Sta. 262+69.5; thence on an 37 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 263+79.0; thence S. 35 deg. 01 min. W. to Sta. 271+00; thence S. 36 deg. 46 min. W. to Sta. 274+21.0; thence S. 33 deg. 46 min. W. to Sta. 275+07.1; thence on an 40 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 276+90.9; thence S. 67 deg. 16 min. W. to Sta. 351+84.2; the point of ending being a point on the section line 525.00 min. south of section corner common to sections 9, 10, 15, 16, T. 48 N.; R. 43 W., being in all 3518.2 feet, or 6.664 miles.

A station distance=1000.0 min.

First bearing is compass reading; others computed from transit angles.

A certified check for $100 must accompany each bid. All bids are considered informal, and the right is reserved to reject any or all of them.

BERGLAND TOWNSHIP BOARD,
John B. Haskins, Clerk.

(No. 2217.)

SUMMONS IN APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION OF LAND—
State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis—ss.
District Court, Eleventh Judicial District.

In the Matter of the application of Mark Baldwin to register the title to the following described real estate, situated in St. Louis County, Minnesota, namely: Lots three (3) and four (4), in block seven (7), Harrison's Division of Duluth, according to the recorded plat thereof, in the office of the Register of Deeds of said County, including that portion of said lots which was formerly part of the alley, said portion being a strip of land ten (10) feet wide, and situated at the southerly end of said lots,

Applicant,

vs.

City of Duluth, James Dunlop Wise, and all other persons or parties unknown, claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real estate described in the application herein,

Defendants.

The State of Minnesota to the above named defendants:

You are hereby summoned and required to answer the application of the applicant in the above entitled proceeding and to file your answer to the said application in the office of the clerk of said court, in said county, within twenty (20) days after the service of this summons upon you, exclusive of the day of such service, and, if you fail to answer the said application within the time aforesaid, the applicant in this proceeding will apply to the court for the relief demanded therein.

Witness, J. P. Johnson, Clerk of said Court, and the seal thereof, at Duluth, in said county, this 4th day of March, A. D. 1916.

J. P. JOHNSON,
Clerk.
By B. G. RILLING,
Deputy.

(Seal District Court, St. Louis County, Minnesota.)

D. H., March 4, 11, 18, 1916.

MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE—Default having been made in the payment of the sum of Two Thousand One Hundred ($2,100.00) Dollars, which is claimed to be due and is due at the date of this notice upon a certain Mortgage, duly executed and delivered by Edward Finch and Florence Finch, his wife, Mortgagors, to Fitger Brewing Company, a Minnesota corporation, Mortgagee, bearing date the 26th day of January, 1915, and with a power of sale therein contained, duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of St. Louis and State of Minnesota, on the 5th day of February, 1915, at 11 o'clock a. m., in Book 313 of Mortgages, on page 168.

And Whereas, The said Fitger Brewing Company, Mortgagee and Holder of said Mortgage, has duly elected and does hereby elect to declare the whole principal sum of said Mortgage due and payable at the date of this notice, under the terms and conditions of said Mortgage and the power of sale therein contained; and whereas there is actually due and claimed to be due and payable at the date of this notice the sum of Five Thousand Six Hundred Seventy-three and 77-100 ($5,673.77) Dollars, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from the 26th day of January, 1915, and whereas the said power of sale has become operative, and no action or proceedings having been instituted, at law or otherwise, to recover the debt secured by said Mortgage, or any part thereof:

REAL ESTATE NEWS

MATURE PLANS FOR BUILDING

More Proposals for Bids Will Go Out in Few Days.

Public and Private Improvements Are Being Offered Contractors.

A number of important prospects became actualties during the past week, and, taken on the whole, the trend of events in the trade became still more encouraging.

Plans for other large proposals are to go out for figures during the next week or ten days, according to announcements, so that it is regarded as assured that contractors will have all the work on hand they can take care of by the time the really spring brand of weather is ushered in, which will enable the starting of new construction.

The feature of the week came in the opening of bids for the new Morgan Park school. Heavy competition developed for the job, as shown in the number of offers in the hands of the architects, Kelly & Williams. The Lounsberry & McLeod company was the lowest bidder at $116,711. Work has already begun.

Boys' "Y" Bids.

Next Monday, the plans for the new Boys' Y. M. C. A. building at Second street and Lake avenue, will go out for figures from the office of German & Jensen, architects. The cost of this structure is estimated at $65,000.

Bids will be received by J. J. Wangenstein, architect, in ten days for Nelson Bros.' office building to be erected at Twenty-first avenue west and Superior street.

Holstead & Sullivan, architects, will be ready to take figures next week upon an eight-room grade school to be built at Warba, Minn. Its cost is placed at $20,000.

* * *

L. Landini of Houghton county, Mich., is arranging to build a two-story business building in Gary-Duluth. It will contain two stores with dwelling accommodations above. The plans are being prepared by Vernon J. Price & Co., architects.

* * *

The general contract for a garage for the Pioneer Automobile company at Third avenue east and Superior street has been awarded to the Modern Insulation & Construction company at $8,000. Holstead & Sullivan are the architects.

The same architects have assigned the general contract for a house for L. W. Lee on Fourth street between Twenty-first and Twenty-second avenues east to Enoch Erickson at $7,000.

* * *

Gilluson & Carson, architects, are taking figures upon a frame and stucco home to be built for L. McLeod on Woodland avenue near St. Andrew street.

* * *

W. H. La Salle is building a home on the north side of Third street between Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth avenues east. Its cost is placed at $6,250.

* * *

A building permit has been taken out for a dwelling for O. J. Opland on Eleventh avenue east between Ninth and Tenth streets.

* * *

The Buffalo and Kimball buildings at Ninth avenue east and First street have recently been remodeled. All rooms are especially well lighted and ventilated, are of good size, living rooms being 12½ by 23 feet, with open fireplaces. There are new lighting fixtures with base plugs in every room, and new plumbing. The entrances and main halls have been completely remodeled and are being equipped and decorated in the most up-to-date manner.

* * *

Otto Johnson has obtained the general contract for a residence for E. F. Bird at Thirtieth avenue east and Greysolon place. Kelly & Williams are the architects.

* * *

Plans for a consolidated school to be built at McGrath, Minn., will be ready to go out for figures in a few days from the office of Kelly & Williams. It is estimated to cost $16,000.

The following permits were issued during the week:

To O. J. Opland, dwelling on the east side of Eleventh avenue east, between Ninth and Tenth streets	$ 4,000
To the Spalding Hotel company, enclosing elevator shaft in Spalding hotel	2,500
To George Lubovich, dwelling on the east side of Ninety-seventh avenue west, between Gary street and Crestline Court	1,500
To August Anderson, reshingling dwelling on the north side of Fourth street, between Second and Third avenues east	500
To William Seifert, repairs to dwelling on the west side of Second avenue east, between Sixth and Seventh streets	90
To F. A. Patrick & Co., alterations to woolen mill on Mill avenue, between slips Nos. 1 and 2	1,000
To W. C. Sherwood, repairs to fire-damaged tenement on the the north side of Fourth street, between Third and Fourth avenues west	1,000
To O. T. Lundquist, addition to dwelling on the south side of Colorado street, between Forty-first and Forty-second avenues east	200
To Olaf Pearson, brick hotel on the north side of Superior street, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth avenues west	16,000
To the Dickerman Investment company, brick garage on the south side of Superior street, between Third and Fourth avenues east	6,000
To W. H. La Salle, dwelling on the north side of Third street, between Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth avenues east	6,250
To R. E. Burdick, dwelling on the north side of Second street, between Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth avenues east	4,000
To Iver Pearson, dwelling on the north side of Regent street, betwen Forty-third and Forty-fourth avenues east	3,000
To B. E. Burdick, garage on the north side of Second street between Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth avenues east	1,000
To J. W. Shellenberger, repairs to fire-damaged tenement on the north side of Fourth street, between Third and Fourth avenues west	1,500
To Charles Paulson, basement under dwelling on the south side of Grand avenue, between Fifty-eighth and Fifty-ninth avenues west	500
To Matt Strom, addition to shop on the south side of Rene street, between Forty-third and Forty-fourth avenues west	40
To C. P. Craig & Co., alterations to tenement on the north side of Superior street, between Twenty-second and Twenty-third avenues west	2,500
To Miss E. Hudson, dwelling on the south side of Wyoming street, between Fifty-first and Fifty-second avenues east	500
To G. G. Hartley, repairs to fire-damaged store on the north side of Superior street, between Second and Third avenues east	200
To Joe Kaseya, barn on the south side of One Hundred and Fifth avenue west between Dickson and Reis streets	300
To Alex Maitland, alterations in Palladio building	200
To Elizabeth Vuckovick, installing gas tank on the east side of Commonwealth avenue between Ninety-ninth and One Hundredth avenues west	100
To John Bernie, remodeling store on the south side of First street between Seventh and Eighth avenues west	50
To Charles Bariconi, store on the west side of Commonwealth avenue, between Dickson and Gary streets	500
To J. F. Dennis, garage on the west side of Minnesota avenue, between Thirty-seventh and Thirty-eighth streets	300
To John A. Stephenson, tile floor in building on the south side of Superior street, between Nineteenth and Twentieth avenues west	275
To Anna Zell, porch for dwelling on the west side of Sixty-third avenue west, between Bristol and Green streets	40
Cost of improvements	$ 54,040
Number of permits, 28.

INQUIRY IS BROADENING

Real Estate Operators Report Many Deals Under Way.

Earnest Money Taken on West Superior Street Frontage.

Broadening inquiry for all classes of property was reported by real estate operators during the present week. Though cold weather conditions proved to be an obstacle, a number of substantial transactions were closed, and many other deals are pending.

A feature of the week was the taking of earnest money upon the sale of a West Superior street business frontage at a consideration of $15,000, as reported by the Little & Nolte company. The purchaser is said to be a local investor who is already a large realty holder here. A contract covering the sale of a house in the normal school district at $10,000 was also entered into through the same office.

First street property again came to the front in the sale from Armour & Co. of a 50-foot frontage on the lower side of that street near Tenth avenue east to H. A. Hall at a consideration of $3,000. Stryker, Manley & Buck represented the sellers and W. C. Sargent the purchaser in the transaction.

* * *

A site for a handsome residence on the upper side of Second street, between Thirtieth avenue east and the Hawthorne road was purchased by Dr. C. A. McFadden from C. Whiting of Baltimore, Md. The sale was effected through the office of Stryker, Manley & Buck. That office besides sold for W. H. Burroughs to Peter Schroder, house, No. 317 Thirteenth avenue east at $3,700.

* * *

The A. A. Fider company sold the Judge James A. Hanks property at No. 808 East Third street to Adel F. Olsson at $2,800.

* * *

The Hoopes-Kohagen company reported the sale of a building lot in the East end and two lots in the Park Drive division.

* * *

An extended selling campaign through Iowa, Illinois and Indiana has been inaugurated by the Gary Land company and definite results are being already obtained. The construction of houses will be active in Gary-Duluth during the spring and summer months, in the opinion of A. W. Kuehnow, president of the company. The building of twelve houses is now under way, and it is reported that arrangements are being made by some of the larger holders of properties to build between 75 and 100 moderate priced houses there, within the next three months. Included in the list are eighteen cement block dwellings to be built for Watson S. Moore. It is fully recognized that increased accommodation is imperative in the steel plant district and extended building operations are likely to be promoted to cover that deficiency.

* * *

W. C. Sargent reported the receipt of earnest money on the sale of a lot in West Duluth, which the owner proposes to improve in the building of a modern home. Two farms in the French river district were also sold by him.

* * *

The Ebert-Walker company reported the sale of forty acres close to Munger, Minn., to Carl Henning for J. B. Whitmore, at $16 per acre. Mr. Henning expects to develop the land this spring and put it under cultivation. The purchaser was represented by E. W. Helland. That company also received earnest money on the sale of a tract of cut-over lands east of the Mesaba range near the Duluth & Iron Range railroad tracks.

* * *

The West Duluth Realty company sold a house and lot in West Duluth for Ellen Wallace to Thomas Lar[illegible] at $1,750.

* * *

The L. A. Larsen company reported the sale of a number of building lots on the West end hillside during the last few days. In nearly all cases the purchasers propose to improve in the building of homes.

SHOULD TAKE SOME ACTION

Charter Maker Believes Terminal Situation Should Not Be Neglected.

H. H. Phelps Declares the City Must Act to Get Relief.

The advisability of inactivity of the city authorities in the terminal matter is doubted by H. H. Phelps, well-known Duluth attorney, who has for years taken a leading part in charter framing and other public matters.

Mr. Phelps does not advocate, necessarily, the acceptance of the proposals of the Western Terminal Railway company, which recently presented an application for a franchise, but he does believe that something should be done to relieve the terminal situation here; and he expresses the belief that it is the duty of the city authorities to take up the matter "in conjunction with some such organization as the Western Terminal Railway company to relieve the cramped conditions created by early rivalry of railroad interests." In an interview with The Herald, Mr. Phelps declared that it is beyond the power of anybody except the city itself, acting with some such organization, to accomplish anything along the desired lines.

Discussing the matter, Mr. Phelps said today:

Proposals Presented.

"I have been asked my opinion of the proposed franchise as outlined in the ordinance now before the city council granting certain rights and privileges to the Western Terminal Railway company. As I understand the matter, the company proposes to establish railroad terminals with tracks running along the water front from Lake avenue to New Duluth and passing through the territory back of the hills in such a way as to form a circular system of tracks that will reach all the dock property along the bay and any number of sites for manufacturing plants in the outlying territory back of the business district of the city. These terminals are to be open to any and all railroads entering Duluth upon the same terms, which terms are guaranteed to be reasonable and fair.

"In my opinion nothing of greater moment to the people of this city has been presented for their consideration in many years than this proposed terminal system.

Present System Outgrown.

"We have entirely outgrown our present system of rival and conflicting railroad yards and terminals and are daily paying the penalty by loss of business. Present railroad terminals in Duluth were established by those early on the ground with the very object of preventing rival lines from entering the city and thus becoming competitors of the pioneer roads. Naturally, the railroad men who were here first were not considering the future growth of Duluth, but what they had in mind was the monopolizing of the railroad business centering at the head of Lake Superior. But when the people of this city begin to view the question of terminals from their standpoint, they must see that if the city is to grow, all railroads that desire to enter its business district must be furnished the opportunity on practically an equal footing with their competitors.

Up to City Itself.

"It is beyond the power of anybody except the city itself in conjunction with some such organization as the Western Terminal Railway company to relieve the cramped condition created by early rivalry of railroad interests.

"Of course, I do not know that the proposed system will accomplish all that it lays claim to. That is a matter for experts to figure out. But if it will, then the city should leave no stone unturned to place the company in a position where it can enlist capital in the enterprise and carry out the work which it has planned to accomplish."

RAIL LINES BOOST VALUES

Trolley Line to Steel Plant and Arterial Highways Would Help.

Eastern Railway Head Shows Effects of Good Transit Facilities.

The effect of rapid transit facilities upon real estate development was the subject of a recent address by L. S. Miller, president of the New York, Westchester & Boston Railway company, to members of the East Tremont Taxpayers association, New York. He showed how values of properties in the various parts of New York have risen as facilities to reach them have been improved.

The subject of the address is of interest to Duluth property owners at present in view of the assured extension of the street railway to the steel plant district and the agitation for the building of a system of arterial street railways to afford direct connection with districts of the city in the vicinity of and above the Boulevard that now lie dormant. It is admitted that great increases in property valuations in the areas benefitted would follow street railway extensions to them.

Once Luxuries, Now Necessities.

"The development of transit facilities has been not only in the cutting down of distance as measured by time, but as well has brought about great conveniences which thirty-five years ago would have been measured as luxuries, but are now demanded as necessities," said Mr. Miller.

"Now it is all these improvements which have been bringing nearer to you the center of population of this great city, nearer to what used to be known as Tremont. The center of population of Manhattan and the Bronx is today somewhere in the neighborhood of Fifty-ninth street. It is moving north at the rate of four blocks a year.

"How have these conveniences in city travel, this shortening of time in transit, affected values in Tremont? For after all that is the measure of benefit.

"I have taken a number of vacant parcels of land in the vicinity of One Hundred and Seventy-seventh street and within the zone of influence from the subway, and compared their assessed value from 1900 to 1915, allowing full value from 1900 to 1909, and find that the ratio of increase has been over 200 per cent; 78 per cent of this increase took place from 1900 to 1905, 14 per cent from 1905 to 1910, and 108 per cent from 1910 to 1915. The subway was opened for part operation in 1905 and was in full operation in this section in 1906. No doubt the first increase of 78 per cent was in anticipation of the subway. Then came a lull, with an increase in the next five years of 14 per cent, and finally the full influence of the new transit facilities was reflected in values, and the balance of the increase, 108 per cent, followed.

"In the section on Manhattan island, away up to the north end, from One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street to the city line and between the Harlem and Hudson rivers was a section without any rapid transit facilities and few surface lines prior to the building of the subway, which was opened to One Hundred and Fifty-seventh street in October, 1904, to Two Hundred and Twenty-first street in 1906 and to Two Hundred and Thirtieth street in 1907.

Land Values Increase.

"In this section land values increased from 1906 to 1915 75 per cent and improvements 473 per cent. Boiling all these figures down, I reach the conclusion that transportation has increased the value of land in Tremont more than 100 per cent in nine years and added more than 150 per cent in the value of improvements.

"Why? Because the shortening of time between work and home has made it possible to live in Tremont and earn a wage wherever the market offered within the limits of this great city, thereby increasing the demand for homes. This is what transportation has done for Tremont.

"The district in which Tremont is located shows an increase of $38,000,000 in land values and $57,000,000 in improvements, a total of $95,000,000 from 1906 to 1915.

"This big increase has added $9,500,000 to the borrowing capacity of the city, enough to build more than four-score miles of a three-track elevated railroad similar to that being built on White Plains Road."

BIG GROWTH IN BUILDING

First Two Months 92 Per Cent Ahead of Last Year.

Outlook for March Is for Even Better Increase.

A gratifying record in building operations was made during February, and the present month promises to eclipse it by a wide margin.

Permits issued at the building inspector's office numbered seventy-one with the cost of improvements involved placed at $172,172, compared with sixty-nine permits and a cost of $89,647, taken out during the corresponding month last year.

The permits authorized the construction of six new brick and thirty-one new frame structures. Thirty-four permits were issued for additions, alterations and repairs.

Immense Increase.

For the first two months of the year, 134 permits were taken out, involving an aggregate expenditure of $285,905. This is compared with $179,802 for improvements during the corresponding period in 1915, thus showing an increase of 92 per cent for the present year.

The last week's building permits numbered twenty-eight, involving improvements placed at $54,040. The largest permit in the list was issued to Olaf Pearson for a brick hotel on the north side of Superior street near Fifteenth avenue west. It is estimated to cost $16,000. Gilluson & Carson are the architects.

LEGAL NOTICES.

ORDER OF HEARING ON PETITION FOR LICENSE TO SELL, MORTGAGE OR LEASE LAND—
State of Minnesota,
County of St. Louis—ss.

In Probate Court. In the matter of the estate of George A. Everest, decedent.

The petition of Sidney J. Everest, as representative of the above named estate, having been filed in this Court, representing, among other things, that for reasons stated in said petition, it is necessary and for the best interests of the estate of said decedent and of all persons interested therein, to sell certain lands of said estate in said petition described and praying that license be to him granted to sell the said land: It is ordered, That said petition be heard before this Court at the Probate Court Rooms in the Court House, in Duluth, in said County, on Monday, the 20th day of March, 1916, at 10 o'clock A. M., and all persons interested in said hearing and in said matter are hereby cited and required at said time and place to show cause, if any there be, why said petition should not be granted. Ordered further, That this order by served by publication in The Duluth Herald according to law.

Dated at Duluth, Minn., Feb. 25, 1916.

By the Court,
S. W. GILPIN, Judge of Probate.

Attest: A. R. MORTON,
Clerk of Probate.

Seal, Probate Court, St. Louis Co., Minn.
D. H., Feb. 26, Mch. 4-11, 1916.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE—

Whereas default has been made in the payment of the sum of sixty-four hundred forty-nine dollars and sixty-two cents ($6449.62), for principal and interest which is claimed to be due and is due at this date, and which default has continued to the date of this notice upon a certain mortgage duly executed and delivered by Anna Marie Laihinen, widow, mortgagor, to J. B. Sattler, mortgagee, bearing date the 21st day of August, 1911, with a Power of Sale therein contained, and duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for St. Louis County, Minnesota, on the 23rd day of August, 1911, at 4:45 o'clock p. m., in Book 290 of Mortgages, on page 213, and

Whereas said mortgage conveyed the following described property, to-wit:

Lot Fourteen (14), Block Seven (7), Virginia; lots Thirty-one (31) and Thirty-two (32), Block Eight (8), North Side addition to Virginia, and lots Thirty-one (31) and Thirty-two (32), Block Ninety-two (92), Second addition to Virginia; according to the respective plats thereof, on file and of record in the office of the Register of Deeds of said county, and said J. B. Sattler, mortgagee, has released, to said Anna Marie Laihinen from said mortgage, said lots Thirty-one (31) and Thirty-two (32), Block Eight (8), North Side addition to Virginia, by partial release dated August 27th, 1913, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for said County, on the 5th day of September, 1913, at 8:30 o'clock a. m., in Book 159 of Mortgages, on page 25, and

Whereas further default has been made in the payment of the sum of Five Hundred Eighteen and 37-100 ($518.37) Dollars for taxes upon said lot 14, Block 7, Virginia, and upon said lots 31 and 32, Block 92, Second addition to Virginia, for the years 1911, 1912, 1913 and 1914, which taxes have been paid by said mortgagee in accordance with the terms of said mortgage, and which sum together with unpaid interest thereon amounts at this date to the sum of Five Hundred Twenty-five dollars and thirty-six cents ($525.36).

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the Power of Sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statutes in such case made and provided, said mortgage will be foreclosed by sale of all the said premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, except said lots 31 and 32, Block 8, North Side addition to Virginia which have been released from said mortgage, and which sale will be made by the sheriff of said St. Louis county, Minnesota, at his office, in the County Court House, in the city of Duluth, in said county and state, on Saturday, the 8th day of April, 1916, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash, to pay said mortgage debt, interest and taxes, and One Hundred and no-100 ($100.00) Dollars attorney's fees, and disbursements allowed by law subject to redemption at any time within one year from date of sale.

Dated February 21st, 1916.

J. B. SATTLER, Mortgagee.

J. J. ROBINSON,
Attorney for Mortgagee,
510 Alworth Bldg.,
Duluth, Minnesota.

D. H., Feb. 26, March 4, 11, 18, 25, April 1, 1916.

OPENING OF CEDED CHIPPEWA LANDS.—Department of the Interior, General Land Office, Washington, D. C., Feb. 19, 1916.—Notice is hereby given, That 56,175.62 acres of ceded Chippewa lands in the former Red Lake, White Earth, Leech Lake, Chippewa of the Mississippi, Winnebigoshish, Deer Creek, Bois Fort and Pigeon River Indian Reservations, in the State of Minnesota, will be opened to homestead entry at the district land offices at Cass Lake, Crookston and Duluth, Minnesota, on April 26, 1916, on and after 9 o'clock a. m., under Section 6 of the act of January 14, 1889 (25 Stat., 642), and under the laws applicable to townsites. A portion of these lands were opened to settlement on January 11, 1915, and September 27, 1915, and the remainder will be subject to settlement at 9 o'clock a. m., on April 12, 1916. No rights can be acquired by settling on the lands prior to the time they are subject to settlement. A portion of the lands, 3,815.35 acres, are classified as pine lands, and applicants for these lands will be required to pay an appraised price for the timber thereon at the time of making entry, as provided in Section 27, act of June 25, 1910 (36 Stat., 862). Printed lists of the lands to be opened and copies of the instructions governing the disposal of said lands, may be obtained, as soon as they can be printed for distribution, upon application to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, Washington, D. C., or the Registers and Receivers of the United States land offices, at Cass Lake, Crookston and Duluth, Minnesota. Clay Tallman, Commissioner. Approved Feb. 19, 1916. Andrieus A. Jones, First Assistant Secretary.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE SALE—

Whereas default has been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage duly executed and delivered by Jacob Mattson and Alma Mattson, his wife, mortgagors, to A. B. Fay, mortgagee, dated January 4th, 1912, and recorded in the Register of Deeds' office for St. Louis County, Minnesota, on January 5th, 1912, at 4:30 o'clock P. M., in Book 297 of mortgage, on page 59, the payment of said mortgage being extended to July 1st, 1915, by agreement in writing signed by the parties thereto, dated January 4th, 1915, and recorded in said Register of Deeds office on April 10th, 1915, at eleven o'clock A. M., in Book 248 of Mortgages, on page 515, which said mortgage was thereafter duly assigned by Margaret A. Fay, as administratrix of the estate of A. B. Fay, deceased, the said mortgagee, to the Howard Investment Company, by an instrument dated February 1st, 1916, and recorded in said Register of Deeds office on February 7th, 1916, at 9:30 o'clock A. M., in Book 334 of Mortgages, on page 77; and,

Whereas, said Margaret A. Fay was duly appointed and did duly qualify as such administratrix of the estate of A. B. Fay, deceased, the said mortgagee, and that said administratrix has filed a duly certified copy dated August 25th, 1915, of her appointment in the office of the Register of Deeds for said St. Louis County, Minnesota, which said copy was recorded August 30th, 1915, at two o'clock P. M., in Book 17 of Miscellaneous, on page 264; and,

Whereas such default consists in the non-payment of the principal sum thereby secured and interest thereon from July 1st, 1915, and there is claimed to be due and is actually due upon said mortgage at the date of this notice the sum of Three hundred eleven and 80-100 dollars ($311.80), principal and interest, and no proceeding at law or otherwise has been instituted to recover said debt or any part thereof;

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, That under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, which has become operative by reason of the aforesaid default, and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described, situated in St. Louis County, Minnesota, viz.:

The north fifty (N. 50) feet of Lots fifteen (15) and sixteen (16), in Block twenty-six (26), Endion Division of Duluth, according to the recorded plat thereof, which said premises, with the hereditaments and appurtenances, will be sold by the Sheriff of St. Louis County, Minnesota, at the office of the Sheriff in the Court House in the City of Duluth, in said county and state, on Tuesday, the 11th day of April, 1916, at ten o'clock A. M., at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, to pay said debt and interest, and Twenty-five dollars ($25.00) attorney's fees, stipulated for by and in said mortgage in case of foreclosure, and the disbursements allowed by law, subject to redemption within one year from date of sale, as provided by law.

Dated at Duluth, Minnesota, February 26th, 1916.

HOWARD INVESTMENT COMPANY,
Assignee of Mortgagee.

E. P. TOWNE, Esq.,
Attorney for Assignee of Mortgagee,
No. 500-503 Torrey Building,
Duluth, Minnesota.

D. H., Feb. 26, March 4, 11, 18, 25, April 1, 1916.

NORTON'S FAIRMOUNT PARK DIVISION

The choicest property, conveniently located as to both the steel plant and the city.

A SPECIAL DISCOUNT OF 20% AT INTRODUCTORY SALE

Choice corners on Grand avenue, $400. Choice lots, 30 feet wide, on graded streets where water and gas mains are already petitioned for within 150 feet of Grand avenue for $220. 10 per cent cash (minumum cash payment $25), and 2 per cent per month. Interest 6 per cent per annum.

Our office will be open this evening. The street car line is already constructed through this property.

RICHARDSON, DAY & CHEADLE CO.
408 EXCHANGE BUILDING.

UPHAM'S WEEKLY BULLETIN
DECIDE ON THE LOCALITY AND BUY NOW WHILE PRICES ARE YET LOW.

$7,000—BEAUTIFUL WAVERLY PARK—Brand new, 8 rooms, stucco, thoroughly modern, hot water heat, fireplace, hardwood floors and finish, pretty sun parlor, best sleeping porch in town, stone foundation, full basement, laundry, beautifully wooded lot 50x165 feet, elegant view, only 3 blocks from car line; $7,000, reasonable terms to the right party. Smaller house would be considered as part payment.

$6,700—HUNTER'S PARK DISTRICT—Nearly new, 7 rooms, thoroughly modern, hot water heat, fireplace, hardwood floors and finish, stone foundation, full basement, laundry, pretty lot 50x140 feet, beautiful view, close to car line; only $6,700, part cash, balance to suit a good purchaser; also would consider a smaller house or lot as part payment.

$4,750—EAST END—Nearly new, 6 rooms, thoroughly modern, hot water heat, stone foundation, full basement, laundry, nice lot 35x140 feet on paved street near Eighteenth avenue east, only 2 blocks from car line; $4,750, part cash, balance can be arranged for.

$4,200—WOODLAND PARK—eight large rooms, modern, hardwood floors, furnace heat, fine condition, elegant lot 100x140 feet, garage, 1½ blocks from car line; all for $4,200, part cash, balance to suit a good purchaser.

$3,800—LAKESIDE—Six rooms, thoroughly modern, heat, hardwood floors and finish, tastily decorated throughout, concrete block foundation, full basement, nice lot 56x140 feet, lawn trees and shrubbery, cement walks, near car line; only $3,800, part cash, balance to suit a good purchaser.

$3,300—WEST END—Brand new, 6 rooms, modern except heat, hardwood floors, concrete foundation, full basement, nice 35-foot lot, N. 24th ave. W., near good car line; only $3,300, part cash, balance to suit a good purchaser.

$3,200—CENTRAL—Seven rooms, modern except heat, stone foundation, full basement, laundry, corner lot 50x140 feet, elegant view of lake, NO CAR FARE. Near business district; only $3,200, part cash and balance to suit a good purchaser.

$3,000—WOODLAND—Brand new, 6 rooms, modern except heat, hardwood floors and finish, concrete foundation, full basement, laundry, nice corner lot 50x140 feet, only one block from car line; only $3,000, part cash, balance to suit a good purchaser.

$2,200—WEST END—Brand new 4-room cottage, modern except heat, hardwood floors, nice 33-foot lot, only half block from car line, N. 34th ave. W.; $2,200, part cash and balance to suit a good purchaser.

DON'T ENVY A SUCCESSFUL BUYER! BE ONE!

Just phone us if you wish.

N. J. UPHAM COMPANY
714 PROVIDENCE BLDG.
Phones: Melrose 848; Grand 847.

RESIDENCE SITES

Have you picked out the lot on which to build your home? Call at our office and let us show you the beautiful sites we have to offer.

Central, East Fourth Street—50x140, fine lots with elegant view, at $2,000.

Normal School District—Large lots, restricted, some very desirable lots on which the owner will build to suit you and sell on very easy payments; own your home and pay for it like paying rent.

Congdon Park District—On Superior, First and Second streets, handsome lots, 50x140 feet, from $700 up. The cheapest high-class residence property in the city.

Hunters Park, Waverly Park, Kenilworth Park—Lots in these beautiful residence districts at low prices and easy payments; some on which owner will build and sell on monthly payments.

Lakeside—Lots 50x140, at $350 and up; some homes already built for sale very cheap on easy payments.

Lots in East End, West End, Oneota, West Duluth—All sections of the city, wherever you want to go.

SEE OUR LIST.

MONEY ON HAND FOR LOANS.

STRYKER, MANLEY & BUCK

DUPLEX
NEAR PORTLAND SQUARE

Two 5-room all modern flats, separate hot water heating plants. Fine location. $30.00 and $27.50 rent. Tenant guaranteed.

$5,500 EASY TERMS

CHAS. P. CRAIG & CO.,
501 Sellwood Building.

A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY

For a limited time we offer for sale a brick business block in the West End Business Section on Superior street, three stories, all rented. A good paying investment that will increase in value.

F. I. SALTER CO.
302-303 LONSDALE BLDG.

Don't Pay Rent
BUY A HOME ON EASY TERMS.

No. 1315 East Ninth St., 5 rooms, hardwood floors and finish; city water, sewer, bath, gas.

No. 426 Thirteenth Ave. East, and No. 1308 East Fifth St. have 6 rooms each and bathroom, and are strictly modern.

No. 815 East Eighth St. has 6 rooms; hardwood finish and modern conveniences.

SMALL FIRST PAYMENT; BALANCE SAME AS RENT.

EBY & GRIDLEY
508 PALLADIO BLDG.

GRASP THIS WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITY

to buy now and sell at a profit before you have your lot all paid for.

HOMEWOOD

$1 to $5 cash, $1 to $5 per week, including interest. Lots 30x140, some 40x140, all to 16-foot alley. Prices, $100 to $700.

WHITNEY WALL CO.
Real Estate—Loans—Insurance
301 TORREY BUILDING.

EASY TERMS

$3,150—Six-room house, 4115 West Third street; $500 cash, balance $30 per month.

$5,700—Six-room house, 426 Seventeenth avenue east; $500 cash, balance $50 per month; hot water heat, laundry.

$4,000—Six-room house, 1318 East Sixth street; $500 cash, balance $35 per month; hot water heat, gas, electric lights.

$2,500—Five-room bungalow, 610 Eighteenth avenue east; $300 cash, balance monthly payments.

PULFORD, HOW & COMPANY
609 Alworth Bldg.

STEEL PLANT EMPLOYES

Five and six-room houses can be bought on easy terms, like rent, in

OLIVER

THE STEEL PLANT TOWNSITE.

Call at our office and let us show you these homes with no obligation to you. Lots at $150.00—easy terms, no interest.

OLIVER TOWNSITE CO.
300-1 Alworth Bldg., Duluth, Minn.

Newly Completed Home For Sale

You will be interested in this newly completed strictly modern home located in the East end; 7 rooms, hardwood floors throughout; oak finish on main floor; second floor finished in natural yellow pine. For price and terms see

HOOPES-KOHAGEN CO.,
209 First National Bank Bldg.

HOME BUILDERS' GUIDE

Consult this page before you build. The firms represented on this page are in a position to furnish you with the latest, best and most up-to-date material obtainable.

Fine Interior Finish

Send Us Your Plans for Estimates

LUMBER, LATH and SHINGLES

STORM SASH AND STORM DOORS ALWAYS IN STOCK.
See Our Easy Change Combination Storm and Screen Door.

Scott-Graff Lumber Co.

Melrose 2431—PHONES—Lincoln 430.

DULUTH ART GLASS CO.

Manufacturers of Art, Beveled and Leaded Windows for Churches, Residences and Public Buildings.

Art Shades, Canopies, Plate Glass Dresser and Desk Tops
Plate and Window Glass.

Grand 1600-X. Melrose 1397.

Office and Factory—1542-44 West Michigan Street.

Order Fly Screens and Cement Walks, Drains and Curbs for the Summer NOW—From

THOMSON-WILLIAMS CO.

Builders' Supplies. Contractors in Tile, Marble and Cement.
Grand 1998; Melrose 1998. 206 MANHATTAN BUILDING.

Fixtures—Supplies

Oscar Hanson

ELECTRICAL CONTRACTOR
1915 WEST SUPERIOR ST.
Lincoln 383; Melrose 580.

CORDNER BROS.

BUILDING AND JOB WORK
Office and Shop—
108 FIRST AVENUE WEST.
Zenith Phone 2144-A.

Monarch, Minnesota and Seal — Metal Weather Strips!

Watson 20th Century Steel Frame and Economy Wood Frame Screens—Walger Special Residence Awnings—International Metal Casement Windows—Kerner Built-in-the-Chimney Incinerators.

CLYDE R. FENTON, Representative.
Duluth: 408 Torrey Building. Both Phones 700.

McKenzie Duluth — The Photographer

A Technical Man of Experience

DOES YOUR HOME NEED REPAIRS?

To foundation, porches, roof, doors, floors or windows? If it does, call us up now. We will put it in first-class shape at small expense and least inconvenience. Have new hardwood flooring laid now before the house-cleaning season begins.

ANDERSON & GOW,

CONTRACTORS. Just in Rear of Christie Bldg., on Fourth Ave. West.

Dahlstrom Hollow Steel Doors

No shrinkage or swelling and everlasting. We match any wood finish and then bake it on. Ornamental iron and brass of all kinds for buildings.

DUNLOP-MOORE COMPANY,

Builders' Supplies and Fireplaces.

BURRELL & CO.,

(Successors to Burrell & Harmon)

Experts in Warm Air Heating and Ventilating
Electric Heat Regulators

General Sheet Metal Work, Cornice and Roofing.
Melrose 1574. 22 EAST SECOND STREET. Grand 542.

Tile, Marble, Terrazzo, Slate and Fireplace Furnishings

LOWRY-SMITH CO.

23 East Michigan Street, Duluth, Minn.

SEE US BEFORE LETTING YOUR TILE CONTRACT

FOR RENT

Four-room flat at Twenty-first avenue west, on car line; newly painted and papered; water, gas and electricity, in good condition, $12.00.

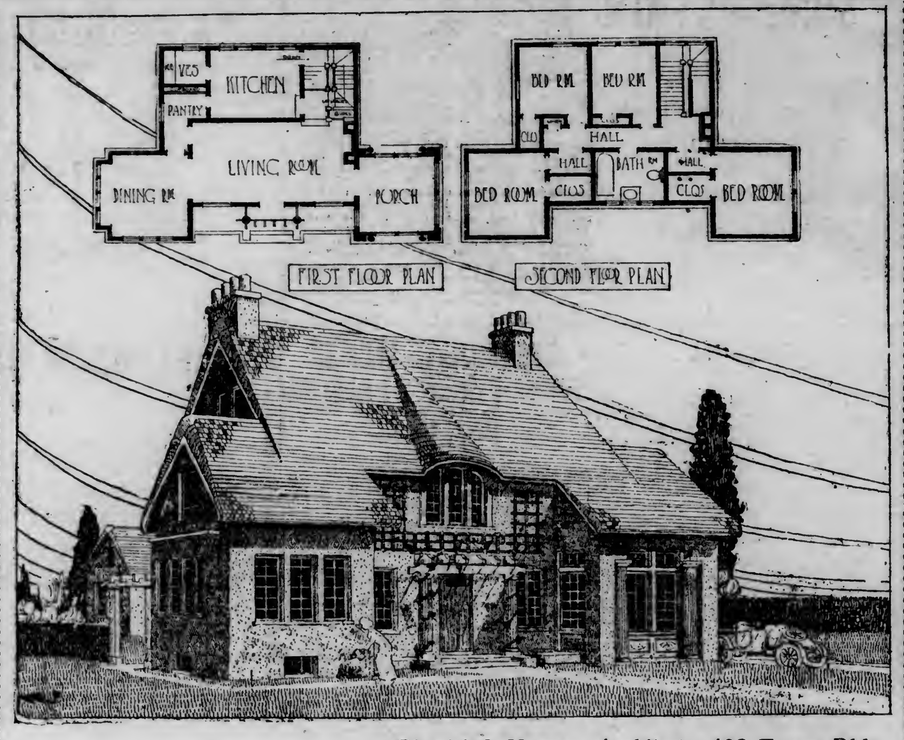
Three-room flat, Twenty-first avenue west; water, gas and electricity, $8.00.

Five-room house, 1026 East Third street; water, gas and electricity; walking distance, $15.00.

Several furnished and unfurnished cottages on Park Point. Get one early.

D. W. SCOTT & CO.,

604 PALLADIO BUILDING.



—Shurick & Hansen, Architects, 403 Torrey Bldg.

This Fine Home for $8,000

For the man who wants a little better than the ordinary home, this type of house should appeal. The floor plans show a careful study of arrangement and convenience in a home of this size, and to build in this locality, including plumbing, heating and wiring, would cost but $8,000. Why not arrange now with your architect to build a new home this year, the most prosperous in a decade, while the cost of building as yet has not affected the cost of material to any great extent, but is bound to come before the season is over. Turn your vacant realty to a paying investment by erecting a store, flat or home for renting purposes on it. The demand already is great for suitable places of this sort and will increase rapidly as the summer approaches. Do it now. Why wait?

We Will Build the Above Attractive Home

Or any home you wish on a fine lot at Sixteenth avenue east and London road. You may make your own terms. See us for BUILDING LOANS or LOANS on any class of improved property in Duluth. Lowest rates—no delay—any amount.

LITTLE & NOLTE CO.

EXCHANGE BUILDING

Loans—Real Estate—Rentals

DENISON

LOAD-BEARING TILE!

THE STRONGEST TILE IN THE WORLD

Guaranteed crushing strength, 600 pounds to the square inch. Superior for stucco exteriors or bonds perfectly with brick. Non-continuous motor joints. Vertical webs directly over each other. Saving in cost erected of 25% over brick construction.

THE MAJESTIC COAL CHUTE With Steel Panel or Wire Glass

PAINE & NIXON CO.

310 and 312 West Michigan Street

JOBBERS IN PAINTS, GLASS, BUILDING MATERIALS.

"Windshield Plate Set While You Wait."

The Modern Way

The Old Way

BREWING COMPANIES UNDER INDICTMENT

Over 100 Returned Against Members for Political Activity.

Pittsburgh, March 4.—One hundred and one indictments against 100 brewing companies located in various parts of Pennsylvania, and the United States Brewers association of New York were unexpectedly returned late yesterday by the Federal grand jury, which has been investigating the alleged political activity of brewers. The indictments, which are the first returned since the investigation opened, charge the brewing companies and the association with conspiracy in the alleged unlawful expenditure of money in elections at which votes for federal officers were being cast.

The indictments make no mention of individuals, but are directed at corporations themselves. Fifty-eight of the companies named are members of the Pennsylvania Brewers association, while forty-two were members of the United States Brewers' association. The companies in the first named group are accused jointly of conspiracy entered into, it is alleged on Sept. 1, 1912 "unlawfully, willfully, knowingly, fraudulently and feloniously" to make contributions to political campaigns at which presidential electors or representatives in congress were to be voted for.

CROOKS IMPLICATE CHICAGO DETECTIVES

Chicago, March 4.—Charles Kramer, one of four defendants on trial for the $15,000 robbery at the Washington Park National bank, on the witness stand yesterday named Capt. Nicholas Hunt of the Chicago detective department, Sergt. Tom Sheehan of the same department, and Harry Kavanagh, director of the bank, as participants in the alleged conspiracy, which the defendants claim led them to rob the bank.

Capt. Hunt was to receive a diamond stick pin, "for keeping his mouth closed about the robbery," Kramer said Eddie Mack, confessed bank robber and state's witness, told the four defendants.

Sheehan was to receive a tenth of the loot, Kramer testified, and Mack left the bank robbers' automobile five minutes after the daylight holdup with the $1,500 intended for Sheehan.

Kramer pictured Mack as the "brains" of the quintet that robbed the bank, and as an intimate friend of Detective Sergt. Sheehan.

Shortly before Christmas, Kramer testified, Mack left $25—representing part of the loot of five pickpockets—at a cafe for Sheehan.

"BLIND PIG" CASES COMING UP MONDAY

Six Will Be Given Hearing; Second Arrest for Smolich.

Six alleged "blind piggers," arrested Thursday night in a raid on rooming houses which cater to lumberjacks, pleaded not guilty to a charge of selling liquor without a license when arraigned before Judge W. H. Smallwood yesterday afternoon.

A hearing of their cases was adjourned until Monday morning and five of the six were released in $100 bail. The accused are Martin Costello, 611½ West Superior street; Mike Smolich, 701 West Superior street; Mike Rajkovich, 721½ West Superior street; Mike Luzaich, 609 West First street; Mike Krznarich, 627 West First street, and Mike Davich, 608 West First street.

Smolich is the only one of the six who has been arrested previously for an offense of this kind. Luzaich was released shortly after his arrest on $100 bail, but the others failed to produce the required amount until yesterday.

Police say they obtained evidence in each of the rooming houses in the way of beer, whisky or "white line," which the lumberjack term for diluted alcohol.

Red Cross Bazar Plans.

The plans for the Red Cross and war relief bazar, to be given under the auspices of the German-Austro-Hungarian Relief association from March 23 to March 25 are rapidly progressing. M. Binheim, editor of the German Press and manager of the fair, announces that on the opening day, Thursday, March 23, an orchestra will play, a German children's mass chorus will be rendered and the children of the public schools will be seen in athletic exhibitions. The Germania Singing society will sing two German numbers and well-known soloists will be heard.

On the second night, Friday, March 24, the orchestra and Kalinik's zither quartet will be heard. The high school quartet will play between 6 and 7 in the evening. Girls of the public schools will be seen in club swinging and dancing.

GOVERNOR AT CASS LAKE.

Executive Entertained By Lunch at Commercial Club.

Cass Lake, Minn., March 4.—Governor J. A. A. Burnquist looked over the Minnesota national forest reserve, Star island and Ten sections, near here yesterday and was the guest of honor at a lunch given by the Commercial club. William O'Neil was toastmaster, while Frank Ives welcomed the governor, who spoke in advocacy of constitutional amendment No. 1. Forester Cox also spoke.

OVER 3000 PERSONS LOST WHEN PROVENCE II SANK

French Ministry Makes Public Extent of Great Disaster.

Nearly 4,000 on Board and But 870 Reported Saved.

London, March 4.—In the sinking in the mid-Mediterranean recently of the French auxiliary cruiser Provence II, the indications are that there occurred the greatest marine disaster in the world's history, so far as loss of life is concerned.

The French admiralty reports that there were nearly 4,000 persons on board, and, up to date, it has only accounted for 870 of them. Seemingly, therefore, more than 3,000 men perished when the former trans-Atlantic liner went to the bottom. The staff of the Third Colonial infantry regiment was among the many soldiers aboard the cruiser.

Announced in Paris.

Paris, March 4.—It was announced at the French ministry of marine yesterday there were nearly 4,000 men on board the French auxiliary cruiser Provence when she was sunk in the Mediterranean on Feb. 26. It was stated that on board the Provence were the staff of the Third Colonial infantry regiment, the Third battalion, the Second company of the First battalion, the Second machine gun company, and one extra company, in all nearly 4,000 men.

The loss of more than 3,000 lives in the sinking of the French auxiliary cruiser Provence is the greatest ocean disaster of modern times. Up to the present, the largest number of lives ever lost in one wreck was when the White Star Titanic struck an iceberg off the Newfoundland banks on April 4, 1912, and sank with a death loss of 1,595. The rescued numbered 743.

The French ministry of marine had previously issued no statement as to the number of persons on the Provence, when she went down. The vessel, however, when in the trans-Atlantic service, could carry 1,960 persons, including the crew, and it has been presumed that as she was transporting troops between ports not far apart, she was carrying a number of men larger than her normal capacity.

Official Statement.

The official statement announcing the sinking of the Provence said:

"The French auxiliary cruiser Provence II (so designated to distinguish her from the French battleship Provence) engaged in transporting troops to Saloniki was sunk in the Mediterranean on Feb. 26. Two hundred and ninety-six survivors have been brought to Malta and about 400 to Melos by French and British patrol vessels summoned by wireless.

"No signs of a submarine were noticed either before or after the sinking. La Provence was armed with five cannon of 14 centimeters, two of 67 millimeters and four of 47 millimeters."

Among the other great sea disasters in addition to the Titanic already mentioned were:

Other Sea Disasters.

The Cunard line steamship Lusitania, which was torpedoed by a German submarine and sunk off the head of Kinsale, Ireland, on May 7, 1915, with the loss of 1,206 lives.

The burning of the excursion steamship Gen. Slocum in the East river, New York, June 15, 1904, when nearly 1,000 persons met their death.

The French line steamer La Bourgogne, sunk in collision with the steamship Cromartyshire, July 4, 1898, with the loss of 580 lives.

The Japanese liner Kioku Maru, sunk off the coast of Japan, Sept. 28, 1912, with the loss of 1,000 lives.

The Canadian Pacific steamship Empress of Ireland, sunk in collision with the Danish collier Storstad in the St. Lawrence river, May 29, 1914, with the loss of more than 1,000 lives.

GRAND JURY INDICTS NINE

Three Prisoners at the County Jail Are Exonerated.

True Bills Are Returned Against Hanneman, Holmgren and Smith.

Nine persons were indicted by the March grand jury which made a partial report to Judge Cant in district court late yesterday afternoon, and the investigating body returned no true bills in three cases. Two of the no true bills were reported in favor of defendants in custody at the county jail.

The grand jury refused to indict Henry Arthur Fox, who was arrested on Feb. 21 on a charge of having indecent relations with a young girl. Edmund Hargest, who was arrested on Jan. 25 last, charged with misappropriating $120.54 from the Prudential Life Insurance company, while employed as a solicitor, was also exonerated.

Six of the nine indictments reported by the jury yesterday were secret, the defendants not being in the actual custody of the sheriff. The three counts made public were returned against:

Aden Hanneman for rape. Hanneman is charged with having outraged a 17-year-old girl. It is claimed that he met the young woman on Sept. 5, 1914, at a time when she was in company with a male escort who was taking her home. Accosting the pair, he represented himself as a detective, and it is alleged that without any provocation he threatened the escort with arrest if he did not leave the girl at once. Hanneman stating that he would see that the girl was escorted home. The young woman alleges that shortly afterwards Hanneman assaulted her.

Carl Holmgren for grand larceny in the second degree. Holmgren was held to the grand jury on a burglary charge, but the count returned against him was one charging him with having stolen 27 cents from a meat market at 24 Twentieth avenue west on the night of Jan. 27 last.

Mike Smith for grand larceny in the second degree. Smith, it is claimed, stole $205 from one Mike Zavis, a roomer at 1021 West Michigan street, on the evening of Jan. 21, 1916.

The grand jury is not in session today. The deliberations will be resumed Monday and it is expected that the final report will be forthcoming Tuesday.

ADDITIONAL CHURCH NEWS

Congregational.

Pilgrim—Pending the erection of their new building at Twenty-third avenue east and Fourth street, Pilgrim Congregational church holds Sunday school at the Masonic temple, Lake avenue and Second street at 9:45 a. m., followed at 10:45 by the morning service. The communion service will be held and new members received into the church. The pastor will speak on "Life More Abundant." The vesper service will be held at the Unitarian building, Eighteenth avenue and East First street. The church quartet will sing. The pastor will speak on "Jesus' Winter in Perea." At 5:30 p. m. the young people's society will hold its monthly consecration meeting. The topic will be "How to Develop Strength in the Christian Life." Psalms xxix, 1-11, leader, Elbert Wade

The day's musical program follows:

MORNING.

Prelude ..... Verdi
Quartet—"Send Out Thy Light" ....
..... Gounod
Quartet—"Father, Thy Dying Love"
..... Thompson
Offertory ..... Schumann
Postlude—Improvisation .....

VESPERS.

Prelude—"Traumerei" ..... Bohm
Quartet—"O Jesus, Thou Art Standing" ..... Shepard
Quartet—"Gently Lead Us" .. Hawley
Offertory—"Berceuse" ..... Dennee
Postlude—Improvisation .....

The choir: Perle Reynolds, soprano; Mrs. O. J. Larson, contralto; Bruce Brown, tenor; Harold Larsen, bass; Faith Rogers, organist and choir director.

Christian.

First—At the First Christian church Twelfth avenue east and Fourth street, preaching will begin at 11 o'clock by Le Grand Pace, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Proctor. Special music will be given by the choir, Mrs. J. A. Davis is director. Sunday school meets at 10 o'clock, E. A. Risdon, superintendent.

BAPTIST PASTOR ON EXPRESSION OF CHRISTIANITY

Beginning with tomorrow morning's service, Rev. R. Edward Sayles, pastor of the First Baptist church, Ninth avenue east and First street, will give a series of sermons on Sunday mornings on the general theme, "Modern Expressions of Christianity." The initial sermon, tomorrow morning, will be on "Personal Religion." The succeeding subjects will be as follows:

March 12—"The Home."
March 19—"The Saloon."
March 26—"Christian Thinking."
April 2—"Public Education."
April 9—"Industrial Justice."
April 16—"Amusements."
April 23—"Missions."

Evangelical Association.

At the Hope Evangelical church, Fifth street and Sixth avenue east, the Sunday school begins at 10 o'clock and the preaching service sat 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. The pastor, Rev. C. B. Frank, will preach both morning and evening. The theme for his morning sermon will be "The Glory and Power of the Gospel." The evening services will be evangelistic. The Young People's Alliance meets at 7:15 p. m. and will be led by the pastor. The topic for the evening is "Consecration and Strength." The midweek prayer meeting will be held at the home of H. D. Britzius, 1017 Twelfth avenue east.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR NOTES

The subject for study this week in endeavor circles is, "The Conservation of Strength." Reference, Psalms xxix, 1-11. The following services will be held in Duluth:

First Baptist—This society meets at the church, Ninth avenue east and First street, at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Cecil Hockin will be the leader, using the subject, "The Consecration of Influence." Monthly roll call will be observed, and the regular offering taken. Special music will consist of a duet by Mrs. A. E. Manthey and C. J. Hockin and a number by the male quartet. All young people are welcome.

First Presbyterian—Miss Ruth Coe will be the leader for this service which starts at 6:45. At this meeting the new officers will be installed, as follows:

President, George McFarlane; first vice president, Robert Forbes; second vice president, Chester Philipps; secretary, Mae Callan; treasurer, James Johnson.

Thursday, at 7 p. m., the mission study class will meet to study Greenland and the West Indies, with Miss G. M. Hall as leader.

Forbes M. E. of Proctor—This society meets at the church at 6:45, to which service all the young people of the community are invited. Mrs. E. K. Sherwin will be the leader, using the regular topic.

Lakeside Presbyterian—Francis Dever will be the leader for this service, which is held at 6 o'clock in the Christian Endeavor parlors. The regular topic will be studied.

Pilgrim Congregational—This society will meet at 5:30 at the Unitarian church, Eighteenth avenue east, under the leadership of Elbert Wade, to study the subject, "Some Reasons Why Christians Fail."

Westminster Presbyterian—The service of this society will be held in the Christian Endeavor parlors at 6:45 with Mrs. John Rockwell as leader. On March 26 the Hazelwood and Westminster society will debate, "Resolved, That home missions are more important than foreign missions." An interesting meeting is looked forward to.

LAST SHOWING OF FILMS.

French Baron Will Close Engagement at Orpheum-Strand.

Tonight will be the last opportunity that the people of the Head of the Lakes will have to hear the interesting and vivid stories of personal experiences of the great world war that have ever been offered here.

At the Orpheum-Strand Baron H. S. de Malaussene has offered more real information about the war than any person who has ever visited this city.

Between the reels of the authentic "Fighting for France" pictures the baron speaks, and it is with reluctance that he is allowed to leave the stage, so interesting and absorbing is his talk.

Not the least of his interesting discourse is about the Americans who served with him in the famous "Foreign Legion."

Three Killed When Boiler Explodes.

Weston, W. Va., March 4.—Three men were killed and two perhaps fatally injured by a boiler explosion in a sawmill at Ireland, Lewis county, late yesterday. The dead were Clay Bland, Lee McCarty and Thomas Bennett. The injured are Alvin Neely and Lee Bennett. The cause has not been determined.

SCOOP THE CUB REPORTER — A Good Wire For Whoever Gets It — By "HOP"

I'LL BE THE FIRST TO SEND A WIRE CONGRATULATION!
TELEGRAPH OFFICE
"DEAR SIR-ONE YEAR FROM TODAY-MARCH FOURTH-1917-YOU WILL TAKE UP THE DUTIES OF PRESIDENT OF OUR GREAT U.S.A.-ALLOW ME TO BE THE FIRST AMERICAN CITIZEN TO CONGRATULATE YOU—" SCOOP
HUM-YOU WANT THIS WIRE SENT COLLECT-BUT WHO DO YOU WANT IT SENT TO—— LAUNDRY STUFF
GOSH-I DONT KNOW-HOW WOULD IT DO TO SEND IT CARE OF TH' WHITE HOUSE AN' LET TH' RIGHT PARTY CALL FOR IT!
TELEGRAPH OFFICE
©1916 - INT'L-SYND - BALTO. MD

FARM & MINERAL LANDS.

FARM BARGAINS.

80-acre improved farm, one mile from Meadowlands, good buildings, 40 acres under cultivation, soil black loam, clay subsoil, no stone, lays gently rolling, stream through land. Price $47 per acre; will give terms; worth $60 per acre.

40-acre improved farm at Rice lake, only a few rods from the lake front. Improvements will inventory more than $3,000. Owner must sell. Price $2,000. Will give terms.

80-acre farm, complete set of good buildings, 50 acres cleared, telephone and rural mail delivery. Price $32.50 per acre. Near Moose Lake, Carlton county. Will give terms.

If you are looking for a farm bargain, come and see us. We have a large listing of improved and unimproved lands, with terms to suit you. Many choice lake and river frontages.

ERNEST Le DUC,
313 Sellwood Building.

NORTHERN BELTRAMI COUNTY.

Are you overlooking this rich farming district where lands can be bought now for from $5 to $12 per acre? Hundreds of settlers and investors are daily realizing what excellent opportunities are being offered and are picking these lands up now at these extremely low figures. Why don't you investigate? These lands are absolutely level, free from rock and stone, with wonderfully rich soil and very little clearing to be done. Call or write for detailed information.

CANT & McLEAN,
Farm Lands—Farm Loans,
First National Bank Bldg.

IMPROVED CARLTON COUNTY FARM GOING CHEAP.

160 acres, 4½ miles from good town on fine road, fairly level, good soil, 20 acres under cultivation, 10 acres more cleared and seeded to timothy and clover, balance easily cleared; six-room house, fair sized barn; property well worth $5,400, going for $3,800; will trade for city property.

Thirty acres ½ mile from station at Wright, good soil, four-room house, barn, three acres under cultivation, balance easily cleared, good stream flows through land; going for $1,400, $300 cash. Will take heavy team as part payment.

CANT & McLEAN,
First National Bank Bldg.
Duluth, Minn.

INVESTIGATE OUR OFFERINGS.

Our large listing of farm lands include some very attractive bargains in both large and small tracts. Prices from $4 an acre up. Much of our lands lie in the Cuyuna mineral belt.
Tell us what you are looking for.

DONAHUE-AMUNDSEN CO.,
716-717 Torrey Bldg.,
Duluth, Minn.

FOR SALE—EIGHTY ACRES NEAR Duluth, good soil, free from stone, six acres cleared, balance cut over and timber; buildings; price $15 per acre, might consider trade; we have hundreds of farms for sale or trade, every farm we have listed is worth more than we are asking. The call will convince you. Ryberg, 217 Torrey building.

FOR SALE — OUR 1916 MONTANA booklet free. All about our big crops, low-priced, fertile land; easy terms; deal with owners. Western States Land & Development company, Helena, Mont.

FOR SALE — HOMESTEAD RELINquishment: forty acres, ten miles from four towns; no residence or improvements required; $150. Lock Box 603. Baudette, Minn.

FOR SALE—GENTLEMEN'S ESTATE; best section near Duluth; on principal road; lake, timber; long time; cheap. Rakowsky & Co., Exchange building.

WANTED TO RENT—FARM, EITHER grain or gardening; prefer to buy later. R. Hebbe, 655 Madison street NE., Minneapolis, Minn.

WANTED TO HEAR FROM OWNER of good farm for sale. Send cash price and description. D. F. Bush, Minneapolis, Minn.

WANTED TO HEAR FROM OWNER of farm or unimproved land for sale. O. K. Hawley, Baldwin, Wis.

I BUY AND SELL LANDS AND TIMber. George Rupley, 612 Lyceum Bldg

AUTOMOBILES? Practically every one in Duluth and the Iron Range towns who will buy one this year is a Herald reader.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE

——BUILDING LOTS——

Choice Seventh street corner, 100 by 140, Twenty-seventh avenue east—$4,750.

Waverly Park lots—$850, $950 and up.

Lester Park and Lakeside—Choice building lots with all improvements, $500 to $800.

50 choice lots in London Park addition, Fifty-second to Fifty-fourth avenue east, two and three blocks to car line, $300 to $700; $25 cash and $10 to $15 monthly.

Very fine building site at Hunter's Park.

A pleasure to show you.

WILLIAM C. SARGENT,

BUILDING LOTS.
Fine level lot, ½ block from car line at 35th ave. W.; 44 feet wide, sewer, water and gas in the street. Price $700.
100-foot corner, 41st ave. W. and 6th St., all improvements, cheap.
50-foot lot on 4th St. near 41st ave. W., $825.

WHEELER AGENCY,
Both phones.
619 Providence Bldg.

TWO LOT BARGAINS.

100 by 150 ft. lot on the central hillside, at a great bargain, let us show you this property; very easy terms; price $800; this is at least $300 below market price.

Another fine lot, 30 by 80 ft., on Fourteenth avenue east, just above Ninth street; rapidly growing residence district; price only $450; $50.00 cash will handle, balance on monthly payments.

WHITNEY WALL CO.,
301 Torrey Building.

LET US SEND

You a descriptive booklet of Congdon Park division. Duluth's very best restricted residence district.

WILLIAM C. SARGENT,
Exclusive Agent,
Providence Building.

WANTED — RELIABLE PARTIES with the ability to sell steel plant lots can secure a very favorable contract for the exclusive sale of a new steel plant addition, well located; low prices on lots and liberal commissions. Call or write J. P. Rossman, Torrey building, Duluth, Minn.

FOR SALE—LAKESIDE 50-FOOT LOT, block from car line; street graded, water, sewer, cement walk; bargain, $575; easy terms; worth $775. Write U 610, Herald.

FOR SALE—CORNER LOT AT LAKEside; one block from car line; water, sewer and gas in street; $325 for quick sale from owner. Write T 723, Herald.

FOR SALE — CITY PROPERTY, houses and lots; farms and timber land. O. G. Olson, 314 Columbia Bldg.

SITUATION WANTED. MALE.

SITUATION WANTED — YOUNG INtelligent colored man desires a position as chauffeur with private family; not afraid of work; can furnish reference of five years employed with one family. Write J 703 Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—BY YOUNG married man willing to do any kind of inside work, best of references from the military service; must have work at once; wholesale house preferred. Write Y 706, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—AS GENERAL mechanic; experienced in mining machinery; ten years in charge; married, sober, industrious; at present employed, but desire change; references. Address C 684, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—BY ELECTRIcian, twenty years' experience in electrical construction and installation, as superintendent or chief electrician, with reliable firm or corporation. Address G 692, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — EXPERIenced machine blacksmith wishes work of any kind; as blacksmith or machine helper preferred; will go out of town. Write H 677, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—BY MAN AND wife to work on farm. Will go to Dakota or Wisconsin. Competent and reliable. Address R. F. D. No. 4, Box 106, Duluth, Minn.

SITUATION WANTED—BY YOUNG man, 21; bookkeeper and stenographer; experienced in lumber and general building contracting business. Write S 710, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—YOUNG MAN and wife in camp or farm; willing to leave city; wages no object. Address M 709, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — GOOD ALL round harness maker wants job in repair shop; strictly sober. T. Pascoe, Chassell, Mich.

SITUATION WANTED—DRESS-MAKing and tailoring by the day; prices reasonable. 113 East Third street; Melrose 6456.

SITUATION WANTED — TO RUN small planer mill; can file saws; have good references. Write E 697, Herald.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL—CUT THIS OUT QUICK and mail it to me with your name and address within ten days from date of this paper and I will mail you a mammoth collection of handsome half-tone cabinet size photos and descriptions of refined, honorable, charming, attractive and wealthy ladies desiring marriage (securely wrapped in plain wrapper) that should fairly astonish you with their magnificence, providing you are interested enough to write today enclosing some postage. Write quick as I can introduce worthy single men to hundreds of ladies between ages 18 to 60, desiring marriage, who claim to be worth $1,000 to $25,000 and upwards. Can furnish thousands of descriptions of ladies desiring husbands. (General deliveries not answered). Write now before you are too late as the best always go first. Address Prof. Allen Ward, B 512, Valley, Neb.

—A MASTER SERVICE—
The Yale method of dry cleaning is recommended to you by the National Association of Dyers and Cleaners. To become a member of this association it was required of us to have a fully equipped, up-to-date standard dry cleaning establishment; consider these facts when you need the service of dry cleaners; insist on having your work done by master cleaners. Our wagon will call when you phone 2442. Yale laundry and French dry cleaners.

PERSONAL—R. D. HARDY COMPANY, scalp specialists, second floor, Fargusson block, Fourth avenue west and Superior street. Successful in baldness and all greasy and scaly conditions and which cause premature grayness and the fall of the hair. Telephone Melrose 2523 for appointment.

PERSONAL—IF YOU WANT QUALITY furniture for the home now is the time to buy and save 30 to 40 per cent at our closing out sale. Lease expires in April. Will make clean sweep of entire stock regardless of factory cost. Cameron Furniture Co., 2110-2112 West Superior street.

PERSONAL—Ladies! Ask your druggist for Chichester Pills, the Diamond Brand, for 25 years known as best, safest, always reliable. Take no other. Chichester Diamond Brand Pills are sold by druggists everywhere.

PERSONAL — MARRY IF LONELY. For results, try me; many wealthy wish early marriage; very successful, confidential, strictly reliable; "The Successful Club." Mrs. Purdie, box 556, Oakland, Cal.

PERSONAL—Get away from washday troubles by sending your family wash to us, 5½c per pound. Lutes' laundry, 808 East Second street. Phone us, Grand 447; Melrose 447.

PERSONAL — WIDOWER, 36, WITH good home and some means, wishes to meet refined lady; object matrimony; between 20 and 26 years. Address G. B., care Frederic hotel.

WANTED—RAGTIME PLAYING POSItively taught in twenty lessons. Send for free booklet. Leffingwell schools, Manager J. L. Denver, 32 West Second street. 7720 Melrose.

PERSONAL — MARRIAGE PAPER, highest charater; incorporated; twenth year; 8,000 members; papel sealed; send 10c. H. M. Love, Box 1616, Denver, Colo.

PERSONAL — MARRY — BIG PAPER with hundreds of names, addresses, descriptions, photographs, etc.; three months, 25 cents. Wirn-180, Grand Rapids, Mich.

PERSONALS — WANTED PRESENT address of Charles Erickson or wife, Amanda, to clear title to land purchased from them. B. I. Bliss, Rice Lake, Wis.

PERSONAL—POPULAR MUSIC, RAGtime piano playing taught by quick method; course twenty lessons. Inquire 119½ East Fourth street; Melrose 7660.

Unexcelled hairdressing, facial massage and beauty treatments. Also corns and bunions treated. Mrs. Dr. Bahr, Comfort Beauty Parlors, 109 Oak hall.

Madam Moisan, toupee specialist; long established; work guaranteed; toupees protect from colds and neuralgia; switches made up. 215½ W. 1st.

MADE-TO-MEASURE Shirts, Underwear, Raincoats, Neckties, Suit or O'Coat, $18. Ladies' Suits, spring selections. C. N. Hamilton, 315 E. Sup St.

Personal—Boyce's soda fountain under new management; light lunches; all home cooking; sanitation and service the best in city. E. H. McAllister, prop.

Personal—Lena E. Pierce, successor to Mrs. E. H. Lower; corns, bunions, ingrown nails treated, also chilblains. 22-23 Mesaba blk. Mel. 1470; Gr. 242.

PERSONAL—I DARE YOU TO answer this! Young lady, 18, worth $15,000, willing to wed. Address, H. H., Mission Unity, San Francisco, Cal.

PERSONAL—WHO WILL WRITE? A hardware dealer, 49, worth $35,000; small town; would marry. R 57, Fourth street, San Francisco.

PERSONAL—FITS, I CURED MY daughter by simple discovery; particulars ffree. Z. Lepso, 125 Island avenue, Milwaukee, Wis.

Personal—Medicated salt baths, shampoo and massage. Anna Manthey, 27 E. Sup. st., flat 4. Mel. 5498. Resident appointments solicited.

PERSONAL—YOUNG MAN WISHES to correspond with Duluth girl for pastime. Oscar Williams, Carlisle, Wash.

2x3 photos in attractive folders; three for 25c; special value. Brown's Photo studio. 221 West Superior St.

MASSAGE—MARGARET NELSON, 218 W. Superior St., room 8, third floor. Also appointments at your home.

PERSONAL — YOUNG LADY, 20, worth $40,000, would marry. J Box 584, Messenger, Los Angeles, Cal.

Personal—Effective scalp treatment. Mrs. Vogt's Hair Shop, 105 W. Sup. St.

Personal—Combings and cut hair made into beautiful switches. Knauf Sisters.

ADDITIONAL WANTS FROM PAGES 31 AND 32

PERSONAL. (Continued.)

PERSONAL — WILL MISS M. GUNN kindly call us by telephone again? Important. Erd's jewelry store.

PERSONAL—LADY, 20, WORTH $20,000, would marry. Address Station E, Box 38 club, Toledo, Ohio.

PERSONAL—WANTED SMALL CHILdren to board and care for. Call 2705½ West Second street.

PERSONAL—SOUTHERN LADY, 35; worth $20,000; would marry. G Box 35, League, Toledo, Ohio.

PERSONAL—PRIVATE LESSONS IN French by lady teacher. Address B 715, Herald.

PERSONAL—Ladies, have your suits made at Miller Bros., 405 E. Sup. St.

PERSONAL — FOR SICK PEOPLE— flowers. Duluth Floral company.

Hair, moles, warts removed by electricity; manicuring. Miss Kelly hair shop

FOR SALE COWS.

FOR SALE—A CARLOAD OF FRESH milch cows will arrive for Levine Bros., Tuesday, March 7, 821 Fourth avenue east. Grand 1208; Melrose 4702.

FOR SALE—S. GOLDFINE HAS JUST arrived with a carload of the finest assortment of fresh milch cows. 1016 North Fifth avenue west.

FOR SALE—A CARLOAD OF FRESH milch cows has just arrived for S. M. Kaner, 1217 East Seventh street. Both phones.

FOR SALE—RED COW WITH HORNS, 5 years old. Inquire 824 Garfield avenue.

FOR SALE—FRESH MILCH COWS. 217 North Fifty-fourth avenue west.

FOUND—BLACK SPANIEL DOG. Owner call Melrose 8003.

PRIVATE HOSPITALS.

PRIVATE HOME BEFORE AND DURing confinements; good care by experienced nurse; infants cared for. Mrs. Finkle, 213 W. 3rd St. Mel. 2464.

PRIVATE HOME FOR WOMEN BEfore and during confinement; expert care; infants cared for. Ida Pearson, M. D., 284 Harrison avenue, St. Paul.

PRIVATE HOME BEFORE AND DURing confinement. K. Thorstenson, 1602 28th St., Superior Wis. Ogden 861-X.

Mrs. H. Olson, graduate midwife; private hospital and home. 329 N. 58th Ave. W. Phone, Cole 173; Cal. 270.

MRS. HANSON, GRADUATE MIDwife; female complaints, 413 Seventh avenue east. Zenith 1225.

Mrs. A. Ferguson, graduate midwife, 917 East Tenth street. Grand 1976-Y.

POULTRY AND EGGS.

For Sale—High-clas. White Wyandotte, R. C. Black Minorca and White Leghorn cockerels: Orpington pullets. J. T. Michaud. Lakeside 298-D; Park 4. 298-L; Park 4.

Park & Pollard's poultry feeds are the best. Scratch feed, egg mash, growing feed, etc.; wheat, corn, etc. Get price list. Tessman Bros. Co., 26-40 E. Mich. St.

FOR SALE — BARRED ROCK AND White Orpington pullets, $1.50 each; eggs, $1.50 per fifteen; catalogue. Carl Eastwood, Heron Lake, Minn.

FOR SALE—BEAUTIFUL TRIO OF White Houdans for $7.50; cockerel not related to pullets. T. H. Cornell, 4218 Lombard street; old phone.

WANTED TO RENT.

WANTED TO RENT—YOUNG MARried couple wishes to rent a five or six-room modern house between Eighth and Fifteenth avenues east north of Fourth street. Inquire H 720, Herald.

WANTED TO RENT — ON OR BEfore May 1, six or seven-room apartment with porch and janitor service. Call Melrose 1648.

WANTED TO RENT—YOUNG LADY wishes reasonable room for light housekeeping; east preferred. Write C 705, Herald.

WANTED TO RENT—A BARN WITH some cows, in or near city. Write or call H. Sorenson, Hall hotel.

LOST AND FOUND.

FOUND — CAMERON FURNITURE company are closing out entire furniture stock. Lease expires April 30 therefore you can practically name your own price, as the three large sales floors must be emptied quickly. 2110 and 2112 West Superior street.

LOST — LARGE BLACK POCKETbook, March 3, on Duluth-Superior street car; receipts for Polish newspaper. Return to Herald; $5 reward.

LOST—SMALL BLACK SPANIEL DOG wearing collar with owner's name, Dr. W. H. Magie. Reward if returned to 1401 East Superior street.

JEWELRY REPAIRED.

Have Lange do your repairing right. Cash for old gold. 12 Lake Ave. N.

HERALD ADS AND RESULTS ARE TWIN BROTHERS.

RENT—STORES, OFFICES.

PALADIO. PROVIDENCE.

FOR RENT.

Act now before the small amount of desirable office space is sent up.
East day the list of vacant offices is decreasing.
We place SERVICE above economy.

It will pay you to SEE US before signing any lease on office space.
Office, $10 per month and up.

WHITNEY WALL COMPANY,
Expert Building Managers,
Suite 301 Torrey Building.

TORREY. MANHATTAN.

FOR RENT.

IRWIN-SLOAN BLOCK.

Several very desirable offices in the Irwin-Sloan block, southeast corner of Superior street and Twentieth avenue west, April 1.

FIDELITY BUILDING.

We still have a few very desirable offices for rent in this splendid fireproof office building, 14 West Superior street.

JOHN A. STEPHENSON & CO.,
Wolvin Building.

FOR RENT—STORE ON CORNER

Of Fourth avenue west and Superior street. 1,800 people pass this store in an hour, even in this cold weather. Don't delay a moment if you want this ideal location.

WHITNEY WALL CO.,
Third Floor, Torrey Building.

FOR RENT STORES.

At 318 West First street, most central and best business location on West First street; fine storeroom, 25 by 140, in strictly fireproof building, with lowest insurance rate in city; will decorate to suit; possession May 1. Call Grand or Melrose 225.
W. C. SHERWOOD & CO.,
118 Manhattan Building.

FOR RENT — AT 1619 WEST SUPErior street, a small, attractive store which has steel ceiling, hardwood floors, gas, electric lights and toilet and two goods display windows; only $22.50 per month. F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT — THREE STORES ON Eighteenth avenue west and Superior street. Rents $15.00, $20.00 and $25.00 per month.

BENJAMIN F. SCHWEIGER CO.,
1932 West Superior St.

FOR RENT — A THOROUGHLY MODern, steam-heated store at 4 West First street; size approximately 18 by 40 feet; two elegant display windows; very reasonable rental. F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT—REAL ESTATE OFFICE; furnished, telephone, stenographer; facing elevator; no better in city. 701 Torrey building.

FOR RENT — SPACE IN MODERN store. Inquire 319 East Superior street.

FOR RENT—TWO FRONT OFFICES. Christie building. Fireproof.

SITUATION WANTED. FEMALE.

SITUATION WANTED — STENOGRApher with several years' experience wishes position; can assist with books and general office work. Address F 701, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — YOUNG woman speaking Finnish language wants position as clerk in drygoods store; three years' experience. Write S 657, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — WORK IN laundry; hand ironing by experienced girl. 1631 West Superior street. Phone Lincoln 295-Y.

SITUATION WANTED — GENERAL housework by experienced girl. 1631 West Superior street. Phone Lincoln 295-Y.

SITUATION WANTED—BY PRACTIcal nurse, engagement. Call or write 2705½ West Second street.

SITUATION WANTED—PLAIN SEWing by the day or at home, reasonable. Call Melrose 2545.

SITUATION WANTED — BY WOMAN with small child, as housekeeper. Write, U 708, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — BY YOUNG girl to work for room and board. Melrose 3771.

SITUATION WANTED—BY DRESSmaker by the day or at home. Call Melrose 6333.

SITUATION WANTED—AS HOUSEkeeper in small family. K 711, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — WASHING, ironing and cleaning. Melrose 2267.

UPHOLSTERING.

Furniture, Automobiles — Reasonable price. E. Ott, 112 1st Ave. W. Phones.

BOATS & MOTORBOATS.

FOR SALE—CHEAP: SIXTEEN-FOOT launch. Call Cole 400 or 400-D.

BUSINESS CHANCES.

FOR SALE.

Pool hall	Price $2,000
Cigar stand	Price $1,200
Confectionery and cigars	Price $1,500
Confectionery, 4 living rooms	$350
Light grocery	Price $600
Lunch counter	Price $750
Rooming house, 17 rooms	Price $900
Hotel, 25 rooms	Price $900
Hotel, 22 rooms	Price $1,500

DULUTH BUSINESS EXCHANGE,
509 Torrey Building.

BUSINESS CHANCES—$12.50 INVESTed may make $1,000. Get warranty deed, also interest in co-operative well to be drilled near big gusher in field. Terms $1 cash, $1 monthly. Four lot combination, $46. Particulars free. Triangle Oil company, 513 Carter building, Houston, Texas.

BUSINESS CHANCES—FOR SALE — Stock and fixtures of confectionery store located on good corner in Washburn, Wis., a booming town; will sell for cash only; rent reasonable. Address A. S., Box 397, Washburn, Wis.

FOR SALE—SMALL GROCERY AND confectionery store in center of city; basement can be used for living rooms; good business, reasonable rent; sickness of proprietor reason for selling. Write Z 700, care Herald.

BUSINESS CHANCE—A SMALL, NEW hotel, newly furnished, for sale, reasonable; account ill health; steam heat; all modern; rooms all full. Main Hotel, Crosby, Minn.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—GOOD-PAYing business for cash or income property; bank reference; deal with owner; no commissions. Write B 588, Herald.

FOR SALE—POOL HALL, THREE tables and cigar stand; good soft drink stand; $600 cash; prompt acceptance. Box 445, Nashwauk, Minn.

BUSINESS CHANCES—WANTED TO hear from owner of good business for sale; state cash price and particulars. D. F. Bush, Minneapolis, Minn.

BUSINESS CHANCES — FOR SALE— Shoemaker shop near steel plant. John Komletinski, 313 Commonwealth avenue, New Duluth, Minn.

BUSINESS CHANCES — FOR SALE bakery and confectionery, small amount of money will handle deal, low rent. Write, F 596, Herald.

BUSINESS CHANCES — WANTED, partner; good business proposition; $250 required. Inquire 503 Providence building.

HORSES, VEHICLES, ETC.

GUARANTEED HORSES.

WE HAVE RECEIVED 30 HEAD OF HORSES RIGHT OFF THE FARM. In this lot are some of the best farm mares that money will buy—a number of them in foal. Also young, sound, good-boned wagon horses that can stand work. I have a team of bright bays that weigh 3,300; a team of strawberry roans that weigh 3,000 (Belgians); a team of dapple grays that weigh 3,000. I have Jessie O. H., by Hazelwood, a combination trotter and pacer. All of the above mentioned stock was bought right. I can save you some money. Always glad to show stock; always give a written guarantee; ALWAYS GIVE A SQUARE DEAL.

TWIN PORTS HORSE MARKET,
W. E. BARKER,
18 First Avenue West.

DRAFT AND DELIVERY HORSES, FARM MARES, GENERAL PURPOSE HORSES.
All our horses are Minnesota raised. Sales made on time if desired. Buy from an established dealer. Also, we guarantee every horse to be as represented.
ZENITH SALE STABLE.
MOSES GOLDBERG, Prop.,
524 West First Street,
Two blocks from union depot.

HORSES HORSES HORSES
If in the market for horses be sure and see our offerings. We have from 200 to 300 head constantly on hand. Part time given if desired. Barrett & Zimmerman, Duluth Horse Market, Twenty-third avenue west and Superior street. H. J. Walt, manager.

FOR SALE—TEAM OF NICE BLOCKY mares; weight about 3,200 lbs., 5 years old, well matched; can be bought at a bargain; part time given if necessary. 608 North Fifty-sixth avenue west; right beside fire hall, West Duluth; Cole 301, Calumet 280-L.

FOR SALE—CHEAP, HORSE, CUTTER and harness, light outfit. Call morning or evenings, between 6 and 7. 18 North Nineteenth avenue west.

FOR SALE—$150 TAKES GOOD SERVIceable farm team; weight 2300 pounds. Can be seen at 808 East Sixth street.

FOR SALE—HORSE, HARNESS, WAgon and sleigh; very cheap. Inquire 1721 East South street. Grand 1488-D.

FOR SALE — CHEAP, TEAM BAY horses; weight 2,600; first class condition. Call Lincoln 355-A.

FOR SALE—BY OWNER, NEW eight-room house with garage, East end. Call Melrose 1481.

STOVE REPAIRS.

WE CARRY IN STOCK REPAIRS FOR 10,000 different stoves and ranges. C. F. Wiggerts & Sons, 410 East Sup. St.

WANTED TO BUY.

WANTED TO BUY.

We must have more suitable houses for sale. We cannot supply the demand. Prices range all the way from $4,000 for a comfortable 6-room house to $15,000 cash for a large home in the normal district.
If you have a good, fairly new home on a large lot in East end which you will sell at a fair price, see us quick.

LITTLE & NOLTE CO.,
Exchange Building.

WANTED TO BUY
AT ONCE

A modern home in East end. $6,000 to $8,000 cash. Must be a bargain. Call Mel. 2562.

WANTED TO BUY—HEATERS AND ranges; we will pay good prices or exchange for new furniture. East End Furniture company, 120 East Superior street. Phone Grand 2013-X.

WANTED TO BUY—SECOND HAND boiler in good condition; marine type preferred; about 125-horso power; should stand 150-pound pressure. Address 807 Sellwood building, Duluth.

WANTED TO BUY—5,000 STANDARD tamarack ties, f. o. b. cars Superior; railroad inspection; for coal dock. Address P. R., care of Superior Telegram.

WANTED TO BUY—GOOD BUILDING lot or a modern house in West Duluth; state location, price and terms. Write Z 721, Herald.

WANTED TO BUY—WILL PAY CASH for cheap cut-over lands; St. Louis, Lake or Cook county. Address, Y 558, Herald office.

WANTED TO BUY—100 YOUNG PIGS and ten calves on or before April 1. James Leary, 342 Lake avenue south.

IS YOUR FARM FOR SALE? IF SO, see us. We have buyers. Cant & McLean, First National Bank Bldg.

WE PURCHASE REAL ESTATE CONtracts, mortgages and notes. Northern Equities Co., 612 1st Nat. Bank Bldg.

WILL BUY PARTIALLY IMPROVED farm. State price, location, etc., in first letter. Address A 927, Herald.

WANTED TO BUY — LARGE OR small tract of land for investment. Address I 69, Herald.

WANTED TO BUY — INVALID'S wheel chair, for indoor use. Call Melrose 639 or Grand 629.

WANTED TO BUY—SECOND-HAND sewing machine. Call Melrose 4956.

H. Popkin buys stoves and furniture. Grand 2337-A. Melrose 1482.

WANTED TO BUY—SMALL SODA fountain. D 707, Herald.

WANTED TO BUY—INVALID CHAIR. Call Cole 305-A.

REAL ESTATE LOANS.

STRYKER, MANLEY & BUCK,

Torrey Building, First Floor.
Both phones, 165.

Have the cash on hand to make any good loan on Duluth phoperty at the lowest market rates, 5 to 6 per cent, according to security, without submitting applications or any delay.
Lowest expense and good treatment. On or before privilege.

STRYKER, MANLEY & BUCK.

FIRST MORTGAGE LOANS.

We advance funds as needed on first mortgage building loans. Favorable terms.

W. M. PRINDLE & CO.,
Lonsdale Bldg.

MONEY TO LOAN — ANY AMOUNT — Any time. Quick service. Building loans a specialty, 5, 5½ and 6 per cent. Cooley & Underhill, 209-210-211 Exchange building.

CASH ON HAND TO LOAN ON CITY and farm property; any amount, lowest rates, no delay. Northern Title Co., 612 First National Bank building.

MONEY ON HAND TO LOAN.
$1,000 to $5,000 "on or before" at 6 per cent. See us first. Wheeler agency, 619 Providence building.

BUILDING LOANS—MONEY ON HAND —no delay. Any amount for business or residence property. L. U. Young, 615 Providence building.

IF YOU OWN A LOT, SEE US ABOUT financing the building of your home. Duluth Lumber Co., Mel. 112, Lin. 112.

Money at Lowest Rates.
Any Amount; No Delay.
Little & Nolte Co., Exchange Bldg.

MONEY TO LOAN—LOANS MADE ON timber and farm lands. John Q. A. Crosby, 305 Palladio building.

Money on hand for real estate loans. Stewart G. Collins, 710 Torrey bldg.

For Farm Loans and Farm Lands, see Ebert-Walker Co., 315-16 Torrey bldg.

MONEY TO LOAN—Any amount. Benjamin F. Schweiger, 1932 W. Sup. St.

CITY AND FARM LOANS. WILLIAM C. Sargent, Providence building.

ABSENT-MINDED ABNER—This Was the Young Lady's Error

By Walt McDougall

MADAME RINKLE'S FACIAL CREAM
I MAY BE IN THE WRONG PLACE—IT LOOKS MORE LIKE A BOUDOIR—
TAKE OFF YOUR OVERCOAT
YOU CAME JUST IN TIME! YOUR NERVES ARE IN A TERRIBLE BAD SHAPE
BELLA DONNA EYE
YEP, I CAN HEAR 'EM RATTLE!
IF I GAVE YOU REGULAR DAILY TREATMENT YOU'D BE A NEW MAN.
I'M LOOKING FOR THE OFFICE OF THE ATLAS ASH SIFTER COMPANY. I SUPPOSE YOU ARE THE DEMONSTRATOR, MISS.
WHY DIDN'T YOU SAY SO AT FIRST?
Copyright, 1916, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

FOR SALE HOUSES.

RENT MONEY WILL DO IT.

$300 cash and $25 monthly will buy practically new 6-room house, absolutely modern; hot water heat, hardwood finish and floors, full stone basement; location only two blocks from car line, in West Duluth's nicest residence district (North Sixty-fourth avenue west). This is an exceptional buy at price offered $3,500. The price on this home has been reduced $100 since Feb. 6. Owner wants quick action.

TWO EXCEPTIONALLY ATTRACTIVE BARGAINS OFFERED FOR QUICK SALE.

Fine 6-room home, modern except heat; toilet, bath, hardwood floors, Georgia pine finish, full concrete basement; house practically new, now being redecorated throughout; located on nice corner lot, 33 by 125, in pleasant residence district, on Fifty-ninth avenue west; fine lawn and shade trees. A nice feature about this home is the combination glassed-in porch and summer kitchen. Price $3,300, on easy terms. This home couldn't be duplicated for $4,000 at the present prices of building material.

$200 BELOW VALUE!

$250 cash will handle first payment on attractive six-room house at Fifty-seventh avenue west. House is in good repair, has toilet, bath, electric lights, concrete foundation, hardwood floors; 25-foot lot with cement sidewalks, street improved; good residence district. Here is a really good buy, $300 below value; price $1,500, easy monthly payments. Owner moving on to farm.

THOMAS OLAFSON.
5417 Ramsey St., West Duluth.

ATTRACTIVE OFFERINGS.

1509 Jefferson street—7 rooms and maids' room; very best finish.
1118 East Third street—7 rooms, very large; central.
610 East Seventh street—6 rooms, on car line; nearly new.
4026 East Superior street—6 rooms; very delightful location.
4114 East Gladstone street—5-room bungalow; attractive.
517 Seventeenth avenue east—8 rooms; very desirable location.
625 Sixteenth avenue east—6 rooms, bungalow style; nearly new.
2026 East Fifth street—6 rooms and bath; nearly new.

The above homes are well equipped with cabinets, large closets, heating plants, foundations, good large basements, and we consider these exceptionally good buys.

Exclusive Sale.
W. M. PRINDLE & CO.

OWN YOUR OWN HOME.
We build to suit your convenience and purse. Small cash payment and balance monthly. We have a number of good plans to choose from.
DULUTH REALTY CO.,
608 First National Bank Bldg.

A RESPONSIBLE PARTY

Can buy a strictly modern home of six rooms at Fifty-eighth avenue east and Superior street on terms the same as rent, no cash required, or will take a good building lot as first payment. What have you to offer?

DE CAIGNY & PAEPE,
509 Providence building.

FOR SALE—VERY FINE NEW MODern brick flat for two families; hot water heat; two plants; laundry; full basement; stone foundation; hardwood floors; plenty of light; place always rented; nice location; walking distance; price $6,650; must have $1,500 cash. Don't inquire unless you have that amount. Little & Nolte Co., Exchange building. (4-1)

FOR SALE—GO YOURSELF AND SEE house No. 1527 South street; it has nice six rooms and bath, gas, electric light, fine electric fixtures, nicely decorated, practically same as new; pay $250 cash, balance $16 per month. Ask us the price, which is very low, or make your own offer. Harris Realty company, Exchange building.

FOR SALE OR TRADE FOR WEST end property, six-room house; lot 50 by 140; bath, sewer, gas, water and electric light; stove heat; Crosley Park; $2,500, $150 down, $20 per month. Call Joseph W. Cumming, Park 110-Y.

FOR SALE—SACRIFICING A MODERN six-room home at Lakeside, built for owner three years ago; cost $4,500, will sell for $3,500 on terms; you must be quick. Greenfield Realty company, 416 Providence building.

$2,000 WILL BUY COMFORTALBE six-room house with bath, electric light, with small lot; centrally located; about $500 cash; owner leaving city; act promptly. Field-Frey company. (E 50).

FOR SALE—SIX-ROOM BRAND NEW modern home for $4,300, on easy terms; a positive bargain, at Lakeside. Greenfield Realty company, 416 Providence building.

FOR SALE HOUSES. (Continued.)

STRYKER, MANLEY & BUCK.

LIST OF GOOD HOMES.

CENTRAL—
Nearly new six-room house on Fifth avenue east, one block from street car line. Concrete foundation, hot water heat, laundry in basement, all hardwood floors, hardwood finish downstairs, white enamel up. Price $3,800, easy terms. (7662)

Nine-room house on upper side of Third street near Sixth avenue west. Two bathrooms, stone foundation, steam heat, hardwood floors; barn can be used for garage. House alone would cost price of the entire property. $6,000.

EAST END—
Beautiful new, strictly modern home on Fifth street, east of Twenty-second avenue; lot 100 by 150. First floor has four rooms, oak floors and finish; second floor, five bedrooms, two baths, maple floors; third floor, two rooms, billiard room and bathroom; toilet in basement, hot water heat, two boilers, thermostat, four fireplaces, wiring in conduits, gas in basement and kitchen. Very reasonable at $21,000. (8215)

Seven-room house on beautiful corner on East First street. Stone foundation, hot water heat, laundry, gas, electric light, maple floors, white enamel finish. Price $7,000. (8216)

HUNTER'S PARK—
Ideal home, contains ten rooms; first floor, four rooms, hall and sun parlor; second floor, five bedrooms and bath; third floor, one room and bath; toilet in basement, laundry, hot water heat, gas, electric light, all hardwood floors. Large lot, equal to six ordinary lots, fine garden, trees, shrubbery, etc.; garage with two rooms and toilet. Price $15,000. This is much less than real value. (8596)

LAKESIDE—
Seven-room house on McCulloch street near Forty-third avenue. Stone foundation, laundry, toilet in basement, hot water heat, oak finish downstairs, maple floors, hot and cold water in bedrooms, gas, electric light, fine garden and shrubbery; two full lots. Price $5,600.

Seven-room house near Fifty-eighth avenue east; full lot; house has water, sewer, bath, electric light, mantel and grate, all hardwood floors, hardwood finish downstairs. Price $2,200. Could not build the house for this money.

Above only samples. Call or telephone.

STRYKER, MANLEY & BUCK,
Main Floor, Torrey Bldg.

FOR SALE.

219 EAST THIRD STREET.

Splendid 9-room house, bath, water, sewer and gas, furnace heat, stone foundation, vegetable cellar. The house is elegantly finished and central, where the lot will increase greatly in value; lot 50 by 140 feet.

Exclusive.
W. M. PRINDLE & CO.,
Main Floor, Lonsdale Bldg.

FOR SALE—IT REQUIRES NO stretch of imagination to appreciate the desirability of the Hunter's Park district as a home location, and a strictly upto the minute eight-room home in this district for only $7,000 should commend itself to you. For full particulars see W. B. Roe, 412 Providence building; call Grand 862.

FOR SALE—WEST DULUTH HOME six large rooms; water, electric light, with sewer and gas in alley; lot 25 by 125 feet; house in good condition; located at Sixty-second avenue west and Wadena street. Price $1,155; $500 cash, $15 per month, or $300 cash and $20 per month. Write G 713, Herald.

FOR SALE—NEW AND MODERN, never occupied five-room cottage; splendid lake view, Lakeside, $3,500 only $300 cash. Greenfield Realty company, 416 Providence building.

FOR SALE—I HAVE SEVERAL houses from $5,000 up; all high class and good neighborhoods; monthly payments if desired. Stewart G. Collins, 710 Torrey.

$4,000 WILL BUY FINE SEVEN-ROOM house with bath, oak finish; nearly new; Lakeside; $500 cash, balance time. Field-Frey company, Exchange building. (M 22).

FOR SALE — BY OWNER, THREE houses, six, seven and eight rooms, near car; modern improvements. Phone Lakeside 43-K.

FOR SALE—FIVE-ROOM COTTAGE with large room in basement, light, water, gas, full lot. 1120 West Fifth street.

FOR SALE — BY OWNER, TWO houses, 220-220½ West Seventh street. Easy terms; leaving city.

FOR SALE HOUSES. (Continued.)

FOR SALE—
NEW SIX-ROOM HOUSE—
$300 cash and—
$25.00 per month buys it—
Hot water heat—
Double sheeting—
Best plumbing—
Hardwood finish and floors—
Good view—nice residence section—
Storm windows and screens—
Near car line—
PRICE $3,800.00—
Call on us tomorrow—

A. W. TAUSSIG & CO.,
407 Providence Bldg.

AN UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITY.

FOR SALE.

A brick flat of three apartments, with smaller frame flat on same property; central location; fine purchase for an investment. See—

W. M. PRINDLE & CO.,
Lonsdale Building.

—EAST END HOMES.—

$15.00 per month will purchase a 4-room house on East Ninth street car line; modern except heat. Paved street. $200 cash required. Price $2,100.

$15.00 per month will purchase a 7-room house on Nineteenth avenue east with all conveniences except heat. Large lot. $500 cash required. Price reduced from $2,700 to $2,100 for quick sale.

—CENTRAL WEST END HOMES.—

$15.00 per month will purchase a new 4-room cottage with all conveniences except heat on 33-foot lot. $300 cash required. Price $2,100.

$25.00 per month will purchase a two-family dwelling of ten rooms with all conveniences except heat. Nice lot and large barn. $300 cash required. Price only $2,800.

BENJAMIN F. SCHWEIGER CO.,
1932 West Superior St.

GOOD HOME BARGAINS.

Seven-room house on Seventh street between Ninth and Tenth avenues east; hardwood floors and very cheap if sold at once; good barn on rear of lot. (929)

Modern home of six rooms with bath and attic, hot water heat; concrete foundation and full basement; located on Thirteenth avenue east; price $3,600; small cash payment will handle; balance on terms. (910)

Fine ten-room house, stone foundation, cement floor and basement, hot water heat; centrally located; hardwood floors, oak finish; former price $6,000; offered for quick sale at $4,500—this is an exceptionally good buy at this price. (857)

WHITNEY WALL CO.,
301 Torrey Building.

A BARGAIN CENTRALLY LOCATED.

A centrally located property on Sixth avenue east; large lot, hot water heat, hardwood finish down stairs; in very good condition. This is a bargain at $5,500. See us.

DULUTH REALTY CO.,
608 First National Bank Bldg.
I. W. LEE.

WHY DO YOU PAY RENT?

$500 cash and your rent money will buy 5005 Wadena street, West Duluth; eight rooms, two-family, large lot, modern except heat. Price $1,850. $500 cash and your rent money will buy a very good five-room house; modern except heat, with small three-room house in rear, on Central avenue; a bargain at $2,700. We have two new six-room houses yet unsold at Forty-seventh avenue west and Magellan street; full basement, oak finish; few hundred cash, balance monthly. Price $3,200.
WEST DULTUH REALTY CO.,
5407 Ramsey street, West Duluth.

FOR SALE BY OWNER,
Large 4-room house, walking distance; street paved, cement sidewalk; lot 25 by 100; modern; $300 to $500 cash, balance like rent. If you are looking for small home, answer this ad. Address W 716, Herald.

—$10,500—

Nine-room house, East end; big bargain; favorable terms.

WILLIAM C. SARGENT,
Providence Building.

FOR SALE—MODERN SEVEN-ROOM house, Seventh avenue east, hot water heat; concrete foundation; cheap if taken at once. Call Melrose 3164.

FOR SALE—FIVE-ROOM COTTAGE on East Seventh street. Melrose 7543 and 7245.

ADDITIONAL WANTS ON PAGES 30 AND 32

FOR SALE— HOUSES. (Continued.)

—BIG SNAPS—
—IN—
—BIG EAST END HOMES—

$4,800—Ten rooms, modern, furnace heat, fireplace, stone foundation, full basement; elegant lot on upper side of East Third street, near Fifteenth avenue east, 50 by 140 feet; easily remodeled into an attractive home or made into duplex. All for only $4,800; reasonable terms to good party.

$7,500—Eleven rooms, modern; hot water heat, hardwood floors, 5 bedrooms, fireplaces, stone foundation, full basement, large porch; garage; beautiful corner lot, 100 by 140 feet, on upper side of East Third street, near Nineteenth avenue east, in the midst of excellent homes; easily remodeled into attractive home. All for only $7,500; reasonable terms to good party.

These homes could hardly be replaced by double the amounts asked. Both can be easily made over into attractive homes.

See them—better do it soon.

Just phone us if you wish.

N. J. UPHAM CO.,
714 Providence Building.
Phones—Melrose 848; Grand 847.

FOR SALE.

Comfortable six-room house with bath, $2,100.

Attractive six-room house, normal district, $3,800.

Bargain in attractive suburban home, $4,500.

Eight-room modern house, East end, $7,700.
These are bargains.

FIELD-FREY COMPANY.

—SNAPS—

Small unfinished house, lot 50x140, water in house, suburban—$700.

Good lot, corner, 56x140, only $625; water, sewer and gas.
Fine lot, East end, 50x140, water, sewer and gas in street, $1,000.

DULUTH REALTY CO.,
608 First National Bank Bldg.

A. A. FIDER CO. OFFERS IN CENTRAL PART OF CITY

New, modern 6-room house, close in, on corner lot; hot water heat, laundry tub; $500 cash, balance monthly.

Seven-room house, full lot; $50 cash, balance monthly; price $1,900.

Six-room house, modern except heat; $300 cash, balance monthly.

Two 5-room flats; stone basement, street improved; close to car line; pays 10 per cent; a cash payment, balance monthly.

150-room hotel on Superior street clearing $400 per month; steam heated. "Talk with Fider" if you want a good business.

Mortgage loans, contracts bought.

A. A. FIDER CO.,
201 First National Bank. Both phones.

—FOR SALE—

A new six-room house on Thirteenth avenue east; modern in every respect; price $4,000; $20 per month and interest will handle; no cash payment required.

Five-room house on East Sixth street; water, sewer and gas; price $2,100; terms to suit.

Five-room cottage on fifty-foot lot on Ninth street; price $1,350; $100 cash and balance like rent will buy it.

A. F. KREAGER,
406-7 Torrey Bldg.

FOR SALE—HOUSES. (Continued.)

—AT LESTER PARK—

Three houses, $1,600, $1,750, and $3,000; big bargains; large lots; your own terms.
WILLIAM C. SARGENT,
Providence Building.

FOR SALE—SEVEN-ROOM HOUSE IN West end, one block from Lincoln park; location and surroundings are perfect, and price right. If you expect to buy a home in West end see my proposition before buying elsewhere. 415 Sixth avenue west.

FOR SALE—BY OWNER, MODERN eight-room house and garage; East end; nice lawn, including garden space; very reasonable. Melrose 3317.

AUTOS & MOTORCYCLES.

98 PER CENT OF AUTO BUYERS READ THE DULUTH HERALD.
The names in which automobile licenses are issued have been checked with The Duluth's Herald subscription lists, and it was found that 98 out of every 100 people who buy cars read The Duluth Herald.
If you have a car for sale or trade, offer it in this automobile column and you will reach practically every one who will buy.

USED CARS FOR SALE.
CHEAP FOR CASH.

Terms to responsible parties.

One FORD TOWN CAR—
Limousine top, whipcord upholstering, detachable seats, wire wheels, starter and lighting with storage battery, most elaborate equipment $800

One 1913 HUDSON—
5 good tires, upholstering and varnish in first-class condition; guaranteed first-class running order $700

One 1913 CHALMERS—
5-passenger, extra equipment, good running order..$400

One 1913 PAIGE DETROITER—
Just overhauled, guaranteed in first-class condition.....$400

One FORD RUNABOUT—
Shock absorbers, oversize tires, extra equipment, first-class shape.....$225

One FORD—
5-passenger, electric lights, demountable rims, all 3½-inch tires, first-class condition $285

One 1913 MAXWELL—
5-passenger $300

One 1910 CADILLAC—
Overhauled and in good running order $300

CENTRAL AUTO CO.,
313-319 West First street.

FOR SALE.

FORD TOURING CAR—1915 model, shock absorber and other extra equipment. Price $325.

STUDEBAKER "20" TOURING CAR—New top, windshield, and in good running order. $300.

OAKLAND "36" TOURING CAR—In first-class condition; electric lights and starter. $650.

OAKLAND 6-48 TOURING CAR—Electric lights and starter; practically good as new; cost $1,785; our price $800.

Terms can be arranged on these or other cars which we have for sale.

E. H. WHITNEY MOTOR CO.,
701 E. Superior St., Duluth.
Melrose 6196. Grand 907.

OXY-ACETYLENE WELDING, CUTting and carbon burning; all work guaranteed satisfactory or no charge, 99½ per cent pure oxygen for sale. Duluth Gas & Welding Co., 2110-2112 West Michigan St. Mel. 7064; Lin. 643.

BRING US YOUR OLD CASINGS.
Tires lockstitched and double-treaded. We can get 1,000 to 5,000 miles more wear out of them for you at small cost. Herlan & Merling, 105 West First street, Duluth. Melrose 4658.

AUTO CYLINDERS REBORED, NEW pistons and rings made; accurate workmanship; prices right. Zollner Machine works, 314-16 West First street, alley entrance. Melrose 80.

FOR SALE CHEAP—1915 Saxon roadster; good running order, electric lights, self starter. Inquire Harry Merritt, 619 Providence building.

Equip your car with V radiator and hood; allowance for old radiator. Johnson Auto Supply, 338 E. Superior

Eastern Auto Radiator works—Also all auto metal work done. 336 East Superior street. Phone Grand 2323.

YOUR CAR REPAIRED AT YOUR garage; A-1 mechanics. Harrison & Son, Mel. 6542; 2721 Huron street.

PROFESSIONAL AND BUSINESS GUIDE

Ready reference of the professional men and leading business firms. Herald readers who do not find the line of business they are seeking will confer a favor by requesting of us the information desired.

CALL 324 FOR REPRESENTATION IN THIS COLUMN

ACCOUNTANTS.

JAMES S. MATTESON,
Certified Public Accountant
(Minnesota and Wisconsin).
700-701 Alworth Building.
Special or periodical audits and investigations. Commercial, mining and municipal accounting systems installed or revised.
Organized permanent staff contains four men licensed by the state of Minnesota as certified public accountants, insuring the highest grade SERVICE to all clients.
Bank references. Charges reasonable. Telephones: Melrose 4700; Grand 71.

—JOHN E. MACGREGOR—
Public Accountant and Auditor,
601 Sellwood Building. Melrose 570.

DAVID QUAIL & COMPANY,
Chartered Accountants,
Certified Public Accountants,
401 Torrey Building, Duluth.
Highest references. Inquiries invited.

AWNINGS, TENTS, PACKSACKS.

Poirier Tent & Awning Co., 413 E. Sup. Both phones. Horse and wagon covers.

Auto Curtains—Duluth Tent & Awning Co., 1608 W. Superior St. Lin. 36.

ASHES, CINDERS, ETC., REMOVED

Ashes, cinders and manure removed. Merrill. Mel. 1350; Grand 1488-X.

BUSINESS CARDS.

Business Cards, 300, $1; Calling Cards, 100, 39c. Kask Printing, 114 E. Sup. St.

CAMERAS AND KODAKS.

—ARCADE CAMERA SHOP—
110 West Superior street. Amateur finishing, kodaks and camera supplies.

CARPET CLEANING WORKS.

INTERSTATE CARPET CLEANING CO. 1903 West Michigan St. Both phones.

CHIMNEY SWEEP.

ED McCARTY, CHIMNEY SWEEP AND furnace cleaning. Call Lakeside 46-L.

KNUDSEN, chimney sweep and furnace cleaner. Mel. 46. Fire headquarters.

DANCING ACADEMY.

Ryan's—The school that makes good dancers. Classes: Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays. Call Mel. 4618.

COFFIN'S ACADEMY—Classes Monday, Tuesday and Thursday. Either phone.

FURS REMODELED, REPAIRED.

HAVE YOUR FUR WORK DONE AT Wm. F. Bordasch, 417 Second Ave. E. Phones: Melrose 2236; Grand 199.

FRENCH DRY CLEANERS.

PHONE 1245 AND OUR AUTO WILL call. Prompt attention to out-of-town orders. East End Dry Cleaners.

FURNITURE RE-COVERED.

Let Forsell do your UPHOLSTERING. 334 E. Superior street. Both phones.

FLORIST AND NURSERYMAN.

Duluth Floral Co., wholesale, retail; cut flowers, funeral designs. 121 W. Sup.

FUNERAL DIRECTOR.

OLSEN & HOPPENYAN, 2014 W. Sup. St.; Lincoln 19; Melrose 7629.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

A. Haakonsen, dealer and expert repairing, at J. W. Nelson's, 5 East Superior street.

Pianos, violins, victorias, sheet music, etc. Boston Music company.

OPTOMETRIST AND OPTICIAN.

CONSULT A. L. NORBERG, OPTOMETrist and optician, 201½ West First street, for economical buying and correct fitting of glasses; satisfaction guaranteed. We grind our own lenses. Established in business 1891. Registered by examination 1901.

PIANOS REPAIRED AND TUNED.

—THE PIANO SHOP—
Tuning, finishing and repairing. Gregory & Kristensen, 1805 W. Superior St. Melrose 5621; Lincoln 295-X.

DULUTH PIANO REPAIR FACTORY, alley entrance, 312½ W. 1st. Mel. 164.

PATENTS.

All about Patents; consultation free. S. Geo. Stevens, 716 Fidelity. Mel. 3125.

PLUMBING.

THE SANITARY PLUMBING CO., 34 W. First St., plumbing and heating.

WINDOW CLEANING.

National Window Cleaning Co., expert in cleaning woodwork, wall paper, marble, etc. Our work must prove satisfactory, prices reasonable. Mel. 680.

TYPEWRITERS.

SLIGHTLY USED UNDERWOODS, Olivers, Smiths, Remingtons and Royals, $15 up. Rented $2 a month; three months' rental applied on the purchase. Send for list. Duluth Typewriter Co., 319 W. First street.

MONEY TO LOAN.

—$10 OR MORE—
LOANED TO ANYONE
On furniture, pianos, etc., or holding a steady position, at rates honest people are willing to pay. See us first and get a square deal. Money in your hands in few hours' time. Low rates. Easy payments.
DULUTH LOAN COMPANY,
307 Columbia Bldg., 303 W. Sup. St.
Hours: 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.; Wednesday and Saturday to 8 p. m.
Melrose 2355; Grand 1224.

MONEY TO LOAN.
From One to Ten Monthly Payments. On Furniture, etc., at Lowest Rates.
Example of Cost Per Month:

$15, if paid in	1 month	$0.90
" " "	3 months	0.70
" " "	6 months	0.44
$25, if paid in	1 month	1.10
" " "	3 months	0.95
" " "	5 months	0.80
$50, if paid in	1 month	2.25
" " "	3 months	1.60
" " "	5 months	1.25

Charges on other amounts in proportion. Even lower rates on jewelry, etc.
DULUTH REMEDIAL LOAN ASS'N,
401 First National Bank Bldg.

—MONEY TO LOAN—
ON SALARIES, ON CHATTELS.
OUR RATES ARE LOWEST.
Borrow $10.00, you pay back $11.00.
Borrow $20.00, you pay back $21.75.
Borrow $30.00, you pay back $32.50.
Borrow $40.00, you pay back $43.25.
Other amounts in proportion.
DULUTH FINANCE CO.,
301 Palladio Bldg.
Open Wednesday and Saturday evening until 9 o'clock. Both phones.

WE LOAN ON ALL KINDS OF PERsonal security at lowest rates. Call on us. Duluth Mortgage Loan Co., W. Horkan. New 1598-D; Melrose 3733.

Loans on watches, diamonds, guns, etc. Keystone Loan Co., 22 W. Superior St.

DRESSMAKING.

WANTED—PLAIN AND FANCY SEWing; also children's clothes, by the day. Call after 5:30 evenings. Melrose 4112.

BOARD & ROOM OFFERED.

BOARD AND ROOM WITH PRIVATE family; ladies or gentlemen. Lincoln 154-D. 27 North Twenty-ninth avenue west.

Room and board in modern home, gentlemen preferred. 114 East Third St.

BOARD AND ROOM, $26 AND $28 PER month. Melrose 7895. Grand 1988-Y.

BOARD AND ROOM OFFERED, $4 per week. Call Melrose 5142.

WATCHES REPAIRED.

Bring your watch to Garon Bros., to have it repaired right. 217 W. 1st. St.

RAILROAD TIME TABLES.

Duluth & Iron Range Rail Road.

"Vermilion Route."

DULUTH—	Leave.	Arrive.
Knife River, Two Harbors, Tower, Ely, Winton, Aurora, Biwabik, McKinley Sparta, Eveleth, Gilbert, Virginia.	* 7.30a.m. † 3:15p.m. ‡11:30p.m.	‡11.30a.m. * 6.20p.m. ‡10:15p.m. x10:45p.m.

*—Daily. †—Daily except Sunday. ‡—Mixed train leaves daily from Fifteenth Avenue East Station. §—Mixed train arrives daily except Sunday at Fifteenth Avenue East Station. x—Arrives Union Depot Sunday only.

DULUTH, MISSABE & NORTHERN RAILWAY.

Office: 426 West Superior St.
Phones, 969.

Leave.		Arrive.
*7:40am	Hibbing, Chisholm, Virginia, Eveleth, Coleraine, Sharon, †Mountain Iron, Sparta, Biwabik, Hibbing, Chisholm, Sharon,	* 3:21pm
*3:50pm	Virginia, Eveleth, Coleraine,	*10:31am
*7:30pm	Virginia, Chisholm Hibbing,	*10:40pm

*—Daily. †—Daily except Sunday. ‡—Except Biwabik.

Cafe Observation Car, Missabe Range Points, Solid Vestibuled Train.

DULUTH & NORTHERN MINNESOTA RAILWAY.

Office, 810 Lonsdale Bldg., Duluth.

Trains connect at Knife River daily (except Sunday) with D. & I. R. trains leaving Duluth at 7.30 a. m., arriving at Duluth (Endion) at 10:15 p. m. Connect at Cramer with Grand Marais stage when running.

WANT AD RATES AND INFORMATION

1c a word per day; $1 per line per month. Display classified, 72c per inch per day.

No ad taken for less than 15c.

CHARGE WANT ADS will not be run longer than seven days without renewal order.

ALL CHARGE WANT ADS are due and payable the same day first insertion of ad appears. All out-of-town want ads are cash in advance. Mail orders given prompt attention. Address all letters to Want Ad Department.

CLOSING HOURS—Want ads to be classified properly must be in The Herald office by 11:30 a. m. on the day ad is to be run. Want ads received after closing hour will be inserted under the heading, "Too Late to Classify."

TELEPHONE WANT ADS are charged at the same rate as cash ads and collection will be made at your home or office as soon as possible thereafter. This is an accommodation service and payment should be made promptly when the bill is presented so as to avoid further annoyance and to aid the efficiency of our service. Always ask that your telephone ad be repeated back to you by the telephone ad taker to make sure that it has been correctly taken.

BLIND ADS—No answers to blind ads will be given unless ticket is presented at time of request. Always save ticket showing key number when placing blind ads. Herald employes are not permitted to tell who any advertiser is. Answers to out-of-town blind ads will be forwarded without extra cost.

THE HERALD desires to give the best service to its readers and advertisers. If you desire any suggestion as to the wording of your ad, call the Want Ad Department.

HERALD TELEPHONE NUMBERS

BUSINESS OFFICE
324 EITHER LINE.
Ask for the Want Ad Department.

NEWS DEPARTMENT
1126 EITHER LINE.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—JANITOR WITH SPARE time to learn how to customers how to use the self-moistening floor brushes we sold out to our customers on thirty days' trial. Fifty cents to dollar an hour for all your spare time. Give name of employer and good references. Service Dept., 122 Sycamore street, Milwaukee, Wis.

SALESMEN WANTED—EXPERIENCE unnecessary, easy work, big pay; write for large list of openings offering opportunities to earn from $100 to $500 a month while you learn. Address nearest office, Dept. 212 National Salesmen's Training association, Chicago, New York, San Francisco.

WANTED—HIGH GRADE LIQUOR salesman for Wisconsin; an exceptional opportunity for a first class man; old established house, carrying full line of well advertised brands; give age, nationality, territory covered and experience. All replies held confidential. Write R 714, Herald.

WANTED—GOVERNMENT POSITIONS in post office, railway mail and other branches are good; prepare for "exams" under former U. S. civil service secretary-examiner. Booklet G-58 free. Write today. Patterson Civil Service school, Rochester, N. Y.

WANTED—MACHINIST, ALL-AROUND machine man; one thoroughly acquainted with all branches of gas engine work; must be a hustler; will pay good wages if you can handle the the job; must be strictly sober. Address James Di Onne, Ranier, Minn.

WANTED—MAN TO SELL REAL ESTATE; selling experience preferred, but not necessary. We have large holdings of sub-division and city property and offer good position to an active man. McMahon agency, U. S. National Bank building, Superior.

WANTED—YOUNG MAN, BE A BARber. We teach you cheaply and thoroughly and furnish tools free. Write or call for free catalogue R. Modern Barber college, 20½ East Superior street, Duluth, or 333 East Seventh street, St. Paul, Minn.

WANTED — SOAP SALESMAN FOR the city of Duluth, on commission; must be energetic party with good record. Apply with references to the soap department, Monarch Oil company, limited, Port Arthur, Ont.

WANTED — RELIABLE FACTORY wants good men for new dignified side line selling large quantities to merchants; send two references for samples and effective sales plans. Advertising Novelty Co., Chicago.

WANTED—SALESMEN FOR HOME and office specialties; great labor saver; big sellers; write today for free booklet. Stewart Brothers Co., 746 Plymouth Bldg., Minneapolis, Minn.

LEARN TELEGRAPHY, RAILROAD, commercial, wireless; also touch typewriting; earn board while learning. Write for free catalog. American Telegraph college, Minneapolis, Minn.

WANTED — WOODSMEN FOR ALL kinds of woods work; also cordwood choppers and piece makers; there is very little snow down here. I. Stephenson Co., trustees, Wells, Mich.

WANTED — 500 HUNTERS TO KNOW we loan money on rifles, shotguns, revolvers; will hold till next season before sold. Keystone Loan company, 22 West Superior street.

WANTED—GOVERNMENT POSITIONS are easy to get. My free booklet B. Y. 302 tells how. Write today—Now. Earl Hopkins, Washington, D. C.

U. S. government wants clerks; $100 month; Duluth examinations April 12; sample questions free. Franklin Institute, Dept. 186 M, Rochester, N. Y.

WANTED — CARPENTER OF EXperience, who can make plans and erect temporary booths. A few days' work. P. O. box 187, Duluth, Minn.

WANTED—GARAGE FLOORMAN, EXperienced car washer, and knows prices on accessories. Central Auto company, 313 West First street.

WANTED—I MADE $100 IN ONE week writing names; no canvassing; information for stamp. Grover C. Smith, Little Rock, Ark.

WANTED—COMPETENT STAVE SAWger at once. Write North Shore Cooperage company, Grand Marais, Minn.

WANTED — EXPERIENCED SALESman. Finnish preferred. Inquire Fifth Avenue Clothing company.

WANTED—PARTNER; GOOD BUSIness proposition; $250 required. Inquire 503 Providence building.

WANTED—AT ONCE, FLAT WORK washer. Acme Steam laundry, 219 West First street.

WANTED—CASH PAID FOR diamonds. Watches repaired, $1. 6 S. 6th Av. W.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

HELP WANTED—MALE. (Continued.)

SALESMAN—CAPABLE SPECIALTY man for Minnesota. Staple line on new and exceptional terms. Vacancy now. Attractive commission contract. $35 weekly for expenses. Miles F. Bixler company, 145-9 Carlin building, Cleveland, Ohio.

WANTED — SALESMAN. SPLENDID opening March 15. Capable salesman for Minnesota to sell staple line on unusually liberal terms. Commission contract. $35 advanced weekly. Sales manager, 28 suite, 800 Woodward, Detroit.

WANTED — $10-$15 WEEKLY ADdressing, mailing advertising matter. Circulars, instructions 10c. Daniel Weaver, 125 East Anthony street, Celina, Ohio.

WANTED—BOYS OVER 16 AT CENtral bowling alley, 216 West Superior street.

Wanted—Appearance counts; your suit pressed while U wait. 2 Lyceum Bldg.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED.

Experienced saleslady for wash goods department. Apply at

FREIMUTH'S.

LEARN TO CUT AND MAKE YOUR own waists and dresses. You can easily do it after taking the course in practical instruction. Make clothes while learning. Miss Gray's school, 3d floor, Geo. A. Gray Co. Also all sizes and styles of patterns cut to measure.

WANTED—EXPERIENCED CASHIER for retail store; must be rapid and accurate; good opportunity for right party; answer in own hand-writing, stating experience. Address E 718, Herald.

WANTED—LADIES TO SEW INSOLES; good pay weekly; no canvassing; goods cut ready for machine; transportation paid. Address with stamped envelope. No-ak Insoles, Danville, Ill.

WANTED—WOMAN, $30 for distributing 100 free skeins wear-proof darning cotton with hosiery, your section; experience unnecessary. Wearproof Hosiery, Norristown, Pa.

WANTED—A COMPETENT HOUSEkeeper to take care of small home on the range; must also take care of a 14-month-old baby; state wages expected. Write S 689, Herald.

WANTED—FIVE BRIGHT, CAPABLE ladies to travel, demonstrate and sell dealers; $25 to $50 per week. Railroad fare paid. Goodrich Drug company, Dept. 360, Omaha, Neb.

WANTED — HOUSEKEEPER BY THE week or year on a farm; no objection to widow with one child. Address J. McNeil, Havana, N. D., R. R. 2, Box 48.

WANTED — EXPERIENCED GARment saleslady; apply giving name of last employer and state salary expected. Itasca Bazaar company, Hibbing, Minn.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework; three in family; good wages; must be good cook. Mrs. A. M. Washburn, 2419 East Fifth street.

WANTED—$5 PER 100 FOR COLlecting names and addresses; instructions 12 cents; Mailing Service, 210 Holliday Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

WANTED—PERSONS TO COLOR ART pictures at home, easy work; no experience, good pay; sample free. Wheeler Co., 337, Madison, Chicago.

WANTED—LADY AGENTS TO SELL meritorious article; salary and commission; excellent proposition for industrious lady. L 717, Herald.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework; no washing. Inquire Boston store. Call Cole 36-X. Must live in West Duluth.

WANTED—$5 PER WEEK FOR COMpetent girl for general housework. Apply 1614 East Third street. References required.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Call Duluth Meat Supply company, Second avenue west and First street.

WANTED AT ONCE — COMPETENT girl for general housework; small family; good wages. Apply 1422 East Fifth street.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework, one who can cook. Mrs. John Wertin, 1510 East Third street.

WANTED—MEDIUM AGE WOMAN as housekeeper for widower out of more than wages. Write P 712, Herald.

WANTED—GOVERNMENT POSITIONS open to women; $75 month. Franklin Institute, dept. 645 M., Rochester, N.Y.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework; good cook; two in family. 1510 East Second street.

WANTED—GIRL TO ASSIST WITH general housework; $16 per month. 1520 East Third street. Melrose 4033.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework, also care of children; no washing. 5523 London road.

WANTED—YOUNG GIRL TO WORK for room and board; good home to right girl. 605 East Sixth street.

WANTED—GIRL FOR GENERAL housework, small family, good wages. Apply 1517 East Superior street.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Mrs. Lucien Merritt, 4611 West Superior street.

WANTED — SCANDINAVIAN GIRL for boarding house work. 5 North Nineteenth avenue west.

WANTED AT ONCE—COMPETENT maid for general housework. 1124 East Superior street.

WANTED—GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Call 329 North Fifty-eighth avenue west.

WANTED—GIRL FOR GENERAL housework, wages $25. Apply 1018 East Third street.

WANTED—GIRL FOR GENERAL housework at once. Tremont hotel, West Duluth.

WANTED — DISHWASHER, TOURIST hotel, 305 North Central avenue, West Duluth.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework. 414 East Third street.

WANED — HOUSEKEEPER. CALL Calumet 92-L, Cole 299 or Cole 224-Y.

WANTED—EXPERIENCED HOTEL scrub girl. St. Louis hotel.

WANTED—MAID; TWO IN FAMILY. 2122 East Fourth street.

WANTED—HOUSEMAID. 418 EAST First street, flat A.

WANTED — DINING ROOM GIRL. Palmer house.

SUMMER RESORTS.

FOR SALE—LARGE CAMP SITES ON beautiful Lake Vermilion; sand bathing beaches, parks, docks, wells, etc.; monthly payments as low as $2, without interest; all sites sold on our "money back" guarantee. Gray-Wertin company, Alworth building.

WHAT!

NOT YET, A HOME OF YOUR OWN

Haven't you taken steps yet to get a home of your own? If you haven't, obey the impulse now and read the Real Estate ads of today's Herald. These columns are the starting point "homeward" for hundreds of Duluth people. No other method makes homegetting so easy.

All the leading dealers use The Herald "want" ads when they have a special bargain to sell, because they know a Herald "want" is the quickest way to turn a bargain.

The buyers, too, know that it is in The Herald the best values are to be found.

If you don't find what you want TELEPHONE 324 —either phone—and dictate an advertisement. Rate 1 cent a word. Minimum charge, 15 cents.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

FOR RENT—HOUSES.

—FOR RENT—

1214 E. Third st., 6 rooms, all conveniences, rent..... $35.00
1509 E. Third st., 8 rooms, all conveniences, rent..... 35.00
112 S. Sixteenth ave. E., 8 room, all conveniences..... 35.00
21 S. Seventeenth ave. E., 8 rooms, all conveniences... 32.50
214 Ninth ave. E., 8 rooms, all conveniences, rent.... 32.00
903 E. Second st., 8 rooms, all conveniences, rent.... 30.00
23 Mesaba ave., 8 rooms, all conveniences, rent..... 33.00
5812 E. Superior st., 7 rooms, water, sewer, electric light, rent..... 21.00
629 W. First st., 5 rooms, water, sewer and electric light, rent..... 20.00
110 W. Second st., 10 rooms, bath, gas and electric light, rent..... 35.00

STRYKER, MANLEY & BUCK, Main floor, Torrey Bldg.

FOR RENT:

Centrally located, strictly modern, brick house; 8 rooms and bathroom, hot water heat, laundry and toilet in basement, hardwood finish and floors; very desirable; $50 per month.

STRYKER, MANLEY & BUCK.

—FOR RENT—

609 West Third street; beautiful view; 11-room house with furnace, two fireplaces, bath, gas and electric light; so arranged that it could be used as rooming house or two flats; combination coal and gas range in two kitchens.

STRYKER, MANLEY & BUCK, Main Floor, Torrey Bldg.

FOR RENT — THE EASTERLY HALF of Munger residence; nine rooms, thoroughly modern and in first-class condition; this house has been recently redecorated throughout and should merit your early consideration; very reasonable rental. F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT—A MODERN, NINE-ROOM rooming house, corner of First avenue west and Second street; this house has been remodeled and redecorated throughout. For an appointment to see this house telephone the F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT — A THOROUGHLY MODern, nine-room dwelling at 716 East First street; hot water heating plant; newly decorated throughout and in first-class condition; reasonable rental. F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT—THREE-ROOM FLAT, $8; 4-room flat, $12.50; hardwood floors throughout, sewer, gas, water and electric lights; centrally located. Chas. P. Meyers, 611 Alworth Bldg.

FOR RENT — SIX-ROOM BRICK house, near Twelfth avenue east on Second street; strictly modern, occupancy at once. Phone Melrose 7552.

FOR RENT—SIX-ROOM HOUSE. 310 West Fifth street; modern except heat. Inquire rental department Bridgeman & Russell company.

FOR RENT—FIVE-ROOM HOUSE, gas stove, hot water heat, etc. 2026 West Second street. Apply D. Adams, 1922 West Michigan street.

FOR RENT—SIX-ROOM HOUSE AND garage; all conveniences except heat; $16. 1025 East Sixth street. Call Grand 1023-Y.

FOR RENT — FIVE-ROOM HOUSE; modern except heat; Park Point. Inquire Edmont, 18 Third avenue west.

FOR RENT—MODERN SEVEN-ROOM house, 2711 West Third street. Inquire at 2819 West Superior street.

FOR RENT—BRAND NEW MODERN six-room house; just completed. Inquire 320 West Third street.

FOR RENT — SIX-ROOM BRICK house, 1508 East Fourth street; all modern. Inquire Lincoln 78.

FOR RENT — NEWLY-FURNISHED six-room house, modern except heat. Write X 704, Herald.

FOR RENT—NOS. 1718 AND 1720 EAST Superior street. E. P. Alexander.

FLORIST.

Duluth Floral Co., wholesale, retail, cut flowers, funeral designs. 121 W. Sup.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

ADDITIONAL WANTS ON PAGES 30 AND 31

FOR RENT—ROOMS.

—THE NEW ALEXANDRIA—

A few desirable rooms now vacant at special winter rates; well-heated and comfortable apartments. Private telephone in every room. Dining room in connection. 322 W. Second St.

—METROPOLE HOTEL—

101-5 Lake avenue south; hot and cold running water in every room; steam heat and other modern conveniences; rates $2 per week and up.

—ELGIN HOTEL—

Nicely furnished, steam-heated rooms; best beds in the city; running water; very reasonable winter rates. 321 West First street.

MELROSE HOTEL,

318 West Second street, well-heated, pleasant rooms and board at special winter rates. Mcl. 4301; Grand 2166-X.

The New Mitchell hotel—Rooms newly furnished and decorated; also suite of rooms; all conveniences; rates reasonable. 28 East Second St. Mel. 3357.

THE MARYLAND HOTEL, 310 EAST Superior street; steam-heated, modern rooms, $1.75 per week and up.

LA SALLE HOTEL—12-14 Lake Ave. north Cozy, warm rooms with hot and cold water. Special low rates.

FOR RENT — TWO LADIES OR MAN and wife can have elegant room with privileges in central East end home; company more essential than remuneration. Write V 698, Herald.

FOR RENT — STEAM-HEATED rooms; reasonable; suitable for small manufacturing, offices, work shop or storage. 313 West Superior street, second floor.

SINCE 1912 WE HAVE SAVED MONEY for hotels and rooming houses on their linens. We sell at wholesale. J. G. Valentine & Co., 8 E. First St.

FOR RENT—COMFORTABLE, SUNNY room in private family; no other roomers; East end; breakfast if desired; $10 per month. Melrose 7356.

FOR RENT — TWO FURNISHED housekeeping rooms; also single room for lady, kitchen privilege. 426½ East Sixth street.

FOR RENT —ALCOVE AND FRONT room Altedena flat, suitable for two congenial gentlemen; use of bath and telephone. Flat E.

FOR RENT—SUITE OF ROOMS FOR light housekeeping; also one furnished room with hot and cold water. 412 West Third street.

FOR RENT — FURNISHED ROOM with or without board in private family. 626 North Fifty-sixth avenue west.

FOR RENT—COMFORTABLE FURnished room in modern private home; rent reasonable. 328 Third avenue west.

FOR RENT — ONE OR TWO BEDrooms with kitchen, furnished for light housekeeping. 2609 West Huron street.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOMS ALso for light housekeeping; use of bath and phone. 1 West Superior street.

FOR RENT—NEWLY FURNISHED heated room, use of bath and phone. 727 East Seventh street; Melrose 6466.

FOR RENT—NEATLY FURNISHED room, first floor; use of phone and piano; $2 per week. 440 Mesaba avenue.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED BASEMENT room for light housekeeping; all conveniences. 322 West Third street.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOM IN private family, East end. Meals if desired. Melrose 4307.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOM, suitable for two gentlemen. 1615 Piedmont avenue.

FOR RENT—PLEASANT FURNISHED rooms, steam heat. 709 East First street.

FOR RENT — TWO FURNISHED housekeeping rooms. 112 East First street.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOMS. 113 Third avenue west.

WALL PAPER.

Experienced and reliable paper-hanger will furnish new and up-to-date patterns and paper an ordinary-sized room for $4.50. Painting and tinting neatly done; prompt and satisfactory work guaranteed. Decorator, 31 W. Second St. Mel. 4303; Grand 596-X.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

FOR RENT—FLATS.

FOR RENT.

316 E. First St., modern 6-room heated flat; month...$40.00

315 E. First St., modern 6-room flat, hot water heating plant 30.00

28 Washington Ave., 4-room flat; rent 12.00

815 E. First St., modern 6-room heated flat 40.00

If you are looking for a house or flat for the first of May, kindly phone us your requirements, as we will have a good list at that time.

Grand 239; Melrose 2400.

W. M. PRINDLE & CO. Lonsdale Building.

FOR RENT.

Very attractive apartment in the Barrington, corner First street and Eighth avenue east.

Six-room house at 1618 East Third street; will be available May 1; $37.50.

Seven-room house at 1426 East First street; hot water heat; will be redecorated to suit tenant; $40.

JOHN A. STEPHENSON & CO., Wolvin Building.

FOR RENT — IN THE BUFFALO apartments, on Ninth avenue east, we have two very desirable four-room and alcove steam-heated flats, which have recently been redecorated throughout and equipped with new hardwood floors, new light fixtures and new plumbing fixtures. For an appointment to see these desirable flats call the F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT — ON FIRST AVENUE west, between Superior and First street, a six-room flat which has hardwood floors, electric lights, gas and toilet; stove heat; these premises could be remodeled for a small shop and living rooms if desired. For further information call F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT—$15, A 3-ROOM FLAT IN brick building, No. 15½ West First street; water, sewer, gas, electric lights and toilet; stove heat; a bargain. F. I Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT — SEVEN-ROOM FLAT, 715 West Second street, heat and water furnished, $30.

WILLIAM C. SARGENT, Providence Building.

FOR RENT—THREE-ROOM FLAT, $8; 4-room flat, $12.50; hardwood floors throughout, sewer, gas, water and electric lights; centrally located. Chas P. Meyers, 611 Alworth Bldg.

FOR RENT—HEATED SEVEN-ROOM flat in Dacey apartments with water, heat and janitor service. Call Melrose or Grand 423.

FOR RENT — FIVE-ROOM UPPER apartment; gas range, hardwood floors, furnace and laundry tubs; $26.50. Melrose 1801.

FOR RENT—FOUR-ROOM FLAT, 219 East Fifth street, bath; $15 per month. William C. Sargent, Providence building.

FOR RENT—FOUR ROOMS AND alcove with bath, gas and electric light at 423 East Fifth street; $15 per month.

FOR RENT—MODERN CENTRAL four and five-room apartments. San Marco, 224 West Third street; Grand 1145 D.

FOR RENT — TWO FOUR-ROOM front flats, $16.00 and $17.00. 329-331 East Superior street; Melrose 5643.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED FIVE-ROOM flat, heated; janitor service, $30. 123 Tenth avenue east. Melrose 7561.

FOR RENT—FIRST FLOOR, FOUR-room flat at 26 East Second street. Apply 5 East Superior street.

FOR RENT—SIX-ROOM FLAT; HEAT furnished; all modern. 29 West Fourth street. Inquire rear.

FOR RENT—FOUR-ROOM FLAT, NO. 1212 West Superior street; sewer, water, electric light, $12.

FOR RENT—SIX-ROOM FLAT; ALL modern; heat furnished. 27½ West Fourth street.

FOR RENT—FIVE-ROOM HEATED flat. 1927 West Third street; Melrose 3358.

FOR RENT—CHEAP; MODERN FIVE-room basement. 706 East Fifth street.

FOR RENT—APRIL 1, MODERN FIVE-room flat. Call Melrose 3226.

FOR RENT—FIVE-ROOM FLAT, 519 East Fifth street.

AGENTS WANTED.

AGENTS WANTED—EVERY HOUSEhold on farm, in small town or suburbs, where oil lamps are used, needs and will buy the wonderful Aladdin Mantle lamp; burns common coal oil (kerosene); gives a light five times as bright as electric. Awarded gold medal at San Francisco exposition. One farmer cleared over $500 in six weeks; hundreds with rigs earning $100 to $300 per month; no cash required; we furnish capital to reliable men; write quick for wholesale prices; territory and sample lamp for free trial. Mantle Lamp company, 617 Aladdin building, Chicago, Ill.

AGENTS—BIG TEXTILE MILLS WILL employ everywhere reliable people to take orders for dress fabrics, hosiery, underwear, sweaters, waists and skirts, from samples; factory prices; spare or all time; no experience; permanent; many making over $30 weekly. Steadfast Mills, Dept. D 20, Cohoes, N. Y.

AGENTS—ACT QUICK! AUTOMOBILE gasoline going up. Sell Gaso-Tonic. Equals gasoline at 3c a gallon. Eliminates carbon. Dollar an hour profit. Sales guaranteed. White Manufacturing company, department 10, Cincinnati, Ohio.

AGENTS—PORTRAIT MEN WRITE quick for new catalogue. Twenty-four hour shipments prints or finished work. Expenses advanced reliable men. Roberts, Wholesale Portraits, Kansas City, Mo.

AGENTS WANTED—CHANCE TO make big money calling on automobile owners; get our proposition today. Englewood Novelty company, 6708 Wentworth avenue, Chicago, Ill.

AGENTS—MAKE $5 TO $25 DAILY; no experience; free catalog and samples; new goods; quick sales; big profits; world's beaters. Cruver Co., Jackson & Campbell, Chicago, Ill.

AGENTS—EARN $15 DAILY CALLING on automobile owners. Particulars free. Utility Sales company, 1485 Cleveland avenue, St. Paul, Minn.

TIMBER LANDS.

TIMBER AND CUT-OVER LANDS bought; mortgage loans made. John Q. A. Crosby, 305 Palladio building.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

SALE—MISCELLANEOUS

—SPECIAL LOW PRICES— ON DINING ROOM TABLES.

All styles and finishes. $7.85 and upward.

Big selection to choose from. ENGER & OLSON, Nineteenth Ave. W. and Sup. St.

—NOTICE—

Will sell either to dealers on thirty days' time, or direct to retail trade on installment plan, or exchange for other useful merchandise, a number of used coal ranges, gas ranges and bench wringers; all these have been carefully rebuilt with new parts where necessary and are almost as good as new; we find that we are overstocked on same and are willing to sacrifice on price.

BELLNET INSTALLMENT CO., 202 East Superior St.

—BREAK AWAY—

From the extravagant habit of paying rent on furniture. Furnish your own rooms now at our annual clearance sale. If you are married and living in a light housekeeping suite, you should investigate the big value we are offering in 3-room outfits at $69; terms $1.50 per week. F. S. Kelly Furniture Co., 17 and 19 West Superior street.

TALKING MACHINES — LARGEST stock in the city. Complete outfits at special prices. Be sure you get the New Columbia Grafonola; awarded three grand prizes and two gold medals at the world's fair; double-faced records 65 cents; ask for catalogues free; only exclusive talking machine store in Duluth, largest stock. Edmont, 18 Third avenue west.

FOR SALE—ENTIRE STOCK OF CAMeron Furniture company will be closed out quickly. Lease expires in April. If you want bargains now is the time to buy good furniture, rugs, gas ranges, etc., for the home. Deliveries everywhere. Salesrooms 2110-2112 West Superior street. Open evenings.

FOR SALE—STORE FIXTURES, INcluding 5-foot plate glass showcase, safe, clothing rack, tables, counters, large heating stove, Oliver typewriter, window fixtures, awning and two electric light fixtures, mirror, etc. Call Cole 258-D.

WONDERFULLY BIG BARGAINS IN pianos. We are closing out entire stock to remodel the showrooms. $275 piano $125; $350 now $165; $750 player piano now $325; cash or on payments. Korby Piano Co., 26 Lake Av. N.

FOR SALE—AT BIG BARGAIN, THE new $375 piano I won in News Tribune contest. You can select player-piano or baby grand. Cash or terms. Call or write N. S. Mitchell, 102 Manhattan building, Duluth.

AT WHOLESALE TO HOTELS AND rooming houses, table linens, bedding, towels, crashes, curtains, etc. No extra charge for marking. Zenith Dry Goods Co., 126 East First street.

SAFES AND SAFE-CABINETS.

All sizes, new and second-hand, at reasonable prices. Get our list before buying. Safe-Cabinet company, 315 West First street. Melrose 1364.

FOR SALE — CAMERON FURNITURE Company will save you 50 per cent on quality furniture for the home. Salesrooms 2110-2112 West Superior street.

FOR SALE—Second-hand woodworking machinery, portable sawmill, transmission appliances, pipes for steam, water and furnaces. Duluth Mach. Co.

FOR SALE — DRY HARDWOOD, sawed or split and delivered. Grand 1576-D. James Leary, care of Gospel mission, Lake avenue south.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE OF FIVE-room flat, including fine player piano; parties leaving town. 1418 Jefferson street; Melrose 5107.

FOR SALE—SECOND-HAND LUMber, inquire for McKenzie, Kaiserhoff saloon, corner Lake avenue and Superior street.

FOR SALE — LEATHER UPHOLstered bed davenport, practically new; cheap for quick sale. Phone Melrose 1540.

FOR SALE—ONE TWO-DRAWER cash register and one No. 6 Remington typewriter; cheap. 31 West Superior street.

FOR SALE—16-INCH MAPLE AND birch wood, $7 per cord. Gus Carlson, 2205 West First street; Lincoln 463.

FOR SALE—BROWN WICKER BABY cab; cost $28.50; used one season; will sell for $10. Call Melrose 4882.

FOR SALE — CHEAP, HOUSEHOLD goods and furniture, including two gas plates. 226 Second avenue west.

FOR SALE—SODA FOUNTAIN, MAhogany; must be sold at once. Jeronimous, druggist, 501 East Fourth St.

FOR SALE—PLAYER PIANO, WITH music, at a bargain; easy payments. Edmont, 18 Third avenue west.

FOR SALE—AT DISCOUNT, A NEW Macey fumed oak, three-section bookcase. Call Grand 2092-Y.

FOR SALE—GOLDEN OAK BUFFET. Inquire 631 North Fifty-sixth avenue west or call Calumet 115-L.

FOR SALE — CHEAP, $250 TAKES furniture for ten-room house; a bargain. Melrose 8115.

FOR SALE—GOOD BUILDING STONE. Apply First avenue east and First street. H. Fawcett.

FOR SALE—OFFICE DESK. CALL Lincoln 280-Y. 2725 West Second street.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE, ODDS AND ends at half price. Boston Music Co.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE. 108 SOUTH Twenty-seventh avenue west.

FOR SALE—CASH REGISTER. 503 Providence building.

WANTED TO BORROW.

WANTED TO BORROW—$1,400 FOR five years at 6 per cent on new, modern, six-room dwelling; lot 51½ by 132, well located; will pay all expenses but no commission. Write F 722, Herald.

WANTED TO BORROW—$2,500 ON first mortgage, centrally located, well improved, rented property; interest 6 per cent per annum. Write Y 685, Herald.

FOR SALE—GOOD FIRST MORTgages in sums of $300, $500, $1,000 and other sums. Western Realty Co., 1922 West Superior street.

WANTED TO BORROW—MONEY TO build a home in Lakeside. I have $900. Write A 937, Herald.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.

WANTED TO EXCHANGE—FOR IMproved city property, 160 acres; six miles from Harold, S. D.; one-half mile from school; eighty acres broke. Address V 719, Herald.

Fine farm land to exchange for improved property anywhere. Arnold Co., Superior, Wis.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

DULUTH LODGE NO. 665, LOYAL ORDER of Moose, meets every Tuesday at 8 o'clock, Moose hall, 224 West First street. Carl Schau, secretary, 14 Third avenue east.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

PALESTINE LODGE NO. 79, A. F. & A. M.—Regular meetings first and third Monday evenings of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting, March 6, 1916. Work—Second degree. Clement O. Townsend, W. M.; James S. Matteson, Sec.

IONIC LODGE, NO. 186, A. F. & A. M.—Regular meeting second and fourth Monday evenings of each month at 7:30. Next meeting, March 13, 1916. Work — First degree. Degree conferred by high school teachers. William J. Works, W., M.; Burt Porter, secretary.

KEYSTONE CHAPTER NO. 20, R. A. M.—Stated convocations, second and fourth Wednesday evenings of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting March 8, 1916. Work—Royal Arch degree conferred by Past High Priests. Stanley L. Mack, H. P.; Alfred Le Richeux, secretary.

DULUTH COUNCIL NO. 6, R. & S. M.—Stated convocations, third Friday of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting, March 17, 1916. Work—Superexcellent degree. Maynard W. Turner, T. I. M.; Alfred Le Richeux, Secretary.

DULUTH COMMANDERY NO. 18, K. T.—Stated convocations, first Tuesday of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next conclave, March 7, 1916. Work—Annual meeting; election of officers. Arch. D. MacIntyre, Com.; Alfred Le Richeux, recorder.

SCOTTISH RITE — REGULAR MEETINGS every Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Next meeting, March 2, 1916. Work—Twenty-first degree. Burr Porter, secretary.

ZENITH CHAPTER NO. 25, ORDER OF Eastern Star—Regular meetings second and fourth Friday evenings each month. Next meeting, Friday, March 10, 1916, at 7:30 o'clock. Work—Regular business, balloting and initiation. Eva M. Dunbar, W. M.; Ella E. Gearhart, Sec.

MIZPAH SHRINE NO. 1, ORDER OF THE White Shrine of Jerusalem—Regular meetings first Saturday evening of each month at 8 o'clock. Next meeting, March 4, 1916. Business and balloting. Gertrude Eates, W. H. P.; Etta Trefframs, W. S.

EUCLID CHAPTER NO. 56, ORDER OF the Eastern Star—Meets at West Duluth Masonic temple the first and third Tuesdays of each month, at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting, March 7, 1916. Initiation, Flora Clark, W. M.; Mildred M. Ross, Sec.

EUCLID LODGE, NO. 198, A. F. & A. M.—Meets at West Duluth, second and fourth Wednesdays of each month at 7:30 p. m. Next meeting, March 8, 1916. Work—Third degree. H. W. Lannes, W. M.; A. Dunleavy, secretary.

DULUTH CHAPTER NO. 59, R. A. M.—Meets at West Duluth first and third Wednesdays of each month at 7:30 p. m. Next meeting, March 15, 1916. Work—R. A. M. degree, conferred by Keystone chapter. W. A. Pittenger, H. P.; A. Dunleavy, secretary.

LAKESIDE LODGE NO. 281, A. F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Mondays of each month at 8 o'clock at Masonic hall, Forty-fifth avenue east and Robinson street. Next meeting, March 6, 1916. Regular—Work, First degree. William A. Ehrben, W. M.; George E. Nelson, secretary, 4530 Cooke street east.

TRINITY LODGE NO. 282, A. F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Mondays at 8 o'clock in Woodman hall, Twenty-first avenue west. Next meeting, regular, March 6, 1916. Work—Third degree. D. H. Pfeifer, W. M., 1918 West Third street; E. E. Wheeler, secretary, 2032 West Superior street.

A. O. U. W.

FIDELITY LODGE NO 166—MEETS AT Macabee hall, 21 Lake avenue north, every Thursday at 8 p. m. Visiting members welcome. E. A. Vogt, M. W.; J. A. Lubinsky, recorder; O. J. Munson, financier, 217 East Fifth street. Stag party, March 9.

A. O. U. W.—DULUTH LODGE NO. 10—Meets every second and fourth Tuesday nights at Axa hall, 221 West Superior street. Next meeting, March 14, 1916, at 8 p. m. Initiation. Harold A. Heller, M. W.; R. G. Foote, recorder; E. F. Heller, financier, 509 Second avenue east.

ZENITH COUNCIL NO. 161, ROYAL league, meets the first and third Thursdays in the month, at 8 o'clock, in the old Masonic temple, Superior street and Second avenue east. O. S. Knoploch, archon, Welsh building; H. A. Hall, collector, 18 East First street.

DULUTH LODGE NO. 28, I. O. O. F.—Next meeting, Friday evening, March 10, 1916, at 7:30 o'clock, 221 West Superior street, third floor. Work—First degree will be conferred. Odd Fellows welcome. Charles F. Ottinger, N. G.; W. J. McDonald, Rec. Sec.

K. OF P.

NORTH STAR LODGE NO. 35, K. OF P.—Meets every Tuesday, 7:30 p. m., sixth floor, Temple building, Superior street and Second avenue east. Next meeting, March 7, 1916. Work—First rank. James A. Wharton, C. C., 802 Alworth building; B. A. Rowe, M. of F., 205 First National bank; B. A. Bishop, K. of R. and S., 505 Palladio building.

ZENITH CAMP NO. 5, WOODMEN OF the World, meets on first and third Friday nights of month, at Forresters' hall, Fourth avenue west and First street. J. H. Larkin, clerk, 302 Sixteenth avenue east, Lakeside 2546.

MAJESTIC REBEKAH LODGE NO. 60, I. O. O. F.—Regular meetings first and third Thursdays of each month, 8 p. m., 224 West Superior street, third floor. Next meeting, March 2, 1916. Feb. 24, drill practice. Mrs. Henrietta Shaw, N. G.; Lillian Johnson, secretary, Grand 2113-Y.

DULUTH HOMESTEAD NO. 3131, BROTHerhood of American Yeomen, meets every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock sharp, in Maccabee hall, 21 Lake avenue north. Herbert F. Hanks, foreman; J. J. Pelham, correspondent, office in his drug store, 2132 West Third street. Melrose 3769; Lincoln 511-Y.

M. W. A.

IMPERIAL CAMP, 2206 — MEETS AT Forester hall, Fourth avenue west and First street, second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. Wayne E. Richardson, consul; Robert Hamblin, clerk, care Hamblin Printing company.

CLAN STEWART NO. 50, O. S. C.—Meets first and third Wednesdays each month, 8 p. m., U. O. F. hall, corner Fourth avenue west and First street. Next regular meeting March 15, 1916. D. A. Cameron, chief; John Gow, Sec., John Burnett, Fin. Sec., 813 Torrey building.

MODERN SAMARITANS.

ALPHA COUNCIL NO. 1—TAKE NOTICE: That the Samaritan degree meets the first and third Wednesdays, and the Beneficent degree the second and fourth Wednesdays of the month, at 12 East Superior street, Empress theater building. W. B. Henderson, C. S.; John F. Davis, scribe; F. A. Noble, F. S., 201

LAST EDITION

THE DULUTH HERALD

18 PAGES

VOLUME XXXIII—NO. 285. MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 6, 1916. TWO CENTS.

MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Minn Historical Society D H

NEWTON D. BAKER IS TO BE SECRETARY OF WAR

GREAT SHELLS DROP REGULARLY ON VERDUN; NO CIVILIANS ARE THERE

Projectiles From Guns Seven Miles Away Explode Methodically.

Entire Population of City and Soldiers Have Gone.

Windows in Great Cathedral Shattered; Many Houses in Ruins.

Verdun, March 6, via Paris.—Nine-inch shells are falling around the Gath bridges and railway stations of Verdun. They come from long-range guns—seven miles away—and drop methodically.

The gendarme on duty near one gate told the Associated Press correspondent he had kept a tally of those that fell Saturday night and there were 117 of them. The correspondent, sheltered by a massive earth and stone work at one of the gates, counted projectiles exploding about three minutes apart in that neighborhood.

The German gunners are trying to break the communication to Verdun. Strangely enough not a bridge nor an entrance to the abandoned fortifications had been struck. Splinters from shells have chipped some of the structures, but none of them has been destroyed. The city is vacant. It is more like the ghost of a city than a modern well-built town. There are no civilians, and no soldiers here. Firemen have remained, however, and are busy stopping the work of the incendiary bombs. A detachment of gendarmes is on duty to guard against any stray plundering.

Twenty-two Thousand Leave.

Twenty-two thousand persons locked their doors and with a small amount of personal baggage left the town by order. Transportation was provided for them without deranging the enor-

(Continued on page 2, fourth column.)

TURKISH CRUELTIES AVENGED BY RUSS

Terrible Slaughter Follows Capture of Turk Positions at Bitlis.

London, March 6.—The Russian soldiers at Bitlis, according to a Petrograd dispatch to the Morning Post, took a terrible revenge on the Turkish troops for the cruelty which the Turks were alleged to have practiced toward the Armenians in that district. The correspondent said:

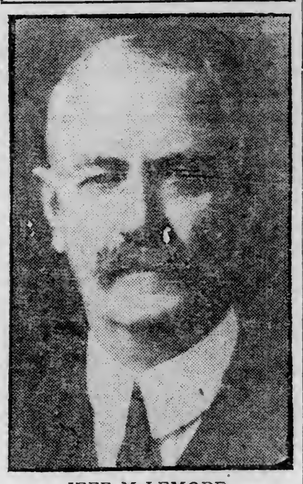
"A terrible slaughter followed the capture of the Turkish positions in Bitlis. The Russian troops had witnessed at Van Mush and many other places an appalling sight, the massacre, namely, by Turkish fanatics of tens of thousands Armenian Christian men, woman and children. It was unlikely after such deeds that any quarter should be given. This colossal killing completed the destruction of the Turkish army."

HEAVY FIGHTING NEAR KUT-EL-AMARA

Fierce Engagements Between British Relief Forces and Turks at Nasrie.

London, March 6.—An Amsterdam dispatch to the Central News says that since Feb. 21 heavy fighting has been in progress between the relief forces of Gen. Aylmer on the Tigris and the Turkish troops, according to advices from Constantinople. Especially severe fighting has been taking place near the town of Nasrie. The British have recently moved up a new large force to proceed to the relief of Gen. Townshend at Kut-el-Amara.

INTRODUCED MEASURE IN HOUSE WARNING AMERICANS FROM SHIPS



JEFF McLEMORE, Congressman From Texas, Whose Resolution Warning Americans From Ships of Allies Will Be Acted on in the House.

U. S. ASKED TO SAVE DR. RENE

Telegrams Sent to Lansing in Behalf of Former Superior Man.

Daughter to Go to Washington to Appeal to President.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 6.—Telegrams to Secretary of State Lansing, asking that the American government take steps to forestall the execution of Dr. James A. Rene, formerly of Superior, Wis., at Mazatlan, on the west coast of Mexico, have been sent by relatives and friends here, it was said today.

Miss Adelaide Rene, daughter of the physician, who, according to private advices received Saturday by Dr. J. A. Adams, at Superior, has been sentenced to be shot on March 15, stated she would go to Washington and personally appeal to the president to prevent the execution.

Mrs. Rene and Carroll, a 12-year-old son, are with the physician at Mazatlan. Although relatives and friends have endeavored to confer with Dr. Rene by radio, they said no reply had been received.

GERMAN TROOPS ARE ACTIVE IN BELGIUM

Forty Thousand Men on Way to the Front Near Ypres.

London, March 6.—Important movements of German troops in Belgium are reported in a Central News dispatch from The Hague. It is said information has reached The Hague from Maestricht, Holland, that 40,000 German cavalrymen of the landsturm are on their way to the front near Ypres.

UNABLE TO BREAK THROUGH THE FRENCH CENTER, GERMANS TURN THEIR ATTENTION TO FLANKS

ACTIVITY IN THE WOEVRE IS INTENSE

Teuton Fire Centers on Regions of Haudomont and Fresnot.

Believed the Next Important Drive Will Be Started There.

Assaults on Douaumont Sector Testing Strength of French Troops.

London, March 6.—With the French center in the Douaumont sector apparently still holding firm against the desperate assaults of the crown prince's armies, the Germans are again turning their attention to the flanks of the French positions around the stronghold.

Intense artillery activity in the Woevre region was reported in the Paris night bulletin, the fire centering upon the regions of Haudomont and Fresnot, about ten miles southeast of Verdun. Military commentators recently have laid stress upon the operations in this sector, holding that the next important drive by the Germans might be exerted there with the object of rolling up the French right flank.

Other indications, however, have pointed to the possibility that the eyes of the German headquarters staff were upon the extreme French left, across the Meuse river, which on the towering height of Le Morthomme commands the lesser eminence north and the surrounding plains. The heavy artillery of the Teutons is also pounding the defenses in this sector. The French are ready for an infantry attack there but it is doubted in Paris if the Germans will attempt the storming of the commanding position, to reach which their troops would have to deploy over a mile-wide plain under a destructive cross-fire.

Test of Strength Continues.

Meanwhile the testing of the French strength by furious assaults on the main defenses is continued. Illustrative of this was yesterday's attack on the left of the Douaumont sector, near the Cote du Poivre. There the French lines also held firm, according to Paris, while at the immediate front of Douaumont the German assaults were temporarily suspended, the heavy French

(Continued on page 2, third column.)

DULUTH COUNTERFEITER IS SENTENCED TO FIVE YEARS

SAMUEL RABINOVITZ ALIAS ROBBINS.

Chicago, March 6.—Samuel Robbins, who confessed that he had made the greater part of $8,000 counterfeit money in Duluth, Minn., was sentenced today to five years' imprisonment. Samuel Pinas and Benjamin Saltzman, confederates, were sentenced to the workhouse for thirty days each.

Robbins' counterfeiting of $5 notes was discovered last July when he and Pinas quarreled at the latter's home here.

Made Money Here.

When Robbins was arrested on July 16 last, he told Federal officers in Chicago that he made the money in Duluth, aided by two friends. "I hired two fellows to help me," he said, "and we worked from November, 1914, to March 30, 1915. Then we left for Chicago, with the money in a trunk."

Local police found that Robbins had rented rooms with Mrs. Katherine O'Leary at 28 West Second street, and that his story about the money was probably true, as Mrs. O'Leary furnished them with considerable evidence substantiating it.

Through a snap shot printed from a photographic plate found in his former room, Robbins was identified as Samuel Rabinovitz, son of Heiman Rabinovitz, 117 West Fourth street.

The Rabinovitz family came to this country from Russia eight years ago, going to Chicago and then moving to Duluth.

TWO SCHOOL FIRES AT EAST LANSING, MICH.

East Lansing, Mich., March 6.—While the ruins of the engineering buildings of the Michigan agricultural college were smouldering late last night, fire destroyed the East Lansing high school. An investigation will be made because of rumors of incendiarism. The estimated loss is $200,000. A special session of the legislature may be necessary to provide funds for reconstructing the college buildings.

Peoria Has $1,000,000 Fire.

Peoria, Ill., March 6.—Fire here this morning destroyed the Iowa elevator owned by the Minneapolis & St. Louis railroad, together with 750,000 bushels of grain, largely the property of S. C. Bartlett & Co. The loss is estimated at $1,000,000.

CARRYING A JOKE TOO FAR.

TWELVE KILLED IN RAID OF GERMAN AIRMEN ON ENGLAND

Thirty-Three Others Are Injured By Bombs From Zeppelins.

Terrace Houses Destroyed and Block of Almshouses Badly Wrecked.

London, March 6.—Twelve persons were killed and thirty-three injured in last night's Zeppelin raid. Three Zeppelins took part in the attack. This information was given out officially today.

The statement follows:

"The number of Zeppelins which took part in last night's raid is now believed to have been three.

"After crossing the coast the airships took various courses and from the devious nature of their flight apparently were uncertain as to their bearings. The area visited included Yorkshire, Lincolnshire, Rutland, Huntingdon, Cambridgeshire, Norfolk, Essex and Kent.

"As far as is known, about forty bombs were dropped altogether. The casualties, so far as ascertained amount to: Killed, 3 men, 4 women, 5 children; injured, 33.

"The material damage was: Two terrace houses practically destroyed, one office, one public house, a cafe and several shops partially destroyed and a block of almshouses badly damaged."

In one of the principal areas visited a block of workmen's dwellings was demolished. A woman and her four children, all under 9 years of age, were killed.

FORMER MAYOR OF CLEVELAND NAMED AS SECRETARY OF WAR

—Copyright by Lawrence-Bigley.
NEWTON D. BAKER.

FRENCH ARE OPTIMISTIC

Continued Repulses of Germans at Verdun Inspire Public Confidence.

Believe Germans Will Be Disposed of Easier Than Expected.

Paris, March 6.—Yesterday was a good day for the French at Verdun, according to information received this morning and public confidence is greatly strengthened by the news of the continued repulses of the German attacks. In military and political circles lively satisfaction is expressed regarding the situation and the opinion now begins to prevail that the great efforts of the Germans will be more easily disposed of than was at first expected.

Having failed to make any impression on the Douaumont position and on Vaux, to its right, the German general staff determined to smash the French left on the Vacherauville wood-Cote du Poivre position. Without regard to cost the best troops were hurled forward, but with no more success than elsewhere. Pomeranians and what was left of the Brandenburgers dashed themselves vainly against the French, who stood as immovable as a rock wall.

Leave Heaps of Dead.

As at Vaux the Germans finally fell back, leaving heaps of dead on the ground. The French infantry, sup-

(Continued on page 2, fifth column.)

SECOND DEFENSE BILL INTRODUCED

House Measure Provides for Great Additions to the Regular Army.

Washington, March 6.—With the introduction today of the house army bill by Chairman Hay of the military committee the second of the National Defense measures recommended by President Wilson was before congress. The first of these measures of the senate army bill was introduced Saturday.

As completed, the measure proposes to increase the regular army to a strength of 140,000 fighting troops, which means the addition of 40,000 men and 7,439 officers. It also provides 786 additional officers for detached service with the National Guard, military schools and elsewhere. A maximum strength, however, is fixed at 170,000.

A feature of the house bill is the broad scope given its proposals for the mobilization of commercial industries and lines of communication for war use. Regularly enlisted reserves in all civil occupations necessary to the maintenance of an army in war time are authorized and government orders for war materials are given right of way at all plants by law. The bill authorizes also the construction of a plant for the fixation of atmospheric nitrogen for use in manufacturing explosives.

The total cost of the plan for the first year is estimated at $116,819,271 while for the fifth year and thereafter it is placed at $137,494,945.

EX-MAYOR OF CLEVELAND TO JOIN CABINET

Will Succeed Lindley M. Garrison as Head of War Department.

Twice Offered Position of Secretary of Interior By President.

Is 44 Years Old and Has Been Mayor of Cleveland Two Terms.

Washington, March 6.—Newton Diehl Baker, former mayor of Cleveland, has been selected by President Wilson for secretary of war.

Mr. Baker has accepted the position and is now arranging his affairs in Cleveland preparatory to coming to Washington to take up his duties.

The selection of Mr. Baker is understood to have been discussed by President Wilson with Col. E. M. House soon after the latter's arrival here this morning.

Offered Position in Cabinet Twice.

When President Wilson was making up his cabinet in 1913 he offered the place of secretary of interior to Mr. Baker twice. Mr. Baker then was mayor of Cleveland and declined for that reason.

The president and Mr. Baker have been close friends for some time and have corresponded frequently.

When President Wilson recently was touring the Middle West on his preparedness program he saw Mr. Baker in Cleveland and had a long talk with him. Ever since Lindley M. Garrison resigned, the president has been seeking a Middle Western lawyer for the place.

The 30-day period for which Maj.-

(Continued on page 2, fifth column.)

COL. HOUSE SEES NO PROSPECT FOR PEACE

Tells President Conditions Have Not Changed Since Last Visit.

Washington, March 6.—Col. E. M. House, who returned yesterday from Europe, is understood to have told President Wilson today that he found no more prospects for peace during his recent visit to the capitals of belligerent nations than he did on his visit last spring.

The president and Col. House talked so long that the president was forty minutes late keeping his first engagement at the executive offices, a very unusual proceeding for him.

Washington, March 6.—Col. E. M. House, who returned yesterday after visiting Berlin, London and Paris as a special envoy of President Wilson, told the president the results of his mission today.

Col. House parried questions as to the status of the armed ship controversy with the statement that those in Washington knew more about the subject than he did. He absolutely refused to comment on the foreign situation.

When Col. House left for Europe reports were persistent that he went abroad to investigate the peace situation, but that was emphatically denied by both President Wilson and Secretary Lansing.

SPECIAL RULE FOR ARMED SHIPS DEBATE

Washington, March 6.—The house rules committee today agreed upon and will bring into the house tomorrow a special rule for four hours debate on the McLemore resolution warning Americans off armed ships of the European belligerents. This action puts the much-discussed resolution into a parliamentary position where administration leaders are confident they can kill it.

SUMMARY OF THE WAR NEWS

The slashing attacks of the German infantry in the Verdun region evidently have been suspended for the time being as neither of the official statements of today mention any activity in the infantry arm and the Berlin statement notes a slackening in the struggle.

The deadlock in the Donaumont region northeast of the fortress, where desperate battling for Douaumont village had been going on for several days, thus is continuing, but the big guns still are busy in preparation for further operations. The shell fire had been notably violent toward the French left flank beyond the westerly bank of the Meuse.

While the heavy bombardment by the Germans continues, not only here but on the French right flank in the Woevre region, indicating the possibility that infantry movements of an important nature may be expected in attempted enveloping operations, attention also is being directed further to the west—to the Argonne region, immediately adjoining the Verdun sector.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

"BEYOND THE POINT OF ROCKS"
BRANCH MANAGER: HERMAN OLSON, 1823 West Superior Street.
Advertising Subscription Distribution

LOSE POWER BY FAILURE TO USE

Rev. J. Emmett Porter, Grace M. E., Preaches First of Revival Series.

Rev. J. Emmett Porter, pastor of Grace Methodist church, Twenty-second avenue west and Third street, preached the first of a series of revival sermons at the church last night. "Power" was the subject on which he spoke. The pastor said that the moral and religious world of today is feeling the effect of a reaction due to loss of power in the individual to stem the tide of popular opinion. He declared that there are too few individuals who act on independent ideas and that there is a lack of real individual power for right thinking and right living.

"Power is seldom lost because of over use in the right direction," said Rev. Mr. Porter. "On the other hand it becomes stronger the more it is tested. The tragedy of the age in which we are living is the appalling loss of power among men and women because of the questionable method of the investment they make of the moral gifts.

"The water fronts of the great cities of New York, Chicago, London and Paris are too often strewn with the suicidal corpses of young men and women who have been the victims of some leakage of power. They knew not that their power of resistance had departed from them, until they stood bound and gagged, the victims of what they had thought to be but merely a pleasure, alas—to find that it was the thief of the powers of real life.

"We lose the power of truthfulness, by continually living a life of falsehood—we lose the power to appreciate beauty by hugging to our souls the things that are ugly—we lose the power of altruism, by allowing ourselves to live in the dark shadows of the giant forest of selfishness—we lose the power of true love, by the continual dissipation of our affections on that which is vile and unworthy of this high gift. We lose the power to really live, by continually insisting that there is nothing in the world that is worth living for but self and selfish pleasures.

"The pages of history are crowded with the stories of men and women who were gifted with unusual abilities—but who were written up as miserable failures. While they were revelling in the sensual pleasures that the world offers to genius—they wist not the power of real manhood and womanhood had slipped away from them.

"Every electric plant, telephone and telegraph company has a trouble hunter that looks after the leakage of power—Jesus is the Great Trouble Hunter for humanity to save its power of life."

PASTOR EXPLAINS RITE OF BAPTISM

Dr. Fish Declares It Symbolic of Death, Burial and Resurrection.

Taking "The New Life" as his subject, Rev. Milton Fish, pastor of the Central Baptist church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street, explained the rite of baptism, declaring it pictures death, burial and resurrection. This rite of Christian baptism, he declared, is the immersion of believers administered in the name of the Holy Trinity.

"The rite is a symbol of the Savior's atonement for us and also of His creative work within the saint," said Mr. Fish. "It is an outward mark of an inward change. He is sealed with that form of sound doctrine whereby he boasts in the crucified, entombed and risen Lord. It is like a marriage with our Great Redeemer. It neither saves from sin, nor obtains redemption, nor conveys the new life. For believers only did God give it. It is provided for persons who have reached the age sufficient to understand some of the meaning of salvation. The subjects of baptism should be conscious and should have deliberately received Jesus Christ into the very center of life. Such have been born the second time and are children of God through faith, and are members of the bride of Christ."

LENT EMPHASISES NEED OF SAVIOR

Passion of Christ Is Discussed By Rev. K. B. Vaaler.

Rev. K. B. Vaaler, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street, spoke on the Lenten season in his sermon last night on "The Passion of Jesus Christ." In part, he said:

Meaning of Lent.

"This Sunday, as it were, ushers in the Lenten season of the church year. This season is devoted to the consideration of the passion of our Lord Jesus Christ. Many curious notions and theories are advanced with regard to the passion of Christ. Christ is spoken of as a model man, a wonderful teacher, a philosopher and His sufferings and death are looked upon as the natural consequence of His revolutionary doctrines. We are asked to believe that His wonderful doctrines threatened to undermine the state and society and for that reason the Old Testament church, the Roman government and the populace in general rose up against him. We are told that He became a martyr to His own cause, a fate which many others both before and after His time have suffered.

"Our text takes quite a different view. We are told here that even though Jesus knew the fate that was awaiting Him at Jerusalem, He willingly and cheerfully goes to Jerusalem. Why did He not rather flee from the wrath to come? Why not rather go into voluntary exile? No. He was come to save the world. He wanted to suffer and die for that was necessary for the redemption of fallen mankind. His passion was a part of God's counsel for the redemption of the world and He was sent to carry out that counsel.

Need of Saviour.

"Then again we find reflected in the passion of Christ the enormity and heinousness of our depravity and God's wrath and justice. Consider Jesus suffering the pangs of hell in Gethsemane and the tortures on the cross, and we shall realize our own depravity and the dire need of a personal Saviour. If we hold that scriptural view of Christ's passion, than this Lenten season will be devoted to a consideration of Jesus as the Savior of the world he Savious we needed. We shall then be narrow minded enough to hold fast to what has been termed "the blood theology of the Dark Ages even in our enlightened age."

WILL ADDRESS MASONS.

Rabbi Lefkovits Will Be Chief Speaker Before Trinity Lodge.

Rabbi Maurice Lefkovits will be the principal speaker at a social session to follow an initiation of a class of five candidates in the M. M. degree by Trinity lodge No. 282, A. F. & A. M., this evening at Woodman hall, Twenty-first avenue and First street.

"The Symbolism of the Third Degree" will be the subject of Dr. Lefkovits' address. A smoker and luncheon have also been arranged in connection with the social hour.

MICHOLSON FUNERAL TUESDAY.

Last Rites Over Old Resident at Bethany Swedish Lutheran Church.

The funeral service for Mrs. Ingert M. Micholson, 84, who died Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Peterson, 2216 West Third street, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from Bethany Swedish Lutheran church, Twenty-third avenue west and Third street. Rev. C. A. Eckstrom will conduct the services. Interment will be made in the Union cemetery at Hermantown.

Mrs. Micholson had been a resident of the West end for about twenty-one years. She had been ill for several months.

MIDSUMMER DAY PLANS.

Swedish-American League Will Elect Officers and Arrange Celebration.

The Swedish-American National league will hold its annual business meeting this evening at Bachelors' hall, Nineteenth avenue west and First street. Election of officers and plans for the celebration of Midsummers' day June 24, will be the principal business discussed.

Ten Swedish societies of the city will be represented in the league this year, each having a committee of five members represented in the society.

Swedish Mission Notes.

The monthly business meeting of the congregation of the Swedish Mission church, Twenty-first avenue and Second street, will be held this evening at 8 o'clock. The trustees will hold a business meeting at 7 o'clock.

The Parthenoe society will be entertained tomorrow evening at 2532 West Second street. Misses Minnie Gustafson, Ellen Johnson, Bessie Eklund and Lena Peterson will be hostesses.

Midweek services will be held in the church Wednesday evening.

The ladies' aid society will meet in the church Thursday afternoon. The hostesses will be Mrs. Adolph Johnson and Mrs. Alex Johnson.

The choir will meet for rehearsal in the church Thursday evening.

John Backman will have charge of midweek services to be held at the East End Mission on Thursday evening.

West End Briefs.

Mrs. J. P. Daly, 3902 West Third street, and Richard Flynn, 2301 West Superior street, are at Eskelson, N. D., where they were called on account of the death of their brother, Charles A. Flynn.

Mrs. T. W. Pine of Eighteenth avenue west, left yesterday to spend a week visiting relatives in the Twin Cities.

Miss Lillian Magnuson, 2617 West Fifth street, is visiting relatives at Bemidji, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. White of Pangman, Sask., Can., have left for their home after spending two weeks visiting at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. J. A. Ledingham, 1927 West Third street.

Mrs. R. C. Wahl, Sr., was guest of honor at a surprise party given Saturday evening at the home of her son and daughter-in-law in honor of her 70th birthday anniversary. There were twenty guests present.

Only One "BROMO QUININE"
To get the genuine, call for full name LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE. Look for signature of E. W. Grove. Cures a Cold in One Day. 25c.

Beat High Prices Next Fall.
Buy winter suits and overcoats now at half price at the Big Duluth.

ALL FURS AND FUR COATS AT LESS THAN ½ PRICE
BECKMAN'S
FUR FACTORY
129 West Superior Street
The Largest Exclusive Fur Store in the Northwest.

UNABLE TO BREAK THROUGH THE FRENCH CENTER GERMANS TURN ATTENTION TO FLANKS

(Continued from page 1.)

artillery continuing its answer to the rain of giant shells which the Teuton 42s and similar big pieces were pouring on the defensive trenches.

Correspondents who have been at the front quote military men as saying the German achievements so far in the great battle for Verdun have resulted merely in restoring the lines to the positions they occupied at the end of 1914, before the French, in a series of local attacks, began expanding the defensive area about the fortress.

Verdun itself is now under German artillery fire, but according to correspondents little damage has been done.

May Be Planning Another Offensive.

Indications that the Germans may be planning another offensive movement on the western front are contained in reports from Dutch sources that important troop movements are going on behind the front in Belgium. Forty thousand German cavalrymen are said to be on their way to the battle line near Ypres, in which sector the famous German attempt to break through and reach Calais occurred in April, 1915.

From the French front to Asia Minor there have been no events of importance of a military way so far as the official bulletins show. In Armenia the Russians report continuing their pursuit of the defeated Turks and the district southward toward the Tigris and far-off Bagdad. Unofficial advices bring word in this connection that the British on the way up the Tigris toward Bagdad have been heavily reinforced and that there has been fighting between the Turks and part of the army of Gen. Aylmer, which is trying to reach Kut-El-Amara and relieve Gen. Townshend's beleagured force.

The British official report on last night's air raid over England says that twelve persons were killed and thirty-three injured. Three Zeppelins are believed to have taken part in the attack, which was over an area including eight counties.

French Statement.

Paris, March 6, 2:30 p. m.—There was no infantry fighting north of Verdun last night, the war office announced today.

The statement follows:

"In the Argonne we have bombarded different sections of the forest of Cheppy and the Malancourt-Avocourt road.

"In the region north of Verdun, the night passed without any infantry action. The artillery action continued violently on the left bank of the Meuse and intermittently in the sector to the west of Douaumont and in the Woevre.

"Our batteries have actively bombarded the communications of the enemy. The night was calm on the rest of the front."

It is stated semi-officially that the battle at Verdun continued Saturday throughout the day with the same intensity and without causing any change in the respective positions of the opposing armies. Fighting is still going on for definite possession of Douaumont. The situation, as a result of this second phase of the German offensive, is regarded as altogether different from that of the first days of battle. The only progress by the Germans was during the first two days of the second attack. After the first forty-eight hours they have not advanced.

The comparison also is in favor of the French by reason of the fact that the Germans now have lost the advantage of surprise and also because the ground has been torn up to such an extent that it cannot be organized properly.

Corpses Demoralizing.

This information from semi-official sources points out that it must be demoralizing to the Germans to see some 40,000 to 50,000 corpses of their comrades lying before the French lines.

Reinforcements brought up by the Germans since the inauguration of the second phase of the battle on Wednesday are estimated here at 250,000 men, raising the total forces utilized by the assailants to more than half a million. Estimates of losses show wide variance.

French artillery officers estimate that during the first four days of the struggle the Germans discharged 2,000,000 shells, most of them of heavy caliber. The number of projectiles fired by the French probably was as great. Nothing like such an expenditure of munitions has been known before, even in the Champagne attack. The whole theory of operations was to pulverize defenses at long range, drive out or kill defenders, and then occupy the ground by massed rushes of infantry.

German Statement.

Berlin, March 6, via London, 3:20 p. m.—Capture of nearly 1,000 French near Verdun on Saturday and Sunday was announced today by the war office.

The number of prisoners, who were captured east of the Meuse is 14 officers and 934 men.

The statement follows:

"Western front: Lively mining duels occurred northeast of Vermelles. British infantry, which delivered minor attacks on several occasions in this neighborhood was repulsed by our fire.

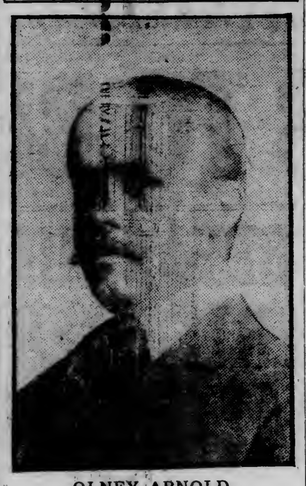
"On the eastern bank of the Meuse the day passed more quietly than previous days. Nevertheless we captured yesterday and the day before, during minor engagements, 14 officers and 934 men.

"Eastern and Balkan fronts—There is nothing to report."

Infanticide Sentenced.

Wahpeton, N. D., March 6.—Robert G. Sinclair, who confessed to having killed the 2-week-old child of which he was the illegitimate father, was sentenced to serve thirty years in the state penitentiary by Judge Frank P. Allen of the district court.

UNITED STATES CONSUL AT CAIRO DIES IN PORTUGAL



OLNEY ARNOLD.

Washington, March 6.—Olney Arnold, American diplomatic agent and consul-general at Cairo, Egypt, died yesterday in a hospital at Lisbon, Portugal. Advices to the state department from the American consul there told of his death but did not state the cause.

Mr. Arnold was granted leave of absence recently and was en route to his home in Providence, R. I. He had been in the government service since September, 1913. Recently his conduct was under investigation on charges of Americans at Cairo, which included unneutral utterances. It was reported then that he was in ill health.

GREAT SHELLS DROP REGULARLY ON VERDUN; NO CIVILIANS ARE THERE

(Continued from page 1.)

mous military requirements of the moment. One can walk through miles of streets with shuttered windows, without seeing a person either in uniform or out of uniform.

The Associated Press correspondent did not see a building in the Rue Mazel that had been hit. The only place open was the Cafe De La Paix and its doors were wide for the gendarmes. The aproned proprietor was the single civilian remaining in the city. In other parts of the city some homes had been struck by shells.

Cathedral Windows Shattered.

Numerous other shells had fallen on the eminence where the cathedral of Notre Dame and the church buildings stand. One gable of the cathedral had been knocked off and the handsome stained glass windows shattered by concussions. Otherwise the cathedral had not been injured. A girl's seminary adjoining it, however, was a mass of ruins.

In one house a life sized statue of Joan of Arc holding the flag of France stood up among a wilderness of stone and woodwork. A child's doll, beheaded, lay nearby.

The Associated Press correspondent with the officers of the general staff went to one of the forts defending Verdun. It was on the heights of the Meuse. On Saturday the whole field of fighting which began thirteen days ago would have been easily visible but in the somber weather with occasional flurries of snow Douaumont, which has been taken and re-taken several times, was barely discernible.

A tremendous cannonade was going on. Many hundreds of guns on both sides were in action, mostly of the heavier calibers. The detonations were not counted. They were great and small and near and remote. Two or three houses were burning in the valley. Occasionally a flash of fire was perceived on the horizon.

An artillery officer in the party in describing the bombardment on the first day of the action said:

Eighty Thousand Shells Fall.

"Eighty thousand shells fell in one sector only 1,000 yards long, and five or six hundred yards deep. These 80,000 shells fell in seven hours and were so disposed that the crater of one cut into the craters of others, pulverizing any resisting substance.

"As a matter of fact many shells did not explode because they struck the soft earth which is saturated by the spring rain.

"There was a ripping sound in the air at this moment, like the tearing of parchment, and something fell about 200 yards away.

"There," continued the officer, "is an example. The shell did not burst."

There was talk among the officers as to the number of shells which had been used. The civilian remarked that he had heard that the Germans had thrown 2,000,000, but this was regarded by the technical observers in the party as a low estimate. The number was thought to be somewhere between four and six million.

Difference in Attack.

"The difference between the French attack in Champagne last September and the German attack here," explained a general staff officer, "is that our adversaries made virtually no reply to our day's preparatory bombardment, while we have replied continuously with ever increasing power, so that now our artillery dominates."

The Germans appear to have planned their attack on the same general lines as that of the French in Champagne, except that within an hour after the bombardment opened at 7 a. m. Feb. 21, an infantry attack in force was made on Haumont, which was taken on the 22nd. The next day the French retired from Brabant. They recaptured it the same evening, but gave up Samognieux, Beaumont and Ornes, and evacuated the marsh of Poivre.

There has been little change since then. Points in the line like Douaumont or a group of cottages have been taken and retaken, the French artillery in the meantime having come up in great force. The ground taken by the Germans was almost the same as that won by the French in January and part of last year. The commander at Verdun thought, as he put it, that the place did not have enough lungs and that it was difficult to break through, and he said he would enlarge the line and did so in a series of local actions lasting three months, taking a piece here and a piece there.

The Germans have now won back this terrain and the lines on both sides. Those in the group went over the regional maps with markings of the positions then and those of this morning. They are almost identical.

In Action Forty-eight Hours.

Some mention was made of the Cauces wood and the artillery officer told of how a battery was in continuous action there for forty-eight hours and how the men cooled the guns by slowly dropping their drinking water on them, enduring intense thirst rather than drink the water. They retired slowly, moving their pieces.

Confidence at headquarters is absolute. The small progress made during the first three days' attack enabled every disposition to be made to meet it and if occasion arises, to counter-attack. Nothing, of course, was known concerning what preparations and dispositions are, except that they are on an enormous scale, and as the commanders seem certain, more than adequate.

The Associated Press correspondent saw many German prisoners. They appeared to be in good physical condition, and occasionally were talkative. They told of an order or proclamation by the crown prince, issued to the troops and read to them by their officers just before the attack began, saying in substance:

About to Pulverize Trenches.

"We are about to pulverize the enemy's trenches with our artillery. They will be so torn up and disorganized that when you rush forward to occupy them you will find that you can do so at the parade march. You will find little or no resistance."

"Eighty thousand German dead is what the living find," said a German officer.

The correspondent has been to the front many times, but has never yet seen such activity behind the lines. The road between Paris and the Verdun region for civilian passengers has been suspended, and it was necessary to come here by automobile. All the roads behind that part of the front are crowded with transports. There are three to four times more of these than at the usual encampments. Near one station were shells piled up like cordwood in regular tiers about four feet high. They were mostly of large caliber and in what to the inexpert eye looked like limitless thousands.

"They are our pets" said a gunner.

There were to be seen detachments of German prisoners and an infinite variety of materials including poles to make roads in soft places.

FRENCH ARE OPTIMISTIC

(Continued from page 1.)

ported by their formidable artillery, which will never henceforth lack ammunition, showed themselves able to resist every onslaught. On the left bank of the Meuse artillery on both sides thundered all day long. The French infantry in that section had little to do, but it remains there ready for any eventuality, although the military experts believe it is extremely doubtful that the Germans will attempt to storm the Mort Homme key position, for to do so they must deploy over a plain a mile wide under cross fire from the heights around.

It is chiefly the French artillery which is involved in the Woerve fighting. The French hold the outskirts of the village of Manheulles firmly and have stopped all attempts of the Germans to debouch in that direction.

Losses Comparatively Light.

An idea of the relatively small percentage of French casualties in the Verdun battle is considered as deducible from a statement made by a lieutenant who has arrived here wounded. "Our losses," he said, "are comparatively slight. My regiment, for instance, had only 47 killed and 35 wounded. This is small for a unit which has been acting as support and which was engaged in the most violent of the fighting."

NEWTON D. BAKER IS TO BE SECRETARY OF WAR

(Continued from page 1.)

Gen. Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff, was designated secretary of war ad interim will expire March 11. It is believed Mr. Baker's nomination will be sent to the senate before that time.

Has Much Experience.

Mr. Baker has had much experience in public life. He is 44 years old, having been born at Martinsburg, W. Va., Dec. 3, 1871, the son of Dr. Newton D. Baker and Mary Baker. After completing a common school education he graduated from Johns Hopkins university, with the degree of bachelor of arts, in 1892, and two years later received the degree of bachelor of laws at Washington and Lee university.

Immediately after graduating from the college of law he was admitted to the bar of West Virginia, and practiced law for two years, at the end of which time he was appointed private secretary to Postmaster General William L. Wilson. Here he remained for two years, and followed the expiration of his services at Washington with two more years of practicing law in his native state.

At the end of that time he left West Virginia for Ohio, and settled in Cleveland, where he opened a law office. In 1902 he was appointed first assistant director of law of the city, and a year later was made director of law in full. While serving in this capacity he was elected city solicitor and held his office for ten years. In 1912 he became a candidate for mayor of the city and was elected on the Democratic ticket, and in 1914 he was re-elected.

Mr. Baker in 1903 married Miss Elizabeth Wells Leopold of Pottstown, Pa. He is a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity and also of the legal fraternity of Phi Delta Phi.

Mr. Baker has received degrees from Johns Hopkins and Washington and Lee universities. For years he has been closely identified with the reform movement in Cleveland. When Mayor Tom Johnson died Mr. Baker took up the fight for lower street car fares in Cleveland and finally brought about an adjustment of the street railway franchises.

At the Baltimore convention when President Wilson was nominated, Mr. Baker was prominently mentioned for the vice presidency. He went to the convention as a Wilson supporter and fought successfully against the application of the unit rule to the Ohio delegation.

Mr. Baker has been known for years as a leader of the Ohio bar, and is highly regarded by the president as a lawyer. Mr. Wilson wanted the place filled by a lawyer because of legal questions constantly arising in the administration of the war department, the Philippines, the Panama canal and Porto Rico.

CHICKEN THEFTS STOPPED BY POLICE

"Flowers of Sulphur" Used By Raiders; Two Are Arrested.

By the arrest of William La Fex, 26, and Donald A. McCormack, 31, police believe they have stopped chicken thefts in the East end and Hillside districts recently, resulting in the loss of 118 chickens and one turkey.

"Flowers of sulphur" was used by the thieves to drug the poultry just before the raid on the various coops, police believe, and they have found a druggist who identified La Fex as the man who purchased a box of the powder from him on Feb. 19. La Fex is a stranger in Duluth and has no relatives here.

On his way home from work Sunday morning Lieut. E. H. Barber stopped two men who were walking along First street between First and Second avenues east, and carrying a bag between them. One man, La Fex, halted, but the other ran, dropping his end of the bag.

The detective found eight chickens, their bodies still warm, in the bag. They later were identified as the property of Mrs. Anna Hinsman, 616 East Eighth street.

An investigation disclosed the fact that C. Phillips of 1915 East Seventh street found a box which had contained "flowers of sulphur" in his hen coop on the morning of Feb. 20, the day after La Fex is said to have purchased the powder. Seven chickens were missing.

Other victims who have reported to police are: Martin Dillon, 528 Fourteenth avenue east, thirty chickens; Mrs. Risten, 604 East Eleventh street, fifteen hens; Mrs. Bateman, Poor Farm road, twenty-one chickens; J. Hestroms, 1129 East Seventh street, twenty hens; R. D. Carey, 908 East Boulevard, eleven chickens and one turkey; and Paul Derby, 522 East Eleventh street, six chickens.

Detective John Roberg arrested McCormack several hours after his partner had arrested La Fex. Both men have confessed, police say.

At first charges of burglary were made against both men, but later, in municipal court this morning, Judge F. H. Cutting accepted pleas of guilty to petit larceny in both cases. They were arraigned on a complaint sworn to by Mrs. Hinsman. The court sentenced McCormack to three months in jail, and La Fex to three months at the work farm, the maximum for a charge of that kind.

McCormack said he was a Superior Wis., resident. Police say he has served time at Waupun, Wis., and that he was wanted for escaping from the St. Louis county work farm, as well as for the thefts charged today.

THOUSANDS FORCED TO WALK IN WASHINGTON

Car Service at Capital Demoralized By Strike of Employes.

Washington, March 6.—The street car strike called early Sunday morning was still in progress today. With emergency crews made up of clerks, inspectors and other employes, the two companies were able to furnish about 25 per cent of normal service. Thousands, however, were forced to walk, while other thousands utilized every conveyance obtainable. Confidence was expressed that some sort of agreement would be reached during the day.

The men demand a minimum wage of 30 cents an hour with ten hours work within twelve consecutive hours.

IRONWOOD FUNERAL.

Last Rites Are Held for Late Mrs. Elizabeth Hocking.

Ironwood, Mich., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Rev. Alfred E. Healey, pastor of the First M. E. church, today conducted at the church the funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Hocking, aged 76, a pioneer resident, who died Friday at the home of her daughter, W. O. Trezise. She was born in Cornwall, England, July 28, 1840, and was married to Benjamin Hocking of Cornwall, Eng., on Oct. 8, 1868. Seven children were born to them, only two of whom survive, Mrs. W. O. Trezise and Mrs. Joseph Blackwell, both of this city, also eight grandchildren. The family came to this country in 1882, living eight years in Pennsylvania, and the remainder of the years in Ironwood, Mich. Mrs. Hocking has been a widow for eighteen years; and on account of infirmity of body has been compelled to keep quite close at home.

Frontier Man Buried.

Baudette, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The funeral of Alvin Trulson of Frontier was held here on Saturday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Aanestad officiating. Mr. Trulson died at his home on Thursday of tuberculosis. He is survived by a young widow and three brothers. He was 24 years old.

J. M. Gidding & Co.
Reproductions of our Latest Importations just received from Paris are shown at our Duluth establishment simultaneously with their presentation by our shop at 5th Ave. & 46th St. New York
Gowns Wraps Blouses Suits and Millinery

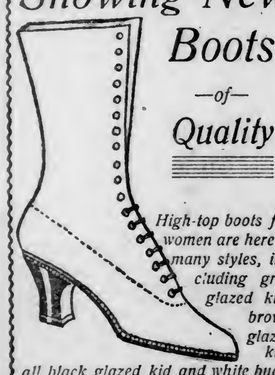
HEAVY SHOES!

Kinds that will buck the storm and slush and come out winners.
MEN'S high cut or regular with heavy oiled soles—
$4 to $7
Boys', $2.50 to $5.00.
Rubbers and rubber boots for everybody.
Wieland Shoe Company
222 WEST FIRST ST.

Will Continue Our Overcoat Sale for One More Week
Your Choice of Any Hart Schaffner & Marx
Overcoat in Our Store
$14.75
New spring merchandise arriving daily.
Kenney-Anker Company
409 and 411 West Superior Street.

WEATHER—Snow flurries this afternoon and tonight; cloudy.

EVERY EXPRESS BRINGS...
SHIPMENTS OF THE NEW SPRING STYLES OF—
STROUSE & BROS. HIGH-ART
SUITS AND TOP-COATS
Get yours while sizes and styles are complete.
Oak Hall Clothing Co.
Oak Hall Building.

Showing New Boots —of— Quality


High-top boots for women are here in many styles, including grey glazed kid, brown glazed kid, all black glazed kid and white buck.
Prices $4 and $5
Visit Our Enlarged Children's Dept.
Sorensen Shoe Stores
$2.50 $3.00 $3.50 $4.00
MAIL ORDERS — SEND FOR STYLE BOOK
ST. PAUL—MINNEAPOLIS—DULUTH.
123-West Superior Street

West End Undertaking Company
2118 WEST FIRST STREET.
Nyberg & Crawford, Managers.

DIZZINESS, CONSTIPATION
bad taste in the mouth, despondency or "the blues," and other miserable ailments call attention to the liver. It is torpid. Take Hood's Pills—they rouse the liver and relieve all liver ills. They are the old and favorite family cathartic. Purely vegetable. Gentle and thorough. 25c. All druggists.

Take Iron, Says Doctor, if You Want Plenty of "Stay There" Strength Like An Athlete!

Ordinary Nuxated Iron Will Make Delicate, Nervous, Rundown People 200% Stronger in Two Weeks' Time, in Many Cases.

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Most people foolishly seem to think they are going to get renewed health and strength from some stimulating medicine, secret nostrum or narcotic drug, said Dr. Sauer, a specialist of this city, when, as a matter of fact, real and true strength can only come from the food you eat. But people often fail to get the strength out of their food because they haven't enough iron in their blood to enable it to change food into living matter. From their weakened, nervous condition they know something is wrong, but they can't tell what, so they generally commence doctoring for stomach, liver or kidney trouble or symptoms of some other ailment caused by the lack of iron in the blood. This thing may go on for years, while the patient suffers untold agony. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test. See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, rundown people who were ailing all the while, double their strength and endurance and entirely get rid of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days' time simply by taking iron in the proper form. And this after they had in some cases been doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old forms of reduced iron, iron acetate or tincture of iron simply to save a few cents. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like nuxated iron if you want it to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless. Many an athlete or prizefighter has won the day simply because he knew the secret of great strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron before he went into the affray, while many another has gone down to inglorious defeat simply for the lack of iron.

NOTE—Nuxated Iron recommended above by Dr. Sauer, is one of the newer organic iron compounds. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach; on the contrary, it is a most potent remedy, in nearly all forms of indigestion, as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. It is dispensed in this city by Boyce Drug Store and all other druggists.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

Build around ideal heating!

A frequent sign of the times is to see the radiators and boiler delivered on the lot before the cellar is dug. Every one knows at a glance that a desirable, comfortable building is going up. It is the sign guaranteeing to the neighborhood and home-seekers, that the building is to be modern, instead of starting as old-fashioned. It notifies all that the new building is to have the biggest convenience and economy found in any building—the genuine coal saving, guaranteed, permanent heating outfit of "Select radiator heating first and build around it. Makes the house a HOME!"

AMERICAN RADIATORS & IDEAL BOILERS

With greater output (sales in 1915 were the largest in our history), we are able to put the price within reach of all. No one in the world offers equal value in heating devices!

This ideal heating outfit is the only building equipment that stays worth all you pay for it, and in fifty years of use repeatedly repays its original cost through fuel savings. Can you possibly invest money better or more safely than this?

IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators supply the heat that costs the least because they make every pound of fuel yield the full volume of heat. They silently and steadily meet the sudden weather changes, warming all rooms, bays and halls genially alike. They protect the family health with cleanly warmth—no ash-dust, soot, or coal gases reach the living rooms—which saves much wear on furnishings and decorations.

They are absolutely safe They have every improvement—designed by many experts in our factories in America and abroad. They bring quicker buyer or tenant for your building, or secure a larger loan. You always get back the full price paid for them. They cost less or no more than ordinary types, yet are fully guaranteed.

A No. 4121 IDEAL Boiler and 420 sq. ft. of 38-in. AMERICAN Radiators, costing the owner $190 were used to heat this cottage. At this price the goods can be bought of any reputable, competent Fitter. This did not include costs of labor, pipe, valves, freight, etc., which vary according to climatic and other conditions.

Get the heat that costs the least!

Made in sizes for flats, stores, schools, churches, public buildings, farm and city homes, old and new. Don't wait until you build—old heaters need not be disturbed until ready to put fire in the new outfit of IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators. Start right away to benefit from the heat that costs the least—the heating which guarantees comfort and economy to the end of your days.

Write us for "Ideal Heating" catalog (free). Puts you under no obligation. Now is the time to buy.

IDEAL Boilers have large fuel pots in which the air and coal gases thoroughly mix as in a modern gas or oil mantle or burner, thus extracting every bit of the heat from the fuel. Easier to run than a stove.

Another great labor saver—stationary Vacuum Cleaner, at $150

You can wonderfully reduce house-labor and highly increase home health and cleanliness by use of ARCO WAND Vacuum Cleaner—sits in basement or side room; works through an iron pipe running to all floors; carries all dirt, dust, insects, and their eggs, etc., to sealed bucket in machine; cleans carpets, furnishings, walls, ceilings, clothing. Ask also for catalog (free). Inquiry puts you under no obligation to buy.

No exclusive agents.

Sold by all dealers.

AMERICAN RADIATOR COMPANY

Write Department D-12
815-822 S. Michigan Ave.
Chicago

Public Showrooms at Chicago, New York, Boston, Worcester, Providence, Philadelphia, Washington, Baltimore, Rochester, Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Detroit, Atlanta, Birmingham, New Orleans, Indianapolis, Milwaukee, Des Moines, Omaha, Minneapolis, St. Paul, St. Louis, Kansas City, Denver, Seattle, Portland, Spokane, Toronto, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Brantford (Ont.), London, Paris, Brussels, Berlin, Cologne, Milan, Vienna

Ideal Arco Boilers, American Radiators and Crane Plumbing Fixtures can be seen at our showroom, 8 and 10 East Michigan Street

CRANE & ORDWAY CO., DULUTH

FREE LEGAL AID BUREAU HELPS 392 IN FEBRUARY

LODGING HOUSE DOES GOOD BUSINESS

During February 392 cases were handled by the city free legal aid bureau, 625 meals were served at the municipal lodging house, while nearly $1,000 was collected and distributed by the welfare department, according to the monthly report of Manager Frank Hicks, submitted this morning to Mayor Prince.

Out of the 392 cases in the legal bureau, thirty-seven were claims for wages and eight for compensation under the state law, all of which were settled by Mr. Hicks. A total of $866.83 was collected for the claimants.

Twelve persons were placed on probation by the court during February, while three probations were released during the month, according to the report. A total of $146.50 was collected and paid out to the court and to wives of probationers.

The lodging house report follows: Twenty persons cared for during month, 625 meals served, 173 lodgings donated, 189 persons given aid and three children under 3 years of age given attention by the matron.

CASE OF WILL ORPET BEFORE GRAND JURY

Waukegan, Ill., March 6.—Presentation of evidence to the Lake county grand jury against Will H. Orpet, the University of Wisconsin student charged with the murder of Marion Lambert, 18 years old, at Lake Forest, Ill., was begun today. Fifteen witnesses were subpenaed.

Frank Lambert, father of the victim, was the first witness called.

Josephine Davis, school girl chum of Marion Lambert, and Verne Jackson, another intimate friend, related incidents in the girl's life leading up to the murder.

Chief of Police Walter McGuire of Lake Forest and newspaper reporters also testified.

Pickpockets Sentenced.

Chicago, March 6.—The four former pickpockets convicted Saturday of the robbery of the Washington Park National bank were today sentenced to indeterminate terms of from one year to life in the Joliet penitentiary. The sentence affects Alex Brodie, Harry Fein and Charles and Harry Kramer.

Many Kinds of Rheumatism

One Sure Mode of Treatment Through the Blood

Whether your trouble is Sciatica, Lumbago or the dreaded Articular Rheumatism, the answer is the same. You must treat it through the blood. That is the only way to rid the system of uric acid, purify the blood and revitalize the nerves. If the blood is freed from impurities, Rheumatism must go. This, in short, is the exact knowledge gained by the research laboratories of the S. S. S. Company in Atlanta. These tests have been made for fifty years. They know what Rheumatism is. They know that S. S. S., the remarkable blood tonic, which they originated, will relieve you of Rheumatism. Take S. S. S. today. The complete recovery of thousands of sufferers by the use of S. S. S. is positive proof that you can be relieved. S. S. S. is a blood tonic—a purifier that restores the blood, revitalizes it, cleanses it, makes it pure as it was before it became poisoned with impurities. S. S. S. gives it strength to drive out these impurities—the uric acid and organic poison, and with it the Rheumatism. Get S. S. S. at your druggist's. If you need special advice, write to Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

RENEW FIGHT WITH SNOW

South Shore Road Already Running Through Tunnel of Beautiful.

Present Storm Threatens to Fill All the Old Cuts.

John Kelting of Calumet arrived in Duluth today on a train that was delayed three hours because of the blizzard and also because the South Shore railroad trains run through a tunnel of snow most of the distance between Duluth and the Copper country.

The trains arriving from the Twin Cities and Chicago were marked on time today, but the Copper country train was late, because that country this year has had more snow, the residents declare, than any other section of the United States.

"Many of our houses in Calumet and also over in Hancock and Houghton, have picket fences in front of their yards," began Mr. Keating. "Well the snow has buried those fences and most everything else. We walk on top of the snow; it's no use in trying to keep the sidewalks cleared. We just keep the snow packed down and walk right on top. The snow banks we are using for sidewalks on many of the streets of the town, are clear above the tops of the picket fences.

"I have read the story of Noah and his flat boat, and how it rained for forty days and forty nights. Up in the Copper country, starting in January, it snowed for forty days. I'm not so sure regarding the nights, but to date, up to the time it started this wholly unexpected effusion, we have had 132 inches of snow up there, and from the looks of the weather conditions, we are going to have a lot more."

Duluthians who have been in the Copper country, following the heavy and almost continuous snowfall that started in January, declare they never saw so much snow in their lives, as the accumulation of the beautiful stuff that is piled over the Copper country landscape.

A. E. Hathaway, passenger agent of the Great Northern here, recently returned from Calumet and other Copper country towns, and declared today that when he was there the snow was considerably above the fences.

Officials of the South Shore declared today that if the present blizzard continues, it will perhaps cause a serious blockade of train service. During the present winter the South Shore officials have had a real battle against drifting snow. The present wind storm and heavy snowfall are likely to fill the long cuts that have been formed by digging through the snow drifts.

TRADE COUPONS MAY BE TAXED

Supreme Court Holds They Are Within Scope of Trade Laws.

Washington, March 6.—By holding that the states have the power to impose taxes, large or small, on trade coupons redeemable in premiums, the supreme court today put the legality of premium advertising, by which it is estimated $125,000,000 worth of merchandise is sold annually, within the scope of state laws.

BRITISH STEAMER MASUNDA SUNK

London, March 6.—The British steamship Masunda has been sunk. All the members of her crew were saved.

The Masunda sailed from Bangkok, Siam, Jan. 28 for England, arrived at Colombo, Ceylon, Feb. 7. She was of 4,952 tons gross and built at Glasgow.

Appeal Dismissed.

Winnipeg, Man., March 6.—The appeal of Thomas Kelly & Sons in the civil suit brought against them by the province of Manitoba in connection with the parliament building fraud cases, for an order for "a fuller and better production of documents," was dismissed by the court of appeal today.

H. C. OF L. AT COUNTY JAIL

Sheriff Asks for Increased Allowance for Feeding Prisoners.

Can No Longer Board His Guests for 33 Cents Daily.

The H. C. of L. has invaded the county jail.

Rapid advances in costs of provisions and foodstuffs of all kinds have made it necessary for Sheriff Meining to ask for more money for feeding his compulsory guests.

There was a time when it could be done for 33 cents per day, but the sheriff declares that that time has passed. In a letter to the county board at its session Saturday afternoon he requested that the county allow him 42 cents for county prisoners. The increase would be from $2.31 to $2.94 per week.

The government allows 47 cents a day for Federal prisoners at the county jail, and in Ramsey county, Sheriff Meining says, $4 a week is allowed the sheriff for boarding the prisoners.

The matter was referred to the county board's jail committee. Action on the request will probably be taken at the April meeting.

Appropriations aggregating $95,770 were made from the county special road fund for use on roads in the following districts:

First	$ 1,000.00
Second	2,097.21
Fourth	$2,500.00
Fifth	5,573.00
Seventh	54,600.00

Contracts were awarded for the construction of about twelve miles of road, the cost totaling $11,525, as follows:

H. E. Little, contract for two and three-fourths miles of the Yoki road at $3 per rod, and 75 cents per rod for outlet ditches, whole cost about $3,000.

Peter Haiskanen, two miles of the Wood road at $3.47 per rod, costing in all about $2,600.

John Metro, three miles of the Heino road, at $2.85 per rod; culverts, $4.50 each; outlet ditches, 7 cents per lineal foot; approximate cost $3,400.

Matti Hannula, one and one-half miles Laine-Anderson road connection, at $1.85 per rod, to cost about $1,250.

L. W. Simmons, two miles Laine road at gross sum of about $1,275.

The board rejected all bids for the construction of a bridge over the Flood river on the Parantila road. The Minneapolis Bridge company submitted the lowest figure. It was $1,847.

* * *

The county commissioners received a petition from several residents of Lake county, asking that about one mile of the Bassett extension road be completed so as to bring the highway to the county line to connect with a road from Lake county.

DAMAGE SUIT ON BEFORE A JURY

Louis Goldberg Asking Damages From Street Railway Company.

When Louis M. Goldberg attempted to board a street car at Third avenue west and Superior street on Nov. 27, 1914, the motorman started the trolley in operation before Mr. Goldberg passed through the gates, with the result that he was caught in them and dragged for several feet.

This, at least, was Mr. Goldberg's claim to a jury which was drawn this morning in Judge Cant's division of the district court, where he is suing the Duluth Street Railway company for $3,055 damages for personal injuries.

The company, in its answer, charges contributory negligence and denies its liability. B. M. Goldberg appears as attorney for the plaintiff and Thomas S. Wood is defending the case for the street railway company.

SALE OR LOAN.

Jury Must Decide Status in Transfer of Copper Stocks.

Four thousand shares of the Summit Copper company stock passed from H. L. Palmer to Mrs. N. E. Lugoff on Oct. 30, 1912, but whether the transfer was as security for a loan or was a sale is for a jury, which was impaneled in Judge Dancer's division of the district court today, to decide.

Mrs. Lugoff is suing to recover $300, which she claims she advanced as a loan, and asks that the defendant, Palmer, take back his stock. On the other hand Palmer asserts that the transaction was a straight sale and that it was understood as such at the time it was made.

PAY COMING DAY EARLIER.

City Payrolls Will Be Revised to Suit Employes.

City employes will receive their pay one day earlier in the future.

Arrangements have been made by Commissioner Voss, finance head, with the department heads, to file their payrolls one day earlier, so that the laborers can receive their wages as near the first and fifteenth of each month as possible. The paydays will be on the seventh and twenty-second, instead of the eighth and twenty-third, as at present.

Payrolls must be submitted to the civil service commission for certification on the first and sixteenth of each month, according to the new ruling.

Beat High Prices Next Fall.

Buy winter suits and overcoats now at half price at the Big Duluth.

CASUALTY COMPANIES DOING GOOD BUSINESS

St. Paul, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Casualty companies doing business in Minnesota in 1915 collected premiums on workmen's compensation insurance amounting to $1,146,764.46 and paid losses totaling $518,163.05. The workman's compensation act went into effect Oct. 1, 1913. Since the law became efective the companies have collected premiums amounting to near $3,000,000 and paid losses of $1,018,212.14.

FIND DIFFICULTY IN TRANSFERRING BONDS

St. Paul, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Because of difficulties in transferring the Delaware and Alabama bonds now owned by the state, their purchase by the Capital National Trust company of St. Paul will likely be eliminated from the bid of that concern, which was accepted by the state board of investments several days ago. In lieu of these bonds, which total $250,000, the trust company will take the amount in Virginia bonds, which are negotiable. If permitted, the trust company will buy $2,226,000 worth of the Virginia securities.

FILTRATION IS NEXT PROBLEM

Mayor Believes Duluth Must Consider Water Purity Soon.

Duluth's next important municipal problem will be the filtration of its water suppply according to Mayor Prince.

"Almost every city on the Great Lakes," he said this morning, "is taking steps to purify its water supply and it will not be long before Duluth will have to give the matter careful consideration.

"At the present time our entire sewage flows into the lake, directly or indirectly, and the water supply for drinking and commercial purposes is not purified to any great extent, with the exception of a lime treatment given the water at the Lakewood pumping station. The time is coming, and is not far distant, when the question of our sewage disposal and water filtration will be dominant."

Mayor Prince has just received word that Cleveland is erecting a $1,000,000 filtration plant that will purify the city's entire water supply. It will be in operation by next fall, according to a communication received from Thomas Laurel, director of public utilities in Cleveland.

Methods of Filtration.

There are two methods of purifying water, one being the treatment of the sewage before it goes into the lake, while the other is the filtration of the water supply before its final distribution. The latter is believed by many to be the better, although the former plan, recently established at Proctor, is reported very successful.

"Our water supply is splendid at present," said Mayor Prince, "but with the growth of the city there is every reason to believe that the purification of the water will become an absolute necessity and one of the big municipal problems of the city."

Francis Nominated.

Washington, March 6.—David R. Francis, former governor of Missouri, was nominated today by President Wilson to be ambassador to Russia, succeeding George T. Marye, who resigned.

Form Anti-Tuberculosis Society.

Iron River, Mich., March 6.—An anti-tuberculosis society was organized at the home of Mrs. G. L. Woodworth with the following officers: President, Mrs. G. L. Woodworth; secretary, Mrs. Helen Liefert; treasurer, Mrs. Clarence Jaedecke.

Silberstein & Bondy Company.

The Baby Shop--Baby Week

Today, March 6th, is the first day of Baby Week throughout the United States and should be of great interest to mothers as to proper dress and wearing apparel for their infants. No mother should miss this opportunity of getting ideas for the good of her child.

During this entire week as a special inducement to mothers who visit our Infant Department, we are going to give 10% discount on every purchase.

WE ARE SHOWING INFANTS' CLOTHES
Attractive hand-made frocks, hand smocked and embroidered dresses. Prices, $1.75 to $18.50.

BABY SHIRTS
Vanta and Ruben styles, made in wool, cotton and wool, silk and wool and all silk.

INFANTS' HOSIERY
Cashmere and silk and wool hose; nonshrinkable English hose.

MACHINE MADE DRESSES
Made of fine nainsook lace and embroidered trim. 50c to $8.50.

SHOES AND BOOTEES
Fine Kid Shoes with the nature shape soles, 50c to $1.50.
Hand Crochet Bootees, 35c to $1.75.

Imported Wicker Basinettes and Baskets, Wardrobe Trunks, Sewing Baskets and Nursery Furniture.

Infants' Fancy Cashmere and Crepella Coats. Also Capes and Baby Buntings.

Infants' and Children's All-wool Sweaters, Caps, Leggins and Mittens.

Baby Bunting Knit Clothes—everything from pinning band to night drawers.

Infants' and Children's Bonnets, daintily trimmed and embroidered, at popular prices.

NOVELTIES
Baby Brush and Comb Sets, Rattles, Hot Water Bottles and Teething Rings.

We carry a complete line of Children's Apparel from infancy to 6-year sizes.

$1.00

May Be Earned For the Correct Answer to the Following Questions:

Who is the optician and optometrist that examines eyes without drugs?

What does he recommend when the eyes are found defective?

Where on Superior street can you find this optometrist?

For the correct answers to the above questions we will give $1 on any pair of glasses purchased. Bring in your answers now or at any time in the future.

"WHERE VALUES REIGN SUPREME"

STACK & CO.

21 and 23 WEST SUPERIOR STREET.

Children's Underwear

Boys' and Girls' Fleeced Vests and Pants, full bleached; all sizes, at only	25c
Girls' Fleeced Union Suits, drop seat; all sizes up to 14, at only	50c
Children's Sleeping Garments, made of good quality flannel; cut extra full; all sizes, at	50c
Children's Black Sateen Blouses; sizes 2 to 14 years; a splendid quality, at only	25c
Boys' Flat Fleeced Union Suits, sizes 2 to 12 years, on sale at only	50c

We carry a full line of Infants' Wear, including Ruebens, the Minneapolis Knitting Co., and "Vanta" Vests.

PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARIES NEAR AT HAND---LARSON BEING BOOMED

H. D. Estabrook, Candidate for President, Here All Day Tuesday.

Kellogg's Entrance in Senatorial Fight Subject of Much Comment.

Duluth will entertain tomorrow a candidate for the presidency—probably the only one this year. This candidate is Henry D. Estabrook of New York. He is a candidate for the Republican nomination, and in the two weeks prior to the primaries is trying to carry Minnesota by storm.

There is no telling what his chances are—not great, apparently. Only those who are listed as delegates for him are talking confidently for him, and the general acceptance throughout the state is that the Cummins ticket will win. Still, Edgar L. Noyes, state manager for Mr. Estabrook, says the Cummins people are taking too much for granted. The Hastings Gazette may be partly right when it says:

> The only object in voting for Estabrook as a Republican candidate for president is to protest against the attempt to force Roosevelt delegates to Chicago under the Cummins heading. We can't vote for the man we want under the fraudulent primary election law, but we can kick against the Roosevelt men who lobbied the farce through the legislature.

Charms His Hearers.

That Mr. Estabrook has charmed his hearers wherever he has spoken in the state is acknowledged. He is a most impressive speaker. That he charmed Charley Cheney, political editor of the Minneapolis Journal, but did not convince, is evident by the following, which appeared in Mr. Cheney's column after Mr. Estabrook's appearance in Minneapolis last week:

> The mystery of Henry D. Estabrook grows. He came yesterday out of the East and unknown, and electrified 400 Minneapolis men last night with his wit, poetry and philosophy, welded into eloquence by some of the old-time oratorical fire. He took rank at once as one of the most effective after-dinner speakers Minneapolis has ever heard—in the class of "Bob" Ingersoll.
>
> But Mr. Estabrook is here not as an after-dinner orator, but as a candidate for president. Estabrook, the man, has won approval, but what of Estabrook, the candidate? The universal question now is: What is back of the Estabrook candidacy? He is a New York man, but New York does not list him among her presidential possibilities. His name is seldom mentioned in Eastern papers in that connection. Yet there is unmistakably strong influence being exerted on men of Western cities in his interest.
>
> Mr. Estabrook is soliciting the support of Western states as a Western man, yet he is little known in the West outside of Nebraska, which he left twenty years ago, and Chicago, where he spent a few years. Illinois is for Sherman, and Nebraska is not reported as on fire for Estabrook, but leaning to Cummins. The Estabrook boomers so far are claiming no state, yet they confidently predict that their man will be the nominee of the Chicago convention. He has spent the last six months almost continuously touring the country, making speeches and showing himself as a presidential candidate. Minnesota is his critical state, one of three which have been organized for him, and the first one to hold its primary. Yet he comes into Minnesota for the first time just two weeks before the primary, and undertakes to sweep its twenty-four delegates into his basket with a ten-day speaking campaign.
>
> If Minnesota had more than a "speaking acquaintance" with Estabrook, he might become quite a presidential favorite here. As it is, the disposition is to admire Estabrook as a man, applaud him as a brilliant orator, but look on his presidential prospects as decidedly slim.

Effective Publicity.

The Estabrook men, and whoever is behind them, have not been idle. Most effective publicity has been given their candidate. Papers all over the state—even out-and-out Cummins papers—have given space to columns of "boiler-plate" sent out by the Estabrook managers; and in his speaking tour through the state, the candidate himself has impressed his hearers. Whether he convinces or not, the primaries will show.

Mr. Estabrook will arrive here tomorrow morning and will remain here all day. He will be entertained at lunch at the Commercial club, with some of the judges and other leading men; and in the evening he will speak on the tariff in the large dining room of the Spalding. J. L. Washburn of Duluth will introduce him.

* * *

Editor Sam Y. Gordon of the Browns Valley Tribune is unreservedly—in fact, one might say, unrestrainedly—for Cummins. The idea which has been spreading that Roosevelt will be the ultimate choice of the Cummins delegation, should they be chosen for the Chicago convention, does not go very well with the former lieutenant governor, and it would seem that he wrote the following with more or less of a gloat of glee:

> During the past fortnight the scenes have been shifting considerably on the Republican presidential landscape. It is now considered by even the most pronounced standpatter that Mr. Root is out of the running. Later while things seemed to be shaping for the East to come out to Chicago solidly next June and demand the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt, the capturing of New York by Mr. Barnes, a strong enemy of Roosevelt, seems to have at least temporarily given a setback to the former president's boom. In fact, with Barnes in the saddle in New York, it is safe to predict that he will throw the support of that big state to any other candidate than Roosevelt, and it will not be surprising should the Barnes crowd go to some Progressive candidate in order to prevent Roosevelt's nomination. The only Progressive who will be able to make a formidable showing in the convention will be Senator Cummins of Iowa, and from the standpoint of logic in the situation Mr. Cummins has come to be recognized as one of the leading candidates now seeking the Republican nomination.
>
> A great number of delegates in the convention are going to look the ground over carefully and endeavor to nominate a candidate that can win in the election, and they are going to see in Mr. Cummins such a man.
>
> The battleground in the presidential election is going to be in the Middle West, and with a Middle West man as a candidate, the Republicans would have a decided advantage. The Iowa senator is a man who has come up from the rank and file and he knows the country and the people. He has been a sanely Progressive since the early days of Progressivism. He has been a friend to labor, and in all his public career he has guarded the interests of the farmer of the country.
>
> That Senator Cummins has come to be recognized as a formidable candidate, it is only necessary to call attention to the fact that many of the Standpat daily newspapers have begun to speak in more friendly terms of him. The Minneapolis Tribune gave the Iowa senator a splendid write-up a few days ago, while a month ago it treated his candidacy very slim indeed.
>
> The Middle West never had such a golden opportunity to name a president from its ranks, and every Middle West Republican should get behind the candidacy of Senator Cummins.

* * *

Granville S. Pease, editor of the Anoka Union, a Republican paper of the old-fashioned type, does not differ much from Mr. Gordon, save that he does not say much about Senator Cummins. In a recent issue, Mr. Pease quoth thusly:

> A Republican president can be elected this year, but not Theodore Roosevelt. It looks as though it might be the four-flusher, which would be a calamity.

* * *

Mr. Gordon, in choosing the candidates for delegates at large on the Cummins ticket, whom he would support, picked correctly except in one instance. He picked O. J. Larson of Duluth, J. F. Jacobson of Madison, Former Governor S. R. Van Sant of Minneapolis and James Manahan of St. Paul. All of whom but the last named, it is understood, are desired by the Progressive Republican element in Minnesota. F. C. Stevens of St. Paul, former congressman, is the substitute for Mr. Manahan.

Mr. Larson is being especially urged, chiefly because of his unmistakable Progressiveness, and, secondly, because of his very high standing in the state. As an example of what is being done, the following letter by Farley A. Dare, editor of the Walker Pilot, is reproduced. Mr. Dare is sending it out to brother editors, whom he knows well, and appending a notice, along the lines of which he suggests that the editor print a notice. The letter says:

"In the interests of fairness to the northern part of the state, I am writing to ask you to do what you can to assist the friends of O. J. Larson of Duluth in their campaign to elect him as one of the Cummins delegates at large to the Republican national convention.

"Mr. Larson, I will personally guarantee, is a genuine Cummins man, he is the only candidate for the place from Duluth or from the Eighth congressional district; as there are four delegates at large to be elected it seems to me that he is entitled to the support of all who are inclined to consider the situation from our standpoint, which I submit is a fair one."

Mr. Larson and Governor Van Sant are being made the beneficiaries of work of this kind all over the state.

* * *

The entrance of Frank B. Kellogg of St. Paul to the race for United States senator, is bringing out a good deal of comment, for and against him. As yet nothing very unkind has been said either way, but some Republicans express the fear that before the campaign is through there will be personalities exchanged and public records aired between the supporters of Senator Clapp and Mr. Kellogg, and that the campaign will take on the appearance of a "dirty" affair.

"Then," said one leading politician, who was in Duluth a few days ago, "it would be just like Eberhart to say, 'I know nothing about their records, gentlemen, care less, and stand on my own'; and very likely slip in between the two."

Mr. Kellogg returned to St. Paul from California a few days ago to close up some business affairs before the campaign opens. He said that he would return to California for his family in a short time, and would not begin his campaign for the senatorship until his friends thought it advisable.

Following is some of the editorial comment on the senatorial situation since Mr. Kellogg entered the race:

> New York Times: Is Frank B. Kellogg of Minnesota, who had his hour of glory as a "trustbuster," about to undertake the "busting" of that robustious friend of "the people" and inexorable judge of judges, Moses Edwin Clapp? So dispatches from the Gopher state shamelessly relate; and the clarion Clapp is said to be worrying about his "fences." His term in the senate ends on March 4, 1917. It would be a holiday for the accoustics of the senate chamber if that unsparing voice should reverberate in it more.
>
> Mr. Clapp has lately added two more achievements to a "record" to which even Mr. La Follette must accord a sympathetic approval. Mr. Clapp would have the United States sneak out of the Philippines, which it holds in trust for the Filipinos. He would prevent the United States from preparing itself for national self-defense, and against the contingencies of the future. He would leave his country naked to its enemies; the Filipinos to cut one another's throats until a master power stepped in to take possession.
>
> We don't know anything about Mr. Kellogg's policies; nor is "trust busting" a special recommendation of character, but it would be interesting to find out if the Republicans and Progressives of Minnesota have any further use for an opponent of preparedness and a friend of "scuttling," like Moses Edwin Clapp.

Mankato Review: The statement is being made that Frank Kellogg has decided to enter the senatorial race at the request of "the editors of the state." It is proper to note that the petition calling for Mr. Kellogg's candidacy was signed by seventy-two editors out of about 300 attending the meeting of the Minnesota Editorial association. There are in the state 763 newspapers and periodicals as shown by the latest newspaper directory in this office, so that nearly 700 of the molders of public opinion (more than nine-tenths of them), are not included in the bunch that has arrogated to itself the designation of "the editors of the state." When Candidate Kellogg finds that several hundred newspapers of Minnesota are not supporting his candidacy he will jump to the conclusion that "the editors" are a treacherous lot or will he tumble to the fact that he has been deceived by those who circulated the petition and who induced him to enter the race with the impression that the editors were all for him?

Warren Sheaf: A small coterie of editors at the recent meeting of the Minnesota Editorial association has placed the association in a false light by trying to create the impression that the association indorsed Frank B. Kellogg for United States senator against Moses E. Clapp. Nothing of the kind was done. Politics is entirely taboo at the meetings of the editors. The editors, who as individuals are alleged to have signed the Kellogg petition, are not one-sixth of the association's membership. Mr. Kellogg may be an able man and all that, but his corporation connections in the past have not been instrumental in placing him in close touch with the common people. Mr. Clapp, on the other hand, enjoys the confidence of the people of the state to a marked degree. Another rather underhanded scheme that was worked by the Twin City papers was to make it appear that the associat'on knocked the primary law. Nothing of the kind was even dreamed of. It is a poor cause that needs to resort to misrepresentation in order to win. The primary law is not perfect by any means, but its aim, nevertheless, is to give the people a chance to rule. It does not always succeed, and one reason is because the people as a whole take so little interest in political matters.

Detroit Record: From present appearances there will be three candidates, namely: Moses E. Clapp, A. O. Eberhart and Frank B. Kellogg. This should make it easy sailing for M. E. Clapp.

Anoka Herald: Why all this editorial yammering for Kellogg? Who's the instigator and why?

* * *

Will Congressman Lindbergh enter the senatorial race? Some believe he will, and base their belief on a letter he sent to J. J. Opsahl of Bemidji, in which he said:

> For some reason the special privilege interests fear that I will run for the senate and have set their papers to printing scurrilous attacks upon me.
>
> I did not expect to worry them with my candidacy this year, but when I do voluntarily retire from the field it will not be at a time when I am under fire.

But the St. Cloud Times has the following:

> The politicians have figured it out that Congressman Lindbergh's plan now is to serve out his present term, and spend the next two years preparing to enter the race for Senator Nelson's place when the latter retires.

* * *

The candidates for delegates to the Democratic national convention, who have filed in opposition to those chosen at the St. Paul conference, seem to be having a hard time of it in all parts of the state. This is particularly true in the Sixth district, where John B. Galarneault of Aitkin and Fred Schilplin of St. Cloud are being accorded the support of almost all of the newspapers. They were leaders at the St. Paul conference of Feb. 3, and seem to be in no danger of defeat at the polls on March 14. The same is true of M. J. Daley of Perham and Julius J. Olson of Warren, conference delegates in the Ninth district, and of John Jenswold, Jr., of Duluth and Douglas Greeley of Virginia, conference delegates in the Eighth.

There seems little question but that the choice of the conference for delegates-at-large will be indorsed at the polls. These candidates are: A. C. Weiss, publisher of The Duluth Herald; Daniel W. Lawler of St. Paul; B. F. Nelson of Minneapolis, and W. A. Just of Rapidan.

Concerning Mr. Galarneault, The Foley Independent says:

> He has always been willing to work for the party, serving almost continuously as county, congressional or state committeeman. For the last ten years he has been a member of the state committee for the Democratic party, and has never missed a state convention. It is his desire to attend as a delegate the Democratic national convention at St. Louis.

The Akeley Herald-Tribune, commenting on two of the candidates, said in a recent issue:

> Fred Schilplin of St. Cloud, one of the foremost "boosters" of Minnesota, former vice president of the Northern Minnesota Editorial association, and manager of the St. Cloud Times, one of the leading Democratic newspapers of the state, is a candidate for delegate to the national Democratic convention at St. Louis. Mr. Schilplin is well qualified and should be entitled to the honor. Since early manhood he has been active in politics, his allegiance being given to the Democratic party. At various times he has served as a member of the Democratic state central committee.
>
> A. C. Weiss of The Duluth Herald, not only the leading Democratic newspaper of the state, but one that is always actve for Northern Minnesota, is a candidate for delegate-at-large. There is not a Democrat in the state who is more deserving of the honor or better qualified for the position.
>
> Regardless of political affiliations, no better, cleaner or more able men are to be found in the state than Schilplin and Weiss.

* * *

It is reported that Albert Berg, former secretary of state, is being talked as candidate for state treasurer. Not much is expected of the rumor for various reasons. In the first place, the present appointee, A. C. Gooding, is taking hold in a most satisfactory way, and if he desires to try to succeed himself, will have good ground aside from his ability, for he comes from the First district, which did not have a state office before his appointment, and it certainly cannot be accused of hogging matters in the state.

* * *

Now that Joseph A. Wessel of Crookston has been appointed United States marshal of Minnesota, one more political cloud has been wafted away. Mr. Wessel will take up his duties very soon, succeeding William H. Grimshaw. Appropriate resolutions are expected from the retiring marshal.

* * *

Alexandria Citizen: "The turmoil which follows the death of a Democratic chieftain in Minnesota leads to the suspicion that the party is not over-supplied with leaders. These little family disturbances are very destructive." — Alexandria Post News.

This aforementioned turmoil in the state, caused by the loss of a leader, is not to be compared with the agitation and worry existing in the ranks of the G. O. P. in their "needle in the haystack" search for a candidate who could make a respectable attempt at leading the children of Israel into the promised land. Nor is this aforementioned turmoil to be compared to the bewilderment and hopelessness that would reign in the already weak Progressive party should their idol be lost to their cause through his determination to do the prodigal son act.

Maybe that will hold Editor McRae for a while.

* * *

Appleton Press: S. Y. Gordon insists that the next lieutenant governor should come from the rural districts. While he hasn't said so, no doubt the choicest rural district for lieutenant governor is in Browns Valley, and to be real specific—in the Tribune office.

Mr. Gordon answered that very fully and emphatically before it was uttered by the Press. Some weeks before, he suppressed a boom for himself for the lieutenant governorship, with no weak hand.

Beat High Prices Next Fall.

Buy winter suits and overcoats now at half price at the Big Duluth.

Abe Martin

It's purty hard t' git an argyment if you've been eatin' onions. Remember what a time you had findin' th' ax after a snow when you wuz a boy?

(Protected by Adams Newspaper Service.)

M. J. DALY,
Of Perham, Candidate for District Delegate to the Democratic National Convention From the Sixth District.

RUB BACKACHE AWAY WITH "ST. JACOBS OIL"

Rub Lumbago, Pain and Soreness from Your Lame Back---Instant Relief! Doesn't Blister---Get a Small Trial Bottle---Wonderful Liniment

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right on your aching back, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating liniment needs to be used only once. It takes the pain right out and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica, backache or rheumatism so promptly, it never disappoints. In use for over 60 years.—Advertisement.

Glass of Hot Water Before Breakfast a Splendid Habit

Open sluices of the system each morning and wash away the poisonous, stagnant matter.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise; splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, lame back, can, instead, both look and feel as fresh as a daisy always by washing the poisons and toxins from the body with phosphated hot water each morning.

We should drink, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to flush from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract before putting more food into the stomach.

The action of limestone phosphate and hot water on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast and it is said to be but a little while until the roses begin to appear in the cheeks. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to make anyone who is bothered with billousness, constipation, stomach trouble or rheumatism a real enthusiast on the subject of internal sanitation. Try it and you are assured that you will look better and feel better in every way shortly.—Advertisement.

PAST HIGH PRIESTS GUESTS OF HONOR

Keystone Chapter, R. A. M., Will Entertain on Wednesday Night.

Past high priests of Keystone chapter, No. 20, Royal Arch Masons, will be guests of honor at a meeting of the chapter at the Masonic temple Wednesday evening.

At this meeting, the Royal Arch degree will be conferred on several candidates, with H. I. Pinneo, past high priest of Keystone chapter, presiding. Mr. Pinneo will be assisted in the degree work by past high priests, who will officer the chapter as follows:

H. I. PINNEO.

Lyonel Ayres, K; W. D. Underhill, S; Dr. W. J. Works, C. of H.; Charles A. Payne, P. S.; A. W. Torrance, R. A. C.; C. E. Lonegren, M. 3rd V.; M. W. Turner, M. 2nd V., and N. H. Wilson, M. 1st V.

The ritualistic work will be followed by a smoker and social session. A large attendance of Royal Arch Masons is expected.

JEWS WILL OBSERVE PURIM DAY OF DELIVERANCE

Duluth Jews will observe Purim, the feast of Esther, on Sunday, March 19.

This holiday commemorates the deliverance of the Jews from Ahasuerus, king of Persia, and his prime minister, Haman, and is observed on the anniversary of the day that the Jews of the land were ordered killed. It was only through the intervention of Queen Esther in behalf of her people that the treachery of Haman was disclosed and the lives of the Jews spared by a second edict issued from the palace of the king.

It is a joyous event in the calendar of the Jews, and on this day feasts are held in the Jewish home, friends gather and the famous story of Esther is retold.

The Biblical tale tells how Esther, the fairest maiden in the land, was chosen to become the wife of King Ahasuerus, whose first wife, Vashti, was put to death because she failed to appear at a banquet. It was while Esther was queen of the land that Haman, the prime minister, began his persecution of the Jews. One of their number, Mordecai, an uncle of Esther, refused to bow to Haman whenever the latter passed on his horse, and this so angered the prime minister that he vowed vengeance on the whole race. As a result, an edict was issued decreeing that every Jew should be killed on a certain day.

On hearing this, Mordecai appealed to Esther, who, in turn, pleaded with the king in behalf of the Jews. Later Mordecai overheard a plan to kill the king and informing Esther of his discovery, was welcomed into the palace. In this way the king learned of the treachery of Haman, who, in reality, was plotting to overthrow the kingdom and marry Esther. The prime minister was ordered put to death on a scaffold he had prepared for Mordecai, while a second edict was issued and sent by couriers, declaring that not a single hand should be raised against the Jew, death being the penalty for anyone who disobeyed.

This deliverance was observed by the Jews throughout the land and later Mordecai decreed that it should be observed each year for all time to come.

****

BISHOP McGOLRICK HAS BOOK FROM WASPS' NESTS.

Rt. Rev. James McGolrick, bishop of the Catholic diocese of Duluth, is believed to have one of the only two books made by hand from wasps' nests in existence. The other is owned by Probate Judge E. W. Bazille of Ramsey county.

The books were made by Sister Serena of the Academy of Our Lady, Longwood, Chicago. The material was taken from two wasps' nests and Sister Serena spent more than a month on them.

Layers were pasted upon one another until a thick sheet was formed and this was cut into leaves.

****

SAYS CLIMAX OF WAR NOT REACHED

Lord Northcliffe Thinks Germans Will Resort to New Expedients.

London, March 6.—An account of the present situation around Verdun, written by Lord Northcliffe, is published in the Times today.

The writer believes the conflict here has not yet reached the climax of intensity and that the Germans will face even greater losses and resort to new expedients before accepting repulse. Nevertheless, Lord Northcliffe's viewpoint is optimistic. He dilates on the slightness of the French losses as compared with those of the Germans. The German losses he estimates at 100,000 men.

The following are some of the striking passages from his story:

"The Germans made a great many of the faults the British made at Gallipoli. They announced that something large was pending by closing the Swiss frontier. The French were fully warned by their own astute aviation department.

"Their aeroplanes were not idle, and if confirmation were needed it was given by deserters, who, surmising the horrors to come, crept out of the trenches at night and lay down by the edge of the Meuse until morning and then gave themselves up, together with information that has since proved accurate.

"Things went wrong with the Germans in other ways. A Zeppelin that was to have blown up important railway junctions on the French line of communication was brought down at Revigne. Then the gigantic effort of Feb. 21 was frustrated by the coolness and tenacity of the French and the deadly curtain of fire of their gunners."

ITALIAN SHIP SUNK WITHOUT WARNING

Paris, March 6.—The Italian steamship Giava, torpedoed by an Austrian submarine, was sunk without warning, according to survivors of the crew, who arrived at Piraeus on the British steamer Trevelyah on March 1, a Havas dispatch from Athens states.

The steamer offered no resistance, the survivors said. They describe the submarine as a large one, similar to those which sank the Ancona and La Provence.

Dispatches Saturday announced the Giava carried no Americans.

Neenah Woman Killed.

Neenah, Wis., March 6.—Mrs. William Arnemann, wife of Assemblyman Arnemann of this city, was instantly killed here Sunday when struck by a Chicago & Northwestern passenger train. She was on the way to visit friends.

Left All to Charity.

London, March 6.—A dispatch to the Times from Bucharest says the late queen mother, Elizabeth, left all her property to charitable institutions.

C. H. S. GIRLS WIN.

Defeat Moose Lake at Basket Ball in Duluth High Gymnasium.

The Central high school girls' basket ball team defeated the Moose Lake girls in the Central high gymnasium Saturday night by a score of 12 to 4. Kugler and Lutes starred for the Central five, while Swanson and Gay did effective work for the visitors' team. The lineup of the teams:

Central—Murey, Hemley, Morterud, guards; Lutes, center; Kugler (captain), Whitesides, forwards.

Moose Lake—Gay (captain), Johnson, guards; Swanson, center; Lindberg, Peterson, forwards.

Field goals—Kugler, 3; Morterud, 1; Lutes, 1; Lindberg, 1; Swanson, 1, Fouls, Kugler, 2.

Four Seek Justiceship.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 6. — Four men have formally entered the race for justice of the supreme court in place of Justice W. H. Timlin, who Saturday withdrew from the field as candidate for re-election owing to ill-health. The candidates announced are Judge W. J. Turner, circuit judge of Milwaukee county; Judge E. B. Belden, circuit judge of Racine county; Guy D. Goff, former United States district attorney, and Walter D. Corrigan, Milwaukee.

The Uzar Coffee Man left One Dollar in the following homes in Woodland Hunters Park Lakeside

MRS. E. T. DUNKLE	5015 Peabody St.
MRS. O. ROGERS	5427 Oneida St.
MRS. STACY H. HILL	5829 London Road
MRS. MEIHOFF	5414 Oneida St.
MRS. C. R. OLSON	307 W. Faribault St.
MRS. C. M. HON	112 E. Winona St.
MRS. A. J. FINSLAND	312 W. Owatonna St.
MRS. W. C. PRUDHOMME	219 Minneapolis Ave.
MRS. M. C. LONG	320 Minneapolis Ave.
MRS. PETER DALCONS	2011 Fairmont St.
MRS. A. B. SEITZ	4319 Robinson St.
MRS. A. DREKEY	5418 Superior St.
MRS. E. IVERS	4514 Robinson St.
MRS. E. V. EBART	5313 Colorado St.
MRS. I. C. ANDERSON	5132 Colorado St.
MRS. O. H. PEARSON	5023 Tioga St.
MRS. K. BAKKE	4626 Jay St.
MRS. H. A. BAUER	4710 Pitt St.
MRS. C. H. HALL	4631 Gladstone St.
MRS. H. C. JOYCE	2102 Woodland Ave.
MRS. C. W. PETERS	Chisholm St.
MRS. E. BROWN	12 Winona St.
MRS. R. C. BUSCH	144 W. Faribault St.
MRS. H. H. BROWN	136 Winona St.
MRS. J. A. MORTERUD	3210 Kolstad Ave.

He will be in West End and West Duluth Monday March 6th Tuesday March 7th Wednesday March 8th Thursday March 9th If he finds in your home a can of Uzar Coffee he will leave One Dollar

ASK TO SEE OUR

Special $40 Single Stone Diamond Rings

They are absolutely perfect in quality, color and form, and are mounted in finely wrought Gold and Platinum settings.

Our stock of single stone diamond rings ranges from $25 to $1,000.

The HALLMARK Store

Bagley & Company

Jewelers and Silversmiths

315 WEST SUPERIOR STREET

Established 1885

"Longevity:-Great Age, or length of life. Tendency to live long. — Webster.

Not attained with an unhealthy liver

THE GENUINE MUST BEAR SIGNATURE OF Brent Good

The President's Wedding Cake—

—an example of decorative art never equaled in the history of cake decorating—an example of deliciousness, lightness and wholesomeness that would be a pride to any housewife. It is Another Testimonial for

CALUMET POWDER BAKING

This world-famous Wilson-Galt Wedding Cake was made by Mrs. Marian Cole Fisher and Miss Pansy Bowen, both well known Domestic Science Experts. Calumet Baking Powder was used because both these experts use it exclusively in their work and know it is the purest, the safest, the most wholesome and economical to use.

So do millions of housewives who use it every bakeday—so will you if you try it on the things hardest to bake.

Send your name and address for free recipe and history of the Wedding Cake. Then bake one just like it yourself.

Received Highest Awards World's Pure Food Expositions, Chicago and Paris

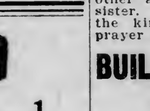
Calumet Baking Powder Co
Chicago

NEW SPRING ARRIVALS
—IN—
SUITS, TOP-COATS, HATS, SHOES, UNDERWEAR AND SHIRTS

Twinports CLOTHING CO
405 and 407 West Superior St.

Columbia Note the Name

COLUMBIA GRAFONOLA!
The Choice of Musicians
New No. 6 Reproducer and Violin Tone Chamber.
The only instrument that will reproduce a true tone.
EDMONT
18 THIRD AVENUE WEST



Trunks and Traveling Bags
OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.
Duluth Trunk Co.
Superior Street, 220 West

SUNDAY SERMONS IN DULUTH PULPITS

CHILD HAS ITS RIGHTS

Has Right to Be Born Under Proper Conditions, Says Pastor.

Rev. George R. Gebauer Takes Sermon Topic From Baby Week.

That the progress of the world has been slow because mankind has failed to recognize its duty toward the child and that only recently has society taken the right attitude toward babies is the opinion of Dr. George R. Gebauer, pastor of the First Unitarian church, who spoke yesterday morning on "The World and the Child." The child has a right to be born under proper circumstances and the illegitimate child deserves the protection of society as much as any other, he said. His sermon, in part, follows:

"We may look with considerable pride upon three institutions designed for the welfare of the child in our city.

Children's Home.

"The first and oldest is the Children's home founded in 1887. Thousands of little ones have during that time found in it shelter and loving care, and kept from growing into vicious or worthless manhood and womanhood. The number of children cared for in 1915 according to the annual report was 1,112. Of course the Children's home, like every institution doing God's work, not only does not pay cash dividends, but is everlastingly hard up for funds. A number of improvements and additional buildings are badly needed. Why should this be in a city of so much wealth? What are our millionaires and semi and near-millionaires doing with their money? How easy it would be for a rich man to make himself a living power for good even after his death by properly endowing such an institution. Instead of this the money is left to those, who often only use it for their own harm and the detriment of society. I beseech you therefore, brethren, that if the finance committee of the Children's home presents its noble cause to you, you give it not only an open ear but a willing purse.

Day Nursery.

"Another enterprise, much smaller in its ambition, but also the fruit of the purest spirit of love, is the day nursery sustained by the King's Daughters of our city. The rooms are located in the building of the Patrick Woolen Mills and offer to mothers who have to go out to work the opportunity to leave their babies in the care of a most competent and true foster-mother. If you wish to see a model family of a dozen to fifteen youngsters visit the day nursery. And if ever a 'royal' daughter approaches you for help, turn thou not away from her, but act like a king's son; it is blessed work they are doing.

"And now we come to that enterprise which has been launched by the Scottish Rite Masons, five years ago. Of course Masons have the well deserved reputation of being ever ready to help in a worthy cause, but on the whole they have never worked in the baby line. But a God-given incident turned their mind in that direction, and one of their numbers so well known in our city, called the attention of the brethren assembled in solemn conclave about the mysterious 'goat' to the fact, that it would not conflict at all with the dignity of Scottish Rite Masonry, if they would milk the holy goat for the benefit of the children of the poor. The outcome of that memorable address was the development of a systematic organization, supported and financed by that noble order, whose object it is to assist over-burdened mothers in caring for their babies, furnishing them with wholesome milk at a nominal price and providing for the children a competent nurse and physician in case of sickness. Free clinics are established during the 'official' warm season in three districts of the city and such babies as require more careful nursing are placed in St. Luke's hospital. A little mothers' club, too, has been founded, in which the elder girls in the families, who have to take care of their baby brothers and sisters, are instructed in the care of little ones. The best proof of the fruitfulness of the undertaking is found in the fact, that infant mortality, which in 1910 amounted to 223 per 1,000, sank in 1915 to 187.

Duty to Child.

"In spite of ecclesiastic vanity and commercialism, there is more of that Christ spirit in the churches than the world will acknowledge, and, thank God, there after all is also much more of the same spirit abroad among the unconverted than the church will admit. The Christ spirit is happily much wider than any one church, and the great hope for humanity lies exactly in mankind's endeavor to help the growing generation. The Christian religion, if rightly looked at, is the religion of and for the child. Humanity has been so slow in true progress just because it has despised these little ones. The parent has, throughout the ages, believed that he owns his child instead of seeing that he owes himself to his child.

"We begin to see that all social problems must be solved from the viewpoint of the baby rather than that of the adult. We learn to ask what of the child in case father is sent to jail? And we answer society has no right to take away from the family the provider except it will step into his place We thought once that any man or woman had a perfect right to marry and produce children. Today we are beginning to ask 'What of the child?' Has the child not a right to be born properly and has society not the duty to see that the unfit do not propagate themselves? And as we treat marriage so we must begin to treat the problem of divorce. Marriage and family are instituted for the child and the welfare of the little ones must not be lost sight of. We have been reckless and we are reaping the fruits of folly in this matter. What of the illegitimate child? we begin to ask. Should it suffer for the sins of its sinning parents? It seems to me the time is at hand when the illegitimate child will bear its father's name and share in its father's inheritance and in his responsibility. The illegitimate child is as much God's child as any other and as much our brother and sister. Only by doing this will come the kingdom of heaven, which no prayer will bring lown from heaven."

BUILDING FOR FUTURE IS URGED

Common Bond of Brotherhood Should Be Recognized, Says Pastor.

In order that generations to come may benefit from work done today, people should build for the future with the realization of the common bond of brotherhood, according to Rev. A. L. Richardson, pastor of the Lester Park M. E. church, who preached yesterday morning on "The Builders."

Rev. Richardson took his text from the Biblical tale dealing with the rebuilding of the Jewish temple and the city wall after they had been destroyed. He said, in part:

"This incident in the life of a fallen nation is interesting because men are alike in every age. They have the same struggles, temptations and problems that we have and that our sons after us will have. A few Jewish captives under favor of a Persian king are permitted to return to their beloved city to rebuild its walls and its sacred temple. Where the proud city had stood in the glory of David and Solomon were piles of ruins heaped upon the hill of Zion. Ancestral homes were reconstructed, according to families, until a city, the shadow of the old Jerusalem, took form. In this every man worked for himself. Time came for common building—a wall for city defense.

"He who supposes that self-interest is a thing to be eliminated in a working organization ignores history and economics alike. You do meet with men and women, too, who completely separate themselves from all personal claims. They cannot be said to bring the very best force to their task. Generally society and the individual loses by it. I have known good women to whom God had given the responsibility of rearing families go out and leave them to shift for themselves while they gave themselves to the public service. More may be done for the cause of temperance, for instance, by a woman who guides the footsteps of her own boy in the paths of temperance than by one who makes 10,000 temperance addresses.

"We have gone too far along individualistic lines today.

"But let us not have a sermon on economics. I urge every man to be a builder of a strong individual career. But I urge every man to build such a career as will benefit his community. We are to live strongly, without being selfish. The builders of that ancient day proudly placed their names upon the completed section they had built. Their children might some day mark these mighty bulwarks and rejoice with the pride of their father's worth.

"We have the hope that we here, in this city, of this generation, shall so build that those who do follow us may find record of work well done, and of an outlook upon our part which comprehended the well-being of our city as well as that of ourselves.

"To make this realization possible we must have a high sense of our task, a realization of the common bond of brotherhood and faith in the Son of God."

DECLARES CHRIST'S MIRACLES NATURAL

Were Simply "Short Cuts" for Definite Purpose, Says Rev. R. E. Miller.

"In not one of the thirty-two miracles accredited to Christ in the gospels is He represented as doing anything contrary to the laws of nature as we understand those laws," said Rev. R. E. Miller in his sermon yesterday at Woodland M. E. church. His theme was "The Miracles of Christ." He said in part:

"Christ's miracles, like those of the Old Testament, were performed for definite purposes. They were to impress men's minds and teach them Christ's divinity and the greatness of His mission. They were not in violation of natural laws, but they often took short cuts through nature's field. In the turning of water into wine it was but a hastening of the process that would have been gone through if the water had been poured on the ground and taken up by the vines. In the cursing of the fig tree that bore no fruit, the process of death of vegetable matter was but hastened, no new process was introduced. The lesson of the evil of unfruitfulness was deeply impressed. In the healing miracles—and twenty-eight of the thirty-two accredited to Christ consisted of healing the sick or raising the dead—the processes were entirely natural, as we should realize today when we see such wonderful results attained by medical science.

"But it was always by the use of natural forces, and those simple ones close at hand. Christ put clay on the blind man's eyes; He did not call down thunder and lightning to restore sight.

"His miracles proved His divinity, for it was through the operation of His divine will that he was able to make these 'short cuts' and show men quickly the results they were accustomed to seeing only after certain apparent precedents that were passed over in the miracles."

URGES PERSONAL APPEAL FOR CHURCH

Campaigning of Apostles in Pairs Lauded By Dr. A. W. Ryan.

An appeal in behalf of the church members, who are campaigning for a larger attendance and more interest in the work of the parish, was made yesterday morning by Dr. A. W. Ryan of St. Paul's Episcopal church, who preached on "Sent By Twos."

Dr. Ryan cited the Biblical tale which tells how Christ sent his apostles in pairs, explaining that this was a psychological move, as two make a more successful attack on the world than if they went one by one. Continuing, Dr. Ryan said:

"So today we are sending forth among some of our people delegations of twos to find those who belong to us and try to interest them and to draw them into active association with us and our work. Such canvassers are entitled to feel that they are delegated by a higher power and invested with other influences than what spring from their own nature. Anyone who is ministering for God and His kingdom need not feel that he goes forth in his own capacities, but that word and action take on new effectiveness when given to the work of God.

"The first approach to people should be one of kindliness and interest. We are to bring peace and heal, even before we say that the kingdom has come. For folks are inclined to be captious, to find fault in that they have not always been treated as they desire. They may think that Duluth is cold to the newcomer, and that parson and people are indifferent, when the fault all lies with those who do not quite know how to make their way among strangers. But if we seek peace, if we desire to heal, we will take all such attitudes with patience and seek to bring them into harmony with us, and even bear much unjust reproach. More than the money that people have, we want them. This is the kingdom that we represent, and this kingdom we desire that they may share with us—the most gracious gift we can offer them. Better than any introduction to our society, better than diverting amusements, is this opportunity to join in with the kingdom of God.

"There may be failures in our mission today, but it probably will appear that we will have far greater results than we expected and after all the hostile feelings of people, their misconstructions and misapprehensions will yield far more readily than we had feared. People like attention other than that which the minister can give, and surely they will welcome the visits of the laymen as indicative of our churchly interest in them and their homes."

GOD, NEIGHBOR AND JESUS CHRIST

Service to Humanity Is Big Factor in Personal Religion.

God, a man's neighbor and Jesus Christ are the three factors in personal religion, according to Rev. R. Edward Sayles, pastor of the First Baptist church, who preached yesterday morning on "Personal Religion," the first of a series of sermons on "Modern Expressions of Christianity."

Rev. Sayles said, in part:

"There was a time when the sole expression of Christianity was considered to be that of personal religion.

"Today the stress is laid rather upon service, both in the gospel and in Christianity. Jesus said: 'Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these, ye have done it unto me,' and then: 'Inasmuch as ye have not done it for the least of these, ye have not done it for me.' Efficiency—a modern expression, is a mere blanket term for a very definite process. This is also true of education. Very often we are apt to forget that efficiency and education are part of a process.

"The first expression of Christianity is that of personal religion. Even to the present day the idea of social service must be founded upon a solid personal religion.

"In this scheme of personal religion, God is the first important belief. He is the center of personal religion. The true Christian possesses: a sense of God, a power of faith, and a belief in prayer.

"The second stepping stone of personal religion is: Your neighbor. In the modern factory city of today, with overcrowded tenements and often miserable working and living conditions, the term assumes a newer and bigger meaning. Jesus always insisted on love.

"The third creed of personal religion is: Jesus Christ himself. The true Christian is His disciple. He finds in Jesus, the unveiling of God, the truth of life and the noblest of ideals. For us in the western world, it is either Jesus Christ or agnosticism or atheism."

END OF WORLD DECLARED NEAR

Present Events Were Foretold to Precede Close, Says Pastor White.

"Worldwide Preparedness and Its Meaning" was the subject last night at the Seventh Day Adventist church, corner of Tenth avenue east and Sixth street, where Pastor Stemple White delivered an address on present events in the light of Bible prophecy. Using for his text the words of Jesus, "I have told you before it come to pass that when it is come to pass, ye might believe," he said in part:

"In the words of Jesus, 'ye shall hear of wars and rumors of war; see that ye be not troubled; for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet,' we know that there will be no permanent peace in this present evil world. Over 700 years B. C., through Isaiah and Micha, God foretold that in the 'last days,' 'many peoples' and 'many nations' would hold out the hope of permanent peace, and that 'many people' would then say, 'they shall beat their swords into plowshares, neither shall they learn war any more.' And over 800 years B. C. God had already written, through Joel the prophet, that in the last days, in spite of false 'peace and safety' cry of 'many peoples,' that plowshares would be beaten into swords, and implements of agriculture converted into weapons of war, and that when the very heathen would be lined up in a mighty worldwide preparation, we may know 'the day of the Lord is near.'

"The fulfillment of these wonderful prophecies of the Bible are being read today by a stupefied world in the daily press.

"We are living in the closing years of time. Jesus declared that at this time there would be 'distress of nations, with perplexity,' and that men would be filled with fear for what is coming upon the earth. Is this true today? Listen The editor of the North American Review says, 'In these last ten years a strange breath has passed over the world. Five years ago, Sir Edward Grey, addressing the house of commons, said, 'it is really as if in the atmosphere of the world there were some mischievous influence at work which troubles and excites every part of it.' The editor of Hearst's magazine speaks of earth's rulers as being 'mad' and 'stupid,' possessed of 'a fatuity incurable, a mania, fatal, malignant, satanic.' The Springfield Republican says 'such popular fury for fighting as appears to pervade Europe just now has the aspect of demoniacal possession.' Ex-President Taft says, 'Nothing like it has occurred since the world began. The future looks dark indeed.' Harper's Weekly declares that 'events are transpiring to stun the stoutest minds,' that 'the most critical moment of the world's history is upon us.' President Wilson says, 'the world is on fire,' and no man knows what a single week, or a single day, or a single hour may bring forth,' and Rudyard Kipling adds, 'universal ruin awaits us.' Are not men perplexed?

"As in Noah's time, even so today. God believes in the right kind of preparedness, and the gospel ark is open to the individual believer. In these days of swiftly fulfilling prophecies, every gospel sermon should ring with the appeal, 'Prepare to meet thy God.'"

URIC ACID SOLVENT
For Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble
50 Cent Bottle (32 Doses)
FREE

Just because you start the day worried and tired, stiff legs and arms and muscles, an aching head, burning and bearing down pains in the back—worn out before the day begins, do not think you have to stay in that condition.

Those sufferers who are in and out of bed half a dozen times at night will appreciate the rest, comfort and strength this treatment gives. For any form of bladder trouble or weakness, its action is really wonderful.

Be strong, well and vigorous, with no more pains from stiff joints, sore muscles, rheumatic suffering, aching back, or kidney or bladder troubles.

To prove The Williams Treatment conquers kidney and bladder diseases, rheumatism and all uric acid troubles, no matter how chronic or stubborn, if you have never used The Williams Treatment, we will give one 50c bottle (32 doses) free if you will cut out this notice and send it with your name and address, with 10c to help pay distribution expenses, to The Dr. D. A. Williams Company, Dept. 2050 E, General P. O. Block, East Hampton, Conn. Send at once and you will receive by parcel post a regular 50c bottle (32 doses), without charge and without incurring any obligations. One bottle only to a family or address.

GIVES PRIZE FOR VOTES

Cummins Minnesota Committee Would Stimulate Rural Vote March 14.

Offers $200 to Road Fund of Best Voting Township.

A "new one" has just been sprung by I. A. Caswell, Minnesota manager for the Cummins campaign. He is sending out a circular announcing that the Cummins campaign committee will give to the rural township casting the largest percentage of votes at the presidential primary March 14, $200 for its road fund.

It is not specified that the largest percentage shall be cast for Senator Cummins or for anybody; but merely that it shall have the largest percentage of total votes cast for everybody. Mr. Caswell said in his circular that the prize is offered merely to stimulate interest in the election, and adds:

"There is no legal objection to our making this offer nor to any one advising voters to attend the polls and freely to exercise their right of suffrage."

The terms of the contest are given as follows:

"The Cummins campaign committee of Minnesota will pay into the road fund of the rural township which casts the largest percentage of votes at the presidential primary to be held in this state on March 14, the sum of $200, such percentage to be determined by taking the total male vote of the township at the general election of 1914 as a basis for making the estimate for awarding the prize. Competing townships must be strictly rural, that is, they must not be attached to villages or cities for voting purposes.

Not Greatest Vote.

"This does not mean that the prize will be given to the township casting the greatest number of votes, for that would be unfair to the smaller townships, but it is intended simply to increase interest in voting generally in townships of all sizes throughout the state.

"For example, if a township cast 100 male votes at the last election and 35 at this primary, its percentage would be 35; if another township cast 50 votes at the general election and 35 at this election its percentage for the purpose of this contest would be 70, and it would be nearer the prize than the larger township.

"All classes of voters will be included in this contest in determining the total vote, both Cummins and anti-Cummins Republican votes, as well as those of the members of the Democratic and Prohibition parties.

Must File Claims.

"Townships desiring to contest for the $200 prize must make their claim in writing to Julius A. Schmahl, secretary of state, St. Paul, on or before March 31, 1916, duly verified by the town clerk, and accompanied by a certificate from the county auditor of the county in which the township is located stating that the claimed figures for the general election of 1914 and for the primary election of March 14, 1916 are correct according to his records.

"Upon written notice from the secretary of state designating the winner or winners of the contest the amount above named will be forwarded to the town treasurer or treasurers who may be entitled to the same.

"If a tie results in the contest the amount will be divided equally among the winners.

DR. PRUDDEN'S CAR STOLEN AGAIN

Machine Taken Saturday Night, Later Located on Greysolon Road.

Auto thieves made their first appearance in 1916 Saturday night, when a car belonging to Dr. C. E. Prudden was stolen from in front of his residence at 326 Thirteenth avenue east.

A small boy, walking along Greysolon road near Twenty-sixth avenue east this morning, noticed a car standing at the curb, with lights on and the engine running. He investigated, and found a medical case, tagged with Dr. Prudden's name, in the car.

Dr. Prudden did not discover his loss until Sunday morning, when he reported the theft to the police. The car evidently was used Saturday night and part of Sunday by the thieves, who then abandoned it because of extreme weather conditions, which made automobile travel unpleasant.

It is the second time that thieves have centered their attention upon Dr. Prudden's car, the first offense having been committed last fall.

CONTEMPT CASES ARE DISMISSED

Immigration Officials Given Authority to Hold Canadian Deserter.

Holding that the state court was without jurisdiction in the matter, Judge Bert Fesler Saturday dismissed the contempt proceedings instituted against C. W. Seaman, E. W. Stearns and Robert F. Davis, immigration inspectors, because they caused the rearrest of Mike Connor, alleged deserter from the Canadian contingent of the British Army, after he had been ordered released on a writ of habeas corpus.

Judge Fesler held that the question of jurisdiction had not been raised at the former hearing on Feb. 14, when Connor was ordered released. This question was waived at the former hearing.

The result of the hearing Saturday is that Connor is to be retained in custody by the government immigration inspectors until he can be given a hearing before the chief immigration inspector on a charge of having unlawfully entered the United States without having passed proper inspection.

If the immigration bureau at Washington, which passes upon questions of this kind, decides that Connor is to be deported, he will be returned to Canada, and in all likelihood subjected to some punishment for deserting his regiment. Although in time of war death is sometimes inflicted in the case of a deserter, there have been no Canadians executed yet for the crime of desertion. A term of months in prison is the usual sentence.

Formal Millinery Opening

Showing Authoritative Styles

Women to whom distinction is the most appealing quality of fashion, will be most appreciative of the styles we have advanced this season.

To those it will be a real joy to select the spring hat from this vast assemblage ranging from the daring to the more modest creations.

We Hope to Have You With Us Today and Tomorrow!

The Glass Block Store

Your teeth can be only as good as you keep them—start a good habit today by asking your druggist for

Dr. Lyon's PERFECT Tooth Powder

Prepared by a Doctor of Dental Surgery

Send 2c stamp for a generous sample of either Dr. Lyon's Perfect Tooth Powder or Dental Cream.
I. W. Lyon & Sons, Inc., 583 W. 27th St., New York City

BRAKEMAN KILLED.

Grand Forks, N. D., March 6.—Earl Byron of this city, brakeman on the Great Northern railway, was crushed to death between an engine and car at Larimore late Saturday night.

He was riding between the engine and car, it appears, and when the engine trucks slipped beneath the car was crushed to death.

BRAINERD SCHOOL OF METHODS PLANNED

Brainerd, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The interdenominational school of methods conducted by the educational secretaries of the Presbyterian, Baptist and Swedish Baptist school boards will open Wednesday evening, March 8, at the Presbyterian church, and continue March 9 and 10.

The subjects to be discussed will be the graded lessons in their several departments, Bible study, teacher training work, special days in the Sabbath school, programs and special program features, also missions in the Sunday school. Various phases of child life, boyhood and girlhood and adult life will be considered in their varied spiritual and social relations.

FARGO U. C. T. ELECT.

Fargo, N. D., March 6.—The local U. C. T. council elected and installed the following officers: Senior counselor, J. H. Lang; past senior counselor, J. A. Fortin; junior counselor, A. A. Hammerud; secretary-treasurer, J. P. Gleason; conductor, George Meyers; page, F. P. Scully, and sentinel, C. A. Wetterstrom.

The executive committee consists of T. I. Lewis, R. P. Freeman, both for two years, and L. H. Chapman for a term of one year. The delegates named to the grand council to be held at Minot in June are: J. A. Fortin, F. G. Hughes and G. W. Wilkinson. The alternates are J. H. Lang, Thomas E. Dunn and C. H. Baker.

Because W. V. Powell is leaving Fargo, he resigned his place on the executive board. L. H. Chapman was elected to the position.

Change Main Line Run.

Hurley, Wis., March 6.—The main line mail run has been changed so that the clerks now run between Hurley and Menominee instead of Escanaba and Hurley as heretofore.

for La Grippe Coughs use FOLEY'S Honey and Tar

For 33 years the Standard Cough Medicine

Take No Substitute for Foley's Honey and Tar

Sold and Recommended by
ALL DEALERS EVERYWHERE.

Society - Women's Clubs - Music - Drama

AT the meeting of the officers of the industrial branch of the Duluth chapter of the American Red Cross association held this morning in the library clubroom, Mrs. Francis H. De Groat, the acting chairman, announced that the committee waited last week on W. A. McGonagle, chairman of the chapter, who guaranteed them $200 for their March work. As there was not a quorum present, no action was taken, but there was an informal discussion of the means of raising money to cover the deficit that was announced at last week's meeting.

EVENTS OF TONIGHT AND TOMORROW.

The annual reception and banquet of the W. C. T. U. will be held at 6 o'clock tonight at the First Presbyterian church.

The Business and Professional Women's club will meet at 7 o'clock tonight at the Y. W. C. A.

The Shakespeare class of the Twentieth Century club will meet at 7:45 o'clock tonight in the library clubroom.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Buchanan Morton will give their third subscription concert at 8:15 o'clock tonight at the Glen Avon Presbyterian church.

The L. U. B. A. club will present two plays at 8:15 o'clock tonight in the Y. W. C. A. auditorium.

The booth exhibition of Baby week will open at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Masonic temple.

The Woodland Mothers' club will give a tea at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the E. R. Cobb school.

The Linnaea club will hold its monthly meeting at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Foresters' hall.

The Lester Park Literary club will meet at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clinton Brooke, 5407 London road.

A Matinee Musicale program will be given at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the First Methodist church.

The Duluth Woman's suffrage association will meet at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the library clubroom.

Events of Interest.

The Italian Dramatic club will give a dancing party tonight at Coffin's academy.

* * *

Because of the weather, the concert which Mr. and Mrs. R. Buchanan Morton will give tonight at Glen Avon Presbyterian church will be repeated next Monday night. Tickets will be honored at either performance.

* * *

The St. Louis County Suffrage association will be the guests of the Duluth Woman's Suffrage association at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the library clubroom. Mrs. G. Herbert Jones will give a talk on the work of the Children's home.

* * *

Rev. and Mrs. Everett Lesher, Iglehart avenue, Merriam Park, Minneapolis, gave a dinner Thursday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Case of Duluth.

* * *

The regular meeting of the Mothers' school of Bryant school will be held tomorrow afternoon. After the business meeting there will be a short program and a social hour. The time of meeting has been changed from 3:30 to 2:30 o'clock.

* * *

The meeting of the Shakespeare class of the Twentieth Century club, that was to have been held tonight in the library clubroom, has been called off on account of the weather.

* * *

A card and dancing party will be given Tuesday evening, March 7, at the Talmud Torah auditorium, Third avenue east and Third street, for the benefit of the Jewish relief fund.

Pre-Lenten Dance.

The pre-Lenten dance of the Kitchi Gammi club took place Saturday evening, a buffet supper being served at 12 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Griggs entertained at dinner for eight preceding the dance. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Agatin entertained six at dinner.

Among the dancers were:

Messrs. and Mesdames—
Whitney Wall, W. Gage Baldwin, Richard L. Griggs, Percy Ginder, George Barnum, Jr., L. J. Arnold, Raymond Higgins, Ray Helm, Dr. and Mrs. Norven H. Gillespie.

Mesdames—
Augustus B. Wolvin.

Misses—
Constance Mitchell, Jane Van Vleck.

Messrs.—
Fred Wolvin, Renwick B. Knox, George C. Stone, Irving Moore, Charles H. Kelley.

J. A. Ball, G. Herbert Spencer, A. L. Agatin, W. W. Walker, Cassius Bagley, B. Murray Peyton, T. F. McCarty.

Harvey F. Williamson.

Dorothy Davis, Nannie Turrish, Frances Turrish.

Charles McLennan, C. K. Quinn, of Virginia, A. J. Rough of Virginia.

Program at Normal.

The philathropic committee of the Matinee Musicale will give a half-hour program at the Normal school tomorrow morning at 11.

Mrs. A. M. Gow will play a sonata by Schytte, and Miss Mary Syer Bradshaw will give a group of American songs. Miss Carlotta Simonds accompanying.

Smith Scholarship.

Minneapolis-St. Paul Smith college girls have about completed plans for their entertainment next Thursday afternoon, when money will be raised for the Smith-Minnesota scholarship fund. Smith college has extended to Minnesota the privilege of establishing a scholarship, the first in the history of the club, and the money taken in at a matinee at the new Calhoun theater Thursday will be for such use.

The program includes the colored films of Locke's "The Beloved Vagabond," Northwestern weekly pictures and Smith college pictures. There also will be singing of Smith college songs.

REMEMBER
The Duluth Floral Co.
Has Only One Store—
121 WEST SUPERIOR STREET.
Not on the Corner.

ASK FOR and GET
HORLICK'S
THE ORIGINAL
MALTED MILK
Cheap substitutes cost YOU same price.

Her Play Declared Winner in Contest

MRS. A. T. BANNING.

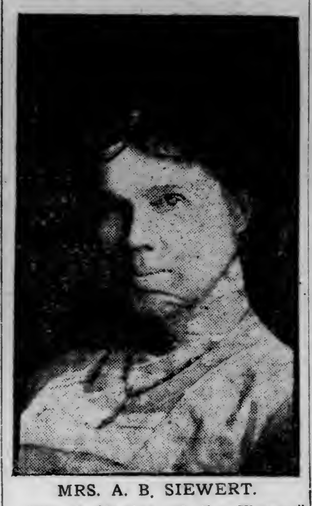
Mrs. Archibald T. Banning's one-act play, "Her Sacred Duty," was declared the winner in the Drama league contest, following its third presentation Saturday night at the Little theater. "What it Gets Down to," the one-act comedy on social center work that was also given at the Little Theater Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, was written by Miss Mildred Washburn who is studying at Columbia university. The vote was 82 to 59. A prize of $50 will be awarded to Mrs. Banning.

The locked boxes, in which members of the league had cast their ballots after the performances, were opened Saturday night, and Mrs. Stanley R. Holden, president of the Drama league, opened the envelopes containing the names of the playwrights. The votes were counted by Edward F. Chapin and W. N. Ryerson.

"Her Sacred Duty" deals with the recruiting situation in England. As Mrs. Banning spent several months in that country in the early days of the war, the drama is the expression of first hand knowledge.

Francis J. Webb, who coached the two plays, made a short talk. George W. Morgan explained the conditions of the contest which closed Jan. 1. He said that the ten plays which were submitted had good points and that the Drama league was gratified with the efforts of the contestants.

Translates Songs on Tuesday's Program



MRS. A. B. SIEWERT.

"The Awakening of the Flowers" and "A Song of Rest," which Miss Glenn Bartholomew will sing at the Matinee Musicale program tomorrow afternoon, were translated from the French into English verse by Mrs. A. B. Siewert. The translations follow:

"The Awakening of the Flowers."

"The earth the joy of springtime tells,
The forests spread their glory
Oh! May flowers, ring your tiny bells,
And chime, chime out your story.
Oh! May flowers, ring your tiny bells,
And chime, chime out your story.

"The sun has reached the lilies' heart,
The vine shoots forth, its long sleep breaks,
And fresh perfume from the violets start,
The buds are glad, the rose awakes.
And fresh perfume, from the violets start,
The buds are glad, the rose awakes.

"Oh! my sweet one, when the sunlight steeps,
All in light, from a heaven of azure and gold
Tell me, my own, why your heart sleeps,
As dark and as still as of old.
Tell me ,my own, why your heart sleeps,
As dark and as still as of old.

"A Song of Rest."

"In the tomb where you repose,
Oh! my first and only love,
Under myrtle tree and rose,
Sleep on, blessed from above.
In thy bed so dark and lone,
I can love thee still, my own.

"My deep longing now is stilled,
I would not awaken thee,
For with peace my heart is filled,
Sorrow from my soul must flee.
Rest has stilled all my fears,
And my eyes have no more tears.

"My youth you took with you my dove
When thou didst break the cup of gold,
From which I drank the wine of love,
The deepest draft my heart could hold.
You took away with you my life,
The days so full of joy.
There's no fear that my heart's strife
Can reach you now, with its alloy.
For rest has stilled all my fears,
And my eyes have no more tears."

Lodge Notes.

Court Eastern Star No. 86, U. O. F., will hold a regular meeting at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night. The weekly card party will be given at 2:30 o'clock.

* * *

Mrs. Percy Christopher, Mrs. J. Cabotte and Mrs. Hattie Ebmer will entertain at five hundred at Maccabee hall tomorrow night for Zenith lodge, No. 99, Degree of Honor.

* * *

Zenith Lodge No. 99, Degree of Honor, will hold a business meeting tomorrow night at Maccabee hall at 7:45, after which cards will be played. Mrs. Ruth Christopher and Mrs. Ida Walgren are the committee in charge.

Personal Mention

Mrs. Rufus H. Draper and children left yesterday for Sea Breeze, Fla.

* * *

John Bertling of Ishpeming spent the week-end in Duluth.

* * *

W. S. Telford left for Chicago last night for a few days.

* * *

Mrs. Stephen H. Jones, 1215 East Second street, will leave tonight for a two weeks' Eastern trip.

* * *

Miss Esther Coffin, Woodland avenue, will leave Wednesday for a Western trip. She will visit relatives for several weeks in Seattle.

* * *

Mrs. Parker M. Paine, 528 Twentieth avenue east, who has been at St. Mary's hospital, has returned to her home.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Brown, 1714 East First street, have returned from a trip to the Pacific coast, San Francisco and Vancouver, B. C.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. H. Chester S. MacMillan, formerly of 622 East Superior street, have left Duluth and will make their home in Minneapolis. They will pass the remainder of the winter at the Carpathia, 1119 West Franklin avenue.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sheridan, East Third street, are at Mudcura, Minn. Mr. Sheridan will return in a week and Mrs. Sheridan will remain for a month.

* * *

Alexander Graham, 1507 East Fourth street, has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., for a three months' stay.

* * *

Dr. Lee W. Berry has accepted a three-year contract to become the instructor and surgeon in connection with the Mayo hospital clinic, which is being established at the University of Minnesota.

* * *

Mrs. A. A. Friss and daughter, Florence Evelyn, 409 First avenue west, left yesterday for Eau Claire, Wis., to join Mr. Friss to make their future home there.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McDonald of the Granville apartments are the parents of a daughter, born March 3.

* * *

Mrs. Stella Prince Stocker is in the South.

* * *

Mrs. David H. Clary and son, Bruce Homer, 1618 East Third street, will leave tomorrow for Winnipeg to join Mr. Clary for a few months' stay before proceeding to Pittsburgh to live. Mr. Clary has been transferred there by the Pittsburgh Coal company.

* * *

Mrs. Wyman Miller and her son, Wyman Miller, Jr., have returned to 2322 Roslyn avenue after a week's visit to Virginia, Minn.

* * *

Mrs. S. E. Moore of St. Paul is the house guest of Mrs. Charles Rees, 306 West Fifth street.

* * *

Mrs. C. G. Johnson of Ellensburg, Wash., who has been the guest of Mrs. M. E. Chisholm, 2824 West Second street, is now visiting her son, Harry, in Superior.

* * *

Mrs. Anar Gowey of Pleasant Plain, Iowa, who has been spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Stemple White, 920 East Sixth street, left this morning for her home in Iowa. Mr. White accompanied her as far as Minneapolis.

* * *

Mrs. John Brahaney of Hibbing, who underwent a serious operation at St. Mary's hospital, is recovering.

Efficient Housekeeping

BY Henriette D Grauel

Laundry Furnishings

IT is convenient and pleasant to be able to afford a separate room for laundry work, but whether you have a laundry fitted with all requisites or must work as your mother and grandmother did before you, you will still want to do the best sort of work. Proper apparatus includes three tubs: one for washing, one for rinsing and one for bluing. A good stout wringer is a great help. Washing machines greatly lighten the task of washing and there are many that do not splash or splatter. Some are operated with water power and the electrically-controlled ones are ideal.

Years ago when sleeves contained three yards of goods, skirts seven, and men's shirts all had to be finished with stiff, glossy bosoms, a skirt-board, sleeve-board, bosom-board and ironing-table were all used each week before the last piece in the basket was polished. Now that home-making has become more important than ever, it has been found that some of these appliances may be dispensed with. Soft crepes, heavy basket-weaves of of cotton, linen and similar materials are used and need no polishing. The best recommendation a merchant can give to wash-goods is to advertise it as "easy to launder."

A strong board or narrow table well covered makes ironing pleasant, for the results show the efforts made. Ironing blankets may be purchased especially, but any thick, soft one will do. It should be tacked securely to the board; the outer cover is best held in place with fasteners. These come six in a set and sell in house-furnishing departments at low prices. Another way to put the cotton cover on the board is to make a slip-case and tie it with tape. It may be secured with pin tacks.

A board for ironing embroidered articles, laces and marked linens should be padded until very soft, and canton flannel does nicely for this. When ironing these things press the embroidered parts on the wrong side so the pattern of the work will stand out clearly and without gloss.

Electric irons have revolutionized ironing; with these it is not necessary to stand in order to put weight on them, for they are sufficiently heavy. There is no running to and from the range to secure hot irons, for the best ones have a heat controller that easily regulates the temperature. When the iron reaches the degree of hotness one likes for the work one is doing, the controlling screw is set and the heat remains just so until the worker increases or decreases it.

If irons become rusty they may be cleaned and made smooth with salt, if very rusty they should be rubbed with oil and emery paper. When this fails they may be sent to a factory to be ground smooth, but good housekeepers do not permit irons to get into such a state, for a final rubbing with wax before they are put away will keep them smooth for generations.

(Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.)

Tomorrow—Herb Vinegars for Salads.

Scoring of Duluth Babies Begins at Masonic Temple

The booth displays in the banquet hall of the Masonic temple will be opened at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, as an important part of the Baby week that has been arranged by the Scottish Rite Masons, who have the assistance of many women's organizations. The scoring began this afternoon and will continue from 2 to 4 o'clock every afternoon this week, up to Friday, and will continue Friday if there is need of it.

Tomorrow night, Wednesday and Thursday nights there will be programs consisting of talks by physicians and musical numbers. The Matinee Musicale society has arranged the program for tomorrow night. Those who will take part are Mrs. F. W. Spicer, organist; Mrs. Jay Finkelson, violinist; Mrs. Walter Adams, soprano, and Miss Louella Gleason, accompanist.

If the Duluth babies are not fed, bathed, weighed and dressed properly and are not given the right kinds of toys, it will not be the fault of the Duluth clubwomen who have provided exhibits that furnish comparisons between the good and the bad.

MRS. JAY FINKELSON.

Church Meetings.

The mission study class of the Irvin Missionary Society of the Lakeside Presbyterian church will continue its Red Cross work at the meeting that will bo held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. B. Phelps, 4620 McCulloch street. While the members are engaged in this work Miss June Woodward will read the third chapter of the mission study book, "Home Missions in Action."

* * *

The monthly meeting of the Irvin Missionary Society of the Lakeside Presbyterian church will be held at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Taylor, 4716 Cooke street.

* * *

Miss Opal Wiltse of 412½ East Fifth street will entertain the Sigma Alpha class of the First Presbyterian church tonight.

* * *

Mrs. Charles S. Mitchell's current events class will meet in the guild room of St. Paul's church at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning instead of Wednesday morning, on account of the Ash Wednesday services. The meeting next week will be held on Wednesday, as usual.

Bed Time Tales

By Clara Ingram Judson

A Dinner Table Game

JACK AND BETTY and their ten little friends sat around the birthday table and looked at the remnants of the feast. Such a party as it had been!

You see, Jack and Betty were twins, and it was only fair that their 10-year-old party should be a very nice one. It's important enough when one person is ten years old! No wonder it was a big occasion when two people arrived at that distinction the same day.

The ten little friends who had been invited to celebrate the day with Jack and Betty had enjoyed the party quite as much as had Jack and Betty. There were goodies of all sorts to be eaten, paper caps to open and put on, riddles to guess (though mostly the answers had to be told!), and verses to read.

Then, last of all, there were the two great birthday cakes. Betty's was surrounded by ten blue candles, while Jack's looked very grand with ten bright red ones.

Such fun as it was to blow them all out; to make wishes and everything that goes with birthday-cake fun.

But at last everything was over, and it was time to get up from the pretty table.

"I wish we knew another game to play," sighed Jack, "I don't want the party to be over."

"You could played every table game I know," laughed his mother, for she was happy to have them all enjoy the feast she had prepared.

"I'll tell you, let's play, 'What I hear'" cried Mildred, one of the guests. "It's lots of fun! I'll begin by whispering to my right hand neighbor any sentence I want to. She will whisper to her right hand neighbor what she thought I said, and so on around the table. Then when it comes back to me, I'll tell what is told me and what I started the game with—and you'll laugh to hear the difference!"

Everybody thought that game would be jolly and the play began.

"I think this has been a lovely party," whispered Mildred (very, very softly) to her right-hand neighbor, Jane.

She will whisper to her right-hand neighbor what she thought I said.

Jane whispered what she thought Mildred had said to John, who sat at her right, and so the whispered word went around the table.

When it reached Mildred again she laughed heartily. "Ting-a-lee has a new heart!" she announced, and then she told them what she really had said.

"Could it possibly change that much?" asked Betty's mother, who was interested in the new game. "Play it again and I'll start it." And she whispered, "This sentence will go around correctly." But it came back to her, "The sentinel stood on the mound limply."

The children played the new game till fathers and mothers began to come for them, and maybe you will like to play it some day, too.

(Copyright—Clara Ingram Judson.)

Tomorrow—Slippy's New Home.

Peggy Peabody's Observations

Animal Adoration

The woman who finds it within her heart to make more and actually think more of a cat or dog than she does of a child is an enigma to me.

The woman who dribbles foolish talk to a fat tabby and shoos children off her premises as though they were the plague, and the woman who comments loudly about some shivering, half-starved dog in the gutter and at the next turn passes a ragged, unkempt child without a word or look of pity, are beyond my finding out.

I should think that they were hypocrites did I not know that their love for animals was sincere and genuine, and that the circumstances of being childless or else parents of children who had long ago left them to lonesome old age was the usual accomplishment of this peculiar streak in human nature. I cannot understand, however, how anyone who is moved by the beauty, winsomeness and helplessness of a child can find anything in animal nature to cause the milk of human kindness to flow unrestrained. Yet I have seen countless examples of cat and dog worship where children are not tolerated.

I do not write to belittle love and consideration of animals. We have all too little of that sort of thing, and any evidences of it should be cultivated to the utmost along broad, sane lines. But I do decry the fetich women make of pet animals to the exclusion of those whom it would be more natural to lavish devotion upon. It gives me a feeling of antagonism to hear a woman laud her cat or dog to the skies and give you to understand that she looks on children as horrible little nuisances. It makes the affection for the inoffensive animal seem worthless.

I know that people unaccustomed to children think of them as being in the way and a great trouble and responsibility. But they more than compensate for this through the love returned and the human qualities which appeal to other humans. An animal is not without its sense of gratitude, but is not to be compared with the irresistible, sweet dependence of a child.

Be kind to animals and thoughtful for their comfort, but do not make a spectacle of yourself by placing their well-being above that of children or other people. I wouldn't ask that an animal be made to suffer that I might of a possibility benefit, and when cats and dogs are pampered and children left to want I cannot help feeling that such actions deserve condemnation.

Nemo News
FROM WEEK TO WEEK
Devoted to
WOMAN'S HEALTH, COMFORT AND BEAUTY

The Most Remarkable Corset Ever Made Is the Nemo Wonderlift

A statement easy to make, just as easy to prove; already endorsed by many thousands of women, and, we believe, by every physician who has ever seen it.

You must think of the Wonderlift as something apart and different from all other corsets, including the Nemos you already know.

Other Nemo models give complete and comfortable hygienic support from underneath; but the Wonderlift not only supports, but lifts into place, and holds in healthful position, all the vital internal organs. It prevents, relieves and often cures painful and dangerous ailments that cannot be effectively reached by medical treatment.

But that's only incidental. The Nemo Wonderlift is a superior STYLE corset, producing in perfection the graceful silhouette of present fashion.

There are Wonderlift models now for all figures from cadaverous to gigantic:

No. 554—For full figures, short or of medium height; sizes 22 to 36—$5.00.

No. 555—For taller full figures—$5.00.

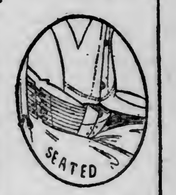
No. 556—For slender to medium figures, tall or of medium height; sizes 20 to 30—$5.00.

No. 557—For slim figures, prominent hip bones, concave abdomen—$5.00.

No. 998—For very large women with heavy, hanging abdomen; the greatest corset ever made for women of this type—$10.00.

No. 1000—A model de luxe, for average full figures; of lustrous brocade—$10.00.

Illustration on right shows position of Nemo Wonderlift Bandlet when adjusted, wearer seated. The adjustment is made by an inside lacing, laces passing through eyelets to outside of corset. Support given is so perfect, constant and comfortable that thousands of physicians now "prescribe" the Wonderlift Corset in place of costly, cumbersome and often ineffective bandages.



Ask Your Dealer Nemo Hygienic-Fashion Institute, New York

Seventh Orchestra Program Shows Steady Improvement

The Duluth orchestra yesterday presented its seventh twilight concert and a most enjoyable program was offered.

The orchestra has gained notably at each appearance in its smooth and efficient work and in the quick response to the slightest hint from the leader, and it makes for a technical finish in the performance which is most satisfying.

Selections from "Tannhauser," which opened the program, were given an effective and smooth interpretation, which evoked much enthusiasm from the audience.

Then came Haydn's "Surprise" symphony, which was given an excellent reading, the exquisite ensemble in the andante movement especially proving an interesting contrast to the fresh, delicate rhythm of the minuet and finale.

* * *

Miss Rogers Plays.

Faith Helen Rogers gave an illuminating reading of Liszt's concerto for pianoforte in E flat major, in which the orchestra gave her beautiful support.

Miss Rogers' playing was marked by great breadth and beauty of tone and she played with a virility and finesse which quite took her audience by storm. Her unerring sense of rhythm, brilliant, clearly cut runs, intelligent sense of proportion and decided warmth of temperament brought forth keenest delight and appreciation from her audience, which forced her to respond at the close of her number with MacDowell's "To a Water Lily," which she played charmingly without accompaniment.

Charles Helmer gave Sullivan's "The Lost Chord" with very good tone, good color and with a most sympathetic accompaniment by the orchestra. He responded with "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" from "Samson and Delilah."

"The Blue Danube" waltz quartet from "Rigoletto," and the stirring processional torch dance of Meyerbeer finished an unusually interesting afternoon.

It might be suggested to a few of those attending the concerts that "The Star Spangled Banner" is not played either as an exit march or as an accompaniment to putting on wraps, but that enough American spirit might be aroused to stand and give it a respectful hearing.

All stand, but the respectful hearing is sadly lacking with a few each Sunday.

Y. W. C. A. Notes.

The L. U. B. A. club will give a benefit entertainment tonight in the Y. W. C. A. assembly hall. The music will be furnished by the Cobb school orchestra under the direction of Miss House, the principal. John Allen, who has coached the plays, will give some readings. Two plays will be given by the club, "The Return of Letty" and "Not a Man in the House." The casts of the plays are as follows:

"The Return of Letty."

Mrs. Ruggs, Letty's mother..... Lennette Haubuer
Amanda Alton, friend of the family..... Mary Forseman
Phoebe Hicks, friend of the family..... Lillian Carlson
Ruth Cardy, Letty's cousin, a young girl..... Ollie Wanvick
Celeste, Letty's French maid..... Ida Forseman
Laurette Montgomery, Letty..... Alma Olsen

"Not a Man in the House."

Mrs. Maria Bings, who has had a rough experience with a cruel husband, and after his death declares that no man shall enter her house..... Vildie Glenn
Miss Lucy Ryder, her timid maiden sister..... Olga Hendricks
Jessie Ray—A pretty niece who has come on a visit..... Ollie Wanvick
Aunt Belinda—An old-fashioned elderly lady who sympathizes with the young..... Olga Nelson
Kate—A servant who has a gentleman cousin whom she greatly admires..... Emma Wanvick

Oreck-Polans.

Miss Sally Miriam Oreck, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel A. Oreck, 523 East Second street, became the bride of Samuel M. Polans of Milwaukee at noon yesterday. Rev. W. Kissin read the service. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Only the immediate relatives were present

SIDE TALKS

By RUTH CAMERON

Half Truths or None

THERE are few things less kind and more futile to my mind than the faint praise given by the person who is trying to steer a middle course between telling a lie and saying outright that he doesn't like your new hat or other new appurtenance.

When anyone tries to compromise between being unkind and telling an untruth, he (or she, more likely), usually succeeds only in being unkind and telling a half truth, which is by intention an untruth.

For instance, you have a new gown. You put it on for inspection. It is a blue gown. Your inspector looks you over and says, "Yes, it's real pretty," this in half-hearted tones. A moment or two later she asks what became of the brown dress you used to wear, and says with fervor, "I do like you in brown."

Have you any doubt what she thinks of your new dress, which is not brown? Not the slightest.

She Admires Your Lace, Not Your Gown.

Or, you display your new evening gown. Not a word about becomingness or style says the audience, but "Isn't that a lovely piece of lace?" Of course you are glad to have your lace admired, but you know perfectly well that she doesn't like the rest of the gown. She has saved her soul alive by telling only the truth, and she has given you that sick, miserable feeling which any woman has when she finds that the new gown she has planned on so much is not becoming, especially when she knows that she cannot have another for many moons.

Again, you appear in your new hat and wait in breathless hopes and fears for the verdict.

"Couldn't you tip it a little more to one side?" inquires the jury. "There, that's better!" with an accent on the "better" that says all too plainly that it is so only by comparison with a very feeble good.

They Think They Are Tactful and Truthful, But—

Doubtless all these people think they have been tactful in saying nothing unkind, and truthful in that they said nothing but the truth.

As for the tactfulness, did they never hear of damning with faint praise?

As for truthfulness, isn't it their intention to make the possessor think they like the gown or hat? And what is a lie but "an intention to deceive"?

What would I have them do?

If the Thing Can Be Changed I Say I Dislike It.

I would not want to advise in so delicate a matter, but if you want my own method of procedure, here it is: If the thing is something which can be changed, like a method of hairdressing or a garment sent on approval, or a suitor being weighed in the balance, and I don't like it, I say so frankly.

But if it is something irrevocable, I say I like it, not so enthusiastically perhaps as I do when I'm really pleased, but warmly enough not to give my hearer a chill.

One thing I'm careful to do. I don't repudiate my judgments by admitting afterwards when the dress is thrown aside that I never liked it.

Doubtless St. Peter will think much less of me than if I merely lied by inference. And yet—I wonder?

(Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.)

Off to school, full of Vim and "Pep"
Don't cram their little "tummies" with greasy meats, starchy potatoes or other indigestible foods. One or two Shredded Wheat Biscuits with hot milk make a warm, nourishing meal that supplies all the material needed for their growing bodies. The perfect food to study on, to grow on, to play on. The crispness of the shreds encourages thorough chewing, which developes sound teeth and healthy gums. Being ready-cooked it is so easy to prepare a warm, nourishing meal with Shredded Wheat in a few moments—no kitchen worry or work.
Made at Niagara Falls, N. Y.

and a bridal dinner followed the ceremony, covers being laid for thirty. The Esther Gomberg orchestra played the nuptial music and also after the ceremony, and Miss Hazel Fisher sang "O Promise Me," by Scott, and "Rose in the Bud," by Dorothy Forster, before the ceremony, and afterward, "I Love You Truly," by Carrie Jacobs Bond, and "Violets," by Ellen Wright.

The Oreck home was decorated with palms, Killarney roses and Easter lilies throughout for the wedding.

Mr. Polans and his bride left yesterday afternoon for a trip to New York city and upon their return will make their home in Duluth.

W. C. T. U. Will Hold Its Annual Banquet

The Central, Scandinavian and Proctor unions of the W. C. T. U. will hold their annual banquet tonight at the First Presbyterian church. Miss Rozette Hendrix, the state president, will be the guest of honor. A reception in the church parlors, from 6 to 6:30 o'clock, will precede the banquet at which Mrs. Joseph Cochran, the district president, will preside. The following program will be given:

Invocation ..... Rev. Carl E. Oberg.
Welcome from the church ..... Judge Edson.
Piano solo—Selected ..... Miss Frances Berg.
Vocal solo—Selected ..... Mrs. J. E. Porter.
"Practical Side of Temperance" ..... Rev. A. W. Ryan.
Song—Selected ..... Male Sextet.
"Civic Responsibility" ..... Senator Richard Jones.
Song—Selected ..... Male Sextet.
"Victory" ..... Miss Rozette Hendrix.
Song with chorus—"Wind the Ribbon Round the Nations" ..... Mrs. Carl E. Oberg.

Those who will be on the reception committee are Mrs. Joseph Cochran, Mrs. Alice Warren, Mrs. C. A. Keyes, Mrs. Alfred Jaques, Mrs. Carl E. Oberg, Mrs. D. J. Gray, Mrs. J. L. Culbertson, Mrs. C. R. Gilbert and Mrs. E. Gustafson.

The hostesses for the three unions will be:

West Duluth union—Mrs. G. W. Smith, Mrs. H. H. Phelps, Mrs. E. J. Amon, Mrs. Wieland, Mrs. Harry W. Lanners, Mrs. Helen Stewart, Mrs. J. D. Meldahl and Mrs. P. J. Fisher.

Central union—Mrs. Ten Brook, Dr. M. L. Hoyt, Mrs. H. A. Fentress, Mrs. Carrie Turnbull, Mrs. R. T. Bennett, Mrs. W. T. Maynard, Mrs. W. G. Harrison and Mrs. Everett Gaskell.

Scandinavian union—Mrs. Otto Carlson, Mrs. A. Thoren, Mrs. P. L. Mortenud, Mrs. N. M. Selseth, Mrs. Albert Stoltz, Mrs. O. G. Olson, Mrs. L. Peterson and Mrs. L. K. Helam.

Proctor union—Mrs. Rappold.

Beerhalter-Dunn.

The wedding of Miss Claire Amelia Beerhalter to Timothy Jamison Dunn took place this morning at St. Anthony's German Catholic church. Rev. Francis Hufnagel officiated.

AMUSEMENTS

TONIGHT'S ATTRACTIONS.

LYCEUM—"The Girls from the Follies," burlesque.
ORPHEUM-STRAND—Walker Whiteside in "The Melting Pot," photoplay.
NEW GRAND—Vaudeville and photoplay.
REX—Billie Burke in "Peggy," photoplay.
LYRIC—William Farnum in "Fighting Blood," photoplay.
ZELDA—Marguerite Snow in "The Upstart," photoplay.

BURLESQUE MAKES HIT AT LYCEUM

Harry Steppe and Big Chorus Entertain Large Audiences.

Burlesque, which again made its appearance at the Lyceum yesterday for a four-day engagement, was greeted by big audiences afternoon and evening and the "comedy and chorus," the two prime requisites of burlesque, were declared up to the usual standard by those who were present.

Harry Steppe, Yiddish comedian and chief mirth dispenser for "The Girls From the Follies" company, held the boards a good share of the time, and he seemed to be a popular favorite. Steppe appears in the role of "Misfit" Cohen, a clothing vender, and his entrance on the stage is a cue for laughter from the audience. He displays far more originality and cleverness than the average burlesque comedian.

George Ward, several other principals and a chorus of about twenty-five girls, all adept kickers and dancers, round out a popular burlesque cast.

"Cohen on the East Side" is the title of the two-act vehicle for the entertainers. The first act was in Pell street, Chinatown, while the second was on a roof garden overlooking Gotham. The settings were unusually attractive and some clever vaudeville novelties are substituted for the usual slapstick burlesque comedy.

A number of imitations, including Roosevelt, Bryan and Charlie Chaplin, who is introduced as "our next president," inspire considerable laughter.

Miss Virginia Wilson, prima donna, displays a voice of most unusual range and of a quality rarely heard in burlesque.

"PEGGY" SCORES TRIUMPH.

Billie Burke Makes Her Debut on the Screen in Duluth.

"Peggy" came to town and conquered, according to box office reports from the Rex where Billie Burke's first film play was seen in Duluth for the first time, coming direct from Knickerbocker theater, New York. The Sunday crowd that greeted the "lovable little lady," is likely to be even surpassed during the three days the eight-reel picture stays here.

It was Thomas H. Ince, who lured Billie Burke into the motion picture realm, and it was at Inceville, presided over by this lord of Triangle masterpieces near Los Angeles, she saw for the first time the inside of the moving pictures studios.

Duluth critics who saw the play yesterday at the Rex Beautiful, have had nothing but praise for the production. It is Billie Burke in all her winsomeness.

The picture, which cost $200,000 to produce, is to be seen until Wednesday night at usual Rex prices, with the added attraction of F. A. Miller in Harry Lauder Scotch songs, especially engaged for the occasion.

UNIQUE COSTUMES IN "THE YELLOW JACKET"

One of the most difficult problems that confront the actresses in "The Yellow Jacket," which will be seen at the Lyceum March 9, 10 and 11, is walking, as the heel of the Chinese sandals is right under the middle of the foot. The costumes are perhaps the most wonderful items in this unique play. Not only are they all Oriental work and carried out out on silks and satins of the finest quality, but they are simply masses of hand embroidery, which generally tells a story in symbols of silken stitchery.

One of the rarest and most beautiful costumes is the bridal garment worn by Plum Blossom. So old it is that the inside is covered with silk to hold it together. On the back is a dragon embroidered with gold thread, showing that the bride who wore it originally was a Chinese woman of rank. The bride's headdress is made in conjunction with jewels and spirals of gold and is a possession that once was the joy of a Chinese bride. The flowers are formed of the tiniest feathers from a rare blue bird, each petal surrounded by a rim of gold.

A woman wears her bridal array but once, after which it is hung upon the wall. The garments are treasured and handed down for generations. That is why "The Yellow Jacket" has been so enriched.

Bats, storks and butterflies are worked in with wonderful regard for color and details in some of the other costumes. In one place is the swastika, the oldest emblem in the world, found in the writing of the early Aztecs, the hieroglyphics of the early Egyptians, in the embroideries of the Oriental races and the carvings of the early Greeks.

The fans, too, are worthy of note. The "shut-up" patterns are carried in beautifully embroidered cases, hanging at the side, while some beautiful feather fans of incurved stork quills have hand-painted flowers and birds on the inner and curved side and beautiful fluffy plumage on the outer.

MOVIE ACTORS HAD ADVENTURES ON RANGE

A. C. Klein of Virginia, Minn., who was at the Spalding yesterday, says he doesn't want to ever become a movie actor. He was on the range when the Essanay players were taking views for "Beyond the Law," the plot of which was taken from "The Snow Burner," and he tells how Marguerite Clayton fell 150 feet from the top of the hill between Virginia and Eveleth and escaped serious injury only by falling into a deep snowdrift. It was not intended she should fall so far, but she got started and could not be stopped until she struck "terra firma." This is only one of the many thrilling incidents of the picture, he said.

Mr. Klein says it is some hardship to live in the same hotel with movie actors, especially those who are used to taking outdoor scenes. He says they can stand more cold than an Esquimo.

Theater Gossip.

William Farnum is always interesting on the screen. This popular $100,000-a-year actor always has a play written especially for him, and a good one. Like "Fighting Blood," appearing at the Lyric and running until Tuesday night, the William Fox plays in which Farnum appears are written to suit this dependable actor.

FARNUM SCORES AT THE LYRIC.

As Lem Hardy in this powerful story of the lumber camps of the Kentucky mountains, Mr. Farnum is excellent. It is understood that a long list of good plays are being worked out for William Farnum—the man who loves the country and outdoor life so much better than indoors and the cities—and that throughout this season he is to be seen at the Lyric several more times. But "Fighting Blood" will always be remembered as one of the best possible vehicles for his extraordinary and winning powers as an actor.

* * *

Regardless of the big snow storm last evening, capacity houses filled the Zelda theater.

CROWDS GREET NEW ZELDA PLAY.

Marguerite Snow is the headline attraction. Miss Snow is featured in Metro's late release, "The Upstart," which is a comedy-drama in five acts with the divorce question as the subject matter.

Miss Snow is seen in the role as the minister's wife and Mr. Le Guere, who has the leading male part as a young man who has become obsessed with a strange divorce theory. The story has a sustained interest throughout.

This feature is a picturization of the play of the same name by Thomas Berry, which just completed a successful run at the Maxine Elliott theater in New York city.

"The Upstart" will show today and tomorrow for the last times. Coming to the Zelda Wednesday for three days will be the great emotional star, Nance O'Neil, in "Souls in Bondage."

* * *

Singing, dancing and nonsensical mirth all have a prominent part in this week's bill at the popular New Grand. Every act on the bill is said to be classy, full of "pep" and to contain just the right ingredients to make excellent entertainment.

NEW SHOW AT THE GRAND.

The Four Reenee Girls topline in their latest singing and dancing scenic revue, "Through Five Centuries in Song and Terpsichore." The changes include Italy, France, Holland, Egypt and "Ragtimeland." Each change is provided with special scenery and costumes to fit the songs and dances of the land represented.

A spring of mirth bubbling with good, wholesome laughs is Frank Ward. Black and white funsters are Reed and Paden, who offer a repertoire of songs, dialogue and some new steps.

"Between Trains" is a drama of domestic strife, replete with repartee and many ludicrous situations, interpreted by an able cast of players.

"Beyond the Laws," a three-reel story of the North woods, featuring E. H. Calvert and Margaret Clayton headlines among the photodramas. The scenes of this photoplay were taken around Virginia, Minn., and among the mining and logging camps near there by the Essanay company about a month ago.

"Love and Lather," a comedy, and "The Burglar's Dilemma," a drama, are other interesting film stories on the program.

Tomorrow and Wednesday another of the popular Stingaree stories will be added to the bill.

E. P. Bacon's Will.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 6.—With the exception of $35,000 or $40,000 to church purposes and relatives the late Edward P. Bacon leaves his estate to his immediate family of a widow and son and daughter. As there was no petition accompanying the will, value of the estate cannot be announced.

WANT MORE TIME AT HOME

One Day a Week With Families Not Enough, Say Firemen.

Petitions for Double Platoon System Being Circulated.

Duluth firemen believe that twenty-four hours out of seven days is not enough for a man to spend with his family, and intitiative petitions are now being circulated in the city to secure the double platoon system, already in vogue in thirty of the leading cities of the country. Already 1,200 names have been secured for the petitions and many of the leading business men of Duluth have volunteered their services in circulating petitions.

The firemen as a whole are apparently behind the movement, and the fact that they already have nearly half enough signers, will make it comparatively easy to secure the remainder of the required signers. Twenty per cent of the legal voters are required for the petitions, but firemen aver, that it will be possible to secure a larger number of names.

The firemen want the city commission to take early action in the matter. The conditions of the service could be made far better at little expense, they say. As it is firemen are given only one day a week to spend at home. During the other six days they must spend twenty-four hours at the fire station. They say this is a great hardship on them and on their families and they say it is almost impossible to become acquainted with their children.

Commissioner Silberstein, head of the public safety division, claims the change will involve an expenditure of $40,000 a year, but the men consider this estimate to be much too high.

"If we can get more money appropriated for the fire department, then this double platoon system could be worked out favorably," he said. "I am in favor of it and agree with the men in every respect, but the expenditure of $40,000 is out of the question altogether. Chief Randall and I have both made a careful study of the question and feel that the proposed change will have to wait until an appropriation can be made covering such an expense."

SEVEN-INCH SNOWFALL

Brisk Gale During Night Piles Snow in Huge Drifts.

Up to 1 o'clock this afternoon, seven inches of snow had fallen since the storm began last evening. Five inches fell up to 7 o'clock this morning and in the next five hours two more inches were added. Weather Forecaster Richardson looks for the snow to continue most of the day, but with a change to colder by tonight with a shifting of the wind to the northwest. He also looks for the snow to cease with the shift of the wind.

During the night a northwest wind kept an average velocity of about thirty miles an hour, which caused considerable drifting.

Up to this afternoon no delays have been reported on the Duluth street railway. The railroads have suffered no delays as yet.

It is agreed by all traction officials that if the storm should keep up much longer, there would be serious delay, as the snow is unusually heavy and drifts quickly.

Fortunately the weather was not cold. The lowest it got during the last twenty-four hours, up to 7 o'clock this morning was 15 degs. above zero at 7 o'clock last night, and it had risen to 20 degs. above at 7 o'clock this morning.

The snowy conditions existed from the lakes to the Pacific coast, the precipitation being in the form of rain beyond the mountains, and extended from Wisconsin and Iowa up to the Canadian provinces. The coldest recorded in the Northwest during the night was 6 degs. below, at Medicine Hat, this morning, but generally speaking, temperatures were higher than that.

It is expected that the weather will turn a shade colder tonight, Weather Forecaster Richardson says, and that the wind will shift to the northwest. However, he adds, a "low" to the westward, will keep the temperatures from tumbling into the cellar.

DAY IN CONGRESS

SENATE.

Debate on Shields water power bill was continued.

Indian committee resumed consideration of appropriation bill.

HOUSE.

Rules committee considered a rule on the McLemore resolution.

Admiral Fletcher testified before the naval affairs committee.

FISHERIES HAVE PROFITABLE YEAR

Enormous Gain in Net Profits Reported By Booth Company.

Profitable operations were reported by the Booth Fisheries company during 1915, and the outlook for the present year is regarded as still more encouraging.

Net profits of the year from operation were reported at $1,042,770.52, and after allowing for interest on debenture bonds, reserves for depreciation and sinking funds, and dividends amounting to $180,000 paid on preferred stock, a surplus of $168,651.84 was carried forward. That compared with $29,391.15 in 1914.

During the period from April 1, 1911, to Jan. 1, 1916, there was charged to capital expenditures $3,362,365.96, of which $1,801,561.56 was paid from profits and cash resources.

The net earnings of the Booth Fisheries company for the six years, 1910 to 1915 inclusive, have been as follows: 1910, $996,138.47; 1911, $718,904.49; 1912, $1,050,546.16; 1913, $779,610.63; 1914, $921,488.66, and 1915, $1,042,770.52. The average for the six years was $918,-248.49.

The annual meeting of the company will be held in Chicago on Tuesday, April 11 next.

INDOOR GAMES ARE POPULAR IN CLOQUET

Boys of the Y. M. C. A. Are Taking Part in Many Contests.

Cloquet, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The boys are taking more interest than ever in their indoor games in the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A. Several good scores have been hung up for the week and new teams have been formed. Walter Huseby hung up high score since the first of the year yesterday, when he bowled 231, which has only been beaten once on the alleys this winter, when Emmett McCarthy bowled 232 during the Christmas holiday. Saturday evening the Episcopal Boys' club and the Presbyterian Boys' club bowled a very exciting game on the alleys which resulted in a victory to the former team by a score of 765 to 652. Following are the boys who took part in the Episcopal team and their scores: Lloyd Coathup, 178; Carl Elm, 148; Elwin Johnson, 139; Robert Case, 162, and Zeph Lane, 143. The Presbyterian boys were: Lea Redfield, 128; Vernon Shampine, 144; Waldron Davis, 90; Walter Huseby, 143, and Eldon Gamble, 147. The Junior Boys' club met in their clubrooms Friday to make plans for the coming summer, and while no definite plans were formed another meeting will be held in the near future, when they will be completed.

Many Attended Last Month.

Although January is the shortest month of the year it was also the banner month for attendance, 1,587 members and 154 visitors during the month. More activities and greater interest in the indoor sports, have been shown of late, which is partly due to the continued cold weather and partly to the winter season nearing the end, and also to the effort of the boys' secretary, F. H. Armstrong, in making the "Y" the boys social center of the city.

"GRANDPA" GRIFFIN, OLD CLOQUET CITIZEN, DIES

Cloquet, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Alva Griffin, age 84, died Saturday evening at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. Anthony McKale, of the infirmities of old age. Mr. Griffin was born in Pennsylvania and lived there until nearly grown, when he moved onto a farm at Sherman, N. Y., where he was married to Miss Betsy Ann Eads. Two children were born, a Mrs. Brown and a son, Charles. At 40 Mr. Griffin moved to Michigan, where his wife died fourteen years ago, and then came to Cloquet, where he has since resided with his grandson, Claude Brown, and granddaughter, Mrs. A. McKale.

"Grandpa" Griffin, as he was familiarly called, was known by all the men who worked in the eastern part of the town, and when they did not see him around, it was a common thing to ask where he was, as he considered it an insult if not spoken to.

He will be buried tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the First M. E. church beside his daughter, Mrs. Brown, who died about seven years ago, in the local cemetery, Rev. H. H. Parish officiating. The only living relatives known of are his grandchildren, Claude Brown and Mrs. A. McKale, both of Cloquet.

CLOQUET NOTES.

Cloquet, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—J. H. Hinton, special claim agent of the interior department who has been adjusting claims for several Indian heirs on the Fond du Lac reservation for the past six months left yesterday morning for the state of Washington.

O. B. Elfes transacted business in the Zenith City yesterday.

A. C. Masters of Chicago, who has been here for a few days on business with the local branch of the Rathborne, Hair & Ridgway Co., returned yesterday.

J. E. Diesen left last evening on a business trip to Mahnomen county.

The Bible school workers of the Presbyterian church will meet at the church parlors Wednesday evening.

Nearly 150 people went to Duluth Saturday to see the "Bird of Paradise" at the Lyceum.

Mr. Batzner of Minneapolis spent the week end with friends in the city.

The Young Peoples Society of the Norwegian Lutheran church will meet tonight in the church parlors, and the following program will be rendered: Vocal solo, Miss Lillian Helgeson; piano solo, Miss Muriel Redfield; song, by the church quartet; discussion, "A Woman's Choice of a Husband," Mrs. Peter Olesen, Miss Amanda Hanson and Miss Retta Bede. After the entertainment refreshments will be served by Miss Belva Olson.

The Ladies' Aid of the First M. E. church will meet at the home of Mrs. W. J. Peters tomorrow afternoon at which time the regular missionary meeting will take place. Mrs. G. W. Cross will read a paper on "The Indian."

Bismarck's Gas Plant.

Bismarck, N. D., March 6. — Bismarck's first gas plant will be in operation, supplying consumers, by the first of December, if plans announced by Frank A. Ployar of Valley City do not go astray. Mr. Ployar has been in the city making arrangements for the beginning of construction work on the plant. A site was tentatively selected on the Northern Pacific right-of-way, in the eastern part of the city.

FIRE AT ROOMING HOUSE.

Lodgers Routed From Rooms By Afternoon Blaze.

Fire of unknown origin starting in the walls of a rooming house at the northwest corner of Second avenue east and Second street, caused damage amounting to about $2,000 Saturday afternoon. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

Although several persons, in the house at the time of the fire, were driven to the street by the flames, most of the roomers who made their home there were away at the time.

The fire had gained considerable headway by the time apparatus arrived, loss on the building being estimated at $1,200. Personal property loss was estimated at $500.

The building is owned by James Crawford and is occupied by Mrs. J. J. Sullivan.

LAKE WATER LEVELS.

Lake Superior Higher Than the Average Stage for February.

The United States lake survey reports the stages of the Great Lakes for the month of February, 1916, as follows:

Lakes—	Feet Above Mean Sea Level.
Superior	602.44
Michigan-Huron	579.47
Erie	571.99
Ontario	246.41

Lake Superior is .15 foot lower than last month, .75 foot higher than a year ago .70 foot above the average stage of February of the last ten years, .04 foot below the high stage of February, 1901, and 1.68 feet above the low stage of February, 1871. During the last ten years the February level has averaged .2 foot lower than the January level and .2 foot higher than the March level.

Lakes Michigan-Huron are .25 foot higher than last month, .09 foot lower than a year ago, .53 foot below the average stage of February of the last ten years, 3.25 feet below the high stage of February, 1886, and .3 foot above the low stage of February, 1896. During the last ten years the February level has averaged about the same as the January level and about the same as the March level.

Lake Erie is .31 foot higher than last month, .63 foot higher than a year ago, .31 foot above the average stage of February of the last ten years, 1.76 feet below the high stage of February, 1863, and 1.36 feet above the low stage of February, 1902. During the last ten years the February level has averaged .1 foot lower than the January level and .1 foot lower than the March level.

Lake Ontario is .36 foot higher than last month, .42 foot higher than a year ago, .31 foot below the average stage of February of the last ten years, 2.26 feet below the high stage of February, 1886, and 2.42 feet above the low stage of February, 1897. During the last ten years the February level has averaged .2 foot higher than the January level and .2 foot lower than the March level.

PREMIUMS FAR EXCEED LOSSES

Minnesota citizens paid for fire insurance in 1915 the sum of $8,324,856.90 The companies in the same period paid them $4,908,101.34, the latter figure representing the aggregate of adjusted losses.

Mr. Works said there had been a reduction in cost of insurance, which he hoped would be further reduced the coming year as the result of the order placing rates in the state on a basis. The average premium rate in 1915 was $1.25 a $100 of insurance compared with $1.30 in 1914.

The premium total collected by mutual fire insurance companies in Minnesota in 1915, not including the farmers' mutuals, was $606,094.25, and the losses of $640,713.73, as compared with premiums of $640,713.47 in 1914 and losses of $368,491.84.

Interinsurance exchanges in 1915 collected $69,859.13 and paid losses of $1,440.21, as compared with $88,528.97 in 1914 and losses paid $19,834.73.

Nominate Newspaper Men.

St. Cloud, Minn., March 6.—Without their knowledge the names of five local newspaper men have been filed with the city clerk as candidates for councilmen: C. F. Macdonald, editor of the Daily Times; Fred Schilplin, business manager of the Daily Times; Alvah Eastman, editor of the Journal-Press; H. Z. Mitchell, city editor of the Journal-Press, and George L. Rosenberger, business manager of Der Nordstern. The foregoing names are the only names that have been presented to City Clerk Magnuson so that if none withdraw their election is assured, as the time of turning in petitions expired Friday night.

More Than Pleasant Taste

should be demanded in a table beverage.

Coffee—for example—may possess a pleasing flavour for some, but it contains a most harmful element—caffeine, a subtle, cumulative drug, the continued use of which frequently leads to various diseases of the kidneys, liver and other vital organs, and sometimes to premature old age. Among the symptoms of caffeine poisoning are headache, nervousness, biliousness, sleeplessness, heart-flutter, "brain-fag," and so on.

Any coffee drinker who is ailing had better quit the coffee—tea also—and use the delicious cereal beverage.

INSTANT POSTUM

Postum is made of entire wheat roasted with a small portion of wholesome molasses. Tastes much like mild Java coffee, but contains not a particle of coffee, or caffeine or any other harmful substance. Just the goodness of the grain.

Postum comes in two forms: The original Postum Cereal—must be boiled; Instant Postum—soluble—is made in the cup with hot water, instantly. Equal in delicious flavour, and the cost is about the same per cup.

Thousands are benefitting by a change to Postum and

"There' a Reason"

Sold by Grocers everywhere.

Send a 2c stamp for 5-cup sample of Instant Postum to Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich.

Rich Yet Delicate—
Clean and Full of Aroma.

"SALADA" B109

is blended from selected hill-grown teas, famed for their fine flavoury qualities. Imitated yet never equalled.

THE EDEN ELECTRIC WASHING & WRINGING MACHINE

This Is Your Opportunity—

$10.00 DOWN and $5.00 PER MONTH WILL PLACE THE EDEN IN YOUR HOME.

We will demonstrate how the Eden saves you hours of back-breaking drudgery.

Makes your washable clothes last four or five times as long.

Pays for itself out of the money it saves you.

Don't let another washday pass without taking advantage of this generous offer.

Step into our store and let us explain the superiority of the Eden Electric Washing Machine.

During the month of March we offer to all purchasers of an Eden the opportunity of paying $10 on receipt of machine, balance to be paid at monthly payments of $5.

Kelley HARDWARE CO. 118 & 120 WEST SUPERIOR ST. DULUTH, MINN.

Armour's STAR THE HAM WHAT AM

In the Stockinet Covering

An exclusive Armour feature. Pat. applied for.

The spicy richness of Armour's mild Star cure is intensified by smoking in the Stockinet Covering—Armour's way of retaining the rich natural juices and improving the flavor. The Oval Label identifies it as Armour's best.

Buy the ham whole and remove the Stockinet yourself. If your dealer cannot supply you, phone us his name.

The best of all Armour Products bear the Oval Label
Armour's QUALITY PRODUCTS
Try These:
Star Bacon
"Simon Pure" Leaf Lard
Devonshire Farm Sausage
Armour's Grape Juice
Veribest Butter
Glendale Oleomargarine (Nature's Color)
Silver Churn Oleomargarine (White)
And over 100 Armour Foods.

338

ARMOUR & COMPANY
DULUTH, MINN.
J. C. Fisher, Manager. Phones—Mel. 2206; Grand 251

There's an Armour Oval Label store near you.

THE DULUTH HERALD

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

Published every evening except Sunday by The Herald Company at Duluth, Minn.

Both Telephones—Business Office, 324; Editorial Rooms, 1126.

Entered as second-class matter at the Duluth postoffice under the act of congress of March 3, 1870.

OFFICIAL PAPER, CITY OF DULUTH

SUBSCRIPTION RATES—By mail, payable in advance, one month, 35 cents; three months, $1; six months, $2; one year, $4; Saturday Herald, $1 per year; Weekly Herald, $1 per year.

Daily by carrier, city and suburbs, 10 cents a week, 45 cents a month

Subscribers will confer a favor by making known any complaint of service.

When changing the address of your paper, it is important to give both old and new addresses.

The Duluth Herald accepts advertising contracts with the distinct guarantee that it has the largest circulation in Minnesota outside the Twin Cities.

The Herald will be glad to have its attention called to any misleading or untrue statement which may appear in its news, editorial or advertising columns.

TODAY IN HISTORY.

Dred Scott decision, 1857.

Dred Scott, a Missouri slave, was taken by his owner in 1834 to Illinois, where slavery was prohibited, and in 1836 into what is now Minnesota, also free soil. In Minnesota Scott married a slave, the property of his owner, and in 1838 Scott, his wife and a child that had been born on free soil were returned to Missouri, a slave state. In 1848 Scott sued for freedom, helped by Abolitionists, claiming that he lost his status as a slave by going into free territory. The Missouri supreme court held that his return to Missouri made him a slave again, as did the Federal circuit court. The case went up to the United States supreme court, which in a decision handed down by Justice Roger B. Taney not only held against Scott, but going further declared that the Missouri compromise was unconstitutional, and that congress had no right to forbid a citizen to take slaves or any other property into a territory. This was a great "victory" for slavery, but a costly one, as it fanned the flames soon to bathe the land in fire and consume forever the institution of chattel slavery.

READING available in Duluth public library)—Samuel Tyler, Memoir of Roger B. Taney (chiefly comments on Taney's decision, scholarly but strongly biased); Nicolay and Hay, Abraham Lincoln; James Ford Rhodes, History of the United States.

ANOTHER TEUTON GLORY TALE.

Britain is mistress of the seven seas.

And yet so far in twenty months of war the glory tales of sea exploits are mainly told in German.

It is true that the British navy keeps the German navy safe in harbor and has driven the German merchant marine off the seas. Yet this is humdrum for folk lore purposes, compared to the exploits of German sea raiders.

Yesterday the mysterious converted cruiser "Moewe" returned safely to a German port. She had captured or sunk fifteen vessels and had laid mines, one of which, it is asserted, sank a British warship. She had sent prizes and prisoners to several neutral ports. She brought as spoils of war four British officers, twenty-nine British sailors and marines, 166 merchant sailors, and a million marks in gold. In some way she had finally dashed through the British cordon that fills Germany's sea routes, and brought herself and her crew home in safety to add a new page to the glory-book of German sea exploits and to receive their iron crosses.

It's a spectacular and picturesque piece of business that must cheer German hearts mightily.

By the way, did you see any jitneys with snow plows attached to help clean passage ways through the streets?

BRANDEIS.

Certain interests, greatly concerned in the integrity of the supreme court of the United States,—perhaps for the good of the nation, perhaps not,—have been going over Mr. Brandeis's record with a fine-tooth comb. The comb is pushed with amazing energy by hate and fear, with some evidences of venom.

When the smoke of it clears away, Brandeis will be discovered pretty well intact, little harmed by the process.

How many active lawyers of sixty could stand it so well? How many active lawyers of sixty would care to have THEIR careers scrutinized so closely and with such unfriendly zeal? Many, we hope; not so many, we fear.

And if any other man nominated by the president of the United States ever has had to undergo such an acid test, we don't remember having heard or read of it.

Brandeis stands pretty well with those with whom we would wish him to stand well. He stands well with the people, whom he has served well. He stands well with the vast majority of those who know him best and most intimately. He stands poorly indeed with those whose corns of privilege he has set the heavy heel of social service upon; and that's about as high a recommendation as any he has had.

There are eleven members of the faculty of Harvard law school, which is in Mr. Brandeis's own neighborhood. Nine of the eleven approve the appointment. One other has been too long out of the country to express an opinion. One only opposes him. The nine who approve are fine men—not the men to recommend a rascal for the supreme court. One of them is Roscoe Pound, of whom the New Republic says: "He is undoubtedly the most important figure today in the field of jurisprudence, a scholar of international reputation, a man of wide experience both as practitioner and judge, an expert in valuing professional and judicial fitness and capacity."

And these Harvard law professors ought to know Brandeis. He was graduated from Harvard with the most brilliant record ever attained in the history of the school, and he has ever since been cherished as one of its ablest sons. He was at one time called to its faculty, and for more than a quarter of a century he has been a member of the committee appointed by the Harvard governing body to visit and supervise the work of the law school.

It would be strange indeed if a man who has had during his active life such confidence and respect as this should have been the man his bitter enemies are striving to make him out to be.

But no friend of Brandeis need worry. Nothing in all his career becomes him better and graces him more than the enemies he has made. He will be cleared and confirmed, and he will sit upon the bench of the highest court. Privilege will gnash its teeth in vain.

The man who took off his snow shovel now realizes his mistake.

PARTIES AND NATIONAL HONOR.

The disinterested public, largely freed from partisan prejudices, will have its opinion, no doubt, of those who seek to make party capital out of foreign relations of a very delicate nature and possessing their elements of national peril.

One of those guilty of this thing is the News Tribune, which quotes The Herald's condemnation of those whom the president caught playing peanut politics and then says that they were Democrats and therefore the Republican party will be returned to power.

Some of them WERE Democrats, and they are no credit to the Democratic party. But surely the News Tribune must have missed reading the roll call in the senate. Otherwise it would know that of the fourteen senators who voted against America and for the kaiser and his submarines only two were Democrats and twelve were Republicans—and one of them a Republican who is a candidate for president, and whom the News Tribune at last accounts was supporting for the Republican nomination.

There would be solid reason behind a theory that Frank Kellogg induced Senator Clapp to vote as he did on the tabling of the anti-president resolutions.

REDEEM THE MILITIA FROM STRIKE-BREAKING IGNOMINY.

It is settled now, seemingly, that the national guard—the militia—will be the basis, at least, of the country's new reserve army. That's as it should be.

But one vitally important duty remains to the states, besides co-operating with the government to make the militia as strong and efficient as it ought to be.

That duty is to rid the militia of the infamy of being used by employers to crush strikes.

Violence and disorder must be kept down, but that is police duty. The national guard should not be made a police force. If state policemen are needed, create a state police force; it may come in handy anyway.

But no military force can become of much consequence when it has labor's enmity. The militia has labor's enmity because it has been used so many times unfairly to labor's disadvantage. The workingman does not care to join a force, or to have his son join a force, that may be turned against his fellow workers any day to balk their efforts for self-betterment. And in that he is right.

Every state should relieve its militia of strike duty at once. That is the state's first step in co-operation with the nation to make the militia an effective national defense.

Some Chicagoans are saying mean things about partisan politics. Chicago shouldn't forget that it was partisan politics that gave her the famous Hinky Dink and Bathhouse John.

THE POISON OF TEDDYMANIA.

Surely nobody can observe the present conduct of some of the most notable 1912 followers of Theodore Roosevelt—for instance, the extravagantly militaristic ideas held by such newspapers as the Chicago Tribune and the Kansas City Star, Roosevelt's most eminent newspaper supporters—without realizing that Roosevelt is the most baleful and dangerous influence that has been let loose upon this land in all its history. Baleful because his military ideas would throw this country into every available vortex of war and turn a peaceful Republic into a menacing world power; dangerous because of his unquestionable power to influence men's opinions.

There are a lot of people who won't really worry about the effects of the war until the lack of dyestuffs begins to show up in the cigarette labels.

A New Lincoln Story.

Brooklyn Eagle: The man who tells this new story of Abraham Lincoln is a native of San Francisco and was a soldier in Washington. He was on guard at the White House. One cold winter's day the president started out for a walk all alone. It was bitterly cold.

The guard, who tells the story, was standing in front of his guardhouse, shivering in the blast of wind. Along came Lincoln.

The soldier brought his musket to a salute and Lincoln returned it. Then the president turned to him and said:

"My man, why don't you stand inside, out of the wind?"

"Can't do it, Mr. President. It's against orders!"

"But you're freezing out there and there's no sense to it!"

"It's the general's orders that none of us stay inside the guardhouse when on duty, Mr. President."

Mr. Lincoln muttered something about "damn fool orders" and started off. He got about fifty feet and suddenly wheeled about and returned to the guard. He paused a moment and, looking the guard in the eye with a sort of humorous twinkle in his own, said very slowly:

"According to my understanding of the Constitution, in time of war the president is commander-in-chief of both the army and the navy!"

The guard nodded perplexedly.

"Well, then, as president of the United States and as commander-in-chief of the armies of the United States, I countermand that order and order you inside that guardhouse!"

The president waited until the guard saluted and stepped into the guardhouse, and then stalked off, wagging his head.

Two Kinds of Patriotism

D. C. Blaisfield in the New York World.

You have been very generous to Mr. Root in seeking to ascribe to his words a meaning consistent with a purpose other than a partisan one. There are many kinds of patriots. Mr. Root is undoubtedly, in some sort, a patriot. But that he is the kind of patriot, who, cutting loose from all ties of a local, factional, racial or religious nature, seeks to serve only the common life of the country, there is but little evidence.

It is true that during his term in the senate he seems to have sought to efface the memory of his long career as an attorney of big corporations and organizer of trusts. He made some addresses pitched in a lofty key, which were read everywhere with pleasure. If, in his recent speech at the Republican state convention, he had first laid a foundation of fairness and generous recognition of the great qualities of the man he was about to attack, if he had given due credit to Wilson for the idealism that destroyed Huerta and sought to lend a helping hand to the Mexican people in their efforts to obtain some share in their own government, if he had shown some appreciation of the sweep and trend of Wilson's Pan-American policy, if he had pointed out the undoubted achievements of his administration in our domestic relations and what has actually been accomplished in our controversies with European countries by his diplomacy, he could then have gone on and pointed out wherein, in his opinion, he had fallen short and what further should have been done to discharge our obligations under all the circumstances, and the whole country would have listened and weighed his words.

As it is, he made a speech which is impressive because of its beautiful dress and which will confuse and mislead some, but which, for the most part, will only serve to convince that order of Republicans who think it a sacrilege that any other than themselves should have a voice in the administration of our national government.

Of the higher and nobler patriotism—the only true patriotism—there are some conspicuous examples in our country's history. That of President Wilson himself is one. He has made partisan speeches at partisan gatherings. But where questions of national import have been up for settlement he has never reinforced his arguments by impugning the motives of his adversaries; nor has he sought to identify the issues involved with party advantage. In his writings and in his public acts he has sought to represent the average man, who is the bone and sinew of our democracy, but who too often is not represented at the seats of the mighty. He has taught us to think in terms of America and not in terms of any other country whatsoever. He has kept before his countrymen the conception that America has her own great mission to fulfill. She is still the haven of the oppressed and the world's reservoir of democracy. She is still to pursue the course charted for us from the time of Washington on. If we are to draw the sword it will not be on this side or on that, nor as an appendage to any of the belligerents in the European conflict, but it will be in the defense of our own national polity and in the interests of that law which must eventually adjudge between the fighting nations.

Because of these things and because of the spirit of the man and of his intense desire to serve the American people and to exalt America in the ways of justice and of righteousness, and as an example of high and noble conduct, more than because of his intellect and learning and the actual accomplishments of his administration, Wilson will, in my opinion, go into history by the side of Washington and Lincoln as one of the three greatest Americans.

Waiting for the Answer

New York World: James J. Hill has ended his latest visit to the East by asking and leaving behind for answer this question:

> Many people here want a high protective tariff to protect us against the flood of European goods after the war is over, but if her products are kept out of our markets, how can Europe buy and pay for our goods? This is a problem that requires very careful consideration if we are to retain the strong position as the storehouse for the world which we now occupy.

The World has repeatedly asked the same question, but the answer, if there is one, is held back by the gentlemen who are crying out for more tariff against the day when Europe may have as great a need of drawing upon the American storehouse for purposes of rehabilitation as now for purposes of sustenance in the work of destruction.

Perhaps Mr. Hill can succeed where the World has failed. To the official custodians of the special knowledge going to make up the awaited answer—to the Home Market Club of Boston and the American Protective Tariff League of New York—Mr. Hill may appeal more powerfully as a recognized fellow business man who revels in hard facts and abhors mere theories. They are in possession of this cherished secret if anybody is. Will they not disclose it to a waiting world?

The Remedy for the Pork Barrel.

The World's Work: We shall go on wasting money in pork barrel appropriations until we adopt some system of responsible government. It is inconceivable that the executive department, if given authority to develop our waterways on commercial grounds, would undertake—for example—the absurd waterways expenditures. Only the greed of districts which are thinking, not of the national interests, but of purely local and temporary profits, can prostitute popular government in this fashion.

A Dry Moratorium.

Washington Star: "How did Crimson Gulch happen to vote for prohibition?"

"Well," replied Three-Finger Sam, "so many of the boys got tired of owin' money to the saloons that they thought the best thing to do was to put 'em out of business."

Rippling Rhymes

By Walt Mason

The Hermit.

Old Hunx is a hermit and mystic, his manner is stately and grave, his diet is antiphlogistic, he spends all his years in a cave. "My health," he remarks, "is a wonder, although I'm as old as get out; rheumatics don't pull me asunder, I have not the stringhalt or gout. I warble my optimist ditties, my soul's full of sunshine and hope; but when I resided in cities, I always was swallowing dope. I always had shingles or colic, or Bright's justly famous disease; the rheumatiz often would frolic all over my fetlocks and knees. If man would keep grief in the distance, and feel like a Percheron steer, he must lead the simple existence, and cut out the urban career." "Methinks," I replied, "you are paying too heavy a price for your bliss; while far from the bright lights you're staying, just think of the fun that you miss! I'd rather have smallpox or bunions, I'd rather have seven-year itch, than fill up with turnips and onions, and live in a cave or a ditch!"

(Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.)

"The Living Law"

Editorial in the Kansas City Star.

One great qualification that Mr. Brandeis has for the supreme court is his familiarity with industrial conditions—with what he has called "the facts of life." The most important questions now coming before the court are those involving, not the interpretation of formal legal principles standing by themselves, but the interpretation of these principles in the light of the conditions of modern life.

Mr. Brandeis himself in Harper's Weekly has called attention to his own point of view by pointing out the changing attitude of courts toward industrial problems. In 1907, for instance, the New York court of appeals held unconstitutional an act prohibiting night work for women. Eight years later it held a similar night work act constitutional. In 1911 in the Ives case, which Col. Roosevelt made famous by his scathing comments on the decision, the court held the first accident compensation act void. It refused, as Mr. Brandeis says, "to consider the facts of life." The decision referred to the report of the commission appointed by the legislature to consider the subject before legislating and said:

> The report is based upon a most voluminous array of statistical tables, extracts from the works of philosophical writers and the industrial laws of many countries, all of which are designed to show that our own system of dealing with industrial accidents is economically, morally and legally unsound. Under our form of government, however, courts must regard all economic, philosophical and moral theories, attractive and desirable though they may be, as subordinate to the primary question whether they can be molded into statutes without infringing upon the letter or spirit of our written Constitutions.

But as a result of the agitation for which Col. Roosevelt was largely responsible, and of the consequent enlightenment of public opinion, the same court four years later held valid the second compensation act and "expressly considered the facts of life" in saying:

> We should consider practical experience, as well as theory, in deciding whether a given plan in fact constitutes a taking of property in violation of the Constitution. A compulsory scheme of insurance to secure injured workmen in hazardous employments and their dependents from becoming objects of charity certainly promotes the public welfare as directly as does an insurance of bank depositors from loss.

This sort of a revolutionary change in the attitude of the courts has been going on to a marked degree in the last decade It is essential that it should go on if American government is not to be strained to the breaking point. For a government that is prevented from recognizing the pressing facts of modern industrial life is bound eventually to give away.

The record of Mr. Brandeis is that of an expert in these very matters in which courts need expert leadership. On the bench the country has reason to believe he would be a powerful exponent of what in his favorite phrase is termed "the living law."

Just a Moment

Daily Strength and Cheer.

Compiled by John G. Quintus, the Sunshine Man.

See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, redeeming time, because the days are evil.—Eph. v, 15, 16.

If we but saw how the gates of opportunity open and close; how the possibilities of today, neglected, become tomorrow the things which never can be done; how unused strength wastes away, and brings up behind it no other strengths; how the grace that lies about all our occasions, ready to flow upon them at the touches of our intelligence—slighted, lifts itself up into the heavens and leaves us in hardness and death; how, on the other hand, when used, it drops upon us like the rain and distills like the dew; how work done makes work easier; how the voluntary use of "all that is within us," and without us, too, of soul and sinew, of love and thought, of time and strength, and hours of prayer, will bring upon us the gentle pressures of God's newest, freshest grace—if we but sow such things as these, what girdings there would be among us!—From "Circling Year."

Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might.—Eccles. ix, 10.

It is a happy thing for us that this is really all we have to concern ourselves about—what is to do next. No man can do the second thing. He can do the first.—George Macdonald.

Wayside roses droop and fade.
Bloom and die their own sweet way;
And know not where their fragrance goes
Floating, floating, day by day.

Pass the foot-sore travelers,
Breathing in the dusty air;
They catch the odor of the flowers,
And bless the grateful perfume there.

Such our lives. Sweet words of kindness
Fall—we know not where or when;
Like the fragrance of the roses,
Reaching far beyond our ken.
—From "Joy and Strength."

Dayton, Ohio.

To Woodrow Wilson

When lofty Washington first ruled the state—
Immaculate, courageous, noble soul—
Not all his virtues could preserve him whole
From the envenomed shafts of Tory hate.

But now, secure from treason's poisoned darts,
Proof against malice and the traitors' rage,
His deeds emblazon "history's purple page,"
His name and fame enshrined in all our hearts.

Not even gentle Lincoln could escape,
Though lightnings flashed and all the tides ran red.
But bowed in patience his devoted head:
A "coward," "weakling," "fool," "poltroon" and "ape."

The yelping pack into oblivion hurled;
None without shame may now recall their names,
While him they bayed all English speech proclaims
"The noblest, gentlest mem'ry of the world."

For you, the equal heir of their estate,
With single aim to do the people's will,
And all the hopes of freemen to fulfill,
Is writ in frenzied lines a hymn of hate.

O strong-winged soul, soar upward to the light
And look with pitying eyes on those below
Whose slanders cannot harm, for well you know
That dogs will bark at eagles in their flight.
—Richard Linthicum in New York World.

What's the Use?

Life: Willis—Why are you so strongly against a larger navy?

Gillis—What's the use of having any at all? Suppose war was declared against us this year. The battleships we built last year are out of date, the ones we are building now wouldn't be finished and the ones we would build next year haven't even been invented yet.

Steps.

Life: "The finances of the republic are no longer to be administered in the interests of the few."—New York World.

That, in contrast with past history, is indeed a step forward. The next step will be to have the finances of the few administered in the interests of the republic.

Keeping Up With Minnesota Editors

Scattered Comments Taken From Minnesota Papers.

Would Half of a Glorious Fourth Be an Inglorious Second?

Faribault Pilot: Several of our national holidays are not generally and appropriately observed by the masses in this country, who cannot afford to sacrifice a day's time. It seems to us that if some of these legal holidays were made half holidays they would be more generally observed by the people.

And He Never Said "Pork" Once.

Karlstad Advocate: Representative Stephens from California has introduced a bill in congress proposing to establish what he calls a national defense highway. It is to start from Los Angeles, Cal., and go through the Western and Southern states, through the New England states and then cross the country back to Los Angeles. Roads are mighty nice things to have, but we feel sure that the immense amount of money it would take to build that highway could be expended to a whole lot better advantage. It's just another scheme to give a few grafters a chance at some more of Uncle Sam's money. The bill should be killed and quickly.

"You Can't Teach an Old Dog New Tricks."

Redwood Falls Sun: If there was more fraternalism and less politics in the state editorial association there would doubtless be a large membership. Bob Dunn, Alva Eastman, Frank Meist, W. E. Verity, Fred Hadley, et al, are mighty good fellows, but they are wire pullers of the old guard.

A Suggestion as to One Holiday.

Baudette Region: Instead of giving the school children a holiday on Washington's birthday, as was done this year, we believe it would be wise to hold exercises when the life and works of the great man could be discussed. The average kid of today knows more about the batting average of Ty Cobb and the hitting ability of Jess Willard than he does about the father of his country. And this same rule applies to the grownups.

A Suggestion to Mr. Congdon.

Princeton Union: Hon. C. A. Congdon delivered a speech in Duluth the other evening in which he strenuously advocated ample preparedness by this country. Mr. Congdon is rich, public-spirited and patriotic. Let him start the movement for preparedness by subscribing $1,000,000 for a public defense fund. Other multi-millionaires will doubtless imitate his example, and $100,000,000 ought to be easily secured. That would pay for eight or ten first-class battleships, and that would help some in repelling a foreign invasion if one were ever attempted.

Wants Only Four Holidays.

Anoka Union: Legal holidays are altogether too numerous in Minnesota. All of them should be eliminated from the statutes, except Fourth of July, Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Years. Holidays interfere with business.

North Dakota Notions

Various Views Expressed by Newspapers of That State.

T. R. in North Dakota.

Valley City Times-Record: Roosevelt probably could not get many votes in this section of the country if he was nominated for the presidency. The claims, whether true or not, that he helped defeat the party at the last election, and that he is a rank militarist are enough to queer his candidacy.

About Weather Forecasts.

Litchville Bulletin: Foster and Ricks predicted a big storm for Saturday. Dozens of people in this town talked about "that big storm" all last week, but the storm failed to come. A long range forecaster knows no more about the weather we are to have next month than you or I. All he does is to make shrewd guesses, based on weather records for a number of years past. Once in a while he cannot help but guess right, but so does grandma when she reads the weather in the moon.

The Philosopher Speaks.

Minot Optic-Reporter: There's some consolation in the fact that the man who has his nose to the grindstone does not have it in someone's else business.

That Other Canal Route.

Jamestown Democrat: Reports that Germany has sought concessions from Nicaragua for the purpose of constructing a canal, while unconfirmed, have been an incentive to immediate possession of the Nicaragua route by the United States. The government and people of this country certainly would not look with favor upon any European government obtaining canal rights in the western hemisphere. Any canal building between the Atlantic and the Pacific must be done by the United States, though the use of all inter-oceanic canals should be placed on exactly equal terms to all nations.

Also the Last Trenches of High Tariff Injustice.

BismarckTribune: Now that the woolen trust has begun to pay dividends on its common stock, prosperity may be said to have stormed the last trenches of pessimism in the Eastern business zone.

History in the Schools.

Fargo Courier-News: We are informed that the study of American history is optional in our high schools. Why is this?

It would appear that any nation would feel the necessity of fully indoctrinating its youth in the facts of national life that they might imbibe the national spirit, and be fit successors to the founders of national institutions.

Next to the "three R's" no study is more essential. We are supposed to make citizens in our public schools. Few children in high school are taught enough to choose intelligently the studies which will be most useful to them. Even if they are, the state which provides education and pays the bill should require training in the basals of civic life.

No child should pass through our high schools without a thorough grounding in United States history; it should be much more thorough than any teaching that is practicable below the ninth grade. In this day of direct primaries and direct legislation any other course is suicidal.

History is the Bible of every nation, and only through an understanding of it can a sound philosophy of government be drawn. No students learn too much of it, and while medieval and foreign history are desirable, the history of our own country is necessary to intelligent citizenship.

"There Never Yet Was Flower Fair."

There never yet was flower fair in vain
Let classic poets rhyme it as they will;
The seasons toll that they may blow again,
And summer's heart doth feel its very ill;

Nor is a true soul ever born for naught;
Wherever any such hath lived and died
There hath been something for true freedom wrought,
Some bulwark leveled on the evil side.

Toll on, then, Greatness! Thou art in the right,
However narrow souls may call thee wrong;
But as thou wouldst be in thine own clear sight,
And so thou shalt be in the world's ere long;

For worldings cannot, struggle as they may,
From man's great soul one great thought hide away.
—James Russell Lowell.

The Boy and the Banker

Editorial in the Dallas News.

There is one feature of a boy's culture, or bringing up, which is as a general rule, given too little attention. This is the matter of teaching him the importance of cultivating the faculty of thriftiness and economy, as well as energy and industry. Pointing out to him and emphasizing the necessity of planning for the future by beginning the saving of at least a part of the money which comes to him, even while but a boy, together with the right sort of advice as to investments and business generally, will serve to save him from many embarrassments which come of being financially helpless upon attaining his majority. Many men who are able to "get along some way" after they have the responsibilities of families upon them realize that much embarrassment, inconvenience of friends and other unpleasant things, naturally coming up as time passes, would have been avoided had they been taught the wisdom of beginning to save to a reasonable extent from their young days. The man who as a boy was impressed with the old adage that "a penny saved is a penny made" finds as he grows older that he did well to act on the idea conveyed; and so as he becomes a young man he saves his dollars as he used to save his dimes, with the result that when he is grown he finds himself equipped with both money and more or less business experience, supplemented by the habit of husbanding his resources.

Of course it is not meant by these suggestions that any one should have the value of money so impressed upon him as to make him a miser. Not at all; for that would be worse than the other extreme. There is a vast difference between stinginess and economy, between stinting and saving; and while inculcating the habit of thriftiness, the distinction should always be emphasized.

Early in his life the boy should make the acquaintance of a good banker. This is best done by starting an account with a bank, even while he is yet saving his nickels and dimes. If he shows himself thrifty and honest, the banker will become his friend, and may prove an invaluable one in the future. As the boy grows older and his account grows larger this banker friend will be very helpful to him as an adviser in his first business ventures or investments, for after one has acquired by savings or otherwise some capital, the next and most important thing is to use it in a wise and judicious way. This his banker friend can help him do as no one else can, and, knowing the young man and his character, his record and the condition and amount of his finances, he will be in a position to judge as to the extent to which credit can be extended him, and will be in a position also to give him such accommodation as he needs. In this way his banker friend is not only his banker and friend, but is in a way—and a most important way, too—realy a partner in his business. The banker being familiar with the business men of the town or city, and knowing the real values of stocks, bonds, shares, negotiable securities and real estate, as well as the reliability of firms, corporations and individuals, is in a position to give advice to his customers when requested to do so; and this advice, especially to a young man, is worth even more in some instances than ordinary banking accommodation.

A boy or young man forming such an acquaintance, and who is himself worthy of the banker's confidence and trust, will find that he not only has some capital to begin with, but also a valuable asset in his reputation for integrity, industry, economy and business worth that will be a source of helpfulness and reassurance during his business life. Such an acquaintance will prove mutually helpful and profitable to him and his banker.

Let the boy and the banker get acquainted.

Germany Does Not Use Belgian Relief Supplies.

Vernon L. Kellogg in the Atlantic: Do the Germans take any of the food imported by the Belgian commission? The answer is simply a plain and positive NO. I declare this of personal knowledge. The German general government of Belgium and the general staff of the armies of the west gave guarantees to the Spanish and American ministers in Brussels and to the commission that none of the food imported by the commission would be requisitioned, or its distribution interfered with in any way by the Germans. And these guarantees have been rigidly lived up to.

Twenty Years Ago

From The Herald of this date, 1896.

•••John Hays Hammond, the American mining engineer who is under bail at Johannesburg, South Africa, on a charge of treason, has cabled to Secretary of State Olney that he is well treated by the Boer government and is confident of acquittal.

•••The "Christian Crusade" is the name suggested by Ballington Booth for the new evangelical movement in the United States which the former commander of the Salvation Army has pledged himself to lead. He will start a paper in opposition to the War Cry.

•••J. Albert Filiatrault of West Duluth has gone to Crookston to engage in the hardware business.

•••At a meeting of Tower citizens interested in immigration, the organization of the Tower Immigration association was perfected. M. F. Marion was elected president, Nels J. Benson secretary, and Judge S. H. Owens treasurer.

•••A. W. Wright, president of the Duluth, Mississippi River & Northern railway, has announced the appointment of F. E. Hixon as general freight and passenger agent and auditor. General Manager J. F. Killorin also announces the completion of the road to Hibbing, thus giving in connection with the Duluth & Winnipeg a direct route from Duluth to that point.

•••Active steps are being taken to push the work of prospecting for iron ore in section 22, 51-14, about two miles north of Woodland. The surface indications and finds to a depth of twenty-five feet, to which test pits have been sunk, disclose large quantities of yellow and red ochre, which is the invariable accompaniment of deposits of soft ores on the Mesaba range.

•••G. H. Feldtman has returned from England, where he has been visiting his family and friends for three months. He is connected with the Isle Royale Land company.

•••Lawrence Harris has taken a position in the bicycle department of the Marshall-Wells Hardware company.

•••W. J. Glonville and wife of Minneapolis arrived yesterday to represent the Order of the World in this city.

•••Duluth temperature at 7 a. m. today, 27; maximum yesterday, 27; minimum yesterday, 26.

•••Mrs. A. A. Auby of West Duluth has joined her husband at Two Harbors, where they will reside in the future.

•••The wedding of Miss Carrie Van Baalen and Charles Freimuth was solemnized on March 4 at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Van Baalen, 19 East Third street. The bride was attended by Miss Mamie Schwartz. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Friedman of Minneapolis.

THE OPEN COURT

(Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the topics of general interest, but discussion of sectarian religious differences are barred. Letters must not exceed 300 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer (though these need not be published). A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

"GOD SAVE WILSON."

To the Editor of The Herald:

"Thank God for Wilson" is fine. God bless the Dayton News. Get more sane stuff into your paper; something that will strike a man, no matter where he or his folks come from. We all came from somewhere. God save Wilson!

A LUMBERJACK.

"The Wilderness," March 3.

MORE ABOUT CITY AUTOS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

A car was selected by the city commission for the use of the commissioners while attending to their duties about the city. This can be accomplished as rapidly and as efficiently with a $1,100 car as with one that cost $2,750.

The commissioners will have something to explain when they are asked what advantage they gained by buying the high-priced car, what better service and how much more efficient its service will be to the city than would one that cost less money.

The difference in price is so great that the question may be raised why it was done, and insofar as the question is raised, would it not be good policy to place the question before some competent body and ask that they investigate the matter, so that all may know the facts in the case?

And, furthermore, would it not be good policy, if our faith in our right to petition remains unshaken, that we should petition the people for the following amendment to the charter?

"Resolved, That whenever the city purchases an automobile for any use other than for fire department trucks and for the various truck service in the city, the same shall be a car not to exceed in price the sum of $450. And also that all cars not used in the aforesaid service be sold at auction to the highest bidder, except those cars now in use that did not exceed in price the sum of $450."

The foregoing would act as a check-rein upon the actions of our high-spirited commissioners, would cause them to keep their feet on Mother Earth, would clip their fairy wings of high finance and would render them much more useful to the people.

P. G. PHILLIPS.

West Duluth, March 3.

POEMS ASKED FOR.

The Herald acknowledges with thanks the receipts of the following:

"The Hat Me Father Wore," from J. M. Holt of Duluth.

"The Flying Cloud" from Mrs. F. La Frenlere of Grand Rapids, Minn.

"The Man Who Fanned Casey" from L. Roe of Hibbing, Minn.

"The Drowning Singer," from "A Subscriber" at Gile, Wis.

Requests have been received for the following:

"In the Garden of My Heart," from "E. S." of Duluth.

"While the Band Was Playing 'Dixie' I was Humming 'Home, Sweet Home,'" from "O. H. B." of Hibbing, Minn.

"Red River Valley," "With All Her Faults I Love Her Still," "Butcher Boy" (beginning "In Jersey City where I did dwell there lives a butcher boy I love so well") and "The Milwaukee Fire" from Mrs. F. La Frenlere of Grand Rapids, Minn.

"A Subscriber" at Gile, Wis., asks for two songs, one containing these words, "If you sing tonight, wear a rose of white, and I'll know I'm forgiven again;" the other, "Think, Oh, think how sad it will be when the angels come to take dear mamma."

The Hat Me Father Wore.

Sure, I'm Paddy Miles, an Irish lad.
Just from across the say;
And for singing or for dancing, boys,
I'm sure I can plase ye.
I can sing or dance with any man,
As I did in the days of yore;
And on Patrick's day I love to wear
The hat me father wore.

Chorus.

Sure, 'tis auld but 'tis beautiful—
The best ye've ever seen.
'Twas worn for more than ninety years
In the little isle so green.
From me father's great ancistors
It's descended with gelore;
'Tis a relic of auld dacency,
Is the hat me father wore.

Sure, I'll bid ye all good evening,
Good luck to ye, I say;
And whin I cross the ocean
I hope for me ye'll pray.
I hope ye'll like auld Erin's style,
You'll greet me more and more,
And welcome me back to Patsy's land
With the hat me father wore.

And whin I do return again
The boys and girls to see,
I hope ye'll like auld Erin—
Ye'll kindly welcome me.
I hope ye'll like auld Erin's style;
Ye'll greet me more an' more,
And make me Irish heart feel glad
With the hat me father wore.

The Man Who Fanned Casey.

I'm just an ordinary fan, and that don't count for much,
But I'm for writing history with a true and honest touch.
It isn't often that I knock, I'll put you next to that;
But I must interpose a word, on Casey
at the bat.

I heard an actor fan recite it, fifteen years ago—
He sort of introduced it in the progress of the show.
It made a hit from gallery, down to the parquet floor,
But now I've got to thinking and that poem makes me sore.

Oh yes, I'll come across—that poem is a beaut.
It's been running through my thinker since our team got on the chute.
I fail to see how any fan could prove so off his nut
About the mighty Casey, who proved himself a mutt.

The score we're told, was 4 to 2, one inning left to play,
Which proved the Slabtown twirler had things coming all his way.
So in the ninth, with two men down,
he loosened up a bit,
And Flynn tore off a single, Blake got loose a two-base hit.

And then from stand and bleachers
there was a mighty roar.
They wanted just that little hit they knew would tie the score.
For there at bat stood Casey, mighty
Casey, Mudville's pride.
But was the Slabtown twirler sent ballooning, terrified?

Now in the ninth, with two men on,
and Casey at the bat,
Most pitchers would have let him
walk, we all are sure of that.
But Hagen was a hero. He was made of sterner stuff.
It's his kind gets the medals and the long newspaper puff.

He stood alone and friendless, in that wild and maddened throng.
He wasn't sure he had one friend to boost his game along.
But back in Slabtown, where they got the plays by special wire,

The fans stood ready, if he won, to set the town on fire.

He knew the time had come when he must play the leading role.
He heard the fans a-yelling, and 'twas music to his soul.
He saw the gleam of confidence in mighty Casey's eye,
And he resolved: "I'll strike him out.
I'll do it, or I'll die!"

Now Hagen poised a moment on the truest corkscrew plan,
And hurled a swift inshoot that cut
the corner of the pan.
But Casey thought the first one pitched would surely be a ball,
And he didn't try to hit it—to the great disgust of all.

Again the Slabtown wizard figures
dope on Mudville's pride:
"He thinks the next will be an out and that it's going wide."
So he just shot through a straight one, to the center of the plate,
And Casey waited for a curve, until it was too late.

And now the mighty slugger is a-hanging on a string.
If another good one comes along it's up to him to swing.
And Hagen saw the jaunty look is gone from Casey's face,
And a look of straining agony is there to take its place.

Now Hagen paused a moment—hides
the ball behind his glove,
And then he drives it from him with a sweeping, full arm shove.
And now the air is rent in twain before the slugger's clip,
For Casey, mighty Casey, hadn't figured on the "spit."

The Flying Cloud.

My name is Edward Hallohan, as you shall understand;
I belong in the county of Waterford, in
Erin's happy land.
When I was young and in my prime,
kind fortune on me smiled;
My parents doted on me—I being their only child.

My father bound me to a trade in
Waterford's own town;
He bound me to a cooper there by the name of William Brown.
I served my master faithfully for eighteen months or more,
When I shipped on board the Ocean
Queen, bound to Bermuda's shore.

When we arrived at Bermuda's shore,
I met with Captain Moore,
The commander of the Flying Cloud,
belonging to Trimore.
So kindly he requested me on a slaving voyage to go,
To the burning coast of Africa, where the sugarcane doth grow.

We all agreed, excepting five, and those we had to land,
Two of them being Boston men and
two from Newfoundland;
The other was an Irishman belonging to Trimore—
Oh, I wish to God I had joined those men and returned with them on shore.

The Flying Cloud was as fine a ship as ever swam the seas,
Or ever hoisted a maintopsail before a lively breeze.
I have ofttimes seen our gallant ship,
as the wind lay abaft her wheel,
With the royal and skysail set aloft,
sail n'neteen by the reel.

Oh, the Flying Cloud was a Spanish ship of five hundred tons or more.
She would outsail any other ship I ever saw before.
Her sails were like the drifting snow—
on them there was no stain,
And eighteen brass nine-pounder guns
she carried abaft her main.

We sailed away without delay till we came to the African shore,
And eighteen hundred of those poor slaves from their native isle sailed o'er.
For we marched them all along our decks and stored them down below
And eighteen inches for a man was all that they could go.

The very next day we sailed away with our cargo of slaves,
'Twould have been much better for those poor slaves had they been in their graves,
For the plague and fever came on board
—swept half of them away.
We dragged the dead up on the decks and threw them in the sea.

We sailed away without delay till we came to the Cuban shore.
We sold them to a planter there to be slaves forevermore;
The rice and coffee fields to hoe beneath the burning sun,
To lead a long and wretched life till their career was run.

And when our money was all gone we put to sea again,
Then Captain Moore, he came on deck
and said to us, his men:
"There's gold and silver to be had, if
with me you will remain;
We will hoist aloft a pirate's flag and we'll scour the raging main."

We robbed and plundered many a ship down on the Spanish main,
And many's the widow and orphan
child in sorrow must remain,
For we made their crews to walk the plank and gave them a watery grave—
For the saying of our captain was, "A dead man tells no tales."

At length to Newgate we were brought,
bound down in iron chain,
For robbing and plundering merchant ships down on the Spanish main.
It was drinking and bad company that made this wretch of me.
Now let young men a warning take—
and a curse to piracy.

Beat High Prices Next Fall.

Buy winter suits and overcoats now at half price at the Big Duluth.

TEXAS SWELTERS WITH TEMPERATURE OF 95

Dallas, Tex., March 6.—Temperatures ascended by leaps and bounds in the southwest during the last forty-eight hours, with the result that the residents of many cities took their Sunday promenades in the thinnest of summer clothes. The most remarkable performance by the mercury was reported from Gainesville, Tex., which sweltered in a temperature of 95 degs., a rise of 63 degs. in thirty-six hours.

The mean temperature in North Texas yesterday was 82 degs., the highest ever known at this season of the year, according to local weather bureau records.

Central Oklahoma reported a variation in temperature of 72 degs. in fifty-five hours.

HARD TIMES DANCE.

Camels Fine Those Appearing in Finery at Party on Saturday Night.

Stiff collars and shined shoes were strictly taboo Saturday at Camel hall, 12 East Superior street, when the military branch of the Camels of the World gave a "hard times" dance.

Fines were assessed on dancers who wore anything but old clothes, and more than $2 at 5 cents a fine, was collected in that way.

Dancing began at 9 o'clock and ended at midnight. At 11 o'clock the guests filed past the judges' stand and a committee consisting of Harry Wood and George Rubly awarded first prizes as follows: Women's first prize, Alvina Burgar; second, Viola Simons; men's first prize, Arthur McKenzie; second, Frank Hayes.

The committee in charge of the dance consisted of Martin Johnson and L. N. Brown.

APPLY Q-BAN TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

It Is Harmless, No Dye, But Darkens All Your Gray Hair So Evenly No One Can Tell.

Whenever your hair falls out or takes on that dull, lifeless, faded, streaked or gray appearance, simply shampoo hair and scalp a few times with Q-Ban Hair Color Restorer. All your gray hair then turns a beautiful dark shade, and entire head of hair becomes evenly dark, wavy, soft, fluffy, abundant, thick and charming—just as hair appeared when you were 16 or 18 years old, with not even a trace of gray remaining. Q-Ban is a ready-to-use delightful hair color restorer, perfectly harmless, but applied two or three times a week, besides darkening gray hair, makes scalp healthy and clean. Stops dandruff and falling hair and promotes its growth. Give it a trial. Sold on a money-back guarantee. Only 50c for a big 7-oz. bottle at Orpheum Pharmacy, Duluth, Minn. Out-of-town folks supplied by mail.

HEALTH TALKS

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

Proof of the Pudding

WILLIAM BRADY M.D.

A friend of ours, who is manager for a string of insurance offices a thousand miles from here, drops in occasionally for an endurance test—in conversation. Because of long practice and the nature of his calling he generally wins. But the other day when he called we were pained and alarmed to note that he has been taking on considerable weight, and he complained of funny little shooting pains here and there, sometimes around the region of the heart, again over the epigastrium, in the back under the shoulder blades, up the back of the neck. Also, he confessed, there was a great deal of gas, frequent sour stomach, tendency to biliousness and more or less vague abdominal discomfort at irregular times.

Now our friend is much in contact with medical examiners in his district and he is familiar with his own and other people's interior anatomy. Moreover, he prides himself upon his fine health, his endurance and his physical strength. For our part, we make no boast of physical perfection, but we do endeavor, insofar as may be seemly, to practise what we preach, and if our preaching isn't all merely vociferation, as our friend stoutly maintains, we ought to keep in fair physical condition.

Well, having talked us to a standstill he got gay and challenged us to a physical test. He tried the hand dynomanometer first and pushed her up to 180 pounds—his weight. We modestly stopped at 200 pounds, thirty-five pounds more than our weight. Nothing daunted, our adversary peeled off his coat and did the hand-and-toe raise—letting his body down so that the nose touched the floor and up again with arms extended—fifteen times hand running. We went to twenty. This somewhat excited our friend—he wanted to know if there was anything we were good at. So we accommodatingly suggested a breath-holding contest. Anybody can beat an insurance agent at holding breath.

He stuck it out for thirty seconds. He tried three times, and thirty seconds was his limit. Our limit was forty-five seconds without forced breathing as a preparation.

Enough. We took the poor, trembling, frightened fellow into a quiet room and told him, firmly but gently, that no doubt he could thrash the daylights out of the likes of us with one hand tied behind his back, but owing to his serious state of acidosis he wouldn't be anywhere at all in a battle with pneumonia, typhoid or any of those things. His system was suffering from auto-intoxication, plainly due to overeating.

It was sad news for poor J. F. Up till then he had always accused us of ulterior purposes when we told him he ate too much meat and truck at hotels. It is all changed now. J. F. has joined the Bread and Milk club. Later on we hope to report a change for the better in him.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Treatment for Alcohol Habit.

Can any hospital give the Lambert treatment, or is there some particular institution making a specialty of it? Does the treatment cure, or does it only help to cure drunkenness?

Answer—Any physician can administer the Lambert treatment in any hospital. It does cure most, not all cases. Alcoholism is a disease with a definite pathology. The habitual drinker can no more resist the craving without medical help, than the epileptic voluntarily stop having seizures.

Goiter, and the Old, Old Story.

My daughter, aged 15, has a goiter just beginning. She has just started treatment with the doctor. Where can one get the pure coral necklace to prevent the goiter from getting larger?

Answer—Almost anywhere that jimcracks are sold. But unless the patient's mother is a very silly, superstitious person no beads will be worn by the unfortunate girl. Nine times out of ten a slight enlargement of the thyroid is physiological at the age of puberty in girls, and it will require no treatment.

Blood Pressure and Too Little Blood.

Is it possible for a person having an excessive blood pressure to be anemic or have too weak blood?

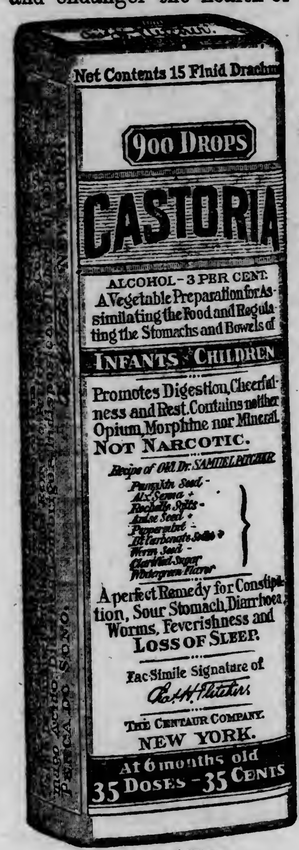
Answer—Yes, and that is very commonly noted.

Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. If your question is of general interest it will be answered through these columns; if not it will be answered personally if stamped, addressed envelope is enclosed. Dr. Brady will not prescribe for individual cases or make diagnoses. Address, Dr. William Brady, care of this newspaper. Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.

What is Castoria.

CASTORIA is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic, all Teething Troubles and Diarrhœa. It regulates the Stomach and Bowels, assimilates the Food, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.



Net Contents 15 Fluid Drachms
900 DROPS
CASTORIA
ALCOHOL—3 PER CENT.
A Vegetable Preparation for Assimilating the Food and Regulating the Stomachs and Bowels of
INFANTS CHILDREN
Promotes Digestion, Cheerfulness and Rest. Contains neither Opium, Morphine nor Mineral.
NOT NARCOTIC.
A perfect Remedy for Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Worms, Feverishness and LOSS OF SLEEP.
Fac-Simile Signature of
THE CENTAUR COMPANY.
NEW YORK.
At 6 months old
35 DOSES - 35 CENTS

Exact Copy of Wrapper.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. Albert W. Kahl, of Buffalo, N. Y., says: "I have used Castoria in my practice for the past 26 years. I regard it as an excellent medicine for children."

Dr. Gustave A. Eisengraeber, of St. Paul, Minn., says: "I have used your Castoria repeatedly in my practice with good results, and can recommend it as an excellent, mild and harmless remedy for children."

Dr. E. J. Dennis, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have used and prescribed your Castoria in my sanitarium and outside practice for a number of years and find it to be an excellent remedy for children."

Dr. S. A. Buchanan, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have used your Castoria in the case of my own baby and find it pleasant to take, and have obtained excellent results from its use."

Dr. J. E. Simpson, of Chicago, Ill., says: "I have used your Castoria in cases of colic in children and have found it the best medicine of its kind on the market."

Dr. R. E. Eskildson, of Omaha, Neb., says: "I find your Castoria to be a standard family remedy. It is the best thing for infants and children I have ever known and I recommend it."

Dr. L. R. Robinson, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Your Castoria certainly has merit. Is not its age, its continued use by mothers through all these years, and the many attempts to imitate it, sufficient recommendation? What can a physician add? Leave it to the mothers."

Dr. Edwin F. Pardee, of New York City, says: "For several years I have recommended your Castoria and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results."

Dr. N. B. Sizer, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I object to what are called patent medicines, where maker alone knows what ingredients are put in them, but I know the formula of your Castoria and advise its use."

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS
Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher.

In Use For Over 30 Years
The Kind You Have Always Bought
THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

DAMAGE BY WATER.

Bursted Pipe Floods Book Store and Causes Loss.

Damage estimated at $400 resulted Sunday afternoon when a waterpipe burst in J. W. Nelson's book and stationery store, 5 East Superior street.

Mrs. E. Jacobson, a guest of the La Salle hotel, heard water rushing between the walls of the building and reported the matter to A. Haakonson, proprietor of the music department of the store. He, in turn, called Mr. Nelson.

The water had been running about forty-five minutes before a janitor succeeded in shutting it off.

"TOUGHEST JACK" MEETS HIS MASTER

Ten years ago "Hard Heel" Harding was "bully" of lumber camps near Meredith, Wis., and terror of his fellow "jacks," who gave him his title of "Hard Heel" and called him "the toughest man in the woods," but he has met his master in John Barleycorn.

Last night, at police headquarters, a transient shuffled down the hall and entered the jailor's room. He was unsteady from long bouts with the master bully, liquor, and tired out by his walk along a storm-swept street.

"Can I get lodging?"

Jailor L. A. Root reached for the lodgers' book, where the "pedigree" of the free sleepers is recorded, without so much as glancing up.

"Name?" he queried, pencil in air.

"Sylvester Harding."

"Not 'Hard Heel' Harding?" the jailor said, dropping his pencil in surprise.

"That's me, but not 'Hard Heel' any more," came the reply.

The jailer, with Lieutenant C. E. Wilcox, who has charge of the late watch, "chipped in" and provided the derelict with a bed in a nearby hotel. Both policemen are ex-lumbermen.

CHANGES HIS MIND AND GETS KILLED

Bemidji, Minn., March 6.—The body of Ray Todd, who was accidentaly killed at the Bemidji box factory, was shipped to Akeley. A coroner's inquest decided that the young man came to his death accidentally.

A sister of the young man was married Thursday morning and Ray Todd had planned to attend the wedding on Wednesday night, but he and his brother changed their minds about attending the wedding at Akeley, deciding to go at a future date, when they could get a several days' vacation. Ray was killed the next morning.

Brainerd Woman Dies.

Brainerd, Minn., March 6.—Mrs. Sophie Wilson, aged 30, wife of Hilmer A. Wilson, died after an illness of several weeks of convulsions. She is survived by her husband, her mother, Mrs. Bertha Bruce, one brother, John A. Hoffbauer, three sisters, Ida Hoffbauer and Mrs. Albert F. Hoppe, the latter of Iowa, and a half sister, Miss May B. Bruce. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon from the Presbyterian church, Rev. W. J. Lowrie officiating.

Protest Against Incorporation.

Calumet, Mich., March 6.—Taking the stand that the incorporation of Copper City as a village will mean a considerable addition to their taxes, some twenty-five or more residents of the location have prepared a petition, which is to be presented to the county board of supervisors, protesting against the proposed incorporation.

MATCH CONCERN IS BUYING LUMBER

International Falls, Minn., March 6.—Three representatives of the Diamond Match company are here buying lumber from the International Lumber company and by thus helping to delete the stock in the yards are giving further assurance of a nice run of the mill next season.

SASKATCHEWAN GRAIN IS NOT YET SHIPPED

Spooner, Minn., March 6.—Hans Rod of Gull Lake, Sask., is here for an extended visit with his brother, Axel, Spooner's marshal. He reports that a great number of the settlers in that district have not been able to market the grain of last season as yet, owing to the lack of transportation facilities in that section. A great deal of this he states will not be shipped out until next summer.

Old Engineer Kills First Man.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 6.—Carl Hudley of Hastings, Minn., was struck by a passenger train on the Milwaukee railroad Saturday and hurled completely over the smokestack of the engine to his death. Another workmen was fatally injured. It was the first time in thirty-two years of service that Patrick Doyle, engineer, had struck a person with the locomotive he was driving.

Canada Wants American Farmers.

Toronto, Ont., March 6.—The Canadian government has sent immigration agents to Michigan to obtain men from the lumber camps to work on Canadian farms next spring, it was announced last night by Findlay MacDiarmid, minister of public works. It is expected that 10,000 men will be needed in about a month.

KC
BAKING POWDER

Passed by the Board of Censors

1st—The manufacturer with the rigid tests of the laboratory and factory.

2nd—The wholesale grocer with his high standing and desire to handle only reliable goods.

3rd—The retail grocer who desires to handle only those brands he knows will please his customers.

4th—The food officials with their rigid laws for the purity and wholesomeness of food products.

5th—And most important, you, the housewife with your desire for purity, efficiency and perfect satisfaction.

ASK YOUR GROCER — HE SELLS IT

25 Ounces for 25¢
(More than a pound and a half for a quarter)

AMUSEMENTS

LYCEUM | TONIGHT, TUES, AND WEDNESDAY
Matinee Daily.
HARRY STEPPE AND THE GIRLS FROM THE FOLLIES
The Classiest Show in Burlesque.
Matinees.....25c, 35c, 50c
Nights.....25c, 35c, 50c, 75c

THREE NIGHTS AND SATURDAY MATINEE, MARCH 9, 10, 11
MR. and MRS. COBURN
—Present—
THE YELLOW JACKET
By George C. Hazelton & Benrimo.
With the full original production from the Fulton theater, New York, and a specially selected cast including Mr. and Mrs. Coburn.
SEATS NOW SELLING.
Night prices.....25c to $1.50
Popular matinee.....25c to $1.00

ALWAYS A GOOD SHOW — NEW GRAND — 11 A. M. UNTIL 11 P. M.
Through 5 Countries in 20 Minutes.
FOUR RENNEE GIRLS
Paden & Reed—"Between Trains."
FRANK WARD, Novelty Comedian.
Concert Orchestra—Photoplays De Luxe.
E. H. Calvert and Margaret Dayton.
"BEYOND THE LAW"
MATS 10c ANY SEAT NITES 10-20
Don't Miss STINGAREE Tomorrow and Wednesday.

ORPHEUM STRAND THEATRUM
TODAY, TOMORROW AND WEDNESDAY ONLY.
WALKER WHITESIDE
—In—
THE MELTING POT
Prices—Afternoons, 10c; Nights, 10c and 20c.

TODAY AND TOMORROW
MARGUERITE SNOW
—In—
"THE UPSTART"
Divorce Problem Play—Something "Different."
COMING WEDNESDAY.
The Sensation of the Year
"SOULS IN BONDAGE"
With NANCE O'NEIL.
Any Seat, 10 Cents.
ZELDA

Rex
Theater Beautiful
MISS BILLIE BURKE
—in—
"PEGGY"
3 DAYS
MONDAY to WEDNESDAY
Her First Film Play
"A Delicious Triumph"—New York World
"Triangle Masterpiece"—Thos. H. Ince
EIGHT REELS
The Lovable Star of the Footlights
Direct From Knickerbocker Theater, New York

LYRIC Everybody's Theater Today & Tomorrow
WILLIAM FARNUM
—In—
"FIGHTING BLOOD"
Farnum has never appeared in as strong a play. A picture reaching sublime heights, teeming with life of the lumber camp. Dorothy Bernard, Fred Huntley and other favorites in the cast. A Wm. Fox picture of rare power.
Coming Wednesday: John Barrymore—Also a Jungle Picture.

ON THE IRON RANGES

STUDENTS' RECORDS IN BIWABIK SCHOOL

Honor Roll and Other Showings for Month of February.

Biwabik, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The following constitute the honor roll for the Biwabik high school for February:

Ninety per cent or above in five subjects—Matt Tomatz, Charles Anderson, Arthur Johnson and Adeline Thomas.

Ninety per cent or above in four subjects—Robert Bray, Gustaf Berquist, Ruth Casey, Dorothy Cohen, Helmi Heitala, Hilda Franz, Harold Goldthorpe, John Jones, Mildred Mandel, Anna Syrstead, Hazel Watts, Harry Salmion.

Ninety per cent or above in three subjects—Gunda Engen, Mamie Nori, Henry Paulisich, Ruth Syrstead, Emil Johnson, Louis Loftquist, Nannie Peterson, Edwin Loftquist, Blanche Green.

Ninety per cent or above in two subjects—Clarence Goldthorpe, Hilda Pelto, Magda Syrstead, Genevieve Guimont, Elvira Larson, Slaughter Salmon.

Ninety per cent or above in one subject—Robert Jurisola, Andrew Kangas, Sena Oraka, William Reddy, Helen Anttela, Harry Friedman, Bertha Guss, John Pagnucco, Rose Vickers, Louis Glabokar, Tressie Everett, Joseph O'Hara.

Averages By Classes.

Senior averages—Boys, 89.44; girls, 91.60. Boy obtaining the highest average, John Jones, 94.09; girl obtaining the highest average, Hilda Franz, 93.50; class average, 90.52.

Junior averages—Boys, 83.44; girls, 89.50. Boy obtaining highest average, Slaughter Salmon, 89.75; girl obtaining highest average, Adeline Thomas, 93.40; class average, 86.47.

Sophomore averages — Boys, 87.75; girls, 88.14; class average, 87.93; highest average of boys, Charles Anderson, 94.25; highest average of girls, Ruth Casey, 93.00.

Freshman averages — Boys, 82.00; girls, 85.41; class average, 83.70; boy obtaining the highest average, Matt Tomatz, 92.00; girl obtaining highest average, Mamie Nori, 91.75.

Post graduate averages—Boys, 85.00; girls, 89.00; class average, 87.00; boy obtaining highest average, Joseph O'Hara, 85.00; girl obtaining highest average, Harry Salmon, 92.00.

The February report of Supt. Lunn also shows that the total number of pupils enrolled was 626, with 572 belonging on the last day of the month. The average daily attendance was 534.7, making a percentage of 94.92; number neither tardy nor absent, 270; number of cases of tardiness, 37; minutes lost by tardiness, 326. Miss Butler's room obtained the highest percentage of attendance, 98.4.

MOUNTAIN IRON IS FACING BUSY YEAR

Large Amount of Mining Work to Be Carried This Year.

Mountain Iron, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—In common with the rest of the range, this district will experience a season of unusual activity this year. The Silver Is now working about 200 men, the Hanna "B" about 50, the Brunt shops and drying plant about 60 and the Deacon more than 100. State mines alone in this district will produce close to 1,000,000 tons this season, the estimated tonnages from the different properties at this time being about as follows:

Helmer, 400,000 tons; Deacon, 130,000 tons; Wacoutah "A," 150,000 tons; Hanna "A," 70,000 tons; Hanna "B," 150,000 tons; total, 900,000 tons.

It is likely that these figures will be exceeded at some of the properties.

MRS. SHIVELY KILLS WOLF.

Diana at Head of Lake Vermilion Slays Big Brute.

Tower, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Word has reached here from the dam at the head of Lake Vermilion that Mrs. Shively, wife of Lloyd R. Shively, who runs Hunters' lodge at the dam, recently shot and killed a big wolf that was crossing the lake near the Shively home. Mr. Shively was absent when his wife, who is a crack shot, saw a wolf crossing the lake on the ice 300 yards distant. She fired at the beast with a 30-30 rifle, breaking its leg the first shot and dropping the animal at the second shot. When she went out to where the wolf lay struggling on the ice the brute showed fight and she clubbed it to death with the butt end of the rifle.

ITASCA OLD SETTLERS PLAN FINE TIME

Grand Rapids, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—President George F. Kremer and Secretary Hugh McEwan have been looking into the credentials of applicants for membership into the Old Settlers' association, who are made eligible through the advancing of the date prior to which residence was required in the county to become members. Arrangements for the old settlers' annual ball, which will be held this evening, are completed, and everything points to a very excellent time in prospect for those who attend the dance.

WARD'S RELATIVES ARE FOUND IN BAY STATE

Hibbing, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—After a three months' search, heirs of George Calvin Ward have been located in Massachusetts.

W. J. Ryder, special administrator for the Ward estate, is notified by Judge Gilpin of the probate court that the relatives of Mr. Ward are ready to take charge of the property and close up the estate.

T. S. Silliman has been appointed attorney for the estate.

Harry Elton Ward, aged 40, of West Lynne is a son of the late Mr. Ward. Charles Henry Ward, aged 57, of Summerville, Mass., is a brother.

Mr. Ward carried a $1,000 policy in the Forester lodge at Province, Ill., where he formerly lived, and this is made out to Mrs. Mary Worthington of Bedford, Mass., a friend of the family.

He also owned mining stock. Mr. Ward was at one time candidate for mayor of Boston, and had a seat on the Boston exchange.

CLAIMS CIGAR STORE BRINGS IN BIG SUM

Virginia Saloonman Says His Store Yields Large Revenue.

Virginia, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The police and fire commission tonight will further consider the proposed ordinance compelling all cigar stores in front of saloons to be closed at 11 p. m. week days and all day Sundays. The matter is the leading topic of conversation here and has started a controversy akin to that which raged in Duluth when a similar order was first proposed.

A local saloon keeper who has a large store in front of his saloon is expected to appear before the commission tonight and point out how his cigar store brings in $1,000 per month and how this revenue would be largely reduced if the proposed rule were enforced. He wants some arrangement fixed up whereby all doors leading from cigar stores into saloons can be closed promptly at 11 p. m. Saturday and kept closed till Monday, but claims the closing of the cigar store in his place would prove an injustice.

DEATH REVEALS MAN HAS ANOTHER NAME

Lumberjack Believed to Have Relatives Near Duluth or Superior.

Virginia, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The death of Walter Uslak in a local hospital Saturday night of a gangrened lung after three weeks confinement, discloses that he gave his name as John Perry while working for the Rainy Lake Lumber company in a camp near Cusson and it is believed he has relatives living on a farm near Duluth or Superior. Dr. Crowe, deputy coroner, is trying to get into communication with Uslak's or Perry's relatives. The man was about 40 and came to the hospital following an injury sustained in the woods.

John McDonald, aged about 30 and single, another employe of the Rainy Lake company, who has been in a local hospital three months with cancer died today. Little is known of his relatives.

LOSES HIS LIFE STEALING RIDE

John Bukich of Chisholm Fractures His Skull By Jumping.

Chisholm, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—John Bukich, aged 30, single, an employe of the Shenango Furnace company, was instantly killed by jumping from a Great Northern freight train at the Shenango location at 6:45 this morning. It is said Bukich was stealing a ride on the train. A coroner's inquiry revealed that a fractured skull caused death.

LA PRAIRIE CLUB PLAY PRESENTED

Grand Rapids, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—"Kindling the Hearth Fire," which was staged Saturday evening at the Laprairie schoolhouse by the Farmers' club of that community, proved a great success. It was well attended by Laprairie folks, and a neat sum realized. The play was on again Sunday evening, and there was a large turnout of Grand Rapids people. Among the other features Sunday evening were some vocal selections by W. E. Corwin and Mrs. Taylor of Grand Rapids.

GRAND RAPIDS FIVE DEFEAT BUHLITES

Grand Rapids, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Grand Rapids high school basket ball quint won from the Buhl high school champs Saturday evening, 35 to 31, in a scrappy and interesting game. The Buhl boys played well and the result was in doubt until the last minute of play.

At Deer River Saturday night the eighth grade team, under the chaperonage of Mr. Vanpatter, won from the Deer River high school, 19 to 10. This team consists of Albert Powell, Bruce Erskine, Sam Lee, Albert Holun, Roger Forest and Robert Christie.

MOUNTAIN IRON NOTES.

Mountain Iron, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The scarlet fever epidemic is now completely under control, the last case being let out of quarantine a week ago. There has been about thirty-five cases.

The high school basket ball team went to Ely and played the high school team there last Friday evening, being defeated after a hard-fought game. The locals play Buhl here next Friday evening.

Babies were born on Feb. 29 to Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Keech of the Brunt location and to Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hutala.

Mrs. William McFall of Kinross, who has been seriously ill with heart trouble for two or three weeks at the home of Bert Merritt, where she was visiting when stricken, is still very low. Her son Neil, who was called from Detroit, Mich., has returned home.

Barney Bragg of Kinney has purchased the Keech residence and will soon move it to land he owns near the home of Bert Merritt. When the house is moved he and Mrs. Bragg will occupy it. They are old residents of this village.

Charles Walker is slowly improving after an illness of several months.

Mrs. Thomas Hanlon and her mother, who was visiting here, were called to Sheboygan, Wis., about a week ago by a telegram announcing the sudden death of a sister of Mrs. Hanlon.

Stuntz Election.

Hibbing, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The polling place for all voters of the town of Stuntz will be at the town hall, Clerk Victor Benoe and the supervisors contending that it will be cheaper to have a central voting place at the town hall and get away from the fifteen other proposed voting places which was intended at first.

Township officials to take charge of the coming spring election will be named by the board at a later date.

Calls for bids for the construction of the Koivu road and for five reinforced bridges will be opened at the first meeting in April.

AURORA CREAMERY IS NOW ASSURED

Preliminary Steps Towards Organization Are Perfected.

Aurora, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—A creamery is assured Aurora through action taken here Saturday, when farmers from the Pike River, Waasa, Embarrass, Palo, Loon Lake and other districts in the Aurora territory met under the auspices of the Aurora Commercial club and took the preliminary steps in the organization of the Aurora Co-Operative Creamery association.

Erick Erickson of Palo was elected temporary president; Nick Kari of Waasa temporary vice president, and O. F. Halstrom and P. M. Johnson of Aurora temporary secretary and treasurer. These, with John Johnson of Embarras, Matt Pelt of Pike and Erick Nieminen of Colvin, constitute the board of directors.

President Erickson called a meeting for March 15 to be held here, when the company will be incorporated and the organization fully completed and a date for commencing the operation of the creamery decided upon. The village has offered the use of the old light and water plant and water and electricity for power and light at a nominal charge. It is the intention to install the machinery as soon as possible and purchase an automobile truck for gathering the cream. Three trips will be made each week in each district.

Larson Urges Creamery.

County Agricultural Agent H. G. Larson gave a talk of creamery management and organization and urged the farmers from all districts to unite and operate a central creamery at Aurora. He showed why a creamery located here would be a success while small creameries located in the several farming districts would be doomed to failures until after the country has been further developed than at present. E. H. Varick, editor of the Aurora News, presided at the meetings and M. R. Benedict, agricultural instructor in the local schools, acted as secretary.

Much credit for the results accomplished in bringing the farmers from the different districts about Aurora together and forming the organization of an association to operate a creamery at a central location, is due to F. C. Talboys, Jr., Edward Darrow, August Knuti and O. F. Halstrom, who have given considerable of their time to the matter.

The association will be capitalized for $10,000. The shares will be valued at $10 and no person will be allowed to purchase over thirty. This was done in order to make the affair as truly co-operative as possible and to get as many as possible of the farmers into the organization.

MOUNTAIN IRON ELECTION QUIET

Little Interest in Contest Has Thus Far Developed.

Mountain Iron, Mich., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—With the village election only a week away, little interest has been manifested so far. Present village officials will be candidates for re-election: President, A. W. Saari; clerk, C. A. Webb; trustees, D. A. Mitchell, Albert Lindor and L. Charmolie; treasurer, A. Derito.

There will be one justice of the peace elected for two years. J. L. McMahon, at present holding the position by appointment, has already filed. V. I. Frazer will probably file today or tomorrow, which is the last day for filing.

Just who will file on an opposition ticket is not known, although Evor Matson, present trustee, has already filed for clerk. George Orcutt and Sam Lasky will probably file for trustees. It is not thought there will be any opposition to the present president.

The present officials say they will stand on their record of having tried to give the village a business administration.

For the first time the Australian system of voting will be used. Another innovation, too, will be in keeping the polls open from 9 a. m. until 9 p. m. This will give every voter a chance, whether he works days or nights. The first registration day was on Feb. 22; the second and last will be tomorrow.

ELY NEWS NOTES.

Ely, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Rev. Mr. Williams and the board of the Methodist church gave a social evening and banquet to the male members of the church and congregation on Friday evening at the church parlors.

Miss Irene Lampi, student of the Winona normal, is home on a ten days' vacation visiting her parents.

Miss Sally Jylha came here to attend the funeral of Mrs. Kangas, who was buried yesterday afternoon from the Finnish Lutheran church.

Miss Alma Fortier and Miss Sheridan of the Eveleth schools were in the city to spend the week-end with the former's sister, Rosebud Fortier.

The city band gave a dance at the opera house Friday evening.

Mrs. J. J. Laing was hostess informally Saturday evening to Mesdames J. Brown, A. B. Dakers, J. E. Mapson, H. S. King, D. Brown, J. C. Kelsal, Ray Tonkin, James Tonkin, Henry Phinn and Mrs. Bartol of Hibbing.

The high school students had a dance at the Washington auditorium on Saturday evening. The music was furnished by Prof. Hanson's orchestra. Principal Englund and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Julius Anderson chaperoned the young people.

Miss Thresa Gude and Miss Anna Keefe of the high school faculty entertained in the normal room at the high school building on Saturday evening. Cards were played at seven tables.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Fenske entertained three tables at auction bridge at their home on Chapman street on Saturday evening. The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames J. D. Conan, H. J. Lockhart, A. S. James, O. W. Parker and W. D. Gallagher. Mrs. Parker and Mr. Conan received the honors.

Little Marianette Ann Lockhart celebrated her ninth birthday on Saturday afternoon by the assistance of ten of her little friends. The little girls spent several happy hours in games and contests. A luncheon was served by Mrs. Lockhart assisted by Miss Stanley, a teacher of the Lincoln.

Sore Throat Chest Pains

Tightness across the chest and sore throat can at once be relieved by applying Sloan's Liniment. It goes right to the seat of pain—warming and soothing the painful parts. The inflammation subsides and the pain is gone.

Sloan's Liniment

KILLS PAIN

"Keep a bottle in your home."

Price 25c. 50c. $1.00

BOOST POWER TICKET.

Meeting Held in Hibbing Sunday to Outline Campaign.

Hibbing, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The efforts of Village President Power and other members of the present village administration to be re-elected got a boost at a meeting held yesterday at which, it is claimed, many business and professional men agreed to support the Power ticket. Headquarters will be in the Merchants & Miners bank building. A working organization was perfected yesterday and plans for the campaign discussed.

A publicity and campaign committee was appointed. Fifteen hundred dollars has been collected and will be used in financing the campaign.

ANOTHER LIQUOR TOTER ARRESTED IN HIBBING

Hibbing, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—A man booked as "John Johns" was arrested by the Indian police on Saturday evening on a charge of selling liquor in a dry territory.

The man, who refused to give his name, was carrying twenty quarts of liquor in a supposed shoe package, when the Indian police suspected him and the discovery of liquor made. "Johns" was placed under arrest, and today he was taken to Virginia, where he will be given an examination before U. S. Commissioner Poirier.

The presence of "Pussy Foot" Johnson in the range country has stirred the Indian officers to greater efforts. Saturday was a quiet day in all places of business formerly occupied by saloons, and there were no raids of any consequence; at least local police officials so report.

New Nashwauk Concern.

Grand Rapids, Minn., March 6.—Articles of incorporation have been filed with the register of deeds of Itasca county for the W. M. Ohles company, having a capitalization of $15,000, which will conduct a general mercantile business in Nashwauk in the former Marcus & Jaffee building. The stockholders in the new company include more than thirty Nashwauk business men and mine employes. Wilbur M. Ohles, formerly manager of the Nashwauk Mercantile company, will manage the business.

Duluth Curlers Win.

Hibbing, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Duluth rinks were successful in all or at least the majority of their games against Hibbing curlers on Saturday afternoon and evening.

Three Duluth skips, Brewer, Ditzel and McGee, competed against local members of the club. Eggo of Hibbing curled with the visitors. The scores in the afternoon were as follows: Brewer, 7; Bullen, 6; and Dunlop, 3; Rooney, 18. The scores in the evening follow: Dunlop, 10; Flanagan, 7; and Brewer, 13; West, 7.

Itasca Assessors' Meeting.

Grand Rapids, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The annual meeting of the Itasca county assessors to secure their books and instructions will be held here March 18. County Auditor Sherman has not yet been advised which member of the tax commission will be present to address the assessor.

Old Eveleth Buried.

Eveleth, Minn., March 6.—Anton Sterle, age 70, who died at the St. Luke's hospital at Duluth Wednesday, was buried in the Eveleth cemetery Sunday. Funeral services were held in the Holy Family Catholic church, Rev. Father Bilban officiating. The Y. S. K. Y. society was in charge of the services. Mr. Sterle was an old resident of Eveleth. He is survived by his widow, who lives in Austria.

PIMPLES ON FACE BURN AND ITCH

Became Worse and Worse. Face Disfigured. In Blotches. Were Red and Scaled Over.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"I had pimples on my face which gradually became worse and worse all the time. They burned and itched and I would wake up often at night and my face would burn dreadfully and it was disfigured for the time being. At first the pimples were in blotches but gradually scattered, and they were red and festered and also scaled over.

"Then I got some Cuticura Soap and Ointment. At first I put the Cuticura Ointment on and then I bathed my face with warm water and Cuticura Soap, and I had not used them more than two weeks till I noticed a change and now my face is entirely healed." (Signed) Miss Marie Christiansen, Route 3, Neola, Iowa, July 25, 1915.

Sample Each Free by Mail

With 32-p. Skin Book on request. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston." Sold throughout the world.

DO THIS FIRST—YOU!

You know, and every physician knows, that when any sickness has passed, whether it be throat trouble, organic disturbances, contagious diseases, or even a severe cold, a relapse is feared, because sickness robs the system of Nature's resistance and leaves it subject to lingering germs.

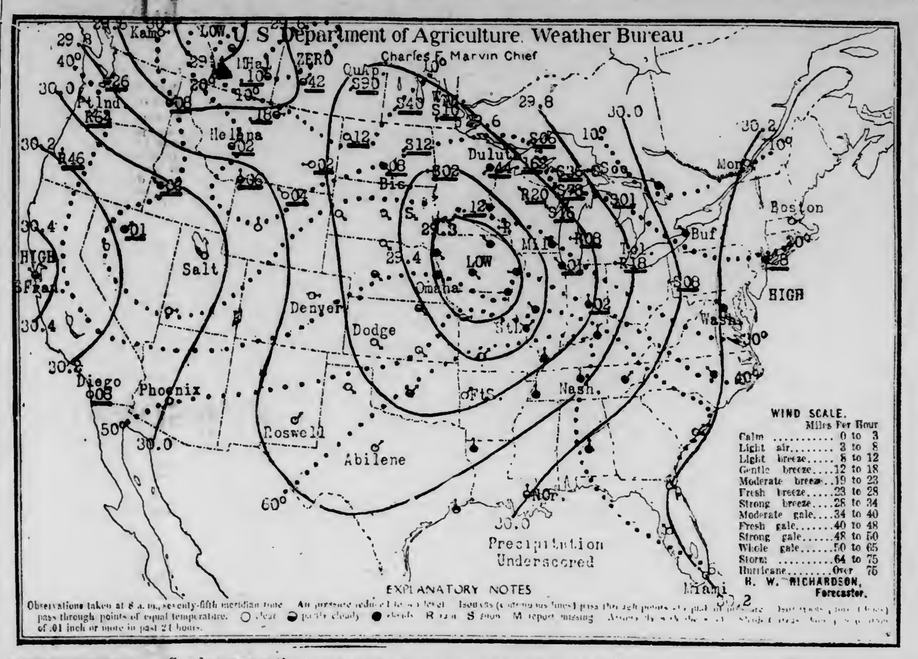
Drugs never build up a worn-out body—only food can do that, and the first thing to take after any sickness is the concentrated, blood-making oil-food in Scott's Emulsion, which feeds the tissues, benefits the blood and strengthens both lungs and throat.

Physicians prescribe Scott's Emulsion after sickness. Nurses everywhere advocate it. Scott's is pure medicinal food, without alcohol or drugs.

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 15-22

—Advertisement.

OFFICIAL MAP OF THE WEATHER



Snow Flurries

Sunday was rather chilly and gloomy, and then on top of it all came the snow. Five inches fell and perhaps more will come. The mild temperature is the only hope remaining that, spring may come some time, but even that will likely change.

A year ago today was calm, following quite a storm, which occurred a year ago yesterday. The sun rose this morning at 6:37 and will set this evening at 6:02, giving eleven hours and twenty-five minutes of sunlight.

Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"Barometric depressions centered over Iowa and Alberta have caused rather general precipitation from the lake region westward to and including Washington and Oregon. Heavy snowfalls occurred Sunday or last night over Northern Wisconsin, Minnesota, Manitoba and Southern Saskatchewan. Mild to warm weather prevails over Central and Southern states. Zero temperatures occurred last night over portions of Saskatchewan and Alberta, the lowest reported being 6 below zero at Medicine Hat."

General Forecasts.

Chicago, March 6.—Forecasts for the twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m. Tuesday:

Minnesota—Partly cloudy tonight and Tuesday, probably snow flurries in extreme east portion tonight; somewhat cooler tonight.

Wisconsin—Light rain or snow and somewhat colder tonight; Tuesday partly cloudy.

Iowa—Partly cloudy and colder tonight; Tuesday generally fair.

North Dakota—Generally fair tonight and Tuesday; no decided change in temperature.

South Dakota—Generally fair tonight and Tuesday; colder tonight in east portion.

Montana—Partly cloudy tonight and Tuesday; colder Tuesday in east portion.

Lower Michigan—Snow in north, snow or rain in south portion tonight; Tuesday local snow.

Upper Michigan—Snow tonight and Tuesday.

LOCAL FORECAST

Duluth, Superior and vicinity, including the Mesaba and Vermilion Iron ranges: Snow flurries this afternoon and tonight. Tuesday partly cloudy weather. Lowest temperature tonight 10 to about 15 above zero at and near Duluth-Superior and along the north shore and 5 to about 10 deg. above zero on the iron ranges. Fresh to strong northeast to northwest winds.

Temperatures.

Following were the highest temperatures in the last twenty-four hours and the lowest in the last twelve, ending at 7 a. m.:

	High	Low
Abilene	66
Alpena	24	12
Atlanta	50	30
Battleford	4	−2
Bismarck	28	20
Boise	46	30
Boston	32	12
Buffalo	22	12
Cairo	56
Calgary	28	4
Charles City	30
Charleston	66
Chicago	32	30
Concordia	42
Davenport	32
Denver	68	32
Des Moines	38	24
Devils Lake	20
Dodge	86	42
Dubuque	42	32
DULUTH	16	16
Edmonton	12	0
Escanaba	20	18
Fort Smith	64
Galveston	72	64
Grand Haven	30	24
Green Bay	24	22
Havre	26	8
Helena	50	20
Houghton	18
Huron	40	32
Indianapolis	34
Jacksonville	58	50
Kamloops	38	30
Kansas City	58	52
Kvoksk	36	36
Knoxville	46	44
La Crosse	28
Lander	20
Louisville	48	44
Madison	32	24
Marquette	20	16
Medicine Hat	16	−6
Memphis	68	60
Miles City	46	14
Milwaukee	30	28
Minnedosa	12	8
Modena	30	24
Montgomery	68	56
Montreal	20	8
Moorhead	26	22
Nashville	54
New York	34	26
New Orleans	76	60
North Platte	70	38
Oklahoma	64	56
Omaha	50	34
Parry Sound	10
Phoenix	70	46
Pierre	50	30
Pittsburgh	28	22
Port Arthur	16	10
Portland, Or	42	38
Prince Albert	10	−2
Qu'Appelle	16	4
Raleigh	62	38
Rapid City	64	32
Roseburgh	42	40
Roswell		54
St. Louis	44	44
St. Paul	26	24
Salt Lake City	54	24
San Diego	66	48
San Francisco	52	46
Sault Ste. Marie	18	6
Seattle	42	38
Sheridan	52	30
Shreveport	76	64
Sioux City	46	36
Spokane	36	30
Springfield, Ill		36
Springfield, Mo		56
Swift Current	18	2
Tampa	70	48
Toledo	28	20
Valentine		34
Washington	44	30
Wichita		50
Williston	22	4
Winnemucca	40	28
Winnipeg	20	14
Yellowstone	38	10

INDORSE DR. NELSON.

Chisholm Scandinavian and Finnish Organizations Favor Physician.

Chisholm, Minn., March 6.—It developed at the meeting held Sunday of the Scandinavian and Finnish political clubs that those organizations will support Dr. E. H. Nelson for village president. The Italian club also met yesterday but so far as known indorsed no one.

Judges and clerks for the six election precincts have been designated as follows: No. 1, Kenneth Murray, S. J. Hirstio, H. Fieldman, A. E. Howe, Jacob Gezgin; No. 2, James Crellin, J. H. Blaney, A. Dodier, Carl Jasna; No. 3, J. C. Hatch, T. J. Sullivon, O. P. Hoye, G. G. Stonmark, S. E. Casey; No. 4, O. A. Sundness, H. J. Empey, R. Humphrey, A. C. Borgeson; No. 5, R. H. Mitchell, H. W. McLaughlin, Joe Sorby, B. Edens; No. 6, Jake Osbolt, Alex McDonald, H. E. Townsend, John Dwyer, Sam Murray.

RUNAWAY AT ELY.

Principal of White School and Wife Are Injured.

Ely, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Fred Kelly, principal of the White Iron school and Mrs. Kelly were injured here Saturday evening, when their horse, drawing a sleigh, ran away as they were driving home and threw them out the corner of First avenue and Harvey street. Mr. Kelly was dragged quite a distance. The sleigh was wrecked.

BUHL SCHOOL ROW.

Buhl, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Some friction has resulted here over the action of the school board in requesting Miss Nora Leader to resign because of charges preferred by Supt. M. A. Morse of neglect of duty and failure to co-operate with other members of the faculty. Miss Leader has consulted a Hibbing attorney and may make a fight, as she claims the charges are not substantiated. It develops she did not attend the educational meeting in Duluth, but instead remained in Superior. She claims she was ill and so notified the superintendent. Only one member of the board, Lee Rauschadt, favored retaining Miss Leader when the matter came to a vote on her dismissal.

Would Annul Ironwood Wedding.

Virginia, Minn., March 6.—Mrs. Hula Hagel of this city has filed a suit for divorce from her husband. The couple were married in Ironwood, Mich., in 1896. The plaintiff charges that her husband, Albin Hagel, deserted her and their three children in 1910. Mrs. Hagel asks for the custody of the children, who range in age from 14 to 19. The case will be tried at the April term of court.

Virginians Champions.

Virginia, Minn., March 6.—The Virginia city basket ball team Saturday evening defeated Gilbert 45 to 16 and clinched the title for the range. Gilbert will remain in second place in the league standing. The Virginia five has not been defeated this season. Saturday evening's game was the second of the week, the locals trimming Buhl at Buhl on Wednesday evening.

Hibbing Firemen's Ball.

Hibbing, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—At the first annual firemen's relief association ball at the armory this evening, Mayor Victor L. Power will lead the grand march.

Prof. Smith, assisted by a pupil, will dance the Highland fling and the sword dance, dressed in the Highland garb.

All the various officials of the village and township will be present.

Tower School Election.

Tower, Minn., March 6.—A special election has been called for March 11, to vote on a proposal to erect an $80,000 school building. The election will be held at the Tower house between the hours of 4 and 9 o'clock in the evening.

Itasca Board Meeting.

Grand Rapids, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The monthly meeting of the county board will be held at the courthouse on Tuesday.

LESS RESPECT FOR COURTS IN CENTRAL AMERICA

Judge Cant Compares Procedure in Spanish-Speaking Countries With Those Where English Is Language.

Courts of the Spanish-speaking countries of Central America are not regarded with the same respect as in English-speaking jurisdictions, according to Judge W. A. Cant of the district court, who with Attorney A. H. Crassweller of this city, recently visited the Central American countries.

Judge Cant observations are interesting. He declares that in the English-speaking countries, there is no suggestion of corruption or of arbitrary action, which is not the case in the Spanish-speaking jurisdictions, with the possible exception of Cuba. "In Cuba," he said, "these evils exist, if at all, in a rather modified form."

"In Guatemala," said Judge Cant, "so far as our information goes, the courts do not stand well in the estimation of the people. With reference to the courts in Honduras we have no definite first-hand information. In the Canal zone, one becomes accustomed to seeing high grade services along many lines. This appears to hold good as to the lawyers and the courts. We attended a session of court at which various minor cases were tried. In the procedure, there was freedom and irkstness and the business was dispatched rapidly and with good results in the way of substantial justice.

"In Jamaica, there is a well established system of courts. These courts and those practicing before them appear to render a good service. We attended a session at Kingston. There was much evident attempt on the part of all to shorten matters and to get at the real questions involved. Conditions which it sometimes takes hours to develop through examination and cross examination were disposed of by a few frank admissions before the actual trial began. Throughout the trials the fundamentals were well adhered to—the effort was constantly to ascertain the truth and to do justice between the parties, but the methods of procedure were short cuts which are quite unusual in the United States. While we were there newspapers gave an account of a trial then being held on another part of the island. It was said to be the most important case tried in Jamaica in years. The jury was impaneled, the case tried, and the verdict returned, all before the end of the second day.

"In British Honduras, we did not visit the courts, but inquiry disclosed that they were favorably regarded and that they rendered good service with methods and aims much the same as the courts of Jamaica."

Indus Man Dies.

International Falls, Minn., March 6.—Frank Green, local undertaker, was called to Indus Saturday to prepare the body of Mort Vanest for shipment to Iowa for burial. Mr. Green was a veteran of the Civil war, over 70 years of age and was residing near Indus with a relative.

PALE SCHOOL CHILDREN

This is the time of the year that school children grow pale. Confined indoors, for many hours a day, studying at night, perhaps, deprived of much out-of-door exercise, their blood grows thin. Compare your child's complexion with what it was last summer. Probably you have not realized how thin the blood was getting because the change was so gradual.

When a child formerly bright and active loses color and finds play an effort, but prefers to sit still and read, there is every reason to suspect that the blood is getting thin, that the child is anemic. Sometimes there is headache and nosebleed. These confirm the suspicion. It is a condition that is full of danger, for thin blood is an open door to many diseases, especially during changeful weather. But it is a condition that is easily remedied if taken in time. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can be obtained at any drug store. A fifty-cent box contains about two weeks treatment and these pills are a great blood-builder and invigorator. They are just the sort of non-alcoholic tonic that many children need.

Write today to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. for the free book "Building Up the Blood" and learn all about the treatment A diet book will also be sent free on request.

—Advertisement.

STREET CAR DELAYS

The Following Are the Causes of Interruptions In Street Car Service on Saturday, March 4, 1916.

A fire at Second avenue east and Second street delayed all east and west bound cars on the hill lines from 10 to 34 minutes from 4:31 to 6:36 p. m.

A disabled car on East Ninth street caused a delay of 20 minutes from 5:53 p. m. No time could be made up on account of the delayed car getting its follower's passengers in addition to its own and it was late 21 minutes on its next westbound trip, due at Third avenue west at 6:43 p. m.

SUNDAY DELAYS

Patrons boarding cars at Thirteenth avenue east and Superior street coming from the Armory delayed east and west bound cars 18 minutes from 6:36 p. m.

The heavy snow storm caused a delay to all cars on West Duluth and Aerial Bridge, West Fourth and Piedmont and the West Third street lines from 10 to 29 minutes from 10:58 p. m.

An auto truck on the track at Forty-seventh avenue west and Third street delayed an East Fourth and Fifty-seventh avenue west car 8½ minutes from 11:58 p. m.

A West Fourth and Piedmont avenue car in switching at Twenty-third avenue west and Tenth street was delayed 18 minutes from 11 p. m. by the snow.

Complaints and suggestions given prompt and courteous attention.

Telephones: Melrose 260; Lincoln 55.

EXQUISITE SPRING MILLINERY

WORDLESSLY PROCLAIMING DELIGHTFUL INDIVIDUALITY

Among these the Trotteur Hat, Milan, Liseret, Yeddas, two-toned, Neapolitan and hair braid trimmed. Adaptations from imported Parisian models and original ideas of our own expert milliners. Priced at $5.00 up.

Your Credit Is Good — GATELY'S — Pay as You Are Paid

Ed. Nelson, Gen. Mgr.

DULUTH - SUPERIOR - VIRGINIA - HIBBING

THIRTY-NINE FILE PROTEST

Contract for Paving First Street Will Be Held Up.

Court Action Awaited; Selection of Material Bone of Contention.

Thirty-nine property owners along First street, between Twentieth and Thirtieth avenues west, filed notices with City Clerk Borgen late Saturday afternoon appealing from their paving assessments.

John H. Brigham, one of the owners, is attorney for thirty-eight of the owners, while J. B. Richards represents the Western Land company.

As a result of these notices, the contract will not be awarded at the council meeting this afternoon, it was announced this morning by Commissioner Farrell, head of the works division. No action will be taken by the city until the decision of the court is handed down, instruction having been given City Attorney Samuelson to fight the appeals.

The appellants, city officials claim, have taken this move to forestall the city in the selection of creosote blocks for the proposed pavement. They favor brick and in a supplemental petition filed a week ago today, requested the use of brick for the improvement and protesting against blocks. At that time Mr. Brigham declared that he would take an appeal if city commissioners proposed to use creosote blocks, the material selected by a majority of the owners at a public meeting held in the city hall several weeks ago.

The owners, who have appealed from their advance assessments, follow: James Di Santo, R. C. Sloan, S. P. Strand, John Swanson, Mary Peterson, F. A. Patrick Building company, Helmer Jentoft, Emma Yergan, L. D. Meyers, Louis Landry, August Julin, Sarah Forward, Mary Spence, John H. Brigham, Western Land association, A. and M. Pichee, Louis Hansvick, E. N. Nelson, John Ekbald, A. E. Linander, John Nelson, A. F. Gratto, H. R. Erickson, J. D. Johnson, George Cruikshank, F. S. Campbell, Emil Bjorlin, Edward Kiley, Big Stone Lumber company, Mary Sturdevant, Simon Lidling, H. E. Magnusson and W. M. Hubbard, Emil Lundberg, John Swanson, Halver Westal, Olaf Pearson, Marie Helam, Gust Gustafson and Steiner Haugsrud.

D. H., 3-6-16.

HATS FOR MEN.

Many hats for Spring 1916 are now ready to be shown.

A new lid will brighten your appearance and make you feel like a new man.

Soft Hats still hold the fort.

Fedora styles with curled or flat brims are favorites.

Prices $3, $4 and $5.

Among our leaders from different makes are Stetson's "Pace Maker," Schoble's "Cortez," Trimble's "Palmetto," Gordon's "Larry Ho" and Fried's "Winton."

Come in and find out which one fits your face best.

HEIDCAPS — Spring beauties.

Columbia Clothing Co.

At Third Ave. West.

Foot-Note: Walk in Hanan Shoes.

MAYOR IS FAILURE IN THE ROLE OF CUPID

Mayor Prince is a failure as Cupid.

He admitted that much this morning, so there is no argument.

Last week Mayor Prince received a request from Melvin Harmer of Springville, Utah, to help the latter locate a wife, but up to the present time the city executive has been unsuccessful in the role of Cupid.

"As the God of Love," said the mayor, "I guess I am a failure. Once I managed to get a couple together, but that proved a failure later on, I understand."

REGULATIONS FOR CIVIL SERVICE

An ordinance classifying the city's civil service and providing for an effectual enforcement of its regulations will be introduced at the council meeting this afternoon by Mayor Prince.

This measure will come up for passage after two subsequent readings and when effective, it is believed, will give the municipality a complete civil service system. This is the opinion of city commissioners, all of whom favor the passage of the ordinance.

Contracts for the paving of West First and West Eighth streets will not be awarded today, as originally planned, because of appeals taken in the former pavement and the decision to hold a meeting of the Eighth street owners next Thursday.

The city attorney will be authorized to settle three small damage claims against the city. A sanitary sewer will be ordered in Woodland avenue, between Wabasha and Mankato streets.

Mayor Prince will introduce two resolutions, one authorizing him to advertise for bids on furnishing the municipal court with 130 steel filing cases and five steel drawers, and the other renting a temporary office for the building code committee at a monthly rental of $22.50.

Commissioner Merritt will ask for permission to purchase a second-hand Ford car to replace a crippled horse, which must be disposed of, according to a communication to the council. He will also introduce an ordinance appropriating $3,000 for hauling pipes during 1916, and a resolution awarding the contract to Wallace & Tiernan for furnishing the water and light department with a chlorinator on their bid of $550.

OUT OF FRYING PAN INTO FIRE

Out of the frying pan into the fire has been the experience of Nick Oreskovich, 28, a young man of many smiles, who "beat" a charge of escaping from the work farm, only to find himself facing a much more serious one, that of attempted assault in the second degree.

Oreskovich, called a bad actor by police, was one of the first to be caught in a drag net during the recent "clean-up" campaign on West Michigan and Superior streets.

He went to the work farm for vagrancy, and was re-arrested when detectives spied him on the street before the time for his term to expire.

Supt. Fred Ward made a charge of assault. Oreskovich, it is alleged, attacked Waldemar Nelson, work farm guard, with a two-bitted ax on March 2, while at work clearing land.

"We were just playing," said Nick, showing a row of even white teeth, but he lost his smile when Judge F. H. Cutting held him for a further hearing.

SELL ADULTERATED MILK.

Four Dealers Are Arrested and Pay Fines of $12.50.

Four restaurant or confectionery store proprietors paid fines of $12.50 in municipal court today for selling adulterated milk.

Joseph Pratts, health department inspector, swore to five complaints charging a violation of the milk ordinance after a tour of inspection on Feb. 28. In each case, he claimed, milk sold contained less than the prescribed 3½ per cent of butter fat.

Those who pleaded guilty and paid fines were Harry Eastman, 312½ Fifty-fifth avenue west; F. Yuen, 507 West Superior street; Lee Lim, 511 West Superior street, and Edward Podoll, 204 Lake avenue south.

PRELIMINARY TO REVIVAL

"Every Member Canvass" in Duluth Churches Has Good Results.

Committee May Not Wait for "Billy" Sunday, But Get Substitute.

The "every member canvass," conducted by a large number of the churches of the city yesterday, is said to have been the most successful move of its kind that the churches of Duluth have ever undertaken. The work of canvassing the members of the churches taking part will continue all week in most cases, although some of the churches, which had begun the work in advance, ended the canvass yesterday.

This campaign is preliminary to the engagement of an evangelist to conduct a huge revival in the city.

A meeting of the ministerial association was held this morning at the Y. M. C. A. and informal reports made there were most enthusiastic. Pastors whose churches conducted a financial canvass yesterday declared that the response was the most liberal they have ever enjoyed, and those whose churches conducted a fellowship canvass reported that their canvassers report many new names for membership.

Will Continue Work.

The work will not be dropped with the end of the canvass, but will be carried on by the continuation committee. A meeting of that committee will be held tomorrow evening at the Y. M. C. A. to plan further work. Arrangements will be made to help Superior churches, which will begin a movement of the same nature next Sunday. Most of the evangelical churches of that city will be addressed by laymen on that day and later a canvass will be conducted.

The campaign to rouse church interest in Duluth is admittedly for the purpose of preparing for a big revival. Despairing of obtaining the services of Rev. William Sunday for a long time yet, an attempt will probably be made, in a short time, to obtain another evangelist of note. Mr. Sunday is dated up until May of 1917 and it is not expected that he could be engaged for Duluth before 1918.

Several well known evangelists have been talked of, notable "Gypsy" Smith, whose campaign in Minneapolis a few years ago was a signal success; B. Fay Mills, the old-time companion of Moody, and who is said to have shown all his old fire since his return to the evangelist movement; and J. Wilbur Chapman, who is just now finishing a successful campaign in Spokane, Wash.

Will Get Evangelist.

That some big man in the evangelistic field should be procured as soon as possible, instead of waiting for "Billy" Sunday, seems to be the feeling among the clergymen who have taken part in the laymen's movement; and it is believed that this matter will soon come to a head and action taken toward starting such a religious revival here very soon.

It may be that no evangelistic campaign will be opened up before next fall, as the time between now and the summer, when there is usually a let-up in activity, is so slight; but in the meantime, it is believed, some such evangelist will be engaged for a fall campaign of a month or more.

In connection with the movement that has been dominating the various churches of late, a great many of the pastors are conducting revival services on their own responsibility, and just now a number of two-week campaigns are on in many parts of the city.

LOVE OF FINERY IS CAUSE OF DOWNFALL

Desire for fine clothes proved the undoing of Alma Beck, 19, a pretty little blonde-haired girl who answered to two charges of petit larceny and one of disorderly conduct, before Municipal Judge F. H. Cutting today.

Although little more than a child, the girl smiled defiantly at court attaches when brought into the room by Police Matron Connelley.

She was arrested in a room above a retail establishment at 210 West First street yesterday by Detectives Roberg and Barber. With her was a man who gave the name of Wyman, 39. Wyman forfeited $15 bail.

When brought in, the girl was recognized by detectives as being wanted in connection with the theft of a lady's coat and skirt valued at $24.75, on June 12, last. Matilda Kerola was the complaining witness.

Mary Finely, an acquaintance of the Beck girl, swore to another complaint this morning, charging the theft of a blue serge suit valued at $18, on Feb. 15, 1916.

Judge Cutting continued the case until this afternoon, for sentence, after the girl had entered a plea of guilty.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Frank H. Winklesky and Helen G. Littleworth.

Frederick W. Young and Mrs. Louis B. James.

Nels C. Wohlin and Dagny Hanson.

Peter Lundgren and Ida A. C. Johnson.

Frank C. Weber and Anna C. Funk, both of Superior, Wis.

Ernest Forslund of Carlton county and Stena Grindskar of Superior, Wis.

James H. McCauley and Mrs. Selina G. Allen.

Henry M. Hammond of St. Paul and Mabel O. Nelson of Superior, Wis.

G. D. McArthur of Maple, Wis., and Signa Bang of Poplar, Wis.

Fred Ohlendorf and Edith M. Britton.

Wedding Announcements—Engraved or printed. Consolidated Stamp and Printing Co., 14 Fourth avenue west.

14, 18 AND 22K SOLID GOLD WEDding and engagement rings made and mounted to order at Henricksen's, 332 West Superior street.

Engraved and printed birth announcements. Consolidated Stamp & Print. Co.

MONUMENTS.

LARGEST STOCK OF HIGH-GRADE monuments in the Northwest; call and inspect before buying elsewhere. P. N. Peterson Granite Co., 230 E. Sup.

FUNERAL FLOWERS A SPECIALTY. Duluth Floral Co., 121 W. Superior St.

CARD OF THANKS.

WE WISH TO THANK ALL THOSE who so kindly helped us during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father.

MRS. BERT PETERSON AND FAMILY.

BUILDING PERMITS.

To Maude Elden, dwelling on the east side of Woodland avenue, between Sixth and Seventh streets	$ 4,600
To Joseph Seifert dwelling on the north side of Victoria street between Vermillion road and Wallace avenue	4,500
To Kelley-How-Thomson, temporary shed on the west side of Fifth avenue west, south of Railroad street	700

STILL HOPE TO REACH GOAL OF $50,000 IN FINAL SPURT

The campaign to raise $50,000 for St. Mary's hospital will close tonight, and the workers still have hope that it will be successful, although the last reports, presented at noon on Saturday, showed but $30,006.17.

It is believed that some of the committees have held back large subscriptions until the last day, and the most strenuous efforts have been made since Saturday noon. It is hoped that the final burst of speed will bring the total amount raised over the $50,000 mark.

No meeting was held today at noon, as has been the custom since the campaign opened, but the final meeting will be held tonight at the Spalding, when the last reports will be made.

In addition to the contributions of $100 or more reported in The Herald Saturday, was one of $100 from George W. Buck.

PERSONALS

Dr. A. H. Anderson and H. K. Bay of Ironwood, Mich., spent Sunday in Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Leirs of Youngstown, Ohio, are registered at the Holland.

E. S. Andrews, a well-known commercial man of the Northwest, who was recently married, is at the Holland today with his bride.

C. A. Neuman of Minneapolis, a well-known mining man, is at the Spalding.

CITY BRIEFS

Loose Leaf and Filing Supplies.
M. I. Stewart company. Phones 114.

Returns From Palm Beach.

Harold Weinstein, manager of W. B. Simons & Co., has just returned from Palm Beach and other Florida points, where he spent the greater part of the last three months looking over the conditions of that section. He expects to locate there in the near future. Mr. Weinstein has acquired extensive lands near Palm Beach.

Blankets Catch Fire.

A baby's crade, fortunately without the baby in it, was placed too near a stove in the home of Joseph Kuczynaski, 711 Garfield avenue, shortly after 10 o'clock last night and the blankets caught fire, causing $150 damage. Members of the Kuczynaski family were away at the time, and a roomer, asleep on the second floor, escaped by a close margin.

Property Owners Will Meet.

Property owners along Eighth street, between Twenty-second and Twenty-fifth avenues west, and Twenty-second avenue, from Eighth street to Piedmont avenue, will meet at the city hall Thursday evening to select a material for the proposed pavement. Macadam is generally favored by the owners. The meeting will begin at 8 o'clock.

Children Get $3,000 Estate.

Sadie and Jennie Niemi, 12 and 10 respectively, orphaned children of Antti Niemi, who died two years ago last November in the state hospital for the insane at Fergus Falls, aged 38, will share equally in the $3,000 estate left by their father. Their uncle, Alex Niemi of Virginia, today petitioned the probate court for letters of administration on the estate of his brother. The estate consists of realty located near Virginia, where the Niemis resided.

Banners for Winners Ordered.

Banners for the Salter and Merritt schools, senior and junior champions, respectively, in the grade school hockey contests, were ordered this morning by J. R. Batchelor, city recreational director. The banners will be presented to the schools the latter part of this month.

Three Subcommittees to Meet.

Three building code subcommittees will meet today and tomorrow to prepare their sections of the proposed measure. Committee No. 9 will meet this evening at the Glencoe building and Committees 1 and 3 will meet tomorrow evening at the organization's headquarters in the Palladio building.

Railroad Man Transferred.

George W. French of Duluth, for the last ten years traveling agent of the New York Central lines, with headquarters in Duluth, has been appointed commercial agent of the Michigan Central, with headquarters in Indianapolis. The appointment will become effective on April 1. Mr. French is one of the best known railroad men of Duluth and is widely known throughout the passenger territory contiguous to Duluth. His passing from local railway circles will cause regret among his friends.

Mine Owner Here.

Edwin Romberg of Chicago, well known in mining circles, is registered at the Spalding today. Col. Romberg is at the head of several mining companies that have holdings and leased mining claims in this section of the state, and he came here to attend the annual meetings of several of these companies. He is interested in companies that control the Silverman lands on the Vermillion and Messba ranges.

Company Incorporated.

Incorporation articles were filed today with the register of deeds by the Northern Rubber & Supply company, organized to engage in business with headquarters in Duluth. The capital stock is $50,000 and the incorporators are William A. Sombke, Otto H. Sombke and B. M. Schneider, all of this city.

Change at Weather Bureau.

C. H. Eshleman, who has been assistant to Weather Forecaster Richardson for some time, left Saturday night for Ludington, Mich., to which point he was transferred by the weather bureau. Albert D. Samial, who has been with the department at St. Louis, Mo., has arrived to replace Mr. Eshleman.

TRIAL FOR SIX "HOTEL" KEEPERS

Six boarding house proprietors, called by police the joint authors of an elaborate scheme to "roll" lumberjacks for their winter's earnings, will be tried in municipal court tomorrow afternoon on charges of conducting unlicensed drinking places.

In each case, police declare, the boarding house blind pigs had "steerers," who met incoming trains from the woods and directed lumberjacks or railroad laborers to their respective places.

After plying them with liquor until they are intoxicated, the custom was to raise the price of the whisky and beer, and then to resort to rougher means, if they didn't get enough money in that way.

The victims would wake up in the morning, usually, and find themselves penniless, detectives say. Fear of arrest kept the more ignorant ones from complaining to police.

The six who are now out on $100 bail and who will be tried are Martin Costello, 611½ West Superior street; Mike Smolich, 701 West Superior street; Mike Rajkovich, 721½ West Superior street; Mike Luzaich, 609 West First street; Mike Krznich, 627 West First street, and Mike Davich, 608 West First street.

The trials were scheduled for today, but were postponed on motion of attorneys representing the defendants.

POSTAL RECEIPTS SHOW PROSPERITY

The Duluth postoffice scored heavily during February, according to the report of the department just issued today. General prosperity in all lines of business is reflected in the increase of receipts, according to Postmaster William E. McEwen.

The receipts for stamps showed an increase of $5,486.10 for February, 1916, compared with the same period last year. The total receipts for the period this year were $35,778.78, as compared with $30,292.68 for last year in February.

In postal savings there was a liberal increase. The deposits were $12,429 against $10,292 for the same period last year. There was also a good decrease in the amount paid out. The sum of $9,057 was paid for the month in 1916 and $14,979 for the same period last year.

On March 1 last year there was a balance of $212,114 on hand, while this year there is a balance of $227,912.

SPANISH SHIP SINKS IN FIVE MINUTES

Santos, Brazil, March 6.—The Spanish steamship Principe de Asturias has been sunk by striking a rock. She went down in five minutes. Eighty-six members of her crew and fifty-seven passengers have been brought to Santos.

The survivors were brought to Santos by the French steamer Viga. A Spanish steamship is standing by.

Had 445 Persons Aboard.

London, March 6.—Lloyd's reports that there were 445 persons on board the Principe de Asturias.

ADDITIONAL SPORTS

WOLD'S TEAM IS SHOOT WINNER

A rifle match was held on the hilltop range yesterday afternoon between the treasurer's team and a team representing the secretary of the Northwestern Gun club. Treasurer Wold's team defeated that of Secretary Kalkbrenner by the score of 315 to 297. Snow failed to dampen the spirit of the contestants.

Treasurer Wold led the members of his team, with a mark of 38 out of a possible 50 and Secretary Kalkbrenner was tied for the highest score on his team, getting a mark of 35.

The score in detail:

Treasurer's Team.	Hits.	Possible.
John Wold	38	50
Fred Dryer	32	50
Edward Krause	34	50
Bert Jeronimus	36	50
John Peterson	30	50
C. W. Evans	28	50
Ed Peterson	25	50
F. Russell	31	50
F. Dzeninski	23	50
Claus Miller	37	50
Secretary's Team.	Hits.	Possible.
H. Kalkbrenner	35	50
O. Kalkbrenner	35	50
William Hesse	27	50
Gilbert Haugen	33	50
Alex	30	50
F. Heideman	28	50
I. Vesterfelt	13	50
J. Patchkowski	30	50
Alex Revi	31	50
W. A. Kautzle	35	50

PARK POINTERS WIN AT HOCKEY

Yesterday afternoon the Park Point hockey team defeated the Marines of the West end by the score of 5 to 2. The game was played on the Park Point ice and was one of the fastest of the season.

Charles Irvine, Fisher and W. Shearer were the stars of the Park Point septet. L. Olson and Cavanaugh starred for the West end team.

The win of yesterday was the fifth straight game the Minnesota Point team has won during the season. Not a single defeat has been encountered by the boys.

Some of the followers of the Pointers would like to see a game arranged between them and the Universals for the city hockey championship.

The lineup:

Park Point—	Position.	Marines—
W. Shearer	c	A. Welberg
Charles Irvine	r	Cavanaugh
E. Emerson	rw	J. Jorgeson
C. Irvine,
N. Hanson	lw	H. Gilmore
R. Swanson	cp	L. Olson
F. Fisher	p	B. Fortier
G. Swanson	g	W. Swanson

Referee, S. Shearer; timekeeper, A. Beatty.

CLEVELAND A. A. CLUB FATE TO BE SETTLED

Chicago, March 6.—Magnates of the American association met here today to take what they hope will be final action in the case of the orphaned Cleveland club. President Chivington said he thought its transfer to Toledo would be arranged.

It was reported that Messrs. Timme of Milwaukee and Cantillon of Minneapolis had agreed to join Roger Bresnahan in the deal. Those at the meeting were Bresnahan, McGill, Indianapolis; Timme, Milwaukee; Cantillon, Minneapolis; Norton, St. Paul; Tebeau, Kansas City; Quinn, Columbus, and Somers, Cleveland.

LETTER CARRIERS WILL GIVE DANCE

Tonight will be a big night for Duluth letter carriers, for Zenith branch, No. 114, will give its annual dance at the auditorium. Postmaster and Mrs. William E. McEwen will lead the grand march. Arrangements are in charge of: A. Makowski, L. D. Meyers, and William F. Plotnicky. The reception committee comprises L. G. Marlow, Thomas G. Thompson and Joseph Wilde, while members of the floor committee are A. D. Mahoney, O. A. Wicklund, Willam E. Cooley, Samuel Shearer, A. E. Halverson and H. G. Hejsler. Officers of the local branch are: L. G. Marlow, president; A. D. Mahoney, vice president; Joseph Wilde, recording secretary; Julius Nelson, financial secretary; J. A. Makowski, treasurer.

George A. Gray Co.

THE STORE FOR SERVICE.

113-115-117-119 West Superior Street Duluth, Minn.

All the World Loves a Baby and Now Comes Baby Week

All Duluth will be interested, for babies from all over the city are to be the guests at the Masonic Temple from 2 to 6 o'clock every afternoon this week.

Take your baby—there will be prizes for them to win. Every baby will be weighed and measured and judged according to the famous better baby standards.

Every baby in Duluth should share in the joys and privileges of Baby Week. Regardless of race or creed, citizens and citizenesses are uniting to make Duluth's Baby Week a week of pride, pleasure and profit to babies and their fond parents.

Each Baby Who Brings Its Mother to Gray's Will Receive a Daluty and Useful Souvenir.

The only requirement is that baby should be weighed at the Baby Show and bring in the official card given by the nurse showing baby's weight.

MRS. THOMPSON HAS JUST RETURNED FROM A-BUYING BABY THINGS IN NEW YORK.

Already there are elaborate showings of her purchases. We want you to see them so you will know where to go and what baby needs when baby needs it.

SEE THE DAINTY LITTLE DRESSES FOR THE LITTLE DEARS.

WINDOW DISPLAY

See the four-window display of baby things from our Baby Shop.

Many mothers know that it pays to buy baby dresses at Gray's—we are very careful to select dresses made only of shrunken materials in proven fast colors.

Cunning little dresses in white and in colors, $1.75 to $5.00. They are so good they will look better when worn out than cheap dresses when new.

Rollicking Rompers, 50c to $2.50

Unusual good values at 50c. They are really better than ever we gave before.

Other styles up to $2.50.

The most popular models sell at about 75c to $1.50.

Let baby play, creep and crawl in the sand or on the grass—these rompers can be washed as often as is necessary.

WeeHats and Bonnets, Too

Baby must have a new hat for Easter.

What you wish is here.

Simple little muslin bonnets, 35c to $2.50.

Lingerie hats, $1.25 to $5.00.

Straw hats, 75c to $3.00.

Bonnets of gingham and piques, 50c to $1.50.

Novelties in Rattles

Simple little affairs for a few cents. Novel styles at 25c to $1.50.

Some Fine... Overcoats, Ulsters, Bath Robes, Mufflers —at— Half Price to close.

SIEWERT'S

304 West Superior Street.

PEACE PARTY GOES TO VISIT ASHLAND

The "peace party" which will go to Ashland this evening to meet with the business men of the Wisconsin city, and discuss traffic matters and lake ports, will represent almost all wholesale houses in the city, and it is expected that by the time the visit will have ended Ashland people will have an entirely different feeling toward Duluth than it has been having.

Those who will go are: Bentley P. Neff, F. A. Patrick & Co.; P. E. Church, Northern Shoe company; Ike Black, Kelley-How-Thomson company; W. P. Marrs, Marshall-Wells company; C. F. Rowe, Marshall-Wells company; Frank X. Gravell and Bruce Ter Bush, Stone-Ordean-Wells company; G. Roy Hall, traffic manager of the Duluth Commercial club, and either Col. H. V. Eva or George D. McCarthy of the Commercial club.

Mr. McCarthy, assistant secretary of the Commercial club, visited Ashland last week and arranged for the visit. There has been some misunderstanding concerning Duluth's attitude toward Ashland, ill-feeling being fostered by Minneapolis business men, and it is believed that the Ashland men will be shown that rivalry they felt Duluth held against them is only chimerical.

DULUTH WINS ANOTHER RAILROAD RATE CASE

The traffic commission of the Duluth Commercial club has been notified by the interstate commerce commission that it has won its "match case," on which a hearing was held Nov. 13 last. Roads had increased the rate on matches from Duluth to Arkansas points from 1½ to 8½ cents a hundred, but the traffic commission succeeded in having them suspended until June 28 next. The hearing was held in the meantime, and the interstate commerce commission has ordered that the suspended rates be canceled.

This is considered more of a victory for Duluth than appears on the surface for it will have an effect on other cases that are up and still others that may be brought up.

TWINS THE FEATURE OF CHURCH SERVICE

Chicago, March 6.—Several of the pairs of twins who attended the special "twin service" of the Diversey Boulevard Methodist Episcopal church here yesterday, will join the church, the Rev. Burt E. Smith, the pastor, announced today.

Dr. Smith extended a public invitation to every pair of twins in Chicago to attend the services and as a result almost two score pairs appeared. There were twins in the choir, twin girls whistled musical accompaniment to hymns and twin girls played violins. One pair of twin boys, 9 years old, was brought by their father from Milwaukee to attend the service, for the sermon of which Dr. Smith took as his theme "The Birth Right."

Direct sunlight by its chemical effects disintegrates the backing of mirrors in a comparatively short time.

FOR BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, COUGHS AND COLDS

Make the Best Remedy at Home—128-Teaspoonsful for 50 Cents

If everything was sold in as liberal and fair a manner as the Lyceum Pharmacy is selling Schiffmann's New Concentrated Expectorant, absolutely no cause for complaint or dissatisfaction could possibly arise from anyone. These druggists say—"Buy a bottle of this remedy and try it for Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Severe Cough, Croup or any Bronchial Affection, and we will return your money, just as we do with Schiffmann's famous Asthmador, if it does not give satisfaction, or if not found the best remedy ever used for any of these complaints." Why not take advantage of this guarantee and try this medicine, and get your money back, rather than buying another purely on the exaggerated claims of its manufacturer or on the strength of testimonials from others and run the chance of getting something worthless and also wasting your money?

In buying this remedy, besides securing an absolute guarantee of its efficiency from these druggists, you also get about eight times as much medicine as you would in buying most any of the old-fashioned, ready-made kinds, which average from 20 to 32 teaspoonsful, because 50c worth makes a whole pint (128 teaspoonsful) when mixed at home with simply one pint of sugar and one-half pint of water. This remedy positively does not contain chloroform, opium, morphine or any other narcotic. It is pleasant to take and children are fond of it. You will be the sole judge, and under this positive guarantee absolutely no risk is run in buying this remedy. Druggists everywhere are authorized to sell it under the same guarantee as Schiffmann's famous Asthmador of "Money Back" if not perfectly satisfactory. R. J. Schiffmann, Proprietor, St. Paul, Minn. (76)

Curling Hockey

News and Views of the Sport World

BILLIARDS ~ WRESTLING ~ BOWLING

Basketball Boxing

SWEDISH GRAPPLER IS TO TAKE ON THE HUGE ABERG

Helmar Johnson Will Meet Finn Here—Jeff Smith, Next Opponent of Mike Gibbons, Is One of the Few Middleweights Left for Mike—Many Cities After the Gotch-Stecher Contest.

BY BRUCE.

AFTER dickering and wiring and searching the country over for an opponent fit to meet Alexander Aberg, Promoter Cub LaJoy has finally succeeded in procuring a heavyweight wrestler who, it is believed, will give the huge Finnish grappler a match. The man LaJoy has finally selected as the opponent of Aberg, is Helmar Johnson, a Swede who made a good showing in the New York heavyweight tournament and who defeated all but the three finalists in the big Manhattan Opera House tournament.

Johnson will meet Aberg here in a finish contest on Friday evening at the auditorium. Johnson, like Aberg, is a giant in size. He came from Sweden last fall to wrestle in the Manhattan Opera House tournament and made a remarkable showing, wrestling his way down to the final three men. As the majority of the heavyweights of the country want none of the game of the huge Aberg, who has been tossing them right and left, it has proved a real task to line up a man qualified to give the huge Finn a real battle.

News from Chicago declares that Aberg and Stecher may meet during April. Aberg recently issued a defi to the Nebraska scissors grinder. In return, Stecher declared that he is quite willing to meet the winner of the New York tournament. A contest between Stecher and Aberg would, it is believed, provide the greatest test Stecher has been put to thus far in his meteoric career.

* * *

Antithesis—Practically Applied.

Just think of it—they are playing baseball in Florida!

* * *

Gibbons and Jeff Smith.

ON March 17, Mike Gibbons and Jeff Smith will meet in the Capital City Athletic club's arena. The contest will mark another lap on the home stretch glove rush of the Phantom and will also possibly serve to prove that Gibbons remains invincible and unbeatable among the middleweights of the present day.

All talk of matching Mike and Jack Dillon has subsided. There remains little doubt but that making 158 pounds upon the part of Dillon would necessitate the amputation of a limb. Also, rambling along in regard to Mike's opponents, it might be stated that the enlistment of Lester Darcy may mean that the one man in all the world the fight fans would most like to see pitted against Michael has been eliminated from the reckoning for the time being at least.

Jeff Smith is one of the few, yea, very few, opponents left for Gibbons to fight. Name some men who would make a good match for Mike. Come, we're waiting! No, we thought so. There are few boxers left in the world that are fit to make a great match against the Phantom.

Smith's greatest claim for fame and the right for a meeting with Gibbons, is the knockout he holds over Les Darcy. Smith and the Antipodean wonder met upon two occasions. Smith won the first meeting via the slumber route: Darcy was given the second bout on a foul. Al Lippe, manager for Smith, claimed robbery and was not at all slow in speaking his mind. For his conversational exuberance he was practically run out of Australia.

As a matter of fact, Smith has a remarkable record. He has fought the best in the land and has always given a great account of himself. It is difficult to convince the average follower of boxing that any middleweight lives who can beat Mike Gibbons in ten rounds—the great speculation in the majority of Mike's contests being whether the Phantom will win by a knockout.

As Smith has gone twenty rounds with Georges Carpentier without being stretched on the floor for a short but fatal period of time, it would appear that Mike will have accomplished quite a feat should he kayo the Eastern boy.

Smith was due to arrive in St. Paul early today and start his training for the contest of a week from next Friday. While there will be no Tobasco Dan McKetrick to put the spice of pungent publicity into the coming fight, it is believed that Gibbons and Smith will draw a huge house.

* * *

No, Not in the Least.

Waking up on a day like this, a holdout baseball player would not be given the least encouragement to sign them papers.

* * *

The Final Proof, Indeed.

Just to prove that he is a man of great determination and great will power, it may be stated that Frank Moran is chopping wood as part of his training preparation.

* * *

The Field Is Widening.

Butte, Mont., has entered the field as a bidder for the Gotch-Stecher contest, offering a purse of the pleasing denomination of 40,000 kopecks. Rock Island, Kansas City, New York, Omaha, San Francisco and Chicago are some of the other cities. It is stated that Chicago will come through with a $50,000 bid. As a box office attraction, there is every reason to believe that a meeting between Gotch and Stecher will draw well in excess of $100,000, and that's a lot of money.

CHAMPION JESS WILLARD ARRIVING IN NEW YORK

TOM JONES, JESS WILLARD, JACK CURLEY.

This picture was taken as Jess Willard and Tom Jones alighted from the train in New York. They were met in the station by Jack Curley. In this picture the world's champion looks in good health, though somewhat high in flesh. From the way Willard is working, it is believed that his trainers realize that the plainsman has a lot of conditioning to do before the meeting with Moran.

PULLEN WINS RACE AT LOS ANGELES TRACK

Los Angeles, Cal., March 6.—Eddie Pullen won the George Washington sweepstakes, a 100-mile automobile race, which was the feature event at the opening here yesterday of the new Ascot speedway. His time was 1 hour 30 minutes and 42 seconds.

Bob Burman finished second and Earl Cooper was third. Their time was 1:32:43 and 1:32:44 1-5 respectively.

DON'T FORGET
Bowlers' Dance
Tuesday Eve., March 7
Camels' Hall, 12 East Superior St.
BLEWETT'S ORCHESTRA

WEST ENDERS WANT HOCKEY CONTEST

Would Meet Team of Players Living in the East End.

An all-star hockey team has been organized in the West end. Arnie Olson, Stahl, Clark, Peterson, Nelson, Gus Olson, Bastien, Hedberg, Alder and Berg are the players available for places on the septet. A challenge is directed to a team that may be organized from hockey players residing in the East end of the city.

Still smarting under the defeat administered by the Universals to the Big Duluths, West end players seek a way to be revenged and have thus organized a team.

The majority of the members of the Big Duluth team were West enders and practically all of the Universals were East enders. Thus a game between the all-stars of the two sections of the city would, in fact, be somewhat of a repetition of the great contest that was played in the curling club rink last Friday evening.

HAS FAST OPENING.

American Bowling Congress Tourney Begins at Toledo, Ohio.

Toledo, Ohio, March 6.—Few men are entered in the minor events of the American Bowling congress tournament, now in progress here, but high scores are expected in practically all events. The first two-man shift will start at 1 p. m. today.

Sunday's bowling proved to be the fastest ever seen at an opening day at an A. B. C. meet. W. Heenan, Jackson, Mich., rolled 630 in the singles, while Broderick and Mollenkopf, Cincinnati, lead the two-man contest with 1,152. Overland Front Axles, Toledo, topped the five-man event with a score of 2,574.

BAYLISS IN MATHEWSON WINS ICE AUTO CONTEST

Hayman, in a Ford, Defeats Bayliss in the Shorter Contest, Though an Extra Heat Is Necessary to Decide Winner—Young Blizzard Fails to Dampen Enthusiasm of Spectators.

Despite the blizzardy front presented by the weather man yesterday, the annual automobile race program of the Duluth auto dealers was staged on the two-mile circular course on the ice-covered lake. The main event of the afternoon, the twenty-mile contest, was won by Andy Bayliss, driving a Mathewson. Ralph Hayman won the ten-mile event in a Ford, while Ernie Nelson won the six-mile motor bobsled contest.

The rigors of the weather did not prevent a large crowd from witnessing the speed trials. Many of the spectators were assembled on the shore line of the lake and observed the races from a distance. Other spectators were gathered around the course, a large number of machines being lined up at the finish line.

While a heavy wind somewhat retarded the speed of the machines, the average speed maintained during the afternoon was from 50 to 60 miles an hour, which is considered very good on a circular track unbanked at the turns. Sand was sprinkled on the turns, but it was impossible to maintain anything like an average straightaway speed on the turns.

The dangers incurred incident to the sharp turns, and the wide swerves the machines made on rounding the turns and settling for the dash on the straightaway, kept the spectators in a continual spirit of excitement and enthusiasm. As the machines rounded into the stretch and the drivers would step on the gas, there would be a roar of enthusiasm from the bemuffled spectators, corresponding to the roar that came from the whirring machines.

Buchanan Shows Speed.

Ray Buchanan was the fast time man in the 20-mile contest. He fairly burned up the ice in his Mercedes. But as Buchanan was merely driving an exhibition contest, his time was not counted as official. Buchanan negotiated the twenty miles in 24:07 while Bayliss, officially the winner, covered the distance in 25:30.

Great enthusiasm as well as considerable mirth was caused by a Ford winning the 10-mile contest. The finish of the contest resulted in a tie between the Ford entry and Andy Bayliss in his Mathewson. A special two-mile heat was run off to decide the winner, and the little old Ford finished its time trial five seconds to the good over the record of the Mathewson.

The motor bobsled contest was rather unique and seemed in perfect keeping with the spirit of the day.

E. J. Filiatrault, K. R. Osman and Mike Gibbons acted as judges and timers.

The summary:

Twenty-Mile Race.

	Min.	Sec.
* Ray Buchanan, Mercedes	24	7
1 Andy Bayliss, Mathewson	25	30
2 H. Sharp, in Dr. Paric's Loco	25	45
3 Ralph Hayman, Ford	26	15
4 Wm. Wilson, Palmer Singer	27	55
5 O. A. Rosto, O. A. R. Special	29	15
6 H. Peterson, Case	29	30

*Exhibition only, does not participate in prizes.

Ten-Mile Race.

	Min.	Sec.
1 Ralph Hayman, Ford	12	..
2 Andy Bayliss, Matthewson	12	..
3 Norman Smith, National	13	15
4 Ray Buchanan, Mercedes	13	15
5 Wm. Wilson, Palmer Singer	14	45
6 O. A. Rosto, O. A. R. Special	15	50

Two Miles to Decide Tie in Ten-Mile Race.

	Min.	Sec.
1 Ralph Hayman, Ford	2	40
2 Andy Bayliss, Matthewson	2	45

Motor Bob Race, Six Miles.

Nelson, Indian, first; time 10 minutes. Spindler, Henderson, second; time, 11 minutes 15 seconds.

Bertjoul in a Harley-Davidson, third.

OARSMEN TO REGISTER

First Work of the Season Is Scheduled for Tuesday Afternoon.

While the actual machine work of the Duluth Boat club candidates will not start until tomorrow afternoon, all candidates for places on the various crews will be requested to register today.

Just how many candidates will be out, the boat club officials do not know. Various committees have been at work during the last week and it is expected that they have hustled up a large number of boys who are to take their first crack at the aquatic sport. Whether Edward Hanlan Ten Eyck will arrive today or will not get in until tomorrow, is not known by Wallace Quimby. The arrival of the famous Diamond sculi winner and the greatest amateur sculler that ever sat in a boat, will be the signal for a large amount of activity among the crew candidates.

CUBS AND REDS ON TRAINING TRIP

Conditioning Season On—Cleveland Americans Win First Game.

Chicago, March 6.—Twenty members of the Cub squad, led by Manager Tinker, left yesterday for the spring training camp at Tampa, where they are due tomorrow morning. A special train conveyed the players, trainers, officials and correspondents, in addition to others, making the total number of passengers seventy. To amuse the party en route, the railroad officials installed on the train a pool table, a phonograph and a piano.

President Weeghman, William Walker and Al Plamondon were among the club officials who were in the party. A large crowd of fans bade the special good-by.

Tom Seaton, pitcher, and Max Flack, outfielder, the two Cub holdouts, came to terms Saturday and will be with the club at the Tampa training grounds. The former agreed by telegraph to accept a contract not providing transportation for his wife, which he held last year and the latter signed a contract at a salary not announced.

Cincinnati, Ohio, March 6.—The Cincinnati National League baseball team left here yesterday for their spring training camp at Shreveport. Eighteen players, including Manager Herzog, made the journey.

New Orleans, La., March 6.—The Cleveland Americans won their first exhibition game of the training season here yesterday when they defeated the New Orleans team of the Southern association 9 to 5. Two home runs featured the contest.

San Antonio, Texas, March 6.—Twenty-one hits, including three home runs, marked the second game of the practice series between the St. Louis Nationals and San Antonio team of the Texas league, which St. Louis won yesterday, 11 to 9, thereby evening the score. Brootem of the visitors and Wottell and Dunkel of San Antonio hit for four bases.

Miami, Fla., March 6.—Twenty members of the squad of the Boston Nationals, headed by Manager George Stallings and Business Manager Walter Hapgood, arrived here yesterday to begin spring training. John J. Evers was in the squad, which consisted chiefly of players whose homes are in the West and Middle West. The others are due here tomorrow.

BADGERS STILL LEAD BASKET BALL STANDING

Chicago, March 6.—The race for the conference basket ball championship enters the home stretch this week with Wisconsin still leading, and Northwestern in second place. The Badgers have two games to play, one with Chicago Wednesday, and the final game of the season Saturday night with Northwestern, and to win they must beat the Purple. The standing is as follows:

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Wisconsin	9	1	.900
Northwestern	9	2	.818
Illinois	7	3	.700
Minnesota	6	4	.600
Iowa	2	4	.333
Chicago	3	7	.300
Indiana	2	5	.286
Ohio	2	7	.272
Purdue	2	9	.182

King for a Day.

Chicago, March 6.—George Clark, the Brooklyn pool expert, is sufficiently entrenched, for a day at least, in first place for the race for the national pocket billiards championship. Clark is not slated to perform today, and his record of four victories and no defeats assures him the lead for a while.

The Charm of French Lick Springs Never Diminishes

Thousands of people visit it each year and never grow tired of it.

The scenery is so restful; the climate so refreshing—the very mention of it is suggestive of the beautiful spring—and it is spring there now.

That splendid golf course, those delightful walks and horse-back trails are calling now.

That magnificent hotel with its procession of elegance and unequalled cuisine is irresistible. Located in the foothills of the Cumberland Mountains—just a night's ride from Chicago on the

MONON ROUTE

(CHICAGO, INDIANAPOLIS & LOUISVILLE RY.)

Then there are the benefits of the waters and baths with their curative and health-giving properties.

If you have been there, you know how the trip puts a spring into your step; how it sweeps the cobwebs from your brain, soothes your nervous organisms and tones up your entire system. If you have never been there, you certainly have something in store for you.

Two daily trains from Chicago—8:30 a. m., with observation-library car—9:00 p. m., with electric-lighted, drawing-room, compartment-observation sleeping cars—from Dearborn Station.

Send for beautifully illustrated booklet, descriptive of the pleasures and curative properties of French Lick Springs,

The Home of Pluto

Address French Lick Springs Hotel, French Lick Springs, Ind., or

E. P. Cockrell, G. P. A. Monon Route, 1466 Transporation Bldg., Chicago, Ill.

Or

L. E. Sessions, G. A. P. D. Andrus Bldg. Minneapolis, Minn. 30

Alive With the National Spirit

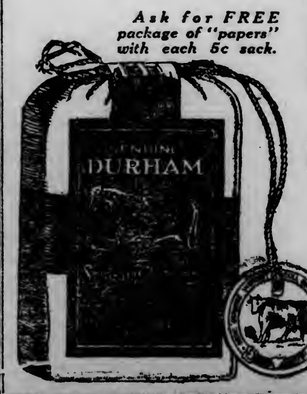
That lively, quick-action, hit the-mark-every-time taste of "Bull" Durham has made it the Smoke of the Service from Maine to the Philippines. There's crisp, brisk snap to a fresh-rolled "Bull" Durham cigarette that just suits men of spunk and spirit.

GENUINE "BULL" DURHAM SMOKING TOBACCO

A "roll your own" "Bull" Durham cigarette has distinctiveness—character—personality. It gives you that wonderful mellow-sweet flavor and unique aroma which are not found in any other tobacco. And "Bull" Durham is so delightfully mild that you enjoy it more and more.

Learn to "roll your own" with "Bull" Durham—a few trials will do it—and you'll get far more enjoyment out of smoking.

Ask for FREE package of "papers" with each 5c sack.



FREE An Illustrated Booklet, showing correct way to "Roll Your Own" Cigarettes, and a package of cigarette papers, will both be mailed, free, to any address in U.S. on request. Address "Bull" Durham, Durham, N.C.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO CO.

Jim reached New York today, if he maintained his travel schedule, and is expected to wind up his business and start back within the next two or three weeks. In the meantime the work of starting the preliminary training will devolve on the shoulders of Ned Ten Eyck and the older crew men.

DINHAM TO MEET HARRIS

These Skips to Play Off Semi-Finals of Herald Event.

Bill Dinham's rink will take on Walter Harris in the semi-finals of the Herald event this evening. The winner will meet Sam Cleveland in the finals of this event, which will be played during the present week.

Walter Hall and Leslie Coson are in the finals of the Manley event, which will also be played this week. As play is narrowed down in the Pinzon event, the present week will find most of the regular scheduled curling program of the club completed.

Following are the results of play Saturday, tonight's draw, and the standing of play to date:

HERALD EVENT.

Will Dinham vs. Walter Harris.

BLAZE OF GLORY.

J. E. Macgregor vs. A. C. Hoene.
C. Brewer vs. C. R. MacLean.
J. F. Naufts vs. H. G. Stewart.
E. Mann vs. A. J. Gow.
G. Milligan vs. C. West.
W. E. McLeod vs. Buster Shalsberg.
E. D. Field vs. F. H. Fitzgerald.

BOARD OF TRADE.

Sam Cleveland vs. C. Naughton.
Alex MacRae vs. H. F. Macgregor.
Ray E. Warren vs. Laird Goodman.
Fred Hoene vs. E. A. Forsyth.

Curling Results.

BOARD OF TRADE EVENT.

David Stocking, 12; P. Stillman, 0.
A. A. Michaud, 13; S. L. Kelchert, 4.
A. Butchart, 11; Jack Foreman, 9.

BLAZE OF GLORY.

J. C. Currie, 12; F. Hoene, 9.
W. G. Hall, 8; Ray Bishoff, 7.
F. Hargreaves, 15; A. B. Kapplan, 11.

MANLEY EVENT.

Leslie Coson, 12; Sam Cleveland, 11.

PINZON EVENT.

A. C. Hoene, 8; C. Naughton, 3.

Manley Event.

Semi-Finals.	Finals.
Coson Cleveland	Coson
Dinham Hall	Hall

Pinzon Event.

Third Round.	Semi-Finals.
Dinham Hall
Naughton Hoene	Hoene
Brewer Duncan
Milligan Macgregor	Macgregor

Herald Event.

Semi-Finals.	Finals.
Duncan Cleveland	Cleveland
Dinham Harris

SKAT TOURNAMENT.

Will Be Held in Milwaukee in July, St. Paul Relinquishing It.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 6.—The 1916 tournament and congress of the North American Skat league will be held in Milwaukee on July 8, 9 and 10, it is officially announced by the executive officials of the league. St. Paul had previously relinquished the honor of being the tourney city.

The following officers were elected: President, P. W. Ruppert; vice presidents, Joseph Krizek and Joseph Man; treasurer, M. Dreyfus; secretary, Oscar Schwemer; directors, Otto Kausch, in place of M. M. Dreyfus, and E. E. Steamacher in place of Joseph Krizek.

Disbrow Marries and Quits.

Chicago, March 6.—Louis Disbrow, the automobile racer, announced his retirement from active participation in the sport, coincident with his marriage Saturday to Miss Harriet May Henry of Chicago.

Harvard Gets Meet.

New York, March 6.—At a meeting of the Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes in America it was unanimously agreed to hold the intercollegiate track and field meet at the Harvard stadium on the last Friday and Saturday in May.

Clips Skating Record.

Chicago, March 6.—Roy McWhirter, Northwest Skating club, made a new record for 300 yards straightaway yesterday in a skating meet at Humboldt park between his club and the Norwegian Turner society, when he went the distance in 25 2-5 seconds. The previous record was 28 2-5.

JOHN BARLEYCORN NO LONGER POPULAR

Cases of Alcoholism in U. S. Navy Decrease Every Year.

John Barleycorn and his bacchanalian crew are no longer popular in the United States navy, and less intoxicating liquor is being drunk by Jack Tars every year. In a report made by the department at Washington and received by E. A. Nippa, naval recruiting officer at Duluth, each year has shown a falling off in the cases of alcoholism reported, while the number of men in the navy has been increased every year.

The report covers cases from 1908 to 1915. Full reports for 1915 are not yet complete, but the figures for the previous years follow:

Year.	Men in Navy.	Cases of Alcoholism.
1909	57,172	350
1910	58,340	335
1911	61,399	267
1912	61,897	241
1913	65,926	228
1914	67,141	226

Beat High Prices Next Fall.

Buy winter suits and overcoats now at half price at the Big Duluth.

O'BRIEN HAS STRONG TEAM

Dook Has Signed Up a Formidable Looking Baseball Squad.

Another Outfielder and Infielder Wanted; Darby to Play the Bench.

Frank Lausche, the Cleveland amateur third baseman O'Brien has been after for some time, sent in his signed contract late Saturday and will make a strong bid for an infield position with the Duluth White Sox during the spring preliminary training season.

Klein, who caught and played first base for the Winnipeg team during a portion of last season, may play first base for the White Sox during the approaching season. Schroeder has refused to sign the contract tendered him, and therefore it is not expected that the German will be an infield candidate for the Dook's ball club.

Art Faull of Hurley, who hade a remarkable record as an amateur, both as a hitter and fielder, may be another first base candidate.

Today it was announced that a final effort is being made to land Lucey Sours. The presence of this hard-hitting ball player in the outer works would give the local team considerable offensive strength. Sours walloped the sphere at a .300 clip in dear old Muscatine, and it is believed he would maintain the same bludgeon terrificness in the Northern circuit.

After Another Catcher.

With Fusner, formerly of Fort William, as the first catcher, O'Brien is on the lookout for a second string receiver. Bert Sweeley will not be back this season, according to an announcement worded recently by the I. O.

Kirkham is afree agent, and is therefore in a position to sign where the most dollars cluster. Just where the fleet flychaser will play the coming season is not known as yet. It is not believed that "K-K" will be in the local fold.

Jerry Altman, possibly Sours, and Ray Parks may compose the ouefield. It is not believed at the local baseball office that Chief Williams will be back here. A contract was sent to the chief, which he failed to return. Hoffmeister, a catcher, who signed Saturday, can play the outfield, and he may be used chasing flies as well as behind the wind pad.

Coates of Virginia is mighty sweet on Kirkham, and would like mighty well to land the former White Sox outfielder for his team.

Newt Randall left Saturday for Oakland, Cal. The leaving of the former Milwaukee player for the land of flowers and sunshine effectively dashes of the rumor that he was to be manager of the Virginia team during the coming season.

O'Brien to Play Bench.

Owner Blume has announced that from this time on Darby O'Brien will be listed among the bench managers of the land. It means that for the first time since the Dook has been at the Head of the White Sox, some other candidate will be tried out for the job of second basing.

With Lausche and Webb, the latter formerly tried out with the Indianapolis team, as infield candidates, Darby is still in the market for another infielder to make up a fast first wall defense.

On paper the bunch the Dook has signed appears strong. But ball teams on paper and on the playing field do not always bear even the most remote resemblance. From early appearance it would seem, though, as if the Dook has a better looking aggregation than the one that represented the local club last year.

SCOTT UNOPPOSED FOR RE-ELECTION

Nominations for Officers of the International Typographical Union.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 6.—Nominations for officers of the International Typographical union, delegates to the convention of the American Federation of Labor and to the Congress of Trades and Labor of Canada, will close March 8, according to an announcement made today. The official ballot containing the names of all candidates has been distributed to the members making up the 482 unions throughout the country. The election will be held on the fourth Wednesday in May. Marsden G. Scott, New York Union No. 6, has no opposition for renomination for the presidency. The same is true of Walter W. Barrett, Chicago Union No. 16, for vice president.

J. W. Hays, Minneapolis Union No. 42, present secretary-treasurer, is opposed by John W. Bramwood, Indianapolis Union No. 1, and W. E. Merritt, Houston, Tex., Union No. 87.

The union will send four delegates to the convention of the American Federation of Labor, and there are six candidates for these positions, as follows: H. W. Dennett, Los Angeles; Max S. Hayes, Cleveland; T. W. McCullough, Omaha; Frank Morrison, Chicago; U. B. Pittenger, Mount Morris, and Hugh Stevenson, Toronto.

There are also six candidates for the four trustees of the Union Printers home that are to be chosen. They are: Malcolm A. Knock, Boston; Thomas McCaffery, Colorado Springs; William Mounce, New York; T. T. Nock, Birmingham; Jerome V. O'Hara, New York, and Michael Powell, Ottawa, Ont.

Joe M. Johnson, Washington, D. C., is the only candidate for agent of the Union Printers home. There are three candidates for delegates to the Trades and Labor congress of Canada, as follows: James Drury, Montreal; Samuel Hadden, Toronto, and W. R. Trotter, Vancouver.

BURNED TO A CRISP BY FLAMING LIQUID

Paris, March 6.—The Germans in their assaults in the Verdun fighting are using several sorts of burning liquid projectors. One of these is in the form of a small tank which is carried on the back, filled with a composition liquid which seems to be mostly kerosene. Attached to the nozzle is an igniting apparatus. The liquid is projected by means of a hand pump. The radius of action is ordinarily from 60 to 90 feet.

Some French soldiers have been burned to a crisp by the flaming liquid.

Merritt & Hector Printers

BOTH TELEPHONES 112 WEST FIRST STREET

OCEAN RAIDER REACHES PORT

German Cruiser Moewe Arrives With Prisoners and Booty.

Safe Passage Through Enemy's Ships a Remarkable Feat.

Berlin, March 6, via London.—Official announcement was made here yesterday that the German cruiser Moewe arrived in a German port. She had on board a large number of British prisoners and 1,000,000 marks in gold bars.

The announcement says fifteen vessels were sunk by the Moewe which also laid mines at several points. One of these mines, it is stated, sank the British battleship King Edward VII.

The statement follows:

"The naval general staff states that H. M. S. Moewe, Capt. Burgrave von Dohn-Schildien, after a successful cruise lasting several months arrived tonight at some home port with four British officers, twenty-nine British marines and sailors, 166 men of crews of enemy steamers, among them 103 Indians as prisoners, and 1,000,000 marks in gold bars.

"The vessel captured the following enemy steamers, the greater part of which were sunk and a small part of which were sent as prizes to neutral ports.

"The British steamers Corbridge, 3,687 tons; Author, 3,496 tons; Trader, 3,608 tons; Ariadne, 3,035 tons; Dromonby, 3,627 tons; Farringford, 3,146 tons; Clan Mactavish, 5,816 tons; Appam, 7,781 tons; Westburn, 3,300 tons; Horace, 3,335 tons; Flamenco, 4,629 tons; Saxon Prince, 3,471 tons; British sailing vessel Edinburgh, 1,473 tons; French steamer Maroni, 3,109 tons; Belgian steamer Luxembourgh, 4,322 tons.

"At several points on enemy coasts, the Moewe also laid out mines to which, among others, the battleship King Edward VII fell victim."

The Moewe's capture of two of the fifteen vessels listed by the German admiralty has not been reported previously. They are the Saxon Prince and the Maroni, both of which were engaged in the trans-Atlantic service.

The Saxon Prince, 3,471 tons gross, 352 feet long and owned by the Prince line of Newcastle, England, was built in Sunderland in 1899. She was last reported on sailing from Norfolk, Feb. 12, for Manchester.

The Maroni sailed on Feb. 19 from Bordeaux for New York. She was built at Port De Bouc in 1909, owned by the Compagnie Generale Trans-Atlantique of Havre, and was 312 feet long of 3,109 tons gross.

Spectacular Feat.

The Moewe, previously made famous by her exploits, has performed one of the most spectacular feats of the war on the seas by reaching a home port in safety. The great German naval port of Wilhelmshafen is on the North sea, which is patroled with ceaseless vigilance by British warships. It is through these waters, which have been blocked off in districts for patrol by the different British units, that the Moewe must have threaded her way to home and safety.

At least part of the gold captured by the Moewe was taken from the Appam, which put in at Newport News several weeks ago under command of Lieut. Berg with a German prize crew. Announcement was made in London on Jan. 10 that the British battleship King Edward VII had been blown up by a mine. The place at which the disaster occurred was not revealed by the British admiralty. It was said that no lives were lost and only two men were injured.

The Moewe first became famous when the Appam reached Newport News with a story that astonished the world. It was learned that the commerce raider had captured and sunk seven British vessels in the main line of traffic between South Africa and Europe, in addition to seizing the Appam, which had been almost given up for lost.

Next Heard of at Canaries.

The next heard of the German raider was on the arrival at Canary Islands late last month of the Westburn in charge of a German prize crew. It was then made known that the Moewe had sunk five more steamships off the coast of Brazil.

The Saxon Prince and Maroni probably were captured by the Moewe on her way back to Germany, as their sailing dates show they were both on the high seas toward the end of February.

The identity of the Moewe has not been established here definitely. Prisoners from captured ships which were transferred to the Westburn said on their arrival at the Canary Islands that the Moewe's guns were smaller than seven inches. According to one report she was formerly a tramp steamer, one of several of which had been fitted out with guns as commerce raiders. The last previous report of the Moewe was that she parted from the Westburn on Feb. 9.

Count von Dohna, the Moewe's commander, belongs to the Schlodien or Silesian branch of his family, which is headed by Prince Richard von Dohna. He formerly commanded the gunboat Tsing-Tau in the China seas. It was reported last month that the count was in command of the German raider Ponga, which was said to have made her way out of Kiel several weeks ago.

The captains of the British steamers sunk by the Moewe, who were brought to the United States on board the Appam said the Moewe was the converted fruit trader Ponga. Lieut. Berg of the Appam, in denying this and also a report that the raider was the German cruiser Roon, said the ship was "his majesty's Moewe."

Reached Wilhelmshafen.

London, March 6.—An Exchange telegraph dispatch from Amsterdam says the Moewe reached Wilhelmshafen Saturday. Count von Dohna, the Moewe's commander, has been awarded the iron cross of the first class and the members of the crew have obtained the iron cross of the second class. Count von Dohna has been ordered to meet Emperor William at headquarters.

Slayer Placed on Probation.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 6.—George Roohana, convicted of manslaughter in connection with the death of J. C. Davis, following a fight in a dance hall, in which Davis died from a hemorrhage of the brain, when his head struck the sidewalk, Saturday was placed on probation by Judge A. C. Backus and was ordered to pay $20 monthly toward the support of Davis' family. The jury recommended leniency when a postmortem revealed that Davis had a portion of his skull removed following a previous accident. A defendant in a similar case two years ago pleaded guilty before Judge Backus and was commanded to pay $25 a month to the victim's family. The payments have been made conscientiously.

Gen. von Menges Dead.

London, March 6.—A Reuter dispatch from Amsterdam says the death is announced at Breslau of Gen. von Menges. The general, who was 70 years old, distinguished himself as commander of a reserve division.

VOTERS HAVE BUSY YEAR

Three Elections for State at Large; First March 14.

Two Primaries Precede General Election of November.

The voters of Duluth and of the state at large will have three opportunities to cast their ballots this year in the regular course of elections, and should there be a referendum or a county option election called, still more chances may be afforded to exercise their freeman's right.

The regular election system of the state affords the following:

March 14.—Primaries to choose delegates to the national conventions of the various parties, both at large and from the several congressional districts; these national conventions to choose candidates for president and vice president.

June 19.—Primaries at which candidates of the several parties will be nominated for the state congressional, county and legislative offices; also, and for the first time in Minnesota, to chose party candidates for the office of United States senator.

General Election.

Nov. 6—General election, for the election of the following:

National—President and vice president, and presidential electors.

Congressional—United States senator from Minnesota, and congressman from the various districts.

State—Governor, lieutenant governor, state treasurer, attorney general, clerk of supreme court and one justice.

Legislative—Members of the lower house from the several districts, the state senators holding over for two years more.

County—Judge of probate, one judge of the district court, and four county commissioners; other county officers having been elected two years ago for four-year terms.

So many questions are being asked just now concerning the plan of choosing officers, that it would seem that many consider the matter complicated, when, in fact, it is not.

First Primary Soon.

The first chance for voting will come a week from next Tuesday, at which time voters will take part in party primaries. They vote at the same polling places, regardless of their party affiliations, but call for the ballot of the party with which they wish to identify themselves. This ballot will contain the names of men who wish to go to the national convention of the party, the conventions to chose candidates for president and vice president to be presented to the voters in the general election of Nov. 6. The voters will have the right to cast their ballots for four delegates at large and two from the district in which they live; and as each of the candidates for delegate will be classed under the name of the candidate he wishes to support for the presidential nomination, the voter will be really casting his ballot as an indication of the men he wishes to see nominated.

The successful candidates at this primary will go to the conventions to be held later in the year. In the case of the Republican party, the national convention will be held in Chicago in June; the Democratic national convention will be held in St. Louis in the same month; the Progressives will meet in Chicago coincident with the Republican convention; and the Prohibitionists will meet in St. Paul in June.

Down to Finals.

These conventions over, the several parties will be in shape for the campaign that will follow up to election day on Nov. 6, when the voters will cast their ballots to decide whom they want as chief executive of the nation.

At the November election, the voters merely indicate the presidential candidate whom they favor, and their ballots really count only for the electors. The electors chosen gather in Washington early during the following year and go through the form of casting their ballots in the electoral college, for president, and by this means the next president and vice president are chosen. It has happened that the man who received the largest number of popular votes—that is, direct support of the voters—has failed of election because the electors, being chosen by states, have been in the majority for his opponent; but that is the system adopted by the nation and is part of the constitution.

State Ballot Plan.

The state ballot is also a party affair, and in the primaries of June 19, the several parties will choose their candidates to represent them for the offices named above, in the general election of Nov. 6. The primaries are conducted on the same general plan as those of March 14, insofar as the separation of the party tickets is concerned, the voters calling for the ticket of the party they belong to, at the polling places. It is expected that the ballot this year will be a simple one, as not much contest is expected in any of the parties. However, that may develop otherwise.

For the first time in the history of Minnesota, the United States senator will be chosen by popular vote. Heretofore the senator has been elected by the legislature. The several parties will choose their candidates for election, at the June 19 primaries, on the same plan as the state officers are chosen, and these will go up to the Nov. 6 general election for final choice of the voters.

The nomination of congressmen will take place on June 19, along with the others, and the final determination of who will represent the several districts will be made in November at the same time the fate of the others is decided.

Non-Partisan Ballot.

The legislative and county offices are chosen on a non-partisan basis. The candidates for the various offices to be chosen, however, come up for preliminary choice in the June primaries, and the two highest for each office then contest again in the general election. The ballot this year will be rather slim, as compared to that of two years ago. Most of the county officers were placed on a four-year term basis and were elected on that a year ago last fall. The judge of probate, being a constitutional office, will be voted on this year, and one judge of the district court will be chosen, the term of Judge Martin Hughes of Virginia expiring this year. The other county offices to be at stake this year are those of county commissioner in the First, Third, Fifth and Seventh districts, the terms of Alex Fraser, Walter A. Swanstrom, Charles Kauppi and R. S. O'Neill expiring.

In legislative matters only members of the house of representatives will be chosen, the senators having been elected for a four-year term, a year ago last fall. St. Louis county holds five districts, and two representatives will be chosen from each.

BOXFORD
THE NEW STYLE IN
Lion Collars
OLDEST BRAND IN AMERICA
WRITE FOR BOOKLET OF 16 STYLES
UNITED SHIRT & COLLAR CO., TROY, N. Y.

WOMAN NOT SORRY SHE KILLED PRIEST

Slayer of Churchman in St. Paul Expected to Plead Insanity.

St. Paul, Minn., March 6.—Arrangements were being made today for the funeral of Rev. Henry Jajeski, who was shot dead at St. Casimir's Polish Catholic church here Saturday night by Mrs. Aniela Dudek of Minneapolis. Locked up at the central police station the woman, the police say, refuses to discuss her reasons for shooting the priest, merely repeating her original statement that he had wronged her. It is understood her defense will be insanity. In her cell the woman, who is 38 years old, Sunday pleaded for permission to go home to her husband and seven children. She was glad, she said, that she had killed Father Jajeski because he had wronged her.

Had Acted Queerly.

Frank Dudek, husband of the priest's slayer, told last night of recent "queer actions" of his wife, and said that he had urged her to stay away from St. Paul.

So piteous became the pleas of the woman to see her youngest child, a 7-months'-old girl, that the police finally permitted the husband to bring the child to the police station last night and spend an hour with Mrs. Dudek. After the visit the woman seemed much comforted.

POPE AGAIN RAISES HIS VOICE FOR PEACE

Says the Present War Is Suicide of Civilized Europe.

Rome, March 6, via Paris.—Pope Benedict has again raised his voice for peace. In a special letter written for the Lenten season, the pontiff says he cannot sit silent, indifferent to the terrible conflict which is rending Europe. He recalls all that he has done to induce the contending nations to lay down their arms, virtually throwing himself between the belligerents and conjuring them in the name of the Almighty to desist in their plan of mutual destruction.

The pontiff again sets forth the proposal which he made some months ago, as follows:

"Each belligerent should clearly state his desires, but should be ready to make necessary sacrifices of pride and particular interests, thus ending the monstrous conflict in accordance with justice and re-establishing peace; advantageous to neither side, but profitable to all and therefore, a just and lasting peace.

"This paternal voice," continues the pope, "was not heard. Thus the war continues with all its horrors. I rejoice that our cry for peace has had a profound echo in the hearts of the belligerent peoples, indeed the peoples of the whole world, and has aroused a deep desire to see the sanguinary conflict cease.

"I must, therefore, once more raise my voice against this war which appears as the suicide of civilized Europe."

The second part of the letter deals with prayers, penance and alms in the neutral countries, the alms to be devoted especially to the relief of the pitiful children of those dead in this horrible war."

FOUND NO FEELING AGAINST AMERICANS

House Says Reports Concerning European Antagonism Exaggerated.

New York, March 6.—Col. E. M. House, who sailed for Europe on Dec. 28, on a confidential mission for President Wilson, arrived here yesterday on the steamship Rotterdam from Falmouth. As soon as he landed from a special coast guard cutter, which met the Rotterdam at Quarantine, Col. House announced he would leave at once for Washington to meet the president. He left at 4 p. m. He declined to comment on his mission or what he had seen or done while abroad, reiterating the statement he had made prior to leaving here in December, that his mission was to convey to some of the American ambassadors information having to do with international questions that could not be supplied them by cable or letter.

Asked if he had noticed any marked change in the attitude of Europe toward the United States since his previous trip, Col. House said:

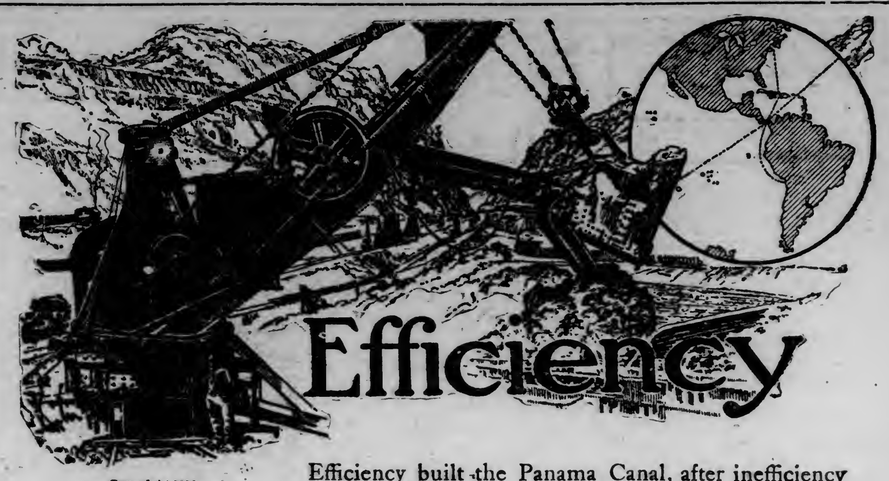
"Reports of an unfavorable attitude toward the United States by the people of Europe are exaggerated. At least, I heard no criticisms in any of the countries I visited. I will say also that we should remember that the people of the belligerent nations are living with their nerves on edge, and we should make allowances accordingly."

He added that everywhere he was treated with every courtesy and consideration.

To a question as to whether he intended making Washington his home during the remainder of the Wilson administration, Col. House replied:

"While I am often in Washington, I have no intention of making it my home, either temporarily or permanently. My home is, and will continue to be, in Texas, for my interests, my boyhood friends and lifetime associations are there."

On orders from Washington, Collector of the Port Dudley Field Malone met Col. House at Quarantine with a special customs outter, from which newspapermen and photographers were excluded.



Copyright 1916 General Roofing Mfg. Co.

Efficiency

Efficiency built the Panama Canal, after inefficiency failed. The efficiency of Panama doubled the effectiveness of the U. S. Navy without adding a ship to it. It took over 8,000 miles out of the trip from New York to San Francisco, and changed the highway between London and Australia from Suez to Panama.

Efficiency insures against lost motion—it produces the utmost service out of equipment and yields the finest product, at the least cost.

You can identify CERTAIN-TEED Roofing by the name, which is conspicuously displayed on every roll or bundle. Look for this label, and be satisfied with none that doesn't show it.

CERTAIN-TEED is made in rolls, also in slate-surfaced shingles.

There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roofs; from the largest sky-scraper to the smallest residence or out-building.

CERTAIN-TEED is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to ply (1, 2 or 3). Experience proves that it lasts longer.

Certain-teed
Roofing
is an Efficiency Product

Every advantage that men, money and machinery can offer is used to increase the production, maintain the quality and lower the cost. Each of the General's enormous mills is advantageously located to serve the ends of efficient manufacture and quick distribution. Each is equipped with the most up-to-date machinery. Raw materials are purchased in enormous quantities and far ahead of the needs of manufacturing, thus guarding against the increased cost due to idle machinery. This also insures favorable buying, and the pick of the market.

Expert chemists at each mill are employed to select and blend the asphalts, and every roll of CERTAIN-TEED is made under their watchful care.

CERTAIN-TEED resists the drying-out process so destructive to ordinary roofing, because the felt is thoroughly saturated with a blend of soft asphalts, prepared under the formula of the General's board of expert chemists. It is then coated with a blend of harder asphalts, which keeps the inner saturation soft. This makes a roofing more pliable, more impervious to the elements than the harder, drier kind.

GENERAL ROOFING MANUFACTURING COMPANY
World's Largest Manufacturers of Roofing and Building Papers

New York City, Chicago, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Boston, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Detroit, San Francisco, Cincinnati, New Orleans, Los Angeles, Minneapolis, Kansas City, Seattle, Indianapolis, Atlanta, Richmond, Houston, London, Sydney

NATIONAL MAZDA LAMPS
10, 15, 25 and 40 Watts, each—
27c
UNIVERSAL ELECTRIC CO.
112 EAST SUPERIOR ST.
Melrose 7657. Grand 165-X.

CHICHESTER S PILLS
THE DIAMOND BRAND.
Ladies! Ask your Druggist for Chi-ches-ter's Diamond Brand Pills in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with Blue Ribbon. Take no other. Buy of your Druggist. Ask for CHI-CHES-TER'S DIAMOND BRAND PILLS, for 25 years known as Best, Safest, Always Reliable
SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

Gray Hair? by druggists everywhere
sample FREE H. E. Nichols Clark av. St. Louis "Walnutta"

HAVE IT REPAIRED
CLEANED AND REBUILT LIKE NEW—THE COST IS SO LITTLE
The Herald's Repair Directory gives all the principal places where an article can be repaired, and should be preserved in every home as a ready guide.

EXPERT REPAIRING
on short notice. Trunks and leather goods placed in first-class condition at a small cost.
DULUTH TRUNK CO.,
SUPERIOR STREET—220 WEST.

HEAD { Hair Dressing, Scalp Treatments, Shampooing, Massaging; Hair Goods to order.
AND MANICURING
FOOT { Foot ailments treated by lady chiropodist—Mrs. Dr. Bahr.
Comfort Beauty Parlors
109 Oak Hall Bldg. Both phones.

Established in Duluth 21 Years. Reference—City National Bank.
SPALDING JEWELER
428 WEST SUP. ST.

COME AND SELECT YOUR BICYCLE
Early while we have a good selection. Don't forget we are repair headquarters for guns, locks and safes. We also make keys to order.
DULUTH GUN SHOP
203 West First Street.
Melrose, 3969. Grand, 2286-A.

THE REPAIR DIRECTORY APPEARS EACH MONDAY

DEFECTIVE PAGE

SCOOP THE CUB REPORTER — Whut Is This Petromortis—Anyway? — By "HOP"

THEY SAY MOTORISTS DIE FROM BREATHING CARBON MONOXIDE GAS GENERATED FROM ENGINE THRU EXHAUST WHILE CAR IS RUNNING IN NEUTRAL— THIRTY MINUTES EXPOSURE TO 20% OF THIS GAS IN AIR IS DANGEROUS— AND 5% PRODUCES SLIGHT SYMPTOMS!
HERE'S TH' EXHAUST FROM A CAR IN NEUTRAL— LET'S SEE WHUT TH' 5% SYMPTOMS ARE LIKE!
CHUG-CHUG
GOSH—I SHOULD WEAR AGA'S METER—I THINK I'M INFLATED OVER 5%!
KUH-CHUG
— SYMPTOMS ARE DEVELOPING— TOO FAST FOR NOTES—I SHOULD CALL ME A STENOG—AND TRY TO DREAM TH' REST OUT LOUD!
ALLEY
©1916-INT'L-SYND-BALTO-MD

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

SHIPMENTS ARE HEAVY

Large Call for Farming Implements Reported at Fargo, N. D.

Increase in Implement Demand Reflects Great Growth of State.

Fargo, N. D., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The implement establishments of this city are anticipating the largest year in their history, and arrangements are being made to take care of this business, the indications being that within the next couple of years the business will have reached a stage where freight terminals will be possible and the advantage taken of carload lot shipments by all of the houses joining to make their shipments.

Within the last few months six tractor concerns have made Fargo the distributing point for this territory and other implement concerns have started branches. Among the branches put in recently are the Northern Rock Island Plow company and the Kinard-Haynes company.

Some Large Shipments.

Some idea of the increased shipments made from this city is shown by the records of the Union Transfer company, which does a general storing and shipping business. These records show that during the months of January and February the shipments are three times as large as they were for the same two months last year.

With the increase in the number of implement houses here the managers have begun to talk strongly about the proposition of bunching shipments, and they are of the belief that the houses have grown in number and size in the city to soon warrant the departure.

A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! Is Tongue Coated, Breath Feverish and Stomach Sour?

"California Syrup of Figs" Can't Harm Tender Stomach, Liver, Bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." —Advertisement.

WILL SPEND MUCH ON NORTH DAKOTA ROADS

Estimated Amount to Be Disbursed This Year $4.03 Per Capita.

Bismarck, N. D., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—North Dakota will spend this year $2,711,295 in highway construction, according to State Engineer Bliss, who has compiled the statistics furnished by the county officials, with the exception of Bowman and Eddy counties.

This total is divided into $614,808 of county road funds, $549,581 county bridge funds, $1,475,472 township road and bridge funds and $71,434 refund on motor licenses. This makes a total average for each of the fifty-two counties of $52,140, but of course some of the large eastern counties have much more than the average share.

North Dakota will spend $4.03 for every man, woman and child within the state in constructing roads this year, based on the 1915 census.

All Want Better Roads.

The figures show an increase of $341,292 over the amount expended in 1915, and this is not indicative of the rapidly increasing sentiment. Many townships have voted two to ten times as much as formerly. The agitation is more widespread than formerly and the favorable sentiment for better highways is due primarily to the largely increased number of automobiles owned by farmers. Formerly the farmers were antagonistic in the belief that the good roads agitation was to the advantage of the town people, but since they now own a majority of the machines of the state and have learned the great advantage of good highways in marketing farm products, they view the situation differently.

The trans-continental trails along the main lines of the Great Northern, the Northern Pacific and the Milwaukee roads are also an incentive for better highway construction and are doing much to popularize the movement.

RED LAKE IS IN "DRY" TERRITORY

Declares Calderwood Who Asks to Have Indian Treaty Enforced.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 6.—Claiming that Red Lake county, which voted "wet" last Monday, is still within the "dry" area of the 1863 Indian treaty, W. G. Calderwood of Minneapolis has written to Cato Sells, commissioner of Indian affairs, and to Henry A. Larson, in charge of treaty enforcement in Minnesota, calling attention to the fact that the sale of liquor is illegal in Red Lake Falls and Plummer, the two remaining "wet" spots in the Red River valley.

Close examination of the 1863 treaty and of the order made by President Taft in 1911 modifying its provisions, has shown that the two Red Lake county villages are in "dry" territory, Mr. Calderwood says.

WAKEFIELD LOSES CASE.

Its School Board Must Pay Pentoga Contractor Large Sum.

Bessemer, Mich., March 6.—Sued in circuit court here by the Wakefield school board for about $7,000 for failure to complete a contract. A. D. McRae, a Pentoga contractor, was awarded judgment against the school board for $11,319.02.

The action grew out of a contract taken by Mr. McRae to drive a tunnel through some rock near Wakefield which the school board designed for sewer purposes. Mr. McRae claimed that the original contract called for a tunnel 1,200 feet long, but that the school board changed it after the bids were opened to 1,600 feet. He also claimed that they shifted the tunnel from its original line as shown by the blueprints.

After doing considerable of the excavating, Mr. McRae walked off the job and refused to continue with the work. That necessitated the reletting of the contract at a much higher figure than the one Mr. McRae got per foot. The school board sued McRae for the difference, some $7,000.

After listening to the testimony the jury returned a verdict in favor of McRae for the sum of $11,313.02. Mr. McRae had already been paid the sum of $5,317.20.

MOORHEAD RAIDS; FIND EMPTY BOTTLES

Moorhead, Minn., March 6. — Armed with search warrants issued by County Attorney C. G. Dorland, Chief of Police Melvey and two officers raided the Comstock hotel, Northern Pacific express and freight offices and another place. The Comstock raid resulted in the finding of a number of empty whisky bottles. Joseph Abdo, a porter, was arrested and charged with bootlegging. At the express office Albert Elstad was arrested. At the freight depot a large quantity of whisky and beer was confiscated and Carl Edlund and Clarence Elstad were arrested.

ONE TIME MAYOR OF MANKATO PASSES AWAY

Mankato, Minn., March 6.—August G. Meyer, former mayor of Mankato and for years one of its most prominent business men, died Saturday, aged 66. He was born in Hanover, Germany, coming to America in 1878 and locating first in Owatonna then to Mankato in 1888 where he engaged in the monument and marble business continuing in it till death. He was one time president of the Citizens' Fire association, served as member of the council and was the first mayor of a Minnesota city under the commission form. His wife and four children survive: Arthur, Edwin P., August, Jr., and Miss Helen Meyer all of this city.

VERDICT FOR PLAINTIFF AGAINST RAILWAY CO.

Ashland, Wis., March 6.—The jury in the case of the Bayfield Peninsula Fruit association against the Northwestern Railway company, in circuit court brought in a verdict for the plaintiff. The case involved the shipment of three carloads of apples which the Fruit Growers' association claimed were spoiled in transit by neglect of the railroad company.

The personal injury case of Chris Nelson against the Omaha railway is being heard today. Nelson was injured last June near Benoit by being struck by a freight engine.

FIELD SECRETARY WILL VISIT ASHLAND SCHOOL

Ashland, Wis., March 6.—Paul M. Riechel, field secretary of the Student Volunteer association, will visit the Northland college on Tuesday.

Program meetings and conferences are planned for all day, opening with chapel services in the morning. The conferences with the various Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. committees will be held, also with the missionary committees at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Student Volunteer association was organized by Evangelist Dwight L. Moody a number of years ago. Its principal object was to encourage more of the college people to enter the foreign missionary fields.

Crystal Falls Dogs Poisoned.

Crystal Falls, Mich., March 6.—There is considerable poisoning of dogs about town and the dog owners are getting together in a movement to spring a surprise upon the persons responsible for the scattering of the poison.

War Veteran Buried.

Little Falls, Minn., March 6.—The funeral of Solomon H. Dingman, Civil war veteran who died at St. Cloud Saturday, aged 75, was held here today. A native of Coberg, Can., he came to Chicago with his parents when 9, where he grew to manhood. During the war he moved to Wisconsin, where he enlisted in Company E, First Wisconsin Heavy Artillery. He served until honorably discharged June 25, 1865. For the past forty years he made his home here. He leaves a wife and two sons, George and Charles Dingman of Chehalis, Wash., and two daughters, Mrs. J. E. Barr and Mrs. C. R. Traband of St. Cloud.

AT ONCE! STOPS STOMACH MISERY AND INDIGESTION

Instant Relief From Sourness, Gas, Heartburn, Acidity, Dyspepsia.

"Pape's Diapepsin" Is the Quickest, Surest Stomach Relief Known.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.—Advertisement.

SOUTH DAKOTANS CAN EMIGRATE UP NORTH

Bar Against Livestock Entering Dropped By North Dakota.

Bismarck, N. D., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—State Veterinarian Crewe announces that the bars against livestock shipments from South Dakota to this state have been let down, which will be welcomed by settlers from that state who wish to locate in this. In fact it was because of the large number of applications from prospective homeseekers from South Dakota and the showing made that the diseases that formerly infected the livestock of that state had been eradicated that was a controlling factor in bringing about the new order recently promulgated by the State Livestock Sanitary Board of North Dakota. The order is effective March 10.

The railroad companies joined with the settlers in an application for the change because of so many people who had applied for cars for immigrant movables. The new order will not only mean a greatly increased business for the railroads but a large increase in the population of North Dakota.

North Dakota Crops Alluring.

The great crops raised in North Dakota in 1915 have attracted national attention. The farmers of the state farther south have learned that acre for acre the $25 to $50 land in this state will produce as much or more cash returns than the $100 to $150 per acre land in other states.

Farmers farther south can sell their smaller holdings and bring the money here and acquire two to three times as much land, each acre of which is more productive than that which they have sold.

The state is attracting a great many settlers not only from South Dakota but from many other of the middle Northwestern states and the indications in North Dakota point to more realty activity this year than for the past five combined.

THEIR LIVES THREATENED.

Women Deputized to Care for Neglected Children Given Fright.

Walker, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The lives of Miss Catherine Bateman, chief clerk in the judge of probate's office, and Miss Edna Spencer, a deputized juvenile officer appointed by Judge of Probate Jamison, were threatened while attempting to take six children, all under 13 years, from the home of Thomas Vaughn, near Mildred. The young women had been deputized by the probate court to secure the children and bring them before the court, when the father met the officers at the door of his home with an ax and threatened bodily harm unless they left the premises. It was necessary to call for Sheriff Kennedy to take the man in charge and he was brought to the county seat and lodged in jail. The two juvenile officers, though greatly perturbed over their experience, made a second trip to the Vaughn home and returned with the children, who are alleged to be suffering from exposure and neglect. Notwithstanding the cold weather, the children were without shoes of any kind and scantily attired.

WALKER NOTES.

Walker, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Agent Brown of the M. & I. railway has gone to Kentucky to join his family. Ben Grotte is the new agent here now, being formerly day operator.

At a meeting of the school board held Thursday, all of the teachers were re-elected for next year. The spring vacation was set for the first week in April.

Miss Wilson, teacher at the agency school, left this week for Duluth to meet friends who were en route to Minnesota from Canada.

Supt. Mayer of the agency was in Duluth last week on business before Judge Morris of the Federal court.

The Minneapolis Brewing company has foreclosed on the opera house and taken charge of the building. Repairs will be made.

The Backus Athletic club celebrated its first anniversary with a stag supper, over thirty-five being present.

DAIRY LECTURE AT BAUDETTE TUESDAY

Baudette, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—W. A. Dickenson of the agricultural department of the state university will deliver a lecture on the dairy industry at the board of trade rooms on Tuesday evening. He will go to Pitt to give a similar talk on the following day. The farmers' club has secured two experts to give practical talks on agricultural lines.

BAUDETTE CLUB SEEKING MEMBERS

Baudette, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Two captains have been chosen by the president, Mrs. Kennedy, of the Woman's club to secure members within the next two months. Mesdames J. Gibson and G. D. Arnold have already secured more than 100. The campaign is a lively one. The side getting the least will have to give a banquet to the winners. The next meeting is called for March 14 at the board of trade rooms. The club will work along moral, social and civic lines and will assist the board of trade in its work.

NORTH DAKOTAN IS KILLED UNDER WAGON

Garrison, N. D., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Fred Swartzman, Sr., one of the pioneers of McLean county, was almost instantly killed when a wagon of grain tipped over and he was crushed beneath the weight.

Just how the accident happened will probably never be known. Swartzman was found pinned beneath his wagon on the hill about a mile and a half northeast of here by Arthur Hodge. A physician was summoned but the man had died before his arrival. He was 63 years of age and leaves a wife, four sons and three daughters.

HILL CITY TO HAVE LUMBER COMPANY

Brainerd, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Lakeside Lumber company has filed its incorporation papers, giving Hill City as its principal place of business. The capital stock is $10,000. The incorporators are J. O. Melham, Watertown, S. D., president; Thos. Brusegaard, Hill City, vice president; Theo. B. Brusegaard, Watertown, S. D., secretary-treasurer. The company operates a large branch yard in Brainerd, having bought the Dower Lumber company plant here.

Company's Status Argued.

Madison, Wis., March 6.—Arguments were heard Saturday before Insurance Commissioner Cleary and members of the industrial commission on the question as to whether the Illinois indemnity exchange, operating in Wisconsin under the name of the Wisconsin Employers' exchange, is an exchange within the meaning of the workmen's compensation act. Charles H. Crownhart, formerly chairman of the industrial commission, in his argument contended that the company was not a company within the meaning of the act. The opposite view was presented by William McKinley of Illinois, former speaker of the Illinois legislature.

PENINSULA BRIEFS

Marquette—Charles A. Peterson, a former resident of this city, now of Treadwell, Alaska, has left for Alaska, having spent the past three weeks in the city with his family, Kraig street. This was the first time in the past seven years that Mr. Peterson has been in Marquette.

Ishpeming—N. C. Dewey, district deputy state fire marshal, whose territory embraces the entire Upper Peninsula, has been in the city for a couple of days, inspecting the theaters and public buildings.

Negaunee—The Negaunee city council recommended the purchase of 1,000 feet of hose for the city fire department and 32 coats for the firemen. City Health Officer Larson told the members of the council that the water from Teal lake during February was in good condition and the spring water is also in excellent condition.

Ishpeming—The funeral of Mrs. Daniel P. Sullivan, who died Wednesday night, was held Sunday afternoon with services in St. John's church at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Sullivan was one of the first women residents of the city, having come here in 1863 from Ireland, her birth place, and she had resided here ever since.

Marquette—Hugh Costley and bride of Eveleth, Minn., are guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Michaels, West Ridge street, for a few days.

Ontonagon—Rev. Spafford Kelsey, pastor of the Presbyterian church, has received his formal appointment as a foreign missionary to the Shantung province in China. Mr. Kelsey will leave Ontonagon the last of June, spending a couple of months at his home in Cass City. He will sail from San Francisco about the last of August.

Calumet—The contractors working on the Gately-Wiggins block on Sixth street will have completed their work within the next week and when completed the block will have one of the most beautiful fronts in Calumet or vicinity.

Houghton—The Ladies' Aid of the Baltic M. E. church elected these officers: President, Mrs. C. C. Cole; vice president, Mrs. T. Kneebone; secretary, Mrs. John Spurr; treasurer, Mrs. Josiah Collins.

PIMPLY? WELL DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them Off With Dr. Edward's Olive Tablets.

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the successful substitute for calomel—there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, Ohio.

WISCONSIN BRIEFS

Maiden Rock—At the risk of her own life Miss Ruth Wentlandt today saved Harley Larrieu and Harold Wentlandt from drowning in the Eau Galle river at Spring Valley. Hand in hand the little boys had ventured onto the ice and had broken through.

Milwaukee—Dr. A. E. Banks, direct from the United States health bureau, is in Milwaukee to vaccinate every employe of the government against typhoid because of the epidemic here.

Sturgeon Bay—Several years ago the Reynolds Preserving company bought a quantity of saccharine to use in canning operations, but it was not found as suitable to their use as common sugar and was discarded. Now the price has advanced, due to its scarcity and use in manufacture of dyes, and the small supply which cost $25, and was almost thrown away as useless, has just been sold for $225.

Milwaukee—Willis L. Cheney, aged 44, cashier and director of the Second Ward Savings bank, who started his banking career in Milwaukee twenty-three years ago as collection clerk for the Wisconsin National bank, was buried Saturday. Mr. Cheney leaves a widow, a son, Marshall, and a brother, Ernest, an engineer on the Milwaukee road. D. C. Cheney, another brother, who was freight traffic manager of the Milwaukee road, died several years ago.

Wausau—The $200,000 plant of the H. E. McEachron mills is practically completed and the machinery is being tested. The mill will be in operation about March 15, will have a capacity of 700 barrels of product every 24-hour day and will be operated day and night.

Neenah—The breach of promise action started by Martin Alberts, 23 years old, against Mrs. Caroline Niebling, 59 years old, has been dropped. In the original action the complainant demanded $1,000. Settlement was reached under a legal agreement drawn up by attorneys.

Depere—The Oneida Indians will make an effort to collect the interest on the $2,000,000 paid a number of years ago by the United States in settlement of the Kansas claim. The Oneidas belong to the Six Nations and their share would be $400,000. They have given a contract to O. D. Kellogg to take the matter up at Washington.

Green Bay—An expenditure of $110,000 on the harbor at this port is recommended in the report filed at Washington by Chief of Engineers Dan C. Kingman of the United States army.

DAKOTA BRIEFS

Bismarck, N. D.—M. D. Anderson of Fargo, state manager of the Modern Brotherhood of America lodge, is here assisting A. R. Delbridge in the campaign for new members which is being conducted here.

Redfield, S. D.—The farmers' elevator at Gallop, a small station on the Milwaukee between Ashton and Mellette, was totally destroyed by fire March 2, with a loss of about $40,000, covered by $7,000 insurance on the building and $25,000 on the grain it contained.

Huron, S. D.—Hubert K. Little, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Hitchcock, S. D., for many years, is to give up preaching for the newspaper game. He has just purchased the Republican at South Shore, S. D. He will get out this week's issue.

Fargo, N. D.—Max Stern, president of the Dakota Trust company of Fargo, prominent in business circles here for many years and one of Fargo's wealthiest residents, died March 3, after a year's illness of cancer. Mr. Stern and his brother, Alex Stern, own the property at Fourth avenue south and Franklin street in Minneapolis, formerly known as the Penney block. The funeral was held Sunday.

Jamestown, N. D.—Harry Lancaster, at least that is the name he gave Judge Murphy, was bound over to the district court in $1,000 bonds to await the next term of district court on a white slave charge. In lieu of the bonds he is now in the county jail.

Valley City, N. D.—Another bank has been opened in Kathryn, this county, the institution being formed by residents of that city, with J. Jensen, who has for some time been at Leal, as cashier.

Fargo, N. D.—The name of the North Dakota-Minnesota Short Ship Racing circuit was changed to the North Dakota-Minnesota Racing association at the annual meeting held here. W. S. Lycan of Crookston was elected president, Don V. Moore of Grand Forks, vice president, and C. Nash of Fargo, secretary-treasurer.

Rapid City, S. D.—The officers and stockholders of the Security Savings bank of this city have added a fifth bank to their string with the purchase of the Whitewood Banking company at Whitewood.

MINNESOTA BRIEFS

Fosston—While working around a power saw operating at the home of his father, Martin Torgerson, Oscar Torgerson lost the third finger of his left hand in the saw.

Bagley—Bagley is to have a new industry, the manufacture of the Tollefson potato conveying system, of which Gilbert Tollefson is the inventor. M. J. Kolb is president of the company and Gilbert Tollefson, O. T. Davids and P. C. Bjorneby are the chief stockholders.

Red Lake Falls—A meeting of assessors will be held in the courthouse here on March 8 at 10 o'clock for the purpose of receiving instructions from the tax commission as to the proper method of listing and assessing the different kinds and classes of property in accordance with the laws of the state. A member of the Minnesota tax commission will preside at the meeting.

Roseau—The Commercial club held its annual meeting and the old officers of the club were re-elected as follows: Mike Holm, president; Carl von Rohr, treasurer; R. J. Bell, secretary. The secretary was instructed to take up the matter of daily freight service with the Great Northern officials.

Thief River Falls—Men employed by the American Drainage company, consisting of G. D. Le Sage, Fred Hollander and F. H. Johnson of Thief River Falls, have been busy in Goodridge lately unloading dredging machinery preparatory to starting ditch work.

Northome—At the meeting of the Highland Farmers' club the following new officers elected were: President, Frank Crandall; vice president, Judd Garrison; secretary, Joe Ebener; treasurer, John Uran, re-elected.

Bemidji — The new consolidated schoolhouse at Spur was completely destroyed by fire. The origin of the fire is not known. The total loss will be over $12,000. The school was completed last fall and opened for school about Oct. 1. The cost of the building was about $9,000.

Brainerd—Brainerd lodge of Elks elected these officers: Exalted ruler, J. J. Cummins; esteemed leading knight, R. R. Gould; esteemed lecturing knight, A. F. Victor; esteemed loyal knight, George Coutu; secretary, J. C. Higbe; treasurer, B. L. Lagerquist; tyler, F. S. Parker; representative to the grand lodge meeting at Baltimore, J. J. Cummins; representative to state convention at Duluth, S. F. Alderman.

Crookston—Mrs. Lillian Burkhardt was given an absolute divorce from her husband, Irwin Burkhardt of Wabasha, Minn., formerly of Crookston, by Judge Watts on charges of cruelty and inhuman treatment. She was also granted $500 alimony, $100 attorney's fees and the custody of their only child, a 6-year-old daughter, Glendora Lucile. The couple were married at Emerson, Man., in July 1909, living here a short time before going to Wabasha to make their home.

Moorhead—Wadie Shaheen was arrested on a warrant charging running a gambling joint in connection with his pool hall. Shaheen pleaded guilty at once and was fined $50 with the alternative of spending thirty days in jail.

Stillwater—The prison population Saturday was 1,042; received during the week, 6; paroled, 1.

St. Hilaire—Men are making repairs on the north bridge. The railings have been removed and false work built under the span in preparation to removing the old timbers in the arch.

Minneapolis—Albert Johnson of Fargo, N. D., confessing to passing a bad $12 check on Edward Farley, 1113 Hennepin avenue, was sentenced to one year in the workhouse here Friday.

Abram's New Store

17 AND 19 EAST SUPERIOR STREET—One-half Block East Lake Ave.

Final Clearance on Coats

Winter Coats

in a large variety of materials and colors. Some of these coats have sold as high as $32.50, final clearance.... $7.50

One lot of odds and ends, one of a kind. All of this season's styles; some of these coats have sold up to $26.50, your choice..... $5.00

Corduroy Coats in all desirable colors. Formerly sold up to $32.50, choice..... $7.50

All Children's Coats and Mackinaws Now Selling Below Cost.

SPRING GOODS ARRIVING DAILY.

GRAND JURY VICE PROBE

Municipal Court Holds Up Freeman Case for Investigation.

Widespread Prostitution Is Said to Exist in City—Will Be Investigated.

Grand jurors, now in session, may turn the spotlight of investigation upon traffic in vice which is said to have grown up in Duluth gradually since the abolition of the old red light district, until it has become a serious problem.

When police and County Attorney Warren E. Greene asked Municipal Judge F. H. Cutting to postpone consideration of the case of John Freeman, 46, Garfield avenue grocer, until the facts had been presented to the grand jury, it was taken to mean that an investigation of various rooming houses and small hotels where commercialized vice is said to exist, would be forthcoming.

Freeman was arrested as a result of a raid on his "grocery" at 1002 Garfield avenue, early Sunday morning, by Chief R. D. McKercher, Lieut. Gustav Lahti and Detectives Toewe and Bradley. He is held on charges of conducting a house of ill-fame and receiving the earnings of a prostitute.

Judge Cutting set tomorrow as the day for Freeman's preliminary hearing, which will give grand jurors time to act, in case they decide to do so. If they return an indictment, the police case will be dropped, as far as municipal court is concerned.

Grocery Is "Blind."

"Freeman has been conducting a regular house of ill-fame, with the grocery store as a blind," said Chief McKercher. "Two or three women have been kept in the place all the time, judging from evidence we found in the raid, and Freeman, we believe, has been active in promoting his 'business.'"

Two or three other places in the city which have been the objective of police raids at various times, and which are suspected of being nothing more than houses of ill-fame, may be investigated, police believe.

"At the time of the abolition of the old district," the chief said, "men and women from that section scattered to other parts of the city, or went to Superior. With the betterment of business conditions, they are beginning to drift back, and to resume their practices on the quiet."

Two women and two men, arrested in the "grocery" on Garfield avenue with Freeman, were released on bail and failed to appear in court. They were: James Armstrong, 22; John Varfnao, 22; Alice Healy, 23; and Mrs. Emma Pronovst, 35. The women forfeited $10 and the men $20.

The grand jury is said to have but a few cases left for consideration, and is expected to complete its work tomorrow.

FORT TRAVANNES IS GERMAN OBJECTIVE

Vigorous Efforts Being Made to Take Verdun Fortification.

London, March 6.—The Central News correspondent at The Hague says dispatches received there from the front show that the Germans are making vigorous efforts to capture Fort Tavannes, four miles northeast of Verdun, but that the French are resisting them resolutely, inflicting heavy losses on the attackers.

Stubborn fighting continues near Verdun, the correspondent continues. The village of Vaux no longer exists. More than 10,000 Germans carried out an assault upon the French positions at Vaux, but the correspondent says they were repulsed with large losses, several German lines being swept away by the famous French 75s.

It is also said that twenty-seven trainloads of German wounded have left the Verdun battlefields for Germany.

TURKS MAY OPEN THE DARDANELLES AGAIN

London, March 6.—Reuter's Athens correspondent telegraphs the following under Saturday date:

"No further news has been received regarding the reported assassination of Enver Pasha.

"Significant information has been received here from private sources that the Turks are removing the mines from the Dardanelles, which appears to be a measure preparatory to opening the straits."

An Athens dispatch Saturday night from the same correspondent said advices had been received there from a diplomatic source in Constantinople that an attempt had been made to assassinate Enver Pasha, Turkish minister of war and one of the most powerful German supporters in the empire.

It was said an appeal had been made to Emperor William to send reinforcements to Constantinople "in view of the gravity of the situation."

Beat High Prices Next Fall.

Buy winter suits and overcoats now at half price at the Big Duluth.

PROGRAM ARRANGED FOR RELIEF BAZAR

Manager Binheim Makes Announcements of Three-Day Fair.

Several meetings of different subcommittees of the Red Cross and war relief fund bazar, which will be held under the auspices of the German-Austro-Hungarian Relief association from March 23 to March 25, were held this afternoon. The committee on refreshments has fixed the menu for three days, and the entertainment committee has worked out an elaborate program. Max Binheim, manager of the fair, announces a different orchestra for every night, together with well-known vocal and instrumental soloists, an old-fashioned zither quartet, children's mass chorus, flag drill, club swinging and other athletic exercises by boys and girls, ancient and modern dance numbers.

The manager of the fair also announces that the children who take part in the singing or in the athletic exhibitions will have free admission every afternoon and evening, while other children in company with parents or relatives will be admitted free on the opening day and on Friday, March 24, between 4 and 6 p. m. The other days they will have to pay the regular admission fee of 10 cents.

MAX BINHEIM.

So far it has been decided to erect the following booths: Women's department, apron booth, men's flower, postoffice, pillow and small articles, German, country grocery store, war souvenir, fish pond, doll, 5 and 10-cent store, jewelry, big wheel, bazar executive office, information, gypsy fortune telling, and a special booth for the exhibition of foreign language newspapers. Dining rooms and refreshment rooms will be established in the balcony of the auditorium.

Several well-known business men have promised their co-operation and support to promote the success of the Red Cross fair. They will form a separate committee and also be on the reception committee.

M. Binheim has called a meeting of this committee for tonight at 8 o'clock at the office of the German Press, 200 Exchange building.

The following German societies have given contributions to the Red Cross bazar fund: North Pole lodge No. 32, Order of German Sons, $100; North Star lodge No. 15, Herman Sons-Sisters, $20; German-American Alliance of Duluth, $10; German Benevolent society "Eintracht," $50.

BIG DAMAGE SUIT STARTED AT MINOT

Minot, N. D., March 6.—H. H. Kemper, formerly president of the Citizens' State bank of this city, has filed suit in the district court of Ward county against Peter Elir for damages aggregating $110,000. The alleged grounds of damage are two arrests of the plaintiff in the damage case upon the instigation of the defendant, as he alleges, charging him with embezzlement and upon both of which charges the plaintiff in the damage suit was acquitted upon trial.

WEST DULUTH

HERALD BRANCH OFFICES:

Spencer Pharmacy, 402 Central Avenue, Advertising and Subscriptions. A. Jensen, Fifty-Seventh Avenue West and Grand Avenue, Distribution.

Herald's West Duluth reporter may be reached after hour of going to press at Calumet 175-M and Cole 347.

PLANS FOR EXTENSION

Street Car Company Distributes Materials Along Morgan Park Route.

New Duluth Men Want Tracks Laid This Year.

Material for the extension of the car lines of the Duluth Street Railway company is already being hauled out and scattered along the right-of-way to Morgan Park. The company during the last week has brought out steel poles to be erected from the beginning of the steel plant property at Ninety-third and Zimmerly avenues, and these are to be erected just as soon as the weather conditions warrant.

Wooden poles have been erected from the end of the car line at Seventy-first avenue to Ninety-third and Zimmerly. These are now all ready to have the heavy copper cable strung on them. The cable that the company had strung on its wires to Eighty-first avenue has been stolen during the last month and will be replaced as soon as the company is ready to begin operations.

New Duluthians propose to interview Commissioner J. A. Farrell to ascertain whether the road from Zimmerly and Ninety-third avenue is in shape for laying tracks for an extension to New Duluth. The committee from the New Duluth Commercial club proposes to utilize every effort in getting the company to consent to build this line this summer, and the interview with the public works commissioner will be for the purpose of disposing of that question. If the road is not ready the club proposes to have the city get busy at once and complete it. It is averred that the fill on Commonwealth avenue just north of Gary is not safe as yet for the laying of tracks. Part of this fill was made during the last summer.

LOVE OF MONEY JUDAS' FATAL SIN

Other Disciples Sinned Unintentionally But Judas Persisted, Says Pastor.

Rev. Gustaf Oberg, pastor of Bethel Lutheran church, Fifty-third avenue west and Wadena street, said, in his sermon on "Judas Iscariot" last night, that it was "easy money" that led Judas Iscariot to betray Jesus Christ. The love of money, said the pastor, blinded him to the shame of his act. Said Mr. Oberg:

"Judas Iscariot shared with the rest the labors and privations to which the discipleship subjected them. He went out to preach and cast out devils as well as the rest, but his heart was not right before God. He caressed the love of money in his heart. He was treasurer of the little group of disciples and that was very much to his liking, for he loved to handle money and it gave him secret enjoyment. Was it a sin to carry money? No, but Judas loved money too well, better than he did his Master, and that was the sin. Love for money led him to sell his Master for a small sum, and had the amount been larger the sin would not have been smaller.

"All of the other disciples were pronounced clean by the Master except Judas. Did they not sin also both before and after they were washed? They surely did. One need only bring to memory their conversation on the way to the Mount of Olives that same night. They were quarreling among themselves about the question, 'Who was the best one among them.' Christ had to rebuke them for it. But the difference lies in the fact that they did not sin intentionally and that they repented when warned by the Master, but Judas persisted in his sin. Those who confess and repent their sins and transgressions will be forgiven and their sins will not be counted against them whether now or on the day of judgment. Every sin we confess, hate and pray against will not condemn us and we are counted clean in the sight of God in spite of them for the sake of the blood of Jesus Christ that cleanseth from all sin."

PATRICK EVENT FINALS.

Mallory Will Meet McDonald; Three Other Events.

George J. Mallory will play Joe McDonald tonight in the finals of the Patrick event. By winning in the semi-finals Saturday evening from Thomas Quinn, Mr. Mallory went into the finals. The Patrick trophy consists of four sport jackets.

Three other games are to be played this evening. R. F. Wade will play Quinn and Melvin Olson is scheduled to meet E. J. Zauft in the Universal event and K. A. McDonald is drawn against Alex Donald in the De Fensia event. Play or forfeit is to be followed out at the rink from now on, according to announcement made this morning by the games committee.

HANS HOLM MAY BE AT TAFT, MINN.

Hans Holm, 10 North Fifty-ninth avenue west, who has been missing since a week ago Saturday, may be at Taft, Minn., according to information given the police. The police have been trying to locate the man on behalf of his family, which is said to be in straightened circumstances. The information that a man answering Mr. Holm's description, following the publishing of his picture in The Herald Saturday, was at Taft, was given by employes of the Canadian Northern passenger station.

SAMARITANS WILL INITIATE TWENTY

Zenith council, No. 6, Modern Samaritans, will initiate a class of twenty new members at its meeting at Great Eastern hall, 210 North Central avenue, Wednesday evening. Several of the imperial officers, including C. E. Lovett, imperial good samaritan; J. A. Barnes, imperial vice good samaritan; H. J. Achenback, imperial scribe, and John Christie, imperial past good samaritan, will be among those in charge of the ceremonies. Dancing and refreshments are planned for a social hour to follow the ceremony.

NEW CLAN WILL INSTALL OFFICERS

A. G. MACAULAY.

Installation of officers will feature the meeting of Clan Forbes this evening at the Odd Fellows hall, 602 North Central avenue. The affair will be open for friends of members. A. G. Macaulay, past chief of Clan Stewart and imperial deputy of the order, will be installing officer.

Following the ceremony a musical program is planned. There will be dancing and refreshments during the latter part of the evening.

GIVES CARD PARTY.

Pocahontas Council Will Conduct Its First Public Entertainment.

Pocahontas Council No. 319, Royal league, will entertain at cards this evening at the West Duluth Commercial club. The affair is the first of its kind open to the public that the council has held since it was organized. A general invitation has been extended to all members of the society and their friends.

The women in charge of the affair are Mrs. Harry L. Liberty, chairman; Mrs. David Harris, Mrs. S. Lavick, Mrs. Gordon Brooks, Mrs. Earl F. Breisch, Mrs. Harry H. Lumley, Mrs. Max Oreckovski, Mrs. Louis Bennett and Mrs. Henry L. Fedl.

NO JITNEYS TO SUBURBS.

New Duluth and Gary Cut Off By Snow Storm.

"Tied up completely," describes the condition of traffic at New Duluth and Gary, according to citizens of the suburb. Not a "jitney" has attempted to move this morning.

"We are unable to get in or out at present," said L. R. Taylor today. "The snow is from three to six feet deep and drifted in enormous piles on the street."

Jitneys have been taking care of traffic fairly well since the heavy storms in January, but the storm last night has put them out of business temporarily. At present the railroad is the only means of getting to and from the suburbs. The morning train had considerable difficulty in getting out on its first trip this morning.

ARRANGEMENTS NOT MADE.

Kiltin Funeral Not Decided on Until Body Arrives From California.

The body of W. H. Kiltin, pioneer resident of West Duluth, who died Thursday while in California, is expected to arrive in West Duluth this evening or tomorrow morning. The final arrangements for the funeral will not be completed until after the body arrives, although at present it is expected that the last rites may be held on Wednesday afternoon. The funeral will be held from the residence, 227 North Fifty-fourth avenue.

Miss Mary Kiltin, daughter of Mr. Kiltin, who has been residing at Toronto, Can., arrived yesterday, and Mr. and Mrs. William Bowers, sister and brother-in-law, are expected to arrive today to attend the funeral.

Birthday Surprise.

Mrs. T. F. Olsen, 512 North Fifty-ninth avenue west, was pleasantly surprised Saturday evening at her home in honor of her birthday. Five hundred was played at four tables, the prizes being won by Mr. and Mrs. R. Y. Dunn, Mrs. Louis Oreck and Dr. O. S. Olson. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott, J. Aman, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brain, Dr. and Mrs. O. S. Olson, Mrs. E. W. Boerner, Mrs. Louis Oreck, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Skomars and H. M. Goff of St. Paul.

Universals Win Game.

The Universal Portland Cement company's basket ball team Saturday evening won from the R. E. Denfeld high school team by a score of 27 to 22. The game was played in the gymnasium of the high school. The Denfeld team has games arranged with Two Harbors, Duluth Central and Superior high schools.

Form Credit Association.

At a meeting of retail merchants of New Duluth, Gary and Smithville, to be held this evening at the office of L. R. Taylor, a retail merchants' credit association will be formed. Business men of this section of the city have been considering such a movement for their own protection for some time past.

Plan "Ladies' Night."

Members of the West Duluth Commercial club will entertain Friday evening at a "ladies' night." A program of music, cards and dancing, to be followed by refreshments, is being planned by the committee. L. A. Barnes is chairman of the committee.

West Duluth Briefs.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Westminster, Presbyterian church will be entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. F. Wieland, 831 North Fifty-seventh avenue west.

The monthly business meeting of the Swedish Mission congregation will be held in the church this evening. Midweek services will be held Wednesday evening, and the confirmation class will meet Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

Euclid chapter, No. 56, O. E. S., will hold a business meeting tomorrow evening at the Masonic hall. Candidates will be initiated.

Miss Esther Lundmark, who has been visiting several days at the home of Mrs. Samuel Gibson, 417 North Fifty-ninth avenue, has left for her home at Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Wahl of Carlton were guests yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Smalley, 525 North Thirty-ninth avenue west.

Watch repairing. Hurst. West Duluth.

PLAN SPEAKERS' CLUB.

Organization Will Take Place at Y. M. C. A. Tuesday Night.

A public speaking club at the Y. M. C. A. will be organized tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock. At present the outlook is promising, for already seven or eight have signified their intention of joining and boosting. If as many more can be found, the success of the club will be assured.

Those who have enrolled are hoping that the club may become a permanent feature, for they recognize the value of training along the line of public expression as a business and social asset, and they realize the long-felt need of just such a club. This organization will afford to many young men an opportunity which never before has been presented to them.

OBITUARY

Robert M. Lamp, 50 years old, well known throughout Wisconsin as an insurance man, died in a Madison sanatorium March 5.

Dr. H. G. Beeman, for four years pastor of the First Baptist church, and one of St. Paul's best known clergymen, died March 5 of apoplexy; aged 43.

Brainerd Union's Anniversary.

Brainerd, Minn., March 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The local carpenters' union celebrated its fourteenth anniversary with a card party and luncheon at Trades and Labor hall.

DUPLEX

NEAR PORTLAND SQUARE

Two 5-room all modern flats, separate hot water heating plants. Fine location. $30.00 and $27.50 rent. Tenant guaranteed.

$5,500 EASY TERMS

CHAS. P. CRAIG & CO.,

501 Sellwood Building.

Newly Completed Home For Sale

You will be interested in this newly completed strictly modern home located in the East end; 7 rooms, hardwood floors throughout; oak finish on main floor; second floor finished in natural yellow pine. For price and terms see

HOOPES-KOHAGEN CO.,

209 First National Bank Bldg.

LEGAL NOTICES.

SALE OF SCHOOL AND OTHER STATE LANDS

State of Minnesota,
State Auditor's Office,
St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 25, 1916.

Notice is hereby given, That on April 19, 1916, at 10 o'clock A. M., in the office of the County Auditor at Duluth, St. Louis County, in the State of Minnesota, I will offer for sale certain unsold state lands, and also those state lands which have reverted to the state by reason of the non-payment of interest.

TERMS OF SALE.

Fifteen per cent of the purchase price is payable to the County Treasurer at the time of sale. The unpaid balance is payable at any time, in whole or in part, on or before forty years from the date of sale at an interest rate of four per cent per annum, due on June first of each year; provided, that the interest can be paid at any time within the interest year without penalty. In effect, this means that the interest money may be paid at any time between June first and May thirty-first without penalty.

Appraised value of timber, when so stated, must be paid for in full at the time of sale.

All mineral rights are reserved to the State by the laws of the State.

All lands are sold subject to any and all ditch taxes thereon.

Lands on which the interest has become delinquent may be redeemed at any time up to the hour of sale, or before resale, to the actual purchaser. Such lands are listed under the caption: "Delinquent Lands."

No person can purchase more than 320 acres of land, as provided by the General Laws, 1909; provided, however, that State lands purchased previous to 1905 is not charged against such purchaser.

Agents acting for purchasers must furnish affidavit of authority.

Appraisers' reports showing quality and kind of soil are on file in this office.

Lists giving legal descriptions of lands to be offered may be obtained of the State Auditor or the Immigration Commissioner at St. Paul, and of the County Auditor at above address.

J. A. O. PREUS,
State Auditor.

D. H., Feb. 28, March 6, 13, 20, 1916.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION —OF— NORTHERN RUBBER AND SUPPLY COMPANY.

We, the undersigned, associate ourselves together for incorporation under and pursuant to the laws of the State of Minnesota, and for that purpose do subscribe and acknowledge the following articles of incorporation:

ARTICLE I.

The name of this corporation shall be Northern Rubber and Supply Company. The general nature of its business shall be buying, selling and dealing in, at wholesale and retail, rubber and leather goods, belting, mill supplies, roofing, asbestos, fire extinguishers, clothing, shoes and all other kinds and lines of merchandise and supplies; and also buying, selling and dealing in any and all of the above named merchandise as brokers and on commission and doing a general brokerage business. The principal place of its business shall be Duluth, St. Louis County, Minnesota.

ARTICLE II.

The period of duration of this corporation shall be thirty (30) years.

ARTICLE III.

The names and places of residence of the incorporators of this corporation are: William A. Sombke, Otto H. Sombke and B. M. Schneider, all of Duluth, Minnesota.

ARTICLE IV.

The management of this corporation shall be vested in a board of three directors, who shall be elected by the stockholders from their number, at the annual meeting of the corporation, which shall be held at the company's office at Duluth, Minnesota, on the first Monday in February of each year, at two o'clock in the afternoon, and said meeting may be adjourned from time to time and from place to place. The first board of directors, who shall act as such until the annual meeting to be held in February, 1917, are the incorporators above named, of whom the following shall be the officers of said corporation until their successors are elected and qualified, to-wit: William A. Sombke shall be president, B. M. Schneider shall be vice-president and Otto H. Sombke shall be secretary and treasurer. The officers of this corporation shall be directors, and the offices of secretary and treasurer may be held by one person.

ARTICLE V.

The amount of the capital stock of this corporation shall be Fifty Thousand no-100 ($50,000.00) Dollars, divided into five hundred (500) shares of the par value of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars each, which shall be paid for in money or property, as required by the board of directors, and this corporation may commence business when Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars of its capital stock is subscribed for.

ARTICLE VI.

The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which this corporation shall at any time be subject shall be Fifty Thousand ($50,000.00) Dollars.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We have hereunto set our hands and seals this 29th day of February, 1916.

WM. A. SOMBKE. (Seal)
OTTO H. SOMBKE. (Seal)
B. M. SCHNEIDER. (Seal)

In Presence of:
ALBERT SWENSON.
C. W. STILSON.

State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis —ss.

On this 29th day of February, 1916, before me personally appeared William A. Sombke, Otto H. Sombke and B. M. Schneider, to me known to be the persons described in and who executed the foregoing instrument, and acknowledged that they executed the same as their free act and deed.

C. W. STILSON,
Notary Public,
St. Louis Co., Minn.

My commission expires May 20, 1918. (Notarial Seal, St. Louis Co., Minn.)

State of Minnesota, Department of State.

I hereby certify that the within instrument was filed for record in this office on the 3rd day of March, A. D. 1916, at 9 o'clock A. M., and was duly recorded in Book B-4 of Incorporations, on page 396.

JULIUS A. SCHMAHL,
Secretary of State.

OFFICE OF REGISTER OF DEEDS.
State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis —ss.

I hereby certify that the within instrument was filed in this office for record March 6th, 1916, at 11:30 A. M., and was duly recorded in Book 16 of Misc., page 463.

CHAS. CALLIGAN,
Register of Deeds.
By S. L. PIERCE,
Deputy.

D. H., March 6, 7, 1916.

SUMMONS—
State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis.
District Court, Eleventh Judicial District.

Lempi Salo, Plaintiff,
vs.
Emil Salo, Defendant.

The State of Minnesota to the above named defendant:

You are hereby summoned and required to answer the complaint of the plaintiff in the above entitled action, which complaint has been filed in the office of the Clerk of said Court, and to serve a copy of your answer to the said complaint on the subscriber, at his office, 804 Lonsdale Building, in the City of Duluth, in said county and state, within thirty (30) days after the service of this summons upon you, exclusive of the day of such service. And if you fail to answer the said complaint within the time aforesaid, the plaintiff in this action will apply to the court for the relief demanded in said complaint.

O. J. LARSON,
Attorney for Plaintiff, 804 Lonsdale Building, Duluth, Minnesota.

D. H., Feb. 28, March 6, 13, 20, 27, April 3, 1916.

No. 1835.

SUMMONS IN APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION OF LAND—
State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis —ss.
District Court, Eleventh Judicial District.

In the Matter of the Application of Scott-Graff Lumber Company to register the title to the following described real estate, situated in St. Louis County, Minnesota, namely: Lots five (5), six (6) and eight (8), in Block K, Duluth Proper, Second Division, according to the plat thereof of record in the office of the Register of Deeds of said St. Louis County,
Applicant,
vs.
Northern Pacific Railway Company, Duluth Transfer Railway Company, Western Land Association of Minnesota, Louis D. Newton, John F. Newton, unknown heirs of Sarah B. Anderson, deceased, and all other persons or parties unknown, claiming any right, title, estate, lien, or interest in the real estate described in the application herein,
Defendants.

The State of Minnesota, to the above named Defendants.

You and each of you, are hereby summoned and required to answer the application of the applicant in the above entitled proceeding and to file your answer to the said application in the office of the Clerk of said Court, in said County within twenty days after the service of this summons upon you, exclusive of the day of such service, and, if you fail to answer the said application within the time aforesaid, the applicant in this proceeding will apply to the Court for the relief demanded therein.

Witness the honorable J. P. Johnson, Clerk of said Court, and the seal thereof at Duluth, in said County, this 28th day of February, 1916.

J. P. JOHNSON,
Clerk.
By R. E. JOHNSON,
Deputy.

(Seal of District Court, St. Louis County, Minn.)

D. H., Feb. 28. March 6, 13, 1916.

ORDER LIMITING TIME TO FILE CLAIMS AND FOR HEARING THEREON—
State of Minnesota,
County of St. Louis—ss.
In Probate Court. In the Matter of the Estate of D. R. Wilkie, Decedent.

Letters of administration this day having been granted to Marion Angelique Kerr, it is ordered, that the time within which all creditors of the above named decedent may present claims against his estate in this court, be, and the same hereby is, limited to three months from and after the date hereof; and that the 13th day of June, 1916, at ten o'clock A. M., in the Probate Court Rooms at the Court House at Duluth in said County, be, and the same hereby is, fixed and appointed as the time and place for hearing upon the examination, adjustment and allowance of such claims as shall be presented within the time aforesaid. Let notice hereof be given by the publication of this order in The Duluth Herald, as provided by law.

Dated Duluth, Minn., March 6, 1916.

S. W. GILPIN, Judge of Probate.
Seal, Probate Ct., St. Louis Co., Minn.
E. P. TOWNE,
Attorney for Administrator, Duluth, Minn.

D. H., March 6, 13, 20, 1916.

OPENING OF CEDED CHIPPEWA LANDS.—Department of the Interior, General Land Office, Washington, D. C., Feb. 19, 1916.—Notice is hereby given, That 56,175.62 acres of ceded Chippewa lands in the former Red Lake, White Earth, Leech Lake, Chippewa of the Mississippi; Winnebigoshish, Deer Creek, Bois Fort and Pigeon River Indian Reservations, in the State of Minnesota, will be opened to homestead entry at the district land offices at Cass Lake, Crookston and Duluth, Minnesota, on April 26, 1916, on and after 9 o'clock a. m., under Section 6 of the act of January 14, 1889 (25 Stat., 642), and under the laws applicable to townsites. A portion of these lands were opened to settlement on January 11, 1915, and September 27, 1915, and the remainder will be subject to settlement at 9 o'clock a. m., on April 12, 1916. No rights can be acquired by settling on the lands prior to the time they are subject to settlement. A portion of the lands, 3,815.36 acres, are classified as pine lands, and applicants for these lands will be required to pay an appraised price for the timber thereon at the time of making entry, as provided in Section 27, act of June 25, 1910 (36 Stat., 862). Printed lists of the lands to be opened and copies of the instructions governing the disposal of said lands, may be obtained, as soon as they can be printed for distribution, upon application to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, Washington, D. C., or the Registers and Receivers of the United States land offices, at Cass Lake, Crookston and Duluth, Minnesota. Clay Tallman, Commissioner. Approved Feb. 19, 1916. Andrieus A. Jones, First Assistant Secretary.

ORDER TO EXAMINE FINAL ACCOUNT—
State of Minnesota,
County of St. Louis—ss.
In Probate Court. In the Matter of the Estate of William R. Stone, Decedent.

The petition of Ella B. Stone, as representative of the above named decedent, together with her final account of the administration of said estate, having been filed in this court, representing, among other things, that she has fully administered said estate, and praying that said final account of said administration be examined, adjusted and allowed by the Court, and that the Court make and enter its final decree of distribution of the residue of the estate of said decedent to the persons entitled thereto, and for the discharge of the representative and the sureties on her bond. It is ordered, That said petition be heard, and said final account examined, adjusted, and if correct, allowed by the Court, at the Probate Court Rooms in the Court House, in the City of Duluth, in said County, on Monday the thirteenth (13th) day of March, 1916, at ten o'clock A. M., and all persons interested in said hearing and in said matter are hereby cited and required at said time and place to show cause, if any there be, why said petition should not be granted. Ordered further, That this order be served by publication in The Duluth Herald, according to law.

Dated at Duluth, Minn., Feb. 21, 1916.

By the Court,
S. W. GILPIN, Judge of Probate.
A. B. MORTON,
Clerk of Probate.
Seal, Probate Ct., St. Louis Co., Minn.
D. H., Feb. 21, 28, March 6, 1916.

CITY NOTICES.

PROPOSALS WANTED.
Duluth, Minnesota, March 6, 1916.

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the Commissioner of Public Affairs at his office in the City Hall, City of Duluth, Minnesota, up to 11 o'clock a. m., March 17, 1916, for furnishing the office of the Clerk of the Municipal Court with one steel filing case containing 150 steel document files and five steel box drawers.

Specifications for the above work may be seen at the office of the Clerk of the Municipal Court.

A certified check for ten per cent of the amount of the bid must accompany each bid.

The City of Duluth reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

W. I. PRINCE,
Commissioner of Public Affairs.
W. H. BORGEN,
City Clerk.
D. H., March 6, 1916. D 1851.

PROPOSALS WANTED.
Duluth, Minn., March 6, 1916.

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the Commissioner of Public Affairs at his office in the City Hall, City of Duluth, Minnesota, up to 11 o'clock a. m., March 17, 1916, for the printing of the Annual Reports of the City Officers for the year 1915.

Specifications for the above mentioned work may be seen at the office of the City Auditor, in the City Hall, Duluth, Minnesota.

A certified check for ten per cent of the amount of the bid must accompany each bid.

The City of Duluth reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

W. I. PRINCE,
Commissioner of Public Affairs.
W. H. BORGEN,
City Clerk.
D. H., March 6, 1916. D 1852.

CITY CLERK'S OFFICE,
Duluth, Minn., March 6, 1916.

Notice is hereby given that applications have been filed in my office by the following named persons for licenses to sell intoxicating liquors at the following named locations, viz:

M. Lubratovich & M. Danculovich, at No. 1313 Commonwealth avenue, being a transfer from M. Danculovich, at No. 529 West Superior street.

Andrew Meyer, at No. 623 West Superior street, being a transfer from O. M. Johnson, at the same location.

Joseph P. Remmell, at No. 419 West Superior street, being a transfer from M. Karon, at No. 701 West Superior street.

Said applications will be considered by the Council at a regular meeting thereof to be held on Monday, March 20, 1916, at 3 o'clock p. m., in the Council Chamber, City Hall, Duluth, Minnesota.

W. H. BORGEN,
City Clerk.
D. H., March 6, 1916. D 1853.

COLONIAL INSURANCE COMPANY.

Principal office: New York, N. Y. Organized in 1896. Leo H. Wise, president; E. S. Powell, Jr., secretary. Attorney to accept service in Minnesota: Commissioner of Insurance.

CASH CAPITAL, $200,000.00.

INCOME IN 1915.

Premiums other than perpetuals	$ 228,916.99
Rents and interests	21,399.17
Gross profit on sale, maturity or adjustment of ledger assets	187.50
Total income	$ 250,503.66
Ledger assets December 31st of previous year	521,307.97
Sum	$ 771,811.63

DISBURSEMENTS IN 1915.

Net amount paid for losses	$ 81,312.07
Expenses of adjustment of losses	1,996.44
Commissions and brokerage	83,545.49
Salaries, fees and allowances of officers, agents and employes	3,115.00
Taxes, fees, rents, real estate expense, fire patrol, etc	5,624.63
Dividends and interest	8,000.00
All other disbursements	2,126.27
Total disbursements	$ 185,629.88
Balance	586,181.77

LEDGER ASSETS DEC. 31, 1915.

Book value of bonds and stocks	$ 482,035.00
Cash in office, trust companies and banks	70,684.28
Agents' balances, unpaid premiums and bills receivable, taken for premiums	33,462.49
Total ledger assets (as per balance)	$ 586,181.77

NON-LEDGER ASSETS.

Market value of real estate, bonds and stocks over book value	$ 8,990.00
All other non-ledger assets	6,918.33
Gross assets	$ 601,390.10

DEDUCT ASSETS NOT ADMITTED.

Agent's balances and bills receivable	$ 980.82
Total admitted assets	$ 600,409.28

LIABILITIES DEC. 31, 1915.

Unpaid losses and claims	$ 30,643.17
Unearned premiums	143,373.05
Salaries, expenses, taxes, dividends and interest due	5,500.00
Contingent commissions	3,500.00
Capital stock paid up	200,000.00
Total liabilities, including capital	$ 383,016.22
Net surplus	217,393.06

RISKS AND PREMIUMS, 1915 BUSINESS.

(a) Fire risks written during the year	$ 41,722,019.00
Premiums received thereon	360,761.00
Net amount in force at end of the year (Fire and marine)	32,210,000.00

a.—Including business other than marine and inland.

BUSINESS IN MINNESOTA IN 1915.

(Including reinsurance received and deducting reinsurance placed.)

	Fire Risks.
Risks written	$317,250.00
Premiums received	1,468.00
Net losses paid	593.00
Net losses incurred	523.00
Amount at risk	302,250.00

State of Minnesota, Department of Insurance.

I Hereby Certify, That the Annual Statement of the Colonial Insurance company for the year ending December 31st, 1915, of which the above is an abstract, has been received and filed in this department and duly approved by me.

S. P. WORKS,
Commissioner of Insurance.

CROP DAMAGE REPORTS BULL ALL GRAIN MARKETS

Shorts Cover on Advices of Frost Damage to Winter Wheat.

Flaxseed Is Strong at Close With Active Bidding By Crushers.

Duluth Board of Trade, March 6.—The market was strong at the close in line with winter wheat damage reports and active bidding by operators.

May wheat closed 3½c up and July 3⅛c up.

May durum closed 2½c up and July 2¼c up.

Oats closed ¾c up at 40½@41c for on the track; rye 1c up at 88c and barley 1c up at from 58c to 66c.

At Winnipeg, May oats closed 1⅛c up at 42⅛c.

At St. Louis, May wheat closed at $1.11⅜ and July at $1.09¼.

At Kansas City, May wheat closed at $1.07⅞ and July at $1.06⅜.

Puts on Minneapolis May wheat closed at $1.13⅜ bid and calls at $1.18⅞ asked.

Wheat prices were advanced 1½c during the first three hours' trading today. At the start the market was weak with reselling on foreign account reported, and liberal receipts in the Northwest.

Later an upturn was promoted on account of reports of damage in the winter wheat territory and fears that the general storm over the country might tend to again hamper the movement of grain on the railroads. The large clearances of 2,407,000 bushels reported was also a bullish factor.

The great preponderance of the day's gossip was bearish, however. The American visible supply showed an increase of 446,000 bushels in the week, and it is the general expectation of operators that supplies will be substantially increased during the present week unless shipments from the seaboard are materially augmented so as to relieve the blockade of cars down that way.

Stocks in Duluth elevators are rapidly piling up on account of the difficulty in obtaining cars to make shipments to the seaboard and to Eastern millers. Some of the houses are even now nearly plugged up, but relief is hoped for during the next two weeks through moving some steamers over to the elevators. Canadian bonded grain is piling in, 138 cars being on the tracks today. The amount being shipped out is, however, a mere bagatelle, so that operators handling that grain are doing some figuring on the scope of elevator capacities.

Ocean rates on grain are still climbing. Today the chartering of one steamer from Portland to Avonmouth, England, was reported at a basis of 52½c a bu. No improvement as to rates is now hoped for before the end of the war.

May wheat opened ⅛c off at $1.13¾, eased to $1.12⅝, and then advanced 2c up till the noon hour. July opened unchanged at $1.12⅞ and advanced 1c.

Durum was also in fair demand. The May future opened unchanged at $1.06⅜ and gained ⅜c. July opened unchanged at $1.10⅝, eased off ½c, and then advanced to $1.10⅝.

Flax Strong at Close.

The flaxseed market was a draggy affair, with the tendency easier, most of the session. While crushers were in the market for sundries, they did not show any disposition to bid up prices. Some seed was picked up on moderate recessions in price, but the volume of business put through was limited. A burst of buying appeared at the close, however.

May flax opened unchanged at $2.31½ and closed unchanged at $2.31½ asked. July opened ½c up at $2.31¾, and closed unchanged at $2.31½ asked.

At Winnipeg, May flax closed ¾c up at $2.09¾ bid.

At Buenos Aires there was a holiday today. At London flax closed 3½c off at $2.80.

Cash Sales Monday.

No. 1 northern wheat, 1 car.....$1.13⅛
No. 1 northern wheat, 2 cars.....1.13⅜
No. 1 northern wheat, 3 cars.....1.15¾
No. 1 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.14¾
No. 1 northern wheat, 2 cars.....1.13½
No. 1 northern wheat, 2 cars.....1.15
No. 1 northern wheat, 7 cars.....1.12¾
No. 1 northern wheat, 4 cars.....1.15½
No. 1 northern wheat, 2 cars.....1.14⅛
No. 2 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.10⅝
No. 2 northern wheat, 3 cars.....1.11
No. 2 northern wheat, 2 cars.....1.12
No. 2 northern wheat, 6 cars.....1.10⅝
No. 2 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.10⅞
No. 2 northern wheat, 9 cars.....1.09¾
No. 2 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.10
No. 2 northern wheat, 2 cars.....1.13½
No. 2 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.10⅞
No. 2 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.10⅝
No. 3 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.04⅜
No. 3 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.03¾
No. 3 northern wheat, 2 cars.....1.05⅛
No. 3 northern wheat, 3 cars.....1.07¼
No. 3 northern wheat, 3 cars.....1.07⅜
No. 2 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.06½
No. 3 northern wheat, 2 cars.....1.07
No. 3 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.06
No. 3 northern wheat, 3 cars.....1.08¼
No. 4 northern wheat, 1 car......02
No. 4 northern wheat, 2 cars.....1.00
No. 4 northern wheat, 2 cars.....1.03¼
No. 4 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.00¼
No. 4 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.01¼
No. 1 northern wheat, 1 car, tonded.....1.10¼
No. 2 northern wheat, 1 car.....1.07⅛
Mont. wheat, 1 car, No. 2 hard winter.....1.14½
Mont. wheat, 4 cars, No. 3 hard winter.....1.06⅝
Mont. wheat, 1 car, No. 3 hard winter.....1.08½
Mont. wheat, 1 car, No. 2 hard winter.....1.14⅝
Mont. wheat, 1 car, No. 2 hard winter.....1.13⅝
Mont. wheat, 2 cars, No. 2 hard winter.....1.13¾
Mont. wheat, 1 car, No. 4 hard winter.....1.05¾
Mont. wheat, 1 car, no grade.....1.08¼
No. 1 durum, 3 cars.....1.09¼
No. 1 durum, 1 car.....1.09⅜
No. 1 durum, 1 car.....1.09⅝
No. 1 durum, 1 car.....1.10
No. 1 durum, 2 cars.....1.09
No. 1 durum, 3 cars.....1.08¾
No. 2 durum, 2 cars.....1.05
No. 2 durum, 5 cars.....1.06¾
No. 2 durum, 2 cars.....1.05

No. 2 durum, 1 car.....1.05¼
No. 2 durum, 9 cars.....1.05⅝
No. 2 durum, 4 cars.....1.05½
No. 2 durum, 3 cars.....1.06⅝
No. 2 durum, 3 cars.....1.06⅛
No. 3 durum, 1 car.....1.00⅝
No. 3 durum, 3 cars.....1.00½
No. 3 durum, 1 car.....1.02
No. 3 durum, 1 car.....1.02
No. 3 durum, 1 car......99⅞
No. 3 durum, 1 car.....1.01⅛
No. 3 durum, 4 cars.....1.00⅜
No. 4 durum, 1 car......97⅞
No. 2 mixed durum, 2 cars.....1.05
No. 2 mixed durum, 2 cars.....1.06⅜
No. 3 mixed durum, 1 car......98⅜
No. 3 mixed durum, 1 car.....1.00⅞
No. 1 mixed durum, 1 car.....1.09
No. 2 mixed durum, 1 car.....1.04⅜
No. 3 mixed durum, 1 car.....1.01
No. 2 mixed durum, 1 car.....1.05¼
No. 2 mixed durum, 1 car.....1.06⅛
No. 1 mixed durum, 1 car.....1.08⅜
No. 2 mixed durum, 1 car.....1.03⅞
No. 2 mixed durum, 2 cars.....1.06½
No. 1 mixed durum, 1 car.....1.10
No. 2 mixed durum, 1 car.....1.06
Barley, 2 cars......63
Barley, 1 car......62
Barley, 2 cars......64
Barley, 1 car......57
Barley, 1 car......57
Barley, 1 car......65
Barley, 1 car, No. 2 round......75
Oats, 1 car, No. 3 white......41½
Oats, 1 car, No. 3 white......41
Oats, 1 car, No. 3 white......41¼
Oats, 2 cars, No. 4 white......39¾
Oats, 1 car, No. 4 white......40¾
No. 2 rye, 1 car, sample grade......80
No. 1 flax, 1 car.....2.31
No. 1 flax, 2 cars.....2.30½
No. 1 flax, 1 car.....2.30¾

MARKET GOSSIP.

Duluth bonded grain receipts: Wheat, 138 cars; oats, 13 cars; total, 151 cars.

* * *

Cars of wheat received:	Yesterday.	Year Ago.
Duluth	66	142
Minneapolis	692	199
Winnipeg	381	301
Chicago	188	39
Kansas City	177	22
St. Louis, bu.	186,000	91,000

* * *

Cars of linseed received:	Yesterday.	Year Ago.
Duluth	5	11
Minneapolis	46	15
Winnipeg	5	7

* * *

At Liverpool spot wheat closed unchanged; corn, ½@1½d up.

* * *

Clearance reported: Wheat, 2,033,000 bu; flour, 83,000 bbls., together equal to 2,407,000 bu; corn, 303,000 bu; oats, 595,000 bu.

* * *

Primary markets report the following receipts and shipments today:

Wheat—Receipts, 1,923,000 bu, last year, 954,000 bu; shipments, 767,000 bu, last year, 616,000 bu.

Corn—Receipts, 1,381,000 bu., last year, 667,000 bu; shipments, 486,000 bu, last year, 558,000 bu.

Oats—Receipts, 851,000 bu., last year, 771,000 bu; shipments, 640,000 bu, last year, 986,000 bu.

* * *

Wheat stocks in Duluth and Minneapolis elevators as on March 4, 1916, were 30,173,000 bu as against 23,591,000 bu last year. At Duluth there was 17,306,000 bu against 10,602,000 bu last year and at Minneapolis 12,868,000 bu against 13,089,000 bu a year ago.

* * *

Flax supplies in Duluth and Minneapolis elevators as on March 4, 1916, were 1,877,000 bu against 802,000 bu last year. At Duluth there was 1,648,000 bu against 655,000 bu last year and at Minneapolis 229,000 bu against 147,000 bu last year.

* * *

Wheat was in fairly good demand on the Duluth market today. Cash No. 1 northern wheat sold at ½c under May to 2c over and cash durum sold at ½c under May.

* * *

Russell's News, New York, said: "Interest in grain Saturday for export was reported very limited and no business developed excepting the additional amounts for Friday, which raised the total for Friday to 2,000,000 bu. The Friday business, it is understood, included 1,500,000 bu hard winter wheat for the Hudson Bay company."

* * *

World's shipments: American, 9,223,000 bu; Argentine, 2,864,000 bu; Australian, 1,248,000 bu; others, 280,000 bu; total, 13,625,000 bu; last week, 13,532,000 bu; last year, 15,372,000 bu; corn, 2,162,000 bu; last week, 1,853,000 bu; last year, 3,134,000 bu; oats, 3,302,000 bu; last week, 2621000 bu; last year, 2,777,000 bu.

* * *

On passage: Wheat, 51,976,000 bu; an increase of 1,296,000 bu; last week, 50,680,000 bu; an increase of 3,803,000 bu; year ago, 52,776,000 bu; an increase of 4,256,000 bu; corn, 15,377,000 bu; decrease, 1,650,000 bu; week ago, 17,036,000 bu; decrease, 747,000 bu.

* * *

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool: "Market opened easy with liberal arrivals, free native offers and a belief in a bearish American government statement. Spot was unchanged and cargo market easy. Manitobas closed 4½d lower. Plates and winters opened lower with the general inquiry small. Australia and Argentina continue to offer freely and available tonnage is becoming more liberal."

* * *

Broomhall says: "It is believed that prospects for the new winter crop are not favorable and reduced estimates will be in order, but this is offset by large reserves and difficulty attending free marketing and competition from other exporters."

* * *

Duluth car inspection: Wheat—No. 1 northern, 9; No. 2 northern, 11; No. 3, 6; No. 4, 3; no grade, 1; durum, 19; winter, 4; mixed, 13; total wheat, 66, last year, 142; flax, 5, last year, 11; corn, 1, last year, none; oats, 4, last year, 9; barley, 4, last year, 2; total of all grains, 80, last year, 164; on track, 260.

* * *

Grain stocks in Duluth elevators as on March 4, 1916, showing changes in the week:

Wheat—No. 1 hard, 170,418 bu; No. 1 northern, 2,813,986 bu; No. 2 northern, 1,621,120 bu; No. 3 northern, 177,259 bu; No. 4 northern, 92,589 bu; no grade, 9,902; western, 117 bu; special bin, 2,726,989 bu; durum, 5,529,658 bu; winter, 732,618 bu; bonded, 2,675,709 bu; total wheat, 16,547,365 bu; afloat, 758,600 bu; grand total wheat, 17,305,364 bu; domestic increase, 725,482 bu; bonded increase, 719,238 bu; total increase, 1,444,720 bu; total year ago, 10,502,036 bu.

Coarse grains—Oats, domestic, 543,712 bu, increase, 63,629 bu; bonded, 1,277,089 bu; increase, 295,218 bu; total oats, 1,820,801 bu; increase, 358,847 bu; rye, domestic, 22,552,000 bu, increase, 2,127 bu; bonded, 1,068 bu; total rye, 23,620 bu, increase, 2,127 bu; barley, domestic, 875,968 bu, increase, 31,660 bu; bonded, 110,748 bu, increase, 241,132 bu; total barley, 986,716 bu, increase, 55,782 bu; flax, domestic, 1,619,399 bu, decrease, 6,930 bu; bonded, 28,144 bu; increase, 7,857 bu; total flax 1,647,543 bu, increase, 923 bu.

* * *

Total American visible supply: Wheat, 63,558,000 bu; last week, 63,167,000 bu; last year, 47,661,000 bu; increase, 446,000 bu; corn, 24,605,000 bu; last week, 21,935,000 bu; last year, 39,497,000 bu; increase, 2,670,000 bu; oats, 20,265,000 bu; last week, 19,881,000 bu; last year, 30,252,000 bu; increase, 384,000 bu.

* * *

James S. Graves, manager of the Capitol Elevator company, returned today from a month's holiday trip spent at Palm Beach, Fla. George A. Robson, another member of the Duluth board of trade, is still a visitor down there.

CHICAGO MARKET.

Bearish Estimates of Farm Reserves Tends to Depress Wheat.

Chicago, March 6.—Bearish estimates of farm reserves in the United States tended today to depress the wheat market. Besides Liverpool quotations were lower and it was said tonnage for Argentine and Australian shipments was becoming liberal. The bulls were discouraged also by the absence of any signs of important new export transactions. Opening prices, which ranged ½c to 1⅛@1¼c lower, with May at $1.12⅛ to $1.12¾ and July at $1.09½ to $1.10, were followed by a rally, but then a fresh decline.

Subsequently, crop damage reports from the soft winter wheat states gave the bulls control of the market, especially as the Ohio state report radically lowered the condition percentage of winter wheat, and there were authoritative advices that much winter wheat acreage in Southern Oklahoma and Northern Texas had been reseeded to oats. The close was strong, 2¼@2⅜c to 2½@2⅝c net higher, with May at $1.15⅞ and July $1.12⅝@1.12¾.

Corn rose on account of unfavorable weather. Offerings were light. After opening unchanged at ½c higher, the market scored a substantial general advance.

Removal of hedges on 600,000 bushels of corn destroyed by fire at Peoria tightened the market still more. The close was nervous, at 1½@1⅝c to 1¾@1⅞c net advance.

Oats ascended with corn. There was but little pressure to sell.

Firmness in the hog market gave some strength to provisions. Trade, however, was not heavy.

Wheat—No. 2 red, $1.14½@1.14¾; No. 3 red, $1.08¼@1.12½; No. 2 hard, $1.11@1.15⅜; No. 3 hard, $1.09@1.14½.

Corn—No. 2 yellow, 74½c; No. 4 yellow, 69@70½c; No. 4 white, 68¼@70c.

Oats—No. 3 white, 40¾@42c; standard, 42¾@43¾c.

Rye—No. 2, 92½c; barley, 60@71c; timothy, $4.50@7; clover, $10@18.75.

Pork, $20@22; lard, $10.62; ribs, $11.50@11.87.

Wheat—	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.
May	$1.12⅛	$1.16¼	$1.12⅛	$1.15⅞
July	1.09½	1.13⅛	1.09½	1.12⅝
Corn—
May	.74¼	.76¾	.74½	.76
July	.74½	.76⅝	.74½	.76¼
Oats—
May	.43⅜	.44¼	.43¾	.44⅛
July	.41½	.42⅜	.41½	.42⅛
Pork—
May	21.70	22.45	21.60	22.40
July		22.30	21.62	22.30
Lard—
May	10.75	10.87	10.70	10.87
July	10.95	11.10	10.92	11.10
Ribs—
May	11.85	12.02	11.80	11.92
July	11.95	12.05	11.92	12.05

MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 6.—Wheat prices advanced 3c today near the end of a dull session. Receipts 692 cars, compared with 199 a year ago. May opened $1.13¼ to $1.13½; high, $1.16⅝; low, $1.12½; closed, $1.16¼ to $1.16⅜. July opened $1.12⅝ to ½c; high, $1.16; low, $1.12¼; closed, $1.15¾@$1.15⅞. Cash: No. 1 hard, $1.22¾; No. 1 northern, $1.16⅞@1.20⅞; to arrive, $1.16⅞@$1.19⅜; No. 2 northern, $1.13¾@1.17⅜; No. 3 wheat, $1.07⅞@1.14⅜.

Corn—No. 3 yellow, 75@76c; oats, No. 3 white, 40½@41c; flax, $2.31½@2.34½.

Flour—Unchanged; shipments, 61,514 bbls.; barley, 60@67c; rye, 88@89c; bran, $17.75@18.25.

New York Wheat.

New York, March 6.—Wheat—May, $1.24; July, $1.17.

Liverpool Grain.

Liverpool, March 6.—Wheat—Spot, No. 1 Manitoba, 14s 8½d; No. 3, 14s 2d; No. 2 hard winter, gulf, 12s 9d; No. 2 red, western winter, 13s.

Corn—Spot, American mixed, new, 11s 10d.

Flour—Winter patents, 48s 6d.

Hops—In London, Pacific coast, £4 15s@£5 15s.

South St. Paul Livestock.

South St. Paul, Minn., March 6.—Hogs—Receipts, 16,800; steady to strong; range, $8.60@8.90; bulk, $8.75@8.85.

Cattle—Receipts, 3,700; killers, steady; steers, $4.50@8.75; cows and heifers, 4.25@7.00; calves, steady, $4.50@10.25; stockers and feeders, steady, $4.00@7.35.

Sheep—Receipts, 6,500; steady; lambs, $5.50@10.50; wethers, $5.50@8.00; ewes, $3.00@7.50.

London Stocks.

London, March 6. — The stock market was generally cheerful today on the week-end war news. American securities had a good tone but trading was meager. A few bonds changed hands. Money was in fair demand. Discount rates were quiet.

Real Estate Transfers.

Charles S. Sargent et ux to East End State bank, nel/4 of se¼, section 32, 51-14..... 1
Mary M. Haslett, etc., to J. A. P. Neal, lot 1, blk. 9, Woodland park, First division.... 1
C. J. Longbotham et ux to Ellen O. Pierson, lot 4, blk. 4, London addition..... 1
Grant McMahon et ux to James Tonkin, lots 6, 7, blk. 22, Whitesides's addition to Ely..... 400
E. H. Bjoin et ux to K. M. Arneson, lot 2, section 14, 64-13..... 500
Walter D. Burks et ux to James F. Taylor et al, southerly 35 ft. northerly 70 ft. lots 15, 16, blk. 25, Highland Park addition..... 1
First State Bank of Brookston to Bankers Mortgage Loan company, lots 18, 19, 10, blk. 6, Brookston, lots 13, 14, blk. 5, same..... 4,768
Brookston Townsite company to Charles W. Gardner et al; lots 18, 19, blk. 6, Brookston..... 70

AMERICAN WHEAT MARKETS, MARCH 6, 1916.

May—	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Mar. 4.	Yr ago.
Duluth	1.13¼	1.16⅞	1.12⅞	1.16⅝	1.13½b	1.45¼
Minneapolis	1.13½-¾	1.16⅝	1.12½	1.16¼-⅜	1.13⅛	1.40⅛
Chicago	1.12¾-⅞	1.16¼	1.12⅛	1.15⅞a	1.13¼-⅜	1.49¼
Winnipeg	1.10⅜-1.10	1.14⅝	1.10	1.14⅛b	1.11¾a	1.47⅛
July—
Duluth	1.13⅞a	1.17	1.13½	1.17a	1.12⅞a	1.40⅜
Minneapolis	1.12⅜-½	1.16	1.12¼	1.15¾a	1.12⅜	1.36½
Chicago	1.10-1.09½	1.13¼	1.09½	1.12⅝-⅞	1.10½b	1.19⅝
Winnipeg	1.10¼-1.10	1.14½	1.10	1.14⅛a	1.11½b	1.47

DULUTH DURUM MARKET.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Mar. 4.	Yr ago.
May	1.09¾	1.12½b	1.09	1.12¼a	1.09¾	1.47
July	1.10½	1.12¾b	1.10a	1.12¾a	1.10½	1.44½

DULUTH LINSEED MARKET.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Mar. 4.	Yr ago.
May	2.31½	2.31¾	2.30¼	2.31½a	2.31½a	1.85½
July	2.31¾b	2.31¾	2.30¼a	2.31½a	2.31½n	187n

Duluth close: Wheat—On track: No. 1 hard, $1.18⅝; No. 1 northern, $1.16⅛@1.18⅝; No. 2 northern, $1.12⅝@1.15⅝; No. 1 northern to arrive, $1.16⅛; No. 2 on track, $1.06⅝@1.10⅝; Montana No. 2 hard to arrive, $1.16⅝; No. 2 on track; $1.16⅝; May, $1.16⅝; July, $1.17 asked. Durum—On track: No. 1, $1.11¾; No. 2, $1.07¾@1.08¾; to arrive No. 1, $1.11¾; May, $1.12¼ asked; July, $1.12¾ asked. Linseed—On track, $2.31½; to arrive, $2.31½; May, $2.31½ asked; July, $2.31½ asked. Oats—On track, 40½@41c; to arrive, 40½@41c. Rye—On track, 88c; to arrive, 88c. Barley—On track, 58@66c.

Elevator receipts of domestic grain—Wheat, 188,500 bu; last year, 67,834 bu; oats, 8,622 bu; last year, none; barley, 14,279 bu; last year, 5,401 bu; rye, 2,410 bu; last year, none; flax, 1,070 bu; last year, 2,826 bu.

Shipments of domestic grain—Wheat 32,317 bu; last year, none; flax, 18,000 bu; last year, none.

Elevator receipts of bonded grain—Wheat, 126,691 bu; last year, 4,602 bu; oats, 32,133 bu; last year, none; barley, 2,690 bu; last year, none; flax, 37 bu; last year, none.

Shipments of bonded grain—Wheat, 4,034 bu; last year, 9,515 bu; oats, 3,783 bu; last year, none.

FLAX ADVANCE SLOW, STEADY

Crushers Careful But Busily Acquiring Seed at Best Prices.

Keeping Speculators Out By Avoiding Fast Action in Market.

The steady advance shown in the flax market during last week is taken by many as presaging an advance to a higher point than was reached during the last boom in prices, but by slower degrees, the last advance being entirely too rapid and too enticing to speculators. A slowly advancing market is more likely to keep the get-rich-quick element out, for they want action for their money. The crushers, while buying the seed every day, but carefully avoiding purchases on the raises, are managing to hold the price down, so that the daily advance is only fractional, and at the same time steady. But the crushers are buying just the same, for they want and need the seed. The fact that on nearly every day during the last week cash flax has been at the same high prices as the May and, most times, as the July option, indicates that somebody wants seed badly and is willing to pay for it. Considerable seed has been changing hands during the last two weeks.

The attempt to check the rise by the rumor that shipments were about to come out of Argentina did not have much effect. It is known that the supply of tonnage for such shipments is limited and nothing in connection with the story indicated where an extra supply of ships was to come from. The check on this rumor was only temporary.

The closing prices for the past six trading days, compared with the same period a year ago, were:

Closing.

	—1916—		—1915—
	Cash.	Arrive.	Cash.	Arrive.
Monday	$2.33	$2.33	$1.85⅞	$1.85⅞
Tuesday	2.27¾	2.27¾	1.84⅜	1.84⅜
Wednesday	2.29	2.29	1.84⅜	1.84⅜
Thursday	2.28¾	2.28¾	1.84½	1.84½
Friday	2.30	2.30	1.84½	1.84½
Saturday	2.31½	2.31½	1.84½	1.84½

	—1916—		—1915—
	May.	July.	May.	July.
Monday	$2.25		$2.25
Tuesday	2.27¾		2.28
Wednesday	2.29		2.29
Thursday	2.28¾		2.29½
Friday	2.30		2.30
Saturday	2.31½		2.31½

	—1916—			—1915—
	May.	July.	Sept.	May.	July.	Sept.
Monday	$1.86⅛	$1.87¾	$1.86¾	$1.86¾
Tuesday	1.85⅝	1.87	1.85¾
Wednesday	1.85¾	1.87	1.86
Thursday	1.85½	1.87¼	1.86¼
Friday	1.85¼	1.86¾	1.85¾
Saturday	1.85¼	1.86¾	1.86

Receipts and shipments for the past six trading days, compared with the corresponding period last year, were:

Domestic.

	—Receipts—		—Shipments—
	1916.	1915.	1916.	1915.
Monday	1,334	5,469	...	...
Tuesday	2,898	8,183	...	...
Wednesday	3,680	5,535	...	...
Thursday	1,091	12,006	...	...
Friday	...	5,697	381	...
Saturday	2,812	6,415	...	...
Totals	11,715	43,245	381	...
Week ago	29,206	38,766	...	29

Bonded.

	—Receipts—		—Shipments—
	1916.	1915.	1916.	1915.
Monday	242	2,757	...	...
Tuesday	3,257	988	...	...
Wednesday	1,254	5,443	...	...
Thursday	3,227	...	...	...
Friday	...	894	959	...
Saturday	1,037	922	...	...
Totals	9,017	11,004	959	...
Week ago	4,270	7,547

Cars of flax received at Duluth, Minneapolis and Winnipeg during the past week, compared with the corresponding week last year, were:

	1916	1915
Duluth	20	42
Minneapolis	150	112
Winnipeg	49	57
Totals	219	211

Flax in store and daily changes:

	Domestic.	Change.	Bonded.	Change.
Monday	1,629,000	• 3,000	20,000	...
Tuesday	1,629,000	• 2,000	23,000	• 3,000
Wednesday	1,633,000	• 4,000	24,000	• 1,000
Thursday	1,634,000	• 1,000	27,000	• 3,000
Friday	1,634,000	....	28,000	• 1,000
Saturday	1,637,000	• 3,000	29,000	• 1,000

*Increase.

Chicago Livestock.

Chicago, March 6.—Continued broad shipping demand forced the price of hogs up today to the highest level in sixteen months, 9.25. Improved inquiry from feeders helped to lift the value of cattle. Sales of sheep and lambs were hampered by adverse weather.

Hogs—Receipts, 50,000; active; mostly 5c above Saturday's average; bulk, $8.96@9.15; light, $8.70@9.20; mixed, $8.75@9.20; heavy, $8.70@9.25; rough, $8.70@8.85; pigs, $7.25@8.30.

Cattle—Receipts, 16,000; firm; native beer steers, $7.35@9.75; western steers, $7.15@8.30; stockers and feeders, $5.75@7.90; cows and heifers, $3.50@8.50; calves, $8.50@11.50.

Sheep — Receipts, 18,000; weak; sheep, $7.90@8.60; lambs, $9.25@11.35.

Notice of Dividend.

Calumet & Arizona Mining company has declared a dividend of two dollars ($2.00) a share, payable March 20th, 1916, to stockholders of record at the close of the books March 3rd, 1916.

Transfer books close at the close of business March 3rd, 1916, and open at the opening of business March 20th, 1916.

GORDON R. CAMPBELL,
Secretary.

STOCKS HAVE GOOD GAINS

United States Steel Shows Pronounced Activity and Strength.

Speculative Interest Converges Around the Situation at Washington.

New York, March 6.—The week on the stock exchange opened with a generally higher level of prices. Material gains were again confined to specialties, however, such as Mexican Petroleum, Butte & Superior and Anaconda Coppers, American Zinc and a few of the better known war issues, particularly Crucible Steel, Pressed Steel Car, Baldwin Locomotive and Westinghouse. Rails were steady and United States Steel responded to a better demand. Dealings continued moderate, with speculative interest converging around conditions at Washington.

Prices made further upward progress during the morning in the stock market with manipulative activity in sugars, oils, Crucible Steel and Tobacco Products preferred. Cuban-American Sugar rose 12½, and South Porto Rico 7, Mexican Petroleum extended its rise over 5 points. The movement was shared in various degrees by Marine, United Fruit, the metals and fertilizers, while various unclassified stocks rose 1 to 2 points. United States Steel and Reading were the only former favorites to show pronounced activity and strength. St. Paul and Pacific Mail inclined to heaviness. Quotations eased nominally in some instances before midday. Bonds were steady.

During the mid-session the market became stagnant and featureless except for a movement in the automobile stocks. General Motors and Willys-Overland advanced 10 and 12 points, respectively.

Steel, the war group and some representative rails became increasingly active at higher prices later. The closing was strong.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Reported by Charles E. Lewis & Co.

STOCKS—	High.	Low.	Close.
Am. Tel. & Tel.	127⅜	127½	127⅝
Am. Can com.	59½	57½	59½
Am. Beet Sugar	69¼	68	68½
Am. Car Foundry	67⅞	66¾	67⅞
Am. Cotton Oil Co.	52½	52½	52½
Am. Locomotive	70¾	69¾	70½
Am. Smelting	99⅛	97⅝	99⅛
do pfd	18⅛	17¼	17⅜
Allis Chalmers com.	30	29	29½
Am. Sugar	112	111½	112
Am. Tobacco Co.	199	199	199
Anaconda Copper	86⅞	83¾	86¾
Atchison	102¾	102½	102⅝
Bald. Loc.	105½	101½	105¼
B. & O., com.	87⅛	86	87¼
Butte & Superior	98⅝	94⅞	98
Cal. Petroleum, com.	29¾	29	29½
Canadian Pacific	166⅞	165¾	166⅞
Central Leather	53	52¼	53
Ches. & Ohio	61¼	60¼	61
Chino Copper Co.	57¾	56½	57¾
C., Gt. Westn, com.	12¾	12½	12¾
C., Mil. & St. P.	93⅛	92¼	93
Colo. Fuel & Iron	43	41¾	43
Corn Pro. Co.	23⅛	22¾	22¾
Crucible Steel, com.	79½	73¾	78⅜
Distillers Sec.	46⅛	45⅝	46⅛
Erie	36⅞	36	36⅞
B. F. Goodrich Co., com	72	70¼	71¾
General Electric	168	167¼	168
Great Northern, pfd.	121	120¾	121
Great Northern Ore.	42½	41¾	42½
Gug. Explor. Co.	21	21	21
Inspir. Cop. Co.	45¾	44⅞	45⅛
K. C. Southern	25⅝	25⅝	25⅝
Kenn Copper	65¼	64¾	65¼
Lackawanna Steel	76½	76	76½
Lehigh Valley	77⅝	77⅝	77⅝
Mont. Power & Light	74½	74	74½
Maxwell Motor	62⅞	59½	62⅞
do 1st pfd.	84	83½	84
do 2nd pfd.	46½	46	46½
Mex. Pet'm Co.	103¾	102	104⅝
Missouri Pacific	4¼	4¼	4¼
Miami Copper	35⅛	35⅛	35⅛
M. & St. L. Ry.	5	5	5
Nor. Pacific	111⅞	111¼	112⅞
National Lead	66⅜	66¾	66⅜
Nev. Copper Co.	16⅜	16¼	16¼
Norfolk & Western	115½	115½	115½
N. Y. Air Brake	141	140	141
N. Y. Central	104⅞	104⅛	104¼
N., N. H. & H.	67¾	67⅝	67¾
Pennsylvania R. R.	57⅛	56¾	57
Pressed S. C. Co.	53	50¾	53
Ray Copper	24⅞	24½	24¾
Reading	82½	81¼	82⅜
Republic Steel	52⅝	51⅞	52⅝
Rock Island	18	17½	17½
Ry. Steel Springs	39½	39⅛	39⅜
Southern Pacific	97	96⅝	97
Southern Railway	20¼	20	20¼
Studebaker, com.	140¾	137¼	140½
Tenn. Copper Co.	57	55	57
Texas Oil Co.	204	200¾	203
Union Pacific	132⅜	131⅝	132⅜
U. S. Rubber	49⅞	49¾	49⅞
U. S. Inds. Alcohol Co.	153½	149¼	153
U. S. Steel	82⅞	81¾	82⅞
U. S. Steel, pfd.	116½	116¼	116⅝
Utah Copper	85⅝	84⅛	84⅞
Western Union	90	90	90
West. Hse Elc. Co.	64	63	64
Willys Motor	224	216	224

BOSTON COPPER STOCKS.

Reported by Paine, Webber & Co.

STOCKS—	Bid.	Asked.
Alaska	18	19
Adventure	2¼	2⅝
Ahmeek	100½	101
Allouez	70⅞	71½
American Zinc	79¾	80¼
Arcadian	8½	9
Arizona Commercial	8⅝	8⅞
B. A. Scott	10	10½
Butte & Ballaklava	4	4½
Butte & Superior	96	98
Calumet & Arizona	71¾	72
Calumet & Hecla	550	555
Centennial	15½	16½
Cambria Steel	81	....
Chino	56⅝	57
Copper Range	63¼	63½
Daly West	2¾	3
East Butte	13	13½
Franklin	9¼	9½
Goldfield Consolidated	90c	95c
Granby	90	90½
Greene-Cananea	44	44¾
Hancock Consolidated	15½	15⅞
Inspiration	45	45½
Indiana	4	5
Isle Royale	27½	28½

ABSENT-MINDED ABNER—This Goat Acted As a Scentsor on the News

By Walt McDougall

WHAT'S THAT? BRYAN GOING ON THE STAGE! GIVE ME A PAPER, BOY!
I WONDER IF I COULD FIND A VOLUME OF LEW DOCKSTADER'S MEMOIRS HERE?
REDUCED TO 25 CTS
THIS IS A FIRST EDITION OF DE FUNK AND JUDGING FROM THE AROMA IT IS BOUND IN GENUINE GOAT SKIN!
BY THE WAY I BOUGHT A PAPER TO READ SOMETHING OF SOME IMPORTANCE —
WHY, BLESS MY SOUL! SOMEBODY HAS CUT OFF ALL THE HEADLINES!
Copyright, 1916, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

FOR SALE HOUSES.

—FOR SALE—

A new six-room house on Thirteenth avenue east; modern in every respect; price $4,000; $20 per month and interest will handle; no cash payment required.

Five-room house on East Sixth street; water, sewer and gas; price $2,100; terms to suit.

Five-room cottage on fifty-foot lot on Ninth street; price $1,350; $100 cash and balance like rent will buy it.

A. F. KREAGER,
406-7 Torrey Bldg.

FOR SALE—VERY FINE NEW MODern brick flat for two families; hot water heat; two plants; laundry; full basement; stone foundation; hardwood floors; plenty of light; place always rented; nice location; walking distance; price $5,550; must have $1,500 cash. Don't inquire unless you have that amount. Little & Nolte Co., Exchange building. (4-1)

FOR SALE—IT REQUIRES NO stretch of imagination to appreciate the desirability of the Hunter's Park district as a home location, and a strictly upto the minute eight-room home in this district for only $7,000 should commend itself to you. For full particulars see W. B. Roe, 412 Providence building; call Grand 862.

—AT LESTER PARK—

Three houses, $1,600, $1,750, and $3,000; big bargains; large lots; your own terms.
WILLIAM C. SARGENT,
Providence Building.

FOR SALE OR TRADE FOR WEST end property, six-room house; lot 50 by 140; bath, sewer, gas, water and electric light; stove heat; Crosley Park; $2,500, $150 down, $20 per month. Call Joseph W. Cumming, Park 110-Y.

FOR SALE—I HAVE SEVERAL houses from $5,000 up; all high class and good neighborhoods; monthly payments if desired. Stewart G. Collins, 710 Torrey.

FOR SALE—BY OWNER, MODERN eight-room house and garage; East end; nice lawn, building garden space; very reasonable. Melrose 3317.

FOR SALE—BY OWNER, NEW eight-room house with garage, East end. Call Melrose 1431.

FOR SALE—FIVE-ROOM COTTAGE on East Seventh street. Melrose 7543 and 7245.

LEGAL NOTICES.

NOTICE.

Bids will be received by mail by the Township Board of Bergland Townsmp, Ontonagon County, until noon, March 31st, 1916, for the construction of 6.664 miles of rock and gravel road, Class C, as per State reward specifications.

NOTE.—All tile or pipe culverts must have headwalls constructed according to Standard Plan B. L. 436.

DESCRIPTION.

Beginning at the second corner common to sections 3 and 4, T. 48 N., R. 42 W., and sections 33 and 34, T. 49 N., R. 42 W., and proceeding S. 88 deg. 45 min. W. (compass bearing) to Sta. 26+23.0, which is the ¼ corner between section 33, T. 49 N., R. 42 W., and section 4, T. 48 N., R. 42 W.; thence S. 88 deg. 40 min. W. to Sta. 52+56.6, which is the section corner common to sections 4 and 5, T. 48 N., R. 42 W., and sections 32 and 33, T. 49 N., R. 42 W.; thence on the same course to Sta. 63+00; thence S. 88 deg. 10 min. W. to Sta. 68+21.4; thence S. 83 deg. 40 min. W. to Sta. 72+23.1; thence on an 5 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 75+94.1; thence S. 69 deg. 50 min. W. to Sta. 77+16.5; thence on an 12 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 78+79.0; thence S. 89 deg. 40 min. W. to Sta. 80+57.1; thence on an 20 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 83+14.6; thence S. 37 deg. 50 min. W. to Sta. 86+93.2; thence on an 24 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 88+46.4; thence S. 86 deg. 20 min. W. to Sta. 90+81.0; thence S. 78 deg. 50 min. W. to Sta. 91+77.5; thence on an 7 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 94+44.5; thence S. 60 deg. 10 min. W. to Sta. 95+25.2; thence on an 16 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 96+85.7; thence S. 34 deg. 30 min. W. to Sta. 97+46.3; thence on an 9 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 99+51.8; thence S. 53 deg. 00 min. W. to Sta. 102+07.5; thence on an 4 deg. 36 min. curve to the right to Sta. 105+14.9; thence S. 66 deg. 50 min. W. to Sta. 107+94.8; thence on an 7 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 110+47.2; thence S. 49 deg. 10 min. W. to Sta. 111+82.7; thence on an 8 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 114+82.7; thence S. 73 deg. 10 min. W. to Sta. 116+00; thence S. 78 deg. 10 min. W. to Sta. 117+14.5; thence on an 4 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 120+86.5; thence S. 71 deg. 20 min. W. to Sta. 121+61.6; thence on an 4 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 123+69.9; thence S. 79 deg. 40 min. W. to Sta. 127+00; thence S. 84 deg. 30 min. W. to Sta. 131+11.8; thence on an 30 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 133+42.3; thence S. 15 deg. 20 min. W. to Sta. 135+00; thence on an 42 deg. 12 min. curve to the right to Sta. 135+51.7; thence S. 37 deg. 10 min. W. to Sta. 136+70.6; thence on an 17 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 138+50.0; thence S. 67 deg. 40 min. W. to Sta. 141+00; thence on an 50 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 142+09.0; thence S. 13 deg. 10 min. W. to Sta. 144+31.0; thence on an 20 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 146+61.5; thence S. 58 deg. 10 min. W. to Sta. 148+43.0; thence on an 11 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 151+38.5; thence S. 26 deg. 10 min. W. to Sta. 155+35.3; thence on an 16 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 156+32.2; thence S. 49 deg. 40 min. W. to Sta. 157+30.5; thence on an 5 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 158+98.7; thence S. 41 deg. 15 min. W. to Sta. 163+24.2; thence on an 17 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 165+05.6; thence S. 10 deg. 15 min. W. to Sta. 171+70.8; thence on an 7 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 174+42.5; thence S. 29 deg. 15 min. W. to Sta. 178+51.1; thence on an 50 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 179+59.8; thence S. 83 deg. 35 min. W. to Sta. 183+23.8; thence on an 20 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 184+24.6; thence S. 63 deg. 25 min. W. to Sta. 186+00; thence S. 60 deg. 25 min. W. to Sta. 193+32.1; thence on an 10 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 194+67.1; thence S. 46 deg. 55 min. W. to Sta. 197+00; thence S. 52 deg. 55 min. W. to Sta. 200+50.5; thence S. 56 deg. 55 min. W. to Sta. 211+00; thence S. 54 deg. 40 min. W. to Sta. 214+65.0; thence S. 49 deg. 10 min. W. to Sta. 219+00; thence S. 47 deg. 55 min. to Sta. 233+62.5; thence on an 25 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 234+72.5; thence S. 75 deg. 25 min. W. to Sta. 243+00; thence S. 74 deg. 45 min. W. to Sta. 251+00; thence S. 75 deg. 31 min. W. to Sta. 262+69.5; thence on an 37 deg. curve to the left to Sta. 263+79.0; thence S. 35 deg. 01 min. W. to Sta. 271+00; thence S. 38 deg. 46 min. W. to Sta. 274+21.0; thence S. 33 deg. 46 min. W. to Sta. 275+07.1; thence on an 40 deg. curve to the right to Sta. 275+90.9; thence S. 67 deg. 16 min. W. to Sta. 351+84.2; the point of ending being a point on the section line 525.00 min. south of section corner common to sections 9, 10, 15, 16, T. 48 N.; R. 43 W., being in all 3518.2 feet, or 6.664 miles.

A station distance=100.0 min.

First bearing is compass reading; others computed from transit angles.

A certified check for $100 must accompany each bid. All bids are considered informal, and the right is reserved to reject any or all of them.

BERGLAND TOWNSHIP BOARD,
John B. Haskins, Clerk.

Notice of Stockholders Meeting.

To the Stockholders of Butte-Alex Scott Copper company, a corporation of the state of Delaware:

You are hereby notified, That on the 24th day of February, A. D. 1916, at a meeting of the board of directors of said Corporation duly called for that purpose, the following resolution was adopted by a majority of all the directors of the said corporation, viz:

"Resolved: That, in the judgment of the board of directors of the Butte-Alex Scott Copper company, it is deemed advisable and most for the benefit of this corporation, that shall be dissolved, and that a meeting of the stockholders of the corporation to take action upon this resolution pursuant to Section 39 of the General Corporation Laws of the state of Delaware be called for the 30th day of March, A. D. 1916, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon at the office of the company in Dover, Delaware, and that notice thereof be mailed to each stockholder of this corporation within ten days hereafter and that notice thereof be published in 'The Index,' a newspaper published at Dover, Kent county, Delaware, once a week for four successive weeks between this date and the said 30th day of March, A. D. 1916, and that the said notice shall also be published in the Duluth Evening Herald, a newspaper published in the city of Duluth, in St. Louis county, Minnesota, once a week for four successive weeks between this date and the said 30th day of March, A. D. 1916."

And you are hereby notified that pursuant to the foregoing resolution a meeting of the stockholders of the said corporation is called for the 30th day of March, A. D. 1916, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon at the office of the corporation at 302 South State street, in Dover, Delaware, to take action upon the said resolution, and if the same shall be approved, to evidence the same by a consent in writing to the said dissolution, as by law required.

Dated February 24th, 1916.

W. P. HEIMBACH
President
of Butte-Alex Scott
Copper Company.

(Corporate Seal.)

D. H., Feb. 28, March 6-13-20, 1916.

WANTED TO BUY.

WANTED TO BUY.

We must have more suitable houses for sale. We cannot supply the demand. Prices range all the way from $4,000 for a comfortable 6-room house to $15,000 cash for a large home in the normal district.

If you have a good, fairly new home on a large lot in East end which you will sell at a fair price, see us quick.

LITTLE & NOLTE CO.,
Exchange Building.

WANTED TO BUY
AT ONCE

A modern home in East end. $6,000 to $8,000 cash. Must be a bargain. Call Mel. 2562.

WANTED TO BUY—HEATERS AND ranges; we will pay good prices or exchange for new furniture. East End Furniture company, 120 East Superior street. Phone Grand 2013-X.

WANTED TO BUY—5,000 STANDARD tamarack ties, f. o. b. cars Superior; railroad inspection; for coal dock. Address P. R., care of Superior Telegram.

WANTED TO BUY—GOOD BUILDING lot or a modern house in West Duluth; state location, price and terms. Write Z 721, Herald.

WANTED TO BUY—WILL PAY CASH for cheap cut-over lands; St. Louis, Lake or Cook county. Address, Y 553, Herald office.

WANTED TO BUY—SMALL OR MEdium size roll top desk; fair condition and cheap for cash. Write W 736, Herald.

WANTED TO BUY—100 YOUNG PIGS and ten calves on or before April 1. James Leary, 342 Lake avenue south.

IS YOUR FARM FOR SALE? IF SO, see us. We have buyers. Cant & McLean, First National Bank Bldg.

WE PURCHASE REAL ESTATE CONtracts, mortgages and notes. Northern Equities Co., 612 1st Nat. Bank Bldg.

WILL BUY PARTIALLY IMPROVED farm. State price, location, etc., in first letter. Address A 927, Herald.

WANTED TO BUY — LARGE OR small tract of land for investment. Address I 69, Herald.

WANTED TO BUY—SECOND-HAND cash register with checks. Write M 729, Herald.

H. Popkin buys stoves and furniture. Grand 2337-A. Melrose 1482.

WANTED TO BUY—INVALID CHAIR. Call Cole 305-A.

WATCHES REPAIRED.

Bring your watch to Garon Bros., to have it repaired right. 217 W. 1st St.

JEWELRY REPAIRED.

Have Lange do your repairing right. Cash for old gold. 12 Lake Ave. N.

UPHOLSTERING.

Furniture, Automobiles — Reasonable price. E. Ott, 112 1st Ave. W. Phones.

PERSONAL.

—TALK TO GILIUSON—

He can positively show you how you can save at least $100 on the purchase price of any grade piano, and especially so where you purchase on the installment plan.

S. E. GILIUSON, Mgr.

RAUDENBUSH & SONS PIANO COMPANY,
232 West First Street.

—A MASTER SERVICE—

The Yale method of dry cleaning is recommended to you by the National Association of Dyers and Cleaners. To become a member of this association it was required of us to have a fully equipped, up-to-date standard dry cleaning establishment; consider these facts when you need the service of dry cleaners; insist on having your work done by master cleaners. Our wagon will call when you phone 2442. Yale laundry and French dry cleaners.

PERSONAL—Ladies! Ask your druggist for Chichester Pills, the Diamond Brand, for 25 years known as best, safest, always reliable. Take no other. Chichester Diamond Brand Pills are sold by druggists everywhere.

PERSONAL—"HELL; IS IT EVERlasting?" A high grade lesson for busy people will settle this important question. Send $1 to Missionary, Prosperine, Mo.

PERSONAL—WILL THE TALL YOUNG man who paid for the two young ladies' tags at the auto races yesterday kindly give address; we wish to repay you. Write E. A. and S. Y., care Herald.

PERSONAL—Get away from washday troubles by sending your family wash to us, 5½c per pound. Lutes' laundry, 808 East Second street. Phone us, Grand 447; Melrose 447.

WANTED—RAGTIME PLAYING POSItively taught in twenty lessons. Send for free booklet. Leffingwell schools. Manager J. L. Denver, 32 West Second street. 7720 Melrose.

PERSONALS — WANTED PRESENT address of Charles Erickson or wife, Amanda, to clear title to land purchased from them. B. I. Bliss, Rice Lake, Wis.

Unexcelled hairdressing, facial massage and beauty treatments. Also corns and bunions treated. Mrs. Dr. Bahr, Comfort Beauty Parlors, 109 Oak hall.

Madam Moisan, toupee specialist; long established; work guaranteed; toupees protect from colds and neuralgia; switches made up. 215½ W. 1st.

MADE-TO-MEASURE Shirts, Underwear, Raincoats, Neckties, Suit or O'Coat, $18. Ladies' Suits, spring selections. C. N. Hamilton, 315 E. Sup St.

Personal—Boyce's soda fountain under new management; light lunches; all home cooking; sanitation and service the best in city. E. H. McAllister, prop.

Personal—Lena E. Pierce, successor to Mrs. E. H. Lower; corns, bunions, ingrown nails treated, also chilblains. 22-23 Mesaba blk. Mel. 1470; Gr. 242.

Personal—Medicated salt baths, shampoo and massage. Anna Manthey, 27 E. Sup. st., flat 4. Mel. 5498. Resident appointments solicited.

PERSONAL—YOUNG MAN WISHES to correspond with Duluth girl for pastime. Oscar Williams, Carlisle, Wash.

2x3 photos in attractive folders; three for 25c; special value. Brown's Photo studio. 221 West Superior St.

PERSONAL LOANS ON DIAMONDS, $100 and up, at 1 per cent a month. Keystone Loan Co., 22 W. Superior st.

PERSONAL LOANS ON DIAMONDS, $100 and up, at 1 per cent a month. Keystone Loan Co., 22 W. Superior St.

MASSAGE—MARGARET NELSON, 218 W. Superior St., room 8, third floor. Also appointments at your home.

PERSONAL—PRIVATE LESSONS IN French by lady teacher. Address B 715, Herald.

PERSONAL—WIDOW WOULD LIKE small child to board. Call Melrose 2629.

Personal—Effective scalp treatment. Mrs. Vogt's Hair Shop, 105 W. Sup. St.

Personal—Combings and cut hair made into beautiful switches. Knauf Sisters.

PERSONAL—Ladies, have your suits made at Miller Bros., 405 E. Sup. St.

PERSONAL — FOR SICK PEOPLE—flowers. Duluth Floral company.

Hair, moles, warts removed by electricity; manicuring. Miss Kelly hair shop

ADDITIONAL WANTS ON PAGE 18

SITUATION WANTED. FEMALE.

SITUATION WANTED—YOUNG WOMan with two small children wants a place as housekeeper for widower or bachelor; home wanted more than wages. Write X 725, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — STENOGRApher with several years' experience wishes position; can assist with books and general office work. Address F 701, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — YOUNG woman speaking Finnish language wants position as clerk in dry goods store; three years' experience. Write S 657, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — AT ONCE— Stenographic position; nine years' experience; references furnished. Telephone Y. W. C. A.

SITUATION WANTED — WORK IN laundry; hand froning by experienced girl. 1631 West Superior street. Phone Lincoln 295-Y.

SITUATION WANTED—YOUNG WOMan, steady worker, wishes work of any kind by day or hour. Write S 730, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — GENERAL housework by experienced girl, 1651 West Superior street. Phone Lincoln 295-Y.

SITUATION WANTED — BY YOUNG girl to work for room and board. Melrose 3771 after 6 p. m.

SITUATION WANTED—PLAIN SEWing by the day or at home, reasonable. Call Melrose 2545.

SITUATION WANTED — BY WOMAN with small child, as housekeeper. Write, U 708, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—BY EXPERIenced fitter in suit department. Write K 731, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—DAY WORK, washing, ironing. Call Melrose 8144.

SITUATION WANTED—AS HOUSEkeeper in small family. K 711, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — WASHING, froning and cleaning. Melrose 2267.

SITUATION WANTED. MALE.

SITUATION WANTED—YOUNG INtelligent colored man desires a position as chauffeur with private family; not afraid of work; can furnish reference of five years employed with one family. Write J 703 Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—BY YOUNG married man willing to do any kind of inside work, best of references from the military service; must have work at once; wholesale house preferred. Write Y 706, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—AS GENERAL mechanic; experienced in mining machinery; ten years in charge; married, sober, industrious; at present employed, but desire change; references. Address C 684, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—BY ELECTRIcian, twenty years' experience in electrical construction and installation, as superintendent or chief electrician, with reliable firm or corporation. Address G 692, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—BY MAN AND wife to work on farm. Will go to Dakota or Wisconsin. Competent and reliable. Address R. F. D. No. 4, Box 106, Duluth, Minn.

SITUATION WANTED—BY YOUNG man, 21; bookkeeper and stenographer; experienced in lumber and general building contracting business. Write S 710, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — GOOD ALL round harness maker wants job in repair shop; strictly sober. T. Pascoe, Chassell, Mich.

SITUATION WANTED—DRESS-MAKing and tailoring by the day; prices reasonable. 113 East Third street; Melrose 6456.

SITUATION WANTED — TO RUN small planer mill; can file saws; have good references. Write E 697, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—POSITION AS fireman, have experience. Write D 727, Herald.

FARM & MINERAL LANDS.

FOR SALE — HOMESTEAD RELINquishment; forty acres, ten miles from four towns; no residence or improvements required; $150. Lock Box 603. Baudette, Minn.

FOR SALE OF TRADE—COUPLE OF good farms, North Dakota, for income property; deal with owner; no commissions. Write Z 661, Herald.

I BUY AND SELL LANDS AND TIMber. George Rupley, 612 Lyceum Bldg

WANTED TO RENT.

WANTED TO RENT—A HOUSE OF eight or nine rooms, with modern conveniences and a good yard. Write U 728, Herald.

WANTED TO RENT—A BARN WITH some cows, in or near city. Write or call H. Sorenson, Hall hotel.

BOARD & ROOM OFFERED.

BOARD AND ROOM WITH PRIVATE family; ladies or gentlemen. Lincoln 154-D. 27 North Twenty-ninth avenue west.

BOARD AND ROOM, $26 AND $28 PER month. Melrose 7895. Grand 1988-Y.

BOARD AND ROOM OFFERED, $4 per week. Call Melrose 5142.

HORSES, VEHICLES, ETC.

DRAFT AND DELIVERY HORSES, FARM MARES, GENERAL PURPOSE HORSES.

All our horses are Minnesota raised. Sales made on time if desired. Buy from an established dealer. Also, we guarantee every horse to be as represented.

ZENITH SALE STABLE,
MOSES GOLDBERG, Prop.,
524 West First Street,
Two blocks from union depot.

HORSES—GUARANTEED—HORSES.

We have everything in the horse line. Country bought, free from the diseases of the city markets. Always glad to show stock; always give a written guarantee; always give square deal. Part time if desired.

TWIN PORTS HORSE MARKET,
W. E. BARKER, Prop.,
18 First Avenue W.

HORSES HORSES HORSES

If in the market for horses be sure and see our offerings. We have from 200 to 300 head constantly on hand. Part time given if desired. Barrett & Zimmerman, Duluth Horse Market, Twenty-third avenue west and Superior street. H. J. Walt, manager.

FOR SALE—TEAM OF NICE BLOCKY mares; weight about 3,200 lbs., 5 years old, well matched; can be bought at a bargain; part time given if necessary. 608 North Fifty-sixth avenue west; right beside fire hall, West Duluth; Cole 301, Calumet 280-L.

HARNESS WASHED AND OILED, REpairing neatly and promptly done; give us a trial. Herlan & Merling, 105 West First street; Melrose 4658.

FOR SALE—CHEAP, HORSE, CUTTER and harness, light outfit. Call morning or evenings, between 6 and 7. 18 North Nineteenth avenue west.

FOR SALE — CHEAP, TEAM BAY horses; weight 2,600; first class condition. Call Lincoln 355-A.

BUSINESS CHANCES.

BUSINESS CHANCES—FOR SALE — Stock and fixtures of confectionery store located on good corner in Washburn, Wis., a booming town; will sell for cash only; rent reasonable. Address A. S., Box 307, Washburn, Wis.

FOR SALE—SMALL GROCERY AND confectionery store in center of city; basement can be used for living rooms; good business, reasonable rent; sickness of proprietor reason for selling. Write Z 700, care Herald.

BUSINESS CHANCE—A SMALL, NEW hotel, newly furnished, for sale, reasonable; account ill health; steam heat; all modern; rooms all full. Main Hotel, Crosby, Minn.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—GOOD-PAYing business for cash or income property; bank reference; deal with owner; no commissions. Write B 588, Herald.

FOR SALE—POOL HALL, THREE tables and cigar stand; good soft drink stand; $600 cash; prompt acceptance. Box 445, Nashwauk, Minn.

BUSINESS CHANCES — FOR SALE— Shoemaker shop near steel plant. John Komletinski, 313 Commonwealth avenue, New Duluth, Minn.

BUSINESS CHANCES — FOR SALE bakery and confectionery, small amount of money will handle deal, low rent. Write, F 596, Herald.

BUSINESS CHANCES—BAKERY OUTfit, slightly used, perfect condition, suitable for shop or hotel. C. Hatfield, Sebeka, Minn.

FOR SALE—CHEAP; RESTAURANT on Mesaba range, doing good business. Address P 732, Herald.

REAL ESTATE LOANS.

FIRST MORTGAGE LOANS.

We advance funds as needed on first mortgage building loans. Favorable terms.

W. M. PRINDLE & CO.,
Lonsdale Bldg.

MONEY TO LOAN — ANY AMOUNT — Any time. Quick service. Building loans a specialty, 5, 5½ and 6 per cent. Cooley & Underhill, 209-210-211 Exchange building.

CASH ON HAND TO LOAN ON CITY and farm property; any amount, lowest rates, no delay. Northern Title Co., 612 First National Bank building.

MONEY ON HAND TO LOAN. $1,000 to $5,000 "on or before" at 6 per cent. See us first. Wheeler agency, 619 Providence building.

BUILDING LOANS—MONEY ON HAND —no delay. Any amount for business or residence property. L. U. Young, 615 Providence building.

IF YOU OWN A LOT, SEE US ABOUT financing the building of your home. Duluth Lumber Co., Mel. 112, Lin. 112.

Money at Lowest Rates.
Any Amount; No Delay.
Little & Nolte Co., Exchange Bldg.

MONEY TO LOAN—LOANS MADE ON timber and farm lands. John Q. A. Crosby, 305 Palladio building.

Money on hand for real estate loans. Stewart G. Collins, 710 Torrey bldg.

For Farm Loans and Farm Lands, see Ebert-Walker Co., 315-16 Torrey bldg.

MONEY TO LOAN—Any amount. Benjamin F. Schweiger, 1932 W. Sup. St.

CITY AND FARM LOANS. WILLIAM C. Sargent, Providence building.

PROFESSIONAL AND BUSINESS GUIDE

Ready reference of the professional men and leading business firms. Herald readers who do not find the line of business they are seeking will confer a favor by requesting of us the information desired.

CALL 324 FOR REPRESENTATION IN THIS COLUMN

ACCOUNTANTS.

JAMES S. MATTESON,
Certified Public Accountant
(Minnesota and Wisconsin).
700-701 Alworth Building.

Special or periodical audits and investigations. Commercial, mining and municipal accounting systems installed or revised.

Organized permanent staff contains four men licensed by the state of Minnesota as certified public accountants, insuring the highest grade SERVICE to all clients.

Bank references. Charges reasonable. Telephones: Melrose 4700; Grand 71.

—JOHN E. MACGREGOR—
Public Accountant and Auditor,
601 Sellwood Building. Melrose 570.

DAVID QUAIL & COMPANY,
Chartered Accountants,
Certified Public Accountants,
401 Torrey Building, Duluth.
Highest references. Inquiries invited.

AWNINGS, TENTS, PACKSACKS.

Poirier Tent & Awning Co., 413 E. Sup. Both phones. Horse and wagon covers.

AWNINGS—Duluth Tent & Awning Co., 1608 W. Superior St. Lincoln 36.

ASHES, CINDERS, ETC., REMOVED

Ashes, cinders and manure removed. Merrill, Mel. 1350; Grand 1488-X.

CARDS! CARDS! CARDS!

Business Cards, 300, $1; Calling Cards, 100, 30c. Kask Printing, 114 E. Sup. St.

CAMERAS AND KODAKS.

—ARCADE CAMERA SHOP—
110 West Superior street. Amateur finishing, kodaks and camera supplies.

CARPET CLEANING WORKS.

INTERSTATE CARPET CLEANING CO. 1903 West Michigan St. Both phones.

CHIMNEY SWEEP.

ED McCARTY, CHIMNEY SWEEP AND furnace cleaning. Call Lakeside 46-L.

KNUDSEN, chimney sweep and furnace cleaner. Mel. 46. Fire headquarters.

DANCING ACADEMY.

Ryan's—The school that makes good dancers. Classes: Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays. Call Mel. 4618.

COFFIN'S ACADEMY—Classes Monday, Tuesday and Thursday. Either phone.

FURS REMODELED, REPAIRED.

HAVE YOUR FUR WORK DONE AT Wm. F. Bordasch, 417 Second Ave. E. Phones: Melrose 2236; Grand 199.

FRENCH DRY CLEANERS.

PHONE 1215 AND OUR AUTO WILL call. Prompt attention to out-of-town orders. East End Dry Cleaners.

FURNITURE RE-COVERED.

Let Forsell do your UPHOLSTERING. 334 E. Superior street. Both phones.

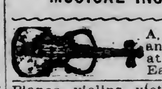
FLORIST AND NURSERYMAN.

Duluth Floral Co., wholesale, retail; cut flowers, funeral designs. 121 W. Sup.

FUNERAL DIRECTOR.

OLSEN & HOPPENYAN, 2014 W. Sup. St.; Lincoln 10; Melrose 7620.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.



A. Haakonsen, dealer and expert repairing, at J. W. Nelson's, 5 East Superior street.

Pianos, violins, victorias, sheet music, etc. Boston Music company.

OPTOMETRIST AND OPTICIAN.

CONSULT A. L. NORBERG, OPTOMETrist and optician, 201½ West First street, for economical buying and correct fitting of glasses; satisfaction guaranteed. We grind our own lenses. Established in business 1891. Registered by examination 1901.

PIANOS REPAIRED AND TUNED.

—THE PIANO SHOP—
Tuning, finishing and repairing. Gregory & Kristensen, 1805 W. Superior St. Melrose 5621; Lincoln 295-X.

DULUTH PIANO REPAIR FACTORY, alley entrance, 312½ W. 1st. Mel. 464.

PATENTS.

All about Patents; consultation free. S. Geo. Stevens, 716 Fidelity. Mel. 3126.

PLUMBING.

THE SANITARY PLUMBING CO., 34 W. First St., plumbing and heating.

WINDOW CLEANING.

National Window Cleaning Co., expert in cleaning woodwork, wall paper, marble, etc. Our work must prove satisfactory, prices reasonable. Mel. 650.

TYPEWRITERS.

SLIGHTLY USED UNDERWOODS, Olivers, Smiths, Remingtons and Royals, $15 up. Rented $2 a month; three months' rental applied on the purchase. Send for list. Duluth Typewriter Co., 319 W. First street.

MONEY TO LOAN.

—$10 OR MORE—
LOANED TO ANYONE

On furniture, pianos, etc., or holding a steady position, at rates honest people are willing to pay. See us first and get a square deal. Money in your hands in few hours' time. Low rates. Easy payments.

DULUTH LOAN COMPANY,
307 Columbia Bldg., 303 W. Sup. St.
Hours: 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.; Wednesday and Saturday to 8 p. m.
Melrose 2355; Grand 1224.

MONEY TO LOAN.

From One to Ten Monthly Payments. On Furniture, etc., at Lowest Rates. Example of Cost Per Month:

$15, if paid in	1 month	$0.90
" " "	3 months	0.70
" " "	5 months	0.44
$25, if paid in	1 month	1.10
" " "	3 months	0.95
" " "	5 months	0.80
$50, if paid in	1 month	2.25
" " "	3 months	1.60
" " "	5 months	1.25

Charges on other amounts in proportion. Even lower rates on jewelry, etc.
DULUTH REMEDIAL LOAN ASS'N,
401 First National Bank Bldg.

—MONEY TO LOAN—
ON SALARIES, ON CHATTELS.
OUR RATES ARE LOWEST.
Borrow $10.00, you pay back $11.00.
Borrow $20.00, you pay back $21.75.
Borrow $30.00, you pay back $32.50.
Borrow $40.00, you pay back $43.25.
Other amounts in proportion.
DULUTH FINANCE CO.,
301 Palladio Bldg.
Open Wednesday and Saturday evening until 9 o'clock. Both phones.

WE LOAN ON ALL KINDS OF PERsonal security at lowest rates. Call on us. Duluth Mortgage Loan Co., W. Horkan. New 1598-D; Melrose 3733.

Loans on watches, diamonds, guns, etc. Keystone Loan Co., 22 W. Superior St.

TIMBER LANDS.

TIMBER AND CUT-OVER LANDS bought; mortgage loans made. John Q. A. Crosby, 305 Palladio building.

WANTED TO BORROW.

WANTED TO BORROW—$1,400 FOR five years at 6 per cent on new, modern, six-room dwelling; lot 31½ by 132, well located; will pay all expenses but no commission. Write F 722, Herald.

FOR SALE—GOOD FIRST MORTgages in sums of $300, $500, $1,000 and other sums. Western Realty Co., 1922 West Superior street.

WANTED TO BORROW—MONEY TO build a home in Lakeside. I have $900. Write A 937, Herald.

RAILROAD TIME TABLES.

Duluth & Iron Range Rail Road.

"Vermilion Route."

DULUTH—	Leave.	Arrive.
Knife River, Two Harbors, Tower, Ely, Winton, Aurora, Biwabik, McKinley Sparta, Eveleth, Gilbert, Virginia.	* 7:30a.m. † 3:15p.m. $11:30p.m.	‡11:30a.m. * 6:20p.m. $10:15p.m. z10:45p.m.

*—Daily. †—Daily except Sunday. ‡—Mixed train leaves daily from Fifteenth Avenue East Station. $—Mixed train arrives daily except Sunday at Fifteenth Avenue East Station. z—Arrives Union Depot Sunday only.

DULUTH, MISSABE & NORTHERN RAILWAY.

Office: 426 West Superior St.,
Phones, 960.

Leave.		Arrive.
*7:40am	Hibbing, Chisholm, Virginia, Eveleth, Coleraine, Sharon, †Mountain Iron, Sparta, Biwabik, Hibbing, Chisholm, Sharon, Virginia, Eveleth, Coleraine.	* 3:21pm
*3:50pm		*10:31am
*7:50pm	Virginia, Chisholm Hibbing.	*‡8:46pm

*—Daily. †—Daily except Sunday. ‡—Except Biwabik.

Cafe Observation Car, Missabe Range Points, Solid Vestibuled Train.

DULUTH & NORTHERN MINNESOTA RAILWAY.

Office, 310 Lonsdale Bldg., Duluth.

Trains connect at Knife River daily (except Sunday) with D. & I. R. trains leaving Duluth at 7:30 a. m., arriving at Duluth (Endion) at 10:15 p. m. Connect at Cramer with Grand Marais stage when running.

WANT AD RATES AND INFORMATION

1c a word per day; $1 per line per month. Display classified, 72c per inch per day.

No ad taken for less than 15c.

CHARGE WANT ADS will not be run longer than seven days without renewal order.

ALL CHARGE WANT ADS are due and payable the same day first insertion of ad appears. All out-of-town want ads are cash in advance. Mail orders given prompt attention. Address all letters to Want Ad Department.

CLOSING HOURS—Want ads to be classified properly must be in The Herald office by 11:30 a. m. on the day ad is to be run. Want ads received after closing hour will be inserted under the heading, "Too Late to Classify."

TELEPHONE WANT ADS are charged at the same rate as cash ads and collection will be made at your home or office as soon as possible thereafter. This is an accommodation service and payment should be made promptly when the bill is presented so as to avoid further annoyance and to aid the efficiency of our service. Always ask that your telephone ad be repeated back to you by the telephone ad taker to make sure that it has been correctly taken.

BLIND ADS—No answers to blind ads will be given unless ticket is presented at time of request. Always save ticket showing key number when placing blind ads. Herald employes are not permitted to tell who any advertiser is. Answers to out-of-town blind ads will be forwarded without extra cost.

THE HERALD desires to give the best service to its readers and advertisers. If you desire any suggestion as to the wording of your ad, call the Want Ad Department.

HERALD TELEPHONE NUMBERS

BUSINESS OFFICE
324 EITHER LINE.

Ask for the Want Ad Department.

NEWS DEPARTMENT
1126 EITHER LINE.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—MACHINIST, ALL-AROUND machine man; one thoroughly acquainted with all branches of gas engine work; must be a hustler; will pay good wages if you can handle the the job; must be strictly sober. Address James Di Onne, Ranier, Minn.

WANTED—MAN TO SELL REAL ESTATE; selling experience preferred, but not necessary. We have large holdings of sub-division and city property and offer good position to an active man. McMahon agency, U. S. National Bank building, Superior.

WANTED—YOUNG MAN, BE A BARber. We teach you cheaply and thoroughly and furnish tools free. Write or call for free catalogue R. Modern Barber college, 20½ East Superior street, Duluth, or 333 East Seventh street, St. Paul, Minn.

WANTED — SOAP SALESMAN FOR the city of Duluth, on commission; must be energetic party with good record. Apply with references to the soap department, Monarch Oil company, limited, Port Arthur, Ont.

LEARN TELEGRAPHY, RAILROAD, commercial, wireless; also touch typewriting; earn board while learning. Write for free catalog. American Telegraph college, Minneapolis, Minn.

WANTED — WOODSMEN FOR ALL kinds of woods work; also cordwood choppers and piece makers; there is very little snow down here. I. Stephenson Co., trustees, Wells, Mich.

WANTED — 500 HUNTERS TO KNOW we loan money on rifles, shotguns, revolvers; will hold till next season before sold. Keystone Loan company, 22 West Superior street.

WANTED—GOVERNMENT POSITIONS are easy to get. My free booklet R. Y. 302 tells how. Write today—Now. Earl Hopkins, Washington, D. C.

U. S. government wants clerks; $100 month; Duluth examinations April 12; sample questions free. Franklin Institute, Dept. 186 M, Rochester, N. Y.

WANTED — BARBER, AT ONCE; first-class; none other need apply; $18, one-half over $27. M. Lindeke, Fay hotel, Virginia, Minn.

WANTED—COMPETENT STAVE SAWyer at once. Write North Shore Cooperage company, Grand Marais, Minn.

WANTED — TWO GOOD PORTRAIT agents at once. Call at the Cody hotel, West Duluth, for Mr. Boehm.

WANTED — EXPERIENCED SALESman, Finnish preferred. Inquire Fifth Avenue Clothing company.

WANTED — TWO EXPERIENCED electricians. Call West Electric company, 27 Fifth avenue west.

WANTED—MACHINISTS AND MOLders. Apply Lake Shore Engine Works, Marquette, Mich.

WANTED—AT ONCE, FLAT WORK washer. Acme Steam laundry, 219 West First street.

WANTED—AT ONCE, FLAT WORK washer. Acme Steam laundry, 219 West First street.

WANTED—CASH PAID FOR diamonds. Watches repaired, $1. 5 S. 5th Av. W.

Wanted—Appearance counts; your suit pressed while U wait. 2 Lyceum Bldg.

WANTED—BOY AT E. A. GROCHAU'S drug store.

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—AT FIRST PRESBYTERIAN church Sunday noon, black leather bag lined with purple silk, containing handkerchief, eye-glasses and letter addressed to Miss Margaret McGiffert, 1511 East Second street. Call Melrose 1691. Reward.

LOST—CHILD'S MESHBAG BETWEEN Fourth avenue east, on Fourth street, and English Lutheran church. Finder please call 419½ East Fourth street, or Melrose 3107.

LOST — LARGE BLACK POCKETbook, March 3, on Duluth-Superior street car; receipts for Polish newspaper. Return to Herald; $5 reward.

LOST—FRIDAY, PLAYFUL RAT TERrier; white with black ears; limps on the right front leg. F. Banker, 526 East Seventh street. Melrose 3971.

LOST—PIECE OF EMBROIDERY BEtween Thirty-sixth avenue and Fourteenth avenue east and Second street. Call Lakeside 276-K.

FOUND—BLACK SPANIEL DOG. Owner call Melrose 8003.

DRESSMAKING.

WANTED—PLAIN AND FANCY SEWing; also children's clothes, by the day. Melrose 1112.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED.

Experienced saleslady for wash goods department. Apply at

FREIMUTH'S.

LEARN TO CUT AND MAKE YOUR own waists and dresses. You can easily do it after taking the course in practical instruction. Make clothes while learning. Miss Gray's school, 3d floor, Geo. A. Gray Co. Also all sizes and styles of patterns cut to measure.

WANTED—LADIES TO SEW INSOLES; good pay weekly; no canvassing; goods cut ready for machine; transportation paid. Address with stamped envelope, No-ak Insoles, Danville, Ill.

WANTED — HOUSEKEEPER BY THE week or year on a farm; no objection to widow with one child. Address J. McNeil, Havana, N. D., R. R. 2, Box 49.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework; three in family; good wages; must be good cook. Mrs. A. M. Washburn, 2419 East Fifth street.

WANTED—LADY AGENTS TO SELL meritorious article; salary and commission; excellent proposition for industrious lady. L 717, Herald.

WANTED—GIRL TO TAKE CARE OF baby 12 months old a few hours a day. Will pay good price. Call Melrose 1806 after 8 p. m.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework; will consider newcomer; $40 per month. 1520 East Third street. Melrose 4033.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework; no washing. Inquire Boston store. Call Cole 36-X. Must live in West Duluth.

WANTED—$5 PER WEEK FOR COMpetent girl for general housework. Apply 1614 East Third street. References required.

WANTED—LADY TO TAKE CARE OF invalid; permanent position and good home. Call at 207 South Eighteenth avenue east.

WANTED—YOUNG GIRL TO ASSIST with housework; small apartment; small family. 1727 Jefferson street, apartment D.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework, one who can cook. Mrs. John Wertin, 1510 East Third street.

WANTED—MEDIUM AGE WOMAN as housekeeper for widower out of more than wages. Write P 712, Herald.

WANTED—GOVERNMENT POSITIONS open to women; $75 month. Franklin Institute, Dept. 645 M., Rochester, N.Y.

WANTED — A COMPETENT COOK; must furnish references. Mrs. A. B. Wolvin. 1103 East Superior street.

WANTED—GIRL FOR GENERAL housework, small family, good wages. Apply 1517 East Superior street.

WANTED—GIRL FOR GENERAL housework; no washing or ironing. Call at 1320 East Second street.

WANTED — THOROUGHLY COMPEtent cook at once. Mrs. W. W. Walker, 2215 East First street.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Mrs. Lucien Merritt, 4611 West Superior street.

WANTED — SCANDINAVIAN GIRL for boarding house work. 5 North Nineteenth avenue west.

WANTED — AN EXPERIENCED hairdresser; permanent position. Write Y 726, Herald.

WANTED—GIRL FOR GENERAL housework at once. Tremont hotel, West Duluth.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework. 721 East First street, flat 5.

WANTED — DISHWASHER, TOURIST hotel, 305 North Central avenue, West Duluth.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework. 1016 East First street.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework. 414 East Third street.

WANTED—GIRL TO ASSIST WITH housework. 1019 East Second street.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. 2701 West Huron street.

WANTED—GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. 131 East Sixth street.

WANTED—EXPERIENCED HOTEL scrub girl. St. Louis hotel.

WANTED—A HOUSEMAID AT 418 East First street, flat A.

WANTED—HOUSEMAID. 418 EAST First street, flat A.

WANTED — DINING ROOM GIRL. Palmer house.

WANTED — SECOND COOK. SIXTH Avenue hotel.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE

BUILDING LOTS.

Fine level lot, ½ block from car line at 35th ave. W.; 44 feet wide, sewer, water and gas in the street. Price $700.

100-foot corner, 41st ave. W. and 6th St., all improvements, cheap.

50-foot lot on 4th St. near 41st ave. W., $825.

WHEELER AGENCY,
Both phones.
619 Providence Bldg.

LET US SEND

You a descriptive booklet of Congdon Park division, Duluth's very best restricted residence district.

WILLIAM C. SARGENT,
Exclusive Agent,
Providence Building.

WANTED — RELIABLE PARTIES with the ability to sell steel plant lots can secure a very favorable contract for the exclusive sale of a new steel plant addition, well located; low prices on lots and liberal commissions. Call or write J. P. Rossman, Torrey building, Duluth, Minn.

FOR SALE—LAKESIDE 50-FOOT LOT, block from car line; street graded, water, sewer, cement walk; bargain, $575; easy terms; worth $775. Write U 610, Herald.

FOR SALE—CORNER LOT AT LAKEside; one block from car line; water, sewer and gas in street; $325 for quick sale from owner. Write T 723, Herald.

FOR SALE — OWNER MUST SELL at sacrifice big lot in Crescent View park; price $450; easy terms. 225 Manhattan building.

FOR SALE — CITY PROPERTY, houses and lots; farms and timber land. O. G. Olson, 314 Columbia Bldg.

WALL PAPER.

Experienced and reliable paper-hanger will furnish new and up-to-date patterns and paper an ordinary-sized room for $4.50. Painting and tinting neatly done; prompt and satisfactory work guaranteed. Decorator, 31 W. Second St. Mel. 4303; Grand 596-X.

REACHES EVERYONE INTERESTED IN POULTRY...

The Duluth Herald is the recognized poultry medium. It is the official paper of the people interested in Poultry and Pet Stock.

Circulation Greatest—Rates Lowest

The Duluth Herald has the greatest circulation of any newspaper in Minnesota, outside the Twin Cities. Its rates for classified advertising are less per thousand circulation than those of any other paper in Minnesota. Best results are gained from ads when definite information is given. When information is lacking the presumption is that desirable features are lacking. Information as to contract rates and the probable amount of space your ad would take, gladly given.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

AUTOS & MOTORCYCLES.

98 PER CENT OF AUTO BUYERS READ THE DULUTH HERALD.

The names in which automobile licenses are issued have been checked with The Duluth's Herald subscription lists, and it was found that 98 out of every 100 people who buy cars read The Duluth Herald.

If you have a car for sale or trade, offer it in this automobile column and you will reach practically every one who will buy.

FOR SALE.

FORD TOURING CAR—1915 model, shock absorber and other extra equipment. Price $325.

STUDEBAKER "20" TOURING CAR—New top, windshield, and in good running order. $300.

OAKLAND "36" TOURING CAR—In first-class condition; electric lights and starter. $650.

OAKLAND 6-48 TOURING CAR—Electric lights and starter; practically good as new; cost $1,785; our price $800.

Terms can be arranged on these or other cars which we have for sale.

E. H. WHITNEY MOTOR CO.,
701 E. Superior St., Duluth.
Melrose 6196. Grand 907.

OXY-ACETYLENE WELDING, CUTting and carbon burning; all work guaranteed satisfactory or no charge. 99½ per cent pure oxygen for sale. Duluth Gas & Welding Co., 2110-2112 West Michigan St. Mel. 7064; Lin. 643.

AUTO CYLINDERS REBORED, NEW pistons and rings made; accurate workmanship; prices right. Zellmer Machine works, 314-16 West First street, alley entrance. Melrose 86.

Tires lockstitched and double-treaded average 4,000 miles more wear out of them at small cost. Herian & Merling, 105 West First street. Mel. 4658.

FOR SALE CHEAP—1915 Saxon roadster; good running order, electric lights, self starter. Inquire Harry Merritt, 619 Providence building.

FOR SALE—1915 METZ TOURING car; electric lights and starter; one-man top, etc; good condition; $450. Address B 736, Herald.

Equip your car with V radiator and hood; allowance for old radiator. Johnson Auto Supply, 338 E. Superior

Eastern Auto Radiator works—Also all auto metal work done. 336 East Superior street. Phone Grand 2323.

YOUR CAR REPAIRED AT YOUR garage; A-1 mechanics. Harrison & Son, Mel. 6542; 2721 Huron street.

RENT—STORES, OFFICES.

FOR RENT STORES.

At 318 West First street, most central and best business location on West First street; fine storeroom, 25 by 140, in strictly fireproof building, with lowest insurance rate in city; will decorate to suit; possession May 1. Call Grand or Melrose 225.
W. C. SHERWOOD & CO.,
118 Manhattan Building.

FOR RENT — AT 1619 WEST SUPErior street, a small, attractive store which has steel ceiling, hardwood floors, gas, electric lights and toilet and two goods display windows; only $22.50 per month. F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT — THREE STORES ON Eighteenth avenue west and Superior street. Rents $15.00, $20.00 and $25.00 per month.

BENJAMIN F. SCHWEIGER CO.,
1932 West Superior St.

FOR RENT — A THOROUGHLY MODern, steam-heated store at 4 West First street; size approximately 18 by 40 feet; two elegant display windows; very reasonable rental. F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT—TWO FRONT OFFICES. Christie building. Fireproof.

FLORIST.

Duluth Floral Co., wholesale, retail, cut flowers, funeral designs. 121 W. Sup.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

ADDITIONAL WANTS ON PAGE 17

FOR RENT—ROOMS.

—HALEY'S NEW HOTEL—
417 and 419 West Superior Street,

Will make special rates for the winter. All outside rooms, with hot and cold running water in each room. Everything new; free baths. Haley's restaurant in connection.

—THE NEW ALEXANDRIA—

A few desirable rooms now vacant at special winter rates; well-heated and comfortable apartments. Private telephone in every room. Dining room in connection. 322 W. Second St.

—METROPOLE HOTEL—

101-5 Lake avenue south; hot and cold running water in every room; steam heat and other modern conveniences; rates $2 per week and up.

—ELGIN HOTEL—

Nicely furnished, steam-heated rooms; best beds in the city; running water; very reasonable winter rates. 321 West First street.

MELROSE HOTEL,

318 West Second street, well-heated, pleasant rooms and board at special winter rates. Mel. 4301; Grand 2166-X.

The New Mitchell hotel—Rooms newly furnished and decorated; also suite of rooms; all conveniences; rates reasonable. 28 East Second St. Mel. 3357.

FOR RENT—MODERN FURNISHED room, with or without light housekeeping privileges; reasonable rates. 523 West Second street; Mel. 5485.

THE MARYLAND HOTEL, 310 EAST Superior street; steam-heated, modern rooms, $1.75 per week and up.

LA SALLE HOTEL—12-14 Lake Ave. north. Cozy, warm rooms with hot and cold water. Special low rates.

FOR RENT — STEAM-HEATED rooms; reasonable; suitable for small manufacturing, offices, work shop or storage. 313 West Superior street, second floor.

SINCE 1912 WE HAVE SAVED MONEY for hotels and rooming houses on their linens. We sell at wholesale. J. G. Valentine & Co., 8 E. First St.

FOR RENT — ALCOVE AND FRONT room, Ashtabula flats; suitable for two congenial gentlemen; use of bath and telephone. Flat E.

FOR RENT—SUITE OF ROOMS FOR light housekeeping; also one furnished room with hot and cold water. 412 West Third street.

FOR RENT—WARM, FURNISHED room in private family; East end, walking distance; reference required. Melrose 5434.

FOR RENT—NEWLY FURNISHED room, all modern with hot and cold running water; steam heat. Call Grand 903.

FOR RENT — ONE OR TWO BEDrooms with kitchen, furnished for light housekeeping. 2609 West Huron street.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOMS ALso for light housekeeping; use of bath and phone. 1 West Superior street.

FOR RENT—NEATLY FURNISHED room, first floor; use of phone and piano; $2 per week. 440 Mesaba avenue.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOM, suitable for two gentlemen. 1615 Piedmont avenue.

FOR RENT—FIVE ROOMS, GAS, WAter, sewer. 310 East Ninth street.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOMS. 118 Third avenue west.

FOR SALE COWS.

FOR SALE—A CARLOAD OF FRESH milch cows will arrive for Levine Bros., Tuesday, March 7, 821 Fourth avenue east. Grand 1268; Melrose 4702.

FOR SALE—S. GOLDFINE HAS JUST arrived with a carload of the finest assortment of fresh milch cows. 1016 North Fifth avenue west.

FOR SALE—A CARLOAD OF FRESH milch cows has just arrived for S. M. Kaner, 1217 East Seventh street. Both phones.

S. GOLDFINE JUST ARRIVED WITH a carload of fresh milch cows. Old phone. 1016 North Fifth avenue west.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.

Fine farm land to exchange for improved property anywhere. Arnold Co., Superior, Wis.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

FOR RENT—FLATS.

FOR RENT.

32 E. Fourth St., 5 rooms, water, gas, electric light.. $15.00
519 E. Superior St., 5 rooms, toilet and electric light... 15.00
925 E. Fifth St., 5 rooms, bath, gas and electric light 18.00
208½ W. Second St., 7 rooms, bath, gas and electric light 25.00
125 First Ave. W., 5 rooms, toilet and electric light .. 20.00
114 Park Ave., 5 rooms, water and electric light..... 14.00
2619 W. Third St., 5 rooms, bath, gas and electric light 20.00

STRYKER, MANLEY & BUCK,
Main floor, Torrey Building.

FOR RENT — IN THE BUFFALO apartments, on Ninth avenue east, we have two very desirable four-room and alcove steam-heated flats, which have recently been redecorated throughout and equipped with new hardwood floors, new light fixtures and new plumbing fixtures. For an appointment to see these desirable flats call the F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT — ON FIRST AVENUE west, between Superior and First street, a six-room flat which has hardwood floors, electric lights, gas and toilet; stove heat; these premises could be remodeled for a small shop and living rooms if desired. For further information call F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT—$15, A 3-ROOM FLAT IN brick building, No. 16½ West First street; water, sewer, gas, electric lights and toilet; stove heat; a bargain. F. I Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT — SEVEN-ROOM FLAT, 715 West Second street, heat and water furnished, $30.
WILLIAM C. SARGENT,
Providence Building.

FOR RENT—THREE-ROOM FLAT, $8; 4-room flat, $12.50; hardwood floors throughout, sewer, gas, water and electric lights; centrally located. Chas P. Meyers, 611 Alworth Bldg.

FOR RENT—FOUR-ROOM FLAT, NO. 1212 West Superior street; sewer, water, electric light; $12. Apply 300 First National Bank building.

FOR RENT—HEATED SEVEN-ROOM flat in Dacey apartments with water, heat and janitor service. Call Melrose or Grand 423.

FOR RENT—FOUR-ROOM FLAT, 219 East Fifth street, bath; $15 per month. William C. Sargent, Providence building.

FOR RENT—FOUR ROOMS AND ALcove with bath, gas and electric light at 423 East Fifth street; $15 per month.

FOR RENT—FIVE-ROOM FURNISHED flat; heated, janitor service. 123 Tenth avenue east; Melrose 8051.

FOR RENT—FIRST FLOOR, FOUR-room flat at 26 East Second street. Apply 5 East Superior street.

FOR RENT—SIX-ROOM FLAT; HEAT furnished; all modern. 29 West Fourth street. Inquire rear.

FOR RENT—SIX-ROOM FLAT; ALL modern; heat furnished. 27½ West Fourth street.

FOR RENT — FURNISHED FOUR rooms, $17. 27 North Eighteenth avenue west.

FOR RENT—FIVE-ROOM HEATED flat. 1927 West Third street; Melrose 3358.

FOR RENT—CHEAP; MODERN FIVE-room basement. 706 East Fifth street.

FOR RENT—APRIL 1, MODERN FIVE-room flat. Call Melrose 3226.

FOR RENT—FIVE-ROOM FLAT, 519 East Fifth street.

FOR RENT—HOUSES.

—FOR RENT—
By Massachusetts Real Estate Co.,
18 Phoenix Building.

Fine six-room brick house; every convenience; only $32.50 per month.

A seven-room brick house, entirely modern, at 631 East Fourth street; $37.50 per month.

401½ East Fourth street, four-room flat with bath, on corner; plenty of light; only $16.50 per month.

FOR RENT — THE EASTERLY HALF of Munger residence; nine rooms, thoroughly modern and in first-class condition; this house has been recently redecorated throughout and should merit your early consideration; very reasonable rental. F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT—A MODERN, NINE-ROOM rooming house, corner of First avenue west and Second street; this house has been remodeled and redecorated throughout. For an appointment to see this house telephone the F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT — A THOROUGHLY MODern, nine-room dwelling at 716 East First street; hot water heating plant; newly decorated throughout and in first-class condition; reasonable rental. F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT—THREE-ROOM FLAT, $8; 4-room flat, $12.50; hardwood floors throughout, sewer, gas, water and electric lights; centrally located. Chas. P. Meyers, 611 Alworth Bldg.

FOR RENT — SIX-ROOM BRICK house, near Twelfth avenue east on Second street; strictly modern, occupancy at once. Phone Melrose 7552.

FOR RENT—SIX-ROOM HOUSE. 310 West Fifth street; modern except heat. Inquire rental department Bridgeman & Russell company.

FOR RENT—FIVE-ROOM HOUSE gas stove, hot water heat, etc. 2026 West Second street. Apply D. Adams, 1922 West Michigan street.

FOR RENT — FIVE-ROOM HOUSE; modern except heat; Park Point. Inquire Edmont, 18 Third avenue west.

FOR RENT — NEWLY-FURNISHED six-room house, modern, except heat. Write X 704, Herald.

FOR RENT—NOS. 1718 AND 1720 EAST Superior street. E. P. Alexander.

PRIVATE HOSPITALS.

PRIVATE HOME BEFORE AND DURing confinements; good care by experienced nurse; infants cared for. Mrs. Finkle, 213 W. 3rd St. Mel. 2454.

PRIVATE HOME FOR WOMEN BEfore and during confinement; expert care; infants cared for. Ida Pearson, M. D., 284 Harrison avenue, St. Paul.

PRIVATE HOME BEFORE AND DURing confinement. K. Thorstenson, 1602 28th St., Superior Wis. Ogden 851-X.

Mrs. H. Olson, graduate midwife; private hospital and home. 329 N. 58th Ave. W. Phones, Cole 173; Cal. 270.

MRS HANSON, GRADUATE MIDwife; female complaints, 413 Seventh avenue east. Zenith 1225.

Mrs. A. Ferguson, graduate midwife, 917 East Tenth street. Grand 1976-Y.

STOVE REPAIRS.

WE CARRY IN STOCK REPAIRS FOR 10,000 different stoves and ranges. C. F. Wiggerts & Sons, 410 East Sup. St.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

SALE—MISCELLANEOUS

—I HAVE—

A beautiful high-grade $400 piano in storage in Duluth which I purchased less than four years ago. It is just as fine as new, as it has been used very little. Will consider any reasonable offer, as I have no further use for it. Write for address where this piano can be seen. Terms to responsible party. Address A 940, care of The Duluth Herald.

—SPECIAL LOW PRICES—
ON DINING ROOM TABLES.

All styles and finishes. $7.85 and upward.
Big selection to choose from.
ENGER & OLSON,
Nineteenth Ave. W. and Sup. St.

—NOTICE—

Will sell either to dealers on thirty days' time, or direct to retail trade on installment plan, or exchange for other useful merchandise, a number of used coal ranges, gas ranges and bench wringers; all these have been carefully rebuilt with new parts where necessary and are almost as good as new; we find that we are overstocked on same and are willing to sacrifice on price.
BELLNET INSTALLMENT CO.,
202 East Superior St.

—BREAK AWAY—

From the extravagant habit of paying rent on furniture. Furnish your own rooms now at our annual clearance sale. If you are married and living in a light housekeeping suite, you should investigate the big value we are offering in 3-room outfits at $69; terms $1.50 per week. F. S. Kelly Furniture Co., 17 and 19 West Superior street.

TALKING MACHINES — LARGEST stock in the city. Complete outfits at special prices. Be sure you get the New Columbia Grafonola; awarded three grand prizes and two gold medals at the world's fair; double-faced records 65 cents; ask for catalogues free; only exclusive talking machine store in Duluth, largest stock. Edmont, 18 Third avenue west.

SPEAKING OF USED PIANOS.
—SEE GILLIUSON—
He can show several good bargains right now; prices from $66 to $250, on terms.

RAUDENBUSCH & SONS PIANO CO.,
232 West First street.
S. E. Gilliuson, Manager.

WONDERFULLY BIG BARGAINS IN pianos. We are closing out entire stock to remodel the showrooms. $275 piano $125; $350 now $165; $750 player piano now $325; cash or on payments. Korby Piano Co., 26 Lake Av. N.

FOR SALE—AT BIG BARGAIN, THE new $375 piano I won in News Tribune contest. You can select player-piano or baby grand. Cash or terms. Call or write N. S. Mitchell, 102 Manhattan building, Duluth.

AT WHOLESALE TO HOTELS AND rooming houses, table linens, bedding, towels, crashes, curtains, etc. No extra charge for marking. Zenith Dry Goods Co., 126 East First street.

SAFES AND SAFE-CABINETS.
All sizes, new and second-hand, at reasonable prices. Get our list before buying. Safe-Cabinet company, 315 West First street. Melrose 1364.

FOR SALE — CAMERON FURNITURE Company will save you 50 per cent on quality furniture for the home. Salesrooms 2110-2112 West Superior street.

FOR SALE—Second-hand woodworking machinery, portable sawmill, transmission appliances, pipes for steam, water and furnaces. Duluth Mach. Co.

FOR SALE — DRY HARDWOOD, sawed or split and delivered. Grand 1576-D. James Leary, care of Gospel mission, Lake avenue south.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE OF FIVE-room flat, including fine player piano; parties leaving town. 1418 Jefferson street; Melrose 5107.

FOR SALE—12½-FOOT BOBSLED, oak sleds, pine plank, varnish finish, tool steel runners; $10; cost $35. Address R 734, Herald.

FOR SALE—SQUARE PIANO, FINE condition, cheap; leaving town; also library table, sewing machine, beds. 1115 East First street.

FOR SALE—SECOND-HAND LUMber, inquire for McKenzie, Kaiserhoff saloon, corner Lake avenue and Superior street.

FOR SALE—ONE TWO-DRAWER cash register and one No. 6 Remington typewriter; cheap. 31 West Superior street.

FOR SALE—SODA FOUNTAIN, MAhogany; must be sold at once. Jeronimous, druggist, 501 East Fourth St.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE AND LEASE of twelve-room rooming house; all rooms occupied. Write G 733, Herald.

FOR SALE—COMPLETE BEDROOM outfit; good as new; will sell separately; bargain. Call Grand 1432-Y.

FOR SALE—PLAYER PIANO, WITH music, at a bargain; easy payments. Edmont, 18 Third avenue west.

FOR SALE—AT DISCOUNT, A NEW Macey fumed oak, three-section bookcase. Call Grand 2092-Y.

FOR SALE—GOOD BUILDING STONE. Apply First avenue east and First street. H. Fawcett.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE IN GOOD condition, will sell reasonable. 129 West Fourth street.

FOR SALE—EDISON PHONOGRAPH with 93 records and cabinet, cheap. Call Melrose 4642.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE, ODDS AND ends at half price. Boston Music Co.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE. 108 SOUTH Twenty-seventh avenue west.

POULTRY AND EGGS.

For Sale—High-class White Wyandotte, R. C. Black Minorca and White Leghorn cockerels; Orpington pullets. J. T. Michaud. Lakeside 298-D; Park 4. 298-D; Park 4.

Park & Pollard's poultry feeds are the best. Scratch feed; egg mash, growing feed, etc.; wheat, corn, etc. Get price list. Tessman Bros. Co., 26-40 E. Mich. St.

Everything for the poultryman. Send 6c in stamps for 80-page 50c book on poultry raising and remedies with catalog. J. W. Nelson, 5 E. Superior St.

FOR SALE — BARRED ROCK AND White Orpington pullets, $1.50 each; eggs, $1.50 per fifteen; catalogue. Carl Eastwood, Heron Lake, Minn.

SUMMER RESORTS.

FOR SALE—LARGE CAMP SITES ON beautiful Lake Vermillion; sand bathing beaches, parks, docks, wells, etc.; monthly payments as low as $2, without interest; all sites sold on our "money back" guarantee. Gray-Wertin company, Alworth building.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

DULUTH LODGE NO. 505, LOYAL ORDER of Moose, meets every Tuesday at 8 o'clock, Moose hall, 224 West First street. Carl Schau, secretary, 14 Third avenue east.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

PALESTINE LODGE NO. 79, A. F. & A. M.—Regular meetings first and third Monday evenings of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting, March 6, 1916. Work—Second degree. Clement G. Townsend, W. M.; James S. Matteson, Sec.

IONIC LODGE, NO. 186, A. F. & A. M.—Regular meeting second and fourth Monday evenings of each month at 7:30. Next meeting, March 13, 1916. Work — First degree. Degree conferred by high school teachers. William J. Works, W. M.; Burr Porter, secretary.

KEYSTONE CHAPTER NO. 20, R. A. M.—Stated convocations, second and fourth Wednesday evenings of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting March 8, 1916. Work—Royal Arch degree conferred by Past High Priests. Stanley L. Mack, H. P.; Alfred Le Richeux, secretary.

DULUTH COUNCIL NO. 6, R. & S. M.—Stated convocations, third Friday of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting, March 17, 1916. Work—Super-excellent degree. Maynard W. Turner, T. I. M.; Alfred Le Richeux, Secretary.

DULUTH COMMANDERY NO. 18, K. T.—Stated convocations, first Tuesday of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next conclave, March 7, 1916. Work—Annual meeting; election of officers. Arch. D. Mackinnon, Com.; Alfred Le Richeux, recorder.

SCOTTISH RITE — REGULAR MEETINGS every Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Next meeting, March 2, 1916. Work—Twenty-first degree. Burr Porter, secretary.

ZENITH CHAPTER NO. 25, ORDER OF Eastern Star—Regular meetings second and fourth Friday evenings each month. Next meeting, Friday, March 10, 1916, at 7:30 o'clock. Work—Regular business, balloting and initiation. Eva M. Dunbar, W. M.; Ella F. Gearhart, Sec.

MIZPAH SHRINE NO. 1, ORDER OF THE White Shrine of Jerusalem—Regular meetings first Saturday evening of each month at 8 o'clock. Next meeting, March 4, 1916. Business and balloting. Gertrude Bates, W. H. P.; Etta Trevranus, W. S.

EUCLID CHAPTER NO. 56, ORDER OF the Eastern Star—Meets at West Duluth Masonic temple the first and third Tuesdays of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting, March 7, 1916. Initiation. Flora Clark, W. M.; Mildred M. Ross, Sec.

EUCLID LODGE, NO. 198, A. F. & A. M.—Meets at West Duluth, second and fourth Wednesdays of each month at 7:30 p. m. Next meeting, March 8, 1916. Work—Third degree. H. W. Lanners, W. M.; A. Dunleavy, secretary.

DULUTH CHAPTER NO. 59, R. A. M.—Meets at West Duluth first and third Wednesdays of each month at 7:30 p. m. Next meeting, March 15, 1916. Work—R. A. M. degree, conferred by Keystone chapter. W. A. Pittenger, H. P.; A. Dunleavy, secretary.

LAKESIDE LODGE NO. 281, A. F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Mondays of each month at 8 o'clock at Masonic hall, Twenty-fifth avenue east and Robinson street. Next meeting, March 6, 1916. Regular—Work, First degree. William A. Hicken, W. M.; George E. Nelson, secretary, 4530 Cooke street east.

TRINITY LODGE NO. 282, A. F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Mondays at 8 o'clock, in Woodman hall, Twenty-first avenue west. Next meeting, regular, March 6, 1916. Work—Third degree. E. H. Pfeifer, W. M., 1918 West Third street; R. E. Wheeler, secretary, 2032 West Superior street.

A. O. U. W.
FIDELITY LODGE NO 105—MEETS AT Maccabee hall, 21 Lake avenue north, every Thursday at 8 p. m. Visiting members welcome. R. A. Vogt, M. W. S. A. Lubansky, recorder; O. L. Murnold, financier, 217 East Fifth street. Stag party, March 9.

A. O. U. W.—DULUTH LODGE NO. 10—Meets every second and fourth Tuesday nights at Axa hall, 221 West Superior street. Next meeting, March 14, 1916, at 8 p. m., initiation. Marvin E. Heller, M. W.; R. G. Foote, recorder; E. F. Heller, financier, 509 Second avenue east.

ZENITH COUNCIL NO. 161, ROYAL League, meets the first and third Thursdays in the month, at 8 o'clock, in the old Masonic temple, Superior street and Second avenue east. O. S. Kempten, archon, Wolvin building; H. A. Hall, collector, 18 East First street.

DULUTH LODGE NO. 23, I. O. O. F.—Next meeting, Friday evening, March 10, 1916, at 7:30 o'clock, 221 West Superior street, third floor. Work—First degree will be conferred. Odd Fellows welcome. Charles F. Ottinger, N. G.; W. J. McDonald, Rec. Sec.

K. OF P.
NORTH STAR LODGE NO. 35, K. OF P.—Meets every Tuesday, 7:30 p. m., sixth floor, Temple building, Superior street and Second avenue east. Next meeting, March 7, 1916. Work—First rank. James A. Wharton, C. C., 802 Alworth building; B. A. Rose, M. of F., 205 First National bank; R. A. Bishop, K. of R. and S., 505 Palladio building.

ZENITH CAMP NO. 5, WOODMEN OF the World, meets on first and third Friday nights of month, at Foresters' hall, Fourth avenue west and First street. J. H. Larkin, clerk, 312 Sixtieth avenue east. Lakeside 23-K.

MAJESTIC REBEKAH LODGE NO. 60, I. O. O. F.—Regular meetings first and third Thursdays of each month, 8 p. m., 221 West Superior street, third floor. Next meeting, March 2, 1916. Feb. 28, drill practice. Mrs. Henrietta Shaw, N. G.; Lillian Johnson, secretary, Grand 2113-Y.

DULUTH HOMESTEAD NO. 3131, BROTHerhood of American Yeomen, meets every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock sharp, in Maccabee hall, 21 Lake avenue north. Herbert F. Hanks, foreman; J. J. Palmer, correspondent, office in his drug store, 2132 West Third street. Melrose 3769; Lincoln 511-Y.

M. W. A.
IMPERIAL CAMP, 2206 — MEETS AT Forester hall, Fourth avenue west and First street, second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. Wayne E. Richardson, consul; Robert Rankin, clerk, care Rankin Printing company.

CLAN STEWART NO. 50, O. S. C.—Meets first and third Wednesdays each month, 8 p. m., U. O. F. hall, corner Fourth avenue west and First street. Next regular meeting, March 15, 1916. D. A. Cameron, chief; John Gow, Sec., John Burnett, Fin. Sec., 515 Torrey building.

MODERN SAMARITANS.
ALPHA COUNCIL NO. 1—TAKE NOTICE: That the Samaritan degree meets the first and third Wednesdays, and the Beneficent degree the second and fourth Wednesdays of the month, at 12 East Superior street, Empress theater building. W. B. Henderson, G. S.; John F. Davis, scribe; F. A. Noble, F. S., 201 First National Bank building;

LAST EDITION

THE DULUTH HERALD

18 PAGES

VOLUME XXXIII—NO. 286. TUESDAY EVENING, MARCH 7, 1916. TWO CENTS.

Minn Historical Society D H

MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

PRESIDENT'S POLICY INDORSED BY HOUSE

GERMANS CAPTURE FRESNES IN THEIR NEW DRIVE ON VERDUN FROM SOUTH

TAKE HILL NO. 265 AND FORGES AFTER FRIGHTFUL LOSSES

Attack on French Fortress Has Again Shifted to South and West With Increasing Intensity.

New Operation of Teutons Is Evidently Aimed at Ultimate Possession of Dominating Heights of This Region.

Berlin, March 7.—The war office announced today that the village of Fresnes, in the Woevre, southeast of Verdun, was captured this morning by Germans.

HILL NO. 265 CAPTURED.

Paris, March 7, via London, 1:20 p. m.—The war office announced today that a division of German troops advancing to the the attack has captured Hill No. 265.

Attack Shifts.

London, March 7.—The attack on Verdun has shifted to the west and the Germans are now engaged in pounding their way toward the fortress from beyond the Meuse.

Last night the crown prince's troops took the town of Forges, nine miles northwest of Verdun, but were prevented by the French from debouching against the Cote de L'Oie, about a mile to the south.

Today comes the admission from Paris that the Germans after a violent bombardment succeeded in forcing their way through Forges and along the railroad in the vicinity of Regneville, a village a mile and a half southeast.

Simultaneously an entire division violently attacked and captured Hill No. 265, southwest of Regneville. Heavy losses were sustained by the Germans in taking this position, Paris declares.

New Drive of Teutons.

The new drive of the Teutons apparently is in the nature of a clearing operation, probably indirectly aimed at ultimate possession of the dominating heights in this region. For days they have been hammering the commanding height of Le Morthomme.

The present movement, if successful, also will straighten out the battle line to the northwest of Verdun.

French lines further west have held and they are in possession of Bethincourt and nearby territory.

There is still notable artillery ac-

(Continued on page 3, first column.)

WILL NOT BE A CANDIDATE

Page of North Carolina Does Not Want to Be Re-Elected.

Disagrees With President in the Submarine Controversy.

Washington, March 7.—Representative Robert N. Page of North Carolina, a brother of Ambassador Page at London, has announced in a letter to his constituents that he will not be a candidate for re-election because he disagrees with President Wilson in the submarine controversy. Mr. Page, whose announcement caused a sensation in the house at the moment of a vote on what practically is a proposal that the house shall not interfere with the president's diplomatic negotiations, today supplemented with the declaration that he differed from the president on no other points "at present."

Explains Position.

"Here is my position on the warning resolutions:

"I feel that the president shifted a responsibility when he asked congress to pass on this issue, and then I had my own conscience to consider. I am for a warning resolution. If one comes up on the floor today, I will vote for it. If nothing more than the McLemore resolution comes up I shall vote to table it. I do not agree with it.

"My action was taken after long deliberation. I put the matter up to my conscience and it told me not to be a candidate again."

Reports today that other Southern congressmen planned to follow Page's example could not be confirmed.

AUSTRALIAN TROOPS FIGHTING AT VERDUN

First Announcement That British Soldiers Are Aiding French.

London, March 7.—A dispatch from Melbourne published here today stating that Minister of Defense Pearce had announced that an Australian siege brigade was fighting at Verdun, is the first statement printed here that British forces were operating with the French there.

It had been reported here that British artillery had been moved to Verdun and had been doing great execution, but it was not known whether the big guns transferred were being manned by British or French artillerymen.

STUPENDOUS ARRAY OF GREAT GUNS AROUND VERDUN FORTS

German Ring of Artillery Greatest Ever Assembled in War.

Metz, March 7, via London.—A ring of artillery such as was never before assembled in warfare is gripping Verdun from the north and east.

The correspondent of the Associated Press was permitted to inspect the German positions around Verdun. He has never before seen such a collection of artillery. It far exceeds that with which a breach was hammered in the Russian lines in Galicia last May and those concentrated at Antwerp and Novogeorgievsk were petty in comparison. The long rows of guns firing one behind another offer adequate explanation for the rapidity with which the strong French lines were bombarded.

Long Rows of Cannon Fire Steadily One Behind the Other.

In one position given over to artillery of middle caliber, hidden in an undulation paralleling one front of the forces, the correspondent found batteries arranged in a continuous line with scarcely more than 100 yards between the guns. Behind these again in suitable places of shelter were the big guns up to the very biggest, and from the crest of the hill could be seen batteries which had been pushed forward almost into the infantry line.

Two Shots Per Gun Per Minute.

The day was counted a quiet one

(Continued on page 3, third column.)

FOURTH SON OF KING GEORGE YET TOO YOUNG TO FIGHT

PRINCE GEORGE OF ENGLAND.

Prince George Edward is the fourth son of King George of England. He is a little more than 13 years old and so he is unable to take any active part in the war. He is at present going to school.

SURGEON POISONED IN UNUSUAL MANNER

Matter From Wound Strikes Him in Face; Infection Results.

New York, March 7.—One of the strangest cases of blood poisoning on record was called to the attention of Brooklyn medical men today. The case is that of Dr. John B. Meury, himself one of the chief surgeons at the Bushwick hospital, who is seriously ill at his home.

The poisoning is the result of infection from a hospital patient on whom Dr. Meury operated some time ago. While he was using the knife on the patient for an abscess on the arm, some of the poisonous matter struck him in the face. The surgeon washed his face carefully, and thought no more about it.

Three days ago, however, Dr. Meury was seized with severe pains in the region of his throat. Within an incredibly short time the infection had spread to his head, face and neck, which are now badly swollen.

Former Congressman Dr. Frank E. Wilson, who is attending Dr. Meury, said that the poison was in danger of spreading, and that an operation might be necessary to save the surgeon's life. Both Dr. Wilson and his patient think that the poisoning must be the result of infection from the abscess operation.

WILSON POLICY WARMLY INDORSED BY SENATOR SUTHERLAND OF UTAH

Republican Member Stands Squarely Behind Views of President.

Desires Peace But Prefers War to Loss of National Honor.

Member of Foreign Relations Committee Makes Able Speech.

Washington, March 7.—Discussing the armed ship issue in the senate today, Senator Sutherland of Utah, a Republican member of the foreign relations committee, stood squarely behind President Wilson in his policy in dealing with Germany in the submarine negotiations.

"I do not want war at any time," said Senator Sutherland, "and I pray God that it may not come now, but I would rather have war with all its sacrifices and suffering than that this nation, with its long history of heroism and glory, should play the poltroon when confronted by a supreme national duty, because it places a greater value upon its ease than upon its honor.

"I am one of those who desire peace," the senator continued, "but a nation, when all other means fail, that will not resent a flagrant and illegal attack upon the lives of its own citizens is only less detestable than a man who will not fight for his wife and children. And, believing as I do about that, if the life of an American citizen is again taken by the illegal and deliberate sinking without warning of a merchant ship, unarmed or armed only for defense, that this government should hold the offending nation to a stern reckoning. I shall never give my consent to the issuance of a formal and official notice such as has been proposed, which, if not heeded, would, without minimizing our duty in the least, have the effect of embarrassing and weakening our moral standing if we should once more be under the sad necessity of seeking reparation for the destruction of the lives of our people."

Discusses Status of Armed Ships.

Senator Sutherland discussed the legal status of armed merchant ships

(Continued on page 3, third column.)

ENGAGED IN LICKING ENGLAND'S RECRUITS INTO SHAPE TO FIGHT

GEN. SIR ARCHIBALD HUNTER.

Gen. Sir Archibald Hunter is in command of the Third Army corps with headquarters on Salisbury plain. He is engaged in licking recruits into shape to form England's new army.

ANOTHER VOLTURNO HERO IS LOCATED

Washington, March 7.—The department of commerce located one of the forty Volturno heroes today almost two years after congress had awarded them medals. In a letter from Dundee, Scotland, Alexander Sandilands told the secretary of commerce he had just learned of the action of congress and would like to have his medal forwarded to him. Fifteen other Volturno heroes still are being sought by the government so their medals may be given them. The forty men were members of the crew of the steamship Kroonland who manned the lifeboats and rescued the passengers and crew of the burning steamer Volturno in the North Atlantic ocean in October, 1913.

WINS IN FIRST VOTE ON THE ARMED SHIP ISSUE, 256 TO 160

Second Vote on Rule Providing for Four Hours' Debate Also Won By 271 to 138.

Leaders Say There Is No Doubt of Tabling McLemore Resolution When It Comes to Vote.

Washington, March 7.—In the first test vote in the house today on the armed ship question, the administration forces won 256 to 160.

Opportunity for amending the McLemore resolution to warn Americans off the armed ships of European belligerents was removed and the house turned to debate on the resolution itself with every indication that it would be tabled, as President Wilson desired as a demonstration to foreign nations that dissensions against his foreign policy do not represent the majority of congress.

The question to adopt the special rule was then put. Representative Campbell demanded the yeas and nays and at 1:16 o'clock the roll call began on the adoption of the rule to consider the warning resolution.

The rule providing for four hours' debate on the motion to table the McLemore warning resolution was adopted by 271 to 138. One man voted present.

With this action the administration forces scored another victory and placed the McLemore resolution before the house for debate and a vote without amendment. The administration leaders said there was no doubt the two previous votes showed they could table it by a large majority.

House Assembles Promptly.

Washington, March 7.—Promptly at 11 o'clock the house assembled for the all-day fight of the administration forces to kill the McLemore resolution to warn Americans off armed ships of the European belligerents. Speaker Clark was in the chair, and Acting Chairman Pou of the rules committee was in his seat ready to submit the special rule under which the debate will proceed.

As soon as the journal had been read, Mr. Pou offered the privileged resolution containing the special rule.

Mr. Pou asked for unanimous consent for ninety minutes' debate on the rule. There was no objection and the debate began. Mr. Pou took the floor to open the fight.

At the end of the debate of an hour and a half on the rule, a vote on a motion for "the previous question—a motion to end the debate on the rule itself, was in order." That under the plan of the leader would be the first roll call.

Vote on Rule to Follow.

Then a vote on the adoption of the

(Continued on page 3, fifth column.)

RENE IN NO TROUBLE AT MAZATLAN, MEX.

Sends Message to Brother Saying There Is No Cause for Rumor.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 7.—Reports that Dr. James A. Rene, formerly of Superior, Wis., was to be executed at Mazatlan, Mex., on March 15, by Carranza authorities, are untrue, according to Miss Adelaide Rene, daughter of the physician, who is in Los Angeles.

Miss Rene said she received this information in a telegram from W. E. Alger, American consul at Mazatlan, which read:

"The report is false. Dr. Rene is in no trouble here."

Efforts of Miss Rene and other relatives to get into communication with Dr. Rene thus far have been fruitless.

Message From Doctor.

Long Beach, Cal., March 7.—"I am all right. There is no cause for the rumor." This radio message was received last night by C. D. Rene of this city from his brother, James A. Rene, formerly of Superior, Wis., who, according to private advices which reached Dr. J. A. Adams at Superior last Saturday, was sentenced to be executed March 15, by Carranza authorities at Mazatlan, Mex.

EXPERIMENTED WITH BOMB; LORD KILLED

Brother of Duke of Leinster Lost Life Through Accident.

Paris, March 7.—Major Lord Desmond Fitzgerald, First Battalion Irish Guards, brother of the duke of Leinster, and heir presumptive to that title was accidentally killed, says a Calais dispatch to the Matin. He was experimenting in his tent with a new kind of bomb when it exploded and a fragment struck him in the head. He was taken to a hospital and died an hour later.

Lord Desmond was wounded in battle at the beginning of the war and was mentioned in dispatches for distinguished service. He was born in 1888 and educated at Eton.

Conferences Continue.

Washington, March 7.—Conferences between the interstate commerce commission, representatives of the Eastern Trunk line railroads, shippers and others for discussion of the reasons for congested conditions in freight terminals in New York and other Atlantic coast seaports with a view to remedying the situation, were continued today. The conference is expected to conclude today.

INDIANANS ARE VOTING

First Statewide Preferential Primary Follows Spirited Campaign.

Voters Showing Preference for National and State Candidates.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 7.—Indiana is today holding its first statewide preferential primary after one of the most spirited campaigns ever conducted in the state.

The voters are showing their preferences for candidates for president, vice president, United States senator, governor, members of congress, members of the state legislature and for county offices, and are electing precinct committeemen and delegates to the state conventions.

President Wilson has no opposition in Indiana in his race for renomination

(Continued on page 3, fourth column.)

EXPLOSION IN EL PASO JAIL

Eighteen Persons Lose Lives When Disinfecting Tank Ignites.

Twelve Americans Are Hurt and Three of Them Die.

El Paso, Tex., March 7.—Eighteen persons are dead today and a number of others are not expected to live as the result of the explosion which occurred late yesterday in the disinfection bathroom of the city jail. More than forty prisoners were in the bathroom at the time of the explosion and nearly all of them were burned seriously, nine dying within a short time. Nine others taken to hospitals died during the night. Twelve Americans were among the injured and three of them, H. M. Cross, Davenport, Iowa;

(Continued on page 3, fourth column.)

KEEP OUT.

IRONWOOD ADOPTS ITS NEW CHARTER

Ironwood, Mich., March 7.—The city charter revised by the charter commission was voted on yesterday. It was adopted, there being 735 votes in favor of it and 257 against it.

Game Hunters Meet.

New York, March 7.—Federal and state game officials, hunters and men interested in the conservation of American game are attending the national conference of the American Game Breeding and Preserving association here today. Many states are represented.

Vermont Voting on Prohibition.

Rutland, Vt., March 7.—The question whether statewide prohibition beginning May 1, shall supplant the local option form of liquor selling, which has been effective for thirteen years, was voted on at the annual town meetings in Vermont today.

WEATHER. Cloudy; colder tonight, lowest close to zero.

KNOX HATS

Recognized Everywhere As the World's Best.

Beware of stores which offer you just as good as Knox when you can buy the "real" here in all sizes and colors.

Oak Hall Clothing Co

Corner Second Avenue West and Superior Street.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

Sold by all Druggists, 75c.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

The scope of Bell Telephone service is indicated by the fact that while in the United States there are only 25,000 telegraph offices, 60,000 railway stations, and 58,000 postoffices, the long distance lines of the Bell Telephone System reach 70,000 places, connecting 9,000,000 telephones, or more than half of all the telephones in the world.

DULUTH TELEPHONE COMPANY — LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE — BELL SYSTEM — AMERICAN TELEPHONE & TELEGRAPH CO.

ESTABROOK DISCUSSES HIS CHANCES VERY FRANKLY

"Have No Illusions," He Says, But Sees an Opening.

"My Chief Sin Seems to Be That I Am Not Known."

HENRY D. ESTABROOK.

"I have no illusions as to my position or chances in this campaign," said Henry D. Estabrook, candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, at the Spalding this morning. "It has been said that it would be a miracle if I should be nominated. That statement is more or less correct as viewed from this distance; but when one considers that the Chicago convention will present widely different views, and that in the effort of the party to get together, as it must if it wishes to win, it is reasonable to believe that that effort can be made most successful by nominating a man who has been identified with none of the warring factions—and I am that man."

Mr. Estabrook and his secretary, Mr. Riley, arrived from Minneapolis this morning over the Soo and went to the Spalding where he was assigned parlors B and D. He was met by N. B. Morrison, who is a candidate for delegate-at-large on the Estabrook ticket, and who has been looking after the interests of that candidate in this section; and during the morning, was visited by several supporters. At noon, Mr. Estabrook was guest of honor at a luncheon at the Commercial club, and this evening will speak in the large dining room of the Spalding hotel, when he will be introduced by J. L. Washburn.

Frankness Marked Trait.

Mr. Estabrook impresses the casual interviewer most forcibly, and he certainly is different from the usual run of men in politics. He is startlingly frank, and this, it is said, is not confined to his conversation, for he has a reputation of calling things by their right names in his speeches. This trait, it is claimed, is largely responsible for his being backed by leading New Yorkers for the presidential nomination. In a speech delivered something over a year ago, he attacked the universal habit of harrassing business interests by too much legislation, and did not tread lightly in doing so. His address attracted the attention of all the business world of the East, and he was urged to become a candidate for the presidential nomination.

It was the original plan that he should try to capture the delegation from Nebraska, a state in which he resided for forty years, and enter the Republican convention in Chicago with that backing; but the plan was enlarged somewhat by reason of the belief that Minnesota is not very strongly for Senator Cummins, although his name is being used to elect delegates with, and that this state is worth trying for anyway.

Expects to Carry Nebraska.

In speaking of the political situation this morning, Mr. Estabrook said that he believes he will carry the Nebraska delegation. Asked as to what he thinks his chances are in Minnesota, he replied:

"That I do not know. It is true that I am the only candidate who has made a personal appeal for votes in this state, save the address which Senator Cummins made before the Lincoln club in St. Paul on Feb. 12, but, you know, one never can tell whether a personal appearance has good or ill effect. My friends here declare that they will elect Estabrook delegates to the Chicago convention. If so, I shall be grateful."

"My chief sin," continued Mr. Estabrook, "seems to be that I am not known. Like the crime of being young, my sin will be remedied by time. It seems odd to me that I, essentially a Westerner, am better known in the East than I am at home, but I have been away some years and one is quickly forgotten."

Hughes and Root Self-eliminated.

Discussing the Republican situation and the possible candidates, Mr. Estabrook declared that he considers Justice Hughes and Former Senator Root self-eliminated from consideration as candidates, and he does not believe that the Republicans would make progress by nominating Col. Roosevelt.

"Justice Hughes and Mr. Root, I very much admire," he said. "But Justice Hughes is self-eliminated, and I believe that Mr. Root is too, for he evidently does not care to try the experience, new to him, of submitting himself to popular vote. That he would be an able president, there is no denying."

He hesitated about speaking of Col. Roosevelt, but in reply to a question said he believed that by nominating the Colonel, the Republicans would simply be perpetuating the schism in the party and would throw away a chance to win.

T. R. Can't Carry New York.

"Col. Roosevelt cannot carry New York for the presidency or anything else," was his positive statement.

As to the former president's chances of getting the New York delegation, Mr. Estabrook declared that was impossible with Mr. Barnes heading it.

"Mr. Barnes," said Mr. Estabrook, "has replied to a question as to whom the New York delegation will support in the convention, by mentioning four men—Mr. Root, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Wadsworth and myself—any one of whom his delegation will support at Chicago."

With Mr. Root and Justice Hughes out of it, and Mr. Wadsworth not a candidate, it would seem reasonable to suppose that Mr. Estabrook expects the Empire state's support; but he did not say so, leaving the matter with the inference his statement carried.

Concerning the Minnesota situation, Mr. Estabrook said:

"The amazing thing to me here is the lightness with which the Cummins candidacy is taken. It is almost generally understood that after the preliminaries the delegation will not undertake to stand by Mr. Cummins should his delegates be elected to the Chicago convention, but will look for the best place to land. The result is that at the present time the marked thing about the Minnesota situation is the lethargy."

Preaching Principles Only.

"I am not out to talk personalities, however," said Mr. Estabrook, in discussing the Republican situation in general. "I am preaching principles. The Republican party must progress, but its individuals cannot progress any faster than the party and accomplish anything. Witness the Populist movement from the Democratic party and the Progressive movement from the Republican. I don't believe in revolution, but in evolution; and parties must conform to conditions and requirements. There is no sense in these breakaways from the parties, for they get nowhere. We should try to make our parties progress by working within them and not by breaking away and oppose them."

Mr. Estabrook spoke scathingly about George W. Perkins, who is demanding that the Republicans accept the man he and his party shall name.

"It is absurd to think that we can take dictation from the man who said, 'Thank God I am not a Republican'," declared the candidate. "It is absurd to think that the tail can wag the dog, especially when the tail is detached."

AMUSEMENTS.

Second Episode —of— THE STRANGE CASE OF MARY PAGE

With HENRY WALTHALL and EDNA MAYO

TOMORROW and THURSDAY

Your post cards are good for admission.

SUNBEAM

BOYS' DEPARTMENT ACTIVITIES

RAYMOND BARTHOLDI.

Raymond Bartholdi carries off the honors for being the biggest hustler in boys' department Y. M. C. A. hustler clubs. He secured 180 points and was awarded the silver cuff links offered to to the best February hustler. Points in the hustler club are given for attending gymnasium classes, Bible classes, athletic test, getting new members, reading books, getting school average, being in a club, attending Sunday school, church, Sunday club meetings, outings, taking part in entertainments, reading Bible every day. The boy winning the most points when the hustle closes April 14 will receive a large boys' department blanket.

Team No. 2 composed of the following boys, won the team honors for getting the highest number of points: Roy Anderson, Ray Bartholdi, Sherwood Hay, Clinton Wieberg, Harold Mitchell, Fred Zollner, John Hearding, Harold Foster, Ray Balmer.

* * *

The finishing touches will be put on the boys' department minstrel show at a rehearsal to be held at the boys' department building Wednesday evening at 7:30 and a full-dress rehearsal at the Orpheum Thursday evening at 7:30. The big show will be held at the Orpheum-Strand theater Friday evening, March 10, at 8 o'clock. There has already been a heavy sale on the reserved seats and all the ticket sellers are reporting good sales. The committee on selling boxes report the following sales: H. F. Salyards, J. H. Hearding, H. J. Atwood, Henry Bridgeman, Watson S. Moore, Simon Clark, J. J. Wall and W. J. Olcott.

The committee expect by tomorrow to have all the boxes sold. The proceeds of the show will go towards buying a piano for the new boys' building. Already there is $150 in the fund and after the show Friday the full amount no doubt will have been secured. President W. H. McAfee of the Bachelors' club got a section of twenty seats. The entire club will be present at the show, each accompanied by a young woman.

NELSON HAS A BILL FOR NAVAL RESERVE

Senator Introduces Measure Providing for 12,000 Men.

From The Herald Washington Bureau.

Washington, March 7.—Senator Knute Nelson today introduced a bill for the establishment of a United States naval reserve to consist of 12,000 men, between the ages of 18 and 35 years. It authorizes the secretary of the navy to establish at ports throughout the country convenient places for thirty days' annual training of the reserve aboard naval vessels, the men to receive a salary during that period equal to that of the regular enlisted men in the navy. Members of the reserve shall serve for three years with a salary equal to one-fourth the regular enlisted men, with the exception of the thirty days' training period.

MILLER'S RESOLUTION WARNING AMERICANS

Minnesota Congressman's Views on Action Congress Should Take.

From The Herald Washington Bureau.

Washington, March 7.—Representative Miller probably was the only Minnesota member to make a speech on the question of warning American citizens against traveling on belligerent ships, as a member of foreign affairs committee, he being entitled to time.

Mr. Miller has embodied his view of the form a warning resolution should take in a resolution which he will offer as a substitute for the McLemore resolution. It is as follows:

"Resolved by the house of representatives, the senate concuring that under rules of international law, generally observed by long established usage among civilized nations of the earth, the citizens of a neutral nation may rightfully travel upon merchant ships belonging to the citizens of belligerent nations, if such ships be armed for purposes of defense only.

"That the subjects of the United States being such neutral citizens of legal right may take passage on ships of the aforesaid character, yet having regard to the abuse of neutrals' rights upon the high seas, already accomplished or threatened by several of the nations now unhappily at war, and for the purpose of conserving life and preserving our nation from unnecessary difficulties and conflict with other nations, it is the part of prudence and patriotism for our citizens to refrain from sailing or taking passage upon such armed ships."

Safe Home Treatment for Objectionable Hairs

(Boudoir Secrets)

The electric needle is not required for the removal of hair or fuzz, for with the use of plain delatone the most stubborn growth can be quickly banished. A paste is made with water and a little of the powder, then spread over the hairy surface. In about 2 minutes it is rubbed off and the skin washed. This simple treatment not only removes the hair, but leaves the skin free from blemish. Be sure you get genuine delatone.—Advertisement.

VAN DYKE AGAINST PREVIOUS QUESTION

From The Herald Washington Bureau.

Washington, March 7.—Representative Van Dyke of St. Paul, the only Democrat in the Minnesota delegation, voted against the previous question on the rule for the consideration of the McLemore resolution. All the Republicans from Minnesota and Schall, Independent, also voted against the rule.

On the adoption of the rule, Anderson and Van Dyke switched from no to yea, explaining that they did so because the president had asked for a full and free discussion.

STEEL TRADE IS BOOMING

Structural Material Now Declared in Heavy Demand.

With orders for steel coming in large volume, every branch of the steel trade is booming.

Trade in structural steel which had not kept pace with other products is now in heavy demand. The railroads are complaining of their inability to obtain steel for equipment purposes, and as other consumers are also importunate, competitive bidding is running prices up. During the past week advances were made in quotations in a number of products, including bessemer and basic iron, steel scrap, skelp, light rails, wire products, glass pipe, galvanized pipe, boiler tubes, iron bars, sheets, cold rolled strip steel, merchant steel and shafting and pipe. The present price of wire nails is $16 per ton higher than at this time last year, and it shows an advance of $6 a ton since Jan. 1 last.

Record Steel Bookings.

The unfilled tonnage statement of the United States Steel corporation for February is expected to show a new high record in the amount of business booked. Total orders of the corporation standing on its books are placed at 8,435,000 tons, compared with a previous high record of 8,489,718 tons reported on Dec. 31, 1906. At the close of February last year, the unfilled tonnage of the corporation stood at 4,345,371 tons, so that there has been an increase since then of almost 100 per cent. The Steel corporation is said to be almost sold up in some lines for the balance of the year. On account of the boom conditions in the trade, more discrimination is being shown in accepting business than at any time in its history.

War Orders Heavy.

Inquiries for war materials are still coming along in enormous volume. As an example it is mentioned that Pittsburgh mills report the offering during the last few days of contracts for 100,000 tons of bars for shells which they were unable to consider. A fresh batch of orders for munitions is expected shortly, but it is thought that they will be awarded only to the experienced companies. As the Bethlehem and Midvale Steel companies have each filled their contracts in advance of the stipulated dates so far, it is intimated that they are likely to obtain a large proportion of the business. Experts claim that the new Midvale Steel & Ordnance company owns iron ore deposits on the Mesaba range sufficient to cover its requirements for twenty-five years, and it has besides ore lands in Cuba estimated to contain 300,000,000 tons. William E. Corey, president of the company, said recently that it will show a net income of $22,500,000 this year, but other estimates place its earnings as high as $31,000,000, not counting the income from its investment in the Remington Arms company's stock, which it is thought may easily reach $15,000,000. Improved methods lately introduced at the Cambria steel plant at a capital cost of only $500,000, are said to have cut the producing cost of iron $3 a ton. The company is now claimed to be making pig iron cheaper than any other plant in the North.

CONNOR CASE UP TO FEDERAL COURT

Judge Booth of the Federal court in St. Paul will on Monday decide whether Mike Connor, deserter from the Canadian army, who came into the United States without passing the required inspection will be obliged to answer to the immigration officials in a deportation proceeding.

The writ was issued yesterday in St. Paul and served upon the Hennepin county sheriff who now has custody of Connor.

If the Federal court decides that the proceedings with respect to Connor are regular he will be turned over to the immigration officials and may or not be deported. If taken back to Canada, Connor fears that he will be courtmartialed and submitted to some form of punishment for escaping.

Judge Fesler of the district court on Saturday decided that the state court had no jurisdiction over the matter.

LICENSE REFUND CASE IS ARGUED

Brainerd, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—Appearing in chambers before Judge W. S. McClenahan of the district court, Attorney M. E. Ryan and Judge T. C. Blewitt argued for their clients in a group of cases, contending that unused liquor license monies be returned by the city. A stipulated statement of the facts in the case was submitted. City Attorney D. A. Haggard took the position that the action of the city in ordering a refund was without authority because there was no money in the general fund applicable for payment. The judge has taken the matter under advisement.

YAWN DISLOCATES JAW OF BANKER

Brainerd, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—Indulging in a yawn at the end of his day's work A. P. Drogseth, assistant cashier of the First National bank, dislocated his jaw and a doctor worked an hour to place it back.

Brainerd Schools Popular.

Brainerd, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—The beneficial effects of the school laws is strongly illustrated in the increased attendance locally in the upper grades and in the high school each year. During the last five years the local high school has nearly doubled in numbers with corresponding increase in the upper grades. High school enrollment this year is increased by from twenty-five to fifty pupils and a great percent is due to compulsory attendance laws.

Paris New York Washington Cincinnati Duluth

J. M. Gidding & Co.

Correct Dress for Women and Girls

Superior Street at First Avenue West

PRESENT

NEW FASHIONS

Sounding the keynote of Russian-Spanish and Directoire Influences

Gowns · Wraps · Suits

Coats · Blouses

ALSO

Smart Street and Semi-Dress Hats

PIANO MONEY

$150 easy money for you to save if you come to our manufacturers' headquarters and buy a good piano or player piano. We are the only piano house in Duluth that does not send out canvassers or agents.

Call or write

KORBY PIANO CO.,
Duluth's Oldest Piano House,
26 Lake Avenue North.

BRANDRETH PILLS

100 Years Old

An Effective Laxative

Purely Vegetable

Constipation,

Indigestion, Biliousness, etc.

OR at Night

until relieved

Chocolate-Coated or Plain

D. H., 3-7-16.

Schoble—Philadelphia

A big shipment of Schoble Hats arrived yesterday at The Columbia.

$3 and $4.

Our Hat Man considers them the best for the price.

The best to fit the heads of young men.

The best to satisfy their particular taste.

The Columbia Clothing Co

At Third Ave. West.

Foot-Note:

This is the time for wholesoled shoes.

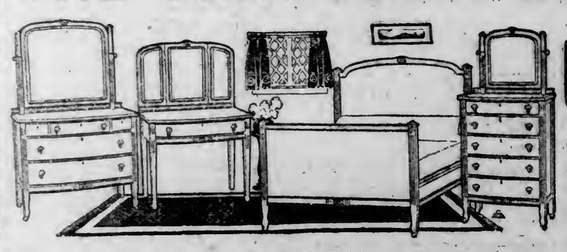
Our Shoe Shop is the place.

NUXATED IRON

$100.00 FORFEIT

increases strength of delicate, nervous, run-down people 200 per cent in ten days in many instances. $100 forfeit if it fails as per full explanation in large article soon to appear in this paper. Ask your doctor or druggist about it. Boyce Drug store always carries it in stock.

THE LINK THAT BINDS



THE home is the link that binds—around it all our activities, our hopes and dreams center. If there is any incentive that goes to make us happy and hopeful, it is a beautifully furnished, cozy, cheery home. Have you ever investigated? Did you know that we offer the very easiest of easy terms and the furniture you want can be bought for less right here than in any other store in Duluth? This will be quickly apparent to you in your trial inspection which we urge. Come in, look around—it will save regrets in future.

A Full Line of Victor and Edison Phonographs and Records

WE MAKE HOMES COSY

LOWEST PRICES

COMPLETE HOUSEFURNISHERS

BAYHA & CO

DULUTH, MINNESOTA

EASIEST OF TERMS

Gordon Hats

New styles ready

Boys' New Spring Suits

just arrived. Fine all-wool Boys' Suits from the best makers. These suits have class and nobbiness as well as extra quality.

Made up in new spring styles —Norfolk, and with semi-attached belt, in blues, grays and fancy mixtures, in large assortments, at

$4.00, $5, $6, $7.50

Lined throughout; extra pants. We guarantee each suit to give absolute satisfaction.

Dress Your Boys Well—Never Miss the Money

GATELY'S
W. A. Nelson Gen. Mgr.
DULUTH - SUPERIOR - VIRGINIA - HIBBING

Or let your boy have an account all his own — it will help make him thrifty and economical.

SERVICE FIRST
D. H., 3-7-16.

DULUTH-EDISON ELECTRIC COMPANY

ELECTRIC GRINDING —and— BUFFING OUTFITS

for foundries, woodworking, machine and repair shops or general manufacturing purposes. These outfits will give lasting satisfaction. They are clean, reliable and economical and have large productive capacity.

Our advice on all power matters is yours for the asking.

Duluth-Edison Electric Company
216 West First Street.

SERVICE FIRST

SNOW OVER; GALE COMING

Strong Northwest Winds and Lower Temperatures Are Predicted.

Nearly Ten Inches of Snow Fell; Storm Was Widespread.

Well, there is no longer any excuse for not shoveling that front walk. The weather man says the snow storm is about over.

During the last thirty-six hours the total snowfall in Duluth was about 9½ inches, making a total of 20 inches now on the ground. The weather man explained his system for measuring snow this morning. "We take several level spots which are sheltered from the wind," he said, "and measure the fall with a yard stick. We then average them up. Of course this does not give an absolutely accurate measurement, for this is almost impossible to obtain, but when you exercise care in selecting the places where you take your measurements, you get a very close estimate of the depth of snow. The total amount on the ground now is about 20 inches, but this does not represent the aggregate snowfall for the winter. It allows for the shrinkage by settling and thawing."

While the snow storm is over for the present, there will be a stiff northwest gale tonight which may add to the drifts. The temperature will drop to about the zero mark by the morrow morning.

Duluth didn't get the worst of the storm by any means. It extended all over the upper Mississippi valley, Northern Wisconsin, Michigan and Manitoba. In Marquette the total snowfall was 17 inches, and in Winnipeg 14 inches. Strong winds prevailed all through this district.

STUPENDOUS ARRAY OF GREAT GUNS AROUND VERDUN FORTS

(Continued from page 1.)

and the attendant officers explained that no particular offense was contemplated. Yet from the batteries near which the correspondent was standing, he counted, watch in hand, two shots per gun per minute for a considerable period.

How many hundred guns the Germans have assembled around Verdun cannot be told, but it is certain that the drum fire with which the earlier attacks were accompanied, and which will precede the next series of assaults, can be likened as the work of man, with Niagara and other stupendous phenomena of nature.

A picturesque, and at the same time symptomatic feature of the offensive against Verdun is the array of captive balloons from which the work of the artillery in part is observed and directed since the balloons usually are only intermittently aloft. But the correspondent at times counted as many as fourteen in visible at once, from a single viewpoint. A long row of gas bags floating like giant sausages, outlines roughly the German tentacle around the fortress. German aeroplanes were also seen in large numbers. Only once did the French anti-aircraft guns seem to pay any attention to the German aerial scouts.

The French too had a number of captive baloons aloft, above the fortress, protected from attack within the charmed circles of girdle forts.

Good View From Metz.

The fortress town of Metz is a good headquarters from which to view the battle of Verdun, the ground between the two fortresses being so narrow that two hours by automobile would bring one to almost any part of the battlefield.

For a considerable distance beyond the frontier toward Verdun, the countryside shows no sign of war. The road runs through untouched villages and towns, the fields showing evidences of high cultivation. Then come miles on miles of desolate country scarred with intricate trenches. Every village has been reduced to a stone pile of ruins by the long range guns of one side or another.

The places mentioned in the recent official reports, Douaumont, Beaumont, Fromezy and Etain, for example, are notably in ruins—looking as if they had been visited by an earthquake of great magnitude. Douaumont, the village from which the last of the Frenchmen were ejected barely twenty-four hours earlier, seemed a particularly peaceful heap of stone. The French apparently were making no attempt to regain it. Not a shot was observed to fall down while the correspondent was in the vicinity, and almost as little attention was being devoted by the French to Fort Douaumont, only a pillar of black smoke now and then marking the bursting of occasional shells dropped by the French on the summit of the bald hill.

Devoted to Another Fort.

Judging again from smoke clouds from bursting shells, the German attention was being largely devoted to another fort of the outlying circle of forts in the neighborhood of Douaumont. Now and then explosions from French and German shells in the region south of Douaumont hill—forming the glacis of the inner fortress girdle—swelled in a continuous clamor, or as one side attempted to gain some advantage.

The Associated Press correspondent did not visit the first infantry line, nor the region north of the fortress, where the first attack was delivered Feb. 21, and so is unable to speak with positiveness of the casualties. There were no indications in the intervening strip nor in the Woevre field of operations that the losses were very heavy. Few wounded were being taken to the rear.

An officer from headquarters said that the casualties to the actual garrison at Fort Douaumont had been only two men, who were killed while mending the telephone line. The artillerymen from the turrets and the commander, a veteran surgeon and a major of artillery were sheltered safely in the casemates during the bombardment, having been caught there by the sudden German storm.

WILSON POLICY WARMLY INDORSED BY SENATOR SUTHERLAND OF UTAH

(Continued from page 1.)

under international law and the relation thereto of the newly developed submarine.

"The proposition now insisted upon, baldly stated," he declared, "is simply this, that when a new engine of destruction is invented that cannot be made entirely effective without violating the law, the law is ipso facto automatically modified. Under these circumstances my own view of the matter is that the new weapon must yield to the law and not that the law must yield to the new weapon.

"If we concede that the rule no longer applies to ships armed for defense alone we must be prepared to face a probable condition much more serious than that involved in the destruction of an armed vessel without warning. To concede the right of a submarine to sink a vessel so armed without giving warning and opportunity for crew and passengers to escape in safety will be to invite the sinking of unarmed vessels without warning as well, since it is well-nigh impossible for the officers of a submarine to determine in advance whether a given vessel is armed or not.

"If, therefore, the commander of a submarine claims to act upon appearances, we shall never be able to determine whether these appearances justified his conclusion until after the vessel and her crew and passengers have gone to the bottom of the sea, and in some cases not even then. The result will be that unarmed vessels, while possessing immunity in theory, will have none in fact.

Question Arises.

"The question next arises, and indeed it is really the crucial question—shall our citizens be officially advised to forbear from traveling on belligerent merchant vessels armed for defense only? Or, indeed, shall we go farther and forbid their doing so under penalty for disobedience? If I am correct in what I have already said, namely that these merchant ships have the right to carry defensive armament, it follows that such a ship has the same status as though unarmed and that the right of a neutral citizen to transport his goods or travel upon either is the same and not a different right, and that, in fact, is the decision of our own supreme court in a great case decided many years ago and never since overruled or modified.

"If therefore a citizen take passage upon a ship so armed and lose his life by the sinking of the ship without warning, what must be the contention and claim of this government? To my mind, clearly this: That the citizen in the exercise of a clear right has been deprived of his life by the deliberately illegal act of the belligerent government which sent the submarine on its mission of death. I can conceive of no other position for this government to assume and unless it is willing to forfeit the respect of mankind by becoming a craven thing, it must be prepared to sustain that position at whatever cost or consequence."

Senator Sutherland also denounced any change in the rule with respect to the sale of munitions of war or arming merchant ships for defense, asserting that any such changes now would be an unneutral act.

EXPLOSION IN EL PASO JAIL

(Continued from page 1.)

Alan R. Odum, Stanton, Tex., and Percy Woods, Lafayette, Colo., are among the dead.

The fire is said to have been started by a match lighted by Cross which ignited the vapor arising from the mixture of gasoline, kerosene and vinegar with which the persons arriving from Mexico were bathed in order to protect the border towns against the transmission of disease from Mexico.

The coroner's inquest and an investigation by city officials as to the cause of the fire are in progress today, as is an investigation in Juarez, opposite here, where an unidentified Mexican last night shot and killed Charles Phelps, an American street car motorman, when it was rumored that 200 Americans have been locked in the jail and deliberately burned.

INDIANANS ARE VOTING

(Continued from page 1.)

on the Democratic ticket, and Vice President Marshall also has no opponent in the primary. Charles W. Fairbanks, former vice president of the United States, is the only person seeking the Republican nomination for president in this state.

There is no candidate for the Republican nomination for vice president on the ballot. The primary law provides that the choice of the voters in the primary shall be supported in the national conventions so long as their names remain before those bodies.

Republican Contests.

The contests for the Republican nominations for United States senator and governor have been heated. The three candidates for senator are: Harry S. New, for many years national committeeman for Indiana; James E. Watson, former member of congress, and Arthur R. Robinson, a state senator. For governor, James P. Goodrich, present national committeeman; Warren T. McCray, a farmer, and Judge Quincy A. Myers, formerly of the state supreme court, are seeking the nomination.

Kern for Senator.

On the Democratic side the name of Senator John W. Kern was the only one placed on the ballots for the nomination for United States senator, but there has been a lively contest carried on for the gubernatorial nomination of that party by John A. M. Adair, congressman from the Eighth district, and Leonard B. Cloro, former national champion corn grower.

On the Progressive ballot, James B. Wilson is unopposed for the nomination for United States senator, and J. Frank Hanly has no opposition for the nomination for the office of governor, to which he was once elected as a Republican. The Indiana Progressives did not put forward candidates for the nominations for president and vice president.

Because of the length of the ballots and also because of the fact that the voters may indicate their second choice candidates, it may be several days before the complete results will be known.

IMPORTANT MATTERS BEFORE PARLIAMENT

London, March 7.—Chief interest in the reopening of parliament today centers in the expected statement by Arthur J. Balfour, first lord of the admiralty in introducing the estimates for the navy for the coming year and in the expected reply from an opposition bench by Col. Winston Churchill, Balfour's predecessor in office. The projected moratorium for obligations for men called to the colors will also be discussed. Other than the personnel of the navy, it is not expected that exact information will be given out.

How Thin People Can Put On Flesh

Thin men and women—that big, hearty, filling dinner you ate last night. What became of all the fat-producing nourishment it contained? You haven't gained in weight one ounce. That food passed from your body like unburned coal through an open grate. The material was there, but your food doesn't work and stick, and the plain truth is you hardly get enough nourishment from your meals to pay for the cost of cooking. This is true of thin folks the world over. Your nutritive organs, your functions of assimilation, are probably sadly out of gear and need reconstruction.

Cut out the foolish foods and funny sawdust diets. Cut out everything but the meals you are eating and eat with every one of those a single Sargol tablet. In two weeks note the difference. Let the scales be the judge. Five to eight good solid pounds of healthy, "stay-there" fat may be the net result. Sargol aims to charge weak, stagnant blood with millions of fresh new red blood corpuscles—to give the blood the carrying power to deliver every ounce of fat-making material in your food to every part of your body. Sargol, too, mixes with your food, to prepare it for the blood in an easily assimilated form. Thin people tell how they have gained all the way from 10 to 25 pounds a month while taking Sargol, and say that the new flesh stays put. Sargol tablets are a careful combination of six of the best assimilative elements known to chemistry. They come 40 tablets to a package, are pleasant, harmless and inexpensive, and Boyce Drug store and all other good druggists in this vicinity sell them subject to an absolute guarantee of weight increase or money back as found in every large package.

PRESIDENT'S POLICY INDORSED BY HOUSE

(Continued from page 1.)

rule itself was in order, making a second roll call.

The adoption of the rule meant four hours debate on the McLemore resolution itself with another roll call at the close on a motion for disposition of the resolution. This generally was expected to be a motion by Chairman Flood of the foreign affairs committee to table it.

The expectation of three roll calls was based on the assumption that the rule would be carried and did not take into consideration any unexpected parliamentary tactics from the opposition.

Mr. Pou attacked the McLemore resolution at the outset.

"It means in effect that if an American disregards a warning that the United States government will fold its hands," said he. "Is there a single red-blooded citizen in this house or this country who wants to do that? It is charged that the president wants war. All the imps of hell never devised a more infamous charge! No man, since Abraham Lincoln, has gone through such a test as the president has gone through in the last six months. He has tried to preserve peace. He would not sacrifice a single life to make himself president for lifetime. He has support of both sides of this chamber. He has support on the Democratic side and distinguished support on the other side. Only the other day I read a statement of Former President Taft supporting him." Applause on both sides of the chamber followed his remarks.

Proposes Substitute.

When Representative Campbell, Republican, arose to speak, he read a substitute he said he would propose if a motion to end debate on the rule did not carry. It was as follows:

"Resolved, That in the opinion of the house of representatives, citizens of the United States, under existing conditions and irrespective of their legal rights, ought to refrain from taking passage on armed vessels of belligerent nations, except in cases of imperative necessity."

"There is no great question of national rights involved in this issue," declared Mr. Campbell, "nor is there any great crisis involving the honor of the United States at this time. Does anyone contend that an American citizen has a right to travel on an armed cruiser of a nation at war?

"The president is asking congress to assume the diplomatic function and declare to the world its citizens have the right of taking passage on the armed merchantmen of belligerents. This house is today confronted with the responsibility of the right to shape a diplomatic function which is solely the right of the executive. The nations of Europe are fighting for their very existence. Millions of men have been sacrificed in defense of their country. We are quarreling with those nations to gratify the desire of people to travel on armed ships. The thing today is to avoid war. The question ought not to have been brought here. Now it is here, vote squarely on a resolution warning citizens of the danger they are in when they get on armed ships of a belligerent."

Parliamentary Status.

Scattered applause from the Democratic side greeted Representative Gardner, Republican, who spoke on the parliamentary status of the McLemore resolution.

"If you want to stand with the president and two ex-presidents you will vote to sustain the rule and table the McLemore resolution," said he.

Representative Lenroot of Wisconsin, Republican, of the rules committee, declared.

"This house will either defeat this rule, leaving the matter where it is now in the president's hands, or will defeat the previous question which will permit amendments to the McLemore resolution so as to permit this house to express its real sentiment."

Republican applause punctuated his plea for opportunity for amendments. He contended the question was not a partisan one. He attacked Mr. Gardner, saying:

"When he takes the stand he does today he lays himself open to the charge of cowardice.

"If you are unwilling to submit a declaration of war, the responsibility is on you now to defeat the previous question," he shouted to a thunderous outburst of applause.

Will Vote to Table.

"I shall vote to table the McLemore resolution in defense of that flag," declared Representative Farr, Republican of Pennsylvaia, pointing to the American flag behind the speaker's chair. "To vote for the resolution would be to put a yellow streak in that flag."

Representative Graham of Pennsylvania, Republican, declared:

"Today I don't want to be pro-German, pro-Austrian or pro-anything. I want to be only an American."

The "rebel" yell rang out from the Democratic side.

Republican Leader Mann said:

"I would not seek to offer my opinion in a case like this, but when the president asks for it, it is our duty to meet the question fairly and squarely, and if we believe American citizens under ordinary circumstances ought not to involve this country in war by traveling on armed merchantmen, we ought to say so and then let the president do as he sees fit.

"We have not sought to annoy the president, but when he asks us for our opinion, let us tell him frankly we do not desire complications which would lead to war."

EDWARDS CASE MUST TAKE REGULAR ORDER

Chicago, March 7.—When a motion for continuance in the case of William Rufus Edwards, a wealthy St. Paul lumber dealer, charged by Ada M. Cox with violating the Mann act, was called before Federal Judge A. B. Anderson today, the court declined to hear it until its regular order on the docket, which will be later in the day.

"I want it understood that I expect everybody interested to be in court when the case is reached," said Judge Anderson.

Edwards is reported to be ill at his home in St. Paul.

Assistant District Attorney Igoe said he would ask to have Edwards' bond of $5,000 forfeited unless the defendant is in court when the case is called for trial.

EUROPEAN NEUTRALS ANXIOUS FOR PEACE

London, March 7.—Reuter's Copenhagen correspondent sends the following:

"A dispatch to the Politiken from Stockholm says it is stated in Swedish political circles that the Swedish government on two separate occasions applied to the United States to obtain President Wilson's co-operation for concerted mediation towards peace.

"President Wilson, who already at an early stage of the war had his offer rejected, adds the dispatch, declined to join the movement unless requested by the belligerents.

"It is stated that in Stockholm and other neutral capitals the question is being discussed of forming a mediation conference without the co-operation of the United States."

VILLA COMING TO SEE PRESIDENT WILSON

El Paso, Texas, March 7.—Francisco Villa is within six miles of the United States border, en route to Washington, where he will seek an interview with President Wilson, according to a message received last night by Gen. Gabrial Gawlna, commander at Juarez, who transmitted the report through Andreas Garcia, Mexican consul here to Gen. John Pershing, commanding United States troops along the border.

Gen. Gawina's advices stated that Villa would seek to place before President Wilson his position with reference to the present situation in Mexico. The message said that Villa was camped a few miles south of Columbus, N. M.

CLOQUET SENIORS REHEARSING PLAY

Cloquet, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—Rehearsals for the senior class play, "Esmeralda," under the direction of Miss Rachel Harris, which is to be presented about the first of April, have begun and all taking part are working hard to make this the banner play of the Lincoln high school. Those in the cast are: Elbert Rogers, Randolph Sandstrom; Mrs. Lydia Ann Rogers, Selma Elm; Esmorada Rogers, Marguerite McLain; Dave Hardy, Leo Gilbert; Mr. Estabrook, Lester Lightfoot; Jack Desmond, Roy Ralter; Miss Nora Desmond, Ruth Whitman; Miss Kate Desmond, Sadie Huseby; Marquis de Montessin, Rungnar Bratt; George Drew, Thomas Harney.

CLOQUET NOTES.

Cloquet, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—Sam Ducette left this morning for Little Falls, Minn., where he will join his wife, who is visiting relatives there.

Joseph O'Neil made a business trip to Sawyer yesterday.

C. G. Norman returned yesterday morning to West Duluth, where he is working after spending the week-end with his father and mother.

Henry Greese made a trip to Superior, Wis., yesterday.

James Berg of Crookston, Minn., transacted business between trains yesterday.

Miss Lillian Rouseau returned to her school at Kettle River after spending the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rouseau.

"Forgotten" will be the subject of Rev. F. Edward Olson's lecture at a meeting of the Young People's Society of the Swedish Lutheran church Thursday night. The ladies' aid will meet in the church parlors in the afternoon and Friday evening special Lenten services will be held at 8 o'clock.

J. T. Sheean and J. F. Wilson left yesterday afternoon on a business trip to Minneapolis.

Rev. J. G. Ward went to Duluth this morning to attend a committee meeting of the clergy of the Duluth diocese of the Episcopal church. From there he will go to Virginia to hold Ash Wednesday services.

Mrs. Thomas Marow entertained the Five Hundred club at her home on Pine street yesterday afternoon.

By winning yesterday's game of indoor baseball at the "Y," the Whites tied the Blues for second place and left the Greens, whom they won from by a score of 12 to 9, but one-half a game behind either team.

Crookston U. C. T. Elect.

Crookston, Minn., March 7.—The local council, U. C. T., elected the following officers: Post senior counsellor, Robert Ashley; senior counsellor, Charles L. Skoug; junior counselor, Harry Hitchcock; conductor, W. H. Miller; page, James Power; sentinel, Earl J. Francis; executive committee members, A. Robert and C. M. Graves, both re-elected; delegates to Minot grand council convention in June: C. W. Final, H. B. Stevens, Robert R. Ashley; alternates, Robert Leick, C. L. Skoug, Harry W. Hitchcock.

LAST STRONGHOLD OF MEXICAN REBELS TAKEN

Mexico City, March 7.—The fall of the city of Oaxaca the last stronghold of the reactionaries, is announced last night in extra editions of El Demorata, the Carranza organ.

Before evacuating the city the defending forces set fire to the principal buildings in an endeavor to destroy the city. Their attempts were only partly successful.

The newspapers here declare that the capture of Oaxaca is the most important victory for the Carranza forces since the defeat of Gen. Villa.

Oaxaca is the capital of the state of the same name, and has a population of some 40,000.

After County Seat.

Dunn Center, N. D., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—A campaign for the removal of the county seat from Manning to Dunn Center has been launched by the Commercial club. This removal was voted on two years ago and 1,383 votes were cast. Dunn Center received 816 and Manning 507, but Manning retained the county seat of Dunn county because Dunn Center had 46 votes less than a two-thirds majority.

GERMANS CAPTURE FRESNES IN NEW DRIVE ON VERDUN

(Continued from page 1.)

tivity along the immediate front of Verdun, east of the Meuse as well as in the Woevre district to the east and southeast of the fortress. Big guns in unprecedented numbers have been brought up, advices from Berlin declare. The first confirmation of reports that the British were assisting the French in the defense of Verdun came today in a statement that an Australian siege brigade was fighting there.

French Statement.

Paris, March 7, via London, 2:30 p. m.—Further progress has been made by the Germans in the Verdun region to the west of the Meuse. Announcement was made here semi-officially today that they had succeeded by means of violent bombardment in pushing along the railroad in the neighborhood of Regneville.

The text of the war office announcement on the progress of hostilities is as follows:

"In the Argonne district endeavors on the part of the enemy at Haute Chevauchee to occupy a mine crater have been repulsed.

"Our artillery has continued its bombardment of the lines of communication of the enemy to the west of the River Meuse.

"Favored by an intense bombardment, German troops have been able to advance along the railroad line in the neighborhood of Regneville. At the same moment the Germans delivered a very violent attack against Hill No. 265. An entire division took part in this maneuver. They were successful in taking possession of this hill in spite of the heavy losses inflicted upon them by the fire of our artillery and our machine guns.

"We are in possession of the village of Bethincourt and the groves to the east of the Wood des Corbeaux and the Wood de Cumieres, and the heights of Cote de L'Ole.

"Artillery fighting continued actively last night to the east of the Meuse in the vicinity of Bras and Hardaumont, as well as in the Woevre; in the sector of Fresnes and in the villages located in the foothills."

FORMER FLOODWOODITE DIES IN SASKATCHEWAN

Mitchelton, Sask., March 7.—William Nicholas Lane, 50 years old, who came from Floodwood, about a year ago, died suddenly here Sunday. He is survived by a widow and five small children.

The Value of Good Food is enhanced with a good sauce. Be sure of the best and get the benefit of your quality purchases. For unrivalled purity and excellence use

Lea & Perrins SAUCE

The only original Worcestershire Sauce
Send postal for free kitchen hanger containing 100 new recipes
LEA & PERRINS, Hubert Street, New York City

"Baby Week" Values in the Baby Shop—Third Floor.

Silberstein & Bonds Company.

The

Damask Sale

includes all Table Linen in odd cloths and napkins, as well as cloths and napkins to match and damask by the yard. An unusual opportunity at prices quoted in Sunday's paper, to replenish the linen wardrobe at comparatively low cost. Do not let the weather deter you from taking advantage of this sale or you will regret it.

The New Hats

There is seemingly no limit to the versatility of the designers, and it would require the brush of an artist to depict the colorful beauty of the Spring millinery.

Artistic combinations of such colors as Chartreuse, Negre de Londres, French Grays in large-brimmed afternoon or evening hats, fashioned from softest French Crepes or Tulles or Transparent Braids.

Women may not choose with perfect confidence in their correctness, the hats to wear now and throughout the Spring at modest prices.

The New Suits and Coats provoke exclamations of surprise and delight as each packing case is opened up and its contents exposed to view. Jaunty and attractive models in gabardines, serges, poplins and black and white checks in wide asortment are already on display in our cloak and suit section. In fact there are over 300 suits already to be inspected and selected.

Prices are reasonable, beginning at $18.50 and running up to $55.00.

New Taffeta Skirts

Many customers have been waiting daily for the arrival of these much-wanted skirts. We are showing them in a variety of styles, beginning at $6.75 and up to $22.50.

If Ordinary Rubber Heels Please You

Heimbach's DOUBLE-WEAR Rubber Heel

Will Doubly Please You.

Interchangeable

REAL ESTATE LOANS

Plenty of money always on hand for loans on improved Duluth real estate.
LOWEST PREVAILING RATES.
Your choice of three or five years; no extra charge.

LITTLE & NOLTE CO.
EXCHANGE BLDG.

Coughing

spells are eased and relieved by Brown's Bronchial Troches which soothe the throat and bronchial tubes, allaying irritation. Contain no opiates—guaranteed harmless. The new 10c Trial Size Box allows you to test this reliable cough remedy at small expense. Regular sizes at 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by all druggists

OUR skill and long experience enable us to test your eyes in the very best manner.

C. D. TROTT, Optometrist
6 East Superior Street.

LITTLE FALLS MAN RELIEF FROM BAD FORM OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

I am writing to you a few lines to praise your wonderful remedy known as "Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root." I have been troubled for years with Gravel Stones, find no medicine like yours to give me relief and comfort. I cannot too highly praise your great medicine.

Yours truly,
A. O. YATES,
Eagle Lake, Texas.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 13th day of January, A. D., 1915.
W. F. B. WEEKER, Notary Public,
Colorado Co., Texas.

Letter to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Prove What Swamp-Root Will Do for You

Send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample size bottle. It will convince anyone. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling about the kidneys and bladder. When writing, be sure and mention The Duluth Herald. Regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

· NEW · ACCOUNTS

are always welcome at this bank, whether large or small, and we shall use our very best efforts to make your dealings with us satisfactory in every way. You will find that every possible accommodation consistent with sound banking principles will be afforded to you.

We ask for NEW ACCOUNTS because we are capable of rendering the best banking service, and because we offer that high measure of security that appeals to the prudent, conservative people of this community.

An invitation is extended to you to "Make this Bank your Bank."

American Exchange National Bank

A Beauty Secret

To have clear skin, bright eyes and a healthy appearance, your digestion must be good—your bowels and liver kept active and regular. Assist nature—take

BEECHAM'S PILLS

Largest Sale of Any Medicine in the World. Sold everywhere. In boxes, 10c., 25c.

D. H., 3-2-16.

TEETH

For satisfactory dental work you can't do better than at the

Union Dentists

Gold Crowns $3.00
Full Set of Teeth.. $5.00
Fillings 50c

Union Dentists

315 West Superior St.
(Opposite St. Louis Hotel)

FARMER KILLED SEVEN AND ENDED OWN LIFE

Lawton, Okla., March 7.—Testimony tending to show that Daniel Okane, a farmer, killed seven members of his family, and then took his own life, was introduced before a coroner's jury, which late yesterday held an inquest at the Okane home, near here, where a negro farm hand yesterday morning found the bodies of six of the murdered persons with Okane, fatally shot, lying beside them.

Okane died in a hospital in this city last evening. Witnesses testified that Okane frequently had quarreled with his aged father, James Okane and gave their belief that the strained relations existing between son and father caused Daniel Okane to become temporarily insane.

Milwaukeean Goes to Front.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 7.—Capt. J. S. Atkinson has left for Toronto in answer to the call for service in Europe. He will be captain in the Ninety-first regiment, Canadian overseas expedition.

Capt. Atkinson has been an instructor in a local business college for a number of years.

Maternity! The Word of Words

It is written into life's expectations that motherhood is the one sublime accomplishment. And if there is anything, no matter how simple, how apparently trivial it may seem, if it can aid, help, assist or in any way comfort the expectant mother, it is a blessing. And such is a remedy called "Mother's Friend." You apply it over the stomach muscles. It is gently rubbed on the surface, and makes the muscles pliant; this relieves the strain on ligaments, natural expansion takes place without undue effect upon the nerves. And as the time approaches, the mind has gone through a period of repose, of gentle expectancy, and this has an unquestioned influence upon the future child. That this is true is evidenced by the fact that three generations of mothers have used and recommended "Mother's Friend." Ask your nearest druggist for a bottle of this splendid remedy. He will get it for you. And then write to Bradfield Regulator Co., 407 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a most interesting book of information to prospective mothers. It is mailed free. Write today. It is a book you will enjoy.

HELLO FOLKS HAVE BANQUET

Zenith Telephone Officers and Employes Hold Annual Affair.

D. M. Neill of Minneapolis Chief Speaker; Extensive Program.

Co-operation among all departments of a commercial institution and loyalty to the interests of the business make for success, D. M. Neill of Minneapolis, former president of the State Federation of Commercial Clubs and one-time candidate for lieutenant governor, told 150 employes of the Zenith Telephone company who assembled last evening at the Commercial club for the annual banquet given by the officers and directors.

Mr. Neill was formerly manager of the Zenith company, but has been connected with the business as a director during the last few years. In a short talk last evening, Mr. Neill declared that he was impressed with the loyalty which employes were showing the company and declared that Manager Archie J. McCulloch was to be congratulated for the excellent staff with which he had surrounded himself. Mr. Neill also complimented Manager McCulloch for his knack of hiring "good looking 'hello' girls."

"Mr. McCulloch is not entitled to all of the credit in this respect," he said. "I set the pace when I was manager of the company and he has simply been keeping up the standard ever since."

Program Follows Dinner.

The operators, office clerks, solicitors and employes of other departments were represented at the banquet. Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock after which a program of musical numbers and addresses was carried out, A. J. McCulloch acting as toastmaster.

H. J. Gibbs, superintendent of the Zenith company's plant, in his talk, pointed out that it is necessary to be ever courteous to the public. Said he:

"We are working for a public service corporation, and all of us know what that means; our employer is not the only one we hear from. When there is a complaint we get it from all sides."

Mr. Gibbs declared that the best way to treat a certain class of kickers is to have an appointment with them to come and visit the exchange.

"This," he said, "they are glad to do, and they always go away with the remark that they would never make a complaint of slow service again. You have won them. They do not go about telling their neighbors and friends how provoked they were, but on the other hand have all kinds of sympathy for the operators and give them praise for their work."

Proud It's a Necessity.

"So much depends on the talking wire now-a-days," it would be impossible to get along without it, and I know I feel proud to think that we are all working for a business which is not only a luxury but a necessity. Its new phases of development are wonderful and patents applied for to work in conjunction with it are astounding. The automatic, which was once looked upon as an impossibility, is now a huge success."

Miss Eula Baker proposed a toast to G. W. Robinson of Minneapolis, president of the company, on whose behalf C. B. Randall of Minneapolis, director of the company and attorney, delivered a response. Miss Catherine Murphy gave a toast to Vice President J. S. Lutes, who made an appropriate response. Miss Vinnie Fawcett, assistant chief operator, read a paper in which she discussed the telephone business from the operator's standpoint. She paid a tribute to Manager McCulloch. Other speakers were R. L. Barry, Minneapolis, one of the directors of the company, who spoke on the evolution of the telephone business, and F. B. Randall, secretary of the company and its legal adviser, who made the address of welcome.

The following musical numbers were contributed during the evening:

Violin solo, "Serenade," Gus Hawkinson, accompanist, Miss Dora Nelson; selection, Zenith String quartet; vocal solo, "When Song Is Sweet," Mrs. Flo Hunt; violin solo, "Shepherd Girls' Sunday," Gus Hawkinson; recitation, "Cohen's Telephone Conversation," Miss Helen Putnam; vocal solo, E. P. Baker; vocal solo, "Carita," Miss Annetta Gagnle, and selection, Zenith String quartet.

A. C. Brokaw, advertising manager for the Tri-State Telephone company of St. Paul and Minneapolis, a former Mill City newspaper man, was among the honor guests at the banquet.

ABSOLVING STATE G. O. P. OF CRIME

Straightening Out Expense Account of Last Campaign; Preus Retracts.

St. Paul, Minn., March 7.—State Auditor J. A. O. Preus, in a statement, has corrected his assertion made last week to Attorney General Lyndon A. Smith that the Republican state committee exceeded its legal limit of expenditure in 1914. W. O. Clure, secretary of the committee, explained how the error was made and Fred H. Carpenter, treasurer, made a statement as to the facts in controversy between Mr. Preus and George H. Selover, who has threatened to bring suit on behalf of committee members to collect a $500 contribution from Mr. Preus.

"W. O. Clure," says the Preus statement, "has called my attention to an error contained in the last financial statement of the Republican state committee, on file in the office of the secretary of state. His statement, as filed, interpreted in the light of a letter directed to me under date of Nov. 18, 1915, by George H. Selover, fully justified me in drawing the conclusion which I did. Mr. Clure has explained to me that the statement should reveal that the total amount of obligations outstanding, plus the disbursements listed, aggregate $9,463.02, and I believe his interpretation to be correct."

In the Selover letter referred to, Mr. Preus says, he was informed that the committee was "$5,000 in the hole." Mr. Preus also asserted that he obtained more than $500 for the committee.

"Mr. Preus fell into error," said Mr. Clure today "through totalling all obligations listed during the five months of the campaign, whereas many of the obligations reported in one month were paid and included in the expenditures of the following month. Thus he found a total of $7,956.27 paid out which was correct. He also found obligations listed in the five reports amounting to a total of $4,064.51. This amount, however, included a total of $2,557.67 which was reported in the expenditures of succeeding months and which should have been deducted by him from the total of obligations listed, otherwise it is charged twice. This deduction leaves a balance of $1,506.76 unpaid obligations as is shown in the last report.

"This amount added to the $7,956.27 paid out, makes a total of $9,463.02, or $536.98 less than the $10,000 limit fixed by law."

INVENTS WIRELESS DETECTION INSTRUMENT

Washington, D. C., Man Has Apparatus Which May Be Installed at Duluth in Connection With Government Plant.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 7.—Navigation on the Great Lakes may be made much safer, in the opinion of Frederick Kolster of Washington, D. C., inventor of an apparatus for detecting the direction from which wireless messages are sent. By the installation of the invention at Duluth and other points, which he hopes for eventually, vessels sending out "S.O.S." calls may be located and relief sent to them.

"The invention is primarily to safeguard navigation," said Mr. Kolster. "Incidentally it is of value in locating wireless stations that are operating without license."

Mr. Kolster arrived with V. Fred Greaves, chief radio inspector for the government. He left yesterday for Seattle, Wash.

PROVENCE SUNK BY A SUBMARINE

Story of Survivor Makes Clear How Auxiliary Cruiser Went Down.

Paris, March 7.—That the French auxiliary cruiser Provence, which was sunk in the Mediterranean on Feb. 26 was the victim of a torpedo is made plain by the story told by one of the survivors, which in part, has reached here:

"Every man would have been saved" says the survivor, whose name is Bokanowski, "if it had been within human possibility, and the physical capacity of officers and crew. Unfortunately, the ship settled rapidly. The water soon got to the boilers, which began exploding within a few minutes. I threw myself into the sea and swam away as far as I could; then I looked back and saw the ship plunging with her prow in the air.

"After half an hour in the water, I reached a raft, already overloaded, but the occupants dragged me aboard. Night came on, with a wind that bit through the naked skin of the men. Yet, during all this interminable night there was not a complaint.

My unfortunate comrades had nothing to say, except of the fate of the drowned and in execration of the Germans. Eighteen hours passed before we were picked up by a sloop. We were all in water up to our waists, some dead from exposure, others mad from anguish.

"The gunners of the piece at the stern of the Provence, having loaded the gun the instant the torpedo struck, remained at their post, seeking the concealed enemy, until the weapon was submerged by the waves.

"Surgeon Gauthier of the Third Colonial infantry was dragged aboard the sloop half exhausted after eighteen hours exposure on a raft. He refused to change his clothes or take anything to eat before he had dressed the wounds of the injured and cared for the sick."

JUDGE SMALLWOOD OPENS MARCH CIVIL CALENDAR

With fifty-six jury or court cases to come up for consideration, Municipal Judge W. H. Smallwood yesterday began work on the first civil calendar for March.

The list of jury actions includes: Andrew Anderson vs. Ben Prient; Andrew Carlson vs. city of Duluth; Paine & Nixon company vs. Arthur L. Kingman; Otto Waimola vs. Milo Kejonen et al; John Warve vs. Harold Swanson; the Edward Westen company vs. J. E. Foubister; Racine Elevator company vs. John C. Hyland; Frank Joseph vs. Hjalmar Laine; A. L. Eaton company vs. J. H. Whitely; A. W. Youngkvist vs. C. A. Desjardins; Olof Peterson vs. city of Duluth; Benjamin Schweiger vs. Andrew Olson, and Mutual Auto company vs. Alice V. Edward.

Judge Cutting will be on the criminal court bench.

FRANCIS NOMINATION CONFIRMED BY SENATE

Washington, March 7.—President Wilson's nomination of David R. Francis of Missouri to be ambassador to Russia, was confirmed yesterday by the senate a few hours after it had been received from the White House. At the same time Joseph H. Shea of Indiana was confirmed as ambassador to Chile.

Mr. Francis, who served as secretary of the interior under President Cleveland, will succeed George T. Marye at Petrograd. Mr. Marye recently resigned, saying the Russian climate was undermining his health. The ambassadorship was considered particularly important by President Wilson because of the additional duties thrust upon the embassy by the war, including care of the interests of the Central powers.

The post of ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Prather Fletcher to become ambassador to Mexico.

STUDENT INDICTED FOR MURDER OF GIRL

Chicago, March 7.—Will H. Orpet, University of Wisconsin student, was indicted by a Lake county grand jury yesterday on a charge of murdering his former sweetheart, Marian Lambert.

The case probably will be called for trial next week, but a continuance on request of the defense is expected.

The grand jury heard twenty-five witnesses, for the most part the same persons who testified at the coroner's inquest. They included E. C. Orpet, father of the defendant, Frank Lambert, father of the girl, and Josephine Davis and Verne Jackson, school friends of hers.

It is charged that the tragedy was the culmination of a liaison, that it was precipitated by Orpet's transferring his affections to another woman and that he provided a violent poison which the girl swallowed.

ENRICH THE BLOOD

Hood's Sarsaparilla, a Strong Tonic-Medicine, Is Necessary.

Everybody is troubled at this season with loss of vitality, failure of appetite, that tired feeling, or with bilious turns, dull headaches, indigestion and other stomach troubles, or with pimples and other eruptions on the face and body. The reason is that the blood is impure and impoverished.

Hood's Sarsaparilla relieves all these ailments. It is the old reliable medicine that has stood the test of forty years,—that makes pure, rich, red blood—that strengthens every organ and builds up the whole system. It is the all-the-year-round blood-purifier and health-giver. It embodies the careful training, experience, and skill of Mr. Hood, a pharmacist for fifty years, in its quality and power to cure.

Ask your druggist for it today.

CIVIL SERVICE RULES DRAWN

New Ordinance Names Those Who Must Take Examinations.

Will Take Effect About April 20—Payrolls Passed.

About April 20 Duluth will have a complete civil service system.

At the council meeting yesterday afternoon Mayor Prince introduced an ordinance classifying the civil service system and providing for an effectual enforcement of its provisions. After two more readings the measure will come up for passage, becoming effective thirty days later.

Ever since the civil service system was adopted in Duluth twelve years ago, officials have been unable to enforce its provisions, because there was no classification of positions, or an exempt list as provided in the charter. As a result, many persons were employed who had never taken the examination. The ordinance exempts the city commissioners, the city clerk, auditor, assessor and attorney, about twenty department heads and all day laborers from civil service examinations. All others must take the tests, although provision is made that persons in the employ of the city for thirty days before this ordinance becomes effective will have the status of being legal employes.

Payrolls for the last half of February were formally approved by the council and today is pay-day for all city employes.

Commissioner Merritt introduced an ordinance appropriating $3,000 for hauling pipe during 1916. The contract for furnishing the water and light department with a chlorinator for use at the Lakewood pumping station was awarded to Wallace & Tiernan on their bid of $650.

A sanitary sewer was ordered in Woodland avenue, from Wabasha to Mankato street, and gas and water extensions were ordered in the boulevard, from the existing mains 280 feet west of Eighth avenue West to the north line of Duluth proper, Third division, and in Sixth street, from Forty-second to Forty-third avenue west.

JURY DECIDES FOR TRACTION COMPANY

Holds Louis M. Goldberg Is Not Entitled to Damages.

A verdict for the defendant was returned late yesterday in Judge Cant's division of the district court, where Louis M. Goldberg was suing the Duluth Street Railway company for $3,055 damages for personal injuries alleged to have been sustained when he attempted to board a street car at Third avenue west and Superior street on Nov. 27, 1914. The jury considered the case forty minutes. B. M. Goldberg represented the plaintiff and Thomas S. Wood the street railway company.

URGE REMOVAL OF ICE AND SNOW

Munger Improvement Club Sends Resolution to City Council.

Compelling property owners to remove snow and ice from their walks is urged by members of the Munger Improvement club.

In a communication to the council, C. G. Firoved, president of the club, states that the following resolution, asking for official action that will compel owners to remove snow from their walks, was adopted at the last meeting of the organization:

"We deplore the neglected condition of sidewalks in the city during the winter months and urge that the commissioners take such action as is necessary to give city officials the proper authority to compel tenants or property owners to remove snow and ice from the sidewalks. The present method of sending out snowplows is criticized as unsatisfactory and an expenditure of public funds for work which should be done by tenants or property owners."

FORMER DULUTH ATTORNEY CALLED

D. H. Twomey, Once Law Partner of Judge Morris, Dies in Spokane.

D. H. Twomey, former member of the St. Louis County Bar association and law partner of Federal Judge Page Morris, is dead at his home in Spokane, Wash., according to word received by Duluth friends last night.

Mr. Twomey resided at 209 South Walnut street, Spokane, for several years after leaving Duluth, and became a prominent member of the bar in that city.

He left Duluth in 1894, after making his home here for several years. He came to this city from Fargo, N. D.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY.

One Out of Five Accused of Selling Adulterated Milk Will Fight Charge.

Carl Mainella, proprietor of a confectionery store at 517½ West Superior street, entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of selling adulterated milk yesterday, when arraigned in municipal court.

Four other restaurant or confectionery store proprietors, who were arraigned on the same charge yesterday morning, pleaded guilty and paid fines of $12.50.

Mainella's hearing was set for Thursday. The five arrests followed a tour of inspection made Feb. 28 by Joseph Pratts, health department inspector.

DECISION IN BIGGAR CASE AFTER LONG YEARS

Trenton, N. J., March 7.—Laura Biggar, the actress, is not entitled to a share in the estate of the late Henry W. Bennett, theatrical manager, other than bequests left to her in the Bennett will.

This was decided by the New Jersey court of errors and appeals yesterday after litigation covering fifteen years. The actress sought to gain possession of the entire estate valued at $1,000,000, basing her claims upon an alleged marriage with Mr. Bennett. In the will she was left an annuity of $1,800, an interest in a Pittsburgh theater and $1,000 in cash.

FOLLOW THE CROWD TO THE GREAT

PIANO SALE

OF STANDARD MAKES

We are discontinuing certain standard lines of pianos, and offer you your choice of all new and used pianos upon our floor at cut prices. Every piano guaranteed. Free Scarf, Stool and Delivery.

EASY TERMS. OPEN EVENINGS.

SMITH & ALLEN CO.

309 and 311 WEST FIRST STREET

LOOSE LEAF DEVICES
PRINTING

F. H. Lounsberry & Co.
PRINTERS · BINDERS
408 WEST FIRST STREET

GAY TO BE POSTMASTER AT MOOSE LAKE, MINN.

From The Herald Washington Bureau.

Washington, March 7.—The president has sent to the senate the following Minnesota postmaster nominations: John Friedler, Gibbons; E. J. Butler, Hector; Fred Gay, Moose Lake; Julius Fischer, New York Mills; W. A. Huntington, Paynesville.

HOSTILITIES OF TONGS CAUSE PANIC IN FRISCO

San Francisco, Cal., March 7.—Tong hostilities threw Chinatown into a panic last night when Fong Wing, a member of the Suey On tong, emptied his revolver into a group of five men of the Hop Sing tong, killing one and wounding four, three of whom physicians say will die.

The shooting occurred in a Chinese theater. The theater was crowded with people and the performance of a Chinese play had just begun when Fong Wing and his five victims became involved in a dispute. Fong fired five shots in quick succession and ran from the place, afterward surrendering to the police.

Shortly after the shooting three Hop Sing men were arrested in Chinatown and charged with carrying concealed weapons. Police say the trio were gunmen bent on avenging the shooting of their fellow tongmen.

Rhinelander Woman Burned.

Rhinelander, Wis., March 7.—Mrs. Mary Sturgis was fatally burned Monday when her nightgown caught fire as she was building a fire.

Wages of 30,000 Increased.

Chicago, March 7.—Thirty thousand employes of Armour & Co., Swift & Co., Morris & Co., and Sulzberger Sons company were given an increase in wages yesterday which will aggregate $30,000 a week. The increase is said to have been unsolicited.

THE BEST ROOM IN YOUR HOME

furnished complete, or the smallest detail that goes toward the making of a home can be bought here and the payments will be made so easy for you that you will never miss the money while you are doing it.

NO CASH NEEDED

YOUR OLD FURNITURE WILL DO

If you have any piece of furniture you would like to dispose of, let us have it. We will call it cash payment on something new. Very small weekly sums will soon pay the balance.

If you are sick or out of employment, we carry your account.

LEATHER SEAT ROCKER

Here is a very elegant Rocker of comfortable proportions, in either fumed or golden oak, of first class construction. Fumed finish; has brown Spanish leather seat. Your old rockers in exchange, balance 50c a week. No. 2067, price only $18.50

BRASS BED

Genuine Brass Bed, five fillers, two-inch post, equipped with a Purity mattress and iron spring, all complete... $20.00

We will place it in your home for only 50c per week. Your old bed taken as first payment.

SANITARY COUCHES

Sanitary Couches that make an excellent bed at night; several sizes as you wish it. Covered in daytime to look like couch. We show them up from $4.50

CENTER TABLES

Mahogany finished center tables. Ask for No. 98B, square top which measures 22x22 inches; French bent legs and fancy undershelf. Price only $2.00

Payable 25c a week.

GOLDEN OAK ROCKER

Arm rocker built of beautifully marked quarter-sawed oak, golden finish. Fine full shaped back and heavy wood seat. Continuous posts and sides constructed with eight 1-inch flat spindles. Turned front stretcher. Ask for No. 202 ..... $5.50

CHIFFONIER

Here's the handiest of bedroom articles with five spacious drawers, all fitted with late style wood knobs instead of brass handles $7.00

25c a week will place this chiffonier in your home.

BELLNET INSTALLMENT CO

NO QUESTIONS ASKED — CREDIT TO ALL

202 EAST SUPERIOR ST.

SAMPLE CLOAK AND SUIT SHOP

118 AND 120 WEST SUPERIOR STREET

SHOWING OF NEW SPRING

SUITS COATS AND DRESSES

All the latest styles at our usual low up-stairs prices!

D. VAN BAALEN & CO.

Elevator Service in Kelley Hardware Co.

"LITTLE COMRADE"

is a term complimentary to any wife; but how few now-a-days deserve the compliment! If ill-health prevents women should remember that there is one tried and true remedy for their ailments, that is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This medicine made from roots and herbs has for forty years been alleviating the suffering of women, making them healthy and strong, and better wives and mothers.

PEACE PARTY WELCOMED

Duluth Business Men Given Warm Reception at Ashland.

The "peace party," which went to Ashland yesterday afternoon to discuss railroad rates and other matters with the Ashland business men, returned this morning much pleased with their visit and delighted with the treatment they received at the hands of the Ashland people.

The party from Duluth consisted of Col. H. V. Eva, secretary of the Duluth Commercial club; G. Roy Hall, traffic commissioner of the club; Bruce Ter Bush, C. E. Rowe, Frank X. Gravel, Frank Davison, Bentley P. Neff, Ike Black and F. E. Church.

They were met at the train by a committee of Ashland business men and escorted to Knight hotel where dinner was served, following which a meeting was held in the ballroom of the hotel. Addresses were made by Bentley P. Neff, Col. Eva and G. Roy Hall. Mr. Hall's speech was the chief one of the evening, during which he reviewed the fight for rates that Duluth has been putting up so successfully, and fully explaining the object of the fight and the grave necessity for making it. He declared convincingly that Duluth was not trying to rob any other point of its rights, but was merely trying to obtain its own. Other members of the party claim that it was the clearest and most concise exposition of the whole rate battle that has yet been given.

Col. Eva said today that no delegation from this city has ever been better treated than that to Ashland last night, and that a very pleasant time was given them.

"We believe," said he, "that Ashland and Duluth understand each other far better now than they have ever done before and that our relations will be more than pleasant."

YOU CAN RELY ON Rexall Orderlies

The laxative tablet with the pleasant taste

If you are bilious or constipated

They keep your System as clean as a stone jug rinsed with cold spring water

We have the exclusive selling rights for this great laxative

The Rexall Store

E. M. TREDWAY

FISH FOR LENT

Just received a carload of fresh frozen Pike, Pickerel, Whitefish, Trout, Perch, Tullibees, Mullets and Herring.

Quick deliveries. Phone your orders, Melrose 4264; Grand 1122.

LAKE SUPERIOR FISH CO.

208 East First Street, Duluth, Minn.

ESTABROOK IS LUNCHEON GUEST

Spends an Hour in Conversation With Duluthians.

Henry D. Estabrook, candidate for the Republican nomination for president of the United States, was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by a number of leading attorneys and business men at the Commercial club this noon. The affair was decidedly informal, and Mr. Estabrook, at his own request, was not asked to make a speech. Following the luncheon, an hour or more was spent in a visit which those taking part declare to have been delightful. Mr. Estabrook led the conversation, which, however, was generally indulged in, and told many amusing instances of his law practice.

This evening, from 7 to 8 o'clock, he will hold a reception at the Spalding hotel, prior to the meeting at which he will speak.

Those at the luncheon today, many others sending their regrets, were: J. L. Washburn, who will introduce Mr. Estabrook at tonight's meeting; F. A. Riley, Mr. Estabrook's secretary; C. P. Craig, Mayor W. I. Prince, Frank D. Adams, Judge H. A. Dancer of the district court, N. B. Morrison, Simon Clark, Elmer F. Blu, A. C. Weiss, F. E. Randall, H. L. Cheney and A. T. Banning.

HOUSEKEEPER SAYS SHE WAS WRONGED

Mrs. Helkowski Tells Story in Quasi-Criminal Action.

Four years after her faithless husband abandoned her in Europe, Mrs. Martha Helkowski came to the United States and spent three years in trying to find him. Then she met Stans Kupaczynski, widower, and was employed by him as a housekeeper. Later she secured a divorce from her husband and there was no obstacle that stood in the way of her remarriage.

In district court before Judge Cant and a jury today, however, Mrs. Helkowski told a story of how Kupaczynski had wronged her. In a quasi-criminal proceeding instituted by the county attorney's office, he is charged with being partially responsible for the condition in which Mrs. Helkowski now finds herself. The jury will decide the fact.

If a verdict is returned against Kupaczynski he will be required to put up a bond insuring that he will support the child. In case he failed to do this he will, in all likelihood, be committed to jail.

Mrs. Helkowski today testified that Kupaczynski paid her little or nothing for her services as housekeeper and that she was obliged to sue him to recover what was due her. She obtained a judgment against him in municipal court about two months ago.

Erie, Pa., Is Isolated.

Erie, Pa., March 7.—This city, which has been without wire communication with the outside world for the last twenty-four hours, was still isolated early today. A driving sleet storm tore down miles of telegraph and telephone wires, delayed trains and forced interurban traffic to suspend. The property loss is estimated at $150,000.

Milwaukee to Hear Wood.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 7.—Willet M. Spooner, secretary of the Wisconsin branch of the National Security league, has received a letter from Major General Leonard Wood, accepting an invitation to come to Milwaukee to address a mass meeting on the military needs of the country. The meeting will be held some time in May.

WEST DULUTH

HERALD BRANCH OFFICES:

Spencer Pharmacy, 402 Central Avenue, Advertising and Subscriptions. A. Jensen, Fifty-seventh Avenue West and Grand Avenue, Distribution.

Herald's West Duluth reporter may be reached after hour of going to press at Calumet 178-M and Cole 247.

NEW OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED

Installation ceremonies featured the meeting of the Clan Forbes last night at the Odd Fellows hall. An audience which filled the hall attended the ceremony and enjoyed the program and dancing which followed.

The ceremony was conducted by Angus G. Macaulay, royal deputy of the order, assisted by the degree staff of Clan Stewart. The program following included musical numbers, recitations and an address by A. G. McKnight.

Among those taking part in the program were Miss Katherine Macaulay, who gave piano selections; Mrs. Percy Young, vocal solo; Miss Anna Morrison, vocal solo; Franklyn Stevenson, recitation; Alex Bethune, songs; and J. R. Batchelor, vocal solos.

The new officers of the clan are: Mason M. Forbes, chief; George C. Reed, past chief; J. E. Foubister, tanist; Percy Young, chaplain; A. R. Armstrong, recording secretary; Hugh J. Bell, financial secretary; R. L. Hughes, treasurer; Dr. R. S. Forbes, physician; James McGillivray, senior henchman; Earl Leader, junior henchman; Murdock McPhail, seneschal; Hugh Myles, warder; Archie Seymour, sentinel; Alex McDonald, standard bearer; John and Norman McLean, bag pipers, were unable to attend.

TRAFFIC IS MOVING UNDER DIFFICULTIES

Delivery wagons and trucks are being driven with difficulty in this end of the city. With the exception of streets traversed by the street cars where the large snow plows belonging to the Duluth Street Railway company have pushed the snow well back to the curbing, the thoroughfares are almost impassable.

Large auto trucks and vans as well as smaller delivery rigs have become stuck in the snow banks. One truck loaded with lumber took more than an hour in making one block on Fifty-ninth avenue. A coal wagon this morning got into a snow bank and the load tipped over scattering the fuel all over the street.

Up to a late hour today no automobiles had been able to get through from New Duluth to the end of the car line on Grand avenue since late Sunday night. The snow in several places along the street between the end of the line and the suburbs is said to be from three to four feet deep.

WITH THE CURLERS.

Western Club Members May Have to Play in Double Shifts.

Afternoon and evening games may be necessary at the Western Curling rink in order to complete the various trophy events this season. It may be that two series of games each evening will be scheduled, first draw for 6:30 and the second draw for 8:30 o'clock.

Another of the events was completed last night when the finals of the Patrick event were played between Joseph McDonald and George J. Mallory. The former won by a score of 13 to 9. The prizes in this event are four sports jackets. The other members of the rink in addition to the skip who will receive the prizes, are Charles Willisen, third; Clarence Fox, second, and Arthur Anderson, lead.

Melvin Olson won from Emil J. Zauft by a 9-to-7 score, and Thomas Quinn won from R. F. Wade by an 8-to-6 score. Both games were in the Universal event. This evening the finals will be played in the Albert Jewelry event between F. H. Wade and Melvin Olson. Joe McDonald will also play in the Stone-Ordean event, and T. F. Olsen will meet E. J. Zauft in the De Fensia event.

The following is the standing of several of the rinks in some of the events still to be completed:

Esterly event, finals (jewelry)—R. F. Wade vs. Alex Donald.

Bagley event, finals (jewelry)—Alex Donald vs. T. F. Olsen.

Albert even, finals (cut glass)—F. H. Wade vs. Melvin Olson.

Defensia event (cigars)—Donald vs. J. McDonald; E. J. Zauft vs. T. F. Olsen.

Siewert events (hats)—G. J. Mallory vs. Donald; T. F. Olsen vs. J. McDonald.

In addition to these events the Stone-Ordean event, Universal Flour company's event and Hendricksen jewelry event are just being started, with only two or three games so far played in each.

WILL OPPOSE LICENSE TRANSFER

Residents of Gary and New Duluth will oppose any move for the transferring of another saloon license to the suburbs. The applications of two saloonkeepers for a transfer of licenses to this section which were filed with the commissioners yesterday, aroused considerable comment among the residents.

"The two saloons now located in the suburbs are enough," said a resident this morning. "The fewer saloons we have here the better the community is off."

It is intimated that the city commissioners do not look with favor on the proposed transfers. Statements to that effect have been credited to Commissioner B. Silberstein of the public safety department.

Will Form Civic Club.

A meeting of the residents of Fond du Lac has been called for tomorrow evening for the purpose of organizing a community civic club. The meeting will be held at the Congregational church. It is expected that practically all of the residents of the suburb will attend.

Kiltin Funeral.

The funeral for William H. Kiltin, aged 65, well known resident of West Duluth and one of the pioneer business men of this end of the city, who died at Bakersfield, Cal., Thursday, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, 227 North Fifty-fourth avenue west. Interment will be in Oneota cemetery. Rev. W. L. Staub, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church, will have charge of the service.

The body arrived in West Duluth yesterday afternoon and was taken to Ball brothers' undertaking rooms.

Entertains at Cards.

Pocahontas council No. 319, Royal League, entertained at cards last evening at the West Duluth Commercial club rooms. Five hundred was played at twelve tables. Following the games refreshments were served by members of the committee. The women in charge were: Mrs. H. L. Liberty, Mrs. David Harris, Mrs. S. Lavick, Mrs. Earl F. Breisch, Mrs. H. H. Lumley, Mrs. Max Oreckovski, Mrs. Louis Bennett, Mrs. Gordon Brooks and Mrs. H. L. Fedi.

Bethany N. D. M. E. Notes.

Midweek services and class meeting will be held this evening by members of the Bethany Norweglan-Danish M. E. church at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Aunan, 19 North Sixty-sixth avenue west.

Choir rehearsal will be held in the church tomorrow evening.

The Young Ladies' Aid society has planned a social and sale to be held in the church Friday evening. A musical and literary program is being arranged.

Surprised By Friends.

Miss Viola Simons was pleasantly surprised last evening by a number of her friends at the home of Mrs. Margaret Baker of Third street, Morgan Park. The affair was in the nature of a farewell party for Miss Simons, who is leaving the suburb this week to make her home in Duluth. Games and music featured the entertainment.

West Duluth Briefs.

The Proctor auxiliary of the German-Austro-Hungarian Relief association, which is arranging the Red Cross and War Relief bazar, which will be held from March 23 to March 25, will hold a meeting at Proctor at the residence of Mrs. R. Wombacker, 78 East Second street, on Wednesday, March 8, at 4 p. m. Details of the bazar and fair will be discussed and Max Binheim, president of the relief association and manager of the fair, will come from Duluth to address the women.

Victrolas and records at Spencer's. Easy payments if desired.

The meeting of the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the West Duluth Baptist church, scheduled for tomorrow afternoon, has been postponed for a week.

James A. McGillivray, 5801 Highland street, left yesterday for Minneapolis to attend the annual state convention of the Canton, the military branch of the Odd Fellows. Mr. McGillivray is captain of the Duluth canton.

Mrs. T. F. Wieland, 831 North Fifty-eighth avenue west, will entertain tomorrow afternoon for the Ladies' Aid Society of the Westminster Presbyterian church.

Mrs. C. Dignus, 27 North Sixty-sixth avenue west, was pleasantly surprised last evening by members of the Bethany Norwegian-Danish M. E. church. The affair was held in the church parlors. About fifty guests were present. It was in honor of Mrs. Dignus' birthday.

Watch repairing. Hurst. West Duluth.

SUPERIOR

LICENSE MEN PLAN TO OPPOSE "DRYS"

Organization Will Be Formed to Canvass Entire City.

Advocates of license held their first meeting last night for the purpose of taking steps to fight the "dry" campaign now being waged in Superior. The meeting followed a banquet held at the Superior hotel. Among the speakers were State Senator E. J. Westlake of Minneapolis, Paul Conwell of Kansas City, and R. H. Bradley. The latter presided. An organization is to be perfected which will make a thorough canvass of the city in the interests of saloon licenses.

The "wet" and "dry" campaign in Superior this spring promises to become one of the most heated held in the city in years. A meeting of the "dry's" will be held this evening at which the names of the full committee of 100 will be announced. H. A. Johnson has been chosen chairman of the committee.

Crowd at Exposition.

The opening of the industrial exposition yesterday afternoon, which is being held by the Superior Rotary club, attracted a large crowd despite the storm. The opening was featured by an automobile parade of Rotary club members from Tower and Third street to Eleventh street.

Has Thumb Sawed Off.

While working about a circular saw in the manual training department of the Superior high school yesterday afternoon, Jacob Friis, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Friis, 1014 Hughitt avenue, had his thumb sawed off. The boy was trying to saw a board when the board slipped. Cecil Williams, a student who witnessed the accident, fainted at the sight of the blood. The victim of the accident was taken home where a physician was called.

TEN PLAYGROUNDS FOR NEXT SUMMER

Recreational Activities Will Be More Than Doubled This Year.

Apparatus will be installed at seven more playgrounds during the coming summer, according to an announcement made today by J. R. Batchelor, recreational director.

Last summer but three playgrounds were in operation under the direction of the recreational department at Chester and Harrison parks and at Fifty-second avenue west, the apparatus having been installed shortly after the close of the school year. This year ten playgrounds will be open to the children of the city, with assistants in charge of each playground throughout the summer months.

The apparatus to be installed will cost approximately $1,500, according to Director Batchelor. The equipment will be placed at the following points: Lester park school, Washburn school, Munger school, Webster school, Franklin school, Washington school and Ninth avenue west and Third street.

WHEN SKIN AILS, POSLAM SERVES

Ready to Quickly Relieve, Soothe and Heal.

Poslam, with its amazing healing power, is ready, now, to serve you by driving away your Eczema or any skin trouble.

Use it and be through with itching distress. Banish Pimples or any eruptional, diseased surface condition. See how beautifully it clears inflamed skin after one overnight application. It cannot harm; always gratefully soothing, cooling, pacifying.

Poslam Soap, medicated with Poslam, discourages those tendencies of the skin to roughness, dry parching, infection and eruptional troubles.

For samples send 4c stamps to Emergency Laboratories, 32 West 25th St., New York City. Sold by all druggists.

SNOW CAUSES BIG EXPENSE

City Has Already Spent $10,000; Late Snowfall Increases Outlay.

Although the public works division has spent approximately $10,000 in removing snow and ice during January and February, it is now confronted with another heavy snowfall that will be a serious drain on the department's funds.

Commissioner Farrell, works head, said this morning that every effort is being made today to relieve conditions resulting from the snowfall. Twelve snowplows and a crew of sixty men are at work in all parts of the city, he said, and before nightfall pedestrians will have little difficulty in making headway to and from street cars.

As the storm continued throughout yesterday, the department did very little toward relieving conditions until early this morning. A small crew was busy along Superior street yesterday and this morning, while the large motor truck was put into service removing the snow.

"The storm yesterday," said Commissioner Farrell, "was not as heavy as the one in February, and we are making every effort to relieve conditions at the lowest possible expense. The storms this winter have been unusual and, as a result, a large drain on our department funds."

UP TO RESIDENTS.

Gary Saloon License Will Not Be Granted Against Their Wishes.

If citizens at Gary and New Duluth favor another saloon in that end of the city, then a license will be granted to one of the applicants now before the council.

This is the reply made today by Commissioner Silberstein, head of the safety division, in answer to the query relative to the granting of another saloon license for the steel plant district. If citizens oppose a license transfer, then the matter will be dropped, the safety head added.

Two applications for saloon license transfers in New Duluth have been filed with City Clerk Borgen and were presented to the city council yesterday afternoon. They are from Henry C. Mason, who wants a transfer from 1831 West Superior street to 1535 Commonwealth avenue, and Lubratovich & Daculovich, who want a transfer from 531 West Michigan street to 1313 Commonwealth avenue.

"If a transfer is ever granted," Commissioner Silberstein said this morning, "it will go to the man with the best reputation and the one who receives the most favorable report. The mere construction of a hotel at Gary is not sufficient, as I will give more consideration to the character of the man applying for a license."

There are three saloons at Gary and New Duluth at the present time, residents in that section having opposed any increase when applications were made to the council about a year ago.

SWANSON CONFESSES TO MORE ROBBERIES

Minneapolis, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—Charles Swanson, arrested in Chicago, who confessed, according to the authorities, to taking part in the robbery of a meat market here, and who charged that his companion, Ray Hawkes, also arrested, murdered the proprietor, G. F. Carlson, made a new confession on his arrival today, admitting he, too, fired on Carlson, the police say. Swanson, who with Hawkes is wanted in St. Louis, Kansas City, Toledo and other cities on various charges, confessed to a number of robberies, including street car holdups here and in other cities, according to the police.

ROADS TO BENEFIT BY TAXES ON AUTOMOBILES

St. Paul, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—Beginning April 1 next, all moneys collected by the state automobile registration department for the year ending that date will be available for state road and bridge purposes.

A ruling to this effect was made today by Attorney General Smith.

Deductions are to be made for expenses incurred by the department, which is in charge of Secretary of State Schmahl.

Beginning Jan. 1, 1918, the cost of automobile licenses will be increased to $5, and the revenue in consequence will be many times greater.

INVENTORY OF ESTATE OF C. G. GOODRICH FILED

St. Paul, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—An inventory of the estate of the late Calvin G. Goodrich, president of the Twin City Rapid Transit company, was filed today with Attorney General Smith for inheritance tax purposes. Much property in the way of real estate holdings, shares of stock, notes and mortgages are listed.

At the same time an inventory of the estate of Mrs. Thomas Lowry was filed with the state legal department. The total value of her estate is given at $1,586,103.73.

BEMIDJI PREPARING FOR BASEBALL SEASON

Bemidji, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—Business and professional men of this city will hold a mass meeting at the city hall Friday evening to make final arrangements for a baseball team for Bemidji for the coming summer. The city council has decided to take care of the taxes, which is the compensation asked by the owners of the land for the use of the grounds.

It is the intention of Perle Davis, who is promoting the team, to have a semi-professional team. Among the home players are the veterans of former years, strengthened by Dr. J. W. Diedrich, who last year played with the Detroit American league, but has quit professional baseball to enter business in Bemidji.

TREX! IF RHEUMATIC OR CONSTIPATED

Twenty-Five Cents Worth Is Plenty; Try It! Take Harmless, Soothing Trex for Just a Few Days.

Then no more intense rheumatic pains; goodbye chronic, miserable constipation; no more sore, aching back. Trex is wonderful! Acts right off. Trex induces natural drainage of the entire system; promptly opens your clogged up liver and bowels; cleans the stomach of fermenting, gassy foods and waste; eliminates irritating rheumatic poisons; relieves feverishness, headaches, dizziness and bilious misery. Don't stay "knocked out" any longer. Get this quick relief today. 25c, at Mattix Drug stores or direct from H. B. Denton & Co., (Not Inc.) Beardstown, Illinois.

Save Time and Trouble—Let Our Repair Department Call for Your Shoes!

We've just installed two more of the finest Shoe Repair machines to be found in the Northwest! With this new equipment the Glass Block Shoe Repair Department becomes the best equipped department of the kind in the Northwest! You'll be astonished at the promptness with which we can turn out any sort of repair work! New soles, new heels, mending rubbers, tinting dancing pumps, cleaning white shoes—we're equipped to do anything in the way of shoe repairing!

Remember—We Call for Your Work and Deliver It Free of Charge!

Shoe Repair Department

THE GLASS BLOCK STORE

Piling Up Profit for You

What is interest? When you get right down to it, putting your money where it will earn interest is simply making other people work for you.

Deposit your savings in the First National Bank and at once many persons and many things begin piling up profit for you. The more you deposit, the harder they work for your benefit.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Duluth, Minn.

SAYS SHE WAS FRAUD VICTIM

Holder of Marine Hotel Lease Brings Claim for $4,069 Damages.

Charging that fraud was practiced upon her by William Craig, local real estate owner, when he secured her signature to a lease for the Marine hotel property at 202-204-206 Lake avenue south two years ago, Mrs. Anna Monroe Emmons is asking a district court jury to award her $4,069 damages on a counterclaim filed as an answer to a suit brought by Mr. Craig to collect $440.10 in rents.

Mr. Craig began his action to recover the rent under the terms of the lease in the municipal court on June 1 last, but when answer was filed the cross bill, which it contained, demanded damages in excess of $500 and the case then passed out of the jurisdiction of the city court. It was transferred to district court for trial.

Mrs. Emmons secured a lease to run from Jan. 20, 1914, to April 30, 1917, for $225 a month. The defendant now repudiates the agreement, claiming that Mr. Craig has failed to keep up his part of it. She alleges that he did not keep the place in a reasonably safe and sanitary condition, that the walls are shaky and about to crumble and that the place is a firetrap.

Mrs. Emmons alleges that when she negotiated with Mr. Craig for a lease on the building, he represented to her that the place was then occupied by a tenant named M. Pabst and that it was fully equipped with furniture of which Mr. Pabst was desirous of disposing at a bargain. He declared, she says, that if she advanced $600, he could probably prevail upon Pabst to sell out for about $550 and that he would return her the balance. She alleges that she signed the lease without even seeing the building, Mr. Craig having advised her not to go there until after he had closed the deal with Pabst for the furniture.

When Mrs. Emmons moved in, she did not find the rosy picture which had been painted for her, she alleges. The furniture which Mr. Craig had purchased for her, was practically valueless, she contends, and is worth not to exceed $50. She alleges that she was obliged to purchase $400 worth of new furniture. She also declares that Mr. Craig represented to her that the net income of the place would be about $175 a month and that she found it hard to make enough money to pay the rent and was finally forced to abandon the building.

J. A. P. Neal and E. W. McPherran are attorneys for Mr. Craig and Mrs. Emmons is represented by Johan Heittman.

Turks Report No Change.

Constantinople, March 7, via London, —The following statement was issued today by Turkish army headquarters: "The situation in all the war theaters is unchanged."

Madison Hears Message From Germany.

Madison, Wis., March 7.—The wireless station of the university recently caught part of a message from Berlin, Germany, 4,500 miles away. The message contained recent war news of the western and eastern fronts. It is now possible to hear as far south as Darien, government station on the Panama canal and many of the stations on the Pacific coast.

Tobacco Habit Easily Conquered

A New Yorker of wide experience has written a book telling how the tobacco or snuff habit may be easily and completely banished in three days with delightful benefit. The author, Edward J. Woods, 899 T, Station E, New York City, will mail his book free on request.

The health improves wonderfully after the nicotine poison is out of the system. Calmness, tranquil sleep, clear eyes, normal appetite, good digestion, manly vigor, strong memory and a general gain in efficiency are among the many benefits reported. Get rid of that nervous feeling; no more need of pipe, cigar, cigarette, snuff or chewing tobacco to pacify morbid desire.

TWENTY GERMAN DREADNAUGHTS SAIL

Great Warships Said to Have Left Harbor of Kiel.

Rome, March 5, via London, March 5, —(Delayed)—Twenty German dreadnaughts have left Kiel according to information received here today.

The foregoing disptach was held up by the British censor for two days. Another dispatch filed in London at 3:25 o'clock this morning said that a fleet of twenty-five German warships was observed Monday cruising in the North sea. This message was received in London from Vlieland, north Holland.

Indoor Life Makes Fat

TRY OIL OF KOREIN TO KEEP WEIGHT DOWN, OR TO REDUCE SUPERFLUOUS FAT.

People who are confined within doors and who are deprived of fresh, invigorating air and exercise must take precaution to guard against over-stoutness, as fat acquired by indoor life is unhealthy and a danger to the vital organs of the body. Lack of exercise in the fresh air is said to weaken the oxygen-carrying power of the blood, so that it is unable to produce strong muscles and vitality and the formation of unsightly and unhealthy fat is the result.

If you are 15 or 20 pounds above normal weight you are daily drawing on your reserve strength and are constantly lowering your vitality by carrying this excess burden. Any persons who are satisfied in their own mind that they are too stout are advised to go to Boyce Drug Store, 231 West Superior St., or any good druggist and get a box of oil of korein capsules, and take one after each meal and one just before retiring at night.

Even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight, improved digestion and a return of the old energy; footsteps become lighter and the skin less flabby in appearance as superfluous fat disappears.

Oil of korein is inexpensive, cannot injure, and helps the digestion. Any person who wants to reduce 15 or 20 pounds is advised to give this treatment a trial.—Advertisement.

Society • Women's Clubs • Music • Drama

TOMORROW, Ash Wednesday, will be the beginning of the penitential season of Lent, during which there will be practically no formal social gatherings. Of course small, informal affairs will be given but there will be no large ones until after Easter which comes late this year, April 23. Forty days of quietude will be followed by the inevitable reaction.

Many Duluthians are at winter resorts where the informal gaieties, that are just as enjoyable as formal ones, but sound more penitential, will continue, as Lent always comes in the height of the resort season.

Shrove Tuesday, the eve of Ash Wednesday, was formerly a day of merry-making, a busy day in which one crowded all the fun possible. The custom has practically died out and the social calendar for today is as quiet as if the ban were not going on social affairs tomorrow to last six weeks.

Events of Interest.

The Ash Wednesday services at St. Paul's Episcopal church will be: 10:30 a. m., penitential office, holy communion and sermon; 4:15 p. m., evening service and address.

* * *

At the bridge whist party given last night by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Whyte, the women's favors went to Mrs. Joseph G. Harrison and Mrs. R. T. Lawrence and the men's favors to John Sinclair and Nat Davis. Spring flowers were used in decorating and bridge was played at six tables. Tonight Mr. and Mrs. Whyte will entertain at nine tables of bridge for some of the younger married people.

* * *

In honor of Mrs. Calvin F. How, Jr., a recent bride, Mrs. Calvin F. How, Sr., will entertain tomorrow afternoon at an informal tea from 3 to 6 at her home, South Seventeenth avenue east.

* * *

The Young Bachelors met last night at the home of John Curry, 812 West Second street, when plans were completed for their next dance which will be held Easter Monday. The date of their annual dance which was to have been May 12 has been postponed until further notice.

* * *

The Italian Dramatic club will give a dancing party tonight at Coffin's academy.

* * *

The meeting of the Ladies' Literature class was postponed from this afternoon to next Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Richard Sellwood of 1921 East Second street will be the hostess.

Mothers' Club Will Give Entertainment

All who are interested are invited to the program which the Mothers' club of the Finnish mission "Welcome hall," will give at 8 o'clock tomorrow night at the hall. The program will be as follows: Guitar duet, "Onward Christian Soldiers," E. Oganiena and Miss Colby; talk on "The High Position of Motherhood," Miss Thompson; piano solo, Myrtle Juntilla; poem, Mrs. E. Longsol; piano solo, Jennie Hill; story, Mrs. Eklund; solo, Dorothy Juntilla; story, Mrs. Hokkanen; song, the mothers; poem, Mrs. Lahtinen; guitar duet, Mr. Oganieni and Miss Colby; story, Mrs. Juntilla.

A social hour will follow.

Miss Alfina Thompson, the Finnish deaconess, conducts classes every day of the week at Welcome hall, 350 Lake avenue south, which building was bought last November by the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the First Methodist church. Before the building became the property of the missionary society, Miss Thompson conducted classes for several years in Temperance hall. She directs the mothers' club, conducts a Sunday school and has sewing and cooking classes for large and small girls. The boys' club, called the Loyal Temperance legion, does handwork.

Scandinavian Meeting of Twentieth Century Club

The annual Scandinavian social meeting of the Twentieth Century club was held yesterday afternoon in the library ballroom. Miss Grace Wright repeated the talk on "Causes of Some of the Great Wars of History in Relation to the Idea of Peace," which she gave at the recent meeting of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, and concluded by reading "The Dawn of Peace," which is the prologue of Alfred Noyes' poem, "The Wine Press."

The afternoon was concluded with a social hour when coffee and Norwegian and Swedish cakes were served from a tea-Todil decorated table.

Mrs. Harold Fegraeus was chairman of the committee in charge. The other members were Mrs. H. P. Bjorge, Mrs. Olin Halden and Mrs. J. J. Wangenstein.

District W. C. T. U. Banquet.

The district W. C. T. U. of Duluth entertained as its guest of honor last night Miss Rozette Hendrix of Minneapolis at the annual banquet held at the First Presbyterian church.

Ex-Judge W. D. Edson opened the meeting with a welcome from the church, Rev. Carl E. Oberg giving the invocation. Mrs. Joseph Cochran, district president, presided as toastmistress. A program consisting of two solos by Mrs. J. E. Porter, piano solos by Miss Frances Berg and a male quartet added interest to the evening, which closed with the singing of "America" by the entire audience.

"The Practical Side of Temperance" was the subject of the talk given by Dr. A. W. Ryan, who said in part: "I think we shall find prohibition a necessity in the near future. The liquor traffic is destructive physically, mentally and morally to a man's future and men in all lines of business are finding out that even the moderate drinker hasn't the vitality to fight disease, nor the capacity for work that a total abstainer has. It is also leading people to stand for prohibition as related to the individual person."

Dr. Ryan said, comparing the use of strong liquors in the hospital twenty years ago with the present, that few physicians use it extensively in their practice.

Senator Richard Jones gave some interesting statistics on the percentage of men employed by liquor concerns compared with those of other organizations, bringing out one point that prohibition does not make for unemployment.

Miss Hendrix closed the program with a plea for the mothers of the homes that have been wrecked through the destructive force of the saloon, saying in part: "We must kill the business, take away the profits to have nation-wide prohibition, the foundation for which has been in process of being laid forty years. All we have to do now is to first reach the people and then stir them to action."

More than 100 were present at the banquet, which was served by the West Side auxiliary of the church.

Werrenrath Recital.

Speaking of the recital given by Geraldine Farrar and her aides, Ada Sassoli, harpist, and Reinald Werrenrath, baritone, at the Biltmore musicale in New York, not long ago, a critic has this to say:

"Notwithstanding the writer's admiration for Miss Farrar's art, and particularly for her singing of this morning, from the mere standpoint of fact he must chronicle the behavior of the audience, which gave to Mr. Werrenrath's singing of 'Danny Deever' the greatest applause of the entire program. The baritone's resonance of tone, his eloquent enunciation and his finesse of interpretation were further manifested in the 'Hear Me, Ye Winds' aria of Handel, the Massenet 'Vision Fugitive' and a lieder group with 'Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes' and 'The House of Memories' as extras."

Mr. Werrenrath will appear here Friday night at the M. E. church in the last artists' recital of the Matinee Musicale series this year.

Church Meetings.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Lester Park Methodist church will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Tanner, 6009 Tioga street. Mrs. C. H. Duff will be the assisting hostess.

* * *

Trinity cathedral branch of the woman's auxiliary will meet at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Trinity hall.

* * *

Central auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church will be entertained by Mrs. Thomas Johnston at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the Edson room.

* * *

Mrs. George A. Spearin of 917 East Seventh street will be the hostess tomorrow afternoon for the monthly thimble bee of the Ladies' Aid of the First Baptist church. The Misses Palmer will be the assisting hostesses.

* * *

The Luther League of St. Matthew's German Lutheran church will have a special meeting at 8 o'clock tomorrow night at the church.

* * *

The Women's Alliance of the Unitarian church will meet at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Elizabeth Colby in the Kimball apartments, Ninth avenue east.

* * *

The Ladies' Aid of St. John's English Lutheran church will meet in the church parlors at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. A. A. Miller and Mrs. G. L. Hargraves will be the hostesses.

The mission study class will meet at the church at 7 o'clock tomorrow night. Mrs. J. O. Lenning will be the leader.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. David Williams left last night for a month's Eastern trip.

* * *

Mrs. Stanley R. Holden left last night for Chicago.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. John Stone Pardee, 23 Kent road, will leave tomorrow for St. Paul for a week's visit.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. John H. McLean, Sixteenth avenue east, are in Miami for a short stay.

* * *

Mrs. W. T. Bailey is now in Grand Rapids, Mich., visiting her sister.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Mullin, 2115 East Superior street, are at the Eastman hotel, Hot Springs, Ark. They will return about April 1.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. I. Freimuth and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob B. Sattler left yesterday for a few weeks at Excelsior Springs, Mo.

* * *

Mrs. George C. Stone, East Superior street, has returned from an Eastern trip.

* * *

Mrs. W. A. Hunt and little daughter, Mary Elizabeth, 1514 East Third street, left Sunday for a two months' visit in Chicago and Eastern points.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Floid M. Fuller, 25 Bruce street, returned yesterday from St. Paul, where they passed the week-end.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. H. Spooner of 2031 West Third street will leave tomorrow for Los Angeles, Cal., being called by the death of Mr. Spooner's father.

* * *

Frank McGinnis left last night for his home in Minneapolis after visiting his mother, Mrs. A. McGinnis, 420 East First street.

* * *

Miss Carrie Rasmusen, 531 North Fifty-ninth avenue west, has returned from a week's visit with her parents at Barnum, Minn.

* * *

Miss Olga Jensen has returned to St. Paul after a week-end visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Jensen, 2117 West First street.

* * *

Miss Helen O'Connor will leave today for Topeka, Kan., for a visit before proceeding farther West.

* * *

William Conlon, 706 East Third street, left Saturday night for Buffalo, N. Y.

EVENTS OF TONIGHT.

The Bishop's club will meet at 8 o'clock tonight in the Bishop's club room.

The first of the series of three programs of Baby week will be given at 8:30 o'clock tonight in the Masonic temple auditorium.

The St. Louis County Medical association will give a dancing party tonight at the Kitchi Gammi club.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer N. Whyte of 2232 East First street will entertain at bridge tonight.

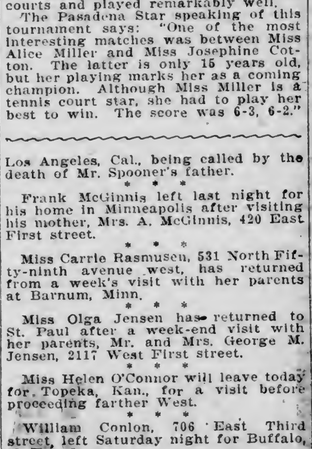
Duluth Girl Stars at Tennis in California

MISS JOSEPHINE COTTON.

Miss Josephine Cotton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cotton, is making a reputation as a tennis player at Pasadena this winter.

She entered the Maryland-Huntington tournament being staged by V. Bernard Herbst on the Huntington courts and played remarkably well.

The Pasadena Star speaking of this tournament says: "One of the most interesting matches was between Miss Alice Miller and Miss Josephine Cotton. The latter is only 15 years old, but her playing marks her as a coming champion. Although Miss Miller is a tennis court star, she had to play her best to win. The score was 6-3, 6-2."



WALKER WHITESIDE.

Peggy Peabody's Observations

Set Children an Example

Often when inwardly musing on our course toward the little ones I marvel that children do not regard their elders and superiors as more accomplished frauds than we are.

Such a wealth of precept as is poured out on their little bewildered heads in church, school and the home, either baldly in set rules of conduct or sugar-coated in stories with hidden morals, that the incessant overriding of this same inculcated desirable behavior on the part of their beloved forbears must puzzle them to a degree that does us shame.

I well remember the father of a school girl chum, honest in his dealings, tender, faithful and a generous provider. Yet his unruly tongue did sadly err constantly. Not only did he use profanity, but far more reprehensible was an inherited bent toward the telling of indecent stories, and these he told with unholy gusto at all times and seasons, sparing no one, not even his lovely wife and little girls and boys.

What reason had this man to expect that his children should develop high standards of morals and clean living when all through their tender years he polluted their minds with profanity and evil suggestions? Why should he have expected stern virtue from his idolized daughter when he prattled of baseness continually. Why should not his sons make social nuisances of themselves? What right has any man or woman whose mode of life or conversation is dishonest and vile to demand principle and morality in the offspring?

No reason to expect, no right to hope. And yet the expectation and hope is so persistently, so passionately earnest with most that the very energy of desire seems to act as a powerful magnet to draw the child up past the sordid example to the unattained aspiration that never entirely leaves us.

"Do not as I do, but as I say," is the tacit rule of many parents, and remarkably well does the child heed that rule; better, far better, than his forbears have reason or right to expect. We all ask too much of young children and those on the threshold of manhood and womanhood when we set poor examples.

A Charming Complexion

Instant Results

Friends are calling or you have a sudden invitation. Just a moment to look your best. It takes but a few seconds to apply

Gouraud's 14

Oriental Cream

and obtain a perfect complexion—a soft, clear, pearly-white appearance that is always refined and in good taste-Non-greasy - The favorite for 68 years.

Send 10c. for trial size

FERD. T. HOPKINS & SON

37 Great Jones St., New York City

Efficient Housekeeping

BY Henrietta D Graucl

Herbs Vinegars for Salads

FROM time out of mind various table vinegars have been made to give character to a salad or additional charm to some more simple dish. Uninitiated housewives "oh" and "ah" and wonder why they cannot achieve such delightful flavors, and all the time there is nothing easier. First use vinegar that is mild, for, if too acid-tasting, it will destroy the herb flavor you desire. Some persons favor white-wine vinegar—its clearness and agreeable taste certainly recommend it, but malt vinegar, though dark, is quite as good. Pure cider vinegar is best of all, but so much preservative is used now that it is sometimes hard to secure.

You may make basil, onion, garlic, chervil, chili or mint vinegar in the same way, or you may use various plants and make herb vinegar. Tarragon is one of the best plants for making salad vinegars. For three hundred years the French have used it so, and they claim that no salad is complete without it. Our housekeepers would esteem it too if they would but try it. Grocers charge 75 cents a quart for this vinegar bottled, but a 10-cent bunch of the fresh leaves or two packages of the dried plant will make twice this quantity.

The directions for all these vinegars are the same. Wash the herbs thoroughly and half fill quart jars with them. Warm vinegar but do not permit it to boil; pour over the herb, cork tightly and set in cupboard for ten days. Strain, rebottle and use.

My recipe for herb vinegar gives a result that is full of snap and zest, and only a few drops are needed on a salad or meat. Use one-half tarragon, one-fourth chervil, one-fourth chives, add a few red chili peppers and cover with warm vinegar. At the end of two weeks uncork and strain into cruets. You can now add another quart of hot vinegar to the herbs and put in three cloves of garlic and a tablespoon of salt. Let this infuse longer than the first did—about a month, I should think—then strain as before. Persons who do not use onions or garlic in cooking will find it convenient to have it in this form for those who do enjoy it.

A DAY'S MENU.

Breakfast.
Fruit.
Cracked Wheat Steamed.
Frizzled Beef on Toast.
Eggs. Coffee.

Luncheon.
Baked Onions Stuffed with Minced Ham.
Rye Bread and Butter.
Fruit Filled Turnovers.

Dinner.
Breast of Lamb, Stuffed.
Caper Sauce. Pickled Beets.
Creamed Potatoes. Egg Plant Fritters.
Endive Salad.
Apple Tapioca Pudding.

(Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.)

Tomorrow—Plain Sewing.

Bed Time Tales

By Clara Ingram Judson

Slippy's New Home

SLIPPY showed Flitter Flying-squirrel all the advantages of the old home in the grape-vine. They ran up and down the vine stems—or rather they ran up, for Flitter always flew downwards in his graceful fashion and met Slippy at the bottom of the vine.

"It's a strange thing to me," said Flitter, after one of these flights, "that you would ever leave so pleasant a place as this. That nest seems so comfortable, and surely you could not hope for a more convenient location."

"That was all true," replied Slippy, "before the Hoot Owl moved in yonder oak tree!"

"Oh-h," answered Flitter with a glimmer of understanding. "And he bothered you?"

"Bothered us?" exclaimed Slippy with a shiver. "He nearly ate us up! He had not lived in that tree a day, I do believe, till he had found that we lived in here in this vine. Nothing like a hoot owl for finding where mice live! He sat there in the shadow of that hole where he lived and watched and watched—before we even guessed that he had moved in!"

"You don't say so!" cried Flitter with sympathy.

"Indeed I do," replied Slippy, and he nodded impressively. "What's worse, he raided our home! Darted down to it and tore it apart—it was not always open as you see it now! My mother, one brother and myself, who happened to be in the nest at the time, jumped to the ground and escaped, but one other brother was not quick enough. The owl caught him."

"I'm sorry," said Flitter, when he saw that Slippy stopped talking in sad recollection.

"So am I," agreed Slippy, and then in a brighter voice he went on; "but of course we have to expect that—you know how it is in your own family. But never again will we live where an owl may watch us!"

"Then where do you live now?" asked Flitter curiously.

"Come, I'll show you," said Slippy, and flying and running, the two little friends made their way out of the woods and to the edge of the cornfield.

"You can't fly now," remarked Slippy, when the end of the woods was reached, "for there are no more trees to fly from! But it is not far—see that nearest corn shuck?"

One other brother was not quick enough. The owl caught him.

Flitter looked, and sure enough! right there, not more than ten feet from the rail-fence, stood a great stacked-up pile of corn.

Slippy led the way around to the right-hand side and there they found a tiny passageway. "This is the entrance," explained Slippy; "but the real home is way in the middle of the cornstalks. And it's a better winter home than the grape-vine, for we can eat corn without going out from home and it's near the woods when we want to go there."

Flitter admired the new quarters and then said good night. He was a long way off from his home and even a late winter sun might peep over the horizon at any time! Flying-squirrels must not be out in the daytime!

(Copyright—Clara Ingram Judson.)

Tomorrow—The Waterdrops Find a New Game.

AMUSEMENTS

TONIGHT'S ATTRACTIONS.

LYCEUM—"The Girls From the Follies," burlesque.
ORPHEUM-STRAND—Walker Whiteside in "The Melting Pot," photoplay.
NEW GRAND—Vaudeville and photoplay.
REX—Billie Burke in "Peggy," photoplay.
LYRIC—William Farnum in "Fighting Blood" photoplay.
ZELDA—Nance O'Neil in photoplay.
SUNBEAM—Photoplay.

NEW LAURELS FOR WALKER WHITESIDE

Famous Dramatic Star Scores Heavily in "Melting Pot" at Orpheum.

Walker Whiteside, who has been favorably known to Duluth theatergoers for many years, will close his very successful screen engagement in "The Melting Pot" at the Orpheum-Strand tomorrow night. The audiences which have attended the Orpheum this week, have accorded the highest praise both to the players and to the Zangwill play.

This film production has thrilled American audiences by its patriotic tenor and was suppressed in England at the instance of the Russian ambassador to the court of St. James, because it gives a portrayal of Russian oppression.

Few motion-picture productions have aroused as much discussion among all classes of American citizens who have witnessed the presentation of the modern silent drama as this play by Israel Zangwill. Its photographic excellence, its exciting situations, its intensely dramatic scenes, its artistic acting and, above all, its patriotic theme have caused many who viewed the production to pronounce it one of the best productions of this season.

Walker Whiteside, who makes his debut as a pantomimist in this play, repeating on the screen the role of David Quixano, which he originated on the stage, by the same token is repeating his personal triumph in a new field. Assisting him is Valentine Grant, a familiar face on the screen, who adds to her film fame in her characterization of the Russian girl who rebels against the cruel practices of her country.

NANCE O'NEIL AT ZELDA.

Will Appear in Stellar Role of "Souls in Bondage."

One of the most appealing and uplifting stories of the new year is embodied in Daniel Carson Goodman's "Souls in Bondage," which will show at the Zelda for three days, commencing with tomorrow's matinee. Miss Nance O'Neil, conceded to be one of the best emotional actresses of the present generation, has the stellar role. She again proves her right to that distinction by her acting in this drama of the screen. It is no easy matter to provide suitable material for the proper expression of

NANCE O'NEIL.

Miss O'Neil's manifold talents, but in "Souls in Bondage" Dr. Goodman has furnished her with a vital human story, which Miss O'Neil declares to be the superior of any feature photoplay in which she has yet appeared. "Souls in Bondage" has a straight line story of heart interest.

Prominent in the cast supporting Nance O'Neil are Ida Stanhope and William Corbett. Miss Stanhope plays the part of Reta, the impulsive, headstrong sister, and opposite to Miss O'Neil, her work stands out. Mr. Corbett as Jillan, does some of the best work of his career.

RANGE FILM AT GRAND.

"Beyond the Law" Shows Northern Minnesota Scenes.

The picturesque winter scenery of Northern Minnesota is shown to great advantage in the three-part Essanay photoplay "Beyond the Law," which is being shown at the New Grand theater for the first half of this week. The films were taken on and around the high hill between Virginia and Eveleth, and the scenes are taken from Henry Oyen's famous story, "The Snowburner Pays," which is a tale of the snowfields of Alaska in the early mining days. E. H. Calvert and Marguerite Clayton are starred in this photoplay, which is one of the best seen at the Grand in many weeks in addition to its local interest.

As to the vaudeville program the Four Rennees, a quartet of attractive girls, appear in a scenic revue, offering a singing and dancing specialty of more than ordinary interest and cleverness. Italy, France, Holland and Egypt offer color to this act, and the dances are patterned after the characteristic dances of these countries. The costumes also are representative of those nations.

Reed and Paden, black and white comedians, offer a lively turn of song, dance and comedy. Frank Ward is a monologist of considerable talent, and he offers a song and dance novelty that has many entertaining features.

"Between Trains" is a dramatic playlet presented by three players. The motive of the sketch seems to be to teach a lesson in the maintaining of marital bliss in the household.

The photoplays present a good variety of subjects, and hold up well with the vaudeville. Today and tomorrow there will be another installment of the Stingaree stories.

Theater Gossip.

Winthrop Chamberlain writes as follows in the Minneapolis Journal of "The Yellow Jacket," which will be seen here Thursday, Friday and Saturday:

"The power of imagination has seldom been more strikingly exemplified than in the quaint Chinese-style production of 'The Yellow Jacket,' as played by Mr. and Mrs. Coburn and their associates at the Metropolitan last night.

"The play, written by George C. Hazelton and J. Harry Benrimo, is an odd mixture of Oriental romanticism and naive comedy, of curious theatric conventions and histrionic realism. But the singular thing is that, however much the audience may laugh at mountains made of tables and chairs, at weeping willow trees represented by bamboo poles, at the matter-of-course shifting of such 'scenery' by stolid and supposedly invisible scene-shifters, the audience's imagination works powerfully and efficiently. One might almost conclude that the Chinese and the Elizabethans were right in demanding that the audience as well as the players must 'make-believe.'

"It is in the manner of the telling that the romance is so oddly effective. Mr. Coburn himself engagingly plays the chorus, who, quite in Greek fashion, describes the changes of scenery, comments on the action of the play, and makes quaintly egotistical and celestially flowery announcements before the curtain. While the play goes on, he presides with severe dignity at the back of the stage, just in front of the alcove, where the two musicians contribute the 'effects' and play the characteristic Chinese music composed by William Furst."

* * *

"The Strange Case of Mary Page," which was begun at the New Sunbeam theater last week with such great success will be continued on the screen at that popular playhouse tomorrow and Thursday.

Henry Walthall and Edna Mayo, two of the best players in the silent drama,

"THE YELLOW JACKET" COMING TO LYCEUM.

"MARY PAGE" FILM AT SUNBEAM.

SIDE TALKS

By RUTH CAMERON

When Boys Fight

MANY interesting letters have come to me in answer to the letter friend's question whether one should invariably try to stop a street fight between boys. I am sorry that I could not use them all.

"As you say, 'to fight for a principle,'" writes one letter friend, "strikes some fine chords. But isn't your interpretation of the sentence merely a mental illusion produced by the use of one word for two separate meanings? The word 'fight' is commonly used in two ways: first, meaning to strive, to exert one's self for some end; second, in the sense of physical fighting, the object of which is to inflict the greatest possible damage upon an opponent. Now, which meaning is it which strikes the fine chords, the constructive or the destructive meaning; the sacrifice of one's self to an end, or the sacrifice of an opponent?"

Another recalls us to a viewpoint the world seems to have forgotten lately. "I surely would stop a fight if possible by telling the boys how wicked and degrading it is to fight. I would tell the one that was insulted or wronged he had better suffer wrong than do wrong, for God's Word tells us that. When the Lord Jesus was insulted and beaten, He didn't strike back or retaliate in any way, and He should be our example in everything."

A Mother Who Wants Her Boy to Fight if Necessary.

"I am only a mother of a boy whom I wish to be a perfect gentleman in the truest sense of the word," writes another woman, "and perhaps I am wrong in my opinion, but I am open to conviction. I believe there are times in every boy's life when he may use his fists and still be a gentleman. I want my own boy to be able to protect his honor and that of his loved ones with the two clean hands God has given him for his self-defense. I do not believe in fighting among boys and men usually, but there are occasions when a boy or man cannot be a gentleman and not fight. I think boys should not be taught never to fight—it takes the backbone out of a boy for the time when he may have to do it. He should be taught when to fight and when not to; there are many little insults and annoyances which may be overlooked, but who does not admire the man who can use his hands if necessary to protect the good name of his mother, sister or friend, also the sterling principles of his own manhood?"

She Has Reason to Hate Boys' Fights.

Again, "speaking about boys' fighting, my youngest brother, then a lad about 12, got into a fight with another about the same age but stronger. The only reason for the fight we could find out was that the other fellow 'had it in for him.' My brother came home with a very badly broken nose. What that boy suffered a doctor can tell you. My parents had large doctors' bills to pay, and they were poor. My brother is disfigured for life, and he would have been a handsome man. Consequently I stop every pair of boys fighting, telling them that fighting in anger may bring serious results."

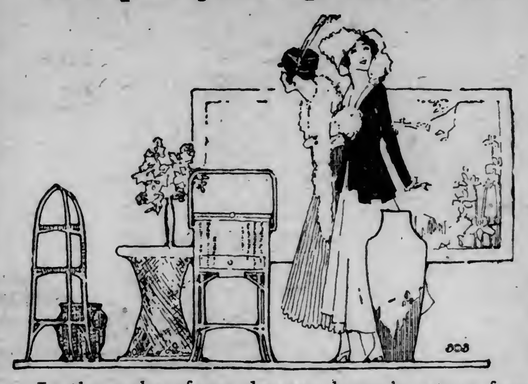
A Man Says, "The Principle Involved Is Law or Lawlessness."

"As to boy fights," writes a very logical person, "inasmuch as the law does not make any more provision for private boys to punish others than in the case of men, and inasmuch as fighting is unlawful, I cannot see why children should have a right to do the unlawful thing any more than men have. The principle involved is lawlessness. If boys are to have the right to mete out violent and unlawful punishment to those whom they think deserve it, why not men?"

(Protected by Adams Newspaper Service.)

FRENCH & BASSETT CO.

Charming Novelties
—In Our—
Drapery Department



In the wake of our drapery buyer's return from the Eastern markets comes the most charming things you ever have seen—all the clever little novelties that are popular in the East, and many other attractive articles.

Decorative Flowers
Roses, cherry blossoms, pond lilies, bachelor buttons, pussy willows, forget-me-nots, lilies of the valley, ferns and other flowers, which will remain bright and fresh for a long time.

New Lamps
Mahogany Floor Lamps; ivory and rose, blue and ivory and black and white Table Lamps in artistic designs.

Japanese Novelties
Japanese baskets of all kinds that are useful as well as ornamental.
Chinese embroidered skirts and other novelties in beautiful colorings for lamp shades and trimmings.
Imported Trays in typical Japanese designs and soft color effects.

Ruskin English Pottery
We were fortunate in securing one of the last shipments of this unique pottery. We are showing flower bowls and candlesticks in gold, green and terra cotta shades that are remarkably pretty.

Paper Weights
Japanese Tile Paper Weights in quaint designs and odd colors—a neat addition to your desk.

Shade Trimmings
Many beautiful silks in striking colors and a small lot of French metal galoons and gold and silver nets in new and novel effects.

Baskets
Hand decorated flower baskets for door stops and door knockers that are quite different in design and colorings.

CASH OR OUR NEW EASY TERMS

French & Bassett Co.
GOOD FURNITURE
Established 1884 First St. and Third Ave. W.

RESINOL A SAFE SKIN TREATMENT

You need never hesitate to use resinol ointment and resinol soap in the treatment of severe or simple skin troubles. There is nothing in them to injure the tenderest surface. Resinol is a doctor's prescription which, for over twenty years, has been constantly used by other physicians for eczema and other itching, burning, unsightly skin affections.

They prescribe resinol, knowing that its remarkable soothing, healing action is due to ingredients so gentle and harmless as to be suited to the most delicate skin—even of a tiny baby. All druggists sell resinol ointment and resinol soap.

How the Right Soap Can Help Your Skin

Money cannot buy a purer, more cleansing toilet soap than resinol soap. And the healing resinol medication in it helps to keep the complexion clear, fresh, and beautiful.

REMEMBER
The Duluth Floral Co.
Has Only One Store—
121 WEST SUPERIOR STREET.
Not on the Corner.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

appear in the leading roles, and are supported by a strong cast of Essanay players. Miss Mayo's gowns for this play were designed by "Lucile," Lady Duff Gordon and will show the latest spring and summer styles in women's dress.

First installment of this photoplay series of fifteen thrilling episodes won instant favor last week, and large crowds turned out to see it both days. Capacity houses are expected at the Sunbeam tomorrow and Thursday. Each episode is complete in itself but the mystery of the murder will not be disclosed until the final installment of the film.

* * *

"THE GIRLS FROM THE FOLLIES."

"The Girls From the Follies," with Harry Steppe, a genuinely funny and realtistic Hebrew comedian, featured, are entertaining the patrons of the Lyceum theater. The offerings contain many comedy situations, caused spasmodically by Steppe's Ghetto rich dialect and deft mannerisms. "Cohen On the East Side" is the title of the two-act musical jollification. In the first is disclosed a street scene, with Cut-rate Cohen's pawnshop in the foreground opposite Beefy Lana's meat emporium, and flanked in the rear by a saloon. Cohen and Lam, unlike other neighboring merchants from a burlesque viewpoint are bosom pals, minus the usual rivalry.

* * *

BARRYMORE COMING TO LYRIC.

While William Farnum is an acknowledged matinee idol who is exceptionally popular with the women—especially young women and girls—"Fighting Blood," the picture he is appearing in at the Lyric tonight for the last time, drew hundreds of men to see and admire Farnum.

This is explained to some extent as because he was playing in a story laid in the lumber camps of Kentucky. At any rate, the men did not regret seeing Farnum, and he won a new list of admirers this week.

Daniel Frohman tomorrow sends John Barrymore to the Lyric in the picture that carried the East by storm, "Nearly a King." The story, by William H. Clifford and picturized by the Famous Players company, is a comedy of romance and adventure.

It is a novel screen comedy, giving John Barrymore wide latitude for his talents, his unique and amazing versatility in making people laugh. Blanche Sweet is due to return to the Lyric Friday in "The Blacklist," a picture that upset staid old Philadelphia.

* * *

BILLIE BURKE IN SCREEN DEBUT.

"They are turning them away at the Rex," was the message from that theater Sunday and Monday, where an unprecedented run is being experienced for Billie Burke in that sugary play, "Peggy," which captivated the Duluth theater-goers. There are no reserved seats, and the customary prices prevail at the Rex for this Triangle picture sensation—Miss Burke's first film play. The advice is given out by the management that those who contemplate seeing the picture this afternoon and tonight should get to the theater in good time.

"'Peggy' not only introduces Miss Burke to the Duluth public again, this time in the motion pictures," said Manager Thomas Furniss, "but it has opened the eyes of the Duluth public to the beauty of all Triangle pictures. They are winning more friends every week."

Dorothy Gish will be seen at the Rex for three days this week, beginning Thursday in "Betty of Graystone," and De Wolf Hopper next Sunday in "Don Quixote."

ANOTHER ROAD FALLS INTO LINE

New York Central Will Also Have Passenger Agent Here.

Another big railway system has recognized the growing importance of Duluth and has established its own passenger representative here. Today the New York Central Railway company established F. J. Bambach, formerly representating the New York Central in Salt Lake City, as passenger agent in Duluth.

J. E. Dwyer, assistant general passenger agent of the New York Central lines with headquarters in Chicago, is here with Mr. Bambach. In speaking of the conditions that led to the decision to establish an agent here, Mr. Dwyer declared that increasing Eastern passenger business originating at this point, was one reason, while the belief of the New York Central officials that Duluth was one of the growing passenger centers of the Northwest was the second and the greatest.

"Some time ago we decided to have a direct passenger representative here," said Mr. Dwyer. "The officials of the Pennsylvania were evidently inspired by the same thought. They have beaten us in here in the matter of arriving on the ground, but I will say that some time ago our determination in regard to Duluth had been arrived at.

"Duluth is giving us more business every day. A large amount of Eastern passenger business originates at this point, and under the conditions we thought it would serve our interests best to have our own passenger man here."

Mr. Bambach will have headquarters with S. J. Bigelow, commercial agent of the New York Central lines here. Mr. Bambach's appointment became effective March 1, according to Mr. Dwyer, there being some delay in effecting the transfer from Salt Lake City.

Crow Wing Snowfall.

Brainerd, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—The snowfall in Crow Wing county March 5 was 1.5 inches. March 6 yielded 5.5 inches with more of the beautiful wafted down today and delaying operation of trains.

His Majesty the Baby Reigns at Masonic Temple While Doctors Worry Over His "Statistics"

—Photos by Gallagher.

EXAMPLE OF INSANITARY ROOM.

This is an example, which the nurses at the exhibit say is not overdrawn, of the room in which many a baby spends the first days of its life, and many more days. There are no sheets on the bed, the comfort is soiled and torn, papers and soiled towels litter the floor, and dishes, with the remnants of food still on them, are next to the medicine bottles on the table.

NURSE WEIGHING BABY.

The past matrons of the Eastern Star show in their booth the proper ways of weighing and bathing babies. There are examples of tubs from a 10-cent tin one to a dainty white enameled one. All the necessary articles for the baby's toilet, such as castile soap, boric acid and olive oil, are shown and photographic posters illustrate the proper ways of caring for infants.

Absolutely unconcerned about their relative merits and demerits were the fifteen babies who were taken to the Masonic temple yesterday afternoon for the scoring. If the doctors and nurses considered them all that babies should be, very good; if they didn't, well, it was all right, and a nap was just about the best thing to take up time that otherwise would drag.

A small miss of less than a year, with Billie Burke hair—if the sample can be depended upon—slapped the table and smiled alluringly while her mother told the nurse who was taking down statistics that Billie Burke the second ate cereals. A sturdy young man in rompers insisted upon taking walks in the corridors in his efforts to find the babies who were crying in the room where weights and measurements were taken. And the crying was confined to the examination room, as the babies were perfectly contented when in the waiting room. Two hundred babies have been entered for the scoring that is in charge of nurses and physicians.

Booths Are Opened.

The fifteen booths in the banquet hall, that are in charge of various organizations, were opened this afternoon. At 8:30 o'clock tonight the following program will be given in the auditorium of the temple:

Organ—Allegro .....Mendelssohn
"Cradle Song" .....Parker
Mrs. F. W. Spicer.
Remarks .....
T. W. Hugo.
"Pre-natal Care" .....
Dr. W. A. Coventry.
Violin—"Liebesfreud" .....Kreisler
Mrs. Jay Finkelson.
"Care of the Teeth" .....
Dr. McFadden.
Voice—"Yesterday and Today" .....
"Will o' the Wisp" .....Spross
Mrs. Walter Adams.

Good and Bad Toys.

The anti-Montessori method of "See what Johnnie is doing and tell him not to do it" is provided against by some of the booths which not only show what is bad for children, but also do constructive work by showing what is good for them. One of the best examples of contrast is the booth of the Saturday club, which shows good and bad toys and, by posters, points out the disadvantages of many toys that have been sanctioned by generations of carelessness.

"No, no, mustn't touch. That will hurt the baby. Mary, take the button hook away from the baby, he'll get it caught in his wind pipe. Henry, take the scissors away from sister, she'll jab her eyes out," are some of the stock warnings that are called to mind by the representatives of the bad classes of toys, such as bean shooters, scissors, button hooks and glass beads. Hanging next to the pointed scissors, that suggest gore and wails, are blunt ones that make cut work and paper dolls safe amusements. Next to glass beads that slide down children's throats with the agility of slippery elm are large, round and square wooden beads that could be swallowed only with great effort.

The contrast between good and bad toys is not theoretical, as many have been tried out and show the effect of having been played with. The pewter tea set, illustrative of the bad type, and the white enameled set, representing the good, give evidence of having done duty at enough tea parties to disturb the digestion of scores of dolls.

The Pin-Eyed Dog.

Of course, you remember your woolly dog with eyes as bright as those of any animal with hydrophobia. Ten to one, his eyes were glass-headed pins, which you took out and swallowed if you were hungry, or you had nothing more exciting to do. This pin-eyed (not pin-headed dog) is among the dangerous toys in the exhibit, keeping company with "mouth" toys, such as harps that spread disease and horns that spread disease and paint.

The public school kindergarten shows many clever toys that were made by children, such as dolls made of a kid glove, a potato, a clothes pin or corks, and an engine and a library set made of cylindrical boxes and spools. The background of this booth is a large American flag, made of paper chains, the work of Washington kindergarten. One of the most interesting features of this booth is the contrast between a bad and a good yard. An ash heap—with the accompaniment of tin cans, a slack clothes line with the clothes dragging in the dirt, and chickens and a cow roaming at will, make a desolate spot. Just across the division fence is an ideal yard with a sand pile, garden, tent and see-saw. Complete in every detail is the doll house which was made by Miss Roberts of the Madison school.

A complete layette and a bassinet are in the Twentieth Century club booth. One large doll in night clothes is in a basket and another doll, in a white dimity dress, is wide awake. On the walls of the booth are articles of clothing for infants that were made by members of the club, with the price of each article indicated. The exhibit also contains baby clothes that can be bought ready made.

Model Kitchen.

The Daughters of Liberty chapter, D. A. R., shows in its booth a model kitchen with a suitable food for babies and a refrigerator that can be made for about 50 cents.

The public library shows books that relate to children, all of which are in the library. The collection includes books on cookery and the care of children and story books for children of various ages.

In the booth of the St. Louis County Medical association are baby foods, bottles and the articles needed for the proper preparation of the foods and the care of the bottles.

The Nopeming booth shows views of the children's pavilion and examples of their handwork.

As the proper ways of clothing, feeding, weighing and dressing children are shown by other booths, the purpose of the Children's home booth is to make the youngsters who visit the exhibit feel at home. A small tea table with four chairs strikes the note of hospitality.

These are a few of the booths that point out the good and the bad things for babies, with the object of showing plainly to mothers that carelessness in the care of children is responsible for the high infant mortality that has aroused the entire country.

You've Been Asleep Now For Two Months, and It's About Time You Shook Yourself and Woke Up!

WHERE is all that old "pep" you once had, where is all that shrewdness you once possessed which made everyone respect as well as admire you? Have you lost them, or have you got so far in the "rut" that you are satisfied in getting what you are handed and letting it go at that? If that is the case, then it's time you opened your eyes and investigated things!

Here is what we are getting at: We know you like motion pictures, but the question is, what kind do you like? The indifferent, the fair or the best? We are showing the best. Don't take our word for it, but ask our patrons, or better still, come and see them and judge for yourself. We know you'll be convinced the same as others were. When we say that we are showing the best, we are not trifling with words but have the pictures to back up our statement.

Two months ago our pictures were in that "fair" class. We had a theater that could compare with any in the Northwest for its size; our music was by far the best in the city; our ventilation was beyond criticism, but business was only fair. Something was wrong. What was it? Slowly it dawned on us; then we woke up! "Fair pictures, fair business; good pictures, good business," we exclaimed. Grabbing a motion picture directory, we eagerly, but carefully, studied it over so as to make no mistake this time. We looked them all over, then decided, and with us to decide is to do. We made a flying trip to the cities where we closed one of the largest picture contracts in the Northwest and thereby secured the right to show the best feature plays obtainable—Big Four, V. L. S. E. Features and Metro Wonder Plays, which are considered to be the cream of the motion picture industry today.

We have been showing these pictures for about two months now and what we said about "good pictures, good business" goes, because business with us is fine. Now it's up to you. If you are satisfied with the kind of pictures that you have been getting, alright, but if you want to see the best, go to the

ZELDA THEATER

"Where Everybody Goes"

STANDARD PRICE OF 10c

CONFIDENCE in Your DENTIST

means supreme satisfaction to you. We can't win your confidence unless you give us a trial. The reason we can perform expert dentistry at low cost is that we treat hundreds of patients where the ordinary dentist treats one. It's the volume of business at small profit that enables us to save you about 50 per cent of your dental bills.

GOLD CROWN BRIDGEWORK As Low As $3

We have the largest, most sanitary and modern dental offices in the Northwest. All the latest appliances to make dentistry painless.

NEW METHOD DENTISTS

25 West Superior Street—Over Bon Ton Bakery.

WILL INVITE CONSULS TO RED CROSS BAZAR

Philip Bayha and Fred Kahan were appointed members of the general finance committee of the German-Austro-Hungarian Relief association at a meeting held last night at the office of the German Press, 200 Exchange Bank building. Max Binheim, president of the association and manager of the Red Cross and War Relief bazar, which will be given under the auspices of the association at the Duluth auditorium, from March 23 to March 26, presided. Business and professional men, and the ministers of the different churches were present. Rabbi Maurice Lefkovits and A. Fitger addressed the meeting.

The following men were requested to invite the German and Austrian consuls of St. Paul to attend the fair: Chairman, Max Binheim, Percy S. Annecke, Charles L. Rakowsky, Rev. J. C. Smoley, Fred Kahan, B. Eyffert and Anton Bassetich. The following were appointed delegates to spread propaganda for the Red Cross bazar and fair on the range: F. Kahan, Rev. W. Sievers, Anton Bassetich and Tony Grepo. These men will spend about a week in the different cities on the iron ranges and make addresses before the different German and Austro-Hungarian societies, lodges and organizations. The next meeting of the business men's committee will be held on Saturday, March 18, at 8 o'clock, at the office of the German Press, 200 Exchange Bank building, and at that time additional members of the committee will be selected to serve as members of a general reception committee.

At last night's meeting, it was decided to request the German and Austro-Hungarian consuls to act as honorary presidents of the relief association.

Manager Max Binheim announces that besides the consuls, Mayor Prince, Commissioner Silberstein and Rabbi Lefkovits are scheduled for addresses on the opening night. He also announces that among the soloists, who will be heard during the three days of the bazar and fair, will be the following:

Mrs. Donna Riblette Flaaten, Mrs. Homer Anderson, Miss Eleanore Kraft, Gustav Jackson, Franz von Loew, Louis Dworshak, Walter Lang and others. Boys and girls will be seen in club swinging, flag drill, dumb bells, and other athletic exhibitions. A mass chorus of German school children will sing and the Germania Singing society will be heard on the opening night.

LEFT MONEY FOR LITTLE FALLS' POOR

Little Falls Minn., March 7.—This city will get between $600 and $700 for its poor fund from the Josiah Page estate. The south eighty acres of the farm in Pike Creek belonging to the estate was sold for $3,200 to Charles H. Arvidson of Pike Creek at a public sale conducted by Judge of Probate E. F. Shaw, executor of the estate.

The will of Josiah Page, who died a year ago, left the residue of his estate, after expenses and several other bequests were paid, to the city of Little Falls to be used for the care of the poor. The county will get $2,000 to be used for installing a clock in the courthouse tower. The expenses of administration of the estate and a verdict of $539 obtained in district court by Charles and Warren Page for the care of their mother must also be paid out of the money realized from the sale of the land.

MATCH FACTORY FOR BRAINERD

Brainerd, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Brainerd Booster club has received assurances that A. J. Bemis, general manager of the Whitney Utilities of St. Cloud is considering the advisability of establishing a match factory here. It is thought by-products of the gas plant the Whitney people are to establish in the city added to materials from the Northwest Paper company can be utilized to good advantage in the manufacture of matches.

Indigestion May Be Due to Constipation

Neglect of Important Function May Seriously Impair the Health.

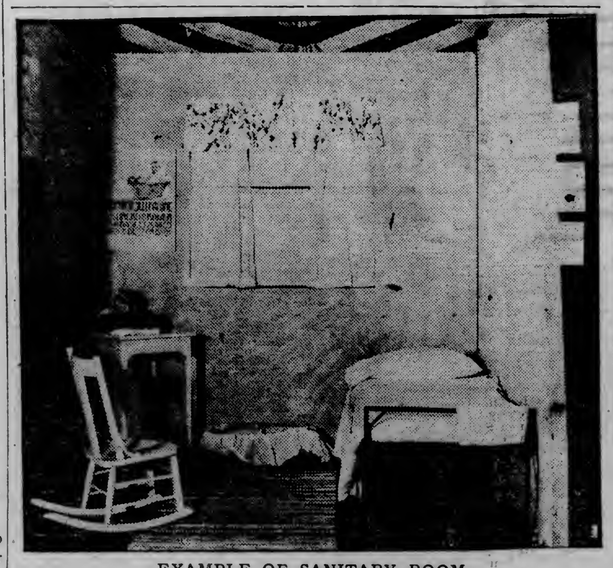
There are many people who believe they suffer from indigestion when their discomfort really is due to a constipated condition.

Bloat, with its attendant mental depression, sick-headache, the belching of sour stomach gases, etc., are frequently due to inaction of the bowels. Relieve the congestion and the trouble usually disappears. The use of catharties and purgatives should be avoided, however; these shock the system unnecessarily and, at best, their effect is but temporary. A mild laxative is far preferable.

The compound of simple laxative herbs known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and sold in drug stores for fifty cents a bottle, is highly recommended. Mr. Benj. Bassin, 3660 Madison St., Gary, Ind., thinks Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin a wonderful medicine; for four years he had a severe case of indigestion and constipation before trying Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which he is glad to recommend to all who suffer with stomach and bowel trouble.

BENJ. BASSIN.

A bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin should be in every home for use when occasion arises. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.



EXAMPLE OF SANITARY ROOM.

The Association of Collegiate Alumnae has shown how a sanitary room can be provided at small cost. The plain iron bed is clean and well made. A white enameled table and chairs and dainty curtains complete the furnishings. Miss Ella Evanson, the city pre-natal nurse, will be at this booth to give instructions.

CAMMEYER

Branch De Luxe 381 Fifth Avenue New York

Exclusive footwear for Men Women & Children

Announces an Exhibition of Spring Footwear at the HOTEL ST. LOUIS

MARCH 8 AND 9.

THE DULUTH HERALD

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

Published every evening except Sunday by The Herald Company at Duluth, Minn.

Both Telephones—Business Office, 324; Editorial Rooms, 1126.

Entered as second-class matter at the Duluth postoffice under the act of congress of March 3, 1870.

OFFICIAL PAPER, CITY OF DULUTH

SUBSCRIPTION RATES—By mail, payable in advance, one month, 35 cents; three months, $1; six months, $2; one year, $4; Saturday Herald, $1 per year; Weekly Herald, $1 per year.

Daily by carrier, city and suburbs, 10 cents a week, 45 cents a month

Subscribers will confer a favor by making known any complaint of service.

When changing the address of your paper, it is important to give both old and new addresses.

The Duluth Herald accepts advertising contracts with the distinct guarantee that it has the largest circulation in Minnesota outside the Twin Cities.

The Herald will be glad to have its attention called to any misleading or untrue statement which may appear in its news, editorial or advertising columns.

TODAY IN HISTORY.

Florida admitted to statehood, 1845.

Ponce de Leon's discovery of Florida while searching for the fabled "fountain of perpetual youth"—and finding a grave—put it under the Spanish flag, though the French Huguenot settlement at Fort Caroline raised an issue which led to the extermination of the colony when Menendez established a fort at St. Augustine, 1565. Florida was ceded to England in 1763, but was returned in 1783. Jackson, warring against the Seminoles, invaded Florida on his own authority, taking Pensacola, which was returned, but in 1821 Florida, by treaty, passed to the United States, and was organized as a territory in March, 1822.

READING (available in Duluth public library)—Parkman, Pioneers of France in the New World (the first volume of his brilliant and entertaining series covering the struggle between France and England for the possession of America); Sidney Lanier, Florida, Its Scenery, Climate and History.

THE NEW WAR SECRETARY.

Newton D. Baker of Cleveland, whom President Wilson has selected to be secretary of war in his cabinet, is not at all unknown to fame, though hitherto his association with warfare has been with the war on graft and privilege and miscellaneous evils in public life. He was the political heir of the late Tom Johnson, and along with Frederic C. Howe, whom President Wilson has also honored with an important appointment, is probably the most notable of the little school of good citizenship which Tom Johnson left behind him.

What Mr. Baker's ideas on military equipment are we do not know but will presently discover. That he is not bigotedly committed to an extravagant system of militarism can safely be set down as fact; otherwise he would not have been appointed by the president. That he is in favor of the president's moderate and sensible program may also be taken for granted, for the same reason.

Above all, from his record it is also perfectly safe to expect that he will be a loyal and aggressive supporter of the president in every forward movement toward social justice and economic fair play. In Cleveland he fought hard and fought fairly for right things in public life, and he will keep that up in the cabinet.

If, on examining the comment upon this appointment, it is discovered that advocates of Prussianizing the Republic are much discontented with it, the public may rest assured that the appointment is a thoroughly good one.

If the peanut politicians in the house can't play enough hob in two hours of talk on the McLemore resolution, then they aren't entitled to talk at all.

THE DIFFERENCE.

The latest epithets are "pacifist" and "militarist." They are being heatedly exchanged to the vast bewilderment of those who are neither. They represent two types of thought, polar opposites, toward one or the other of which everybody will gravitate as soon as he gets to thinking on the subject at all.

Disregarding the contempt put into these terms by those who hurl them at the other fellow, it is worth while analyzing the difference between them.

Fundamentally, it seems to us, this difference is this: that the militarist thinks the machinery of civilization should be perfected for the making of war—that is, for the destruction of civilization; while the pacifist believes that the machinery of civilization should be perfected for the promotion of life, liberty and human well-being—that is to say, for the purpose of civilization.

No doubt certain cities will find fault because it was Cleveland's ex-mayor who was called to the cabinet.

OPPORTUNITY IS NOT GONE.

Richard Jackson was elected the other day to be a director in the firm of B. Altman & Co., New York.

And thereby hangs a tale such as we used to hear more of.

B. Altman & Co. is one of the greatest drygoods houses in the country. It has more than four thousand employes.

Richard Jackson is forty-two years old. Twenty-eight years ago he started with the Altman house as a cashboy. Eleven years ago he went into the advertising department, and soon became its head. Now he is a director.

But that isn't all.

The president of the company says that there are twelve directors, and that every one of the twelve began as a cashboy, office boy or driver and worked his way up.

That sort of thing is going on all the time, all around us. Every day young men—and women—who give to their work energy, thought, study and persistence are going by other young men and women who give for their wages just what they have to give and no more, and who outside of languid working hours are hoping the heavens will open and send them good fortune.

Hugh Chalmers, for instance. He started with John H. Patterson of the National Cash Register company at four dollars a week, and when he quit the other day he was getting seventy-two thousand dollars a year.

Opportunity isn't gone. Those who think it has ended are merely overlooking it. Those who are clambering up the rounds are looking for it; finding it and taking it.

There are always opportunities for those who are industrious, loyal, persistent, studious and thrifty.

The world always is holding out hands full of gold to those who have intelligence and energy and who learn how to use them.

It doesn't take a born financier to start a snow bank.

IMPORTANT BUSINESS BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

This is election year.

The people of Minnesota and the United States are to elect a president and vice president; some senators and all their representatives in congress, governors and other state officers; state legislatures and some local officers.

These are matters of high importance, all of them; so important that the presidency, the governorships and perhaps congressional elections are likely to absorb most of the public attention.

Yet there are important matters besides these.

Other state offices besides governor are important. The legislature is of the highest importance. Often local officers are more directly important than president, governor or legislature.

And in Minnesota there are some proposed constitutional amendments, some of them of the highest importance.

In Minnesota—especially Northern Minnesota—nothing should be permitted to obscure the tremendous importance of Amendment No. 1—that providing for the setting apart of a reclamation revolving fund to be used in developing and settling state land.

For far-reaching consequences nothing before the voters of Minnesota this year is more important than this amendment.

Everybody is said to have left Verdun. Which goes to prove that not everybody in Europe is entirely bereft of reason.

"WE HAVE WITH US TONIGHT."

Duluth today is entertaining a real, live candidate for the presidency. Of course that isn't quite so startling as it would be if presidential candidates were not so thick that nearly every state has one or two; but still it is an event, and this particular candidate's oratory will give it substance and character fitting its eminence.

The candidate who is in Duluth today is the mysterious Mr. Estabrook—Henry Dodge, of New York, some time of Nebraska, and now of the United States. Mr. Estabrook is on the presidential primary ballot in Minnesota, and also has a set of delegates in the field: a notable fact about whom is that they are really for him, and not for somebody other than they pretend to be for. He is spending some time in this state in the interest of his candidacy, and no matter what the outcome next Tuesday, he is making them sit up and take notice. Though little known in politics, he seems to be well known to lawyers and to those familiar with the stars of after-dinner oratory—"one of whom he is which." He talks old-fashioned Mark Hanna, William McKinley, full-dinner pail, advance-agent-of-prosperity Republican doctrine of a kind that sounds fearfully strange and lonesome in these progressive times; but whatever he talks he gilds with the glory of real oratory. Also, he is a noted criminal lawyer, which somehow seems to fit his new G. O. P. client.

Duluth is glad to see him and to hear him, anyway, as he is the only presidential candidate likely to call this spring, and bids him welcome.

When somebody tries to tell you of the easy landing a foreign army would find on our coasts, ask him how he'd like to be a foreign army in just that kind of a scrape.

What Ails the Standpatters.

Kansas City Star: The standpatters know that they are generally exceedingly genial persons with the best intentions in the world toward everybody. So for the life of them they can't understand why they aren't popular with the world at large. Perhaps they would come to a better understanding if they would consider carefully this accurate description of the conservative, written years ago by John Morley:

With his inexhaustible patience of abuses that only torment others; his apologetic words for beliefs that may not be so precisely true as one might wish, and institutions that are not altogether so useful as some might think possible; HIS CORDIALITY TOWARD PROGRESS AND IMPROVEMENT IN A GENERAL WAY, AND HIS COLDNESS OR ANTIPATHY TO EACH PROGRESSIVE PROPOSAL IN PARTICULAR; his pygmy hope that life will one day become somewhat better, punily shivering by the side of his gigantic conviction that it might well be infinitely worse.

The words in capitals explain the trouble with the standpatter.

Painless Patriotism.

Boston Transcript: "How quickly some of those immigrants assimilate our ideas and methods!"

"As for instance?"

"Well, I asked my Italian barber if he was going home to fight and he said he wasn't; that he had paired with an Austrian in the next block."

The Democracy of Boils.

Detroit Free Press: The kaiser is like the rest of us in this: He can't have a boil on the back of his neck without everybody knowing it.

The First of Its Kind.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: A Columbus woman has a hat made of fifty new one-dollar bills. The only fifty-dolar hat we ever heard of that was worth the money.

A Forgotten Oath!

Editorial in the New York World.

By a vote of 68 to 14 the senate of the United States has declared in substance that the capital of the United States is still Washington and not Berlin; that the president of the United States is still Woodrow Wilson and not Wilhelm II, and that the foreign affairs of the United States are still in the hands of the president and not in the hands of the kaiser.

That is the true interpretation of yesterday's action, in spite of Senator Gore's dishonest parliamentary trick to give the lie to his own resolution and add further to the president's embarrassments. It ought not to be without moral effect in Berlin, where the belief prevails in official German circles that congress is five to one against the president on the question of whether Germany's pledges to the United States shall be kept and whether the United States will maintain its rights under international law. It ought to have a decisive effect upon the house of representatives, which is not yet sure whether it is pro-American or pro-German.

The American people will wonder more and more about the origin of this amazing insurrection and the purposes behind it. Senator Gore, one of the senate ringleaders, insists that somebody told him the president favored war with Germany, and "I feared it might be true." With due respect to Senator Gore, we do not believe that he believed anything of the kind.

There has not been a day since the sinking of the Lusitania when the president could not have plunged the United States into war with Germany if he had wished. He is the man who has kept the United States out of war. There is not an American citizen outside of a lunatic asylum or a home for idiots who does not know this to be true. Senator Gore is neither a lunatic nor a fool, and when he tries to excuse himself by pretending that he feared the president was seeking war, he knows he is not telling the truth. He had no such fears and could have had no such fears. If he had had fears and had been honest in them, he would have lost no time in communicating with the president before he sought to take action which in itself was an invitation to war.

We have yet to unravel the tangled skein of motive in which all this miserable business is involved. The one clear fact is that it has done irrevocable harm to the foreign relations of the United States and has strengthened the hand of the German government against the president to such an extent that war may be the inevitable result. It has given to Germany a new confidence that the German propaganda in this country is supreme, that congress is its slave and that the president is powerless to hold Berlin to its pledges.

The action of the senate will help to undo some of the damage, regardless of the crooked Gore amendment. Decisive action on the part of the house will further minimize the harm. But much of the evil can never be recalled. A staggering blow has been dealt to the honor, the prestige and the influence of the United States in foreign affairs, and many of the men who are responsible are men who only three months ago took a solemn oath of allegiance to the republic.

Why Leisure Classes Take to War

San Francisco Bulletin: The leisure classes of Europe have had a good deal of credit for their willingness to get themselves killed. It seemed a handsome thing to do, especially if one overlooked the possibility that without leisure classes there might have been no war. In peace, it might be admitted, they were a nuisance, but in war they were a necessity.

A less glowing theory is suggested by Will Irwin, who in this war has proven himself the equal of any war correspondent that ever put pencil to paper or longed to assassinate a censor. Irwin writes of war as a delirium, a madness, a gigantic jag, with all the unwholesome exhilaration of drunkenness. He does not embrace the contention of stay-at-home militarists that war is "a healthy reaction toward noble ideals;" to him "it is precisely like the action of a voluptuary who, a little jaded by ordinary stimuli to his sensations, tries a wholly new stimulus—like hashish." "This is the reason," he concludes, "why the leisure class, which has a monopoly of artificial means for intensifying life, is the class which takes the greatest interest in war."

If this diagnosis is correct it accounts for some truly American symptoms manifested upon the Atlantic seaboard, and especially in the neighborhood of New York city

War Hard on the Old.

London Times: A venerable and admirable actress, now at an age when women boast of their years instead of trying to conceal them, recently gave the world her reasons for returning from a long retirement—briefly, she takes up work again to get away from the evenings at home, the knitting, the silence and solitude, in which old people's thoughts revolve about the human situation as we find it.

Hers was a plucky resolution. Work is ever the great resource against thinking over things "whose truth we fear." You think about the work instead! Knitting is, at this stage mechanical. It serves only to set the thoughts wandering uneasily over France, Flanders, and the East.

Thus this second war winter begins to bring out of a relative seclusion numbers of old people who do not care to face the fireside again, wondering about news or no news. On the other hand, there are many of them who cannot work and who do not care to venture into our new "blind" streets glimmering in the nearly invariable rain.

It is pathetic, regrettable, that many old people have literally been killed by the war—the endless circles of its pain disturbing, enveloping, finally engulfing them.

Rippling Rhymes

By Walt Mason

House and Home.

"I own my house, but have no home," said J. Augustus Cork, as wearily he tried to comb his whiskers with a fork. "My house is strictly up to date, with every modern fad, and visitors pronounce it great, and think I should be glad. An English butler buttles round, and wields a frozen stare; imported maids are on the ground, to comb my lady's hair. And I have works of art to burn, all swell and reshershay, with here a bust or Grecian urn, and there 'The Stag at Bay.' No kids along the hallway rush, or bump along the stair, but over all's a solemn hush, as though a corpse were there. The kids would like full well to romp, and raise a howdyho, but they must live up to our pomp and vulgar noise eschew. I have a house but not a home, and hence my air of gloom; this mansion, with its gaudy dome, is cheerless as a tomb. I'd like to swap this swell abode, with all its works of art, for that cheap cottage down the road, where first we made our start."

(Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.)

Gardner For Roosevelt

By Savoyard.

Washington, March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Hon. Augustus Peabody Gardner, now serving his seventh term in congress, is to politics what old Israel Putnam was to arms—intrepid, indefatigable, irrepressible. You cannot but respect him, and now and then he commands your admiration. He believes something and is absolutely fearless in the expression of any opinion he may hold on any issue. A Martin Luther of a man, he constantly journeys to Worms and would take up his quarters there, even though every particular brick in every house were to cry out against and revile him. A typical Yankee, he is firm in the opinion that it would have been of immense advantage to the Apostle Paul had he been reared in Boston, nourished on codfish, baked beans and doughnuts, been graduated from Harvard, and had daily converse on matters of theology, ethics and politics with Theodore Parker.

Mr. Gardner, a son-in-law of Senator Lodge, by the way, is of the very aristocracy of the Republican party. Charles James Fox, when he wrote his history of James II, refused to employ any word that could not be found in the works of Dryden, and Mr. Gardner suspects any politics that will not bear the test when the preachments of John Quincy Adams and Charles Sumner are applied to them. He is a man of very considerable endowment of mind, but his strong, forceful, independent, unfeigned exhibition of character is his chief asset as a statesman.

* * *

A standpatter of the first water, a Republican from skin to core and from core to skin, Mr. Gardner was valorous and formidable in his assaults on all manner of Bull Moosery in the past. He believes that Aldrichism is the soul of statecraft, unmindful or defiant of the patent fact that Socialism in American politics is the child of Aldrichism in political economy, and another sixteen years of Aldrichism in Washington will make certain a Socialist president and a Socialist congress. Wilsonism is all that stands between the American people and Socialism.

The war in Europe has brought Mr. Gardner and Col. Roosevelt together. They are in perfect accord. Their sympathies are with the Entente allies and they feel that America will be disgraced if Germany shall be licked without our joining in the struggle against her. A little more than a century ago, when the embargo of Jefferson's administration was in force, Massachusetts was pretty nearly of opinion that Sam Adams acted rashly in fomenting the glorious rebellion of 1776. And in 1916 Massachusetts would vote overwhelmingly to sustain a regime in Washington that would put in force a treaty of alliance between the empire of Great Britain and the republic of the United States of America.

* * *

In the Republican party we find a whole deck of "two-spots" seeking the nomination for president. The great majority of the rank and file hope for the nomination of Mr. Justice Hughes and his acceptance, for it is instinctive with them to feel that no "two-spot" can beat Wilson. But it is pretty well understood that Justice Hughes will not accept, and Col. Roosevelt is conceded by all candid and observant folk as the next strongest man after Hughes to oppose Wilson.

Mr. Gardner is for Roosevelt and doubtless he prefers the colonel to Hughes, for nobody knows what Hughes thinks about the war, while everybody knows that if Roosevelt had been elected president in 1912 we would be in the thick of the European war at this blessed moment as an ally of the enemies of Germany. Then if Roosevelt shall be nominated the paramount and sole issue will be peace or war, for it is certain that Wilson will be nominated and everybody knows that he is for strict and rigid neutrality.

* * *

But what of the bosses—Barnes, Penrose, Crane and their fellows? They are whistling to keep their courage up and they will tell their following that anybody can beat Wilson. However, they are busy, and their supremest energies are devoted to picking "uninstructed" delegates to the convention whom they can control and will own after the fashion of a Quay or a Platt. Their plan is to hold a dark horse in reserve, and after a hundred fruitless ballots have been taken they hope to trot him out and gallop away with the stakes.

That might work if Theodore Roosevelt were a novice or a mollycoddle. He is neither. His convention, too, will be in session at the same time in the same town and the bosses cannot play their game without detection. Then when it becomes manifest that the bosses have the "regular" convention in subjection Roosevelt will tip the wink to his convention by which he will be nominated and then he will say to Barnes, Penrose, Crane and company, "Choose between me and Wilson."

It is not likely that the bosses want a duplicate of the affair of 1912, and the chances are they will nominate the colonel.

* * *

But the bosses are not going to pick all the delegates to the regular convention. That is a game in the playing of which the colonel is a past master, as was shown in 1904 and 1908. Mr. Gardner heads a strong Roosevelt ticket in Massachusetts, and Mr. Weeks is in danger there. In Kentucky it was supposed that Fairbanks had the delegation nailed down. Mr. Morrow, the Republican boss, went over to Indianapolis some weeks ago and presented Fairbanks with the Kentucky delegation; bupt it turns out that there is a hitch and the Indiana man will be fortunate if he gets six votes from the Kentucky squad.

The others will be for Hughes first and Roosevelt second. Depend on it, if Hughes should positively refuse the nomination Teddy will fall heir to nearly all his strength in the "regular" convention and that will be a aplenty.

The Way It Came About.

Life: The managers of Everybody's Railroad had a meeting to decide about the proper lighting system for their passenger cars.

"What we want," said the first manager, "is a light which will permit our conductors and brakemen to grope their way through the cars without injury. As for the passengers, they have too much done for them already. They are a spoiled lot."

"I don't quite agree with you," said the second manager. "In my opinion, our passenger cars ought to be well lighted. Passengers ought to be able to read their papers at night without ruining their eyes."

The president of the road, who had the deciding vote, now spoke.

"In my opinion," said he, "there should be a happy compromise between your divergent views. I suggest that our cars be lighted well enough to keep the passengers from grumbling, but not so well lighted that they can read continuously without injuring their eyes."

That is how it was (and is) done.

It Isn't Raining Rain to Me.

It isn't raining rain to me,
It's raining daffodils;
In ev'ry dimpled drop I see
Wild flowers on the hills;
The clouds of gray engulf the day
And overwhelm the town,
It isn't raining rain to me,
It's raining roses down.

It isn't raining rain to me,
But fields of clover bloom,
Where ev'ry buccaneering bee
May find a bed and room;
A health unto the happy ones,
A fig for him who frets,
It isn't raining rain to me,
It's raining violets.

—Robert Loveman.

Political Straws in the Minnesota Breezes

Campaign Subjects Discussed by Minnesota Editors.

Why, Man, What if They Should Be Pledged to Cummins.

Ada Herald: Will some good, honest Republican tell us why the Minnesota delegation to the national Republican convention should not vote for Bob La Follette of Wisconsin for their presidential nominee?

Will He Stick?

Donnelly Star: Sam Iverson is now the only candidate against Burnquist for the Republican nomination for governor. And take it from me, Ikey, if Sam Iverson sticks he is going to give Burnquist one awful run for his money.

Is That a "Sure Thing?"

Alexandria Citizen: Congressman Lindbergh has withdrawn from the gubernatorial contest. He undoubtedly concluded that Governor Burnquist would be elected to succeed himself as governor, and Mr. Lindbergh is looking for a sure thing. The Citizen predicts that he will again be a candidate for congress from the Sixth district. Mr. Lindbergh is some politician.

Also It Takes a Real Man to Do It.

Hibbing Mesaba Ore: That President Wilson changed his mind is about the extent of the thunder the Republicans have to hurl against him. Every great statesman of this nation, from George Washington down to the present time, has changed his mind at a critical time: It is the fellow that does not change his mind that is really dangerous.

"Credit" Is Very, Very Good.

Montgomery Messenger: "The Democratic editors of the state are fortunate. They are not in danger of being advertised as sponsors of the Kellogg boom for senator."—Waterville Sentinel.

Yes, and there are few of the other kind who are not going to take the credit either, Bro. Lawless.

The Kellogg Petition.

Warren Register: Kellogg seems to have decided to try for the senatorship. Had he known what a job it was to get up that editors' petition asking him to run, he might have hesitated about shying his hat into the ring. After a lot of button-holing, telephoning and telegraphing, about seventy editors, perhaps a little over 10 per cent of those of the state, permitted their names to be placed on the petition asking Mr. Kellogg to be a candidate. What effect Kellogg's entry into the race will have upon the candidacies of Clapp and Eberhart is too deep a problem for us, but it will, we believe, hurt Eberhart more than it will Clapp.

It'll Be 'Raus for Both of Them.

Baudette Region: The Republicans are not sure whether to Rah for Roosevelt, or Root for Root.

Ecce Homo!

Laporte News: To be sent as a delegate to a national convention is purely a matter of honor, confidence and respect. After a man has been governor one or more terms it should be enough.

Patriotism

Lyman Abbott in the Outlook: A nation is made great, not by its fruitful acres, but by the men who cultivate them; not by its great forests, but by the men who use them; not by its mines, but by the men who work in them; not by its railways, but by the men who build and run them. America was a great land when Columbus discovered it; Americans have made it a great nation.

In 1776 our fathers had a vision of a new nation "conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal." Without an army they fought the greatest of existing world empires that they might realize this vision. A third of a century later, without a navy they fought the greatest navy in the world that they might win for their nation the freedom of the seas. Half a century later they fought through an unparalleled Civil war that they might establish for all time on this continent the inalienable right of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. A third of a century later they fought to emancipate an oppressed neighbor, and, victory won, gave back Cuba to the Cubans, sent an army of schoolmasters to educate for liberty the Filipinos, asked no war indemnity from their vanquished enemy, but paid him liberally for his property. Meanwhile they offered land freely to any farmer who would live upon and cultivate it, opened to foreign immigrants on equal terms the door of industrial opportunity, shared with them political equality, and provided by universal taxation for universal education.

The cynic who can see in this history only a theme for his egotistical satire is no true American, whatever his parentage, whatever his birthplace. He who looks with pride upon this history which his fathers have written by their heroic deeds, who accepts with gratitude the inheritance which they have bequeathed to him, and who highly resolves to preserve this inheritance unimpaired and to pass it on to his descendants enlarged and enriched, is a true American, be his birthplace or his parentage what it may.

A Brutal Thought.

Life: Senator Owen, of Oklahoma, makes the incendiary suggestion that no estate larger than ten million dollars shall be transmitted to heirs, and that all above that sum shall revert to the public. This should be strenuously opposed. It would be brutal to ask some of our wealthy young college graduates to worry along on such a pittance. An estate of $10,000,000 would not afford an income of more than half a million dollars annually, and how far could we expect that to reach with the price of cigarettes and theater tickets and cravats steadily mounting skyward?

A Secret.

Boston Transcript: Father—I want to tell you this, my son: the secret of success is hard work.

Son—If it's a secret, dad, you shouldn't have told it. Fortunately, I'm too much of a gentleman to take advantage of information gained in that way.

Who Do You Worry?

O, why do you worry and why do you fuss?
It's dollars to doughnuts that things might be "wus."
Pray what in the world are you hoping to gain
When, by day and by night, you simply complain?
A laugh is worth more than a river of tears;
An ounce of bright hope than a ton of dark fears;
A cheer beats a groan by a hundred to one,
And growling's a capital habit to shun
To double your trouble and add to your care,
Keep talking about them, yes, no matter where;
But would you get rid of your burdens or grief?
Forget that you have them, you'll soon find relief.
If nobody had any trouble but you,
Do you know what I think to you we would do?
We'd encase you in glass and write, "Here's a man
Unlike any other since mortals began."
If we never had storms, no rainbows we'd see,
And a very great loss that surely would be;
Take heart, and take hope, then, and seek to live so
That to others the right way to live you may show.

—Robert M. Offord in the New York Mail.

The Man From Missouri

From the New York Evening Post.

"The first step in education," said the Showman, "is to learn to use words in their precise meaning."

"Well, don't I?" said the Man from Missouri.

"I am afraid you don't," said the Showman. "Suppose I say Bloated Armaments. What does that mean?"

"It means a very large army and taxes," said the Man from Missouri.

"Yes, but where?"

"Why, anywhere, I suppose," said the Man from Missouri.

"Not at all," said the Showman. "Bloated Armaments means a very large army in Germany. But in this country it means democracy. Now, do you see what I mean by the precise meaning of words?"

"I think I do," said the Man from Missouri.

"Let us take another example," said the Showman. "Suppose I say Brotherhood of Man. What does that mean?"

"I suppose it means that nations should try to get along without fighting."

"Yes, but when?"

"Any time, I suppose," said the Man from Missouri.

"Not at all," said the Showman. "It means in the year 2347. Or take another example. Suppose I say Philippine independence. What does that mean?"

"Now that you have explained things, I suppose it means independence in 1983," said the Man from Missouri.

"You are getting on," said the Showman. "And when I speak of our sympathy for our struggling neighbors to the south, does that mean Mexico?"

"Not at all," said the Man from Missouri. "It means the people of Tasmania."

"Very good," said the Showman. "And when I allude to fair treatment for the Latin-American republics am I thinking of Colombia?"

"No," said the Man from Missouri. You are thinking of Kamtchatka."

"Exactly," said the Showman. "You will now understand why this country is in danger from the phrase-makers, the people who use words loosely. They are the kind of people who mean freedom when they say liberty and good-will when they speak of the brotherhood of man. These are the dreamers and therefore dangerous. But take the man who says precisely what he means. When he means forty-eight dreadnaughts he says 'peace,' and when he says 'duty' he means people five thousand miles away with whom we never come into contact. That's the kind of man who faces life squarely. Do you see now?"

"I see," said the Man from Missouri.

Just a Moment

Daily Strength and Cheer.

Compiled by John G. Quinlin, the Sunshine Man.

Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?—Luke x, 25.

Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might.—Eccles. ix, 10.

"What shall I do to gain eternal life?"
"Discharge aright
The simple dues with which each day is rife,
Yea, with thy might."

A man is relieved and gay when he has put his heart into his work, and done his best; but what he has said or done otherwise shall give him no peace.—R. W. Emerson.

Be diligent, after thy power, to do deeds of love. Think nothing too little, nothing too low, to do lovingly for the sake of God. Bear with infirmities, ungentle tempers, contradictions; visit if thou mayest, the sick; relieve the poor; forego thyself and thine own ways for love; and He whom in them lovest, to whom in them thou ministerest, will own thy love, and will pour His own love into thee.—E. B. Pusey.

Thou art my God, and I will praise Thee; Thou art my God, I will exalt Thee; I will give thanks unto Thee, for Thou art love, and Thy mercy endureth forever. Constrained by Thy mercies, I present myself to Thee a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable, which is my reasonable service.—F. B. Meyer. Dayton, Ohio.

And Moorhead Is Dry.

Moorhead News: A train that in the light of the sunrise resembled a ribbon of silver slipped through here early this morning. It was a long freight train covered with a heavy dusting of hoar frost; a veritable ghost train.

Twenty Years Ago

From The Herald of this date, 1896.

Fire completely gutted the Parsons block at 18 West Superior street yesterday and nothing remains but the bare walls and a confused mass of charred timbers and twisted iron. Shortly after the fire was discovered by Officer Troyer there was a terrific explosion, evidently caused by the flames reaching some gasoline or possibly some gunpowder and dynamite in the basement. All the buildings in the vicinity were shaken and bricks were thrown across Superior street, while the windows in the Bunnell block on Michigan street were smashed. The basement and first floor were occupied by the Meining Hardware company, composed of John R. and L. W. Meining. The loss in the stock is estimated at from $12,000 to $15,000, and there is $10,000 insurance. The Crowley Electric company on the second floor suffered a loss of $6,000 to $7,000, with insurance of $2,000. The balance of the building was occupied by Knights of Pythias and other lodges, and nearly all sustained total losses. The building was owned by Alderman J. W. Rowley, W. F. Parsons and Dallas Bodeman of Kalamazoo, Mich. It was erected in 1888 at a cost of $20,000 and is almost a total loss. It was insured for $12,000.

The county commissioners have begun suit against the bondsmen of the late Bell & Eyster bank to recover the county's deposit of $18,399.70. The bond was for $200,000, signed by the following sureties: H. H. Bell, B. Silberstein, J. B. Sutphin, F. H. Frisbee, Clinton Markell, P. M. Graff, C. M. Gray, D. W. Saunders and J. D. Ray.

R. A. Webster of the Clyde Iron works has recovered from an attack of typhoid fever.

Manager L. N. Scott of St. Paul, who controls the Lyceum theater in this circuit, is negotiating for the lease of the Pavilion at the top of the Seventh avenue incline during the coming season.

The board of fire commissioners yesterday elected Henry Truelsen, Jr., as secretary in place of Fred Lewis, resigned.

The vacancy caused by the retirement of A. Swordling from the board of public works will be filled by the appointment of C. W. Wilson. D. A. Reed probably will be the next president of that body.

Assistant Auditor A. M. Thomas, Cashier H. M. Thomas and ten clerks of the Northern Steamship company have arrived from Buffalo, and their families will follow soon.

Duluth temperature at 7 a. m. today, 22; maximum yesterday, 28; minimum yesterday, 23.

The Loyal Orange lodge of West Duluth installed the following officers last evening: S. Crothers, W. M.; J. H. Moork, D. M.; Neil McKenzie, chaplain; George Littleton, R. S.; Otto Gifvert, F. S.; William Ward, T.; James Shields, D. of C.; James Dash, I. T.; William Richie, O. T.; O. S. Olson, Charles Viers and F. E. Colby, trustees; W. J. Smith, delegate to grand lodge.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

THE OPEN COURT

(Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the topics of general interest, but discussion of sectarian religious differences are barred. Letters must not exceed 300 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

SPIGOT VS. BUNG HOLE AND MILK LEGISLATION

To the Editor of The Herald:

I am reminded this morning by the preparations being made in the interest of the infant welfare movement, now on at the Masonic temple, and simultaneously throughout the nation, that outside of the temple we can do some things which will materially help along the cause of those poor, unfortunate, absolutely helpless morsels of humanity who are deprived of their natural sustenance at birth, and for some time afterwards, and are forced to partake of artificial or cow's milk. The least we can do is to make it possible for them to get their substitute food clean. It is stated by medical authorities that seven times as many infants brought up on the bottle die in comparison to those who can use mother's milk, so you see there is quite an extensive field to work with prospects of a great crop and a valuable one.

I notice we are in the throes of the development of a milk ordinance, and all the conflicting interests are at work, some selfish, some ignorant. From our experience in the milk station work we were forced to the conclusion that the great, supreme effort should be the securing of the highest type of sanitary and cleanly conditions at the source, the preserving under similar conditions until ready for distribution, and the absolute requirement for distribution in sealed bottles, or vessels closed tightly from the deposit of filth and dust.

I wouldn't give one cent for all the pasteurization in the world, unless the after distribution is along carefully and scientifically thought out methods; and I hope, in the interest of the babies, at least, that every detail of the process from the feeding of the cow to the deposit of the milk in the baby's bottle will be securely guarded, and the proper restrictions placed on carelessness, accidental or willful.

To illustrate what I have said, I append a copy of a letter written by me some time ago to a person in authority. Kindly look out for the babies.

Yours. T. W. HUGO.

I do not write this to complain at random about anything, but to give a little experience of yesterday which set me to thinking about the inefficiency of ordinance legislation directed towards making the ordinary man wiser, saner or better. You know the wind blew reasonably strong yesterday morning, and the dust was quite noticeable. The streets could not be washed because of the cold weather. I was waiting on a corner for a car on Superior street between 10 and 11 in the morning, and a nicely painted milk wagon drove up alongside the curb; the front of the wagon, the sides and the top were covered, were clean and looked all right. The back was open full width; the floor was sloppy and dirty. The driver jumped down, took out one of the large cans, removed the lid and poured milk into a measure which was hanging, mouth upwards, on the inside of the wagon, but was not covered up at all, except by the street filth. After coming out of the place the driver put the cover on the large can, hung the measure again on the inside of the wagon on the side wet with milk and open to the dust, jumped to his seat and drove off; at no time was any effort made to remove from the measure the accumulated dirt of the street. Following his wagon was a small cloud of dust, and when he got to the next place the process was repeated, and the accumulated filth was washed down from the big can into the measure, and from thence into the stomach of the baby, or sick person, who is depending on the inspection of the health department to insure them clean, pure food.

I am not in the slightest bit scared of bugs, whether microbes or bed; but as an instance of the ordinary watching the spigot for dirt and microbes, and neglecting the bung hole which results from unenforced legislation, wherever attempted, I thought you might be interested. But kindly try and give the babies a better show for their white alley.

MILK LAW DEBATE BRINGS AN ANONYMOUS LETTER

To the Editor of The Herald:

This anonymous letter came to me yesterday. I do not know who wrote it, but the contents seem to be of public interest, and to be by some one who knows what he is talking about. I should be glad to have it published.

MARY J. JAQUES.

Duluth, March 5.

Madam:

Let me suggest some points against the milk ordinance as proposed. You may use them as you wish.

The process of producing bottled milk in all dairies is as follows: The dairyman milks into a tin pail that is either clean or dirty. He pours the milk from the pail into a five or ten-gallon tin can that may be either clean or dirty. When the can is full he takes it to the tin cooler—or should—and it runs into another questionable tin can, and is then poured into the receiving tin can of the bottling machine (which delivers the milk through tin or rubber tubes into the bottle) which is either clean or dirty.

If any of these tools are dirty, the milk that is in the bottle is contaminated, is it not? Even so, the cap is put on nevertheless, and it receives the distinction (?) of "bottled milk."

Now the much traduced can milk is originally poured into a tin can and the can is set in an ice tank, and there it remains until it is delivered to the customer.

Which kind stands the greatest chance for contamination, the much-handled bottled milk, or the once-handled can milk? Some people must think cows are milked into the bottles.

Pasteurized milk is cooked milk. Who likes the taste of it? Most of the dirty milk is pasteurized, for it could not otherwise be sold. And then the bottle becomes a cemetery instead of a stadium.

How many people turn the faucet over the milk bottle before opening it? They should, for the delivery boy always carries it by the top, and his hands are often dirty.

The bottled milk may be more convenient for some people who don't care for expense, but that it is more wholesome by being bottled cannot be true if the dairyman is reasonably clean. And if he is not, the can milk has much the best of it.

APPROVES WILSON'S COURSE.

To the Editor of The Herald:

I think President Wilson is taking the right stand by leaving the submarine controversy to the congress, because if this country should have to go to war then the president could not be blamed.

If this country should get into the war, that would only end the war so much sooner, because the war is actually between Germany and England. If this country should get into it, that would give Germany perfectly free hands around the British Isles, and they could sink everything that tried to get close in to the British coast; that could possibly cause starvation in that country, and the British government would have no one to apply to for assistance, and millions could starve to death. But if this country stays out of it, then England can get help from here when the time comes, the same way Belgium got help after the Germans had destroyed that country.

If England can starve Germany, then Germany has lost; if Germany can starve England, then England has lost. One of them is trying the blockading game and the other one trying to destroy provision ships. But the aim is the same, and we are best off if we are out of it.

A. OLSON.

Hermansville, Mich., March 4.

PRAISES DRAMA LEAGUE.

To the Editor of The Herald:

If you will allow me a brief space in your paper, I want to use it to congratulate the Duluth center of the Drama league, first on having at their command such able presenters of dramatizations and second on having among their membership ten persons sufficiently interested in dramatic construction to try to write plays for serious production. I attended the presentation one evening last week of the two plays given at the Little theater, and found it a most interesting occasion.

Incidentally, I believe the plays there presented pointed out a great and important opening for work by the Drama league right here in Duluth, for it is evident that the writers of the plays entered in the competition are not thoroughly versed in dramatic work. For example, though there are many things to be observed in the drama, there is only one thing that is absolutely, inevitably and unqualifiedly essential to any play, be it long or short, serious or amusing—and that is, there must be a struggle, with an outcome. That is, some person must be opposed to some other person or idea, and one or the other must succumb in the course of the play.

In the first of the Drama league plays I saw presented there was a vast amount of clever dialogue, careful study of the setting, absolute observance of the "three unities" and thoroughly able presentation. But there was no struggle. "Anne" was prepared from the start to surrender herself to the right man, and she did so. "Jo" opposed such notions, and though she admitted it "sounded nice," she showed by her words in that same sentence that she was unconvinced. "Ted" had nothing to do but take what was waiting for him, though it will be admitted that he performed something hardly short of a miracle when he proposed to a girl in the presence of his former sweetheart and the girl's own chum. It is urged that "Anne" had her struggle with the principal of the school, that is to beg the question, for that incident was not the prime factor in the play.

In the other play, "Her Sacred Duty"—which in my opinion was justly awarded the prize—there was no struggle unless you consider that of the butler and the maid, two minor characters, as fulfilling that requirement. The son, Gerald, was bent on enlisting from the first, and did so; his mother was determined that he should, and he did; his father opposed such action, but was beaten before the play began, for the boy had already enlisted; "Warren" was not willing to return to the front—and didn't, so long as the play lasted, or indicated. "Her Sacred Duty" was a wonderfully vivid and splendidly presented picture, but it was not a dramatic production, for it lacked the one essential of the drama—struggle and progress.

So I would suggest, sir, that the Drama league in Duluth would do well to arrange a course of thorough-going dramatic study for its members, for the fact that the best two of the ten plays submitted in this contest lacked the essential element of a true play is proof that all the others lacked it too. It is too bad to allow such evident ability as was displayed in the productions at the Little theater to waste itself through failure to come up to the true dramatic principle. Yours with three cheers for the Drama league,

A STUDENT OF THE STAGE.

Duluth, March 5.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

This department does not pretend to be infallible. It will endeavor, however, to answer questions sent to it by readers of The Herald to the best of its ability, reserving the right to ignore all that are trifling or of concern only to the questioner, or that ask for advice on legal or medical questions.

To receive attention, every inquiry must bear the name and address of the person sending it. This is not wanted for publication, but as an evidence of good faith.

"A Reader," Duluth: Please answer the following question in your paper: When a gentleman is out with a lady, on which side of the lady should he walk, right or left?

Ans.: Custom dictates that the man should walk "on the outside"—that is, next to the curb or street—irrespective of whether that places him on the right or left of his companion.

A. Olson, Hermansville, Mich.: (1) Have all the Christian royal heads attached to the titles the phrase, "By the grace of God," or something similar to it? (2) Have the non-Christian royal heads any such words attached to their titles?

The Editor is "stumped." Can any reader answer these questions?

Mrs. E. Bishop, Proctor, Minn.: Please answer my questions in the Open Court of your paper. (1) Who is the ambassador of the United States in Switzerland? (2) What address would you put on a letter to him?

Ans.: (1) Pleasant A. Stovall of Georgia is the American minister plenipotentiary for Switzerland. That post does not rank as an embassy. (2) To him personally, in care of the department of state, Washington, D. C.

"A Herald Reader," Keewatin, Minn.: (1) Can a man vote at a village election in Minnesota and have his family residing in another state? (2) Would you please tell me if a newspaper must be in circulation on a certain day set aside by the government? (3) Would you please tell me the Minnesota state laws regarding ventilation of office buildings where women are employed?

Ans.: (1) Yes, if he has established a legal residence in Minnesota. (2) The question is too indefinite. (3) There are no state laws specifying office buildings or buildings where women work. The only state regulations relate to factory buildings.

W. Anderson, Hibbing, Minn.: (1) Does a tall chimney, say from 200 to 300 feet high and of brick, swing? I was told that by standing at its base and looking up, you can see it swing; and that if it did not swing it would fall. (2) Is the fish season for hook and line closed until April, 1917, for the state of Minnesota? It was so stated in the News Tribune of March 1.

Ans. (1) Yes. (2) No. The open seasons for the various kinds of fish will be nearly the same this year as before. If you are in doubt as to details, George Wood of Hibbing can supply them.

POEMS ASKED FOR.

Mrs. M. A. Cassidy of Biwabik, Minn., writes asking for "The Chant of Hate' and also the answer to it, written, I think, by an Englishman."

"The Song of Hate" and "The Day" were published in parallel columns on the editorial page of The Herald on Nov. 6, 1914. Both can be secured from a paper of that date.

WANT BETTER SCHOOL.

Lester Park Residents Invite Board Member to Their Meeting.

Residents in the district of Lester Park are urged to attend a meeting of the Lester Park Improvement club at the schoolhouse at 8 o'clock tonight. H. J. Grannis, member of the board of education, will attend, and there will be a discussion as to the needs of the district for a new and better equipped school building, with safety and sanitation prominent features in the construction.

Abe Martin

Mrs. Lem Spry has four daughters—three married an' one ugly. Th' old-fashioned girl who used t' scrub an' sweep now has a daughter who takes arm development by mail.

(Protected by Adams Newspaper Service.)

"BEYOND THE POINT OF ROCKS"

BRANCH MANAGER: HERMAN OLSON, 1823 West Superior Street.
Advertising Subscription Distribution

LEAGUE ELECTS OFFICERS AND PLANS MIDSUMMER PROGRAM

GUST HJERPE.

O. W. OLSON.

At the annual election and business meeting of the Swedish-American National league held last night at the Bachelors' hall, Nineteenth avenue west and First street, O. W. Olson was re-elected president, and Gust Hjerpe, treasurer. The society also elected Carl J. Carlson, vice president, and Gust Hedman, secretary.

The league will hold another meeting March 20 at which the committees on arrangements for the midsummer celebration, June 24, will be announced. According to members of the society the celebration this year will in many ways excel anything before attempted for this occasion.

The Swedish-American National league this year will comprise the membership of committees of five from ten Swedish societies of Duluth. These societies are: The Svea Glee club, Orpheus Singing society, Zenith City band, Frimad lodge No. 43, Independent Order of Svithiod, Lodge No. 22, S. H. & E. F., North Star lodge No. 11, and Morning Star lodge No. 17, I. O. G. T., Gosta lodge No. 243, Sons of Sweden lodge No. 170, and Gustaf Adolph lodge No. 255, Order of Vasa.

The principal features of the celebration to be planned will be a big parade through the principal streets of Duluth winding up at Lincoln park, addresses by well known Swedish and English speakers, a band concert during the afternoon and evening, and dancing at the pavilion during the afternoon and evening.

BRICK WINS ON FIRST STREET

City's Plan for Creosote Blocks Is Shelved at Conference.

Property Owners Must Withdraw Appeals Before City Will Act.

West First street will be paved with brick to a width of thirty-eight feet, if the thirty-nine property owners withdraw the assessment appeals they have filed with the city clerk.

This agreement was reached after an hour's discussion yesterday afternoon between the city commissioners and a delegation of twenty property owners.

For the last month, property owners along First street, between Twentieth and Thirtieth avenues west, have been divided over the selection of the paving material for the roadway, some favoring brick, while others voted for creosote blocks. The blocks were selected at a meeting of the owners called by Commissioner Farrell three weeks ago, but last week a supplemental petition was filed with the council, requesting that brick be used and that the roadway be paved to a width of forty-two feet from Twentieth to Twenty-second avenues and thirty feet in the remaining eight blocks.

Block City's Plan.

Commissioner Farrell took the stand that creosote blocks should be used, in view of the fact that this material was selected at an official meeting of the owners. As a result of this, thirty-nine of the property owners filed notices with the city clerk, appealing from their paving assessments, taking this means of blocking the city in any attempt to award the contract for creosote blocks.

Yesterday afternoon twenty of the owners appeared at the council meeting and again protested against creosote blocks. John H. Brigham, J. D. Stryker R. R. Forward and Mrs. Emma Yergan were among those who spoke in favor of a brick pavement and after an hour's discussion on the subject, the council agreed to pave the roadway with brick to a width to thirty-eight feet, providing the owners withdraw their assessment appeals. Practically all the appellants present agreed to this plan and the matter is expected to be settled at the council meeting next Monday.

Commissioner Farrell announced at the meeting that no contract would be awarded until the appeals are withdrawn or the suits tried in the court.

MINNEAPOLIS WOMAN ESCAPES OPERATION

Mrs. Sinclair Finds Wonderful Remedy in Time to Avoid Knife.

Mrs. Sadie E. Sinclair of 418 East Lake St., Minneapolis, suffered from stomach derangements for more than six years. She became despondent and hopeless. She feared she would have to undergo an operation. Her complexion suffered along with her general health.

Then she discovered Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and took a course of treatment. The first dose brought results. She wrote:

"Only one dose and I slept like a log. And I felt relieved right away. If I should need any more medicine you may be sure I will send for it. It is a wonder one can be rid of such conditions without pain. And my complexion is clearing; they all speak of it—I was so yellow and brown before."

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned.

—Advertisement.

LENTEN PLANS AT ST. PETER'S CHURCH

Services will be held regularly every week during the Lenten season at St. Peter's Episcopal church, Twenty-eighth avenue west and First street, Rev. W. E. Harmann, the rector, will have charge.

The beginning of the Lenten season will be observed with holy communion at the church tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The rector will conduct a litany service and give an address at Proctor tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.

English services will be conducted each Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and Swedish services each Thursday evening during Lent. Each Friday evening during the season there will be services also, beginning a week from next Friday night.

"Meditation on One Hymn" will be the subject of the rector's address Thursday afternoon, following which St. Paul's guild will conduct a social hour. Mrs. Alex McKinzie and Mrs. T. E. Halford will be hostesses.

Thursday evening, following the services at 8 o'clock, Rebekah guild will have charge of a social hour. Mrs. W. E. Harmann and Mrs. John Olson will be hostesses.

The choir will meet for rehearsal Friday evening. The confirmation class will meet in the vestry rooms Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

MOTHERS' CLUB FORMING.

By-Laws Will Be Adopted at Meeting Next Week at Adams School.

A meeting of the Mothers' club of the Adams school, Seventeenth avenue west and Superior street, will be held next week at which by-laws for the society will be adopted and plans for its future activities made. The club was recently organized.

The officers of the society are: Mrs. W. S. Kearns, president; Mrs. W. F. Brightfelt, vice president; Mrs. George Huey, secretary; and Mrs. D. J. McPhail, treasurer. A committee comprising of Mrs. Robert Rankin, Mrs. George Huey and Mrs. W. S. Kearns has charge of the drafting of the by-laws.

POWER OF LOVE.

Grace M. E. Pastor Preaches Second of Series of Revival Sermons.

Rev. J. Emmett Porter, pastor of Grace Methodist church, Twenty-second avenue west and Third street, spoke on "The Power of Love" at the second of a series of revival services which he is conducting at the church. These services will be held every evening during the next two weeks.

The pastor declared that love is the great saving power of the world, not only in a religious sense but in other ways. He said that the greatest deeds in history were those inspired by love.

A musical program of songs is being conducted for a period of fifteen minutes prior to the services. The music is being led by Mrs. Porter.

Young Folks Will Entertain.

The Young Ladies' Society of the First Swedish Baptist church, Twenty-second avenue west and Third street, will entertain at a musical and literary program in the church tomorrow evening. Following the program luncheon will be served.

The program will include selections by Miss Christine Johnson, Miss Florence Nelson, Miss Helen Nelson, Mrs. Milton Fish, Miss Ione Fenstad and an address by Rev. Swaney Nelson.

St. Paul's Notes.

The Luther league of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street, will entertain Thursday evening for the members of Young People's societies of other Lutheran churches of the western end of the city. A musical and literary program has been planned.

The ladies' aid society will be entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wansgaard, 2832 West Third street.

The choir will meet at the church on Friday evening for rehearsals.

Rev. K. B. Vaalar will meet with the confirmation class Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

Coning-Bodin Wedding.

Miss Nellie Henrietta Coning, daughter of Mrs. Kate Coning, 2422 West Second street, and Joel Oscar Bodin were married at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Second Presbyterian church, 1515 West Superior street. Rev. J. A. McGaughey, pastor of the church, had charge of the ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Vere Coning, and the groomsman was Erick Bodin, a brother of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Bodin will make their home in this end of the city, following a short wedding trip.

Communion Postponed.

The quarterly communion services at the Second Presbyterian church, 1515 West Superior street, will be held next Sunday morning. The communion services, which are usually held on the first Sunday of the month in the new quarters were postponed from last Sunday on account of the "every member canvass" which is now being made. The canvass is bringing great results, according to Rev. J. A. McGaughey, pastor of the church.

West End Briefs.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Grace Methodist church will be entertained tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. J. Milligan, 2814 West Michigan street. Mrs. Charles Emerson and Mrs. W. Leonard will assist the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Grysberg, who will leave this week to make their home in Wisconsin, will be guests of honor at a farewell party to be held by the Baptist Young People's Union of the Central Baptist church this evening.

Mrs. A. Farrington, 2131 West First street, is reported seriously ill at her home.

Mrs. C. G. Johnson of Ellensberg, Wash., who has been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. E. Chisholm, 2834 West Second street, went to Superior yesterday to spend a week visiting her son, Harry Johnson.

The Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Second Presbyterian church, 1515 West Superior street, will meet in the church Thursday afternoon. The members are also planning on serving supper between 7 and 8 o'clock.

The Uzar Coffee Man left One Dollar in the following homes in Woodland Hunters Park Lakeside

MRS. E. T. DUNKLE ..... 5015 Peabody St.
MRS. O. ROGERS ..... 5427 Oneida St.
MRS. STACY H. HILL ..... 5829 London Road
MRS. MEIHOFF ..... 5414 Oneida St.
MRS. C. R. OLSON ..... 307 W. Faribault St.
MRS. C. M. HON ..... 112 E. Winona St.
MRS. A. J. FINSLAND ..... 312 W. Owatonna St.
MRS. W. C. PRUDHOMME ..... 219 Minneapolis Ave.
MRS. M. C. LONG ..... 820 Minneapolis Ave.
MRS. PETER DALCONS ..... 2011 Fairmont St.
MRS. A. B. SEITZ ..... 4310 Robinson St.
MRS. A. DREKEY ..... 5416 Superior St.
MRS. E. IVERS ..... 4514 Robinson St.
MRS. E. V. EBART ..... 5313 Colorado St.
MRS. I. C. ANDERSON ..... 5132 Colorado St.
MRS. O. H. PEARSON ..... 5023 Tioga St.
MRS. K. BAKKE ..... 4626 Jay St.
MRS. H. A. BAUER ..... 4710 Pitt St.
MRS. O. H. HALL ..... 4631 Gladstone St.
MRS. H. C. JOYCE ..... 2102 Woodland Ave.
MRS. C. W. PETERS ..... Chisholm St.
MRS. E. BROWN ..... 12 Winona St.
MRS. R. C. BUSCH ..... 144 W. Faribault St.
MRS. H. H. BROWN ..... 136 Winona St.
MRS. J. A. MORTERUD ..... 3210 Kolstad Ave.

He will be in West End and West Duluth Monday March 6th Tuesday March 7th Wednesday March 8th Thursday March 9th If he finds in your home a can of Uzar Coffee he will leave One Dollar

West End Undertaking Company
2118 WEST FIRST STREET.
Nyberg & Crawford, Managers.

AMUSEMENTS

LYCEUM TONIGHT & TOMORROW
Matinee Daily.
HARRY STEPPE AND THE GIRLS FROM THE FOLLIES
The Classiest Show in Burlesque.
Matinees 25c, 35c, 50c
Nights 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c

THREE NIGHTS AND SATURDAY MATINEE, MARCH 9, 10, 11
MR. and MRS. COBURN
—Present—
THE YELLOW JACKET
By George C. Hazelton & Benrimo.
With the full original production from the Fulton theater, New York, and a specially selected cast including Mr. and Mrs. Coburn.
SEATS NOW SELLING.
Night prices ..... 25c to $1.50
Popular matinee ..... 25c to $1.00

TONIGHT AND TOMORROW ONLY
Afternoons, 10c; Nights, 10c-20c.
WALKER WHITESIDE
In ISRAEL ZANGWILL'S
"THE MELTING POT"
ORPHEUM STRAND THEATRUM

NEW GRAND
ALWAYS A GOOD SHOW
11 A. M. UNTIL 11 P. M.
Through 5 Countries in 20 Minutes.
FOUR RENNEE GIRLS
Pauen & Reed—"Between Trains."
FRANK WARD, Novelty Comedian.
Concert Orchestra—Photoplays De Luxe.
Photoplay Feature "BEYOND THE LAWS"
MATS 10c ANY SEAT NITES 10-20
Don't Miss STINGAREE Tonight.

LAST TIME TONIGHT.
"THE UPSTART"
—Starring—
MARGUERITE SNOW AND GEO. LE GUERE
Divorce Problem Play.
Three Days, Beginning Tomorrow
"SOULS IN BONDAGE,"
With NANCE O'NEIL,
World Famous Star.
This is the greatest sensation of the picture world. Don't miss it!
ANY SEAT, 10c.
ZELDA WHERE EVERYBODY GOES

LYRIC Everybody's Theater Today and Tonight
FOX MASTERPIECE
WILLIAM FARNUM
—in—
"FIGHTING BLOOD"
Picture that crowds the Lyric daily.
TOMORROW—JOHN BARRYMORE
"NEARLY A KING."
An Adventurous Comedy.

BILLIE BURKE
TWO DAYS MORE, IN
"PEGGY"
No Reserved Seats—Usual Prices.
—at the—
REX THEATER BEAUTIFUL
Tuesday and Wednesday
SENSATIONAL TRIANGLE MASTERPIECE OF THE SEASON.

Net Contents 15 Fluid Drachms
900 DROPS
CASTORIA
ALCOHOL—3 PER CENT.
A Vegetable Preparation for Assimilating the Food and Regulating the Stomachs and Bowels of
INFANTS CHILDREN
Promotes Digestion, Cheerfulness and Rest. Contains neither Opium, Morphine nor Mineral.
NOT NARCOTIC.
A perfect Remedy for Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Worms, Feverishness and LOSS OF SLEEP.
Fac Simile Signature of
THE CENTAUR COMPANY.
NEW YORK.
At 6 months old
35 DOSES—35 CENTS
Exact Copy of Wrapper.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
Mothers Know That Genuine Castoria Always Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. In Use For Over Thirty Years
CASTORIA
THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

ON THE IRON RANGES

COUNTY CLUBS ARE TOGETHER

Farming Organizations of Lake County Will Work More in Harmony.

Lake County Federation of Farmers' Clubs Expected to Be Benefit.

Two Harbors, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—The members of the various farmers' clubs in Lake county met at the high school auditorium last evening and formed the Lake County Federation of Farmers Clubs. Representatives from all the clubs in the county were present and took part.

The object of the organization is to improve agricultural methods in Lake county and to further and promote social, educational and business interests beneficially connected with such development, such as buying, selling, rural credits, legislation, etc., to encourage and promote, not transact co-operative business; to act as a bureau of service, affording means for the interchange of ideas, and for securing of ends which may be of benefit to the farmers residing in Lake county.

All members of the various farmers' clubs in this county will be considered members of the new organization. The active membership of the federation will consist of two delegates elected from each farmers' club, one will serve for one year and the other for two years, and thereafter one will be chosen each year to serve two years.

The officers of the organization will be a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and a board of directors, composed of the delegates selected by each club. After 1916, the board of directors will elect the officers of the organization.

Annual Meeting Date.

The regular annual meetings of the organization will be held on the second Saturday of April, at such place as the directors will designate. Special meetings may be called at any time the officers may see fit, and give the president or secretary of each club ten days notice before such special meeting. The business management of the federation will be vested in the board of directors, seven constituting a quorum for the transaction of business, but all business must receive the consent of the majority of the board of directors.

The annual dues in the new club will be $1 per year from each club, and such assessments as are required to meet the expenses. After 1916 dues from each club must be paid to the treasurer of the federation in advance of the general meeting in April in order to qualify their delegates to vote. The club will meet regularly the third Saturday of each month at 2 p. m. at the Two Harbors high school.

This is the greatest co-operative movement that has ever taken place among the farmers of Lake county, and will undoubtedly prove to be a very helpful medium to further the agricultural advance of the county. It will also further the social life in the rural districts.

Mr. Campton, superintendent of the city schools, and Mr. Webb, agricultural expert, have been very instrumental in the forming of the new federation.

FAVORING CLOSING ALL CIGAR PLACES

Virginia Police and Fire Commission Will So Recommend.

Virginia, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—The police and fire commission decided last night that President Otto Poirier should recommend to the city council meeting tonight that an ordinance be enacted closing all cigar stores in front of saloons at the same time the saloons are required to close, or to seek other quarters. The commission discussed this mooted question for some time and decided that it would be impossible to enforce the liquor law if the stores were allowed to run in front of saloons after the saloons were closed.

President Poirier promptly vetoed a request that saloons and cigar stores be allowed to install gum and candy nickel in the slot machines, as he believed it would be the entering wedge for gambling devices.

It was decided to build a padded cell in the city jail because of the numerous cases brought in of men raving from drink.

All police and firemen will be required to watch closer on the streets to prevent so many accidents in Virginia which have caused numerous damage suits.

To Reduce Saloons.

At the council meeting tonight Alderman E. F. Murray will introduce an ordinance reducing the number of saloons from forty-nine to twenty. As outlined it is expected the ordinance will provide for a gradual reduction to start on July 1, 1916, and providing that on or before July 1, 1917, will from time to time revoke licenses or refuse renewals until the desired minimum is reached. If the council fails to reduce the number of saloons to twenty by the specified date, it will be unlawful for the board to grant any new licenses or renewals after June 1, 1917.

Alderman Murray claims that all classes of business men, even including the saloon keepers, favor the reduction of the saloons, as no saloons are making much more than expenses at the present time, and if the number were reduced it is believed that it would be possible to better regulate the traffic in liquor.

MANY CANDIDATES AFTER BIWABIK JOBS

There Are Also Plenty of Aspirants for Township Offices.

Biwabik, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—The candidates for the various village offices have filed for the election Tuesday, March 14.

Mayor F. S. Colvin has filed for re-election and will be opposed by J. F. Goldthorpe. I. R. Gillpatrick, village clerk, will oppose H. E. Green. There are eight candidates in the field for trustee. The present members are: Peter O'Donnell, O. E. Everett and D. W. Owens, they are all out for re-election and Axel Johnson, Charles Sippola, Frank Guss, Fred Riise and Salfona Holso are also seeking the trustee office. H. M. Glass and Emil Peterson are out for village treasurer. Local option will also be voted on and both wets and drys are confident.

Township Campaign Lively.

The township election will also be a lively contest as there are a number seeking office. Candidates for township supervisor are: J. E. Kenney, Frank E. Anderson, E. E. Strom, Joe Goldsworthy, Emil Korhonen. Those out for township treasurer are: Grover Helsel, Capt. Art Faragher and the present clerk, J. C. McGivern is out for re-election and is opposed by James C. Ames and Arvid S. Nisen. This election promises to be one of the hottest contests that Biwabik has had for some time.

YOUNG CLUB IS HOST TO FATHERS

Hibbing Junior Commercial Club Members Entertain Older Folks.

Hibbing, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—Many fathers of Junior Commercial club members last evening participated in the banquet and athletic program given for members of the Commercial club by the junior organization in the Lincoln high school.

An indoor baseball team composed of the fathers of Junior Commercial club members lost a game to the City Hall Indoor baseball seven, 13 to 12.

The City Hall lineup was: Curran, third base; Burrows, right short; Withers, first base; Edmunds, catcher; Geiselman, pitcher; Fleming, left short and Wilson, fielder. The fathers' lineup was: E. C. Kleffman, fielder; C. E. Everett, third base; Burnham, right short; Webb, left short; Greazle, first base; Williams, pitcher and Burkman, catcher.

Boxing contests in which several of the fathers participated and which all ended in draws were the next features of the entertainment. After that the members of the faculty basket ball team won a game from the fathers, 9 to 4.

Judge's Challenge Not Accepted.

The guests played water polo. No scores were kept in this game. Judge Martin Hughes, district judge, challenged C. E. Everett, range probation officer to a boxing match but the challenge was not accepted.

At 9:30 o'clock the lunch prepared by the Junior Commercial club members, was served. Toasts were given by Martin Hughes, Rev. R. W. Adair, Benjamin Congdon, president of the Junior Commercial club, Luther Bang, another member of the club and Ralph Kleffman, a third member. Bruce Middlemis, member of the board of education spoke and a pithy talk was made by J. E. Lawler, secretary of the Hibbing Commercial club.

A banquet to be given by the Junior Commercial club members to their fathers will take place in April.

NEW VIRGINIA BLOCK.

Odd Fellows May Erect Substantial Structure This Year.

Virginia, Minn., March 7.—If the plans of local Odd Fellows materialize this year may see the construction of one of the largest and most modern business blocks here. The Odd Fellows own the lots situated at the southwest corner of Maple street and Wyoming avenue, which have frontage on the street of 50 feet, with a depth of 120 feet. Upon these lots the Odd Fellows plan to erect a three-story building which will occupy the whole property, the structure to be modern in every particular. There will be a full basement, the first floor to be used for business purposes and the second floor arranged for lodge and clubrooms. The Odd Fellows are now negotiating with the Masonic lodge members with an endeavor to induce the latter to lease the third story for its lodge and clubroom quarters and this proposition, it is said, is being seriously considered by the Masons.

FATHER INJURED BY FALLING IN DULUTH

Virginia, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—Assistant City Engineer Keith Maitland was called to Duluth today where his father, Alex Maitland, a well known resident of Negaunee, Mich., is reported to be in an unconscious condition as a result of a fall sustained on a Duluth sidewalk yesterday while in the Zenith City on business.

Has Sister in Duluth.

Virginia, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—John McDonald, the Virginia & Rainy Lake woodsman who died in a local hospital yesterday morning, aged 40, has a sister, Mrs. G. Stark, living at 625 East Fifth street, it was learned today, and pending advices from her, funeral arrangements will be deferred.

Liquor 'Toter's Hearing.

Virginia, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—The hearing of John McKinnery, arrested in Hibbing Sunday for introducing liquor into dry territory, will be held before United States Commissioner Poirier here this afternoon, and it is said the evidence is so strong he will be held.

TELEPHONES FOR BALKAN TOWNSHIP

Farmers Going Ahead With Idea, Also Work for Rural Delivery.

Chisholm, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—In response to a call of a committee of Balkan township farmers a meeting was held Sunday afternoon at the Harris farm to discuss betterment of the conditions of the residents of the township. Frank G. Harris presided and Henry Letchel was secretary.

Relative to securing telephone service for the farmhouses along the Sturgeon river road, the chairman explained an interview he had with F. E. Lister, superintendent of the Mesaba Telephone company. Mr. Lister consented to meet the farmers half way and agreed to construct the line and install the phones providing the farmers would furnish the poles. All present expressed their willingness to subscribe for phones and furnish the poles so a petition was drawn up and signed by all present urging the telephone company to extend its lines into the township. All present signed a petition addressed to the postoffice department requesting rural mail delivery in the thickly settled portions of the township.

The chairman was given authority to appoint a committee to confer with R. M. Hesklitt, manager of the Chisholm Electric company, and determine if that company would install electric current to supply light and power to the farms within a radius of six miles of Chisholm.

Get Into Politics.

A vote was taken on nominating a township ticket and twenty-two favored a ticket, one being against it. Matt Borlin was nominated for supervisor, and Joseph Jakse for treasurer. Henry Letchel was chosen without opposition as a candidate for town clerk.

It is learned that E. F. Kowalke, supervisor, and A. J. Sullivan, clerk, present incumbents in office, will be candidates to succeed themselves on the town board and that L. C. David will also enter as candidate for supervisor. W. E. Craig has for some time signified his intention of entering his name on the ballot for treasurer.

BLIZZARD RAGES ON MESABA RANGE

Heavy Fall of Snow and Drifting Makes Movement Hard.

Hibbing, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—About the worst blizzard in years is raging in the range country. All traffic is interfered with. The road to Alice is impassable for buses. Trolley cars and trains are off schedule from a half hour to an hour late. The drifts of snow makes the surrounding country cut off from Hibbing proper. There was no abatement of snowfall up to 10 o'clock this morning.

Bad at Virginia.

Virginia, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—A fair sized blizzard is raging over the Mesaba range today. While it is not as cold as it was during the former big blizzards of the winter, the present one is bad and railroads are kept busy clearing drifting snow from their tracks, the trolley line keeping its snow plow going over the line all the time. There is now about four feet of snow on the Mesaba range, more than has been seen in years.

BUKICH'S FUNERAL.

Chisholm Man, Killed By Train, to Be Buried Wednesday.

Chisholm, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—The funeral of John Bukich, aged 30, resident in the South End location and employed by the Shenango Furnace company as a miner, who was instantly killed while on his way to work early Monday morning by jumping from the east-bound Great Northern train No. 118 at the Shenango location, will be held tomorrow from St. Joseph's church, with interment in the local cemetery.

Train No. 118 is a mixed freight and passenger that leaves the Great Northern deport for Virginia at 6:40 A. M., and it is believed that Bukich was stealing a ride and when the train was pulling through a cut opposite the Shenango boarding house he jumped off and fell, striking his head. The report of Dr. A. B. Kirk, deputy coroner, states death was caused from a fractured skull.

Bukich was a married man, his wife residing in Austria-Hungary, and the only known relative who survives him in this country is a cousin, Joso Bukich, who resides in the South End location.

BIWABIK SCHOOL HEAD IS NOW BANK OFFICIAL

Biwabik, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—Joseph E. Lunn, superintendent of local schools, was chosen a director of the First National bank at a special meeting of the directors Friday to take the place of N. B. Shank, who resigned because of the change in his residence. Mr. Lunn was the unanimous choice of the other directors.

CHISHOLM POLITICAL CLUBS GET BUSY

Chisholm, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—After concluding the business for which their meeting was called to indorse the workingmen's ticket, the Slovenian Political club, about 150 strong, went in a body to the hall in which another Austrian political meeting was to be held and "packed" the meeting to such an extent that they forced through another indorsement to their ticket.

The two meetings of the Finn and the one meeting of the Scandinavian and the one meeting of the Italian political clubs, scheduled for Sunday afternoon, were postponed on account of small attendance. The meetings of the Finn and the Italian clubs will be held next Sunday afternoon and the meeting of the Scandinavian club will be held next Friday.

A meeting, called for Sunday afternoon by the South Slavic Socialists' local, about which there is considerable mystery, was held somewhere outside of the village and about 150 persons are said to have been in attendance and indorsed Matt Jaasko, Anton Mahne and Carl J. Nordmark as candidates for trustee.

Dr. E. E. Webber and Dr. E. H. Nelson, candidates for village president are conducting a lively campaign and a shown-down of the strength of both sides is expected within the next few days.

Oils Soothe Skin Disease

Oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine and other healing ingredients compounded in proper proportion into the D. D. D. Prescription has now become the universal favorite of skin sufferers in relieving skin disease. It is a mild wash that penetrates the pores and gives instant relief from all burning and itching. It kills and washes off the gnawing disease germs and its soothing oils quickly heal the inflamed tissues.

Druggists are glad to recommend this soothing, cooling liquid. 25c, 50c and $1.00. Come to us and we will tell you more about this remarkable remedy. Your money back unless the first bottle relieves you. D. D. D. Soap keeps your skin healthy. Ask about it.

D. D. D. For 15 Years the Standard Skin Remedy

Wm. A. Abbett Drug Co., 219 West Superior St., 932 East Second St., 101 West Fourth St.

BIWABIK MINE IS TO BE STRIPPED

More Ore to Be Uncovered and Heavy Shipments Looked for.

Biwabik, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Biwabik mine is preparing for an extensive stripping season. The remaining ore body of the pit will be uncovered in the spring and shipments will commence as early as possible. Larger ore contracts than have been made in several years will be filled. It is expected that the Williams mine which has been idle for two years will be opened, although definite announcement has not been made to this effect. The Williams has considerable ore in sight, it is thought, and it is probably good for several seasons. The stock at the mine has been sold and will be moved as soon as the shipping season opens. The Williams is controlled by the Williams Furnace company of Milwaukee. The Holland mine, an independent property, will probably open shortly. The operators will deliver during the season an aggregate of 200,000 tons of ore. This will necessitate the employment of a crew of about 100 men.

HIBBING OPPOSITION CANDIDATES BUSY

Hibbing, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—J. A. Redfern was named campaign manager of the businessmen's ticket today. The headquarters are in the First National bank building. The party will make strenuous effort to elect all its candidates in opposition to the present administration.

Campaign literature was spread broadcast today in spite of the storm.

Chisholm Woman Buried.

Chisholm, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—Naranja Tomich, aged 25, wife of Mike Tomich, died at her home Sunday morning after a short illness. The funeral was held this afternoon from the Serbian church and interment will be made in the local cemetery. Her husband is the only surviving relative.

OUTING COMPANY WILL BUILD HOTEL

Tower Concern to Also Put Up Cottages on Lake Island.

Tower, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—The stockholders of the Vermilion Boat and Outing company elected the following officers: President, Matt Wilson; vice president, Dr. R. L. Burns; secretary and treasurer, E. J. Morcom; directors, Matt Wilson, Dr. R. L. Burns, William E. Fay, E. J. Morcom, O. C. Sovde, Jacob Skala, Peter Swanson, and Anton Gornick.

Additional stock became a necessity on account of the many building plans made for the coming summer and consequently an additional $20,000 was subscribed, all of it being taken by the present stockholders. Ten thousand dollars will be expended in the erection and furnishing of a hotel and several cottages on the Isle of Pines, where the company now has seven cottages for rent. The hotel and cottages will have electric lights and water works as well as telephone service. Many additions will be made to the boat equipment, an additional large launch, four canoes and twenty-four rowboats being among the items already contracted for. Plans have already been drawn for the hotel and as soon as lake travel will permit, the basement and foundation materials will be taken over the ice, the lumber and other building materials will go later by boat. Work will be started immediately the weather permits, and all be in readiness for the opening of the season.

Location Is Ideal.

The Isle of Pines is situated on the main boat channel of Lake Vermilion, just eight miles from Tower, can be reached in less than an hour and the site is an ideal one for a hotel. The island contains forty-four acres, and has the only tract of pine on Vermilion, which has not been partly if not wholly cut.

The outing company has a few cottages at Gold island, and there is some talk of moving those to the Isle of Pines. The Oddfellow bungalow at Joyland near by will be electrically lighted as soon as the plant is installed at the Isle of Pines.

The season promises to be a busy one for Tower, the erection of the new depot having been assured and the probability of the new proposed $60,000 school building being almost a certainty. The Grey-Wertin company of Duluth is planning to erect several cottages, and many individuals have already let contracts.

Get Rid of Piles at Home

Simple Home Treatment, Easily Applied, Gives Quick Relief and Prevents Danger from Operation.

Send for Free Trial Package and Prove It in Your Case.

Don't even think of an operation for piles. Remember what the old family doctor said: Any part of the body cut away is gone forever. One or two applications of Pyramid Pile Treatment and the pain, fire and torture ceases. In a remarkably short time the congested veins are reduced to normal and you will soon be all right again. Try this remarkable Treatment. Sold everywhere at drug stores. Send for a free trial package and prove beyond question it is the right treatment for your case, even though you may be wearing a pile truss.

Just send in the coupon below at once for the free trial treatment. Then you can get the regular package for 50 cents at any drug store. Don't suffer another needless minute. Write now.

Free Package Coupon

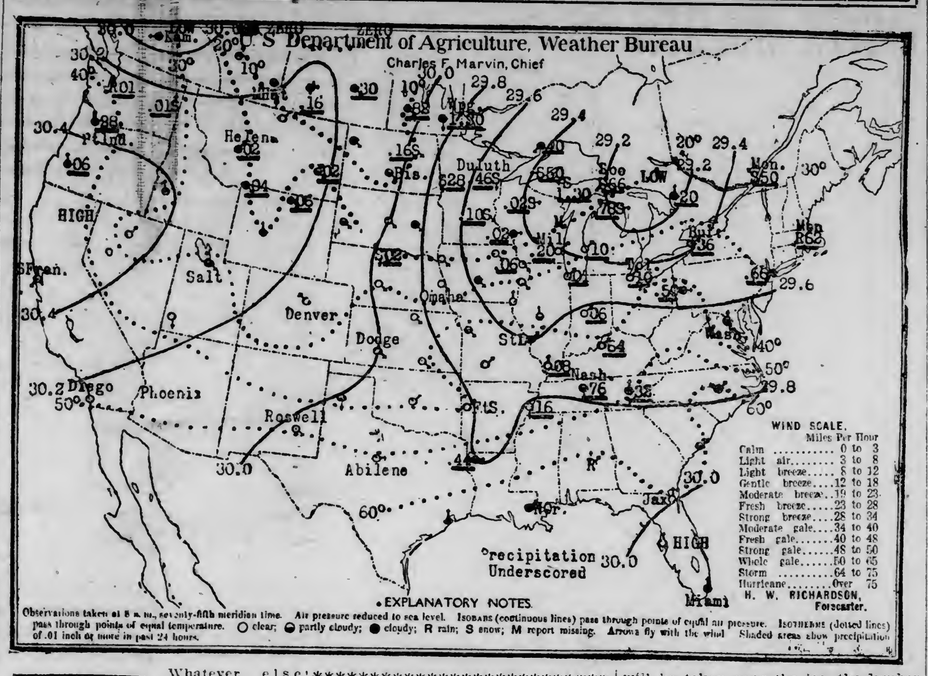
Pyramid Drug Company, 539 Pyramid Bldg., Marshall, Mich. Kindly send me a trial of Pyramid Pile Treatment at once, by mail, FREE, in plain wrapper, so I can prove its splendid results.

Name.....

Street.....

City.....State.....

OFFICIAL MAP OF THE WEATHER



Observations taken at 8 a. m., seventy-fifth meridian time. Air pressure reduced to sea level. Isobars (continuous lines) pass through points of equal temperature. Isotherms (dotted lines) pass through points of equal air pressure. ○ clear; ◒ partly cloudy; ● cloudy; R rain; S snow; M report missing. Arrows fly with the wind. Shaded areas show precipitation of .01 inch or more in past 24 hours.

COLDER

LOCAL FORECAST

Duluth, Superior and vicinity, including the Mesaba and Vermilion iron ranges: Partly cloudy weather tonight and Wednesday. Colder tonight with lowest temperature close to zero at and near Duluth-Superior and along the north shore, and zero or slightly below on the iron ranges. Moderate northwest gale, diminishing Wednesday.

Wednesday partly cloudy, probably snow near Lake Superior.

Temperatures.

Following were the highest temperatures in the last twenty-four hours and the lowest in the last twelve, ending at 7 a. m.:

	High	Low
Abilene	84	50
Alpena	24	22
Amarillo	..	32
Battleford	18	0
Bismarck	20	8
Boise	44	30
Boston	28	20
Buffalo	34	26
Cairo	..	42
Calgary	30	4
Charles City	..	14
Charleston	64	56
Chicago	40	32
Concordia	..	36
Davenport	..	30
Denver	44	20
Des Moines	46	30
Devils Lake	18	10
Dodge	58	32
Dubuque	38	22
DULUTH	22	18
Edmonton	16	0
Escanaba	24	16
Fort Smith	..	40
Galveston	72	66
Grand Haven	32	28
Green Bay	28	..
Havre	14	0
Helena	34	24
Houghton	..	18
Huron	32	14
Indianapolis	..	34
Jacksonville	68	52
Kamloops	42	34
Kansas City	54	42
Keokuk	..	32
Kerrville	66	50
La Crosse	..	16
Lander	..	20
Louisville	68	38
Madison	34	20
Marquette	32	18
Medicine Hat	36	8
Memphis	70	48
Miles City	40	20
Milwaukee	34	24
Minnedosa	16	8
Modena	46	30
Montgomery	74	66
Montreal	18	14
Moorhead	26	16
Nashville	..	46
New Orleans	76	68
New York	24	24
North Platte	48	30
Oklahoma	68	36
Omaha	48	28
Parry Sound	22	14
Phoenix	72	42
Pierre	42	14
Pittsburgh	46	42
Port Arthur	22	16
Portland, Or	46	44
Qu'Appelle	14	0
Raleigh	70	66
Rapid City	44	28
Roseburg	50	42
Roswell	..	48
St. Louis	48	44
St. Paul	32	28
Salt Lake City	42	38
San Diego	60	50
San Francisco	58	46
Sault Ste. Marie	26	16
Seattle	42	38
Shreveport	72	58
Sheridan	40	26
Sioux City	42	20
Spokane	40	32
Springfield, Ill.	..	32
Springfield, Mo.	..	38
Swift Current	18	4
Tampa	74	62
Toledo	60	32
Valentine	..	20
Washington	30	28
Wichita	..	40
Williston	..	4
Winnemucca	46	26
Winnipeg	24	12
Yellowstone	26	16

ELY BRIEFS.

Ely, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—Rev. J. C. Mapson returned from Tower Monday, where he held services in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church was entertained yesterday afternoon by Mesdames Margaret Brown and James Tonkin at the home of the former. The society planned to give a 10-cent tea on Thursday afternoon.

Supt. H. E. White left this morning for a two days' business trip to the Mesaba range.

The O. E. S. held a special meeting Monday evening to confer the degrees on two candidates.

Ely Church Program.

Ely, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Martha Society of the Finnish Lutheran church gave a Sunday evening concert at the opera house which was well attended.

The Ely orchestra contributed several selections. The vocal soloists were Miss Christine Herranen, Lillian Kero, Corrinne Leino and John Porthon; men's chorus by Rev. Koivumski, John Porthon, John Rilkola, Vuoti and Mattola; mandolin trio, Messrs. Victor Carlson, Ananias Pontien and Emil Kilmer; violin solo, Tiny Stenblack with piano accompaniment by her sister, Rachel. A short play concluded the program.

Another Bus Line.

Biwabik, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—It is announced that there will soon be a second bus line between Biwabik and Gilbert.

LUMBER DEALERS WILL ADVERTISE

They Propose to Enter Upon Campaign of Education.

Chicago, March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—Arthur W. King, a prominent lumber dealer of Duluth, was in Chicago recently to consult with the trade extension department of the National Lumber Manufacturers' association, regarding participation of the Duluth dealers in publicity and lumber sales development. Mr. King stated that the lumber business in Duluth has fallen off 50 per cent in the last ten years. The reasons given were that lumber was not properly promoted or advocated for large construction purposes. He gives as an example the fact that no mill-constructed buildings are now erected whereas formerly they were the common type. The Northern Cold Storage company, for example, built their original building of mill-construction, but have since added two large additions which were entirely of reinforced concrete. The same is true of the steel docks, the Duluth, Missabe & Northern No. 3 dock having been built of lumber, in which over 10,000,000 feet were consumed. Two recent docks are entirely of steel and concrete, about $10,000 representing the total amount of lumber used in their new No. 4 dock. The same is true of the docks of the Duluth & Iron Range railroad. Mr. King pointed out that these developments were partly the fault of the lumbermen themselves in not more strenuously advocating their product, and it is proposed to enter upon a campaign of advertising and education which will bring more business to the lumber dealers of Duluth.

To Discard Aged or Weather-Soiled Skin

To free your skin of blotches, roughness, muddiness, over-redness, freckles or any cutaneous difficulty, the best thing to do is to free yourself of the skin itself. This is easily accomplished by the use of ordinary mercolized wax. Use at night as you use cold cream, washing it off next morning. Immediately the offending surface skin begins to come off in fine powder-like particles. Gradually the entire cuticle is absorbed in this way, causing no pain or inconvenience. Nor does the face exhibit any evidence of this treatment. The second layer of skin now in view presents a sparkling beauty and youthful robustness obtainable in no other way we have ever heard of. The mercolized wax can of course be found in any drug store and you won't need more than an ounce of it.

To free yourself of wrinkles or crowsfeet, there's nothing better than the saxolite lotion. You need only dissolve an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint of witch hazel and bathe your face in the solution. The effect is quite remarkable, the lines being less in evidence even after the first application. —Advertisement.

NOMINATE DIRECTORS.

Names Selected for Officers of Crookston Commercial Club.

Crookston, Minn., March 7.—The nominating committee, consisting of Walter Stone, W. T. Carlisle and O. Mercil, Ja., named by President Sivertson of the Commercial club to select a list of names to be voted on as directors for that organization for the one and two-year terms commencing March 22, have reported the following list:

Two-year term—Paul B. Albert, P. J. Eide, Ole Fylling, Theodore Garvik, W. L. Ireland, Charles Loring, W. R. Low, W. E. McKenzie, W. P. Murphy, Martin O'Brien, Edward Peterson, P. M. Ringdal, Samuel Rosenthal, J. C. Sathre, W. E. Slocum, O. C. Strander.

One-year term—Lee R. Boyd, N. A. Bray, L. D. Foskett, F. W. Hall, W. J. Krueger, H. L. Larson, C. F. Mix, C. G. Selvig, S. M. Sivertson, C. E. Skoug, A. D. Stephens, A. Z. Thompson, F. J. Tronrud, S. W. Wheeler.

EAT LESS MEAT AND TAKE SALTS IF KIDNEYS HURT

Says a Tablespoonful of Salts Flushes Kidneys, Stopping Backache.

Meat Forms Uric Acid, Which Excites Kidneys and Weakens Bladder.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Advertisement.

ANOTHER BLIZZARD IN COPPER COUNTRY

Train Service Interfered With and Mining Operations Hampered.

Calumet, Mich., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—A fierce blizzard from the northeast with heavy snow has blocked all railroad traffic and mail service into the Copper country is temporarily suspended, no trains arriving this morning.

The local train service also suspended and the copper mining companies are forced to curtail shipments of ore to their mills.

Interurban and local street car service also, interfered with as is also telephone and telegraph service to some extent.

Stephen Contract Let.

Stephen, Minn., March 7.—Carl M. Carlson of Thief River Falls, was awarded the general contract for the erection of the annex to the local high school, at a contract price of $22,709. The Hussey Construction company of Crookston was second low bidder. The ventilation and plumbing system will be installed by Wiste Thompson company of Thief River Falls, and the temperature control will be put in by the Johnson Service company of Minneapolis.

Valuable Item for Men

Health and strength hitherto unknown will be felt surging in rich, red blood through the arteries and veins and life's greatest ambitions may be realized as never before if the following special treatment is followed by those men, and women, too, who are stricken with that most dreaded of all afflictions, nervous exhaustion, accompanied with such symptoms as extreme nervousness, insomnia, cold extremities, melancholia, headaches, constipation and dyspepsia, kidney trouble, dreadful dreams of direful disasters, timidity in venturing and a general inability to act naturally at all times as other people do. Lack of poise and equilibrium in men is a constant source of embarrassment even when the public least suspects it. For the benefit of those who want a restoration to full, bounding health and all the happiness accompanying it, the following home treatment is given. It contains no opiates or habit-forming drugs whatever:

The treatment consists of (3) three-grain cadomene tablets, packed in sealed tubes, and widely prescribed and dispensed by physicians and well stocked pharmacists. Full directions for self administration now accompany each tube. It is claimed that these tablets possess the most wonderful tonic - invigorating powers which can soon be experienced after taking them.

—Advertisement.

DULUTH TWIN PORTS ELECTRIC LINES SUPERIOR

STREET CAR DELAYS

The Following Are the Causes of Interruptions In Street Car Service on Monday, March 6, 1916.

A driverless vehicle on the track at Seventh avenue east and Fourth street caused a delay of 15 minutes from 11:11 a. m.

A vehicle on the track at Third avenue west and First street delayed all hill line cars between 5:24 and 6:34 p. m.

Cars on nearly all lines were delayed from 5 to 30 minutes by the storm. Several cars became disabled and switches were kept clear of snow with difficulty, but no line was allowed to become blockaded.

Complaints and suggestions given prompt and courteous attention.

Telephones: Melrose 260; Lincoln 55.

VETERAN OF LIEGE AND NAMUR VISITS DULUTH

Joseph Mayerhofer, German Soldier, Tells of Drive on Paris.

"We Germans Think War Is Already Won," He Says.

A month ago Joseph Mayerhofer of Munich, Germany, member of the Third Bavarian Light cavalry, was in a base hospital, recovering from a shrapnel wound received in the battle of the Aisne.

Today, weather-beaten and scarred, he sat in a chair in the office of Dr. Peter Kraft, 410 Providence building, laughing and joking as he told of his experiences, starting with the memorable German advance on Liege, and including the drive toward Paris, the battle of the Marne, the drive into Russia, and then the return to the Yser and the Aisne.

"Who is going to win? Oh, everyone has a chance," he said laughingly. "The best chance? Why, we Germans think the war is already won."

Mayerhofer was discharged as unfit for further service, and will work on a farm at Sawyer, Minn., where he hopes to rebuild nerves shattered by harrowing experiences and many hardships of the trenches. He was wounded three times. At Kovno, during the drive into Russia, a horse was shot from under him, the rifle ball going through his own leg first. At the battle of Arras he lost two fingers, and at the Aisne his case was pronounced hopeless, when a piece of shrapnel struck him in the back of the head, just below the brain, tore out on the lower left hand side of his jaw, and passed out his mouth.

Veteran of Three Wars.

Veteran of three wars, he has come to America, to start over again. In China under Gen. von Waldersee during the Boxer uprising, then in South Africa, and then in Europe.

"I was in the first reserves," he said, with Dr. Kraft as interpreter. "We were among the first ones called, and I was one of the 8,000 men who started the drive into Belgium, and captured Liege.

"From Liege we went to Namur. We were there two days. Then we went on to Malin, to Brussels, to Maubeuge, and then on towards Paris.

"I understand that the German army was supposed to have 2,000,000 men in that drive on Paris. There were 75,000 men under Gen. von Kluck—and that is all.

"After we had advanced, we held for two days, and then dropped back when reinforcements we were expecting failed to come. We went back to the Marne, and we are still there.

"That was the first real battle, that of the Marne, and we left about 32,000 men on the field there. We couldn't tell how many there were of the enemy, but it was the third day before the British, under Gen. French, 240,000 of them, were noticed.

Sent to Russia.

"For more than six months we were in the trenches at Marne, and then suddenly my regiment, with some others, was shifted and hurried into Russia, under Field Marshal von Hindenberg and Gen. Mackensen.

"We went right through to Kovno, and we shelled that city for seventeen days. On the seventeenth day the infantry and calvary moved in and occupied it, and we moved on. It was while we were moving in that my horse was shot from under me, and I was wounded the first time.

"Forty-five thousand Cossacks were captured there, and when we surrounded them, we saw many women, stripped naked by the Cossacks, lying in the snow. Soldiers removed their own clothing, in some cases, to cover them. I was seven weeks in a base hospital.

"Then I was sent back to France, this time to the Yser. After six or seven weeks we engaged in the battle of Arras, on Sept. 12, 13, 14 and 15. Here a hand grenade explosion cost me two fingers," and Mayerhofer held up his left hand. "Back I went to the hospital.

"One of the greatest battles was in November, at Loos, when we shelled the English for four days and four nights. We received orders to fall back to our second line if the enemy attacked, because their force was stronger, and eventually we did. That is all the ground we lost.

Wounded at the Aisne.

"A month later the scene shifted to the Aisne, and early in that battle I received my third wound. I was unconscious from Dec. 18 to 29 and when I awoke, my first remark was: 'Did the mother send anything for Christmas?'

"After being discharged from the hospital on Feb. 4 I went to Stockholm, and sailed at once aboard the steamer Fjord for New York. I was going to my brother at Butternut, Wis., but decided to come to Sawyer and here I am."

Since arriving in Duluth Mayerhofer has had at least one interesting encounter with a Frenchman—Baron H. S. de La Malaussene, who lectured recently in a local theater in connection with war pictures.

Requisition Asked.

Madison, Wis., March 7.—Application was made today to Governor Philipp for a requisition for J. J. Corkill, now of Chicago. He is charged with making fraudulent representations in the sale of bonds of the La Crosse Water Power company. The application is presented by the district attorney's office at Milwaukee, and is opposed by a Madison law firm.

Edgerton Has $50,000 Fire.

Edgerton, Wis., March 7.—Ten of the leading business houses here were either completely wiped out or badly damaged by fire of an unknown origin which swept the block on Henry and Fulton streets early today. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

MISS HORRIGAN'S HAIR SHOP, Harper method.

DON'T LOSE YOUR HAIR, MISS HORrigan can save it.

THE RIGHT POSITION MEANS greatest success for you. Call Y. M. C. A. for appointment with Mr. Blumenthal. His analysis may be worth hundreds of dollars to you.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Charles Lovek and Mrs. Mary Womochel.
Henry Ringer and Sadie Cohen.
John Variano and Gladys Haling.
Joel O. Bodin and Nellie H. Conlng.

Wedding Announcements—Engraved or printed. Consolidated Stamp and Printing Co., 14 Fourth avenue west.

14, 13 AND 22K SOLID GOLD WEDding and engagement rings made and mounted to order at Henricksen's, 332 West Superior street.

Engraved and printed birth announcements. Consolidated Stamp & Print. Co.

Deaths and Funerals

RUNNING—Ruby Running, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Running of 926 Sixth avenue east, died at St. Mary's hospital yesterday. Funeral services will be held from Grahe & Horgan's chapel tomorrow at 2 p. m., with interment at Park Hill cemetery.

NORTON—Elizabeth B. Norton, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Norton of 5090 London road, died at St. Luke's hospital last night. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

MONUMENTS.

LARGEST STOCK OF HIGH-GRADE monuments in the Northwest; call and inspect before buying elsewhere. P. N. Peterson Granite Co., 230 E. Sup.

FUNERAL FLOWERS A SPECIALTY. Duluth Floral Co., 121 W. Superior St.

CARD OF THANKS:

WE WISH TO EXTEND OUR SINcere thanks to all for the kindness shown us during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father, also for the beautiful floral offerings.
MRS. ALFRED JOHNSON AND FAMILY.

WE WISH TO THANK THE ODD Fellows lodges Nos. 28 and 175, the employes of the George A. Gray company, American Exchange National bank and societies of the First Presbyterian church and all those who so kindly helped us during the illness and bereavement of our beloved wife and mother.
ROBERT CALLAN AND FAMILY.

WE WISH TO THANK OUR RELAtives and friends for the beautiful floral offerings and the kind sympathy they have shown us in our late bereavement.
OSCAR PERSGARD,
MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM BERG,
ARTHUR BERG,
HERBERT BERG.

WE WISH TO THANK OUR MANY friends and neighbors, especially Mr. and Mrs. Henry Klosowsky, for their sympathy and beautiful floral offerings in our bereavement.
MR. AND MRS. RICHARD ERICKSON.

WE WISH TO THANK OUR FRIENDS and neighbors, also the Ladies' Aid Societies of the Bethesda church, for their floral offerings and kindness during our late bereavement in the loss of our wife and daughter.
ARTHUR ROBINSON,
PETER LEE AND FAMILY.

Relief in Tuberculosis

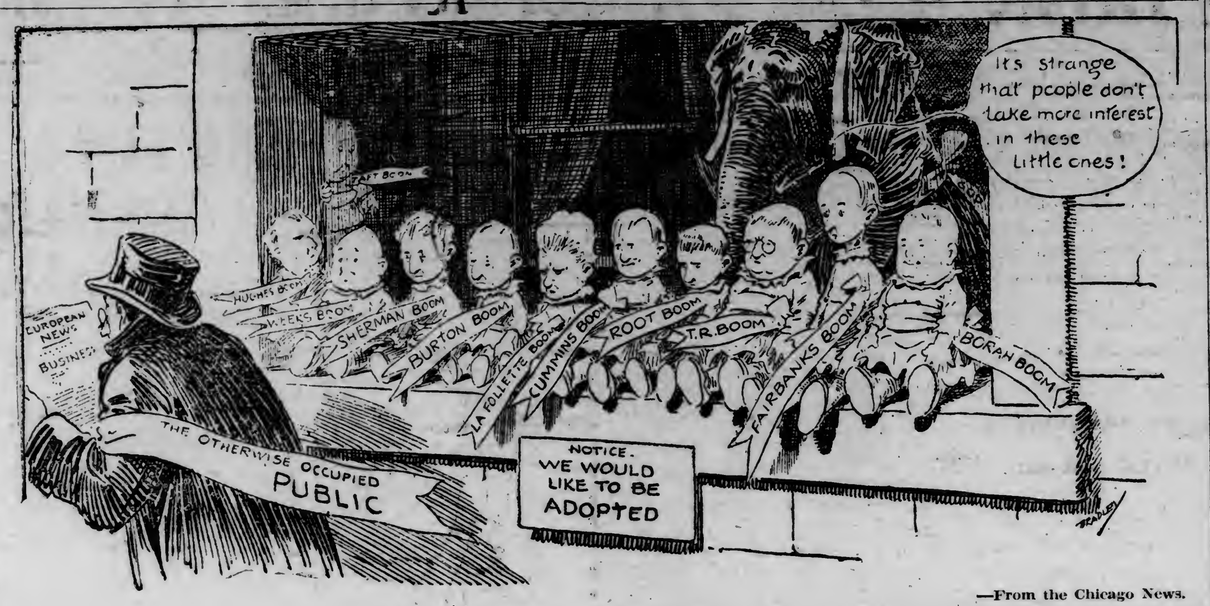
depends largely on the sufferer's ability to upbuild a weakened system, and thus hasten a return of natural functioning throughout the body.

In this effort much depends on the remedial value of fresh air—night and day—and rest and good food. The patient should refrain from work that overtaxes, and all sanitary precautions should be taken. These common sense measures are approved by doctors everywhere, but they do not always achieve the desired results unless aided by proper medication. It is here that Eckman's Alterative has evidenced its worth, for in many cases of tuberculosis it has effected lasting benefit.

Numerous cases of apparent recovery are recorded in its favor. In any event, its use is not attended with possible harm, since it contains no poisonous or habit-forming drugs. At your druggist's or direct from

Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia.

THE NEGLECTED WAR BABIES.



—From the Chicago News.

CITY BRIEFS

Loose Leaf and Filing Supplies. M. I. Stewart company. Phones 114.

Was Sale, Not a Loan.

After a half hour's deliberation this morning, a jury in Judge Dancer's division of the district court returned a verdict in favor of H. L. Palmer, defendant in a suit brought by Mrs. N. E. Lugoff to recover $300. Mrs. Lugoff sued for this amount, claiming that she advanced it as a loan on Oct. 30, 1912, when 4,000 shares of the Summit Copper company stock were delivered to her. Palmer claimed that the transaction was a sale and not a loan, and the jury so found.

Blumenthal Here Again.

Joseph Blumenthal, Minneapolis, who is well known as a character analysist, is in the city calling on friends at the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Blumenthal was in the city a few weeks ago and aroused considerable interest in his analysis of character.

Will Report Wednesday.

The March grand jury, which has been in session since last Wednesday, is expected to finish its deliberations tomorrow. No report from the inquisitorial body is expected today, according to County Attorney Warren E. Greene.

Paid One Day Early.

City employes are now paid one day ahead of time. Arrangements have been made by Commissioner Voss, finance head, to pay on the seventh and twenty-second of each month and today city employes are being paid for the last half of February. About $26,675 is being paid out today by City Treasurer McLean. The advance of pay day was made to benefit the workingmen, who need their money as near the first of the month as possible.

Estabrook's Subject Changed.

The subject on which H. D. Estabrook, candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, will speak at the Spalding tonight, will be "Preparedness." He had planned to speak on the tariff, but determined today to make the change.

NOTICE!

The clock in the First National Bank building will be out of commission for a few days while undergoing repairs.

PERSONALS

W. P. Chinn of Gilbert is registered at the Holland.

Samuel Hoar and Frank S. Kent, mining captains from the Mesaba range, are registered at the Holland today.

S. J. Cusson, manager of the Virginia & Rainy Lake lumber mill in Virginia, is a guest at the Spalding today.

ANNIVERSARY OF BIG BLIZZARD MARCH 9

Day after tomorrow, March 9, will be the anniversary of the premier blizzard in the history of modern Duluth, which occurred in 1892.

On that day, a gale, accompanied by heavy snow, started with considerable suddenness; so sudden, in fact, that many people were caught in their offices, and before they realized the seriousness of the situation were unable to get home. The wind blew with tremendous velocity and maintained its ferocity for a long period. So bad were conditions, that people did not venture even to cross a street.

After the storm died down, many people came out of buildings from the second story, the snow being drifted that high, and packed so hard that it was easy to walk upon it. In other instances, tunnels were dug through the snow to gain exit to the streets, and to pass some points. The street railway company was out of business for about forty-eight hours and every means of travel was completely halted. Never in the history of the city was there such a complete shutdown of business in Duluth as on that day and the day following.

SIX DELEGATES TO CONVENTION

Duluth Realty Men Will Be Represented at New Orleans.

The Duluth Real Estate exchange will be represented by at least six members at the annual national convention of the National Association of Real Estate Exchanges to be held at New Orleans on March 27 to 31, according to announcement made at a noon luncheon held by the Duluth exchange at the Duluth Commercial club today. The Duluthians who will attend are N. J. Upham, E. H. Brown, A. J. Frey, John H. Stevenson, T. W. Hoopes and Frank A. Day.

The exchange indorsed a resolution to appoint a committee of from three to five members to co-operate with a similar committee from the West Duluth Commercial club to ask J. J. Hill to locate a steel plant at the Head of the Lakes. The committee is to be named later.

Action was taken by the exchange to entertain at a luncheon tomorrow noon at the Commercial club, E. E. Rodgers of Milwaukee, vice president of the national association, who will be in the city tomorrow.

The exchange elected C. R. Stowell of West Duluth to membership.

BIG CHECK FOR RELIEF.

Sum of $4,500 Sent From Duluth for Jewish War Sufferers.

B. Silberstein, treasurer for the Central Jewish War Relief association of Duluth, yesterday sent a check for $4,500 to Felix M. Warburg, chairman of the American Jewish Relief committee, as the first contribution to the national fund for the aid of stricken Jews in the European war zone.

This money was collected on national Jewish Relief day, Jan. 27, which was designated by President Wilson. The money received at the mass meeting two weeks ago will be forwarded within a few weeks, Mr. Silberstein said.

CLASS IN MEMORY WORK.

Dr. Von De Schoeppe Will Give Course at Y. M. C. A.

At the close of the lecture which Dr. von de Schoeppe gave on "How to Remember Names" at the Y. M. C. A. last week, a number of business men expressed a desire to know more of this subject.

In order to comply with the wishes of the men who heard Dr. von de Schoeppe the Y. M. C. A. has engaged him to give a general course in memory training, which will be given on Wednesday nights at 8 o'clock in room C.

APPENDICITIS FATAL.

Little Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Norton Dies.

Miss Elizabeth Blinn Norton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Norton of 5090 London road, died at St. Luke's hospital this morning after a short illness. Appendicitis was given as the cause of death.

Miss Norton was 7 years old, being the youngest child in the family. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

Real Estate Transfers.

John Nelson et ux to Agnes McLean, west ½ lots 20, 21, blk. 97, Second addition to Virginia 1

John Johnson et ux to Agnes McLean, east ½ lots 20, 21, blk. 97, Second addition to Virginia 1

Vermilion Pine & Iron Land company to N. B. Shank and F. B. Myers, west ½ of ne¼, w½ of se¼, se¼ of se¼, section 14; sw¼ section 15; s½, section 21; nw¼, section 22; s½, section 29 ne¼, section 30; nw¼, section 32, 57-16, etc 1

Willis J. Holmes et ux to Dunbar F. Lippitt, lots 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, blk. 3, lots 33, 35, 37, 39, 41, blk. 4, Central division, West Duluth 4,000

Devils Lake State bank to Richard J. Collins, s½ of ne¼, se¼ of nw¼, section 36, 51-14 1

John Mobrotin et ux to George A. Whitman, nw¼ of sw¼, section 4, 50-18 200

Duane A. Whitney et ux to Alma Wegen, w½ of sw¼, ne¼ of sw¼, section 15; s½ of se¼, section 15, 58-12 1

Watson S. Moore et ux to J. E. Pope, lot 25, blk. 47, Gary, First division 1,150

A. W. Kuehnow et ux to Mike Brunsky, lot 15, blk. 11, Gary, First division 1

Henry J. Sullivan et ux to August J. Noren et al, lot 1, blk. 5, Hazelwood Park division, West Duluth 1

Duluth Home company to Olga P. Gillmore, lot 7, blk. 2, Waverly park 775

Grace S. Brearley to Theodore Conlon, lot 16, blk. 20, Portland division 2,400

Park Drive company to Pearl Jacobs, lot 6, blk. 1, Park Drive division 855

Crescent View company to Martin Holdi, lot 13, blk. 15, Crescent View park 1

The Kenilworth company to Arthur E. Mantney, lot 17, blk. 2, Kenilworth Park addition 1

Duluth Realty corporation to Harper Investment company, lot 9, blk. 1, lots 9, 11, 12, blk. 2, lot 8, blk. 4, lot 15, blk. 5, lot 1, blk. 6, and others in Loeb's addition to Lakeside 1

A. W. Kuehnow et ux to John Luoma, lot 16, blk. 12, Pittsburgh addition 1

Frank H. Tibbetts to Cooley & Underhill company, lot 112, blk. 74, Duluth Proper, Third division 1

Takes Madison Board Job.

Madison, Wis., March 7.—Andrew H. Melville of Oshkosh has been selected secretary of the Madison Board of Commerce succeeding E. M. McMahon, who resigned to accept a similar position at St. Paul at an increase in salary over that paid by the Madison organization. Mr. Melville's salary will be $4,000 annually.

ENORMOUS INCREASE OF THE BRITISH NAVY

Balfour Tells Commons It Has Grown 1,000,000 Tons.

London, March 7.—A. J. Balfour, first lord of the admiralty, stated in the house of commons this afternoon that the tonnage of the British navy had been increased by 1,000,000 tons since the outbreak of the war while the strength of the air division of the navy had grown tenfold.

Mr. Balfour told the house that never before in Great Britain's history had there been so much naval construction in the last nineteen months. He asserted the fleet was far stronger than at the outbreak of the war except in regard to armored cruisers. Many of the cruisers which had been lost had not been replaced.

FEDERAL BANK MAKES NEW RATE 3½ PER CENT

Minneapolis, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—John Rich, Federal agent of the Minneapolis reserve bank, today gave notice that the bank had established a rate of 3½ per cent on trade acceptances maturing within ninety days. This action followed the approval of the board of directors of the bank, who met yesterday, and marks the first step of the Minneapolis reserve bank in its campaign to encourage the re-establishment of this form of paper in the business dealings of the Ninth region.

Baker's Nomination.

Washington, March 7.—The nomination of Newton D. Baker, former mayor of Cleveland, to be secretary of war, was sent to the senate today.

Strike on English Steamers.

Belfast, via London, March 7.—Steamship services between this port and Fleetwood and Heysham in England were suspended last night owing to a strike by the crews of the steamers for increased wages. The stoppage aggravates the already congested condition in Belfast port.

Would Be Mayor of Madison.

Madison, Wis., March 7.—Leo Sommers, publisher of the Madisonian, has entered the field for mayor and his papers were filed yesterday. He has long been identified with the printing and publishing business in Madison. He will be opposed by seven others.

Charges Against Flannigan Dismissed.

Chicago, March 7.—Assistant United States District Attorney Michael Igoe dismissed the charges against Michael J. Flannigan, a saloon keeper, that he had criminal knowledge of the robbery of the St. Paul Federal building of revenue stamps to the amount of $575,000, when he was arraigned before United States Commissioner Mark A. Foote today. Similar charges against Mrs. Flannigan were dismissed a week ago.

LIFE SENTENCE FOR DYNAMITER

Respa Found Guilty of Blowing Up Canadian Buildings.

Windsor, Ont., March 7.—Charles Respa was convicted of dynamiting Canadian buildings by a jury at Sandwich, Ont., today. The jury was out fifteen minutes. Respa was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Respa was convicted on three charges. They were:

Dynamiting the Peabody overall factory at Walkerville, June 21; conspiracy with Albert Kaltschmidt of Detroit, to blow up the Windsor armory and placing a bomb under the Windsor armory.

Judge Falconbridge in passing sentence, said he knew of no reason why clemency should be granted. He declared that 200 persons probably would have been killed in the armory had the bomb exploded.

Owen Not Candidate For Justice.

Madison, Wis., March 7.—Attorney General Walter C. Owen announced today that he would not be a candidate for justice of the supreme court to succeed Justice W. P. Timlin.

STOCKS SITUATION VIEWED AS STRONG

Danger of Strikes and Diplomatic Tangles Not Believed Pressing.

Experts regard the general situation in the stock markets at Boston and New York as highly satisfactory. The declines in quotations that came about on Wall street last week, together with the creation of a large short interest, is considered to have left the market in a strong position.

Strong hopes are entertained that the disputes between the railroads and trainmen and between the coal miners and their employes will be adjusted satisfactorily.

Commenting upon the general situation, Renskorf, Lyon & Co., New York brokers, say in their weekly review:

"The enormous profits of the copper companies are now being realized by the stockholders of the copper-producing corporations. Many of these companies declared larger dividends than they did three months ago. Among them were Butte & Superior, which declared an extra dividend of $10 a share in addition to the regular rate. Utah copper, whose management is considered very conservative, declared $1 extra for the quarter and the regular $1.50 a share. These developments confirm our belief, expressed on previous occasions that investment in the coppers of the better class would net the investor a handsome return on his capital. Anaconda is another property which is in line for a larger rate of distribution, and we expect that the next time the directors of this company meet to act on the quarterly dividend, they will do something handsome for their stockholders. These large returns will soon begin to attract the investment public as soon as some of the uncertainties which are overhanging the situation are removed. Dividends are the basis of values, other conditions being equal in normal times, and we believe that the liquidation in the copper issues has placed them in a strong technical market position, where they will respond readily to any favorable developments.

"A glance at the past in the action of speculative markets in Wall street shows that there has always been an inclination to discount coming events, and we believe that the decline from the middle of January has to a considerable extent discounted a break of diplomatic relations with Germany. The market has eliminated practically all of the weak accounts and the larger interests anticipating that a termination of this character might occur, have prepared for the inevitable, should it happen. These large banking interests always lay their plans ahead to meet any situation which is liable to occur."

NOT ALL PROFIT TO POWDER COMPANY

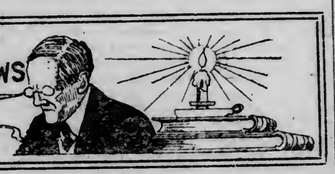
Ingredients Necessary Increase in Price; Much Construction Work.

An aggregate of $400,000,000 in war orders is understood to have been booked by the E. I. Dupont de Nemours company, and from the execution of these and its regular business a net profit of $57,840,758 was realized during 1915.

While prior to the war the highest price at which powder sold was 60 cents a pound, it is understood that the company actually delivered its powder under its war contracts at from $1 to $1.25 per pound. Against that, however, the price of essential ingredients entering into the manufacture of powder advanced sharply. Sulphuric acid, of which the company is a tremendous consumer, advanced last year from less than $10 to $25 and $28 a ton. A normal quotation for potash is $28 to $30 a ton. This same grade of potash salts is today obtainable only in small quantities at $480 to $500 a ton. The usual price for alcohol, also used largely in the manufacture of powder, is 30 cents per gallon (wine measure). Today the price is around 65 cents.

To fill its huge war orders, the Dupont company had to grow, and grow quickly. This meant that at the high point as many as 20,000 men were engaged in new construction at different plant centers. This new construction was charged to receipts and formed part of the cost of filling war orders.

LIGHTS AND SHADOWS OF POLICE COURT



AN EXPENSIVE DRINK.

John Roy Broke His Parole By Fall From Wagon.

Failure to keep his promise cost John Roy, 29, his freedom today, for Judge F. H. Cutting revoked his parole and sent him to the work farm, where he will serve a sentence for assault.

Drinking was Roy's chief trouble, he told the court and Probation Officer Frank Hicks, when he was brought in on the assault charge. He pleaded guilty, was sentenced to the work farm, and paroled for six months.

Yesterday Roy fell from the water wagon with a thud, and police soon learned of it. Inasmuch as the principal provision made when he was paroled was that he refrain from drinking, Patrolman Fred Dinkel arrested him.

It was an expensive drink.

LOST $20 DURING DANCE.

Even Good One-Step Not Worth That Thinks Emil Jarvinen.

St. Croix avenue danced last night. At least part of it did.

Included in the "part" that danced were Emil Jarvinen, lumberjack, and Miss Hazel Page, 28.

Hazel and Emil danced a one-step, Emil said, and it was a good one, but after the dance he went down stairs to buy a drink and a $20 gold piece was missing.

The lumberjack went right back to look for his partner, and as a result Miss Page faced Judge F. H. Cutting in municipal court today on a charge of petit larceny.

She pleaded not guilty and will be tried tomorrow morning.

HAD "SET LINES."

Carpenter Fined for Fishing Through Ice at Rice Lake.

Henry Cederberg, 35, a carpenter, paid $12.50 in municipal court this morning for a violation of the state fish and game law.

Cederberg, according to a complaint sworn to by Game Warden Kreager, was fishing through the ice at Rice lake with "set" lines. The law provides that fishing in this way, with more than two lines, is prohibited.

This case is the fifth resulting from a tour of inspection made Sunday, Feb. 27, by Wardens Kreager and August Tabor. Twenty men in all were caught fishing illegally. Five have been brought into court so far.

An "Eden" Electric Washer

Will Turn Your "Wash-Day Into Play-Day"

Let us show you the pleasure and economy in washing the "Eden" way—a new and better way—the old-fashioned "rub-on-the-board" way of washing is a thing of the past. Equip your home with an "Eden" Electric Washing and Wringing Machine and banish forever the drudgery of washing. The "Eden" is guaranteed to wash absolutely clean (without any hand rubbing). We'll PROVE it if you will permit us to send one to your home on FREE trial.

For March Only

A payment of $10.00 and then $5.00 per month until paid for will deliver an "EDEN" to your home.

"Eden" Features

Made entirely of metal.
All moving parts enclosed.
Gears made from steel, packed in hard grease—no oiling.
Sanitary, all zinc cylinder.
Special Motor.—can't blow fuses.

Northern Electrical Co.

210-12 WEST FIRST ST., DULUTH—Both Phones

CONSTIPATION

and West Baden Sprudel Water cannot exist in the same body one hour. At your druggist—small bottles, 15c; large bottles, 35c.

WEST BADEN SPRUDEL WATER
100% LAXATIVE

3%

Interest Allowed on Savings Deposits Made on or Before

March 10th

Northern National Bank

Alworth Building, DULUTH, MINN.

Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits, $387,000.00

ORGANIZED 1909

VERY HEAVY

Sterling Silver
Knives and Forks
Dessert Spoons
Table Spoons
Butter Spreaders
Crumb Scrapers
Fish Servers
Pie Knives
Bouillon Ladle

HALF PRICE at

Henricksen's March Sale

A. L. & N. J. HENRICKSEN
332 WEST SUPERIOR STREET.

Nervous Periodical Headaches

This trouble commonly called "sick headache, is said to be due to the retention of urea in the system. Often it is stated that a poor condition of the blood is a cause of these headaches, or that it is a nervous condition; and in certain cases, no doubt this is true.

Where treatment is demanded, it is more for the pain than anything else, and Dr. A. F. Scheilschmidt of Louisville, has found anti-kamnia tablets to give prompt and satisfactory relief. "Rest should be insisted upon," he says, "and the patient should go to bed, darken the room, and all the attendants and family should be as quiet as possible. An emetic will sometimes shorten the attack. The bowels should be kept open with "Actoids"; a hot bath and a thorough rub-down with a coarse towel, often give grateful relief. Two anti-kamnia tablets when the first signs appear, will usually prevent the attack. During an attack, one tablet every hour or two will shorten the attack and relieve the usual nausea and vomiting." These tablets may be obtained at all druggists. Ask for A-K Tablets. They are also unexcelled for nervous headaches, neuralgia and all pains.

Combing Won't Rid Hair of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no mater how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.—Advertisement.

Curling Hockey

News and Views of the Sport World

BILLIARDS ~ WRESTLING ~ BOWLING

Basketball Boxing

NEWS, GOSSIP AND COMMENT OF THE WORLD OF SPORT

BY BRUCE.

LOUIS DISBROW was known as one of the nerviest auto racers in the world. He was always taking desperate chances. He was married Saturday evening. He has decided to give up automobile racing. Taking the great and desperate chance of getting married, perhaps has evaporated the nerve of Disbrow.

* * *

Through the Two Wars.

LOOKING over the candidates for the Minneapolis baseball team, we find that but a few of the Civil war veterans are left in the club. Dave Altizer, who saw service during the two latter years of the great encounter, is still with the team. Jimmy Williams, who was maturing into solid middle age and shaking the follies of youth, when the first gun was fired at Sumpter, has, alas, gone. Billy Sullivan, who was but 17 years of age when the country was divided against itself by the stern call to arms, has also passed. In the old days of the club there were two cliques: those who sat in the lobbies of nights on the road, and went over the incidents of the Civil war, and members of another clannish bunch who talked of the Spanish war and what a great war it might have been, had it not been for the Spaniards. Minneapolis nearly lost the pennant one year because four of the players desired to take part in the annual G. A. R. encampment. But somehow Joe seems to have gone back on the old fellows. A man under 60 years can make the team, these days, which merely goes to show that sentiment after all has little place in baseball.

* * *

It Would Sure Go Great.

The name of Wisconsin's basket ball coach is Meanwell. What a great name that would be for a Northwestern football coach.

* * *

Their Education Incomplete.

Quite a large number of women paid 25 cents each to see Jess Willard going through his training stunts. While women are being educated along various lines, it still appears they have no idea of the value of money.

* * *

The High Cost of Living.

Jim Flynn is going to fight Jack Dillon again. This merely goes to prove that the Pueblo fireman has permitted himself to fall in a rut.

* * *

Played at Random.

Port Washington high school was defeated at basketball at Random Lake, Wis.

* * *

Well, This Is Improving.

Connie Mack will have only twenty-eight baseball players this season. He had only two last year.

* * *

He Should Know, at That.

It is said Napoleon Lajoie disagrees with certain parts of Carlyle's French Revolution. While only a boy when that great event occurred, Lajoie recalls many of its details with vivid distinctness.

* * *

Sam Is a Pretty Good Fellow.

Harry Wills is going to box Sam Langford again. There must be something very likable about Samuel.

* * *

Confirming the Statement.

Benny Kauff has refused to report to the Giants unless he is paid a bonus of $10,000. His friends have always claimed he was a great baseball player.

* * *

Could You Believe This.

St. Paul, Minn., March 7.—(By mail.)—When seen by your correspondent in his beautiful Como Boulevard home last evening, Mike Gibbons was garbed in smoking packet, slippers and was smoking his fifth black cigar.

"How's that!" we cried with awe and dismay, "do you smoke?" "Oh, yes," the great Gibbons replied. "Only before a match though. You see it quiets my nerves."

"Oh then," we exclaimed, "you have nerves, like all heroes, and you feel the effects of a bout."

"No, you have me wrong," said the great champion, as he puffed deeply of the fragrant weed and exhaled a puff of rich aroma. "It is not the fear of an opponent, but intense speculation as to finances. You see on many occasions I am on a percentage basis and therefore am subjected to the whims and vagaries of the public. A few days previous to most of my big contests I become deeply worried over what the box office tabulation will reveal, and thus as a rule smoke a few big black cigars during the last few days. At other times I do not use tobacco at all."

We pondered deeply, as we sat at his feet, over the deep and complex nature of this great man.

"Do you smoke?" asked the champion.

"Why yes," we cried, taken back at his graciousness.

"If you have anything to smoke with you, it's all right, you can smoke here," he said, and his countenance was lighted by one of those rare smiles.

"Whom do you consider the greatest modern fighter?" we hastened to ask, thus to hide our embarrassment.

"There's no argument there," the great champion replied. "Packey McFarland has a way of always getting the largest purses. He learned this detail of the fighting profession when young and could always defeat all opponents. After seeing Jess Willard fight in Havana, I never thought him a great champion. But now I have changed my mind. Why he is getting $47,000 for fighting Moran. He's the cleverest big man we've had."

At this point the great Phantom became wrapped in a mantle of his own reflections, and it was with fascinated awe that we observed the expressions flit across that stern and yet mobile countenance.

"Next to the—ah—the remuneration, the money—what do you like most about the fighting game?" we shyly questioned.

"The training," he replied and a smile of rare and beautiful enthusiasm lit up the face of the champion.

"I love dearly to run ten or perhaps fifteen miles on the road. I love to stand in a gymnasium and tug at the pulley weights. One never tires of this form of exercise. I love to stop blows of some sparring partner with my face. Then there is another thing I love—that is to have persons ask me if I remember them. This, I find, is a great mental exercise. I love to train and that is the one great detail of the fighting game I shall greatly regret when I retire from the game."

Here the countenance of the champion assumed an expression of sombre sadness and we refrained from awakening him from his mood of deep revérie.

"But alas," he at length resumed, "some day I must part from it all; from those long runs on the roads and those glorious hours of reducing weight."

Here the champion lit another black cigar. We looked at our watch. It was past midnight.

"You appear nervous," we ventured; "Smith's pretty tough, eh?"

"I wasn't thinking of Smith at all," replied the champion, and a deep look of concern settled over his face. "He has scarcely entered my thoughts. I was wondering, pondering and speculating whether Louie Dow is going to have that $30,000 for me. You may think us fighters have a life of ease and that we are care free. But such is not the case. See me now, my nerves a jumping like coils. I'm thinking, planning and scheming to get the best of my opponents, the matchmakers. There's Smith, now, I'll bet he's just as hard put as I. Smith's a good fellow and I possess a natural liking for him; but those matchmakers and club owners. They are the ones that drive us fighters to the very brink of despair. If you'll excuse me now, I must sit and think."

As we left the home of the great champion on Como boulevard, we stood a moment on the sidewalk, rubbing our eyes, momentarily expecting to see the house vanish, as though moved gy a Genii's wand. It did not seem possible we had talked with the great man, and in his own home. The light still flickered through the window.

"Ah," we exclaimed, "the great man is thinking, thinking, scheming and planning; surely he's a great fighter. Think of the money he gets."

WELSH TOO MUCH FOR AD WOLGAST

The Lightweight Champion Clearly Outpoints Former Holder of Crown.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 7.—Lightweight Champion Freddie Welsh last night clearly outpointed Ad Wolgast in a ten-round no-decision boxing bout, according to sporting writers at the ringside.

The first three and the fifth sessions were practically even. Wolgast had a shade in but one round, the fourth. From the sixth to the finish Wolgast was unable to penetrate Welsh's guard and missed many swings. Welsh jabbed Wolgast at will to the head and body, while Wolgast's principal drives were left to the stomach and ribs and right over to the head.

The fifth was the fastest of the bout, Welsh rocking Wolgast with rights and lefts to the jaw. Wolgast finished the round with a hard right to Welsh's wind, slowing the Englishman up.

In the eighth Welsh hammered Wolgast's face at will, opening a cut on Ad's nose which bled profusely. Wolgast appeared tired after the fifth. Welsh finished without a mark.

Welsh weighed in at 139¾ and Wolgast 137 pounds in the afternoon. Welsh had not posted a weight forfeit.

Ritchie Mitchell, Milwaukee lightweight, posted $2,500 for a meeting with Champion Welsh at the lightweight limit for a match at any distance, time or place, for the lightweight championship of the world.

MUDHENS GIVEN TO R. BRESNAHAN

American Association Assigns Franchise to Former Cub Manager.

Chicago, March 7.—Authority to transfer the Toledo franchise of the American association to Roger Bresnahan was voted by the association here last night. Bresnahan is said virtually to have completed the formation of a company of Toledo citizens to put up the money.

Announcement of the solution of this problem, which has vexed the association for some time, was made by President Thomas Chivington at the conclusion of a special meeting which engaged the magnates all day.

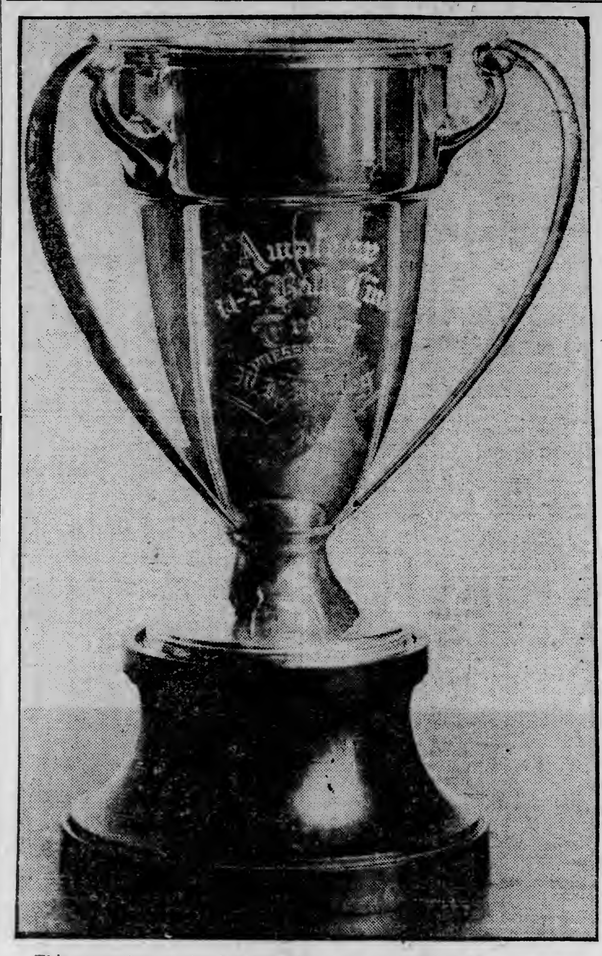
Formal transfer, based on the authority voted, is expected to take place this week.

Bresnahan, one of the best known ball players in the country, was not present. Mr. Chivington said that he understood that he was at Toledo and that a number of players were with him, ready to start practice.

No statement of the money involved was made. It was reported, however, that the way was made easy for Bresnahan eventually to come into a good share of the stock.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, March 7.—Fort Dodge has been granted a franchise in the Central association in place of Keokuk, which surrendered its franchise in the organization early in the year. Paul Purgon, first baseman, will be manager. President M. E. Justice presided at the meeting of the league.

CUE TROPHY OFFERED FOR DULUTH AMATEURS



This attractive trophy has been hung up by William Hatley as a prize in the amateur balk line billiard tournament that is being played. The best cue men of the city are entered for play and some great games are expected before the title winner is decided.

WRESTLING

ALEX ABERG
(Weight 234)
—vs.—
HELMAR JOHNSON
(Weight 222)

ABERG has never been thrown; won $10,000 purse in New York recently.

JOHNSON, Sweden's strongest man, is confident that he can throw the Great Finn, Aberg.

TWO GOOD PRELIMINARIES
Zorbas vs. Kellar.
Tom Pappos vs. Juntilla.

Tickets on sale at Arcade Cigar Store, 319 West Superior St. 75c, $1.00, $1.50. Phones—Grand 800; Melrose 12.

COUNCIL BACK OF BOAT CLUB

Duluth's Cool Summer Weather Urged as Regatta Attraction.

Resolutions Passed Seconding Invitation to National Oarsmen's Association.

Boosting Duluth's cool summer climate, city commissioners in council session yesterday afternoon unanimously adopted the resolution indorsing the campaign to secure the 1916 national regatta and seconding the invitation of the Duluth Boat club officials to the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen.

The measure was introduced by Mayor Prince and will head the petitions signed by several thousand Duluthians in backing the invitation of the club officials. The resolution follows:

"Whereas, the officials of the Duluth Boat club are making an effort to secure the 1916 regatta of the N. A. A. O. for Duluth, the home of America's champion oarsmen, and,

"Whereas, the citizens of Duluth are solidly behind the Duluth Boat club in its effort, and believe they should be afforded an opportunity to see their favorites in action against the best in the country, and,

"Whereas, Duluth has been favored by nature with a cool summer climate, where man can put forth his best effort; and has been favored also with a splendid rowing course; and has also a boat club second to none in the matter of membership, spirit and facilities for handling a regatta of such proportions, be it therefore

"Resolved, That this council hereby seconds the invitation of the Duluth Boat club that the 1916 regatta of the N. A. A. O. be held at Duluth."

BIG BOWLING SCORES EXPECTED AT A. B. C.

Toledo, Ohio, March 7.—Big scoring is expected to get its real start in the American Bowling Congress tournamen ttoday, another small band of individuals and doubles being billed to roll this afternoon with two fast squads of local teams scheduled to appear at night. Roger Bresnahan, the new boss of the Toledo ball club, will make his maiden appearance as a tournament bowler with the Old Sod club on the early shift tonight.

Bowling proved quiet yesterday, only a few minor changes being recorded in the events. The first meeting of the executive committee is billed for today.

The Overland Front Axles, Toledo, in the five-man team contest, the Broderick-Mollenkopf team, Cincinnati, in the two-man event, and W. Heenan, Jackson, Mich., in the individual competition, still lead their respective divisions.

New Coach at Purdue.

Lafayette, Ind., March 7.—Cleo O'Donnell, for a number of years coach of the Everett, Mass., high school football team, has signed to coach at Purdue this year, according to an announcement made by Oliver Cutts, physical director.

FINAL GAMES SCHEDULED

Dinham vs. Cleveland in Herald; Coson and Hall in Manley.

Banquet Planned as Grand Finale of the Curling Season.

Willie Dinham struck his curling stride last evening and administered a licking to Walter Harris in the semi-finals of The Herald event. The victory shunted Will along into the finals of that event, and this evening Cleveland and Dinham will play off for the trophy.

Cleveland has been sweeping all before him this season. His rink has made the greatest record of any entered in the local events. Dinham, too, has shown grand form, so that the game should prove one of the best of the present season. It is expected that a large gallery will be on hand to witness the contest.

Leslie Coson and Walter Hall will fight it out in the final of the Manley this evening, thus making two final games on the same evening.

Forfeit Rule Enforced.

With the Manley and Herald events out of the way after the contests of this evening, play in the Board of Trade, Pinzon and Blaze of Glory events will be rushed to completion. The play or forfeit rule will be rigidly enforced.

Members of the curling committee believe that curling play in all the events will not be completed before the latter part of next week.

A banquet, as a windup of the season, is being planned by the entertainment committee. It will be held either Saturday night of the present week or Saturday of next week.

Following are the results of last night's games, the draw for tonight and the standings to date:

BLAZE OF GLORY.

Art Hoene, 17; J. E. MacGregor, 3.
A. J. Gow, 10; E. Mann, 5.
G. Milligan, 19; Charles West, 8.
"Buster" Sahlberg, 16; W. E. McLeod, 14.

BOARD OF TRADE EVENT.

Sam Cleveland, 12; C. Naughton, 0 (forfeit).
Guy E. Warren, 12; Laird Goodman, 0.
E. A. Forsyth, 15; Fred Hoene, 5.

Draw for Tonight.

BOARD OF TRADE.

E. D. Field vs. S. L. Reichert.
Alex Macrae vs. H. S. Macgregor.
T. F. McGilvrary vs. J. H. McGhie.
W. W. Macmillan vs. J. E. MacGregor.

BLAZE OF GLORY.

Walter Harris vs. Walter Totman.
Harry George vs. C. F. Naufts.
Charles Brewer vs. C. R. MacLean.
Dr. L. Catterson vs. D. Cameron.
Allan Butchart vs. A. J. Gow.
E. A. Hargreaves vs. J. J. Currie.

Manley Event.

Semi-Finals.	Finals.
Coson Cleveland	Coson
Dinham Hall	Hall

Pinzon Event.

Third Round.	Semi-Finals.
Dinham Hall
Naughton Hoene	Hoene
Brewer Duncan
Milligan Macgregor	Macgregor

Herald Event.

Semi-Finals.	Finals.
Duncan Cleveland	Cleveland
Dinham Harris	Dinham

ABERG WILL TRAIN HERE

Big Finn Will Put on Final Touches for Johnson Match.

BY BRUCE.

Helmar Johnson, the big Swede who had the audiences at the New York wrestling tournament wondering at his feats of strength and his wrestling ability, has been secured by Promoter Frank La Joy to meet Alexander Aberg in the finish contest that will be held in the Duluth Auditorium, Friday evening.

Johnson defeated Hjelmar Lundin and secured the offer of the local promoter after a search over the country for some heavyweight to meet the great Aberg. As Johnson has previously wrestled his way down to the semi-finals of the New York tournament, his ability is well known.

According to a teleram from Edward Deliwuk, secretary of Aberg, the huge Finn is due to arrive in Duluth some time tomorrow. A place will be provided here so that Aberg can take a workout for the contest of Friday.

Is a Famous Wrestler.

Aberg is one of the most famous wrestlers in the world. The record of the big man in the United States has been in keeping with the great name that preceded him across the Atlantic. In Europe Aberg defeated Stanislaus Zbyszko and others of the great wrestlers, while after winning the two big tournaments held in the United States, there is not an American wrestler, with but one or two exceptions, who has not bowed in defeat before the huge Finn.

Cutler, Roller, Hussane, "Strangler" Lewis and others went down before Aberg in the recent tournament. Now Aberg has issued a defi to both Gotch and Stecher, and if present negotiations carry through, the big foreigner will meet Stecher some time during the coming month.

Aberg will surprise local wrestling fans by his gigantic physique. He is one of the biggest men in the athletic world. Not fat, like some of the other foreigners, but simply huge of torso, arms and limbs. It is the wonderful physique of the giant that has enabled him to defeat some of the giants of Europe, Norluah, the Turk, weighing 370 pounds at the time he was beaten at the hands of Aberg in the Petrograd tournament.

Louis Zorbax to Appear.

George Kellar, the Minneapolis champion, will appear against Louis Zorbas. The Minneapolis boy remained on the mat with Joe Carr for fifteen minutes without being thrown, winning the $25 prize offered by the management of the Minneapolis theater where Carr was taking on all comers. Kellar is believed to be good enough to give Zorbas the battle of his career.

MIKE GIBBONS WILL GIVE EXHIBITION HERE

Mike Gibbons will appear at the Lyceum theater, beginning March 19. Negotiations for the Duluth appearance of the world-famous boxer were closed yesterday by C. A. Marshall and Manager Morrissey of the theater. The contract with Gibbons, according to announcement, is based on the Phantom winning his contest with Jeff Smith, which is to be decided in St. Paul on March 17.

Gibbons will appear in Duluth in connection with a theatrical company and it is expected that he will give a sparring exhibition daily and also go through some of his training stunts.

As Mike Gibbons is perhaps the most celebrated boxer in the world at the present time, it is believed that his appearance here will arouse much interest.

Close Billiard Game.

New York, March 7.—In the closest game thus far of national amateur billiard championship tournament here, Francis Appleby yesterday defeated J. Ford Foggenburg, 400 to 394. The afternoon game resulted in another defeat for Jacob Klinger, European class B champion, this time at the hands of Morris D. Brown of Brooklyn. The score was 400 to 298. Klinger has lost four games since the game began.

Pennsy Beats Cornell.

Ithaca, N. Y., March 7.—The University of Pennsylvania basket ball team defeated the Cornell five, 10 to 9, in an intercollegiate game here last night.

National Leaguers to Camp.

Jacksonville, Fla., March 7.—Three National league baseball teams passed through here yesterday en route to their training camps. The Philadelphia squad arrived on the steamer Lenape from New York and took a train from St. Petersburg. The second squad of the Boston team passed through en

Forty-three years ago the Lanpher hat made its bow to the best dressed men in the Northwest and the best dressed men have been bowing with it ever since.

LANPHER HATS

The price is $3.00

Snuggle down in the old cock your up even with the third of your vest, fill up the with PEERLESS Long Cut, get under the with your or newspaper, and- go to it!

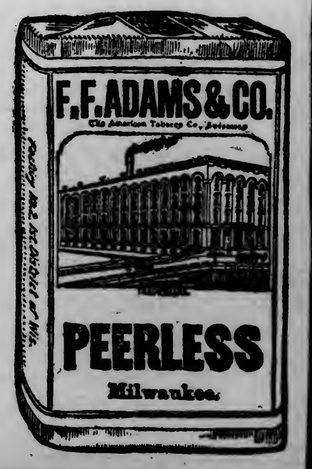
That's the ticket for a comfortable, happy evening—especially if you sandwich in a tasty chew of PEERLESS while the pipe rests up between smokes.

And all day long PEERLESS will stick right by you while you whirl through the day's job with the slam-bang snap that only real-for-sure tobacco can give you.

PEERLESS has the push and go in it because it's that rare old Kentucky Long Leaf, aged and ripened from three to five years while it packs away that rich, mellow sweetness and solid body you never get in ordinary Long Cuts. Sold everywhere in 5c packages.

Other sizes: 10c, 20c and 40c Packages and 45c Tin Pails.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY



route to Miami, and the Chicago Nationals came on a special train from Chicago, and after a short stopover, left for Tampa.

EMERALDS HOLD LEAD

Staggs Defeated By Grand Bowling Leaders; Railway Men to Roll.

March's grand effort in the snow line prevented the members of the Proctor bowling team from arriving in Duluth last evening, and as a consequence but two games were played in the Grand league. The Emeralds held their lead by winning two out of three games from the Staggs and the Schneiders won two out of three games from the Lackies.

M. M. Hanna, Fay Smalley and A. J. Gonnound are in charge of the second railway men's bowling tournament. The railway men will bowl tonight on the Grand alleys. The prize to be competed for is a box of cigars.

Following are the scores of the Grand league players and the lineup of the railway teams:

Grand scores:

Staggs.

Players—
Baker	165	164	168	497
Kohnen	158	153	168	479
Burke	170	157	164	491
Nelson	184	173	169	526
Sundby	179	168	208	555
Totals	856	815	877	2,548

Emeralds.

Players—
McDonald	136	149	205	490
Camp	199	168	182	549
Huyck	167	182	196	545
Mack	150	200	194	544
Leone	162	188	184	534
Totals	814	887	961	2,662

Schneiders.

Players—
Piering	202	200	171	573
Harson	173	149	186	508
Randall	172	158	148	478
Schneider	189	210	207	606
Kemp	186	178	223	587
Totals	922	895	935	2,757

Lackies.

Players—
Helewski	179	206	177	562
Peterson	162	174	186	522
Witchall	155	155	181	491
Cox	135	187	195	517
Lackie	166	239	170	575
Totals	797	961	909	2,667

Railroad Bowlers.

Big Baked Potato (Northern Pacific)—O'Donnell, Drey, Ober, Dick and Dolan.

5:55 (Omaha)—Carland, Jackson, Kirby, Gonnound and D. Blackeney.

Sioux (Soo)—Smalley, Devereaux, Cronholm, Pearce and Lundberg.

Orientals (Great Northern)—Hathaway, Woods, Halg, Kramer and McLaughlin.

Nebagamons (South Shore)—Lydon, Broman, Harvey, Sundeen and Rossiter.

Allies (Canadian Northern)—Oslie, McKinnon, Coon, H. Blackeney and Bowman.

Ohio State Beats Illini.

Columbus, Ohio, March 7.—Ohio State was defeated by Illinois, 22 to 28, in a Western conference basket ball game here last night.

NED TEN EYCK IS DELAYED

Coach Will Not Arrive Until Next Week; Old Men to Coach.

Ned Ten Eyck, who was expected in Duluth today, will not arrive here until next Tuesday. This information was conveyed in a wire received from Jimmy Ten Eyck.

Max Rheinberger, Roy Kent and Dave Horak will take charge of the rowing recruits pending the arrival of Ned Ten Eyck. Special classes have been formed from Central and Cathedral high school students, and Max Rheinberger will take charge of these crew candidates. Active work on the machines is due to begin today. It is expected that before the close of the present week the largest squad of candidates in the history of the club will have reported for work.

It has been requested that all of the regatta petitions be turned in by Thursday evening. The signed petitions must be in New York by March 18, the date when the executive committee of the National Rowing association meets to award the 1916 regatta.

Julius H. Barnes, it was announced today, will attend this meeting and will represent the Duluth Boat club. The petition containing thousands of names of Duluthians, will be forwarded, but in addition to the mute testimony the petition will bear as to the desire of the people of this city to stage the big regatta, Mr. Barnes will add force and weight to Duluth's argument by personally appearing.

Petitions should be turned in to Daniel Mahoney, Wallace Quimby or Walker Jamar.

GRAND FORKS IN NORTHERN

Flickertail City Is Given the Fort William Team Franchise.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 7.—Grand Forks has been handed the Fort William baseball franchise in the Northern league. Because of failure to pay over $1,000 dues upon which the deadline was placed for Feb. 25, Fort William stockholders have forfeited their right in the minor league. Today Charles Moll, special representative of President John Burmeister, is closing with Grand Forks business men to handle a club.

D. M. Mitchell, president of the Fort William club, refused to honor a draft drawn on him by the league officials and thereby automatically forfeited his franchise. President Burmeister had been authorized to draw on the Fort William Baseball company for $1,000 to cover the dues required by the league, and Mr. Mitchell has agreed to forward his $2,000 bond.

A big saving in mileage prompted the club officials to take up the Grand Forks proposition and President Burmeister expects to have the entire deal closed before Tuesday night. The league, under the new arrangement, will be made up of Duluth, Superior, Grand Forks, Fargo, Winnipeg and Virginia.

HEALTH TALKS

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

Teachers, School-Rooms and Tuberculosis

WILLIAM BRADY M.D.

The teachers suffer from overheated and inadequately ventilated school rooms as much as the school children do. Dr. Thomas D. Wood, writing in the Journal of the New York School Teachers' association, declares that the vocation of the 500,000 school teachers in the United States is extra-hazardous, there being a higher mortality rate from tuberculosis among teachers than among barkeepers and stone cutters. And "• • • incidentally," he says, "one of the reasons why the teachers have so much tuberculosis is that the school is such an insanitary place. Our schools, relatively for their purpose, you must remember, are less sanitary today than our state's prisons, our almshouses, our asylums, our hospitals. They are relatively less sanitary—you will remember all the words I use, please—than our stables, barns, pig-pens and chicken houses."

And what makes the schools insanitary?

Faulty ventilation.

Why can't all school rooms be well ventilated?

Because the "old women" on the school board, the board of health, yes, and sometimes on the teaching staff of the school, don't like the idea of more fresh air than the custom of years has warranted.

Dr. John B. Todd of Syracuse has found a way to obviate all the usual objections to good ventilation, and a number of public schools in Syracuse and other places have adopted the Todd idea with the happiest results. The teachers report that all odors disappear from the school room, that the temperature of the air is comfortable, that the children have little or no coryza (head colds) and do much better work than they did under the fan system of ventilation. Besides, Todd's innovation saves a considerable sum per year in power required to drive the fans.

The Todd idea is simply the use of cloth screens in place of windows. Cypress frames are made cheaply to fit the windows (on the blind stops). The frames are covered with unbleached cotton cloth (black cloth for ordinary exposures and Pluot for more exposed places). The screens are placed in the window frames outside the lower sash, which is then raised.

Each school room should have about one square foot of screen per pupil. Such screens can be made for $1 or $1.50 apiece. In time the cloth becomes soiled and may be renewed. The cloth filters out the dust from the air. It breaks the air currents. It allows a continuous air exchange and yet keeps the inside air fairly comfortable.

The Todd idea is available to country schools as well as city schools. Likewise, it is available to private homes. We commend it for bedrooms and for workrooms.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

A. R. B., Abe B., H. W. D., J. R., F. H. B., Mrs. McW., O. R. C., W. E. H., Miss M. W. G., A. L., Mrs. W. D. E., Rose C., Lily, E. P., L. M. P., and Mrs. A. S.

We request the owners of the above initials to send stamped and addressed envelopes for private reply. It will be advisable that they also repeat the matter of their former letters, to avoid confusion.

Watery Eyes.

What causes my eyes to run tears when I am out in the air?

Answer—Either some chronic trouble in the lining of the lids, or some obstruction of the tear duct which carries the tears away through the nose. Hypertrophic rhinitis (catarrh) is a common cause.

How to Take Flaxseed.

In regard to the remedy for constipation, how should one take the flaxseed?

Answer—Take one or two tablespoonfuls of the whole seed with oatmeal or cream of wheat each day.

Victim of Cold Baths Takes the Stand.

Some one asked you a while ago if ice cold baths administered to a typhoid fever patient were not cruel. I had the misfortune to contract typhoid recently, and had ice baths three to five times a day, and at night when necessary, and instead of dreading them I was always afraid I would not receive them regularly. I recovered in fine shape and now enjoy perfect health.

Answer—Of course the water is not ice cold, even when pieces of ice are added. Usually it does not go below 60 degs. F., and that is a long, long way from ice cold.

Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. If your question is of general interest it will be answered through these columns; if not it will be answer ed personally if stamped, addressed envelope is enclosed. Dr. Brady will not prescribe for individual cases or make diagnoses. Address, Dr. William Brady, care of this newspaper. Protected by The Adams Newspaper Service.

6088 SAVES Rheumatism Sufferers

Costly Trips to Hot Springs or to Sanatoriums

THOUSANDS have learned that 6088 (Sixty-Eighty-Eight) eliminates the causes of Rheumatism in much the same manner as do the waters of Hot Springs and similar resorts.

They have tried 6088 just because we have said to them—as we say to you now—"6088 must relieve your Rheumatism—must prove beneficial in cases of Chronic Skin Eruptions, Biliousness or Indigestion—or your money will be instantly returned to you by your own druggist."

Now that you can get 6088 of your druggist, you need no longer suffer the pangs of Rheumatism. You need no longer endure the torments of chronic skin eruptions.

Your Druggist Is Authorized to Guarantee Beneficial Results

6088 (Sixty-Eighty-Eight) is an absolutely harmless remedy if taken according to our plain directions. It contains no habit forming drugs.

We have sold it under a positive money-back-if-not-benefited Guarantee for years, and of all the thousands who have used 6088 (Sixty-Eighty-Eight) less than 1 per cent have asked for the return of their money.

6088 was not put on the market until it had been given years of trial by a successful physician who gained the reputation of a Rheumatism Specialist through the almost unfailing benefit the formula of 6088 achieved.

6088 is earnestly recommended for the treatment of Chronic Rheumatism, Mercurial Rheumatism, Lumbago and Rheumatic Neuralgia, following attacks of Inflammatory Rheumatism and Sciatica. It also proves beneficial in cases of Chronic Skin Eruptions, Biliousness or Indigestion.

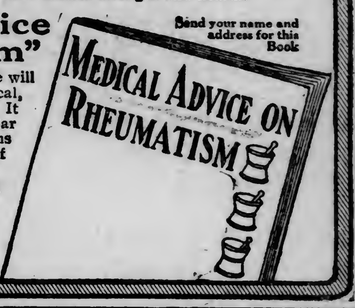
6088 (Sixty-Eighty-Eight) not only relieves Rheumatism, but it tends to build up the entire system, renovating the organs of the body and reviving their normal strength and health.

FREE "Medical Advice on Rheumatism"

Just send us your name and address on a post card. We will immediately send you, postage prepaid, this concise, practical, authoritative discussion of the entire subject of Rheumatism. It will tell you how to diagnose Inflammatory, Chronic Articular and Muscular Rheumatism, how to relieve the agonizing pains of all kinds of Rheumatism, how to diet and take care of yourself during any attack of any kind of Rheumatism.

Write for this helpful book today. Remember, you need not buy anything. The book is absolutely FREE.

Send your name and address for this Book



MATT. J. JOHNSON CO.

Dept. F St. Paul, Minn.

COULDN'T FOOL HIM TWICE

Experience Proved That There Was Nothing "Just As Good" As Father John's Medicine for Colds and Throat Troubles and As a Body Builder.

The victim of an unscrupulous druggist in a Pennsylvania town says that when he asked for Father John's Medicine the druggist persuaded him to take something else which was "just as good," according to the clerk.

"I might just as well have taken so much water,' this writer continues. "I afterward went back and got Father John's Medicine and in a short time I felt the good effects. It increased my weight, gave me strength and helped my bronchial trouble."

In some localities this practice of substitution by druggists is an evil practice of vast proportions. The unscrupulous druggist who forces upon you a different preparation when you call for Father John's Medicine is doing you an injury.

Remember that Father John's Medicine is a doctor's prescription, pure and wholesome, free from opium, morphine, chloroform or any other dangerous drugs or alcohol and with a history of more than 50 years' success in the treatment of colds, throat troubles and as a tonic and body builder.

Begin taking it today; it will make you strong.

WOULD YOU LEAVE MONEY

In a barn or basement, then why store your good furniture, which cost money, in such a place. You will be surprised how low our rates are for storing in our dry, clean, modern warehouses. Telephone for rates, either phone 492.

DULUTH VAN & STORAGE CO.

18 FOURTH AVENUE WEST

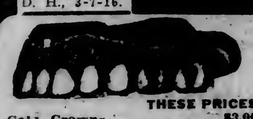
FOR PRINTING, LITHOGRAPHING, ENGRAVING, BINDING!

QUICK SERVICE AND EXPERT WORKMANSHIP, CALL

J. J. LeTOURNEAU PRINTING CO.

221 WEST FIRST STREET.

D. H., 3-7-16.



BAD TEETH!

We make a specialty of fixing bad teeth. We stop the pain instantly. A good night's rest is worth the moderate charge we make. No matter how bad your teeth are, we can fix them. Come in today for free examination.

THESE PRICES PREVAIL EVERY DAY

Gold Crowns	$3.00	Aluminum Plates	$12.00
Full Set Teeth as low as	$4.00	Gold Fillings	75c up
Bridgework, per tooth	$3.00	Silver Fillings	50c
White Crowns	$3.00	Teeth Cleaned	50c

NEW YORK AND BOSTON DENTAL CO.

Telephone, Melrose 7250. 216 West Superior St., (Opposite Grand Theater.)
Open Daily, 7 to 8 Evenings; Sundays, 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. Lady Attendant.

CATHEDRAL WILL MEET NORTHLAND

Catholic Basket Ball Players Have Hard Game in Sight.

Cathedral's strong basket ball team will take on the college quint of Northland. The game is scheduled for the Cathedral high school gymnasium next Friday evening. The Ashland college basket ball team defeated the Catholic boys earlier in the season, but as the local high school team is playing a very strong game at the present time, its followers hold high hopes of winning.

Coach Daugherty has been working his men very hard for the approaching contest. The practice sessions will be continued the first four days of the present week. According to the statement of the Cathedral coach, the team is playing the best basket ball of the season right now.

Wins at Pocket Billiards.

Chicago, March 7.—Charles Weston of Chicago defeated James Maturo of Denver in the national pocket billiard meet yesterday, 100 to 91, after the hardest fought game of the tournament.

Pirates Leave for Camp.

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 7.—The advance squad of the Pittsburgh Pirates left here last night for the spring training camp at Dawson Springs, Ky. The party was composed of twelve players and newspaper men and was in charge of Catcher George Gibson. A second detachment of the Pirates will leave here next Saturday.

HARVESTER HEAD ISSUES DENIAL

No Harvester Money Furnished to Promote Yucatan Revolution.

Chicago, March 7.—Cyrus H. McCormick, president of the International Harvester company, has issued the following statement:

"The statement before a subcommittee of the senate at Washington that the International Harvester company furnished money for a Yucatan revolution is utterly untrue. It has never, directly or indirectly, had any connection with political conditions in Yucatan or anywhere else in Mexico.

"This charge grows out of the fact that the Harvester company is a large purchaser of sisal, the principal product of Yucatan. Its purchase of sisal were made through Avelino Montes, a wealthy merchant of Merida, Yucatan, who purchased the sisal and paid the planters with his own funds.

"In the regular course of business, in February, 1915, Montes had made a contract for sisal for the Harvester company's account with the Yucatan Regulating committee, the agency through which the Yucatan government controlled and still controls the sisal market.

"When only a small part of this purchase had been delivered, the government of Yucatan peremptorily notified Montes that no more sisal would be delivered on this contract unless he issued to a Yucatan government commission a letter of credit for New York funds in exchange for Yucatan currency. Under this compulsion Montes issued a letter of credit, and afterwards made a payment on it in New York entirely with his own funds. None of the Harvester company's money was used in the transaction. The Harvester company did not know of it until some time after the transaction was completed. If any of Montes' money, thus advanced under the compulsion of his government, was used by the Yucatan commissioners for buying munitions, it was without the knowledge and beyond the control of the Harvester company."

Piles Cured in 6 to 14 Days.
Druggists refund money if PAZO OINTMENT fails to cure Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles. First application gives relief. 50c.

EMPLOYES MAY CHOOSE OWN DOCTOR

Health Officer Cannot Take Over Cases of Injured City Workmen.

Can the city compel its injured employes to accept the services of health department officials?

Commissioner Silberstein, safety head, declared at the council meeting yesterday that the compensation act allows an injured employe the privilege of selecting his own physician. In that case, the city has no power in the matter and the plan to have city physicians care for injured workmen, to save the heavy medical expense, will have to be dropped.

Commissioner Farrell, works head, who suggested the plan about a month ago, asked for an opinion from the city attorney on the provisions of the compensation act regarding medical services for the injured.

The claims of Andrew Fleischer and Andrew Carlson for $150 and $75, respectively, for injuries sustained from defective sidewalks, were both allowed by the council, while the bill of Dr. Robert Graham for $30 for medical services given Kenneth MacLennan, who was injured while in the city's employ on Jan. 4, was approved.

SEE WHAT CUTICURA

DOES FOR MY HAIR AND SKIN

The Soap keeps my skin fresh and clear and scalp free from dandruff. The Ointment soothes and heals any skin trouble.

Sample Each Free by Mail

With 32-p. Skin Book on request. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. 17G, Boston." Sold throughout the world.

NO PERMIT FOR LABOR AGENCY

Number Shall Not Be Increased in Duluth, Says City Council.

One Saloon License Is Held Up; Another Is Granted.

No additional employment offices will be allowed in Duluth.

This stand was again taken by city commissioners yesterday afternoon, when S. O. Carlson made application to operate an employment agency at 515 West Michigan street. The application was held up at the recommendation of Commissioner Silberstein, head of the safety division.

"Personally," said Commissioner Farrell, "I am opposed to these agencies altogether. The state and city should provide jobs for the unemployed."

The application of Albin Ilenda for a renewal of his saloon license at 411½ West Michigan street was held up for a week at the recommendation of the safety head, who said that the former must install lights in front of his saloon before the license would be granted. Alex Matel, whose application was held up last week for a similar reason, was granted a license yesterday afternoon, the police report showing that he had installed the necessary lights in front of his saloon at 415 West Michigan street. The application of Lovrence Kovach for a transfer of M. Caron's license at 711 West Superior street was held up for another week.

The following licenses were granted: Saloon renewals—George Larson, 102 East Superior street; Edward Olson, 502 West Superior street; Charles Langbridge, 22 Fifth avenue west, and Gust Johnson and B. A. Olanson, 517½ West Michigan street. Cigarettes—Alphonso Ottavio, 801 East Superior street; Philip Dandrea, 415½ West Superior street; Adamiak & Bogus, 2810 West Third street, and C. C. Gielle, 19 Sixty-third avenue west. Pool hall—H. W. Johnson, 2531 West Superior street.

SEATTLE HOLDING CITY ELECTION

Mayor Gill Again Candidate, Opposed By Austin E. Griffiths.

Seattle, Wash., March 7.—An election of city officials, held in Seattle today, attracted more than local interest, partly because of the candidacy of Mayor Hiram C. Gill, known all over the United States because of his recall and subsequent re-election. Opposing Mayor Gill in his candidacy for re-election was Austin E. Griffiths, a wealthy retired lawyer, born in England. Griffiths has served the city as councilman and as chief of police.

Mayor Gill's participation in Seattle politics began eighteen years ago when, at the age of 32 years, he was elected to the city council. Since then he has been councilman or mayor most of the time. He was elected mayor in 1910 and recalled by the votes of the newly enfranchised women in 1911 because of scandals in the police department. He ran again in 1912 and was defeated. In 1914 he was elected mayor by 17,000 majority. Last month he was renominated by a majority of 3,000 over all other candidates.

Other offices and candidates for them at today's election are:

Corporation counsel—James E. Bradford, incumbent; Hugh M. Caldwell.

Comptroller—Harry Carroll, incumbent, unopposed.

Treasurer—Ed L. Terry, incumbent; W. C. Hyatt.

Councilmen (three to be elected)—Former Mayor William Hickman Moore, who is also a former state senator and former judge; Reginald H. Thompson, engineer who leveled Seattle's hills and laid out Strathcona park on Vancouver island; Cecil B. Fitzgerald, councilman; Otto A. Case, former county auditor; Dr. Edwin J. Brown, Independent Socialist (opposed by regular Socialists), and Charles Marble, councilman.

The campaign leading to the primaries on Feb. 22, and the subsequent political activities, have been without bitterness and personalities. All candidates promised good government. The state prohibition law has not been an issue in any way.

Charter amendments for preferential voting, elimination of wards and boundaries, and placing certain city employes under the state industrial insurance act were voted on.

BRITISH SOLICITORS DRAW UP WILL OF 4,800 WORDS WITHOUT ANY PUNCTUATION

Dignified British solicitors, who drew the will of the late Thomas Emsley of Burley in Wharofedale in the West Riding of the county of York, England, thirty odd years ago, apparently entertained an extreme dislike for such trifles as periods, commas, semi-colons and such jolly rot.

Their finished product contained nearly 4,800 words without a single punctuation mark. It is an interesting specimen of legal verbiage framed with an utter disregard for the conventional rules of literary usage.

Emsley died in England more than a quarter of a century ago, but his last will and testament was recorded in St. Louis county only yesterday. The instrument affects certain property owned in this county and it was filed in the office of the register of deeds here by the local representatives of the estate.

Emsley's estate was valued at upwards of $100,000 and in his will he makes bequests ranging from £100 to £6,000 bestowing legacies on a long list of relatives, friends, servants and societies. The original executors of the estate were: James Walker Oxley of Leeds, Harry Rouse of Firby Hall near Bedale and Marmaduke D'Arcy Wyvill of Richmond.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' WEEK AT "U" FARM

Program Prepared for Annual Event Beginning April 3.

Announcement is made by T. A. Erickson, state leader of the Boys' and Girls' clubs, that the sixth annual Boys' and Girls' meet at the university farm in St. Paul will be held April 3 to 7.

Monday, April 3, will be occupied with registration and a short general assembly at 4 p. m. On other days the mornings will be devoted to class study and practice, the afternoons to excursions and the evenings to entertainments in the assembly room. During the forenoon boys may have the choice of the following subjects: First period, livestock or bees; second period, corn or livestock or garden; third period, corn or livestock; fourth period, livestock or poultry or garden. The program arranged for the girls provides for a choice for one subject in each of three groups: First, dairy and beef breeds, or beekeeping; second, foods and cookery, or garment making; third, gardening or poultry. Each girl will make her choice and register for three subjects, one from each group. Some materials are needed for garment making and canned fruit or jelly may be taken home. Hence, each girl should bring a small amount of money for such purposes.

The afternoons will be devoted to excursions to points of interest in and near the Twin Cities, such as the state capitol, the new state prison at Stillwater, the Russell-Miller Milling company mills, Walker Art gallery, Minneapolis public library, Minnehaha falls, Soldiers' home, South St. Paul stockyards.

The boys and girls may secure room and board on the agricultural college grounds. The expenses for the week will be $2 for board and room, and about $1 for street car fare on the excursions and for other incidentals. The additional cost for each will be railway fare from his home town to St. Paul and return. Students will be met at the depot by competent guides if desired.

Mounted Police Lose Barracks.

Stettler Alta., March 7.—The Royal Northwest Mounted Police barracks here were destroyed yesterday by fire which resulted from a coal gas explosion in the furnace. The rapid spread of the flames endangered several policemen who were removing the lone prisoner confined there, but all escaped without injury. The monetary loss is small.

THE GOOD JUDGE BEATS CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS.
I DISCOVERED AMERICA AND TOBACCO IN 1492.
GREAT! NOW AMERICA IS THE HOME OF FREEDOM.
YES, BUT THE JUDGE DISCOVERED THE LITTLE CHEW OF W-B CUT TOBACCO THAT LASTS AND SATISFIES.

IF some of your friends haven't been lucky enough to discover W-B CUT Chewing—the long shred Real Tobacco Chew—give them the good news today.

Tell them to get a pouch and give it a quality test—to take a small chew—and that they don't need to take a wad as with the ordinary kind. Tell them also, to notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste—how it satisfies.

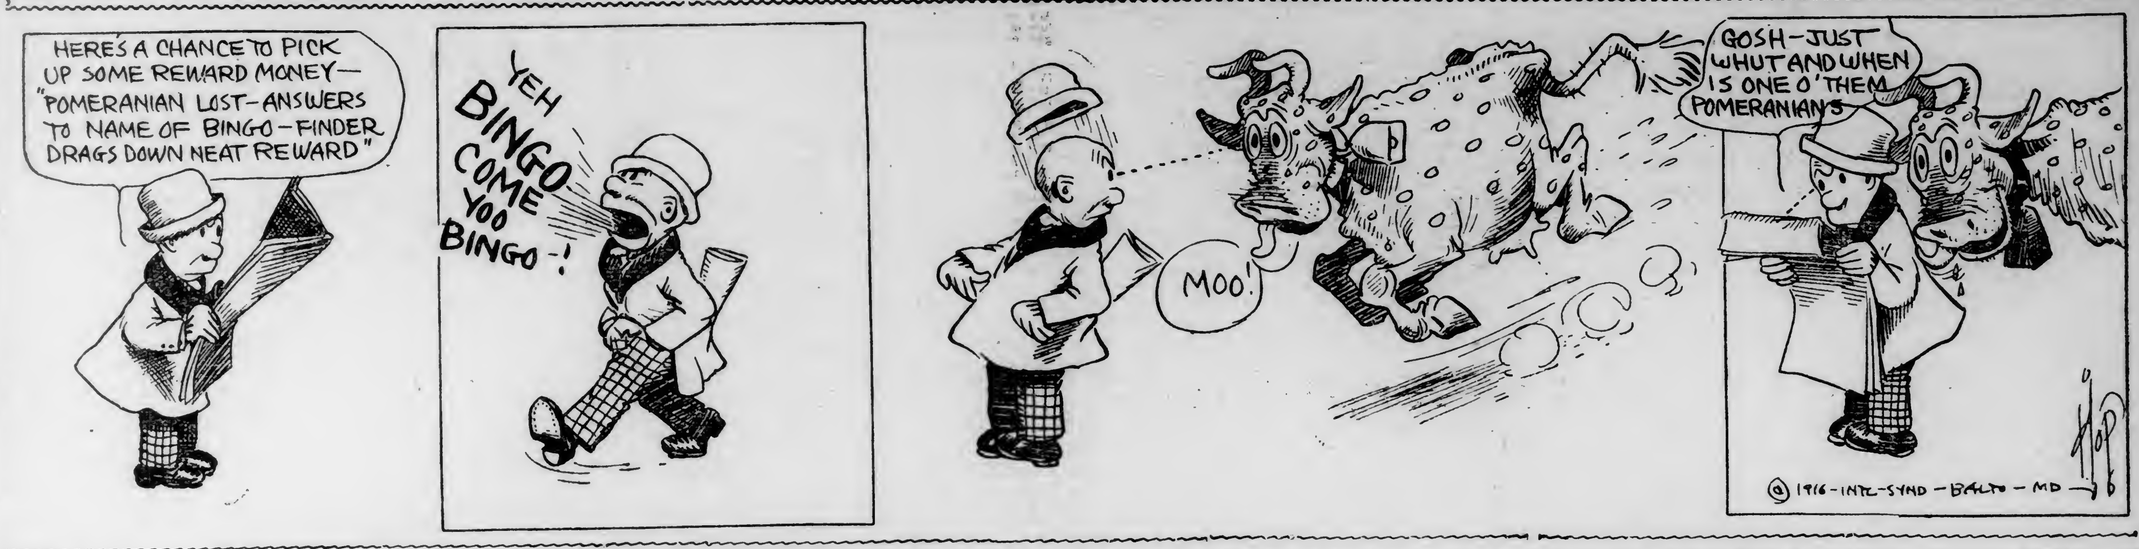
Made by WEYMAN-BRUTON COMPANY, 50 Union Square, New York City

DEFECTIVE PAGE

SCOOP THE CUB REPORTER

And Bingo Was Her Name!

By "HOP"



HERE'S A CHANCE TO PICK UP SOME REWARD MONEY— "POMERANIAN LOST—ANSWERS TO NAME OF BINGO—FINDER DRAGS DOWN NEAT REWARD"
YEH BINGO COME YOO BINGO-!
MOO!
GOSH—JUST WHUT AND WHEN IS ONE O' THEM POMERANIANS
©1916-INT'L-SYND-BALTO-MD
Hop

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

MOVIES FOR LUMBERJACKS

Northern Wisconsin Lumber Concern Makes Camp Life Attractive.

Scheme Works So Well Another Lumber Company Will Try It.

Ashland, Wis., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—Movies for the lumberjacks; that's the latest. It takes the place of bath tubs and other evidences of civilization adopted by some lumber concerns to make life in camp as pleasant as possible.

The Guerney Lumber company, operating several camps near Guerney, on the South Shore, has found that by establishing a moving picture machine to afford the "boys" some amusement during the long winter evenings there were less desertions from camp and now Lester Pierce of the Rust Owen company of Drummond is hunting a machine to install in his camps. He was here negotiating with a moving picture man for the use of a machine.

Previous to this winter the Guerney company was having trouble in keeping the men after they arrived at Guerney and the crew of most every camp would be changed almost entirely every thirty days.

Idea Proves Popular.

One of the office employes suggested that the company secure a moving picture machine and run moving pictures for the men in the evening. The company decided to try out the idea and secured a machine and operator and during the past several months have been conducting a moving picture show with a change of program every evening and Sunday afternoon. It has proven a huge success and the company has experienced no trouble by constant changes in their crew as formerly. The men are charged an admission, which they gladly pay and the little show hall is crowded every evening and Sunday afternoon with woodsmen who formerly used to hike to Saxon or Hurley for a carousal.

The success of the idea has been so pronounced that several other large lumber companies are now contemplating installing moving picture shows near their camps.

Killed Breaking Jail.

Butte, Mont., March 7.—Robert F. Hans, native of South Bend, Ind., who worked in the local mines and was known as a champion amateur pool player, was fatally shot by City Jailer Mike Murphy when he tried to escape from the city jail Sunday. He had been locked up for creating a disturbance in a restaurant.

SELLS WOODEN LEG FOR $2, NOW WANTS IT BACK.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., March 7.—Chief of Police Mitchell has the oddest assignment ever given an officer. He is trying to locate a wooden leg belonging to Edmund Burke, who says he got broke while here and sold the artificial "walker" for $2 to a second-hand dealer. Burke, writing from Iron Mountain, claims to have lost both legs in Alaska while prospecting and to have paid nearly $200 for the artificial ones, one of which he sold here when in dire straits after having been robbed of $90 while crossing the international bridge.

BEMIDJI CONSIDERS MANY IMPROVEMENTS

Bridge Across Mississippi, More Sewers and Other Things Planned.

Bemidji, Minn., March 7.—The new city council assumed office last night, the new mayor, Charles W. Vandersluis, taking office and urging economy besides making the usual appointments.

Expectations of a change in police head were not borne out as Frank Ripple was reappointed chief, while B. B. Lundgren was added to the force. H. M. Zacharias was reappointed patrolman and Roy W. Cross succeeds Patrolman Wold. Gary Brennan and William Caines were reappointed drivers in the fire department.

Among the officials for the village named last night were John Morberg, vice president; P. J. Russell, attorney; T. W. Swanson, civil engineer and street commissioner; George Clark, water clerk, and Joe Haun, scavenger.

Frank Lycan, chairman of the council, proposed a number of things for the betterment of Bemidji, chief of which is the construction of a bridge across the Mississippi river at the inlet to Bemidji lake at an estimated cost of $10,000, also the installation of a sewer service on Minnesota avenue costing about $12,000, besides considerable paving and inviting bids from banks to handle village paper at the lowest rate.

McKAY WAS DROWNED.

That Is Theory of Cook County Sheriff About Missing Fisherman.

Grand Marais, Minn., March 7.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance last December of John McKay, a Susie Island fisherman, will probably never be cleared up till his body is washed ashore as Sheriff Lien of Cook county who has just returned from Susie island where he sought some trace of the missing man, believes he was drowned.

He learned that McKay and Falkner, his fishing partner, quit fishing on Dec. 13 last and after settling up their accounts, McKay left in his skiff on the following day for his own home on an island less than a half mile away, intending to lift a couple nets on the way.

At McKay's cabin home the sheriff found no evidence of his having been there for a long time, goods piled up on and around the stove, and the bed showed no signs of having been used. The cooking utensils were all shipshape and it looked as if McKay had not lived there for a long time and had only been there to get some articles he wanted from time to time.

Sheriff Lien believes that McKay was drowned and that the body will be washed up on the shores of one of the islands in the spring unless the current has carried the body too far out into the open lake.

PRIEST'S SLAYER IN RAMSEY COUNTY JAIL

St. Paul, Minn., March 7.—Mrs. Dudek's arraignment in municipal court for shooting Father Jajeski was set yesterday for March 13, and she was removed to the county jail. Because of her confession, the coroner decided that no inquest would be necessary. Father Jajeski's funeral was tentatively set for next Thursday. The hearing as to her sanity will await the indictment by the grand jury.

ON TRIAL FOR MURDER.

Former St. Paul Woman Accused of Crime at Glendive, Mont.

Glendive, Mont., March 7.—Mrs. Georginia Steele, a former resident of St. Paul, was placed on trial in district court here today on a murder charge, it being alleged she was implicated in the killing of her husband, A. J. Steele, who was shot to death on the bridge across the Yellowstone river here Feb. 14, 1914, by Roy Johnson, a young man with whom she was driving, and who is also accused.

It develops that Steele and his wife and children, who lived on a homestead fourteen miles from this city, had separated on account of the alleged cruelty of Steele. The woman sought employment as housekeeper for David Johnson, father of Roy Johnson, and on the day preceding the killing she and the latter drove to Glendive in order to make arrangements for placing her children in a children's home.

Upon learning that his wife and young Johnson had come to Glendive, Steele rode to the city and met the two as they were crossing the river bridge. He ordered them to stop, according to their testimony, turn around and go back to town. He then dismounted, took Johnson's horses by the bridles and turned them around, after which, they declared, he removed his overcoat, grabbed the lines and shouted, "I will kill both of you."

Johnson then drew a revolver which, he said, Mrs. Steele had taken from her suitcase, and fired four times at Steele. Several weeks after being exonerated by the coroner's jury, on the ground that the killing was done in self-defense, Mrs. Steele went to St. Paul and later was arrested.

FLOODWOOD FINANCES.

Annual Statement Shows Village Has Balance on Right Side.

Floodwood, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—The financial statement just issued by M. H. Hingley, village treasurer, shows the receipts for the year ending Feb. 29 were $5,171.17 and disbursements $4,724.05, leaving a cash balance on hand of $447.12. Heretofore the principal source of revenue was from liquor licenses, which during the last year amounted to about $3,500, but nearly one-half of that amount was refunded to the saloon keepers after the saloons were closed by the Indian department. The liquor licenses covered all the expenses of the village, and there was no village tax. Among the largest items in expenditures were: Marshall's salary, $600; deep well, $365; for supplies, including gravel, cement and labor on streets, $729; state inebriate tax, $75; salaries of officials, including elections and assessors, $321.

During the past year many improvements were made in Floodwood, among the most important being the laying of cement sidewalks and street crossings, fixing up the cemetery, digging a deep well and installing an electric light system. The village now needs a water works system.

FLOODWOOD NOTES.

Duluth-St. Vincent Highway Work in That Locality Started.

Floodwood, Minn., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—E. A. Perrine has been awarded the contract for constructing the one-mile stretch of the Duluth-St. Vincent highway across Aitkin county and has men and several teams working. The clearing of the right-of-way is completed. The contract is for about $3,500, which is less than Mr. Leimer wanted for doing the work at the time he had been surfacing the St. Louis county part of the road. He wanted $5,000 for the job.

The Floodwood district has two leap year babies: A daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson and a boy born to Mr. and Mrs. Elias Aho, both on Feb. 29.

Among those prominently mentioned for office at the coming election are Dr. M. N. Triplett and W. A. Gagnon, for mayor; Ed Robinson and Jim Girvan, for recorder. M. W. Hingley has no opposition for village treasurer, which he has held for three terms.

"TIZ" FOR SORE, TIRED FEET--AH!

"Tiz" Is Grand for Aching, Swollen, Tender, Calloused Feet or Corns.

Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; no more burning feet; no more swollen, aching, tender, sweaty feet. No more soreness in corns, callouses, bunions.

No matter what ails your feet or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just use "Tiz." "Tiz" is the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet. "Tiz" cures your foot trouble so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never, never hurt or get sore and swollen. Think of it, no more foot misery, no more agony from corns, callouses or bunions.

Get a 25-cent box at any drug store or department store and get instant relief. Wear smaller shoes. Just once try "Tiz." Get a whole year's foot comfort for only 25 cents. Think of it.—Advertisement.

MONTANA LUMBERMAN DIES IN CALIFORNIA

Missoula, Mont., March 7.—John R. Toole of this city, head of the lumber department of the Anaconda Copper Mining company, and for years a personal friend of the late Marcus Daly, being intimately associated with him in business and political matters, is dead at Riverside, Cal., according to word received here. He was 67 years old, a native of Madison, Wis., and a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. Coming to Montana from Idaho in the early eighties he helped Marcus Daly lay out the town of Anaconda and for eighteen years was one of the Copper King's closest friends, figuring prominently in the long and bitter political fight between Daly and W. A. Clark and in the capital fight that for several years kept the state in a turmoil. Two daughters and four sons survive.

PORTAGE LAKE GOLF CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

Houghton, Mich., March 7.—The directors of the Portage Lake Golf club have elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: President, W. R. Thompson; vice president, John M. Wagner; secretary-treasurer, John M. Wagner; house committee, Dr. R. B. Harkness, John L. Harris, J. H. Rice; greens committee, D. L. Robinson, John W. Black, C. H. Worcester; golf committee, J. Zealand, F. I. Cairns, A. J. Ruhl; admission committee, W. R. Thompson, W. D. Calverley, John M. Wagner; captain, J. J. Zealand.

TO REMOVE BEAVER.

Wisconsin Conservation Commission Allows Trapping of Pests.

Ashland, Wis., March 7.—The state conservation commission to whom appeal was made by Ashland county farmers to get rid of beaver in this section because the industrious animals are causing much damage by damming up streams, has directed that the animals be removed by trapping. Local Warden Wisser has received notice to remove beaver as follows:

"You can begin with the removal of the beaver in the different localities where they are doing damage, and we want you to have charge of the catching of them in your territory. We are figuring on having Mr. Childs of Ashland working with you as it will take two to handle the work properly. We don't know just when the weather conditions will be right for commencing this work but we want you to make your plans and take charge of the work in your country at all places which I have mentioned.

"We took this matter up with the biological department at Washington, D. C., as to the best way to catch the beaver without injuring them and they recommend a steel trap with jaws wound with some material that will prevent the spring from breaking the legs of the beaver when caught, then fasten a rope to the chain of the trap. Run it up on the bank and aroud a twig and fasten a bell on the end of the rope and then place yourself near enough to the bell so that if you should be enjoying a nap it will wake you up when the beaver are caught. Remove them at once and secure them in some sort of a receptacle prepared in such manner as will give them enough liberty to live during their transportation. We are going to ship the beaver to Trout lake."

HAD BEEN DRINKING.

So Judge Took Plaintiff's Damage Case From Jury.

Ashland, Wis., March 7.—The personal injury case of Chris Nelson against the Omaha railway was taken from the jury by Judge Risjord in circuit court after the plaintiff had put in his evidence.

The evidence showed that Nelson had been drinking the night before he sat down to take a rest on the railroad track where he was struck and injured by the locomotive of a freight train.

The jury in the case was excused until Monday morning, March 13, when Judge Franz C. Eschweiler of Milwaukee will be present, ready to try the case of Hornblower & Weeks against Emma Wilkinson.

TO PROTECT FORESTS.

Government Will Co-operate With State in Minnesota Work.

St. Paul, Minn., March 7.—The Federal government will co-operate this year with the state forest service in the protection of Minnesota's vast forest area.

This information has been received by W. T. Cox, state forester, who said that the government has drawn up an agreement under which $8,000 will be available this year for the work. The fund will be allowed Minnesota under terms of the Weeks law.

"This is the maximum amount received by any state," he said, "and it may be considered as a recognition of the satisfactory organization of the Minnesota forest service. The Federal funds are allotted only to those states having good forest fire protection organization."

La Crosse Official Dies.

La Crosse, Wis., March 7.—Theodore J. Ritter, aged 33, deputy Federal revenue stamp collector here for two years and formerly assistant city clerk, died at his home here March 5. While watching his father at work in the Milwaukee railroad yards at the age of 5 Mr. Ritter was run over by a switch engine. His leg was amputated. Mr. Ritter was active in Democratic politics and for three years he was assistant city clerk under City Clerk Edward Hoffman. He remained in that position until President Wilson appointed him revenue stamp collector here on Aug. 16, 1914. Prior to entering the city clerk's office he was North side weighmaster.

J. C. R. IS AGAIN GETTING INTO PRINT

Dickinson, N. D., March 7.—The case of J. C. R. has had as much notoriety as the celebrated Dan Russell and is again in evidence. J. C. R. has turned up at Dickinson again and is the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. C. Moran, who avers that the man is her brother.

The father, however—so claimed—will not recognize the man as his son. The latter, seemingly without any real recognition of things in general, is yet able to point out landmarks and other places of his early life, and by gestures and other motions recalls other episodes in his early surroundings.

"J. C. R." is his nom de plume, inasmuch as, when found wandering in Minnesota, and later in Chicago, he could only be identified by the initials on his clothing. For the last four months or more he has been at the hot springs in Montana, but will now settle down with his supposed sister in Dickinson.

Agree to Arbitration.

Oshkosh, Wis., March 7.—The receivers of the Paine Lumber company late Monday agreed to the proposition of arbitration of the strike to the effect that the company will present the proposition to its attorney upon his return from Honoluiu about March 20. The receivers indicated that there are some points in the proposition to which they do not agree.

PENINSULA BRIEFS

Marquette—N. G. De Haas has returned from a purchasing trip through Ohio and Kentucky, where he went to place orders for fire brick for the chemical plant to be built in Manistique by the Thomas-Berry Chemical company.

Houghton—Under the direction of Miss Emma Spitz, supervisor of music in the Houghton schools, the Girls' Glee club of the high school, assisted by the boys' chorus and the high school orchestra, will give an "old folks" concert in the high school assembly room Thursday evening.

Hancock—Owen Patton of Greeland was lost in the woods all night, and when found in the morning had both his hands and feet frozen. He was brought to St. Joseph's hospital here.

Houghton—The Copper Range has started preliminary work on the rebuilding of its dock on the West Houghton lake front as a concrete structure. The greater portion of the dock is involved. The dock for 525 feet will have a concrete face and a concrete deck. The face will be six feet up from the water line.

Hancock—A number of improvements are to be made at St. Joseph's church. It is planned to have the altars repainted, the walls redecorated and the roof reshingled.

Houghton—The board of managers of the Copper country fair decided that the fair this year will be held during the last week of September, commencing Sept. 25. The same department superintendents and committees as last year were again appointed.

Lake Linden—Miss Isabel L. Hagen of Lake Linden and Eugene Le Page of St. Croix Falls, Wis., were married last Thursday evening at the home of the bride's uncle.

Hancock—Funeral services were held Monday for Herman Irascon, aged 57 years, who died Saturday at the family residence in this city. He is survived by his wife and three children, Mrs. William Ellola of Houghton, Mrs. John Miller of Edgemere and John, living at home.

Calumet—Mrs. Mary Ellis, a former local resident, died recently in Jamestown, N. D. Mrs. Ellis was a resident of the Central mine location during the sixties and is well remembered by older residents. Some thirty years ago the family moved to the Dakotas where they have resided ever since. She is survived by her husband and several grown up children, several of whom were born in the Copper country.

Lake Linden—The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Holzberger, who died Thursday evening, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Peter Stetter, was held Monday evening. She was one of the pioneers of this section and came to Lake Linden when a young woman. Mrs. Holzberger is survived by six sons, Andrew, Joseph, Philip, Frank, Charles and William, and a daughter.

WISCONSIN BRIEFS

Madison—Nicholas W. Keeley, 70 years old, president of the Keeley, Neckerman, Kessenich Drygoods company of Madison, died Saturday of hardening of the arteries at Hollywood, Cal., where he had spent the last two years. He was born in Ireland, and came to Madison when a young man. He leaves a widow, who was with him at his death, and a son, Richard T. Keeley, manager of the Keeley, Neckerman, Kessenich company, and a daughter.

Colgate—Michael J. Ennis, 54 years old, a pioneer settler of this place, died Sunday morning from heart failure with which he had been suffering for several months. He is survived by his widow and six children. Funeral services for Mr. Ennis will be held Tuesday morning.

Milwaukee—Christian Hendrickson, 57 years old, died on Saturday at his home here. Mr. Hendrickson was born in Denmark and had been a shoe merchant in Milwaukee for twenty-five years and operated a store at 1109 Teutonia avenue at the time of his death. He leaves a widow and two children, Miss Selma and Henry Hendricksen.

Oshkosh—Bishop Weller, who has been conducting a nine-day mission here, brought it to a close on Sunday with a sermon, in the morning and at night in Trinity Espicopal church.

La Crosse—Samuel Witwer of Arcadia lies in a hospital in a critical condition with a broken neck. Mr. Witwer was thrown from a box on which he was sitting in a wagon, to the frozen ground, when the wheels struck a rut. An operation was performed, replacing the dislocated vertebra.

Ashland—Section men on the Ashland division of the Chicago & Northwestern railway as well as on the Peninsula and other northern divisions have been granted an increase in wages and since Feb. 16 have been paid at the rate of 16½ cents an hour. The former rate was 15 cents an hour.

Washburn—It is stated that the plans for the new depot to be erected in this city by the Omaha Railway company have been practically completed and that work on the new structure will be started as soon as possible.

DAKOTA BRIEFS

Walpeton, N. D.—Visiting five cities during the last week, the committee of the North Dakota union of the American Society of Equity that is studying the question of location of the proposed packing plant of the organization, completed its investigation here. Anthony Walton of Minot, C. J. Lee of Valley City and P. M. Casey of Lisbon, the committee members, have, in almost two months, visited ten of the leading cities of the state that are bidding for the plant.

Minnewaukan, N. D.—The death of Mrs. Anna Kurz occurred at the farm home near Stony Lake, from diabetes. Mrs. Kurz was a sister of Jens Peterson, living west of town.

Minot, N. D.—A debating society, known as the Webster Debating club, has been organized at the Minot normal school. The club is an auxiliary of the English work. The officers of the new organization are as follows: President, Paul Sanford; vice president, Herbert Phelps; secretary, Otto Rom; treasurer, Henry Finn.

Bismarck, N. D.—Sitting Bear's suit, one of the finest specimens of an Indian buckskin suit, is now on exhibition in the state historical museum at the capitol. The suit was willed to the society by Sitting Bear before his death. He was one of the last of the full-blood Mandan chiefs, and spent the last years of his life on the Fort Berthold reservation.

La Moure, N. D.—E. G. Zabel has resigned as deputy clerk of court, and probate clerk, to devote his entire time and attention to his nursery business, which has grown to such proportions as to require his undivided attention. Miss Pearl McDermott of Oakes vicinity is Mr. Zabel's successor as clerk of county court in probate, and she will also assist in the office of the clerk of district court.

Grand Forks, N. D.—Plymouth Congregational Sunday school of Fargo and the Plymouth Congregational Sunday school of Grand Forks are entered in an eight weeks' contest for perfect classes, new members and attendance.

Minot, N. D.—Nicholas Nelson, aged 51 years, died at a local hospital Friday evening after a brief illness of heart failure. The funeral was held from the First Lutheran church Monday with Rev. T. F. Gullixson officiating. Mr. Nelson leaves his wife and six children, some of them grown to maturity and all at home.

Elgin, N. D.—Adolph Dittus and J. C. Bender of Elgin and Marion Dittus of Glen Ullin have purchased the local yard of the Curlew Lumber company of Glen Ullin, and have purchased the Emerson line of machinery stock and agency from the F. & E. Lumber company of this place.

MINNESOTA BRIEFS

St. Cloud—At the annual meeting of the St. Joseph Cornet band the following officers were elected: President, Herman Gebeck; vice president, Joseph Hiemenz; secretary, John Lauermann; treasurer, L. M. Beloh.

Crookston — Byron Gossman, connected with the editorial department of the Daily Times, has been named as municipal court clerk to succeed James E. Montague, resigned.

Bemidji—The report of Miss Beatrice Mills, librarian, shows that over 1,000 more books were circulated during 1915 than circulated in 1914. The total circulation for 1915 was 15,696 and for 1914, 14,669. The 1915 circulation was distributed as follows: 6,545 to children and 9,151 to adults.

Spooner — The moving picture show at the Auditorium opened Sunday evening under the management of Herman Miller, former proprietor of the Lyceum at Baudette. Mr. Miller has returned from Duluth where he purchased one of the latest improved machines.

St. Cloud—The local lodge of Elks elected the following officers: Exalted ruler, James R. Jerrard; esteemed leading knight, James J. Quigley; esteemed loyal knight, W. F. Dewey; esteemed lecturing knight, Harry Weis; secretary, A. W. Corwin; treasurer, C. O. Bensen; tiler, Frank Buckman; trustee, three years, William Weber; delegate to grand lodge, James R. Jerrard; alternate to grand lodge, W. W. Koons; delegate to state association in Duluth, C. H. Barden; alternate to state association, E. T. Davidson.

Mahnomen—C. W. Wright has purchased the two lots between the Park hotel property and the Barstow building, occupied by L. O. Johnson, and is having plans made for a garage, work on which will commence as soon as the frost is out of the ground. The new building will be constructed of hollow tile, with a brick front. It will be 50x120 feet, covering the two lots to the alley.

Fergus Falls—C. W. Kaddatz has secured Ted Karp to manage the Hotel Kaddatz here. Mr. Karp has recently come from Rochester, where he has managed a hotel.

Moorhead—Mrs. J. Reese, mother of Mrs. J. N. Martin of Oakport township, died Friday evening at the Martin home. She was 86 years old and had been ill since Christmas time. She was born in Clearwater, Iowa, and the body was taken to that city for burial.

Brainerd—The case of James Nelson, petitioner of Crosby, vs. Independent School District No. 51 of Crosby-Ironton, has gone over to March 18, when the hearing will be held before Judge W. S. McClenahan.

Crookston — The criminal case against John M. Johnson, alleged to have taken orders for liquor contrary to the statutes of the state since the enactment of the county option law, will come before the district court of Polk county in June. The case was set for Friday but owing to the illness of the defendant was continued.

Onamid—Edward S. Page, a former Rum River lumberman and well known to many pioneers of this county, died recently at Seattle, Wash.

Princeton — The Northwestern hospital of Princeton has been incorporated by Dr. H. C. Cooney, Mrs. Francis S. Cooney and Charles Kleth. The capitalization is $50,000.

Mahnomen — The members of Pembina township appeared before the board of county commissioners and requested that an additional allowance be made to them than that which was allowed them for the construction of a bridge across the Wild Rice river and after considering the matter the county board decided to pay one-half of the cost of constructing the bridge provided the Pembina township board allow the county board to join them in planning and constructing the bridge.

STOP DANDRUFF! HAIR GETS THICK WAVY, BEAUTIFUL

Girls! Draw a cloth through your hair and double its beauty.

Spend 25 cents! Dandruff vanishes and hairs stop coming out.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance; freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and luster and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.—Advertisement.

Quickest, Surest Cough Remedy is Home-Made

Easily Prepared in a Few Minutes. Cheap but Unequaled

Some people are constantly annoyed from one year's end to the other with a persistent bronchial cough, which is wholly unnecessary. Here is a home-made remedy that gets right at the cause and will make you wonder what became of it.

Get 2½ ounces Pinex (50 cents worth) from any druggist, pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Start taking it at once. Gradually but surely you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether, thus ending a cough that you never thought would end. It also loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals the inflammation in a painful cough with remarkable rapidity. Ordinary coughs are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, winter coughs and bronchial asthma.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup mixture makes a full pint—enough to last a family a long time—at a cost of only 54 cents. Keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant. Easily prepared. Full directions with Pinex.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in guaiacol, and is famous the world over for its ease, certainty and promptness in overcoming bad coughs, chest and throat colds.

Get the genuine. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces Pinex," and do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

"CASCARETS" FOR YOUR BOWELS IF HEADACHY, SICK

For Biliousness, Bad Breath, Colds, Indigestion and Constipation.

Enjoy Life! Liven Your Liver and Bowels Tonight and Feel Fine.

Your tongue is coated! Look inside your watch cover and see! That's bad business. What have you been eating? What were you drinking? What kind of a lazy chair did you take exercise in? Now don't think it doesn't matter, because it's your bowels that talk now every time you open your mouth. That doesn't help your popularity, nor your earning capacity. Besides, a person with bad bowels is in a bad way and a coated tongue or a bad breath are sure signs of bad bowels and poor digestion.

Why don't you get a 10-cent box of Cascarets at any drug store and give your liver and thirty feet of bowels the nicest, gentlest cleansing they ever experienced. Take one or two Cascarets tonight and wake up feeling fine and fit. All Headache, Dullness, Biliousness, Bad Breath, Stomach Sourness, Colds and Constipation gone—wake up with your head clear, tongue clean, stomach sweet, liver and bowels active, step elastic and complexion rosy.

Cascarets work while you sleep—never gripe or sicken. Cascarets act so gently that you hardly realize you have taken a thorough cathartic. They don't bother you all next day like salts, pills, oil or calomel—Cascarets being perfectly harmless is best children's laxative.—Advertisement.

MAY REACH $40,000 MARK

Total Amount Raised for St. Mary's in Ten Days, $36,224.

Mails Are Expected to Bring in Additional Contributions.

That fully $40,000 will be reached by the contributions for the St. Mary's hospital fund is the expectation of the 275 campaign workers who closed their ten-day canvass last night. The total amount raised was $36,224.12, and the amount raised yesterday was $6,549.96. Today's mails are expected to bring in a number of contributions and others may come in later.

Owing to the severe storm yesterday it was difficult for the workers to reach many offices on the lists, and many contributions expected were not obtained because of the inability of the workers to complete their rounds.

The last dinner for the campaigners was given at the Spalding hotel ballroom last night, and reports were received with great enthusiasm. G. W. Atmore, leader of Team No. 1, was greeted with cheers when he announced $1,052.50 as the contributions received by his team for yesterday. This was the record for any team during one day. Mrs. John Murphy won the honors for the women's teams.

Workers Are Praised.

The dinner was greatly enjoyed and the various speakers lauded the workers without stint. Rev. Father Floyd as one of the chief speakers thanked all of the workers for their perseverance and untiring efforts, and he also spoke highly of the generosity of Duluthians in not only giving to this fund but to every worthy cause.

Mrs. John Murphy, who won the banner for the women, by leading her team to victory during the campaign, was received with applause. Her team raised $2,908.90 during the ten days. She said most of the credit was due her co-workers, who had been on duty from early morning until late at night to secure contributions.

Those who assisted Mrs. Murphy on the team were: Mrs. J. T. Lannigan, Miss Margaret Horgan, Mrs. M. A. Hubbard, Mrs. C. C. Powers and Miss Elizabeth Burns. The alternates were: Mrs. Frank W. Fix, Mrs. Edward Lynch and Mrs. Frank O'Donnell and those who sewed at the booth were: Miss Nell Holland, Mrs. J. J. Haley, Miss Anna Cronin and Mrs. C. W. Ulrich.

G. W. Atmore, as the leader of the men's team; also spoke and praised his co-workers for their untiring efforts. This team raised $3,592.50 for the ten days.

Those who assisted Mr. Atmore were: E. J. Maney, Capt. James Sullivan, T. J. Monahan, John H. Murray, E. J. O'Rourke and M. C. Holahan.

Manager Sheffield presided at the meeting and praised all of the team captains and their assistants for the work done during the campaign.

Large contributions for the closing day poured in, and when the figures were summed up the names of the donors of $100 or more read as follows: E. I. Dupont Powder Company of Wilmington, Del., $250; W. W. Billson, $250; Thomas Feigh, $175; Edward Dormedy, $100; a friend, $100; George Hilliard, $100; I. Freimuth, $100; G. G. Dickerman, $100; Capt. James Sullivan, $100; Stone-Ordean-Wells, $100; James S. Graves, $100; a friend, $100; George A. Gray company, $100; Capt. M. L. Fay, $100.

The Duluth telephone companies, the newspapers and all others who aided during the campaign were thanked.

Following were the totals for each team:

Women's Division.

Team A—Miss Charlotte Barnes	$ 1,057.83
Team B—Mrs. Hugh Brown	1,396.91
Team C—Miss Ruth Brunner	337.74
Team D—Mrs. R. E. Carroll	901.15
Team E—Miss Ida Duffy	520.28
Team F—Mrs. M. J. Flintsruft	712.00
Team G—Mrs. E. W. Funk	840.75
Team H—Mrs. A. Hegland	409.25
Team I—Mrs. John Helmer	1,067.90
Team J—Mrs. Fred Hoene	968.50
Team K—Miss Kathlen Kane	791.44
Team L—Miss Ethel McKeever	321.75
Team M—Miss Julia Mahady	444.50
Team N—Mrs. M. H. Maloney	620.65
Team O—Mrs. E. J. Meagher	1,343.81
Team P—Mrs. John Murphy	2,908.90
Team Q—Miss M. Powers	1,229.05
Team R—Mrs. Jane Sullivan	419.75
Team S—Mrs. H. N. Wilson	356.00
Team T—Mrs. E. Sauve	496.45
Total	$16,776.65

Men's Division.

Team No. 1—G. W. Atmore	$ 3,592.50
Team No. 2—William Bellak	270.00
Team No. 3—R. A. Bissonnette	1,773.00
Team No. 4—Father M. Boland	3,042.50
Team No. 5—D. J. Dorsey	311.25
Team No. 6—T. R. Gleason	1,173.92
Team No. 7—V. M. Grady	1,320.10
Team No. 8—Henry Greuson	666.00
Team No. 9—J. A. O'Leary	1,284.00
Team No. 10—Rev. Father Raymond	1,003.20
Team No. 11—E. B. Ryan	1,500.00
Team No. 12—Dr. Shapiro	333.50
Team No. 13—Dr. E. L. Tuohy	1,768.00
Executive committee	115.00
Total	$18,298.62

Paint Without Oil

Remarkable discovery That Cuts Down the Cost of Paint Seventy-Five Per Cent.

A Free Trial Package Is Mailed to Everyone Who Writes.

A. L. Rice, a prominent manufacturer of Adams, N. Y., has discovered a process of making a new kind of paint without the use of oil. He calls it Powdrpaint. It comes in the form of a dry powder and all that is required is cold water to make a paint weather proof, fire proof and as durable as oil paint. It adheres to any surface, wood, stone or brick, spreads and looks like oil paint and costs about one-fourth as much.

Write to Mr. A. L. Rice, Manuf'r., 318 North St., Adams, N. Y., and he will send you a free trial package, also color card and full information showing you how you can save a good many dollars. Write today.

MEN

SPECIALISTS

Will Make You Well!

The true Specialist never attempts to do more than he can do WELL. Our entire practice is limited to Diseases of Men alone, such as STOMACH AND BOWEL TROUBLES, SKIN DISEASES, BLOOD DISORDERS, RHEUMATISM, NERVOUS DISORDERS, NEURALGIA, CATARRH, PILES, RUPTURE, HEART TROUBLES, VARICOSE VEINS, RECTAL TROUBLES, BLADDER TROUBLE, STRICTURE and other diseases of men.

"606 and 914" for Complete Healing of Blood-Disorders and Blood-Poison.

Our Method of Electro and Spondylo-Therapy will do wonders for you. Try this Natural Method and see how quickly it will make you well. Consultation Free. Offices, No. 1 West Superior street, at corner Lake Avenue, Duluth. Hours—9 a. m. to 6 p. m.; Sundays, 10 a. m. to 1 p. m.; Wednesday and Saturday evenings until 8 p. m.

Men living far away write for Home Treatment. Write for symptom blank and inclose stamp for reply.

PROGRESSIVE MEDICAL DOCTORS

NO. 1 WEST SUPERIOR ST. (Upstairs), Duluth, Minn.

DRINK HABIT

RELIABLE HOME TREATMENT

The ORRINE treatment for the Drink Habit can be used with absolute confidence. It destroys all desire for whiskey, beer or other alcoholic stimulants. Thousands have successfully used it and have been restored to lives of sobriety and usefulness. Can be given secretly. Costs only $1.00 per box. If you fail to get results from ORRINE after a trial, your money will be refunded. Ask for free booklet telling all about ORRINE.

W. A. Abbett, 219 W. Superior St., 902 E. Second St., 101 W. Fourth St.

NEW RECORD IN DIVIDENDS

Quarterly Payments for Twenty Companies Are Quadrupled in Year.

That remarkable prosperity exists in the copper trade is attested in the record of dividend disbursements established by the leading companies during the last six months. The last quarterly dividend payments by twenty companies aggregated $23,354,500, as compared with a total of only $5,661,934 a year ago.

While dividend payments are more than four times larger than a year ago, the whole story is not told. It is estimated that on a basis of 25-cent copper, the copper-mines of the United States, Canada and Central and South America, that have their copper refined in this country, are earning between $300,000,000 and $350,000,000 annually. If that estimate is correct it is pointed out that the copper producers are paying to their shareholders only from one-third to one-quarter of what they are earning on a 25-cent copper basis, and the metal is now selling at 3 cents above that figure, so that earnings are actually much larger. That is taken to mean that the companies are accumulating large surpluses that should enable them to bridge with safety less prosperous conditions in the trade when the time comes.

With a regular quarterly dividend of 75 cents a share and $10 extra, the Butte & Superior Copper company has established a record, as this followed a dividend payment of $8.25 in the preceding quarter. Its stock yesterday sold up to $98, the highest point in its history.

On a basis of 25-cent copper, it is estimated that Anaconda Copper company is earning $22, a share on its stock, while it is only paying $6 now. A larger dividend is expected at the next quarterly meeting of directors.

It is estimated that with the Braden property operating to full capacity and including its equity in Utah and Nevada Consolidated, Kennecott Copper company should be earning $24 a share annually, while it is only paying $4.

North Butte is said to be earning large profits, and an increased dividend is hoped for next quarter. It is said that the directors will probably meet on March 20 to decide on the dividend. A table embracing twenty-two copper companies shows that the smallest amount earned by any one of them on a basis of 27-cent copper is 24 per cent on the market value of its stock, and the highest is 52 per cent.

CASSELTON BANK WILL SOON OPEN

Fargo, N. D., March 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—All arrangements have been completed for opening the First National bank of Casselton, N. D., and it is expected the doors will be thrown open to business within the next week. It is stated the depositors of the bank will not lose a cent as arrangements are made to pay 100 cents on a dollar. Each of the directors having put up $25,000, with the exception of one who put up $30,000 to cover shortages, and slow paper that caused the closing of the bank on Dec. 6 last and the arrest of R. C. Kittle, former president. F. Kittle, cashier, charges misappropriation of funds, falsifying accounts. The exact date of the opening of the bank will be announced later.

MILL CITY VICE PROBE.

Grand Juries Queries Girls Respecting Alleged Vice Ring.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 7.—Mayor W. G. Nye has issued an order reducing the hours of policemen from ten to eight hours a day in the hope of bringing about greater efficiency and cutting down the number of minor robberies and other crimes. In a statement to the public, he pleaded for a larger police force and said that the police department had been too freely criticized.

The grand jury which, Monday, began an investigation of vice conditions in the city, questioned several young girls, who have told stories of having been lured to lives of crime by members of an alleged vice ring.

NEW COFFEE COMPANY.

Andresen-Ryan Company Opens Big Plant in Duluth.

Duluth can now boast of being a leading coffee center, the latest plant to enter the local field being the Andresen-Ryan Coffee company, located at 12 East Michigan street, occupying the quarters formerly held by the Schulze Brothers' Leather company. The two members of the firm, W. J. Ryan and G. A. Andresen, are coffee men of large experience and they intend to devote all their energy to building up an exclusive coffee manufacturing establishment in Duluth.

Mr. Ryan, who is the son-in-law of Simon Clark, was for fourteen years with the Woolston Spice company of Toledo, Ohio, while Mr. Andresen has been in charge of the coffee manufacturing department of Gowan-Lenning-Brown company for the last several years. The new concern has installed the very latest machinery for the manufacture of their product, and they will utilize the entire four floors of the building for the handling of their business.

SOUTH SHORE ROAD IS STILL FIGHTING DRIFTS

The snow storm of the last three days seems to be picking on the railroad system of the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic with especial vigor. While none of the other trains were late today, the South Shore's train was five hours behind its schedule. The snow drifts in the Upper Peninsula country are said to be very bad. Railroad officials declared that drifting snow made it very hard to maintain a time schedule.

LEGAL NOTICES.

ORDER TO EXAMINE FINAL ACCOUNT—

State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis.—ss.
In Probate Court. In the Matter of the Estate of Margarette C. White, Decedent.

The petition of A. C. Gillette, as representative of the above named decedent, together with his final account of administration of said estate, having been filed in this court, representing, among other things, that he has fully administered said estate, and praying that said final account of said administration be examined, adjusted and allowed by the Court, and that the Court make and enter its final decree of distribution of the residue of the estate of said decedent to the persons entitled thereto, and for the discharge of the representative and the sureties on his bond. It is ordered, That said petition be heard, and said final account examined, adjusted, and if correct, allowed by the Court, at the Probate Court Rooms in the Court House, in the City of Duluth in said County, on Monday, the 27th day of March, 1916, at ten o'clock A. M., and all persons interested in said hearing and in said matter are hereby cited and required at said time and place to show cause, if any there be, why said petition should not be granted. Ordered further, That this order be served by publication in The Duluth Herald according to law.

Dated at Duluth, Minn., Feb. 28th, 1916.

By the Court,
S. W. GILPIN, Judge of Probate.
Attest: A. R. MORTON,
Clerk of Probate.
Seal, Probate Court, St. Louis Co., Minn.
D. H., Feb. 29, March 7, 14, 1916.

OPENING OF CEDED CHIPPEWA LANDS.—Department of the Interior, General Land Office, Washington, D. C., Feb. 19, 1916.—Notice is hereby given, That 56,175.62 acres of ceded Chippewa lands in the former Red Lake, White Earth, Leech Lake, Chippewa of the Mississippi, Winnebigoshish, Deer Creek, Bois Fort and Pigeon River Indian Reservations, in the State of Minnesota, will be opened to homestead entry at the district land offices at Cass Lake, Crookston, Duluth, Minnesota, on April 26, 1916, on and after 9 o'clock a. m., under Section 6 of the act of January 14, 1889 (25 Stat., 642), and under the laws applicable to townsites. A portion of these lands were opened to settlement on January 11, 1915, and September 27, 1915, and the remainder will be subject to settlement at 9 o'clock a. m., on April 12, 1916. No rights can be acquired by settling on the lands prior to the time they are subject to settlement. A portion of the lands, 3,815.35 acres, are classified as pine lands, and applicants for these lands will be required to pay an appraised price for the timber therein at the time of making entry, as provided in Section 27, act of June 25, 1910 (36 Stat., 862). Printed lists of the lands to be opened and copies of the instructions governing the disposal of said lands, may be obtained, as soon as they can be printed, at the land offices, upon application to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, Washington, D. C., or the Registers and Receivers of the United States land offices, at Cass Lake, Crookston and Duluth, Minnesota. Clay Tallman, Commissioner. Approved Feb. 19, 1916. Andrieus A. Jones, First Assistant Secretary.

NOTICE OF SALE—

State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis.
District Court, Eleventh Judicial District.
Erba C. Little, Henry L. Little, Henry P. Watson and Jessica P. Briggs, Plaintiffs,
vs.
The W. D. Washburn, Jr., Farm Lands Company, a corporation, and The Hardwood Farm Lands Company, a corporation, Defendants.

Notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of a judgment and decree entered in the above entitled action on the 15th day of December, 1915, a certified transcript of which has been delivered to me, I, the undersigned, Sheriff of said St. Louis County, will sell, at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, on Monday, the 20th day of March, 1916, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the main front door of the Court House opening toward Fifth Avenue West, in the City of Duluth, in the said County of St. Louis and State of Minnesota, in separate parcels, the premises and real estate and the coal, iron and other minerals and fossils, all as described in said judgment and decree, as follows:

The following described premises, together with all the coal, iron, and other minerals and fossils in or on the said premises, to-wit:

The following described property situated in the County of St. Louis and State of Minnesota, viz:

Northwest quarter of northwest quarter (NW¼ of NW¼) of Section 24, in Township sixty-one (61) N of Range fourteen (14) West of 4th P. M., northwest quarter of southeast quarter (NW¼ of SE¼), Southwest quarter of southeast quarter (SW¼ of SE¼) of Section 29, Lot two (2) or NW¼ of NE¼ of Section 32, all in Township sixty-three (63) N. of Range fifteen (15) West of 4th P. M.

Lot two (2) or NW¼ of NE¼, Lot three (3) or NE¼ of NW¼, Lot four (4) or NW¼ of NW¼, southeast quarter of northwest quarter (SE¼ of NW¼) of Section 2, southwest quarter of southeast quarter (SW¼ of SE¼), Lot nine (9) or S½ of SW¼ of Section 4, Lot two (2) or NW¼ of NE¼ of Section 9, southeast quarter of southeast quarter (SE¼ of SE¼), southwest quarter of southeast quarter (SW¼ of SE¼) of Section 27, all in Township sixty-two (62) N of Range sixteen (16) West of 4th P. M.

Lot three (3) or NE¼ of NW¼, Lot four (4) or NW¼ of NW¼ of Section six (6), northeast quarter of southwest quarter (NE¼ of SW¼), southwest quarter of northeast quarter (SW¼ of NE¼), Lot three (3) or SE¼ of NE¼, Lot four (4), or N½ of SE¼ of Section 35, all in Township sixty-three (63) N of Range sixteen (16) W of 4th P. M.

Lot six (6) or SW¼ of SW¼, Lot seven (7) or SE¼ of SW¼, Lot eight (8), or SW¼ of SE¼ of Section 31, all in Township sixty-four (64) N of Range sixteen (16) West of 4th P. M. Southeast quarter of southeast quarter (SE¼ of SE¼) of Section two (2) in Township sixty-three (63) N of Range seventeen (17) West of 4th P. M.

Southwest quarter of southwest quarter (SW¼ of SW¼) of Section six (6), southeast quarter of southeast quarter (SE¼ of SW¼), Lot eight (8) or SE¼ of SE¼ of Section thirty-three (33), northeast quarter of northeast quarter (NE¼ of NE¼), Southeast quarter of northeast quarter (SE¼ of NE¼), northwest quarter of southwest quarter (NW¼ of SW¼), Lot one (1), or NW¼ of NE¼, Lot three (3) or SW¼ of SW¼, Lot four (4) or NE¼ of SW¼, Lot five (5) or NW¼ of SE¼ of Section thirty-four (34), southwest quarter of northwest quarter (SW¼ of NW¼), Lot two (2) or SE¼ of NW¼, Lot three (3) or NW¼ of SW¼ of Section thirty-five (35), all in Township fifty-four (54) N. of Range twenty-five (25) West of 4th P. M.

Lot one (1) or NW¼ of SW¼ of Section twenty-nine (29), in Township fifty-five (55) N. of Range twenty-five (25) West of 4th P. M.

Lot three (3) or NE¼ of SE¼, Lot four (4) or SE¼ of SE¼ of Section twenty-three (23), Northeast quarter of southeast quarter (NE¼ of SE¼), southeast quarter of southeast quarter (SE¼ of SE¼) of Section thirty-three (33), all in Township fifty-four (54) N. of Range twenty-six (26) West of 4th P. M.

Lot ten (10) or SE¼ of SE¼ of Section seven (7), Lot eleven (11) or SW¼ of SW¼ of Section nine (9), Lot seven (7) or SE¼ of SW¼, Lot nine (9) or SE¼ of NW¼, Lot ten (10) or SW¼ of NW¼ of Section fifteen (15); Lot five (5) or NW¼ of NW¼, southwest quarter of northeast quarter (SW¼ of NE¼), southeast quarter of northeast quarter (SE¼ of NE¼) of Section seventeen (17), Lot eight (8) or NE¼ of SW¼ of Section twenty-one (21), northwest quarter of northeast quarter (NW¼ of NE¼), southwest quarter of northeast quarter (SW¼ of NE¼), northeast quarter of northwest quarter (NE¼ of NW¼), Lot two (2) or SE¼ of NE¼ or Section thirty-three (33), all in Township fifty-five (55) N. of Range twenty-six (26) W., 4th P. M. of

The following described property situated in the County of Crow Wing and State of Minnesota, viz.:

Southwest quarter of southeast quarter (SW¼ of SE¼), southeast quarter of southeast quarter (SE¼ of SE¼) of Section twenty-eight (28), all in Township forty-six (46) N. of Range thirty (30) West of 5th P. M.

Lot three (3), lot five (5) of Section six (6) all in Township one hundred thirty-four (134) N of Range twenty-seven (27) West of 5th P. M.

Northeast quarter of northeast quarter (NE¼ of NE¼), northwest quarter of northeast quarter (NW¼ of NE¼), northeast quarter of northwest quarter (NE¼ of NW¼), southeast quarter of northwest quarter (SE¼ of NW¼), northeast quarter of southwest quarter (NE¼ of SW¼), northwest quarter of southwest quarter (NW¼ of SW¼), of Section fourteen (14), southeast quarter of southeast quarter (SE¼ of SE¼), of Section twenty-eight (28), all in Township one hundred thirty-four (134) N of Range twenty-eight (28) W 5th P. M.

Lot four (4) of Section nineteen (19) in Township forty-seven (47) N of Range twenty-nine (29) West of 5th P. M.

All the coal, iron and other minerals and fossils in or on the following described property situated in the County of St. Louis and State of Minnesota, viz:

Lot numbered four (4) of Section three (3) of Township sixty-two (62) N of Range sixteen (16) West of the fourth P. M.

Lots numbered four (4) and six (6) of Section thirty-one (31) in Township sixty-one (61) N of Range thirteen (13) West.

NE¼ of NW¼ and Lot six (6) of Section thirteen (13) in Township fifty-nine (59) N of Range twenty-one (21) West of 4th P. M.

Lots seven (7) and eight (8) of Section twenty-six (26) in Township sixty-four (64) N of Range thirteen (13) West of 4th P. M.

Lots numbered six (6) and seven (7) of Section fifteen (15), Lots numbered one (1), two (2), three (3), southwest quarter of northeast quarter (SW¼ of NE¼) and southeast quarter of southeast quarter (SE¼ of SE¼) of Section twenty-one (21), Lots numbered two (2), three (3), four (4), five (5), six (6), northwest quarter of southwest quarter (NW¼ of SW¼) and south half of southwest quarter (S½ of SW¼) of Section twenty-two (22), north half of north half (N½ of N½) of Section twenty-seven (27) all in Township sixty-three (63) N Range fifteen (15) West of the Fourth P. M., and Lots numbered five (5), six (6), northeast quarter of southwest quarter (NE¼ of SW¼), south half of southwest quarter (S½ of SW¼) and northwest quarter of southeast quarter (NW¼ of SE¼) of Section one (1), southeast quarter of southeast quarter (SE¼ of SE¼) of Section twenty-four (24), east half of northeast quarter (E½ of NE¼) of Section twenty-five (25) In Township sixty-three (63) N of Range seventeen (17) West of 4th P. M.

All the coal, iron and other minerals and fossils in or on the following described property situated in the County of Crow Wing and State of Minnesota, viz:

Lot 1 of Section 26, SE¼ of SW¼ of Section 30, NW¼ of SE¼, NE¼ of SW¼ and Lot 3 of Section 31, W½ of SW¼, SE¼ of SE¼ of Section 32, all in Township 46 N of Range 29, also SW¼ of SW¼ of Section 21 and W½ of NW¼ of Section 28 in Township 47 North of Range 29.

All the coal, iron and other minerals and fossils in or on the following described property situated in the County of Itasca and State of Minnesota, viz:

Northwest quarter of northwest quarter (NW¼ of NW¼) of Section fifteen (15) Township fifty-four (54) North, Range twenty-six (26) West of 4th P. M.

South half of northwest quarter (S½ of NW¼) of Section twenty-seven (27) in Township fifty-four (54) N of Range twenty-five (25) West of 4th P. M.

Lot numbered five (5) or the SW¼ of NW¼ of Section 21 in Township 55 N of Range 26 W of the 4th P. M.

All the coal, iron and other minerals and fossils in or on the following described property situated in the County of Cook and State of Minnesota, viz:

Lot two (2) or SE¼ of NW¼, Lot three (3) or SW¼ of NW¼ of Section fourteen (14) all in Township fifty-nine (59) N of Range twenty-one (21) West of 4th P. M.

Lot seven (7), Lot eight (8), Lot nine (9), northwest quarter of southeast quarter (NW¼ of SE¼) of Section twelve (12); Lot one (1), Lot two (2), Lot four (4), northeast quarter of northeast quarter (NE¼ of NE¼), southwest quarter of northeast quarter (SW¼ of NE¼), Lot three (3) or SE¼ of NE¼, Lot four (4) or NE¼ of SE¼, Lot eight (8) or SW¼ of SE¼, southeast quarter of northwest quarter (SE¼ of NW¼), Lot seven (7) or NE¼ of SW¼, Lot eight (8), Lot nine (9), northwest quarter of northeast quarter (NW¼ of NE¼), northeast quarter of northwest quarter (NE¼ of NW¼), southeast quarter of northwest quarter (SE¼ of NW¼), Lot seven (7) or NE¼ of SW¼, Lot three (3) or NW¼ of SW¼ of Section eight (8), Lot three (3) or NE¼ of NW¼ of Section nine (9), northeast quarter of northwest quarter (NE¼ of NW¼), northwest quarter of northwest quarter (NW¼ of NW¼) of Section ten (10), all in Township sixty-two (62) N. of Range ten (10) West of the 4th P. M.

Northeast quarter of northeast quarter (NE¼ of NW¼), northwest quarter of northwest quarter (NW¼ of NW¼), southeast quarter of northwest quarter (NE¼ of NW¼), southwest quarter of northwest quarter (SW¼ of NW¼), Lot eight (8) or SE¼ of NW¼, Lot nine (9) or NE¼ of SE¼ of Section twenty-seven (27), southeast quarter of southeast quarter (SE¼ of SE¼) of Section thirty-three (33), northeast quarter of northeast quarter (NE¼ of NE¼), Southeast quarter of northeast quarter (SE¼ of NE¼), northwest quarter of southwest quarter (NW¼ of SW¼), Lot one (1), or NW¼ of NE¼, Lot three (3) or SW¼ of SW¼, Lot four (4) or NE¼ of SW¼, Lot five (5) or NW¼ of SE¼ of Section thirty-four (34), southwest quarter of northwest quarter (SW¼ of NW¼), Lot two (2) or SE¼ of NW¼, Lot three (3) or NW¼ of SW¼ of Section thirty-five (35), all in Township fifty-four (54) N. of Range twenty-six (26) West of 4th P. M.

Northeast quarter of northwest quarter (NE¼ of NW¼), Southwest quarter of northwest quarter (SW¼ of NW¼), Northwest quarter of southwest quarter (NW¼ of SW¼), Southwest quarter of southwest quarter (SW¼ of SW¼), Southwest quarter of northeast quarter (SW¼ of NE¼), all in Township sixty-one (61) N of Range eighteen (18) West of 4th P. M.

Lot six (6) or NE¼ of SE¼, Lot seven (7) or NW¼ of SE¼, Southeast quarter of southeast quarter (SE¼ of SE¼) of Section four (4), all in Township sixty-two (62) N of Range sixteen (16) W. 4th P. M.

Lot two (2) or SE¼ of NW¼, Lot three (3) or SW¼ of NW¼ of Section fourteen (14) all in Township fifty-nine (59) N of Range twenty-one (21) West of 4th P. M.

Northeast quarter of southwest quarter (NE¼ of SW¼), northwest quarter of southeast quarter (NW¼ of SW¼), of Section ten (10), all in Township fifty-nine (59) N. of Range nineteen (19) West of 4th P. M.

Lot seven (7), Lot eight (8), Lot nine (9), northwest quarter of southeast quarter (NW¼ of SE¼) of Section twelve (12); Lot one (1), Lot two (2), Lot four (4), northeast quarter of northeast quarter (NE¼ of NE¼), southwest quarter of northeast quarter (SW¼ of NE¼), Lot three (3) or SE¼ of NE¼, Lot four (4) or NE¼ of SE¼, Lot eight (8) or SW¼ of SE¼, southeast quarter of northwest quarter (SE¼ of NW¼), Lot seven (7) or NE¼ of SW¼, Lot eight (8), Lot nine (9), northwest quarter of northeast quarter (NW¼ of NE¼), northeast quarter of northwest quarter (NE¼ of NW¼), southeast quarter of northwest quarter (SE¼ of NW¼), Lot seven (7) or NE¼ of SW¼, Lot three (3) or NW¼ of SW¼ of Section eight (8), Lot three (3) or NE¼ of NW¼ of Section nine (9), northeast quarter of northwest quarter (NE¼ of NW¼), northwest quarter of northwest quarter (NW¼ of NW¼) of Section ten (10), all in Township sixty-two (62) N. of Range ten (10) West of the 4th P. M.

Northeast quarter of northeast quarter (NE¼ of NW¼), northwest quarter of northwest quarter (NW¼ of NW¼), southeast quarter of northwest quarter (NE¼ of NW¼), southwest quarter of northwest quarter (SW¼ of NW¼), Lot eight (8) or SE¼ of NW¼, Lot nine (9) or NE¼ of SE¼ of Section twenty-seven (27), southeast quarter of southeast quarter (SE¼ of SE¼) of Section thirty-three (33), northeast quarter of northeast quarter (NE¼ of NE¼), Southeast quarter of northeast quarter (SE¼ of NE¼), northwest quarter of southwest quarter (NW¼ of SW¼), Lot one (1), or NW¼ of NE¼, Lot three (3) or SW¼ of SW¼, Lot four (4) or NE¼ of SW¼, Lot five (5) or NW¼ of SE¼ of Section thirty-four (34), southwest quarter of northwest quarter (SW¼ of NW¼), Lot two (2) or SE¼ of NW¼, Lot three (3) or NW¼ of SW¼ of Section thirty-five (35), all in Township fifty-four (54) N. of Range twenty-six (26) West of 4th P. M.

Lot ten (10) or SE¼ of SE¼ of Section seven (7), Lot eleven (11) or SW¼ of SW¼ of Section nine (9), Lot seven (7) or SE¼ of SW¼, Lot nine (9) or SE¼ of NW¼, Lot ten (10) or SW¼ of NW¼ of Section fifteen (15); Lot five (5) or NW¼ of NW¼, southwest quarter of northeast quarter (SW¼ of NE¼), southeast quarter of northeast quarter (SE¼ of NE¼) of Section seventeen (17), Lot eight (8) or NE¼ of SW¼ of Section twenty-one (21), northwest quarter of northeast quarter (NW¼ of NE¼), southwest quarter of northeast quarter (SW¼ of NE¼), northeast quarter of northwest quarter (NE¼ of NW¼), Lot two (2) or SE¼ of NE¼ or Section thirty-three (33), all in Township fifty-five (55) N. of Range twenty-six (26) W., 4th P. M. of

The following described property situated in the County of Crow Wing and State of Minnesota, viz.:

Southwest quarter of southeast quarter (SW¼ of SE¼), southeast quarter of southeast quarter (SE¼ of SE¼) of Section twenty-eight (28), all in Township forty-six (46) N. of Range thirty (30) West of 5th P. M.

Lot three (3), lot five (5) of Section six (6) all in Township one hundred thirty-four (134) N of Range twenty-seven (27) West of 5th P. M.

Northeast quarter of northeast quarter (NE¼ of NE¼), northwest quarter of northeast quarter (NW¼ of NE¼), northeast quarter of northwest quarter (NE¼ of NW¼), southeast quarter of northwest quarter (SE¼ of NW¼), northeast quarter of southwest quarter (NE¼ of SW¼), northwest quarter of southwest quarter (NW¼ of SW¼), of Section fourteen (14), southeast quarter of southeast quarter (SE¼ of SE¼), of Section twenty-eight (28), all in Township one hundred thirty-four (134) N of Range twenty-eight (28) W 5th P. M.

Lot four (4) of Section nineteen (19) in Township forty-seven (47) N of Range twenty-nine (29) West of 5th P. M.

All the coal, iron and other minerals and fossils in or on the following described property situated in the County of St. Louis and State of Minnesota, viz:

Lot numbered four (4) of Section three (3) of Township sixty-two (62) N of Range sixteen (16) West of the fourth P. M.

Lots numbered four (4) and six (6) of Section thirty-one (31) in Township sixty-one (61) N of Range thirteen (13) West.

NE¼ of NW¼ and Lot six (6) of Section thirteen (13) in Township fifty-nine (59) N of Range twenty-one (21) West of 4th P. M.

Lots seven (7) and eight (8) of Section twenty-six (26) in Township sixty-four (64) N of Range thirteen (13) West of 4th P. M.

Lots numbered six (6) and seven (7) of Section fifteen (15), Lots numbered one (1), two (2), three (3), southwest quarter of northeast quarter (SW¼ of NE¼) and southeast quarter of southeast quarter (SE¼ of SE¼) of Section twenty-one (21), Lots numbered two (2), three (3), four (4), five (5), six (6), northwest quarter of southwest quarter (NW¼ of SW¼) and south half of southwest quarter (S½ of SW¼) of Section twenty-two (22), north half of north half (N½ of N½) of Section twenty-seven (27) all in Township sixty-three (63) N Range fifteen (15) West of the Fourth P. M., and Lots numbered five (5), six (6), northeast quarter of southwest quarter (NE¼ of SW¼), south half of southwest quarter (S½ of SW¼) and northwest quarter of southeast quarter (NW¼ of SE¼) of Section one (1), southeast quarter of southeast quarter (SE¼ of SE¼) of Section twenty-four (24), east half of northeast quarter (E½ of NE¼) of Section twenty-five (25) In Township sixty-three (63) N of Range seventeen (17) West of 4th P. M.

All the coal, iron and other minerals and fossils in or on the following described property situated in the County of Crow Wing and State of Minnesota, viz:

Lot 1 of Section 26, SE¼ of SW¼ of Section 30, NW¼ of SE¼, NE¼ of SW¼ and Lot 3 of Section 31, W½ of SW¼, SE¼ of SE¼ of Section 32, all in Township 46 N of Range 29, also SW¼ of SW¼ of Section 21 and W½ of NW¼ of Section 28 in Township 47 North of Range 29.

All the coal, iron and other minerals and fossils in or on the following described property situated in the County of Itasca and State of Minnesota, viz:

Northwest quarter of northwest quarter (NW¼ of NW¼) of Section fifteen (15) Township fifty-four (54) North, Range twenty-six (26) West of 4th P. M.

South half of northwest quarter (S½ of NW¼) of Section twenty-seven (27) in Township fifty-four (54) N of Range twenty-five (25) West of 4th P. M.

Lot numbered five (5) or the SW¼ of NW¼ of Section 21 in Township 55 N of Range 26 W of the 4th P. M.

All the coal, iron and other minerals and fossils in or on the following described property situated in the County of Cook and State of Minnesota, viz:

Lot two (2) or SE¼ of NW¼, Lot three (3) or SW¼ of NW¼ of Section fourteen (14) all in Township fifty-nine (59) N of Range twenty-one (21) West of 4th P. M.

Lot seven (7), Lot eight (8), Lot nine (9), northwest quarter of southeast quarter (NW¼ of SE¼) of Section twelve (12); Lot one (1), Lot two (2), Lot four (4), northeast quarter of northeast quarter (NE¼ of NE¼), southwest quarter of northeast quarter (SW¼ of NE¼), Lot three (3) or SE¼ of NE¼, Lot four (4) or NE¼ of SE¼, Lot eight (8) or SW¼ of SE¼, southeast quarter of northwest quarter (SE¼ of NW¼), Lot seven (7) or NE¼ of SW¼, Lot eight (8), Lot nine (9), northwest quarter of northeast quarter (NW¼ of NE¼), northeast quarter of northwest quarter (NE¼ of NW¼), southeast quarter of northwest quarter (SE¼ of NW¼), Lot seven (7) or NE¼ of SW¼, Lot three (3) or NW¼ of SW¼ of Section eight (8), Lot three (3) or NE¼ of NW¼ of Section nine (9), northeast quarter of northwest quarter (NE¼ of NW¼), northwest quarter of northwest quarter (NW¼ of NW¼) of Section ten (10), all in Township sixty-two (62) N. of Range ten (10) West of the 4th P. M.

Northeast quarter of northeast quarter (NE¼ of NW¼), northwest quarter of northwest quarter (NW¼ of NW¼), southeast quarter of northwest quarter (NE¼ of NW¼), southwest quarter of northwest quarter (SW¼ of NW¼), Lot eight (8) or SE¼ of NW¼, Lot nine (9) or NE¼ of SE¼ of Section twenty-seven (27), southeast quarter of southeast quarter (SE¼ of SE¼) of Section thirty-three (33), northeast quarter of northeast quarter (NE¼ of NE¼), Southeast quarter of northeast quarter (SE¼ of NE¼), northwest quarter of southwest quarter (NW¼ of SW¼), Lot one (1), or NW¼ of NE¼, Lot three (3) or SW¼ of SW¼, Lot four (4) or NE¼ of SW¼, Lot five (5) or NW¼ of SE¼ of Section thirty-four (34), southwest quarter of northwest quarter (SW¼ of NW¼), Lot two (2) or SE¼ of NW¼, Lot three (3) or NW¼ of SW¼ of Section thirty-five (35), all in Township fifty-four (54) N. of Range twenty-six (26) West of 4th P. M.

Northeast quarter of northwest quarter (NE¼ of NW¼), Southwest quarter of northwest quarter (SW¼ of NW¼), Northwest quarter of southwest quarter (NW¼ of SW¼), Southwest quarter of southwest quarter (SW¼ of SW¼), Southwest quarter of northeast quarter (SW¼ of NE¼), all in Township sixty-one (61) N of Range eighteen (18) West of 4th P. M.

Lot six (6) or NE¼ of SE¼, Lot seven (7) or NW¼ of SE¼, Southeast quarter of southeast quarter (SE¼ of SE¼) of Section four (4), all in Township sixty-two (62) N of Range sixteen (16) W. 4th P. M.

Lot two (2) or SE¼ of NW¼, Lot three (3) or SW¼ of NW¼ of Section fourteen (14) all in Township fifty-nine (59) N of Range twenty-one (21) West of 4th P. M.

Northeast quarter of southwest quarter (NE¼ of SW¼), northwest quarter of southeast quarter (NW¼ of SW¼), of Section ten (10), all in Township fifty-nine (59) N. of Range nineteen (19) West of 4th P. M.

Lot seven (7), Lot eight (8), Lot nine (9), northwest quarter of southeast quarter (NW¼ of SE¼) of Section twelve (12); Lot one (1), Lot two (2), Lot four (4), northeast quarter of northeast quarter (NE¼ of NE¼), southwest quarter of northeast qu

MARKET HAS SHARP BREAK

Prices Slump With Weak Foreign Markets and General Selling.

Flaxseed Again Strong With Active Bidding By Crushers' Interests.

Duluth Board of Trade, March 7.—The market was weak around the close with traders not showing any inclination to increase their holdings.

May wheat closed 2½c off and July 2@2½c off.

May durum closed 2¾c off and July 2⅞c off.

Oats closed 5c off at 39⅞@40⅜c for on the track; rye unchanged at 88c, and barley unchanged at from 58c to 66c.

At Winnipeg, May oats closed ⅞c off at 41¼c.

At St. Louis, May wheat closed at $1.10, and July at $1.08.

At Kansas City, May wheat closed at $1.05, and July at $1.04⅛ bid.

Puts on Minneapolis May wheat closed at $1.11½, and calls at $1.15⅞.

Wheat holders came in for a bad cropper day, with quotations tumbling to the extent of over 2½c during the first three hours' trading. That was due to a marked reversal of conditions. In the first place, Liverpool failed to follow yesterday's advances in the American markets, but, on the contrary, prices there weakened materially. There is said to be a general impression that it is becoming easier to buy wheat on an advantageous basis in Argentina and elsewhere. It was reported that the new Indian crop will soon be ready to market, and its yield is estimated at well above the average.

The government report on farm reserves created a more bearish impression as it is studied out, and the news from the winter wheat territory regarding the condition of the plant was not so bullish. Kansas, for instance, is estimated to have a prospect of harvesting from 140,000,000 to 150,000,000 bu of wheat next summer, and Nebraska is being figured upon to produce up to 60,000,000 bu.

The congestion in elevator and transportation facilities here is just as tense as ever. After making allowances for divisions of grades, the remaining capacity of Duluth elevators is placed at around 5,000,000 bu, so that unless the domestic movement is checked off materially, the time when they will be plugged up is comparatively near at hand. Bonded grain is flowing this way freely, 157 cars of wheat and 32 ends of oats coming on the tracks today. There is estimated to be only space left to handle around 2,500,000 bu of bonded grain, and that quantity may have been already routed this way, insofar as dealers know. Some dealers are reported to have advised their Winnipeg correspondents that shipping of bonded grain here should be cut off, falling, of course, the ability to obtain cars for all-rail shipment to the East.

May wheat opened ⅝c off at $1.16, declined 2c more, and then firmed up ½c at the noon hour. July opened ½c off at $1.16½, broke to $1.14¼ and then brneed up ⅝c.

May durum opened ¼c off at $1.12, weakened to $1.09¼ and later firmed up ½c. July opened ¾c off at $1.12, struck a low of $1.10⅛ and firmed up ½c.

Flaxseed Turns Strong.

Flaxseed showed strength on comparatively light trading. Crushers were steady bidders for seed but they did not endeavor to force the price up. Better bidding towards the close, however, led to advances.

May flax opened ½c off at $2.31, and closed 1c up at $2.32½. July opened ¼c off at $2.31¾, and closed 1c up at $2.32½.

At Winnipeg, May flax closed 1¾c up at $2.11 asked.

There was a holiday at Buenos Aires. London closed unchanged at $2.80.

Cash Sales Tuesday.

No. 1 northern wheat, 1 car	$1.16
No. 1 northern wheat, 2 cars	1.14¾
No. 1 northern wheat, 1 car	1.15¼
No. 2 northern wheat, 1 car	1.10
No. 2 northern wheat, 3 cars	1.11
No. 2 northern wheat, 3 cars	1.10⅝
No. 3 northern wheat, 1 car	1.06
No. 3 northern wheat, 1 car	1.05½
No. 3 northern wheat, 1 car	1.06⅞
No. 4 northern wheat, 2 cars	1.04¾
No grade wheat, 1 car, Dkg	1.02¾
No. 3 mixed wheat, part car	1.05¼
Mont. wheat, 1 car, No. 3 hard winter	1.09⅜
Mont. wheat, 1 car, No. 2 hard winter	1.14¼
No. 1 durum, 2 cars	1.09½
No. 1 durum, 1 car	1.08⅝
No. 1 durum, 1 car	1.09¾
No. 2 durum, 1 car	1.07¼
No. 2 durum, 3 cars	1.06½
No. 2 durum, 2 cars	1.06¾
No. 2 durum, 1 car	1.07½
No. 2 durum, 1 car	1.06¼
No. 2 durum, 1 car	1.05
No. 2 durum, 1 car	1.07
No. 2 durum, 1 car	1.01¾
No. 2 durum, 1 car	1.01½
No. 3 durum, 1 car	.98¼
No. 3 durum, 6 cars	1.01½
No. 3 durum, 1 car	1.00½
No. 2 durum, 3 cars	1.01
No. 3 durum, 1 car	.98¾
No. 4 durum, 1 car	.98½
No. 4 durum, 1 car, bin burnt	.90
No. 2 mixed durum, 1 car	1.05¾
No. 2 mixed durum, 2 cars	1.06¾
No. 3 mixed durum, 2 cars	1.01½
No. 1 mixed durum, 1 car	1.01¾
No. 3 mixed durum, 1 car	.99⅜
No. 3 durum, 1 car	.99
No. 2 mixed durum, 1 car	1.04¼
No. 2 mixed durum, 1 car	1.03¾
No. 2 mixed durum, 1 car	1.04½
No. 2 mixed durum, 1 car	1.07
Barley, 2 cars	.64
Barley, 1 car	.60
Barley, 1 car	.66
Barley, 1 car	.65
Oats, 1 car, No. 4 white	.40¾
Oats, 2 cars, No. 4 white	.39½
No. 1 flax, 1 car	2.31½
No. 1 flax, 1 car	2.32
No. 2 rye, 1 car	.88
No. 2 rye, part car, No. 3	.86

MARKET GOSSIP.

Duluth car inspection: Wheat—No. 1 northern, 31; No. 2 northern, 34; No. 3, 19; No. 4, 7; no grade, 2; durum, 72; winter, 14; mixed, 41; total wheat, 220, last year, 200; flax, 10, last year, 16; corn, 1, last year, 2; oats, 10, last year, 13; rye, 1, last year, 3; barley, 5, last year, 11; total of all grains, 247, last year, 245; on track, 185.

* * *

Duluth grain stocks, giving changes in two days:

Wheat—Western and winter, 3,734,000 bu, increase, 1,000 bu; spring, 7,641,000 bu, increase, 32,000 bu; durum, 5,563,000 bu, increase, 33,000 bu; bonded, 2,760,000 bu, increase, 84,000 bu; total wheat, 17,456,000 bu, net increase, 150,000 bu. Afloat, 758,000 bu.

Coarse grains—Oats, 1,881,00 bu, increase, 60,000 bu; rye, 24,000 bu; barley, 978,00 bu, decrease, 9,000 bu; flax, domestic, 1,620,000 bu, bonded, 30,000 bu; total flax, 1,650,000 bu, increase, net, 3,000 bu.

Total of all grains, 21,989,000 bu; net increase, 204,000 bu.

* * *

Clearance reported: Wheat, 670,000 bu; flour, 20,000 bbls., together equal to 760,000 bu; corn, 57,000 bu; oats, 464,000 bu.

* * *

Primary markets report the following receipts and shipments today:

Wheat—Receipts, 1,857,000 bu, last year, 550,000 bu; shipments, 984,000 bu, last year, 614,000 bu.

Corn—Receipts, 1,128,000 bu, last year, 667,000 bu; shipments, 480,000 bu, last year, 750,000 bu.

Oats—Receipts, 663,000 bu, last year, 763,000 bu; shipments, 607,000 bu, last year, 1,122,000 bu.

* * *

Duluth bonded grain receipts: Wheat, 157 cars; oats, 32 cars; barley, 1 car. Total, 190 cars.

* * *

Cars of wheat received:	Yesterday.	Year ago.
Duluth	220	200
Minneapolis	299	111
Winnipeg	1,243	202
Chicago	393	77
Kansas City	112	13
St. Louis, bu	93,000	49,000

* * *

Cars of linseed received:	Yesterday.	Year ago.
Duluth	10	6
Minneapolis	15	10
Winnipeg	24	4

* * *

Foreign closing cables: Liverpool—Spot wheat closed 1d lower; corn, 1d lower.

* * *

An easier tendency was evident in the cash markets at Duluth today. The basis on cash No. 1 northern was unchanged at ½c under to 2c over May, but the spreads between the lower grades were further widened. Cash No. 1 durum sold at ½c under May price. The lower grades of durum were a drug on the market, due to the larger proportion of the poorer grain coming.

* * *

Charles E. Lewis & Co. have issued a convenient folder giving the figures of the last government report on farm reserves, and are distributing it to their patrons.

* * *

It is the opinion of some authorities that Kansas will show a prospect of 140,000,000 to 150,000,000 bu wheat, Nebraska 50,000,000 to 60,000,000 bu, and Oklahoma 30,000,000 bu, at the start this year.

* * *

World's visible estimate: Wheat, 232,261,000 bu; year ago, 162,679,000 bu; increase, 2,181,000 bu; corn, United States and Canada, 27,684,000 bu; year ago, 43,716,000 bu; increase, 2,821,000 bu; oats, United States and Canada, 40,814,000 bu; year ago, 39,698,000 gu; decrease, 3,503,000 bu.

* * *

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool: "The market was slightly affected at the immediate opening by the strength in America, but it later turned easy with reselling. Spot market was easy 1d lower, with free offers and larger arrivals to increase stocks. Cargo market early was nominally 3d higher for winters and Manitobas, but it later declined to 3d lower than yesterday, with sellers more certain. Plates were unchanged. Buyers are becoming more confident of favorable purchases, and there is a concerted action looking toward the opening of the Dardanelles. This is a possibility. Indian advices are favorable and offers are liberal at an export parity."

* * *

Russell's News, New York, said: "Further foreign selling of wheat futures was claimed this morning. This selling is said to be hedging against wheat purchases in foreign countries, particularly Argentina. There was no special export buying of wheat claimed here."

* * *

European visible supply shows an increase for the week of 1,920,000 bu this week. Freights remain firm everywhere.

* * *

Charles E. Lewis & Co. had the following from Chicago: "A weak Liverpool market and fear of a bearish government report tomorrow were causes of today's setback. Local bears who were forced to cover yesterday were active in reselling today and the market was largely in their favor. There was a lull in export demand and cash sales were light. We are inclined to believe the government report will show 23 or 24 per cent in farmers' hands or from 220,000,000 to 250,000,000 bu. Old crop situation is undoubtedly bearish, and it may be prices will work lower under it, especially should these receipts result in accumulation as the visible supply is already burdensome. Under these conditions it will be reasonable to look for markets that may fluctuate between these influences."

A Good Firm to Ship Your Grain to

ATWOOD-LARSON COMPANY, Inc.

Special attention given to cash grains. We give all shipments our personal attention.

Duluth—Minneapolis

CHAS. E. LEWIS & CO.

GRAIN, STOCKS, COTTON, PROVISIONS

204 Board of Trade, Duluth

Members New York Stock Exchange
Members New York Cotton Exchange
And All Grain Exchanges.

Offices in Minneapolis, St. Paul and Winnipeg.

—SHIP TO—

H. POEHLER CO.

(Established 1855)

GRAIN COMMISSION

MINNEAPOLIS DULUTH

"EXPERIENCE IS THE BEST TEACHER"

GRAIN COMMISSION SINCE 1883

C. C. WYMAN & CO.

DULUTH - - - MINNEAPOLIS

RANDALL, GEE & MITCHELL CO.

RELIABLE GRAIN MERCHANTS

MINNEAPOLIS . DULUTH - WINNIPEG

AMERICAN WHEAT MARKETS, MARCH 7, 1916.

May—	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Mar. 6.	Yr ago.
Duluth	1.16	1.16	1.14	1.14⅛	1.16⅝	1.49¾
Minneapolis	1.16-1.15¼	1.16	1.13⅝	1.13⅞-1.14	1.16¼-⅜	1.45¾
Chicago	1.15-1.13½	1.15	1.13	1.13½-⅝	1.16⅛a	1.55
Winnipeg	1.12-1.13	1.13	1.11⅞	1.12-⅜b	1.14⅛b	1.52⅛
July—
Duluth	1.16½	1.16½	1.14¼a	1.14¼-⅜a	1.17a	1.44¾
Minneapolis	1.15⅛-1.15	1.15⅜	1.13¼	1.13⅜b	1.15⅞a	1.40⅝
Chicago	1.11¾-1.11	1.11¾	1.10¾	1.10⅞-1.11	1.12¾-⅞	1.22½
Winnipeg	1.12¼-¾	1.12¾	1.11¾	1.11⅞-1.12	1.14⅛a	1.52

DULUTH DURUM MARKET.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Mar. 6.	Yr ago.
May	1.12	1.12	1.09¼	1.09⅞	1.12¼a	1.52
July	1.12	1.12	1.10¼	1.10⅝a	1.12⅝a	1.49½

DULUTH LINSEED MARKET.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Mar. 6.	Yr ago.
May	2.30¼a	2.32¾b	2.30¼	2.32½	2.31½a	1.86¾
July	2.31¾	2.32½b	2.31	2.32½a	2.31½a	1.88¼n

Duluth close: Wheat—On track: No. 1 hard, $1.16⅛; No. 1 northern, $1.13⅝@1.16⅛; No. 2 northern, $1.09⅛@1.13⅛; No. 1 northern to arrive, $1.13⅝; No. 3 on track, $1.02⅛@1.07⅛; Montana No. 2 hard to arrive, $1.14½; Montana No. 2 on track, $1.14⅛; May, $1.14¼; July, $1.14⅝@1.14½ asked. Durum—On track: No. 1, $1.09¾; No. 2, $1.05⅝@1.06⅜; to arrive No. 1, $1.09⅜; May, $1.09⅞; July, $1.08⅝ asked. Linseed—On track, $2.32½; to arrive, $2.32½; May, $2.32½; July, $2.32½. Oats—On track, 39⅞@40⅜c; to arrive, 39⅞@40⅜c. Rye—On track, 88c; to arrive, 88c. Barley—On track, 58@66c.

Elevator receipts of domestic grain—Wheat, 78,666 bu; last year, 125,655 bu; flax, 1,473 bu; last year, 2,182 bu.

Shipments of domestic grain—Barley, 11,875 bu; last year, none.

Elevator receipts of bonded grain—Wheat, 88,342 bu; last year, 2,066 bu; oats, 61,922 bu; last year, none; barley, 3,194 bu; last year, none; flax, 1,989 bu; last year, 3,228 bu.

Shipments of bonded grain—Wheat, 4,000 bu; last year, none; oats, 1,796 bu; last year, none.

CHICAGO MARKET.

Lower Quotations From Liverpool Cause Setback in Wheat.

Chicago, March 7.—Lower quotations from Liverpool tended today to cause a setback in the wheat market here. In this connection traders gave much attention to an increase in the European visible supply total and to cable dispatches referring to the possibility of concerted action toward the opening of the Dardanelles. Domestic crop advices appeared to be somewhat less pessimistic than on yesterday. The opening, which ranged from ⅞c to ¾@1⅞c lower, with May at $1.13½ to $1.15 and July at $1.11 to $1.11¾, was followed by a slight additional decline.

Absence of export demand added as a check to rallies and so too did bearish prediction about the government crop from Washington tomorrow as to farm reserves. The close was unsettled 1⅞@2¼c net lower with May at $1.13⅝; July at $1.10⅞@1.11.

Corn weakened with wheat. Besides, the weather conditions affecting the movement of the corn crop were somewhat improved. After opening ⅜c to ⅞c lower, the market underwent a further sag.

Bearish cable advices operated as a further handicap on the bulls. The close was nervous at ¾c to ⅞c net decline.

Oats declined owing to the downturn in the value of other grain. Buyers were scarce.

Higher prices on hogs made provisions go upgrade. Arrivals of hogs were less numerous than expected.

Wheat—No. 2 red, $1.13⅞; No. 3 red, $1.12@1.12¾; No. 2 hard, $1.13@1.14¾; No. 3 hard, $1.09¾@1.13⅝.

Corn—No. 2 yellow, 75½c; No. 4 yellow, 69¾70c; No. 4 white, 68½@69c.

Oats—No. 3 white, 40¾@43c; standard, 42¾c.

Rye—No. 2, 92c; barley, 61@74c; timothy, $4.50@7.00; clover, $10.00@18.50.

Pork, $20.50@22.00; lard, $9.55; ribs, $11.50@11.87.

Wheat—	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.
May	$1.13½	$1.15	$1.13	$1.13⅝
July	1.11	1.11⅝	1.10¼	1.10⅞
Corn—
May	.75¼	.75¾	.75⅛	.75¼
July	.75½	.75⅝	.75⅜	.75½
Oats—
May	.43⅝	.43¾	.43¼	.43⅜
July	.41⅞	.41⅞	.41⅜	.41¾
Pork—
May	22.60	22.60	22.10	22.30
July	22.12	22.30	22.00	22.00
Lard—
May	10.90	10.92	10.80	10.80
July	11.10	11.10	11.00	11.02
Ribs—
May	12.00	12.00	11.87	11.90
July	12.10	12.12	11.97	12.00

Liverpool Grain.

Liverpool, March 7.—Wheat—Spot No. 1 Manitoba, 14s 7½d; No. 2 not quoted; No. 2 hard winter gulf, 12s 9d; No. 2 red western, winter, 13s. Corn—Spot American mixed new, 11s 1½d.

New York Wheat.

New York, March 7.—Wheat—May, $1.21½; July, $1.14½.

MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 7.—Wheat—Lower; receipts, 299 cars compared with 111 a year ago. May opened $1.16@1.15¼; high, $1.16; low, $1.13⅝; closed, $1.13⅞@1.14.

July opened $1.15@1.15⅛; high, $1.15⅛; low, $1.13¼; closed, $1.13⅜.

Cash: No. 1 hard, $1.19⅞; No. 1 northern, $1.14⅜@1.18⅜; to arrive, $1.14⅜@1.16⅞; No. 2 northern, $1.10⅞@1.15⅜; No. 3 wheat, $1.04⅞@1.11⅞.

Corn, No. 3 yellow, 75@76c; oats, No. 3 white, 40@40½c; flax, $2.35@2.35½.

Flour—Unchanged; shipments, 71,003 bbl. Barley, 61@67c; rye, 88@89c; bran, $17.75@18.25.

THE PRODUCE MARKETS.

Duluth.

GRAPE FRUIT—
Fcy. Grape	36	46	54	64	80	96-126
Fruit	$3.50	$3.50	$3.75	$4.00	$4.00	$3.50
MISCELLANEOUS FRUIT—
Strawberries, qt						.35
CRANBERRIES—
Cranberries, Jerseys, per box						3.75
Cranberries, Jersey, Arbutus or Heather Brand, bu						3.75
Cranberries, Jersey, Arbutus or Heather Brand, bbl						11.50
Cranberries, Evaporated, 36 pkgs., carton						2.75
ORANGES—
Ex. Fcy.	80s	96-100	126	150	176	200-288
Navels		$3.25	$3.50	$3.50	$3.75	$4.00
Ex. Ch. Navels	$2.50	3.00	3.00	3.25	3.50	3.75
Floridas		2.75	3.25	3.25	3.50
Ex. Fcy. Tangerines, box						2.75
LEMONS—			270s		300s	360s
Ex. Fcy. California, box				$4.25	$4.75	$4.75
Ex. Ch. California, box				4.25	4.50	4.50
Limes, Fancy, box						1.25
BANANAS—
Bananas, Fancy Limon, lb						.04¼

ROX APPLES—	Ex. Fancy.	Fancy.	Choice.
Jonathan	$1.95	$1.80	....
Roman Beauty	1.95	1.80	....
Delicious	2.50	1.85	....
Spitzenburg	2.35	....	1.75
Winesaps	2.25	2.00	1.90

BARREL APPLES—	Circle F Brand.	Fancy Grade.	Choice Grade.
N. Y. Baldwin		$3.50	$2.75
Mo. Jonathan	$4.75	4.25	3.75
Mo. Wine Sap	4.75	....	....
Mo. Black Twig		3.75	....
Mo. Ben Davis	3.50	3.25	2.75
Mo. Ben Davis Lot 1-t. bbl			2.25
GREEN VEGETABLES—
Beans, Green, lb			.20
Beans, Chi. Wax, lb., 20c; hamper			4.90
Beets, Barrel Stock, doz			1.00
Brussels Sprouts, box			.25
Cabbage, Red, lb			.05
Carrots Barrel Stock, doz			.75
Carrots, hamper			1.75
Cauliflower, California, Pony crate, crate			2.40
Cucumbers, Hothouse, Extra Fancy, doz., $1.50; Fancy, doz			1.25
Celery Cabbage, lb., 15c; per crate			4.00
Celery Root, doz			.70
Chives, box			.75
Endive, hamper, lb			6.50
Egg Plant, crate			4.00
Leeks, hamper			1.75
Lettuce Leaf, cases, 40c; bu			1.10
Head Lettuce, California, Iceberg, doz., $1.10; crate			3.25
Head Lettuce, Texas, large hamper			3.70
Mint, doz			.50
Mushrooms, lb			.65
Oyster Plant, doz			.80
Parsley, Southern, doz			.90
Peppers, Florida, bskt., 45c; crate			2.10
Radishes, Hothouse, doz			.75
Rhubarb, box, $2.50; lb			.12
Shallots, doz			.75
Spinach, bskt			1.45
Tomatoes, Florida, 6 bskt., crate			5.25
Tomatoes, Florida, bskt			.85
Watercress, doz			.45
Turnips, doz			.75
CELERY—
Mammoth, Red, White and Blue Ribbon, doz			1.25
Jumbo, Blue Ribbon, doz			1.10
Large, Red Ribbon, doz			1.00
Fancy, White Ribbon, doz			.90
Untrimmed Celery, California, crate			6.50
WASHED VEGETABLES—
Washed Parsnips, per bskt			1.20
Washed Beets, per bskt			1.20
Washed Carrots, per bskt			1.10
VEGETABLES—
Carrots, Minnesota, cwt			1.50
Beets, Minnesota, cwt			1.90
Bagas, Minnesota, cwt			1.00
Lima Beans, California, lb			.09½
Garlic, lb			.20
Horseradish, lb., 10c; bbl			7.00
Horseradish, 8 oz. bottle, per doz			4.30
Navy Beans, Fancy, H. P., Michigan, bu			4.50
Parsnips, cwt			1.75
Squash, lb., 04; bbl			4.00
ONIONS—
Onions, Minn., Red, cwt			3.00
Spanish Onions, small crate, $2.25; bu			2.75
Spanish Onions, large crates, crate			6.50
Onions, White, Cummer crate			3.40
CABBAGE—
Minnesota Cabbage, bulk, per crate, $1.75; cwt			1.00
Red Cabbage, lb			.05
POTATOES—
Fancy Potatoes, Minnesota, Burbank, bu			.95
Sweet Potatoes, hamper			1.85
CHEESE—
Block Swiss, lb			.24 .25
Brick, half case, lb			.20
Twins, Wisconsin, lb			.20
Twins, New York State, lb			.21
Young Americas, lb			.21
BUTTER—
Jars, lb			.36
Prints, lb			.35
Tub, lb			.34
First creamery, lb			.32
Dairy, lb			.22 .24
MEATS—
Beef, native steers, lb			.12 .12½
Beef, western steers, lb			.11
Cows, butchers, lb			.10 .10½
Camp cows, per lb			.08½
Mutton, per lb			.13
Pork loins, per lb			.13 .15
Lamb, per lb			.17 .18
LIVE POULTRY—
Springs, lb			.19
Fowls, heavy, lb			.20
Fowls, light, lb			.15
Geese, lb			.16
Ducks, lb			.16
DRESSED POULTRY—
Springs			.20
Fowls, light			.17
Fowls, heavy			.21
Turkeys, lb			.25
Ducks, lb			.18
Geese, lb			.18
FROZEN POULTRY—
Broilers			.25
Friers			.20
Roasters			.20
Fowls, light			.18
Fowls, medium			.19
Fowls, heavy			.19
Ducks			.18
Geese			.18
Turkeys			.24
EGGS—
Fresh eggs, doz			.24 .26
Storage eggs, doz			.20 .21
HAY—
Choice timothy, per ton			$14.40
No. 1 timothy, per ton			$13.50@14.00
No. 2 timothy, per ton			11.00@12.00
No. 3 timothy, per ton			9.00@10.00
No. 1 mixed timothy, per ton			11.00@11.50
No. 2 mixed timothy, per ton			10.00@10.50
No. 3 mixed timothy, per ton			9.00@10.00
No. 1 prairie, per ton			11.50@12.50
No. 2 prairie, per ton			10.50@11.50
No. 3 prairie, per ton			8.00@ 9.00
No. 1 midland, per ton			8.00@ 9.00
No. 2 midland, per ton			7.00@ 8.00
Packing straw, per ton			5.50@ 6.00
Rye straw, per ton			6.00@ 6.50
Oat straw, per ton			5.50@ 6.00

New York.

New York, March 7.—Butter—Firm; receipts, 1,910; creamery extras, 92 score, 37½c; creamery higher scoring, 38@38½c; firsts, 35½@37c; seconds, 32½@35c.

Eggs—Unsettled; receipts, 22,565; fresh gathered, extras, 23½@24½c; extras, firsts, 22@22½c; seconds, 21@21½c; nearby hennery whites, fine to fancy, 29@30c; nearby hennery browns, 24½@25c.

Cheese—Firm; receipts, 1,969; state, whole milk, flats, held colored specials, 18c; do white, 17¾c; do colored average fancy, 17¾c; do white, 17½c; flats, current make, specials, 17¼c; do average run, 17c.

Chicago.

Chicago, March 7.—Butter—Steady; receipts, 9,178 tubs; creamery extras, 35c; extra firsts, 33½@34c; firsts, 29@33c; seconds, 26½@28c.

Cheese—Steady; daisies, 17¾@18c; twins, 17¼@17½c; Americans, 18½@18¾c; long horns, 18¼@18½c.

Eggs—Higher; receipts, 18,856 cases; firsts, 18½@18¾c; ordinary firsts, 17½@17¾c; at mark, cases included, 18@18½c.

Potatoes—Higher; receipts, 35 cars; Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Dakota white, 95c@$1.02; Minnesota and Dakota Ohios, 90@95c.

Poultry—Alive unchanged.

RAW FURS.

	Large.	Medium.	Small.
Bear	$10.00	$12.00	$10.00
Bear, cub	7.50	6.00	5.00
Beaver	10.00	6.50	3.50
Badger	2.50	1.75	1.35
Civet cat	.40	.30	.25
Fisher	20.00	12.00	9.00
Fox, silver	500.00	350.00	200.00
Fox, cross	25.00	25.00	12.00
Fox, gray	2.25	1.75	1.25
Fox, red	9.00	7.50	6.00
Lynx	12.50	9.00	6.50
Mink, dark	3.25	2.00	1.50
Mink, brown	2.75	2.00	1.50
Mink, pale	2.25	2.00	1.75
Otter, dark	12.00	9.00	7.00
Otter, brown	10.00	7.50	6.00
Raccoon	3.50	2.25	1.50
Skunk, black	4.00	....	3.00
Skunk, short striped	3.25	....	2.25
Skunk, striped	2.50	....	1.75
Weasel	.60	.35	.10

Muskrat—Wisconsin and similar, large winter, 35c; winter, 18c; large fall, 25c; small fall, 12c. Minnesota and similar, large, winter, 30c; small winter, 15c; large fall, 20c; small fall, 11c; kits and damaged at value.

HIDES, PELTS, WOOL, ETC.

No. 1 green salted cows and steers, all weights	.16
No. 1 green salted bulls	.13½
Green salted and branded hides flat	.14
No. 1 green salted veal calf	.17
No. 1 green salted long haired kips, 8 to 25 lbs.	.16
Dry Hides—
Territory butchers, over 15 lbs	.24 .26
Murrain and fallen, over 15 lbs	.16 .19
Calf over 6 lbs	.24 .26
Dry salted hides, all weights	.17 .20
Wool market lower. Demand fair.
Unwashed, ¼ blood	.26 .29
Unwashed, medium, ⅜ blood	.25 .27
Unwashed, coarse, ¼ blood	.22 .25
Unwashed, low, ¼ blood	.20 .23

Midway Horse Market.

Minnesota Transfer, St. Paul, Minn., March 7.—Barrett & Zimmerman report: "Local deliveries of heavy matched draft pairs and shipments of farm mares to farmers and dealers of Elk River, Minn., Wabasha, Minn., and Chippewa Falls, Wis., make up the day's clearance. Italian inspection has been postponed for a week. Receipts about eighty head. Values as follows:

Drafters, extra	$16@175
Drafters, choice	145@165
Drafters, common to good	125@145
Farm mares and horses, extra	155@210
Farm mares and horses, choice	140@155
Farm horses, common to good	125@140
Drivers and saddlers	130@185
Delivery horses	135@190
Mules, according to size	150@215

ADVANCES IN STOCKS

After Ruling Irregular Early, Market Becomes Animated and Strong.

Action of Congress in Upholding President Has Bullish Effect.

New York, March 7.—Prices of active stocks seemed to express less confidence in prevailing conditions at the opening of today's market. Overnight advices from Washington suggested a greater strain on the political situation and foreign news was more conflicting. Gains ruled at the outset, but with the exception of Mercantile Marine preferred, which rose 1, advances were limited to fractions. Later some of these gains were extended while other issues, notably California Petroleum, were lowered to the point of weakness. United States Steel, Union Pacific and Erie yielded with the balance of the list.

Crucible Steel and Baldwin Locomotive led the irregular movement of the early stock market session today, dealings in these stocks far exceeding the demand for United States Steel, which continued to denote moderate pressure. Crucible added 2 to yesterday's substantial advance and Baldwin 2¾. California Petroleum common and preferred made further recessions on the poor annual report and Mexican Petroleum and Texas company yielded sympathetically. Sugars retained much of yesterday's buoyancy and metals were firm, Butte & Superior making a new record on its fractional rise to 99¼. Bonds were irregular.

The irregular movement became more confusing in the dull trading of the early afternoon, coppers and specialities making gains, while Crucible and other strong features of the forenoon were inclined to weaken.

The market became more animated and strong later on news that congress, by a test vote, had upheld the administration. The closing was strong.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Reported by Charles E. Lewis & Co.

STOCKS—	High.	Low.	Close.
Am. Tel. & Tel.	127⅞	127¾	127¾
Am. Can, com.	69¾	69	69¾
Am. Beet Sugar	68½	68¾	67⅞
Am. Car Foundry	68½	67½	67⅝
Am. Locomotive	71⅛	69¾	70
Am. Lin., com.	21⅜	21⅜	21⅜
Am. Smelting	100¾	98¾	100
Alaska Gold Mines Co.	18⅝	17⅛	18
Allis Chalmers, com.	31¼	29⅞	30
Am. Sugar	112¾	110	110¾
Am. Tobacco Co.	200	197	200
Anaconda Copper	87⅛	86	86⅞
Atchison	103¼	103	103¼
Bald. Loc.	107¾	104⅛	105
B. & O., com.	88⅜	87½	87½
Bethleh'm Steel, com.	479	476½	476½
Butte & Superior	99¼	97¼	97⅞
Cal. Pet., com.	27½	21½	21⅞
Canadian Pacific	166⅜	166⅜	166⅜
Central Leather	53¼	52⅜	53¼
Ches. & Ohio	61½	60⅞	61½
Chino Copper Co.	58⅛	57⅜	57½
Chi. Grt. Westn. com.	12⅞	12¾	12⅞
Chicago, Mil. & St. P.	93½	93	93¼
Col. Fuel & Iron	42¾	42¼	42¾
Corn Pro. Co.	22⅜	22¼	22¼
Crucible Steel, com.	83⅜	80⅝	81¼
Distillers Sec.	47½	47	47¼
Erie	36⅜	36⅛	36⅝
do, 1st pfd	52¾	52	52⅝
B. F. Good. Co., com.	71¼	70⅝	70⅝
General Electric	169	167⅞	169
Great Northern, pfd	120⅞	120½	120½
Great Northern Ore	42¾	42	42
Gug. Explor. Co.	22⅛	21	21
Inspir. Cop. Co.	46½	45¼	46
K. C. Southern	25½	25	25½
Kenn. Copper	67¼	64½	67¼
Lackawanna Steel	76½	76¼	76¼
Maxwell Motor	62	60	60⅞
do 1st pfd	84	83⅝	83⅝
do 2nd pfd	46½	46	46
Mex. Pet'm Co.	104⅞	102¼	102½
Northern Pacific	112⅜	112½	112½

ABSENT-MINDED ABNER—You Can't Tire of a Juxtaposition Either!

By Walt McDougall

THESE FORTY-NINE CENT OIL STOVES ARE GREAT THINGS ON A COLD MORNING!
THERE'S NO MORE HEAT IN THAT THING THAN THERE IS IN AN ICE CREAM FREEZER!
MEBBE THE BLAMED THING ISN'T MEANT FOR HEATING! PERHAPS IT'S ONLY A CIGAR LIGHTER!
THERE'S CALORIC HERE ALL RIGHT IF THE CORRECT JUXTAPOSITION IS OBTAINED, PERCEIVE—
THIS, MY DEAR, IS JUXTAPOSITION. IT IS THE ONLY WARM SPOT IN THE ROOM!
Copyright, 1916, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

BUSINESS CHANCES.

FOR SALE.

Pool hall	Price $2,000
Cigar stand	Price $1,200
Confectionery and cigars	Price $1,600
Confectionery, 4 living rooms	$350
Light grocery	Price $600
Lunch counter	Price $750
Rooming house, 17 rooms	Price $900
Hotel, 25 rooms	Price $900
Hotel, 22 rooms	Price $1,500

DULUTH BUSINESS EXCHANGE, 509 Torrey Building.

FOR SALE—SMALL GROCERY AND confectionery store in center of city; basement can be used for living rooms; good business, reasonable rent; sickness of proprietor reason for selling. Write Z 709, care Herald

BUSINESS CHANCE—A SMALL, NEW hotel, newly furnished, for sale, reasonable; account ill health; steam heat; all modern; rooms all full. Main Hotel, Crosby, Minn.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—GOOD-PAYing business for cash or income property, bank reference; deal with owner; no commissions. Write B 688, Herald

FOR SALE—POOL HALL, THREE tables and cigar stand; good soft drink stand, $600 cash; prompt acceptance Box 446, Nashwauk, Minn.

BUSINESS CHANCES — FOR SALE—Shoemaker shop near steel plant. John Komletinski, 313 Commonwealth avenue, New Duluth, Minn.

BUSINESS CHANCES — FOR SALE bakery and confectionery, small amount of money will handle deal, low rent. Write, F 696, Herald.

BUSINESS CHANCES — FOR SALE—Saloon and good brick building with 12 furnished rooms. C. F. W. Korth, 5020 Roosevelt street.

FOR SALE—CHEAP; RESTAURANT on Mesaba range, doing good business. Address P 732, Herald.

A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY

For a limited time we offer for sale a brick business block in the West End Business Section on Superior street, three stores, all rented. A good paying investment that will increase in value.

F. I. SALTER CO.
302-303 LONSDALE BLDG.

Don't Pay Rent
BUY A HOME ON EASY TERMS.

No. 1315 East Ninth St., 5 rooms, hardwood floors and finish; city water, sewer, bath, gas.

No. 426 Thirteenth Ave. East, and No. 1308 East Fifth St. have 6 rooms each and bathroom, and are strictly modern.

No. 815 East Eighth St. has 6 rooms; hardwood finish and modern conveniences.

SMALL FIRST PAYMENT; BALANCE SAME AS RENT.

EBY & GRIDLEY
508 PALLADIO BLDG.

GRASP THIS WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITY

to buy now and sell at a profit before you have your lot all paid for.

HOMEWOOD

$1 to $5 cash, $1 to $5 per week, including interest. Lots 30x140, some 40x140, all to 16-foot alley. Prices, $100 to $700.

WHITNEY WALL CO.
Real Estate—Loans—Insurance
301 TORREY BUILDING.

EASY TERMS

$3,150—Six-room house, 4115 West Third street; $500 cash, balance $30 per month.

$5,700—Six-room house, 426 Seventeenth avenue east; $600 cash, balance $50 per month; hot water heat, laundry.

$4,000—Six-room house, 1318 East Sixth street; $500 cash, balance $35 per month; hot water heat, gas, electric lights.

$2,500—Five-room bungalow, 610 Eighteenth avenue east; $300 cash, balance monthly payments.

PULFORD, HOW & COMPANY
609 Alworth Bldg.

STEEL PLANT EMPLOYES

Five and six-room houses can be bought on easy terms, like rent, in

OLIVER

THE STEEL PLANT TOWNSITE.

Call at our office and let us show you these homes with no obligation to you. Lots at $150.00—easy terms, no interest.

OLIVER TOWNSITE CO.
390-1 Alworth Bldg., Duluth, Minn.

PERSONAL.

—TALK TO GILIUSON—

He can positively show you how you can save at least $100 on the purchase price of any grade piano, and especially so where you purchase on the installment plan.

S. E. GILIUSON, Mgr.

RAUDENBUSH & SONS PIANO COMPANY,
232 West First Street.

—A MASTER SERVICE—

The Yale method of dry cleaning is recommended to you by the National Association of Dyers and Cleaners. To become a member of this association it was required of us to have a fully equipped, up-to-date standard dry cleaning establishment; consider these facts when you need the service of dry cleaners; insist on having your work done by master cleaners. Our wagon will call when you phone 2442. Yale laundry and French dry cleaners.

PERSONAL—Ladies! Ask your druggist for Chichester Pills, the Diamond Brand, for 25 years known as best, safest, always reliable. Take no other. Chichester Diamond Brand Pills are sold by druggists everywhere.

PERSONAL—Get away from washday troubles by sending your family wash to us, 5½c per pound. Lutes' laundry, 808 East Second street. Phone us, Grand 447; Melrose 447.

WANTED—RAGTIME PLAYING POSITIvely taught in twenty lessons. Send for free booklet. Leffingwell schools. Manager J. L. Denver, 32 West Second street. 7720 Melrose.

PERSONAL—IF YOU LIKE TO DRAW we will show you how to make money in your spare time; state age and where employed; confidential. Write X 680, Herald.

PERSONALS — WANTED PRESENT address of Charles Erickson or wife, Amanda, to clear title to land purchased from them. B. I. Bliss, Rice Lake, Wis.

Unexcelled hairdressing, facial massage and beauty treatments. Also corns and bunions treated. Mrs. Dr. Bahr, Comfort Beauty Parlors, 109 Oak hall.

Madam Molsan, toupee specialist; long established; work guaranteed; toupees protect from colds and neuralgia; switches made up. 215½ W. 1st.

MADE-TO-MEASURE Shirts, Underwear, Raincoats, Neckties, Suit or O'Coat, $18. Ladies' Suits, spring selections. C. N. Hamilton, 315 E. Sup St.

Personal—Boyce's soda fountain under new management; light lunches; all home cooking; sanitation and service the best in city. E. H. McAllister, prop.

Personal—Lena E. Pierce, successor to Mrs. E. H. Lower; corns, bunions, ingrown nails treated, also chilblains. 22-23 Mesaba blk. Mel. 1470; Gr. 242.

Personal—Medicated salt baths, shampoo and massage. Anna Manthey, 27 E. Sup. st., flat 4. Mel. 5498. Resident appointments solicited.

2x3 photos in attractive folders; three for 25c; special value. Brown's Photo studio. 221 West Superior St.

PERSONAL LOANS ON DIAMONDS, $100 and up, at 1 per cent a month. Keystone Loan Co., 22 W. Superior st.

MASSAGE—MARGARET NELSON, 218 W. Superior St., room 8, third floor. Also appointments at your home.

PERSONAL — WANTED GOOD HOME for bright boy of three, small compensation. Rev. A. W. Ryan.

PERSONAL—PRIVATE LESSONS IN French by lady teacher. Address B 716, Herald.

PERSONAL—WILL BERT WINSLOW, decorator, call Cody hotel, West Duluth.

PERSONAL—WIDOW WOULD LIKE small child to board. Call Melrose 2629.

Personal—Effective scalp treatment. Mrs. Vogt's Hair Shop, 105 W. Sup. St.

DR. GULDE, Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat specialist, 324 Syndicate Bldg, Mpls.

Personal—Combings and cut hair made into beautiful switches. Knauf Sisters.

PERSONAL—Ladies, have your suits made at Miller Bros., 405 E. Sup. St.

PERSONAL — FOR SICK PEOPLE—flowers. Duluth Floral company.

Hair, moles, warts removed by electricity; manicuring. Miss Kelly hair shop

RESIDENCE SITES

Have you picked out the lot on which to build your home? Call at our office and let us show you the beautiful sites we have to offer.

Central, East Fourth Street—50x140, fine lots with elegant view, at $2,000.

Normal School District—Large lots, restricted, some very desirable lots on which the owner will build to suit you and sell on very easy payments; own your home and pay for it like paying rent.

Congdon Park District—On Superior, First and Second streets, handsome lots, 50x140 feet, from $700 up. The cheapest high-class residence property in the city.

STRYKER, MANLEY & BUCK

ORDER LIMITING TIME TO FILE CLAIMS, AND FOR HEARING THEREON—

State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis.—ss.

In Probate Court. In the Matter of the Estate of Hannah Evarts Ferguson, Decedent.

Letters of administration, having been granted to Theron A. Evarts, it is ordered, That the time within which all creditors of the above named decedent may present claims against her estate in this court, be, and the same hereby is, limited to six months from and after the date hereof; and that the 29th day of August, 1916, at ten o'clock A. M., in the Probate Court Rooms at the Court House at Duluth in said County, be, and the same hereby is, fixed and appointed as the time and place for hearing upon the examination, adjustment and allowance of such claims as shall be presented within the time aforesaid.

Let notice hereof be given by the publication of this order in The Duluth Herald as provided by law.

Dated, Duluth, Minn., Feb. 28th, 1916.

S. W. GILPIN, Judge of Probate.

Seal, Probate Court, St. Louis Co., Minn.

D. H., Feb. 29, March 7, 14, 1916.

FOR SALE HOUSES.

HAVE YOU $300 CASH—CAN YOU SPARE $25 A MONTH TO PAY THE BALANCE ON THIS

Strictly new and modern 6-room house? Excellent hot water heating plant; fine residence district, close to car line; best plumbing—in fact, best materials were used in construction throughout. Price $3,800, worth $950 more at present prices of building materials.

A. W. TAUSSIG & CO.,
407 Providence Bldg.
Both phones.

—EAST END HOMES.—

$15.00 per month will purchase a 4-room house on East Ninth street car line; modern except heat. Paved street. $200 cash required. Price $2,100.

$15.00 per month will purchase a 7-room house on Nineteenth avenue east with all conveniences except heat. Large lot. $500 cash required. Price reduced from $2,700 to $2,100 for quick sale.

—CENTRAL WEST END HOMES.—

$15.00 per month will purchase a new 4-room cottage with all conveniences except heat on 33-foot lot. $300 cash required. Price $2,100.

$25.00 per month will purchase a two-family dwelling of ten rooms with all conveniences except heat. Nice lot and large barn. $300 cash required. Price only $2,800.

BENJAMIN F. SCHWEIGER CO.,
1932 West Superior St.

FOR SALE.

Comfortable six-room house with bath. $2,100.

Attractive six-room house, normal district, $3,800.

Bargain in attractive suburban home, $4,500.

Eight-room modern house, East end, $7,700.

These are bargains.

FIELD-FREY COMPANY.

—FOR SALE—

A new six-room house on Thirteenth avenue east; modern in every respect; price $4,000; $20 per month and interest will handle; no cash payment required.

Five-room house on East Sixth street; water, sewer and gas; price $2,100; terms to suit.

Five-room cottage on fifty-foot lot on Ninth street; price $1,350; $100 cash and balance like rent will buy it.

A. F. KREAGER,
406-7 Torrey Bldg.

FOR SALE—VERY FINE NEW MODern brick flat for two families; hot water heat; two plants; laundry; full basement; stone foundation; hardwood floors; plenty of light; place always rented; nice location; walking distance; price $5,650; must have $1,500 cash. Don't inquire unless you have that amount. Little & Nolte Co., Exchange building. (4-1)

FOR SALE—IT REQUIRES NO stretch of imagination to appreciate the desirability of the Hunter's Park district as a home location, and a strictly upto the minute eight-room home in this district for only $7,000 should commend itself to you. For full particulars see W. B. Roe, 412 Providence building; call Grand 862.

—FOR SALE—

A modern six-room house, Tenth avenue east and Eighth street; price, $3,650, $500 cash, your own terms on balance.

DE CAIGNY & PAEPE.
509 Providence Bldg.

FOR SALE OR TRADE FOR WEST end property, six-room house; lot 50 by 140; bath, sewer, gas, water and electric light; stove heat; Crosley Park; $2,500, $150 down, $30 per month. Call Joseph W. Cumming, Park 110-Y.

FOR SALE—I HAVE SEVERAL houses from $5,000 up; all high class and good neighborhoods; monthly payments if desired. Stewart G. Collins, 710 Torrey.

FOR SALE—BY OWNER, MODERN eight-room house and garage; East end; nice lawn, including garden space; very reasonable. Melrose 3317.

FOR SALE—FIVE-ROOM COTTAGE on East Seventh street. Melrose 7543 and 7245.

ADDITIONAL WANTS ON PAGE 18

SITUATION WANTED. FEMALE.

SITUATION WANTED—YOUNG WOMan with two small children wants a place as housekeeper for widower or bachelor; home wanted more than wages. Write X 725, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — STENOGRApher with several years' experience wishes position; can assist with books and general office work. Address F 701, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — YOUNG woman speaking Finnish language wants position as clerk in drygoods store; three years' experience. Write S 657, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—BY REFINED young lady as housekeeper or general housework, in small family. Call 2322½ West Sixth street.

SITUATION WANTED — AT ONCE—Stenographic position; nine years' experience; references furnished. Telephone Y. W. C. A.

SITUATION WANTED — WORK IN laundry; hand ironing by experienced girl. 1631 West Superior street. Phone Lincoln 295-Y.

SITUATION WANTED—BY YOUNG WOMan, steady worker, wishes work of any kind by day or hour. Write S 730, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—GENERAL housework by experienced girl, 1631 West Superior street. Phone Lincoln 295-Y.

SITUATION WANTED—GIRL, 17 years old, wishes to take care of a child in the afternoon. Call Melrose 3914.

SITUATION WANTED—PLAIN SEWing by the day or at home, reasonable. Call Melrose, 2545.

SITUATION WANTED—DAY WORK of any kind, washing, ironing, cleaning. Phone Cole 285-D.

SITUATION WANTED — BY WOMAN with small child, as housekeeper. Write U 708, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—BY EXPERIenced fitter in suit department. Write K 731, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—DAY WORK, washing, ironing. Call Melrose 3144.

SITUATION WANTED—AS HOUSEkeeper in small family. K 711, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — WASHING, ironing and cleaning. Melrose 2267.

WANTED—SEWING BY THE DAY. Call Melrose 2511.

SITUATION WANTED. MALE.

SITUATION WANTED—AS GENERAL mechanic; experienced in mining machinery; ten years in charge; married, sober, industrious; at present employed, but desire change; references. Address C 684, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — BY YOUNG married man willing to do any kind of inside work, best of references from the military service; must have work at once; wholesale house preferred. Write Y 706, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—BY YOUNG man, 21; bookkeeper and stenographer; experienced in lumber and general building contracting business. Write S 710, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED — GOOD ALL round harness maker wants job in repair shop; strictly sober. T. Pascoe, Chassell, Mich.

SITUATION WANTED—DRESS-MAKing and tailoring by the day; prices reasonable. 113 East Third street; Melrose 6456.

SITUATION WANTED — TO RUN small planer mill; can file saws; have good references. Write E 697, Herald.

SITUATION WANTED—POSITION AS fireman, have experience. Write D 727, Herald.

FARM & MINERAL LANDS.

FOR SALE — HOMESTEAD RELINquishment; forty acres, ten miles from four towns; no residence or improvements required; $150. Lock Box 603. Baudette, Minn.

FOR SALE OF TRADE—COUPLE OF good farms, North Dakota, for income property; deal with owner; no commissions. Write Z 661, Herald.

I BUY AND SELL LANDS AND TIMber. George Rupley, 612 Lyceum Bldg

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.

Fine farm land to exchange for improved property anywhere. Arnold Co., Superior, Wis.

STOVE REPAIRS.

WE CARRY IN STOCK REPAIRS FOR 10,000 different stoves and ranges. C. F. Wiggerts & Sons, 410 East Sup. St.

WATCHES REPAIRED.

Bring your watch to Garon Bros., to have it repaired right. 217 W. 1st. St.

THE HERALD IS DULUTH'S GREAT WANT AD MEDIUM

HORSES, VEHICLES, ETC.

HORSES—GUARANTEED—HORSES.

We have everything in the horse line. Country bought, free from the diseases of the city markets. Always glad to show stock; always give a written guarantee, always give square deal. Part time if desired.

TWIN PORTS HORSE MARKET,
W. E. BARKER, Prop.,
18 First Avenue W.

DRAFT AND DELIVERY HORSES, FARM MARES, GENERAL PURPOSE HORSES.

All our horses are Minnesota raised. Sales made on time if desired. Buy from an established dealer. Also, we guarantee every horse to be as represented.

ZENITH SALE STABLE.
MOSES GLDDBERG, Prop.,
524 West First Street.
Two blocks from union depot.

HORSES HORSES HORSES

If in the market for horses be sure and see our offerings. We have from 200 to 300 head constantly on hand. Part time given if desired. Barrett & Zimmerman, Duluth Horse Market, Twenty-third avenue west and Superior street. H. J. Walt, manager.

FOR SALE—TEAM OF NICE BLOCKY mares; weight about 3,200 lbs., 5 years old, well matched; can be bought at a bargain; part time given if necessary. 608 North Fifty-sixth avenue west; right beside fire hall, West Duluth; Cole 301, Calumet 280-L.

HARNESS WASHED AND OILED, REpairing neatly and promptly done; give us a trial. Herlian & Merling, 105 West First street; Melrose 4658.

FOR SALE—CHEAP, HORSE, CUTTER and harness, light outfit. Call morning or evenings, between 6 and 7. 18 North Nineteenth avenue west.

FOR SALE — CHEAP, TEAM BAY horses; weight 2,600; first class condition. Call Lincoln 355-A.

FOR SALE—TEA FIRST-CLASS BAY horses; weight 2,600 pounds. Call Lincoln 355-A.

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST — AT FIRST PRESBYTERIAN church Sunday noon, black leather bag lined with purple silk, containing handkerchief, eye-glasses and letter addressed to Miss Margaret McGiffert, 1611 East Second street. Call Melrose 1691. Reward.

LOST—CHILD'S MESHBAG BETWEEN Fourth avenue east, on Fourth street, and English Lutheran church. Finder please call 419½ East Fourth street, or Melrose 3107.

LOST — LARGE BLACK POCKETbook, March 3, on Duluth-Superior street car; receipts for Polish newspaper. Return to Herald; $5 reward.

FOUND—BLACK AND WHITE FEmale bull terrier pup; black ears and bob tail; child's pet. Call at 1905 East Superior street.

LOST—GOLD BRACELET, NAME INside, between Second and Nineteenth avenues west. Call Frelmuth's; corset department. Reward.

LOST — LADY'S GOLD WATCH AND fob; initials C. E. W. on fob. Reward if returned to Miss C. E. Ware, 1216 East First street.

LOST — BOY'S RUBBER BOOT, ON lake, Sunday. Call Grand 1396-X, or 1030 East Sixth street.

LOST — SMALL, BLACK GERMAN dog, daschund. 1631 London road. Melrose 3218; reward.

FOUND—BLACK SPANIEL DOG. Owner call Melrose 8003.

REAL ESTATE LOANS.

FIRST MORTGAGE LOANS.

We advance funds as needed on first mortgage building loans. Favorable terms.

W. M. PRINDLE & CO.,
Lonsdale Bldg.

$10 OR MORE—
LOANED TO ANYONE

On furniture, pianos, etc., or holding a steady position, at rates honest people are willing to pay. See us first and get a square deal. Money in your hands in few hours' time. Low rates. Easy payments.

DULUTH LOAN COMPANY,
307 Columbia Bldg., 303 W. Sup. St.
Hours: 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.; Wednesday and Saturday to 8 p. m.
Melrose 2355; Grand 1224.

MONEY TO LOAN.

From One to Ten Monthly Payments. On Furniture, etc., at Lowest Rates. Example of Cost Per Month:

$15, if paid in	1 month	$0.90
	3 months	0.70
	5 months	0.44
$25, if paid in	1 month	1.10
	3 months	0.95
	5 months	0.80
$50, if paid in	1 month	2.25
	3 months	1.60
	5 months	1.25

Charges on other amounts in proportion. Even lower rates on jewelry, etc.

DULUTH REMEDIAL LOAN ASS'N,
401 First National Bank Bldg.

—MONEY TO LOAN—
ON SALARIES, ON CHATTELS.
OUR RATES ARE LOWEST.

Borrow $10.00, you pay back $11.00.
Borrow $20.00, you pay back $21.75.
Borrow $30.00, you pay back $32.50.
Borrow $40.00, you pay back $43.25.
Other amounts in proportion.

DULUTH FINANCE CO.,
301 Palladio Bldg.
Open Wednesday and Saturday evening until 9 o'clock. Both phones.

WE LOAN ON ALL KINDS OF PERsonal security at lowest rates. Call on us. Duluth Mortgage Loan Co., W. Horkan. New 1698-D; Melrose 3733.

Loans on watches, diamonds, guns, etc. Keystone Loan Co., 22 W. Superior St.

TIMBER LANDS.

TIMBER AND CUT-OVER LANDS bought; mortgage loans made. John Q. A. Crosby, 305 Palladio building.

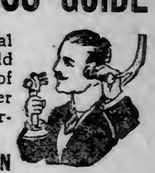
BOARD & ROOM OFFERED.

BOARD AND ROOM, $26 AND $28 PER month. Melrose 7805. Grand 1988-Y.

BOARD AND ROOM OFFERED, $4 per week. Call Melrose 5142.

PROFESSIONAL AND BUSINESS GUIDE

Ready reference of the professional men and leading business firms. Herald readers who do not find the line of business they are seeking will confer a favor by requesting of us the information desired.



CALL 324 FOR REPRESENTATION IN THIS COLUMN

ACCOUNTANTS.

JAMES S. MATTESON,
Certified Public Accountant
(Minnesota and Wisconsin).
700-701 Alworth Building.
Special or periodical audits and investigations. Commercial, mining and municipal accounting systems installed or revised.
Organized permanent staff contains four men licensed by the state of Minnesota as certified public accountants, insuring the highest grade SERVICE to all clients.
Bank references. Charges reasonable. Telephones: Melrose 4700; Grand 71.

—JOHN E. MACGREGOR—
Public Accountant and Auditor,
601 Sellwood Building. Melrose 679.

DAVID QUAIL & COMPANY,
Chartered Accountants,
Certified Public Accountants,
401 Torrey Building, Duluth.
Highest references. Inquiries invited.

AWNINGS, TENTS, PACKSACKS.

Poirier Tent & Awning Co., 413 E. Sup. Both phones. Horse and wagon covers.

AWNINGS—Duluth Tent & Awning Co., 1608 W. Superior St. Lincoln 36.

ASHES, CINDERS, ETC., REMOVED

Ashes, cinders and manure removed. Merrill. Mel. 1390; Grand 1488-X.

CARDS! CARDS! CARDS!

Business Cards, 300, $1; Calling Cards, 100, 39c. Kask Printing, 114 E. Sup. St.

CAMERAS AND KODAKS.

—ARCADE CAMERA SHOP—
119 West Superior street. Amateur finishing, kodaks and camera supplies.

CARPET CLEANING WORKS.

INTERSTATE CARPET CLEANING CO. 1908 West Michigan St. Both phones.

CHIMNEY SWEEP.

ED McCARTY, CHIMNEY SWEEP AND furnace cleaning. Call Lakeside 46-L.

KNUDSEN, chimney sweep and furnace cleaner. Mel. 46. Fire headquarters.

DANCING ACADEMY.

RYAN'S—The school that makes good dancers. Classes: Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays. Call Mel. 4618.

COFFIN'S ACADEMY—Classes Monday, Tuesday and Thursday. Either phone.

FURS REMODELED, REPAIRED.

HAVE YOUR FUR WORK DONE AT Wm. F. Bordasch, 417 Second Ave. E. Phones: Melrose 2236; Grand 199.

FRENCH DRY CLEANERS.

PHONE 1245 AND OUR AUTO WILL call. Prompt attention to out-of-town orders. East End Dry Cleaners.

FURNITURE RE-COVERED.

Let Forsell do your UPHOLSTERING. 334 E. Superior street. Both phones.

FLORIST AND NURSERYMAN.

Duluth Floral Co., wholesale, retail; cut flowers, funeral designs. 121 W. Sup.

FUNERAL DIRECTOR.

OLSEN & HOPPENYAN, 2014 W. Sup. St.; Lincoln 10; Melrose 7620.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

A. Haakonsen, dealer and expert repairing, at J. W. Nelson's, 5 East Superior street.

Pianos, violins, victorias, sheet music, etc. Boston Music company.

OPTOMETRIST AND OPTICIAN.

CONSULT A. L. NORBERG, OPTOMETrist and optician, 201½ West First street, for economical buying and correct fitting of glasses; satisfaction guaranteed. We grind our own lenses. Established in business 1891 Registered by examination 1901.

PIANOS REPAIRED AND TUNED.

—THE PIANO SHOP—
Tuning, finishing and repairing. Gregory & Kristensen, 1805 W. Superior St. Melrose 5621; Lincoln 295-X.

DULUTH PIANO REPAIR FACTORY, alley entrance, 812½ W. 1st. Mel. 464.

PATENTS.

All about Patents; consultation free. S. Geo. Stevens, 716 Fidelity. Mel. 3126.

PLUMBING.

THE SANITARY PLUMBING CO., 34 W. First St., plumbing and heating.

WINDOW CLEANING.

National Window Cleaning Co., expert in cleaning woodwork, wall paper, marble, etc. Our work must prove satisfactory, prices reasonable. Mel. 680.

TYPEWRITERS.

SLIGHTLY USED UNDERWOODS, Olivers, Smiths, Remingtons and Royals, $15 up. Rented $2 a month; three months' rental applied on the purchase. Send for list. Duluth Typewriter Co., 319 W. First street.

WANTED TO BORROW.

WANTED TO BORROW—$1,400 FOR five years at 6 per cent on new, modern, six-room dwelling; lot 31½ by 132, well located; will pay all expenses but no commission. Write F 722, Herald.

FOR SALE—GOOD FIRST MORTgages in sums of $300, $500, $1,000 and other sums. Western Realty Co., 1922 West Superior street.

JEWELRY REPAIRED.

Have Lange do your repairing right. Cash for old gold. 12 Lake Ave. N.

RAILROAD TIME TABLES.

Duluth & Iron Range Rail Road.
"Vermilion Route."

DULUTH—	Leave.	Arrive.
Knife River, Two Harbors, Tower, Ely, Winton, Aurora, Biwabik, McKinley Sparta, Eveleth, Gilbert, Virginia.	*7:30a.m. †3:15p.m. ‡11:30p.m.	‡11:30a.m. *5:30p.m. §10:15p.m. x10:45p.m.

*—Daily. †—Daily except Sunday. ‡—Mixed train leaves daily from Fifteenth Avenue East Station. §—Mixed train arrives daily except Sunday at Fifteenth Avenue East Station. x—Arrives Union Depot Sunday only.

DULUTH, MISSABE & NORTHERN RAILWAY.
Office: 426 West Superior St., Phones, 969.

Leave.		Arrive.
*7:40am	Hibbing, Chisholm, Virginia, Eveleth, Coleraine, Sharon, †Mountain Iron, Sparta, Biwabik.	* 3:21pm
*3:30pm	Hibbing, Chisholm, Sharon, Virginia, Eveleth, Coleraine.	*10:31am
*7:30pm	Chisholm Hibbing.	*6:46pm

*—Daily. †—Daily except Sunday. ‡—Except Biwabik.

Cafe Observation Car, Missabe Range Points, Solid Vestibuled Train.

DULUTH & NORTHERN MINNESOTA RAILWAY.
Office, 910 Lonsdale Bldg., Duluth.

Trains connect at Knife River daily (except Sunday) with D. & I. R. trains leaving Duluth at 7:30 a. m., arriving at Duluth (Endion) at 10:15 p. m. Connect at Cramer with Grand Marais stage when running.

IF

YOU CANNOT COME TO THE OFFICE

TELEPHONE YOUR WANT ADS

—TO THE—

DULUTH HERALD

Both Phones 324

TELEPHONE WANT ADS—Are charged at the same rate as cash ads, and collections will be made at your home or office as soon as possible thereafter. This is an accommodation service, and payment should be made promptly when the bill is presented, so as to avoid further annoyance and to aid the efficiency of our service. Always ask that your telephone ad be repeated back to you by the telephone ad taker, to make sure that it has been correctly taken.

BLIND ADS—No answers to blind ads will be given unless ticket is presented at time of request. Always save ticket showing key number when placing blind ads. Herald employes are not permitted to tell who any advertiser is. Answers to out-of-town blind ads will be forwarded without extra cost.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—MACHINIST, ALL-AROUND machine man; one thoroughly acquainted with all branches of gas engine work; must be a hustler; will pay good wages if you can handle the job; must be strictly sober. Address James Di Onne, Ranier, Minn.

WANTED—MAN TO SELL REAL ESTATE; selling experience preferred, but not necessary. We have large holdings of sub-division and city property and offer good position to an active man. McMahon agency, U. S. National Bank building, Superior.

WANTED—YOUNG MAN, BE A BARBER. We teach you cheaply and thoroughly and furnish tools free. Write or call for free catalogue R. Modern Barber college, 203½ East Superior street, Duluth, or 333 East Seventh street, St. Paul, Minn.

WANTED — SOAP SALESMAN FOR the city of Duluth, on commission; must be energetic party with good record. Apply with references to the soap department, Monarch Oil company, limited, Fort Arthur, Ont.

LEARN TELEGRAPHY, RAILROAD, commercial, wireless; also touch typewriting; earn board while learning. Write for free catalog. American Telegraph college, Minneapolis, Minn.

WANTED — WOODSMEN FOR ALL kinds of woods work; also cordwood choppers and piece makers; there is very little snow down here. I. Stephenson Co., trustees, Wells, Mich.

WANTED — 500 HUNTERS TO KNOW we loan money on rifles, shotguns, revolvers; will hold till next season before sold. Keystone Loan company, 22 West Superior street.

WANTED—GOVERNMENT POSITIONS are easy to get. My free booklet B. Y. 302 tells how. Write today—Now. Earl Hopkins, Washington, D. C.

U. S. government wants clerks; $100 month; Duluth examinations April 12; sample questions free. Franklin Institute, Dept. 186 M, Rochester, N. Y.

WANTED—COMPETENT STAVE SAWYER at once. Write North Shore Cooperage company, Grand Marais, Minn.

WANTED — TWO GOOD PORTRAIT agents at once. Call at the Cody hotel, West Duluth, for Mr. Boehm.

WANTED — EXPERIENCED SALESman, Finnish preferred. Inquire Fifth Avenue Clothing company.

WANTED — TWO EXPERIENCED electricians. Call West Electric company, 27 Fifth avenue west.

WANTED—MACHINISTS AND MOLders. Apply Lake Shore Engine Works, Marquette, Mich.

WANTED—STAVE SAWYER; $3 A day and board. 503 West Michigan street.

WANTED—CASH PAID FOR diamonds. Watches repaired, $1. 5 S. 5th Av. W.

Wanted—Appearance counts; your suit pressed while U wait. ? Lyceum Bldg.

WANTED — ELEVATOR OPERATOR. Apply 31 West Superior street.

WANTED — PORTER. CODY HOTEL barber shop, West Duluth.

AUTOS & MOTORCYCLES.

98 PER CENT OF AUTO BUYERS READ THE DULUTH HERALD.

The names in which automobile licenses are issued have been checked with The Duluth's Herald subscription lists, and it was found that 98 out of every 100 people who buy cars read The Duluth Herald.

If you have a car for sale or trade, offer it in this automobile column and you will reach practically every one who will buy.

OXY-ACETYLENE WELDING, CUTting and carbon burning; all work guaranteed satisfactory or no charge. 99½ per cent pure oxygen for sale. Duluth Gas & Welding Co., 2110-2112 West Michigan St. Mel. 7064; Lin. 643.

AUTO CYLINDERS REBORED, NEW pistons and rings made; accurate workmanship; prices right. Zollner Machine works, 314-16 West First street, alley entrance. Melrose 80.

Tires lockstitched and double-treaded average 4,000 miles more wear out of them at small cost. Herian & Merling, 105 West First street. Mel. 4658.

FOR SALE CHEAP—1915 Saxon roadster; good running order, electric lights, self starter. Inquire Harry Merritt, 619 Providence building.

FOR SALE—1915 METZ TOURING car; electric lights and starter; one-man top, etc; good condition; $450. Address B 735, Herald.

Equip your car with V radiator and hood; allowance for old radiator. Johnson Auto Supply, 338 E. Superior

Eastern Auto Radiator works—Also all auto metal work done. 336 East Superior street. Phone Grand 2323.

YOUR CAR REPAIRED AT YOUR garage; A-1 mechanics. Harrison & Son, Mel. 6542; 2721 Huron street.

DRESSMAKING.

WANTED—PLAIN AND FANCY SEWing; also children's clothes, by the day. Melrose 4112.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED.

Experienced saleslady for wash goods department. Apply at

FREIMUTH'S.

LEARN TO CUT AND MAKE YOUR own waists and dresses. You can easily do it after taking the course in practical instruction. Make clothes while learning. Miss Gray's school, 3d floor, Geo. A. Gray Co. Also all sizes and styles of patterns cut to measure.

WANTED—LADIES TO SEW INSOLES; good pay weekly; no canvassing; goods cut ready for machine; transportation paid. Address with stamped envelope. No-ak Insoles, Danville, Ill.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework; three in family; good wages; must be good cook. Mrs. A. M. Washburn, 2419 East Fifth street.

WANTED—LADY AGENTS TO SELL meritorious article; salary and commission; excellent proposition for industrious lady. L 717, Herald.

WANTED—GIRL TO TAKE CARE OF baby 12 months old a few hours a day. Will pay good price. Call Melrose 8106 after 8 p. m.

WANTED—$5 PER WEEK FOR COMpetent girl for general housework. Apply 1614 East Third street. References required.

WANTED—GIRL FOR COOKING AND housework; family of four; no children. 4631 London road. Phone Lakeside 25-K.

WANTED—LADY TO TAKE CARE OF invalid; permanent position and good home. Call at 207 South Eighteenth avenue east.

WANTED—YOUNG GIRL TO ASSIST with housework; small apartment; small family. 1727 Jefferson street, apartment D.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework, one who can cook. Mrs. John Wertin, 1510 East Third street.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework; three in family; must be good plain cook. 2319 East First street.

WANTED—MEDIUM AGE WOMAN as housekeeper for widower out of more than wages. Write P 712, Herald.

WANTED—GOVERNMENT POSITIONS open to women; $75 month. Franklin Institute, dept. 645 M., Rochester, N.Y.

WANTED — A COMPETENT COOK; must furnish references. Mrs. A. B. Wolvin. 1103 East Superior street.

WANTED—STENOGRAPHER, WILLing to look after general insurance office details. Write C 738, Herald.

WANTED—GIRL FOR GENERAL housework; no washing or ironing. Call at 1320 East Second street.

WANTED—GIRL FOR HOUSEWORK; speaking Swedish or Finnish. 304 West Fourth street. A. Jarvin.

WANTED—GIRL FOR GENERAL housework, small family, good wages. Apply 1517 East Superior street.

WANTED — THOROUGHLY COMPEtent cook at once. Mrs. W. W. Walker, 2215 East First street.

WANTED—GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Mrs. H. J. Cross. 15 South Seventeenth avenue east.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. Mrs. Lucien Merritt, 4611 West Superior street.

WANTED — SCANDINAVIAN GIRL for boarding house work. 5 North Nineteenth avenue west.

WANTED — MIDDLE-AGED WOMAN to care for invalid lady. Write Nick Getter, Wadena, Minn.

WANTED — AN EXPERIENCED hairdresser; permanent position. Write Y 726, Herald.

WANTED — MAID FOR GENERAL housework; two in family. 2122 East Fourth street.

WANTED—TWO DINING ROOM GIRLS at Du Quesne hotel, Proctor, Minn. Phone No. 18.

WANTED—GIRL FOR GENERAL housework at once. Tremont hotel, West Duluth.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework; good wages. 2102 East Third street.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework. 721 East First street, flat 5.

WANTED — DISHWASHER, TOURIST hotel, 305 North Central avenue, West Duluth.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework, 5605 West Sixth street.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework. 1016 East First street.

WANTED — COMPETENT MAID FOR general housework. 1431 East Third street.

WANTED—COMPETENT GIRL FOR general housework. 826 East Second street.

WANTED—GIRL TO ASSIST WITH housework. 317 Fourteenth avenue east.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. 2701 West Huron street.

WANTED — GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. 617 Fourth avenue east.

WANTED—GIRL FOR GENERAL housework. 131 East Second street.

WANTED—A HOUSEMAID AT 418 East First street, flat A.

WANTED—GIRL. 1130 EAST THIRD street; apply forenoons.

WANTED — DINING ROOM GIRL. Palmer house.

WANTED — SECOND COOK. SIXTH Avenue hotel.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE

BUILDING LOTS.

Fine level lot, ½ block from car line at 35th ave. W.; 44 feet wide, sewer, water and gas in the street. Price $700.

100-foot corner, 41st ave. W. and 6th St., all improvements, cheap.

50-foot lot on 4th St. near 41st ave. W., $825.

WHEELER AGENCY,
Both phones.
619 Providence Bldg.

FOR SALE—LAKESIDE 50-FOOT LOT, block from car line; street graded, water, sewer, cement walk; bargain, $575; easy terms; worth $775. Write U 610, Herald.

FOR SALE—CORNER LOT AT LAKEside; one block from car line; water, sewer and gas in street; $325 for quick sale from owner. Write T 723, Herald.

FOR SALE — CITY PROPERTY, houses and lots; farms and timber land. O. G. Olson, 314 Columbia Bldg.

FLORIST.

Duluth Floral Co., wholesale, retail, cut flowers, funeral designs. 121 W. Sup.

HAVE YOU EGGS OR POULTRY FOR BREEDING PURPOSES FOR SALE?

Thousands of people in and around Duluth are interested in poultry raising, and will buy stock, eggs and baby chicks. Some one will sell to them. Why not you? The Herald reaches practically all of them. Offer in the "Herald Want ad" poultry columns what you have for sale and you will find a ready market.

CIRCULATION GREATEST — RATES LOWEST

The Duluth Herald has the greatest circulation of any newspaper in Duluth. Its rates for classified advertising are less per thousand circulation than those of any other paper in Minnesota. Best results are gained from ads when definite information is given. When information is lacking the presumption is that desirable features are lacking. For information as to contract rates and the probable amount of space your ad would take, ask for a "Want" ad man who will be pleased to give the desired information.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

WANTED TO BUY.

WANTED TO BUY.

We must have more suitable houses for sale. We cannot supply the demand. Prices range all the way from $4,000 for a comfortable 6-room house to $15,000 cash for a large home in the normal district.

If you have a good, fairly new home on a large lot in East end which you will sell at a fair price, see us quick.

LITTLE & NOLTE CO.,
Exchange Building.

WANTED TO BUY
AT ONCE

A modern home in East end. $6,000 to $8,000 cash. Must be a bargain. Call Mel. 2662.

I INTEND TO BUILD THIS SPRING.

Would like to hear from owner of good building lot; state lowest price, location and improvements; prefer property free of encumbrance. Address A 934, Herald.

—WANTED TO BUY—

We have a customer for a six-room house; must have water, sewer and gas; price about $2,500; will pay $1,000 cash.

Another customer for cheap flat building investment.

DECAIGNY & PAEPE,
509 Providence Bldg.

WANTED TO BUY—HEATERS AND ranges; we will pay good prices or exchange for new furniture. East End Furniture company, 120 East Superior street. Phone Grand 2013-X.

WANTED TO BUY—5,000 STANDARD tamarack ties, f. o. b. cars Superior; railroad inspection; for coal dock. Address P. R., care of Superior Telegram.

WANTED TO BUY—GOOD BUILDING lot or a modern house in West Duluth; state location, price and terms. Write Z 721, Herald.

WANTED TO BUY—WILL PAY CASH for cheap cut-over lands; St. Louis, Lake or Cook county. Address, Y 558, Herald office.

WANTED TO BUY—100 YOUNG PIGS and ten calves on or before April 1. James Leary, 342 Lake avenue south.

IS YOUR FARM FOR SALE? IF SO, see us. We have buyers. Cant & McLean, First National Bank Bldg.

WE PURCHASE REAL ESTATE CONtracts, mortgages and notes. Northern Equities Co., 612 1st Nat. Bank Bldg.

WILL BUY PARTIALLY IMPROVED farm. State price, location, etc., in first letter. Address A 927, Herald.

WANTED TO BUY — LARGE OR small tract of land for investment. Address I 69, Herald.

H. Popkin buys stoves and furniture. Grand 2337-A. Melrose 1482.

WANTED TO BUY—INVALID CHAIR. Call Cole 305-A.

POULTRY AND EGGS.

For Sale—High-class White Wyandotte, R. C. Black Minorca and White Leghorn cockerels; Orpington pullets. J. T. Michaud. Lakeside 298-D; Park 4. 298-D; Park 4.

Park & Pollard's poultry feeds are the best. Scratch feed, egg mash, growing feed, etc.; wheat, corn, etc. Get price list. Tessman Bros. Co., 26-40 E. Mich. St.

Everything for the poultryman. Send 6c in stamps for 80-page 50c book on poultry raising and remedies with catalog. J. W. Nelson, 5 E. Superior St.

WANTED TO RENT.

WANTED TO RENT—A QUIET ROOM by clean living young man, preferably in private family; centrally located. Write L 737, Herald.

WANTED TO RENT—A HOUSE OF eight or nine rooms, with modern conveniences and a good yard. Write U 728, Herald.

WANTED TO RENT—A BARN WITH some cows, in or near city. Write or call H. Sorenson, Hall hotel.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

ADDITIONAL WANTS ON PAGE 17

FOR RENT—ROOMS.

—THE NEW ALEXANDRIA—

A few desirable rooms now vacant at special winter rates; well-heated and comfortable apartments. Private telephone in every room. Dining room in connection. 322 W. Second St.

—METROPOLE HOTEL—

101-5 Lake avenue south; hot and cold running water in every room; steam heat and other modern conveniences; rates $2 per week and up.

—ELGIN HOTEL—

Nicely furnished, steam-heated rooms; best beds in the city; running water; very reasonable winter rates. 321 West First street.

MELROSE HOTEL,

318 West Second street, well-heated, pleasant rooms and board at special winter rates. Mel. 4301; Grand 2166-X.

The New Mitchell hotel—Rooms newly furnished and decorated; also suite of rooms; all conveniences; rates reasonable. 28 East Second St. Mel. 3357.

FOR RENT—MODERN FURNISHED room, with or without light housekeeping privileges; reasonable rates. 523 West Second street; Mel. 5485.

THE MARYLAND HOTEL, 310 EAST Superior street; steam-heated, modern rooms, $1.75 per week and up.

LA SALLE HOTEL—12-14 Lake Ave. north. Cozy, warm rooms with hot and cold water. Special low rates.

FOR RENT — DELIGHTFUL SUNNY room completely furnished for light housekeeping, $2.50 per week for one; $3 for two. Clean American who will be permanent. 113 Lake avenue north.

FOR RENT — STEAM-HEATED rooms; reasonable; suitable for small manufacturing, offices, work shop or storage. 313 West Superior street, second floor.

SINCE 1912 WE HAVE SAVED MONEY for hotels and rooming houses on their linens. We sell at wholesale. J. G. Valentine & Co., 8 E. First St.

FOR RENT—SUITE OF ROOMS FOR light housekeeping; also one furnished room with hot and cold water. 412 West Third street.

FOR RENT—WARM, FURNISHED room in private family; East end, walking distance; reference required. Melrose 5434.

FOR RENT—NEWLY FURNISHED room, all modern with hot and cold running water; steam heat. Call Grand 903.

FOR RENT — ONE OR TWO BEDrooms with kitchen, furnished for light housekeeping. 2609 West Huron street.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOMS ALso for light housekeeping; use of bath and phone. 1 West Superior street.

FOR RENT—NEATLY FURNISHED room, first floor; use of phone and piano; $2 per week. 440 Mesaba avenue.

FOR RENT—MODERN ROOMS FOR light housekeeping; hot water heat. 120 First avenue west.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOM, suitable for two gentlemen. 1615 Piedmont avenue.

FOR RENT — THREE FURNISHED rooms, $8 per month. 210 Third avenue east.

FOR RENT—FIVE ROOMS, GAS, WAter, sewer. 310 East Ninth street.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOMS. 113 Third avenue west.

PRIVATE HOSPITALS.

PRIVATE HOME BEFORE AND DURing confinements; good care by experienced nurse; infants cared for. Mrs. Finkle, 213 W. 3rd St. Mel. 2454.

PRIVATE HOME FOR WOMEN BEfore and during confinement; expert care; infants cared for. Ida Pearson, M. D., 284 Harrison avenue, St. Paul.

PRIVATE HOME BEFORE AND DURing confinement. K. Thorstenson, 1602 28th St., Superior Wis. Ogden 851-X.

Mrs. H. Olson, graduate midwife; private hospital and home. 329 N. 58th Ave. W. Phones, Cole 173; Cal. 270.

MRS HANSON, GRADUATE MIDwife; female complaints. 413 Seventh avenue east. Zenith 1225.

Mrs. A. Ferguson, graduate midwife, 917 East Tenth street. Grand 1976-Y.

UPHOLSTERING.

Furniture, Automobiles — Reasonable price. E. Ott, 414 1st Ave. W. Phones.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

FOR RENT—FLATS.

FOR RENT — IN THE BUFFALO apartments, on Ninth avenue east, we have two very desirable four-room and alcove steam-heated flats, which have recently been redecorated throughout and equipped with new hardwood floors, new light fixtures and new plumbing fixtures. For an appointment to see these desirable flats call the F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT — ON FIRST AVENUE west, between Superior and First street, a six-room flat which has hardwood floors, electric lights, gas and toilet; stove heat; these premises could be remodeled for a small shop and living rooms if desired. For further information call F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT—$15, A 3-ROOM FLAT IN brick building, No. 15½ West First street; water, sewer, gas, electric lights and toilet; stove heat; a bargain. F. I Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT — SEVEN-ROOM FLAT, 715 West Second street, heat and water furnished, $30.
WILLIAM C. SARGENT,
Providence Building.

FOR RENT—THREE-ROOM FLAT, $8; 4-room flat, $12.50; hardwood floors throughout, sewer, gas, water and electric lights; centrally located. Chas P. Meyers, 611 Alworth Bldg.

FOR RENT—FOUR-ROOM FLAT, NO. 1212 West Superior street; sewer, water, electric light; $12. Apply 300 First National Bank building.

FOR RENT—HEATED SEVEN-ROOM flat in Dacey apartments with water, heat and janitor service. Call Melrose or Grand 423.

FOR RENT—FOUR-ROOM FLAT, 219 East Fifth street, bath; $15 per month. William C. Sargent, Providence building.

FOR RENT—FOUR ROOMS AND alcove with bath, gas and electric light at 423 East Fifth street; $15 per month.

FOR RENT—FIVE-ROOM FURNISHED flat; heated, janitor service. 123 Tenth avenue east; Melrose 8051.

FOR RENT — SUNNY, FIVE-ROOM flat; modern except heat; nice location. 1111 East Second street.

FOR RENT—FIRST FLOOR, FOUR-room flat at 26 East Second street. Apply 5 East Superior street.

FOR RENT — SIX-ROOM MODERN flat; $30 per month. Apply 517 Fourth avenue east.

FOR RENT — FOUR-ROOM FLAT, all modern except heat. 331 West Fourth street.

FOR RENT — FURNISHED FOUR rooms, $17. 27 North Eighteenth avenue west.

FOR RENT—FIVE-ROOM HEATED flat. 1927 West Third street; Melrose 3358.

FOR RENT—CHEAP; MODERN FIVE-room basement. 706 East Fifth street.

FOR RENT—APRIL 1, MODERN FIVE-room flat. Call Melrose 3226.

FOR RENT—FIVE-ROOM FLAT, 519 East Fifth street.

FOR RENT—HOUSES.

—FOR RENT—

430 East Superior St., 7 rooms...$26.00
903 East Second St., 8 rooms..... 30.00
1214 East Third St., 6 rooms..... 35.00
1509 East Third St., 8 rooms..... 35.00
23 Mesaba Ave., 8 rooms..... 33.00

STRYKER, MANLEY & BUCK,
Main Floor, Torrey Bldg.
Phones 165.

FOR RENT — THE EASTERLY HALF of Munger residence; nine rooms, thoroughly modern and in first-class condition; this house has been recently redecorated throughout and should merit your early consideration; very reasonable rental. F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT—A MODERN, NINE-ROOM rooming house, corner of First avenue west and Second street; this house has been remodeled and redecorated throughout. For an appointment to see this house telephone the F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT — A THOROUGHLY MODern, nine-room dwelling at 716 East First street; hot water heating plant; newly decorated throughout and in first-class condition; reasonable rental. F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT—THREE-ROOM FLAT, $8; 4-room flat, $12.50; hardwood floors throughout, sewer, gas, water and electric lights; centrally located. Chas. P. Meyers, 611 Alworth Bldg.

FOR RENT — SIX-ROOM BRICK house, near Twelfth avenue east on Second street; strictly modern, occupancy at once. Phone Melrose 7552.

FOR RENT—SIX-ROOM HOUSE. 310 West Fifth street; modern except heat. Inquire rental department Bridgeman & Russell company.

FOR RENT — FIVE-ROOM HOUSE; modern except heat; Park Point. Inquire Edmont, 18 Third avenue west.

FOR RENT — NEWLY-FURNISHED six-room house, modern except heat. Write X 704, Herald.

FOR RENT—NOS. 1718 AND 1720 EAST Superior street. E. P. Alexander.

RENT—STORES, OFFICES.

CENTRALLY LOCATED

STORES FOR RENT.

N. J. UPHAM CO.,

714 PROVIDENCE BUILDING.

FOR RENT STORES.

At 318 West First street, most central and best business location on West First street; fine storeroom, 25 by 140, in strictly fireproof building, with lowest insurance rate in city; will decorate to suit; possession May 1. Call Grand or Melrose 225.
W. C. SHERWOOD & CO.,
118 Manhattan Building.

FOR RENT — AT 1619 WEST SUPErior street, a small, attractive store which has steel ceiling, hardwood floors, gas, electric lights and toilet and two goods display windows; only $22.50 per month. F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT — THREE STORES ON Eighteenth avenue west and Superior street. Rents $15.00, $20.00 and $25.00 per month.

BENJAMIN F. SCHWEIGER CO.,
1932 West Superior St.

FOR RENT — A THOROUGHLY MODern, steam-heated store at 4 West First street; size approximately 18 by 40 feet; two elegant display windows; very reasonable rental. F. I. Salter company, 303 Lonsdale building.

FOR RENT—TWO FRONT OFFICES. Christie building. Fireproof.

WALL PAPER.

Experienced and reliable paper-hanger will furnish new and up-to-date patterns and paper an ordinary-sized room for $4.50. Painting and tinting neatly done; prompt and satisfactory work guaranteed. Decorator, 31 W. Second St. Mel. 4303; Grand 596-X.

One Cent a Word Each Insertion. No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

SALE—MISCELLANEOUS

—SPECIAL LOW PRICES—
ON DINING ROOM TABLES.

All styles and finishes. $7.85 and upward.
Big selection to choose from.
ENGER & OLSON,
Nineteenth Ave. W. and Sup. St.

—NOTICE—

Will sell either to dealers on thirty days' time, or direct to retail trade on installment plan, or exchange for other useful merchandise, a number of used coal ranges, gas ranges and bench wringers; all these have been carefully rebuilt with new parts where necessary and are almost as good as new; we find that we are overstocked on same and are willing to sacrifice on price.
BELLMET INSTALLMENT CO.,
202 East Superior St.

—BREAK AWAY—

From the extravagant habit of paying rent on furniture. Furnish your own rooms now at our annual clearance sale. If you are married and living in a light housekeeping suite, you should investigate the big value we are offering in 3-room outfits at $69; terms $1.50 per week. F. S. Kelly Furniture Co., 17 and 19 West Superior street.

TALKING MACHINES — LARGEST stock in the city. Complete outfits at special prices. Be sure you get the New Columbia Grafonola; awarded three grand prizes and two gold medals at the world's fair; double-faced records 65 cents; ask for catalogues free; only exclusive talking machine store in Duluth, largest stock. Edmont, 18 Third avenue west.

SPEAKING OF USED PIANOS.
—SEE GILLIUSON—
He can show several good bargains right now; prices from $60 to $250, on terms.

RAUDENBUSCH & SONS PIANO CO.,
232 West First street.
S. E. Gilliuson, Manager.

WONDERFULLY BIG BARGAINS IN pianos. We are closing out entire stock to remodel the showrooms. $275 piano $125; $350 now $165; $750 player piano now $325; cash or on payments. Korby Piano Co., 26 Lake Av. N.

FOR SALE—AT BIG BARGAIN, THE new $375 piano I won in News Tribune contest. You can select player-piano or baby grand. Cash or terms. Call or write N. S. Mitchell, 102 Manhattan building, Duluth.

AT WHOLESALE TO HOTELS AND rooming houses, table linens, bedding, towels, crashes, curtains, etc. No extra charge for marking. Zenith Dry Goods Co., 126 East First street.

SAFES AND SAFE-CABINETS.
All sizes, new and second-hand, at reasonable prices. Get our list before buying. Safe-Cabinet company, 315 West First street. Melrose 1364.

FOR SALE—19-ROLLER KEY CLARinet, excellent condition, cost $48.50; will sell for $20, including case; can be seen at U. S. Army & Navy Goods store, 313 West Superior street.

FOR SALE—ONE TWO-DRAWER cash register, one No. 6 Remington typewriter and one Amberg's patent filing cabinet, cheap. 31 West Superior street.

FOR SALE — CAMERON FURNITURE Company will save you 50 per cent on quality furniture for the home. Salesrooms 2110-2112 West Superior street.

FOR SALE — WILL SACRIFICE MY new, latest, improved rotary, seven-drawer Singer sewing machine at $25. 1118 East Third street. Melrose 8038.

FOR SALE—Second-hand woodworking machinery, portable sawmill, transmission appliances, pipes for steam, water and furnaces. Duluth Mach. Co.

FOR SALE — DRY HARDWOOD, sawed or split and delivered. Grand 1576-D. James Leary, care of Gospel mission, Lake avenue south.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE OF FIVE-room flat, including fine player piano; parties leaving town. 1418 Jefferson street; Melrose 5107.

FOR SALE—13½-FOOT BOBSLED, oak sleds, pine plank, varnish finish, tool steel runners; $10; cost $35. Address R 734, Herald.

FOR SALE—SQUARE PIANO, FINE condition, cheap; leaving town; also library table, sewing machine, beds. 1115 East First street.

FOR SALE AT ONCE—TWO LATHES, one jeweler's lathe; also other tools and electro plating outfit. 328 West Third street.

FOR SALE — BEAUTIFUL CHINA closet; bargain if taken at once. 309 West Fourth street. Melrose 6507.

FOR SALE—SODA FOUNTAIN, MAhogany; must be sold at once. Jeronimous, druggist, 501 East Fourth St.

FOR SALE — CHEAP, HOUSEHOLD goods and furniture, including two gas plates. 226 Second avenue east.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE AND LEASE of twelve-room rooming house; all rooms occupied. Write G 733, Herald.

FOR SALE—COMPLETE BEDROOM outfit; good as new; will sell separately; bargain. Call Grand 1432-Y.

FOR SALE—PLAYER PIANO, WITH music, at a bargain; easy payments. Edmont, 18 Third avenue west.

FOR SALE—AT DISCOUNT, A NEW Macey fumed oak, three-section bookcase. Call Grand 2092-Y.

FOR SALE—GOOD BUILDING STONE. Apply First avenue east and First street. H. Fawcett.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE IN GOOD condition, will sell reasonable. 129 West Fourth street.

FOR SALE—EDISON PHONOGRAPH with 93 records and cabinet, cheap. Call Melrose 4642.

FOR SALE—BUCK'S RADIANT HEATer; good condition. 414 East Fifth street.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE, ODDS AND ends at half price. Boston Music Co.

FOR SALE—SOME NICE FURNITURE at a bargain. Call Melrose 8115.

FOR SALE—FURNITURE. 108 SOUTH Twenty-seventh avenue west.

FOR SALE COWS.

FOR SALE—A CARLOAD OF FRESH milch cows will arrive for Levine Bros., Tuesday, March 7, 821 Fourth avenue east. Grand 1268; Melrose 4702.

FOR SALE—A CARLOAD OF FRESH milch cows has just arrived for S. M. Kaner, 1217 East Seventh street. Both phones.

SUMMER RESORTS.

FOR SALE—LARGE CAMP SITES ON beautiful Lake Vermilion; sand bathing beaches, parks, docks, wells, etc.; monthly payments as low as $2, without interest; all sites sold on our "money back" guarantee. Gray-Wertin company, Alworth building.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

DULUTH LODGE NO. 566, LOYAL ORDER of Moose, meets every Tuesday at 8 o'clock, Moose hall, 224 West First street. Carl Schau, secretary, 14 Third avenue east.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

PALESTINE LODGE NO. 79, A. F. & A. M.—Regular meetings first and third Monday evenings of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting, special Wednesday, March 15, 1916. Work—Third degree. Clement G. Townsend, W. M.; James S. Mattison, Sec.

IONIC LODGE, NO. 186, A. F. & A. M.—Regular meeting second and fourth Monday evenings of each month at 7:30. Next meeting, March 13, 1916. Work — First degree. Degree conferred by high school teachers. William J. Works, W. M.; Burr Porter, secretary.

KEYSTONE CHAPTER NO. 20, R. A. M.—Stated convocations, second and fourth Wednesday evenings of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting March 8, 1916. Work—Royal Arch degree conferred by Past High Priests. Stanley L. Mack, H. P.; Alfred Le Richeux, secretary.

DULUTH COUNCIL NO. 6, R. & S. M.—Stated convocations, third Friday of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting, March 17, 1916. Work—Superexcellent degree. Maynard W. Turner, T. I. M.; Alfred Le Richeux, Secretary.

DULUTH COMMANDERY NO. 18, K. T.—Stated conventions, first Tuesday of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next conclave, March 7, 1916. Work—Annual meeting; election of officers. Arch, D. Macintyre, Com.; Alfred Le Richeux, recorder.

SCOTTISH RITE — REGULAR MEETINGS every Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Next meeting, March 2, 1916. Work—Twenty-first degree. Burr Porter, secretary.

ZENITH CHAPTER NO. 25, ORDER OF Eastern Star—Regular meetings second and fourth Friday evenings each month. Next meeting, Friday, March 10, 1916, at 7:30 o'clock. Work—Regular business, balleting and initiation. Eva M. Dunbar, W. M.; Ella F. Gearhart, Sec.

MIZPAH SHRINE NO. 1, ORDER OF THE White Shrine of Jerusalem—Regular meetings first Saturday evening of each month at 8 o'clock. Next meeting, March 4, 1916. Business and balleting. Gertrude Bates, W. H. P.; Etta Trevleanus, W. S.

EUCLID CHAPTER NO. 56, ORDER OF the Eastern Star—Meets at West Duluth Masonic temple the first and third Tuesdays of each month at 7:30 o'clock. Next meeting, March 7, 1916. Initiation. Flora Clark, W. M.; Mildred M. Kess, Sec.

EUCLID LODGE, NO. 198, A. F. & A. M.—Meets at West Duluth, second and fourth Wednesdays of each month at 7:30 p. m. Next meeting, March 8, 1916. Work—Third degree. R. W. Lahaeys, W. M.; A. Dunleavy, secretary.

DULUTH CHAPTER NO. 59, R. A. M.—Meets at West Duluth first and third Wednesdays of each month at 7:30 p. m. Next meeting, March 15, 1916. Work—R. A. M. degree conferred by Keystone chapter. W. A. Ihlenfeld, H. P.; A. Dunleavy, secretary.

LAKESIDE LODGE NO. 283, A. F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Mondays of each month at 8 o'clock at Masonic hall, Forty-fifth avenue east and Robinson street. Next meeting, March 13, 1916. Regular—Work, Third degree. William A. Ekeen, W. M.; George E. Nelson, secretary, 4530 Cooke street east.

TRINITY LODGE NO. 282, A. F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Mondays at 8 o'clock, in Woodman hall, Twenty-first avenue west. Next meeting, regular, March 6, 1916. Work—Third degree. E. H. Pfeifer, W. M., 1918 West Third street; R. E. Wheeler, secretary, 2022 West Superior street.

A. O. U. W.

FIDELITY LODGE NO 105—MEETS AT Maccabee hall, 21 Lake avenue north, every Thursday at 8 p. m. Visiting members welcome. E. A. Vest, M. W.; E. A. Lubarsky, recorder; O. J. Murvold, financier, 217 East Fifth street. Stag party, March 9.

A. O. U. W.—DULUTH LODGE NO. 10—Meets every second and fourth Tuesday nights at Axa hall, 221 West Superior street. Next meeting, March 14, 1916, at 8 p. m., initiation. Marvin E. Heller, M. W.; R. G. Foote, recorder; E. F. Heller, financier, 509 Second avenue east.

ZENITH COUNCIL NO. 161, ROYAL League, meets the first and third Thursdays in the month, at 8 o'clock, in the old Masonic temple, Superior street and Second avenue east. O. S. Kempton, archon, Wolvin building; H. A. Hall, collector, 18 East First street.

DULUTH LODGE NO. 28, I. O. O. F.—Next meeting, Friday evening, March 10, 1916, at 7:30 o'clock, 221 West Superior street, third floor. Work—First degree will be conferred. Odd Fellows welcome. Charles F. Ottinger, N. G.; W. J. McDonald, Rec. Sec.

K. OF P.

NORTH STAR LODGE NO. 25, K. OF P.—Meets every Tuesday, 7:30 p. m., sixth floor, Temple building, Superior street and Second avenue east. Next meeting, March 7, 1916. Work—First rank. James A. Wharton, C. C., 502 Alworth building; B. A. Rowe, M. of F., 206 First National bank; B. A. Bishop, K. of R. and S., 505 Palladio building.

ZENITH CAMP NO. 5, WOODMEN OF the World, meets on first and third Friday nights of month, at Foresters' hall, Fourth avenue west and First street. J. B. Larkin, clerk, 312 Sixtieth avenue east. Lakeside 23-K.

MAJESTIC REBEKAH LODGE NO. 60, I. O. O. F.—Regular meetings first and third Thursdays of each month, 8 p. m., 221 West Superior street, third floor. Next meeting, March 2, 1916. Feb. 28, drill practice. Mrs. Henrietta Shaw, N. G.; Lillian Johnson, secretary, Grand 2113-Y.

DULUTH HOMESTEAD NO. 3131, BROTHerhood of American Yeomen, meets every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock sharp, in Maccabee hall, 21 Lake avenue north. Herbert F. Hanks, foreman; J. J. Palmer, correspondent, office in his drug store, 2122 West Third street, Melrose 3769; Lincoln 511-Y.

M. W. A.

IMPERIAL CAMP, 2206 — MEETS AT Forester hall, Fourth avenue west and First street, second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. Wayne E. Richardson, consul; Robert Rankin, clerk, care Rankin Printing company.

CLAN STEWART NO. 50, O. S. C.—Meets first and third Wednesdays each month, 8 p. m., I. O. F. hall, corner Fourth avenue west and First street. Next regular meeting, March 15, 1916. D. A. Cameron, chief; John Gow, Sec., John Burnett, Fin. Sec., 313 Torrey building.

MODERN SAMARITANS.

ALPHA COUNCIL NO. 1—TAKE NOTICE: That the Samaritan degree meets the first and third Wednesdays, and the Beneficent degree the second and fourth Wednesdays of the month, at 12 East Superior street, Empress theater building. W. B. Henderson, G. S.; John F. Davis, scribe; F. A. Noble, F. S., 201 First